Genesis

The Beginning of the World

The First Day—Light

1 God made the sky and earth. At first, the earth was completely empty; nothing was on the earth. Darkness covered the ocean, and God’s Spirit moved over the water. 2Then God said, “Let there be light!” 3And light began to shine. 4God saw the light, and he knew it was good. Then God separated the light from the darkness. 5God named the light “day,” and he named the darkness “night.”

There was evening, and then there was morning. This was the first day.

The Second Day—Sky

6Then God said, “Let there be air to separate the water into two parts!” 7So God made the air and separated the water. Some of the water was above the air, and some of the water was below the air. 8God named the air “sky.” There was evening, and then there was morning. This was the second day.

The Third Day—Dry Land and Plants

9Then God said, “Let the water under the sky be gathered together so the dry land will appear.” 10And it happened. 11God named the dry land “earth.” And God named the water that was gathered together “seas.” God saw this was good.

12Then God said, “Let the earth grow grass, plants that make grain, and fruit trees. The fruit trees will make fruit with seeds in it. And each plant will make its own kind of seed. Let these plants grow on the earth.” And it happened. 13The earth grew grass and plants that made grain. And it grew trees that made fruit with seeds in it. Every plant made its own kind of seeds. And God saw this was good.

14There was evening, and then there was morning. This was the third day.

The Fourth Day—Sun, Moon, and Stars

15Then God said, “Let there be lights in the sky. These lights will separate the days from the nights. These lights will be used for special signs and to show when special meetings begin. And they will be used to show the days and years. 16These lights will be in the sky to shine light on the earth.” And it happened.

17So God made the two large lights. God made the larger light to rule during the day. He made the smaller light to rule during the night. God also made the stars. 18God put these lights in the sky to shine on the earth. 19God put these lights in the sky to rule over the day and over the night. These lights separated the light from the darkness. And God saw this was good.

20There was evening, and then there was morning. This was the fourth day.

special meetings The Israelites used the sun and moon to decide when the months and years began. And many Jewish holidays and special meetings began at the time of the new moon or full moon.
GENESIS 1:20–2:11

The Fifth Day—Fish and Birds

20Then God said, “Let the water be filled with many living things. And let there be birds to fly in the air over the earth.” 21So God made the large sea animals. God made every living thing that moves in the sea. There are many different kinds of sea animals—and God made them all! God also made every kind of bird that flies in the sky. And God saw this was good.

22God blessed these animals. God told them to have many babies and fill the seas. And God told the birds on land to make many more birds.

23There was evening, and then there was morning. This was the fifth day.

The Sixth Day—Land Animals and People

24Then God said, “Let the earth make many kinds of living things. Let there be many different kinds of animals. Let there be large animals and small crawling animals of every kind. And let all these animals make more animals.” And all these things happened.

25So God made every kind of animal. God made the wild animals, the tame animals, and all the small crawling things. And God saw this was good.

26Then God said, “Now let’s make man.* We will make people as a copy of ourselves. People will be like us. They will rule over all the fish in the sea and the birds in the air. They will rule over all the large animals and all the little things that crawl on the earth.”

27So God made people in his own image. God made people as a copy of himself.* God made them male and female. 28God blessed them and said to them, “Have many children. Fill the earth and take control of it. Rule over the fish in the sea and the birds in the air. Rule over every living thing that moves on the earth.”

29God said, “I am giving you all the grain bearing plants and all the fruit trees. Those trees will be your food. Every animal on earth, every bird in the air, and all the little things that crawl on the earth will eat that food.” And all these things happened.

31God looked at everything he had made. And God saw that everything was very good.

There was evening, and then there was morning. This was the sixth day.

The Seventh Day—Rest

2So the earth, the sky, and everything in them were finished. God finished the work he was doing. So on the seventh day God rested from his work. 3God blessed the seventh day and made it a holy day. God made that day special because on that day he rested from all the work he did while making the world.

THE BEGINNING OF HUMANITY

4This is the history of the sky and the earth. This is the story about the things that happened at the time God made the earth and the sky. 5This was before there were plants on the earth. Nothing was growing in the fields. This was because the Lord had not yet made it rain on the earth. And there was no person to care for the plants. 6Water came up from the earth and spread over the ground.

7Then the Lord God took dust from the ground and made a man.* The Lord breathed the breath of life into the man’s nose, and the man became a living thing. 8Then the Lord God planted a garden in the East,* in a place named Eden. The Lord God put the man he made in that garden. 9The Lord God made every beautiful tree and every tree that was good for food to grow in the garden. In the middle of the garden, the Lord God put the tree of life and also the tree that gives knowledge about good and evil.

10A river flowed from Eden and watered the garden. That river then separated and became four smaller rivers. 11The name of the first river was Pishon. This river flowed around the large sea animals Or, “sea monsters.”

man The Hebrew word means “man,” “people,” or the name “Adam.” It is like the word meaning “earth,” or “red clay.”
God made people … himself Compare Gen. 5:1,3.
Water Or, “A mist.”
East This usually means the area between the Tigris and Euphrates rivers as far east as the Persian Gulf.
entire country of Havilah.* 12(There is gold in that country, and that gold is good. There are also Bdellium* and Onyx* in that country.) 13The name of the second river was Gihon. This river flowed around the entire country of Ethiopia.* 14The name of the third river was Tigris.* This river flowed east of Assyria. The fourth river was the Euphrates.* 15The Lord God put the man in the garden of Eden to work the soil and take care of the garden. 16The Lord God gave the man this command. The Lord God said, “You may eat from any tree in the garden. 17But you must not eat from the tree that gives knowledge about good and evil. If you eat fruit from that tree you will die!”

The First Woman

18Then the Lord God said, “I see that it is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a person like him to help him.”
19The Lord God used dust from the ground and made every animal in the fields and every bird in the air. The Lord God brought all these animals to the man, and the man gave everything a name. 20The man gave names to all the tame animals, to all the birds in the air, and to all the wild animals of the forest. The man saw many, many animals and birds, but the man could not find a helper that was right for him. 21So the Lord God caused the man to sleep very deeply. While the man was asleep, the Lord God took one of the ribs from the man’s body. Then the Lord God closed the man’s skin at the place where he took the rib. 22The Lord God used the rib from the man to make a woman. Then the Lord God brought the woman to the man. 23And the man said, “Finally! I have a person like me.

    Her bones are from my bones.
    Her body is from my body.
    She was taken out of man,
    so I will call her woman.”

24That is why a man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife. This way, two people become one. 25The man and his wife were naked, but they were not ashamed.

The Beginning of Sin

3The snake was the most clever of all the wild animals that the Lord God had made. 4The snake wanted to trick the woman. The snake spoke to the woman and said, “Woman, did God really tell you that you must not eat from any tree in the garden?” 5The woman answered the snake, “No! God did not say that! We can eat fruit from the trees in the garden. 6But there is one tree we must not eat from. God told us, ‘You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden. You must not even touch that tree or you will die.’” 7But the snake said to the woman, “You will not die. 8God knows that if you eat the fruit from that tree you will learn about good and evil. And then you will be the same as God!”
9The woman saw the tree was beautiful. She saw the fruit was good to eat. And it was exciting that the tree would make her wise. So the woman took fruit from the tree and ate it. Her husband was there with her, so she gave some of the fruit to him and he ate it.
10Then both the man and the woman changed. It was like their eyes opened, and they saw things differently. They saw that they had no clothes on—they were naked. So they got some fig leaves and sewed them together and wore the fig leaves for clothes.
11During the cool part of the day, the Lord God was walking in the garden. The man and the woman heard him, and they hid among the trees in the garden. 12The Lord God called to the man and said, “Where are you?” 13The man said, “I heard you walking in the garden, and I was afraid. I was naked, so I hid.” 14The Lord God said to the man, “Who told you that you were naked? What caused you to be ashamed? Did you eat fruit from that special tree? I told you not to eat from that tree!” 15The man said, “The woman you made for me gave me fruit from that tree. So I ate it.”
Then the Lord God said to the woman, “What have you done?”

The woman said, “The snake tricked me. He fooled me and I ate the fruit.”

So the Lord God said to the snake,

“You did this very bad thing, so bad things will happen to you. It will be worse for you than for any other animal. You must crawl on your belly and eat dust all the days of your life.

I will make you and the woman enemies to each other. Your children and her children will be enemies. You will bite her child’s foot, but he will crush your head.”

Then the Lord God said to the woman,

“I will cause you to have much trouble when you are pregnant. And when you give birth to children, you will have much pain. You will want your husband very much, but he will rule over you.”*

Then the Lord God said to the man,

“I commanded you not to eat from that tree. But you listened to your wife, and you ate from that tree. So I will curse the ground because of you. You will have to work very hard all the days of your life for the food the ground gives.

The ground will grow thorns and weeds for you. And you will have to eat the plants that grow wild in the fields.*

You will work hard for your food, until your face is covered with sweat. You will work hard until the day you die. And then you will become dust again.

I used dust to make you. And when you die you will become dust again.”

Adam* named his wife Eve.* Adam gave her this name because Eve is the mother of every person who ever lived.

The Lord God used animal skins and made some clothes for the man and his wife. Then he put the clothes on them.

The Lord God said, “Look, the man has become like us—he knows about good and evil. And now the man might take the fruit from the tree of life. If the man eats that fruit, he will live forever.”

So the Lord God forced the man to leave the garden of Eden. Adam* was forced to go and work the ground he was made from.

The Lord God forced the man to leave the garden. Then he put Cherub angels* at the entrance to the garden to protect it. The Lord God also put a sword of fire there. This sword flashed around and around guarding the way to the tree of life.

The First Family

Adam and his wife Eve had sexual relations and Eve gave birth to a baby. The baby was named Cain.* Eve said, “With the Lord’s help, I have made a man!”

After that, Eve gave birth to another baby. This baby was Cain’s brother, Abel. Abel became a shepherd. Cain became a farmer.

The First Murder

At harvest time,* Cain brought a gift to the Lord. Cain brought some of the food that he grew from the ground. But Abel brought some animals from his flock. Abel brought the best parts of his best sheep.*

Adam This name means, “man” or “people.” It is like the word meaning “earth” or “red clay.”

Eve This name is like the Hebrew word meaning “life.”

Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

Cain This is like the Hebrew word meaning “make” or “get.”

At harvest time Literally, “at the end of days.”

Abel brought … best sheep Literally, “Abel brought some of his firstborn sheep, especially their fat.”
The Lord accepted Abel and his gift. But the Lord did not accept Cain and his offering. Cain was sad because of this, and he became very angry. The Lord asked Cain, “Why are you angry? Why does your face look sad? If you do good things, you will be right with me. Then I will accept you. But if you do wrong things, then that sin is in your life. Your sin will want to control you, but you must control that sin.”

Cain said to his brother Abel, “Let’s go out to the field.” So Cain and Abel went to the field. Then Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him.

Later, the Lord said to Cain, “Where is your brother Abel?”

Cain answered, “I don’t know. Is it my job to watch and care for my brother?”

Then the Lord said, “What have you done? You killed your brother! His blood is like a voice shouting to me from the ground. You killed your brother, and the ground opened up to take his blood from your hands. So now, I will cause bad things to happen to that ground. In the past, you planted, and your plants grew well. But now you will plant, and the ground will not help your plants grow. You will not have a home on the earth. You will wander from place to place.”

Then Cain said, “This punishment is more than I can bear! Look, you are forcing me to leave my land. I won’t be able to see you or be near you! I won’t have a home! I will be forced to wander from place to place on the earth. And whoever finds me will kill me.”

Then the Lord said to Cain, “I will not let that happen! If anyone kills you, Cain, then I will punish that person much, much more.” Then the Lord put a mark on Cain. This mark showed that no person should kill him.

Cain’s Family

Cain went away from the Lord. Cain lived in the land of Nod.

Cain had sexual relations with his wife. She became pregnant and gave birth to a son named Enoch. Cain built a city and gave the city the same name as his son Enoch.

Enoch had a son named Irad. Irad had a son named Mehujael. Mehujael had a son named Methushael. And Methushael had a son named Lamech.

Lamech married two women. One wife was named Adah, and the other wife was named Zillah. Adah gave birth to Jabal. Jabal was the father of people who live in tents and earn their living by keeping cattle. Adah also had another son Jubal. (Jubal was Jabal’s brother.) Jubal was the father of people who play the harp and flute. Zillah gave birth to Tubal-Cain. Tubal-Cain was the father of people who work with bronze and iron. The sister of Tubal-Cain was named Naamah.

Lamech said to his wives:

“Adah and Zillah, hear my voice! You wives of Lamech, listen to me. A man hurt me, so I killed him. A child hit me, so I killed him.

The punishment for killing Cain was very great! So the punishment for killing me will be much, much greater!”

Adam and Eve Have a New Son

Adam again had sexual relations with Eve. And Eve gave birth to another son. They named him Seth. Eve said, “God has given me another son. Cain killed Abel, but now I have Seth.” Seth also had a son. He named him Enosh. At that time, the people began to pray to the Lord.

But if you … control that sin Or, “But if you don’t do right, then sin is crouching at your door. It wants you, but you must rule over it.”

Nod This name means “wandering.”
GENESIS 5:1–6:5

Adam’s Family History

5 This is the book about the family of Adam.*
6 God made people a copy of himself.* 2 God made them male and female. And on the same day he made them, God blessed them and named them “people.”* 3 After Adam was 130 years old, he had another son. This son looked just like Adam.* Adam named his son Seth. 4 After Seth was born, Adam lived 800 years. During that time, Adam had other sons and daughters. 5 So Adam lived a total of 930 years; then he died.
6 After Seth was 105 years old, he had a son named Enosh. 7 After Enosh was born, Seth lived 807 years. During that time, Seth had other sons and daughters. 8 So Seth lived a total of 912 years; then he died.
9 After Enosh was 90 years old, he had a son named Kenan. 10 After Kenan was born, Enosh lived 815 years. During that time, he had other sons and daughters. 11 So Enosh lived a total of 905 years; then he died.
12 After Kenan was 70 years old, he had a son named Mahalalel. 13 After Mahalalel was born, Kenan lived 840 years. During that time, Kenan had other sons and daughters. 14 So Kenan lived a total of 910 years; then he died.
15 When Mahalalel was 65 years old, he had a son named Jared. 16 After Jared was born, Mahalalel lived 830 years. During that time, he had other sons and daughters. 17 So Mahalalel lived a total of 895 years; then he died.
18 After Jared was 162 years old, he had a son named Enoch. 19 After Enoch was born, Jared lived 800 years. During that time, he had other sons and daughters. 20 So Jared lived a total of 962 years; then he died.
21 After Enoch was 65 years old, he had a son named Methuselah. 22 After Methuselah was born, Enoch walked with God for 300 years more. During that time, he had other sons and daughters. 23 So Enoch lived a total of 365 years. 24 One day Enoch was walking with God, and Enoch disappeared. God took him.* 25 After Methuselah was 187 years old, he had a son named Lamech. 26 After Lamech was born, Methuselah lived 782 years. During that time, he had other sons and daughters. 27 So Methuselah lived a total of 969 years; then he died.
28 When Lamech was 182 years old, he had a son. 29 Lamech named his son Noah.* Lamech said, “We work very hard as farmers because God cursed the ground. But Noah will bring us rest.”
30 After Noah was born, Lamech lived 595 years. During that time he had other sons and daughters. 31 So Lamech lived a total of 777 years; then he died.
32 After Noah was 500 years old, he had sons named Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

People Become Evil

6 The number of people on earth continued to increase. There were girls born to these people. 2–4 The sons of God saw that these girls were beautiful. So the sons of God married any of the girls they chose. These women gave birth to children. During that time and later, the Nephilim* people lived in the land. They were famous people. They were heroes from ancient times.*

Then the Lord said, “People are only human; I will not let my Spirit be troubled by them forever. I will let them live 120 years.”* 5 The Lord saw that the people on the earth were very evil. The Lord saw that people thought only about evil things all the time.

One day … God took him Or, “Enoch pleased God. Enoch disappeared. God took him.”
Noah This name means “rest.”
Nephilim This name is like the Hebrew word meaning “People who have fallen.” Later, the Nephilim were a famous family of large fighting men. See Num. 13:32–33.
These women … times Or, “The Nephilim lived in the land in those days and also later, when the sons of God married the daughters of men, and these women had given birth to children who were famous heroes from ancient times.”
People … 120 years Or, “My Spirit will not live with people forever, because they are flesh. They will live only 120 years.” Or, “My Spirit will not judge people forever because they will all die in 120 years.”
6The Lord was sorry that he had made people on the earth. It made the Lord very sad in his heart. 7So the Lord said, “I will destroy all the people that I made on the earth. I will destroy every man and every animal and everything that crawls on the earth. And I will destroy all the birds in the air. Why? Because I am sorry that I have made all these things.”

8But there was one man on earth that pleased the Lord—Noah.*

Noah and the Great Flood

9This is the story about the family of Noah. Noah was a good man all his life. Noah always followed God. 10Noah had three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11–12God looked at the earth, and he saw that people had ruined it. Violence was everywhere—people had become evil and cruel, and had ruined their life on earth.

13So God said to Noah, “All people have filled the earth with anger and violence. So I will destroy all living things. I will remove them from the earth. 14Use cypress wood* and build a boat for yourself. Make rooms in the boat,* and cover the boat with tar.*

15“This is the size I want you to make the boat: 300 cubits* long, 50 cubits* wide, and 30 cubits* high. 16Make a window for the boat about 18 inches* below the roof.* Put a door in the side of the boat. Make three floors

6The Lord was sorry that he had made people on the earth. It made the Lord very sad in his heart. 7So the Lord said, “I will destroy all the people that I made on the earth. I will destroy every man and every animal and everything that crawls on the earth. And I will destroy all the birds in the air. Why? Because I am sorry that I have made all these things.”

8But there was one man on earth that pleased the Lord—Noah.*

Noah and the Great Flood

9This is the story about the family of Noah. Noah was a good man all his life. Noah always followed God. 10Noah had three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11–12God looked at the earth, and he saw that people had ruined it. Violence was everywhere—people had become evil and cruel, and had ruined their life on earth.

13So God said to Noah, “All people have filled the earth with anger and violence. So I will destroy all living things. I will remove them from the earth. 14Use cypress wood* and build a boat for yourself. Make rooms in the boat,* and cover the boat with tar.*

15“This is the size I want you to make the boat: 300 cubits* long, 50 cubits* wide, and 30 cubits* high. 16Make a window for the boat about 18 inches* below the roof.* Put a door in the side of the boat. Make three floors

Noah This name is like the Hebrew word meaning “to be sorry,” “to comfort,” or “to rest.”
cypress wood Literally, “gopher-wood.” We do not know exactly what kind of wood this is. It might be a kind of tree or squared timbers.

Make rooms in the boat Or, “Make caulking for the boat.” This could be small plants that were stuffed into the cracks and covered with tar.
tar Or, “pitch,” a thick oil that must be heated to become liquid.
300 cubits 442' 10 15/16" (135m) if this was the short cubit or 516' 0" (157.5m) if it was the long cubit.
50 cubits 73' 9 3/16" (22.5m) if this was the short cubit or 86' 1 1/2" (26.25m) if it was the long cubit.
30 cubits 44' 3 7/16" (13.5m) if this was the short cubit or 51' 8 1/16" (15.75m) if it was the long cubit.
18 inches Or, “one cubit,” that is, 1' 5 11/16" (45cm) if this was the short cubit or 1' 8 5/8" (52.5cm) if it was the long cubit.

Make a window ... below the roof Or “Make an opening for the boat about 18 inches tall.”

7Then the Lord said to Noah, “I have seen that you are a good man, even among the evil people of this time. So gather your family and all of you go into the boat. 2Get seven pairs (seven males and seven females) of every kind of clean animal.* And get one pair (one male and one female) of every other animal on the earth. Lead all these animals into the boat with you. 3Get seven pairs (seven males and seven females) of all the birds. This will allow all these animals to continue living on the earth after the other animals are destroyed. 4Seven days from now I will send much rain on the earth. It will rain for 40 days and 40 nights. And I will wipe everything off the face of the earth. I will destroy everything I made.” 5Noah did everything the Lord told him to do.

6Noah was 600 years old at the time the rains came. 7Noah and his family went into the boat to be saved from the flood. Noah’s wife and his sons and their wives were on the boat clean animals(s) Birds and animals that God said could be used for sacrifices.
with him. 8 All the clean animals,* all the other animals on the earth, the birds, and everything that crawls on the earth went into the boat with Noah. These animals went into the boat in groups of two, male and female, just like God commanded. 10 Seven days later the flood started. The rain began to fall on the earth.

11–13 On the 17th day of the second month, when Noah was 600 years old, all the springs under the ground split open, and water began flowing from the ground.* That same day the rains began falling hard on the earth. It was like windows in the sky were opened. The rain fell on the earth for 40 days and 40 nights. That very same day Noah and his wife, his sons—Shem, Ham, and Japheth—and their wives went into the boat. 14 Those people and every kind of animal on the earth were in the boat. Every kind of cattle, every kind of animal that crawls on the earth, and every kind of bird were in the boat. 15 All these animals went into the boat with Noah. They came in groups of two from every kind of animal that had the breath of life. 16 All these animals went into the boat in groups of two, just like God had commanded Noah. Then the Lord closed the door behind him.

17 Water flooded the earth for 40 days. The water began rising and lifted the boat off the ground. 18 The water continued to rise, and the boat floated on the water high above the earth. 19 The water rose so much that even the highest mountains were covered by the water. 20 The water continued to rise above the mountains. The water was more than 20 feet* above the highest mountain.

21–22 Every living thing on earth died—every man and woman, every bird, and every kind of animal on earth died. All the many kinds of animals and all the things that crawl on the ground died. Every living, breathing thing on dry land died. 23 In this way, God wiped the earth clean—God destroyed every living thing on the earth—every man, every animal, everything that crawls, and every bird.

All these things were destroyed from the earth. The only life that was left was Noah and those people and animals that were with him in the boat. 24 The water continued to cover the earth for 150 days.

The Flood Ends

8 But God did not forget about Noah. God remembered Noah and all the animals that were with him in the boat. God made a wind blow over the earth. And all the water began to disappear.

2 Rain stopped falling from the sky. And water stopped flowing from under the earth.

3–4 The water that covered the earth began to go down and down. After 150 days, the water was low enough that the boat touched land again. The boat stopped on one of the mountains of Ararat.* This was the 17th day of the seventh month. 5 The water continued to go down, and by the first day of the tenth month the tops of the mountains were above the water.

6 Forty days later, Noah opened the window he had made in the boat. 7 Then Noah sent out a raven.* The raven flew from place to place until the ground was dry and the water was gone. 8 Noah also sent out a dove. Noah wanted the dove to find dry ground. He wanted to know if water still covered the earth.

9 The dove could not find a place to rest because water still covered the earth, so the dove came back to the boat. Noah reached out his hand and caught the dove and brought it back into the boat.

10 After seven days, Noah again sent out the dove. 11 And that afternoon the dove came back to Noah. The dove had a fresh olive leaf in its mouth. This was a sign to show Noah that there was dry ground on the earth. 12 Seven days later, Noah sent the dove out again. But this time the dove never came back.

13 After that, Noah opened the door* of the boat. Noah looked and saw that the ground was dry. This was the first day of the first month of the year. Noah was 601 years old.

---

clean animals Birds and animals that God said could be used for sacrifices.

20 feet Literally, “15 cubits” which would be 22’ 1 11/16” (6.75m) if this was the short cubit or 25’ 10” (7.875m) if it was the long cubit.

Ararat Or, “Urartu,” an area in Eastern Turkey.

raven A kind of bird.

opened the door Literally, “removed the covering.”
14By the 27th day of the second month the ground was completely dry.

15Then God said to Noah, 16"Leave the boat. You, your wife, your sons, and your sons’ wives should go out now. 17Bring every living animal out of the boat with you—all the birds, animals, and everything that crawls on the earth. Those animals will make many more animals, and they will fill the earth again.”

18So Noah went out with his sons, his wife, and his sons’ wives. 19All the animals, everything that crawls, and every bird left the boat. All the animals came out of the boat in family groups.

20Then Noah built an altar* to the Lord. Noah took some of all the clean birds and some of all the clean animals,* and Noah burned them on the altar as a gift to God.

21The Lord smelled these sacrifices, and it pleased him. The Lord said to himself, “I will never again curse the ground as a way to punish people. People are evil from the time that they are young. So I will never again destroy every living thing on the earth like I have just done. 22As long as the earth continues, there will always be a time for planting and a time for harvest. There will always be cold and hot, summer and winter, day and night on earth.”

The New Beginning

9God blessed Noah and his sons. God said to him, “Have many children. Fill the earth with your people. 2Every animal on earth, every bird in the air, every animal that crawls on the ground, and every fish in the sea will be afraid of you. All of them will be under your control. 3In the past, I gave you the green plants to eat. Now, every animal will also be food for you. I give you everything on earth—it is yours. 4But I give you one command. You must not eat meat that still has its life (blood) in it. 5I will demand your blood for your lives. That is, I will demand the life of any animal that kills a person. And I will demand the life of any person who takes another person’s life.

6“God made people as a copy of himself.
So any person who kills a person must be killed by a person.

7“ Noah, you and your sons should have many children. Fill the earth with your people.”

8Then God said to Noah and his sons, 9“I now make my promise to you and to your people who will live after you. 10I make my promise to all the birds, and to all the cattle, and to all the animals that came out of the boat with you. I make my promise to every living thing on earth. 11This is my promise to you: All life on the earth was destroyed by the flood. But that will never happen again. A flood will never again destroy all the life on the earth.”

12And God said, “And I will give you something to prove that I made this promise to you. This proof will show that I have made an agreement with you and every living thing on earth. This agreement will continue for all times to come. This is the proof: 13I have made a rainbow in the clouds. That rainbow is proof of the agreement between me and the earth. 14When I bring clouds over the earth, you will see the rainbow in the clouds. 15When I see this rainbow, I will remember the agreement between me and the earth. 16When I look and see the rainbow in the clouds, I will remember the agreement that continues forever. I will remember the agreement between me and every living thing on the earth.”

17So the Lord said to Noah, “That rainbow is proof of the agreement that I made with all living things on earth.”

Problems Begin Again

18Noah’s sons came out of the boat with him. Their names were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. (Ham was the father of Canaan.) 19Those three men were Noah’s sons. And all the people on earth came from those three sons. 20Noah became a farmer. He planted a field of grapes. 21Noah made wine and drank it. He became drunk and lay in his tent. Noah was not wearing any clothes. 22Ham, the father of Canaan, looked at his naked father. Ham told his brothers outside the tent. 23Then Shem and Japheth got a coat. They carried the coat on their backs into the tent. They walked backwards into the tent. In this way, they did not see their father without clothes.

24Later, Noah woke up. (He was sleeping because of the wine.) Then he learned what his young son, Ham, had done to him. 25So Noah said,

“May there be a curse on Canaan! May he be a slave to his brothers.”

26Noah also said,

“Bless the Lord, God of Shem! May Canaan be Shem’s slave. May God give more land to Japheth. May God live in Shem’s tents. And may Canaan be their slave.”

28After the flood Noah lived 350 years. 29Noah lived a total of 950 years; then he died.

Nations Grow and Spread

Noah’s sons were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. After the flood, these three men became the fathers of many more sons. Here is a list of the sons that came from Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Japheth’s Descendants

2Japheth’s sons were: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras.
3Gomer’s sons were: Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah.
4Javan’s sons were: Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.*
5All the people who lived in the area around the Mediterranean Sea came from these sons of Japheth. Each son had his own land. All the families grew and became different nations. Each nation had its own language.
6Ham’s sons were: Cush,* Mizraim,* Put, and Canaan.
7Cush’s sons were: Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabtecah.
8Raamah’s sons were: Sheba and Dedan.
9Cush also had a son named Nimrod. Nimrod became a very powerful man on earth. Nimrod was a great hunter before the Lord. That is why people compare other men to Nimrod and say, “That man is like Nimrod, a great hunter before the Lord.”
10Nimrod’s kingdom spread from Babylon to Erech, Akkad, and Calneh in the land of Shinar. 11Nimrod also went into Assyria. In Assyria, Nimrod built the cities of Nineveh, Rehoboth Ir, Calah, and Resen. (Resen is the city between Nineveh and Calah, the big city.)
12Mizraim (Egypt) was the father of the people of Lud, Anam, Lehab, Naphtuh, Pathrus, Casluh, and Caphtor. (The Philistine people came from Casluh.)
13Canaan was the father of Sidon. Sidon was Canaan’s first son. Canaan was also the father of Het, the father of the Hittite people.
14And Canaan was the father of the Jebusite people, the Amorite people, the Girgashite people, the Hivite people, the Arkite people, the Sinite people, the Arvadite people, the Zemarite people, and the people from Hamath. The families of Canaan spread to different parts of the world.
15The land of the people of Canaan was from Sidon in the north to Gerar in the south, from Gaza in the west to Sodom and Gomorrah in the east, from Admah and Zeboiim to Lasha.
16All those people were descendants* of Ham. All those families had their own languages and their own lands. They became separate nations.

Canaan  Ham’s son. The people of Canaan lived along the coast of Palestine, Lebanon, and Syria. Later, God gave this land to the people of Israel.
Dodanim  Or, “Rodanim,” or “the people of Rhodes.”
Cush  This is also another name for Ethiopia.
Mizraim  This is also another name for Egypt.
descendant(s)  A person’s children and their future families.
Shem’s Descendants

21 Shem was Japheth’s older brother. One of Shem’s descendants was Eber, the father of all the Hebrew people.*

22 Shem’s sons were Elam, Asshur, Arphaxad, Lud, and Aram.

23 Aram’s sons were Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash.

24 Arphaxad was the father of Shelah. Shelah was the father of Eber. 25 Eber was the father of two sons. One son was named Peleg.* He was given this name because the earth was divided during his life. The other son was named Joktan.

26 Joktan was the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, Obal, Abimael, Sheba, Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All those people were Joktan’s sons. 30 Those people lived in the area between Mesha and the hill country in the East.* Mesha was toward the country of Sephar.

31 Those are the people from the family of Shem. They are arranged by families, languages, countries, and nations.

32 That is the list of the families from Noah’s sons. They are arranged according to their nations. From those families came all the people who spread across the earth after the flood.

The World Divided

11 After the flood, the whole world spoke one language. All people used the same words. 3 People moved from the East.* They found a plain in the country of Shinar. The people stayed there to live.

3 The people said, “We should make bricks and put them in fire so that they will become very hard.” So the people used bricks, not stones, to build their houses. And the people used tar,* not mortar.*

The Story of Shem’s Family

10 This is the story of Shem’s family. Two years after the flood, when Shem was 100 years old, his son Arphaxad was born. 11 After that Shem lived 500 years. He had other sons and daughters.

12 When Arphaxad was 35 years old, his son Shelah was born. 13 After Shelah was born, Arphaxad lived 403 years. During that time he had other sons and daughters.

14 After Shelah was 30 years old, his son Eber was born. 15 After Eber was born, Shelah lived 403 years. During that time he had other sons and daughters.

16 After Eber was 34 years old, his son Peleg was born. 17 After Peleg was born, Eber lived 430 years more. During that time he had other sons and daughters.

18 After Peleg was 30 years old, his son Reu was born. 19 After Reu was born, Peleg lived 209 years more. During that time he had other sons and daughters.

One … Hebrew people Literally, “To Shem was born the father of Eber’s sons.”

Peleg This name means, “division.”

East This usually means the area between the Tigris and Euphrates rivers as far as the Persian Gulf.

tar Or, “pitch,” a thick oil that must be heated to become liquid.

mortar Cement used when building with bricks.

Babel Or, “Babylon.” This is like a word meaning “confuse.”
After Reu was 32 years old, his son Serug was born. After Serug was born, Reu lived 207 years more. During that time he had other sons and daughters.

After Serug was 30 years old, his son Nahor was born. After Nahor was born, Serug lived 200 years more. During that time he had other sons and daughters.

After Nahor was 29 years old, his son Terah was born. After Terah was born, Nahor lived 119 years more. During that time he had other sons and daughters.

After Terah was 70 years old, his sons Abram, Nahor, and Haran were born. This is the story of Terah’s family. Terah was the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran. Haran was the father of Lot. Haran died in his home town, Ur of Babylonia, while his father Terah was still alive. Abram and Nahor both married. Abram’s wife was named Sarai. Nahor’s wife was named Milcah. Milcah was the daughter of Haran. Haran was the father of Milcah and Iscah. Sarai did not have any children because she was not able to have children.

Terah took his family and left Ur of Babylonia. They planned to travel to Canaan. Terah took his son Abram, his grandson Lot (Haran’s son), and his daughter-in-law Sarai (Abram’s wife). They traveled to the city of Haran and decided to stay there. Terah lived to be 205 years old. He died in Haran.

The Lord said to Abram, “Leave your country and your people.
Leave your father’s family and go to the country I will show you.
I will build a great nation from you.
I will bless you
and make your name famous.
People will use your name to bless other people.”

God Calls Abram

Abram Goes to Canaan

So Abram left Haran just like the Lord said. And Lot went with him. Abram was 75 years old when he left Haran. Abram took his wife Sarai, his nephew Lot, all the slaves and the other things he got in Haran. Then Abram and his group moved to the land of Canaan. Abram traveled through the land of Canaan as far as the town of Shechem and then went to the big tree at Moreh. The Canaanite people lived in that place at this time.

The Lord appeared to Abram. The Lord said, “I will give this land to your descendants.” The Lord appeared to Abram at that place. So Abram built an altar for worshiping the Lord there. Then Abram left that place and traveled to the mountains east of Bethel. Abram set up his tent there. The city of Bethel was to the west. The city of Ai was to the east. At that place Abram built another altar to the Lord. And Abram worshiped the Lord there.

After this, Abram began traveling again. He traveled toward the Negev.

Abram in Egypt

During this time, the land was very dry. There was no rain, and no food was able to grow. So Abram went down to Egypt to live. Abram saw how beautiful his wife Sarai was. So just before they arrived in Egypt, Abram told Sarai, “I know that you are a very beautiful woman. The Egyptian men will see you. They will say, ‘This woman is his wife.’ Then they will kill me because they want you. So tell people that you are my sister. Then they will not kill me. They will think I am your brother, and they will be kind to me. In this way, you will save my life.”

curse To ask for bad things to happen to a thing or person.
The Lord appeared God often used special shapes so people could see him. Sometimes he was like a man, an angel, a fire, or a bright light.
altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices that were offered as gifts to God.
Negev The desert area in the southern part of Judah.

Ur of Babylonia Literally, “Ur of the Chaldeans.” A city in southern Babylonia.
14So Abram went into Egypt. The men of Egypt saw that Sarai was a very beautiful woman. 15Some of the Egyptian leaders saw her also. They told Pharaoh that she was a very beautiful woman. Those leaders took Sarai to Pharaoh's home. 16Pharaoh was kind to Abram because he thought Abram was Sarai's brother. Pharaoh gave Abram sheep, cattle, and donkeys. Abram also got men servants, women servants, and camels.

17Pharaoh took Abram's wife. So the Lord caused Pharaoh and all the people in his house to have very bad diseases. 18So Pharaoh called Abram. Pharaoh said, “You have done a very bad thing to me! You didn't tell me Sarai was your wife! Why? 19You said, ‘She is my sister.’ Why did you say that? I took her so she could be my wife. But now I give your wife back to you. Take her and go!” 20Then Pharaoh commanded his men to lead Abram out of Egypt. So Abram and his wife left that place. And they carried everything they had with them.

Abram Returns to Canaan

13So Abram left Egypt. Abram traveled through the Negev with his wife and everything he owned. Lot was also with them. 2At this time, Abram was very rich. He had many animals and much silver and gold. 3Abram continued traveling around. He left the Negev and went back to Bethel. He went to the place between the city of Bethel and the city of Ai. This was the same place Abram and his family had camped before. 4This was the place Abram had built an altar. So Abram worshiped the Lord at this place.

Abram and Lot Separate

5During this time, Lot was also traveling with Abram. Lot had many animals and tents. 6Abram and Lot had so many animals that the land could not support both of them together. 7And the Canaanite people and the Perizzite people were also living in this land at the same time. The shepherds of Abram and Lot began to argue.

8So Abram said to Lot, “There should be no arguing between you and me. Your people and my people should not argue. We are all brothers. 9We should separate. You can choose any place you want. If you go to the left, I will go to the right. If you go to the right, I will go to the left.”

10Lot looked and saw the Jordan Valley. Lot saw that there was much water there. (This was before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah. At that time the Jordan Valley all the way to Zoar was like the Lord’s Garden. This was good land, like the land of Egypt.) 11So Lot chose to live in the Jordan Valley. The two men separated, and Lot began traveling east. 12Abram stayed in the land of Canaan, and Lot lived among the cities in the valley. Lot moved far south to Sodom and made his camp there. 13The Lord knew that the people of Sodom were very evil sinners.

14After Lot left, the Lord said to Abram, “Look around you. Look north and south and east and west. 15All this land that you see I will give to you and your people who live after you. This will be your land forever. 16I will make your people as many as the dust of the earth. If people could count all the dust on earth, then they could count your people. 17So go. Walk through your land. I now give it to you.”

18So Abram moved his tents. He went to live near Mamre’s big trees. This was near the city of Hebron. At that place Abram built an altar for worshiping the Lord.

Lot Is Captured

14Amraphel was the king of Shinar. Arioch was the king of Ellasar. Kedorlaomer was the king of Elam. And Tidal was the king of Goiim. 2All these kings fought a war against Bera the king of Sodom, Birsha the king of Gomorrah, Shinab the king of Admah, Shemeber the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela. (Bela is also called Zoar.) 3All these kings joined their armies in the Valley of Siddim. (The Valley of Siddim is now the Salt Sea.) 4These kings had served Kedorlaomer for twelve years. But in the 13th year they all rebelled against him. 5So in the 14th year, King Kedorlaomer and the kings with him came to fight against them. Kedorlaomer and the kings with him defeated the Rephaim people in Ashteroth Karnaim. They also defeated the Zuzim people in Ham. They defeated the Emim people in Shaveh Kiriathaim. And they defeated the Horite people who lived in the area from the hill country of Seir* to El Paran.* (El Paran is near the desert.) Then King Kedorlaomer turned back and went to En Mishpat (that is Kadesh) and defeated the Amalekite people. He also defeated the Amorite people living in Hazezon Tamar.

At that time, the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (Zoar) joined together and went to fight against their enemies. They went to fight in the Valley of Siddim.* They fought against Kedorlaomer the king of Elam, Tidal the king of Goiim, Amraphel the king of Shinar, and Arioch the king of Ellasar. So there were four kings fighting against five.

There were very many holes filled with tar* in the Valley of Siddim. The kings of Sodom and Gomorrah and their armies ran away. Many of the soldiers fell into those holes. But the others ran away to the mountains.

So their enemies took all the things that the people of Sodom and Gomorrah owned. They took all their food and clothing and left. Lot, the son of Abram’s brother, was living in Sodom, and the enemy captured him. The enemy also took everything he owned and left. One of the men that was not captured went to Abram the Hebrew and told him what happened. Abram was camped near the trees of Mamre the Amorite. Mamre, Eshcol, and Aner had made an agreement to help each other.* And they had also signed an agreement to help Abram.

Abram learned that Lot was captured. So Abram called all of his family together. There were 318 trained soldiers. Abram led the men and chased the enemy all the way to the town of Dan. That night, he and his men made a surprise attack against the enemy. They defeated the enemy and chased them to Hobah, north of Damascus. Then Abram brought back all the things that the enemy had stolen. Abram brought back the women and servants, and also Lot and everything Lot owned.

Then Abram went home after he defeated Kedorlaomer and the kings with Kedorlaomer. When he came home, the king of Sodom went out to meet him in the Valley of Shaveh. (This is now called King’s Valley.)

Melchizedek

Melchizedek, the king of Salem, also went to meet Abram. Melchizedek was a priest of God Most High. Melchizedek brought bread and wine. Melchizedek blessed Abram and said, “ Abram, may God Most High bless you. God made heaven and earth. And we praise God Most High. God helped you to defeat your enemies.”

Abram gave Melchizedek one tenth of everything he had taken during the battle.

Then the king of Sodom told Abram, “Give me my people that the enemy took away. But you can keep all these other things.”

But Abram said to the king of Sodom, “I promise to the Lord, the God Most High, the One who made heaven and earth—I promise that I will not keep anything that is yours—not even a thread or a shoestring! I don’t want you to say, ‘I made Abram rich.’ The only thing I will accept is the food that my young men have eaten. But you should give the other men their share. Take the things we won in battle and give some to Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre. These men helped me in the battle.”
God's Agreement With Abram

15 After all these things happened, the word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision. God said, “Abram, don’t be afraid. I will defend you. And I will give you a great reward.”

2But Abram said, “Lord God, there is nothing you can give me that will make me happy. Why? Because I have no son. So my slave Eliezer from Damascus will get all the things I own after I die.” 3Abram said, “You have given me no son. So a slave born in my house will get everything I have.”

4Then the Lord spoke to Abram. God said, “That slave will not be the one to get the things you have. You will have a son. And your son will get the things you have.”

5Then God led Abram outside. God said, “Look at the sky. See the many stars. There are so many you can’t count them. In the future, your family will be like that.”

6Abram believed God. And God decided Abram’s faith was the same as living right and doing a good work. 7God said to Abram, “I am the Lord who led you from Ur of Babylonia. I did this so I could give you this land—you will own this land.”

8But Abram said, “Lord, my Master, how can I be sure that I will get this land?”

9God said to Abram, “We will make an agreement. Bring me a three-year-old cow, a three-year-old goat, and a three-year-old ram. Also, bring me a dove and a young pigeon.”

10Abram brought all these things to God. Abram killed these animals and cut each of them into two pieces. Then Abram laid each half across from the other half. Abram did not cut the birds into two pieces. 11Later, large birds flew down to eat the animals. But Abram chased them away.

12Later in the day, the sun was going down. Abram became very sleepy and fell asleep. While he was asleep a very terrible darkness came. 13Then the Lord said to Abram, “You should know these things: Your descendants will live in a country that is not their own. They will be strangers there. And the people there will make them slaves and do bad things to them for 400 years. 14But then I will punish the nation that made them slaves. Your people will leave that land, and they will take many good things with them.

15“You yourself will live to be very old. You will die in peace. And you will be buried with your family. 16After four generations your people will come to this land again. At that time, your people will defeat the Amorite people. I will use your people to punish the Amorites living here. This will be in the future, because the Amorite people are not yet evil enough to punish.”

17After the sun went down, it became very dark. The dead animals still lay on the ground—each animal cut in two pieces. At that time, a column of smoke and fire passed between the halves of the dead animals.

18So on that day, the Lord made a promise and an agreement with Abram. The Lord said, “I will give this land to your descendants. I will give them the land between the River of Egypt and the great river Euphrates. 19This is the land of the Kenite people, the Kenizzite people, the Kadmonite people, 20the Hittite people, the Perizzite people, the Rephaim people, 21the Amorite people, the Canaanite people, the Girgashite people, and the Jebusite people.”

Hagar the Servant Girl

16 Sarai was Abram’s wife. She and Abram had no children. Sarai had a servant from Egypt. Her name was Hagar. Sarai said to Abram, “The Lord has not allowed me to have children. So go with my servant Hagar. I will accept the child that is born from her like it is my own.”

column of smoke and fire A sign that God used to show that he was with his people.
passed between the halves of the dead animals This showed that God “signed” or “sealed” the agreement he made with Abraham. In those days, a person making an agreement showed he was sincere by walking between the cut animals and saying something like, “May this same thing happen to me if I don’t keep the agreement.”

vision Like a dream. God gave messages to his special people by letting them see and hear things in visions.
Ur of Babylonia Literally, “Ur of the Chaldeans.” A city in southern Babylonia.

River of Egypt That is, the stream called, “Wadi El-Arish.”
Genesis 16:3–17:10

Abram obeyed his wife Sarai. 3 This was after Abram lived ten years in the land of Canaan. And Sarai gave Hagar to her husband Abram. (Hagar was her servant from Egypt.)

4 Hagar became pregnant from Abram. When Hagar saw this, she became very proud and began to feel that she was better than Sarai her master. 5 But Sarai said to Abram, “My servant now hates me. And I blame you for this. I gave her to you. She became pregnant. And then she began to feel that she is better than I am. I want the Lord to judge which of us is right.”

6 But Abram said to Sarai, “Hagar is your slave. You can do anything you want to her.” So Sarai was mean to her servant Hagar, and Hagar ran away.

Hagar’s Son Ishmael

7 The Angel of the Lord found Hagar near a pool of water in the desert. The pool was by the road to Shur. 8 The Angel said, “Hagar, you are Sarai’s servant. Why are you here? Where are you going?”

Hagar said, “I am running away from Sarai.”

9 The Angel of the Lord said to Hagar, “Sarai is your master. Go home to her and obey her.” 10 The Angel of the Lord also said to Hagar, “From you will come many people. There will be so many people that they cannot be counted.”

11 The Angel of the Lord also said, “Hagar, you are now pregnant, and you will have a son. You will name him Ishmael,* because the Lord has heard that you were treated badly, and he will help you.”

12 “Ishmael will be wild and free, like a wild donkey. He will move from place to place and camp near his brothers. He will be against everyone and everyone will be against him.”

13 The Lord talked to Hagar. Hagar began to use a new name for God. She said to him, “You are ‘God Who Sees Me.’” She said this because she thought, “I see that even in this place God sees me and cares for me!” 14 So that well was called Beer Lahai Roi.* That well is between Kadesh and Bered.

15 Hagar gave birth to Abram’s son. And Abram named the son Ishmael. 16 Abram was 86 years old when Ishmael was born from Hagar.

Circumcision—Proof of the Agreement

17 When Abram was 99 years old, the Lord appeared to him. The Lord said, “I am God All-Powerful.* Do these things for me: Obey me and live the right way. 2 If you do this, I will prepare an agreement between us. I will promise to make your people a great nation.”

3 Then Abram bowed down before God. God said to him, “This is my part of our agreement: I will make you the father of many nations. 4 I will change your name. Your name will not be Abram*—your name will be Abraham.* I give you this name because I am making you the father of many nations. 5 I will give you many, many descendants.* New nations and kings will come from you. 7 And I will prepare an agreement between you and me. This agreement will also be for all your descendants. This agreement will continue forever. I will be your God and the God of all your descendants. 8 And I will give this land to you and to all your descendants. I will give you the land you are traveling through—the land of Canaan. I will give you this land forever. And I will be your God.”

9 And God said to Abraham, “Now, this is your part of the agreement. You and all your descendants* will obey my agreement. 10 This is the agreement that you will obey. This is the agreement between you and me. This is for all your descendants: Every boy that is

Beer Lahai Roi This means “The well of the Living One who sees me.”

God All-Powerful Literally, “El Shaddai.”

Abram This means “honored father.”

Abraham This means “great father” or “father of many.”

descendant(s) A person’s children and their future families.
born must be circumcised. 11 You will cut the skin to show that you follow the agreement between me and you. 12 When the baby boy is eight days old, you will circumcise him. Every boy born among your people and every boy that is a slave of your people must be circumcised. 13 So every baby boy in your nation will be circumcised. Every boy that is born from your family or bought as a slave will be circumcised. 14 {Abraham, this is the agreement between you and me:}

Any male that is not circumcised will be cut off from his people. Why? Because that person has broken my agreement.”

Isaac—the Promised Son

15 God said to Abraham, “I will give Sarai, your wife, a new name. Her new name will be Sarah. 16 I will bless her. I will give her a son, and you will be the father. She will be the mother of many new nations. Kings of nations will come from her.” 17 Abraham bowed his face to the ground {to show he respected God}. But he laughed and said to himself, “I am 100 years old. I can’t have a son. And Sarah is 90 years old. She can’t have a child.”

18 Then Abraham said to God, “I hope Ishmael will live and serve you.”

19 God said, “No! I said that your wife Sarah will have a son. You will name him Isaac. I will make my agreement with him. That agreement will be an agreement that continues forever with all his descendants.”

20 {You mentioned Ishmael, and I heard you. I will bless him. He will have many children. He will be the father of twelve great leaders. His family will become a great nation. But I will make my agreement with Isaac. Isaac will be the son that Sarah will have. This son will be born at this same time next year.”}

After God finished talking with Abraham, God went up into heaven. 23 God had told Abraham to circumcise all the men and boys in his family. 24 So Abraham gathered Ishmael and all the slaves born in his house together. Abraham also gathered together the slaves that were bought with money. Every man and boy in Abraham’s house was gathered together, and they were all circumcised. Abraham circumcised them that day, just like God told him.

24 Abraham was 99 years old when he was circumcised. 25 And Ishmael, his son, was 13 years old when he was circumcised.

26 Abraham and his son were circumcised on that same day. 27 Also, on that day all the men in Abraham’s house were circumcised. All the slaves born in his house and all the slaves that he had bought were circumcised.

The Three Visitors

18 Later, the Lord again appeared to Abraham. Abraham was living near the oak trees of Mamre. One day, at the hottest part of the day, Abraham was sitting at the door of his tent. 2 Abraham looked up and saw three men standing in front of him. When Abraham saw the men, he ran to them and bowed before them. 3 Abraham said, “Sirs,* please stay awhile with me, your servant. I will bring some water to wash your feet. You can rest under the trees. I will get some food for you, and you can eat as much as you want. Then you can continue your journey.”

The three men said, “That is fine. We will do as you say.”

6 Abraham hurried to the tent. Abraham said to Sarah, “Quickly, prepare enough wheat for three loaves of bread.” 7 Then Abraham ran to his cattle. Abraham took his best young calf. Abraham gave the calf to the servant. Abraham told the servant to hurry, kill the calf, and prepare it for food. 8 Abraham brought the meat and some milk and cheese and set them down in front of the three men. Then Abraham stood near the men ready to serve them while they sat under the tree and ate.

Sirs This Hebrew word can mean “sirs” or “Lord.” This might show that these were not ordinary men.

circumcised(d) Cutting the foreskin from a man. In Israel this was proof that a man had made a special agreement to obey God’s laws and teachings.
cut off from his people This means a person must be separated from his family and lose his share of the inheritance.
Sarah A name, probably Aramaic, meaning “princess.”
Sarah A Hebrew name meaning “princess.”
Isaac This name means “he laughs.”
descendants A person’s children and their future families.
Then the men said to Abraham, “Where is your wife Sarah?”

Abraham said, “She is there, in the tent.”

Then the Lord said, “I will come again in the spring. At that time, your wife Sarah will have a son.”

Sarah was listening in the tent and heard these things. Abraham and Sarah were very old. Sarah was past the right age for women to have children. So Sarah did not believe what she heard. She laughed to herself and said, “I am old and my husband is old. I am too old to have a baby.”

Then the Lord said to Abraham, “Sarah laughed and said she was too old to have a baby. Is anything too hard for the Lord? No! I will come again in the spring when I said I would. And your wife Sarah will have a son.”

But Sarah said, “I didn’t laugh!” (She said this because she was afraid.)

But the Lord said, “No. I know that is not true. You did laugh!”

Then the men got up to leave. They looked toward Sodom and began walking in that direction. Abraham walked with them to send them on their way.

Abraham’s Bargain With God

The Lord said to himself, “Should I tell Abraham the thing that I will now do? Abraham will become a great and powerful nation. And all the people on earth will be blessed because of him. I have made a special agreement with Abraham. I did this so he would command his children and his descendants to live the way the Lord wants them to. I did this so they would live right and be fair. Then I, the Lord, can give him the things I promised.”

Then the Lord said, “I have heard many times that the people of Sodom and Gomorrah are very evil. So I will go and see if things are as bad as I have heard. Then I will know for sure.”

So the men turned and started walking toward Sodom. But Abraham stood there before the Lord. Then Abraham approached the Lord and asked, “Lord, do you plan to destroy the good people while you are destroying the evil people? What if there are 50 good people in that city? Will you still destroy the city? Surely you will save the city for the 50 good people living there. Surely you would not destroy the city. You would not destroy 50 good people to kill the evil people.

If that happened, then good people and evil people would be the same—they would both be punished. You are the judge of all the earth. I know you will do the right thing.”

Then the Lord said, “If I find 50 good people in the city of Sodom, I will save the whole city.”

Then Abraham said, “Compared to you, Lord, I am only dust and ashes. But let me bother you again and ask you this question: What if five good people are missing? What if there are only 45 good people in the city? Will you destroy a whole city for just five people?”

The Lord said, “If I find 45 good people there, I will not destroy the city.”

Abraham spoke again. He said, “And if you find only 40 good people there, will you destroy the city?”

The Lord said, “If I find 40 good people, I will not destroy the city.”

Then Abraham said, “May I bother my Lord again and ask, what if there are 20 good people?”

The Lord answered, “If I find 20 good people, I will not destroy the city.”

Then Abraham said, “Lord, please don’t be angry with me. Let me ask you this: If only 30 good people are in the city, will you destroy the city?”

The Lord said, “If I find 30 good people there, I will not destroy the city.”

Then Abraham said, “May I bother my Lord again and ask, what if there are 20 good people?”

The Lord answered, “If I find 20 good people, I will not destroy the city.”

Then Abraham said, “Lord, please don’t be angry with me, but let me bother you this one last time. If you find ten good people there, what will you do?”

The Lord said, “If I find ten good people in the city, I will not destroy it.”

The Lord was finished speaking to Abraham, so the Lord left. And Abraham went back to his home.
That evening the two angels came to the city of Sodom. Lot was sitting near the city gates and saw the angels. Lot thought they were men traveling through town. Lot got up and went to them and bowed down on the ground. Lot said, “Sirs, please come to my house, and I will serve you. There you can wash your feet and stay the night. Then tomorrow you can continue your journey.”

The angels answered, “No, we will stay the night in the square.”

But Lot continued to ask them to come to his house. So the angels agreed to go to Lot’s house. They went to Lot’s house. Lot gave them something to drink. Lot cooked some bread for the angels, and they ate it.

That evening, just before bedtime, men from every part of town came to Lot’s house. The men from Sodom stood around the house and called to Lot. They said, “Where are the two men (angels) that came to you tonight? Bring them out to us. We want to have sex with them.”

Lot went outside, and closed the door behind him. Lot said to the men, “No! Friends, I beg you, please don’t do this evil thing! Look, I have two daughters who have never slept with a man before. I will give my daughters to you. You can do anything you want with them. But please don’t do anything to these men. These men have come to my house, and I must protect them.”

Lot went outside, and closed the door behind him. Lot said to the men, “No! Friends, I beg you, please don’t do this evil thing! Look, I have two daughters who have never slept with a man before. I will give my daughters to you. You can do anything you want with them. But please don’t do anything to these men. These men have come to my house, and I must protect them.”

The men surrounding the house answered, “Then, you come here!” The men said to themselves, “This man Lot came to our city as a visitor. Now he wants to tell us how we should live!” Then the men said to Lot, “We will do worse things to you than to them.” So the men started moving closer and closer to Lot. They were about to break down the door.

But the two men staying with Lot opened the door, pulled Lot back inside the house, and closed the door. Then they did something to the men outside the door—they caused all those evil men, young and old, to become blind. So the men trying to get in the house could not find the door.

The two men said to Lot, “Are there any other people from your family living in this city? Do you have any sons-in-law, sons, daughters, or any other people from your family here? If so, then you should tell them to leave now. We are going to destroy this city. The Lord heard how evil this city is, so he sent us to destroy it.”

So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, the men who had married his other daughters. Lot said, “Hurry and leave this city! The Lord will soon destroy it!” But those men thought Lot was joking.

The next morning at dawn, the angels were trying to make Lot hurry. They said, “This city will be punished. So take your wife and your two daughters who are still with you and leave this place. Then you will not be destroyed with the city.”

But Lot was confused and did not hurry to leave. So the two men (angels) held the hands of Lot and his wife and his two daughters. The two men led Lot and his family out of the city safely. The Lord was kind to Lot and his family. So the two men brought Lot and his family out of the city. After they were out, one of the men said, “Now run to save your life! Don’t look back at the city. And don’t stop any place in the valley. Run until you are in the mountains. If you stop, then you will be destroyed with the city.”

But Lot said to the two men, “Sirs, please don’t force me to run so far! You have been very kind to me, your servant. You have been very kind to save me. But I can’t run all the way to the mountains. What if I am too slow and something happens? I will be killed! Look, there is a very small town near here. Let me run to that town. I can run to that town and be safe.”

The angel said to Lot, “Fine. I’ll let you do that. I won’t destroy that town. But run there fast. I can’t destroy Sodom until you are safely in that town.” (That town is named Zoar,* because it is a small town.)
GENESIS 19:23–20:7

Sodom and Gomorrah Destroyed

Lot was entering Zoar just as the sun was coming up. 24 At the same time, the Lord began to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah. The Lord caused fire and burning sulfur to fall out of the sky from the Lord. 25 So the Lord destroyed those cities. The Lord destroyed the whole valley—all the plants and all the people living in the cities.

While they were running away, Lot’s wife looked back at the city and became a block of salt.

Early that same morning, Abraham got up and went to the place where he stood before the Lord. 28 Abraham looked down toward the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah. Abraham looked at all the land in the valley. Abraham saw much smoke rising from the land. It looked like smoke from a very big fire.

God destroyed the cities in the valley. But when God did this, he remembered Abraham and did not destroy Abraham’s nephew Lot, who had been living among the cities in the valley. But God sent Lot away from there before he destroyed those cities.

Lot and His Daughters

Lot was afraid to stay in Zoar. So he and his two daughters went to live in the mountains. They lived in a cave there. 31 One day the older daughter said to the younger, “Everywhere on the earth, men and women marry and have a family. But our father is old and there are no men around here to give us children. 32 So let’s get our father drunk with wine. Then we can have sexual relations with him. That way we can use our father to keep our family alive!”

That night the two girls went to their father and got him drunk with wine. Then the older daughter went into her father’s bed and had sexual relations with him. Lot was so drunk that he did not even know when she came to bed or when she got up.

34 The next day, the older daughter said to the younger daughter, “Last night I went to bed with my father. Let’s get him drunk with wine again tonight. Then you can go into his bed and have sex with him. In this way we can use our father to have children and our family will not come to an end.” 35 So that night the two girls got their father drunk with wine. Then the younger daughter went into his bed and had sexual relations with him. Again, Lot was so drunk that he did not know when she came to bed or when she got up.

36 Both of Lot’s daughters became pregnant. Their father was the father of their babies.

37 The older daughter gave birth to a son. She named him Moab.* Moab is the father of all the Moabite people living today. 38 The younger daughter also gave birth to a son. She named him Ben-Ammi.* Ben-Ammi is the father of all the Ammonite people living today.

Abraham Goes to Gerar

Abraham left that place and traveled to the Negev.* Abraham settled in the city of Gerar, between Kadesh and Shur. While in Gerar, 2 Abraham told people that Sarah was his sister. Abimelech, king of Gerar, heard this. Abimelech wanted Sarah, so he sent some servants to take her. 3 But one night, God spoke to Abimelech in a dream. God said, “You will die. That woman you took is married.”

4 But Abimelech had not yet slept with Sarah. So Abimelech said, “Lord, I am not guilty. Would you kill an innocent person? 5 Abraham himself told me, ‘This woman is my sister.’ And the woman also said, ‘This man is my brother.’ I am innocent. I did not know what I was doing.”

6 Then God said to Abimelech in a dream, “Yes, I know that you are innocent. And I know that you did not know what you were doing. I saved you. I did not allow you to sin against me. I was the One who did not allow you to sleep with her. 7 So give Abraham his wife again. Abraham is a prophet.* He will

Moab In Hebrew, this name sounds like “From father.”
Ben-Ammi In Hebrew, this name sounds like “Son of my father” or “Son of my people.”
Negev The desert area in the southern part of Judah.
prophet A person God called to speak for him.
pray for you, and you will live. But if you do not give Sarah back to Abraham, then I promise that you will die. And all your family will die with you.”

8So very early the next morning, Abimelech called all his servants and told them about the dream. The servants were scared. 9Then Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, “Why have you done this to us? What wrong did I do against you? Why did you lie and say that she was your sister? You brought much trouble to my kingdom. You should not have done these things to me. 10What were you afraid of? Why did you do these things to me?”

11Then Abraham said, “I was afraid. I thought no one in this place respected God. I thought someone would kill me to get Sarah. 12She is my wife, but she is also my sister. She is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother. 13God led me away from my father’s house. God led me to wander to many different places. When that happened, I told Sarah, ‘Do something for me; wherever we go, tell people you are my sister.’”

14Then Abimelech understood what had happened. So Abimelech gave Sarah back to Abraham. Abimelech also gave Abraham some sheep, cattle, and slaves. 15And Abimelech said, “Look all around you. This is my land. You may live any place you want.”

16Abimelech said to Sarah, “I gave your brother Abraham 1,000 pieces of silver. I did this to show that I am sorry for all these things. I want everyone to see that I did the right thing.”

17–18 The Lord made all the women in Abimelech’s family not able to have children. God did this because Abimelech had taken Sarah, Abraham’s wife. But Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech, his wife, and his servant girls.

Finally, a Baby for Sarah

The Lord kept the promise he had made to Sarah. The Lord did for Sarah what he had promised. 2Sarah became pregnant and gave birth to a son for Abraham in his old age. All these things happened exactly like God promised. 3Sarah gave birth to a son, and Abraham named him Isaac.* 4Abraham circumcised* Isaac when Isaac was eight days old like God had commanded.

5Abraham was 100 years old when his son Isaac was born. 6And Sarah said, “God has made me happy. Every person who hears about this will be happy with me. 7No one thought that I, Sarah, would be able to have Abraham’s child. But I have given Abraham a son even though he is old.”

Trouble at Home

8Isaac continued to grow. Soon he was old enough to begin eating solid food. So Abraham gave a big party. 9Hagar was the Egyptian slave woman who had had Abraham’s first son. Sarah saw Hagar’s son playing. 10Sarah became upset. 11Sarah said to Abraham, “Get rid of that slave woman and her son. Send them away! When we die, our son Isaac will get everything we have. I don’t want that slave woman’s son sharing those things with my son Isaac!”

12This upset Abraham very much. He was worried about his son, Ishmael. 13But God said to Abraham, “Don’t worry about the boy and the slave woman. Do what Sarah wants. Isaac will be your only heir.* 14But I will also bless the son of your slave woman. He is your son, so I will make a great nation from his family also.”

15Early the next morning, Abraham got some food and some water. Abraham gave these things to Hagar. Hagar carried these things and left with her boy. Hagar left that place and wandered in the desert of Beersheba. 16After some time, all the water was gone. There was none left to drink. So Hagar put her son under a bush. 17Hagar walked a short distance away. Then she stopped and sat down. Hagar thought her son would die because there was no water. She did not want to watch him die. She sat there and began to cry.

18God heard the boy crying. And God’s angel called to Hagar from heaven. He said, Isaac This name means “he laughs” or “he is happy.”

circumcise(d) Cutting the foreskin from a man. In Israel this was proof that a man had made a special agreement to obey God’s laws and teachings.

heir A person who receives his parents’ property when they die.
“What is wrong, Hagar? Don’t be afraid! The Lord has heard the boy crying there. 18Go help the boy. Hold his hand and lead him. I will make him the father of many, many people.”

19Then God allowed Hagar to see a well of water. So Hagar went to the well and filled her bag with water. Then she gave water to the boy to drink.

20God continued to be with the boy while he grew up. Ishmael lived in the desert and became a hunter. He learned to shoot a bow very well.

21His mother found a wife for him in Egypt. They continued living in the Paran desert.

Abraham’s Bargain With Abimelech

22Then Abimelech and Phicol spoke with Abraham. Phicol was the commander of Abimelech’s army. They said to Abraham, “God is with you in everything you do. 23So make a promise to me here before God. Promise that you will be fair with me and with my children. Promise that you will be kind to me and the country here where you have lived. Promise you will be as kind to me as I have been to you.”

24And Abraham said, “I promise to treat you the same way you have treated me.”

25Then Abraham complained to Abimelech. Abraham complained because Abimelech’s servants had captured a well of water.

26But Abimelech said, “I don’t know who has done this thing. You never told me about this before today!”

27So Abraham and Abimelech made an agreement. Abraham gave Abimelech some sheep and cattle as proof of the agreement.

28Abraham also put seven* female lambs in front of Abimelech.

29Abimelech asked Abraham, “Why did you put these seven female lambs by themselves?”

30Abraham answered, “When you accept these lambs from me, it will be proof that I dug this well.”

31So after that, the well was called Beersheba.* He gave the well this name because it was the place where they made a promise to each other.

32So Abraham and Abimelech made an agreement at Beersheba. Then Abimelech and his military commander went back to the country of the Philistines.

33Abraham planted a special tree at Beersheba. At that place, Abraham prayed to the Lord, the God who lives forever. 34And Abraham stayed a long time in the country of the Philistines.

Abraham, Kill Your Son!

22After those things, God decided to test Abraham’s faith. God said to him, “Abraham!”

And Abraham said, “Yes!”

2Then God said, “Take your son to the land of Moriah. At Moriah kill your son as a sacrifice* for me. This must be Isaac, your only son—the son you love. Use him as a burnt offering on one of the mountains there. I will tell you which mountain.”

3In the morning Abraham got up and saddled his donkey. Abraham took Isaac and two servants with him. Abraham cut the wood for the sacrifice.* Then they went to the place God told them to go. 4After they traveled three days, Abraham looked up and in the distance, he saw the place they were going to.

5Then Abraham said to his servants, “Stay here with the donkey. I will take my son and go to that place and worship. Then we will come back to you later.”

6Abraham took the wood for the sacrifice* and put it on his son’s shoulder, 7Abraham took the special knife and fire. Then both Abraham and his son went together to the place for worship.

7Isaac said to his father Abraham, “Father!”

Abraham answered, “Yes, son.”

Isaac said, “I see the wood and the fire. But where is the lamb we will burn as a sacrifice*?”

8Abraham answered, “God himself is providing the lamb for the sacrifice,* my son.”

seven The Hebrew word for “seven” is like the Hebrew word for “oath” or “promise” and it is like the last part of the name Beersheba. The seven animals were proof of this promise.

Beersheba This name means “well of the oath.”

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
Isaac Is Saved

So both Abraham and his son went together to that place. 9 They came to the place where God told them to go. There, Abraham built an altar.* Abraham laid the wood on the altar. Then Abraham tied his son Isaac. Abraham laid Isaac on the altar on the wood. 10 Then Abraham took his knife and prepared to kill his son.

11 But then the Angel of the Lord stopped Abraham. The angel called from heaven and said, “Abraham, Abraham!” Abraham answered, “Yes.” 12 The angel said, “Don’t kill your son or hurt him in any way. Now I can see that you do respect and obey God. I see that you are ready to kill your son, your only son, for me.”

13 Then Abraham saw a ram. The ram’s horns were caught in a bush. So Abraham went and got the ram and killed it. Abraham used the ram as a sacrifice* to God. Abraham’s son was saved. 14 So Abraham gave that place a name, “YAHWEH YIREH.”* Even today people say, “On this mountain, the Lord can be seen.”

15 The Angel of the Lord called to Abraham from heaven a second time. 16 The angel said, “You were ready to kill your son for me. This was your only son. Because you did this for me, I make you this promise: I, the Lord, promise that 17 I will truly bless you. I will give you many, many descendants,* as many as the stars in the sky. There will be as many people as sand on the seashore. And your people will live in cities that they take from their enemies.

18 Every nation on the earth will be blessed through your descendants.* I will do this because you obeyed me.”

19 Then Abraham went back to his servants. They all traveled back to Beersheba and Abraham stayed there.

Sarah Dies

23 Sarah lived to be 127 years old. 2 She died in the city of Kiriath Arba (Hebron) in the land of Canaan. Abraham was very sad and cried for her there. 3 Then Abraham left his dead wife and went to talk to the Hittite people. He said, 4 “I am only a traveler staying in your country. I have no place to bury my wife. Please give me some land so I can bury my wife.”

5 The Hittite people answered Abraham, “Sir, you are one of God’s great leaders among us. You can have the best place we have to bury your dead. You can have any of our burying places that you want. None of us will stop you from burying your wife there.”

6 Abraham got up and bowed to the people. 8 Abraham said to them, “If you truly want to help me bury my dead wife, then speak to Ephron the son of Zohar for me. 9 I would like to buy the cave of Machpelah. Ephron owns this. It is at the end of his field. I will pay him the full price—all that it is worth. I want all of you to be witnesses that I am buying it as a burial place.”

10 Ephron was sitting there among the people. Ephron answered Abraham, “Sir, in front of all my people, I give you that land and the cave on it so you can bury your wife.”

12 Abraham bowed before the Hittite people. 13 Abraham said to Ephron before all... the people, “But I want to pay you the full price for the field. Accept my money, and I will bury my dead.”

14 Ephron answered Abraham, “Sir, listen to me. 10 pounds of silver means nothing to you and me! Take the land, and bury your dead wife.”

15 Abraham understood that Ephron was telling him the price of the land. So Abraham paid him for the land. Abraham weighed 10 pounds of silver for Ephron and gave it to the merchant.

16 So the field of Ephron changed owners. This field was in Machpelah, east of Mamre. Abraham became the owner of the field, the cave on the field, and all the trees that were on that field. All the people in the city saw the agreement between Ephron and Abraham. 17 After this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of that field near Mamre (Hebron) in the land of Canaan. 18 Abraham bought the field and the cave on it from the Hittite people. This became his property, and he used it as a burying place.

A Wife for Isaac

Abraham lived to be a very old man. The Lord blessed Abraham and everything that he did. 2 Abraham’s oldest servant was in charge of everything Abraham owned. Abraham called that servant to him and said, “Put your hand under my leg.* 3 Now I want you to make a promise to me. Promise to me before the Lord, the God of heaven and earth, that you will not allow my son to marry a girl from Canaan. We live among those people but don’t let him marry a Canaanite girl. 4 Go back to my country to my own people. There find a wife for my son Isaac and bring her here to him.”

5 The servant said to him, “Maybe this woman will not want to come back with me to this land. If that happens, should I take your son with me to your homeland?”

6 Abraham said to him, “No! Don’t take my son to that place. 7 The Lord, the God of heaven, brought me from my homeland to this place. That place was the home of my father and the home of my family. But the Lord promised that this new land here would belong to my family. May the Lord send his angel before you so you can choose a wife for my son. 8 But if the girl refuses to come with you, then you will be free from this promise. But you must not take my son back to that place.”

9 So the servant put his hand under his master’s leg and made the promise.

The Search Begins

10 The servant took ten of Abraham’s camels and left that place. The servant carried with him many different kinds of beautiful gifts. The servant went to Mesopotamia to Nahor’s city. 11 The servant went to the water well outside the city. It was in the evening when the women come out to get water. The servant made the camels kneel down there.

12 The servant said, “Lord, you are the God of my master Abraham. Allow me to find a wife for his son today. Please show this kindness to my master Abraham. 13 Here I am, standing by this well of water, and the young women from the city are coming out to get water. 14 I am waiting for a special sign to know which is the right young woman for Isaac. 15 This is the special sign: I will say to the girl, ‘Please put your jar down so I can drink.’ I will know if she is the right young woman if she says, ‘Drink, and I will also give water to your camels.’ If that happens, then you will have proved that she is the right young woman for Isaac. And I will know you have shown kindness to my master.”

A Wife Is Found

15 Then, before the servant finished praying, a young woman named Rebekah came to the well. Rebekah was the daughter of Bethuel. Bethuel was the son of Milcah and Nahor, Abraham’s brother. Rebekah came to the well with her water jar on her shoulder. She was very pretty. She was a virgin; she had never slept with a man. She went down to the well and filled her jar. Then the servant ran to her and said, “Please give me a little water to drink from your jar.”

Rebekah quickly lowered the jar from her shoulder and gave him a drink. Rebekah said, “Drink this, sir.” As soon as she finished giving him something to drink, Rebekah said, “I will also pour some water for your camels.”

So Rebekah quickly poured all the water from her jar into the drinking trough for the camels. Then she ran to the well to get more water. And she gave water to all the camels.

The servant quietly watched her. He wanted to be sure that the Lord had given him an answer and had made his trip successful.

After the camels finished drinking, he gave Rebekah a gold ring that weighed 1/4 ounce.* He also gave her two gold arm bracelets that weighed 5 ounces* each. The servant asked, “Who is your father? And is there a place in your father’s house for my group to sleep?”

Rebekah answered, “My father is Bethuel, the son of Milcah and Nahor.” Then she said, “And yes, we have straw for your camels and a place for you to sleep.”

The servant bowed and worshiped the Lord. The servant said, “Blessed is the Lord, the God of my master Abraham. The Lord has been kind and loyal to my master. The Lord has led me to the right girl for my master’s son.”

Then Rebekah ran and told her family about all these things. Rebekah had a brother. His name was Laban. Rebekah told about the things the man had said to her. Laban was listening to her. And when Laban saw the ring and the bracelets on his sister’s arms, he ran out to the well. And there the man was—standing by the camels at the well.

Laban said, “Sir, you are welcome to come in!* You don’t have to stand outside here. I have prepared a room for you to sleep in and a place for your camels.”

So Abraham’s servant went into the house. Laban helped him with the camels and gave him straw for the camels to eat. Then Laban gave him water so he and the other men with him could wash their feet. Then Laban gave him food to eat. But the servant refused to eat. He said, “I will not eat until I have told you why I came.”

So Laban said, “Then tell us.”

Bargaining for Rebekah

The servant said, “I am Abraham’s servant. The Lord has greatly blessed my master in everything. My master has become a great man. The Lord has given Abraham many flocks of sheep and herds of cattle. Abraham has much silver and gold and many servants. Abraham has many camels and donkeys. Sarah was my master’s wife. When she was very old, she gave birth to a son. And my master has given everything he owns to that son. My master forced me to make a promise to him. My master said to me, ‘You must not allow my son to marry a girl from Canaan. We live among those people, but I don’t want him to marry one of the Canaanite girls. So you must promise to go to my father’s country. Go to my family and choose a wife for my son.’

I said to my master, ‘Maybe the woman will not come back to this place with me.’ But my master said to me, ‘I serve the Lord, and the Lord will send his angel with you and help you. You will find a wife for my son among my people there. But if you go to my father’s country, and they refuse to give you a wife for my son, then you will be free from this promise.’

Today I came to this well and said, ‘Lord, God of my master Abraham, please make my trip successful. I will stand by this well and wait for a young woman to come to get water. Then I will say, “Please give me water from your jar to drink.” The right young woman will answer in a special way. She will say, “Drink this water, and I will also get water for your camels.” That way I will know that she is the woman the Lord has chosen for my master’s son.”

---

* Literally, “one beka.”
* Literally, “five measures.”
* Literally, “Come in, blessed of the Lord!”
“Before I finished praying, Rebekah came out to the well to get water. She had her water jar on her shoulder as she went to get water from the well. I asked her to give me some water. She quickly lowered the jar from her shoulder and poured me some water. Then she said, ‘Drink this and I’ll get some water for your camels.’ So I drank the water, and she gave water to my camels. Then I gave her the ring and bracelets for her arms. I bowed my head and thanked the Lord. I blessed the Lord, the God of my master Abraham. I thanked him for leading me straight to the granddaughter of my master’s brother. Now, tell me, will you be kind and loyal to my master and give him your daughter? Or will you refuse to give him your daughter? Tell me so I will know what I should do.”

Then Laban and Bethuel answered, “We see this is from the Lord, so there is nothing we can say to change it. Here is Rebekah. Take her and go. Let her marry your master’s son. This is what the Lord wants.”

When Abraham’s servant heard this, he bowed to the ground before the Lord. He gave Rebekah the gifts he brought. He gave her beautiful clothes and gold and silver jewelry. He also gave expensive gifts to her mother and brother. Then he and his men had something to eat and drink and then spent the night there. Early the next morning, they got up and said, “Now we must go back to my master.”

Rebekah’s mother and her brother said, “Let Rebekah stay with us for a short time. Let her stay with us ten days. After that she can go.”

But the servant said to them, “Do not make me wait. The Lord has made my trip successful. Now let me go back to my master.”

Rebekah’s brother and mother said, “We will call Rebekah and ask her what she wants.” They called Rebekah and asked her, “Do you want to go with this man now?” Rebekah said, “Yes, I will go.”

So they allowed Rebekah to go with Abraham’s servant and his men. Rebekah’s nurse also went with them. While Rebekah was leaving they said to her, “Our sister, may you be the mother of millions of people. And may your descendants defeat their enemies and take their cities.”

Then Rebekah and her nurse got on the camels and followed the servant and his men. So the servant took Rebekah and left on the trip back home.

Isaac had left Beer Lahai Roi and was now living in the Negev. One evening, Isaac went out to the field to think. Isaac looked up and saw the camels coming from far away.

Rebekah looked and saw Isaac. Then she jumped down from the camel. She said to the servant, “Who is that young man walking in the field to meet us?” The servant said, “That is my master’s son.” So Rebekah covered her face with her veil.

The servant told Isaac about all the things that had happened. Then Isaac brought the girl into his mother’s tent. Rebekah became Isaac’s wife that day. Isaac loved her very much. So Isaac was comforted after his mother’s death.

Abraham’s Family

Abraham married again. His new wife was named Keturah. Keturah gave birth to Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah. Jokshan was the father of Sheba and Dedan. The people of Asshur and Leum, and Letush were descendants of Dedan. The sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. All these sons came from the marriage of Abraham and Keturah. Before Abraham died, he gave some gifts to the sons of his women servants and sent those sons to the East. He sent them away from Isaac. Then Abraham gave everything he owned to Isaac.

descendants A person’s children and their future families.
Negev The desert area in the southern part of Judah.
think Or, “to go for a stroll.”
Asshur Or, “Assyria.”
woman servant Or, “concubine,” a slave woman who was like a wife to a man.
East This usually means the area between the Tigris and Euphrates rivers as far east as the Persian Gulf.
Abraham lived to be 175 years old. Then Abraham grew weak and died. He had lived a long and satisfying life. He died and was gathered to his people. His sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah. This cave is in the field of Ephron, the son of Zohar. It was east of Mamre. This is the same cave that Abraham bought from the Hittite people. Abraham was buried there with his wife Sarah. After Abraham died, God blessed Isaac. And Isaac continued to live at Beer Lahai Roi.

This is the list of Ishmael’s family. Ishmael was Abraham and Hagar’s son. These are the names of Ishmael’s sons: The first son was Nebaioth, then Kedar was born, then Adbeel, Mibsam, Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.

Those were the names of Ishmael’s sons. Each son had his own camp that became a small town. The twelve sons were like twelve princes with their own people. Ishmael lived to be 137 years old. Then he died and was gathered to his ancestors.

Isaac’s Family

This is the story of Isaac. Abraham had a son named Isaac. When Isaac was 40 years old he married Rebekah. Rebekah was from Paddan Aram. She was Bethuel’s daughter and the sister of Laban the Aramean. Isaac’s wife could not have children. So Isaac prayed to the Lord for his wife. The Lord heard Isaac’s prayer. And the Lord allowed Rebekah to become pregnant.

While Rebekah was pregnant, she had much trouble with the babies inside her. Rebekah prayed to the Lord and said, “Why is this happening to me?” The Lord said to her, “Two nations are in your body. The rulers of two families will be born from you. And they will be divided. One son will be stronger than the other. The older son will serve the younger.” And when the right time came, Rebekah gave birth to twins. The first baby was red. His skin was like a hairy robe. So he was named Esau. When the second baby was born, he was holding tightly to Esau’s heel. So that baby was named Jacob. Isaac was 60 years old when Jacob and Esau were born.

The boys grew up. Esau became a skilled hunter. He loved to be out in the fields. But Jacob was a quiet man. He stayed in his tent. Isaac loved Esau. He liked to eat the animals Esau killed. But Rebekah loved Jacob.

One time Esau came back from hunting. He was tired and weak from hunger. Jacob was boiling a pot of beans. So Esau said to Jacob, “I am weak with hunger. Let me have some of those red beans.” (That is why people call him Edom.)

But Jacob said, “You must sell me your rights as the firstborn son today.” Esau said, “I am almost dead with hunger. If I die, all of my father’s wealth will not help me. So I will give you my share.” But Jacob said, “First, promise me that you will give it to me.” So Esau made a promise to Jacob. Esau sold his part of their father’s wealth to Jacob. Then Jacob gave Esau bread and food. Esau ate and drank and then left. So Esau showed that he did not care about his rights as the firstborn son.

Isaac Lies to Abimelech

Once there was a famine. This was like the famine that happened during Abraham’s life. So Isaac went to the town of Gerar, to Abimelech the king of the Philistines.

Esau This name is like the word meaning “hairy.”
Jacob This name is like the Hebrew word meaning “heel.” It also means “the one who follows” or “tricky.”
Edom This name means “red.”
rights as the firstborn son Usually, after the father died, the firstborn son got half of the father’s property and became the new head of the family.
famine A time when there is no rain and no crops can grow. People and animals often die from lack of food and water.
The Lord spoke to Isaac. The Lord said, “Don’t go down to Egypt. Live in the land that I commanded you to live in. Stay in that land, and I will be with you. I will bless you. I will give you and your family all these lands. I will do what I promised to Abraham your father. I will make your family as many as the stars of heaven. And I will give all these lands to your family. Through your descendants, every nation on earth will be blessed. I will do this because your father Abraham obeyed my words and did the things I said. Abraham obeyed my commands, my laws, and my rules.”

So Isaac stayed and lived in Gerar. Isaac’s wife Rebekah was very beautiful. The men of that place asked Isaac about Rebekah. Isaac said, “She is my sister.” Isaac was afraid to tell them Rebekah was his wife. Isaac was afraid the men would kill him so that they could have her.

After Isaac had lived there a long time, Abimelech looked out his window and saw Isaac and his wife playing. Abimelech called for Isaac and said, “This woman is your wife. Why did you tell us that she was your sister?” Isaac said to him, “I was afraid that you would kill me so you could have her.”

Abimelech said, “You have done a bad thing to us. One of our men might have slept with your wife. Then he would be guilty of a great sin.”

So Abimelech gave a warning to all the people. He said, “No person must hurt this man or this woman. If any person hurts them, then that person will be killed.”

Isaac Becomes Rich

Isaac planted fields in that place. And that year he gathered a great harvest. The Lord blessed him very much. Isaac became rich. He gathered more and more wealth until he became a very rich man. He had many flocks and herds of animals. He also had many slaves. All the Philistine people were jealous of him. So the Philistines destroyed all the wells that Isaac’s father Abraham and his servants had dug many years before. The Philistines filled those wells with dirt. And Abimelech said to Isaac, “Leave our country. You have become much more powerful than we are.”

So Isaac left that place and camped near the little river of Gerar. Isaac stayed there and lived. Long before this time, Abraham had dug many wells. After Abraham died, the Philistines filled the wells with dirt. So Isaac went back and dug those wells again. Isaac gave them the same names his father had given them. Isaac’s servants also dug a well near the little river. A spring of water flowed from that well. But the men who herded sheep in the Valley of Gerar argued with Isaac’s servants. They said, “This water is ours.” So Isaac named that well Esek. He gave it that name because that was the place where those people argued with him.

Then Isaac’s servants dug another well. The people of that place also argued because of that well. So Isaac named that well Sitnah.

Isaac moved from there and dug another well. No men came to argue about that well. So Isaac named that well Rehoboth. Isaac said, “Now the Lord has found a place for us. We will grow and be successful in this place.”

From that place Isaac went to Beersheba. The Lord spoke to Isaac that night. The Lord said, “I am the God of your father Abraham. Don’t be afraid. I am with you, and I will bless you. I will make your family great. I will do this because of my servant Abraham.” So Isaac built an altar and worshiped the Lord in that place. Isaac set up camp there and his servants dug a well.

Abimelech came from Gerar to see Isaac. Abimelech brought with him Ahuzzath, his adviser, and Phicol, the commander of his army.

Isaac asked, “Why have you come to see me? You were not friendly with me before. You even forced me to leave your country.”

They answered, “Now we know that the Lord is with you. We think that we should... make an agreement. We want you to make a promise to us. "We did not hurt you, now you should promise not to hurt us. We sent you away, but we sent you away in peace. Now it is clear that the Lord has blessed you."

So Isaac gave a party for them. They all ate and drank. Early the next morning, each man made a promise and a vow.* Then the men left in peace.

On that day, Isaac’s servants came and told them about the well they had dug. The servants said, “We found water in that well.” So Isaac named that well Shibah.* And that city is still called Beersheba.*

Esau’s Wives

When Esau was 40 years old, he married two Hittite women. One was Judith the daughter of Beeri. The other was Basemath the daughter of Elon. These marriages made Isaac and Rebekah very upset.

Inheritance Problems

Isaac grew old, and his eyes became so weak he could not see clearly. One day he called his older son Esau to him. Isaac said, “Son!”

Esau answered, “Here I am.”

Isaac said, “I am old. Maybe I will die soon! So take your bow and arrows and go hunting. Kill an animal for me to eat. Prepare the food that I love. Bring it to me, and I will eat it. Then I will bless you before I die.” So Esau went hunting.

Jacob Tricks Isaac

Rebekah was listening when Isaac told those things to his son Esau. Rebekah said to her son Jacob, “Listen, I heard your father talking to your brother Esau. Your father said, ‘If I can feel you, then I will know if you are really my son Esau.” So listen son, and do what I tell you. Go out to our goats and bring me two young goats. I will prepare them the way your father loves them. Then you will carry the food to your father. And he will bless you before he dies.”

But Jacob told his mother Rebekah, “My brother Esau is a hairy man. I am not hairy like him.” If my father touches me, he will know that I am not Esau. Then he will not bless me—he will curse* me! Why? Because I tried to trick him.”

So Rebekah said to him, “I will accept the blame if there is trouble. Do the things I said. Go and get the goats for me.”

So Jacob went out and got two goats and brought them to his mother. His mother cooked the goats in the special way that Isaac loved. Then Rebekah took the clothes that her older son Esau loved to wear. Rebekah put those clothes on the younger son Jacob. Rebekah took the skins of the goats and put them on Jacob’s hands and on his neck. Then Rebekah got the food she had cooked and gave it to Jacob.

Jacob went to his father and said, “Father.” His father said, “Yes, son. Who are you?”

Jacob said to his father, “I am Esau, your first son. I have done the things you told me. Now sit up and eat the animals that I hunted for you. Then you can bless me.”

But Isaac said to his son, “How have you hunted and killed the animals so quickly?”

Jacob answered, “Because the Lord your God allowed me to find the animals quickly.”

Then Isaac said to Jacob, “Come near to me so that I can feel you, my son. If I can feel you, then I will know if you are really my son Esau.”

So Jacob went to Isaac his father. Isaac felt him and said, “Your voice sounds like Jacob’s voice. But your arms are hairy like the arms of Esau.”

Isaac did not know it was Jacob, because his arms were hairy like Esau’s arms. So Isaac blessed Jacob.

Isaac said, “Are you really my son Esau?” Jacob answered, “Yes, I am.”

The Blessing for Jacob

Then Isaac said, “Bring me the food. I will eat it and bless you.” So Jacob gave him vow A special promise to God.

Shibah A Hebrew word meaning “seven” or “oath.”
Beersheba This name means “well of the oath.”
curse To ask for bad things to happen to a thing or person.
the food, and he ate it. Then Jacob gave him some wine, and he drank it.

26 Then Isaac said to him, “Son, come near and kiss me.” So Jacob went to his father and kissed him. Isaac smelled Esau’s clothes and blessed him. Isaac said,

“My son smells like the fields that the Lord has blessed.

28 May the Lord give you plenty of rain so you will have good crops and wine.

29 May all people serve you.
May nations bow down to you.
You will rule over your brothers.
Your mother’s sons will bow down to you and obey you.

Whoever curses you will be cursed.
Whoever blesses you will be blessed.”

Esau’s “Blessing”

30 Isaac finished blessing Jacob. Then, just as Jacob left his father Isaac, Esau came in from hunting. 31 Esau prepared the food in the special way his father loved. Esau brought it to his father. He said to his father, “Father, I am your son. Get up and eat the meat that I killed and cooked for you. Then you can bless me.”

32 But Isaac said to him, “Who are you?” He answered, “I am your son—your first son—Esau.”

33 Then Isaac became very worried and said, “Then who was it that cooked and brought me food before you came? I ate it all and I blessed him. Now it is too late to take back my blessing.”

34 Esau heard his father’s words. He became very angry and bitter. He cried out. He said to his father, “Then bless me also, father!”

35 Isaac said, “Your brother tricked me! He came and took your blessing!”

36 Esau said, “His name is Jacob (‘Tricky’). That is the right name for him. He has tricked me twice. He took away my rights as the firstborn son.* And now he has taken away my blessing.” Then Esau said, “Have you saved any blessing for me?”

37 Isaac answered, “No, it’s too late. I gave Jacob the power to rule over you. And I said all his brothers will be his servants. And I have given him the blessing for much grain and wine. There is nothing left to give you son.”

38 But Esau continued to beg his father. “Do you have only one blessing, father? Bless me also, father!” Esau began to cry.

39 Then Isaac said to him,

“You will not live on good land.
And you will not have much rain.

40 You will have to fight to live.
And you will be a slave to your brother.
But you will fight to be free.
You will break away from his control.”

41 After that Esau hated Jacob because of this blessing. Esau thought to himself, “My father will soon die, and there will be a time of sadness for him. But after that I will kill Jacob.”

42 Rebekah heard about Esau’s plan to kill Jacob. She sent for Jacob and said to him, “Listen, your brother Esau is planning to kill you. 43 So, son, do what I say. My brother Laban is living in Haran. Go to him and hide.

44 Stay with him for a short time. Stay with him until your brother stops being angry.

45 After a short time, your brother will forget what you did to him. Then I will send a servant to bring you back. I don’t want to lose both of my sons in the same day.”

46 Then Rebekah said to Isaac, “Your son Esau married Hittite women. I am very upset about these women. Why? Because they are not our people. I’ll just die if Jacob marries one of these women too!”

Jacob Searches for a Wife

28 Isaac called Jacob and blessed him. Then Isaac gave him a command. Isaac said, “You must not marry a Canaanite woman. 29 So leave this place and go to Paddan Aram. Go to the house of Bethuel, your mother’s father. Laban, your mother’s brother, lives there. Marry one of his daughters. 30 I pray that God All-Powerful* will bless you and curse  To ask for bad things to happen to a thing or person.

right as the firstborn son  Usually, after the father died, the firstborn son got half of the father’s property and became the new head of the family.

God All-Powerful  Literally, “El Shaddai.”
give you many children. I pray that you will become the father of a great nation. I pray that God will bless you and your children the same way he blessed Abraham. And I pray that you will own the land where you live. This is the land God gave to Abraham.”

5So Isaac sent Jacob to Rebekkah’s brother in Paddan Aram. So Jacob went to Laban son of Bethuel the Aramean. Laban was the brother of Rebekkah. Rebekkah was the mother of Jacob and Esau.

6Esau learned that his father Isaac blessed Jacob. And Esau learned that Isaac commanded Jacob not to marry a Canaanite woman. 7And Esau learned that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother and went to Paddan Aram. 8Esau saw from this that his father did not want his sons to marry Canaanite women. 9Esau already had two wives. But he went to Ishmael and married another woman. He married Mahalath, the daughter of Ishmael. Ishmael was Abraham’s son. Mahalath was Nebaioth’s sister.

God’s House—Bethel

10Jacob left Beersheba and went to Haran. 11While Jacob was traveling, the sun set. So Jacob went to a place to stay the night. Jacob found a rock at that place and laid his head on it to sleep. 12Jacob had a dream. He dreamed there was a ladder that was on the ground and reached up into heaven. Jacob saw the angels of God going up and down the ladder. 13And then Jacob saw the Lord standing by the ladder. The Lord said, “I am the Lord, the God of your grandfather Abraham. I am the God of Isaac. I will give you the land that you are lying on now. I will give this land to you and to your children. 14You will have many, many descendants.* They will be as many as the pieces of dust on earth. They will spread east and west, north and south. All the families on earth will be blessed because of you and your descendants.

15“I am with you, and I will protect you every place you go. And I will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have done what I promised.”

16Then Jacob woke from his sleep and said, “I know that the Lord is in this place. But I did not know he was here until I slept.”

17Jacob was afraid. He said, “This is a very great place. This is the house of God. This is the gate to heaven.”

18Jacob got up very early in the morning. Jacob took the rock he had slept on and set it up on its edge. Then he poured oil on the rock. In this way, he made this rock a memorial to God. 19The name of that place was Luz. But Jacob named it Bethel.*

20Then Jacob made a promise. He said, “If God will be with me, and if God will protect me on this trip, and if God gives me food to eat and clothes to wear, 21and if I return in peace to my father’s house—if God does all these things—then the Lord will be my God. 22I am setting this stone up as a memorial stone. It will show that this is a holy place for God. And I will give God one tenth of all he gives me.”

Jacob Meets Rachel

29Then Jacob continued his trip. He went to the country in the East. 2Jacob looked, and he saw a well in the field. There were three flocks of sheep lying near the well. This well was the place where these sheep drank water. There was a large rock covering the mouth of the well. 3When all the flocks gathered there, the shepherds rolled the rock away from the well. Then all the sheep could drink from the water. After the sheep were full, the shepherds put the rock back in its place.

4Jacob said to the shepherds there, “Brothers, where are you from?” The shepherds answered, “We are from Haran.” 5Then Jacob said, “Do you know Laban, the son of Nahor?” The shepherds answered, “We know him.” 6Then Jacob said, “How is he?” They answered, “He is well. Everything is fine. Look, that is his daughter Rachel coming now with his sheep.”

descendant(s) A person’s children and their future families.

Bethel This name means “God’s house.”
7Jacob said, “Look, it is still day and long before the sun sets. It is not yet time for the animals to be gathered together for the night. So give them water and let them go back into the field.”

8But this shepherd said, “We can’t do that until all the flocks are gathered together. Then we will move the rock from the well, and all the sheep will drink.”

9While Jacob was talking with the shepherds, Rachel came with her father’s sheep. (It was Rachel’s job to take care of the sheep.) 10Rachel was Laban’s daughter. Laban was the brother of Rebekah, Jacob’s mother. When Jacob saw Rachel, he went and moved the rock and gave water to the sheep. 11Then Jacob kissed Rachel and cried. 12Jacob told Rachel that he was from her father’s family. He told Rachel that he was the son of Rebekah. So Rachel ran home and told her father.

13Laban heard the news about his sister’s son Jacob. So Laban ran to meet him. Laban hugged him and kissed him and brought him to his house. Jacob told Laban everything that had happened.

14Then Laban said, “This is wonderful! You are from my own family.” So Jacob stayed with Laban for a month.

Laban Tricks Jacob

15One day Laban said to Jacob, “It is not right for you to continue working for me without pay. You are a relative, not a slave. What should I pay you?”

16Laban had two daughters. The older was Leah and the younger was Rachel.

17Rachel was beautiful. And Leah’s eyes were gentle.* 18Jacob loved Rachel. Jacob said to Laban, “I will work seven years for you if you will allow me to marry your daughter Rachel.”

19Laban said, “It would be better for her to marry you than someone else. So stay with me.”

20So Jacob stayed and worked for Laban for seven years. But it seemed like a very short time because he loved Rachel very much.

21After seven years Jacob said to Laban, “Give me Rachel so that I can marry her. My time of work for you is finished.”

22So Laban gave a party for all the people in that place. 23That night, Laban brought his daughter Leah to Jacob. Jacob and Leah had sexual relations together. 24(Laban gave his maid Zilpah to his daughter to be her maid.) 25In the morning Jacob saw that it was Leah he had slept with. Jacob said to Laban, “You have tricked me. I worked hard for you so that I could marry Rachel. Why did you trick me?”

26Laban said, “In our country we do not allow the younger daughter to marry before the older daughter. 27But continue for the full week of the marriage ceremony, and I will also give you Rachel to marry. But you must serve me another seven years.”

28So Jacob did this and finished the week. Then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel as a wife. 29(Laban gave his maid Bilhah to his daughter Rachel to be her maid.) 30So Jacob had sexual relations with Rachel also. And Jacob loved Rachel more than Leah. Jacob worked for Laban for another seven years.

Jacob’s Family Grows

31The Lord saw that Jacob loved Rachel more than Leah. So the Lord made it possible for Leah to have children. But Rachel did not have any children.

32Leah gave birth to a son. She named him Reuben.* Leah named him this because she said, “The Lord has seen my troubles. My husband doesn’t love me. So now maybe my husband will love me.”

33Leah became pregnant again and had another son. She named this son Simeon.* 34Leah said, “The Lord has heard that I am not loved, so he gave me this son.”

35Leah became pregnant again and had another son. She named the son Levi.* Leah said, “Now, surely my husband will love me. I have given him three sons.”

Leah’s eyes were gentle This might be a polite way of saying Leah was not very pretty.

Reuben This is like the word meaning “Look, a son.”
Simeon This is like the word meaning “He hears.”
Levi This is like the word meaning “accompany,” “be joined together,” or “become close.”
Then Leah gave birth to another son. She named this son Judah. Leah named him this because she said, “Now I will praise the Lord.” Then Leah stopped having children.

Rachel saw that she was not giving Jacob any children. Rachel became jealous of her sister Leah. So Rachel said to Jacob, “Give me children or I will die!”

Jacob became angry with Rachel. He said, “I am not God. God is the One who has caused you to not have children.”

Then Rachel said, “You can have my maid Bilhah. Sleep with her and she will have a child for me. Then I can become a mother because of her.”

So Rachel gave Bilhah to her husband Jacob. Jacob had sexual relations with Bilhah. Bilhah became pregnant and gave Jacob a son.

Rachel said, “God has listened to my prayer. He decided to give me a son.” So Rachel named this son Dan.

Bilhah became pregnant again and gave Jacob a second son. Rachel said, “I have fought hard to compete with my sister. And I have won.” So she named that son Naphtali.

Leah saw that she could have no more children. So she gave her slave girl Zilpah to Jacob. Then Zilpah had a son. Leah said, “I am lucky.” So she named the son Gad.

Zilpah gave birth to another son. Leah said, “I am very happy! Now women will call me happy.” So she named that son Asher.

During the wheat harvest, Reuben went into the fields and found some special flowers. Reuben brought these flowers to his mother Leah. But Rachel said to Leah, “Please give me some of your son’s flowers.”

Leah answered, “You have already taken away my husband. Now you are trying to take away my son’s flowers.”

But Rachel answered, “If you will give me your son’s flowers, then you can sleep with Jacob tonight.”

Jacob came in from the fields that night. Leah saw him and went out to meet him. She said, “You will sleep with me tonight. I have paid for you with my son’s flowers.” So Jacob slept with Leah that night.

Then God allowed Leah to become pregnant again. She gave birth to a fifth son. Leah said, “God has given me a reward because I gave my slave to my husband.” So Leah named her son Issachar.

Leah became pregnant again and gave birth to a sixth son. Leah said, “God has given me a fine gift. Now surely Jacob will accept me, because I have given him six sons.” So Leah named the son Zebulun.

Later Leah gave birth to a daughter. She named the daughter Dinah.

Then God heard Rachel’s prayer. God made it possible for Rachel to have children.

Rachel became pregnant and gave birth to a son. Rachel said, “God has taken away my shame and given me a son.” So Rachel named the son Joseph.

After the birth of Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, “Now let me go to my own home. Give me my wives and my children. I have earned them by working for you 14 years. You know that I served you well.”

Laban said to him, “Let me say something! I know that the Lord has blessed me because of you. Tell me what I should pay you, and I will give it to you.”

Jacob answered, “You know that I have worked hard for you. Your flocks have grown and been well while I cared for them. When I came, you had little. Now you have much, much more. Every time I did something for you, the Lord blessed you. Now it is time for

Jacob Tricks Laban

Issachar This is like the word meaning “reward” or “salary.”
Zebulun This is like the word meaning “praise” or “honor.”
Joseph This is like the word meaning “to add,” “collect,” or “gather.”
Let me say something Literally, “If I find favor in your sight.”

This is a polite way to ask permission to speak.
know Or, “guessed,” “divined,” or “concluded.”
me to work for myself—it is time to build my own house.”

31 Laban asked, “Then what should I give you?”

Jacob answered, “I don't want you to give me anything. I only want you to pay me for the work I have done. Just do this one thing: I will go back and take care of your sheep.

32 But let me go through all your flocks today and take every lamb with spots or stripes. And let me take every black young goat. And let me take every female goat with stripes or spots. That will be my pay. 33 In the future, you can easily see if I am honest. You can come to look at my flocks. If I have any goat that isn't spotted or any sheep that isn't black, then you will know that I stole it.”

34 Laban answered, “I agree to that. We will do what you ask.” 35 But that day Laban hid all the male goats that had spots. And Laban hid all the female goats that had spots on them. Laban also hid all the black sheep. Laban told his sons to watch these sheep. 36 So the sons took all the spotted animals and led them to another place. They traveled for three days. Jacob stayed and took care of all the animals that were left. But there were no animals there that were spotted or black.

37 So Jacob cut green branches from poplar and almond trees. Jacob stripped off some of the bark so that the branches had white stripes on them. 38 Jacob put the branches in front of the flocks at the watering places. When the animals came to drink, they also mated in that place. 39 Then when the goats mated in front of the branches, the young that were born were spotted, striped, or black.

40 Jacob separated the spotted and the black animals from the other animals in the flock. Jacob kept his animals separate from Laban’s. 41 Any time the stronger animals in the flock were mating, Jacob put the branches before their eyes. The animals mated near those branches. 42 But when the weaker animals mated, Jacob did not put the branches there. So the young animals born from the weak parents were Laban’s. And the young animals born from the stronger parents were Jacob’s.

43 In this way, Jacob became very rich. He had large flocks, many servants, camels, and donkeys.

Time To Leave—Jacob Runs Away

31 One day, Jacob heard Laban's sons talking. They said, “Jacob has taken everything that our father owned. Jacob has become rich—and he has taken all this wealth from our father.” 32 Then Jacob noticed that Laban was not as friendly as he had been in the past. 33 The Lord said to Jacob, “Go back to your own land where your ancestors* lived. I will be with you.”

4 So Jacob told Rachel and Leah to meet him in the field where he kept his flocks of sheep and goats. 5 Jacob said to Rachel and Leah, “I have seen that your father is angry with me. He was always friendly with me in the past, but now he is not. 6 You both know that I have worked as hard as I can for your father. 7 But your father cheated me. Your father has changed my pay ten times. But during all this time, God protected me from all of Laban’s tricks.

8 At one time Laban said, ‘You can keep all the goats with spots. This will be your pay.’ After he said this, all the animals gave birth to spotted babies. So they were all mine. But then Laban said, ‘I will keep the spotted goats. You can have all the striped goats. That will be your pay.’ After he said this, then all the animals gave birth to striped babies. 9 So God has taken the animals away from your father and has given them to me.

10 “I had a dream during the time when the animals were mating. I saw that the only male goats who were mating were the ones with stripes and spots. 11 The angel of God spoke to me in that dream. The angel said, ‘Jacob!’

“answered, ‘Yes!’

12 The angel said, ‘Look, only the striped and spotted goats are mating. I am causing this to happen. I have seen all the wrong things Laban is doing to you. I am doing this so that you can have all the new baby goats. 13 I am the God who came to you at Bethel. At that place, you made an altar. You poured olive oil on the altar. And you made a promise to me.

ancestors  Literally, “fathers.” This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
Now I want you to be ready to go back to the country where you were born.'"

14Rachel and Leah answered Jacob, “Our father has nothing to give us when he dies. He treated us like strangers. He sold us to you, and then he spent all the money that should have been ours! God took all this wealth from our father, and now it belongs to us and our children. So you should do whatever God told you to do!”

17So Jacob prepared for his trip. He put his sons and his wives on camels. Then they began traveling back to the land of Canaan where his father lived. All the flocks of animals that Jacob owned walked ahead of them. He carried everything that he had gotten while he lived in Paddan Aram.

19At this time, Laban was gone to cut the wool from his sheep. While he was gone, Rachel went into his house and stole the false gods that belonged to her father.

20Jacob tricked Laban the Aramean. He did not tell Laban he was leaving. Jacob took his family and everything he owned and left quickly. They crossed the Euphrates River and traveled toward the hill country of Gilead.

22Three days later, Laban learned that Jacob had run away. So Laban gathered his men together and began to chase Jacob. After seven days, Laban found Jacob near the hill country in Gilead. That night God went to Laban in a dream. God said, “Be careful! Be careful of every word you say to Jacob.”

The Search for the Stolen Gods

25The next morning Laban caught Jacob. Jacob had set his camp on the mountain. So Laban and all his men set their camp in the hill country of Gilead.

26Laban said to Jacob, “Why did you trick me? Why did you take my daughters like they were women you captured during war? Why did you run away without telling me? If you had told me, I would have given you a party. There would have been singing and dancing with music. You didn’t even let me kiss my grandchildren and my daughters goodbye. You were very foolish to do this! I have the power to really hurt you. But last night your father’s God came to me in a dream. He warned me not to hurt you in any way. I know that you want to go back to your home. That is why you left. But why did you steal the gods from my house?”

31Jacob answered, “I left without telling you, because I was afraid! I thought you would take your daughters away from me. But I did not steal your gods. If you find any one here with me that has taken your gods, then that person will be killed. Your men will be my witnesses. You can look for anything that belongs to you. Take anything that is yours.” (Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen Laban’s gods.)

33So Laban went and looked through Jacob’s camp. He looked in Jacob’s tent and then in Leah’s tent. Then he looked in the tent where the two slave women stayed. But he did not find the gods from his house. Then Laban went into Rachel’s tent. Rachel had hidden the gods inside her camel’s saddle, and she was sitting on them. Laban looked through the whole tent, but he did not find the gods.

35And Rachel said to her father, “Father, don’t be angry with me. I am not able to stand up before you. I am having my monthly time of bleeding.” So Laban looked through the camp, but he did not find the gods from his house.

36Then Jacob became very angry. Jacob said, “What wrong have I done? What law have I broken? Why do you have the right to chase me and stop me? You have looked through everything I own. You have found nothing that belongs to you. If you have found anything, then show it to me. Put it here where our men can see it. Let our men decide which one of us is right. I have worked 20 years for you. During all that time, none of the baby sheep and goats died during birth. And I have not eaten any of the rams from your flocks. Any time a sheep was killed by wild animals, I always paid for that myself. I did not take the dead animal to you and say that it was not my fault. But I was robbed day and night. In the daytime, the sun took away my strength, and at night sleep was taken from my eyes by the cold. I worked 20 years like a slave for you. For the first 14 years I worked to win your two daughters. The last six years I worked to earn your animals. And during that time you changed my pay ten times. 42 But the God of my ancestors,* the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac,* was with me. If God had not been with me, then you would have sent me away with nothing. But God saw the trouble that I had. God saw the work that I did. And last night God proved that I am right.”

Jacob and Laban’s Treaty

43 Laban said to Jacob, “These women are my daughters. And these children belong to me. And these animals are mine. Everything you see here belongs to me. But I can do nothing to keep my daughters and their children. 44 So I am ready to make an agreement with you. We will set up a pile of stones to show that we have an agreement.”

45 So Jacob found a large rock and put it there to show that he had made an agreement. 46 He told his men to find some more rocks and make a pile of rocks. Then they ate beside the pile of rocks. 47 Laban named that place Yegar Sahadutha.* But Jacob named that place Galeed.*

48 Laban said to Jacob, “This pile of rocks will help us both remember our agreement.” That is why Jacob called the place Galeed.

49 Then Laban said, “Let the Lord watch over us while we are separated from each other.” So that place was also named Mizpah.*

50 Then Laban said, “If you hurt my daughters, remember that God will punish you. If you marry other women, remember that God is watching. 51 Here are the rocks that I have put between us. And here is the special rock to show that we made an agreement. 52 This pile of rocks and this one special rock both help us remember our agreement. I will never go past these rocks to fight against you. And you must never go on my side of these rocks to fight against me. 53 May the God of Abraham, the God of Nahor, and the God of their ancestors* judge us guilty if we break this agreement.”

Jacob’s father, Isaac, called God “Fear.” So Jacob used that name to make the promise. 54 Then Jacob killed an animal and offered it as a sacrifice* on the mountain. And he invited his men to come and share a meal. After they finished eating, they spent the night on the mountain. 55 Early the next morning, Laban kissed his grandchildren and his daughters goodbye. He blessed them and went back home.

Reunion With Esau

32 Jacob also left that place. While he was traveling, he saw God’s angels. 2 When Jacob saw them he said, “This is God’s camp!” So Jacob named that place Mahanaim.*

3 Jacob’s brother Esau was living in the area called Seir. This area was the hill country of Edom.* Jacob sent messengers to Esau. 4 Jacob told the messengers, “Tell these things to my master Esau: ‘Your servant Jacob says, I have lived with Laban all these years. I have many cows, donkeys, flocks, and men and women servants. Sir, I am sending you this message to ask you to accept us.’”

6 The messengers came back to Jacob and said, “We went to your brother Esau. He is coming to meet you. He has 400 men with him.”

7 That message scared Jacob. He divided the people who were with him into two groups. He divided all the flocks and the herds and the camels into two groups. 8 Jacob thought, “If Esau comes and destroys one group, then the other group can run away and be saved.”

9 Jacob said, “God of my father Abraham! God of my father Isaac! Lord, you told me to come back to my country and to my family. You said that you would do good to me. 10 You have been very kind to me. You did many good things for me. The first time I traveled across the Jordan River, I owned nothing—only my walking stick. But now I

---

Word List

- ancestors Literally, “fathers.” This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
- Fear of Isaac A name for God.
- Yegar Sahadutha Aramaic words meaning “rock pile of the agreement.”
- Galeed Another name for Gilead. This Hebrew name means “rock pile of the agreement.”
- Mizpah This means “a place to watch from.”
own enough things to have two full groups. 11 Ask you to please save me from my brother. Save me from Esau. I am afraid of him. I am afraid that he will come and kill all of us, even the mothers with the children. 12 Lord, you said to me, ‘I will be good to you. I will increase your family and make your children as many as the sands of the sea. There will be too many to count.’”

13 Jacob stayed in that place for the night. Jacob prepared some things to give to Esau as a gift. 14 Jacob took 200 female goats and 20 male goats, 200 female sheep and 20 male sheep. 15 Jacob took 30 camels and their colts, 40 cows and 10 bulls, 20 female donkeys and 10 male donkeys. 16 Jacob gave each flock of animals to his servants. Then Jacob said to the servants, “Separate each group of animals. Go ahead of me and keep some space between each herd.” 17 Jacob gave them their orders. To the servant with the first group of animals Jacob said, “When Esau my brother comes to you and asks you, ‘Whose animals are these? Where are you going? Whose servant are you?’ Then you should answer, ‘These animals belong to your servant Jacob. Jacob sent them as a gift to you my master, Esau. And Jacob is also coming behind us.’”

18 Jacob also ordered the second servant, the third servant, and all the other servants to do the same thing. He said, “You will do the same thing to Esau when you meet him. 19 You will say, ‘This is a gift to you, and your servant Jacob is behind us.’”

Jacob thought, “If I send these men ahead with gifts, then maybe Esau will forgive me and accept me.” 21 So Jacob sent the gifts to Esau. But Jacob stayed that night in the camp.

22 Later that night, Jacob got up and left that place. Jacob took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven sons with him. Jacob crossed the Jabbok River at the crossing. 23 Jacob sent his family across the river. Then Jacob sent everything he had across the river.

The Fight With God

24 Jacob was the last person to cross the river. But before he could cross, while he was still alone, a man came and wrestled with him. The man fought with him until the sun came up. 25 The man saw that he could not defeat Jacob. So he touched Jacob’s leg. At that time, Jacob’s leg was put out of joint. 26 Then the man said to Jacob, “Let me go. The sun is coming up.”

But Jacob said, “I will not let you go. You must bless me.” 27 And the man said to him, “What is your name?”

And Jacob said, “My name is Jacob.” 28 Then the man said, “Your name will not be Jacob. Your name will now be Israel.* I give you this name because you have fought with God and with men, and you have not been defeated.” 29 Then Jacob asked him, “Please tell me your name.”

But the man said, “Why must you ask my name?” At that time, the man blessed Jacob.

30 So Jacob named that place Peniel. 8 Jacob said, “At this place, I saw God face to face, but my life was spared.” 31 Then the sun came up as he passed Peniel.* Jacob was walking crippled because of his leg. 32 So even today, the people of Israel don’t eat the muscle that is on the hip joint, because this is the muscle where Jacob was hurt.

Jacob Shows His Bravery

33 Jacob looked and saw Esau coming. Esau was coming and 400 men were with him. Jacob divided his family into four groups. Leah and her children were in one group. Rachel and Joseph were in one group, and the two maids and their children were in two groups. 2 Jacob put the maids with their children first. Then Jacob put Leah and her children behind them. And Jacob put Rachel and Joseph in the last place.

3 Jacob himself went out toward Esau. So he was the first person Esau came to. Jacob bowed on the ground seven times while he was walking toward his brother.

4 When Esau saw Jacob, he ran to meet him. Esau put his arms around Jacob and hugged Israel This name might mean “he fights for God,” “he fights with God,” or “God fights.”

Peniel, Penuel Two forms of the same name which mean “the face of God.”
his neck and kissed him. Then they both cried.
5Esau looked up and saw the women and children. He said, “Who are all these people with you?”

Jacob answered, “These are the children that God gave me. God has been good to me.”

6Then the two maids and the children with them went to Esau. They bowed down before him. 7Then Leah and the children with her went to Esau and bowed down. And then Rachel and Joseph went to Esau and bowed down.

8Esau said, “Who were all those people I saw while I was coming here? And what were all those animals for?”

Jacob answered, “Those are my gifts to you so that you might accept me.”

9But Esau said, “You don’t have to give me gifts, brother. I have enough for myself.”

10Jacob said, “No! I beg you! If you truly accept me, then please accept the gifts I give you. I am very happy to see your face again. It is like seeing the face of God. I am very happy to see that you accept me. 11So I beg that you also accept the gifts I give you. God has been very good to me. I have more than I need.” In this way Jacob begged Esau to take the gifts. So Esau accepted the gifts.

12Then Esau said, “Now you can continue your journey. I will go with you.”

13But Jacob said to him, “You know that my children are weak. And I must be careful with my flocks and their young animals. If I force them to walk too far in one day, all the animals will die. 14So you go on ahead. I will follow you slowly. I will go slow enough for the cattle and other animals to be safe. And I will go slow enough so that my children will not become too tired. I will meet you in Seir.”

15So Esau said, “Then I will leave some of my men with you to help you.”

But Jacob said, “That is very kind of you. But there is no need to do that.” 16So that day Esau started on his trip back to Seir. 17But Jacob went to Succoth. In that place he built a house for himself and small barns for his cattle. That is why the place was named Succoth.*

18Jacob safely ended his trip from Paddan Aram when he came to the town of Shechem in Canaan. Jacob made his camp in a field near the city. 19Jacob bought the field where he camped from the family of Hamor, father of Shechem. Jacob paid 100 pieces of silver. 20Jacob built an altar there to worship God. Jacob named the place “El, the God of Israel.”

The Rape of Dinah

34Dinah was the daughter of Leah and Jacob. One day, Dinah went out to see the women of that place. 2Hamor was the king of that land. His son Shechem saw Dinah. Shechem kidnapped her and raped her. 3Then Shechem fell in love with Dinah and wanted to marry her. 4Shechem told his father, “Please get this girl for me so that I can marry her.”

5Jacob learned that the boy had done this very bad thing to his daughter. But all Jacob’s sons were out in the field with the cattle. So Jacob did nothing until they came home. 6At that time, Shechem’s father, Hamor, went to talk with Jacob.

7In the fields, Jacob’s sons heard the news about what happened. They were very angry when they heard this. They were mad because Shechem had brought shame to Israel by raping Jacob’s daughter. The brothers came in from the fields as soon as they heard about the terrible thing Shechem had done.

8But Hamor talked to the brothers. He said, “My son Shechem wants Dinah very much. Please let him marry her. 9This marriage will show we have a special agreement. Then our men can marry your women, and your men can marry our women. 10You can live in the same land with us. You will be free to own the land and to trade here.”

11Shechem also talked to Jacob and the brothers. Shechem said, “Please accept me. I will do anything you ask me to do. 12I will give you any gift* you want if you only allow me to marry Dinah. I will give you anything you ask, but let me marry Dinah.”

13Jacob’s sons decided to lie to Shechem and his father. The brothers were still mad

Succoth  A town east of the Jordan River. This name means “temporary shelters.”

*gift  Or, “dowry.” Here, the money a man paid for a wife.
because Shechem had done such a bad thing to their sister Dinah. 14 So the brothers said to him, “We cannot allow you to marry our sister because you are not yet circumcised.* It would be wrong for our sister to marry you. 15 But we will allow you to marry her if you do this one thing: Every man in your town must become circumcised like us. 16 Then your men can marry our women, and our men can marry your women. Then we will become one people. 17 If you refuse to be circumcised, then we will take Dinah away.”

18 This agreement made Hamor and Shechem very happy. 19 Shechem was very happy to do what Dinah’s brothers asked.

Revenge

Shechem was the most honored man in his family. 20 Hamor and Shechem went to the meeting place of their city. They spoke to the men of the city and said, 21 “These people of Israel want to be friends with us. We want to let them live in our land and be at peace with us. We have enough land for all of us. We are free to marry their women. And we are happy to give them our women for marriage. 22 But there is one thing that all our men must agree to do. All our men must agree to become circumcised* the same as the people of Israel. 23 If we do this, then we will become rich from all their cattle and animals. So we should make this agreement with them, and they will stay here with us.” 24 All the men who heard this in the meeting place agreed with Hamor and Shechem. And every man was circumcised at that time.

25 Three days later, the men who were circumcised* were still sore. Two of Jacob’s sons, Simeon and Levi, knew that the men would be weak at this time. So they went to the city and killed all the men there. 26 Dinah’s brothers, Simeon and Levi, killed Hamor and his son Shechem. Then they took Dinah out of Shechem’s house and left. 27 Jacob’s sons went to the city and stole everything that was there. They were still angry because of what Shechem did to their sister. 28 So the brothers took all their animals. They took all their donkeys and everything else in the city and in the fields. 29 The brothers took everything those people owned. The brothers even took the wives and children.

30 But Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, “You have given me much trouble. All the people in this place will hate me. All the Canaanite people and the Perizzite people will turn against me. There are only a few of us. If the people in this place gather together to fight against us, then I will be destroyed. And all our people will be destroyed with me.”

31 But the brothers said, “Should we let those people treat our sister like a prostitute?* No! Those people were wrong to do that to our sister!”

Jacob in Bethel

35 God said to Jacob, “Go to the town of Bethel.* Live there and make an altar* for worship. Remember El,* the God who appeared* to you there when you were running away from your brother Esau. Make your altar to worship that God there.”

2 So Jacob said to his family and to all his servants, “Destroy all those foreign gods made of wood and metal that you have. Make yourselves pure. Put on clean clothes. 3 We will leave here and go to Bethel. In that place, I will build an altar to the God who helped me during my time of trouble. And that God has been with me everywhere I went.”

4 So the people gave Jacob all the foreign gods that they had. And they gave Jacob all the rings they were wearing in their ears. Jacob buried all these things under an oak tree near the town called Shechem.

5 Jacob and his sons left that place. The people in that area wanted to follow and kill them. But they became very afraid and did not *circumcise(d) Cutting the foreskin from a man. In Israel this was proof that a man had made a special agreement to obey God’s laws and teachings.

---

follow Jacob. So Jacob and his people went to Luz. Luz is now called Bethel.* It is in the land of Canaan. Jacob built an altar* there. Jacob named the place “El Bethel.” Jacob chose this name because that is the place God first appeared to him when he was running from his brother.

8Deborah, Rebekah’s nurse, died there. They buried her under the oak tree at Bethel. They named that place Allon Bacuth.*

Jacob’s New Name

9When Jacob came back from Paddan Aram, God appeared to him again. And God blessed Jacob. 10God said to Jacob, “Your name is Jacob. But I will change that name. You will not be called Jacob now. Your new name will be Israel.”* So God named him Israel.

11God said to him, “I am God All-Powerful.* And I give you this blessing: I will give you many children and grow into a great nation. Other nations and other kings will come out of you. 12I gave Abraham and Isaac some special land. Now I give that land to you. And I also give that land to all your people who live after you.” 13Then God left that place. 14–15Jacob set up a memorial stone* in this place. Jacob made the rock holy by pouring wine and oil on it. This was a special place because God spoke to Jacob there. And Jacob named the place Bethel.*

Rachel Dies Giving Birth

16Jacob and his group left Bethel. Just before they came to Ephrath (Bethlehem), Rachel began giving birth to her baby. 17But Rachel was having much trouble with this birth. She was having great pain. Rachel’s nurse saw this and said, “Don’t be afraid Rachel. You are giving birth to another son.”

Rachel died while giving birth to the son. Before dying, Rachel named the boy Benoni.* But Jacob called him Benjamin.*

19Rachel was buried on the road to Ephraim. (Ephraim is Bethlehem.) 20And Jacob put a special rock on her grave to honor Rachel. That special rock is still there today.

21Then Israel (Jacob) continued his journey. He camped just south of Eder tower.*

22Israel stayed there for a short time. While he was there, Reuben slept with Israel’s woman servant* Bilhah. Israel heard about this and was very angry.

The Family of Israel

Jacob (Israel) had twelve sons.

23Jacob and Leah’s sons were: Jacob’s firstborn son Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun.

24Jacob and Rachel’s sons were Joseph and Benjamin.

25Bilhah was Rachel’s maid. Jacob and Bilhah’s sons were Dan and Naphtali.

26Zilpah was Leah’s maid. Jacob and Zilpah’s sons were Gad and Asher.

Those are Jacob’s (Israel’s) sons who were born in Paddan Aram.

27Jacob went to his father Isaac at Mamre in Kiriath Arba (Hebron). This is where Abraham and Isaac had lived. 28Isaac lived 180 years. 29Then Isaac became weak and died. Isaac had lived a long and full life. His sons Esau and Jacob buried him in the same place as his father.

Esau’s Family

36The family history of Esau (Edom).

2Esau married women from the land of Canaan. Esau’s wives were: Adah, the daughter of Elon the Hittite, Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah, the son of Zibeon the Hivite, and 3Basemath, Ishmael’s daughter, the sister of Nebaioth. 4Esau and Adah had a son named Eliphaez. Basemath had a son named Reuel.

Bethel A town in Israel. This name means “God’s house.”

altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices that were offered as gifts to God.

Allon Bacuth This name means “the oak tree of sadness.”

Israel This name might mean “he fights for God” or “he fights with God.”

God All-Powerful Literally, “El Shaddai.”

memorial stone A stone that was set up to help people remember something special. In ancient Israel people often set up stones as special places to worship false gods.

Benoni This name means “son of my suffering.”

Benjamin This name means “right-hand (favorite) son.”

Eder tower Or, “Migdal Eder.”

woman servant Or, “concubine,” a slave woman who was like a wife to a man.
5 And Oholibamah had three sons: Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. Those were Esau’s sons that were born in the land of Canaan.

6–9 Jacob and Esau’s families became too big for the land in Canaan to support them all. So Esau moved away from his brother Jacob. Esau took his wives, sons, daughters, all his slaves, cows and other animals, and everything else that he got in Canaan and moved to the hill country of Seir.* (Esau is also named Edom—and this is another name for the country Seir.)

9 Esau is the father of the people of Edom.* These are the names of Esau’s family living in the hill country of Seir (Edom):

10 Esau and Adah’s son was Eliphaz. Esau and Basemath’s son was Reuel.

11 Eliphaz had five sons: Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam, and Kenaz. 12 Eliphaz also had a woman servant* named Timna. Timna and Eliphaz had a son named Amalek.

13 Reuel had four sons: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah.

Those were Esau’s grandsons from his wife Basemath.

14 Esau’s third wife was Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah. (Anah was the son of Zibeon.) Esau and Oholibamah’s children were: Jeush, Jalam, Korah.

15 These are the family groups* that came from Esau (Edom):

Esau’s first son was Eliphaz. From Eliphaz came: Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz, Korah, Gatam, and Amalek.

All those family groups* came from Esau’s wife Adah.

17 Esau’s son Reuel was the father of these families: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah.

All those families came from Esau’s wife Basemath.

18 Esau’s wife Oholibamah, daughter of Anah, gave birth to Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.

Those three men were the fathers of their families. 19 Those men were all family leaders from Esau (Edom).

20 Seir, a Horite man, lived in Edom* before Esau. These are the sons of Seir: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah. 21 Dishon, Ezer, Dishan. Those sons were all Horite family leaders from Seir in Edom.

22 Lotan was the father of Hori and Heman.* (Timna was Lotan’s sister.)

23 Shobal was the father of Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.

24 Zibeon had two sons: Aiah and Anah. (Anah is the man who found the hot springs in the mountains while he was caring for his father’s donkeys.)

25 Anah was the father of Dishon and Oholibamah.

26 Dishon had four sons. They were Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, and Keran.

27 Ezer had three sons. They were Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan.

28 Dishan had two sons. They were Uz and Aran.

29 These are the names of the leaders of the Horite families: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. Those men were the leaders of the families that lived in the country of Seir (Edom*). 31 At that time, there were kings in Edom. Edom had kings a long time before Israel did.

32 Bela son of Beor was a king who ruled in Edom.* He ruled over the city of Dinhhabah.

33 When Bela died, Jobab became king. Jobab was the son of Zerah from Bozrah. 34 When Jobab died, Husham ruled. Husham was from the land of the Temanite people. 35 When Husham died, Hadad ruled that area. Hadad was the son of Bedad. (Hadad was the man who defeated Midian in the country of Moab.) Hadad was from the city of Avith. 36 When Hadad died, Samlah ruled that country. Samlah was from Masrekah. 37 When Samlah died, Shaul ruled that area. Shaul was from Rehoboam on the Euphrates River. 38 When Shaul died, Baal Hanan ruled that country. Baal Hanan was the son of Achor. 39

-Seir A mountain range in Edom.
Edom A country east of Judah.
woman servant Or, “concubine,” a woman who was like a wife to a man.
family groups Or, “family leaders.” These families became large tribes and nations.

Heman Or “Heman.”
Baal Hanan died, Hadad* ruled that country. Hadad was from the city of Pau. Hadad’s wife’s name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred. (Mezahab was Matred’s father.)

Joseph the Dreamer

Joseph was a young man, 17 years old. His job was to care for the sheep and the goats. Joseph did this work with his brothers, the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah. (Bilhah and Zilpah were his father’s wives.) Joseph told his father about the bad things that his brothers did. Joseph was born at a time when his father Israel (Jacob) was very old. So Israel (Jacob) loved Joseph more than he loved his other sons. Jacob gave his son a special coat. This coat was long and was very beautiful.*

One time Joseph had a special dream. Later, Joseph told his brothers about this dream. After this, his brothers hated him even more. Joseph said, “I had another dream. I saw the sun, the moon, and eleven stars bowing down to me.”

Joseph also told his father about this dream. But his father criticized him. His father said, “What kind of dream is this? Do you believe that your mother, your brothers, and I will bow down to you?” Joseph’s brothers continued to be jealous of him. But Joseph’s father thought much about all these things and wondered what they could mean.

One day, Joseph’s brothers went to Shechem to care for their father’s sheep. Jacob stayed and lived in the land of Canaan. This is the same land where his father had lived. This is the story of Jacob’s family.

Joseph was born at a time when his father Israel (Jacob) was very old. So Israel (Jacob) loved Joseph more than he loved his other sons. Jacob gave his son a special coat. This coat was long and was very beautiful.*

Joseph’s brothers saw that their father loved Joseph more than he loved them. They hated Joseph because of this. They refused to say nice things to Joseph.

Joseph sold into slavery

Joseph’s brothers saw him coming from far away. They decided to make a plan to kill him. The brothers said to each other, “Here comes Joseph, the one who dreams. We should kill him now while we can. We can throw his body into one of the empty wells. We can tell our father that a wild animal killed him. Then we will show him that his dreams are useless.”

But Reuben wanted to save Joseph. Reuben said, “Let’s not kill him. We can put him into a well without hurting him.” Reuben planned to save Joseph and send him back to his father. Joseph came to his brothers. They attacked him and tore off his long and beautiful coat. Then they threw him into an empty well that was dry.

While Joseph was in the well, the brothers sat down to eat. Then they looked beautiful The Hebrew means “striped” or possibly, “many colored.”

Hadad Or, “Hadar.”
and saw a group of traders* traveling from Gilead to Egypt. Their camels were carrying many different spices and riches. 26So Judah said to his brothers, “What profit will we get if we kill our brother and hide his death? 27We will profit more if we sell him to these traders. Then we will not be guilty of killing our own brother.” The other brothers agreed. 28When the Midianite traders came by, the brothers took Joseph out of the well. They sold him to the traders for 20 pieces of silver. The traders took him to Egypt. 29During all this time, Reuben was not there with the brothers. He did not know they had sold Joseph. When Reuben came back to the well, he saw that Joseph was not there. Reuben tore his clothes to show his sadness. 30Reuben went to the brothers and said, “The boy is not in the well! What will I do?” 31The brothers killed a goat and put the goat’s blood on Joseph’s beautiful coat. 32Then the brothers showed the coat to their father. And the brothers said, “We found this coat. Is this Joseph’s coat?” 33The father saw the coat and knew that it was Joseph’s. The father said, “Yes, that is his! Maybe some wild animal has killed him. My son Joseph has been eaten by a wild animal!” 34Jacob was so sorry about his son that he tore his clothes. Then Jacob put on special clothes to show that he was sad. Jacob continued to be sad about his son for a long time. 35All of Jacob’s sons and daughters tried to comfort him. But Jacob was never comforted. Jacob said, “I will be sorry for my son until the day I die.” So Jacob continued to be sad for his son Joseph. 36The Midianite traders later sold Joseph in Egypt. They sold him to Potiphar, the captain of the Pharaoh’s guards.

Judah and Tamar

38 About that time, Judah left his brothers and went to stay with a man named Hirah. Hirah was from the town of Adullam. 2Judah met a Canaanite girl there and married her. The girl’s father was named Shua. 3The Canaanite girl gave birth to a son. She named him Er. 4Later, she gave birth to another son. She named him Onan. 5Later she had another son named Shelah. Judah lived in Kezib when his third son was born. 6Judah chose a woman to be the wife of his first son Er. The woman’s name was Tamar. 7But Er did many bad things. The Lord was not happy with him. So the Lord killed him. 8Then Judah said to Er’s brother Onan, “Go and sleep with your dead brother’s wife.* Become like a husband to her. If children are born, then they will belong to your brother Er.” 9Onan knew that the children from this union would not belong to him. Onan had sexual relations with Tamar. But he did not allow himself to stay inside her. 10This made the Lord angry. So the Lord killed Onan also. 11Then Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, “Go back to your father’s house. Stay there and don’t marry until my young son Shelah grows up.” Judah was afraid that Shelah would also be killed like his brothers. Tamar went back to her father’s home. 12Later, Judah’s wife, the daughter of Shua, died. After Judah’s time of sadness, he went to Timnah with his friend Hirah from Adullam. Judah went to Timnah to have the wool cut from his sheep. 13Tamar learned that Judah, her father-in-law, was going to Timnah to cut the wool from his sheep. 14Tamar always wore clothes that showed that she was a widow. So she put on some different clothes and covered her face with a veil. Then she sat down near the road going to Enaim, a town near Timnah. Tamar knew that Judah’s younger son Shelah was now grown up. But Judah would not make plans for her to marry him. 15Judah traveled on that road. He saw her but thought that she was a prostitute.* (Her face was covered with a veil like a prostitute.) 16So Judah went to her and said, “Let me have sexual relations with you” (Judah did not know that she was Tamar, his daughter-in-law.) She said, “How much will you give me?”

---

traders Literally, “Ishmaelites.”
I will be sorry … die Literally, “I will go down to my son in Sheol (the place of death) in sadness.”
prostitute A woman paid by men for sexual sins.
17 Judah answered, “I will send you a young goat from my flock.”
  She answered, “I agree to that. But first you must give me something to keep until you send me the goat.”

18 Judah asked, “What do you want me to give you as proof that I will send you the goat?”
  Tamar answered, “Give me your seal and its string* that you use on your letters. And give me your walking stick.” Judah gave these things to her. Then Judah and Tamar had sexual relations, and Tamar became pregnant.

19 Tamar went home and took off the veil that covered her face. Then she again wore the special clothes that showed she was a widow.

20 Later, Judah sent his friend Hirah to Enaim to give the prostitute* the goat he promised. Also Judah told Hirah to get the special seal and the walking stick from her. But Hirah could not find her. 21 Hirah asked some of the men at the town of Enaim, “Where is the prostitute that was here by the road?”
  The men answered, “There has never been a prostitute here.”

22 So Judah’s friend went back to Judah and said, “I could not find the woman. The men that lived in that place said that there was never a prostitute there.”

23 So Judah said, “Let her keep the things. I don’t want people to laugh at us. I tried to give her the goat, but we could not find her. That is enough.”

Tamar Is Pregnant

24 About three months later, someone told Judah, “Your daughter-in-law Tamar sinned like a prostitute,* and now she is pregnant.”
  Then Judah said, “Take her out and burn her.”

25 The men went to Tamar to kill her. But she sent a message to her father-in-law. Tamar said, “The man who made me pregnant is the man who owns these things. Look at these things. Whose are they? Whose special seal and string* is this? Whose walking stick is this?”

26 Judah recognized those things and said, “She is right. I was wrong. I did not give her my son Shelah like I promised.” And Judah did not sleep with her again.

27 The time came for Tamar to give birth. They saw she was going to have twins. 28 While she was giving birth, one baby put his hand out. The nurse tied a red string on the hand and said, “This baby was born first.”
  29 But that baby pulled his hand back in. Then the other baby was born first. So the nurse said, “So you were able to break out first!” So they named him Perez.* 30 After this, the other baby was born. This was the baby with the red string on his hand. They named him Zerah*

Joseph Is Sold to Potiphar in Egypt

39 The traders* who bought Joseph took him down to Egypt. They sold him to the captain of Pharaoh’s guard, Potiphar. 2 But the Lord helped Joseph. Joseph became a successful man. Joseph lived in the house of his master, Potiphar the Egyptian.

3 Potiphar saw that the Lord was with Joseph. Potiphar saw that the Lord helped Joseph be successful in everything he did. 4 So Potiphar was very happy for Joseph. Potiphar allowed Joseph to work for him and help him to rule the house. Joseph was the ruler over everything Potiphar owned. 5 After Joseph was made the ruler over the house, the Lord blessed the house and everything that Potiphar owned. The Lord did this because of Joseph. And the Lord blessed everything that grew in the fields of Potiphar. 6 So Potiphar allowed Joseph to take responsibility for everything in the house. Potiphar worried about nothing, only the food he ate.

Joseph Refuses Potiphar’s Wife

Joseph was a very handsome, good-looking man. 7 After some time, the wife of Joseph’s master began to like Joseph. One day she said to him, “Sleep with me.”

8 But Joseph refused. He said, “My master trusts me with everything in his house. He has *seal ... string People wrote a contract, folded it, tied it with string, put wax or clay on the string, and pressed the seal onto it to seal it. This was like signing the agreement.

---

*prostitute A woman paid by men for sexual sins.

*Perez This name is like the word meaning “to break out.”

*Zerah This name is like the word meaning “bright.”

*traders Literally, “Ishmaelites.”
given me responsibility for everything here. 9My master has made me almost equal to him in his house. I must not sleep with his wife! That is wrong! It is a sin against God.”

10The woman talked with Joseph every day, but Joseph refused to sleep with her. 11One day Joseph went into the house to do his work. He was the only man in the house at the time. 12His master’s wife grabbed his coat and said to him, “Come to bed with me.” But Joseph ran out of the house so fast that he left his coat in her hand.

13The woman saw Joseph had left his coat in her hands and had run out of the house. So she decided to lie about what had happened. 14She called to the men outside. She said, “Look! This Hebrew slave was brought here to make fun of us. He came in and tried to attack me, but I screamed. 15My scream scared him and he ran away. But he left his coat with me.”

16Then she kept his coat until her husband, Joseph’s master, came home. 17And she told her husband the same story. She said, “This Hebrew slave you brought here tried to attack me! 18But when he came near me I screamed. He ran away, but he left his coat.”

Joseph in Prison

19Joseph’s master heard what his wife said. And he became very angry. 20There was a prison where the king’s enemies were put. So Potiphar put Joseph into that prison. And Joseph stayed there.

21But the Lord was with Joseph. The Lord continued to show his kindness to Joseph. After some time, the commander of the prison guards began to like Joseph. 22The commander of the guards put Joseph in charge of all the prisoners. Joseph was their leader, but he still did the same work they did. 23The commander of the guards trusted Joseph with everything that was in the prison. This happened because the Lord was with Joseph. The Lord helped Joseph be successful in everything he did.

Joseph Interprets Two Dreams

Later, two of Pharaoh’s servants did something wrong to Pharaoh. These servants were the baker and the man who served wine to Pharaoh. 2Pharaoh became angry with his baker and wine server. 3So Pharaoh put them in the same prison as Joseph. Potiphar, the commander of Pharaoh’s guards, was in charge of this prison. 4The commander put the two prisoners under Joseph’s care. The two men continued to stay in prison for some time. 5One night, both of the prisoners had a dream. (The two prisoners were the servants of the king of Egypt—the baker and the wine server.) Each prisoner had his own dream. And each dream had its own meaning. 6Joseph went to them the next morning. Joseph saw that the two men were worried. 7Joseph asked them, “Why do you look so worried today?”

8The two men answered, “We dreamed last night, but we don’t understand what we dreamed. There is no one to interpret or explain the dreams to us.”

Joseph said to them, “God is the One who can understand and interpret dreams. So I beg you, tell me your dreams.”

The Wine Server’s Dream

9So the wine server told Joseph his dream. The server said, “I dreamed I saw a vine. 10On the vine there were three branches. I watched the branches grow flowers and then become grapes. 11I was holding Pharaoh’s cup. So I took the grapes and squeezed the juice into the cup. Then I gave the cup to Pharaoh.”

12Then Joseph said, “I will explain the dream to you. The three branches mean three days. 13Before the end of three days, Pharaoh will forgive you and allow you to go back to your work. You will do the same work for Pharaoh as you did before. 14But when you are free, remember me. Be good to me and help me. Tell Pharaoh about me so that I can get out of this prison. 15I was taken from my own home, the land of my people, the Hebrews. I have done nothing wrong. So I should not be in prison.”

The Baker’s Dream

16The baker saw that the other servant’s dream was good. So the baker said to Joseph, “I also had a dream. I dreamed there were three bread baskets on my head. 17In the top basket there were all kinds of baked food.
This food was for the king. But birds were eating this food.”

18Joseph answered, “I will tell you what the dream means. The three baskets mean three days. 19Before the end of three days, the king will take you out of this prison. Then the king will cut your head off! He will hang your body on a pole. And birds will eat your body.”

Joseph Is Forgotten

20Three days later, it was Pharaoh’s birthday. Pharaoh gave a party for all his servants. At the party, Pharaoh allowed the wine server and the baker to leave the prison. 21Pharaoh freed the wine server. Pharaoh gave him his job back. And the wine server put a cup of wine in Pharaoh’s hand. 22But Pharaoh hanged the baker and everything happened the way Joseph said it would. 23But the wine server did not remember to help Joseph. He said nothing about Joseph to Pharaoh. The wine server forgot about Joseph.

Pharaoh’s Dreams

41Two years later, Pharaoh had a dream. He dreamed that he was standing by the Nile River. 2In the dream, seven cows come out of the river and stood there eating grass. They were healthy, good-looking cows. 3Then seven more cows came out of the river and stood on the bank of the river by the healthy cows. But these cows were thin and sick looking. 4The seven sick cows ate the seven healthy cows. Then Pharaoh woke up.

5Pharaoh went back to sleep and began dreaming again. This time, he dreamed that he saw seven heads of grain growing on one plant. They were healthy and full of grain. 6And then he saw seven more heads of grain sprouting. But they were thin and scorched by the hot wind. 7The thin heads of grain ate the seven good heads of grain. Then Pharaoh woke up again and realized it was only a dream. 8The next morning Pharaoh was worried about these dreams. So he sent for all the magicians and wise men of Egypt. Pharaoh told these men the dreams, but none of them could interpret the dreams.

The Servant Tells Pharaoh About Joseph

9Then the wine servant remembered Joseph. The servant said to Pharaoh, “I remember something that happened to me. 10You were angry with me and the baker, and you put us in prison. 11Then one night he and I had a dream. Each dream had a different meaning. 12There was a young Hebrew man in prison with us. He was a servant of the commander of the guards. We told him our dreams, and he explained them to us. He told us the meaning of each dream. 13And what he said came true. He said I would be free and have my old job back. And that happened. He also said the baker would die, and that happened!”

Joseph Is Called to Interpret the Dreams

14So Pharaoh called Joseph from the prison. The guards quickly got Joseph out of prison. Joseph shaved and put on some clean clothes. Then he went to see Pharaoh. 15Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I had a dream. But no one can interpret the dream for me. I heard that you can interpret dreams when someone tells you about them.”

16Joseph answered, “I can’t! But maybe God will explain them for you, Pharaoh.”

17Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “In my dream, I was standing by the Nile River. 18Then seven cows came up out of the river after the seven healthy cows. They were thin and sick looking. The seven sick cows ate the seven healthy cows. Then Pharaoh woke up.

19Pharaoh went back to sleep and began dreaming again. This time, he dreamed that he saw seven heads of grain growing on one plant. They were healthy and full of grain. 20And then he saw seven more heads of grain sprouting. But they were thin and scorched by the hot wind. The thin heads of grain ate the seven good heads of grain. Then Pharaoh woke up again and realized it was only a dream. 21The next morning Pharaoh was worried about these dreams. So he sent for all the magicians and wise men of Egypt. Pharaoh told these men the dreams, but none of them could interpret the dreams.
“I told these dreams to my magicians. But no one could explain the dreams to me. What do they mean?”

Joseph Explains the Dream

25Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, “These two dreams are about the same thing. God is telling you what will happen soon. 26Both dreams really mean the same thing. The seven good cows and the seven good heads of grain are seven good years. 27And the seven thin, sick-looking cows and the seven thin heads of grain mean that there will be seven years of hunger in this area. These seven bad years will come after the seven good years. 28God has shown you what will happen soon. And God will make these things happen just like I told you. 29For seven years there will be plenty of food in Egypt. 30But then there will be seven years of hunger. People in Egypt will forget how much food there had been in the past. This famine will ruin the country. 31People will forget what it was like to have plenty of food.

32“Pharaoh, you had two dreams about the same thing. Why? God wanted to show you that he really will make this happen. And he will make it happen soon! 33So Pharaoh, you should choose a wise, intelligent man and put him in charge of Egypt. 34Then you should choose other men to collect food from the people. During the seven good years, the people must give them one fifth of all the food they grow. 35In this way, these men will collect lots of food during the seven good years and store it in the cities until it is needed. In this way, Pharaoh, this food will be under your control. 36Then during the seven years of hunger, there will be food for the country of Egypt. And Egypt will not be destroyed by the famine.”

37This seemed like a very good idea to Pharaoh, and all his officials agreed. 38Then Pharaoh told them, “I don’t think we can find anyone better than Joseph to take this job! God’s Spirit is in him making him very wise!”

39So Pharaoh said to Joseph, “God showed these things to you, so you must be the wisest man. 40I will put you in charge of my country, and the people will obey all your commands. I will be the only person more powerful than you.”

41There was a special ceremony and parade when Pharaoh made Joseph the governor. 42Then Pharaoh gave his special ring to Joseph. The royal seal was on this ring. Pharaoh also gave Joseph a fine linen robe and put a gold chain around his neck. 43Pharaoh told Joseph to ride in the second chariot in the parade. Special guards walked ahead of Joseph’s chariot and told the people, “Bow down to Joseph.”

So Joseph became the governor over all of Egypt. 44Pharaoh said to him, “I am Pharaoh, the king, so I will do what I want to do. But no other person in Egypt can lift a hand or move a foot unless you say he can.”

45Pharaoh gave Joseph another name, Zaphenath Paneah. Pharaoh also gave Joseph a wife named Asenath. She was the daughter of Potiphera, a priest in the city of On. So Joseph became the governor over the whole country of Egypt.

46Joseph was 30 years old when he began serving the king of Egypt. Joseph traveled throughout the country of Egypt. 47During the seven good years, the crops in Egypt grew very well. 48And Joseph saved the food in Egypt during those seven years. Joseph stored the food in the cities. In every city, Joseph stored grain that grew in the fields around the city. 49Joseph stored very much grain. It was like the sands of the sea. He stored so much grain that it could not be measured.

50Joseph’s wife was Asenath. She was the daughter of Potiphera, the priest in the city of On. Before the first year of hunger came, Joseph and Asenath had two sons. 51The first son was named Manasseh. Joseph named him this because Joseph said, “God made me famine A time when there is no rain and no crops can grow. People and animals often die from lack of food and water.

Zaphenath Paneah This Egyptian name probably means “sustainer of life,” but it is like Hebrew words meaning “a person who explains secret things.”

Manasseh This is like the Hebrew word meaning “to forget.”
forget all of the troubles I have had, and everything about my home.” 52Joseph named the second son Ephraim.* Joseph gave him this name because Joseph said, “I had great troubles, but God has made me successful in everything.”

The Time of Hunger Begins
53For seven years, people had all the food they needed. But then those years ended. 54And the seven years of hunger began, just like Joseph had said. No food grew anywhere in any of the countries in that area. But in Egypt, people had plenty to eat! Why? Because Joseph had stored the grain. 55The time of hunger began, and the people cried to Pharaoh for food. Pharaoh said to the Egyptian people, “Go ask Joseph what to do.”
56There was famine everywhere, so Joseph gave the people grain from the warehouses. Joseph sold the stored grain to the people of Egypt. The famine was bad in Egypt. 57But the famine was bad everywhere! So people from the countries around Egypt had to come to Egypt to buy grain.

The Dreams Come True
42The famine was also bad in Canaan. But Jacob learned that there was grain in Egypt. So Jacob said to his sons, “Why are we sitting here doing nothing? I heard there is grain in Egypt for sale. So let’s go there to buy grain. Then we can live instead of just letting ourselves die!”
5So ten of Joseph’s brothers went to Egypt to buy grain. 4Jacob did not send Benjamin. (Benjamin was Joseph’s only full brother.*) Jacob was afraid that something bad might happen to Benjamin.
5The famine was very bad in Canaan, so there were many people from Canaan who went to Egypt to buy grain. Among them were the sons of Israel.

Ephraim This is like the Hebrew word meaning “twice fruitful.”
famine A time when there is no rain and no crops can grow. People and animals often die from lack of food and water.
full brother Literally, “brother.” Joseph and Benjamin had the same mother.

6Joseph was the governor of Egypt at the time. And Joseph was the man who checked the sale of grain to people who came to Egypt. So, Joseph’s brothers came to him and bowed before him. 7Joseph saw his brothers. Joseph recognized them, but he acted like he didn’t know them. He was rude when he spoke to them. He said, “Where do you come from?”
The brothers answered, “We come from the land of Canaan. We have come here to buy food.”
8Joseph knew that these men were his brothers. But they did not know who he was. 9And Joseph remembered the dreams that he had dreamed about his brothers.

Joseph Calls His Brothers Spies
Joseph said to his brothers, “You have not come to buy food! You are spies. You came to learn where we are weak.”
10But the brothers said to him, “No, sir! We come as your servants. We have come only to buy food. 11We are all brothers—we all have the same father. We are honest men. We have come only to buy food.”
12Then Joseph said to them, “No! You have come to learn where we are weak.”
13And the brothers said, “No! We are all brothers. There are twelve brothers in our family. We all have the same father. Our youngest brother is still at home with our father. And the other brother died a long time ago. We are like servants before you. We are from the land of Canaan.”
14But Joseph said to them, “No! I can see I am right. You are spies. 15But I will let you prove that you are telling the truth. In the name of Pharaoh, I swear that I won’t let you go until your youngest brother comes here. 16I’ll let one of you go back and bring your youngest brother here to me while the others will stay here in prison. We will see if you are telling the truth. But I believe you are spies.” 17Then Joseph put them all in prison for three days.

Simeon Kept as a Hostage 18After three days, Joseph said to them, “I am a God-fearing man! Do this, and I will let you live. 19If you are really honest men, then one of your brothers can stay here in prison.
And the others can go and carry grain back to your people. 20But then you must bring your youngest brother back here to me. Then I will know that you are telling the truth and you won’t have to die.”

The brothers agreed to this. 21They said to each other, “We are being punished for the bad thing we did to our younger brother Joseph. We saw the trouble he was in. He begged us to save him. But we refused to listen. So now we are in trouble.”

22Then Reuben said to them, “I told you not to do anything bad to that boy. But you refused to listen to me. So now we are being punished for his death.”

23Joseph was using an interpreter to talk to his brothers. So the brothers did not know that Joseph understood their language. But Joseph heard and understood everything they said. 24Their words made Joseph very sad. So Joseph left them and cried. After a short time, Joseph went back to them. He took Simeon, one of the brothers, and tied him while the other brothers watched. 25Joseph told some servants to fill their bags with grain. The brothers gave Joseph the money for this grain. But Joseph didn’t keep the money. He put the money in their bags of grain. Then Joseph gave them things they would need for their trip back home.

26So the brothers put the grain on their donkeys and left. 27That night the brothers stopped at a place to spend the night. One of the brothers opened his sack to get some grain for his donkey. And there in the sack, he saw his money! 28He said to the other brothers, “Look! Here is the money I paid for the grain. Someone put the money back in my sack!” The brothers were very scared. They said to one another, “What is God doing to us?”

The Brothers Report to Jacob

29The brothers went back to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan. They told Jacob about everything that had happened. 30They said, “The governor of that country spoke rudely to us. He thought that we were spies! 31But we told him that we weren’t spies, we were honest men! 32We told him that we were twelve brothers. We told him about our father, and we told him about our youngest brother who was still at home in Canaan.

33Then the governor of that country said this to us, “Here is a way to prove that you are honest men: Leave one of your brothers here with me. Take your grain back to your families. 34Then bring your youngest brother to me. Then I will know if you are honest men, or if you were sent from an army to destroy us. If you are telling the truth, I will give your brother back to you. I will give him to you, and you will be free to buy grain in our country.”

35Then the brothers started taking the grain out of their sacks. And every brother found his bag of money in his sack of grain. The brothers and their father saw the money and they were scared.

36Jacob said to them, “Do you want me to lose all of my children? Joseph is gone. Simeon is gone. And now you want to take Benjamin away too!”

37But Reuben said to his father, “Father, you may kill my two sons if I don’t bring Benjamin back to you. Trust me. I will bring Benjamin back to you.”

38But Jacob said, “I will not let Benjamin go with you. His brother is dead, and he is the only son left from my wife Rachel. It would kill me if anything happened to him during the trip to Egypt. You would send me to the grave a very sad, old man.”

Jacob Lets Benjamin go to Egypt

43The time of hunger was very bad in that country. 2The people ate all the grain they had brought from Egypt. When that grain was gone, Jacob said to his sons, “Go to Egypt and buy some more grain for us to eat.”

3But Judah said to Jacob, “But the governor of that country warned us. He said, ‘If you don’t bring your brother back to me, then I will refuse to talk to you.’ 4If you will send Benjamin with us, then we can go down and buy grain. 5But if you refuse to send Benjamin, then we will not go. That man warned us to not come back without him.”

grave Literally, “Sheol,” the place for people after death.
Israel (Jacob) said, “Why did you tell him you had another brother? Why did you do such a bad thing to me?”

The brothers answered, “That man asked lots of questions. He wanted to know all about us and about our family. He asked us, ‘Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother at home?’ We only answered his questions. We didn’t know he would ask us to bring our brother to him!”

Then Judah said to his father Israel, “Let Benjamin go with me. I will take care of him. We have to go to Egypt to get food. If we don’t go, then we will all die, including our children. I will make sure he is safe. I will be responsible for him. If I don’t bring him back to you, then you can blame me forever. If you had let us go before, we could already have made two trips for food.”

Then their father Israel said, “If it is really true, then take Benjamin with you. But take some gifts to the governor. Take some of the things we have been able to gather in our land. Take him some honey, pistachio nuts, almonds, gum, and myrrh.*

Take twice as much money with you this time. Take the money that was given back to you after you paid last time. Maybe the governor made a mistake. Take Benjamin, and go back to the man. I pray that God All-Powerful will help you when you stand before the governor. I pray that he will let Benjamin, and also Simeon, come back safely. If not, I will again be sad from losing my son.”

Then their father Israel said, “If it is really true, then take Benjamin with you. But take some gifts to the governor. Take some of the things we have been able to gather in our land. Take him some honey, pistachio nuts, almonds, gum, and myrrh.*

Then the servant answered, “Don’t be afraid; believe me. Your God, the God of your father, must have put the money in your sack as a gift. I remember that you paid me for the grain the last time.”

Then the servant brought Simeon out of the prison. The servant led the men into Joseph’s house. He gave them water. And they washed their feet. Then he gave their donkeys food to eat.

The brothers heard that they were going to eat with Joseph. So they worked until noon preparing their gifts for him.

Joseph came home, and the brothers gave him the gifts that they had brought with them. Then they bowed down on the ground in front of him.

Joseph asked them how they were doing. Joseph said, “How is your elderly father you told me about. Is he still alive and well?”

The brothers answered, “Yes sir, our father is still alive.” And they again bowed before Joseph.

Then Joseph saw his brother Benjamin. Then Joseph saw his brother, Benjamin. (Benjamin and Joseph had the same mother.) Joseph said, “Is this your youngest brother that you told me about?” Then Joseph said to Benjamin, “God bless you, my son!”

Then Joseph ran from the room. Joseph wanted very much to show his brother Benjamin that he loved him. He felt like crying, but he didn’t want his brothers to see

The brothers were scared when they were taken to Joseph’s house. They said, “We have been brought here because of the money that was put back in our sacks the last time. They will use that as proof against us. And they will steal our donkeys and make us slaves.”

So the brothers went to the servant in charge of Joseph’s house. They said, “Sir, I promise this is the truth: The last time we came, we came to buy food. On the way home, we opened our sacks and found our money in every sack. We don’t know how it got there. But we brought that money with us to give it back to you. And we have brought more money to pay for the food that we want to buy this time.”

But the servant answered, “Don’t be afraid; believe me. Your God, the God of your father, must have put the money in your sack as a gift. I remember that you paid me for the grain the last time.”

Then the servant brought Simeon out of the prison. The servant led the men into Joseph’s house. He gave them water. And they washed their feet. Then he gave their donkeys food to eat.

The brothers heard that they were going to eat with Joseph. So they worked until noon preparing their gifts for him.

Joseph came home, and the brothers gave him the gifts that they had brought with them. Then they bowed down on the ground in front of him.

Joseph asked them how they were doing. Joseph said, “How is your elderly father you told me about. Is he still alive and well?”

The brothers answered, “Yes sir, our father is still alive.” And they again bowed before Joseph.

The brothers took the gifts to give to the governor. And the brothers took twice as much money with them as they took the first time. This time, Benjamin went with the brothers to Egypt.

The Brothers At Joseph’s House

In Egypt, Joseph saw Benjamin with them. Joseph said to his servant, “Bring those men into my house. Kill an animal and cook it. Those men will eat with me at noon today.”

The servant did as he was told. He brought the men into Joseph’s house.

The Brothers At Joseph’s House

In Egypt, Joseph saw Benjamin with them. Joseph said to his servant, “Bring those men into my house. Kill an animal and cook it. Those men will eat with me at noon today.”

The servant did as he was told. He brought the men into Joseph’s house.
him crying. So Joseph ran to his room and cried there. 31 Then Joseph washed his face and came out. He took control of himself and said, “Now it is time to eat.”

32 The servants seated Joseph at a table by himself. His brothers were at another table by themselves. And the Egyptians were at table by themselves. The Egyptians believed that it was wrong for them to eat with Hebrews.

33 Joseph’s brothers sat at a table in front of him. The brothers were sitting in order, from the oldest brother to the youngest. All the brothers kept looking at each other, wondering what was happening. 34 Servants were taking food from Joseph’s table and bringing it to them. But the servants gave Benjamin five times more than the others. The brothers continued to eat and drink there with Joseph until they were almost drunk.

Joseph Sets a Trap

44 Then Joseph gave a command to his servant. Joseph said, “Fill the men’s sacks with as much grain as they can carry. And put each man’s money into his sack with the grain. 2 Put the youngest brother’s money in his sack too. But also put my special silver cup in his sack.” So the servant obeyed Joseph.

3 Early the next morning, the brothers and their donkeys were sent back to their country. 4 After they had left the city, Joseph said to his servant, “Go and follow the men. Stop them and say to them, ‘We were good to you! So why have you been bad to us? Why did you steal my master’s silver cup? 5 My master drinks from that cup and he uses it to learn secret things. What you did was wrong!’”

6 So the servant obeyed. He rode out to the brothers and stopped them. The servant said the things to them that Joseph told him to say.

7 But the brothers said to the servant, “Why does the governor say these things? We wouldn’t do anything like that! 8 We brought back the money that we found in our sacks before. So surely we wouldn’t steal silver or gold from your master’s house. 9 If you find that silver cup in any of our sacks, then let that man die. You can kill him, and we will be your slaves.”

10 The servant said, “We will do as you say. But I will not kill the man. If I find the silver cup, then that man will be my slave. The others will be free.”

The Trap Is Sprung; Benjamin Is Caught

11 Then every brother quickly opened his sack on the ground. 12 The servant started looking in the sacks. He started with the oldest brother and ended with the youngest. He found the cup in Benjamin’s sack. 13 The brothers were very sad. They tore their clothes to show their sadness. They put their sacks back on the donkeys and went back to the city.

14 Judah and his brothers went back to Joseph’s house. Joseph was still there. The brothers fell to the ground and bowed down before him. 15 Joseph said to them, “Why have you done this? Didn’t you know that I have a special way of learning secrets. No person can do this better than me!”

16 Judah said, “Sir, there is nothing we can say! There is no way to explain. There is no way to show that we are not guilty. God has judged us guilty for something else we did. So all of us, even Benjamin, will be your slaves.”

17 But Joseph said, “I will not make you all slaves! Only the man who stole the cup will be my slave. You others can go in peace to your father.”

Judah Pleads for Benjamin

18 Then Judah went to Joseph and said, “Sir, please let me speak plainly with you. Please don’t be angry with me. I know that you are like Pharaoh himself. 19 When we were here before, you asked us, ‘Do you have a father or a brother?’ 20 And we answered you, ‘We have a father—he is an old man. And we have a young brother. Our father loves that son because he was born while our father was old. And that young son’s brother is dead. So this is the only son that is left born from that mother. Our father loves him very much.’

21 Then you said to us, ‘Then bring that brother to me. I want to see him.’ 22 And we said to you, ‘That young boy can’t come. He can’t leave his father. If his father loses him, then his father would be so sad that he would die.’ 23 But you said to us, ‘You must bring your youngest brother or I will not sell you grain again.’ 24So we went back to our father and told him what you said.

25“Later, our father said, ‘Go back and buy us some more food.’ 26And we said to our father, ‘We can’t go without our youngest brother. The governor said he will not sell us grain again until he sees our youngest brother.’ 27Then my father said to us, ‘You know that my wife Rachel gave me two sons. 28I let one son go away, and he was killed by a wild animal. And I haven’t seen him since. 29If you take my other son away from me, and something happens to him, then I will be sad enough to die.’ 30Now, imagine what will happen when we go home without our youngest brother—that boy is the most important thing in our father’s life! 31Our father will die if he sees that the boy isn’t with us—and it will be our fault! We will send our father to his grave a very sad man!

32“I took responsibility for the young boy. I told my father, ‘If I don’t bring him back to you, then you can blame me all my life.’ 33So now I beg you, please let the boy go back with his brothers. And I will stay and be your slave. 34I can’t go back to my father if the boy is not with me. I am very afraid of what would happen to my father.”

Joseph Tells Who He Is

45Joseph could not control himself any longer. He cried in front of all the people who were there. Joseph said, “Tell everyone to leave here.” So all the people left. Only the brothers were left with Joseph. Then Joseph told them who he was. 2Joseph continued to cry, and all the Egyptian people in Pharaoh’s house heard it. 3Joseph said to his brothers, “I am your brother Joseph. Is my father doing well?” But the brothers did not answer him. They were confused and scared. 4So Joseph said to his brothers again, “Come here to me. I beg you, come here.” So the brothers went close to Joseph. And Joseph said to them, “I am your brother Joseph. I am the one you sold as a slave to Egypt. 5Now, don’t be worried. Don’t be angry with yourselves for what you did. It was God’s plan for me to come here. I am here to save your life. 6This terrible time of hunger has continued for two years now. And there will be five more years without planting or harvest. 7So God sent me here ahead of you so that I can save your people in this country. 8It wasn’t your fault that I was sent here. It was God’s plan. God made me like a father to Pharaoh. I am the governor over all his house and over all of Egypt.”

Israel Invited to Egypt

9Joseph said, “Hurry up and go to my father. Tell him his son Joseph sent this message.”

God made me the governor of Egypt. So come here to me. Don’t wait. Come now. 10You can live near me in the land of Goshen. You, your children, your grandchildren, and all of your animals are welcome here. 11I will take care of you during the next five years of hunger. So you and your family will not lose everything you own.

12Joseph told his brothers, “Surely you can see that I really am Joseph. Even my brother Benjamin knows it is me, your brother, talking to you. 13So tell my father about the honor I have received here in Egypt. Tell him about everything you have seen here. Now hurry, go bring my father back to me.” 14Then Joseph hugged his brother Benjamin, and they both began crying. 15Then Joseph kissed all his brothers and cried on them. After this, the brothers began talking with him.

16Pharaoh learned that Joseph’s brothers had come to him. This news spread all through Pharaoh’s house. Pharaoh and his servants were very excited! 17Pharaoh told Joseph, “Tell your brothers to take all the food they need and go back to the land of Canaan. 18Tell them to bring your father and their families back here to me. I will give you the best land in Egypt to live on. And your family can eat the best food we have here.” 19Then the Pharaoh said, “Also give your brothers some of our best wagons. Tell them to go to Canaan and bring your father and all the women and children back in the wagons. 20Don’t worry about bringing all of their belongings. We can give them the best of Egypt."

21So the sons of Israel did this. Joseph gave them good wagons like the Pharaoh had promised. And Joseph gave them enough food for their trip. 22Joseph gave each brother a suit of beautiful clothes. But Joseph gave Benjamin five suits of beautiful clothes. And Joseph also gave Benjamin 300 pieces of silver. 23Joseph also sent gifts to his father. He sent ten donkeys with bags full of many good things from Egypt. And he sent ten female donkeys full of grain, bread, and other food for his father on his trip back. 24Then Joseph told his brothers to go. And while they were leaving, Joseph said to them, “Go straight home. And don’t fight on the way.”

25So the brothers left Egypt and went to their father in the land of Canaan. 26The brothers told him, “Father, Joseph is still alive! And he is the governor over the whole country of Egypt.” Their father did not know what to think. At first he didn’t believe them. 27But then they told him everything Joseph had said. And Jacob saw the wagons Joseph had sent for him to bring him back to Egypt. Then Jacob became excited and very, very happy. 28Israel said, “Now I believe you. My son Joseph is still alive! I am going to see him before I die!”

God Assures Israel

46 So Israel began his trip to Egypt. First Israel went to Beersheba. There, Israel worshiped God, the God of his father Isaac. He offered sacrifices.* 2During the night, God spoke to Israel in a dream. God said, “Jacob, Jacob.”

And Israel answered, “Here I am.” 3Then God said, “I am God, the God of your father. Don’t be afraid to go to Egypt. In Egypt I will make you a great nation. I will go to Egypt with you. And I will bring you out of Egypt again. You will die in Egypt, but Joseph will be with you. His own hands will close your eyes when you die.”

Israel Another name for Jacob. This name means “he fights for God” or “he fights with God.”

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
Benjamin was also with Jacob. Benjamin was Jacob and Rachel’s son. (Joseph was also Rachel’s son, but Joseph was already in Egypt.)

In Egypt, Joseph had two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. (Joseph’s wife was Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera, the priest in the city of On.)

Benjamin’s sons were Bela, Beker, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard.

Those were the sons of Jacob from his wife Rachel. There were 14 people in this family.

Dan’s son was Hushim.

Naphtali’s sons were Jahziel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem.

Those were the sons of Jacob and Bilhah. (Bilhah was the maid that Laban had given to his daughter Rachel.) There were seven people in this family.

The total number of Jacob’s direct descendants that went with him to Egypt was 66 people. (The wives of Jacob’s sons were not counted in this number.) Also, there were the two sons of Joseph. They had been born in Egypt. So there was a total of 70 people in Jacob’s family in Egypt.

Israel Arrives in Egypt

Jacob sent Judah ahead to speak to Joseph first. Judah went to Joseph in the land of Goshen. Then Jacob and his people followed into that land. Joseph learned that his father was coming. So Joseph prepared his chariot and went out to meet Israel, his father, in Goshen. When Joseph saw his father, he hugged his neck and cried for a long time.

Then Israel said to Joseph, “Now I can die in peace. I have seen your face and I know that you are still alive.”

Joseph said to his brothers and to the rest of his father’s family, “I will go and tell Pharaoh that you are here. I will say to Pharaoh, ‘My brothers and the rest of my father’s family have left the land of Canaan and have come here to me. They have always kept sheep and cattle. They have brought all their animals and everything they own with them.’

When Pharaoh calls you, he will ask, ‘What work do you do?’ You tell him, ‘We are shepherds. All our lives we have been shepherds. And our ancestors were shepherds before us.’ Then Pharaoh will allow you to live in the land of Goshen. Egyptian people don’t like shepherds, so it is better that you stay in Goshen.”

Israel Settles in Goshen

Joseph went in to Pharaoh and said, “My father and my brothers and all their families are here. They have all their animals and everything they own from the land of Canaan with them. They are now in the land of Goshen.”

Joseph chose five of his brothers to be with him before the Pharaoh.

Pharaoh said to the brothers, “What work do you do?”

The brothers said to Pharaoh, “Sir, we are shepherds. And our ancestors were shepherds before us.” They said to Pharaoh, “The time of hunger is very bad in Canaan. There are no fields left with grass for our animals. So we have come to live in this land. We ask you to please let us live in Goshen.”

Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Your father and your brothers have come to you. You can choose any place in Egypt for them to live. Give your father and your brothers the best land. Let them live in the land of Goshen. And if they are skilled shepherds, then they can also care for my cattle.”

Then Joseph called his father Jacob to come in to meet Pharaoh. Jacob blessed Pharaoh. And Pharaoh said to him, “How old are you?”

Jacob said to Pharaoh, “I have had a short life with many troubles. I have lived only 130 years. My father and his ancestors lived to be much older than I am.”

Jacob blessed Pharaoh. Then Jacob left from his meeting with Pharaoh.

Joseph did what Pharaoh said and gave his father and brothers land in Egypt. It was the best land in Egypt, in the eastern part of the country, in the land of Rameses. Joseph also gave his father, his brothers, and all their people the food that they needed.

Joseph Buys Land for Pharaoh

13 The time of hunger became worse. There was no food anywhere in the land. Egypt and Canaan became very poor because of this bad time. People in the land bought more and more grain. Joseph saved the money and brought it to Pharaoh's house. After some time, the people in Egypt and Canaan had no money left. They had spent all their money to buy grain. So the people of Egypt went to Joseph and said, "Please give us food. Our money is gone. If we don't eat, we will die while you are watching."

16 But Joseph answered, “Give me your cattle, and I will give you food.” So the people used their cattle and horses and all their other animals to buy food. And that year, Joseph gave them food and took their animals.

18 But the next year, people had no animals and nothing to buy food with. So the people went to Joseph and said, “You know that we have no money left. And all our animals belong to you. So we have nothing left—only what you see—our bodies and our land. Surely we will die while you are watching. But if you give us food, then we will give Pharaoh our land, and we will be his slaves. Give us seed so that we can plant. Then we will live and not die. And the land will grow food for us again.”

20 So Joseph bought all the land in Egypt for Pharaoh. All the people in Egypt sold Joseph their fields. They did this because they were very hungry. And all the people became slaves of Pharaoh. Everywhere in Egypt, people were Pharaoh’s slaves. The only land Joseph didn’t buy was the land that the priests owned. The priests didn’t need to sell their land because Pharaoh paid them for their work. So they used this money to buy food to eat.

23 Joseph said to the people, “Now I have bought you and your land for Pharaoh. So I will give you seed, and you can plant your fields. At harvest time, you must give one fifth of your crops to Pharaoh. You can keep four-fifths for yourselves. You can use the seed you keep for food and planting the next year. Now you can feed your families and your children.”

25 The people said, “You have saved our lives. We are happy to be slaves to Pharaoh."

26 So Joseph made a law at that time in the land. And that law still continues today. The law says that one fifth of everything from the land belongs to the Pharaoh. The Pharaoh owns all the land. The only land he doesn’t own is the land of the priests.

“Don’t Bury Me in Egypt”

27 Israel (Jacob) stayed in Egypt. He lived in the land of Goshen. His family grew and became very large. They got that land in Egypt and did very well.

28 Jacob lived in Egypt 17 years. So Jacob was 147 years old. The time came when Israel (Jacob) knew he would soon die, so he called his son Joseph to him. He said, “If you love me, then put your hand under my leg and make a promise. Promise that you will do what I say and that you will be truthful with me. When I die, don’t bury me in Egypt. Bury me in the place where my ancestors are buried. Carry me out of Egypt and bury me in our family grave.”

Joseph answered, “I promise that I will do what you say.”

31 Then Jacob said, “Make a vow to me.” And Joseph vowed to him that he would do this. Then Israel (Jacob) laid his head back down on the bed.

Blessings for Manasseh and Ephraim

Some time later, Joseph learned that his father was very sick. So Joseph took his two sons Manasseh and Ephraim and went to his father. When Joseph arrived, someone told Israel, “Your son Joseph has come to see you.” Israel was very weak, but he tried hard and sat up in his bed.
GENESIS 48:3–22

3Then Israel said to Joseph, “God All-Powerful appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan. God blessed me there. 4God said to me, ‘I will make you a great family. I will give you many children and you will be a great people. Your family will own this land forever.’ 5And now you have two sons. These two sons were born here in the country of Egypt before I came. Your two sons Ephraim and Manasseh will be like my own sons. They will be the same as Reuben and Simeon to me. 6So these two boys will be my sons. They will share in everything I own. But if you have other sons, they will be your sons. But they will also be like sons to Ephraim and Manasseh—that is, in the future, they will share in everything that Ephraim and Manasseh own. 7On the trip from Paddan Aram, Rachel died. This made me very sad. She died in the land of Canaan. We were still traveling toward Ephrath. I buried her there on the road to Ephrath. (Ephrath is Bethlehem.)”

8Then Israel saw Joseph’s sons. Israel said, “Who are these boys?”

9Joseph said to his father, “These are my sons. These are the boys God gave me.”

Israel said, “Bring your sons to me. I will bless them.”

10Israel was old and his eyes were not good. So Joseph brought the boys close to his father. Israel kissed and hugged the boys. 11Then Israel said to Joseph, “I never thought I would see your face again. But look! God has let me see you and your children.”

12Then Joseph took the boys off of Israel’s lap and they bowed down in front of his father. 13Joseph put Ephraim on his right side and Manasseh on his left side. (So Ephraim was on Israel’s left side, and Manasseh was on Israel’s right side.) 14But Israel crossed his hands and put his right hand on the head of the younger boy Ephraim. Then Israel put his left hand on the head of the older boy Manasseh. He had his left hand on Manasseh, even though Manasseh was firstborn. 15And Israel blessed Joseph and said, “My ancestors,* Abraham and Isaac, worshiped our God. And that God has led me all of my life.

16He was the Angel who saved me from all my troubles. And I pray that he will bless these boys. Now these boys will have my name and the name of our ancestors, Abraham and Isaac. I pray that they will grow to become great families and nations on earth.”

17Joseph saw that his father put his right hand on Ephraim’s head. This didn’t make Joseph happy. Joseph took his father’s hand. He wanted to move it from Ephraim’s head and put it on Manasseh’s head. 18Joseph said to his father, “You have your right hand on the wrong boy. Manasseh is the firstborn. Put your right hand on him!”

19But his father argued and said, “I know, son. I know. Manasseh is the firstborn. And he will be great. He will also be the father of many people. But the younger brother will be greater than the older brother. And the younger brother’s family will be much larger.”

20So Israel blessed them that day. He said, “The people of Israel will use your names whenever they bless someone. They will say, “May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh.” In this way, Israel made Ephraim greater than Manasseh.

21Then Israel said to Joseph, “Look, my time to die is almost here. But God will still be with you. He will lead you back to the land of your ancestors*. 22I have given you something that I did not give your brothers. I give you the mountain that I won from the Amorite people. I used my sword and bow to fight for that mountain. And I won.”

ancestors  Literally, “fathers.” This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
Then Jacob called all his sons to him. He said, “All my sons, come here to me. I will tell you what will happen in the future.

2 “Come together and listen, sons of Jacob. Listen to Israel, your father.”

Reuben
3 “Reuben, my first son, you are my first child, the first proof of my power as a man. You were the most honored and powerful of all my sons.

4 But your passion was like a flood you couldn’t control. So you will not remain my most honored son. You climbed into your father’s bed, and slept with one of his wives. You brought shame to my bed, to the bed you lay on.”

Simeon and Levi
5 “Simeon and Levi are brothers. They love to fight with their swords. They planned evil things in secret. My soul wants no part in their plans. I will not accept their secret meetings. They killed men when they were angry. And they hurt animals only for fun.

6 Their anger is a curse. It is too strong. They are too cruel when they are mad. They will not get their own land in the land of Jacob. They will be spread throughout Israel.”

Judah
8 “Judah, your brothers will praise you. You will defeat your enemies. Your brothers will bow down to you.

9 Judah is like a lion. My son, you are like a lion standing over the animal it killed. Judah is like a lion. He lies down to rest, and no one is brave enough to disturb him.

Men from Judah’s family will be kings. The sign that his family rules will not leave his family, before the real king comes.* Then many people will obey and serve him.

He ties his donkey to a grapevine. He ties his young donkey to the best grapevines. He uses the best wine to wash his clothes. His eyes are red from drinking wine. His teeth are white from drinking milk.*

Zebulun
13 “Zebulun will live near the sea. His seacoast will be a safe place for ships. His land will continue as far as the city of Sidon.”

Issachar
14 “Issachar is like a donkey who has worked too hard. He will lie down after carrying a heavy load.

15 He will see his resting place is good. He will see his land is pleasant. Then he will agree to carry heavy loads. He will agree to work as a slave.”

Dan
16 “Dan* will judge his own people, like the other families of Israel.

17 Dan will be like a snake at the side of the road. He will be like a dangerous snake lying near the path. That snake bites a horse’s foot, and the rider falls to the ground.

18 “Lord, I am waiting for your salvation.”

before the real king comes Or, “until Shiloh comes” or “until the man it belongs to comes” or “until his tribute comes.”

Men from Judah … milk Or, “10The ruler’s sceptre will not pass from between Judah’s feet before he gets what is his, that is, the peoples’ obedience. 11His young donkey will be tied to the very best grapevines. He will wash his finest clothes in wine, the blood of grapes. 12His eyes will be redder than wine, his teeth whiter than milk.”

Dan This is like the Hebrew word meaning “judge.”
GENESIS 49:19–50:8

Gad
19 “A group of robbers will attack* Gad. But Gad will chase them away.”

Asher
20 “Asher’s land will grow much good food. He will have food fit for a king!”

Naphtali
21 “Naphtali is like a deer running free, and his words like their beautiful babies.”

Joseph
22 “Joseph is very successful. Joseph is like a vine covered with fruit, like a vine growing by a spring, like a vine growing along a fence.

23 Many people turned and fought against him. People with arrows became his enemies.

24 But he won the fight with his mighty bow and his skillful arms.

25 God blesses you.

“May God All-Powerful bless you and give you blessings from the sky above, and blessings from the deep below. May he give you blessings from breast and womb.

26 My parents had many good things happen to them. And I, your father, was blessed even more. Your brothers left you with nothing. But now I pile all my blessings on you, as high as a mountain.”

Benjamin
27 “Benjamin is like a hungry wolf. In the morning he kills and eats. In the evening he shares what is left.”

28 Those are the twelve families of Israel. And those are the things their father said to them. He gave each son a blessing that was right for him. 29 Then Israel gave them a command. He said, “When I die, I want to be with my people. I want to be buried with my ancestors* in the cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite. 30 That cave is in the field of Machpelah near Mamre. It is in the land of Canaan. Abraham bought that field from Ephron so that he could have a burying place. 31 Abraham and his wife Sarah are buried in that cave. Isaac and his wife Rebekah are buried in that cave. I buried my wife Leah in that cave. 32 That cave is in the field that was bought from the Hittite people.” 33 After Jacob finished talking to his sons, he lay down, put his feet back on the bed and died.

Jacob’s Funeral
50 When Israel died, Joseph was very sad. He hugged his father and cried on him and kissed him. 2 Joseph commanded his servants to prepare his father’s body. (These servants were doctors.) The doctors prepared Jacob’s body to be buried. They prepared the body in the special way of the Egyptians. 3 When the Egyptians prepared the body in this special way, they waited 40 days before they buried the body. Then the Egyptians had a special time of sadness for Jacob. This time was 70 days.

4 After 70 days, the time of sadness was finished. So Joseph spoke to the Pharaoh’s officers. Joseph said, “Please tell this to Pharaoh: 5 When my father was near death, I made a promise to him. I promised that I would bury him in a cave in the land of Canaan. This is the cave that he prepared for himself. So please let me go and bury my father. Then I will come back here to you.”

6 Pharaoh answered, “Keep your promise. Go and bury your father.”

7 So Joseph went to bury his father. All of Pharaoh’s officials, Pharaoh’s elders (leaders) and all the elders of Egypt went with Joseph.

8 All the people in Joseph’s family, his brothers,

A group of robbers will attack The Hebrew words for “group of robbers” and “attack” sound like the name Gad.

ancestors Literally, “fathers.” This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
and all the people in his father’s family went with him. Only the children and the animals stayed in the land of Goshen. It was a very large group of people. There was even a group of soldiers riding chariots and horses.

They went to Goren Atad,* east of the Jordan River. At this place they had a long funeral service for Israel. This funeral service continued for seven days. The people who lived in Canaan saw the funeral service at Goren Atad. They said, “Those Egyptians are having a very sad service!” So now that place across the Jordan River is named Abel Mizraim.*

So Jacob’s sons did what their father told them. They carried his body to Canaan and buried it in the cave at Machpelah. This was the cave near Mamre in the field that Abraham bought from Ephron the Hittite. Abraham bought that cave to use as a burial place. After Joseph buried his father, he and everyone in the group with him went back to Egypt.

The Brothers Are Still Afraid of Joseph

After Jacob died, Joseph’s brothers became worried. They were afraid that Joseph would still be mad at them for what they had done years before. They said, “Maybe Joseph still hates us for what we did.” So the brothers sent this message to Joseph:

> Before your father died, he told us to give you a message. He said, ‘Tell Joseph that I beg him to please forgive his brothers for the bad things they did to him.’ So now Joseph, we beg you, please forgive us for the bad things we did to you. We are the servants of God, the God of your father.

That message made Joseph very sad, and he cried. His brothers went to him and bowed down in front of him. They said, “We will be your servants.”

Then Joseph said to them, “Don’t be afraid. I am not God! I have no right to punish you. It is true that you planned to do something bad to me. But really, God was planning good things. God’s plan was to use me to save the lives of many people. And that is what happened! So don’t be afraid. I will take care of you and your children.” In this way, Joseph said nice things to his brothers. This made his brothers feel good.

Joseph continued to live in Egypt with his father’s family. Joseph died when he was 110 years old. During Joseph’s life, Ephraim had children and grandchildren. And his son Manasseh had a son named Makir. Joseph lived to see Makir’s children.

The Death of Joseph

When Joseph was near death, he said to his brothers, “My time to die is almost here. But I know that God will take care of you and lead you out of this country. God will lead you to the land he promised to give Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.”

Then Joseph asked his people to make a promise. Joseph said, “Promise me that you will carry my bones with you when God leads you to that new land.”

Joseph died in Egypt when he was 110 years old. Doctors prepared his body for burial and put the body in a coffin in Egypt.

---

Goren Atad Or, “Atad’s threshing floor.”

Abel Mizraim This means “Egyptian time of sadness.”
Jacob’s Family in Egypt

1 Jacob (Israel) traveled to Egypt with his sons. Each son had his own family with him. These are the sons of Israel: Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, Benjamin, Dan, Naphtali, Gad, Asher. There was a total of 70 people who were direct descendants of Jacob (Joseph was one of the twelve sons, but he was already in Egypt.)

6 Later, Joseph, his brothers, and all the people of that generation died. But the people of Israel had many children, and their number grew and grew. The people of Israel became strong, and the country of Egypt was filled with the Israelites.

Trouble for the People of Israel

8 Then a new king began to rule Egypt. This king did not know Joseph. This king said to his people, “Look at the people of Israel. There are too many of them! And they are stronger than we are! We must make plans to stop the Israelites from growing stronger. If there is a war, the people of Israel might join our enemies. Then they might defeat us and escape from us.”

11 The Egyptian people decided to make life hard for the people of Israel. So the Egyptians put slave masters over the people. These masters forced the Israelites to build the cities of Pithom and Rameses for the king. The king used these cities to store grain and other things.

12 The Egyptians forced the Israelites to work harder and harder. But the more the people of Israel were forced to work, the more they grew and spread. And the Egyptian people became more and more afraid of the people of Israel.

13 So the Egyptians forced the people of Israel to work even harder.

14 The Egyptians made life hard for the Israelites. They forced the Israelites to work very hard making bricks and mortar. They also forced them to work hard in the fields. They forced them to work very hard in everything they did.

The Nurses Who Followed God

15 There were two nurses who helped the Israelite women give birth to children. They were named Shiphrah and Puah. The king of Egypt talked to the nurses. He said, “You will continue to help the Hebrew women give birth to their children. If a girl baby is born, then let the baby live. But if the baby is a boy, then you must kill him!”

17 But the nurses trusted God. So they did not obey the king’s command. They let all the boy babies live.

18 The king of Egypt called for the nurses and told them, “Why did you do this? Why did you let the boy babies live?”

19 The nurses said to the king, “The Hebrew women are much stronger than the Egyptian women. They give birth to their babies before we can go to help them.”

20–21 God was happy with the nurses. So God was good to them and allowed them to have their own families. So the Hebrew people continued to have more children, and the people became very strong.)

Hebrew

Or, “Israelite.” This name might also mean, “descendants of Eber” (Gen.10:25-31) or “people from west of the Euphrates River.”

trusted

Literally, “feared” or “respected.”
22So Pharaoh* gave this command to his own people: “Let all the girl babies live. But every time a Hebrew boy baby is born, you must throw him into the Nile River.”

Baby Moses

2There was a man from the family of Levi. He married a woman who was also from the family of Levi. 2The woman became pregnant and gave birth to a baby boy. The mother saw how beautiful the baby was, and she hid him for three months. 3The mother was afraid that the baby would be found and killed because he was a boy. After three months, she made a basket and covered it with tar* so that it would float. She put the baby in the basket. Then she put the basket in the river in the tall grass. 4The baby’s sister stayed and watched. She wanted to see what would happen to the baby.

5Just then, Pharaoh’s daughter went to the river to bathe. She saw the basket in the tall grass. Her servants were walking beside the river. So she told one of them to go get the basket. 6The king’s daughter opened the basket and saw a baby boy. The baby was crying and she felt sorry for it. Then she noticed that it was one of the Hebrew* babies.

7The baby’s sister was still hiding. She stood and asked the king’s daughter, “Do you want me to go find a Hebrew* woman who can nurse the baby and help you care for it?” 8The king’s daughter said, “Yes, please.”

So the girl went and brought the baby’s own mother.

9The king’s daughter said to the mother, “Take this baby and feed him for me. I’ll pay you to take care of him.”

So the woman took her baby and cared for him. 10The baby grew, and after some time, the woman gave the baby to the king’s daughter. The king’s daughter accepted the baby as her own son. She named him Moses* because she had pulled him from the water.

Moses Helps His People

11Moses grew and became a man. He saw that his own people, the Hebrews,* were forced to work very hard. One day Moses saw an Egyptian man beating a Hebrew man. 12Moses looked around and saw that no one was watching. Then Moses killed the Egyptian and buried him in the sand.

13The next day Moses saw two Hebrew* men fighting each other. Moses saw that one man was wrong. Moses said to that man, “Why are you hurting your neighbor?”

14The man answered, “Did anyone say you could be our ruler and judge? No! Tell me, will you kill me like you killed the Egyptian yesterday*?”

Then Moses was afraid. Moses thought to himself, “Now everyone knows what I did.”

15Pharaoh heard about what Moses did, so he decided to kill Moses. But Moses ran away from Pharaoh. Moses went to the land of Midian.

Moses in Midian

Moses stopped near a well in Midian. 16There was a priest in Midian who had seven daughters. Those girls came to that well to get water for their father’s sheep. They were trying to fill the water trough with water. 17But there were some shepherds there who chased the girls away and would not let them get water. So Moses helped the girls and gave water to their animals.

18Then they went back to their father, Reuel.* Their father said to them, “You have come home early today!”

19The girls answered, “Yes, sir. The shepherds tried to chase us away, but an Egyptian man helped us. He got water for us and gave it to our animals.”

---

Pharaoh A title people used for the king of Egypt. This word means “the Great House.”
tar Or, “pitch,” a thick oil that must be heated to become liquid.
Hebrew Or, “Israelite.”
Moses This name is like a Hebrew word meaning “to pull or draw out.”
yesterday This word is in the ancient Greek translation, but not in the Hebrew text.
Reuel He is also called Jethro.
20 So Reuel said to his daughters, “Where is this man? Why did you leave him? Go invite him to eat with us.”

21 Moses was happy to stay with that man. Reuel let Moses marry his daughter, Zipporah.

22 Zipporah became pregnant and had a son. Moses named him Gershom.* Moses gave his son this name because Moses was a stranger in a land that was not his own.

God Decides to Help Israel

23 A long time passed and that king of Egypt died. But the people of Israel were still forced to work very hard. They cried for help, and God heard them. 24 God heard their prayers, and he remembered the agreement he made with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. 25 God saw the troubles of the people of Israel, and he knew {that he would soon help them}.

The Burning Bush

3 Moses’ father-in-law was named Jethro.* Jethro was a priest of Midian. Moses took care of Jethro’s sheep. One day, Moses led the sheep to the west side of the desert. Moses went to a mountain called Horeb (Sinai), the mountain of God. 2 On that mountain, Moses saw the Angel of the Lord in a burning bush. {This is how it happened,} Moses saw a bush that was burning without being destroyed. 3 So Moses decided to go closer to the bush and see how a bush could continue burning without being destroyed.

4 The Lord saw Moses was coming to look at the bush. So God called to Moses from the bush. God said, “Moses, Moses!” Moses said, “Yes, Lord.” 5 Then the Lord said, “Don’t come any closer. Take off your sandals. You are standing on holy ground. 6 I am the God of your ancestors.* I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” Moses covered his face because he was afraid to look at God.

7 Then the Lord said, “I have seen the troubles my people have suffered in Egypt. And I have heard their cries when the Egyptians hurt them. I know about their pain. 8 Now I will go down and save my people from the Egyptians. I will take them from that land. And I will lead them to a good land where they can be free from troubles.* It is a land filled with many good things.* Many different people live in that land: the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. 9 I have heard the cries of the people of Israel. I have seen the way the Egyptians have made life hard for them. 10 So now I am sending you to Pharaoh. Go! Lead my people, the people of Israel, out of Egypt!”

11 But Moses said to God, “I am not a great man! How can I be the person to go to Pharaoh and lead the people of Israel out of Egypt?”

12 God said, “You can do it because I will be with you! This will be the proof that I am sending you: After you lead the people out of Egypt, you will come and worship me on this mountain!”

13 Then Moses said to God, “But if I go to the people of Israel and say to them, ‘The God of your ancestors* sent me,’ then the people will ask, ‘What is his name?’ What should I tell them?”

14 Then God said to Moses, “Tell them, ‘I AM WHO I AM.’* When you go to the people of Israel, tell them, ‘I AM’ sent me to you.”

15 God also said to Moses, “This is what you should tell the people: ‘YAHWEH* is the God of your ancestors,* the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. My name will always be YAHWEH. That is how the people will know me for generations and Gershom  This is like the Hebrew words meaning “a stranger there.”

Jethro  He is also called Reuel.

ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

land ... troubles  Literally, “a spacious land.”

land filled with many good things  Literally, “a land flowing with milk and honey.”

I AM WHO I AM  The Hebrew words are like the name YAHWEH (“Lord”).

YAHWEH  This name, usually translated “Lord,” is like the Hebrew word meaning, “He is” or “He makes things exist.”
16 The Lord also said, “Go and gather together the elders (leaders) of the people and tell them, ‘YAHWEH,* the God of your ancestors,* has appeared to me. The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob spoke to me. The Lord says: I have been watching over you and I have seen the things that people did to you in Egypt. 17 And I have decided that I will take you from the troubles you are suffering in Egypt. I will lead you to the land that now belongs to many different people: the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. I will lead you to a land filled with many good things.*

18 The elders (leaders) will listen to you. And then you and the elders (leaders) will go to the king of Egypt. You will tell him that ‘YAHWEH* is the God of the Hebrew* people. Our God came to us and told us to travel three days into the desert. There we must offer sacrifices* to YAHWEH our God.’

19 But I know that the king of Egypt will not let you go. Only a great power will force him to let you go. 20 So I will use my great power against Egypt. I will cause amazing things to happen in that land. After I do this, he will let you go. 21 And I will cause the Egyptian people to be kind to the people of Israel. The Egyptians will give many gifts to your people when they leave Egypt.

22 All of the Hebrew* women will ask their Egyptian neighbors and the Egyptian women living in their houses for gifts. And those Egyptian women will give them gifts of silver, gold, and fine clothing. Then you will put those gifts on your children. In this way, you will take away the wealth of the Egyptians.”

4 Then Moses said to God, “But the people of Israel will not believe me when I tell them that you sent me. They will say, ‘The Lord* did not appear to you.’”

2 But God said to Moses, “What is that you have in your hand?”

Moses answered, “It is my walking stick.”

3 Then God said, “Throw your walking stick on the ground.”

So Moses threw his walking stick on the ground. The stick became a snake. Moses was afraid and ran from it. 4 But the Lord said to Moses, “Reach out and grab the snake by its tail.”

So Moses reached out and caught the snake’s tail. When Moses did this, the snake became a walking stick again. 5 Then God said, “Use your stick in this way and the people will believe that you saw the Lord, the God of your ancestors,* the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.”

6 Then the Lord said to Moses, “I will give you another proof. Put your hand under your robe.”

So Moses opened his robe and put his hand inside. Then Moses brought his hand out of the robe and it was changed. His hand was covered with spots that were white like snow.

7 Then God said, “Now put your hand into your robe again.” So Moses put his hand into his robe again. Then Moses brought his hand out, and his hand was changed. Now his hand was good again, like it was before.

8 Then God said, “If the people don’t believe you when you use your walking stick, then they will believe you when you show them this sign. 9 If they still refuse to believe after you show them both of these things, then take some water from the Nile River. Pour the water on the ground, and as soon as it touches the ground, it will become blood.”

10 But Moses said to the Lord, “But Lord, I am telling you the truth. I am not a skilled speaker. I have never been able to speak well. And now, even after talking to you, I am still..."
not a good speaker. You know that I talk slowly and don’t use the best words.”

11 Then the Lord said to him, “Who made a person’s mouth? And who can make a person deaf or not able to speak? Who can make a person blind? Who can make a person able to see? I am the One who can do all these things—I am YAHWEH. 12 So go. I will be with you when you speak. I will give you the words to say.”

13 But Moses said, “My Lord, I beg you to send another person—not me.”

14 Then the Lord became angry with Moses and said, “Fine! I’ll give you someone to help you. I will use your brother Aaron, from the family of Levi. He is a skilled speaker. Aaron is already coming to see you. He will be happy to see you. 15 He will go with you to Pharaoh. I will tell you what to say. Then you will tell Aaron, and Aaron will choose the right words to speak to Pharaoh. 16 Aaron will also speak to the people for you. You will be like a great king, and he will be your official speaker. 17 So go. And carry your walking stick with you. Use your stick and the other miracles to show the people that I am with you.”

Moses Returns to Egypt

18 Then Moses went back to Jethro, his father-in-law. Moses said to Jethro, “Please let me go back to Egypt. I want to see if my people are still alive.”

Jethro said to Moses, “Sure! And may you go in peace.”

19 Then, while Moses was still in Midian, God said to him, “It is safe for you to go back to Egypt now. The men who wanted to kill you are now dead.”

20 So Moses put his wife and children on the donkey and returned to Egypt. Moses carried his walking stick with him—the walking stick with the power of God.

21 While Moses was traveling back to Egypt, God spoke to him. God said, “When you talk to Pharaoh remember to show him all the miracles that I have given you the power to do. But I will cause Pharaoh to be very stubborn. He will not let the people go. 22 Then you should say to Pharaoh: The Lord says, ‘Israel is my firstborn son. And I am telling you to let my son go and worship me! If you refuse to let Israel go, then I will kill your firstborn son.’”

Moses’ Son Circumcised

24 On the way to Egypt, Moses stopped at a place to spend the night. The Lord met Moses at that place and tried to kill him. But Zipporah took a flint knife and circumcised her son. She took the skin and touched his feet. Then she said to Moses, “You are a bridegroom of blood to me.” 26 Zipporah said this because she had to circumcise her son. So God forgave Moses and did not kill him.

Moses and Aaron before God

27 The Lord had spoken to Aaron. The Lord had told him, “Go out into the desert and meet Moses.” So Aaron went and met Moses at the Mountain of God. Aaron saw Moses and kissed him. 28 Moses told Aaron why the Lord had sent him. And Moses told Aaron about all the miracles and things he must do to prove that God had sent him. Moses told Aaron everything the Lord had said.

29 So Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders (leaders) of the people of Israel. 30 Then Aaron spoke to the people. He told them all the things that the Lord had told Moses. Then Moses did the proofs for all the people to see. 31 The people believed that God had sent Moses. The people of Israel knew that God had seen their troubles, and that he had come to help them. So they bowed down and worshiped God.

firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times. tried to kill him Or possibly, “wanted to circumcise him.” flint knife A sharp knife made from flint rock. circumcised Cutting off the foreskin. In Israel this was proof that a man had made a special agreement to obey God’s laws and teachings. Verse 26 Or, “And he was healed. She said, ‘You are a bridegroom of blood’ because of the circumcision.” Mountain of God That is, Mount Horeb (Sinai).
Moses And Aaron Before Pharaoh

5 After Moses and Aaron talked to the people, they went to Pharaoh. They said, “The Lord* God of Israel says, ‘Let my people go into the desert so they can have a feast to honor me.’”

But Pharaoh said, “Who is the Lord? Why should I obey him? Why should I let Israel go? I don’t even know who this Lord is, so I refuse to let Israel go.”

3 Then Aaron and Moses said, “The God of the Hebrew* people has talked with us. So we beg you to let us travel three days into the desert. There we will offer a sacrifice* to the Lord our God. If we don’t do this, he might become angry and destroy us. He might make us die from sickness or war.”

4 But Pharaoh said to them, “Moses and Aaron, you are bothering the workers. Let them do their work! Go mind your own business! There are very many workers, and you are keeping them from doing their jobs.”

Pharaoh Punishes the People

6 That same day, Pharaoh gave a command to make work harder for the people of Israel. Pharaoh said to the slave masters and Hebrew* foremen, “You have always given the people straw and they use it to make bricks. But now, tell them they have to go and find their own straw to make bricks. But they must still make the same number of bricks as they did before. They have become lazy. That is why they are asking me to let them go. They don’t have enough work to do. That is why they asked me to let them make sacrifices* to their God. So make these people work harder. Keep them busy. Then they will not have enough time to listen to the lies of Moses.”

10 So the Egyptian slave masters and the Hebrew* foremen went to the people of Israel and said, “Pharaoh has decided that he will not give you straw for your bricks. You must go and get the straw for yourselves. So go and find straw. But you must still make as many bricks as you made before.”

12 So the people went everywhere in Egypt looking for straw. The slave masters forced the people to work even harder. They forced the people to make as many bricks as before.

14 The Egyptian slave masters had chosen the Hebrew* foremen and had made them responsible for the work the people did. The Egyptian slave masters beat these foremen and said to them, “Why aren’t you making as many bricks as you made in the past? If you could do it then, you can do it now!”

15 Then the Hebrew* foremen went to Pharaoh. They complained and said, “We are your servants. Why are you treating us like this? You won’t give us any straw, but you tell us to make as many bricks as before. And now our masters are beating us. Your people are wrong for doing this.”

17 Pharaoh answered, “You are lazy. You don’t want to work. That is why you ask me to let you go. And that is why you want to leave here and make sacrifices* to the Lord. Now, go back to work! We will not give you any straw! And you must still make as many bricks as you did before!”

19 The Hebrew* foremen knew they were in trouble. The foremen knew they could not make as many bricks as they made in the past.

20 When they were leaving the meeting with Pharaoh, they passed Moses and Aaron. Moses and Aaron were waiting for them. So they said to Moses and Aaron, “You really made a mistake when you told Pharaoh to let us go. May the Lord punish you because you caused Pharaoh and his rulers to hate us. You have given them an excuse to kill us.”

Moses Complains to God

22 Then Moses prayed to the Lord and said, “Master, why have you done this terrible thing to your people? Why did you send me here? I went to Pharaoh and said the things you told me to say. But since that time he has been mean to the people. And you have done nothing to help them!”

6 Then the Lord said to Moses, “Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh. I will use my great power against him, and he will...
66

EXODUS 6:2–7:2

let my people go. He will be so ready for them to leave that he will force them to go.”

2Then God said to Moses, 3“I am the Lord. I appeared to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. They called me El Shaddai (God All-Powerful). They did not know my name, YAHWEH (Lord). 4I made an agreement with them. I promised to give them the land of Canaan. They lived in that land, but it was not their own land. 5Now, I know about the troubles of the people of Israel. I know that they are the slaves of Egypt. And I remember my agreement. 6So tell the people of Israel that I say to them, ‘I am the Lord. I will save you. I will make you free. You will not be slaves of the Egyptians. I will use my great power and bring terrible punishment to the Egyptians. Then I will save you. 7You will be my people and I will be your God. I am the Lord your God, and you will know that I made you free from Egypt. 8I made a great promise to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I promised to give them a special land. So I will lead you to that land. I will give you that land. It will be yours. I am the Lord.’”

9So Moses told this to the people of Israel. But the people would not listen to him. They were working so hard that they were not patient with Moses.

10Then the Lord said to Moses, 11“Go tell Pharaoh that he must let the people of Israel leave his land.”

12But Moses answered, “The people of Israel refuse to listen to me! So surely Pharaoh will also refuse to listen. I am a very bad speaker!*

13But the Lord talked with Moses and Aaron. God commanded them to go and talk to the people of Israel. He also commanded them to go and talk to Pharaoh. God commanded them to lead the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

Some of the Families of Israel

14Here are the names of the leaders of the families of Israel: Israel’s first son, Reuben, had four sons. They were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. 15Simeon’s sons were Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, Zohar, and Shaul. (Shaul was the son from a Canaanite woman). 16Levi lived 137 years. Levi’s sons were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. 17Gershon had two sons, Libni and Shimei. 18Kohath lived 133 years. Kohath’s sons were Amram, Israel, Hebron, and Uzziel. 19Merari’s sons were Mahli and Mushi. All these families were from Israel’s son Levi.

20Amram lived 137 years. Amram married his father’s sister, Jochebed. Amram and Jochebed gave birth to Aaron and Moses. 21Izhar’s sons were Korah, Nepheg, and Zicri. 22Uzziel’s sons were Mishael, Elzaphan, and Sithri.

23Aaron married Elisheba. (Elisheba was the daughter of Amminadab, and the sister of Nahshon.) Aaron and Elisheba gave birth to Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. 24The sons of Korah, the ancestors of the Korahites, were Assir, Elkanah, and Abiasaph. 25Aaron’s son, Eleazar, married a daughter of Putiel. And she gave birth to Phinehas. All these people were from Israel’s son, Levi.

26Aaron and Moses were from this family group. And they are the men that God spoke to and said, “Lead my people out of Israel in groups.” 27Aaron and Moses are the men that talked to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. They told Pharaoh to let the people of Israel leave Egypt.

God Repeats His Call to Moses

28In the land of Egypt God spoke to Moses. 29He said, “I am the Lord. Tell the king of Egypt everything that I tell you.” 30But Moses answered, “I am a very bad speaker. The king will not listen to me.”

7The Lord said to Moses, “I will be with you. You will be like a great king* to Pharaoh. And Aaron will be your official speaker.* 8Tell Aaron everything that I command you. Then he will tell the king the things I say. And Pharaoh will let the people

I am a very bad speaker Or, “I sound like a foreigner.” Literally, “I have uncircumcised lips.”

a great king Or, “God.”

official speaker Or, “prophet.”
of Israel leave this country. 3 But I will make Pharaoh stubborn. He will not obey the things you tell him. Then I will do many miracles in Egypt to prove who I am. But he will still refuse to listen. 4 So then I will punish Egypt very much. And I will lead my people out of that land. 5 Then the people of Egypt will know that I am the Lord. I will be against them, and they will know that I am the Lord. Then I will lead my people out of their country.”

6 Moses and Aaron obeyed these things the Lord told them. 7 Moses was 80 years old at the time, and Aaron was 83.

Moses’ Walking Stick Becomes a Snake

8 The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, 9 “Pharaoh will ask you to prove your power. He will ask you to do a miracle. Tell Aaron to throw his walking stick on the ground. While Pharaoh is watching, the stick will become a snake.”

10 So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and obeyed the Lord. Aaron threw his walking stick down. While Pharaoh and his officers watched, the stick became a snake.

11 So the king called for his wise men and magicians. These men used their tricks and they were able to do the same thing as Aaron. 12 They threw their walking sticks on the ground, and their sticks became snakes. But then Aaron’s walking stick ate theirs.

13 Pharaoh still refused to let the people go. This happened just like the Lord said it would. The king refused to listen to Moses and Aaron.

The Water Becomes Blood

14 Then the Lord said to Moses, “Pharaoh is being stubborn. Pharaoh refuses to let the people go. 15 In the morning, Pharaoh will go out to the river. Go to him by the edge of the Nile River. Take the walking stick that became a snake. 16 Tell him this: ‘The Lord, the God of the Hebrew people, sent me to you. The Lord told me to tell you to let his people go worship him in the desert. Until now you have not listened to the Lord. 17 So the Lord says that he will do something to show you that he is the Lord. I will hit the water of the Nile River with this walking stick in my hand, and the river will change into blood. 18 The fish in the river will die, and the river will begin to stink. Then the Egyptians will not be able to drink the water from the river.’”

19 The Lord said to Moses: “Tell Aaron to hold the walking stick in his hand over the rivers, canals, lakes and every place where they store water. When he does this, all the water will change into blood. All of the water, even the water stored in wood and stone jars, will change into blood.”

20 So Moses and Aaron did what the Lord commanded. Aaron raised the walking stick and hit the water in the Nile River. He did this in front of Pharaoh and his officials. So all the water in the river changed into blood. 21 The fish in the river died, and the river began to stink. So the Egyptians could not drink water from the river. The blood was everywhere in Egypt.

22 The magicians used their tricks and did the same thing. So Pharaoh refused to listen to Moses and Aaron. This happened just like the Lord said. 23 Pharaoh ignored what Moses and Aaron had done. Pharaoh just turned and went into his house.

24 The Egyptians could not drink the water from the river. So they dug wells around the river for water to drink.

The Frogs

25 Seven days passed after the Lord changed the Nile River.

8 Then the Lord told Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and tell him that the Lord says, ‘Let my people go to worship me! 2 If you refuse to let my people go, then I will fill Egypt with frogs. 3 The Nile River will be filled with frogs. They will come from the river and enter your houses. They will be in your bedrooms, and in your beds. The frogs will be in the houses of your officials and in your ovens and in your jars of water. 4 The frogs will be all over you, your people, and your officials.’”

5 Then the Lord said to Moses, “Tell Aaron to hold the walking stick in his hand over the canals, rivers, and lakes. Then the frogs will come out onto the land of Egypt.”

6 So Aaron raised his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs began coming out of the water and covered the land of Egypt.
The magicians used their tricks to do the same thing—so even more frogs came out onto the land in Egypt!

Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron. Pharaoh said, “Ask the Lord to remove the frogs from me and my people. I will let the people go to offer sacrifices to the Lord.”

Moses said to Pharaoh, “Tell me when you want the frogs to go away. I will pray for you, your people, and your officials. Then the frogs will leave you and your houses. The frogs will remain only in the river. When do you want the frogs to leave?”

Pharaoh said, “Tomorrow.”

Moses said, “It will happen as you say. In this way, you will know that there is no god like the Lord our God. The frogs will leave you, your house, your officials, and your people. The frogs will remain only in the river.”

Moses and Aaron left Pharaoh. Moses prayed to the Lord about the frogs he had sent against Pharaoh. And the Lord did what Moses asked. The frogs died in the houses, in the yards, and in the fields. They began to rot, and the whole country began to stink.

Pharaoh saw that they were free of the frogs, and he again became stubborn. Pharaoh did not do what Moses and Aaron had asked him to do. This happened just like the Lord had said.

The Lice

Then the Lord said to Moses, “Tell Aaron to raise his stick and hit the dust on the ground, and everywhere in Egypt dust will become lice.”

They did this. Aaron raised the stick in his hand and hit the dust on the ground, and everywhere in Egypt the dust became lice. The lice got on the animals and the people.

The magicians used their tricks and tried to do the same thing. But the magicians could not make lice come from the dust. The lice remained on the animals and the people. So the magicians told Pharaoh that the power of God did this. But Pharaoh refused to listen to them. This happened just like the Lord had said.

The Flies

The Lord said to Moses, “Get up in the morning and go to Pharaoh. Pharaoh will go out to the river. Tell him that the Lord says, ‘Let my people go and worship me! If you don’t let my people go, then flies will come into your houses. The flies will be on you and your officials. The houses of Egypt will be full of flies. The flies will be all over the ground too! But I will not treat the people of Israel the same as the Egyptian people. There will not be any flies in Goshen, where my people live. In this way you will know that I, the Lord, am in this land. So tomorrow I will treat my people differently from your people. That will be my proof.’”

So the Lord did just what he said. Many, many flies came into Egypt. The flies were in Pharaoh’s house, and they were in all his officials’ houses. The flies were all over Egypt. The flies were ruining the country.

So Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron. Pharaoh told them, “Offer sacrifices to your God here in this country.”

But Moses said, “It would not be right to do that. The Egyptians think that it is a terrible thing to kill animals as sacrifices for the Lord our God. If we do this here, then the Egyptians will see us, and they will throw stones at us and kill us. Let us go three days into the desert and offer sacrifices to the Lord our God. This is what the Lord told us to do.”

So Pharaoh said, “I will let you go and offer sacrifices to the Lord your God in the desert. But, you must not go very far! Now, go and pray for me.”

Moses said, “Look, I will leave and ask the Lord to remove the flies from you, your people, and your officials tomorrow. But you must not stop the people from offering sacrifices to the Lord.”

So Moses left Pharaoh and prayed to the Lord. And the Lord did what Moses asked. The Lord removed the flies from Pharaoh, his officials, and his people. None of the flies remained. But Pharaoh again became stubborn and did not let the people go.

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
EXODUS 9:1–29

The Disease of the Farm Animals

Then the Lord told Moses to go to Pharaoh and tell him: “The Lord, the God of the Hebrew people, says, ‘Let my people go to worship me!’ 2If you continue to hold them and refuse to let them go, 3then the Lord will use his power against your animals in the fields. The Lord will cause all of your horses, donkeys, camels, cattle, and sheep to become sick with a terrible disease. 4The Lord will treat Israel’s animals differently from the animals of Egypt. None of the animals that belong to the people of Israel will die. 5The Lord has set the time for this to happen. Tomorrow the Lord will cause this to happen in this country.’”

6The next morning, all the farm animals in Egypt died. But none of the animals that belonged to the people of Israel died. 7Pharaoh sent people to see if any of the animals of Israel died. And not one of the animals of Israel died. Pharaoh remained stubborn. He did not let the people go.

The Boils

8The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, “Fill your hands with the ashes from an oven. Moses, throw the ashes into the air in front of Pharaoh. 9This will become dust that will go throughout the land of Egypt. Whenever the dust touches a person or an animal in Egypt, boils (sores) will break out on the skin.”

10So Moses and Aaron took ashes from a furnace. Then they went and stood before Pharaoh. Moses threw the ashes into the air, and boils began breaking out on people and animals. 11The magicians could not stop Moses from doing this, because even the magicians had the boils. This happened everywhere in Egypt. 12But the Lord made Pharaoh stubborn. So Pharaoh refused to listen to Moses and Aaron. This happened just like the Lord had said.

The Hail

13Then the Lord said to Moses, “Get up in the morning and go to Pharaoh. Tell him that the Lord, the God of the Hebrew people says, ‘Let my people go to worship me!’ 14If you don’t do this, then I will use my full power against you, your officials, and your people. Then you will know that there is no god in the world like me. 15I could use my power and cause a disease that would wipe you and your people off the earth. 16But I have put you here for a reason. I have put you here so that I could show you my power. Then people all over the world will learn about me! 17You are still against my people. You are not letting them go free. 18So, at this time tomorrow, I will cause a very bad hailstorm. There has never been a hailstorm like this in Egypt, not since Egypt became a nation. 19Now, you must put your animals in a safe place. Everything you own that is now in the fields must be put in a safe place. Why? Because any person or animal that remains in the fields will be killed. The hail will fall on everything that is not gathered into your houses.”

20Some of Pharaoh’s officials paid attention to the Lord’s message. Those men quickly put all of their animals and slaves into houses. 21But other people ignored the Lord’s message. Those people lost all their slaves and animals that were in the fields.

22The Lord told Moses, “Raise your arms into the air and the hail will start falling all over Egypt. The hail will fall on all the people, animals, and plants in all the fields of Egypt.”

23So Moses raised his walking stick into the air, and the Lord caused thunder, lightning, and hail to fall to earth. The hail fell all over Egypt. 24The hail was falling. And there was lightning flashing all through it. It was the worst hailstorm that had ever hit Egypt since it had been a nation. 25The storm destroyed everything in the fields in Egypt. The hail destroyed people, animals, and plants. The hail also broke all the trees in the fields. 26The only place that did not get hail was the land of Goshen, where the people of Israel lived.

27Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron. Pharaoh told them, “This time I have sinned. The Lord is right, and I and my people are wrong. 28The hail and thunder from God are too much! Ask God to stop the storm and I will let you go. You don’t have to stay here.”

29Moses told Pharaoh, “When I leave the city, I will lift my arms in prayer to the Lord.
And the thunder and hail will stop. Then you will know that the Lord is in this land. 30But I know that you and your officials don’t really fear and respect the Lord yet.”

31The flax had already developed its seeds. And the barley was already blooming. So these plants were destroyed. 32But the wheat and spelt ripen later than the other grains, so these plants were not destroyed.

33Moses left Pharaoh and went outside the city. He lifted his arms in prayer to the Lord. And the thunder and hail stopped, and then even the rain stopped.

34When Pharaoh saw that the rain, hail, and thunder had stopped, he again did wrong. He and his officials became stubborn again.

35Pharaoh refused to let the people of Israel go free. This happened just like the Lord had said through Moses.

The Locusts

10The Lord said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh. I have made him and his officials stubborn. I did this so I could show them my powerful miracles. I also did this so you could tell your children and your grandchildren about the miracles and other wonderful things that I have done in Egypt. Then all of you will know that I am the Lord.”

3So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh. They told him, “The Lord, the God of the Hebrew people, says, ‘How long will you refuse to obey me? Let my people go to worship me! 4If you refuse to let my people go, then tomorrow I will bring locusts into your country. 5The locusts will cover the land. There will be so many locusts that you won’t be able to see the ground. Anything that was left from the hailstorm will be eaten by the locusts. The locusts will eat all the leaves from every tree in the field. 6The locusts will fill all your houses, and all your officials’ houses, and all the houses in Egypt. There will be more locusts than your fathers or your grandfathers ever saw. There will be more locusts than there have ever been since people began living in Egypt.’” Then Moses turned and left Pharaoh.

7Then the officials asked Pharaoh, “How long will we be trapped by these people. Let the men go to worship the Lord their God. If you don’t let them go, then before you know it, Egypt will be destroyed!”

8So Pharaoh told his officials to bring Moses and Aaron back to him. Pharaoh said to them, “Go and worship the Lord your God. But tell me, exactly who is going?”

9Moses answered, “All of our people, young and old, will go. And we will take our sons and daughters, and our sheep and cattle with us. We will all go because the Lord’s feast is for all of us.”

10Pharaoh said to them, “The Lord really will have to be with you before I let you and all of your children leave Egypt. Look, you are planning something bad. 11The men can go worship the Lord. That is what you asked for in the beginning. But all of your people can’t go.” Then Pharaoh sent Moses and Aaron away.

12The Lord told Moses, “Raise your arm over the land of Egypt and the locusts will come! The locusts will spread all over the land of Egypt. The locusts will eat all the plants that the hail did not destroy.”

13So Moses raised his walking stick over the land of Egypt, and the Lord caused a strong wind to blow from the east. The wind blew all that day and night. When morning came, the wind had brought the locusts to the land of Egypt.

14The locusts flew into the country of Egypt and landed on the ground. There were more locusts than there had ever been in Egypt. And there will never again be that many locusts there. 15The locusts covered the ground, and the whole country became dark. The locusts ate every plant on the ground and all of the fruit in the trees that the hail had not destroyed. There weren’t any leaves left on any of the trees or plants anywhere in Egypt.

16Pharaoh quickly called for Moses and Aaron. Pharaoh said, “I have sinned against the Lord your God and against you. 17Now, forgive me for my sins this time. Ask the Lord to remove this ‘death’ (locusts) from me.”

18Moses left Pharaoh and prayed to the Lord. 19So the Lord changed the wind. The Lord made a very strong wind blow from the west, and it blew the locusts out of Egypt and into the Red Sea. Not one locust was left in Egypt! 20But the Lord caused Pharaoh to be stubborn again. And Pharaoh did not let the people of Israel go.

The Darkness
21Then the Lord told Moses, “Raise your arm into the air and darkness will cover Egypt. It will be so dark you can feel it!”
22So Moses raised his arm into the air and a cloud of darkness covered Egypt. The darkness stayed in Egypt for three days.
23None of the people could see each other. And no one got up to go any place for three days. But there was light in all the places where the people of Israel lived.
24Again Pharaoh called for Moses. Pharaoh said, “Go and worship the Lord! You can take your children with you. But you must leave your sheep and cattle here.”
25Moses said, “Not only will we take our sheep and cattle with us, but when we leave, even you will give us offerings and sacrifices* for us to use in worshiping the Lord our God!”
26Yes, we will take our animals with us to worship the Lord. Not one hoof* will be left behind. We don’t know yet exactly what we will need to worship the Lord. We will learn that only when we get to the place we are going. So we must take all of these things with us.”
27The Lord made Pharaoh stubborn again. So Pharaoh refused to let them go. 28Then Pharaoh told Moses, “Get out of here! I don’t want you to come here again! The next time you come to see me, you will die!”
29Then Moses told Pharaoh, “You are right about one thing. I won’t come to see you again!”

The Death of the Firstborn
11Then the Lord told Moses, “I have one more disaster to bring against Pharaoh and Egypt. After this, he will send you out of Egypt. In fact, he will force you to leave this country. 2You must give this message to the people of Israel: ‘Men and women, you must ask your neighbors to give you things made of silver and gold. 3The Lord will cause the Egyptians to be kind to you. The Egyptian people, even Pharaoh’s own officials, already consider Moses to be a great man.’” 4Moses said to the people, “The Lord says, ‘At midnight tonight, I will go through Egypt, 5and every firstborn* son in Egypt will die, from the firstborn son of Pharaoh, the ruler of Egypt, to the firstborn son of the slave girl grinding grain. Even the firstborn animals will die. 6The crying in Egypt will be worse than at any time in the past. And it will be worse than it will ever be in the future. 7But none of the people of Israel will be hurt—not even a dog will bark at them. None of the people of Israel or any of their animals will be hurt. In this way, you will know that I have treated Israel differently from Egypt. 8Then all of these slaves of yours (the Egyptians) will bow down and worship me. They will say, “Leave and take all your people with you.” Then in anger, I will leave Pharaoh.’” 9Then the Lord told Moses, “Pharaoh has not listened to you. Why? So that I could show my great power in Egypt.” 10That is why Moses and Aaron did all these great miracles in front of Pharaoh. And that is why the Lord made Pharaoh so stubborn that he would not let the people of Israel leave his country.

Passover
12While Moses and Aaron were still in Egypt, the Lord spoke to them. The Lord said, “This month* will be the first month of the year for you. 3This command is for the whole community of Israel: On the tenth day of this month each person must get one lamb for the people in his house. 4If there are not enough people in his house to eat a whole lamb, then he should invite some of his neighbors to share the meal. There must be enough lamb for everyone to eat. 5The lamb must be a one-year-old male, and it must be completely healthy. This animal can be either

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
hoof The hard part of the foot of certain animals.

firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.
month That is, the month of Abib (Nisan). This was about the middle of March to the middle of April.
EXODUS 12:6–27

a young sheep or a young goat. 6 You should watch over the animal until the 14th day of the month. On that day, all the people of the community of Israel must kill these animals at twilight. 7 You must collect the blood from these animals. Put the blood on the top and sides of the doorframes of the houses where the people eat this meal.

8 "On this night, you must roast the lamb and eat all of the meat. You must also eat bitter herbs and bread made without yeast. 9 You must not boil the lamb in water. You must roast the whole lamb over a fire. The lamb must still have its head, legs, and inner parts. 10 You must eat all of the meat that night. If any of the meat is left until morning, then you must burn that meat in the fire.

11 "When you eat the meal, you must be fully dressed like you are going on a journey. You must have your shoes on your feet and your walking stick in your hand. You must eat in a hurry. Why? Because this is the Lord’s Passover—the time when the Lord protected his people and led them quickly out of Egypt.

12 "Tonight I will go through Egypt and kill every firstborn* man and animal in Egypt. In this way, I will judge all the gods of Egypt. I will show that I am the Lord. 13 But the blood on your houses will be a special sign. When I see the blood, I will pass over* your house. I will cause bad things to happen to the people of Egypt. But none of those bad diseases will hurt you.

14 "So you will always remember tonight—it will be a special holiday for you. Your descendants* will honor the Lord with this holiday forever. 15 On this holiday, you will eat bread made without yeast for seven days. On the first day of this holiday, you will remove all the yeast from your houses. No one should eat any yeast for the full seven days of this holiday. If anyone eats yeast, then you must separate that person from the rest of Israel. 16 There will be holy assemblies on the first day and the last day of the holiday. You must not do any work on these days. The only work you can do on these days is prepare the food for your meals. 17 You must remember the Festival of Unleavened Bread.* Why? Because on this day I took all of your people out of Egypt in groups.* So, all of your descendants* must remember this day. This is a law that will last forever. 18 So, on the evening of the 14th day of the first month (Nisan) you will begin eating bread without yeast. You will eat this bread until the evening of the 21st day of the same month. 19 For seven days there must not be any yeast in your houses. Any person, either a citizen of Israel or a foreigner, who eats yeast at this time must be separated from the rest of Israel. 20 On this holiday, you must not eat any yeast. You must eat bread without yeast wherever you live."

21 So Moses called all the elders (leaders) together. Moses told them, “Get the lambs for your families. Kill the lambs for the Passover. 22 Take bunches of hyssop* and dip them in the bowls filled with blood. Paint the blood on the sides and tops of the doorframes. No one must leave his house until morning. 23 At the time the Lord goes through Egypt to kill the firstborn, the Lord will see the blood on the sides and tops of the doorframes. Then the Lord will protect* that house. The Lord will not let the Destroyer come into your houses and hurt you.

24 "So you will always remember tonight—it will be a special holiday for you. Your descendants* will honor the Lord with this holiday forever. 15 On this holiday, you will eat bread made without yeast for seven days. On the first day of this holiday, you will remove all the yeast from your houses. No one should eat any yeast for the full seven days of this holiday. If anyone eats yeast, then you must separate that person from the rest of Israel. 16 There will be holy assemblies on the first day and the last day of the holiday. You must not do any work on these days. The only work you can do on these days is prepare the food for your meals. 17 You must remember the Festival of Unleavened Bread.* Why? Because on this day I took all of your people out of Egypt in groups.* So, all of your descendants* must remember this day. This is a law that will last forever. 18 So, on the evening of the 14th day of the first month (Nisan) you will begin eating bread without yeast. You will eat this bread until the evening of the 21st day of the same month. 19 For seven days there must not be any yeast in your houses. Any person, either a citizen of Israel or a foreigner, who eats yeast at this time must be separated from the rest of Israel. 20 On this holiday, you must not eat any yeast. You must eat bread without yeast wherever you live."

21 So Moses called all the elders (leaders) together. Moses told them, “Get the lambs for your families. Kill the lambs for the Passover. 22 Take bunches of hyssop* and dip them in the bowls filled with blood. Paint the blood on the sides and tops of the doorframes. No one must leave his house until morning. 23 At the time the Lord goes through Egypt to kill the firstborn, the Lord will see the blood on the sides and tops of the doorframes. Then the Lord will protect* that house. The Lord will not let the Destroyer come into your houses and hurt you. 24 You must remember this command. This law is for you and your descendants* forever. 25 You must remember to do this even when you go to the land the Lord is giving you. 26 When your children ask you, ‘Why are we doing this ceremony?’ 27 you will say, ‘This Passover is to honor the Lord. Why? Because when we were in Egypt, twilight The time after the sun goes down, but before dark.

---

Passover The Hebrew word means “to skip, pass over” or “to protect.”
firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.
pass over Or, “protect.”
descendants A person’s children and their future families.
Unleavened Bread Bread made without yeast.
groups Or, “divisions.” This is a military term that shows Israel was organized like an army.
hyssop A plant with stems about 3 feet long. The leaves and branches are like hair, so they could be used like a brush.
protect Or, “pass over.”
the Lord passed over* the houses of Israel. The Lord killed the Egyptians, but he saved the people in our houses. So now the people bow down and worship the Lord.”" 28The Lord had given this command to Moses and Aaron. So the people of Israel did what the Lord commanded.

29At midnight, the Lord killed all the firstborn sons in Egypt, from the firstborn son of Pharaoh (who ruled Egypt) to the firstborn son of the prisoner sitting in jail. Also all the firstborn animals died. 30That night someone died in every house in Egypt. Pharaoh, his officials, and all the people of Egypt began crying very loudly.

Israel Leaves Egypt

31So that night, Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron. Pharaoh said to them, “Get up and leave my people. You and your people can do as you say. Go and worship the Lord! 32Take all of your sheep and cattle with you, just like you said you would. Go! And say a blessing for me too!” 33The people of Egypt also asked them to hurry and leave. Why? Because they said, “If you don’t leave, we will all die!”

34The people of Israel did not have time to put the yeast in their bread. They just wrapped the bowls of dough with cloth and carried them on their shoulders. 35Then the people of Israel did what Moses asked them to do. They went to their Egyptian neighbors and asked for clothing and things made from silver and gold. 36The Lord caused the Egyptians to be kind to the people of Israel. So the Egyptians gave their riches to the people of Israel.

37The people of Israel traveled from Rameses to Succoth. There were about 600,000 men. This does not include the children. 38There were many, many sheep, cattle and other things. There were also many different kinds of people traveling with them. These people were not Israelites, but they left Egypt with the people of Israel. 39The people did not have time to put yeast in their bread. And they did not make any special food for their journey. So they had to bake their bread without yeast.

40The people of Israel had lived in Egypt* for 430 years. 41After 430 years, to the very day, all the armies of the Lord® left Egypt. 42So that is a very special night when the people remember what the Lord did. All the people of Israel will remember that night forever.

43The Lord told Moses and Aaron, “Here are the rules for Passover: No foreigner is to eat the Passover. 44But if a person buys a slave, and if he circumcises® him, then the slave can eat the Passover. 45But if a person just lives in your country, or if a person is only hired to work for you, then that person must not eat the Passover. 46Passover is for the people of Israel.”

47Each family must® eat the meal in one house. None of the food is to be taken outside the house. Don’t break any of the lamb’s bones. 48The whole community of Israel must do this ceremony. 49If a non-Israelite lives with you, and if he wants to share in the Lord’s Passover, then he must be circumcised® Then he will be the same as any other citizen of Israel, so he can share in the meal. But if a man is not circumcised, then he cannot eat the Passover meal. 50The same rules are for everyone. It does not matter if a person is a citizen or a non-Israelite living in your country—the same rules are for everyone.”

50So all the people of Israel obeyed the commands that the Lord gave to Moses and Aaron. 51So on that same day, the Lord led all the people of Israel out of the country of Egypt. The people left in groups.*

13Then the Lord said to Moses, 2“You must give me every male in Israel that is its mother’s first child. That means that every firstborn baby boy and every firstborn male animal will be mine.”

Egypt The ancient Greek and Samaritan translations say, “Egypt and Canaan.” This would mean they counted the years from about Abraham’s time, not from Joseph’s. See Gen. 15:12-16 and Gal. 3:17.

armies of the Lord The people of Israel.

circumcise(d) To have the foreskin cut off. This was done to every Jewish male to show he shared in the agreement God made with Israel. See Gen. 17:9-14.

groups Or, “divisions.” This is a military term, and it shows the people were organized as the “army of the Lord.”
Moses said to the people, “Remember this day. You were slaves in Egypt. But on this day the Lord used his great power and made you free. You must not eat bread with yeast. 4Today, in the month of Abib, you are leaving Egypt. 5The Lord made a special promise to your ancestors. The Lord promised to give you the land of the Canaanite people, the Hittite people, the Amorite people, the Hivite people, and the Jebusite people. After the Lord leads you to the land filled with many good things, then you must remember this day. You must have a special day of worship on this day during the first month of every year.

6For seven days you must eat only bread that has no yeast. On the seventh day there will be a great feast. This feast will show honor to the Lord. 7So for seven days you must not eat any bread made with yeast. There must be no bread with yeast anywhere in your land. On this day, you should tell your children, ‘We are having this feast because the Lord took me out of Egypt.’ 9This holiday will help you remember—it will be like a string tied on your hand. It will be like a sign before your eyes. This holiday will help you remember the Lord’s teachings. It will help you remember that the Lord used his great power to take you out of Egypt.

