Luke Writes Another Book

Dear Theophilus, The first book I wrote was about everything that Jesus did and taught. I wrote about the whole life of Jesus, from the beginning until the day he was carried up into heaven. Before this happened, Jesus talked to the apostles he had chosen. With the help of the Holy Spirit, Jesus told the apostles what they should do. This was after Jesus' death, but he showed the apostles that he was alive. Jesus proved this by doing many powerful things. The apostles saw Jesus many times during the 40 days after he was raised from death. Jesus spoke to the apostles about the kingdom of God. One time when Jesus was eating with them, he told them not to leave Jerusalem. Jesus said, “The Father has promised you something; I told you about it before. Wait here in Jerusalem to receive this promise. John baptized people with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.”

Jesus Is Carried Up into Heaven

The apostles were all together. They asked Jesus, “Lord, is this the time for you to give the Jews their kingdom again?”

Jesus said to them, “The Father is the only One who has the authority to decide dates and times. You cannot know these things. But the Holy Spirit will come to you. Then you will receive power. You will be my witnesses— you will tell people about me. First, you will tell people in Jerusalem. Then you will tell people in all of Judea, in Samaria, and in every part of the world.”

After Jesus told the apostles these things, he was lifted up into the sky. While the apostles were watching, Jesus went into a cloud, and they could not see him. Jesus was going away, and the apostles were looking into the sky. Suddenly, two men (angels) wearing white clothes stood beside them. The two men said to the apostles, “Men from Galilee, why are you standing here looking into the sky? You saw Jesus carried away from you into heaven. He will come back in the same way you saw him go.”

A New Apostle Is Chosen

Then the apostles went back to Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives. (This mountain is about one-half mile from Jerusalem.) The apostles entered the city. They went to the place where they were staying; this was in a room upstairs. The apostles were: Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James (the son of Alphaeus), Simon (known as the Zealot*), and Judas (the son of James).

The apostles were all together. They were constantly praying with the same purpose. Some women, Mary, the mother of Jesus, and his brothers were there with the apostles.

After a few days there was a meeting of the believers. (There were about 120 of them.) Peter stood up and said, “Brothers, in the Scriptures the Holy Spirit said through...”

David* that something must happen. He was talking about Judas, one of our own group. Judas served together with us. The Spirit*, said that Judas would lead men to arrest Jesus.”

18(Judas was paid money for doing this. His money was used to buy him a field. But Judas fell on his head, and his body broke open. All his intestines poured out. 19And all the people of Jerusalem learned about this. That is why they named that field Akeldama. In their language Akeldama means “field of blood.”) 20Peter said, “In the book of Psalms, this is written about Judas:

‘People should not go near his land (property);
   No one should live there!’
Psalm 69:25

And it is also written:

‘Let another man have his work.’
Psalm 109:8

21–22“So now another man must join us and become a witness of Jesus’ resurrection.* This man must be one of those men who were part of our group during all the time when the Lord Jesus was with us. This man must have been with us from the time John began to baptize* people until the day when Jesus was carried up from us into heaven.”

23The apostles* put two men before the group. One was Joseph Barsabbas. He was also called Justus. The other man was Matthias. 24–25The apostles prayed, “Lord, you know the minds of all people. Show us which one of these two men you choose to do this work. Judas turned away from it and went where he belongs. Lord, show us which man should take his place as an apostle!” 26Then the apostles used lots* to choose one of the two men. The lots showed that Matthias was the one that the Lord wanted. So he became an apostle with the other eleven.

The Coming of the Holy Spirit

2When the day of Pentecost* came, they were all together in one place. 2Suddenly a noise came from the sky. It sounded like a strong wind blowing. This noise filled the whole house where they were sitting. 3They saw something that looked like flames of fire. The flames were separated and stood over each person there. 4They were all filled with the Holy Spirit,* and they began to speak different languages. The Holy Spirit was giving them the power to do this.

5There were some Jewish men that truly worshiped God in Jerusalem at this time. These men were from every country in the world. 6A large group of these men came together because they heard the noise. They were surprised because the apostles* were speaking, and every man heard in his own language. 7The Jews were all amazed at this. They did not understand how the apostles could do this. They said, “Look! These men (the apostles) that we hear speaking are all from Galilee!* 8But we hear them in our own languages. How is this possible? We are from different places: 9Parthia, Media, Elam, Mesopotamia, Judea, Cappadocia, Pontus, Asia,* 10Phrygia, Pamphylia, Egypt, the areas of Libya near the city of Cyrene, Rome, 11Crete and Arabia. Some of us were born Jews. Others are converts.* We are from these different countries. But we can hear these men in our own languages! We can all understand the great things they are saying about God.” 12The people were all amazed and confused. They asked each other, “What is happening?” 13Other people were laughing at the apostles. These people thought the apostles were drunk from too much wine.

Peter Speaks to the People

14Then Peter stood up with the other eleven apostles.* He spoke loudly so that all the people could hear. He said, “My Jewish brothers and all of you who live in Jerusalem, listen to me. I will tell you something you need to know. Listen carefully. 15 These men are not drunk like you think; it is only nine o’clock in the morning! 16 But Joel the prophet* wrote about the things you see happening here today. This is what Joel wrote:

17 ‘God says:
In the last days,
I will pour out (give) my Spirit* on all people.
Your sons and daughters will prophesy.*
Your young men will see visions.*
Your old men will have special dreams.

18 At that time,
I will pour out (give) my Spirit* on my servants, men and women, and they will prophesy.*

19 I will show amazing things in the sky above.
I will give proofs on the earth below.
There will be blood, fire, and thick smoke.

20 The sun will be changed into darkness, and the moon will become red like blood.
Then the great and glorious day of the Lord will come.

21 And every person who trusts in the Lord will be saved.’  Joel 2:28–32

22 “My Jewish brothers, listen to these words: Jesus from Nazareth was a very special man. God clearly showed this to you. God proved this by the powerful and amazing things he did through Jesus. You all saw these things. So you know this is true. 23 Jesus was given to you, and you killed him. With the help of bad men you nailed Jesus to a cross.

But God knew all this would happen. This was God’s plan. God made this plan long ago. 24 Jesus suffered the pain of death, but God made him free. God raised Jesus from death. Death could not hold Jesus. 25 David* said this about Jesus:

‘I saw the Lord before me always; he is at my right side to keep me safe.
So my heart is happy, and the words I speak are words of joy.
Yes, even my body will live with hope, because you will not leave me in the place of death.*
You will not let the body of your Holy One rot in the grave.

28 You taught me how to live.
You will come close to me and give me great joy.’

Psalm 16:8–11

29 “My brothers, I can tell you truly about David,* our ancestor. He died and was buried. His grave is still here with us today. 30 David was a prophet* and knew something God said. God promised David that he would make a person from David’s family to be a king like David.* 31 David knew this before it happened. That is why David said this about that person:

‘He was not left in the place of death.* His body did not rot in the grave.’

David was talking about the Christ* rising from death. 32 So Jesus is the One God raised from death, not David! We are all witnesses of this. We saw him! 33 Jesus was lifted up to heaven. Now Jesus is with God, at God’s right side. The Father (God) has now given the Holy Spirit* to Jesus. The Holy Spirit is what God promised to give. So now Jesus is pouring out (giving) that Spirit. This is what you see and hear. 34 David* was not the one who was lifted up to heaven. It was Jesus who was lifted up to heaven, David himself said:

Peter Heals a Crippled Man

3One day Peter and John went to the temple* area. It was three o’clock in the afternoon. This was the time for the daily temple prayer service. 2When they were going into the temple yard, a man was there. This man had been crippled all his life. He could not walk, so some friends carried him. His friends brought him to the temple every day. They put the crippled man by one of the gates outside the temple. It was called Beautiful Gate. There the man begged for money from the people going to the temple. 3That day the man saw Peter and John going into the temple yard. He asked them for money. 4Peter and John looked at the crippled man and said, “Look at us!” 5The man looked at them; he thought they would give him some money. 6But Peter said, “I don’t have any silver or gold, but I do have something else I can give you: By the power of Jesus Christ from Nazareth—stand up and walk!” 7Then Peter held the man’s right hand and lifted him up. Immediately the man’s feet and legs became strong. 8The man jumped up, stood on his feet, and began to walk. He went into the temple yard with them. The man was walking and jumping, and he was praising God. 9–10All the people recognized him. The people knew he was the crippled man who always sat by Beautiful Gate to beg for money. Now they saw this same man walking and praising God. The people were amazed. They could not understand how this could happen.

Peter Speaks to the People

11The man was holding on to Peter and John. All the people were amazed, because the man was healed. They ran to Peter and John at ate Literally, “broke bread.” This may mean a meal or the Lord’s Supper, the special meal Jesus told his followers to eat to remember him. Read Lk. 22:14–20.

When Peter saw this, he said to the people, “My Jewish brothers, why are you surprised at this? You are looking at us like it was our power that made this man walk. Do you think this was done because we are good? 11No! God did it! He is the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. He is the God of all our fathers. He gave glory to Jesus, his special servant. But you gave Jesus to be killed. Pilate decided to let Jesus go free. But you told Pilate you did not want Jesus. 14Jesus was pure and good (innocent), but you said you did not want him. You told Pilate to give you a murderer instead of Jesus. 15And so you killed the One that gives life! But God raised him from death. We are witnesses of this—we saw this with our own eyes. 16It was the power of Jesus that made this crippled man well. This happened because we trusted in the power of Jesus. You can see this man, and you know him. He was made completely well because of trust in Jesus. You all saw it happen!

17“My brothers, I know you did those things to Jesus because you did not understand what you were doing. Your leaders also did not understand. 18God said that these things would happen. God said through the prophets that his Christ would suffer and die. I have told you how God made this happen. 19So you must change your hearts and lives! Come back to God and he will forgive your sins. 20Then the Lord (God) will give you times of spiritual rest. He will give you Jesus, the One he chose to be the Christ. 21But Jesus must stay in heaven until the time when all things will be made right again. God told about this time when he spoke long ago through his holy prophets. 22Moses said, ‘The Lord your God will give you a prophet. That prophet will come from among your own people (the Jews). He will be like me. You must obey everything that prophet tells you. 23And if any person refuses to obey that prophet, then that person will die, separated from God’s people.’ 24Samuel, and all the other prophets who spoke for God after Samuel, talked about this time now. 25You have received the things the prophets talked about. You have received the agreement that God made with your fathers. God said to your father Abraham, ‘Every nation on earth will be blessed through your descendants.’ 26God has sent his special servant (Jesus). God sent him to you first. God sent Jesus to bless you. He does this by making each of you turn away from doing bad things.”

Peter and John Before the Jewish Council

While Peter and John were speaking to the people, some men came to them. There were some Jewish priests, the captain of the soldiers that guarded the temple, and some Sadducees. They were upset because of what Peter and John were teaching the people. By telling people about Jesus, the two apostles were teaching that people will rise from death.

The Jewish leaders grabbed Peter and John and put them in jail. It was already night, so they kept Peter and John in jail until the next day. But many of the people that heard Peter and John believed the things they said. There were now about 5,000 men in the group of believers.

The next day the Jewish leaders, the older Jewish leaders, and the teachers of the law met in Jerusalem. Annas (the high priest), Caiaphas, John, and Alexander were there. Everyone from the high priest’s family was there. They made Peter and John stand before all the people there. The Jewish leaders asked them many times, “How did you make this crippled man well? What power did you use? With whose authority did you do this?”

8Then Peter was filled with the Holy Spirit. He said to them, “Leaders of the people and you older leaders: 9Are you questioning us today about the good thing that was done to this crippled man? Are you asking us what made him well? 10We want all of you and all the Jewish people to know that this man was made well by the power of Jesus Christ from Nazareth! You nailed Jesus to a cross. God raised him from death. This man was crippled, but he is now well. He is able to stand here before you because of the power of Jesus! 11Jesus is ‘the stone’ that you builders thought was not important. But this stone has become the cornerstone." Psalm 118:22

12Jesus is the only One who can save people. His name is the only power in the world that has been given to save people. We must be saved through Jesus!”

13The Jewish leaders understood that Peter and John had no special training or education. But the leaders also saw that Peter and John were not afraid to speak. So the leaders were amazed. Then they realized that Peter and John had been with Jesus. 14They saw the crippled man standing there beside the two apostles. They saw that the man was healed. So they could say nothing against the apostles. 15The Jewish leaders told them to leave the meeting. Then the leaders talked to each other about what they should do. 16They said, “What shall we do with these men (the apostles)? Every person in Jerusalem knows that they have done a great miracle." This is clear. We cannot say it is not true. 17But we must make them afraid to talk to people about this man

Peter and John Return to the Believers

23Peter and John left the meeting of Jewish leaders and went to their own group. They told the group everything that the leading priests and the older Jewish leaders had said to them.

24When the believers heard this, they all prayed to God. They all wanted the same thing. They prayed, “Master, you are the One who made the sky, the earth, the sea, and everything in the world. 25Our ancestor David was your servant. With the help of the Holy Spirit he wrote these words:

‘Why are the nations shouting? Why are the people of the world planning things against God? It is hopeless! 26The kings of the earth prepare themselves to fight, and the rulers all come together against the Lord (God) and against his Christ.” Psalm 2:1–2

27These things really happened when Herod,* Pontius Pilate, the nations, and the Jewish people all ‘came together’ against Jesus here in Jerusalem. Jesus is your holy Servant. He is the One you (God) made to be the Christ.*

They are trying to make us afraid! Lord, we are your servants. Help us to speak the things you want us to say without fear. Help us to be brave by showing us your power: make sick people well, give proofs, and make miracles happen by the power of Jesus, your holy servant.”

After the believers prayed, the place where they were meeting shook. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they continued to speak God’s message without fear.

The Believers Share

The group of believers were all the same in their thinking and in what they wanted. No person in the group said that the things he had were his own. Instead, they shared everything. With great power the apostles told the people that the Lord Jesus was truly raised from death. And God blessed all the believers very much. They all received the things they needed. Everyone that owned fields (land) or houses sold them for money. They brought the money and gave it to the apostles. Then each person was given the things he needed.

One of the believers was named Joseph. The apostles called him Barnabas. (This name means “A person that helps others.”) He was a Levite born in Cyprus. Joseph owned a field. He sold the field, brought the money, and gave it to the apostles.

Ananias and Sapphira

There was a man named Ananias. His wife’s name was Sapphira. Ananias sold some land that he had. But he gave only part of the money to the apostles. He secretly kept some of the money for himself. His wife knew this, and she agreed with it. Peter said, “Ananias, why did you let Satan (the devil) rule your heart? You lied and tried to deceive (fool) the Holy Spirit. You sold your field, but why did you keep part of the money for yourself? Before you sold the field, it belonged to you. And even after you sold it, you could have used the money any way you wanted. Why did you think of doing this bad thing? You lied to God, not to us men!” When Ananias heard this, he fell down and died. Some young men came and wrapped his body. They carried it out and buried it. And every person that heard about this was filled with fear.

