1 John

1 We tell you now about something that has existed (lived) since before the world began:
   This we heard,
   we saw with our own eyes,
   we watched,
   we touched with our hands.

We write to you about the Word (Christ) that gives life. 2 That Life was shown to us. We saw it. We can give proof about it. Now we tell you about that Life. It is Life that continues forever. This is the Life that was with God the Father. God showed this Life to us. 3 Now we tell you the things that we have seen and heard. Why? Because we want you to have fellowship* together with us. The fellowship we share together is with God the Father and his Son Jesus Christ. 4 We write these things to you so that you can be full of joy with us.

God Forgives Our Sins

5 We heard the true teaching from God. Now we tell it to you: God is light* (goodness). In God there is no darkness (sin). 6 So if we say that we have fellowship* with God, but we continue living in darkness (sin), then we are liars—we don’t follow the truth. 7 God is in the light (goodness). We should live in the light, too. If we live in the light, then we share fellowship with each other. And when we live in the light, the blood (death) of Jesus cleanses us from all sin. (Jesus is God’s Son.)

8 If we say that we have no sin, we are fooling ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

But if we confess (admit) our sins, then God will forgive our sins. We can trust God to do this. God does what is right. God will make us clean from all the wrong things we have done.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, then we are saying that God is a liar—we don’t accept God’s true teaching.

Jesus Is Our Helper

2 My dear children, I write this letter to you so that you will not sin. But if any person sins, we have Jesus Christ to help us. He is the righteous (good) One. Jesus defends us before God the Father. 2 Jesus is the way our sins are taken away. And Jesus is the way that all people can have their sins taken away, too.

3 If we obey what God has told us to do, then we are sure that we truly know God. 4 A person says, “I know God!” But if that person does not obey God’s commands, then that person is a liar. The truth is not in him. 5 But when a person obeys God’s teaching, then God’s love has truly arrived at its goal in that person. This is how we know that we are following God: 6 If a person says that he lives in God, then he must live like Jesus lived.

Jesus Told Us to Love Other People

7 My dear friends, I am not writing a new command to you. It is the same command you have had since the beginning. This command is the teaching you have already heard. 8 But also I write this command to you as a new command. This command is true; you can see its truth in Jesus and in yourselves. The darkness (sin) is passing away and the true light is already shining.

9 A person says, “I am in the light.” But if that person hates his brother or sister Christ, then he is still in the darkness (sin).

10 The person that loves his brothers and sisters lives in the light, and there is nothing in that person that will make him do wrong. 11 But the person who hates his brother or sister is in darkness. He lives in darkness. That person does not know where he is going. Why? Because the darkness has made him blind.

12 I write to you, dear children, because your sins are forgiven through Christ.

13 I write to you, fathers, because you know the One who existed (lived) from the beginning.

14 I write to you, children, because you know the Father.

Don’t love this evil world or the things in it. If a person loves the world, the love of the Father (God) is not in that person. 16 These are the evil things in the world:

Wanting things to please our sinful selves,
Wanting the sinful things we see,
Being too proud of the things we have.

But none of those things come from the Father (God). All of those things come from the world. 17 The world is passing away. And all the things that people want in the world are passing away. But the person who does what God wants lives forever.

Don’t Follow the Enemies of Christ

18 My dear children, the end is near! You have heard that the Enemy of Christ is coming. And now many enemies of Christ are already here. So we know that the end is near. 19 Those enemies of Christ were in our group.

But they left us. They did not really belong with us. If they were really part of our group, then they would have stayed with us. But they left. This shows that none of them really belonged with us.

20 You have the gift that the Holy One (God or Christ) gave you. So you all know the truth. 21 Why do I write to you? Do I write because you don’t know the truth? No! I write this letter because you do know the truth. And you know that no lie comes from the truth.

22 So who is the liar? It is the person that says Jesus is not the Christ. A person that says Jesus is not the Christ is the enemy of Christ. That person does not believe in the Father (God) or in his Son (Christ). 23 If a person does not believe in the Son, then he does not have the Father. But the person who accepts the Son has the Father, too.

24 Be sure that you continue to follow the teaching that you heard from the beginning. If you continue in that teaching, then you will stay in the Son (Christ) and in the Father (God). 25 And this is what the Son promised to us—life forever.