10So remember this holiday every year at the right time. 11The Lord will lead you into the land he promised to give you. The Canaanite people now live there. But God promised your ancestors that he would give you this land. After God gives you this land, you must remember to give him every firstborn boy. And every male animal that is the firstborn must be given to the Lord. Every firstborn donkey can be bought back from the Lord. Every firstborn baby boy must be bought back from the Lord. 14“In the future, your children will ask why you do this. They will say, ‘What does all this mean?’ And you will answer, ‘The Lord used his great power to save us from Egypt. We were slaves in that place. But the Lord led us out and brought us here.’ 15In Egypt, Pharaoh was stubborn. He refused to let us leave. So the Lord killed every firstborn in all the land. (The Lord killed the firstborn animals and the firstborn sons.) That is why I give every firstborn male animal to the Lord. And that is why I buy back each of my firstborn sons from the Lord.’ 16This is like a string tied on your hand. And it is like a sign in front of your eyes. It helps you remember that the Lord brought us out of Egypt with his great power.”

The Trip out of Egypt

17Pharaoh made the people leave Egypt. The Lord did not let the people take the road leading to the land of the Philistines. That road by the sea is the shortest way, but the Lord said, “If the people go that way they will have to fight. Then they might change their minds and go back to Egypt.” 18So the Lord led them another way. He led them through the desert by the Red Sea. The people of Israel were dressed for war when they left Egypt.

Joseph Goes Home

19Moses carried the bones of Joseph with him. Before Joseph died, he made the sons of Israel promise to do this for him. Joseph said, “When God saves you, remember to carry my bones with you out of Egypt.”

carrier(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

baby boy Or, “baby.”

firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.
sons Or, “children.”

Red Sea Or, “Reed Sea.” But see 1 Kings 9:26.
The Lord Leads His People

20The people of Israel left Succoth and camped at Etham. Etham was near the desert. 21The Lord led the way. During the day, the Lord used a tall cloud to lead the people. And during the night, the Lord used a tall column of fire to lead the way. This fire gave them light so they could also travel at night. 22The tall cloud was always with them during the day, and the column of fire was always with them at night.

Then the Lord said to Moses, 23Tell the people to go back to Pi Hahiroth. Tell them to spend the night between Migdol and the Red Sea, near Baal Zephon. 24Pharaoh will think that the people of Israel are lost in the desert. And he will think that the people will have no place to go. 25I will make Pharaoh brave, and he will chase you. But I will defeat Pharaoh and his army. This will bring honor to me. Then the people of Egypt will know that I am the Lord.” The people of Israel obeyed God—they did what he told them.

Pharaoh Chases the Israelites

5Pharaoh received a report that the people of Israel had escaped. When he heard this, he and his officials changed their minds about what they had done. Pharaoh said, “Why did we let the people of Israel leave? Why did we let them run away? Now we have lost our slaves!” 6So Pharaoh prepared his chariot* and took his men with him. 7Pharaoh took 600 of his best men and all of his chariots. There was an officer in each chariot. 8The people of Israel were leaving with their arms raised in victory. But the Lord caused Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, to become brave. And Pharaoh chased the people of Israel.

9The Egyptian army had many horse soldiers and chariots. They chased the people of Israel and caught up with them while they were camped near the Red Sea* at Pi Hahiroth, east of Baal Zephon. 10The people of Israel saw Pharaoh and his army coming toward them. The people were very scared. They cried to the Lord for help.

The Lord Defeats the Egyptian Army

19Then the angel of the Lord moved to the back of the people. (The angel of the Lord was usually at the front of the people, leading them.) So the tall cloud moved from in front of the people and went to the back of the people. 20In this way the cloud stood between the Egyptians and the people of Israel. There was light for the people of Israel. But there was darkness for the Egyptians. So the Egyptians did not come any closer to the people of Israel that night.

21Moses raised his arm over the Red Sea,* and the Lord caused a strong wind to blow from the east. The wind blew all night long. The sea split, and the wind made the ground dry. 22The people of Israel went through the sea on dry land. The water was like a wall on their right and on their left. 23Then all of Pharaoh’s chariots and horse soldiers followed them into the sea. 24Early that morning, the
The Lord looked down from the tall cloud and column of fire at the Egyptian army. Then the Lord attacked and defeated them all.
25The wheels of the chariots became stuck. It was very hard to control the chariots. The Egyptians shouted, “Let’s get out of here! The Lord is fighting against us. The Lord is fighting for the people of Israel.”
26Then the Lord told Moses, “Raise your hand over the sea to make the water fall and cover the Egyptian chariots and horse soldiers.”
27So, just before daylight, Moses raised his hand over the sea. And the water rushed back to its proper level. The Egyptians were running as fast as they could from the water, but the Lord swept them away with the sea.
28The water returned to its proper level and covered the chariots and horse soldiers. Pharaoh’s army had been chasing the people of Israel, but that army was destroyed. None of them survived!
29But the people of Israel crossed the sea on dry land. The water was like a wall on their right and on their left. 30So that day, the Lord saved the people of Israel from the Egyptians. And later the people of Israel saw the dead bodies of the Egyptians on the shore of the Red Sea.* 31The people of Israel saw the great power of the Lord when he defeated the Egyptians. So the people feared and respected the Lord. They began to trust the Lord and his servant Moses.

The Song of Moses
15Then Moses and the people of Israel began singing this song to the Lord:
“I will sing to the Lord!
He has done great things.
He threw horse and rider into the sea.
2 The Lord is my strength.
He saves me,
and I sing songs of praise to him.*
The Lord is my God,
and I praise him.
The commanders of Edom will shake with fear. The leaders of Moab will be afraid. The people of Canaan will lose courage. Those people will be filled with fear when they see your strength. They will be as still as a rock until the Lord’s people pass by, until the people you have made pass by. Lord, you will lead your people to your mountain. You will let them live near the place you prepared for your throne. Master, you will build your temple! The Lord will rule forever and ever!”

Yes, it really happened! Pharaoh’s horses and riders and chariots went into the sea. And the Lord brought all the water of the sea down on top of them. But the people of Israel walked through that sea on dry land. Then Aaron’s sister, the woman prophet Miriam, took a tambourine. Miriam and the women began singing and dancing. Miriam repeated the words, “Sing to the Lord! He has done great things. He threw horse and rider into the sea…” Moses led the people of Israel away from the Red Sea* and into the Shur desert. They traveled for three days in the desert. The people could not find any water. After three days, the people came to Marah.* There was water at Marah, but it was too bitter to drink. (That is why the place was named Marah.) The people began complaining to Moses. The people said, “Now what will we drink?” Moses called to the Lord. So the Lord showed him a tree. Moses put the tree in the water. When he did this, the water became good to drink. In that place, the Lord judged the people and gave them a law. The Lord also tested the faith of the people. The Lord said, “You must obey the Lord, your God. You must do the things he says are right. If you obey all the Lord’s commands and laws, then you will not be sick like the Egyptians. I, the Lord, will not give you any of the sicknesses I gave the Egyptians. I am the Lord. I am the one who makes you well.”

Then the people traveled to Elim. At Elim there were twelve springs of water and 70 palm trees. So the people made their camp there near that water. Then the people left Elim and came to the Sinai desert, between Elim and Sinai. They arrived at that place on the 15th day of the second month* after leaving Egypt. Then the people of Israel began complaining again. They complained to Moses and Aaron in the desert. The people said, “It would have been better if the Lord had just killed us in the land of Egypt. At least there we had plenty to eat. We had all the food we needed. But now you have brought us out here into this desert. So he can make us die from hunger.” Then the Lord said to Moses, “I will cause food to fall from the sky. This food will be for you to eat. Every day the people should go out and gather the food they need that day. I will do this to see if the people will do what I tell them. Every day the people will gather only enough food for one day. But on Friday, when the people prepare their food for Saturday, they will see that they have enough food for two days.*

So Moses and Aaron said to the people of Israel, “Tonight you will see the power of the Lord. You will know that he is the One who brought you out of Egypt. You complained to the Lord, and he heard you. So tomorrow morning you will see the Glory of the Lord.* You have been complaining and complaining to us. Maybe now we can have a little rest.” And Moses said, “You have been complaining, and the Lord has heard your complaints. So tonight the Lord will give you meat. And in the morning you will have all the bread you need. You have been 15th day of the second month That is, the 15th of Iyyar. The people of Israel had been traveling for a month.

Friday, ... two days This happened so that the people would not have to work on the Sabbath (Saturday), the day of rest.
Glory of the Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. It was like a bright shining light.

Marah This name means “bitter.”
complaining to Aaron and me. But now, maybe we will have a little rest. Remember, you are not complaining against Aaron and me. You are complaining against the Lord.”

9Then Moses said to Aaron, “Speak to all the people of Israel. Say to them, ‘Come together before the Lord, because he has heard your complaints.’”

10Aaron spoke to all the people of Israel. They were all gathered together in one place. While Aaron was talking, all the people turned and looked into the desert. And they saw the Glory of the Lord appear in a cloud.

11The Lord said to Moses, 12“I have heard the complaints of the people of Israel. So tell them, ‘Tonight you will eat meat. And in the morning you will have all the bread you want. Then you will know you can trust the Lord, your God.’”

13That night, quails (birds) came all around the camp. The people caught these birds for meat. And in the morning dew lay on the ground near the camp. 14After the dew was gone, something like thin flakes of frost was on the ground. 15The people of Israel saw it and asked each other, “What is that?” They asked this question because they did not know what it was. So Moses told them, “This is the food the Lord is giving you to eat. 16The Lord says, ‘Each person should gather what he needs. Each of you should gather a basket* for every person in your family.’”

17So the people of Israel did this. Each person gathered this food. Some people gathered more than others. 18The people gave the food to everyone in their family. After the food was measured, there was always enough for every person, but there was never too much. Each person gathered just enough for himself and his family to eat.

19Moses told them, “Don’t save that food to eat the next day.” 20But some of the people did not obey Moses. Those people saved their food for the next day. But worms got into the food and it began to stink. Moses was angry with the people who did this.

21Every morning the people gathered the food. Each person gathered as much as he could eat. But by noon* the food melted and was gone.

22On Friday, the people gathered twice as much food. They gathered 2 baskets* for every person. So all the leaders of the people came and told this to Moses.

23Moses told them, “This is what the Lord said would happen. It happened because tomorrow is the Sabbath, the special day of rest to honor the Lord. You can cook all the food you need to cook for today. But save the rest of this food for tomorrow morning.”

24So the people saved the rest of the food for the next day. And none of the food spoiled. And worms did not get into any of it.

25On Saturday, Moses told the people, “Today is the Sabbath, the special day of rest to honor the Lord. So none of you should be out in the fields. Eat the food you gathered yesterday. 26You should gather the food for six days. But the seventh day of the week is a day of rest—so there will not be any of the special food on the ground.”

27On Saturday, some of the people went out to gather some of the food, but they could not find any. 28Then the Lord said to Moses, “How long will you people refuse to obey my commands and teachings? 29Look, the Lord has made the Sabbath a day of rest for you. So, on Friday the Lord will give you enough food for two days. Then, on the Sabbath, each of you should sit down and relax! Stay where you are.” 30So the people rested on the Sabbath.

31The people began calling the special food “manna.” The manna was like small white coriander seeds, and it tasted like thin cakes made with honey. 32Moses said, “The Lord said: ‘Save a basket* of this food for your descendants.’ Then they can see the food that

---

Glory of the Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. It was like a bright shining light.
What is that? In Hebrew this is like the word “manna.”
basket Literally, “1 omer” (2.2 l).
noon Literally, “the heat of the day.”
2 baskets Literally, “2 omers” (4.4 l).
manna This is like the Hebrew words meaning “What is that?”
descendants A person’s children and their future families.
I gave to you in the desert when I took you out of Egypt.”

33 So Moses told Aaron, “Take a jar and fill it with a full basket of manna. Save this manna to put before the Lord. Save it for our descendants.” 34 (Aaron later did what the Lord had commanded Moses. Aaron put the jar of manna in front of the Agreement.)

35 The people ate the manna for 40 years. They ate the manna until they came to the land of rest, that is until they came to the edge of the land of Canaan. (The measure they used for the manna was an omer. An omer was about 8 cups.)

17 All the people of Israel traveled together from the desert of Sin. They traveled from place to place as the Lord commanded. The people traveled to Rephidim and camped there. There was no water there for the people to drink.

2 So the people turned against Moses and started arguing with him. The people said, “Give us water to drink.”

3 Moses said to them, “Why have you turned against me? Why are you testing the Lord? Do you think the Lord is not with us?”

4 But the people were very thirsty for water. So they continued complaining to Moses. The people said, “Why did you bring us out of Egypt? Did you bring us out here so that we, our children, and our cattle will all die without water?”

5 So Moses cried to the Lord, “What can I do with these people? They are ready to kill me.”

6 The Lord said to Moses, “Go before the people of Israel. Take some of the elders (leaders) of the people with you. Carry your walking stick with you. This is the stick that you used when you hit the Nile River. I will stand before you on a rock at Horeb (Mount Sinai). Hit that rock with the walking stick and water will come out of it. Then the people can drink.”

Moses did these things and the elders (leaders) of Israel saw it. Moses named that place Meribah and Massah, because this was the place that the people of Israel turned against him and tested the Lord. The people wanted to know if the Lord was with them or not.

8 At Rephidim the Amalekite people came and fought against the people of Israel. So Moses said to Joshua, “Choose some men and go and fight the Amalekites tomorrow. I will stand on the top of the hill and watch you. I will be holding the walking stick God gave me.”

10 Joshua obeyed Moses and went to fight the Amalekite people the next day. At the same time, Moses, Aaron, and Hur went to the top of the hill. Any time Moses held his hands in the air, the men of Israel would win the fight. But when Moses put his hands down, the men of Israel began to lose the fight.

12 After some time, Moses’ arms became tired. The men with Moses wanted to find a way to keep Moses’ hands in the air. So they put a large rock under Moses for him to sit on. Then Aaron and Hur held Moses’ hands in the air. Aaron was on one side of Moses and Hur was on the other side. They held his hands up like this until the sun went down.

13 So Joshua and his men defeated the Amalekites in this battle.

14 Then the Lord said to Moses, “Write about this battle. Write these things in a book so people will remember what happened here. And be sure to tell Joshua that I will completely destroy the Amalekite people from the earth.”

15 Then Moses built an altar. Moses named the altar, “The Lord is my flag.” Moses said, “I lifted my hands toward the Lord’s throne. So the Lord fought against the Amalekites, like he always has.”

Advice from Moses’ Father-in-Law

18 Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, was a priest in Midian. Jethro heard about the many ways that God helped Moses and the people of Israel. Jethro heard about the Lord leading the people of Israel out of Egypt. So Jethro went to Moses while Moses was camped near the mountain of God. Jethro brought Moses’ wife, Zipporah, with him. (Zipporah was not with Moses, because Moses had sent her home.) Jethro also brought Moses’ two sons with him. The first son was named Gershom, because when he was born, Moses said, “I am a stranger in a foreign country.” The other son was named Eliezer, because when he was born, Moses said, “The God of my father helped me and saved me from the king of Egypt.” So Jethro went to Moses while Moses was camped in the desert near the mountain of God (Mount Sinai). Moses’ wife and his two sons were with Jethro.

Jethro sent a message to Moses. Jethro said, “This is your father-in-law Jethro. I am bringing your wife and her two sons to you.” So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law. Moses bowed down before him and kissed him. The two men asked about each other’s health. Then they went into Moses’ tent to talk more. Moses told Jethro everything the Lord had done for the people of Israel. Moses told about the things the Lord did to Pharaoh and the people of Egypt. Moses told about all the problems they had along the way. And Moses told his father-in-law how the Lord saved the people of Israel every time there was trouble.

Jethro was happy when he heard all the good things the Lord had done for Israel. He was glad that the Lord had freed the people of Israel from the Egyptians. Jethro said, “Praise the Lord! He freed you from the power of Egypt. The Lord saved you from Pharaoh.

Now I know the Lord is greater than all the gods. They thought they were in control, but look what God did!

12 Jethro got some sacrifices* and offerings to honor God. Then Aaron and all the elders (leaders) of Israel came to eat with Moses’ father-in-law Jethro. They all ate together there with God.

13 The next day, Moses had the special job of judging the people. There were very many people, so the people had to stand before Moses all day.

14 Jethro saw Moses judging the people. He asked, “Why are you doing this? Why are you the only judge? And why do people come to you all day?”

15 Then Moses said to his father-in-law, “The people come to me and ask me to ask for God’s decision to their problem. If people have an argument, they come to me. I decide which person is right. In this way, I teach the people God’s laws and teachings.”

16 But Moses’ father-in-law said to him, “This isn’t the right way to do this. It is too much work for you to do alone. You can’t do this job by yourself. It wears you out. And it makes the people tired too! Now, listen to me. Let me give you some advice. And I pray God will be with you. You should continue listening to the problems of the people. And you should continue to speak to God about these things. You should teach God’s laws and teachings to the people. Warn them not to break the laws. Tell them the right way to live. Tell them what they should do. But you should also choose some of the people to be judges and leaders.

“Choose good men you can trust—men who respect God. Choose men who will not change their decisions for money. And make these men rulers over the people. There should be rulers over 1,000 people, 100 people, 50 people, and even over ten people. Let these rulers judge the people. If there is a very important case, then they can come to you and let you decide what to do. But they can decide the other cases themselves. In this way, these men will share your work with you and it will be easier for you to lead the people.

If you do these things, Lord willing, then mountain of God That is, “Mount Horeb,” also called “Mount Sinai.” Gershom This name is like the Hebrew words meaning “a stranger there.”

Eliezer This name means “My God helps.”
sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
you will be still able to do your job. And at the same time, the people can go home with their problems solved.”

24 So Moses did what Jethro told him.

25 Moses chose good men from among the people of Israel. Moses made them leaders over the people. There were rulers over 1,000 people, 100 people, 50 people, and ten people.

26 These rulers were judges for the people. The people could always bring their arguments to these rulers. And Moses had to decide only the most important cases.

27 After a short time, Moses said goodbye to his father-in-law Jethro. And Jethro went back to his own home.

God’s Agreement with Israel

19 The people of Israel reached the Sinai desert in the third month of their trip from Egypt. 2 They had traveled from Rephidim to the Sinai desert. The people of Israel camped in the desert near the mountain (Mount Horeb). 3 Then Moses climbed up the mountain to meet with God. God spoke to him on the mountain and said, “Tell these things to the people of Israel, the great family of Jacob: 4 ‘You people have seen what I can do to my enemies. You saw what I did to the people of Egypt. You saw that I carried you out of Egypt like an eagle and brought you here to me. 5 So now I tell you to obey my commands. Keep my Agreement. If you do this, then you will be my own special people. The whole world belongs to me. But I am choosing you to be my own special people. 6 You will be a special nation—a kingdom of priests.’ Moses, you must tell the people of Israel what I have said.”

7 So Moses climbed down the mountain and called the elders (rulers) of the people together. Moses told the elders everything the Lord had commanded him to tell them. 8 All the people spoke at the same time and said, “We will obey everything the Lord says.”

Then Moses went back to God on the mountain. Moses told God that the people would obey him. 9 And the Lord said to Moses, “I will come to you in the thick cloud. I will speak to you. All of the people will hear me talking to you. I will do this so that the people will always believe the things you tell them.”

Then Moses told God all the things the people had said.

10 And the Lord said to Moses, “Today and tomorrow you must prepare the people for a special meeting. The people must wash their clothes and be ready for me on the third day. On the third day the Lord will come down to Mount Sinai. And all the people will see me. 12–13 But you must tell the people to stay away from the mountain. Make a line and don’t let the people cross that line. Any person or animal that touches the mountain must be killed. He must be killed with rocks or shot with arrows. But don’t let anyone touch him. The people must wait until the trumpet blows. Only then can they go up the mountain.”

14 So Moses climbed down the mountain and went to the people. Moses got them ready for the special meeting and they washed their clothes.

15 Then Moses said to the people, “Be ready for the meeting with God in three days. Until that time, the men must not touch the women.”

16 On the morning of the third day, a thick cloud came down onto the mountain. There was thunder and lightning and a very loud sound from a trumpet. All the people in the camp were frightened. 17 Then Moses led the people out of the camp to a place near the mountain to meet God. 18 Mount Sinai was covered with smoke. Smoke rose off the mountain like smoke from a furnace. This happened because the Lord came down to the mountain in fire. Also, the whole mountain began to shake. 19 The noise from the trumpet became louder and louder. Every time Moses spoke to God, God answered him with a voice like thunder.

20 So the Lord came down to Mount Sinai. The Lord came from heaven to the top of the mountain. Then the Lord called Moses to come up to the top of the mountain with him. So Moses went up the mountain.

21 The Lord said to Moses, “Go down and warn the people not to come near me and look at me. If they do this, then many people will die. 22 Also tell the priests who will come near me that they must prepare themselves for this special meeting. If they don’t do this, then I will punish them.”

23Moses told the Lord, “But the people cannot come up the mountain. You yourself told us to make a line and not allow the people to cross the line to holy ground.”

24The Lord said to him, “Go down to the people. Get Aaron and bring him back with you. But don’t let the priests or the people come near me. I will punish them if they come too close.”

25So Moses went down to the people and told them these things.

The Ten Commandments

20Then God said, 21“I am the Lord* your God. I led you out of the land of Egypt where you were slaves. 2So you must obey these commands:

3“ You must not worship any other gods except me.
4“ You must not make any idols.* Don’t make any statues or pictures of anything up in the sky or of anything on the earth or of anything down in the water. 5Don’t worship or serve idols of any kind. Why? Because I, the Lord, am your God. I hate my people worshiping other gods.* People who sin against me become my enemies. And I will punish those people. And I will punish their children, their grandchildren, and even their great-grandchildren. 6But I will be very kind to people who love me and obey my commands. I will be kind to their families for thousands of generations!* 7“ You must not use the name of the Lord your God in a wrong way. If a person uses the Lord’s name in a wrong way, then that person is guilty. And the Lord will not make him innocent.

8“You must remember to keep the Sabbath* a special day. 9Work at your job six days a week. 10But the seventh day is a day of rest in honor of the Lord your God. So on that day no person should work—not you, your sons and daughters, or your men and women slaves. Even your animals and the foreigners living in your cities must not work! 11Why? Because the Lord worked six days and made the sky, the earth, the sea, and everything in them. And on the seventh day, God rested. In this way, the Lord blessed the Sabbath—the day of rest. The Lord made that a very special day.

12“ You must honor (respect) your father and your mother. Do this so you will have a full life in the land that the Lord your God gives you.
13“ You must not murder anyone.
14“ You must not do the sin of adultery.*
15“ You must not steal anything.
16“ You must not tell lies about other people.*
17“ You must not want to take your neighbor’s house. You must not want his wife. And you must not want his men and women servants, or his cattle, or his donkeys. You must not want to take anything that belongs to another person!”

The People Are Afraid of God

18During all this time, the people in the valley heard the thundering and saw the lightning on the mountain. They saw smoke rising from the mountain. The people were afraid, and they shook with fear. They stood away from the mountain and watched.

19Then the people said to Moses, “If you want to speak to us, then we will listen. But please don’t let God speak to us. If this happens, we will die.”

20Then Moses said to the people, “Don’t be afraid! The Lord has come to prove that he

Lord Or, “YAHWEH.”
idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.
i hate ... gods Or, “I am El Kanah—the Jealous God.”
But I will be ... generations Or, “But I will show mercy to thousands of people that love me and obey my commands.”

Subbath Saturday, a special day of rest and worship for Jews.
adultery Breaking the marriage promise by doing sexual sin.
You ... other people Or, “You must not be a false witness against your neighbor.”
loves you. He wants you to respect him so that you will not sin.”

21 The people stood away from the mountain while Moses went to the dark cloud where God was. 22 Then the Lord told Moses to say these things to the people of Israel:
“You people have seen that I talked with you from heaven. 23 So you must not make idols using gold or silver to compete with me. You must not make these false gods.

24 MAKE a special altar* for me. Use dirt to made this altar. Offer burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on this altar as a sacrifice* to me. Use your sheep and your cattle to do this. Do this in every place where I tell you to remember me. Then I will come and bless you. 25 If you use stones to make an altar, then don’t use stones that were cut with an iron tool.* If you do that, it will make the altar not acceptable. 26 And you must not make steps leading up to the altar. If there are steps, then when people look up to the altar, they will be able to see under your clothes.”

Other Laws and Commands

21 Then God said to Moses, “These are the other laws that you will give to the people:

2“If you buy a Hebrew* slave, then that slave will serve for only six years. After six years he will become free. He will have to pay nothing. 3 If the man is not married when he becomes your slave, then when he becomes free, he will leave without a wife.
But if the man is married when he becomes your slave, then he will keep his wife at the time he is made free. 4 If the slave is not marrried, the master can give him a wife. If that wife gives birth to sons or daughters, then she and her children will belong to the master.
After the slave is finished with his years of service, then he will be made free.
5“ But maybe the slave will decide that he wants to stay with the master. Then he must say, ‘I love my master. I love my wife and my children. I will not become free—I will stay.’

6 If this happens, then the master will bring the slave before God. The master will take the slave to a door or the wooden frame around the door. And the master will make a hole through the slave’s ear using a sharp tool. Then the slave will serve that master for all his life.

7“A man might decide to sell his daughter as a slave. If this happens, the rules for making her free are not the same as the rules for making the men slaves free. 8 If the master is not pleased with the woman, then he can sell the woman back to her father. If the master promised to marry the woman, then he loses the right to sell the woman to other people. 9 If the master promised to let the slave woman marry his son, then she must not be treated like a slave. She must be treated lke a daughter.

10“ If the master marries another woman, then he must not give less food or clothing to the first wife. And he must continue to give er the things she has a right to have in marrriage. 11 The man must do these three things for her. If he does not, then the woman is made free, and it will cost her nothing. She owes no money to the man.

12 “If a person hits someone and kills him, then that person must be killed too. 13 But if an accident happens, and a person kills someone without planning it, then God allowed that thing to happen. I will choose some special places where people can run for safety. So that person can run to one of those places.

14 But if a person planned to kill another person because he is angry or hates him, then that killer must be punished. Take him away from my altar* and kill him.

15 “Any person who hits his father or his mother must be killed.

16 “If a person steals someone to sell him as a slave or to keep him for his own slave, then that person must be killed.
17“Any person who curses* his father or his mother must be killed.
18“Two men might argue and one might hit the other with a rock or with his fist. How should you punish that man? If the man who was hurt is not killed, then the man who hurt him should not be killed. 19If the man was hurt and must stay in bed for some time, then the man who hurt him must support him. The man who hurt him must pay for the loss of his time. The man must support him until he is completely healed.
20“Sometimes people beat their men or women slaves. If the slave dies after he is beaten, then the killer must be punished. 21But if the slave does not die and after a few days the slave becomes well, then that person will not be punished.* Why? Because the master paid his money for the slave, and the slave belongs to him.
22“Two men might be fighting and they might hurt a pregnant woman. This might make the woman give birth to her babies before their time. If the woman was not hurt badly,* then the man who hurt her must pay a fine. The woman’s husband will decide how much the man must pay. The judges will help the man decide how much the fine will be. 23But if the woman was hurt badly,* then the man who hurt her must be punished. If a person is killed, then the person who caused it must be killed: You must trade one life for another life.
24“You must trade an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand, a foot for a foot, a burn for a burn, a bruise for a bruise, a cut for a cut.
25“If a man hits a slave in the eye, and the slave is blinded in that eye, then the slave will be allowed to go free. His eye is the payment for his freedom. This is the same for a man or a woman slave. 26If a man’s bull kills a man or woman, then you should use rocks and kill that bull. You should not eat the bull. But the owner of the bull is not guilty. 27But if the bull had hurt people in the past, and if the owner was warned, then the owner is guilty. Why? Because he did not keep the bull tied or locked in its place. So if the bull is allowed to be free and kills someone, then that owner is guilty. You should kill the bull with rocks and also kill the owner. 28But the family of the dead man may accept money. If they accept money, then the man who owned the bull should not be killed. But he must pay as much money as the judge decides.
29“This same law must be followed if the bull kills a person’s son or daughter. 30But if the bull kills a slave, then the owner of the animal must pay the master 30 pieces of silver.* And the bull must also be killed with rocks. This law will be the same for men and women slaves.
31“A man might take a cover off a well or he might dig a hole and not cover it. If another man’s animal comes and falls into that hole, then the man who owns the hole is guilty. 32The man who owns the hole must pay for the animal. But after he pays for the animal, then he will be allowed to keep the body of that animal.
33“If one man’s bull kills another man’s bull, then they should sell the bull that is alive. Both men will get half of the money that comes from selling the bull, and both men will also get half of the bull that was killed. 34But if a man’s bull has hurt other animals in the past, then that owner is responsible for his bull. If his bull kills another bull, then he is guilty because he allowed the bull to be free. That man must pay bull for bull. He must trade his bull for the bull that was killed.
35“How should you punish a man who steals a bull or a sheep? If the man kills the animal or sells it, then he can’t give it back. So he must pay five bulls for the one he stole. Or, he must pay four sheep for the one he stole.

---

curse To ask for bad things to happen to someone.
punished Or, “punished for murder.”
hurt badly Or, “killed.”

30 pieces of silver The price for a new slave.
He must pay for stealing. 2–4 If he owns nothing, then he will be sold as a slave. But if the man still has the animal and you find it, then that man must give the owner two animals for every animal he stole. It doesn’t matter if the animal was a bull or a donkey or a sheep.

“If a thief is killed while trying to break into a house at night, then no one will be guilty for killing him. But if this happens during the day, then the person who killed him will be guilty of murder.

5 “A man might start a fire in his field or vineyard. If he lets the fire spread and it burns his neighbor’s field or vineyard, then he must use his best crops to pay his neighbor for his loss.*

6 “A man might start a fire to burn thorn bushes on his field. But if the fire grows and burns his neighbor’s crops or the grain growing on the neighbor’s field, then the man that started the fire must pay for the things he burned.

7 “A man might ask a neighbor to keep some money or other things for him in his neighbor’s house. What should you do if that money or those things are stolen from the neighbor’s house? You should try to find the thief. If you find the thief, then he must pay twice as much as the things are worth. 8 But if you can’t find the thief, then God will judge if the owner of the house is guilty. The owner of the house must go before God, and God will decide if the person stole something.

9 “What should you do if two men disagree about a bull or a donkey or sheep or clothing or something that is lost. One man says, ‘This is mine,’ and the other says, ‘No, it is mine.’ Both men should go before God. God will decide who is guilty. The person who was wrong must pay the other man twice as much as the thing is worth.

10 “A person might ask his neighbor to take care of an animal for a short time. It might be a donkey or a bull or a sheep. But what should you do if that animal is hurt or dies or someone takes the animal while no one is looking? 11 That neighbor must explain that he did not steal the animal. If this is true, then the neighbor will promise to the Lord that he did not steal it. The owner of the animal must accept this promise. The neighbor does not have to pay the owner for the animal. 12 But if the neighbor stole the animal, then he must pay the owner for the animal. 13 If wild animals killed the animal, then the neighbor should bring the body as proof. The neighbor will not have to pay the owner for the animal that was killed.

14 “If a man borrows anything from his neighbor, he is responsible for that thing. If an animal is hurt, or if the animal dies, then the neighbor must pay the owner for the animal. The neighbor is responsible, because the owner was not there himself. 15 But if the owner was there with the animal, then the neighbor does not have to pay. Or, if the neighbor was paying money to use the animal for work, then he will not have to pay if the animal dies or is hurt. The money he paid to use the animal will be enough payment.

16 “If a man has sexual relations with a pure young woman who is not married,* then he must marry her. And he must pay her father the full dowry.* 17 If the father refuses to allow his daughter to marry him, then the man must still pay the money. He must pay the full amount for her.

18 “You must not allow any woman to do evil magic. If she does magic, then you must not let her live.

19 “You must not allow any person to have sexual relations with an animal. If this happens, then that person must be killed.

20 “If any person makes a sacrifice to a false god, then that person should be destroyed. The Lord God is the only one you should make sacrifices to.

married Or, “engaged.” In ancient Israel, many of the rules concerning an engaged woman were the same as the rules for a married woman.

dowry The money a man gave the father of the bride so the man could marry the woman.

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
21“Remember, in the past you were foreigners in the land of Egypt. So you should not cheat or hurt any person who is a foreigner in your land.

22“You must never do anything bad to women whose husbands are dead or to children without parents. 23If you do anything wrong to those widows or orphans, then I will know it. I will hear about their suffering. 24And I will be very angry. I will kill you with a sword. Then your wives will become widows. And your children will become orphans.

25“If one of my people is poor, and you lend him money, then you must not charge him for that money. And you must not force him to pay you quickly. 26Someone might give you his coat as a promise that he will pay you the money he owes you. But you must give that coat back to him before the sun goes down. 27If that person doesn’t have his coat, then he will have nothing to cover his body. He will get cold in his sleep. And if he cries to me, I will hear him. I will listen, because I am kind.

28“You must not curse* God or the leaders of your people.

29“At harvest time you should give me the first grain and the first juice from your fruit. Don’t wait until late in the year.

30Also, give me your firstborn* sons. 31Also, give me your firstborn cattle and sheep. Let the firstborn stay with its mother for seven days. Then on the eighth day, give him to me.

31“You are my special people. So don’t eat the meat from something that was killed by wild animals. Let the dogs eat that dead animal.

32Don’t tell lies against other people. If you are a witness in court, then don’t agree to help a bad person tell lies.

32“Don’t do something just because everyone else is doing it. If a group of people are doing wrong, don’t join them. You must not let those people persuade you to do wrong things—you must do what is right and fair.

33If a poor man is being judged, sometimes people will support him because they feel sorry for him. You must not do that. Support him only if he is right.

34If you see a lost bull or donkey, then you must return it to its owner. You must do this even if the owner is your enemy.

35“If you see an animal that can’t walk because it has too much to carry, you must stop and help that animal. You must help that animal even if it belongs to one of your enemies.

36“You must not let people be unfair to a poor man. He must be judged the same as any other person.

37“Be very careful if you say that a person is guilty of something. Don’t make false charges against a person. Never allow an innocent person to be killed as punishment for something he did not do. Any person who kills an innocent man is evil, and I will not pardon (forgive) that person.

38“If a person tries to pay you to agree with him when he is wrong, don’t accept that payment. A payment like that can blind judges so that they can’t see the truth. And a payment like that can make good people tell lies.

39“You must never do wrong things to a foreigner. Remember, at one time you were also foreigners when you lived in the land of Egypt.

The Special Holidays

10“Plant seeds, harvest your crops, and work the ground for six years. 11But the seventh year, don’t use your land. The seventh year must be a special time of rest for the land. Don’t plant anything in your fields. If any crops grow there, then allow the poor people to have it. And allow the wild animals to eat the food that is left. You should do the same with your vineyards and with your fields of olive trees.

12“Work for six days. Then on the seventh day, rest! This will allow your slaves and other workers a time for rest and relaxation. And your bulls and donkeys will also have a time of rest.

13“Be sure that you obey all these laws. Don’t worship false gods. You should not even speak their names!
EXODUS 23:14–30

14“You will have three special holidays each year. On these holidays, you will come to my special place to worship me. 15The first holiday will be the Festival of Unleavened Bread. This is like I commanded you. At this time you will eat bread that is made without yeast. This will continue for seven days. You will do this during the month of Abib,* because this is the time when you came out of Egypt. Every person must bring a sacrifice to me at that time.

16“The second holiday will be the Festival of Pentecost. This holiday will be during the early summer time when you begin harvesting the crops you planted in your fields.

17“So three times each year all the men will come to the special place to be with the Lord your Master.

18“When you kill an animal and offer its blood as a sacrifice,* you must not offer bread that has yeast in it. And when you eat the meat from this sacrifice, you must eat all of the meat in one day. Don’t save any of the meat for the next day.

19“When you gather your crops at harvest time, you should bring the first of everything you harvest to the house* of the Lord your God.

20”God said, “I am sending an angel before you. This angel will lead you to the place that I have prepared for you. The angel will protect you. Obey the angel and follow him. Don’t rebel against him. The angel will not forgive the wrong things you do to him. He has my power in him. 22“You must obey everything he says. You must do everything that I tell you. If you do this, then I will be with you. I will be against all of your enemies. And I will be an enemy to every person who is against you.”

23”God said, “My angel will lead you through the land. He will lead you against many different people—the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. But I will defeat all of those people.

24”Don’t worship the gods of those people. Don’t ever bow down to those gods. You must never live the way those people live. You must destroy their idols.* And you must break the stones that help them remember their gods.*

25“You must serve the Lord your God. If you do this, I will bless you with plenty of bread and water. I will take away all sickness from you. Your women will all be able to have babies. None of their babies will die at birth. And I will allow you to live long lives.

26“When you fight against your enemies, I will send my great power before you.* I will help you defeat all your enemies. The people that are against you will become confused in battle and run away. I will send the hornet* in front of you. He will force your enemies to leave. The Hivite people, the Canaanite people, and the Hittite people will leave your country. But I will not force all those people out of your land quickly. The land will be empty if I force the people out too fast. Then all the wild animals would increase and control the land. And they would be much trouble for you. So I will force those people out of your land very slowly. You will continue to move across the land. And wherever you go I will force the other people to leave.

month of Abib Or, “the spring month,” that is, Nisan. This is about March-April.

Festival of Shelters Also called “Succoth” and “Feast of Tabernacles.” At this time, the people lived in tents or shelters for seven days to help them remember the time in the Sinai desert.

in the fall Literally, “at the end of the year.” This means the end of the growing season.

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

house The “Holy Tent” where the people went to meet with God. See Ex. 25:8,9.

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

stones that help them remember their gods Or, “memorials.”

Here, these were stone markers that people used in worshipping their gods.

When you fight ... you Or, “News of my power will go before you, and your enemies will be frightened.”

hornet A stinging insect like a wasp or bee. This might be a real hornet or it might mean God’s angel or his great power.
31“’I will give you all the land from the Red Sea to the Euphrates River. The western border will be the Philistine Sea (Mediterranean Sea), and the eastern border will be the Arabian Desert. I will let you defeat the people living there. And you will force all those people to leave.

32“You must not make any agreements with any of those people or their gods. Don’t let them stay in your country. If you let them stay, they will be like a trap to you—they will cause you to sin against me. And you will begin worshiping their gods.’”

God and Israel Make Their Agreement

24 God told Moses, “You, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and the 70 elders (leaders) of Israel must come up the mountain and worship me from a distance. Then Moses will come close to the Lord by himself. The other men must not come close to the Lord, and the rest of the people must not even come up the mountain.”

3Moses told the people all the rules and commands from the Lord. Then all the people said, “We will obey all the commands that the Lord has given us.”

4So Moses wrote all of the commands of the Lord on a scroll. The next morning, Moses got up and built an altar near the bottom of the mountain. And he set up twelve stones—one for each of the twelve family groups of Israel. Then Moses sent young men of Israel to offer sacrifices. These men offered bulls to the Lord as burnt offerings and fellowship offerings.

5Moses saved the blood from these animals. Moses put half of the blood in bowls. And he poured the other half of the blood on the altar.

6Moses read the scroll with the special Agreement written on it. Moses read the Agreement so all the people could hear him. And the people said, “We have heard the laws that the Lord has given us. And we agree to obey them.”

8Then Moses held the bowls full of the blood from the sacrifices. Moses threw that blood on the people. He said, “This blood shows that the Lord has made a special Agreement with you. The laws God gave you explain the Agreement.”

9Then Moses, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and the 70 elders (leaders) of Israel went up the mountain. On the mountain, these men saw the God of Israel. God was standing on something that looked like blue sapphires, as clear as the sky! All the leaders of Israel saw God, but God did not destroy them.

They all ate and drank together.

Moses Goes to Get God’s Law

12The Lord said to Moses, “Come to me on the mountain. I have written my teachings and laws on two flat stones. These teachings and laws are for the people. I will give these flat stones to you.”

13So Moses and his helper, Joshua, went up the mountain of God. Moses said to the elders, “Wait here for us, we will come back to you. While I am gone, Aaron and Hur will rule over you. Go to those men if anyone has a problem.”

Moses Meets with God

15Then Moses went up the mountain. And the cloud covered the mountain. The Glory of the Lord came down on Mount Sinai. The cloud covered the mountain for six days. On the seventh day, the Lord spoke to Moses from the cloud. The people of Israel could see the Glory of the Lord. It was like a fire burning on top of the mountain.

18Then Moses went higher up the mountain into the cloud. Moses was on the mountain for 40 days and 40 nights.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
sacrifices() A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
Moses saved the blood ... altar The blood was used to seal the Agreement between God and the people. It was poured on the altar to show that God shared in the Agreement.

saw God ... destroy them The Bible says that people cannot see God. But God wanted these leaders to know what he was like, so he let them see him in some special way.
Glory of the Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. It was like a bright, shining light.
Gifts for the Holy Things

The Lord said to Moses, 2 "Tell the people of Israel to bring me gifts. Each person must decide in his heart what he wants to give me. Accept these gifts for me. 3 Here is the list of the things that you should accept from the people: gold, silver, and bronze*; blue, purple, and red yarn and fine linen; goat hair, 5ram skins dyed red, and fine leather*; acacia wood; 6oil for the lamps; spices for the anointing oil* and spices for the sweet-smelling incense.* 7 Also accept onyx stones and other jewels to be put on the Ephod* and the Judgment Pouch.*

The Holy Tent

8 God also said, “The people will build a holy place for me. Then I can live among them. 9 I will show you what the Holy Tent* and everything in it should look like. Build everything exactly like I show you.

The Box of the Agreement

10 Use acacia wood and build a special box. This Holy Box must be 2 1/2 cubits* long, 1 1/2 cubits* wide, and 1 1/2 cubits high. 11 Use pure gold to cover the Box inside and out. Put gold trim around the edges of the Box. 12 Make four gold rings for carrying the Box. Put the gold rings on the four corners, two rings on each side. 13 Then make poles for carrying the Box. These poles should be made from acacia wood and covered with gold. 14 Put the poles through the rings on the corners of the Box. Use these poles to carry the Box. 15 These poles should always stay in the rings of the Box. Don't take the poles out.

16 God said, "I will give you the Agreement.* Put the Agreement into this Box. 17 Then make a cover.* Make it from pure gold. Make it 2 1/2 cubits* long and 1 1/2 cubits* wide. 18 Then make two Cherub angels* and put them on each end of the cover. Hammer gold to make these angels. 19 Put one angel on one end of the cover, and put the other angel on the other end. Join the angels together with the cover to make one piece. 20 The wings of these angels should spread up toward the sky. The angels should cover the Box with their wings. The angels should face each other, looking toward the cover.

21 I will give you the Agreement.* Put that Agreement in the Box, and put the cover* on the Box. 22 When I meet with you, I will speak from between the Cherub angels* on the cover that is on the Box of the Agreement.* From that place I will give all my commands to the people of Israel.

The Table

23 Make a table from acacia wood. The table must be 2 cubits* long, 1 cubit* wide, and 1 1/2 cubits high. 24 Use pure gold to cover the Box inside and out. Put gold trim around the Box. 25 Make four gold rings for carrying the Box. Put the gold rings on the four corners, two rings on each side. 26 Then make poles for carrying the Box. These poles should be made from acacia wood and covered with gold. 27 Put the poles through the rings on the corners of the Box. Use these poles to carry the Box.

---

* bronze A metal. The Hebrew word can mean "copper," "brass," or "brass.
* fine leather A special kind of leather made from the skin of an animal like a seal or sea cow.
* anointing oil Fine olive oil that was poured on people or things to show they were chosen for a special work or purpose.
* incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.
* Ephod A special coat worn by the priests. See Ex. 28:6-14.
* Judgment Pouch A piece of clothing like a bib or an apron that covered the priest's chest.
* Holy Tent Or, "tabernacle," the tent where God came to live among his people. It was often called the "Meeting Tent."
* 2 1/2 cubits 4' 3 5/8" (1.31m).
* 1 1/2 cubits 2' 7" (78.75cm).
* 2 cubits 3' 5 5/16" (105cm).
* 1 cubit 1' 8 5/8" (52.5cm).
* 1 handbreadth The width of 4 fingers, about 3" (7.7cm).
EXODUS 25:28–26:13

top of the table, These rings will hold the poles used to carry the table. 28 Use acacia wood to make the poles, and cover them with gold. The poles are for carrying the table. 29 Make the plates, the spoons, the pitchers, and the bowls from pure gold. The pitchers and bowls will be used for pouring the drink offerings. 30 Put the special bread before me on the table. It must always be there in front of me.

The Lampstand

31 Then you must make a lampstand. Use pure gold and hammer it to make the base and the shaft. Make flowers, buds, and petals from pure gold. Join all these things together into one piece.

32 The lampstand must have six branches—three branches on one side, and three branches on the other. 33 Each branch must have three flowers. Make these flowers like almond flowers with buds and petals. 34 Make four more flowers for the lampstand. These flowers must be made like almond flowers with buds and petals. 35 There will be six branches on the lampstand—three branches coming out from each side of the shaft. Make a flower with buds and petals below each of the three places where the branches join the shaft. 36 The whole lampstand with the flowers and branches must be made from pure gold. All this gold must be hammered and joined together into one piece.

37 Then make seven lamps to go on the lampstand. These lamps will give light to the area in front of the lampstand. 38 Use pure gold to make the wick trimmers and the trays. 39 Use 75 pounds of pure gold to make the lampstand and the things to be used with it. 40 Be very careful to make everything exactly the way I showed you on the mountain.

The Holy Tent

26 The Lord said to Moses, "The Holy Tent should be made from ten curtains. These curtains must be made from fine linen and blue, purple, and red yarn. A skilled worker should sew pictures of Cherub angels with wings into the curtains. 2 Make each curtain the same size. Each curtain should be 28 cubits long and 4 cubits wide. 3 Join the curtains together into two groups. Join five curtains together to make one group, and join five curtains together to make the other group. 4 Use blue cloth to make loops along the edge of the end curtain in one group. Do the same on the end curtain in the other group. 5 There must be 50 loops on the end curtain of the first group. And there must be 50 loops on the end curtain of the other group. 6 Then make 50 gold rings to join the curtains together. This will join the Holy Tent together into one piece.

7 "Make another tent that will cover the Holy Tent. Use eleven curtains to make this tent. Make these curtains from goat hair. 8 All these curtains must be the same size. They must be 30 cubits long and 4 cubits wide. 9 Join five of the curtains together into one group. Then join the other six curtains together into another group. Fold back half of the sixth curtain at the front of the Tent. 10 Make 50 loops down the edge of the end curtain of one group. Do the same for the end curtain of the other group. 11 Then make 50 bronze rings to join the curtains together. This will join the tent together into one piece. 12 Half of the end curtain of this tent will hang down below the back edge of the Holy Tent. 13 On the sides, the curtains of this tent will... hang down 1 cubit* below the bottom edges of the Holy Tent. So this tent will completely cover the Holy Tent. 14Make two coverings to go over the outer tent. One covering should be made from ram skins dyed red. The other covering should be made from fine leather.* 15Use acacia wood to make frames to support the Holy Tent.* 16The frames should be 10 cubits* high and 1 1/2 cubits* wide. 17Two side poles should be joined together with cross pieces to make each frame. All the frames for the Holy Tent must be the same. 18Make 20 frames for the south side of the Holy Tent. 19And make 40 silver bases for the frames. Each frame should have two silver bases to go under it—one base for each side pole. 20Make 20 more frames for the other side (the north side) of the Holy Tent. 21And make 40 silver bases for these frames—two bases under each frame. 22Make six more frames for the back (the west side) of the Holy Tent. 23Make two frames for the corners at the back of the Holy Tent. 24The frames at the corners should be joined together at the bottom. At the top, a ring will hold the frames together. Do the same for both corners. 25There will be a total of eight frames for the west end of the Tent. And there will be 16 silver bases—two bases under each frame. 26Use acacia wood and make braces for the frames of the Holy Tent.* There should be five braces for the first side of the Holy Tent. 27And there should be five braces for the frames on the other side of the Holy Tent. And there should be five braces for the frames at the back (the west side) of the Holy Tent. 28The middle brace should pass through the frames from one end to the other. 29Cover the frames with gold. And make rings for the frames to hold the braces. Make these rings from gold. Also, cover the braces with gold. 30Build the Holy Tent* the way I showed you on the mountain.

Inside the Holy Tent

31Use fine linen* and make a special curtain to divide the inside of the Holy Tent. Use blue, purple, and red yarn and sew pictures of Cherub angels into the curtain. 32Make four posts from acacia wood, and cover the posts with gold. Put hooks made from gold on the four posts. Put four silver bases under the posts. Then hang the curtain on the gold hooks. 33Put the curtain under the gold rings.* Then put the Box of the Agreement* behind the curtain. This curtain will separate the Holy Place from the Most Holy Place. 34Put the cover* on the Box of the Agreement in the Most Holy Place. 35In the Holy Place on the other side of the curtain put the special table you made. The table should be on the north side of the Holy Tent.* Then put the lampstand on the south side. This will be across from the table.

The Door of the Holy Tent

36Then make a curtain to cover the entrance to the Holy Tent.* Use blue, purple, and red yarn and fine linen to make this curtain. And weave pictures into it. 37Make gold hooks for this curtain. And make five posts using acacia wood covered with gold. And make five bronze* bases for the five posts.”

The Altar for Burning Offerings

27The Lord said to Moses,* “Use acacia wood and build an altar.* The altar should be square. It must be 5 cubits* long, 5 cubits* wide, and 3 cubits* high. 28Make a horn for each of the four corners of the altar.

1 cubit 1’ 8 5/8” (52.5cm).
fine leather Leather made from the skin of an animal like a seal or a sea cow.
Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle,” the tent where God came to live among his people.
10 cubits 17’ 2 11/16” (5.25m).
1 1/2 cubits 2’ 7” (78.75cm).
Join each horn to its corner so that everything is one piece. Then cover the altar with bronze.*

3*Use bronze* to make all the tools and dishes that will be used on the altar.* Make pots, shovels, bowls, forks, and pans. These will be used for cleaning ashes from the altar.

4Make a grating for the altar. This grating will be shaped like a net. And make a bronze ring at each of the four corners of the grating. 5Put the grating under the ledge at the bottom of the altar. The grating will go halfway up into the altar from below.

6*Use acacia wood to make poles for the altar,* and cover them with bronze.* 7Put the poles through the rings on both sides of the altar. Use these poles for carrying the altar.

8Make the altar like an empty box with the sides made from boards. Make the altar just like I showed you on the mountain.

The Courtyard Around the Holy Tent

9*Make a courtyard for the Holy Tent.* The south side should have a wall of curtains 100 cubits* long. These curtains must be made from fine linen.* 10Use 20 posts and 20 bronze* bases under the posts. The hooks for the posts and the curtain rods* should be made from silver. 11The north side must also have a wall of curtains 100 cubits long. It must have 20 posts, and 20 bronze bases. The hooks for the posts and the curtain rods must be made from silver.

12*On the west side of the courtyard there must be a wall of curtains 50 cubits* long. There must be ten posts and ten bases. 13The east side of the courtyard must also be 50 cubits long. 14This east side is the entrance to the courtyard. One side of the entrance must have curtains 15 cubits* long. There must be three posts and three bases on this side. 15The other side must also have curtains 15 cubits long. There must be three posts and three bases on that side.

16Make a curtain 20 cubits* long to cover the entrance to the courtyard. Make that curtain from fine linen* and blue, purple, and red yarn. Weave designs into that curtain. There must be four posts and four bases for that curtain. 17All the posts around the courtyard must be joined with silver curtain rods. The hooks on the posts must be made from silver, and the bases for the posts must be bronze.* 18The courtyard should be 100 cubits* long and 50 cubits* wide. The wall of curtains around the courtyard should be 5 cubits* high. The curtains must be made from fine linen. The bases under the posts must be bronze. 19All the tools, tent pegs, and other things used in the Holy Tent* must be made from bronze. And all the pegs* for the curtains around the courtyard* must be made from bronze.

Oil for the Lamp

20*Command the people of Israel to bring the best olive oil. Use this oil for the lamp that must be lit each evening. 21Aaron and his sons will have the job of caring for the lamp. They will go into the first room of the Meeting Tent.* This is outside the room with the Agreement* that is behind the curtain* that separates the two rooms. In this place they will make sure the lamp continues burning before the Lord from evening till morning. The people of Israel and their descendants* must obey this law forever.”

Clothes for the Priests

The Lord said to Moses, “Tell your brother Aaron and his sons, Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar, to come to you from the people of Israel. These men will serve me as priests.

2“Make special clothes for your brother Aaron. These clothes will give him honor and respect. 3There are skilled men among the people who can make these clothes. I have given these men special wisdom. Tell those men to make the clothes for Aaron. These clothes will show that he serves me in a special way. Then he can serve me as a priest.

4These are the clothes the men should make: the Judgment Pouch,* the Ephod,* a blue robe, a white woven robe, a turban* and a sash (belt). The men must make these special clothes for your brother Aaron and his sons. Then Aaron and his sons can serve me as priests. 5Tell the men to use gold threads, fine linen,* and blue, purple and red yarn.

The Ephod and the Sash

6“Use gold threads, fine linen,* and blue, purple, and red yarn to make the Ephod.* This must be the work of a very skilled person. 7At each shoulder of the Ephod there should be a shoulder piece. These shoulder pieces should be tied to the two corners of the Ephod.

8“The men will very carefully weave a sash (belt) for the Ephod. This sash must be made the same way as the Ephod—use gold threads, fine linen,* and blue, purple, and red yarn.

9“Take two onyx stones. Write the names of the twelve sons of Israel (Jacob) on these jewels. 10Write six names on one jewel and six names on the other jewel. Write the names in order, from the oldest son to the youngest. 11Cut the names of the sons of Israel on these stones. Do this the way a worker makes a seal.* Put the jewels in gold settings. 12Then put these two jewels on the shoulder pieces of the Ephod. Aaron will wear this special coat when he stands before the Lord. And the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel will be on the Ephod. These jewels will cause God to remember the people of Israel. 13Use fine gold to hold the stones on the Ephod.

The Judgment Pouch

15“Make the Judgment Pouch* for the high priest. Skilled workers should make this pouch like they made the Ephod.* They must use gold threads, fine linen,* and blue, purple, and red yarn. 16The Judgment Pouch should be folded double to make a square pocket. It should be 1 span* long and 1 span wide. 17Put four rows of beautiful jewels on the Judgment Pouch. The first row of jewels should have a ruby, a topaz, and a beryl. 18The second row should have a turquoise, a sapphire, and an emerald. 19The third row should have a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst. 20The fourth row should have a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper. Set all these jewels in gold. 21There will be twelve jewels on the Judgment Pouch—one jewel for each of the sons of Israel (Jacob). Write the name of one of the sons of Israel on each of the stones. Cut these names into each stone like a worker makes a seal.*

22“Make chains of pure gold for Judgment Pouch.* These chains must be braided like a rope. 23Make two gold rings and put them on two corners of the Judgment Pouch. 24Put the two golden chains through the two rings at the corners of the Judgment Pouch. 25Fasten the other ends of the gold chains to the two settings. This will fasten them to the two shoulder pieces of the Ephod* on the front. 26Make two more gold rings and put them on the other two corners of the Judgment Pouch. This will be on the inside edge of the Judgment Pouch next to the Ephod. 27Make two more gold rings and put them on the bottom of the shoulder pieces on the front of the Ephod. Put the gold rings above the sash (belt) of the Ephod. 28Use blue ribbon to tie the rings of the Judgment Pouch to the rings

---

Judgment Pouch A piece of clothing like a bib or an apron that covered the high priest’s chest.

Ephod A special coat worn by the priests.

 turban Head covering made by wrapping a long piece of cloth around the head or around a cap worn on the head.

linen Thread or cloth made from the fibers of the flax plant.

seal Small stones with designs cut into them. Pressed into wet clay or hot wax, they made a special mark.

---

1 span About 9” (23cm). This is the distance from the tip of the thumb to the tip of the little finger.
of the Ephod. In this way the Judgment Pouch will rest close to the sash and will be held against the Ephod.

29“When Aaron enters the Holy Place,* he must wear the Judgment Pouch.* In this way he will wear the names of the twelve sons of Israel over his heart. And the Lord will always be reminded of them. 30Put the Urim and Thummim* inside the Judgment Pouch. They will be over Aaron’s heart when he goes before the Lord. So Aaron will always carry with him a way of judging the people of Israel when he is before the Lord.

Other Clothes for the Priests

31“Make a blue robe for the Ephod.* 32Make a hole in the center for the head. And sew a piece of cloth around the edge of this hole. This cloth will be like a collar that keeps the hole from tearing. 33Use blue, purple, and red yarn to make cloth pomegranates.* Hang these pomegranates around the bottom edge of the robe. And hang gold bells between the pomegranates. 34So around the bottom edge of the robe there should be bells and pomegranates. There should be a bell between each pomegranate. 35Aaron will wear this robe when he serves as a priest. The bells will ring as Aaron goes into the Holy Place* to stand before the Lord. And the bells will ring as he leaves the Holy Place. This way Aaron will not die.

36“Make a strip of pure gold and carve words into the gold the way people make a seal.* Write these words: HOLY TO THE LORD. 37 Fasten the gold strip to a blue ribbon. Tie the blue ribbon around the turban.* The gold strip should be on the front of the turban. 38Aaron will wear this on his head. In this way he will remove the guilt if anything is wrong with the gifts of the people of Israel.* These are the gifts the people give to the Lord. Aaron will always wear this on his head so that the Lord will accept the gifts of the people.

39“Use fine linen to make the white woven robe. And use fine linen to make the turban.* The sash (belt) should have designs sewn into it. 40Also make coats, belts, and turbans for Aaron’s sons. This will give them honor and respect. 41Put the clothes on your brother Aaron and his sons. Then pour the special oil on them to make them priests. This will make them holy, and they will serve me as priests.

42“Use linen* to make underclothes for the priests. These underclothes will cover them from the waist to the thighs. 43Aaron and his sons must wear these clothes anytime they enter the Meeting Tent.* They must wear these clothes when they come near to the altar to serve as priests in the Holy Place. If they don’t wear these clothes, then they will be guilty of wrong, and they will have to die. All this should be a law that continues forever for Aaron and all his family after him.”

The Ceremony for Appointing the Priests

29Then the Lord said to Moses, “Now I will tell you what you must do to show that Aaron and his sons serve me in a special way as priests. Find one young bull and two young goats that have nothing wrong with them. 2Then use fine wheat flour without yeast to make bread. And use the same things to make cakes mixed with olive oil. And make small thin cakes spread with oil. 3Put this bread and the cakes in a basket. Then give the basket to Aaron and his sons. At the same time give them the bull and the two rams.

4“Then bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* Wash them with water. 5Put the special clothes on Aaron. Put on him the white woven robe and the blue Holy Place One of the two rooms in the Holy Tent.

Judgment Pouch A piece of clothing like a bib or an apron that covered the high priest’s chest.
Urim and Thummim Used by the priest to learn God’s answer to questions. They were probably like lots—stones, sticks, or bones that were thrown like dice.
Ephod A special coat worn by the priests.
pomegranates A red fruit about the size of an orange.
seal Small stones with designs cut into them. Pressed into wet clay or hot wax, they made a special mark.
turban Head covering made by wrapping a long piece of cloth around the head or around a cap worn on the head.

In this way ... Israel Literally, “It will keep him holy when he bears the guilt from the gifts of the people of Israel.”
linen Thread or cloth made from the fibers of the flax plant.
Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.
robe that is worn with the Ephod.* Put the Ephod and the Judgment Pouch* on him. Then tie the beautiful sash (belt) on him. 6Put the turban* on his head. And put the special crown around the turban. 7Take the anointing oil* and pour it on Aaron’s head. This will show that Aaron is chosen for this work.

8“Then bring Aaron’s sons to that place. Put the white woven robes on them. 9Then tie sashes (belts) around their waists. Give them the special hats to wear. At that time they will begin to be priests. They will be priests because of the special law that will continue forever. This is the way you will make Aaron and his sons priests.

10“Then bring the bull to that place at the front of the Meeting Tent.* Aaron and his sons must put their hands on the bull’s head. 11Then kill that bull there at the entrance to the Meeting Tent. The Lord will see this. 12Then take some of the bull’s blood and go to the altar. 9 Use your finger to put some blood on the horns of the altar. Pour all the blood that is left at the bottom of the altar.

13Then take all the fat from inside the bull, the fatty part of the liver, both kidneys, and the fat around them. Burn this fat on the altar. 14Then take the bull’s meat, his skin, and his other parts and go outside your camp. Burn these things there outside the camp. This is an offering to take away the sins of the priests.

15“Then tell Aaron and his sons to put their hands on the head of one of the rams. 16Kill that ram and save the blood. Throw the blood against the altar* on all four sides. 17Then cut the ram into several pieces. Wash all the parts from inside the ram and the legs. Put these things with the head and the other pieces of the ram. 18Then burn everything on the altar.

It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire to the Lord. Its smell will please the Lord.

19“Tell Aaron and his sons to put their hands on the other ram. 20Kill that ram and save some of its blood. Put that blood on the right earlobes of Aaron and his sons. Also put some of the blood on the thumbs of their right hands. And put some of the blood on the big toes of their right feet. Then throw blood against all four sides of the altar. 21Then take some of the blood from the altar. Mix it with the special oil and sprinkle it on Aaron and his clothes. And sprinkle it on their sons and their clothes. This will show that Aaron and his sons serve me in a special way. And it will show that their clothes are used only at special times.

22“Then take the fat from the ram. (This is the ram that will be used in the ceremony to make Aaron the high priest.) Take the fat from around the tail and the fat that covers the organs inside the body. Then take the fat that covers the liver, both kidneys and the fat on them, and the right leg. 23Then take the basket of bread that you made without yeast. This is the basket you put before the Lord. Take these things out of the basket: one loaf of bread, one cake made with oil, and one small thin cake. 24Give these things to Aaron and his sons. Tell them to hold these things in their hands before the Lord. This will be a special offering to the Lord. 25Then take these things from Aaron and his sons and put them on the altar* with the ram. Then burn everything on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire to the Lord. Its smell will please the Lord.

26“Then take the breast from the ram.* (This is the ram that will be used in the ceremony to make Aaron the high priest.) Hold the breast of the ram before the Lord as a special offering. Then take it back and keep it. This part of the animal will be for you. 27Take the breast and the leg of the ram that was used to make Aaron the high priest and make those parts holy (special). Then give those special parts to Aaron and his sons. 28The people of Israel will always give Aaron

---

Ephod A special coat worn by the priests.

Judgment Pouch A piece of clothing like a bib or an apron that covered the high priest’s chest.

turban Head covering made by wrapping a long piece of cloth around the head or around a cap worn on the head.

anointing oil Fine olive oil that was poured on things or people to show they were chosen for a special work or purpose.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle), where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

ram(s) A male sheep.
and his sons these parts. Those parts will always belong to the priests when the people of Israel make an offering to the Lord. When they give these parts to the priest, it will be the same as giving them to the Lord. 29“Save those special clothes that were made for Aaron. Those clothes will belong to all his people who live after him. They will wear those clothes when they are chosen to be priests. 30Aaron’s son will become the next high priest after him. That son will wear those clothes seven days when he comes to the Meeting Tent* to serve in the Holy Place.* 31“Cook the meat from the ram* that was used to make Aaron the high priest. Cook that meat in a holy place. 32Then Aaron and his sons must eat the meat at the front door of the Meeting Tent.* And they must also eat the bread that is in the basket. 33These offerings were used to take away their sins when they were made priests. 34If any of the meat from that ram or any of the bread is left the next morning, then it must be burned. You must not eat that bread or the meat because it should be eaten only in a special way at a special time. 35“You must do all these things for Aaron and his sons. You must do them exactly as I told you. The ceremony for appointing them to be priests must continue for seven days. 36You must kill one bull every day for seven days. This will be an offering for the sins of Aaron and his sons. You will use these sacrifices* to make the altar* pure. And pour olive oil on the altar to make it holy. 37You will make the altar pure and holy for seven days. At that time the altar will become most holy. Anything that touches the altar will also be holy. 38“Every day you must make an offering on the altar.* You must kill two lambs that are one year old. 39Offer one lamb in the morning and the other in the evening. 40–41When you kill the first lamb, also offer 8 cups* of fine wheat flour. Mix that flour with 1 quart* of wine as an offering. When you kill the second lamb in the evening, also offer the 8 cups of fine flour. And offer 1 quart* of wine. This is the same as you did in the morning. This will be a food offering for the Lord. When you burn this offering, the Lord will smell it, and it will please him. 42“You must burn these things as an offering to the Lord every day. Do this at the entrance of the Meeting Tent* before the Lord. Continue to do this for all time. When you make the offering, I the Lord will meet you there and speak to you. 43I will meet with the people of Israel at that place. And my Glory* will make that place holy. 44“So I will make the Meeting Tent* holy. And I will make the altar* holy. And I will make Aaron and his sons holy so that they can serve me as priests. 45I will live with the people of Israel. I will be their God. They will know that I am the Lord, their God. They will know that I am the One who led them out of Egypt so I could live with them. I am the Lord, their God.”

The Altar for Burning Incense

God said to Moses, “Make an altar* from acacia wood. You will use this altar for burning incense.* 2You must make the altar square—1 cubit* long and 1 cubit wide. It must be 2 cubits* high. There will be horns at the four corners. These horns must be made as one piece with the altar. 3Cover the top and all the sides of the altar with pure gold. And pour olive oil on the altar to make it holy. 4You will make the altar pure and holy for seven days. At that time the altar will become most holy. Anything that touches the altar will also be holy. 5Every day you must make an offering on the altar.* You must kill two lambs that are one year old. 6Offer one lamb in the morning and the other in the evening. 7–8When you kill the first lamb, also offer 8 cups* of fine wheat flour. Mix that flour with 1 quart* of wine as an offering. When you kill the second lamb in the evening, also offer the 8 cups of fine flour. And offer 1 quart* of wine. This is the same as you did in the morning. This will be a food offering for the Lord. When you burn this offering, the Lord will smell it, and it will please him. 9“You must burn these things as an offering to the Lord every day. Do this at the entrance of the Meeting Tent* before the Lord. Continue to do this for all time. When you make the offering, I the Lord will meet you there and speak to you. I will meet with the people of Israel at that place. And my Glory* will make that place holy. 10“So I will make the Meeting Tent* holy. And I will make the altar* holy. And I will make Aaron and his sons holy so that they can serve me as priests. 11I will live with the people of Israel. I will be their God. They will know that I am the Lord, their God. They will know that I am the One who led them out of Egypt so I could live with them. I am the Lord, their God.”

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle), where the people of Israel went to meet with God.
Holy Place One of the rooms in the Holy Tent.
ram(s) A male sheep.
sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

8 cups Literally, “1/10 of a measure.”
1 quart Literally, “1/4 hin.”
Glory The Glory of the Lord. One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. It was like a bright shining light.
incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.
1 cubit 1’ 8 5/8” (52.5cm).
2 cubits 3’ 5 5/16” (105cm).
5Make the poles from acacia wood also. Cover the poles with gold. 6Put the altar in front of the special curtain. The Box of the Agreement* is behind that curtain. The altar will be in front of the cover* that is above the Agreement.* This is the place where I will meet with you.

7"Aaron must burn sweet smelling incense* on the altar* every morning. He will do this when he comes to care for the lamps. 8He must burn incense again in the evening. This is the time when he checks the lamps in the evenings. So that incense will be burned before the Lord every day forever. 9Don’t use this altar for offering any other kind of incense or burnt offering. Don’t use this altar to offer any kind of grain offering or drink offering.

10"Once a year Aaron must make a special sacrifice* to the Lord. Aaron will use the blood of the sin offering to erase the sins of the people. Aaron will do this at the horns of this altar.* This day will be called the Day of Atonement. This will be a very special day for the Lord.”

The Temple Tax

11The Lord said to Moses, 12"Count the people of Israel so that you will know how many people there are. Every time this is done, every person must make a payment for himself to the Lord. If each person does this, then no terrible thing will happen to the people. 13Every person who is counted must pay 1⁄2 shekel. (That is 1⁄2 shekel by the official measure.* This shekel weighs 20 gerahs.) This half shekel is an offering to the Lord. 14Every person who is at least 20 years old will be counted. And every person counted must give the Lord this offering. 15Rich people must not give more than 1⁄2 shekel. And poor people must not give less than 1⁄2 shekel. All people will make the same offering to the Lord. This will be a payment for your life. 16Gather this money from the people of Israel. Use the money for the service in the Meeting Tent. This payment will be a way for the Lord to remember his people. They will be paying for their own lives.”

The Washing Bowl

17The Lord said to Moses, 18"Make a bronze* bowl and put it on a bronze base. You will use this for washing. Put the bowl between the Meeting Tent* and the altar.* Fill the bowl with water. 19Aaron and his sons must wash their hands and feet with the water from this bowl. 20Every time they enter the Meeting Tent or come near the altar they must wash with water. This way they will not die. 21And they must wash their hands and their feet so they won’t die. This will be a law that continues forever for Aaron and his people. This law will continue for all Aaron’s people who will live in the future.”

The Anointing Oil

22Then the Lord said to Moses, 23"Find the finest spices. Get 12 pounds* of liquid myrrh, half that amount (that is, 6 pounds*) of sweet smelling cinnamon, and 12 pounds of sweet smelling cane, 24and 12 pounds of cassia. Use the official measure* to measure all these things. Also get 1 gallon* of olive oil.

Box of the Agreement  Or, “ark of the Covenant.” The box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

cover  Also called “mercy seat.” The Hebrew word can mean “lid,” “cover” or “the place where sins are forgiven.”

Agreement  Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them. These were proof of the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.

incense  Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

altar  A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

sacrifice(s)  A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

official measure  Literally, “holy shekel,” the standard of measure used by the priests in the tabernacle or temple.

gerah(s)  1/50 of an ounce.

Meeting Tent  The Holy Tent (tabernacle), where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

bronze  A metal. The Hebrew word can mean “copper,” “bronze,” or “brass.”

12 pounds  Literally, “500 measures.”

6 pounds  Literally, “250 measures.”

1 gallon  Literally, “a hin.”
25“Mix all these things to make a special sweet-smelling anointing oil.* 26Pour this oil on the Meeting Tent* and on the Box of the Agreement.* This will show that these things have a special purpose. 27Pour the oil on the table and on all the dishes on the table. And pour this oil on the lamp and on all its tools. Pour the oil on the incense* altar. 28Also, pour the oil on the altar for burning offerings to God. Pour this oil on everything on that altar. Pour this oil on the bowl and on the base under the bowl. 29You will make all these things holy. They will be very special to the Lord. Anything that touches these things will also become holy.

30“Pour the oil on Aaron and his sons. This will show that they serve me in a special way. Then they can serve me as priests. 31Tell the people of Israel that the anointing oil* is holy—it must always be used only for me. 32No one should use this oil like an ordinary perfume. Don’t make perfume the same way you make this special oil. This oil is holy, and it should be very special to you. 33If anyone makes a perfume like this holy oil, and if he gives it to a foreigner, then that person must be separated from his people.”

The Incense

34Then the Lord said to Moses, “Get these sweet-smelling spices: resin, onycha, galbanum, and pure frankincense. Be sure that you have equal amounts of these spices. 35Mix the spices together to make a sweet-smelling incense.* Do this the same as a perfume maker would do it. Also mix salt with this incense. This will make it pure and special. 36Grind some of the incense until it becomes a fine powder. Put the powder in front of the Agreement* in the Meeting Tent.* This is the place where I meet with you. You must use this incense powder only for its very special purpose. 37You must use this incense only in this special way for the Lord. You will make this incense in a special way. Don’t make any other incense in this special way. 38A person might want to make some of this incense for himself, so he can enjoy the smell. But if he does this, then he must be separated from his people.”

Bezalel and Oholiab

31Then the Lord said to Moses, “I have chosen a man from the family group of Judah to do some special work for me. His name is Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur. 32I have filled Bezalel with the Spirit of God—I have given him the skill and knowledge to do all kinds of things. 33Bezalel is a very good designer. And he can make things from gold, silver, and bronze. 34Bezalel can cut and set beautiful jewels. And he can work with wood. Bezalel can do all kinds of work. 35I have also chosen Oholiab to work with him. Oholiab is the son of Ahisamach from the family group of Dan. And I have given skills to all the other workers so they can make all the things that I have commanded you:

7 the Meeting Tent,* the Box of the Agreement,* the cover* for the Box, 8 the table and everything on it, the altar* for burning incense,* the altar for burning offerings and the things used at the altar, the bowl and the base under it, 9 the special clothes for Aaron the priest, the special clothes for Aaron’s sons when they serve as priests, the sweet-smelling anointing oil,* the sweet-smelling incense for the Holy Place.*
These workers must make all these things the way that I have commanded you.”

The Sabbath

12 Then the Lord said to Moses, 13 “Tell the people of Israel this: ‘You must follow the rules about my special days of rest. You must do this because they will be a sign between you and me for all generations. This will show you that I, the Lord, have made you my special people.

14 ‘Make the Sabbath a special day. If a person treats the Sabbath like any other day, then that person must be killed. Any person who works on the Sabbath day must be cut off (separated) from his people. 15 There are six other days in the week for working. But the seventh day is a very special day of rest. That is the special day to honor the Lord. Any person who works during the Sabbath must be killed. 16 The people of Israel must remember the Sabbath and make it a special day. They must continue to do this forever. It is an agreement between them and me that will continue forever. 17 The Sabbath will be a sign between me and the people of Israel forever. The Lord worked six days and made heaven and earth. And on the seventh day he rested and relaxed.’”

18 So the Lord finished speaking to Moses on Mount Sinai. Then the Lord gave him the two flat stones with the Agreement on them. God used his finger and wrote on the stones.

The Golden Calf

32 The people saw that a long time had passed and Moses had not come down from the mountain. So the people gathered around Aaron. They said to him, “Look, Moses led us out of the land of Egypt. But we don’t know what has happened to him. So make us some gods to go before us and lead us.”

2 Aaron said to the people, “Bring me the gold earrings that belong to your wives, sons, and daughters.”

3 So all the people gathered their gold earrings and brought them to Aaron. 4 Aaron took the gold from the people. Then he used it to make a statue of a calf. Aaron used a chisel to carve the statue, and then he covered it with gold.

Then the people said, “Israel, here are your gods! These are the gods that brought you out of the land of Egypt!”

5 Aaron saw all these things. So he built an altar in front of the calf. Then Aaron made an announcement. He said, “Tomorrow will be a special feast to honor the Lord.”

6 The people woke up very early the next morning. They killed animals and offered them as burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. The people sat down to eat and drink. Then they got up and had a wild party.

7 At the same time, the Lord said to Moses, “Go down from this mountain. Your people, the people you brought out of the land of Egypt, have done a terrible sin. 8 They have very quickly turned away from the things I commanded them to do. They made a calf from melted gold for themselves. They are worshiping that calf and making sacrifices to it. The people have said, ‘Israel, these are the gods that led you out of Egypt.’”

9 The Lord said to Moses, “I have seen these people. I know that they are very stubborn people. They will always turn against me. 10 So now let me destroy them in anger. Then I will make a great nation from you.”

11 But Moses begged the Lord his God, “Lord, don’t let your anger destroy your people. You brought these people out of Egypt with your great power and strength. 12 But if you destroy your people, then the Egyptians can say, ‘The Lord planned to do bad things to his people. That is why he led them out of Egypt. He wanted to kill them in the mountains. He wanted to wipe them off the earth.’ So don’t be angry at your people. Please change your mind! Don’t destroy your people. 13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel (Jacob). Those men served you. And 14 So the Lord felt sorry for the people. The Lord did not do the thing that he said he might do—he did not destroy the people.

15 Then Moses went down the mountain. Moses had the two flat stones with the Agreement on them. Those commandments were written on both sides of the stone, front and back. God himself had made those stones. And God himself wrote the commandments on those stones.

16 While going down the mountain, Joshua heard the noise from the party in camp. Joshua said to Moses, “It sounds like war down in the camp!”

17 Moses came near the camp. He saw the golden calf, and he saw the people dancing. Moses became very angry, and he threw the flat stones on the ground. The stones broke into several pieces at the bottom of the mountain.

18 Then Moses destroyed the calf that the people had made. He melted it in the fire. Then he ground the gold until it became dust. And he threw the dust in the water. He forced the people of Israel to drink that water.

20 Moses said to Aaron, “What did these people do to you? Why did you lead them to do such a bad sin?”

21 Aaron answered, “Don’t be angry, sir. You know that these people are always ready to do wrong. The people said to me, ‘Moses led us out of Egypt. But we don’t know what has happened to him. So make us some gods to lead us.’ I told the people, ‘If you have any gold rings, then give them to me.’ The people gave me their gold. I threw the gold into the fire, and out of the fire came this calf!”

23 But the Lord said to Moses, “The only people that I erase from my book are the people who sin against me. So now, go down and lead the people where I tell you. My angel will go before you and lead you. When the time comes to punish the people who sinned, then they will be punished.”

25 Then Moses said to them, “I will tell you what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: ‘Every man must get his sword and go from one end of the camp to the other. You must punish these people, even if each man must kill his brother, friends, and neighbors.’”

28 The people from the family of Levi obeyed Moses. That day about 3,000 of the people of Israel died.

29 Moses said, “The Lord has chosen you today to be the people who will bless your sons and brothers.”

30 The next morning Moses told the people, “You have done a terrible sin! But now I will go up to the Lord, and maybe I can do something so he will forgive you for your sin.”

31 So Moses went back to the Lord and said, “Please listen! These people did a very bad sin and made a god from gold. Now, forgive them of this sin! If you will not forgive them, then erase my name from the book you have written.”

33 But the Lord said to Moses, “The only people that I erase from my book are the people who sin against me. So now, go down and lead the people where I tell you. My angel will go before you and lead you. When the time comes to punish the people who sinned, then they will be punished.”

35 Then the Lord said to Moses, “You and the people you brought out of Egypt must leave this place. Go to the land that I promised to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I promised them that I would give that land to their descendants. So I will send an angel to go

Agreement  Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them. These were proof of the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.

music  Or, “singing.”

the book  This is the “Book of Life,” a book with all the names of God’s people written in it.
before you. And I will defeat the Canaanites, the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites the Hivites, and the Jebusites. I will force those people to leave your land. 3So go to the land filled with many good things. But I will not go with you. You people are very stubborn, and you make me very angry. If I go with you, I might destroy you along the way.

4The people heard this bad news and became very sad. And the people stopped wearing jewelry. 5Why? Because the Lord said to Moses, “Tell the people of Israel, ‘You are a stubborn people. I might destroy you even if I travel with you only a short time. So take off all your jewelry while I decide what to do with you.’” 6So the people of Israel stopped wearing their jewelry at Mount Horeb (Sinai).

The Temporary Meeting Tent

7Moses used to take a tent a short way outside the camp. Moses called it “the meeting tent.” Any person who wanted to ask something from the Lord would go to the meeting tent outside the camp. 8Any time Moses went out to the tent, all the people watched him. The people stood at the entrance of their tents and watched Moses until he entered the meeting tent. 9Whenever Moses went into the tent, the tall cloud would come down and stay at the entrance to the tent. And the Lord would speak with Moses. 10So when the people saw the cloud at the entrance of the tent, they would go to the entrance of their own tents and bow down to worship God.

11In this way the Lord spoke to Moses face to face. The Lord spoke to Moses like a man speaks with his friend. After speaking with the Lord, Moses would go back to the camp. But his helper always stayed in the tent. This helper was Joshua son of Nun.

Moses Sees the Glory of the Lord

12Moses said to the Lord, “You told me to lead these people. But you did not say who you would send with me. You said to me, ‘I know you very well, and I am pleased with you.’ 13If I have truly pleased you, then teach me your ways. I want to know you. Then I can continue to please you. Remember that all these are your people.”

14The Lord answered, “I myself will go with you. I will lead you.”

15Then Moses said to the Lord, “If you don’t go with us, then don’t send us away from this place. 16Also, how will we know if you are pleased with me and these people? If you go with us, then we will know for sure! If you don’t go with us, then I and these people will be no different than any other people on the earth.”

17Then the Lord said to Moses, “I will do what you ask. I will do this because I am pleased with you and because I know you very well.”

18Then Moses said, “Now, please show me your Glory.”

19Then the Lord answered, “I will cause my perfect Goodness to go before you. I am the Lord and I will announce my name so that you can hear it. Why? Because I can show my kindness and love to any person I choose. 20But you can’t see my face. No person can see me and continue to live.

21“There is a rock at a place near me. You can stand on that rock. 22My Glory will pass by that place. I will put you in a large crack in that rock, and I will cover you with my hand while I pass. 23Then I will take away my hand, and you will see my back. But you will not see my face.”

The New Stone Tablets

34Then the Lord said to Moses, “Make two more flat stones like the first two that were broken. I will write the same words on these stones that were written on the first two stones. Be ready tomorrow morning and come up on Mount Sinai. Stand before me there on the top of the mountain. No person will be allowed to come with you. No person should even be seen any place on the mountain. Even your herds of animals or flocks of sheep will not be allowed to eat grass at the bottom of the mountain."

So Moses made two more flat stones like the first ones. Then early the next morning he went up Mount Sinai. Moses did everything like the Lord had commanded him. Moses carried the two flat stones with him. After Moses was on the mountain, the Lord came down to him in a cloud. The Lord stood there with Moses, and Moses called the Lord’s name.*

The Lord passed in front of Moses and said, “YAHWEH,* the Lord, is the kind and merciful God. The Lord is slow to become angry. The Lord is full of great love. The Lord can be trusted. The Lord shows his kindness to thousands of generations. The Lord forgives* people for the wrong things they do. But the Lord does not forget to punish guilty people. The Lord will punish not only the guilty people, but their children, their grandchildren, and their great-grandchildren will suffer for the bad things those people do.*"

Then Moses quickly bowed to the ground and worshiped {the Lord}. Moses said, 9“Lord, if you are pleased with me, then please go with us. I know that these are stubborn people. But forgive us for the bad things we did! Accept us as your people.”

Then the Lord said, “I am making this agreement with all of your people. I will do amazing things that have never before been done for any other nation on earth. The people with you will see that I, the Lord, am very great. The people will see the wonderful things that I will do for you. Obey the things I command you today, and I will force your enemies to leave your land. I will force out the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. Be careful! Don’t make any agreement with the people who live in the land where you are going. If you make an agreement with those people, then it will bring you trouble. So destroy their altars.* Break the stones they worship. Cut down their idols.* Don’t worship any other god. I am YAHWEH KANAH—the jealous Lord. That is my name. I am EL KANAH—the jealous God.

Be careful not to make any agreements with the people who live in that land. If you do this, then you might join them when they worship their gods. Those people will invite you to join them, and you will eat their sacrifices.* You might choose some of their daughters as wives for your sons. Those daughters serve false gods. They might lead your sons to do the same thing.

“Don’t make idols.*

“Celebrate the Festival of Unleavened Bread. For seven days eat that bread made without yeast like I commanded you before. Do this during the month I have chosen, the month of Abib.* Why? Because that is the month you came out of Egypt.

“A woman’s first baby always belongs to me. Even the first animals that are born from your cattle or sheep belong to me. If you want to keep a donkey that is the first born, then you can buy it with a lamb. But if you don’t buy that donkey with a lamb, then you must break the donkey’s neck. You must buy back all of your firstborn* sons from me. No person should come before me without a gift.

Moses called the Lord’s name Literally, “He called on the name of the Lord.” This might mean Moses worshiped the Lord, or it might mean the Lord spoke his name to Moses.

YAHWEH This name, usually translated “Lord,” is like the Hebrew word meaning, “He is” or “He makes things exist.”

forgives Or, “spares.”

The Lord ... people do Or, “The Lord credits the guilt of the fathers to their children and grandchildren, to the third and fourth generation.”

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

stones ... idols Literally, “memorials ... Asherah poles.” These were stone markers and wood poles that the people set up to help them remember and honor false gods.

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

Abib Or, “spring.” This is Nisan, the first month of the ancient Jewish year.

firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.
21“You will work for six days. But on the seventh day you must rest. You must rest even during the times of planting and harvesting.

22“Celebrate the Festival of Weeks.* Use the first grain from the wheat harvest for this festival. And in the fall* celebrate the Festival of Harvest.*

23“Three times each year all your men must go to be with the Master, the Lord, the God of Israel.

24“When you go into your land, I will force your enemies out of that land. I will expand your borders—you will get more and more land. You will go before the Lord your God three times each year. At that time, no one will try to take your land from you.

25 “Whenever you offer blood from a sacrifice* to me, don’t offer yeast at the same time.

“Don’t leave any of the meat from the Passover* meal until the next morning.

26“Give the Lord the very first crops that you harvest. Bring those things to the house* of the Lord your God.

27“Never cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.”

29Then the Lord said to Moses, “Write all the things that I have told you. Those things are the Agreement that I made with you and the people of Israel.”

30Moses gathered all the people of Israel together. Moses said to them, “I will tell you the things the Lord has commanded you to do:

2“There are six days for working. But the seventh day will be a very special day of rest for you. You will honor the Lord by resting on that special day. Any person who works on the seventh day must be killed.

3On the Sabbath* you should not even light a fire in any of the places where you live.”

Moses’ Shining Face

Then Moses came down from Mount Sinai. He carried the two flat stones with the Agreement* on them. Moses’ face was shining because he had talked with the Lord. But Moses did not know this. 30Aaron and all the people of Israel saw that Moses’ face was shining bright. So they were afraid to go near him. 31But Moses called to them. So Aaron and all the leaders of the people went to Moses. Moses talked with them. 32After that, all the people of Israel came near Moses. And Moses gave them the commands that the Lord had given him on Mount Sinai.

33When Moses finished speaking to the people, he put a covering over his face. 34Any time Moses went before the Lord to speak with him, Moses took off the covering. Then Moses would come out and tell the people of Israel the things the Lord commanded. 35The people would see that Moses’ face was shining bright, so Moses would cover his face again. Moses kept his face covered until the next time he went in to speak with the Lord.

Rules About the Sabbath

35Moses gathered all the people of Israel together. Moses said to them, “I will tell you the things the Lord has commanded you to do:

2“There are six days for working. But the seventh day will be a very special day of rest for you. You will honor the Lord by resting on that special day. Any person who works on the seventh day must be killed. 3On the Sabbath* you should not even light a fire in any of the places where you live.”

Things for the Holy Tent

4Moses said to all the people of Israel, “This is what the Lord commanded: 5Gather special gifts for the Lord. Each of you should decide in your heart what you will give. And then you should bring that gift to the Lord. Bring gold, silver, and bronze*; 6blue, purple, and red yarn and fine linen*; goat hair; 7ram skins dyed red and fine leather*; acacia wood; oil for the lamps; spices for the anointing oil* and spices for the sweet-smelling incense.* Also, bring onyx stones and other jewels to be put on the Ephod* and the Judgment Pouch.*
EXODUS 35:8–30

10 All of you people who are skilled workers should make all of the things the Lord commanded: the Holy Tent,* its outer tent, and its covering; the hooks, boards, braces, posts, and bases; the Holy Box,* its poles, the cover,* and the curtain that covers the area where the Box stays; the table and its poles, all the things on the table, and the special bread on the table; the lampstand that is used for light and the things used with the lampstand, the lamps, and oil for the light; the altar* for burning incense* and the sweet-smelling incense; the curtain that covers the door at the entrance to the Holy Tent; the altar for burning offerings and its bronze* grating, the poles, and all the things used at the altar; the bronze bowl and its base; the curtains around the yard, their posts and bases, and the curtain that covers the entrance to the yard; the pegs used to support the Tent and the wall of curtains around the courtyard, and the ropes that tie to the pegs; and the special woven clothes for the priest to wear in the Holy Place.* These are the special clothes for Aaron the priest and his sons to wear. They will wear these clothes when they serve as priests."

The Great Offering from the People

20 Then all the people of Israel went away from Moses. All the people who wanted to give came and brought a gift to the Lord. These gifts were used for making the Meeting Tent,* all the things in the Tent, and the special clothes. All the men and women who wanted to give brought gold jewelry of all kinds. They brought pins,* earrings, rings, and other jewelry. They all gave their jewelry to the Lord. This was a special offering to the Lord.

23 Every person who had fine linen* and blue, purple, and red yarn brought it to the Lord. Any person who had goat hair or ram skins dyed red or fine leather* brought it to the Lord. Every person who had acacia wood came and gave it to the Lord. Every skilled woman made fine linen and blue, purple, and red yarn. And all the women who were skilled and wanted to help made cloth from the goat hair.

27 The leaders brought onyx stones and other jewels. These stones and jewels were put on the Ephod* and Judgment Pouch* of the priest. The people also brought spices and olive oil. These things were used for the sweet-smelling incense,* the anointing oil,* and the oil for the lamps.

29 All the people of Israel that wanted to help brought gifts to the Lord. The people gave these gifts freely, because they wanted to. These gifts were used to make all the things the Lord had commanded Moses and the people to make.

Bezalel and Oholiab

30 Then Moses said to the people of Israel, “Look, the Lord has chosen Bezalel son of Uri, from the family group of Judah. (Uri was the...
The Lord filled Bezalel with the Spirit of God—he gave Bezalel special skill and knowledge to do all kinds of things. He can design and make things with gold, silver, and bronze. He can cut and set stones and jewels. Bezalel can work with wood and make all kinds of things. The Lord has given Bezalel and Oholiab special skills to teach other people. (Oholiab was the son of Ahisamach from the family group of Dan.) The Lord has given both of these men special skill to do all kinds of work. They are able to do the work of carpenters and metal workers. They can weave cloth with designs in it from the blue, purple, and red yarn and fine linen. And they are able to weave things with wool.

So, Bezalel, Oholiab and all the other skilled men must do the work the Lord has commanded. The Lord has given these men the wisdom and understanding to do all the skilled work needed to build this holy place.

Then Moses called Bezalel and Oholiab and all the other skilled people that the Lord had given special skills to. And these people came because they wanted to help with the work. Moses gave these people all the things the people of Israel had brought as gifts. And they used these things to build God's holy place. The people continued to bring gifts each morning. Finally, all the skilled workers left the work they were doing on the holy place, and they went to speak to Moses. They said, "The people have brought too much! We have more than we need to finish the work on the Tent!"

Then Moses sent this message throughout the camp: "No man or woman should make anything else as a gift for the holy place." So the people were forced to stop giving more. The people had brought more than enough things to finish the work of building God's holy place.

Then the skilled workers began making the Holy Tent. They made the ten curtains from fine linen and blue, purple, and red yarn. And they sewed pictures of Cherub angels with wings into the curtains. Each curtain was the same size—28 cubits long and 4 cubits wide. The workers joined the curtains together into two groups of curtains. They joined five curtains together to make one group and five curtains together to make the other group. Then they used blue cloth to make loops along the edge of the end curtain of one group. And they did the same on the end curtain in the other group. There were 50 loops on the end curtain in one group, and 50 loops on the end curtain in the other group. The loops were opposite each other. Then they made 50 gold rings to join the two curtains together. So the Holy Tent was joined together into one piece.

Then the workers made another tent to cover the Holy Tent. They used goat hair to make eleven curtains. All the curtains were the same size—30 cubits long and 4 cubits wide. The workers joined five curtains together into one group and six curtains together into another group. They put 50 loops along the edge of the end curtain of one group. And they did the same on the end curtain of the other group. The workers made 50 bronze rings to join the two groups of curtains together to form one tent. Then they made two more coverings for the Holy Tent. One covering was made from ram skins dyed red. The other covering was made from fine leather.

Then the workers made frames from acacia wood to support the Holy Tent. Each frame was 10 cubits long and 1 1/2 cubits* wide. 22 There were two side poles joined together with cross pieces to make each frame. Every frame for the Holy Tent was made the same. 23 They made 20 frames for the south side of the Holy Tent. 24 Then they made 40 silver bases for the frames. There were two bases for each frame—one base for each side pole. 25 They also made 20 frames for the other side (the north side) of the Holy Tent. 26 They made 40 silver bases for the frames—two bases for each frame. 27 They made six more frames for the back (the west side) of the Holy Tent. 28 They also made two frames for the corners at the back of the Holy Tent. 29 These frames were joined together at the bottom. And at the top a ring held the corner frames together. They did the same for both corners. 30 There was a total of eight frames for the west side of the Holy Tent. And there were 16 silver bases—two bases for each frame.

31 Then the workers used Acacia wood to make the braces for the frames—five braces for the first side of the Holy Tent,* 32 five braces for the other side, and five braces for the back of the Holy Tent (that is, the west side). 33 They made the middle brace so that it passed through the frames from one end to the other. 34 They covered these frames with gold. Then they used gold to make the rings to hold the braces. And they covered the braces with gold.

35 They used fine linen* and blue, purple, and red yarn to make the special curtain {for the entrance to the Most Holy Place}. And they sewed pictures of Cherub angels* into the curtain. 36 They made four posts using acacia wood, and they covered the posts with gold. Then they made gold hooks for the posts. And they made four silver bases for the posts. 37 Then they made the curtain to cover the entrance to the Tent. They used blue, purple, and red yarn and fine linen to make this curtain. And they wove pictures into it. 38 Then they made the five posts and the hooks {for this curtain over the entrance}. They covered the tops of the posts and the curtain rods* with gold. And they made the five bronze* bases for the posts.

The Box of the Agreement

37 Bezalel made the Holy Box* from acacia wood. The Box was 2 1/2 cubits* long, 1 1/2 cubits* wide, and 1 1/2 cubits high. 2 He covered the inside and outside of the Box with pure gold. Then he put gold trim around the Box. 3 He made four rings of gold and put them on the four corners. These rings were used for carrying the Box. There were two rings on each side. 4 Then he made the poles for carrying the Box. He used acacia wood and covered the poles with pure gold. 5 He put the poles through the rings on each side of the Box. 6 Then he made the cover* from pure gold. It was 2 1/2 cubits long and 1 1/2 cubits wide. 7 Then Bezalel hammered gold to make two Cherub angels. He put the Cherub angels* on each end of the cover. 8 He put one angel on one end of the cover, and he put the other angel on the other end. The angels were joined together with the cover to make one piece. 9 The wings of the angels were spread up toward the sky. The angels covered the Box with their wings. The angels faced each other, looking toward the cover.

The Special Table

10 Then he made the table from acacia wood. The table was 2 cubits* long, 1 cubit* wide, and 1 1/2 cubits* high. 11 He covered the table with pure gold. He put gold trim around the table. 12 Then he made a frame 1 handbreadth* wide around the table. He put

---

1 1/2 cubits 2' 7" (78.75cm).
Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle,” the tent where God came to live among his people.
linen Thread or cloth made from the fibers of the flax plant.
Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.
curtain rods Or, “fasteners.”
bronze A metal. The Hebrew word can mean “copper,” “brass,” or “brass.”
Holy Box The Box of the Agreement—the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.
2 1/2 cubits 4' 3 5/8" (131.25cm).
cover Also called, “mercy seat.” The Hebrew word can mean “lid,” “cover” or “the place where sins are forgiven.”
2 cubits 3' 5 5/16" (105cm).
1 cubit 1' 8 5/8" (52.5cm).
1 handbreadth The width of 4 fingers, about 3" (7.7cm).
gold trim on the frame. Then he made four gold rings and put them at the four corners of the table, where the four legs were. He put the rings close to the frame around the top of the table. The rings were to hold the poles used to carry the table. Then he used acacia wood to make the poles for carrying the table. He covered the poles with pure gold. Then he made all the things that were used on the table. He made the plates, the spoons, the bowls, and the pitchers from pure gold. The bowls and pitchers are used for pouring the drink offerings.

The Lampstand

Then he made the lampstand. He used pure gold and hammered it to make the base and the shaft. Then he made flowers, buds, and petals. He joined all these things together into one piece. The lampstand had six branches—three branches on one side and three branches on the other side. Each branch had three flowers on it. These flowers were made like almond flowers with buds and petals. The shaft of the lampstand had four more flowers. They were also made like almond flowers with buds and petals. There were six branches—three branches coming out from each side of the shaft. And there was a flower with buds and petals below each of the three places where the branches joined the shaft. The whole lampstand, with the flowers and branches, was made from pure gold. All this gold was hammerd and joined together into one piece. He made seven lamps for this lampstand. Then he made wick trimmers and trays from pure gold.

The Altar for Burning Incense

Then Bezalel used acacia wood to build the altar. This was the altar used for burning offerings. The altar was square. It was 1 cubit long, 1 cubit wide, and 2 cubits high. There were four horns on the altar. There was one horn on each corner. These horns were joined together with the altar to make one piece. He covered the top and all the sides and the horns with pure gold. Then he put gold trim around the altar. He made two gold rings for the altar. He put the gold rings below the trim on each side of the altar. These gold rings held the poles for carrying the altar. He made the poles from acacia wood and covered them with gold. Then he made the holy anointing oil. He also made the pure, sweet-smelling incense. These things were made the same way that a perfume maker would make them.

The Altar for Burning Offerings

Then Bezalel used acacia wood to build the altar. This was the altar used for burning offerings. The altar was square. It was 5 cubits long, 5 cubits wide, and 3 cubits high. He made a horn for each of the four corners of the altar. He joined each horn to its corner so that everything was one piece. He covered the altar with bronze. Then he used bronze to make all the tools to be used on the altar. He made the pots, shovels, bowls, forks, and pans. Then he made a bronze grating for the altar. This grating was shaped like a net. The grating was put under the ledge at the bottom of the altar. It went halfway up into the altar from below. Then he made bronze rings. These rings were used to hold the poles for carrying the altar. He put the rings at the four corners of the grating. Then he used acacia wood to make the poles and covered them with bronze. He put the poles through the rings on the sides of the altar. The poles were used for carrying the altar. He used boards to make the sides of the altar. It was hollow, like an empty box.
8He made the bowl and its base with bronze.* He used the bronze mirrors that the women gave. These were the women that served at the entrance to the Meeting Tent.*

The Courtyard Around the Holy Tent
9Then he made a wall of curtains around the courtyard. On the south side he made a wall of curtains 100 cubits* long. The curtains were made from fine linen.* 10The curtains on the south side were supported by 20 posts. The posts were on 20 bronze* bases. The hooks for the posts and the curtain rods* were made from silver. 11The north side of the courtyard also had a wall of curtains 100 cubits long. There were 20 posts with 20 bronze bases. The hooks for the posts and the curtain rods were made from silver.

12On the west side of the courtyard the wall of curtains was 50 cubits* long. There were 10 posts and 10 bases. The hooks for the posts and the curtain rods were made from silver.

13The east side of the courtyard was 50 cubits wide. The entrance to the courtyard was on this side. 14On one side of the entrance the wall of curtains was 15 cubits* long. There were three posts and three bases on this side. 15The wall of curtains on the other side of the entrance was also 15 cubits long. There were three posts and three bases on that side. 16All the curtains around the courtyard were made from fine linen.* 17The bases for the posts were made from bronze*. The hooks and the curtain rods were made from silver. The tops of the posts were covered with silver also. All the posts in the courtyard had silver curtain rods.

18The curtain for the entrance of the courtyard was made from fine linen* and blue, purple, and red yarn. Designs were woven into that curtain. The curtain was 20 cubits* long and 5 cubits* high. It was the same height as the curtains around the courtyard. 19The curtain was supported by four posts and four bronze* bases. The hooks on the posts were made from silver. The tops on the posts were covered with silver, and the curtain rods* were also made from silver. 20All the tent pegs for the Holy Tent* and for the curtains around the courtyard were made from bronze.

21Moses commanded the Levite people to write down all the things that were used to make the Holy Tent,* that is, the Tent of the Agreement.* Ithamar son of Aaron, was in charge of keeping the list.

22Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, from the family group of Judah, made everything the Lord commanded Moses. 23Also Oholiab son of Ahisamach, from the family group of Dan, helped him. Oholiab was a skilled worker and designer. He was skilled at weaving fine linen* and blue, purple, and red yarn.

24More than 2 tons* of gold was given as an offering to the Lord for his holy place. (This was weighed using the official measure.) 25The total number of men that were counted gave more than 3 3/4 tons of silver. (This was weighed using the official measure.) 26All the men 20 years old or older were counted. There were 603,550 men, and each man had to pay a tax of 1 beqa of silver. (Using the official measure, a beqa is 1/5 of an ounce.) 27They used 3 3/4 tons of that silver to make the 100 bases for the Lord’s holy place and for the curtain. They used 75 pounds of silver for each base. 28The other 50 pounds* of silver was used to make bronze A metal. The Hebrew word can mean “copper,” “brass,” or “bronze.”

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle), where the people of Israel went to meet with God.
100 cubits 172’ 3” (52.5m).
linen Thread or cloth made from the fibers of the flax plant.
curtain rods Or, “fasteners.”
50 cubits 86’ 1 1/2’’ (26.25m).
15 cubits 25’ 10” (7.875m).
20 cubits 34’ 5 3/8” (10.5m).
5 cubits 8’ 7 5/16” (2.625m).
Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle,” the tent where God came to live among his people.
Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The two flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them. These were proof of the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.
2 tons Literally, “29 kikars and 730 shekels.”
official measure Literally, “holy shekel,” the official standard of measure used in the tabernacle or temple.
3 3/4 tons Literally, “100 kikars and 1,775 shekels.”
1 beqa Or, “1/5 of an ounce.”
shelkel Or, “2/5 of an ounce.”
75 pounds Literally, “1 kikar.”
50 pounds Literally, “1,775 shekels.”
of the sons of Israel on these stones. Then they put these jewels on the shoulder pieces of the Ephod. These jewels were to help God to remember the people of Israel. This was done like the Lord commanded Moses.

The Judgment Pouch

⁸Then they made the Judgment Pouch. It was the work of a skilled person, just like the Ephod. It was made from gold threads, fine linen, and blue, purple, and red yarn. The Judgment Pouch was folded in half to make a square pocket. It was 1 span long and 1 span wide. Then the workers put four rows of beautiful jewels on the Judgment Pouch. The first row had a ruby, a topaz, and a beryl. The second row had a turquoise, a sapphire, and an emerald. The third row had a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst. The fourth row had a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper. All these jewels were set in gold. There were twelve jewels on the Judgment Pouch—one jewel for each of the sons of Israel (Jacob). Each stone had the name of one of the sons of Israel carved onto it, like a seal.

¹⁵The workers made two chains from pure gold for the Judgment Pouch. The chains were braided like a rope. The workers made two gold rings and fastened them to two corners of the Judgment Pouch. They made two gold settings for the shoulder pieces. They fastened the gold chains to the rings at the corners of the Judgment Pouch. They fastened the other ends of the gold chains to the settings on the shoulder pieces. They fastened these to the front of the Ephod. Then they made two more gold rings and put them on the other two corners of the Judgment Pouch. This was on the inside edge of the Judgment Pouch next to the Ephod. They also put two gold rings on the bottom of the shoulder pieces on the front of the Ephod. These rings were near the fastener, just above the hooks, the curtain rods, and the silver covering for the posts.

²⁰More than 26 1/2 tons of bronze was given to the Lord. That bronze was used to make the bases at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. They also used the bronze to make the altar and the bronze grating. And the bronze was used to make all the tools and dishes for the altar.

³¹The Priests’ Special Clothes

The workers used the blue, purple, and red yarn to make special clothes for the priest to wear when they served in the Lord’s holy place. They also made the special clothes for Aaron like the Lord had commanded Moses.

The Ephod

²They made the Ephod from gold thread, fine linen, and blue, purple, and red yarn. (They hammered the gold into thin strips. Then they wove the gold into the blue, purple, and red yarn and fine linen. This was the work of a very skilled person.) They made the shoulder pieces for the Ephod. They tied these shoulder pieces to the two corners of the Ephod. They wove the sash (belt) and fastened it to the Ephod. It was made the same way as the Ephod—they used gold thread, fine linen and blue, purple, and red yarn, just like the Lord commanded Moses.

⁶The workers put the onyx stones for the Ephod in gold settings. They wrote the names of the sons of Israel on these stones. Then they put these jewels on the shoulder pieces of the Ephod. These jewels were to help God to remember the people of Israel. This was done like the Lord commanded Moses.

The Judgment Pouch

²⁸Then they made the Judgment Pouch. It was the work of a skilled person, just like the Ephod. It was made from gold threads, fine linen, and blue, purple, and red yarn. The Judgment Pouch was folded in half to make a square pocket. It was 1 span long and 1 span wide. Then the workers put four rows of beautiful jewels on the Judgment Pouch. The first row had a ruby, a topaz, and a beryl. The second row had a turquoise, a sapphire, and an emerald. The third row had a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst. The fourth row had a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper. All these jewels were set in gold. There were twelve jewels on the Judgment Pouch—one jewel for each of the sons of Israel (Jacob). Each stone had the name of one of the sons of Israel carved onto it, like a seal.

¹⁵The workers made two chains from pure gold for the Judgment Pouch. The chains were braided like a rope. The workers made two gold rings and fastened them to two corners of the Judgment Pouch. And they made two gold settings for the shoulder pieces. They fastened the gold chains to the rings at the corners of the Judgment Pouch. They fastened the other ends of the gold chains to the settings on the shoulder pieces. They fastened these to the front of the Ephod. Then they made two more gold rings and put them on the other two corners of the Judgment Pouch. This was on the inside edge of the Judgment Pouch next to the Ephod. They also put two gold rings on the bottom of the shoulder pieces on the front of the Ephod. These rings were near the fastener, just above the hooks, the curtain rods, and the silver covering for the posts.

²⁰More than 26 1/2 tons of bronze was given to the Lord. That bronze was used to make the bases at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. They also used the bronze to make the altar and the bronze grating. And the bronze was used to make all the tools and dishes for the altar.

³¹The Priests’ Special Clothes

The workers used the blue, purple, and red yarn to make special clothes for the priest to wear when they served in the Lord’s holy place. They also made the special clothes for Aaron like the Lord had commanded Moses.

The Ephod

²They made the Ephod from gold thread, fine linen, and blue, purple, and red yarn. (They hammered the gold into thin strips. Then they cut the gold into long threads. And they wove the gold into the blue, purple, and red yarn and fine linen. This was the work of a very skilled person.) They made the shoulder pieces for the Ephod. They tied these shoulder pieces to the two corners of the Ephod. They wove the sash (belt) and fastened it to the Ephod. It was made the same way as the Ephod—they used gold thread, fine linen and blue, purple, and red yarn, just like the Lord commanded Moses.

⁶The workers put the onyx stones for the Ephod in gold settings. They wrote the names of the sons of Israel on these stones. Then they put these jewels on the shoulder pieces of the Ephod. These jewels were to help God to remember the people of Israel. This was done like the Lord commanded Moses.
Then they used a blue ribbon and tied the rings of the Judgment Pouch to the rings of the Ephod. In this way the Judgment Pouch would rest close to the sash and would be held tight against the Ephod. They did everything just like the Lord commanded.

Other Clothes for the Priests

Then they made the robe for the Ephod.* They made it from blue cloth. It was woven by a skilled worker. They made a hole in the center of the robe and sewed a piece of cloth around the edge of this hole. This cloth kept the hole from tearing.

Then they used fine linen* and blue, purple, and red yarn to make the cloth pomegranates.* They hung these pomegranates around the bottom edge of the robe. Then they made bells from pure gold. They hung these bells around the bottom edge of the robe between the pomegranates. Around the bottom edge of the robe there were bells and pomegranates. There was a bell between each pomegranate. This robe was for the priest to wear when he served the Lord, just like the Lord commanded Moses.

Skilled workers wove shirts for Aaron and his sons. These shirts were made from fine linen.* And the workers made a turban* from fine linen. They also used fine linen to make head bands and underclothes. Then they made the sash (belt) from fine linen and blue, purple, and red yarn. Designs were sewn into the cloth. These things were made like the Lord had commanded Moses.

Then they made the strip of gold for the holy crown. They made it from pure gold. They wrote words into the gold. They wrote these words: HOLY TO THE LORD. Then they tied the blue ribbon around the turban* like the Lord had commanded Moses.

Moses Inspects the Holy Tent

So all the work on the Holy Tent,* that is, the Meeting Tent was finished. The people of Israel did everything exactly like the Lord had commanded Moses. Then they showed the Holy Tent to Moses. They showed him the Tent and all the things in it. They showed him the rings, the frames, the braces, the posts, and the bases. They showed him the covering of the Tent that was made from ram skins dyed red. And they showed him the covering that was made from fine leather.* And they showed him the curtain that covered the entrance to the Most Holy Place.

They showed Moses the Box of the Agreement.* They showed him the poles used for carrying the Box and they showed him the cover* for the Box. They showed him the table with everything on it and the special bread.* They showed him the pure gold lampstand and the lamps on it. And they showed him the oil and all the other things that were used with the lamps. They showed Moses the gold altar,* the anointing oil,* the sweet-smelling incense,* and the curtain that covered the entrance to the Tent. They showed him the bronze* altar and the bronze screen. They showed him the poles used for carrying the altar. And they showed him all the things that were used on the altar. They showed him the bowl and the base under the bowl.

---

Ephod A special coat worn by the priests.

linen Thread or cloth made from the fibers of the flax plant.

pomegranates A red fruit about the size of an orange.

turban Head covering made by wrapping a long piece of cloth around the head or around a cap worn on the head.

Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle,” the tent where God came to live among his people.

fine leather A special kind of leather made from the skin of an animal like a seal or sea cow.

Box of the Agreement Or, “ark of the Covenant.” The box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

cover Also called “mercy seat.” The Hebrew word can mean “lid,” “cover,” or “the place where sins are forgiven.”

special bread Also called “Bread of the Presence.” Every day this bread was put before God on the special table in the Holy Place.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

anointing oil Fine olive oil that was poured on things or people to show that they were chosen for a special work or purpose.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

bronze A metal. The Hebrew word can mean “copper,” “bronze,” or “brass.”
40 They showed Moses the wall of curtains around the courtyard with the posts and bases. They showed him the curtain that covered the entrance to the courtyard. They showed him the ropes and the tent pegs. They showed him all the things in the Holy Tent, that is, the Meeting Tent.

41 Then they showed Moses the clothes that were made for the priests serving in the holy area. They showed him the special clothes for Aaron the priest and his sons. These were clothes for them to wear when they served as priests.

42 The people of Israel did all this work exactly like the Lord had commanded Moses. Moses saw that the work was done exactly like the Lord had commanded. So Moses blessed them.

Moses Sets Up the Holy Tent

40 Then the Lord said to Moses, “On the first day of the first month, set up the Holy Tent, that is, the Meeting Tent. Put the Box of the Agreement in the Holy Tent. Cover the Box with the curtain. Then bring in the table. Put the things on the table that should be there. Then put the lampstand in the Tent. Put the lamps on the lampstand in the right places. Put the gold altar for offering incense in the Tent. Put the altar in front of the Box of the Agreement. Then put the curtain at the entrance to the Holy Tent.

“Put the altar for burning offerings in front of the entrance of the Holy Tent, that is, the Meeting Tent. Put the bowl between the Meeting Tent and the altar. Put water in the bowl. Set up the wall of curtains around the courtyard. Then put the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard.

9 “Use the anointing oil and anoint the Holy Tent and everything in it. When you put the oil on these things, you will make them holy. Anoint the altar for burning offerings. Anoint everything on the altar. You will make the altar holy. It will be very holy.

11 Then anoint the bowl and the base under it. Do this to make those things holy.

12 “Bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Meeting Tent. Wash them with water. Then put the special clothes on Aaron. Anoint him with the oil and make him holy. Then he can serve me as a priest. Then put the clothes on his sons. Anoint the sons in the same way that you anointed their father. They can also serve me as priests. When you anoint them, they will become priests. That family will continue to be priests for all time to come.” 16 Moses obeyed the Lord. He did everything that the Lord commanded him.

17 So the Holy Tent was set up at the right time. It was the first day of the first month during the second year from the time they left Egypt. Moses set up the Holy Tent like the Lord had said. He put the bases down first. Then he put the frames on the bases. Then he put the braces on and set up the posts. After that, Moses put the outer tent over the Holy Tent. Then he put the covering over the outer tent. He did these things like the Lord had commanded.

20 Moses took the Agreement and put it in the Holy Box. Moses put the poles on the Box. Then he put the cover on the Box. Then Moses put the Holy Box into the Holy Tent. He hung the curtain in the right place to protect it. In this way, he protected the Box of the Agreement behind the curtain like the Lord had commanded him. Then Moses put the table in the Meeting Tent. He put it on Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle,” the tent where God came to live among his people. It is often called the “Meeting Tent.”

Box of the Agreement Or, “ark of the Covenant.” The box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

anoint To pour olive oil on things or people to show they are chosen by God for a special work or purpose.

holy Set aside or chosen for a special purpose.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle), where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The two flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them. These were proof of the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.

cover Also called “mercy seat.” The Hebrew word can mean “lid,” “cover” or “the place where sins are forgiven.”
EXODUS 40:23–38

the north side of the Holy Tent. He put it in the Holy Place, in front of the curtain. Then he put the bread on the table before the Lord. He did this like the Lord had commanded him. Then Moses put the lampstand in the Meeting Tent. He put the lampstand on the south side of the Tent, across from the table. Then Moses put the lamps on the lampstand before the Lord. He did this like the Lord had commanded him.

Then Moses put the gold altar in the Meeting Tent. He put the altar in front of the curtain. Then he burned sweet-smelling incense on the altar. He did this like the Lord had commanded him. Then Moses put the curtain at the entrance to the Holy Tent.

Then Moses put the altar for burning offerings at the entrance to the Holy Tent, that is, the Meeting Tent. Then Moses offered a burnt offering on that altar. He also offered grain offerings to the Lord. He did these things like the Lord had commanded him.

Then Moses put the bowl between the Meeting Tent and the altar. Moses put water in the bowl for washing. Moses, Aaron, and Aaron’s sons used this bowl to wash their hands and feet. They washed themselves every time they entered the Meeting Tent. They also washed themselves every time they went near the altar. They did these things like the Lord commanded Moses.

Then Moses set up the curtains around the courtyard of the Holy Tent. Moses put the altar in the courtyard. Then he put the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard. So Moses finished all the work that the Lord had given him to do.

The Glory of the Lord

Then the cloud covered the Meeting Tent and the Glory of the Lord filled the Holy Tent. Moses could not go into the Holy Tent because the cloud had settled on it, and the Glory of the Lord had filled the Holy Tent.

This was the cloud that showed the people when to move. When the cloud rose from the Holy Tent, the people of Israel would begin to travel. But when the cloud stayed on the Holy Tent, the people did not try to move. They stayed in that place until the cloud rose. So the cloud of the Lord was over the Holy Tent during the day. And at night, there was a fire in the cloud. So all the people of Israel could see the cloud while they traveled.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle), where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle,” the tent where God came to live among his people.

Glory of the Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. It was like a bright shining light.
Leviticus

Sacrifices and Offerings

1 The Lord God called to Moses and spoke to him from the Meeting Tent.* The Lord said, 2 “Tell the people of Israel: When you bring an offering to the Lord, the offering must be one of your tame animals—it can be a cow, a sheep, or a goat.

3 “When a person offers one of his cows as a burnt offering, then that animal must be a bull that has nothing wrong with it. The person must take the animal to the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* Then the Lord will accept the offering. 4 The person must put his hand on the animal’s head while it is being killed. The Lord will accept that burnt offering as payment to make that person pure.*

5 “The person must kill the young bull in front of the Lord. Then Aaron’s sons, the priests, must bring the blood to the altar* near the entrance of the Meeting Tent* and sprinkle the blood on the altar, all around it. 6 The priest must cut the skin from that animal and then cut the animal into pieces. 7 Aaron’s sons, the priests, must put fire on the altar and then stack wood on the fire. 8 Aaron’s sons, the priests, must lay the pieces (the head and the fat) on the wood that is on the fire on the altar. 9 The priest must wash the legs and inside parts of the animal with water. Then the priest must burn all the animal’s parts on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire. Its smell pleases the Lord.

10 “When a person offers a sheep or a goat as a burnt offering, then that animal must be a male animal that has nothing wrong with it. 11 The person must kill the animal on the north side of the altar* in front of the Lord. Then Aaron’s sons, the priests, must sprinkle the animal’s blood on the altar, all around it. 12 Then the priest must cut the animal into pieces. The priest must lay the pieces (the head and the fat) on the wood that is on the fire on the altar. 13 The priest must wash the legs and inside parts of the animal with water. Then the priest must offer all the animal’s parts. He must burn the animal on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire. Its smell pleases the Lord.

14 “When a person offers a bird as a burnt offering to the Lord, then that bird must be a dove or a young pigeon. 15 The priest must bring the offering to the altar.* The priest must pull off the bird’s head and burn the bird on the altar. The bird’s blood must be drained out on the side of the altar. 16 The priest must remove the bird’s crop* and feathers and throw them on the east side of the altar. This is the place where they put the ashes from the altar. 17 Then the priest must tear the bird by its wings, but he must not divide the bird into two parts. The priest must burn the bird on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire. Its smell pleases the Lord.

Grain Offerings

2 “When a person gives a grain offering to the Lord God, his offering must be made from fine flour. The person must pour oil on make ... pure  Or, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

Meeting Tent  The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

altar  A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

crop  A small bag inside a bird’s throat. When a bird eats, its food goes into this bag first to be made soft.
LEVITICUS 2:2–3:9

114

this flour and put frankincense* on it. Then he must bring it to Aaron’s sons, the priests. He must take a handful of the fine flour with the oil and frankincense in it. Then the priest must burn this memorial offering on the altar.* It is an offering made by fire. Its smell pleases the Lord. 3The grain offering that is left will belong to Aaron and his sons. This offering made by fire to the Lord is very holy.

Baked Grain Offerings

4“When a person gives a grain offering that was baked in the oven, then it must be unleavened bread* made from fine flour mixed with oil or wafers* with oil poured over them. 5If you bring a grain offering cooked in a baking pan, then it must be made from fine flour mixed with oil but without yeast. 6You must break it into pieces and pour oil over it. It is a grain offering. 7If you bring a grain offering cooked in a frying pan, then it must be made from fine flour mixed with oil.

8“You must bring grain offerings made from these things to the Lord. You must take those things to the priest, and he will put them on the altar.* 9Then the priest will take part of the grain offering, and burn this memorial offering on the altar. It is an offering made by fire. Its smell pleases the Lord. 10The grain offering that is left will belong to Aaron and his sons. This offering made by fire to the Lord is very holy.

11“You must not give any grain offering to the Lord that has yeast in it. You must not burn yeast or honey as an offering made by fire to the Lord. 12You may bring yeast and honey to the Lord as an offering from the first harvest. But yeast and honey must not be burned to go up as a sweet smell on the altar.* 13You must also put salt on every grain offering you bring. You must not let the salt of God’s Agreement be missing from your grain offering. You must bring salt with all your offerings.

Grain Offerings from First Harvest

14“When you bring a grain offering from the first harvest to the Lord, you must bring roasted heads of grain. They must be crushed heads of fresh grain. This will be your grain offering from the first harvest. 15You must put oil and frankincense* on it. It is a grain offering. 16The priest must burn part of the crushed grain, the oil, and all the frankincense on it as the memorial offering. It is an offering by fire to the Lord.

Fellowship Offerings

3“When a person gives a sacrifice as a fellowship offering, the animal can be a cow and the animal can be a male or a female. But the animal must have nothing wrong with it. 2The person must put his hand on the animal’s head and kill the animal at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* Then Aaron’s sons, the priests, must sprinkle the blood on the altar,* all around it. 3The fellowship offering is an offering made by fire to the Lord. The priest must offer the fat that is in and around the animal’s inside parts. 4The person must offer the two kidneys and the fat covering them near the lower back muscle. He must also offer the fat part of the liver. He must remove it with the kidneys. 5Then Aaron’s sons will burn the fat on the altar. They will put it on the burnt offering that is on the wood on the fire. It is an offering by fire. Its smell pleases the Lord.

6“When a person gives a sheep or a goat as a fellowship offering to the Lord, the animal can be a male or a female animal. But it must have nothing wrong with it. 7If he brings a lamb as his offering, then he must bring it before the Lord. 8He must put his hand on the animal’s head and kill the animal in front of the Meeting Tent.* Then Aaron’s sons must sprinkle the animal’s blood on the altar,* all around it. 9The person must give part of the fellowship offering as an offering made by fire to the Lord. The person must offer the fat, the whole fat tail, and the fat that is on and around frankincense Very special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

---

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

unleavened bread Bread made without yeast.

wafers A thin bread, like crackers, made without yeast.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.
the animal’s inside parts. (He must cut off the tail close to the backbone.) 10The person must offer the two kidneys and the fat covering them near the lower back muscles. He must also offer the fat part of the liver. He must remove it with the kidneys. 11Then the priest must burn them on the altar. The fellowship offering is an offering made by fire to the Lord. But it will also be food for the people.

A Goat as a Fellowship Offering

12“If the offering is a goat, then the person must bring it before the Lord. 13The person must put his hand on the goat’s head and kill it in front of the Meeting Tent.* Then Aaron’s son must sprinkle the goat’s blood on the altar,* all around it. 14The person must give part of the fellowship offering as an offering made by fire to the Lord. The person must offer the fat that is on and around the animal’s inside parts. 15The person must offer the two kidneys and the fat covering them near the lower back muscle. He must also offer the fat part of the liver. He must remove it with the kidneys. 16Then the priest must burn them on the altar. The fellowship offering is an offering made by fire. Its smell pleases the Lord. It is also food for the people—but the best parts belomg to the Lord. 17This rule will continue forever through all your generations. Wherever you live, you must never eat fat or blood.”

Offerings for Accidental Sins

4The Lord spoke to Moses. The Lord said, 2“Tell the people of Israel: If any person sins by accident and does any of the things that the Lord said must not be done, then that person must do these things: 3If the anointed priest* makes a mistake in a way that leaves the people guilty for their sin, then the priest must make an offering to the Lord for his sin. The priest must offer a young bull that has nothing wrong with it. He must offer the young bull to the Lord as a sin offering. 4The anointed priest must bring the bull to the entrance of the Meeting Tent* in front of the Lord. He must put his hand on the bull’s head and kill the bull in front of the Lord. 5Then the anointed priest* must get some of the blood from the bull and take it into the Meeting Tent. 6The priest must put his finger in the blood and sprinkle the blood seven times before the Lord in front of the curtain of the Most Holy Place.* 7The priest must pour out all of the bull’s blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering. (This altar is at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.) 8And he must take all the fat from the bull of the sin offering. He must take the fat that is on and around the inside parts. 9He must take the two kidneys and the fat covering them near the lower back muscle. He must also take the fat part of the liver. He must remove it with the kidneys. 10The priest must offer these parts just like they are offered from the bull of the fellowship offering. 11–12But the priest must carry out the bull’s skin, inside parts and body waste, and all the meat on its head and legs. The priest must carry those parts outside the camp to the special place where the ashes are poured out. The priest must put those parts there on the wood and burn them. The bull must be burned where the ashes are poured out.

13“It may happen that the whole nation of Israel sins without knowing it. They might have done any of the things that the Lord has commanded them not to do. If this happens, they will become guilty. 14If they learn about that sin, then they must offer a young bull as a sin offering for the whole nation. They must bring the bull to the Meeting Tent.\textsuperscript{15} The elders (leaders) of the people must put their hands on the bull’s head in front of the Lord, and then a person must kill the bull in front of the Lord. \textsuperscript{16} Then the anointed priest\textsuperscript{a} must get some of the bull’s blood and take it into the Meeting Tent. \textsuperscript{17} The priest must put his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times in front of the curtain before the Lord. \textsuperscript{18} Then the priest must put some of the blood on the corners of the altar.\textsuperscript{b} (This altar is in the Meeting Tent, in front of the Lord.) The priest must pour out all the blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering. (This altar is at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.) \textsuperscript{19} Then the priest must take all the fat from the animal and burn it on the altar. \textsuperscript{20} The priest must offer these parts just like he offered the bull of the sin offering.\textsuperscript{c} In this way, the priest will make the people pure.\textsuperscript{d} And God will forgive the people of Israel. \textsuperscript{21} The priest must carry this bull outside the camp and burn it, just like he burned the other bull. This is the sin offering for the whole community.

\textsuperscript{22} “A ruler might sin by accident and do one of the things the Lord his God said must not be done. The ruler will be guilty of doing wrong. \textsuperscript{23} If the ruler learns about his sin, then he must bring a male goat that has nothing wrong with it. That will be his offering. \textsuperscript{24} The ruler must put his hand on the goat’s head and kill the goat at the place where they kill the burnt offering. The goat is a sin offering. \textsuperscript{25} The priest must put some of the goat’s blood on his finger and put it on the corners of the altar of burnt offering. Then the priest must pour out the rest of the goat’s blood at the base of the altar. \textsuperscript{26} The priest must offer all the goat’s fat, just like the fat is offered from the fellowship offerings. The priest must burn it on the altar as a sweet smell to the Lord. In this way, the priest will make that person pure.\textsuperscript{e} And God will forgive that person.

\textsuperscript{32} “If that person brings a lamb as his sin offering, then he must bring a female lamb that has nothing wrong with it. \textsuperscript{33} The person must put his hand on the animal’s head and kill it as a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering. \textsuperscript{34} The priest must take some of the blood from the sin offering on his finger and put it on the corners of the altar of burnt offering. Then the priest must pour out all the lamb’s blood at the base of the altar. \textsuperscript{35} The priest must offer all the lamb’s fat, just like the fat of the lamb is offered from the fellowship offerings. The priest must burn it on the altar, just like any offering made by fire to the Lord. In this way, the priest will make that person pure\textsuperscript{f} from the sin he did. And God will forgive that person.

\textbf{Different Accidental Sins}

\textsuperscript{5} “A person might hear a warning. Or a person might see or hear something that he should tell to other people. If that person does not tell what he saw or heard, then that person is guilty of doing wrong. \textsuperscript{2} Or a person might touch something unclean.\textsuperscript{g} It might be the different.

\textbf{Meeting Tent} The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.
\textbf{anointed priest} The priest chosen to serve at a particular time. The priests took turns. Special oil was poured on the one chosen to show that God chose him to serve.
\textbf{altar} A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
\textbf{like ... sin offering} See Lev. 4:3–12.
\textbf{make ... pure} Or, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”
\textbf{unclean} Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
dead body of a tame animal, or it might be the dead body of an unclean animal. That person might not know that he touched those things, but he will still be guilty of doing wrong.

3 There are many things that come from a person that make a person unclean. A person might touch any of these things from another person, but not know about it. When that person learns that he has touched something unclean, he will be guilty. 4 Or a person might make a quick promise to do something—it makes no difference if it is bad or good.
People make many kinds of quick promises.
A person might make such a promise and forget it.* When he remembers* his promise, then he will be guilty, because he didn’t keep his promise. 5 So, if a person is guilty of any of these things, then he must confess (admit) the thing he did wrong. 6 He must bring his guilt offering to the Lord for the sin he did.
He must bring a female lamb or a female goat as a sin offering. Then the priest will make that person pure* from the sin that person did.

7 If the person can’t afford a lamb, he must bring two doves or two young pigeons to the Lord. These will be the guilt offering for his sin. One bird must be for a sin offering, and the other must be for a burnt offering. 8 The person must bring them to the priest. First, the priest will offer one bird for the sin offering.
The priest will pull off the bird’s head from its neck. But the priest will not divide the bird into two parts. 9 The priest must sprinkle the blood from the sin offering on the side of the altar.* Then the priest must pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar. It is a sin offering. 10 Then the priest must offer the second bird according to the rules for a burnt offering. In this way, the priest will make that person pure* from the sin that person did.
And God will forgive that person.

11 If the person can’t afford two doves or two pigeons, then he must bring 8 cups* of fine flour. This will be his sin offering. The person must not put oil on the flour. He must not put frankincense* on it, because it is a sin offering. 12 The person must bring the flour to the priest. The priest will take a handful of the flour. It will be a memorial offering. The priest will burn the flour on the altar.* It will be an offering made by fire to the Lord. It is a sin offering. 13 In this way, the priest will make that person pure.* And God will forgive that person. The part that is left will belong to the priest, just like the grain offering.”

14 The Lord said to Moses, 15 “A person might accidentally do something wrong with the holy things of the Lord.* Then that person must bring a ram that has nothing wrong with it. This will be his guilt offering to the Lord.
You must use the official measure* and set the price of the ram. 16 That person must pay for the sin he did with the holy things. He must give the things he promised, add one-fifth to the value, and give this money to the priest. In this way, the priest will make that person pure* with the ram of the guilt offering. And God will forgive that person.

17 If a person sins and does any of the things that the Lord has commanded not to be done, it does not matter if that person did not know. That person is guilty. That person must accept the responsibility for his sin. 18 That person must bring a ram that has nothing wrong with it to the priest. The ram will be a guilt offering. In this way, the priest will make that person pure* from the sin that person did without knowing. And God will forgive that person. 19 The person is guilty, even if he did not know he was sinning.* So he must give the guilt offering to the Lord.”

8 cups Literally, “1/10 of an ephah.”
frankincense Very special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.
altern A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
holy things … Lord These are probably special gifts that a person promised but forgot to give to the Lord.
official measure Literally, “holy shekel,” the official standard of measure used in the tabernacle or temple.

forget it Literally, “it is hid from him.”
remembers Literally, “knows of.”
make ... pure Or, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”
altern A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
The Lord said to Moses, "A person might do wrong against the Lord by doing one of these sins: A person might lie about what happened to something he was taking care of for someone else. Or a person might lie about a deposit he received. Or a person might steal something. Or a person might cheat someone. Or a person might find something that was lost and then lie about it. Or a person might promise to do something and then not do what he promised. Or a person might do some other bad thing. If a person does any of those things, then that person is guilty of sin. That person must bring back whatever he stole, or whatever he took by cheating, or whatever he took that the other person asked him to hold for him, or whatever he found and lied about, or whatever he made a false promise about. He must pay the full price. And then he must pay an extra fifth of the value of the thing. He must give the money to the true owner. He must do this on the day he brings his guilt offering.

That person must bring a guilt offering to the priest. It must be a ram from the flock. The ram must not have anything wrong with it. It must be worth the amount that the priest says. The priest will go to the Lord and do the things that will make that person pure. And God will forgive that person for all the things that made him guilty."

Burnt Offerings

The Lord said to Moses, "Give this command to Aaron and his sons: This is the law of the burnt offering. The burnt offering must stay on the hearth of the altar all night until morning. The altar’s fire must be kept burning on the altar. Fire must be kept burning on the altar without stopping. It must not go out.

Grain Offerings

This is the law of the grain offering: The sons of Aaron must bring it to the Lord in front of the altar. The priest must take a handful of the fine flour from the grain offering. The oil and the frankincense must be on the grain offering. The priest must burn the grain offering on the altar. It will be a memorial offering to the Lord. Its smell will please the Lord.

Aaron and his sons must eat the grain offering that is left. The grain offering is a kind of bread made without yeast. The priests must eat this bread in a holy place. They must eat it in the courtyard around the Meeting Tent. The grain offering must not be cooked with yeast. I have given it as the priests’ share of the offerings made to me by fire. It is most holy, like the sin offering and the guilt offering. Every male among the children of Aaron may eat from the offerings made to the Lord by fire. This is a rule forever through your generations. Touching these offerings makes those men holy."

The Priests’ Grain Offering

The Lord said to Moses, "This is the offering that Aaron and his sons must bring to the Lord. They must do this on the day they deposit a pledge or security. This is something like a down payment given as proof that something more important will be done.

make ... pure Or, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

hearth The place where a sacrifice is burned.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

deposit Literally, “pledge” or “security.” This is something like a down payment given as proof that something more important will be done.

make ... pure Or, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

hearth The place where a sacrifice is burned.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

Underwear The place where a sacrifice is burned.

Underwear The place where a sacrifice is burned.

frankincense Very special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.
anoint* Aaron {to be high priest}. They must bring 8 cups* of fine flour for a grain offering. (This will be offered at the times of the daily offering.) They must bring half of it in the morning and half of it in the evening. 21The fine flour must be mixed with oil and made on a baking pan. When it is cooked, then you must bring it in. You must break the offering into pieces. Its smell will please the Lord.

22 The priest from among Aaron’s descendants* that is chosen to take Aaron’s place must make this grain offering to the Lord. This rule will continue forever. The grain offering must be completely burned for the Lord.

23 Every grain offering of the priest must be completely burned. It must not be eaten."

The Law of the Sin Offering

24 The Lord said to Moses, 25“Tell Aaron and his sons: This is the law of the sin offering. The sin offering must be killed in the place where the burnt offering is killed before the Lord. It is most holy. 26 The priest that offers the sin offering must eat it. But he must eat it in a holy place, in the courtyard around the Meeting Tent.* 27 Touching the meat of the sin offering makes a person or a thing holy.

“If any of the sprinkled blood falls on a person’s clothes, then you must wash the clothes in a holy place. 28 If the sin offering was boiled in a clay pot, then the pot must be broken. If the sin offering was boiled in a bronze* pot, then the pot must be washed and rinsed in water.

29 Any man in a priest’s family may eat the sin offering. It is very holy. 30 But if the blood of the sin offering was taken into the Meeting Tent* and used in the Holy Place to make {people} pure,* then that sin offering must not be eaten. It must be burned in the fire.

7 “These are the rules for the guilt offering. It is very holy. 2 A priest must kill the guilt offering in the same place where they kill the burnt offerings. Then the priest must sprinkle the blood from the guilt offering around the altar.* 3 The priest must offer all the fat from the guilt offering. He must offer the fat tail and the fat that covers the inside parts. 4 The priest must offer the two kidneys and the fat covering them at the lower back muscle. He must also offer the fat part of the liver. He must remove it with the kidneys. 5 The priest must burn all those things on the altar.* This will be an offering made by fire to the Lord. It is a guilt offering.

6 Any male in a priest’s family may eat the guilt offering. It is very holy, so it must be eaten in a holy place. 7 The guilt offering is like the sin offering. The same rules are for both offerings. The priest that does the sacrificing will get the meat for food. 8 The priest that does the sacrificing can also have the skin* from the burnt offering. 9 Every grain offering belongs to the priest that offers it. That priest will get the grain offerings that were baked in an oven, or cooked on a frying pan or a baking dish. 10 The grain offerings will belong to Aaron’s sons. It does not make any difference if they are dry or mixed with oil. The sons of Aaron (priests) will all share this food.

Fellowship Offerings

11 “This is the law of the sacrifice* of fellowship offerings that a person offers to the Lord: 12 The person may bring the fellowship offering to show his thanks. If he brings his sacrifice to give thanks, he should {also} bring unleavened bread* mixed with oil, wafers* with oil poured over them, and loaves of fine flour mixed with oil. 13 The fellowship offering is the offering that a person brings to show thanks to God. With that offering the person must bring another offering with loaves of bread made with yeast. 14 One of these loaves of bread will belong to the priest that sprinkles the blood of the fellowship offerings. 15 The meat of the fellowship offering must be eaten on the same day it is offered. A person offers this gift as a way of showing thanks to God. But none of the meat should remain the next morning.

16 “A person might bring a fellowship offering just because he wants to give a gift to God. Or maybe a person made a special promise to God. If this is true, then the sacrifice must be eaten the same day he offers it. If there is any left, then it must be eaten that next day. 17 But if any meat from this sacrifice is still left over on the third day, it must be burned in the fire. 18 If a person eats any of the meat from his fellowship offering on the third day, then the Lord will not be happy with that person. The Lord will not count the sacrifice for him. The sacrifice will become unclean. And if a person eats any of that meat, then that person will be responsible for his own sin.

19 “Also, people must not eat the meat that touches anything that is unclean. They must burn this meat in the fire. Every person who is clean may eat the meat from the fellowship offerings that belongs to the Lord, then that person must be separated from his people.

20 “A person might touch something that is unclean. That thing may have been made unclean by people, by an unclean animal, or by any unclean hated thing. That person will become unclean, and if he eats any of the meat from the fellowship offerings that belong to the Lord, then that person must be separated from his people.

21 “Tell the people of Israel: You must not eat any fat from cows, sheep, or goats. 22 You may use the fat from any animal that has died by itself, or was torn by other animals. But you must never eat it. 23 If any person eats the fat from an animal that was offered by fire to the Lord, then that person must be separated from his people.

24 “No matter where you live, you must never eat blood from any bird or any animal. 25 If a person eats any blood, then that person must be separated from his people.”

Rules for the Wave Offering

26 The Lord said to Moses, 27 “Tell the people of Israel: If a person brings a fellowship offering to the Lord, then that person must give a part of that gift to the Lord. 28 That part of the gift will be burnt in the fire. He must carry that part of the gift in his own hands. He must bring the fat and the breast of the animal to the priest. The breast will be lifted up in front of the Lord. This will be the wave offering. 29 Then the priest must burn the fat on the altar. But the breast of the animal will belong to Aaron and his sons.

30 You must also give the right thigh from the fellowship offering to the priest. 31 The right thigh from the fellowship offerings will belong to the priest who offers the blood and fat of the fellowship offering. 32 I (the Lord) am taking the breast of the wave offerings and the right thigh of the fellowship offerings from the people of Israel. And I am giving those things to Aaron and his sons. The people of Israel must obey this rule forever.”

33 Those are the parts from the offerings made by fire to the Lord that were given to Aaron and his sons. Whenever Aaron and his sons serve as the Lord’s priests, they get that share of the sacrifices. 34 At the time the Lord chose the priests, he commanded the people of Israel to give those parts to the priests. The people must give that share to the priests forever.

35 Those are the laws about burnt offerings, grain offerings, sin offerings, guilt offerings, fellowship offerings, and about the choosing of priests. 38 The Lord gave those laws to Moses on Mount Sinai. The Lord gave those laws on the day that he commanded the people of Israel to bring their offerings to the Lord in the Sinai desert.

Moses Makes the Priests Ready

8 Then Moses said to Moses, 2 “Take Aaron and his sons with him and the clothes, the anointing oil,* the bull of the sin offering, the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread.* 3 Then bring the people together at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.*

4 Moses did what the Lord commanded him. The people met together at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. 5 Then Moses said to the people, “This is the thing that the Lord has commanded must be done.”

6 Then Moses brought Aaron and his sons. He washed them with water. 7 Then Moses put the woven shirt on Aaron and tied the sash (belt) around him. Then Moses put the robe on Aaron. Moses next put the Ephod* on Aaron. Then Moses tied the beautiful sash (belt) on Aaron. In that way, Moses put the Ephod on Aaron. 8 Moses put the Judgment Pouch* on Aaron. Then he put the Urim and Thummim* in the pocket of the Judgment Pouch. 9 Moses also put the turban* on Aaron’s head. Moses put the strip of gold on the front of the turban. This strip of gold is the holy crown. Moses did this just like the Lord had commanded.

10 Then Moses took the anointing oil* and sprinkled it on the Holy Tent* and on all the things in it. In this way, Moses made them holy.* 11 Moses sprinkled some of the anointing oil on the altar* seven times. Moses sprinkled the oil on the altar and on all its tools and dishes. Moses also sprinkled the oil on the bowl and its base. In this way, Moses made them holy. 12 Then Moses poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron’s head. In this way, he made Aaron holy. 13 Then Moses brought Aaron’s sons and put the woven shirts on them. He tied sashes (belts) on them. Then he wrapped headbands on their heads. Moses did these things just like the Lord had commanded.

14 Then Moses brought the bull of the sin offering. Aaron and his sons put their hands on the head of the bull of the sin offering. 15 Then Moses killed the bull and collected its blood. Moses used his finger and put some of the blood on all the corners of the altar.* In this way, Moses made the altar ready for sacrifices. Then Moses poured out the blood at the base of the altar. In this way, Moses made the altar ready for sacrifices to make the people pure.* 16 Moses took all the fat from the inside parts of the bull. Moses took the fat part of the liver with the two kidneys and the fat on them. Then he burned them on the altar. 17 But Moses took the bull’s skin, its meat, and its body waste outside the camp. Moses burned those things in a fire outside the camp. Moses did those things like the Lord commanded him.

18 Then Moses brought the ram of the burnt offering. Aaron and his sons put their hands on the ram’s head. 19 Then Moses killed the ram. He sprinkled the blood around on the altar.* 20–21 Moses cut the ram into pieces. Moses washed the inside parts and legs with water. Then Moses burned the whole ram on the altar. Moses burned the head, the pieces, and the fat. It was a burnt offering made by fire. Its smell pleased the Lord. Moses did those things like the Lord commanded.

22 Then Moses brought the other ram. This ram was used for appointing Aaron and his sons to become priests. Aaron and his sons put their hands on the ram’s head. Then Moses killed the ram. He put some of its blood on the tip of Aaron’s ear, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of Aaron’s right foot. Then Moses brought Aaron’s sons close to the altar. Moses put some of the blood on the tip of their right ears, on the thumb of their right hands, and on the big toe of their right feet. Then Moses sprinkled the blood around on the altar. Moses took the fat, the fat tail, all the fat on the inside parts, the fat covering of the liver, the two kidneys and their fat, and the right thigh. A basket of unleavened bread is put before the Lord each day. Moses took one of those loaves of bread, and one loaf of bread mixed with oil, and one unleavened wafer. Moses put those pieces of bread on the fat and on the right thigh of the ram. Then Moses put all those things in the hands of Aaron and his sons. Moses waved the pieces as a wave offering before the Lord. Then Moses took these things from the hands of Aaron and his sons. Moses burned them on the altar on top of the burnt offering. So that was the offering for appointing Aaron and his sons as priests. It was an offering made by fire. Its smell pleased the Lord. Moses took the breast, and waved it for a wave offering in front of the Lord. It was Moses’ share of the ram for appointing the priests. This was like the Lord had commanded Moses.

God Accepts the Priests

On the eighth day, Moses called Aaron and his sons. He also called the elders (leaders) of Israel. Then Moses said to Aaron, “Take a bull and a ram. There must be nothing wrong with those animals. The bull will be a sin offering, and the ram will be a burnt offering. Offer those animals to the Lord. Tell the people of Israel, ‘Take a male goat for a sin offering. And take a calf and a lamb for a burnt offering. The calf and the lamb must each be one year old. There must be nothing wrong with those animals. Take a bull and a ram for fellowship offerings. Take those animals and a grain offering mixed with oil, and offer those things to the Lord. Why? Because today the Lord will appear to you.’”

So all the people came to the Meeting Tent. They all brought the things that Moses had commanded. All the people stood before the Lord. In this way, Moses made Aaron, his clothes, his sons, and his sons’ clothes holy. Then Moses said to Aaron and his sons, “Do you remember my command? I said, ‘Aaron and his sons must eat these things.’ So take the basket of bread and meat from the ceremony for choosing the priests. Boil that meat at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. Eat the meat and bread at that place. Do this like I told you. If any of the meat or bread is left, then burn it. The ceremony for choosing the priests will last for seven days. You must not leave the entrance of the Meeting Tent until that time is finished. The Lord has commanded to do the things that were done today. He commanded these things to make you pure. You must stay at the entrance of the Meeting Tent day and night for seven days. If you don’t obey the Lord’s commands, then you will die! The Lord gave me those commands.”

So Aaron and his sons did all the things that the Lord had commanded Moses.

altar  A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
unleavened bread  Bread made without yeast.
wafers  A thin bread, like crackers, made without yeast.
anointing oil  Olive oil that was poured on things or people to show that they were chosen for a special work or purpose.
holy  Set aside or chosen for a special purpose.
Meeting Tent  The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel came to meet with God.
make ... pure  Or, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”
Glory of the Lord  One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. It was like a bright, shining light.
altar* and offer sin offerings and burnt offerings. Do those things that will make you and the people pure.* Take the people’s sacrifices and do the things that will make them pure.”

8So Aaron went to the altar.* He killed the bull for the sin offering. This sin offering was for himself. 9Then the sons of Aaron brought the blood to Aaron. Aaron put his finger in the blood and put it on the corners of the altar. Then Aaron poured out the blood at the base of the altar. 10Aaron took the fat, the kidneys, and the fat part of the liver from the sin offering. He burned those things on the altar just like the Lord had commanded Moses. 11Then Aaron burned the meat and skin on a fire outside the camp.

12Next, Aaron killed the animal for the burnt offering. The animal was cut into pieces. Aaron’s sons brought the blood to Aaron. And Aaron sprinkled the blood around on the altar.* 13Aaron’s sons gave the pieces and head of the burnt offering to Aaron. Then Aaron burned them on the altar. 14Aaron also washed the inside parts and the legs of the burnt offering. And he burned them on the altar.

15Then Aaron brought the people’s offering. He killed the goat of the sin offering that was for the people. He offered the goat for sin, like the first. 16Aaron brought the burnt offering and offered it, like the Lord had commanded. 17Aaron brought the grain offering to the altar.* He took a handful of the grain and put it on the altar beside that morning’s daily sacrifice.

18Aaron also killed the bull and the ram, the sacrifice of fellowship offerings for the people. Aaron’s sons brought the blood to Aaron. Aaron sprinkled this blood around on the altar.* 19Aaron’s sons also brought to Aaron the fat of the bull and the ram. They brought the fat tail, the fat covering the inside parts, the kidneys and the fat part of the liver. 20Aaron’s sons put these fat parts on the breasts of the bull and the ram. Aaron burned the fat parts on the altar. 21Aaron waved the breasts and the right thigh for a wave offering before the Lord, like Moses had commanded.

22Then Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them. After Aaron finished offering the sin offering, the burnt offering, and the fellowship offerings, he came down from the altar.

23Moses and Aaron went into the Meeting Tent.* They came out and blessed the people. Then the Glory of the Lord* appeared to all the people. 24Fire came out from the Lord and burned the burnt offering and fat on the altar.* When all the people saw this, they shouted and bowed their faces low to the ground.

God Destroys Nadab and Abihu

10Then Aaron’s sons Nadab and Abihu sinned.* Each son took a dish for burning incense.* They used a different fire and lit the incense. They did not use the fire that Moses had commanded them to use. 2So fire came from the Lord and destroyed Nadab and Abihu. They died in front of the Lord.

3Then Moses said to Aaron, “The Lord says, ‘The priests that come near me must respect me! I must be holy to them and to all the people.’” So Aaron did not say anything about his sons dying.

4Aaron’s uncle Uzziel had two sons. They were Mishael and Elzaphan. Moses said to those sons, “Go to the front part of the Holy Place. Take your cousins’ bodies and carry them outside the camp.”

5So Mishael and Elzaphan obeyed Moses. They carried the bodies of Nadab and Abihu outside the camp. Nadab and Abihu were still wearing their special woven shirts.

6Then Moses spoke to Aaron and his other sons Eleazar and Ithamar. Moses told them, “Don’t show any sadness!* Don’t tear your clothes or mess up your hair!* Don’t show Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel came to meet with God.

Glory of the Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. It was like a bright, shining light.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

tear ... hair Torn clothes and messed up hair showed a person was mourning (sad) for a dead person.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

make ... pure Or, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide.” or “to erase sins.”

waved the breasts and the right thigh for a wave offering before the Lord, like Moses had commanded.
your sadness and you will not be killed. And the Lord will not be angry against all the people. All the people of Israel are your relatives—they can cry about the Lord burning Nadab and Abihu. But you must not even leave the entrance of the Meeting Tent. If you leave, then you will die! Why? Because the Lord’s anointing oil is on you.” So Aaron, Eleazar, and Ithamar obeyed Moses.

Then the Lord said to Aaron, “You and your sons must not drink wine or beer when you come into the Meeting Tent. If you drink those things, then you will die! This law continues forever through your generations. You must make a clear distinction between things that are holy and things that are not holy. You must make a clear distinction between things that are clean and things that are unclean. The Lord gave his laws to Moses, and Moses gave those laws to the people. Aaron, you must teach the people about all of those laws.”

Aaron had two sons that were still alive, Eleazar and Ithamar. Moses talked to Aaron and his two sons. Moses said, “Some of the grain offering is left from the sacrifices that were burned on the fire. You will eat that part of the grain offering. But you must eat it without adding yeast. Eat it near the altar. Why? Because that offering is very holy.

That is part of the offerings that were burned on the fire for the Lord. And the law I gave you teaches that a part belongs to you and your sons. But you must eat it in a holy place.

Also you, your sons, and your daughters will be able to eat the breast from the wave offerings. You don’t have to eat these in a holy place, but you must eat them in a clean place. Why? Because they come from the fellowship offerings. The people of Israel give those gifts to God. The people eat part of those animals, but the breast is your share.

The people must bring the fat from their animals as part of the sacrifice that is burned on the fire. They must also bring the thigh of the fellowship offering and the breast of the wave offering. That will be waved in front of the Lord, and then it will be your share of the offering. It will belong to you and your children. That part of the sacrifices will be your share forever, just like the Lord said.”

Moses looked for the goat of the sin offering. But it was already burned up. Moses became very angry at Aaron’s other sons Eleazar and Ithamar. Moses said, “You were supposed to eat that goat in the holy area! It is very holy! Why did you not eat it in front of the Lord? The Lord gave it to you to carry away the guilt of the people—to make the people pure. That goat’s blood was not brought into the Holy Place. So, you should have eaten the meat in the holy area, like I commanded!”

But Aaron said to Moses, “Look, today they brought their sin offering and burnt offering before the Lord. But you know what happened to me today! Do you think the Lord would be happy if I ate the sin offering today? No!”

When Moses heard this, he agreed.

Rules about Eating Meat

The Lord said to Moses and Aaron,

Tell the people of Israel: These are the animals you can eat:

1. If an animal has hooves that are split into two parts, and if that animal also chews the cud, then you can eat the meat from that animal.

2. Some animals chew the cud, but they don’t have split hooves. Don’t eat those animals. Camels, rock badgers, and rabbits are like that, so they are unclean for you.

3. Other animals have hooves that are split into two parts, but they don’t chew the cud. Don’t eat those animals. Pigs are like that, so they are unclean for you.

4. Don’t eat the meat anointing oil Olive oil that was poured on things or people to show that they had been chosen for a special work or purpose.

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.
unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
holly Set aside or chosen for a special purpose.
make ... pure Or, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover, “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”
Holy Place One of the rooms in the Holy Tent.
hooves The hard part of the foot of certain animals.
cud The food that is brought up from the stomach of some animals (like cows) and chewed again.
from those animals! Don’t even touch their dead bodies! They are unclean for you!

Rules about Sea Food

9“If an animal lives in the sea or in a river and if the animal has fins and scales, then you can eat that animal. 10–11 But if an animal lives in the sea or in a river and does not have fins and scales, then you must not eat that animal. It is one of the animals the Lord says is bad to eat. Don’t eat the meat from that animal. Don’t even touch its dead body! 12 You must treat any animal in the water that does not have fins and scales as one of the animals that God says are bad to eat.

Birds That Must Not Be Eaten

13“You must also treat these birds as animals God says are bad to eat. Don’t eat any of these birds: eagles, vultures, buzzards, 14kites,* all kinds of falcons, 15all kinds of black birds, 16ostriches, nighthawks, sea gulls, all kinds of hawks, 17owls, coromants, great owls, 18water hens, pelicans, carrion-vultures, 19storks, all kinds of herons, hoopoes, and bats.

Rules about Eating Insects

20“If insects have wings and crawl,* then you should treat them as things the Lord says you must not eat. Don’t eat those insects! 21 But you can eat those insects if they have legs with joints above their feet so they can jump. 22 You can also eat all kinds of locusts, all kinds of winged locusts, all kinds of crickets, and all kinds of grasshoppers.

23“But all the other insects that have wings and crawl* are things the Lord says you must not eat. 24 Those insects will make you unclean.* Any person who touches the dead bodies of these insects will become unclean until evening. 25 If a person picks up one of those dead insects, then that person must wash his clothes. That person will be unclean until evening.

26–27 “Some animals have split hooves,* but the hooves don’t make exactly two parts. Some animals don’t chew the cud.* Some animals don’t have hooves—they walk on their paws.* All of those animals are unclean* for you. Any person who touches them will become unclean. That person will be unclean until evening. 28 If any person picks up their dead bodies, that person must wash his clothes. That person will be unclean until evening. Those animals are unclean to you.

Rules about Crawling Animals

29“These crawling animals are unclean* for you: moles, mice, all kinds of great lizards, 30geckos, crocodiles, lizards, sand reptiles, and chameleons. 31 Those crawling animals are unclean for you. Any person who touches their dead bodies will be unclean until evening.

Rules about Unclean Animals

32“If any of those unclean* animals dies and falls on something, then that thing will become unclean. It might be something made from wood, cloth, leather, a cloth of sadness or some work tool. Whatever it is, it must be washed with water. It will be unclean until evening. Then it will become clean again. 33 If any of those unclean animals dies and falls into a clay dish, then anything in the dish will become unclean. And you must break the dish. 34 If water from the unclean clay dish comes on any food, then that food will become unclean. Any drink in the unclean dish will become unclean. 35 If any part of a dead unclean animal falls on something, then that thing is unclean. It may be a clay oven or a clay baking pan. It must be broken into pieces. Those things will not be clean any more. They will always be unclean for you.

36“A spring or a well that collects water will stay clean.* But any person who touches the dead bodies of any unclean animal will become hooves The hard part of the foot of certain animals.

cud The food that is brought up from the stomach of some animals (like cows) and chewed again.
paws The soft feet with claws on certain animals.
clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

kite(s) A bird like a hawk.
crawl Literally, “walk on four feet.”
unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
unclean. 37 If any part of those dead unclean* animals falls on any seed that is to be planted, then that seed is still clean. 38 But if you put water on some seeds and then if any part of those dead unclean animals falls on those seeds, then those seeds are unclean for you.

39 “Also, if an animal you use for food dies, then the person who touches its dead body will be unclean* until evening. 40 And the person who eats meat from this animal’s body must wash his clothes. This person will be unclean until evening. The person who picks up the dead body of the animal must wash his clothes. This person will be unclean until evening.

41 “Every animal that crawls on the ground is one of the animals the Lord says you must not eat. You must not eat it. 42 You must not eat any of the reptiles that crawl on their stomachs or that walk on all four feet, or any of the animals that have many feet. Don’t eat those animals! 43 Don’t let those animals make you filthy.* You must not become unclean!

44 Why? Because I am the Lord your God! I am holy, so you should keep yourselves holy! Don’t make yourselves unclean with those crawling things! 45 I brought you people from Egypt. I did this so you could be my special people and I could be your God. I am holy, so you must be holy too!”

46 Those are the rules about all of the tame animals, birds, and other animals on earth. Those are the rules about all of the animals in the sea and all of the animals that crawl on the ground. 47 Those teachings are so people can know unclean* animals from clean* animals. So people will know which animals they can eat and which animals they must not eat.

Rules for New Mothers

12 The Lord said to Moses, 2 “Tell the people of Israel: If a woman gives birth to a baby boy, then that woman will be unclean* for seven days. This will be like her being unclean during her monthly time of bleeding. 3 On the eighth day, the baby boy must be circumcised.* 4 Then it will be 33 days before she becomes clean* from her loss of blood. She must not touch anything that is holy. She must not enter the Holy Place until the time of her being made clean is finished.

5 But if the woman gives birth to a girl, then the mother will be unclean for two weeks, the same as for her monthly time of bleeding. It will be 66 days before she becomes clean from her loss of blood.

6 “After the time for being made clean* is finished, the new mother of a baby girl or boy must bring special sacrifices to the Meeting Tent.* She must give those sacrifices to the priest at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. She must bring a one-year-old lamb for a burnt offering and a dove or young pigeon for a sin offering. 7–8 If the woman can’t afford a lamb, she may bring two doves or two young pigeons. One bird will be for a burnt offering and one for a sin offering. The priest will offer those things before the Lord. In this way, the priest will make her pure.* Then she will be clean from her loss of blood. Those are the rules for a woman who gives birth to a baby boy or a baby girl.”

Rules about Skin Diseases

13 The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, 2 “A person might have a swelling on his skin, or it may be a scab or a bright spot. If the sore looks like the disease of leprosy,* then the person must be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons the priests. 3 The priest must look at the sore on the person’s skin. If the hair in the sore has become white, and if the sore seems deeper than the person’s skin, then it is a leprosy disease. When the priest has finished looking at the person, the

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
filthy Or, “hated.” Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

circumcised To have the foreskin cut off. This was done to every Jewish male to show he shared in the Agreement God made with Israel. See Gen. 17:4–14.
Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel came to meet with God.
make ... pure Or, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”
leprosy The Hebrew word includes mildew, fungus, and bad skin diseases, not just the disease we call leprosy.
priest must announce that the person is unclean."

4"Sometimes there is a white spot on a person’s skin. But the spot does not seem deeper than the skin. If that is true, then the priest must separate that person from other people for seven days. 5On the seventh day, the priest must look at the person. If the priest sees that the sore has not changed and has not spread on the skin, then the priest must separate the person for seven more days. 6Seven days later the priest must look at the person again. If the sore has faded, and has not spread on the skin, then the priest must announce that the person is clean. The sore is only a scab. The person must wash his clothes and become clean again.

7"But if, after the person has shown himself to the priest to be made clean, the scab spreads more over the skin, then the priest must come again to the priest. 8The priest must look. If the scab has spread on the skin, then the priest must announce that the person is unclean. That is a leprosy disease.

9"If a person has leprosy, he must be brought to the priest. 10The priest must look at that person. If there is a white swelling in the skin, and if the hair has become white, and if the skin looks raw in the swelling, then it is a leprosy that has continued for a long time on that person’s skin. The priest must announce that the person is unclean. The priest does not have to separate that person from other people for a short time. Why? Because the priest already knows that the person is unclean.

12"Sometimes a skin disease will spread all over a person’s body. The skin disease will cover that person’s skin from his head to his feet. The priest must look at that person’s whole body. 13If the priest sees that the skin disease covers the whole body and that it has turned all of that person’s skin white, then the priest must announce that the person is unclean.

14But if the person has raw skin, then he is not clean. 15When the priest sees the raw skin, he must announce that the person is unclean. The raw skin is not clean. It is a leprosy disease.

16"If the raw skin changes and becomes white, then the person must come to the priest. 17The priest must look at the person. If the infection has become white, then the priest must announce that the person who has the infection is clean. That person is clean.

18"A person might get a boil on his skin that heals over. 19Then that boil might become a white swelling or a bright, white spot with red streaks in it. If this happens, the person must show that spot to a priest. 20The priest must look at it. If the swelling is deeper than the skin and the hair on it has become white, then the priest must announce that the person is unclean. The spot is the infection of leprosy. The leprosy has broken out from inside the boil. 21But if the priest looks at the spot, and there are no white hairs in it, and the spot is not deeper than the skin, but is faded, then the priest must separate the person for seven days. 22If more of the spot spreads on the skin, then the priest must announce that the person is unclean. It is an infection. 23But if the bright spot stays in its place, and does not spread, then it is only the scar from the old boil. The priest must announce that the person is clean.

24–25"A person might get a burn on his skin. If the raw skin becomes a white spot or white spot with red streaks in it, the priest must look at it. If that white spot seems to be deeper than the skin, and the hair at that spot has become white, then it is a leprosy disease. The leprosy has broken out in the burn. The priest must announce that the person is unclean. It is a leprosy disease.

26But if the priest looks at the spot, and there is no white hair in the bright spot, and the spot is not deeper than the skin, but is faded, then the priest must separate the person for seven days. 27On the seventh day the priest must look at the person again. If the spot spread on the skin, then the priest must announce that the person is unclean. It is a leprosy disease. 28But if the bright spot did not spread on the skin, but is faded, it is the swelling from the burn. The priest must announce the person clean. It is only the scar from the burn.
LEVITICUS 13:29–55

29“A person might get an infection on his scalp or beard. 30A priest must look at the infection. If the infection seems to be deeper than the skin, and if the hair around it is thin and yellow, then the priest must announce that the person is unclean. It is only the scar from the burn.

31 If the disease does not seem deeper than the skin, but there is no dark hair in it, then the priest must separate that person for seven days. 32On the seventh day the priest must look at the infection. If the disease has not spread, and there are no yellow hairs growing in it, and the disease does not seem deeper than the skin, 33then the person must shave himself. But he must not shave the disease. The priest must separate that person for seven more days. 34On the seventh day, the priest must look at the disease. If the disease has not spread through the skin, and it does not seem deeper than the skin, then the priest must announce that the person is clean. The person must wash his clothes and become clean.

35But if the disease spreads on the skin after the person has become clean, 36then the priest must look at the person again. If the disease has spread in the skin, the priest does not need to look for the yellowish hair. The person is unclean. 37But if the priest thinks that the disease has stopped, and black hair is growing in it, the disease has healed. The person is clean. The priest must announce that the person is clean.

38“If a person has white spots on his skin, 39then a priest must look at those spots. If the spots on that person’s skin are only dull white, then the disease is only a harmless rash. That person is clean. 40“A man might lose hair from his head. He is clean. It is only baldness. 41A man might lose hair from the sides of his head. He is clean. It is only another kind of baldness.

42But if there is a red and white infection on his scalp, then it is a skin disease. 43A priest must look at that person. If the swelling of the infection is red and white and looks like the leprosy on other parts of the body, then that person has a leprosy disease on his scalp. The person is unclean. The priest must announce that the person is unclean.

45“If a person has a leprosy disease, then that person must warn other people. That person must shout, ‘Unclean, unclean!’ That person’s clothes must be torn at the seams. That person must let his hair grow wild. That person must cover his mouth. 46That person will be unclean the whole time he has the infection. That person is unclean. He must live alone. His home must be outside the camp.

47–48“Some clothing might have mildew on it. The cloth might be linen or wool. The cloth might be woven or knitted. Or the mildew might be on a piece of leather or on something made from leather. 49If that mildew is green or red, then it must be shown to a priest. 50The priest must look at the mildew. He must put that thing in a separate place for seven days. 51–52On the seventh day, the priest must look at the mildew. It does not matter if the mildew is on leather or cloth. It does not matter if the cloth is woven or knitted. It does not matter what the leather was used for. If the mildew spread, then that cloth or leather is unclean. The infection is unclean. The priest must burn that cloth or leather.

53“If the priest sees that the mildew did not spread, then that cloth or leather must be washed. It does not matter if it is leather or cloth. It does not matter if the cloth is woven or knitted. It does not matter what the leather was used for. If the mildew spread, then that cloth or leather is unclean. The infection is unclean. The priest must burn that cloth or leather.

54The priest must order the people to wash that piece of leather or cloth. Then the priest must separate the clothing for seven more days. 55After that time, the priest scalp The skin on a person’s head.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
skin disease Literally, “leprosy.” The Hebrew word can mean many different kinds of skin disease.
clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

leprosy The Hebrew word includes mildew, fungus, and bad skin diseases, not just the disease we call leprosy.

That person’s clothes ... wild These things also showed a person was very sad about something.
mildew A kind of fungus that often grows on cloth, leather, or wood that is in a warm, damp place. The Hebrew word also means, “leprosy,” or “skin disease.”

linen Thread or cloth made from the fibers of the flax plant.
must look again. If the mildew still looks the same, then that thing is unclean.* It does not matter if the infection has not spread. You must burn that cloth or piece of leather.

56“But if the priest looks at that piece of leather or cloth, and the mildew has faded, then the priest must tear the infection out of the piece of leather or cloth. It does not matter if the cloth is woven or knitted. 57But the mildew* might come back to that piece of leather or cloth. If that happens, then the mildew is spreading. That piece of leather or cloth must be burned. 58But if the mildew did not come back after washing, then that piece of leather or cloth is clean.* It does not matter if the cloth was woven or knitted. That cloth is clean.”

59Those are the rules for mildew* on pieces of leather or cloth. It does not matter if the cloth is woven or knitted.

Rules for the Leper Made Clean

14The Lord said to Moses, 2“These are the rules for people who had a skin disease* and became well. These rules are for making that person clean.*

“A priest must look at the person who had the skin disease.* 3The priest must go to that person outside the camp. The priest must look to see if the skin disease is healed. 4If the person is healthy, then the priest will tell him to do these things: That person must get two living clean* birds. He must also get a piece of cedar wood, a piece of red cloth, and a hyssop* plant. 5Then the priest must order one bird to be killed in a clay bowl over running water.
6The priest must take the other bird that is still alive and the piece of cedar wood, the piece of red cloth, and the hyssop plant. He must dip the living bird and the other things in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water. 7The priest must sprinkle the blood seven times on the person who had the skin disease. Then the priest must announce that the person is clean. After that, the priest must go to an open field and let the living bird go free.

8“Then that person must wash his clothes.
He must shave off all his hair. And he must wash with water. Then he will be clean.*
Then that person may go into the camp. But he must stay outside his tent for seven days.
9On the seventh day, he must shave off all his hair. He must shave his head, his beard, and his eyebrows—yes, all his hair. Then he must wash his clothes and bathe his body in water.
Then he will be clean.

10“On the eighth day, the person who had a skin disease* must take two male lambs that have nothing wrong with them. He must also take a one-year-old female lamb that has nothing wrong with it. He must take 24 cups* of fine flour mixed with oil. This fine flour is for a grain offering. The person must take 2/3 of a pint* of olive oil. 11The priest must bring that person and his sacrifices before the Lord at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* (This must be the same priest who announces that the person is clean.* 12The priest will offer one of the male lambs as a guilt offering. He will offer that lamb and some of the oil as a wave offering before the Lord. 13Then the priest will kill the male lamb in the holy place where they kill the sin offering and the burnt offering. The guilt offering is like the sin offering. It belongs to the priest. It is very holy.

14The priest will take some of the blood of the guilt offering. The priest will put some of this blood on the tip of the right ear of the person to be made clean.* The priest will put some of this blood on the thumb of the right hand and on the big toe of the right foot of that person. 15The priest will also take some of the oil and pour it into his left palm. 16Then the priest will dip the finger of his right hand into the oil that is in his left palm. He will use his finger to sprinkle some of the oil seven times before the Lord. 17Then the priest will

unclean  Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
mildew  A kind of fungus that often grows on cloth, leather,or wood that is in a warm, damp place. The Hebrew word also means, “leprosy,” or “skin disease.”
clean  Pure or acceptable to God for worship.
skin disease  Literally, “leprosy.” The Hebrew word can mean many different kinds of skin disease.
hyssop  A plant with fine branches and leaves used for sprinkling blood or water in cleansing ceremonies.
2/3 of a pint  Literally, “1 log.”
Meeting Tent  The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.
put some of the oil that is in his palm on the person to be made clean. He will put that oil on the same places he put the blood of the guilt offering. The priest will put some of the oil on the tip of the person’s right ear. He will put some of the oil on the thumb of the right hand. And he will put some of the oil on the big toe of the person’s right foot. Then the priest will put the oil that is left in his palm on the head of the person to be made clean. In this way, the priest will make that person pure before the Lord.

19 “Then the priest must offer the sin offering for the person to be made clean.* The priest will offer the sin offering and make that person pure.* After that, the priest will kill the animal for the burnt offering. 20 Then the priest will offer up the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar.* In this way, the priest will make that person pure. And the person will be clean.

21 “But if the person is poor, and he can’t afford those offerings, then he must take one male lamb for a guilt offering. That will be a wave offering so that the priest can make that person pure.* He must take 8 cups* of fine flour mixed with oil. This flour will be used for a grain offering. The person must take 2/3 of a pint* of olive oil 22 and two doves or two young pigeons. Even poor people can afford those things. One bird will be a sin offering, and the other will be a burnt offering.

23 “On the eighth day, the person will bring those things to the priest at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. Those things will be offered before the Lord so that person can become clean.* 24 The priest will take the lamb for the guilt offering and the oil, and the priest will offer them as a wave offering before the Lord. 25 Then the priest will kill the lamb of the guilt offering. The priest will take some of the blood of the guilt offering. The priest will put some of this blood on the thumb of the right hand and on the big toe of the right foot of this person. 26 The priest will also pour some of this oil into his left palm. 27 The priest will use the finger of his right hand to sprinkle some of the oil that is in his left palm seven times before the Lord. 28 Then the priest will put some of the oil that is in his palm on the same places he put the blood from the guilt offering. He will put some of the oil on the tip of the right ear of the person to be made clean. The priest will put some of the oil on the head of the person to be made clean. In this way, the priest will make that person pure before the Lord.

29 Then the priest must offer one of the doves or young pigeons. (He must offer whatever the person can afford.) 30 He must offer one of these birds as a sin offering and the other bird as a burnt offering. He must offer the birds with the grain offering. In this way, the priest will make that person pure before the Lord. And that person will become clean.*

32 Those are the rules for making a person clean after he becomes well from a skin disease.* Those are the rules for people who cannot afford the regular sacrifices for becoming clean.

Rules for Mildew in a House

33 The Lord also said to Moses and Aaron, 34 “I am giving the land of Canaan to your people. Your people will enter that land. At that time, I might cause mildew* to grow in some person’s house. 35 The person who owns that house must come and tell the priest, ‘I see something like mildew in my house.’ 36 Then the priest must order the people to take everything out of the house. The people must do this before the priest goes in to look at the mildew.* Then the priest will not have make ... pure Literally, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.
alter A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
8 cups Literally, “1/10 of an ephah.”
2/3 of a pint Literally, “1 log.”

skin disease Literally, “leprosy.” The Hebrew word can mean many different kinds of skin disease.
mildew A kind of fungus that often grows on cloth, leather, or wood that is in a warm, damp place.
to say everything in the house is unclean.* After the people have taken everything out of the house, the priest will go in to look at the house. 37The priest will look at the mildew. If the mildew on the walls of the house has holes that are a green color or red color, and if the mildew goes into the wall’s surface, then the priest must go out of the house and lock the house for seven days.

39"On the seventh day, the priest must come back and check the house. If the mildew* has spread on the walls of the house, then the priest must order the people to tear out the stones with the mildew on them and throw them away. They must put those stones at a special unclean* place outside the city. 41Then the priest must have all the house scraped inside. The people must throw away the plaster* that they scrape off. They must put that plaster at a special unclean place outside the city. 42Then that person must put new stones in the walls. And he must cover those walls with new plaster.

43“Maybe a person took away the old stones and plaster* and put in new stones and plaster. And maybe mildew* again appears in that house. 44Then the priest must come in and check the house. If the infection has spread in the house, then it is a disease that spreads quickly to other places. So the house is unclean.* 45That person must tear down the house. They must take all of the stones, plaster, and pieces of wood to the special unclean place outside the city. 46And any person who goes into that house will be unclean until evening. 47If any person eats in that house or lies down in there, then that person must wash his clothes.

48“After new stones and plaster* are put in a house, the priest must check the house. If the mildew* has not spread through the house, then the priest will announce that the house is clean.* Why? Because the mildew is gone!

49“Then, to make the house clean,* the priest must take two birds, a piece of cedar wood, a piece of red cloth, and a hyssop* plant. 50The priest will kill one bird in a clay bowl over running water. 51Then the priest will take the cedar wood, the hyssop, the piece of red cloth, and the living bird. The priest will dip those things in the blood of the bird that was killed over running water. Then the priest will sprinkle that blood seven times on the house. 52The priest will use those things in that way to make the house clean.* 53The priest will go to an open field outside the city and let the living bird go free. In this way, the priest will make the house pure.* The house will be clean”

54Those are the rules for any infection of leprosy,* 55for mildew* on pieces of cloth or in a house. 56Those are the rules for swellings, rashes, or bright spots on the skin. 57Those rules teach when things are clean* and when things are unclean.* Those are the rules about those kinds of disease.

Rules for Discharges from the Body

15The Lord also said to Moses and Aaron,

2“Say to the people of Israel: When any person has a discharge* from his body, then that person is unclean.* 3It does not matter if the discharge flows freely from his body or if his body stops it from flowing.

4“If the person who has a discharge* lies on any bed, that bed becomes unclean.* 5Everything that person sits on becomes unclean. 6If any person touches that person’s bed, then he must wash his clothes and bathe in water. He will be unclean until evening. 7If any person sits on anything that the person with the discharge sat on, then he must wash his clothes.

8“After new stones and plaster* are put in a house, the priest must check the house. If the mildew* has not spread through the house, then the priest will announce that the house is clean.* Why? Because the mildew is gone!

mildew A kind of fungus that often grows on cloth, leather, or wood that is in a warm, damp place.
unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
plaster A type of mud or cement that people used to cover a wall and make it smooth.

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.
hyssop A plant with fine branches and leaves used for sprinkling blood or water in cleansing ceremonies.
make ... pure Literally, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”
leprosy The Hebrew word includes mildew, fungus, and bad skin diseases, not just the disease we call leprosy.
discharge Fluid from a person’s body, including pus from sores, a man’s semen, or a woman’s period flow.
unclean until evening. Also, if any person touches the person who has the discharge, then he must wash his clothes and bathe in water. He will be unclean until evening.

8“If the person with a discharge* spits on a clean person, then the clean person must wash his clothes and bathe in water. This person will be unclean* until evening. 9Any saddle with the discharge sits on will become unclean. 10So any person who touches any of the things that were under the person with the discharge will be unclean until evening. The person who carries these things that were under the person with the discharge must wash his clothes and bathe in water. He will be unclean until evening.

11“It may happen that the person with a discharge* has not washed his hands in water and touches another person. Then that other person must wash his clothes and bathe in water. He will be unclean until evening.

12“But if the person with a discharge* touches a clay bowl, then that bowl must be broken. If the person with the discharge touches a wooden bowl, then that bowl must be washed in water.

13“When the person with a discharge* is ready to be made clean, he must wait seven days before he will be made clean. Then he must wash his clothes and bathe in running water. Then he will become clean.*

14On the eighth day, that person must take for himself two doves or two young pigeons. He must come before the Lord at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* That person will give the two birds to the priest. 15The priest will offer the birds, one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. In this way, the priest will make that person pure* before the Lord.

16“If a man has a flow of semen,* he must bathe his whole body in water. He will be unclean until evening. 17If the semen is on any clothing or leather, then that clothing or leather must be washed with water. It will be unclean* until evening. 18If a man sleeps with a woman and has a flow of semen, then both the man and the woman must bathe in water. They will be unclean until evening.

Rules for Women

19“If a woman has a discharge* from her monthly time of bleeding, she will be unclean* for seven days. If any person touches her, that person will be unclean until evening. 20Also, everything the woman lies on during her monthly time of bleeding will be unclean. And everything she sits on during that time will be unclean. 21If any person touches the woman’s bed, that person must wash his clothes and bathe in water. He will be unclean until evening. 22If any person touches anything the woman has sat on, that person must wash his clothes and bathe in water. He will be unclean until evening. 23It does not matter if the person touched the woman’s bed or if he touched something she sat on, that person will be unclean until evening.

24“And if a man has sexual relations with a woman during her monthly time of bleeding, then the man will be unclean* seven days. Every bed that man lies on will be unclean.

25“If a woman has a discharge* of blood many days, not during her time of her monthly bleeding, or if she has a discharge after that time, then she will be unclean,* like the time of monthly bleeding. She will be unclean for as long as she has a discharge. 26Any bed the woman lies on during all the time of her discharge will be like her bed during her time of monthly bleeding. Everything the woman sits on will be unclean, like during the time she is unclean from her monthly time of bleeding. Two7If any person touches those things, that person will be unclean. That person must wash his clothes and bathe in water. He will be unclean until evening.

 discharged Fluid from a person’s body, including pus from sores, a man’s semen, or a woman’s period flow.
unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.
Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.
make ... pure Literally, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”
semen The fluid produced by a man’s sexual organs.
unclean until evening. 28 After the woman’s discharge stops, she must wait seven days. After that, she will be clean. 29 Then on the eighth day, the woman must take two doves or two young pigeons. She must bring them to the priest at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* 30 Then the priest must offer one bird for a sin offering and the other bird for a burnt offering. In this way, the priest will make her pure* before the Lord.

31 “So you must warn the people of Israel about being unclean.* If you don’t warn the people, then they might make my Holy Tent* unclean. And then they would have to die!”

32 Those are the rules for people with a discharge.* Those rules are for men who become unclean* from a flow of semen.* 33 And those rules are for women who become unclean from their monthly time of bleeding. And those are the rules for any person that becomes unclean by sleeping with another person who is unclean.

The Day of Atonement

16 Two of Aaron’s sons died while offering incense* to the Lord.* After that time, the Lord spoke to Moses. 2 The Lord said, “Talk to your brother Aaron. Tell him that he cannot go behind the curtain into the Most Holy Place* anytime he wants to. The Holy Box* is in the room behind that curtain. I appear in a cloud over that special cover.* If Aaron goes into that room, he might die!

3 “Before Aaron enters the Most Holy Place* on the Day of Atonement, he must offer a bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering. 4 Aaron must wash his whole body with water. Then he must put these clothes on: Aaron must put on the holy* linen shirt. The linen underclothes will be next to his body. He must tie the linen sash (belt) around him. And he must put on the linen turban.* These are holy clothes.

5 “Aaron must take from the people of Israel two male goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering. 6 Then Aaron must offer the bull for the sin offering. This sin offering is for himself. Aaron must do this to make him and his family pure.*

7 “Then Aaron must take the two goats and bring them before the Lord at the doorway of the Meeting Tent. 8 Aaron will throw lots* for the two goats. One lot will be for the Lord. The other lot will be for Azazel.*

9 “Then Aaron will offer the goat chosen by the lot* for the Lord. Aaron must make this goat a sin offering. 10 But the goat chosen by the lot for Azazel* must be brought alive before the Lord. And then this goat will be sent out to Azazel in the desert. This is to make the people pure.*

11 “Then Aaron will offer the bull as a sin offering for himself. Aaron will make himself and his family pure.* Aaron will kill the bull for the sin offering for himself. 12 Then he must take a firepan* full of coals of fire from the altar* before the Lord. Aaron will take two handfuls of sweet incense* that has been

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.
make ... pure Literally, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”
unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle.” The place God came to live among his people.
discharge Fluid from a person’s body, including pus from sores, a man’s semen, or a woman’s period flow.
semen The fluid produced by a man’s sexual organs.
incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.
Two of Aaron’s sons ... Lord See Lev. 10:1–2.
Most Holy Place The room in the Holy Tent where the Holy Box was.
Holy Box The Box of the Agreement—the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.
cover Also called “mercy seat.” The Hebrew word can mean “lid,” “cover,” or “the place where sins are forgiven.”
holy Set aside or chosen for a special purpose.
turban Head covering made by wrapping a piece of cloth around the head or around a cap worn on the head.
lot(s) Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.
Azazel Or, “scapegoat.” The meaning of this word or name is not known. The main idea seems to be that the goat “carried away” the sins of the people.
firepan A small shovel for taking the ashes from the altar.
altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
ground into powder. Aaron must bring that incense into the room behind the curtain. Aaron must put the incense on the fire before the Lord. Then the cloud of incense will cover the special cover* that is over the Agreement.* This way Aaron will not die. Also, Aaron must take some of the blood from the bull and sprinkle it with his finger toward the east, onto the special cover. He will sprinkle the blood seven times with his finger in front of the special cover.

15“Then Aaron must kill the goat of the sin offering for the people. Aaron must bring this goat’s blood into the room behind the curtain. Aaron must do with the goat’s blood as he did with the bull’s blood. Aaron must sprinkle the goat’s blood on the special cover* and in front of the cover. 16In this way, Aaron will do the things to make the Most Holy Place* pure.* Aaron must do these things because the people of Israel are unclean.* They do wrong and have many sins. Aaron must also do these things for the Meeting Tent* because it stays in the middle of unclean people! 17At the time that Aaron goes into the Most Holy Place to make it and the people pure,* no person must be in the Meeting Tent. No person must go in there until Aaron comes out. So, Aaron will make himself and his family pure. And he will make all the people of Israel pure. 18Then Aaron will go out to the altar* that is before the Lord. Aaron will make the altar pure. Aaron will take some of the bull’s blood and some of the goat’s blood and put it on the corners of the altar on all sides. 19Then Aaron will sprinkle some of the blood with his finger on the altar seven times. In this way, Aaron will make the altar holy* and clean* from all the sins of the people of Israel.

20“So Aaron will make the Most Holy Place,* the Meeting Tent,* and the altar* pure.* After that, Aaron will bring the live goat to the Lord. 21Aaron will put both his hands on the head of the living goat. Then Aaron will confess (admit) the sins and crimes of the people of Israel over the goat. In this way, Aaron will lay the people’s sins on the goat’s head. Then he will send the goat away to the desert. A man will be standing by, ready to lead this goat away. 22So the goat will carry all the people’s sins on itself to the empty desert. The man who leads the goat will let it loose in the desert.

23“Then Aaron will enter the Meeting Tent.* He will take off the linen clothes that he put on when he went into the Holy Place. He must leave these clothes there. 24He will wash his whole body with water in a holy place. He will come out and offer his burnt offering and the people’s burnt offering. He will make himself and the people pure.* 25Then he will burn the fat of the sin offering on the altar.*

26“The person that led the goat to Azazel* must wash his clothes and his whole body with water. After that, he can come into the camp.

27“The bull and the goat for the sin offerings must be taken outside the camp. (The blood from those animals was brought into the Holy Place to make the holy things pure.) The priests must burn the skins, bodies, and body waste of those animals in the fire. 28Then the person who burns them must wash his clothes and wash his whole body with water. After that, he can come into the camp.

29“This law will always continue for you: On the tenth day of the seventh month, you must not eat food.* You must not do any work. None of the travelers or foreigners

---

cover Also called “mercy seat.” The Hebrew word can mean “lid,” “cover,” or “the place where sins are forgiven.”
Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them. These were proof of the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.
Most Holy Place The room in the Holy Tent where the Holy Box was.
make ... pure Literally, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”
unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.
altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
holy Set aside or chosen for a special purpose.
clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.
to Azazel Or, “as a scapegoat.” The meaning of this word or name is not known. The main idea is that the goat “carried away” the sins of the people.
not eat food Literally, “humble yourselves.”
16:30–17:15

30 Why? Because on this day, the priest will make you pure* and wash away your sins. Then you will be clean* to the Lord. 31 This day is a very important day of rest for you. You must not eat food.* This law will continue forever.

32 So the man chosen to be the high priest will do the ceremony to make things pure.* This is the man appointed to serve as high priest after his father. That priest must put on the holy linen clothes. 33 He must make the Most Holy Place,* the Meeting Tent,* and the altar* pure. And he must make the priests and all the people of Israel pure. 34 That law for making the people of Israel pure will continue forever. You will do those things one time every year. Why? Because of the sins of the people of Israel.”

So they did the things that the Lord had commanded Moses.

Rules about Killing and Eating Animals

17 The Lord said to Moses, 2 “Speak to Aaron and to his sons, and to all the people of Israel. Tell them, this is what the Lord has commanded: 3 An Israelite person might kill a bull, or a lamb, or a goat in the camp or outside the camp. 4 That person must bring that animal to the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* He must give a part of that animal as a gift to the Lord. That person has spilled blood (killed), so he must take his gift to the Lord’s Holy Tent.* 5 This rule is so people will bring their fellowship offering to the Lord. The people of Israel must bring the animals they kill in the fields. They must bring those animals to the Lord at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. They must bring those animals to the priest. 6 Then the priest will throw the blood from those animals onto the Lord’s altar* near the entrance of the Meeting Tent. And the priest will burn the fat from those animals on the altar. 7 Its smell will please the Lord. 8 They must not offer any more sacrifices to their ‘goat idols’! They have chased after those other gods. In that way, they have acted like prostitutes.* These rules will continue forever!

8 “Tell the people: Some citizen of Israel or some traveler or foreigner living among you might offer a burnt offering or a sacrifice. 9 That person must take his sacrifice to the entrance of the Meeting Tent and offer it to the Lord. 10 I will be against any person who eats blood. It does not matter if that person is a citizen of Israel or if that person is a foreigner living among you! I will separate that person from his people. 11 Why? Because the life of the body is in the blood. I have given you rules for pouring that blood on the altar.* You must do this to make yourselves pure.* You must give that blood to me as payment for the life that you took. 12 So I tell the people of Israel: None of you people may eat blood. And no foreigner living among you may eat blood.

13 If any person catches a wild animal or a bird that can be eaten, then that person must pour the blood on the ground and cover it with dirt. It does not matter if that person is a citizen of Israel or a foreigner living among you! 14 Why? Because blood is still in the meat. That animal’s life is still in the meat. So I give this command to the people of Israel: Don’t eat meat that still has blood in it! Any person who eats blood must be separated from his people.

15 Also, if any person eats an animal that died by itself, or if any person eats an animal that was killed by some other animal, then make ... pure Literally, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.
not eat food Literally, “humble yourselves.”
Most Holy Place The room in the Holy Tent that had the Holy Box in it.
Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.
altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle.” The place God came to live among his people.
prostitute(s) A woman who sells her body for sex. Sometimes this also means a person who is not faithful to God and starts worshiping other gods.
LEVITICUS 17:16–18:22

that person will be unclean* until evening. That person must wash his clothes and wash his whole body with water. It does not matter if that person is a citizen of Israel or if he is a foreigner living among you! 16If that person does not wash his clothes or bathe his body, then he will be guilty of sin.*

Rules about Sexual Relations

18The Lord said to Moses, 2“Tell the people of Israel: I am the Lord your God. 3In the past, you lived in Egypt. You must not do the things that were done in that country! I am leading you to Canaan. You must not do the things that are done in that country! Don’t follow their customs. 4You must obey my rules and follow my laws! Be sure to follow those rules! Why? Because I am the Lord your God. 5So you must obey my laws and rules. If a person obeys my laws and rules, he will live! I am the Lord!

6“You must never have sexual relations with* your close relatives! I am the Lord. 7“You must never have sexual relations with* your father or mother. This woman is your mother. So you must not have sexual relations with her. 8You must not have sexual relations with your father’s wife even if she is not your mother. Why? Because that is like having sexual relations with your father.* 9“You must not have sexual relations with* your sister. It doesn’t matter if she is the daughter of your father or your mother. And it does not matter if your sister was born in your house* or at another place.

10“You must not have sexual relations with* your granddaughter. They are a part of you!

11“If your father and his wife* have a daughter, then she is your sister. You must not have sexual relations with* her.

12“You must not have sexual relations with* your father’s sister. She is your father’s close relative. 13“You must not have sexual relations with your mother’s sister. She is your mother’s close relative. 14“You must not have sexual relations with the wife of your father’s brother. You must not go near your uncle’s wife* for sexual relations, She is your aunt.

15“You must not have sexual relations with* your daughter-in-law. She is your son’s wife. You must not have sexual relations with her.

16“You must not have sexual relations with* your brother’s wife. That would be like having sexual relations with your brother.* 17“You must not have sexual relations with* a mother and her daughter. And you must not have sexual relations with this woman’s granddaughter. It does not matter if this granddaughter is the daughter of this woman’s son or daughter. Her granddaughters are her close relatives. It is wrong to have sexual relations with them.* 18 “While your wife is still living, you must not take her sister as another wife. This will make the sisters become enemies. You must not have sexual relations with* your wife’s sister.

19 “Also you must not go near a woman to have sexual relations with* her during her monthly time of bleeding. She is unclean* during this time.

20“And you must not have sexual relations with your neighbor’s wife. This will only make you filthy!*

21“You must not give any of your children through the fire to Molech.* If you do this, you will show that you don’t respect the name of your God! I am the Lord.

22“You must not have sexual relations with a man as with a woman. That is a terrible sin!

*unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

*have sexual relations with Literally, “uncover the nakedness of.”

*sexual relations ... father Literally, “She is the nakedness of your father.” Husband and wife are like one person. See Gen 2:24.

*sister was born in your house Or, “household.” If a man had many wives, each wife and her children had their own tent or part of the house. They were like a small family group within the family. So this probably means a person was not supposed to have sexual relations with any of his father’s daughters, whether sister or half-sister.

*his wife This probably means “your stepmother.”

*sexual relations ... brother Literally, “She is the nakedness of your brother.”

*filthy Or, “polluted” or “unclean.”

*Molech A false God. People often killed their children as part of their worship to Molech.
23“You must not have sexual relations with any animal. This will only make you filthy!* Also, a woman must not have sexual relations with an animal. It is against nature!

24“Don’t make yourself unclean* with any of those wrong things! I am throwing nations out of their countries and giving their land to you! Why? Because those people did those terrible sins! 25They made the land filthy*! Now the land is sick of those things! And the land is vomiting out the people who lived there!

26“So you must obey my laws and rules. You must not do any of those terrible sins. Those rules are for the citizens of Israel, and they are for the people living among you!

27The people who lived in the land before you did all those terrible things. So the land became filthy!* 28[If you do these things,] then you will make the land filthy. And it will vomit you out like it vomited out the nations that were there before you. 29If any person does any of those terrible sins, then that person must be separated from his people!

30Other people have done those terrible sins. But you must obey my laws! You must not do any of those terrible sins! Don’t make yourself filthy with those terrible sins! I am the Lord your God.”

Israel Belongs to God

19 The Lord said to Moses, 2“Tell all the people of Israel: I am the Lord your God! I am holy, so you must be holy!

3Each person among you must honor his mother and father and keep my special days of rest.* I am the Lord your God!

4“Don’t worship idols.* Don’t make melted statues of gods for yourselves. I am the Lord your God!”

5“When you offer a sacrifice* of fellowship offerings to the Lord, you must offer it in the right way so you will be accepted. 6You may eat it the same day you offer it, and also on the next day. But if any of that sacrifice is left on the third day, then you must burn it in the fire.

7You must not eat any of that sacrifice on the third day. It will be unclean.* It will not be accepted. 8A person will be guilty of sin if he does that! Why? Because he did not respect the holy things that belong to the Lord. That person must be separated from his people.

9“When you cut your crops at harvest time, don’t cut all the way to the corners of your fields. And if grain falls on the ground, you must not gather up that grain. 10Don’t pick all the grapes in your vineyards and don’t pick up the grapes that fall to the ground. Why? Because you must leave those things for poor people and for people traveling through your country. I am the Lord your God!

11“You must not steal. You must not cheat people. You must not lie to each other. 12You must not use my name to make false promises. If you do that, then you will show that you don’t respect the name of your God. I am the Lord!

13“You must not do bad things to your neighbor. You must not rob him. You must not hold a hired worker’s salary all night until morning.*

14“You must not curse a deaf man. You must not put something in front of a blind person to make him fall. But you must respect your God. I am the Lord!

15“You must be fair in judgment. You must not show special favor to poor people. And you must not show special favor to important people. You must be fair when you judge your neighbor. 16You must not go around spreading false stories against other people.
Don’t do anything that would put your neighbor’s life in danger. I am the Lord!

17“You must not hate your brother in your heart. If your neighbor does something wrong, then talk to him about it. But forgive him!

18Forget about the wrong things people do to you. Don’t try to get even. Love your neighbor as yourself. I am the Lord!

19“You must obey my laws. You must not breed together two kinds of animals. You must not sow your field with two kinds of seed. You must not wear clothing made from two kinds of material mixed together.

20“It may happen that a man has sexual relations with a woman who is the slave of another man. But this slave woman has not been bought or given her freedom. If this happens, then there must be punishment. But they will not be put to death. Why? Because the woman was not free. 21The man must bring his guilt offering to the Lord at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* The man must bring a ram for a guilt offering. 22The priest will do the things that will make the man pure.* The priest will offer the ram as a guilt offering before the Lord. It will be for the sins the man did. Then the man will be forgiven for the sins he did.

23“In the future, you will enter your country. At that time, you will plant many kinds of trees for food. After planting a tree, you must wait three years before you can use any of the fruit from that tree. You must not use that fruit. 24In the fourth year, the fruit from that tree will be the Lord’s. It will be a holy offering of praise to the Lord. 25Then, in the fifth year, you can eat the fruit from that tree. And the tree will produce more and more fruit for you. I am the Lord your God!

26“You must not eat any meat with blood still in it.

“You must not try to use magic and other things to predict the future.

27“You must not round off the hair that grows on the side of your face. You must not cut your beard that grows on the side of your face. 28You must not cut your body as a way to remember dead people. You must not make any tattoo marks on yourselves. I am the Lord!

29“Don’t make your daughter become a prostitute.* That only shows you don’t respect her! Don’t let people be prostitutes in your country. Don’t let your country be filled with that kind of sin.

30“You must not work on my special days of rest.* You must honor my holy place. I am the Lord!

31“Don’t go to mediums* or wizards* for advice. Don’t go to them; they will only make you unclean.* I am the Lord your God!

32“Show honor to old people. Stand up when they come into the room. Show respect to your God. I am the Lord!

33“Don’t do bad things to foreigners living in your country! 34You must treat foreigners the same as you treat your own citizens. Love foreigners like you love yourselves. Why? Because you were foreigners one time—in Egypt. I am the Lord your God!

35“You must be fair when you judge people. And you must be fair when you measure and weigh things. 36Your baskets should be the right size. Your jars should hold the right amount of liquids. Your weights and balances should weigh things correctly. I am the Lord your God! I brought you out from the land of Egypt!

37“You must remember all my laws and rules. And you must obey them. I am the Lord!”

Warning Against Worshiping Idols

20The Lord said to Moses, 2“You must also tell the people of Israel these things: A person in your country might give one of his children to the false god Molech.*

prostitute(s) A woman who sells her body for sex.
special days of rest Or, “Sabbaths.” This might mean Saturday, or it might mean all of the special days when the people were not supposed to work.
medium(s) A person who tries to communicate with the spirits of dead people.
wizard(s) A person who tries to use evil spirits to do magic.
unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
Molech A false god. People often killed their children as part of their worship to Molech.
That person must be killed! It does not matter if that person is a citizen of Israel or a foreigner living in Israel, you must throw stones at that person and kill him. I will be against that person! I will separate him from his people. Why? Because he gave his children to Molech. He showed that he did not respect my holy name. And he made my holy place unclean.*

4Maybe the common people will ignore that person. Maybe they will not kill that person who gave his children to Molech. 5But I will be against that person and his family! I will separate any person who is unfaithful to me and chases after Molech.

6“I will be against any person who goes to mediums* and wizards* for advice. That person is being unfaithful to me. So I will separate that person from his people.

7“Be special. Make yourselves holy*. Why? Because [I am holy], I am the Lord your God.

8Remember and obey my laws. I am the Lord. And I have made you {my} special people. 9“If any person curses his father or mother, that person must be put to death. He cursed his father or mother, so he is responsible for his own death!*

Punishments for Sexual Sins

10“If a man has sexual relations with his neighbor’s wife, then both the man and the woman are guilty of adultery. So both the man and the woman must be put to death! If a man has sexual relations with his father’s wife, then both the man and the woman must be put to death. They are responsible for their own death.* It is as if that man had had sexual relations with his father!*

11“If a man has sexual relations with his daughter-in-law, both of them must be put to death. They have done a very bad sexual sin! They are responsible for their own death.*

12“If a man has sexual relations with another man as with a woman, then these two men have done a terrible sin. They must be put to death. They are responsible for their own death.*

13“It is a sexual sin if a man has sexual relations with a woman and her mother. The people must burn that man and the two women in fire! Don’t let this sexual sin happen among your people!

14“If a man has sexual relations with an animal, that man must be put to death. And you must also kill the animal. 16If a woman has sexual relations with an animal, then you must kill the woman and the animal. They must be put to death. They are responsible for their own death.*

15“If a man has sexual relations with an animal, that man must be put to death. And you must also kill the animal. 16If a woman has sexual relations with an animal, then you must kill the woman and the animal. They must be put to death. They are responsible for their own death.*

17“If a brother and his sister or half sister marry each other and have sexual relations with each other,* it is a shameful thing! They must be punished in public! They must be separated from their people! The man who has sexual relations with his sister must be punished for his sin!* 18“If a man has sexual relations with a woman during her monthly time of bleeding, then both the woman and the man must be separated from their people. They sinned because they exposed her source of blood.

19“You must not have sexual relations with* your mother’s sister or your father’s sister. That is a sin of incest.* You must be punished for your sins.*

20“A man must not have sexual relations with his uncle’s wife. It would be like having sexual relations with his uncle. That man and his uncle’s wife will be punished for their sins. They will die without children.*

unclean  Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
medium(s)  A person who tries to communicate with the spirits of dead people.
wizard(s)  A person who tries to use evil spirits to do magic.
holy  Set aside or chosen for a special purpose.
curse  To ask for bad things to happen to someone.
he ... death  Literally, “his blood is on him.”
The man ... sin  Literally, “he sees her nakedness, and she sees his nakedness.”
they ... death  Literally, “Their blood is on them.”
man ... father  Literally, “He uncovered his father’s nakedness.”

sexual relations with each other  Literally, “he sees her nakedness, and she sees his nakedness.”
The man ... sin  Literally, “he will carry his guilt.”

have sexual relations with  Literally, “uncover the nakedness of.”
incest  Having sexual relations with a close relative.
you ... sins  Literally, “You will carry your guilt.”
That man ... children  Literally, “They must bear their childlessness. They will die.”
21It is wrong for a man to take his brother’s wife. It would be like having sexual relations with* his brother! They will have no children.

22“You must remember all my laws and rules. And you must obey them. I am leading you to your land. You will live in that country. If you obey my laws and rules, then that land will not vomit you out. 23I am forcing other people to leave that country. Why? Because those people did all of those sins! I hate those sins! So don’t live the way those people lived!

24“I have told you that you will get their land. I will give their land to you. It will be your land! It is a land filled with many good things.* I am the Lord your God!

“I have made you my special people. I have treated you differently from other people. 25So you must treat clean* animals differently from unclean* animals. You must treat clean birds differently from unclean birds. Don’t eat any of those unclean birds, and animals, and things that crawl on the ground. I have made those things unclean. 26I have made you my special people. So you must be holy for me! Why? Because I am the Lord, and I am holy!

27“A man or a woman who is a medium* or a wizard,* must be put to death. The people must kill them with stones. They must be killed.*

Rules for Priests

21The Lord said to Moses, “Tell these things to Aaron’s sons, the priests: A priest must not make himself unclean* by touching a dead person. 2But if the dead person was one of his close relatives, then he can touch the dead body. The priest can make himself unclean if the dead person is his mother or father, his son or daughter, his brother or 3his unmarried* sister. (This sister is close to him because she has no husband. So the priest may make himself unclean for her if she dies.) 4But a priest must not make himself unclean if the dead person was only one of his slaves.*

5“Priests must not shave their heads bald. Priests must not shave off the edges of their beards. Priests must not make any cuts in their bodies. 6Priests must be holy for their God. They must show respect for God’s name. Why? Because they carry the bread and the offerings by fire to the Lord. So they must be holy.*

7“A priest serves God in a special way. So a priest must not marry a woman who had sexual relations with some other man. A priest must not marry a prostitute* or a divorced woman. 8A priest serves God in a special way. So you must treat him in a special way. Why? Because he carries holy things! He brings the holy bread to God, and I am holy! I am the Lord, and I make you holy!

9“If a priest’s daughter becomes a prostitute,* then she ruins her reputation, and she brings shame to her father! So she must be burned.

10“The high priest was chosen from among his brothers. The anointing oil* was poured on his head. In this way, he was chosen for the special job of being high priest. He was chosen to wear the special clothes. So he must not do things to show his sadness in public. He must not let his hair grow wild. He must not tear his clothes. 11He must not make himself unclean* by touching a dead body. He must not go near a dead body, even if it is his own father or mother. 12The high priest must not go out of God’s holy place. Then he might become unclean, and then he might make God’s holy place unclean. The anointing oil was poured on the high priest’s have sexual relations with  Literally, “uncover the nakedness of.”

---

filled ... things  Literally, “flowing with milk and honey.”
clean  Pure or acceptable to God for worship.
unclean  Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
medium(s) A person who tries to communicate with the spirits of dead people.
wizard(s) A person who tries to use evil spirits to do magic.
They must be killed  Literally, “Their blood is on them.”
unmarried  Literally, “virgin,” a girl that was never married and never had sexual relations with anyone.
But a priest ... slaves  Or, “A master must not become unclean for his people.”
holy  Chosen or set aside for a special purpose.
prostitute  A woman who sells her body for sex.
anointing oil  Olive oil that was poured on people or things to show they were chosen for a special work or purpose.
head. This separated him from the rest of the people, I am the Lord!

13 The high priest must marry a woman who is a virgin.* 14 The high priest must not marry a woman who has had sexual relations with another man. The high priest must not marry a prostitute,* a divorced woman, or a widow. The high priest must marry a virgin from his own people. 15 In this way, people will show respect for his children.* I, the Lord, have separated the high priest for his special work.”

16 The Lord said to Moses, 17 “Tell Aaron: If any of your descendants have anything wrong with them, then they must not carry the special bread to God. 18 Any man who has something wrong with him must not serve as priest and bring sacrifices to me. These men cannot serve as priests:

- blind men,
- crippled men,
- men with bad scars on their faces,
- men with arms or legs that are too long,
- men with broken feet or hands,
- men with bent backs,
- men who are dwarfs,*
- men who are cross-eyed,
- men with rashes or a bad skin disease,
- men with crushed testicles.

21 If one of Aaron’s descendants has something wrong with him, then he cannot offer sacrifices by fire to the Lord. And that person cannot carry the special bread to God. 22 That person is from the family of priests, so he can eat the holy bread. He can also eat the very holy bread. 23 But he cannot go through the curtain into the Most Holy Place and he cannot go near the altar.* Why? Because he has something wrong with him. He must not make my holy places not holy. I, the Lord, make those places holy!”

24 So Moses told these things to Aaron, Aaron’s sons, and all the people of Israel.

The Lord God said to Moses, 2 “Tell Aaron and his sons: The people of Israel will give things to me. Those things will become holy. They are mine. So you priests must not take those things. If you use those holy things for yourselves, then you will show that you don’t respect my holy name. I am the Lord! 3 If any person from among all your descendants touches those things, then that person will become unclean.* That person must be separated from me! The people of Israel gave those things to me. I am the Lord!

4 “If any of Aaron’s descendants has one of the bad skin diseases* or a discharge* he can’t eat the holy food until he becomes clean.* That rule is for any priest that becomes unclean.* That priest can become unclean from a dead body or from his own semen.* 5 He can become unclean if he touches any unclean crawling animals. And he can become unclean if he touches an unclean person. It does not matter what made that person unclean. 6 If a person touches any of those things, he will become unclean until evening. That person must not eat any of the holy food. Even if he washes with water, he can’t eat the holy food. 7 He will be clean only after the sun goes down. Then he can eat the holy food. Why? Because after sunset he is clean and that food belongs to him.

8 “If a priest finds an animal that died by itself or that was killed by wild animals, he must not eat that dead animal. If that person eats that animal, he will become unclean.* I am the Lord!

9 “The priests will have special times to serve me. They must be careful at those times. They must be careful not to make the holy descendants A person’s children and their future families.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
bad skin diseases This could be leprosy, or it could be some other serious skin disease.
discharge Fluid from a person’s body, including pus from sores, a man’s semen, or a woman’s period flow.
clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.
semen The fluid produced by a man’s sexual organs.
LEVITICUS 22:10–33

things not holy. If they are careful, then they will not die. I, the Lord, have separated them for this special job. 10 Only people from a priest’s family can eat the holy food. A visitor staying with the priest or a hired worker must not eat any of the holy food. 11 But if the priest buys a person as a slave with his own money, then that person may eat some of the holy things. "Slaves, that were born in the priest’s house may also eat some of the priest’s food. 12 A priest’s daughter might marry a man who is not a priest. If she does that, then she can’t eat any of the holy offerings. 13 A priest’s daughter might become a widow, or she might become divorced. If she does not have any children to support her, and she goes back to her father’s house where she lived as a child, then she can eat some of her father’s food. But only people from a priest’s family can eat this food. 14 “A person might eat some of the holy food by mistake. That person must give the same amount to the priest, and he must give another fifth of the price of that food. 15 “The people of Israel will give gifts to the Lord. Those gifts become holy. So the priest must not make those holy things not holy. 16 If the priests treat those things as not holy, then they will add to their sin when they eat the holy food. I, the Lord, make them holy!"

17 The Lord God said to Moses, 18 “Tell Aaron and his sons and all the people of Israel: Maybe a citizen of Israel or a foreigner will want to bring an offering. Maybe it is for some special promise that person made. Or maybe it is some special sacrifice that person wanted to bring. 19–20 Those are gifts that the people bring because they really want to give a gift to God. You must not accept any offering that has anything wrong with it. I will not be happy with that gift! If the gift is a bull, or a sheep, or a goat, then that animal must be a male. And it must not have anything wrong with it!

21 “A person might bring a fellowship offering to the Lord. That fellowship offering might be payment for a special promise that person made. Or maybe it is a special gift that person wanted to give to the Lord. It might be a bull or a sheep. But it must be healthy. There must be nothing wrong with that animal! 22 You must not offer to the Lord any animal that is blind, or has broken bones, or is crippled, or has a discharge, or a bad skin disease. You must not offer sick animals on the fire of the Lord’s altar."

23 “Sometimes a bull or lamb will have a leg that is too long, or a foot that did not grow right. If a person wants to give that animal as a special gift to the Lord, then it will be accepted. But it will not be accepted as payment for a special promise that person made.

24 “If an animal has bruised, crushed, or torn testicles, then you must not offer that animal to the Lord.

25 “You must not take animals from foreigners as sacrifices to the Lord. Why? Because the animals might have been hurt in some way. They might have something wrong with them. They will not be accepted!”

26 The Lord said to Moses, 27 “When a calf, or a sheep, or a goat is born, it must stay seven days with its mother. Then on the eighth day and after, this animal will be accepted as a sacrifice offered by fire to the Lord. 28 But you must not kill the animal and its mother on the same day! This rule is the same for cows and sheep.

29 “If you want to offer some special offering of thanks to the Lord, then you are free to offer that gift. But you must do it in a way that pleases God. 30 You must eat the whole animal that day. You must not leave any of the meat for the next morning. I am the Lord!

31 “Remember my commands, and obey them. I am the Lord! 32 Show respect for my holy name! I must be very special to the people of Israel. I, the Lord, have made you my special people. 33 I brought you from Egypt. I became your God. I am the Lord!”

widow(s) Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.
discharge Fluid from a person’s body, including pus from sores, a man’s semen, or a woman’s period flow.
altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
Special Holidays

The Lord said to Moses, 2 “Tell the people of Israel: You will announce the Lord’s chosen festivals as holy meetings. These are my special holidays:

Sabbath
3 Work for six days. But the seventh day, the Sabbath, will be a special day of rest, a holy meeting. You must not do any work. It is a Sabbath to the Lord in all your homes.

Passover
4 These are the Lord’s chosen holidays. You will announce the holy meetings at the times chosen for them. 5 The Lord’s Passover is on the 14th day of the first month* at twilight.*

Festival of Unleavened Bread
6 The Festival of Unleavened Bread* is on the 15th day of the same month (Nisan). You will eat unleavened bread for seven days. 7 On the first day of this holiday you will have a special meeting. You must not do any work on that day. 8 For seven days, you will bring sacrifices offered by fire to the Lord. Then there will be another special meeting on the seventh day. You must not do any work on that day.

Festival of the First Harvests
9 The Lord said to Moses, 10 “Tell the people of Israel: You will enter the land that I will give you. You will reap its harvest. At that time, you must bring in the first sheaf* of your harvest to the priest. 11 The priest will wave the sheaf before the Lord. Then you will be accepted. The priest will wave the sheaf on Sunday morning.*

12 On the day when you wave the sheaf,* you will offer a one-year-old male lamb. There must be nothing wrong with that lamb. That lamb will be a burnt offering to the Lord.

13 You must also offer a grain offering of 16 cups* of fine flour mixed with olive oil. You must also offer 1 quart* of wine. The smell of that offering will please the Lord.

14 You must not eat any of the new grain, or fruit, or bread made from the new grain, until you bring that offering to your God. This law will always continue through your generations wherever you live.

Festival of Pentecost
15 From that Sunday morning,* (the day you bring the sheaf* for the wave offering) count seven weeks. 16 On the Sunday following the seventh week, (that is 50 days later) you will bring a new grain offering to the Lord. 17 On that day, bring two loaves of bread from your homes. That bread will be for a wave offering. Use yeast and 16 cups* of flour to make those loaves of bread. That will be your gift to the Lord from your first harvest.

18 One bull, one ram, and seven one-year-old male lambs will be offered with the grain offerings from the people. There must be nothing wrong with those animals. They will be a burnt offering to the Lord. They will be an offering by fire. Its smell will please the Lord. 19 You will also offer one male goat for a sin offering and two one-year-old male lambs as a fellowship offering.

20 The priest will wave them with the bread from the first harvest for a wave offering with two lambs before the Lord. They are holy to the Lord. They will belong to the priest. 21 On that same day, you will call a holy meeting. You must not do any work. This law continues forever in all your homes.

22 Also, when you harvest the crops on your land, don’t cut all the way to the corners of your field. Don’t pick up the grain that falls on the ground. Leave those things for poor people and for foreigners traveling through your country. I am the Lord your God!”
Festival of Trumpets

23 Again the Lord said to Moses, 24 “Tell the people of Israel: On the first day of the seventh month, you must have a special day of rest. Blow the trumpet to remind the people that this is a holy meeting. 25 You must not do any work. You will bring an offering by fire to the Lord.”

Day of Atonement

26 The Lord said to Moses, 27 “The Day of Atonement* will be on the tenth day of the seventh month. There will be a holy meeting. You must not eat food* and you must bring an offering by fire to the Lord. 28 You must not do any work on that day. Why? Because it is the Day of Atonement. On that day, the priests will go before the Lord and do the ceremony that makes you pure.*

29 “If any person refuses to fast* on this day, he must be separated from his people. 30 If a person does any work on this day, I (God) will destroy that person from among his people. 31 You must not do any work at all. This is a law that continues forever for you, wherever you live. 32 It will be a special day of rest for you. You must not eat food.*

33 Again the Lord said to Moses, 34 “Tell the people of Israel: On the 15th day of the seventh month is the Festival of Shelters. This holiday to the Lord will continue for seven days. 35 There will be a holy meeting on the first day. You must not do any work. 36 You will bring an offering by fire to the Lord for seven days. On the eighth day you will have another holy meeting. You will bring an offering by fire to the Lord. This will be a holy meeting. You must not do any work.

37 “Those are the Lord’s special holidays. There will be holy meetings on those holidays. You will bring offerings by fire to the Lord—burnt offerings, grain offerings, sacrifices, and drink offerings. You will bring those gifts at the right time. 38 You will celebrate those holidays in addition to remembering the Lord’s Sabbath* days. You will offer those gifts in addition to your other gifts to the Lord. You will offer those things in addition to any offerings you give as payment for your special promises. They will be in addition to any special offerings you want to give to the Lord.

39 “On the 15th day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the crops of the land, you will celebrate the Lord’s festival for seven days. The first day will be a special day of rest, and then the eighth day will be a special day of rest. 40 On the first day you will take good fruit from fruit trees. And you will take branches from palm trees, poplar trees and willow trees by the brook. You will celebrate before the Lord your God for seven days.

41 You will celebrate this holiday to the Lord for seven days each year. This law will continue forever. You will celebrate this holiday in the seventh month. 42 You will live in temporary shelters for seven days. All the people born in Israel will live in those shelters. 43 Why? So all of your descendants* will know that I made the people of Israel live in temporary shelters during the time I brought them from Egypt. I am the Lord your God!”

44 So Moses told the people of Israel about all of the special meetings to honor the Lord.

The Lampstand and the Holy Bread

24 The Lord said to Moses, 25 “Command the people of Israel to bring to you pure oil from crushed olives. That oil is for the lamps. Those lamps must burn without

Day of Atonement  Also called “Yom Kippur”—the most important Jewish holy day. On this day the high priest went into the Most Holy Place and did the ceremony that atoned (covered or erased) the sins of the people.

You must not eat food  Literally, “You must humble yourselves.”

make ... pure  Literally, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

fast  To live without food for a time of prayer and worship.

evening following ... month  According to Jewish time, the day starts at sunset.

Sabbath  Saturday, a special day of rest and worship for Jews.

descendants  A person’s children and their future families.
Aaron will keep the light burning in the Meeting Tent before the Lord from evening until morning. The light will be outside the curtain that hangs in front of the Box of the Agreement. This law will continue forever. 4Aaron must always keep the lamps burning on the lampstand of pure gold before the Lord.

5"Take fine flour and bake twelve loaves with it. Use 16 cups of flour for each loaf. 6Put them in two rows on the golden table before the Lord. Six loaves will be in each row. 7Put pure frankincense on each row. This will help the Lord remember the offering by fire to the Lord. 8Every Sabbath day Aaron will put the bread in order before the Lord. This must be done forever. This Agreement with the people of Israel will continue forever. 9That bread will belong to Aaron and his sons. They will eat the bread in a holy place. Why? Because that bread is one of the offerings made by fire to the Lord. That bread is Aaron’s share forever.”

The Man Who Cursed God

10There was a son of an Israelite woman. His father was an Egyptian. This Israelite woman’s son was an Israelite. He was walking among the people of Israel, and he started fighting in camp. 11The Israelite woman’s son began cursing and saying bad things about the Lord’s name. So the people brought this man to Moses. (The name of the man’s mother was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, from the family group of Dan.) 12The people held the man as a prisoner and waited for the Lord’s command to be made clear to them.

13Then the Lord said to Moses, 14“Bring the man who cursed to a place outside the camp. Then bring together all the people who heard him curse. Those people will put their hands on his head. And then all the people must throw stones at him and kill him. 15You must tell the people of Israel: If a person curses his God, then he must be punished.* 16Any person who speaks against the name of the Lord must be put to death. All the people must stone him. Foreigners must be punished just like the person who was born in Israel. If a person curses the Lord’s name, then he must be put to death.

17“And if one person kills another person, he must be put to death. 18The person who kills an animal that belongs to another person must give another animal to take its place.* 19“And if a person causes an injury to his neighbor, then the same kind of injury must be given that person. 20A broken bone for a broken bone; an eye for an eye; and a tooth for a tooth. The same kind of injury a person gives another person must be given that person. 21So if a person kills an animal, then that person must pay for the animal. But if a person kills another person, then he must be put to death.

22“The law will be fair—it will be the same for foreigners and for people from your own country. Why? Because I am the Lord your God.”

23Then Moses spoke to the people of Israel, and they brought the man who cursed to a place outside the camp. Then they killed him with stones. So the people of Israel did just what the Lord had commanded Moses.

A Time of Rest for the Land

25The Lord spoke to Moses at Mount Sinai. The Lord said, 2“Tell the people of Israel: You will enter the land that I am giving to you. At that time, you must let the land have a special time of rest. This will be a special time of rest to honor the Lord. 3You will plant seed in your field for six years. You will trim the plants in your grape fields for six years and bring in its fruits. 4But put their hands on his head This shows that all those people were sharing in punishing the man.
he must be punished Literally, “he must bear his sin.”
give another animal to take its place Literally, “pay for it; life for life.”
during the seventh year, you will let the land rest. This will be a special time of rest to honor the Lord. You must not plant seed in your field or trim the plants in your grape fields. You must not cut the crops that grow by themselves after your harvest. You must not gather the grapes from your vines that are not trimmed. The land will have a year of rest.

6“\text{The land will have a year of rest,}^\text{6} \text{ but you will still have enough food. There will be enough food for your men and women servants. There will be food for your hired workers and for the foreigners living in your country.} \text{ And there will be enough food for your cows and other animals to eat.}

\text{Jubilee — The Year of Release} \text{ \large \text{8}You will also count seven groups of seven years. This will be 49 years. During that time, there will be seven years of rest for the land.}
\text{On the Day of Atonement,}^\text{8} \text{ you must blow a ram’s horn. That will be on the tenth day of the seventh month. You must blow the ram’s horn through the whole country.} \text{ You will make the 50th year a special year. You will announce freedom for all the people living in your country. This time will be called ‘Jubilee.’}^\text{8} \text{ Each of you will go back to his own property.}^\text{8} \text{ And each of you will go back to his family.} \text{ The 50th year will be a special celebration}^\text{8} \text{ for you. Don’t plant seeds. Don’t harvest the crops that grow by themselves. Don’t gather grapes from the vines that are not trimmed.} \text{ That year is Jubilee. It will be a holy time for you. You will eat the crops that come from the field.} \text{ In the year of Jubilee, each person will go back to his own property.}

14\text{“Don’t cheat your neighbor when you sell your land to him. And don’t let him cheat you when you buy land from him.} \text{ If you want to buy your neighbor’s land, then count the number of years since the last Jubilee, and use that number to decide the right price.} \text{ Why? Because he is really only selling you the rights for harvesting crops until the next Jubilee.} \text{ If there are many years before the next Jubilee, then the price will be high. If the years are few, then the price will be lower. Why? Because your neighbor is really only selling a number of crops to you. At the next Jubilee the land will again belong to his family.} \text{ You must not cheat each other. You must honor your God! I am the Lord your God!}

18\text{“Remember my laws and rules. Obey them! Then you will live safely in your country.} \text{ And the land will produce good crops for you. Then you will have plenty of food and you will live safely on the land.} \text{ But maybe you will say, ‘If we don’t plant seeds or gather our crops, we will not have anything to eat during the seventh year.’} \text{ Don’t worry! I will order my blessing to come to you during the sixth year. The land will continue growing crops for three years. When you plant in the eighth year, you will still be eating things from the old crop. You will eat the old crop until the ninth year, when the crop you planted in the eighth year comes in.}

\text{Property Laws} \text{ The land really belongs to me. So you can’t really sell it permanently. You are only foreigners and travelers living on my land, with me. People might sell their land, but the family will always get their land back. A person in your country might become very poor. He might be so poor that he must sell his property. So his close relative must come and buy back the property for his relative. A person might not have a close relative to buy back his land for him. But he might get enough money to buy back the land for himself. Then he must count the years since the land was sold. He must use that number to decide how much to pay for the land. Then he must buy back the land. Then the land will be his property again. But if this person can’t find enough money to get the land back...} for himself, then what he has sold will stay in the hands of the person who bought it until the year of Jubilee. Then during that special celebration, the land will go back to the first owner’s family. So the property will again belong to the right family.

29“If a person sells a home in a walled city, then he still has the right to get it back until a full year after he sold the house. His right to get the house back will continue one year. But if the owner does not buy back the house before a full year is finished, then the house that is in the walled city will belong to the person who bought it, and to his descendants. The house will not go back to the first owner at the time of Jubilee. *

31Towns without walls around them will be treated like open fields. So houses built in those small towns will go back to the first owners at the time of Jubilee.

32-But about the cities of the Levites: The Levites can buy back their houses at any time in the cities that belong to them. If a person buys a house from a Levite, that house in the Levites’ city will again belong to the Levites at the time of Jubilee. * Why? Because houses in Levite cities belong to people from the family group of Levi. The people of Israel gave those cities to the Levite people. Also, the fields and pastures around the Levite cities can’t be sold. Those fields belong to the Levites forever.

Rules for Slave Owners

35 “Maybe a person from your own country will become too poor to support himself. You must let him live with you like a visitor. Don’t charge him any interest on money you might loan to him. Respect your God, and let your brother live with you. Don’t charge him interest on any money you lend him. And don’t try to make a profit from the food you sell him. I am the Lord your God. I brought you out of the land of Egypt to give the land of Canaan to you and to become your God.

39 “Maybe a person from your own country will become so poor that he sells himself as a slave to you. You must not make him work like a slave. He will be like a hired worker and a visitor with you until the year of Jubilee. Then he can leave you. He can take his children and go back to his family. He can go back to the property of his ancestors. * Why? Because they are our servants! I brought them out of slavery in Egypt. They must not become slaves again. You must not be a cruel master to this person. You must respect your God.

44 “About your men and women slaves: You may get men and women slaves from the other nations around you. Also, you may get children as slaves if they come from the families of the foreigners living in your land. Those children slaves will belong to you.

46 You may even pass these foreign slaves on to your children after you die so that they will belong to your children. They will be your slaves forever. You may make slaves of these foreigners. But you must not be a cruel master over your own brothers, the people of Israel.

47 “Maybe a foreigner or visitor among you will become rich. Maybe a person from your own country will become poor, so that he sells himself as a slave to a foreigner living among you or to a member of a foreigner’s family. That person will have the right to be bought back and become free. One of his brothers can buy him back. Or his uncle or his cousin can buy him back. Or one of his close relatives from his family can buy him back. Or if the person gets enough money, he can pay the money himself and become free again.

50 “How do you decide the price? You must count the years from the time he sold himself to the foreigner up to the next year of Jubilee. Use that number to decide the price. Why? Because really the person only ‘hired’ him for a few years! If there are still many Jubilee The word comes from the Hebrew word for the horn that was blown at this time. See Leviticus 25:9.

descendants A person’s children and their future families.
a person … country Literally, “one of your brothers.”
your brother Or, “the person from your own country.” ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
One … brothers Or, “A person from his own country.”
years before the year of Jubilee, then the person must give back a large part of the price. It all depends on the numbers of years. If only a few years are left until the year of Jubilee, then the person must pay a small part of the original price. But that person will live like a hired man with the foreigner every year. Don’t let the foreigner be a cruel master over that person.

That person will become free, even if no one buys him back. At the year of Jubilee he and his children will become free. Why? Because the people of Israel are my servants. They are the servants that I brought out of slavery in Egypt. I am the Lord your God!

Rewards for Obeying God

Don’t make idols for yourselves. Don’t set up statues or memorials in your land to bow down to. Why? Because I am the Lord your God!

Remember my special days of rest and honor my holy place. I am the Lord!

Remember my laws and commands, and obey them! If you do those things, then I will give you rains at the time they should come. The land will grow crops and the trees of the field will grow their fruit. Your threshing will continue until it is time to gather grapes. And your grape gathering will continue until it is time to plant. Then you will have plenty to eat. And you will live safely in your land. I will give peace to your country. You will lie down in peace. No person will come to make you afraid. I will keep harmful animals out of your country. And armies will not come through your country.

You will chase your enemies, and defeat them. You will kill them with your sword. Five of you will chase 100 men, and 100 of you will chase 10,000 men. You will defeat your enemies and kill them with your sword.

Then I will turn to you. I will let you have many children. I will keep my Agreement with you. You will have enough crops to last for more than a year. You will harvest the new crops. But then you will have to throw out the old crops to make room for the new crops! Also, I will place my Holy Tent among you. I will not turn away from you! I will walk with you and be your God. And you will be my people.

I am the Lord your God. You were slaves in Egypt. But I brought you out of Egypt. You were bent low from the heavy weights you carried as slaves. But I broke the poles that were on your shoulders. I let you walk tall again!

Punishment for Not Obeying God

But if you don’t obey me and all my commands, then these bad things will happen. If you refuse to obey my laws and commands, then you have broken my Agreement. If you do that, then I will cause terrible things to happen to you. I will cause you to have disease and fever. They will destroy your eyes and take away your life. You will not have success when you plant your seed. And your enemies will eat your crops!

I will be against you, so your enemies will defeat you. Those enemies hate you, and they will rule over you. You will run away even when no one is chasing you.

After these things, if you still don’t obey me, I will punish you seven times more for your sins. And I will also destroy the great cities that make you proud. The skies will not give rain, and the earth will not produce crops. You will work hard, but it will not help. Your land will not give any crops, and your trees will not grow their fruit.

If you still turn against me and refuse to obey me, then I will beat you seven times harder! The more you sin, the more you will be punished! I will send wild animals against you. They will take your children away from you. They will destroy your memorial A stone marker to help people remember something special. In ancient Israel, people often set up stone markers as places to worship false gods.

Jubilee The word comes from the Hebrew word for the horn that was blown at this time. See Leviticus 25:9.

special days of rest Or, “Sabbaths.”

threshing Beating grain to remove its hulls.

Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle.” The place God came to live among his people.

The skies ... crops Literally, “Your skies will be like iron, your land like bronze.” animals. They will kill many of your people. People will be afraid to travel—the roads will be empty!

23 If you don’t learn your lesson after all those things, and if you still turn against me, I will also turn against you. I—yes, I (the Lord)—will punish you seven times for your sins.

24 You will have broken my Agreement, so I will punish you. I will bring armies against you. You will go into your cities for safety. But I will cause diseases to spread among you. And your enemies will defeat you.

25 I will give you a share of the grain left in that city. But there will be very little food to eat. Ten women will be able to cook all their bread in one oven. They will measure each piece of bread. You will eat, but you will still be hungry!

26 If you still refuse to listen to me, and if you still turn against me, then I will really show my anger! I—yes, I (the Lord)—will punish you seven times for your sins!

27 You will become so hungry that you will eat the bodies of your sons and daughters. I will destroy your high places. I will cut down your incense altars. I will put your dead bodies on the dead bodies of your idols. You will be very disgusting to me.

28 I will destroy your cities. I will make your holy places empty. I will stop smelling your offerings. I will make your land empty. And your enemies that come to live there will be shocked at it. I will scatter you among the nations. I will pull out my sword and destroy you. Your land will become empty and your cities will be destroyed.

29 You will be taken to your enemy’s country. Your country will be empty. So your land will finally get its rest. The land will enjoy its time of rest. Then the survivors will accept the punishment for their sins. They will learn that they were punished because they hated my laws and refused to obey my rules.

30 The law says the land should have a year of rest every seven years. During the time that the land is empty, it will get the time of rest that you did not give it while you lived there.

31 The survivors will rot away in their sin in their enemies’ countries. They will rot away in their sins just like their ancestors did.

There Is Always Hope

32 But maybe the people will confess (admit) their sins. And maybe they will confess the sins of their ancestors. Maybe they will admit that they turned against me. Maybe they will admit that they sinned against me.

33 Maybe they will admit that I turned against them and brought them into the land of their enemies. Those people will be like strangers to me. But maybe they will become humble and accept the punishment for their sin.

34 If they do, then I will remember my Agreement with Jacob. I will remember my Agreement with Isaac. I will remember my Agreement with Abraham. And I will remember the land.

35 The land will be empty. The land will enjoy its time of rest. Then the survivors will accept the punishment for their sins. They will learn that they were punished because they hated my laws and refused to obey my rules.

36 They truly sinned. But if they come to me for help, I will not turn away from them. I will listen to them, even if they are in the land of their enemies. I will not completely destroy survivors People who escaped some disaster. Here, this means the Jewish people who survived the destruction of Judah and Israel by its enemy’s armies.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Those people ... humble Literally, “If they humble their uncircumcised heart.”
them. I will not break my Agreement with them. Why? Because I am the Lord their God! 45For them, I will remember the Agreement with their ancestors.* I brought their ancestors out of the land of Egypt so I could become their God. The other nations saw those things. I am the Lord!”

46Those are the laws, rules and teachings that the Lord gave to the people of Israel. Those laws are the Agreement between the Lord and the people of Israel. The Lord gave those laws to Moses at Mount Sinai and Moses gave them to the people.

Promises Are Important

27 The Lord said to Moses, 2“Tell the people of Israel: A person might make a special promise to the Lord. That person might promise to give a person to the Lord. That person will then serve the Lord in a special way. The priest must set a price for that person. People will have to pay that price if they want to buy the person back from the Lord. 3The price for a man from 20 to 60 years old is 50 shekels* of silver. (You must use the official measure* for the silver.) 4The price for a woman that is 20 to 60 years old is 30 shekels. 5The price for a man from 5 to 20 years old is 20 shekels. The price for a woman from 5 to 20 years old is 10 shekels. 6The price for a baby boy from one month to five years old is 5 shekels. For a baby girl, the price is 3 shekels. 7The price for a man who is 60 years old or older is 15 shekels. The price for a woman is 10 shekels.