About three hours later his wife (Sapphira) came in. Sapphira did not know about this thing that had happened to her husband. Peter said to her, “Tell me how much money you got for your field. Was it this much (the amount Ananias had said)?” Sapphira answered, “Yes, that was all we got for the field.”

Peter said to her, “Why did you and your husband agree to test the Spirit of the Lord? Listen! Do you hear those footsteps? The men that buried your husband are at the door! They will carry you out in the same way.” At that moment Sapphira fell down by his feet and died. The young men came in and saw that she was dead. The men carried her out and buried her beside her husband. All the believers and all the other people that heard about these things were filled with fear.

Proofs from God

The apostles did many miracles and powerful things. All the people saw these things. The apostles were together in Solomon’s Porch; they all had the same purpose. None of the other people felt worthy to stand with them. All the people were saying good things about the apostles. And more and more people believed in the Lord (Jesus)—many men and women were added to the group of believers. So the people brought their sick people into the streets. The people heard that Peter was coming by. So the people put their sick on little beds and mattresses. They thought that if the sick people could be close enough for Peter’s shadow to touch them, it would be enough to heal them.

16 People came from all the towns around Jerusalem. They brought their sick people and those that were bothered by evil spirits from the devil. All of these people were healed.

The soldiers brought the apostles* to the meeting and made them stand before the Jewish leaders. The high priest* questioned the apostles. 28 He said, “We told you never to teach about this man (Jesus)! But look what you have done! You have filled Jerusalem with your teaching. You are trying to make us responsible (guilty) for the death of this man (Jesus).”

29 Peter and the other apostles* answered, “We must obey God, not you! 30 You killed Jesus. You hung him on a cross. But God, the same God our fathers* had, raised Jesus up from death! 31 Jesus is the One that God raised to his right side. God made Jesus our Leader and Savior. God did this so that all Jews can change their hearts and lives. Then God can forgive their sins. 32 We saw all these things happen, and we can say these things are true. The Holy Spirit* also shows that these things are true. God has given the Spirit to all people that obey him.”

33 The Jewish leaders heard these words. They became very angry. They began to plan a way to kill the apostles. 8 34 One of the Pharisees* in the meeting stood up. His name was Gamaliel. He was a teacher of the law, and all the people respected him. He told the men to make the apostles leave the meeting for a few minutes. 35 Then he said to them, “Men of Israel, be careful of what you are planning to do to these men! 36 Remember when Theudas appeared? He said that he was an important man. About 400 men joined him. But he was killed. And all who followed him were scattered and ran away. They were able to do nothing. 37 Later, a man named Judas came from Galilee. It was at the time of the registration.* He led a group of followers, too. He was also killed. And all his followers were scattered and ran away. 38 And so now I tell you: Stay away from these men. Leave them

The Jewish Leaders Try to Stop the Apostles

177 The high priest* and all his friends (a group called the Sadducees*) became very jealous. 18 They grabbed the apostles* and put them in jail. 19 But during the night, an angel of the Lord opened the doors of the jail. The angel led the apostles outside and said, 20 “Go and stand in the temple* yard. Tell the people everything about this new life in Jesus.” 21 When the apostles heard this, they obeyed and went to the temple area. It was early in the morning. The apostles began to teach the people.

The high priest* and his friends came to the temple*. They called a meeting of the Jewish leaders and all the important older men of the Jews. They sent some men to the jail to bring the apostles* to them. 22 When the men went to the jail, they could not find the apostles there. So they went back and told the Jewish leaders about this. 23 The men said, “The jail was closed and locked. The guards were standing at the doors. But when we opened the doors, the jail was empty!” 24 The captain of the temple guards and the leading priests heard this. They were confused. They wondered, “What will happen because of this?” 25 Then another man came and told them, “Listen! The men you put in jail are standing in the temple yard. They are teaching the people!” 26 Then the captain and his men went out and brought the apostles back. But the soldiers did not use force, because they were afraid of the people. The soldiers were afraid that the people would become angry and kill them (the soldiers) with rocks.

alone. If their plan comes from men, it will fail. 38But if this is from God, then you will not be able to stop them. You might even be fighting against God himself!”

The Jewish leaders agreed with the thing that Gamaliel said. 39They called the apostles in again. They beat the apostles and told them not to talk to people about Jesus again. Then they let the apostles go free. 40The apostles left the meeting. The apostles were happy because they were given the honor of suffering dishonor (shame) for the name of Jesus. 41They did this every day in the temple yard and in people’s homes.

Seven Men Chosen for a Special Work

More and more people were becoming followers of Jesus. But during this same time, the Greek-speaking followers had an argument with the other Jewish followers. They said that their widows were not getting their share of the things that the followers received every day. 2The twelve apostles called the whole group of followers together. The apostles said to them, “Our work of teaching God’s word has stopped. That’s not good! It is better for us to continue teaching God’s word than to help people have something to eat. 3So, brothers and sisters, choose seven of your own men. They must be men that people say are good. They must be full of wisdom and full of the Spirit. We will give them this work to do. 4Then we can use all our time to pray and to teach the word of God.”

5The whole group liked the idea. So they chose these seven men: Stephen (a man with great faith and full of the Holy Spirit), Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus (a man from Antioch, who had become a Jew). 6Then they put these men before the apostles. The apostles prayed and put their hands on the men.

7The word of God was reaching more and more people. The group of followers in Jerusalem became larger and larger. Even a big group of Jewish priests believed and obeyed.

Some Jews Against Stephen

8Stephen (one of the seven men) received a great blessing. God gave Stephen power to do miracles and to show proofs from God to the people. 9But some Jews came and argued with Stephen. These Jews were from a synagogue. It was called a synagogue for Libertines. (This synagogue was also for Jews from Cyrene, and for Jews from Alexandria.) Jews from Cilicia and Asia were with them. They all came and argued with Stephen. 10But the Spirit was helping Stephen speak with wisdom. His words were so strong that the Jews could not argue with him. 11So the Jews paid some men to say, “We heard Stephen say bad things against Moses and against God!” 12By doing this, these Jews upset the people, the older Jewish leaders, and the teachers of the law. They became so angry that they came and grabbed Stephen. They took him to a meeting of the Jewish leaders. 13The Jews brought some men into the meeting. They told these men to tell lies about Stephen. The men said, “This man (Stephen) always says bad things about this holy place (the temple). And he always says bad things against the law of Moses. 14We heard him say that Jesus from Nazareth will destroy this place. He also said that Jesus will change the things that Moses told us to do.” 15All the people sitting in the meeting watched Stephen closely. His face looked like the face of an angel, and they saw it.

Stephen’s Speech

7 The high priest* said to Stephen, “Are these things true?”

2Stephen answered, “My Jewish fathers and brothers, listen to me. Our glorious God appeared to Abraham, our ancestor. Abraham was in Mesopotamia. This was before he lived in Haran.

3God said to Abraham, ‘Leave your country and your people, and go to the country I will show you.’

4So Abraham left the country of Chaldea.* He went to live in Haran. After Abraham’s father died, God sent him to this place here, where you live now.

5But God did not give Abraham any of this land. God did not give him even a foot of it. But God promised that in the future he would give Abraham this land for himself and for his children. (This was before Abraham had any children.)

6This is what God said to him: ‘Your descendants* will live in another country. They will be strangers. The people there will make them slaves and do bad things to them for 400 years.

7But I will punish the nation that made them slaves.* And God also said, ‘After those things happen, your people will come out of that country. Then your people will worship me here in this place.’

8God made an agreement with Abraham; the sign for this agreement was circumcision.* And so when Abraham had a son, he circumcised his son when he was eight days old. His son’s name was Isaac. Isaac also circumcised his son Jacob. And Jacob did the same for his sons. These sons later became the twelve fathers.*

9“These fathers* became jealous of Joseph (their younger brother). They sold Joseph to be a slave in Egypt. But God was with Joseph.

10Joseph had many troubles there, but God saved him from all those troubles. Pharaoh was the king of Egypt. He liked Joseph and respected him because of the wisdom that God gave Joseph. Pharaoh gave Joseph the job of being a governor of Egypt. He even let Joseph rule over all the people in Pharaoh’s house.

11But all the land of Egypt and of Canaan became dry. It became so dry that food could not grow there. This made the people suffer very much. Our fathers could not find anything to eat.

12But Jacob heard that there was food stored in Egypt. So he sent our fathers* there. (This was their first trip to Egypt.)

13Then they went there a second time. This time, Joseph told his brothers who he was. And Pharaoh learned about Joseph’s family.

14Then Joseph sent some men to invite Jacob, his father, to come to Egypt. He also invited all his relatives (75 persons altogether).

15So Jacob went down to Egypt. Jacob and our fathers lived there until they died.

16Later their bodies were moved to Shechem. They were put in a grave there. (It was the same grave that Abraham had bought in Shechem from the sons of Hamor. He paid them with silver.)

17“The number of Israelites* in Egypt grew. There were more and more of our people there. (The promise that God made to Abraham was soon to come true.)

18Then a different king began to rule Egypt. He knew nothing about Joseph.

19This king tricked (deceived) our people. He was bad to our ancestors. The king made them put their children outside to die.

20This was the time when Moses was born. He was a very fine child. For three months they took care of Moses in his father’s house.

21When they put Moses outside, Pharaoh’s daughter took him. She raised him like he was her own son.

22The Egyptians taught Moses about all the things they knew. He was powerful in the things he said and did.

23“When Moses was about 40 years old, he thought it would be good to visit his brothers,
Moses saw an Egyptian man doing wrong to an Israelite man. So he defended the Israelite. Moses punished the Egyptian for hurting the Israelite; Moses hit him so hard that he died. Moses thought that his Israelite brothers would understand that God was using him to save them. But they did not understand. The next day, Moses saw two Jewish men fighting. He tried to make peace between them. He said, ‘Men, you are brothers! Why are you doing wrong to each other?’ The man who was doing wrong to the other man pushed Moses away. He said to Moses, ‘Did anyone say you could be our ruler and judge? No!’ Will you kill me like you killed the Egyptian man yesterday?*

When Moses heard him say this, he left Egypt. He went to live in the land of Midian. He was a stranger there. While Moses lived in Midian, he had two sons.

After 40 years Moses was in the desert near Mount Sinai. An angel appeared to him in the flame of a burning bush. When Moses saw this, he was amazed. He went near to look closer at it. Moses heard a voice; it was the Lord’s (God’s). The Lord said, ‘I am the same God your ancestors had—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’ Moses began to shake with fear. He was afraid to look at the bush. The Lord said to him, ‘Take off your shoes, because the place where you are now standing is holy ground. I have seen my people suffer much in Egypt. I have heard my people crying. I have come down to save them. Come now, Moses, I am sending you back to Egypt.’

This Moses was the same man the Israelites* said they did not want. They had said to him, ‘Did anyone say you could be our ruler and judge?’ No!’ Moses is the same man that God sent to be a ruler and savior. God sent Moses with the help of an angel. This was the angel Moses saw in the burning bush. So Moses led the people out. He did powerful things and miracles.* Moses did these things in Egypt, at the Red Sea, and then in the desert for 40 years. This is the same Moses that said these words to the Jewish people: ‘God will give you a prophet.* That prophet will come from among your own people. He will be like me.’* This is the same Moses who was with the gathering of God’s people in the desert. He was with the angel that spoke to him at Mount Sinai, and he was with our ancestors. Moses received commands from God that give life. Moses gave us those commands.

But our ancestors did not want to obey Moses. They rejected him. They wanted to go back to Egypt again. They said to Aaron, ‘Moses led us out of the country of Egypt. But we don’t know what has happened to him. So make some gods to go before us and lead us.’* So the people made an idol that looked like a calf. Then they brought sacrifices (gifts) to it. The people were very happy with what they had made with their own hands! But God turned against them. God finished trying to stop them from worshiping the army of false gods in the sky. This is what is written in the book of the prophets*: God says,

‘You Jewish people did not bring me blood offerings and sacrifices* in the desert for 40 years;

You carried with you the tent (place of worship) for Moloch (a false god) and the image of the star of your god Rephan.

These were the idols you made to worship. So I will send you away beyond Babylon.’

Amos 5:25–27

44 "The Holy Tent* was with our ancestors in the desert. God told Moses how to make this tent. He made it like the plan that God showed him. 45 Later, Joshua led our ancestors to capture the lands of the other nations. Our people went in and God made the other people go out. When our people went into this new land, they took with them this same tent. Our people received this tent from their fathers, and our people kept it until the time of David. 46 God was very pleased with David. David asked God to let him build a house (temple*) for him, the God of Jacob. 47 But Solomon (David’s son) was the person who built the temple. 48 "But the Most High (God) does not live in houses that men build with their hands. This is what the prophet* writes:

49 ‘The Lord says,
Heaven is my throne.
The earth is a place to rest my feet.
What kind of house can you build for me?
There is no place where I need to rest!
Remember, I made all these things!’"
Isaiah 66:1–2

51 Then Stephen said, “You stubborn Jewish leaders! You have not given your hearts to God! You won’t listen to him! You are always against what the Holy Spirit* is trying to tell you. Your ancestors did this, and you are just like them! 52 Your ancestors persecuted* every prophet* that ever lived. Those prophets said long ago that the Righteous One (Christ*) would come. But your ancestors killed those prophets. And now you have turned against the Righteous One and killed him. 53 You are the people that received the law {of Moses}. God gave you this law through his angels. But you don’t obey this law!”

54 The Jewish leaders heard Stephen say these things. They became very angry. The Jewish leaders were so mad that they were grinding their teeth at Stephen. 55 But Stephen was full of the Holy Spirit.* Stephen looked up into the sky. He saw the Glory of God. He saw Jesus standing at God’s right side. 56 Stephen said, “Look! I see heaven open. And I see the Son of Man* standing at God’s right side!”

57 Then the Jewish leaders all shouted with a loud voice. They closed (covered) their ears with their hands. They all ran at Stephen together. 58 They took him out of the city and threw rocks at him until he was dead. The men who told lies against Stephen gave their coats to a young man named Saul. 59 Then they threw rocks at Stephen. But Stephen was praying. He said, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!” 60 He fell on his knees and shouted, “Lord, don’t blame them for this sin!” After Stephen said this, he died.