26 I am writing this letter about those people who are trying to lead you into the wrong way.

27 Christ gave you a special gift. You still have this gift in you. So you don’t need any person to teach you. The gift he gave you teaches you about everything. This gift is true. It is not false. So continue to live in Christ, like his gift taught you.

28 Yes, my dear children, live in him. If we do this, we can be without fear (have confidence) on the day when Christ comes back. We will not need to hide and be ashamed when he comes.

29 You know that Christ is righteous (good). So you know that all people who do what is right (good) are God’s children.

We Are God’s Children

30 The Father (God) has loved us so much! This shows how much he loved us: We are called children of God. And we really are God’s children. But the people in the world (people who don’t believe) don’t understand that we are God’s children, because they have not known him (God). 2Dear friends, now we are children of God. We have not yet been shown what we will be in the future. But we know that when Christ comes again, we will be like him. We will see him like he really is. 3Christ is pure. And every person who has this hope in Christ keeps himself pure like Christ.

Christ The “anointed one” (Messiah) or chosen one of God.
1 John 3:2–4:1

4When a person sins, he breaks God’s law. Yes, sinning is the same as living against God’s law. 5You know that Christ came to take away people’s sins. There is no sin in Christ. 6So the person who lives in Christ does not continue to sin. If a person continues to sin, he has never really understood Christ and has never known Christ.

7Dear children, don’t let any person lead you into the wrong way. Christ is righteous (good). To be good like Christ, a person must do what is right (good). 8The devil has been sinning since the beginning. The person who continues to sin belongs to the devil. The Son of God (Christ) came for this: to destroy the devil’s work.

9When God makes a person his child, that person does not continue to sin. Why? Because the new life God gave that person stays in him. So that person is not able to continue sinning. Why? Because he has become a child of God. And the person who does not love his brothers and sisters in Christ is not a child of God.

We Must Love One Another

11This is the teaching you have heard from the beginning: We must love each other. 12Don’t be like Cain.* Cain belonged to the Evil One (the devil). Cain killed his brother Abel.* But why did Cain kill his brother? Because the things Cain did were evil, and the things his brother Abel did were good.

13Brothers and sisters, don’t be surprised when the people of this world hate you. 14We know that we have left death (sin) and have come into life. We know this because we love our brothers and sisters in Christ. The person who does not love is still in death. 15Every person who hates his brother or sister is a murderer.* And you know that no murderer has eternal life in him. 16This is how we know what real love is: Jesus gave his life for us. So we should give our lives for our brothers and sisters in Christ. 17Suppose a believer is rich enough to have all the things he needs. He sees his brother in Christ, who is poor and does not have the things he needs. What if the believer who has things does not help the poor brother? Then the believer who has the things he needs does not have God’s love in his heart. 18My children, our love should not be only words and talk. No! Our love must be true love. We should show our love by the things we do.

19–20That is the way we know that we belong to the way of truth. And when our hearts make us feel guilty, we can still have peace before God. Why? Because God is greater than our heart (conscience). God knows everything.

21My dear friends, if we don’t feel that we are doing wrong, then we can be without fear (have confidence) when we come to God. 22And God gives us the things we ask for. We receive these things because we obey God’s commands and we do the things that please God. 23This is what God commands: that we believe in his Son Jesus Christ and that we love each other. This is what he commanded.

John Warns Against False Teachers

4My dear friends, many false prophets* are in the world now. So don’t believe every spirit. But test the spirits to see if they are from Every person ... murderer If a person hates his brother in Christ, then in his mind he has killed his brother. Jesus taught his followers about this sin. Read Mt. 5:21–26.

Spirit, Holy Spirit Also called the Spirit of God, the Spirit of Christ, and the Comforter. Joined with God and Christ, he does God’s work among people in the world.

false prophets People who say they speak for God but do not really speak God’s truth.

the new life God gave that person Literally, “his seed.”

Cain, Abel Sons of Adam and Eve. Cain was jealous of Abel and killed him. Read Gen. 4:1–16.
1 John 4:2–5:7

God. 2 This is how you can know God’s Spirit. One spirit says, “I believe that Jesus is the Christ who came to earth and became a man.” That Spirit is from God. 3 Another spirit refuses to say this about Jesus. That spirit is not from God. This is the spirit of the Enemy of Christ. You have heard that the Enemy of Christ is coming. And now the Enemy of Christ is already in the world.