8If a person is too poor to pay the price, then bring that person to the priest. The priest will decide how much money the person can afford to pay.

Gifts to the Lord

9Some animals can be used as sacrifices to the Lord. If a person brings one of those animals, then that animal will become holy.

10That person promises to give that animal to the Lord, so that person must not try to put another animal in its place. He must not try to change it for something else. He must not try to change a good animal for a bad animal. He must not change a bad animal for a good animal. If that person does try to change animals, then both animals will become holy—both animals will belong to the Lord. 11Some animals can’t be offered as sacrifices to the Lord. If a person brings one of those unclean* animals to the Lord, then that animal must be brought to the priest. 12The priest will decide a price for that animal. It does not make any difference if the animal is good or bad. If the priest decides on a price, then that is the price for the animal. 13If the person wants to buy back the animal, then he must add a fifth to the price. Then the house will belong to that person.

The Value of a House

14“Now if a person dedicates his house as holy to the Lord, then the priest must decide its price. It does not make any difference if the house is good or bad. If the priest decides on a price, then that is the price for the house. 15But if the person who gave the house wants to get it back, then he must add a fifth to the price. Then the house will belong to that person.

Value of Property

16“If a person dedicates part of his fields to the Lord, the value of those fields will depend on how much seed is needed to plant it. It will be 50 shekels* of silver for each homer* of barley seed. 17If the person gives his field to God during the year of Jubilee,* then its value will be whatever the priest decides. 18But if the person who gave his field after the Jubilee, then the priest must calculate its exact price. He must count the number of years to the next year of Jubilee. Then he must use that number to decide the price. 19If the person who gave the ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

shekels A shekel is 2/5 of an ounce.
official measure Literally, “holy shekel,” the official standard of measure used in the tabernacle or temple.
unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
buy back the animal See Exodus 13:1–16 for the laws about giving to God or “buying back” firstborn children or animals.
homer A dry measure equal to about 6 bushels.
Jubilee The word comes from the Hebrew word for the horn that was blown at this time. See Leviticus 25:9.
field wants to buy back the field, then he must add a fifth to that price. Then the field will again belong to that person. 20 If the person does not buy back the field, then the field will always belong to the priests. If the land is sold to someone else, then that first person can’t buy back the land. 21 If the person did not buy back the land, then at the year of Jubilee, the field will remain holy to the Lord—it will belong to the priest forever! It will be like land that was given completely to the Lord.

22 “If a person dedicates to the Lord a field that he has bought, and it is not a part of his family’s property,* then the priest must count the years to the year of Jubilee* and decide the price for the land. Then that land will belong to the Lord. 23 At the year of Jubilee, the land will go to the original owner. It will go back to the family that owns the land.

24 You must use the official measure* in paying those prices. The shekel by that measure weighs 20 gerahs.*

Value of Animals

25 “People can give cows and sheep as special gifts to the Lord. But if the animal is the firstborn, then that animal already belongs to the Lord. So people can’t give those animals as special gifts. 26 People must give firstborn animals to the Lord. If the firstborn animal is an unclean* animal, then the person must buy back that animal. The priest will decide the price of the animal, and the person must add a fifth to that price. If the person does not buy back that animal, then the priest must sell the animal for the price he decided.

Special Gifts

27 “There is a special kind of gift* that people give to the Lord. That gift belongs only to the Lord. That gift cannot be bought back or sold. That gift belongs to the Lord. That type of gift includes people, animals, and fields from the family property.

28 “If that special kind of gift* to the Lord is a person, then that person cannot be bought back. That person must be killed.

29 “A tenth of all crops belong to the Lord. This means the crops from fields and the fruit from trees—a tenth belongs to the Lord. So if a person wants to get back his tenth, he must add a fifth to its price and then buy it back.

30 “The priests will take every tenth animal from a person’s cows or sheep. Every tenth animal will belong to the Lord. 31 The owner should not worry if the chosen animal is good or bad. He should not change the animal for another animal. If he decides to change it for another animal, then both animals will belong to the Lord. That animal can’t be bought back.”

32 Those are the commands that the Lord gave Moses at Mount Sinai for the people of Israel.

---

Jubilee The word comes from the Hebrew word for the horn that was blown at this time. See Leviticus 25:9.

family’s property That is, land that was owned originally by his family and family group.

official measure Literally, “holy shekel,” the official standard of measure used in the tabernacle or temple.

gerahs A gerah is 1/50 of an ounce.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

special kind of gift This usually means things taken in war. Those things (gifts) belonged only to the Lord, so they could not be used for anything else.
Moses Counts the People of Israel

The Lord spoke to Moses in the Meeting Tent.* This was in the Sinai Desert. It was on the first day of the second month of the second year after the people of Israel left Egypt. The Lord said to Moses: 2"Count all the people of Israel. List the name of each man with his family and his family group. 3You and Aaron must count all the men of Israel who are 20 years old or older. (These are the men who serve in the army of Israel.) List them by their group.* 4One man from each and every family group will help you. This man will be the leader of his family group. 5These are the names of the men who will stand with you and help you:

- from Reuben’s family group—Elizur son of Shedeur;
- from Simeon’s family group—Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai;
- from Judah’s family group—Nahshon son of Amminadab;
- from Issachar’s family group—Nethanel son of Zuar;
- from Zebulun’s family group—Eliab son of Helon;
- from the descendants of Joseph from Ephraim’s family group—Elishama son of Ammihud;
- from Manasseh’s family group—Gamaliel son of Pedahzur;
- from Benjamin’s family group—Abidan son of Gideoni;
- from Dan’s family group—Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai;
- from Asher’s family group—Pagiel son of Ocran;
- from Gad’s family group—Eliasaph son of Deuel*;
- from Naphtali’s family group—Ahira son of Enan.”

6All those men are the leaders of their families. The people also chose them to be leaders of their family groups. 17Moses and Aaron took these men who had been chosen to be leaders. 18And Moses and Aaron called all the people of Israel together. Then the people were listed by their families and their family groups. All the men who were 20 years old or older were listed. 19Moses did exactly what the Lord commanded—Moses counted the people while they were in the Sinai desert.

20They counted Reuben’s family group. (Reuben was the firstborn son of Israel.) The names of all the men who were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups. 21The total number of men counted from Reuben’s family group was 46,500.

22They counted Simeon’s family group. The names of all the men who were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups. 23The total number of men counted from Simeon’s family group was 59,300.

24They counted Gad’s family group. The names of all the men who were 20 years old

---

*Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

group(s) Or, “division(s).” This is a military term that shows Israel was organized like an army.

*Deuel Or, “Reuel.”

firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.
or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups.

The total number of men counted from Gad’s family group was 45,650.

They counted Judah’s family group. The names of all the men who were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups.

The total number of men counted from Judah’s family group was 74,600.

They counted Issachar’s family group. The names of all the men who were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups.

The total number of men counted from Issachar’s family group was 54,400.

They counted Zebulun’s family group. The names of all the men who were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups.

The total number of men counted from Zebulun’s family group was 57,400.

They counted Ephraim’s family group. (Ephraim was Joseph’s son.) The names of all the men who were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups.

The total number of men counted from Ephraim’s family group was 40,500.

They counted Manasseh’s family group. (Manasseh was also Joseph’s son.) The names of all the men who were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups.

The total number of men counted from Manasseh’s family group was 32,200.

They counted Benjamin’s family group. The names of all the men who were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups.

The total number of men counted from Benjamin’s family group was 35,400.

They counted Dan’s family group. The names of all the men who were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups.

The total number of men counted from Dan’s family group was 62,700.

They counted Asher’s family group. The names of all the men who were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups.

The total number of men counted from Asher’s family group was 41,500.

They counted Naphtali’s family group. The names of all the men who were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed by name with their families and family groups.

The total number of men counted from Naphtali’s family group was 53,400.

Moses, Aaron, and the twelve leaders of Israel counted these men. (There was one leader from each family group.) They counted every man who was 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army. Each man was listed with his family.

The total number of men counted was 603,550 men.

The families from the Levi family group were not counted with the other people of Israel. The Lord had told Moses;

Don’t count the men from Levi’s family group or include them with the other people of Israel. Tell the men of Levi that they are responsible for the Holy Tent* of the Agreement. They must take care of that tent and all the things that are with it. They must carry the Holy Tent and everything in it. They must make their camp around it and take care of it. Whenever the Holy Tent is set up, the men of Levi must do it. Whenever the Holy Tent is moved, the men of Levi must do it. They are the men who will take care of the Holy Tent. If any person who is not from Levi’s family group tries to take care of the tent, he must be killed. The people of Israel will make their camps in separate groups.* Each person should camp near his family flag. But the men of Levi must make their camp around the Holy Tent. The men of Levi will guard the Holy Tent of the Agreement. They will protect the Holy Tent, so that nothing bad will happen to the people of Israel.”

Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle,” the tent where God came to live among his people.

group(s) Or, “division(s).” This is a military term that shows Israel was organized like an army.
So the people of Israel obeyed all the things that the Lord commanded Moses.

The Camp Arrangement

The Lord said to Moses and Aaron: "The people of Israel should make their camps around the Meeting Tent.* Each group* will have its own special flag, and each person will camp near his group’s flag.

The flag of the camp of Judah will be on the east side, where the sun rises. The people of Judah will camp near its flag. The leader of the people of Judah is Nahshon son of Amminadab. There are 74,600 men in his group.*

Issachar’s family group will camp next to Judah’s family group. The leader of the people of Issachar is Nethanel son of Zuar. There are 54,400 men in his group.*

Zebulun’s family group will also camp next to Judah’s family group. The leader of the people of Zebulun is Eliab son of Helon. There are 57,400 men in his group.*

There is a total of 186,400 men in Judah’s camp. All these men are divided into their different family groups. Judah will be the first group to move when the people travel from one place to another.

The flag of Reuben’s camp will be south of the Holy Tent.* Each group will camp near its flag. The leader of the people of Reuben is Elizur son of Shedeur. There are 46,500 men in this group.*

Simeon’s family group will camp next to Reuben’s family group. The leader of the people of Simeon is Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai. There are 59,300 men in this group.*

Gad’s family group will also camp next to the people of Reuben. The leader of the people of Gad is Eliasaph son of Deuel.* There are 45,650 men in this group.*

There are 151,450 men in all the groups* in Reuben’s camp. Reuben’s camp will be the second group to move when the people travel from place to place.

When the people travel, Levi’s camp will move next. The Meeting Tent* will be with them between the other camps. The people will make their camps in the same order that they move. Each person will be with his family flag.

The flag of the camp of Ephraim will be on the west side. The family groups of Ephraim will camp there. The leader of the people of Ephraim is Elishama son of Ammuhad. There are 40,500 men in this group.*

Manasseh’s family group will camp next to Ephraim’s family. The leader of the people of Manasseh is Gamaliel son of Pedahzur. There are 32,200 men in this group.*

Benjamin’s family group will also camp next to Ephraim’s family. The leader of the people of Benjamin is Abidan son of Gideoni. There are 35,400 men in this group.*

There are 108,100 men in Ephraim’s camp. They will be the third family to move when the people travel from one place to another.

The flag of Dan’s camp will be on the north side. The family groups of Dan will camp there. The leader of the people of Dan is Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai. There are 62,700 men in this group.*

The people from Asher’s family group will camp next to Dan’s family group. The leader of the people of Asher is Pagiel son of Ocран. There are 41,500 men in this group.*

Naphtali’s family group will also camp next to Dan’s family group. The leader of the people of Naphtali is Ahira son of Enan. There are 53,400 men in this group.*

There are 157,600 men in Dan’s camp. They will be the last family to move when the people travel from place to place. Each person will be with his family’s flag.”

So those were the people of Israel. They were counted by families. The total number of Israelite men in the camps, counted by groups,* is 603,550. Moses obeyed the Lord and did not count the Levites with the other people of Israel.

So the people of Israel did everything the Lord told Moses. Each group camped under its own flag. And each person stayed with his own family and family group.

Aaron’s Family, the Priests

3 This is the family history of Aaron and Moses at the time the Lord talked to Moses on Mount Sinai.

2Aaron had four sons. Nadab was the firstborn* son. Then there were Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. 3These sons were the chosen* priests.

These sons were given the special work of serving the Lord as priests. 4But Nadab and Abihu died because they sinned while serving the Lord. They used fire that the Lord did not allow when they made an offering to the Lord. So Nadab and Abihu died there, in the Sinai desert. They had no sons, so Eleazar and Ithamar took their place and served the Lord as priests. This happened while their father Aaron was still alive.

Levites—the Priests’ Helpers

5The Lord said to Moses, 6“Bring all the men from Levi’s family group. Bring them to Aaron the priest. Those men will be Aaron’s helpers. 7The Levites will help Aaron when he serves at the Meeting Tent.* And the Levites will help all the people of Israel when they come to worship at the Holy Tent.* 8The people of Israel should protect all the things in the Meeting Tent; it is their duty. But the Levites will serve the people of Israel by caring for these things. This will be their way of worshiping at the Holy Tent.

9“Give the Levites to Aaron and his sons. The Levites were chosen from all the people of Israel to help Aaron and his sons.

10“Appoint Aaron and his sons to be priests. They must do their duty and serve as priests. Any other person who tries to come near the holy things* must be killed.”

11The Lord also said to Moses, 12“I told you that every family of Israel must give their firstborn* son to me—but now I am choosing the Levites to serve me. They will be mine. So all the other people of Israel will not have to give their firstborn sons to me.

13“When you were in Egypt, I killed all the firstborn* children of the Egyptians. At that time, I took all of the firstborn children of Israel to be mine. All of the firstborn children and all the firstborn animals are mine. But now I am giving your firstborn children back to you, and I am making the Levites mine. I am the Lord.”

14The Lord again talked to Moses in the Sinai desert. The Lord said, 15“Count all the families and family groups in Levi’s family group. Count every man or boy that is a month old or older.” 16So Moses obeyed the Lord. He counted them all.

17Levi had three sons. Their names were: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. 18Each son was the leader of several family groups.

The Gershon family groups were: Libni and Shimei.

19The Kohath family groups were: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

20The Merari family groups were: Mahli and Mushi.

Those are the families that belonged to Levi’s family group.

21The families of Libni and Shimei belonged to the family of Gershon. They were the Gershonite family groups. 22There were 7,500 men and boys over one month old in these two family groups. 23The Gershonite family groups were told to camp in the west. They made their camp behind the Holy Tent.* 24The leader of the family groups of the Gershonite people was Eliasaph son of Lael.

25In the Meeting Tent,* the Gershonite people had the job of taking care of the Holy Tent, the outer tent, and the covering. They also took care of the curtain at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. 26They cared for the curtain in... the courtyard. And they cared for the curtain at the entrance of the courtyard. This courtyard was around the Holy Tent and the altar.* And they cared for the ropes and for everything that was used with the curtains.

27The families of Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, belonged to the family of Kohath. They were the Kohathite family groups. 28In this family group there were 8,300* men and boys a month old or over. The Kohathite people were given the job of taking care of the things in the holy place. 29The Kohathite family groups were given the area to the south of the Holy Tent.* This was the area where they camped. 30The leader of the Kohathite family groups was Elizaphan son of Uzziel. 31Their job was to take care of the Holy Box,* the table, the lampstand, the altars, and the dishes of the Holy Place.* They also cared for the curtain and all the things that were used with the curtain.

32The leader over the leaders of the Levite people was Eleazar son of Aaron the priest. Eleazar was in charge of all the people that took care of the holy things.

33–34The family groups of Mahli and Mushi belonged to the Merari family. There were 6,200 men and boys that were one month old or older in the Mahli family group. 35The leader of the Merari family group was Zuriel son of Abihail. This family group was given the area to the north of the Holy Tent.* This is the area where they camped. 36The people from the Merari family were given the job of caring for the frames of the Holy Tent. They cared for all the braces, posts, bases, and everything that was used with the frames of the Holy Tent. 37They also cared for all the posts in the courtyard around the Holy Tent. This included all the bases, tent pegs, and ropes.

38Moses, Aaron, and his sons camped east of the Holy Tent,* in front of the Meeting Tent. They were given the work of caring for the Holy Place. They did this for all the people of Israel. Any other person who came near the Holy Place was to be killed.

39The Lord commanded Moses and Aaron to count all the men and boys one month old or older in Levi’s family group. The total number was 22,000.

Levites Take the Place of the Firstborn

40The Lord said to Moses, “Count all the firstborn* men and boys in Israel who are at least one month old. Write their names on a list. 41In the past I said that I would take all the firstborn* men and boys of Israel. But now I, the Lord, will take the Levites. I will also take the firstborn animals from the Levites instead of taking all the firstborn animals from the other people in Israel.”

42So Moses did what the Lord commanded. Moses counted all the firstborn* children of the people of Israel. 43Moses listed all the firstborn men and boys that were one month old or older. There were 22,273 names on that list.

44The Lord also said to Moses, 45“I, the Lord, give this command: ‘Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn* men from the other families of Israel. And I will take the animals of the Levites instead of the animals of the other people. The Levites are mine. 46There are 22,000 Levites, but there are 22,273 firstborn sons from the other families. This leaves 273 more firstborn sons than Levites. 47Using the official measure,* collect five shekels* of silver for each of the 273 people. (The shekel by the official measure weighs 20 gerahs.*) Collect that silver from the people of Israel. 48Give that silver to Aaron and his sons. It is the payment for the 273 people of Israel.’”

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
8,300 Some copies of the ancient Greek version have “8,300.” The Hebrew copies have “8,600.” See Num. 3:22, 28, 34, 39.
Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle,” the tent where God came to live among his people.
Holy Box Or, “ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.
Holy Place One of the rooms in the Holy Tent.
firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.
official measure Literally, “holy shekel,” the standard of measure used in the tabernacle and the temple.
five shekels Or, “2 ounces.”
gerah(s) A gerah is 1/50 of an ounce.
49 There were not enough Levites to take the place of 273 men from the other family groups. So Moses gathered the money for those 273 men. 50 Moses collected the silver from the firstborn* men of the people of Israel. He collected 1,365 shekels* of silver, using the official measure.* 51 Moses obeyed the Lord. Moses gave the silver to Aaron and his sons just like the Lord commanded.

The Jobs of the Kohath Family

4 The Lord said to Moses and Aaron,
2 "Count the men in the families of the Kohath family group. (The Kohath family group is a part of Levi’s family group.) 3 Count all the men from 30 to 50 years old that served in the army. These men will work in the Meeting Tent.* 4 Their job is to take care of the most holy things in the Meeting Tent.
5 "When the people of Israel travel to a new place, then Aaron and his sons must go into the Meeting Tent* and take down the curtain and cover the Holy Box of the Agreement* with it.
6 Then they must cover all of this with covering made from fine leather.* Then they must spread the solid blue cloth over the leather and put the poles in the rings on the Holy Box.*
7 "Then they must spread a blue cloth over the holy table. Then they must put the plates, spoons, bowls, and the jars for drink offerings on the table. Also, put the special bread on the table. 8 Then you must put a red cloth over all of these things. Then cover everything with fine leather.* Then put the poles in the rings of the table.*
9 "Then they must cover the lampstand and its lamps with a blue cloth. They must also cover all the things used to keep the lamps burning and all the jars of oil that are used in the lamps. 10 Then wrap everything in fine leather.* Then they must put all these things on poles used for carrying them.
11 "They must spread a blue cloth over the golden altar. They must cover that with fine leather.* Then they must put the poles for carrying it in the rings on the altar.*
12 "Then they must gather together all the special things that are used for worship in the Holy Place.* They must gather them together and wrap them in a blue cloth. Then they must cover that with fine leather.* They must put these things on a frame for carrying them.
13 "They must clean the ashes out of the bronze altar and spread a purple cloth over it.
14 Then they must gather together all the things that are used for worship at the altar. These are the fire pans, forks, shovels, and the bowls. They must put these things on the bronze altar. Then they must spread a covering of fine leather* over the altar. They must put the poles for carrying it in the rings on the altar.*
15 "Aaron and his sons must finish covering all the holy things in the Holy Place.* Then the men from the Kohath family can go in and begin carrying those things. In this way, they will not touch the Holy Place and die.
16 "Eleazar son of Aaron the priest will be responsible for the Holy Tent.* He will be responsible for the Holy Place* and for everything in it. He will be responsible for the oil for the lamp, the sweet-smelling incense,*
the daily offering,* and the anointing oil.*"

The Lord said to Moses and Aaron. 18 "Be careful! Don’t let these Kohathite men be destroyed. 19 You must do these things so that the Kohathite men can go near the Most Holy Place* and not die. Aaron and his sons must firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.

1,365 shekels Or, “35 pounds.”
official measure Literally, “temple shekel.”
Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.
Holy Box of the Agreement Also called “ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them. These were proof of the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.
fine leather A special kind of leather made from the skin of an animal like the seal or sea cow.

Holy Place One of the rooms in the Holy Tent.
Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle,” the tent where God came to live among his people.
incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.
daily offering Offerings that were placed twice each day in the Holy Place as a gift to God.
anointing oil Olive oil that was poured on people or things to show they were chosen for a special work or purpose.

Most Holy Place The room inside the Holy Tent where the Holy Box was kept.
go in and show each Kohathite man what to do. They must give each man the things he needs to carry. 20If you do not do this, then the Kohathite men might go in and look at the holy things. If they look at those things, even for a moment, then they must die.”

The Jobs of the Gershon Family
21The Lord said to Moses, 22“Count all the people of the Gershon family. List them by family and family group. 23Count all the men who are from 30 to 50 years old that served in the army. These men will have the job of caring for the Meeting Tent.* 24This is what the Gershonite family must do and the things they must carry: 25They must carry the curtains of the Holy Tent,* the Meeting Tent, its covering, and the covering made from fine leather.* They must also carry the curtain at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. 26They must carry the curtains of the courtyard that are around the Holy Tent and the altar. And they must carry the curtain for the entrance of the courtyard. They must also carry all of the ropes and all the things that are used with the curtains. The Gershonite men will be responsible for anything that needs to be done with these things. 27Aaron and his sons will watch all the work that is done. Everything the Gershonite people carry and the other work they do will be watched by Aaron and his sons. You must tell them all the things that they are responsible for carrying. 28This is the work that the men of the Gershonite family group must do for the Meeting Tent. Ithamar son of Aaron the priest will be responsible for their work.”

The Jobs of the Merari Family
29“Count all of the men in the families and family groups in the Merari family group. 30Count all the men who are from 30 to 50 years old and served in the army. These men will do a special work for the Meeting Tent.* 31When you travel, it is their job to carry the frames of the Meeting Tent. They must carry the braces, the posts, and the bases. 32They must also carry the posts that are around the courtyard. They must carry the bases, the tent pegs, the ropes, and everything that is used for the poles around the courtyard. List the names and tell each man exactly what he must carry. 33These are the things that the people from the Merari family will do to serve in the work for the Meeting Tent. Ithamar son of Aaron the priest will be responsible for their work.”

The Levite Families
34Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of the people of Israel counted the Kohathite people. They counted them by families and family groups. 35They counted all the men from 30 to 50 years old that served in the army. These men were given special work to do for the Meeting Tent.* 36There were 2,750 men in the Kohath family group that were qualified to do this work. 37So these men from the Kohath family group were given their special work to do for the Meeting Tent.* Moses and Aaron did this the way the Lord had told Moses to do. 38Also, the Gershonite family group was counted. 39All the men from 30 to 50 years old that served in the army were counted. These men were given their special work to do for the Meeting Tent.* 40There were 2,630 men in the families of the Gershon family group that were qualified. 41So these men from the Gershon family group were given their special work to do for the Meeting Tent. Moses and Aaron did this the way the Lord had told Moses to do. 42Also, the men in the families and family groups of the Merari family were counted. 43All the men from 30 to 50 years old that had served in the army were counted. These men were given their special work to do for the Meeting Tent.* 44There were 3,200 men in the families of the Merari family group that were qualified. 45So these men from the Merari family group were given their special work. Moses and Aaron did this the way the Lord told Moses to do.
So Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of the people of Israel counted all the people in Levi’s family group. They had counted each family and each family group. All the men between the ages of 30 and 50 that served in the army were counted. These men were given a special work to do for the Meeting Tent. They did the work of carrying the Meeting Tent when they traveled. The total number was 8,580.

So, each man was counted like the Lord commanded Moses. Each man was given his own work and told what he must carry. This was done just like the Lord commanded.

Rules About Cleanliness

The Lord said to Moses, “I command the people of Israel to keep their camp free from sickness and disease. Tell the people to send away from the camp any person who has a bad skin disease.* Tell them to send away from their camp any person who has a discharge.* And tell them to send away from their camp any person who has touched a dead body. It doesn’t matter if that person is a man or a woman, send them away from your camp. Send them away so that they will not cause any more sickness and disease. I am living among you in your camp.”

So the people of Israel obeyed God’s command. They sent those people outside the camp. They did what the Lord had commanded to Moses.

Paying for Doing Wrong

The Lord said to Moses, “Tell this to the people of Israel: A person might do something bad to another person. (When someone does bad things to other people, he is really sinning against God.) That person is guilty. So that person must confess (tell about) the sin he has done. Then that person must fully pay for that wrong thing he did. And he must add one-fifth to the payment and give it all to the person he had done wrong to. But maybe the person he did wrong to is dead. And maybe that dead person doesn’t have any close relatives to take the payment. In that case, the person who did wrong will give the payment to the Lord. That person will give the full payment to the priest. The priest must sacrifice the ram that makes people pure. This ram must be sacrificed to cover over the sins of the person who did wrong. But the priest can keep the rest of the payment.

“If one of the people of Israel gives a special gift to God, then the priest that accepts that gift can keep it. It is his. A person doesn’t have to give these special gifts. But if he gives them, then the gifts belong to the priest.”

Suspicious Husbands

Then the Lord said to Moses, “Tell these things to the people of Israel: A man’s wife might be unfaithful to him. She might have sexual relations with another man and hide this from her husband. And there might not be anyone to tell him that she did this sin. Her husband might never know about the wrong thing she did. And the woman might not tell her husband about her sin. But the husband might begin to suspect that his wife sinned against him. He might become jealous. He might begin to believe that she is not pure and true to him. If that happens, then he must take his wife to the priest. The husband must also take an offering of 8 cups* of barley flour. He must not pour oil or incense* on the barley flour. This barley flour is a grain offering to the Lord. It is given because the husband is jealous. This offering will show that he believes that his wife has been unfaithful to him.

“The priest will take the woman before the Lord and make her stand there. Then the priest will take some special water and put it in a clay jar. The priest will put some dirt from the floor of the Holy Tent into the water. Then he will loosen her hair

---

Meeting Tent  The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.
bad skin disease  Or, “leprosy.” The Hebrew word includes many kinds of skin diseases.
discharge  Fluid from a person’s body, including pus from sores, a man’s semen, or a woman’s period flow.
incense  Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.
8 cups  Literally, “1/10 ephah.”
and put the grain offering in her hand. This is the barley flour that her husband gave because he was jealous. At the same time, he will hold the clay jar of special water. This is the special water that brings trouble to the woman.

19"Then the priest will tell the woman that she must not lie. She must promise to tell the truth. The priest will say to her: ‘If you have not slept with another man, and if you have not sinned against your husband while you were married to him, then this water that causes trouble will not hurt you. 20But if you have sinned against your husband—if you had sexual relations with a man who is not your husband—then you are not pure. 21If that is true, then you will have much trouble when you drink this special water. You will not be able to have any children. And if you are pregnant now, your baby will die.* Then your people will leave you and say bad things about you.’

22The priest must tell the woman to make a special promise to the Lord. The woman must agree that these bad things will happen to her if she lies. 23Then the priest must say, ‘You must drink this water that causes trouble. If you have sinned, you will not be able to have children and any baby you have will die before it is born.’ And the woman should say: ‘I agree to do as you say.’

24The priest should write those warnings on a scroll.* Then he should wash the words off into the water. 25Then the woman must drink the water that brings trouble. This water will enter her and, if she is guilty, it will cause her much suffering. 26Then the priest will take the grain offering from her (the offering for jealousy) and raise it before the Lord. Then he will carry it to the altar. 27If the woman has sinned against her husband, then the water will bring her trouble. The water will go into her body and cause her much suffering. Any baby that is in her will die before it is born, and she will never be able to have children. All the people will turn against her.* 28But if the woman has not sinned against her husband and she is pure, then the priest will say that she is not guilty. Then she will be normal, and able to have children.

29“So that is the law about jealousy. That is what you should do when a woman sins against her husband while she is married to him. 30Or if the man becomes jealous and suspects his wife has sinned against him, then that is what the man should do. The priest must tell the woman to stand before the Lord. Then the priest will do all those things. This is the law. 31The husband will not be guilty of doing anything wrong. But the woman will suffer if she has sinned.”

Nazirites

The Lord said to Moses, 2“Tell these things to the people of Israel: A man or a woman might want to separate from other people for a time. This special time of separation allows a person to give himself totally to the Lord for a time. That person will be called a Nazirite.*

3During that time, that person must not drink any wine or other strong drink. The person must not drink vinegar that is made from wine or from other strong drink. That person must not drink grape juice or eat grapes or raisins. 4That person must not eat anything that comes from grapes during that special time of separation. That person must not eat the seeds or the skins from grapes.

5“That person must not cut his hair during that special time of separation. He must be holy until the time that his separation is ended. He must let his hair grow long. That person’s hair is a special part of his promise to God. He will give that hair as a gift to God. So, that person must let his hair grow long until the time of separation is ended.

---

You will ... die Literally, “Your loins will fall and your belly will swell.”

scroll A long roll of leather or papyrus (paper) used for writing books, letters, and legal documents.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
A Nazirite* must not go near a dead body during that special time of separation. Why? Because that person has given himself fully to the Lord. Even if his own father or mother or brother or sister dies, he must not touch them. This would make him unclean. He must show that he is separated and has given himself fully to God. During the whole time of his separation, he is giving himself fully to the Lord.

It might happen that the Nazirite touches this dead man, the Nazirite will become unclean.* If that happens, then the Nazirite must shave the hair from his head. (That hair was part of his special promise.) He must cut his hair on the seventh day, because on that day he is made clean.* Then on the eighth day, that Nazirite must bring two doves and two young pigeons to the priest. He must give them to the priest at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* Then the priest will offer one as a sin offering. He will offer the other as a burnt offering. (That hair was part of his special promise.) He must give them to the priest at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* Then the priest will offer one as a sin offering. He will offer the other as a burnt offering. The burnt offering will be a payment for the Nazirite’s sin. (He sinned because he was near a dead body.) At that time, the person will again promise to give the hair on his head as a gift to God. This means that person must again give himself to the Lord for another time of separation. That person must bring a one-year-old male lamb. He must give this lamb as a guilt offering. All of the days that he was separated are forgotten. The man must start over with a new time of separation. This must be done because he touched a dead body during his first time of separation.

After his time of separation is ended, a Nazirite must go to the entrance of the Meeting Tent* and give his offering to the Lord. His offering must be:

- A one-year-old male lamb with nothing wrong with it for a burnt offering;
- A one-year-old female lamb with nothing wrong with it for a sin offering;
- One ram with nothing wrong with it for a fellowship offering;
- A basket of bread made without yeast (cakes made with fine flour mixed with oil).
- Oil must be spread on these cakes.
- The grain offerings and drink offerings that are a part of these gifts.

The priest will give these things to the Lord. And then the priest will make the sin offering and the burnt offering. The priest will give the basket of bread without yeast to the Lord. Then he will kill the ram as a fellowship offering to the Lord. He will give it to the Lord with the grain offering and the drink offering.

The Nazirite* must go to the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* There he must shave off his hair that he grew for the Lord. That hair will be put in the fire that is burning under the sacrifice of the fellowship offering.

After the Nazirite* has cut off his hair, then the priest will give him a boiled shoulder from the ram and a large and a small cake from the basket. Both of these cakes are made without yeast. Then the priest will wave these things before the Lord. These things are holy and belong to the priest. Also, the breast and the thigh from the ram are waved before the Lord. These things also belong to the priest. After that, the Nazirite man can drink wine.

Those are the rules for a person who decides to make the Nazirite* promise. That person must give all of those gifts to the Lord. But a person might be able to give much more to the Lord. If a person promises to do more, then he must keep his promise. But he must give at least all the things listed in these rules for the Nazirite promise.”

The Priests’ Blessings

The Lord said to Moses, “Tell Aaron and his sons that this is the way they should bless the people of Israel. They should say:
May the Lord bless you and keep you.

May the Lord be good to you* and show you his kindness.

May the Lord answer your prayers* and give you peace.”

Then the Lord said, “In that way, Aaron and his sons will use my name to give a blessing to the people of Israel. And I will bless them.”

Dedicating the Holy Tent

Moses finished setting up the Holy Tent.*

On that day, he dedicated it to the Lord.

Moses anointed* the Tent and all the things in it. Moses also anointed the altar* and all the things used with it. This showed that these things should be used only for worshiping the Lord.

Then the leaders of Israel gave offerings to the Lord. These men were the heads of their families and leaders of their family groups. These were the same men who were in charge of counting the people. These leaders brought gifts to the Lord. They brought six covered wagons and twelve cows for pulling the wagons. (One cow was given by each leader. Each leader joined with another leader to give one wagon.) The leaders gave these things to the Lord at the Holy Tent.

The Lord said to Moses, “Accept these gifts from the leaders. These gifts can be used in the work of the Meeting Tent.* Give these things to the Levite men. This will help them do their work.”

So Moses accepted the wagons and the cows. He gave these things to the Levite men. He gave two carts and four cows to the men in Gershon’s group. These were the gifts to the Lord at the Holy Tent.

The Lord told Moses, “Each day one leader must bring his gift for dedicating the altar.”

Each of the twelve leaders brought his gifts. These are the gifts:

Each leader brought one silver plate that weighed 3 1/4 pounds.* Each leader brought one silver bowl that weighed 1 3/4 pounds.* Both of these gifts were weighed by the official measure.* The bowl and the plate were each filled with fine flour mixed with oil. This was to be used as a grain offering. Each leader also brought a large gold spoon that weighed about 4 ounces.* The spoon was filled with incense.*

Each leader also brought 1 young bull, 1 ram, and 1 male lamb a year old. These animals were for a burnt offering. Each leader also brought 1 male goat to be used as a sin offering. Each leader brought 2 cows, 5 rams, 5 male goats, and 5 male lambs a year old. All of these things were sacrificed for a fellowship offering.

On the first day, the leader of Judah’s family group, Nahshon son of Amminadab brought his gifts.

On the second day, the leader of Issachar, Nethanel son of Zuar brought his gifts.

Verses 12-83 In the Hebrew text each leader’s gift is listed separately. But the text is the same for each gift, so it has been merged for easier reading.

3 1/4 pounds Or, “130 shekels.”

1 3/4 pounds Or, “70 shekels.”

official measure Literally, “holy shekel,” the standard of measure used in the tabernacle and the temple.

4 ounces Or, “10 shekels.”

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.
On the third day, the leader of the people of Zebulun, Eliab son of Helon brought his gifts.

On the fourth day, the leader of the people of Reuben, Elizur son of Shedeur brought his gifts.

On the fifth day, the leader of the people of Simeon, Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai brought his gifts.

On the sixth day, the leader of the people of Gad, Eliasaph son of Deuel* brought his gifts.

On the seventh day, the leader of the people of Ephraim, Elishama son of Ammihud brought his gifts.

On the eighth day, the leader of the people of Manasseh, Gamaliel son of Pedahzur brought his gifts.

On the ninth day, the leader of the people of Benjamin, Abidan son of Gideoni brought his gifts.

On the tenth day, the leader of the people of Dan, Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai brought his gifts.

On the eleventh day, the leader of the people of Asher, Pagiel son of Ocran brought his gifts.

On the twelfth day, the leader of the people of Naphtali, Ahira son of Enan brought his gifts.

So all those things were the gifts from the leaders of the people of Israel. They brought those things during the time that Moses dedicated the altar* by anointing* it. They brought 12 silver plates, 12 silver bowls, and 12 gold spoons. Each silver plate weighed about 3 1/4 pounds.* And each bowl weighed about 1 3/4 pounds.* The silver plates and the silver bowls together all weighed about 60 pounds,* using the official measure. The 12 gold spoons filled with incense* weighed 4 ounces* each, using the official measure. The 12 gold spoons all together weighed about 3 pounds.*

The total number of animals for the burnt offering was 12 bulls, 12 rams, and 12 one-year-old male lambs. There were also the grain offerings that must be given with those offerings. And there were 12 male goats that were used for a sin offering to the Lord. The leaders also gave animals to be killed and used as a fellowship offering. The total number of these animals was 24 bulls, 60 rams, 60 male goats, and 60 one-year-old male lambs. In this way, they dedicated the altar after Moses anointed* it.

Moses went into the Meeting Tent* to speak to the Lord. At that time, he heard the Lord’s voice speaking to him. The voice was coming from the area between the two Cherub angels on the special cover* on top of the Box of the Agreement.* [This was the way] God spoke to Moses.

8The Lord said to Moses, 2“Tell Aaron to put the seven lamps in the place I showed you. Those lamps will light the area in front of the lampstand.”

3Aaron did this. Aaron put the lamps in the right place and faced them so that they lighted the area in front of the lampstand. He obeyed the command that the Lord gave Moses. 4This is how the lampstand was made: It was made from hammered gold, all the way from the gold base* at the bottom to the gold flowers* at the top. It looked just like the pattern that the Lord had shown to Moses.

Dedicating the Levites

5The Lord said to Moses, 6“Separate the Levites from the other people of Israel. Make those Levites clean.* 7This is what you should

Deuel Or, “Reuel.”

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

anoint To pour olive oil on people or things to show they are chosen for a special work or purpose.

3 1/4 pounds Or, “130 shekels.”

1 3/4 pounds Or, “70 shekels.”

60 pounds Or, “2,400 shekels.”

official measure Literally, “holy shekel,” the standard of measure used in the tabernacle and the temple.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

4 ounces Or, “10 shekels.”

3 pounds Or, “120 shekels.”

anoint To pour olive oil on people or things to show they are chosen for a special work or purpose.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

cover Also called “mercy seat.” The Hebrew word can mean “lid,” “cover,” or “place where sins are forgiven.”

Box of the Agreement Holy Box or “ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.
do to make them pure. Sprinkle the special water from the sin offering* on them. This water will make them pure. Then they must shave their bodies and wash their clothes. This will make their bodies clean.

8 The Levite men must take a young bull and the grain offering that must be offered with it. This grain offering will be flour mixed with oil. Then take another young bull for a sin offering.

9 Bring the Levite people to the area in front of the Meeting Tent.* Then bring all the people of Israel together at that place.

10 Bring the Levite people before the Lord. The people of Israel will put their hands on them.*

11 Then Aaron will give the Levite people to the Lord—they will be like an offering to God. In this way, the Levite people will be ready to do their special work for the Lord.

12 Tell the Levite people to put their hands on the heads of the bulls. One bull will be a sin offering to the Lord. The other bull will be used as a burnt offering to the Lord. These offerings will make the Levite people pure.*

13 Tell the Levite people to stand in front of Aaron and his sons. Then give the Levite men to the Lord. They will be like a wave offering.

14 This will make the Levite people holy—it will show that they will be used in a special way for God. They will be different from the other people of Israel. The Levite people will belong to me.

15 So make the Levite people pure.* And give them to the Lord. They will be like a wave offering. After you do this they can come and do their work at the Meeting Tent.*

16 The Israelite people will give me the Levites. They will belong to me. In the past, I told every Israelite family to give me their firstborn* son. But now I am taking the Levite people in place of those firstborn sons from the other families in Israel.

17 Every firstborn male in Israel is mine. It doesn’t matter if it is a man or animal, it is still mine. Why? Because I killed all the firstborn children and animals in Egypt. And I chose to take the firstborn sons to belong to me.

18 But now I will take the Levite people in their place. I will take the Levite people in place of all the firstborn sons from the other families in Israel. I chose the Levite people from among all the people of Israel. And I give them as gifts to Aaron and his sons. I want them to do the work at the Meeting Tent. They will serve for all the people of Israel. They will help make the sacrifices that make the people of Israel pure. Then no great sickness or trouble will come to the people of Israel when they come near the holy place.”

20 So Moses, Aaron, and all the people of Israel obeyed the Lord. They did with the Levite people everything that the Lord commanded Moses.

21 The Levites washed themselves and their clothes. Then Aaron gave them to the Lord like wave offerings. Aaron gave the offerings that covered their sins and made them pure.

22 After that, the Levite people came to the Meeting Tent* to do their work. Aaron and his sons watched them. They were responsible for the work of the Levite people. Aaron and his sons did the things that the Lord told Moses.

23 Then the Lord said to Moses, 24“This is a special command for the Levite people: Every Levite man who is 25 years old or older must come and share in the work at the Meeting Tent.*

25 But when a man is 50 years old, he must retire from this work. He will not need to work again.

26 Those men 50 years old or older can help their brothers with their work at the Meeting Tent. But those men must not do the work themselves. You must do these things when you choose Levite men to do their work.”

Passover

9 The Lord spoke to Moses in the Sinai desert. This was during the first month of the second year after the people of Israel came out of Egypt. The Lord said to Moses, 2 Tell the people of Israel to celebrate Passover at the chosen time—they must eat the Passover* meal at twilight* on the 14th day of this month. They must do this at the chosen time, and they must follow all the rules about Passover."

4So Moses told the people of Israel to celebrate Passover.* 5The people did this in the Sinai desert at twilight* on the 14th day of the first month. The Israelites did everything just like the Lord commanded Moses.

6But some of the people could not celebrate Passover* that day. They were unclean* because they had touched a dead body. So they went to Moses and Aaron that day. 7Those people said to Moses, "We touched a person’s dead body and became unclean. The priests stopped us from giving gifts to the Lord at the chosen time. So we can’t celebrate Passover with the other people of Israel! What should we do?"

8Moses said to them, "I will ask the Lord what he says about this."

9Then the Lord said to Moses, 10"Tell these things to the people of Israel: This rule will be for you and your descendants.* Maybe a person is not able to celebrate Passover* at the right time. Maybe that person is unclean* because he touched a dead body. Or maybe that person was away on a trip. 11That person will still be able to celebrate Passover* at another time. That person must celebrate Passover at twilight* on the 14th day of the second month. At that time, he must eat the lamb, the bread made without yeast, and the bitter herbs. 12That person must not leave any of that food until the next morning. And that person must not break any of the bones of the lamb. That person must follow all the rules about Passover. 13But any person who is able must celebrate Passover at the right time. If he is clean* and he is not away on a trip, then he has no excuse. If that person does not celebrate Passover at the right time, then he must be separated from his people. He is guilty and must be punished! Why? Because he did not give the Lord his gift at the right time.

14"A foreigner living among you might want to share in the Lord’s Passover* with you. This is allowed, but that person must follow all the rules about Passover. The same rules are for everyone."

The Cloud and the Fire

15On the day the Holy Tent,* the Tent of the Agreement, was set up, the Lord’s cloud covered it. At night, the cloud over the Holy Tent looked like fire. 16The cloud stayed over the Holy Tent all the time. And at night the cloud looked like fire. 17When the cloud moved from its place over the Holy Tent, the Israelites followed it. When the cloud stopped, that is the place where the people of Israel camped. 18This was the way the Lord showed the people of Israel when to move and when to stop and set up camp. While the cloud stayed over the Holy Tent, the people continued to camp in that same place. 19Sometimes the cloud would stay over the Holy Tent for a long time. The Israelites obeyed the Lord and did not move. 20Sometimes the cloud was over the Holy Tent for only a few days. So the people obeyed the Lord’s command—they followed the cloud when it moved. 21Sometimes the cloud stayed only during the night—the next morning the cloud moved. So the people gathered their things and followed it. If the cloud moved, during the day or during the night, then the people followed it. 22If the cloud stayed over the Holy Tent for two days, or a month, or a year, the people continued to obey the Lord. They stayed at that place and did not leave until the cloud moved. Then when the cloud rose from its place and moved, the people also moved. 23So the people obeyed the Lord’s commands. They camped when the Lord told them to. And they moved when the Lord told them to. The people watched carefully and obeyed the Lord’s commands to Moses.

Passover Important Jewish holy day. They ate a special meal on this day every spring to remember that God freed them from slavery in Egypt.
twilight The time after the sun goes down, but before dark.
unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
descendants A person’s children and their future families.
clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle,” the tent where God came to live among his people.
The Lord said to Moses: 2“Make two trumpets. Use silver and hammer it to make the trumpets. These trumpets will be for calling the people together and for telling them when it is time to move the camp. 3If you blow long blasts on both trumpets, then all the people must meet together at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* 4But if you blow long blasts on only one trumpet, then only the leaders will come to meet with you. (These are the leaders of the twelve family groups of Israel.)

5“Short blasts on the trumpets will be the way to tell the people to move the camp. The first time you blow a short blast on the trumpets, the family groups camping on the east side of the Meeting Tent† must begin to move. 6The second time you blow a short blast on the trumpets, the family groups camping on the south side of the Meeting Tent will begin to move. 7But if you want to gather the people together for a special meeting, then blow the trumpets in a different way—blow a long steady blast on the trumpets. 8Only Aaron’s sons, the priests, should blow the trumpets. This is a law for you that will continue forever, for generations to come.

9“If you are fighting an enemy in your own land, then blow loudly on the trumpets before you go to fight them. The Lord your God will hear you, and he will save you from your enemies. 10Also you should blow these trumpets for your special meetings, new moon days, and all your happy times together. Blow the trumpets when you give your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. This will be a special way for the Lord your God to remember you. I command you to do this; I am the Lord your God.”

The People of Israel Move Their Camp

11On the 20th day of the second month of the second year after the people of Israel left Egypt, the cloud rose from above the Tent of the Agreement.* 12So the people of Israel began their journeys. They left the Sinai desert and traveled until the cloud stopped in the desert of Paran. 13This was the first time the people moved their camp. They moved it the way the Lord commanded Moses.

14The three groups* from Judah’s camp went first. They traveled under their flag. The first group was Judah’s family group. Nahshon son of Amminadab was the commander of that group. 15Next came Issachar’s family group. Nethanel son of Zuar was the commander of that group. 16And then came Zebulun’s family group. Eliab son of Helon was the commander of that group.

17Then the Holy Tent* was taken down. And the men from the Gershon and the Merari families carried the Holy Tent. So the people from these families were next in line.

18Then came the three groups* from Reuben’s camp. They traveled under their flag. The first group was Reuben’s family group. Elizur son of Shedeur was the commander of that group. 19Next came Simeon’s family group. Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai was the commander of that group. 20And then came Gad’s family group. Eliasaph son of Deuel* was the commander of that group. 21Then came the people from the Kohath family. They carried the holy things from inside the Holy Place. These people came at this time so that the other people could set up the Holy Tent* and make it ready at the new camp, before these people arrived.

22Next came the three groups from Ephraim’s camp. They traveled under their flag. The first group was Ephraim’s family group. Elishama son of Ammihud was the commander of that group. 23Next came Manasseh’s family group. Gamaliel son of Pedahzur was the commander of that group. 24Then came Benjamin’s family group. Abidan son of Gideoni was the commander of that group.

25The last three family groups in the line were the rear guard for all the other family groups. Or, “division(s).” This is a military term that shows Israel was organized like an army.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

Tent of the Agreement The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the Box of the Agreement was kept.

Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle,” the tent where God came to live among his people.

Deuel Or, “Reuel.”
groups. These were the groups from Dan’s camp. They traveled under their flag. The first group was Dan’s family group. Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai was their commander. Next came Asher’s family group. Pagiel son of Ocran was the commander of that group. Then came Naphtali’s family group. Ahira son of Enan was the commander of that group. That was the way the people of Israel marched when they moved from place to place.

Hobab was the son of Reuel, the Midianite. (Reuel was Moses’ father-in-law.) Moses said to Hobab, “We are traveling to the land that God promised to give to us. Come with us and we will be good to you. The Lord has promised good things to the people of Israel.”

But Hobab answered, “No, I will not go with you. I will go back to my homeland and to my own people.”

Then Moses said, “Please don’t leave us. You know more about the desert than we do. You can be our guide. If you come with us, then we will share with you all the good things that the Lord gives us.”

So Hobab agreed, and they began traveling from the mountain of the Lord. The priests took the Box of the Lord’s Agreement* and walked in front of the people. They carried the Holy Box for three days, looking for a place to camp.

The Lord’s cloud was over them every day. And when they left their camp every morning, the cloud was there to lead them.

So Hobab agreed, and they began traveling from the mountain of the Lord. The priests took the Box of the Lord’s Agreement* and walked in front of the people. They carried the Holy Box for three days, looking for a place to camp.

The Lord’s cloud was over them every day. And when they left their camp every morning, the cloud was there to lead them.

When the people lifted the Holy Box to move the camp, Moses always said,

“Get up, Lord! May your enemies be scattered. May your enemies run away from you.”

And when the Holy Box was put in its place, Moses always said, “Come back, Lord, to the millions of people of Israel.”

The People Complain Again

The people started complaining about their troubles. The Lord heard their complaints. The Lord heard these things and became angry. Fire from the Lord burned among the people. The fire burned some of the areas at the edge of the camp. So the people cried to Moses for help. Moses prayed to the Lord and the fire stopped burning. So that place was called Taberah.* The people gave the place that name because the Lord caused a fire to burn in their camp.

The 70 Older Leaders

The foreigners that had joined the people of Israel began wanting other things to eat. Soon all the people of Israel began complaining again. The people said, “We want to eat meat! We remember the fish we ate in Egypt. That fish cost us nothing. We also had good vegetables like cucumbers, melons, chives, onions, and garlic. But now we have lost our strength. We never eat anything—only this manna!” (The manna was like small coriander seeds, and it looked like gum from a tree. The people gathered the manna. Then they used rocks to crush it and cooked it in a pot. Or they ground it into a flour and made thin cakes with it. The cakes tasted like sweet cakes cooked with olive oil. The manna fell on the ground each night when the ground became wet with dew.)

Moses heard the people complaining. People from every family were sitting by their tents and complaining. The Lord became very angry, and this made Moses very upset.

Moses asked the Lord, “Lord, why did you bring this trouble on me? I am your servant. What did I do wrong? What did I do to upset you? Why did you give me responsibility over all these people? You know that I am not the father of all these people. You know that I did not give birth to them. But I must take care of them, like a nurse carrying a baby in her arms. Why do you force me to do this? Why do you force me to carry them to the land that you promised to our fathers? I don’t have enough meat for all these people! And they continue complaining to me. They say, ‘Give us meat to eat!’ I cannot take care of all these people alone. The burden is too heavy for me. If you plan to continue giving me their troubles, then kill me now. If you accept me as your servant, then let me die now. Then I will be finished with all my troubles!’" 16 The Lord said to Moses, “Bring to me 70 of the elders of Israel. These men are the leaders among the people. Bring them to the Meeting Tent. Let them stand there with you. Then I will come down and speak with you there. The Spirit is on you now. But I will also give some of that Spirit to them. Then they will help you take care of the people. In this way, you will not have to be responsible for these people alone.

18 “Tell these things to the people: Make yourselves ready for tomorrow. Tomorrow you will eat meat. The Lord heard you when you cried. The Lord heard your words when you said, ‘We need meat to eat! It was better for us in Egypt!’ So now the Lord will give you meat. And you will eat it. You will eat it for more than one, or two, or five, or ten, or even twenty days! You will eat that meat for a whole month. You will eat the meat until you are sick of it. This will happen to you because you complained against the Lord. The Lord lives among you and knows what you need. But you cried and complained to him! You said, ‘Why did we ever leave Egypt?’”

21 Moses said, “Lord, there are 600,000 men walking around here. And you say, ‘I will give them enough meat to eat for a whole month!’ If we were to kill all of the sheep and cattle, then that would still not be enough to feed this many people for a month. And if we caught all the fish in the sea, it would not be enough for them!”

23 But the Lord said to Moses, “Don’t limit the power of the Lord! You will see that I can do the things I say I can do.”

24 So Moses went out to speak with the people. Moses told them what the Lord said. Then Moses gathered 70 of the elders (leaders) together. Moses told them to stand around the Tent. Then the Lord came down in the cloud and spoke to Moses. The Spirit was on Moses. The Lord put that same Spirit on the 70 elders (leaders). After the Spirit came down on them, they began to prophesy. But that was the only time these men ever did this.

26 Two of the elders, Eldad and Medad, did not go out to the Tent. Their names were on the list of elders (leaders), but they stayed in camp. But the Spirit also came on them, and they began prophesying in camp. A young man ran and told Moses. The man said, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in camp.”

28 Joshua son of Nun said to Moses, “Moses, sir, you must stop them!” (Joshua had been Moses’ helper since Joshua was a boy.)

29 But Moses answered, “Are you afraid the people will think that I am not the leader now? I wish that all the Lord’s people were able to prophesy. I wish that the Lord would put his Spirit on all of them!” Then Moses and the leaders of Israel went back to the camp.

The Quails Come

31 Then the Lord made a powerful wind to blow in from the sea. The wind blew quail into that area. The quail flew all around the camp. There were so many quail that the ground was covered. The quail were about three feet deep on the ground. There were quail in every direction as far as a man can walk in one day. The people went crazy! They went out and gathered quail all that day and all that night. And they gathered quail all the next day too! The smallest amount any person gathered was 60 bushels. Then the people spread the quail meat all around the camp to dry in the sun.

33 People began to eat the meat, but the Lord became very angry. While the meat was still in their mouth, before the people could finish eating it, the Lord caused the people to become very sick. Many people died and were buried.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

Spirit Or, “spirit.”

prophecy Usually this means “to speak for God.” But here it might mean that God’s Spirit took control of these men in some special way.

quail A kind of bird.
in that place. 34 So the people named that place Kibroth Hattaavah.* They gave the place that name because that is the place they buried the people who had the strong desire for meat.

35 From Kibroth Hattaavah the people traveled to Hazeroth and stayed there.

Miriam and Aaron Complain About Moses

12 Miriam and Aaron began to talk against Moses. They criticized him because he married an Ethiopian woman. They thought that it was not right for Moses to marry an Ethiopian woman. 2 They said to themselves, “The Lord used Moses to speak to the people. But Moses is not the only one. The Lord also spoke through us!”

The Lord heard this. 3 (Moses was a very humble man. He did not boast or brag. He was more humble than any other person on earth.)

4 So, suddenly, the Lord came and spoke to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. The Lord said, “You three, come to the Meeting Tent,* now!”

So Moses, Aaron, and Miriam went to the Tent. 5 The Lord came down in the tall cloud and stood at the entrance to the Tent. The Lord called out, “Aaron and Miriam!” Aaron and Miriam went to him. 6 God said, “Listen to me! You will have prophets.* I, the Lord, will show myself to them in visions.* I will speak to them in dreams. 7 But Moses is not like that. Moses is my faithful servant—I trust him with my whole house (family)! 8 When I speak to him, I talk face to face with him. I don’t use stories with hidden meanings—I show him clearly the things I want him to know. And Moses can look at the very image of the Lord. So why were you brave enough to speak against my servant Moses?”

9 The Lord was very angry at them. The Lord left them. 10 The cloud rose from the Tent. Aaron turned and looked at Miriam.

Her skin was white like snow—she had a terrible skin disease!

11 Then Aaron said to Moses, “Please, sir, forgive us for the foolish sin that we did.
12 Don’t let her lose her skin like a baby that is born dead.” (Sometimes a baby will be born like that, with half of its skin eaten away.)

13 So Moses prayed to the Lord, “God, please heal her from this sickness!”

14 The Lord answered Moses, “If her father spit in her face, then she would be shamed for seven days. So put her outside the camp for seven days. After that time, she will become well, Then she can come back into the camp.”

15 So they took Miriam outside the camp for seven days. And the people did not move from that place until she was brought in again.

16 After that, the people left Hazeroth and traveled to the desert of Paran. The people camped in that desert.

The Spies Go to Canaan

13 The Lord said to Moses, 2 “Send some men to explore the land of Canaan. This is the land that I will give to the people of Israel. Send one leader from each of the twelve family groups.”

3 So Moses obeyed the Lord’s command. Moses sent out these leaders while the people were camped in the desert of Paran. 4 These are the names of those leaders:

from Reuben’s family group—Shammua son of Zaccur;
from Simeon’s family group—Shaphat son of Hori;
from Judah’s family group—Caleb son of Jephunneh;
from Issachar’s family group—Igal son of Joseph;
from Ephraim’s family group—Hoshea* son of Nun;
from Benjamin’s family group—Palti son of Raphu;
from Zebulun’s family group—Gaddiel son of Sodi;
from Joseph’s family group (Manasseh) —Gaddi son of Susi;

* This name means “Graves of Strong Desire.”

Ethiopian Or, “Cushite,” a person from Ethiopia, in Africa.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

prophet(s) A person called by God to be special servant. God gave them messages to tell the people.

vision(s) Something like a dream that God used to speak to people.

Hoshea Or, “Joshua.”
from Dan’s family group—Ammiel son of Gemali;
from Asher’s family group—Sethur son of Michael;
from Naphtali’s family group—Nahbi son of Vophsi;
from Gad’s family group—Geuel son of Maki.

Those are the names of the men that Moses sent to look at and study the land. (Moses called Hoshea son of Nun by another name. Moses called him Joshua.)

When Moses was sending them out to explore Canaan, he said, “Go through the Negev* and then into the hill country. See what the land looks like. Learn about the people who live there. Are they strong or are they weak? Are they few or are they many? Learn about the land that they live in. Is it good land or bad land? What kind of towns do they live in? Do the towns have walls protecting them? Are the towns strongly defended? And learn other things about the land. Is the dirt good for growing things, or is it poor soil? Are there trees on the land? Also, try to bring back some of the fruit from that land.” (This was during the time when the first grapes should be ripe.)

So they went to explore the country. They explored the area from the Zin desert to Rehob and Lebo Hamath. They entered the country through the Negev* and went to Hebron. (The town of Hebron was built seven years before the town of Zoan in Egypt.) Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai lived there. These men were descendants* of Anak.

Then the men went to Eshcol Valley. There, the men cut off a branch from a grapevine. The branch had a bunch of grapes on it. They put that branch on a pole. And two men carried it between them. They also carried some pomegranates,* and figs. That place is called the Eshcol* Valley, because that is the place where the men of Israel cut off the bunch of grapes.

The men explored that country for 40 days. Then they went back to the camp. The people of Israel were camped near Kadesh, in the desert of Paran. The men went to Moses and Aaron and all the Israelite people. The men told Moses, Aaron, and all the people about the things they saw. And they showed them the fruit from the land. The men told Moses, “We went to the land where you sent us. It is a land filled with many good things*! Here is some of the fruit that grows there. But the people living there are very powerful. The cities are very large. The cities are strongly defended. We even saw some Anakite* people there. The Amalekite people live in the Negev.* The Hittites, the Jebusites, and the Amorites live in the hill country. The Canaanites live near the sea and by the Jordan River.”

Caleb told the people near Moses to be quiet. Then Caleb said, “We should go up and take that land for ourselves. We can easily take that land.”

But the men that had gone with him said, “We can’t fight those people! They are much stronger than we are.” And those men told all the people of Israel that they were not strong enough to defeat the people in that land. They said, “The land we saw is full of strong people. Those people are strong enough to easily defeat any person who goes there. We saw the giant Nephilim* people there! (The descendants* of Anak come from the Nephilim people.) They looked at us like we were little grasshoppers. Yes, we were like grasshoppers to them!”

The People Complain Again

That night all the people in the camp began yelling loudly. The people of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron.
All the people came together and said to Moses and Aaron, “We should have died in Egypt or in the desert. That would have been better than being killed in this new land.” Did the Lord bring us to this new land to be killed in war? The enemy will kill us and take our wives and children! It would be better for us to go back to Egypt.”

Then the people said to each other, “Let’s choose another leader and go back to Egypt.”

Moses and Aaron bowed low to the ground in front of all the people gathered there. Joshua and Caleb became very upset. (Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh were two of the men who explored the land.) These two men said to all of the people of Israel gathered there, “The land that we saw is very good. It is a land filled with many good things. And if the Lord is pleased with us, then he will lead us into that land. And the Lord will give that land to us! So don’t turn against the Lord! Don’t be afraid of the people in that land. We can defeat them. They have no protection, nothing to keep them safe. But we have the Lord with us. So don’t be afraid!”

All of the people began talking about killing Joshua and Caleb with stones. But the Glory of the Lord appeared over the Meeting Tent where all the people could see it. The Lord spoke to Moses. He said, “How long will these people continue to turn against me? They show that they don’t trust me. They show that they don’t believe in my power. They refuse to believe me, even after I have shown them many powerful signs. And if the Lord is pleased with us, then he will lead us into that land. And the Lord will give that land to us! So don’t turn against the Lord! Don’t be afraid of the people in that land. We can defeat them. They have no protection, nothing to keep them safe. But we have the Lord with us. So don’t be afraid!”

All of the people began talking about killing Joshua and Caleb with stones. But the Glory of the Lord appeared over the Meeting Tent where all the people could see it. The Lord spoke to Moses. He said, “How long will these people continue to turn against me? They show that they don’t trust me. They show that they don’t believe in my power. They refuse to believe me, even after I have shown them many powerful signs. I have done many great things among them. I will kill them all with a terrible sickness. I will destroy them, and I will use you to make another nation. And your nation will be greater and stronger than these people.”

Then Moses said to the Lord, “If you do that, the Egyptians will hear about it! They know that you used your great power to bring your people out of Egypt. And the people of Egypt told the people in Canaan about it. They already know you are the Lord. They know that you are with your people. They know that the people saw you. Those people know about the special cloud. They know you use the cloud to lead your people during the day. And they know the cloud becomes a fire to lead your people at night. So you must not kill these people now. If you kill them, then all the nations that have heard about your power will say, ‘The Lord was not able to bring these people into the land he promised them. So the Lord killed them in the desert.’

So now, Master, show your strength! Show it the way you said you would! You said, ‘The Lord is slow to become angry. The Lord is full of great love. The Lord forgives people who are guilty and break the law. But the Lord always punishes people who are guilty. The Lord punishes those people, and he also punishes their children, their grandchildren, and even their great-grandchildren for those bad things!’ Now, show your great love to these people. Forgive their sin. Forgive them the same way you have been forgiving them since the time they left Egypt until now.”

The Lord answered, “Yes, I will forgive the people like you asked. But, I tell you the truth. As surely as I live and as surely as my power fills the whole earth, I make you this promise! None of the people I led out of Egypt will ever see the land of Canaan. Those people saw my glory and the great signs that I did in Egypt. And they saw the great things that I did in the desert. But they disobeyed me and tested me ten times. I made a promise to their ancestors. I promised that I would give them that land. But none of these people who turned against me will ever enter that land! But my servant Caleb was different. He

---

Filled with many good things  Literally, “flowing with milk and honey.”

Glory of the Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. Here this might be a bright, shining light, or it might be the tall cloud.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

Forgives Or, “spares.”

But the Lord … bad things Or, “The Lord credits the guilt of the fathers to their children and grandchildren, to the third and fourth generation.”

Ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
The Lord Punishes the People

26 The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, 27 “How long will these bad people continue to complain against me? I have heard their complaints and their griping. 28 So tell them, ‘The Lord says that he will surely do all those things to you that you complained about. This is what will happen to you: 29 You will die in this desert. Every person who is 20 years old or older and was counted as one of my people will die. You complained against me, the Lord. 30 So none of you will ever enter and live in the land that I promised to give you. Only Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun will enter that land. 31 You were afraid and complained that your enemies in that new land would take your children away from you. But I tell you that I will bring those children into the land. They will enjoy the things that you refused to accept. 32 As for you people, you will die in this desert.

33 “Your children will be shepherds here in the desert for 40 years. They will suffer because you were not faithful to me. They must suffer until all of you lie dead in the desert. 34 For 40 years you will suffer for your sins. (That is one year for each of the 40 days that the men explored the land.) You will know that it is a terrible thing for me to be against you.

35 “I am the Lord, and I have spoken. And I promise that I will do these things to all of these evil people. These people have come together against me. So they will all die here in this desert.”

36 Those men that Moses sent to explore the new land were the ones that came back and spread complaining among all the Israelite people. Those men said that the people were not strong enough to enter that land. 37 Those men were responsible for spreading the trouble among the Israelite people. So the Lord caused a sickness to kill all of those men. 38 But Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh were among the men that were sent out to explore the land. And the Lord saved those two men. They did not get the sickness that caused the other ten men to die.

The People Try to Go into Canaan

39 Moses told all these things to the Israelite people. The people were very, very sad. 40 Early the next morning the people started to go up to the high hill country. The people said, “We have sinned. We are sorry that we did not trust the Lord. We will go to the place that the Lord promised.”

41 But Moses said, “Why are you not obeying the Lord’s command? You will not be successful! 42 Don’t go into that land. The Lord is not with you so your enemies will easily defeat you. 43 The Amalekite people and Canaanite people will fight against you there. You have turned away from the Lord. So he will not be with you when you fight them. And you will all be killed in battle.”

44 But the people did not believe Moses. They went toward the high hill country. But Moses and the Box of the Lord’s Agreement* did not go with the people. 45 The Amalekite people and the Canaanite people came and attacked the people of Israel. The Amalekites and the Canaanites easily defeated them and chased them all the way to Hormah.

Rules About Sacrifices

15 The Lord said to Moses, 2 “Speak to the people of Israel and say to them: I am giving you a land to be your home. When you enter that land, 3 you must give special offerings made by fire to the Lord. Their smell will please the Lord. You will use your cows, sheep, and goats for burnt offerings, sacrifices, special promises, special gifts, fellowship offerings, or special holidays.

4 “At the time a person brings his offering, he must also give a grain offering to the Lord. The Box of the Lord’s Agreement Holy Box or ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them. These were proof of the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.
grain offering will be 8 cups* of fine flour mixed with 1 quart* of olive oil. Each time you offer a lamb as a burnt offering, you must also prepare a quart of wine as a drink offering.

If you are giving a ram, then you must also prepare a grain offering. This grain offering should be 16 cups* of fine flour mixed with 1 1/4 quarts* of olive oil. And you must prepare 1 1/4 quarts of wine as a drink offering. Its smell will please the Lord.

You might prepare a young bull as a burnt offering, a sacrifice, a fellowship offering, or to keep a special promise to the Lord. At that time, you must also bring a grain offering with the bull. That grain offering should be 24 cups* of fine flour mixed with 2 quarts* of olive oil. Also bring 2 quarts of wine as a drink offering. This will be an offering made by fire. Its smell will please the Lord. Each bull or ram, or lamb or young goat that you give to the Lord must be prepared in this way.

Do this for every one of these animals that you give.

That is the way every citizen of Israel must give the offerings made by fire to please the Lord. Foreigners will live among you. If those people give offerings made by fire to please the Lord, then they must offer them the same way you do. The same rules will be for everyone—the people of Israel and the foreigners living in your country. This law will continue forever. You and the people living among you will be the same before the Lord.

This means that you must follow the same laws and the same rules. Those laws and rules are for you people of Israel and for the other people who are living among you.”

The Lord said to Moses, “Tell the people of Israel these things: I am taking you to another land. When you eat the food that grows in that land, you must give part of that food as an offering to the Lord. You will gather grain and grind it into flour to make dough for bread. You must give the first of that dough as a gift to the Lord. It will be like the grain offering that comes from the threshing floor.* This rule will continue forever, you must give the first of that dough as a gift to the Lord.

Now what should you do if you make a mistake and forget to obey one of the commands that the Lord gave Moses? The Lord gave these commands to you through Moses. These commands started the day that the Lord gave them to you. And the commands continue forever. So, what do you do if you make a mistake and forget to obey all of these commands. If all the people of Israel made that mistake, then together the people must offer one young bull as a burnt offering to the Lord. Its smell will please the Lord. Also remember to give the grain offering and the drink offering that must be offered with the bull. You must also give a male goat as a sin offering.

So the priest must do the things that will make the people pure.* He must do this for all of the people of Israel. The people did not know they were sinning. But when they learned about it, they brought a gift to the Lord. They brought the offering made by fire and the sin offering. So the people will be forgiven. All of the people of Israel and all the other people living among them will be forgiven. They will be forgiven because they did not know they were doing wrong.

But if only one person makes a mistake and sins, then he must bring a female goat that is one year old. That goat will be the sin offering. The priest must do the things that will make the person pure.* That person made a mistake and sinned before the Lord. But the priest made that person pure, and he will be forgiven. That law is for every person who makes a mistake and sins. The same law is for the people born in the family of Israel and for the foreigners living among you.

---

8 cups Literally, “1/10 of an ephah.”
1 quart Literally, “1/4 hin.”
16 cups Literally, “2/10 of an ephah.”
1 1/4 quarts Literally, “1/3 hin.”
24 cups Literally, “3/10 of an ephah.”
2 quarts Literally, “1/2 hin.”
"But if a person sins and knows that he is doing wrong, then that person is against the Lord. That person must be separated from his people. It is the same for a person born into the family of Israel or for a foreigner living among you. That person did not think the Lord’s word was important. He broke the Lord’s commands. That person must surely be separated from your group. That person is guilty and must be punished!"

A Man Works on the Day of Rest

At this time, the people of Israel were still in the desert. It happened that a man found some wood to burn. So the man was gathering the wood, but it was the Sabbath day. Some other people saw him doing this. The people who saw him gathering the wood brought him to Moses and Aaron. And all the people gathered around. They kept the man there because they did not know how they should punish him.

Then the Lord said to Moses, “The man must die. All the people must throw stones at him outside the camp.” So the people took him outside the camp and killed him with stones. They did this the way that the Lord commanded Moses.

God Helps His People Remember the Rules

The Lord said to Moses, “Speak to the people of Israel. Tell them these things: I will give you something to remember my commands. Tie several pieces of thread together and tie them in the corner of your clothes. Put a piece of blue thread in each one of these tassels. You must wear these things now and forever. You will be able to look at these tassels and remember all the commands that the Lord has given you. Then you will obey the commands. You will not do wrong by forgetting about the commands and doing the things that your own bodies and eyes want. You will remember to obey all my commands. Then you will be God’s special people. I am the Lord your God. I am the One who brought you out of Egypt. I did this to be your God. I am the Lord your God.”

Some Leaders Turn Against Moses

Korah, Dathan, Abiram, and On turned against Moses. (Korah was the son of Izhar. Izhar was the son of Kohath, and Kohath was the son of Levi. Dathan and Abiram were brothers, the sons of Eliab. And On was the son of Peleth. Dathan, Abiram, and On were descendants of Reuben.) Those four men gathered 250 other men from Israel together and came against Moses. They were leaders that had been chosen by the people. All the people knew them. They came as a group to speak against Moses and Aaron. These men said to Moses and Aaron, “You have gone too far—you are wrong! All the people of Israel are holy—the Lord still lives among them! You are making yourself more important than the rest of the Lord’s people.”

When Moses heard these things, he bowed his face to the ground to show he was not being proud. Then Moses said to Korah and all his followers, “Tomorrow morning the Lord will show which person truly belongs to him. The Lord will choose the person who is truly holy. The Lord will choose that man, and the Lord will bring that man near to him. The Lord will choose that person who is truly holy. You Levites have gone too far—you are wrong!”

Moses also said to Korah, “You Levites, listen to me. You should be happy that the God of Israel chose you and made you special. You are different from the rest of the Israelite people. The Lord brought you near to him to do the special work in the Lord’s Holy Tent to help the people of Israel worship him. Isn’t that enough? The Lord brought you Levites descendants A person’s children and their future families.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle,” the tent where God came to live among his people.
people near to him to help the priests. But now you are trying to become priests also.

11 You and your followers have joined together and turned against the Lord! Did Aaron do anything wrong? No! So why are you complaining against Aaron?"

12 Then Moses called Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab. But the two men said, “We will not come! 13 You have brought us out of a land filled with many good things.* You brought us to the desert to kill us. And now you want to show that you have even more power over us. 14 Why should we follow you? You did not bring us into the new land filled with many good things.* You did not give us the land God promised. You did not give us the fields or the vineyards. Will you make these men your slaves? No! We will not come.”

15 So Moses became very angry. He said to the Lord, “I never did anything wrong to these people. I never took anything from them—not even a donkey! Lord, don’t accept their gifts!”

16 Then Moses said to Korah, “You and all your followers will stand before the Lord tomorrow. There will be Aaron and you and your followers. Each of you must bring a pan, put incense* on it, and present it to the Lord. There will be 250 pans for the leaders and one pan for you and one pan for Aaron.”

18 So each man got a pan and put burning incense* on it. Then they stood at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* Moses and Aaron also stood there. Korah also gathered all the people together at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. Then the Glory of the Lord* appeared to every person there.

20 The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, 21 “Move away from these men! I want to destroy them now!”

22 But Moses and Aaron bowed to the ground and cried out, “God, you know what people are thinking.* Please don’t be angry at all these people. Only one man really sinned.”

23 Then the Lord said to Moses, 24 “Tell the people to move away from the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.”

25 Moses stood and went to Dathan and Abiram. All the elders (leaders) of Israel followed him. 26 Moses warned the people, “Move away from the tents of these evil men. Don’t touch anything that belongs to them! If you do, then you will be destroyed because of their sins.”

27 So the men moved away from the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. Dathan and Abiram went to their tents. They stood outside of their tents with their wives, children, and little babies.

28 Then Moses said, “I will show you proof that the Lord sent me to do all the things I told you. I will show you that all those things were not my own idea. 29 These men here will die. But if they die in a normal way—the way men always die—then that will show that the Lord did not really send me. 30 But if the Lord causes these men to die in a different way—something new—then you will know that these men have truly sinned against the Lord. This is the proof: the earth will open and swallow these men. They will go down to their grave still alive. And everything that belongs to these men will go down with them.”

31 When Moses finished saying these things, the ground under the men opened. It was like the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them. All of Korah’s men, their families, and everything they owned went down into the earth. 32 Those people went down into their grave alive. Everything they owned went with them. Then the earth closed over them. They were finished—gone from the camp!

34 The people of Israel heard the cries of the men being destroyed. So they all ran in different directions and said, “The earth will kill us, too!”

35 Then a fire came from the Lord and destroyed the 250 men who were offering the incense.*

* filled with many good things Literally, “flowing with milk and honey.”

* incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

* Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

* Glory of the Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. This was like a bright, shining light.

* God, … thinking Literally, “God, God of the spirits of all people.”
The Lord said to Moses, 37–38 “Tell Eleazar son of Aaron the priest to get all the incense* pans from the fire. Tell him to scatter the coals and ashes. Those men sinned against me, and their sin cost them their lives. But the incense pans are still holy.* The pans are holy because they gave them to the Lord. Hammer the pans into flat sheets. Use the metal sheets to cover the altar.* This will be a warning to all of the people of Israel.”

39 So Eleazar the priest gathered together all the bronze* pans that the men had brought. Those men were all burned up, but the pans were still there. Then Eleazar told some men to hammer the pans into flat metal. Then he put the metal sheets on the altar.* 40 He did this the way the Lord commanded him through Moses. This was a sign to help the people of Israel remember that only a person from the family of Aaron should burn incense* before the Lord. Any other person who burns incense before the Lord will die like Korah and his followers.

Aaron Saves the People

41 The next day all the people of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron. They said, “You killed the Lord’s people.”

42 Moses and Aaron were standing at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* The people gathered together at that place to complain against Moses and Aaron. But when they looked toward the Meeting Tent, the cloud covered it and the Glory of the Lord* appeared there. 43 Then Moses and Aaron went to the front of the Meeting Tent. 44 The Lord said to Moses, 45 “Move away from those people so that I can destroy them now.” So Moses and Aaron bowed with their faces to the ground.

God Proves Aaron Is the High Priest

17 The Lord said to Moses, 2 “Speak to the people of Israel. Get twelve wooden walking sticks from them. Get one from the leader of each of the twelve family groups. Write the name of each man on his walking stick. 3 On the stick from Levi, write Aaron’s name. There must be one stick for the head of each of the twelve family groups. 4 Put these walking sticks in the Meeting Tent* in front of the Box of the Agreement.* This is the place where I meet with you. 5 I will choose one man to be the true priest. You will know which man I choose because his walking stick will begin to grow new leaves. In this way, I will stop the people from always complaining against you and me.”

6 So Moses spoke to the people of Israel. Each of the leaders gave him a walking stick. There were twelve walking sticks. There was one stick from each leader of each family group. One of the walking sticks belonged to...
Aaron. 7Moses put the walking sticks before the Lord in the Tent of the Agreement.*

8The next day Moses entered the Tent. He saw that Aaron’s walking stick, the stick from the family of Levi, was the one that had grown new leaves. That walking stick had even grown branches and made almonds. 9So Moses brought out all the sticks from the Lord’s place. Moses showed the walking sticks to the people of Israel. They all looked at the sticks, and each man took his own stick back.

10 Then the Lord said to Moses, “Put Aaron’s walking stick back into the Tent in front of the Agreement.* This will be a warning for these people who are always turning against me. This will stop their complaining against me, so that I won’t destroy them.” 11So Moses did what the Lord commanded him.

12The people of Israel said to Moses, “We know that we will die! We are lost! We will all be destroyed! 13Any person who even comes near the Lord’s holy place will die. Is it true that we will all die?”

18 The Lord said to Aaron, “You, your sons, and all the people in your father’s family are now responsible for any wrong things that are done against the holy place. You and your sons are responsible for wrong things that are done against the priests. 2Bring the other Levite men from your family group to join you. They will help you and your sons do your work in the Tent of the Agreement.* 3Those people from the family of Levi are under your control. They will do all the work that needs to be done in the Tent. But they must not go near the things in the Holy Place or the altar.* If they do, then they will die—and you will die also. 4They will join you and work with you. They will be responsible for caring for the Meeting Tent.* All the work that must be done in the Tent will be done by them. No one else may come near the place where you are.

5“You are responsible for caring for the holy place and the altar.* I don’t want to become angry with the people of Israel again. 6I myself chose the Levite people from among all the people of Israel. They are like a gift to you. I gave them to you to serve the Lord and work in the Meeting Tent.* 7But, Aaron, only you and your sons may serve as priests. You are the only ones that can go near the altar. You are the only ones that can go inside the curtain into the Most Holy Place. I am giving you a gift—your service as a priest. Anyone else that comes near my holy place must be killed.”

8Then the Lord said to Aaron, “I myself gave you responsibility over all the special gifts people give to me. All the holy* gifts that the people of Israel give to me, I give to you. You and your sons can share in these gifts. They will always belong to you. 9The people will bring sacrifices, grain offerings, sin offerings, and guilt offerings. Those offerings are most holy. Your share in the most holy offerings will come from the parts that are not burned. All those things will be for you and your sons. 10Eat those things only in the very holy place. Every male in your family may eat them, but you must remember that those offerings are holy.

11“And all the gifts that the Israelite people give as wave offerings will also be yours. I give this to you and your sons and your daughters. This is your share. Every person in your family that is clean* will be able to eat it.

12“And I give you all the best olive oil and all the best new wine and grain. These are the things that the people of Israel give to me, the Lord. These are the first things that they gather in their harvest. 13When the people gather a harvest, they bring all the first things to the Lord. So these things I will give to you.

---

Tent of the Agreement  The Holy Tent where the Box of the Agreement was kept.
Agreement  Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them. These were proof of the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.
Holy Place  One of the rooms in the Holy Tent.
alterm  A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
And every person in your family that is clean* may eat it.

14“Everything in Israel that is given to the Lord* is yours.

15“A woman’s first baby and an animal’s first baby must be given to the Lord. That baby will belong to you. If the firstborn animal is unclean,* then it must be bought back. If the baby is a child, that child must be bought back. That child will again belong to its family. 16They must make the payment when the baby is one month old. The cost will be 2 ounces* of silver. You must use the official measure* to weigh this silver. A shekel by the official measure is 20 gerahs.*

17“But you must not make a payment for the firstborn cow, sheep, or goat. Those animals are holy.* Sprinkle their blood on the altar* and burn their fat. This is an offering made by fire. Its smell pleases the Lord. 18But the meat from those animals will be yours. And also the breast from a wave offering will be yours. And also the right thigh from other offerings will be yours. 19Anything that the people offer as holy gifts, I, the Lord, give to you. This is your share. I give it to you and your sons and your daughters. This law will continue forever. It is an agreement with the Lord that can’t be broken.* I make this promise to you and to your descendants.*”

20The Lord also said to Aaron, “You will not get any of the land. And you will not own anything that the other people own. I, the Lord, will be yours. The Israelite people will get the land that I promised. But I am my gift to you.

21“The people of Israel will give one tenth of everything they have. So I give that one tenth to all the descendants* of Levi. This is their payment for the work that they do while they serve at the Meeting Tent.* 22But the other people of Israel must never go near that Meeting Tent. If they do, then they must be put to death! 23The Levite people who are working in the Meeting Tent are responsible for any sins against it. This is a law that will continue forever. The Levite people will not get any of the land that I promised to the other people of Israel. 24But the people of Israel will give one tenth of everything they have to me. And I will give that one tenth to the Levite people. That is why I said these words about the Levite people: Those people will not get the land that I promised the people of Israel.”

25The Lord said to Moses, 26“Speak to the Levite people and tell them: The people of Israel will give one tenth of everything they own to the Lord. That one tenth will belong to the Levite people. But you must give one tenth of that to the Lord as your offering. 27You will be given grain after it is harvested and juice from the winepress. Then that will also be your offering to the Lord. 28In this way, you will also give an offering to the Lord in the same way that the other people of Israel do. You will get the one tenth that the people of Israel give to the Lord. And then you will give one tenth of that to Aaron the priest.

29When the people of Israel give you one tenth of their harvest and of their wine, then you will give the best part of that to the Lord. 30You and your families can eat all that is left. This is your payment for the work you do in the Meeting Tent.* 31You and your families can eat all that is left. This is your payment for the work you do in the Meeting Tent.* 32And if you always give the best part of it to the Lord, then you will never be guilty. You will always remember that

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

---

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.
given to the Lord Things that were given to God and could not be bought back. See Lev. 27:28-29.
unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
2 ounces Literally, “5 shekels.”
official measure The standard measure used in the tabernacle or temple.
gerah(s) Or, “2/5 of an ounce.”
holy Chosen or set aside for God.
alternar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
It is an agreement ... broken Literally, “It is an eternal, salt agreement before the Lord.”
descendants A person’s children and their future families.
those gifts are the holy* offerings from the people of Israel. And you will not die.”

The Ashes of the Red Cow

19 The Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron. He said, 2“These are the laws from the teachings that the Lord gave to the people of Israel. Get a red cow that has nothing wrong with it. That cow must not have any bruises. And that cow must never have worn a yoke.* 3Give that cow to Eleazar the priest. Eleazar will take the cow outside the camp and kill it there. 4Then Eleazar the priest must put some of its blood on his finger and sprinkle some of the blood towards the Holy Tent. He must do this seven times. 5Then the whole cow must be burned in front of him. The skin, the meat, the blood, and the intestines must all be burned. 6Then the priest must take a cedar stick, a hyssop* branch, and some red string. The priest must throw those things into the fire where the cow is burning. 7Then the priest must wash himself and his clothes with water. Then he must come back into the camp. The priest will be unclean* until evening. 8The person who burns that cow must wash himself and his clothes in water. He will be unclean until evening.

9“Then a person who is clean* will collect the ashes from the cow. He will put those ashes in a clean place outside the camp. These ashes will be used when people must keep a special ceremony to become clean. These ashes will also be used to remove a person’s sins.

10“The person who collected the cow’s ashes must wash his clothes. He will be unclean* until evening. This rule will continue forever. This rule is for the citizens of Israel. And this rule is for the foreigners living with you. 11If someone touches a dead person’s body, then he will be unclean* for seven days. 12He must wash himself with the special water on the third day and again on the seventh day. If he does not do this, then he will remain unclean. 13If a person touches a dead body, then that person is unclean. If that person stays unclean and then goes to the Holy Tent,* then the Holy Tent becomes unclean. So that person must be separated from the people of Israel. If the special water is not thrown on an unclean person, then that person will stay unclean.

14“This is the rule about people who die in their tents. If a person dies in his tent, then everyone in the tent will be unclean.* They will be unclean for seven days. 15And every jar or pot without a lid becomes unclean.* 16If anyone touches a dead body, then that person will be unclean for seven days. This is true if the dead body is out in the field or if the person was killed in war. Also, if anyone touches the bones from a dead person then that person is unclean.

17“So you must use the ashes from the burnt cow to make that person clean* again. Pour fresh water* over the ashes into a jar. 18A clean person must take a hyssop* branch and dip it into the water. Then he must sprinkle it over the tent, the dishes, and the people who were in the tent. You must do this to anyone that touches a dead person’s body. You must do this to anyone that touches the body of someone killed in war and to anyone that touches a grave or the bones from a dead person.

19”Then a clean* person must sprinkle this water on the unclean* person on the third day and again on the seventh day. On the seventh day, that person becomes clean. He must wash his clothes in water. He will become clean in the evening.

20“If a person becomes unclean* and does not become clean,* that person must be separated from the people of Israel. That person was not sprinkled with the special water. He did not become clean. So he might make the Holy Tent* unclean. 21This rule will be for you forever. If a person is sprinkled with the special water, then he must also wash his clothes. Any person who touches the special water will be unclean until evening.
NUMBERS 19:22–20:19

22If an unclean person touches someone else, then that other person also becomes unclean. That person will be unclean until evening.”

Miriam Dies

20The people of Israel arrived at the Zin desert on the first month. The people stayed at Kadesh. Miriam died, and she was buried there.

Moses Makes a Mistake

2There was not enough water for the people at that place. So the people met together to complain to Moses and Aaron. 3The people argued with Moses. They said, “Maybe we should have died in front of the Lord like our brothers did. 4Why did you bring the Lord’s people into this desert? Do you want us and our animals to die here? 5Why did you bring us from Egypt? Why did you bring us to this bad place? There is no grain. There are no figs, grapes, or pomegranates.* And there is no water to drink.”
6So Moses and Aaron left the crowd of people and went to the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* They bowed down to the ground, and the Glory of the Lord* appeared to them.
7The Lord spoke to Moses. He said, 8“Get the special walking stick. Take your brother Aaron and the crowd of people and go to that rock. Speak to the rock in front of the people. Then water will flow from the rock. And you can give that water to the people and to their animals.”
9The walking stick was in the Holy Tent, in front of the Lord. Moses took the walking stick like the Lord said. 10Moses and Aaron told the people to meet together in front of the rock. Then Moses said, “You people are always complaining. Now listen to me. I will cause water to flow from this rock.” 11Moses lifted his arm and hit the rock twice. Water began flowing from the rock. And the people and their animals drank that water.

12But the Lord said to Moses and Aaron, “All the people of Israel were gathered around. But you did not show me honor. You did not show the people of Israel that the power to make the water came from me. You did not show the people that you trusted in me. I will give those people the land that I promised them. But you will not lead them into that land!”

13This place was called the waters of Meribah.* This was the place where the Israelite people argued with the Lord. And this was the place that the Lord showed them that he was holy.

Edom Won’t Let Israel Pass

14While Moses was at Kadesh, he sent some men with a message to the king of Edom. The message said: “Your brothers, the people of Israel, say to you: You know about all the troubles that we have had. 15Many, many years ago our ancestors* went down into Egypt. And we lived there for many years. The people of Egypt were cruel to us. 16But we asked the Lord for help. The Lord heard us and sent an angel to help us. The Lord has brought us out of Egypt. “Now we are here at Kadesh, where your land begins. 17Please let us travel through your country. We will not travel through any fields or vineyards. We will not drink water from any of your wells. We will travel only along the King’s Road. We will not leave that road to the right or to the left. We will stay on the road until we have traveled through your country.”

18But the king of Edom answered, “You may not travel through our land. If you try to travel through our land, then we will come and fight you with swords.”

19The people of Israel answered, “We will travel along the main road. If our animals drink any of your water, we will pay you for it.

pomegranates A red fruit with many small seeds inside it. Each seed is covered with the soft, juicy part of the fruit.
Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.
Glory of the Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. This was like a bright, shining light.
Meribah This name means “argument,” or “rebellion.”
ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
We only want to walk through your country. We don’t want to take it for ourselves.”

20 But again Edom answered, “We won’t allow you to come through our country.”

Then the king of Edom gathered a large and powerful army and went out to fight against the people of Israel. 21 The king of Edom refused to let the people of Israel travel through his country. And the people of Israel turned around and went another way.

Aaron Dies

22 All the people of Israel traveled from Kadesh to Mount Hor. 23 Mount Hor was near the border of Edom. The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, 24 “It is time for Aaron to die and go to be with his ancestors. Aaron will not enter the land that I promised to the people of Israel. Moses, I say this to you because both you and Aaron did not fully obey the command I gave you at the waters of Meribah.

25 “Now, bring Aaron and his son Eleazar up to Mount Hor. 26 Take Aaron’s special clothes from him and put those clothes on his son Eleazar. Aaron will die there on the mountain. And he will go to be with his ancestors.”

27 Moses obeyed the Lord’s command. Moses, Aaron, and Eleazar went up on Mount Hor. All the people of Israel watched them go. 28 Moses removed Aaron’s special clothes and put those clothes on his son Eleazar. Then Aaron died there on top of the mountain. Moses and Eleazar came back down the mountain. 29 All the people of Israel learned that Aaron was dead. So every person in Israel mourned for 30 days.

War with the Canaanites

21 The Canaanite king of Arad lived in the Negev.* He heard that the people of Israel were coming on the road to Atharim. So the king went out and attacked the people of Israel. Arad captured some of the people and made them prisoners. 22 Then the people of Israel made a special promise to the Lord: “Lord, please help us defeat these people. If you do this, then we will give their cities to you. We will totally destroy them.”

23 The Lord listened to the people of Israel. And the Lord helped the people of Israel to defeat the Canaanite people. The people of Israel completely destroyed the Canaanite people and their cities. So that place was named Hormah.*

The Bronze Snake

4 The people of Israel left Mount Hor and traveled on the road that goes to the Red Sea. They did this to go around the country of Edom. But the people became impatient. 5 They began complaining against God and Moses. The people said, “Why did you bring us out of Egypt? We will die here in the desert! There is no bread! There is no water! And we hate this terrible food!”

6 So the Lord sent poisonous snakes among the people. The snakes bit the people, and many of the people of Israel died. 7 The people came to Moses and said, “We know that we sinned when we spoke against the Lord and against you. Pray to the Lord. Ask him to take away these snakes.” So Moses prayed for the people.

8 The Lord said to Moses, “Make a bronze* snake and put it on a pole. If any person is bitten by a snake, then that person should look at the bronze snake on the pole. Then that person will not die.” 9 So Moses obeyed the Lord. He made a bronze snake and put it on a pole. Then when a snake bit any person, that person looked at the bronze snake on the pole and lived.

The Trip to Moab

10 The people of Israel left that place and camped at Oboth. 11 Then they left Oboth and camped at Iye Abarim in the desert east of Moab. 12 They left that place and camped in Zered Valley. 13 Then they moved and camped... across from the Arnon River in the desert. This river started at the Ammonite border. The valley was the border between Moab and the Amorites. That is why these words are written in the Book of the Wars of the Lord:

“... and Waheb in Suphah, and the Valleys of the Arnon, and the hills by the valleys that lead to the town of Ar. These places are at the border of Moab.”

The people of Israel left that place and traveled to Beer. This was the place with the well. This was the place where the Lord said to Moses, “Bring the people together here and I will give them water.” Then the people of Israel sang this song:

“Well, flow with water! Sing about it!

18 Great men dug this well. Important leaders dug this well. They dug this well with their staffs and walking sticks. It is a gift in the desert.”

So the people called that well “Mattanah.” The people traveled from Mattanah to Nahaliel. Then they traveled from Nahaliel to Bamoth. The people traveled from Bamoth to the Valley of Moab. In this place the top of the Pisgah Mountain looks over the desert.

Sihon and Og

The people of Israel sent some men to Sihon, the king of the Amorite people. The men said to the king, “Allow us to travel through your country. We will not go through any field or vineyard. We will not drink water from any of your wells. We will travel only along King’s Road. We will stay on that road until we have traveled through your country.”

But King Sihon would not allow the people of Israel to travel through his country. The king gathered together his army and marched out to meet the people of Israel. At Jahaz, the king’s army fought against the people of Israel.

But the people of Israel killed the king. Then they took his land from the Arnon River to the Jabbok River. The people of Israel took the land as far as the Ammonite border. They stopped at that border because it was strongly defended by the Ammonite people. Israel took all the Amorite cities and began living in them. They even defeated the city of Heshbon and all the small towns around it. Heshbon was the city where Sihon, the Amorite king, lived. In the past, Sihon had fought with the king of Moab. Sihon had taken the land as far as the Arnon River. That is why the singers sing this song:

Go in and build Heshbon again!

Make Sihon’s city strong.

A fire began in Heshbon.

That fire began in Sihon’s city.
The fire destroyed Ar, Moab.

It burned the hills above Arnon River.

It is bad for you, Moab.

You lost Chemosh’s people.

His sons ran away.

His daughters were taken prisoners by Sihon, king of the Amorites.

But we defeated those Amorites.

We destroyed their towns from Heshbon to Dibon, from Nashim to Nophah, near Medeba.

So the people of Israel made their camp in the land of the Amorite people.

Moses sent some men to look at the town of Jazer. After Moses did this, the people of Israel captured that town. They captured the small towns that were around it. The people of Israel forced the Amorite people who were living there to leave.

Then the people of Israel traveled on the road toward Bashan. Og, the king of Bashan, got his army and marched out to meet the people of Israel. He fought against them at Edrei.

But the Lord said to Moses, “Don’t be afraid of that king. I will allow you to defeat him. You will take his whole army and all his land. Do the same to him as you did to Sihon, the Amorite king that lived in Heshbon.”

Beer This Hebrew name means “Well.”

gift in the desert In Hebrew this is the name “Mattanah.”

Chemosh Chemosh was the god of the Moabite people.
So the people of Israel defeated Og and his army. They killed him and his sons and all his army. Then the people of Israel took all his land.

Balaam and the King of Moab

Then the people of Israel traveled to the Jordan Valley in Moab. They camped near the Jordan River across from Jericho.

Balak son of Zippor saw all the things that the people of Israel had done to the Amorite people. The king of Moab was very afraid, because there were so many people of Israel. Moab was really scared of them.

The king of Moab said to the leaders of Midian, "This large group of people will destroy everything around us, the way a cow eats all the grass in a field."

Balak son of Zippor was the king of Moab at this time. He sent some men to call Balaam son of Beor. Balaam was at Pethor, near the Euphrates River. This was where Balaam’s people lived. This was Balak’s message: "A new nation of people has come out of Egypt. There are so many people that they cover all the land. They have camped next to me. Come and help me. These people are too powerful for me. I know that you have great power. If you bless a person, then good things happen to him. And if you speak against a person, then bad things happen to him. Maybe then I will be able to defeat them. Then I can force them to leave my country."

The leaders of Moab and Midian left. They went to talk to Balaam. They carried with them money to pay him for his service. Then they told him what Balak had said.

Balaam said to them, "Stay here for the night. I will talk to the Lord and tell you the answer he gives me." So the leaders of Moab stayed there with Balaam that night.

Balaam said to God, “The king of Moab, Balak son of Zippor, sent them to give me a message. This is the message: A new nation of people has come out of Egypt. There are so many people that they cover the land. So, come and speak against these people. Then maybe I will be able to fight them and force them to leave my land.”

But God said to Balaam, “Don’t go with them. You must not speak against those people. They are my people.”

The next morning Balaam got up and said to leaders from Balak, “Go back to your own country. The Lord will not let me go with you.”

So the leaders of Moab went back to Balak and told him this. They said, “Balaam refused to come with us.”

So Balak sent other leaders to Balaam. This time he sent many more than the first time. And these leaders were much more important than the first ones he sent. They went to Balaam and said: "Balak son of Zippor says this to you: Please don’t let anything stop you from coming. I will pay you very much, and I will do whatever you ask. Come and speak against these people for me.”

Balaam gave Balak’s officials his answer. He said, “I must obey the Lord my God. I must do only the things that I tell you to do.”

That night, God came to Balaam. God said, “These men have come again to ask you to go with them. So you can go with them. But do only the things that I tell you to do.”

Balaam and His Donkey

The next morning, Balaam got up and put a saddle on his donkey. Then he went with the leaders of Moab. Balaam was riding on his donkey. Two of his servants were with him. While Balaam was traveling, God became angry. So the Lord’s angel stood in the road in front of Balaam. The angel was going to stop Balaam.

Balaam’s donkey saw the Lord’s angel standing in the road. The angel was holding a sword in his hand. So the donkey turned from the road and went into the field. Balaam could not see the angel. So he was very angry with the donkey. He hit the donkey and forced it to go back on the road.

24 Later, the Lord’s angel stood at a place where the road became narrow. This was between two vineyards. There were walls on both sides of the road. 25 Again the donkey saw the Lord’s angel. So the donkey walked very close to one wall. This crushed Balaam’s foot against the wall. So Balaam hit his donkey again.

26 Later the Lord’s angel stood at another place. This was another place where the road became narrow. There was no place where the donkey could go around him. The donkey could not turn to the left or to the right. 27 The donkey saw the Lord’s angel. So the donkey lay down with Balaam sitting on top of it.
Balaam was very angry at the donkey. So he hit it with his walking stick.

28 Then the Lord caused the donkey to speak. The donkey said to Balaam, “Why are you angry at me? What have I done to you?
You have hit me three times!”

29 Balaam answered the donkey, “You have made me look foolish. If I had a sword in my hand, I would kill you right now!”

30 But the donkey said to Balaam, “Look, I am your own donkey! You have ridden me for many, many years. And you know that I have never done this to you before!”

31 Then the Lord allowed Balaam to see the angel. The Lord’s angel was standing in the road, holding a sword in his hand. Balaam bowed low to the ground.

32 Then the Lord’s angel asked Balaam, “Why did you hit your donkey three times? I am the one that came to stop you. But just in time.33 Your donkey saw me and turned away from me. That happened three times. If the donkey had not turned away, I probably would have killed you already. And I would have let your donkey live.”

34 Then Balaam said to the Lord’s angel, “I have sinned. I did not know that you were standing in the road. If I am doing wrong, then I will go back home.”

35 Then the Lord’s angel said to Balaam, “No! You can go with these men. But be careful. Speak only the words that I will tell you to say.” So Balaam went with the leaders that Balak had sent.

36 Balak heard that Balaam was coming. So Balak went out to meet him at the Moabite town* near the Arnon River. This was at the northern border of his country. 37 When Balak saw Balaam, he said to him, “I asked you before to come. I told you it was very, very important. Why didn’t you come to me? I might not be able to pay you now.”

38 Balaam answered, “But I am here now. I came, but I might not be able to do the thing you asked. I can only say the words that the Lord God tells me to say.”

39 Then Balaam went with Balak to Kiriath Huzoth. 40 Balak killed some cattle and some sheep as his sacrifice. He gave some of the meat to Balaam and some to the leaders that were with him.

41 The next morning Balak took Balaam to the town of Bamoth Baal. From there, they could see part of the Israelite camp.

Balaam’s First Message

23 Balaam said, “Build seven altars* here.
And prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me.” 2 Balak did the thing that Balaam asked. Then Balak and Balaam killed a ram and a bull on each of the altars.

3 Then Balaam said to Balak, “Stay here near this altar.* I will go to another place.
Then the Lord will come to me, and he will tell me what I must say.” Then Balaam went away to a higher place.

4 God came to Balaam at that place. And Balaam said, “I have prepared seven altars.*
And I have killed a bull and a ram as a sacrifice on each altar.”

stop Or, “oppose” or “accuse.”
But just in time Literally, “Just as the path in front of me dropped away, …” or, “Because you are not doing right, …”
The Hebrew is very hard to understand.

Moabite town Or possibly, “Ar Moab.”
altar(s) A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
Then the Lord told Balaam what he should say. Then the Lord said, “Go back to Balak and say these things that I have given you to say.”

So Balaam went back to Balak. Balak was still standing near the altar. And all the leaders of Moab were standing there with them. Then Balaam said these things:

Balak king of Moab brought me here from the eastern mountains of Aram. Balak said to me, “Come, speak against Jacob for me. Come, speak against the people of Israel.”

But God is not against those people, So I can’t speak against them either! The Lord has not asked for bad things to happen to those people. So I can’t do that either.

I see those people from the mountain. I see them from the high hills. Those people live alone. They are not part of another nation.

Who can count Jacob’s people? They are as many as the grains of dust. No one can count even a fourth of the people of Israel. Let me die like a good man. Let my life end as happy as theirs!

Balak said to Balaam, “What have you done to me? I brought you here to speak against my enemies. But you have only blessed them!”

But Balaam answered, “I must say the things that the Lord tells me to say.”

Then Balak said to him, “So come with me to another place. At that place you can see more of those people. You can’t see all of them—you can only see part of them. Maybe from that place you can speak against them for me.”

So Balak led Balaam to Watchmen Hills. This was on top of Mount Pisgah. At that place, Balak built seven altars. And then Balak killed a bull and a ram on each altar as a sacrifice.

So Balak said to Balak, “Stay here by this altar. I will go meet with God over at that place.”

So the Lord came to Balaam and told Balaam what to say. Then the Lord told Balaam to go back to Balak and say those things. So Balaam went to Balak. Balak was still standing near the altar. The leaders of Moab were there with him. Balak saw Balaam coming and said, “What did the Lord say?”

Balaam’s Second Message

Then Balaam said these things:

“Stand up, Balak, and listen to me. Hear me, Balak son of Zippor.

God is not a man; he will not lie. God is not a human being; his decisions will not change.

If the Lord says he will do something, then he will do it.
If the Lord makes a promise, then he will do the thing he promised.

The Lord told me to bless those people. The Lord blessed them, so I cannot change that.

God saw no wrong in Jacob’s people. God saw no sin in the people of Israel. The Lord is their God, and he is with them.

The Great King is with them!

God brought those people out of Egypt. They are as strong as a wild ox.

There is no power that can defeat the people of Jacob. There is no magic that can stop the people of Israel.

People will say this about Jacob and about the people of Israel: ‘Look at the great things God did!’

The people are as strong as a lion. They fight like a lion.
And that lion will not rest, until he has eaten his enemy.
And that lion will not rest, until he drinks the blood of the people who are against him.”

Then Balak said to Balaam, “You didn’t ask for good things to happen to those people.
But you didn’t ask for bad things to happen to them either!”

26Balaam answered, “I told you before that I can only say the things that the Lord tells me to say.”

27Then Balak said to Balaam, “So come with me to another place. Maybe God will be pleased and will allow you to curse them from that place.” 28So Balak led Balaam to the top of Mount Peor. This mountain looks out over the desert.

29Balaam said, “Build seven altars here. Then prepare seven bulls and seven rams for the altars.” 30Balak did the thing that Balaam asked. Balak offered the bulls and rams on the altars.

Balaam’s Third Message

24Balaam saw that the Lord wanted to bless Israel. So Balaam did not try to change that by using any kind of magic. But Balaam turned and looked toward the desert. 2Balaam looked out across the desert and saw all the people of Israel. They were camped with the family groups in their different areas. Then the Spirit of God came to Balaam. 3And Balaam said these words:

“This message is from Balaam son of Beor. I am speaking about things I see clearly.

4 I heard this message from God. I saw what God All-Powerful* showed me. I humbly tell what I clearly see.

5 “People of Jacob, your tents are beautiful! People of Israel, your homes are beautiful!

6 You are like gardens
planted by the streams.
You are like gardens
growing by the rivers.
You are like sweet-smelling bushes planted by the Lord.
You are like beautiful trees growing by the water.

7 You will always have enough water, enough water for your seeds to grow.

8 Your king will be greater than king Agag. Your kingdom will be very great.

9 “Israel is like a lion, curled up and lying down.
Yes, they are like a young lion,
and no one wants to wake him!
Any person who blesses you will be blessed.
And any person who speaks against you will have great troubles.”

10Balak became very angry at Balaam. Balak said to Balaam, “I called you to come and speak against my enemies. But you have blessed them. You have blessed them three times. 11Now leave and go home! I told you that I would give you a very good payment. But the Lord has caused you to lose your reward.”

12Balaam said to Balak, “You sent men to me. Those men asked me to come. But I told them, 13’Balak can give me his most beautiful house filled with silver and gold. But I can still say only the things that the Lord commands me to say. I cannot do anything myself, good or bad. I must say what the Lord commands.’ Surely you remember that I told your men these things. 14Now I am going back to my own people. But I will give you this warning. I will tell you what these people of Israel will do to you and your people in the future.”

Balaam’s Last Message

15Then Balaam said these things:

“This message is from Balaam son of Beor.
I am speaking about things I see clearly.

16 I heard this message from God.
I learned what God Most High taught me.
I saw what God All-Powerful* showed me.
I humbly tell what I clearly see.

17 “I see the Lord coming, but not now.
I see him coming, but not soon.
A star will come from the family of Jacob.*
A new ruler will come from the people of Israel.
That ruler will crush the heads of the Moabite people.
That ruler will crush the heads of all the sons of Sheth.*

Israel will grow strong!
He will get the land of Edom.
He will get the land of Seir,* his enemy.

“A new ruler will come from the family of Jacob.*
That ruler will destroy the people left alive in that city.”

Then Balaam saw the Amalekite people and said these words:
“Amalek is the strongest of all nations. But even Amalek will be destroyed!”

Then Balaam saw the Kenite people and he said these words:
“You believe that your country is safe, like a bird’s nest* high on a mountain.
But you Kenite* people will be destroyed, just like the Lord destroyed Cain.*
Assyria will make you prisoners.”

Then Balaam said these words:
“No person can live when God does this.
They will defeat Assyria and Eber.*
But those ships will also be destroyed.”

Then Balaam got up and went back home. And Balak went his own way.

Israel at Peor

The people of Israel were camped near Acacia. At that time, the men began doing sexual sins* with Moabite women.

The Moabite women invited the men to come and join in their sacrifices to their false gods. So the Israelites joined in worshiping those false gods—they ate the sacrifices and worshiped those gods. At that place, the people of Israel began worshiping the false god, Baal of Peor. And the Lord became very angry at them.

The Lord said to Moses, “Get all the leaders of these people. Then kill them so that all the people can see.* Lay their bodies before the Lord. Then the Lord will not show his anger against all the people of Israel.”

So Moses said to Israel’s judges, “Each of you must find the men in your family group that have led people to worship the false god, Baal of Peor. Then you must kill those men.”

At the time, Moses and all the elders (leaders) of Israel were gathered together at the entrance to the Meeting Tent.* An Israelite man brought a Midianite woman home to his brothers.* He did this where Moses and all the leaders could see. Moses and the leaders were very sad.

Phinehas was the son of Eleazar and the grandson of Aaron the priest. Phinehas saw this man bring the woman into camp. So Phinehas left the meeting and got his spear. He followed the Israelite man into the tent. Then he used the spear to kill the Israelite man and the Midianite woman in her tent.* He pushed the spear through both of their bodies. At that time, there was a great sickness among the Israelite people. But when Phinehas killed these two people, the sickness stopped. A total of 24,000 people died from that sickness.

sexual sins Sexual sin was often part of the worship of false gods. So this can mean that the men were unfaithful to their wives and also that they were unfaithful to God by worshiping false gods.

so that all the people can see Literally, “before the sun.”

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

brothers Or, “family.”

her tent This was probably a special tent that showed this woman was a prostitute serving the false god Baal of Peor.
The Lord said to Moses, "I have strong feelings for my people—I want them to belong only to me! Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, saved the people of Israel from my anger. He did this by showing those feelings for my people. So I will not kill the people like I wanted to. Tell Phinehas that I am making a peace agreement with him. This is the agreement: He and all of his family that live after him will always be priests. Why? Because he had strong feelings for his God. And he did the things that made the people of Israel pure.*"

The Israelite man who was killed with the Midianite woman was named Zimri son of Salu. He was the leader of a family in Simeon’s family group. And the name of the Midianite woman who was killed was Cozbi.* She was the daughter of Zur. Zur was the head of a family and leader of a Midianite family group.

The Lord said to Moses, "The Midianite people are your enemies. You must kill them. They have already made you their enemies. They tricked you at Peor. And they tricked you with the woman named Cozbi.* She was the daughter of a Midianite leader. But she was killed when the sickness came to the Israelite people. That sickness was caused because the people were tricked into worshiping the false god Baal of Peor."

The People Are Counted

After the great sickness, the Lord spoke to Moses and Eleazar son of Aaron the priest. He said, "Count the people of Israel. Count all the men who are 20 years old or older and list them by families. These are the men who are able to serve in the army of Israel."

At this time the people were camped in the Jordan Valley in Moab. This was near the Jordan River, across from Jericho. So Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke to the people. They said, "You must count every man who is 20 years old or older. The Lord gave Moses this command." Here is the list of the people of Israel that came out of Egypt:

The People Are Counted

After the great sickness, the Lord spoke to Moses and Eleazar son of Aaron the priest. He said, "Count the people of Israel. Count all the men who are 20 years old or older and list them by families. These are the men who are able to serve in the army of Israel."

At this time the people were camped in the Jordan Valley in Moab. This was near the Jordan River, across from Jericho. So Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke to the people. They said, "You must count every man who is 20 years old or older. The Lord gave Moses this command." Here is the list of the people of Israel that came out of Egypt:

made ... pure Or, “atoned.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

Cozbi This name is like the Hebrew word meaning “my lie.”

firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.
Shelah—the Shelanite family.
Perez—the Perezite family.
Zerah—the Zerahite family.
(Two of Judah’s sons, Er and Onan, died in Canaan.)

21 These are the families from Perez:
Hezron—the Hezronite family.
Hamul—the Hamulite family.

22 Those were the families from Judah’s family group. The total number of men was 76,500.
23 The families in Issachar’s family group were:
Tola—the Tolaite family.
Puah—the Puite family.
Jashub—the Jashubite family.
Shimron—the Shimronite family.

25 Those were the families from Issachar’s family group. The total number of men was 64,300.
26 The families in Zebulun’s family group were:
Sered—the Seredite family.
Elon—the Elonite family.
Jahleel—the Jahleelite family.

27 Those were the families from Zebulun’s family group. The total number of men was 60,500.
28 Joseph’s two sons were Manasseh and Ephraim. Each son became a family group with its own families. 29 Manasseh’s families were:
Makir—the Makirite family. (Makir was the father of Gilead.)
Gilead—the Gileadite family.

30 The families from Gilead were:
Iezer—the Iezerite family.
Helek—the Helekite family.
Asriel—the Asrielite family.
Shechem—the Shechemite family.
Shemida—the Shemidaite family.
Hepher—the Hepherite family.

33 Zelophehad was the son of Hepher. But he had no sons—only daughters. His daughters names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

34 Those are all the families in Manasseh’s family group. The total number of men was 52,700.
35 The families in Ephraim’s family group were:
Shuthelah—the Shuthelahite family.
Beker—the Bekerite family.
Tahan—the Tahanite family.

36 Eran was from Shuthelah’s family. Eran’s family was the Eranite family.
37 Those were the families in Ephraim’s family group. The total number of men was 32,500. Those are all the people who came from Joseph’s family groups.
38 The families in Benjamin’s family group were:
Bela—the Belaite family.
Ashbel—the Ashbelite family.
Ahiram—the Ahiramite family.
Shupham—the Shuphamite family.
Hupham—the Huphamite family.

40 The families from Bela were:
Ard—the Ardite family.
Naaman—the Naamanite family.

41 Those were all the families in Benjamin’s family group. The total number of men was 45,600.
42 The families in Dan’s family group were:
Shuham—the Shuhamite family group.
That was the family group from Dan’s family group. 43 There were many families in the Shuhamite family group. The total number of men was 64,400.
44 The families in Asher’s family group were:
Imnah—the Imnite family.
Ishvi—the Ishvite family.
Beriah—the Beriite family.

45 The families from Beriah were:
Heber—the Heberite family.
Malkiel—the Malkielite family.
46 (Asher also had a daughter named Serah.)
47 Those were the families in Asher’s family group. The total number of men was 53,400.
48 The families from Naphtali’s family group were:
   - Jahzeel—the Jahzeelite family.
   - Guni—the Gunite family.
   - Jezer—the Jezerite family.
   - Shillem—the Shillemite family.
49 Those were the families from Naphtali’s family group. The total number of men was 45,400.
50 So the total number of men of Israel was 601,730.
51 The Lord said to Moses, 52 “The land will be divided and given to these people. Each family group will get enough land for all of the people who were counted. A large family will get much land, and a small family will get less land. The land that they get will be equal to the number of people who were counted. But you must use lots to decide which family gets which part of the land. Each family group will get its share of the land. And that land will be given the name of that family group. Land will be given to each family—large and small. And you will throw lots to make the decisions.”
53 They also counted Levi’s family group. These are the families from Levi’s family group:
   - Gershon—the Gershonite family.
   - Kohath—the Kohathite family.
   - Merari—the Merarite family.
54 These are also families from Levi’s family group:
   - The Libnite family.
   - The Hebronite family.
   - The Mahlite family.
   - The Mushite family.
   - The Korahite family.
55 Amram was from the Kohath family group. Amram’s wife was named Jochebed. She was also from Levi’s family group. She was born in Egypt. Amram and Jochebed has two sons, Aaron and Moses. They also had a daughter, Miriam.
56 Aaron was the father of Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. But Nadab and Abihu died. They died because they made an offering to the Lord with fire that was not allowed.
57 The total number of men from Levi’s family group was 23,000. But these men were not counted with the other people of Israel. They did not get a share of the land that the Lord gave to the other people.
58 Moses and Eleazar the priest counted all these people. They counted the people of Israel while they were in the Jordan Valley in Moab. This was near the Jordan River across from Jericho. Many years before, in the Sinai desert, Moses and Aaron the priest counted the people of Israel. But all those people were dead. None of those people were still alive. Why? Because the Lord told those people of Israel that they would all die in the desert. The only two men who were left alive were Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

Zelophehad’s Daughters

27 Zelophehad was the son of Hepher. Hepher was the son of Gilead. Gilead was the son of Makir. Makir was the son of Manasseh. Manasseh was the son of Joseph. Zelophehad had five daughters. Their names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. These five women went to the Meeting Tent* and stood before Moses, Eleazar the priest, the leaders, and all the people of Israel.

The five daughters said, “Our father died while we were traveling through the desert. Our father died a natural death. He was not one of the men that joined Korah’s group. (Korah was the man who turned against the Lord.) But our father had no sons. This means that our father’s name will not continue. It is not fair that our father’s name will not continue. His name will end because he had no sons. So we ask you to give us some of the land that our father’s brothers will get.”

---

lots Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.
5So Moses asked the Lord what he should do. 6The Lord said to him, 7“"The daughters of Zelophehad are right. They should share the land with their father’s brothers. So give them the land that you would have given to their father.
8“So make this law to the people of Israel, ‘If a man has no son, and he dies, then everything he owns should be given to his daughter. 9If he has no daughter, then everything he owns should be given to his brothers. 10If he has no brothers, then everything he owns should be given to his father’s brothers. 11If his father had no brothers, then everything he owns should be given to the closest relative in his family. This should be a law among the people of Israel. The Lord gives this command to Moses.’”

Joshua Is the New Leader
12 Then the Lord said to Moses, “Go up on one of mountains in the desert east of the Jordan River. There you will see the land that I am giving to the people of Israel. 13 After you have seen this land, then you will die like your brother Aaron. 14 Remember when the people became angry at the water in the desert of Zin. Both you and Aaron refused to obey my command. You did not honor me and show the people that I am holy.” (This was at the water of Meribah* near Kadesh in the desert of Zin.)
15 Moses said to the Lord, 16“The Lord is the God who knows what people are thinking. Lord, I pray that you will choose a leader for these people.* 17I pray that the Lord will choose a leader that will lead them out of this land and bring them into the new land. Then the Lord’s people will not be like sheep without a shepherd.”
18 So the Lord said to Moses, “Joshua son of Nun will be the new leader. He is very wise.* Make him the new leader. 19Tell him to stand before Eleazar the priest and all the people. Then make him the new leader.

20 “Show the people that you are making him leader,* then all the people will obey him. 21If Joshua needs to make a decision, then he will go to Eleazar the priest. Eleazar will use the Urim* to learn the Lord’s answer. Then Joshua and all the people of Israel will do the things God says. If he says, ‘go to war,’ then they will go to war. And if he says, ‘go home,’ then they will go home.”
22 Moses obeyed the Lord. Moses told Joshua to stand before Eleazar the priest, and all the people of Israel. 23 Then Moses put his hands on him to show that he was the new leader. He did this the way the Lord had told him.

Daily Offerings
28 Then the Lord spoke to Moses. He said, 29“Give this command to the people of Israel. Tell them to be sure to give the grain offerings and sacrifices to me at the right time. Those are the offerings made by fire. Their smell will please the Lord. 30 These are the offerings made by fire that they must give to the Lord. Every day they must give 2 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. 4 Offer one of the lambs in the morning, and offer the other lamb at twilight.* 5 Also give a grain offering of 8 cups* of fine flour mixed with 1 quart* of olive oil.” 6 They started giving the daily offerings at Mount Sinai. They were offerings made by fire. Their smell pleased the Lord. 7 The people must also give the drink offerings that go with the offerings made by fire. They must give 1 quart* of wine with every lamb. Pour that drink offering on the altar, in the Holy Place. This is a gift to the Lord. 8 Offer the second lamb at twilight.* Offer it just like the morning offering. Also give the drink offering that goes water of Meribah Or, “water of rebellion”.

The Lord ... these people Literally, “May the Lord, the God of the spirits of all people, appoint a man for this community.”
Joshua ... is very wise Literally, “Take Joshua son of Nun. He is a man with a spirit in him.” This might mean that Joshua was very wise, or it might mean that God’s Spirit was with him.
Show ... leader Literally, “Give him some of your glory.”
Urim Used together with the Thummim to learn God’s answer to questions. They were probably like lots—stones, sticks, or bones that were thrown like dice to make decisions.
twilight The time after the sun goes down, but before dark.
8 cups Literally, “1/10 of an ephah.”
1 quart Literally, “1/4 hin.”
NUMBERS 28:9–31

with it. This will be an offering made by fire. Its smell will please the Lord.”

Sabbath Offerings

9“On the Sabbath,* you must give 2 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. You must also give a grain offering of 16 cups* of fine flour mixed with olive oil, and a drink offering. 10This is a special offering for the day of rest. This offering is in addition to the regular daily offering and drink offering.”

Monthly Meetings

11“On the first day of each month you will offer a special burnt offering to the Lord. This offering will be 2 male bulls, 1 ram, and 7 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. 12With each bull, you must give a grain offering of 24 cups* of fine flour mixed with olive oil. And with the ram, you must give a grain offering of 16 cups* of fine flour mixed with olive oil. 13Also give a grain offering of 8 cups* of fine flour mixed with olive oil with each lamb. This will be an offering made by fire. Its smell will please the Lord. 14The drink offering will be 2 quarts* of wine with each bull, 1 1/4 quarts* of wine with the ram, and 1 quart* of wine with each lamb. That is the burnt offering that must be offered each and every month of the year. 15In addition to the regular daily burnt offering and drink offering, you must also give 1 male goat to the Lord. That goat will be a sin offering.* 16You must give those offerings in addition to the morning burnt offerings that you give every day.

24“In the same way, each day for seven days, you must give the offerings made by fire to the Lord and the drink offerings that go with them. The smell of these offerings will please the Lord. The offerings will be food for the people. You must give these offerings in addition to the burnt offerings that you give every day.

25“Then, on the seventh day of this holiday, you will have another special meeting. You will not do any work on that day.

Festival of Weeks (Pentecost)

26“At the Festival of Firstfruits* (the Festival of Weeks) use the new crops to give a grain offering to the Lord. At that time, you must also call a special meeting. You must not do any work on that day. 27You must offer a burnt offering. It will be an offering made by fire. Its smell will please the Lord. You must offer 2 bulls, 1 ram, and 7 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. 28You must also give 24 cups* of fine flour mixed with oil with each bull and 16 cups* with each ram, 29and 8 cups* with each lamb. 30You must also sacrifice 1 male goat to make you pure.* 31You must give those offerings in addition to the daily burnt offerings and the grain offering you give with them. Be sure meeting on the first day of this holiday. You will not do any work on that day. 19You will give burnt offerings to the Lord. The burnt offerings will be 2 bulls, 1 ram, and 7 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. 20–21You must also give a grain offering of 24 cups* of fine flour mixed with olive oil with each bull, and 16 cups* of fine flour mixed with oil with the ram, and 8 cups* of fine flour mixed with oil for each lamb. 22You must also give 1 male goat. That goat will be a sin offering to make you pure.* 23You must give those offerings in addition to the morning burnt offerings that you give every day.

Passover

16“The Lord’s Passover will be on the 14th day of the first month. 17The Festival of Unleavened Bread begins on the 15th day of that month. This holiday lasts for seven days. The only bread you can eat is bread made without yeast. 18You must have a special Sabbath Saturday, a day of rest and worship for the Jews.

16 cups Literally, “2/10 of an ephah.”
24 cups Literally, “3/10 of an ephah.”
8 cups Literally, “1/10 of an ephah.”
2 quarts Literally, “1/2 hin.”
1 1/4 quarts Literally, “1/3 hin.”
1 quart Literally, “1/4 hin.”
make ... pure Or, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”
Firstfruits Grain, such as wheat, and other crops that began to ripen around May and June. The first crops harvested were given to God.
there is nothing wrong with the animals or the drink offerings that you give with them.

Festival of Trumpets

29“There will be a special meeting on the first day of the seventh month. You will not do any work on that day. That is the day for blowing the trumpet. 2 You will offer burnt offerings. Their smell will please the Lord. You will offer 1 bull, 1 ram, and 7 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. 3 You will also offer 24 cups* of fine flour mixed with oil with the bull, 16 cups* with the ram, 4 and 8 cups* with each of the 7 lambs. 5 Also, offer 1 male goat for a sin offering to make you pure.* 6 Those offerings are in addition to the New Moon* sacrifice and its grain offering. And they are in addition to the daily sacrifice and its grain offerings and drink offerings. Those must be done according to the rules. They must be offerings made by fire. Their smell will please the Lord.

The Day of Atonement

7“There will be a special meeting on the tenth day of the seventh month. During that day you must not eat any food.* And you must not do any work. 8 You will offer burnt offerings. Their smell will please the Lord. You must offer 1 bull, 1 ram, and 7 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. 9 You must also offer 24 cups* of fine flour mixed with oil with the bull, 16 cups* with the ram, 10 and 8 cups* with each of the 7 lambs. 11 Also, offer 1 male goat for a sin offering to make you pure.* 12 Those offerings are in addition to the New Moon* sacrifice and its grain offering. And they are in addition to the daily sacrifice and its grain offerings and drink offerings. Those must be done according to the rules. They must be offerings made by fire. Their smell will please the Lord.

Day of Atonement Also called “Yom Kippur”—a very important holiday for the Jews. On this day, the high priest went into the Most Holy Place and did the ceremony that atoned (covered or erased) the sins of the people.

Festival of Shelters Also called “Succoth” or “Feast of Tabernacles.” At this time in ancient Israel, Jewish people traveled to Jerusalem and camped out in tents and temporary shelters to help them remember their time in the Sinai desert.
wrong with them. 24 You must also give the right amount of grain and drink offerings with the bulls, rams, and lambs. 25 You must also give 1 male goat as a sin offering. This must be in addition to the daily sacrifice and its grain offerings and drink offerings.

26 “On the fifth day of this holiday, you must offer 9 bulls, 2 rams, and 14 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. 27 You must also give the right amount of grain and drink offerings with the bulls, rams, and lambs. 28 You must also give 1 male goat as a sin offering. This must be in addition to the daily sacrifice and its grain offerings and drink offerings.

29 “On the sixth day of this holiday, you must offer 8 bulls, 2 rams, and 14 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. 30 You must also give the right amount of grain and drink offerings with the bulls, rams, and lambs. 31 You must also give 1 male goat as a sin offering. This must be in addition to the daily sacrifice and its grain offerings and drink offerings.

32 “On the seventh day of this holiday, you must offer 7 bulls, 2 rams, and 14 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. 33 You must also give the right amount of grain and drink offerings with the bulls, rams, and lambs. 34 You must also give 1 male goat as a sin offering. This must be in addition to the daily sacrifice and its grain offerings and drink offerings.

35 “The eighth day of this holiday is a very special meeting for you. You must not do any work on that day. 36 You must offer a burnt offering. It will be an offering made by fire. Its smell will please the Lord. You must offer 1 bull, 1 ram, and 7 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. 37 You must also give the right amount of grain and drink offerings with the bull, ram, and lambs. 38 You must also give 1 male goat as a sin offering. This must be in addition to the daily sacrifice and its grain offerings and drink offerings.

39 “At the special holidays you must bring your burnt offerings, grain offerings, drink offerings, and fellowship offerings. You must give those offerings to the Lord. Those offerings are in addition to any special gift you might want to give to the Lord and any offering that is part of any special promise you make.”

40 Moses told the people of Israel about all of the things that the Lord had commanded him.

Special Promises

Moses spoke with all the leaders of the Israelite family groups. Moses told them about these commands from the Lord:

2 “If a person wants to make a special promise to God, or if that person promises to give something special to God, then let him do that thing. But that person must do exactly what he promises!

3 “A young woman might still be living in her father’s house. And that young woman might make a special promise to give something to the Lord. 4 If her father hears about the promise and agrees, then the young woman must do the thing she promised. 5 But if her father hears about the promise and does not agree, then she is free from her promise. She does not have to do the thing she promised. Her father stopped her, so the Lord will forgive her.

6 “A woman might make a special promise to give something to the Lord and then get married. 7 If the husband hears about the promise and doesn’t object, then the woman must do the thing she promised. 8 But if the husband hears about the promise and refuses to let her keep her promise, then the wife does not have to do the thing she promised. Her husband broke the promise—he did not let her do the thing she said. So the Lord will forgive her.

9 “A widow or a divorced woman might make a special promise. If she does, then she must do exactly what she promised. 10 A married woman might make a special promise to give something to the Lord. 11 If her husband hears about the promise and lets her keep her promise, then she must do exactly what she promised. She must give everything she promised. 12 But if her husband hears about the promise and refuses to let her keep the promise, then she... does not have to do what she promised. It does not matter what she promised, her husband can break the promise. If her husband breaks the promise, then the Lord will forgive her. A married woman might promise to give something to the Lord, or she might promise to do without something,* or she might make some other special promise to God. The husband can stop any of those promises, and the husband can let her keep any of those promises.
How does the husband let his wife keep her promises? If he hears about the promises and does not stop them, then the woman must do exactly what she promised. 15But if the husband hears about the promises and stops them, then he is responsible for breaking her promises.*

16Those are the commands that the Lord gave to Moses. Those are the commands about a man and his wife, and about a father and his daughter that is still young and living at home in her father’s house.

Israel Fights Back Against the Midianites

The Lord spoke to Moses. He said, 2“I will help the people of Israel get even with the Midianites. After that, Moses, you will die.”

So Moses spoke to the people. He said, “Choose some of your men to be soldiers. The Lord will use those men to get even with the Midianites. 4Choose 1,000 men from each of the family groups of Israel. 5There will be a total of 12,000 soldiers from the family groups of Israel.”

Moses sent those 12,000 men to war. He sent Phineas, the son of Eleazar the priest, with them. Phineas took the holy things and the horns and trumpets with him. The people of Israel fought the Midianites like the Lord had commanded. They killed all of the Midianite men. Among the people that they killed were Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba—the five kings of Midian. They also killed Balaam son of Beor with a sword.

The people of Israel took the Midianite women and children as prisoners. They also took all their sheep, cows, and other things.
Then they burned all their towns and villages. They took all the people and animals and brought them to Moses, Eleazar the priest, and all the other people of Israel.
They brought all of the things they took in war to the camp of Israel. The people of Israel were camped in the Jordan Valley in Moab.
This was on the east side of the Jordan River across from Jericho. Then Moses, Eleazar the priest, and the leaders of the people went out of the camp to meet with the soldiers.

Moses was very angry against the leaders of the army. He was angry against the commanders of 1,000 men and against the commanders of 100 men that came back from the war. Moses said to them, “Why did you let the women live? These are the women who caused the men of Israel to turn away from the Lord during the Balaam incident—that time at Peor. The disease will again come to the Lord’s people. Now, kill all the Midianite boys. And kill all the Midianite women who had lived with a man. Kill all the Midianite women who have had sexual relations with any man. You can let all the young girls live—but only if they never had sexual relations with any man. And then, all of you men who killed other people must stay outside the camp for seven days. You must stay outside the camp even if you just touched a dead body. On the third day, you and your prisoners must make yourselves pure. You must do the same thing again on the seventh day. You must wash all of your clothes. You must wash anything made with leather, wool, or wood. You must become pure.”

Then Eleazar the priest spoke to the soldiers. He said, “Those are the rules that the Lord gave to Moses. Those rules are about soldiers coming back from war. But the rules for things that can be put in the fire are different. You must put gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin, or lead into the fire. And then wash those things with water and they will be pure.
If things cannot be put in fire, then you must still wash them with water. On the seventh day you must wash all of your clothes. Then you will become pure. After that you can come into camp.”

Then the Lord said to Moses, “You, Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders should count all of the prisoners, animals, and all of the things that the soldiers took in war. Then divide those things between the soldiers that went to war and the rest of the people of Israel. Take part of those things from the soldiers that went to war. That part will belong to the Lord. The Lord’s share is one thing for every 500 things. This includes people, cows, donkeys, and sheep. Take those things from the soldiers’ half of the things they took in war. Then give those things to Eleazar the priest. That part will belong to the Lord. And then, from the people’s half, take one thing for every 50 things. This includes people, cows, donkeys, sheep, or any other animal. Give that share to the Levites. Why? Because the Levites take care of the Lord’s Holy Tent.”

So Moses and Eleazar did what the Lord commanded Moses. The soldiers had taken 675,000 sheep, 72,000 cows, 61,000 donkeys, and 32,000 women. (Those are only the women who had not had sexual relations with any man.) The soldiers that went to war got 337,500 sheep. They gave 675 sheep to the Lord. The soldiers got 36,000 cows. They gave 72 cows to the Lord. The soldiers got 30,500 donkeys. They gave 61 donkeys to the Lord. The soldiers got 16,000 women. They gave 32 women to the Lord. Moses gave all of those gifts for the Lord to Eleazar the priest, like the Lord had commanded him.

Then Moses counted the people’s half. This was their share that Moses had taken from the soldiers that had gone to war. The people got 337,500 sheep, 336,000 cows, 453,500 donkeys, and 16,000 women. For every 50 things, Moses took one thing for the Lord. This included the animals and the people. Then he gave those things to the Levites. Why? Because they took care of the Lord’s Holy Tent. Moses did this like the Lord commanded.

Then the leaders of the army (the leaders over 1,000 men and the leaders over 100 men) came to Moses. They told Moses, “We, your servants, have counted our soldiers. We have not missed any of them. So we are bringing the Lord’s gift from every soldier. We are bringing things that are made of gold—arm bands, bracelets, rings, earrings, and necklaces. This gift to the Lord is to make us pure.”

So Moses took all of those things made from gold and gave them to Eleazar the priest. The gold that the leaders of 1,000 men and the leaders of 100 men gave to the Lord weighed about 420 pounds. The soldiers kept the rest of their share of the things they took in war. Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from the leaders of 1,000 men and the leaders of 100 men. Then they put that gold in the Meeting Tent. This present was a memorial before the Lord for the people of Israel.

Family Groups East of the Jordan River

The family groups of Reuben and Gad had many, many cows. Those people looked at the land near Jazer and Gilead. They saw that this land was good for their cows. So the people from the family groups of Reuben and Gad came to Moses. They spoke to Moses, Eleazar the priest, and the leaders of the people. They said, “We, your servants, have many, many cows. And the land that we have fought against is a good land for cows. This land includes the area around Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sibmah, Nebo, and Beon. If it pleases you, we would like this land to be given to us. Don’t take us to the other side of the Jordan River.”

Moses told the people from the family groups of Reuben and Gad, “Will you let your brothers go and fight while you settle here? Why are you trying to discourage the people of Israel? You will make them not want to cross the river and take the land that the Lord has given to them! Your fathers did make ... pure Or, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

420 pounds Literally, “16,750 shekels.”

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

memorial Something that helps people remember things that happened in the past.

Sibmah Or, “Sebam.”
the same thing to me. In Kadesh Barnea I sent spies to look at the land. 9Those men went as far as Eshcol Valley. They saw the land. And those men discouraged the people of Israel. Those men made the people of Israel not want to go into the land that the Lord had given to them. 10The Lord became very angry at the people. The Lord made this promise: 11'None of the people who came from Egypt and are 20 years old or older will be allowed to see this land. I made a promise to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I promised to give this land to these people. But they have not truly followed me.' 12So they will not get this land. 13Only Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua son of Nun truly followed the Lord!

13The Lord was very angry against the people of Israel. So the Lord made the people stay in the desert for 40 years. The Lord made them stay there until all the people who had sinned against the Lord were dead. 14And now you are doing the same thing that your fathers did. You sinful people, do you want the Lord to be even more angry against his people? 15If you quit following the Lord, then the Lord will make Israel stay even longer in the desert. Then you will destroy all of these people!"

16But the people from Reuben's and Gad's family groups went to Moses. They said, "We will build cities for our children and barns for our animals here. 17Then our children can be safe from the other people that live in this land. But we will gladly come and help the other people of Israel. We will bring them to their land. 18We will not come back home until everyone in Israel has taken his part of the land. 19We won't take any of the land west of the Jordan River. No! Our part of the land is east of the Jordan River."

20So Moses told them, "If you do all of these things, then this land will belong to you. But your soldiers must go before the Lord into battle. 21Your soldiers must cross the Jordan River and force the enemy to leave the country. 22After the Lord helps us all take the land, then you can go back home. Then the Lord and Israel will not think that you are guilty. Then the Lord will let you have this land. 23But if you don't do these things, then you will be sinning against the Lord. And know for sure that you will be punished for your sin. 24Build cities for your children and barns for your animals. But then, you must do what you promised."

25Then the people from the family groups of Gad and Reuben said to Moses, "We are your servants. You are our master. So we will do what you say. 26Our wives, children, and all our animals will stay in the Gilead cities. 27But we, your servants, will cross the Jordan River. We will march before the Lord into battle, like our master says."

28So Moses, Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and all the leaders of the family groups of Israel heard them make that promise. 29Moses said to them, "The people of Gad and Reuben will cross the Jordan River. They will march before the Lord into battle. They will help you take the land. And you will give the land of Gilead as their part of the country. 30They promise to help you take the land of Canaan."

31The people of Gad and Reuben answered, "We promise to do what the Lord commanded. 32We will cross the Jordan River and march before the Lord into the land of Canaan. And our part of the country is the land east of the Jordan River."

33So Moses gave that land to the people of Gad, to the people of Reuben, and to half of Manasseh's family group. (Manasseh was Joseph's son.) That land included the kingdom of Sihon the Amorite and the kingdom of Og, king of Bashan. That land included all the cities around that area.

34The people of Gad built the cities of Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer, 35Atroth Shophan, Jazer, Jogbehah, 36Beth Nimrah, and Beth Haran. They built cities with strong walls, and they built barns for their animals.

37The people of Reuben built Heshbon, Elealeh, Kiriathaim, 38Nebo, Baal Meon, and Sibmah. They used the names of the cities that they built again. But they changed the names of Nebo and Baal Meon.

39People from Makir's family group went to Gilead. (Makir was Manasseh's son.) They defeated the city. They defeated the Amorites that lived there. 40So Moses gave Gilead to Makir from Manasseh's family group. So his family settled there. Jair, from the family of Manasseh, defeated the small towns there. Then he called them Towns of Jair. Nobah defeated Kenath and the small towns near it. Then he called that place by his own name.

Israel’s Journey from Egypt

Moses and Aaron led the people of Israel out of Egypt in groups. Here are the places they traveled. Moses wrote about the places they traveled. Moses wrote the things that the Lord wanted. Here are the places they traveled and when they left:

3 On the 15th day of the first month, they left Rameses. That morning after Passover, the people of Israel marched out of Egypt with their arms raised in victory. All the people of Egypt saw them. The Egyptians were burying all of the people that the Lord killed. They were burying all of their firstborn sons. The Lord had shown his judgment against the gods of Egypt.

5 The people of Israel left Rameses and traveled to Succoth. From Succoth they traveled to Etham. The people camped there at the edge of the desert. They left Etham and went to Pi Hahiroth. This was near Baal Zephon. The people camped near Migdol.

8 The people left Pi Hahiroth and walked through the middle of the sea. They went toward the desert. Then they traveled for three days through the Etham desert. The people camped at Marah.

9 The people left Marah and went to Elim and camped there. There were 12 springs of water and 70 palm trees there.

10 The people left Elim and camped near the Red Sea.

11 The people left the Red Sea and camped in the Zin desert.

12 The people left the Zin desert and camped at Dophkah.

13 The people left Dophkah and camped at Alush.

14 The people left Alush and camped at Rephidim. At that place, there was no water for the people to drink.

15 The people left Rephidim and camped in the Sinai desert.

16 The people left the Sinai desert and camped at Kibroth Hattaavah.

17 The people left Kibroth Hattaavah and camped at Hazeroh.

18 The people left Hazeroh and camped at Rithmah.

19 The people left Rithmah and camped at Rimmon Perez.

20 The people left Rimmon Perez and camped at Libnah.

21 The people left Libnah and camped at Rissah.

22 The people left Rissah and camped at Kehelathah.

23 The people left Kehelathah and camped at Mount Shepher.

24 The people left Mount Shepher and camped at Haradah.

25 The people left Haradah and camped at Makheloth.

26 The people left Makheloth and camped at Tahath.

27 The people left Tahath and camped at Terah.

28 The people left Terah and camped at Mithcah.

29 The people left Mithcah and camped at Hashmonah.

30 The people left Hashmonah and camped at Moseroth.

31 The people left Moseroth and camped at Bene Jaakan.

32 The people left Bene Jaakan and camped at Hor Haggidgad.

33 The people left Hor Haggidgad and camped at Jobathah.

34 The people left Jobathah and camped at Abronah.

35 The people left Abronah and camped at Ezion Geber.

36 The people left Ezion Geber and camped at Kadesh, in the Zin desert.
The people left Kadesh and camped at Hor. This was the mountain at the border of the country Edom. Aaron the priest obeyed the Lord and went up Mount Hor. Aaron died at that place. Aaron died on the first day of the fifth month. That was the 40th year after the people of Israel had left Egypt. Aaron was 123 years old when he died on Mount Hor.

Arad was a town in the Negev,* in the land of Canaan. The Canaanite king in that place heard that the people of Israel were coming. The people left Mount Hor and camped at Zalmonah.

The people left Zalmonah and camped at Punon.

The people left Punon and camped at Oboth.

The people left Oboth and camped at Iye Abarim. This was at the border of the country Moab.

The people left Iyim (Iye Abarim) and camped at Dibon Gad.

The people left Dibon Gad and camped at Almon Diblathaim.

The people left Almon Diblathaim and camped on the mountains of Abarim near Nebo.

The people left the mountains of Abarim and camped in the Jordan Valley in Moab. This was near the Jordan River across from Jericho. They camped by the Jordan River in the Jordan Valley in Moab. Their camp went from Beth Jeshimoth to Acacia Field.

At that place, the Lord spoke to Moses. He said, “Speak to the people of Israel. Tell them these things: You will cross the Jordan River. You will go into the land of Canaan. You will take the land from the people you find there. You must destroy all of their carved statues and idols. You must destroy all of their high places.* You will take the land and you will settle there. Why? Because I am giving this land to you. It will belong to your families. Each of your families will get part of the land. You will throw lots* to decide which family gets each part of the country. Large families will get large parts of the land. Small families will get small parts of the land. The lots will show which family gets which part of the land. Each family group will get its part of the land.

“You must force those other people to leave the country. If you let those people stay in your country, then they will bring many troubles to you. They will be like stickers in your eyes and they will be like thorns in your side. They will bring many troubles to the country where you will be living. I showed you what I would do—and I will do that to you if you let those people stay in your country.”

The Borders of Canaan

The Lord spoke to Moses. He said, “Give this command to the people of Israel: You are coming to the land of Canaan. You will defeat this country. You will take the whole land of Canaan. On the south, you will get part of the Zin desert near Edom. You will defeat this country. You will take the whole land of Canaan.

On the south, you will get part of the Zin desert near Edom. Your southern border will start at the southern end of the Dead Sea. It will cross south of Scorpion Pass. It will go through the Zin desert to Kadesh Barnea, and then to Hazar Addar and then it will pass through Azmon. From Azmon, the border will go to the River of Egypt,* and it will end at the Mediterranean Sea. Your western border will be the Mediterranean Sea.

Your northern border will begin at the Mediterranean Sea and go to Mount Hor (in Lebanon). From Mount Hor, it will go to Lebo Hamath, and then to Zedad. Then that border will go to Ziphron and it will end at Hazar Enan. So that will be your northern border. Your eastern border will begin at Enan and it will go to Shepham.

From Shepham, the border will go east of Ain to Riblah. The border will continue along the hills by Lake Galilee.* Then the border will continue along the Jordan River. It will end at the Dead Sea. Those are the borders around your country.”

So Moses gave this command to the people of Israel, “That is the land that you will high places   Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were usually on the hills and mountains.

Negev   The desert area south of Judah.

lots   Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.

River of Egypt   That is, the stream called, “Wadi El-Arish.”

Lake Galilee   Literally, “Kinnereth Lake.”
get. You will throw lots* to divide the land among the nine family groups and half of Manasseh’s family group. 14Reuben’s and Gad’s family groups, and half of Manasseh’s family group have already taken their land. 15Those two and a half family groups took the land near Jericho—they took the land east of the Jordan River.”

16Then the Lord spoke to Moses. He said, 17“These are the men who will help you divide the land: Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, 18and the leaders of all the family groups. There will be one leader from each family group. Those men will divide the land. 19These are the names of the leaders:

- from Judah’s family group—Caleb son of Jephunneh;
- from Simeon’s family group—Shemuel son of Ammihud;
- from Benjamin’s family group—Elidad son of Kislon;
- from Dan’s family group—Bukki son of Jogli;
- from Joseph’s descendants from Manasseh’s family group—Hanniel son of Ephod;
- from Ephraim’s family group—Kemuel son of Shiphtan;
- from Zebulun’s family group—Elizaphan son of Parnach;
- from Issachar’s family group—Paltiel son of Azzan;
- from Asher’s family group—Ahihud son of Shelomi;
- from Naphtali’s family group—Pedahel son of Ammihud.”

29The Lord chose those men to divide the land to the Levites. The people of Israel should give those cities and the pastures around them to the Levites. 3The Levites will be able to live in those cities. And all the cows and other animals that belong to the Levites will be able to eat from the pastures around those cities. 4How much of your land should you give to the Levites? 5From the walls of the cities, go out 1,500 feet*—all of that land will belong to the Levites. 6Also all of the land 3,000 feet east of the city, and 3,000 feet south of the city, and 3,000 feet west of the city, and 3,000 feet north of the city will belong to the Levites. (The city will be in the middle of all that land.) 7Six of those cities will be cities of safety. If a person accidentally kills someone, then that person can run to those towns for safety. In addition to those six cities, you will also give 42 more cities to the Levites. 8So you will give a total of 48 cities to the Levites. You will also give them the land around those cities. 9The large families of Israel will get large pieces of land. The small families of Israel will get small pieces of land. So the large family groups will give more cities and the small family groups will give fewer cities to the Levites.”

9Then the Lord spoke to Moses. He said, 10“Tell the people these things: You people will cross the Jordan River and go into the land of Canaan. 11You must choose towns to be cities of safety. If a person accidentally kills another person, then that person can run to one of those cities for safety. 12That person will be safe from anyone from the dead man’s family that wants to get even. That person will be safe until he is judged in court. 13There will be six cities of safety. 14Three of those cities will be east of the Jordan River. And three of those cities will be in the land of Canaan, west of the Jordan River. 15Those cities will be places of safety for citizens of Israel, and for foreigners and travelers. Any of those people will be able to run to one of those cities if he accidentally kills someone.

lots Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.
16“If a person uses an iron weapon* to kill someone, then that person must die. 17And if a person takes a rock and kills someone, then that person must die. (But the rock must be the size of rock that would normally be used for killing people.) 18And if a person uses a piece of wood to kill someone, then that person must die. (The piece of wood must be a weapon that people normally use for killing people.) 19A member of the dead man’s family* can chase that murderer and kill him.

20–21“A person might hit someone with his hand and kill him. Or a person might push someone and kill him. Or a person might throw something at someone and kill him. If the killer did that from hate, then he is a murderer. That person must be killed. A member of the dead man’s family* can chase that murderer and kill him.

22“But a person might accidentally kill someone. That person didn’t hate the person he killed—it was only an accident. Or a person might throw something and accidentally kill someone—he didn’t plan to kill anyone. 23Or a person might throw a rock. And that rock might fall on someone that person didn’t see and the rock might kill that person. That person didn’t plan to kill anyone. That person didn’t hate the person he killed—it was only an accident. 24If that happens, then the community must decide what to do. The community’s court must decide if a member of the dead man’s family* can kill that person. 25If the community decides to protect the killer from the dead man’s family, then the community must take him back to his city of safety. And the killer must stay there until the official high priest* dies.

26–27“That man must never go outside the limits of his city of safety. If he goes outside those limits, and if a member of the dead man’s family* catches him and kills him, then that member won’t be guilty of murder. 28The person who accidentally killed someone must stay in his city of safety until the high priest dies. After the high priest dies, that person can go back to his own land. 29Those rules will be the law forever in all of the towns of your people.

30“A killer should be put to death as a murderer only if there are witnesses. No person can be put to death if there is only one witness.

31“If a person is a murderer, then he must be put to death. Don’t take money and change his punishment. That murderer must be killed. 32“If a person killed someone and then ran to one of the cities of safety, then don’t take money to let him go home. That person must stay in that city until the high priest dies.

33“Don’t let your land be ruined with innocent blood. If a person murders someone, then the only payment for that crime is that the murderer must be killed! There is no other payment that will free the land from that crime. 34I am the Lord! I will be living in your country with the people of Israel. I will be living there, so don’t make it unclean* with the blood of innocent people.”

The Land of Zelophehad’s Daughters

36Manasseh was Joseph’s son. Makir was Manasseh’s son. Gilead was Makir’s son. The leaders of Gilead’s family went to talk to Moses and the leaders of Israel’s family groups. 2They said, “Sir, the Lord commanded us to get our land by throwing lots.* And sir, the Lord commanded Zelophehad’s land be given to his daughters. Zelophehad was our brother. 3Maybe a man from one of the other family groups will marry one of Zelophehad’s daughters. Will that land leave our family? Will the people of that other family group get that land? Will we lose the land that we got by throwing lots? 4People might sell their land. But in the Jubilee year,* all of the land is returned to the family group that really owns it. At that time, who will get the land that iron weapon This shows the murderer chose a weapon he knew could kill the other person.

member of the dead man’s family Literally, “the blood avenger.” Usually, this was a friend or family member that would chase a dead man’s murderer and kill him.

official high priest Literally, “the high priest who was anointed with the holy oil.”

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

lots Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.

Jubilee year See Lev. 25 for the rules the Jews were to follow during this special time.
belongs to Zelophehad’s daughters? Will our family lose that land forever?”

Moses gave this command to the people of Israel. This command was from the Lord. “These men from Joseph’s family group are right! 6 This is the Lord’s command to Zelophehad’s daughters: If you want to marry someone, then you must marry someone from your own family group. 7 In this way, land will not be passed from family group to family group among the people of Israel. Each Israelite will keep the land that belonged to his own ancestors.* 8 And if some woman gets her father’s land, then she must marry someone from her own family group. In this way, each person will keep the land that belonged to his ancestors. 9 So, the land must not be passed from family group to family group among the people of Israel. Each Israelite will keep the land that belonged to his own ancestors.”

Zelophehad’s daughters obeyed the Lord’s command to Moses. 11 So Zelophehad’s daughters—Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah—married their cousins on their father’s side of the family. 12 Their husbands were from Manasseh’s family group, so their land continued to belong to their father’s family and family group.

So those are the laws and commands that the Lord gave to Moses in the Jordan Valley in Moab by the Jordan River, across from Jericho.

ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
Deuteronomy

Moses Talks to the People of Israel
1 This is the message that Moses gave the people of Israel. He told them these things while they were in the Jordan Valley, in the desert east of the Jordan River. This was across from Suph, between the desert of Paran and the cities Tophel, Laban, Hazereth, and Dizahab.

2 The trip from Mount Horeb (Sinai) through the Seir mountains to Kadesh Barnea takes only eleven days. 3 But it was 40 years from the time the people of Israel left Egypt until the time they came to this place. On the first day of the eleventh month of the 40th year, Moses spoke to the people. Moses told them all the things the Lord commanded. 4 This was after the Lord defeated Sihon and Og. (Sihon was the king of the Amorite people. Sihon lived in Heshbon. Og was the king of Bashan. Og lived in Ashtaroth and Edrei.) 5 The people of Israel were on the east side of the Jordan River in the land of Moab, and Moses began to explain the things that God commanded. Moses said:

6 "At Mount Horeb (Sinai) the Lord our God spoke to us. He said, ‘You have stayed at this mountain long enough. 7 Go to the hill country where the Amorite people live. Go to all the places around there. Go to the Jordan Valley, the hill country, the western slopes, the Negev,* and the seacoast. Go through the land of Canaan and Lebanon as far as the great river, the Euphrates. 8 Look, I am giving you that land. Go and take it. I promised to give that land to your ancestors*—Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I promised to give that land to them and to their descendants.’"

Moses Chooses Leaders
9 Moses said, “At that time I told you I couldn’t take care of you by myself. 10 And now, there are even more of you! The Lord your God has added more and more people, so that today you are as many as the stars in the sky! 11 May the Lord, the God of your ancestors,* make you 1,000 times more than you are now! May he bless you like he promised! 12 But I couldn’t take care of you and solve all your arguments by myself. 13 So I told you: ‘Choose some men from each family group, and I will make them leaders over you. Choose wise men that have understanding and experience.’

14 ‘And you said, ‘That is a good thing to do.’
15 ‘So I took the wise and experienced men you chose from your family groups, and I made them your leaders. In this way, I gave you leaders over 1,000 people, leaders over 100 people, leaders over 50 people, leaders over 10 people. I also gave you officers for each of your family groups.

16 ‘At that time, I told those judges, ‘Listen to the arguments between your people. Be fair when you judge each case. It does not matter if the problem is between two Israelite people or between an Israelite and a foreigner. You must judge each case fairly. 17 When you judge, you must not think that one person is more important than another person. You must judge every person the same. Don’t be afraid of anyone, because your decision is from God. But if there is a case too hard for

Negev The desert area south of Judah.
ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
descendants A person’s children and their future families.
you to judge, then bring it to me and I will judge it.’ 18At that same time, I also told you all the other things you must do.

The Spies Go to Canaan

19"Then we obeyed the Lord our God. We left Mount Horeb (Sinai) and traveled toward the hill country of the Amorite people. We went through that big and terrible desert that you saw. We came to Kadesh Barnea. 20Then I said to you, ‘You have now come to the hill country of the Amorites. The Lord our God will give us this country. 21Look, there it is! Go up and take the land for your own! The Lord, the God of your ancestors,* told you to do this. So don’t be afraid. Don’t worry about anything!’

22“But you all came to me and said, ‘Let’s send some men to look at the land first. They can look for all the strong and weak places there. Then they can come back and tell us the way we should go. They can also tell us about the cities we will come to.’

23“I thought that was a good idea. So I chose twelve men from among you, one man from each family group. 24Then those men left and went up to the hill country. They came to the Valley of Eshcol and explored it. 25They took some of the fruit from that land and brought it back to us. They told us about the land. They said, ‘The Lord our God is giving us a good land!’

26“But you refused to go into the land. You refused to obey the Lord your God. 27You went to your tents and began to complain. You said, ‘The Lord hates us! He brought us out of the land of Egypt just to let the Amorite people destroy us! 28Where can we go now? Our brothers (the twelve spies) have made us afraid with their report. They said: The people there are bigger and taller than we are! The cities are big and have walls as high as the sky! And we saw giants* there!’

29“So I said to you, ‘Don’t be upset! Don’t be afraid of those people! 30The Lord your God will go before you and fight for you. He will do this the same as he did in Egypt. You saw him go before you there 31and in the desert. You saw how the Lord your God carried you, like a man carries his son. The Lord brought you safely all the way to this place.’

32“But you still did not trust the Lord your God! 33When you were traveling, he went before you to find a place for you to put your camp. He went before you in a fire by night and in a cloud by day to show you which way you should go.

People Not Allowed to Enter Canaan

34“The Lord heard what you said, and he became angry. He made a strong promise. He said, 35‘None of you evil people who are living now will go into the good land that I promised to your ancestors.* 36Only Caleb son of Jephunneh will see that land. I will give Caleb the land he walked on. And I will give that land to Caleb’s descendants.* Why? Because Caleb did all that I commanded.’

37“The Lord was also angry with me because of you. He said to me, ‘Moses, you can’t enter the land, either. 38But your helper, Joshua son of Nun will go into the land. Encourage Joshua, because he will lead the people of Israel to take the land for their own.’

39“And the Lord said to us, ‘You said your little children would be taken by your enemies. But those children will go into the land. I don’t blame your children for your mistake, because they are still too young to know if something is right or wrong. So I will give the land to them. Your children will take the land for their own. 40But you—you must turn around and go back to the desert on the road that leads to the Red Sea.’

41“Then you said, ‘Moses, we have sinned against the Lord. But now we will go and fight, like the Lord our God commanded us before.’ Then each of you put on your weapons. You thought it would be easy to go and take the hill country.

42“But the Lord said to me, ‘Tell the people not to go up there and fight. Why? Because I ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

descendants  A person’s children and their future families.
will not be with them, and their enemies will defeat them!"

43’I spoke to you, but you did not listen. You refused to obey the Lord’s command. You thought you could use your own power. So you went up into the hill country. 44But the Amorite people living there came out to fight against you. They were like a swarm of bees chasing you. They chased you all the way from Seir to Hormah. 45Then you came back and cried to the Lord for help. But the Lord refused to listen to you. 46So you stayed at Kadesh a long time.

Israel Wanders through the Desert

2 “Then we did what the Lord told me to do. We went back into the desert on the road that leads to the Red Sea. We traveled for many days to go around the Seir* mountains. 2Then the Lord said to me, 3’You have traveled around these mountains long enough. Turn north. 4Tell these things to the people: You will pass through the land of Seir. This land belongs to your relatives, the descendants* of Esau. They will be afraid of you. Be very careful. 5Don’t fight them. I will not give you any of their land—not even a foot of it. Why? Because I gave the hill country of Seir to Esau to keep as his own. 6You must pay the people of Esau for any food you eat or water you drink there. 7Remember that the Lord your God has blessed you in everything you have done. He knows about your walking through this great desert. The Lord your God has been with you these 40 years. You have always had everything you needed.’

8“So we passed by our relatives, the people of Esau living there in Seir. We left the road that leads from the Jordan Valley to the towns of Elath and Ezion Geber. We turned onto the road that goes to the desert in Moab.

Israel at Ar

9“The Lord said to me, ‘Don’t bother the people of Moab. Don’t start a war against them. I will not give you any of their land. They are the descendants of Lot,* and I gave them the city of Ar.’”

10In the past, the Emite people lived in Ar. They were strong people, and there were many of them. They were very tall, like the Anakite* people. 11The Anakites were part of the Rephaite people. They thought the Emites were also Rephaites. But the people of Moab called them Emites. 12The Horite people also lived in Seir before, but Esau’s people took their land. Esau’s people destroyed the Horites and settled on their land. That is the same thing the people of Israel did to the people in the land that the Lord gave them for their own.)

13“The Lord told me, ‘Now, go to the other side of Zered Valley.’ So we crossed Zered Valley. 14It was 38 years from the time we left Kadesh Barnea until the time we crossed Zered Valley. All the fighting men of that generation in our camp had died. The Lord had sworn (promised) that that would happen. 15The Lord was against those men until they were all dead and gone from our camp.

16“After all the fighting men were dead and gone, 17the Lord said to me, 18 ‘Today you must cross the border at Ar and go into Moab. 19You will go near the Ammonite people. Don’t bother them. Don’t fight with them, because I will not give you their land. Why? Because they are descendants* of Lot, and I have given that land to them.’”

20(That country is also known as the Land of Rephaim. The Rephaite people lived there in the past. The people of Ammon called them the Zamzummites. 21There were many Zamzummites, and they were very strong. They were tall, like the Anakite* people. But the Lord helped the Ammonite people destroy the Zamzummites. The Ammonite people took that land and live there now. 22God did the same thing for Esau’s people. In the past, the Horite people lived in Seir (Edom). But Esau’s people destroyed the Horites, and Esau’s descendants still live there today. 23God did descendants of Lot Lot’s sons were Moab and Ammon. See Gen. 19:30–38.

Anakite(s) Descendants of Anak, a family famous for tall and powerful fighting men. See Num. 13:33.
the same thing for some people from Crete. The Avvite people lived in the towns around Gaza. But some people came from Crete and destroyed the Avvites. Those people from Crete took that land and live there now.)

Fighting the Amorite People

24“[The Lord said to me], ‘Get ready to go across Arnon Valley. I will let you defeat Sihon the Amorite, the king of Heshbon. I will let you take his country. So fight against him and take his land. 25Today I will make all people everywhere afraid of you. They will hear the news about you, and they will be afraid and shake with fear.’

26While we were in the desert of Kedemoth, I sent messengers to Sihon, the king of Heshbon. The messengers offered peace to Sihon. They said, 27‘Let us go through your land. We will stay on the road. We will not turn off the road to the right or to the left. 28We will pay you in silver for any food we eat or any water we drink. We only want to march through your country. 29Let us go through your land until we go across the Jordan River into the land that the Lord our God is giving us. Other people have let us go through their land—the people of Esau living in Seir and the Moabite people living in Ar.’

30But Sihon, the king of Heshbon, would not let us pass through his country. The Lord your God had made him very stubborn. The Lord did this so he could let you defeat King Sihon. And today, we know that really happened!

31The Lord said to me, ‘I am giving King Sihon and his country to you. Now, go take his land!’

32Then King Sihon and all his people came out to fight against us at Jahaz. 33But the Lord our God gave him to us. We defeated King Sihon, his sons, and all his people. 34We captured all the cities that belonged to King Sihon at that time. We completely destroyed the people in every city—the men, women, and children. We did not leave anyone alive! 35We took only the cattle and the valuable things from those cities. 36We defeated the town of Aroer on the edge of the Arnon Valley and the other town in the middle of that valley. The Lord let us defeat all the cities between the Arnon Valley and Gilead. No city was too strong for us. 37But you did not go near the land that belongs to the people of Ammon. You did not go near the shores of the Jabbok River or the cities of the hill country. You did not go near any place that the Lord our God would not let us have.

Fighting the People of Bashan

3“We turned and went on the road to Bashan. Og, the king of Bashan, and all his men came out to fight against us at Edrei. 2The Lord said to me, ‘Don’t be afraid of Og, I have decided to give him to you. I will give you all his men and his land. You will defeat him just like you defeated Sihon, the Amorite king who ruled in Heshbon.’

3So the Lord our God let us defeat Og, the king of Bashan. We destroyed him and all his men. None of them were left. 4Then we took all the cities that belonged to Og at that time. We took all the cities from Og’s people—60 cities in the area of Argob, Og’s kingdom in Bashan. 5All these cities were very strong. They had high walls, gates, and strong bars on the gates. There were also many towns that did not have walls. 6We destroyed them just like we destroyed the cities of Sihon king of Heshbon. We completely destroyed every city and all the people in them, even the women and the babies. 7But we kept all the cows and the valuable things from the cities for ourselves.

8In that way, we took the land from the two Amorite kings. We took that land on the east side of the Jordan River, from Arnon Valley to Mount Hermon. 9(The people from Sidon call Mount Hermon, Sirion. But the Amorites called it Senir.) 10We took all the cities in the high plain and all of Gilead. We took all of Bashan, all the way to Salecah and Edrei. Salecah and Edrei were cities of Og’s kingdom of Bashan.”

(Og was the king of Bashan. Og was one of the few Rephaite people still alive. Og’s bed was made from iron. It was over 13 feet long and 6 feet wide. The bed is still in the city of Rabbah, where the Ammonite people live.)
The Land East of the Jordan River

12“So we took that land to be ours. I gave part of this land to the families groups of Reuben and Gad. I gave them the land from Aroer in the Arnon Valley to the hill country of Gilead with the cities in it. They got half of the hill country of Gilead. 13I gave the other half of Gilead and the whole area of Bashan to half of the family group of Manasseh.”

(Bashan was Og’s kingdom. Part of Bashan was called Argob. It was also called the Land of Rephaim. 14Jair, from the family group of Manasseh, took the whole area of Argob (Bashan). That area went all the way to the border of the Geshurite people and the Maacathite people. That area was named for Jair. So even today, people call Bashan the Towns of Jair.)

15“I gave Gilead to Makir. 16And to the Reuben family group and the Gad family group, I gave the land that begins at Gilead. This land goes from the Arnon Valley to the Jabbok River. The middle of the valley is one border. The Jabbok River is the border for the Ammonite people. 17The Jordan River near the desert is their western border. Lake Galilee* is north of this area and the Dead Sea* (the Salt Sea) is to the south. It is at the bottom of the cliffs of Pisgah. They are to the east.

18“At that time, I gave those family groups this command: ‘The Lord your God has given you the land on this side of the Jordan River to live in. But now your fighting men must take their weapons and lead the other Israelite family groups across the river. 19Your wives, your little children, and your cows (I know you have many cows) will stay here in the cities I have given you. 20But you must help your Israelite relatives until they take the land that the Lord is giving them on the other side of the Jordan River. Help them until the Lord gives them peace there, just as he did for you here. Then you may come back to this land that I have given you.’

21“Then I told Joshua, ‘You have seen all the things the Lord your God has done to these two kings. The Lord will do the same thing to all the kingdoms you will enter. 22Don’t fear the kings of these lands, because the Lord your God will fight for you.’

Moses Not Allowed in Canaan

23“Then I begged the Lord to do something special for me. I said, 24‘Lord my Master, I am your servant. I know that you have shown me only a small part of the wonderful and powerful things you will do. There is no god in heaven or earth that can do the great and powerful things you have done! 25Please let me go across the Jordan River and see the good land on the other side. Let me see the beautiful hill country and Lebanon.’

26“But the Lord was angry at me because of you. He refused to listen to me. The Lord said to me, ‘That’s enough! Don’t say another word about this. 27Go up to the top of Mount Pisgah. Look to the west, to the north, to the south, and to the east. You may see these things with your eyes, but you can never go across the Jordan River. 28You must give instructions to Joshua. Encourage him. Make him strong! Why? Because Joshua must lead the people across the Jordan River. You can see the land, but Joshua will lead them into that land. He will help them take the land and live in it.’

29“So we stayed in the valley across from Beth Peor.”

Moses’ Warning to Obey God’s Laws

4“Now, Israel, listen to the laws and to the commands that I teach you. Obey them and you will live. Then you can go in and take the land that the Lord, the God of your ancestors, is giving you. 2You must not add to the things that I command you. And you must not take anything away. You must obey the commands of the Lord your God that I have given you.

3“You have seen what the Lord did at Baal Peor. The Lord your God destroyed all your people who followed the false god Baal* at that place. 4But all of you who stayed with the Lord your God are alive today.”

Lake Galilee

Literally, “Kinnereth Lake.”

Dead Sea

Literally, “Arabah Sea.”

Baal

A false god that the Canaanite people worshiped.
5“I taught you the laws and rules that the Lord my God commanded me. I taught you these laws so that you could obey them in the land you are ready to enter and take for your own. 6Obey these laws carefully. This will show the people of the other nations that you are wise and understanding. The people of those nations will hear about these laws. Then they will say, ‘Truly, the people of this great nation (Israel) are wise and understanding.’

7“The Lord our God is near when we ask him to help us. No other nation has a god like that! 8And no other nation is great enough to have laws and rules as good as the teachings I give you today. 9But you must be careful! Be sure that as long as you live you never forget the things you have seen. You must teach those things to your children and grandchildren. 10Remember the day you stood before the Lord your God at Mount Horeb (Sinai). The Lord said to me, ‘Gather the people together to listen to the things I say. Then they will learn to respect me as long as they live on earth. And they will teach these things to their children.’

11You came near and stood at the bottom of the mountain. The mountain burned with fire that reached up to the sky. There were thick black clouds and darkness. 12Then the Lord spoke to you from the fire. You heard the sound of someone speaking, but you did not see any form. There was only a voice. 13The Lord told you his Agreement. He told you the Ten Commandments and commanded you to follow them. The Lord wrote those laws of the Agreement on two stone tablets. 14At that time, the Lord also commanded me to teach you the other laws and rules that you must follow in the land you are going to take and live in.

15“On the day the Lord spoke to you from the fire at Mount Horeb (Sinai), you did not see him—there was no shape for God. 16So be careful! Don’t sin and destroy yourselves by making false gods or statues in the shape of any living thing. Don’t make an idol that looks like a man or a woman. 17Don’t make an idol that looks like an animal on the earth or like a bird that flies in the sky. 18And don’t make an idol that looks like anything that crawls on the ground or like a fish in the sea. 19And be careful when you look up to the sky and see the sun, the moon, and the stars—all the many things in the sky. Be careful that you are not tempted to worship and serve those things. The Lord your God lets the other people in the world do those things. 20But the Lord brought you out of Egypt and made you his own special people. It was as if the Lord reached into a hot furnace for melting iron and pulled you out of that fire. And now you are his people!

21“The Lord became angry at me because of you. The Lord swore (promised) that I could not go across the Jordan River. He told me that I could not go into the good land that the Lord your God is giving you. 22So I must die here in this land. I can’t go across the Jordan River, but you will soon go across and take that good land and live there. 23In that new land, you must be careful not to forget the Agreement that the Lord your God made with you. You must obey the Lord’s command. Don’t make any idols in any form! 24Why? Because the Lord your God hates for his people to worship other gods. And the Lord can be like a fire that destroys!

25“You will live in the country a long time. You will have children and grandchildren there. You will grow old there. And then you will ruin your lives—you will make all kinds of idols! When you do that, you will make God very angry! 26So, I am warning you now. Heaven and earth are my witnesses! If you do that evil thing, then you will quickly be destroyed! You are crossing the Jordan River now to take that land. But if you make any idols, then you will not live there very long. No, you will be completely destroyed! 27The Lord will scatter you among the nations. And only a few of you will be left alive to go to the countries where the Lord will send you. 28There you will serve gods made by men—things made of wood and stone that can’t see or hear or eat or smell! 29But there in these other lands you will look for the Lord your God. And if you look for him with all your heart and soul, you will find him. 30When you are in trouble—when all those things happen to you—then you will come back to the Lord your God and obey him. 31The Lord your God is a merciful God! He will not leave you there. He will not destroy you completely. He will not forget the Agreement that he made with your ancestors.*

Think About the Great Things God Did

32"Has anything this great ever happened before? Never! Look at the past. Think about all the things that happened before you were born. Go all the way back to the time when God made people on the earth. Look at all the things that have happened anywhere in the world. Has anyone ever heard about anything as great as this? No! 33You people heard God speaking to you from a fire, and you are still alive! Has that ever happened to anyone else? No! 34And has any other god ever tried to go and take a people for himself from inside another nation? No! But you yourselves have seen the Lord your God do all these wonderful things! He showed you his power and strength. You saw the troubles that tested the people. You saw miracles and wonders. You saw war and the terrible things that happened. 35The Lord showed you these things so that you would know that he is God. There is no other god like him! 36The Lord let you hear his voice from heaven so he could teach you a lesson. On earth he let you see his great fire, and he spoke to you from it.

37"The Lord loved your ancestors.* That is why he chose you, their descendants.* And that is why the Lord brought you out of Egypt when he was with you and brought you out with his great power. 38When you moved forward, the Lord forced out nations that were greater and more powerful than you. And the Lord led you into their land. He gave you their land to live in. And is still doing that today.

39"So today you must remember and accept that the Lord is God. He is God in heaven above and on the earth below. There is no other God! 40And you must obey his laws and commands that I give you today. Then everything will go well with you and your children who live after you. And you will live a long time in the land the Lord your God is giving you—it will be yours forever!"

Moses Chooses the Cities of Safety

41Then Moses chose three cities on the east side of the Jordan River. 42If a person accidentally killed another person, he could run away to one of those three cities and not be put to death. But he could be safe only if he did not hate the other person and did not mean to kill him. 43The three cities that Moses chose were: Bezer in the high plains for Reuben’s family group; Ramoth in Gilead for Gad’s family group; and Golan in Bashan for Manasseh’s family group.

Introduction to the Law of Moses

44Moses gave God’s law to the people of Israel. 45Moses gave these teachings, laws, and rules to the people after they came out of Egypt. 46Moses gave them these laws while they were on the east side of the Jordan River, in the valley across from Beth Peor. They were in the land of Sihon, the Amorite king that lived at Heshbon. (Moses and the people of Israel had defeated Sihon when they came out of Egypt. 47They took Sihon’s land to keep. They also took the land of Og, the king of Bashan. These two Amorite kings lived on the east side of the Jordan River. 48This land goes from Aroer on the edge of the Arnon Valley all the way to Mount Sirion* (Mount Hermon). 49This land also included the whole Jordan Valley on the east side of the Jordan River. To the south, this land reached to the Dead Sea.* To the east, it reached to the foot of Mount Pisgah.)

The Ten Commandments

5Moses called together all the people of Israel and said to them, “People of Israel, listen to the laws and rules that I tell you today. Learn these laws and be sure to obey them. 2The Lord our God made an agreement with us at Mount Horeb (Sinai). 3The Lord did not make this agreement with our ancestors,* but with us—yes, with all of us ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

descendants  A person’s children and their future families.

Sirion  Or “Siyon.”

Dead Sea  Literally, “Arabah Sea.”
who are alive here today. 4 The Lord spoke with you face to face at that mountain. He spoke to you from the fire. 5 But you were afraid of the fire. And you did not go up the mountain. So I stood between the Lord and you to tell you what the Lord said. The Lord said: 6 I am the Lord your God. I led you out of Egypt where you were slaves. [So you must obey these commands;]

7 “You must not worship any other gods except me.
8 “You must not make any idols. Don’t make any statues or pictures of anything up in the sky or of anything on the earth or of anything down in the water. 9 Don’t worship or serve idols of any kind. Why? Because I am the Lord your God. I hate for my people to worship other gods.* People who sin against me become my enemies. And I will punish those people. And I will punish their children, their grandchildren, and even their great-grandchildren. 10 But I will be very kind to people who love me and obey my commands. I will be kind to their families for thousands of generations!*
11 “You must not use the name of the Lord your God in a wrong way. If a person uses the Lord’s name in a wrong way, then that person is guilty. And the Lord will not make him innocent.
12 “You must keep the Sabbath* a special day like the Lord your God commanded. 13 Work at your job six days a week. 14 But the seventh day is a day of rest in honor of the Lord your God. So on that day no person should work—not you, your sons and daughters, foreigners living in your cities or your men and women slaves. Not even your cows, donkeys, and other animals should do any work! Your slaves should be able to rest just like you. 15 Don’t forget that you were slaves in the land of Egypt. The Lord your God brought you out of Egypt with his great power. He made you free. That is why the Lord your God commands you to always make the Sabbath* a special day.
16 “You must honor (respect) your father and your mother. The Lord your God has commanded you to do this. If you follow this command, then you will live a long time, and everything will go well for you in the land that the Lord your God gives you.
17 “You must not murder anyone.
18 “You must not do the sin of adultery.*
19 “You must not steal anything.
20 “You must not tell lies about other people.*
21 “You must not want another man’s wife. You must not want his house, his fields, his men and women servants, his cows or his donkeys. You must not want to take anything that belongs to another person!”

The People Were Afraid of God
22 Moses said, “The Lord gave these commands to all of you when you were together there at the mountain. The Lord spoke with a loud voice that came from the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness. After he gave us these commands, he didn’t say any more. He wrote his words on two stone tablets and gave them to me.
23 You heard the voice from the darkness while the mountain was burning with fire. Then all the elders* and the other leaders of your family groups came to me. 24 They said, ‘The Lord our God has shown us his Glory and his greatness! We heard him speak from the fire! We have seen today that it is possible for a person to continue living even after God speaks to him. 25 But if we hear the Lord our God speak to us again, surely we will die! That terrible fire will destroy us! We don’t want to

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.
I hate ... gods Or, “I am El Kanah—the Jealous God.”
But I ... generations Or, “I will show mercy to thousands of people who love me and obey my commandments.”
Sabbath Saturday, a day of rest and worship for the Jews.
adultery Breaking the marriage promise by doing sexual sin.
You must not tell lies about other people Or, “You must not be a false witness against your neighbor.”
elders Older men that were city leaders; they helped make decisions for the people.
211 DEUTERONOMY 5:26–6:19
die! 26 No person has ever heard the living God speak from the fire like we have and still lived! 27 Moses, you go near and hear all the things the Lord our God says. Then tell us all the things the Lord tells you. We will listen to you, and we will do everything you say.’

The Lord Speaks to Moses
28 The Lord heard what you said. And the Lord said to me, ‘I heard what the people said. And that is fine. 29 I only wanted to change their way of thinking—I wanted them to respect me and obey all my commands from the heart! Then everything would be fine with them and with their descendants forever.
30 Go and tell the people to go back to their tents. 31 But you, Moses, stand here near me. I will tell you all the commands, laws, and rules that you must teach them. They must do these things in the land that I am giving them to live in.’
32 So, you people must be careful to do all the things the Lord commanded you. Don’t stop following God! 33 You must live the way the Lord your God commanded you. Then you will continue to live, and everything will be fine with you. You will live a long life in the land that will belong to you.

Always Love and Obey God!
6 These are the commands, the laws, and the rules that the Lord your God told me to teach you. Obey these laws in the land that you are entering to live in. 2 You and your descendants must respect the Lord your God as long as you live. You must obey all his laws and commands that I give you. If you do this, then you will have a long life in that new land. 3 People of Israel, listen carefully and obey these laws. Then everything will be fine with you. You will have many children, and you will get the land filled with many good things—just like the Lord, the God of your ancestors promised.

descendants A person’s children and their future families.
filled with many good things Literally, “flowing with milk and honey.”
ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

4 Listen, people of Israel! The Lord is our God. The Lord is one! 5 You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength. 6 Always remember these commands that I give you today. 7 Be sure to teach them to your children. Talk about these commands when you sit in your house and when you walk on the road. Talk about them when you lie down and when you get up. 8 Write these commands and tie them on your hands and wear them on your foreheads to help you remember my teachings. 9 Write them on the doorposts of your houses and on your gates.
10 The Lord your God made a promise to your ancestors, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. The Lord promised to give you this land. The Lord will give you that land! And he will give you great and rich cities that you did not build. 11 The Lord will give you houses full of good things that you did not put there. The Lord will give you wells that you did not dig. The Lord will give you fields of grapes and olive trees that you did not plant. And you will have plenty to eat.
12 But be careful! Don’t forget the Lord. You were slaves in Egypt, but the Lord brought you out of the land of Egypt. 13 Respect the Lord your God and serve only him. And you must use only his name to make promises. Don’t use the names of false gods! 14 You must not follow other gods. You must not follow the gods of the people who live around you. 15 The Lord your God is always with you. And the Lord hates his people worshiping other gods! So if you follow those other gods, the Lord will become very angry at you. He will destroy you from the face of the earth.
16 You must not test the Lord your God like you tested him at Massah. 17 You must be sure to obey the commands of the Lord your God. You must follow all the teachings and laws he has given you. 18 You must do the things that are right and good—things that please the Lord. Then everything will go well for you, and you can go in and take the good land that the Lord promised your ancestors.
19 And you will force out all your enemies, just like the Lord said.
Teach Your Children the Things God Did

20“In the future, your son might ask you, ‘The Lord our God gave you teachings, laws, and rules. What do they mean?’ 21Then you will say to your son, ‘We were Pharaoh’s slaves in Egypt, but the Lord brought us out of Egypt with his great power. 22The Lord did great and amazing things. We saw him do these things to the Egyptian people, to Pharaoh, and to the people in Pharaoh’s house. 23And the Lord brought us out of Egypt so that he could give us the land that he promised our ancestors. 24The Lord commanded us to follow all these teachings. We must respect the Lord our God. Then the Lord will always keep us alive and doing well, as we are today. 25If we carefully obey the whole law, exactly like the Lord our God told us to, then God will say that we have done a very good thing.”

Israel, God’s Special People

7“The Lord your God will lead you into the land that you are entering to take for your own. The Lord will force out many nations for you—the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites—seven nations greater and more powerful than you. 2The Lord your God will put these nations under your power. And you will defeat them. You must destroy them completely. Don’t make an agreement with them. Don’t show them mercy. 3Don’t marry any of those people, and don’t let your sons or daughters marry any of the people from those other nations. 4Why? Because those people will turn your children away from following me. Then your children will serve other gods. And the Lord will become very angry at you. He will quickly destroy you.

Destroy False Gods

5“This is what you must do to those nations: You must smash their altars* and break their memorial stones* into pieces. Cut down their Asherah poles* and burn their statues! 6Why? Because you are the Lord’s own people. From all the people on earth, the Lord your God chose you to be his special people—people that belong only to him. 7Why did the Lord love and choose you? It was not because you are such a large nation. You had the fewest of all people! 8But the Lord brought you out of Egypt with great power. He made you free from slavery. He freed you from the control of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. Why? Because the Lord loves you and because he wanted to keep the promise he made to your ancestors.

9“So remember that the Lord your God is the only God, and you can trust him! He keeps his Agreement. He shows his love and kindness to all people who love him and obey his commands. He continues to show his love and kindness through a thousand generations. 10But the Lord punishes people who hate him. He will destroy them. He will not be slow to punish people who hate him. 11So you must be careful to obey the commands, laws, and rules that I give you today.

12“If you listen to these laws, and if you are careful to obey them, then the Lord your God will keep his Agreement of love with you. He promised this to your ancestors. 13He will love you and bless you. He will make your nation grow. He will bless your children. He will bless your fields with good crops. He will give you grain, new wine, and oil. He will bless your cows with baby calves and your sheep with lambs. You will have all these blessings in the land that he promised your ancestors to give you.

14“You will be blessed more than all people. Every husband and wife will be able to have children. Your cows will be able to have calves. 15And the Lord will take away all sickness from you. The Lord will not let you catch any of the terrible diseases that you had in Egypt. But the Lord will make your ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

If we ... good thing  Or, “The Lord our God will credit us with righteousness (goodness) if we carefully obey the whole law, exactly as he commanded us.”

altar(s)  A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

memorial stones  Stones that were set up to help people remember the false gods they worshiped.

Asherah poles  Poles used to honor the goddess Asherah. People thought she could help them have many children.
enemies catch those diseases. You must destroy all the people that the Lord your God helps you defeat. Don’t feel sorry for them. Don’t worship their gods! Why? Because they are a trap—they will ruin your life.

The Lord Promises to Help His People

17“Don’t say in your heart, ‘These nations are stronger than we are. How can we force them out?’ 18You must not be afraid of them. You must remember what the Lord your God did to Pharaoh and to all the people of Egypt. 19You saw the great troubles he gave them. You saw the amazing things he did. You saw the Lord use his great power and strength to bring you out of Egypt. The Lord your God will use that same power against all the people you fear.

20“The Lord your God will even send the hornet* to find all the people that escape from you and hide themselves. He will destroy all those people. 21Don’t be afraid of those people. Why? Because the Lord your God is with you. He is a great and awesome God. 22The Lord your God will force those nations to leave your country little by little. You will not destroy them all at once. If you did, then the wild animals would grow to be too many for you. 23But the Lord your God will let you defeat those nations. The Lord will confuse them in battle, until they are destroyed. 24The Lord will help you defeat their kings. You will kill them, and the world will forget they ever lived. No man will be able to stop you. You will destroy them all!

25“You must throw the statues of their gods into the fire and burn them. You must not want to keep the silver or the gold that is on those statues. You must not take that silver or gold for yourselves. It will be like a trap to you—it will ruin your life. Why? Because the Lord your God hates those idols. 26And you must not bring any of those terrible idols into your homes. You must hate those terrible things! You must destroy those idols!

Remember the Lord

8“You must obey all the commands that I give you today. Why? Because then you will live and grow to become a great nation. You will get the land that the Lord promised to your ancestors.* 2And you must remember the whole trip that the Lord your God has led you through these 40 years in the desert. The Lord was testing you. He wanted to make you humble. He wanted to know the things in your heart. He wanted to know if you would obey his commands. 3The Lord humbled you and let you be hungry. Then he fed you with manna*—something you did not know about before. It was something your ancestors* had never seen. Why did the Lord do these things? Because he wanted you to know that it is not just bread that keeps people alive. People’s lives depend on what the Lord says. 4These past 40 years, your clothes did not wear out, and your feet did not swell. 5Why? Because the Lord protected you! 6You must remember that the Lord your God did all those things for you. God was like a father teaching and correcting his son.

6“You must obey the commands of the Lord your God. Follow him and respect him. 7The Lord your God is bringing you into a good land—a land with rivers and pools of water. Water flows out of the ground in the valleys and hills. 8It is a land with wheat and barley, grape vines, fig trees, and pomegranates.* It is a land with olive oil and honey. 9There you will have plenty of food. You will have everything you need. It is a land where the rocks are iron. You can dig copper out of the hills. 10You will have all you want to eat. Then you will praise the Lord your God for the good land he has given you.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
manna The special food God sent to the people of Israel while they wandered through the desert for 40 years.
pomegranate(s) A red fruit with many small seeds inside it. Each seed is covered with the soft, juicy part of the fruit.

hornet A stinging insect, like a large wasp or bee. Here, it might mean God’s angel or his great power.
DEUTERONOMY 8:11–9:10

Don’t Forget What the Lord Did

11“Be careful. Don’t forget the Lord your God! Be careful to obey the commands, laws, and rules that I give you today. 12Then you will have plenty to eat, and you will build good houses and live in them. 13Your cows, sheep, and goats will grow large. You will get plenty of gold and silver. You will have plenty of everything! 14When that happens, you must be careful not to become proud. You must not forget the Lord your God. You were slaves in Egypt. But the Lord made you free and brought you out of that land. 15The Lord led you through that great and terrible desert. Poisonous snakes and scorpions* were in that desert! The ground was dry, and there was no water anywhere. But the Lord gave you water out of the rock. 16In the desert, the Lord fed you manna*—something your ancestors* had never seen. The Lord tested you. Why? Because the Lord made you humble so that things would go well for you in the end. 17Don’t ever say to yourself, ‘I got all this wealth by my own power and ability.’ 18Remember the Lord your God. Remember that he is the One who gives you power to do those things! Why does the Lord do this? Because he wants to keep the Agreement that he made with your ancestors*—just like he is doing today!

19“Don’t ever forget the Lord your God. Don’t ever follow other gods! Don’t worship and serve them. If you do that, then I warn you today: You will surely be destroyed! 20The Lord is destroying other nations for you. But if you follow those other gods, then you will be destroyed just like them! Why? Because you stopped listening to the Lord your God!

The Lord Will Be with Israel

9“Listen, you people of Israel! You will go across the Jordan River today. You will go into that land to force out nations greater and stronger than you. Their cities are big and have walls as high as the sky! 2The people there are tall and strong. They are the Anakites.* You know about those people. You heard our spies say, ‘No person can win against the Anakites.’ 3But you can be sure that it is the Lord your God who goes across the river before you—and God is like a fire that destroys! The Lord will destroy those nations. He will make them fall before you. You will force those nations out. You will quickly destroy them. The Lord has promised you that this will happen.

4“The Lord your God will force those nations out for you. But don’t say to yourselves, ‘The Lord brought us to live in this land because we are such good people!’ 5That is not the reason!] The Lord forced those nations out because they were evil—not because you were good. 5You are going in to take their land, but not because you are good and live right. You are going in, and the Lord your God is forcing those people out because of the evil way they lived. And the Lord wants to keep the promise he made to your ancestors*—Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. 6The Lord your God is giving you that good land to live in, but you should know that it is not because you are good. The truth is that you are very stubborn people!

Remember the Lord’s Anger

7“Don’t forget that you made the Lord your God angry in the desert! You have refused to obey the Lord from the day you left the land of Egypt to the day you came to this place. 8You made the Lord angry at Mount Horeb (Sinai). The Lord was angry enough to destroy you! 9I went up the mountain to get the flat stones. The Agreement that the Lord made with you was written on those stones. I stayed on the mountain 40 days and 40 nights. I did not eat any food or drink any water. 10The Lord gave me the flat stones. God wrote his commands on the stones with his finger. God wrote everything he said to you from the fire when you were gathered together at the mountain.

scorpions Insects with stingers in their tails that cause pain.
manna The special food God sent to the people of Israel while they wandered through the desert for 40 years.
ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

“So, at the end of 40 days and 40 nights, the Lord gave me two flat stones—the stones of the Agreement. Then the Lord said to me, ‘Get up and quickly go down from here. The people you brought out of Egypt have ruined themselves. They stopped obeying my commands so quickly! They melted gold and made an idol for themselves.’

The Lord also said to me, ‘I have watched these people. They are very stubborn! Let me destroy these people completely, so no one will even remember their names! Then I will make another nation from you that is stronger and greater than these people.’

Then I turned and came down from the mountain. The mountain was burning with fire. And the two flat stones of the Agreement were in my hands. I looked and I saw you had sinned against the Lord your God. I saw the calf you made from melted gold! You stopped obeying the Lord so quickly! So I took the two flat stones and threw them down. There before your eyes I broke the stones to pieces. Then I bowed down before the Lord with my face to the ground for 40 days and 40 nights, like I did before. I did not eat any food or drink any water. I did this because you had sinned so badly. You did the thing that is evil to the Lord, and you made him angry. I was afraid of the Lord’s terrible anger. He was angry enough to destroy you. But the Lord listened to me again. The Lord was very angry with Aaron—enough to destroy him! So I also prayed for Aaron at that time. I took that terrible thing—the calf you made—and burned it in the fire. I broke it into small pieces. And I crushed the pieces until they were dust. Then I threw the dust into the river that came down from the mountain.

Moses Asks God to Forgive Israel

Also, at Taberah, Massah, and Kibroth Hattaavah you made the Lord angry. And you did not obey when the Lord told you to leave Kadesh Barnea. He said, ‘Go up and take the land I am giving you.’ But you refused to obey the Lord your God. You did not trust him. You did not listen to his command. All the time that I have known you, you have refused to obey the Lord.

So I bowed down before the Lord 40 days and 40 nights. Why? Because the Lord said he would destroy you. I prayed to the Lord. I said: Lord my Master, don’t destroy your people. They belong to you. You freed them and brought them out of Egypt with your great power and strength. Remember your promise to your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Forget how stubborn these people are. Don’t look at their evil ways or their sins. If you punish your people, the Egyptians might say, ‘The Lord was not able to take his people into the land he promised them. And he hated them. So he took them into the desert to kill them.’ But they are your people, Lord. They belong to you. You brought them out of Egypt with your great power and strength.

New Stone Tablets

At that time, the Lord said to me, ‘You must cut out two flat stones like the first two stones. Then you must come up to me on the mountain. Also make a wooden box. I will write on the flat stones the same words that were on the first stones—the stones you broke. Then you must put these new stones in the Box.’

So I made a box from acacia wood. I cut two flat stones like the first two stones. Then I went up on the mountain. I had the two flat stones in my hand. And the Lord wrote on the stones the same words he had written before—the Ten Commandments he spoke to you from the fire, when you were gathered together at the mountain. Then the Lord gave the two flat stones to me. I came back down from the mountain. I put the stones in the Box I had made. The Lord commanded me to put them there. And the stones are still there in that Box.”

The people of Israel traveled from the wells of the people of Jaakan to Moserah. There Aaron died and was buried. Aaron’s son Eleazar served in Aaron’s place as priest. Then the people of Israel went from Moserah to Gudgodah. And they went from Gudgodah to Joibathah, a land of rivers. At that time the Lord separated the family group of Levi from the other family groups for his special work.
They had the work of carrying the Lord’s Box of the Agreement.* They also served as priests before the Lord. And they had the work of blessing people in the Lord’s name. They still do this special work today. 9That is why the Levites* did not get any share of land like the other family groups did. The Levites have the Lord for their share. That is what the Lord your God promised them.

10“I stayed on the mountain 40 days and 40 nights, like the first time. The Lord also listened to me at that time. The Lord decided not to destroy you. 11The Lord said to me, ‘Go and lead the people on their trip. They will go in and live in the land that I promised their ancestors* to give them.’

What the Lord Really Wants

12“Now, people of Israel, listen! What does the Lord your God really want from you? The Lord wants you to respect him and do what he says. God wants you to love him and to serve the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. 13So obey the laws and commands of the Lord that I am giving you today. These laws and commands are for your own good.

14“Everything belongs to the Lord your God. The heavens, even the highest heavens, belong to the Lord. The earth and everything on it belong to the Lord your God. 15The Lord loved your ancestors* very much. He loved them so much that he chose you, their descendants,* to be his people. He chose you instead of any other nation. And you are still his chosen people today.

16“Stop being stubborn. Give your hearts to the Lord. 17Why? Because the Lord is your God. He is the God of gods and the Lord of lords. He is the great God. He is the amazing and powerful fighter. To the Lord every person is the same. The Lord does not accept money to change his mind. 18He helps children that have no parents. He helps widows.* He loves even the strangers in our country. He gives them food and clothes. 19So you must also love those strangers. Why? Because you yourselves were strangers in the land of Egypt.

20“You must respect the Lord your God and worship only him. Never leave him. When you make promises, you must use only his name. 21The Lord is the one you should praise. He is your God. He has done great and amazing things for you. You have seen those things with your own eyes. 22When your ancestors* went down into Egypt, there were only 70 people. Now the Lord your God has made you many, many people—as many as the stars in the sky.

Remember the Lord

11“So you must love the Lord your God. You must do the things he tells you to do. You must always obey his laws, rules, and commands. 2Remember today all the great things the Lord your God has done to teach you. It was you, not your children, that saw those things happen and lived through them. You saw how great the Lord is. You saw how strong he is, and you saw the powerful things he does. 3You, not your children, saw the miracles he did. You saw the things he did in Egypt to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and to his whole country. 4You, not your children, saw the things the Lord did to the Egyptian army—to their horses and chariots.* They were chasing you, but you saw the Lord cover them with the water from the Red Sea. You saw the Lord completely destroy them. 5It was you, not your children, that saw all the things the Lord your God did for you in the desert until you came to this place. 6You saw what the Lord did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab from Reuben’s family. All the people of Israel watched as the ground opened up like a mouth and swallowed those men. It swallowed their families, their tents, and all of their servants... and animals. 7It was you, not your children, that saw all those great things the Lord did.

8So you must obey every command I tell you today. Then you will be strong. And you will be able to go across the Jordan River and take the land that you are ready to enter.

9Then you will live a long life in that country. The Lord promised to give that land to your ancestors and all their descendants. 10It is a land filled with many good things.

11The land that you will get is not like the land of Egypt that you came from. In Egypt, you planted your seeds, and then you used your feet to pump water from the canals to water your plants. You watered your fields the same way you water a vegetable garden.

12But the land that you will soon get is not like that. In Israel there are mountains and valleys. And the land gets its water from the rain that falls from the sky. 12The Lord your God cares for that land! The Lord your God watches over that land, from the beginning to the end of the year.

13“\text{The Lord says, ‘You must listen carefully to the commands I give you today: You must love the Lord your God, and serve him with all your heart and all your soul. If you do that, then I will send rain for your land at the right time. I will send the autumn rain and the spring rain. Then you can gather your grain, your new wine, and your oil. And I will make grass grow in your fields for your cows. You will have plenty to eat.’}”

14“But be careful! Don’t be fooled. Don’t turn away to serve and worship other gods. 17If you do that, then the Lord will become very angry at you. He will shut the skies, and there will be no rain. The land will not make a harvest. And you will soon die in the good land that the Lord is giving you.

18“\text{Remember these commands I give you. Keep them in your hearts. Write these commands and tie them on your hands and wear them on your foreheads for a way to help you remember my laws.}”

19Teach these laws to your children. Talk about these things when you sit in your houses, when you walk on the road, when you lie down, and when you get up. Write these commands on the doorposts of your houses and on your gates.

21Then both you and your children will live a long time in the land that the Lord promised to give to your ancestors. You will live there as long as the skies are above the earth.

22“Be careful to obey every command I have told you to follow: Love the Lord your God, follow all his ways, and be faithful to him. Then, when you go into the land, the Lord will force all those other nations out. You will take the land from nations that are larger and more powerful than you. 24All the land you walk on will be yours. Your land will go from the desert in the south all the way to Lebanon in the north. It will go from the Euphrates River in the east all the way to the Mediterranean Sea. 25No person will be able to stand against you. The Lord your God will make the people fear you wherever you go in that land. That is what the Lord promised you before.

\textit{Israel's Choice: Blessings or Curses}

26“Today I am giving you a choice. You may choose the blessing or the curse. 27You will get the blessing if you listen and obey the commands of the Lord your God that I have told you today. 28But you will get the curse if you refuse to listen and obey the commands of the Lord your God. So don’t stop living the way I command you today. And don’t follow other gods. You know the Lord, but you don’t know those gods.

29“The Lord your God will lead you to your land. You will soon go in and take that land. At that time, you must go to the top of Mount Gerizim and read the blessings to the people from there. And then, you must go to the top of Mount Ebal and read the curses to the people from there. 30These mountains are on the other side of the Jordan River in the land of the Canaanite people living in the Jordan Valley. These mountains are toward the west, not far from the oak trees of Moreh near the town of Gilgal. 31You will go across... the Jordan River. You will take the land that the Lord your God is giving you. This land will belong to you. When you are living in this land, 32you must carefully obey all the laws and rules I give you today.

The Place for Worshiping God

12"These are the laws and rules that you must obey in your new land. You must carefully obey these laws as long as you live in this land. The Lord is the God of your ancestors.* And the Lord is giving this land to you. 2You will take that land from the nations that live there now. You must completely destroy all the places where the people of these nations worship their gods. These places are on high mountains, on hills, and under green trees. 3You must smash their altars* and break their stone memorials* into pieces. You must burn their Asherah poles* and cut down the statues of their gods.

4"You must not worship the Lord your God in the same way that those people worship their gods. 5The Lord your God will choose a special place among your family groups. The Lord will put his name there. That will be his special house. You must go to that place to worship him. 6There you must bring your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, one tenth of your crops and animals,* your special gifts, any gifts you promised to the Lord, any special gift you want to give, and the first animals born in your herds and fl ocks.

7You and your families will eat together at that place, and the Lord your God will be there with you. At that place, you will enjoy sharing the things you worked for. You will remember that the Lord your God blessed you and gave you those good things.

8"You must not continue to worship the way we have been worshiping. Until now, each of us has been worshiping God any way we wanted. 9Why? Because we have not yet entered the peaceful land that the Lord your God is giving you. 10But you will go across the Jordan River and live in that land. The Lord is giving that land to you. And the Lord will give you rest from all your enemies. You will be safe. 11Then the Lord will choose a place to be his special house. The Lord will put his name there. And you must bring all the things I command you to that place. Bring your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, one tenth of your crops and animals,* your special gifts, any gifts you promised to the Lord, and the first animals born in your herd and flock.
12Come to that place with all your people—your children, all your servants, and the Levites* living in your towns. (These Levites will not have a share of the land for their own.) Enjoy yourselves together there with the Lord your God. 13Be sure you don’t offer your burnt offerings in just any place you see.
14The Lord will choose his special place among your family groups. Offer your burnt offerings and do all the other things I told you only in that place.

15"Wherever you live you may kill and eat any good animals, like gazelles and deer. You may eat as much of the meat as you want, as much as the Lord your God gives to you. Any person may eat this meat—people who are clean* and people who are unclean.* 16But you must not eat the blood. You must pour the blood on the ground like water.

17"There are some things you must not eat in the places where you live. These things are:
the part of your grain that belongs to God, the part of your new wine and oil that belongs to God, the first animals born in your herd or flock, any gift that you promised to God, any special gifts you want to give or any other gifts for God. 18You must eat those offerings only at the place where the Lord your God will be together with you—the special place that the Lord your God will choose. You must go there and eat together with your sons, your ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

altar(s)  A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
memorial(s)  Stones that were set up to help people remember the false gods they worshiped.
Asherah poles  Poles used to honor the goddess Asherah. People thought she could help them have many children.
Levites  People from the tribe of Levi. They helped the priests in the temple and worked for the civil government.
clean  Pure or acceptable to God for worship.
unclean  Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
daughters, all your servants, and the Levites* living in your towns. Enjoy yourselves there with the Lord your God. Enjoy the things you have worked for. 19 But be sure that you always share these meals with the Levites. Do this as long as you live in your land.

20-21 The Lord your God promised to make your country larger. When the Lord does this, you might live too far from the place he chooses to be his special house. If it is too far, and you are hungry for meat, then you may eat any meat you have. You may kill any animal from the herd or flock that the Lord has given you. Do this the way I have commanded you. You may eat this meat there where you live any time you want. 22 You may eat this meat the same as you would eat gazelle or deer meat. Any person can do this—people who are clean* and people who are unclean.* 23 But be sure not to eat the blood. Why? Because the life is in the blood. And you must not eat meat that still has life in it. 24 Don’t eat the blood. You must pour the blood onto the ground like water. 25 So don’t eat blood. You must do everything that the Lord says is right. Then good things will happen to you and to your descendants.*

26 “If you decide to give something special to God, then you must go to the special place that the Lord your God will choose. And if you make a special promise, then you must go to that place to give that gift to God. 27 You must offer your burnt offerings in that place. Offer the meat and the blood of your burnt offerings on the altar* of the Lord your God. For your other sacrifices, you must pour the blood on the altar of the Lord your God. Then you may eat the meat. 28 Be careful to obey all the commands that I give you. When you do the things that are good and right—the things that please the Lord your God—then everything will go well for you and for your descendants* forever.

29 “You are going to take your land from other people. The Lord your God will destroy those people for you. You will force those people out of that land, and you will live there. 30 After that happens, be careful! You will destroy those people. So don’t fall into the trap of worshiping their false gods. Be careful! Don’t go to those false gods for help. Don’t say, ‘Those people worshiped those gods, so I will worship that way too!’ 31 Don’t do that to the Lord your God! Don’t worship God like that! Why? Because those people do all kinds of bad things that the Lord hates. They even burn their children as sacrifices to their gods!

32 You must be careful to do everything I command you. Don’t add anything to the things I tell you, and don’t take anything away.

False Prophets

13 “A prophet or a person that explains dreams might come to you. He might tell you that he will show you a sign or a miracle. 2 And the sign or miracle he told you about might come true. Then he might ask you to follow other gods (gods you don’t know). He might say to you, ‘Let’s serve those gods!’ 3 Don’t listen to that person. Why? Because the Lord your God is testing you. The Lord wants to know if you love him with all your heart and all your soul. 4 You must follow the Lord your God! Respect him. Obey the Lord’s commands, and do what he tells you. Serve the Lord, and never leave him! 5 Also, you must kill that prophet or person that explains dreams. Why? Because he told you to turn against the Lord your God. And it was the Lord who brought you out of the land of Egypt, where you were slaves. That person tried to pull you away from the life the Lord your God commanded you to live. So you must kill that person to remove that evil from your people.

6 “Someone close to you might secretly persuade you to worship other gods. It might be your own brother, your son, your daughter, the wife you love or your closest friend. That person might say, ‘Let’s go and serve other gods.’ (These are gods that you and your ancestors never knew. 7 They are the gods of the people that live in the other lands around you, some near and some far away.) 8You must not agree with that person. Don’t listen to him. Don’t feel sorry for him. Don’t let him go free. And don’t protect him. 9–10No! You must kill that person! You must kill him with stones. You be the first person to pick up stones and throw at him. Then all the people must throw stones to kill him. Why? Because that person tried to pull you away from the Lord your God. And it was the Lord who brought you out of the land of Egypt, where you were slaves. 11Then all the people of Israel will hear and be afraid. And they will not do those evil things any more.
DEUTERONOMY 13:8–14:20

Cities that Must Be Destroyed

12“The Lord your God has given you cities to live in. Sometimes you might hear some bad news about one of these cities. You might hear that some bad people in your own nation are persuading the people of their city to do bad things. They might say to the people of their city, ‘Let’s go and serve other gods.’ (These gods would be gods that you never knew before.) 13If you hear this kind of news, you must do all you can to learn if it is true. If you learn that it is true—if you prove that such a terrible thing really did happen—then you must punish the people of that city. You must kill them all. And kill all their animals, too. You must destroy that city completely. 14Then you must gather all the valuable things and take them to the center of the city and burn the city and everything in it. It will be a burnt offering to the Lord your God. The city must become an empty pile of rocks forever. That city must never be built again. 15Everything in that city must be given to God to be destroyed. So you must not keep any of the things for yourselves. If you follow this command, then the Lord will stop being so angry at you. The Lord will be kind to you. He will feel sorry for you. He will let your nation grow larger, like he promised your ancestors. 16This will happen if you listen to the Lord your God—if you obey all his commands that I give you today. You must do the things that the Lord your God says are right.

Israel, God’s Special People

14“You are the children of the Lord your God. When someone dies, you must not cut yourselves or shave your heads to show your sadness. 2Why? Because you are different from other people. You are the Lord’s special people. From all the people in the world, the Lord your God chose you to be his own special people.

Food the Israelites Are Allowed to Eat

3“Don’t eat anything that the Lord hates. 4You may eat these animals: cows, sheep, goats, deer, gazelles, roe deer, wild sheep, wild goats, antelopes, and mountain sheep. 6You may eat any animal that has hooves and divided into two parts and that chews the cud. 7But don’t eat camels, rabbits or rock badgers. These animals chew the cud, but they don’t have split hooves. So those animals are not a clean food for you. 8And you must not eat pigs. Their hooves are divided, but they don’t chew the cud. So pigs are not a clean food for you. Don’t eat any meat from pigs. Don’t even touch a pig’s dead body.

9“You may eat any kind of fish that has fins and scales. 10But don’t eat anything living in the water that does not have fins and scales. It is not a clean food for you.

11“You may eat any clean bird. 12But don’t eat any of these birds: eagles, vultures, buzzards, red kites, falcons, any kind of kite, any kind of raven, horned owls, screech owls, sea gulls, any kind of hawk, little owls, great owls, white owls, desert owls, ospreys, cormorants, storks, any kind of heron, hoopoes or bats.

19“All insects with wings are unclean. So don’t eat them. 20But you may eat any clean bird.

hooves The hard part of the foot of certain animals.
cud The food that is brought up from the stomach of some animals (like cows) and chewed again.
clean Pure or acceptable for eating or for worship.
unclean Not pure or not acceptable for eating or for worship.
"Don’t eat any animal that has died by itself. You may give the dead animal to the foreigner in your town, and he can eat it. Or you may sell the dead animal to a foreigner. But you yourselves must not eat the dead animal. Why? Because you belong to the Lord your God. You are his special people.

"Don’t cook a baby goat in its mother’s milk.

Giving One Tenth

Every year you must be sure to save one tenth of all the crops that grow in your fields. Then you must go to the place the Lord chooses to be his special house. You will go there to be with the Lord your God. At that place you will eat the tenth of your crops—one tenth of your grain, your new wine, your oil, and the first animals born in your herds and flocks. In this way, you will always remember to respect the Lord your God. But that place might be too far for you to travel to. Maybe you will not be able to carry one tenth of all the crops that the Lord has blessed you with. If that happens, then sell that part of your crops. Take the money with you and go to the special place that the Lord has chosen. Use the money to buy anything you want—cows, sheep, wine or beer or any other food. Then you and your family should eat and enjoy yourselves there in that place with the Lord your God. But don’t forget the Levites* living in your town. Share your food with them, because they don’t have a share of the land like you have.

At the end of every three years, you must gather one tenth of your harvest for that year. Store this food in your towns where other people can use it. This food is for the Levites,* because they don’t have any land of their own. This food is also for other people in your towns that need it. That food is for foreigners, widows, and children that have no parents. If you do this, then the Lord your God will bless you in everything you do.

Levites People from the tribe of Levi. They helped the priests in the temple and worked for the civil government.

The Special Year of Canceling Debts

At the end of every seven years, you must cancel debts. This is the way you must do this: Every person that has lent money to another Israelite must cancel that debt. He should not ask a brother (an Israelite) to pay back that debt. Why? Because the Lord said to cancel debts during that year. You may require a foreigner to pay you back. But you must cancel any debt another Israelite owes you. There should not be any poor people in your country. Why? Because the Lord is giving you this land. And the Lord will greatly bless you. But this will happen only if you obey the Lord your God. You must be careful to obey every command that I have told you today. Then the Lord your God will bless you, like he promised. And you will have enough money to make loans to many nations. But you will not need to borrow from anyone. You will rule over many nations. But none of those nations will rule over you.

When you are living in the land the Lord your God is giving you, there might be a poor person among your people. You must not be selfish. You must not refuse to give help to that poor person. You must be willing to share with him. You must lend that person whatever he needs.

"Don’t ever refuse to help someone simply because the seventh year, the year for canceling debts, is near. Don’t let an evil thought like that enter your mind. You must never have bad thoughts about a person that needs help. You must not refuse to help him. If you don’t help that poor person, then he will complain to the Lord against you. And the Lord will find you guilty of sin.

Give the poor person all that you can. Don’t feel bad about giving to him. Why? Because the Lord your God will bless you for doing this good thing. He will bless you in all your work and in everything you do. There will always be poor people in the land. That is why I command you to be ready to help your brother. Give to the poor people in your land that need help.
Letting Slaves Go Free

12"You might buy a Hebrew man or woman to serve you as a slave. You may keep that person as a slave for six years. But in the seventh year, you must let that person go free. 13But when you let your slave go free, don't send him away with nothing. 14You must give that person some of your animals, grain, and wine. The Lord your God blessed you and gave you plenty of good things. In the same way, you must give plenty of good things to your slave. 15Remember, you were slaves in Egypt. And the Lord your God set you free. So that is why I am giving you this command today.

16"But one of your slaves might say to you, 'I will not leave you.' He might say this because he loves you and your family and because he has a good life with you. 17Make this servant put his ear against your door, and use a sharp tool to make a hole in his ear. This will show that he is your slave forever. You must do this even to the women slaves that want to stay with you.

18"Don't feel bad about letting your slave go free. Remember, he served you six years at only half the money you would have paid a hired person. The Lord your God will bless you in everything you do.

Rules About Firstborn Animals

19"All the first male animals born in your herd and flock are special. You must give them to the Lord. Don't use any of those animals for your work. And don't cut wool from any of those sheep. 20Every year you must take those animals to the place the Lord your God will choose. There with the Lord, you and your family will eat those animals.

21"But if an animal has something wrong with it—if it is crippled or blind or has something else wrong with it—then you must not sacrifice that animal to the Lord your God. 22But you may eat the meat from that animal at home. Any person may eat it—people who are clean and people who are unclean. The rules for eating this meat is the same as the rules for eating gazelles and deer. 23But you must not eat the blood from the animal. You must pour the blood out on the ground like water.

Passover

16"Remember the month of Abib.* At that time, you must celebrate Passover* to honor the Lord your God. Why? Because in that month the Lord your God brought you out from Egypt by night. 2You must go to the place the Lord will choose to be his special house. There you must offer the Passover sacrifice to honor the Lord. You must offer the cows and goats. 3Don't eat bread that has yeast in it with this sacrifice. You must eat unleavened bread* for seven days. This bread is called 'Bread of Trouble.' It will help you remember the troubles you had in Egypt. Remember how quickly you had to leave that country! You must remember that day as long as you live. 4There must be no yeast in anyone’s house anywhere in the country for seven days. Also, all the meat you sacrifice on the evening of the first day must be eaten before morning.

5"You must not sacrifice the Passover animal in any of the towns that the Lord your God gives you. 6You must sacrifice the Passover animal only at the place that the Lord your God will choose to be his special house. There you must sacrifice the Passover animal in the evening when the sun goes down. This is the holiday when you remember that God brought you out of Egypt. 7You must cook the Passover meat and eat it at the place the Lord your God will choose. Then, in the morning, you may go back home. 8You must eat unleavened bread* six days. On the seventh day you must not do any work. On this day, the people will come together for a special meeting to honor the Lord your God.

Abib This name means “young heads of grain.” This is the first month of the Jewish calendar, also called Nisan. It was about the same time as March and April.

Passover Important Jewish holy day. They ate a special meal on this day every spring to remember that God freed them from slavery in Egypt.

unleavened bread Bread made without yeast.
Festival of Weeks (Pentecost)

9“You must count seven weeks from the time you began to harvest the grain. 10Then celebrate the Festival of Weeks for the Lord your God. Do this by bringing him some special gift you want to bring. Decide how much to give by thinking about how much the Lord your God has blessed you. 11Go to the place the Lord will choose to be his special house. You and your people should enjoy yourselves together there with the Lord your God. Take all your people with you—your sons, your daughters, and all your servants. Also, take the Levites,* foreigners, orphans,* and widows* living in your towns. 12Remember, you were slaves in Egypt. So be sure to obey these laws.

Festival of Shelters

13“Seven days after you have gathered your harvest in from your threshing floor* and from your winepress,* you should celebrate the Festival of Shelters. 14Enjoy yourselves at this festival—you, your sons, your daughters, all your servants, and the Levites,* foreigners, orphans,* and widows* living in your towns. 15Celebrate this festival for seven days at the special place the Lord will choose. Do this to honor the Lord your God. The Lord your God blessed your harvest and all the work you did. So be very happy! 16Three times a year all your men must come to meet with the Lord your God at the special place he will choose. They must come for the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the Festival of Weeks, and the Festival of Shelters. Every person that comes to meet with the Lord must bring a gift. 17Each man should give as much as he can. He should decide how much to give by thinking about how much the Lord has given him.

Judges and Officers for the People

18“Choose men to be judges and officers in every town that the Lord your God gives you. Every family group must do this. And these men must be fair in judging the people. 19You must always be fair. You must not favor some people over other people. You must not take money to change your mind in judgment. Money blinds the eyes of wise people and changes what a good person will say. 20Goodness and Fairness! You must try very hard to be good and fair all the time! Then you will live and keep the land that the Lord your God is giving you.

God Hates Idols

21“When you set up an altar* for the Lord your God, you must not place beside the altar any of the wooden poles that honor the goddess Asherah.* 22And you must not set up special stones for worshiping false gods. The Lord your God hates those things.

Use Only Good Animals for Sacrifices

17“You must not sacrifice to the Lord your God a cow or sheep if there is anything wrong with it. Why? Because the Lord your God hates it!

Punishment for Worshiping Idols

2“You might hear about an evil thing that happens in one of the cities that the Lord your God is giving you. You might hear that a man or woman in your group has sinned against the Lord. You might hear that they have broken the Agreement of the Lord—that they have worshiped other gods. Or maybe that they have worshiped the sun, the moon or the stars. That is against the Lord’s command that I gave you. 4If you hear bad news like this, then you must check it carefully. You must learn if it is true that this terrible thing has really happened in Israel. If you prove that it is true, 5then you must punish the person that did that evil thing. You must take that man or woman out to a public place near the city

Levites People from the tribe of Levi. They helped the priests in the temple and worked for the civil government.
orphans Children whose parents have died.
widows Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.
threshing floor A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.
winepress A place where people pressed grapes to make wine. This was often a shallow hole carved in rock.

altar(s) A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
Asherah A goddess that the Assyrians and Canaanites worshiped. They thought she could help them have children.
gates and kill them with stones. 6But a person should not be punished with death if only one witness says that person did the evil thing. But if two or three witnesses say it is true, then the person must be killed. 7The witnesses must throw the first stones to kill that person. Then the other people should throw stones to finish killing him. In this way, you will remove that evil from your group.

Difficult Court Decisions
8“There might be some problems that are too hard for your courts to judge. It might be a murder case or an argument between two people. Or it might be a fight in which someone was hurt. When these cases are argued in your towns, your judges there might not be able to decide what is right. Then you must go to the special place that the Lord your God will choose. 9The priests are from the Levi family group. You must go to those priests and to the judge on duty at that time. Those men will decide what to do about that problem. 10There at the Lord’s special place they will tell you their decision. You must do whatever they say. Be sure to do all the things they tell you to do. 11You must accept their decision and follow their instructions exactly. You must do exactly what they tell you to do—don’t change anything!

12“You must punish any person that refuses to obey the judge or the priest that is there at that time serving the Lord your God. That person must die. You must remove that evil person from Israel. 13All the people will hear about this punishment and be afraid. And they will not be stubborn any more.

How to Choose a King
14“You will enter the land that the Lord your God is giving you. You will take that land and live in it. Then you will say, ‘We will put a king over us, like all the nations around us.’ 15When that happens, then you must be sure to choose the king that the Lord chooses. The king over you must be one of your own people. You must not make a foreigner your king. 16The king must not get more and more horses for himself. And he must not send people to Egypt to get more horses. Why? Because the Lord has told you, ‘You must never go back that way.’ 17Also, the king must not have too many wives. Why? Because that will make him turn away from the Lord. And the king must not make himself rich with silver and gold.

18“And when the king begins to rule, he must write a copy of the law for himself in a book. He must make that copy from the books that the priests and Levites* keep. 19The king must keep that book with him. He must read from that book all his life. Why? Because the king must learn to respect the Lord his God. And the king must learn to completely obey everything the law commands. 20Then the king will not think that he is better than any of his own people. And he will not turn away from the law, but he will follow it exactly. Then that king and his descendants* will rule the kingdom of Israel a long time.

Supporting the Priests and Levites
18“The family group of Levi will not get any share of land in Israel. Those people will serve as priests. They will live by eating the sacrifices that are cooked on the fire and offered to the Lord. That is the share for the people from the Levi family group. 2Those Levites* will not get any share of land like the other family groups. The Levites’ share is the Lord himself, just like the Lord said to them.

3“When you kill a cow or a sheep for a sacrifice, you must give the priests these parts: the shoulder, both cheeks, and the stomach. 4You must give the priests the first part of your harvest. You must give them the first part of your grain, your new wine, and your oil. You must give the Levites* the first wool cut from your sheep. 5Why? Because the Lord your God looked at all your family groups and chose Levi and his descendants* to serve him as priests forever.

6“Every Levite* man has a special time to work at the temple. But if he wants to work there some other time too, then he may work

Levites People from the tribe of Levi. They helped the priests in the temple and worked for the civil government.

descendants A person’s children and their future families.
anytime he wants. Any Levite living in any town anywhere in Israel may leave his home and come to the Lord’s special place. He may do this any time he wants. And this Levite may serve in the name of the Lord his God, the same as all his brother Levites that are on duty before the Lord. And that Levite will get an equal share with the other Levites, in addition to the share his family normally gets.

Israel Must Not Live Like Other Nations

When you come into the land that the Lord your God is giving you, don’t learn to do the terrible things the people of the other nations there do. Don’t sacrifice your sons or daughters in the fires on your altars. Don’t try to learn what will happen in the future by talking to a fortune teller or by going to a magician, a witch or a sorcerer. Don’t let anyone try to put magic spells on other people. Don’t let any of your people become a medium or a wizard. And no person should try to talk with someone that has died. The Lord your God hates people doing those things. That is why he is forcing those other nations out of this country for you. You must be faithful to the Lord your God.

The Lord’s Special Prophet

You must force those other nations out of your land. The people of those nations listen to people who use magic and try to tell the future. But the Lord your God will not let you do those things. The Lord your God will send to you a prophet. This prophet will come from among your own people. He will be like me. You must listen to this prophet. God will send you this prophet because that is what you asked him to do. When you were gathered together at Mount Horeb (Sinai), you were afraid of God’s voice and the great fire you saw on the mountain. So you said, ‘Don’t let us hear the voice of the Lord our God again! Don’t let us see that great fire or we will die!’

The Lord said to me, ‘The thing they ask for is good. I will send them a prophet like you. This prophet will be one of their own people. I will tell him the things he must say. And he will tell the people everything I command. This prophet will speak for me. And when he speaks, if any person refuses to listen to my commands, then I will punish that person.’

How to Know False Prophets

But a prophet might say something that I did not tell him to say. And he might tell people that he is speaking for me. If this happens, then that prophet must be killed. Also, a prophet might come that speaks for other gods. That prophet must also be killed. You might be thinking, ‘How can we know if something a prophet says is not from the Lord?’ If a prophet says he is speaking for the Lord, but the thing does not happen, then you will know that the Lord did not say it. You will know that this prophet was speaking his own ideas. You don’t need to be afraid of him.

Cities of Safety

The Lord your God is giving you land that belongs to other nations. The Lord will destroy those nations. You will live where those people lived. You will take their cities and their houses. When that happens, you must divide the land into three parts. Then in each part you must choose a city close to everyone in that area. And you must prepare roads to those cities. Then any person that kills another person may run to that city for safety. This is the rule for the person that kills someone and runs away to one of those three cities to be safe: It must be a person that killed the other person accidentally. It must be a person that did not hate the person he killed. Here is an example: A man goes into the forest with another person to cut wood. The man swings his axe to cut down a tree, but the head of the axe separates from the handle. The axe head hits the other person and kills him. The man who swung the axe may then run to one of those three cities and be safe. But if altar(s) A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

medium A person that tries to talk with the spirits of dead people.
wizard A person that tries to use evil spirits to do magic.
prophet A person called by God to be a special servant. God used dreams and visions to show them things to teach to the people.
the city is too far away, he might not be able to run there fast enough. A close relative* of the person he killed might run after him and catch him before he reaches the city. The close relative might be very angry and kill the man. But the man did not deserve death. He did not hate the person he killed. 7| The cities must be close to everyone. That is why I command you to choose three special cities.

8| The Lord your God promised your fathers that he would make your land larger. He will give you all the land that he promised to give to your ancestors.* 9| He will do this if you completely obey his commands that I give you today—if you love the Lord your God and always live the way he wants. Then, when the Lord makes your land larger, you should choose three more cities for safety. They should be added to the first three cities. 10| Then innocent people will not be killed in the land that the Lord your God is giving you. And you will not be guilty for any deaths.

11| But a man might hate another person. That man might hide, waiting to kill the person he hates. He might kill that person and run away into one of those cities of safety. 12| If that happens, then the elders (leaders) in that man’s home town must send someone to get him and take him away from the city of safety. Those leaders must give that man to the close relative.* The murderer must die. 13| You must not feel sorry for him. He was guilty of killing an innocent person. You must remove that guilt from Israel. Then everything will go well for you.

Property Lines

14| You must not move the stones that mark your neighbor’s property. People put those stones there in the past to mark each person’s property. Those stones mark the land that the Lord your God gave you.

Witnesses

15| If a person is accused of doing something against the law, one witness is not enough to prove that the person is guilty. There must be two or three witnesses to prove that the person really did wrong.

16| A witness might try to hurt another person by lying and saying that this person did wrong. 17| If that happens, then both of those people must go to the Lord’s special house and be judged by the priests and judges that are on duty at that time. 18| The judges must ask careful questions. They might find that the witness lied against the other person. If the witness lied, 19| then you must punish him. You must do to him the same thing he wanted to do to the other person. In this way, you will remove that evil from your group. 20| Other people will hear about this and be afraid. And those people will not do evil things like that again.

21| Punishment must be as severe as the crime. Don’t feel sorry about punishing a person that does wrong. If a person takes a life, then he must pay with his own life. The rule is: an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand, a foot for a foot.

Rules for War

20| When you go out to battle against your enemies, and you see horses, chariots,* and many more people than you have, you must not be afraid of them. Why? Because the Lord your God is with you—and the Lord brought you out of Egypt.

2| When you go to the battle, the priest must go to the soldiers and speak to them. 3| The priest will say, ‘Men of Israel, listen to me! Today you are going against your enemies in battle. Don’t lose your courage! Don’t be troubled or upset! Don’t be afraid of the enemy! 4| Why? Because the Lord your God is going with you. He will help you fight against your enemies. The Lord your God will help you win!’ 5| Those Levite officers will say to the soldiers, ‘Is there any man here that has built a new house, but has not yet dedicated it? That close relative Literally, “avenger of blood.” When a person was killed, his relative had to be sure the killer was punished.

---

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.
man should go back home. He might be killed in the battle. And then another person will dedicate that man’s house. 6Is there any man here that has planted a field of grapes, but has not yet gathered any of the grapes? That man should go back home. If that man dies in the battle, then another person will enjoy the fruit from his field. 7Is there any man here that is engaged to be married? That man should go back home. If he dies in the battle, then another man will marry the woman he is engaged to.

8“Those Levite officers must also say to the people, ‘Is there any man here that has lost his courage and is afraid? He should go back home. Then he will not cause the other soldiers to lose their courage too.’ 9Then, after the officers have finished speaking to the army, they must choose captains to lead the soldiers.

10“When you go to attack a city, you must first offer peace to the people there. 11If they accept your offer and open their gates, then all the people in that city will become your slaves and be forced to work for you. 12But if the city refuses to make peace with you and fights against you, then you should surround the city. 13And when the Lord your God lets you take the city, you must kill all the men in it. 14But you may take for yourselves the women, the children, the cows, and everything else in the city. You may use all these things. The Lord your God has given these things to you. 15That is what you must do to all the cities that are very far from you—the cities that are not in the land where you will live.

16“But when you take cities in the land that the Lord your God is giving you, you must kill everyone. 17You must completely destroy all the people—the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. The Lord your God has commanded you to do this. 18Why? Because then they won’t be able teach you to sin against the Lord your God. They will not be able to teach you to do any of the terrible things they do when they worship their gods.

19“When you are making war against a city, you might surround that city for a long time. You must not cut down the fruit trees around that city. You may eat the fruit from these trees, but you must not cut them down. These trees are not the enemy, so don’t make war against them! 20But you may cut down the trees that you know are not fruit trees. You may use these trees to build weapons for making war against that city. You may use them until the city falls.

If a Person Is Found Murdered

21“In the land that the Lord your God is giving you, a man might be found murdered in a field. But no one knows who killed him. 2Then your leaders and judges must come out and measure the distance to the towns around the person that was killed. 3When you learn which town is nearest to the dead man, the leaders of that town must take a cow from their herds. It must be a cow that never had a calf. And it must be a cow that has never been used for work. 4The leaders of that town must then bring the cow down to a valley with running water. It must be a valley that has never been plowed or had anything planted in it. Then the leaders must break the cow’s neck there in that valley. The priests, the descendants of Levi, must also go there. (The Lord your God has chosen these priests to serve him and to bless people in his name. The priests will decide who is right in every argument where a person is hurt.) 6All the leaders of the town nearest the murdered man must wash their hands over the cow that had its neck broken in the valley. 7These leaders must say, ‘We did not kill this man. And we did not see it happen. 8Lord, you saved Israel. We are your people. Now make us pure.’ In this way, those men will not be blamed for killing an innocent man. In this way, you will do the right thing. And you will remove that guilt from your group.

Women Captured in War

10“You might fight against your enemies, and the Lord your God might let you defeat them. You might carry your enemies away as descendants. A person’s children and their future families. make ... pure Or, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”
DEUTERONOMY 21:11–22:9

Captives. 11 You might see a beautiful woman among the captives that you want to be your wife. 12 You must then bring her into your house. She must shave her head and cut her nails. 13 She must take off the clothes she was wearing that showed she was taken in war. She must stay in your house and be sad about losing her father and her mother for a full month. After that, you may go to her and become her husband. She will be your wife. 14 If you are not pleased with her, then you must divorce her and let her go free. You cannot sell her. You must not treat her like a slave. Why? Because you had sexual relations with her.

The Oldest Son

15 A man might have two wives. And he might love one wife more than the other. Both wives might have children for him. And the first child might be the child of the wife he does not love. 16 When the man divides his property among his children, he can’t give the son of the wife he loves the things that belong to the firstborn* child. 17 The man must accept the first child, the son of the wife he doesn’t love. The man must give the first son a double share of all his things. Why? Because that child is his first child. The right of the firstborn* child belongs to that child.

Children Who Refuse to Obey

18 A man might have a son who is stubborn and refuses to obey. This son doesn’t obey his father or mother. They punish the son, but he still refuses to listen to them. 19 His father and mother must then take him to the leaders of the town at the town meeting place. They must say to the leaders of the town: ‘Our son is stubborn and refuses to obey. He doesn’t do anything we tell him to do. He eats and he drinks too much.’ 20 Then the men in the town must kill the son with stones. By doing this you will remove this evil from yourselves. All the people of Israel will hear about this and be afraid.

Criminals Killed and Hung on a Tree

22 A person might be guilty of a sin that must be punished by death. After he is killed, people might hang his body on a tree. 23 You must not let that body stay on the tree all night. You must be sure to bury this man on the same day. Why? Because the person that hangs on a tree is cursed by God. You must not ruin the land that the Lord your God is giving you.

Other Laws

22 If you see that your neighbor’s cow or sheep is loose, you must not ignore it. You must be sure to take it back to its owner. 22 If the owner does not live near you or if you don’t know who it belongs to, then you may take the cow or sheep to your house. And you may keep it with you until the owner comes looking for it. Then you must give it back to him. 3 You must do the same thing when you find your neighbor’s donkey, your neighbor’s clothes or anything else your neighbor loses. You must help your neighbor.

4 If your neighbor’s donkey or cow has fallen down on the road, you must not ignore it. You must help him lift it up again.

5 A woman must not wear men’s clothes. And a man must not wear women’s clothes. That is very disgusting to the Lord your God.

6 If you see a bird’s nest in a tree or on the ground. If the mother bird is sitting with her baby birds or on the eggs, then you must not take the mother bird with the babies. 7 You may take the babies for yourself. But you must let the mother go. If you obey these laws, then things will go well for you, and you will live a long time.

8 When you build a new house, you must build a wall around your roof.* Then you will not be guilty for the death of a person that falls from the house.

Things That Must Not Be Put Together

9 You must not plant seeds of grain in the same fields as your grapevines. Why?

firstborn The first born child. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.

wall around your roof In ancient Israel the roofs of houses were flat, and people used them like an extra room. This law made the roof a safer place.
Because then they become useless,* and you can’t use either the grapes or the grain that grows from the seeds you planted.

10“You must not plow with a cow and a donkey together.

11“You must not wear cloth made by weaving together wool and linen.

12“Tie several pieces of thread together. Then put these tassels* on the four corners of the robes you wear.

Marriage Laws

13“A man might marry a girl and have sexual relations with her. Then he might decide that he does not like her. 14He might lie and say, ‘I married this woman, but when we had sexual relations, I found she was not a virgin.’ By saying this against her, people might think bad things about her. 15If this happens, the girl’s father and mother must bring the proof that the girl was a virgin to the town elders (leaders) at the meeting place of the town. 16The girl’s father must say to the leaders, ‘I gave my daughter to this man to be his wife, but now he does not want her. 17This man has told lies against my daughter. He said, ‘I did not find the proof that your daughter is a virgin.’ But here is the proof that my daughter was a virgin.’" Then they should show the cloth to the town leaders.