8 Saul agreed that the killing of Stephen was a good thing.

Trouble for the Believers

2–3 Some men that truly worshiped God buried Stephen. They cried very loudly for him. On that day the Jews began to persecute* the group of believers in Jerusalem. The Jews made them suffer very much. Saul was also trying to destroy the group. Saul went into their houses. He dragged out men and women and put them in jail. All the believers left Jerusalem. Only the apostles* stayed. The believers went to different places in Judea and Samaria. 4 The believers were scattered everywhere. Every place the believers went they told people the Good News.*

Philip Tells the Good News in Samaria hearing Philip and saw the miracles* he was doing. They all listened carefully to the things Philip said. 7Many of these people had evil spirits , from the devil, inside them. But Philip made the evil spirits leave them. The spirits made a loud noise when they came out. There were also many weak and crippled people there. Philip made these people well, too. 8The people were also many weak and crippled people there. They made a loud noise when they came out. There Philip himself was a great man. 10All the people—the people of Samaria. Simon boasted and called himself a great man. Before Philip came there, Simon used his power to do magic and he amazed all the city. 12But Philip told the people the Good News* about the kingdom of God and the power of Jesus Christ. Men and women believed Philip. They were baptized.* 13Simon himself also believed and was baptized. Simon stayed very close to Philip. He saw the miracles* and the very powerful things that Philip did. Simon was amazed. 14The apostles* were still in Jerusalem. They heard that the people of Samaria had accepted the word of God. So the apostles sent Peter and John to the people in Samaria. 15When Peter and John arrived, they prayed for the Samaritan believers to receive the Holy Spirit.* 16These people had been baptized* in the name of the Lord Jesus. But the Holy Spirit had not yet come down on any of them. This is why Peter and John prayed. 17The two apostles* put their hands on* the people. Then the people received the Holy Spirit.

Philip Teaches a Man from Ethiopia

26An angel of the Lord spoke to Philip.* The angel said, “Get ready and go south. Go to the road that leads down to Gaza from Jerusalem—the road that goes through the desert.” 27So Philip got ready and went. On the road he saw a man from Ethiopia. This man was a eunuch.* He was an important person in the service of Candace, the queen of the Ethiopians. He was responsible for taking care of all her money. This man had gone to Jerusalem to worship. 28Now he was on his way home. He was sitting in his chariot* and reading from the book of Isaiah, the prophet.* 29The Spirit* said to Philip, “Go to that chariot and stay near it.” 30So Philip went toward the chariot, and he heard the man reading. He was reading from Isaiah, the prophet. Philip said to him, “Do you understand what you are reading?”

32The part of Scripture* that he was reading was this:

“He was like a sheep when it is taken to be killed.
He was like a lamb that makes no sound when someone cuts off its wool.
He said nothing.
33 He was shamed, and all his rights were taken away.
His life on earth was ended.
There will be no story about his family (descendants).”

Isaiah 53:7–8

34The officer said to Philip, “Please, tell me, who is the prophet* talking about? Is he talking about himself or about someone else?”
35Philip began to speak. He started with this same Scripture and told the man the Good News* about Jesus.

36While they were traveling down the road, they came to some water. The officer said, “Look! Here is water! What is stopping me from being baptized*?”
37* 38Then the officer commanded the chariot to stop. Both Philip and the officer went down into the water, and Philip baptized him.
39When they came up out of the water, the Spirit* of the Lord took Philip away; the officer never saw him again. The officer continued on his way home. He was very happy.40But Philip appeared in a city called Azotus. He was going to the city of Caesarea. He told people the Good News* in all the towns on the way from Azotus to Caesarea.

things this man did to your holy people in Jerusalem. 14Now he (Saul) has come here to Damascus. The leading priests have given him the power to arrest all people that believe in you."

15But the Lord (Jesus) said to Ananias, “Go! I have chosen Saul for an important work. He must tell about me to kings, to the Jewish people, and to other nations. I will show Saul the things he must suffer for my name.”

16So Ananias left and went to the house of Judas. He put his hands on Saul and said, “Saul, my brother, the Lord Jesus sent me. He is the One you saw on the road when you came here. Jesus sent me so that you can see again and so that you can be filled with the Holy Spirit."

18Immediately, something that looked like fish scales fell off Saul’s eyes. Saul was able to see again! Saul got up and was baptized.

Saul Begins to Tell About Jesus

Saul stayed with the followers of Jesus in Damascus for a few days. Soon he began to go to the synagogues and tell people about Jesus. He told the people, “Jesus is the Son of God!”

21All the people that heard Saul were amazed. They said, “This is the same man that was in Jerusalem. He was trying to destroy the people that trust in this name (Jesus)! He has come here to do the same thing. He came here to arrest the followers of Jesus and take them back to Jerusalem to the leading priests.”

But Saul became more and more powerful. He proved that Jesus is the Christ. His proofs were so strong that the Jews who lived in Damascus could not argue with him.

Saul Escapes from Some Jews

23After many days, some Jews made plans to kill Saul. 24The Jews were watching the city gates day and night, waiting for Saul. They wanted to kill him. But Saul learned about their plan. 25One night some followers that Saul had taught helped him leave the city. The followers put Saul in a basket. They put the basket through a hole in the city wall and lowered him down.

Saul in Jerusalem

26Then Saul went to Jerusalem. He tried to join the group of followers (believers), but they were all afraid of him. They did not believe that Saul was really a follower of Jesus. 27But Barnabas accepted Saul and brought him to the apostles. Barnabas told the apostles that Saul had seen the Lord (Jesus) on the road to Damascus. Barnabas explained to the apostles how the Lord had spoken to Saul. Then he told the apostles that Saul spoke for the Lord (Jesus) without fear to the people in Damascus.

And so Saul stayed with the followers. He went everywhere in Jerusalem, speaking for the Lord (Jesus) without fear. 29Saul often talked with the Jews that spoke Greek. He had arguments with them. But they were trying to kill him. 30When the brothers (believers) learned about this, they took Saul to the city of Caesarea. From Caesarea they sent Saul to the city of Tarsus.

The church (believers) everywhere in Judea, Galilee, and Samaria had a time of peace. With the help of the Holy Spirit, the group became stronger. The believers showed that they respected the Lord by the way they lived. Because of this, the group of believers grew larger and larger.

Peter in Lydda and Joppa

32Peter traveled through all the towns around Jerusalem. He visited the believers who lived in Lydda. 33In Lydda he met a paralyzed (crippled) man named Aeneas. Aeneas had not been able to leave his bed for the past eight years. 34Peter said to him,
ACTS 9:35–10:19

“Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Stand up and make your bed! You can do this for yourself now!” Aeneas stood up immediately. 35 All the people living in Lydda and on the plain of Sharon saw him. These people turned to (believed in) the Lord Jesus.

36 In the city of Joppa there was a follower of Jesus named Tabitha. (Her Greek name, Dorcas, means “a deer.”) She always did good things for people. She always gave money to people that needed it. 37 While Peter was in Lydda, Tabitha became sick and died. They washed her body and put it in a room upstairs.

38 The followers in Joppa heard that Peter was in Lydda. (Lydda is near Joppa.) So they sent two men to Peter. They begged him, “Hurry, please come quickly!” 39 Peter got ready and went with them. When he arrived, they took him to the room upstairs. All the widows* stood around Peter. They were crying. They showed Peter the coats and other clothes that Dorcas (Tabitha) had made when she was still alive. 40 Peter sent all the people out of the room. He kneeled and prayed. Then he turned to Tabitha’s body and said, “Tabitha, stand up!” She opened her eyes. When she saw Peter, she sat up. 41 He gave her his hand and helped her stand up. Then he called the believers* and the widows into the room. He showed them Tabitha; she was alive! 42 People everywhere in Joppa learned about this. Many of these people believed in the Lord (Jesus). 43 Peter stayed in Joppa for many days. He stayed with a man named Simon who was a leatherworker.*

Peter and Cornelius

10 In the city of Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius. He was an army officer* in the “Italian” group of the Roman army. 2 Cornelius was a good (religious) man. He and all the other people that lived in his home worshiped the true God. He gave much of his money to help the Jewish poor people. Cornelius prayed to God always.

“God has heard your prayers. He has seen the things you give to the poor people. God remembers you. 5 Send some men now to the city of Joppa. Send your men to bring back a man named Simon. Simon is also called Peter. 6 Simon is staying with a man, also named Simon, who is a leatherworker.* He has a house beside the sea.” 7 The angel who spoke to Cornelius left. Then Cornelius called two of his servants and a soldier. This soldier was a good (religious) man. The soldier was one of Cornelius’ close helpers. 8 Cornelius explained everything to these three men. Then he sent them to Joppa.

9 The next day these men came near Joppa. At that time, Peter was going up to the roof to pray. It was about noon. 10 Peter was hungry. He wanted to eat. But while they were preparing the food for Peter to eat, a vision* came to him. 11 He saw something coming down through the open sky. It looked like a big sheet coming down to the ground. It was being lowered to the ground by its four corners. 12 Every kind of animal was in it—animals that walk, animals that crawl on the ground, and birds that fly in the air. 13 Then a voice said to Peter, “Get up, Peter; kill any of these animals and eat it.”

14 But Peter said, “I would never do that, Lord! I have never eaten food that is unholy or not pure.”

15 But the voice said to him again, “God has made these things clean (pure). Don’t call them ‘unholy’!” 16 This happened three times. Then the whole thing was taken back up into the sky. 17 Peter wondered what this vision* meant.

The men that Cornelius sent had found Simon’s house. They were standing at the door. 18 They asked, “Is Simon Peter staying here?” 19 Peter was still thinking about the vision.* But the Spirit* said to him, “Listen! Three men are looking for you. 20 Get up and go downstairs. Go with these men and don’t ask questions. I have sent them to you.” 21 So Peter went downstairs to the men. He said, “I am the man you are looking for. Why did you come here?”

22 The men said, “A holy angel told Cornelius to invite you to his house. Cornelius is an army officer. He is a good man; he worships God. All the Jewish people respect him. The angel told Cornelius to invite you to his house so that he can listen to the things you have to say.” 23 Peter asked the men to come in and stay for the night.

The next day Peter got ready and went away with the three men. Some of the brothers from Joppa went with Peter. 24 The next day they came into the city of Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them. He had already gathered his relatives and close friends at his house. 25 When Peter entered the house, Cornelius met him. Cornelius fell down at Peter’s feet and worshiped him. 26 But Peter told him to get up. Peter said, “Stand up! I am only a man like you.” 27 Peter continued talking with Cornelius. Then Peter went inside and saw a large group of people together there. 28 Peter said to the people, “You people understand that it is against our Jewish law for a Jew to associate with or visit any person who is not a Jew. But God has shown me that I should not call any person ‘unholy’ or ‘not clean.’ 29 That is why I did not argue when the men asked me to come here. Now, please tell me why you sent for me.”

30 Cornelius said, “Four days ago, I was praying in my house. It was at this same time—three o’clock in the afternoon. Suddenly, there was a man (angel) standing before me. He was wearing bright, shiny clothes. 31 The man said, ‘Cornelius! God has heard your prayer. God has seen the things you give to the poor people. God remembers you. 32 So send some men to the city of Joppa. Ask Simon Peter to come. Peter is staying in the house of a man, also named Simon, who is a leatherworker. His house is beside the sea.’ 33 We saw all the things that Jesus did in Judea and in Jerusalem. We are witnesses. But Jesus was killed. They put him on a cross made of wood. 34 But, on the third day (after his death), God raised Jesus to life! God let people see Jesus clearly. 35 But Jesus was not seen by all the people. Only the witnesses that God had already chosen saw him. We are those witnesses! We ate and drank with Jesus after he was raised from death. 36 Jesus told us to go and speak to the people. He told us to tell them that he is the One that God chose to be the Judge of all people that are living and all people that have died. 37 Every person who believes (trusts) in Jesus will be forgiven. God will forgive the sins of that person through the name of Jesus. All the prophets say this is true.”

The Holy Spirit Comes to Non-Jews

While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit came down on all those people who were listening to his speech. The Jewish believers who came with Peter were amazed. They were amazed that the Holy Spirit was poured out (given) to the non-Jewish people too. These Jewish believers heard them speaking different languages and praising God. Then Peter said, "We cannot refuse to allow these people to be baptized in water. They have received the Holy Spirit the same as we did!" So Peter commanded that Cornelius and his relatives and friends be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then the people asked Peter to stay with them for a few days.

Peter Returns to Jerusalem

The apostles and the brothers in Judea heard that non-Jewish people had accepted God's teaching too. But when Peter came to Jerusalem, some Jewish believers argued with him. They said, "You went into the homes of people that are not Jews and are not circumcised! You even ate with them!"

"So Peter explained the whole story to them. Peter said, "I was in the city of Joppa. While I was praying, a vision came to me. In the vision I saw something coming down from the sky. It looked like a big sheet. It was being lowered to the ground by its four corners. It came down and stopped very close to me. I looked inside it. I saw animals, both tame and wild. I saw animals that crawl and birds that fly in the air. I heard a voice say to me, 'Get up, Peter. Kill any of these animals and eat it!' But I said, 'I would never do that, Lord! I have never eaten anything that is unholy or not pure.' But the voice from the sky answered again, 'God has made these things clean (pure). Don't call them unholy!' This happened three times. Then the whole thing was taken back into the sky. Then three men came to the house where I was staying. These three men were sent to me from the city of Caesarea. The Spirit told me to go with them without doubting. These six brothers here also went with me. We went to the house of Cornelius. Cornelius told us about the angel he saw standing in his house. The angel said to Cornelius, 'Send some men to Joppa. Invite Simon Peter to come. He will speak to you. The things he will say will save you and all your family.' After I began my speech, the Holy Spirit came on them the same as he came on us at the beginning. Then I remembered the words of the Lord. The Lord said, 'John baptized people in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit!' God gave to these people the same gift that he gave to us who believed in the Lord Jesus Christ. So could I stop the work of God? No!"

When the Jewish believers heard these things, they stopped arguing. They praised God and said, "So God is allowing the non-Jewish people to change their hearts and have life the same as us!"

The Good News Comes to Antioch

The believers were scattered by the persecution that happened after Stephen was killed. Some of the believers went to places far away like Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch. The believers told the Good News in these places; but they told it only to Jews. Some of these believers were men from Cyprus and Cyrene. When these men came to Antioch, they also spoke to Greeks (non-Jews). They told these Greek people the Good News about the Lord...
Jesus. 21The Lord was helping the believers. And a large group of people believed and started following the Lord (Jesus).

22The church (group of believers) in Jerusalem heard about these new believers in Antioch. So the believers in Jerusalem sent Barnabas to Antioch. 23–24Barnabas was a good man. He was full of the Holy Spirit* and full of faith. When Barnabas went to Antioch, he saw that God had blessed those people very much. This made Barnabas very happy. He encouraged all the believers in Antioch. He told them, “Never lose your faith. Always obey the Lord with all your hearts.” Many, many people became followers of the Lord Jesus.

25Then Barnabas went to the city of Tarsus. He was looking for Saul. 26When he found Saul, Barnabas brought him to Antioch. Saul and Barnabas stayed there a whole year. Every time the group of believers came together, Saul and Barnabas met with them and taught many people. In Antioch the followers of Jesus were called “Christians” for the first time.

27About that same time some prophets* went from Jerusalem to Antioch. 28One of these prophets was named Agabus. In Antioch, Agabus stood up and spoke. With the help of the Holy Spirit* he said, “A very bad time is coming to the whole world. There will be no food for people to eat.” (This time without food happened when Claudius was emperor.* 29The believers decided that they would all try to help their brothers and sisters who lived in Judea. Each believer planned to send them as much as he could. 30They gathered the money and gave it to Barnabas and Saul. Then Barnabas and Saul brought it to the elders* in Judea.