4 My dear children, you belong to God. So you have defeated them (the false teachers). Why? Because the One (God) who is in you is greater than the one (the devil) who is in the people of the world. 5 And those people (the false teachers) belong to the world. So the things they say are from the world, too. And the world listens to what they say. 6 But we are from God. So the people who know God listen to us. But the people who are not from God don’t listen to us. That is how we know the Spirit that is true and the spirit that is false.

Love Comes from God

7 Dear friends, we should love each other, because love comes from God. The person who loves has become God’s child. And so the person who loves knows God. 8 The person that does not love does not know God, because God is love. 9 This is how God showed his love to us: God sent his only Son into the world to give us life through him. 10 True love is God’s love for us, not our love for God. God sent his Son to be the way that God takes away our sins.

11 That is how much God loved us, dear friends! So we also must love each other. 12 No person has ever seen God. But if we love each other, then God lives in us. If we love each other, then God’s love has reached its goal—it is made perfect in us.

13 We know that we live in God and God lives in us. We know this because God gave us his Spirit. 14 We have seen that the Father sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. That is what we tell people now. 15 If a person says, “I believe that Jesus is the Son of God,” then God lives in that person. And that person lives in God. 16 And so we know the love that God has for us. And we trust that love.

God is love. The person who lives in love lives in God. And God lives in that person. 17 If God’s love is made perfect in us, then we can be without fear on the day when God judges us. We will be without fear, because in this world we are like him (Christ or God). 18 Where God’s love is, there is no fear. Why? Because God’s perfect love takes away fear. It is God’s punishment that makes a person fear. So God’s love is not made perfect in the person who has fear.

19 We love because God first loved us. 20 If a person says, “I love God,” but that person hates his brother or sister in Christ, then that person is a liar. That person can see his brother, but he hates him. So that person cannot love God, because he has never seen God! 21 And he (God) gave us this command: The person who loves God must also love his brothers and sisters in Christ.

God’s Children Win Against the World

5 The people who believe that Jesus is the Christ are God’s children. The person who loves the Father (God) also loves the Father’s children. 2 How do we know that we love God’s children? We know because we love God and we obey his commands. 3 Loving God means obeying his commands. And God’s commands are not too hard for us. 4 Why? Because every person that is a child of God has the power to win against the world.

5 It is our faith that has won the victory against the world. So who is the person that wins against the world? Only the person who believes that Jesus is the Son of God.

God Told Us About His Son

6 Jesus Christ is the One who came. Jesus came with water and with blood. Jesus did not come by water only. No, Jesus came by both water and blood. And the Spirit tells us that this is true. The Spirit is the truth. 7 So there are three witnesses that tell us about Jesus: the Spirit, the water, and the blood. These three witnesses agree. We believe people when they say something is true. But what God says is more important. And this is what God told us: He told us the truth about his own Son. The person who believes in the Son of God has the truth that God told us. The person who does not believe God makes God a liar. Why? Because that person does not believe what God told us about his Son. This is what God told us: God has given us eternal life. And this eternal life is in his Son (Jesus).

The person who has the Son has true life. But the person who does not have the Son of God does not have life.

We Have Eternal Life Now

I write this letter to you people who believe in the Son of God. I write so that you will know that you have eternal life now. We can come to God with no doubts. This means that when we ask God for things (and those things agree with what God wants for us), then God cares about what we say. God listens to us every time we ask him. So we know that he gives us the things that we ask from him.

Suppose a person sees his brother or sister in Christ sinning (sin that does not lead to eternal death). That person should pray for his brother or sister who is sinning. Then God will give the brother or sister life. I am talking about people whose sin does not lead to eternal death. There is sin that leads to death. I don’t mean that a person should pray about that sin. Doing wrong is always sin. But there is sin that does not lead to eternal death.

We know that any person who has been made God’s child does not continue to sin. The Son of God keeps God’s child safe. The Evil One (the devil) cannot hurt that person. We know that we belong to God. But the Evil One (the devil) controls the whole world. And we know that the Son of God has come. The Son of God has given us understanding. Now we can know God. God is the One who is true. And we live in that true God. We are in his Son, Jesus Christ. He is the true God, and he is eternal life. So, dear children, keep yourselves away from false gods.

The Son ... safe Literally, “The one who was born from God keeps him safe” or “… keeps himself safe.”