18Then the leaders of that town must take that man and punish him. 19They must fine him 40 ounces of silver.* They must give the money to the girl’s father because her husband brought shame to an Israelite girl. And the girl must continue to be the man’s wife. He can’t divorce her all his life.

20“But the things that the husband said about his wife might be true. The wife’s parents might not have the proof that she was a virgin.* If this happens, 21then the town leaders must bring the girl to the door of her father’s house. Then the men of the town must kill her with stones. Why? Because she has done a shameful thing in Israel. She has acted like a prostitute* in her father’s house. You must remove that evil from your people.

Sexual Sins

22“If a man is found having sexual relations with another man’s wife, then both of them must die—the woman and the man that had sexual relations with her. You must remove that evil from Israel.

23“A man might meet a virgin* girl engaged to another man. He might have sexual relations with her. If this happens in the city, 24then you must bring them both out to the public place near the gate of that city, and you must kill them with stones. You must kill the man, because he used another man’s wife for sexual sin. And you must kill the girl, because she was in the city but did not call for help. You must remove that evil from your people.

25“But if a man finds an engaged girl out in the field and forces her to have sexual relations with him, then only the man must die. 26You must do nothing to the girl. She did nothing that deserves the punishment of death. This is like a person attacking his neighbor and killing him. 27The man found the engaged girl out in the field. He attacked her. And maybe she called for help, but there was no one to help her. So she must not be punished.

28“A man might find a virgin* girl that is not engaged and force her to have sexual relations with him. If other people see this happen, 29then he must pay the girl’s father 20 ounces of silver.* And the girl will become the man’s wife. Why? Because he used her for sexual sin. He can’t divorce her all his life.

---

they become useless  Literally, “they become holy.” This means these things belonged only to God, so they couldn’t be used by the people.
tassels  These pieces of string were made from different materials, so they became holy. This helped the people remember God and his commands.

virgin  A woman who has not had sexual relations with anyone.
cloth  The blood-stained bed cover that the bride kept from her wedding night to prove she was a virgin when she married.

40 ounces of silver  This is probably twice the amount of money that a man usually paid the father of the bride to seal the marriage agreement. See Deut. 22:29.

virgin  A woman who has not had sexual relations with anyone.

prostitute  A woman paid by men for sexual sin.

20 ounces of silver  This money became the dowry, the money a man paid to a woman’s father to seal the marriage agreement. Often the father saved this money to take care of the woman if something happened to her husband.
A man must not bring shame to his father by having sexual relations with his father’s wife.”

People Who Can Join in Worship

A man with crushed testicles or part of his sex organs cut off may not join with the men of Israel to worship the Lord. If a man’s parents were not legally married, then that man may not join with the men of Israel to worship the Lord. And none of his descendants— to the tenth generation—may join in that group!

An Ammonite or Moabite may not join with the men of Israel to worship the Lord. And none of their descendants— to the tenth generation—may join in that group. Why? Because the Ammonites and Moabites refused to give you bread and water on your trip at the time you came from Egypt. They also tried to hire Balaam to curse you. (Balaam was the son of Beor from the city of Pethor in Mesopotamia.) But the Lord your God refused to listen to Balaam. The Lord changed the curse into a blessing for you. Why? Because the Lord your God loves you. You must never try to make peace with the Ammonite or Moabite people. As long as you live, don’t be friendly to them.

People the Israelites Must Accept

You must not hate an Edomite. Why? Because he is your relative. You must not hate an Egyptian. Why? Because you were a stranger in his land. The children of the third generation born to the Edomites and Egyptians may join with the men of Israel to worship the Lord.

Keeping the Army Camp Clean

When your army goes to fight against your enemies, stay away from everything that would make you unclean. If there is any man who is unclean because he had a wet dream during the night, then he must go out of the camp. He must stay away from the camp. Then, when evening comes, the man must bathe himself in water. And when the sun goes down, he may come into the camp again. You also must have a place outside the camp where you can go to have a bowel movement. With your weapons, you must also carry a stick to dig with. Then, when you have a bowel movement, you must dig a hole and cover it up. Why? Because the Lord your God is there with you in your camp to save you and to help you defeat your enemies. So the camp must be holy. Then the Lord will not see something disgusting and leave you.

Other Laws

If a slave runs away from his master to you, you must not give this slave back to his master. This slave may live with you wherever he likes. He may live in whatever city he chooses. You must not trouble him.

An Israelite man or woman must never become a temple prostitute. The money earned by a man or woman prostitute must not be brought to the special house of the Lord your God. A person can’t use that money to pay for the things he promised to give to God. Why? Because the Lord your God hates for people to sell their bodies for sexual sin.

When you loan something to another Israelite, you must not charge interest. Don’t charge interest on money, on food or on anything that may earn interest. You may charge interest to a foreigner. But you must not charge interest to another Israelite. If you follow these rules, then the Lord your God will bless you in everything you do in the land where you are going to live.

When you make a promise to the Lord your God, don’t be slow to pay all that you promised. Why? Because the Lord your God will demand that you pay it. You will sin if you don’t pay the things you promised. If you don’t make a promise, then you are not sinning. But you must do the things you say you will do. If you make a special promise to descendants A person’s children and their future families.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
God, then you chose to make that promise. God did not force you to make that promise. So you must do the thing you promised!

24“When you go through another person’s field of grapes, you may eat as many grapes as you want. But you can’t put any of the grapes in your basket and take them with you. 25When you go through another person’s field of grain, you may eat all the grain you can pick with your hands. But you can’t use a sickle to cut that person’s grain and take it with you.

24“A man might marry a woman, and then find some secret thing about her that he does not like. If that man is not pleased with her, he must write the divorce papers and give them to her. Then he must send her from his house. 2When she has left his house, she may go and become another man’s wife. 3–4But suppose the new husband also does not like her and sends her away. If that man divorces her, then the first husband may not take her again to be his wife. Or if the new husband dies, then her first husband may not take her again to be his wife. She has become unclean to him. If he married her again, he would be doing something the Lord hates. You must not sin like this in the land that the Lord your God is giving you.

5“When a man is newly married, he must not be sent into the army. And he must not be given any other special work. For one year he must be free to stay home and make his new wife happy.

6“When you lend a person something, you must not take as security any part of the stones he uses to grind flour. Why? Because that would be the same as taking away his food.

7“A person might kidnap another Israelite—one of his own people. And that kidnapper might sell that person as a slave. If that happens, then that kidnapper must be killed. You must remove that evil from your group.

8“When you have a very bad skin disease,* be very careful to follow all the things the Levite priests teach you. You must follow carefully the things I told the priests to do. 9Remember what the Lord your God did to Miriam* on your trip out of Egypt.

10“When you give a person any kind of loan, you must not go into his house to get security.* 11You must stand outside. Then the person that you gave the loan to will bring out the security to you. 12If he is a poor man, then he might give the clothes that keep him warm. You must not keep that security overnight. 13You must give his security back to him every evening. Then he will have clothes to sleep in. He will bless you, and the Lord your God will accept this as living right and doing good.

14“You must not cheat a hired servant that is poor and needy. It does not matter if he is an Israelite or if he is a foreigner living in one of your cities. 15Give him his pay every day before sunset. Why? Because he is poor and depends on the money. If you don’t pay him, he will complain against you to the Lord. And you will be guilty of sin.

16“Parents must not be put to death for something their children did. And children must not be put to death for something their parents did. A person should be put to death only for a bad thing that he himself did.

17“You must make sure that foreigners and orphans* are treated fairly. And you must never take clothes from a widow* as security.* 18Remember, you were poor slaves in Egypt. And the Lord your God took you from that place and set you free. That is why I tell you to do these things for poor people.

19“You might be gathering your harvest in the field, and you might forget and leave some grain there. You must not go back to get it. It will be for the foreigners, the orphans,* and the widows.* If you leave some grain for security Anything a person gives to show he will pay his loan. If the person does not pay back his loan, then the lender can keep that thing.

a very bad skin disease Or, “leprosy.”
orphans Children whose parents have died.
widow(s) Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.
them, then the Lord your God will bless you in everything you do. 20When you beat your olive trees, you must not go back to check the branches. The olives you leave will be for the foreigners, the orphans, and the widows. 21When you gather the grapes from your vineyard, you must not go back to gather the grapes you left. Those grapes will be for the foreigners, the orphans, and the widows. 22Remember you were poor slaves in Egypt. That is why I tell you to do these things for poor people.

25“When two people have an argument, they should go to the court. The judges will decide which person is right and which person is wrong. 2If the judge decides a person must be beaten with a whip, then the judge must make that person lie face down. Someone will beat the guilty person while the judge watches. The number of times he must be hit depends on the crime. 3You must never hit a person more than 40 times. If you beat a person more than 40 times, then that shows that person’s life is not important to you.

4“When an animal is being used to separate grain, you must not cover its mouth to stop it from eating.

5“If two brothers live together, and one of them dies and has no son, then the wife of the dead brother must not be married to a stranger outside the family. Her husband’s brother must take her as a wife and have sexual relations with her. Her husband’s brother must do the duty of a husband’s brother for her. 6Then the first child that she gives birth to will take the place of the man’s dead brother. Then the dead brother’s name will not be taken out of Israel. 7If the man does not want to take his brother’s wife, then the brother’s wife must go to the leaders at the town meeting place. His brother’s wife must say to the leaders, ‘My husband’s brother refuses to keep his brother’s name alive in Israel. He will not do the duty of a husband’s brother to me.’ 8Then the leaders of the city must call the man and talk to him. If the man is stubborn and says, ‘I don’t want to take her,’ 9then his brother’s wife must come to him in front of the leaders. She must take his shoe off his foot. Then she must spit in his face. She must say, ‘This is being done to the man who will not build up his brother’s family!’ 10Then that brother’s family will be known in Israel as ‘the family of the man who had his shoe taken off.’

11“Two men might be fighting against each other. One man’s wife might come to help her husband. But she must not grab the other man’s private parts. 12If she does that, then cut off her hand. Don’t feel sorry for her.

13“Don’t carry trick weights for cheating people. Don’t use weights that are too heavy or too light. 14Don’t keep measures in your house that are too large or too small. 15You must use weights and measures that are correct and accurate. Then you will live a long time in the land that the Lord your God is giving you. 16The Lord your God hates people that cheat with false weights and measures. Yes, he hates all people who do wrong.

The Amalekites Must Be Destroyed

17“Remember what the people of Amalek did to you when you were coming from Egypt. 18The Amalekites did not respect God. They attacked you when you were weak and tired. They killed all your people who were slow and walking behind everyone else. 19That is why you must destroy the memory of the Amalekites from the world. You will do this when you enter the land that the Lord your God is giving you. There he will give you rest from all the enemies around you. But don’t forget to destroy the Amalekites!

The First Harvest

26“You will soon enter the land that the Lord your God is giving you. You will take that land and live there. 2You will gather the crops that grow in the land the Lord is giving you. You must take the first crops and put them in baskets. Then take that first part of your harvest to the place the Lord your God chooses to be his special house. 3Go to the priest that is serving at that time. Tell him, ‘The Lord promised our ancestors that he would give us some land. Today I come to announce to the Lord your God that I have come to that land!’
Then the priest will take the basket from you. He will put it down in front of the altar of the Lord your God. Then there before the Lord your God you will say: ‘My ancestor was a wandering Aramean. He went down into Egypt and stayed there. When he went there, he had only a few people in his family. But in Egypt he became a great nation—a powerful nation with many people. The Egyptians treated us badly. They made us slaves. They hurt us and forced us to work very hard. Then we prayed to the Lord, the God of our ancestors, and complained about them. And the Lord heard us. He saw our trouble, our hard work, and our suffering. So he brought us to this place. He gave us this land—a land filled with many good things.

Then you must put the harvest down before the Lord your God and bow down to worship him. Then you must have a meal together and enjoy all the good things that the Lord your God has given to you and your family. You must share those things with the Levites and the foreigners living among you.

Every third year is the Year of Tithes. In that year, you must give one tenth of your harvest to the Levites, to the foreigners living in your country, and to the widows and orphans. Then those people will have plenty to eat in every city. You must say to the Lord your God, ‘I have taken out of my house the holy part of my harvest. I have given it to the Levites, to the foreigners, and to the orphans and widows. I have followed all the commands you gave me. I have not refused to obey any of your commands. I have not forgotten them. I have not eaten this food when I was sad. I was not unclean when I collected this food. I have not offered any of this food for dead people. I have obeyed you, Lord my God. I have done all the things you commanded me. Look down from your holy home, from heaven, and bless your people Israel. And bless the land that you gave us. You promised our ancestors to give us this land—a land filled with many good things.’

Obey the Lord’s Commands

Today the Lord your God commands you to obey all these laws and rules. Be careful to follow them with all your heart and soul. Today you have said that the Lord is your God. You have promised to live the way he wants. You promised to follow his teachings, and to obey his laws and commands. You said you will do everything he tells you to do. And today the Lord has accepted you to be his own people. He has promised you this. The Lord also said that you must obey all his commands. The Lord will make you greater than all the nations he made. He will give you praise, fame, and honor. And you will be his own special people—just like he promised.”

Stones Memorials for the People

Moses and the elders (leaders) of Israel spoke to the people. Moses said, “Obey all the commands that I give you today. You will soon go across the Jordan River into the land that the Lord your God is giving you. On that day, you must put up large stones. Cover those stones with plaster. Then write on those stones all these commands and teachings. You must do this when you go across the Jordan River. Then you may go into the land that the Lord your God is giving
DEUTERONOMY 27:4–24

you—a land filled with many good things,*
The Lord, the God of your ancestors,* promised to give you this land.

4“After you go across the Jordan River, you must do the things I command you today. You must set up the stones on Mount Ebal. You must cover these stones with plaster.* 5Also, use some stones there to build an altar* to the Lord your God. Don’t use iron tools to cut the stones. 6You must not use cut stones to build the altar for the Lord your God. Offer burnt offerings on this altar to the Lord your God. 7And you must sacrifice and eat fellowship offerings there. Eat and enjoy yourselves there together with the Lord your God. 8You must write all of these teachings on the stones that you set up. Write clearly so they are easy to read.”

The People Agree to the Curses of the Law

9Moses, the priests, and the Levites spoke to all the people of Israel. Moses said, “Be quiet and listen, Israel! Today you have become the people of the Lord your God. 10So you must do everything that the Lord your God tells you. You must obey his commands and his laws that I am giving you today.”

11The same day, Moses also told the people, 12“After you have gone across the Jordan River, these family groups will stand on Mount Gerizim to read the blessings to the people: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin. 13And these family groups will stand on Mount Ebal to read the curses: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.

14“Then all the people will answer, ‘Amen!’* 15The Levites will say, ‘Cursed is the person that makes a false god and puts it in its secret place. Those false gods are only statues that some worker makes from wood, stone or metal. The Lord hates those things!’

16“Then all the people will answer, ‘Amen!’ 17The Levites will say, ‘Cursed is the person that moves his neighbor’s landmark!*’ 18Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’

Amen This Hebrew word means “This is true,” or “I agree.”

landmark A stone or sign that showed where the limits of a person’s property were.

orphans Children whose parents have died.

widows Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.

father’s wife Here this means the father’s wife, even if she is not the mother of the son.

brings shame to his father Literally, “uncovers his father’s nakedness.”

19The Levites will say, ‘Cursed is the person that does not give fair judgment for the foreigners, orphans,* and widows*!”

20Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’

21The Levites will say, ‘Cursed is the person that has sexual relations with his father’s wife.* Why? Because he brings shame to his father*!’

22Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’

23The Levites will say, ‘Cursed is the person that has sexual relations with his sister or half sister!’

24Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’

25The Levites will say, ‘Cursed is the person that kills another person, even if he is not caught!’

Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’
The Levites will say, ‘Cursed is the person that takes money to kill an innocent person!’

Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’

The Levites will say, ‘Cursed is the person that does not support this law and agree to obey it.’

Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’

Blessings for Obeying the Law

Now, if you will be careful to obey the Lord your God and follow all his commands that I tell you today, then the Lord your God will put you high above all the nations on earth. If you will obey the Lord your God, then all these blessings will come to you and be yours:

3 "The Lord will bless you in the city and in the field.
4 The Lord will bless you and give you many children. He will bless your land and give you good crops. He will bless your animals and let them have many babies. He will bless all your calves and lambs.
5 The Lord will bless your baskets and pans and fill them with food.
6 The Lord will bless you at all times in everything you do.
7 "The Lord will help you defeat your enemies that come to fight against you. Your enemies will come against you one way, but they will run away from you seven different ways!
8 "The Lord will bless you and fill your barns. He will bless everything you do. The Lord your God will bless you in the land that he is giving you. 9 The Lord will make you his own special people, like he promised. The Lord will do this if you follow the Lord your God and obey his commands. 10 Then all the people in that land will see that you are called by the name of the Lord. And they will be afraid of you.
11 "And the Lord will give you many good things. He will give you many children. He will give your cows many calves. He will give you a good harvest in the land that the Lord promised your ancestors to give you. 12 The Lord will open his storehouse where he keeps his rich blessings. The Lord will send rain at the right time for your land. The Lord will bless everything you do. You will have money to lend to many nations. And you will not need to borrow anything from them. 13 The Lord will make you be like the head, not the tail. You will be on top, not on the bottom. This will happen if you listen to the commands of the Lord your God that I tell you today. You must carefully obey these commands. 14 You must not turn away from any of the teachings that I give you today. You must not turn away to the right or to the left. You must not follow other gods to serve them.

Curses for Not Obeying the Law

15 "But if you don’t listen to things the Lord your God tells you—if you don’t obey all his commands and laws that I tell you today—then all these bad things will happen to you:
16 "The Lord will curse you in the city and in the field.
17 The Lord will curse your baskets and pans and they will have no food in them.
18 The Lord will curse you, and you will not have many children. He will curse your land and you will not have good crops. He will curse your animals and they will not have many babies. He will curse all your calves and lambs.
19 The Lord will curse you at all times in everything you do.
20 "If you do evil and turn away from the Lord, then he will make bad things happen to you. You will have frustration and trouble in everything you do. He will continue to do this until you are quickly and completely destroyed. He will do this because you turned away from him and left him. 21 The Lord will cause you to have terrible diseases until you are finished—destroyed from the land you are going to take. 22 The Lord will punish you with ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
DEUTERONOMY 28:23–46

diseases, fever, and swelling. The Lord will send you terrible heat and you will have no rain. Your crops will die from the heat and disease. All these bad things will happen until you are destroyed!

There will be no clouds in the sky—the sky will look like polished brass. And the ground under you will be hard like iron. The Lord will not send rain—only sand and dust will fall from the sky. It will come down on you until you are destroyed.

The Lord will let your enemies defeat you. You will go to fight against your enemies one way, but you will run away from them seven different ways. The bad things that happen to you will make all the people on earth afraid. Your dead bodies will be food for the wild birds and animals. There will be no one to scare them away from your dead bodies.

The Lord will punish you with boils, like those he sent on the Egyptians. He will punish you with tumors, sores that run, and an itch that can’t be cured. The Lord will punish you by making you crazy. He will make you blind and confused. In daylight, you will have to feel your way like a blind man. You will fail in everything you do. Again and again people will hurt you and steal things from you. And there will not be anyone to save you.

You will be engaged to a woman, but another man will have sexual relations with her. You will build a house, but you will not live in it. You will plant a field of grapes, but you will not gather anything from it. People will kill your cows in front of you. But you will not eat any of the meat. People will take your donkeys. And they will not give them back to you. People will kill your cows in front of you. But you will not eat any of the meat. People will take your donkeys. And they will not give them back to you. Your enemies will get your sheep. And there will not be anyone to save you.

Other people will be allowed to take your sons and your daughters. Day after day, you will look for your children. You will look for them until your eyes become weak and blind—but you will not find them. And God will not help you.

A nation that you don’t know will take all your crops and all the things you worked for. People will treat you badly and abuse you. The things you see will make you go crazy! The Lord will punish you with sores that can’t be healed. These boils will be on your knees and legs. The boils will be on every part of your body—from the bottom of your feet to the top of your head.

The Lord will send you and your king away to a nation you don’t know. You and your ancestors have never seen that nation. There you will serve false gods made of wood and stone. In the countries where the Lord will send you, the people will be shocked at the bad things that happen to you. They will laugh at you and say bad things about you.

The Curse of Failure

Your fields will produce plenty of grain. But your harvest will be small. Why? Because the locusts will eat your harvest. You will plant fields of grapes and work hard in them. But you will not gather the grapes or drink the wine from them. Why? Because the worms will eat them. You will have olive trees everywhere on your land. But you will not have any of the oil to use. Why? Because the olives will drop to the ground and rot. You will have sons and daughters. But you will not be able to keep them. Why? Because they will be captured and taken away. Locusts will destroy all your trees and the crops in your fields. The foreigners living among you will get more and more power. And you will lose the power you had. The foreigners will have money to loan you. But you will not have any money to loan them. They will control you like a head controls the body. You will be like the tail.

All these curses will come on you. They will keep chasing you and catching you, until you are destroyed. Why? Because you did not listen to the things the Lord your God told you. You did not obey the commands and laws that he gave you. These curses will show people that God judged you and your ancestors. Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

locusts  Insects like grasshoppers. Locusts can destroy a large crop very quickly.
descendants forever. People will be amazed at the terrible things that happen to you.

47"The Lord your God gave you many blessings. But you did not serve him with joy and a glad heart. 48So you will serve the enemies that the Lord will send against you. You will be hungry, thirsty, naked, and poor. The Lord will put a load on you that can’t be removed. You will carry that load until he destroys you.*

The Curse of an Enemy Nation

49"The Lord will bring a nation from far away to fight you. You will not understand their language. They will come quickly, like an eagle coming down from the sky. 50Those people will be cruel. They will not care about old people. They will not show mercy to young children. 51They will take your animals and the food you grow. They will take everything until they destroy you. They will not leave you any grain, wine, oil, cows, sheep or goats. They will take everything, until they destroy you.

52"That nation will surround and attack your cities. You think that the tall, strong walls around your cities will protect you. But those walls will fall down. The enemy will surround all your cities everywhere in the land the Lord your God is giving you. 53You will suffer very much. The enemy will surround your cities. They will not let you have any food. You will become very hungry. You will be so hungry that you will eat your own sons and daughters—you will eat the bodies of the children that the Lord your God gave you.

54"Even the most gentle and kind man among you will become cruel. He will be cruel to other people. He will be cruel to his wife that he loves so much. And he will be cruel to his children that are still alive. 55He will have nothing left to eat, so he will eat his own children. And he will not share that meat with anyone—not even the other people in his own family! All those bad things will happen when your enemy comes to surround your cities and make you suffer.

56"Even the most gentle and kind woman among you will become cruel. She might be a lady so gentle and delicate that she never put her feet on the ground to walk anywhere. But she will become cruel to her husband that she loves so much. And she will be cruel to her own son and daughter. 57She will hide and give birth to a baby. And she will eat the baby and everything that comes out of her body with it. All those bad things will happen when your enemy comes to surround your cities and make you suffer.

58"You must obey all the commands and teachings that are written in this book. And you must respect the wonderful and awesome name of the Lord your God. If you don’t obey, then 59the Lord will give you and your descendants* many troubles. Your troubles and diseases will be terrible! 60You saw many troubles and diseases in Egypt, and they made you afraid. The Lord will bring all those bad things against you! 61The Lord will even bring troubles and diseases that are not written in this Book of Teachings. He will continue to do this until you are destroyed. 62You might have as many people as the stars in the sky. But only a few of you will be left. Why? Because you did not listen to the Lord your God.

63"The Lord was happy to be good to you and to make your nation grow. In the same way, the Lord will be happy to ruin and destroy you. You are going to take that land to be yours. But people will take you out of that land! 64The Lord will scatter you among all the people in the world. The Lord will scatter you from one end of the earth to the other. There you will serve false gods made of wood and stone. They are false gods that you or your ancestors* never worshiped.

65"You will not have any peace among these nations. You will have no place to rest. The Lord will fill your mind with worry. Your eyes will feel tired. You will be very upset. 66You will live with danger and always be afraid. You will be afraid night and day. You * descendant A person’s children and their future families.

* The Lord ... until he destroys you Literally, “The Lord will put an iron yoke on your neck until he destroys you.”
* ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
will never feel sure about your life. 67In the morning you will say, 'I wish it were evening!' In the evening you will say, 'I wish it were morning!' Why? Because of the fear that will be in your heart, and because of the bad things you will see. 68The Lord will send you back to Egypt in ships. I said you would never have to go to that place again, but the Lord will send you there. In Egypt, you will try to sell yourselves as slaves to your enemies. But no person will buy you.”

The Agreement in Moab

29 The Lord made an agreement with the people of Israel at Mount Horeb (Sinai).
In addition to that agreement, the Lord also commanded Moses to make another agreement with them while they were in Moab. This is that agreement.

2Moses called together all the Israelite people. He said to them, “You saw all the things the Lord did in the land of Egypt. You saw the things he did to Pharaoh, to Pharaoh’s officers, and to his whole country. You saw the great troubles he gave them. You saw the miracles and amazing things he did. But even today you still don’t understand what happened. The Lord has not let you really understand what you saw and heard. The Lord led you through the desert for 40 years.
And during all that time your clothes and your shoes did not wear out. You did not have any food with you. You did not have any wine or anything else to drink. He did this so that you would understand that he is the Lord your God.

7“Today all of you are standing here before the Lord your God. Your leaders, your officials, your elders (leaders), and all the other men are here. Your wives and children are here and also the foreigners living among you—the people who cut your wood and bring you water. 12You are all here to enter into an agreement with the Lord your God.
The Lord is making this agreement with you today. With this agreement, the Lord is making you his own special people. And he himself will become your God. He told you this. He promised this to your ancestors—Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. The Lord is making this agreement with its promises not only with you people. He is making this agreement with all of us that stand here today before the Lord our God. But this agreement is also for our descendants* that are not here with us today. You remember how we lived in the land of Egypt. And you remember how we traveled through the countries that were on our way here. You saw their hated things—the idols* they had made from wood, stone, silver, and gold. Be sure that there is no man, woman, family or family group here today that turns away from the Lord our God.
No person should go and serve the gods of the other nations. People who do that are like a plant that grows bitter and poisonous fruit.

19“A person might hear these curses, but he might comfort himself and say, ‘I will continue doing what I want. Nothing bad will happen to me.’ That person might cause bad things to happen not only to himself but to everyone—even to the good people.*

20–21The Lord will not forgive that person.
No, the Lord will be angry and upset at that person. The Lord will punish that person. The Lord will separate that person from all the family groups of Israel. The Lord will completely destroy him. All the bad things that are written in this book will happen to him. Those things are a part of the Agreement that is written in this Book of Teachings.

22“In the future, your descendants* and foreigners from faraway countries will see how the land has been ruined. They will see ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents,
grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
descendants A person’s children and their future families.
idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.
That person … people Literally, “thereby bringing to an end the soaked and the thirsty.”
the diseases that the Lord has brought to it.
23 All the land will be useless—destroyed by burning sulfur and covered with salt. The land will have nothing planted in it. Nothing will be growing—not even weeds. The land will be destroyed like Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim, the cities the Lord destroyed when he was very angry.

24 “All the other nations will ask, ‘Why did the Lord do this to this land? Why was he so angry?’ 25 The answer will be: ‘The Lord is angry because the people of Israel left the Agreement of the Lord, the God of their ancestors.* They stopped following the Agreement that the Lord made with them when he brought them out of Egypt. 26 The people of Israel started serving other gods—gods they never worshiped before. The Lord told his people not to worship those gods. 27 That is why the Lord became very angry against the people of this land. So he brought to them all the curses that are written in this book. 28 The Lord became very angry and upset at them. So he took them out of their land. He put them in another land, where they are today.’

29 There are some things that the Lord our God has kept secret. Only he knows those things. But the Lord told us about some things. And those teachings are for us and our descendants* forever! And we must obey all the commands in that law.

The Israelites Will Return to Their Land

30 “All these things I have said will happen to you. You will have good things from the blessings, and you will have bad things from the curses. The Lord your God will send you away to other nations. Then you will think about these things. 2 At that time, you and your descendants* will return to the Lord your God. You will follow him with all your heart and completely obey all his commands that I have given you today. 3 Then the Lord your God will be kind to you. The Lord will make you free again! He will bring you back from those nations where he sent you. 4 Even if you were sent to the farthest parts of the earth, the Lord your God will gather you and bring you back from there. 5 The Lord will bring you into the land your ancestors* had, and the land will become yours. The Lord will do good to you, and you will have more than your ancestors had. You will have more people in your nation than they ever had. 6 The Lord your God will make you and your descendants want to obey him.* Then you will love the Lord with all your heart. And you will live!

7 “Then the Lord your God will make all those bad things happen to your enemies. Why? Because those people hate you and give you trouble. 8 And you will again obey the Lord. You will obey all his commands that I give you today. 9 The Lord your God will make you successful in everything you do. He will bless you with many children. He will bless your cows—they will have many baby calves. He will bless your fields—they will grow many good crops. The Lord will be good to you. The Lord will again enjoy doing good for you, the same as he enjoyed doing good for your ancestors.* 10 But you must do the things that the Lord your God tells you to do. You must obey his commands and follow the rules that are written in this Book of Teachings. You must obey the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. Then these good things will happen to you.

Life or Death

11 “This command that I give you today is not too hard for you. It is not far off. 12 This command is not in heaven so that you should say, ‘Who will go up to heaven for us and bring it to us, so that we can hear and do it?’ 13 This command is not on the other side of the sea so that you should say, ‘Who will go across the sea for us and bring it to us, so that we can hear it and do it?’ 14 No, the word is very near to you! It is in your mouth and in your heart. So you can obey it!

15 “Today I have given you a choice between life and death, good and evil. 16 command you today to love the Lord your God. I command you to follow him and to obey his commands, laws, and rules. Then you will live, and your nation will grow larger. And the Lord your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to take for your own. 17But if you turn away from the Lord and refuse to listen—if you are led away to worship and serve other gods, 18then you will be destroyed. I am warning you! If you turn away from the Lord, you will not live long in that land across the Jordan River that you are ready to enter and take for your own.

19“Today I am giving you a choice of two ways. And I ask heaven and earth to be witnesses of your choice. You can choose life or death. The first choice will bring a blessing. The other choice will bring a curse. So choose life! Then you and your children will live. 20You must love the Lord your God and obey him. Never leave him! Why? Because the Lord is your life. And the Lord will give you a long life in the land that he promised to give to your ancestors—Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.”

Joshua Will Be the New Leader

Then Moses went and spoke these words to all the people of Israel. 2Moses said to them, “I am now 120 years old. I can’t lead you any more. The Lord said to me: ‘You will not go across the Jordan River.’ 3But, the Lord your God will lead you people into that land! The Lord will destroy these nations for you. You will take their land away from them. But the Lord said that Joshua must lead you.

4“The Lord destroyed Sihon and Og. The Lord destroyed those Amorite kings. And the Lord will do the same thing for you again! 5The Lord will help you defeat these nations. But you must do to them everything I told you to do. 6Be strong and be brave. Don’t be afraid of those people! Why? Because the Lord your God is with you. He will not fail you or leave you.”

7Then Moses called Joshua. All the people of Israel watched while Moses said to Joshua, “Be strong and brave. You will lead these people into the land that the Lord promised to give to their ancestors.” 8You will help the people of Israel take this land to be their own. 9The Lord will lead you. He himself is with you. He will not fail you or leave you. Don’t worry. Don’t be afraid!”

Moses Writes the Teachings

9Then Moses wrote the Teachings and gave them to the priests. The priests are from the family group of Levi. They have the work of carrying the Lord’s Box of the Agreement. 10Moses also gave the Teachings to all the elders (leaders) of Israel. 11Then Moses spoke to the leaders. He said, “At the end of every seven years, in the Year of Freedom, read these Teachings at the Festival of Shelters. 12At that time, all the people of Israel must come to meet with the Lord your God at the special place he will choose. Then you must read the Teachings to the people so that they can hear them. 13Bring together all the people—the men, the women, the little children, and the foreigners living in your cities. They will hear the Teachings, and they will learn to respect the Lord your God. Then they will be able to do all the things in the Teachings. 14If their descendants don’t know the Teachings, then they will hear them. And they will learn to respect the Lord your God. They will respect him as long as you live in your country. You will soon go across the Jordan River and take that land to be your own.”

The Lord Calls Moses and Joshua

15The Lord said to Moses, “Now the time is near for you to die. Get Joshua and come to the Meeting Tent. I will tell Joshua the

Box of the Agreement Or, “ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

descendants A person’s children and their future families.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.
DEUTERONOMY 31:15–32:5

Moses Warns the People of Israel

24 Moses carefully wrote all these teachings in a book. When he finished, 25 he gave a command to the Levites.* (These men carry the Lord’s Box of the Agreement.*) Moses said, 26 “Take this Book of Teachings and put it by the side of the Box of the Agreement of the Lord your God. Then it will be a witness against you. 27 I know you are very stubborn. I know you want to live your own way. Look, you refused to obey the Lord while I was with you. So I know you will refuse to obey him after I die. 28 Bring together all the officers and leaders of your family groups. I will tell them these things. And I will call heaven and earth to be witnesses against them. 29 I know that after my death you will become evil. You will turn from the way I commanded you to follow. Bad things will happen to you in the future. Why? Because you want to do the things that the Lord says are evil. You will make him angry because of the bad things you do.”

The Song of Moses

30 All the people of Israel were gathered together. And Moses sang this song for them. Moses sang the whole song:

32 “Skies, listen and I will speak. Earth, hear the words of my mouth. My teachings will come like the rain, like a mist falling to the ground, like a gentle rain on the soft grass, like rain on the green plants. Praise God* as I speak the Lord’s name! The Rock (the Lord)—his work is perfect! Why? Because all his ways are right! God is true and faithful. He is good and honest. And you are not really his children. Your sins would make him dirty. You are crooked liars.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

filled with many good things Literally, “flowing with milk and honey.”
DEUTERONOMY 32:6–21

6 Is that the way you should pay back the Lord, for all that he did for you? No! You are stupid, foolish people. The Lord is your Father. He made you. He is your Creator. He supports you.

7 "Remember what happened long ago. Think about the things that happened many, many years ago. Ask your father; he will tell you. Ask your leaders; they will tell you.

8 God Most High separated the people on earth and gave each nation its own land. God set up borders for those people. He made as many nations as there are angels.*

9 The Lord's share is his people; Jacob (Israel) belongs to the Lord.

10 "The Lord found Jacob (Israel) in a desert land, an empty, windy land. The Lord surrounded Jacob to watch over him. He protected him, like the pupil of his eye.

11 The Lord was like an eagle to Israel. An eagle pushes her babies from the nest to teach them to fly. She flies with her babies to protect them. She spreads her wings to catch them when they fall. And she carries them on her wings to a safe place. The Lord is like that.

12 "The Lord alone led Jacob (Israel). No foreign gods helped him.

13 The Lord led Jacob to take control of the hill country. Jacob took the harvest in the fields. The Lord gave Jacob honey from the rock; he made olive oil flow from the hard rock.

14 The Lord gave Israel butter from the herd and milk from the flock. He gave Israel fat lambs and goats, the best rams from Bashan, and the finest wheat. You, people of Israel, drank wine from the red juice of the grape.

15 "But Jeshurun* became fat and kicked, like a bull. (Yes, you people were fed well! You became full and fat!) Then he left the God who made him! He ran away from the Rock who saved him.

16 The Lord’s people made him jealous—They worshiped other gods! They worshiped those horrible idols. And that made God angry.

17 They offered sacrifices to demons that were not real gods. Those were new gods that they did not know. Those were new gods that your ancestors did not know.

18 You left the Rock (God) who made you; you forgot the God who gave you life.

19 "The Lord saw this and became upset. His sons and daughters made him angry! So the Lord said, 'I will turn away from them, then let's see what happens! They are a rebellious people. They are like children who won’t learn their lessons!

20 They made me jealous with demons that aren’t gods. They made me angry with those worthless idols. So I will make them jealous with people that are not a real nation. I will make them angry with people that are a foolish* nation.

Jeshurun This is another name for Israel. This name means “good” or “honest.”

foolish This is a word play. The Hebrew word meaning “foolish” is like the word meaning “worthless.”
22 My anger will burn like a fire, burning down to the deepest grave,*
burning the earth and all it produces, burning deep down below the mountains!

23 ‘I will bring troubles to the Israelites.
I will shoot all my arrows at them.
They will become thin from hunger.
Terrible diseases will destroy them.
I will send wild animals against them.
Poisonous snakes and lizards will bite them.

24 In the streets, soldiers will kill them.
In their houses, terrible things will happen.
Soldiers will kill young men and women.
They will kill babies and old people.

25 I thought about destroying the Israelites so people would forget them completely!
But I know what their enemies would say.
The enemy would not understand.
They would brag and say,
“The Lord did not destroy Israel.
We won by our own power!”’

26 “The people of Israel are foolish.
They don’t understand.
If they were wise,
they would understand,
they would know what would happen to them!

27 Those false gods ate the fat of your sacrifices.
And they drank the wine of your offerings.
So let those gods get up and help you!
Let them protect you!

28 “Now, see that I, and only I, am God!
There is no other God!
I put people to death,
and I let people live.
I can hurt people,
and I can make them well.
No one can save another person
from my power!

29 Can one person chase away 1,000 men?
Can two men cause 10,000 men to run away?
That will happen only if the Lord gives them to their enemy!
That will happen only if their Rock* (God)
sells them like slaves!

30 The ‘rock’ of our enemies is not strong like our Rock (the Lord).
Even our enemies know that!

31 Their vines and fields will be destroyed,
like Sodom and Gomorrah.*
Their grapes are like bitter poison.
Their wine is like poison from snakes.

32 Their vines and fields will be destroyed,
like Sodom and Gomorrah.*
Their grapes are like bitter poison.
Their wine is like poison from snakes.

33 ‘The Lord says,
‘I am saving that punishment.
I have it locked up in my storehouse!’

34 I will punish them
for the bad things they did.
But I am saving that punishment for when they slip and do bad things.
Their time of trouble is near.
Their punishment will come quickly.’

35 “The Lord will judge his people.
They are his servants,
and he will show them mercy.
He will see that their power is gone.
He will see that they are all helpless—
the slaves and free people, too.

36 Then the Lord will say,
‘Where are the false gods?
Where is the ‘rock’ that you ran to for protection?
Those false gods ate the fat of your
sacrifices.
And they drank the wine of your offerings.
So let those gods get up and help you!
Let them protect you!

37 “Now, see that I, and only I, am God!
There is no other God!
I put people to death,
and I let people live.
I can hurt people,
and I can make them well.
No one can save another person
from my power!

38 I raise my hand toward heaven and make this promise.
As surely as I live forever,
these things will happen!

39 I swear (promise),
I will sharpen my flashing sword.
I will use it to punish my enemies.
I will give them the punishment
they deserve.

grave Or, “Sheol,” the place of death.
Rock A name for God. It shows he is like a fortress or a strong place of safety.
Sodom and Gomorrah Two cities God destroyed because the people were so evil. See Gen. 19.
DEUTERONOMY 32:42–33:8

42 My enemies will be killed and taken as prisoners.
My arrows will be covered with their blood.
My sword will cut off the heads of their soldiers.’

43 “The whole world should be happy for God’s people!
Why? Because he helps them—
he punishes people who kill his servants.
He gives his enemies the punishment they deserve.
And he makes his land and people pure.”

Moses Teaches the People His Song

44 Moses and Joshua son of Nun came and sang all the words of this song for the people of Israel to hear. 45 When Moses finished giving these teachings to the people, 46 he said to them, “You must be sure to pay attention to all the commands I tell you today. And you must tell your children to completely obey the commands in this Law. 47 Don’t think these teachings are not important! They are your life! Through these teachings you will live a long time in the land across the Jordan River that you are ready to take.”

Moses on Mount Nebo

48 The Lord spoke to Moses that same day. The Lord said, 49 “Go to the Abarim Mountains. Go up on Mount Nebo in the land of Moab across from the city of Jericho. Then you can look at the land of Canaan that I am giving to the people of Israel to live in. 50 You will die on that mountain. You will go to be with your people, the same as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor. 51 Why? Because you both sinned against me. You were at the waters of Meribah near Kadesh. That was in the desert of Zin. There, in front of the people of Israel, you did not honor me and show that I am holy. 52 So now you may see the land that I am giving to the people of Israel. But you can’t go into that land.”

make ... pure Or, “make atonement for ....” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

Moses Blesses the People

33 This is the blessing that Moses, the man of God, gave the people of Israel before he died. 2 Moses said:

“The Lord came from Sinai, like a light shining at dawn over Seir.
like a light shining from Mount Paran.
The Lord came with 10,000 holy ones.
God’s mighty soldiers were by his side.”

3 Yes, the Lord loves his people.
All his holy people are in his hand.
They sit at his feet and learn his teachings!

4 Moses gave us the Law.
Those teaching are for Jacob’s people.

5 At that time, the people of Israel and their leaders met together, and the Lord became Jeshurun’s king!

Reuben’s Blessing

6 “Let Reuben live, and not die!
But let there be only a few people in his family group!”

Judah’s Blessing

7 Moses said these things about Judah:

“Lord, listen to the leader from Judah when he calls for help.
Bring him to his people.
Make him strong, and help him defeat his enemies!”

Levi’s Blessing

8 Moses said these things about Levi:

“Levi is your true follower.
He keeps the Urim and Thummim.
At Massah you tested the people of Levi.
At the waters of Meribah you proved that they are yours.

The Lord came ... side Or, “The Lord came from 10,000 holy angels where his troops were by his right side.”
Jeshurun This is another name for Israel. This name means “good” or “honest.”
Urim and Thummim Used by the priest to learn God’s answer to questions. They were probably like lots—stones, sticks or bones that were thrown like dice to make decisions.
Massah ... Meribah See Num. 20:1–13 for the story.
DEUTERONOMY 33:9–24

They cared more for you, Lord, than for their own families. They ignored their fathers and mothers. They did not recognize their brothers. They did not pay attention to their children. But they obeyed your commands. They kept your Agreement.

They will teach your rules to Jacob.* They will teach your Law to Israel. They will burn incense* before you. They will offer burnt offerings on your altar.

Lord, bless the things that belong to Levi. Accept the things he does. Destroy the men who attack him! Defeat his enemies, so that they will never attack again.”

Benjamin’s Blessing

Moses said this about Benjamin:

“The Lord loves Benjamin. Benjamin will live safely near him. The Lord protects him all the time. And the Lord will live in his land.*”

Joseph’s Blessing

Moses said this about Joseph:

“May the Lord bless Joseph’s land. Lord, send them rain from the skies above and water from the ground below. Let the sun give them good fruit. Let each month bring its best fruit. Let the hills and ancient mountains produce their best fruit. Let the earth give its best to Joseph. Joseph was separated from his brothers. So may the Lord in the burning bush give his best to Joseph. Joseph is like a powerful bull. His two sons are like bull’s horns.

Zebulun’s and Issachar’s Blessing

Moses said this about Zebulun:

“Zebulun, be happy, when you go out. Issachar, be happy, in your tents at home. They will call the people to their mountain. There they will offer good sacrifices. They will take riches from the sea and treasures from the shore.”

Gad’s Blessing

Moses said this about Gad:

“Praise God who gave Gad more land! Gad is like a lion. He lies down and waits. Then he attacks and tears the animal in pieces. He chooses the best part for himself. He takes the king’s share. The leaders of the people come to him. He does what the Lord says is good. He does what is right for the people of Israel.”

Dan’s Blessing

Moses said this about Dan:

“Dan is a lion’s cub that jumps out from Bashan.”

Naphtali’s Blessing

Moses said this about Naphtali:

“Naphtali, you will get plenty of good things. The Lord will truly bless you. You will get the land by Lake Galilee.”

Asher’s Blessing

Moses said this about Asher:

“Asher* is the most blessed of the sons. Let him be the favorite of his brothers. And let him wash his feet in oil.”

Jacob Another name for Israel.
incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a sacrifice to God.
And the Lord will live in his land Literally, “And he will dwell between his shoulders.” This probably means that the Lord’s temple will be in Jerusalem, at the border between Benjamin and Judah’s land.

Asher This name means, “blessed” or “happy.”
25 Your gates will have locks made from iron and bronze.
You will be strong all your life.”

Moses Gives Praise to God
26 “There is no one like God, Jeshurun!*
God rides on the clouds in his glory through the skies to help you.
27 God lives forever.
He is your place of safety.
God’s power continues forever!
He is protecting you.
God will force your enemies
to leave your land.
He will say,
‘Destroy the enemy!’
28 So Israel will live in safety,
Jacob’s well belongs to them.
They will get a land of grain and wine.
And that land will get plenty of rain.
29 Israel, you are blessed.
No other nation is like you.
The Lord saved you.
The Lord is like a strong shield
protecting you.
The Lord is like a powerful sword.
Your enemies will be afraid of you.
And you will trample their holy places!”

Moses Dies
34 Moses climbed Mount Nebo. Moses went from the Jordan Valley in Moab to the top of Mount Pisgah. This was across the Jordan River from Jericho. The Lord showed Moses all the land from Gilead to Dan. 2The Lord showed him all the land of Judah as far as the Mediterranean Sea. 3The Lord showed Moses the Negev* and the valley that goes from Zoa to Jericho, the city of palm trees. 4The Lord said to Moses, “This is the land I promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I said to them, ‘I will give this land to your descendants.’ I have let you see the land, but you cannot go there.”
5Then Moses, the Lord’s servant, died there in the land of Moab. The Lord had told Moses this would happen. 6The Lord buried Moses in Moab. This was in the valley across from Beth Peor. But even today no person knows exactly where Moses’ grave is. 7Moses was 120 years old when he died. He was as strong as ever, and his eyes were still good. 8The people of Israel cried for Moses for 30 days. They stayed in the Jordan Valley in Moab until the time of sadness was finished.

Joshua Becomes the New Leader
9Moses had put his hands on Joshua and appointed him to be the new leader. Then Joshua son of Nun was filled with the spirit of wisdom. So the people of Israel began to obey Joshua. They did the things that the Lord had commanded Moses.
10Israel never had another prophet* like Moses: The Lord knew Moses face to face.
11The Lord sent Moses to do powerful miracles in the land of Egypt. Pharaoh, all his officers, and all the people in Egypt saw those miracles. 12No other prophet ever did all the powerful and amazing things that Moses did. All the people of Israel saw the things he did.
God Chooses Joshua to Lead Israel

1 Moses was the Lord’s servant. Joshua son of Nun was Moses’ helper. After Moses died, the Lord spoke to Joshua. The Lord said, 2“My servant Moses is dead. Now you and these people must go across the Jordan River. You must go into the land I am giving to you, the people of Israel. 3I promised Moses that I would give you this land. So, I will give you that land wherever you go. 4All the land of the Hittite people, from the desert and Lebanon all the way to the Great River (that is, the Euphrates River) will be yours. And all the land from here to the Mediterranean Sea in the west (that is, the place where the sun sets) will be within your borders. 5I will be with you the same as I was with Moses. No person will be able to stop you all your life. I will not abandon you. I will never leave you. 6Joshua, you must be strong and brave! You must lead these people so they can take their land. I promised their fathers that I would give them this land. 7But you must also be strong and brave about another thing. You must be sure to obey the commands my servant Moses gave you. If you follow his teachings exactly, then you will be successful in everything you do. 8Always remember the things written in that book of law. Study that book day and night. Then you can be sure to obey the things that are written there. If you do this, then you will be wise and successful in everything you do. 9Remember, I commanded you to be strong and brave. So don’t be scared, because the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go.”

Joshua Takes Command

10So Joshua gave orders to the leaders of the people. He said, 11“Go through the camp and tell the people to get ready. Say to the people, ‘Get some food ready. Three days from now we will go across the Jordan River. We will go and take the land that the Lord your God is giving you.’” 12Then Joshua spoke to the family groups of Reuben, Gad, and half of the family group of Manasseh. Joshua said, 13“Remember what the Lord’s servant Moses told you. He said that the Lord your God would give you a place to rest. The Lord will give you that land! 14In fact, the Lord has already given you this land east of the Jordan River. Your wives and children can stay in this land with your animals. But your fighting men must cross the Jordan River with your brothers. You must be ready for war and help them {take their land}. 15The Lord gave you a place to rest, and he will do the same for your brothers. But you must help them until they get the land that the Lord their God is giving them. Then you can come back to your own land, the land east of the Jordan River. The Lord’s servant Moses gave you that land.” 16Then the people answered Joshua, “We will do whatever you command us to do! We will go wherever you tell us to go! 17We will obey whatever you say, the same as we obeyed Moses. We only ask one thing from the Lord. We ask that the Lord your God will be with you the same as he was with Moses. 18Then, if any person refuses to obey your commands or if any person turns against you, that person will be killed. Just be strong and brave!”
Spies in Jericho

2 Joshua son of Nun and all the people were camped at Acacia.* Joshua sent out two spies. No one knew that Joshua sent out these men. Joshua said to the men, “Go and look at the land, especially the city of Jericho.”

So the men went to the city of Jericho. They went to the house of a prostitute and stayed there. This woman’s name was Rahab.

2Someone told the king of Jericho, “Last night some men from Israel came to look for weaknesses in our country.”

3So the king of Jericho sent this message to Rahab: “Don’t hide those men that came and stayed in your house. Bring them out. They have come to spy on our country.”

4The woman had hidden the two men. But the woman said, “Those two men did come here, but I didn’t know where they came from.

5In the evening, when it was time to close the city gate, the men left. I don’t know where they went. But if you go quickly, maybe you can catch them.” (Rahab said those things, but really, she had taken the men up to the roof, and she was hiding them in the hay* she had piled up there.)

7So the king’s men went out of the city, and the people closed the city gates. The king’s men went to look for the two men from Israel. They went to the Jordan River and looked at all the places where people cross the river.

8The two men were ready to sleep for the night. But Rahab went to the roof and talked to them. *(Rahab said, “I know that the Lord has given this land to your people. You frighten us. All the people living in this country are afraid of you.

10We are afraid because we have heard about the ways that the Lord helped you. We heard that he dried the water at the Red Sea when you came out of Egypt. We also heard what you did to the two Amorite kings, Sihon and Og. We heard how you destroyed those kings living east of the Jordan River.

11We heard about those things and we became very afraid. And now, none of our men are brave enough to fight you. Why? Because the Lord your God rules the heavens above and the earth below!

12So now, I want you to make a promise to me. I was kind to you and helped you. So promise before the Lord that you will be kind to my family. Please tell me that you will do this.

Tell me that you will allow my family to live—my father, mother, brothers, sisters, and all of their families. Promise that you will save us from death.”

14The men agreed. They said, “We will trade our lives for yours. Don’t tell anyone what we are doing. Then, when the Lord gives us our land, we will be kind to you. You can trust us.”

15The woman’s house was built into the city wall. It was part of the wall. So the woman used a rope to let the men down through a window. (Then the woman said to them, “Go west into the hills so the king’s men will not accidentally find you. Hide there for three days. After the king’s men come back you can go on your way.”)

17The men said to her, “We made a promise to you. But you must do one thing or we will not be responsible for our promise.

18You are using this red rope to help us escape. We will come back to this land. At that time, you must tie this red rope in your window. You must bring your father, your mother, your brothers, and all your family into your house with you. We will protect every person who stays in this house. If anyone in your house is hurt, then we will be responsible. But if any person goes out of your house, then that person might be killed. We will not be responsible for that person. It will be his own fault.

20We are making this agreement with you. But if you tell anyone about what we are doing then we are free from this agreement.”

21The woman answered, “I will do exactly what you said.” The woman said goodbye, and the men left her house. Then the woman tied the red rope in the window.

22The men left her house and went into the hills. They stayed there for three days. The king’s men looked all along the road. After three days, the king’s men gave up and went

---

Acacia Or, “Shittim,” a town east of the Jordan River.
roof In Israel, the roofs were flat and people used them like an extra room to store things.
hay Literally, “flax,” a plant used to make linen.
back to the city. 23 Then the two men went back to Joshua. The men left the hills and crossed the river. They went to Joshua son of Nun. They told Joshua everything that they had learned. 24 They said to Joshua, “The Lord really has given us all of the land. All of the people in that country are afraid of us.”

Miracle at the Jordan River

3 Early the next morning, Joshua and all the people of Israel got up and left Acacia.* They traveled to the Jordan River and camped there before they went across. 2 After three days, the leaders went through the camp. 3 The leaders gave orders to the people. They said, “You will see the priests and Levites* carrying the Box of the Agreement* of the Lord your God. At that time, you must follow them. 4 But do not follow too closely. Stay about 1,000 yards* behind them. You have not been here before. But if you follow them, then you will know where to go.”

5 Then Joshua told the people, “Make yourselves pure. Tomorrow the Lord will use you to do amazing things.”

6 Then Joshua said to the priests, “Take the Box of the Agreement* and go across the river in front of the people.” So the priests lifted the Box and carried it in front of the people.

7 Then the Lord said to Joshua, “Today I will begin to make you a great man for all the people of Israel to see. Then the people will know that I am with you the same as I was with Moses. 8 The priests will carry the Box of the Agreement.* Tell the priests this, ‘Walk to the shore of the Jordan River and stop just before you step into the water.’”

9 Then Joshua said to the people of Israel, “Come and listen to the words of the Lord your God. 10 Here is proof that the living God is truly with you. Here is proof that he will truly defeat your enemies. He will defeat the Canaanite people, the Hittite people, the Hivite people, the Perizzite people, the Girgashite people, the Amorite people, and the Jebusite people, he will force them to leave that land. 11 Here is the proof. The Box of the Agreement* of the Master of the whole world will go before you as you cross the Jordan River. 12 Now, choose twelve men. Choose one man from each of the twelve family groups of Israel. 13 The priests will carry the Box of the Lord.* The Lord is the Master of the whole world. They will carry that Box in front of you into the Jordan River. When they enter the water, the water of the Jordan River will stop flowing. The water will stop and fill behind that place like a dam.”

14 The priests carried the Box of the Agreement* and the people left the place they had camped. The people started going across the Jordan River. 15 (During harvest time the Jordan River overflows its banks. So the river was at its fullest.) The priests who were carrying the Box came to the shore of the river. They stepped into the water. 16 And immediately, the water stopped flowing. The water filled behind that place like a dam. The water piled high a long way up the river—all the way to Adam (a town near Zarethan). The people crossed the river near Jericho. 17 The ground at that place became dry, and the priests carried the Box of the Agreement* of the Lord to the middle of the river and stopped. The priests waited there while all the people of Israel walked across the Jordan River on dry land.

Rocks to Remind the People

4 After all the people had crossed the Jordan River the Lord said to Joshua, “Choose twelve men. Choose one man from each family group. 3 Tell them to look in the river where the priests were standing. Tell them to find twelve rocks in that place. Carry those twelve rocks with you. Put the twelve rocks in the place where you stay tonight.”

4 So Joshua chose one man from each family group. Then he called the twelve men

---

Performative Notes:

- Acacia: Or, Shittim. A town east of the Jordan River.
- Levites: People from the tribe of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.
- Box of the Agreement: Or, “ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.
- 1,000 yards: Literally, “2,000 cubits.”

Box of the Lord: Also called the Box of the Agreement.
Joshua 4:5–5:1

Joshua said to the men, “Go out into the river where the Holy Box* of the Lord your God is. Each of you must find one rock. There will be one rock for each of the twelve family groups of Israel. Carry that rock on your shoulder. These rocks will be a sign for you. In the future, your children will ask you, ‘What do these rocks mean?’ You will tell the children that the Lord stopped the water from flowing in the Jordan River. When the Holy Box of the Lord’s Agreement crossed the river, the water stopped flowing. Those rocks will help the people of Israel remember this thing forever.”

So the people of Israel obeyed Joshua. They carried twelve rocks from the middle of the Jordan River. There was one rock for each of the twelve family groups of Israel. They did this the way the Lord commanded Joshua. The men carried the rocks with them. Then they put the rocks at the place where they made their camp. (Joshua also put twelve rocks in the middle of the Jordan River. He put them at the place where the priests stood while carrying the Lord’s Holy Box.* Those rocks are still at that place today.)

The Lord had commanded Joshua to tell the people what to do. Those were the things Moses had said Joshua must do. So the priests carrying the Holy Box* continued standing in the middle of the river until all those things were done. The people hurried across the river. After that, the priests carried the Box of the Lord to the front of the people.

The men from the family groups of Reuben, Gad, and half of the family group of Manasseh obeyed Moses. These men crossed the river in front of the other people. These men were prepared for war. They were going to help the rest of the people of Israel (take the land God had promised to give them). About 40,000 soldiers, prepared for war, passed before the Lord. They were marching toward the plains of Jericho.

That day the Lord made Joshua a great man to all the people of Israel. The people respected Joshua from that time on. They respected Joshua all his life, the same as they respected Moses.

While the priests carrying the Box were still standing in the river, the Lord said to Joshua, "Command the priests to come out of the river.”

So Joshua commanded the priests. He said, “Come out of the Jordan River.”

The priests obeyed Joshua. They carried the Box with them and came out of the river. When the priests’ feet touched the land on the other side of the river, the water in the river began flowing again. The water again overflowed its banks as it had before the people crossed.

The people crossed the Jordan River on the tenth day of the first month. The people camped at Gilgal, east of Jericho. The people carried with them the twelve rocks that they had taken from the Jordan River. And Joshua set up those rocks at Gilgal. Then Joshua told the people, “In the future, your children will ask their parents, ‘What do these rocks mean?’ You will tell the children, ‘Those rocks help us remember the way the people of Israel crossed the Jordan River on dry land.’ The Lord your God caused the water in the Jordan River to stop flowing so you could cross it on dry land—just like the time the Lord stopped the water at the Red Sea so that we could cross it on dry land. The Lord did this so that all the people in this country would know that the Lord is very powerful. Then those people will always be afraid of the Lord your God.”

So the Lord dried up the Jordan River until the people of Israel finished crossing it. The kings of the Amorites living west of the Jordan River and the Canaanites living by the Mediterranean Sea heard about this and became very scared. After that they were not brave enough to stand and fight against the people of Israel.

* Holy Box Also called the Box of the Agreement.
The Israelites Are Circumcised

2At that time, the Lord said to Joshua, “Make knives from flint rocks and circumcise* the men of Israel.”

3So Joshua made knives from flint rocks. Then he circumcised* the people of Israel at Gibeath Haaraloth.*

4–7This is why Joshua circumcised* the men: After the people of Israel left Egypt, all the men that were able to be in the army were circumcised. While in the desert, many of the fighting men did not listen to the Lord. So the Lord promised that those men would not see the “land where much food grows.” The Lord promised our ancestors* to give us that land, but, because of those men, God forced the people to wander in the desert for 40 years—that way all those fighting men would die. All those fighting men died, and their sons took their place. But none of the boys that were born in the desert on the trip from Egypt had been circumcised. So Joshua circumcised them.

8Joshua finished circumcising all the men. The people camped at that place until all the men were healed.

First Passover in Canaan

9At that time, the Lord said to Joshua, “You were slaves in Egypt. And this made you ashamed. But today I have taken away that shame.” So Joshua named that place Gilgal.* And that place is still named Gilgal today.

10The people of Israel celebrated Passover while they were camped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho. This was on the evening of the 14th day of the month. 11The day after Passover, the people ate food that grew in that land. They ate bread made without yeast and roasted grain. 12The next morning, the special food from heaven stopped coming. This happened the day after the people ate the food that grew in the land of Canaan. From that time on, the people of Israel did not get the special food from heaven.

13When Joshua was near Jericho he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him. The man had a sword in his hand. Joshua went to the man and asked, “Are you a friend to our people, or are you one of our enemies?”

14The man answered, “I am not an enemy. I am the commander of the Lord’s army. I have just now come to you.”

Then Joshua bowed his face to the ground. He did this to show respect. He asked, “I am your servant. Does my master have a command for me?”

15The commander of the Lord’s army answered, “Take off your shoes. The place where you are standing now is holy.” So Joshua obeyed him.

Jericho Captured

6The city of Jericho was closed. The people in the city were afraid because the people of Israel were near. No one went in the city and no one came out of the city.

2Then the Lord said to Joshua, “Look, I will let you defeat the city of Jericho. You will defeat the king and all the fighting men in the city. 3March around the city with your army one time every day. Do this for six days. 4Tell the priests to carry the Holy Box.* 5Tell seven of the priests to carry trumpets made from the horns of male sheep and march in front of the Holy Box. On the seventh day, march around the city seven times. On the seventh day, tell the priests to blow the trumpets when they march. 6The priests will make one loud noise from the trumpets. When you hear that noise, tell all the people to begin shouting. When you do this, the walls of the city will fall down and your people will be able to go straight into the city.”

6So Joshua son of Nun called the priests together. Joshua said to them, “Carry the Holy Box* of the Lord. And tell seven priests to carry the trumpets and march in front of the Box.”

circumcise(d) To cut off the foreskin. This was done to every Jewish male to show he shared in the Agreement God made with Israel. See Gen. 17:9–14.

Gibeath Haaraloth This name means “Circumcision Hill.”

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Gilgal This name is like the Hebrew word meaning, “to roll away.”

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement—the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.
Then Joshua ordered the people, “Now go! March around the city. The soldiers with weapons will march in front of the Holy Box* of the Lord.”

After Joshua finished speaking to the people, the seven priests began marching before the Lord. They carried the seven trumpets and blew them while they marched. The priests carrying the Lord’s Holy Box* followed them. The soldiers with weapons marched in front of the priests who were blowing the horns. And the rest of the men walked behind the Holy Box. So they went around the city, marching and blowing the trumpets. Joshua had told the people not to give a war cry. He said, “Don’t shout. Don’t say a word until the day I tell you. Then you can shout!”

So Joshua made the priests carry the Holy Box* of the Lord around the city one time. Then they went back to the camp and spent the night there.

Early the next morning, Joshua got up. The priests carried the Lord’s Holy Box* again. And the seven priests carried the seven trumpets. They walked in front of the Lord’s Holy Box, marching and blowing their trumpets. The soldiers with weapons marched in front of them. The rest of the people marched behind the Lord’s Holy Box. They went around the city, marching and blowing the trumpets. So on the second day, they all marched around the city one time. And then they went back to the camp. They continued to do this every day for six days.

On the seventh day they got up at dawn. And they marched around the city seven times. They marched in the same way they had marched on the days before, but on that day they marched around the city seven times. The seventh time they marched around the city, the priests blew their trumpets. At that time, Joshua gave the command: “Now, shout! The Lord is giving you this city!” The city and everything in it belongs to the Lord.* Only Rahab the prostitute and all the people in her house will remain alive. These people must not be killed because Rahab helped the two spies. Also remember that we must destroy everything else. Don’t take those things. If you take those things and bring them into our camp then you yourselves will be destroyed. And you will also bring trouble to all the people of Israel. All the silver and gold and the things made from bronze and iron belong to the Lord. Those things must be put in the Lord’s treasury.”

The priests blew the trumpets. The people heard trumpets and began shouting. The walls fell down and the people ran straight into the city. So the people of Israel defeated that city.

The people destroyed everything in the city. They destroyed everything that was living there. They killed the young men and old men, young women and old women, cattle, sheep, and donkeys.

Joshua talked to the two spies. Joshua said, “Go into the prostitute’s house. Bring her out. And bring all the people who are with her. Do this because of the promise you made to her.”

So the two men went into the house and brought out Rahab. They also brought out her father, mother, brothers, all her family, and all the other people that were with her. They put all the people in a safe place outside the camp of Israel.

Then the people of Israel burned the whole city. They burned everything in the city except the things made from silver, gold, bronze, and iron. They put those things in the Lord’s treasury. Joshua saved Rahab the prostitute, her family, and all the other people that were with her. Joshua let them live because Rahab helped the spies that Joshua had sent out to Jericho. Rahab still lives among the people of Israel today.

At that time, Joshua made this important promise. He said:

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement—the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

belongs to the Lord This usually meant that these things were saved in the temple treasury or they were destroyed so that other people would not use them.
“Whoever builds Jericho again will be in danger from the Lord. Whoever lays the foundation of this city, will lose his oldest son. The man who sets up the gates will lose his youngest son.”*

27 So the Lord was with Joshua. And Joshua became famous all throughout the whole country.

Achan’s Sin

7 But the people of Israel did not obey God. There was a man from the family group of Judah named Achan son of Carmi, grandson of Zimri. Achan kept some of the things that should have been destroyed. So the Lord became very angry at the people of Israel.

2 After they defeated Jericho, Joshua sent some men to Ai.* Ai was near Beth Aven, east of Bethel. Joshua told them, “Go to Ai and look for weaknesses in that area.” So the men went to spy on that land.

3 Later the men came back to Joshua. They said, “Ai is a weak area. We will not need all of our people to defeat that place. Send 2,000 or 3,000 men to fight there. There is no need to use the whole army. There are only a few men there to fight against us.”

4–5 So about 3,000 men went to Ai. But the people of Ai killed about 36 men of Israel. And the people of Israel ran away. The people of Ai chased them from the city gates all the way to the quarries.* The people of Ai beat them badly.

When the people from Israel saw this, they became very frightened and lost their courage.

6 When Joshua heard about this, he tore his clothes to show his sadness. He bowed down on the ground before the Holy Box.* Joshua stayed there until evening. The leaders of Israel did the same thing. They also threw dirt on their heads to show their sadness.

7 Joshua said, “Lord my Master! You brought our people across the Jordan River. Why did you bring us this far and then allow the Amorite people to destroy us? We should have been satisfied and stayed on the other side of the Jordan River! 8 I promise by my life, Lord! There is nothing I can say now. Israel has surrendered to the enemy. 9 The Canaanite people and all the other people in this country will hear about what happened. Then they will attack us and kill all of us! Then what will you do to protect your great name?”

10 The Lord said to Joshua, “Why are you down there with your face on the ground? Stand up! 11 The people of Israel sinned against me. They broke the Agreement that I commanded them to obey. They took some of the things that I commanded them to destroy. They have stolen from me. They have lied. They have taken those things for themselves. 12 That is why the army of Israel turned and ran away from the fight. They did that because they have done wrong. They should be destroyed. I will not continue to help you. I will not continue to be with you unless you destroy everything I commanded you to destroy.

13 “Now go and make the people pure. Tell the people, ‘Make yourselves pure. Prepare for tomorrow. The Lord God of Israel says that some people are keeping things that he commanded to be destroyed. You will never be able to defeat your enemies until you throw away those things.

14 “Tomorrow morning you must all stand before the Lord. All of the family groups will stand before the Lord. The Lord will choose one family group. Then only that family group will stand before the Lord. Then the Lord will choose one clan* from that family group. Then only that clan must stand before the Lord. Then the Lord will look at each family in that clan. Then the Lord will choose one family. Then the Lord will look at each man in that family. 15 The man who is keeping those things that we should have destroyed will be caught. Then that man will be destroyed by fire. And everything that he owns will be destroyed with him. That man broke the Agreement with the Lord. He has done a very bad thing to the people of Israel!”

The man ... son See 1 Kings 16:34.
Ai This name means, “the ruins.”
quarry A place where people cut stones from the solid rock.
Holy Box Also called the Box of the Agreement.
clan A group of families.
JOSHUA 7:16–8:11

16Early the next morning, Joshua led all the people of Israel before the Lord. All of the family groups stood before the Lord. The Lord chose the family group of Judah. 17So all the clans* of Judah stood before the Lord. The Lord chose the Zerah clan. Then all the families of the Zerah clan stood before the Lord. The family of Zimri was chosen. 18Then Joshua told all the men in that family to come before the Lord. The Lord chose Achan the son of Carmi. (Carmi was the son of Zimri. And Zimri was the son of Zerah.)

19Then Joshua said to Achan, “Son, {say your prayers}. You should honor the Lord God of Israel and confess your sins to him. Tell me what you did, and don’t try to hide anything from me!”

20Achan answered, “It is true! I sinned against the Lord God of Israel. This is what I did: 21{We captured the city of Jericho and all the things in it.} I saw a beautiful coat from Babylon, about 5 pounds* of silver; and about a pound* of gold. I wanted these things for myself. So I took them. You will find those things buried in the ground under my tent. The silver is under the coat.”

22So Joshua sent some men to the tent. They ran to the tent and found those things hidden there in the tent. The silver was under the coat. 23The men brought the things out of the tent. They took those things to Joshua and all the people of Israel. They threw them on the ground before the Lord.

24Then Joshua and all the people led Achan son of Zerah to the Valley of Achor. They also took the silver, the coat, the gold, Achan’s sons and daughters, his cattle, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent, and everything he owned. They took all these things to the Valley of Achor with Achan. 25Then Joshua said, “You caused much trouble for us! But now the Lord will bring trouble to you!” Then all the people threw stones at Achan and his family until they died. Then the people burned them and everything he owned. 26After they burned Achan, they put many rocks over his body. Those rocks are still there today. {So God brought trouble to Achan.} That is why that place is called the Valley of Achor.* After this the Lord was not angry with the people.

Ai Destroyed

8Then the Lord said to Joshua, “Don’t be afraid. Don’t give up. Lead all your fighting men to Ai.* I will help you defeat the king of Ai. I am giving you his people, his city, and his land. 2You will do to Ai and its king the same thing you did to Jericho and its king. Only this time you can take all the wealth and animals and keep it for yourselves. You will share the wealth with your people. Now, tell some of your soldiers to hide behind the city.”

3So Joshua led his whole army toward Ai.* Then Joshua chose 30,000 of his best fighting men. He sent these men out at night. 4Joshua gave them this command: “Listen carefully to what I tell you. You must hide in the area behind the city. Wait for the time to attack. Don’t go far from the city. Continue to watch and be ready. {I will lead the men with me to march toward the city. The men in the city will come out to fight against us. We will turn and run away from them, like we did before. Those men will chase us away from the city. They will think that we are running away from them like we did before. So we will run away.} Then you should come out of your hiding place and take control of the city. The Lord your God will give you the power to win.

4“You must do what the Lord says. Watch me and I will give you the command to attack the city. Take control of the city, and then burn it.”

9Then Joshua sent those men to their hiding place and waited. They went to a place between Bethel and Ai. This was to the west of Ai. And Joshua stayed the night with his people.

10Early the next morning Joshua gathered the men together. Then Joshua and the leaders of Israel led the men to Ai. 11All of the clan A group of families.

5 pounds Literally, “200 shekels.”
a pound Literally, “50 shekels.”
Achor This name means “trouble.”
Ai See Josh. 7:2. The name of this town means “the ruins.”
soldiers that were with Joshua marched to Ai. They stopped in front of the city. The army made its camp north of the city. There was a valley between the army and Ai.

Then Joshua chose about 5,000 men. Joshua sent these men to hide in the area west of the city, between Bethel and Ai. So Joshua had prepared his men for the fight. The main camp was north of the city. The other men were hiding to the west. That night Joshua went down into the valley.

Later, the king of Ai saw the army of Israel. The king and his people hurried out to fight the army of Israel. The king of Ai went out the east side of the city toward the Jordan Valley, so he did not see the soldiers hiding behind the city.

Joshua and all the men of Israel let the army of Ai push them back. Joshua and his men began running east toward the desert. The people in the city began shouting and started chasing Joshua and his men. All the people left the city. All the people of Ai and Bethel chased the army of Israel. The city was left open—no one stayed to protect the city.

Then the Lord said to Joshua, "Hold your spear toward the city of Ai. I will give you that city." So Joshua held his spear toward the city of Ai. The men of Israel that were hiding saw this. They quickly came out from their hiding place and hurried toward the city. They entered the city and took control of it. Then the soldiers started fires to burn the city.

The men from Ai looked back and saw their city burning. They saw the smoke rising into the sky. So they lost their strength and courage. They quit chasing the men of Israel. The men from Israel stopped running away. They turned and went to fight the men from Ai. There was no safe place for the men from Ai to run to. Joshua and his men saw that his army had taken control of the city. They saw the smoke rising from the city. This was when they stopped running away, turned and ran toward the men of Ai to fight them.

Then the men that had hid themselves came out of the city to help with the fight. The army of Israel was on both sides of the men of Ai—the men of Ai were trapped. Israel defeated them. They fought until none of the men from Ai were left alive—none of the enemy escaped. But the king of Ai was left alive. Joshua's men brought him to Joshua.

A Review of the Fighting

During the fighting, the army of Israel chased the men from Ai into the fields and into the desert. So the army of Israel finished killing all the men from Ai in the fields and in the desert. Then the men of Israel went back to Ai and killed all the people that were still alive in the city. All the people of Ai died that day. There were 12,000 men and women.

Joshua had held his spear toward Ai as a sign to his people to destroy the city. And Joshua did not stop until all the people of Ai were destroyed. The people of Israel kept the animals and other things from the city for themselves. This is what the Lord said they could do when he gave Joshua the commands.

Then Joshua burned the city of Ai. That city became an empty pile of rocks. It is still like that today. Joshua hanged the king of Ai on a tree. He left him hanging on the tree until evening. At sunset, Joshua told his men to take the king’s body down from the tree. They threw his body down at the city gate. Then they covered the body with many rocks. That pile of rocks is still there today.

Reading the Blessings and Curses

Then Joshua built an altar for the Lord, the God of Israel. He built the altar on Mount Ebal. The Lord’s servant Moses told the people of Israel how to build altars. So Joshua built the altar the way it was explained in the Book of the Law of Moses. The altar was made from stones that were not cut. No tool had ever been used on those stones. They offered burnt offerings to the Lord on that altar. They also gave fellowship offerings.

In that place Joshua wrote the Law of Moses on stones. He did this for all the people of Israel to see. The elders (leaders), officers, judges, and all the people of Israel were standing around the Holy Box. They were standing in front of the Levite priests.
who carried the Holy Box for the Lord’s Agreement. The people of Israel and the other people with them were all standing there. Half of the people stood in front of Mount Ebal and the other half of the people stood in front of Mount Gerizim. The Lord’s servant Moses had told the people to do this. Moses told them to do this for this blessing.

34Then Joshua read all the words from the law. Joshua read the blessings and the curses. He read everything the way it was written in the Book of the Law. 35All the people of Israel were gathered together there. All the women and children and all the foreigners that lived with the people of Israel were there. And Joshua read every command that Moses had given.

Gibeonites Trick Joshua

9All the kings west of the Jordan River heard about these things. These were the kings of the Hittite people, the Amorite people, the Canaanite people, the Perizzite people, the Hivite people, and the Jebusite people. They lived in the hill country and in the plains. They also lived along the sea coast of the Mediterranean Sea as far as Lebanon.

2All these kings came together. They made plans to fight against Joshua and the people of Israel.

3The people from the city of Gibeon heard about the way Joshua had defeated Jericho and Ai. 4So those people decided to try to fool the people of Israel. This was their plan: They gathered together old wineskins that were cracked and broken. They put these old wine skins on the backs of their animals. They put old pieces of cloth on their animals to look like they had traveled from far away. 5The men put old shoes on their feet. The men wore old clothes. The men found some old bread that was dry and moldy. 6Then the men went to the camp of the people of Israel. This camp was near Gilgal.

The men went to Joshua and said to him, “We have traveled from a faraway country. We want to make a peace agreement with you.”

7The men of Israel said to these Hivite men, “Maybe you are trying to trick us. Maybe you live near us. We can’t make a peace agreement with you until we know where you are from.”

8The Hivite men said to Joshua, “We are your servants.”

But Joshua asked, “Who are you? Where do you come from?”

9The men answered, “We are your servants. We have come from a faraway country. We came because we heard of the great power of the Lord your God. We heard about the things he did. We heard about everything he did in Egypt. 10And we heard that he defeated the two kings of the Amorite people east of the Jordan River. This was Sihon, king of Heshbon, and Og, the king of Bashan, in the land of Ashtaroth. 11So our elders (leaders) and our people said to us, ‘Take enough food for your journey. Go and meet with the people of Israel.’ Tell them, ‘We are your servants. Make a peace agreement with us.’

12“See our bread! When we left home it was warm and fresh. But now you can see that it is dry and old. 13See our wineskins! When we left home they were new and filled with wine. Now you can see that they are cracked and old. See our clothes and sandals! You can see that the long journey has almost destroyed the things we wear.”

14The men of Israel wanted to know if these men were telling the truth. So they tasted the bread—but they did not ask the Lord what they should do. 15Joshua agreed to make peace with them. He agreed to let them live. The leaders of Israel agreed with this promise of Joshua.

16Three days later, the people of Israel learned that those men were telling the truth. So they tasted the bread—but they did not ask the Lord what they should do. 17So the people of Israel went to the place where those men lived. On the third day the people of Israel came to the cities of Gibeon, Kephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath Jearim. 18But the army of Israel did not try to fight against those cities. They had made a peace agreement with those people. They had made a promise to the people before the Lord, the God of Israel.

All the people complained against the leaders that made the agreement. 19But the leaders answered, “We have given our promise. We promised before the Lord, the God of Israel. We cannot fight against them now. 20This is what we must do. We must let them live. We cannot hurt them or God will be angry at us because we broke the promise we made to them. 21So let them live. They will cut wood for us and carry water for all of our people.” So the leaders did not break their promise of peace to those people.

22Joshua called the Gibeonite people. He said, “Why did you lie to us? Your land was near our camp. But you told us you were from a faraway country. 23Now, your people will have many troubles. All of your people will be slaves—they will have to cut wood and carry water for the house of God.”

24The Gibeonite people answered, “We lied to you because we were afraid you would kill us. We heard that God commanded his servant Moses to give you all of this land. And God told you to kill all the people that lived in this land. That is why we lied to you. 25Now we are your servants. You can do whatever you think is right.”

26So the people of Gibeon became slaves. But Joshua let them live. Joshua did not allow the people of Israel to kill them. 27Joshua made the people of Gibeon become slaves of the people of Israel. They cut wood and carried water for the people of Israel and for the altar of the Lord—wherever the Lord chose it to be. Those people are still slaves today.

The Day the Sun Stood Still

10At this time Adoni Zedek was the king of Jerusalem. This king heard that Joshua had defeated Ai and completely destroyed it. The king learned that Joshua had done the same thing to Jericho and its king. The king also learned that the people of Gibeon had made a peace agreement with Israel. And those people lived very near Jerusalem. 2So Adoni Zedek and his people were very scared. Gibeon was not a little town like Ai. Gibeon was a very big city—it was as big as any royal city. * And all the men in that city were good fighters. So the king was afraid. 3Adoni Zedek, the king of Jerusalem, talked with Hoham, king of Hebron. He also talked with Piram, king of Jarmuth, Japhia, king of Lachish, and Debir, king of Eglon. The king of Jerusalem begged these men, 4“Come with me and help me to attack Gibeon. Gibeon has made a peace agreement with Joshua and the people of Israel.”

5So these five Amorite kings joined armies. (The five kings were the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.) Those armies went to Gibeon. The armies surrounded the city and began fighting against it.

6The people in the city of Gibeon sent a message to Joshua at his camp at Gilgal. The message said: “We are your servants! Don’t leave us alone. Come and help us! Hurry! Save us! All the Amorite kings from the hill country have brought their armies together to fight against us.”

7So Joshua marched out of Gilgal with his whole army. Joshua’s best fighting men were with him. 8The Lord said to Joshua, “Don’t be afraid of those armies. I will allow you to defeat them. None of those armies will be able to defeat you.”

9Joshua and his army marched all night to Gibeon. The enemy did not know that Joshua was coming. So it was a complete surprise when he attacked them.

10The Lord caused those armies to be very confused when Israel attacked. So Israel defeated them and won a great victory. Israel chased the enemy from Gibeon on the road going to Beth Horon. The army of Israel killed men all the way to Azekah and Makkedah. 11Then the army of Israel chased the enemy down the road from Beth Horon to Azekah. While they were chasing the enemy, the Lord caused large hailstones to fall from... the sky. Many of the enemy were killed by these large hailstones. More men were killed by the hailstones than by the swords of the soldiers of Israel.

12 That day the Lord allowed Israel to defeat the Amorite people. And that day Joshua stood before all the people of Israel and said to the Lord:

“Sun, stop over Gibeon.
Moon, stand still over the Valley of Aijalon.”

13 So the sun did not move, and the moon stopped until the people defeated their enemies. This story is written in the Book of Jashar. The sun stopped in the middle of the sky. It did not move for a full day. 14 That had never happened before. And it has never happened again! That was the day the Lord obeyed a man. The Lord really was fighting for Israel!

15 After this, Joshua and his army went back to the camp at Gilgal. 16 But during the fight, the five kings ran away. They hid in a cave near Makkedah. 17 But someone found them hiding in that cave. Joshua learned about this.

18 Joshua said, “Cover the entrance to the cave with large rocks. Put some men there to guard the cave. 19 But don’t stay there yourselves. Continue chasing the enemy. Continue to attack them from behind. Don’t let the enemy get back to their cities. The Lord your God has given you the victory over them.”

20 So Joshua and the people of Israel killed the enemy. But some of the enemy were able to go to their cities that had tall walls around them and hide. These men were not killed. 21 After the fighting, Joshua’s men came back to him at Makkedah. None of the people in that country were brave enough to say anything against the people of Israel.

22 Joshua said, “Move the rocks that are covering the entrance to the cave. Bring those five kings to me.” 23 So Joshua’s men brought the five kings out of the cave. They were the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon. 24 They brought the five kings to Joshua. Joshua called all his men to come to that place. Joshua said to the officers of his army, “Come here! Put your feet on the necks of these kings.” So the officers of Joshua’s army came close. They put their feet on the necks of the kings.

25 Then Joshua said to his men, “Be strong and brave! Don’t be afraid. I will show you what the Lord will do to all of the enemies that you will fight in the future.”

26 Then Joshua killed the five kings. He hanged their bodies on five trees. Joshua left them hanging in the trees until evening. 27 At sunset Joshua told his men to take the bodies down from the trees. So they threw the bodies into the cave where the kings had been hiding and covered the entrance of the cave with large rocks. Those bodies are still in that cave today.

28 That day Joshua defeated Makkedah. Joshua killed the king and the people in that city. There were no people left living. Joshua did the same thing to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

Taking the Southern Cities

29 Then Joshua and all the people of Israel traveled from Makkedah. They went to Libnah and attacked that city. 30 The Lord allowed the people of Israel to defeat that city and its king. The people of Israel killed every person in that city. No people were left alive. And the people did the same thing to that king as they had done to the king of Jericho.

31 Then Joshua and all the people of Israel left Libnah and went to Lachish. Joshua and his army camped around that city and attacked it. 32 The Lord allowed them to defeat the city of Lachish. They defeated that city on the second day. The people of Israel killed every person in that city, just like they did in Libnah. 33 Horam king of Gezer came to help Lachish, but Joshua also defeated him and his army. Not one of them was left alive.

34 Then Joshua and all the people of Israel traveled from Lachish to Eglon. They camped around Eglon and attacked it. 35 The Lord allowed them to defeat the city of Eglon. They captured the city and killed all the people in the city. This was the same thing they had done to Lachish.

36 Then Joshua and all the people of Israel traveled from Eglon to Hebron. Then they attacked Hebron. 37 They captured the city and all the little towns near Hebron. The people of Israel killed every person in the city. No one was left alive there. This was the same thing they did to Eglon. They destroyed the city and killed all the people in it.

38 Then Joshua and all the people of Israel went back to Debir and attacked that city.

39 They captured that city, its king, and all the little towns near Debir. They killed every person in that city. No one was left alive there. The people of Israel did to Debir and its king the same thing they did to Hebron and its king. This was the same thing they had done to Libnah and its king.

40 So Joshua defeated all the kings of the cities of the hill country, the Negev, the western foothills, and the eastern foothills. The Lord God of Israel had told Joshua to kill all the people. So Joshua did not leave anyone alive in those places.

41 Joshua captured all the cities from Kadesh Barnea to Gaza. He captured all the cities from the land of Goshen (in Egypt) to Gibeon. 42 Joshua captured all those cities and their kings on one trip. Joshua did this because the Lord God of Israel was fighting for Israel. 43 Then Joshua and all the people of Israel returned to their camp at Gilgal.

Defeating the Northern Cities

11 Jabin, king of Hazor, heard about all these things that happened. So he decided to call together the armies of several kings. Jabin sent a message to Jobab, king of Madon, to the king of Shimron, the king of Acsaph, and to the kings of the north, in the hill country and in the desert. Jabin sent the message to the kings of the Kinnereth, the Negev, and the western foothills. Jabin also sent the message to the king of Naphoth Dor in the west. Jabin sent that message to the kings of the Canaanite people in the east and in the west. He sent the message to the Amorite people, the Hittite people, the Perizzite people, and the Jebusite people living in the hill country. He also sent the message to the Hivite people living below Mount Hermon near Mizpah. So the armies of all these kings came together. There were many fighting men and many horses and chariots. It was a very, very large army—it looked like there were as many men as grains of sand on the sea shore.

5 All of these kings met together at the small river of Merom. They joined their armies together into one camp and made plans for the battle against Israel.

6 Then the Lord said to Joshua, “Don’t be afraid of that army. I will allow you to defeat them. By this time tomorrow, you will have killed them all. You will cut the legs of the horses and burn all their chariots.”

7 Joshua and his whole army surprised the enemy. They attacked the enemy at the river of Merom. 8 The Lord allowed Israel to defeat them. The army of Israel defeated them and chased them to Greater Sidon, Misrephoth Maim, and the Valley of Mizpah in the east. The army of Israel fought until none of the enemy was left alive. 9 Joshua did what the Lord said he would do—Joshua cut the legs of their horses and burned their chariots.

10 Then Joshua went back and captured the city of Hazor. Joshua killed the king of Hazor. (Hazor was the leader of all the kingdoms that fought against Israel.) 11 The army of Israel killed every person in that city. They completely destroyed all the people. There was nothing left alive. Then they burned the city.

12 Joshua captured all of these cities. He killed all of their kings. Joshua completely destroyed everything in these cities. He did this the way Moses, the Lord’s servant, had commanded. 13 But the army of Israel did not burn any cities that were built on hills. The only city built on a hill that they burned was Hazor. This is the city Joshua burned. 14 The people of Israel kept for themselves all the things they found in the cities. They kept all the animals that they found in the city. But they killed all the people there. They did not allow any people to be left alive. 15 Long ago the Lord commanded his servant Moses to do this. Then Moses commanded Joshua to do this. So Joshua obeyed God. Joshua did everything that the Lord had commanded Moses.

16 So Joshua defeated all the people in that whole country. He had control over the hill...
JOSHUA 11:17–12:14

country, the Negev, all the area of Goshen, the area of the western foothills, Jordan Valley, and the mountains of Israel and all the hills near them. 17 Joshua had control of all the land from Mount Halak near Seir to Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. Joshua captured all the kings in that land and killed them. 18 Joshua fought against those kings many years. 19 Only one city in all the land made a peace agreement with Israel. That was the Hivite city of Gibeon. All the other cities were defeated in war. 20 The Lord wanted those people to think they were strong. Then they would fight against Israel. This way he could destroy them without mercy. He could destroy them the way the Lord had commanded Moses to do.

21 The Anakite people* lived in the hill country in the area of Hebron, Debir, Anab, and Judah. Joshua fought them and completely destroyed all those people and their towns. 22 There were no Anakite people left living in the land of Israel. The only Anakite people that were left alive were in Gaza, Gath, and Ashdod. 23 Joshua took control of the whole land of Israel, just as the Lord had told Moses long ago. The Lord gave that land to Israel just like he promised. And Joshua divided the land among the family groups of Israel. Finally, the fighting ended and there was peace in the land.

Kings Defeated by Israel

The people of Israel had taken control of the land east of the Jordan River. They had all the land from Arnon Ravine to Mount Hermon and all the land along the eastern side of the Jordan Valley. Here are all of the kings the people of Israel defeated to take this land:

2 They defeated Sihon, the king of the Amorite people living in the city of Heshbon. He ruled the land from Aroer at the Arnon Ravine to the Jabbok River. His land started in the center of that ravine. This was their border with the Ammonite people. Sihon ruled over half of the land of Gilead. 3 He also ruled over the eastern side of Jordan Valley from Lake Galilee to the Dead Sea (Salt Sea). And he ruled from Beth Jeshimoth to the south to the hills of Pisgah.

4 They also defeated Og, king of Bashan. Og was from the Rephite people. He ruled the land in Ashtaroth and Edrei. 5 Og ruled over Mount Hermon, Salecah, and all of the area of Bashan. His land ended where the people of Geshur and Maacah lived. Og also ruled half of the land of Gilead. This land stopped at the land of Sihon, the king of Heshbon.

6 The Lord’s servant Moses and the people of Israel defeated all these kings. And Moses gave that land to the family group of Reuben, the family group of Gad, and half the family group of Manasseh. Moses gave them this land to be their own.

7 The people of Israel also defeated kings in the land that was west of the Jordan River. Joshua led the people in this land. Joshua gave the people this land and divided it among the twelve family groups. This was the land that God promised to give to them. This land was between Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon and Mount Halak near Seir. 8 This included the hill country, the western foothills, the Jordan Valley, the eastern mountains, the desert, and the Negev.* This was the land where the Hittite people, the Amorite people, the Canaanite people, the Perizzite people, the Hivite people, and the Jebusite people lived. Here is a list of the kings the people of Israel defeated:

9 the king of Jericho 1
10 the king of Ai near Bethel 1
11 the king of Jerusalem 1
12 the king of Hebron 1
13 the king of Jarmuth 1
14 the king of Lachish 1
15 the king of Eglon 1
16 the king of Gezer 1
17 the king of Debir 1
18 the king of Hormah 1
19 the king of Arad 1

Anakite people Descendants of Anak. They were a family famous for tall and powerful fighting men. See Num. 13:33.

Negev The desert area south of Judah.
15 the king of Libnah 1
the king of Adullam 1 16 the king of Makkedah 1
the king of Bethel 1 17 the king of Tappuah 1
the king of Hephser 1 18 the king of Aphek 1
the king of Sharon 1 19 the king of Madon 1
the king of Hazor 1 20 the king of Shimron Meron 1
the king of Aschaph 1 21 the king of Taanach 1
the king of Megiddo 1 22 the king of Kedesh 1
the king of Jokneam in Carmel 1 23 the king of Dor at Mount Dor 1
the king of Goyim in Gilgal 1 24 the king of Tirzah 1

Total number of kings 31

Land Not Yet Taken

When Joshua was very old, the Lord said to him, “Joshua you have grown old, but there is still much land for you to take control of. 2You have not yet taken the land of Geshur or the land of the Philistines. 3You have not yet taken the area from the Shihor River* at Egypt to the border of Ekron and the land further north. That land still belongs to the Canaanite people. You must still defeat the five Philistine leaders at Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron. You must also defeat the Avvite people who live south of the Canaanite land. 5You have not yet defeated the area of the Gebalites. And also there is the area of Lebanon east of Baal Gad below Mount Hermon to Lebo Hamath.

6“People of Sidon are living in the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth Maim. But I will force out all of these people for the people of Israel. Be sure to remember this land when you divide the land among the people of Israel. Do this like I told you. 7Now, divide the land among the nine family groups and half of the family group of Manasseh.”

Dividing the Land

8The family groups of Reuben, Gad, and the other half of Manasseh had already taken all of their land. The Lord’s servant, Moses gave them the land east of the Jordan River. 9Their land started at Aror near the Arnon Ravine and continued to the town in the middle of the ravine. And it included the whole plain from Medeba to Dibon. 10All the towns that Sihon the king of the Amorite people ruled were in that land. That king ruled in the city of Heshbon. The land continued to the area where the Amorite people lived. 11Also the town of Gilead was in that land. And the area where the people of Geshur and Maacah lived was in that land. All of Mount Hermon and all of Bashan as far as Salecach was in that land. 12All the kingdom of King Og was in that land. King Og ruled in Bashan. In the past he ruled in Ashtaroth and Edrei. Og was from the Rephaite people. In the past Moses had defeated those people and had taken their land. 13The people of Israel did not force out the people of Geshur and Maacah. Those people still live among the people of Israel today.

14The family group of Levi is the only family group that did not get any land. Instead, the people of Levi get all the animals that are offered by fire to the Lord God of Israel. That is what the Lord promised them.

15Moses had given each family group from the family group of Reuben some land. This is the land they received: 16It was the land from Aror near the Arnon Ravine to the town of Medeba. This included the whole plain and the town in the middle of the ravine. 17The land continued to Heshbon. It included all the towns on the plain. Those towns were Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth Baal Meon, 18Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mephaath, 19Kiriathaim, Sibmah, Zereth Shahar on the hill in the valley, 20Beth Peor, the hills of Pisgah, and Beth Jeshimoth. 21So that land included all the towns on the plain and all the area that Sihon the king of the Amorite people had ruled. That king ruled at the town of Heshbon. But Moses had defeated him and the leaders of the Midianite people. Those leaders were Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba. (All these leaders fought together with

---

Shihor River: Probably one of the eastern branches of the Nile River.
Sihon.) All these leaders lived in that country. 22The people of Israel defeated Balaam son of Beor. (Balaam tried to use magic to tell the future.) The people of Israel killed many people during the fighting. 23The land that was given to Reuben stopped at the shore of the Jordan River. So the land that was given to the family groups of Reuben included all these towns and their fields that were listed.

24This is the land Moses gave to the family group of Gad. Moses gave this land to each family group:

25The land of Jazer and all the towns of Gilead. Moses also gave them half of the land of the Ammonite people as far as Aroer near Rabbah. 26That land included the area from Heshbon to Ramath Mizpah and Betonim. That land included the area from Mahanaim to the land of Debir. 27That land included the valley of Beth Haram, Beth Nimrah, Succoth and Zaphon. All the other land that Sihon, the king of Heshbon, had ruled was included in this land. This is the land on the east side of the Jordan River. The land continued to the end of Lake Galilee. 28All this land is the land Moses gave to the family group of Gad. That land included all the towns that were listed. Moses gave that land to each family group.

29This is the land Moses gave to half of the family group of Manasseh. Half of all the families in the family group of Manasseh got this land:

30The land started at Mahanaaim. The land included all of Bashan, all the land ruled by Og, king of Bashan, all the towns of Jair in Bashan. (In all, there were 60 cities.) 31The land also included half of Gilead, Ashtaroth, and Edrei. (Gilead, Ashtaroth, and Edrei were the cities where king Og had lived.) All this land was given to the family of Makir son of Manasseh. Half of all those sons got this land.

32Moses gave all this land to these family groups. Moses did this while the people were camped on the plains of Moab. This was across the Jordan River, east of Jericho. 33Moses did not give any land to the family group of Levi. The Lord, God of Israel, promised that he himself would be the gift for the family group of Levi.

14Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the leaders of all the family groups of Israel decided what land to give to the people. 2The Lord had commanded Moses long ago the way he wanted the people to choose their land. The people of the nine and a half family groups threw lots to decide which land they would get. 3Moses had already given the two and a half family groups their land east of the Jordan River. But the family group of Levi was not given any land like the other people. 4The twelve family groups were given their own land. The sons of Joseph had divided into two family groups—Manasseh and Ephraim. And each family group received some land. But the people from the family group of Levi were not given any land. They were given only some towns to live in. And these towns were in every family group’s land. They were also given fields for their animals. 5The Lord had told Moses how to divide the land among the family groups of Israel. The people of Israel divided the land the way the Lord had commanded.

Caleb Gets His Land

6One day some people from the family group of Judah went to Joshua at Gilgal. One of those people was Caleb, the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite. Caleb said to Joshua, “You remember the things the Lord said at Kadesh Barnea. The Lord was speaking to Moses, his servant.* The Lord was talking about you and me.

7Moses, the Lord’s servant, sent me to look at the land where we were going. I was 40 years old at that time. When I came back I told Moses what I thought about the land. 8The other men that went with me told the people things that made them afraid. But I truly believed that the Lord would allow us to take that land. 9So that day Moses made a promise to me. He said, ‘That land where you went will become your land. Your children will own that land forever. I will give you that land because you truly believed in the Lord, my God.’

lots Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.
his servant Literally, “the man of God.”
Now, the Lord has kept me alive 45 years—like he said he would do. During that time we all wandered in the desert. Now, here I am, 85 years old. I am still as strong today as I was the day Moses sent me out. I am as ready to fight as I was then. So now, give me the hill country that the Lord promised me that day long ago. At that time, you heard that the strong Anakite people lived there. And the cities were very big and well protected. But now, maybe the Lord will be with me, and I will take that land like the Lord said.”

Joshua blessed Caleb son of Jephunneh. Joshua gave him the city of Hebron as his own. And that city still belongs to the family of Caleb son of Jephunneh, the Kenizzite. That land still belongs to his people because he trusted and obeyed the Lord, God of Israel. In the past that city was called Kiriath Arba. That city was named for the greatest man among the Anakite people—a man named Arba. After this, there was peace in that land.

The land that was given to Judah was divided among the families of that family group. That land went to the border of Edom and south all the way to the desert of Zin at the edge of Teman. The southern border of Judah’s land started at the south end of the Dead Sea. The border went south to Scorpion Pass and continued on to Zin. Then the border continued south to Kadesh Barnea. The border continued past Hezron to Addar. From Addar the border turned and continued to Karka. The border continued to Azmon, the brook of Egypt, and then to the Mediterranean Sea. All that land was on their southern border.

Their eastern border was the shore of the Dead Sea to the area where the Jordan River flowed into the sea. Their northern border started at the area where the Jordan River flowed into the Dead Sea. Then the northern border went to Beth Hoglah and continued north of Beth Arabah. The border continued to the stone of Bohan.

Anakite people Descendants of Anak. They were a family famous for tall and powerful fighting men. See Num. 13:33.
gave his daughter Acsah to Othniel to be his wife. 18 Acsah went to live with Othniel. Othniel told Acsah to ask her father Caleb for some more land. When she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her, “What do you want?” 19 Acsah answered, “Give me a blessing. You gave me dry desert land in the Negev. Please give me some land with water on it.” So Caleb gave her what she wanted. He gave her the upper and lower pools of water in that land.

The family group of Judah got the land that God promised them. Each family group got part of the land. 20 The family group of Judah got all the towns in the southern part of the Negev. These towns were near the border of Edom. Here is a list of those towns: Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur, Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah, Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan, Ziph, Telem, Bealoth, Hazor Hadattah, Kerioth Hezron (Hazor), Amam, Shema, Moladah, Hazar Gaddah, Heshmon, Beth Pelet, Hazar Shual, Beersheba, Bizlothiah, Baalah, Jattir, Eshtemoa, Kiryat Jearim (Jezreel), Zanoah, En Gannim, Tappuah, Enam, Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah, Shaaraim, Adithaim, and Gederah (Gederothaim). In all, there were 29 towns and all their fields.

The family group of Judah also got towns in the western foothills. Here is a list of those towns: Eshtoel, Zorah, Ashnah, Zanoah, En Gannim, Tappuah, Enam, Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah, Shaaraim, Adithaim, and Gederah (Gederothaim). In all, there were 14 towns and all their fields.

The family group of Judah was also given these towns: Zenan, Hadashah, Migdal Gad, Dilean, Mizpah, Joktheel, Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon, Cabbon, Lahmas, Kitish, Gederoth, Beth Dagon, Naaham, and Makkedah. In all, there were 16 towns and all the fields around them.

The people of Judah also got these towns: Libnah, Ether, Ashnah, Iphthah, Ashnah, Nezib, Keilah, Azib, and Mareshah. In all, there were nine towns and all the fields around them.

The people of Judah also got the town of Ekron and all the small towns and fields near it. They also got the area west of Ekron and all the fields and towns near Ashdod. All the area around Ashdod and the small towns there were part of the land of Judah. The people of Judah also got the area around Gaza and fields and the towns that were near it. Their land continued to the River of Egypt. And their land continued along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea.

The people of Judah were also given towns in the hill country. Here is a list of those towns: Shamir, Jattir, Socoh, Dannah, Kiriath Sannah (Debir), Anab, Eshtemoah, Anim, Goshen, Holon, and Giloh. In all, there were eleven towns and all the fields around them.

The people of Judah were also given these towns: Arab, Dumah, Eshan, Janim, Beth Tappuah, Aphek, Huttah, Kiriath Arba (Hebron), and Zior. There were nine towns and all the fields around them.

The people of Judah were also given these towns: Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah, Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah, Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah. In all, there were ten towns and all the fields around them.

The people of Judah were also given these towns: Halhul, Beth Zur, Gedor, Maarath, Beth Anoth, and Eltekon. In all, there were six towns and all the fields around them.

The people of Judah were also given the two towns of Rabbah and Kiriath Beth (Kiriath Jearim).

The people of Judah were also given towns in the desert. Here is a list of those towns: Beth Arabah, Middin, Secacah, Nibshan, Salt City, and En Gedi. In all, there were six towns and all the fields around them.

The army of Judah was not able to force out the Jebusite people living in Jerusalem. So today there are still Jebusite people living among the people of Judah in Jerusalem.

Land for Ephraim and Manasseh

This is the land that the family of Joseph got. This land started at the Jordan River near Jericho and continued to... the waters of Jericho. (This was just east of Jericho.) The border went up from Jericho to the hill country of Bethel. Then the border continued from Bethel (Luz) to the Arkite border at Ataroth. Then the border went west to the border of the Japhletite people. The border continued to Lower Beth Horon. Then the border went to Gezer and continued to the Mediterranean Sea.

4So the people of Manasseh and Ephraim got their land. (Manasseh and Ephraim were sons of Joseph.)

5This is the land that was given to the people of Ephraim: Their eastern border started at Ataroth Addar near Upper Beth Horon. And the western border started at Micmethath. The border turned to the east to Taanath Shiloh and continued east to Janoah. Then the border went from Janoah down to Ataroth and to Naarah. The border continued until it touched Jericho and stopped at the Jordan River. The border went from Tappuah west to Kanah Ravine and ended at the sea. This is all the land that was given to the Ephraim people. Each family in that family group got a part of this land. Many of the border towns of Ephraim were actually in Manasseh’s borders, but the people of Ephraim got those towns and the fields around them. But the Ephraimite people were not able to force the Canaanite people to leave the town of Gezer. So the Canaanite people still live among the Ephraimite people today. But the Canaanite people became slaves of the Ephraimite people.

17Then land was given to the family group of Manasseh. Manasseh was Joseph’s first son. Manasseh’s first son was Makir, the father of Gilead. Makir was a great soldier, so the areas of Gilead and Bashan were given to the Makir family. Land was also given to the other families in the family group of Manasseh. Those families were Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hepher, and Shemida. All these men were the other sons of Manasseh, the son of Joseph.

The families of these men got their share of the land.

3Zelophehad was the son of Hepher. Hepher was the son of Gilead. Gilead was the son of Makir, and Makir was the son of Manasseh. Zelophehad did not have any sons, but he had five daughters. The daughters were named Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. The daughters went to Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and all the leaders. The daughters said, “The Lord told Moses to give us land the same as our male relatives.” So he obeyed the Lord and gave the daughters some land. So these daughters got land the same as their uncles.

5So the family group of Manasseh had ten areas of land west of the Jordan River and two more areas of land, Gilead and Bashan, on the other side of the Jordan River. So these women from the family group of Manasseh got land the same as the men. The land of Gilead was given to the rest of the families of Manasseh.

7The lands of Manasseh were in the area between Asher and Micmethath. This is near Shechem. The border went south to the En Tappuah area. The land around Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but the town itself did not. The town of Tappuah was at the border of Manasseh’s land and it belonged to the people of Ephraim. The border of Manasseh continued south to Kanah Ravine. This area belonged to Manasseh’s family group, but the cities belonged to the people of Ephraim. Manasseh’s border was on the north side of the river and it continued west to the Mediterranean Sea. The land to the south belonged to Ephraim. And the land to the north belonged to Manasseh. The Mediterranean Sea was the western border. The border touched Asher’s land in the north and Issachar’s land in the east.

11The people of Manasseh also had towns in the area of Issachar and Asher. Beth Shean, Ibleam and the small towns around them belonged to the people of Manasseh. People of Manasseh also lived in Dor, Endor, Taanach, Megiddo, and the small towns around those cities. They also lived in the three towns of Naphoth.
Manasseh were not able to defeat those cities. So the Canaanite people continued to live there. But the people of Israel grew strong. When this happened, they forced the people of Canaan to work for them. But they did not force the Canaanite people to leave that land.

The family group of Joseph spoke to Joshua and said, “You gave us only one area of land. But we are many people. Why did you only give us one part of all the land that the Lord gave his people?”

Joshua answered them, “If you have too many people, then go up to wooded area in the hill country and clear that land and make it useable. That land now belongs to the Perizzite people and the Rephaite people. But if the hill country of Ephraim is too small for you, then go take that land.”

The people of Joseph said, “It is true that the hill country of Ephraim is not large enough for us. But the Canaanite people living there have powerful weapons—they have iron chariots!* And those people control Jezreel Valley, Beth Shean and all the small towns in that area.”

Then Joshua said to the people of Joseph, to Ephraim, and to Manasseh, “But there are many, many of you. And you are very powerful. You should get more than one share of the land. You will take the hill country. It is a forest, but you can cut down the trees and make it a good place to live. And you will own all of it. You will force the Canaanite people to leave that land. You will defeat them even if they are strong and have powerful weapons.”

Dividing the Rest of the Land

All of the Israelite people gathered together at Shiloh. At that place they set up the Meeting Tent.* The people of Israel controlled that country. They had defeated all the enemies in that land. But at this time there were still seven family groups of Israel that had not yet gotten the land God had promised them.

So Joshua said to the people of Israel, “Why do you wait so long to take your land? The Lord, the God of your fathers, has given this land to you. So each of your family groups should choose three men. I will send those men out to study the land. They will describe that land, and then they will come back to me. They will divide the land into seven parts. The people of Judah will keep their land in the south. The people of Joseph will keep their land in the north. But you should describe the land and divide it into seven parts. Bring the map to me, and we will let the Lord our God decide which family group will get which land.* The Levite people do not get a share of the land. Their share is to serve the Lord as priests. Gad, Reuben, and half the family group of Manasseh have already received the land that was promised to them. They are on the east side of the Jordan River. Moses, the Lord’s servant, already gave them that land.”

So the men that were chosen went to look at the land and write a description of it. Joshua told them, “Go all through the land and write a description of it. Then come back to me at Shiloh. Then I will throw lots* and let the Lord divide the land for you.”

So the men went into the land. The men went all through the land and wrote a description of it for Joshua. They listed all the cities and divided the land into seven parts. Then they went back to Joshua at Shiloh.

Joshua threw lots* for them in front of the Lord at Shiloh. In this way, Joshua divided the land and gave each family group its part of the land.

Land for Benjamin

The family group of Benjamin was given the land that was between the areas of Judah and Joseph. Each family in the family group of Benjamin got their land. This is the land... that was chosen for Benjamin: 12 The northern border started at the Jordan River. The border went along the northern edge of Jericho. Then the border went west into the hill country. The border continued until it was just east of Beth Aven. 13 Then the border went south to Luz (Bethel). Then the border went down to Ataroth Addar. Ataroth Addar is on the hill south of Lower Beth Horon. 14 At the hill south of Beth Horon, the border turned south and went along the west side of the hill. The border went to Kiriath Baal (also called Kiriath Jearim). This town belonged to the people of Judah. This was the western border.

15 The southern border started near Kiriath Jearim and went to the River of Nephthoah. 16 Then the border went down to the bottom of the hill near the valley of Ben Hinnom, north of Rephaim Valley. The border continued down Hinnom Valley just south of the Jebusite city. Then the border went on to En Rogel. 17 There, the border turned north and went to En Shemesh. The border continued to Geliloth. (Geliloth is near the Adummim Pass in the mountains.) The border went down to the Great Stone that was named for Bohan, the son of Reuben. 18 The border continued to the northern part of Beth Arabah. Then the border went down into the Jordan Valley. 19 Then the border went to the northern part of Beth Hoglah and ended at the north shore of the Dead Sea. This is where the Jordan River flows into that sea. That was the southern border.

20 The Jordan River was the eastern border. So this was the land that was given to the family group of Benjamin. Those were the borders on all sides. 21 Each family got its land. These are their cities: Jericho, Beth Hoglah, Emek Keziz, Beth Arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel, Avvim, Parah, Ophrah, Kephirah, Mozah, Rekem, Hebron, Zelah, Haeleph, the Jebusite city (Jerusalem), Gibeah, and Kiriath. There were twelve cities and their fields around them.

25 The family group of Benjamin also got Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth, Mizpah, Kephirah, Mozah, Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah, Zelah, Haeleph, the Jebusite city (Jerusalem), Gibeah, and Kiriath. There were 14 cities and the fields around them. The family group of Benjamin got all these areas.

19 Then Joshua gave all the families in the family group of Simeon their share of the land. The land they got was inside the area that belonged to Judah. This is what they got: Beersheba (also called Sheba), Moladah, Hazar Shual, Balah, Ezem, Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah, Ziklag, Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susah, Beth Lebaoth, and Sharuhen. There were 13 towns and all the fields around them.

They also got the towns of Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan. There were four towns and all the fields around them. They also got all the fields around the cities as far as Baalath Beer (Ramah in the Negev). So that was the area that was given to the family group of Simeon. Each family got its land. Simeon's share of land was within the area that Judah got. The people of Judah had more land than they needed, so the people of Simeon got part of their land.

Land for Zebulun

10 The next family group that got their land was Zebulun. Each family in Zebulun got the land that was promised to them. The border of Zebulun went as far as Sarid. 11 Then the border went west to Maralah and just touched Dabbesheth. Then the border went along the ravine near Jokneam. 12 Then the border turned to the east. It went from Sarid to Kisloth Tabor. Then the border went on to Daberath and to Japhia. 13 Then the border continued to the east to Gath Hepher and Eth Kazin. The border ended at Rimmon. Then the border turned and went to Neah. 14 At Neah the border turned again and went north to Hannathon and then continued to the Valley of Iphthah El. Inside this border were the cities of Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem. In all, there were twelve towns and all the fields around them.

16 So these are the towns and fields around them that were given to Zebulun. Each family in Zebulun got its part of the land.

Land for Issachar

17 The fourth part of the land was given to the family group of Issachar. Each family in that family group got its part of the land. 18 This is the land that was given to that family group: Jezreel, Kesulloth, Shunem, Hapharaim, Shion, Anaharath, Rabbith, Kishion, Ebez, Remeth, En Gannim, En Haddah, and Beth Pazzez.

22 The border of their land touched Tabor, Shahazumah, and Beth Shemesh. The border stopped at the Jordan River. In all, there were 16 towns and the fields around them. 23 These cities and towns were part of the land that was given to the family group of Issachar. Each family got its part of the land.

Land for Asher

24 The fifth part of land was given to the family group of Asher. Each family in that family group got its part of the land. 25 This is the land that was given to that family group: Helkath, Hali, Beten, Acshaph, Allammelech, Amad, and Mishal.

The western border continued to Mount Carmel and Shihor Libnath. 27 Then the border turned to the east. The border went to Beth Dagon. The border touched Zebulun and the Valley of Iphtah El. Then the border went north of Beth Emek and Neiel. The border passed north of Cabul. 28 Then the border went to Abdon,* Rehob, Hammon, and Kanah. The border continued to the Greater Sidon area. 29 Then the border went back south to Ramah. The border continued to the strong city of Tyre. Then the border turned and went to Hosah. The border ended at the sea, near Aczib, Ummah, Aphek, and Rehob.

In all there were 22 towns and the fields around them. 31 These cities and the fields around them were given to the family group of Asher. Each family in that family group got its share of the land.

Land for Naphtali

32 The sixth part of land was given to the family group of Naphtali. Each family in that family group got its share of the land. 33 The border of their land started at the large tree near Zaanannim. This is near Heleph. Then the border went through Adami Nekeb and Jabneel. The border continued to Lakkum and ended at the Jordan River. 34 Then the border went to the west through Aznoth Tabor. The border stopped at Hukkok. The southern border touched Zebulun and the western border touched Asher. The border went to Judah, at the Jordan River to the east. 35 There were some very strong cities inside these borders. Those cities were Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Kinnereth. 36 Adamah, Ramah, Hazor, Kedesh, Edrei, En Hazor, Iron, Migdal El, Horem, Beth Anath, and Beth Shemesh. In all, there were 19 towns and all the fields around them.

37 These cities and the fields around them were given to the family group of Naphtali. Each family in that family group got its land.

Land for Dan

40 Then land was given to the family group of Dan. Each family in that family group got its land. 41 This is the land that was given to them: Zorah, Eshtaol, Ir Shemesh, Shaalabbin, Aijalon, Ithlah, Elon, Timnah, Ekron, Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath, Jehud, Bene Berak, Gath Rimmon, Me Jarkon, Rakkon, and the area near Joppa.

42 But the people of Dan had trouble taking their land. There were strong enemies there and the people of Dan could not easily defeat them. So the people of Dan went to the northern part of Israel and fought against Laish.* They defeated Laish and killed the people who lived there. So the people of Dan lived in the town of Laish. They changed the name to Dan because that was the name of the father of their family group. 43 All of these cities and fields around them were given to the family group of Dan. Each family got its share of the land.

Land for Joshua

49 So the leaders finished dividing the land and giving it to the different family groups. After they finished, all the people of Israel decided to give Joshua son of Nun some land too. This was land that was promised to him.

*Abdon Or, “Ebron.”

*Laish Or, “Leshem.”
The Lord had commanded that he get this land. So they gave Joshua the town of Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim. This was the town that Joshua told them he wanted. So Joshua built the town stronger and lived there.

So all of these lands were given to the different family groups of Israel. Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the leaders of each family group met together at Shiloh to divide the land. They met before the Lord at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. So they finished dividing the land.

Cities of Safety

Then the Lord said to Joshua: 2 "I used Moses to give you a command. Moses told you to choose cities to be special cities of safety. 3 If any person kills another person, but it is an accident and he did not mean to kill that person, then he can go to a city of safety to hide from the relatives who want to kill him.

4 "This is what that person must do. When he runs away and goes to one of those cities, he must stop at the entrance of the city. He must stand at the gate and tell the leaders of the people what happened. Then the leaders can allow him to enter the city. They will give him a place to live among them. 5 But the man who is chasing that person might follow him to that city. If this happens, the leaders of the city must not give him up. They must protect the person who came to them for safety because he killed a person by accident. He was not angry and did not plan to kill the person. It was something that just happened.

6 That person should stay in the city until he has been judged by the court in that city. And he should stay in that city until the time that the high priest dies. Then he can go back to his own home in the town he ran away from."

7 So the people of Israel chose some cities to be called “Cities of Safety.” These cities were:

- Timnath Serah Or, “Timnath Heres.”
- Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

Kedesh in Galilee, in the hill country of Naphtali; Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim; Kiriath Arba (Hebron) in the hill country of Judah.

Bezer, east of the Jordan River across from Jericho, in the desert area in the land of Reuben; Ramoth in Gilead in the land of Gad; Golan in Bashan in the land of Manasseh.

Any Israelite or any foreigner living among them who killed someone accidentally was allowed to run away to one of those cities of safety. Then the person could be safe there and would not be killed by anyone who was chasing him. The person would be judged by the court in that city.

Towns for Priests and Levites

The family rulers of the Levite family group went to talk to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua son of Nun, and the rulers of the other family groups of Israel. 2 This happened at the town of Shiloh in the land of Canaan. The Levite rulers said to them, “The Lord gave Moses a command. He commanded that you give us towns to live in. And he commanded that you give us fields where our animals can eat.” 3 So the people of Israel obeyed this command from the Lord. They gave the Levite people these towns and the land around them for their animals:

4 The Kohath family were descendants of Aaron the priest from the family group of Levi. Part of the Kohath family was given 13 towns in the areas that belonged to Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin.

5 The other Kohath families were given ten towns in the areas that belonged to Ephraim, Dan, and half of Manasseh.

6 The people from the Gershon family were given 13 towns. These towns were in the areas that belonged to Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and the half of Manasseh that was in Bashan.

7 The people from the Merari family were given twelve towns. These twelve towns came from the areas that belonged to Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun.
So the people of Israel gave the Levites these towns and the fields around them, just like the Lord had told Moses. These are the names of the towns that were in the areas that belonged to Judah and Simeon. The first choice of towns was given to Levites from the Kohath family. They gave them Kiriath Arba (This is Hebron. It was named for a man named Arba. Arba was the father of Anak.) They also gave them some land near the town for their animals. But the fields and the small towns around the city of Kiriath Arba belonged to Caleb son of Jephunneh. So they gave the city of Hebron to Aaron’s descendants. (Hebron was a city of safety.) They also gave Aaron’s descendants the towns of Libnah, Jattir, Eshtemoa, Holon, Debir, Ain, Juttah, and Beth Shemesh. They also gave them some of the land near these towns for their animals. They gave nine towns to these two groups. They also gave Aaron’s descendants cities that belonged to the family group of Benjamin. These cities were Gibeon, Geba, Anathoth, and Almon. They gave them these four towns and some of the land near the towns for their animals. In all, they gave 13 towns to the priests. (All priests were descendants of Aaron.) They also gave them some land near each town for their animals. The other people from the Kohathite family were given towns that were in the areas that belonged to the family group of Ephraim. They got these towns: The city of Shechem from the hill country of Ephraim. (Shechem was a city of safety.) They also got Gezer, Kibzaim, and Beth Horon. In all, Ephraim gave them four towns and some land around each town for their animals. The family group of Dan gave them Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Aijalon, and Gath Rimmon. In all, Dan gave them four towns and some land around each town for their animals. Half of the family group of Manasseh gave them Golan in Bashan. (Golan was a city of safety.) Manasseh also gave them Be Eshtarrah. In all, this half of Manasseh gave them two towns and some land around each town for their animals. The family group of Issachar gave them Kishion, Daberath, Jarmuth, and En Gannim. In all, Issachar gave them four towns and some land around each town for their animals. The family group of Asher gave them Mishal, Abdon, Helkath, and Rehob. In all, Asher gave them four towns and some land around each town for their animals. The family group of Naphtali gave them Kedesh in Galilee. (Kedesh was a city of safety.) Naphtali also gave them Hammoth Dor and Kartan. In all, Naphtali gave them three towns and some land around each town for their animals. In all, the Gershon family got 13 towns and some land around each town for their animals. The other Levite group was the Merari family. The Merari family got these towns: The family group of Zebulun gave them Jokneam, Kartah, Dimnah, and Nahalal. In all, Zebulun gave them four towns and some land around each town for their animals. The family group of Reuben gave them Bezer, Jahaz, Kedemoth, and Mephaath. In all, Reuben gave them four towns and some land around each town for their animals. The family group of Gad gave them Ramoth in Gilead. (Ramoth was a city of safety.) They also gave them Mahanaim, Heshbon, and Jazer. In all, Gad gave them four towns and some land around each town for their animals. In all, the last family of Levites, the Merari family, got twelve towns. So the Levites got a total of 48 towns and some land around each town for their animals. All these towns were in areas that belonged to the other family groups. Each of these towns had some land in it for their animals. That was true for every town. So the Lord kept the promise that he had made to the people of Israel. He gave the people all the land that he had promised. The people took the land and lived there. And the Lord allowed them to have peace on all sides of their land, just like he had promised their ancestors. None of their enemies defeated them. The Lord allowed the people of Israel to defeat every enemy. The Lord kept every promise that he made to the people of Israel. There were no promises that he failed to keep. Every promise came true.

Three Family Groups Go Home

Then Joshua called a meeting of all the people from the family groups of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh. Joshua said to them, “Moses was the Lord’s servant. You obeyed all things that Moses told you to do. And also, you obeyed all of my commands. And all this time you have supported all the other people of Israel. You carefully obeyed all the commands that the Lord your God gave you. The Lord your God promised to give the people of Israel peace. And now, the Lord has kept his promise. So now you can go home. The Lord’s servant Moses gave you the land on the east side of the Jordan River. Now you can go home to that land. But remember—continue to obey the law that Moses gave you. You must love the Lord your God and obey his commands. You must continue to follow him and serve him the very best that you can.”

Then Joshua said goodbye to them and they left. They went home. Moses had given the land of Bashan to half of the Manasseh family group. Joshua gave land on the west side of the Jordan River to the other half of the Manasseh family group. Joshua blessed them and sent them home. He said, “You have become very rich. You have many animals. You have gold and silver and expensive jewelry. You have many beautiful clothes. You have taken many things from your enemies. Go home and divide these things among yourselves.”

So the people from the family groups of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh left the other people of Israel. They were at Shiloh in Canaan. They left that place and went back to Gilead. They went home to their own land—the land that Moses gave them. The Lord had commanded Moses to give them this land.

The people of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh went to the place called Geliloth. This was near the Jordan River in the land of Canaan. At that place the people built a beautiful altar. But the other people of Israel that were still at Shiloh heard about the altar that these three family groups built. They heard that the altar was at the border of Canaan at the place called Geliloth. It was near the Jordan River on Israel’s side. All the people of Israel became very angry at these three family groups. They met together and decided to fight against them.

So the people of Israel sent some men to talk to the people of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh. The leader of these men was Phinehas, son of Eleazar the priest. They also sent ten of the leaders of the family groups there. There was one man from each family group of Israel that was at Shiloh.

So these eleven men went to Gilead. They went to talk to the people of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh. The eleven men said to them, “All the people of Israel ask you: Why did you do this thing against the God of Israel? Why did you turn against the Lord? Why did you build an altar for yourselves? You know that this is against God’s teachings! Remember what happened at Peor? We are still suffering because of that sin. Because of that great sin, God caused many of the people of Israel to become very sick. And we are still suffering because of that sickness today. And now you are doing the same thing! You are turning against the Lord! Will you refuse to follow the Lord? If you don’t stop what you are doing, the Lord will be angry with every person in Israel.

If your land is not a good enough place to worship, then come over into our land. The Lord’s Tent is in our land. You can have some of our land and live there. But don’t turn against the Lord. Don’t build another altar. We already have the altar of the Lord our God at the Meeting Tent.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
20“Remember the man named Achan son of Zerah. He refused to obey the command about things that must be destroyed. That one man broke God’s law, but all the people of Israel were punished. Achan died because of his sin. But also many other people died.”

21The people from the family groups of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh answered the eleven men. They said, 22“The Lord is our God! Again we say that the Lord is our God!* And God knows why we did this thing. We want you to know also. You can judge what we did. If you believe that we have done something wrong, then you can kill us. 23If we broke God’s law, then we ask the Lord himself to punish us. 24Do you think we built this altar for burnt offerings, grain offerings and fellowship offerings? No! We did not build it for that reason. Why did we build this altar? We were afraid that in the future your people would not accept us as part of your nation. Then your people would say to us, ‘You people of Reuben and Gad aren’t part of Israel!’ Then your children would make our children stop worshiping the Lord.

25God gave us land on the other side of the Jordan River. This means that the Jordan River separates us. We were afraid that when your children grow up and rule your land, they would not remember that we were also your people. They would say to us, ‘You people of Reuben and Gad aren’t part of Israel!’ Then your children would make our children stop worshipping the Lord.

26“So we decided to build this altar. But we did not plan to use it for burning offerings and sacrifices. 27The real reason we wanted our altar was to show our people that we worship the same God as you. This altar will be the proof to you and to us and to all our future children that we worship the Lord. We give our sacrifices, grain offerings and fellowship offerings to the Lord. We wanted your children to grow up and know that we are also people of Israel like yourselves. 28In the future, if it happens that your children say that we do not belong to Israel, then our children can say, ‘Look! Our fathers who lived before us made an altar. That altar is exactly like the Lord’s altar at the Holy Tent. We do not use this altar for sacrifices—this altar is proof that we are part of Israel.’

29“Truly, we do not want to be against the Lord. We don’t want to stop following him now. We know that the only true altar is the one that is in front of the Holy Tent. That altar belongs to the Lord our God.”

30Phinehas the priest and the leaders with him heard these things the people from Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh said. They were satisfied that these people were telling the truth. 31So Phinehas the priest said, “Now we know that the Lord is with us. And we know that you did not turn against him. We are happy that the people of Israel will not be punished by the Lord.”

32Then Phinehas and the leaders left that place and went home. They left the people of Reuben and Gad in the land of Gilead and went back to Canaan. They went back to the people of Israel and told them what happened. 33The people of Israel were also satisfied. They were happy and thanked God. They decided not to go and fight against the people of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh. They decided not to destroy the land where those people live.

34The people of Reuben, and Gad gave the altar a name. They called it, “Proof That We Believe the Lord is God.”

Joshua Encourages the People

23The Lord gave Israel peace from their enemies around them. The Lord made Israel safe. Many years passed, and Joshua became very old. 2At this time, Joshua called a meeting of all the older leaders, heads of families, judges, and officers of the people of Israel. Joshua said, “I have grown very old. 3You have seen the things that the Lord did to help us. The Lord your God fought for you. Remember that I told you your people could have that land between the Jordan River and the Mediterranean Sea in the west. I promised to give you that land, but you don’t control it yet. 5But the Lord your God will force the people living there to leave. You will take that land. The Lord will force the people living there to leave! The Lord your God promised to do this for you.

6 "You must be careful to obey all the things the Lord has commanded us. Obey everything that is written in the Book of the Law* of Moses. Don’t turn away from that law. 7There are still some people living among us that are not people of Israel. Those people worship their own gods. Don’t become friends with those people. Don’t serve or worship their gods. 8 You must continue to follow the Lord your God. You have done this in the past, and you must continue to do it.

9 The Lord helped you to defeat many great and powerful nations. The Lord forced those people to leave. No nation has been able to defeat you. 10 With the Lord’s help, one man from Israel could defeat 1,000 enemy soldiers.
Why? Because the Lord your God fights for you. The Lord promised to do this. 11 So you must continue to love the Lord your God.

12 Don’t stop following the Lord. Don’t become friends with these other people that are not part of Israel. Don’t marry any of their people. But if you do become friends with these people, 13 then the Lord your God will not help you to defeat your enemies. These people will become like a trap for you. They will cause you pain—like smoke and dust in your eyes. And you will be forced to leave this good land. The Lord your God gave you this land. But you can lose it if you don’t obey this command.

14 It is almost time for me to die. You know and truly believe that the Lord has done many great things for you. You know that he has not failed in any of his promises. The Lord has kept every promise that he has made to us. 15 Every good promise that the Lord your God made to us has come true. But in the same way, the Lord will make his other promise come true. He promised that if you do wrong, then bad things will happen to you.
He promised that he will force you to leave this good land that he gave you. 16 This will happen if you refuse to keep your agreement with the Lord your God. You will lose this

Joshua Says Goodbye

24 Joshua called all the family groups of Israel to meet together at Shechem.
Then Joshua called the older leaders, the heads of the families, the judges, and the officers and the rulers and the judges of Israel.
These men stood before God.

Then Joshua spoke to all the people. He said, “I am telling you what the Lord, the God of Israel, says to you:

A long time ago, your ancestors lived on the other side of the Euphrates River.
I am talking about men like Terah, the father of Abraham and Nahor. At that time, those men worshiped other gods.

3 But I, the Lord, took your father Abraham out of the land on the other side of the River. I led him through the land of Canaan and gave him many, many children. I gave Abraham his son named Isaac. 4 And I gave Isaac two sons named Jacob and Esau. To Esau, I gave the land around the mountains of Seir.
Jacob and his sons did not live there.
They went to live in the land of Egypt.

5 Then I sent Moses and Aaron to Egypt. I wanted them to bring my people out of Egypt. I caused many terrible things to happen to the people of Egypt.
Then I brought your people out of Egypt.
6 So I brought your ancestors out of Egypt. They came to the Red Sea, and the men of Egypt were chasing them.
There were chariots and men on horses.
7 So the people asked me, the Lord, for help. And I caused great trouble to come to the men of Egypt. I, the Lord, caused the sea to cover them. You yourselves saw what I did to the army of Egypt.

After that, you lived in the desert for a long time. 8 Then I brought you to the land of the Amorite people. This was east of the Jordan River. Those people fought against you, but I allowed you to defeat them. I gave you the power to destroy those people. Then you took control of that land.

9 Then Balak, the son of Zippor, the king of Moab, prepared to fight against the people of Israel. The king sent for Balaam the son of Beor. He asked Balaam to curse you. 10 But I, the Lord, refused to listen to Balaam. So Balaam asked for good things to happen to you! He blessed you many times. I saved you and brought you out of trouble.

11 Then you went across the Jordan River to the city of Jericho. The people in Jericho fought against you. Also, the Amorite people, the Perizzite people, the Canaanite people, the Hittite people, the Girgashite people, the Hivite people, and the Jebusite people fought against you. But I allowed you to defeat all of them. 12 While your army traveled forward, I sent the Hornet* ahead of them. The hornet made the people leave. So you took the land* without using your swords and bows.

13 I, the Lord, gave that land to you! You didn’t work for that land—I gave it to you! You did not build those cities—I gave them to you! And now you live in that land and in those cities. You have gardens of grapevines and olive trees, but you did not have to plant those gardens.”

14 Then Joshua said to the people, “Now you have heard the Lord’s words. So you must respect the Lord and truly serve him. Throw away the false gods that your ancestors worshiped. That was something that happened a long time ago on the other side of the Euphrates River and in Egypt. Now you must serve only the Lord.

15 But maybe you don’t want to serve the Lord. You must choose for yourselves today. Today you must decide who you will serve. Will you serve the gods that your ancestors worshiped when they lived on the other side of the Euphrates River? Or will you serve the gods of the Amorite people that lived in this land? You must choose for yourselves. But as for me and my family, we will serve the Lord!”

16 Then the people answered, “We will never stop following the Lord. We will never serve other gods! 17 We know that it was the Lord God who brought our people out of Egypt. We were slaves in that land. But the Lord did great things for us there. He brought us out of that land and protected us while we traveled through other lands. 18 The Lord helped us to defeat the people living in these lands. The Lord helped us to defeat the Amorite people who lived in this land where we are now. So we will continue to serve the Lord. Why? Because he is our God.”

19 Then Joshua said, “That is not true. You will not be able to continue serving the Lord. The Lord God is holy. And God hates his people worshiping other gods. God will not forgive you if you turn against him like that. 20 But you will leave the Lord and serve other gods. And the Lord will cause terrible things to happen to you. The Lord will destroy you. The Lord God has been good to you, but if you turn against him he will destroy you.”

21 But the people said to Joshua, “No! We will serve the Lord.”

22 Then Joshua said, “Look around at yourselves and the people with you here. Do you all know and agree that you have chosen to serve the Lord? Are you all witnesses to this?”

The people answered, “Yes, it is true! We all see that we have chosen to serve the Lord.”

23 Then Joshua said, “So throw away the false gods that you have among you. Love the Lord the God of Israel with all your heart.”

24 Then the people said to Joshua, “We will serve the Lord our God. We will obey him.”

25 So that day Joshua made an agreement for the people. Joshua made this agreement at the town called Shechem. It became a law for them to follow. 26 Joshua wrote these things in the Book of the Law of God. Then Joshua found a large stone. 27 This stone was proof of this agreement. He put the stone under the oak tree near the Lord’s Holy Tent.

27 Then Joshua said to all the people, “This stone will help you remember the things we said today. This stone was here when the Lord was speaking to us today. So this stone will be something that helps you remember what happened today. The stone will be a witness against you. It will stop you from turning against the Lord your God."

28Then Joshua told the people to go home. So every person went back to his own land.

Joshua Dies

29After that Joshua son of Nun died. Joshua was 110 years old. 30Joshua was buried on his own land at Timnath Serah. This was in the hill country of Ephraim north of Mount Gaash.

31The people of Israel had served the Lord during the time Joshua was living. And after Joshua died, the people continued to serve the Lord. The people continued to serve the Lord while their leaders were alive. These were the leaders that had seen the things that the Lord had done for Israel.

Joseph Comes Home

32When the people of Israel left Egypt, they carried the bones from the body of Joseph with them. So the people buried the bones of Joseph at Shechem. They buried the bones on the land that Jacob had bought from the sons of Hamor, the father of the man named Shechem. Jacob had bought that land for 100 pieces of pure silver. This land belonged to Joseph’s children.

33Aaron’s son, Eleazar, died and was buried at Gibeah in the hill country of Ephraim. Gibeah had been given to Eleazar’s son Phinehas.
Judges

Joshua died. Then the people of Israel prayed to the Lord. They said, “Which of our family groups should be the first to go and fight for us against the Canaanite people?”

The Lord said to the Israelite people, “The family group of Judah will go. I will let them take this land.”

The men of Judah asked for help from their brothers from the family group of Simeon. The men of Judah said, “Brothers, the Lord promised to give each of us some land. If you will come and help us fight for our land, then we will go and help you fight for your land.” The men of Simeon agreed to help their brothers from Judah fight.

The Lord helped the men of Judah defeat the Canaanites and the Perizzites. The men of Judah killed 10,000 men at the city of Bezek.

In the city of Bezek the men of Judah found the ruler of Bezek* and fought him. The men of Judah defeated the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

The ruler of Bezek* tried to escape. But the men of Judah chased him and caught him. When they caught him, they cut off his thumbs and big toes. Then the ruler of Bezek said, “I cut the thumbs and big toes off of 70 kings. And those kings had to eat pieces of food that fell from my table. Now God has paid me back for the things I did to those kings.” The men of Judah took the ruler of Bezek to Jerusalem and he died there.

The men of Judah fought against Jerusalem and captured it. The men of Judah used their swords to kill the people of Jerusalem. Then they burned the city.

The men of Judah went down to fight against some more Canaanites. Those Canaanites lived in the hill country, in the Negev,* and in the western foothills.

Then the men of Judah went to fight against the Canaanite people that lived in the city of Hebron. (Hebron used to be called Kiriath Arba.) The men of Judah defeated the men named Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai.*

Caleb and His Daughter

The men of Judah left that place. They went to the city of Debir to fight against the people there. (In the past, Debir was called Kiriath Sepher.) Before the men of Judah started to fight, Caleb made a promise to the men. Caleb said, “I want to attack Kiriath Sepher. I will give my daughter Acsah to the man that attacks and captures that city. I will let that man marry my daughter.”

Caleb had a younger brother named Kenaz. Kenaz had a son named Othniel. Othniel captured the city of Kiriath Sepher. So Caleb gave his daughter Acsah to Othniel to be his wife.

Acsah went to live with Othniel. Othniel told Acsah* to ask her father for some land. Acsah went to her father. When she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her, “What is wrong?”

Acsah answered Caleb, “Give me a blessing.* You gave me dry desert land in the Negev.* Please give me some land with water on it.” So Caleb gave her what she wanted.

Negev  The desert area south of Judah.
Sheshai, Ahiman, Talmai  Three sons of a man named Anak. They were giants. See Num. 13:22.
Othniel told Acsah  Or, “Acsah told Othniel.”
Give me a blessing  Or, “Please welcome me.” Or, “Give me a stream of water.”
He gave her the upper and lower pools of water in that land.

16 The Kenite people left the City of Palm Trees (Jericho) and went with the men of Judah. Those people went to the Desert of Judah to live with the people there. This was in the Negev near the city Arad. (The Kenite people were from the family of Moses’ father-in-law.)

17 Some Canaanite people lived in the city of Zephath. So the men of Judah and men from the family group of Simeon attacked those Canaanite people. They completely destroyed the city. So they named the city Hormah.

18 The men of Judah also captured the city of Gaza and the small towns around it. The men of Judah also captured the cities of Ashkelon and Ekron and all the small towns around them.

19 The Lord was on the side of the men of Judah when they fought. They took the land in the hill country. But the men of Judah failed to take the land in the valleys, because the people living there had iron chariots.

20 Moses had promised to give the land near Hebron to Caleb. So that land was given to Caleb’s family. The men of Caleb forced the three sons of Anak to leave that place.

The Men of Benjamin Settle in Jerusalem

21 The family group of Benjamin could not force the Jebusite people to leave Jerusalem. So even today, the Jebusite people live with the people of Benjamin in Jerusalem.

The Men of Joseph Capture Bethel

22–23 Men from the family group of Joseph went to fight against the city of Bethel. (In the past, Bethel was named Luz.) The Lord was on the side of the men from the family group of Joseph. The men from the family of Joseph sent some spies to the city of Bethel. These men looked for ways to defeat the city of Bethel. While the spies were watching the city of Bethel, they saw a man come out of the city. The spies said to the man, “Show us a secret way into the city. We will attack the city. But if you help us, we will not hurt you.”

25 The man showed the spies the secret way into the city. The men of Joseph used their swords to kill the people of Bethel. But they did not hurt the man that helped them. And they did not hurt the people in his family. That man and his family were allowed to go free.

26 That man then went to the land where the Hittite people lived and built a city. He named the city Luz. And that city is still called Luz today.

Other Family Groups Fight the Canaanites

27 There were Canaanite people living in the cities of Beth Shean, Taanach, Dor, Ibleam, Megiddo, and the small towns around those cities. The people from the family group of Manasseh could not force those people to leave those towns. So the Canaanite people stayed. They refused to leave their homes.

28 Later the people of Israel grew stronger and forced the Canaanite people to work as slaves for them. But the people of Israel could not force all of the Canaanite people to leave their land.

29 The same thing happened with the people from the family group of Ephraim. There were Canaanite people living in Gezer. And the people of Ephraim did not make all of those Canaanite people leave their land. So the Canaanite people continued to live in Gezer with the people of Ephraim.

30 The same thing happened with the people from the family group of Zebulun. Some Canaanite people lived in the cities of Kitron and Nahalol. The people of Zebulun did not force those people to leave their land. Those Canaanite people stayed and lived with the people of Zebulun. But the people of Zebulun made those people work for them as slaves.

31 The same thing happened with the people from the family group of Asher. The people of Asher did not force the other people to leave the cities of Acco, Sidon, Aklab, Acre, Helbah, Aphek, and Rehob.

Negev The desert area south of Judah.
Hormah This name means “completely destroyed.”
iron chariots Small wagons used in war. They were faster and could carry more weapons than soldiers on foot.
three sons of Anak Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai, mentioned above in verse 10.
even today That is, at the time the book was written.
The same thing happened with the people from the family group of Naphtali. The people of Naphtali did not force the people to leave the cities of Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath. So the people of Naphtali continued to live with the people in those cities. Those Canaanite people worked as slaves for the people of Naphtali.

The Amorite people forced the people of the family group of Dan to live in the hill country. They had to stay in the hills because the Amorite people would not let them come down to live in the valleys. The Amorite people decided to stay in Mount Heres, Aijalon, and Shaalbim. Later, the family group of Joseph grew stronger. Then they made the Amorite people work as slaves for them.
The land of the Amorite people was from Scorpion Pass to Sela and up into the hill country past Sela.

The Angel of the Lord at Bokim

The Angel of the Lord went up to the city of Bokim from the city of Gilgal. The angel spoke a message from the Lord to the people of Israel. This was the message: “I brought you out of Egypt. I led you to the land that I promised to give to your ancestors.* I told you I would never break my agreement with you. But in return, you must never make any agreement with the people living in that land. You must destroy their altars.* I told you that. But you didn’t obey me!

Now I will tell you this, ‘I will not force the other people to leave this land any longer. These people will become a problem for you. They will be like a trap to you. Their false gods will become like a net to trap you.’”

After the angel gave the people of Israel this message from the Lord, the people cried loudly. So the people of Israel offered sacrifices to the Lord at Bokim. At Bokim the people of Israel offered sacrifices to the Lord.

Disobedience and Defeat

Then Joshua told the people to go home. So each family group went to take their area of land to live in it. The people of Israel served the Lord as long as Joshua was alive. They continued serving the Lord during the lifetimes of the elders (leaders) that lived after Joshua had died. These old men had seen all the great things the Lord had done for the people of Israel. Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the Lord, died at the age of 110 years.

The people of Israel buried Joshua. They buried Joshua on the land that he had been given. That was at Timnath Heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

After that whole generation died, the next generation grew up. This new generation did not know about the Lord and what the Lord had done for the people of Israel. So the people of Israel did evil and served the false god Baal.* The Lord saw the people doing this evil thing. The Lord had brought the people of Israel out of Egypt. And the ancestors* of these people had worshiped the Lord. But the people of Israel quit following the Lord. They began to worship the false gods of the people living around them. That made the Lord angry.

The people of Israel quit following the Lord and began worshiping Baal and Ashtoreth.*

The Lord was angry with the people of Israel. So the Lord let enemies attack the people of Israel and take their possessions. The Lord let their enemies that lived around them defeat them. The people of Israel could not protect themselves from their enemies.

When the people of Israel went out to fight, they always lost. They lost because the Lord was not on their side. The Lord had already warned the people of Israel that they would lose if they served the gods of the people ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

altars  A stone table used for burning sacrifices that were offered as gifts to God.
Bokim  This name means “People crying.” living around them. The people of Israel suffered very much.

16Then the Lord chose leaders called judges. These leaders saved the people of Israel from the enemies that took their possessions. 17But the people of Israel did not listen to their judges. The people of Israel were not faithful to God—they followed other gods.* In the past, the ancestors* of the people of Israel obeyed the Lord’s commands. But now the people of Israel changed and stopped obeying the Lord.

18Many times the enemies of Israel did bad things to the people. So the people of Israel would cry for help. And each time, the Lord felt sorry for the people. Each time he sent a judge to save the people from their enemies. The Lord was always with those judges. So each time, the people of Israel were saved from their enemies. 19But when each judge died, the people of Israel again sinned and started worshiping the false gods. The people of Israel were very stubborn—they refused to change their evil ways.

20So the Lord became angry with the people of Israel, and he said, “This nation has broken the Agreement that I made with their ancestors.* They have not listened to me. 21So I will no longer defeat the nations and clear the way for the people of Israel. Those nations were still in this land when Joshua died. And I will let those nations stay in this land. 22I will use those nations to test the people of Israel. I will see if the people of Israel can keep the Lord’s commands like their ancestors did.”

23The Lord allowed those nations to stay in the land. The Lord did not force those nations to quickly leave the country. He did not help Joshua’s army defeat them.

31–2The Lord did not force all the people of those other nations to leave Israel’s land. The Lord wanted to test the people of Israel. None of the people of Israel living at this time had fought in the wars to take the land of Canaan. So the Lord let those other nations stay in their country. (The Lord did this to teach the people of Israel that had not fought in those wars.) Here are the names of the nations the Lord left in the land: 3the five rulers of the Philistine people, all of the Canaanite people, the people of Sidon, and the Hivite people that lived in the Lebanon mountains from Mount Baal Hermon to Lebo Hamath. 4The Lord left those nations in the land to test the people of Israel. He wanted to see if the people of Israel would obey the Lord’s commands that he had given to their ancestors* through Moses.

5The people of Israel lived with the Canaanite people, the Hittite people, the Amorite people, the Perizzite people, the Hivite people, and the Jebusite people. 6The people of Israel began to marry the daughters of those people. The people of Israel allowed their own daughters to marry the sons of those people. And the people of Israel began to worship the gods of those people.

Othniel, the First Judge

7The Lord saw that the people of Israel did evil things. The people of Israel forgot about the Lord their God and served the false gods Baal* and Asherah.* 8The Lord was angry with the people of Israel. The Lord allowed Cushan Rishathaim, the king of Aram Naharaim* to defeat the people of Israel and to rule over them. The people of Israel were under that king’s rule for eight years. 9But the people of Israel cried to the Lord for help. The Lord sent a man to save them. That man’s name was Othniel. He was the son of a man named Kenaz. Kenaz was Caleb’s younger brother. Othniel saved the people of Israel. 10The Spirit of the Lord came on Othniel and he became a judge for the people of Israel. Othniel led the people of Israel to war. The Lord helped Othniel defeat Cushan

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

Asherah An important Canaanite goddess. The people thought she was the wife of El or the lover of Baal.

Aram Naharaim The area in Northern Syria between the Tigris and Euphrates rivers.

were not faithful … other gods Literally, “acted like a prostitute to other gods.”

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
JUDGES 3:11–30  280

Rishathaim, the king of Aram. 11 So the land was at peace for 40 years, until Othniel son of Kenaz died.

Ehud, the Judge 12 Again the Lord saw the people of Israel do evil things. So the Lord gave Eglon king of Moab power to defeat the people of Israel. 13 Eglon got help from the Ammonite people and the Amalekite people. They joined him and attacked the people of Israel. Eglon and his army defeated the people of Israel and forced them to leave the City of Palm Trees (Jericho). 14 Eglon king of Moab ruled over the people of Israel for 18 years.

The people cried to the Lord. The Lord sent a man to save the people of Israel. This man’s name was Ehud. Ehud was the son of a man named Gera from the family group of Benjamin. Ehud was trained to fight with his left hand. The people of Israel sent Ehud with a gift to Eglon king of Moab. 16 Ehud made a sword for himself. That sword had two sharp edges and was about 18 inches* long. Ehud tied the sword to his right thigh and hid it under his uniform.

So Ehud brought the gift to Eglon king of Moab. Eglon was a very fat man. 18 After offering the gift, he sent away the men that had carried the gift. 19 They left the king’s palace. When Ehud reached the statues* near Gilgal, he turned and went back to see the king. Ehud said to King Eglon, “King, I have a secret message for you.”

The king told him to be quiet and then sent all of the servants out of the room. 20 Ehud went to King Eglon. The king was sitting all alone in the upper room of his palace.* Then Ehud said, “I have a message from God for you.” The king stood up from his throne. He was very close to Ehud. 21 As the king was getting up from his throne,* Ehud reached with his left hand and took out the sword that was tied to his right thigh. Then Ehud pushed the sword into the king’s belly. 22 The sword went into Eglon’s belly so far that even the handle sank in and the king’s fat covered it. Ehud left the sword inside Eglon. When he was stabbed, Eglon lost control of his bowels* and the excrement came out.

23 Ehud went out of the private room, closing the doors to the upper room and locking the king inside. 24 Ehud then left the main room and the servants went back in. The servants found the doors to the upper room locked. So the servants said, “The king must be relieving himself in his private restroom.” 25 So the servants waited for a long time. The king never opened the doors to the upper room. Finally the servants became worried. They got the key and unlocked the doors. When the servants entered, they saw their king lying on the floor, dead.

26 While the servants were waiting for the king, Ehud had time to escape. Ehud passed by the statues* and went toward the place named Seirah. 27 When Ehud came to Seirah, he blew a trumpet there in the hill country of Ephraim. The people of Israel heard the trumpet and went down from the hills, with Ehud leading them. 28 Ehud said to the people of Israel, “Follow me! The Lord has helped us to defeat our enemies, the people of Moab.”

So the people of Israel followed Ehud. They went down with Ehud to take control of the places where people could easily cross the Jordan River into the land of Moab. The people of Israel did not allow any one to go across the Jordan River. 29 The people of Israel killed about 10,000 strong and brave men from Moab. Not one Moabite man escaped. 30 So on that day the people of Israel began to rule over the people of Moab. And there was peace in the land for 80 years.

18 inches Literally, “1 cubit.”
statues These were probably statues of gods or animals that “protected” the entrance to the city.
palace A large house for the king and his family.
he was very close ... throne This section of the text is found in the ancient Greek translation, but it is not in the Hebrew text.

statues These were probably statues of gods or animals that “protected” the entrance to the city.
Shamgar, the Judge

31 After Ehud saved the people of Israel, another man saved Israel. That man’s name was Shamgar son of Anath. 32 Shamgar used an oxgoad to kill 600 Philistine men.

Deborah, the Woman Judge

4 After Ehud died, the people again did the things the Lord said are evil. 2 So the Lord allowed Jabin king of Canaan to defeat the people of Israel. Jabin ruled in a city named Hazor. A man named Sisera was the commander of King Jabin’s army. Sisera lived in a town called Harosheth Haggoyim. 3 Sisera had 900 iron chariots, and he was very cruel to the people of Israel for 20 years. So they cried to the Lord for help.

4 There was a woman prophet named Deborah. She was the wife of a man named Lappidoth. She was judge of Israel at that time. 5 One day, Deborah was sitting under the Palm Tree of Deborah. And the people of Israel came up to her to ask her what to do about Sisera. The Palm Tree of Deborah is between the cities of Ramah and Bethel, in the hill country of Ephraim. 6 Deborah sent a message to a man named Barak. She asked him to come to meet with her. Barak was the son of a man named Abinoam. Barak lived in the city of Kedesh, which is in the area of Naphtali. Deborah said to Barak, “The Lord God of Israel commands you: ‘Go and gather 10,000 men from the family groups of Naphtali and Zebulun. Lead those men to Mount Tabor. 7 I will make Sisera, the commander of King Jabin’s army, come to you. I will make Sisera, his chariots and his army come to the Kishon River. I will help you to defeat Sisera there.’”

8 Then Barak said to Deborah, “I will go and do this if you will go with me. But if you will not go with me, then I won’t go.” 9 “Of course I will go with you,” Deborah answered. “But because of your attitude, you will not be honored when Sisera is defeated. The Lord will allow a woman to defeat Sisera.”

10 So Deborah went with Barak to the city of Kedesh. At the city of Kedesh, Barak called the family groups of Zebulun and Naphtali together. Barak gathered 10,000 men to follow him from those family groups. Deborah also went with Barak.

11 Now there was a man named Heber, that was from the Kenite people. Heber had left the other Kenite people. (The Kenite people were descendants of Hobab. Hobab was Moses’ father-in-law.) Heber had made his home by the oak tree in a place named Zaanannim. Zaanannim is near the city of Kedesh.

12 Someone told Sisera that Barak son of Abinoam was at Mount Tabor. 13 So Sisera got together his 900 iron chariots. Sisera also got together all the men with him. They marched from the city of Harosheth Haggoyim to the Kishon River.

14 Then Deborah said to Barak, “Today the Lord will help you defeat Sisera. Surely you know that the Lord has already cleared the way for you.” So Barak led the 10,000 men down from Mount Tabor. 15 Barak and his men attacked Sisera. During the battle, the Lord confused Sisera and his army and chariots. They did not know what to do. So Barak and his men defeated Sisera’s army. But Sisera left his chariot and ran away on foot.

16 Barak continued fighting Sisera’s army. Barak and his men chased Sisera’s chariots and army all the way to Harosheth Haggoyim. Barak and his men used their swords to kill all of Sisera’s men. Not one of Sisera’s men was left alive.

17 But Sisera ran away. He came to the tent where a woman named Jael lived. Jael was the wife of a man named Heber. He was one of the Kenite people. Heber’s family was at peace with Jabin king of Hazor. So Sisera ran to Jael’s tent. 18 Jael saw Sisera coming, so she went out to meet him. Jael said to Sisera, “Sir, come into my tent. Come in. Don’t be afraid.” So Sisera went into Jael’s tent, and she covered him with a carpet.

Anath The Canaanite goddess of war. Here this might be Shamgar’s father or mother or it might mean, “Shamgar the great soldier” or “Shamgar from the town of Anath.”
oxgoad A sharp stick used to make cattle go the right way.
Kishon River A river about ten miles from Mount Tabor.
descendants A person’s children and their future families.
father-in-law Or possibly, “son-in-law.”
JUDGES 4:19–5:11

19Sisera said to Jael, “I am thirsty. Please give me a little water to drink.” Jael had a bottle made from animal skin. She kept milk in that bottle. Jael gave Sisera a drink of that milk. Then she covered Sisera up.

20Then Sisera said to Jael, “Go stand at the entrance to the tent. If someone comes by and asks you, ‘Is anyone in there?’ tell him, ‘No.’”

21But Jael found a tent peg and a hammer. Jael quietly went to Sisera. Sisera was very tired, so he was sleeping. Jael put the tent peg to the side of Sisera’s head and hit it with a hammer. The tent peg went through the side of Sisera’s head and into the ground! Sisera died.

22Just then Barak came by Jael’s tent, looking for Sisera. Jael went out to meet Barak and said, “Come in here, and I will show you the man that you are looking for.” So Barak entered the tent with Jael. There Barak found Sisera lying dead on the ground, with the tent peg through the side of his head.

23On that day God defeated Jabin king of Canaan for the people of Israel. 24So the people of Israel became stronger and stronger until they defeated Jabin king of Canaan. The people of Israel finally destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

The Song of Deborah

5On the day that the people of Israel defeated Sisera, Deborah and Barak son of Abinoam sang this song.*

2 The men of Israel prepared for battle.* They volunteered to go to war! Bless the Lord!

3 Listen, kings. Pay attention, rulers. I will sing.
I myself will sing to the Lord.
I will make music to the Lord, to the God of the people of Israel.

Chapter 5  This is a very old song and many of the lines are hard to understand in the original language.

prepared … battle  This might also mean “When leaders led in Israel,” or “When men wore long hair in Israel.” Soldiers often dedicated their hair as a special gift to God.

Lord, in the past you came from Seir.* You marched from the land of Edom.*
You marched and the earth shook.
The skies rained.
The clouds dropped water.

5 The mountains shook before the Lord, the God of Mount Sinai, before the Lord, the God of Israel!

6 In the days of Shamgar son of Anath,* and in the days of Jael, the main roads were empty. Caravans* and travelers traveled on the back roads.

7 There were no soldiers. There were no soldiers in Israel until you came, Deborah, until you came to be a mother to Israel.*

8 God chose new leaders to fight at the city gates.* No one could find a shield or a spear among the 40,000 soldiers of Israel.

9 My heart is with the commanders of Israel who volunteered to go to war! Bless the Lord!

10 Pay attention you people riding on white donkeys, sitting on saddle blankets,* and walking along the road!

11 At the watering holes for the animals, we hear the music of cymbals.
People sing about the victories of the Lord,
the victories of his soldiers in Israel when the Lord’s people fought at the city gates {and won}!

12 Wake up, wake up, Deborah!
Wake up, wake up, sing the song!
Get up, Barak!
Go capture your enemies, son of Abinoam!

13 Now, survivors, go to the leaders.
People of the Lord, come with me and the soldiers.

14 The men of Ephraim came from the hill country of Amalek.*
Benjamin, those men followed you and your people.
And there were commanders
from the family of Makir.*
Leaders from the family group of Zebulun came with their bronze clubs.

15 The leaders of Issachar were with Deborah.
The family of Issachar was true to Barak.
Those men marched to the valley on foot.

Reuben, there are many brave soldiers in your army groups.

16 So why did you sit there against the walls of your sheep pens?*
The brave soldiers of Reuben thought hard about war.
But they stayed home listening to the music
they played for their sheep.

17 The people of Gilead* stayed in their camps on the other side of the Jordan River.
As for you, people of Dan,
why did you stay by your ships?
The people of Asher remained by the sea,
camped near their safe harbors.

18 But the men of Zebulun and Naphtali risked their lives fighting on those hills.

19 The kings of Canaan came to fight,
but they didn’t carry any treasures home!
They fought
at the city of Taanach,
by the waters of Megiddo.

20 The stars fought {them} from heaven.
From their paths {across the sky},
they fought against Sisera.

21 The Kishon River, that ancient river, swept Sisera’s men away.
My soul, march on with strength!*

22 The horses’ hooves hammered the ground.
Sisera’s mighty horses ran and ran.

23 The Angel of the Lord said, “Curse the city of Meroz.
Curse its people!
They did not come with soldiers to help the Lord.”

24 Jael was the wife of Heber the Kenite.
She will be blessed above all women.

25 Sisera asked for water.
Jael gave him milk.
In a bowl fit for a ruler,
she brought him cream.

26 Then Jael reached out and took the tent peg.
Her right hand reached for the hammer that a worker would use.
Then she used the hammer on Sisera!
She hit him on the head and made a hole through his temple!

27 He sank between Jael’s feet.
He fell.
And there he lay.
He sank between her feet.
He fell.
Where Sisera sank,
there he fell.
And there he lay, dead!

28 Look, there is Sisera’s mother, looking out the window,
looking through the curtains and crying.

hill country of Amalek  The area settled by the family group of Ephraim. See Judges 12:15.
Makir  This family was part of the family group of Manasseh that settled in the area east of the Jordan River.
walls of your sheep pens  Or, “campfires” or “saddlebags.”
Gilead  These people lived in the area east of the Jordan River.

My soul, march on with strength  Or, with some changes it could be, “His mighty charging horses marched forward.”
“Why is Sisera’s chariot so late? Why can’t I hear his wagons?”

29 Her wisest servant girl answers her.
Yes, the servant gives her an answer:
30 “I’m sure they won the war and they are now taking things from the people they defeated! They are dividing those things among themselves!
Each soldier is taking a girl or two.
Maybe Sisera found a piece of dyed cloth. That’s it!
Sisera found a piece of fancy cloth—or maybe two—for Sisera the Conqueror to wear.”

31 May all your enemies die like this, Lord! And may all the people who love you be strong like the rising sun!

So there was peace in the land for 40 years.

The Angel of the Lord Visits Gideon

11 At that time, the Angel of the Lord came to a man named Gideon. The Angel of the Lord came and sat down under an oak tree at a place called Ophrah. This oak tree belonged to a man named Joash. Joash was from the Abiezer family. Joash was the father of Gideon. Gideon was beating some wheat in a winepress. The Angel of the Lord sat down near Gideon. Gideon was hiding so the Midianites could not see the wheat.

12 The Angel of the Lord appeared to Gideon and said to him, “The Lord be with you, great soldier!”

13 Then Gideon said, “I promise sir, if the Lord is with us, then why are we having so many troubles? We heard that he did wonderful things for our ancestors. Our ancestors told us that the Lord took them out of Egypt. But the Lord left us. The Lord has allowed the people of Midian to defeat us.”

14 The Lord turned toward Gideon and said, “Use your power. Go save the people of Israel.”

The people* of Midian did all those bad things. So the people of Israel cried to the Lord for help. 8So the Lord sent a prophet to them. The prophet said to the people of Israel, “This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: ‘You were slaves in the land of Egypt. I made you free and brought you out of that land. I saved you from the powerful people of Egypt. Then the people of the land of Canaan hurt you. So I again saved you. I made those people leave their land. And I gave their land to you.’

Then I said to you, ‘I am the Lord your God. You will live in the land of the Amorite people, but you must not worship their false gods.’ But you did not obey me.”

The Midianites Fight Israel

6 Again the people of Israel did things the Lord said were evil. So for seven years the Lord allowed the people of Midian to defeat the people of Israel.

2 The people of Midian were very powerful and were cruel to the people of Israel. So the people of Israel made many hiding places in the mountains. They hid their food in caves and places that were hard to find. 3 They did that because the Midianite and Amalekite people from the east always came and destroyed their crops. 4 Those people camped in the land and destroyed the crops that the people of Israel had planted. Those people ruined the crops of the people of Israel as far as the land near the city of Gaza. Those people did not leave anything for the people of Israel to eat. They did not even leave them any sheep, or cattle, or donkeys. 5 The people of Midian came up and camped in the land. They brought their families and their animals with them. They were as many as swarms of locusts! There were so many of those people and their camels that it was not possible to count them. All of these people came into the land and ruined it. 6 The people of Israel became very poor because of the people of Midian. So the people of Israel cried to the Lord for help.

Verses 7–10 do not appear in the oldest Hebrew copy of the book of Judges, the Dead Sea Scroll fragment, 4QJudgesA.

beating some wheat This was the way people separated the grains of wheat from the other parts of the plants.

winepress A place for squeezing juice from grapes, often it was only a shallow hole in a large rock in the ground.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
from the people of Midian. I am sending you to save them!"

15But Gideon answered and said, “Pardon me, sir. How can I save Israel? My family is the weakest in the family group of Manasseh. And I am the youngest one in my family.”

16The Lord answered Gideon and said, “I am with you! So you can defeat the people of Midian! It will seem like you are fighting against only one man.”

17Then Gideon said to the Lord, “If you are pleased with me, give me proof that you really are the Lord. 18Please wait here. Don’t go away until I come back to you. Let me bring my offering and set it down in front of you.”

And the Lord said, “I will wait until you come back.”

19So Gideon went in and cooked a young goat in boiling water. Gideon also took about 20 pounds* of flour and made bread without yeast. Then Gideon put the meat into a basket and the water from the boiled meat into a pot. Gideon brought out the meat, the water from the boiled meat, and the bread without yeast. Gideon gave that food to the Lord under the oak tree.

20The Angel of God said to Gideon, “Put the meat and the bread on that rock over there. Then pour out the broth.” Gideon did as he was told.

21The Angel of the Lord had a walking stick in his hand. The Angel of the Lord touched the meat and the bread with the end of the stick. Then fire jumped up from the rock! The meat and the bread were completely burned up! Then the Angel of the Lord disappeared.

22Then Gideon realized that he had been talking to the Angel of the Lord. So Gideon shouted, “Oh my Lord and Master! I have seen the Angel of the Lord face to face!”

23But the Lord said to Gideon, “Calm down!* Don’t be afraid! You will not die!”

24So Gideon built an altar* in that place to worship the Lord. Gideon named that altar, “The Lord is Peace.” That altar still stands in the city of Ophrah. Ophrah is where the Abiezer family lives.

Gideon Tears Down the Altar of Baal.

25That same night the Lord spoke to Gideon. The Lord said, “Take the full-grown bull that belongs to your father, the one that is seven years old. Your father has an altar* to the false god Baal.* There is also a wooden pole beside the altar. That pole was made to honor the false goddess Asherah.* Use the bull to pull down the Baal altar, and cut down the Asherah pole. 26Then build the right kind of altar for the Lord your God. Build that altar on this high ground. Then kill and burn the full-grown bull on this altar. Use the wood from the Asherah pole to burn your offering.”

27So Gideon got ten of his servants and did what the Lord had told him to do. But Gideon was afraid that his family and the men of the city might see what he was doing. Gideon did what the Lord told him to do. But he did it at night, and not in the daytime.

28The men of the city got up the next morning. And they saw that the altar for Baal* had been destroyed! They also saw that the Asherah* pole had been cut down. The Asherah pole had been sitting next to the altar for Baal. Those men also saw the altar that Gideon had built. And they saw the bull that had been sacrificed on that altar.

29The men of the city looked at each other and asked, “Who pulled down our altar? Who cut down our Asherah* pole? Who sacrificed this bull on this new altar?” They asked many questions and tried to learn who did those things.

Someone told them, “Gideon son of Joash did this.”

20 pounds  Literally, “1 ephah.”
Calm down  Literally, “Peace.”
You will not die  Gideon thought he would die because he had seen the Lord face to face.

altar(s)  A stone table used for burning sacrifices that were offered as gifts to God.
Baal  The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.
Asherah  An important Canaanite goddess. The people thought she was the wife of El or the lover of Baal.
30 So the men of the city came to Joash. They said to Joash, “You must bring your son out. He pulled down the altar* for Baal.* And he cut down the Asherah* pole that was by that altar. So your son must die.”

31 Then Joash spoke to the crowd that was standing around him. Joash said, “Are you going to take Baal’s side? Are you going to rescue Baal? If anyone takes Baal’s side, let him be put to death by morning. If Baal really is a god, let him defend himself when someone pulls down his altar.” 32 Joash said, “If Gideon pulled Baal’s altar down, then let Baal argue with him.” So on that day Joash gave Gideon a new name. He called him Jerub Baal.*

Gideon Defeats the People of Midian
33 The people of Midian, Amalek, and other people from the east joined together to fight against the people of Israel. Those people went across the Jordan River and camped in Jezreel Valley. 34 The Spirit of the Lord came to Gideon and gave him great power. Gideon blew a trumpet to call the Abiezer family to follow him. 35 Gideon sent messengers to all the people of the family group of Manasseh. Those messengers told the people of Manasseh to get their weapons and prepare for battle. Gideon also sent messengers to the family groups of Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali. The messengers took the same message. So those family groups also went up to meet Gideon and his men.

36 Then Gideon said to God, “You said that you would help me save the people of Israel. Give me proof! 37 I will put a sheepskin on the threshing floor.* If there is dew only on the sheepskin, while all of the ground is dry, then I will know that you will use me to save Israel, like you said.”

38 And that is exactly what happened. Gideon got up early the next morning and squeezed the sheepskin. He was able to drain a bowl full of water from the sheepskin.

39 Then Gideon said to God, “Don’t be angry with me. Let me ask just one more thing. Let me test you one more time with the sheepskin. This time let the sheepskin be dry, while the ground around it gets wet with dew.”

40 That night God did that very thing. Just the sheepskin was dry, but the ground around it was wet with dew.

7 Early in the morning Jerub Baal (Gideon) and all his men set up their camp at the spring of Harod. The people of Midian were camped in the valley at the bottom of the hill called Moreh. This was north of Gideon and his men.

2 Then the Lord said to Gideon, “I am going to help your men to defeat the people of Midian. But you have too many men for the job. I don’t want the people of Israel to forget me and brag that they saved themselves. 3 So now, make an announcement to your men. Tell them, ‘Anyone that is afraid may leave Mount Gilead. He may go back home.’”

At that time, 22,000 men left Gideon and went back home. But 10,000 still remained.

4 Then the Lord said to Gideon, “There are still too many men. Take the men down to the water, and I will test them for you there. If I say, ‘This man will go with you,’ he will go. But if I say, ‘That one will not go with you,’ then he will not go.”

5 So Gideon led the men down to the water. At the water the Lord said to Gideon, “Separate the men like this: The men who drink the water by using their tongue to lap it up like a dog will be in one group. And the men who bend down to drink will be in the other group.”

6 There were 300 men that used their hands to bring water to their mouth and lapped it like a dog does. All the other people bent down and drank the water. 7 The Lord said to Gideon, “I will use the 300 men who lapped the water like a dog. I will use those men to save you, and I will allow you to defeat the... people of Midian. Let the other men go to their homes.”

8 So Gideon sent the other men of Israel home. Gideon kept the 300 men with him. Those 300 men kept the supplies and the trumpets of the other men who went home.

The people of Midian were camped in the valley below Gideon’s camp. 9 During the night the Lord spoke to Gideon. The Lord said to him, “Get up. I will let you defeat the Midianite army. Go down to their camp. 10 If you are afraid to go alone, then take Purah your servant with you. 11 Go into the camp of the people of Midian. Listen to the things those people are saying. After that, you will not be afraid to attack them.”

So Gideon and Purah his servant went down to the edge of the enemy camp. 12 The people of Midian, the people of Amalek, and all the other people from the east were camped in that valley. There were so many people that they seemed like a swarm of locusts. It seemed like those people had as many camels as there are grains of sand on the seashore.

13 Gideon came to the enemy camp, and he heard a man talking. That man was telling his friend about a dream that he had. The man was saying, “I dreamed that a round loaf of bread came rolling into the camp of the people of Midian. That loaf of bread hit the tent so hard that the tent turned over and fell flat.”

14 The man’s friend knew the meaning of the dream. He said, “Your dream can only have one meaning. Your dream is about that man from Israel. It is about Gideon son of Joash. It means that God will let Gideon defeat the whole army of Midian.”

15 After he heard the men talking about the dream and what it meant, Gideon bowed down to God. Then Gideon went back to the camp of the people of Israel. Gideon called out to the people, “Get up! The Lord will help us defeat the people of Midian.” 16 Then Gideon divided the 300 men into three groups. Gideon gave each man a trumpet and an empty jar. A burning torch was inside each jar. 17 Then Gideon told the men, “Watch me and do what I do. Follow me to the edge of the enemy camp. When I get to the edge of the camp, do exactly what I do. 18 You men surround the enemy camp. I and all the men with me will blow our trumpets. When we blow our trumpets, you blow your trumpets, too. Then shout these words: ‘For the Lord and for Gideon!’”

19 So Gideon and the 100 men with him went to the edge of the enemy camp. They came there just after the enemy changed guards. It was during the middle watch of the night. Gideon and his men blew their trumpets and smashed their jars. 20 Then all three groups of Gideon’s men blew their trumpets and smashed their jars. The men held the torches in their left hands and the trumpets in their right hands. As those men blew their trumpets, they shouted, “A sword for the Lord, and a sword for Gideon!”

21 Gideon’s men stayed where they were. But inside the camp, the men of Midian began shouting and running away. 22 When Gideon’s 300 men blew their trumpets, the Lord caused the men of Midian to kill each other with their swords. The enemy army ran away to the city of Beth Shittah, which is toward the city of Zererah. Those men ran as far as the border of the city of Abel Meholah, which is near the city of Tabbath.

23 Then soldiers from the family groups of Naphtali, Asher, and all of Manasseh were told to chase the people of Midian. 24 Gideon sent messengers through all the hill country of Ephraim. The messengers said, “Come down and attack the people of Midian. Take control of the river as far as Beth Barah and the Jordan River. Do this before the people of Midian get there.”

So they called all men from the family group of Ephraim. They took control of the river as far as Beth Barah. 25 The men of Ephraim caught two of the Midianite leaders. These two leaders were named Oreb and Zeeb. The men of Ephraim killed Oreb at a place named the Rock of Oreb. They killed Zeeb at a place named the Winepress of Zeeb.

The men of Ephraim continued chasing the people of Midian. But they first cut off the heads of Oreb and Zeeb and took the heads to Gideon. Gideon was at the place where people cross the Jordan River.

Insects like grasshoppers. Locusts can destroy a large crop very quickly.

8 The men of Ephraim were angry at Gideon. When the men of Ephraim found Gideon, they asked Gideon, “Why did you treat us this way? Why didn’t you call us when you went to fight against the people of Midian?”

But Gideon answered the men of Ephraim, “I have not done as well as you men have done. You people of Ephraim have a much better harvest than my family, the Abiezers. At harvest time, you leave more grapes in the field than my family gathers! Isn’t that true? In the same way, you have a better harvest now. God allowed you to capture Oreb and Zeeb, the leaders of Midian! How can I compare my success with what you did?” When the men of Ephraim heard Gideon’s answer, they were not as angry as they had been.

Gideon Captures Two Kings of Midian

4 Then Gideon and his 300 men came to the Jordan River and went across to the other side. But they were tired and hungry.

5 Gideon said to the men of the city of Succoth, “Give my soldiers something to eat. My soldiers are very tired. We are still chasing Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian.”

6 But the leaders of the city of Succoth said to Gideon, “Why should we give your soldiers something to eat? You haven’t caught Zebah and Zalmunna yet.”

7 Then Gideon said, “You won’t give us food. The Lord will help me capture Zebah and Zalmunna. After that, I will come back here. And I will beat your skin with thorns and briers from the desert.”

8 Gideon left the city of Succoth and went to the city of Penuel. Gideon asked the men of Penuel for food, just as he had asked the men of Succoth. But the men of Penuel gave Gideon the same answer that the men of Succoth had given. So Gideon said to the men of Penuel, “After I win the victory, I will come back here and pull this tower down.”

9 Zebah and Zalmunna and their army were in the city of Karkor. Their army had 15,000 soldiers in it. These soldiers were all that were left of the army of the people of the east. 120,000 strong soldiers of that army had already been killed. Gideon and his men used Tent Dwellers’ Road. That road is east of the cities of Nobah and Jogbehah. Gideon came to the city of Karkor and attacked the enemy. The enemy army did not expect the attack. Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of the people of Midian, ran away. But Gideon chased and caught those kings. Gideon and his men defeated the enemy army.

13 Then Gideon son of Joash returned from the battle. Gideon and his men returned by going through a mountain pass called the Pass of Heres. Gideon captured a young man from the city of Succoth. Gideon asked the young man some questions. The young man wrote down some names for Gideon. The young man wrote down the names of the leaders and elders of the city of Succoth. He gave the names of 77 men.

15 Then Gideon came to the city of Succoth. He said to the men of that city, “Here are Zebah and Zalmunna. You made fun of me by saying, ‘Why should we give food to your tired soldiers? You have not caught Zebah and Zalmunna yet.’”

16 Gideon took the elders of the city of Succoth, and he beat them with thorns and briers from the desert to punish them. Gideon also pulled down the tower in the city of Penuel. Then he killed the men living in that city.

18 Then Gideon said to Zebah and Zalmunna, “You killed some men on Mount Tabor. What were those men like?”

Zebah and Zalmunna answered, “Those men were like you. Each one of them seemed like a prince.”

19 Gideon said, “Those men were my brothers! My mother’s sons! As the Lord lives, if you had not killed them, then I wouldn’t kill you now.”

20 Then Gideon turned to Jether. Jether was Gideon’s oldest son. Gideon said to him, “Kill These kings.” But Jether was only a boy and was afraid. So he would not take out his sword.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said to Gideon, “Come on, kill us yourself. You are a man and strong enough to do the job.” So Gideon got up and killed Zebah and Zalmunna. Then Gideon took the decorations shaped like the moon off their camels’ necks.

Gideon Makes an Ephod

22 The people of Israel said to Gideon, “You saved us from the people of Midian. So now, rule over us. We want you, your son and your grandson to rule over us.”

23 But Gideon told the people of Israel, “The Lord will be your ruler. I will not rule over you. And my son will not rule over you.”

24 Some of the people that the men of Israel defeated were Ishmaelites. And the Ishmaelite men wore gold earrings. So Gideon said to the people of Israel, “I want you to do this one thing for me. I want each of you to give me a gold earring from the things you took in the fighting.”

25 So the people of Israel said to Gideon, “We will gladly give you what you want.” So they put a coat down on the ground. Each man threw an earring onto the coat.

26 When those earrings were gathered up, they weighed about 43 pounds. This did not include the other gifts the people of Israel gave to Gideon. They also gave him jewelry shaped like the moon and jewelery shaped like teardrops. And they gave him purple robes. These were things that the kings of the people of Midian had worn. They also gave him the chains from the camels of the Midianite kings.

27 Gideon used the gold to make an ephod. He put the ephod in his home town, the town called Ophrah. All the people of Israel worshiped the ephod. The ephod became a trap that caused Gideon and his family to sin.

The Death of Gideon

28 The people of Midian were forced to be under the rule of the people of Israel. The people of Midian did not cause trouble any more. And the land was at peace for 40 years, as long as Gideon was alive.

29 Jerub Baal (Gideon) son of Joash went home. 30 Gideon had 70 sons of his own. He had so many sons because he had many wives. 31 Gideon had a concubine that lived in the city of Shechem. He had a son with that concubine. He named that son Abimelech.

32 So Gideon son of Joash died at a good old age. Gideon was buried in the tomb that Joash, his father, owned. That tomb is in the city of Ophrah, where the Abiezer family lives. 33 As soon as Gideon died, the people of Israel again were not faithful to God—they followed Baal. They made Baal Berith their god. 34 The people of Israel did not remember the Lord their God, even though the Lord had saved them from all their enemies that were living all around the people of Israel.

Abimelech Becomes King

9 Abimelech was the son of Jerub Baal (Gideon). Abimelech went to his uncles that lived in the city of Shechem. He said to his uncles and all of his mother’s family,

2 “Ask the leaders of the city of Shechem this question: ‘Is it better for you to be ruled by the 70 sons of Jerub Baal, or to be ruled by only one man? Remember, I am your relative.’”

3 Abimelech’s uncles spoke to the leaders of Shechem and asked them that question. The leaders of Shechem decided to follow Abimelech. The leaders said, “After all, he is our brother.”

4 So the leaders of Shechem gave Abimelech the leaders of Shechem.

---

Notes:

- 43 pounds Literally, “1,700 shekels.”
- ephod We do not know exactly what this was. It may have been a special vest or coat, like the High Priest of Israel wore (see Exodus 28). Or it may have been an idol.
- were not faithful ... Baal Literally, “acted like a prostitute to it.”
- concubine A slave woman that was like a wife to a man.
- were not faithful ... ephod Literally, “acted like a prostitute to Baal.”
- Baal Berith The name of this god means “Lord of the Agreement.”
Abimelech 70 pieces of silver. That silver was from the temple of the god Baal Berith.* Abimelech used the silver to hire some men. These men were worthless, reckless men. They followed Abimelech wherever he went.

Abimelech went to his father’s house at Ophrah. Abimelech murdered his brothers. Abimelech killed the 70 sons of his father, Jerub Baal (Gideon). He killed them all at the same time.* But Jerub Baal’s youngest son hid from Abimelech and escaped. The youngest son’s name was Jotham.

Then all of the leaders in Shechem and the house of Millo* came together. All those people gathered beside the big tree of the pillar in Shechem and made Abimelech their king.

Jotham’s Story

Jotham heard that the leaders of the city of Shechem had made Abimelech king. When he heard this, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim.* Jotham shouted out this story to the people:

Listen to me you leaders of the city of Shechem. Then let God listen to you.

One day the trees decided to choose a king to rule over them. The trees said to the olive tree, “You be king over us.”

But the olive tree said, “Men and gods praise me for my oil. Should I stop making my oil just to go and sway over the other trees?”

Then the trees said to the fig tree, “Come and be our king.”

But the fig tree answered, “Should I stop making my good, sweet fruit just to go and sway over the other trees?”

Then the trees said to the vine, “Come and be our king.”

But the vine answered, “My wine makes men and kings happy. Should I stop making my wine just to go and sway over the trees?”

Finally all the trees said to the thornbush, “Come and be our king.”

But the thornbush said to the trees, “If you really want to make me king over you, come and find shelter in my shade. But if you do not want to do this, then let fire come out of the thornbush. Let the fire burn even the cedar trees of Lebanon.”

Now if you were completely honest when you made Abimelech king, then may you be happy with him. And if you have been fair to Jerub Baal and his family, fine. And if you have treated Jerub Baal as you should, fine. But think what my father did for you. My father fought for you. He risked his life when he saved you from the people of Midian. But now you have turned against my father’s family. You have killed 70 of my father’s sons all at the same time.* You made Abimelech the new king over the city of Shechem. He is only the son of my father’s slave girl. But you made him king because he is your relative.

So, if you have been completely honest to Jerub Baal and his family today, then I hope you are happy with Abimelech as your king. And I hope he will be happy with you. But leaders of Shechem and house of Millo,* if you have not acted right, then I hope that Abimelech destroys you. And I hope that Abimelech is destroyed too!”

After Jotham had said all of this, he ran away. He escaped to the city named Beer. Jotham stayed in that city because he was afraid of his brother Abimelech.

Abimelech Fights Against Shechem

Abimelech ruled the people of Israel for three years. Abimelech had killed Jerub Baal’s 70 sons—and they were Abimelech’s own brothers! The leaders of Shechem had supported him in doing this bad thing. So God caused trouble between Abimelech and the leaders of Shechem. And the leaders of Shechem began planning ways to hurt Abimelech. The leaders of the city of all at the same time Literally, “on one stone.”

Millo This was probably a well protected part of the city. It might have been in the city itself, or somewhere near the city.
Mount Gerizim This mountain is right beside the city of Shechem. house of Millo Or, “Royal Family of Millo.” The Millo was probably a well protected part of the city, perhaps even the palace area.
Shechem did not like Abimelech anymore. Those people put men on the hilltops to attack and rob everyone that went by. Abimelech found out about those attacks.

26A man named Gaal son of Ebed and his brothers moved to the city of Shechem. The leaders of the city of Shechem decided to trust and follow Gaal.

27One day the people of Shechem went out to the fields to pick grapes. The people squeezed the grapes to make wine. And then they had a party at the temple of their god. The people ate and drank and said bad things about Abimelech.

28Then Gaal son of Ebed said, “We are the men of Shechem. Why should we obey Abimelech? Who does he think he is? Abimelech is one of Jerub Baal’s sons, right? And Abimelech made Zebul his officer, right? We should not obey Abimelech! We should follow our own people, men from Hamor.* (Hamor was the father of Shechem.)

29If you make me the commander of these people, then I will destroy Abimelech. I will say to him, ‘Get your army ready and come out to battle.’”

30Zebul was the governor of the city of Shechem. Zebul heard what Gaal son of Ebed said, and Zebul became very angry. 31Zebul sent messengers to Abimelech in the city of Arumah.* This is the message:

Gaal son of Ebed and Gaal’s brothers have come to the city of Shechem. They are making trouble for you. Gaal is turning the whole city against you. 32So now you and your men should come tonight and hide in the fields outside the city. 33Then, when the sun comes up in the morning, attack the city. Gaal and his men will come out of the city to fight you. When those men come out to fight, do what you can to them.

34So Abimelech and all his soldiers got up during the night and went to the city. Those soldiers separated into four groups. They hid near the city of Shechem. 35Gaal son of Ebed went out and was standing at the entrance to the gate of the city of Shechem. While Gaal was standing there, Abimelech and his soldiers came out of their hiding places.

36Gaal saw the soldiers. Gaal said to Zebul, “Look, there are people coming down from the mountains.”

But Zebul said, “You are only seeing the shadows of the mountains. The shadows just look like people.”

37But again Gaal said, “Look, there are some people coming down from that place over there, by Land’s Navel. And there! I saw someone’s head over by Magician’s Tree.”

38Zebul said to Gaal, “Why aren’t you bragging now? You said, ‘Who is Abimelech? Why should we obey him?’ You made fun of these men. Now go out and fight them.”

39So Gaal led the leaders of Shechem out to fight Abimelech. 40Abimelech and his men chased Gaal and his men. Gaal’s men ran back toward the gate of the city of Shechem. Many of Gaal’s men were killed before they could get back to the gate.

41Then Abimelech returned to the city of Arumah. Zebul forced Gaal and his brothers to leave the city of Shechem.

42The next day the people of Shechem went out to the fields to work. Abimelech found out about that. 43So Abimelech separated his men into three groups. He wanted to attack the people of Shechem by surprise. So he hid his men in the fields. When he saw the people coming out of the city he jumped up and attacked them. 44Abimelech and his group ran to a place near the gate to Shechem. The other two groups ran out to the people in the fields and killed them. 45Abimelech and his men fought against the city of Shechem all that day. Abimelech and his men captured the city of Shechem and killed the people of that city. Then Abimelech tore down the city and threw salt over the ruins.

men from Hamor  This refers to native born citizens of Shechem. Hamor was the father of Shechem in a story in Genesis 34. The city of Shechem is said to have been named after Hamor’s son.

in the city of Arumah  Or, “secretly” or “in Tormah,” the town where Abimelech lived as king. It was probably about eight miles south of Shechem.

Land’s Navel … Magician’s Tree  Two places in the hills near Shechem.
JUDGES 9:46–10:6

46 There were some people that lived at the Tower of Shechem. When the people of that place heard what had happened to Shechem, they gathered together in the safest room of the temple of the god El Berith. 47Abimelech heard that all the leaders of the Tower of Shechem had gathered together. 48So Abimelech and all his men went up to Mount Zalmon. Abimelech took an axe and cut off some branches. He carried those branches on his shoulders. Then Abimelech said to the men with him, “Hurry! Do the same thing that I have done.” 49So all those men cut branches and followed Abimelech. They piled the branches against the safest room of the temple of the god El Berith. Then they set the branches on fire and burned the people in the room. So about 1,000 men and women living near the Tower of Shechem died.

Abimelech’s Death

50 Then Abimelech and his men went to the city of Thebez. Abimelech and his men captured that city. 51But inside the city there was a strong tower. All the leaders and other men and women of that city ran to the tower. When the people were inside the tower, they locked the door behind them. Then they climbed up to the roof of the tower. 52Abimelech and his men came to the tower to attack it. Abimelech went up to the door of the tower. He wanted to burn the tower. 53But, while Abimelech was standing at the door of the tower, a woman on the roof dropped a grinding stone on his head. The grinding stone crushed Abimelech’s skull. 54Abimelech quickly said to the servant that carried his weapons, “Take out your sword and kill me. I want you to kill me so that people won’t say, ‘A woman killed Abimelech.’” So the servant stabbed Abimelech with his sword, and Abimelech died. 55The people of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead. So they all went back home.

56 In that way, God punished Abimelech for all the bad things he did. Abimelech sinned against his own father by killing his 70 brothers. 57God also punished the men of the city of Shechem for the bad things they did. So the things Jotham said came true. (Jotham was Jerub Baal’s youngest son. Jerub Baal was Gideon.)

Tola the Judge

10 After Abimelech died, God sent another judge to save the people of Israel. That man’s name was Tola. Tola was the son of a man named Puah. Puah was the son of a man named Dodo. Tola was from the family group of Issachar. Tola lived in the city of Shamir. The city of Shamir was in the hill country of Ephraim. 2 Tola was a judge for the people of Israel for 23 years. Then Tola died and was buried in the city of Shamir.

Jair the Judge

3 After Tola died, another judge was sent by God. That man’s name was Jair. Jair lived in the area of Gilead. Jair was a judge for the people of Israel for 22 years. 4Jair had 30 sons. Those 30 sons rode 30 donkeys. Those 30 sons controlled 30 towns in the area of Gilead. Those towns are called the Towns of Jair to this very day. 5Jair died and was buried in the city of Kamon.

The Ammonites Fight Against Israel

6 Again the people of Israel did things the Lord said are evil. They began worshiping the false gods Baal and the Ashtoreth. They also worshiped the gods of the people of Aram, the gods of the people of Sidon, the gods of the people of Moab, the gods of the people of Ammon, and the gods of the 30 sons rode 30 donkeys This showed these men were important leaders, possibly the mayors of the 30 towns in Gilead.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

Ashtoreth The Canaanite people thought that this false goddess could make people able to have babies. She was their goddess of love and war.
Philistine people. The people of Israel left the Lord and stopped serving him.

7So the Lord became angry with the people of Israel. The Lord allowed the Philistine people and the Ammonite people to defeat them. 8In that same year those people destroyed the people of Israel that lived on the east side of the Jordan River, in the area of Gilead. That is the land where the Amorite people had lived. Those people of Israel suffered for 18 years. 9The Ammonite people then went across the Jordan River. They went to fight against the people of Judah, Benjamin, and Ephraim. The Ammonite people brought many troubles to the people of Israel.

10So the people of Israel cried to the Lord for help. They said, “God, we have sinned against you. We left our God and worshiped the false god Baal.”

11The Lord answered the people of Israel, “You cried to me when the people of Egypt, the Amorite people, the Ammonite people, and the Philistine people hurt you. I saved you from these people. 12You cried to me when the people of Sidon, the Amalekite people, and the Midianite* people hurt you. I also saved you from those people. 13But you left me and started worshiping other gods. So I refuse to save you again. 14You like worshiping those gods, so go call to them for help. Let those gods save you when you are in trouble.”

15But the people of Israel said to the Lord, “We have sinned. Do whatever you want to do to us. But please save us today.” 16Then the people of Israel threw away the foreign gods. They started worshiping the Lord again. So the Lord felt sorry for them when he saw them suffering.

Jephthah Is Chosen as a Leader

17The Ammonite people gathered together for war. Their camp was in the area of Gilead. The people of Israel gathered together. Their camp was at the city of Mizpah. 18The leaders

Baal  The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.
Midianite  This is the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew has, “The Maonite people.”

19Jephthah was from the family group of Gilead. He was a strong soldier. But Jephthah was the son of a prostitute. His father was a man named Gilead. Gilead’s wife had several sons. When those sons grew up, they did not like Jephthah. Those sons forced Jephthah to leave his home town. They said to him, “You will not get any of our father’s property. You are the son of another woman.” 3So Jephthah went away because of his brothers. He lived in the land of Tob. In the land of Tob, some rough men began to follow Jephthah.

4After a time the Ammonite people fought with the people of Israel. 5The Ammonite people were fighting against Israel, so the elders (leaders) in Gilead went to Jephthah. They wanted Jephthah to leave the land of Tob and come back to Gilead.

6The elders said to Jephthah, “Come and be our leader so that we can fight the Ammonite people.”

7But Jephthah said to the elders (leaders) from Gilead, “That is the reason that we have come to you now. Please come with us and fight against the Ammonite people. You will be the commander over all the people living in Gilead.”

8The elders (leaders) from Gilead said to Jephthah, “If you want me to come back to Gilead and fight the Ammonite people, fine. But if the Lord helps me win, then I will be your new leader.”

9Then Jephthah said to the elders (leaders) from Gilead, “The Lord is listening to everything we are saying. And we promise to do all that you tell us to do.”

11So Jephthah went with the elders (leaders) from Gilead. Those people made Jephthah their leader and their commander.
Jephthah repeated all of his words in front of the Lord at the city of Mizpah.

Jephthah’s Message to the King of Ammon

12 Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites. The messengers gave the king this message: “What is the problem between the Ammonites and the people of Israel? Why have you come to fight in our land?”

13 The king of the Ammonite people said to the messengers of Jephthah, “We are fighting Israel because the people of Israel took our land when they came up from Egypt. They took our land from the Arnon River to the Jabbok River to the Jordan River. Now tell the people of Israel to give our land back to us in peace.”

14 So the messengers of Jephthah took this message back to Jephthah. Then Jephthah sent the messengers to the king of the Ammonite people again. They took this message: This is what Jephthah says: Israel did not take the land of the people of Moab or the land of the people of Ammon.

15 When the people of Israel came out of the land of Egypt, the people of Israel went into the desert. The people of Israel went to the Red Sea. Then they went to Kadesh. The people of Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom. The messengers asked for a favor. They said, “Let the people of Israel pass through your land. We want to go to our land.” But the king of Edom didn’t let us go through their land. We also sent the same message to the king of Moab. But the king of Moab would not let us go through his land either. So the people of Israel stayed at Kadesh.

16 Then the people of Israel went through the desert and around the edges of the land of Edom and the land of Moab. The people of Israel traveled east of the land of Moab. They made their camp on the other side of the Arnon River. They did not cross the border of the land of Moab. (The Arnon River was the border of the land of Moab.)

19 Then the people of Israel sent messengers to Sihon the king of the Amorite people. Sihon was the king of the city of Heshbon. The messengers asked Sihon, “Let the people of Israel pass through your land. We want to go to our land.” But Sihon, the king of the Amorite people would not let the people of Israel cross his borders. Sihon gathered all of his people and made a camp at Jahaz. Then the Amorite people fought with the people of Israel. But the Lord, the God of Israel, helped the people of Israel to defeat Sihon and his army. So the land of the Amorite people became the property of the people of Israel.

22 So the people of Israel got all of the land of the Amorite people. That land went from the Arnon River to the Jabbok River. That land also went from the desert to the Jordan River. It was the Lord, the God of Israel, who forced the Amorite people to leave their land. And the Lord gave the land to the people of Israel. Do you think you can make the people of Israel leave this land? Surely you can live in the land which Chemosh your god has given to you. So we will live in the land that the Lord our God has given to us! Are you any better than Balak son of Zippor? He was the king of the land of Moab. Did he argue with the people of Israel? Did he actually fight with the people of Israel? The people of Israel have lived in the city of Heshbon and the towns around it for 300 years. The people of Israel have lived in the city of Aroer and the towns around it for 300 years. The people of Israel have lived in all of the cities along the side of the Arnon River for 300 years. Why have you not tried to take these cities in all that time? The people of Israel have not sinned against you. But you are doing a very bad thing against the people of Israel. May the Lord, the ture Judge, decide whether the people of Israel are right or the Ammonite people!

28The king of the Ammonite people refused to listen to this message from Jephthah.

Jephthah’s Promise

29Then the Spirit of the Lord came on Jephthah. Jephthah passed through the area of Gilead and Manasseh. He went to the city of Mizpah in Gilead. From the city of Mizpah in Gilead, Jephthah passed through to the land of the Ammonite people.

30Jephthah made a promise to the Lord. He said, “If you will let me defeat the Ammonite people, 31I will give you the first thing that comes out of my house when I come back from the victory. I will give it to the Lord as a burnt offering.”

32Then Jephthah went to the land of the Ammonite people. Jephthah fought the Ammonite people. The Lord helped him defeat them. 33He defeated them from the city of Aroer to the city of Minnith. Jephthah captured 20 cities. Then he fought the Ammonite people to the city of Abel Keramim. The people of Israel defeated the Ammonite people. It was a very great defeat for the Ammonite people.

34Jephthah went back to Mizpah. Jephthah went to his house and his daughter came out of the house to meet him. She was playing a tambourine and dancing. She was his only daughter. Jephthah loved her very much.
Jephthah did not have any other sons or daughters. 35When Jephthah saw that his daughter was the first thing to come out of his house, he tore his clothes to show his sadness.
Then he said, “Oh, my daughter! You have ruined me! You have made me very, very sad!
I made a promise to the Lord, and I cannot change it!”

36Then his daughter said to Jephthah, “Father, you have made a promise to the Lord.
So keep your promise. Do what you said you would do. After all, the Lord did help you defeat your enemies, the Ammonite people.”

37Then Jephthah’s daughter said to her father, “But do this one thing for me first. Let me be alone for two months. Let me go to the mountains. I will not marry and have children, so let me and my friends go and cry together.”

38Jephthah said, “Go and do that.” Jephthah sent her away for two months. Jephthah’s daughter and her friends stayed in the mountains. They cried for her because she would not marry and have children.

39At the end of two months, Jephthah’s daughter returned to her father. Jephthah did what he promised to the Lord. Jephthah’s daughter never had sexual relations with anyone. So this became a custom in Israel.

40Every year the women of Israel remembered the daughter of Jephthah from Gilead. The women of Israel cried four days every year for Jephthah’s daughter.

Jephthah and Ephraim

12The men from the family group of Ephraim called all their soldiers together. Then they went across the river to the city of Zaphon. They said to Jephthah, “Why didn’t you call us to help you fight the Ammonite people? We will burn your house down with you in it.”

2Jephthah answered them, “The Ammonite people have been giving us many problems.
So I and my people fought against them. I called you, but you didn’t come to help us. 3I saw that you would not help us. So I risked my own life. I went across the river to fight against the Ammonite people. The Lord helped me to defeat them. Now why have you come to fight against me today?”

4Then Jephthah called the men of Gilead together. They fought against the men from the family group of Ephraim. They fought against the men of Ephraim because those men had insulted the men of Gilead. They had said, “You men of Gilead are nothing but survivors of the men of Ephraim. You don’t even have your own land! Part of you belong to Ephraim, and part of you belong to Manasseh.” The men of Gilead defeated the men of Ephraim.

5The men of Gilead captured the places where people cross the Jordan River. Those places led to the country of Ephraim. Any time a survivor from Ephraim came to the river and said, “Let me cross,” the men of Gilead would ask him, “Are you from Ephraim?” If he said, “No,” they would say, “Say the word ‘Shibboleth.’” The men of Ephraim could not say that word correctly. They pronounced the word “Sibboleth.” So if the person said, “Sibboleth,” then the men of Gilead knew he was from Ephraim. So they would kill him at the crossing place. They killed 42,000 men from Ephraim.

7 Jephthah was a judge for the people of Israel for six years. Then Jephthah from Gilead died. They buried him in his town in Gilead.

Ibzan, the Judge

8 After Jephthah, a man named Ibzan was a judge for the people of Israel. Ibzan was from the city of Bethlehem. 9 Ibzan had 30 sons and 30 daughters. He told his 30 daughters to marry men that were not his relatives. And he found 30 women that were not his relatives, and his sons married these women. Ibzan was a judge for the people of Israel for seven years. 10 Then Ibzan died. He was buried in the city of Bethlehem.

Elon, the Judge

11 After Ibzan, a man named Elon was a judge for the people of Israel. Elon was from the family group of Zebulun. He was a judge for the people of Israel for ten years. 12 Then Elon from the family group of Zebulun died. He was buried in the city of Aijalon, Zebulun.

Abdon, the Judge

13 After Elon died, a man named Abdon son of Hillel was a judge for the people of Israel. Abdon was from the city of Pirathon. 14 Abdon had 40 sons and 30 grandsons. They rode on 70 donkeys. Abdon was a judge for the people of Israel for eight years. 15 Then Abdon son of Hillel died. He was buried in the city of Pirathon. Pirathon is in the land of Ephraim. This is in the hill country where the Amalekite people lived.

The Birth of Samson

13 Again the Lord saw the people of Israel doing evil things. So the Lord allowed the Philistine people to rule over them for 40 years.

2 There was a man from the city of Zorah. The man’s name was Manoah. He was from the family group of Dan. Manoah had a wife. But she was not able to have any children. 3 The Angel of the Lord appeared to Manoah’s wife. He said, “You have not been able to have children. But you will become pregnant and have a son. 4 Don’t drink any wine or any other strong drink. Don’t eat any food that is unclean. * 5 Why? Because you are pregnant, and you will have a son. He will be dedicated to God in a special way: He will be a Nazirite. * So you must never cut his hair. He will be God’s special person from before he is born. He will save the people of Israel from the power of the Philistine people.”

6 Then the woman went to her husband and told him what had happened. She said, “A man of God* came to me. He looked like the Angel of God. He made me afraid. I didn’t ask him where he was from and he didn’t tell me his name.

7 But he said to me, ‘You are pregnant and will have a son. Don’t drink any wine or other strong drink. Don’t eat any food that is unclean. * Why? Because the boy will be dedicated to God in a special way. The boy will be God’s special person from before he is born until the day he dies.’”

8 Then Manoah prayed to the Lord. He said, “Lord, I beg you to send the man of God to us again. We want him to teach us what we should do for the boy that will soon be born.”

9 God heard Manoah’s prayer. The Angel of God came to the woman again. She was sitting in a field and her husband Manoah was not with her. 10 So the woman ran to tell her husband, “The man is back! The man that came to me the other day is here!”

unclean Or, “unacceptable.” Not pure or not able to be used in worshiping God. See Lev. 11–15 for the Old Testament rules about clean and unclean things.

Nazirite A person that made a special promise to God. See Num. 6:1–21 for the rules about the Nazirite promise.

man of God Usually, this is another name for a prophet.
11 Manoah got up and followed his wife. When he came to the man, he said, “Are you the same man that spoke to my wife before?”

The angel said, “I am.”

12 So Manoah said, “I hope that what you say will happen. Tell me what kind of life will the boy live? What will he do?”

13 The Angel of the Lord said to Manoah, “Your wife must do everything I told her.

14 She must not eat anything that grows on a grapevine. She must not drink any wine or strong drink. She must not eat any food that is unclean.* She must do everything that I have commanded her to do.”

15 Then Manoah said to the Angel of the Lord, “We would like for you to stay a while. We want to cook a young goat for you to eat.”

16 The Angel of the Lord said to Manoah, “Even if you keep me from leaving, I will not eat your food. But if you want to prepare something, then offer a burnt offering to the Lord.” (Manoah did not understand that the man was really the Angel of the Lord.)

17 Then Manoah asked the Angel of the Lord, “What is your name? We want to know so that we can honor you when what you have said really happens.”

18 The Angel of the Lord said, “Why do you ask my name? It is too amazing for you to believe.*

19 Then Manoah sacrificed a young goat on a rock. He offered the goat and a grain offering as a gift to the Lord and to the One Who Does Amazing Things.* 20 Manoah and his wife were watching what happened. As the flames went up to the sky from the altar,* the Angel of the Lord went up to heaven in the fire!

When Manoah and his wife saw that, they bowed down with their faces to the ground.

21 Manoah finally understood that the man was really the Angel of the Lord. The Angel of the Lord did not appear to Manoah again.

22 Manoah said to his wife, “We have seen God! Surely we will die because of this!”

23 But his wife said to him, “The Lord does not want to kill us. If the Lord wanted to kill us, he would not have accepted our burnt offering and grain offering. He would not have shown us all these things. And he would not have told us these things.”

24 So the woman had a boy. She named him Samson. Samson grew and the Lord blessed him. 25 The Spirit of the Lord began to work in Samson while he was in the city of Mahaneh Dan. That city is between the cities of Zorah and Eshtaol.

Samson’s Marriage

14 Samson went down to the city of Timnah. He saw a young Philistine woman there. 2 When he got back home he said to his father and mother, “I saw a Philistine woman in Timnah. I want you to get her for me. I want to marry her.”

3 His father and his mother answered, “But surely there is a woman from the people of Israel that you can marry. Do you have to marry a woman from the Philistine people? Those people are not even circumcised.”*

But Samson said, “Get that woman for me! She is the one I want!” 4 (Samson’s parents did not know that the Lord wanted this to happen. The Lord was looking for a way to do something against the Philistine people. The Philistine people were ruling over the people of Israel at that time.)

5 Samson went down with his father and mother to the city of Timnah. They went as far as the grape fields near that city. At that place, a young lion suddenly roared and jumped at Samson! 6 The Spirit of the Lord came on Samson with great power. He tore the lion apart with his bare hands. It seemed easy to him. It was as easy as tearing apart a unclean Or, “unacceptable.” Not pure or not able to be used in worshiping God. See Lev. 11–15 for the Old Testament rules about clean and unclean things.

It is too amazing ... to believe Or, “It is Pelei.” This means “amazing,” “wonderful.” This is like the name, “Wonderful Counselor” in Isaiah 9:6.

Lord and to the One Who Does Amazing Things Or, “The Lord Who Does Amazing Things.” Both of these are names for God, but Manoah didn’t know the man was really the Angel of the Lord.

altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices that were offered as gifts to God.

circumcised Cutting the foreskin from a man. In Israel this was proof that a man had made a special agreement to obey God’s laws and teachings.
young goat. But Samson did not tell his father or mother what he had done.

7So Samson went down to the city and talked to the Philistine woman. She pleased him. 8Several days later, Samson came back to marry the Philistine woman. On his way, he went over to look at the dead lion. He found a swarm of bees in the dead lion’s body. They had made some honey. 9Samson got some of the honey with his hands. He walked along eating the honey. When he came to his parents, he gave them some of the honey. They ate it too. But Samson did not tell his parents that he had taken the honey from the body of the dead lion.

10Samson’s father went down to see the Philistine woman. The custom was for the bridegroom to give a party. So Samson gave a party. 11When the Philistine people saw that he was having a party, they sent 30 men to be with him.

12Then Samson said to the 30 men, “I want to tell you a story. This party will last for seven days. Try to find the answer during that time. If you can answer the riddle in that time, I will give you 30 linen shirts and 30 changes of clothes. 13But if you can’t find the answer, then you must give me 30 linen shirts and 30 changes of clothes.” So the 30 men said, “Tell us your riddle, we want to hear it.” 14Samson told them this riddle:

Out of the eater came something to eat.
Out of the strong came something sweet.

The 30 men tried for three days to find the answer, but they couldn’t.

15On the fourth day,* the men came to Samson’s wife. They said, “Did you invite us here just to make us poor? You must trick your husband into telling us the answer to the riddle. If you don’t get the answer for us, we will burn you and all the people in your father’s house to death.”

16So Samson’s wife went to him and began crying. She said, “You just hate me! You don’t really love me! You told my people a riddle, and you won’t tell me the answer.”

17Samson’s wife cried for the rest of the seven days of the party. So he finally gave her the answer to the riddle on the seventh day. He told her because she kept bothering him. Then she went to her people and told them the answer to the riddle.

18So before the sun went down on the seventh day of the party, the Philistine men had the answer. They came to Samson and said,

“What is sweeter than honey?
What is stronger than a lion?”

Then Samson said to them,

“If you had not plowed with my cow, you would not have solved my riddle!”

19Samson was very angry. The Spirit of the Lord came on Samson with great power. He went down to the city of Ashkelon. In that city he killed 30 Philistine men. Then he took all of the clothes and property from the dead bodies. He brought those clothes back and gave them to the men that had answered his riddle. Then he went to his father’s house. 20Samson did not take his wife. The best man at the wedding kept her.

Samson Makes Trouble for the Philistines

15At the time of the wheat harvest, Samson went to visit his wife. He took a young goat with him as a gift. He said, “I am going to my wife’s room.”

But her father would not let Samson go in. 2Her father said to Samson, “I thought you hated her. So I let her marry the best man at the wedding. Her younger sister is more beautiful. Take her younger sister.”

3But Samson said to him, “Now I have a good reason to hurt you Philistine people. No one will blame me now.”

4So Samson went out and caught 300 foxes. He took two foxes at a time and tied their tails together to make pairs. Then he tied a torch between the tails of each pair of foxes. 5Samson lit the torches that were between the foxes’ tails. Then he let the foxes run through the grain fields of the Philistine people. In this way, he burned up the plants growing in their fields and the stacks of grain they had cut. He also burned up their fields of grapes and their olive trees.

*This is from the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew has, “seventh day.”

6The Philistine people asked, “Who did this?” Someone told them, “Samson, the son-in-law of the man from Timnah, did this. He did this because his father-in-law gave Samson’s wife to the best man at his wedding.” So the Philistine people burned Samson’s wife and her father to death.

7Then Samson said to the Philistine people, “You did this bad thing to me. So now I will do bad things to you. Then I will be finished with you!”

8Then Samson attacked the Philistine people. He killed many of them. Then he went and stayed in a cave. The cave was in a place named the Rock of Etam.

9Then the Philistine people went to the land of Judah. They stopped near a place named Lehi. Their army camped there and prepared for war. 10The men of the family group of Judah asked them, “Why have you Philistine people come here to fight us?”

They answered, “We have come to get Samson. We want to make him our prisoner. We want to punish him for the things he did to our people.”

11Then 3000 men from the family group of Judah went to Samson. They went to the cave near the Rock of Etam. They said to him, “What have you done to us? Don’t you know that the Philistine people rule over us?”

Samson answered, “I only punished them for the things they did to me.”

12Then they said to Samson, “We have come to tie you up. We will give you to the Philistine people.”

Samson said to the men from Judah, “Promise me that you yourselves will not hurt me.”

13The men from Judah said, “We agree. We will just tie you up and give you to the Philistine people. We promise that we will not kill you.” So they tied Samson with two new ropes. They led him up from the cave in the rock.

14When Samson came to the place called Lehi, the Philistine people came to meet him. They were shouting from joy. Then the Spirit of the Lord came on Samson with great power. Samson broke the ropes. The ropes seemed weak like burnt strings. The ropes fell off his arms as if they had melted. 15Samson found a jawbone of a donkey that had died. He took the jawbone and killed 1,000 Philistine men with it.

16Then Samson said,

With a donkey’s jawbone
I killed 1,000 men!
With a donkey’s jawbone
I piled* them into a tall pile.

17When Samson finished speaking, he threw the jawbone down. So that place was named Ramath Lehi.*

18Samson was very thirsty. So he cried to the Lord. He said, “I am your servant. You gave me this great victory. Please don’t let me die from thirst now! Please don’t let me be captured by men who are not even circumcised!”

19There is a hole in the ground at Lehi. God made that hole crack open, and water came out. Samson drank that water and felt better. He felt strong again. So he named that water spring En Hakkore.* It is still there in the city of Lehi today.

20So Samson was a judge for the people of Israel for 20 years. That was during the time of the Philistine people.

Samson Goes to the City of Gaza

16One day Samson went to the city of Gaza. He saw a prostitute there. He went in to stay the night with her. 2Someone told the people of Gaza, “Samson has come here.” They wanted to kill Samson, so they surrounded the city. They hid near the city gate and waited all night for Samson. They were very quiet all night long. They had said to each other, “When morning comes, we will kill Samson.”

3But Samson only stayed with the prostitute until midnight. Samson got up at midnight. Samson grabbed the doors of the city gate and pulled them loose from the wall. Samson pulled down the doors, the two posts, and the piled In Hebrew, the word “pile” is like the word, “donkey.”

Ramath Lehi This name means “Jawbone Heights.”
En Hakkore This means “The spring of the one that calls.”
bars that lock the door shut. Samson put those things on his shoulders and carried them to the top of the hill near the city of Hebron.

Samson and Delilah

4 Later, Samson fell in love with a woman named Delilah. She was from Sorek Valley.

5 The rulers of the Philistine people went to Delilah. They said, “We want to know what makes Samson so strong. Try to trick him into telling you his secret. Then we will know how to capture him and tie him up. Then we will be able to control him. If you do this, each one of us will give you 28 pounds* of silver.”

6 So Delilah said to Samson, “Tell me why you are so strong. How could someone tie you up and make you helpless?”

7 Samson answered, “Someone would have to tie me up with seven fresh, new bowstrings.* If someone did that, I would be weak like any other man.”

8 Then the rulers of the Philistine people brought seven fresh, new bowstrings to Delilah. Delilah tied up Samson with the bowstrings. 9 Some men were hiding in the next room. Delilah said to Samson, “Samson, the Philistine men are going to capture you!” But Samson easily broke the bowstrings. They snapped like a string when it comes too close to a flame. So the Philistine people did not find out the secret of Samson’s strength.

10 Then Delilah said to Samson, “You lied to me! You made me look foolish. Please tell me the truth, how could someone tie you up?”

11 Samson said, “Someone would have to tie me up with new ropes. They would have to tie me with ropes that have not been used before. If someone did that, I would become as weak as any other man.”

12 So Delilah took some new ropes and tied up Samson. Some men were hiding in the next room. Then Delilah called out to him, “Samson, the Philistine men are going to capture you!” But he broke the ropes easily. He broke them like they were threads.

13 Then Delilah said to Samson, “You lied to me again! You made me look foolish. Now, tell me how someone could tie you up.”

Samson said, “If you use the loom* to weave the seven braids* of hair on my head and tighten it with a pin, I will become as weak as any other man.”

14 Later, Samson went to sleep. So Delilah used the loom to weave the seven braids of hair on his head.* Then Delilah fastened the loom to the ground, with a tent peg. Again she called out to him, “Samson, the Philistine men are going to capture you!” Samson pulled up the tent peg, the loom,* and the shuttle!* She kept bothering Samson day after day. He got so tired of her asking him about his secret that he felt like he was going to die. 17 Finally, Samson told Delilah everything. He said, “I have never had my hair cut. I was dedicated to God before I was born. If someone shaved my head, then I would lose my strength. I would become as weak as any other man.”

18 Delilah saw that Samson had told her his secret. She sent a message to the rulers of the Philistine people. She said, “Come back again. Samson has told me everything.” So the rulers of the Philistine people came back to Delilah. They brought the money that they had promised to give her.

19 Delilah got Samson to go to sleep while he was lying in her lap. Then she called in a man to shave off the seven braids* of Samson’s hair. In this way she made Samson weak. Samson’s strength left him. 20 Then Delilah called out to him, “Samson, the Philistine men are going to capture you!” He fresh, new bowstrings  Bowstrings were often made from sinew which is brittle after it becomes old and dry.

---

28 pounds  Literally, “1,100 shekels.”

loom  A machine for making cloth from thread.

braids  Hair that has been twisted together like a rope.

So Delilah ... head  This is found in the ancient Greek translation. It is not in the Hebrew text.

shuttle  The tool used to pull the threads back and forth on a loom to make cloth.
woke up and thought, “I will escape like I did before and free myself.” But Samson did not know that the Lord had left him.

21 The Philistine men captured Samson. They tore out his eyes, and took him down to the city of Gaza. Then they put chains on him to keep him from running away. They put Samson in prison and made him work grinding grain. 22 But Samson’s hair began to grow again.

23 The rulers of the Philistine people came together to celebrate. They were going to offer a great sacrifice to their god Dagon.* They said, “Our god helped us defeat Samson our enemy.” 24 When the Philistine people saw Samson, they praised their god. They said, “This man destroyed our people! This man killed many of our people! But our god helped us take our enemy!”

25 The people were having a good time at the celebration. So they said, “Bring Samson out. We want to make fun of him.” So they brought Samson from the prison and made fun of him. They made Samson stand between the columns in the temple of the god Dagon. 26 A servant was holding Samson’s hand. Samson said to him, “Put me where I can feel the columns that hold this temple up. I want to lean against them.”

27 The temple was crowded with men and women. All the rulers of the Philistine people were there. There were about 3,000 men and women on the roof* of the temple. They were laughing and making fun of Samson. 28 Then Samson said a prayer to the Lord. He said, “Lord All-Powerful, remember me. God, please give me strength one more time. Let me do this one thing to punish these Philistines for tearing out my two eyes!”

29 Then Samson held the two columns in the center of the temple. These two columns supported the whole temple. He braced himself between the two columns. One column was at his right side and the other at his left side. 30 Samson said, “Let me die with these Philistines!” Then he pushed as hard as he could. And the temple fell on the rulers and all the people in it. In this way, Samson killed many more Philistine people when he died than when he was alive.

31 Samson’s brothers and all the people in his father’s family went down to get his body. They brought him back and buried him in his father’s tomb. That tomb is between the cities of Zorah and Eshtaol. Samson was a judge for the people of Israel for 20 years.

Micah’s Idols

17 There was a man named Micah that lived in the hill country of Ephraim. 2 Micah said to his mother, “Do you remember that someone stole 28 pounds* of silver from you. I heard you say a curse about that. Well, I have the silver. I took it.”

His mother said, “The Lord bless you, my son.”

3 Micah gave the 28 pounds* of silver back to his mother. Then she said, “I will give this silver as a special gift to the Lord. I will give it to my son so he can make a statue and cover it with the silver. So now, son, I give the silver back to you.”

4 But Micah gave the silver back to his mother. So she took about 5 pounds* of the silver and gave them to a silversmith.* The silversmith used the silver to make a statue covered with silver. The statue was put in Micah’s house. 5 Micah had a temple for worshiping idols. He made an ephod* and some house idols. Then Micah chose one of his sons to be his priest. (6 At that time, the people of Israel did not have a king. So each person did what he himself thought was right.)

7 There was a young man that was a Levite.* He was from the city of Bethlehem.

---

Dagon
The Canaanite people worshiped this false god hoping he would give them a good harvest of grain. This was probably the most important god for the Philistine people.

roof
In ancient Israel, a roof was often flat and used like another room.

---

28 pounds Literally, “1,100 {shekels}.”

5 pounds Literally, “200 {shekels}.”

silversmith A person that makes things from silver.

ephod We do not know exactly what this was. It may have been a special vest or coat, like the High Priest of Israel wore (see Exodus 28). Or it may have been an idol.

Levite A person from the tribe of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.
Judah. He had been living among the family group of Judah. 8That young man left Bethlehem, Judah. He was looking for another place to live. As he was traveling, he came to Micah’s house. Micah’s house was in the hill country of the land of Ephraim. 9Micah asked him, “Where have you come from?”

The young man answered, “I am a Levite* from the city of Bethlehem, Judah. I am looking for a place to live.”

10Then Micah said to him, “Live with me. Be my father and my priest. I will give you 4 ounces* of silver each year. I will also give you clothes and food.”

The Levite* did what Micah asked. 11The young Levite agreed to live with Micah. The young man became like one of Micah’s own sons. 12Micah chose him to be his priest. So the young man became a priest and lived in Micah’s house. 13And Micah said, “Now I know that the Lord will be good to me. I know this because I have a man from the family group of Levi to be my priest.”

Dan Captures the City of Laish

At that time, the people of Israel did not have a king. And at that time, the family group of Dan was still looking for a place to live. They did not have their own land yet. The other family groups of Israel already had their land. But the family group of Dan had not taken their land yet.

2So the family group of Dan sent five soldiers to look for some land. They went to search for a good place to live. Those five men were from the cities of Zorah and Eshtaol. They were chosen because they were from all the families of Dan. They were told, “Go, look for some land.”

The five men came to the hill country of Ephraim. They came to Micah’s house and spent the night there. 3When the five men came close to Micah’s house, they heard the voice of the young Levite* man. They recognized his voice, so they stopped at Micah’s house. They asked the young man, “Who brought you to this place? What are you doing here? What is your business here?”

4The young man told them about the things Micah had done for him. “Micah hired me,” the young man said. “I am his priest.”

5So they said to him, “Please ask God something for us. We want to know something: Will our search for a place to live be successful?”

6The priest said to the five men, “Yes. Go in peace. The Lord will lead you on your way.”

7So the five men left. They came to the city of Laish. They saw that the people of that city lived in safety. They were ruled by the people of Sidon. Everything was peaceful and quiet. The people had plenty of everything. And they didn’t have any enemies nearby to hurt them. Also, they lived a long way from the city of Sidon and they did not have any agreements with the people of Aram.*

8The five men went back to the cities of Zorah and Eshtaol. Their relatives asked them, “What did you learn?”

9The five men answered, “We have found some land, and it is very good. We should attack them. Don’t wait! Let’s go and take that land! 10When you come to that place, you will see that there is plenty of land. There is plenty of everything there. You will also see that the people are not expecting an attack. Surely God has given that land to us.”

11So 600 men from the family group of Dan left the cities of Zorah and Eshtaol. They were ready for war. 12On their way to the city of Laish, they stopped near the city of Kiriath Jearim in the land of Judah. They set up a camp there. That is why the place west of Kiriath Jearim is named Mahaneh Dan* to this very day. 13From that place, the 600 men traveled on to the hill country of Ephraim. Then they came to Micah’s house.

14So the five men that had explored the land around Laish spoke. They said to their relatives, “There is an ephod* in one of these

---

Levite A person from the tribe of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.

4 ounces Literally, “10 [shekels].”

Mahaneh Dan This name means “The Camp of Dan.”

ephod We do not know exactly what this was. It may have been a special vest or coat, like the High Priest of Israel wore (see Exodus 28). Or it may have been an idol.
houses. And there are also household gods, a carved statue, and a silver idol. You know what to do—go get them." So they stopped at Micah’s house, where the young Levite man lived. They asked the young man how he was. The 600 men from the family group of Dan stood at the entrance of the gate. They all had their weapons and were ready for war. The five spies went into the house. The priest stood just outside by the gate with the 600 men that were ready for war. The men took the carved idol, the ephod, the house idols, and the silver idol. The young Levite priest said, “What are you doing?”

The five men answered, “Be quiet! Don’t say a word. Come with us. Be our father and our priest. You must choose. Is it better for you to be a priest for just one man? Or is it better for you to be a priest for a whole family group of Israelite people?”

This made the Levite man happy. So he took the ephod*, the house idols, and the idol. He went with those men from the family group of Dan.

Then the 600 men from the family group of Dan, with the Levite priest, turned and left Micah’s house. They put their little children, their animals, and all their things in front of them.

The men from the family group of Dan went a long way from that place. But the people living near Micah met together. Then they began chasing the men of Dan and caught up with them. The men with Micah were shouting at the men of Dan. The men of Dan turned around. They said to Micah, “What’s the problem? Why are you shouting?”

Micah answered, “You men from Dan took my idols. I made those idols for myself. You have also taken my priest. What do I have left now? How can you ask me, ‘What’s the problem?’”

The men from the family group of Dan answered, “You had better not argue with us. Some of our men have hot tempers. If you shout at us, those men might attack you. You and your families might get killed.”

Then the men of Dan turned around and went on their way. Micah knew that those men were too strong for him. So he went back home.

So the men of Dan took the idols that Micah made. They also took the priest that had been with Micah. Then they came to Laish. They attacked the people living in Laish. Those people were at peace. They were not expecting an attack. The men of Dan killed those people with their swords. Then they burned the city. The people living in Laish did not have anyone to rescue them. They lived too far from the city of Sidon for those people to help. And the people of Laish did not have any agreements with the people of Aram—so those people did not help them. The city of Laish was in a valley which belonged to the town of Beth Rehob. The people from Dan built a new city in that place. And that city became their home. The people of Dan gave that city a new name. That city had been called Laish, but they changed the name to Dan. They named the city after their ancestor* Dan, one of the sons of Israel.

The people of Dan set up the idol in the city of Dan. They made Jonathan son of Gershom their priest. Gershom was the son of Moses.* Jonathan and his sons were priests for the family group of Dan until the time when the Israelite people were taken into captivity. The people of Dan set up for themselves the idol that Micah had made. That idol was there in the city of Dan, the whole time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

A Levite Man and His Woman Servant

At that time, the people of Israel did not have a king.

There was a Levite* man that lived far back in the hill country of Ephraim. That man had a woman as a servant that was like a wife ephod We do not know exactly what this was. It may have been a special vest or coat, like the High Priest of Israel wore (see Exodus 28). Or it may have been an idol.

ancestor Literally, “father.” This means a person that people are descended from.

Moses Or, “Manasseh.”

Levite A person from the tribe of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.
to him. That woman servant* was from the city of Bethlehem in the country of Judah.

2But his woman servant had an argument with the Levite man. She left him and went back to her father’s house in Bethlehem, Judah. She stayed there for four months. 3Then her husband went after her. He wanted to speak kindly to her so that she would come back to him. He took with him his servant and two donkeys. The Levite man came to her father’s house. Her father saw the Levite man and came out to greet him. The father was very happy.

4The woman’s father led the Levite man into his house. The Levite’s father-in-law invited him to stay. So the Levite man stayed for three days. He ate, drank, and slept in his father-in-law’s house.

5On the fourth day, they got up early in the morning. The Levite* man was getting ready to leave. But the young woman’s father said to his son-in-law, “Eat something first. After you eat, then you can go.” 6So the Levite man and his father-in-law sat down to eat and drink together. After that, the young woman’s father said to the Levite man, “Please stay tonight. Relax and enjoy yourself. Wait until this afternoon to leave.” So the two men ate together.

7The Levite got up to leave, but his father-in-law persuaded him to stay the night again.

8Then, on the fifth day, the Levite* man got up early in the morning. He was ready to leave. But the woman’s father said to his son-in-law, “Eat something first. After you eat, then you can go.” 9So the Levite man and his father-in-law sat down to eat and drink together. After that, the young woman’s father said to the Levite man, “Please stay tonight. Relax and enjoy yourself. Wait until this afternoon to leave.” So the two men ate together.

10The Levite man, his woman servant,* and his servant got up to leave. But the young woman’s father said, “It is almost dark. The day is almost gone. So stay the night here and enjoy yourself. Tomorrow morning you can get up early and go on your way.”

11The day was almost over. They were near the city of Jebus. So the servant said to his master, the Levite man, “Let’s stop at this Jebusite city. Let’s stay the night here.”

12But his master, the Levite* man, said, “No. We won’t go inside a strange city. Those people are not Israelite people. We will go to the city of Gibeah.”* 13The Levite man said, “Come on. Let’s try to make it to Gibeah or Ramah. We can stay the night in one of those cities.”

14So the Levite* man and the people with him traveled on. The sun was going down just as they entered the city of Gibeah. Gibeah is in the area that belongs to the family group of Benjamin. 15So they stopped at Gibeah. They planned to stay the night in that city. They came to the city square* in the city and sat down there. But no one invited them home to stay the night.

16That evening an old man came into the city from the fields. His home was in the hill country of Ephraim. But now he was living in the city of Gibeah. (The men of Gibeah were from the family group of Benjamin.) 17The old man saw the traveler (the Levite man), in the public square. The old man asked, “Where are you going? Where did you come from?” 18The Levite* man answered, “We are traveling from the city Bethlehem, Judah. We are going home. I am from far back in the hill country of Ephraim. I have been to Bethlehem, Judah. And now, I am going to my house.* 19We already have straw and food for our donkeys. There is also bread and wine for me, the young woman and my servant. We don’t need anything.”

20The old man said, “You are welcome to stay at my house. I will give you anything you need. Only, don’t stay the night in the public square!” 21Then the old man took the Levite* man and the people with him to his house. He fed their donkeys. They washed their feet. Then they had something to eat and drink.

22While the Levite* man and those that were with him were enjoying themselves, some of the men from that city surrounded the house. They were very bad men. They began beating on the door. They shouted at the old man that owned the house. They said, “Bring out the man that came to your house. We want to have sex with him.”

23 The old man went outside and spoke to those bad men. He said, “No, my friends, don’t do such bad things! That man is a guest in my house.* Don’t do this terrible sin. 24 Look, here is my daughter. She has never had sex before. I will bring her out to you now. You can use her any way you want. But don’t do such a terrible sin against this man.”

25 But those bad men would not listen to the old man. So the Levite* man took his woman servant* and put her outside with those evil men. Those evil men hurt her and raped her all night long. Then, at dawn, they let her go. 26 At dawn, the woman came back to the house where her master was staying. She fell down at the front door. She lay there until it was daylight.

27 The Levite* man got up early the next morning. He wanted to go home. He opened the door to go outside. And a hand fell across the threshold of the door. There was his woman servant.* She had fallen down against the door. 28 The Levite man said to her, “Get up, let’s go!” But she did not answer—she was dead. 29 The Levite man put his woman servant* on his donkey and went home. 30 When he arrived at his house, he took a knife and cut his woman servant into 12 parts. Then he sent those 12 parts to all the areas where the people of Israel lived. 31 Everyone that saw this said, “Nothing like this has ever happened in Israel before. We haven’t seen anything like this from the time we came out of Egypt. Discuss this and tell us what to do.”

That man … my house At this time, it was a custom that if you invited people to be your guests, then you had to protect and care for those people.
Levite A person from the tribe of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.
woman servant Or, “concubine,” a slave woman who was like a wife to a man.

The War Between Israel and Benjamin

20 So all the people of Israel joined together. They all came together to stand before the Lord in the city of Mizpah. People came from everywhere in Israel.* Even the Israelite people from Gilead* were there. 2 The leaders of all the family groups of Israel were there. They took their places in the public meeting of God’s people. There were 400,000 soldiers with swords in that place. 3 The people from the family group of Benjamin heard that the people of Israel were meeting together in Mizpah. The people of Israel said, “Tell us how this terrible thing happened.”

4 So the husband of the woman that had been murdered told them the story. He said, “My woman servant* and I came to the city of Gibeah in the area of Benjamin. We spent the night there. 5 But during the night the leaders of the city of Gibeah came to the house where I was staying. They surrounded the house, and they wanted to kill me. They raped my woman servant, and she died. 6 So I took my woman servant and cut her into pieces. Then I sent one piece to each of the family groups of Israel. I sent the 12 pieces to the lands we have received. I did that because the people of Benjamin have done this terrible thing in Israel. 7 Now, all you men of Israel, speak up. Give your decision about what we should do.”

8 Then all the people stood up at the same time. They said together, “None of us will go home. No, not one of us will go back to his house. 9 Now this is what we will do to the city of Gibeah: We will throw lots* to let God show us what to do to those people. 10 We will choose ten men from every 100 from all the family groups of Israel. And we will choose 100 men from every 1,000. We will choose 1,000 men from every 10,000. Those men we have chosen will get supplies for the army. Then the army will go to the city of Gibeah in the area of Benjamin. The army will punish from everywhere in Israel Literally, “from Dan to Beersheba.

Gilead This area was east of the Jordan River.
lots Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.
those people for the terrible thing they did among the people of Israel.”

11 So all the men of Israel gathered together at the city of Gibeah. They were all agreed to what they were doing. 12 The family groups of Israel sent men to the family group of Benjamin with a message. The message was: “What about this terrible thing that some of your men have done? 13 Send those bad men from the city of Gibeah to us. Give us those men so that we can put them to death. We must remove the evil from among the people of Israel.”

But the people from the family group of Benjamin would not listen to the messengers from their relatives, the other people of Israel. 14 The people from the family group of Benjamin left their cities and went to the city of Gibeah. They went to Gibeah to fight against the other family groups of Israel. 15 The people from the family group of Benjamin got 26,000 soldiers together. All those soldiers were trained for war. They also had 700 trained soldiers from the city of Gibeah. 16 There were also 700 trained soldiers that were trained to fight with their left hand*. Each one of them could use a sling* with great skill. They all could use a sling to throw a stone at a hair and not miss!

17 All the family groups of Israel, except Benjamin, gathered together 400,000 fighting men. Those 400,000 men had swords. Each one was a trained soldier. 18 The people of Israel went up to the city of Bethel. At Bethel they asked God, “Which family group will be first to attack the family group of Benjamin?”

The Lord answered, “The family group of Judah will go first.”

19 The next morning the people of Israel got up. They made a camp near the city of Gibeah. 20 Then the army of Israel went out to fight the army of Benjamin. The army of Israel got ready for a battle against the army of Benjamin at the city of Gibeah. 21 Then the army of Benjamin came out of the city of Gibeah. The army of Benjamin killed 22,000 men in the army of Israel during the battle that day.

22–23 The people of Israel went to the Lord. They cried until evening. They asked the Lord, “Should we go to fight the people of Benjamin again? Those people are our relatives.”

The Lord answered, “Go fight against them.” The men of Israel encouraged each other. Then they again went out to fight, like they did the first day.