Herod Agrippa Hurts the Church

During that same time King Herod* began to persecute* some of the people that belonged to the church (group of believers). 2Herod ordered James to be killed with a sword. James was the brother of John. 3Herod saw that the Jews liked this. So he decided to arrest Peter, too. (This happened during the time of the Jewish holiday called the Passover.*) 4Herod arrested Peter and put him in jail. A group of 16 soldiers guarded Peter. Herod wanted to wait until after the Passover festival. Then he planned to bring Peter before the people. 5So Peter was kept in jail. But the church was constantly praying to God for Peter.

Peter Leaves the Jail

6Peter was sleeping between two of the soldiers. He was bound with two chains. More soldiers were guarding the door of the jail. It was at night, and Herod* planned to bring Peter out before the people the next day. 7Suddenly, an angel of the Lord stood there. A light shined in the room. The angel touched Peter on the side and woke him up. The angel said, “Hurry, get up!” The chains fell off Peter’s hands. 8The angel said to Peter, “Get dressed and put on your shoes.” And so Peter did this. Then the angel said, “Put on your coat and follow me.” 9So the angel went out and Peter followed. Peter did not know if the angel was really doing this. He thought he might be seeing a vision.* 10Peter and the angel went past the first guard and the second guard. Then they came to the iron gate that separated them from the city. The gate opened itself for them. Peter and the angel went through the gate and walked about a block. Then the angel suddenly left.

11Peter realized then what had happened. He thought, “Now I know that the Lord really sent his angel to me. He rescued (saved) me from Herod.* The Jewish people thought that bad... things would happen to me. But the Lord saved me from all these things.'

12When Peter realized this, he went to the home of Mary. She was the mother of John. (John was also called Mark.) Many people were gathered there. They were all praying. 13Peter knocked on the outside door. A servant girl named Rhoda came to answer it. 14Rhoda recognized Peter's voice, and she was very happy. She even forgot to open the door. She ran inside and told the group, “Peter is at the door!” 15The believers said to Rhoda, “You are crazy!” But she continued to say that it was true. So they said, “It must be Peter's angel.”

16But Peter continued to knock. When the believers opened the door, they saw Peter. They were amazed. 17Peter made a sign with his hand to tell them to be quiet. He explained to them how the Lord led him out of the jail. He said, “Tell James and the other brothers what happened.” Then Peter left to go to another place.

18The next day the soldiers were very upset. They wondered what happened to Peter. 19Herod* looked everywhere for Peter but could not find him. So Herod questioned the guards. Then he ordered that the guards be killed.

The Death of Herod Agrippa

Later Herod* moved from Judea. He went to the city of Caesarea and stayed there a while. 20Herod was very angry with the people from the cities of Tyre and Sidon. Those people all came in a group to Herod. They were able to get Blastus on their side. Blastus was the king’s personal servant. The people asked Herod for peace because their country needed food from Herod’s country.

21Herod* decided a day to meet with them. On that day Herod was wearing a beautiful royal robe. He sat on his throne and made a speech to the people. 22The people shouted, “This is the voice of a god, not a man!” 23Herod accepted this praise and, did not give the glory to God. So an angel of the Lord caused him to become sick. He was eaten by worms inside him, and he died.

Barnabas and Saul Given a Special Work

In the church (group of believers) at Antioch there were some prophets* and teachers. They were: Barnabas, Simeon (also called Niger), Lucius (from the city of Cyrene), Manaen (who had grown up with Herod,* the ruler) and Saul. 2These men were all serving the Lord and fasting,* The Holy Spirit* said to them, “Give Barnabas and Saul to me to do a special work. I have chosen them to do this work.”

3So the church fasted* and prayed. They put their hands on* Barnabas and Saul and sent them out.

Barnabas and Saul in Cyprus

4Barnabas and Saul were sent out by the Holy Spirit.* They went to the city of Seleucia. Then they sailed from Seleucia to the island of Cyprus. 5When Barnabas and Saul came to the city of Salamis, they told the message* of God in the Jewish synagogues.* (John Mark was with them to help.)

6They went across the whole island to the city of Paphos. In Paphos they met a Jewish man who did magic. His name was Barjesus. He was a false prophet.* 7Barjesus always stayed close to Sergius Paulus, the governor. Sergius Paulus was a wise man. He asked Barnabas and Saul to come to him. He wanted to hear the message* of God. 8But Elymas, the magician, was another name for Barnabas and Saul. (Elymas is another name for Barjesus.) Elymas tried to stop the governor from believing in Jesus. 9But Saul was filled with the Holy Spirit.* Paul (Saul’s other name) looked at Elymas (Barjesus) 10and said, “You son of the devil! You are an enemy of everything that is right! You are full of evil tricks and lies. You always try to change the Lord’s truths into lies! 11Now the Lord will touch you and you will be blind. For a time you will not be able to see anything—not even the light from the sun.”

Then everything became dark for Elymas. He walked around lost. He was trying to find someone to lead him by the hand. 12When the governor (Sergius Paulus) saw this, he believed. He was amazed at the teaching about the Lord.

Paul and Barnabas Go to Antioch in Pisidia

13Paul and those people with him sailed away from Paphos. They came to Perga, a city in Pamphylia. But John Mark 14left them; he returned to Jerusalem. 15They continued their trip from Perga and went to Antioch, a city near Pisidia. In Antioch on the Sabbath day* they went into the Jewish synagogue* and sat down. 16The law of Moses and the writings of the prophets* were read. Then the leaders of the synagogue sent a message to Paul and Barnabas: “Brothers, if you have something to say that will help the people here, please speak!”

17Paul stood up. He raised his hand* and said, “My Jewish brothers and you other people that also worship the true God, please listen to me! 18The God of Israel (the Jews) chose our ancestors. God helped his people to have success during the time they lived in Egypt as strangers. God brought them out of that country with great power. 19And God was patient with them for 40 years in the desert. 20God destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan. He gave their land to his people. 21All this happened in about 450 years.

“After this, God gave our people judges (leaders) until the time of Samuel* the prophet. 22Then the people asked for a king. God gave them Saul, the son of Kish. Saul was from the family group of Benjamin. He was king for 40 years. 22After God took Saul away, God made David* their king. This is what God said about David: ‘David, the son of Jesse, is a man who is like me in his thinking. He will do all the things I want him to do.’ 23God has brought one of David’s descendants* to Israel (the Jews) to be their Savior. 24That descendant is Jesus. God promised to do this. 25Before Jesus came, John* told God’s message to all the Jewish people. John told the people to be baptized* to show they wanted to change their lives. 26When John was finishing his work, he said, ‘Who do you think I am? I am not the Christ.* He is coming later. I am not worthy to untie his shoes.’

27“My brothers, sons in the family of Abraham,* and you non-Jews who also worship the true God, listen! The news about this salvation has been sent to us. 28The Jews living in Jerusalem and the Jewish leaders did not realize that Jesus was the Savior. The words that the prophets* wrote about Jesus* were read to the Jews every Sabbath day,* but they did not understand. The Jews condemned Jesus. When they did this, they made the words of the prophets come true!* 29They could not find any real reason why Jesus should die, but they asked Pilate to kill him. 29 These Jews did all the bad things that the Scriptures* said would happen to Jesus. Then they took Jesus down from the cross and put him in a grave.

30 But God raised him up from death! 31 After this, for many days, the people that had gone with Jesus from Galilee to Jerusalem saw Jesus. These people are now his witnesses to the people. 32 We tell you the Good News* about the promise God made to our ancestors.

33 We are their children (descendants), and God has made this promise come true for us. God did this by raising Jesus from death. We also read about this in Psalm 2:

‘You are my Son. Today I have become your Father.’

Psalm 2:7

34 God raised Jesus from death. Jesus will never go back to the grave and become dust. So God said:

‘I will give you the true and holy promises that I made to David.’

Isaiah 55:3

35 But in another Psalm it says:

‘You will not let the body of your Holy One rot in the grave.’

Psalm 16:10

36 David did God’s will during the time he lived. Then he died and was buried like all his ancestors. And his body did rot in the grave! 37 But the One (Jesus) that God raised from death did not rot in the grave. 38–39 Brothers, you must understand what we are telling you: You can have forgiveness of your sins through this One (Jesus). The law of Moses could not free you from your sins. But every person who believes in Jesus is free from all his sins through him (Jesus). 40 The prophets* said some things would happen. Be careful! Don’t let these things happen to you. The prophets said:

41 ‘Listen, you people that doubt! You can wonder, but then go away and die;

42 While Paul and Barnabas were leaving the synagogue*, the people asked Paul and Barnabas to “come again on the next Sabbath day* and tell them more about these things. 43 After the meeting, many of the Jews followed Paul and Barnabas from that place. With the Jews there were many converts* to the Jewish religion. These converts also worshiped the true God. Paul and Barnabas were persuading them to continue trusting in God’s grace (kindness).

44 On the next Sabbath day,* almost all the people in the city came together to hear the word of the Lord. 45 The Jews saw all these people there. So the Jews became very jealous. They said some very bad things and argued against the words that Paul said. 46 But Paul and Barnabas spoke very boldly. They said, “We must speak the message* of God to you Jews first. But you refuse to listen. You are making yourselves lost—not worthy of having eternal life! So we will now go to the people of other nations! 47 This is what the Lord (God) told us to do. The Lord said:

‘I have made you to be a light for other nations, so that you can show the way of salvation to people all over the world.’”

Isaiah 49:6

48 When the non-Jewish people heard Paul say this, they were happy. They gave honor to the message* of the Lord. And many of the people believed the message. These were the people chosen to have life forever.

49 And so the message* of the Lord was being told through the whole country. 50 But the Jews caused some of the important religious women and the leaders of the city to become angry and to be against Paul and Barnabas. These people did things against Paul and Barnabas and threw them out of town. So Paul and Barnabas shook the dust off their feet. Then they went to the city of Iconium. But the followers of Jesus in Antioch were happy and full of the Holy Spirit.

Paul and Barnabas in Iconium

Paul and Barnabas went to the city of Iconium. They entered the Jewish synagogue.* (This is what they did in every city.) They spoke to the people there. Paul and Barnabas spoke so well that many Jews and Greeks (non-Jews) believed what they said. But some of the Jews did not believe. These Jews excited the non-Jewish people and made them think bad things about the brothers (believers). So Paul and Barnabas stayed in Iconium a long time, and they spoke bravely for the Lord. Paul and Barnabas told the people about God’s grace. The Lord proved that what they said was true by helping the apostles do miracles and wonders. But some of the people in the city believed Paul and Barnabas. So the city was divided.

Some non-Jewish people, some Jews, and their Jewish leaders tried to hurt Paul and Barnabas. These people wanted to kill them with rocks. When Paul and Barnabas learned about this, they left that city. They went to Lystra and Derbe, cities in Lycaonia, and to the areas around those cities. They told the Good News there too.

Paul in Lystra and Derbe

In Lystra there was a man who had something wrong with his feet. He had been born crippled; he had never walked. This man was sitting and listening to Paul speak. Paul looked at him. Paul saw that the man believed that God could heal him. So Paul shouted, “Stand up on your feet!” The man jumped up and began walking around. When the people saw what Paul did, they shouted in their own Lycaonian language. They said, “The gods have become like men! They have come down to us!” The people began to call Barnabas “Zeus.” They called Paul “Hermes,” because he was the main speaker.
The temple of Zeus was near the city. The priest of this temple brought some bulls and flowers to the city gates. The priest and the people wanted to give an offering to worship Paul and Barnabas.

But when the apostles,* Barnabas and Paul, understood what the people were doing, they tore their own clothes. Then they ran in among the people and shouted to them: Men, why are you doing these things? We are not gods! We are human just like you. We came to tell you the Good News.* We are telling you to turn away from these worthless things. Turn to the true living God. He is the One who made the sky, the earth, the sea, and everything that is in them. In the past, God let all the nations do what they wanted. But God was always there doing things that prove he is real. He gives you rain from the sky. He gives you good harvests at the right times. He gives you plenty of food, and he fills your hearts with joy.” Paul and Barnabas told the people these things. But still Paul and Barnabas almost could not stop the people from offering sacrifices to worship them.

Then some Jews came from Antioch and Iconium. They persuaded the people to be against Paul. And so the people threw rocks at Paul and dragged him out of the town. The Zeus The most important of the many Greek gods.

people thought that they had killed Paul. 20The followers of Jesus gathered around Paul and he got up and went back into the town. The next day, he and Barnabas left and went to the city of Derbe.

The Return to Antioch in Syria
21Paul and Barnabas told the Good News in the city of Derbe too. Many people became followers of Jesus. Paul and Barnabas returned to the cities of Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch. 22In those cities Paul and Barnabas made the followers of Jesus stronger. They helped them to stay in the faith. Paul and Barnabas said, “We must suffer many things on our way into God’s kingdom.” 23Paul and Barnabas chose elders for each church (group of believers). They fasted and prayed for these elders. These elders were men who had trusted the Lord Jesus. So Paul and Barnabas put them in the Lord’s care. 24Paul and Barnabas went through the country of Pisidia. Then they came to the country of Pamphylia. 25They told people the message of Pisidia. Then they came to the country of Pamphylia. 26And from there God told them that the people of Pisidia did not want to hear the Good News. So they sailed away to Antioch in Syria. This is the city where the believers had gathered before. Paul and Barnabas came to the city of Perga, and then they went down to the city of Attalia. 27And from there Paul and Barnabas sailed away to Antioch in Syria. This is the city where the believers had put them into God’s care and sent them to do this work. Now they had finished the work.

27When Paul and Barnabas arrived, they gathered the church (group of believers) together. Paul and Barnabas told them about all the things God had done with them. They said, “God opened a door so that the people of other nations (non-Jews) could also believe!” 28Paul and Barnabas stayed there a long time with the followers of Christ.

The Meeting at Jerusalem
15Then some men came to Antioch from Judea. They began teaching the non-Jewish brothers: “You cannot be saved if you are not circumcised.” 2Paul and Barnabas were against this teaching. They argued with these men about it. So the group decided to send Paul, Barnabas, and some other men to Jerusalem. These men were going there to talk more about this with the apostles and elders.*

3The church helped the men leave on the trip. These men went through the countries of Phoenicia and Samaria. In these countries they told all about how the non-Jewish people had turned to the true God. This made all the brothers very happy. 4Paul, Barnabas, and the others arrived in Jerusalem. The apostles,* the elders,* and the whole group of believers welcomed them. Paul, Barnabas, and the others told about all the things that God had done with them. 5Some of the believers in Jerusalem had belonged to the Pharisees.* They stood up and said, “The non-Jewish believers must be circumcised.” We must tell them to obey the law of Moses!”

6Then the apostles* and the elders* gathered to study this problem. 7There was a long debate. Then Peter stood up and said to them, “My brothers, I know that you remember what happened in the early days. God chose me then from among you to tell the Good News to the non-Jewish people. They heard the Good News from me and they believed. 8God knows the thoughts of all men, and he accepted these non-Jewish people. God showed this to us by giving them the Holy Spirit the same as he did to us. 9To God, those people are not different from us. When they believed, God made their hearts pure. 10So now, why are you putting a heavy burden around the necks of the non-Jewish brothers? Are you trying to make God angry? We and our fathers* were not able to

Then the whole group became quiet. They listened to Paul and Barnabas speak. Paul and Barnabas told about all the miracles and wonders that God did through them among the non-Jewish people. Paul and Barnabas finished speaking. Then James spoke. He said, “My brothers, listen to me. Simon (Peter) has told us how God showed his love for the non-Jewish people. For the first time, God accepted the non-Jewish people and made them his people. The words of the prophets agree with this too:

*I will return after this.
I will build David’s house again.
It has fallen down.
I will build again the parts of his house that have been pulled down.
I will make his house new.

Then all other people will look for the Lord—
all the non-Jewish people that are my people too.
The Lord said this.
And he is the One who does all these things. Amos 9:11–12

These things have been known from the beginning of time.

So I think we should not bother the non-Jewish brothers who have turned to God. Instead, we should write a letter to them. We should tell them these things:

Don’t eat food that has been given to idols.* (This makes the food unclean.)
Don’t eat meat from animals that have been strangled (choked) or any meat that still has the blood in it.
Don’t do any kind of sexual sin.

They should not do these things, because there are still men (Jews) in every city who teach the law of Moses. The words of Moses have been read in the synagogue* every Sabbath day* for many years.”

The apostles,* the elders,* and the whole church (group of believers) wanted to send some men with Paul and Barnabas to Antioch. The group decided to choose some of their own men. They chose Judas (also called Barsabbas) and Silas. These men were respected by the brothers in Jerusalem. The group sent the letter with these men. The letter said:

From the apostles* and elders,* your brothers.
To all the non-Jewish brothers in the city of Antioch and in the countries of Syria and Cilicia:

Dear Brothers:

We have heard that some men have come to you from our group. The things they said troubled and upset you. But we did not tell them to do this! We have all agreed to choose some men and send them to you. They will be with our dear friends, Barnabas and Paul. Barnabas and Paul have given their lives to serve our Lord Jesus Christ. So we have sent Judas and Silas with them. They will tell you the same things. The Holy Spirit* thinks that you should have no more burdens, and we agree. You need to do only these things:

Don’t eat food that has been given to idols.*
Don’t eat meat from animals that have been strangled (choked) or any meat that still has the blood in it.
Don’t do any kind of sexual sin.

We say good-bye now.

So Paul, Barnabas, Judas, and Silas left Jerusalem. They went to Antioch. In Antioch they gathered the group of believers and gave them the letter. When the believers read it, they were happy. The letter comforted them. Judas and Silas were also prophets. They said many things to help the brothers and make them stronger. After Judas and Silas stayed there for a while, they left. They received a blessing of peace from the brothers who had sent them.

But Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch. They and many others told the Good News and taught the people the message of the Lord. Paul and Barnabas Separate

A few days later, Paul said to Barnabas, “We told the message of the Lord in many towns. We should go back to all those towns to visit the brothers and sisters and see how they are doing.” Barnabas wanted to bring John Mark with them too. But on their first trip John Mark had left them at Pamphylia; he did not continue with them in the work. So Paul did not think it was a good idea to take him. Paul and Barnabas had a big argument about this. They separated and went different ways. Barnabas sailed to Cyprus and took Mark with him. Paul chose Silas to go with him. The brothers in Antioch put Paul into the Lord’s care and sent him out.

Paul and Barnabas went through the countries of Syria and Cilicia, helping the churches grow stronger. Timothy Goes with Paul and Silas

Paul went to the cities of Derbe and Lystra. A follower of Christ named Timothy was there. Timothy’s mother was a Jewish believer. His father was a Greek (not a Jew). The believers in the cities of Lystra and Iconium respected Timothy. They said good things about him. Paul wanted Timothy to travel with him. But all the Jews living in that area knew that Timothy’s father was Greek (not Jewish). So Paul circumcised Timothy to please the Jews. Then Paul and the men with him traveled through other cities. They gave the believers the rules and decisions from the apostles and elders in Jerusalem. They told the believers to obey these rules. So the churches were becoming stronger in the faith and were growing bigger every day.

Paul Is Called to Macedonia

Paul and the men with him went through the countries of Phrygia and Galatia. The Holy Spirit did not allow them to tell the Good News in the country of Asia. Paul and Timothy went near the country of Mysia. They wanted to go into the country of Bithynia. But the Spirit of Jesus did not let them go in. So they passed by Mysia and went to the city of Troas. That night Paul saw a vision. In this vision, a man from the country of Macedonia came to Paul. The man stood there and begged, “Come across to Macedonia. Help us!” After Paul had seen the vision, we immediately prepared to leave for Macedonia. We understood that God had called us to tell the Good News to those people.

The Conversion of Lydia

We left Troas in a ship, and we sailed to the island of Samothrace. The next day we sailed to the city of Neapolis. Then we went curches Groups of believers in the towns where Paul and Barnabas went before.

On the Sabbath day we went out the city gate to the river. At the river we thought we might find a special place for prayer. Some women had gathered there. So we sat down and talked with them. There was a woman named Lydia from the city of Thyatira. Her job was selling purple cloth. She worshiped the true God. Lydia listened to Paul. The Lord opened her heart. She believed the things Paul said. She and all the people living in her home were baptized. Then Lydia invited us into her home. She said, “If you think I am truly a believer in the Lord Jesus, then come stay in my house.” She persuaded us to stay with her.

Paul and Silas in Jail

One time something happened to us while we were going to the place for prayer. A servant girl met us. She had a special spirit in her. This spirit gave her the power to tell what would happen in the future. By doing this she earned a lot of money for the men who owned her. This girl followed Paul and us. She said loudly, “These men are servants of the Most High God! They are telling you how you can be saved!” She continued doing this for many days. This bothered Paul, so he turned and said to the spirit, “By the power of Jesus Christ, I command you to come out of her!” Immediately, the spirit came out.

The men that owned the servant girl saw this. These men knew that now they could not use her to make money. So they grabbed Paul and Silas and dragged them into the meeting place of the city. The city officials were there. The men brought Paul and Silas to the leaders and said, “These men are Jews. They are making trouble in our city. They are telling the people to do things that are not right for us. We are Roman citizens and cannot do these things.” The people were against Paul and Silas. Then the leaders tore the clothes of Paul and Silas and told some men to beat Paul and Silas with rods. The men beat Paul and Silas many times. Then the leaders put Paul and Silas in jail. The leaders told the jailer, “Guard them very carefully!” The jailer heard this special order. So he put Paul and Silas far inside the jail. He tied their feet between large blocks of wood.

About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing songs to God. The other prisoners were listening to them. Suddenly, there was a big earthquake. It was so strong that it shook the foundation of the jail. Then all the doors of the jail opened. All the prisoners were freed from their chains. The jailer woke up. He saw that the jail doors were open. He thought that the prisoners had already escaped. So the jailer got his sword and was ready to kill himself. But Paul shouted, “Don’t hurt yourself! We are all here!”

The jailer told someone to bring a light. Then he ran inside. He was shaking. He fell down in front of Paul and Silas. Then he brought them outside and said, “Men, what must I do to be saved?”

They said to him, “Believe in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved—you and all these people from your house.” So Paul and Silas told the message of the Lord to the jailer and all the people that lived in his house. It was late at night, but the jailer took Paul and Silas and washed their wounds. Then the jailer and all his people were baptized. After this the jailer took Paul and Silas home and gave them some food. All the people were very happy because they now believed in God.

The next morning, the leaders sent some soldiers to tell the jailer, “Let these men (Paul and Silas) go free!”

The jailer said to Paul, “The leaders have sent these soldiers to let you go free. You can leave now. Go in peace.”

But Paul said to the soldiers, “Your leaders did not prove that we did wrong. But they beat us in front of the people and put us in jail. We are Roman citizens, so we have rights. Now the leaders want to make us go quietly. No! The leaders must come and bring us out!"

38 The soldiers told the leaders what Paul said. When the leaders heard that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens, they were afraid. 39 So they came and told Paul and Silas they were sorry. They took Paul and Silas out of jail and asked them to leave the city. 40 But when Paul and Silas came out of the jail, they went to Lydia’s house. They saw some of the believers there and comforted them. Then Paul and Silas left.

Paul and Silas in Thessalonica

17 Paul and Silas traveled through the cities of Amphipolis and Apollonia. They came to the city of Thessalonica. In that city there was a Jewish synagogue. 2 Paul went into this synagogue to see the Jews. This is what he always did. Every Sabbath day for three weeks Paul talked with the Jews about the Scriptures. 3 Paul explained these Scriptures to the Jews. He showed that the Christ must die and then rise from death. Paul said “This man Jesus that I am telling you about is the Christ.” 4 Some of the Jews there believed Paul and Silas and decided to join them. Also, there were some Greek men who worshiped the true God and some important women. A large group of the men and many of the women joined Paul and Silas.

5 But the Jews that did not believe became jealous. They hired some bad men from the city. These bad men gathered many people and made trouble in the city. They went to Jason’s house, looking for Paul and Silas. They wanted to bring Paul and Silas out before the people. 6 But they did not find Paul and Silas. So the people dragged Jason and some of the other believers to the leaders of the city. The people yelled, “These men (Paul and Silas) have made trouble everywhere in the world. And now they have come here too! Jason is keeping them in his house. They all do things against the laws of Caesar. They say there is another king called Jesus.”

7 The leaders of the city and the other people heard these things. They became very upset. 8 They made Jason and the other believers pay a fine. Then they let the believers go free.

Paul and Silas Go to Berea

10 That same night the believers sent Paul and Silas to another city named Berea. In Berea, Paul and Silas went to the Jewish synagogue. These Jews were better people than the Jews in Thessalonica. These Jews were very happy to listen to the things Paul and Silas said. These Jews in Berea studied the Scriptures every day. They wanted to know if these things were true. 12 Many of these Jews believed. Many important Greek men and Greek women also believed. 13 But when the Jews in Thessalonica learned that Paul was telling the word of God in Berea, they came to Berea too. The Jews from Thessalonica upset the people in Berea and made trouble. 14 So the believers sent Paul away quickly to the sea. But Silas and Timothy stayed in Berea. 15 The believers that went with Paul took him to the city of Athens. These brothers carried a message from Paul back to Silas and Timothy. The message said, “Come to me as soon as you can.”

Paul in Athens

16 Paul was waiting for Silas and Timothy in Athens. Paul was upset because he saw that the city was full of idols. In the synagogue, Paul talked with the Jews and the Greeks who worshiped the true God. Paul also talked with some people in the business area of the city. Paul did this every day. 18 Some of the Epicurean and some of the Stoic philosophers argued with him.

Some of them said, “This man doesn’t really know what he is talking about. What is he Areopagus council A group of important leaders in Athens. They were like judges.

Paul was telling them the Good News about Jesus’ rising from death. So they said, “He seems to be telling us about some other gods.” They got Paul and took him to a meeting of the Areopagus council. They said, “Please explain to us this new idea that you have been teaching. The things that you are saying are new to us. We have never heard these things before. We want to know what this teaching means.” (All the people of Athens and the people from other countries who lived there always used their time talking about all the newest ideas.)

Then Paul stood before the meeting of the Areopagus council. Paul said, “Men of Athens, I can see that you are very religious in all things. I was going through your city and I saw the things you worship. I found an altar that had these words written on it: ‘TO THE GOD WHO IS NOT KNOWN.’ You worship a god that you don’t know. This is the God I am telling you about! He is the God who made the whole world and everything in it. He is the Lord (Ruler) of the land and the sky. He does not live in temples that men build! This God is the One who gives life, breath, and everything else to people. He does not need any help from people. God has everything he needs. God began by making one man (Adam). From him God made all the different people. God made them to live everywhere in the world. God decided exactly when and where they must live. God wanted the people to look for him. Maybe they could search all around for him and find him. But he is not far from any of us:

We live with him.
We walk with him.
We are with him.’

Some of your own writers have said:

For we are his children.’

That’s right. We are God’s children. So, you must not think that God is like something that people imagine or make. He is not made of gold, silver, or rock. In the past, people did not understand God, and God overlooked this. But now God tells everyone in the world to change and turn to him. God has decided a day when he will judge all the people in the world. He will be fair. He will use a man (Jesus) to do this. God chose this man long ago. And God has proved this to every person. He proved it by raising that man from death!

When the people heard about Jesus being raised from death, some of them laughed. The people said, “We will hear more about this from you later.” Paul went away from them. But some of the people believed Paul and joined him. One of the people that believed was Dionysius. He was a member of the Areopagus council. Another person who believed was a woman named Damaris. There were also some other people that believed.

Paul in Corinth

Later, Paul left Athens and went to the city of Corinth. In Corinth Paul met a Jewish man named Aquila. Aquila was born in the country of Pontus. But Aquila and his wife, Priscilla, had recently moved from Italy. They left Italy because Claudius commanded that all Jews must leave Rome. Paul went to visit Aquila and Priscilla. They were tentmakers, the same as Paul. So Paul stayed with them and worked with them. Every Sabbath day Paul talked with the Jews and Greeks in the synagogue. Paul tried to persuade these people to believe in Jesus.

Silas and Timothy came from Macedonia to Paul in Corinth. After this, Paul used all his time telling people the Good News. He showed the Jews that Jesus is the Christ. But the Jews there would not accept Paul’s teaching. They said some very bad things. So Paul shook off the dust from his clothes. said to the Jews, “If you are not saved, it will be your own fault! I have done all I can do! After this, I will go only to non-Jewish people!” 7Paul left the synagogue and moved into the home of Titius Justus. This man worshiped the true God. His house was next to the synagogue. 8Crispus was the leader of that synagogue. Crispus and all the people living in his house believed in the Lord (Jesus). Many other people in Corinth also listened to Paul. They too believed and were baptized.*

9During the night, Paul had a vision.* The Lord said to him, “Don’t be afraid! Continue talking to people and don’t stop! I am with you. No one will be able to hurt you. Many of my people are in this city.” 10Paul stayed there for a year and a half, teaching God’s truth to the people.

Paul Is Brought Before Gallio

12Gallio became the governor of the country of Achaia. At that time, some of the Jews came together against Paul. They took Paul to the court. 13The Jews said to Gallio, “This man is teaching people to worship God in a way that is against our Jewish law!”

14Paul was ready to say something, but Gallio spoke to the Jews. Gallio said, “I would listen to you Jews if you were complaining about a bad crime or some wrong. But the things you Jews are saying are only questions about words and names—arguments about your own Jewish law. So you must solve this problem yourselves. I don’t want to be a judge of these things!” 16Then Gallio made them leave the court.

17Then they all grabbed Sosthenes. (Sosthenes was the leader of the synagogue.*) They beat Sosthenes before the court. But this did not bother Gallio.