24 Then the army of Israel came near the army of Benjamin. This was the second day of the war. 25 The army of Benjamin came out of the city of Gibeah to attack the army of Israel on the second day. This time, the army of Benjamin killed another 18,000 men from the army of Israel. All of those men in the army of Israel were trained soldiers.

26 Then all the people of Israel went up to the city of Bethel. At that place they sat down and cried to the Lord. They did not eat anything all day, until evening. They also offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to the Lord. 27 The men of Israel asked the Lord a question. (In those days God’s Box of the Agreement* was there at Bethel. 28 Phinehas was the priest that served God there. Phinehas was the son of Eleazar. Eleazar was the son of Aaron.) The people of Israel asked, “The people of Benjamin are our relatives. Should we again go to fight against them? Or should we stop fighting?”

The Lord answered, “Go. Tomorrow I will help you to defeat them.”

29 Then the army of Israel hid some men all around the city of Gibeah. 30 The army of Israel went to fight against the city of Gibeah on the third day. They got ready for battle, like they did before. 31 The army of Benjamin came out of the city of Gibeah to fight the army of Israel. The army of Israel backed up and let the army of Benjamin chase them. In this way, the army of Benjamin was tricked into leaving the city far behind them.

The army of Benjamin began to kill some of the men in the army of Israel, like they did before. They killed about 30 men from Israel.

---

trained ... left hand Literally, “restrained in their right hand.”

sling A strip of leather for throwing rocks.

Box of the Agreement Or, “ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.
They killed some of those men in the fields, and they killed some of those men on the roads. One road led to the city of Bethel. The other road led to the city of Gibeah. The men of Benjamin said, “We are winning like before!”

The men of Israel were running away, but it was a trick. They wanted to lead the men of Benjamin away from their city and onto the roads. So all the men ran away. They stopped at a place named Baal Tamar. Some of the men of Israel were hiding west of Gibeah. They ran from their hiding places and attacked Gibeah. 10,000 of Israel’s best trained soldiers attacked the city of Gibeah. The fighting was very heavy. But the army of Benjamin did not know what terrible thing was going to happen to them.

The Lord used the army of Israel and defeated the army of Benjamin. On that day, the army of Israel killed 25,100 soldiers from Benjamin. All those soldiers had been trained for war. So the people of Benjamin saw that they were defeated.

The army of Israel had moved back. They moved back because they were depending on the surprise attack. They had men hiding near Gibeah. The men that were hiding rushed into the city of Gibeah. They spread out and killed everyone in the city with their swords.

The army of Benjamin had killed about 30 Israelite soldiers. So the men of Benjamin were saying, “We are winning, like before.” But then a big cloud of smoke began to rise from the city. The men of Benjamin turned around and saw the smoke. The whole city was on fire. Then the army of Israel stopped running away. They turned around and began to fight. The men of Benjamin were afraid. Now they knew what terrible thing had happened to them.

So the army of Benjamin ran away from the army of Israel. They ran toward the desert. But they could not escape the fighting. And the men of Israel came out of the cities and killed them. The men of Israel surrounded the men of Benjamin and began chasing them. They did not let them rest. They defeated them in the area east of Gibeah. So 18,000 brave and strong fighters from the army of Benjamin were killed.

The army of Benjamin turned around and ran toward the desert. They ran to a place called the Rock of Rimmon. But the army of Israel killed 5,000 soldiers from Benjamin along the roads. They kept chasing the men of Benjamin. They chased them as far as a place named Gidom. The army of Israel killed 2,000 more men from Benjamin in that place.

On that day, 25,000 men of the army of Benjamin were killed. All those men fought bravely with their swords. But 600 men from Benjamin ran into the desert. They went to the place called the Rock of Rimmon and stayed there for four months. The men of Israel went back to the land of Benjamin. They killed the people in every city they came to. They also killed all the animals. They destroyed everything they could find. They burned every city they came to.

Getting Wives for the Men of Benjamin

At Mizpah, the men of Israel made a promise. This was their promise: “Not one of us will let his daughter marry a man from the family group of Benjamin.”

The people of Israel went to the city of Bethel. There they sat before God until evening. They cried loudly as they sat there. They said to God, “Lord, you are the God of the people of Israel. Why has this terrible thing happened to us? Why has one family group of the people of Israel been taken away?”

Early the next day, the people of Israel built an altar. They put burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to God on that altar. Then the people of Israel said, “Are there any family groups of Israel that did not come here to meet with us before the Lord?” They asked this question because they had made a serious promise. They had promised that anyone that did not come together with the... other family groups at the city of Mizpah would be killed.

6Then the people of Israel felt sorry for their relatives, the people of Benjamin. They said, “Today, one family group has been separated from Israel. 7We made a promise before the Lord. We promised not to allow our daughters to marry a man from Benjamin. How can we make sure that the men of Benjamin will have wives?

8Then the people of Israel asked, “Which one of the family groups of Israel did not come here to Mizpah? We have come together before the Lord. Surely one family was not here!” Then they found that no one from the city of Jabesh Gilead had met together with the other people of Israel. 9The people of Israel counted everyone to see who was there and who was not. They found that no one from Jabesh Gilead was there. 10So the people of Israel sent 12,000 soldiers to the city of Jabesh Gilead. They told those soldiers, “Go to Jabesh Gilead, and use your swords to kill every person that lives there, even the women and children. 11You must do this! You must kill every man in Jabesh Gilead. Also kill every woman that has had sexual relations with a man. But do not kill any woman that has never had sex with a man.” So the soldiers did those things.* 12Those 12,000 soldiers found 400 young women in the city of Jabesh Gilead, that had never had sex with a man. The soldiers brought those women to the camp at Shiloh. Shiloh is in the land of Canaan.

13Then the people of Israel sent a message to the men of Benjamin. They offered to make peace with the men of Benjamin. The men of Benjamin were at the place named the Rock of Rimmon. 14So the men of Benjamin came back to Israel. The people of Israel gave them the women from Jabesh Gilead that they had not killed. But there were not enough women for all the men of Benjamin.

15The people of Israel felt sorry for the men of Benjamin. They felt sorry for them because the Lord had separated them from the other family groups of Israel. 16The elders (leaders) of the people of Israel said, “The women of the family group of Benjamin have been killed. Where can we get wives for the men of Benjamin that are still alive? 17The men of Benjamin that are still alive must have children to continue their families. This must be done so that a family group in Israel will not die out! 18But we cannot allow our daughters to marry the men of Benjamin. We have made this promise: ‘Bad things will happen to anyone that gives a wife to a man of Benjamin.’ 19We have an idea! This is the time for the festival of the Lord at the city of Shiloh. This festival is celebrated every year there.” (The city of Shiloh is north of the city of Bethel, and east of the road that goes from Bethel to Shechem. And it is also to the south of the city of Lebonah.)

20So the elders (leaders) told the men of Benjamin about their idea. They said, “Go and hide in the vineyards. 21Watch for the time during the festival when the young women from Shiloh come out to join the dancing. Then run out from where you are hiding in the vineyards. Each of you should take one of the young women from the city of Shiloh. Take those young women to the land of Benjamin and marry them. 22The fathers or brothers of those young women will come and complain to us. But we will say, ‘Be kind to the men of Benjamin. Let them marry those women. They took women from you, but they did not make war against you. They took the women, so you didn’t break your promise to God. You promised that you would not give them women to marry—you did not give the women to the men of Benjamin, they took the women from you! So you did not break your promise.’”

23So that is what the men of the family group of Benjamin did. While the young women were dancing, each man caught one of them. They took those young women away and married them. They went back to their land. The men of Benjamin built cities again in that land, and they lived in those cities. 24Then the people of Israel went home. They went to their own land and family group.

25In those days the people of Israel did not have a king. So everyone did whatever he thought was right.
Long ago, during the time the judges ruled, there was a bad time when there was not enough food to eat. A man named Elimelech left Bethlehem, Judah. He, his wife and his two sons moved to the hill country of Moab. The man’s wife was named Naomi and his two sons were named Mahlon and Kilion. These people were from the Ephrathah family of Bethlehem, Judah. The family traveled to the hill country of Moab and stayed there.

Later, Naomi’s husband, Elimelech, died. So only Naomi and her two sons were left. Her sons married women from the country of Moab. One wife’s name was Orpah, and the other wife’s name was Ruth. They lived in Moab about ten years, and Mahlon and Kilion also died. So Naomi was left alone without her husband or her two sons.

Naomi Goes Home

While Naomi was in the hill country of Moab, she heard that the Lord had helped his people. He had given food to his people in Judah. So Naomi decided to leave the hill country of Moab and go back home. Her daughters-in-law also decided to go with her. They left the place where they had been living and started walking back to the land of Judah.

Then Naomi told her daughters-in-law, “Each of you should go back home to your mother. You have been very kind to me and my dead sons. So I pray the Lord will be just as kind to you. I pray that he helps each of you to find a husband and a nice home.”

Naomi kissed her daughters-in-law, and they all started crying.

Then the daughters said, “But we want to come with you and go to your family.”

But Naomi said, “No, daughters, go back to your own homes. Why should you go with me? I cannot help you. I don’t have any more sons in me to be your husbands. Go back home! I am too old to have a new husband. Even if I thought I could be married again, I could not help you. If I became pregnant tonight and had two sons, it would not help. You would have to wait until they grew to become men before you could marry them. I can’t make you wait that long for husbands. That would make me very sad! And I am already sad enough—the Lord has done many things to me!”

So the women cried very much again. Then Orpah kissed Naomi and left. But Ruth hugged her and stayed.

Naomi said, “Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her own people and her own gods. So you should do the same thing.”

But Ruth said, “Don’t force me to leave you! Don’t force me to go back to my own people. Let me go with you. Wherever you go, I will go. Wherever you sleep, I will sleep. Your people will be my people. Your God will be my God. Where you die, I will die. And that is where I will be buried. I ask the Lord to punish me if I do not keep this promise: Only death will separate us.”

I ask the Lord ... separate us Literally, “May the Lord do this to me, and even more, unless death separates us!”
Naomi saw that Ruth wanted very much to go with her. So Naomi stopped arguing with her. Naomi and Ruth traveled until they came to the town of Bethlehem. When the two women entered Bethlehem, all the people were very excited. They said, “Is this Naomi?”

But Naomi told the people, “Don’t call me Naomi, call me Marah. Use this name because God, All-Powerful has made my life very sad. I had everything I wanted when I left. But now, the Lord brings me home with nothing. The Lord has made me sad, so why should you call me ‘Happy’? God, All-Powerful has given much trouble to me.”

So Naomi and her daughter-in-law Ruth (the woman from Moab) came back from the hill country of Moab. These two women came to Bethlehem, Judah at the beginning of the barley harvest.

Ruth Meets Boaz

There was a rich man living in Bethlehem. His name was Boaz. Boaz was one of Naomi’s close relatives from Elimelech’s family.

One day Ruth (the woman from Moab) said to Naomi, “I think I will go to the fields. Maybe I can find someone that would be kind to me and let me gather the grain he leaves in his field.”

Naomi said, “Fine, daughter, go ahead.” So Ruth went to the fields. She followed the workers that were cutting the grain, and she gathered the grain that was left. It happened that part of the field belonged to Boaz, the man from Elimelech’s family.

Later, Boaz came to the field from Bethlehem. Boaz greeted his workers. He said, “The Lord be with you!” And the workers answered, “And may the Lord bless you!”

Then Boaz spoke to his servant that was in charge of the workers. He asked, “Whose girl is that?”

The servant answered, “She is that Moabite woman who came with Naomi from the hill country of Moab. She came early this morning and asked me if she could follow the workers and gather the grain that was left on the ground. And she has been working ever since. That is her house over there.”

Then Boaz said to Ruth, “Listen, child. Stay here in my field to gather grain for yourself. There is no need for you to go to any other person’s field. Continue following behind my women workers. Watch to see which fields they go to, and follow them. I have warned the young men not to bother you. When you are thirsty, go and drink from the same water jug my men drink from.”

Then Ruth bowed very low to the ground. She said to Boaz, “I am surprised you even noticed me! I am a stranger, but you have been very kind to me.”

Boaz answered her, “I know about all the help you have given to Naomi, your mother-in-law. I know you helped her even after your husband died. And I know that you left your father and mother and your own country and came here to this country. You did not know any people from this country, but you came here with Naomi. The Lord will reward you for all the good things you have done. You will be paid in full by the Lord, the God of Israel. You have come to him for safety, and he will protect you.”

Then Ruth said, “You are very kind to me, sir. I am only a servant. I am not even equal to one of your servants. But you have said kind words to me and comforted me.”

That is her house over there Or, “She only rested a short time in that shelter.”

You have come to him for safety Literally, “You have come under his wings for safety.”
14 At lunch time, Boaz told Ruth, “Come here! Eat some of our bread. Here, dip your bread in our vinegar.”

So Ruth sat down with the workers. Boaz gave her some roasted grain. Ruth ate until she was full, and there was some food left. 15 Then Ruth got up and went back to work.

Then Boaz told his servants, “Let Ruth gather even around the piles of grain. Don’t stop her. 16 And make her work easier by dropping some full heads of grain for her. Let her gather that grain. Don’t tell her to stop.”

Naomi Hears About Boaz

17 Ruth worked in the fields until evening. Then she separated the grain from the chaff.* There was about 1/2 bushel* of barley. 18 Ruth carried the grain into town to show her mother-in-law what she had gathered. She also gave her the food that was left from lunch.

19 Her mother-in-law asked her, “Where did you gather all this grain? Where did you work? Bless the man who noticed you.”

Then Ruth told her who she had worked with. She said, “The man I worked with today is a man named Boaz.”

20 Then Naomi told her daughter-in-law, “Boaz is one of our relatives. Boaz is one of our protectors.”

21 Then Ruth said, “Boaz also told me to come back and continue working. Boaz said that I should work closely with his servants until the harvest is finished.”

22 Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law Ruth, “It is good for you to continue working with his women servants. If you work in another field, some man might hurt you.” 23 So Ruth continued working closely with the women servants of Boaz. She gathered grain until the barley harvest was finished. She also worked there through the end of the wheat harvest. Ruth continued living with Naomi, her mother-in-law.

The Threshing Floor

3 Then Naomi, Ruth’s mother-in-law, said to her, “My daughter, maybe I should find a husband and a nice home for you. That would be good for you. 2 Maybe Boaz is the right man. Boaz is our close relative. You worked with his women servants. Tonight he will be working at the threshing floor. 3 Go wash and get dressed. Put on a nice dress, and go down to the threshing floor. But don’t let Boaz see you until he has finished eating supper. 4 After he eats, he will lie down to rest. Watch him so that you will know where he lies down. Go there and lift the cover off his feet. 5 Then lie down there with Boaz. He will tell you what you should do about marriage.

5 Then Ruth answered, “I will do the thing you say.”

6 So Ruth went down to the threshing floor. Ruth did everything that her mother-in-law told her to do. 7 After eating and drinking, Boaz was very satisfied. Boaz went to lie down near the pile of grain. Then Ruth went to him very quietly and lifted the cover from his feet. Ruth lay down by his feet.

8 About midnight, Boaz rolled over in his sleep and woke up. He was very surprised. There was a woman lying near his feet. 9 Boaz said, “Who are you?”

She said, “I am Ruth, your servant girl. Spread your cover over me. You are my protector.”

10 Then Boaz said, “May the Lord bless you, young woman. You have been very kind to chaff Parts of grain a farmer throws away. Farmers cracked the hulls from seeds and let the wind blow these hulls (chaff) away.

1/2 bushel Literally, “One Ephah.”

protector(s) Or, “redeemer,” a person who cared for and protected the family of a dead relative. Often this person bought back (redeemed) the poor relatives from slavery, making them free again. close relative, protector This is a close relative that could marry Ruth, so she could have children. This man would care for this family, but this family and their property would not belong to him. They would belong to Ruth’s dead husband.
threshing floor The place where workers beat grain to separate the seeds of grain from the chaff.
lift the cover off his feet Literally, “uncover his legs.” This showed Ruth was asking Boaz to be her Protector.
Spread your cover over me Or, “Spread your wing over me.” This showed Ruth was asking for help and protection. See Ruth 2:12.
RUTH 3:11–4:10

me. Your kindness to me is greater than the kindness you showed to Naomi in the beginning. You could have looked for a young man to marry, rich or poor. But you did not. 11Now, young woman, don’t be afraid. I will do the things you ask. All the people in our town know that you are a very good woman. 12And it is true, I am a close relative.* But there is a man that is a closer relative to you than I. 13Stay here tonight. In the morning we will see if he will help* you. If he decides to help you, then that is fine. If he refuses to help, then I promise, as the Lord lives, I will marry you and buy back Elimelech’s land for you.*

So lie here until morning.”

14 So Ruth lay near Boaz’s feet until morning. She got up while it was still dark, before it was light enough for people to recognize each other. Boaz said to her, “We will keep it a secret that you came here to me last night.” 15Then Boaz said, “Bring me your coat. Now, hold it open.”

So Ruth held her coat open, and Boaz measured about a bushel of barley* as a gift to Naomi, her mother-in-law. Boaz then wrapped it in Ruth’s coat, and put it on her back. Then he went to the city.

16 Ruth went to the home of her mother-in-law, Naomi. Naomi asked, “Who’s there?”

Ruth went in the house* telling Naomi everything that Boaz did for her. She said, “Boaz gave me this barley as a gift for you. Boaz said that I must not go home without bringing a gift for you.”

18 Naomi said, “Daughter, be patient until we hear what happens. Boaz will not rest until he has finished doing what he should do.

Boaz and the Other Relative

4 Boaz went to the place where people gather near the city gates. Boaz sat there until the close relative* Boaz had mentioned passed by. Boaz called to him, “Come here, friend! Sit here!”

2 Then Boaz gathered some witnesses. Boaz gathered ten of the elders* of the city. He told them, “Sit here!” So they sat down.

3 Then Boaz spoke to the close relative.* He said, “Naomi came back from the hill country of Moab. She is selling the land* that belonged to our relative Elimelech. I decided to tell you about this in front of the people living here and in front of the elders* of my people. If you want to buy back the land, then buy it! If you don’t want to redeem the land, then tell me. I know that I am the next person after you that can redeem the land. If you don’t buy the land back, then I will.”

5 Then Boaz said, “If you buy the land from Naomi, you also get the dead man’s wife, Ruth the Moabite woman. When Ruth has a child, the child will get the land.* That way, the land will stay in the dead man’s family.”

6 The close relative* answered, “I cannot buy back the land. That land should belong to me. But I cannot buy it. If I do, I might lose my own land. So you can buy the land.” (Long ago in Israel, when people bought or redeemed property, one person took off his shoe and gave it to the other person. This was their proof of purchase.)

8 So the close relative said, “Buy the land.” And then the close relative took off his shoe* and gave it to Boaz.

9 Then Boaz said to the elders* and all the people, “You are witnesses today that I am buying from Naomi everything that belonged to Elimelech, Kilion, and Mahlon. I am also buying Ruth to be my wife. I am doing this so the dead man’s property will stay with his family. This way, the dead man’s name will not be separated from his family and his land. You are witnesses this day.”

Spread your cover over me Or, “Spread your wing over me.” This showed Ruth was asking for help and protection. See Ruth 2:12.

protector, close relative This is a close relative that could marry Ruth, so she could have children. This man would care for this family, but this family and their property would not belong to him. They would belong to Ruth’s dead husband.

help Or, “redeem.” This meant the close relative would care for and protect the dead man’s family and property, but that property would not be his.

I will marry ... you Literally, “I will redeem you.”

bushel of barley Literally, “six measures* of barley.”

We will know what will happen before the day is ended.”

elders Older men who were city leaders; they helped make decisions for the people.

She is selling the land Or, “She has sold the land.”
So all the people and elders* that were near the city gates were witnesses. They said, “May the Lord make this woman who is coming into your home like Rachel and Leah who built the house of Israel.* Become powerful in Ephrathah!* Be famous in Bethlehem!

Tamar gave birth to Judah’s son Perez.* And his family became great. In the same way, may the Lord give you many children through Ruth. And may your family be great like his.”

13 So Boaz married Ruth. The Lord allowed Ruth to become pregnant, and she had a son.

14 The women of the town told Naomi,

“Bless the Lord who gave you this child.* He will become famous in Israel. He will make you alive again, and care for you in your old age. Your daughter-in-law made it happen. She bore this child for you.

She loves you. And she is better for you than seven sons.”

16 Naomi took the boy, held him in her arms, and cared for him. 17 The neighbors gave the boy his name. These women said, “Naomi has a son now!”* And they named him Obed. Obed was Jesse’s father. And Jesse was the father of King David.

18 This is the family history of Perez:

Perez was the father of Hezron.

Hezron was the father of Ram.

Ram was the father of Amminadab.

Amminadab was the father of Nahshon.

Nahshon was the father of Salmon.

Salmon was the father of Boaz.

Boaz was the father of Obed.

Obed was the father of Jesse.

Jesse was the father of David.

elders Older men who were city leaders; they helped make decisions for the people.
built the house of Israel The Hebrew word “built” is like the word meaning “gave birth to sons.”
Ephrathah Another name for Bethlehem.
Perez One of Boaz’s ancestors.
child Literally, “Protector” or “Redeemer.” This might refer to Boaz, or the women might have used this name for the baby because he would be the one to care for Naomi and her family and to carry on the name of Elimelech.

Naomi ... now Literally, “A son was born for Naomi.”
1 Samuel

Elkanah’s Family Worships at Shiloh

1There was a man named Elkanah from Ramah in the hill country of Ephraim. Elkanah was from the Zuph family. Elkanah was the son of Jeroham. Jeroham was Elihu’s son. Elihu was Tohu’s son. Tohu was the son of Zuph, from the family group of Ephraim.

2Elkanah had two wives. One wife was named Hannah and the other wife was named Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah did not.

3Every year Elkanah left his town of Ramah and went up to Shiloh. Elkanah worshiped the Lord All-Powerful at Shiloh and offered sacrifices to the Lord there. Shiloh was where Hophni and Phinehas served as priests of the Lord. Hophni and Phinehas were the sons of Eli.

4Every time Elkanah offered his sacrifices, he always gave one share of the food to his wife Peninnah. Elkanah also gave shares of the food to Peninnah’s children. 5Elkanah always gave an equal share of the food to Hannah. Elkanah did this even though the Lord had not let Hannah have any children. Elkanah did this because Hannah was the wife he really loved.

Peninnah Upsets Hannah

6Peninnah always upset Hannah and made her feel bad. Peninnah did this because Hannah was not able to have children. The same thing happened every year. Every time their family went to the Lord’s house at Shiloh, Peninnah made Hannah upset. One day Elkanah was giving sacrifices. Hannah became upset and began to cry. Hannah would not eat anything. Her husband, Elkanah, said to her, “Hannah, why are you crying? Why won’t you eat? Why are you sad? You have me—I am your husband. You should think I am better than ten sons.”

Hannah’s Prayer

9After eating and drinking, Hannah quietly got up and went to pray to the Lord. Eli the priest was sitting on a chair near the door of the Lord’s Holy Building. Hannah was very sad. She cried very much while she prayed to the Lord. She made a special promise to God. She said, “Lord All-Powerful, see how very sad I am. Remember me! Don’t forget me. If you will give me a son, then I will give him to you. He will be a Nazirite: He will not drink wine or strong drink. And no one will ever cut his hair.”

12Hannah prayed to the Lord a long time. Eli was watching Hannah’s mouth while she was praying. Hannah was praying in her heart. Her lips were moving, but she did not say the words out loud. So Eli thought Hannah was drunk. Eli said to Hannah, “You have had too much to drink! It is time to put away the wine.”

Holy Building This could mean the Holy Tent at Shiloh where people went to worship the Lord or a larger area where they put the Holy Tent.

He will ... not drink This is in the ancient Greek translation and one of the ancient Hebrew scrolls from Qumran, but not in the standard Hebrew text.

He will ... hair Nazirites were people who made a promise to serve God in a special way. They did not cut their hair and they did not eat grapes or drink wine. See Num. 6:5.
15 Hannah answered, “Sir, I have not drunk any wine or beer. I am deeply troubled. I was telling the Lord about all my problems.
16 Don’t think I am a bad woman. I have been praying so long because I have so many troubles and I am very sad.”
17 Eli answered, “Go in peace. May the God of Israel give you the things you asked.”
18 Hannah said, “I hope you are happy with me.” Then Hannah left and ate something. She was not sad any more.
19 Early the next morning Elkanah’s family got up. They worshiped the Lord and then went back home to Ramah.

Samuel’s Birth

Elkanah had sexual relations with his wife Hannah, and the Lord remembered Hannah.
20 By that time the following year, Hannah had become pregnant and had a son. Hannah named her son Samuel.* She said, “His name is Samuel because I asked the Lord for him.”
21 That year Elkanah went to Shiloh to offer sacrifices and to keep the promises he made to God. He took his family with him.
22 But Hannah did not go. She told Elkanah, “When the boy is old enough to eat solid food, I will take him to Shiloh. Then I will give him to the Lord. He will become a Nazirite.”* He will stay there at Shiloh.
23 Hannah’s husband Elkanah said to her, “Do what you think is best. You may stay home until the boy is old enough to eat solid food. May the Lord do what you have said.” So Hannah stayed at home to nurse her son until he was old enough to eat solid food.

Hannah Takes Samuel to Eli at Shiloh

24 When the boy was old enough to eat solid food, Hannah took him to the Lord’s house at Shiloh. Hannah also took a bull that was three years old, 20 pounds* of flour, and a bottle of wine.
25 They went before the Lord. Elkanah killed the bull as a sacrifice to the Lord like he usually did.* Then Hannah gave the boy to Eli. 26 Hannah said to Eli, “Pardon me, sir. I am the same woman that stood near you praying to the Lord. I promise that I am telling the truth. 27 I prayed for this child, and the Lord answered my prayer. The Lord gave me this child. 28 And now I give this child to the Lord. He will serve* the Lord all his life.” Then Hannah left the boy there* and worshiped the Lord.

Hannah Gives Thanks

2 Hannah said:

“My heart is happy in the Lord!
I feel very strong* in my God!
I laugh at my enemies.*
I am very happy in my victory!
There is no Holy God like the Lord.
There is no God but you!
There is no Rock* like our God.
Don’t continue bragging!
Don’t speak proud words!
Why? Because the Lord God knows everything.
God leads and judges people.
The bows of strong soldiers break!
And weak people become strong!
People who had plenty of food in the past must now work to get food.
But people who were hungry in the past now grow fat on food!

Samuel
This name means “His name is El (God).” But in Hebrew it is like the word “ask” or the name “Saul.” There are many places in 1 Samuel where there are word plays with the names Saul and Samuel and the word “ask.”

Nazirite
A person who has made a special promise to God. This name is from the Hebrew word meaning “to separate from.”

He will become a Nazirite
This is not in the standard Hebrew text, but it is in the ancient Greek translation and in one of the Hebrew scrolls from Qumran.

20 pounds
Literally, “an Ephah.”

They went ... he usually did
This is from the ancient Greek translation and one of the ancient Hebrew scrolls from Qumran. It is not in the standard Hebrew text.

serve Or, “belong to.”

left the boy there
This is from one of the ancient Hebrew scrolls from Qumran. It is not in the standard Hebrew text.

I feel very strong Literally, “In the Lord my horn is lifted high.” The horn is a symbol of strength.

I laugh at my enemies
Literally, “My mouth is wide open over my enemies.”

Rock
A name for God. It shows he is like a fortress or a strong place of safety.
The woman who was not able to have children now has seven children! But the woman who had many children is sad because her children are gone.

6 The Lord causes people to die, and he causes them to live. The Lord sends people down to the grave,* and he can raise them up to live again.*

7 The Lord makes some people poor, and he makes other people rich. The Lord humbles some people, and he honors other people.

8 The Lord raises poor people from the dust. He takes away their sadness.* The Lord makes poor people important. He seats them with princes and at the places for honored guests. The Lord made the whole world! And the whole world belongs to him!* 9 The Lord protects his holy people. He keeps them from stumbling. But bad people will be destroyed. They will fall in the darkness. Their power will not help them win.

10 The Lord destroys his enemies. God Most High will thunder in heaven against people. The Lord will judge even the faraway lands. He will give power to his king. He will make his special king strong.”

11 Elkanah and his family went home to Ramah. The boy stayed in Shiloh and served the Lord under Eli the priest.

Eli’s Evil Sons

12 Eli’s sons were bad men. They did not care about the Lord. 13 They did not care about how priests were supposed to treat people. This is what priests should do for people: Each time a person brings a sacrifice, the priests should put the meat in a pot of boiling water. Then the priest’s servant should get the special fork that has three points. 14 The priest’s servant should use that fork to get some meat out of the pot or kettle. The priest should get only whatever meat the servant removes from the pot with the fork. That is what the priests should have done for all the Israelites who came to offer sacrifices at Shiloh.

15 But Eli’s sons did not do that. Even before the fat was burned on the altar, their servant would go to the people offering sacrifices. The priest’s servant would say, “Give the priest some meat to roast. The priest won’t accept boiled meat from you.”

16 Maybe the man offering the sacrifice would say, “Burn the fat first, and then you can take anything you want.” Then the priest’s servant would answer: “No, give me the meat now. If you don’t give it to me, I’ll take it from you!”

17 In this way, Hophni and Phinehas showed that they did not respect the offerings made to the Lord. This was a very bad sin against the Lord!

18 But Samuel served the Lord. Samuel was a helper who wore the linen ephod.* 19 Every year Samuel’s mother made a little robe for Samuel. She took the little robe to Samuel when she went up to Shiloh with her husband for the sacrifice every year.

20 Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife. Eli would say, “May the Lord give you more children through Hannah. These children will take the place of the boy Hannah prayed for and gave to the Lord.”

Elkanah and Hannah went home and the Lord was kind to Hannah. She had three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel grew up at the holy place near the Lord.

---

grave Or, “Sheol,” the place of death.
takes away their sadness Literally, “He picks up poor people from the ashes.”
The Lord made ... belongs to him Literally, “The whole world, even to its foundations, belongs to the Lord. The Lord set the world on those pillars.”

Burn the fat The fat was the part of the animal that belonged only to God. The priests were supposed to burn the fat on the altar as a gift to God.

ephod A special coat a man wore to show that he was a priest or a priest’s helper.
Eli Fails to Control His Evil Sons

22Eli was very old. He heard again and again about the things his sons were doing to all the Israelites at Shiloh. Eli also heard about his sons sleeping with the women who served at the door of the Meeting Tent.

23Eli said to his sons, “The people here told me about the bad things you have done. Why do you do these bad things? 24Sons, don’t do these bad things. The Lord’s people are saying bad things about you. 25If a person sins against another person, God may help him. But if a person sins against the Lord, then who can help that person?”

But Eli’s sons refused to listen to Eli. So the Lord decided to kill Eli’s sons.

26The boy Samuel kept growing. He was pleasing to God and to the people.

The Terrible Prophecy about Eli’s Family

27A man of God* came to Eli and said, “The Lord says these things, ‘Your ancestors* were slaves of Pharaoh’s family. But I appeared to your ancestors at that time. 28I chose your family group from all the family groups of Israel. I chose your family group to be my priests. I chose them to offer sacrifices on my altar. I chose them to burn incense* and wear the ephod.* I also let your family group have the meat from the sacrifices that the people of Israel give to me. 29So why don’t you respect those sacrifices and gifts? You honor your sons more than me. You become fat on the best parts of the meat—and the people of Israel bring that meat to me.’

30“The Lord God of Israel promised that your father’s family would serve him forever. But now the Lord says this, ‘That will never be! I will honor people who honor me. But bad things will happen to people who refuse to respect me. 31The time is coming when I will destroy all your descendants.* No one in your family will live to be an old man. 32Good things will happen to Israel, but you will see bad things happening at home.* No one in your family will live to be an old man. 33There is one man that I will save to serve at my altar. He will live to be very old. He will live until his eyes wear out and his strength is gone. All of your descendants will die by the sword. 34I will give you a sign to show these things will come true. Your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, will die on the same day. 35I will choose a faithful priest for myself. This priest will listen to me and do what I want. I will make this priest’s family strong. He will always serve before my chosen king.* 36Then all the people who are left in your family will come and bow down before this priest. They will beg for a little money or a piece of bread. They will say, ‘Please give me a job as priest so I can have some food to eat.’”

God Calls Samuel

3The boy Samuel served the Lord under Eli. At that time, the Lord did not speak directly to people very often. There were very few visions.*

2Eli’s eyes were so weak he was almost blind. One night he lay down in bed. 3Samuel lay in bed in the Lord’s Holy Building.* God’s Holy Box* was in that Holy Building. The Lord’s lamp was still burning. 4The Lord called Samuel. Samuel answered, “Here I am.” 5Samuel thought Eli was calling him. So Samuel ran to Eli. Samuel said to Eli, “Here I am. You called me.”

man of God A prophet, a person who spoke for God.
ancestors Literally, “father’s house.” This means the people that a person is descended from.
incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.
ephod A special coat a man wore to show that he was a priest or a priest’s helper.

descendants A person’s children and their future families.
buts will you see bad things happening at home This phrase is not in the ancient Greek translation or the Hebrew scrolls from Qumran.
chosen king Literally, “anointed one.”
visions Like dreams. God gave messages to his special people by letting them see and hear things in visions.
Holy Building This could mean the Holy Tent at Shiloh where people went to worship the Lord, or a larger area where they put the Holy Tent.
God’s Holy Box The Box of the Agreement. In this box were many things from the time Israel was in the Sinai desert.
But Eli said, “I didn’t call you. Go back to bed.”
Samuel went back to bed. 6Again the Lord called, “Samuel!” Again Samuel ran to Eli and said, “Here I am. You called me.”
Eli said, “I didn’t call you. Go back to bed.”
Samuel did not yet know the Lord. The Lord had not spoken directly to him yet.*
The Lord called Samuel the third time. Again Samuel got up and went to Eli. Samuel said, “Here I am. You called me.”
Then Eli understood that the Lord was calling the boy. 9Eli told Samuel, “Go to bed. If he calls you again, say, ‘Speak, Lord. I am your servant, and I am listening.’”
So Samuel went back to bed. 10The Lord came and stood there. He called as he did before. He said, “Samuel, Samuel!”
Samuel said, “Speak. I am your servant, and I am listening.”
The Lord said to Samuel, “I will soon do something in Israel. People who hear about it will be shocked. 12I will do everything I said I would do against Eli and his family. I will do everything from the beginning to the end. 13I told Eli I would punish his family forever. I will do that because Eli knew that his sons were saying and doing bad things against God but Eli failed to control them. 14That is why I swore (promised) that sacrifices and grain offerings will never take away the sins of the people in Eli’s family.”
Samuel lay down in bed until the morning came. He got up early and opened the doors of the Lord’s house. Samuel was afraid to tell Eli about the vision.*
But Eli said to Samuel, “Samuel, my son!”
Samuel answered, “Yes, sir.”
Eli asked, “What did the Lord say to you? Don’t hide it from me. God will punish you if you hide anything from the message God spoke to you.”
So Samuel told Eli everything. Samuel did not hide anything from Eli.
Eli said, “He is the Lord. Let him do whatever he thinks is right.”
19The Lord was with Samuel while he grew up. The Lord did not let any of Samuel’s messages prove false. 20Then all Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, knew that Samuel was a true prophet of the Lord. 21And the Lord continued to appear to Samuel at Shiloh. The Lord revealed himself to Samuel as the word of the Lord.*
News about Samuel spread through all of Israel. Eli was very old. His sons kept doing bad things before the Lord.*

The Philistines Defeat the Israelites
At that time, the Israelites went out to fight against the Philistines. The Israelites made their camp at Ebenezer. The Philistines made their camp at Aphek. 2The Philistines prepared to attack Israel. The battle began.
The Philistines defeated the Israelites. The Philistines killed about 4,000 soldiers from Israel’s army. 3The Israelite soldiers came back to their camp. The elders (leaders) of Israel asked, “Why did the Lord let the Philistines defeat us? Let’s bring the Lord’s Box of the Agreement* from Shiloh. In this way, God will go with us into battle. He will save us from our enemies.”
So the people sent men to Shiloh. The men brought back the Lord All-Powerful’s Box of the Agreement.* On top of the Box are the Cherub angels. They are like the throne that the Lord sits on. Eli’s two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, came with the Box.
When the Lord’s Box of the Agreement* came into the camp, all the Israelites gave a great shout. That shout made the ground shake.

The Lord had not spoken directly to him yet  Literally, “The word of the Lord had not yet been revealed to him.”
vision  Like a dream. God gave messages to his special people by letting them see and hear things in visions.
They asked, “Why are the people so excited in the Hebrew* camp?”

Then the Philistines learned that the Lord’s Holy Box* had been brought into Israel’s camp. 7The Philistines became afraid. The Philistines said, “Gods have come to their camp! We’re in trouble. This has never happened before! 8We are worried. Who can save us from these powerful gods? These gods are the same gods that gave the Egyptians those diseases and terrible sicknesses. 9Be brave, Philistines! Fight like men! In the past, the Hebrew people were our slaves. So fight like men or you will become their slaves!”

10So the Philistines fought very hard and defeated the Israelites. Every Israelite soldier ran away to his tent. It was a terrible defeat for Israel. 30,000 Israelite soldiers were killed. 11The Philistines took God’s Holy Box* and killed Eli’s two sons, Hophni and Phinehas.

12That day a man from the family group of Benjamin ran from the battle. He tore his clothes and put dust on his head to show his great sadness. 13Eli was sitting on a chair near the city gates when this man came to Shiloh. Eli was worried about God’s Holy Box,* so he was sitting there waiting and watching. Then the Benjamite man came into Shiloh and told the bad news. All the people in town began to cry out loud. 14–15Eli was 98 years old. Eli was blind, so he could not see what was happening. But he could hear the loud noise of the people crying. Eli asked, “Why are the people making this loud noise?”

The Benjamite man ran to Eli and told him what happened. 16The Benjamite man told Eli, “I am the man who just came from the battle. I ran away from the battle today!”

Eli asked, “What happened, son?”

17The Benjamite man answered, “Israel ran away from the Philistines. The Israelite army has lost many soldiers. Your two sons are both dead. And the Philistines took God’s Holy Box.*”

18When the Benjamite man mentioned God’s Holy Box,* Eli fell backward off his chair near the gate and broke his neck. Eli was old and fat, so he died. Eli had led Israel for 20 years.*

The Glory Is Gone

19Eli’s daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant. It was nearly time for her baby to be born. She heard the news that God’s Holy Box* was taken. She also heard that her father-in-law Eli and her husband Phinehas were both dead. As soon as she heard the news, her pain started and she began giving birth to her baby. 20She was about to die when the women who were helping her said, “Don’t worry! You have given birth to a son.”

But Eli’s daughter-in-law did not answer or pay attention. 21Eli’s daughter-in-law named the baby Ichabod,* that is to say, “Israel’s glory has been taken away!”* She did this because God’s Holy Box* was taken away and because both her father-in-law and her husband were dead. 22She said, “Israel’s glory has been taken away” because the Philistines had taken God’s Holy Box.

The Holy Box Troubles the Philistines

5The Philistines carried God’s Holy Box,* from Ebenezer to Ashdod. 2The Philistines carried God’s Holy Box into the temple of Dagon* and put it next to the statue of Dagon. 3The next morning, the people of Ashdod got up and found Dagon lying face down on the ground. Dagon had fallen down before the Lord’s Box.

20 years This is from the ancient Greek translation and Josephus. The standard Hebrew text has “40 years.”

Ichabod This name means “No glory!” The Greek has “Ouai Baechaboth.”

Eli’s daughter-in-law … taken away This is not in the Greek translation.

Dagon The Canaanite people worshiped this false god hoping he would give them a good harvest of grain. This was probably the most important god for the Philistine people.
The people of Ashdod put the statue of Dagon* back in its place. 4But the next morning when the people of Ashdod got up, they found Dagon on the ground again! Dagon had fallen down before the Lord’s Holy Box.* This time, Dagon’s head and hands were broken off and lying on the threshold.* Only Dagon’s body was still in one piece. 5That is why, even today, Dagon’s priests or any other people who enter Dagon’s Temple at Ashdod refuse to step on the threshold.

The Lord made life hard for the people of Ashdod and their neighbors. The Lord gave them many troubles. He caused them to get tumors.* The Lord also sent mice to them. The mice ran all over their ships and then onto their land. The people in the city were very afraid.* 7The people of Ashdod saw what was happening. They said, “The Holy Box* of the God of Israel can’t stay here! God is punishing us and Dagon* our god.”

8The people of Ashdod called the five Philistine rulers together. The people of Ashdod asked the rulers, “What must we do with the Holy Box* of the God of Israel?”

The rulers answered, “Move the Holy Box* of the God of Israel to Gath.” So the Philistines moved God’s Holy Box.

But after the Philistines had moved God’s Holy Box* to Gath, the Lord punished that city. The people became very scared. God caused many troubles for all the people—young and old. God caused the people in Gath to have tumors.* 10So the Philistines sent God’s Holy Box to Ekron.

But when God’s Holy Box* came into Ekron, the people of Ekron complained. They said, “Why are you bringing the Box of the God of Israel to our city Ekron? Do you want to kill us and our people?” 11The people of Ekron called all the Philistine rulers together. The people of Ekron said to the rulers, “Send the Box of the God of Israel back to its place before it kills us and our people!”

The people of Ekron were very scared! God made life very hard for them in that place. 12Many people died. And the people who did not die, had tumors.* The people of Ekron cried loudly to heaven.

God’s Holy Box Is Sent Back Home

6The Philistines kept the Holy Box* in their land seven months. 2The Philistines called their priests and magicians. The Philistines said, “What must we do with the Lord’s Box? Tell us how to send the Box back home!”

3The priests and magicians answered, “If you send back the Holy Box* of the God of Israel, don’t send it away empty. You must offer gifts so the God of Israel will take away your sins. Then you will be healed. You will be made pure. You should do these things so God will stop punishing you.”*

4The Philistines asked, “What kind of gifts should we send for Israel’s God to forgive us?” The priests and magicians answered, “There are five Philistine leaders, one leader for each city.* All of you people and your leaders had the same problems. So you must make five gold models to look like five tumors. And you must make five gold models to look like five mice. 5So, make models of the tumors and models of the mice that are ruining the country. Give these gold models to the God of Israel as payment. Then maybe the God of Israel will stop punishing you, your gods, and your land. 6Don’t be stubborn like Pharaoh and the Egyptians. God punished the Egyptians. That is why the Egyptians let the Israelites leave Egypt.

7“You must build a new wagon and get two cows that just had calves. These must be cows that have never worked in the fields. Tie the cows to the wagon so they can pull it. Then

You should do ... punishing you This is from the ancient Greek translation and one of the ancient Hebrew scrolls from Qumran. The standard Hebrew has “Then you will know why God did not stop punishing you.”
take the calves back home and put them in their pen. Don’t let them follow their mothers. Put the Lord’s Holy Box on the wagon. You must put the golden models in the bag beside the Box. The golden models are your gifts for God to forgive your sins. Send the wagon straight on its way.

Put the Lord’s Holy Box on the wagon. You must put the golden models in the bag beside the Box. The golden models are your gifts for God to forgive your sins. Send the wagon straight on its way. Watch the wagon. If the wagon goes toward Beth Shemesh in Israel’s own land, then the Lord has given us this great sickness. But if the cows do not go straight to Beth Shemesh, then we will know that Israel’s God has not punished us. We will know that our sickness just happened.”

The Philistines did what the priests and magicians said. The Philistines found two cows that had just had calves. The Philistines tied the cows to the wagon and put the calves in their pens at home. Then the Philistines put the Lord’s Holy Box on the wagon. They also put the bag with the golden models of the tumors and mice on the wagon. The cows went straight to Beth Shemesh. The cows stayed on the road, mooing all the way. The cows did not turn right or left. The Philistine rulers followed the cows as far as the city limits of Beth Shemesh.

The people of Beth Shemesh were harvesting their wheat in the valley. They looked up and saw the Holy Box. They were very happy to see the Box again. They ran to get it. The wagon came to the field that belonged to Joshua of Beth Shemesh and stopped there near a large rock.

Some Levites took down the Lord’s Holy Box and the bag that had the golden models. The Levites put the Lord’s Box and the bag that was with it on the large rock.

The people of Beth Shemesh cut up the wagon and killed the cows. That day, they sacrificed the cows as burnt offerings to the Lord.

The five Philistine rulers watched the people of Beth Shemesh do all these things. Then the five Philistine rulers went back to Ekron that same day.

In this way, the Philistines sent golden models of tumors as gifts for their sins to the Lord. They sent one golden model of a tumor for each Philistine town. These Philistine towns were Ashdod, Gaza, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron. And the Philistines also sent golden models of mice. The number of these golden mice was the same number as the towns that belonged to the five Philistine rulers. These towns had walls around them. And each town had villages around it.

The people of Beth Shemesh put the Lord’s Holy Box on a rock. That rock is still in the field of Joshua from Beth Shemesh. But there were no priests there, and the men of Beth Shemesh looked at the Holy Box of the Lord. So God killed 70 men from Beth Shemesh. The people of Beth Shemesh cried because the Lord punished them so severely.

So the people of Beth Shemesh said, “Where is a priest that can care for this Holy Box? Where should the Box go from here?”

There was a priest at Kiriath Jearim. The people of Beth Shemesh sent messengers to the people of Kiriath Jearim. The messengers said, “The Philistines have brought back the Lord’s Holy Box. Come down and take it to your city.”

The men of Kiriath Jearim came and took the Lord’s Holy Box. They took the Lord’s Box up the hill to the house of the priest, Abinadab. They did a special ceremony to prepare Abinadab’s son, Eleazar, to guard the Lord’s Box. The Box stayed at Kiriath Jearim a long time. It stayed there 20 years.

The Lord Saves the Israelites

The people of Israel began to follow the Lord again. Samuel told the people of Israel, “If you are really coming back to the Lord—with all your heart—then you must throw Don’t ... follow their mothers The Philistines thought that if the cows did not try to find their calves it would prove that God was leading them and that he had accepted their gifts.

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement, the box that contained the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

Levites People from the family group of Levi who helped the priests.

no priests Only priests were allowed to carry the Box of the Agreement.
away your foreign gods. You must throw away your idols of Ashtoreth. And you must give yourselves fully to the Lord. You must serve only the Lord! Then the Lord will save you from the Philistines."

4So the Israelites threw away their statues of Baal and Ashtoreth. The Israelites served only the Lord.

5Samuel said, “All Israel must meet at Mizpah. I will pray to the Lord for you.”

6The Israelites met together at Mizpah. They got water and poured it out before the Lord. They did not eat any food that day and they confessed their sins. They said, “We have sinned against the Lord.” So Samuel served as a judge of Israel at Mizpah.

7The Philistines heard that the Israelites were meeting at Mizpah. The Philistine rulers went to fight against the Israelites. The Israelites heard the Philistines were coming, and they became afraid. The Israelites said to Samuel, “Don’t stop praying to the Lord our God for us! Ask the Lord to save us from the Philistines!”

8Samuel took a baby lamb. He burned the lamb as a whole burnt offering to the Lord. Samuel prayed to the Lord for Israel. The Lord answered Samuel’s prayer. While Samuel was burning the sacrifice, the Philistines came to fight Israel. But the Lord caused loud thunder near the Philistines. This confused the Philistines. The thunder scared the Philistines, and they became confused. Their leaders were not able to control them.

So the Israelites defeated the Philistines in battle. The men of Israel ran out of Mizpah and chased the Philistines. They chased them all the way to Beth Car. They killed Philistine soldiers all along the way.

Asherah The Canaanite people thought that this false goddess could make people able to have babies. She was their goddess of love and war.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

judge(s) Special leaders who had the work of leading, judging, and protecting the people of Israel before there were kings in Israel.

Peace Comes to Israel

12After this, Samuel set up a special stone. He did this to help people remember the things God did. Samuel put the stone between Mizpah and Shen. Samuel named the stone “Stone of Help.” Samuel said, “The Lord helped us all the way to this place!”

13The Philistines were defeated. They did not enter the land of Israel again. The Lord was against the Philistines during the rest of Samuel’s life. The Philistines had taken some cities from Israel. But the Israelites won back those towns. Israel rescued those cities throughout the Philistine area, from Ekron to Gath. There was also peace between Israel and the Amorites.

15Samuel led Israel all his life. Samuel went from place to place judging the people of Israel. Every year he traveled around the country. He went to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah. So he judged and ruled the people of Israel in all these places. But Samuel’s home was in Ramah. So Samuel always went back to Ramah. Samuel judged and ruled Israel from that town. And Samuel built an altar to the Lord in Ramah.

Israel Asks For A King

8When Samuel became old, he made his sons judges for Israel. Samuel’s first son was named Joel. His second son was named Abijah. Joel and Abijah were judges in Beersheba. But Samuel’s sons did not live the same way he did. Joel and Abijah accepted bribes. They took money secretly and changed their decisions in court. They cheated people in court. So all the elders (leaders) of Israel met together. They went to Ramah to meet with Samuel. The elders (leaders) said to Samuel, “You’re old, and your sons don’t live right. They are not like you. Now, give us a king to rule us like all the other nations.”

6So, the elders (leaders) asked for a king to lead them. Samuel thought this was a bad idea. So Samuel prayed to the Lord. 7The Lord told Samuel, “Do what the people tell you. They have not rejected you. They have rejected me! They don’t want me to be their king! 8They are doing the same thing they have always done. I took them out of Egypt. But they left me and served other gods. They are doing the same to you. 9So listen to the people and do what they say. But give them a warning. Tell the people what a king will do to them! Tell them how a king rules people.”

10 Those people asked for a king. So Samuel told those people everything the Lord said. 11Samuel said, “If you have a king ruling over you, this is what he will do: He will take away your sons. He will force them to be soldiers—they must fight from his chariots and become horse soldiers in his army. Your sons will become guards running in front of the king’s chariot.

12 A king will force your sons to become soldiers. That king will choose which of your sons will be officers over 1,000 men and which will be officers over 50 men.

“A king will force some of your sons to plow his fields and gather his harvest. He will force some of your sons to make weapons for war. He will force them to make things for his chariots!

13 A king will take your daughters. He will force some of your daughters to make perfume for him. And he will force some of your daughters to cook and bake for him.

14 A king will take your best fields, vineyards, and olive groves. He will take those things from you and give them to his officers. 15He will take one tenth of your grain and grapes. He will give these things to his officers and servants.

16 A king will take your men and women servants. He will take your best cattle* and your donkeys. He will use them all for his own work. 17And he will take one tenth of your flocks.

And you yourselves will become slaves of this king. 18When that time comes, you will cry because of the king you chose. But the Lord will not answer you at that time.”

19But the people would not listen to Samuel. They said, “No! We want a king to rule over us. 20Then we will be the same as all the other nations. Our king will lead us. He will go before us and fight our battles.”

21Samuel listened to the people and then repeated their words to the Lord. 22The Lord answered, “You must listen to them! Give them a king.”

Then Samuel told the people of Israel, “Fine! You will have a new king. Now, all of you people go back home.”

Saul Looks for His Father’s Donkeys

9Kish was an important man from the family group of Benjamin. Kish was the son of Abiel. Abiel was the son of Zeror. Zeror was the son of Becorath. Becorath was the son of Aphiah, a man from Benjamin. 2Kish had a son named Saul. Saul was a handsome young man. There was no one more handsome than Saul. Saul stood a head taller than any other man in Israel.

3One day, Kish’s donkeys became lost. So Kish said to his son Saul, “Take one of the servants and go look for the donkeys.” 4Saul went to look for the donkeys. Saul walked through the hills of Ephraim. Then Saul walked through the area around Shalisha. But Saul and the servant could not find Kish’s donkeys. So Saul and the servant went to the area around Shalim. But the donkeys were not there either. So Saul traveled through the land of Benjamin. But he and the servant still could not find the donkeys.

5Finally, Saul and the servant came to the town named Zuph. Saul said to his servant, “Let’s go back. My father will stop worrying about the donkeys and start worrying about us.” 6But the servant answered, “A man of God* is in this town. People respect him.

---

cattle This is from the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew has, “young men.”

man of God A prophet, a person that God sent to speak to the people.
Everything he says comes true. So let’s go into town. Maybe the man of God will tell us where we should go next.”

Saul said to his servant, “Sure, we can go into town. But what can we give to him? We have no gift to give the man of God. Even the food in our bags is gone. What can we give him?”

Again the servant answered Saul, “Look, I have a little bit of money.* Let’s give it to the man of God.* Then he will tell us where we should go.”

Saul said to his servant, “That is a good idea! Let’s go!” So they went to the town where the man of God was.

Saul and the servant were walking up the hill toward town. They met some young women on the road. The young women were coming out to get water. Saul and the servant asked the young women, “Is the seer* here?” (In the past, people in Israel called a prophet a “seer.”) So if they wanted to ask something from God, they would say, “Let’s go to the seer.”

The young women answered, “Yes, the seer* is here. He is just up the road. He came to town today. Some people are meeting together today to share in a fellowship offering at the place for worship.* So, go into town and you will find him. If you hurry, you can catch him before he goes up to eat at the place for worship. The seer blesses the sacrifice. So the people won’t start eating until he gets there. If you hurry, you can find the seer.”

Saul and the servant started walking up the hill to town. Just as they came into town, they saw Samuel walking toward them. Samuel was just coming out of town on his way to the place for worship.*

The day before, the Lord had told Samuel, “At this time tomorrow I will send a man to you. He will be from the family group of Benjamin. You must anoint* him and make him the new leader over my people Israel. This man will save my people from the Philistines. I have seen my people suffering. I have listened to the cries from my people.”

Samuel saw Saul, and the Lord said to Samuel, “This is the man I told you about. He will rule my people.”

Saul went up to a man near the gate to ask directions. This man just happened to be Samuel. Saul said, “Excuse me. Could you tell me where the seer’s* house is?”

Samuel answered, “I am the seer.* Go on up ahead of me to the place for worship.* You and your servant will eat with me today. I will let you go home tomorrow morning. I will answer all your questions. And don’t worry about the donkeys that you lost three days ago. They have been found. Now, there is something that everybody in Israel is looking for and that something is you and your family!”

Saul answered, “But I am a member of the family group of Benjamin. It is the smallest family group in Israel. And my family is the smallest in the family group of Benjamin. Why do you say Israel wants me?”

Then Samuel took Saul and his servant to the eating area. About 30 people had been invited to eat together and share the sacrifice. Samuel gave Saul and his servant the most important place at the table. Samuel said to the cook, “Bring the meat I gave you. It is the share I told you to save.”

The cook brought out the thigh* and put it on the table in front of Saul. Samuel said, “Eat the meat that was put in front of you. It was saved for you for this special time when I called the people together.” So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

After they finished eating, they came down from the place for worship* and went

---

a little bit of money Literally, “1/4 shekel of silver.” This was about 1/10 ounce of silver.

man of God A prophet, a person that God sent to speak to the people.

seer Another name for a prophet. This shows that prophets often saw their message from God in some special way.

place for worship Literally, “high place.”

anoint To pour olive oil on a person’s head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

thigh This was probably the left thigh that was reserved for important guests. The right thigh was reserved for the priest that sacrificed the animal. This priest helped kill the animal and put the fat from the animal on the altar as a gift to God.
back to town. Samuel made a bed for Saul on the roof,* and Saul went to sleep.

26Early the next morning, Samuel shouted to Saul on the roof. Samuel said, “Get up. I will send you on your way.” Saul got up and went out of the house with Samuel.

27Saul, his servant, and Samuel were walking together near the edge of town. Samuel said to Saul, “Tell your servant to go on ahead of us. I have a message for you from God.” So the servant walked ahead of them.

Samuel Anoints Saul

10 Samuel took a jar of the special oil. Samuel poured the oil on Saul’s head. Samuel kissed Saul and said, “The Lord has anointed (chosen) you to be the leader over the people who belong to him. You will control the Lord’s people. You will save them from the enemies that are all around them. The Lord has anointed you to be ruler over his people. Here is a sign that will prove this is true:* 2After you leave me today, you will meet two men near Rachel’s tomb on the border of Benjamin at Zelzah. The two men will say to you, ‘Someone found the donkeys you were looking for. Your father stopped worrying about his donkeys. Now he is worrying about you. He is saying: What will I do about my son?’”

3Then you will go until you come to the large oak tree at Tabor. Three men will meet you there. Those three men will be on their way to worship God at Bethel. One man will be carrying three young goats. The second man will be carrying three loaves of bread. And the third man will have a bottle of wine. 4These three men will say hello to you. They will offer you two loaves of bread. And you will accept those two loaves of bread from them. 5Then you will go to Gibeath Elohim. There is a Philistine fort in that place. When you come to this town, a group of prophets will come out. These prophets will come down from the place for worship.* They will be prophesying.* They will be playing harps, tambourines, flutes, and lyres. 6Then the Lord’s Spirit will come on you with great power. You will be changed. You will be like a different man. You will begin to prophesy with these prophets. 7After that happens, you can do whatever you choose to do. Why? Because God will be with you.

8“Go to Gilgal before me. Then I will come there to you. And I will offer burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. But you must wait seven days. Then I will come and tell you what to do.”

Saul Becomes Like the Prophets

9Just as Saul turned to leave Samuel, God turned Saul’s life around. All those things happened that day. 10Saul and his servant went to Gibeath Elohim. At that place, Saul met a group of prophets. God’s Spirit came on Saul with great power, and Saul prophesied with the prophets. 11Some of the people who had known Saul before saw him prophesying* with the prophets. So they asked each other, “What has happened to Kish’s son? Is Saul also one of the prophets?”

12A man living in Gibeath Elohim said, “Yes! And it seems that he is their leader.”* That is why this became a famous saying: “Is Saul also one of the prophets?”

Saul Arrives Home

13After Saul finished prophesying,* he went to the place for worship near his home. 14Saul’s uncle asked Saul and his servant, “Where have you been?” Saul said, “We were looking for the donkeys. When we couldn’t find them, we went to see Samuel.” 15Saul’s uncle said, “Please tell me, what did Samuel say to you?”

Samuel made a bed for Saul on the roof This is from the Greek translation. The Hebrew has, “Samuel spoke with Saul on the roof.” In Israel the roofs were flat, and people used them like an extra room and for storing things.

You will control ... true These lines are from the ancient Greek translation. They are not in the Hebrew text.

place for worship Literally, “high place.”

prophesying Usually, this means “speaking for God.” But here this also means that the Spirit of God took control of the person and caused him to sing and dance.

Yes ... leader Literally, “And who is their father?” Often the man who taught and led other prophets was called “father.”
1 Samuel 10:16–11:7

16 Saul answered, “Samuel told us the donkeys were already found.” Saul did not tell his uncle everything. Saul did not tell him the things Samuel said about the kingdom.

Samuel Announces Saul as King

17 Samuel told all the people of Israel to meet together with the Lord at Mizpah. 18 Samuel told the people of Israel, “The Lord, the God of Israel says, ‘I led Israel out of Egypt. I saved you from Egypt’s control and from the other kingdoms that tried to hurt you.’ 19 But today you have rejected your God. Your God saves you from all your troubles and problems. But you said, ‘No, we want a king to rule us.’ Now come, stand before the Lord in your families and family groups.”

20 Samuel brought all the family groups of Israel near. Then Samuel began to choose the new king. First, the family group of Benjamin was chosen. 21 Samuel told each family in the family group of Benjamin to pass by. Matri’s family was chosen. Then Samuel told each man in Matri’s family to walk by. Saul son of Kish was chosen.

But when the people looked for Saul, they could not find him. 22 Then they asked the Lord, “Has Saul come here yet?”

The Lord said, “Saul is hiding behind the supplies.”

23 The people ran and took Saul out from behind the supplies. Saul stood up among the people. Saul was a head taller than any other person.

24 Samuel said to all the people, “See the man the Lord has chosen. There is no person like Saul among the people.”

Then the people shouted, “Long live the king!”

25 Samuel explained the rules of the kingdom to the people. He wrote the rules in a book. He put the book before the Lord. Then Samuel told the people to go home.

26 Saul also went to his home in Gibeah. God touched the hearts of brave men, and these brave men began to follow Saul. 27 But some troublemakers said, “How can this man save us?” They said bad things about Saul and refused to bring gifts to him. But Saul said nothing.

Nahash, King of the Ammonites

Nahash, the king of the Ammonites, had been hurting the family groups of Gad and Reuben. Nahash poked out the right eye of each of the men. Nahash did not allow anyone to help them. Nahash king of the Ammonites poked out the right eye of every Israelite man living in the area east of the Jordan River. But 7,000 Israelite men ran away from the Ammonites and came to Jabesh Gilead.*

11 About a month later, Nahash the Ammonite and his army surrounded Jabesh Gilead. All the people of Jabesh said to Nahash, “If you will make a treaty with us, we will serve you.”

2 But Nahash the Ammonite answered, “I will make a treaty with you people only if I can poke out the right eye of each person. Then all Israel will be ashamed!”

3 The leaders of Jabesh said to Nahash, “Let us have seven days. We will send messengers through all Israel. If no one comes to help us, we will come up to you and surrender to you.”

Saul Saves Jabesh Gilead

4 The messengers came to Gibeah where Saul lived. They told the news to the people. The people cried loudly. 5 Saul had been out in the field with his cows. Saul came in from the field and heard the people crying. Saul asked, “What’s wrong with the people? Why are they crying?”

Then the people told Saul what the messengers from Jabesh said. 6 Saul listened to their story. Then God’s Spirit came on Saul with great power. Saul became very angry. 7 Saul took a pair of cows and cut them in pieces. Then he gave the pieces of those cows to messengers. He ordered the messengers to carry the pieces throughout the land of Israel. He told them to give this message to the people of Israel: “Come follow Saul and Nahash ... came to Jabesh Gilead  This part is not in the standard Hebrew text, but is found in some ancient translations and in one of the ancient Hebrew scrolls from Qumran.

Samuel. If any person does not come and help them, then this same thing will happen to his cows!”

A great fear from the Lord came on the people. They all came together like one person. 8Saul gathered the men together at Bezek. There were 300,000 men from Israel and 30,000 men from Judah.

9Saul and his army told the messengers from Jabesh, “Tell the people at Jabesh in Gilead that by noon tomorrow, you will be saved.”

The messengers told Saul’s message to the people at Jabesh. The people at Jabesh were very happy. 10Then the people of Jabesh said to Nahash the Ammonite, “Tomorrow we will come to you. Then you can do anything you want to us.”

11The next morning Saul separated his soldiers into three groups. At sunrise, Saul and his soldiers entered the Ammonite camp. Saul attacked while they were changing guards that morning. Saul and his soldiers defeated the Ammonites before noon. The Ammonite soldiers all ran away in different directions—no two soldiers stayed together.

12Then the people said to Samuel, “Where are the people who said they didn’t want Saul to rule as king? Bring those people here, and we will kill them!”

13But Saul said, “No! Don’t kill anyone today! The Lord saved Israel today!”

14Then Samuel said to the people, “Come, let’s go to Gilgal. At Gilgal we will again make Saul the king.”

15All the people went to Gilgal. There, in front of the Lord, the people made Saul king. They offered fellowship offerings to the Lord. Saul and all the Israelites had a great celebration.

Samuel Speaks About the King

12Samuel said to all Israel: “I have done everything you wanted me to do. I have put a king over you. 2Now you have a king to lead you. I am old and gray, but my sons are here with you. I have been your leader since I was a young boy. 3Here I am. If I have done anything wrong, you must tell those things to the Lord and his chosen king. Did I steal anyone’s cow or donkey? Did I hurt or cheat anyone? Did I ever take money, or even a pair of shoes, to do something wrong? If I did any of these things, then I will make it right.”

4The Israelites answered, “No! You never did anything bad to us. You never cheated us or took things from us!”

5Samuel said to the Israelites, “The Lord and his chosen king are witnesses today. They heard what you said. They know that you could find nothing wrong with me.” The people answered, “Yes! The Lord is witness!”

6Then Samuel said to the people, “The Lord has seen what happened. The Lord is the One who chose Moses and Aaron. And he is the one who brought your ancestors out of Egypt. 7Now, stand there and I will tell you about the good things the Lord did for you and your ancestors.

8Jacob went to Egypt. Later, the Egyptians made life hard for his descendants. So they cried to the Lord for help. The Lord sent Moses and Aaron. Moses and Aaron took your ancestors out of Egypt and led them to live in this place.

9“But your ancestors* forgot the Lord their God. So the Lord let them become the slaves of Sisera. Sisera was the commander of the army at Hazor. Then the Lord let them become the slaves of the Philistines and the king of Moab. They all fought against your ancestors. 10But your ancestors cried to the Lord for help. They said, ‘We have sinned. We left the Lord, and we served the false gods Baal* and Ashtoreth.* But now save us from our enemies, and we will serve you.’

11“So the Lord sent Jerub Baal (Gideon), Barak, Jephthah, and Samuel. The Lord saved you from your enemies around you. And you lived in safety. 12But then you saw Nahash king of the Ammonites coming to fight ancestors  Literally, “fathers.” This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

descendants  A person’s children and their future families.

Baal  The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

Ashtoreth  The Canaanite people thought that this false goddess could make people able to have babies. She was their goddess of love and war.
against you. You said, ‘No! We want a king to rule over us!’ You said that, even though the Lord your God was already your king! 13 Now, here is the king you chose. The Lord put this king over you. 14 You must fear and respect the Lord. You must serve him and obey his commands. You must not turn against him. You and the king ruling over you must follow the Lord your God. If you do those things, then God will save you.* 15 But if you don’t obey the Lord and if you turn against him, then he will be against you. The Lord will destroy you and your king!

16 "Now stand still and see the great thing the Lord will do before your eyes. 17 Now is the time of the wheat harvest.* I will pray to the Lord. I will ask him to send thunder and rain. Then you will know you did a very bad thing against the Lord when you asked for a king.”

18 So Samuel prayed to the Lord. That same day the Lord sent thunder and rain. And the people became very afraid of the Lord and Samuel. 19 All the people said to Samuel, “Pray to the Lord your God for us, your servants. Don’t let us die! We have sinned many times. And now we have added to those sins—we have asked for a king.”

20 Samuel answered, “Don’t be afraid. It is true! You did all those bad things. But don’t stop following the Lord. Serve the Lord with all your heart. 21 Idols are only statues—they can’t help you! So don’t worship them. Idols can’t help you or save you. They are nothing! 22 But the Lord won’t leave his people. No, the Lord was pleased to make you his own people. So, for his own good name, he won’t leave you. 23 And as for me, I would never stop praying for you. If I stopped praying for you, then I would be sinning against the Lord. I will continue to teach you the right way to live a good life. 24 But you must honor the Lord. You must truly serve the Lord with all your heart. Remember the wonderful things he did for you! 25 But if you are stubborn and do evil, then God will throw you and your king away—like sweeping dirt out with a broom.”

Saul Makes His First Mistake

13 At that time, Saul had been king one year. After Saul had ruled over Israel two years,* he chose 3,000 men from Israel. There were 2,000 men who stayed with him at Micmash in the hill country of Bethel. There were 1,000 men who stayed with Jonathan at Gibeah in Benjamin. Saul sent the other men in the army back home.

3 Jonathan defeated the Philistines at their camp in Geba. The Philistines heard about this. They said, “The Hebrews have rebelled.” Saul said, “Let the Hebrew people hear what happened.” So Saul told the men to blow trumpets through all the land of Israel. 4 All the Israelites heard the news. They said, “Saul has killed the Philistine leader. Now the Philistines really hate the Israelites!”

The people of Israel were called to join Saul at Gilgal. 5 The Philistines gathered to fight Israel. The Philistines camped at Micmash, east of Beth Aven. The Philistines had 3,000* chariots and 6,000 horse soldiers. There were so many Philistines that they were like sand on the seashore.

6 The Israelites saw that they were in trouble. They felt trapped. They ran away to hide in caves and cracks in the rock. They hid among the rocks, in wells, and in other holes in the ground. 7 Some Hebrews even went across the Jordan River to the land of Gad and Gilead. Saul was still at Gilgal. All the men in his army were shaking with fear.

8 Samuel said he would meet Saul at Gilgal. Saul waited there seven days. But Samuel had not yet come to Gilgal, and the soldiers began to leave Saul. 9 So Saul said, “Bring me the burnt offerings and the fellowship offerings.” Then Saul offered the burnt offering. 10 As soon as Saul finished offering that sacrifice, Samuel arrived. Saul went out to meet him.

Verse 1 Or, “Saul was ... 1 year(s) old when he became king. He ruled ... 2 years.” This verse is very hard to understand in Hebrew. Part of the numbers may be missing. This verse is not in the ancient Greek translation.

3,000 The Hebrew has, “30,000.”
Samuel asked, “What have you done?”
Saul answered, “I saw the soldiers leaving me. You were not here on time, and the Philistines were gathering at Micmash. I thought to myself, ‘The Philistines will come here and attack me at Gilgal. And I haven’t asked the Lord to help us yet! So I forced myself to offer the burnt offering.’”

Samuel said, “You did a foolish thing! You did not obey the Lord your God! If you had obeyed God’s command, then he would have let your family rule Israel forever. But now your kingdom will not continue. The Lord was looking for a man who wants to obey him! The Lord has found that man—and the Lord is choosing him to be the new leader of his people. You didn’t obey the Lord’s command, so the Lord is choosing a new leader.” Then Samuel got up and left Gilgal.

The Battle at Micmash
Saul and the rest of his army left Gilgal. They went to Gibeah in Benjamin. Saul counted the men who were still with him. There were about 600 men. Saul, his son Jonathan, and the soldiers went to Geba in Benjamin.

The Philistines were camped at Micmash.

Jonathan Attacks the Philistines
That day, Saul’s son Jonathan was talking with the young man who carried his weapons. Jonathan said, “Let’s go to the Philistine camp on the other side of the valley.” But Jonathan did not tell his father.

Saul was sitting under a pomegranate tree in Migron at the edge of the hill. This was near the threshing floor at that place. Saul had about 600 men with him. One the men was named Ahijah. Ahijah was a son of Ichabod’s brother Ahitub. Ichabod was the son of Phinehas. Phinehas was the son of Eli. Eli had been the Lord’s priest at Shiloh. Now Ahijah was the priest—Ahijah now wore the ephod.

Those men did not know that Jonathan had left. Jonathan was planning to go through a pass to get to the Philistine camp. There was a large rock on each side of the pass. The large rock on one side was named Bozez. The large rock on the other side was named Seneh. One large rock stood looking north toward Micmash. The other large rock stood looking south toward Geba.

Jonathan said to his young helper who carried his weapons, “Come on, let’s go to the Philistine blacksmiths charged $\frac{1}{3}$ ounce of silver for sharpening plows and hoes. And they charged $\frac{1}{6}$ ounce of silver for sharpening picks, axes and the iron tip on oxgoads. So, on the day of battle, none of the Israelite soldiers with Saul had iron swords or spears. Only Saul and his son Jonathan had iron weapons.

A group of Philistine soldiers guarded the mountain pass at Micmash.
camp of those foreigners.* Maybe the Lord will use us to defeat these people! Nothing can stop the Lord—it doesn’t matter if we have many soldiers or just a few soldiers.”

7 The young man who carried Jonathan’s weapons said to him, “Do what you think is best. I am with you all the way.”

8 Jonathan said, “Let’s go! We’ll cross the valley and go to those Philistine guards. We’ll let them see us. If they say to us, ‘Stay there until we come to you,’ we will stay where we are. We won’t go up to them. But if the Philistine men say, ‘Come up here,’ we will climb up to them. Why? Because that will be a sign from God. That will mean that the Lord will allow us to defeat them.”

9 So Jonathan and his helper let the Philistines see them. The Philistine guards said, “Look! The Hebrews are coming out of the holes they were hiding in!”

10 Jonathan said to his helper, “Follow me up the hill. The Lord is letting Israel defeat the Philistines!”

11–14 So Jonathan climbed up the hill with his hands and feet. And his helper was right behind him. Jonathan and his helper attacked those Philistines. In the first attack, they killed 20 Philistines in an area about one-half acre in size. Jonathan fought the men who attacked from the front. And Jonathan’s helper came behind him and killed the men who were only wounded.

15 All of the Philistine soldiers became scared—the soldiers in the field, the soldiers in the camp, and the soldiers at the fort. Even the bravest soldiers were scared. The ground began to shake and that really scared the Philistine soldiers!

16 Saul’s guards at Gibeah in the land of Benjamin saw the Philistine soldiers running away in different ways. Saul said to the army with him, “Count the men. I want to know who left camp.”

17 They counted the men. Jonathan and his helper were gone.

18 Saul said to Ahijah, “Bring God’s Holy Box!*” (At that time God’s Holy Box was there with the Israelites.) Saul was waiting for advice from God. But the noise and confusion in the Philistine camp was growing and growing. Saul was becoming impatient. Finally, Saul said to Ahijah the priest, “That’s enough! Put your hand down and stop praying!”

19 Saul gathered his army together and went to the battle. The Philistine soldiers were really confused! They were even fighting each other with their swords! There were Hebrews who served the Philistines in the past and who stayed in the Philistine camp. But now these Hebrews joined the Israelites with Saul and Jonathan. All the Israelites who had hidden in the hill country of Ephraim heard the Philistine soldiers were running away. So these Israelites also joined in the battle and began chasing the Philistines.

20 So the Lord saved the Israelites that day. The battle moved on past Beth Aven. The whole army was with Saul—he now had about 10,000 men. The battle spread to every city in the hill country of Ephraim.*

Saul Makes Another Mistake

21 But Saul made a big mistake that day.* The Israelites were tired and hungry. This was because Saul forced the people to make this promise: Saul said, “If any man eats food before evening comes and before I finish defeating my enemies, then that man will be punished!” So none of the Israelite soldiers ate any food.

22 Because of the fighting, the people went into some woods. Then they saw a foreigner. This showed these people were not Israelites and had not shared in their special agreement with God.

* Literally, “uncircumcised.” This showed these people were not Israelites and had not shared in their special agreement with God.

 The Holy Box The Box of the Agreement, the box that contained the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert. These words are in the ancient Greek translation, but not in the Hebrew.

The whole army ... Ephraim These words are in the ancient Greek translation, but not in the Hebrew.

But Saul ... that day These words are in the ancient Greek translation, but not in the Hebrew.
honeycomb on the ground. The Israelites went up to the honeycomb, but they didn’t eat any of it. They were afraid to break the promise. 27But Jonathan didn’t know about that promise. Jonathan didn’t hear his father force the people to make that promise. Jonathan had a stick in his hand. He dipped the end of the stick into the honeycomb and pulled out some honey. He ate the honey and began to feel much better.

28One of the soldiers told Jonathan, “Your father forced the soldiers to make a special promise. Your father said that any man who eats today will be punished! So the men have not eaten anything. That is why the men are weak.”

29Jonathan said, “My father has brought a lot of trouble to the land! See how much better I feel after just tasting a little of this honey! 30It would have been much better for the men to eat the food that they took from their enemies today. We could have killed many more Philistines!”

31That day the Israelites defeated the Philistines. They fought them all the way from Micmash to Aijalon. So the people were very tired and hungry. 32They had taken sheep, cows, and calves from the Philistines. Now the people of Israel were so hungry they killed the animals on the ground and ate them. And the blood was still in the animals!

33A person said to Saul, “Look! The men are sinning against the Lord. They’re eating meat that still has blood in it!”

Saul said, “You have sinned! Roll a large stone over here. Now!” 34Then Saul said, “Go to the men and tell them each person must bring his bull and sheep to me. Then the men must kill their bulls and sheep here. Don’t sin against the Lord! Don’t eat meat that still has blood in it.”

That night every person brought his animals and killed them there. 35Then Saul built an altar for the Lord. Saul himself began building that altar for the Lord!

36Saul said, “Let’s go after the Philistines tonight. We will take everything from them! We will kill them all!”

The army answered, “Do whatever you think is best.”

But the priest said, “Let’s ask God.”

37So Saul asked God, “Should I go chase the Philistines? Will you let us defeat the Philistines?” But God did not answer Saul that day.

38So Saul said, “Bring all the leaders to me! Let’s find who did the sin today. 39I swear (promise) by the Lord who saves Israel, even if my own son Jonathan did the sin, he must die.” None of the people said a word.

40Then Saul said to all the Israelites, “You stand on this side. I and my son Jonathan will stand on the other side.”

The soldiers answered, “As you wish, sir!”

41Then Saul prayed, “Lord, God of Israel, why haven’t you answered your servant today? If I or my son Jonathan have sinned, Lord God of Israel, give Urim. If your people Israel have sinned, give Thummim.”

Saul and Jonathan were chosen, and the people went free. 42Saul said, “Throw them again to show who is guilty—me or my son Jonathan.” Jonathan was chosen.

43Saul said to Jonathan, “Tell me what you have done.”

Jonathan told Saul, “I only tasted a little honey from the end of my stick. Should I die for doing that?”

44Saul said, “I made a promise and asked God to punish me if I didn’t keep my promise! Jonathan must die!”

45But the soldiers said to Saul, “Jonathan led Israel to a great victory today. Must Jonathan die? Never! We swear (promise) by the living God that no one will hurt Jonathan—not one hair of Jonathan’s head will fall to the ground! God helped Jonathan fight against the Philistines today!” So the people saved Jonathan. He was not put to death.

46Saul did not chase the Philistines. The Philistines went back to their place.

Urim ... Thummim The priest used Urim and Thummim to learn God’s answer to questions. We don’t know exactly what they were, but they were used like lots—stones, sticks, or bones that were thrown like dice to help people make decisions.
47 Saul took full control of Israel. Saul fought all the enemies that lived around Israel. Saul fought Moab, the Ammonites, Edom, the king of Zobah, and the Philistines. Saul defeated Israel’s enemies wherever he went.

48 Saul was very brave. Saul saved Israel from all the enemies who tried to take things from the people of Israel. Saul defeated even the Amalekites!

49 Saul’s sons were Jonathan, Ishvi and Malki Shua. Saul’s older daughter was named Merab. Saul’s younger daughter was named Michal.

50 Saul’s wife was named Ahinoam. Ahinoam was the daughter of Ahimaaz. The commander of Saul’s army was named Abner son of Ner. Ner was Saul’s uncle.

51 Saul’s father Kish and Abner’s father Ner were sons of Abiel.

52 Saul was brave all his life. He fought hard against the Philistines. Any time Saul saw a man who was strong or brave, he took that man and put him into the group of soldiers that stayed near the king and protected him.

Saul Destroys the Amalekites

15 One day, Samuel said to Saul, “The Lord sent me to anoint you king over his people Israel. Now listen to the Lord’s message. The Lord All-Powerful says: ‘When the Israelites came out of Egypt, the Amalekites tried to stop them from going to Canaan. I saw what the Amalekites did. Now, go fight against the Amalekites. You must completely destroy the Amalekites and everything that belongs to them. Don’t let anything live; you must kill all the men and women and all of their children and little babies. You must kill all of their cows and sheep and all of their camels and donkeys.’”

4 Saul gathered the army together at Telaim. There were 200,000 foot soldiers and 10,000 other men. That includes the men from Judah.

5 Then Saul went to the city of Amalek and waited in the valley. Saul said to the Kenite people, “Go away, leave the Amalekites. Then I won’t destroy you with the Amalekites. You showed kindness to the Israelites when they came out of Egypt.” So the Kenite people left the Amalekites.

7 Saul defeated the Amalekites. He fought them and chased them all the way from Havilah to Shur, at the border of Egypt.

8 Agag was the king of the Amalekites. Saul captured Agag alive. Saul let Agag live, but he killed all the men in Agag’s army. Saul and the Israeliite soldiers felt bad about destroying everything. So they let Agag live. They also kept the fat cows, the best sheep, and the lambs. They kept everything that was worth keeping. They didn’t want to destroy those things. They destroyed only the things that were not worth keeping.

Samuel Tells Saul About His Sin

10 Then Samuel received a message from the Lord. The Lord said, “Saul has stopped following me. So I am sorry that I made Saul king. He is not doing what I tell him.” Samuel became angry and cried to the Lord all night.

12 Samuel got up early the next morning and went to meet Saul. But the people told Samuel, “Saul went to Carmel. Saul went there to set up a stone monument to honor himself. Saul is traveling around to several places and will finally go down to Gilgal.”

13 Samuel went to Saul. Saul greeted him. Saul said, “Lord bless you! I obeyed the Lord’s commands.”

14 But Samuel said, “Then what is that sound I hear? Why do I hear sheep and cattle?”

15 Saul said, “The soldiers took them from the Amalekites. The soldiers saved the best sheep and cattle to burn as sacrifices to the Lord your God. But we destroyed everything else.”

anoint To pour olive oil on a person’s head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
Samuel said to Saul, “Stop! Let me tell you what the Lord said to me last night.”

Saul answered, “Fine, tell me what he said.”

Samuel said, “In the past, you thought you were not important. But then you became the leader of the family groups of Israel. The Lord chose you to be king over Israel. The Lord sent you on a special mission. The Lord said, ‘Go and destroy all of the Amalekites. They are evil people. Destroy them all! Fight them until they are completely finished!’

But you didn’t listen to the Lord! Why? You wanted to keep those things, so you did what the Lord said is bad!”

Saul said, “But I did obey the Lord! I went where the Lord sent me. I destroyed all the Amalekites! I brought back only one person—their king Agag. And the soldiers took the best sheep and cattle to sacrifice to the Lord your God at Gilgal!”

But Samuel answered, “Which pleases the Lord more: burnt offerings and sacrifices or obeying the Lord’s command? It is better to obey God than to offer sacrifices to him. It is better to listen to God than to offer the fat from rams. Refusing to obey is as bad as the sin of sorcery. Being stubborn and doing what you want is like the sin of worshiping idols. You refused to obey the Lord’s command. For this reason, the Lord now refuses to accept you as king.”

Then Saul said to Samuel, “I have sinned. I did not obey the Lord’s commands, and I did not do what you told me. I was afraid of the people, and I did what they said. Now I beg you, forgive me for doing this sin. Come back with me, so I may worship the Lord.”

But Samuel said to Saul, “I won’t go back with you. You refused the Lord’s command, and now the Lord refuses you as king of Israel.”

When Samuel turned to leave, Saul caught Samuel’s robe. The robe tore.

Samuel said to Saul, “You tore my robe. In the same way, the Lord has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today. The Lord has given the kingdom to one of your friends. This man is a better person than you. The Lord is the God of Israel. The Lord lives forever. The Lord does not lie or change his mind. The Lord is not like a man who changes his mind.”

Saul answered, “All right, I sinned! But please come back with me. Show me some respect in front of the leaders and the people of Israel. Come back with me so I may worship the Lord your God.”

Samuel went back with Saul, and Saul worshiped the Lord.

Samuel said, “Bring Agag, the king of the Amalekites, to me.”

Agag came to Samuel. Agag was tied with chains. Agag thought, “Surely he won’t kill me.”

But Samuel said to Agag, “Your sword took babies from their mothers. So now, your mother will have no children.” And Samuel cut Agag to pieces before the Lord at Gilgal.

Then Samuel left and went to Ramah. And Saul went up to his home in Gibeah.

After that Samuel never saw Saul again all his life. Samuel was very sad for Saul. And the Lord was very sorry that he had made Saul king of Israel.

Samuel Goes to Bethlehem

The Lord said to Samuel, “How long will you feel sorry for Saul? You are feeling sorry for him, even after I told you that I refuse to let Saul be the king of Israel! Fill your horn with oil and go to Bethlehem. I am sending you to a man named Jesse. Jesse lives in Bethlehem. I have chosen one of his sons to be the new king.”

But Samuel said, “If I go, Saul will hear the news. Then he will try to kill me.”

The Lord said, “Go to Bethlehem. Take a young calf with you. Say, ‘I have come to sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

sorcery When a person tries to use the power of demons and bad spirits to do magic.
surely ... kill me Or, “This treatment is worse than death.”
horn An animal’s horn is hollow and was often used like a bottle.
make a sacrifice* to the Lord.' 3Invite Jesse to the sacrifice. Then I will show you what to do. You must anoint* the person I show you.”

4Samuel did what the Lord told him to do. Samuel went to Bethlehem. The elders (leaders) of Bethlehem shook with fear. They met Samuel and asked, “Do you come in peace?”

5Samuel answered, “Yes, I come in peace. I come to make a sacrifice* to the Lord. Prepare yourselves and come to the sacrifice with me.” Samuel prepared Jesse and his sons. Then Samuel invited them to come and share the sacrifice.

6When Jesse and his sons arrived, Samuel saw Eliab. Samuel thought, “Surely this is the man that the Lord has chosen!”

7But the Lord said to Samuel, “Eliab is tall and handsome. But don’t think about things like that. God does not look at the things people see. People look only at the outside of a person, but the Lord looks at his heart. Eliab is not the right man.”

8Then Jesse called his second son, Abinadab. Abinadab walked by Samuel. But Samuel said, “No, this is not the man that the Lord chose.”

9Then Jesse told Shammah to walk by Samuel. But Samuel said, “No, the Lord did not choose this man, either.”

10Jesse showed seven of his sons to Samuel. But Samuel said to Jesse, “The Lord has not chosen any of these men.”

11Then Samuel asked Jesse, “Are these all the sons you have?”

Jesse answered, “No, I have another son—my youngest, but he is out taking care of the sheep.”

Samuel said, “Send for him. Bring him here. We will not sit down to eat until he arrives.”

12Jesse sent someone to get his youngest son. This son was a good-looking, red-faced* young man. He was very handsome.

13The Lord said to Samuel, “Get up and anoint* him. He is the one.”

14Samuel took the horn* with the oil in it, and poured the special oil on Jesse’s youngest son in front of his brothers. The Lord’s Spirit came on David with great power from that day on. Then Samuel went back home to Ramah.

A Bad Spirit Bothers Saul

14The Lord’s Spirit left Saul. Then the Lord sent a bad spirit to Saul. It caused him much trouble. 15Saul’s servants said to him, “A bad spirit from God is bothering you. 16Give us the command and we will look for someone who can play the harp. If the bad spirit from the Lord comes on you, this person will play music for you. Then you will feel better.”

17So Saul said to his servants, “Find a person who plays music well and bring him to me.”

18One of the servants said, “There is a man named Jesse living in Bethlehem. I saw Jesse’s son. He knows how to play the harp. He is also a brave man and fights well. He is smart and handsome. And the Lord is with him.”

19So Saul sent messengers to Jesse. They told Jesse, “You have a son named David. He takes care of your sheep. Send him to me.”

20So Jesse got some things as a gift for Saul. Jesse got a donkey, some bread and a bottle of wine, and a young goat. Jesse gave those things to David and sent him to Saul. 21So David went to Saul and stood in front of him. Saul loved David very much. David became the helper who carried Saul’s weapons. 22Saul sent a message to Jesse. “Let David stay and serve me. I like him very much.”

23Any time the bad spirit from God came on Saul, David would take his harp and play it. The bad spirit would leave Saul and he would begin to feel better.

Goliath Challenges Israel

17The Philistines gathered their armies together for war. They met at Socoh in Judah. Their camp was between Socoh and Azekah, at a town called Ephes Dammim.

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
anoint To pour olive oil on a person’s head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.
red-faced Or “tanned” or possibly, “red-haired.” The Hebrew word means “red” or “ruddy.”
horn An animal’s horn is hollow and often used like a bottle.
Saul and the Israelite soldiers also gathered together. Their camp was in the Valley of Elah. Saul’s soldiers were lined up and ready to fight the Philistines. The Philistines were on one hill. The Israelites were on the other hill. And the valley was between them.

The Philistines had a champion fighter named Goliath. Goliath was from Gath. Goliath was over 9 feet tall. Goliath came out of the Philistine camp. He had a bronze helmet on his head. He wore a coat of armor that was made like the scales on a fish. This armor was made of bronze and weighed about 125 pounds. Goliath wore bronze protectors on his legs. He had a bronze javelin tied on his back. The wooden part of Goliath’s spear was as big as a weaver’s rod. The spear’s blade weighed 15 pounds. Goliath’s helper walked in front of him, carrying Goliath’s shield.

Each day Goliath would come out and shout a challenge to the Israelite soldiers. He would say, “Why are all of your soldiers lined up ready for battle? You are Saul’s servants. I am a Philistine. So choose one man and send him to fight me. If that man kills me, then he wins and we Philistines will become your slaves. But if I kill your man, then I win, and you will become our slaves. You will have to serve us!”

The Philistine also said, “Today I stand and make fun of the army of Israel! I dare you to send me one of your men and let us fight!”

Saul and the Israelite soldiers heard the things Goliath said. And they were very afraid.

David Goes to the Battle Front

David was the son of Jesse. Jesse was from the Ephrathah family in Bethlehem, Judah. Jesse had eight sons. In Saul’s time Jesse was an old man. Jesse’s three oldest sons went with Saul to the war. The first son was Eliab. The second son was Abinadab. And the third son was Shammah. David was the youngest son. The three oldest sons were in Saul’s army.

But David left Saul from time to time to take care of his father’s sheep at Bethlehem.

The Philistine (Goliath) came out every morning and evening and stood before the Israelite army. Goliath made fun of Israel like this for 40 days.

One day, Jesse said to his son David, “Take this basket of cooked grain and these ten loaves of bread to your brothers in the camp. Also take these ten pieces of cheese for the officer who commands your brothers’ group of 1,000 soldiers. See how your brothers are doing. Bring back something to show me your brothers are all right. Your brothers are with Saul and all the Israelite soldiers in the Valley of Elah. They are there to fight against the Philistines.”

Early in the morning, David let another shepherd take care of the sheep. David took the food and left as Jesse had told him to. David drove their wagon to the camp. The soldiers were going out to their battle positions just as David arrived. The soldiers began shouting their war cry.

The Israelites and Philistines were lined up and ready for battle.

David left the food and things with the man who kept supplies. David ran to the place where the Israelite soldiers were. David asked about his brothers. While David was talking with his brothers, the Philistine champion fighter came out from the Philistine army. This was Goliath, the Philistine from Gath. Goliath shouted things against Israel as usual. David heard what he said.

The Israelite soldiers saw Goliath and ran away. They were all afraid of Goliath. One of the Israelite men said, “Did you see that guy! Look at him! Goliath comes out and makes fun of Israel again and again. Whoever kills that guy will get rich! King Saul will give him a lot of money. Saul will also let his daughter marry the man who kills Goliath. And Saul will also make that man’s family free in Israel.”

26David asked the men standing near him, “What did he say? What is the reward for killing this Philistine and taking away this shame from Israel? Who is this Goliath anyway? He is only some foreigner.* Goliath is nothing but a Philistine. Why does he think he can speak against the army of the living God?”

27So the Israelite told David about the reward for killing Goliath. 28David’s oldest brother Eliab heard David talking with the soldiers. Eliab became angry at David. Eliab asked David, “Why did you come here? Who did you leave those few sheep with in the desert? I know why you came down here! You didn’t want to do what you were told to do. You just wanted to come down here to watch the battle!”

29David said, “What did I do now? I didn’t do anything wrong! I was only talking.”

30David turned to some other people and asked them the same questions. They gave David the same answers as before.

31Some men heard David talking. They took David to Saul and told him what David had said. 32David said to Saul, “People shouldn’t let Goliath discourage them. I am your servant. I will go fight this Philistine!”

33Saul answered, “You can’t go out and fight against this Philistine (Goliath). You’re not even a soldier!* And Goliath has been fighting in wars since he was a boy.”

34But David said to Saul, “I, your servant, was taking care of my father’s sheep. A lion and a bear came and took a sheep from the flock. 35Each time I chased that wild animal. I attacked it and took the sheep from its mouth. That wild animal jumped on me, but I caught it by the fur under its mouth. And I hit it and killed it. 36I killed a lion and a bear like that! And I will kill that foreigner,* Goliath, just like them! Goliath will die because he made fun of the army of the living God. 37The Lord saved me from the lion and the bear. The Lord will also save me from this Philistine.”

Saul said to David, “Go and may the Lord be with you.” 38Saul put his own clothes on David. Saul put a bronze helmet on David’s head and armor* on David’s body. 39David put on the sword and tried to walk around. David tried to wear Saul’s uniform, but David was not used to all those heavy things.

David said to Saul, “I can’t fight in these things. I’m not used to them.” So David took them all off. 40David took his walking stick in his hand and went to find five smooth stones from the stream. He put the five stones in his shepherd’s bag and held his sling* in his hand. And then he went to meet the Philistine (Goliath).

David Kills Goliath

41The Philistine (Goliath) slowly walked closer and closer to David. Goliath’s helper walked in front of him, carrying the shield. 42Goliath looked at David and laughed. Goliath saw that David was only a handsome, red-faced* boy.* 43Goliath said to David, “What is that stick for? Did you come to chase me away like a dog?” Then Goliath used the names of his gods to say curses against David. 44Goliath said to David, “Come here, and I’ll feed your body to the birds and wild animals!”

45David said to the Philistine (Goliath), “You come to me using sword, spear, and javelin.* But I come to you in the name of the Lord All-Powerful, the God of the armies of Israel! You have said bad things about him. 46Today the Lord will let me defeat you! I will kill you. Today I will cut off your head and feed your body to the birds and wild animals. We will do that to all the other foreigner  Literally, “uncircumcised.” This shows Goliath was a foreigner and did not share in the agreement God made with the people of Israel.

---

You’re not even a soldier  Or, “You are only a boy!” The Hebrew word for “boy” often means “servant” or “the helper that carries a soldier’s weapons.”

---

*for "uncircumcised." This shows Goliath was a foreigner and did not share in the agreement God made with the people of Israel.

*Or, “You are only a boy!” The Hebrew word for “boy” often means “servant” or “the helper that carries a soldier’s weapons.”

*The heavy clothes made from leather and metal that a soldier wore to protect himself.

*A strip of leather for throwing rocks.

*Or, “tanned” or possibly “red-haired.” The Hebrew word means “red” or “ruddy.”

*Or, “teenager” or “soldier’s helper.”

*A small spear.
Philistines too! Then all the world will know there is a God in Israel! 47 All the people gathered here will know that the Lord does not need swords or spears to save people. The battle belongs to the Lord! And the Lord will help us defeat all of you Philistines.”

48 Goliath the Philistine started to attack David. Goliath slowly walked closer and closer towards David. But David ran out to meet Goliath.

49 David took out a stone from his bag. He put it in his sling* and swung the sling. The stone flew from the sling and hit Goliath right between the eyes. The stone sank deep into his head, and Goliath fell to the ground—face down.

50 So David defeated the Philistine with only a sling* and one stone! He hit the Philistine and killed him. David didn’t have a sword, 51 so he ran and stood beside the Philistine. Then David took Goliath’s own sword out of its sheath* and used it to cut off Goliath’s head. And that is how David killed the Philistine.

When the other Philistines saw their hero was dead, they turned and ran. 52 The soldiers of Israel and Judah shouted and started chasing the Philistines. The Israelites chased the Philistines all the way to the city limits of Gath and to the gates of Ekron. They killed many of the Philistines. Their bodies were scattered along the Shaaraim road all the way to Gath and Ekron. 53 After chasing the Philistines, the Israelites came back to the Philistine camp and took many things from that camp.

54 David took the Philistine’s head to Jerusalem, but David kept the Philistine’s weapons at home.

Saul Begins to Fear David

55 Saul watched David go out to fight Goliath. Saul spoke to Abner, the commander of the army. “Abner, who is that young man’s father?”

Abner answered, “I swear I don’t know, sir.”

56 King Saul said, “Find out who that young man’s father is.”

57 When David came back after killing Goliath, Abner brought him to Saul. David was still holding the Philistine’s head.

58 Saul asked him, “Young man, who is your father?”

David answered, “I am the son of your servant Jesse, from Bethlehem.”

David and Jonathan Become Close Friends

18 As soon as David finished talking with Saul, Jonathan developed a strong bond with David.* Jonathan loved David as much as he loved himself.

2 Saul kept David with him from that day on. Saul did not let David go back home to his father.

3 Jonathan and David made a special agreement because he loved him as much as he loved himself. 4 Jonathan took off the coat he was wearing and gave it to David. Jonathan gave David his whole uniform—including his sword, and his bow, and even his belt.

Saul Notices David’s Success

5 Saul sent David to fight in many different battles. David was very successful. Then Saul put David in charge of the soldiers. This pleased everyone, even Saul’s officers! 6 David would go out to fight against the Philistines. On the way home after the battles, women in every town in Israel would come out to meet David. They laughed and danced and played drums and lutes.* They did this right in front of Saul! 7 The women sang, “Saul has killed thousands of enemies.

But David has killed tens of thousands!”

8 The women’s song upset Saul and he became very angry. Saul thought, “The women say David killed tens of thousands of enemies. And they say I killed only thousands of enemies.” 9 So from that time on, Saul watched David very closely.

Jonathan ... with David Literally, “Jonathan’s soul was tied to David’s soul”.

sling A strip of leather for throwing rocks.
sheath A case for carrying a sword.
lutes A musical instrument with strings like a harp.
Saul Is Afraid of David

10 The next day, a bad spirit from God took control of Saul. Saul became wild in his house. David played the harp like he usually did. 11 But Saul had a spear in his hand. Saul thought, “I’ll pin David to the wall.” Saul threw the spear two times. But David jumped out of the way both times.

12 The Lord was with David. And the Lord had left Saul. So Saul was afraid of David. 13 Saul sent David away from him. Saul made David a commander over 1,000 soldiers. David led the soldiers in battle. 14 The Lord was with David. So David was successful in everything. 15 Saul saw that David was very successful. And Saul became more and more afraid of David.

16 But all the people of Israel and Judah loved David. They loved him because he led them into battle.

Saul Wants His Daughter to Marry David

17 But Saul wanted to kill David. Saul thought of a way to trick David. Saul said to David, “Here is my oldest daughter, Merab. I will let you marry her. Then you can become a powerful soldier. You will be like a son to me! Then you will go and fight the Lord’s battles!” 18 This was a trick. Saul was really thinking, “Now I won’t have to kill David. I will let the Philistines kill him for me!”

19 But David said, “I am not from an important family! And I am not an important man! I can’t marry the king’s daughter.”

20 So when the time came for Saul’s daughter Merab to marry David, Saul let her marry Adriel from Meholah.

21 Saul’s other daughter Michal loved David. The people told Saul that Michal loved David. This made Saul happy. 22 Saul thought, “I will use Michal to trap David. I will let Michal marry David. And then I will let the Philistines kill him.” So Saul said to David a second time, “You can marry my daughter today.”

Jonathan Helps David

19 Saul told his son Jonathan and his officers to kill David. But Jonathan liked David very much. 20 Jonathan warned David, “Be careful! Saul is looking for a chance to kill you. In the morning, go into the field and hide. I will go out into the field with my father. We will stand in the field where you are hiding. I will talk to my father about you. Then I will tell you what I learn.”

money for his daughter In Bible times a man usually had to give money to a woman’s father before he could marry her.

200 The ancient Greek translation has “100.”
4Jonathan talked to his father Saul. Jonathan said good things about David. Jonathan said, “You are the king. David is your servant. David hasn’t done anything wrong to you. So don’t do anything wrong to him. David has always been good to you.

5David risked his life when he killed the Philistine (Goliath). The Lord won a great victory for all Israel. You saw it, and you were happy. Why do you want to hurt David? He’s innocent. There is no reason to kill him!”

6Saul listened to Jonathan. Saul made a promise. Saul said, “As surely as the Lord lives, David won’t be put to death.”

7So Jonathan called David and told him everything that was said. Then Jonathan brought David to Saul. So David was with Saul like before.

Saul Again Tries to Kill David

8War started again and David went out to fight the Philistines. David defeated the Philistines, and they ran away from him. But a bad spirit from the Lord came on Saul. Saul was sitting in his house. Saul had his spear in his hand. David was playing the harp. Saul tried to throw his spear into David’s body and pin him to the wall. But David jumped out of the way. The spear missed David and stuck in the wall. That night, David ran away.

9Saul sent men to David’s house. The men watched David's house. They stayed there all night. They were waiting to kill David in the morning. David's wife Michal warned him. She said, “You must run away tonight and save your life. If you don’t, then you will be killed tomorrow.”

10Then Michal let David down out of a window. David escaped and ran away. Michal took the household god and put clothes on it. Then she put that statue in the bed. She also put goats’ hair on its head.

11Saul sent men to David’s house. The men watched David’s house. They stayed there all night. They were waiting to kill David in the morning. But David’s wife Michal warned him. She said, “You must run away tonight and save your life. If you don’t, then you will be killed tomorrow.”

12Then Michal let David down out of a window. David escaped and ran away. Michal took the household god and put clothes on it. Then she put that statue in the bed. She also put goats’ hair on its head.

13Saul sent messengers to take David prisoner. But Michal said, “David is sick.”

14The messengers went to David’s house. They went inside to get David, but they saw it was only a statue on the bed. And they saw its hair was only goat’s hair.

15The messengers went to David’s house. They went inside to get David, but they saw it was only a statue on the bed. And they saw its hair was only goat’s hair.

16Saul said to Michal, “Why did you trick me like this? You let my enemy escape! David has run away!”

Michal answered Saul, “David told me he would kill me if I didn’t help him escape!”

David Goes to the Camps at Ramah

17David escaped and ran away to Samuel at Ramah. David told Samuel everything that Saul had done to him. Then David and Samuel went to the camps where the prophets stayed. David stayed there.

18Saul heard that David was there in the camps near Ramah. 20Saul sent men to arrest David. But when those men came to the camps, there was a group of prophets prophesying. Samuel was standing there leading the group. God’s Spirit came on Saul’s messengers and they began prophesying.

21Saul heard about this, so he sent other messengers. But they also began prophesying. So Saul sent messengers a third time. And they also began prophesying. Finally, Saul himself went to Ramah. Saul came to the big well by the threshing floor at Secu. Saul asked, “Where are Samuel and David?” The people answered, “In the camps near Ramah.”

23So Saul went out to the camps near Ramah. God’s Spirit also came on Saul, and Saul began prophesying. Saul continued prophesying all the way to the camps at Ramah. Saul even took off his clothes. Saul lay there naked all day and all night. So even Saul was prophesying there in front of Samuel.

That is why people say, “Is Saul also one of the prophets?”

prophesying Usually, this means “speaking for God.” But here this also means that the Spirit of God took control of the person and caused him to sing and dance.

threshing floor A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.
David and Jonathan Make an Agreement

David ran away from the camps near Ramah. David went to Jonathan and asked him, “What have I done wrong? What is my crime? Why is your father trying to kill me?”

Jonathan answered, “That can’t be true! My father isn’t trying to kill you! My father doesn’t do anything without first telling me. It doesn’t matter if it is very important or just a small thing, my father always tells me. Why would my father refuse to tell me that he wants to kill you? No, it is not true!”

But David answered, “Your father knows very well that I am your friend. Your father said to himself, ‘Jonathan must not know about it. If he knows, he will tell David.’ But as sure as you and the Lord are alive, I am very close to death!”

Jonathan said to David, “I will do anything you want me to do.”

Then David said, “Look, tomorrow is the New Moon Feast. I am supposed to eat with the king. But let me hide in the field until the evening. If your father notices I am gone, tell him, ‘David wanted to go home to Bethlehem. His family is having its own feast for this monthly sacrifice. David asked me to let him run down to Bethlehem and join his family.’

If your father says, ‘Fine,’ then I am safe. But if your father becomes angry, then you will know that he wants to hurt me. Jonathan, be kind to me. I am your servant. You have made an agreement with me before the Lord. If I am guilty, then you may kill me yourself! But don’t take me to your father.”

Jonathan answered, “No, never! If I learn that my father plans to hurt you, then I will warn you.”

David said, “Who will warn me if your father says bad things to you?”

Then Jonathan said, “Come, let’s go out into the field.” So Jonathan and David went together into the field.

Saul’s Attitude at the Feast

The time for the New Moon Feast came, and the king sat down to eat. The king sat next to the wall where he usually sat. Jonathan sat across from Saul. Abner sat next to Saul. But David’s place was empty.

That day Saul said nothing. He thought, “Maybe something happened to David so that he is not clean."

27On the next day, the second day of the month, David’s place was empty again. Then Saul said to his son Jonathan, “Why didn’t Jesse’s son come to the New Moon Feast yesterday or today?”

28Jonathan answered, “David asked me to let him go to Bethlehem. 29He said, ‘Let me go. Our family is having a sacrifice in Bethlehem. My brother ordered me to be there. Now if I am your friend, please let me go and see my brothers.’ That is why David has not come to the king’s table.”

30Saul was very angry with Jonathan. He said to Jonathan, “You are the son of a slave woman who refuses to obey. And you are just like her. I know you are on David’s side! You bring shame to yourself and to your mother. 31As long as Jesse’s son lives, you’ll never be king and have a kingdom. Now, bring David to me! He is a dead man!”

32Jonathan asked his father, “Why should David be killed? What did he do wrong?”

33But Saul threw his spear at Jonathan and tried to kill him. So Jonathan knew that his father wanted very much to kill David. 34Jonathan became angry and left the table. Jonathan was so upset and angry at his father that Jonathan refused to eat any food on the second day of the feast. Jonathan was angry because Saul humiliated him and because Saul wanted to kill David.

David and Jonathan Say Goodbye

35The next morning Jonathan went out to the field. He went to meet David just like they agreed to do. Jonathan brought a little boy with him. 36Jonathan said to the boy, “Run. Go find the arrows I shoot.” The boy began to run, and Jonathan shot the arrows over his head. 37The boy ran to the place where the arrows fell. But Jonathan called, “The arrows are farther away!” 38Then Jonathan shouted, “Hurry! Go get them! Don’t just stand there!” The boy picked up the arrows and brought them back to his master. 39The boy knew nothing about what went on. Only Jonathan and David knew. 40Jonathan gave his bow and arrows to the boy. Then Jonathan told the boy, “Go back to town.”

41The boy left, and David came out from the place he was hiding on the other side of the hill. David bowed with his face to the ground in front of Jonathan. David bowed three times. Then David and Jonathan kissed each other. They both cried together, but David cried more than Jonathan.

David Goes to See Ahimelech the Priest

21Then David went away, and Jonathan went back to the town. 2David went to the town named Nob to see Ahimelech the priest.

Ahimelech went out to meet David. Ahimelech was afraid for David. Ahimelech asked David, “Why are you alone? Why isn’t anyone with you?”

3David answered Ahimelech, “The king gave me a special order. He told me, ‘Don’t let anyone know about this mission. No person must know what I told you to do.’ I told my men where to meet me. 4Now, what food do you have with you? Give me five loaves of bread or whatever you have to eat.”

5The priest said to David, “I don’t have any ordinary bread here, but I do have some of the Holy Bread.* Your officers can eat it if they

---

Notes:

- clean Or, “acceptable.” Pure or able to be used in worshiping God. See Lev. 11–15 for the Old Testament rules about clean and unclean things.
- New Moon Feast The first day of the Jewish month. This was a special day of rest and worship. The people met together and shared in the fellowship offerings like those described in Lev. 7:16–21.
- sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
- descendants A person’s children and their future families.
- Nob A city near Rama where many priests lived. See 1 Sam.22:19.
- Holy Bread This was the special bread that was put in the Holy Tent. It is also called “shewbread” or “the bread of the Presence.” Normally, only the priests should eat this bread. See Lev. 24:5–9.
have not had sexual relations with any women."*

6David answered the priest, “We have not been with any women. My men keep their bodies holy every time we go out to fight, even on ordinary missions.* And this is especially true today, when our work is so special.”

7There was no bread except the Holy Bread.* So the priest gave David that bread. This was the bread that the priests put on the holy table before the Lord. Each day they took this bread away and put fresh bread in its place.

8One of Saul’s officers was there that day. He was Doeg the Edomite. Doeg was the leader of Saul’s shepherds.* Doeg had been kept there before the Lord.*

9David asked Ahimelech, “Do you have a spear or sword here? The king’s business is very important. I had to leave quickly, and I didn’t bring my sword or any other weapon.”

10The priest answered, “The only sword here is the sword of Goliath the Philistine. It is the sword you took from him when you killed him in the Valley of Elah. That sword is behind the ephod,* wrapped in a cloth. You may take it if you want to.”

11David said, “Give it to me. There is no sword like Goliath’s sword!”

David Runs Away to the Enemy at Gath

11That day David ran away from Saul. David went to Achish king of Gath.

12Achish’s officers did not like this. They said, “This is David, the king of the land of Israel. He is the person the Israelites sing about. They dance and sing this song about him:

“Saul has killed thousands of enemies.
But David has killed tens of thousands!”

13David paid close attention to what they said. David was afraid of Achish, king of Gath. 14So David pretended to be crazy in front of Achish and his officers. While David was with them he acted like a crazy man. He spat on the doors of the gate. He let spit fall down his beard.

15Achish said to his officers, “Look at the man! He is crazy! Why did you bring him to me? I have enough crazy men. I don’t need you to bring this man to my house to act crazy in front of me! Don’t let this man come into my house again!”

David Goes to Different Places

22David left Gath. David ran away to the cave* of Adullam. David’s brothers and relatives heard that David was at Adullam. They went to see David there.

2Many people joined David. There were men who were in some kind of trouble. And there were men who owed a lot of money. And there were men who were just not satisfied with life. All those kinds of people joined David, and David became their leader. David had about 400 men with him.

3David left Adullam and went to Mizpah in Moab. David said to the king of Moab, “Please let my father and mother come and stay with you until I learn what God is going to do to me.”

4So David left his parents with the king of Moab. David’s parents stayed with the king of Moab as long as David was at the fort.

5But the prophet Gad said to David, “Don’t stay in the fort. Go to the land of Judah.” So David left and went to Hereth Forest.

Saul Destroys Ahimelech’s Family

6Saul heard that his people had learned about David and his men. Saul was sitting under the tree on the hill at Gibeah. Saul had his spear in his hand. All of his officers were standing around him. 7Saul said to his officers that were standing around him, “Listen, men of Benjamin! Do you think the son of Jesse (David) will give you fields and vineyards? Do you think David will promote you and make you officers over 1,000 men and officers over 100 men? 8You men are plotting against me! You made secret plans. Not one of you told me about my son Jonathan. Not one of you told me that he made an agreement with the son of Jesse! Not one of you cares about me! Not one of you told me that my son Jonathan encouraged David. Jonathan told my servant David to hide and attack me! And that is what David is doing now!”

9Doeg the Edomite was standing there with Saul’s officers. Doeg said, “I saw Jesse’s son (David) at Nob. David came to see Ahimelech son of Ahitub. 10Ahimelech prayed to the Lord for David. Ahimelech also gave David food. And Ahimelech gave David the sword of Goliath the Philistine.”

11Then King Saul ordered some men to bring the priest to him. Saul told them to bring Ahimelech son of Ahitub and all his relatives. Ahimelech’s relatives were priests at Nob. All of them came to the king. 12Saul said to Ahimelech, “Listen now, son of Ahitub.”

Ahimelech answered, “Yes, sir.”

13Saul said to Ahimelech, “Why did you and Jesse’s son (David) make secret plans against me? You gave David bread and a sword! You prayed to God for him. And right now, David is waiting to attack me!”

14Ahimelech answered, “David is very faithful to you. Not one of your other officers is as faithful as David. David is your own son-in-law. And David is the captain of your bodyguards. Your own family respects David. 15That was not the first time I prayed to God for David. Not at all. Don’t blame me or any of my relatives. We are your servants. I know nothing about what is happening.”

16But the king said, “Ahimelech, you and all your relatives must die!” 17Then the king told the guards at his side, “Go and kill the priests of the Lord. Do this because they are on David’s side also. They knew David was running away, but they didn’t tell me!”

But the king’s officers refused to hurt the priests of the Lord.

18So the king gave the order to Doeg. Saul said, “Doeg, you go kill the priests.” So Doeg the Edomite went and killed the priests. That day Doeg killed 85 men who were priests.* 19Nob was the city of the priests. Doeg killed all the people of Nob. Doeg used his sword and killed men, women, children and small babies. And Doeg killed their cows, donkeys, and sheep.

20But Abiathar escaped. Abiathar was the son of Ahimelech. Ahimelech was the son of Ahitub. Abiathar ran away and joined David.

21Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the Lord’s priests. 22Then David told Abiathar, “I saw Doeg the Edomite at Nob that day. And I knew he would tell Saul! I am responsible for the death of your father’s family. 23Stay with me. Don’t be afraid. Why? Because the man (Saul) who tried to kill you is the same man who wants to kill me. I will protect you if you stay with me.”

David at Keilah

23People told David, “Look, the Philistines are fighting against the city of Keilah. They are robbing grain from the threshing floors.* 2David asked the Lord, “Should I go and fight these Philistines?” The Lord answered David, “Yes, go attack the Philistines. Save Keilah.”

3But David’s men said to him, “Look, we are here in Judah and we are scared. Just think how scared we will be if we go to where the Philistine army is.”

4David again asked the Lord. And the Lord answered David, “Go down to Keilah. I will help you defeat the Philistines.” 5So David and his men went to Keilah. David’s men fought the Philistines. David’s men defeated the Philistines and took their cattle. In this priests Literally, “men who wore the linen ephod.”

threshing floors Places where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.
way, David saved the people of Keilah.

6(When Abiathar ran away to David, Abiathar took an ephod* with him.)

7People told Saul that David was now at Keilah. Saul said, “God has given David to me! David has trapped himself. He went into a town that has gates and bars to lock the gates.” 8Saul called all his army together for battle. They prepared to go down to Keilah to attack David and his men.

9David learned that Saul was making plans against him. David then said to Abiathar the priest, “Bring the ephod.”*

10David prayed, “Lord God of Israel, I have heard that Saul plans to come to Keilah and destroy the town because of me. 11Will Saul come to Keilah? Will the people of Keilah give me to Saul? Lord God of Israel, I am your servant! Please tell me!”

The Lord answered, “Saul will come.”

12Again David asked, “Will the people of Keilah give me and my men to Saul?”

The Lord answered, “They will.”

13So David and his men left Keilah. There were about 600 men who went with David. David and his men kept moving from place to place. Saul learned that David escaped from Keilah. So Saul did not go to that city.

Saul Chases David

14David went to the desert and stayed in the fortresses* there. David also went to the hill country in the Desert of Ziph. Every day Saul looked for David, but the Lord didn’t let Saul catch him.

15David was at Horesh in the Desert of Ziph. He was afraid, because Saul was coming to kill him. 16But Saul’s son Jonathan went to see David at Horesh. Jonathan helped David to have a stronger faith in God. 17Jonathan told David, “Don’t be afraid. My father Saul won’t hurt you. You will become the king of Israel. And I will be second to you. Even my father knows this.”

18Jonathan and David both made an agreement before the Lord. Then Jonathan went home. And David stayed at Horesh.

The People of Ziph Tell Saul About David

19The people from Ziph came to Saul at Gibeah. They told Saul, “David is hiding in our area. He is at the fortresses* of Horesh on Hakilah Hill, south of Jeshimon. 20Now, King, come down any time you want. It is our duty to give David to you.”

21Saul answered, “The Lord bless you for helping me. 22Go and learn more about David. Learn where he is staying. And learn who has seen David there. Saul thought, ‘David is smart. He is trying to trick me.’ 23Find all the hiding places that David uses. Then come back to me and tell me everything. Then I’ll go with you. If David is in the area, I will find him. I will find him even if I must look through all the families in Judah.”

24Then those people went back to Ziph. Saul went there later.

David and his men were in the Desert of Maon. They were in the desert area south of Jeshimon. 25Saul and his men went to look for David. But people warned David. They told him that Saul was looking for him. David then went down to “The Rock” in the Desert of Maon. Saul heard that David had gone to the Desert of Maon. So Saul went to that place to find David.

26Saul was on one side of the mountain. David and his men were on the other side of the same mountain. David was hurrying to get away from Saul. Saul and his soldiers were going around the mountain to capture David and his men.

27Then a messenger came to Saul. The messenger said, “Come quickly! The Philistines are attacking us!”

28So Saul stopped chasing David and went to fight the Philistines. That is why people call this place “Slippery Rock.”* 29David left the Desert of Maon and went to the fortresses* near En Gedi.

ephod A special coat a man wore to show that he was a priest or a priest’s helper. The priest wore an ephod when he went to ask the Lord for advice.

fortress(es) A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.

Slippery Rock Or, “Sela Hammahlekoth.”
24After Saul had chased the Philistines away, people told Saul, “David is in the desert area near En Gedi.”
2So Saul chose 3,000 men from all over Israel. Saul took these men and began looking for David and his men. They looked near Wild Goat Rocks. 3Saul came to the sheep pens beside the road. There was a cave near there. Saul went into the cave to relieve himself. David and his men were hiding far back in the cave. 4The men said to David, “Today is the day the Lord talked about! The Lord told you, ‘I will give your enemy to you, then you can do anything you want with your enemy.’”
5So David crawled closer and closer to Saul. Then David cut off a corner of Saul’s robe. Saul did not see David. 6David said to his men, “I hope the Lord stops me from doing anything like that to my master again! Saul is the person the Lord chose to be king. I should not do anything against Saul, because he is the Lord’s chosen king!” 7David said these things to stop his men. David would not let his men hurt Saul. Saul left the cave and went his way. 8David came out of the cave. David shouted to Saul, “My lord the king!” Saul looked back. David bowed with his face to the ground. 9David said to Saul, “Why do you listen when people say, ‘David plans to hurt you’? I don’t want to hurt you! You can see that with your own eyes! The Lord let me have you today in the cave. But I refused to kill you. I was merciful to you. I said, ‘I won’t hurt my master. Saul is the Lord’s chosen king!’” 10David said these things to stop his men. David would not let his men hurt Saul.
11Look at this piece of cloth in my hand. I cut off the corner of your robe. I could have killed you, but I didn’t! Now, I want you to understand this. I want you to know that I am not planning anything against you! I did nothing wrong to you! But you are hunting me and trying to kill me. 12Let the Lord be the judge! The Lord might punish you for the wrong you did me. But I myself won’t fight you. 13There is an old saying: ‘Bad things come from bad people.’

25Samuel died. All the Israelites met together and showed their sadness about Samuel’s death. They buried Samuel at his home in Ramah. Then David moved to the Desert of Paran.
2There was a very rich man living in Maon. He had 3,000 sheep and 1,000 goats. That man was in Carmel taking care of some business. He went there to cut the wool from his sheep. 3This man’s name was Nabal. 4He was from Caleb’s family. Nabal’s wife was named Abigail. She was a wise and beautiful woman. But Nabal was a mean and cruel man.

descendant(s) A person’s children and their future families.
Nabal This name means “foolish.”
David was in the desert when he heard that Nabal was cutting the wool from his sheep. David sent ten young men to talk to Nabal. David told them, “Go to Carmel. Find Nabal and tell him ‘Hello’ for me.” David gave them this message for Nabal: “I hope you and your family are fine. I hope that everything you own is fine. I heard that you are cutting wool from your sheep. Your shepherds were with us for a while. And we did nothing wrong to them. We never took anything from your shepherds while they were at Carmel. Ask your servants and they will tell you this is true. Please be kind to my young men. We come to you now, at this happy time. Please give these young men anything you can. Please do this for me, your friend David.”

David’s men went to Nabal. They gave David’s message to Nabal. But Nabal was mean to them. Nabal said, “Who is David? Who is this son of Jesse? There are many slaves that have run away from their masters these days! I have bread and water. And I have the meat I killed for my servants who cut the wool from my sheep. But I won’t give them to men I don’t even know!”

David’s men went back and told David everything that Nabal said. Then David said to his men, “Put on your swords!” So David and his men put on their swords. About 400 men went with David. And 200 men stayed with the supplies.

Abigail Prevents Trouble

One of Nabal’s servants spoke to Nabal’s wife Abigail. The servant said, “David sent messengers from the desert to meet our master (Nabal). But Nabal was mean to David’s messengers. These men were very good to us. We were out in the fields with the sheep. David’s men were with us the whole time. And they never did anything wrong to us! They did not steal anything from us the whole time! David’s men protected us night and day! They were like a wall around us—they protected us while we were with them caring for the sheep. Now think about it and decide what you can do. Nabal was foolish to say the things he did! Terrible trouble is coming to our master (Nabal) and all his family.”

Abigail hurried and took 200 loaves of bread, two full winebags, five cooked sheep, about a bushel* of cooked grain, about 2 quarts* of raisins, and 200 cakes of pressed figs. She put them on donkeys. Then Abigail told her servants, “Go on. I’ll follow you.” But she did not tell her husband.

Abigail rode her donkey and came down to the other side of the mountain. She met David and his men coming from the other direction.

Before David met Abigail, David was saying, “I protected Nabal’s property in the desert. I made sure none of his sheep were missing. I did all that for nothing! I did good things to him, but he has been bad to me. I hope God punishes me if I let even one man in Nabal’s family live until tomorrow morning.”

Just then Abigail arrived. When Abigail saw David, she quickly got off her donkey. She bowed down with her face to the ground in front of David. Abigail lay at David’s feet and said, “Sir, please let me talk to you. Listen to what I say. Blame me for what happened. I didn’t see the men you sent. Sir, don’t pay any attention to that worthless man (Nabal). He is the same as his name. His name means ‘Foolish,’ and he really is foolish. The Lord has kept you from killing innocent people. Surely as the Lord lives and surely as you live, I hope your enemies and all the people who want to harm you become like Nabal. Now, I am bringing this gift to you. Please give these things to your men. Please forgive me for doing wrong. I know the Lord will make your family strong! The Lord will do this because you fight his battles. People will never find anything bad about you as long as you live! If a person chases you to kill you, the Lord your God will save your life! But the Lord will throw away your friend Literally, “son.”

about a bushel Literally, “5 seahs.”
2 quarts Literally, “1 omer.”
enemies like a stone from a sling!* 30The Lord promised to do many good things for you. And the Lord will keep all his promises! God will make you leader over Israel. 31And you won’t be guilty of killing innocent people. You won’t fall into that trap. Please remember me when the Lord brings you success.”

32David answered Abigail, “Praise the Lord, the God of Israel. Praise God for sending you to meet me. 33God bless you for your good judgment. You kept me from killing innocent people today. 34Surely as the Lord the God of Israel lives, if you hadn’t come quickly to meet me, then not one man in Nabal’s family would have lived until tomorrow morning.”

35Then David accepted Abigail’s gifts. David told her, “Go home in peace. I have listened to your request, and I will do what you asked.”

Nabal’s Death

36Abigail went back to Nabal. Nabal was in the house. Nabal had been eating like a king. Nabal was drunk and feeling good. So Abigail told Nabal nothing until the next morning. 37The next morning, Nabal was sober. So his wife told him everything. Nabal had a heart attack and became as stiff as a rock! 38About ten days later, the Lord caused Nabal to die.

39David heard that Nabal was dead. David said, “Praise the Lord! Nabal said bad things about me, but the Lord supported me. The Lord kept me from doing wrong. And the Lord caused Nabal to die.

40David heard that Nabal was dead. David said, “Praise the Lord! Nabal said bad things about me, but the Lord supported me. The Lord kept me from doing wrong. And the Lord caused Nabal to die because he did wrong.”

Then David sent a message to Abigail. David asked her to become his wife. 41David’s servants went to Carmel and said to Abigail, “David sent us to get you. David wants you to become his wife.”

42Abigail quickly got on a donkey and went with David’s messengers. Abigail brought five maids with her. She became David’s wife.

43David had also married Ahinoam of Jezreel. Both Ahinoam and Abigail were David’s wives. 44David was also married to Saul’s daughter Michal. But Saul had taken her away from him and had given her to a man named Palti, son of Laish. Palti was from the town named Gallim.

David and Abishai Enter Saul’s Camp

26The people of Ziph went to see Saul at Gibeah. They said to Saul, “David is hiding on the hill of Hakilah. This hill is across from Jeshimon.”

2Saul went down to the desert of Ziph. Saul took the 3,000 soldiers he had chosen from all over Israel. Saul and these men looked for David in the desert of Ziph. 3Saul set up his camp on the hill of Hakilah. The camp was beside the road across from Jeshimon.

David was staying in the desert. David learned that Saul had followed him there. 4So David sent out spies.* David learned that Saul had come to Hakilah. 5Then David went to the place where Saul had set up his camp. David saw where Saul and Abner were sleeping. (Abner son of Ner was the commander of Saul’s army.) Saul was sleeping in the middle of the camp. The army was all around Saul.

6David talked to Ahimelech the Hittite and Abishai son of Zeruiah. (Abishai was Joab’s brother.) He asked them, “Who will go down into the camp with me to Saul?”

Abishai answered, “I’ll go with you.”

7Night came. David and Abishai went into Saul’s camp. Saul was asleep in the middle of the camp. His spear was stuck in the ground

sling A strip of leather for throwing rocks.

spies People who secretly go to learn about the enemy’s strengths and weaknesses.
near his head. Abner and the other soldiers were asleep around Saul. Abishai said to David, “Today God has let you defeat your enemy. Let me pin Saul to the ground with his spear. I’ll only do it once!”

But David said to Abishai, “Don’t kill Saul! Any person who hurts the Lord’s chosen king must be punished! Surely as the Lord lives, the Lord himself will punish Saul. Maybe Saul will die naturally or maybe Saul will be killed in battle. But I pray that the Lord never lets me hurt the Lord’s chosen king! Now pick up the spear and water jug by Saul’s head. Then let’s go.”

So David took the spear and water jug that were near Saul’s head. Then David and Abishai left Saul’s camp. No one knew what had happened! No one saw it. No one even woke up! Saul and all of his soldiers slept because the Lord had put them into a deep sleep.

David Shames Saul Again

David crossed over to the other side of the valley. David stood on top of the mountain across the valley from Saul’s camp. David and Saul’s camp were far apart. David shouted to the army and to Abner son of Ner, “Answer me, Abner!”

Abner answered, “Who are you? Why are you calling the king?”

David said, “You are a man, aren’t you? And you are better than any other man in Israel. Is that right? Then why didn’t you guard your master, the king? An ordinary man came into your camp to kill your master, the king. You made a big mistake! As sure as the Lord is alive, you and your men should die. Why? Because you didn’t protect your master, the Lord’s chosen king. Look for the king’s spear and the water jug that was near Saul’s head! Where are they?”

Saul knew David’s voice. Saul said, “Is that your voice, David my son?”

David answered, “Yes, it is my voice, my master and king.”

David also said, “Sir, why are you chasing me? What wrong have I done? What am I guilty of? My master and king, listen to me! If the Lord caused you to be angry at me, then let him accept an offering. But if men caused you to be angry at me, then let the Lord cause bad things to happen to them. Men have forced me to leave the land the Lord gave me. Men have told me, ‘Go live with the foreigners.’ Go and serve other gods.’

Now don’t make me die far away from the Lord’s presence. The king of Israel has come out looking for a flea. You are like a man hunting partridges in the mountains!”

Then Saul said, “I have sinned. Come back, David my son. Today you showed me that my life is important to you. So I will not try to hurt you. I have acted foolishly. I have made a big mistake.”

David answered, “Here is the king’s spear. Let one of your young men come here and get it. The Lord pays every man for the things he does—he rewards him if he does right, and he punishes him if he does wrong. The Lord let me defeat you today, but I wouldn’t hurt the Lord’s chosen king. Today I showed you that your life is important to me! In the same way, the Lord will show that my life is important to him! The Lord will save me from every trouble.”

Then Saul said to David, “God bless you, David my son. You will do great things and you will win.”

David went on his way, and Saul went back home.

David Lives with the Philistines

But David thought to himself, “Saul will catch me some day. The best thing I can do is to escape to the land of the Philistines. Then Saul will give up looking for me in Israel. That way I will escape from Saul.”

So David and his 600 men left Israel. They went to Achish son of Maoch. Achish was king of Gath. David, his men, and their families lived in Gath with Achish. David had... his two wives with him. They were Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail of Carmel. Abigail was the widow* of Nabal. People told Saul that David had run away to Gath. So Saul stopped looking for him.

3David said to Achish, “If you are pleased with me, then give me a place in one of the country towns. I am only your servant. I should live there, not here with you in this royal city.”

4That day Achish gave David the town of Ziklag. And Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah ever since. 7David lived with the Philistines one year and four months.

David Fools King Achish

8David and his men went to fight the Amalekites and Geshurites who lived in the area from Telem near Shur all the way to Egypt. David’s men defeated them and took their wealth. 9David defeated the people in that area. David took all their sheep, cattle, donkeys, camels and clothes and brought them back to Achish. But David didn’t let any of those people live.

10David did this many times. Each time Achish asked David where he fought and took those things. David said, “I fought against the southern part of Judah,” or “I fought against the southern part of Jerahmeel,” or “I fought against the southern part of the Kenizzites.”

11David never brought a man or woman alive to Gath. David thought, “If we let any person live, that person might tell Achish what I really did!”

David did this all the time he lived in the Philistine land. 12Achish began to trust David. Achish said to himself, “Now David’s own people hate him. The Israelites hate David very much. Now David will serve me forever.”

The Philistines Prepare for War

Later the Philistines gathered their armies to fight against Israel. Achish said to David, “Do you understand that you and your men must go with me to fight against Israel?”

2David answered, “Certainly! Then you can see for yourself what I can do!”

Achish said, “Fine, I’ll make you my bodyguard. You will protect me forever.”

Saul and the Woman at Endor

3After Samuel died, all the people of Israel showed their sadness. Then they buried Samuel in Ramah, his home town. Saul had removed the mediums* and fortune tellers from Israel.

4The Philistines prepared for war. They came to Shunem and made their camp at that place. Saul gathered all the Israelites and made his camp at Gilboa. 5Saul saw the Philistine army, and he was scared. His heart pounded with fear. 6Saul prayed to the Lord, but the Lord did not answer him. God did not talk to Saul in dreams. God did not use the Urim* to give him an answer. And God did not use prophets to speak to Saul.

7Finally, Saul said to his officers, “Find me a woman who is a medium.* Then I can go ask her what will happen in this war.”

His officers answered, “There is a medium* at Endor.”

8Saul put on different clothes so no one would know who he was. That night Saul and two of his men went to see the woman. Saul said to the woman, “I want you to bring up a ghost who can tell me what will happen in the future. You must call for the ghost of the person I name.”

9But the woman said to Saul, “You know what Saul did! He has forced all of the mediums* and fortune tellers to leave the land of Israel. You are trying to trap me and kill me.”

10Saul used the Lord’s name to make a promise to the woman. He said, “As surely as the Lord lives, you will not be punished for doing this.”

widow A woman whose husband has died.
I fought ... Jerahmeel, Kenizzites All these places belonged to Israel. David made Achish think he had fought against his own people, the Israelites.

medium(s) A person who tries to communicate with the spirits of dead people.
Urim Priests used these stones to get answers from God. See Num. 27:20–22.
11The woman asked, “Who do you want me to bring up for you?”

Saul answered, “Bring up Samuel.”

12And it happened! The woman saw Samuel and screamed loudly. She said to Saul, “You tricked me! You are Saul.”

13The king said to the woman, “Don’t be afraid! What do you see?”

The woman said, “I see a spirit coming up out of the ground.”

14Saul asked, “What does he look like?”

The woman answered, “He looks like an old man wearing a special robe.”

Then Saul knew it was Samuel. Saul bowed down. His face touched the ground. 15Samuel said to Saul, “Why did you bother me? Why did you bring me up?”

Saul answered, “I am in trouble! The Philistines have come to fight against me, and God left me. God won’t answer me any more. He won’t use prophets or dreams to answer me. That’s why I called you. I want you to tell me what to do!”

16Samuel said, “The Lord left you. Now he is with your neighbor (David). So why are you bothering me? Why did you bring me up?”

Saul answered, “I am in trouble! The Philistines have come to fight against me, and God left me. God won’t answer me any more. He won’t use prophets or dreams to answer me. That’s why I called you. I want you to tell me what to do!”

17The Lord used me to tell you what he would do. And now the Lord is doing what he said he would do! The Lord is pulling the kingdom from your hands. And he is giving the kingdom to one of your neighbors. That neighbor is David. 18You did not obey the Lord. You did not destroy the Amalekites and show them how angry the Lord was at them. That is why the Lord is doing this to you today.

19The Lord will let the Philistines defeat you and the army of Israel today. And tomorrow, you and your sons will be here with me!”

20Saul quickly fell to the ground and lay there. Saul was afraid because of the things Samuel said. Saul was also very weak because he did not eat any food all that day and night.

21The woman came to Saul. She saw Saul was really scared. She said, “Look, I am your servant. I have obeyed you. I risked my life and did what you told me to do. 22Now please listen to me. Let me give you some food. You must eat. Then you will have enough strength to go on your way.”

23But Saul refused. He said, “I won’t eat.”

Saul’s officers joined the woman and begged him to eat. Finally, Saul listened to them. He got up from the ground and sat on the bed. 24The woman had a fat calf at the house. She quickly killed the calf. She took some flour and pressed it with her hands. Then she baked some bread without yeast. 25The woman put the food before Saul and his officers. Saul and his officers ate. Then that same night they got up and left.

“David Can’t Come With Us!”

29The Philistines gathered all their soldiers at Aphek. The Israelites camped by the spring at Jezreel. 2The Philistine rulers were marching with their groups of 100 men and 1,000 men. David and his men were marching at the back with Achish.

3The Philistine captains asked, “What are these Hebrews doing here?”

Achish told the Philistine captains, “This is David. David was one of Saul’s officers. David has been with me for a long time. I found nothing wrong in David since the time he left Saul and came to me.”

4But the Philistine captains were angry with Achish. They said, “Send David back! David must go back to the city you gave him. He can’t go with us into battle. If he is here, we will have an enemy in our own camp. He would make his king happy by killing our men.

5David is the same person the Israelites sing and dance about when they sing this song:

Saul has killed thousands of enemies. But David has killed tens of thousands!

6So Achish called David and said, “As sure as the Lord lives, you are loyal to me. I would be pleased to have you serve in my army. Since the day you came to me, I have found nothing wrong in you. Also, the Philistine rulers think you are a good man.* 7Go back in peace. Don’t do anything against the Philistine rulers.”

the Philistine rulers ... man The Philistine rulers are pleased with David. It is the Philistine commanders of the army who are against him.

---

ground Or, “Sheol, the place of death.”
8David asked, “What have I done wrong? Have you found anything wrong with me since the day I came to you? No! Why won’t you let me go to fight the enemies of my lord the king?”

9Achish answered, “I believe that you are a good man. You are like an angel from God. But the Philistine captains still say, ‘David can’t go with us into battle.’ 10Early in the morning, you and your men should go back to the city I gave you. Don’t pay attention to the bad things the captains say about you. You are a good man. So leave as soon as the sun comes up.”

11So David and his men got up early in the morning and went back to the country of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

The Amalekites Attack Ziklag

30On the third day, David and his men arrived at Ziklag. They saw that the Amalekites had attacked Ziklag. The Amalekites invaded the Negev area. They attacked Ziklag and burned the city. 2They took the women in Ziklag as prisoners. They took all the people, both young and old. They did not kill any of the people. They only took them away.

3When David and his men came to Ziklag, they found the city burning. Their wives, sons, and daughters were all gone. The Amalekites had taken them. 4David and the other men in his army cried loudly until they were too weak to cry any more. 5The Amalekites had taken David’s two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail, the widow* of Nabal from Carmel.

6All the men in the army were sad and angry because their sons and daughters were taken as prisoners. The men were talking about killing David with stones. This made David very upset. But David found strength in the Lord his God. 7David said to Abiathar the priest, “Bring the ephod.”*

widow A woman whose husband has died.
ephod A special coat a man wore to show that he was a priest or a priest’s helper. The priest wore an ephod when he went to ask the Lord for advice.

8Then David prayed to the Lord. “Should I chase the people who took our families? Will I catch them?”

The Lord answered, “Chase them. You will catch them. You will save your families.”

David Finds an Egyptian Slave

9–10David took the 600 men with him and went to Besor Ravine. About 200 of his men stayed at this place. They stayed there because they were too weak and tired to continue. So David and 400 men continued to chase the Amalekites.

11David’s men found an Egyptian in a field. They took the Egyptian to David. They gave the Egyptian some water to drink and some food to eat. 12They gave the Egyptian a piece of fig cake and two clusters of raisins. He felt better after eating. He had not had any food or water for three days and nights.

13David asked the Egyptian, “Who is your master? Where do you come from?”

The Egyptian answered, “I am an Egyptian. I am the slave of an Amalekite. Three days ago I became sick and my master left me. 14We had attacked the Negev area where the Kerethites* live. We attacked the land of Judah, and in the Negev area where Caleb’s people live. We also burned Ziklag.”

15David asked the Egyptian, “Will you lead me to the people who took our families?”

The Egyptian answered, “If you make a special promise before God, then I will help you find them. But you must promise that you won’t kill me or give me back to my master.”

David Defeats The Amalekites

16The Egyptian led David to the Amalekites. They were lying around on the ground, eating and drinking. They were celebrating with the many things they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from Judah. 17David attacked them and killed them. They fought from sunrise until the evening of the next day. None of the Amalekites escaped, except 400 young men who jumped onto their camels and rode away.

Kerethites Or “people from Crete.” This is probably the Philistines, but some of David’s best soldiers were Kerethites.
18David got back everything the Amalekites had taken, including his two wives. 19Nothing was missing. They found all the children and old people. They found all their sons and daughters. And they found all their valuable things. They got back everything the Amalekites had taken. David brought everything back. 20David took all the sheep and cattle. David’s men made these animals go in front. David’s men said, “They are David’s prize.”

All Men Will Share Equally

21David came to the 200 men who had stayed at Besor Ravine. These were the men who were too weak and tired to follow David. These men came out to meet David and the soldiers that went with him. The men at the Besor Ravine greeted David and his army as they came near. 22There were some bad men who were trouble-makers in the group that went with David. Those trouble-makers said, “These 200 men didn’t go with us. So we won’t give them any of the things we took. These men get only their own wives and children.” 23David answered, “No, my brothers. Don’t do that! Think about what the Lord gave us! The Lord let us defeat the enemy that attacked us. 24No one will listen to what you say! The share will be the same for the man who stayed with the supplies and for the man who went into battle. Everyone will share alike.” 25David made this an order and rule for Israel. This rule continues even today.

26David arrived in Ziklag. Then he sent some of the things he took from the Amalekites to his friends, the leaders of Judah. David said, “Here is a present for you. We took these things from the Lord’s enemies.” 27David sent some of those things from the Amalekites to the leaders in Bethel, Ramoth in the Negev, Jattir, Aroer, Siphmoth, Eshtemoa, Racal, the cities of the Jerahmeelites and the cities of the Kenites, Hormah, Bor Ashan, Athach, and Hebron.

The Death of Saul

31The Philistines fought against Israel, and the Israelites ran away from the Philistines. Many Israelites were killed at Mount Gilboa. The Philistines fought hard against Saul and his sons. The Philistines killed Saul’s sons Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malki Shua. 3The battle became worse and worse against Saul. The archers* shot arrows at Saul, and Saul was hurt very badly. 4Saul said to the servant that carried his armor, “Take your sword and kill me. Then those foreigners can’t hurt me and make fun of me.” But Saul’s helper was scared and refused to kill him.

So Saul took his own sword and killed himself. 5The helper saw that Saul was dead, so he used his own sword and killed himself. He died there with Saul. 6So Saul, his three sons, and the boy who carried his armor all died together that day.

The Philistines Rejoice At Saul’s Death

7The Israelites that lived on the other side of the valley saw the Israelite army running away. They saw that Saul and his sons were dead. So those Israelites left their cities and ran away. Then the Philistines came and lived in those cities.

8The next day, the Philistines went back to take things from the dead bodies. They found Saul and his three sons dead on Mount Gilboa. 9The Philistines cut off Saul’s head and took all his armor. They carried the news to the Philistine people and to all the temples of their idols.* 10They put Saul’s armor in the temple of Ashtoreth.* The Philistines also hung Saul’s body on the wall of Beth Shan.*

11The people living in Jabesh Gilead heard about the things that the Philistines did to Saul. 12So all the soldiers of Jabesh went to Beth Shan.* They marched all archers  Soldiers that used bows and arrows.

idols  Statues of false gods.
Ashtoreth  The Canaanite people thought that this false goddess could make people able to have babies. She was their goddess of love and war.
Beth Shan  Or possibly, “Beth Shean.”. night! Then they took Saul’s body off the wall at Beth Shan. They also took down the bodies of Saul’s sons. Then they took those bodies to Jabesh. There the people of Jabesh burned the bodies of Saul and his three sons.

13Then these people took the bones of Saul and his three sons and buried them under the big tree in Jabesh. Then the people of Jabesh showed their sadness—they did not eat for seven days.
2 Samuel

David Learns About Saul’s Death

1 David went back to Ziklag after defeating the Amalekites. This was just after Saul had been killed. David had been there two days. 2 Then, on the third day, a young soldier came to Ziklag. This man was from Saul’s camp. The man’s clothes were torn, and he had dirt on his head. The man came to David and bowed with his face to the ground.

3 David asked the man, “Where have you come from?”

The man answered David, “I just came from the Israelite camp.”

4 David said to the man, “Please tell me, who won the battle?”

The man answered, “Our people ran away from the battle. Many of the people were killed in the battle. Even Saul and his son Jonathan are dead.”

5 David said to the young soldier, “How do you know Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?”

6 The young soldier said, “I happened to be on Mount Gilboa. I saw Saul leaning on his spear. The Philistine chariots and horse soldiers were coming closer and closer to Saul. 7 Saul looked back and saw me. He called to me and I answered him. 8 Then Saul asked me who I was. I told him that I was an Amalekite. 9 Then Saul said, ‘Please kill me. I am hurt badly. And I am about to die anyway.’ 10 He was hurt so badly that I knew he wouldn’t live. So I stopped and killed him. Then I took the crown from his head and the bracelet from his arm. And I brought them here to you, my lord.”

11 Then David tore his clothes to show he was very sad. All the men with David did the same thing. 12 They were very sad and cried. They did not eat until evening. They cried because Saul and his son Jonathan were dead. David and his men cried for the Lord’s people that had been killed, and they cried for Israel. They cried because Saul, his son Jonathan, and many Israelites had been killed in battle.

David Orders the Amalekite Killed

13 Then David talked with the young soldier who had told him about Saul’s death. David asked, “Where are you from?”

The young soldier answered, “I am the son of a foreigner. I am an Amalekite.”

14 David said to the young soldier, “Why were you not afraid to kill the Lord’s chosen king?”

15–16 Then David told the Amalekite, “You are responsible for your own death. You said you killed the Lord’s chosen king, so your own words prove you are guilty.” Then David called one of his young servants and told him to kill the Amalekite. So the young Israelite killed the Amalekite.

David’s Song About Saul and Jonathan

17 David sang a sad song about Saul and his son Jonathan. 18 David told his men to teach the song to the people of Judah. This song is called The Bow. It is written in the Book of Jashar.*

clothes ... head This showed the man was very sad.

Book of Jashar An ancient book about the wars of Israel.
“Israel, your beauty was ruined on your hills.
Oh, how those heroes fell!
Don’t tell the news in Gath,*
Don’t announce it in the streets of Ashkelon.*
Those Philistine cities would be happy!
Those foreigners* would be glad.
I hope no rain or dew falls on the mountains of Gilboa.
I hope there will be no offerings coming from those fields.
The shields of the heroes rusted there.
Saul’s shield was not rubbed with oil.
Jonathan’s bow killed its share of enemies.
And Saul’s sword killed its share!
They have spilled the blood of men now dead.
They cut into the fat of strong men.
Saul and Jonathan loved and enjoyed each other in life,
and even death did not separate them!
They were faster than eagles and stronger than lions.
Daughters of Israel, cry for Saul!
Saul gave you beautiful red dresses and covered them with gold jewelry!
Strong men have fallen in the battle.
Jonathan is dead on Gilboa’s hills.
Jonathan, my brother,
I miss you so much!
I enjoyed being with you so much.
Your love for me was more wonderful than the love of women.
Strong men have fallen in the battle.
The weapons of war are gone.”

David asked, “Where should I go?”
The Lord answered, “To Hebron.”
So David and his two wives moved to Hebron. (His wives were Ahinoam from Jezreel and Abigail, the widow* of Nabal from Carmel.)
David also brought his men and their families. All of them made their homes in Hebron and the towns nearby.

David Thanks the People of Jabesh
The men of Judah came to Hebron and anointed* David to be the king of Judah. Then they told David, “The men of Jabesh Gilead buried Saul.”
David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead. These messengers told the men in Jabesh: “The Lord bless you, because you have shown kindness to your lord Saul by burying [his ashes].*
The Lord will be kind and true to you. And I will also be kind to you.
Now be strong and brave. Your lord, Saul, is dead. But the family group of Judah has anointed* me to be their king.”

Ish Bosheth Becomes King
Abner son of Ner was the captain of Saul’s army. Abner took Saul’s son Ish Bosheth to Mahanaim and made him king of Gilead, Asher, Jezreel, Ephraim, Benjamin, and all of Israel.*
Ish Bosheth was Saul’s son. Ish Bosheth was 40 years old when he began to rule over Israel. He ruled two years. But the family group of Judah followed David.
David was king in Hebron. David ruled over the family group of Judah for seven years and six months.

The Deadly Contest
Abner son of Ner and the officers of Saul’s son Ish Bosheth left Mahanaim and went to Gibeon.
Joab, Zeruiah’s son, and the officers of David also went to Gibeon.

Gath The Philistine capital city.
Ashkelon One of the five Philistine cities.
foreigners Literally, “uncircumcised.” This shows the Philistines had not shared in Israel’s Agreement with God.
take control Literally, “go up against.”

widow A woman whose husband has died.
anointed To pour olive oil on a person’s head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.
his ashes The bodies of both Saul and Jonathan were burned.
See 1 Sam. 31:12.
Israel Sometimes this means the whole country, Judah and Israel. Here it means only the family groups that were not united with Judah.
They met Abner and Ish Bosheth’s officers at the pool of Gibeon. Abner’s group sat on one side of the pool. Joab’s group sat on the other side of the pool.

14Abner said to Joab, “Let’s have the young soldiers get up and have a contest here.”

Joab said, “Yes, let’s have a contest.”

15So the young soldiers got up. The two groups counted their men for the contest. They chose twelve men from the family group of Benjamin to fight for Saul’s son Ish Bosheth. And they chose twelve men from David’s officers.

16Each of the men grabbed his opponent’s head and stabbed him in the side with his sword, and then they fell down together. That is why the place is called “The Field of the Sharp Knives.”* The place is in Gibeon.

Abner Kills Asahel

17That contest became a terrible battle and David’s officers defeated Abner and the Israelites that day. 18Zeruiah had three sons, Joab, Abishai, and Asahel. Asahel was a fast runner. He was as fast as a wild deer. 19Asahel ran straight toward Abner and began chasing him.

20Abner looked back and asked, “Is that you, Asahel?”

Asahel said, “Yes, it’s me.”

21Abner didn’t want to hurt Asahel. So Abner said to Asahel, “Stop chasing me—go after one of the young soldiers. You could easily take his armor* for yourself.” But Asahel refused to stop chasing Abner.

22Abner again said to Asahel, “Stop chasing me or I will have to kill you. Then I won’t be able to look your brother Joab in the face again.”

23But Asahel refused to stop chasing Abner. So Abner used the back end of his spear and pushed it into Asahel’s stomach. The spear went deep into Asahel’s stomach and came out of his back. Asahel died right there.

Joab and Abishai Chase Abner

Asahel’s body lay on the ground. All of the men that ran that way stopped to look at Asahel. 24But Joab and Abishai* continued chasing Abner. The sun was just going down when they came to Ammah Hill. (Ammah Hill is in front of Giah on the way to Gibeon Desert.) 25The men from the family group of Benjamin gathered around Abner at the top of the hill.

26Abner shouted to Joab and said, “Must we fight and kill each other forever? Surely you know that this will only end in sadness. Tell the people to stop chasing their own brothers.”

27Then Joab said, “It is a good thing you said that. As sure as God is alive, if you had not said something, then people would still be chasing their brothers in the morning.” 28So Joab blew a trumpet, and his people stopped chasing the Israelites. They did not try to fight the Israelites any more.

29Abner and his men marched all night through the Jordan Valley. They crossed the Jordan River and marched all day until they came to Mahanaim.

30Joab stopped chasing Abner and went back. Joab had gathered his men and learned that 19 of David’s officers were missing, including Asahel. 31But David’s officers had killed 360 of Abner’s men from the family group of Benjamin. 32David’s officers took Asahel and buried him in the tomb of his father at Bethlehem.

Joab and his men marched all night. The sun came up just as they reached Hebron.

War Between Israel and Judah

3There was war for a long time between Saul’s family and David’s family. David became stronger and stronger. And Saul’s family became weaker and weaker.

David’s Six Sons Born at Hebron

2David had these sons that were born at Hebron. The first son was Ammon. Ammon’s mother was Ahinoam from Jezreel. 3The second son was Kileab. Kileab’s mother was Abigail, the widow* of Nabal from Carmel. The third son was Absalom. Absalom’s mother was Maacah daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur. 4The fourth son was Adonijah. Adonijah’s mother was Haggith. The fifth son was Shephatiah. Shephatiah’s mother was Abital. 5The sixth son was Ithream. Ithream’s mother was David’s wife Eglah. David had these six sons born at Hebron.

Abner Decides to Join David

6Abner became more and more powerful in Saul’s army while the families of Saul and David fought each other. 7Saul had a woman servant* named Rizpah daughter of Aiah. Ish Bosheth said to Abner, “Why did you have sexual relations with my father’s servant woman?”

8Abner was very angry because of what Ish Bosheth said. Abner said, “I have been loyal to Saul and his family. I did not give you to David—I did not let him defeat you. I am not a traitor working for Judah.* But now you are saying that I did this bad thing. 9–10I make this promise—I will now make sure that the things God said will happen. The Lord said he would take the kingdom away from Saul’s family and give it to David. The Lord will make David king of Judah and Israel. He will rule from Dan to Beersheba.* And I hope God does bad things to me if I don’t make that happen!”

11Ish Bosheth could not say anything to Abner. Ish Bosheth was too afraid of him.

12Abner sent messengers to David. Abner said, “My lord and king, let me go bring all the Israelites to you. Then they will make an agreement with you. And you will rule over all Israel, like you wanted.”

So David let Abner leave. And Abner left in peace.

Abner’s Death

22Joab and David’s officers came back from battle. They had many valuable things that they had taken from the enemy. David

David Gets His Wife Michal Back

14David sent messengers to Saul’s son Ish Bosheth. David said, “Give me my wife Michal. She was promised to me. I killed 100 Philistines to get her.”

15Then Ish Bosheth told the men to go and take Michal from a man named Paltiel son of Laish. 16Michal’s husband Paltiel went with Michal. Paltiel was crying while he followed Michal to Bahurim. But Abner said to Paltiel, “Go back home.” So Paltiel went back home.

Abner Promises to Help David

17Abner sent this message to the leaders of Israel. He said, “You have been wanting to make David your king. 18Now do it! The Lord was talking about David when he said, ‘I will save my people the Israelites from the Philistines and all their other enemies. I will do this through my servant David.’”

19Abner said these things to David in Hebron. And he said these things to the people of the Benjamin family group. The things Abner said sounded good to the Benjamin family group and to all the people of Israel.

20Then Abner came up to David at Hebron. Abner brought 20 men with him. David gave a party for Abner and for all the men who came with him.

21Abner said to David, “My lord and king, let me go bring all the Israelites to you. Then they will make an agreement with you. And you will rule over all Israel, like you wanted.”

So David let Abner leave. And Abner left in peace.
had just let Abner leave in peace. So Abner was not there in Hebron with David. 23Joab and all his army arrived at Hebron. The army said to Joab, “Abner son of Ner came to King David, and David let Abner leave in peace.” 24Joab came to the king and said, “What have you done? Abner came to you, but you sent him away without hurting him! Why? You know Abner son of Ner. He came to trick you. He came to learn all about the things you are doing.”

26Joab left David and sent messengers to Abner at the well of Sirah. The messengers brought Abner back, but David did not know this. 27When Abner arrived at Hebron, Joab took him to one side in the middle of the gateway to talk with him in private. And then Joab stabbed Abner in the stomach, and Abner died. Abner had killed Joab’s brother Asahel. So now Joab killed Abner.

David Cries for Abner

28Later David heard the news. David said, “My kingdom and I are innocent of the death of Abner son of Ner. The Lord knows this. 29Joab and his family are responsible for this, and all his family are to be blamed. I hope many troubles will come to Joab’s family. I hope the people in his family will be sick with leprosy, and crippled, and killed in war, and not have enough food to eat!”

30Joab and his brother Abishai killed Abner because Abner had killed their brother Asahel in the battle at Gibeon.

31–32David said to Joab and to all the people with Joab, “Tear your clothes and put on clothes of sadness. Cry for Abner.” They buried Abner in Hebron. David went to the funeral. King David and all the people cried at Abner’s grave.

33King David sang this sad song at Abner’s funeral:

“Did Abner die like some foolish criminal?
Abner, your hands were not tied.
Your feet were not put in chains.
No, Abner, evil men killed you!”

Then all the people cried again for Abner. 35All day long people came to encourage David to eat food. But David had made a special promise. He said, “May God punish me and give me many troubles if I eat bread or any other food before the sun goes down.” 36All the people saw what happened, and they were pleased with what King David had done. 37All the people of Judah and Israel understood that King David had not killed Abner son of Ner.

38King David said to his officers, “You know that a very important leader died today in Israel. 39And it was on the very same day that I was anointed* to be the king. These sons of Zeruiah have caused me a lot of trouble. I hope the Lord gives these men the punishment they deserve.”

Troubles Come to Saul’s Family

4Saul’s son (Ish Bosheth) heard that Abner had died at Hebron. Ish Bosheth and all his people became very scared. 2Two men went to see to Saul’s son (Ish Bosheth). These two men were captains in the army. They were Recab and Baanah, the sons of Rimmon from Beeroth. (They were Benjamites because the town Beeroth belonged to the family group of Benjamin. 3But all the people in Beeroth ran away to Gittaim. And they are still living there today.)

4Saul’s son Jonathan had a son named Mephibosheth. Mephibosheth was five years old when the news came from Jezreel that Saul and Jonathan had been killed. The woman who cared for Mephibosheth was scared that the enemy was coming, so she picked him up and ran away. But while running away, she dropped the boy. And he became crippled in both feet.

5Recab and Baanah, sons of Rimmon from Beeroth, went to Ish Bosheth’s house at noon. Ish Bosheth was resting because it was hot. 6–7Recab and Baanah came into the house like they were going to get some wheat. Ish Bosheth was lying on his bed in his bedroom. Recab and Baanah stabbed and killed Ish Bosheth. Then they cut off his head and took it with them. They traveled all night by the anointed To pour olive oil on a person’s head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

way leading through the Jordan Valley. They arrived at Hebron. And they gave Ish Bosheth’s head to David.

Recab and Baanah said to the King David, “Here is the head of your enemy, Ish Bosheth, son of Saul. He tried to kill you. The Lord has punished Saul and his family for you today.”

But David told Recab and his brother Baanah, “As sure as the Lord is alive, he has saved me from all trouble. But once before a person thought he would bring me good news. He told me, ‘Look! Saul is dead.’ He thought I would reward him for bringing me the news. But I grabbed this man and killed him at Ziklag. So I must kill you and remove you from this land. Why? Because you evil men killed a good man sleeping on his own bed, in his own house.”

So David commanded the young soldiers to kill Recab and Baanah. The young soldiers cut off the hands and feet of Recab and Baanah and hanged them by the pool of Hebron. Then they took the head of Ish Bosheth and buried it in the same place where Abner was buried at Hebron.

The Israelites Make David King

Then all the family groups of Israel came to David at Hebron. They said to David, “Look, we are one family!” Even when Saul was our king, you were the one who led us into battle. And you were the one who brought Israel back home from war. And the Lord himself said to you, ‘You will be the shepherd of my people, the Israelites. You will be the ruler over Israel.’

So all the leaders of Israel came to meet with King David at Hebron. King David made an agreement with these leaders in Hebron in front of the Lord. Then the leaders anointed David to be the king of Israel.

David was 30 years old when he began to rule. He was king for 40 years. In Hebron, he ruled over Judah for 7 years and 6 months. And in Jerusalem, he ruled over all of Israel and Judah for 33 years.

David the Town of Jerusalem

The king and his men went to fight against the Jebusites living in Jerusalem. The Jebusites said to David, “You can’t come into our city,* Even our blind and crippled people can stop you.” (They said this because they thought that David would not be able to enter into their city. But David did take the fort of Zion. This fort became the City of David.*)

That day David said to his men, “If you want to defeat the Jebusites, go up through the water shaft* and reach those ‘crippled and blind’ enemies.”

This is why people say, “The blind and the crippled can’t come into the house.*”

David lived in the fort and called it “The City of David.”* David built the area called the Millo.* He also built more buildings inside the city. David became stronger and stronger because the Lord All-Powerful was with him.

Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David. Hiram also sent cedar trees, carpenters and stonemasons. They built a house for David. Then David knew that the Lord had really made him king of Israel. And David knew that the Lord had made his kingdom very important to God’s people, the people of Israel.

Then David moved from Hebron to Jerusalem. In Jerusalem, David got more women servants* and wives. Some more of David’s children were born in Jerusalem. These are the names of David’s sons that were born in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, one family  Literally, “Your flesh and blood.”

anointed  To pour olive oil on a person’s head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

You can’t come … city  The city of Jerusalem was built on a hill. And the city had high walls around it. So it was very hard to capture.

City of David  The southeast and oldest part of the city of Jerusalem.

water shaft  There was a tunnel with water in it that went under the wall of the ancient city of Jerusalem, and then a narrow shaft (tunnel) went straight up into the city. People in the city used it as a well. One of David’s men probably climbed up the shaft to get into the city.

house  This probably means the king’s palace or the temple.

Millo  Probably one of the strong places that made up the ancient fort of Zion.

women servants  Or, “concubines;” slave women who were like wives to a man.
David Fights Against the Philistines

17 The Philistines heard that the Israelites had anointed* David to be the king of Israel. So the Philistines went to look for David to kill him. But David heard about this and went into the fort† at Jerusalem. 18 The Philistines came and camped in the Rephaim Valley.

19 David asked the Lord, saying, “Should I go to war against the Philistines? Will you help me defeat the Philistines?” The Lord said to David, “Yes. I will certainly help you defeat the Philistines.”

20 Then David went to Baal Perazim and defeated the Philistines in that place. David said, “The Lord broke through my enemies like water breaking through a broken dam.” That is why David named that place “Baal Perazim.”* 21 The Philistines left the statues of their gods behind at Baal Perazim. David and his men took those statues away.

22 Again the Philistines came and camped in Rephaim Valley.

23 David prayed to the Lord. This time the Lord told David, “Don’t go up there. Go around them to the back of their army. Attack them from the other side of the balsam trees. 24 From the top of the balsam trees you will be able to hear the Philistines marching into battle. Then you must act quickly, because at that time the Lord will go ahead of you and defeat the Philistines for you.”

25 David did what the Lord commanded him to do. And he defeated the Philistines. He chased them and killed them all the way from Geba to Gezer.

God’s Holy Box Is Moved to Jerusalem

6 David again gathered all of the best soldiers in Israel. There were 30,000 men. Then David and all his men went to Baalah in Judah.* They took God’s Holy Box* from Baalah in Judah, and moved it to Jerusalem. People go to the Holy Box to worship the Lord.† The Holy Box is like the Lord’s throne.‡ There are statues of Cherub angels* on top of the Holy Box. And the Lord sits as king on these angels. §David’s men brought the Holy Box out of Abinadab’s house on the hill. Then they put God’s Holy Box on a new wagon. Uzzah and Ahio, sons of Abinadab, were driving the new wagon.

4 So they carried the Holy Box* out of Abinadab’s house on the hill. Uzzah was on the wagon with God’s Holy Box. And Ahio was walking in front of the Holy Box. 5 David and all the Israelites were dancing in front of the Lord and playing all kinds of musical instruments. There were lyres,* harps, drums, rattles, instruments made from cypress wood, and cymbals.* 6 When David’s men came to the threshing floor* of Nacon, the cows stumbled, and God’s Holy Box began to fall off the wagon. Uzzah caught the Holy Box. 7 But the Lord was angry at Uzzah and killed him.* Uzzah showed he did not honor God when he touched the Holy Box. Uzzah died there by God’s Holy Box. 8 David was upset because the Lord had killed Uzzah. David anointed To pour olive oil on a person’s head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

Baal Perazim This name means “The Lord breaks through.”
David became afraid of the Lord that day. David said, “How can I bring God’s Holy Box here now?” So David would not move the Lord’s Holy Box into the City of David. David put the Holy Box at the house of Obed Edom from Gath. David carried the Holy Box off the road to the house of Obed Edom of Gath. The Lord’s Holy Box stayed in Obed Edom’s house for three months. The Lord blessed Obed Edom and all his family.

Later, people told David, “The Lord has blessed the family of Obed Edom and everything he owns, because God’s Holy Box is there.” So David went and brought God’s Holy Box from Obed Edom’s house. David was very happy and excited. When the men that carried the Lord’s Holy Box had walked six steps, they stopped and David sacrificed a bull and a fat calf. David was dancing in front of the Lord. David was wearing a linen ephod.

David and all the Israelites were excited—they shouted and blew the trumpet as they brought the Lord’s Holy Box into the city. Saul’s daughter Michal was looking out the window. While the Lord’s Holy Box was being carried into the city, David was jumping and dancing before the Lord. Michal saw this, and she was upset at David. She thought he was making a fool of himself.

David put up a tent for the Holy Box. The Israelites put the Lord’s Holy Box in its place under the tent. Then David offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings before the Lord.

After David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the fellowship offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord All-Powerful. David also gave a share of bread, a raisin cake and some date bread, to every man and woman of Israel. Then all the people went home.

Michal Scolds David

David went back to bless his house. But Saul’s daughter Michal came out to meet him. Michal said, “The king of Israel did not honor himself today! You took off your clothes in front of your servants’ girls. You were like a fool who takes off his clothes without shame!”

Then David said to Michal, “The Lord chose me, not your father or any person from his family. The Lord chose me to be leader of his people, the Israelites. So I will continue dancing and celebrating in front of the Lord. I might do things that are even more embarrassing! Maybe you won’t respect me, but the girls you are talking about are proud of me!”

Saul’s daughter Michal never had a child. She died without having any children.

David Wants to Build a Temple

After King David moved into his new house the Lord gave him peace from all of his enemies around him. King David said to Nathan the prophet, “Look, I am living in a fancy house made of cedar wood, but God’s Holy Box is still kept in a tent! We should build a nice building for the Holy Box.”

Nathan said to King David, “Do whatever you want to do. The Lord will be with you.”

But that night, the Lord’s word came to Nathan. The Lord said, “Go and tell my servant David, ‘This is what the Lord says: You are not the person to build a house for me to live in. I did not live in a house at the time I took the Israelites out of Egypt. No, I traveled around in a tent. I used the tent for my home. I never told any of the family groups of Israel to build me a fancy house made from cedar wood.’

You took off … girls David had on only a holy coat (ephod). We don’t know how much of his body was covered.
You must say this to my servant David: "This is what the Lord All-Powerful says: I chose you while you were out in the pasture following the sheep. I took you from that job and made you the leader of my people, the Israelites. I have been with you every place you went. I have defeated your enemies for you. I will make you one of the most famous people on earth. And I chose a place for my people, the Israelites—I gave them their own place to live. I did that so they will not have to move from place to place any more. In the past, I sent judges to lead my people of Israel. But evil people gave them many troubles. That will not happen now. I am giving you peace from all of your enemies. I promise that I will make your family a family of kings. When your life is finished, you will die and be buried with your ancestors. But then I will make one of your own children become the king. He will build a house (temple) for my name. And I will make his kingdom strong forever. When he sins, I will use other people to punish him. They will be my whips. But I will never stop loving him. I will continue to be loyal to him. I took away my love and kindness from Saul. But I will not do that to your family. Your family of kings will continue—you can depend on that! For you, your kingdom will continue forever! Your throne (kingdom) will stand forever!"

Nathan told David about that vision. He told David everything God had said.

David Prays to God

Then King David went in and sat in front of the Lord. David said, "Lord, my Master, why am I so important to you? Why is my family important? Why have you made me so important? I am nothing but a servant. And you have been so kind to me. But you have also said these kind things about my future family. Lord, my Master, you don’t always talk like this to people, do you? How can I continue talking to you? Lord, my Master, you know that I am only a servant. You will do all these wonderful things because you said you would do them and because you want to do them. And you decided to let me know about all these things. Lord, my Master, that is why you are so great! There is no one like you. There is no god except you! We know that because of what we ourselves have heard about the things you did.

And there is no nation on earth like your people, the people of Israel. They are a special people. They were slaves, but you took them out of Egypt and made them free. You made them your people. You did great and wonderful things for the Israelites. You did wonderful things for your land. You made the people of Israel your very own people forever. And Lord, you became their God.

"Now, Lord God, you promised to do things for me, your servant, and for my family. Now please do the things you promised—make my family a family of kings forever! Then your name will be honored forever. People will say, 'The Lord God All-Powerful rules Israel! And may the family of your servant David continue to be strong in serving you.'"

"You, Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, have shown things to me. You said, 'I will make your family great.' That is why I, your servant, decided to pray this prayer to you. Lord my Master, you are God. And I can trust the things you say. And you said that these good things will happen to me, your servant. Now, please, bless my family. Let them stand before you and serve you forever. Lord my Master, you yourself said these things. You yourself blessed my family with a blessing that will continue forever."

David Wins Many Wars

Later, David defeated the Philistines. The Philistine capital city had controlled a large area of land. David took control of that land. David also defeated the people of Moab. At that time he forced them to lie on the ground. Then he used a rope to separate them into rows. Two rows of men were killed, but the whole third row was allowed to live. In that way, the people of Moab became servants of David. They paid tribute* to him.

3Hadadezer son of Rehob was king of Zobah. David defeated Hadadezer when David went to take control* of the area near the Euphrates River. 4David took 1,700 horse soldiers and 20,000 foot soldiers from Hadadezer. David crippled all but 100 of the chariot horses.*

5Arameans from Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah. But David defeated those 22,000 Arameans. 6Then David put groups of soldiers in Damascus, Aram. The Arameans became David’s servants and brought tribute.* The Lord gave victory to David in every place he went.

7David took the gold shields that had belonged to Hadadezer’s servants. David took those shields and brought them to Jerusalem. 8David also took many, many things made of bronze from Tebah* and Berothai. (Tebah and Berothai were cities that had belonged to Hadadezer.)

9Toi king of Hamath heard that David had defeated Hadadezer’s whole army. 10So Toi sent his son Joram to King David. Joram greeted David and blessed him because David had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him. (Hadadezer had fought wars against Toi before.) Joram brought things made of silver, gold, and bronze. 11David took these things and dedicated* them to the Lord. He put them with the other things that he dedicated to the Lord. David had taken those things from the nations that he had defeated. 12David defeated Aram, Moab, Ammon, Philistia, and Amalek. David also defeated Hadadezer son of Rehob, king of Zobah. 13David defeated 18,000 Arameans in Salt Valley. He was famous when he came home. 14David put groups of soldiers in Edom. He put these groups of soldiers through all the land of Edom. All the people of Edom became servants of David. The Lord gave victory to David every place he went.

David’s Rule

15David ruled over all of Israel. And David made good and fair decisions for all of his people. 16Joab son of Zeruiah was the captain over the army. Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the historian. 17Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests. Seraiah was secretary. 18Benaiah son of Jehoiaada was in charge of the Kerethites and Pelethites.* And David’s sons were important leaders.*

David Is Kind to Saul’s Family

David asked, “Is there any person still left in Saul’s family? I want to show kindness to this person. I want to do it for Jonathan.”

There was a servant named Ziba from Saul’s family. David’s servants called Ziba to David. King David said to Ziba, “Are you Ziba?”

Ziba said, “Yes, I am your servant Ziba.” 3The king said, “Is there any person left in Saul’s family? I want to show God’s kindness to this person.”

Ziba said to King David, “Jonathan has a son still living. He is crippled in both feet.”

4The king said to Ziba, “Where is this son?”

Ziba said to the king, “He is at the house of Makir son of Ammiel in Lo Debar.”

5Then King David sent some of his officers to Lo Debar to bring Jonathan’s son from the house of Makir son of Ammiel. 6Jonathan’s son Mephibosheth came to David, and bowed with his face low to the floor.

tribute Money that a person gave to a king that defeated them.
take control Literally, “set up his marker.” Kings often set up stone markers to show they had won a war or conquered a certain place.
David crippled ... horses Or, “David destroyed all but 100 chariots.”
Tebah The Hebrew has, “Betah.” See 1 Chron. 18:8. dedicated To give for a special use.

Kerethites and Pelethites These were David’s special bodyguards. An ancient Aramaic translation has “the archers and stonethrowers.” This would mean these men were specially trained in using bows and arrows and slings.
important leaders Literally, “priests.”
David said, “Mephibosheth?”
Mephibosheth said, “Yes sir, it is I, your servant Mephibosheth.”

7David said to Mephibosheth, “Don’t be afraid. I will be kind to you. I will do this because of your father Jonathan. I will give back to you all of the land of your grandfather Saul. And you will always be able to eat at my table.”

8Mephibosheth bowed to David again. Mephibosheth said, “I am no better than a dead dog, but you are being very kind to me.”

9Then King David called Saul’s servant Ziba. David said to Ziba, “I have given Saul’s family and everything he owns to your master’s grandson (Mephibosheth).
10You will farm the land for Mephibosheth. Your sons and servants will do this for Mephibosheth. You will harvest the crops. Then your master’s grandson (Mephibosheth) will have plenty of food to eat. But Mephibosheth, your master’s grandson, will always be able to eat at my table.”

Ziba had 15 sons and 20 servants. 11Ziba said to King David, “I am your servant. I will do everything that my lord the king commands.”

So Mephibosheth ate at David’s table like one of the king’s sons. 12Mephibosheth had a young son named Mica. All the people in Ziba’s family became Mephibosheth’s servants. 13Mephibosheth was crippled in both feet. Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem. Every day Mephibosheth ate at the king’s table.

Hanun Shames David’s Men
Later [Nahash, king of the Ammonites died. His son Hanun became the new king after him. 2David said, “Nahash was kind to me. So I will be kind to his son Hanun.” So David sent his officers to comfort Hanun about his father’s death.

So David’s officers went to the land of the Ammonites. 3But the Ammonite leaders said to Hanun, their lord, “Do you think that David is trying to honor your father by sending some men to comfort you? No! David sent these men to secretly study and learn things about your city. They plan to make war against you.”

4So Hanun took David’s officers and shaved off one half of their beards. He cut their clothes in the middle down to their hips. Then he sent them away.

5When the people told David, he sent messengers to meet his officers. He did this because these men were very ashamed. King David said, “Wait at Jericho until your beards grow again. Then come back to Jerusalem.”

War Against the Ammonites
The Ammonites saw that they had become David’s enemies. So the Ammonites hired Arameans from Beth Rehob and Zobah. There were 20,000 Aramean foot soldiers. The Ammonites also hired the king of Maacah with 1,000 men and 12,000 men from Tob.

7David heard about this. So he sent Joab and the whole army of powerful men. 8The Ammonites came out and got ready for the battle. They stood at the city gate. The Arameans from Zobah and Rehob, and the men from Tob and Maacah did not stand together with the Ammonites in the field.

9Joab saw that there were enemies in front of him and behind him. So Joab chose some of the best Israelite soldiers and lined them up for battle against the Arameans. 10Then Joab gave the other men to his brother Abishai to lead against the Ammonites. 11Joab said to Abishai, “If the Arameans are too strong for me, you will help me. If the Ammonites are too strong for you, I will come and help you. 12Be strong, and let us fight bravely for our people and for the cities of our God. The Lord will do what he decides is right.”

13Then Joab and his men attacked the Arameans. The Arameans ran away from Joab and his men. 14The Ammonites saw that the Arameans were running away, so they ran away from Abishai and went back to their city.

So Joab came back from the battle with the Ammonites and went back to Jerusalem.

The Arameans Decide to Fight Again 15The Arameans saw that the Israelites had defeated them. So they came together into one big army. 16 Hadadezer* sent messengers to bring the Arameans that lived on the other side of the Euphrates River. These Arameans came to Helam. Their leader was Shobach, the captain of Hadadezer’s army.

17 David heard about this. So he gathered all of the Israelites together. They crossed over the Jordan River and went to Helam.

There the Arameans prepared for battle and attacked. 18 But David defeated the Arameans, and the Arameans ran away from the Israelites. David killed 700 chariot drivers and 40,000 horse soldiers. David also killed Shobach the captain of the Aramean army.

19 The kings that served Hadadezer* saw that the Israelites had defeated them. So they made peace with the Israelites and became their servants. The Arameans were afraid to help the Ammonites again.

David Meets Bathsheba

11 In the spring, at the time when kings go out to war, David sent Joab, his officers, and all of the Israelites out to destroy the Ammonites. Joab’s army also attacked their capital city, Rabbah.

But David stayed in Jerusalem. 2 In the evening, he got up from his bed. He walked around on the roof of the king’s house. While David was on the roof, he saw a woman bathing. The woman was very beautiful. 3 So David sent for his officers and asked them who the woman was. An officer answered, “That woman is Bathsheba daughter of Eliam. She is the wife of Uriah the Hittite.”

4 David sent messengers to go and bring Bathsheba to him. When she came to David, he had sexual relations with her. She washed herself, and then went back to her house. 5 But Bathsheba became pregnant. She sent word to David. She told him, “I am pregnant.”

David Tries to Hide His Sin

6 David sent a message to Joab. “Send Uriah the Hittite to me.”

So Joab sent Uriah to David. 7 Uriah came to David. David talked with Uriah. David asked Uriah how Joab was, how the soldiers were, and how the war was. 8 Then David said to Uriah, “Go home and rest.” Uriah left the king’s house. The king also sent a gift to Uriah. 9 But Uriah did not go home. Uriah slept outside the door of the king’s house. He slept there like all the king’s servants did. 10 The servants told David, “Uriah did not go home.”

Then David said to Uriah, “You came from a long trip. Why did you not go home?”

11 Uriah said to David, “The Holy Box* and the soldiers of Israel and Judah are staying in tents. My lord Joab, and my lord’s (King David’s) officers are camping out in the field. So it is not right for me to go home to drink, and sleep with my wife.”

12 David said to Uriah, “Stay here today. Tomorrow I will send you back to the battle.” Uriah stayed in Jerusalem that day. He stayed until the next morning. 13 Then David called Uriah to come and see him. Uriah ate and drank with David. David made Uriah drunk. But Uriah still did not go home. That evening, Uriah went to sleep with the king’s servants outside the king’s door.

David Plans Uriah’s Death

14 The next morning, David wrote a letter to Joab. David made Uriah carry the letter. 15 In the letter, David wrote: “Put Uriah on the front lines where the fighting is the hardest. Then leave him there alone, and let him be killed in battle.”

16 Joab watched the city and saw where the bravest Ammonites were. He chose Uriah to go to that place. 17 The men of the city (Rabbah) came out to fight against Joab. Some of David’s men were killed. Uriah the Hittite was one of those men.

18 Then Joab sent a report to David about what happened in the battle. 19 Joab told the messenger to tell King David what had happened in the battle. 20 Maybe the king will... become upset. Maybe the king will ask, ‘Why did Joab’s army go that close to the city to fight? Surely he knows that there are men on the city walls who can shoot arrows down at his men? Surely he remembers that a woman killed Abimelech son of Jerub-Besheth? It was at Thebez. The woman was on the city wall and threw the top part of a grinding stone down on Abimelech. So why did he go that close to the wall?’ If King David says something like that, then you must tell him this message: ‘Your officer Uriah the Hittite also died.’"

22The messenger went in and told David everything Joab told him to say. 23The messenger told David, “The men of Ammon attacked us in the field. We fought them and chased them all the way to the city gate. Then the men on the city wall shot arrows at your officers. Some of your officers were killed. Your officer Uriah the Hittite also died.”

25David said to the messenger, “Give this message to Joab: ‘Don’t be too upset about this. A sword can kill one person as well as the next. Make a stronger attack against Rabbah and you will win.’ Encourage Joab with these words.”

David Marries Bathsheba

26Bathsheba heard that her husband Uriah was dead. Then she cried for her husband. 27After she had finished her time of sadness, David sent servants to take her to his house. She became David’s wife and gave birth to a son for David. But the Lord did not like the bad thing David had done.

Nathan Speaks to David

12The Lord sent Nathan to David. Nathan went to David. Nathan said, “There were two men in a city. One man was rich. But the other man was poor. 2The rich man had very many sheep and cattle. 3But the poor man had nothing, except one little female lamb that he bought. The poor man fed the lamb. The lamb grew up with this poor man and his children. The lamb ate from the poor man’s food and drank from the poor man’s cup. The lamb slept on the poor man’s chest. The lamb was like a daughter to the poor man.

4“Then a traveler stopped to visit the rich man. The rich man wanted to give food to the traveler. But the rich man did not want to take anything from his own sheep or cattle to feed the traveler. No, the rich man took the lamb from the poor man. The rich man killed the lamb and cooked it for his visitor.”

5David became very angry against the rich man. He said to Nathan, “As the Lord lives, surely the man who did this should die! He must pay four times the price of the lamb because he did this terrible thing and because he had no mercy.”

Nathan Tells David About His Sin

7Then Nathan said to David, “You are that rich man! This is what the Lord God of Israel says: ‘I chose you to be the king of Israel. I saved you from Saul. 8I let you take his family and his wives. And I made you king of Israel and Judah. As if that were not enough, I gave you more and more. 9So why did you ignore the Lord’s command? Why did you do the thing which he says is wrong? You let the Ammonites kill Uriah the Hittite, and you took his wife. In this way, you killed Uriah with a sword.

10So the sword will never leave your family. You took Uriah the Hittite’s wife. In this way, you showed that you did not care for me.’

11“This is what the Lord says: ‘I am bringing trouble against you. This trouble will come from your own family. I will take your wives from you and give them to a person who is very close to you. This person will sleep with your wives, and everyone will know it!* 12You slept with Bathsheba in secret. But I will punish you so all the people of Israel can see it.’”*

13Then David said to Nathan, “I have sinned against the Lord.”

chose Literally, “anointed,” to pour a special oil on a person’s head to show that he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

and everyone will know it Literally, “in the sight of the sun.”

so all ... can see it Literally, “before all of Israel and before the sun.”
Nathan said to David, “The Lord will forgive you, even for this sin. You will not die. But you did things that made the Lord’s enemies lose their respect for him! So your new baby son will die.”

David and Bathsheba’s Baby Dies
15Then Nathan went home. And the Lord caused the baby boy that was born to David and Uriah’s wife to become very sick. 16David prayed to God for the baby. David refused to eat or drink. He went into his house and stayed there. He lay on the ground all night.

17The leaders of David’s family came and tried to pull David up from the ground. But David refused to get up. He refused to eat food with these leaders. 18On the seventh day, the baby died. David’s servants were afraid to tell him that the baby was dead. They said, “Look, we tried to talk to David while the baby was alive. But he refused to listen to us. If we tell David that the baby is dead, maybe he will do something bad to himself.”

19But David saw his servants whispering. Then David understood that the baby was dead. So David asked his servants, “Is the baby dead?”

The servants answered, “Yes, he is dead.”

20Then David got up from the floor. He washed himself. He changed his clothes and got dressed. Then he went into the Lord’s house to worship. Then he went home and asked for something to eat. His servants gave him some food, and he ate.

21David’s servants said to him, “Why are you doing this thing? When the baby was still living you refused to eat. You cried. But when the baby died you got up and ate food.”

22David said, “While the baby was still living, I refused to eat and I cried because I thought, ‘Who knows? Maybe the Lord will feel sorry for me and let the baby live.’ But now the baby is dead. So why should I refuse to eat? Can I bring the baby back to life? No! Some day I will go to him, but he can’t come back to me.”

Solomon Is Born
24Then David comforted Bathsheba his wife. He slept with her and had sexual relations with her. Bathsheba became pregnant again. She had another son. David named the boy Solomon. The Lord loved Solomon. 25The Lord sent word through Nathan the prophet. Nathan gave Solomon the name, Jedidiah.* Nathan did this for the Lord.

David Captures Rabbah
26Rabbah was the capital city of the Ammonites. Joab fought against Rabbah and captured it. 27Joab sent messengers to David and said, “I have fought against Rabbah. I have captured the City of Waters. 28Now bring the other people together and attack this city (Rabbah). Capture this city before I capture it. If I capture this city, it will be called by my name.”

29So David gathered all of the people and went to Rabbah. He fought against Rabbah and captured the city. 30David took the crown off their king’s head.* The crown was gold and weighed about 75 pounds.* This crown had precious stones in it. They put the crown on David’s head. David took many valuable things out of the city.

31David also brought out the people of the city Rabbah and made them work with saws, iron picks, and axes. He also forced them to build things with bricks. David did the same thing to all of the Ammonite cities. Then David and all of his army went back to Jerusalem.

Amnon And Tamar
13David had a son named Absalom. Absalom’s sister was named Tamar. Tamar was very beautiful. Another one of David’s sons, Amnon,* was in love with Tamar. Tamar was a virgin.* Amnon did not Jedidiah This name means “loved by the Lord.”

their king’s head Or, “Milcom’s head.” Milcom was a false god that the Ammonite people worshiped.
75 pounds Literally, “one talent.”
Amnon Amnon was half-brother to Absalom and Tamar. They all had David as their father, but Amnon had a different mother. See 2 Sam. 3:2-3.
virgin A woman who has not had sexual relations with anyone.
think he should do anything bad to her. But Amnon wanted her very much. Amnon thought about her so much that he made himself sick.*

3Amnon had a friend named Jonadab son of Shimeah. (Shimeah was David’s brother.) Jonadab was a very clever man. 4Jonadab said to Amnon, “Every day you look thinner and thinner! You are the king’s son! Ḥave you plenty to eat, so why are you losing weight? Tell me!”

Amnon told Jonadab, “I love Tamar. But she is the sister of my half-brother Absalom.” 5Jonadab said to Amnon, “Go to bed. Act like you are sick. Then your father will come to see you. Tell him, ‘Please let my sister Tamar come in and give me food to eat. Let her make the food in front of me. Then I will see it, and eat it from her hand.’”

6So Amnon lay down in bed and acted like he was sick. King David came in to see Amnon. Amnon said to King David, “Please let my sister Tamar come in. Let her make two cakes for me while I watch. Then I can eat from her hands.”

7David sent messengers to Tamar’s house. The messengers told Tamar, “Go to your brother Amnon’s house and make some food for him.”

So Tamar went to the house of her brother Amnon. Amnon was in bed. Tamar took some dough, pressed it together with her hands, and cooked the cakes. She did this while Amnon watched. 9Then Tamar took the cakes out of the pan and set them out for Amnon. But Amnon refused to eat. Amnon said to his servants, “Get out of here. Leave me alone!”

7David sent messengers to Tamar’s house. The messengers told Tamar, “Go to your brother Amnon’s house and make some food for him.”

Tamar Makes Food for Amnon

8So Tamar went to the house of her brother Amnon. Amnon was in bed. Tamar took some dough, pressed it together with her hands, and cooked the cakes. She did this while Amnon watched. 9Then Tamar took the cakes out of the pan and set them out for Amnon. But Amnon refused to eat. Amnon said to his servants, “Get out of here. Leave me alone!” So all of his servants left the room.

Ammon Rapes Tamar

10Then Amnon said to Tamar, “Bring the food into the bedroom and feed me by hand.” So Tamar took the cakes she had made and went into her brother’s bedroom. 11She started to feed Amnon, but he grabbed her hand. He said to her, “Sister, come and sleep with me.”

12Tamar said to Amnon, “No, brother! Don’t force me to do this! Don’t do this shameful thing! Terrible things like this should never be done in Israel! 13I would never get rid of my shame. And people would think that you are just a common criminal. Please, talk with the king. He will let you marry me.”

14But Amnon refused to listen to Tamar. He was stronger than Tamar. He forced her to have sexual relations with him. 15Then Amnon began to hate Tamar. Amnon hated her much more than he had loved her before. Amnon said to Tamar, “Get up and get out of here!”

16Tamar said to Amnon, “No! Don’t send me away like this. That would be even worse than what you did before!”

But Amnon refused to listen to Tamar. 17Amnon called his servant and said, “Get this girl out of this room, now! And lock the door after her.”

18So Amnon’s servant led Tamar out of the room and locked the door after her.

Tamar was wearing a long robe with many colors.* The king’s virgin daughters wore robes like this. 19Tamar tore her robe of many colors and put ashes on her head. Then she put her hand on her head and began crying.*

20Then, Tamar’s brother Absalom said to her, “Have you been with your brother Amnon? Did he hurt you? Now, calm down sister. Amnon is your brother, so we will take care of this. Don’t let it upset you too much.” So Tamar did not say anything. She quietly went to live at Absalom’s house.*

21King David heard the news and became very angry. 22Absalom began to hate Amnon. Absalom did not say one word, good or bad, to Amnon. Absalom hated Amnon because Amnon had raped his sister Tamar.

many colors Or, “stripes.”
Tamar tore ... crying This was the way people showed how very sad and upset they were.
Tamar ... Absalom’s house Or, “Tamar lived in her brother Absalom’s house, a ruined woman.”
Absalom’s Revenge

Two years later, Absalom had some men come to Baal Hazor to cut the wool from his sheep. Absalom invited all of the king’s sons to come and watch. Absalom went to the king and said, “I have some men coming to cut the wool from my sheep. Please come with your servants and watch.”

King David said to Absalom, “No, son. We will not all go. It will be too much trouble for you.”

Absalom begged David to go. David did not go, but he did give his blessing.

Absalom said, “If you don’t want to go, then please let my brother Amnon go with me.”

King David asked Absalom, “Why should he go with you?”

Absalom kept begging David. Finally, David let Amnon and all of the king’s other sons go with Absalom.

Amnon Is Murdered

Then Absalom gave this command to his servants, “Watch Amnon. When he is drunk and feeling good from the wine, I will give you the command. You must attack Amnon and kill him. Don’t be afraid of being punished. After all, you will only be obeying my command. Now, be strong and brave.”

So Absalom’s young soldiers did what he said. They killed Amnon. But all of David’s other sons escaped. Each son got on his mule and escaped.

David Hears About Amnon’s Death

The king’s sons were still on their way into town. But King David got a message about what happened. But the message was, “Absalom has killed all of the king’s sons! Not one of the sons was left alive.”

King David tore his clothes and lay on the ground. All of David’s officers standing near him also tore their clothes.

But then David’s brother, Jonadab son of Shimeah, said, “Don’t think that all of the king’s sons were killed! Only Amnon is dead. Absalom has been planning this from the day that Amnon raped his sister Tamar. My lord and king, don’t think that all of your sons are dead. Only Amnon is dead.”

Absalom ran away.

There was a guard standing on the city wall. He saw many people coming from the other side of the hill. So Jonadab said to King David, “Look, I was right! The king’s sons are coming.”

The king’s sons came in just after Jonadab said that. They were crying loudly. David and all of his officers began crying. They all cried very hard.

Absalom Escapes to Geshur

Absalom ran away to Talmai son of Ammihud, king of Geshur.

After Absalom had run away to Geshur, he stayed there for three years. King David was comforted after Amnon died, but he missed Absalom very much.

Joab Sends a Wise Woman to David

Joab son of Zeruiah knew that King David missed Absalom very much. So Joab sent messengers to Tekoa to bring a wise woman from there. Joab said to this wise woman, “Please pretend to be very sad. Put on clothes of sadness. Act like a woman who has been crying many days for someone that died. Go to the king and talk to him using these words that I tell you.” Then Joab told the wise woman what to say.

Then the woman from Tekoa talked to the king. She bowed with her face to the ground. Then she said, “King, please help me!”

King David said to her, “What’s your problem?”

The woman said, “I am a widow. My husband is dead. I had two sons. They were out in the field fighting. There was no one to stop them. One son killed the other son. Now the whole family is against me. They said to...”

Talmai ... king of Geshur Talmai was Absalom’s grandfather. See 2 Sam. 3:3.
me, ‘Bring us the son who killed his brother and we will kill him. Why? Because he killed his brother.’ My son is like the last spark of a fire. If they kill my son, then that fire will burn out and be finished. He is the only son left alive to get his father’s property. So my dead husband’s property will go to someone else and his name will be removed from the land.”

8Then the king said to the woman, “Go home. I will take care of things for you.”

9The woman of Tekoa said to the king, “Let the blame be on me, my lord and king! You and your kingdom are innocent.”

10King David said, “If someone is saying bad things to you, then bring that person to me. He won’t bother you again.”

11The woman said, “Please, use the name of the Lord your God and swear (promise) that you will stop those people. They want to punish my son for murdering his brother. Swear that you won’t let them destroy my son.”

David said, “As the Lord lives, no one will hurt your son. Not even one hair from your son’s head will fall to the ground.”

12The woman said, “My lord and king, please let me say something else to you.”

The king said, “Speak.”

13Then the woman said, “Why have you planned these things against the people of God? Yes, when you say these things, you show you are guilty. Why? Because you have not brought back the son that you forced to leave home. 14We will all die some day. We will be like water that is spilled on the ground. No person can gather this water back from the ground. You know God forgives people. God made plans for people who are forced to run away for safety—God doesn’t force them to run away from him! 15My lord and king, I came to say these words to you. Why? Because the people made me afraid. I said to myself, ‘I will talk to the king. Maybe the king will help me. 16The king will listen to me and save me from the man who wants to kill me and my son. That man just wants to keep us from getting the things God gave us.’ 17I know that the words of my lord the king will give me rest, because you are like an angel from God. You know what is good and what is bad. And the Lord your God is with you.”

18King David answered the woman, “You must answer the question I will ask you.”

The woman said, “My lord and king, please ask your question.”

19The king said, “Did Joab tell you to say all these things?”

The woman answered, “As you live, my lord and king, you are right! Your officer Joab did tell me to say these things. Joab did these things so that you would see things differently. My lord, you are as wise as God’s angel. You know everything that happens on earth.”

Absalom Returns to Jerusalem

21The king said to Joab, “Look, I will do what I promised. Now please bring back the young man Absalom.”

22Joab bowed with his face on the ground. He blessed King David, and said, “Today I know that you are pleased with me. I know because you have done what I asked.”

23Then Joab got up and went to Geshur and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. 24But King David said, “Absalom can go back to his own house. He can’t come to see me.” So Absalom went back to his own house. Absalom could not go to see the king.

25People really bragged about how good-looking Absalom was. No man in Israel was as handsome as Absalom. There was not a blemish on Absalom—from his head to his feet. 26At the end of every year, Absalom cut the hair from his head and weighed it. The hair weighed about five pounds. 27Absalom had three sons and one daughter. This daughter’s name was Tamar. Tamar was a beautiful woman.

Absalom Forces Joab to Come See Him

28Absalom lived in Jerusalem for two full years without being allowed to visit King David. 29Absalom sent messengers to Joab. These messengers asked Joab to send Absalom to the king. But Joab would not come to Absalom. Absalom sent a message a second time. But Joab still refused to come.
30Then Absalom said to his servants, “Look, Joab’s field is next to my field. He has barley growing in that field. Go burn the barley.”
31So Absalom’s servants went and started a fire in Joab’s field. 32Joab got up and came to Absalom’s house. Joab said to Absalom, “Why did your servants burn my field?”
33Absalom said to Joab, “I sent a message to you. I asked you to come here. I wanted to send you to the king. I wanted you to ask him why he asked me to come home from Geshur. ‘I can’t see him, so it would have been better for me to stay in Geshur. Now let me see the king. If I have sinned, then he can kill me!’”

Absalom Visits King David
34Then Joab came to the king and told him what Absalom said. The king called for Absalom. Absalom came to the king and bowed low on the ground before the king. The king kissed Absalom.

Absalom Makes Many Friends
15 After this, Absalom got a chariot* and horses for himself. He had 50 men run in front of him while he drove the chariot. 2Absalom got up early and stood near the gate. Absalom watched for any person with problems who was going to King David for judgment. Then Absalom would talk to that person. Absalom would say, “What city are you from?” The man would answer, “I am from such and such family group in Israel.” 3Then Absalom would say to this man, “Look, you are right, but King David won’t listen to you.”
4Absalom would also say, “Oh, I wish someone would make me a judge in this country! Then I could help every man who comes to me with a problem. I would help him get a fair solution to his problem.”

5And if a person came to Absalom and started to bow down to him, Absalom would treat him like a close friend Absalom would reach out and touch that person and kiss him. 6Absalom did that to all the Israelites who came to King David for judgment. In this way, Absalom won the hearts of all the people of Israel.

Absalom Plans to Take David’s Kingdom
7After four years,* Absalom said to King David, “Please let me go to complete my special promise that I made to the Lord at Hebron. I made that promise while I was still living in Geshur, Aram. I said, ‘If the Lord brings me back to Jerusalem, then I will serve the Lord.’”
8King David said, “Go in peace.” Absalom went to Hebron. 10But Absalom sent spies through all the family groups of Israel. These spies told the people, “When you hear the trumpet, then say, ‘Absalom has become the king at Hebron!’” 11Absalom invited 200 men to go with him. Those men left Jerusalem with him, but they did not know what he was planning. 12Ahithophel was one of David’s advisers. Ahithophel was from the town of Giloh. While Absalom was offering sacrifices,* he called Ahithophel to come from his city (Giloh). Absalom’s plans were working very well and more and more people began to support him.

David Learns About Absalom’s Plans
13A man came in to tell the news to David. The man said, “The people of Israel are beginning to follow Absalom.” 14Then David said to all of his officers who were with him in Jerusalem, “We must escape! If we don’t escape, then Absalom will not let us get away. Let’s hurry before Absalom catches us. He will destroy us all. And he will kill the people of Jerusalem.” 15The king’s officers told him, “We will do anything you tell us.”

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.
gate This was where people came to do all of their business. This was also where many court cases were held.
four years Some ancient writings say “40 years.”
sacrifices(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
David and His People Escape

16King David went out with all of the people in his house. The king left ten of his wives* to take care of the house. 17The king went out with all of his people following him. They stopped at the last house. 18All of his officers passed by the king. And all of the Kerethites, all of the Pelethites, and the Gittites (600 men from Gath) passed by the king.

19The king said to Ittai from Gath, "Why are you also going with us? Turn back and stay with the new king (Absalom). You are a foreigner. This is not your homeland. 20Only yesterday you came to join me. Must you now wander from place to place with me? No! Take your brothers and go back. May kindness and loyalty be shown to you."

21But Ittai answered the king, "As the Lord lives, and as long as you live, I will stay with you. I will be with you in life or death!"

22David said to Ittai, "Come, let’s go cross Kidron Brook."

So Ittai from Gath and all of his people and their children crossed over Kidron Brook. 23All the people* were crying loudly. King David crossed over Kidron Brook. Then all of the people went out to the desert. 24Zadok and all of the Levites with him were carrying the Box of God’s Agreement.* They set down God’s Holy Box. And Abiathar said prayers* until all of the people had left Jerusalem.

25King David said to Zadok, "Take God’s Holy Box* back to Jerusalem. If the Lord is pleased with me, then he will bring me back and let me see Jerusalem and his temple. 26But if the Lord says that he is not pleased with me, then he can do anything he wants to me."

27The king said to Zadok the priest, “You are a seer.* Go back to the city in peace. Take your son Ahimaaz and Jonathan the son of Abiathar. 28I will be waiting near the places where people go across the river into the desert. I will wait there until I hear from you.”

29So Zadok and Abiathar took God’s Holy Box* back to Jerusalem and stayed there.

David’s Prayer Against Ahithophel

30David went up the Mount of Olives. He was crying. He covered his head and he went without shoes on his feet. All of the people with David also covered their heads. They went with David, crying.

31A person told David, “Ahithophel is one of the people who made plans with Absalom.” Then David prayed, "Lord, I ask you to make Ahithophel’s advice useless." 32David came to the top of the mountain. This was where he often worshiped God. At that time, Hushai the Arkite came to him. Hushai’s coat was torn, and there was dust on his head.*

33David said to Hushai, "If you go with me, then you will be just one more person to care for. 34But if you go back to Jerusalem, you can make Ahithophel’s advice become useless. Tell Absalom, ‘King, I am your servant. I served your father, but now I will serve you.’ 35The priests Zadok and Abiathar will be with you. You must tell them everything you hear in the king’s house. 36Zadok’s son Ahimaaz and Abiathar’s son Jonathan will be with them. You will send them to tell me everything you hear."

37Then David’s friend Hushai went into the city. And Absalom arrived at Jerusalem.

Ziba Meets David

16David went a short way over the top of the Mount of Olives and met Ziba, the servant of Mephibosheth. Ziba had two donkeys with saddles on them. The donkeys also carried 200 loaves of bread, 100 bunches of raisins, 100 summer fruits, and a wineskin wives  Literally, “concubines,” women servants that were like wives.

people  Literally, “country.”
Box of God’s Agreement, God’s Holy Box Also called “The Ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.
said prayers  Literally, “went up.” This could mean, “burn incense,” “offer sacrifices,” or it might simply mean that Abiathar stood to one side, by the Holy Box, until all of the people passed by.

seer  Another name for a prophet.
cloak was torn … head  This showed he was very sad.
full of wine. 2 King David said to Ziba, “What are these things for?”

Ziba answered, “The donkeys are for the king’s family to ride on. The bread and the summer fruit are for the servants to eat. And the wine is refreshment for whoever begins to feel weak in the desert.”

3 Then the king asked, “And where is Mephibosheth?”

Ziba answered the king, “Mephibosheth is staying in Jerusalem. He thinks, ‘Today the Israelites will give my grandfather’s kingdom back to me.’”

4 Then the king said to Ziba, “Because of that, I now give you everything that belonged to Mephibosheth.”

Ziba said, “I bow to you. I hope I will always be able to please you.”

Shimei Curses David

5 David came to Bahurim. A man from Saul’s family came out from Bahurim. This man’s name was Shimei son of Gera. Shimei came out saying bad things to David. And he kept saying bad things again and again.

6 Shimei began throwing stones at David and his officers. But the people and the soldiers gathered around David—they were all around him. 7 Shimei cursed David. He said, “Get out, get out, you no-good murderer!* 8 The Lord is punishing you. Why? Because you killed people in Saul’s family. You stole Saul’s place as king. But now the same bad things are happening to you. The Lord has given the kingdom to your son Absalom. Why? Because you are a murderer.”*

9 Abishai son of Zeruiah said to the king, “Why should this dead dog curse you, my lord the king? Let me go over and cut off Shimei’s head.”

10 But the king answered, “What can I do, sons of Zeruiah? Sure, Shimei is cursing me. But the Lord told him to curse me.”

11 David also said to Abishai and all his servants, “Look, my very own son (Absalom) is trying to kill me. This man (Shimei) from the family group of Benjamin has more right to kill me. Let him alone. Let him keep on saying bad things to me. The Lord told him to do this. 12 Maybe the Lord will see the wrong things that are happening to me. Then maybe the Lord will give me something good for every bad thing that Shimei says today.”

13 So David and his men went on down the road. But Shimei kept following David. Shimei walked on the other side of the road by the side of the hill. Shimei kept saying bad things to David on his way. Shimei also threw stones and dirt at David.

14 King David and all his people came to the Jordan River. The king and his people were tired. So they rested and refreshed themselves there.

15 Absalom, Ahithophel, and all the people of Israel came to Jerusalem. 16 David’s friend, Hushai the Arkite, came to Absalom. Hushai said to Absalom, “Long live the king! Long live the king!”

17 Absalom answered, “Why are you not loyal to your friend David? Why did you not leave Jerusalem with your friend?”

18 Hushai said, “I belong to the person that the Lord chooses. These people and the people of Israel chose you. I will stay with you. 19 In the past, I served your father. So, now I should serve David’s son. I will serve you.”

Absalom Asks Ahithophel for Advice

20 Absalom said to Ahithophel, “Please tell us what we should do.”

21 Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Your father left some of his wives* here to take care of the house. Go and have sexual relations with them. Then all the Israelites will hear that your father hates you. And all of your people will be encouraged to give you more support.”

22 Then they put up a tent for Absalom on the roof of the house.* And Absalom had sexual relations with his father’s wives.* All wives Literally, “concubines,” women servants that were like wives.

roof of the house The houses had flat roofs which were often used as an extra room.
the Israelites saw it. 23At that time, the advice of Ahithophel was very important to both David and Absalom. It was as important as God’s word to a man.

Ahithophel’s Advice About David

17 Ahithophel also said to Absalom, “Let me now choose 12,000 men. Then I will chase David tonight. I will catch him while he is tired and weak. I will scare him. And all his people will run away. But I will kill only King David. Then I will bring all the people back to you. If David is dead, then all the people will come back in peace.”

4This plan seemed good to Absalom and all the leaders of Israel. 5But Absalom said, “Now call Hushai the Arkite. I also want to hear what he says.”

Hushai Ruins Ahithophel’s Advice

6Hushai came to Absalom. Absalom said to Hushai, “This is the plan Ahithophel gave.
Should we follow it? If not, tell us.”

7Hushai said to Absalom, “Ahithophel’s advice is not good this time.” 8Hushai added, “You know that your father and his men are strong men. They are as dangerous as a wild bear when something has taken its babies.
Your father is a skilled fighter. He will not stay all night with the people. 9He is probably already hiding in a cave or some other place. If your father attacks your men first, then people will hear the news. And they will think, ‘Absalom’s followers are losing!’
10Then even the people who are as brave as a lion will become scared. Why? Because all the Israelites know that your father is a strong fighter and that his men are brave.

11“This is what I suggest: You must gather all the Israelites together from Dan to Beersheba. Then there will be many people, like the sand by the sea. Then you yourself must go into the battle. We will catch David in the place where he is hiding. We will attack David with many soldiers—We will be like the many drops of dew that cover the ground. We will kill David and all of his men. No man will be left alive. 13But if David escapes into a city, then all the Israelites will bring ropes to that city. We will pull down the walls of that city.
We will pull them down into the valley. There won’t be even a small stone left in that city.”

14Absalom and all the Israelites said, “The advice of Hushai the Arkite is better than Ahithophel’s advice.” (They said this) because it was the Lord’s plan. The Lord had planned to make Ahithophel’s good advice useless.
That is how the Lord would punish Absalom.

Hushai Sends a Warning to David

15Hushai told those things to the priests, Zadok and Abiathar. Hushai told them about the things that Ahithophel suggested to Absalom and the leaders of Israel. Hushai also told Zadok and Abiathar about the things that he himself had suggested. (Hushai said), 16“Quickly! Send a message to David. Tell him not to stay tonight at the places where people cross into the desert. Tell him to go across the Jordan River at once. If he crosses the river, then the king and all his people will not be caught.”

17The priests’ sons, Jonathan and Ahimaaz, waited at En Rogel. They did not want to be seen going into the town, so a servant girl came out to them. She gave them the message. Then Jonathan and Ahimaaz went and told those things to King David.

18But a boy saw Jonathan and Ahimaaz.
The boy ran to tell Absalom. Jonathan and Ahimaaz ran away quickly. They arrived at a man’s house in Bahurim. The man had a well in his courtyard. The well looked like a pile of grain, so no person could know that Jonathan and Ahimaaz were hiding there. 20Absalom’s servants came to the woman at the house. They asked, “Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?”
The woman said to Absalom’s servants, “They have already crossed over the brook.”

Absalom’s servants then went to look for Jonathan and Ahimaaz. But they could not find them. So Absalom’s servants went back to Jerusalem.

21After Absalom’s servants left, Jonathan and Ahimaaz came up out of the well. They went and told King David. They said to David, “Hurry, go across the river. Ahithophel is planning to do these things against you.”

22Then David and all his people crossed over the Jordan River. Before the sun came up, all of David’s people had already crossed the Jordan River.

Ahithophel Kills Himself

23Ahithophel saw that the Israelites did not accept his advice. Ahithophel put a saddle on his donkey and went back to his home town. He made plans for his family and then he hanged himself. After Ahithophel died, the people buried him in his father’s tomb.*

Absalom Crosses the Jordan River

24David arrived at Mahanaim. Absalom and the Israelites that were with him went across the Jordan River. 25Absalom had made Amasa the new captain of the army. Amasa took Joab’s place,* Amasa was the son of Ithra the Ishmaelite,* Amasa’s mother was Abigail, the daughter of Nahash sister of Zeruiah.* (Zeruiah was Joab’s mother.)

26Absalom and the Israelites made their camp in the land of Gilead.

Shobi, Makir, and Barzillai

27David arrived at Mahanaim. Shobi, Makir, and Barzillai were at that place. (Shobi son of Nahash was from the Ammonite town of Rabbah. Makir son of Ammiel was from Lo Debar. Barzillai was from Rogelim in Gilead.) 28–29 Those three men said, “The people in the desert are tired, hungry and thirsty.” So they brought many things to David and the people that were with him. They brought them beds, bowls, and other kinds of dishes. They also brought wheat, barley, flour, roasted grain, beans, lentils, dried seeds, honey, butter, sheep, and cheese made from cow’s milk.

David Gets the Battle Ready

18David counted his people. He chose captains over 1,000 and captains over 100 to lead these people. 2David separated the people into three groups. And then David sent the people out. Joab led one third of the people. Joab’s brother, Abishai son of Zeruiah led another third of the people. And Ittai from Gath led the last third of the people.

King David said to the people, “I will also go with you.”

3But the people said, “No! You must not go with us. Why? Because if we run away in the battle, Absalom’s men will not care. Even if half of us are killed, Absalom’s men will not care. But you are worth 10,000 of us! It is better for you to stay in the city. Then, if we need help, you can help us.”

4The king said to his people, “I will do what you think is best.”

Then the king stood at the side of the gate. The army went out. They went out in groups of 100 and 1,000.

“Be Gentle With Young Absalom!”

5The king gave a command to Joab, Abishai, and Ittai. He said, “Do this for me: Be gentle with young Absalom!”

All the people heard the king’s orders about Absalom to the captains.

David’s Army Defeats Absalom’s Army

6David’s army went out into the field against Absalom’s Israelites. They fought in the forest of Ephraim. 7David’s army defeated the Israelites. There were 20,000 men killed that day. 8The battle spread through all the country. But that day more men died in the forest than by the sword.

9It happened that Absalom met David’s officers. Absalom jumped on his mule and tried to escape. The mule went under the branches of a large oak tree. The branches were thick, and Absalom’s head got caught in the tree. His mule ran out from under him, so Absalom was hanging above the ground.*

10A man saw this happen. He told Joab, “I saw Absalom hanging in an oak tree.”

11Joab said to the man, “Why did you not kill him and let him fall to the ground? I would have given you a belt and ten pieces of silver!”

12The man said to Joab, “I would not try to hurt the king’s son even if you gave me 1,000 pieces of silver. Why? Because we heard the king’s command to you, Abishai, and Ittai. The king said, ‘Be careful not to hurt young Absalom.’ 13If I had killed Absalom, the king himself would find out. And you would punish me.”

14Joab said, “I will not waste my time here with you!”

Absalom was still alive and hanging in the oak tree. Joab took three spears and threw them at Absalom. The spears went through Absalom’s heart. 15Joab had ten young soldiers who helped him in battle. These ten men gathered around Absalom and killed him.

16Joab blew the trumpet and called the people to stop chasing Absalom’s Israelites. 17Then Joab’s men took Absalom’s body and threw it into a large hole in the forest. They filled the large hole with many stones.

All the Israelites that followed Absalom ran away and went home.

18While Absalom was alive he put up a pillar in King’s Valley. Absalom said, “I have no son to keep my name alive.” So he named the pillar after himself. That pillar is called “Absalom’s Monument” even today.

Joab Sends the News to David

19Ahimaaz son of Zadok said to Joab, “Let me now run and bring the news to King David. I’ll tell him the Lord has destroyed the enemy for him.”

20Joab answered Ahimaaz, “No, you will not bring the news to David today. You can bring the news another time, but not today. Why? Because the king’s son is dead.”

21Then Joab said to a man from Ethiopia, “Go, tell the king about the things you have seen.”

So the Ethiopian bowed to Joab and ran to tell David.

22But Ahimaaz son of Zadok begged Joab again, “No matter what happens, please let me also run after the Ethiopian!”

Joab said, “Son, why do you want to carry the news? You will not get any reward for the news you bring.”

23Ahimaaz answered, “No matter what happens, I will run to David.”

24Ahimaaz ran through Jordan Valley and passed the Ethiopian.

David Hears the News

24David was sitting between the two gates of the city. The watchman went up to the roof over the gate walls. The watchman looked up and saw a man running alone. 25The watchman shouted to tell King David.

King David said, “If the man is alone, he is bringing news.”

The man came closer and closer to the city. 26The watchman saw another man running. The watchman called to the gatekeeper, “Look! Another man is running alone.”

The king said, “He is also bringing news.”

27The watchman said, “I think the first man runs like Ahimaaz son of Zadok.”

The king said, “Ahimaaz is a good man. He must be bringing good news.”

28Ahimaaz called to the king, “All is fine!” Ahimaaz bowed with his face to the ground in front of the king. Ahimaaz said, “Praise the Lord your God! The Lord has defeated the men who were against you, my lord and king.”

29The king asked, “Is young Absalom all right?”

* above the ground Literally, “between heaven and earth.”
Ahimaaz answered, “When Joab sent me, I saw some great excitement. But I don’t know what it was.”

30Then the king said, “Step over here and wait.” Ahimaaz went there and stood there waiting.

31The Ethiopian arrived. He said, “News for my lord and king. Today the Lord has punished the people who were against you!”

32The king asked the Ethiopian, “Is young Absalom all right?”

The Ethiopian answered, “I hope your enemies and all people who come against you to hurt you will be punished like this young man (Absalom).”

33Then the king knew Absalom was dead.

The king was very upset. He went up to the room over the gate and cried. He kept crying again and again as he walked to that room. He was saying, “O my son Absalom, my son, my son!”

Joab Scolds David

19People told the news to Joab. They told Joab, “Look, the king is crying and very sad for Absalom.”

2David’s army had won the battle that day. But the joy of victory had turned to sadness for all the people. It was a very sad day because the people heard, “The king is very sad for his son.”

3The people came into the city quietly. They were like people who had been defeated in battle and had run away. The king had covered his face. He was crying loudly, “O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son!”

5Joab came into the king’s house. Joab said to the king, “You are humiliating every one of your officers! Look, those officers saved your life today. And they saved the lives of your sons and daughters and your wives and women servants.* 6You love the people who hate you, and you hate the people who love you. Today you have made it clear that your officers and men mean nothing to you. I can see that you would be perfectly happy if Absalom had lived and all of us had been killed today! Now get up and go speak to your officers. Encourage them! I swear by the Lord that if you don’t go out and do that right now, you won’t have one man with you tonight. And that will be worse than all the trouble you have had since you were a child.”

8Then the king went to the city gate.* The news spread that the king was at the gate. So all the people came to see the king.

David Is King Again

All the Israelites that followed Absalom had run away and went home. All the people in all the family groups of Israel began to argue. They said, “King David saved us from the Philistines and our other enemies. David ran away from Absalom. So we chose Absalom to rule us. But now Absalom is dead. He was killed in battle. So we should make David the king again.”

11King David sent a message to Zadok and Abiathar the priests. David said, “Speak to the leaders of Judah. Say, ‘Why are you the last family group to bring King David back to his house? See, all the Israelites are talking about bringing the king back to his house. 12You are my brothers, you are my family. Then why are you the last family group to bring back the king?’”

14David touched the hearts of all the people of Judah, so that they agreed like one man. The people of Judah sent a message to the king. They said, “You and all your officers come back!”

15King David came to the Jordan River. The people of Judah came to Gilgal to meet the king and take him across the Jordan River.

Shimei Asks David to Forgive Him

16Shimei son of Gera was from the family group of Benjamin. He lived in Bahurim.
Shimei hurried down to meet King David. Shimei came with the people of Judah.

17 About 1,000 people from the family group of Benjamin came with Shimei. Ziba the servant from Saul’s family also came. Ziba brought his 15 sons and 20 servants with him. All these people hurried to the Jordan River to meet King David.

The people went across the Jordan River to help bring the king’s family back to Judah. The people did anything the king wanted. While the king was crossing the river, Shimei son of Gera came to meet him. Shimei bowed down on the ground in front of the king.

19 Shimei said to the king, “My lord, don’t think about the wrong things I did. My lord and king, don’t remember the bad things I did when you left Jerusalem. 20 You know that I sinned. That is why today I am the first person from Joseph’s family to come down and meet you, my lord and king.”

21 But Abishai son of Zeruiah said, “We must kill Shimei because he asked for bad things to happen to the Lord’s chosen king.”

22 David said, “What should I do with you, sons of Zeruiah? Today you are against me. No person will be put to death in Israel. Today I know I am king over Israel.”

23 Then the king said to Shimei, “You will not die.” The king made a promise to Shimei that he himself would not kill Shimei.

24 Mephibosheth, Saul’s grandson, came down to meet King David. From the time the king had left Jerusalem until he came back in peace, Mephibosheth had not cared for his feet, trimmed his mustache, or washed his clothes.

25 When Mephibosheth met the king at Jerusalem, the king said, “Mephibosheth, why didn’t you go with me when I ran away from Jerusalem?”

26 Mephibosheth answered, “My lord and king, my servant tricked me. I am crippled so I said to my servant, Ziba, ‘Go put a saddle on a donkey. Then I will ride on it and go with the king.’ 27 But my servant tricked me. He only went to you and said bad things about me. But my lord and king, you are like an angel from God. Do whatever you think is right. 28 You could have killed all my grandfather’s family. But you did not do this. You put me with the people who eat at your own table. So I don’t have a right to complain to the king about anything.”

29 The king said to Mephibosheth, “Don’t say anything more about your problems. This is what I decide: You and Ziba will divide the land.”

30 Mephibosheth said to the king, “My lord and king, it is enough that you have come home in peace. Let Ziba have the land!”

David Asks Barzillai to Come With Him

31 Barzillai of Gilead came down from Rogelim. He came to the Jordan River with King David. He went with the king to lead him across the river. 32 Barzillai was a very old man. He was 80 years old. He had given the king food and other things when David was staying at Mahanaim. Barzillai could do this because he was a very rich man. 33 David said to Barzillai, “Come across the river with me. I will take care of you if you will live in Jerusalem with me.”

34 But Barzillai said to the king, “Do you know how old I am? Do you think I can go with you to Jerusalem? 35 I am 80 years old! I am too old to tell which is bad and which is good. I am too old to taste the things I eat or drink. I am too old to hear any more the voices of men and women that sing. Why should you want to be bothered with me? 36 I don’t need any of the things that you want to give me. I will go across the Jordan River with you. 37 But please, let me go back home. Then I can die in my own town and be buried... in the grave of my father and mother. But here, Kimham can be your servant; let him go back with you, my lord and king. Do whatever you want with him.”

38 The king answered, “Kimham will go back with me. I will be kind to him for you. I will do anything for you.”

David Goes Back Home

39 The king kissed Barzillai and blessed him. Barzillai went back home. And the king and all the people went across the river.

40 The king crossed the Jordan River to Gilgal. Kimham went with him. All the people of Judah and half the people of Israel led David across the river.

Israelites Argue with the People of Judah

41 All the Israelites came to the king. They said to the king, “Our brothers, the people of Judah, stole you away and brought you and your family across the Jordan River with your men. Why?”

42 All the people of Judah answered the Israelites, “Because the king is our close relative. Why are you angry with us about this thing? We have not eaten food at the king’s expense. The king did not give us any gifts.”

43 The Israelites answered, “We have ten shares in David.* So we have more right to David than you do. But you ignored us. Why? We were the ones that first talked about bringing our king back.”

{But the people of Judah made a very ugly answer to the Israelites}\. The words of the people of Judah were more ugly than the words of the Israelites.

Sheba Leads Israel Away From David

20 At that place, there was a man named Sheba son of Bicri. Sheba was a good-for-nothing troublemaker from the family group of Benjamin. Sheba blew a trumpet to gather the people together. Then he said,

“We have no share in David. We have no part in the son of Jesse. Israel, let’s all go home to our own tents.”

2 So all the Israelites* left David and followed Sheba son of Bicri. But the people of Judah stayed with their king all the way from the Jordan River to Jerusalem.

3 David went back to his house in Jerusalem. David had left ten of his wives* to take care of the house. David had put these women in a special house.* He put guards around this house. The women stayed in this house until they died. David took care of the women and gave them food, but he did not have sexual relations with them. They lived like widows until they died.

4 The king said to Amasa, “Tell the people of Judah to meet with me in three days. And you must also be here.”

5 Then Amasa went to call the people of Judah together. But he took longer than the time that the king had told him.

David Tells Abishai to Kill Sheba

6 David said to Abishai, “Sheba son of Bicri is more dangerous to us than Absalom was. So take my officers and chase Sheba. Hurry before Sheba gets into cities with walls. If Sheba gets into the well protected cities, we won’t be able to get him.”

7 So Joab left Jerusalem to chase after Sheba son of Bicri. Joab brought his own men and the Kerethites and Pelethites* and the other soldiers with him.

Joab Kills Amasa

8 When Joab and the army came to Big Rock at Gibeon, Amasa came out to meet them. Joab was wearing his uniform. Joab had on a belt, and his sword was in its sheath.* As Joab was walking to meet Amasa, Joab’s Israelites Here this means the family groups not united with Judah.

wives Or, “concubines,” women servants who were like wives.
David … special house David’s son Absalom had ruined David’s concubines by having sexual relations with them. See 2 Sam. 16:21–22.
Kerethites and Pelethites David’s special group of fighting men.
sheath A leather or metal case for carrying a sword or knife.
sword fell out of its sheath. Joab picked up the sword and was holding it in his hand.

Joab asked Amasa, “How are you doing, brother?”

Then Joab reached out with his right hand and grabbed Amasa by the beard to kiss him hello. Amasa didn’t pay any attention to the sword that was in Joab’s hand. But then Joab stabbed Amasa in the belly with his sword. Amasa’s inside parts spilled out on the ground. Joab didn’t have to stab Amasa again—he was already dead.

David’s Men Continue to Look for Sheba

Then Joab and his brother Abishai again started to chase after Sheba son of Bicri. One of Joab’s young soldiers stood by Amasa’s body. This young soldier said, “All of you men who support Joab and David, let’s follow Joab.”

Amasa was there in the middle of road, lying in his own blood. The young soldier noticed that all the people kept stopping to look at the body. So the young soldier rolled the body off the road and into the field. Then he covered the body with a cloth. After Amasa’s body was taken off the road, the people just passed it by and followed Joab. They joined Joab and chased after Sheba son of Bicri.

Sheba Escapes to Abel Beth Maacah

Sheba son of Bicri passed through all the family groups of Israel on his way to Abel Beth Maacah. All the Berites also came together and followed Sheba.

Joab and his men came to Abel Beth Maacah. Joab’s army surrounded the town. They piled dirt up against the city wall. They did this so they could climb over the wall. Then Joab’s men also began breaking stones out of the wall to make it fall down.

But there was a very wise woman in that city. She shouted out from the city. She said, “Listen to me! Tell Joab to come here. I want to talk with him.”

Joab went to talk with the woman. The woman asked him, “Are you Joab?”

Joab answered, “Yes, I am.”

Then the woman said, “Listen to me.” Joab said, “I am listening.”

Then the woman said, “In the past people would say, ‘Ask for help in Abel and you will get what you need.’ I am one of many peaceful, loyal people in this town. You are trying to destroy an important city of Israel. Why do you want to destroy something that belongs to the Lord?”

Joab answered, “Hey, I don’t want to destroy anything! I don’t want to ruin your town. But there is a man in your city from the hill country of Ephraim. He is named Sheba son of Bicri. He has rebelled against King David. Bring him to me, and I will leave the city alone.”

The woman said to Joab, “All right. His head will be thrown over the wall to you.”

Then the woman spoke very wisely to all the people of the city. The people cut off the head of Sheba son of Bicri. Then the people threw Sheba’s head over the city wall to Joab.

So Joab blew the trumpet and the army left the city. The soldiers went home, and Joab went back to the king in Jerusalem.

The People on David’s Staff

Joab was captain of all the army of Israel. Benaiah son of Jehoiada led the Kerethites and Pelethites. Adoniram led the men who were forced to do hard work. Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the historian. Sheva was the secretary. Zadok and Abiathar were the priests. And Ira the Jairite was David’s chief servant.

Saul’s Family Punished

There was a famine while David was king. This time of hunger continued for three years. David prayed to the Lord, and the Lord answered. The Lord said, “Saul and his family of murderers are the reason for this time of hunger. This famine came because Saul killed the Gibeonites.” (The Gibeonites were not Israelites. They were a group of Amorites. The Israelites had promised them that they would not hurt the Gibeonites.) But chief servant Or, “advisor.” Literally, “priest.”

family of murderers Literally, “house of blood.”

The Israelites ... The Gibeonites This happened in Joshua’s time when the Gibeonites tricked the Israelites. See Josh. 9:3–15.
Saul tried to kill the Gibeonites. He did this because of his strong feelings for the people of Israel and Judah.)

King David called the Gibeonites together and talked to them. David said to the Gibeonites, “What can I do for you? What can I do to take away Israel’s sin, so you can bless the Lord’s people?”

The Gibeonites said to David, “There isn’t enough gold and silver for Saul’s family to pay for what they did. But we don’t have the right to kill any person in Israel.”

David said, “Well, what can I do for you?”

The Gibeonites said to King David, “Saul made plans against us. He tried to destroy all our people living in the land of Israel. Give us seven of Saul’s sons. Saul was the Lord’s chosen king. So we will hang his sons in front of the Lord on Mount Gibeah of Saul.”

King David said, “Fine, I will give them to you.” But the king protected Jonathan’s son, Mephibosheth. Jonathan was Saul’s son, but David had made a promise in the Lord’s name to Jonathan. So the king did not let them hurt Mephibosheth. David gave them Armoni and Mephibosheth. These were the sons of Saul and his wife Rizpah. Saul also had a daughter named Merab. She was married to a man named Adriel son of Barzillai from Meholah. So David took the five sons of Merab and Adriel. David gave these seven men to the Gibeonites. The Gibeonites brought them to Mount Gibeah and hanged them in front of the Lord. Those seven men died together. They were put to death during the first days of harvest. This was in the spring at the beginning of the barley harvest.

David and Jonathan promised each other that they would not harm each other’s families. Read 1 Sam. 20:12–23,42.

Mephibosheth This is another man named Mephibosheth, not Jonathan’s son.

rock This might be the Big Rock at Gibeon (2 Sam. 20:8), the rock that the bodies were lying on, or a rock that marked the place where her sons were buried.

War with the Philistines

The Philistines started another war with Israel. David and his men went out to fight the Philistines. But David became very tired and weak. Ishbi Benob was one of the giants. Ishbi Benob’s spear weighed about 7 1/2 pounds. Ishbi Benob had a new sword. He tried to kill David. But Abishai son of Zeruiah killed the Philistine and saved David’s life.

Then David’s men made a special promise to David. They said to him, “You can’t go out with us to battle any more. If you do, Israel might lose its greatest leader.”

Later, there was another war with the Philistines at Gob. Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Saph, another one of the giants.

woman servant Or, “concubine,” a slave woman who was like a wife to a man.

Beth Shan Or, “Beth Shean.”

one of the giants Or, “a son of Rapha (Rephaim).”

7 1/2 pounds Literally, “300 shekels of bronze.”
Later, there was another war at Gob against the Philistines. Elhanan the son of Jaare Oregim from Bethlehem killed Lahmi, the brother of Goliath from Gath.* His spear was as big as a post.*

There was another war at Gath. There was a very large man. This man had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot. He had 24 fingers and toes in all. This man was also one of the giants.* This man challenged Israel and made fun of them. But Jonathan killed this man. (This was Jonathan, the son of David’s brother Shimei.)

All four of these men were giants* from Gath. They were killed by David and his men.

David’s Song of Praise to the Lord

David sang this song at the time the Lord saved him from Saul and all his other enemies.

The Lord is my Rock,*
my Fortress,*
my Place of Safety.
He is my God,
the Rock I run to for protection.
God is my shield.
His power saves me.*
The Lord is my hiding place,
my place of safety,
high in the hills.
He saves me from the cruel enemy.
They made fun of me.
But I called to the Lord for help,
and I was saved from my enemies!

My enemies were trying to kill me!*
Waves of death were crashing around me.
I was caught in a flood carrying me to that place of death.*

Ropes of the grave were all around me.
Traps of death lay before me.
Trapped, I called to the Lord for help.
Yes, I called to my God.
God was in his temple.
He heard my voice.
He heard my cry for help.
Then the earth shook. It trembled.
The foundations of heaven shook.
Why? Because the Lord was angry!
Smoke came from God’s nose.
Burning flames came from his mouth,
Burning sparks flew from him.
The Lord tore open the sky and came down!
He stood on a thick, dark cloud!
He was flying,
riding on the flying Cherub angels,
riding on the wind.
The Lord wrapped the dark clouds around him like a tent.
He gathered the water into the thick thunder clouds.
Sparks like burning coal flew from the bright light around him!
The Lord thundered from the sky!
God Most High let his voice be heard.
The Lord shot his arrows* and scattered the enemy.
The Lord sent out lightning, and the people scattered in confusion.
Lord, you spoke strongly,
a powerful wind blew from your mouth*
and the water was pushed back.
We could see the bottom of the sea.
We could see the earth’s foundations.

The Lord helped me like that too!*
The Lord reached down from above.
The Lord grabbed me and pulled me out of the deep water (trouble).
My enemies were stronger than me.
Those people hated me.
My enemies were too strong for me,
so God saved me.
19 I was in trouble
   and my enemies attacked me.
   But the Lord was there to support me!
20 The Lord loves me,
   so he rescued me.
   He took me to a safe place.
21 The Lord will give me my reward
   Because I did what is right,
   I did nothing wrong,
   so he will do good things for me.
22 Why? Because I obeyed the Lord!
   I did not sin against my God.
23 I always remember the Lord’s decisions.
   I obey his laws!
24 I keep myself pure and innocent before him.
25 So the Lord will give me my reward!
   Why? Because I did what is right!
   The way he sees it,
   I did nothing wrong.
   so he will do good things for me.
26 If a person really loves you,
    then you show your true love to him.
   If a person is true to you,
    then you will be true to him.
27 Lord, you are good and pure to people who are good and pure.
   But, you can outsmart
    the smartest, sneakiest crook.
28 Lord, you help humble people.
   But you bring shame to proud people.
29 Lord, you are my lamp.
   The Lord lights up the darkness around me!
30 With your help, Lord,
    I can run with the soldiers.
   With God’s help,
    I can climb over enemy walls.
31 God’s power is complete.*
   The Lord’s word has been tested.
   He protects people who trust him.
32 There is no God except the Lord.
   There is no Rock* except our God.
33 God is my strong fort.
   He helps pure people live right.*
34 God helps me run fast like a deer!
   He keeps me steady in high places.
35 God trains me for war,
   so my arms can shoot a powerful bow.*
36 God, you protected me
    and helped me win.
   You helped me defeat my enemy.
37 Make my legs and ankles strong
    so I can walk fast without stumbling.
38 I want to chase my enemies,
   until I destroy them!
   I won’t come back
   until they are destroyed!
39 I destroyed my enemies.
   I defeated them!
   They won’t get up again.
   Yes, my enemies fell under my feet.
40 God, you made me strong in battle.
   You made my enemies fall before me.
41 You gave me a chance at my enemy’s neck,
    and I cut my opponent down!
42 My enemies looked for help,
    but there was no one to save them.
   They even looked to the Lord,
    but he did not answer them.
43 I beat my enemies into pieces.
   They were like dust on the ground.
   I crushed my enemies.
   I walked on them
   like mud in the streets.
44 You saved me from the people who fought against me.
   You kept me as ruler of those nations.
   People I didn’t know now serve me!
45 People from other lands obey me!
   When they hear my command,
    they quickly obey me.
   Those foreigners are afraid of me!
46 Those foreigners wilt with fear.
   They come out of their hiding places shaking with fear.