Paul Returns to Antioch

18Paul stayed with the brothers (believers) for many days. Then he left and sailed for Syria. Priscilla and Aquila were also with him. At Cenchrea, Paul cut off his hair.* 19This showed that he had made a promise (vow) to God. 20Then they went to the city of Ephesus. This is where Paul left Priscilla and Aquila. While Paul was in Ephesus, he went into the synagogue and talked with the Jews. 21The Jews asked Paul to stay longer, but he refused. 22Paul left them and said, “I will come back to you again if God wants me to.” And so Paul sailed away from Ephesus.

22Paul went to the city of Caesarea. Then he went and said hello to the church (group of believers) in Jerusalem. After that, Paul went to the city of Antioch. 23Paul stayed in Antioch for a while. Then he left Antioch and went through the countries of Galatia and Phrygia. Paul traveled from town to town in these countries. He made all the followers of Jesus stronger.

Apollos in Ephesus and Achaia (Corinth)

24A Jew named Apollos came to Ephesus. Apollos was born in the city of Alexandria. He was an educated man. He knew very much about the Scriptures.* 25Apollos had been taught about the Lord (Jesus). Apollos was always very excited* when he talked to people about Jesus. The things Apollos taught about Jesus were right. But the only baptism* that Apollos knew about was the baptism that John* taught. 26Apollos began to speak very boldly in the synagogue.* Priscilla and Aquila heard him speak. They took him to their home and helped him understand the way of God better. 27Apollos wanted to go to the country of Achaia. So the brothers in Ephesus helped him. They wrote a letter to the followers of Jesus in Achaia. In the letter they asked these followers to accept Apollos. These followers in Achaia had believed in Jesus because of God’s grace (kindness). When Apollos went there, he helped them very much. 28He argued very strongly against the Jews before all the people. Apollos clearly proved that the Jews were wrong. He used the Scriptures and showed that Jesus is the Christ.*

Paul in Ephesus

19 While Apollos was in the city of Corinth, Paul was visiting some places on the way to the city of Ephesus. In Ephesus Paul found some followers of the Lord. 2Paul asked them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit* when you believed?”

These followers said to him, “We have never even heard of a Holy Spirit!”

3So Paul asked them, “What kind of baptism* did you have?”

They said, “It was the baptism that John taught.”

4Paul said, “John told people to be baptized* to show they wanted to change their lives. John told people to believe in the One who would come after him. That person is Jesus.”

5When these followers heard this, they were baptized* in the name of the Lord Jesus. 6Then Paul put his hands on them* and the Holy Spirit* came into them. They began speaking different languages and prophesying.* 7There were about twelve men in this group.

8Paul went into the synagogue* and spoke very boldly. Paul continued doing this for three months. He talked with the Jews and persuaded them to accept the things he said about the kingdom of God. 9But some of the Jews became stubborn. They refused to believe. These Jews said some very bad things about the Way of Jesus. All the people heard these things. So Paul left those Jews and took the followers of Jesus with him. Paul went to a place where a man named Tyrannus had a school. There Paul talked with people every day. 10Paul did this for two years. Because of this work, every Jew and Greek (non-Jew) in the country of Asia* heard the word of the Lord.

The Sons of Sceva

11God used Paul to do some very special miracles.* 12Some people carried away handkerchiefs and clothes that Paul had used. The people put these things on sick people. When they did this, the sick people were healed, and evil spirits from the devil left them. 13–14Some Jews also were traveling around and making evil spirits go out of people. The seven sons of Sceva were doing this. (Sceva was a high priest.) These Jews tried to use the name of the Lord Jesus to make the evil spirits go out of people. They all said, “By the same Jesus that Paul talks about, I order you to come out!”

15But one time an evil spirit said to these Jews, “I know Jesus, and I know about Paul, but who are you?”

16Then the man, who had the evil spirit from the devil inside him, jumped on these Jews. He was much stronger than all of them. He beat them up and tore their clothes off. These Jews ran away from that house. 17All the people in Ephesus, Jews and Greeks (non-Jews), learned about this. They all began to have great respect for God. And the people gave great honor to the name of the Lord Jesus. 18Many of the believers began to confess and tell all the bad things they had done. 19Some of the believers had used magic. These believers brought their magic books and burned them before everyone. Those books were worth about 50,000 silver coins.* 20This is how the word of the Lord was influencing more and more people in a powerful way. And more and more people believed.
ACTS 19:21–20:2

Paul Plans a Trip

21 After these things, Paul made plans to go to Jerusalem. Paul planned to go through the countries of Macedonia and Achaia, and then go to Jerusalem. Paul thought, “After I visit Jerusalem, I must also visit Rome.” 22 Timothy and Erastus were two of Paul’s helpers. Paul sent them ahead to the country of Macedonia. Paul stayed in Asia for a while.

Trouble in Ephesus

23 But during that time, there was some bad trouble in Ephesus. This trouble was about the Way of Jesus. This is how it all happened: 24 There was a man named Demetrius. He worked with silver. He made little silver models that looked like the temple of the goddess Artemis. The men that did this work made much money. 25 Demetrius had a meeting with these men and some other men who did the same kind of work. Demetrius told them, “Men, you know that we make much money from our business. But look at what this man Paul is doing! Listen to what he is saying! Paul has influenced and changed many people. He has done this in Ephesus and all over the country of Asia. Paul says the gods that men make are not real. These things that Paul says might turn the people against our work. But there is also another problem: People will begin to think that the temple of the great goddess Artemis is not important! Her greatness will be destroyed. Artemis is the goddess that everyone in Asia and the whole world worships.”

26When the men heard this, they became very angry. They shouted, “Artemis, the goddess of the city of Ephesus, is great!” 27 All the people in the city became upset. The people grabbed Gaius and Aristarchus. (These two men were from Macedonia and were traveling with Paul.) Then all the people ran to the stadium. 28 Paul wanted to go in and talk to the people, but the followers of Jesus did not let him go. 29 Also, some leaders of the country were friends of Paul. These leaders sent him a message. They told Paul not to go into the stadium. 30 Some people were yelling one thing and other people were yelling other things. The meeting was very confused. Most of the people did not know why they had come there. 31 The Jews made a man named Alexander stand before the people. The people told him what to do. Alexander waved his hand because he wanted to explain things to the people. 32 But when the people saw that Alexander was a Jew, they all began shouting the same thing. They continued shouting for two hours. The people said, “Great is Artemis of Ephesus! Great is Artemis of Ephesus! Great is Artemis …!”

33 Then the city clerk persuaded the people to be quiet. He said, “Men of Ephesus, all people know that Ephesus is the city that keeps the temple of the great goddess Artemis. All people know that we also keep her holy rock. No person can say that this is not true. So you should be quiet. You must stop and think before you do anything. You brought these men, but they have not said anything bad against our goddess. They have not stolen anything from her temple. We have courts of law and there are judges. Do Demetrius and those men that work with him have a charge against anyone? They should go to the courts! That is where they can argue with each other! Is there something else you want to talk about? Then come to the regular town meeting of the people. It can be decided there. I say this because some person might see this trouble today and say that we are rioting. We could not explain all this trouble, because there is no real reason for this meeting.”

34 After the city clerk said these things, he told the people to go home. And all the people left.

Paul Goes to Macedonia and Greece

20 When the trouble stopped, Paul invited the followers of Jesus to come visit him. He said things to comfort them and then told them good-bye. Paul left and went to the country of Macedonia. He said many things... to strengthen the followers of Jesus in the different places on his way through Macedonia. Then Paul went to Greece (Achaia). 3He stayed there three months. He was ready to sail for Syria, but some Jews were planning something against him. So Paul decided to go back through Macedonia to Syria. 4Some men were with him. They were: Sopater, the son of Pyrrhus, from the city of Berea, Aristarchus and Secundus, from the city of Thessalonica, Gaius, from the city of Derbe, Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus, two men from Asia.* 5These men went first, ahead of Paul. They waited for us in the city of Troas. 6We sailed from the city of Philippi after the Jewish Festival of Unleavened Bread.* We met these men in Troas five days later. We stayed there seven days.

Paul’s Last Visit to Troas

7On Sunday,* we all met together to eat the Lord’s Supper,* Paul talked to the group. He was planning to leave the next day. Paul continued talking until midnight. 8We were all together in a room upstairs, and there were many lights in the room. 9There was a young man named Eutychus sitting in the window. Paul continued talking, and Eutychus became very, very sleepy. Finally, Eutychus went to sleep and fell out of the window. He fell to the ground from the third floor. When the people* went and* lifted him up, he was dead. 10Paul went down to Eutychus. He kneeled down and hugged Eutychus. Paul said to the other believers, “Don’t worry. He is alive now.” 11Paul went upstairs again. He divided the bread and ate. Paul spoke to them a long time. When he finished talking, it was early morning. Then Paul left. 12The people took the young man (Eutychus) home. He was alive, and the people were very much comforted.

The Trip from Troas to Miletus

13We sailed for the city of Assos. We went first, ahead of Paul. He planned to meet us in Assos and join us on the ship there. Paul told us to do this because he wanted to go to Assos by land. 14Later, we met Paul at Assos, and then he came on the ship with us. We all went to the city of Mitylene. 15The next day, we sailed away from Mitylene. We came to a place near the island of Chios. Then the next day, we sailed to the island of Samos. A day later, we came to the city of Miletus. 16Paul had already decided not to stop at Ephesus. He did not want to stay too long in Asia.* He was hurrying because he wanted to be in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost* if possible.

Paul Speaks to the Elders from Ephesus

17In Miletus Paul sent a message back to Ephesus. Paul invited the elders* (leaders) of the church in Ephesus to come to him. 18When the elders came, Paul said to them, “You know about my life from the first day I came to Asia.* You know the way I lived all the time I was with you. 19The Jews planned things against me, and this gave me much trouble. But you know that I always served the Lord, sometimes with tears. I never thought about myself first. 20I always did what was best for you. I told you the Good News about Jesus in public before the people and also taught in your homes. 21I told all people—Jewish people and Greek (non-Jewish) people—to change their hearts and turn to God. I told them all to believe in our Lord Jesus. 22But now I must obey the Holy Spirit* and go to Jerusalem. I don’t know what will happen to me there. 23I know only that in every city the Holy Spirit

Festival of Unleavened Bread An important Jewish holiday week. In the Old Testament it began the day after Passover, but by this time the two holidays had become one.

Sunday Literally, “first day of the week,” which for the Jews began at sunset on Saturday. But if Luke is using Greek time here, then the meeting was Sunday night.

to eat the Lord’s Supper Literally, “to break bread.” This may mean a meal or the Lord’s Supper, the special meal Jesus told his followers to eat to remember him. Read Lk. 22:14–20.

elders A group of men chosen to lead a church. Also called “overseers” and “pastors” (“shepherds”), they have the work of caring for God’s people. See Acts 20:28; Eph. 4:11; Tit. 1:7,9.

Good News, message The news that God has made a way for people to have their sins forgiven and live with him forever.

tells me that troubles and even jail wait for me in Jerusalem. 24I don’t care about my own life. The most important thing is that I finish my work. I want to finish the work that the Lord Jesus gave me to do—to tell people the Good News about God’s grace (kindness).

25*And now listen to me. I know that none of you will ever see me again. All the time I was with you, I told you the Good News* about the kingdom of God. 26So today I can tell you one thing that I am sure of: God will not blame me if some of you are not saved! 27I can say this because I know that I told you everything that God wants you to know. 28Be careful for yourselves and for all the people that God has given you. The Holy Spirit* gave you the work of caring for this flock.* You must be like shepherds to the church (people) of God.* This is the church that God bought with his own blood.*

29I know that after I leave, some men will come into your group. They will be like wild wolves. They will try to destroy the flock. 30Also, men from your own group will become bad leaders. They will begin to teach things that are wrong. They will lead some followers of Jesus away from the truth. 31So be careful! Always remember this: I was with you for three years. During this time, I never stopped warning you. I taught you night and day. I often cried for you.

32*Now I am giving you to God. I am depending on the message* about God’s grace (kindness) to make you strong. That message is able to give you the blessings that God gives to all his holy people.* 33When I was with you, I never wanted anyone’s money or fine clothes. 34You know that I always worked to take care of my own needs and the needs of the people that were with me. 35I always showed you that you should work like I did and help people that are weak. I taught you to remember the words of the Lord Jesus. Jesus said, ‘You will be happier when you give than when you receive.’”

36When Paul finished saying these things, he kneeled down and they all prayed together. 37–38 They all cried and cried. The men were very sad because Paul had said that they would never see him again. They hugged Paul and kissed him. They went with him to the ship to say good-bye.

Paul Goes to Jerusalem

21 We all said good-bye to the elders.* Then we sailed away. We sailed straight to Cos island. The next day, we went to the island of Rhodes. From Rhodes we went to Patara. 2At Patara we found a ship that was going to the area of Phoenicia. We went on the ship and sailed away. 3We sailed near the island of Cyprus. We could see it on the north side, but we did not stop. We sailed to the country of Syria. We stopped at the city of Tyre because the ship needed to unload its cargo there. 4We found some followers of Jesus in Tyre, and we stayed with them for seven days. They warned Paul not to go to Jerusalem because of what the Holy Spirit* had told them. 5But when we finished our visit, we left. We continued our trip. All the followers of Jesus, even the women and children, came outside the city with us to say good-bye. We all kneeled down on the beach and prayed. 6Then we said good-bye and got on the ship. The followers went home.

7We continued our trip from Tyre and went to the city of Ptolemais. We greeted the brothers (believers) there and stayed with them one day. 8The next day we left Ptolemais and went to the city of Caesarea. We went into the home of Philip and stayed with him. Philip had the work of telling the Good News.* He was one of the seven helpers.* 9He had four daughters who were not married. These... daughters had the gift of prophesying. After we had been there for many days, a prophet named Agabus came from Judea. He came to us and borrowed Paul’s belt. Then Agabus used the belt to tie his own hands and feet. Agabus said, “The Holy Spirit tells me, ‘This is how the Jews in Jerusalem will tie up the man that wears this belt.’ Then they will give him to the people that don’t know God.”

We all heard these words. So we and the other followers of Jesus, there begged (asked) Paul not to go to Jerusalem. But Paul said, “Why are you crying? Why are you making me so sad? I am ready to be tied in Jerusalem. I am also ready to die for the name of the Lord Jesus!”

We could not persuade him to stay away from Jerusalem. So we stopped begging him and said, “We pray that what the Lord wants will be done.”

After this, we got ready and left for Jerusalem. Some of the followers of Jesus from Caesarea went with us. These followers took us to the home of Mnason, a man from Cyprus. Mnason was one of the first people to be a follower of Jesus. They took us to his home so that we could stay with him.

Paul Visits James

In Jerusalem the believers were very happy to see us. The next day, Paul went with us to visit James. All the elders (church leaders) were there too. Paul greeted all of them. Then he told them about how God used him to do many things among the non-Jewish people. He told them all the things that God did through him. When the leaders heard these things, they praised God. Then they said to Paul, “Brother, you can see that thousands of Jews have become believers. But they think it is very important to obey the law of Moses. These Jews have heard about your teaching. They heard that you tell the Jews who live in other countries among non-Jews to leave the law of Moses. They heard that you tell those Jews not to circumcise* their children and not to obey Jewish customs. What should we do? The Jewish believers here will learn that you have come. So we will tell you what to do: Four of our men have made a vow (promise) to God. Take these men with you and share in their cleansing ceremony. Pay their expenses. Then they can shave their heads. Do this and it will prove to everyone that the things they have heard about you are not true. They will see that you obey the law of Moses in your own life. We have already sent a letter to the non-Jewish believers. The letter said:

- Don’t eat food that has been given to idols.
- Don’t eat meat from animals that have been strangled (choked) or any meat that still has the blood in it.
- Don’t do any kind of sexual sin.”

Paul is Arrested

So Paul took the four men with him. The next day, Paul shared in their cleansing ceremony. Then he went to the temple area. He announced the time when the days of the cleansing ceremony would be finished. On the last day an offering would be given for each of the men.

The seven days were almost finished. But some Jews from Asia saw Paul in the temple area. They caused all the people to be upset, and they grabbed Paul. They shouted, “You Jewish men, help us! This is the man who is teaching things that are against the law of Moses, against our people, and against this place (the temple).
This man is teaching these things to all people everywhere. And now he has brought some Greek (non-Jewish) men into the temple yard! He has made this holy place unclean!" 29(The Jews said this because they had seen Trophimus with Paul in Jerusalem. Trophimus was a Greek man from Ephesus. The Jews thought that Paul had taken him into the holy area of the temple.)

30All the people in Jerusalem became very upset. They all ran and grabbed Paul. They dragged him out of the holy area of the temple. The temple gates were closed immediately. 31The people were trying to kill Paul. The commander of the Roman army in Jerusalem learned that there was trouble in the whole city. 32Immediately the commander went to the place where the people were. He brought some army officers and soldiers with him. The people saw the commander and his soldiers. So they stopped beating Paul. 33The commander went to Paul and arrested him. The commander told his soldiers to tie Paul with two chains. Then the commander asked, “Who is this man? What has he done wrong?” 34Some people there were yelling one thing and other people were yelling other things. Because of all this confusion and shouting, the commander could not learn the truth about what had happened. So the commander told the soldiers to take Paul to the army building.

35–36All the people were following them. When the soldiers came to the steps, they had to carry Paul. They did this to protect Paul, because the people were ready to hurt him. The people shouted, “Kill him!”

37The soldiers were ready to take Paul into the army building. But Paul spoke to the commander. Paul asked, “Do I have the right to say something to you?”

The commander said, “Oh, you speak Greek? Then you are not the man I thought you were? I thought you were the Egyptian man who started some trouble against the government not long ago. That Egyptian man led 4,000 killers out to the desert.”

39Paul said, “No, I am a Jewish man from Tarsus. Tarsus is in the country of Cilicia. I am a citizen of that important city. Please, let me speak to the people.”

40The commander let Paul speak to the people. So Paul stood on the steps. He waved his hand so that the people would be quiet. The people became quiet and Paul spoke to them. He used the Jewish language.

Paul Speaks to the People

22Paul said, “My brothers and my fathers, listen to me! I will make my defense to you.” The Jews heard Paul speaking the Jewish language. So they became very quiet. Paul said, 34“I am a Jew. I was born in Tarsus in the country of Cilicia. I grew up in this city (Jerusalem). I was a student of Gamaliel. He carefully taught me everything about the law of our fathers. I was very serious about serving God, the same as all of you here today. 4I persecuted the people that followed the Way (Jesus). Some of them were killed because of me. I arrested men and women. I put them in jail. 5The high priest and the whole council of older Jewish leaders can tell you that this is true! One time these leaders gave me some letters. The letters were to the Jewish brothers in the city of Damascus. I was going there to arrest the followers of Jesus and bring them back to Jerusalem for punishment.

Paul Tells About His Conversion

6“But something happened to me on my way to Damascus. It was about noon when I came close to Damascus. Suddenly a bright light from the sky shined all around me. I fell to the ground. I heard a voice saying to me: ‘Saul, Saul, why are you doing these bad things to me?’ I asked, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ The voice said, ‘I am Jesus from Nazareth. I am the One you are persecuting.’ The men who were with me did not understand the voice. But they saw the light. I said, ‘What shall I do, Lord?’ The Lord (Jesus) answered, ‘Get up and go into Damascus. There you will be told all the things I have planned for you to do.’ I could not see, because the bright light had made me blind. So the men led me into Damascus.

12In Damascus a man named Ananias* came to me. Ananias was a man that truly worshiped God; he obeyed the law of Moses. All the Jews who lived there respected him. 13Ananias came to me and said, ‘Saul, my brother, you can see again!’ Immediately I was able to see him. 14Ananias told me, ‘The God of our fathers* chose you long ago. God chose you to know his plan. He chose you to see the Righteous One (Jesus) and to hear words from him. 15You will be his witness to all people. You will tell men about the things you have seen and heard. 16Now, don’t wait any longer. Get up, be baptized* and wash your sins away. Do this, trusting in him (Jesus) to save you.’

17Later, I came back to Jerusalem. I was praying in the temple* yard, and I saw a vision.* I saw Jesus, and Jesus said to me: ‘Hurry! Leave Jerusalem now! The people here will not accept the truth about me.’

18I said, ‘But Lord, the people know that I was the one who put the believers in jail and beat them. I went through all the synagogues* to find and arrest the people who believe in you. 19I stood there and agreed that they should kill Stephen. I even held the coats of the men who were killing him!’

20But Jesus said to me, ‘Leave now. I will send you far away to the non-Jewish people.’

21The people stopped listening when Paul said this last thing about going to the non-Jewish people. They all shouted, ‘Kill him! Get him out of the world! A man like this should not be allowed to live!’

22Then the commander told the soldiers to take Paul into the army building. He told the soldiers to beat Paul. He wanted to make Paul tell why the people were shouting against him like this. 23So the soldiers were tying Paul, preparing to beat him. But Paul said to an army officer* there, ‘Do you have the right to beat a Roman citizen* who has not been proven guilty?’

24When the officer heard this, he went to the commander and told him about it. The officer said, ‘Do you know what you are doing? This man (Paul) is a Roman citizen!’

25The commander came to Paul and said, ‘Tell me, are you really a Roman citizen?’ Paul answered, ‘Yes.’

26The commander said, ‘I paid much money to become a Roman citizen.’ But Paul said, ‘I was born a citizen.’

27The men who were preparing to question Paul moved away from him immediately. The commander was afraid because he had already tied Paul, and Paul was a Roman citizen.*

Paul Speaks to the Jewish Leaders

30The next day the commander decided to learn why the Jews were speaking against Paul. So he commanded the leading priests and the Jewish council to meet together. The commander took Paul’s chains off. Then he brought Paul out and stood Paul before their meeting.

23Paul looked at the Jewish council meeting and said, ‘Brothers, I have lived my life in a good way before God. I have always done what I thought was right.’

2Ananias,* the high priest,* was there. Ananias heard Paul and told the men who were standing near Paul to hit him on his mouth. 3Paul said to Ananias, ‘God will hit you too! You are like a dirty wall that has been painted 4The men standing near Paul said to him, “You cannot talk like that to God’s high priest. You are insulting him!”

5Paul said, “Brothers, I did not know this man was the high priest. It is written in the Scriptures, ‘You must not say bad things about a leader of your people.’

6Some of the men in the meeting were Sadducees* and some others were Pharisees.* So Paul had an idea: He shouted to them, “My brothers, I am a Pharisee and my father was a Pharisee! I am on trial here because I hope (believe) that people will rise from death!”

7When Paul said this, there was a big argument between the Pharisees* and the Sadducees.* The group was divided. *(The Sadducees believe that after people die, they will not live again as an angel or as a spirit. But the Pharisees believe in both.) All these Jews began shouting louder and louder. Some of the teachers of the law, who were Pharisees, stood up and argued, “We find nothing wrong with this man! Maybe an angel or a spirit really did speak to him!”

8The argument became a fight. The commander was afraid that the Jews would tear Paul to pieces. So the commander told the soldiers to go down and take Paul away from these Jews and to put him in the army building.

9The next night the Lord Jesus came and stood by Paul. He said, “Be brave! You have told people in Jerusalem about me. You must also go to Rome to tell people there about me!”

Some Jews Plan to Kill Paul

12The next morning some of the Jews made a plan. They wanted to kill Paul. The Jews made a promise (vowed) to themselves that they would not eat or drink anything until they had killed Paul. 13There were more than 40 Jews who made this plan. 14These Jews went and talked to the leading priests and the older Jewish leaders. The Jews said, “We have made a serious promise to ourselves. We promised that we will not eat or drink until we have killed Paul! So this is what we want you to do: Send a message to the commander from you and all the Jewish leaders. Tell the commander you want him to bring Paul out to you. Tell the commander that you want to ask Paul more questions. We will be waiting to kill Paul while he is on the way here.”

16But Paul’s nephew heard about this plan. He went to the army building and told Paul about the plan. 17Then Paul called one of the army officers* and said to him, “Take this young man to the commander. He has a message for him.” 18So the army officer brought Paul’s nephew to the commander. The officer said, “The prisoner, Paul, asked me to bring this young man to you. He wants to tell you something.”

19The commander led the young man to a place where they could be alone. The commander asked, “What do you want to tell me?”

20The young man said, “Some Jews have decided to ask you to bring Paul down to their council meeting tomorrow. Those Jews want you to think that they plan to ask Paul more questions. 21But don’t believe them! There are more than 40 Jews who are hiding and waiting to kill Paul. They have all promised (vowed) not to eat or drink until they have killed him! Now they are waiting for you to say yes.”

22The commander sent the young man away. The commander asked him, “Don’t tell anyone that you have told me about their plan.”

Paul Is Sent to Caesarea

23Then the commander called two army officers.* He said to them, “I need some men to go to Caesarea. Get 200 soldiers ready. Also, get 70 soldiers on horses and 200 men to carry spears. Be ready to leave at nine Get some horses for Paul to ride. He must be taken to Governor Felix safely.” The commander wrote a letter. This is what the letter said:

From Claudius Lysias.

To the Most Excellent Governor Felix:

Greetings:

The Jews had taken this man (Paul), and they planned to kill him. But I learned that he is a Roman citizen, so I went with my soldiers and saved him. I wanted to know why they were accusing him. So I brought him before their council meeting. This is what I learned: The Jews said Paul did some things that were wrong. But these charges were about their own Jewish laws. And none of these things were worthy of jail or death. I was told that some of the Jews were making a plan to kill Paul. So I send him to you. I also told those Jews to tell you the things they have against him.

The soldiers did the things they were told. The soldiers got Paul and took him to the city of Antipatris that night. The next day the soldiers on horses went with Paul to Caesarea. But the other soldiers and the spearmen went back to the army building in Jerusalem. The soldiers on horses entered Caesarea and gave the letter to the governor (Felix). Then they gave Paul to him. The governor read the letter. Then he asked Paul, “What country are you from?” The governor learned that Paul was from Cilicia. The governor said, “I will hear your case when the Jews who are against you come here too.” Then the governor gave orders for Paul to be kept in the palace. (This building had been built by Herod.)

Some Jews Accuse Paul

Five days later Ananias went to the city of Caesarea. Ananias was the high priest. Ananias also brought some of the older Jewish leaders and a lawyer named Tertullus. They went to Caesarea to make charges against Paul before the governor. Paul was called into the meeting, and Tertullus began to make his charges.

Tertullus said, “Most Excellent Felix! Our people enjoy much peace because of you, and many wrong things in our country are being made right through your wise help. We are very thankful to accept these things from you. We accept these things always and in every place. But I don’t want to take any more of your time. So I will say only a few words. Please be patient. This man (Paul) is a troublemaker. He makes trouble with the Jews everywhere in the world. He is a leader of the Nazarene group. Also, he was trying to make the temple clean, but we stopped him. You can decide if all these things are true. Ask him some questions yourself.” The other Jews agreed. They said, “These things are really true!”

Paul Defends Himself Before Felix

The governor made a sign for Paul to speak. So Paul answered, “Governor Felix, I know that you have been a judge over this nation (Israel) for a long time. So I am happy to defend myself before you. I went to worship in Jerusalem only twelve days ago. You can learn for yourself that this is true. These Jews who are accusing me did not find me arguing with anyone at the temple. I was not making trouble with the people. And I was not making trouble or arguing in the synagogues or any other place in the city. These Jews cannot prove the things they are saying against me now. But I will tell you this: I worship the God of our fathers as a follower of the Way of Jesus. The Jews say that the Way of Jesus is not the right way. But I believe everything that is taught in the law of temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

Moses, And I believe everything that is written in the books of the prophets. 15I have the same hope in God that these Jews have—the hope that all people, good and bad, will be raised from death. 16This is why I always try to do what I believe is right before God and men.

17I was away from Jerusalem for many years. I went back there to bring money to my people and to give some offerings (gifts). 18I was doing this when some Jews saw me at the temple. I had finished the cleansing (washing) ceremony. I had not made any trouble; no people were gathering around me. 19But some Jews from Asia were there. They should be here, standing before you. If I have really done anything wrong, those Jews from Asia are the ones who should accuse me. They were there! 20Ask these Jews here if they found any wrong in me when I stood before the Jewish council meeting in Jerusalem. 21I did say one thing when I stood before them: I said, ‘You are judging me today because I believe that people will rise from death!’

22Felix already understood a lot about the Way of Jesus. He stopped the trial and said, “When commander Lysias comes here, I will decide about these things.” 23Felix told the army officer to keep Paul guarded. But he told the officer to give Paul some freedom and to let Paul’s friends bring the things that Paul needed.

Paul Speaks to Felix and His Wife

24After a few days Felix came with his wife, Drusilla. She was a Jew. Felix asked for Paul to be brought to him. Felix listened to Paul talk about believing in Christ Jesus. 25But Felix became afraid when Paul spoke about things like living right, self-control, and the judgment that will come in the future. Felix said, “Go away now! When I have more time, I will call you.” 26But Felix had another reason for talking with Paul. Felix hoped that Paul would pay him a bribe. So Felix sent for Paul often and talked with him.

27But after two years, Porcius Festus became governor. So Felix was no longer governor. But Felix left Paul in prison, because Felix wanted to do something to please the Jews.

Paul Asks to See Caesar

25Festus became governor, and three days later he went from Caesarea to Jerusalem. 2The leading priests and the important Jewish leaders made charges against Paul before Festus. 3They asked Festus to do something for them; the Jews wanted Festus to send Paul back to Jerusalem. They had a plan to kill Paul on the way. 4But Festus answered, “No! Paul will be kept in Caesarea. I myself will go to Caesarea soon. 5Some of your leaders should go with me. They can accuse the man (Paul) there in Caesarea, if he has really done something wrong.”

6Festus stayed in Jerusalem another eight or ten days. Then he went back to Caesarea. The next day Festus told the soldiers to bring Paul before him. Festus was seated on the judgment seat. 7Paul came into the room. The Jews who had come from Jerusalem stood around him. The Jews said that Paul had done many wrong things. But they could not prove any of these things. 8This is what Paul said to defend himself: “I have done nothing wrong against the Jewish law, against the temple, or against Caesar.”