God’s power … complete  Or, “God’s way is perfect.”
Rock  A name for God. It shows he is like a fortress or a strong place of safety.
live right  Literally, “walk in his ways.”
shoot a powerful bow  Or “string a bronze bow.” Evidently this is a bow made of wood, sinew, horn and possibly bronze.
The Lord is alive. I praise my Rock!* God is great! He is the Rock who saves me. He is the God who punished my enemies for me. He put people under my rule.

God, you saved me from my enemies! You helped me defeat the people who stood against me. You save me from cruel men!

Lord, that is why I praise you to the nations. This is why I sing songs about your name.

The Lord helps his king win many battles! The Lord shows his true love for his chosen king. He will be loyal to David and to his descendants forever!

These are the last words of David:

This message is from David son of Jesse. This message is from the man that God made great, the king chosen by the God of Jacob, the sweet singer of Israel.

The Lord’s Spirit spoke through me. His word was on my tongue.

The God of Israel spoke. The Rock of Israel said to me, “The person who rules people fairly, the person who rules with respect for God, that person will be like the morning light at dawn; like a morning without clouds; like sunshine after a rain—the rain that makes tender grass grow from the ground.”

God made my family strong and secure.* He made an agreement with me forever! God made sure this agreement was good and secure in every way. So surely he will give me every victory. He will give me everything I want!

But bad people are like thorns. People don’t hold thorns. They throw them away.

If a person touches them, it hurts like a spear made of wood and iron.

Yes, those people are like thorns! They will be thrown in the fire, and they will be completely burned!

These are the names of David’s soldiers:
Josheb Basshebeth the Tahkemonite.* Josheb Basshebeth was captain of the Three Heroes. Josheb Basshebeth used his spear against 800 men at one time and killed them.*

Next, there was Eleazar son of Dodai* from Ahoah. Eleazar was one of the Three Heroes that were with David at the time they challenged the Philistines. They had gathered for a battle, but the Israelite soldiers had run away. Eleazar fought the Philistines until he was very tired. But he kept holding on to the sword tightly and continued fighting. The Lord gave Israel a great victory that day. The people came back after Eleazar had won the battle, but they only came to take things from the dead enemy soldiers.

Next, there was Shammah son of Agee from Harar. The Philistines came together to fight. They fought in a field of lentils.* The people ran away from the Philistines. But Shammah stood in the middle of the field and defended it. He defeated the Philistines. The Lord gave Israel a great victory that day.

Once, David was at the cave of Adullam and the Philistine army was down in Rephaim Valley. Three of the Thirty Heroes* crawled flat on the ground all the way to that cave to join David.*

Josheb ... killed them The Hebrew text has, “He was also called, Adino the Eznite.”
Eleazar son of Dodai Or, “Eleazar his cousin.”
lentils Small round beans.
Thirty Heroes These men were David’s famous group of very brave soldiers.
Three ... David The Hebrew is hard to understand here, but compare 1 Chron. 11:15.
14Another time, David was in the fortress,* and a group of Philistines soldiers was in Bethlehem. 15David was thirsty for some water from his hometown. David said, “I wish someone could give me some water from the well near the city gate in Bethlehem!” David did not really want this, he was only talking.

16But the Three Heroes* fought their way through the Philistine army. These three men got some water from the well near the city gate in Bethlehem. Then the Three Heroes brought the water to David. But David refused to drink the water. He poured it on the ground as an offering to the Lord. 17David said, “Lord, I can’t drink this water. It would be like drinking the blood of the men who risked their lives for me.” This is why David refused to drink the water. The Three Heroes did many brave things like that.

Other Brave Soldiers

18Abishai was the brother of Joab son of Zeruiah. Abishai was the leader of the Three Heroes.* Abishai used his spear against 300 enemies and killed them. He became as famous as the Three. 19Abishai was as famous as the Three Heroes. He became their leader, even though he was not one of them.

20Then there was Benaiah son of Jehoiada. He was the son of a powerful man. He was from Kabzeel. Benaiah did many brave things. Benaiah killed the two sons of Ariel from Moab. One day when it was snowing, Benaiah went down into a hole in the ground and killed a lion. 21Benaiah also killed a big Egyptian soldier. The Egyptian had a spear in his hand. But Benaiah only had a club in his hand. Benaiah grabbed the spear in the Egyptian’s hand and took it away from him. Then Benaiah killed the Egyptian with his own spear. 22Benaiah son of Jehoiada did many brave things like that. Benaiah was as famous as the Three Heroes.* 23Benaiah was even more famous than the Thirty Heroes,* but he did not become a member of the Three Heroes. David made Benaiah leader of his bodyguards.

The Thirty Heroes

24Asahel, the brother of Joab, was one of the Thirty Heroes.* Other men in the group of Thirty Heroes were: Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem; 25Shammah the Harodite; Elika the Harodite; 26Helez the Paltite; Ira son of Ikkesh from Tekoa; 27Abiezer from Anathoth; Mebunnai the Hushathite; 28Zalmon the Ahohite; Maharai from Netophah; 29Heled son of Baanah from Netophah; Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah of Benjamin; 30Benaiah the Pirathonite; Hiddai from the Brooks of Gaash; 31Abi Albon the Arbahite; Azmaveth the Bahumnite; 32Elahba the Shaalbonite; the sons of Jashen; Jonathan 33the son of Shammmah from Harar; Abiam son of Sharar from Harar; 34Eliphelet son of Ahasbai the Maacathite; Eliam son of Ahithophel the Gilonite; 35Hezro the Carmelite; Paarai the Arbotite; 36Igal son of Nathan of Zobah; Bani the Gadite; 37Zelek the Ammonite; Naharai from Beeroth (Naharai carried the armor for Joab son of Zeruiah); 38Ira the Ithrite; Gareb the Ithrite; 39and Uriah the Hittite. There were 37 in all.

David Decides to Count His Army

24The Lord was angry against Israel again. The Lord caused David to turn against the Israelites. David said, “Go count the people of Israel and Judah.”

2King David said to Joab, the captain of the army, “Go through all the family groups of Israel from Dan to Beersheba,* and count the people. Then I will know how many people there are.”

3But Joab said to the king, “May the Lord your God give you 100 times as many people, no matter how many there are! And may your eyes see this thing happen. But why do you want to do this?”

4King David very strongly commanded Joab and the captains of the army to count the people. So Joab and the captains of the army fortress A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.

Three Heroes These were David’s three bravest soldiers.
Thirty Heroes These men were David’s famous group of very brave soldiers.

Dan to Beersheba This means all the people of Israel. Dan was the town farthest north, and Beersheba was in the south.
went out from the king to count the people of Israel. Then they crossed over the Jordan River. They made their camp in Aroer. Their camp was on the right side of the city. (The city is in the middle of the valley of Gad, on the way to Jazer.)

6Then they went east to Gilead, all the way to Tahtim Hodshi. Then they went north to Dan Jaan and around to Sidon. They went to the fort of Tyre. They went to all the cities of the Hivites and of the Canaanites. Then they went south to Beersheba in the southern part of Judah. It took them nine months and 20 days for them to go through the country. After nine months and 20 days they came back to Jerusalem.

9Joab gave the list of the people to the king. There were 800,000 men in Israel that could use the sword. And there were 500,000 men in Judah.

The Lord Punishes David

10Then David felt ashamed after he had counted the people. David said to the Lord, “I have sinned greatly in what I did! Lord, I beg you, forgive me for my sin. I have been very foolish.”

11When David got up in the morning, the Lord’s word came to Gad, David’s seer.

12The Lord told Gad, “Go and tell David, ‘This is what the Lord says: I offer you three things. Choose the one that I will do to you.’”

13Gad went to David and told him. Gad said to David, “Choose one of these three things:

1. Seven years of famine for you and your country.
2. Your enemies will chase you for three months.
3. Three days of disease in your country.

Think about it, and choose one of these things. And I will tell the Lord about your choice. The Lord sent me to you.”

14David said to Gad, “I am really in trouble! But the Lord is very merciful. So let the Lord punish us. Don’t let my punishment come from people.”

15So the Lord sent a disease against Israel. It began in the morning and continued until the chosen time. From Dan to Beersheba* 70,000 people died. The angel raised his arm over Jerusalem to destroy it. But the Lord felt very sorry about the bad things that had happened. The Lord said to the angel that destroyed the people, “That’s enough! Put down your arm.”

The Lord’s angel was by the threshing floor* of Araunah* the Jebusite.

David Buys Araunah’s Threshing Floor

17David saw the angel that killed the people. David spoke to the Lord. David said, “I sinned! I did wrong! And these people only did what I told them—they only followed me like sheep. They did nothing wrong. Please let your punishment be against me and my father’s family.”

18That day Gad came to David. Gad told David, “Go and build an altar* to the Lord on the threshing floor* of Araunah* the Jebusite.”

19So David did what Gad told him to. David did what the Lord wanted. David went to see Araunah. Araunah looked and saw King David and his officers coming to him. Araunah went out and bowed his face to the ground.

20Araunah said, “Why has my lord and king come to me?”

David answered, “I came to buy the threshing floor* from you. Then I can build an altar* to the Lord. Then the disease will stop.”

22Araunah said to David, “My lord and king, you can take anything you want for a sacrifice.* Here are some cows for the burnt offering, and the threshing boards* and the

Dan to Beersheba This means all the people of Israel. Dan was the town farthest north, and Beersheba was in the south.
threshing floor A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.
Araunah Also spelled “Ornan.”
altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.
sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
threshing boards A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.

seer Another name for a prophet.
yokes for the wood. 23 O King, I give everything to you!” Araunah also said to the king, “May the Lord your God be pleased with you.”

24 But the king said to Araunah, “No! I tell you the truth, I will pay you for the land. I will not offer burnt offerings to the Lord my God that cost me nothing.”

So David bought the threshing floor and the cows for 50 shekels of silver. 25 Then David built an altar to the Lord there. David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. The Lord answered his prayer for the country. The Lord stopped the disease in Israel.

---

yokes: A pole that was put on the shoulders of men or animals to help them carry or pull things. This often showed that a person was a slave.

threshing floor: A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.

altar: A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.
Adonijah Wants to be King

King David was very old. He could not keep warm. His servants covered him with blankets, but he was still cold. So his servants said to him, “We will find a young woman to care for you. She will lie close to you and keep you warm.” So the king’s servants began looking everywhere in the country of Israel for a beautiful young woman to keep the king warm. They found a girl named Abishag. She was from the city of Shunem. They brought the young woman to the king.

The girl was very beautiful. She cared for the king and served him. But King David did not have sexual relations with her.

Adonijah was the son of King David and his wife Haggith. Adonijah was a very handsome man. King David never corrected his son Adonijah. David never asked him, “Why are you doing these things?” Adonijah was born after his brother Absalom, but Adonijah became very proud and decided that he would be the next king. Adonijah wanted very much to be the king, so he got himself a chariot, horses, and 50 men to run ahead of him.

Adonijah talked with Joab son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest. They decided to help make him the new king. But several men did not agree with what Adonijah was doing. These men remained loyal to David. They were Zadok the priest, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei, Rei, and King David’s special guard.* So these men did not join with Adonijah.

Nathan and Bathsheba Speak for Solomon

But Nathan heard about this and went to Solomon’s mother Bathsheba. Nathan asked her, “Have you heard what Haggith’s son, Adonijah, is doing? He is making himself king. And our master, King David, knows nothing about it. Your life and the life of your son Solomon may be in danger. But I will tell you what you should do to save yourself. Go to King David and say to him, ‘My lord and king, you made a promise to me. You promised that my son Solomon would be the next king after you. So why is Adonijah becoming the new king?’ Then while you are still talking with him, I will come in. After you leave, I will tell the king what has happened. And that will show that what you said is true.”

So Bathsheba went in to see the king in his bedroom. The king was very old. Abishag, the girl from Shunem, was caring for him there. Bathsheba bowed down before the king. The king asked, “What can I do for you?”

Bathsheba answered, “Sir, you used the name of the Lord your God and made a promise to me. You said, ‘Your son Solomon will be the next king after me. Solomon will sit on my throne.’ 18Now, you don’t know this, but Adonijah is making himself the king. 19Adonijah is giving a big fellowship meal. He has killed many cows and the best sheep for a fellowship offering. Adonijah invited all of your sons. And he invited Abiathar the priest and Joab, the commander of your army. But he did not invite your faithful son Solomon. 20Now, my lord and king, all the people of Israel are watching you. They are waiting for you to decide who will be the next king after you. 21You must do something before you die. If you don’t, then after you are buried with your fathers, those men will say that Solomon and I are criminals.”

---

*Shimei, Rei … guard Or, “Shimei and his friends, the Heroes.”

*En Rogel A spring of water in the valley south of Jerusalem, about 1/4 mile from Gihon Spring.

22While Bathsheba was still talking with the king, Nathan the prophet came to see him. 23The servants told the king, “Nathan the prophet is here.” Nathan went in to speak to the king. Nathan bowed down before the king 24and said, “My lord and king, did you announce that Adonijah will be the new king after you? Have you decided that Adonijah will rule the people now? 25Because today he went down into the valley to offer many cows and the best sheep as fellowship offerings. And he invited all your other sons, the commanders of the army, and Abiathar the priest. They are now eating and drinking with him. And they are saying, ‘Long live King Adonijah!’ 26But he did not invite me, or Zadok the priest, or Benaiah son of Jehoiada, or your son Solomon. 27My lord and king, did you do this without telling us? Please tell us, who will be the next king after you?”

28Then King David said, “Tell Bathsheba to come in!” So Bathsheba came in before the king.

29Then the king made a promise: “The Lord God has saved me from every danger. As sure as the Lord is alive, I make this promise to you. 30Today I will do what I promised you in the past. I made that promise by the power of the Lord God of Israel. I promised that your son Solomon would be the next king after me. And I promised that he would take my place on my throne. I will keep my promise!”

31Then Bathsheba bowed down on the ground before the king. She said, “Long live King David!”

Solomon Chosen as the New King

32Then King David said, “Tell Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada to come in here.” So the three men came in to meet with the king. 33Then the king said to them, “Take my officers with you. Put my son Solomon on my own mule. Take him to Gihon Spring.* 34At that place, Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet will anoint* him to be the new king of Israel. Blow the trumpet and announce, ‘This is the new king, Solomon!’ 35Then come back here with him. Solomon will sit on my throne and be the new king in my place. I have chosen Solomon to be the ruler of Israel and Judah.”

36Benaiah son of Jehoiada answered the king, “Amen! The Lord God himself said it, my lord and king! 37My lord and king, the Lord has been with you. And now I hope the Lord will be with Solomon! And I hope King Solomon’s kingdom will grow and become even more powerful than yours, my lord and king.”

38So Zadok, Nathan, Benaiah, and the king’s officers obeyed King David. They put Solomon on King David’s mule and went with him to Gihon Spring. 39Zadok the priest carried the oil from the Holy Tent. Zadok poured the oil on Solomon’s head to show that he was the king. They blew the trumpet and all the people shouted, “Long live King Solomon!” 40Then all of the people followed Solomon into the city. The people were very happy and excited. They were playing flutes and making so much noise that the ground shook.

41Meanwhile, Adonijah and his guests with him were just finishing their meal. They heard the sound from the trumpet. Joab asked, “What is that noise? What is happening in the city?”

42While Joab was still speaking, Jonathan, son of Abiathar the priest, arrived. Adonijah

Gihon Spring A spring of water just outside the city walls in the valley east of Jerusalem. It was the main source of water for the city of Jerusalem.

anoint(ed) To pour olive oil on a person’s head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.
said, “Come here! You are a good man.* You must be bringing good news to me.”

43 But Jonathan answered, “No, it is not good news for you! King David has made Solomon the new king. 44 King David sent Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and all the king’s officers with him. They put Solomon on the king’s own mule.

45 Then Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anointed* Solomon at Gihon Spring. And then they went into the city. People followed them and now the people in the city are very happy. That is the noise that you hear. 46–47 Solomon is even sitting on the king’s throne! Even the king’s officers are congratulating King David. They are saying, ‘King David, you are a great king! And now we pray that your God will make Solomon a great king too. We hope your God will make Solomon even more famous than you. And we hope that Solomon’s kingdom will be an even greater kingdom than yours is!’

Even King David was there! From his bed, King David bowed before Solomon 48 and said, ‘Praise the Lord God of Israel. The Lord put one of my own sons on my throne. And he let me live to see it.”

49 All of Adonijah’s guests were scared and left very quickly. 50 Adonijah was also afraid of Solomon. So he went to the altar and held the horns of the altar.* 51 Then someone told Solomon, “Adonijah is scared of you, King Solomon. Adonijah is at the Holy Tent, holding onto the horns of the altar. And he refuses to leave. Adonijah says, ‘Tell King Solomon to promise me that he will not kill me.’”

52 So Solomon answered, “If Adonijah shows that he is a good man, then I promise that not even a hair on his head will be hurt. But if he does anything wrong, then he will die.” 53 Then King Solomon sent some men to get Adonijah. The men brought Adonijah to King Solomon. Adonijah came to King Solomon and bowed down. Then Solomon said, “Go home.”

King David Dies

2 The time came when David was about to die. So David talked to Solomon and told him, 2“I am about to die, like all men must. But you are growing stronger and becoming a man. 3 Now, carefully obey all the commands of the Lord your God. Carefully obey all his laws and commands and decisions and agreements. Obey everything that is written in the Law of Moses. If you do this, then you will be successful in everything you do and every place you go. 4 And if you obey the Lord, then the Lord will keep his promise about me. The Lord said, ‘If your sons carefully live the way I tell them, sincerely, with all their heart, then the king of Israel will always be a man from your family.’”

5 David also said, “You remember what Joab son of Zeruiah did to me. He killed two of the commanders of Israel’s army. He killed Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Jether. Remember, he killed them during a time of peace! The blood from these men splashed on the sword belt and army boots he was wearing. I should have punished him. 6 But you are the king now. So you should punish him in the way you think is the most wise. 7 But you must be sure that he is killed. Don’t let him die peacefully of old age!

7 “Be kind to the children of Barzillai of Gilead. Let them be your friends and eat at your table. They helped me when I ran away from your brother Absalom.

8 “And remember, Shimei son of Gera, is still around here. He is from the family group of Benjamin in Bahurim. Remember that he said very bad things against me on the day that I ran away to Mahanaim. Then he came down to meet me at the Jordan River. I made a promise to him. I promised before the Lord that I would not kill Shimei. 9 Now, don’t leave him unpunished. You are a wise man. You will know what you must do to him. But don’t let him die peacefully of old age.”

10 Then David died. He was buried in the City of David. 11 David ruled Israel 40 years.
He ruled seven years in Hebron and 33 years in Jerusalem.

Solomon Takes Control of His Kingdom

12Now Solomon was king. He sat on the throne of his father David and was in complete control of his kingdom.

13Then Adonijah son of Haggith went to Bathsheba, Solomon’s mother. Bathsheba asked him, “Do you come in peace?”

Adonijah answered, “Yes. This is a peaceful visit. I have something to say to you.”

Bathsheba said, “Then speak.”

15Adonijah said, “You remember that at one time the kingdom was mine. All the people of Israel thought I was their king. But things changed. Now my brother is the king. The Lord chose him to be king. So now I have one thing to ask you. Please do not refuse me.”

Bathsheba answered, “What do you want?”

17Adonijah said, “I know that King Solomon will do anything you ask him. So please ask him to let me marry Abishag, the woman from Shunem.”

18Then Bathsheba said, “Fine. I will speak to the king for you.”

19So Bathsheba went to King Solomon to talk with him. King Solomon saw her and he stood to meet her. Then he bowed down to her and sat on the throne. He told some servants to bring another throne for his mother. Then she sat down at his right side.

20Bathsheba said to him, “I have one small thing to ask you. Please do not refuse me.”

The king answered, “You can ask anything you want, mother. I will not refuse you.”

21So Bathsheba went to King Solomon to talk with him. King Solomon saw her and he stood to meet her. Then he bowed down to her and sat on the throne. He told some servants to bring another throne for his mother. Then she sat down at his right side.

22Bathsheba said to him, “I have one small thing to ask you. Please do not refuse me.”

23King Solomon answered his mother, “Why are you asking me to give Abishag to Adonijah? Why don’t you just ask me to let him be king too! After all, he is my older brother. Abiathar the priest and Joab will support him!”

24Then Solomon made a promise with the Lord. He said, “I swear (promise) that I will make Adonijah pay for this. And it will cost him his life! The Lord made me the king of Israel. He has given me the throne that belonged to my father David. The Lord kept his promise and gave the kingdom to me and my family. Now, as sure as the Lord is alive, I swear (promise) that Adonijah will die today!”

25King Solomon gave the command to Benaiah. And Benaiah went out and killed Adonijah.

26Then King Solomon said to Abiathar the priest, “I should kill you, but I will let you go back to your home in Anathoth. I will not kill you now because you helped to carry the Holy Box* of the Lord while marching with my father David. And I know that you shared in the hard times, just like my father.”

27Solomon told Abiathar that he could not continue to serve as a priest of the Lord. This happened the way the Lord said it would. God said this about Eli the priest and his family at Shiloh. And Abiathar was from Eli’s family.

28Joab heard about this and became afraid. He had supported Adonijah, but not Absalom. Joab ran to the tent of the Lord and held the horns of the altar.*

29Someone told King Solomon that Joab was at the altar in the Lord’s Tent. So Solomon ordered Benaiah to go and kill him.

30Benaiah went into the Lord’s Tent and said to Joab, “The king says, ‘Come out!’”

But Joab answered, “No, I will die here.”

So Benaiah went back to the king and told him what Joab had said. Then the king commanded Benaiah, “Do as he says! Kill him there. Then bury him. Then my family and I will be free of the guilt of Joab. This guilt was caused because Joab killed innocent people.

32Joab killed two men who were much better than himself. They were Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Jether. Abner was the commander of Israel’s army and Amasa was the commander of Judah’s army. My father David did not know at that time

---

Holy Box  The Box of the Agreement. Also called “The Ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

held the horns of the altar  This showed he was asking for mercy. The law said that if a person ran into the holy place and held onto the corners of the altar he should not be punished.
that Joab had killed them. So the Lord will punish Joab for those men he killed. He will be guilty for their deaths. And his family will also be guilty forever. But God will bring peace for David, his descendants, his family of kings, and his kingdom forever.”

So Benaiah son of Jehoiada killed Joab. Joab was buried near his home in the desert.

Solomon then made Benaiah, son of Jehoiada, commander of the army in Joab’s place. Solomon also made Zadok the new high priest in Abiathar’s place. Next, the king sent to get Shimei. The king said to him, “Build a house for yourself here in Jerusalem. Live in that house and don’t leave the city. If you leave the city and go any further than Kidron Brook, then you will be killed. And it will be your own fault.”

So Shimei answered, “That is fine, my king. I will obey you.” So Shimei lived in Jerusalem for a long time. But three years later, two of Shimei’s slaves ran away. They went to Achish son of Maacah, the king of Gath. Shimei heard that his slaves were in Gath. So Shimei put his saddle on his donkey and went to King Achish at Gath. He went to find his slaves. He found them there and brought them back home.

But someone told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and returned. So Solomon sent for him. Solomon said, “I used the Lord’s name and swore (promised) that you would die if you left Jerusalem. I warned you that if you went anywhere, your death would be your own fault. And you agreed to what I said. You said that you would obey me. Why did you break your promise? Why did you not obey my command? You know the many wrong things you did against my father David. Now the Lord will punish you for those wrong things. But the Lord will bless me. He will make David’s kingdom safe forever.”

Then the king ordered Benaiah to kill Shimei, and he did. Now Solomon had full control of his kingdom.

Solomon made an agreement with Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, by marrying his daughter. Solomon brought her to the City of David. At this time, Solomon was still building his palace and the temple of the Lord. Solomon was also building a wall around Jerusalem. The temple had not yet been finished. So people were still making animal sacrifices on altars at the high places. Solomon showed that he loved the Lord. He did this by obeying all the things his father David had told him to do. But Solomon did something David did not tell him to do. Solomon still used the high places to offer sacrifices and to burn incense.

King Solomon went to Gibeon to offer a sacrifice. He went there because that was the most important high place. Solomon offered 1,000 offerings on that altar. While Solomon was at Gibeon, the Lord came to him during the night in a dream. God said, “Ask for anything you want. I will give it to you.”

Solomon answered, “You were very kind to your servant, my father David. He followed you. He was good and lived right. And you showed the greatest kindness to him when you allowed his son to rule on his throne (after him). Lord my God, you have allowed me to be the king in my father’s place. But I am like a little child. I do not have the wisdom I need to do the things I must do. I, your servant, am here among your chosen people. There are many, many people. There are too many to count. So a ruler must make many decisions among them. So I ask that you give me wisdom so that I can rule and judge the people in the right way. This will allow me to know the difference between right and wrong. Without this great wisdom, it is impossible to rule these great people.”

City of David The southeast and oldest part of the city of Jerusalem.
sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
high place(s) Places for worshipping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.
incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.
10The Lord was happy that Solomon asked him for this. 11So God said to him, “You did not ask for long life for yourself. And you did not ask for riches for yourself. You did not ask for the death of your enemies. You asked for the wisdom to listen and make the right decisions. 12So, I will give you the thing you asked. I will make you wise and intelligent. I will make your wisdom so great, that there has never in the past been anyone like you. And in the future, there will never be anyone like you. 13Also, to reward you, I will give you those things that you did not ask for. All your life, you will have riches and honor. There will be no other king in the world as great as you. 14I ask you to follow me and obey my laws and commands. Do this the way your father David did. If you do this, then I will also give you a long life.”

15Solomon woke up. He knew that God had talked to him in the dream. Then Solomon went to Jerusalem and stood before the Box of the Lord’s Agreement.* Solomon offered a burnt offering for the Lord. And he made fellowship offerings to the Lord. After that, he gave a party for all of the leaders and officials that helped him rule.

16One day two women that were prostitutes* came to Solomon. They stood before the king. 17One of the women said, “Sir, this woman and I live in the same house. We were both pregnant and almost ready to give birth to our babies. I gave birth to my baby while she was there with me. 18Three days later, this woman also gave birth to her baby. There was no other person in the house with us. There were only the two of us. 19One night, while this woman was asleep with her baby, the baby died. 20So, during the night, she took my son from my bed while I was asleep. She carried him to her bed. Then she put the dead baby in my bed. 21The next morning, I woke up and was ready to feed my baby. But I saw that the baby was dead. Then I looked at it more closely. I saw that it was not my baby.”

22But the other woman said, “No! The living baby is mine. The dead baby is yours!”

But the first woman said, “No! You are wrong! The dead baby is yours and the living baby is mine!” So the two women argued in front of the king.

23Then King Solomon said, “Each of you says that the living baby is your own. And each of you says that the dead baby belongs to the other woman.”

24Then King Solomon sent his servant to get a sword. 25And King Solomon said, “This is what we will do. Cut the living baby in two pieces. Give each woman half of the baby.”

26The second woman said, “That is fine. Cut the baby into two pieces. Then neither of us will have him.”

But the first woman, the real mother, was full of love for her son. She said to the king, “Please, Sir, don’t kill the baby! Give it to her.”

27Then King Solomon said, “Don’t kill the baby! Give it to the first woman. She is the real mother.”

28The people of Israel heard about King Solomon’s decision. They respected and honored him very much because he was wise. They saw that he had the wisdom of God* in making the right decisions.

Solomon’s Kingdom

4King Solomon ruled all the people of Israel. 2These are the names of his leading officials that helped him rule:

Azariah son of Zadok. Azariah was the priest.

Elihoreph and Ahijah, sons of Shisha. Elihoreph and Ahijah had the jobs of writing notes about the things that happened in the courts.

Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud. Jehoshaphat wrote notes about the history of the people.

Benaiah son of Jehoiada. Benaiah was the commander of the army.

the wisdom of God Or, “very great wisdom.”
Zadok and Abiathar. Zadok and Abiathar were priests.
5Azariah son of Nathan. Azariah was in charge of the district governors.

Zabud son of Nathan. Zabud was a priest and an adviser to King Solomon.
6Ahishar. Ahishar was responsible for everything in the king’s home.

Adoniram son of Abda. Adoniram was in charge of the slaves.

7Israel was divided into twelve areas called districts. Solomon chose governors to rule over each district. These governors were ordered to gather food from their districts and give the food to the king and his family. Each of the twelve governors was responsible for giving food to the king one month of each year.

8These are the names of the twelve governors:

Ben Hur was governor of the hill country of Ephraim.
9Ben Deker was governor of Makaz, Shaalbim, Beth Shemesh, and Elon Bethhanan.

Ben Hesed was governor of Arubboth, Socoh, and Hepheth.
11Ben Abinadab was governor of Napoth Dor. He was married to Taphath, daughter of Solomon.

12Baana son of Ahilud was governor of Taanach and Megiddo and all of Beth Shan next to Zarethan. This was below Jezreel, from Beth Shan to Abel Meholah across from Jokmeam.

13Ben Geber was governor of Ramoth Gilead. He was governor of all the towns and villages of Jair son of Manasseh in Gilead. He was also governor of the district of Argob in Bashan. In this area there were 60 cities with big walls around them. These cities also had bronze bars on the gates.

14Ahinadab son of Iddo was governor of Mahanaim.

15Ahimaaz was governor of Naphtali. He was married to Basemath the daughter of Solomon.

16Baana son of Hushai was governor of Asher and Aloth.

17Jehoshaphat son of Paruah was governor of Issachar.

18Shimei son of Ela was governor of Benjamin.

19Geber son of Uri was governor of Gilead. Gilead was the country where Sihon the king of the Amorite people lived and the country where Og the king of Bashan lived. But Geber was the only governor of that district.

20There were many, many people in Judah and Israel. The number of people was like sands on the seashore. The people lived happy lives: They ate, drank, and enjoyed themselves.

21Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistine people. His kingdom went as far as the border of Egypt. These countries sent gifts to Solomon and they obeyed him all of his life.*

22This is the amount of food that Solomon needed each day for himself and for all of the people that ate at his table:

- 150 bushels* of fine flour,
- 300 bushels* of flour,
- 10 cows that were fed good grain,
- 20 cows that were raised in the fields,
- 100 sheep,
- wild animals such as deer, gazelles, roebucks,* and game birds.

24Solomon ruled over all the countries west of the Euphrates River. This was the land from Tiphsah to Gaza. And Solomon had peace on all sides of his kingdom. 25During Solomon’s life all of the people in Judah and Israel, all the way from Dan to Beersheba, lived in peace and security. The people were at peace sitting under their own fig trees and grape vines.

26Solomon had places to keep 4,000* horses for his chariots and he had 12,000 horse soldiers. 27And each month one of the twelve district governors gave King Solomon... all those things that he needed. This was enough for every person that ate at the king’s table. 28The district governors also gave the king enough straw and barley for the chariot horses and the riding horses. Each person brought this grain to required places.

Solomon’s Wisdom

29God made Solomon very wise. Solomon could understand many, many things. His wisdom was too great to imagine. 30Solomon’s wisdom was greater than the wisdom of all the men in the East. And his wisdom was greater than all the men in Egypt. 31He was wiser than any of the men on earth. He was even wiser than Ethan the Ezrahite. He was wiser than Heman, Calcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol. King Solomon became famous in all of the countries around Israel and Judah. 32During his life, King Solomon wrote* 3,000 wise teachings and 1,005 songs.

Solomon also knew very much about nature. Solomon taught about many different kinds of plants—everything from the great cedar trees of Lebanon to the little vines that grow out of the walls. King Solomon also taught about animals, birds, and snakes.* 34People from all nations came to listen to King Solomon’s wisdom. The kings of all nations sent their wise men to listen to King Solomon.

Solomon Builds the Temple

5 Hiram was the king of Tyre. Hiram had always been David’s friend. So when Hiram heard that Solomon had become the new king after David, he sent his servants to Solomon. 2This is what Solomon said to king Hiram: “You remember that my father, King David, had to fight many wars all around him. So he was never able to build a temple to honor the Lord his God. King David was waiting until the Lord allowed him to defeat all his enemies. But now the Lord my God has given me peace on all sides of my country. Now I have no enemies. My people are in no danger.

5“The Lord made a promise to my father David. The Lord said, ‘I will make your son king after you. And your son will build a temple to honor me.’ Now, I plan to build that temple to honor the Lord my God. 6And so I ask you to help me. Send your men to Lebanon. There, they should cut down cedar trees for me. My servants will work with yours. I will pay you any price that you decide as your servants’ wages. But I need your help. Our carpenters* are not as good as the carpenters of Sidon.”

7When Hiram heard what Solomon asked, he was very happy. King Hiram said, “I thank the Lord today for giving David a wise son to rule this great nation!” 8Then Hiram sent a message to Solomon. The message said, “I heard the thing that you asked. I will give you all the cedar trees and the fir trees you want. 9My servants will bring them down from Lebanon to the sea. Then I will tie them together and float them down the shore to the place you choose. There I will separate the logs, and you can take the trees. As payment, I would be satisfied if every year you gave me enough food for everyone in my house.” 10So Hiram gave Solomon all the cedar and fir logs that he wanted.

11Solomon gave Hiram about 120,000 bushels* of wheat and about 120,000 gallons* of pure olive oil every year for his family.

12The Lord gave wisdom to Solomon as he had promised. And there was peace between Hiram and Solomon. These two kings made a treaty between themselves.

13King Solomon forced 30,000 men of Israel to help in this work. 14King Solomon chose a man named Adoniram to be the boss. Solomon divided the men into three groups. There were 10,000 men in each group. Each group worked one month in Lebanon and then went home for two months. 15Solomon also forced 80,000 men to work in the hill country. These men had the job of cutting rocks. And there were 70,000 men to carry the rocks. 16There were also 3,300 men who were the bosses over the people who did the work.

wrote Literally, “spoke.”
snakes Literally, “creeping things.” These can be anything from insects, to lizards or snakes, and fish.
carpenters People who work with wood. In ancient times, this also meant that they cut the trees.
120,000 bushels Literally, “20,000 kors” (4,400,000 l).
120,000 gallons Literally, “20,000 baths” (440,000 l).
King Solomon commanded them to cut out big, expensive stones to be the foundation for the temple. These stones were carefully cut. Then Solomon’s and Hiram’s builders and the men from Byblos* carved the stones. They prepared the stones and the logs for building the temple.

Solomon Builds the Temple

So Solomon began to build the temple. This was 480 years* after the people of Israel left Egypt. This was during Solomon’s fourth year as king of Israel. It was in the month of Ziv, the second month of the year. The temple was 60 cubits long, 20 cubits* wide, and 30 cubits* high. The porch of the temple was 20 cubits long and 10 cubits wide. The porch ran along the front of the main part of the temple itself. Its length was equal to the width of the temple. There were narrow windows in the temple. These windows were narrow on the outside and larger on the inside. Then Solomon built a row of rooms around the main part of the temple. These rooms were built on top of each other. This row of rooms was three stories tall. *The rooms touched the temple wall, but their beams were not built into that wall. That temple wall became thinner at the top. So the wall which made one side of those rooms was thinner than the wall below it. The rooms on the bottom floor were 5 cubits wide. The rooms on the middle floor were 6 cubits* wide. The rooms above that were 7 cubits* wide. *The workers used large stones to build the walls. The workers cut the stones at the place where they got them out of the ground. So there was no noise of hammers, axes, or any other iron tools in the temple. *The entrance to the bottom rooms was on the south side of the temple. Inside, there were stairs that went up to the second floor rooms and from there to the third floor rooms. *So, Solomon finished building the temple. Every part in the temple was covered with cedar boards. Solomon also finished building the rooms around the temple. Each story was 5 cubits tall. The cedar beams in those rooms touched the temple. *The Lord said to Solomon, *If you obey all my laws and commands, I will do the thing for you that I promised your father David. And I will live among the children of Israel in this temple that you are building. I will never leave the people of Israel.

Details About the Temple

So Solomon finished building the temple. *The stone walls inside the temple were covered with cedar boards. The cedar boards went from the floor to the ceiling. The stone floor was covered with pine boards. They built a room 20 cubits long deep inside the back part of the temple. They covered the walls in this room with cedar boards. The cedar boards went from the floor to the ceiling. This room was called the Most Holy Place. In front of the Most Holy Place, was the main part of the temple. This room was 40 cubits long. They covered the walls in this room with cedar boards—none of the stones in the walls could be seen. They carved pictures of flowers and gourds into the cedar. *Solomon prepared the room deep inside the back part of the temple. This room was for the Lord’s Box of the Agreement. This room was 20 cubits long, 20 cubits wide, and 20 cubits high. Solomon covered this

---

Byblos Or, “Gebal.”

480 years This was about 960 B.C.

60 cubits 103’ 4 3/16" (31.5m).

20 cubits 29’ 3 3/8" (10.5m).

30 cubits 51’ 8 1/16" (15.75m). The ancient Greek translation has “25 cubits.”

10 cubits 17’ 2 11/16" (5.25m).

These windows ... inside This might also mean, “These were windows with lattice work over them.”

5 cubits 8’ 7 5/16" (2.625m).

6 cubits 10’ 4" (3.15m).

7 cubits 12’ 11/16" (3.675m).

gourds A plant with long vines. Its fruit grows in the shape of a jar and becomes hard like wood.

Box of the Agreement Also called “The Ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.
room with pure gold. He built an incense altar in front of this room. He covered the altar with gold, \(21\) and wrapped gold chains around it. There were two statues of Cherub angels\(^*\) in that room. Those statues were covered with gold. \(22\) All of the temple was covered with gold. Also, the altar in front of the Most Holy Place was covered with gold.

\(23\) The workers made two statues of Cherub angels\(^\) with wings. The workers made the statues from olive wood. These Cherub angels were put in the Most Holy Place. Each angel was 10 cubits\(^\) tall. \(24\)–\(26\) Both Cherub angels were the same size and built the same way. Each Cherub angel had two wings. Each wing was 5 cubits\(^*\) long. From the end of one wing to the end of the other wing was 10 cubits. And each Cherub angel was 10 cubits tall. \(27\) These Cherub angels were put in the Most Holy Place. They stood beside each other. Their wings touched each other in the middle of the room. The other two wings touched each side wall. \(28\) The two Cherub angels were covered with gold.

\(29\) The walls around the main room and the inner room were carved with pictures of Cherub angels, palm trees, and flowers. \(30\) The floor of both rooms was covered with gold.

\(31\) The workers made two doors from olive wood. They put those doors at the entrance of the Most Holy Place. The frame around the doors was made with five sides. \(32\) They made the two doors from olive wood. The workers carved pictures of Cherub angels, palm trees, and flowers on the doors. Then they covered the doors with gold.

\(33\) They also made doors for the entrance to the main room. They used olive wood to make a square doorframe. \(34\) Then they used fir\(^*\) to make the doors. There were two doors. Each door had two parts, so the two doors folded. \(35\) They carved pictures of Cherub angels, palm trees, and flowers on the doors. Then they covered them with gold.

\(36\) Then they built the inner yard. They built walls around this yard. Each wall was made from three rows of cut stones and one row of cedar timbers.

\(37\) They started working on the temple in the month of Ziv, the second month of the year. This was during Solomon’s fourth year as king of the Israel. \(38\) The temple was finished in the month of Bul, the eighth month of the year. This was during the eleventh year that Solomon ruled over the people. It took seven years to build the temple. The temple was built exactly the way it was planned.

Solomon’s Palace

\(7\) King Solomon also built a palace\(^\) for himself. It took 13 years to finish building Solomon’s palace. \(2\) He also built the building called “the Forest of Lebanon.” It was 100 cubits\(^\) long, 50 cubits\(^\) wide, and 30 cubits\(^\) high. It had four rows of cedar columns. On top of each column was a cedar capital. \(3\) There were cedar beams going across the rows of columns. They put cedar boards on top of these beams for the ceiling. There were 15 beams for each section of columns. There was a total of 45 beams. \(4\) There were three rows of windows on each of the side walls. The windows were across from each other. \(5\) There were three doors at each end. All the door openings and frames were square.

\(6\) Solomon also built the “Porch of Columns.” It was 50 cubits\(^\) long and 30 cubits\(^\) wide. Along the front of the porch, there was a covering supported by columns.

\(7\) Solomon also built a throne room where he judged people. He called this the “Hall of Judging.” The room was covered with cedar from the floor to the ceiling.

\(8\) The house where Solomon lived was inside of the Hall of Judging. This house was built the same as the Hall of Judging. He also

---

Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

- 10 cubits = 17' 2 11/16" (5.25m).
- 5 cubits = 8' 7 5/16" (2.625m).

The frame ... sides We are not sure of the meaning here.

fir A type of tree, like a pine tree.

palace A large house for the king and his family.

- 100 cubits = 172' 3" (52.5m).
- 50 cubits = 86' 1 1/2" (26.25m).
- 30 cubits = 51' 8 1/16" (15.75m).

capital(s) Decorated caps of stone or wood on top of columns.
built the same kind of house for his wife, the daughter of the king of Egypt.

9 All of these buildings were made with expensive blocks of stone. These stones were cut to the right size with a saw. They were cut in the front and in the back. These expensive stones went from the foundation up to the top layer of the wall. Even the wall around the yard was made with expensive blocks of stone. 10 The foundations were made with large, expensive stones. Some of the stones were 10 cubits* long and others were 8 cubits* long. 11 On top of those stones there were other expensive stones and cedar beams.

12 There were walls around the palace yard, the temple yard, and the porch of the temple. Those walls were built with three rows of stone and one row of cedar timbers.

13 King Solomon sent a message to a man named Huram* in Tyre. Solomon brought Huram to Jerusalem. 14 Huram’s mother was an Israelite from the family group of Naphtali. His dead father was from Tyre. Huram made things from bronze.* He was a very skilled and experienced worker. So King Solomon asked him to come, and Huram accepted. So King Solomon put Huram in charge of all the bronze work. Huram built all the things made from bronze.

15 Huram* made two bronze* columns. Each column was 18 cubits* tall and 12 cubits* around. The columns were hollow and the metal was 3 inches* thick. 16 Huram also made two bronze capitals* that were 5 cubits* tall. Huram put these capitals on top of the columns. 17 Then he made two nets of chains to cover the capitals on top of the columns. 18 Then he made two rows of bronze* that looked like pomegranates.* They put these bronze pomegranates on the nets of each column in order to cover the capitals at the top of the columns. 19 The capitals on top of the 5 cubits* tall columns were shaped like flowers. 20 The capitals were on top of the columns. They were above the bowl-shaped net. At that place, there were 200 pomegranates in rows all around the capitals. 21 Huram put these two bronze columns at the porch of the temple. One column was put on the south side and one was put on the north side of the entrance of the temple. The column on the south was named Jakin. The column on the north was named Boaz. 22 They put the flower-shaped capitals on top of the columns. So the work on the two columns was finished.

23 Then Huram* made a round tank from bronze.* (They called this tank “The Sea.”) The tank was about 30 cubits* around. It was 10 cubits* across and 5 cubits* deep. 24 There was a rim around the outer edge of the tank. Under this rim there were two rows of bronze gourds* surrounding the tank. The bronze gourds were made in one piece as part of the tank. 25 The tank rested on the backs of 12 bronze bulls. All 12 of these bulls were looking out, away from the tank. Three were looking north, three east, three south, and three west. 26 The sides of the tank were 3 inches* thick. The rim around the tank was like the rim of a cup or like the petals on a flower. The tank held about 11,000 gallons.*

27 Then Huram* made ten bronze* carts. Each one was 4 cubits* long, 4 cubits wide, and 3 cubits* high. 28 The carts were made from square panels set in frames. 29 On the panels and frames were bronze lions, bulls, and Cherub angels.* Above and below the lions and bulls there were designs of flowers hammered into the bronze. 30 Each cart had four bronze wheels with bronze axles. At the corners there were bronze supports for a large 10 cubits 17’ 2 11/16” (5.25m).

---

8 cubits 13’ 9 5/16” (4.2m).
Huram Or, “Hiram.”
bronze A metal. The Hebrew word can mean “copper,” “bronze,” or “brass.”
18 cubits 31’ (9.45m).
12 cubits 20’ 8” (6.3m).
3 inches Literally, “1 handbreadth” (8cm).
capital(s) Decorated caps of stone or wood on top of columns.
5 cubits 8’ 7 5/16” (2.625m).
pomegranates A red fruit with many tiny seeds inside it. Each seed is covered with a soft, tasty part of the fruit.
11,000 gallons Literally, “2,000 baths” (44,000 l).
gourds A plant with long vines. Its fruit grows in the shape of a jar and becomes hard like wood.
Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.
bowl. The supports had designs of flowers hammered into the bronze. 31 There was a frame on top for the bowl. It was 1 cubit* tall above the bowls. The opening for the bowl was round, 1 1/2 cubits* in diameter. There were designs carved into the bronze on the frame. The frame was square, not round.

32 There were four wheels under the frame. The wheels were 1 1/2 cubits in diameter. The axles between the wheels were made as one piece with the cart. 33 The wheels were like the wheels on a chariot.* Everything on the wheels—the axles, the rims, the spokes, and the hubs were made from bronze.

34 The four supports were on the four corners of each cart. They were made as one piece with the cart. 35 There was a strip of bronze around the top of each cart. It was made as one piece with the cart. 36 The sides of the cart and the frames had pictures of Cherub angels,* lions, and palm trees carved into the bronze. These pictures were carved all over the carts—wherever there was room. And there were flowers carved on the frame around the cart. 37 Huram* made ten carts. And they were all the same. Each cart was made from bronze. The bronze was melted and poured into a mold. So all of the carts were the same size and shape.

38 Huram* also made ten bowls. There was one bowl for each of the ten carts. Each bowl was 4 cubits* across. And each bowl could hold about 230 gallons.* 39 Huram put five of the carts on the south side of the temple and the other five carts on the north side. He put the large tank in the southeast corner of the temple. 40–45 Huram also made pots, small shovels, and small bowls. Huram finished making all of the things King Solomon wanted him to make. This is a list of the things that Huram made for the Temple of the Lord:

2 columns
2 capitals* shaped like bowls for the top of the columns
2 nets to go around the capitals
400 pomegranates for the two nets. There were two rows of pomegranates for each net to cover the two bowls for the capitals on top of the columns.
10 carts with a bowl on each cart.
The large tank with 12 bulls under it.
The pots, small shovels, small bowls, and all the dishes for the Lord’s temple.

Huram* made all the things that King Solomon wanted. They were all made from polished bronze. 46–47 Solomon never weighed the bronze that was used to make these things. There was too much to weigh. So the total weight of all the bronze was never known. The king ordered these things to be made near the Jordan River between Succoth and Zarethan. They made these things by melting the bronze and pouring it into molds in the ground.

48–50 Solomon also commanded that many things be made from gold for the temple. These are the things that Solomon made from gold for the temple:
the golden altar;
the golden table (The special bread offered to God was on this table.);
the lampstands of pure gold (There were five on the south side and five on the north side in front of the Most Holy Place.);
the gold flowers, lamps, and tongs;
the pure gold bowls, wick trimmers, small bowls, pans, and dishes for carrying coals;
the gold hinges for the doors to the inner room (the Most Holy Place) and for the doors to the main room of the temple.

51 So King Solomon finished the work he wanted to do for the Lord’s temple. Then King Solomon got all the things that his father David had saved for this special purpose. He brought these things into the temple. He put... the silver and gold in the treasuries in the Lord’s Temple.

The Box of the Agreement in the Temple

8 Then King Solomon called together all the elders of Israel, the heads of the family groups, and the leaders of the families of Israel. He asked them to come to him in Jerusalem. Solomon wanted them to join in bringing the Box of the Agreement* from the City of David* into the temple. So all the men of Israel came together with King Solomon. This was during the time of the special holiday (the Festival of Shelters) during the month of Ethanim (the seventh month of the year).

3 All of the elders of Israel arrived at that place. Then the priests took the Holy Box.* They carried the Holy Box of the Lord along with the Meeting Tent* and the holy things that were in the tent. The Levites* helped the priests carry these things. King Solomon and all the people of Israel met together before the Box of the Agreement.* They offered many sacrifices.* They killed so many sheep and cattle that no person was able to count them all. Then the priests put the Box of the Agreement of the Lord in its right place. This was inside the Most Holy Place in the temple. The Box of the Agreement was put under the wings of the Cherub angels.* These carrying poles were very long. Any person that stood in the Holy Place in front of the Most Holy Place could see the ends of the poles. But no one outside could see them. The poles are still in there today. The only thing inside the Holy Box were the two tablets. These were the two tablets that Moses put in the Holy Box at the place called Horeb. Horeb was the place that the Lord made his Agreement with the people of Israel after they came out of Egypt.

10 The priests put the Holy Box in the Most Holy Place. When the priests came out of the Holy Place, the Cloud* filled the Lord’s Temple. The priests could not continue their work because the temple was filled with the Glory of the Lord.* Then Solomon said:

“The Lord made the sun to shine in the sky, but he chose to live in the dark cloud.* I have built a wonderful temple for you, a place for you to live forever.”

13 All of the people of Israel were standing there. So King Solomon turned to them and asked God to bless them.

15 Then King Solomon prayed a long prayer to the Lord. This is what he said:

“The Lord, the God of Israel, is great. The Lord himself has done the things that he promised to my father David. The Lord told my father, “I brought my people, Israel, out of Egypt. But I had not yet chosen a city from among the family groups of Israel for a temple to honor me. And I had not chosen a man to be leader over my people, Israel. But now I have chosen Jerusalem to be the city where I will be honored. And I have chosen David to rule over my people, Israel.’

Box of the Agreement  Also called “The Ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

City of David  The southeast and oldest part of the city of Jerusalem.

Holy Box  The Box of the Agreement. Also called “The Ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

Meeting Tent  The Holy Tent (Tabernacle) where the people of Israel met to worship God.

Levites  People from the family group of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.

Cherub angels  Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

Cloud  The special sign that showed that God was with the people of Israel.

Glory of the Lord  One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. This was like a bright, shining light.

The Lord ... dark cloud  This is from an ancient version. The Hebrew has only, “The Lord said to dwell in darkness.”
17“My father David wanted very much to build a temple to honor the Lord, the God of Israel. 18But the Lord said to my father David, ‘I know that you want very much to build a temple to honor me. And this is good that you want to build my temple. 19But you are not the one that I have chosen to build the temple. Your son will build my temple!’

20“So the Lord has kept the promise that he gave. I am the king now in place of David my father. Now I rule the people of Israel like the Lord promised. And I built the temple for the Lord, the God of Israel. 21I have made a place in the temple for the Holy Box.* Inside that Holy Box is the Agreement that the Lord made with our ancestors. The Lord made that Agreement when he brought our ancestors out of Egypt.”

22 Then Solomon stood in front of the Lord’s altar.* All of the people were standing in front of him. King Solomon spread his hands and looked toward the sky. 23He said: “Lord, God of Israel, there is no other god like you in the skies or on the earth. You made the Agreements with your people because you love them. And you keep your Agreement. You are kind and loyal to people that follow you.

24You made a promise to your servant David, my father. And you have kept that promise. You made that promise with your own mouth. And with your great power you have made that promise come true today. 25Now, Lord, God of Israel, keep the other promises you made to your servant David, my father. You said, ‘David, your sons must carefully obey me, just like you did. If they do this, then you will always have someone from your family ruling the people of Israel.’ 26And again, Lord, God of Israel, I ask you to please continue to keep that promise to my father.

27“But, God, will you really live here with us on the earth? All the sky and the highest place in heaven cannot contain you. Certainly this house which I have built cannot contain you either. 28But please listen to my prayer and my request. I am your servant, and you are the Lord my God. Hear this prayer that I am praying to you today. 29In the past you said, ‘I will be honored there.’ So please watch this temple night and day. Please listen to the prayer that I pray to you at this temple. 30Lord, I and your people Israel will turn to this place and pray to you. Please hear those prayers! We know that you live in heaven. We ask you to hear our prayer there and forgive us.

31“If a person does something wrong against another person, he will be brought here to the altar. If that person is not guilty, then he will make an oath. He will promise that he is innocent. 32Then listen in heaven and judge the man. If the person is guilty, then please show us that he is guilty. And if the person is innocent, then please show us that he is not guilty.

33“Sometimes your people Israel will sin against you, and their enemies will defeat them. Then the people will come back to you and praise you. The people will pray to you in this temple. 34Please hear them in heaven. Then forgive the sins of your people Israel, and allow them to have their land again. You gave this land to their ancestors.

35“Sometimes they will sin against you, and you will stop the rain from falling on their land. Then they will pray toward this place and praise your name. You make them suffer, and they will be sorry for their sins. 36So please listen in heaven to their prayer. Then forgive us for our sins. Teach the people to live right. Then, Lord, please send rain to the land you gave them.

37“The land might become very dry and no food will grow on it. Or maybe a great sickness will spread among the people. Maybe all of the food that is growing will be destroyed by insects. Or your people might be attacked in some of their cities by their enemies. Or many of your people might become sick. 38When any of these things happen, if even one man is sorry for his sins, and spreads his hands in prayer toward this

---

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement. Also called “The Ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.
402

KING 8:39–64

402

temple, 39 Please listen to his prayer. Listen to it while you are in your home in heaven. Then forgive the people and help them. Only you know the things that people are really thinking. So judge each person and be fair to him. 40 Do this so that your people will fear and respect you all the time that they live in this land that you gave to our ancestors.

41–42 "People from other places will hear about your greatness and your power. They will come from far away to pray at this temple. 43 From your home in heaven please listen to their prayers. Please do all that those people from other places ask you. Then those people will fear and respect you the same as your people in Israel. Then all people everywhere will know that I built this temple to honor you.

44 "Sometimes you will command your people to go and fight against their enemies. Then your people will turn toward this city which you have chosen and the temple that I have built for your honor. And they will pray to you. 45 At that time, listen to their prayers from your home in heaven, and help them.

46 "Your people will sin against you. I know this because every person sins. And you will be angry with your people. You will let their enemies defeat them. Their enemies will make them prisoners and carry them to some faraway land. 47 In that faraway land, your people will think about what happened. They will be sorry for their sins, and they will pray to you. They will say, ‘We have sinned and done wrong.’ 48 They will be in that faraway land. But if they turn toward this land that you gave to their ancestors, and toward this city you chose, and toward this temple I built to honor you, 49 then please listen from your home in heaven. 50 Forgive your people of all their sins. And forgive them for turning against you. Make their enemies be kind to them. 51 Remember that they are your people. Remember that you brought them out of Egypt. It was like you saved them by pulling them out of a hot oven!

52 "Lord God, please listen to my prayers and to the prayers of your people Israel. Listen to their prayers any time that they ask you for help. 53 You have chosen them from all the peoples of the earth to be your own special people. Lord, you promised to do that for us. You used your servant Moses at the time you brought our ancestors out of Egypt."

54 Solomon prayed that prayer to God. He was on his knees in front of the altar. Solomon prayed with his arms raised toward heaven. Then Solomon finished praying and stood. 55 Then, in a loud voice, he asked God to bless all the people of Israel. Solomon said:

56 "Praise the Lord! He promised to give rest to his people, Israel. And he has given us rest! The Lord used his servant Moses and made many good promises to the people of Israel. And the Lord has kept every one of those promises! 57 I pray that the Lord our God will be with us, just like he was with our ancestors. I pray that the Lord will never leave us. 58 I pray that we will turn to him and follow him. Then we will obey all the laws, decisions, and commands that he gave our ancestors. 59 I hope that the Lord our God will always remember this prayer and the things I have asked. I pray that the Lord will do these things for his servant, the king, and for his people, Israel. I pray that he will do this every day. 60 If the Lord will do these things, then all the people of the world will know that the Lord is the only true God. 61 You people must be loyal and true to the Lord our God. You must always follow and obey all of his laws and commands. You must continue to obey in the future like you do now."

62 Then King Solomon and all the people of Israel with him offered sacrifices to the Lord. Solomon killed 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep. These were for the fellowship offerings. In this way, the king and the people of Israel showed that they had given the temple to the Lord.

64 Also, that day King Solomon dedicated the yard in front of the temple. He offered burnt offerings, grain offerings, and the fat ancestors Literally, “fathers.” This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.
from the animals that were used as fellowship offerings. King Solomon made these offerings there in the yard. He did this because the bronze altar in front of the Lord was too small to hold them all.

65So there at the temple, King Solomon and all the people of Israel celebrated the holiday.* All Israel was there, from as far away as Hamath Pass in the north, to the border of Egypt in the south. Many, many people were there. They ate, drank, and enjoyed themselves together with the Lord for seven days. Then they stayed for another seven days. They celebrated for a total of 14 days!* 66The next day, Solomon told the people to go home. All the people thanked the king, said goodbye, and went home. They were happy because of all the good things that the Lord had done for David his servant and for his people Israel.

God Comes to Solomon Again

So Solomon finished building the Lord’s temple and his own palace. Solomon built all the things that he wanted to build. 2Then the Lord appeared to Solomon again, just as he had done before in the town of Gibeon. 3The Lord said to him: “I heard your prayer. I heard the things that you asked me to do. You built this temple. And I have made it a holy place. So I will be honored there forever. I will watch over it and think of it always. 4You must serve me the same way your father David did. He was fair and sincere. And you must obey my laws and do all the things that I commanded you.

5“If you do all these things, then I will make sure that the king of Israel is always someone from your family. This is the promise I made to your father David. I told him that Israel would always be ruled by one of his descendants.*

6-7“But if you or your children stop following me, and don’t obey the laws and commands I have given you, and if you serve and worship other gods, then I will force Israel to leave the land I have given to them. Israel will be an example to other people. Other people will make jokes about Israel. I made the temple holy. It is the place where people honor me. But if you don’t obey me, then I will tear it down. 8This temple will be destroyed. Every person who sees it will be amazed. They will ask, ‘Why did the Lord do this terrible thing to this land and to this temple?’ 9Other people will answer, ‘This happened because they left the Lord their God. He brought their ancestors out of Egypt. But they decided to follow other gods. They began to worship and serve those gods. That is why the Lord caused all these bad things to happen to them.’”

10It took 20 years for King Solomon to build the Lord’s temple and the king’s palace.* 11And after 20 years King Solomon gave 20 towns in Galilee to Hiram the king of Tyre. Solomon gave King Hiram these towns because Hiram helped Solomon build the temple and the palace. Hiram gave Solomon all the cedar and pine and gold that Solomon wanted. 12So Hiram traveled from Tyre to see the towns that Solomon gave him. When Hiram saw those towns, he was not pleased. 13King Hiram said, “What are these towns that you have given me, my brother?” King Hiram named that land the Land of Cabul.* And that area is still called Cabul today. 14Hiram had sent to King Solomon about 9,000 pounds* of gold to use in building the temple.

15King Solomon forced slaves to work for him to build the temple and the palace. Then King Solomon used these slaves to build many other things. He built the Millo.* He also built the city wall around Jerusalem. Then he built again the cities of Hazor, Megiddo, and Gezer.

16In the past, the king of Egypt fought against the city of Gezer and burned it. He killed the Canaanite people who lived there. Solomon married Pharaoh’s daughter. So holiday  This was probably Passover.

---

Then they stayed ... 14 days  This is not in the ancient Greek translation.

descendants  A person’s children and all of their future families.

---

palace  A large house for the king and his family.

Cabul  This name is like the Hebrew word meaning “worthless.”

9,000 pounds  Or “4080kg. Literally, “420 talents.”

Millo  The Millo was probably a raised platform of land southeast of the temple area in Jerusalem.
Pharaoh gave that city to Solomon as a wedding present. Solomon built that city again. Solomon also built the city of Lower Beth Horon. King Solomon also built the cities of Baalath and Tamar in the Judean desert. King Solomon also built cities where he could store grain and things. And he built places for his chariots and his horses. King Solomon also built many things that he wanted in Jerusalem and in Lebanon and in all the places he ruled.

There were people in the land that were not Israelites. Those people were the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. The Israelites had not been able to destroy those people. But Solomon forced them to work for him as slaves. They are still slaves today. Solomon did not force any Israelites to be his slaves. The people of Israel were soldiers, government officials, officers, captains, and chariot commanders and drivers.

There were 550 supervisors over Solomon’s projects. They were bosses over the men who did the work. Pharaoh’s daughter moved from the City of David to the big house that Solomon built for her. Then Solomon built the Millo.*

Three times each year Solomon offered burned sacrifices and fellowship offerings on the altar. This is the altar that Solomon built for the Lord. King Solomon also burned incense before the Lord. So he supplied the things needed for the temple.

King Solomon also built ships at Ezion Geber. This town is near Elath on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom. King Hiram had some men who knew much about the sea. Those men often traveled in ships. King Hiram sent those men to serve in Solomon’s navy and work with Solomon’s men. Solomon’s ships went to Ophir. The ships brought about 31,500 pounds* of gold back from Ophir to King Solomon.

The Queen of Sheba Visits Solomon

The queen of Sheba heard about Solomon. So she came to test him with hard questions. She traveled to Jerusalem with a very large group of servants. There were many camels carrying spices, jewels, and much gold. She met Solomon and asked him all the questions that she could think of. Solomon answered all the questions. None of her questions were too hard for him to explain. The queen of Sheba saw that Solomon was very wise. She also saw the beautiful palace* he had built. The queen saw the food at the king’s table. She saw his officials meeting together. She saw the servants in the palace and the good clothes that they wore. She saw his parties and the sacrifices that he offered in the temple. All these things really amazed her—they just ‘took her breath away’!

So the queen said to the king, “I heard many things in my own country about your wisdom and all the things you have done. And everything is true! I did not believe it until I came and saw it with my own eyes. Now I see that it is even greater than what I heard. Your wealth and wisdom is much greater than people told me. Your wives* and officers are very fortunate! They can serve you and hear your wisdom every day! Praise the Lord your God! He was pleased to make you king of Israel. The Lord God loves Israel. So he made you the king. You follow the law and treat people fairly.”

Then the queen gave the king about 9,000 pounds* of gold. She also gave him many spices and jewels. The queen of Sheba gave to Solomon more spices than anyone has ever brought into Israel.

Hiram’s ships brought gold from Ophir. Those ships also brought very much wood* and jewels. Solomon used the wood to build supports in the temple and the palace. He also Millo The Millo was probably a raised platform of land southeast of the temple area in Jerusalem.

31,500 pounds Or, “14,280kg.” Literally, “420 talents.”

The queen of Sheba Visits Solomon

10 The queen of Sheba heard about Solomon. So she came to test him with hard questions. She traveled to Jerusalem with a very large group of servants. There were many camels carrying spices, jewels, and much gold. She met Solomon and asked him all the questions that she could think of. Solomon answered all the questions. None of her questions were too hard for him to explain. The queen of Sheba saw that Solomon was very wise. She also saw the beautiful palace* he had built. The queen saw the food at the king’s table. She saw his officials meeting together. She saw the servants in the palace and the good clothes that they wore. She saw his parties and the sacrifices that he offered in the temple. All these things really amazed her—they just ‘took her breath away’!

6 So the queen said to the king, “I heard many things in my own country about your wisdom and all the things you have done. And everything is true! I did not believe it until I came and saw it with my own eyes. Now I see that it is even greater than what I heard. Your wealth and wisdom is much greater than people told me. Your wives* and officers are very fortunate! They can serve you and hear your wisdom every day! Praise the Lord your God! He was pleased to make you king of Israel. The Lord God loves Israel. So he made you the king. You follow the law and treat people fairly.”

10 Then the queen gave the king about 9,000 pounds* of gold. She also gave him many spices and jewels. The queen of Sheba gave to Solomon more spices than anyone has ever brought into Israel.

11 Hiram’s ships brought gold from Ophir. Those ships also brought very much wood* and jewels. Solomon used the wood to build supports in the temple and the palace. He also palace A large house for the king and his family.

wives This comes from the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew has “men.”
9,000 pounds Or, “4,080kg” Literally, “120 talents.”
wood This is a special kind of wood called “Almug.” No one knows exactly what type of wood this was.
used the wood to make harps and lyres for the singers. No other person has ever brought that kind of wood to Israel, and no person has seen that kind of wood since that time.

13 Then King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba gifts that a king usually gives to a ruler from another country. Then he gave her anything else she asked for. After this, the queen and her servants went back to her own country.

14 Every year King Solomon got about 79,920 pounds of gold. Besides the gold from the cargo ships, he also got gold from the traders and merchants, and from the kings of Arabia and governors of the land.

15 King Solomon made 200 large shields of hammered gold. Each shield contained about 15 pounds of gold. He also made 300 smaller shields of hammered gold. Each shield contained about 4 pounds of gold. The king put them in the building called the “Forest of Lebanon.”

16 King Solomon also built a large ivory throne. He covered it with pure gold. There were six steps leading up to the throne. The back of the throne was round at the top. There were armrests on both sides of the chair. And in the sides of the chair under the two armrests there were pictures of lions. There were also two lions on each of the six steps. There was one lion at each end. There was nothing like this in any other kingdom.

17 Solomon also had many cargo ships that he sent out to trade things with other countries. These were Hiram’s ships. Every three years the ships would come back with a new load of gold, silver, ivory, and animals.

22 The king also had many cargo ships that he sent out to trade things with other countries. These were Hiram’s ships. Every three years the ships would come back with a new load of gold, silver, ivory, and animals.

23 Solomon was the greatest king on earth. He had the most riches and wisdom of all kings. People everywhere wanted to see King Solomon. They wanted to hear the great wisdom that God had given him. Every year people came to see the king. And every person brought a gift. They brought things made from gold and silver, clothes, weapons, spices, horses, and mules.

25 Solomon had many, many chariots and horses. He had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horses. Solomon built special cities for these chariots. So the chariots were kept in those cities. King Solomon also kept some of the chariots with him in Jerusalem. The king made Israel very rich. In the city of Jerusalem, silver was as common as rocks and cedar wood was as common as the many, many fig trees growing on the hills.

26 Solomon brought horses from Egypt and Kue. His traders bought them in Kue and brought them to Israel. A chariot from Egypt cost about 15 pounds of silver, and a horse cost about 3 3/4 pounds of silver. Solomon sold horses and chariots to the kings of the Hittites and the Arameans.

Solomon and His Many Wives

King Solomon loved women! He loved many women that were not from the nation of Israel. These included the daughter of Pharaoh, Hittite women and women from Moab, Ammon, Edom, and Sidon. In the past, the Lord had said to the people of Israel, “You must not marry people from other nations. If you do, then those people will cause you to follow their gods.” But Solomon fell in love with these women. Solomon had 700 wives. (These women were all daughters of leaders from other nations.) He also had 300 slave women that were like wives to him. His wives caused him to turn away from God.
KINGS 11:5–26

follow other gods. Solomon did not follow the Lord completely the way that his father David had done. Solomon worshiped Ashtoreth. This was the god of the people of Sidon. And Solomon worshiped Milcom. This was that horrible idol of the Ammonite people. So Solomon did wrong before the Lord. Solomon did not follow the Lord completely the way his father David had done.

Solomon built a place for worshiping Chemosh. Chemosh was that horrible idol of the Moabite people. Solomon built that worship place on a hill next to Jerusalem. On that same hill, Solomon built a worship place for Molech. Molech was that horrible idol of the Ammonite people. Then Solomon did the same thing for all of his wives from other countries. His wives burned incense and gave sacrifices to their gods.

Solomon turned away from following the Lord, the God of Israel. So the Lord became angry at Solomon. The Lord had come to Solomon twice. The Lord told Solomon that he must not follow other gods. But Solomon did not obey the Lord's command. So the Lord said to Solomon, “You have chosen to break your agreement with me. You have not obeyed my commands. So I promise that I will tear your kingdom away from you. I will give it to one of your servants. But I loved your father David. So I will not take your kingdom away from you while you are living. I will wait until your son becomes king. Then I will take it from him. Still, I will not tear away all of the kingdom from your son. I will leave him one family group to rule. I will do this for David—He was a good servant. And I will do this for Jerusalem—that is the city I chose.”

Solomon's Enemies

At that time, the Lord caused Hadad the Edomite to become Solomon’s enemy. Hadad was from the family of the king of Edom.

Ashoreth. The Canaanite people thought that this false goddess could make people able to have babies. She was their goddess of love and war.

Milcom. The god of the Ammonite people.

Incense. Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

This is how it happened: Earlier David defeated Edom. Joab was the commander of David’s army. Joab went into Edom to bury dead people. Joab killed all the men still living there. Joab and all Israel stayed in Edom for six months. During that time they killed all of the men of Edom. But at that time Hadad was only a young boy. So Hadad ran away to Egypt. Some of his father’s servants went with him. They left Midian and went to Paran. In Paran some other people joined them. Then the whole group went to Egypt. They went to Pharaoh the king of Egypt and asked for help. Pharaoh gave Hadad a house and some land. Pharaoh also supported him and gave him food to eat.

Pharaoh liked Hadad very much. Pharaoh gave Hadad a wife. The woman was Pharaoh’s sister-in-law. (Pharaoh’s wife was Queen Tahpenes.) So the sister of Tahpenes married Hadad. They had a son named Genubath. Queen Tahpenes allowed Genubath to grow up in Pharaoh’s house with his children.

In Egypt, Hadad heard that David had died. He also heard that Joab, the commander of the army was dead. So Hadad said to Pharaoh, “Let me go home to my own country.”

But Pharaoh answered, “I have given you everything you need here! Why do you want to go back to your own country?”

Hadad answered, “Please, just let me go home.”

God also caused another man to be an enemy against Solomon. This man was Rezon, son of Eliada. Rezon ran away from his master. His master was Hadadezer, king of Zobah. After David defeated the army of Zobah, Rezon gathered some men and became the leader of a small army. Rezon went to Damascus and stayed there. Rezon became king of Damascus. Rezon ruled Aram. Rezon hated Israel, so he continued to be an enemy of Israel all of the time that Solomon lived. Rezon and Hadad caused much trouble for Israel.

Jeroboam son of Nebat was one of Solomon’s servants. Jeroboam was from the family group of Ephraim. He was from the town of Zeredah. Jeroboam’s mother was named Zeruah. His father was dead. He turned against the king.

27This is the story of why Jeroboam turned against the king. Solomon was building the Millo* and fixing the wall of the city of David his father. 28Jeroboam was a strong man. Solomon saw that this young man was a good worker. So Solomon made him the boss over all of the workers from the family group of Joseph.* 29One day Jeroboam was traveling out of Jerusalem. Ahijah the prophet from Shiloh met him on the road. Ahijah was wearing a new coat. These two men were alone in the country. 30Ahijah took his new coat and tore it into twelve pieces.

31Then Ahijah said to Jeroboam, “Take ten pieces of this coat for yourself. The Lord the God of Israel says: ‘I will tear the kingdom away from Solomon, and I will give you ten of the family groups. 32And I will allow David’s family to control only one family group. I will let them keep this group. I will do this for my servant David and for Jerusalem. Jerusalem is the city which I chose from all the family groups of Israel. 33I will take the kingdom from Solomon because he stopped following me. He worships Ashtoreth, the false goddess of Sidon. He worships Chemosh, the false god of Moab. And he worships Milcom, the false god of the Ammonites. Solomon stopped doing the things that are right and good. He does not obey my laws and my commands. He is not living the way that his father David lived. 34So I will take the kingdom away from Solomon’s family. But I will let Solomon be their ruler for the rest of his life. I will do this for my servant David. I chose David because he obeyed all my commands and laws. 35But I will take the kingdom away from his son. And Jeroboam, I will allow you to rule over the ten family groups. 36I will allow Solomon’s son to continue to rule over one family group. I will do this so that my servant David will always have a descendant to rule before me in Jerusalem, the city that I chose to be my own.

37But I will make you rule over everything you want. You will rule over all of Israel. 38I will do these things for you if you will live right and obey all my commands. If you obey the laws and commands like David, then I will be with you. I will make your family a family of kings, like I did for David. I will give Israel to you. 39I will punish David’s children because of the things Solomon did. But I will not punish them forever.’”

Solomon’s Death

40Solomon tried to kill Jeroboam. But Jeroboam ran away to Egypt. He went to Shishak the king of Egypt. Jeroboam stayed there until Solomon died.

41Solomon did many great and wise things while he ruled. All of these things are written in the book The History of Solomon. 42Solomon ruled in Jerusalem over all Israel for 40 years. 43Then Solomon died and was buried with his ancestors.* He was buried in the city of David, his father. Then Solomon’s son, Rehoboam, became the next king after him.

Civil War

121–3Jeroboam son of Nebat was still in Egypt where he had run away from Solomon. When he heard about Solomon’s death, he returned to his city, Zeredah, in the hills of Ephraim.

Rehoboam and all of the people of Israel went to Shechem. They went to make Rehoboam the king. The people said to Rehoboam, “Your father forced us to work very hard. Now, make it easier for us. Stop the heavy work that your father forced us to do. Then we will serve you.”

5Rehoboam answered, “Come back to me in three days and I will answer you.” So the people left.

6There were some older men who had helped Solomon make decisions when he was alive. So King Rehoboam asked these men

---

Millo The Millo was probably a raised platform of land southeast of the temple area in Jerusalem.

family group of Joseph The people from the family groups of Ephraim and Manasseh, Joseph’s sons.

died and was buried with his ancestors Literally, “slept with his ancestors.”
what he should do. He said, “How do you think I should answer these people?”

7The elders answered, “If you are like a servant to them today, then they will truly serve you. If you speak kindly to them, then they will work for you always.”

8But Rehoboam did not listen to this advice. He asked the young men that were his friends. 9Rehoboam said, ‘Give us easier work than your father gave us.’ How do you think I should answer these people? What should I tell them?”

10The king’s young friends said, “Those people came to you and said, ‘Your father forced us to work very hard. Now make our work easier.’ So you should {brag and} tell them, ‘My little finger is stronger than my father’s whole body. 11My father forced you to work hard. But I will make you work much harder! My father used whips to force you to work. I will beat you with whips that have sharp pieces of metal in them* to cut you!’”

12Rehoboam had told the people, “Come back to me in three days.” So after three days all the people of Israel came back to Rehoboam. 13At that time, King Rehoboam spoke hard words to them. He did not listen to the advice from the elders. 14He did what his friends told him to do. Rehoboam said, “My father forced you to work hard. So I will give you even more work. My father used whips to force you to work. I will beat you with whips that have sharp pieces of metal in them* to cut you!”

15So the king did not do what the people wanted. The Lord caused this to happen. The Lord did this in order to keep the promise he made to Jeroboam son of Nebat. The Lord used Ahijah the prophet to make this promise. Ahijah was from Shiloh.

16All the people of Israel saw that the new king refused to listen to them. So the people said to the king: “Are we part of David’s family? No! Do we get any of Jesse’s land? No! So Israel, let’s go to our own homes. Let David’s son rule his own people!” So the people of Israel went home. 17But Rehoboam still ruled over the Israelites who lived in the cities of Judah.

18A man named Adoniram was the boss over all the workers. King Rehoboam sent Adoniram {to talk to the people}. But the people of Israel threw stones at him until he died. Then King Rehoboam ran to his chariot* and escaped to Jerusalem. 19So Israel rebelled (turned against) the family of David. And they are still against David’s family today.

20All the people of Israel heard that Jeroboam had come back. So they called him to a meeting and made him king over all of Israel. The family group of Judah was the only family group that continued to follow the family of David.

21Rehoboam went back to Jerusalem. He gathered together the families of Judah and the family group of Benjamin. This was an army of 180,000 men. Rehoboam wanted to fight against the people of Israel. He wanted to take his kingdom back.

22But the Lord spoke to a man of God.* His name was Shemaiah. The Lord said, 23“Talk to Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and also to all the people of Judah and Benjamin. 24Say to them, ‘The Lord says that you must not go to war against your brothers. Every one of you should go home. I made all these things happen!’” So the men in Rehoboam’s army obeyed the Lord’s command. They all went home.

25Shechem was a city in the hill country of Ephraim. Jeroboam made Shechem a very strong city and lived there. Later he went to the city of Penuel* and made it stronger.

26–27 Jeroboam said to himself, “If the people continue going to the Lord’s temple in Jerusalem, then they will want to be ruled by David’s family. The people will follow Rehoboam, king of Judah again. Then they will kill me. 28So the king asked his advisers what he should do. They gave him their advice: So Jeroboam made two golden calves. King Jeroboam said to the people, “You should not go to Jerusalem to worship.

whips … metal in them  Or, “scorpions.”

chariot(s)  A small wagon used in war.
man of God  Another name for a prophet.
Penuel  Or “Peniel.”
Israel, these are the gods that brought you out of Egypt."* 29King Jeroboam put one golden calf in Bethel.* He put the other golden calf in the city of Dan.* 30But this was a very great sin. The people of Israel traveled to the cities of Bethel and Dan to worship the calves. But this was a very great sin.

31Jeroboam also built temples at the high places.* He also chose priests from among the different family groups of Israel. (He did not choose priests only from the family group of Levi.) 32And King Jeroboam started a new holiday. This holiday was like the Passover Festival in Judah. But this holiday was on the 15th day of the eighth month, not the 15th day of the first month. During that time the king offered sacrifices on the altar in the city of Bethel. And he made the sacrifices to the calves that he had made. King Jeroboam also chose priests in Bethel to serve at the high places that he made. 33So King Jeroboam chose his own time for a holiday for the Israelites. It was the 15th day of the eighth month. During that time he offered sacrifices and burned incense* on the altar that he built. This was in the city of Bethel.

God Speaks Against Bethel

The Lord commanded a man of God* from Judah to go to the city of Bethel. King Jeroboam was standing at the altar offering incense when the man of God arrived. 2The Lord had commanded the man of God to speak against the altar. He said, “Altar, the Lord says to you: ‘David’s family will have a son named Josiah. These priests are now worshiping at the high places.* But altar, Josiah will put those priests on you and he will kill them. Now those priests burn incense upon you. But Josiah will burn human bones on you. ‘[Then you can’t be used again!’"]

3The man of God gave proof to the people that these things would happen. He said, “This is proof that the Lord told me about. The Lord said, ‘This altar will break apart. And the ashes on it will fall onto the ground.” 4King Jeroboam heard the message from the man of God* about the altar in Bethel. He took his hand off of the altar and pointed at the man. He said, “Arrest that man!” But when the king said this, his arm became paralyzed. He could not move it. 5Also, the altar broke into pieces. All its ashes fell onto the ground. This was the proof that the things the man of God said were from God. 6Then King Jeroboam said to the man of God, “Please pray to the Lord your God for me. Ask the Lord to heal my arm.”

So the man of God* prayed to the Lord. And the king’s arm was healed. It became like it was before. Then the king said to the man of God, “Please come home with me. Come and eat with me. I will give you a gift.”

But the man of God* said to the king, “I will not go home with you, even if you give me half of your kingdom! I will not eat or drink anything in this place. 9The Lord commanded me not to eat or drink anything. The Lord also commanded me not to travel on the same road that I used when I came here.” 10So he traveled on a different road. He did not travel on the same road that he used when he came to Bethel.

11There was an old prophet* living in the city of Bethel. His sons came and told him about what the man of God* did in Bethel. They told their father what the man of God had said to King Jeroboam. 12The old prophet said, “Which road did he use when he left?” So the sons showed their father which way the man of God from Judah had taken. 13The old prophet told his sons to put a saddle on his donkey. So they put the saddle on the donkey. Then the prophet left on his donkey.
14 The old prophet went after the man of God. The old prophet found the man of God sitting under an oak tree. The old prophet asked, “Are you the man of God who came from Judah?”

The man of God answered, “Yes, I am.”

15 So the old prophet said, “Please come home and eat with me.”

16 But the man of God answered, “I can’t go home with you. I can’t eat or drink with you in this place. 17 The Lord said to me, ‘You must not eat or drink anything in that place. And you must not go back on the same road you came on.’”

18 Then the old prophet said, “But I am also a prophet like you.” Then the old prophet told a lie. He said, “An angel from the Lord came to me. The angel told me to bring you to my home and allow you to eat and drink with me.”

19 So the man of God went to the old prophet’s house and ate and drank with him. 20 While they were sitting at the table, the Lord spoke to the old prophet. 21 And the old prophet spoke to the man of God from Judah. He said, “The Lord said that you did not obey him! You did not do the thing the Lord commanded. 22 The Lord commanded you not to eat or drink anything in this place. But you came back and ate and drank. So your body will not be buried in your family grave.”

23 The man of God finished eating and drinking. Then the old prophet put the saddle on the donkey for him and the man left. 24 On the road traveling home, a lion attacked and killed the man of God. The prophet’s body was lying on the road. The donkey and the lion stood near the body. 25 Some other men were traveling on that road. They saw the body and the lion standing near the body. The men came to the city where the old prophet lived and told about what they had seen on the road.

26 The old prophet had tricked the man and brought him back. He heard about what happened and he said, “That is the man of God who did not obey the Lord’s command. So the Lord sent a lion to kill him. The Lord said that he would do this.” 27 Then the prophet said to his sons, “Put a saddle on my donkey.” So his sons put a saddle on his donkey. 28 The old prophet went and found the body lying on the road. The donkey and the lion were still standing near it. The lion had not eaten the body, and it did not hurt the donkey.

29 The old prophet put the body on his donkey. He carried the body back to the city to cry for him and bury him. 30 The old prophet buried the man in his own family grave. The old prophet cried for him. The old prophet said, “Oh, my brother, I am sorry for you.” 31 So the old prophet buried the body. Then he said to his sons, “When I die, bury me in this same grave. Put my bones next to his. 32 The things which the Lord spoke through him will certainly come true. The Lord used him to speak against the altar at Bethel and against the high places in the other towns in Samaria.”

33 King Jeroboam did not change. He continued doing evil things. He continued to choose people from different family groups to become priests. Those priests served at the high places. Any person who wanted to be a priest was allowed to become a priest. 34 That was the sin that caused the destruction and ruin of his kingdom.

Jeroboam’s Son Dies

14 At that time, Jeroboam’s son, Abijah, became very sick. 2 Jeroboam said to his wife, “Go to Shiloh. Go see the prophet Ahijah. Ahijah is the man that said that I would become king of Israel. Dress yourself so people won’t know that you are my wife. 3 Give the prophet ten loaves of bread, some cakes, and a jar of honey. Then ask him what will happen to our son. The prophet Ahijah will tell you.”

4 So the king’s wife did what he said. She went to Shiloh. She went to the home of Ahijah the prophet. Ahijah was very old and had become blind. 5 But the Lord said to him, “Jeroboam’s wife is coming to ask you about her son. He is sick.” The Lord told Ahijah what he should say.

Jeroboam’s wife came to Ahijah’s house. She was trying to not let people know who she was. "Ahijah heard her coming to the door. So Ahijah said, “Come in, Jeroboam’s wife. Why are you trying to make people think you are someone else? I have some bad news for you. "Go back and tell Jeroboam that this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says. The Lord says, ‘Jeroboam, I chose you from among all the people of Israel. I made you the ruler of my people. David’s family was ruling the kingdom of Israel. But I took the kingdom away from them and I gave it to you. But you are not like my servant David. He always obeyed my commands. He followed me with his whole heart. He did only the things that I accepted. But you have done many great sins. Your sins are much worse than the sins of any person that ruled before you. You have quit following me. You made idols and other gods. This has made me very angry. So, Jeroboam, I will bring troubles to your family. I will kill all of the men in your family. I will destroy your family completely, like fire completely destroys dung. Any person from your family that dies in the city will be eaten by dogs. And any person from your family that dies in the fields will be eaten by birds. The Lord has spoken.’"

Then the prophet Ahijah continued talking to Jeroboam’s wife. He said, “Now go home. As soon as you enter your city, your son will die. All Israel will cry for him and bury him. Your son will be the only person in Jeroboam’s family that will be buried. This is because he is the only one in Jeroboam’s family that pleased the Lord God of Israel. The Lord will put a new king over Israel. That new king will destroy Jeroboam’s family. This will happen very soon. Then the Lord will hit Israel. The people of Israel will be very scared—they will shake like tall grass in the water. The Lord will pull up Israel from this good land. This is the land that he gave their ancestors. He will scatter them on the other side of the Euphrates River. This will happen because the Lord is angry with the people. The people made him angry when they made special poles to worship Asherah.* Jeroboam sinned. And then Jeroboam made the people of Israel sin. So the Lord will let the people of Israel be defeated.”

Jeroboam’s wife went back to Tirzah. As soon as she walked into the house, the boy died. All Israel buried him and cried for him. This happened exactly the way the Lord said it would. The Lord used his servant, the prophet Ahijah, to say these things.

King Jeroboam did many other things. He fought wars and continued to rule the people. All the things he did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Israel. Jeroboam ruled as king for 22 years. Then he died and was buried with his ancestors.* His son Nadab became the new king after him.

At the time that Solomon’s son, Rehoboam, became king of Judah, he was 41 years old. Rehoboam ruled in the city of Jerusalem for 17 years. This is the city in which the Lord chose to be honored. He chose this city from all the other cities of Israel. Rehoboam’s mother was Naamah. She was an Ammonite.

The people of Judah also sinned and did things that the Lord said were wrong. The people did more things to make the Lord angry at them. These people were worse than their fathers that lived before them. The people built high places, stone memorials, and sacred poles.* They built them on every high hill and under every green tree. There were men who served other gods by selling their bodies for sex.* So the people of Judah did many bad things. The people that had lived in the land before them did those same evil things. And God took the land away from those people and gave it to the people of Israel.

During the fifth year that Rehoboam was king, King Shishak of Egypt fought against Asherah An important Canaanite goddess. At this time, the people thought she was the wife of Baal. died ... ancestors Literally, “slept with his ancestors.” high places, stone memorials, sacred poles People used these things to worship false gods. men who served other gods by selling their bodies for sex Sexual sins like this were a part of the way people worshiped the Canaanite gods.
Jerusalem. 26 Shishak took the treasures from the Lord’s temple and from the king’s palace. He even took the gold shields that David had taken from the officers of Hadadezer, king of Aram. David had taken these shields to Jerusalem. But Shishak took all the gold shields. 27 So king Rehoboam made more shields to put in their places. But these shields were made from bronze, not gold. He gave the shields to the men who were guarding the palace gates. 28 Every time the king went to the Lord’s temple, the guards went with him. They carried the shields. After they were finished, they put the shields back on the wall in the guardroom.

29 All the things that king Rehoboam did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Judah. 30 Rehoboam and Jeroboam were always fighting a war against each other.

Abijah, King of Judah

15 Abijah became the new king of Judah. This was during the 18th year that Jeroboam son of Nebat ruled Israel. 2 Abijah ruled in Jerusalem for three years. His mother’s name was Maacah. She was Absalom’s daughter.

3 He did all the same sins that his father before him had done. Abijah was not faithful to the Lord his God. In this way, he was not like his grandfather, David. 4 The Lord loved David. So for him, the Lord gave Abijah a kingdom in Jerusalem. And the Lord allowed him to have a son. The Lord also allowed Jerusalem to be safe. He did this for David. 5 David had always done the right things that the Lord wanted. He had always obeyed the Lord’s commands. The only time David did not obey the Lord was the time David sinned against Uriah the Hittite.

6 Rehoboam and Jeroboam were always fighting a war against each other. 7 Everything else that Abijah did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Judah. There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam during the whole time that Abijah was king. 8 When Abijah died he was buried in the City of David. Abijah’s son Asa became the new king after him.

Asa, King of Judah

9 During Jeroboam’s 20th year as king over Israel, Asa became king of Judah. 10 Asa ruled in Jerusalem for 41 years. His grandmother’s name was Maacah. And Maacah was the daughter of Absalom.

11 Asa did the good things that the Lord said are right, like his ancestor David did. 12 During that time there were men who served other gods by selling their bodies for sex. Asa forced those men to leave the country. Asa also took away the idols that his ancestors had made. 13 Asa also removed his grandmother, Maacah, from being queen. Maacah had made one of those terrible images of the goddess Asherah. Asa cut down this terrible image. He burned it in Kidron Valley. 14 Asa did not destroy the high places, but he was faithful to the Lord all his life.

15 Asa and his father had given some things to God. They gave gifts of gold, silver, and other things. Asa put all those things in the temple.

16 During the time that King Asa was king of Judah, he was always fighting against Baasha, the king of Israel. 17 Baasha fought against Judah. Baasha wanted to stop people from going into or coming out of Asa’s country of Judah. So he made the city of Ramah very strong. 18 So Asa took silver and gold from the treasuries of the Lord’s temple and the king’s palace. He gave the silver and gold to his servants and sent them to Ben Hadad, the king of Aram. Ben Hadad was the... son of Tabrimmon. Tabrimmon was the son of Hezion. Damascus was Ben Hadad's capital city.

19 Asa sent this message, “My father and your father had a peace agreement. Now I want to make a peace agreement with you. I am sending you this gift of gold and silver. Please break your treaty with Baasha the king of Israel so he will get out of my country and leave us alone.”

20 King Ben Hadad made that agreement with King Asa and sent his army to fight against the Israelite towns of Ijon, Dan, Abel Beth Maacah, the towns near Lake Galilee, and the area of Naphtali. Baasha heard about these attacks. So he stopped building Ramah stronger. He left that town and moved back to Tirzah. Then king Asa gave an order to all of the people of Judah. Every person had to help. They went to Ramah and took all the stones and wood that Baasha was using to make that city strong. They carried those things to Geba in the land of Benjamin and to Mizpah. Then King Asa built those two towns much stronger.

23 All the other things about Asa, the great things he did, and the cities he built are written in the book The History of the Kings of Judah. When Asa became old, he had a disease on his feet. Then Jehoshaphat, Asa’s son, became the new king after him.

25 During Asa’s second year as king of Judah, Nadab, son of Jeroboam, became king of Israel. Nadab ruled over Israel for two years. Nadab did bad things against the Lord. He sinned the same way his father Jeroboam had sinned. And Jeroboam also caused the people of Israel to sin.

27 Baasha was the son of Ahijah. They were from the family group of Issachar. Baasha made a plan to kill King Nadab. This was during the time that Nadab and all Israel were fighting against the town of Gibbethon. This was a Philistine town. At that place Baasha killed Nadab. This happened during the third year that Asa was the king of Judah. And Baasha became the next king of Israel.

29 At the time Baasha became the new king, he killed everyone in Jeroboam’s family. Baasha left no person in Jeroboam’s family alive. This happened the way the Lord said it would. The Lord spoke through his servant Ahijah from Shiloh. This happened because King Jeroboam had done many sins. And Jeroboam had caused the people of Israel to do many sins. Jeroboam made the Lord, the God of Israel, very angry.

31 The other things that Nadab did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Israel. All during the time that Baasha ruled over Israel, he was fighting wars against Asa, king of Judah.

33 Baasha, son of Ahijah, became king of Israel during the third year that Asa ruled over Judah. Baasha ruled in Tirzah for 24 years. But Baasha did the things that the Lord said were wrong. He did the same sins that his father Jeroboam had done. Jeroboam caused the people of Israel to sin.

16 Then the Lord spoke to Jehu son of Hanani. The Lord was speaking against King Baasha. “I made you an important person. I made you a prince over my people Israel. But you have followed the ways of Jeroboam. You have caused my people Israel to sin. They have made me angry with their sins. So I will destroy you, Baasha, and your family. I will do the same to you that I did to the family of Jeroboam son of Nebat. The people in your family will die in the streets of the city. And dogs will eat their bodies. Some of the people in your family will die in the fields. And the birds will eat their bodies.”

5 All the other things about Baasha and the great things he did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Israel. Baasha died and was buried in Tirzah. His son Elah became the new king after him.

7 So the Lord gave a message to Jehu the prophet. This message was against Baasha and his family. Baasha had done much evil against the Lord. This made the Lord very angry. Baasha did the same things that Jeroboam’s family had done before him. The Lord was also angry because Baasha killed all of Jeroboam’s family.

Elah, King of Israel

8Elah became king during the 26th year that Asa was the king of Judah. Elah was the son of Baasha. He ruled in Tirzah for two years.

9Zimri was one of King Elah’s officers. Zimri commanded half of Elah’s chariots.* But Zimri made plans against Elah.

King Elah was in Tirzah. He was drinking and getting drunk at Arza’s home. Arza was the man in charge of the palace* at Tirzah.

10Zimri went into that house and killed King Elah. This was during the 27th year that Asa was king in Judah. Then Zimri became the new king of Israel after Elah.

Zimri, King of Israel

11After Zimri became the new king, he killed all of Baasha’s family. He did not let any of the men in Baasha’s family live. Zimri also killed Baasha’s friends. 12So Zimri destroyed Baasha’s family. This happened the way the Lord said it would when the Lord used the prophet Jehu to speak against Baasha. 13This happened because of all the sins of Baasha and his son, Elah. They sinned and caused the people of Israel to sin. The Lord was angry because they had many idols.

14The other things that Elah did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Israel.

15Zimri became king of Israel during the 27th year that Asa was king of Judah. Zimri ruled in Tirzah seven days. This is what happened: The army of Israel was camped near the Philistines from Gibbethon. They were prepared for war.16The men in the camp heard that Zimri had made secret plans against the king. They heard that he killed the king. So all Israel made Omri king over Israel that day in the camp. Omri was the commander of the army. 17So Omri and all Israel left Gibbethon and attacked Tirzah. 18Zimri saw that the city had been captured. So he went into the palace* and started a fire. He burned the palace and himself. 19So Zimri died because he had sinned. Zimri did the things the Lord said were wrong. He sinned in the same way that Jeroboam had sinned. And Jeroboam caused the people of Israel to sin.

20The story about Zimri’s secret plans and the other things that Zimri did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Israel. And the things that happened when Zimri turned against King Elah are also written in that book.

Omri, King of Israel

21The people of Israel were divided into two groups. Half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath and wanted to make him king. The other half of the people followed Omri. 22But Omri’s followers were stronger than the followers of Tibni son of Ginath. So Tibni was killed and Omri became king.

23During the 31st year that Asa was the king of Judah, Omri became king of Israel. Omri ruled over Israel for 12 years. Six of those years he ruled in the town of Tirzah.

24But Omri bought the hill of Samaria. He bought it from Shemer for about 150 pounds* of silver. Omri built a city on that hill. He called the city Samaria after the name of its owner, Shemer.

25Omri did the things that the Lord said were wrong. Omri was worse than all the kings that were before him. 26He did all the same sins that Jeroboam son of Nebat did. Jeroboam caused the people of Israel to sin. So they made the Lord, the God of Israel, very angry. The Lord was angry because they worshiped worthless idols.

27The other things about Omri and the great things he did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Israel. 28Omri died and was buried in Samaria. His son Ahab became the new king after him.

---

* chariots: A small wagon used in war.

* palace: A large house for the king and his family.

* 150 pounds: Or, “68kg.” Literally, “2 talents.”
Ahab, King of Israel

29 Ahab son of Omri became king of Israel during the 38th year that Asa was king of Judah. Ahab ruled Israel in the town of Samaria for 22 years. 30 Ahab did the things that the Lord said were wrong. And Ahab was worse than all the kings that were before him.

31 It was not enough for Ahab to do the same sins that Jeroboam son of Nebat had done. So Ahab also married Jezebel daughter of Ethbaal. Ethbaal was the king of the people of Sidon. Then Ahab began to serve and worship Baal.*

32 Ahab built a temple in Samaria for worshiping Baal. He put an altar in that temple. 33 Ahab also set up a special pole for worshiping Asherah.* Ahab did more things to make the Lord the God of Israel angry than all the other kings who were before him.

34 During the time of Ahab, Hiel from Bethel built the town of Jericho again. At the time Hiel started work on the city, his oldest son, Abiram died. And when Hiel built the gates of the city, his youngest son, Segub, died. This happened the way that the Lord said it would happen when he spoke through Joshua son of Nun.*

Elijah and The Time Without Rain

17 Elijah was a prophet from the town of Tishbe in Gilead. Elijah said to King Ahab, “I serve the Lord God of Israel. By his power, I promise that no dew or rain will fall during the next few years. The rain will fall only if I command it to fall.”

2Then the Lord said to Elijah, “Leave this place and go east. Hide near Kerith Ravine. This ravine is east of the Jordan River. You can drink from that stream. I have commanded ravens* to bring food to you in that place.”

3So Elijah did what the Lord told him to do. He went to live near Kerith Ravine, east of the Jordan River. Ravens brought Elijah food every morning and every evening. Elijah drank water from that stream.

7There was no rain, so after a time the stream became dry. 8Then the Lord said to Elijah, “Go to Zarephath in Sidon. Live there. There is a woman whose husband is dead that lives in that place. I have commanded her to give you food.”

10So Elijah went to Zarephath. He went to the town gate and saw a woman there. Her husband was dead. The woman was gathering wood for a fire. Elijah saw her, “Will you bring me a little water in a cup so I can drink?” 11The woman was going to get his water, and Elijah said, “Bring me a piece of bread too, please.”

12The woman answered, “I promise you before the Lord your God that I have no bread. I have only a little flour in a jar. And I have only a little olive oil in a jug. I came to this place to gather a couple of pieces of wood for a fire. I will take it back home and cook our last meal. My son and I will eat it and then die from hunger.”

13Elijah said to the woman, “Don’t worry. Go home and cook your food as you said. But first make a small loaf of bread from the flour that you have. Bring that bread to me. Then cook for yourself and your son.”

14The Lord God of Israel says, “That jar of flour will never become empty. The jug will always have oil in it. This will continue until the day the Lord sends rain to the land.”

15So the woman went to her home. She did what Elijah told her to do. Elijah, the woman, and her son had enough food for many days.

16The jar of flour and the jug of oil were never empty. This happened just like the Lord said it would. The Lord spoke through Elijah.

17Some time later the woman’s son became sick. He became more and more sick. Finally the boy stopped breathing. 18And the woman said to Elijah, “You are a man of God.* Can you help me? Or did you come here only to cause me to remember all of my sins? Did you come here only to cause my son to die?”

Baal  Baal was the main god of Sidon. People thought he could make people have many children and good crops.
Asherah  An important Canaanite goddess. At this time, the people thought she was the wife of Baal.
This happened ... Joshua son of Nun  See Joshua 6:26.
ravens  Black birds.
Elijah said to her, “Give your son to me.” Elijah took the boy from her and carried him upstairs. He laid him on the bed in the room where he was staying. Then Elijah prayed, “Lord my God. This widow is letting me stay in her house. Will you do this bad thing to her? Will you cause her son to die? Then Elijah lay on top of the boy three times. Elijah prayed, “Lord my God. Allow this boy to live again!”

The Lord answered Elijah’s prayer. The boy began breathing again. He was alive! Elijah carried the boy downstairs. Elijah gave the boy to his mother and said, “Look, your son is alive!”

The woman answered, “Now I know that you really are a man from God. I know that the Lord truly speaks through you!”

Elijah and the Prophets of Baal

During the third year that no rain fell, the Lord said to Elijah, “Go and meet with King Ahab. I will soon send rain.” So Elijah went to meet Ahab.

At that time, there was no food in Samaria. So King Ahab told Obadiah to come to him. Obadiah was the man in charge of the king’s palace. Obadiah was a true follower of the Lord. One time Jezebel was killing all the Lord’s prophets. So Obadiah took 100 prophets and hid them in two caves. Obadiah put 50 prophets in one cave and 50 prophets in another cave. Then Obadiah brought them food and water. King Ahab said to Obadiah, “Come with me. We will look at every spring and every stream in the land. We will see if we can find enough grass to keep our horses and mules alive. Then we will not have to kill our animals.” Each person chose the part of the country where they would go look for water. Then the two men went through the whole country. Ahab went in one direction by himself. Obadiah went in another direction by himself. While Obadiah was traveling, he met Elijah. Obadiah knew Elijah when he saw him. Obadiah bowed down before Elijah. He said, “Elijah? Is it really you, master?”

8Elijah answered, “Yes, it is me. Go and tell your master the king that I am here.”

9Then Obadiah said, “If I tell Ahab that I know where you are, he will kill me! I have done nothing wrong to you! Why do you want me to die? 10As sure as the Lord your God lives, the king has been looking for you everywhere! He has sent people to every country to find you. If the ruler of a country said that you were not in his country, then Ahab forced the ruler to promise that you were not in his country. 11Now you want me to go and tell him that you are here? If I go tell King Ahab that you are here, then the Lord might carry you to some other place. King Ahab will come here, and he will not be able to find you. Then he will kill me! I have followed the Lord since I was a boy. 13You heard what I did! Jezebel was killing the Lord’s prophets, and I hid 100 prophets in caves. I put 50 prophets in one cave and 50 prophets in another cave. I brought them food and water. 14Now you want me to go and tell the king that you are here. The king will kill me!”

15Elijah answered, “As sure as the Lord All-Powerful lives, I promise that I will stand before the king today.”

So Obadiah went to King Ahab. He told him where Elijah was. King Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17When Ahab saw Elijah he said, “Is it you? You are the man that causes trouble in Israel!”

18Elijah answered, “I have not caused Israel trouble. You and your father’s family caused all this trouble. You caused the trouble when you stopped obeying the Lord’s commands and began following the false gods. 19Now, tell all Israel to meet me at Mount Carmel. Also bring to that place the 450 prophets of Baal. And bring the 400 prophets of the false goddess Asherah. Queen Jezebel supports those prophets.”

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

Asherah An important Canaanite goddess. At this time, the people thought she was the wife of Baal.

Queen Jezebel supports those prophets Literally, “Those prophets eat at Jezebel’s table.”
So Ahab called all the Israelites and those prophets to Mount Carmel. Elijah came to all the people. He said, “When will you people decide who to follow? If the Lord is the true God, then you should follow him. But if Baal* is the true God, then you should follow him!”

The people said nothing. So Elijah said, “I am the only prophet of the Lord here. I am alone. But there are 450 prophets of Baal.*

So bring two bulls. Let the prophets of Baal take one bull. Let them kill it and cut it into pieces. Then let them put the meat on the wood. But don’t start the fire burning. Then I will do the same with the other bull. And I will not start the fire burning.

You prophets of Baal will pray to your god. And I will pray to the Lord. The god that answers the prayer and starts his wood burning is the true God.”

All the people agreed that this was a good idea.

Then Elijah said to the prophets of Baal,* “There are many of you. So you go first. Choose a bull and prepare it. But don’t start your fire.”

So the prophets took the bull that was given to them. They prepared it. They prayed to Baal* until noon. They prayed, “Baal, please answer us!” But there was no sound. No one answered. The prophets danced around the altar that they had built. But the fire never started.

At noon Elijah began to make fun of them. Elijah said, “If Baal* is really a god, then maybe you should pray louder! Maybe he is thinking! Or maybe he is busy! Or maybe he is traveling! He could be sleeping! Maybe you should pray louder and wake him!” So the prophets prayed louder. They cut themselves with swords and spears. (This was the way they worshiped.) They cut themselves until the blood flowed over them. The afternoon passed but the fire still had not started. The prophets continued to act wild* until the time came for the evening sacrifice. But nothing happened—there was no answer from Baal. There was no sound. There was no one listening!

Then Elijah said to all the people, “Now, come to me.” So all the people gathered around Elijah. The Lord’s altar had been torn down. So Elijah fixed it. Elijah found twelve stones. There was one stone for each of the twelve family groups. These twelve family groups were named for the twelve sons of Jacob. Jacob was the man that the Lord had called Israel. Elijah used these stones to fix the altar to honor the Lord. Elijah dug a small ditch around the altar. It was wide enough and deep enough to hold about 7 gallons* of water.

Then Elijah put the wood on the altar. He cut the bull into pieces. He laid the pieces on the wood. Then Elijah said, “Fill four jars with water. Pour the water on the pieces of meat and on the wood.” Then Elijah said, “Do it again.” Then he said, “Do it a third time.” The water flowed off of the altar and filled the ditch.

It was time for the afternoon sacrifice. So the prophet Elijah went near the altar and prayed, “Lord, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I ask you now to prove that you are the God of Israel. And prove that I am your servant. Show these people that you commanded me to do all these things. Lord, answer my prayer. Show these people that you, Lord, are God. Then the people will know that you are bringing them back to you.”

So the Lord sent down fire. The fire burned the sacrifice, the wood, the stones, and the ground around the altar. The fire also dried up all the water in the ditch. All the people saw this happen. The people bowed down on the ground and began saying, “The Lord is God! The Lord is God!”

Then Elijah said, “Get the prophets of Baal!* Don’t let any of them escape!” So the people captured all the prophets. Then Elijah led them down to Kishon Creek. At that place he killed all the prophets.

---

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

act wild Or, “prophesy.” This form of the Hebrew word sometimes mean to “act wild,” or “to lose control of yourself.”

gallons Or, “14.6 l.” Literally, “2 seahs of seed.”
The Rain Comes Again

41 Then Elijah said to King Ahab, “Now, go eat and drink. A heavy rain is coming. 42 So King Ahab went to eat. At the same time, Elijah climbed to the top of Mount Carmel. At the top of the mountain Elijah bent down. He put his head between his knees. 43 Then Elijah said to his servant, “Look toward the sea.”

The servant went to the place where he could see the sea. Then the servant came back and said, “I saw nothing.” Elijah told him to go and look again. This happened seven times.

44 The seventh time, the servant came back and said, “I saw a small cloud the size of a man’s fist. The cloud was coming from the sea.” Elijah told the servant, “Go to King Ahab and tell him to get his chariot* ready and go home now. If he doesn’t leave now, the rain will stop him.”

45 After a short time, the sky was covered with dark clouds. The wind began to blow, and a heavy rain began to fall. Ahab got in his chariot and started traveling back to Jezreel.

46 The power of the Lord came to Elijah. Elijah tightened his clothes around him* so he could run. Then Elijah ran ahead of King Ahab all the way to Jezreel.

Elijah at Mount Sinai

19 King Ahab told Jezebel all the things that Elijah did. Ahab told her how Elijah had killed all the prophets with a sword. So Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah. Jezebel said, “I promise that before this same time tomorrow, I will kill you like you killed those prophets. If I don’t succeed, then may the gods kill me.”

3 When Elijah heard this, he was afraid. So he ran away to save his life. He took his servant with him. They went to Beersheba, Judah. Elijah left his servant in Beersheba. Then Elijah walked for a whole day into the desert. Elijah sat down under a bush. He asked to die. Elijah said, “I have had enough, Lord! Let me die. I am no better than my ancestors.”

5 Then Elijah lay down under the tree and slept. An angel came to Elijah and touched him. The angel said, “Get up! Eat!” Elijah saw very near him a cake baked over coals and a jar of water. Elijah ate and drank. Then he went back to sleep.

7 Later the Lord’s angel came to him again. The angel said, “Get up! Eat! If you don’t, you will not be strong enough to make the long trip.” So Elijah got up. He ate and drank. The food made Elijah strong enough to walk for 40 days and nights. He walked to Mount Horeb, the mountain of God. There Elijah went into a cave and stayed all night.

Then the Lord spoke to Elijah. The Lord said, “Elijah, why are you here?”

10 Elijah answered, “Lord God All-Powerful, I have always served you the best I can. But the people of Israel have broken their agreement with you. They destroyed your altars. They killed your prophets. I am the only prophet that is still living. And now they are trying to kill me!”

11 Then the Lord said to Elijah, “Go, stand in front of me on the mountain. I will pass by you.” Then a very strong wind blew. The wind caused the mountains to break apart. It broke large rocks in front of the Lord. But that wind was not the Lord! After that wind, there was an earthquake. But that earthquake was not the Lord. After the earthquake, there was a fire. But that fire was not the Lord. After the fire, there was a quiet, gentle voice.*

13 When Elijah heard the voice* he used his coat to cover his face. Then he went and stood at the entrance to the cave. Then a voice said to him, “Elijah, why are you here?”

14 Elijah said, “Lord God All-Powerful, I have always served you the best that I can. But the people of Israel broke their agreement with you. They destroyed your altars. They killed your prophets. I am the only prophet that is still living. And now they are trying to kill me.”

* fist A closed hand.
* chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.
* ancestors Literally, “fathers.” This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Go, stand ... you This is like the time God appeared to Moses. See Ex. 33:12–23.

voice Or, “sound.”
15The Lord said, “Go back on the road that leads to the desert around Damascus. Go into Damascus, and anoint* Hazael as king over Aram. 16Then anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel. Next, anoint Elisha son of Shaphat from Abel Meholah. He will be the prophet that takes your place. 17Hazael will kill many bad people. Jehu will kill anyone that escapes from Hazael’s sword. And Elisha will kill anyone that escapes from Jehu’s sword.

Elisha Becomes a Prophet

19So Elijah left that place and went to find Elisha son of Shaphat. Elisha was plowing 12 acres of land. Elisha was working on the last acre when Elijah came.* Elijah went to Elisha. Then Elijah put his coat* on Elisha. 20Elisha immediately left his cows and ran after Elijah. Elisha said, “Let me kiss my mother and father goodbye. Then I will follow you.” Elijah answered, “That is fine. Go. I won’t stop you.*”

21Then Elisha had a special meal with his family. Elisha went and killed his cows. He used the yoke* for firewood and boiled the meat. Then he gave it to the people and they ate the meat. Then Elisha began following Elijah. Elisha became Elijah’s helper.

Ben Hadad and Ahab Go To War

20Ben Hadad was king of Aram. He gathered together all of his army. There were 32 kings with him. They had horses and chariots.* They attacked Samaria and fought against it. 2The king sent messengers into the city to King Ahab of Israel. 3This was the message, “Ben Hadad says, ‘You must give me your silver and gold. You must also give me your wives and children.’” 4The king of Israel answered, “King, my master. I agree that I belong to you now. And everything I have belongs to you.” 5Then the messengers came back to Ahab. They said, “Ben Hadad says, ‘I told you before that you must give me all of your silver and gold and your wives and children. 6Tomorrow I am sending my men to search through your house and through the houses of your officials. You should give my men all of your valuables, and they will bring those things back to me.’” 7So King Ahab called a meeting of all the elders (leaders) of his country. Ahab said, “Look, Ben Hadad is looking for trouble. First he told me that I must give him my wives, my children, my silver and my gold. I agreed to give those things to him. And now he wants to take everything.” 8But the elders (leaders) and all the people said, “Don’t obey him. Don’t do what he says.” 9So Ahab sent a message to Ben Hadad. Ahab said, “I will do what you said at first. But I cannot obey your second command.”

King Ben Hadad’s men carried the message to the king. 10Then they came back with another message from Ben Hadad. The message said, “I will completely destroy Samaria. I promise that there will be nothing left of that city! There won’t be enough of that city left for my men to find anything for souvenirs* to take home. May God destroy me if I don’t do this!”

11King Ahab answered, “Tell Ben Hadad that the man who puts on his armor should not boast as much as the man who lives long enough to take it off.” 12King Ben Hadad was drinking in his tent with the other rulers. At that time the messengers came and gave him the message.

---

* anoint: To pour olive oil on a person’s head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

* Elisha was plowing ... came: Or, “Elijah was plowing. There were 11 pair before him and he was on the twelfth.”

* coat: This was a special robe that showed that Elijah was a prophet. Giving this coat to Elisha showed that Elisha was taking Elijah’s place as a prophet.

* I won’t stop you: Literally, “What have I done to you?” or “What will I do to you?”

* yoke: A piece of wood that was put over an animal’s neck so it could pull a plow or wagon.

* chariot(s): A small wagon used in war.

* souvenirs: Things that help people remember places they have been. Literally, the Hebrew has, “handfuls of dust.”
from King Ahab. King Ben Hadad commanded his men to prepare to attack the city. So the men moved into their places for the battle.

13 At the same time, a prophet went to King Ahab. The prophet said, “King Ahab, the Lord says to you, ‘Do you see that big army? I, the Lord, will allow you to defeat that army today. Then you will know that I am the Lord.’”

14 Ahab said, “Who will you use to defeat them?”

The prophet answered, “The Lord says, ‘The young helpers of the government officials.’”

Then the king asked, “Who should command the main army?”

The prophet answered, “You will.”

15 So Ahab gathered the young helpers of the government officials. There were 232 of these young men. Then the king called together the army of Israel. The total number was 7,000.

16 At noon, King Ben Hadad and the 32 kings helping him were drinking and becoming drunk in their tents. At this time, King Ahab’s attack began. 17 The young helpers attacked first. King Ben Hadad’s men told him that soldiers had come out of Samaria. 18 So Ben Hadad said, “They might be coming to fight. Or they might be coming to ask for peace. Capture them alive.”

19 The young men of King Ahab were leading the attack. The army of Israel was following them. 20 But each man of Israel killed the man that came against him. So the men from Aram began to run away. The army of Israel chased them. King Ben Hadad escaped on a horse from one of the chariots. 21 King Ahab led the army and took all horses and chariots from the army of Aram. So King Ahab caused a great defeat of the Aramean army.

22 Then the prophet went to King Ahab and said, “The king of Aram, Ben Hadad, will come to fight against you again next spring. So you should go home now and make your army stronger. And make careful plans to defend against him.”

Ben Hadad Attacks Again

23 King Ben Hadad’s officers said to him, “The gods of Israel are mountain gods. We fought in a mountain area. So the people of Israel won. So let’s fight them on the flat land. Then we will win.” 24 This is what you should do. Don’t allow the 32 kings to command the armies. Let the commanders lead their armies.

25 “Now you gather an army like the army that was destroyed. Gather horses and chariots like that army. Then let’s fight the Israelites on flat land. Then we will win.” Ben Hadad followed their advice. He did what they said.

26 So in the spring, Ben Hadad gathered the people of Aram. He went to Aphek to fight against Israel.

27 The Israelites also prepared for war. The people of Israel went to fight the army of Aram. They made their camp opposite the camp of Aram. Compared to the enemy, Israel looked like two small flocks of goats, but the Aramean soldiers covered the whole area.

28 A man of God came to the king of Israel with this message: “The Lord said, ‘The people of Aram said that I, the Lord, am God of the mountains. They think that I am not also the God of the valleys. So I will allow you to defeat this big army. Then you will know that I am the Lord in every place!’”

29 The armies were camped across from each other for seven days. On the seventh day the battle began. The Israelites killed 100,000 soldiers of Aram in one day. 30 The survivors ran away to the city of Aphek. The wall of the city fell on 27,000 of those soldiers. Ben Hadad also ran away to the city. He hid in a room. 31 His servants said to him, “We heard that the kings of Israel are merciful. Let’s dress in rough cloth with ropes on our heads.* Then let’s go to the king of Israel. Maybe he will let us live.”

32 They dressed in rough cloth with ropes on their heads.* They came to the king of Israel. They said, “Your servant, Ben Hadad, says, ‘Please let me live.’”

man of God Another name for a prophet.
rough cloth ... heads This showed they were being humble and that they wanted to surrender.
Ahab said, “Is he still alive? He is my brother.”

Ben Hadad’s men wanted King Ahab to say something to show that he would not kill King Ben Hadad. When Ahab called Ben Hadad his brother, the advisers quickly said, “Yes! Ben Hadad is your brother.”

Ahab said, “Bring him to me.” So Ben Hadad came to King Ahab. King Ahab asked him to get in the chariot with him.

Ben Hadad said to him, “Ahab, I will give you the towns that my father took from your father. And you can put shops in Damascus, like my father did in Samaria.”

Ahab answered, “If you agree to this, then I will allow you to go free.” So the two kings made a peace agreement. Then King Ahab let King Ben Hadad go free.

A Prophet Speaks Against Ahab

One of the prophets told another prophet, “Hit me!” He said that because the Lord had commanded it. But the other prophet refused to hit him. So the first prophet said, “You did not obey the Lord’s command. So a lion will kill you when you leave this place.” The second prophet left that place and a lion killed him.

The first prophet went to another man and said, “Hit me!”

This man hit him and hurt the prophet. So the prophet wrapped his face with a cloth. This way, no person could see who he was. The prophet went and waited for the king by the road. The king came by and the prophet said to him, “I went to fight in the battle. One of our men brought an enemy soldier to me. The man said, ‘Guard this man. If he runs away, then you will have to give your life in his place. Or you will have to pay a fine of 75 pounds of silver.’ But I became busy doing other things. So the man ran away.”

The king of Israel answered, “You have said that you are guilty of letting the soldier escape. So you know the answer. You must do what the man said.”

A King Ahab’s palace was in the city of Samaria. Near the palace there was a field of grapes. A man named Naboth owned this field. He was from Jezreel. One day Ahab said to Naboth, “Give me your field. I want to make it a vegetable garden. Your field is near my palace. I will give you a better grape field in its place. Or, if you prefer, I will pay you its value in money.”

Naboth answered, “I will never give my land to you. This land belongs to my family.”

So Ahab went home. He was angry and upset at Naboth. He did not like the things that man from Jezreel said. (Naboth had said, “I will not give you my family’s land.”) Ahab lay down on his bed. He turned his face away and refused to eat.

Ahab’s wife, Jezebel, went to him. Jezebel said to him, “Why are you upset? Why do you refuse to eat?”

Then Jezebel wrote some letters. She signed Ahab’s name to the letters. She used Ahab’s own seal to seal the letters. Then she sent them to the elders (leaders) and important men who lived in the same town as Naboth. This is what the letter said:

brother People that signed peace agreements often called each other “brother.” It was like they became one family.

75 pounds Or “34kg.” Literally, “a talent.”

palace A large house for the king and his family.
Announce that there will be a day of fasting when the people will eat nothing. Then call all the people of the town together for a meeting. At the meeting, we will talk about Naboth. Find some men that will tell lies about Naboth. Those people should say that they heard Naboth speak against the king and against God. Then take Naboth out of the city and kill him with rocks.

So the elders (leaders) and important men of Jezreel obeyed that command. The leaders announced that there would be a day when all the people would eat nothing. On that day they called all the people together for a meeting. They put Naboth in a special place before the people. Then two men told the people that they heard Naboth speak against God and against the king. So the people carried Naboth out of the city. Then they killed him with rocks. Then the leaders sent a message to Jezebel. The message said: “Naboth has been killed.”

When Jezebel heard this, she said to Ahab, “Naboth is dead. Now you can go and take the field that you wanted.” So Ahab went to the field of grapes and took it for his own.

At this time the Lord spoke to Elijah. (Elijah was the prophet from Tishbe.) The Lord said, “Go to King Ahab in Samaria. Ahab will be at Naboth’s field of grapes. He is there to take the field as his own. Tell Ahab that I, the Lord, say to him, ‘Ahab! You killed the man Naboth. Now you are taking his land. So I tell you this! In the same place that Naboth died, you will also die. The dogs that licked Naboth’s blood will lick your blood in the same place!’”

So Elijah went to Ahab. Ahab saw Elijah and said, “You have found me again. You are always against me.”

Elijah answered, “Yes, I found you again. You have always used your life for sinning against the Lord. So the Lord says to you, ‘I will destroy you. I will kill you and every male in your family. Your family will be the same as the family of King Jeroboam son of Nebat. And your family will become like the family of King Baasha. Both of these families were completely destroyed. I will do this to you because you have made me angry. You have caused the people of Israel to sin.’ And the Lord also says, ‘Dogs will eat the body of your wife Jezebel in the city of Jezreel. Any person in your family that dies in the city will be eaten by dogs. Any person that dies in the fields, will be eaten by birds.’”

There is no other person that has done so many wrong things or sinned so much as Ahab. His wife Jezebel caused him to do those things. Ahab did a very bad sin and worshiped those blocks of wood (idols). This was the same thing that the Amorite people did. And the Lord took the land from them and gave it to the people of Israel.

After Elijah finished speaking, Ahab was very sad. He tore his clothes to show that he was sad. Then he put on special clothes of sadness. Ahab refused to eat. He slept in those special clothes. Ahab was very sad and upset.

The Lord said to Elijah the prophet, “I see that Ahab has become humble before me. So, I will not cause the trouble to come to him during his life. I will wait until his son is king. Then I will cause the trouble to come to Ahab’s family.”

Micaiah Gives a Warning to Ahab

During the next two years, there was peace between Israel and Aram. Then, during the third year, King Jehoshaphat of Judah went to visit King Ahab of Israel.

At this same time, Ahab asked his officials, “Remember that the king of Aram took Ramoth in Gilead from us? Why have we done nothing to get Ramoth back? It should be our town.” So Ahab asked King Jehoshaphat, “Will you join with us and fight against the army of Aram at Ramoth?”

Jehoshaphat answered, “Yes, I will join you. My soldiers and my horses are ready to join with your army. But first we should ask the Lord for advice.”

So Ahab called a meeting of the prophets. There were about 400 prophets at that time. Ahab asked the prophets, “Should I go and fight against the army of Aram at Ramoth? Or should I wait for another time?”
The prophets answered, “You should go and fight now. The Lord will allow you to win.”

7But Jehoshaphat said, “Are there any other of the Lord’s prophets here? If there are, we should ask them what God says.”

8King Ahab answered, “There is one other prophet. His name is Micaiah son of Imlah. But I hate him. When he speaks for the Lord, he never says anything good for me. He always says things that I don’t like.”

9Jehoshaphat said, “King Ahab, you should not say those things!”

10So King Ahab told one of his officers to go and find Micaiah.

At that time, the two kings were wearing their royal robes. They were sitting on the thrones. This was at the judging place near the gate of Samaria. All the prophets were standing before them. The prophets were prophesying.* 11One of the prophets was named Zedekiah. He was the son of Kenaanah. Zedekiah made some iron horns.* Then he said to Ahab, “The Lord says, ‘You will use these iron horns to fight against the army of Aram. You will defeat them and destroy them.’” 12All the other prophets agreed with what Zedekiah said. The prophet said, “Your army should march now. They should fight against the army of Aram at Ramoth. You will win the fight. The Lord will allow you to win.”

13While this was happening, the officer went to find Micaiah. The officer found Micaiah and said to him, “All the other prophets have said that the king will succeed. So I tell you that the safest thing that you can do is to say the same thing.”

14But Micaiah answered, “No! I promised that by the power of the Lord I will say the things that the Lord tells me to say!”

15Then Micaiah stood before King Ahab. The king asked him, “Micaiah, should King Jehoshaphat and I join armies? And should we go now to fight against the army of Aram at Ramoth?”

Micaiah answered, “Yes! You should go and fight them now. The Lord will let you win.”

16But Ahab answered, “You are not speaking by the power of the Lord. You are saying your own words. So tell me the truth! How many times do I have to tell you? Tell me what the Lord says!”

17So Micaiah answered, “I can see what will happen. The army of Israel will be scattered over the hills. They will be like sheep without anyone to lead them. This is what the Lord says, ‘These men have no leader. They should go home and not fight.’”

18Then Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, “See! I told you! This prophet never says anything good about me. He always says things that I don’t want to hear.”

19But Micaiah continued to speak for the Lord. Micaiah said, “Listen! These are the words that the Lord says! I saw the Lord sitting on his throne in heaven. His angels were standing near him. 20The Lord said, ‘Will any of you trick King Ahab? I want him to go and fight against the army of Aram at Ramoth. Then he will be killed.’ The angels did not agree about what they should do. 21Then one angel went to the Lord and said, ‘I will trick him!’ 22The Lord answered, ‘How will you trick King Ahab?’ The angel answered, ‘I will confuse all of Ahab’s prophets. I will tell the prophets to speak lies to King Ahab. The messages from the prophets will be lies.’ So the Lord said, ‘Good! Go and trick King Ahab. You will succeed.’”

23Micaiah finished his story. Then he said, “So this is what has happened here. The Lord has caused your prophets to lie to you. The Lord himself has decided that great trouble should come to you.”

24Then the prophet Zedekiah went to Micaiah. Zedekiah hit Micaiah on the face. Zedekiah said, “Do you really believe that the Lord’s power has left me and is now speaking through you?”

25Micaiah answered, “Soon trouble will come. At that time, you will go and hide in a small room. And you will know that I am speaking the truth!”

26Then King Ahab ordered one of his officers to arrest Micaiah. King Ahab said, “Arrest him and take him to Amon the governor of the city and prince Joash. 27Tell them to put Micaiah in prison. Give him only bread and water to eat. Keep him there until I come home from the fight.”

28Micaiah said loudly, “All you people listen to what I say! King Ahab, if you come home alive from that fight, then the Lord has not spoken through me.”

29Then King Ahab and King Jehoshaphat went to fight against the army of Aram at Ramoth. This was in the area called Gilead. 30Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, “We will prepare for the fight. I will wear clothes that make me look like I am not the king. But you wear your special clothes that show you are a king.” So the king of Israel began the battle dressed like a person that was not a king.

31The king of Aram had 32 chariot commanders. That king ordered these 32 chariot commanders to find the king of Israel. The king of Aram told the commanders that they must kill the king. 32So during the battle, these commanders saw King Jehoshaphat. The commanders thought that he was the king of Israel. So they went to kill him. Jehoshaphat began shouting. 33The commanders saw that he was not King Ahab, so they did not kill him. 34But a soldier shot an arrow into the air—he was not aiming at any special person. But his arrow hit Ahab, the king of Israel. The arrow hit the king in a small place where his armor did not cover his body. So King Ahab said to his chariot driver, “An arrow has hit me! Drive the chariot out of this area. We must go away from the fighting.”

35The armies continued to fight. King Ahab stayed in his chariot. He was leaning against the sides of the chariot. He was looking at the army of Aram. His blood flowed down and covered the bottom of the chariot. Later in the evening, the king died. 36Near sunset, all men in the army of Israel were commanded to go back to their own city and land.

37So that is the way King Ahab died. Some men carried his body to Samaria. They buried him there. 38The men cleaned Ahab’s chariot at the pool of water in Samaria. The dogs licked King Ahab’s blood from the chariot. And the prostitutes used the water to wash themselves. These things happened the way the Lord said they would happen.

39All the things that King Ahab did during the time he ruled are written in the book The History of the Kings of Israel. And that book also tells about the ivory that the king used to make his palace more beautiful. And the book tells about the city that the king built. 40Ahab died and was buried with his ancestors. His son, Ahaziah, became the next king after him.

Jehoshaphat, King of Judah

41During the fourth year that Ahab was king of Israel, Jehoshaphat became king of Judah. Jehoshaphat was the son of Asa. 42Jehoshaphat was 35 years old when he became king. Jehoshaphat ruled in Jerusalem for 25 years. Jehoshaphat’s mother was named Azubah. Azubah was the daughter of Shilhi. 43Jehoshaphat was good. He did like his father before him. He obeyed all the things that the Lord wanted. But Jehoshaphat did not destroy the high places.* The people continued offering sacrifices* and burning incense* at those places.

44Jehoshaphat made a peace agreement with the king of Israel. 45Jehoshaphat was very brave and fought many wars. All the things he did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Judah. 46Jehoshaphat forced all the men and women that sold their bodies for sex to leave the places of worship. Those people had served in those places of worship during the time his father Asa was king.

47During this time, the land of Edom had no king. The land was ruled by a governor. The governor was chosen by the king of Judah.

prostitute(s) A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stops following him.

palace A large house for the king and his family.

high places Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

sacriﬁce(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.
Jehoshaphat’s Navy

King Jehoshaphat built some cargo ships. He wanted the ships to sail to Ophir to get gold from that place. But the ships never went there—they were destroyed in their home port at Ezion Geber. King Ahaziah of Israel offered to help Jehoshaphat. Ahaziah offered to put some of his own sailors with Jehoshaphat’s men on those ships. But Jehoshaphat refused to accept Ahaziah’s men.

Jehoshaphat died and was buried with his ancestors. He was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. Then his son, Jehoram became king.

Ahaziah, King of Israel

Ahaziah was the son of Ahab. He became king of Israel during the 17th year that King Jehoshaphat ruled Judah. Ahaziah ruled in Samaria for two years. Ahaziah sinned against the Lord. He did the same things as his father, Ahab, his mother Jezebel, and Jeroboam, son of Nebat had done. All these rulers led the people of Israel into more sin.

Ahaziah worshiped and served the false god Baal, like his father did before him. So Ahaziah caused the Lord God of Israel to be very angry. The Lord was angry at Ahaziah like he had been angry at his father before him.

King Ahaziah … ships  Jehoshaphat controlled the port of Ezion Geber which was Israel’s only access to the Red Sea and the coasts of Africa, the Arabian Peninsula, and the coasts leading to the Persian Gulf and India. Ahaziah thought he could get control of that area by “helping” Jehoshaphat.

City of David  The southeast and oldest part of the city of Jerusalem.
A Message for Ahaziah

After Ahab died, Moab broke away from Israel’s rule.

2 One day, Ahaziah was on the roof* of his house in Samaria. Ahaziah fell down through the wooden bars on top of his house. He was hurt very badly. Ahaziah called messengers and told them, “Go to the priests of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron. Ask them if I will get well from my injuries.”

3 But the Lord’s angel said to Elijah the Tishbite, “King Ahaziah has sent some messengers from Samaria. Go meet those men. Say to them, ‘There is a God in Israel! So why are you men going to ask questions from Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron? Tell King Ahaziah these things: You sent messengers to ask questions from Baal Zebub. Since you did this thing, the Lord says: You will not get up from your bed. You will die!’” Then Elijah left and told these words to Ahaziah’s servants.

5 The messengers came back to Ahaziah. Ahaziah said to the messengers, “Why did you come back so soon?”

6 The messengers said to Ahaziah, “A man came up to meet us. He told us to go back to the king who sent us, and tell him what the Lord says. The Lord says, ‘There is a God in Israel! So why did you send messengers to ask questions from Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron? Since you did this thing, you will not get up from your bed. You will die!’”

7 Ahaziah said to the messengers, “What did the man look like who met you and told you these things?”

8 The messengers answered Ahaziah, “This man was wearing a hairy coat* with a leather belt around his waist.”

Then Ahaziah said, “That was Elijah the Tishbite!”

Fire Destroys the Men Sent From Ahaziah

9 Ahaziah sent a captain and 50 men to Elijah. The captain went to Elijah. At that time, Elijah was sitting on top of a hill. The captain said to Elijah, “Man of God,* the king says, ‘Come down.’”

10 Elijah answered the captain of 50, “If I am a man of God,* let fire come down from heaven and destroy you and your 50 men!”

So fire came down from heaven and destroyed the captain and his 50 men.

11 Ahaziah sent another captain with 50 men to Elijah. The captain said to Elijah, “Man of God,* the king says, ‘Come down quickly!’”

12 Elijah told the captain and his 50 men, “If I am a man of God,* let fire come down from heaven and destroy you and your 50 men!”

Then God’s fire came down from heaven and destroyed the captain and his 50 men.

13 Ahaziah sent a third captain with 50 men. The third captain came to Elijah. The captain fell down on his knees. The captain begged Elijah, saying to him, “Man of God,* I ask you, please let my life and the lives of your 50 servants be valuable to you! Fire came down from heaven and destroyed the first two captains and their 50 men. But now, have mercy and let us live!”

14 The Lord’s angel said to Elijah, “Go with the captain. Don’t be afraid of him.”

---

*roof In ancient Israel, houses had flat roofs that were used like an extra room.

*man of God Another name for a prophet.

*hairy coat Or, “This man was a hairy man.”
So Elijah went with the captain to see King Ahaziah.

16Elijah told Ahaziah, “There is a God in Israel. So why did you send messengers to ask questions from Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron. Since you did this thing, you will not get up from your bed. You will die!”

Joram Takes Ahaziah’s Place

17Ahaziah died, just like the Lord said through Elijah. Ahaziah did not have a son. So Joram became the new king after Ahaziah. Joram began to rule during the second year that Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat was the king of Judah.

18The other things that Ahaziah did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Israel.

The Lord Makes Plans to Take Elijah

2It was near the time for the Lord to take Elijah by a whirlwind up into heaven. Elijah went with Elisha to Gilgal.

3Elijah said to Elisha, “Please stay here, because the Lord told me to go to Bethel.”

But Elisha said, “I promise, as the Lord lives and as you live, I won’t leave you.” So the two men went down to Bethel.

3The group of prophets* at Bethel came to Elisha and said to him, “Do you know that the Lord will take your master away from you today?”

Elisha said, “Yes, I know it. Don’t talk about it.”

4Elijah said to Elisha, “Please stay here, because the Lord told me to go to Jericho.”

But Elisha said, “I promise, as the Lord lives and as you live, I won’t leave you!” So the two men went to Jericho.

5The group of prophets* at Jericho came to Elisha and said to him, “Do you know that the Lord will take your master away from you today?”

Elisha answered, “Yes, I know it. Don’t talk about it.”

6Elijah said to Elisha, “Please stay here, because the Lord told me to go to the Jordan River.”

Elisha answered, “I promise, as the Lord lives and as you live, I won’t leave you!” So the two men went on.

7There were 50 men from the group of prophets* that followed them. Elijah and Elisha stopped at the Jordan River. The 50 men stood far away from Elijah and Elisha.

8Elijah took off his coat, folded it, and hit the water with it. The water separated to the right and to the left. Then Elijah and Elisha crossed the river on dry ground.

9After they crossed the river, Elijah said to Elisha, “What do you want me to do for you before God takes me away from you?”

Elisha said, “I ask you for a double share of your spirit on me.”

10Elijah said, “You have asked a hard thing. If you see me when I am taken from you, then that will happen. But if you don’t see me when I am taken from you, then it won’t happen.”

God Takes Elijah into Heaven

11Elijah and Elisha were walking and talking together. Suddenly, some horses and a chariot* came and separated Elijah from Elisha. The horses and the chariot were like fire! Then Elijah was carried up into heaven in a whirlwind.

12Elisha saw it, and shouted, “My father! My father! The Chariot of Israel and his horse soldiers!”

Elisha never saw Elijah again. Elisha grabbed his own clothes and tore them to show his sadness.

13Elijah’s coat had fallen to the ground, so Elisha picked it up. Elisha hit the water and said, “Where is the Lord, the God of Elijah?”

14Just as Elisha hit the water, the water separated to the right and to the left! And Elisha crossed the river.

---

group of prophets Literally, “sons of the prophets.” These people were prophets and people studying to become prophets.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

Chariot of Israel and his horse soldiers This probably means, “God and his heavenly army (angels).”
The Prophets Ask for Elijah

15When the group of prophets* at Jericho saw Elisha, they said, “Elijah’s spirit is now on Elisha!” They came to meet Elisha. They bowed very low to the ground before Elisha. 16They said to him, “Look, we have 50 good men. Please let them go and look for your master. Maybe the Lord’s Spirit has taken Elijah up and dropped him on some mountain or in some valley.”

But Elisha answered, “No, don’t send men to look for Elijah!”

17The group of prophets* begged Elisha until he was embarrassed. Then Elisha said, “Fine, send the men to look for Elijah.”

The group of prophets* sent the 50 men to look for Elijah. They looked three days, but they could not find Elijah. 18So the men went to Jericho where Elisha was staying. They told him that they could not find Elijah. Elisha said to them, “I told you not to go.”

Elisha Makes the Water Good

19The men of the city said to Elisha, “Sir, you can see this city is in a nice place. But the water is bad. That is why the land cannot grow crops.”

20Elisha said, “Bring me a new bowl and put salt in it.”

The people brought the bowl to Elisha. 21Then Elisha went out to the place where the water began flowing from the ground. Elisha threw the salt into the water. He said, “The Lord said, ‘I am making this water pure! From now on this water will not cause any more death or keep the land from growing crops.’”

22The water became pure. And the water is still good today. It happened just like Elisha said.

Some Boys Make Fun of Elisha

23Elisha went from that city to Bethel. Elisha was walking up the hill to the city, and some boys were coming down out of the city. They began making fun of Elisha. They said to him, “Go up, you bald headed man! Go up, you bald headed man!”

24Elisha looked back and saw them. He asked the Lord to cause bad things to happen to them. Then two bears came out of the forest and attacked the boys. There were 42 boys ripped apart by the bears.

25Elisha left Bethel and went to Mount Carmel. And from there, Elisha went back to Samaria.

Jehoram Becomes King of Israel

3Jehoram son of Ahab became king over Israel at Samaria. He began to rule during Jehoshaphat’s 18th year as king of Judah. Jehoram ruled 12 years. 2Jehoram did the things that the Lord said were wrong. But Jehoram was not like his father and mother, because he removed the pillar that his father had made for worshiping Baal.* 3But he continued to do the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat. Jeroboam caused the Israelites to sin. Jehoram did not stop the sins of Jeroboam.

Moab Breaks Away from Israel

4Mesha was the king of Moab. Mesha owned many sheep. Mesha gave the wool of 100,000 lambs and 100,000 rams* to the king of Israel. 5But when Ahab died, the king of Moab broke away from the rule of the king of Israel.

6Then King Jehoram went out of Samaria and gathered together all the men of Israel. 7Jehoram sent messengers to Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah. Jehoram said, “The king of Moab has broken away from my rule. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?”

Jehoshaphat said, “Yes, I will go with you. We will join together as one army. My people will be like your people. And my horses will be like your horses.”

The Three Kings Ask Elisha for Advice

8Jehoshaphat asked Jehoram, “Which way should we go?”

Jehoram answered, “We should go through the Desert of Edom.”

Baal  The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

rams  Male sheep.
So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom. They traveled around for seven days. There was not enough water for the army or for their animals.

Finally, the king of Israel (Jehoram) said, “Oh, I think the Lord really brought us three kings together only to let the Moabites defeat us!”

But Jehoshaphat said, “Surely one of the Lord’s prophets is here. Let’s ask the prophet what the Lord says we should do.”

One of the servants of the king of Israel said, “Elisha son of Shaphat is here. Elisha was Elijah’s servant.”

Jehoshaphat said, “The Lord’s word is with Elisha!”

So the king of Israel (Jehoram), Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom went down to see Elisha.

Elisha said to the king of Israel (Jehoram), “What do you want from me? Go to the prophets of your father and mother!”

The king of Israel said to Elisha, “No, we have come to see you because the Lord called us three kings together to let the Moabites defeat us. We need your help.”

Elisha said, “I respect Jehoshaphat the king of Judah and I serve the Lord All-Powerful. And as sure as he lives, I came here only because of Jehoshaphat. I tell you the truth, if Jehoshaphat was not here, I would not pay any attention to you. I would ignore you completely! But now bring me a person who plays the harp.”

When the person played the harp, the Lord’s power came on Elisha. Then Elisha said, “This is what the Lord says: Dig holes in the valley. This is what the Lord says: You won’t see wind, you won’t see rain. But that valley will be filled with water. Then you and your cows and other animals will have water to drink. It is easy for the Lord to do. He will also let you defeat the Moabites. You will attack every strong city and every good city. You will cut down every good tree. You will stop up all the springs of water. You will ruin every good field with the stones that you throw at it.”

In the morning, at the time for the morning sacrifice, water began flowing from the direction of Edom and filled the valley.

The people in Moab heard that the kings had come up to fight against them. So the people in Moab gathered together all the men old enough to wear armor. They waited at the border, ready for the battle. The people of Moab got up early that morning. The rising sun was shining on the water in the valley, and it looked like blood to the people of Moab. The people of Moab said, “Look at the blood! The kings must have fought against each other. They must have destroyed each other. Let’s go take the valuable things from the dead bodies!”

The Moabite people came to the Israelite camp. But the Israelites came out and attacked the Moabite army. The Moabite people ran away from the Israelites. The Israelites followed them into Moab to fight the Moabites. The Israelites destroyed the cities. They threw their stones at every good field in Moab. They stopped up all the springs of water. And they cut down all the good trees. The Israelites fought all the way to Kir Hareseth. The soldiers surrounded Kir Hareseth and attacked it, too!

The king of Moab saw that the battle was too strong for him. So he took 700 men with swords to break through the army and kill the king of Edom. But they could not break through to the king of Edom. Then the king of Moab took his oldest son. This was the son who would become the next king after him. On the wall around the city, the king of Moab offered his son as a burnt offering. This upset the people of Israel very much. So the people of Israel left the king of Moab and went back to their own land.

Elisha was Elijah’s servant Literally, “Elisha poured water over Elijah’s hands.”

power Literally, “hand.”

armor The special clothes soldiers wore to protect themselves in war.

threw their stones These were probably the stones soldiers threw with slings in war.
A Prophet’s Widow Asks Elisha for Help

A man from the group of prophets had a wife. His wife cried out to Elisha, “My husband was like a servant to you. Now my husband is dead! You know he honored the Lord. But he owed money to a man. And now that man is coming to take my two boys and make them his slaves!”

Elisha answered, “How can I help you? Tell me, what do you have in your house?”

The woman said, “I don’t have anything in the house. I have only a jar of olive oil.”

Then Elisha said, “Go and borrow bowls from all your neighbors. They must be empty. Borrow plenty of bowls. Then go to your house and close the doors. Only you and your sons will be in the house. Then pour the oil into all those bowls. Fill those bowls, and put them in a separate place.”

So the woman left Elisha, went into her house, and shut the door. Only she and her sons were in the house. Her sons brought the bowls to her and she poured oil. She filled many bowls. Finally, she said to her son, “Bring me another bowl.”

But all of the bowls were full. One of the sons said to the woman, “There aren’t any more bowls.” At that time, the oil in the jar was finished!

Then the woman told the man of God what happened. Elisha told her, “Go, sell the oil and pay your debt. After you sell the oil, and pay your debt, you and your sons can live on the money that is left.”

A Woman in Shunem Gives Elisha a Room

One day Elisha went to Shunem. An important woman lived in Shunem. This woman asked Elisha to stop and eat at her house. So every time Elisha went through that place, he stopped there to eat.

The woman said to her husband, “Look, I can see that Elisha is a holy man of God. He passes by our house all the time. Please, let’s make a little room on the roof for Elisha. Let’s put a bed in this room. Let’s put a table, a chair, and a lampstand in there. Then when he comes to our house, he can have this room for himself.”

One day Elisha came to the woman’s house. He went to this room and rested there.

Elisha said to his servant Gehazi, “Call this Shunammite woman.”

The servant called the Shunammite woman, and she stood in front of Elisha. Elisha told his servant, “Now say to this woman, ‘Look, you have done your best to take care of us. What can we do for you? Do you want us to speak to the king for you, or to the captain of the army?’”

The woman answered, “I am fine living here among my own people.”

Elisha said to Gehazi, “What can we do for her?”

Gehazi answered, “I know! She doesn’t have a son, and her husband is old.”

Then Elisha said, “Call her.”

So Gehazi called the woman. She came and stood at his door.

Elisha said to the woman, “About this time next spring, you will be hugging your own baby boy.”

The woman said, “No sir! Man of God, don’t lie to me!”

The Woman in Shunem Has a Son

But the woman did become pregnant. She gave birth to a son that next spring, just like Elisha said.

The boy grew. One day, the boy went out into the fields to see his father and the men cutting the grain.

The boy said to his father, “Oh, my head! My head hurts!”

The father said to his servant, “Carry him to his mother!”

The servant took the boy to his mother. The boy sat on his mother’s lap until noon. Then he died.

The Woman Goes to See Elisha

The woman laid the boy on the bed of the man of God. She shut the door to that She called to her husband and said, “Please send me one of the servants and a donkey. Then I will go quickly to get the man of God (Elisha) and come back.”

The woman’s husband said, “Why do you want to go to the man of God (Elisha) today? It isn’t the New Moon* or Sabbath day*.”

She said, “Don’t worry. Everything will be all right.”

Then she put a saddle on a donkey and said to her servant, “Let’s go, and hurry! Go slow only when I tell you!”

The woman went to Mount Carmel to get the man of God* (Elisha). The man of God* (Elisha) saw the Shunammite woman coming from far away.

Elisha said to his servant Gehazi, “Look, there’s the Shunammite woman! Please run now to meet her! Say to her, ‘What’s wrong? Are you all right? Is your husband all right? Is the child all right?’”

( Gehazi asked the Shunammite woman these things.) She answered, “Everything is fine.”

But the Shunammite woman went up the hill to the man of God* (Elisha). She bowed down and touched Elisha’s feet. Gehazi came near to pull the Shunammite woman away.

The man of God (Elisha) said to Gehazi, “Let her alone! She’s very upset, and the Lord didn’t tell me about it. The Lord hid this news from me.”

Then the Shunammite woman said, “Sir, I never asked for a son. I told you, ‘Don’t trick me!’”

Then Elisha went into the house. And there was the child, lying dead on his bed.

Elisha went into the room and shut the door. Elisha and the child were alone in the room now. Then Elisha prayed to the Lord. Elisha went to the bed and lay on the child. Elisha put his mouth on the child’s mouth. Elisha put his eyes on the child’s eyes. Elisha put his hands on the child’s hands. Elisha lay there on top of the child until the child’s body became warm.

Then Elisha turned away and walked around the room. He went back and lay on the child until the child sneezed seven times and opened his eyes.

Elisha called Gehazi and said, “Call the Shunammite woman!”

Gehazi called the Shunammite woman, and she came to Elisha. Elisha said, “Pick up your son.”

Then the Shunammite woman went into the room and bowed down at Elisha’s feet. Then she picked up her son and went out.

Elisha and the Poisoned Soup

Elisha went to Gilgal again. There was a time of hunger in the land. The group of prophets* was sitting in front of Elisha. Elisha said to his servant, “Put the large pot on the fire, and make some soup for the group of prophets.”

One man went out into the field to gather herbs. He found a wild vine and picked the fruit from it. He put that fruit in his robe and brought it back. He cut up the wild fruit and put it into the pot. But the group of prophets* did not know what kind of fruit it was.
40 Then they poured some of the soup for the men to eat. But when they began to eat the soup, they shouted out to Elisha, “Man of God!* There’s poison in the pot!” The food tasted like poison, so they could not eat that food.

41 But Elisha said, “Bring some flour.” They brought flour to Elisha, and he threw it into the pot. Then Elisha said, “Pour the soup for the people so they can eat.” And there was nothing wrong with the soup!

Elisha Feeds the Group of Prophets
42 A man from Baal Shalishah came and brought bread from the first harvest to the man of God* (Elisha). This man brought 20 loaves of barley bread and fresh grain in his sack. Then Elisha said, “Give this food to the people, so that they can eat.”

43 Elisha’s servant said, “What? There are 100 men here. How can I give this food to all those men?” But Elisha said, “Give the food to the people to eat. The Lord says, ‘They will eat and there will still be food left over.’”

44 Then Elisha’s servant put the food in front of the group of prophets.* The group of prophets had enough to eat, and they even had food left over! This happened just like the Lord said.

Naaman’s Problem
5 Naaman was the captain of the army of the king of Aram. Naaman was very important to his king.* Naaman was very important because the Lord used him to lead Aram to victory. Naaman was a great and powerful man, but he was also sick with leprosy.*

2 The Aramean army sent many groups of soldiers to fight in Israel. The soldiers took people to be their slaves. One time they took a little girl from the land of Israel. This little girl became a servant of Naaman’s wife. 3 This girl said to Naaman’s wife, “I wish that my master (Naaman) would meet the prophet (Elisha) who lives in Samaria. That prophet could heal Naaman of his leprosy.*”

4 Naaman went to his master (the king of Aram). Naaman told the king of Aram the things that the Israelite girl said.

5 Then the king of Aram said, “Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel.”

So Naaman went to Israel. Naaman took some gifts with him. Naaman took 750 pounds* of silver, 6,000 pieces of gold and ten changes of clothes. Naaman took the letter from the king of Aram to the king of Israel. The letter said: “... Now, this letter is to show that I am sending my servant Naaman to you. Cure his leprosy.*”

7 When the king of Israel had read the letter, he tore his clothes to show he was sad and upset. The king of Israel said, “Am I God? No! I don’t have the power over life and death. So why did the king of Aram send a man sick with leprosy* for me to heal? Think about it, and you will see that it is a trick. The king of Aram is trying to start a fight!”

8 Elisha, the man of God,* heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes to show he was sad and upset. So Elisha sent this message to the king: “Why did you tear your clothes? Let Naaman come to me. Then he will know there is a prophet in Israel!”

9 So Naaman came with his horses and chariots* to Elisha’s house and stood outside the door. 10 Elisha sent a messenger to Naaman. The messenger* said, “Go, and wash in the Jordan River seven times. Then your skin will be healed, and you will be pure and clean.”

11 Naaman became angry and left. He said, “I thought Elisha would at least come out and stand in front of me and call on the name of the Lord his God. I thought he would wave his hand over my body and heal the leprosy*!”

12 Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, are better than all the water in Israel! Why can’t I wash in those rivers in Damascus and become clean?” Naaman was very angry and turned to leave.

---

Definitions:
- man of God: Another name for a prophet.
- king: Literally, “master.”
- leprosy: A very bad skin disease.
- 750 pounds: Or, 340kg. Literally, “10 talents (kikars).”
- chariot(s): A small wagon used in war.
13But Naaman’s servants went to him and talked to him. They said, “Father,* if the prophet told you to do some great thing, you would do it! Right? So you should obey him even if he tells you something easy. And he said, ‘Wash, and you will be pure and clean.’”

14So Naaman did what the man of God* (Elisha) said. Naaman went down and dipped himself in the Jordan River seven times. And Naaman became pure and clean! Naaman’s skin became soft like the skin of a baby.

15Naaman and all his group came back to the man of God* (Elisha). He stood before Elisha and said, “Look, I now know there is no God in all the earth except in Israel! Now please accept a gift from me!”

16But Elisha said, “I serve the Lord. And I promise, as the Lord lives, I will not accept any gift.”

Naaman tried hard to make Elisha take the gift, but Elisha refused. 17Then Naaman said, “If you won’t accept this gift, then at least do this for me. Let me have enough dirt from Israel to fill the baskets on two of my mules.* Why? Because I will never again offer any burnt offering or sacrifice to any other gods. I will offer sacrifices only to the Lord! 18And I now pray the Lord will forgive me for this thing: In the future, my master (the king of Aram) will go into the temple of Rimmon to worship [that false god]. The king will want to lean on me for support, so I must bow down in the temple of Rimmon. I now ask the Lord to forgive me when that happens.”

19Then Elisha said to Naaman, “Go in peace.”

So Naaman left Elisha and went a short way. 20But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God,* said, “Look, my master (Elisha) has let Naaman the Aramean go without accepting the gift that he brought! As the Lord lives, I will run after Naaman and get something from him!” 21So Gehazi ran to Naaman.

Naaman saw someone running after him. He stepped down from the chariot* to meet Gehazi. Naaman said, “Is everything all right?”

22Gehazi said, “Yes, everything is all right. My master (Elisha) has sent me. He said, ‘Look, two young men came to me. They were from the group of prophets* in the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them 75 pounds* of silver and two changes of clothes!”

23Naaman said, “Please, take 150 pounds!*” Naaman persuaded Gehazi to take the silver. Naaman put 150 pounds of silver in two bags and took two changes of clothes. Then Naaman gave these things to two of his servants. The servants carried these things for Gehazi.

24When Gehazi came to the hill, he took these things from the servants. Gehazi sent the servants away, and they left. Then Gehazi hid those things in the house.

25Gehazi came in and stood before his master {Elisha}. Elisha said to Gehazi, “Where have you been Gehazi?”

Gehazi said, “I didn’t go anywhere.”

26Elisha said to Gehazi, “That is not true! My heart was with you when the man {Naaman} turned from his chariot* to meet you. This is not the time to take money, clothes, olives, grapes, sheep, cows, or men and women servants. 27Now, you and your children will catch Naaman’s disease. You will have leprosy* forever!”

When Gehazi left Elisha, Gehazi’s skin was as white as snow! Gehazi was sick with leprosy.*

Elisha and the Axhead

6The group of prophets* said to Elisha, “We are staying in that place over there. But it is too small for us. Let’s go to the Jordan River

---

Father Slaves often called their masters “father,” and the masters often called their slaves “children.”

man of God Another name for a prophet.

Let me have ... my mules Naaman probably thought that the ground in Israel was holy, so he wanted to take some with him to help him to worship the Lord in his own country.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

group of prophets Literally, “sons of the prophets.” These people were prophets and people studying to become prophets.

75 pounds Or, 34kg. Literally, “1 talent (kikar).”

150 pounds Or, 68kg. Literally, “2 talents (kikars).”

leprosy A very bad skin disease.
Elisha answered, “Fine, go and do it.”

3One person said, “Please go with us.”

Elisha said, “Fine, I will go with you.”

4So Elisha went with the group of prophets.* When they arrived at the Jordan River, they began to cut down some trees.

5But when one man was cutting down a tree, the iron axhead slipped from the handle and fell into the water. The man shouted, “Oh, master! I borrowed that axe!”

6The man of God* (Elisha) said, “Where did it fall?”

The man showed Elisha the place where the axhead fell. Then Elisha cut a stick and threw the stick into the water. The stick made the iron axhead float. 7Elisha said, “Pick up the axhead.” Then the man reached out and took the axhead.

Aram Tries to Trap Israel

8The king of Aram was making war against Israel. He had a council meeting with his army officers. He said, “Hide in this place and attack the Israelites when they come by.”

9But the man of God* (Elisha) sent a message to the king of Israel. Elisha said, “Be careful! Don’t go by that place! The Aramean soldiers are hiding there!”

10The king of Israel sent a message to his men at the place that the man of God* (Elisha) warned him about. And the king of Israel saved quite a few men.*

11The king of Aram was very upset about this. The king of Aram called his army officers and said to them, “Tell me who is spying for the king of Israel.”

12One of the officers of the king of Aram said, “My lord and king, not one of us is a spy! Elisha, the prophet from Israel, can tell the king of Israel many secret things—even the words that you speak in your bedroom!”

13The king of Aram said, “Find Elisha and I will send men to catch him!”

The servants told the king of Aram, “Elisha is in Dothan!”

14Then the king of Aram sent horses, chariots,* and a large army to Dothan. They arrived at night and surrounded the city.

15Elisha’s servant got up early that morning. The servant went outside, and he saw an army with horses and chariots all around the city!

Elisha’s servant said to Elisha, “Oh, my master, what can we do?”

16Elisha said, “Don’t be afraid! The army that fights for us is larger than the army that fights for Aram!”

17Then Elisha prayed and said, “Lord, I ask you, open my servant’s eyes so he can see.”

The Lord opened the eyes of the young man, and the servant saw the mountain was full of horses and chariots* of fire. They were all around Elisha!

18These horses and chariots* of fire came down to Elisha. Elisha prayed to the Lord and said, “I pray that you will cause these people to become blind.”

Then the Lord did what Elisha asked. The Lord caused the Aramean army to become blind. 19Elisha said to the Aramean army, “This is not the right way. This is not the right city. Follow me. I will lead you to the man you are looking for.” Then Elisha led the Aramean army to Samaria.*

20When they arrived at Samaria,* Elisha said, “Lord, open the eyes of these men so they can see.”

Then the Lord opened their eyes, and the Aramean army saw they were in the city of Samaria! 21The king of Israel saw the Aramean army. The king of Israel said to Elisha, “My father, should I kill them? Should I kill them?”

22Elisha answered, “No, don’t kill them. You would not kill people that you captured in war with your sword and with your bow and arrows. Give the Aramean army some bread and water. Let them eat and drink. Then let them go home to their master.”

---

group of prophets  Literally, “sons of the prophets.” These people were prophets and people studying to become prophets.

man of God  Another name for a prophet.

quite a few men  Literally, “not one or two.”

chariots  A small wagon used in war.

Samaria  This was the capital city of Israel—the enemy of Aram.
The king of Israel prepared much food for the Aramean army. The Aramean army ate and drank. Then the king of Israel sent the Aramean army back home. The Aramean army went home to their master. The Arameans did not send any more soldiers into the land of Israel to make raids.

A Terrible Time of Hunger Hits Samaria

After this happened, Ben Hadad king of Aram gathered all his army and went to surround and attack the city Samaria. The soldiers would not let people bring food into the city. So there was a time of terrible hunger in Samaria. It was so bad in Samaria that a donkey’s head was sold for 80 pieces of silver. And one pint of dove's dung sold for five pieces of silver.

The king of Israel was walking on the wall around the city. A woman shouted out to him. The woman said, “My lord and king, please help me!”

The king of Israel said, “If the Lord does not help you, how can I help you? I have nothing to give to you—there is no grain from the threshing floor or wine from the winepress.”

Then the king of Israel said to the woman, “What is your trouble?”

The woman answered, “This woman said to me, ‘Give me your son so that we can kill him and eat him today. Then we will eat my son tomorrow.’ Then we boiled my son and ate him. Then the next day, I said to this woman, ‘Give me your son so we can kill him and eat him.’ But she has hidden her son!”

When the king heard the woman’s words, he tore his clothes to show he was upset. As the king passed by on the wall, the people saw the king was wearing under his clothes the rough cloth that showed he was sad and upset.

The king said, “May God punish me if the head of Elisha son of Shaphat is still on his body at the end of this day!”

The king sent a messenger to Elisha. Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders (leaders) were sitting with him. Before the messenger arrived, Elisha said to the elders, “Look, that son of a murderer (the king of Israel) is sending men to cut off my head! When the messenger arrives, shut the door! Hold the door and don’t let him in! I hear the sound of his master’s feet coming behind him!”

While Elisha was still talking with the elders (leaders), the messenger came to him. This was the message: “This trouble has come from the Lord! Why should I wait for the Lord any longer?”

Elisha said, “Listen to the message from the Lord! The Lord says: ‘About this time tomorrow, there will be plenty of food, and it will be cheap again. A person will be able to buy a basket of fine flour or two baskets of barley for only one shekel in the market place by the city gates of Samaria.’”

Then the officer that was close to the king answered the man of God (Elisha). The officer said, “Even if the Lord made windows in heaven, this could not happen!”

Elisha said, “You will see it with your own eyes. But you will not eat any of that food.”

Lepers Find the Aramean Camp Empty

There were four men sick with leprosy near the city gate. They said to each other, “Why are we sitting here waiting to die? There is no food in the Samaria. If we go into the city, we will die there. If we stay here, we will also die. So let’s go to the Aramean camp. If they let us live, then we will live. If they kill us, then we will just die.

So that evening the four lepers went to the Aramean camp. They came to the edge of the Aramean camp. No people were there! The Lord had caused the Aramean army to hear the sound of chariots, horses, and a large army. So the Aramean soldiers said to each other, “The king of Israel has hired the

---

Notes:
- one pint About 0.3 l. Literally, “1/4 cab.”
- threshing floor A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.
kings of the Hittites and Egyptians to come against us!”

7 The Arameans ran away early that evening. They left everything behind. They left their tents, horses, and donkeys, and they ran for their lives.

The Lepers in the Enemy Camp

8 When these lepers came to where the camp began, they went into one tent. They ate and drank. Then the four lepers carried silver, gold, and clothes out of the camp. They hid the silver, gold, and clothes. Then they came back and entered another tent. They carried things out from this tent. They went out and hid these things. Then these lepers said to each other, “We are doing wrong! Today we have good news. But we are silent. If we wait until the sun comes up, we will be punished. Now let’s go and tell the people who live in the king’s house.”

The Lepers Tell the Good News

10 So these lepers came and called to the gatekeepers of the city. The lepers told the gatekeepers, “We went to the Aramean camp. But we did not hear any people. No people were there. The horses and donkeys were still tied up, and the tents were still standing. But the people were all gone!”

11 Then the gatekeepers of the city shouted out and told the people in the king’s house. It was night, but the king got up from bed. The king said to his officers, “I will tell you what the Aramean soldiers are doing to us. They know we are hungry. They left the camp to hide in the field. They are thinking, ‘When the Israelites come out of the city, we will capture them alive. And then we will enter the city.’”

12 Then the king chose his officer that was close to him to guard the gate. But the people ran to get food from the enemy camp. The people knocked the officer down and walked on him, and he died. So all those things happened just like the man of God (Elisha) said when the king came to Elisha’s house. 18 Elisha had said, “A person will be able to buy a basket of fine flour or two baskets of barley for only one shekel.”

19 But that officer had answered the man of God, “Even if the Lord made windows in heaven, this could not happen!” And Elisha had told the officer, “You will see it with your own eyes. But you will not eat any of that food.”

20 It happened to the officer just that way. The people knocked him down at the gate and walked on him, and he died.

The King and the Shunammite Woman

8 Elisha talked to the woman whose son he had brought back to life. Elisha said, “You and your family should move to another country. Why? Because the Lord has decided that there will be a time of hunger here. This time of hunger will be in this country for seven years.”

2 So the woman did what the man of God said. She went with her family to stay in the

---

Notes:
- lepers: People sick with leprosy.
- The horses ... city: The Hebrew is hard to understand here.
- chariots: A small wagon used in war.
- baskets: Literally, “seah(s).”
- shekel: Or, “2/5 of an ounce.”
- man of God: Another name for a prophet.
land of the Philistines for seven years. After the seven years were finished, the woman came back from the land of the Philistines.

The woman went to speak with the king. She wanted to ask him to help her get back her house and land.

4 The king was talking with Gehazi, the servant of the man of God (Elisha). The king said to Gehazi, “Please tell me all the great things Elisha has done.”

5 Gehazi was telling the king about Elisha bringing a dead person back to life. At that time, the woman whose son Elisha brought back to life went to the king. She wanted to ask him to help her get back her house and land. Gehazi said, “My lord and king, this is the woman! And this is the son that Elisha brought back to life!”

6 The king asked the woman what she wanted. And the woman told him.

Then the king chose an officer to help the woman. The king said, “Give to the woman all that belongs to her. And give her all the harvest of her land from the day she left the country until now.”

Ben Hadad Sends Hazael to Elisha

7 Elisha went to Damascus. Ben Hadad king of Aram was sick. A person told Ben Hadad, “The man of God has come here.”

8 Then the King Ben Hadad said to Hazael, “Take a gift, and go to meet the man of God. Ask him to ask the Lord if I will get well from my sickness.”

9 So Hazael went to meet Elisha. Hazael brought a gift with him. He brought all kinds of good things from Damascus. It took 40 camels to carry everything. Hazael went to Elisha. Hazael said, “Your follower, Ben Hadad king of Aram, sent me to you. He asks if he will get well from his sickness.”

10 Then Elisha said to Hazael, “Go and tell Ben Hadad, ‘You will live.’ But really the Lord told me, ‘He will die.’”

Elisha Makes a Prophecy About Hazael

11 Elisha began to stare. He stared until Hazael felt embarrassed. Then the man of God began to cry. 12 Hazael said, “Sir, why are you crying?”

Elisha answered, “I am crying because I know the bad things you will do to the Israelites. You will burn their strong cities. You will kill your young men with swords. You will kill their babies. You will split open their pregnant women.”

13 Hazael said, I am not a powerful man! I can’t do these great things!”

Elisha answered, “The Lord showed me that you will be king over Aram.”

14 Then Hazael left Elisha, and went to his king. Ben Hadad said to Hazael, “What did Elisha say to you?”

Hazael answered, “Elisha told me that you will live.”

Hazael Murders Ben Hadad

15 But the next day, Hazael took a thick cloth and dipped it in water. Then he put the cover on Ben Hadad’s face, and smothered him. Ben Hadad died and Hazael became the new king.

Jehoram Begins His Rule

16 Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat was the king of Judah. Jehoram began to rule in the fifth year that Joram son of Ahab was king of Israel. 17 Jehoram was 32 years old when he began to rule. He ruled eight years in Jerusalem. 18 But Jehoram lived like the kings of Israel and did the things that the Lord said were wrong. Jehoram lived like the people from Ahab’s family. Jehoram lived like this because his wife was Ahab’s daughter. 19 But the Lord would not destroy Judah because of the promise to his servant David. The Lord had promised David that someone from his family would always be king.

20 In Jehoram’s time Edom broke away from Judah’s rule. The people of Edom chose a king for themselves.

man of God  Another name for a prophet.
follower  Literally, “son.”
You will live  Or possibly, “You will not live.”

I ... powerful man  Literally, “Your servant is only a dog!”
knight  Literally, “master.”
21 Then Jehoram and all his chariots* went to Zair. The Edomite army surrounded them. Jehoram and his officers attacked them and escaped. Jehoram’s soldiers all ran away and went home. 22 So the Edomites broke away from the rule of Judah. And they have been free from the rule of Judah until today.

At the same time, Libnah also broke away from Judah’s rule.

23 All the things Jehoram did are written in the book, The History of the Kings of Judah.

24 Jehoram {died and} was buried with his ancestors* in the City of David.* Jehoram’s son Ahaziah became the new king.

Ahaziah Begins His Rule

25 Ahaziah son of Jehoram became the king of Judah in the 12th year that Joram son of Ahab was king of Israel. 26 Ahaziah was 22 years old when he began to rule. He ruled one year in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Athaliah. She was the daughter of Omri, the king of Israel. 27 Ahaziah did the things the Lord said were wrong. Ahaziah did many bad things like the people from Ahab’s family. Ahaziah lived like this because his wife was from Ahab’s family.

Joram Is Hurt in the War Against Hazael

28 Joram was from Ahab’s family. Ahaziah went with Joram to fight against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram. 29 King Joram went back to Israel so he could get well from those wounds. Joram went to the area of Jezreel. Ahaziah son of Jehoram was the king of Judah. Ahaziah went to Jezreel to see Joram.

Elisha Tells a Prophet to Anoint Jehu

9 Elisha the prophet called one of the group of prophets.* Elisha said to this man, “Get ready and take this small bottle of oil in your hand. Go to Ramoth Gilead. 2 When you arrive there, find Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi. Then go in and make him get up from among his brothers. Take him to an inner room. 3 Take the small bottle of oil and pour the oil on Jehu’s head. Say, ‘This is what the Lord says: I have anointed* you to be the new king over Israel.’ Then open the door and run away. Don’t wait!’

4 So this young man, the prophet, went to Ramoth Gilead. 5 When the young man arrived, he saw the captains of the army sitting. The young man said, “Captain, I have a message for you.”

Jehu said, “We all are here. Which one of us is the message for?”

The young man said, “[The message is for] you, captain.”

6 Jehu got up and went into the house. Then the young prophet poured the oil on Jehu’s head. The young prophet said to Jehu, “The Lord God of Israel says, ‘I am anointing* you to be the new king over the Lord’s people, Israel. 7 You must destroy the family of Ahab your king. In this way I will punish Jezebel for the deaths of my servants, the prophets, and the deaths of all the Lord’s servants that were murdered. 8 So all Ahab’s family will die. I will not let any male child in Ahab’s family live. It doesn’t matter if that male child is a slave or a free person in Israel. 9 I will make Ahab’s family like the family of Jeroboam son of Nebat, and like the family of Baasha son of Ahijah. 10 The dogs will eat Jezebel in the area of Jezreel. Jezebel will not be buried.”

Then the young prophet opened the door and ran away.

The Servants Announce Jehu as King

11 Jehu went back to his king’s officers. One of the officers said to Jehu, “Is everything all right? Why did this crazy man come to you?”

Jehu answered the servants, “You know the man and the crazy things he says.”

12 The officers said, “No! Tell us the truth. What did he say?” Jehu told the officers the things that the young prophet said. Jehu said,
“He said, ‘This is what the Lord says: I have anointed you to be the new king over Israel.’”

13Then each officer quickly took his robe off and put it on the steps in front of Jehu. Then they blew the trumpet and made the announcement, “Jehu is king!”

Jehu Goes to Jezreel

14So Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, son of Nimshi, made plans against Joram.

At that time, Joram and the Israelites had been trying to defend Ramoth Gilead from Hazael king of Aram. 15King Joram had fought against Hazael, king of Aram. But the Arameans wounded King Joram, and he went to Jezreel to get well from those injuries.

So Jehu told the officers, “If you agree that I am the new king, then don’t let any person escape from the city to tell the news in Jezreel.”

16Joram was resting in Jezreel. So Jehu got in his chariot and drove to Jezreel. Ahaziah king of Judah had also come to Jezreel to see Joram.

17A guard was standing on the tower in Jezreel. He saw Jehu’s large group coming. He said, “I see a large group of people!”

Joram said, “Send someone on a horse to meet them. Tell this messenger to ask if those people come in peace.”

18So the messenger rode on a horse to meet Jehu. The messenger said, “King Joram says, ‘Do you come in peace?’”

Jehu answered, “You have nothing to do with peace! Come and follow me.”

The guard told Joram, “The messenger went to the group, but he has not come back yet.”

19Then Joram sent out a second messenger on a horse. This man came to Jehu’s group and said, “King Joram says, ‘Peace.’”

Jehu answered, “You have nothing to do with peace! Come and follow me.”

20The guard told Joram, “The second messenger went to the group, but he has not come back yet. There is a man driving his chariot like a mad man. He is driving like Jehu son of Nimshi.”

21Joram said, “Get me my chariot!”

So the servant got Joram’s chariot. Both Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah got their chariots and drove out to meet Jehu. They met Jehu at the property of Naboth from Jezreel.

22Joram saw Jehu and asked, “Do you come in peace, Jehu?”

Jehu answered, “There is no peace as long as your mother Jezebel does many acts of prostitution and witchcraft.”

23Joram turned the horses to run away. Joram said to Ahaziah, “It is a trick, Ahaziah!”

24But Jehu pulled his bow with all his strength and shot Joram in his back. The arrow went through Joram’s heart. Joram fell dead in his chariot.

25Jehu said to his chariot driver Bidkar, “Take Joram’s body up and throw it into the field of Naboth from Jezreel. Remember when you and I rode together with Joram’s father Ahab, the Lord said this would happen to him. 26The Lord said, ‘Yesterday I saw the blood of Naboth and his sons. So I will punish Ahab in this field.’ The Lord said that. So take Joram’s body and throw it into the field, just like the Lord said!”

27Ahaziah king of Judah saw this, and ran away. He tried to escape through the garden house, but Jehu followed him. Jehu had said, “Shoot Ahaziah, too!”

Ahaziah was wounded when he was in his chariot on the road to Gur near Ibleam. Ahaziah got as far as Megiddo, but he died there.

28Ahaziah’s servants carried his body in the chariot to Jerusalem. They buried Ahaziah in his tomb with his ancestors in the City of David.

29Ahaziah became king over Judah during Joram’s eleventh year as king of Israel.

The Terrible Death of Jezebel

30Jehu went to Jezreel, and Jezebel heard the news. She put her makeup on and fixed her hair. Then she stood by the window and witchcraft Using magic or the power of Satan to do things.

in his back Literally, “between his arms.”
ancestors Literally, “fathers.” This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
City of David A part of the city of Jerusalem.
Joram’s Literally, “Joram son of Ahab.”
looked out. 31Jehu entered the city. Jezebel said, “Hello, you Zimri*! Just like him, you killed your master!” 32Jehu looked up at the window. He said, “Who is on my side? Who?”  Two or three eunuchs* looked out from the window at Jehu. 33Jehu said to them, “Throw Jezebel down!” Then the eunuchs* threw Jezebel down. Some of Jezebel’s blood splashed on the wall and on the horses. The horses walked on Jezebel’s body. 34Jehu went into the house and ate and drank. Then he said, “Now see about this cursed woman. Bury her, because she is a king’s daughter.” 35The men went to bury Jezebel. But they could not find her body. They could only find her skull, her feet, and the palms of her hands. 36So the men came back and told Jehu. Then Jehu said, “The Lord told his servant Elijah the Tishbite to give this message. Elijah said: ‘Dogs will eat the body of Jezebel in the area of Jezreel. 37Jezebel’s body will be like dung on the field in the area of Jezreel. People won’t be able to recognize Jezebel’s body!’”

Jehu Writes the Leaders of Samaria

Jehu left Jezreel and went to Samaria. On the way, Jehu stopped at a place called Shepherd’s Camp, where the shepherds cut wool from their sheep. 2Jehu met with the relatives of Ahaziah king of Judah. Jehu said to them, “Who are you?” They answered, “We are the relatives of Ahaziah, king of Judah. We have come down to visit the king’s children and the queen mother’s* children.

Leaders of Samaria Kill Ahab’s Children

6Then Jehu wrote a second letter to these leaders. Jehu said, “If you support me and obey me, then cut off the heads of Ahab’s sons. And bring them to me at Jezreel about this time tomorrow.

Ahab had 70 sons. They were with the leaders of the city that raised them. 7When the leaders of the city received the letter, they took the king’s sons and killed all 70 of them. Then the leaders put the heads of the king’s sons in baskets. They sent the baskets to Jehu at Jezreel. 8The messenger came to Jehu and told him, “They have brought the heads of the king’s sons!”

Then Jehu said, “Lay the heads in two piles at the city gate until morning.” 9In the morning, Jehu went out and stood before the people. He said to the people, “You are innocent. Look, I made plans against my master. I killed him. But who killed all these sons of Ahab? You killed them! 10You should know that everything the Lord says will happen. And the Lord used Elijah to say these things about Ahab’s family. Now the Lord has done the things he said he would do.”

11So Jehu killed all the people in Ahab’s family living in Jezreel. Jehu killed all the important men, close friends, and priests. None of Ahab’s people were left alive.

Jehu Kills Ahaziah’s Relatives

Jehu left Jezreel and went to Samaria. On the way, Jehu stopped at a place called Shepherd’s Camp, where the shepherds cut wool from their sheep. 13Jehu met with the relatives of Ahaziah king of Judah. Jehu said to them, “Who are you?” They answered, “We are the relatives of Ahaziah, king of Judah. We have come down to visit the king’s children and the queen mother’s* children.

Zimri  Zimri was the man that killed Elah and the family of Baasha in Israel many years before. Read 1 Kings 16:8–12.
eunuchs  Men that had their sexual organs removed. Often important officials of the king were eunuchs.
chariot(s)  A small wagon used in war.
queen mother  The mother of the king.
14 Then Jehu said to his men, “Take them alive!” Jehu’s men captured Ahaziah’s relatives alive. There were 42 people. Jehu killed them at the well near Beth Eked. Jehu did not leave any person alive.

Jehu Meets Jehonadab

15 After Jehu left there, he met Jehonadab son of Recab. Jehonadab was on his way to meet Jehu. Jehu greeted Jehonadab and said to him, “Are you a faithful friend to me, as I am to you?”

Jehonadab answered, “Yes, I am a faithful friend to you.”

Jehu said, “If you are, then give me your hand.”

Then Jehu reached out and pulled Jehonadab up into the chariot.

16 Jehu said, “Come with me. You can see how strong my feelings are for the Lord.”

So Jehonadab rode in Jehu’s chariot.

17 Jehu came to Samaria and killed all Ahab’s family that were still alive in Samaria. Jehu killed them all. Jehu did the things that the Lord had told Elijah.

Jehu Calls the Worshipers of Baal

18 Then Jehu gathered all the people together. Jehu said to them, “Ahab served Baal a little. But Jehu will serve Baal much! Now call together all the priests and prophets of Baal. And call together all the people that worship Baal. Don’t let any person miss this meeting. I have a great sacrifice to give to Baal. I will kill any person that doesn’t come to this meeting!”

But Jehu was tricking them. Jehu wanted to destroy the worshipers of Baal. Jehu said, “Prepare a holy meeting for Baal.” And the priests announced the meeting. Then Jehu sent a message through all the land of Israel. All the worshipers of Baal came. There was not a person that stayed home. The Baal worshipers came into the temple* of Baal. The temple was filled with people.

22 Jehu said to the man that kept the robes, “Bring out the robes for all the worshipers of Baal.” So that man brought out the robes for the Baal worshipers.

23 Then Jehu and Jehonadab son of Recab went into the temple* of Baal. Jehu said to the worshipers of Baal, “Look around and be sure that there are no servants of the Lord with you. Be sure there are only people that worship Baal.” Then the worshipers of Baal went into the temple of Baal to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings.

But outside, Jehu had 80 men waiting. Jehu told them, “Don’t let any of the people escape. If any man lets one person escape, then that man must pay with his own life.

25 Quickly after Jehu had finished offering the burnt offering, he said to the guards and to the captains, “Go in and kill the worshipers of Baal! Don’t let any person come out of the temple alive!”

So the captains used thin swords and killed the worshipers of Baal. The guards and the captains threw the bodies of the worshipers of Baal out. Then the guards and the captains went to the inner room* of the temple* of Baal. They brought out the memorial stones* that were in the temple of Baal and burned the temple. Then they smashed the memorial stones of Baal. They also smashed the temple of Baal. They made the temple of Baal into a restroom. People still use that place as a toilet.

28 So Jehu destroyed Baal worship in Israel. But Jehu did not completely turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that caused Israel to sin. Jehu did not destroy the golden calves in Bethel and in Dan.

---

Are you a faithful friend ... you Literally, “Is your heart true to me? My heart is true to your heart.”

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

inner room Literally, “The city of the temple of Baal.”

memorial stones Stones that were set up to help people remember something special. In ancient Israel, people often set up stones as special places to worship false gods.
Jehu's Rule Over Israel

30 The Lord said to Jehu, “You have done well. You have done the things that I say are good. You destroyed Ahab's family the way I wanted you to. So your descendants* will rule Israel for four generations.”

31 But Jehu was not careful to live in the law of the Lord with all his heart. Jehu did not stop doing the sins of Jeroboam that caused Israel to sin.

Hazael Defeats Israel

32 At that time, the Lord began to cut parts from Israel. Hazael king of Aram defeated the Israelites on every border of Israel. 33 Hazael won the land east of the Jordan River—all the land of Gilead, including the land that belonged to the family groups of Gad, Reuben, and Manasseh. Hazael won all the land from Aroer by the Arnon Valley to Gilead and Bashan.

The Death of Jehu

34 All the other great things that Jehu did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Israel. 35 Jehu died and was buried with his ancestors.* The people buried Jehu in Samaria. Jehu's son Jehoahaz became the new king of Israel after him. 36 Jehu ruled over Israel in Samaria for 28 years.

Athaliah Kills the King's Sons in Judah

11 Athaliah was Ahaziah’s mother. She saw that her son was dead, so she got up and killed all the king’s family.

2 Jehosheba was King Joram’s daughter and Ahaziah’s sister. Joash was one of the king’s sons. Jehosheba took Joash while the other children were being killed. Jehosheba hid Joash. She put Joash and his nurse in her bedroom. So Jehosheba and the nurse hid Joash from Athaliah. That way Joash was not killed.

3 Then Joash and Jehosheba hid in the Lord’s temple.* Joash hid there for six years. And Athaliah ruled over the land of Judah.

4 In the seventh year, Jehoiada the high priest sent and got the captains of the Carites* and guards.* Jehoiada brought them together in the Lord’s temple.* Then Jehoiada made an agreement with them. In the temple Jehoiada forced them to make a promise. Then he showed the king’s son (Joash) to them.

5 Then Jehoiada gave them a command. He said, “This is the thing you must do. One-third of you must come in at the start of each Sabbath day. You men will protect the king at his house. 6 Another third of you will be at the Sur Gate. And another third will be at the gate behind the guard. This way you will be like a wall protecting Joash. 7 At the end of each Sabbath day, two-thirds of you will guard the Lord’s temple and protect King Joash. 8 You must stay with King Joash any time he goes any place. The whole group must surround the king. Each guard must have his weapon in his hand. And you must kill any person that comes too close to you.”

9 The captains obeyed all the things that Jehoiada the priest commanded. Each captain took his men. One group was to guard the king on Saturday. And the other groups were to guard the king during the rest of the week. All those men went to Jehoiada the priest. 10 And the priest gave spears and shields to the captains. These were the spears and shields David put in the Lord’s temple.* 11 These guards stood with their weapons in their hands from the right corner of the temple to the left corner of the temple. They stood around the altar* and the temple and around the king when he went to the temple. 12 These men brought out Joash. They put the crown on Joash and gave him the agreement

temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

Carites Or, “Kerethites,” special soldiers hired to serve the king.

guards Literally, “runners” or “messengers.”

altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.
between the king and God.* Then they anointed* him and made him the new king. They clapped their hands and shouted, “Long live the king!”

13Queen Athaliah heard the noise from the guards and the people. So she went to the people at the Lord’s temple. 14Athaliah saw the king by the column where the king usually stood. She also saw the leaders and men playing the trumpets for the king. She saw that all the people were very happy. She heard the trumpets, and she tore her clothes to show she was upset. Then Athaliah shouted, “Treason! Treason!”

15Jehoiada the priest gave a command to the captains that were in charge of the soldiers. Jehoiada told them, “Take Athaliah outside of the temple area. Kill any of her followers. But don’t kill them in the Lord’s temple.”

16So the soldiers grabbed Athaliah. They killed her as soon as she went through the horse’s entrance to the palace.

17Then Jehoiada made the agreement between the Lord and the king and the people. This agreement showed that the king and the people belonged to the Lord. Jehoiada also made the agreement between the king and the people. This agreement showed what the king would do for the people. And it showed that the people would obey and follow the king.

18Then all the people went to the temple of the false god Baal. The people destroyed the statue of Baal, and they destroyed his altars.* They broke them into many, many pieces. The people also killed Baal’s priest, Mattan, in front of the altars.

So Jehoiada, the priest put men in charge of maintaining the Lord’s temple. 19The priest led all the people. They went from the Lord’s temple to the king’s house. The king’s special guards and the captains went with the king. And all the other people followed them. They went to the entrance to the king’s house. Then King Joash sat on the throne. 20All the people were happy. The city was peaceful. And Queen Athaliah was killed with a sword near the king’s house.

21Joash was seven years old when he became the king.

12 Joash began to rule during Jehu’s seventh year as king of Israel. Joash ruled 40 years in Jerusalem. Joash’s mother was named Zibiah of Beersheba. 2Joash did the things that the Lord said were right. Joash obeyed the Lord all his life. He did the things that Jehoiada the priest taught him. 3But he did not destroy the high places.* The people still made sacrifices and burned incense at those places of worship.

Joash Orders the Temple Repaired

4–5Joash said to the priests, “There is much money in the Lord’s temple. People have given things to the temple. People have paid the temple tax when they were counted. And people have given money simply because they wanted to. You priests should take that money and repair the Lord’s temple. Each priest should use the money he gets from the people he serves. He should use that money to repair the damages to the Lord’s temple.”

6But the priests did not do the repairs. In the 23rd year that Joash was king, the priests still had not repaired the temple. 7So king Joash called for Jehoiada the priest and the other priests. Joash said to Jehoiada and the other priests, “Why haven’t you repaired the temple? Stop taking money from the people you serve. Stop using that money. That money must be used to repair the temple.”

8The priests agreed to stop taking money from the people. But they also decided not to repair the temple. 9So Jehoiada the priest took a box and made a hole in the top of it. Then Jehoiada put the box on the south side of the altar. This box was by the door where people came into the Lord’s temple. Some of the priests guarded the doorway* of the temple. Those priests took the money people had given to the Lord, and they put that money into that box.

10Then the people began putting money into that box when they went to the temple. Whenever the king’s secretary and the high priest saw there was a lot of money in the box, they came and took the money from the box. They put the money in bags and counted it. 11Then they paid the workers that worked on the Lord’s temple. They paid the carpenters and other builders that worked on the Lord’s temple. 12They used that money to pay the stoneworkers and stonecutters. And they used that money to buy timber, cut stone, and everything else to repair the Lord’s temple.

13–14People gave money for the Lord’s temple. But the priests could not use that money to make silver cups, snuffers,* basins, trumpets, or any gold and silver dishes. That money was used to pay the workers. And those workers repaired the Lord’s temple. 15No one counted all the money or forced the workers to tell what happened to the money. Why? Because those workers could be trusted!

16People gave money at the times they offered guilt offerings and sin offerings. But that money was not used to pay the workers. That money belonged to the priests.

Joash Saves Jerusalem from Hazael

17Hazael was the king of Aram. Hazael went to fight against the city of Gath. Hazael defeated Gath. Then he made plans to go fight against Jerusalem.

18Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah had been kings of Judah. They were Joash’s* ancestors.* They had given many things to the Lord. Those things were kept in the temple. Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah had been kings of Judah. They were Joash’s* ancestors.* They had given many things to the Lord. Those things were kept in the temple. Joash also had given many things to the Lord. Joash took all those and all the gold that was in the temple and in his house. Then Joash sent all those expensive things to Haza star king of Aram.

The Death of Joash

19All the great things that Joash did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Judah.

20Joash’s officers made plans against him. They killed Joash at the house of Millo on the road that goes down to Silla. 21Jozabad son of Shimeath and Jehozabad son of Shomer were Joash’s officers. Those men killed Joash.

The people buried Joash with his ancestors* in the City of David.* Joash’s son Amaziah became the new king after him.

Jehoahaz Begins His Rule

13Jehoahaz son of Jehu became king over Israel in Samaria. This was during the 23rd year that Joash son of Ahaziah was king in Judah. Jehoahaz ruled 17 years.

2Jehoahaz did those things the Lord said were wrong. Jehoahaz followed the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that caused Israel to sin. Jehoahaz did not stop doing those things.

3Then the Lord was angry against Israel. The Lord gave Israel into the power of Hazael king of Aram and Hazael’s son Ben Hadad.

The Lord Has Mercy on the People of Israel

4Then Jehoahaz begged the Lord to help them. And the Lord listened to him. The Lord had seen the troubles of Israel and how the king of Aram troubled the Israelites.

5So the Lord sent a man to save Israel. The Israelites were free from the Arameans. So the Israelites went to their own homes, like they did before.

6But the Israelites still did not stop doing the sins of the family of Jeroboam that caused Israel to sin. The Israelites continued doing the sins of Jeroboam. They also kept the Asherah poles* in Samaria.

7The king of Aram defeated Jehoahaz’s army. The king of Aram destroyed most of the men in the army. He left only 50 horse doorway Literally, “threshold.”

---

snuffers They were like small cups used to put out lamps.

Joash Or, “Jehoash,” the long form of the name “Joash.”

ancestors Literally, “fathers.” This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

City of David A part of the city of Jerusalem.

Asherah poles These poles were used to honor the female god Asherah that the Canaanite people worshiped.
soldiers, 10 chariots, and 10,000 foot soldiers. Jehoahaz’s soldiers were like chaff blown away by the wind at the time of threshing.

All the great things that Jehoahaz did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Israel. Jehoahaz died and was buried with his ancestors. The people buried Jehoahaz in Samaria. Jehoahaz’s son Jehoash became the new king after him.

Jehoash’s Rule Over Israel

Jehoash son of Jehoahaz became king over Israel in Samaria. This was during the 37th year that Joash was king of Judah. Jehoash ruled Israel for 16 years.

Jehoash king of Israel did the things the Lord said were wrong. He did not stop doing the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that caused Israel to sin. Jehoash continued to do those sins.

All the great things that Jehoash did and his wars against Amaziah king of Judah are written in the book The History of the Kings of Israel.

Jehoash died and was buried with his ancestors. Jeroboam became the new king and sat on Jehoash’s throne. Jehoash was buried at Samaria with the kings of Israel.

Jehoash Visits Elisha

Elisha became sick. Later, Elisha died from this sickness. Jehoash, king of Israel, went to visit Elisha. Jehoash cried for Elisha.

Jehoash said, “My father, my father! Is it time for the chariot of Israel and its horses?”

Elisha said to Jehoash, “Take a bow and some arrows.”

Jehoash took a bow and some arrows.

Then Elisha said to the king of Israel, “Put your hand on the bow.” Jehoash put his hand on the bow. Then Elisha put his hands on the king’s hands.

Elisha said, “Open the east window.” Jehoash opened the window. Then Elisha said, “Shoot.”

Jehoash shot. Then Elisha said, “That is the Lord’s arrow of victory! The arrow of victory over Aram! You will defeat the Arameans at Aphek. And you will destroy them.”

Elisha said, “Take the arrows.” Jehoash took the arrows. Then Elisha said to the king of Israel, “Hit on the ground.”

Jehoash hit the ground three times. Then he stopped.

The man of God (Elisha) was angry at Jehoash. Elisha said, “You should have hit five or six times! Then you would have defeated Aram until you destroyed it! But now, you will defeat Aram only three times!”

An Amazing Thing at Elisha’s Grave

Elisha died, and the people buried him.

One time in the spring, a group of Moabite soldiers came to Israel. They came to take things in war.

Some Israelites were burying a dead man, and they saw that group of soldiers. The Israelites quickly threw the dead man into Elisha’s grave and ran away. As soon as the dead man touched the bones of Elisha, the dead man came back to life and stood up on his feet!

Jehoash Wins Back Cities of Israel

During all the days that Jehoahaz ruled, Hazael king of Aram caused trouble to Israel.

But the Lord was kind to the Israelites. The Lord had mercy and turned to the Israelites. Why? Because of his Agreement with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. The Lord would not destroy the Israelites or throw them away yet.

Hazael king of Aram died, and Ben Hadad became the new king after him.

Before he died, Hazael had taken some cities in war from Jehoahaz, Jehoash’s father. But now Jehoash took back these cities from Hazael’s son Ben Hadad. Jehoash defeated Ben Hadad three times and took back the cities of Israel.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

chaff The seed coverings and stems separated from the seeds of plants like wheat or barley. Farmers saved the seeds but let the wind blow the useless chaff away.

threshing Beating or walking on grain to remove the hulls from the grain.

ancestors Literally, “fathers.” This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Is it time ... horses This means, “Is it time for God to come and take you?” See 1 Kings 2:12.

man of God Another name for a prophet.
Amaziah Begins His Rule in Judah

Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah became king in the second year that Joash son of Jehoahaz was king of Israel. Amaziah was 25 years old when he began to rule. Amaziah ruled 29 years in Jerusalem. Amaziah’s mother was Jehoaddin from Jerusalem. Amaziah did the things the Lord said were right. But he did not follow God completely like David his ancestor. Amaziah did all the things that Joash his father had done. He did not destroy the high places. The people still sacrificed and burned incense in those places of worship.

At the time that Amaziah had strong control of the kingdom, he killed the officers that had killed his father. But he did not kill the children of the murderers because of the rules written in the book The Law of Moses. The Lord gave this command in the Law of Moses: “Parents must not be put to death for something their children did. And children must not be put to death for something their parents did. A person should be put to death only for a bad thing that he himself did.”

Amaziah killed 10,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt. In war Amaziah took Sela and called it “Joktheel.” That place is still called “Joktheel” today.

Amaziah Wants War Against Jehoash

Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu king of Israel. Amaziah’s message said, “Come on, let’s meet together face to face and fight.”

Jehoash sent an answer to Amaziah king of Judah. Jehoash said, “The thorn bush in Lebanon sent a message to the cedar tree in Lebanon. It said, ‘Give your daughter for my son to marry.’ But a wild animal from Lebanon passed by and walked on the thorn bush. True, you have defeated Edom. But you have become proud because of your victory over Edom. But stay at home and brag! Don’t make trouble for yourself. If you do this, you will fall, and Judah will fall with you!”

But Amaziah would not listen to Jehoash’s warning. So Jehoash king of Israel went to fight against Amaziah king of Judah at Beth Shemesh in Judah. Every man of Judah ran home.

At Beth Shemesh, Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Ahaziah. Jehoash took Amaziah to Jerusalem. Jehoash broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, about 600 feet. Then Jehoash took all the gold and silver and all the dishes in the Lord’s temple and in the treasures of the king’s house. Jehoash also took people to be his prisoners. Then he went back to Samaria.

All the great things that Jehoash did, including how he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are written in the book The History of the Kings of Israel. Jehoash died and was buried with his ancestors. Jehoash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. Jehoash’s son Jeroboam became the new king after him.

The Death of Amaziah

Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah lived 15 years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel. All the great things that Amaziah did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Judah. The people made a plan against Amaziah in Jerusalem. Amaziah ran away to Lachish. But the people sent men after Amaziah to Lachish. And those men killed Amaziah in Lachish. The people brought Amaziah’s body back on horses. Amaziah was buried at Jerusalem with his ancestors in the City of David.

Jehoash ... Judah Literally, “He and Amaziah king of Judah looked at each other in the face at Beth Shemesh in Judah.”

about 600 feet Literally, “400 cubits.”

City of David A part of the city of Jerusalem.
Azariah Begins His Rule Over Judah

21 Then all the people of Judah made Azariah the new king. Azariah was 16 years old. 22 So King Amaziah died and was buried with his ancestors.* Then Azariah built Elath again and got it back for Judah.

Jeroboam II Begins His Rule Over Israel

23 Jeroboam son of Jehoash king of Israel began to rule in Samaria during the 15th year that Amaziah son of Joash was king of Judah. Jeroboam ruled 41 years. 24 Jeroboam did the things the Lord said were wrong. Jeroboam did not stop doing the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that caused Israel to sin. 25 Jeroboam took back Israel’s land which ran from the Lebo Hamath to the Arabah Sea.* This happened like the Lord of Israel had told his servant Jonah son of Amittai, the prophet from Gath Hepher.

26 The Lord saw that all the Israelites had many troubles, slaves and free men. No person was left that could help Israel. 27 The Lord did not say that he would take away the name of Israel from the world. So the Lord used Jeroboam son of Jehoash to save the people of Israel.

28 All the great things that Jeroboam did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Israel. This includes the story about Jeroboam winning back Damascus and Hamath for Israel. (These cities had belonged to Judah.) 29 Jeroboam died and was buried with his ancestors*, the kings of Israel. Jeroboam’s son Zechariah became the new king after him.

Azariah’s Rule Over Judah

15 Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah became king in the 27th year of Jeroboam king of Israel. 2 Azariah was 16 years old when he began to rule. He ruled 52 years in Jerusalem. Azariah’s mother was named Jecoliah of Jerusalem. 3 Azariah did the things that the Lord said were right, just like his father Amaziah. Azariah followed all the things his father Amaziah did. 4 But he did not destroy the high places.* People still made sacrifices and burned incense* in these places of worship.

5 The Lord caused King Azariah to become sick with leprosy.* He was a leper until the day he died. Azariah lived in a separate house. Jotham, the king’s son, took care of the king’s house and judged the people.

6 All the great things that Azariah did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Judah. 7 Azariah died and was buried with his ancestors* in the City of David.* Azariah’s son Jotham became the new king after him.

Zechariah’s Short Rule Over Israel

8 Zechariah son of Jeroboam ruled over Samaria in Israel for six months. This was during the 38th year that Azariah was king of Judah. 9 Zechariah did the things the Lord said were wrong. He did the same things his ancestors* did. He did not stop doing the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that caused Israel to sin.

10 Shallum son of Jabesh made plans against Zechariah. Shallum killed Zechariah in Ibleam. Shallum became the new king after him. 11 All the other things that Zechariah did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Israel. 12 In this way the Lord’s word came true. The Lord had told Jehu that four generations of his descendants* would be kings of Israel.

Shallum’s Short Rule Over Israel

13 Shallum son of Jabesh became king of Israel during the 39th year that Uzziah was king of Judah. Shallum ruled for one month in Samaria.

14 Menahem son of Gadi came up from Tirzah to Samaria. Menahem killed Shallum son of Jabesh. Then Menahem became the new king after him.

ancestors Literally, “fathers.” This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
Arabah Sea The Dead Sea.

high places Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.
incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.
leprosy A very bad skin disease.
City of David A part of the city of Jerusalem.
descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.
15All the things Shallum did, including his plans against Zechariah, are written in the book The History of the Kings of Israel.

Menahem’s Rule Over Israel

16After Shallum died, Menahem defeated Tiphsah and the area around it. The people refused to open the city gate for him. So Menahem defeated them and ripped open all the pregnant women in that city.

17Menahem son of Gadi became king over Israel during the 39th year that Azariah was king of Judah. Menahem ruled ten years in Samaria. 18Menahem did the things the Lord said were wrong. Menahem did not stop doing the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that caused Israel to sin.

19Pul king of Assyria came to fight against Israel. Menahem gave Pul 75,000 pounds* of silver. He did this so Pul would support Menahem and make Menahem’s kingdom stronger. 20Menahem raised the money by making all the rich and powerful men pay taxes. Menahem taxed each man 20 ounces* of silver. Then Menahem gave the money to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria left, and did not stay there in Israel.

21All the great things that Menahem did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Israel.

Pekahiah’s Rule Over Israel

22Menahem’s son Pekahiah became king over Israel in Samaria during the 50th year that Azariah was king of Judah. Pekahiah ruled two years. 23Pekahiah did the things that the Lord said were wrong. Pekahiah did not stop doing the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that caused Israel to sin.

24The commander of Pekahiah’s army was Pekah son of Remaliah. Pekah killed Pekahiah. He killed him in Samaria at the king’s palace.* Pekah had 50 men from Gilead with him when he killed Pekahiah. Then Pekah became the new king after him.

25All the great things Pekahiah did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Israel.

Jotham Rules Over Judah

26Jotham son of Uzziah became king of Judah. This was during the second year that Pekah son of Remaliah was king of Israel. 27Jotham was 25 years old when he became king. Jotham ruled 16 years in Jerusalem. Jotham’s mother was named Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok. 28Jotham did the things that the Lord said were right, just like his father Uzziah. 29But he did not destroy the high places.* The people still made sacrifices and burned incense* at those places of worship. Jotham built the palace A large house for the king and his family. high places Places for worshipping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains. incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.
upper gate of the Lord’s temple.* 36 All the great things that Jotham did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Judah.

37 At that time, the Lord sent Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah to fight against Judah.

38 Jotham died and was buried with his ancestors.* Jotham was buried in the City of David* his ancestor.* Jotham’s son Ahaz became the new king after him.

Ahaz Becomes King Over Judah

16 Ahaz son of Jotham became king of Judah during the 17th year that Pekah son of Remaliah was king of Israel. 2 Ahaz was 20 years old when he became king. Ahaz ruled 16 years in Jerusalem. Ahaz was not like his ancestor* David—Ahaz did not do the things the Lord said were right. 3 Ahaz lived like the kings of Israel. He even sacrificed his son in fire.* He copied the terrible sins of the nations that the Lord forced to leave the country at the time the Israelites came. 4 Ahaz made sacrifices and burned incense* at the high places* and on the hills and under every green tree.

5 Rezin, king of Aram, and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came to fight against Jerusalem. Rezin and Pekah surrounded Ahaz, but could not defeat him. 6 At that time, Rezin king of Aram took back Elath for Aram. The Arameans settled in Elath, and they still live there today.

7 Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath Pileser, the king of Assyria. Ahaz said, “I am your servant. I am like a son to you. Come and save me from the king of Aram and the king of Israel. They have come to fight me!” 8 Ahaz also took the silver and gold that was in the temple* of the Lord and in the treasuries of the king’s house. Then Ahaz sent a gift to the king of Assyria. 9 The king of Assyria listened to Ahaz. The king of Assyria went to fight against Damascus. The king captured that city and took the people from Damascus as prisoners to Kir. He also killed Rezin.

10 King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath Pileser king of Assyria. Ahaz saw the altar* at Damascus. King Ahaz sent a model and pattern of this altar to Uriah the priest. 11 Then Uriah the priest built an altar just like the model King Ahaz had sent him from Damascus. Uriah the priest built the altar this way before King Ahaz came back from Damascus.

12 When the king arrived from Damascus, he saw the altar.* He offered sacrifices on the altar. 13 On the altar, Ahaz burned his burnt offerings and grain offerings. He poured his drink offering and sprinkled the blood of his fellowship offerings on this altar.

14 Ahaz took the bronze altar that was before the Lord from the front of the temple.* This bronze altar was between Ahaz’s altar* and the temple of the Lord. Ahaz put the bronze altar on the north side of his own altar. 15 Ahaz gave a command to Uriah the priest. He said, “Use the large altar to burn the morning burnt offerings, the evening grain offerings, and the drink offerings from all the people of this country. Sprinkle all the blood from the burnt offering and other sacrifices on the large altar. But I will use the bronze altar to ask questions from God.” 16 Uriah the priest did everything that King Ahaz commanded him to do.

17 There were carts with bronze panels and basins for the priests to wash their hands. King Ahaz removed the panels and basins and cut up the carts. He also took the large tank off the bronze bulls that stood under it. He put the large tank on a stone pavement. 18 Workers had built a covered place inside the temple

temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

ancestor(s) Literally, “father(s).” This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

City of David A part of the city of Jerusalem.

sacrificed his son in fire Literally, “made his son to pass through the fire.”

incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.

high places Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.
450

area for the Sabbath* meetings. But Ahaz took away that covered place. Ahaz also took away the outside entrance for the king. Ahaz took all of these from the Lord's temple. Ahaz did this because of the king of Assyria.

All the great things that Ahaz did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Judah. Ahaz died and was buried with his ancestors* in the City of David.* Ahaz’s son Hezekiah became the new king after him.

Hoshea Begins His Rule Over Israel

Hoshea son of Elah began to rule in Samaria over Israel. This was during the 12th year that Ahaz was king of Judah. Hoshea ruled nine years. Hoshea did the things the Lord said were wrong. But Hoshea was not as bad as the kings of Israel that ruled before him.

Shalmaneser king of Assyria came to fight against Hoshea. Shalmaneser defeated Hoshea and Hoshea became his servant. So Hoshea paid tribute* to Shalmaneser.

Later, Hoshea sent messengers to the king of Egypt to ask for help. That king’s name was So. That year, Hoshea did not pay tribute* to the king of Assyria like he did every other year. The king of Assyria learned that Hoshea had made plans against him. So the king of Assyria arrested Hoshea and put him in jail.

The king of Assyria attacked many places in Israel. Then he came to Samaria. He fought against Samaria for three years. The king of Assyria took Samaria during the ninth year that Hoshea was king of Israel. The king of Assyria captured many Israelites and took them as prisoners to Assyria. He made them live in Halah by the Habor River at Gozan and in other cities of the Medes.

These things happened because the Israelites had sinned against the Lord their God. And it was the Lord that brought the Israelites out of the land of Egypt! The Lord saved them from the power of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. But the Israelites began worshiping other gods. They began doing the same things that other people did. And the Lord had forced those people to leave their land when the Israelites came. The Israelites also chose to be ruled by kings, not by God. The Israelites secretly did things against the Lord their God. And those things were wrong!

The Israelites built high places* in all their cities—from the smallest town to the largest city. The Israelites put up memorial stones* and Asherah poles* on every high hill and under every green tree. The Israelites burned incense* there in all those places of worship. They did these things like the nations that the Lord forced out of the land before them. The Israelites did evil things that made the Lord angry. They served idols.* And the Lord had said to the Israelites, “You must not do this thing.”

The Lord used every prophet and every seer* to warn Israel and Judah. The Lord said, “Turn away from the evil things you do! Obey my commands and laws. Follow all the Law that I gave to your ancestors.* I used my servants the prophets to give this law to you.”

But the people would not listen. They were very stubborn like their ancestors.* Their ancestors did not believe the Lord their God. The people refused the Lord’s laws and his Agreement that he made with their ancestors. They refused to listen to the Lord’s warnings. They worshiped idols* that were worth nothing and they themselves became worth nothing. They lived like the people in the nations around them. They did those bad things. And the Lord had warned the people Sabbath Saturday, a special day of worship for Jews.

ancestors Literally, "fathers." This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
City of David A part of the city of Jerusalem.
tribute Money paid to a foreign king or nation to pay for being protected.
high places Places for worshipping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.
memorial stones Stones that were set up to help people remember something special. In ancient Israel, people often set up stones as special places to worship false gods.
Asherah poles These poles were used to honor the female god Asherah that the Canaanite people worshiped.
incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.
idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.
seer A kind of prophet, a person that spoke for God. This word shows the prophet saw things in visions.
of Israel. The Lord told them not to do those bad things.

16 The people stopped following the commands of the Lord their God. They made two gold statues of calves. They made Asherah poles.* They worshiped all the stars of heaven and served Baal.* 17 They sacrificed their sons and daughters in the fire. They used magic and witchcraft* to try to learn the future. They sold themselves to do what the Lord said was evil. They did this to make the Lord angry. 18 So the Lord became very angry at Israel and took them out of his sight. There were no Israelites left, except the family group of Judah!

The People of Judah Are Also Guilty

19 But even the people of Judah did not obey the commands of the Lord their God. The people of Judah lived just like the people of Israel.

20 The Lord rejected all the people of Israel. He brought them many troubles. He let people destroy them. And, finally, he threw them away and put them out of his sight. 21 The Lord tore Israel from the family of David, and the Israelites made Jeroboam son of Nebat their king. Jeroboam pulled the Israelites away from following the Lord. Jeroboam caused the Israelites to do a great sin. 22 So the Israelites followed all the sins that Jeroboam did. They did not stop doing these sins until the Lord took Israel away from his sight. And the Lord said this would happen! He sent his prophets to tell the people this would happen. So the Israelites were taken out of their country into Assyria. And they have been there to this day.

The Beginning of the Samaritan People

24 The king of Assyria took the Israelites out of Samaria. Then the king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath, and Sepharvaim. He put those people in Samaria. Those people took over Samaria and lived in the cities around it. 25 When these people began to live in Samaria, they did not honor the Lord. So the Lord sent lions to attack them. These lions killed some of those people. 26 Some people said to the king of Assyria, “Those people that you took away and put in the cities of Samaria do not know the law of the god of that country. So that god sent lions to attack those people. The lions killed those people because those people don’t know the law of the god of that country.”

27 So the king of Assyria gave this command: “You took some priests from Samaria. Send one of those priests that I captured back to Samaria. Let that priest go and live there. Then that priest can teach the people the law of the god of that country.”

28 So one of the priests that the Assyrians had carried away from Samaria came to live in Bethel. This priest taught the people how they should honor the Lord.

29 But all those people made gods of their own and put them in the temples at the high places* the Samarians had made. Those people did this wherever they lived. 30 The people of Babylon made Succest Benoth. The people of Cuthah made Nergal. The people of Hamath made Ashima. 31 The people of Avva made Nibhaz and Tartak. And the people from Sepharvaim burned their children in the fire to honor their false gods, Adrammelech and Anammelech.

32 But those people also worshiped the Lord. They chose priests for the high places* from among the people. These priests made sacrifices for the people in the temples at those places of worship. 33 They respected the Lord, but they also served their own gods. Those people served their gods the same as they did in the countries they were taken from.

34 Even today those people live like they did in the past. They do not honor the Lord. They do not obey the rules and commands of the Lord. They do not obey the Law or the commands that the Lord gave to the children.

Asherah poles These poles were used to honor the goddess Asherah that the Canaanite people worshiped.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

witchcraft Using magic or the power of Satan to do things.

high places Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.
of Jacob (Israel). 35 The Lord made an Agreement with the people of Israel. The Lord commanded them, “You must not honor other gods. You must not worship them, or serve them, or offer sacrifices to them. 36 But you must follow the Lord. The Lord is the God that brought you out of Egypt. The Lord used his great power to save you. You must worship the Lord and make sacrifices to him. 37 You must obey the rules, laws, teachings, and commands that he wrote for you. You must obey these things all the time. You must not respect other gods. 38 You must not forget the Agreement that I made with you. You must not respect other gods. 39 No! You respect only the Lord your God! Then he will save you from all your enemies.”

40 But the Israelites did not listen. They kept on doing the same things they did before. 41 So now those other nations respect the Lord, but they also serve their own idols. Their children and grandchildren do the same thing their ancestors did. They still do those things to this day.

Hezekiah Begins His Rule Over Judah

18 Hezekiah son of Ahaz was king of Judah. Hezekiah began to rule during the third year that Hoshea son of Elah was king of Israel. 2 Hezekiah was 25 years old when he began to rule. Hezekiah ruled 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Abi, the daughter of Zechariah. 3 Hezekiah did the things the Lord said were right, just like David his ancestor. 4 Hezekiah destroyed the high places. He broke the memorial stones and cut down the Asherah poles. At that time, the people of Israel burned incense to the bronze snake made by Moses. This bronze snake was called “Nehushtan.” Hezekiah broke this bronze snake into pieces because the people were worshiping that snake.

5 Hezekiah trusted in the Lord God of Israel. There was no person like Hezekiah among all the kings of Judah before him or after him. 6 Hezekiah was very faithful to the Lord. He did not stop following the Lord. He obeyed the commands that the Lord had given to Moses. 7 The Lord was with Hezekiah. Hezekiah was successful in everything he did.

Hezekiah broke away from the king of Assyria. Hezekiah stopped serving the king of Assyria. 8 Hezekiah defeated the Philistines all the way to Gaza and the area around it. He defeated all the Philistine cities—from the smallest town to the largest city.

The Assyrians Capture Samaria

9 Shalmaneser king of Assyria went to fight against Samaria. His army surrounded the city. (This happened during the fourth year that Hezekiah was king of Judah. This was also the seventh year that Hoshea son of Elah was king of Israel.) 10 At the end of the third year, Shalmaneser captured Samaria. He took Samaria during the sixth year that Hezekiah was king of Judah. (This was also the ninth year that Hoshea was king of Israel.) 11 The king of Assyria took the Israelites as prisoners to Assyria. He made them live in Halah, on the Habor (the river of Gozan), and in the cities of the Medes. 12 This happened because the Israelites did not obey the Lord their God. They broke the Lord’s Agreement. They did not obey all the things that Moses the Lord’s servant commanded. The people of Israel would not listen to the Lord’s Agreement, or do the things it taught them to do.

Assyria Gets Ready to Take Judah

13 During the 14th year that Hezekiah was king, Sennacherib king of Assyria went to fight against all the strong cities of Judah. Sennacherib defeated all those cities. 14 Then Hezekiah king of Judah sent a message to the Assyrians.
king of Assyria at Lachish. Hezekiah said, “I have done wrong. Leave me alone. Then I will pay anything you want.

Then the king of Assyria told Hezekiah king of Judah to pay over 11 tons* of silver and over 1 ton* of gold. 15Hezekiah gave all the silver that was in the Lord’s temple* and in the king’s treasuries. 16At this time, Hezekiah cut off the gold that covered the doors of the Lord’s temple and the doorposts. King Hezekiah had put gold on these doors and doorposts. Hezekiah gave this gold to the king of Assyria.

King of Assyria Sends Men to Jerusalem

17The king of Assyria sent his three most important commanders with a large army to King Hezekiah in Jerusalem. Those men left Lachish and went to Jerusalem. They stood near the aqueduct* by the Upper Pool. (The Upper Pool is on the road to the Washers’ Field.) 18These men called for the king. Eliakim son of Hilkiah (Eliakim was in charge of the king’s house), Shebna (the secretary), and Joah son of Asaph (the record keeper) came out to meet them.

19One of the commanders said to them, “Tell Hezekiah this is what the great king, the king of Assyria says:

What do you trust in? 20Your words are worth nothing.* You say, “I have enough advice and power to help me in war.” But who do you trust since you have broken away from my rule? 21You are leaning on a walking stick made of broken reed! This walking stick is Egypt. If a man leans on this walking stick, it will break and go through his hand and hurt him! The king of Egypt is like that to all people that trust in him. 22Maybe you will say, “We trust the Lord our God.” But I know that Hezekiah took away the high places* and altars* where people worshiped the Lord. And Hezekiah told the people of Judah and Jerusalem, “You must worship only in front of the altar here in Jerusalem.”

23Now make this agreement with my master, the king of Assyria. I promise that I will give you 2,000 horses if you can find men to ride them. 24You can’t defeat one officer of the lowest of my master’s officers! You depend on Egypt to give you chariots* and horse soldiers! 25I have not come against Jerusalem to destroy it without the Lord! The Lord said to me, “Go up against this country and destroy it!”

26Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, Shebna, and Joah said to the commander, “Please speak to us in Aramaic. We understand that language. Do not speak with us in the language of Judah because the people on the wall can hear us!”

27But Rabshakeh said to them, “My lord did not send me to speak only to you and your king.* I also speak to the other people that sit on the wall! They will eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you!”

28Then the commander shouted loudly in the Jewish language, “Hear this message from the great king, the king of Assyria! 29The king says, ‘Don’t let Hezekiah fool you! He can’t save you from my power!’ 30Don’t listen to Hezekiah! Hezekiah says, ‘The Lord will save us! The king of Assyria will not defeat this city!’ But don’t listen to Hezekiah!

11 tons 10,200kg. Literally, “300 talents.”
1 ton 1,020kg. Literally, “30 talents.”
temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.
aqueduct A ditch or pipe that carries water from one place to another.
Your words ... nothing Literally, “a word of the lips.”

places were often on the hills and mountains.
altars A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.
chariots A small wagon used in war.
because the people ... hear us They did not want the people of Jerusalem that sat on the city wall to understand the terrible things that the commander was saying.
king Literally, “master.”
eat ... with you The Assyrian army planned to surround Jerusalem and not let people bring any food or water into the city. He thought the people would become hungry enough to eat their own waste.
“The king of Assyria says this: ‘Make peace with me and come out to me. Then each of you can eat from his own grapes, his own fig tree, and drink water from his own well. 32You can do this until I come and take you away to a land like your own land. It is a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and fields full of grapes, a land of olives and honey. Then you can live, and not die. But don’t listen to Hezekiah! He is trying to change your mind. He is saying, ‘The Lord will save us.’ 33Did any of the gods of the other nations save his land from the king of Assyria? No! 34Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? Did they save Samaria from me? No! 35Did any of the gods in the other countries save their land from me? No! Can the Lord save Jerusalem from me? No!”

But the people were silent. They did not say a word to the commander because King Hezekiah had given them a command. He said, “Don’t say anything to him.”

Eliakim son of Hilkiah (Eliakim was in charge of the king’s house), Shebna (the secretary), and Joah son of Asaph (the record keeper) came to Hezekiah. Their clothes were torn to show they were upset. They told Hezekiah the things that the Assyrian commander had said.

Hezekiah Talks with Isaiah the Prophet

King Hezekiah heard those things, and he tore his clothes and put on the rough cloth that showed he was sad and upset. Then he went into the Lord’s temple.

Hezekiah sent Eliakim (Eliakim was in charge of the king’s house), Shebna (the secretary), and Joah son of Asaph (the record keeper) came to Hezekiah. Their clothes were torn to show they were upset. They told Hezekiah the things that the Assyrian commander had said.

Isaiah said to them, “Give your master Hezekiah this message: ‘The Lord says: Don’t be afraid of the things that the officers of the king of Assyria have said to make fun of me. I am putting a spirit in him. He will hear a rumor. Then he will run back to his own country. And I will cause him to be killed by a sword in his own country.’”

Hezekiah Prays to the Lord

Hezekiah received the letters from the messengers and read them. Then Hezekiah went to the Lord’s temple.

Hezekiah, king of Judah:

Don’t let the God that you trust fool you. He says, “The king of Assyria will not defeat Jerusalem!” 11You have heard the things the kings of Assyria have done to all the other countries. We destroyed them completely! Will you be saved? No! 12The gods of those nations did not save their people. My ancestors destroyed them all. They destroyed Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden in Tel Assar! 13Where is the king of Hamath? The king of Arpad? The king of the city of Sepharvaim? The kings of Hena and Ivvah? They are all finished!

Libnah A town in Judah.
ancestors Literally, “fathers.” This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
up to the Lord’s temple* and laid the letters out in front of the Lord. 15Hezekiah prayed before the Lord and said, “Lord, the God of Israel who sits as King between the Cherub angels.* You are the God—you alone—of all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth! 16Lord, please listen to me. Lord, open your eyes, and see ∼this letter. Hear the words that Sennacherib sent to insult the living God! 17It is true, Lord. The kings of Assyria did destroy all those nations! 18They did throw the gods of the nations into the fire. But those were not real gods. They were only wood and stone—statues that men made. That is why the kings of Assyria could destroy them. 19So now, Lord our God, save us from the king of Assyria. Then all the kingdoms on earth will know that you, Lord, are the only God.”

20Isaiah son of Amoz sent this message to Hezekiah. He said, “The Lord God of Israel says this, ‘You have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria. I have heard you.’

21“This is the Lord’s message about Sennacherib:

The virgin daughter of Zion (Jerusalem) doesn’t think you are important.
She makes fun of you!
The Daughter Jerusalem shakes her head at you behind your back.
22But who did you insult and make fun of? Who did you speak against? You were against the Holy One of Israel! You acted like you were better than him!

You sent your messengers to insult the Lord.
You said,
“I came with my many chariots* to the high mountains.
I came deep inside Lebanon.
I cut down the tallest cedar trees and the best fir trees of Lebanon.
I went up to the highest part of Lebanon, up to its lush forest.

24 I dug wells, and drank water from new places.
I dried up the rivers of Egypt and walked on that country.”

25 That is what you said,
But haven’t you heard what God said?
“I (God) planned it long ago, from ancient times I planned it.
And now, I have made it happen.
I let you tear down the strong cities and change them into piles of rocks.

26 The people in the cities had no power.
They were scared and confused.
They were about to be cut down like grass and plants in the field.
They were like grass growing on the housetops, dying before it grows tall.

27 I know when you sit down.
I know when you go to war.
and when you come home.
And I know when you get upset at me.

28 Yes, you were upset at me.
I heard your proud insults.
So I will put my hook in your nose.
And I will put my bit* in your mouth.
Then I will turn you around and lead you back the way you came.”

The Lord’s Message for Hezekiah

29“This will be the sign to prove I will help you: This year you will eat ∼the grain. Next year you will eat the grain that comes up from that seed. But in the third year you will gather the grain from the seeds that you planted. You will plant fields of grapes and eat the grapes from them. 30The people that have escaped and are left in the family of Judah will again begin to grow. 31Why? Because a few people will remain alive. They will go out from Jerusalem. People that have escaped will go out from Mount Zion. The Lord’s strong feelings* will do this.

32“So the Lord says this about the king of Assyria:
456

He will not come into this city. He will not shoot an arrow in this city. He will not bring his shields to this city. He will not build up a hill of dirt to attack the walls of this city. He will go back the same way he came. He will not come into this city. The Lord says this!

I will protect this city and save it. I will do this for myself and for my servant David.”

The Assyrian Army Is Destroyed

That night, the angel of the Lord went out and killed 185,000 people in the Assyrian camp. When the people got up in the morning, they saw all the dead bodies.

So Sennacherib king of Assyria left and went back to Nineveh where he stayed. One day Sennacherib was worshiping in the temple* of Nisroch, his god. His sons Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him with a sword. Then Adrammelech and Sharezer escaped into the land of Ararat.* And Sennacherib’s son Esarhaddon became the new king after him.

Hezekiah Is Sick and Near Death

At that time, Hezekiah became sick and almost died. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz went to Hezekiah. Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “The Lord says, ‘Put your house in order, because you will die. You will not live!’”

Hezekiah turned his face to the wall.* He prayed to the Lord and said, “Lord, remember that I have truly served you with all my heart. I have done the things that you say are good.” Then Hezekiah cried very hard.

Before Isaiah had left the middle courtyard, the word of the Lord came to him. The Lord said, “Go back and speak to Hezekiah, the leader of my people. Tell him, ‘The Lord, the God of your ancestor* David says: I have heard your prayer and I have seen your tears. So I will heal you. On the third day, you will go up to the temple of the Lord. I will add 15 years to your life. I will save you and this city from the power of the king of Assyria. I will protect this city. I will do this for myself and because of the promise I made to my servant David.’”

Then Isaiah said, “Make a mixture of figs* and put it on the sore place.”

So they took the mixture of figs and put it on Hezekiah’s sore place. Then Hezekiah got well.

A Sign for Hezekiah

Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “What will be the sign that the Lord will heal me, and that I will go up to the temple of the Lord on the third day?”

Isaiah said, “Which do you want? Should the shadow go forward ten steps, or go back ten steps? This is the sign for you from the Lord to show that the Lord will do the thing he said he would do.”

Hezekiah answered, “It is an easy thing for the shadow to go down ten steps. No, make the shadow go back ten steps.”

Then Isaiah prayed to the Lord, and the Lord made the shadow move back ten steps. It went back on the steps that it had already been on.

Hezekiah and the Men from Babylon

At that time, Merodach Baladan son of Baladan was king of Babylon. He sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah. Merodach Baladan did this because he heard Hezekiah had been sick. Hezekiah welcomed the men from Babylon, and showed them all the valuable things in his house. He showed him the silver, the gold, the spices, the expensive perfume, the weapons, and everything in his treasuries. There was temple  A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

---

Ararat  The ancient country of Urartu, an area in Eastern Turkey.
face to the wall  This wall probably faced the temple.

---

ancestor  Literally, “father.” This means a person that people are descended from.
mixture of figs  This was used like medicine.
the shadow ... steps  This may mean the steps of a special building outside that Hezekiah used like a clock. When the sun shone on the steps, the shadows showed what time of the day it was.
nothing in all Hezekiah’s house and kingdom that he did not show them.

14 Then Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah and asked him, “What did these men say? Where did they come from?”

Hezekiah said, “They came from a faraway country, from Babylon.”

15 Isaiah said, “What have they seen in your house?”

Hezekiah answered, “They have seen everything in my house. There is nothing in all my treasuries that I did not show them.”

16 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Listen to this message from the Lord. 17 The time is coming when all the things in your house and all the things your ancestors* have saved until today will be carried away to Babylon. Nothing will be left! The Lord says this. 18 The Babylonians will take your sons. And your sons will become eunuchs* in the palace of the king of Babylon.”

19 Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “This message from the Lord is good.”

Hezekiah also said, “That is fine if there will be real peace during my lifetime.”

20 All the great things that Hezekiah did, including his work on the pool and the aqueduct* to bring water into the city, are written in the book The History of the Kings of Judah. 21 Hezekiah died and was buried with his ancestors.* And Hezekiah’s son Manasseh became the new king after him.

Manasseh Begins His Evil Rule Over Judah

Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to rule. He ruled 55 years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Hephzibah.

2 Manasseh did the things that the Lord said were wrong. Manasseh did the terrible things the other nations did. (And the Lord forced those nations to leave their country when the Israelites came.) 3 Manasseh built again the high places* that his father Hezekiah had destroyed. Manasseh also built altars* for Baal* and made an Asherah pole,* just like Ahab king of Israel. Manasseh worshiped and served the stars of heaven. 4 Manasseh built altars to honor false gods, in the Lord’s temple. (This is the place the Lord was talking about when he said, “I will put my name in Jerusalem.”) 5 Manasseh built altars for the stars of heaven in the two courtyards of the Lord’s temple. 6 Manasseh sacrificed his own son and burned him on the altar.* Manasseh used different ways of trying to know the future. He visited mediums* and wizards.*

Manasseh did more and more things that the Lord said were wrong. This caused the Lord to be angry. 7 Manasseh made a carved statue of Asherah.* He put this statue in the temple. The Lord had said to David and to David’s son Solomon about this temple: “I have chosen Jerusalem from all the cities in Israel. I will put my name in the temple in Jerusalem forever. 8 I will not cause the people of Israel to leave the land that I gave to their ancestors.* I will let the people stay in their land if they obey all the things I commanded them and all the teachings that my servant Moses gave them.” 9 But the people did not listen to God. Manasseh did more evil things than all the nations that lived in Canaan before Israel came. And the Lord destroyed those nations when the people of Israel came to take their land.

10 The Lord used his servants the prophets to say these things: 11 “Manasseh king of ancestors  Literally, “fathers.” This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

eunuchs  Men who have had their sexual organs removed. Often important officials of the king were eunuchs.
aqueduct  A ditch or pipe that carries water from one place to another.

high places  Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.
alts(s)  A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.
Baal  The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.
Asherah pole  These poles were used to honor the female god Asherah that the Canaanite people worshiped.
sacrificed his son and burned him on the altar  Literally, “Made his son pass through the fire.
medium(s)  A person that tries to communicate with the spirits of dead people.
wizard(s)  A person that tries to use evil spirits to do magic.
Asherah  An important Canaanite goddess. At this time, the people thought she was the wife of Baal.
Judah has done these hated things and has done more evil than the Amorites before him. Manasseh also has caused Judah to sin because of his idols. So the Lord of Israel says, "Look! I will bring so much trouble against Jerusalem and Judah that any person who hears about it will be shocked. I will stretch the measuring line of Samaria and the plumb bob of Ahab's family over Jerusalem. A man wipes a dish, and then he turns it upside down. I will do that to Jerusalem. There will still be a few of my people left. But I will leave those people. I will give them to their enemies. Their enemies will take them prisoners—they will be like the valuable things soldiers take in war. Why? Because my people did the things that I said were wrong. They have made me angry with them since the day their ancestors came up out of Egypt. And Manasseh killed many innocent people. He filled Jerusalem from one end to another with blood. And all those sins are in addition to the sins that caused Judah to sin. Manasseh caused Judah to do the things that the Lord said were wrong."

All the things that Manasseh did, including the sins that he did, are written in the book The History of the Kings of Judah. Manasseh died and was buried with his ancestors. Manasseh was buried in the garden at his house. It was called, "the Garden of Uzza." Manasseh's son Amon became the new king after him.

Amon's Short Rule

Amon was 22 years old when he began to rule. He ruled two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Meshullemeth daughter of Haruz from Jotbah.

Josiah Begins His Rule Over Judah

Josiah was eight years old when he began to rule. He ruled 31 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath. Josiah did the things that the Lord said were right. Josiah followed God like his ancestor David. Josiah obeyed God's teachings—he did exactly what God wanted.

Josiah Orders the Temple Repaired

During the 18th year that Josiah was king, he sent Shaphan son of Azaliah son of Meshullam, the secretary, to the Lord's temple. Josiah said, "Go up to Hilkiah the high priest. Tell him that he must get the money that people brought to the Lord's temple. The gatekeepers collected that money from the people. The priests must use that money to pay the workers to repair the Lord's temple. The priests must give that money to the men that supervise the work on the Lord's temple. Use that money for the carpenters, stonemasons, and stonecutters. And use that money to buy the timber and cut stones that are needed to fix the temple. Don't count the money that you give to the workers. Those workers can be trusted."

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.
will be shocked Literally, "both his ears will tingle."
measuring line of Samaria Workers used a string with a weight to mark a straight line at the end of a stone wall. The pieces of stone that were outside the line were chipped off and thrown away. This shows that God was "throwing away" Samaria and Ahab's family of kings.
plumb bob A weight tied to a string and used to prove that something was straight up and down (vertical).
ancestor(s) Literally, "father(s)." This means a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.
8Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the secretary, “Look, I found the Book of the Law® in the Lord’s temple!* Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and Shaphan read it.

9Shaphan the secretary went to King Josiah and told him what happened. Shaphan said, “Your servants have gathered all the money that was in the temple. They gave it to the men that supervise the work on the Lord’s temple.” Then Shaphan the secretary told the king, “And Hilkiah the priest also gave this book to me.” Then Shaphan read the book to the king.

10When the king heard the words of the Book of the Law, he tore his clothes {to show he was sad and upset}. Then the king gave a command to Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Acbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the secretary, and Asaiah the king’s servant.

11King Josiah said, “Go and ask the Lord what we should do. Ask the Lord for me, for the people, and for all Judah. Ask about the words of this book that was found. The Lord is angry at us. Why? Because our ancestors* did not listen to the words of this book. They did not obey all the commands that were written for us!”

Josiah and Huldah the Prophetess

14So Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Acbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the woman prophet.* Huldah was the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, son of Harhas. He took care of the priests’ clothes. Huldah was living in the second quarter in Jerusalem. They went and talked with Huldah.

15Then Huldah said to them, “The Lord God of Israel says: Tell the man that sent you to me: ‘The Lord says this: I am bringing trouble on this place and on the people that live here. These are the troubles that are mentioned in the book that the king of Judah read. The people of Judah left me and have burned incense® to other gods. They made me very angry. They made many idols.* That is why I will show my anger against this place. My anger will be like a fire that can’t be stopped!’