9But Festus wanted to please the Jews. So he asked Paul, “Do you want to go to Jerusalem? Do you want me to judge you there on these charges?” 10Paul said, “I am standing at Caesar’s judgment seat now. This is where I should be judged! I have done nothing wrong to the Jews; you know this is true. 11If I have done something wrong, and the law says I must die, then I agree that I should die. I don’t ask to be saved from death. But if these charges are not true, then no person can give me to these Jews. No! I want Caesar to hear my case!”
Festus talked about this with his advisers. Then he said, “You have asked to see Caesar, so you will go to Caesar!”

Festus Asks King Agrippa About Paul

A few days later King Agrippa* and Bernice* came to Caesarea to visit Festus. They stayed there many days. Festus told the king about Paul’s case. Festus said, “There is a man that Felix left in prison. When I went to Jerusalem, the leading priests and the older Jewish leaders there made charges against him. These Jews wanted me to order his death. But I answered, ‘When a man is accused of doing something wrong, Romans don’t give the man to other people to judge. First, the man must face the people that are accusing him. And he must be allowed to defend himself against their charges.’ So these Jews came here to Caesarea for the trial. And I did not waste time. The next day I sat on the judgment seat and commanded that the man (Paul) be brought in. The Jews stood up and accused him. But the Jews did not accuse him of any bad crimes. I thought they would. The things they said were about their own religion and about a man named Jesus. Jesus died, but Paul said that he is still alive. I did not know much about these things, so I did not ask questions. But I asked Paul, ‘Do you want to go to Jerusalem and be judged there?’ But Paul asked to be kept in Caesarea. He wants a decision from the Emperor (Caesar*). So I commanded that Paul be held until I could send him to Caesar* in Rome.

Agrippa* said to Paul, “You may now speak to defend yourself.” Then Paul raised his hand* and began to speak. He said, “King Agrippa, I will answer all the charges that the Jews say against me. I think it is a blessing that I can stand here before you today and do this. I am very happy to talk to you, because you know much about all the Jewish customs and the things that the Jews argue about. Please listen to me patiently.

“All the Jews know about my whole life. They know the way I lived from the beginning in my own country and later in Jerusalem. These Jews have known me for a long time. Now I am on trial because I hope for the promise that God made to our fathers.* This is the promise that all the twelve tribes (family groups) of our people hope to receive. For this hope the Jews serve God day and night. My king, the Jews have accused me because I hope for this same promise! Why do you people think it is impossible for God to raise people from death?

Festus said, “King Agrippa and all of you men gathered here with us, you see this man (Paul). All the Jewish people, here and in Jerusalem, have complained to me about him. When they complain about him, they shout that he should be killed. When I judged him, I could find nothing wrong. I found no reason to order his death. But he asked to be judged by Caesar.* So I decided to send him to Rome. But I don’t really know what to tell Caesar that this man has done wrong. So I have brought him before all of you—especially you, King Agrippa. I hope that you can question him and give me something to write to Caesar. I think it is foolish to send a prisoner without making some charges against him.”

Paul Before King Agrippa

Agrippa* said to Paul, “You may now speak to defend yourself.” Then Paul raised his hand* and began to speak. He said, “King Agrippa, I will answer all the charges that the Jews say against me. I think it is a blessing that I can stand here before you today and do this. I am very happy to talk to you, because you know much about all the Jewish customs and the things that the Jews argue about. Please listen to me patiently.

I was so angry against these people (believers) that I went to other cities to find them and hurt them.

Paul Tells About Seeing Jesus

12“One time the leading priests gave me permission and the power to go to the city of Damascus. 13*I was on the way to Damascus. It was noon. I saw a light from the sky. The light was brighter than the sun. The light shined all around me and the men who were traveling with me. 14*We all fell to the ground. Then I heard a voice talking to me in the Jewish language.* The voice said, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you doing these bad things to me? You are only hurting yourself by fighting me.’ 15*I said, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ The Lord said, ‘I am Jesus. I am the One you are persecuting. 16*Stand up! I have chosen you to be my servant. You will be my witness—you will tell people the things that you have seen about me today and the things that I will show you. This is why I have come to you today. 17*I will not let your own people (the Jews) hurt you. And I will keep you safe from the non-Jewish people too. I am sending you to these people. 18*You will show the people the Truth. The people will turn away from darkness (sin) to the light (good). They will turn away from the power of Satan, and they will turn to God. Then their sins can be forgiven. They can have a share with those people who have been made holy* by believing in me.”’

Paul Tells About His Work

19*Paul continued speaking: “King Agrippa,* after I had this vision* from heaven, I obeyed it. 20*I began telling people that they should change their hearts and lives and turn back to God. I told the people to do things that show that they really changed their hearts. I told these things first to people in Damascus. Then I went to Jerusalem and to every part of Judea and told these things to the people there. I also went to the non-Jewish people. 21*This is why the Jews grabbed me and were trying to kill me at the temple.* 22*But God helped me, and he is still helping me today. With God’s help I am standing here today and telling all people the things I have seen. But I am saying nothing new. I am saying the same things that Moses and the prophets* said would happen. 23*They said that the Christ* would die and be the first to rise from death. Moses and the prophets said that the Christ would bring light to the Jewish people and to the non-Jewish people.”

Paul Tries to Persuade Agrippa

24*While Paul was saying these things to defend himself, Festus shouted, “Paul, you are crazy! Too much study has made you crazy!” 25*Paul said, “Most Excellent Festus, I am not crazy. The things I say are true. My words are not the words of a foolish man; I am in my right mind. 26*King Agrippa* knows about these things. I can speak freely to him. I know that he has heard about all of these things. Why? Because these things happened where all people could see. 27*King Agrippa, do you believe the things the prophets* wrote? I know you believe!”

28*King Agrippa* said to Paul, “Do you think you can persuade me to become a Christian so easily?”

Paul Sails for Rome

It was decided that we would sail for Italy. An army officer* named Julius guarded Paul and some other prisoners. Julius served in the emperor’s* special army. We got on a ship and left. The ship was from the city of Adramyttium and was ready to sail to different places in Asia.* Aristarchus went with us. He was a man from the city of Thessalonica in Macedonia. The next day we came to the city of Sidon. Julius was very good to Paul. He gave Paul freedom to go visit his friends. These friends took care of Paul’s needs.

We left the city of Sidon. We sailed close to the island of Cyprus because the wind was blowing against us. We went across the sea by Cilicia and Pamphylia. Then we came to the city of Myra in Lycia. In Myra the army officer* found a ship from the city of Alexandria. This ship was going to Italy. So he put us on it.

We sailed slowly for many days. It was hard for us to reach the city of Cnidus because the wind was blowing against us. We could not go any farther that way. So we sailed by the south side of the island of Crete near Salmone. We sailed along the coast, but the sailing was hard. Then we came to a place called Safe Harbors. The city of Lasea was near there.

But we had lost much time. It was now dangerous to sail, because it was already after the Jewish day of fasting. So Paul warned them, Men, I can see that there will be much trouble on this trip. The ship and the things in the ship will be lost. Our lives may even be lost!”

But the captain and the owner of the ship did not agree with Paul. So the army officer* did not believe Paul. Instead, the officer believed what the captain and owner of the ship said. And that harbor (Safe Harbors) was not a good place for the ship to stay for the winter. So most of the men decided that the ship should leave there. The men hoped we could go to Phoenix. The ship could stay there for the winter. (Phoenix was a city on the island of Crete. It had a harbor that faced southwest and northwest.)

The Storm

Then a good wind began to blow from the south. The men on the ship thought, "This is the wind we wanted, and now we have it!" So they pulled up the anchor. We sailed very close to the island of Crete. But then a very strong wind named the “Northeaster” came from across the island. This wind took the ship and carried it away. The ship could not sail against the wind. So we stopped trying and let the wind blow us. We went below a small island named Cauda. Then we were able to bring in the lifeboat, but it was very hard to do. After the men took the lifeboat in, they tied ropes around the ship to hold the ship together. The men were afraid that the ship would hit the sandbanks of Syrtis.* So they lowered the sail and let the wind carry the ship. The next day the storm was blowing us so hard that the men threw some things out of the ship.* A day later they threw out the ship’s equipment. For many days we could not see the sun or the stars. The storm was very bad. We lost all hope of staying alive—we thought we would die.

threw some things … ship The men did this to make the ship lighter so that it would not sink easily.
ACTS 27:21–28:6

21The men did not eat for a long time. Then one day Paul stood up before them and said, “Men, I told you not to leave Crete. You should have listened to me. Then you would not have all this trouble and loss. 22But now I tell you to be happy. None of you will die! But the ship will be lost. 23Last night an angel came to me from God. This is the God I worship. I am his. 24God’s angel said, ‘Paul, don’t be afraid! You must stand before Caesar.’ And God has given you this promise: He will save the lives of all those men sailing with you.” 25So men, be happy! I trust in God. Everything will happen like his angel told me. 26But we will crash on an island.”

27On the fourteenth night we were floating around in the Adriatic Sea.† The sailors thought we were close to land. 28They threw a rope into the water with a weight on the end of it. They found that the water was 120 feet deep. They went a little farther and threw the rope in again. It was 90 feet deep. 29The sailors were afraid that we would hit the rocks. So they threw four anchors into the water. Then they prayed for daylight to come. 30Some of the sailors wanted to leave the ship. They lowered the lifeboat to the water. The sailors wanted the other men to think that they were throwing more anchors from the front of the ship. 31But Paul told the army officer* and the other soldiers, “If these men do not stay in the ship, then your lives cannot be saved!” 32So the soldiers cut the ropes and let the lifeboat fall into the water.

33Just before dawn Paul began persuading all the people to eat something. He said, “For the past two weeks you have been waiting and watching. You have not eaten for 14 days. 34Now I beg (ask) you to eat something. You need it to stay alive. None of you will lose even one hair off your heads.” 35After he said this, Paul took some bread and thanked God for it before all of them. He broke off a piece and began eating. 36All the men felt better. They all started eating too. 37(There were 276 people on the ship.) 38We ate all we wanted. Then we began making the ship lighter by throwing the grain into the sea.

The Ship Is Destroyed

39When daylight came the sailors saw land. But they did not know what land it was. They saw a bay with a beach. The sailors wanted to sail the ship to the beach if they could. 40So they cut the ropes to the anchors and left the anchors in the sea. At the same time, they untied the ropes that were holding the rudders. Then they raised the front sail into the wind and sailed toward the beach. 41But the ship hit a sandbank. The front of the ship stuck there. The ship could not move. Then the big waves began to break the back of the ship to pieces.

42The soldiers decided to kill the prisoners so that none of the prisoners could swim away and escape. 43But the army officer* (Julius) wanted to let Paul live. So he did not allow the soldiers to kill the prisoners. Julius told the people that could swim to jump into the water and swim to land. 44The other people used wooden boards or pieces of the ship. And this is how all the people went to land. None of the people died.

Paul on the Island of Malta

28When we were safe on land, we learned that the island was called Malta. 2It was raining and very cold. But the people that lived there were very good to us. They made a fire for us and welcomed all of us. 3Paul gathered a pile of sticks for the fire. Paul was putting the sticks on the fire. A poisonous snake came out because of the heat and bit Paul on the hand. 4The people living on the island saw the snake hanging from Paul’s hand. They said, “This man must be a murderer! He did not die in the sea, but Justice* does not want him to live.” 5But Paul shook the snake off into the fire. Paul was not hurt. 6The people thought that Paul would swell up or fall down dead. The people waited and watched Paul for a long time, but nothing bad happened to him. So the people changed their opinion of Paul. They said, “He is a god!”

7 There were some fields around that same area. A very important man on the island owned these fields. His name was Publius. He welcomed us into his home. Publius was very good to us. We stayed in his house for three days. Publius’ father was very sick. He had a fever and dysentery.* But Paul went to him and prayed for him. Paul put his hands on the man and healed him. 9 After this happened, all the other sick people on the island came to Paul. Paul healed them too. 10–11 The people on the island gave us many honors. We stayed there three months. When we were ready to leave, the people gave us the things we needed.

Paul Goes to Rome

We got on a ship from the city of Alexandria. The ship had stayed on the island of Malta during the winter. On the front of the ship was the sign for the twin gods.* 12 We stopped at the city of Syracuse. We stayed in Syracuse three days and then left. 13 We came to the city of Rhegium. The next day a wind began to blow from the southwest, so we were able to leave. A day later we came to the city of Puteoli. 14 We found some brothers (believers) there. They asked us to stay with them a week. Finally, we came to Rome. 15 The believers in Rome heard that we were there. They came out to meet us at the Market of Appius* and at the Three Inns.* When Paul saw these believers, he felt better. Paul thanked God.

Paul in Rome

16 Then we went to Rome. In Rome Paul was allowed to live alone. But a soldier stayed with Paul to guard him.

17 Three days later Paul sent for some of the most important Jews. When they came together, Paul said, “My Jewish brothers, I have done nothing against our people (the Jews). I have done nothing against the customs of our fathers.* But I was arrested in Jerusalem and given to the Romans. 18 The Romans asked me many questions. But they could not find any reason why I should be killed. So they wanted to let me go free. 19 But the Jews there did not want that. So I had to ask to come to Rome to have my trial before Caesar.* But I am not saying that my people (the Jews) have done anything wrong. 20 That is why I wanted to see you and talk with you. I am bound with this chain because I believe in the hope of Israel.*”

21 The Jews answered Paul, “We have received no letters from Judea about you. None of our Jewish brothers who have traveled from there (Judea) brought news about you or told us anything bad about you. 22 We want to hear your ideas. We know that people everywhere are speaking against this group (Christians).”

23 Paul and the Jews chose a day for a meeting. On that day many more of these Jews met with Paul at his house. Paul spoke to them all day long. Paul explained the kingdom of God to them. Paul tried to persuade them to believe the things about Jesus. He used the law of Moses and the writings of the prophets* to do this. 24 Some of the Jews believed the things Paul said, but others did not believe. 25 They had an argument. The Jews were ready to leave, but Paul said one more thing to them: “The Holy Spirit spoke the truth to your fathers* through Isaiah the prophet.* He said,

26 Go to this people (the Jews) and tell them:
You will listen and you will hear,
but you will not understand!
You will look and you will see,
but you will not understand what you see!

Yes, the minds of these people (the Jews) are now closed. They have ears, but they don’t listen. And they refuse to see the truth.

If their minds were not closed, they might see with their eyes; they might hear with their ears; they might understand with their minds. Then they might turn back to me and be healed.”

Isaiah 6:9–10

“I want you Jews to know that God has sent his salvation to the non-Jewish people. They will listen!”

Paul stayed two full years in his own rented house. He welcomed all people that came and visited him. Paul told people about the kingdom of God. He taught about the Lord Jesus Christ. He was very bold (brave), and no one tried to stop him from speaking.

Verse 29 Some late copies of Acts add verse 29: “After Paul said this, the Jews left. They were arguing very much with each other.”