18–19“Josiah the king of Judah sent you to ask advice from the Lord. Tell Josiah these things: ‘The Lord God of Israel said the words that you heard. You heard the things I said about this place and the people that live here. Your heart was soft, and you felt sorry when you heard those things. I said that terrible things would happen to this place (Jerusalem). You tore your clothes {to show your sadness}, and you began to cry. That is why I heard you.’ The Lord says this. I will bring you to be with your ancestors*. You will die and go to your grave in peace. So your eyes will not see all the trouble that I am bringing on this place (Jerusalem).’”

Then Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Acbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah told that message to the king.

The People Hear the Law

23King Josiah told all the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem to come and meet with him. Then the king went up to the Lord’s temple. All the people of Judah and the people that lived in Jerusalem went with him. The priests, the prophets, and all the people—from the least important to the most important—went with him. Then he read the book of the Agreement. This was the Book of the Law that was found in the Lord’s temple. Josiah read the book so all the people could hear it.

3The king stood by the column and made an agreement with the Lord. He agreed to follow the Lord and to obey his commands, the Agreement, and his rules. He agreed to do this with all his heart and soul. He agreed to obey the Agreement written in this book. All the people stood to {show they supported} the king’s agreement.
4 Then the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, the other priests, and the gatekeepers, to bring out of the Lord’s temple* all the dishes and things that were made to honor Baal,* Asherah,* and the stars of heaven. Then Josiah burned those things outside Jerusalem in the fields in Kidron Valley. Then they carried the ashes to Bethel.

5 The kings of Judah had chosen some ordinary men to serve as priests. [These men were not from the family of Aaron!] Those false priests were burning incense* at the high places* in every city of Judah and all the towns around Jerusalem. They burned incense to honor Baal,* the sun, the moon, the constellations (groups of stars), and all the stars in the sky. But Josiah stopped those false priests.

6 Josiah removed the Asherah Pole* from the Lord’s temple.* He took the Asherah pole outside the city to the Kidron Valley and burned it there. Then he beat the burnt pieces into dust and scattered the dust over the graves of the common people.*

7 Then King Josiah broke down the houses of the male prostitutes* that were in the Lord’s temple. Women also used those houses and made little tent covers to honor the false goddess Asherah.

8–9 At that time, the priests did not bring the sacrifices to Jerusalem and offer them on the altar in the temple. The priests lived in cities all over Judah. And they burned incense* and offered sacrifices at the high places* in those cities. Those high places were everywhere, from Geba to Beersheba. And the priests ate their unleavened bread in those towns with the ordinary people—not at the special place for priests in the temple in Jerusalem. But King Josiah defiled (ruined) those high places and brought the priests to Jerusalem. Josiah also destroyed the high places that were on the left, by Joshua Gate. (Joshua was the ruler of the city.)

10 Topheth was a place in the Valley of Hinnom’s Son where people killed their children and burned them on an altar to honor the false god Molech.* Josiah defiled (ruined) that place so people could not use that place again. 11 In the past, the kings of Judah had put some horses and a chariot* near the entrance to the Lord’s temple. This was near the room of an important official named Nathan Melech. The horses and chariot were to honor the sun god.* Josiah removed the horses and burned the chariot.

12 In the past, the kings of Judah had built altars on the roof of Ahab’s building. King Manasseh had also built altars in the two courtyards of the Lord’s temple. Josiah destroyed all those altars and threw the broken pieces into Kidron Valley.

13 In the past, King Solomon built some high places* on Destroyer Hill near Jerusalem. The high places were on the south side of that hill. King Solomon built one of those places of worship to honor Ashtoreth, that horrible thing the people of Sidon worship. King Solomon also built one to honor Chemosh, that horrible thing the people of Moab worship. And King Solomon built one high place to honor Milcom, that horrible thing the Ammonite people worship. But King Josiah defiled (ruined) all those places of worship. 14 King Josiah broke all the memorial stones* and

---

temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

Asherah An important Canaanite goddess. At this time, the people thought she was the wife of Baal.

incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.

high place(s) Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

Asherah Pole These poles were used to honor the female god Asherah that the Canaanite people worshiped.

scattered ... common people This was a strong way of showing that the Asherah pole could never be used again.

male prostitutes Men who used their bodies for sexual sin.

people ... Molech Literally, “people made their son or daughter pass through fire to Molech.”

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

horses ... sun god The people thought the sun was a god that drove his chariot (the sun) across the sky each day.

memorial stones Stones that were set up to help people remember something special. In ancient Israel, people often set up stones as special places to worship false gods.
Asherah poles.* Then he scattered dead men’s bones over that place.*

15Josiah also broke down the altar and high place* at Bethel. Jeroboam son of Nebat had made this altar. Jeroboam caused Israel to sin.* Josiah broke down both that altar and the high place. Josiah broke the stones of the altar to pieces. Then he beat it into dust. And he burned the Asherah pole. 16Josiah looked around and saw graves on the mountain. He sent men, and they took the bones from those graves. Then he burned the bones on the altar. In this way, Josiah defiled (ruined) the altar. This happened according to the message from the Lord that the man of God* announced.* The man of God announced these things when Jeroboam stood beside the altar.

Then Josiah looked around and saw the grave of the man of God.*

17Josiah said, “What is that monument I see?” The people of the city told him, “It is the grave of the man of God* that came from Judah. This man of God told about the things you have done to the altar at Bethel. He said those things a long time ago.”

18Josiah said, “Leave the man of God* alone. Don’t move his bones.” So they left his bones and the bones of the man of God from Samaria.

19Josiah also destroyed all the temples at the high places* in the cities of Samaria. The kings of Israel had built those temples. And that made the Lord very angry. Josiah destroyed those temples, just like he destroyed the place of worship at Bethel.

20Josiah killed all the priests of the high places that were in Samaria. He killed the priests on those altars. He burned men’s bones on the altars. In this way he ruined those places of worship. Then he went back to Jerusalem.

The People of Judah Celebrate Passover

21Then King Josiah gave a command to all the people. He said, “Celebrate Passover for the Lord your God. Do this just like it is written in the book of the Agreement.”

22The people had not celebrated a Passover like this since the days that the judges ruled Israel. None of the kings of Israel or the Kings of Judah ever had such a big celebration for Passover. 23They celebrated this Passover for the Lord in Jerusalem during Josiah’s 18th year as king.

24Josiah destroyed the mediums,* wizards,* the house gods, the idols,* and all the horrible things people worshiped in Judah and Jerusalem. Josiah did this to obey the Law written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the Lord’s temple.*

25There had never been a king like Josiah before. Josiah turned to the Lord with all his heart, with all his soul, and with all his strength.* No king had followed all the Law of Moses like Josiah. And there has never been another king like Josiah since that time.

26But the Lord did not stop being angry at the people of Judah. The Lord was still angry at them for all the things that Manasseh had done. 27The Lord said, “I forced the people of Israel to leave their land. I will do the same to Judah. I will take Judah out of my sight. I will not accept Jerusalem. Yes, I chose that city. I was talking about Jerusalem when I said, ‘My name will be there.’ But I will destroy the temple* that is in that place.”

28All the other things that Josiah did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Judah.

The Death of Josiah

29During Josiah’s time, Pharaoh Neco, the king of Egypt went to fight against the king of Assyria at the Euphrates River. Josiah went out to meet Neco at Megiddo. Pharaoh saw Josiah and killed him. 30Josiah’s officers put his body in a chariot* and carried him from Megiddo to Jerusalem. They buried Josiah in his own grave.

Then the common people took Josiah’s son Jehoahaz and anointed* him. They made Jehoahaz the new king.

Jehoahaz Becomes King of Judah

31Jehoahaz was 23 years old when he became king. He ruled three months in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah. 32Jehoahaz did the things that the Lord said were wrong. Jehoahaz did all the same things that his ancestors* had done.

33Pharaoh Neco put Jehoahaz in prison at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Jehoahaz could not rule in Jerusalem. Pharaoh Neco forced Judah to pay 7,500 pounds* of silver and 75 pounds* of gold.

34Pharaoh Neco made Josiah’s son Eliakim the new king. Eliakim took the place of Josiah his father. Pharaoh Neco changed Eliakim’s name to Jehoiakim. And Pharaoh Neco took Jehoahaz away to Egypt. Jehoahaz died in Egypt. 35Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh Neco. But Jehoiakim made the common people pay taxes and used that money to give to Pharaoh Neco. So each person paid his share of silver and gold. And King Jehoiakim gave the money to Pharaoh Neco.

36Jehoiakim was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Zebidah daughter of Pedaiah from Rumah. 37Jehoiakim did the things that the Lord said were wrong. Jehoiakim did all the same things his ancestors* had done.

King Nebuchadnezzar Comes to Judah

24In the time of Jehoiakim, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to the country of Judah. Jehoiakim served Nebuchadnezzar for three years. Then Jehoiakim turned against Nebuchadnezzar and broke away from his rule.

2The Lord sent groups of Babylonians, Arameans, Moabites, and Ammonites to fight against Jehoiakim. The Lord sent those groups to destroy Judah. This happened just like the Lord said. The Lord used his servants the prophets to say those things.

3The Lord commanded those things to happen to Judah. In this way, he would take them out of his sight. He did this because of all the sins that Manasseh did. 4The Lord did this because Manasseh killed many innocent people. Manasseh had filled Jerusalem with their blood. And the Lord would not forgive those sins.

5The other things that Jehoiakim did are written in the book The History of the Kings of Judah. 6Jehoiakim died and was buried with his ancestors.* Jehoiakim’s son Jehoiachin became the new king after him.

Nebuchadnezzar Captures Jerusalem

8Jehoiachin was 18 years old when he began to rule. He ruled three months in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Nehushta daughter of Elnathan from Jerusalem. 9Jehoiachin did the things that the Lord said were wrong. He did all the same things that his father had done.

10At that time, the officers of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and surrounded it. 11Then Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to the city. 12Jehoiachin king of Judah went out to meet the king of Babylon. Jehoiachin’s mother, his officers, leaders, and officials also went with him. Then the king of Babylon captured Jehoiachin. This was during the eighth year of Nebuchadnezzar’s rule.
Nebuchadnezzar took from Jerusalem all the treasures in the Lord’s temple and all the treasures in the king’s house. Nebuchadnezzar cut up all the golden dishes that Solomon king of Israel had put in the Lord’s temple. This happened just like the Lord said.

Nebuchadnezzar captured all the people of Jerusalem. He captured all the leaders and other wealthy people. He took 10,000 people and made them prisoners. Nebuchadnezzar took all the skilled workers and craftsmen. No person was left, except the poorest of the common people.

Nebuchadnezzar also took the king’s mother, his wives, officers, and the leading men of the land. Nebuchadnezzar took them from Jerusalem to Babylon as prisoners.

Nebuchadnezzar made Mattaniah the new king. Mattaniah was Jehoiachin’s uncle. He changed his name to Zedekiah.

Zedekiah was 21 years old when he began to rule. He ruled 11 years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah. Zedekiah did the things the Lord said were wrong. Zedekiah did all the same things that Jehoiakim did.

The Lord became so angry at Jerusalem and Judah that he threw them away.

King Zedekiah

The king of Babylon made Mattaniah the new king. Mattaniah was Jehoiachin’s uncle. He changed his name to Zedekiah.

Nebuchadnezzar came to Jerusalem on the 7th day of the fifth month of his nineteenth year as king of Babylon. The captain of Nebuchadnezzar’s best soldiers was Nebuzaradan. Nebuzaradan burned the Lord’s temple, the king’s house, and all the houses in Jerusalem. He destroyed even the largest houses.

Then the Babylonian army that was with Nebuzaradan pulled down the walls around Jerusalem. Nebuzaradan captured all the people that were still left in the city. Nebuzaradan took all the people as prisoners, even the people who had tried to surrender.

Nebuzaradan let only the poorest of the common people stay there. He let them stay so they could take care of the grapes and other crops.

The Babylonian soldiers broke to pieces all the bronze things in the Lord’s temple. They broke the bronze columns, the bronze carts, and the large bronze tank. Then they took all of that bronze to Babylon.
and all the bronze dishes that were used in the Lord’s temple. 15 Nebuzaradan took all the firepans and bowls. He took all the things made of gold for the gold. And he took all the things made of silver for the silver. 16-17 So, Nebuzaradan took:

- The 2 bronze columns (Each column was about 27 feet tall. The capitals on the columns were 4 1/2 feet tall. They were made from bronze and had a design like a net and pomegranates. Both columns had the same kind of design);
- The large bronze tank;
- The carts that Solomon made for the Lord’s temple.

The bronze from these things was too heavy to be weighed.

The People of Judah Taken as Prisoners

18 From the temple, Nebuzaradan took Seraiah the high priest, Zephaniah the second priest, the three men who guarded the entrance.

19 And from the city, Nebuzaradan took 1 official who was in charge of the army of the king’s advisers who were still in the city, 1 secretary of the commander of the army. He was in charge of counting the common people and choosing some of them to be soldiers, 60 people who just happened to be in the city.

20-21 Then Nebuzaradan took all these people to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the area of Hamath. The king of Babylon killed them there at Riblah. And the people of Judah were led away as prisoners from their land.

Gedaliah Governor of Judah

22 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon left some people in the land of Judah. There was a man named Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan. Nebuchadnezzar made Gedaliah governor over those people in Judah.

23 The army captains were Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth from Netophah, and Jaazaniah son of the Maachathite. These army captains and their men heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor. So they went to Mizpah to meet with Gedaliah.

24 Gedaliah made promises to these officers and their men. Gedaliah said to them, “Don’t be afraid of the Babylonian officers. Stay here and serve the king of Babylon. Then everything will be all right with you.”

25 Ishmael son of Nethaniah son of Elishama was from the king’s family. In the seventh month Ishmael and ten of his men attacked Gedaliah and killed all the Jews and Babylonians that were with Gedaliah at Mizpah. 26 Then the army officers and all the people ran away to Egypt. Everyone, from the least important to the most important, ran away because they were afraid of the Babylonians.

27 Later, Evil Merodach became the king of Babylon. He let Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison. This happened in the 37th year after Jehoiachin was captured. This was on the 27th day of the twelfth month from the time that Evil Merodach began to rule. 28 Evil Merodach was kind to Jehoiachin. He gave Jehoiachin a more important place to sit than the other kings that were with him in Babylon. 29 Evil Merodach let Jehoiachin stop wearing prison clothes. And Jehoiachin ate at the same table with Evil Merodach, every day for the rest of his life.

30 So King Evil Merodach gave Jehoiachin every meal, every day, for the rest of his life.
Family History from Adam to Noah

1 Adam, Seth, Enosh, Kenan, Mahalalel, Jared, Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech, Noah.*
2 The sons of Noah were Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Japheth’s Descendants

3 The sons of Japheth were Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras.
4 The sons of Gomer were Ashkenaz, Riphath,* and Togarmah.
5 The sons of Javan were Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Rodanim.

Ham’s Descendants

6 The sons of Ham were Cush (Ethiopia), Mizraim (Egypt), Put, and Canaan.
7 The sons of Cush were Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabtecah. The sons of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan.
8 Nimrod, a descendant* of Cush, grew up to become the strongest and bravest soldier in the world.
9 Mizraim (Egypt) was the father of the people of Lud, Anam, Laph, Naphtuh, Pathrus, Casluh, and Caphtor. (The Philistines came from Casluh.)
10 Canaan was the father of Sidon. Sidon was his first child. Canaan was also the father of the Hittites, the Jebusite people, the Amorite people, the Girgasite people, the Hivite people, the Arkite people, the Sinite people, the Arvadite people, the Zemarite people, and the people from Hamath.

Shem’s Descendants

17 Shem’s sons were Elam, Asshur, Arphaxad, Lud, and Aram. Aram’s sons were Uz, Hul, Gether, and Meshech.*
18 Arphaxad was the father of Shelah. Shelah was the father of Eber.
19 Eber had two sons. One son was named Peleg,* because the people on the earth were divided into different languages during his lifetime. Peleg’s brother was named Joktan. (Joktan was the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, Ebal,* Abimael, Sheba Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All these men were Joktan’s sons.)

Abraham’s Family

24 Shem’s descendants were: Arphaxad, Shelah, Eber, Peleg, Reu, Serug, Nahor, Terah, Abram. (Abram is also called Abraham.)
25 Abraham’s sons were Isaac and Ishmael.
26 These are their descendants*:

Hagar’s Descendants

Ishmael’s first son was Nebaioth. Ishmael’s other sons were Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. Those were Ishmael’s sons.

Keturah’s Sons

32 Keturah was Abraham’s woman servant.* She gave birth to Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah.

Adam ... Noah  This list of names gives the name of a man, followed by his descendants.
Riphath Or, “Diphath.”
descendant(s) A person’s children and their future families.

Peleg This name means “division.”
woman servant Or, “concubine.” A woman who was like a wife to a man.
Jokshan’s sons were Sheba and Dedan.

Midian’s sons were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah.

These men were the descendants* of Keturah.

Sarah’s Sons

Abraham was the father of Isaac. Isaac’s sons were Esau and Israel.*

Esau’s sons were Eliphaz, Reuel, Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.

Eliphaz’s sons were Teman, Omar, Zepho,* Gatam, and Kenaz. Also Eliphaz and Timna had a son named Amalek.

Reuel’s sons were Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah.

The Edomites from Seir

Seir’s sons were Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan.

Lotan’s sons were Hori and Homam.* Lotan had a sister named Timna.

Shobal’s sons were Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.

Zibeon’s sons were Aiah and Anah.

Anah’s son was Dishon.

Dishon’s sons were Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, and Keran.

Ezer’s sons were Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan.

Dishan’s sons were Uz and Aran.

The Kings of Edom

There were kings in Edom long before there were kings in Israel. These are the names of the kings of Edom:

The first king was Bela son of Beor. The name of Bela’s city was Dinhabah.

When Bela died, Jobab son of Zerah became the new king. Jobab came from Bozrah.

When Jobab died, Husham became the new king. Husham was from the country of the Temanite people.

When Husham died, Hadad son of Bedad became the new king. Hadad defeated Midian in the country of Moab. Hadad’s city was named Avith.

When Hadad died, Samlah became the new king. Samlah was from Masrekhah.

When Samlah died, Shaul became the new king. Shaul was from Rehoboth by the Euphrates River.

When Shaul died, Baal Hanan son of Acbor became the new king.

When Baal Hanan died, Hadad became the new king. Hadad’s city was named Pau.* Hadad’s wife was named Mehetabel. Mehetabel was Matred’s daughter. Matred was Mezahab’s daughter. Then Hadad died. The leaders of Edom were Timna, Alvah, Jetheth, Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon, Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar, Magdiel, and Iram. This is a list of the leaders of Edom.

Israel’s Sons

Israel’s* sons were Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, Dan, Joseph, Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

Judah’s Sons

Judah’s sons were Er, Onan, and Shelah. Bathshua* was their mother. Bathshua was a woman from Canaan. The Lord saw that Judah’s first son, Er, was evil. That is why the Lord killed Er. Judah’s daughter-in-law Tamar gave birth to Perez and Zerah.* So Judah had five sons.

Perez’s sons were Hezron and Hamul.

Zerah had five sons. They were: Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Calcol, and Darda.

Zimri’s son was Carmi. Carmi’s son was Achar.* Achar was the man that brought many troubles to Israel. Achar kept the things he took in battle. But he was supposed to give all those things to God.

Ethan’s son was Azariah.

Pau Or, “Pai.”

Israel Another name for Jacob. See Gen. 32:28.

Bathshua This name means, “the daughter of Shua.” See Gen. 38:2.

Judah’s daughter-in-law ... Perez and Zerah Judah had sexual relations with his own daughter-in-law Tamar and caused her to be pregnant. See Gen. 38:12–30.

Achar Or, “Achan.” See Joshua 7:11.
9Hezron’s sons were Jerahmeel, Ram, and Caleb.*

Ram’s Descendants

10Ram was Amminadab’s father. And Amminadab was Nahshon’s father. Nahshon was the leader of the people of Judah.* 11Nahshon was Salmon’s father. Salmon was Boaz’s father. 12Boaz was Obed’s father. Obed was Jesse’s father. 13Jesse was Eliab’s father. Eliab was Jesse’s first son. Jesse’s second son was Abinadab. His third son was Shimea. 14Nethanel was Jesse’s fourth son. Jesse’s fifth son was Raddai. 15Ozem was Jesse’s sixth son, and David was his seventh son. 16Their sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail. Zeruiah’s three sons were Abishai, Joab, and Asahel. 17Abigail was Amasa’s mother. Amasa’s father was Jether. Jether was from the Ishmaelite people.

Caleb’s Descendants

18Caleb was Hezron’s son. Caleb had children with his wife Azubah. Azubah was the daughter of Jerioth.* Azubah’s sons were Jesher, Shobab, and Ardon. 19When Azubah died, Caleb married Ephrath. Caleb and Ephrath had a son. They named him Hur. 20Hur was Uri’s father. Uri was Bezalel’s father. 21Later, when Hezron was 60 years old, he married Makir’s daughter. Makir’s was the father of Gilead. Hezron had sexual relations with Makir’s daughter and she gave birth to Segub. 22Segub was Jair’s father. Jair had 23 cities in the country of Gilead. 23But Geshur and Aram took Jair’s villages. Among them was Kenath and the small towns around it. There were 60 small towns in all. All of these towns belonged to the sons of Makir, the father of Gilead.

24Hezron died in the town of Caleb, Ephrathah. After he died, his wife Abijah had his son. That son was named Ashhur. Ashhur was the father of Tekoa.

Jerahmeel’s Descendants

25Jerahmeel was Hezron’s first son. Jerahmeel’s sons were Ram, Bunah, Oren, Ozem, and Ahijah. Ram was Jerahmeel’s first son. 26Jerahmeel had another wife named Atarah. Onam’s mother was Atarah. 27Jerahmeel’s first son, Ram, had sons. They were Maaz, Jamin, and Eker. 28Onam’s sons were Shammai and Jada. Shammai’s sons were Nadab and Abishur. 29Abishur’s wife was named Abihail. They had two sons. Their names were Ahban and Molid. 30Nadab’s sons were Seled and Appaim. Seled died without having children. 31Appaim’s son was Ishi. Ishi’s son was Sheshan. Sheshan’s son was Ahlai. 32Jada was Shammai’s brother. Jada’s sons were Jether and Jonathan. Jether died without having children. 33Jonathan’s sons were Peleth and Zaza. This was the list of Jerahmeel’s children. 34Sheshan did not have sons. He only had daughters. Sheshan had a servant from Egypt named Jarha. 35Sheshan let his daughter marry Jarha. They had a son. His name was Attai. 36Attai was Nathan’s father. Nathan was Zabad’s father. 37Zabad was Ephlal’s father. Ephlal was Obed’s father. 38Obed was Jehu’s father. Jehu was Azariah’s father. 39Azariah was Helez’s father. Helez was Eleashah’s father. 40Eleashah was Sismai’s father. Sismai was Shallum’s father. 41Shallum was Jekamiah’s father. And Jekamiah was Elishama’s father.

Caleb’s Family

42Caleb was Jerahmeel’s brother. Caleb had some sons. His first son was Mesha. Mesha was Ziph’s father. There was also Caleb’s son Mareshah. Mareshah was the father of Hebron. 43Hebron’s sons were Korah, Tappuah, Rekem, and Shema. 44Shema was Raham’s father. Raham was Jorkeam’s father. Rekem was Shammai’s father. 45Shammai’s son was Maon. Maon was Beth Zur’s father.
46Caleb’s woman servant* was named Ephah. Ephah was the mother of Haran, Moza, and Gazez. Haran was Gazez’s father.

47Jahdai’s sons were Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah, and Shaaph.

48Maacah was another woman servant* of Caleb. Maacah was the mother of Sheber and Tirhana. 49Maacah was also the mother of Shaaph and Sheva. Shaaph was Madmannah’s father. Sheva was the father of Macbenah and Gibea. Caleb’s daughter was Acsah.

50This is a list of Caleb’s descendants:* Hur was Caleb’s first son. He was born to Ephrathah. Hur’s sons were Shobal, the founder* of Kiriath Jearim, 51Salma, the founder of Bethlehem, and Hareph, the founder of Beth Gader.

52Shobal was the founder* of Kiriath Jearim. This is a list of Shobal’s descendants:* Haroeh, half the people in Manahithi, 53and the family groups from Kiriath Jearim. These are the Ithrite people, the Pathite people, the Shumathite people, and the Mishraine people. The Zorathite people and the Eshtalite people came from the Mishraine people.

54This is a list of Salma’s descendants:* The people from Bethelhem, Netophah, Atroth Beth Joab, half the people from Manahithi, 55and the families of scribes* that lived at Jabez, Tirath, Shimeath, and Sukah. These scribes are the Kenite people that came from Hammath. Hammath was the founder* of Beth Recab.

David’s Sons

3Some of David’s sons were born in the town of Hebron. This is a list of David’s sons:

David’s first son was Amnon. Amnon’s mother was Ahinoam. She was from the town of Jezreel.

The second son was Daniel. His mother was Abigail from Carmel, in Judah.

The third son was Absalom. His mother was Maacah, daughter of Talmai. Talmai was the king of Geshur.

The fourth son was Adonijah. His mother was Haggith.

The fifth son was Shephatiah. His mother was Abital.

The sixth son was Ithream. His mother was Eglah, David’s wife. 4These six sons were born to David in Hebron.

David ruled as king in Hebron for seven years and six months. David ruled as king in Jerusalem 33 years.

5These are the children born to David in Jerusalem:

There were four sons from Bathsheba,* the daughter of Ammiel. They were Shimea, Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon. 6–8There were nine other sons. They were: Ibhar, Elishua, Eliphelet, Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, Elisahma, Eliada, and Eliphelet. They were all David’s sons. Their sister was named Tamar. David also had other sons by his women servants.*

Kings of Judah after David’s Time

10Solomon’s son was Rehoboam.

Rehoboam’s son was Abijah. Abijah’s son was Asa. Asa’s son was Jehoshaphat.

11Jehoshaphat’s son was Jehoram. Jehoram’s son was Ahaziah. Ahaziah’s son was Joash.

12Joash’s son was Amaziah. Amaziah’s son was Azariah. Azariah’s son was Jotham.

13Jotham’s son was Ahaz. Ahaz’s son was Hezekiah. Hezekiah’s son was Manasseh.

14Manasseh’s son was Amon. Amon’s son was Josiah.

15This is a list of Josiah’s sons: The first son was Johanan. The second son was Jehoiakim. The third son was Zedekiah. The fourth son was Shallum.

16Jehoiakim’s sons were Jehoiachin, his son, and Zedekiah, his son.*

Bathsheba The Hebrew text has, “Bathshua.”

Jehoiakim’s sons ... son This can be interpreted in two ways:
(1) “This Zedekiah was the son of Jehoiakim and the brother of Jehoiachin,”
(2) “This Zedekiah is the son of Jehoiachin and the grandson of Jehoiakim.”
David’s Family After Babylonian Captivity

17This is a list of Jehoiachin’s children after Jehoiachin became a prisoner in Babylon. His children were: Shealtiel, Malkiram, Pedaiah, Shenazzar, Jekamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah.

19Pedaiah’s sons were Zerubbabel and Shimei. Zerubbabel’s sons were Meshullam and Hananiah. Shelomith was their sister.

20Zerubbabel had five other sons also. Their names were Hashubah, Ohel, Berekiah, Hasadia, and Jushab Hesed.

21Hananiah’s son was Pelatia. And his son was Jeshaiah.* And his son was Rephaiah. And his son was Arnan. And his son was Obadia. And his son was Shecaniah.*

22This is a list of Shecaniah’s descendants; Shemaiah. Shemaiah had six sons: Shemaiah, Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah, and Shaphat.

23Neariah had three sons. They were Elioenai, Hizkiah, and Azrikam.

24Elioenai had seven sons. They were Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah, and Anani.

Other Family Groups of Judah

4This is a list of Judah’s sons. They were Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur, and Shobal.

2Shobal’s son was Reaiah. Reaiah was Jahath’s father. Jahath was the father of Ahumai and Lahad. The Zorathite people are descendants* of Ahumai and Lahad.

3Etam’s sons were Jezreel, Ishma, and Idbash. And they had a sister named Hazzzelelponi.

4Penuel was Gedor’s father. And Ezer was Hushah’s father.

These were Hur’s sons. Hur was Ephrathah’s first son. And Ephrathah was the founder* of Bethlehem.

5Tekoa’s father was Ashhur. Ashhur had two wives. Their names were Helah and Naarah. 6Naarah had Ahuzzam, Hepher, Temeni, and Haahashtari. These were the sons Naarah had with Ashhur. 7The sons of Helah were Zereth, Zohar, Ethnan, and Koz.

8Koz was the father of Anub and Hazobehah. Koz also was the father of the family groups of Aharhel. Aharhel was Harum’s son.

9Jabez was a very good man. He was better than his brothers. His mother said, “I have named him Jabez* because I was in much pain when I had him.” 10Jabez prayed to the God of Israel. Jabez said, “I wish you would truly bless me. I wish you would give me more land. Be near me and don’t let anyone hurt me. Then I won’t have any pain.” And God gave Jabez what he asked for.

11Kelub was Shuah’s brother. Kelub was Mehir’s father. Mehir was Eshton’s father.

12Eshton was the father of Beth Rapha, Paseah, and Tehinnah. Tehinnah was the father of Ir Nahash.* Those men were from Recah.

13The sons of Kenaz were Othniel and Seraiah. Othniel’s sons were Hathath and Meonothai. 4Meonothai was Ophrah’s father.

And Seraiah was Joab’s father. Joab was the founder* of the Ge Harashim.* Those people used that name because they were skilled workers.

15Caleb was Jephunneh’s son. Caleb’s sons were Iru, Elah, and Naam. Elah’s son was Kenaz.

16Jehallelel’s sons were Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria, and Asarel.

17–18 Ezrah’s sons were Jether, Mered, Ephr, and Jalon. Mered was the father of Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah. Ishbah was the father of Eshtemoa. Mero had a wife from Egypt. She had Jered, Heber, and Jekuthiel. Jered was Gedor’s father. Heber was Soco’s father. And Jekuthiel was Zanoah’s father. These were the sons of Bithiah. Bithiah was Pharaoh’s daughter. She was Mero’s wife from Egypt.

19Mero’s wife was Naham’s sister. Mero’s wife was from Judah.* The sons of Jabez This name is like the Hebrew word meaning “pain.”

Tehinnah Or, “Tehinnah was the founder of the city of Nahash.” Ir means “city.”

founder Literally, “father,” the person that started the city.

Ge Harashim This name also means, “Valley of the Skilled Workers.”

Mero’s wife * was from Judah This is from the ancient Greek translation.
Mered’s wife were the father of Keilah and Eshtemoa. Keilah was from the Garmite people. And Eshtemoa was from the Maacathite people. 20Shimon’s sons were Amnon, Rinnah, Ben Hanan, and Tilon. Ishi’s sons were Zoheth and Ben Zoheth.
21–22Shelah was Judah’s son. Shelah had Er, Laadah, Jokim, the men from Cozeba, Joash, and Saraph. Er was the father of Lecah. Laadah was the father of Mareshah and the family groups of linen workers at Beth Ashbea. Joash and Saraph married Moabite women. Then they went back to Bethlehem. The writings about this family are very old.
23 Those sons of Shelah were workers that made things from clay. They lived in Netaim and Gederah. They lived in those towns and worked for the king.

Simeon’s Children
24 Simeon’s sons were Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, and Shaul. 25 Shaul’s son was Shallum. Shallum’s son was Mibsam. Mibsam’s son was Mishma.
26 Mishma’s son was Hammuel. Hammuel’s son was Zaccur. Zaccur’s son was Shimei. Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters. But Shimei’s brothers did not have many children. Shimei’s brothers did not have large families. Their families were not large like the other family groups in Judah.
27 Shimei’s descendants lived in Beersheba, Moladah, Hazar Shual, 29 Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad, Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag, Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susim, Beth Biri, and Shaaraim. They lived in those towns until David became king.
32 The five villages near these towns were Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Token, and Ashan.
33 There were also other villages as far away as Baalath. This is where they lived. And they also wrote the history about their family.
34–38 This is the list of men who were leaders of their family groups. They were Meshobab, Jamlech, Josiah (Amaziah’s son), Joel, Jehu son of Joshahib, Joshubiah son of Seraiah, Seraiah son of Asiel, Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah, and Ziza (Shiphi’s son). Shiphi was Allon’s son, and Allon was Jedaiah’s son. Jedaiah was Shimri’s son, and Shimri was Shemaiah’s son.

These men’s families grew to be very large. 39 They went to the area outside the town of Gedor to the east side of the valley. They went to that place to look for fields for their sheep and cattle. 40 They found good fields with plenty of grass. They found plenty of good land there. The land was peaceful and quiet. Ham’s descendants lived there in the past. 41 This happened during the time that Hezekiah was king of Judah. Those men came to Gedor and fought against the Hamite people. They destroyed the tents of the Hamite people. Those men also fought against the Meunite people that lived there. These men destroyed all the Meunite people. There are no Meunite people in this place even today. So those men began to live there. They lived there because the land had grass for their sheep.
42 Five hundred people from Simeon’s family group went to the hill country of Seir. Ishi’s sons led those men. Those sons were, Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel. The Simeonite men fought against the people living in that place. 43 There were only a few Amalekite people still living. And these Simeonite people killed them. Since that time until now, those Simeonite people have lived in Seir.

Reuben’s Descendants
5 1–3 Reuben was Israel’s first son. Reuben should have received the special privileges of the oldest son. But Reuben had sexual relations with his father’s wife. So those privileges were given to Joseph’s sons. In the family history, Reuben’s name is not listed as the first son. Judah became stronger than his brothers, so the leaders came from his family. But Joseph’s family got the other privileges that belong to the oldest son. Reuben’s sons were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

linen A type of cloth. married ... Bethlehem Or, “They ruled in Moab and Jashubih Lehem.”

descendants A person’s children and their future families.
4These are the names of Joel’s descendants: Shemaiah was Joel’s son. Gog was Shemaiah’s son. Shimei was Gog’s son. Micah was Shimei’s son. Reiah was Micah’s son. Baal was Reiah’s son. Beerah was Baal’s son. Tiglath Pileser, the king of Assyria, forced Beerah to leave his home. So Beerah became the king’s prisoner. Beerah was a leader of the family group of Reuben.

7Joel’s brothers and all his family groups are listed just as they are written in the family histories: Jeiel was the first son, then Zechariah, and Bela. Bela was Azaz’s son. Azaz was Shema’s son. Shema was Joel’s son. They lived in the area of Aroer all the way to Nebo and Baal Meon. Bela’s people lived to the east as far as the edge of the desert, near the Euphrates River. They lived in that place because they had many cattle in the land of Gilead. When Saul was king, Bela’s people fought a war against the Hagrite people. They defeated the Hagrite people. Bela’s people lived in the tents that had belonged to the Hagrite people. They lived in those tents and traveled throughout the area east of Gilead.

Gad’s Descendants

11The people from the family group of Gad lived near the people from the family group of Reuben. The Gadite people lived in the area of Bashan, all the way to the town of Salecah. Joel was the first leader in Bashan. Shapham was the second leader. Then Janai became the leader. The seven brothers in their families were Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia, and Eber. Those men were the descendants of Abihail. Abihail was Huri’s son. Huri was Jaroah’s son. Jaroah was Gilead’s son. Gilead was Michael’s son. Michael was Jeshishai’s son. Jeshishai was Jahdo’s son. Jahdo was Buz’s son. Ah was Abdiel’s son. Abdiel was Guni’s son. Ah was the leader of their family.

16The people in the family group of Gad lived in the area of Gilead. They lived in the area of Bashan, in the small towns around Bashan, and in all the pastures in the area of Sharon all the way to the borders.

17During the time of Jotham and Jeroboam, all these people’s names were written in the family history of Gad. Jotham was the king of Judah and Jeroboam was the king of Israel.

Some Soldiers Skilled in War

18From half of Manasseh’s family group and from the family groups of Reuben and Gad there were 44,760 brave men ready for war. They were skilled in war. They carried shields and swords. And they were also good with bows and arrows. They started a war against the Hagrite people and the people of Jetur, Naphish, and Nodab. Those men from the family groups of Manasseh, Reuben, and Gad prayed to God in the war. They asked God to help them because they trusted him. So God helped them. God allowed them to defeat the Hagrite people. And they also defeated those other people who were with the Hagrite people. They took the animals that belonged to the Hagrite people. They took 50,000 camels, 250,000 sheep, 2,000 donkeys, and 100,000 people. Many Hagrite people were killed because God helped the people of Reuben win the war. Then those people from the family groups of Manasseh, Reuben, and Gad lived in the land of the Hagrite people. They lived there until the time when the people of Israel were taken into captivity.

23Half of Manasseh’s family group lived in the area of Bashan all the way to Baal Hermon, Senir, and Mount Hermon. They became a very large group of people.

24These were the family leaders from half of Manasseh’s family group: Epher, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel. They were all strong and brave men. They were famous men. And they were leaders in their families. But those leaders sinned against the God that their ancestors worshiped. They began worshiping the false ancestors. Literally, “fathers.” This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
The God of Israel made Pul want to go to war. Pul was the king of Assyria. He was also called Tiglath Pileser. He fought against the people from the family groups of Manasseh, Reuben, and Gad. He forced them to leave their homes and made them prisoners. Pul brought them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and near the Gozan River. Those family groups from Israel have lived in those places since that time until today.

The Descendants of Levi

Levi’s sons were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

Kohath’s sons were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

Amram’s children were Aaron, Moses, and Miriam.

Aaron’s sons were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. Eleazar was Phinehas’s father. Phinehas was Abishua’s father. Abishua was Bukki’s father. Bukki was Uzzi’s father. Uzzi was Zerahiah’s father. Zerahiah was Meraioth’s father. Meraioth was Amariah’s father. Amariah was Ahitub’s father. Ahitub was Zadok’s father. Zadok was Ahimaaz’s father. Ahimaaz was Zerahiah’s father. Zerahiah was Johanan’s father. Johanan was Azariah’s father. (Azariah is the person that served as priest in the temple that Solomon built in Jerusalem.) Azariah was Amariah’s father. Amariah was Ahitub’s father. Ahitub was Zadok’s father. Zadok was Shallum’s father. Shallum was Hilkiiah’s father. Hilkiiah was Azariah’s father. Azariah was Seraiah’s father. Seraiah was Jehozadak’s father.

Jehozadak was forced to leave his home when the Lord sent Judah and Jerusalem away. Those people were made prisoners in another country. The Lord used Nebuchadnezzar to take the people of Judah and Jerusalem prisoners.

Other Descendants of Levi

Levi’s sons were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

The names of Gershon’s sons were Libni and Shimei.

Kohath’s sons were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

Merari’s sons were Mahli and Mushi.

This is a list of the families in the family group of Levi. They are listed with their fathers’ names first:

These were Gershon’s descendants:
Libni was Gershon’s son. Jahath was Libni’s son. Zimmah was Jahath’s son. Joah was Zimmah’s son. Iddo was Joah’s son. Zerah was Iddo’s son. Jeatherai was Zerah’s son.

These were Kohath’s descendants:
Amminadab was Kohath’s son. Korah was Amminadab’s son. Assir was Korah’s son.

Elkanah was Assir’s son. Ebiasaph was Elkanah’s son. Assir was Ebiasaph’s son.

Tahath was Assir’s son. Uriel was Tahath’s son. Uzziah was Uriel’s son. Shallu was Uzziah’s son.

Elkanah’s sons were Amasai and Ahimoth.

Zophai was Elkanah’s son. Nahath was Zophai’s son.

Eliab was Nahath’s son. Jeroham was Eliab’s son. Elkanah was Jeroham’s son.

Samuel was Elkanah’s son.

Samuel’s sons were his oldest son Joel, and Abijah.

These are Merari’s sons: Mahli was Merari’s son, Libni was Mahli’s son, Shimei was Libni’s son. Uzziah was Shimei’s son.

Shimea was Uzziah’s son. Haggiah was Shimea’s son. Asaiah was Haggiah’s son.

The Temple Musicians

These are the men that David chose to take care of the music at the tent of the Lord’s house after the Box of the Agreement* was put there. These men served by singing at the Holy Tent.* The Holy Tent is also called the Meeting Tent. And these men served until Solomon built the Lord’s temple* in

descendants A person’s children and their future families.
Box of the Agreement Also called the “Ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

Holy Tent Also called the “tabernacle.” The people would go to this tent to meet with God. The people used this tent until Solomon built the temple in Jerusalem.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
Jerusalem. They served by following the rules given to them for their work.

33 These are the names of the men and their sons that served with music:

The descendants from the Kohath family were: Heman the singer. Heman was Joel’s son. Joel was Samuel’s son. 34 Samuel was Elkanah’s son. Elkanah was Jeroham’s son. Jeroham was Eliel’s son. Eliel was Toah’s son. 35 Toah was Zuph’s son. Zuph was Elkanah’s son. Elkanah was Mahath’s son. Mahath was Amasai’s son. 36 Amasai was Elkanah’s son. Elkanah was Joel’s son. Joel was Azariah’s son. Azariah was Zephaniah’s son. 37 Zephaniah was Tahath’s son. Tahath was Assir’s son. Assir was Ebiasaph’s son. Ebiasaph was Korah’s son. 38 Korah was Izhar’s son. Izhar was Kohath’s son. Kohath was Levi’s son. Levi was Israel’s son.

39 Heman’s relative was Asaph. Asaph served by Heman’s right side. Asaph was Berekiah’s son. Berekiah was Shimea’s son. 40 Shimea was Michael’s son. Michael was Baaseiah’s son. Baaseiah was Malluch’s son. 41 Malluch was Ethan’s son. Ethan was Zimmah’s son. Zimmah was Shimei’s son. 42 Shimei was Jahath’s son. Jahath was Gershon’s son. Gershon was Levi’s son.

43 Merari’s descendants were the relatives of Heman and Asaph. They were the singing group on Heman’s left side. They were Bani’s son. Bani was Shelomith’s son. Shelomith was Ethan’s son. Ethan was Zimmah’s son. Zimmah was Shimei’s son. 44 Shimei was Jahath’s son. Jahath was Gershon’s son. Gershon was Levi’s son. 45 Levites were chosen to do the work in the Holy Tent.

The Holy Tent was God’s house. 46 But only Aaron’s descendants were permitted to burn incense on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense. Aaron’s descendants did all the work in the Most Holy Place in God’s house. They also did the ceremonies to make the people of Israel pure. They followed all the rules and laws that Moses commanded. Moses was God’s servant.

Aaron’s Descendants

50 These were Aaron’s sons: Eleazar was Aaron’s son. Phinehas was Eleazar’s son. Abishua was Phinehas’ son. 51 Bukki was Abishua’s son. Uzzi was Bukki’s son. Zerahiah was Uzzi’s son. Meraioth was Zerahiah’s son. Amariah was Meraioth’s son. Ahitub was Amariah’s son. 52 Zadok was Ahitub’s son. Ahimaaz was Zadok’s son.

Homes for the Levite Families.

54 These are the places where Aaron’s descendants lived. They lived in their camps in the land that was given to them. The Kohath families got the first share of the land that was given to the Levite people. 55 They were given the town of Hebron and the fields around it. This was in the area of Judah. 56 But the fields farther from town and the villages near the town of Hebron were given to Caleb son of Jephunneh. 57 The descendants of Aaron were given the city of Hebron. Hebron was a city of safety. They were also given the cities of Libnah, Jattir, Eshtemoa, Hilen, Debir, Ashan, Juttah, and Beth Shemesh. They got all those cities and the fields around incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.

Most Holy Place The most important room in the temple. The Box of the Agreement with the Cherub Angels on it was in this room. This was like God’s throne. Once each year, on the Day of Atonement, the high priest went into this room to do the ceremony that atoned for the sins of the people of Israel.
make ... pure Or, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover or erase a person’s sins.”
60From the family group of Benjamin they got the cities of Gibeon, Geba, Alemeth, and Anathoth. They got all those cities and the fields around them.

Thirteen cities were given to the Kohath families.

61The rest of Kohath’s descendants* got ten towns from half of Manasseh’s family group.

62The family groups that were the descendants* of Gershon got 13 cities. They got those cities from the family groups of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and the part of Manasseh living in the area of Bashan.

63The family groups that were the descendants* of Merari got 12 cities. They got those cities from the family groups of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun. They got those cities by throwing lots.*

64So the Israelite people gave those towns and fields to the Levite people. 65All those cities came from the family groups of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin. They decided which Levite family got which city by throwing lots.*

66The family group of Ephraim gave some of the Kohath families some towns. Those towns were chosen by throwing lots.* 67They were given the city of Shechem. Shechem is a city of safety.* They were also given the towns of Gezer, Jokneam, Beth Horon, Ajalon, and Gath Rimmon. They also got fields near those towns.

68–73The Gershon families also got the towns of Kedesh, Daberath, Ramoth, and Gannim from the family group of Issachar. They also got the fields near those towns.

74–75The Gershon families also got the towns of Mashal, Abdon, Hukok, and Rehob from the family group of Asher. They also got the fields near those towns.

76The Gershon families also got the towns of Kedesh in Galilee, Hammon, and Kiriathaim from the family group of Naphtali. They also got the fields near those towns.

77The rest of the Levite people are the Merari families. They got the towns of Jokneam, Kartah, Rimmon, and Tabor from the family group of Zebulun. They also got the fields near those towns.

78–79The Merari families also got the towns of Bezer in the desert, Jahzah, Kedemoth, and Mephaath from the family group of Reuben. The family group of Reuben lived on the east side of the Jordan River, east of the city of Jericho. These Merari families also got the fields near those towns.

80–81And the Merari families got the towns of Ramoth in Gilead, Mahanaim, Heshbon, and Jazer from the family group of Gad. They also got the fields near those towns.

Issachar’s Descendants

7Issachar had four sons. Their names were Tola, Puah, Jashub, and Shimron.

2Tola’s sons were Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Ibzan, and Samuel. They were all leaders of their families. Those men and their descendants* were strong soldiers. Their families grew until by the time David was king, there were 22,600 men ready for war.

3Uzzi’s son was Issrahiah. Issrahiah’s sons were Michael, Obadiah, Joel, and Ishshiah. All five of them were leaders of their families. Their family history shows they had 36,000 soldiers ready for war. They had a large family because they had many wives and children.

4Their family history shows they had 36,000 soldiers ready for war. They had a large family because they had many wives and children.

5The family history shows there were 87,000 strong soldiers in all the family groups of Issachar.
Benjamin’s Descendants

6Benjamin had three sons. Their names were Bela, Beker, and Jediael.

7Bela had five sons. Their names were Ezbon, Uzzi, Uziel, Jerimoth, and Iri. They were leaders of their families. Their family history shows they had 22,034 soldiers.

8Beker’s sons were Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Omri, Jeremoth, Abijah, Anathoth, and Alemeth. They all were Beker’s children. Their family history shows who the family leaders were. And their family history also shows they had 20,200 soldiers.

9Jediael’s son was Bilhan. Bilhan’s sons were Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Kenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish, and Ahishahar. All of Jediael’s sons were leaders of their families. They had 17,200 soldiers ready for war.

10The Shuppites and Huppites were the descendants of Ir. Hushim was the son of Aher.

Naphtali’s Descendants

13Naphtali’s sons were Jahziel, Guni, Jezer, and Shallum.

And these are the descendants of Bilhah.*

Manasseh’s Descendants

14These are Manasseh’s descendants:

Manasseh’s Aramean woman servant* had a son named Asriel. ... she bore Makir. Makir was Gilead’s father. Makir married a woman from the Huppite and Shuppite people. Makir’s sister was named Maacah. The name of the second ... was Zelophehad. Zelophehad had only daughters.* 16Makir’s wife Maacah had a son. Maacah named this son Peresh. Peresh’s brother was named Sheresh. Sheresh’s sons were Ulam and Rakem.

17Ulam’s son was Bedan.

These were the descendants of Gilead. Gilead was Makir’s son. Makir was Manasseh’s son.

18Makir’s sister Hammoleketh* had Ishhod, Abiezer, and Mahlah.

19Shemida’s sons were Ahian, Shechem, Likhi, and Aniam.

Ephraim’s Descendants

20These were the names of Ephraim’s descendants.* Ephraim’s son was Shuthelah. Shuthelah’s son was Bered. Bered’s son was Tahath. Tahath’s son was Eleadah. Eleadah’s son was Tahath. Tahath’s son was Zabad. Zabad’s son was Shuthelah.

Some men that grew up in the city of Gath killed Ezer and Elead. This happened because Ezer and Elead went there to steal cattle and sheep from those men in Gath. Ephraim was the father of Ezer and Elead. He cried for many days because Ezer and Elead were dead. Ephraim’s family came to comfort him.

22Ephraim had sexual relations with his wife. Ephraim’s wife became pregnant and had a son. Ephraim named this new son Beriah* because something bad had happened to his family. 24Ephraim’s daughter was Sheerah. Sheerah built Lower Beth Horon and Upper Beth Horon and Lower Uzzen Sheerah and Upper Uzzen Sheerah.

25Rephah was Ephraim’s son. Resheph was Rephah’s son. Telah was Resheph’s son. Tahan was Telah’s son. Ammihud was Tahan’s son. Elishama was Ammihud’s son. Nun was Elishama’s son. Joshua was Nun’s son.

28These are the cities and lands where Ephraim’s descendants* lived: Bethel and the villages near it, Naaran to the east, Gezer and the villages near it on the west, and Shechem and the villages near it all the way to Ayyah and the villages near it. Along the borders of Manasseh’s land were the towns of Beth Shan, Taanach, Megiddo, and Dor, and the small towns near them. The descendants of Joseph lived in these towns. Joseph was the son of Israel.*

Bilhah Jacob’s woman servant and the mother of Dan and Naphtali. See Gen. 30:4-8.

woman servant Or, “concubine,” a slave woman who was like a wife to a man.

verses 14-15 There seems to be a few words missing from the Hebrew, dating back evidently to the Chronicler’s sources.

Ham moleketh Or, “The woman that ruled,” or “queen.”

descendants A person’s children and their future families.

Beriah This is like the Hebrew word meaning, “bad,” or “trouble.”

Israel Another name for Jacob. See Gen. 32:28.
Asher’s Descendants

30 Asher’s sons were Innah, Ishvah, Ishvi, and Beriah. Their sister was named Serah.
31 Beriah’s sons were Heber and Malkiel. Malkiel was Birzaith’s father.
32 Heber was the father of Japhlet, Shomer, Hotham, and of their sister Shua.
33 Japhlet’s sons were Pasach, Bimhal, and Ashvath. These were Japhlet’s children.
34 Shomer’s sons were Ahi, Rohgah, Jehubbah, and Aram.
35 Shomer’s brother’s name was Helem. Helem’s sons were Zophah, Imna, Shelesh, and Amal.
36 Zophah’s sons were Suah, Harnepher, Shual, Beri, Imrah, 37 Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah, Ibri, and Beera.
38 Jether’s sons were Jephunneh, Pispah, and Ara.
39 Ulla’s sons were Arah, Hanniel, and Rizia.
40 All these men were descendants of Asher. They were leaders of their families. They were the best men. They were soldiers and great leaders. Their family history shows 26,000 soldiers ready for war.

The Family History of King Saul

8 Benjamin was Bela’s father. Bela was Benjamin’s first son. Ashbel was Benjamin’s second son. Aharah was Benjamin’s third son. 2 Nohah was Benjamin’s fourth son. And Rapha was Benjamin’s fifth son.
3–5 Bela’s sons were Addar, Gera, Abihud, Abishua, Naaman, Ahoah, Gera, Shephuphan, and Huram.
6–7 These were the descendants of Ehud. They were leaders of their families in Geba. They were forced to leave their homes and move to Manahath. Ehud’s descendants were Naaman, Ahijah, and Gera. Gera forced them to leave their homes. Gera was the father of Uzza and Ahihud.
8 Shaharaim divorced his wives Hushim and Baara in Moab. After he did this he had some children with another wife. 9–10 Shaharaim had Jobab, Zibia, Meshai, Malcam, Jeuz, Sakia, and Mirmah with his wife Hodesh. They were leaders of their families. 11 Shaharaim and Hushim had two sons named Abitub and Elpaal.
12–13 Elpaal’s sons were Eber, Mishal, Shemed, Beriah, and Shema. Shemed built the towns of Ono and Lod and the small towns around Lod. Beriah and Shema were the leaders of the families living in Aijalon. Those sons forced the people that lived in Gath to leave.
14 Beriah’s sons were Shashak and Jeremoth. 15 Zebadiah, Arad, Eder, Michael, Ishpah, and Joha. 16 Elpaal’s sons were Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hizki, Heber, Ishmerai, Izliah, and Jobab.
17 Shime’i’s sons were Jakim, Zicri, Zabdi, Elienai, Zillethai, Eliel, 21 Adaiah, Beraiah, and Shimrath.
18–19 Shashak’s sons were Ishpan, Eber, Eliel, Abdon, Zicri, Hanan, 24 Hananiah, Elam, Anthothijah, 25 Pheideiah, and Penuel.
20 Jeroham’s sons were Shashbun, She hadiah, Athaliah, 27 Jaresh, Eliah, and Zicri.
21–22 All these men were leaders of their families. They were listed in their family histories as leaders. They lived in Jerusalem.
23 Jeiel was Gibeon’s father. He lived in the town of Gibeon. Jeiel’s wife was named Maacah. 30 Jeiel’s oldest son was Abdon. Other sons were Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, Gedor, Ahio, Zeker, and Millo.
24 Mikloth was the father of Shimeah. These sons also lived near their relatives in Jerusalem.
25–26 Ner was Kish’s father. Kish was Saul’s father. And Saul was the father of Jonathan, Malki Shua, Abinadab, and Esh Baal.
27 Jonathan’s son was Merib Baal. Merib Baal was Micah’s father.
28 Micah’s sons were Pithon, Melech, Tarea, and Ahaz.
29 Azel had six sons. Their names were Azrikam, Bokeru, Ishshai, Obadiah, and Hanan. All these sons were Azel’s children.
Azel’s brother was Eshek. Eshek had some sons. These were Eshek’s sons: Ulam was Azel’s oldest son. Jeush was Eshek’s second son. Eliphelet was Eshek’s third son. Ulam’s sons were strong soldiers that were very good with bows and arrows. They had many sons and grandsons. In all, there were 150 sons and grandsons.

All these men were descendants* of Benjamin.

The names of all the people of Israel were listed in their family histories. Those family histories were put in the book The History of the Kings of Israel.

The People in Jerusalem

The people of Judah were made prisoners and forced to go to Babylon. They were taken to that place because they were not faithful to God. The first people to come back and live in their own lands and towns were some Israelites, priests, Levites, and servants that work in the temple.*

These are the people from the family groups of Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh that lived in Jerusalem:

Uthai was Ammihud’s son. Ammihud was Omri’s son. Omri was Imri’s son. Imri was Bani’s son. Bani was a descendant* of Perez. Perez was Judah’s son.

The Shilonite people that lived in Jerusalem were: Asaiah was the oldest son and Asaiah had sons.

The Zerahite people that lived in Jerusalem were: Jeuel and their relatives. There were 690 of them in all.

These are the people from the family group of Benjamin that lived in Jerusalem: Sallu was Meshullam’s son. Meshullam was Hodaviah’s son. Hodaviah was Hassenuah’s son. Ibneiah was Jeroham’s son. Elah was Uzzi’s son. Uzzi was Micri’s son. And Meshullam was Shephatiab’s son. Shephatiab was Reuel’s son. Reuel was Ibnijah’s son.

The family history of Benjamin shows there were 956 of them living in Jerusalem. All these men were leaders in their families.

These are the priests that lived in Jerusalem: Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, Jakin, andAzariah. Azariah was Hilkiah’s son. Hilkiah was Meshullam’s son. Meshullam was Zadok’s son. Zadok was Meraioth’s son. Meraioth was Ahitub’s son. Ahitub was the important official responsible for God’s temple.*

Also there was Jeroham’s son, Adariah. Jeroham was Pashhur’s son. Pashhur was Malkijah’s son. And there was Adiel’s son, Maasai. Adiel was Jahzerah’s son. Jahzerah was Meshullam’s son. Meshullam was Meshillemith’s son. Meshillemith was Meremoth’s son.

There were 1,760 priests. They were leaders of their families. They were responsible for the work of serving in God’s temple.*

These are the people from the family group of Levi that lived in Jerusalem: Hushab’s son, Shemaiah. Hushab was Azrikam’s son. Azrikam was Hashabiah’s son. Hashabiah was a descendant* of Merari. Also living in Jerusalem were Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah. Mattaniah was Mica’s son. Mica was Zicri’s son. Zicri was Asaph’s son. Obadiah was Shemaiah’s son. Shemaiah was Galal’s son. Galal was Jeduthun’s son. Berekiah was Asa’s son. Asa was Elkanah’s son. Berekiah lived in the small towns near the people of Netophah.

These are the gatekeepers that lived in Jerusalem: Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their relatives. Shallum was their leader.

Now these men stand next to the King’s Gate on the east side. They were the gatekeepers from the family group of Levi. Shallum was Kore’s son. Kore was Ebiaiah’s son. Ebiaiah was Korah’s son. Shullum and his brothers were gatekeepers. They were from the family of Korah. They had the job of guarding the gates to the Holy Tent.* They did this just like their ancestors* had done before them. Their ancestors had the job of guarding the entrance to the Holy Tent. Also called the “tabernacle.” The people would go to this tent to meet with God. The people used this tent until Solomon built the temple in Jerusalem.

ancestors  Lit., “fathers.” This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

descendants  A person’s children and their future families.
temple  The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
to the Holy Tent. 20 In the past, Phinehas was in charge of the gatekeepers. Phinehas was Eleazar's son. The Lord was with Phinehas.

21 Zechariah was the gatekeeper at the entrance to the Holy Tent.

22 In all there were 212 men that were chosen to guard the gates of the Holy Tent.* Their names were written in their family histories in their small towns. David and Samuel the seer* chose those men because they could be trusted. 23 The gatekeepers and their descendants* had the responsibility of guarding the gates of the Lord's house, the Holy Tent. 24 There were gates on the four sides: east, west, north, and south. 25 The gatekeepers' relatives that lived in the small towns had to come and help them at certain times. They came and helped the gatekeepers for seven days each time.

26 There were four gatekeepers that were the leaders of all the gatekeepers. They were Levite* men. They had the job of caring for the rooms and treasures in God's temple.* 27 They stayed up all night guarding God's temple. And they had the job of opening God's temple every morning.

28 Some of the gatekeepers had the job of caring for the dishes used in the temple* services. They counted these dishes when they were brought in. They also counted these dishes when they were taken out. 29 Other gatekeepers were chosen to care for the furniture and those special dishes. They also took care of the flour, wine, oil, incense,* and special oil.* 30 But it was the priests that had the job of mixing the special oil.

31 There was a Levite named Mattithiah that had the job of baking the bread used for the offerings. Mattithiah was Shallum's oldest son. Shallum was from the Korah family. 32 Some of the gatekeepers that were in the Korah family had the job of preparing the bread put on the table every Sabbath.*

33 The Levites that were singers and leaders of their families stayed in the rooms at the temple.* They did not have to do other work because they were responsible for the work in the temple day and night.

34 All these Levites were leaders of their families. They were listed as leaders in their family histories. They lived in Jerusalem.

King Saul's Family History

35 Jeiel was Gibeon's father. Jeiel lived in the town of Gibeon. Jeiel's wife was named Maacah. 36 Jeiel's oldest son was Abdon. Other sons were Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, 37 Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah, and Mikloth.

38 Mikloth was Shimeam's father. Jeiel's family lived near their relatives in Jerusalem.

39 Ner was Kish's father. Kish was Saul's father. And Saul was the father of Jonathan, Malki Shua, Abinadab, and Esh Baal.

40 Jonathan's son was Merib Baal. Merib Baal was Micah's father.

41 Micah's sons were Pithon, Melech, Tahrea, and Ahaz. 42 Ahaz was Jada's father. Jadah was Jarah's father.* Jarah was the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri. Zimri was Moza's father. 43 Moza was the father of Binea. Rephaiah was Binea's son. Eleasah was Rephaiah's son. And Azel was Eleasah's son.

44 Azel had six sons. Their names were: Azrikam, Bokeru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. Those were Azel's children.

The Death of King Saul

10 The Philistine people fought against the people of Israel. The people of Israel ran away from the Philistines. Many Israelite people were killed on Mount Gilboa. 2 The Philistines continued chasing Saul and his sons. They caught them and killed them. The

---

Holy Tent Also called the “tabernacle.” The people would go to this tent to meet with God. The people used this tent until Solomon built the temple in Jerusalem.

seer This is another name for a prophet. See 1 Sam. 9:9–11.

descendants A person's children and their future families.

Levite A person from the tribe of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.

special oil Or “perfume.” This might be the oil used to anoint priests, prophets, and kings. See Ex. 30:22–38.
Philistines killed Saul’s sons Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malki Shua. The fighting became heavy around Saul. The archers shot Saul with their arrows and wounded him. Then Saul said to his armorbearer, “Pull out your sword and use it to kill me. Then those foreigners will not hurt me and make fun of me when they come.”

But Saul’s armorbearer was afraid. He refused to kill Saul. Then Saul used his own sword to kill himself. He fell on the point of his sword. The armorbearer saw that Saul was dead. Then he also killed himself. He fell on the point of his own sword and died. So Saul and three of his sons died. All of Saul’s family died together.

All the people of Israel living in the valley saw that their own army had run away. They saw that Saul and his sons were dead. So they left their towns and ran away. Then the Philistine people came into the towns the people of Israel had left. And the Philistine people lived in those towns.

The next day, the Philistine people came to take valuable things from the dead bodies. They found Saul’s body and the bodies of his sons on Mount Gilboa. The Philistines took things from Saul’s body. They took Saul’s head and armor. They sent messengers through all their country to tell the news to their false gods and their people. The Philistines put Saul’s armor in the temple of their false gods. They hung Saul’s head in the temple of Dagon.

All the people living in the town of Jabesh Gilead heard everything the Philistine people had done to Saul. All the brave men from Jabesh Gilead went to get the bodies of Saul and his sons. They brought them back to Jabesh Gilead. Those brave men buried the bones of Saul and his sons under the large tree in Jabesh. Then they showed their sadness and fasted for seven days.

Saul died because he was not faithful to the Lord. Saul did not obey the Lord’s word. Saul also went to a medium and asked her for advice instead of asking the Lord. That is why the Lord killed Saul and gave the kingdom to Jesse’s son David.

David Becomes King Over Israel

All the people of Israel came to David at the town of Hebron. They said to David, “We are your own flesh and blood.” In the past, you led us in war. You led us even though Saul was the king. The Lord said to you ‘David, you will be the shepherd of my people, the people of Israel. You will become the leader over my people.’”

All the leaders of Israel came to King David at the town of Hebron. David made an agreement with those leaders in Hebron before the Lord. The leaders anointed David. That made him king over Israel. The Lord promised this would happen. The Lord had used Samuel to make that promise.

David Captures Jerusalem

David and all the people of Israel went to the city of Jerusalem. Jerusalem was called Jebus at that time. The people living in that city were named Jebusites. The people that lived in the city said to David, “You can’t get inside our city.” But David did defeat those people. David took over the fortress of Zion. This place became the City of David.

David said, “The person that leads the attack on the Jebusite people will become the commander over all my army.” So Joab led... the attack. Joab was Zeruiah’s son. Joab became the commander of the army.

7 Then David made his home in the fortress.* That is why it is named the City of David.* 8 David built the city around the fort. He built it from the Millo* to the wall around the city. Joab repaired the other parts of the city. 9 David continued to grow greater. And the Lord All-Powerful was with him.

The Three Heroes

10 This is a list of the leaders over David’s special soldiers. These heroes became very powerful with David in his kingdom. They and all the people of Israel supported David and made him king. It happened just like God had promised.

11 This is a list of David’s special soldiers:

Jashobeam the Hacmonite.* Jashobeam was the leader of the chariot officers.* Jashobeam used his spear to kill 300 men at one time.

12 Next, there was Eleazar son of Dodai* from Ahoah. Eleazar was one of The Three Heroes. 13 Eleazar was with David at Pasdammim. The Philistines had come to that place to fight a war. There was a field full of barley at that place. The people of Israel ran away from the Philistines. 14 But the Three Heroes stood there in that field and defended it. They defeated the Philistines. The Lord gave the people of Israel a great victory.

15 Once, David was at the cave of Adullam and the Philistine army was down in the Valley of Rephaim. Three of the Thirty Heroes* crawled flat on the ground all the way to that cave to join David.

16 Another time, David was in the fortress,* and a group of Philistine soldiers was in Bethlehem. 17 David was thirsty † for some water from his home town. So he said, “I wish someone could give me some water from that well near the city gate in Bethlehem.” ‡ David did not really want this, he was only talking.

18 But the Three* fought their way through the Philistine army. These three men got some water from the well near the city gate in Bethlehem. Then the Three Heroes brought the water to David. But David refused to drink the water. He poured it out on the ground as an offering to the Lord. 19 David said, “God, I can’t drink this water. It would be like drinking the blood of the men who risked their lives to get this water for me.” That is why David refused to drink the water. The Three Heroes did many brave things like that.

Other Brave Soldiers

20 Joab’s brother, Abishai, was the leader of the Three Heroes. He fought 300 men with his spear and killed them. Abishai was as famous as the Three Heroes. 21 Abishai was twice as famous as the Thirty Heroes. He became their leader, even though he was not one of the Three Heroes.

22 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was the son of a powerful man. He was from Kabzeel. Benaiah did brave things. Benaiah killed two of the best men from the country of Moab. One day when it was snowing, Benaiah went down into a hole in the ground and killed a lion. 23 And Benaiah killed a big Egyptian soldier. That man was about 7 1/2 feet* tall. The Egyptian had a spear that was very large and heavy. It was as big as the pole on a weaver’s loom.* Benaiah had only a club. Benaiah grabbed the spear in the Egyptian’s hands and took it away from him. Then Benaiah killed the Egyptian with his own spear. 24 Benaiah son of Jehoiada did many brave things like that. Benaiah was as famous as the Three Heroes.

fortress  A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.

City of David  The southeastern and oldest part of the city of Jerusalem.

Millo  The Millo was probably a raised platform of land southeast of the temple area in Jerusalem.

Jashobeam the Hacmonite  This is “Josheb Basshebeth the Tahkemonite” in 2 Sam. 23:8.

chariot officers  Or, “The Thirty” or “The Three.” See 2 Sam. 23:8.

Eleazar son of Dodai  Or, “Eleazar his cousin.”

Thirty Heroes  These men were David’s famous group of very brave soldiers.

Three  The Three Heroes, David’s three bravest soldiers.

7 1/2 feet  Or, “2.25m.” Literally, “5 {short} cubits.”

loom  A machine used for making cloth.
Heroes.* 25Benaiah was more famous than the Thirty Heroes,* but he was not one of the Three Heroes. David chose Benaiah to be the leader of his bodyguards.

The Thirty Heroes

26The Heroic Soldiers (The Thirty Heroes) were: Asahel, the brother of Joab; Elhanan, son of Dodai from Bethlehem; 27Shammooth the Harodite; Helez the Pelonite; 28Ira son of Ikkesh from Tekoa; Abiezer from Anathoth; 29Sibbecai the Hushathite; Ili from Ahoah; 30Maharai from Netophah; Heled son of Baanah from Netophah; 31Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah in Benjamin; Benaiyah, the Pirathonite; 32Hurai from the Brooks of Gaash; Abiel the Arbathite; 33Azmaveth the Baharumite; Eliahba the Shaalbonite; 34the sons of Hashem the Gizonite; Jonathan son of Shagee the Hararite; 35Ahiam son of Sacar the Hararite; Eliphal son of Ur; 36Hepher the Mekerathite; Ahijah the Pelonite; 37Hezro the Carmelite; Naarai son of Ezba; 38Joel, Nathan’s brother; Mibhar son of Haggi; 39Zelek the Ammonite; Naharai from Beeroth (Naharai carried the armor for Joab son of Zeruiah.); 40Ira the Ithrite; Gareb the Ithrite; 41Uriah the Hittite; Zabad son of Ahlai; 42Adina son of Shiza from the family group of Reuben. (Adina was the leader of the family group of Reuben, but he was also one of the Thirty Heroes.*); 43Hananiah son of Maacah; Josaphat the Mithnhite; 44Uzzia the Ashtonathite; Shama and Jeiel sons of Hotham from Gera; 45Jediael son of Shimri and his brother Joab the Tizite; 46Eliel the Mahavite; Jeribai and Joshaviah the sons of Elnaam; Jehu the Maobite; 47Eliezer; Obed; and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

The Brave Men Who Joined David

12This is a list of the men who came to David while he was at Ziklag. This was when David was hiding from Saul son of Kish. These men helped David in battle. 2These men could shoot arrows from their bows with their right or left hand. They could also throw stones from their slings* with their right or left hand. They were Saul’s relatives from the family group of Benjamin. Their names were:

3Ahiezer, their leader, and Joash (Ahiezer and Joash were sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite.); Jeziel and Pelet (Jeziel and Pelet were Azmaveth’s sons.); Beracah and Jehu from the town of Anathoth. 4Ishmaiah from the town of Gibeon (Ishmaiah was a hero with the Three Heroes and he was also a leader of the Three Heroes); Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, and Jozabad from the Gederathite people; 5Eluzai, Jeremoth, Bealiah, and Shemariah; Shephatiab from Haripha; 6Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joeser, and Jashobeam, all from the family group of Korah; 7Joelah and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham from the town of Gedor.

The Gadites

8Part of the family group of Gad joined David at his fortress* in the desert. They were brave soldiers trained for war. They were skilled with the shield and spear. They looked as fierce as lions. And they could run as fast as gazelles* in the mountains.

9Ezer was the leader of the army from the family group of Gad. Obadiah was the second in command. Eliab was the third in command. 10Mishmannah was the fourth in command. Jeremiah was the fifth in command. 11Attai was the sixth in command. Eliael was the seventh in command. 12Johanan was the eighth in command. Elzabad was the ninth in command. 13Jeremiah was the tenth in command. Machbannai was the eleventh in command. 14Those men were leaders of the Gadite army. The weakest from that group could fight 100 enemy soldiers. The strongest from that group could fight 1,000 enemy soldiers. 15The people from the family group of Gad were the soldiers that went across the Jordan River in the first month of the year. That was a time of year when the Jordan River was flooding. They chased away all the people

---

Glossary

- slings: A strip of leather for throwing rocks.
- fortress: A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.
- gazelles: Animals like deer.
living in the valleys. They chased those people to the east and to the west.

Other Soldiers Join David

16 Other men from the family groups of Benjamin and Judah also came to David at the fortress. 17 David went out to meet them. David said to them, “If you have come in peace to help me, I welcome you. Join me. But if you have come to spy on me when I have done nothing wrong, then may the God of our ancestors see what you did and punish you.”

18 Amasai was the leader of the Thirty Heroes. Then the Spirit came over Amasai and he said, “We are yours, David! We are with you, son of Jesse! Peace, peace to you! Peace to the people who help you. Why? Because your God helps you!”

So David welcomed these men into his group and put them in charge of the troops.

19 Some of the men from the family group of Manasseh also joined David. They joined David when he went with the Philistines to fight Saul. But David and his men did not really help the Philistines. The Philistine leaders talked about David helping them, but then they decided to send him away. Those rulers said, “If David goes back to his master Saul, then our heads will be cut off!”

20 These were the men from Manasseh that joined David when he went to the town of Ziklag:

- Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai. All of them were generals from the family group of Manasseh.

21 They helped David fight against bad men. Those bad men were going around the country and stealing things from people. All these men of Manasseh were brave soldiers. They became leaders in David’s army.

22 More and more men came every day to help David. So David had a large and powerful army.

Other Men Join David at Hebron

23 These are the numbers of the men that came to David at the town of Hebron. These men were ready for war. They came to give Saul’s kingdom to David. That is what the Lord said would happen. This is their number:

24 From the family group of Judah there were 6,800 men ready for war. They carried shields and spears.

25 From the family group of Simeon there were 7,100 men. They were brave soldiers ready for war.

26 From the family group of Levi there were 4,600 men. Jehoiada was in that group. He was a leader from Aaron’s family. There were 3,700 men with Jehoiada. Zadok was also in that group. He was a brave young soldier. He came with 22 officers from his family.

27 From the family group of Benjamin there were 3,000 men. They were Saul’s relatives. Most of those men stayed faithful to Saul’s family until that time.

28 From the family group of Ephraim there were 20,800 men. They were brave soldiers. They were famous men in their own families.

29 From half of Manasseh’s family group there were 18,000 men. They were called by name to come and make David king.

30 From the family group of Issachar there were 200 wise leaders. Those men understood the right thing for Israel to do at the right time. Their relatives were with them and under their command.

31 From the family group of Zebulun there were 50,000 trained soldiers. They were trained to use all kinds of weapons. They were very loyal to David.

32 From the family group of Naphtali there were 1,000 officers. They had 37,000 men with them. Those men carried shields and spears.

33 From the family group of Dan there were 28,600 men ready for war.

34 From the family group of Asher there were 40,000 trained soldiers ready for war.

35 From the east side of the Jordan River, there were 120,000 men from the family groups of Reuben, Gad, and half of Manasseh. Those men had all kinds of weapons.
38 All those men were brave fighters. They came to the town of Hebron fully agreed to make David king of all Israel. All the other people of Israel also agreed that David should be king. 39 The men spent three days at Hebron with David. They ate and drank, because their relatives had prepared food for them. 40 Also, their neighbors from the areas where the family groups of Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali live brought food on donkeys, camels, mules, and cattle. They brought much flour, fig cakes, raisins, wine, oil, cattle, and sheep. The people in Israel were very happy.

Bringing Back The Box of the Agreement

13 David talked with all the officers of his army. Then David called the people of Israel together. He said to them: “If you think it is a good idea, and if it is what the Lord wants, let us send a message to our brothers in all the areas of Israel. Let’s also send the message to the priests and Levites that live with our brothers in their towns and the fields near those towns. Let the message tell them to come and join us. Let’s bring the Box of the Agreement back to us in Jerusalem. We did not take care of the Box of the Agreement while Saul was king.” So all the people of Israel agreed with David. They all thought it was the right thing to do.

5 So David gathered all the people of Israel from the Shihor River in Egypt to the town of Lebo Hamath. They came together to bring the Box of the Agreement from Abinadab’s house. They put it on a new wagon. Uzzah and Ahio were driving the wagon.

7 The people moved the Box of the Agreement from Abinadab’s house. They put it on a new wagon. Uzzah and Ahio were driving the wagon.

8 David and all the people of Israel were celebrating before God. They were praising God and singing songs. They were playing harps, lyres, drums, cymbals, and trumpets.

9 They came to Kidon’s threshing floor. The bulls pulling the wagon stumbled. And the Box of the Agreement almost fell. Uzzah reached out with his hand to catch the Box.

10 The Lord became very angry at Uzzah. The Lord killed Uzzah because he touched the Box. So Uzzah died there in front of God. God showed his anger at Uzzah. And this made David angry. Since that time until now that place has been called “Perez Uzzah.”

12 David was afraid of God that day. David said, “I can’t bring the Box of the Agreement here to me!” So David did not take the Box of the Agreement with him to the City of David. He left the Box of the Agreement at Obed Edom’s house. Obed Edom was from the city of Gath. The Box of the Agreement stayed with Obed Edom’s family in his house for three months. The Lord blessed Obed Edom’s family and everything Obed Edom owned.

14 Hiram was king of the city of Tyre. Hiram sent messengers to David. Hiram also sent logs from cedar trees, stonecutters, and carpenters to David. Hiram sent them to build a house for David. Then David could see that the Lord had really made him king of Israel. The Lord made David’s kingdom very large and powerful. God did this because he loved David and the people of Israel.

Notes

- Levites: People from the tribe of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.
- Box of the Agreement: Also called “The Ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.
- Cherub angels: Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

---

Musical Instruments

- Harps: Musical instruments with several strings.
- Lyres: An instrument with several strings, like a harp.
- Cymbals: Brass plates that were hit together to make a ringing noise.
- Threshing Floor: A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.
- Perez Uzzah: This means “the outburst at Uzzah.”
- City of David: The southeastern and oldest part of the city of Jerusalem.
- Stonecutters: Men that cut stones and build things with them.
- Carpenters: Men that build things with wood.
3David married more women in the city of Jerusalem. And he had more sons and daughters. 4These are the names of David’s children born in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, Ithar, Elishua, Elpelet, Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, Elishama, Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

David Defeats the Philistines

8The Philistine people heard David had been chosen to be the king of Israel. So, all the Philistine people went to look for David. David heard about it. Then he went out to fight the Philistine people. 9The Philistine attacked the people living in the Valley of Rephaim and stole their things. 10David asked God, “Should I go and fight the Philistine people? Will you let me defeat them?”

The Lord answered David, “Go. I will let you defeat the Philistine people.”

11Then David and his men went up to the town of Baal Perazim. There David and his men defeated the Philistine people. David said, “Waters break out from a broken dam. In the same way, God has broken through my enemies! God has done this through me.” That is why that place is named Baal Perazim.*

12The Philistine people had left their idols at Baal Perazim. David ordered his men to burn those idols.

Another Victory Over the Philistine people

13The Philistines attacked the people living in the Valley of Rephaim again. 14David prayed to God again. God answered David’s prayer. God said, “David, don’t follow the Philistines up (the hill) when you attack. Instead, go around them and hide on the other side of the balsam trees. As soon as he hears the sounds of marching, attack the Philistines. I (God) will go out in front of you and defeat the Philistine army!” 15David did what God told him to do. So David and his men defeated the Philistine army. They killed Philistine soldiers all the way from the town of Gibeon to the town of Gezer. 17So David became famous in all the countries. The Lord made all nations afraid of David.

The Box of the Agreement in Jerusalem

15David built houses for himself in the City of David.* Then he built a place to put the Box of the Agreement.* He set up a tent for it. 2Then David said, “Only the Levites* are permitted to carry the Box of the Agreement. The Lord chose them to carry the Box of the Agreement and to serve him forever.”

3David told all the people of Israel to meet together at Jerusalem while the Levites carried the Box of the Agreement* to the place he had made for it. 4David called together the descendants* of Aaron and the Levites. 5There were 120 people from Kohath’s family group. Uriel was their leader.

6There were 220 people from Merari’s family group. Asaiah was their leader. 7There were 130 people from Gershon’s family group. Joel was their leader. 8There were 200 people from Elizaphan’s family group. Shemaiah was their leader. 9There were 80 people from Hebron’s family group. Eliel was their leader. 10There were 112 people from Uzziel’s family group. Amminadab was their leader.

David Talks to the Priests and Levites

11Then David asked the priests, Zadok and Abiathar, to come to him. David also asked these Levites to come to him: Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab. 12David said to them, “You are the leaders from the family group of Levi. You and the other Levites must make yourselves holy.* Then bring the Box of the Agreement* to the place I have made for it. 13The last time we did not ask the Lord how to carry the Box of the Agreement. You Levites did not carry it, and that is why the Lord punished us.”

Baal Perazim  This name means, “the Lord breaks through.”
485 1 CHRONICLES 15:14–16:2

14 Then the priests and Levites* made themselves holy* so they could carry the Box of the Agreement* of the Lord God of Israel. 15 The Levites used the special poles to carry the Box of the Agreement on their shoulders, the way Moses commanded. They carried the Box just like the Lord said.

The Singers

16 David told the Levite leaders to get their brothers, the singers. The singers were to take their lyres,* harps*, and cymbals* and sing happy songs.

17 Then the Levites got Heman and his brothers, Asaph and Ethan. Heman was Joel’s son. Asaph was Berekiah’s son. Ethan was Kushaiah’s son. These men were from the Merari family group. 18 There was also a second group of Levites.* They were Zechariah, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiyah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed Edom, and Jeiel. These men were the Levite guards.

19 The singers Heman, Asaph, and Ethan played bronze cymbals.* 20 Zechariah, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiyah, and Benaiyah played the alamoth* lyres.* 21 Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed Edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah played the sheminith* harps.* This was their job forever.

22 The Levite leader Kenaniah was in charge of the singing. Kenaniah had this job because he was very skilled at singing.

23 Berekiah and Elkanah were two of the guards for the Box of the Agreement.* 24 The priests Shebaniah, Josaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiyah, and Eliezer had the job of blowing trumpets as they walked in front of the Box of the Agreement. Obed Edom and Jehiah were the other guards for the Box of the Agreement.

25 David, the elders (leaders) of Israel, and the generals* went to get the Box of the Agreement.* They brought it out from Obed Edom’s house. Everyone was very happy!

26 God helped the Levites* that carried the Box of the Agreement. They sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams. 27 All the Levites that carried the Box of the Agreement wore robes made from fine linen.* Kenaniah, the man in charge of the singing, and all the singers had robes made from fine linen. David also wore a robe made from fine linen. And David also wore an ephod* made of fine linen.

28 So all the people of Israel brought up the Box of the Agreement.* They shouted, they blew rams’ horns and trumpets, and they played cymbals,* lyres,* and harps.*

29 When the Box of the Agreement* arrived at the City of David,* Michal looked through a window. Michal was Saul’s daughter. She saw King David dancing and playing around. And she lost her respect for David—*she thought he was being foolish.

16 The Levites brought the Box of the Agreement* and put it inside the tent David had set up for it. Then they offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to God. 2 After David had finished giving the burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, he used the Lord’s name to bless the people.

Levites  People from the tribe of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.

made themselves holy  This means “prepared themselves to serve the Lord.”

Box of the Agreement  Also called “The Ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

lyres  An instrument with several strings, like a harp.

harps  Musical instruments with several strings.

cymbals  Brass plates that were hit together to make a ringing noise.

alamoth  We don’t know the exact meaning of this word, but it probably means “high pitched.”

sheminith  We don’t know the exact meaning of this word, but it probably means “low pitched.”
Then he gave a loaf of bread, some dates, and raisins to every Israelite man and woman.

David chose some of the Levites to serve before the Box of the Agreement. Those Levites had the job of celebrating and giving thanks and praise to the Lord, the God of Israel.

Asaph was the leader of the first group. Asaph’s group played the cymbals. Zechariah was the leader of the second group. The other Levites were: Uzziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed Edom, and Jeiel. These men played the lyres and harps.

Benaiah and Jahaziel were the priests that always blew the trumpets before the Box of the Agreement.

This was when David first gave Asaph and his brothers the job of singing praises to the Lord.

David’s Song of Thanks

8 Praise the Lord. Call on his name. Tell people about the great things the Lord has done.

9 Sing to the Lord. Sing praises to the Lord. Tell about all his wonderful works.

10 Be proud of the Lord’s holy name. All you people coming to the Lord, be happy!

11 Look to the Lord and his strength. Always go to him for help.

12 Remember the wonderful things that the Lord has done. Remember his decisions and the powerful things he has done.

13 The people of Israel are the Lord’s servants. The descendants of Jacob are the Lord’s chosen people.

Box of the Agreement Also called “The Ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

Levites People from the tribe of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.

Cymbals Brass plates that were hit together to make a ringing noise.

Lyres An instrument with several strings, like a harp.

Harp Musical instruments with several strings.

14 The Lord is our God. His power is everywhere. Remember his Agreement forever. He gave those commandments for a thousand generations.

16 Remember the Agreement that the Lord made with Abraham. Remember his promise to Isaac.

17 The Lord made it a law for Jacob. It is the Agreement with Israel that continues forever.

18 The Lord said to Israel: “I will give the land of Canaan to you. The promised land will be yours.”

19 There were only a few people. A few strangers in a foreign land.

20 They went from one nation to another. They went from one kingdom to another.

21 But the Lord did not let anyone hurt them. The Lord warned kings not to hurt them.

22 The Lord told those kings, “Don’t hurt my chosen people. Don’t hurt my prophets.”

23 Sing to the Lord, all the earth. Each day you must tell the good news about the Lord saving us.

24 Tell all nations about the Lord’s glory. Tell everyone how wonderful he is.

25 The Lord is great, and he should be praised. The Lord is more awesome than all the other gods.

26 Why? Because all the gods of the world are only worthless statues. But the Lord made the skies!

27 The Lord has glory and honor. The Lord is like a bright, shining light.

28 Families and people praise the Lord’s glory and power! Praise the Lord’s glory. Show honor to his name. Bring your offering to the Lord. Worship the Lord and his holy beauty.

29 The whole earth should shake with fear in front of the Lord! But he made the earth strong; the world won’t move.
Let the earth and skies be happy,
Let people everywhere say,
“The Lord rules!”
Let the sea and everything in it shout!
Let the fields and everything in them show their joy!
The trees of the forest will sing with joy in front of the Lord!
Why? Because the Lord is coming.
He is coming to judge the world.
Oh, thank the Lord—he is good.
The Lord’s love continues forever.
Say to the Lord,
“Save us, God our Savior.
Gather us together,
and save us from the other nations.
Then we can praise your holy name.
Then we can praise you with our songs.”
May the Lord God of Israel be praised forever as he has been praised forever!

All the people praised the Lord and said “Amen!”

Then David left Asaph and his brothers there in front of the Box of the Agreement. David left them there to serve in front of it every day. David also left Obed Edom and 68 other Levites to serve with Asaph and his brothers. Obed Edom and Hosah were guards. Obed Edom was Jeduthun’s son.

David left Zadok the priest and the other priests that served with him in front of the Lord’s Tent* at the high place* in Gibeon.

Every morning and evening Zadok and the other priests offered burnt offerings on the altar of burnt offerings. They did this to follow the rules written in the Law of the Lord which the Lord had given Israel.

Heman and Jeduthun and all the other Levites were chosen by name to sing the songs of praise such as, Praise the Lord because his love continues forever.* Heman and Jeduthun were with them. They had the job of blowing the trumpets and playing cymbals.* They also had the job of playing other musical instruments when songs were sung to God. Jeduthun’s sons guarded the gates.

After the celebration, all the people left. Each person went to his own home. And David also went home to bless his family.

God’s Promise to David

After David had moved into his house, he said to Nathan the prophet, “Look, I am living in a house made of cedar wood, but the Box of the Agreement* sits under a tent. I want to build a temple* for God.”

Nathan answered David, “You may do what you want to do. God is with you.”

But that night the word of God came to Nathan. God said, “Go and tell these things to my servant David: The Lord says, ‘David, you are not the person to build a house for me to live in.

Since the time I brought Israel out of Egypt until now, I have not lived in a house. I have moved around in a tent. I chose people to be special leaders for the people of Israel. Those leaders were like shepherds for my people. While I was going around in Israel to different places, I never said to any of those leaders: Why haven’t you built a house of cedar wood for me?’

“Now, tell these things to my servant David: The Lord All-Powerful says, ‘I took you from the fields and from taking care of the sheep. I made you king of my people Israel. I have been with you everywhere you went. I went ahead of you and I killed your enemies. Now I will make you one of the most famous men on earth. I am giving this place to my people Israel. They will plant their trees, and they will sit in peace under the Lord’s Tent or “tabernacle.” Also called the “meeting tent.” The people would go to this tent to meet with God. The people used this tent until Solomon built the temple in Jerusalem.

high place A place for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

Praise — forever See 2 Chron.7:6, Psalms 118 and 136.
cymbals Brass plates that were hit together to make a ringing noise.
Box of the Agreement Also called “The Ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.
temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
those trees. They won’t be bothered anymore. Evil people won’t hurt them like they did at first. Those bad things happened, but I chose leaders to care for my people Israel. And I will also defeat all your enemies.

“I tell you that the Lord will build a house for you.* When you die, and you join your ancestors,* then I will let your own son be the new king. The new king will be one of your sons. And I will make his kingdom strong. Your son will build a house for me. I will make your son’s family rule forever. I will be his Father, and he will be my son. Saul was the king before you. And I took away my support from Saul. But I will never stop loving your son. I will put him in charge of my house and kingdom forever. His rule will continue forever!”

Nathan told David about the vision* and about all of the things that God had said.

David’s Prayer

Then King David went to the Holy Tent and sat before the Lord. David said, “Lord God, you have done so much for me and my family. And I don’t understand why. Besides all those things, you let me know what will happen to my family in the future. You have treated me like a very important man. What more can I say? You have done so much for me. And I am only your servant. You know that. Lord, you have done this wonderful thing for me. And you did it because you wanted to. There is no one like you, Lord. There is no God except you. We have never heard of any god doing wonderful things like those! Is there any other nation like Israel? No! Israel is the only nation on earth that you have done these wonderful things for. You took us out of Egypt and you made us free. You made yourself famous! You went in front of your people, and forced other people to leave their land for us! You took Israel to be your people forever. And Lord, you became their God!

Lord, you made this promise to me and my family. Now, keep your promise forever. Do what you said you would! Keep your promise so people will honor your name forever. Then people will say, ‘The Lord All-Powerful is Israel’s God!’ I am your servant! Please let my family be strong and continue to serve you.

“My God, you spoke to me, your servant. You made it clear that you would make my family a family of kings. That is why I am being so bold—that is why I am asking you to do these things. Lord, you are God. And God, you yourself promised to do these good thing for me. Lord, you have been kind enough to bless my family. You were kind enough to promise that my family will serve you forever. Lord, you yourself blessed my family, so my family really will be blessed forever!”

David Wins Over Different Nations

Later David attacked the Philistine people. He defeated them. He took the town of Gath and the other small towns around it from the Philistine people.

Then David defeated the country of Moab. The Moabite people became David’s servants. They brought tribute* to David.

David also fought against Hadadezer’s army. Hadadezer was the king of Zobah. David fought against that army all the way to the town of Hamath. David did this because Hadadezer tried to spread his kingdom all the way to the Euphrates River. David took from Hadadezer 1,000 chariots*, 7,000 chariot drivers, and 20,000 soldiers. David also crippled most of Hadadezer’s horses that were used for pulling chariots. But David saved enough horses to pull 100 chariots.

The Aramean people from the city of Damascus came to help Hadadezer. Hadadezer was the king of Zobah. But David defeated 1 a house for you This does not mean a real house. It means the Lord would make men from David’s family kings for many, many years.

---

ancestors Literally, “fathers.” This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

vision Like a dream. God gave messages to his special people by letting them see and hear things in visions.

tribute Money and gifts paid by one king to the king that defeated him.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.
and killed 22,000 Aramean soldiers. Then David put fortresses in the city of Damascus in Aram. The Aramean people became David’s servants and brought tribute to him. So the Lord gave victory to David everywhere he went.

David took the gold shields from Hadadezer’s army leaders and brought them to Jerusalem. David also took much bronze from the towns of Tebah and Cun. Those towns belonged to Hadadezer. Later, Solomon used this bronze to make the bronze tank, the bronze columns, and other things made from bronze for the temple.

Tou was king of the city of Hamath. Hadadezer was the king of Zobah. Tou heard that David had defeated all of Hadadezer’s army. So Tou sent his son Hadoram to King David to ask for peace and to bless him. He did this because David had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him. Hadadezer had been at war with Tou before. Hadoram gave David all kinds of things made of gold, silver, and bronze. King David made those things holy and gave them to the Lord. David did the same thing with all the silver and gold he had gotten from Edom, Moab, the Ammonite people, the Philistine people, and Amalekite people.

Abishai son of Zeruiah killed 18,000 Edomite people in the Valley of Salt. Abishai also put fortresses in Edom and all the Edomite people became David’s servants. The Lord gave David victory everywhere he went.

David’s Important Officials

David was king over all of Israel. He did what was right and fair for everyone. Joab son of Zeruiah was the commander of David’s army. Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud wrote about the things David did. Zadok and Abimelech were the priests. Zadok was Ahitub’s son, and Abimelech was Abiathar’s son. Shavsha was the scribe. Benaiah was responsible for leading the Kerethite and Pelethite people. Benaiah was Jehoiada’s son. And David’s sons were important officials. They served at King David’s side.

The Ammonites Shame David’s Men

Nahash was king of the Ammonite people. Nahash died, and his son became the new king. Then David said, “Nahash was kind to me, so I will be kind to Hanun, Nahash’s son.” So David sent messengers to comfort Hanun about the death of his father. David’s messengers went to the country of Ammon to comfort Hanun.

But the Ammonite leaders said to Hanun, “Don’t be fooled. David didn’t really send these men to comfort you or to honor your dead father! No, David sent his servants to spy on you and your land. David really wants to destroy your country!” So Hanun arrested David’s servants and cut off their beards. Hanun also cut their clothes off at the hip. Then he sent them away.

David’s men were too embarrassed to go home. Some people went to David and told him what happened to his men. So King David sent this message to his men: “Stay in the town of Jericho until your beards grow again. Then you can come back home.”

The Ammonite people saw they had caused themselves to become hated enemies of David. Then Hanun and the Ammonite people used 75,000 pounds of silver to buy chariots and chariot drivers from Mesopotamia. They also got chariots and chariot drivers from the towns of Maacah and Zobah in Aram.

The Ammonite people bought 32,000 chariots. They also paid the king of Maacah and his army to come and help them. The king of Ammon gave David 75,000 pounds of silver to buy more chariots. Then the Ammonite people bought 32,000 chariots. They also paid the king of Maacah and his army to come and help them. The king of...
Maacah and his people came and set up a camp near the town of Medeba. The Ammonite people themselves came out of their towns and got ready for battle.

David heard that the Ammonite people were getting ready for war. So he sent Joab and the whole army of Israel to fight the Ammonite people. The Ammonites came out and got ready for battle. They were near the city gate. The kings that had come to help stayed out in the fields by themselves.

Joab saw that there were two army groups ready to fight against him. One group was in front of him and the other group was behind him. So Joab chose some of the best soldiers of Israel. He sent them out to fight against the army of Aram. Joab put the rest of the army of Israel under Abishai’s command. Abishai was Joab’s brother. Those soldiers went out to fight against the Ammonite army. Joab said to Abishai, “If the army from Aram is too strong for me, then you must help me. But if the Ammonite army is too strong for you, then I will help you. Let’s be brave and strong while we fight for our people and for the cities of our God! May the Lord do what he thinks is right.”

Joab and the army with him attacked the army from Aram. The army from Aram ran away from Joab and his army. The Ammonite army saw that the army from Aram was running away, so they also ran away. They ran away from Abishai and his army. The Ammonites went back to their city, and Joab went back to Jerusalem.

The Aramean leaders saw that Israel had defeated them. So they sent messengers to get help from the Aramean people living east of the Euphrates River. Shophach was the commander of Hadadezer’s army from Aram. Shophach also led those other Aramean soldiers.

David heard the news that the people of Aram were gathering for battle. So David gathered all the people of Israel. David led them across the Jordan River. They came face to face with the Arameans. David got his army ready for battle and they attacked the Arameans.

The Arameans ran away from the Israelites. David and his army killed 7,000 Aramean chariot drivers and 40,000 Aramean soldiers. David and his army also killed Shophach the commander of the Aramean army.

When Hadadezer’s officers saw that Israel had defeated them, they made peace with David. They became David’s servants. So the Arameans refused to help the Ammonites again.

Joab Destroys the Ammonites

In the spring, Joab led the army of Israel out to battle. That was the time of year when kings went out to battle, but David stayed in Jerusalem. The army of Israel went to the country of Ammon and destroyed it. Then they went to the city of Rabbah. The army camped around the city—they stayed there to keep people from going in or out of the city. Joab and the army of Israel fought against the city of Rabbah until they destroyed it.

David took the crown from their king’s head. That gold crown weighed about 75 pounds. There were valuable stones in the crown. The crown was put on David’s head. Then David had a great many valuable things brought out of the city of Rabbah. David brought out the people in Rabbah and forced them to work with saws, iron picks, and axes. David did the same thing to all the cities of the Ammonite people. Then David and all the army went back to Jerusalem.

Philistine Giants Are Killed

Later the people of Israel had war with the Philistine people at the town of Gezer. At that time, Sibbecai from Hushah killed Sippai. Sippai was one of the sons of the giants. So those Philistine people became like slaves to the Israelites.

Another time, the people of Israel again had war against the Philistine people. Elhanan son of Jair killed Lahmi. Lahmi was Goliath’s brother. Goliath was from the town of Gath.

In the spring Literally, “At the return of the year.”
their king’s Or, “Milcom,” the god of the Ammonite people.
75 pounds Literally, “1 kikar.”
Lahmi’s spear was very big and heavy. It was like the large pole on a loom.*

Later, the Israelites fought another war with the Philistine people at the town of Gath. In this town there was a very large man. He had 24 fingers and toes. That man had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot. He also was a son of the giants. So when that man made fun of Israel, Jonathan killed him. Jonathan was Shimea’s son. Shimea was David’s brother.

Those Philistine men were sons of the giants from the town of Gath. David and his servants killed those giants.

David Sins By Counting Israel

Satan was against the people of Israel. He encouraged David to count the people of Israel. So David said to Joab and the leaders of the people, “Go and count all the people of Israel. Count everyone in the country—from the town of Beersheba all the way to the town of Dan. Then tell me, so I will know how many people there are.”

But Joab answered, “May the Lord make his nation 100 times as large! Sir, all the people of Israel are your servants. Why do you want to do this thing, my lord and king? You will make all the people of Israel guilty of sin!”

But Joab answered, “May the Lord make his nation 100 times as large! Sir, all the people of Israel are your servants. Why do you want to do this thing, my lord and king? You will make all the people of Israel guilty of sin!”

But Joab had to do what the king said. So Joab left and went through all the country of Israel counting the people. Then Joab came back to Jerusalem and told David how many people there were. In Israel there were 1,100,000 men who could use a sword. And there were 470,000 men in Judah who could use a sword. Joab did not count the family groups of Levi and Benjamin. Joab did not count those family groups because he did not like King David’s order. David had done a bad thing in God’s sight. So God punished Israel.

God Punishes Israel

Then David said to God, “I have done something very foolish. I have done a very bad sin by counting the people of Israel. Now, I beg you to take the sin away from me, your servant.”

9–10 Gad was David’s seer.* The Lord said to Gad, “Go and tell David: ‘This is what the Lord says: I am going to give you three choices. You must choose one of them. Then I will punish you the way you choose.’”

11–12 Then Gad went to David. Gad said to David, “The Lord says, ‘David, choose which punishment you want: three years without enough food, or three months of running away from your enemies while they use their swords to chase you, or three days of punishment from the Lord. Terrible sicknesses will spread through the country, and the Lord’s angel will go through Israel destroying the people.’ David, God sent me. Now, you must decide which answer I will give to him.”

13 David said to Gad, “I am in trouble! I don’t want some man to decide my punishment. The Lord is very merciful, so let the Lord decide how to punish me.”

14 So the Lord sent terrible sicknesses to Israel, and 70,000 people died. 15 God sent an angel to destroy Jerusalem. But when the angel started to destroy Jerusalem, the Lord saw it and felt sorry. So the Lord decided not to destroy Jerusalem. The Lord said to the angel who was destroying, “Stop! That is enough!” The angel of the Lord was standing at the threshing floor* of Araunah the Jebusite.*

16 David looked up and saw the Lord’s angel in the sky. The angel was holding his sword over the city of Jerusalem. Then David and the elders (leaders) bowed with their faces touching the ground. David and the elders (leaders) were wearing the special clothes to show their sadness. 17 David said to God, “I am the one that sinned! I gave the order for the people to be counted! I was wrong! The people of Israel did not do anything wrong! Lord my God, punish me loom A machine for making cloth from thread.

seer This is another name for a prophet. See 1 Sam. 9:9-11.
threshing floor A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.
Jebusite A person that lived in Jerusalem before the Israelites took the city. “Jebus” was the old name for Jerusalem.
and my family! But stop the terrible sicknesses that are killing your people!"

18Then the angel of the Lord spoke to Gad. He said, “Tell David to build an altar* to worship the Lord. David must build that altar near the threshing floor* of Araunah the Jebusite.” 19Gad told those things to David, and David went to Araunah’s threshing floor.

20Araunah was threshing* the wheat. Araunah turned around and saw the angel. Araunah’s four sons ran away to hide. 21David walked up the hill to Araunah. Araunah saw him and left the threshing floor. He walked to David and bowed with his face to the ground in front of him.

22David said to Araunah, “Sell me your threshing floor.* I will pay you the full price. Then I can use the area to build an altar* to worship the Lord. Then the terrible sicknesses will be stopped.”

23Araunah said to David, “Take this threshing floor!* You are my lord and king. Do anything you want. Look, I will also give you cattle for the burnt offering.* I will give the wooden floor boards so you can burn them for the fire on the altar.* And I will give the wheat for the grain offering. I will give all this to you!”

24But King David answered Araunah, “No, I will pay you the full price. I won’t take anything that is yours and give it to the Lord. I won’t give offerings that cost me nothing.”

25So David gave Araunah about 15 pounds* of gold for the place. 26David built an altar* for worshiping the Lord there. David offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. David prayed to the Lord. The Lord answered David by sending fire down from heaven. The fire came down on the altar of burnt offering. 27Then the Lord commanded the angel to put his sword back into its sheath.*

28David saw that the Lord had answered him on the threshing floor* of Araunah, so David offered sacrifices to the Lord. 29(The Holy Tent* and the altar of burnt offerings were at the high place* in the town of Gibeon. Moses had made the Holy Tent while the people of Israel were in the desert. 30David could not go to the Holy Tent to speak with God because he was afraid. David was afraid of the angel of the Lord and his sword.)

22David said, “The temple* of the Lord God and the altar for burning offerings for the people of Israel will be built here.”

David Makes Plans for the Temple

2David gave an order for all foreigners living in Israel to be gathered together. David chose stonecutters* from that group of foreigners. Their job was to cut stones ready to be used for building God’s temple.* 3David got iron for making nails and hinges for the gate doors. David also got more bronze than could be weighed. 4And David got more cedar logs than could be counted. The people from the cities of Sidon and Tyre brought many cedar logs to David.

5David said, “We should build a very great temple* for the Lord. But my son Solomon is young and he hasn’t learned the things he needs to know. The Lord’s temple should be very great. It should be famous in all the nations because of its greatness and beauty. That is why I will make plans for building the Lord’s temple.” So David made many plans for building the temple before he died.

6Then David called for his son Solomon. David told Solomon to build the temple* for the Lord God of Israel. 7David said to Solomon, “My son, I wanted to build a temple for the name of the Lord my God. 8But the

---

Terms:
- altar: A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.
- threshing floor: A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.
- Jebusite: A person that lived in Jerusalem before the Israelites took the city. “Jebus” was the old name for Jerusalem.
- threshing: Beating or walking on grain to remove the hulls from the grain.
- burnt offerings: Gifts to God. Usually these were animals that were killed and completely burned on the altar.
- 15 pounds: Literally, “600 shekels.”
Lord said to me, “David, you have fought many wars and you have killed many people. So you can’t build a temple for my name. 9But you have a son that is a man of peace. I will give your son a time of peace. His enemies around him will not bother him. His name is Solomon.* And I will give Israel peace and quiet during the time that Solomon is king. 10Solomon will build a temple for my name. Solomon will be my son, and I will be his Father. And I will make Solomon’s kingdom strong. And someone from his family will rule Israel forever!” 11David also said, “Now, son, may the Lord be with you. May you be successful and build the temple* for the Lord your God, like he said you would. 12The Lord will make you the king of Israel. May the Lord give you wisdom and understanding so you can lead the people and obey the law of the Lord your God. 13And you will have success, if you are careful to obey the rules and laws that the Lord gave Moses for Israel. Be strong and brave. Don’t be afraid. 14“Solomon, I have worked hard making plans for building the Lord’s temple.* I have given 3,750 tons* of gold. And I have given about 37,500 tons* of silver. I have given so much bronze and iron that it can’t be weighed. And I have given wood and stone. Solomon, you can add to them. 15You have many stonecutters* and carpenters.* You have men skilled in every kind of work. 16They are skilled in working with gold, silver, bronze, and iron. You have more skilled workers than can be counted. Now begin the work. And may the Lord be with you.” 17Then David ordered all the leaders of Israel to help his son Solomon. 18David said to these leaders, “The Lord your God is with you. He has given you a time of peace. The Lord helped me to defeat the people living around us. The Lord and his people are now in control of this land. 19Now give your heart and soul to the Lord your God, and do the things he says. Build the holy place of the Lord God. Build the temple* for the Lord’s name. Then bring the Box of the Agreement* and all the other holy things into the temple.”

Plans for the Levites to Serve in the Temple

23 David became an old man, so he made his son Solomon the new king of Israel. 2David gathered all the leaders of Israel. He also gathered the priests and Levites. 3David counted the Levites that were 30 years old and older. All together there were 38,000 Levites. 4David said, “24,000 Levites will supervise the work of building the Lord’s temple.* 6,000 Levites will be policemen and judges. 5 4,000 Levites will be gatekeepers. And 4,000 Levites will be musicians. I made special musical instruments for them. They will use those instruments to praise the Lord.” 6David separated the Levites into three groups. They were the family groups of Levi’s three sons, Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

The Gershon Family Group

7From the family group of Gershon there were Ladan and Shimei. 8Ladan had three sons. His oldest son was Jehiel. His other sons were Zethan and Joel. 9Shimei’s sons were Shelomoth, Haziel, and Haran. These three sons were leaders in Ladan’s families. 10Shimei had four sons. They were Jahath, Ziza, Jeush, and Beriah. 11Jahath was the oldest son and Ziza was the second son. But Jeush and Beriah did not have many children. So Jeush and Beriah were counted like one family.

The Kohath Family Group

12Kohath had four sons. They were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. 13Amram’s sons were Aaron and Moses. Aaron was chosen to be very special. Aaron and his descendants*

---

Solomon This name is like the Hebrew word meaning, “peace.”

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

3,750 tons Literally, “100,000 kikars.”

37,500 tons Literally, “1,000,000 kikars.”

stonecutters Men that cut stones and build things with them.

carpenters Men that build things with wood.

Box of the Agreement Also called “The Ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

descendants A person’s children and their future families.
were chosen to be special forever and ever. They were chosen to prepare the holy things for the Lord’s service. Aaron and his descendants were chosen to burn the incense before the Lord. They were chosen to serve the Lord as priests. They were chosen to use the Lord’s name and give blessings to the people forever.

14Moses was the man of God. Moses’s sons were part of the family group of Levi. 15Moses’ sons were Gershom and Eliezer. 16Gershom’s oldest son was Shubael. 17Eliezer’s oldest son was Rehobame. Eliezer had no other sons. But Rehobame had very many sons.

18Izhar’s oldest son was Shelomith.
19Hebron’s oldest son was Jeriah. Hebron’s second son was Amariah. Jahaziel was the third son, and Jekameam was the fourth son.
20Uzziah’s oldest son was Micah, and Issiah was his second son.

The Merari Family Group

21Merari’s sons were Mahli and Mushi. Mahli’s sons were Eleazar and Kish. 22Eleazar died without having sons. He only had daughters. Eleazar’s daughters married their own relatives. Their relatives were Kish’s sons. 23Mushi’s sons were Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth. There were three sons in all.

The Levites’ Work

24These were Levi’s descendants. They were listed by their families. They were the leaders of families. Each person’s name was listed. The people that were listed were 20 years old or older. They served in the Lord’s temple.

25David had said, “The Lord God of Israel has given peace to his people. The Lord has come to Jerusalem to live there forever. 26So the Levites don’t need to carry the Holy Tent or any of the things used in its services any more.”

27David’s last instructions for the people of Israel was to count the descendants from the family group of Levi. They counted the Levite men that were 20 years old and older. 28The Levites had the job of helping Aaron’s descendants in the service of the Lord’s temple. The Levites also cared for the temple yard and the side rooms in the temple. They had the job of making all holy things pure. It was their job to serve in God’s temple. 29They were responsible for putting the special bread on the table in the temple. They also were responsible for the flour, the grain offerings, and the bread made without yeast. They were also responsible for the baking pans and the mixed offerings. They did all the measuring. 30The Levites stood every morning and gave thanks and praise to the Lord. They also did this every evening. 31The Levites prepared all the burnt offerings to the Lord on the special days of rest, at the New Moon celebrations, and at all the special holidays. They served before the Lord every day. There were special rules for how many Levites should serve each time. 32So the Levites did all the things they were supposed to do. They took care of the Holy Tent. They took care of the Holy Place. And they helped their relatives, the priests, with the services at the Lord’s temple.

The Groups of the Priests

24These were the groups of Aaron’s sons:
Aaron’s sons were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. 2But Nadab and Abihu died before their father did. And Nadab and Abihu had no sons. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as the priests. 3David separated the family groups of Eleazar and Ithamar into two different groups. David did that so those groups could do the duties of work they were given to do. David did this with the help of Zadok and the priests. The Levites helped the priests with the services at the Lord’s temple.

incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.
man of God Another name for a prophet.
descendants A person’s children and all their future families.
temple Here this means the Holy Tent at Shiloh where people went to worship the Lord.
Holy Tent Also called the “tabernacle.” The people would go to this tent to meet with God. The people used this tent until Solomon built the temple in Jerusalem.

Levites People from the tribe of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.
burnt offerings Gifts to God. Usually these were animals that were killed and completely burned on the altar.
New Moon This was the first day of the Hebrew month. There were special meetings on these days to worship God.
Holy Place The room in the Holy Tent and in the temple that was used by the priests to do their daily service to God.
Ahimelech. Zadok was a descendant* of Eleazar, and Ahimelech was a descendant of Ithamar. *There were more leaders from Eleazar’s family than from Ithamar’s. There were 16 leaders from Eleazar’s family and there were eight leaders from Ithamar’s family. Men were chosen from each family. They were chosen by throwing lots. Some of the men were chosen to be in charge of the Holy Place.* And other men were chosen to serve as priests. All of these men were from the families of Eleazar and Ithamar.

6 Shemaiah was the secretary.* He was Nethaneel’s son. Shemaiah was from the family group of Levi. Shemaiah wrote the names of those descendants.* He wrote those names in front of King David and these leaders: Zadok the priest, Ahimelech, and the leaders from the families of the priests and of the Levites. Ahimelech was Abiathar’s son. Each time they threw the lots* a man was chosen, and Shemaiah wrote down that man’s name. So they divided the work among the men from families of Eleazar and Ithamar.

7 The first group was Jehoiarib’s group.
8 The second group was Jedaiah’s group.
9 The third group was Harim’s group.
10 The fourth group was Seorim’s group.
11 The fifth group was Malkijah’s group.
12 The sixth group was Mijamin’s group.
13 The seventh group was Hakkoz’s group.
14 The eighth group was Abijah’s group.
15 The ninth group was Shubael’s group.
16 The tenth group was Shecaniah’s group.
17 The eleventh group was Jedaiah’s group.
18 The twelfth group was Jachin’s group.
19 The thirteenth group was Huppah’s group.
20 The fourteenth group was Jeshebeab’s group.
21 The fifteenth group was Bilgah’s group.
22 The sixteenth group was Immer’s group.
23 The seventeenth group was Hezir’s group.
24 The eighteenth group was Happizzez’s group.
25 The nineteenth group was Pethahiah’s group.
26 The twentieth group was Jehezkel’s group.
27 The twenty-first group was Jakin’s group.
28 The twenty-second group was Gamul’s group.
29 The twenty-third group was Delaiah’s group.
30 The twenty-fourth group was Maaziah’s group.

These were the groups chosen to serve in the Lord’s temple.* They obeyed Aaron’s rules for serving in the temple. The Lord God of Israel had given those rules to Aaron.

The Other Levites

20 These are the names of the rest of Levi’s descendants:

From Amram’s descendants: Shubael.
From Shubael’s descendants: Jehdeiah.
From Rehobiah: Isshiah. (Isshiah was the oldest son.)
From Izhar family group: Shelomoth.
From Shelomoth’s family: Jahath.
Hebron’s oldest son was Jeria.
Amariah was Hebron’s second son.
Jahaziel was his third son,
and Jekameam was his fourth son.
Uzzel’s son was Micah.
Micah’s son was Shamir.
Isshiah was Micah’s brother. Isshiah’s son was Zechariah.
Merari’s descendants were Mahli,
Mushi, and Jaaziah his son.
Jaaziah son of Merari had sons named Shoham and Zaccur.
Mahli’s son was Eleazar. But Eleazar did not have sons.
Kish’s son was Jerahmeel.
Mushi’s sons were Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth.

Those are the leaders of Levite families. They are listed by their families. They were chosen for special jobs. They threw lots like their relatives, the priests. The priests were Aaron’s descendants.* They threw lots in front of David the king, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the leaders of the priests’ and Levite families. The older families and the younger families were treated the same when their jobs were chosen.

The Music Groups

David and the leaders of the army separated Asaph’s sons for special service. Asaph’s sons were Heman and Jeduthun. Their special service was to prophesy* God’s message by using harps,* lyres,* and cymbals.* Here is a list of the men that served this way:

2From Asaph’s family: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asarelah. King David chose Asaph to prophesy.* And Asaph led his sons.

3From Jeduthun’s family: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah. There were six of them. Jeduthun led his sons. Jeduthun used harps* to prophesy* and give thanks and praise to the Lord.

4Heman’s sons that served were Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shubael, and Jerimoth; Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti Ezer; Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth. 5All these men were Heman’s sons. Heman was David’s seer.* God promised to make Heman strong. So Heman had many sons. God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters. 6Heman led all his sons in singing in the Lord’s temple.* Those sons used cymbals,* lyres,* and harps.* That was their way of serving in God’s temple. King David chose those men. 7Those men and their relatives from the family group of Levi were trained to sing.

8There were 288 men that learned to sing praises to the Lord. 8They threw lots* to choose the different kinds of work each person was to do. Every person was treated the same. Young and old were treated the same. And the teacher was treated the same as the student.

9First, there were 12 men chosen from Asaph’s (Joseph’s)* sons and relatives.

Second, there were 12 men chosen from Gedaliah’s sons and relatives.

10Third, there were 12 men chosen from Zaccur’s sons and relatives.

11Fourth, there were 12 men chosen from Izri’s sons and relatives.

12Fifth, there were 12 men chosen from Nethaniah’s sons and relatives.

13Sixth, there were 12 men chosen from Bukkiah’s sons and relatives.

14Seventh, there were 12 men chosen from Asarelah’s sons and relatives.

15Eighth, there were 12 men chosen from Jeshaiiah’s sons and relatives.

16Ninth, there were 12 men chosen from Mattaniah’s sons and relatives.

17Tenth, there were 12 men chosen from Shimei’s sons and relatives.

18Eleventh, there were 12 men chosen from Azarel’s sons and relatives.

19Twelfth, there were 12 men chosen from Hashabiah’s sons and relatives.

20Thirteenth, there were 12 men chosen from Shubael’s sons and relatives.

21Fourteenth, there were 12 men chosen from Mattithiah’s sons and relatives.

22Fifteenth, there were 12 men chosen from Jeremoth’s sons and relatives.

23Sixteenth, there were 12 men chosen from Hananiah’s sons and relatives.

24Seventeenth, there were 12 men chosen from Joshbokashah’s sons and relatives.

25Eighteenth, there were 12 men chosen from Hanani’s sons and relatives.

26Nineteenth, there were 12 men chosen from Mallothi’s sons and relatives.

27Twentieth, there were 12 men chosen from Eliathah’s sons and relatives.

28Twenty-first, there were 12 men chosen from Hothir’s sons and relatives.

lots Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.
descendants A person’s children and their future families.
prophesy To speak God’s message.
harps Musical instruments with several strings.
lyres An instrument with several strings, like a harp.
cymbals A pair of metal platters that are hit against each other to make a loud sound.
prophesy To announce God’s message.
seer This is another name for a prophet. See 1 Sam. 9:9-11.
temple Here this means the Holy Tent at Shiloh where people went to worship the Lord.
29 twenty-second, there were 12 men chosen from Giddalti’s sons and relatives.
30 twenty-third, there were 12 men chosen from Mahazioth’s sons and relatives.
31 twenty-fourth, there were 12 men chosen from Romamti Ezer’s sons and relatives.

The Gate Keepers

26 The Groups of the Gatekeepers:

These are the gatekeepers from the Korah family. Meshelemiah and his sons. (Meshelemiah was Kore’s son. He was from Asaph’s family group.) Meshelemiah had sons. Zechariah was the oldest son. Jediel was the second son. Zebadiah was the third son. Jathniel was the fourth son. Elam was the fifth son. Jehohanan was the sixth son. And Eliehoenai was the seventh son.

4 Obed Edom and his sons. Obed Edom’s oldest son was Shemaiah. Jehozabad was his second son. Joah was his third son. Sacar was his fourth son. Nethanel was his fifth son. Ammiel was his sixth son. Issachar was his seventh son. And Peullethai was his eighth son.

5 God truly blessed Obed Edom. Obed Edom’s son was Shemaiah. Shemaiah also had sons. Shemaiah’s sons were leaders in their father’s family because they were brave soldiers. Shemaiah’s sons were Othni, Rephael, Obed, Elzabad, Elihu, and Semakiah. Elzabad’s relatives were skilled workers. All those men were Obed Edom’s descendants. Those men and their sons and relatives were powerful men. They were good guards. Obed Edom had 62 descendants.

6 Meshelemiah had sons and relatives that were powerful men. In all there were 18 sons and relatives.

10 These are the gatekeepers from the Merari family. There was Hosah. Shimri was chosen to be the first son. Shimri was not really the oldest, but his father chose him to be the firstborn son. Helkiah was his second son. Tebaliah was his third son. And Zechariah was his fourth son. In all Hosah had 13 sons and relatives.

12 These were the leaders of the groups of the gatekeepers. The gatekeepers had a special way to serve in the Lord’s temple just like their relatives did. Each family was given a gate to guard. Lots were thrown to choose a gate for a family. Young and old were treated the same.

14 Meshelemiah was chosen to guard the East Gate. Then lots were thrown for Meshelemiah’s son Zechariah. Zechariah was a wise counselor. Zechariah was chosen for the North Gate. Obed Edom was chosen for the South Gate. And Obed Edom’s sons were chosen to guard the house where the valuable things were kept. Shuppim and Hosah were chosen for the West Gate and the Shalleketh Gate on the upper road.

Guards stood side by side. Six Levites stood guard every day at the East Gate. Four Levites stood guard every day at the North Gate. Four Levites stood guard at the South Gate. And two Levites guarded the house where the valuable things were kept. There were four guards at the western court. And there were two guards on the road to the court.

19 These were the groups of the gatekeepers. Those gatekeepers were from the families of Korah and Merari.

The Treasurers and Other Officials

20 Ahijah was from the family group of Levi. Ahijah was responsible for taking care of the valuable things in God’s temple. Ahijah also was responsible for the places where the holy things were kept.

21 Ladan was from Gershon’s family. Jehieli was one of the leaders of Ladan’s family group. Jehieli’s sons were Zetham and Zetham’s brother Joel. They were responsible for the valuable things in the Lord’s temple.

Obed Edom God blessed Obed Edom when the Box of the Agreement stayed at his house. See 1 Chron. 21.

descendants A person’s children and their future families.

firstborn The first born child. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for worshipping God.

lots Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.
court We do not know the exact meaning of this word.
Other leaders were chosen from the family groups of Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. Shubael was the leader responsible for the valuable things in the Lord’s temple. Shubael was Gershom’s son. Gershom was Moses’ son. These were Shubael’s relatives: His relatives from Eliezer were: Rehabiah, Eliezer’s son. Jeshahiah, Rehabiah’s son. Joram, Jeshahiah’s son. Zicri, Joram’s son. And Shelomith, Zicri’s son. Shelomith and his relatives were responsible for all the things David had collected for the temple.

The officers of the army also gave things for the temple. They gave some of the things taken in wars. They gave those things to be used in building the Lord’s temple. Shelomith and his relatives also took care of all the holy things given by Samuel the seer; Saul son of Kish; Abner son of Ner; and Joab son of Zeruiah. Shelomith and his relatives took care of all the holy things that people gave to the Lord.

Kenaniah was from the Izhar family. Kenaniah and his sons had work outside the temple. They worked as policemen and judges in different places in Israel. Hashabiah was from the Hebron family. Hashabiah and his relatives were responsible for all the Lord’s work and for the king’s business in Israel west of the Jordan River. There were 1,700 powerful men in Hashabiah’s group. The family history of the Hebron family shows that Jeriah was their leader. When David had been king for 40 years, he ordered his people to search through the family histories for strong and skilled men. Some of those men were found among the Hebron family living in the town of Jazer in Gilead. Jeriah had 2,700 relatives that were powerful men and leaders of families. King David gave those 2,700 relatives the responsibility of leading the family groups of Reuben, Gad, and half of Manasseh in taking care of the Lord’s work and the king’s business.

This is the list of the Israelite people that served the king in the army. Each group was on duty one month each year. There were rulers of families, captains, generals, and the policemen that served the king. Each army group had 24,000 men.

Jashobeam was in charge of the first group for the first month. Jashobeam was Zabdiel’s son. There were 24,000 men in Jashobeam’s group. Jashobeam was one of Perez’s descendants. Jashobeam was leader of all the army officers for the first month.

Dodai was in charge of the army group for the second month. He was from Ahoah. There were 24,000 men in Dodai’s group.

The third commander was Benaiah. Benaiah was the commander for the third month. Benaiah was Jehoiada’s son. Jehoiada was the leading priest. There were 24,000 men in Benaiah’s group. He was the same Benaiah that was a brave soldier from the Thirty Heroes. Benaiah led those men. Benaiah’s son Ammizabad was in charge of Banaiah’s group.

The fourth commander was Asahel. Asahel was the commander for the fourth month. Asahel was Joab’s brother. Later, Asahel’s son Zebadiah took his place as commander. There were 24,000 men in Asahel’s group.

The fifth commander was Shamhuth. Shamhuth was the commander for the fifth month. Shamhuth was from Zerah’s family. There were 24,000 men in Shamhuth’s group.

The sixth commander was Ira. Ira was the commander for the sixth month. Ira was Ikki’s son. Ikki was from the town of Tekoa. There were 24,000 men in Ira’s group.

The seventh commander was Helez. Helez was the commander for the seventh month. He was from the Helonite people, and a descendant of Ephraim. There were 24,000 men in Helez’ group.

The eighth commander was Sibbecai. Sibbecai was the commander for the eighth month. Sibbecai was from Husiah. Sibbecai was from Zerah’s family. There were 24,000 men in Sibbecai’s group.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for worshipping God.

seer This is another name for a prophet. See 1 Sam. 9:9-11.

descendant(s) A person’s children and their future families.
12 The ninth commander was Abiezer. Abiezer was the commander for the ninth month. Abiezer was from the town of Anathoth. Abiezer was from the family group of Benjamin. There were 24,000 men in Abiezer’s group.

13 The tenth commander was Maharai. Maharai was the commander for the tenth month. Maharai was from Netophah. He was from Zerah’s family. There were 24,000 men in Maharai’s group.

14 The eleventh commander was Benaiah. Benaiah was the commander for the eleventh month. Benaiah was from Pirathon. Benaiah was from the Ephraim family group. There were 24,000 men in Benaiah’s group.

15 The twelfth commander was Heldai. Heldai was the commander for the twelfth month. Heldai was from Netophah. Heldai was from Othniel’s family. There were 24,000 men in Heldai’s group.

Leaders of the Family Groups 16 The leaders of the family groups of Israel were:

- Reuben: Eliezer son of Zicri.
- Simeon: Shephatiah son of Maacah.
- Aaron: Zadok.
- Judah: Elihu. (Elihu was one of David’s brothers.)
- Issachar: Omri son of Michael.
- Zebulun: Ishmaiah son of Obadiah.
- Naphtali: Jeremoth son of Azriel.
- Ephraim: Hoshea son of Azaziah.
- West Manasseh: Joel son of Pedahzur.
- East Manasseh: Iddo son of Zechariah.
- Benjamin: Jaasiel son of Abner.
- Dan: Azarel son of Jeroham.

Those were the leaders of the family groups of Israel.

David Counts the Israelites
17 David decided to count the men in Israel. There were very many people because God promised to make the people of Israel as many as the stars in the sky. So David only counted the men that were 20 years old and older. 18 Joab son of Zeruiah began to count the people, but he did not finish.* God became angry with the people of Israel. That is why the number of the people was not put in the book The History of King David.

The King’s Administrators
19 This is the list of men that were responsible for the king’s property:

- Azmaveth son of Adiel was in charge of the king’s storerooms.
- Jonathan son of Uzziah was in charge of the storerooms in the small towns, villages, fields, and towers.
- Ezri son of Kelub was in charge of the field workers.
- Shimei from Ramah was in charge of the fields of grapes.
- Zabdi from Shepham was in charge of the storage and care of the wine that came from the fields of grapes.
- Baal Hanan from Geder was in charge of the olive trees and sycamore trees in the western hill country.
- Joash was in charge of storing the olive oil.
- Shitrai from Sharon was in charge of the cattle around Sharon.
- Shaphat son of Adlai was in charge of the cattle in the valleys.
- Obil the Ishmaelite was in charge of the camels.
- Jehdeiah the Meronothite was in charge of the donkeys.
- Jaziz the Hagrite was in charge of the sheep.

All these men were the leaders that took care of King David’s property.

Jonathan was a wise counselor and a scribe.* Jonathan was David’s uncle. Jehiel son of Hacmoni took care of the king’s sons.

Ahithophel was the king’s counselor. Hushai was the king’s friend. Hushai was Joab ... did not finish God stopped him. See 1 Chron. 21:1-30.

scribe A man that wrote down and copied books and letters. He often become an expert at the meaning of those writings (scriptures).
from the Arkite people. 34Jehoiada and Abiathar later took Ahithophel’s place as the king’s counselor. Jehoiada was Benaiiah’s son. Joab was the commander of the king’s army.

David’s Plans for the Temple

David gathered all the leaders of the people of Israel. He commanded all those leaders to come to Jerusalem. David called all the leaders of the family groups, the commanders of the army groups serving the king, the captains, the generals, the officials taking care of the property and animals that belonged to the king and his sons, the king’s important officials, the powerful heroes, and all the brave soldiers.

2 King David stood up and said, “Listen to me, my brothers and my people. In my heart I wanted to build a place to keep the Box of the Lord’s Agreement. I wanted to build a place that would be God’s footstool. And I made the plans for building that house for God. But God said to me, ‘No David, you must not build a house for my name. You must not do that because you are a soldier, and you have killed many men.’

4“The Lord God of Israel chose the family group of Judah to lead the twelve family groups of Israel. And then from that family group, the Lord chose my father’s family. And from that family, God chose me to be the king of Israel forever! God wanted to make me king of Israel! The Lord has given me many sons. And from all those sons, the Lord chose Solomon to be the new king of Israel. But really, Israel is the Lord’s kingdom. The Lord said to me, ‘David, your son Solomon will build my temple* and the area around it. Why? Because I have chosen Solomon to be my son, and I will be his father.’ Solomon is obeying my laws and commands now. If he continues to obey my laws, then I will make Solomon’s kingdom strong forever!’”

8 David said, “Now, in front of all Israel and God, I tell you these things: Be careful to obey all the commands of the Lord your God! Then you can keep this good land. And you can pass it on to your descendants* forever.

9“ And you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father. Serve God with a pure heart. Be happy in your heart (mind) to serve God. Why? Because the Lord knows what is in every person’s heart (mind). The Lord understands everything you think. If you go to the Lord for help, you will get an answer. But if you turn away from the Lord, he will leave you forever. Solomon, you must understand that the Lord has chosen you to build his holy place—the temple.* Be strong and finish the job.”

Then David gave his son Solomon the plans for building the temple.* Those plans were also for the porch around the temple, and for its buildings, its storerooms, its upper rooms, its inside rooms, and for the place for the mercy seat.* David had made plans for all parts of the temple. David gave those plans to Solomon. David gave him all the plans for the yard around the Lord’s temple, and for all the rooms around it. David gave him the plans for the temple storerooms and for the storerooms where they kept the holy things used in the temple. David told Solomon about the groups of the priests and Levites. David told Solomon about all the work of serving in the Lord’s temple and about all the things to be used in the temple service. David told Solomon how much gold and silver should be used to make all the things to be used in the temple. There were plans for gold lamps and lampstands, and there were plans for silver lamps and lampstands. David told Solomon how much gold or silver to use for each lampstand and its lamps. The Box of the Lord’s Agreement  Also called “The Ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

footstool  Usually this was a small stool in front of a chair, but here it means the temple. It is like God is the king sitting in his chair and resting his feet on the building David wanted to build.

I ... father  This showed God was making Solomon the king. See Psalm 2:7.

descendants  A person’s children and their future families.

temple  The special building in Jerusalem for worshiping God.

mercy seat  Part of the Box of the Agreement. The Hebrew word can mean “lid” “cover,” or “the place where sins are atoned (covered, erased, or forgiven).”
different lampstands were to be used where needed. 16David told how much gold should be for each table used for holy bread. David told how much silver should be used for the silver tables. 17David told how much pure gold should be used to make the forks, sprinkling bowls, and pitchers. David told how much gold should be used to make each gold dish, and how much silver should be used to make each silver dish. 18David told how much pure gold should be used for the altar of incense.* David also gave Solomon the plans for God’s chariot—the mercy seat with the Cherub angels spreading their wings over the Box of the Lord’s Agreement.* The Cherub angels were made of gold.

19David said, “All these plans were written with the Lord guiding me. The Lord helped me understand everything in the plans.”

20David also said to his son Solomon, “Be strong and brave and finish this work. Don’t be afraid, because the Lord God, my God, is with you. He will help you until all the work is finished. He will not leave you. You will build the Lord’s temple.* 21The groups of the priests and Levites are ready for all the work on God’s temple. Every skilled worker is ready to help you with all the work. The officials and all the people will obey every command you give.”

Gifts for Building the Temple

29King David said to all the people of Israel that were gathered together, “God chose my son Solomon. Solomon is young and does not know all that he needs to do this work. But the work is very important. This house isn’t for people, this house is for the Lord God. I have done my best to make plans to build my God’s temple. I have given gold for the things made of gold. I have given silver for the things made of silver. I have given bronze for the things made of bronze. I have given iron for the things made of iron. I have given wood for the things made of wood. I have also given onyx* stones for the settings,* mosaic tiles,* all kinds of valuable stones in many different colors, and white marble stones. I have given many, many of these things for the building of the Lord’s temple. *I am making a special gift of gold and silver things for my God’s temple. I am doing this because I really want the temple of my God to be built. I am giving all these things to build this holy temple. I have given 110 tons of pure gold from Ophir. I have given 260 tons* of pure silver. The silver is for covering the walls of the buildings in the temple. *I have given gold and silver for all the things made of gold and silver. I have given gold and silver so skilled men can make all different kinds of things for the temple. Now, how many of you people of Israel are ready to give yourselves to the Lord today?”

6The family leaders, the leaders of the family groups of Israel, the generals, the captains, and the officials responsible for the king’s work, were all ready and gave their valuable things. These are the things they gave for God’s house: 190 tons of gold; 375 tons* of silver; 675 tons* of bronze; and 3,750 tons* of iron. People that had valuable stones gave them to the Lord’s temple. Jehiel took care of the valuable stones. Jehiel was from the Gershon family. *The people were very happy because their leaders were... happy to give so much. The leaders were happy to give freely from good hearts. King David was also very happy.

David’s Beautiful Prayer

10 Then David praised the Lord in front of all of the people who were gathered together. David said:

“Lord God of Israel, our Father, may you be praised forever and ever!

11 Greatness, power, glory, victory, and honor belong to you!
Why? Because everything in heaven and on earth belong to you;
The kingdom belongs to you, Lord! You are the Head, the Ruler over everything.

12 Riches and honor come from you. You rule everything.
You have the power and strength in your hand!
And in your hand is the power to make anyone great and powerful!

13 Now, our God, we thank you, And we praise your glorious name!

14 All these things didn’t come from me and my people!
All these things come from you.
We are only giving back to you things that came from you.

15 We are only strangers traveling through this world like our ancestors.* Our time on earth is like a passing shadow.
And we can’t stop it.

16 Lord our God, we gathered all these things to build your temple.
We build this temple to honor your name.
But all these things have come from you. Everything belongs to you.

17 My God, I know that you test people, and that you are happy when people do good.
I gladly give you all these things with a pure, honest heart.
I see your people gathered here.

18 And I see that they are happy about giving these things to you.

19 Lord, you are the God of our ancestors, Abraham, Isaac, and Israel.*
Please help your people plan the right things.
Help them be loyal and true to you!

20 Then David said to all the group of people gathered together, “Now give praise to the Lord your God.” So all the people gave praise to the Lord God, the God their ancestors* worshiped. They bowed to the ground to give honor to the Lord and to the king.

Solomon Becomes King

21 The next day the people made sacrifices* to the Lord. They offered burnt offerings to the Lord. They offered 1,000 bulls, 1,000 rams,* 1,000 lambs, and the drink offerings that go with them. They offered many, many sacrifices for all the people of Israel. 22 That day the people were very happy as they ate and drank there together with the Lord.

And they made David’s son Solomon king the second time.* They anointed Solomon to be king, and they anointed Zadok to be priest. They did this in the place where the Lord was. 23 Then Solomon sat on the Lord’s throne as king. Solomon took his father’s place. Solomon was very successful. All the people of Israel obeyed Solomon. 24 All the leaders, soldiers, and all of King David’s sons accepted ancestors  Literally, “fathers.” This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Israel  Another name for Jacob. See Gen. 35:19.
sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
ram(s) A male sheep.
And they made ... time Solomon was chosen to be king the first time when his half-brother Adonijah tried to make himself king. See 1 Kings 1:5-39.
anoint(ed) To pour olive oil on a person’s head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.
Solomon as king and obeyed him. 25 The Lord made Solomon very great. All the people of Israel knew that the Lord was making Solomon great. The Lord gave Solomon the honor that a king should have. No king in Israel before Solomon had such honor.

David’s Death

26-27 David son of Jesse was king over all Israel for 40 years. David was king in the city of Hebron for seven years. Then David was king in the city of Jerusalem for 33 years. 28 David died when he was old. David had lived a good, long life. David had many riches and honors. And David’s son Solomon became the new king after him.

29 The things that King David did, from beginning to end, are in the books written by Samuel the seer,* Nathan the prophet*, and Gad the seer. 30 Those writings tell all about the things that David did as king of Israel. They tell about David’s power and all that happened to him. And they tell about what happened to Israel and to all the kingdoms around them.

---

seer  This is another name for a prophet. See 1 Sam. 9:9-11.
prophet  A person called by God to be a special servant. God used dreams and visions to show them things to teach to the people.
Solomon Asks for Wisdom

1 Solomon became a very strong king because the Lord his God was with him. The Lord made Solomon very great.

2 Solomon spoke to the people of Israel. He spoke to the captains, generals, judges, to every leader in all Israel, and to the leaders of the families. Then Solomon and all the people gathered together with him went to the high place* at Gibeon. God’s Meeting Tent* was there. The Lord’s servant Moses made that tent when he and the people of Israel were in the desert. 4David had carried God’s Box of the Agreement* from Kiriath Jearim to Jerusalem. David had made a place to put it in Jerusalem. David had set up a tent for God’s Box of the Agreement in Jerusalem. 5Bezalel son of Uri had made a bronze altar. That bronze altar was in Gibeon in front of the Holy Tent. So Solomon and the people went to Gibeon to ask the Lord for advice. 6Solomon went up to the bronze altar in front of the Lord at the Meeting Tent. Solomon offered 1,000 burnt offerings* on the altar.

7 That night God came to Solomon. God said, “Solomon, ask me what you want me to give you.”

8 Solomon said to God, “You were very kind to my father David. You chose me to be king of a very large nation. There are so many people—they are like the dust of the earth! 9Now, Lord God, keep your promise to my father David. You have chosen me to be king of a very large nation. There are so many people—they are like the dust of the earth! 10Now give me wisdom and knowledge so I can lead these people in the right way. No one can rule these people without your help!”

11 God said to Solomon, “You have the right attitude. You didn’t ask for wealth, riches or honor. You didn’t ask for your enemies to be killed. And you didn’t ask for a long life. No, you did not ask for those things. You asked for wisdom and knowledge so you could make wise decisions for my people—the people I chose you to rule over. 12So I will give you wisdom and knowledge. But I will also give you wealth, riches, and honor. No king who lived before you has ever had so much wealth and honor. And no king in the future will have as much wealth and honor.”

13 So, Solomon went to the place of worship at Gibeon. Then Solomon left the Meeting Tent* and went back to Jerusalem to rule as king of Israel.

Solomon Builds His Army and Wealth

14 Solomon started gathering horses and chariots for his army. Solomon got 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horse soldiers. Solomon put them in the chariot cities.* Solomon also put some of them in Jerusalem where the king’s home was. 15 In Jerusalem, Solomon gathered a lot of gold and silver. There was so much gold and silver that it was as common as rocks. Solomon gathered a lot of cedar
There was so much cedar that it was as common as sycamore trees in the western hill country. Solomon brought in horses from Egypt and Kue. The king’s businessmen bought the horses in Kue. Solomon’s businessmen bought a chariot from Egypt for 600 shekels of silver, and a horse for 150 shekels of silver. The businessmen then sold the horses and chariots to all the kings of the Hittite people and to the kings of Aram.

Solomon Plans for Temple and Palace

Solomon planned to build a temple to give honor to the Lord’s name. Solomon also planned to build a king’s house for himself. Solomon got 70,000 laborers and 80,000 stonemasons to cut stones in the mountains. Solomon chose 3,600 foremen to supervise the workers.

Then Solomon sent a message to Hiram. Hiram was the king of the city of Tyre. Solomon said, “Help me like you helped my father David. You sent wood to him from cedar trees so he could build a house for himself to live in. I will build a temple to honor the name of the Lord my God. At the temple we will burn incense in front of the Lord, and we will always put the holy bread on the special table. We will offer burnt offerings every morning and evening, every Sabbath day, every New Moon, and on the other feast days that the Lord our God has commanded us to celebrate. This is a rule for the people of Israel to obey forever.

Our God is greater than all the other gods. So I will build a great temple for him. No person can really build a house to put our God in. Not even heaven can hold God—no not even the universe can hold our God! So I cannot build a temple for God. I can only build a place to burn incense to honor him.

“Now, I would like you to send me a man who is skilled in working with gold, silver, bronze, and iron. That man must know how to work with purple, red, and blue cloth. That man will work here in Judah and Jerusalem with the craftsmen my father chose. Also send me wood from cedar trees, pine trees, and algum trees from the country of Lebanon. I know your servants are experienced at cutting down trees from Lebanon. My servants will help your servants. I will need lots of wood because the temple I am building will be very large and beautiful. This is what I will pay for your servants to cut down the trees for wood. I will give them 125,000 bushels of wheat for food, 125,000 bushels of barley, 115,000 gallons of wine, and 115,000 gallons of oil.”

Then Hiram answered Solomon. Hiram sent a message to Solomon. This is what that message said: “Solomon, the Lord loves his people. That is why he chose you to be their king.” Hiram also said, “Praise the Lord God of Israel! He made heaven and earth. He gave a wise son to King David. Solomon, you have wisdom and understanding. You are building a temple for the Lord. You are also building a king’s house for yourself. I will send you a skilled craftsman named Huram Abi. His mother was from the family group of Dan. And his father was from the city of Tyre. Huram Abi has skill in working with gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone, and wood. Huram Abi also has skill in working with purple, blue, and red cloth and expensive linen. Huram Abi can design and build anything you tell him. He will work with your craftsmen and with the craftsmen of your father King David.

Now, Sir, you offered to give us wheat, barley, oil, and wine. Give those things to my servants. And we will cut wood from the Kue Or Cilicia, a country in what is now southern Turkey.

600 shekels 15 pounds or 6.9kg.
150 shekels 3 3/4 pounds or 1.725kg.
temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.
holy bread This was the special bread that was put in the Holy Tent. It is also called, “shewbread” or “the bread of the Presence.” See Lev. 24:5-9.
New Moon This was the first day of the Hebrew month. There were special meetings on these days to worship God.

125,000 bushels Or, “4,400,000 l.” Literally, “20,000 cors.”
115,000 gallons Literally, “20,000 baths.”
I will send ... Huram Abi Or, “I will send one of the craftsmen of my father Hiram.”
linen A type of cloth.
country of Lebanon. We will cut as much wood as you need. We will tie the logs together and float them by sea to the town of Joppa. Then you can carry the wood to Jerusalem.”

17Then Solomon counted all the strangers living in the country of Israel. This was after the time when David counted the people. David was Solomon’s father. They found 153,600 strangers in the country. 18Solomon chose 70,000 strangers to carry things. Solomon chose 80,000 strangers to be cutters of stone in the mountains. And Solomon chose 3,600 strangers to be the supervisors to keep the people working.

Solomon Builds the Temple

3Solomon began building the Lord’s temple at Jerusalem on Mount Moriah. Mount Moriah is the place where the Lord came to David, Solomon’s father. Solomon built the temple on the place that David had made ready. This place was at the threshing floor that had belonged to Araunah the Jebusite. 4Solomon started the work in the second month of his fourth year as king of Israel.

3These are the measurements Solomon used for building the foundation of God’s temple. The foundation was 60 cubits long and 20 cubits wide. Solomon used the old cubit measure when he measured the temple. 4The porch in front of the temple was 20 cubits long and 20 cubits high. Solomon covered the inside of the porch with pure gold. 5Solomon put panels made of cypress wood on the walls of the larger room. Then he put pure gold over the cypress panels. And he put pictures of palm trees and chains on the pure gold. 6Solomon put valuable stones in the temple for beauty. The gold Solomon used was gold from Parvaim.

7Solomon covered the inside of the temple with the gold. Solomon put the gold on the ceiling beams, doorposts, walls, and doors. Solomon carved Cherub angels on the walls.

8Then Solomon made the Most Holy Place. The Most Holy Place was 20 cubits long and 20 cubits wide. It was as wide as the temple was. Solomon put pure gold on the walls of the Most Holy Place. The gold weighed about 23 tons. 9The gold nails weighed 1 1/4 pounds. Solomon covered the upper rooms with gold. 10Solomon made two Cherub angels to put in the Most Holy Place. The workers covered the Cherub angels with gold. 11Each wing of the Cherub angels was 5 cubits long. The total length of the wings was 20 cubits. One wing of the first Cherub angel touched the wall on one side of the room. The other wing touched one wing of the second Cherub angel. 12And the other wing of the second Cherub angel touched the other wall on the other side of the room. 13The Cherub angels’ wings covered a total of 20 cubits. The Cherub angels stood looking inside toward the Holy Place.

14Solomon made the curtain by using blue, purple, and red materials and expensive linen. Solomon made Cherub angels on the curtain.

15Solomon put two columns in front of the temple. The columns were 35 cubits tall. The top part of the two columns was 5 cubits long. Solomon made chains in a necklace. He put the chains on the tops of the columns.

Most Holy Place The inside room where the Box of the Lord’s Agreement sat. It is also named the “Holy of Holies.” It is the spiritual place where God lives and is worshiped.

23 tons Or, “20,400kg.” Literally, “600 talents.”

1 1/4 pounds Or, “575g.” Literally, “50 shekels.”

Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

5 cubits 8’ 7 5/16” or 2,625m.

Holy Place The room in the Holy Tent and in the temple that was used by the priests to do their daily service to God.

curtain This curtain was a large piece of cloth that hung between the Holy Place and the Most Holy Place so that no one could see the Lord’s Box of the Agreement and cherub angels that were in there.

linen A type of cloth.

35 cubits 60’ 3 7/16” or 18.375m.
Solomon made 100 pomegranates* and put them on the chains. 17 Then Solomon put the columns up in front of the temple. One column stood on the right side. The other column stood on the left side. Solomon named the column on the right side “Jakin.”* And Solomon named the column on the left side “Boaz.”*

Furniture for the Temple

4 Solomon used bronze to make an altar.* That bronze altar was 20 cubits* long, 20 cubits wide, and 10 cubits* tall. 2 Then Solomon used melted bronze to make a large tank.* The large tank was round and it measured 10 cubits* across from edge to edge. And it measured 5 cubits* tall and 30 cubits* around. 3 There were images of bulls under the lip of the large bronze tank.* They were in two rows that went 10 cubits around the tank. The bulls were molded in place when the tank was shaped. 4 The large bronze tank was on top of twelve large statues of bulls. Three bulls looked toward the north. Three bulls looked toward the west. Three bulls looked toward the south. Three bulls looked toward the east. The large bronze tank was on top of these bulls. All the bulls stood with their rear ends to each other and to the center. 5 The large bronze tank was 3 inches* thick. The edge of the large tank was like the edge of a cup. The edge looked like a lily blossom. It could hold about 17,500 gallons.*

6 Solomon made ten basins. He put five basins on the right side of the large bronze tank. And Solomon put five basins on the left side of the large bronze tank. These ten basins were to be used to wash the things offered for the burnt offerings.* But the large bronze tank was to be used by the priests for washing before they offered sacrifices.*

7 Solomon made ten lampstands of gold. He followed the plans made for these lampstands. He put the lampstands in the temple.* There were five lampstands on the right side and five lampstands on the left side. 8 Solomon made ten tables and put them in the temple.* Five tables were on the right side and five tables were put on the left side in the temple. And Solomon used gold to make 100 basins. 9 Solomon also made the Priests’ yard,* the Great yard, and the doors for the yards. He used bronze to cover the doors that opened to the yard. 10 Then he put the large bronze tank* on the right side of the temple on the southeast side.

11 Huram made the pots, shovels, and basins. Then Huram finished his work for King Solomon on God’s temple.* 12 Huram had made the two columns and the large bowls on the top parts of the two columns. Huram also made the two net decorations to cover the two large bowls on the top parts of the two columns. 13 Huram made 400 pomegranates* for the two net decorations. There were two rows of pomegranates for each net. The nets covered the large bowls on the top parts on the two columns. 14 Huram also made the stands and the bowls on the stands. 15 Huram made the one large bronze tank* and twelve bulls under the tank. 16 Huram made the pots, shovels, forks, and all the things for King Solomon for the Lord’s temple. These things were made of polished bronze. 17 King Solomon first poured these things in clay molds. The molds were made in the Jordan Valley between the towns of Succoth and Zeredah. 18 Solomon made so many of these things that no person tried to weigh the bronze used.

19 Solomon also made the things for God’s temple. Solomon made the golden altar. He made the tables where the bread of the Presence was put. 20 Solomon made the lampstands and their lamps of pure gold. The lamps were to burn in the way planned for them in front of the Holy Place inside. 21 Solomon used pure gold to make the flowers, lamps, and tongs. 22 Solomon used pure gold to make the doors for the temple, the inside doors for the Most Holy Place and the doors for the main hall.

5 Then all the work Solomon had done for the Lord’s temple was finished. Solomon brought in all the things that his father David had given for the temple. Solomon brought all the things in that were made of silver and gold and all the furniture. Solomon put all those things in the treasury rooms of God’s temple.

The Holy Box Carried Into the Temple

2 Solomon commanded the elders of Israel and all the leaders of the family groups to meet together in Jerusalem. (These men were the leaders of the heads of the families of Israel.) Solomon did this so the Levites could bring the Box of the Lord’s Agreement up to the temple from the City of David, that is, Zion. 3 All the men of Israel met together at the time of the Feast of Shelters. This feast was held in the seventh month (September).

4 When all the elders of Israel arrived, the Levites picked up the Box of the Agreement. 5 Then the priests and the Levites carried the Box of the Agreement to Jerusalem. They also brought the Meeting Tent and all the holy things that were in it to Jerusalem. 6 King Solomon and all the people of Israel met in front of the Box of the Agreement. King Solomon and all the people of Israel sacrificed sheep and bulls. There were so many sheep and bulls no person could count them. 7 Then the priests brought the Box of the Lord’s Agreement to the place that was made ready for it. That place was the Most Holy Place inside the temple. The Box of the Agreement was put under the wings of the Cherub angels. 8 The Cherub angels spread their wings over the place where the Box of the Agreement was. The Cherub angels stood over the Box of the Agreement and the poles used to carry the Box. 9 The poles were long enough that their ends could be seen from the front of the Most Holy Place. But no person could see the poles from the outside of the temple. The poles are still there even today. 10 There was nothing in the Box of the Agreement except the two tablets. Moses had put those two tablets in the Box of the Agreement at Mount Horeb. Horeb was the place where the Lord made an Agreement with the people of Israel. That happened after the people of Israel came out of Egypt.

11 All the priests that were there did the ceremony to make themselves holy. Then, as the priests came out of the Holy Place, they stood together, but not in their special groups. 12 The Levite singers stood at the east side of the altar. All of the singing groups of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun were there. And their sons and relatives were there also. Those the priests and the Levites Or, “the priests, that is, the Levites.”

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (Tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.
sacrificed To kill a special animal and burn it on an altar as a gift to God.
Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.
two tablets They were the two tablets on which God wrote the Ten Commandments.
Levite singers were dressed in white linen.* They had cymbals,* lyres,* and harps. There were 120 priests there with those Levite singers. Those 120 priests blew trumpets.

13The people who blew the trumpets and the people who sang were like one person. They made one sound when they praised and thanked the Lord. They made a loud noise with the trumpets, cymbals,* and instruments of music. They sang the song,* Praise the Lord Because He is Good. His True Love Continues Forever.

Then the Lord's temple* was filled with a cloud. 14The priests could not continue to serve because of the cloud. This was because the Glory of the Lord* filled God's temple.

6Then Solomon said, “The Lord said he would live in the dark cloud. 2I have built a house for you to live in, Lord. It is a high house, a place for you to live in forever!”

Solomon’s Speech

3King Solomon turned around and blessed all the people of Israel gathered in front of him. 4Solomon said, “Give praise to the Lord God of Israel! The Lord has done what he promised to do when he talked to David my father. This is what the Lord God said: 5'I led Israel out of Egypt long ago. And in all that time, I have not chosen a city from any family group of Israel for a place to build a house for my name. I have not chosen a man to lead my people, the people of Israel. 6But now I have chosen Jerusalem as a place for my name. And I have chosen David to lead my people Israel.'

7“My father David wanted to build a temple* for the name of the Lord God of Israel. 8But the Lord said to my father, ‘David, when you wanted to build a temple for my name, you did well. 9But, you cannot build the temple. But your own son will build the temple for my name.’ 10Now, the Lord has done what he said he would do. I am the new king in my father’s place. David was my father. Now I am Israel’s king. That is what the Lord promised. And I have built the temple for the name of the Lord God of Israel. 11I have put the Box of the Agreement* in the temple. The Box of the Agreement is where the Lord’s Agreement is kept. The Lord made this Agreement with the people of Israel.”

Solomon’s Prayer

12Solomon stood in front of the Lord’s altar.* He was standing in front of all the people of Israel who were gathered together. Then Solomon spread his hands and arms out.

13Solomon had made a bronze platform* 5 cubits* long, 5 cubits* wide and 3 cubits* and placed it in the middle of the outside yard.* Then he stood on the platform and kneeled in front of all the people of Israel who were gathered together. Solomon spread his hands out toward the sky. 14Solomon said:

“Lord God of Israel, there is no god like you in heaven or on earth. You keep your agreement of love and kindness. You keep your agreement with your servants if they live right with all their hearts and obey you. 15You kept your promise to your servant David. David was my father. You made a promise with your mouth. And today you have made that promise come true with your hands. 16Now, Lord God of Israel, keep your promise to your servant David. This is what you promised: You said, ‘David, you will not fail to have a man from your family sit on Israel’s throne in front of me. This will altar(s)  A stone table or a stand for offering sacrifices. platform  Something like a table where a person stood so all the people could see the person speaking.

Box of the Agreement  The box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert. Also called “The Ark of the Covenant.”

5 cubits  8' 7 5/16" (2.625m).
3 cubits  5' 2" or (1.575m).
yard  A special area outside the temple.
happen only if your sons are careful in what they do. They must obey my law the same as you have obeyed my law." 17Now, Lord God of Israel, let your promise come true. You gave this promise to your servant David.

18"But we know that you, God, will not really live on the earth with people. Heaven and the highest of heavens cannot hold you! And we know that this temple I built cannot hold you! 19But pay attention to my prayer and the times I beg for mercy. Lord my God, listen to me calling out to you! Listen to the prayer that I am praying to you. I am your servant. 20I pray that your eyes will be open to look at this temple day and night. You said you would put your name in this place. May you hear my prayers when I pray while I look at this temple. 21Hear my prayers, and the prayers your people Israel pray. Hear our prayers while we pray looking at this temple. Hear from where you live in heaven. And when you hear our prayers, forgive us.

22"A person might be accused of doing something wrong against another person. When that happens, the accused person will have to use your name to promise {that he is innocent}. When he comes to make the promise in front of your altar* in the temple, 23then hear from heaven. Act, and judge your servants. Punish the bad person and make him suffer the same things he made other people suffer. Prove that the person that has done right is innocent.

24"An enemy might defeat your people Israel because your people have sinned against you. And then if the people of Israel come back to you and confess your name and pray and beg to you in this temple,* 25then hear from heaven. And forgive their sins. The people of Israel are your servants. Then teach them the right way that they should live. And send rain on your land. That is the land you gave to your people.

26"There might be a famine* in the land, or terrible sicknesses, or disease in the crops, or mildew, or locusts, or grasshoppers. Or if enemies attack the people of Israel in their cities, or if there is any kind of sickness in Israel, 27then hear from heaven. Heed and forgive. Give to each person what he should get, because you know what is in each person's heart. Only you know what is in a person's heart. 28Then the people will fear and obey you as long as they live in the land you gave our ancestors.*

29"There might be a stranger who is not one of your people of Israel, but who comes here from a country far away. That stranger might come here because he heard of your great name, your great power and your ability to punish people. When that person comes and pray while looking at this temple,* 30then hear from heaven where you live. Hear and forgive. Give to each person what he should get, because you know what is in each person's heart. Only you know what is in a person's heart. 31Then the people will fear and obey you as long as they live in the land you gave our ancestors.*

32"You will send your people to some place to fight against their enemies. They will pray to you as they look toward this city you chose and toward the temple* I built for your name. 33then hear from heaven where you live, listen to the stranger and answer his prayer. Then all the people of the earth will know your name and respect you, the same as your people Israel respects you. And all the people of the earth will know that this temple I built is called by your name.

34"You will send your people to some place to fight against their enemies. They will pray to you as they look toward this city you chose and toward the temple* I built for your name. 35Please hear their prayer in heaven. Hear them when they beg for help. And help them.

36"People will sin against you—there is not a person that does not sin—and you will become angry with them. You will let an temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

---

altar(s) A stone table or a stand for offering sacrifices.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

famine A time when there is not enough rain for crops to grow. People and animals die without enough food or water.
enemy defeat them, and be captured and forced to go to a land far away or near. 37But then they will change their minds and beg you while they are in the land where they are prisoners. They will say, ‘We have sinned, we have done wrong and we have acted wickedly.’ 38And then they will come back to you with all their heart and all their soul in the land where they are prisoners. And they will pray as they look toward their land, the land you gave their ancestors,* and toward the city that you chose. And they will pray as they look toward the temple* I built for your name.

39When this happens, hear in heaven. Heaven is your home. Accept their prayers when they beg for help. And help them. Forgive your people who have sinned against you. 40Now, my God, I ask you, open your eyes and your ears. Listen and pay attention to the prayers we are praying in this place.

41 “Now, Lord God, get up, and come to your special place, the Box of the Agreement* that shows your strength. May your priests be dressed with salvation. May your true followers be happy about these good things.

42 Lord God, accept your anointed* king. Remember your loyal servant David!”

The Temple Dedicated to the Lord

When Solomon finished praying, fire came down from the sky and burned up the burnt offering* and the sacrifices.* The Glory of the Lord* filled the temple.* 2The priests could not enter the Lord’s temple because the Glory of the Lord filled it. 3All the people of Israel saw the fire come down from heaven. The people of Israel also saw the Glory of the Lord on the temple. They bowed their faces down low to the ground on the pavement. They worshiped and thanked the Lord. They sang the song, The Lord is good. His kindness continues forever.*

4Then King Solomon and all the people of Israel offered sacrifices* in front of the Lord. 5King Solomon offered 22,000 bulls and 120,000 sheep. The king and all the people made the temple* of God holy. It was to be used only for worshipping God. 6The priests stood ready to do their work. The Levites also stood with the instruments of the Lord’s music. These instruments were made by King David to give thanks to the Lord. The priests and Levites were singing, Praise the Lord because his love continues forever.* The priests blew their trumpets as they stood across from the Levites. And all the people of Israel were standing.

7Solomon made the middle part of the yard holy. That yard is in front of the Lord’s temple.* That is the place where Solomon offered burnt offerings* and the fat of the fellowship offerings. Solomon used the middle of the yard because the bronze altar* he made could not hold all the burnt offerings, grain offerings, and fat. There were many of those offerings.

8Solomon and all the people of Israel celebrated the feast for seven days. There was a very large group of people with Solomon. Those people came from the entrance of the town of Hamath and all the way to the Brook of Egypt. 9On the eighth day they had a holy meeting because they had celebrated for seven days. They made the altar* holy and it was to be used only for ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

temple  The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
Box of the Agreement  The box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert. Also called “The Ark of the Covenant.”

anointed To pour olive oil on things or people to show that they were chosen by God for a special work or purpose.

burnt offering(s) Gifts to God. Usually these were animals that were killed and completely burned on the altar.
sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

Glory of the Lord  One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. It was like a bright shining light.
The Lord … forever  See Psalms 118 and 136.
Praise the Lord … forever  See 1 Chron 16:41, Ps. 118 and 136.

altar(s) A stone table or a stand for offering sacrifices.
worshiping the Lord. And they celebrated the feast for seven days. On the 23rd day of the seventh month Solomon sent the people back to their homes. The people were very happy and their hearts were full of joy, because the Lord was so good to David, to Solomon, and to his people Israel.

The Lord Comes to Solomon

Solomon finished the Lord’s temple* and the king’s house. Solomon had success in finishing all the things he planned in the Lord’s temple and in his own house. Then the Lord came to Solomon at night. The Lord said to him, “Solomon, I have heard your prayer, and I have chosen this place for myself to be a house for sacrifices.* When I close the sky so there is no rain, or I command the locusts to destroy the land, or I send sicknesses to my people, and if my people who are called by my name become humble and pray, and look for me, and turn away from their evil ways, then I will hear them from heaven. And I will forgive their sin and I will heal their land. Now, my eyes are open, and my ears will pay attention to the prayers prayed in this place. I have chosen this temple, and I have made it holy so that my name will be here forever. Yes, my eyes and heart will always be here in this temple.

Solomon, if you live in front of me the same way your father David lived, and if you obey all I have commanded, and if you obey my laws and rules, then I will make you a strong king and your kingdom will be great. That is the agreement I made with David your father. I told him, ‘David, you will always have a man in your family that will be a king in Israel.’

But if you do not obey my laws and commands that I gave you, and if you worship other gods and serve them, then I will take the people of Israel out from my land that I gave them. And I will leave this temple* that I have made holy for my name. I will make this temple something that all the nations will speak evil about. Every person who passes by this temple that was so highly honored will be surprised. They will say, ‘Why has the Lord done this terrible thing to the land and to this temple?’ Then people will answer, ‘Because the people of Israel refused to obey the Lord, the God their ancestors* obeyed. He is the God that led them out of the country of Egypt. But the people of Israel accepted other gods. They worshiped and served idol gods. That is the reason the Lord made all these terrible things happen to the people of Israel.”

The Cities Solomon Built

The time it took Solomon to build the Lord’s temple* and his own house was 20 years. Then Solomon built again the towns that Hiram gave him. And Solomon allowed some of the people of Israel to live in those towns. After this Solomon went to Hamath of Zobah and captured it. Solomon also built the town of Tadmor in the desert. He built all the towns in Hamath to store things in. Solomon built again the towns of Upper Beth Horon and Lower Beth Horon. He made those towns into strong forts. Those towns had strong walls, gates, and bars in the gates. Solomon also built again the town of Baalath and all the other towns where he stored things. He built all the cities where the chariots* were kept and all the cities where the horse riders lived. Solomon built all he wanted in Jerusalem, Lebanon, and in all the country where he was king.

There were many strangers left in the country where the people of Israel were living. There were the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. Solomon forced all those foreigners to be slave workers. Those people were not from the people of Israel. Those people were the descendants* of the people that were left in the land and not yet destroyed by the people of Israel. This still continues today.

ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

chariots  A small wagon used in war.

descendants  A person’s children and their future families.
slave workers. The people of Israel were Solomon's fighting men. They were the commanders of Solomon's army officers. They were commanders of Solomon's chariots and commanders of Solomon's chariot drivers. And some of the men of Israel were leaders of Solomon's important officials. There were 250 of those leaders to supervise the people.

11Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter up from the City of David to the house he built for her. Solomon said, “My wife must not live in King David's house because the places where the Box of the Agreement has been are holy places.”

12Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to the Lord on the Lord's altar. Solomon built that altar in front of the temple porch.

13Solomon offered sacrifices every day the way Moses commanded. Sacrifices were to be offered on Sabbath days, on the New Moon celebrations, and on the three yearly holidays. The three yearly holidays were the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the Festival of Weeks, and the Festival of Shelters. Solomon followed his father David’s instructions. Solomon chose the groups of priests for their service. Solomon also chose the Levites for their duties. The Levites were to lead the praise and help the priests from day to day to do the things that needed to be done in the temple service. And Solomon chose the gatekeepers by their groups to serve at each gate. This is the way David, the man of God, instructed.

15The people of Israel did not change or disobey any of Solomon's instructions to the priests and Levites. They did not change any of the instructions, even in the way they should keep the valuable things.

16All Solomon's work was done. It was well planned from the day the Lord’s temple was begun until the day it was finished. So the Lord’s temple was finished.

17Then Solomon went to the towns of Ezion Geber and Elath. Those towns were near the Red Sea in the country of Edom. Hiram sent ships to Solomon. Hiram’s own men sailed the ships. Hiram’s men were skilled at sailing on the sea. Hiram’s men went with Solomon’s servants to Ophir and brought back 17 tons of gold to King Solomon.

9The Queen of Sheba Visits Solomon

The Queen of Sheba heard about Solomon's fame. She came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with hard questions. The Queen of Sheba had a very large group with her. She had camels that carried spices, much gold, and valuable stones. She came to Solomon and talked with him. She had many questions to ask Solomon. Solomon gave answers to all her questions. There was nothing too hard for Solomon to explain or answer. The Queen of Sheba saw Solomon’s wisdom, and the house he built. She saw the food on Solomon’s table, and his many important officials. She saw Solomon’s wine servers and the clothes they wore. She saw Solomon’s wine servers and the clothes they wore. She saw the burnt offerings Solomon made in the temple of the Lord. When the Queen of Sheba saw all these things she was amazed!

5Then she said to King Solomon, “The stories I heard in my country about your great works and your wisdom are true. 6I didn't believe those stories until I came here and saw with my own eyes. Oh, not even half of your great wisdom has been told me! You are greater than the stories I heard! 7Your wives and officers are very fortunate! They can hear your wisdom while they are serving you! 8Praise be to the Lord your God! He is happy with you and has put you on his throne to be king for the Lord your God. Your God loves Israel, and supports Israel forever. This is why the Lord has made you king of Israel to do what is fair and what is right.”

9Then the Queen of Sheba gave King Solomon 4 1/2 tons* of gold, a great many spices, and valuable stones. No person gave such fine spices to King Solomon as the Queen of Sheba did.

10Hiram’s servants and Solomon’s servants brought in gold from Ophir.* They also brought in algum wood and valuable stones. No person ever saw such beautiful things like those things made from the algum wood in the country of Judah.

11King Solomon used the algum wood to make steps for the Lord’s temple,* and for the king’s house. Solomon also used the algum wood to make lyres* and harps for the singers. No person ever saw such beautiful things like those things made from the algum wood in the country of Judah.

12King Solomon gave the Queen of Sheba everything she wanted and asked for. He gave her more than she brought to give him. Then the Queen of Sheba and her servants left and went back to their own country.

Solomon’s Great Wealth

13The amount of gold that Solomon got in one year weighed 25 tons.* 14The traveling merchants* and traders brought more gold to Solomon. All the kings of Arabia and the rulers of the land also brought gold and silver to Solomon. 15King Solomon made 200 large shields from hammered gold. About 7 1/2 pounds* of hammered gold was used to make each shield. 16Solomon also made 300 small shields of hammered gold. About 3 3/4 pounds* of gold was used to make each shield. King Solomon put the gold shields in the Forest Palace of Lebanon.

17King Solomon used ivory to make a large throne. He covered the throne with pure gold. 18The throne had six steps on it. And it had a footstool* that was made of gold. There were armrests on both sides of the throne’s seat. A statue of a lion stood next to each armrest.

19There were statues of 12 lions that stood by the six steps. One lion on each side of each step. There was no throne like this made in any other kingdom. 20All King Solomon’s drinking cups were made of gold. All the household things in the House of the Forest of Lebanon were made of pure gold. (There was so much wealth) in Solomon’s time that silver was not thought valuable enough. 21Why? Because King Solomon had ships that Hiram’s men sailed to Tarshish.* And every three years the ships would return from Tarshish loaded with gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

22King Solomon became greater in riches and wisdom than any other king on earth. 23All the kings of the earth came to visit Solomon to hear his wise decisions. They came to hear the wisdom that God gave to Solomon. 24Every year those kings brought gifts to Solomon. They brought things made of silver and gold, clothing, weapons, spices, horses, and mules.

25Solomon had 4,000 stalls to keep horses and chariots. He had 12,000 chariot drivers. Solomon kept them in the special cities for the chariots and in Jerusalem with him.

26Solomon was the king over all the kings from the Euphrates River all the way to the land of the Philistine people, and to the border of Egypt. 27King Solomon had so much silver that it was as common as rocks in Jerusalem. And he had so much cedar wood that it was as common as sycamore trees in the hill country. 28The people brought horses to Solomon from Egypt and from all the other countries.

4 1/2 tons  Or, “4,080kg.” Literally, “120 talents.”
Ophir  A place where there was much gold. Today no person knows where Ophir really was.
temple  The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
lyres  An instrument with several strings, like a harp.
traveling merchants  A person who earns his living by buying and selling things.
7 1/2 pounds  Or, “3.3kg.” Literally, “600 bekas.”
3 3/4 pounds  Or, “1.65kg.” Literally, “300 bekas.”

footstool  A little stool that a king could use to rest his feet when sitting on his throne.
Tarshish  A city far away from Israel, probably in Spain.
Tarshish was famous for its large ships that sailed the Mediterranean Sea.
Solomon's Death

29 The other things Solomon did, from the beginning to the end, are written in the writings of Nathan the Prophet, in The Prophecy of Ahijah from Shiloh and in The Visions of Iddo the Seer. Iddo was a seer* who wrote about Jeroboam son of Nebat. Solomon was king in Jerusalem over all Israel for 40 years. Then Solomon rested with his ancestors. The people buried him in the City of David his father. Solomon's son Rehoboam became the new king in Solomon's place.

Rehoboam Acts Foolishly

10 Rehoboam went to the town of Shechem because all the people of Israel went there to make him king. Jeroboam was in Egypt because he ran away from King Solomon. Jeroboam was Nebat's son. Jeroboam heard that Rehoboam was going to be the new king. So Jeroboam came back from Egypt. The people of Israel called Jeroboam to come with them. Then Jeroboam and all the people of Israel went to Rehoboam. They said to him, “Rehoboam, your father made life hard for us. It was like carrying a heavy weight. Make that weight lighter, then we will serve you.”

5 Rehoboam said to them, “Come back to me after three days.” So the people went away.

6 Then King Rehoboam talked with the older men who had served his father Solomon in the past. Rehoboam said to them, “What do you advise me to say to those people?”

7 The older men said to Rehoboam, “If you are kind to those people and please them and say good words to them, then they will serve you forever.”

8 Rehoboam said to them, “Come back to me after three days.” So the people went away.

9 Then King Rehoboam talked with the older men who had served his father Solomon in the past. Rehoboam said to them, “What do you advise me to say to those people?”

10 The older men said to Rehoboam, “If you are kind to those people and please them and say good words to them, then they will serve you forever.”

11 But Rehoboam did not accept the advice of the older men. Rehoboam talked with the young men that had grown up with him and were serving him. Rehoboam said to them, “What advice do you give me? How should we answer those people? They asked me to make their work easier. And they want me to make the weight lighter that my father put on them.”

12 Three days later, Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam. That is what King Rehoboam told them to do when he said, “Come back to me in three days.” Then King Rehoboam talked to them in a mean way. King Rehoboam did not accept the advice of the older men. King Rehoboam talked to the people the way the young men advised him. He said, “My father made your burden heavy, but I will make it heavier. My father punished you with whips, but I will punish you with whips that have sharp metal tips.”

13 The people of Israel saw that King Rehoboam did not listen to them. Then they said to the king, “Are we part of David’s family? No! Do we get any of Jesse’s land? No! So Israel, let’s go to our own homes. Let David’s son rule his own people!” Then all the people of Israel went to their homes.

14 The people of Israel saw that King Rehoboam did not listen to them. Then they said to the king, “Are we part of David’s family? No! Do we get any of Jesse’s land? No! So Israel, let’s go to our own homes. Let David’s son rule his own people!” Then all the people of Israel went to their homes.

15 Adoniram was in charge of the people who were forced to work. Rehoboam sent him to the people of Israel. But the people of Israel threw rocks at Adoniram and killed him. Then Rehoboam ran and jumped into his chariot* and escaped. He ran away to Jerusalem. 19Since that time and up until now Israel has turned against David’s family.*

When Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he gathered 180,000 of the best soldiers. He gathered these soldiers from the family groups of Judah and Benjamin. He gathered them to fight against Israel so he could bring the kingdom back to Rehoboam. 2But the message from the Lord came to Shemaiah. Shemaiah was a man of God. The Lord said, 3“Shemaiah, talk to Rehoboam, Solomon’s son, and the king of Judah. And talk to all the people of Israel living in Judah and Benjamin. Tell them: ‘You must not fight against your brothers! Let every man go back home. I have caused this thing to happen.’” So King Rehoboam and his army obeyed the Lord’s message and turned back. They did not attack Jeroboam.

Rehoboam Makes Judah Strong

5Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem. He built strong cities in Judah to defend against attacks. 6He repaired the cities of Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa, 7Beth Zur, Soco, Adullam, 8Gath, Mareshah, Ziph, 9Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah, 10Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron. These cities in Judah and Benjamin were made strong. 11When Rehoboam made those cities strong, he put commanders in them. He also put supplies of food, oil, and wine in those cities. 12Also, Rehoboam put shields and spears in every city and made the cities very strong. Rehoboam kept the peoples and cities of Judah and Benjamin under his control.

The priests and the Levites from all over Israel agreed with Rehoboam and joined him. 14The Levites left their grasslands and their own fields and came to Judah and Jerusalem. The Levites did this because Jeroboam and his sons refused to let them serve as priests to the Lord. 15Jeroboam chose his own priests to serve in the high places,* where he set up the goat and calf idols he had made. 16When the Levites left Israel, those people in all the family groups of Israel who were faithful to the Lord God of Israel came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the Lord God of their fathers. 17Those people made the kingdom of Judah strong. And they supported Solomon’s son Rehoboam for three years. They did this because during that time they lived the way David and Solomon had lived.

Rehoboam’s Family

18Rehoboam married Mahalath. Her father was Jerimoth. Her mother was Abihail. Jerimoth was David’s son. Abihail was Eliab’s daughter, and Eliab was Jesse’s son. 19Mahalath gave Rehoboam these sons: Jeush, Shemariah and Zaham. 20Then Rehoboam married Maacah. Maacah was Absalom’s granddaughter.* And Maacah gave Rehoboam these children: Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith. 21Rehoboam loved Maacah more that he loved all his other wives and women servants.* Maacah was Absalom’s granddaughter. Rehoboam had 18 wives and 60 woman servants. Rehoboam was the father of 28 sons and 60 daughters.

22Rehoboam chose Abijah to be the leader among his own brothers. Rehoboam did this because he planned to make Abijah king.

Shishak King of Egypt Attacks Jerusalem

12Shishak attacked the city of Jerusalem in the fifth year that Rehoboam was king. Shishak was the king of Egypt. This happened because Rehoboam and the people of Judah were not faithful to the Lord. 13Shishak had 12,000 chariots, 60,000 horse riders, and an army that chariot(s)  A small wagon used in war.

David’s family  This probably means the family group of Judah.
           David’s family was in the family group of Judah.
high places  Places of worship.
grandaughter  Literally, “daughter.”
women servants  Or, “concubines,” slave women who were like wives to a man.
Judah  Literally, “Israel.”
no person could count. In Shishak’s large army there were Libyan soldiers, Sukkite soldiers, and Ethiopian soldiers. Shishak defeated the strong cities of Judah. Then Shishak brought his army to Jerusalem.

Then Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah. Those leaders of Judah had gathered together in Jerusalem because they all were afraid of Shishak. Shemaiah said to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah, “This is what the Lord says: ‘Rehoboam, you and the people of Judah have left me and refused to obey my law. So now I will leave you to face Shishak without my help.’”

Then the leaders of Judah and King Rehoboam were sorry and humbled themselves. They said, “The Lord is right.”

The Lord saw that the king and the leaders of Judah had humbled themselves. Then the message from the Lord came to Shemaiah. The Lord said to Shemaiah, “The king and the leaders humbled themselves. So I will not destroy them, but I will save them soon. I will not use Shishak to pour out my anger on Jerusalem.

But the people of Jerusalem will become Shishak’s servants. This will happen so that they may learn that serving me is different from serving the kings of other nations.”

Shishak attacked Jerusalem and took the treasures that were in the Lord’s temple.* Shishak was the king of Egypt. And he also took the treasures that were in the king’s house. Shishak took everything and carried those treasures away. He also took the gold shields that Solomon had made. King Rehoboam made bronze shields to take the place of the gold shields. Rehoboam gave the bronze shields to the commanders who were responsible for guarding the entrance to the king’s house. When the king entered the Lord’s temple, the guards would bring the bronze shields out. Later they would put the bronze shields back into the guardroom.

When Rehoboam humbled himself, the Lord turned his anger away from Rehoboam. So the Lord did not fully destroy Rehoboam. There was some good in Judah.

King Rehoboam made himself a strong king in Jerusalem. He was 41 years old when he became king. Rehoboam was king in Jerusalem for 17 years. Jerusalem is the city that the Lord chose from all the family groups of Israel. The Lord chose to put his name there in Jerusalem. Rehoboam’s mother was Naamah. Naamah was from the country of Ammon. Rehoboam did evil things because he didn’t decide in his heart to obey the Lord.

The things Rehoboam did when he was king, from the beginning to the end of his rule, are written in the writings of Shemaiah the prophet and in the writings of Iddo the seer.* Those men wrote family histories. And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the time both kings ruled. Rehoboam rested with his ancestors.* Rehoboam was buried in David’s city. Then Rehoboam’s son Abijah became the new king.

Abijah King of Judah

When King Jeroboam was in his 18th year as king of Israel,* Abijah became the new king of Judah. Abijah was king in Jerusalem for three years. Abijah’s mother was Maacah. Maacah was Uriel’s daughter. Uriel was from the town of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

Abijah’s army had 400,000 brave soldiers. Abijah led that army into battle. Jeroboam’s army had 800,000 brave soldiers. Jeroboam got ready to have a war with Abijah.

Then Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim in the hill country of Ephraim. Abijah said, “Jeroboam and all Israel, listen to me! You should know that the Lord God of Israel gave David and his sons the right to be king over Israel forever. God gave this right to David See this is another name for a prophet. See 1 Sam. 9:9–11.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

King Jeroboam ... Israel This was about the year 923 B.C. King Jeroboam was the man who turned against King Rehoboam and began his own kingdom with ten of the family groups of Israel. See 1 Kings 12:20.
518

with an agreement of salt.* 6But Jeroboam turned against his Master! Jeroboam son of Nebat was one of the servants of David’s son Solomon. 7Then worthless, evil men became friends with Jeroboam. Then Jeroboam and those bad men turned against Rehoboam, Solomon’s son. Rehoboam was young and did not have experience. So Rehoboam could not stop Jeroboam and his bad friends.

8“Now, you people have decided to defeat the Lord’s kingdom—the kingdom that is ruled by David’s sons. You have very many people with you and you have those golden calves— those ‘gods’ that Jeroboam made for you! 9You threw out the Lord’s priests, the descendants of Aaron. And you threw out the Levites. Then you chose your own priests, just like every other nation on earth. And now, any person that will bring a young bull and seven rams can become a priest! A priest to serve those ‘No-gods.’

10“But as for us, the Lord is our God. We people of Judah have not refused to obey God! We have not left him! The priests who serve the Lord are Aaron’s sons. And the Levites help the priests serve the Lord. 11They offer burnt offerings* and burn incense* of spices to the Lord every morning and every evening. They put the bread in rows on the special table in the temple.* And they take care of the lamps on the golden lampstand so it shines bright each and every evening. We very carefully serve the Lord our God. But you people have abandoned him! 12God himself is with us. He is our ruler, and his priests are with us. God’s priests blow his trumpets to wake you up and make you excited about coming to him! Men of Israel, don’t fight against the Lord God of your ancestors!* You will not succeed!”

13But Jeroboam sent a group of soldiers to sneak behind Abijah’s army. Jeroboam’s army was in front of Abijah’s army. The hidden soldiers from Jeroboam’s army were behind Abijah’s army. 14When the soldiers in Abijah’s army from Judah looked around, they saw Jeroboam’s army attacking both in front and in back.* The men of Judah shouted out to the Lord and the priests blew the trumpets. 15Then the men in Abijah’s army shouted. When the men of Judah shouted, God defeated Jeroboam’s army. All of Jeroboam’s army from Israel were defeated by Abijah’s army from Judah. 16The men of Israel ran away from the men of Judah. God let the army from Judah defeat the army from Israel. 17Abijah’s army greatly defeated the army of Israel, and 500,000 of the best men of Israel were killed. 18So at that time the people of Israel were defeated, and the people of Judah won. The army from Judah won because they depended on the Lord the God of their ancestors.*

19Abijah’s army chased Jeroboam’s army. Abijah’s army captured the towns of Bethel, Jeshanah, and Ephron from Jeroboam. They captured those towns and the small villages near those towns.

20Jeroboam never became strong again while Abijah lived. The Lord killed Jeroboam. 21But Abijah became strong. He married 14 women and was the father of 22 sons and 16 daughters. 22All the other things that Abijah did are written in the books of the prophet Iddo.

14Abijah rested with his ancestors.* The people buried him in David’s City. Then Abijah’s son, Asa, was the new king in Abijah’s place. There was peace in the country for ten years in Asa’s time.

Asa King of Judah

2Asa did good and right things before the Lord his God. 3Asa took away the strange altars that were used to worship idols. Asa took away the high places,* and smashed the high places Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

When the soldiers ... in back The Hebrew reads, “The battle was in front and in the back.”

agreement of salt When people ate salt together, it meant that their agreement of friendship would never be broken. Abijah was saying here that God had made an agreement with David that would never be broken.

burnt offering(s) Gifts to God. Usually these were animals that were killed and completely burned on the altar.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
memorial stones. And Asa broke down the Asherah poles. Asa commanded the people of Judah to follow the Lord God. He is the God their ancestors followed. And Asa commanded them to obey the Lord’s laws and commandments. Asa also took away the high places and the incense altars from all the towns in Judah. So the kingdom had peace when Asa was king. Asa built strong cities in Judah during the time when there was peace in Judah. Asa had no war in these years because the Lord gave him peace.

Asa said to the people of Judah, “Let’s build these towns and make walls around them. Let’s make towers, gates, and bars in the gates. Let’s do this while we still live in this country. This country is ours because we have followed the Lord our God. He has given us peace all around us.” So they built and had success.

Asa had an army of 300,000 men from the family group of Judah and 280,000 men from the family group of Benjamin. The men from Judah carried large shields and spears. The men from Benjamin carried small shields and shot arrows from bows. All those men were strong and brave soldiers.

Then Zerah came out against Asa’s army. Zerah was from Ethiopia. Zerah had 1,000,000 men and 300 chariots in his army. Zerah’s army went as far as the town of Mareshah. Asa went out to fight against Zerah. Asa’s army got ready for battle in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

Asa called out to the Lord his God and said, “Lord, only you can help weak people against strong people! Help us, Lord our God! We depend on you. We fight against this large army in your name. Lord, you are our God! Don’t let anyone win against you!”

Then the Lord used Asa’s army from Judah to defeat the Ethiopian army. And the Ethiopian army ran away. Asa’s army chased the Ethiopian army all the way to the town of Gerar. So many Ethiopians were killed that they could not get together as an army to fight again. They were crushed by the Lord and his army. Asa and his army carried many valuable things away from the enemy. Asa and his army defeated all the towns near Gerar. The people living in those towns were afraid of the Lord. Those towns had very many valuable things. Asa’s army took those valuable things away from those towns.

Asa’s army also attacked the camps where the shepherds lived. They took many sheep and camels. Then Asa’s army went back to Jerusalem.

Asa’s Changes

The Spirit of God came on Azariah. Azariah was Obed’s son. Azariah went to meet Asa. Azariah said, “Listen to me Asa, and all you people of Judah and Benjamin! The Lord is with you when you are with him. If you look for the Lord, you will find him. But if you leave him, he will leave you. For a long time Israel was without the true God. And they were without a teaching priest, and without the law. But when the people of Israel had trouble, they turned to the Lord God again. He is the God of Israel. They looked for the Lord and they found him. In those times of trouble, no person could travel safely. There was much trouble in all the nations. One nation would destroy another nation and one city would destroy another city. This was happening because God troubled them with all kinds of trouble. But Asa, you and the people of Judah and Benjamin, be strong. Don’t be weak, don’t give up because you will get a reward for your good work!”

Asa felt encouraged when he heard these words and the message from Obed the prophet. Then he removed the hated idols from the whole area of Judah and Benjamin. Asa also removed those hated idols from the towns he had captured in the hill country of Ephraim.
And he repaired the Lord’s altar* that was in front of the porch of the Lord’s temple.*

9Then Asa gathered all the people from Judah and Benjamin. He also gathered the people from the family groups of Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon who had moved from the country of Israel to live in the country of Judah. A great many of those people came to Judah because they saw that the Lord, Asa’s God, was with Asa.

10Asa and those people gathered together in Jerusalem on the third month in the 15th year of Asa’s rule. At that time they sacrificed* 700 bulls and 7,000 sheep and goats to the Lord. Asa’s army had taken those animals and other valuable things from their enemies.

11Then they made an agreement to serve the Lord God with all their heart and with all their soul. He is the God their ancestors* served.

12Any person that refused to serve the Lord God was to be killed. It did not matter if that person was important or not important or if that person was a man or woman. Then Asa and the people made an oath* to the Lord. They shouted out with a loud voice. They also blew on trumpets and rams’ horns. All the people of Judah were happy about the oath, because they had promised with all their heart. They followed God with all their heart. They looked for God and found him. So the Lord gave them peace in all the country.

13King Asa also removed Maacah, his mother, from being queen mother. Asa did this because she had set up one of those awful poles to honor the goddess Asherah. Asa cut down that Asherah pole* and smashed it into small pieces. Then he burned the pieces in the Kidron Valley.

14Then Asa’s heart was faithful to the Lord all of Asa’s life. And Asa put the holy gifts that he and his father had given into the temple* of God. Those things were made of silver and gold.

15There was no more war until the 35th year of Asa’s rule.*

Asa’s Last Years

In Asa’s 36th year as king,* Baasha attacked the country of Judah. Baasha was the king of Israel. He went to the town of Ramah and made it into a fortress.* Baasha used the town of Ramah as a place to stop people from going in or coming out to King Asa of Judah.

2Asa took silver and gold out of the storehouses in the Lord’s temple.* And he took silver and gold out of the king’s house. Then Asa sent messengers to Ben Hadad. Ben Hadad was the king of Aram and he was living in the town of Damascus. Asa’s message said: "Ben Hadad let there be an agreement between you and me. Let’s make it like the agreement your father and my father had. See, I am sending you silver and gold. Now, break your agreement with Baasha, king of Israel, so he will leave me alone and stop bothering me.”

4Ben Hadad agreed with King Asa. Ben Hadad sent the commanders of his armies to attack the towns of Israel. Those commanders attacked the towns of Ijon, Dan, and Abel Maim. They also attacked all the towns in the area of Naphtali where treasures were stored. Baasha heard about the attacks on the towns of Israel. So he stopped building the town of Ramah into a fortress,* and he left his work. Then King Asa called all the men of Judah together. They went to the town of Ramah and took away the rocks and wood that Baasha used to make the fortress. Asa and the men of Judah used the rocks and wood to make the towns of Geba and Mizpah stronger.

altar(s) A stone table or a stand for offering sacrifices.
temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
sacrifice(d) To kill a special animal and offer it on an altar as a gift to God.
ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
oath A very strong promise.
Asherah pole(s) Poles used to honor the goddess Asherah. People thought she could help them have many children.
high places Places for worshipping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

35th year of Asa’s rule About the year 880 B.C.
36th year as king About the year 879 B.C.
fortress A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.
At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa, king of Judah. Hanani said to him, “Asa, you depended on the king of Aram to help you and not the Lord your God. You should have depended on the Lord. But, because you did not depend on the Lord for help, the king of Aram’s army escaped from you. The Ethiopians and the Libyans had a very large and powerful army. They had many chariots and chariot drivers. But Asa, you depended on the Lord to help you defeat that large powerful army, and the Lord let you defeat them. The eyes of the Lord go around looking in all the earth for people who are faithful to him so he can make those people strong. Asa, you did a foolish thing. So from now on you will have wars.”

Asa was angry with Hanani because of what he said. Asa was so mad that he put Hanani in prison. Asa was very mean and rough with some of the people at that same time.

The things that Asa did, from the beginning to the end, are written in the book, The History of the Kings of Judah and Israel. Asa’s feet became diseased in his 39th year as king. His disease was very bad, but he did not look for help from the Lord. Asa looked for help from the doctors. Asa died in the 41st year as king. And so Asa rested with his ancestors. The people buried Asa in his own tomb that he made for himself in David’s City. The people laid him in a bed that was filled with spices and different kinds of mixed perfumes. The people made a large fire to honor Asa.

Jehoshaphat King of Judah

Jehoshaphat was the new king of Judah in Asa’s place. Jehoshaphat was Asa’s son. Jehoshaphat made Judah strong so they could fight against Israel. He put groups of soldiers in all the towns of Judah that were made into fortresses. Jehoshaphat built fortresses in Judah and in the towns of Ephraim that his father Asa captured.

The Lord was with Jehoshaphat because in Jehoshaphat’s young life he did the good things his ancestor David did. Jehoshaphat did not follow the Baal idols. Jehoshaphat looked for the God his ancestors followed. He followed God’s commands. He did not live the same way the people of Israel lived. The Lord made Jehoshaphat a strong king over Judah. All the people of Judah brought gifts to Jehoshaphat. So Jehoshaphat had much wealth and honor. Jehoshaphat’s heart found pleasure in the ways of the Lord. He took away the high places, and the Asherah poles out of the country of Judah.

Jehoshaphat sent his leaders to teach in the towns of Judah. That happened in the third year of Jehoshaphat’s rule. Those leaders were Ben Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Micaiah. Jehoshaphat also sent Levites with these leaders. These Levites were Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, and Tobijah. Jehoshaphat also sent the priests Elishama and Jehoram. Those leaders and Levites and priests taught the people in Judah. They had the Book of the Law of the Lord with them. They went through all the towns of Judah and taught the people.

The nations near Judah were afraid of the Lord. That is why they did not start a war against Jehoshaphat. Some of the Philistine people brought gifts to Jehoshaphat. They also brought silver to Jehoshaphat because they knew he was a very powerful king. Some Arabian people brought flocks to Jehoshaphat. They brought 7,700 rams and 7,700 goats to him.

seer This is another name for a prophet. See 1 Sam. 9:9–11.
chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.
39th year as king About the year 875 B.C.
41st year as king About the year 873 B.C.
ancestor Literally, “father,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
The people … Asa This probably means the people burned spices in honor of Asa, but it could also mean they burned his body.

fortress(es) A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.
high places Places of worship.
Asherah poles Poles used to honor the goddess Asherah. People thought she could help them have many children.
third year of Jehoshaphat’s rule About the year 871 B.C.
12 Jehoshaphat became more and more powerful. He built fortresses and storage towns in the country of Judah. He kept many supplies in the storage towns. And Jehoshaphat kept trained soldiers in Jerusalem. Those soldiers were listed in their family groups. This is the list of those soldiers in Jerusalem:

From the family group of Judah, these were the generals: Adnah was the general of 300,000 soldiers. Jehohanan was the general of 280,000 soldiers. Amasiah was the general of 200,000 soldiers. Amasiah was Zicri’s son. Amasiah was happy to give himself to serve the Lord.

From the family group of Benjamin these were the generals: Eliada had 200,000 soldiers who used bows, arrows, and shields. Eliada was a very brave soldier. Jehozabad had 180,000 men ready for war. All those soldiers served King Jehoshaphat. The king also had other men in the fortresses in all the country of Judah.

Micaiah Warns King Ahab

18 Jehoshaphat had much wealth and honor. He made an agreement with King Ahab through marriage. A few years later, Jehoshaphat visited Ahab in the town of Samaria. Ahab sacrificed many sheep and cows for Jehoshaphat and the people with him. Ahab encouraged Jehoshaphat to attack the town of Ramoth Gilead. Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, “Will you go with me to attack Ramoth Gilead?” Ahab was the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat was the king of Judah. Jehoshaphat answered Ahab, “I am like you, and my people are like your people. We will join you in the battle.” Jehoshaphat also said to Ahab, “But first, let’s look for a message from the Lord.”

So King Ahab gathered the prophets together, 400 men. Ahab said to them, “Should we go to war against the town of Ramoth Gilead, or not?” The prophets answered Ahab, “Go, because God will let you defeat Ramoth Gilead.”

But Jehoshaphat said, “Is one of the Lord’s prophets here? We need to ask the Lord through one of his prophets.”

Then King Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, “There is still one man here. We can ask the Lord through him. But I hate this man, because he never has a good message from the Lord about me. He always has bad messages for me. That man’s name is Micaiah. He is Imlah’s son.” But Jehoshaphat said, “Ahab, you should not say that!”

Then King Ahab called one of his officials and said, “Hurry, bring Micaiah the son of Imlah here!”

Ahab the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah had their kings’ robes on. They were sitting on their thrones at the threshing floor near the front gate of the city of Samaria. Those 400 prophets were speaking their messages in front of the two kings. Zedekiah was the son of a man named Kenaanah. Zedekiah made some horns from iron. Zedekiah said, “This is what the Lord says: ‘You will use these iron horns to stab the Aramean people until they are destroyed.’

All the prophets said the same thing. They said, “Go to the town of Ramoth Gilead. You will have success and win. The Lord will let the king defeat the Aramean people.”

The messenger that went to get Micaiah said to him, “Micaiah, listen, all the prophets say the same thing. They are saying the king will have success. So say the same things they are saying. You also say good things.”

But Micaiah answered, “As sure as the Lord lives, I can only say what my God says.”

Then Micaiah came to King Ahab. The king said to him, “Micaiah, should we go to the town of Ramoth Gilead to fight or not?” Micaiah answered, “Go and attack. God will let you defeat those people.”
King Ahab said to Micaiah, “Many times I made you promise to tell me only the truth in the name of the Lord!”

Then Micaiah said, “I saw all the people of Israel scattered on the mountains. They were like sheep without a shepherd. The Lord said, ‘They have no leader. Let each person go home safely.’”

Ahab, King of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I told you that Micaiah would not have a good message from the Lord about me! He only has bad messages about me!”

Micaiah said, “Hear the message from the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting on his throne. All of heaven’s army was standing around him, some on his left side and some on his right side. The Lord said, ‘Who will trick Ahab, king of Israel, to attack the town of Ramoth Gilead so he may be killed there?’ Different ones who stood around the Lord said different things. Then a spirit came and stood before the Lord. That spirit said, ‘I will trick Ahab.’ The Lord asked that spirit, ‘How?’ That spirit answered, ‘I will go out and become a lying spirit in Ahab’s prophets’ mouths.’ And the Lord said, ‘You will succeed in tricking Ahab. So go out and do it.’

Now look Ahab, the Lord has put a lying spirit in your prophets’ mouths. The Lord has said bad things will happen to you.”

Then Zedekiah went over to Micaiah and hit him in the face. Zedekiah’s father’s name was Kenaanah. Zedekiah said, “Micaiah, which way did the spirit from the Lord go when he went from me to speak to you?”

Micaiah answered, “Zedekiah, you will find out on the day you go to hide in an inside room!”

Then King Ahab said, “Take Micaiah and send him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king’s son. Say to Amon and Joash, ‘This is what the king says: Put Micaiah in prison. Don’t give him anything to eat except bread and water until I come back from the battle.’”

Micaiah answered, “Ahab, if you come back from battle safely, then the Lord has not spoken through me. Hear and remember my words, all you people!”

So Ahab king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah attacked the town of Ramoth Gilead. Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, “I will change my appearance before I go into battle. But you wear your own robes.” So Ahab, king of Israel changed his appearance, and the two kings went into battle.

The king of Aram gave an order to his chariot commanders. He told them, “Don’t fight with any person, no matter how great or how humble. But fight only with Ahab, the king of Israel.” When the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they thought, “There is Ahab, the king of Israel!” They turned toward Jehoshaphat to attack him. But Jehoshaphat shouted out, and the Lord helped him. God made the chariot commanders turn away from Jehoshaphat.

When they saw that Jehoshaphat was not the king of Israel, they stopped chasing him.

But a soldier happened to shoot an arrow from his bow without aiming at anything. That arrow hit Ahab king of Israel. It hit Ahab in an open part of his armor. Ahab said to the man driving his chariot, “Turn around and take me out of the battle. I am hurt!” The battle became worse that day. Ahab propped himself up in his chariot facing the Arameans until the evening. Then Ahab died at sunset.

Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came back safely to his house in Jerusalem. Jehu the seer went out to meet Jehoshaphat. Jehu’s father’s name was Hanani. Jehu said to King Jehoshaphat, “Why did you help evil people? Why do you love those people that hate the Lord? That is the reason the Lord is angry with you.

But there are some good things in your life. You removed the Asherah poles from this country, and you decided in your heart to follow God.”

Jehoshaphat chose judges.

Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem. He went out again to be with the people from the town of Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.
seer This is another name for a prophet. See 1 Sam. 9:9–11.
Asherah poles Poles used to honor the goddess Asherah. People thought she could help them have many children.
Jehoshaphat brought those people back to the Lord God their ancestors* followed. 5Jehoshaphat chose judges in Judah. He chose judges to be in each of the fortresses* of Judah. 6Jehoshaphat said to those judges, “Be careful in what you are doing, because you are not judging for people, but for the Lord. The Lord will be with you when you make a decision. 7Now each one of you must fear the Lord. Be careful in what you do because the Lord our God is fair. The Lord doesn’t treat some people more important than others. And he doesn’t accept money to change his judgments.” 8And in Jerusalem, Jehoshaphat chose some of the Levites, priests, and leaders of Israelite families to be judges. Those people were to use the law of the Lord to settle problems for the people living in Jerusalem. 9Jehoshaphat gave them commands. Jehoshaphat said, “You must serve faithfully with all your heart. You must fear the Lord. 10You will have cases about killing, about a law, command, rule, or some other law. All these cases will come to you from your brothers living in the cities. In all of these cases you must warn the people not to sin against the Lord. If you don’t serve faithfully you will cause the Lord’s anger to come against you and your brothers. Do this, then you won’t be guilty. 11Amariah is the leading priest. He will be over you in all things about the Lord. And Zebadiah will be over you in all things about the king. Zebadiah’s father’s name is Ishmael. Zebadiah is a leader in the family group of Judah. Also, the Levites will serve as scribes* for you. Have courage in all you do. May the Lord be with those people who do what is right.”

Jehoshaphat Faces War

20 Later the Moabite people, the Ammonite people, and some Meunite* people came to start a war with Jehoshaphat. 2Some men came and told Jehoshaphat, “There is a large army coming against you from Edom. They are coming from the other side of the Dead Sea. They are already in Hazazon Tamar!” (Hazazon Tamar is also called En Gedi.) 3Jehoshaphat became afraid, and he decided to ask the Lord what to do. He announced a time of fasting* for everyone in Judah. 4The people of Judah came together to ask for help from the Lord. They came from out of all the towns of Judah to ask for the Lord’s help. 5Jehoshaphat was in the Lord’s temple* in front of the new yard. He stood up in the meeting of the people from Judah and Jerusalem. 6He said, “Lord God of our ancestors,* you are the God in heaven! You rule over all the kingdoms in all the nations! You have power and strength! No person can stand against you! 7You are our God! You forced the people living in this land to leave. You did this in front of your people Israel. You gave this land to the descendants* of Abraham forever. Abraham was your friend. 8Abraham’s descendants lived in this land, and built a temple* for your name. 9They said, ‘If trouble comes to us—the sword, punishment, sicknesses, or famine, we will stand in front of this temple and in front of you. Your name is on this temple. We will shout to you when we are in trouble. Then you will hear and save us.’ 10But now, here are men from Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir! You would not let the people of Israel enter their lands when the people of Israel came out of Egypt.* So the people of Israel turned away and didn’t destroy those people. 11But see the kind of reward those people give us for not destroying ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

fortress(es)  A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.
scribes  Men that wrote down and copied books and letters. They often became experts at knowing the meaning of those writings (scriptures).
Meunite  Some ancient Greek translations have “Meunite.” The Hebrew has “Ammonite.”
a time of fasting  A time when no food was eaten.
temple  The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
descendants  A person’s children and their future families.
You would not let … Egypt  See Deut. 2:4–9, 19.
them. They have come to force us out of your land. You gave this land to us. 12Our God, punish those people! We have no power against this large army that is coming against us! We don’t know what to do! That is why we look to you for help!* 13All the men of Judah stood before the Lord with their babies, wives, and children. 14Then the Lord’s Spirit came on Jahaziel. Jahaziel was Zechariah’s son. Zechariah was Benaiah’s son. Benaiah was Jelil’s son. And Jelil was Mattaniah’s son. Jahaziel was a Levite and a descendant* of Asaph. In the middle of the meeting, 15Jahaziel said, “Listen to me King Jehoshaphat, all you people living in Judah and Jerusalem! The Lord says this to you: ‘Don’t be afraid or worry about this large army, because the battle is not your battle. It is God’s battle! 16Tomorrow, go down there and fight those people. They will come up through the Pass of Ziz. You will find them at the end of the valley on the other side of the Desert of Jeruel. 17You won’t need to fight in this battle. Stand strong in your places. You will see the Lord save you. Judah and Jerusalem, don’t be afraid! Don’t worry! The Lord is with you, so go out against those people tomorrow.’” 18Jehoshaphat bowed down low. His face touched the ground. And all the people of Judah and the people living in Jerusalem fell down in front of the Lord. And they all worshiped the Lord. 19The Levites from the Kohath family groups and the Korah family stood up to praise the Lord God of Israel. Their voices were very loud as they gave praise to the Lord. 20Jehoshaphat’s army went out into the Desert of Tekoa early in the morning. As they were starting out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, “Listen to me people of Judah and you people from Jerusalem. Have faith in the Lord your God, and then you will stand strong. Have faith in the Lord’s prophets. You will succeed!” 21Jehoshaphat encouraged and instructed the people. Then he chose men to be singers to the Lord. Those singers were chosen to give praise to the Lord because he is holy and wonderful. They marched in front of the army and praised the Lord. They sang the song, Praise the Lord, because his love continues forever!* 22As those men began to sing and to praise God, the Lord set an ambush* for the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir. Those were the people that came to attack Judah. Those people were beaten. 23The Ammonites and the Moabites started to fight against the men from Mount Seir. The Ammonites and the Moabites killed and destroyed the men from Mount Seir. After they had killed the men from Seir, they killed each other. 24The men from Judah arrived at the lookout point in the desert. They looked for the enemy’s large army. But they only saw dead bodies lying on the ground. No person had survived. 25Jehoshaphat and his army came to take valuable things from the bodies. They found many animals, riches, clothes, and valuable things. Jehoshaphat and his army took those things for themselves. The things were more than Jehoshaphat and his people could carry away. They spent three days taking away the valuable things from the dead bodies, because there was so much. 26On the fourth day Jehoshaphat and his army met in the Valley of Beracah.* They gave praise to the Lord in that place. That is why people still call that place, “The Valley of Beracah.” 27Then Jehoshaphat led all the men from Judah and Jerusalem back home to Jerusalem. The Lord made them very happy because their enemies were defeated. 28They came to Jerusalem with lyres,* harps, and trumpets and went to the Lord’s temple.* 29All the kingdoms in all the countries feared the Lord because they heard that the Lord fought against Israel’s enemies. 30That is why Jehoshaphat’s kingdom had peace.

That is why … help Literally, “But our eyes are on you!” descendant(s) A person’s children and their future families.

Praise ... forever See Psalms 118 and 136. ambush A surprise attack by hidden enemies. Beracah This word means “blessing” or “praise.” lyres An instrument with several strings, like a harp. temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
Jehoshaphat’s God gave him peace all around him.

The End of Jehoshaphat’s Rule

31Jehoshaphat ruled over the country of Judah. Jehoshaphat was 35 years old when he began to rule. He ruled 25 years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Azubah. Azubah was Shilhi’s daughter. 32Jehoshaphat lived the right way like Asa his father lived. Jehoshaphat didn’t turn from following Asa’s way, Jehoshaphat did right in the Lord’s sight. 33But the high places* were not taken away. And the people didn’t turn their hearts to follow the Lord their ancestors* followed.

34The other things Jehoshaphat did, from beginning to end, are written in The Official Records of Jehu son of Hanoni. These things were copied and included in the book, The History of the Kings of Israel.

35Later on, Jehoshaphat king of Judah made an agreement with Ahaziah, king of Israel. Ahaziah did evil. 36Jehoshaphat joined with Ahaziah to make ships to go to the town of Tarshish.* They made the ships in the town of Ezion Geber. 37Then Eliezer spoke against Jehoshaphat. Eliezer’s father’s name was Dodavahu. Eliezer was from the town of Mareshah. He said, “Jehoshaphat, you joined with Ahaziah, that is why the Lord will destroy your works.” The ships were wrecked, so Jehoshaphat and Ahaziah were not able to send them to Tarshish.*

21 Then Jehoshaphat died and was buried with his ancestors.* He was buried in David’s City. Jehoram was the new king in Jehoshaphat’s place. Jehoram was Jehoshaphat’s son. 2Jehoram’s brothers were Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariah, Michael, and Shephatiah. Those men were Jehoshaphat’s sons. Jehoshaphat was the king of Judah.*

Jehoram King of Judah

4Jehoram took over his father’s kingdom and made himself strong. Then he used a sword to kill all his brothers. He also killed some of the leaders of Israel. 5Jehoram was 32 years old when he began to rule. He ruled eight years in Jerusalem. 6He lived the same way the kings of Israel lived. This was because Jehoram married Ahab’s daughter. And Jehoram did evil in the Lord’s sight. 7But the Lord would not destroy David’s family because of the agreement the Lord made with David. The Lord had promised to keep a lamp burning for David and his children forever.*

8In Jehoram’s time, Edom broke away from under Judah’s authority. The people of Edom chose their own king. 9So Jehoram went to Edom with all his commanders and chariots.* The Edomite army surrounded Jehoram and his chariot* commanders. But Jehoram fought his way out at night. 10Since that time and until now the country of Edom has been rebellious against Judah. The people from the town of Libnah also turned against Jehoram. This happened because Jehoram left the Lord. He is the God Jehoram’s ancestors* followed. 11Jehoram also built high places* on the hills in Judah. Jehoram caused the people of Jerusalem to stop doing what God wanted. He led the people of Judah away from the Lord.

12Jehoram got a message from Elijah the prophet. This is what the message said: “This is what the Lord God says. He is the God your father David followed. The Lord says, ‘Jehoram, you have not lived the way your father Jehoshaphat lived. You have not lived the way Asa king of Judah lived. But you have lived the way the kings of Israel lived. You have caused the people of Judah and Jerusalem to stop doing what God wants. That is what Ahab and his family did. They were unfaithful to God. You have killed your brothers. Your brothers were better than you.

So now, the Lord will soon punish your people with much punishment. The Lord will punish your children, wives, and all your property. You will have a terrible sickness in your bowels. It will become worse every day. Then your bowels will come out because of your terrible sickness.”

The Lord caused the Philistine people and the Arab people living near the Ethiopian people to be angry at Jehoram. Those people attacked the country of Judah. They took away all the wealth that belonged to the king’s house and took away Jehoram’s sons and wives. Only Jehoram’s youngest son was left. Jehoram’s youngest son was named Jehoahaz.

After those things happened, the Lord made Jehoram sick in his bowels with a sickness that could not be cured. Then Jehoram’s bowels fell out two years later because of his sickness. He died in very bad pain. The people did not make a large fire to honor Jehoram like they did for his father. Jehoram was 32 years old when he became king. He ruled eight years in Jerusalem. No person was sad when Jehoram died. The people buried Jehoram in David’s city, but not in the graves where the kings are buried.

Ahaziah King of Judah

The people of Jerusalem chose Ahaziah to be the new king in Jehoram’s place. Ahaziah was Jehoram’s youngest son. The people that came with the Arab people to attack Jehoram’s camp killed all of Jehoram’s older sons. So Ahaziah began to rule in Judah. Ahaziah was 22 years old when he began to rule.

Ahaziah ruled one year in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Athaliah. Athaliah’s father’s name was Omri. Athaliah also lived the way Ahab’s family lived. He lived that way because his mother encouraged him to do wrong things. Ahaziah did evil things in the Lord’s sight. That is what Ahab’s family did. Ahab’s family gave advice to Ahaziah after Ahab’s father died. They gave Ahaziah bad advice. That bad advice led to his death.

Ahaziah followed the advice Ahab’s family gave him. Ahaziah went with King Joram to fight against King Hazael from Aram at the town of Ramoth Gilead. Joram’s father’s name was Ahab, the king of Israel. But the Arameans wounded Joram in the battle. Joram went back to the town of Jezreel to get well. He was wounded at Ramoth when he fought against Hazael, king of Aram.

Then Ahaziah went to the town of Jezreel to visit Joram. Ahaziah’s father’s name was Jehoram, the king of Judah. Joram’s father’s name was Ahab. Joram was in the town of Jezreel because he was wounded.

God caused Ahaziah’s death when he went to visit Joram. Ahaziah arrived and went out with Joram to meet Jehu. Jehu’s father’s name was Nimshi. The Lord chose Jehu to destroy Ahab’s family. Jehu was punishing Ahab’s family. Jehu found the leaders of Judah and Ahaziah’s relatives that served Ahaziah. Jehu killed those leaders of Judah and Ahaziah’s relatives. Then Jehu looked for Ahaziah. Jehu’s men caught him when he tried to hide in the town of Samaria. They brought Ahaziah to Jehu. They killed Ahaziah and buried him. They said, “Ahaziah is the descendant of Jehoshaphat. Jehoshaphat followed the Lord with all his heart.” Ahaziah’s family had no power to hold the kingdom of Judah together.

Queen Athaliah

Athaliah was Ahaziah’s mother. When she saw that her son was dead, she killed all the king’s children in Judah. But Jehosheba took Ahaziah’s son Joash and hid him.

descendant(s) A person’s children and their future families.
Jehosheba put Joash and his nurse in the inside bedroom. Jehosheba was King Jehoram’s daughter. She was also Jehoiada’s wife. Jehoiada was a priest. And Jehosheba was Ahaziah’s sister. Athaliah did not kill Joash, because Jehosheba hid him. 12 Joash was hidden with the priests in God’s temple for six years. During that time, Athaliah ruled over the land as queen.

Priest Jehoiada and King Joash

After six years, Jehoiada showed his strength. He made an agreement with the captains. Those captains were: Azariah son of Jeroham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat son of Zicri. 2 They went around in Judah and gathered the Levites from all the towns of Judah. They also gathered the leaders of the families of Israel. Then they went to Jerusalem. 3 All the people meeting together made an agreement with the king in God’s temple.*

Jehoiada said to those people, “The king’s son will rule. That is what the Lord promised about David’s descendants.* 4 Now, this is what you must do: One-third of you priests and Levites who go on duty on the Sabbath will guard the doors. 5 And one-third of you will be at the king’s house. And one-third of you will be at the Foundation Gate. But all the other people will stay in the yards of the Lord’s temple.* 6 Don’t let any person come into the Lord’s temple because they are holy. But all the other men must do the job the Lord has given them. 7 The Levites must stay near the king. Every man must have his sword with him. If any person tries to enter the temple, kill that person. You must stay with the king everywhere he goes.”

8 The Levites and all the people of Judah obeyed all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. Jehoiada the priest did not excuse any person from the groups of the priests. So each captain and all his men came in on the Sabbath with those who went out on the Sabbath. 9 Jehoiada the priest gave the spears and the large and small shields that belonged to King David to the officers. Those weapons were kept in God’s temple.* 10 Then Jehoiada told the men where to stand. Every man had his weapon in his hand. The men stood all the way from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple. They stood near the altar* and the temple, and near the king. 11 They brought the king’s son out and put the crown on him. They gave him a copy of the Law.* Then they made Joash king. Jehoiada and his sons anointed* Joash. They said, “Let the king live a long time!”

12 Athaliah heard the noise of the people running to the temple* and praising the king. She came into the Lord’s temple to the people. 13 She looked and saw the king. The king was standing by the king’s column at the front entrance. The officers and the men who blew trumpets were near the king. The people of the land were happy and blowing trumpets. The singers were playing on instruments of music. The singers led the people in singing praises. Then Athaliah tore her clothes* and said, “Treason! Treason!”*

14 Jehoiada the priest brought out the army captains. He said to them, “Take Athaliah outside among the army. Use your swords to kill any person that follows her.” Then the priest warned the soldiers, “Don’t kill Athaliah in the Lord’s temple.”* 15 Then those men grabbed Athaliah when she came to the entrance of the Horse Gate at the king’s house. Then they killed her there at that place.

16 Then Jehoiada made an agreement with all the people, and the king. They all agreed that they all would be the Lord’s people. 17 All the people went into the temple of the idol Baal and tore it down. They also broke the altars and idols that were in Baal’s temple.
They killed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altars of Baal.

18 Then Jehoiada chose the priests to be responsible for the Lord’s temple. Those priests were Levites, and David had given them the job of being responsible for the Lord’s temple. Those priests were to offer the burnt offerings to the Lord the way the Law of Moses commanded. They offered the sacrifices with much joy and singing the way David commanded. 19 Jehoiada put guards at the gates of the Lord’s temple so that a person who was not clean in anything could not enter the temple.

20 Jehoiada took the army captains, the leaders, the rulers of the people, and all the people of the land with him. Then Jehoiada took the king out of the Lord’s temple, and they went through the Upper Gate to the king’s house. In that place they put the king on the throne. 21 All the people of Judah were very happy and the city Jerusalem had peace because Athaliah was killed with a sword.

Joash Builds Again the Temple

24 Joash was seven years old when he became king. He ruled 40 years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Zibiah. Zibiah was from the town of Beersheba. 2 Joash did right in front of the Lord as long as Jehoiada the priest was living. 3 Jehoiada chose two wives for Joash. Joash had sons and daughters.

4 Then later on, Joash decided to build again the Lord’s temple. 5 Joash called the priests and the Levites together. He said to them, “Go out to the towns of Judah and gather the money all the people of Israel pay every year. Use that money to build again your God’s temple. Hurry and do this.” But the Levites didn’t hurry.

6 So King Joash called Jehoiada the leading priest. The king said, “Jehoiada, why haven’t you made the Levites bring in the tax money from Judah and Jerusalem? Moses the Lord’s servant and the people of Israel used that tax money for the Holy Tent.”

7 In the past, Athaliah’s sons broke into God’s temple. They used the holy things in the Lord’s temple for their worship of the Baal gods. Athaliah was a very wicked woman. 8 King Joash gave a command for a box to be made and put outside the gate at the Lord’s temple. 9 Then the Levites made an announcement in Judah and Jerusalem. They told the people to bring in the tax money for the Lord. That tax money is what Moses the servant of God had required the people of Israel to give while they were in the desert. 10 All the leaders and the people were happy. They brought their money and put it in the box. They continued giving until the box was full. 11 Then the Levites would take the box to the king’s officials. They saw that the box was full of money. The king’s secretary and the leading priest’s officer came and took the money out of the box. Then they took the box back to its place again. They did this often and gathered much money. 12 Then King Joash and Jehoiada gave the money to the people that worked on the Lord’s temple. And the people that worked on the Lord’s temple hired skilled woodcarvers and carpenters to build again the Lord’s temple. They also hired workers that knew how to work with iron and bronze to build again the Lord’s temple.

13 The men that supervised the work were very faithful. The work to build again the Lord’s temple was successful. They built God’s temple the way it was before and they made it stronger. 14 When the workers finished, they brought the money that was left to King Joash and Jehoiada. They used that money to make things for the Lord’s temple. Those things were used for the service in the temple and for offering burnt offerings. They also made bowls and other things from gold and silver. The priests offered burnt offerings in the Lord’s temple every day while Jehoiada was alive.

15 Jehoiada became old. He had a very long life, then he died. Jehoiada was 130 years old.

---

temple  The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
burnt offering(s)  Gifts to God. Usually these were animals that were killed and completely burned on the altar.
sacrifice(s)  A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

Holy Tent  Or, “tabernacle.” Also called the “meeting tent.” The people would go to this tent to meet with God.
when he died. 16 The people buried Jehoiada in David’s City where the kings are buried. The people buried Jehoiada there because in his life he did much good in Israel for God and for God’s temple.*

17 After Jehoiada died, the leaders of Judah came and bowed to King Joash. The king listened to those leaders. 18 The king and those leaders rejected the temple* of the Lord God. Their ancestors* followed the Lord God. They worshiped the Asherah poles* and other idols. God was angry with the people of Judah and Jerusalem because the king and those leaders were guilty. 19 God sent prophets to the people to bring them back to the Lord. The prophets warned the people. But the people refused to listen.

20 God’s Spirit came on Zechariah. Zechariah’s father was Jehoiada the priest. Zechariah stood in front of the people and said, “This is what God says: ‘Why do you people refuse to obey the Lord’s commands? You will not be successful. You have left the Lord. So the Lord has also left you!’”

21 But the people made plans against Zechariah. The king commanded the people to kill Zechariah, so they threw rocks at him until he died. The people did this in the temple* yard. 22 Joash the king didn’t remember Jehoiada’s kindness to him. Jehoiada was Zechariah’s father. But Joash killed Zechariah, Jehoiada’s son. Before Zechariah died, he said, “May the Lord see what you are doing and punish you!”

23 At the end of the year, the Aramean army came against Joash. They attacked Judah and Jerusalem and killed all the leaders of the people. They sent all the valuable things to the king of Damascus. 24 The Aramean army came with a small group of men, but the Lord let them defeat a very large army from Judah. The Lord did this because the people of Judah left the Lord God their ancestors* followed. So Joash was punished. 25 When the Arameans left Joash, he was badly wounded. Joash’s own servants made plans against him. They did this because Joash killed Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest. The servants killed Joash on his own bed. After Joash died, the people buried him in David’s City. But they didn’t bury him in the place where the kings are buried.

26 These are the servants that made plans against Joash: Zabad and Jehozabad. Zabad’s mother’s name was Shimeath. Shimeath was from Ammon. And Jehozabad’s mother’s name was Shimrith. Shimrith was from Moab. 27 The story about Joash’s sons, the great prophecies against him, and how he built again God’s temple* are written in the book, Commentary on the Kings. Amaziah became the new king after him. Amaziah was Joash’s son.

Amaziah King of Judah

25 Amaziah was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled for 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Jehoaddin. Jehoaddin was from Jerusalem. 2 Amaziah did the things the Lord wanted him to do. But he didn’t do them with all his heart. 3 Amaziah became a strong king. Then he killed the officials that killed his father the king. 4 But Amaziah didn’t kill those officials’ children. Why? He obeyed the law written in the book of Moses. The Lord commanded, ‘Parents must not be put to death for something their children did. And children must not be put to death for something their parents did. A person should be put to death only for a bad thing that he himself did.’*

5 Amaziah gathered the people of Judah together. He grouped them by families and he put generals and captains in charge of those groups. Those leaders were in charge of all the soldiers from Judah and Benjamin. All the men that were chosen to be soldiers were 20 years old and older. In all there were 300,000 skilled soldiers ready to fight with spears and shields. 6 Amaziah also hired 100,000 soldiers from Israel. He paid 3 3/4 tons* of silver to hire

Parents ... did See Deut. 24:16.
3 3/4 tons Or, “3,400kg.” Literally, “100 talents.”
those soldiers. 7 But a man of God* came to Amaziah. The man of God said, “King, don’t let the army of Israel go with you. The Lord is not with Israel. The Lord is not with the people of Ephraim.” 8 Maybe you will make yourself strong and ready for war, but God can help you win or help you lose.” 9 Amaziah said to the man of God, “But what about the money I already paid to the Israelite army?” The man of God answered, “The Lord has plenty. He can give you much more than that!”

10 So Amaziah sent the Israelite army back home to Ephraim. Those men were very angry against the king and the people of Judah. They went back home very angry.

11 Then Amaziah became very brave and led his army to the Salt Valley in the country of Edom. In that place, Amaziah’s army killed 10,000 men from Seir.* 12 The army of Judah also captured 10,000 men from Seir. They took those men from Seir to the top of a cliff. Those men were still alive. Then the army of Judah threw down those men from the top of the cliff and their bodies were broken on the rocks below.

13 But at the same time, the Israelite army was attacking some towns in Judah. They attacked the towns from Beth Horon all the way to Samaria. They killed 3,000 people and took many valuable things. [The people of that army were angry because] Amaziah didn’t let them join him in the war.

14 Amaziah came home after he defeated the Edomite* people. He brought the idol gods the people of Seir* worshiped. Amaziah started to worship those idol gods. He bowed down in front of those gods, and he burned incense* to them. 15 The Lord was very angry with Amaziah. The Lord sent a prophet to Amaziah. The prophet said, “Amaziah, why have you worshiped the gods those people worship? Those gods could not even save their own people from you!”

16 When the prophet spoke, Amaziah said to the prophet, “We never made you an adviser to the king! Be quiet! If you don’t be quiet, you will be killed.” The prophet became quiet, but then said, “God really has decided to destroy you. Why? Because you did those bad things and didn’t listen to my advice.”

17 Amaziah king of Judah, talked with his advisers. Then he sent a message to Jehoash, the king of Israel. Amaziah said to Jehoash, “Let’s meet face to face.” Jehoash was Jehoahaz’s son. Jehoahaz was Jehu’s son.

18 Then Jehoash sent his answer to Amaziah. Jehoash was the king of Israel and Amaziah was the king of Judah. Jehoash told this story: “A little thorn bush of Lebanon sent a message to a big cedar tree of Lebanon. The little thorn bush said, ‘Let your daughter marry my son.’ But a wild animal came and walked over the thorn bush and destroyed it.

19 You say to yourself, ‘I have defeated Edom!’ You are proud and you brag. But you should stay at home. There is no need for you to get into trouble. If you fight me, you and Judah will be destroyed.”

20 But Amaziah refused to listen. This came from God. God planned to let Israel defeat Judah, because the people of Judah followed the gods the people of Edom followed. 21 So Jehoash king of Israel met Amaziah king of Judah face to face at the town of Beth Shemesh. Beth Shemesh is in Judah. 22 Israel defeated Judah. Every man of Judah ran away to his home. 23 Jehoash captured Amaziah at Beth Shemesh and took him to Jerusalem. Amaziah’s father’s name was Joash. Joash’s father’s name was Jehoahaz. Jehoash tore down a 600-foot section* of the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate. 24 There was gold and silver and many other things in God’s temple. Obed Edom was responsible for those things. But Jehoash took all of those things. Jehoash also took the treasures from the king’s palace.

---

man of God This is another name for a prophet.

Ephraim Ephraim was Joseph’s youngest son. Ephraim’s family group joined Israel. Ephraim was another name for Israel.

Seir Or, “Edom,” a country east of Judah.

Edomite The people of Edom (Seir).

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

600-foot section Literally, “400-cubit section” (210m).
Then Jehoash took some people as prisoners and went back to Samaria.

Amaziah lived 15 years after Jehoash died. Amaziah’s father was Joash, the king of Judah. The other things Amaziah did, from beginning to end, are written in the book, The History of the Kings of Judah and Israel. When Amaziah stopped obeying the Lord, the people in Jerusalem made plans against Amaziah. He ran away to the town of Lachish. But the people sent men to Lachish and they killed Amaziah there. They carried Amaziah’s body on horses and buried him with his ancestors in the City of Judah.

Uzziah King of Judah

Then the people of Judah chose Uzziah to be the new king in place of Amaziah. Amaziah was Uzziah’s father. Uzziah was 16 years old when this happened. Uzziah built again the town of Elath and gave it back to Judah. Uzziah did this after Amaziah died and was buried with his ancestors.

Uzziah was 16 years old when he became king. He ruled 52 years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Jecoliah. Jecoliah was from Jerusalem. Uzziah did the things the Lord wanted him to do. He obeyed God the same as his father Amaziah had done. Uzziah followed God in the time of Zechariah’s life. Zechariah taught Uzziah how to respect and obey God. When Uzziah was obeying the Lord, God gave him success.

Uzziah fought a war against the Philistine people. He tore down the walls around the towns of Gath, Jabneh, and Ashdod. Uzziah built towns near the town of Ashdod and in other places among the Philistine people. God helped Uzziah fight the Philistines, the Arabs living in the town of Gur Baal, and the Meunites. The Ammonites paid tribute to Uzziah. Uzziah’s name became famous all the way to the border of Egypt. He was famous because he was very powerful.

Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate, and at the place where the wall turned. Uzziah made those towers strong. Uzziah built towers in the desert. He also dug many wells. He had much cattle in the hill country and in the flat lands. Uzziah had farmers in the mountains and in the lands where growth was good. He also had men that took care of fields where grapes grew. He loved farming.

Uzziah had an army of trained soldiers. Those soldiers were put in groups by Jeiel the secretary and Maaseiah the officer. Hananiah was their leader. Jeiel and Maaseiah counted those soldiers and put them into groups. Hananiah was one of the king’s officers.

There were 2,600 leaders over the soldiers. Those family leaders were in charge of an army of 307,500 men that fought with great power. Those soldiers helped the king against the enemy. Uzziah gave the army shields, spears, helmets, armor, bows, and stones for the slings. In Jerusalem Uzziah made machines that were invented by clever men. Those machines were put on the towers and corner walls. These machines shot arrows and large rocks. Uzziah became famous. People knew his name in far away places. He had much help and became a powerful king.

But when Uzziah became strong, his pride caused him to be destroyed. He was not faithful to the Lord his God. He went into the Lord’s temple to burn incense on the altar for burning incense. Azariah the priest and 80 brave priests that served the Lord followed Uzziah into the temple. They told Uzziah he was wrong. They said to him, “Uzziah, it is not your job to burn incense to the Lord. It is not good for you to do this. The priests and Aaron’s descendants are the ones that burn incense to the Lord. These priests were trained for holy service to burn incense. Go out of the ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

tribute Money paid to a more powerful king by a weaker king to have peace.
Most Holy Place. You have not been faithful. The Lord God will not honor you for this!"
19 But Uzziah was angry. He had a bowl in his hand for burning incense. While Uzziah was very angry at the priests, leprosy came up on his forehead. This happened in front of the priests in the Lord’s temple by the altar for burning incense. 20 Azariah the leading priest and all the priests looked at Uzziah. They could see the leprosy on his forehead. This happened in front of the priests in the Lord’s temple by the altar for burning incense.
20 Azariah the leading priest and all the priests looked at Uzziah. They could see the leprosy on his forehead. This happened in front of the priests in the Lord’s temple by the altar for burning incense.
21 Uzziah the king was a leper. He could not enter the Lord’s temple. Uzziah’s son Jotham controlled the king’s house and became governor for the people.
22 The other things that Uzziah did, from beginning to the end, were written by the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz. 23 Uzziah died and was buried near his ancestors. Uzziah was buried in the field near the king’s burial places. Why? Because the people said, “Uzziah has leprosy.” And Jotham became the new king in Uzziah’s place. Jotham was Uzziah’s son.

Jotham King of Judah

27 Jotham was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled 16 years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Jerusha. Jerusha was Zadok’s daughter. Jotham did the things the Lord wanted him to do. He obeyed God just like his father Uzziah had done. But Jotham did not enter the Lord’s temple to burn incense like his father did. But the people continued doing wrong. Jotham built again the Upper Gate of the Lord’s temple. He did much building on the wall at the place named Ophel. Jotham also built towns in the hill country of Judah. Jotham built fortresses and towers in the forests. Jotham also fought against the king of the Ammonite people and his army and defeated them. So each year for three years the Ammonites gave Jotham 3 3/4 tons of silver, 62,000 bushels of wheat, and 62,000 bushels of barley.

6 Jotham became powerful because he faithfully obeyed the Lord his God. 7 The other things Jotham did and all his wars are written in the book, The History of the Kings of Israel and Judah. 8 Jotham was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled 16 years in Jerusalem. 9 Then Jotham died and was buried with his ancestors. The people buried him in David’s City. Ahaz became the king in Jotham’s place. Ahaz was Jotham’s son.

Ahaz King of Judah

28 Ahaz was 20 years old when he became king. He ruled 16 years in Jerusalem. Ahaz didn’t live right like David his ancestor. Ahaz didn’t do the things the Lord wanted him to do. Ahaz followed the bad example of the kings of Israel. He used molds to make idols to worship the Baal gods. Ahaz burned incense in the Valley of Ben Hinnom. He sacrificed his own sons by burning them in the fire. He did the same terrible sins that the peoples living in that land did. The Lord had forced those people out when the people of Israel entered that land. Ahaz offered sacrifices and burned incense in the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

fortress(es) A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.
3 3/4 tons Or, “3,400kg.” Literally, “100 talents.”
62,000 bushels Or, “2,200,000 l.” Literally, “10,000 cors.”
David’s City Another name for Jerusalem.
incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.
Valley of Ben Hinnom The Valley of Hinnom was south and west of Jerusalem. Many babies and young children were sacrificed to false gods in this valley.
sacrifice(d) To kill a special animal and offer it on an altar as a gift to God.
sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
high places Places for worshipping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.
5–6 Ahaz sinned, so the Lord his God let the king of Aram defeat Ahaz. The king of Aram and his army defeated Ahaz and made many people of Judah prisoners. The king of Aram took those prisoners to the city of Damascus. The Lord also let Pekah the king of Israel defeat Ahaz. Pekah’s father’s name was Remaliah. Pekah and his army killed 120,000 brave soldiers from Judah in one day. Pekah defeated those men from Judah because they stopped obeying the Lord God their ancestors obeyed. 7 Zicri was a brave soldier from Ephraim. Zicri killed Maaseiah, King Ahaz’s son, Azrikam the officer in charge of the king’s house, and Elkanah. Elkanah was second in command to the king.

8 The Israelite army captured 200,000 of their own relatives living in Judah. They took women, children, and many valuable things from Judah. The Israelites brought those captives and those things to the city of Samaria. 9 But one of the Lord’s prophets was there. This prophet was named Oded. Oded met the Israelite army that came back to Samaria. Oded said to the Israelite army, “The Lord God your ancestors obeyed let you defeat the people of Judah because he was angry at them. You killed and punished the people of Judah in a very mean way. Now God is angry at you. 10 You plan to keep the people of Judah and Jerusalem as slaves. You also have sinned against the Lord your God. 11 Now listen to me. Send back your brothers and sisters that you captured. Do this because the Lord’s terrible anger is against you.”

12 Then some of the leaders in Ephraim saw the Israelite soldiers coming home from war. Those leaders met the Israelite soldiers and warned them. Those leaders were Azariah son of Jehohanan, Berekiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai. 13 Those leaders said to the Israelite soldiers, “Don’t bring the prisoners from Judah here. If you do that, it will make us sin worse against the Lord. That will make our sin and guilt worse and the Lord will be very angry against Israel!”

14 So the soldiers gave the prisoners and valuable things to those leaders and to the people of Israel. 15 The leaders (Azariah, Berekiah, Jehizkiah, and Amasa) stood up and helped the prisoners. These four men got the clothes that the Israelite army took and gave them to those people that were naked. Those leaders also gave shoes to those people. They gave the prisoners from Judah something to eat and drink. They rubbed oil on those people to soften and heal their wounds. 16 Then those leaders from Ephraim put the weak prisoners on donkeys and took them back home to their families in Jericho, the city of palm trees. Then those four leaders went back home to Samaria.

16–17 At that same time, the people from Edom came again and defeated the people of Judah. The Edomites captured people and took them away as prisoners. So King Ahaz asked the king of Assyria to help him. 18 The Philistine people also attacked the towns in the hills and in south Judah. The Philistines captured the towns of Beth Shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Soco, Timnah, and Gimzo. They also captured the villages near those towns. Then the Philistines lived in those towns. 19 The Lord gave troubles to Judah because King Ahaz of Judah encouraged the people of Judah to sin. He was very unfaithful to the Lord. 20 Tiglath Pileser king of Assyria came and gave Ahaz trouble instead of helping him. 21 Ahaz took some valuable things from the Lord’s temple and from the king’s house and from the prince’s house. Ahaz gave those things to the king of Assyria. But that didn’t help Ahaz.

22 In Ahaz’s troubles, he sinned worse and became more unfaithful to the Lord. 23 He offered sacrifices to the gods the people of Damascus worshiped. The people of Damascus had defeated Ahaz. So he thought to himself, “The gods the people of Aram worship helped Ephraim  Ephraim was Joseph’s youngest son. Ephraim’s family group joined Israel. Ephraim was another name for Israel.

ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

temple  The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

sacrifices  A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
them. So if I offer sacrifices to those gods, maybe they will help me also.” Ahaz worshiped those gods. In this way he sinned, and he made the people of Israel sin.

24 Ahaz gathered the things from God’s temple* and broke them to pieces. Then he closed the doors of the Lord’s temple. He made altars* and put them on every street corner in Jerusalem. 25 In every town in Judah Ahaz made high places* for burning incense* to worship other gods. Ahaz made the Lord God that his ancestors* obeyed very angry.

26 The other things that Ahaz did, from the beginning to the end, are written in the book, The History of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

27 Ahaz died and was buried with his ancestors.* The people buried Ahaz in the city of Jerusalem. But they didn’t bury Ahaz in the same burial place where the kings of Israel were buried. Hezekiah became the new king in Ahaz’s place. Hezekiah was Ahaz’s son.

Hezekiah King of Judah

29 Hezekiah became king when he was 25 years old. He ruled 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Abijah. Abijah was Zechariah’s daughter. 2 Hezekiah did the things the Lord wanted him to do. He did what was right just like David his ancestor* had done.

3 Hezekiah fixed the doors of the Lord’s temple* and made them strong. Hezekiah opened the temple again. He did this in the first month of the first year after he became king. 4–5 Hezekiah got the priests and Levites together in one assembly. He had a meeting with them in the open yard on the east side of the temple. Hezekiah said to them, “Listen to me, Levites! Make yourselves ready for holy service. Make the temple of the Lord God ready for holy service. He is the God your ancestors obeyed. Take away the things from the temple that do not belong in there. Those things make the temple not pure. 6 Our ancestors led the Lord and turned their faces away from the Lord’s house.* 7 They shut the doors of the porch of the temple and let the fire go out in the lamps. They stopped burning incense* and offering burnt offerings* in the Holy Place* to the God of Israel. 8 So, the Lord became very angry at the people of Judah and Jerusalem. The Lord punished them. Other peoples became afraid and were shocked when they saw what the Lord did to the people of Judah and Jerusalem. Those other people shook their heads with hate and shame for the people of Judah. You know these things are true. You can see with your own eyes. 9 And that is why our ancestors were killed in battle. Our sons and daughters and wives were made prisoners. 10 So now I, Hezekiah, have decided to make an agreement with the Lord God of Israel. Then he will not be angry at us any more. 11 So my sons,* don’t be lazy or waste any more time. The Lord chose you to serve him. He chose you to serve him in the temple and to burn incense.”

12–14 This is a list of the Levites that were there that started to work: From the Kohath family there was Mahath son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah. From the Merari family there was Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallelel. From the Gershon family there was Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joab. From Elizaphan’s descendants* there was Shimri and Jeiel. From Asaph’s descendants there was Zechariah and Mattaniah. From Heman’s descendants there was Jehiel and Shimei. From Jeduthun’s descendants there was Shemaiah and Uzziel.

15 Then these Levites gathered their brothers together and made themselves ready for holy service. He is the God your ancestors obeyed. Take away the things from the temple that do not belong in there. Those things make the temple not pure. 6 Our ancestors led the Lord and turned their faces away from the Lord’s house.* 7 They shut the doors of the porch of the temple and let the fire go out in the lamps. They stopped burning incense* and offering burnt offerings* in the Holy Place* to the God of Israel. 8 So, the Lord became very angry at the people of Judah and Jerusalem. The Lord punished them. Other peoples became afraid and were shocked when they saw what the Lord did to the people of Judah and Jerusalem. Those other people shook their heads with hate and shame for the people of Judah. You know these things are true. You can see with your own eyes. 9 And that is why our ancestors were killed in battle. Our sons and daughters and wives were made prisoners. 10 So now I, Hezekiah, have decided to make an agreement with the Lord God of Israel. Then he will not be angry at us any more. 11 So my sons,* don’t be lazy or waste any more time. The Lord chose you to serve him. He chose you to serve him in the temple and to burn incense.” service in the temple. They obeyed the king’s command that came from the Lord. They went into the Lord’s temple to clean it.

The priests went into the inside part of the Lord’s temple to clean it. They took out all the unclean things they found in the Lord’s temple. They brought the unclean things to the yard of the Lord’s temple. Then the Levites took the unclean things out to the Kidron Valley. On the first day of the first month, the Levites began to make themselves ready for holy service. On the eighth day of the month, the Levites came to the porch of the Lord’s temple. For eight more days they cleaned the Lord’s temple to make it ready for holy use. They finished on the 16th day of the first month.

Then they went to King Hezekiah. They said to him, “King Hezekiah, we cleaned all the Lord’s temple and the altar for burning offerings and all the things in the temple. We cleaned the table for the rows of bread with all the things used for that table.

During the time that Ahaz was king, he rebelled against God. He threw away many of the things that were in the temple. But we fixed all of those things and made them ready for their special use. They are now in front of the Lord’s altar.”

King Hezekiah gathered the city officials and went up to the temple of the Lord early the next morning. They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven young male goats. These animals were for a sin offering for the kingdom of Judah, for the Holy Place to make it clean, and for the people of Judah. King Hezekiah commanded the priests that were descendants of Aaron to offer those animals on the Lord’s altar. So the priests killed the bulls and kept the blood. Then they sprinkled the bulls’ blood on the altar. Then the priests killed the lambs and sprinkled the lambs’ blood on the altar.

Then the priests brought the male goats in front of the king and the people assembled together. The goats were the sin offering. The priests put their hands on the goats and killed the goats. The priests made a sin offering with the goats’ blood on the altar. They did this so God would forgive the sins of the people of Israel. The king said that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all the people of Israel.

King Hezekiah put the Levites in the Lord’s temple with cymbals, harps, and lyres the way David, Gad the king’s seer, and Nathan the prophet had commanded. This command came from the Lord through his prophets. So the Levites stood ready with David’s instruments of music, and the priests stood ready with their trumpets. Then Hezekiah gave the order to sacrifice the burnt offering on the altar. When the burnt offering began, singing to the Lord began also. The trumpets were blown and the instruments of David king of Israel played. All the assembly bowed down, the musicians sang, and the trumpet players blew their trumpets until the burnt offering was finished.

After the sacrifices were finished, King Hezekiah and all the people with him bowed down and worshiped. King Hezekiah and his officials ordered the Levites to give praise to the Lord. They sang songs that David and Asaph the seer had written. They praised God and became happy. They all bowed and worshiped God. Hezekiah said, “Now you people of Judah have given yourselves to the Lord. Come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the Lord’s temple.” Then the people brought sacrifices and thank offerings. Any person who wanted to, also brought burnt offerings.

This is how many uncleane Or, “unacceptable.” Not pure or not able to be used in worshipping God. See Lev. 11–15 for the Old Testament rules about clean and unclean things.
temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
altar(s) A stone table or a stand for offering sacrifices.
Holy Place The room in the Holy Tent and in the temple that was used by the priests to do their daily service to God.
descendants A person’s children and their future families.
burnt offerings(s) Gifts to God. Usually these were animals that were killed and completely burned on the altar.
cymbals A pair of metal platters that are hit against each other to make a loud sound.
lyres An instrument with several strings, like a harp.
seer This is another name for a prophet. See 1 Sam. 9:9–11.
sacrifices(s) A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
burnt offerings the assembly brought to the temple: 70 bulls, 100 rams, and 200 lambs. All these animals were sacrificed as burnt offerings to the Lord. 33 The holy offerings for the Lord were 600 bulls and 3,000 sheep and goats. 34 But there were not enough priests to skin and cut up all the animals for the burnt offerings. So their relatives, the Levites, helped them until the work was finished and until other priests could make themselves ready for holy service. The Levites were more serious about making themselves ready to serve the Lord. They were more serious than the priests. 35 There were many burnt offerings, and the fat of fellowship offerings, and drink offerings. So the service in the Lord's temple began again. 36 Hezekiah and the people were very happy about the things God prepared for his people. And they were happy he did it so quickly!

Hezekiah Celebrates the Passover

30 King Hezekiah sent messages to all the people of Israel and Judah. He wrote letters to the people of Ephraim and Manasseh also. Hezekiah invited all those people to come to the Lord's temple in Jerusalem so they all could celebrate the Passover for the Lord God of Israel. King Hezekiah agreed with all his officials and all the assembly in Jerusalem to have the Passover in the second month. They could not celebrate the Passover Festival at the regular time. Why? Because not enough priests had made themselves ready for holy service. And another reason is the people had not gathered in Jerusalem. The agreement satisfied King Hezekiah and all the assembly. So they made an announcement everywhere in Israel, from the town of Beersheba all the way to the town of Dan. They told the people to come to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover for the Lord God of Israel. A large group of the people of Israel had not celebrated the Passover since a long time ago the way the law of Moses said to celebrate it.

So the messengers took the king’s letters all through Israel and Judah. This is what those letters said:

Children of Israel, turn back to the Lord God that Abraham, Isaac, and Israel (Jacob) obeyed. Then God will come back to you people that are still alive and have escaped from the kings of Assyria.

Don’t be like your fathers or your brothers. The Lord was their God, but they turned against him. So the Lord made people hate them and speak evil about them. You can see with your own eyes that this is true. Don’t be stubborn like your ancestors were. But obey the Lord with a willing heart. Come to the Most Holy Place. The Lord has made the Most Holy Place to be holy forever. Serve the Lord your God. Then the Lord’s fearful anger will turn away from you. If you come back and obey the Lord, then your relatives and your children will find mercy from the people that captured them. And your relatives and your children will come back to this land. The Lord your God is kind and merciful. He will not turn away from you if you come back to him.

The messengers went to every town in the area of Ephraim and Manasseh. They went all the way to the area of Zebulun. But the people laughed at the messengers and made fun of them. But, some men from the areas of Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and went to Jerusalem. Also, in Judah God’s power united the people so that they would obey the king and his officials. In this way they obeyed the word of the Lord.

Ephraim and Manasseh Joseph’s sons. Since these were the largest family groups, Ephraim and Manasseh sometimes means the whole northern kingdom of Israel.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

Passover An important holiday for Jews. They eat a special meal on this day every year to remember that God freed them from slavery in Egypt in the time of Moses.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Most Holy Place The inside room where the Box of the Lord’s Agreement sat. It was also named the “Holy of Holies.” It was the spiritual place where God lived and was worshiped.
13 Many people came together at Jerusalem to celebrate the Festival of Unleavened Bread* in the second month. It was a very large crowd. 14 Those people took away the altars in Jerusalem that were for false gods. They also took away all the incense altars that were for false gods. They threw those altars into the Kidron Valley. 15 Then they killed the Passover lamb on the 14th day of the second month. The priests and the Levites felt ashamed. They made themselves ready for holy service. The priests and the Levites brought burnt offerings* into the Lord’s temple.*

16 They took their regular places in the temple the way the law of Moses, the man of God,* said. The Levites gave the blood to the priests. Then the priests sprinkled the blood on the altar.*

17 There were many people in the group that had not made themselves ready for holy service, so they were not permitted to kill the Passover lambs. That is why the Levites were responsible for killing the Passover lambs for every person who was not clean. The Levites made each lamb holy for the Lord.

18–19 Many people from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun had not prepared themselves in the right way for the Passover* Festival. They did not celebrate the Passover the right way, like the law of Moses says. But Hezekiah prayed for those people. So Hezekiah said this prayer, “Lord God, you are good. These people truly wanted to worship you in the right way, but they did not make themselves clean like the law says. Please forgive those people. You are the God that our ancestors* obeyed. Forgive, even if someone did not make himself clean like the rules of the Most Holy Place* say.”

20 The Lord listened to King Hezekiah’s prayer. The Lord forgave the people. 21 The children of Israel at Jerusalem celebrated the Festival of Unleavened Bread* for seven days. They were very happy. The Levites and the priests gave praise to the Lord every day with all their strength. 22 King Hezekiah encouraged all the Levites that understood very well how to do the service of the Lord. The people celebrated the Festival for seven days and offered fellowship offerings. They gave thanks and praise to the Lord God of their ancestors.*

23 All the people agreed to stay seven more days. They were joyful as they celebrated the Passover* for seven more days. 24 Hezekiah king of Judah gave 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep to the assembly to kill and eat. The leaders gave 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep to the assembly. Many priests prepared themselves for holy service.

25 All the assembly of Judah, the priests, the Levites, all the assembly that came from Israel, and the travelers that came from Israel and moved to Judah—all those people were very happy. 26 So there was much joy in Jerusalem. There was not anything like this celebration since the time of Solomon son of David king of Israel. 27 The priests and the Levites stood up and asked the Lord to bless the people. God heard them. Their prayer came up to the Lord’s holy home in heaven.

King Hezekiah Makes Improvements

31 The Passover* celebration was finished. The people of Israel that were in Jerusalem for Passover went out to the towns of Judah. Then they smashed the stone idols that were in those towns. Those stone idols were used to worship false gods. Those ancestors* literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from. Most Holy Place The inside room where the Box of the Lord’s Agreement sat. It is also named the “Holy of Holies.” It is the spiritual place where God lives and is worshiped. Asherah Poles Poles used to honor the goddess Asherah. People thought she could help them have many children.
people also cut down the Asherah Poles.* And they destroyed the high places* and the altars* all through the areas of Judah and Benjamin. The people did the same things in the area of Ephraim and Manasseh. The people did these things until they destroyed all the things used for worshiping the false gods. Then all the Israelites went back home to their own towns.

2The priests and Levites had been divided into groups and each group had its own special job to do. So King Hezekiah told these groups to begin doing their jobs again. So the priests and Levites again had the job of offering the burnt offerings* and the fellowship offerings. And they had the job of serving in the temple and singing and praising God by the doors to the Lord’s house.*

3Hezekiah gave some of his own animals to be offered as the burnt offerings. These animals were used for the daily burnt offerings that were given each morning and each evening. These animals were offered on the Sabbath days,* during the New Moon* Festivals and the other Special Meetings.* This was done as it is written in the Lord’s law.

4The people were supposed to give a part of their crops and things to the priests and Levites. So Hezekiah commanded the people living in Jerusalem to give them their share. In that way, the priests and Levites could spend all of their time doing what the Law told them to do.

5People all around the country heard about this command. So the people of Israel gave the first part of their harvest of grain, grapes, oil, honey, and all the things they grew in their fields. They brought one tenth of all these many things. 6The men of Israel and Judah living in the towns of Judah also brought one tenth of their cattle and sheep. They also brought one tenth of the things that were put in a special place that was only for the Lord. All these things they brought to the Lord their God. They put all these things in piles.

7The people began to bring those things in the third month (May/June) and they finished bringing the collection in the seventh month (September/October). 8When Hezekiah and the leaders came, they saw the piles of things that were collected. They praised the Lord and his people, the people of Israel.

9Then Hezekiah asked the priests and the Levites about the piles of things. 10Azariah the high priest from Zadok’s family said to Hezekiah, “From the time that the people started bringing the offerings into the Lord’s house, we have had plenty to eat. We have eaten until we are full and there is still plenty left over! The Lord has really blessed his people. That is why we have so much left over.”

11Then Hezekiah commanded the priests to make storerooms ready in the Lord’s temple.* So this was done. 12Then the priests brought the offerings, tithes,* and other things that were to be given only to the Lord. All those things collected were put in the storerooms in the temple. Conaniah the Levite was in charge of all those things that were collected. Shimei was second in charge of those things. Shimei was Conaniah’s brother. 13Conaniah and his brother Shimei were supervisors of these men: Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismakiah, Mahath, and Benaiah. Hezekiah the king and Azariah the official in charge of God’s temple chose those men. 14Kore was in charge of the offerings that the people freely gave to God. He was responsible for giving out the collections that were given to the Lord. And he was responsible for giving out the gifts that were made holy for the Lord. Kore was the gatekeeper at the East Gate. His father’s name was Innah the Levite. 15Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah

---

Notes:

- high places Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.
- altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.
- burnt offering(s) Gifts to God. Usually these were animals that were killed and completely burned on the altar.
- Lord’s house Or “Lord’s Camp;” that is, the courtyard of the temple in Jerusalem.
- Sabbath days Special days of rest and worship for the Jews. Usually this means Saturday.
- New Moon The first day of the Hebrew month. There were special meetings on these days when the people shared fellowship offerings as part of their worship to God.
- Special Meetings Holidays such as Passover. Many of these holidays were at the time of the full moon.

---

Glossary:

- temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
- tithes One tenth of a person’s crops or animals.
helped Kore. Those men served faithfully in the towns where the priests were living. They gave the collection of things to their relatives in each group of priests. They gave the same things to the more important people and to the less important. These men also gave the collection of things to the males three years old and older that had their names in the Levite family histories. All these males were to enter the Lord’s temple for daily service to do the things they were responsible to do. Each group of Levites had their own responsibility. The priests were given their part of the collection. This was done by families, in the way they were listed in the family histories. The Levites 20 years old and older were given their part of the collection. This was done by their responsibilities and by their groups. The Levites’ babies, wives, sons and daughters also got part of the collection. This was done for all the Levites who were listed in the family histories. This was because the Levites were faithful to always keep themselves holy and ready for service. Some of Aaron’s descendants, the priests, had some farm fields near the towns where the Levites were living. And some of Aaron’s descendants were also living in the towns. Men were chosen by name in each of those towns to give part of the collection to these descendants of Aaron. Males and all those named in the family histories of the Levites got part of the collection.

So King Hezekiah did those good things in all Judah. He did what was good and right and faithful before the Lord his God. He had success in every work he began—the service of God’s temple and in obeying the law and commands, and in following his God. Hezekiah did all these things with all his heart.

The King of Assyria Troubles Hezekiah

After all these things that Hezekiah had faithfully done happened, Sennacherib king of Assyria came to attack the country of Judah. Sennacherib and his army camped outside the fortresses. He did this so he could make plans to defeat those towns. Sennacherib wanted to win those towns for himself. Hezekiah knew that Sennacherib came to Jerusalem to attack it. Then Hezekiah talked to his officials and army officers. They all agreed to stop the waters of the water springs outside the city. Those officials and army officers helped Hezekiah. Many people came together and stopped all the springs and the stream that flowed through the middle of the country. They said, “The king of Assyria will not find much water when he comes here!” Hezekiah made Jerusalem stronger. This is how he did it: He built again all the parts of the wall that were broken down. He built towers on the wall. He also built another wall outside the first wall. He built again the strong places on the east side of the old part of Jerusalem. He made many weapons and shields. Hezekiah chose officers of war to be in charge of the people. He met with these officers at the open place near the city gate. Hezekiah talked to those officers and encouraged them. He said, “Be strong and brave. Don’t be afraid or worry about the king of Assyria or the large army with him. There is a greater power with us than the king of Assyria has with him! The king of Assyria only has men. But we have the Lord our God with us! Our God will help us. He will fight our battles!” So Hezekiah king of Judah encouraged the people and made them feel stronger.

Sennacherib king of Assyria and all his army were camped near the town of Lachish so they could defeat it. Then Sennacherib sent his officers to Hezekiah king of Judah and to all the people of Judah in Jerusalem. Sennacherib’s officers had a message for Hezekiah and all the people in Jerusalem. They said, “Sennacherib king of Assyria says this: ‘What do you trust in that makes you stay under attack in Jerusalem? Hezekiah is fooling you. You are being tricked into staying in Jerusalem so you will die from hunger and thirst. Hezekiah says to you, “The Lord our God will save us from the king of Assyria.”

12Hezekiah himself took away the Lord’s high places* and altars.* He told you people of Judah and Jerusalem that you must worship and burn incense* on only one altar. 13Of course, you know what my ancestors* and I have done to all the peoples in other countries. The gods of the other countries could not save their people. Those gods could not stop me from destroying their people. 14My ancestors destroyed those countries. There is no god that can stop me from destroying his people. So you think your god can save you from me? 15Do not let Hezekiah fool you or trick you. Don’t believe him because no god of any nation or kingdom has ever been able to keep his people safe from me or my ancestors. So don’t think your god can stop me from destroying you.”

16The officers of the king of Assyria said worse things against the Lord God and against Hezekiah, God’s servant. 17The king of Assyria also wrote letters that insulted the Lord God of Israel. This is what the king of Assyria said in those letters: “The gods of the other nations could not stop me from destroying their people. In the same way Hezekiah’s god won’t be able to stop me from destroying his people.” 18Then the king of Assyria’s officers shouted loudly to the people of Jerusalem that were on the city wall. Those officers used the Hebrew language when they shouted to the people on the wall. Those officers of the king of Assyria did this to make the people of Jerusalem afraid. They said those things so they could capture the city of Jerusalem. 19Those officers said bad things against the gods the people of the world worshiped. Those gods are only things people made with their hands. In the same way, those officers said the same bad things against the God of Jerusalem.

20Hezekiah the king and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz prayed about this problem. They prayed very loudly to heaven. 21Then the Lord sent an angel to the king of Assyria’s camp. That angel killed all the soldiers and the leaders and the officers in the Assyrian army. So the king of Assyria went back home to his own country, and his people were ashamed of him. He went into the temple of his god and some of his own sons killed him there with a sword. 22So the Lord saved Hezekiah and the people in Jerusalem from Sennacherib the king of Assyria and from all other people. The Lord cared for Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem. 23Many people brought gifts for the Lord to Jerusalem. They brought valuable things to Hezekiah king of Judah. From that time on, all the nations respected Hezekiah.

24It was in those days that Hezekiah became very sick and near death. He prayed to the Lord. The Lord spoke to Hezekiah and gave him a sign.* 25But Hezekiah’s heart was proud, so he did not give God thanks for God’s kindness. This is why God was angry at Hezekiah and at the people of Judah and Jerusalem. 26But Hezekiah and those people living in Jerusalem changed their hearts and lives. They became humble and stopped being proud. So the Lord’s anger didn’t come on them while Hezekiah was alive.

27Hezekiah had very much riches and honor. He made places to keep silver, gold, valuable jewels, spices, shields, and all kinds of things. 28Hezekiah had storage buildings for the grain, new wine, and oil that people sent to him. He had stalls for all the cattle and stalls for the sheep. 29Hezekiah also built many towns, and he got many flocks of sheep and cattle. God gave Hezekiah very much wealth. 30It was Hezekiah that stopped up the upper source of the waters of the Gihon spring in Jerusalem and made those waters flow straight down on the west side of David’s city. And Hezekiah was successful in everything he did.

The Lord spoke … sign See Isaiah 38:1–8 for the story about Hezekiah and how the Lord gave Hezekiah 15 more years to live.
One time the leaders of Babylon sent messengers to Hezekiah. Those messengers asked about a strange sign that had happened in the nations. When they came, God left Hezekiah alone to test him and to know everything that was in Hezekiah’s heart.

The others things that Hezekiah did and how he loved the Lord are written in the book, The Vision of the Isaiah Son of Amoz and in the book, The History of the Kings of Judah and Israel. Hezekiah died and was buried with his ancestors. The people buried Hezekiah on the hill where the graves of David’s ancestors are. All the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem gave honor to Hezekiah when he died. Manasseh became the new king in Hezekiah’s place. Manasseh was Hezekiah’s son.

Manasseh King of Judah

33 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king of Judah. He was king for 55 years in Jerusalem. Manasseh did the things that the Lord said were wrong. He followed the terrible and sinful ways of the nations that the Lord had forced out of the land before the people of Israel. Manasseh built again the high places that Hezekiah his father had broken down. Manasseh built altars for the Baal gods and made Asherah Poles. He bowed down to the constellations and worshiped those groups of stars. Manasseh built altars for false gods in the Lord’s temple. The Lord said about the temple, “My name will be in Jerusalem forever.” Manasseh built altars for all the groups of stars in the two yards of the Lord’s temple. The Lord said, “I will not continue to keep the Israelites off the land that I chose to give to their ancestors. But they must obey all the things I commanded them. The people of Israel must obey all the laws, rules, and commands that I gave Moses to give to them.”

Manasseh encouraged the people of Judah and the people living in Jerusalem to do wrong. They were worse than the nations that were in the land before the Israelites—and the Lord destroyed those people!

The Lord spoke to Manasseh and to his people, but they refused to listen. So the Lord brought commanders from the king of Assyria’s army to attack Judah. Those commanders captured Manasseh and made him their prisoner. They put hooks in him and brass chains on his hands and took him to the country of Babylon.

When these troubles came to him, Manasseh begged for help from the Lord his God. Manasseh humbled himself before the God of his ancestors. Manasseh prayed to God and begged God to help him. The Lord heard Manasseh’s begging and felt sorry for him. The Lord let him return to Jerusalem and a strange sign ... nations See Isaiah 38:1-8.
in Hezekiah’s heart See 2 Kings 20:12-19.
ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
high places Places for worshipping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.
Asherah Poles Poles used to honor the goddess Asherah. People thought she could help them have many children.
constellations Groups of stars. These are probably the twelve “signs of the Zodiac.” Some people thought the stars, not God, control their life.
temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
sacrifice A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
Valley of Ben Hinnom Later called “Gehenna,” this valley was west and south of Jerusalem. Many babies and young children were sacrificed to false gods in this valley.
soothsaying, divination, sorcery Different ways people try to do magic or tell what will happen in the future.
medium A person who tries to communicate with the spirits of dead people.
wizard A person who tries to use evil spirits to do magic.
to his throne. Then Manasseh knew that the Lord was the true God.

14 After that happened, Manasseh built an outer wall for the City of David.* This wall went to the west of Gihon Spring in Kidron Valley, to the entrance of the Fish Gate, and around the hill of Ophel.* He made the wall very tall. Then he put officers in all the fortresses* in Judah. 15 Manasseh took away the strange idol gods. He took the idol out from the Lord’s temple. He took away all the altars he had built on the temple hill, and in Jerusalem. Manasseh threw all those altars out of the city of Jerusalem. 16 Then he set up the Lord’s altar and offered fellowship offerings and thank offerings on it. Manasseh gave a command for all the people of Judah to serve the Lord God of Israel. 17 The people continued to offer sacrifices* at the high places,* but their sacrifices were only to the Lord their God.

18 The other things Manasseh did, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers* that spoke to him in the name of the Lord God of Israel, are all written in the book, The Official Records of the Kings of Israel. 19 Manasseh’s prayer and how God listened and felt sorry for him is written in The Book of the Seers. Also all of Manasseh’s sins and wrongs before he humbled himself, and the places where he built high places* and set up the Asherah Poles* are written in The Book of the Seers. 20 So Manasseh died and was buried with his ancestors.* The people buried Manasseh in his own king’s house. Amon became the new king in Manasseh’s place. Amon was Manasseh’s son.

Amon King of Judah

21 Amon was 22 years old when he became king of Judah. He was king for two years in Jerusalem. 22 Amon did evil things before the Lord. He did not do the things the Lord wanted him to do just like Manasseh his father. Amon offered sacrifices* for all the carved idols and statues that Manasseh his father made. Amon worshiped those idols. 23 Amon did not humble himself in front of the Lord like Manasseh his father humbled himself. But Amon sinned more and more. 24 Amon’s servants made plans against him. They killed Amon in his own house. 25 But the people of Judah killed all those servants that planned against King Amon. Then the people chose Josiah to be the new king. Josiah was Amon’s son.

Josiah King of Judah

34 Josiah was eight years old when he became king. He was king for 31 years in Jerusalem. 2 Josiah did what was right. He did the things the Lord wanted him to do. He did good things like David his ancestor.* Josiah did not turn from doing right things. 3 When Josiah was in his eighth year as king, he began to follow the God that David his ancestor followed. Josiah was still young when he began to obey God. When Josiah was in his twelfth year as king he began to destroy the high places*, the Asherah Poles,* and idols that were carved and idols that were made from molds from Judah and Jerusalem. 4 The people broke down the altars for the Baal gods. They did this in front of Josiah. Then Josiah cut down the incense* altars that stood high above the people. He broke the idols that were carved and the idols that were made from molds. He beat those idols into powder. Then Josiah sprinkled the powder on the graves of the people that had offered sacrifices* to the Baal gods. 5 Josiah even burned the bones of the priests that had served incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

the Baal gods on their own altars. This is how Josiah destroyed idols and idol worship from Judah and Jerusalem. Josiah did the same for the towns in the areas of Manasseh, Ephraim, Simeon, and all the way to Naphtali. He did the same for the ruins near all those towns.

Josiah broke down the altars and the Asherah Poles. He beat the idols into powder. He cut down all the incense altars used for Baal worship in all the country of Israel. Then Josiah went back to Jerusalem.

When Josiah was in his 18th year as king of Judah he sent Shaphan, Maaseiah, and Joah to build again and fix the temple of the Lord his God. Shaphan's father's name was Azaliah. Maaseiah was the city leader, and Joah’s father's name was Jehoahaz. Joah was the man that wrote about the things that happened. So Josiah commanded the temple to be fixed so he could make Judah and the temple clean.

Those men came to Hilkiah the high priest. They gave him the money that people gave for God’s temple. The Levite doorkeepers had collected this money from the people of Manasseh, Ephraim, and from all the Israelites that were left. They also collected this money from all Judah, Benjamin, and all the people living in Jerusalem.

Then the Levites paid the men that supervised the work on the Lord's temple. And the supervisors paid the workers that fixed the Lord’s temple.

They gave the money to carpenters and builders to buy large rocks that were already cut, and to buy wood. The wood was used to build again the buildings and to make beams for the buildings. In the past, the kings of Judah did not take care of the temple buildings. Those buildings had become old and ruined.

The men worked faithfully. Their supervisors were Jahath and Obadiah. Jahath and Obadiah were Levites, and they were descendants of Merari. Other supervisors were Zechariah and Meshullam. They were descendants of Kohath. The Levites that were skilled in playing instruments of music also supervised the laborers and all the other workers. Some Levites worked as secretaries, officials, and doorkeepers.

The Book of the Law Found

The Levites brought out the money that was in the Lord’s temple. At that time Hilkiah the priest found the Book of The Law of the Lord that was given through Moses. Hilkiah said to Shaphan the secretary, “I found the Book of The Law in the Lord’s house!” Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan.

Shaphan brought the book to King Josiah. Shaphan reported to the king, “Your servants are doing everything you told them to do. They got the money that was in the Lord’s temple and are paying the supervisors and the workers.” Then Shaphan said to King Josiah, “Hilkiah the priest gave a book to me.” Then Shaphan read from the book. He was in front of the king as he was reading.

When King Josiah heard the words of the law being read, he tore his clothes. Then the king gave a command to Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micah, Shaphan the secretary, and Asaiah the servant.

The king said, “Go, ask the Lord for me, and for the people that are left in Israel and in Judah. Ask about the words in the book that was found. The Lord is very angry with us because our ancestors did not obey the Lord’s word. They did not do all the things this book says to do!”

Hilkiah and the king’s servants went to Huldah the prophetess. Huldah was Shallum’s wife. Shallum was Tokhath’s son, Tokhath was Hasrah’s son. Hasrah took care of the king’s clothes. Huldah lived in the newer part of Jerusalem. Hilkiah and the king’s servants told Huldah what had happened.

Huldah said to them, “This is what the Lord God of Israel says: Tell King Josiah: This is what the Lord says, ‘I will bring trouble to this place and to the people Lord’s house Another name for the temple in Jerusalem.

tore ... clothes In Josiah’s time, tearing clothes showed that a person was very upset. Josiah was upset because his people had not obeyed the Lord’s laws.
ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
king’s servants “The king’s servants” is missing in the Hebrew.
prophetess A woman prophet, someone who spoke messages from God to his people. living here! I will bring all the terrible things that are written in the book that was read in front of the king of Judah. 25 I will do this because the people left me and burned incense to other gods. Those people made me angry because of all the bad things they have done. So I will pour out my anger on this place. Like a hot burning fire, my anger will not be put out!

26 But tell this to King Josiah of Judah. He sent you to ask the Lord: This is what the Lord God of Israel says about the words you heard a little while ago: 27 Josiah, you repented and you humbled yourself, and tore your clothes. You cried before me. So, because your heart was tender, 28 I will take you to be with your ancestors. You will go to your grave in peace. You won’t have to see any of the trouble that I will bring on this place and on the people living here.” Hilkiah and the king’s servants brought back this message to King Josiah.

29 Then King Josiah called for all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem to come and meet with him. 30 The king went up to the Lord’s temple. All the people from Judah, the people living in Jerusalem, the priests, the Levites, and all the people, both important and not important, were with Josiah. Josiah read to them all the words in the Book of the Agreement. That book was found in the Lord’s temple.

31 Then the king stood up in his place. He made an agreement with the Lord. He agreed to follow the Lord, and to obey the Lord’s commands, laws, and rules. Josiah agreed to obey with all his heart and soul. He agreed to obey the words of the Agreement written in this book. 32 Then Josiah made all the people in Jerusalem and Benjamin promise to accept the Agreement. The people of Jerusalem obeyed the Agreement of God, the God their ancestors obeyed. 33 The people of Israel had idols from many different countries. But Josiah destroyed all of those terrible idols. Josiah made all the people in Israel serve the Lord their God. And as long as Josiah was alive, the people continued to serve the Lord, the God of their ancestors.

Josiah Celebrates Passover

35 King Josiah celebrated the Passover to the Lord in Jerusalem. The Passover lamb was killed on the 14th day of the first month. Josiah chose the priests to do their duties. He encouraged the priests while they were serving in the Lord’s temple. Josiah spoke to the Levites who taught the people of Israel and who were made holy for service to the Lord. He said to those Levites: “Put the Holy Box in the temple that Solomon built. Solomon was David’s son. David was king of Israel. Do not carry the Holy Box from place to place on your shoulders again. Now serve the Lord your God. Serve God’s people, the people of Israel. Make yourselves ready for service in the temple by your family groups. Do the jobs that King David and his son King Solomon gave you to do. Stand in the Holy Place with a group of Levites. Do this for each different family group of the people so you can help them. Kill the Passover lambs, make yourselves holy to the Lord. Make the lambs ready for your brothers, the people of Israel. Do all the things the Lord commanded us to do. The Lord gave us all those commands through Moses.”

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

tore ... clothes In Josiah’s time, tearing clothes showed that a person was very upset. Josiah was upset because his people had not obeyed the Lord’s laws.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

take you to be with your ancestors This means that Josiah would die.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

Passover An important holiday for Jews. They eat a special meal on this day every year to remember that God freed them from slavery in Egypt in the time of Moses.

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement. The box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert. Also called “The Ark of the Covenant.”

Holy Place The room in the Holy Tent and in the temple that was used by the priests to do their daily service to God.
Josiah gave the people of Israel 30,000 sheep and goats to kill for the Passover sacrifices. He also gave 3,000 cattle to the people. All these animals were from King Josiah’s own animals. Josiah’s officials also freely gave animals and things to the people, to the priests, and Levites to use for the Passover. Hilkiah the high priest, Zechariah, and Jehiel were the officials in charge of the temple. They gave the priests 2,600 lambs and goats and 300 bulls for Passover sacrifices. Also Conaniah with Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah, Jeiel and Jozabad gave 500 sheep and goats and 500 bulls for Passover sacrifices to the Levites. Those men were leaders of the Levites.

When everything was ready for the Passover service to begin, the priests and Levites went to their places. This is what the king commanded. The Passover lambs were killed. Then the Levites skinned the animals and gave the blood to the priests. The priests sprinkled the blood on the altar. Then they gave the animals to be used for burnt offerings to the different family groups. This was done so the burnt offerings could be offered the way the Law of Moses taught. The Levites roasted the Passover sacrifices over the fire in the way they were commanded. And they boiled the holy offerings in pots, kettles, and pans. Then they quickly gave the meat to the people. After this was finished, the Levites got meat for themselves and for the priests that were descendants of Aaron. Those priests were kept very busy, working until it got dark. They worked hard burning the burnt offerings and the fat of the sacrifices. The Levites singers from Asaph’s family got in the places that King David had chosen for them to stand. They were: Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king’s prophet. The gatekeepers at each gate did not have to leave their places because their brother Levites made everything ready for them for the Passover.

So everything was done that day for the worship of the Lord as King Josiah commanded. The Passover was celebrated and the burnt offerings were offered on the Lord’s altar. The people of Israel that were there celebrated Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread for seven days. Passover hadn’t been celebrated like this since the time of Samuel the prophet! None of the kings of Israel had ever celebrated a Passover like this. King Josiah, the priests, the Levites, and the people of Judah and Israel that were there with all the people in Jerusalem celebrated the Passover in a very special way. They celebrated this Passover in Josiah’s 18th year as king.

The Death of Josiah

Josiah did all those good things for the temple. Later, Neco, the king of Egypt, led an army to fight against the town of Carchemish on the Euphrates River. King Josiah went out to fight against Neco. But Neco sent messengers to Josiah. They said, “King Josiah, this war is not your problem. I didn’t come to fight against you. I came to fight my enemies. God told me to hurry. God is on my side, so don’t bother me. If you fight against me, God will destroy you!” But Josiah didn’t go away. He decided to fight Neco, so he changed his appearance and went to fight the battle. Josiah refused to listen to what Neco said about God’s command. Josiah went to fight on the plain of Megiddo. Then King Josiah was shot by arrows while he was in the battle. He told his servants, “Take me away, I am wounded badly!”

So the servants took Josiah out of his chariot and put him in another chariot he had brought with him to the battle. They took Josiah to Jerusalem. King Josiah died in Jerusalem. Josiah was buried in the cemetery where his ancestors were buried. All the people of Judah and Jerusalem were very sad.

---

Passover An important holiday for Jews. They eat a special meal on this day every year to remember that God freed them from slavery in Egypt in the time of Moses.

burnt offering(s) Gifts to God. Usually these were animals that were killed and completely burned on the altar.

altar(s) A stone table or a stand for offering sacrifices.

Festival of Unleavened Bread The week after Passover. At Passover, Jewish people throw out all the yeast and eat only bread without yeast for seven days. This helps them remember the time they were leaving Egypt in a hurry and did not have time to make leavened bread.
because Josiah was dead. Jeremiah wrote and sang some funeral songs for Josiah. And the men and women singers still sing those sad songs today. It became something the people of Israel always do—they sing a sad song for Josiah. Those songs are written in the book, Funeral Songs.

26–27 All the other things that Josiah did while he was king, from beginning to the end of his rule, are written in the book, The History of the Kings of Israel and Judah. That book tells about his loyalty to the Lord and how he obeyed the Lord’s law.

Jehoahaz King of Judah

36 The people of Judah chose Jehoahaz to be the new king in Jerusalem. Jehoahaz was Josiah’s son. Jehoahaz was 23 years old when he became king of Judah. He was king in Jerusalem for three months. Then King Neco from Egypt made Jehoahaz a prisoner. Neco made the people of Judah pay 3 3/4 tons* of silver and 75 pounds* of gold for a fine. Neco chose Jehoahaz’s brother to be the new king of Judah and Jerusalem. Jehoahaz’s brother’s name was Eliakim. Then Neco gave Eliakim a new name. He named him Jehoiakim. But Neco took Jehoahaz to Egypt.

Jehoiakim King of Judah

5 Jehoiakim was 25 years old when he became the new king of Judah. He was king in Jerusalem for eleven years. Jehoiakim didn’t do the things the Lord wanted him to do. He sinned against the Lord. King Nebuchadnezzar from Babylon attacked Judah. He made Jehoiakim a prisoner and put bronze chains on him. Then Nebuchadnezzar took King Jehoiakim to Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar took some of the things from the Lord’s temple. He carried those things to Babylon and put them in his own house. The other things that Jehoiakim did, terrible sins he did and everything he was guilty of doing, are written in the book, The History of the Kings of Israel and Judah. Jehoiachin became the new king in Jehoiakim’s place. Jehoiachin was Jehoiakim’s son.

Jehoiachin King of Judah

9 Jehoiachin was 18 years old when he became king of Judah. He was king in Jerusalem for three months and ten days. He didn’t do the things the Lord wanted him to do. Jehoiachin sinned against the Lord. In the spring, King Nebuchadnezzar sent some servants to get Jehoiachin. They brought Jehoiachin and some valuable treasures from the Lord’s temple* to Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar chose Zedekiah to be the new king of Judah and Jerusalem. Zedekiah was one of Jehoiachin’s relatives.

Zedekiah King of Judah

11 Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king of Judah. He was king in Jerusalem for eleven years. Zedekiah didn’t do the things the Lord wanted him to do. Zedekiah sinned against the Lord. Jeremiah the prophet spoke messages from the Lord. But Zedekiah didn’t humble himself and obey the things Jeremiah said.

Jerusalem Is Destroyed

13 Zedekiah turned against King Nebuchadnezzar. In the past Nebuchadnezzar forced Zedekiah to make a promise to be faithful to Nebuchadnezzar. Zedekiah used God’s name and promised to be faithful to Nebuchadnezzar. But Zedekiah was very stubborn and refused to change his life and come back and obey the Lord God of Israel. Also, all the leaders of the priests and the leaders of the people of Judah sinned worse and became more unfaithful to the Lord. They followed the evil example of the other nations. Those leaders ruined the Lord’s temple.* The Lord had made the temple holy in Jerusalem. The Lord, the God of their ancestors,* sent prophets again and again to warn his people. The Lord did this because he felt sorry for them and for his temple. The Lord didn’t want to

---

3 3/4 tons Or, “3,400kg.” Literally, “100 talents.”

75 pounds Or, “34kg.” Literally, “1 talent.”

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
16But God’s people made fun of God’s prophets. They refused to listen to God’s prophets. They hated God’s messages. Finally God could not hold his anger any longer. God became angry at his people and there was nothing that could be done to stop it. 17So God brought the King of Babylon to attack the people of Judah and Jerusalem.* The king of Babylon killed the young men even when they were in the temple. He didn’t have mercy on the people of Judah and Jerusalem. The king of Babylon killed young and old people. He killed men and women. He killed sick and healthy people. God permitted Nebuchadnezzar to punish the people of Judah and Jerusalem. 18Nebuchadnezzar carried all the things in God’s temple away to Babylon. He took all the valuable things from the temple, from the king, and from the king’s officials. 19Nebuchadnezzar and his army burned the temple. They broke down Jerusalem’s wall and burned all the houses that belonged to the king and his officials. They took or destroyed every valuable thing in Jerusalem. 20Nebuchadnezzar took the people that were still alive back to Babylon and forced them to be slaves. Those people stayed in Babylon as slaves until the Persian kingdom defeated the kingdom of Babylon. 21And so the things the Lord told the people of Israel through the prophet Jeremiah really happened. The Lord had said through Jeremiah: “This place will be an empty wasteland for 70 years.* This will happen to make up for the Sabbath rests* that the people didn’t do.” 22During the first year that Cyrus* was king of Persia, the Lord caused Cyrus to make a special announcement. He did this so that the things the Lord promised through Jeremiah the prophet would really happen. Cyrus sent messengers to every place in his kingdom. They carried this message: 23Cyrus, King of Persia says: The Lord, the God of heaven, made me king over the whole earth. He gave me the responsibility of building a temple* for him in Jerusalem. Now, all of you who are God’s people are free to go to Jerusalem. And may the Lord your God be with you.

brought the King of Babylon ... Jerusalem  This happened in the year 586 B.C., when Jerusalem was finally destroyed by King Nebuchadnezzar from Babylon.

This place ... for 70 years  See Jer. 25:11; 29:10.

Sabbath rests  The Law said that every seventh year the land was not to be farmed, see Lev. 25:1–7.

first year ... Cyrus  That is, 539–538 B.C.

temple  The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
Cyrus Helps the Prisoners Return

During the first year* that Cyrus was king of Persia, the Lord encouraged Cyrus to make an announcement. Cyrus put that announcement in writing and had it read every place in his kingdom. This happened so that the Lord’s message that was spoken through Jeremiah* would truly happen. This is the announcement:

2“From Cyrus king of Persia:

The Lord, the God of heaven, gave all the kingdoms on earth to me. And the Lord chose me to build a temple for him at Jerusalem in the country of Judah. 3The Lord is the God of Israel, the God that is in Jerusalem. If any of God’s people are living among you, then I pray God will bless them. You must let them go to Jerusalem in the country of Judah. You must let them go build the Lord’s temple. 4And so in any place where there might be survivors* of Israel, the men in that place must support those survivors. Give those people silver, gold, cows, and other things. Give them gifts for God’s temple in Jerusalem.”

5So the family leaders from the family groups of Judah and Benjamin prepared to go up to Jerusalem. They were going to Jerusalem to build the Lord’s temple. Also, every person that God had encouraged got ready to go to Jerusalem. 6All their neighbors gave them many gifts. They gave them silver, gold, cows, and other expensive things. Their neighbors freely gave them all those things. 7Also, King Cyrus brought out the things that belonged in the Lord’s temple. Nebuchadnezzar had taken those things away from Jerusalem. Nebuchadnezzar had put those things in his temple where he kept his false gods. 8Cyrus king of Persia told the man that keeps his money to bring those things out. That man’s name was Mithredath. So Mithredath brought those things out to Sheshbazzar,* the leader of Judah.

9Those things from the Lord’s temple that Mithredath brought out:

- gold dishes 30
- silver dishes 1,000
- knives and pans 29
- gold bowls 30
- silver bowls like the gold bowls 410
- other dishes 1,000

10All together, there were 5,400 things made from gold and silver. Sheshbazzar* brought all these things with him when the prisoners left Babylon and went back to Jerusalem.

The List of the Prisoners That Returned

2These are the people of the province that came back from captivity. In the past, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took these people as prisoners to Babylon. These people came back to Jerusalem and Judah. Each person went back to his own town. 2These are the people who returned with Zerubbabel:* Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Sheshbazzar* This is probably the man named Zerubbabel, a name that means “Stranger in Babylon,” or “He left Babylon.” Sheshbazzar is probably his Aramaic name.

Zerubbabel He is also called Sheshbazzar.

*first year That is, 538 B.C.

*Lord’s message ... Jeremiah See Jer. 25:12–14.

*survivors People who escaped some disaster. Here this means the Jewish people who survived the destruction of Judah and Israel by its enemy armies.
Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, and Baanah. This is the list of names and numbers of men from Israel that came back:

3 The descendants of Parosh 2,172
4 the descendants of Shephatiah 372
5 the descendants of Arah 775
6 the descendants of Pahath Moab of the family of Jeshua and Joab 2,812
7 the descendants of Elam 1,254
8 the descendants of Zattu 945
9 the descendants of Zaccai 760
10 the descendants of Bani 642
11 the descendants of Bebai 623
12 the descendants of Azgad 1,222
13 the descendants of Adin 454
14 the descendants of Ater through the family of Hezekiah 98
15 the descendants of Bebai 323
16 the descendants of Jeshua and Kadmiel through the family of Hodaviah 74
17 the descendants of Hashum 223
18 the descendants of Hashum 95
19 from the town of Bethlehem 123
20 from the town of Netophah 56
21 from the town of Anathoth 128
22 from the town of Azmaveth 42
23 from the towns of Kiriath Jearim, Kephirah, and Beeroth 743
24 from the towns of Ramah and Geba 621
25 from the towns of Micmash and Ai 122
26 from the towns of Bethel and Ai 223
27 from the town of Nebo 52
28 from the town of Magbish 156
29 from the other town named Elam 1,254
30 from the town of Harim 320
31 from the towns of Lod, Hadid, and Ono 725
32 from the town of Jericho 345
33 from the town of Saba 3,630
34 These are the priests:
    the descendants of Jedaijah through the family of Jeshua 973
35 the descendants of the family of Jeshua 1,052
36 the descendants of Pashhur 1,247
37 the descendants of Harim 1,017
38 These are the people from the family group of Levi:
    the descendants of Jeshua and Kadmiel through the family of Hodaviah 74 39 These are the singers:
    the descendants of Asaph 128
40 These are the descendants of the temple gatekeepers:
    the descendants of Shallum, Ater, Talmon, Akkub, Hatita, and Shobai 139
41 These are the descendants of the special temple servants:
42 These are the descendants of Solomon’s servants:
    Sotai, Hassophereth, Peruda, Jaala, Darkon, Giddel, Shephatiah, Hattil, Pokereth Hazzebaim, and Ami
43 The temple servants and descendants of Solomon’s servants 392
44 Some people came to Jerusalem from these towns of Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon, and Immer. But these people could not prove that their families were from the family of Israel:
45 The descendants of Delaiah, Tobiah, and Nekoda 652
46 From the family of priests there were the descendants of:
    Hobaiah, Hakkoz, and Barzillai (If a man married a daughter of Barzillai from...
Gilead, that man was counted as a descendant of Barzillai.)

62 These people searched for their family histories, but they could not find them. Their names were not included in the list of priests. They could not prove that their ancestors were priests, so they could not serve as priests.

63 The governor ordered these people not to eat any of the holy food. They could not eat any of this food until there was a priest who could use the Urim and Thummim* to ask God what to do.

64–65 All together, there were 42,360 people in the group that came back. This is not counting their 7,337 men and women servants. They also had 200 men and women singers with them. 66–67 They had 736 horses, 245 mules, 435 camels, and 6,720 donkeys.

68 That group arrived at the Lord’s temple in Jerusalem. Then the family leaders gave their gifts for building the Lord’s temple. They would build the new temple in the same place as the temple that was destroyed.

69 Those people gave as much as they were able. These are the things those people gave for building the temple: 1,100 pounds* of gold, 3 tons* of silver, and 100 coats that priests wear.

70 So the priests, Levites, and some of the other people moved to Jerusalem and the area around it. This group included the temple singers, gatekeepers, and the temple servants. The other people of Israel settled in their own home towns.

Rebuilding the Altar

3 So, by the seventh month,* the people of Israel had moved back to their own home towns. At that time, all the people met together in Jerusalem. They were all united as one people. 2 Then Jeshua son of Jozadak and the priests with him, along with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and the people with him, built the altar of the God of Israel. Those people built the altar of the God of Israel so they could offer sacrifices on it. They built it just like it says in the Law of Moses. Moses was God’s special servant.

3 Those people were afraid of the other people living near them. But that didn’t stop them. They built the altar on its old foundation and offered burnt offerings on it to the Lord. They offered those sacrifices in the morning and in the evening. 4 Then they celebrated the Festival of Shelters* just like the Law of Moses said. They offered the right number of burnt offerings for each day of the festival. 5 After that, they began offering the continual burnt offerings each day, the offerings for the New Moon, and for all the other festivals and holidays that were commanded by the Lord. The people also began giving any other gifts they wanted to give to the Lord. 6 So, on the first day of the seventh month,* these people of Israel again began offering sacrifices to the Lord. This was done even though the temple had not been built again.

Rebuilding the Temple

7 Then those people who had come back from captivity gave money to the stonecutters and carpenters. And those people gave food, wine, and olive oil. They used these things to pay the people of Tyre and Sidon to bring cedar logs from Lebanon. Those people wanted to bring the logs in ships to the sea coast town of Joppa like Solomon did when he built the first temple. Cyrus king of Persia gave permission for them to do these things.

8 So, in the second month* of the second year after their arrival at the temple in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak began the work. Their brothers, the priests, Levites, and every person that came back to Jerusalem from captivity, began working with them. They chose Levites that were 20 years old and older to be the leaders in the building of the Lord’s temple.
9 These were the men who supervised the work of building the Lord’s temple: Jeshua and his sons, Kadmiel and his sons (the descendants of Judah), the sons of Henadad and their brothers, the Levites. 10 The builders finished laying the foundation for the Lord’s temple. When the foundation was finished, the priests put on their priests’ clothing. Then they got their trumpets. And the sons of Asaph got their cymbals. They all took their places to praise the Lord. This was done the way David, king of Israel, ordered in the past. 11 They sang the response songs,* Songs of Praise and Praise the Lord Because He is Good. His True Love Continues Forever. Then all the people cheered—they gave a loud shout and praised the Lord. They did this because the foundation of the Lord’s temple had been laid.

12 But many of the older priests, Levites, and family leaders cried. Why? Because those older people had seen the first temple—and they remembered how beautiful it was. They cried out loud when they saw the new temple. They cried while many of the other people were happy and shouting. 13 The sound could be heard far away. All those people made so much noise that no person could tell the difference between the shouts of joy and the crying.

Enemies Against Rebuilding the Temple

4 1–2 Many people living in the area were against the people of Judah and Benjamin. Those enemies heard that the people that had come from captivity were building a temple for the Lord God of Israel. So those enemies came to Zerubbabel and to the family leaders and said, “Let us help you build. We are the same as you, we ask your God for help. We have offered sacrifices to your God since the time Esarhaddon king of Assyria brought us here.”

3 But Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the other family leaders of Israel answered, “No, you people can’t help us build a temple for our God. Only we can build the temple for the Lord. He is the God of Israel. This is what King Cyrus, the king of Persia, commanded us to do.”

This made those people angry. So those people started bothering the Jews. They tried to discourage them and stop them from building the temple. 5 Those enemies hired government officials to work against the people of Judah. Those officials constantly did things to stop the Jews’ plans to build the temple. This continued the whole time that Cyrus was the king of Persia until Darius became the king of Persia.

6 Those enemies even wrote letters to the king of Persia trying to stop the Jews. They wrote a letter the year that Xerxes* became the king of Persia.

Enemies Against Rebuilding Jerusalem

7 And later, at the time Artaxerxes* became the new king of Persia, some of those men wrote another letter complaining about the Jews. The men who wrote the letter were: Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the other people in their group. They wrote the letter to King Artaxerxes in Aramaic* using the Aramaic way of writing.

8 Then Rehum the commanding officer and Shimshai the secretary wrote a letter against the people of Jerusalem. They wrote the letter to Artaxerxes* the king. This is what they wrote:

9 From Rehum the commanding officer and Shimshai the secretary, and from the judges and important officials over the men from Tripolis, Persia, Erech, and Babylon, and from the Elamite people from Susa, 10 and from the other people that the great and powerful Ashurbanipal moved to the city of Samaria and other places in the country west of the Euphrates River.

Xerxes  King of Persia about 485–465 B.C.
Artaxerxes  King of Persia about 465–424 B.C. He was the son of Xerxes.
Aramaic  The official language of the Babylonian empire.
Verse 8  Here the original language changes from Hebrew to Aramaic.

*response songs  Songs where one group (Levites) sang one part and the other group (the people) responded with another part. Here these are probably Psalms 111–118 and Psalm 136.
11This is the copy of the letter sent to King Artaxerxes:

From your servants living in the area west of the Euphrates River.

12King Artaxerxes, we wish to inform you that the Jews you sent away from you have come here. Those Jews are now trying to build that city again. Jerusalem is a bad city. The people in that city have always rebelled against other kings. Now those Jews are fixing the foundations and building the walls.

13Also, King Artaxerxes, you should know that if Jerusalem and its walls are built again, the people of Jerusalem will stop paying their taxes. They will stop sending money to honor you. They also will stop paying duty taxes. And the king will lose all that money.

14We have a responsibility to the king. We don’t want to see those things happen. So we are sending this letter to inform the king.

15King Artaxerxes, we suggest that you search the writings of the kings that ruled before you. You will see in those writings that Jerusalem has a long history of rebellion against kings. Jerusalem has been a place where rebellion and revolt has happened often.

16King Artaxerxes, we wish to inform you that if this city and its walls are built again, you will lose control of the area west of the Euphrates River.

17Then King Artaxerxes sent this answer:

To Rehum the commanding officer, Shimshai the secretary, and all the people with them living in Samaria and other places west of the Euphrates River.

18The letter you sent us has been translated and read to me. I gave an order for the writings of the kings before me to be searched. The writings were read, and we found out that Jerusalem has a long history of rebellion against kings. Jerusalem has been a place where rebellion and revolt has happened often.

19Jerusalem has had powerful kings ruling over it and over the whole area west of the Euphrates River. Taxes and money to honor kings, and duty taxes have been paid to those kings.

20Now, you must give an order for those men to stop work. That order must be given to keep Jerusalem from being built again until I say so. Be careful not to overlook this business. We should not let the building of Jerusalem continue. If that work continues, I will not get any more money from Jerusalem.

21So a copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes sent was read to Rehum, Shimshai the secretary, and the people with them. They went very quickly to the Jews in Jerusalem and forced the Jews to stop building.

The Work on the Temple Stopped

24So the work stopped on God’s temple in Jerusalem. The work did not continue until Darius’ second year as king of Persia.

At that time, the prophets Haggai and Zechariah son of Iddo began to prophesy in the name of God. They encouraged the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem. So Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak again started working on the temple in Jerusalem. All of God’s prophets were with them and were supporting the work. At that time Tattenai was the governor of the area west of worked stopped ... temple Here this refers to the time of Xerxes, when work on the temple was stopped, not to the time of Artaxerxes, when work on the walls around Jerusalem was stopped.

Darius' second year That is, 520 B.C.

Haggai See Haggai 1:1.

Zechariah son of Iddo See Zechariah 1:1.

prophesy To speak for God.
the Euphrates River. Tattenai, Shethar Bozenai, and the men with them went to Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the others that were building. Tattenai and the people with him asked Zerubbabel and the people with him, “Who gave you permission to build this temple again and fix it like new?” They also asked Zerubbabel, “What are the names of the men who are working on this building?”

But God was watching over the Jewish leaders. The builders didn’t have to stop working until a report could be sent to King Darius. They continued working until the king sent his answer back.

Tattenai the governor of the area west of the Euphrates River, Shethar Bozenai, and the important people with them sent a letter to King Darius. This is a copy of that letter:

To King Darius, greetings

King Darius, you should know that we went to the province of Judah. We went to the temple of the great God. The people in Judah are building that temple with large stones. They are putting big wooden timbers in the walls. The work is being done with much care and the people of Judah are working very hard. They are building very fast; it will soon be done.

We asked their leaders some questions about the work they are doing. We asked them, “Who gave you permission to build this temple again and fix it like new?”

We also asked for their names. We wanted to write down the names of their leaders so you would know who they are.

This is the answer they gave us:

“We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth. We are building again the temple that a great king of Israel built and finished many years ago. But our ancestors made the God of heaven angry. So God gave our ancestors to Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar destroyed this temple, and he forced the people to go to Babylon as prisoners. But, in the first year that Cyrus was king of Babylon, King Cyrus gave a special order for God’s temple to be built again. And Cyrus brought out from his false god’s temple in Babylon the gold and silver things that were taken from God’s temple in the past. Nebuchadnezzar took those things from the temple in Jerusalem and brought them to his false god’s temple in Babylon. Then King Cyrus gave those gold and silver things to Sheshbazzar. Cyrus chose Sheshbazzar to be governor.”

Then Cyrus said to Sheshbazzar, “Take these gold and silver things and put them back in the temple in Jerusalem. Build again God’s temple in the same place it was in the past.”

So Sheshbazzar came and built the foundations of God’s temple in Jerusalem. From that day until now the work has continued. But it is not yet finished.

Now, if it pleases the king, please search the official records of the king. See if it is true that King Cyrus gave an order to build again God’s temple in Jerusalem. And then, sir, please send us a letter to let us know what you have decided to do about this.

The Order of Darius

So King Darius gave an order to search the writings of the kings before him. Those writings were kept in Babylon in the same place the money was kept. A scroll was found in the fortress of Ecbatana. Ecbatana is in the province of Media. This is what was written on that scroll:

Of official Note: During Cyrus’ first year as king, Cyrus gave an order about the temple of God in Jerusalem. The order said:

Let the temple of God be built again. It will be a place to offer sacrifices. Let its foundations be built. The temple must...
The wall around it must have three rows of large stones and one row of big wood timbers. The cost of building the temple must be paid for from the king’s treasury. Also, the gold and silver things from God’s temple must be put back in their places. Nebuchadnezzar took those things from the temple in Jerusalem and brought them to Babylon. They must be put back in God’s temple.

Now then, I, Darius, order you Tattenai, governor of the area west of the Euphrates River, and Shethar Bozenai, and all the officials living in that province, to stay away from Jerusalem. Don’t bother the workers. Don’t try to stop the work on this temple of God. Let the Jewish governor and the Jewish leaders build it again. Let them build God’s temple again in the same place it was in the past.

Now I give this order. You must do these things for the Jewish leaders building God’s temple: The cost of the building must be fully paid from the king’s treasury. That money will come from the taxes collected from the provinces in the area west of the Euphrates River. Do these things quickly, so the work will not stop. Give those people anything they need. If they need young bulls, rams, or male lambs for sacrifices to the God of Heaven, give those things to them. If the priests of Jerusalem ask for wheat, salt, wine, and oil, then give those things to them every day without fail. Give those things to the Jewish priests so that they may offer sacrifices that please the God of Heaven. Give those things so that the priests may pray for me and my sons.

Also, I give this order: If any person changes this order, a wood beam must be pulled from that person’s house. Then the wooden beam will be pushed through that person’s body. And his house will be destroyed until it is only a pile of rocks.

God put his name there in Jerusalem. And I hope that God will defeat any king or other person that tries to change this order. If any person tries to destroy this temple in Jerusalem, I hope God will destroy that person.

I, Darius, have ordered it. This order must be obeyed quickly and completely!

Completion and Dedication of the Temple

So, Tattenai the governor of the area west of the Euphrates River, Shethar Bozenai, and the men with them obeyed King Darius’ order. Those men obeyed the order quickly and completely. So the Jewish elders (leaders) continued to build. And they were successful as Haggai the prophet and Zechariah son of Iddo encouraged them. Those people finished building the temple. This was done to obey the command of the God of Israel. It was also done to obey the orders that Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, the kings of Persia, gave. The temple was finished on the third day of the month of Adar. That was in the sixth year of the rule of King Darius.

Then the people of Israel celebrated the dedication of God’s temple with much happiness. The priests, the Levites, and all the other people that came back from captivity joined in the celebration.

This is the way they dedicated God’s temple: They offered 100 bulls, 200 rams, and 400 male lambs. And they offered twelve male goats for all Israel for a sin offering. That is one goat for each of the twelve family groups of Israel. Then they chose the priests in their groups and the Levites in their groups to serve in God’s temple in Jerusalem. They did these things just like it says in the Book of Moses.

third ... Adar That is, February-March. Some ancient writers have “23rd of Adar.” sixth ... Darius That is, 515 B.C. dedication, dedicated To give something for a special use, or to honor it for a special reason.
The Passover

19* On the fourteenth day of the first month,* those Jews that came back from captivity celebrated the Passover.* 20 The priests and Levites made themselves pure. They all made themselves clean and ready to celebrate the Passover. The Levites killed the Passover lamb for all the Jews that came back from captivity. They did that for their brothers the priests, and for themselves. 21 So all the people of Israel that came back from captivity ate the Passover meal. Other people washed themselves and made themselves pure from the unclean* things of the people living in that country. Those pure people also shared in the Passover meal. Those people did this so they could go to the Lord, the God of Israel, for help. 22 They celebrated the Festival of Unleavened Bread* with much joy for seven days. The Lord made them very happy because he had changed the attitude of the king of Assyria.* So the king of Assyria had helped them do the work on God’s temple.

Ezra Comes to Jerusalem

After these things,* during the rule of Artaxerxes* king of Persia, Ezra came to Jerusalem from Babylon. Ezra was the son of Seraiah. Seraiah was the son of Azariah. Azariah was the son of Hilkiah. 2Hilkiah was the son of Shallum. Shallum was the son of Zadok. Zadok was the son of Ahitub. 3Ahitub was the son of Amariah. Amariah was the son of Azariah. Azariah was the son of Meraioth.

4Meraioth was the son of Zerahiah. Zerahiah was the son of Uzzi. Uzzi was the son of Bukki. 5Bukki was the son of Abishua. Abishua was the son of Phinehas. Phinehas was the son of Eleazar. Eleazar was the son of Aaron the high priest.

6Ezra came to Jerusalem from Babylon. Ezra was a teacher.* He knew the Law of Moses very well. The Law of Moses was given by the Lord, the God of Israel. King Artaxerxes gave Ezra everything he asked for because the Lord was with Ezra. 7 Many people of Israel came with Ezra. Those were priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, and temple servants. Those people of Israel arrived in Jerusalem during the seventh year of King Artaxerxes. 8 Ezra arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month* of the seventh year that Artaxerxes was king. 9 Ezra and the group with him left Babylon on the first day of the first month. He arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month. The Lord God was with Ezra. 10 Ezra gave all his time and attention to studying and obeying the Law of the Lord. Ezra wanted to teach the rules and commandments of the Lord to the people of Israel. And he also wanted to help the people follow those laws in Israel.

King Artaxerxes’ Letter to Ezra

11 Ezra was a priest and teacher. He knew much about the commands and laws the Lord gave Israel. This is a copy of the letter King Artaxerxes* gave to Ezra the teacher:

12* From King Artaxerxes,

To Ezra the priest, a teacher of the Law of the God of Heaven:

Greetings! 13 I give this order: Any person, priest, or Levite from Israel living in my kingdom that wants to go with Ezra to Jerusalem, may go.

Verse 19 Here, the original language changes from Aramaic back to Hebrew.

first month That is, March-April, 515 B.C.

Passover Important holy day for Jews. They ate a special meal on this day every year to remember that God freed them from slavery in Egypt in the time of Moses.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable for worship. See Lev. 11–15 for the laws about uncleanness.

Festival of Unleavened Bread Same as Passover Festival, the most important holy day for Jews. On this day they ate a special meal with bread that was made without yeast.

king of Assyria This probably means Darius, the king of Persia.

After these things There is a time period of 58 years between Ezra 6 and Ezra 7. The story of Esther takes place at this time.

Artaxerxes King of Persia about 465–424 B.C. He was the son of Xerxes.
14Ezra, I and my seven advisers send you. You must go to Judah and Jerusalem. See how your people are doing in obeying the Law of your God. You have that Law with you.

15I and my advisers are giving gold and silver to the God of Israel. God lives in Jerusalem. You must take this gold and silver with you. 16You must also go through all the provinces of Babylonia. Collect the gifts from your people, from the priests, and from the Levites. Those gifts are for their God’s temple in Jerusalem.

17Use this money to buy bulls, rams, and male lambs. Buy the grain offerings and drink offerings that go with those sacrifices. Then sacrifice them on the altar in the temple of your God in Jerusalem. 18Then you and the other Jews may spend the silver and gold left over any way you want to. Use it in a way that is pleasing to your God. 19Take all those things to the God of Jerusalem. Those things are for the worship in the temple of your God. 20And you may get any other things that you need for the temple of your God. Use the money in the king’s treasury to buy anything you need.

21Now I, King Artaxerxes, give this order: I order all the men who keep the king’s money in the area west of the Euphrates River to give Ezra anything he wants. Ezra is a priest and a teacher of the Law of the God of Heaven. Do this quickly and completely. 22Give this much to Ezra: 3 3/4 tons of silver, 600 bushels of wheat, 600 gallons of wine, 600 gallons of olive oil, and as much salt as Ezra wants. 23Anything that the God of Heaven has ordered for Ezra to get, you must give to Ezra quickly and completely. Do those things for the temple of the God of Heaven. We don’t want God to be angry against my kingdom or against my sons.

24I want you men to know that it is against the law to make the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, temple servants, and other workers in God’s temple pay taxes. Those people don’t have to pay taxes, money to honor the king, or any duty taxes. 25Ezra, I give you the authority to use the wisdom you have from your God and choose civil and religious judges. These men will be judges for all the people living in the area west of the Euphrates River. They will judge all the people who know the laws of your God. And if someone doesn’t know those laws, those judges must teach him about those laws. 26Any person that doesn’t obey the law of your God, or the law of the king, must be punished. Depending on the crime, they must be punished with death, or sent away to another country, or their property taken away, or put into prison.

Ezra Praises God

27* Blessed is the Lord, the God of our ancestors. God put the idea into the king’s heart to honor the Lord’s temple in Jerusalem.

28The Lord showed his true love to me in front of the king, his advisers and the king’s important officials. The Lord God was with me, so I was brave. I gathered together the leaders of Israel to go with me to Jerusalem.

List of Leaders Returning With Ezra

These are the names of the family leaders and the other people that came with me (Ezra) to Jerusalem from Babylon. We came to Jerusalem during the rule of King Artaxerxes. Here is the list of names: 2From the descendants of Phinehas, was Gershom; from the descendants of Ithamar, was Daniel; from the descendants of Hattush; 3 from the descendants of Shecaniah, were the descendants of Parosh, Zechariah, and 150 other men; 4 from the descendants of Pahath Moab, were Eliehoenai son of Zerahiah, and 200 other men; 5 from the descendants of Zattu, were Shecaniah son of Jahaziel, and 300 other men; 6 from the descendants of Adin, were Ebed son of Jonathan, and 50 other men; 7 from the descendants of Elam, were Jeshiaiah son of Athaliah, and 70 other men; 8 from the descendants of Shephatiah, were Zebadiah son of Michael, and 80 other men; 9 from the descendants of Joab, were Obadiah son of Jehiel, and 218 other men; 10 from the descendants of Bani, were Shelomith son of Josiphiah, and 160 other men; 11 from the descendants of Bebai, were Zechariah son of Bebai, and 28 other men; 12 from the descendants of Azgad, were Johanan son of Hakkatan, and 110 other men; 13 from the last of the descendants of Adonikam were Eliphelet, Jeuel, Shemaiah, and 60 other men; 14 from the descendants of Bigvai, were Uthai, Zaccur, and 70 other men.

The Return to Jerusalem

I, (Ezra) called all those people to meet together at the river that flows toward Ahava. We camped at that place for three days. I learned there were priests in that group, but there were no Levites. 16 So I called these leaders: Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam. And I called Joiarib and Elnathan. (These men were teachers.) 17 I sent those men to Iddo. Iddo is the leader at the town of Casiphia. I told those men what to say to Iddo and his relatives. His relatives are the temple workers in Casiphia. I sent those men to Iddo so that Iddo might send us workers to serve in God’s temple. 18 Because God was with us, Iddo’s relatives sent these men to us: Sherebiah, a wise man from the descendants of Mahli (Mahli was one of Levi’s sons. Levi was one of Israel’s sons. They also sent his sons and brothers. In all there were 18 men from that family.).

There near the Ahava River, I (Ezra) announced that we all should fast.* We should fast to make ourselves humble before our God. We wanted to ask God for a safe trip for ourselves, our children, and for all the things we owned. 22 I was embarrassed to ask King Artaxerxes for soldiers and horsemen to protect us as we traveled. There were enemies on the road. The reason I was embarrassed to ask for protection was because of what we had told the king. We had said to King Artaxerxes, “Our God is with every person that trusts him. But God is very angry with every person that turns away from him.” 23 So we fasted and prayed to our God about our trip. He answered our prayers.

Then I chose twelve of the priests that were leaders. I chose Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers. 25 I weighed the silver, gold, and the other things that were given for God’s temple. I gave those things to the twelve priests I had chosen. King Artaxerxes, his advisers, his important officials, and all the people of Israel in Babylon gave those things for God’s temple. 26 I weighed all these things. There were 25 tons* of silver. There were also 3 3/4 tons* of silver dishes and things. There were 3 3/4 tons of gold. 27 And I gave them 20 gold bowls. The bowls weighed about 19 pounds.* And I gave them two beautiful dishes made from polished bronze that were as valuable as gold. 28 Then I said to those twelve priests: “You and these things are holy to the Lord. People gave this silver and gold to the Lord, fast To stop eating food for a special time of prayer and worship to God.

25 tons 22,100kg. Literally, “650 talents.”
3 3/4 tons Or, 3,400kg. Literally, “100 talents.”
19 pounds Or, about 8.5kg. Literally, “1,000 darics.”
the God of your ancestors. So guard these things carefully. You are responsible for them until you give them to the temple leaders in Jerusalem. You will give them to the leading Levites and the family leaders of Israel. They will weigh those things and put them in the rooms of the Lord’s temple in Jerusalem.

30 So the priests and Levites accepted the silver, gold, and special things that Ezra had weighed and given to them. They were told to take those things to God’s temple in Jerusalem.

31 On the twelfth day of the first month* we left the Ahava River and started toward Jerusalem. God was with us, and he protected us from enemies and robbers along the way. Then we arrived in Jerusalem. We rested there for three days. On the fourth day, we went to the temple and weighed the silver, gold, and special things. We gave those things to Meremoth son of Uriah the priest. Eleazar son of Phinehas was with Meremoth. And the Levites, Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binnui, were with them also.

34 We counted and weighed everything. Then we wrote down the total weight at that time.

35 Then the Jewish people that came back from captivity offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel. They offered twelve bulls for all Israel, 96 rams, 77 male lambs, and twelve male goats for a sin offering. All this was a burnt offering to the Lord.

36 Then those people gave the letter from King Artaxerxes to the royal satraps (leaders) and to the governors of the area west of the Euphrates River. Then those leaders gave their support to the people of Israel and to the temple.

Marriages to Non-Jewish People

After we finished all these things, the leaders of the people of Israel came to me. They said, “Ezra, the people of Israel have not kept themselves separate from the other people living around us. And the priests and the Levites have not kept themselves separate. The people of Israel are being influenced by the very bad things done by the Canaanite people, the Hittite people, the Perizzite people, the Jebusite people, the Ammonite people, the Moabite people, the people from Egypt, and the Amorite people. The people of Israel have married the people living around us. The people of Israel are supposed to be special. But now they are mixed with the other people living around them. The leaders and important officials of the people of Israel have set a bad example in this thing.”

3When I heard about this, I tore my robe and my coat {to show I was upset}. I pulled hair from my head and beard. I sat down, shocked and upset. Then every person that respected God’s Law shook with fear. They were afraid because the people of Israel that came back from captivity were not faithful to God. I was shocked and upset. I sat there until the evening sacrifice. And those people gathered around me.

5 Then, when it was time for the evening sacrifice, I got up. I had made myself look shameful while I was sitting there. My robe and coat were torn, and I fell on my knees with my hands spread out to the Lord my God. Then I prayed this prayer:

My God, I am too ashamed and embarrassed to look at you. I am ashamed because our sins are higher than our heads. Our guilt has reached all the way up to the heavens. We have been guilty of many, many sins from the days of our ancestors until now. We sinned so our kings and priests were punished. Foreign kings attacked us and took our people away. Those kings took away our wealth and made us ashamed. It is the same even today.

8 But now, finally, you have been kind to us. You have let a few of us escape captivity and come to live in this holy place. Lord, you gave us new life and relief from our slavery. We have been guilty of many, many sins from the days of our ancestors until now. We sinned so our kings and priests were punished. Foreign kings attacked us and took our people away. Those kings took away our wealth and made us ashamed. It is the same even today.

9 But now, finally, you have been kind to us. You have let a few of us escape captivity and come to live in this holy place. Lord, you gave us new life and relief from our slavery. Yes, we were slaves, but you would not let us be slaves forever. You were kind to us. You made the kings of Persia be kind to us. Your temple was ruined. But you gave us new life so we can build your temple again and fix it like new. God, you helped us build a wall to protect Judah and Jerusalem.

10 Now, God, what can we say to you? We have stopped obeying you again! God, you used your servants, the prophets, and gave those commands to us. You said: “The land you are going to live in and own is a ruined land. It has been ruined by the very bad things the people living there have done. Those people have done very bad things in every place in this land. They have made this land dirty with their sins. Don’t join those people! Don’t want the things they have! Obey my commands so you will be strong and enjoy the good things of the land. And then you can keep this land and give it to your children.”

So we know that we must not break your commands. We must not marry those people. Those people do very bad things. God, if we continue to marry those bad people, we know you will destroy us! Then there would be no person from the people of Israel left alive.

Lord, God of Israel, you are good! And you still have let some of us live. Yes, we are guilty! And because of our guilt, not one of us should be allowed to stand in front of you.

The People Confess Their Sin

Ezra was praying and confessing. He was crying and bowing down in front of God’s temple. While Ezra was doing that, a large group of the people of Israel—men, women, and children—gathered around him. Those people were also crying very hard.

Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel, one of the descendants of Elam, spoke to Ezra. Shecaniah said, “We have not been faithful to our God. We have married the people living around us. But, even though we have done this, there is still hope for Israel. Now let us make an agreement before our God to send away all those women and their children. We will do that to follow the advice of Ezra and the people who respect the laws of our God. We will obey God’s law. Get up Ezra, this is your responsibility, but we will support you. So be brave and do it.”

So Ezra got up. He made the leading priests, the Levites, and all the people of Israel promise to do what he said. Then Ezra went away from the front of God’s house. Ezra went to the room of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. While Ezra was there, he didn’t eat food, and he didn’t drink water. He did that because he was still very sad. He was very sad about the people of Israel that came back to Jerusalem. Then he sent a message to every place in Judah and Jerusalem. The message told all the Jewish people that had come back from captivity to meet together in Jerusalem. Any person that didn’t come to Jerusalem in three days would have to give up all his property. The important officials and the elders (leaders) made that decision. And that person could no longer be a member of the group of people where he was living.

So, in three days all the men from the families of Judah and Benjamin gathered in Jerusalem. And on the twentieth day of the ninth month, all the people met together in the temple yard. They were very upset because of the reason for the meeting and because of the heavy rain. Then Ezra the priest stood and said to those people, “You people have not been faithful to God. You have married foreign women. You have made Israel more guilty by doing that. Now, you people must confess to the Lord that you have sinned. The Lord is the God of your ancestors. You must obey the Lord’s command. Separate yourselves from the people living around you and from your foreign wives.”

Then the whole group that met together answered Ezra. They said with a loud voice: “Ezra, you are right! We must do the things you say. But there are many people here. And it is the rainy time of year, so we can’t stay outside. This problem can’t be solved in a day or two because we have sinned in a very bad way. Let our leaders decide for the whole group meeting here. Then let every person in our towns that married a foreign woman also come here.”

That is, November-December.
woman come here to Jerusalem at a planned time. Let them come here with the elders (leaders) and judges of their towns. Then God will stop being angry at us.”

15Only a few men were against this plan. They were Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah. Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite also were against that plan.

16So the people of Israel that came back to Jerusalem agreed to accept that plan. Ezra the priest chose men that were family leaders. He chose one man from each family group. Each man was chosen by name. On the first day of the tenth month* those men that were chosen sat down to study each of the cases.

17And by the first day of the first month,* they finished discussing all the men who had married foreign women.

List of Men Who Married Foreign Women

18These are the names of the descendants of the priests that married foreign women:

From the descendants of Jeshua son of Jozadak, and Jeshua’s brothers, these men: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah. 19All those promised to divorce their wives. And then each one of them offered a ram from the flock for a guilt offering. They did that because of their guilt.

20From the descendants of Immer, these men: Hanani and Zebadiah.

21From the descendants of Harim, these men: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uzziah.

22From the descendants of Pashhur, these men: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasah.

23Among the Levites, these are the men who married foreign women: Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (he is also called Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

24Among the singers, this is the man who had married a foreign woman: Eliashib.

Among the gatekeepers, these are the men who had married foreign women: Shallum, Telem, and Uri.

25Among the people of Israel, these men married foreign women:

From the descendants of Parosh, these men: Ramiah, Izziah, Malkijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malkijah, and Benaiiah.

26From the descendants of Elam, these men: Mattaniah, Zecariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth, and Elijah.

27From the descendants of Zattu, these men: Elioenai, Elieishib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad, and Aziza.

28From the descendants of Bebai, these men: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai.

29From the descendants of Bani, these men: Meshullam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal, and Jeremoth.

30From the descendants of Pahath Moab, these men: Adna, Kelal, Benaijah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui, and Manasseh.

31From the descendants of Harim, these men: Eliezer, Ishijah, Malkijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah.

32From the descendants of Hashum, these men: Mattenai, Matttattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremia, Manasseh, and Shimei.

33From the descendants of Bani, these men: Maada, Amram, Uel, Benaiah, Bedeiah, Keluhi, Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasu.

34From the descendants of Binnui, these men: Shimei, Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah, Macnebedai, Shashai, Sharai, Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah, Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph.

35From the descendants of Nebo, these men: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel, and Benaijah.

36All of those men had married foreign women. And some of them had children with those wives.
Nehemiah

Nehemiah’s Prayer

1 These are the words of Nehemiah. Nehemiah was the son of Hacaliah: I, Nehemiah, was in the capital city of Susa in the month of Kislev. This was in the 20th year* that Artaxerxes was king. 2While I was in Susa, one of my brothers named Hanani and some other men came from Judah. I asked them about the Jews living there. These were the Jews that had escaped captivity and still lived in Judah. And I also asked them about the city of Jerusalem.

3 Hanani and the men with him said, “Nehemiah, those Jews that escaped captivity and are in the land of Judah are in much trouble. Those people are having many problems and are full of shame. Why? Because the wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates have been burned with fire.”

4 When I heard those things about the people of Jerusalem and about the wall, I was very upset. I sat down and cried. I was very sad. I fasted* and prayed to the God of Heaven for several days. 5 Then I prayed this prayer:

   Lord, God of Heaven, you are the great and powerful God. You are the God who keeps his agreement of love with people that love you and obey your commands.

   6 Please open your eyes and ears and listen to the prayer your servant is praying before you day and night. I am praying for your servants, the people of Israel. I confess the sins we people of Israel have done against you. I am confessing that I have sinned against you and that the other people in my father’s family have sinned against you. 7 We people of Israel have been very bad to you. We have not obeyed the commands, teachings, and laws you gave your servant Moses.

   8 Please remember the teaching you gave your servant Moses. You said to him, “If you people of Israel are not faithful, I will force you to be scattered among the other nations. 9 But if you people of Israel come back to me and obey my commands, then this is what I will do: Even if your people have been forced to leave their homes and go to the ends of the earth, I will gather them from there. And I will bring them back to the place I have chosen to put my name.”

   10 The people of Israel are your servants and your people. You used your great power and rescued those people. 11 So Lord, please listen to my prayer. I am your servant. And please listen to the prayers of your servants that want to show respect for your name. Lord, you know I am the king’s wine servant.* So please help me today. Help me as I ask the king for help. Give me success and help me to be pleasing to the king.

The King Sends Nehemiah to Jerusalem

2 In the month of Nisan in the 20th year* of King Artaxerxes, some wine was brought to the king. I took the wine and gave it to the wine servant A very important job. This official was always close to the king and tasted the king’s wine to make sure no one was trying to poison the king.

Nisan ... 20th year This was March-April, 443 B.C.
king. I had never been sad when I was with the king, but now I was sad. So the king asked me, “Are you sick? Why do you look sad? I think your heart is full of sadness.”

Then I was very much afraid. But even though I was afraid, I said to the king, “May the king live forever! I am sad because the city where my ancestors are buried lies in ruins. And the gates of that city have been destroyed by fire.”

Then the king said to me, “What do you want me to do?”

Before I answered, I prayed to the God of Heaven. Then I answered the king, “If it would please the king, and if I have been good to you, please send me to Jerusalem, the city in Judah where my ancestors are buried. I want to go there and build that city again.”

The queen was sitting next to the king. The king and queen asked me, “How long will your trip take? When will you get back here?” The king was happy to send me, so I gave him a certain time. I also said to the king, “If it would please the king to do something else for me, let me ask. Please give me some letters to show the governors of the area west of the Euphrates River. I need these letters so those governors will give me permission to pass safely through their lands on my way to Judah. I also need lumber for the heavy wooden beams for the gates, the walls, the walls around the temple, and my house. So I need a letter from you to Asaph. Asaph is in charge of your forests.”

The king gave me the letters and everything I asked for. The king did that because God was kind to me.

So I went to the governors of the area west of the Euphrates River. I gave those governors the letters from the king. The king had also sent army officers and soldiers on horses with me. Sanballat and Tobiah were two men that heard about what I was doing. They were very upset and angry that someone had come to help the people of Israel.

Sanballat was from Horon and Tobiah is an Ammonite official.

Nehemiah Inspects Walls of Jerusalem

I went to Jerusalem and stayed there three days. Then at night I started out with a few men. I had not said anything to anyone about what God had put into my heart to do for Jerusalem. There were no horses with me except the horse I was riding. While it was dark I went out through the Valley Gate. I rode toward the Dragon Well and the Gate of the Ash Piles. I was inspecting the walls of Jerusalem that had been broken down. And the gates in the wall that had been burned with fire. Then I rode on toward the Fountain Gate and the King’s Pool. But as I got close, I could see there was not enough room for my horse to get through. So I went up the valley in the dark, inspecting the wall. Finally, I turned back and went back in through the Valley Gate. The officials and important people of Israel didn’t know where I had gone. They didn’t know what I was doing. I had not yet said anything to the Jews, the priests, the king’s family, the officials, or any of the other people that would be doing the work.

Then I said to all those people, “You can see the trouble we have here: Jerusalem is a pile of ruins, and its gates have been burned with fire. Come, let’s build the wall of Jerusalem again. Then we won’t be ashamed any more.” So I went up the valley in the dark, inspecting the wall. Finally, I turned back and went back in through the Valley Gate. The officials and important people of Israel didn’t know where I had gone. They didn’t know what I was doing. I had not yet said anything to the Jews, the priests, the king’s family, the officials, or any of the other people that would be doing the work.

I also told those people that God had been kind to me. I told them the things the king had said to me. Then those people answered, “Let’s start to work, now!” So we began this good work. But Sanballat from Horon, Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard that we were building again. They made fun of us in a very ugly way. They said, “What are you doing? Are you turning against the king?” But this is what I said to those men: “The God of Heaven will help us succeed. We are God’s servants and we will build this city again. And you can’t help us in this work. None of your family lived here in Jerusalem. You don’t own any of this land. You have no right to be in this place!”

ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

temple  The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
NEHEMIAH 3:1–17

Builders of the Wall

The name of the high priest was Eliashib. Eliashib and his brothers the priests went to work and built the Sheep Gate. They prayed and made that gate holy to the Lord. They set its doors in place in the wall. Those priests worked on the wall of Jerusalem as far as the Tower of the Hundred and the Tower of Hananel. They prayed and made their work holy to the Lord.

The men from Jericho built the wall next to the priests. And Zaccur son of a man named Imri built the wall next to the men of Jericho.

The sons of a man named Hassenaah built the Fish Gate. They set the beams in place. They put doors on the building. Then they put the locks and bolts on the doors.

Meremoth son of Uriah fixed the next section of the wall. (Uriah was the son of Hakkoz.)

Meshullam son of Berekiah fixed the next section of the wall. (Berekiah was the son of Meshezabel.)

Zadok son of Baana fixed the next section of the wall.

The men from Tekoa fixed the next section of the wall. But the leaders from Tekoa refused to work for Nehemiah, their governor.

Joiada and Meshullam fixed the Old Gate. Joiada is the son of Paseah and Meshullam is the son of Besodeiah. They set the beams in place. They put the doors on the hinges. Then they put the locks and bolts on the doors.

The men from Gibeon and Mizpah fixed the next section of the wall. A man named Melatiah from Gibeon and a man named Jadan from Meronoth did the work. Gibeon and Meronoth are places that are controlled by the governors of the area west of the Euphrates River.

Uzziel son of Harhaiah fixed the next section of the wall. Uzziel was a goldsmith.* Hananiah was one of the perfume makers. Those men built and fixed Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

Rephaiah son of Hur fixed the next section of the wall. Rephaiah was the governor of half of Jerusalem.

Jedaiah son of Harumaph fixed the next section of the wall. Jedaiah fixed the wall next to his own house. Hattush son of Hashabneiah fixed the next section. Malkijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath-Moab fixed the next section. Those men also fixed Oven Tower.

Shallum son of Hallohesh fixed the next section of the wall. His daughters helped him. Shallum was the governor of the other half of Jerusalem.

The Valley Gate was fixed by a man named Hanun and the people that live in the town of Zanoah. Those people built the Valley Gate. They put the doors on their hinges. Then they put the locks and bolts on the doors. They also fixed 500 yards* of the wall. They worked on the wall all the way to the Gate of Ash Piles.

Malkijah son of Recab fixed the Gate of Ash Piles. Malkijah was the governor of the district of Beth Hakkerem. He fixed that gate. He put the doors on the hinges. Then he put the locks and bolts on the doors.

Shallun son of Col-Hozeh fixed the Fountain Gate. Shallun was the governor of the district of Mizpah. He fixed that gate and put a roof over it. He put the doors on the hinges. Then he put the locks and bolts on the doors. Shallun also fixed the wall of the Pool of Siloam that is next to the King’s Garden. He fixed the wall all the way to the steps that go down from the City of David.*

Nehemiah son of Azbuk fixed the next section. This Nehemiah was the governor of half the district of Beth Zur. He made repairs up to a place that is across from the tombs of David. And he worked as far as the man-made pool and the House of Heroes.

The men from the family group of Levi fixed the next section. Those men from Levi worked under Rehum son of Bani. Hashabiah fixed the next section. Hashabiah was goldsmith A person that makes things from gold.

---

City of David The southeast and oldest part of the city of Jerusalem.

500 yards Literally, “1,000 cubits.”
NEHEMIAH 3:18–4:8

565 governor of half the district of Keilah. He made repairs for his own district.
18 Their brothers fixed the next section. They worked under Binnui son of Henadad. Binnui was the governor of the other half of the district of Keilah.
19 Ezer son of Jeshua fixed the next section. Ezer was governor of Mizpah. He fixed the section of wall from the room for weapons to the corner of the wall. 20 Baruch son of Zabbai fixed the next section. Baruch worked very hard and fixed the section of wall from the corner to the entrance to the house of Eliashib the high priest. 21 Meremoth son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, fixed the next section of wall from the entrance to Eliashib’s house to the end of that house. 22 The next section of walls was fixed by the priests that lived in that area.*
23 Benjamin and Hasshub fixed the wall in front of their own house. And Azariah son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, fixed the wall next to his house.
24 Binnui son of Henadad fixed the section of wall from Azariah’s house to the bend in the wall and then to the corner.
25 Palal son of Uzai worked across from the bend in the wall near the tower. This is the tower at the king’s upper house. That is near the courtyard of the king’s guard. Pedaiah son of Parosh worked next to Palal.
26 The temple servants lived on Ophel Hill. They fixed the next section all the way to the east side of the Water Gate and the tower near it.
27 The men from Tekoa fixed the rest of that section from the big tower all the way to the Ophel wall.
28 The priests fixed the section over the Horse Gate. Each priest fixed the wall in front of his own house. 29 Zadok son of Immer fixed the section in front of his house. Shemaiah son of Shecaniah fixed the next section. Shemaiah was the guard of the East Gate.
30 Hananiah son of Shelemiah and Hanun son of Zalaph fixed the rest of that section of wall. (Hanun was Zalaph’s sixth son.) Meshullam son of Berekiah fixed the section in front of his house. 31 Malkijah fixed the next section of wall all the way to the houses of the temple servants and the businessmen. That is across from the Inspection Gate. Malkijah fixed the section all the way to the room over the corner of the wall. Malkijah was a goldsmith.* 32 The goldsmiths and the businessmen fixed the section of wall between the room over the corner to the Sheep Gate.

Sanballat and Tobiah
4 Sanballat heard that we were building the wall of Jerusalem. He became very angry and upset. He started making fun of the Jews. 2 Sanballat talked with his friends and the army at Samaria. He said, “What are these weak Jews doing? Do they think we will leave them alone? Do they think they will offer sacrifices? Maybe they think they can finish building in only one day. They can’t bring stones back to life from these piles of trash and dirt. These are just piles of ashes and dirt!” 3 Tobiah the Ammonite was with Sanballat. Tobiah said, “What do these Jews think they are building? If even a small fox climbed up on it, he would break down their wall of stones!”
4 Nehemiah prayed to God. He said, “Our God, listen to our prayer. Those men hate us. Sanballat and Tobiah are insulting us. Make those bad things happen to them. Make them ashamed, like people taken away as prisoners.
5 Don’t take away their guilt or forgive the sins they have done in your sight. They have insulted and discouraged the builders.”
6 We built the wall of Jerusalem. We built the wall all the way around the city. But it was only half as tall as it should be. We did this much because the people worked with all their heart.
7 But Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the men from Ashdod were very angry. They heard that the people continued working on the walls of Jerusalem. They heard the people were fixing the holes in the wall.
8 So all those men got together and made plans against Jerusalem. They planned to stir up trouble against Jerusalem. They goldsmith A person that makes things from gold.

sacrifices(s) A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
planned to come and fight against the city. 9But we prayed to our God. And we put guards on the walls to watch day and night so we could be ready to meet those men. 10And so at that time, the people of Judah said, “The workers are becoming tired. There is too much dirt and trash in the way. We can’t continue to build the wall. 11And our enemies are saying, ‘Before the Jews know it or see us, we will be right there among them. We will kill them and that will stop the work.’”

12Then the Jews living among our enemies came and said this to us ten times, ‘Our enemies are all around us. They are everywhere we turn.’

13So I put some of the people behind the lowest places along the wall. And I put them by the holes in the wall. I put families together, with their swords, spears, and bows. 14I looked the whole situation over. Then I stood up and spoke to the important families, the officials, and the rest of the people. I said, “Don’t be afraid of our enemies. Remember our Master. The Lord is great and powerful! You must fight for your brothers, your sons, and your daughters! You must fight for your wives and your homes!”

15Then our enemies heard that we knew about their plans. They knew that God ruined their plans. So we all went back to work on the wall. Each person went back to his own place and did his part. 16From that day on, half of my men worked on the wall. The other half of my men were on guard, ready with spears, shields, bows, and armor. The army officers stood behind all the people of Judah that were building the wall. 17The builders and their helpers had their tools in one hand and a weapon in the other hand. 18Each of the builders wore his sword at his side as he worked. The man that blew the trumpet to warn the people stayed next to me. 19Then I spoke to the leading families, the officials, and the rest of the people. I said, “This is a very big job and we are spread out along the wall. We are far from one another. 20So, if you hear the trumpet, run to that place. We will all meet together there, and God will fight for us!”

21So we continued to work on the wall of Jerusalem, and half the men held spears. We worked from the first light of the morning till the stars came out at night.

22At that time I also said this to the people: “Every builder and his helper must stay inside Jerusalem at night. Then they can be guards at night and workers during the day.” 23So none of us took off our clothes—not me, not my brothers, not my men, and not the guards. Each of us had our weapon ready at all times, even when we went to get water.

Nehemiah Helps the Poor People 5Many of the [poor] people began to complain against their Jewish brothers. 2Some of them were saying, “We have many children. We must get some grain if we are going to eat and stay alive!” 3Other people were saying, “This is a time of famine.* We are having to mortgage* our fields, vineyards, and homes to get grain. 4And still other people were saying, “We have to pay the king’s tax on our fields and vineyards. But we can’t afford to pay, so we are having to borrow money to pay the tax. 5Look at those rich people! We are as good as they are. Our sons are as good as their sons. But we will have to sell our sons and daughters as slaves. Some of us have already had to sell our daughters as slaves! There is nothing we can do! We already lost our fields and vineyards! Other people own them now!” 6When I heard their complaints, I became very angry. 7I calmed myself down and then I went to the rich families and the officials. I told them, “You are forcing your own people to pay interest on the money you loan them! You must stop doing that!” Then I called for all the people to meet together. 8And I said to those people, “Our Jewish brothers were sold as slaves to people in other countries. We did our best to buy them back and make them free. And now, you are selling them like slaves again!”

famine A time when there is not enough rain for crops to grow. People and animals die without enough food or water.
mortgage A way to borrow money. People use things, land, or houses as a promise to pay their loan. If they fail to pay the loan, then the lender can take their property.
Those rich people and officials kept quiet. They could not find anything to say. So I continued speaking. I said, “What you people are doing is not right! You know that you should fear and respect God. You should not do the shameful things other people do! My men, my brothers, and I are also lending money and grain to the people. But let’s stop forcing them to pay interest on those loans! You must give their fields, vineyards, olive fields, and houses back to them, right now! And you must give back the interest you charged them! You charged them one per cent for the money, grain, new wine, and oil that you loaned them. You must give that back to them! Then the rich people and the officials said, “We will give it back. And we won’t demand anything more from them. Nehemiah, we will do as you say.”

Then I called the priests. I made the rich people and the officials promise to God that they would do what they said. Then I shook out the folds of my clothes. I said, “God will do the same thing to every person that doesn’t keep his promise. God will shake them out of their houses and they will lose everything they worked for! That person will lose everything!”

I finished saying these things and all those people agreed. They all said, “Amen!” And they praised the Lord. And so the people did as they had promised.

And also, during the whole time that I was appointed to be governor in the land of Judah, neither I nor my brothers ate the food that was allowed for the governor. I never forced the people to pay those taxes to buy my food. I was governor from the 20th year until the 32nd year that Artaxerxes was king. I was governor of Judah for twelve years. But the governors that ruled before me made life hard for the people. Those governors forced every person to pay 1 pound of silver. They also made those people give them food and wine. The leaders under those governors also ruled over the people and made life even harder. But I respected and feared God, so I didn’t do things like that. I worked hard at building the wall of Jerusalem. All my men gathered there to work on the wall. We didn’t take any land from anyone!

Also, I regularly fed 150 Jews that were always welcome at my table. And I fed the people that came to us from the nations around us. Every day I fixed this much food for the people that ate at my table: one cow, six good sheep, and different kinds of birds. And every ten days all kinds of wine were brought to my table. Yet, I never demanded the food that was allowed for the governor. I never forced the people to pay those taxes to pay for my food. I knew that the work the people were doing was very hard. God, remember all the good I have done for these people.

More Problems

Then Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and our other enemies heard that I had built the wall. We fixed all the holes in the wall. But we had not yet put the doors in the gates. So Sanballat and Geshem sent me this message: “Come Nehemiah, let’s meet together. We can meet in the town of Kephirim on the plain of Ono.” But they were planning to hurt me.

So I sent messengers to them with this answer: “I am doing important work, so I can’t come down. I don’t want the work to stop just so I can come down and meet with you.”

Sanballat and Geshem sent the same message to me four times. And I sent back the same answer to them each time. Then, the fifth time, Sanballat sent his helper to me with the same message. And he had a letter in his hand that was not sealed. This is what that letter said: “There is a rumor going around. People are talking about it everywhere. And, by the way, Geshem says it is true. People are saying that you and the Jews are planning to turn against the king. That is why you are building the wall of Jerusalem. People are also saying that you will be the new king of the Jews. And the rumor is that you have chosen prophets to announce this about you in Jerusalem: ‘There is a king in Judah!’

20th year ... king  This was from 444–432 B.C.
1 pound  Literally, “40 shekels.”
“Now I warn you, Nehemiah, King Artaxerxes will hear about this. So come, let’s meet and talk about this together.”

8So I sent this answer back to Sanballat: “Nothing you are saying is happening. You are just making all that up in your own head.”

9Our enemies were only trying to make us afraid. They are thinking to themselves, “The Jews will be afraid and too weak to keep on working. Then the wall won’t be finished.”

But I prayed, “God, make me strong.”

10One day I went to the house of a man named Shemaiah son of Delaiah. Delaiah was the son of Mehetabel. Shemaiah had to stay in his house. Shemaiah said,

“Nehemiah, let’s meet in God’s temple.* Let’s go inside the Holy Place* and lock the doors. Men are coming to kill you. Tonight they are coming to kill you.”

11But I said to Shemaiah, “Should a man like me run away? You know that an ordinary man like me can’t go into the Holy Place without being put to death! I won’t go!”

12I knew that God had not sent Shemaiah. I knew that he had preached against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had paid him to do that.

13They hired Shemaiah to scare me and make me sin* by going into that part of the temple. They were planning those bad things against me so they could embarrass me.

14God, please remember Tobiah and Sanballat. Remember the bad things they have done. Also remember the woman prophet Noadiah and the other prophets that have been trying to scare me.

The Wall Is Finished

15So the wall of Jerusalem was finished on the 25th day of the month of Elul.* It had taken 52 days to finish building the wall.

16Then all our enemies heard that we had completed the wall. And all the nations around us saw that it was finished. So they lost their courage. Why? Because they understood that this work had been done with the help of our God.

17Also, in those days after the wall had been completed, the rich people of Judah were sending many letters to Tobiah. And Tobiah was answering their letters. 18They sent those letters because many people in Judah had promised to be loyal to him. The reason for this is because Tobiah was son-in-law to Shecaniah son of Arah. And Tobiah’s son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam. Meshullam is the son of Berekiah. And in the past, those people had made a special promise to Tobiah. So those people kept telling me how good Tobiah was. And they kept telling Tobiah about the things I was doing. Tobiah kept sending me letters to make me afraid.

7So, we finished building the wall. Then we put the doors in the gates. Then we chose the men that would guard the gates. And we chose the men to sing in the temple* and help the priests.* Next, I put my brother Hanani in charge of Jerusalem. I chose another man named Hananiah to be the commander of the fort. I picked Hanani because he was a very honest man and he feared God more than most men do. Then I said to Hanani and Hananiah, “Each day you must wait until the sun has been up for several hours before you open the gates of Jerusalem. And you must shut and lock the gates before the sun goes down. Also choose people that live in Jerusalem as guards. Put some of those people at special places to guard the city. And put the other people near their own houses.”

The List of Captives That Returned

4Now the city was large and there was plenty of room. But there were few people in it and the houses had not yet been built again.

5So my God put it in my heart to have all the people meet together. I called together all the important people, the officials, and the common people. I did this so I could make a list of all the families. I found the family lists* of the people that had been the first to

temple  The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
Holy Place  Literally, “palace.” Only priests were allowed to go into this part of the temple.
Elul  This was August-September, 443 B.C. family lists  See Ezra 2. return from captivity. This is what I found written there:

6 These are the people of the province that came back from captivity. In the past, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took these people as prisoners to Babylon. These people came back to Jerusalem and Judah. Each person went to his own town. These people returned with Zerubbabel: Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah. This is the list of names and numbers of men from Israel that came back:

8 The descendants* of Parosh 2,172
9 the descendants of Shephatiah 372
10 the descendants of Arah 652
11 the descendants of Pahath Moab of the family line of Jeshua and Joab 2,818
12 the descendants of Elam 1,254
13 the descendants of Zattu 845
14 the descendants of Zaccai 760
15 the descendants of Binnui 648
16 the descendants of Bebai 628
17 the descendants of Azgad 2,322
18 the descendants of Adonikam 667
19 the descendants of Bigvai 2,067
20 the descendants of Adin 655
21 the descendants of Ater through the family of Hezekiah 98
22 the descendants of Hashum 328
23 the descendants of Bezai 324
24 the descendants of Hariph 112
25 the descendants of Gibeon 95
26 from the towns of Bethlehem and Netophah 188
27 from the town of Anathoth 128
28 from the town of Beth Azmaveth 42
29 from the towns of Kiriath Jearim, Kephirah, and Beeroth 743
30 from the towns of Ramah and Geba 621
31 from the town of Micmasch 122
32 from the towns of Bethel and Ai 123
33 from the other town of Nebo 52
34 from the other town of Elam 1,254
35 from the town of Harim 320

36 from the town of Jericho 345
37 from the towns of Lod, Hadid, and Ono 721
38 from the town of Senah 3,930

39 These are the priests:
   The descendants* of Jedaiah through the family of Jeshua 973
   the descendants of Immer 1,052
   the descendants of Pashhur 1,247
   the descendants of Harim 1,017

40 These are the people from the family group of Levi:
   The descendants* of Jeshua through Kadmiel through the family of Hodeiah* 74

41 These are the singers:
   The descendants* of Asaph 148

42 These are the gatekeepers:
   The descendants* of Shallum, Ater, Talmon, Akkub, Hatita, and Shobai 138

43 These are the special temple servants:

44 These are the descendants* of the servants of Solomon:
   Sotai, Sophereth, Peri, Jaala, Darkon, Giddel, Shephatiah, Hattil, Pokereth Hazzebaim, and Amon.
   The temple servants and the descendants of Solomon’s servants 392

---

Zerubbabel He is also called Sheshbazzar.

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.

Hodeiah Or, “Hodaviah.”
NEHEMIAH 7:61–8:6

61 Some people came to Jerusalem from these towns of Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addison, and Immer. But these people could not prove that their families really came from the people of Israel:

62 The descendants* of Delaiah, Tobiah and Nekoda 642
63 From the family of priests there were the descendants* of:

Hobaiah, Hakkoz, and Barzillai
(If a man married a daughter of Barzillai from Gilead, that man was counted as a descendant of Barzillai.)

64 These people searched for their family histories, but they could not find them. They could not prove that their ancestors* were priests, so they could serve as priests. Their names were not included in the list of priests.
65 The governor ordered these people to not eat any of the most holy food. They could not eat any of this food until the high priest could use the Urim and Thummim* to ask God what to do.
66–67 All together, there were 42,360 people in the group that came back. This is not counting their 7,337 men and women servants. They also had 245 men and women singers with them. 68–69 They had 736 horses, 245 mules, 435 camels, and 6,720 donkeys.

70 Some of the family leaders gave money to support the work. The governor gave 19 pounds* of gold to the treasury. He also gave 50 bowls and 530 pieces of clothing for the priests. 71 The family leaders gave 375 pounds* of gold to the treasury to support the work. And they also gave 1 1/3 tons* of silver. 72 And all together the other people gave 375 pounds* of gold, 1 1/3 tons* of silver, and 67 pieces of clothing for the priests.
73 So, the priests, the people from the family group of Levi, the gatekeepers, the singers, and the temple servants settled down in their own towns. And all the other people of Israel settled down in their own towns. And by the seventh month* of the year all the people of Israel had settled down in their own towns.

Ezra Reads the Law

8 So all the people of Israel met together in the seventh month* of the year. They were together and in agreement just as if they were one man. They all met together in the open place in front of the Water Gate. All those people asked Ezra the teacher to bring out the Book of the Law of Moses. That is the Law that the Lord had given to the people of Israel.
2 So Ezra the priest brought the Law before those people that had met together. This was on the first day of the month.* It was the seventh month of the year. At that meeting were men and women, and anyone old enough to listen and understand. 3 Ezra read in a loud voice from the Book of the Law from early morning until noon. Ezra was facing the open place that was in front of the Water Gate. He read to all the men and women, and to everyone old enough to listen and understand. All the people listened carefully and paid attention to the Book of the Law.

4 Ezra stood on a high wooden stage. It had been built just for this special time. On Ezra’s right side stood Mattithiah, Shema, Ananiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah. And on Ezra’s left side stood Pedaiiah, Mishael, Malkijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

5 So Ezra opened the book. All the people could see Ezra because he was standing above them on the high stage. And as Ezra opened the Book of the Law, all the people stood up. 6 Ezra praised the Lord, the great God. And all the people held up their hands and said, “Amen! Amen!” Then all the people bowed down and put their faces low to the ground and they worshiped the Lord.

These men from the family group of Levi taught the people about the Law as they were all standing there. Those Levites were: Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, and Pelaiah. Those Levites read the Book of the Law of God. They made it easy to understand, and explained what it meant. They did this so the people could understand what was being read.

Then Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the priest and teacher, and the men from the Levites that were teaching the people spoke. They said, “Today is a special day* to the Lord your God. Don’t be sad and cry.” They said that because all the people had begun to cry as they were listening to the messages of God in the Law.

Nehemiah said, “Go and enjoy the good food and sweet drinks. And give some food and drinks to those people that didn’t prepare any food. Today is a special day to the Lord. Don’t be sad! Why? Because the joy of the Lord will make you strong.”

The men from the family group of Levi helped the people to calm down. They said, “Be quiet, calm down, this is a special day. Don’t be sad.”

Then all the people went to eat the special meal. They shared their food and drinks. They were very happy and celebrated that special day. They finally understood the lessons from the Lord that the teachers had been trying to teach them.

Then on the second day of the month,* the leaders of all the families went to meet with Ezra, the priests, and the Levites. They all gathered around Ezra the teacher to study the words of the Law.

They studied and found these commands in the Law. The Lord gave this command to the people through Moses: In the seventh month* of the year, the people of Israel must go to Jerusalem to celebrate a special holiday. They must live in temporary shelters. And the people are supposed to go through all of their towns and Jerusalem and say these things: “Go out into the hill country and get branches from different kinds of olive trees. Get branches from myrtle trees, palm trees, and shade trees. Use those branches to make temporary shelters. Do what the Law says.”

So the people went out and got those tree branches. Then they built temporary shelters for themselves. They built shelters on their own roofs and in their own yards. And they built shelters in the temple* yard, in the open place near the Water Gate, and near Ephraim Gate. The whole group of the people of Israel that had come back from captivity built shelters. They lived in the shelters they had built. Since the days of Joshua son of Nun up until that day, the people of Israel had not celebrated the Festival of Shelters like this. Everyone was very happy!

Ezra read to them from the Book of the Law every day of the festival. Ezra read the Law to them from the first day of the festival to the last day. The people of Israel celebrated the festival for seven days. Then on the eighth day the people met together for a special meeting, like the Law says.

The People of Israel Confess Their Sins

Then on the 24th day of that same month, the people of Israel gathered together for a day of fasting.* They wore clothes of sadness and put ashes on their heads to show they were sad and upset. Those people that were true Israelites separated themselves from foreigners. The Israelites stood in the temple and confessed their sins and the sins of their ancestors.* They stood there for about three days.
NEHEMIAH 9:4–17

hours, and the people read the Book of the Law of the Lord their God. Then for three more hours they confessed their sins and bowed down to worship the Lord their God.

4 Then these Levites stood on the stairs: Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Kenani. They called out to the Lord their God with loud voices. 5 Then these Levites spoke again: Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah. They said: “Stand up and praise the Lord your God!”

God has always lived!
And God will live forever!
People should praise your glorious name!
May your name be lifted above all blessing and praise!

6 You are God!
Lord, only you are God!
You made the sky!
You made the highest heavens, and everything in them!
You made the earth, and everything on it!
You made the seas, and everything in them!
You give life to everything!
And all the heavenly angels bow down and worship you!

7 You are the Lord God.
You chose Abram.
You led him from Ur in Babylonia.
You changed his name to Abraham.

8 You saw he was true and loyal to you. And you made an agreement with him.
You promised to give him the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, and Amorites, the Perizzites, Jebusites, and Girgashites.
But you promised to give that land to Abraham’s descendants.* And you kept your promise!
Why? Because you are good!

9 You saw our ancestors* suffering in Egypt.

And you heard them call for help by the Red Sea.
10 You showed the miracles to Pharaoh.
You did amazing things to his officials and his people.
You knew that the Egyptians thought they were better than our ancestors. But you proved how great you are!
And they remember that even today!

11 You split the Red Sea in front of them.
And they walked through on dry land!
The Egyptian soldiers were chasing them.
But you threw that enemy into the sea. And they sank like a rock into the sea.

12 With the tall cloud, you led them by day.
And at night you used the column of fire.
That is the way you lit their path, and showed them where to go.

13 Then you came down to Mount Sinai.
You spoke to them from heaven.
You gave them good laws.
You gave them true teachings.
You gave them laws and commands that were very good!

14 You told them about your special day of rest—the Sabbath.
You used your servant Moses to give them commands, laws, and teachings.

15 They were hungry, so you gave them food from heaven.
They were thirsty, so you gave them water from a rock.
And you told them, ‘Come, take this land.’
You used your power, and took the land for them!

16 But those people, our ancestors,* became proud.
They became stubborn.
They refused to obey your commands.
They refused to listen.
They forgot the amazing things you did with them!
They became stubborn.
They decided to return to Egypt and became slaves again!

17 But you are a forgiving God!
You are kind and full of mercy.
You are patient and full of love.
So you didn’t leave them!

 descendents A person’s children and all of their future families.
 ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
NEHEMIAH 9:18–30

18 You didn’t leave them even when they made golden calves and said, ‘These are the gods that led us out of Egypt!’

19 You are very kind! So you didn’t leave them in the desert. You didn’t take the tall cloud away from them by day. You continued to lead them. You didn’t take the column of fire away from them at night. You continued to light their path and show them which way to go.

20 You gave them your good Spirit to make them wise. You gave them manna for food. You gave them water for their thirst.

21 You took care of them for 40 years! They had all they needed in the desert. Their clothes didn’t wear out. And their feet didn’t swell and hurt.

22 Lord, you gave them kingdoms and nations. And you gave them faraway places where few people live. They got the land of Sihon, king of Heshbon. They got the land of Og, king of Bashan.

23 You made their descendants as many as the stars in the sky. You brought them to the land you promised to give their ancestors. They went in and took that land.

24 Those children took the land. They defeated the Canaanites living there. You let them defeat those people! You let them do whatever they wanted to those nations, people, and kings!

25 They defeated powerful cities. They took the fertile land. They got houses filled with good things. They got wells that were already dug. They got vineyards, olive trees, and plenty of fruit trees!

They ate until they were full and fat. They enjoyed all the wonderful things you gave them.

26 And then they turned against you! They threw away your teachings! They killed your prophets. Those prophets warned the people. They tried to bring them back to you. But our ancestors* did terrible things against you!

27 So you let their enemies have them. The enemy caused them much trouble. When trouble came, our ancestors called to you for help. And in heaven, you heard them. You are very kind. So you sent people to save them. And those people rescued them from their enemies.

28 Then, as soon as our ancestors* were rested, they started doing terrible things again! So you let the enemy defeat them and punish them. They called to you for help, and in heaven you heard them and helped them. You are so kind! That happened so many times!

29 You warned them. You told them to come back. But they were too proud. They refused to listen to your commands. If people obey your laws, then they will truly live! But our ancestors* broke your laws. They were stubborn. They turned their backs on you. They refused to listen.

30 You were very patient with our ancestors. You let them mistreat you for many years. You warned them with your Spirit. You sent the prophets to warn them. But our ancestors* didn’t listen. So you gave them to people in other countries.

---

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.
ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
NEHEMIAH 9:31–10:29

31 But you are so kind! You didn’t destroy them completely. You didn’t leave them. You are such a kind and merciful God!

32 Our God, you are the great God, the awesome, powerful soldier! And you are kind and loyal! You keep your agreement! We have had many troubles. And our troubles are important to you! Bad things happened to all our people, and to our kings and leaders, and to our priests and prophets. Those terrible things have happened from the days of the king of Assyria until today!

33 But God, you were right about everything that happens to us. You were right. And we were wrong.

34 Our kings, leaders, priests, and ancestors did not obey your law. They didn’t listen to your commands. They ignored your warnings.

35 Our ancestors didn’t serve you even when they were living in their own kingdom. They didn’t stop doing evil things. They enjoyed all the wonderful things you gave them. They enjoyed the rich land and they had plenty of room, but they didn’t stop their evil ways.

36 And now, we are slaves. We are slaves in this land, the land you gave our ancestors so they could enjoy its fruit and all the good things that grow here.

37 The harvest is big in this land. But we sinned, so that harvest goes to the kings you put over us. Those kings control us and our cattle. They do anything they want. We are in a lot of trouble.

38 Because of all of these things, we are making an agreement that can’t be changed. We are putting this agreement in writing.

Our leaders, Levites, and priests are signing their names on this agreement and sealing it with a seal.*

10 These are the names on the sealed agreement: Nehemiah the governor. Nehemiah was the son of Hacaliah. Zekekiyah, 2Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah, 3Pashhur, Amariah, Malkijah, 4Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch, 5Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah, 6Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch, 7Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin, 8Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah. These were the names of the priests that put their names on the sealed agreement.

9 And these are the Levites that put their names on the sealed agreement: Jeshua son of Azaniah, Binnui from the family of Henadad, Kadmiel, and their brothers: Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaia, Hanan, 11Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah, 12Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah, 13Hodiah, Bani, and Beninu.

14 And these are the names of the leaders that put their names on the sealed agreement: Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin, Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur, Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai, Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai, Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir, Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua, Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah, Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub, Hallohash, Pihla, Shobek, Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah, Ahiah, Hanan, Anan, Malluch, Harim, and Baanah.

28–29 So, all these people now make this special promise to God. And they all ask for bad things to happen if they don’t keep their promise. All these people promise to follow the Law of God. That Law of God was given to us through Moses his servant. These people promise to carefully obey all the commands, rules, and teachings of the Lord our God. Now, these are the people that are making this promise: The rest of the people—the priests, Levites, gatekeepers, singers, temple servants, and all the people of Israel that separated themselves from the people living around seal(s) Small stones or rings with special shapes that could be used like a rubber stamp. When pressed into wet clay or hot wax, they left a special mark that was like a signature.

NEHEMIAH 10:30–11:3

them. They have separated themselves to obey God’s law. And also all their wives and all their sons and daughters that are able to listen and understand. All these people joined their brothers and the important people to accept for themselves the promise to obey God’s Law. And they accepted the curse that asks for bad things to happen to them if they don’t obey God’s Law.

30“We promise not to let our daughters marry the people living around us. And we promise not to let our sons marry their daughters.

31“We promise not to work on the Sabbath day. If the people living around us bring grain or other things to sell on the Sabbath, we won’t buy those things on that special day or on any other holiday. Every seventh year, we won’t plant or work the land. And every seventh year, we will cancel every debt that other people owe to us.

32“We will accept the responsibility for obeying the commands to take care of God’s temple.* We will give 1/3 shekel* of silver each year to support the temple service to honor our God. 33This money will pay for the special bread that the priests put on the table in the temple. It will pay for the daily grain offerings and burnt offerings. It will pay for the offerings on the Sabbaths, New Moon* festivals, and other special meetings. It will pay for the holy offerings and for the sin offerings that make the people of Israel pure.* It will pay for any work needed on the temple of our God.

34“We—the priests, the Levites, and the people—have thrown lots.* Why? To decide when each of our families is to bring a gift of wood to the temple of our God at certain times each year. The wood is to burn on the altar of the Lord our God. We must do that just as it is written in the Law.

35“We also accept the responsibility of bringing the firstfruits from our crops and from every fruit tree. We will bring that fruit to the Lord’s temple* each year.

36“Just as it is also written in the Law, this is what we will do: We will bring our firstborn sons, and the firstborn cows, sheep, and goats. We will bring those firstborn to the temple of our God. We will bring them to the priests that are serving there.

37“And we will also bring to the storage rooms of the Lord’s temple,* to the priests, these things: The first of our ground meal, the first of our grain offerings, the firstfruit from all our trees, and first part from our new wine and oil. And we will bring a tenth of our crops to the Levites. Why? Because the Levites collect these things in all the towns where we work. 38A priest from the family of Aaron must be with the Levites when they receive those crops. And then the Levites must bring those crops to the temple of our God. Then they will put them in the storerooms of the temple treasury. 39The people of Israel and the Levites must bring their gifts to the storerooms. They are to bring their gifts of grain, new wine, and oil. All the things for the temple are kept in those storerooms. And that is where the priests that are on duty stay. And also the singers and gatekeepers stay there.

“We all promise that we will take care of the temple of our God!”

New People Move into Jerusalem

11Now the leaders of the people of Israel moved into the city of Jerusalem. The other people of Israel had to decide who else would move into the city. So they threw lots,* and one out of every ten people had to live in Jerusalem, the holy city. The other nine people could live in their own home towns. 2Some people volunteered to live in Jerusalem. The other people thanked and blessed them for volunteering.

3Here are the leaders of the provinces that lived in Jerusalem. (Some of the people of Israel, priests, Levites, temple servants, and descendants of Solomon’s servants lived in seventh year  See Ex. 23:10, 11.

temple  The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
1/3 shekel  This was probably a coin at this time, but 1 shekel is 2/5 ounce (11.5g).
New Moon  This was the first day of the Hebrew month. There were special meetings on these days to worship God.
make ... pure  Or, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover or erase a person’s sins.”
lots  Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Prov. 16:33.
the towns of Judah. Each person lived on his own land in the different towns. 4And other people from the families of Judah and Benjamin lived in the city of Jerusalem.)

These are the descendants* of Judah that moved into Jerusalem: Athaiah son of Uzziah (Uzziah was the son of Zechariah, who was the son of Amariah, who was the son of Shephatiah, who was the son of Mahalalel, who was a descendant of Perez) 5and Maaseiah son of Baruch, (Baruch was the son of Col-Hozeh, who was the son of Hazaiah, who was the son of Adaiah, who was the son of Joiarib, who was the son of Zechariah, who was a descendant of Shelah). 6The number of Perez’s descendants living in Jerusalem was 468. All of them were brave men.

7These are the descendants* of Benjamin that moved into Jerusalem: Sallu son of Meshullam (Meshullam was the son of Joed, who was the son of Pedaiah, who was the son of Kolaiah, who was the son of Maaseiah, who was the son of Ithiel, who was the son of Jeshaiiah), 8and those that followed Jeshaiiah were Gabbai and Sallai. All together there were 928 men. 9Joel son of Zicri was in charge of them. And Judah son of Hassenuah was in charge of the Second District of the city of Jerusalem.

10These are the priests that moved into Jerusalem: Jedaiah son of Joiarib, Jakin, 11and Seraiyah son of Hilkiah (Hilkiah was the son of Meshullam, who was the son of Zadok, who was the son of Meraioth, who was the son of Ahitub, who was the supervisor in the temple of God), 12and 822 men of their brothers that did the work for the temple, and Adaiah son of Jeroham (Jeroham was the son of Pelaijah, who was the son of Amzi, who was the son of Zechariah, who was the son of Pashhur, who was the son of Malkijah), 13and 242 men that were Malkijah’s brothers (These men were leaders of their families), Amashsai son of Azarel (Azarel was the son of Ahzai, who was the son of Meshillemoth, who was the son of Immer), 14and 128 of Immer’s brothers.

*These men were brave soldiers. The officer over them was Zabdiel son of Hagedolimon.)

13These are the Levites that moved into Jerusalem: Shemaiah son of Hasshub (Hasshub was the son of Azrikam, who was the son of Hashabiah, who was the son of Bunni), 16Shabbethai and Jozabad (These two men were leaders of the Levites. They were in charge of the outside work of God’s temple), 17Mattaniah (Mattaniah was the son of Mica, who was the son of Zabdi, who was the son of Asaph, who was the choir director. Asaph led the people in singing songs of praise and prayer), Bakbukiah (Bakbukiah was the second in charge over his brothers), and Abda son of Shammua, (Shammua was the son of Galal, who was the son of Jeduthun). 18So, there were 284 Levites that moved into Jerusalem, the holy city.

19These are the gatekeepers that moved into Jerusalem: Akkub, Talmon, and 172 of their brothers. They watched and guarded the gates of the city.

20The other people of Israel, and the other priests and Levites, lived in all the towns of Judah. Each person lived on the land that his ancestors had owned. 21The temple servants lived on the hill of Ophel. Zilha and Gishpa were in charge of those temple servants.

22The officer over the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi. Uzzi was the son of Bani (Bani was the son of Hashabiah, who was the son of Mattaniah, who was the son of Mica). Uzzi was a descendant of Asaph. Asaph’s descendants were the singers that were responsible for the service in God’s temple.

23The singers obeyed orders from the king.
Those orders from the king told the singers what to do from day to day. 24The man that told the people what the king wanted done was named Pethahiah. (Pethahiah was the son of Meshezabel, who was one of the descendants of Zerah. Zerah was Judah’s son.)

25The people of Judah lived in these towns:
In Kiriath Arba and the small towns around it, in Dibon and the small towns around it, in Jekabzeel and the small towns around it, and in Jeshua, in Moladah, in Beth Pelet, in Hazar Shual, in Beersheba and the small towns around it, and in Ziklag, in Meconah

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.
and the small towns around it, 29 and in En Rimmon, in Zorah, in Jarmuth, 30 and in Zanoah and Adullam and the small towns around them, in Lachish and the fields around it, and in Azekah and the small towns around it. So the people of Judah were living all the way from Beersheba to the Valley of Hinnom.

31 The descendants* of the family of Benjamin from Geba lived in Micmash, Aija, Bethel and the small towns around it, 32 in Anathoth, Nob and Ananiah, 33 in Hazor, Ramah and Gittaim, 34 in Hadid, Zeboim, and Neballat, 35 in Lod and Ono, and in the Valley of the Craftsmen. 36 Some of the groups of the people from the family of Levi moved to the land of Benjamin.

Priests and Levites

12 These are the priests and Levites that came back to the land of Judah. They came back with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua. This is a list of their names: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, 2 Amariah, Malluch, Hattush, 3 Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth, 4 Iddo, Ginnethon, Abijah, 5 Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah, 6 Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah, 7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, and Jedaiah. These men were the leaders of the priests and their relatives in the days of Jeshua.

8 The Levites were: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and also Mattaniah. These men, with Mattaniah's relatives, were in charge of the songs of praise to God. 9 Bakbukiah and Unni were the relatives of those Levites. These two men stood across from them in the services. 10 Jeshua was the father of Joiakim. Joiakim was the father of Eliashib. Eliashib was the father of Joiada. 11 Joiada was the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan was the father of Jaddua.

12 In the days of Joiakim, these men were the leaders of the families of priests:

The leader of Seraiah's family was Meraiah.
The leader of Jeremiah's family was Hananiah.

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.

13 The leader of Ezra's family was Meshullam.
The leader of Amariah’s family was Jehohanan.
14 The leader of Malluch’s family was Jonathan.
The leader of Shecaniah’s family was Joseph.
15 The leader of Harim’s family was Adna.
The leader of Meremoth’s family was Helkai.
16 The leader of Iddo’s family was Zechariah.
The leader of Ginnethon’s family was Meshullam.
17 The leader of Abijah’s family was Zicri.
The leader of Miniamin’s and Maadiah’s families was Piltai.
18 The leader of Bilgah’s family was Shammua.
The leader of Shemaiah’s family was Jehonathan.
19 The leader of Joiarib’s family was Mattenai.
The leader of Jedaih’s family was Uzzi.
20 The leader of Sallu’s family was Kallai.
The leader of Amok’s family was Eber.
21 The leader of Hilkiah’s family was Hashubah.
The leader of Jedaih’s family was Nethanel.

22 The names of the leaders of the families of the Levites and the priests in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua were written down during the rule of Darius the Persian king. 23 The family leaders among the descendants* of the family of Levi and up to the time of Johanan son of Eliashib were written in the history book. 24 And these were the leaders of the Levites: Hashubah, Sherebiah, Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, and their brothers. Their brothers stood across from them to sing praise and honor to God. One group answered the other group. That is what was commanded by David the man of God.
NEHEMIAH 12:25–44

25The gatekeepers that guarded the storerooms next to the gates were: Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub. Those gatekeepers served in the days of Joiakim. Joiakim was the son of Jeshua, who was the son of Jozadak. And those gatekeepers also served in the days of Nehemiah the governor and in the days of Ezra the priest and teacher.

Dedication of the Wall of Jerusalem

27The people dedicated the wall of Jerusalem. They brought all the Levites to Jerusalem. The Levites came from the towns they lived in. They came to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem. The Levites came to sing songs of praise and thanks to God. They played their cymbals, harps, and lyres.

28–29And all the singers also came to Jerusalem. Those singers came from the towns all around Jerusalem. They came from the town of Netophah, from Beth Gilgal, Geba, and Azmaveth. The singers had built small towns for themselves in the area around Jerusalem.

30So, the priests and Levites made themselves pure in a ceremony. Then they also made the people, the gates, and the wall of Jerusalem pure in a ceremony.

31I told the leaders of Judah to go up and stand on top of the wall. I also chose two large singing groups to give thanks to God. One group was to start going up on top of the wall on the right side, toward the Ash Pile Gate.

32Hoshaiah and half of the leaders of Judah followed those singers. Also following them were Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam, Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, and Jeremiah. And some of the priests with trumpets also followed them up to the wall. Also Zechariah followed them. (Zechariah was the son of Jonathan, who was the son of Shemaiah, who was the son of Mattaniah, who was the son of Micaiah, who was the son of Zaccur, who was the son of Asaph.)

36There were also Asaph’s brothers, who were Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nathaniel, Judah, and Hanani. They had the musical instruments that David, man of God, had made. Ezra the teacher led the group of people that were there to dedicate the wall. They went to the Fountain Gate. They walked up the stairs all the way to the City of David. They were on top of the city wall. They walked over the house of David and went toward the Water Gate.

38The second group of singers started out in the other direction, to the left. I followed them as they went up to the top of the wall. Half of the people also followed them. They went past the Tower of Ovens to the Broad Wall. Then they went over these gates: the Gate of Ephraim, the Old Gate, and the Fish Gate. And they went over the Tower of Hananel and the Tower of the Hundred. They went as far as the Sheep Gate. They stopped at the Guard Gate.

39Then the two singing groups went to their places in God’s temple. And I stood in my place. And half the officials stood in their places in the temple. Then these priests stood in their places: Eliakim, Maaseiah, Mijamin, Micah, Eliaud, Zechariah, and Hananiah. Those priests had their trumpets with them.

41Then there were Eliahlim, Maaseiah, Uzziel, Hananiah, Zechariah, Shereeh, and Eliezer. Then two singing groups began singing with Jezrahiah leading them. So, on that special day, the priests offered many sacrifices. Everyone was very happy. God had made everyone happy. Even the women and children were excited and happy. People far away could hear the happy sounds coming from Jerusalem.

44Men were chosen to be in charge of the storerooms on that day. People brought their firstfruits and a tenth of their crops. So the men in charge put those things in the storerooms. The Jewish people were very happy about the priests and Levites on duty. So they brought many things to be put in the...
The priests and Levites did their work for their God. They did the ceremonies that made people pure. And the singers and gatekeepers did their part. They did everything that David and Solomon had commanded. (Long ago, in the days of David, Asaph had been the director. And he had many songs of praise and thanks to God.)

So in the days of Zerubbabel and of Nehemiah, all the people of Israel gave every day to support the singers and gatekeepers. The people also set aside the money for the other Levites. And the Levites set aside the money for the descendants of Aaron (the priests).

Nehemiah’s Last Commands

On that day, the Book of Moses was read out loud so all the people could hear. They found this law written in the Book of Moses: No Ammonite person and no Moabite person would be permitted to join in the meetings with God. That law was written because those people didn’t give the people of Israel food and water. And those people had paid Balaam to say a curse against the people of Israel. But our God changed that curse and made it a blessing for us.

So when the people of Israel heard that law, they obeyed it. They separated themselves from the people that were descendants of foreigners.

But, before that happened, Eliashib had given a room in the temple to Tobiah. Eliashib was the priest in charge of the storerooms in God’s temple. And Eliashib was a close friend of Tobiah. That room had been used for storing the grain offerings, incense, and the temple dishes and things. They also kept the tenth of grain, new wine, and oil for the Levites, singers, and gatekeepers in that room. And they also kept the gifts for the priests in that room. But Eliashib gave that room to Tobiah.

I was not in Jerusalem while all of this was happening. I had gone back to the king of Babylon. I went back to Babylon in the 32nd year that Artaxerxes was king of Babylon.

Later, I asked the king for permission to go back to Jerusalem. So I came back to Jerusalem. In Jerusalem I heard about the sad thing that Eliashib had done. Eliashib had given Tobiah a room in the temple of our God! I was very angry about what Eliashib had done. So I threw all of Tobiah’s things out of the room. I gave commands for those rooms to be made pure and clean. Then I put the temple dishes and things, the grain offerings, and the incense back into those rooms.

I also heard that the people had not given the Levites their share. So the Levites and singers had gone back to work in their own fields. So I told the officials that they were wrong. I asked them, “Why didn’t you take care of God’s temple?” Then I called all Levites together. I told them to go back to their places and duties in the temple. Then, everyone in Judah brought their tenth of grain, new wine, and oil to the temple. Those things were put into the storerooms.

I put these men in charge of the storerooms: Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the teacher, and a Levite named Pedaiah. And I made Hanan son of Zaccur, son of Mattaniah, their helper. I knew I could trust these men. They were responsible for giving the supplies to their relatives.

God, please remember me for these things I have done. And don’t forget all I have faithfully done for the temple of my God and for its services.

In those days in Judah, I saw people working on the Sabbath day. I saw people pressing grapes to make wine. I saw people bringing in grain and loading it on donkeys. I saw people carrying grapes, figs, and all kinds of things in the city. They were bringing all these things into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. So I warned them about this. I told them they must not sell food on the Sabbath day.

There were some men from the city of Tyre living in Jerusalem. Those men were bringing fish and all kinds of things into Jerusalem and selling them on the Sabbath day. And the Jews were buying those things.

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.
curse To ask for bad things to happen to someone.
temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
32nd year ... Babylon That is, 432 B.C.
NEHEMIAH 13:17–31

17 I told the important people of Judah that they were wrong. I said to those important people, “You are doing a very bad thing. You are ruining the Sabbath. You are making the Sabbath day like it was any other day. 18 You know that your ancestors* did the same thing. That is why our God brought all the troubles and disaster to us and to this city. Now you people are making it so more of these bad things will happen to Israel. Why? Because you are ruining the Sabbath day and making it like it is not an important day.”

19 So, this is what I did: Every Friday evening, just before dark, I commanded the gatekeepers to shut and lock the gates to Jerusalem. They were not to be opened until the Sabbath* day was over. I put some of my own men at the gates. Those men were commanded to make sure that no load was brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day.

20 One or two times businessmen and merchants* had to stay the night outside Jerusalem. 21 But I warned those businessmen and merchants. I said to them, “Don’t stay the night in front of the wall. If you do that again, I will arrest you.” So from that time on they didn’t come on the Sabbath* day to sell their things.

22 Then I commanded the Levites to make themselves pure. After they did that, they were to go and guard the gates. This was done to make sure that no load was brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day.

23 In those days I also noticed that some Jewish men had married women from the countries of Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab. 24 And half of the children from those marriages didn’t know how to speak the Jewish language. Those children spoke the language of Ashdod, Ammon, or Moab. 25 So I told those men that they were wrong. I said bad things to them. I hit some of those men, and I pulled out their hair. I forced them to make a promise in God’s name. I said to them, “You must not marry the daughters of those people. Don’t let the daughters of those foreign people marry your sons. And don’t let your daughters marry the sons of those foreign people. 26 You know that marriages like this caused Solomon to sin. In all the many nations, there was not a king as great as Solomon. God loved Solomon. And God made Solomon king over the whole nation of Israel. But even Solomon was made to sin because of foreign women. 27 And now, we hear that you also are doing this terrible sin. You are not being true to God. You are marrying foreign women.”

28 Joiada was the son of Eliashib the high priest. One of Joiada’s sons was a son-in-law of Sanballat from Horon. I forced that man to leave this place. I forced him to run away.

29 My God, punish those people. They made the priesthood unclean. They treated it like it was not important. They did not obey the agreement that you made with the priests and Levites. 30 So I made the priests and Levites clean and pure. I took away all the foreigners and the strange things they taught. And I gave the Levites and priests their own duties and responsibilities. 31 And I made sure that people will bring gifts of wood and firstfruits at the right times.

My God, remember me for doing these good things.

ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
Sabbath  Saturday, a special day of rest and worship for Jews.
merchants  A person who earns his living by buying and selling things.
Queen Vashti Disobeys the King

1 This is what happened during the time that Xerxes was king. Xerxes ruled over the 127 provinces from India to Ethiopia. 2 King Xerxes ruled from his throne* in the capital city of Susa.

3 In the third year of Xerxes’ rule, he gave a party for his officers and leaders. The army leaders and important leaders from all of Persia and Media were there. 4 The party continued for 180 days. All during that time, King Xerxes was showing the great wealth of his kingdom. And he was showing everyone the majestic beauty and wealth of his palace.* 5 And when those 180 days were over, King Xerxes gave another party that continued for seven days. That party was held in the inside garden of the palace. All the people that were in the capital city of Susa were invited, from the most important to the least important person.

6 That inside garden had white and blue linen* hangings around the room. Those hangings were held in place with cords of white linen and purple material on silver rings and marble pillars. There were couches made of gold and silver. Those couches were setting on mosaic pavement of porphyry, marble, mother-of-pearl, and other expensive stones.

7 Wine was served in golden cups. And every cup was different! And there was plenty of the king’s wine, because the king was very generous. 8 The king had given a command to his servants. He told them that each guest must be given as much wine as he wanted. And the wine server obeyed the king.

9 Queen Vashti also gave a party for the women in the king’s palace.

10–11 On the seventh day of the party, King Xerxes was in high spirits from drinking the wine. He gave a command to the seven eunuchs* that served him. Those eunuchs were: Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas. He commanded those seven eunuchs to bring Queen Vashti to him wearing her royal crown. She was to come so she could show her beauty to the leaders and important people. She was very beautiful.

12 But when those servants told Queen Vashti about the king’s command, she refused to come. Then the king became very angry.

13–14 It was the custom for the king to ask the advice of the experts about the law and punishments. So King Xerxes spoke with the wise men that understood the laws. Those wise men were: Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan. They were the seven most important officials of Persia and Media. They had special privileges to see the king. They were the highest officials in the kingdom.

15 The king asked those men, “What does the law say must be done to Queen Vashti? She has not obeyed the command of King Xerxes that the eunuchs have taken to her.”

16 Then Memucan answered the king with the other officials listening, “Queen Vashti has done wrong. She has done wrong against the king and also against all the leaders and people of all the provinces of King Xerxes. I say that, because all the other women will hear... about what Queen Vashti did. And then other women will stop obeying their husbands. They will say to their husbands, ‘King Xerxes commanded Queen Vashti to be brought to him, but she refused to come.’

“Today the wives of the Persian and Median leaders have heard what the queen did. And those women will be influenced by the thing she did. Those women will do the same thing to the king’s important leaders. And there will be plenty of disrespect and anger.

“So, if it pleased the king, here is a suggestion: Let the king give a royal command and let it be written in the laws of Persia and Media. The laws of Persia and Media can’t be changed. The royal command should be that Vashti is never again to enter the presence of King Xerxes. Also let the king give her royal position to someone else that is better than she.

Then when the king’s command is announced in all parts of his large kingdom, all the women will respect their husbands. From the most important to the least important, all the women will respect their husbands.”

The king and his important officials were happy with this advice. So King Xerxes did as Memucan suggested.

King Xerxes sent letters to all parts of the kingdom. He sent those letters to each province, written in its own language. He sent those letters to each nation in its own language. Those letters announced in every person’s language that every man was to be ruler over his own family.

Esther Made Queen

Later, King Xerxes stopped being angry. Then he remembered Vashti and what she had done. He remembered his commands about her.

Then the king’s personal servants had a suggestion. They said, “Search for beautiful young virgins* for the king. Let the king choose leaders in every province of his kingdom. Then let those leaders bring every beautiful young virgin to the capital city of Susa. Those girls will be put with the group of the king’s women. And they will be under the care of Hegai, the king’s eunuch, that is in charge of the women. Then give beauty treatments to all of them. Then let the girl that is pleasing to the king become the new queen in Vashti’s place.” The king liked this suggestion, so he accepted it.

Now there was a Jew from the family group of Benjamin named Mordecai. Mordecai was the son of Jair, and Jair was the son of Shimei, and Shimei was the son of Kish. Mordecai was in the capital city, Susa. Mordecai had a girl cousin named Hadassah. She didn’t have a father or a mother, so Mordecai took care of her. Mordecai had adopted her as his own daughter when her father and mother died. Hadassah was also called Esther. Esther had a very pretty face and a good figure.

When the king’s command had been heard, many girls were brought to the capital city of Susa. Those girls were put under the care of Hegai. Esther was one of these women. Esther was taken to the king’s palace* and put into Hegai’s care. Hegai was in charge of the king’s women. Hegai liked Esther. She became his favorite. So Hegai quickly gave Esther beauty treatments and special food. Hegai chose seven women servants from the king’s palace and gave them to Esther. Then Hegai moved Esther and her seven girl servants into the best place where the king’s women lived. Esther didn’t tell anyone that she was a Jew. She didn’t tell anyone about her family background, because Mordecai had told her not to. Every day Mordecai walked back and forth near the area where the king’s women lived. He did that because he wanted to find out how Esther was, and what was happening to her.

Before a girl could take her turn to go in before King Xerxes, this is what she had to do: She had to complete twelve months of beauty treatments. That was six months with oil of myrrh and six months with perfumes.

virgins A pure woman that has not had sexual relations with anyone.

palace A large house for the king and his family.
and different kinds of makeup. 13 And this is the way a girl would go to the king: They gave her anything she wanted from the house of the king’s women. 14 In the evening, the girl would go to the king’s palace. And in the morning, she would return to another area where the king’s women lived. Then she would be placed under the care of a man named Shaashgaz. Shaashgaz was the king’s eunuch in charge of the concubines. The girl would not go back to the king again unless he was pleased with her. Then he would call her by name to come back to him.

15 When the time came for Esther to go to the king, she didn’t ask for anything. She only wanted Hegai, the king’s eunuch that was in charge of the king’s women, to suggest what she should take. (Esther is the girl Mordecai had adopted, the daughter of his uncle Abihail). Everyone that looked at Esther liked her.

16 So Esther was taken to King Xerxes in the palace. This happened in the tenth month, the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his rule.

17 The king loved Esther more than any of the other girls. And she became his favorite. He approved of her more than any of the other girls. So King Xerxes put a crown on Esther’s head and made her the new queen in Vashti’s place. 18 And the king gave a big party for Esther. It was for all his important people and leaders. He announced a holiday in all the provinces. And he sent out gifts to people, because he was a generous king.

Mordecai Learns about an Evil Plan

19 Mordecai was sitting next to the king’s gate at the time the girls were gathered together the second time. 20 Esther had still kept it a secret that she was a Jew. She had not told anyone about her family background. That is what Mordecai had told her to do. She still obeyed Mordecai just as she had done when he was taking care of her.

Haman’s Plan to Destroy the Jews

3 After these things happened, King Xerxes honored Haman. Haman was the son of a man named Hammedatha, the Agagite. The king promoted Haman and gave him a place of honor more important than any of the other leaders.

2 All of the king’s leaders at the king’s gate would bow down and give honor to Haman. That is what the king commanded those men to do. But Mordecai refused to bow down or give honor to Haman. 3 Then the king’s leaders at the gate asked Mordecai, “Why don’t you obey the king’s command to bow down to Haman?”

4 Day after day, those king’s leaders spoke to Mordecai. But he refused to obey the command to bow down to Haman. So those leaders told Haman about it. They wanted to see what Haman would do about Mordecai. Mordecai had told those leaders that he was a Jew. 5 When Haman saw that Mordecai refused to bow down to him or give him honor, he was very angry. 6 Haman had learned that Mordecai was a Jew. But he was not satisfied with killing only Mordecai. Haman also wanted to find a way to destroy all of Mordecai’s people, the Jews, in all of Xerxes’ kingdom.

7 In the twelfth year of King Xerxes’ rule, in the first month, the month of Nisan, Haman threw lots to choose a special day and month. And the twelfth month, the month of Adar was chosen. (At that time, the lot was called “pur.”) 8Then Haman came to King Xerxes. He said, “King Xerxes, there is a certain group of people scattered among the people in all the provinces of your kingdom. Those people keep themselves separate from other people. Their customs are different from those of all other people. And those people don’t obey the king’s laws. It is not best for the king to allow those people to continue to live in your kingdom.

9“If it pleases the king, I have a suggestion: Give a command to destroy those people. And I will put 10,000 silver coins into the king’s treasury. That money could be used to pay the men that do these things.”

10So the king took the official ring off his finger and gave it to Haman. Haman was the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite. Haman was the enemy of the Jews. 11Then the king said to Haman, “Keep the money. Do what you want with those people.”

12Then on the 13th day of the first month the king’s secretaries were called. They wrote out all of Haman’s commands in the language of each province. And they wrote them in the language of each group of people. They wrote to the king’s satraps (leaders), the governors of the different provinces, and the leaders of the different groups of people. They wrote with the authority of King Xerxes himself, and sealed the commands with the king’s own ring.

13Messengers carried the letters to all the king’s provinces. The letters were the king’s command to ruin, kill, and completely destroy all the Jews. That meant young people and old people, women, and little children, too. The command was to kill all the Jews on a single day. That day was to be the 13th day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar. And the command was to take all of the things that belonged to the Jews.

14A copy of the letters with that command was to be given as a law. It was to be a law in every province and announced to the people of every nation living in the kingdom. Then all those people would be ready for that day. 15At the king’s command the messengers hurried off. The command was given in the capital city of Susa. The king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Susa was confused.

Mordecai Persuades Esther to Help

4Mordecai heard about all that had been done. When he heard about the king’s commands against the Jews, he tore his clothes. Then he put on clothes of sadness and put ashes on his head. Then he went out into the city crying loudly. 2But Mordecai went only as far as the king’s gate. No one was allowed to enter that gate dressed in clothes of sadness. 3In every province where the king’s command had come, there was much crying and sadness among the Jews. They were fasting* and crying loudly. Many Jews were lying on the ground dressed in clothes of sadness with ashes on their heads.

4Esther’s women servants and eunuchs* came to her and told her about Mordecai. That made Queen Esther very sad and upset. She sent clothes for Mordecai to put on instead of the clothes of sadness. But he would not accept those clothes. 5Then Esther called Hathach. Hathach was one of the king’s eunuchs that had been chosen to serve her. Esther commanded him to find out what was bothering Mordecai, and why. 6So Hathach went out to where Mordecai was in the open place of the city in front of the king’s gate.

7Then Mordecai told Hathach everything that had happened to him. Mordecai told him about the exact amount of money Haman had promised to put into the king’s treasury for killing Jews. 8Mordecai also gave Hathach a copy of the king’s command to kill the Jews. That command had been sent out all over the city of Susa. He wanted Hathach to show it to Esther and tell her everything. And he told him to encourage Esther to go to the king and beg him for mercy for Mordecai and her people.

9Hathach went back and told Esther everything Mordecai had said.

10Then Esther told Hathach to say this to Mordecai: 11“Mordecai, all the king’s leaders fasting  To live without food for a special time of prayer and worship to God.

eunuchs  Men whose testicles have been removed. Rulers often gave such men important positions.
and all the people of the king’s provinces know this: The king has one law for any man or woman that goes to the king without being called. He must be put to death. The only way this law is not carried out is if the king puts out his gold scepter* to the person. If the king does that, then that person’s life will be saved. And I have not been called to go see the king for 30 days.”

12–13 Then Esther’s message was given to Mordecai. When Mordecai got her message, he sent his answer back: “Esther, don’t think that just because you live in the king’s house you will be the only Jew to escape. 14 If you keep quiet now, help and freedom for the Jews will come from another place. But you and your father’s family will all die. And who knows, maybe you have been chosen to be the queen for such a time as this?”

15–16 Then Esther sent this answer to Mordecai: “Mordecai, go and get all the Jews in Susa together, and fast* for me. Don’t eat or drink for three days and nights. I will fast like you, and my girl servants will fast, too. After we fast, I will go to the king. I know it is against the law to go to the king if he didn’t call me, but I will do it anyway. If I die, I die.”

17 So Mordecai went away. He did everything Esther told him to do.

Esther Speaks to the King

5 On the third day, Esther put on her special robes. Then she stood in the inside area of the king’s palace.* That area was in front of the king’s hall. The king was sitting on his throne* in the hall. He was sitting facing the place where people enter the throne room.

2 Then the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court. When he saw her, he was very pleased. He held out to her the gold scepter* that was in his hand. So Esther went in to the room and went near the king. Then she touched the end of the king’s gold scepter.

3 Then the king asked, “What is bothering you Queen Esther? What do you want to ask me? I will give you anything you ask for, even half my kingdom.”

4 Esther said, “I have prepared a party for you and Haman. Will you and Haman please come to the party today?”

5 Then the king said, “Bring Haman quickly so that we may do what Esther asks.”

So the king and Haman went to the party Esther had prepared for them. 6 While they were drinking wine, the king asked Esther again, “Now Esther, what do you want to ask for? Ask for anything. I will give it to you. So, what is it you want? I will give you anything you want, up to half my kingdom.”

7 Esther answered, “This is what I want to ask for: 8 If the king approves of me, and if it pleases the king to give me what I ask for, let the king and Haman come tomorrow. I will prepare another party for the king and Haman tomorrow. Then I will tell what I really want.”

Haman’s Anger at Mordecai

9 Haman left the king’s house that day very happy and in a good mood. But when he saw Mordecai at the king’s gate, he became very angry at Mordecai. Haman was very mad at Mordecai because Mordecai didn’t show any respect when Haman walked by. Mordecai was not afraid of Haman, and that made Haman mad. 10 But, Haman controlled his anger and went home. Then Haman called his friends and his wife, Zeresh, together.

11 Haman started bragging about how rich he was. He was bragging to his friends about his many sons, and about all the ways the king had honored him. And he was bragging about how the king had promoted him higher than all the other leaders. 12 “And that’s not all,” Haman added. “I’m the only person Queen Esther invited to be with the king at the party she gave. And the Queen has also invited me to be with the king again tomorrow. 13 But all those things don’t really make me happy. I’m not really happy as long as I see that Jew Mordecai sitting at the king’s gate.”

14 Then Haman’s wife Zeresh and all his friends had a suggestion. They said, “Tell someone to build a post to hang him on! Make it 75 feet* tall! Then in the morning, ask the king to hang Mordecai on it. Then just go to the party with the king and you can be happy.”

Haman liked that suggestion, so he ordered someone to build the hanging post.

Mordecai Is Honored

6 That same night, the king could not sleep. So he told a servant to bring the history book and read it to him. (The Book of History of the Kings lists everything that happens during a king’s rule.) 2The servant read the book to the king. He read about the evil plan to kill King Xerxes. That was when Mordecai had learned about Bigthana and Teresh. Those two men were the king’s officers that guarded the doorway. They had planned to kill the king, but Mordecai learned about the plan and told someone about it.

3Then the king asked, “What honor and good things have been given to Mordecai for this?” The servants answered the king, “Nothing has been done for Mordecai.”

4Haman had just entered the outer area of the king’s palace.* He had come to ask the king to hang Mordecai on the hanging post Haman had commanded to be built. 5The king heard him. The king said, “Who just came into the courtyard?” 6The king’s servants said, “Haman is standing in the courtyard.” So the king said, “Bring him in.” 6When Haman came in, the king asked him a question. He said, “Haman, what should be done for a man the king wants to honor?”

Haman thought to himself, “Who is there that the king would want to honor more than me? The king is talking about honoring me, I’m sure.”

7So Haman answered the king, “Do this for the man the king loves to honor: 8Have the servants bring a special robe the king himself has worn. And also bring a horse the king himself has ridden. Have the servants put the king’s special mark on that horse’s head. 9Then put one of the king’s most important leaders in charge of the robe and the horse. And let that leader put the robe on the man the king wants to honor. And then let him lead him on the horse through the city streets. As he leads him, let him announce, ‘This is done for the man the king wants to honor!’”

10“Go quickly,” the king commanded Haman. “Get the robe and the horse and do just as you have suggested for Mordecai the Jew. Mordecai is sitting near the king’s gate. Do everything that you suggested.”

11So Haman got the robe and the horse. Then he put the robe on Mordecai and led him on horseback through the city streets. Haman announced ahead of Mordecai, “This is done for the man the king wants to honor!”

12After that, Mordecai went back to the king’s gate. But Haman hurried home. He covered his head because he was embarrassed and ashamed. 13Then Haman told his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had happened to him. Haman’s wife and the men that gave him advice said, “If Mordecai is a Jew, then you can’t win. You have already started to fall. Surely you will be ruined!”

14While those people were still talking to Haman, the king’s eunuchs* came to Haman’s house. They made Haman hurry to the party that Esther had prepared.

Haman Is Hanged

7 So the king and Haman went to eat with Queen Esther. 2Then as they were drinking wine on the second day of the party, the king again asked Esther a question, “Queen Esther, what is it you want to ask for? Ask anything and it will be given to you. What do you want? I will give you anything, even half my kingdom.”

3Then Queen Esther answered, “King, if you like me and it pleases you, please let me live! And I ask you to let my people live, too! That is what I ask for. 4Why? Because I and my people have been sold to be ruined, killed, and completely destroyed. If we had just been sold as slaves, I would have kept quiet, because that would not be enough of a problem to bother the king.”

---

75 feet  Literally, “50 cubits.”

palace  A large house for the king and his family.

eunuchs  Men whose testicles have been removed. Rulers often gave such men important positions.
5 Then King Xerxes asked Queen Esther, “Who did this to you? Where is the man that dared to do such a thing to your people?”

6 Esther said, “The man against us, our enemy, is this wicked Haman.”

Then Haman was filled with terror before the king and queen. 7 The king was very angry. He got up, left his wine, and went out into the garden. But Haman stayed inside to beg Queen Esther to save his life. Haman begged for his life because he knew that the king had already decided to kill him. 8 Just as the king was coming back in from the garden to the party room, he saw Haman falling on the couch where Esther was lying. The king said with anger in his voice, “Will you attack the queen even while I am in the house?”

As soon as the king had said that, servants came in and killed Haman. 9 One of the eunuchs that served the king was named Harbona. Harbona said, “A hanging post 75 feet tall has been built near Haman’s house. Haman had it made so he could hang Mordecai on it. Mordecai is the man that helped you when he told about the evil plans to kill you.”

The king said, “Hang Haman on that post!”

10 So they hanged Haman on the hanging post he had built for Mordecai. Then the king stopped being angry.

The King’s Order To Help the Jews

8 That same day King Xerxes gave Queen Esther all the things that belonged to Haman, the enemy of the Jews. Esther told the king that Mordecai was her cousin. Then Mordecai came to see the king. 2 The king had gotten his ring back from Haman. The king took that ring off his finger and gave it to Mordecai. Then Esther put Mordecai in charge of all of the things that belonged to Haman.

3 Then Esther spoke to the king again. She fell at the king’s feet and began crying. She begged the king to cancel the evil plan of Haman the Agagite. Haman had thought up that plan to hurt the Jews.

4 Then the king held out the gold scepter* to Esther. Esther got up and stood in front of the king. 5 Then Esther said, “King, if you like me and if it pleases you, please do this for me. Please do this if you think it is a good idea. If the king is happy with me, please write a command that would stop the command that Haman sent out. Haman the Agagite thought of a plan to destroy the Jews in all the king’s provinces, and he sent out commands for that to happen. 6 I am begging the king because I could not bear to see those terrible things happen to my people. I could not bear to see my family killed.”

7 King Xerxes answered Queen Esther and Mordecai the Jew. This is what the king said, “Because Haman was against the Jews, I have given his property to Esther. And my soldiers have hanged him on the hanging post. 8 Now write another command by the authority of the king. Write it to help the Jews in a way that seems best to you. Then seal that order with the king’s special ring. No official letter written by the authority of the king and sealed with the king’s ring can be cancelled.”

9 Very quickly the king’s secretaries were called. This was done on the 23rd day of the third month, the month of Sivan. Those secretaries wrote out all of Mordecai’s commands to the Jews, and to the satraps (leaders), the governors, and officials of the 127 provinces. Those provinces reached from India to Ethiopia. Those commands were written in the language of each province. And they were translated into the language of each group of people. And those commands were written to the Jews in their own language and their own alphabet. 10 Mordecai wrote commands by the authority of King Xerxes. Then he sealed the letters with the king’s ring. And he sent those letters by messengers on horses. Those messengers rode fast horses which were raised especially for the king.

killed Haman  Literally, “covered Haman’s face.”

eunuchs  Men whose testicles have been removed. Rulers often gave such men important positions.

75 feet  Literally, “50 cubits.”

scepter  A special stick that a king holds in his hand.
The king’s commands in those letters said this:

The Jews in every city have the right to gather together to protect themselves. They have the right to ruin, kill, and completely destroy any army from any group of people that might attack them and their women and children. And the Jews have the right to take and destroy the property of their enemies.

The day that was set for the Jews to do this was the 13th day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar. The Jews were permitted to do this in all King Xerxes’ provinces. A copy of the letter with the king’s command was to be sent out. It became a law. It became a law in every province. They announced it to all the people of every nation living in the kingdom. They did this so the Jews would be ready for that special day. The Jews would be allowed to pay their enemies back.

The messengers hurried out, riding on the king’s horses. The king commanded those messengers to hurry. And that command was also put in the capital city of Susa.

Mordecai left the king. Mordecai was wearing special clothes from the king. His clothes were blue and white, and he had on a large gold crown. He also had a purple robe made of the best linen.* There was a special celebration in Susa. The people were very happy.

Mordecai left the king. Mordecai was wearing special clothes from the king. His clothes were blue and white, and he had on a large gold crown. He also had a purple robe made of the best linen.* There was a special celebration in Susa. The people were very happy.

Wherever the king’s command went in every province and every city, there was joy and gladness among the Jews. The Jews were having parties and celebrating. And many of the common people from other groups became Jews. They did that because they were very afraid of the Jews.

Victory for the Jews

On the 13th day of the twelfth month (Adar), the people were supposed to obey the king’s command. That was the day the enemies of the Jews hoped to defeat them. But now, things had changed. Now, the Jews were stronger than their enemies who hated them. The Jews met together in their cities in all the provinces of King Xerxes. They met together so they would be strong enough to attack the people that wanted to destroy them. So no one was strong enough to stand against them. Those people were afraid of the Jews. And all the officials of the provinces, the satraps (leaders), the governors, and the king’s administrators helped the Jews. All those leaders helped the Jews because they were afraid of Mordecai. Mordecai had become a very important man in the king’s palace.* Everyone in the provinces knew his name and knew how important he was. And Mordecai became more and more powerful.

The Jews defeated all their enemies. They used swords to kill and destroy their enemies. And the Jews did what they wanted to with those people that hated them. The Jews killed and destroyed 500 men in the capital city of Susa. The Jews also killed these men: Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha. These men were the ten sons of Haman. Haman son of Hammedatha was the enemy of the Jews. The Jews killed all those men, but they didn’t take any of the things that belonged to them.

That day the king heard how many men had been killed in the capital city of Susa. So the king said to Queen Esther, “The Jews have killed 500 men in Susa, including Haman’s ten sons. Now, what do you want done in the other provinces of the king? Tell me, and I will have it done. Ask, and I will do it.”

Esther said, “If it pleases the king, please let the Jews in Susa do the same thing again tomorrow. Also, hang the bodies of Haman’s ten sons on posts.”

So the king gave the command. That law continued another day in Susa. And they hanged Haman’s ten sons.
Susa met together on the 14th day of the month of Adar. They killed 300 men in Susa, but they didn’t take the things that belonged to those men.

16 At the same time, the Jews living in the other provinces also met together. They met together so they would be strong enough to protect themselves. And so they got rid of their enemies. The Jews killed 75,000 of their enemies. But the Jews didn’t take any of the things that belonged to those people. 17 This happened on the 13th day of the month Adar. And on the 14th day the Jews rested. The Jews made that day a happy holiday.

The Festival of Purim

18 The Jews in Susa had met together on the 13th and 14th days of the month of Adar. And then on the 15th day they rested. So they made the 15th day a happy holiday. 19 So, the Jews that live in the country and small villages celebrate Purim on the 14th day Adar. They keep the 14th day as a happy holiday. On that day they have parties and give presents to each other.

20 Mordecai wrote everything down that had happened. And then he sent letters to all the Jews in all of King Xerxes’ provinces. He sent letters far and near. 21 Mordecai did that to tell the Jews to celebrate Purim every year on the 14th and 15th days of the month of Adar. 22 The Jews were to celebrate those days because on those days the Jews got rid of their enemies. And they were also to celebrate that month as the month when their sadness was turned into joy. And it was a month when their crying was changed into a day of celebration. Mordecai wrote letters to all the Jews. He told them to celebrate those days as a happy holiday. They should have parties and give gifts to each other and give presents to poor people.

23 So the Jews agreed to do what Mordecai had written to them. And they agreed to continue the celebration they had begun.

24 Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite was the enemy of all the Jews. He had made an evil plan against the Jews to destroy them. And Haman had thrown the lot* to choose a day to ruin and to destroy the Jews. At that time, the lot was called a “pur,” so the holiday is called “Purim.” 25 Haman did those things, but Esther went to talk to the king. So he sent out new commands. These commands not only ruined Haman’s plans, but these commands caused those bad things to happen to Haman and his family! So Haman and his sons were hung on the posts.

26–27 At this time, lots* were called “purim”. So this holiday is called “Purim.” Mordecai wrote a letter and told the Jews to celebrate this holiday. And so the Jews started the custom of celebrating these two days every year. 28 They do this to help them remember what they had seen happen to them. The Jews and all the people that join them celebrate these two days every year at the right time in just the right way. Every generation and every family remembers these two days. They celebrate this holiday in each and every province and in each and every town. And the Jews will never stop celebrating the days of Purim. The descendants* of those Jews will always remember this holiday.

29 So Queen Esther the daughter of Abihail and Mordecai the Jew wrote an official letter about Purim. They wrote with full authority of the king to prove that the second letter was true. 30 So Mordecai sent letters to all the Jews in the 127 provinces of King Xerxes’ kingdom. Mordecai told the people that the holiday should bring peace and make people trust* each other. 31 Mordecai wrote these letters to tell the people to start celebrating Purim. And he told them when to celebrate this new holiday. Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had sent out the command for the Jews. They did this to establish this two-day holiday for themselves and their descendants.* They will remember this

lots Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.
descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.
peace ... trust Or “fellowship and truth.” Zech. 8:19 teaches that this is how people should celebrate the holidays and why God gave them.
holiday just like they remember the other holidays when they fast* and cry about the bad things that had happened. 32Esther’s letter made the rules for Purim official. And these things were written down in a book.

Mordecai Honored

10 King Xerxes made people pay taxes. All the people in the kingdom, even the faraway cities on the sea coast, had to pay taxes. 2And all the great things that Xerxes did are written in the Book of History of the Kings of Media and Persia. And also written in those history books are all the things that Mordecai did. The king made Mordecai a great man. 3Mordecai the Jew was second in importance to King Xerxes. Mordecai was the most important man among the Jews. And his fellow Jews respected him very much. They respected Mordecai because he worked hard for the good of his people. And Mordecai brought peace for all of the Jews.

*fast To live without food for a special time of prayer and worship to God.
There was a man named Job that lived in the country of Uz. Job was a good and faithful man. Job worshiped God and refused to do evil things. Job had seven sons and three daughters. Job owned 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 1,000 bulls, and 500 female donkeys. He had many servants. Job was the richest man in the east.

Job’s sons took turns having parties in their homes, and they invited their sisters. Job got up early in the morning after his children had a party. He offered a burnt offering for each of his children. He thought, “Maybe my children were careless and sinned against God at their party.” Job always did this so his children would be forgiven of their sins.

Then the day came for the angels* to meet with the Lord. Even Satan was there with those angels. The Lord said to Satan, “Where have you been?” Satan answered the Lord, “I have been wandering around on the earth.”

Then the Lord said to Satan, “Have you seen my servant Job? There is no person on earth like Job. Job is a good and faithful man. He worships God and refuses to do evil things.” Satan answered, “Sure! But Job has a good reason for worshiping God! You always protect him, his family, and everything he has. You have made him successful in everything he does. Yes, you have blessed him. He is so wealthy that his herds and flocks are all over the country. But if you destroy everything he has, I promise you that he will curse* you to your face.”

The Lord said to Satan, “All right. Do anything you want to the things Job has. But don’t hurt his body.” Then Satan went away from the Lord.

One day, Job’s sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine at the oldest brother’s house. Then a messenger came to Job and said, “The bulls were plowing and the donkeys were eating grass near by. The Sabean people* attacked us and took your animals! Those people killed the other servants. I am the only person that escaped. So I came to tell you the news!”

While that messenger was still speaking, another messenger came to Job. The second messenger said, “Lightning struck from the sky and burned up your sheep and servants. I am the only person that escaped. So I came to tell you the news!”

While that messenger was still speaking, another messenger came. This third messenger said, “The Chaldeans sent three groups of soldiers. They attacked us and took the camels! They killed the servants. I am the only person that escaped. So I came to tell you the news!”

While the third messenger was still speaking, another messenger came. The fourth messenger said, “Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine at the oldest brother’s house. Then a strong wind suddenly blew in from the desert and blew the house down. The house fell on your sons and daughters, and they are dead. I am the only person that escaped. So I came to tell you the news!”

angels  Literally, “sons of God.”
cursed  To ask for bad things to happen to someone.

Sabean people  A group of people from the desert area. They attacked people and took their things.
When Job heard this, he tore his clothes and shaved his head to show he was sad and upset. Then Job fell on the ground and worshiped God. He said:

“When I was born into this world, I was naked, and I had nothing. When I die and leave this world, I’ll be naked, and I’ll have nothing. The Lord gives, and the Lord takes away. Praise the name of the Lord!”

All of those things happened, but Job didn’t sin. Job didn’t say that God did anything wrong.

Satan Bossers Job Again

On another day, the angels came to meet with the Lord. Even Satan came to meet with the Lord. The Lord said to Satan, “Where have you been?” Satan answered the Lord, “I have been wandering around on the earth.” Then the Lord said to Satan, “Have you seen my servant Job? There is no person on earth like Job. Job is a good and faithful man. He worships God and refuses to do evil things. He still is faithful, even though you asked me to let you destroy everything he has for no reason.”

Satan answered, “Skin for skin!* A person will give everything he has to save his life. If you use your power to hurt his body, then he will curse you to your face!”

So the Lord said to Satan, “All right, Job is in your power. But you are not allowed to kill him.”

Then Satan went away from the Lord. Satan gave Job painful sores. The painful sores were all over Job’s body from the bottom of his feet to the top of his head. So Job sat near the garbage piles. He used a piece of broken pottery to scrape his sores.

Job’s Three Friends Come to See Him

Three of Job’s friends were Eliphaz from Teman, Bildad from Shuah, and Zophar from Naamah. These three friends heard about all the bad things that happened to Job. These three friends left their homes and met together. They agreed to go and show sympathy to Job and to comfort him. But when the three friends saw Job from far away, they were not sure it was Job—he looked so different! They began to cry loudly. They tore their clothes and threw dirt in the air and on their heads to show they were sad and upset.

Then the three friends sat on the ground with Job for seven days and seven nights. No one said a word to Job, because they saw Job was suffering so much.

Job Curses the Day He Was Born

Then Job opened his mouth and cursed the day he was born. He said:

“I wish the day I was born would be lost forever. I wish that night they said, ‘It’s a boy!’ had never happened.

I wish that day had stayed dark. I wish God would forget that day. I wish light had not shined on that day.

I wish clouds would hide that day. I wish black clouds could scare away the light from the day I was born.

Let the darkness keep that night. Leave that night off the calendar. Don’t put that night in any of the months. Don’t let that night produce anything. Let no happy shout be heard on that night.
8 Some magicians are always wanting to wake Leviathan.*
  So let them say their curses,
  and curse the day I was born.
  Let that day’s morning star be dark.
  Let that night wait for the morning,
  but may that light never come.
  Don’t let it see the first rays of sunlight.
  Why? Because that night didn’t stop me from being born.
  That night didn’t stop me
  from seeing these troubles.
  Why didn’t I die when I was born?
  Why didn’t I die at birth?
  Why did my mother hold me
  on her knees?
  Why did my mother’s breasts feed me?
  If I had died when I was born,
  I would be at peace now.
  I wish I were asleep and at rest with the kings and wise men who lived on earth in the past.
  Those men built places for themselves that are now destroyed and gone.
  I wish I were buried with those rulers that filled their graves*
  with gold and silver!
  Why wasn’t I a child who died at birth and was buried in the ground?
  I wish I were like a baby that never saw the light of day.
  Bad people stop making trouble
  when they are in the grave.
  And people who are tired
  find rest in the grave.
  Even prisoners find relief in the grave;
  they don’t hear their guards yelling at them.
  All kinds of people are in the grave—important people
  and people who are not so important.
  Even the slave is freed from his master.
  “Why must a suffering person continue to live?
  Why give life to a person whose soul is bitter?

Leviathan Here this is probably a giant sea monster. Some people thought magicians were able to make it ‘swallow the sun.’ that is, cause an eclipse of the sun.

graves Or, “houses.”

21 That person wants to die,
  but death does not come.
  That sad person searches for death more than for hidden treasure.
  Those people would be happy to find their grave.
  They would rejoice
  to find their tomb.
  But God keeps their future a secret, and builds a wall around them
  to protect them.
  When it is time to eat,
  I only sigh with sadness, not with joy.
  My complaints pour out like water.
  I was afraid that something terrible might happen to me.
  And that is what happened!
  The things I feared most happened to me.
  I can’t calm down.
  I can’t relax.
  I can’t rest.
  I’m too upset!”

Eliphaz Speaks

4 Eliphaz from Teman answered:

  “I must say something.
  Will it upset you if I try to speak?
  Job, you have taught many people.
  You gave strength to weak hands.
  Your words helped people who were ready to fall.
  You gave strength to people who couldn’t stand by themselves.
  But now trouble comes to you,
  and you are discouraged.
  Trouble hits you,
  and you are upset!
  You worship God.
  You trust him.
  You are a good man.
  So let that be your hope.
  Job, think about this:
  No innocent person was ever destroyed.
  Good people are never destroyed.
  I have seen some troublemakers and people who make life hard.
  But they are always punished!
JOB 4:9–5:20

9 God’s punishment kills those people.
   God’s anger destroys them.
10 The bad people roar and growl like lions.
   But God makes the bad people be quiet,
   and God breaks their teeth.
11 Yes, those bad people are like lions that can’t find animals to kill.
   They die and their children wander away.
12 “A message was brought to me in secret.
   My ears caught a whisper of it.
13 Like a bad dream in the night,
   it ruined my sleep.
14 I was afraid, and shook.
   All my bones shook!
15 A ghost passed by my face.
   The hair on my body stood up!
16 The spirit stood still,
   but I could not see what it was.
   A shape stood before my eyes,
   and there was silence.
   Then I heard a very quiet voice:
17 ‘A person can’t be more right than God.
   Man can’t be more pure than his Maker.
18 Look, God can’t even trust
   his heavenly servants.
   God sees problems even in his angels.
19 So surely people are worse!
   People live in houses of clay,*
   The foundations of these houses of clay are in the dirt.
   They are crushed to death
   more easily than a moth!
20 People die from dawn to sunset,
   and no one even notices.
   They die and are gone forever.
21 The ropes of their tent are pulled up,
   and these people die without wisdom.’

5 “Job, call out if you want,
   but no one will answer you!
   You can’t turn to any of the angels!
2 A foolish person’s anger will kill him.
   A fool’s strong emotions will kill him.
3 I saw a foolish person who thought he was safe.
   But suddenly, he died.*
4 There was no one to help his children.
   No one defended them in court.

houses of clay  This means the human body.

suddenly, he died  Or, “suddenly his home was cursed.”

5 Hungry people ate all his crops.
   Those hungry people took even the grain growing among the thorns.
   Greedy people took all they had.
6 Bad times don’t come up from the dirt.
   Trouble does not grow from
   the ground.
7 But man is born to have trouble,
   as sure as sparks fly up from a fire.
8 “But Job, if I were you,
   I would turn to God
   and tell him about my problems.
9 People can’t understand the wonderful things God does.
   There is no end to the miracles God does.
10 God sends rain on the earth.
   He sends water to the fields.
11 God raises up the humble person,
   and he makes a sad person very happy.
12 God stops the plans of clever, evil people,
   so they have no success.
13 God catches even wise people
   in their own traps.
   So those clever plans are not successful.
14 Those smart people stumble around even in the daytime.
   Even at noon, they are like a person who feels his way in the dark.
15 God saves poor people from death.
   He saves the poor people from the power of the clever people.
16 So poor people have hope.
   God destroys bad people who are not fair.
17 “A person is fortunate
   when God corrects him!
   So don’t complain when God All-Powerful punishes you.
18 God puts bandages
   on the wounds he makes.
   He might injure someone,
   but his hands also heal.
19 He will save you from six troubles.
   Yes, might endure seven disasters and not be hurt!
20 God will save you from death
   when there is famine.
   And God will protect you from death when there is war.

This means the human body.

Or, “suddenly his home was cursed.”
People might say bad things about you with their sharp tongues. But God will protect you. You won’t need to be afraid when bad things happen!

You will laugh at destruction and famine. You won’t be afraid of wild animals!

Your agreement is with God, so even the rocks in the field share in your agreement. Even the wild animals make peace with you.

You will live in peace because your tent is safe. You will count your property and find nothing missing.

You will have many children. They will be as many as the blades of grass on the earth.

You will be like the wheat that grows until harvest time. Yes, you will live to a ripe old age.

Job, we have studied these things, and we know they are true. So Job, listen to us, and learn them for yourself.”

Then Job answered:

“If my suffering could be weighed, and all my trouble could be put on the weighing scales, you would understand my sadness. My sadness would be heavier than all the sand of the seas! That is why my words seem foolish. God All-Powerful’s arrows are in me. My spirit feels the poison from those arrows! God’s terrible weapons are lined up against me.

Your words are easy to say when nothing bad has happened. Even a wild donkey doesn’t complain when it has grass to eat. And a cow doesn’t complain when it has its food.

Food without salt doesn’t taste good. And the white of an egg doesn’t have any taste. I refuse to touch it; that kind of food makes me sick! And that is what your words are like to me now.

“I wish I could have what I ask for. I wish God would give me what I want. I wish God would crush me, just go ahead and kill me!

And if he does kill me, I will be comforted about one thing, I will be happy about one thing: Even through all this pain, I never refused to obey the commands of the Holy One.

“My strength is gone, so I have no hope to go on living. I don’t know what will happen to me, so I have no reason to be patient.

I am not strong like a rock. My body is not made from bronze.

I don’t have power to help myself now. Why? Because success has been taken away from me.

A person’s friends should be kind to him if he has troubles. A person should be loyal to his friend, even if that friend turned away from God All-Powerful.

But you, my brothers, have not been loyal. I can’t depend on you. You are like streams that flow sometimes and don’t flow at other times. You are like streams that overflow when they are choked with ice and melting snow.

And when the weather is hot and dry, the water stops flowing, and the streams are gone.

Traders follow the twists and turns out into the desert and they disappear.

Traders from Tema look for water. Travelers from Sheba look hopefully.

They were sure they would find water but they were disappointed.

Now, you are like those streams. You see my troubles and are afraid.
JOB 6:22–7:21

22 Did I ask for your help? No!
     But you freely gave me your advice!
23 Did I say to you,
     ‘Save me from the enemy!
     Save me from cruel people!’
24 “So now, teach me,
     and I will be quiet.
     Show me what I have done wrong.
25 Honest words are powerful.
     But your arguments prove nothing.
26 Do you plan to criticize me?
     Will you speak more tiring words?
27 You would even gamble to win things that belong to children without fathers.
     You would sell out your own friend.
28 But now, please study my face.
     I would not lie to you.
29 So now, change your mind.
     Don’t be unfair, think again.
30 I am not lying.
     And I know right from wrong.”

3 Job said,

   “Man has a hard struggle on earth.
   His life is like the life of a hired worker.
2 Man is like a slave who wants the cool shade after hard work on a hot day.
   Man is like a hired worker waiting for payday.
3 Month after frustrating month has gone by.
   I have had night after night of suffering.
4 When I lie down, I think,
   ‘How long before it’s time to get up?’
   The night drags on.
   I toss and turn until the sun comes up.
5 My body is clothed with worms and dirt.
   My skin is broken and covered with running sores.
6 “My days go by faster than a weaver’s shuttle.*
   And my life ends without hope.
7 God, remember, my life is only a breath.
   I will never see anything good again.
8 And you won’t see me again.

You will look for me,
   but I will be gone.
9 A cloud disappears and is gone.
   In the same way, a person dies and is buried in the grave and he won’t come back.
10 He will never come back to his old house again.
    His home won’t know him any more.
11 “So I won’t be quiet!
    I will speak out!
    My spirit is suffering!
    I will complain because my soul is bitter.
12 God, why do you guard me?
    Am I the sea or a sea monster?
13 My bed should bring me comfort.
    My couch should give me rest and relief.
14 But God, when I lie down,
    you scare me with dreams;
    you frighten me with visions.*
15 So I prefer to be choked to death than to live.
16 I hate my life—I give up.
    I don’t want to live forever.
    Leave me alone!
    My life means nothing!
17 God, why is man so important to you?
    Why should you honor him?
    Why do you even notice him?
18 Why do you visit man every morning and test him every moment?
19 God, you never look away from me.
    You won’t leave me alone for a second.
20 God, you watch over people.
    If I have sinned, fine,
    what can I do?
21 Why did you use me for target practice?
    Did I become a problem for you?
22 Why don’t you just pardon me
    for doing wrong?
23 Why don’t you just forgive me
    for my sins?
24 Soon I will die and be in my grave.
    Then you will search for me,
    but I will be gone.”

weaver’s shuttle The tool a person that makes cloth uses to pass the thread between the other threads.
vision(s) Something like a dream that God used to speak to people.
8 Then Bildad from Shuah answered,

2 “How long will you talk like that?
   Your words blow like a strong wind.
3 God is always fair.
   God All-Powerful never changes the things that are right.
4 If your children sinned against God,
   then he has punished them.
   They paid for their sins.
5 But now Job, look to God and pray to the All-Powerful.
6 If you are pure and good,
   then he will quickly come to help you.
   He will give your family back to you.
7 Then you will have a lot more than you had in the beginning!

8 “Ask the old people.
   Find out what their ancestors* learned.
9 It seems like we were born yesterday.
   We are too young to know for sure.
   Our days on earth are very short,
   like a shadow.
   Maybe the old people can teach you.
   Maybe they can teach you what they have learned.”

10 “Can papyrus* grow tall on a dry land?
    Can reeds grow without water?
11 No. If the water dries up, then they will also be dry.
    They will be too small to cut and use.
12 People who forget God
    are like those reeds.
    The person who forgets God has no hope.
13 That person has nothing to lean on.
    His security is like a spider’s web.
14 If a person leans against a spider’s web,
    the web will break.
    He holds on to the spider’s web,
    but it won’t support him.
15 That man is like a plant that has plenty of water and sunshine.
    Its branches spread all through the garden.

9 Then Job answered:

2 “Yes, I know what you say is true.
   But how can a man win an argument with God?
3 A person can’t argue with God!
   God could ask 1,000 questions and no person could answer even one!
4 God is very wise
   and his power is very great.
   No person can fight God and not be hurt.
5 God moves mountains when he is angry and they don’t even know it.
6 God sends earthquakes to shake the earth.
   God shakes the earth’s foundations.
7 God can speak to the sun,
   and make it not rise.
   He can lock up the stars,
   so they don’t shine.
8 God alone made the skies.
   He walks on the ocean waves.
9 “God made the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades.*
   He made the planets that cross the southern sky.*

ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
papyrus  A plant used to make a kind of paper to write on. Its bark is also used to make coverings for boats and ships.

Bear, Orion, Pleiades  These are names of well-known constellations (groups of stars) in the night sky.
planets that cross the southern sky  Literally, “Rooms of the South,” or “Rooms of Teman.” This might be the planets or it might be some star groups, possibly the twelve constellations of the Zodiac. In places north of the equator, these seem to move across the southern sky.
God does wonderful things that people can’t understand. There is no end to God’s great miracles. When God goes past me, I can’t see him. When God goes by, I don’t notice him. If God takes something away, no one can stop him. No one can say to him, ‘What are you doing?’

God won’t hold his anger back. Even Rahab's helpers are afraid of God. So I can’t argue with God. I wouldn’t know what to say to him. I am innocent, but I can’t give him an answer. All I can do is beg my Judge (God) for mercy. Even if I called and he answered, I still wouldn’t believe that he really would listen to me. God would just send storms to crush me. He would just give me more wounds for no reason. God wouldn’t let me catch my breath again. He would just give me more trouble. I can’t defeat God. God is too powerful! I can’t take God to court and force him to be fair to me. Who could force God to come to court?

I am innocent, but the things I say make me seem guilty. I am innocent, but if I speak my mouth proves me guilty. I am innocent. But I don’t know what to think. I hate my own life. I say to myself, ‘The same thing happens to everybody. Innocent people die just like the guilty. God ends all their lives.’ When something terrible happens and an innocent person is killed, does God just laugh at him?

When an evil man takes control of a land, does God keep the leaders from seeing what is happening? If that is true, then who is God anyway?

“My days go faster than a runner. My days fly away and there is no happiness in them. My days go by quickly like the papyrus boats. My days go by as fast as eagles swooping down to catch an animal.

“If I say, ‘I won’t complain. I will forget my pain, I will put a smile on my face.’ It doesn’t really change anything. The suffering still scares me! I am already judged guilty. So why should I keep trying? I say, ‘Forget it!’ Even if I wash myself with snow and make my hands clean with soap, God will still push me into the slime pit.* Then even my clothes will hate me. God is not a man like me. That is why I can’t answer him. We can’t meet each other in court. I wish there were someone to listen to both sides.* I wish there were someone to judge both of us in a fair way. I wish there were someone to take God’s punishing stick away. Then God would not scare me any more. Then I could say what I want to say without being afraid of God. But now I can’t do that. I hate my own life. So I will complain freely. My soul is very bitter, so now I will speak.

Rahab’s A dragon or sea monster. People thought Rahab controlled the sea. Rahab is often a symbol for God’s enemies or for anything evil.

papyrus A plant used to make a kind of paper to write on. Its bark is also used to make coverings for boats and ships.

slime pit The grave, a place where bodies rot.

someone … sides Literally a “mediator” or an “umpire.”
2 I will say to God:
‘Don’t blame me!
Tell me,
What have I done wrong?
What do you have against me?

3 God, does hurting me make you happy?
It seems that you don’t care about what you made.
Or maybe you are happy with the plans that bad people make?

4 God, do you have human eyes?
Do you see things the way people do?
Is your life as short as ours?
Is your life as short as a man’s life?
No! So how do you know what it’s like?

5 You look for my wrong
and search for my sin.
You know I am innocent,
but no one can save me
from your power!

6 God, your hands made me
and shaped my body.
But now they are closing in on me and destroying me!

7 You pour me out like milk.
You spin me and squeeze me like someone making cheese.
You put me together
with bones and muscles.
And then you clothed me
with skin and flesh.

8 You gave me life
and were very kind to me.
You cared for me
and watched over my spirit.

9 But this is what you hid in your heart,
I know this is what you secretly planned in your heart.
Yes, I know this is what was in your mind:

10 If I sinned, you would be watching me, so you could punish me
for doing wrong.

11 When I sin, I am guilty and it will be very bad for me.
But I can’t lift up my head
even when I am innocent!
I am so ashamed and embarrassed.

16 If I have any success and feel proud,
you hunt me like a person hunts a lion.
You again show your power against me.

17 You always have someone to prove I am wrong.
Your will show your anger at me
again and again in many ways, as you send one army after another against me.

18 So, God, why did you let me be born?
I wish I had died before anyone saw me.

19 I wish I had never lived.
I wish I had been carried from my mother’s womb straight to the grave.

20 My life is almost finished.
So leave me alone!
Let me enjoy the little time I have left,
before I go to the place that no person comes back from,
the place of darkness and death.

22 [Let me enjoy the little time I have left, before I go to the place no one can see that place of darkness, shadows, and confusion.
In that place even the light is dark.’”

Zophar Speaks to Job

Then Zophar from Naamah answered Job and said,

2 “This flood of words should be answered!
Does all this talking make Job right? No!

3 Job, do you think we don’t have an answer for you?
Do you think no one will warn you when you laugh at God?

4 Job, you say to God,
‘My arguments are right,
and you can see I am pure.’

5 Job, I wish God would answer you and tell you that you are wrong.

6 God could tell you the secret of wisdom.
He would tell you that every story has two sides.
Job, listen to me,
God is not punishing you
as much as he should.

7 “Job, do you think that you really understand God?
You can’t understand God All-Powerful.
JOB 11:8–12:16

8 You can’t do anything about what is up in heaven! You don’t know anything about the place of death.
9 God is greater than the earth and bigger than the seas.
10 “If God arrests you, and brings you to court, no person can stop him.
11 Truly, God knows who is worthless. When God sees evil, he remembers it.
12 A wild donkey can’t give birth to a man. And a stupid person will never become wise.
13 “But Job, you should make your heart ready to serve only God, and you should lift up your hands to worship him.
14 You should put away the sin that is in your home. Don’t let evil live in your tent.
15 Then you could look to God without shame. You could stand strong and not be afraid.
16 Then you could forget your trouble. Your troubles would be like water that has passed on by.
17 Then your life would be brighter than the sunshine at noon. Life’s darkest hours would shine like the morning sun.
18 Then you would feel safe, because there would be hope. God would care for you and give you rest.
19 You could lie down to rest, and no one would bother you. And many people would come to you for help.
20 Bad people might look for help, but they won’t escape their troubles. Their hope leads only to death.”

Job Answers Zophar

Then Job answered them:

2 “I’m sure you think you are the only wise people. You think when you die, wisdom will be gone with you.

3 But my mind is as good as yours. I am as smart as you are. Anyone can see this is true.
4 “My friends laugh at me now. They say, ‘He prayed to God, and he got his answer. That is why all these bad things happened to him.’
5 “I am a good man. I am innocent. But still they laugh at me.
6 People that don’t have troubles make fun of people who do have them. Those people hit a man when he is down.
7 But ask the animals, they will teach you. Or ask the birds of the air, they will tell you. Or speak to the earth, it will teach you. Or let the fish in the sea tell you their wisdom.
8 Everyone knows the Lord made those things.
9 Every animal that lives, and every person that breathes, is under God’s power.
10 But just like the tongue tastes food, the ears test the words they hear.
11 We say, ‘Wisdom is to be found in old people. Long life brings understanding.’
12 But wisdom and power belong to God. Good advice and understanding are his.
13 If God tears down anything, people can’t build it again. If God puts a person in prison, people can’t free the person.
14 If God holds back the rain, the earth will dry up. If God lets the rain loose, it will flood the earth.
15 God is strong and always wins. Winners and losers all belong to God!
Job 12:17–13:27

17 God strips advisors of their wisdom and makes leaders act like fools.
18 Kings might put people in prison, but God sets those people free and makes them powerful.
19 God strips priests of their power and fires the bureaucrats who feel so secure in their jobs.
20 God makes the trusted advisers be silent. He takes away the wisdom of old people.
21 God makes leaders not important. He takes power away from rulers.
22 God knows even the darkest secrets. He sends light into places that are as dark as death.
23 God makes nations big and powerful, and then he destroys them. He makes nations grow large, then he scatters their people.
24 God makes leaders foolish. He makes them wander aimlessly through the desert.
25 Those leaders are like a person feeling his way in the dark. They are like a drunk person who doesn’t know where he is going.”

13 Job said, “I have seen all this before. I have already heard everything you say. I understand all of those things. I know as much as you do. I am as smart as you are. But I don’t want to argue with you. I want to speak to God All-Powerful. I want to argue with God about my troubles. But you three men try to cover up your ignorance with lies. You are like worthless doctors that can’t heal anyone. I wish you would just be quiet. That would be the wisest thing you could do.

6 “Now, listen to my argument. Listen to what I have to say.
7 Will you speak lies for God? Do you really believe your lies are what God wants you to say?
8 Are you trying to defend God against me? You are not being fair—You are choosing God’s side simply because he is God.
9 If God checked you very closely, would he show you are right?

Do you really think you can fool God the same as you fool people?

10 You know God would criticize you if you chose a person’s side in court simply because he was important.
11 God’s majesty (importance) scares you. You are afraid of him.
12 Your arguments are worth nothing. Your answers are worthless.

13 “Be quiet and let me talk!
I accept whatever happens to me.
14 I will put myself in danger, and take my life in my own hands.
15 I will continue to trust God even if God kills me.*
But I will defend myself to his face.
16 And if God lets me live, it will be because I was brave enough to speak.
No evil person would dare meet God face to face.
17 Listen carefully to what I say. Let me explain.
18 I am ready now to defend myself. I will carefully present my arguments. I know I will be shown to be right.
19 If any person can prove I am wrong, then I will shut up immediately.

20 “God, just give me two things, and then I won’t hide from you:
21 Stop punishing me, and stop scaring me with your terrors.
22 Then call to me and I will answer you. Or let me speak, and you answer me.
23 How many sins have I done? What have I done wrong? Show me my sins and my wrongs.
24 God, why do you avoid me, and treat me like your enemy?
25 Are you trying to scare me? I am only a leaf blowing in the wind. You are attacking a little piece of straw!
26 God, you say bitter things against me. Are you making me suffer for the sins I did when I was young.
27 You have put chains on my feet. You watch every step I take. You watch every move I make.

I will … kills me Or, “If he decides to kill me, I have no hope.”
So I am becoming weaker and weaker like a piece of wood rotting away, like a piece of cloth eaten by moths.”

Job said, “We are all human beings.*
Our life is short and full of trouble.
Man’s life is like a flower. He grows quickly, and then dies away. Man’s life is like a shadow that is here for a short time, and then it is gone. That is true, but God, will you look at me, a man? And will you come into court with me and let us both give our arguments?

But what does something clean have in common with something dirty? Nothing!
Man’s life is limited.
God, you decide how long a man lives.
You set those limits for a man and nothing can change them.
So God, stop watching us.
Leave us alone.
Let us enjoy our hard life until our time is finished.

There is hope for a tree.
If it is cut down, it can grow again.
It will keep sending out new branches.
Its roots might grow old in the ground and its stump die in the dirt, but with water it will grow again.
It will grow branches like a new plant.
But when man dies, he is finished!
When man dies, he is gone.
You could take all the water from the sea, until the rivers all run dry, and the man will still be dead!
When a person dies, he lies down and he doesn’t get up.
The skies will all disappear before a dead man will wake up.
No. People don’t wake up from that sleep.
I wish you would hide me in my grave.
I wish you would hide me there, until your anger is gone.
Then you could pick a time to remember me.

If a person dies, will he live again?
I would wait as long as I must until I could be set free.
God, you would call me and I would answer you.
Then I, the person you made, would be important to you.
You would still watch every step I take, but you wouldn’t remember my sins.
You would tie up my sins in a bag, seal it, and throw it away!

“Mountains fall and crumble away.
Large rocks break loose and fall.
Water flowing over stones wears them down.
Floods wash away the soil on the ground.
In the same way, God, you destroy a person’s hope.
You defeat him completely and then you leave.
You make him sad and send him away forever to the place of death.
If his sons are honored, he never knows it.
If his sons do wrong, he never sees it.
That man only feels the pain in his body, and he cries loudly only for himself.”

Then Eliphaz from Teman answered Job:

Job, if you were really wise, you wouldn’t answer with your worthless personal opinions!
A wise man would not be so full of hot air.
Do you think a wise man would argue with worthless words and with speeches that mean nothing?
Job, if you had your way, no person would respect God and pray to him.
The things you say clearly show your sin.
Job, you are trying to hide your sin by using clever words.
I don’t need to prove to you that you are wrong. Why?
The things you say with your own mouth show that you are wrong.
Your own lips speak against you.

7 “Job, do you think you were the first person ever to be born?
Were you born before the hills?
8 Did you listen to God’s secret plans?
Do you think you are the only wise person?
9 Job, we know more than you do!
We understand things that you don’t.
10 The gray-haired men and the old people agree with us.
Yes, even people older than your father are on our side.
11 God tries to comfort you, but that is not enough for you.
We have spoken God’s message to you in a gentle way.
12 Job, why won’t you understand?
Why can’t you see the truth?
13 You are against God when you say these angry words.
14 “A man can’t really be pure.
A person* can’t be more right than God!
15 God doesn’t even trust his angels.*
Compared to God even the heavens are not pure.
16 Man is even worse.
Man is dirty and ruined.
He drinks up evil like water.
17 “Listen to me Job, and I will explain it to you.
I will tell you what I know.
18 I will tell you the things wise men have told me.
The wise men’s ancestors* told them these things.
They didn’t hide any secrets from me.
They alone lived in their country.
There were no foreigners passing through.
19 So no person told them strange ideas.
20 [These wise people said,]
An evil person suffers all his life.
A cruel person suffers all his numbered years.
21 Every noise scares him.
His enemy will attack him when he thinks he is safe.
22 The evil person is very frustrated, and there is no hope for him to escape the darkness.
There is a sword somewhere that is waiting to kill him.
23 He wanders here and there, but his body will be food for the vultures.
He knows that his death* is very near.
24 Worry and suffering make him afraid.
These things attack him like a king ready to destroy him.
25 Why? Because the evil person refuses to obey God—
He shakes his fist at God, and tries to defeat God All-Powerful.
26 That evil person is very stubborn.
He tries to attack God with a thick, strong shield.
27 “A person might be rich and fat
28 but his town will be ruined, his home will be destroyed, his house will be empty.
29 The evil person won’t be rich for long.
His wealth won’t last.
His crops won’t grow large.
30 The evil person won’t escape the darkness.
He will be like a tree whose leaves die from disease and a wind blows them all away.
31 The evil person should not fool himself when he trusts worthless things.
Why? He will get nothing.
32 Before his life is over, the evil person will be old and dried up.
He will be like a dried branch, never to be green again.

*person Literally, “A man born of woman.”
*angels Literally, “holy ones.”
*ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
*death Literally, “day of darkness.”
33 The evil person will be like a vine that loses its grapes before they ripen. That person will be like an olive tree that loses its buds.
34 Why? Because people without God have nothing. People who love money will have their homes destroyed by fire.
35 Evil people are always planning ways to do evil and cause trouble. They are always planning ways to cheat people.”

Job Answers Eliphaz

16 Then Job answered,
2 “I have heard all these things before. You three men give me trouble, not comfort.
3 Your long speeches never end! Why do you continue arguing?
4 I also could say the same things you say, if you had my troubles. I could say wise things against you and shake my head at you.
5 But I could encourage you and give you hope with the things I say.
6 “Nothing I say makes my pain go away. But keeping quiet doesn’t help either!
7 Truly, God, you took away my strength. You destroyed my whole family.
8 You have made me thin and weak, and people think that means I am guilty.
9 “God attacks me, he is angry at me and tears my body apart. God grinds his teeth against me. My enemy looks at me with hate.
10 People have crowded around me. They make fun of me and slap my face.
11 God has given me to evil people. He let wicked people hurt me.
12 Everything was fine with me, but then God crushed me! Yes, he took me by the neck and broke me into pieces! God used me for target practice.
13 God’s archers* are all around me. He shoots arrows in my kidneys. He shows no mercy. He spills my gall* on the ground.
14 Again and again God attacks me. He runs at me like a soldier in battle.
15 ‘I am very sad, so I wear these clothes of sadness. I sit here in the dust and ashes, and I feel defeated.
16 My face is red from crying. There are dark rings around my eyes.
17 I was never cruel to anyone but these bad things happened to me. My prayers are right and pure.
18 ‘Earth, don’t hide the wrong things that were done to me. Don’t let my begging for fairness be stopped.
19 Even now there is someone in heaven that will speak for me. There is someone above that will testify for me.
20 My friend speaks for me while my eyes pour out tears to God.
21 He speaks to God for me like a person* arguing for his friend.
22 ‘In only a few years I will go to that place of no return (death).
17 My spirit is broken; I am ready to give up. My life is almost gone; the grave is waiting for me.
2 People stand around me and laugh at me. I watch them as they tease and insult me.
3 “God, show me that you really support me. No other person will support me.
4 You have closed my friends’ minds and they don’t understand. Please don’t let them win.

archers Soldiers that use bows and arrows in war.
gall The gall bladder is a pouch on the liver where bile or gall is stored. When the gall bladder is torn open, gall or bile comes out. Here this means having to endure something bitter and painful.
person Literally, "son of man."
5 You know what people say, 'A man neglects his own children to help his friends.'
   But my friends have turned against me.
6 God has made my name a bad word to everyone.
   People spit in my face.
7 My eyes have become almost blind because I am very sad and in great pain.
   My whole body has become very thin, like a shadow.
8 Good people are upset about this.
   Innocent people are upset at people that don’t care about God.
9 But good people continue to live right.
   Innocent people will become stronger.
10 “But come on, all of you, try to show me that it is all my fault.
   None of you are wise.
11 My life is passing away.
   My plans are destroyed.
   My hope is gone.
12 But my friends are all mixed up.
   They think night is day.
   They think darkness drives away the light.
13 “I might hope for the grave to be my new home.
   I might hope to make my bed in the dark grave.
14 I might say to the grave, ‘You are my father,’ and to the worms, ‘My mother,’ or ‘My sister.’
15 But if that is my only hope then I have no hope at all.
   If that is my only hope then people have found me no hope at all.
16 Will my hope die with me?
   Will it also go down to the place of death?
   Will we go down into the dirt together?”

Bildad Answers Job

18 Then Bildad from Shuah answered:

2 “Job, when will you stop talking?
   Be quiet and listen.
   Let us say something.
3 Why do you think we are stupid like dumb cows?
4 Job, your anger is only hurting yourself.
   Should people leave the earth just for you?
   Do you think God will move mountains just to satisfy you?
5 “Yes, the evil person’s light will go out.
   His fire will stop burning.
6 The light in his house will become dark.
   The lamp next to him will go out.
7 His steps won’t be strong and fast again.
   But he will walk slowly and be weak.
   His own evil plans will make him fall.
8 His own feet will lead him into a trap.
   He will walk into a trap and be caught.
9 A trap will catch his heel.
   A trap will hold him tight.
10 A rope in the ground will trap him.
   A trap is waiting in his path.
11 Terror is waiting for him all around.
   Fears will follow every step he takes.
12 Bad troubles are hungry for him.
   Ruin and disaster are ready for him when he falls.
13 Terrible sickness will eat away his skin.
   It will rot his arms and legs.
14 The evil person will be taken away from the safety of his house.
   He will be led away to meet the king of terrors.
15 He will have nothing left in his house.
   Why? Burning sulfur will be scattered all through his home.
16 His roots below will dry up,
   and his branches above will die.
17 People on earth won’t remember him.
   No person remembers him anymore.
18 People will push him away from light into the darkness.
   They will chase him out of this world.
19 He will have no children or grandchildren.
   None of his family will be left alive.
People in the west will be shocked when they hear what happened to the evil person. People in the east will be numb with fear. That really will happen to the evil person’s home. This is what will happen to the person that does not care about God!”

Then Job answered:

“How long will you hurt me and break me with words? You have insulted me ten times now. You show no shame when you attack me! Even if I have sinned, it is my problem. It does not hurt you. You just want to make yourselves look better than me. You say that my troubles are my own fault. But it is God who did wrong to me. He set his trap to catch me. I shout, ‘He hurt me!’ But I get no answer. Even if I call loudly for help, no person hears my cry for fairness. God has blocked my way so I can’t go through. He has hidden my path in darkness. God took away my honor. He took the crown from my head. God hits me from every side until I am finished. He takes away my hope like a tree pulled up by the roots. God’s anger burns against me. He calls me his enemy. God sends his army to attack me. They build attack towers around me. They camp around my tent. “God has made my brothers hate me. I am a stranger to all my friends. My relatives have left me. My friends have forgotten me. Visitors in my home and my girl servants look at me like I am a stranger and a foreigner. I call for my servant, but he does not answer. Even if I beg for help, my servant will not answer. My wife hates the smell of my breath. My own brothers hate me. Even little children make fun of me. When I come near them, they say bad things to me. All my close friends hate me. Even the people I love turned against me. “I am so thin, my skin hangs loose on my bones. I have little life left in me. “Pity me, my friends, pity me! Why? Because God is against me. Why do you persecute me like God does? Don’t you get tired of hurting me? “I wish someone would remember what I say and write it in a book. I wish my words were written on a scroll. I wish the things I say were carved with an iron tool on lead or scratched on a rock so they would last forever. I know there is someone to defend me. I know he lives! And in the end he will stand here on earth and defend me. After I leave my body and my skin has been destroyed, I know I will still see God. I will see God with my own eyes. I myself, not someone else, will see God, And I can’t tell you how excited that makes me feel! “Maybe you will say, ‘We will bother Job. We will find a reason to blame him!’ But you yourselves should be afraid of the sword! Why? Because God punishes guilty people. God will use the sword to punish you. Then you will know that there is a time of judgment.”
Zophar Answers

20 Then Zophar from Naamah answered:

2 “Job, you have troubled thoughts.
So I must answer you.
I must quickly tell you what
I am thinking.
3 You insulted us with your answers!
But I am wise, I know how to answer you.

4–5 “You know an evil person’s joy doesn’t last long.
That has been true a long time,
from the time Adam was put on earth.
A person who doesn’t care about God is happy for only a short time.
6 Maybe the evil person’s pride will reach up to the sky,
and his head will touch the clouds.
7 But he will be gone forever,
like his own body waste.
People who know him will say,
‘Where is he?’
8 Like a dream, he will fly away and no one will ever find him.
He will be forced away and forgotten like a bad dream.*
9 The people that saw him,
won’t see him again.
His family will never look at him again.
10 The evil person’s children will give back what he took from poor people.
The evil person’s own hands must give back his wealth.
11 When he was young his bones were strong,
but, like the rest of his body,
they soon will lie in the dirt.
12 “Evil tastes sweet
in the bad person’s mouth.
He keeps it under his tongue to enjoy it fully.
13 A bad person enjoys evil.
He hates to let it go.
It is like a sweet candy
he keeps in his mouth.
14 But that evil will become poison in his stomach.

bad dream  Or, “vision of the night.”

15 The evil man has swallowed riches.
But he will vomit them out.
God will make the evil person
vomit them out.
16 The evil person’s drink will be like the poison from snakes.
The snake’s fangs will kill him.
17 Then the evil person won’t enjoy seeing the rivers that flow with honey and cream.
18 The evil person will be forced to give back his profits.
He won’t be allowed to enjoy the things he worked for.
19 Why? Because the evil person hurt poor people
and treated them wrong.
He didn’t care about them,
and he took their things.
He took houses someone else built.
20 “The evil person is never satisfied.
His wealth can’t save him.
21 When he eats,
there is nothing left.
His success won’t continue.
22 While the evil person has plenty,
he will become pressed down
with trouble.
His problems will come down on him!
23 When the evil person has eaten
all he wants,
God will throw his burning anger against that person.
God will rain punishment
down on the evil person.
24 Maybe the evil person will run away from an iron sword.
But a bronze arrow will shoot him down.
25 The bronze arrow will go all the way through his body, and stick out from his back.
Its shining point will pierce his liver,
and he will be shocked with terror.
26 All his treasures will be destroyed.
A fire will destroy him—
A fire that no human started.
The fire will destroy everything left in his house.
JOB 20:27–21:28  608

27 Heaven will prove that the evil person is guilty.
The earth will be a witness against him.
Everythi
28 Everything in his house will be carried away in the flood of God’s anger.
That is what God will do to evil people.
That is what God plans to give them.”

Job Answers

21 Then Job answered:

2 “Listen to what I say.
Let that be your way of comforting me.
Be patient while I speak.
Then after I have finished speaking,
you may make fun of me.

4 “I am not complaining against people.
There is a good reason
why I am not patient.
Look at me and be shocked.
Put your hand over your mouth,
and stare at me in shock!
When I think about what happened to me
I feel afraid, and my body shakes!

6 Why do evil people live long lives?
Why do they grow old and successful?
Evil people watch their children grow with them.
Evil people live to see their grandchildren.
Their homes are safe and they are not afraid.
God doesn’t use a stick to punish evil people.
Their bulls never fail to mate.
Their cows have baby calves,
and the baby calves don’t die at birth.

11 Evil people send their children out to play like lambs.

Their children dance around.
They sing and dance
to the sound of harps and flutes.

13 Evil people enjoy success during their lives.
Then they die
and go to their grave without suffering.
But evil people say to God,
‘Leave us alone!
We don’t care what you want us to do!’

15 And the evil people say,
‘Who is God All-Powerful?
We don’t need to serve him!
It won’t help to pray to him!’

16 “It is true, evil people don’t make their own success.
I can’t follow their advice.
But, how often does God blow out
the light of evil people?
How does trouble come to the evil people?
When does God become angry at them and punish them?

18 Does God blow the evil people away, like the wind blows straw,
like strong winds blow the grain husks?
But you say,
‘God punishes a child
for his father’s sins.
No! Let God punish the evil person himself.
Then that evil person will know
he is being punished for his own sins!

20 Let the sinner see his own punishment.
Let him feel the anger of God All-Powerful.

21 When the evil person’s life is finished,
and he is dead,
he won’t care about the family
he leaves behind.

22 “No person can teach knowledge to God.
God judges even people in high places.

23 One person dies after a full and successful life.
He lived a life completely safe and comfortable.

24 His body was well fed and his bones were still strong.

25 But another person dies after a hard life, with a bitter soul.
He never enjoyed anything good.

26 In the end, both of those people will lie together in the dirt.
The worms will cover them both.

27 ‘But, I know what you are thinking, and I know you want to hurt me.
You might say:
‘Show me a good man’s house.
Now, show me where evil people live.’
29 “Surely you have talked with travelers. Surely you will accept their stories.
   Evil people are spared when disaster comes. They survive when God shows his anger.
   Nobody criticizes an evil person to his face for the bad things he did. No person punishes him for the evil he did.
   When that evil person is carried to the grave, a guard will stand near his grave.
   So even the soil in the valley will be pleasant for that evil person. And thousands of people will join the march to his grave.

34 “So you can’t comfort me with your empty words. Your answers don’t help at all!”

Eliphaz Answers

22 Then Eliphaz from Teman answered:

2 “Does God need our help? No! Even a very wise person isn’t really useful to God.
   Does your living right help God? No! Does God All-Powerful gain anything if you follow him? No!
   “Job, why does God punish and blame you? Is it because you worship him?
   No, it is because you have sinned much. Job, you never stop sinning!
   Maybe you loaned a brother some money and forced him to give you something to prove he would pay it back.
   Maybe you took some poor man’s clothes as collateral* for a loan. Maybe you did that for no reason.
   Maybe you didn’t give water and food to tired, hungry people.
   Job, you have a lot of farm land. And people respect you.
   But maybe you sent widows* away without giving them anything. Job, maybe you cheated orphans.*

   collateral Something to prove a person will pay back a loan. If he does not pay, the other person gets to keep the collateral.
   widows Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.
   orphans Children without any parents to take care of them.

   That is why traps are all around you, and sudden trouble makes you afraid.
   That is why it is so dark you can’t see, and why a flood of water covers you.
   “God lives in the highest part of heaven. See how high the stars are. God looks down on the highest stars.
   But Job, you might say, ‘What does God know? Can God see through the dark clouds and judge us?’
   Thick clouds hide him from us, so he can’t see us as he walks beyond the edge of the sky.’
   “Job, you are walking on the old path that evil people walked on long ago.
   Those evil people were destroyed before it was their time to die. They were washed away by the flood.
   Those people told God, ‘Leave us alone! God All-Powerful can’t do anything to us!’
   And it was God who filled their houses with good things! No, I can’t follow the advice of evil people.
   Good people will see them destroyed and those good people will be happy. Innocent people laugh at the evil people.
   ‘Truly our enemies are destroyed! Fire burns up their wealth!’
   “Now, Job, give yourself to God and make peace with him. Do this, and you will get many good things.
   Accept his teaching. Pay attention to what he says.
   Job, come back to God All-Powerful, and you will be restored. But, you must remove the evil from your house.
   Think of your gold as nothing but dirt, Think of your best gold* as pebbles from a stream.
   And let God All-Powerful be your gold. Let him be your pile of silver.

best gold Literally, “Ophir.”
Then you will enjoy God All-Powerful.
And you will look up to God.

You will pray to him,
and he will hear you.

If you decide to do something,
it will be successful.

God makes proud people ashamed.
But God helps humble people.

Then you can help people who make mistakes.

And you will be able to do the things you promised to do.

You will pray to God
and he will forgive those people.

Why? Because you will be so pure.”

Then Job answered:

“I am still complaining today.
Why? Because I am still suffering.

I wish I knew where to find God.
I wish I knew how to go to God!

I would explain to God my story.
My mouth would be full of arguments to show I am innocent.

I want to know how God would answer my arguments.
I want to understand God’s answers.

Would God use his power against me?
No, he would listen to me!

I am an honest man.
God would let me tell my story.

Then my Judge would set me free!

“But if I go to the east,
God is not there.
If I go to the west,
I still don’t see God.

When God is working in the north,
I don’t see him.
When God turns to the south,
I still don’t see him.

But God knows me.
He is testing me and he will see that I am as pure as gold.

I have always lived the way God wants.
I have never stopped following God.

I always obey God’s commands.
I love the words from God’s mouth more than I love my food.

“But God never changes.
No person can stand against God.
God does anything he wants.

God will do what he planned to me.
And he has many other plans for me.

That is why I am afraid of God.
I understand these things.

That is why I am afraid of God.

God makes my heart weak,
and I lose my courage.

God All-Powerful makes me afraid.

The bad things that happened to me are like a black cloud over my face.
But that darkness won’t keep me quiet.

“Why is it that God All-Powerful knows when bad things are going to happen to people, but his followers can’t predict when he is going to do something about it?”

“People move the property markers to get more of their neighbor’s land.
People steal flocks and lead them to other grasslands.

They steal the donkey that belongs to children without parents.
They take a widow’s* cow away from her until she pays what she owes them.

Evil people take a nursing baby from its mother.

They take a poor person’s child
as security* for a loan.

They force the poor people to wander from place to place without a home.
All the poor people are forced to hide from these evil people.

Poor people are like wild donkeys wandering in the desert searching for food.

widow(s) Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.

security Anything a person gives to show he will pay his loan.
If the person does not pay back his loan, then the lender can keep that thing.
They get up early in the morning to search for food. They work late into the evening getting food for their children.

6 Poor people must work late into the night cutting hay and straw in fields. They must work for rich people* gathering the grapes in their fields.

7 Poor people must sleep all night without clothes. They have no covers to protect them from the cold.

8 They are soaked with rain in the mountains. They have nothing to protect them from the cold. So they huddle close to the large rocks.

10 Poor people have no clothes. So they work naked. They carry piles of grain for evil people, but still they go hungry.

11 Poor people press out olive oil. They walk on grapes in the winepress.* But they have nothing to drink.

12 In the city you can hear the sad sounds of the dying people. Those hurt people cry out for help. But God does not listen.

13 “Some people rebel against the light. They don’t know what God wants. They don’t live the way God wants.

14 A murderer gets up early in the morning, and kills poor, helpless people. And at night he becomes a thief.

15 The person that does adultery,* waits for the night to come. He thinks, ‘No person will see me.’ But still, he covers his face.

16 At night when it is dark, evil people go out and break into peoples’ houses. But during the daylight, they lock themselves in their own homes and avoid the light.

17 The darkest night is like morning for those evil people. Yes, they know the terrors of that deadly darkness very well!

18 “But the evil people are taken away like things carried away in a flood. The land they own is cursed,* so they won’t gather grapes from their fields.

19 Hot, dry weather takes away their water that came from the winter snows. So those sinners will be carried to the grave.

20 That evil person will die and even his own mother will forget him. His sweetheart will be the worms eating his body. People will not remember him. That evil person will be broken like a rotten stick!

21 Evil people hurt women who can’t have children. And they refuse to help women whose husbands are dead.

22 Evil people use their power to ruin powerful men. Evil people might become powerful but they can’t be sure of their own lives.

23 Evil people might feel safe and secure for a short time. They might want to be powerful.

24 Bad people might be successful for awhile, but then they will be gone. They will be cut down like grain, just like everyone else.

25 “I swear (promise) these things are true! Who can prove that I lied? Who can show that I am wrong?”

rich people Or, “wicked people.”

winepress A place for squeezing the juice from grapes. Sometimes this was only a shallow hole in a large rock in the ground.

adultery Breaking the marriage promise by sexual sin.

cursed To ask for bad things to happen to someone or something.
Bildad Answers Job

Then Bildad from Shuah answered:

“God is the ruler.
He makes people fear and respect Him.
He keeps peace in his kingdom above.
No person can count his stars.*
God’s sun rises on all people.
Compared to God, no person is good.
No human being can really be pure.
In God’s eyes,
even the moon is not pure and bright,
even the stars are not pure.
People are much less pure.
People are like maggots,* like worthless worms!”

Job Answers Bildad

Then Job answered:

“Bildad, Zophar, and Eliphaz, you have really been a big help
for this tired, weary man!
Oh yes, you have really been an encouragement,
you have really made my weak arms strong again!
Yes, you have given wonderful advice to the person with no wisdom!
You have really shown how wise you are!*
Who helped you say these things?
Whose spirit inspired you?
“The spirits of dead people shake with fear in the waters under the earth.
But God can see clearly into that place of death.
Death* is not hidden from God.

God stretched the northern sky over empty space.
God hung the earth on nothing.
God fills the thick clouds with water.
But God doesn’t let that heavy weight break the clouds open.
God covers the face of the full moon.
He spreads his clouds over it and hides it.
God drew the horizon on the ocean,
like a circle
where light and darkness meet.
The foundations that hold up the sky shake with fear
when God threatens them.
God’s power makes the sea calm.
God’s wisdom destroyed Rahab’s* helpers.
God’s breath makes the skies clear.
God’s hand destroyed the snake that tried to get away.*
These are only a few of the amazing things that God does.
We only hear a small whisper from God.
No person can really understand how great and powerful God is.”

Then Job continued telling his story.
Job said,
“Truly, God lives.
And just as truly as God lives,
He has truly been unfair with me.
God All-Powerful made my life bitter.
But as long as life is in me and God’s breath of life is in my nose, then my lips will not speak evil things,
and my tongue will never tell a lie.
I will never admit that you men are right.
I will continue saying I am innocent until the day I die.
I will hold tightly
to the right things I did.
I will never stop living right.
My conscience will never bother me as long as I live.

his stars Or, “his troops.” This means God’s heavenly army. It could be all the angels or all the stars in the sky.
human being Literally, “No one born from woman.”
maggots An insect that looks like a small worm and becomes a fly. It is usually found in dead bodies and decaying things.
Verses 2–3 Job doesn’t really mean what he is saying here. Job is being sarcastic—he is saying these things in a way that shows he doesn’t really mean it.
Death Or, “Abaddon, Destruction.” See Rev. 9:11.

Rahab A dragon or sea monster. People thought Rahab controlled the sea. Rahab is often a symbol for God’s enemies or for anything evil.
snake … get away Or, “the escaping monster.” This might be another name for Rahab. See Isa. 27:1.
7 “People have stood against me. I hope my enemies are punished like bad men should be punished.

8 If a person does not care about God, then there is no hope for that person when he dies. That person has no hope when God takes his life away.

9 That evil person will have troubles, and he will cry to God for help. But God won’t listen to him!

10 That person should have enjoyed talking with God All-Powerful. That person should have prayed to God all the time.

11 “I will teach you about God’s power. I will not hide God All-Powerful’s plans.

12 You have seen God’s power with your own eyes. So why do you say such useless things?

13 This is what God planned for evil people. This is what cruel people will get from God All-Powerful:

14 An evil person might have many children. But his children will be killed in war. The children of an evil person will not have enough to eat.

15 All of his children will die, and his widow will not be sad.

16 An evil person might get so much silver that it is like dirt to him. He might have so many clothes that they are like piles of clay.

17 But a good person will get his clothes Innocent people will get his silver.

18 An evil man might build a house, but it will not last a long time. It will be like a spider’s web or a watchman’s tent.

19 An evil person might be rich when he goes to bed. But when he opens his eyes, all his riches will be gone.

20 He will be scared. It will be like a flood, like a storm came and carried everything away.

21 The east wind will carry him away, and he will be gone.

The storm will sweep him out of his home.

22 The evil person might try to run away from the power of the storm. But the storm will hit him without mercy.

23 Men will clap their hands as the evil person runs away. They will whistle at that evil person as he runs from his home.

28 “There are mines where people get silver and places where people melt gold to make it pure.

2 Men dig iron from the ground. Copper is melted from the rocks.

3 Workers carry lights into the caves. They search deep into the caves. They look for rocks in the deep darkness.

4 Workers dig deep into the ground, following the veins of ore. They go deep down into the ground far away from where people live, down where no person has been before. They hang from ropes far below ground, far away from other men.

5 Food grows on the ground above. But underground, it is different—as if everything were melted by fire.

6 Underground there are sapphires* and grains of pure gold.

7 Wild birds know nothing about the paths under the ground. No falcon* has ever seen those dark paths.

8 Wild animals haven’t walked those paths. Lions haven’t traveled that way.

9 Workers dig the hardest rocks. Those workers dig away at the mountains and make them bare.

10 Workers cut tunnels through the rocks. They see all the rock’s treasures. The workers make dams to stop the water. They bring hidden things out into the light.

12 “But where can a person find wisdom? Where can we go to find understanding?

13 We don’t know how valuable wisdom is. People on earth can’t dig in the ground and find wisdom.

sapphires A very rare and expensive stone.

falcon A kind of bird, like a hawk.
14 The deep ocean says,
'Wisdom is not here with me.'
The sea says,
'Wisdom is not here with me.'

15 You can’t buy wisdom with even the purest gold.
There isn’t enough silver in the world to buy wisdom.

16 You can’t buy wisdom with gold from Ophir or precious onyx* or sapphires.*

17 Wisdom is worth more than gold or crystal.
Expensive jewels set in gold can’t buy wisdom.

18 Wisdom is worth more
than coral* and jasper.*
Wisdom is more precious than rubies.

19 The topaz* from the country of Ethiopia is not as precious as wisdom.
You can’t buy wisdom with pure gold.

20 "So, where does wisdom come from?
Where can we find understanding?

21 Wisdom is hidden from every living thing
on earth.
Even birds in the sky can’t see wisdom.

22 Death and destruction* say,
‘We haven’t found wisdom
We have only heard rumors about it.’

23 “Only God knows the way to wisdom.
Only God knows where wisdom is.

24 God can see to the very ends of the earth.
God sees everything under the sky.

25 God gave the wind its power.
God decided how big to make the oceans.

26 God decided where to send the rain, and where the thunderstorms should go.

27 At that time God saw wisdom and thought about it.

28 And God said to people, “Fear and respect the Lord—
that is wisdom.
Don’t do evil things—
that is understanding.”

Job Continues His Talk

29 Job continued telling his story. Job said:

2 “I wish my life was like it was a few months ago.
At that time God watched over me
and cared for me.

3 At that time, God’s light shined above me so I could walk through the darkness—
God showed me the right way to live.

4 I wish for the days when I was successful, and God was my close friend.
In those days God blessed my home.

5 I wish for the time when God All-Powerful was still with me, and my children were all around me.

6 Life was very good then.
I washed my feet in cream,
and I had plenty of the finest oils.*

7 “Those were the days when I went to the city gate and sat with the elders of the city in the public meeting place.

8 All the people there respected me!
The young men stepped out of my way
when they saw me coming.
And the old men got up.
They stood to show they respected me.

9 The leaders of the people stopped talking and put their hand to their mouth to make other people be quiet.

10 Even the most important leaders lowered their voices when they spoke.
Yes, it seemed like their tongues stuck to the roof of their mouths.

I had plenty of the finest oils Literally, “Around the anointed rock near me were streams of oil.” This probably means that Job had so much olive oil that there were streams of oil running down the altar from the part that Job gave as a gift to God.
People listened to what I said and then said good things about me. People watched what I did, and then they praised me.

Why? Because when the poor person cried out for help, I helped. And I helped the child that had no parents and no one to care for him.

The person that was dying blessed me. I helped widows* that were in need.

Right living was my clothing. Fairness was like my robe and turban.* I was the eyes for blind people. I led them where they wanted to go. I was the feet for crippled people. I carried them where they wanted to go.

I was like a father for poor people. I helped people I didn’t even know win their arguments in court.

I stopped evil people abusing their power and saved innocent people from them."

"I always thought I would live a long life, growing old with my family around me. I thought I would be healthy and virile like a healthy plant with roots that have plenty of water and branches that are wet with dew. I thought each new day would be bright and full of new and exciting possibilities.*

"In the past, people listened to me. They were quiet while they waited for my advice. After I had finished speaking, the people listening to me didn’t have anything else to say. My words fell gently into their ears."

People waited for me to speak, like they waited for rain. People drank in my words, as if they were rain in the spring time.

I laughed with those people, and they couldn’t believe it. My smile made them feel better.

I chose to be with those people, even though I was their leader. I was like a king in camp with his troops, comforting the people who were sad.

But now, even the men who are younger than I am are making fun of me. And their fathers were so worthless that I wouldn’t put them with the dogs guarding my sheep.

The fathers of those young men are too weak to help me. They are old and tired—their muscles are not hard and strong any more.

They are like dead men— They are starving with nothing to eat. So they eat the dry dust of the desert.

They pull up salt plants in the desert. They eat the roots from the broom tree.

They are forced away from other people. People shout at them like they are thieves.

They must live in the dry river beds, hillside caves and holes in the ground.

They howl in the bushes, and huddle together under thorn bushes.

They are a group of worthless people with no names who were forced to leave their country!

"Now those men’s sons sing songs about me to make fun of me. My name has become a bad word to them. Those young men hate me, they stand away from me, they think they are better than me. They even spit in my face!

God has taken the string from my bow and made me weak. Those young men don’t stop themselves but turn against me with all their anger.

They attack me at my right side. They knock my feet out from under me. I feel like a city being attacked. They build dirt ramps against my walls to attack and destroy me."

widow(s) Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.
turban A head covering made by wrapping a long piece of cloth around the head or around a cap worn on the head.
I stopped … from them Literally, “I shattered the teeth of the crooked and snatched the victims from their teeth.”
thought … possibilities Literally, “My Glory is new with me and my bow in my hand renewed.” ‘Glory’ and ‘bow’ might both refer to a rainbow—the promise of good weather after a storm. Or this might be understood as, “My soul feels new every day, my hand always strong enough to shoot a new bow.”
They guard the road so I can’t escape.
They succeed in destroying me.
They don’t need anyone to help them.
They break a hole in the wall.
They come rushing through it,
and the crashing rocks fall on me.
I am shaking with fear.
Those young men chase away my honor like the wind blows things away.
My safety disappears like a cloud.

“Now my life is almost gone,
and I will soon die.
Days of suffering have grabbed me.
All my bones ache at night.
Pain never stops chewing on me.
God grabbed the collar of my coat and twisted my clothes out of shape.
God threw me into the mud,
and I become like dirt and ashes.

“God, I cry out to you for help,
but you don’t answer.
I stand up and pray,
but you don’t pay attention to me.
God, you are mean to me.
You use your power to hurt me.
God, you let the strong wind blow me away.
You throw me around in the storm.
I know you will lead me to my death.
Every living person must die.

“But, surely no one will hurt a person that is already ruined and crying for help.
God, you know that I have cried for people in trouble.
You know that my heart was very sad for poor people.
But when I looked for good things, bad things came instead.
When I looked for light, darkness came.
I am torn up inside.
The suffering never stops.
And the suffering has just started.
I am always sad and depressed,
without relief.
I stand up in the assembly and yell for help.
I am all alone like the wild dogs and ostriches [in the desert].
My skin is burnt and peeling away.
My body is hot with fever.

My harp is tuned to play sad songs.
My flute makes sounds like sad crying.
“I made an agreement with my eyes not to look at a girl in a way that would make me want her.
What does God All-Powerful do to people?
How does God pay people back from his home high in heaven?
God sends trouble and ruin to wicked people, and disaster to people that do wrong.
God knows everything I do, and he sees every step I take.

“I have not lied and tried to cheat people!
If God would use accurate scales,* then he would know that I am innocent.

Then God would know if I walked off the right path, if my eyes led my heart to do evil, or if my hands are dirty with sin,
Then it would be right for other people to eat the crops I planted and to pull up the plants I grew.

“If I have desired another woman or waited at my neighbor’s door to sin with his wife, than let my wife cook another man’s food, and let other men sleep with her.
Why? Because sexual sin is shameful. It is a sin that must be punished.
Sexual sin is like a fire that burns until it destroys everything! It could ruin everything I have ever done.

“If I refuse to be fair to my slaves when they have a complaint against me, then what will I do when I must face God? What will I say when God asks me to explain what I did?
God made me in my mother’s body. And God also made my slaves. God shaped us all inside our mothers.

“I have never refused to help poor people. I always gave widows what they needed.

accurate scales Literally, “scales of righteousness.” As a word play, this could mean either “accurate scales” or “scales that show a person is good.”
I have never been selfish with my food.
I always gave food to orphans.

All my life,
I have been like a father to children that had no father.

All my life,
I have taken care of widows.

When I found people suffering because they didn’t have clothes, or a poor man with no coat,
I always gave them clothes.

I used the wool from my own sheep to make them warm.

And they blessed me with all their heart.

I never shook my fist at an orphan when I saw him at the gate asking for help.*

If I ever did that, then may my arm be pulled from its socket and fall from my shoulder!

But I didn’t do any of those bad things.
I am afraid of God’s punishment.
His majesty (importance) scares me.*

“I have never trusted in my riches.
I always trusted God to help me.
I never said to pure gold,
‘You are my hope.’

I have been wealthy.
But that didn’t make me proud!
I earned a lot of money.
But that is not what made me happy!

I have never worshiped the bright sun,
or the beautiful moon.

I was never foolish enough to worship the sun and the moon.

That is also a sin that must be punished.
If I had worshiped those things,
then I would have been unfaithful to God All-Powerful.

“I have never been happy
when my enemies were destroyed.
I have never laughed at my enemies when bad things happened to them.

Verse 21  Or, “I never threatened an orphan, even when I saw that I was supported in court.”

His majesty ... me  Or, “I couldn’t stand before his majesty.”

cursing  Asking for bad things to happen to someone.

barley  A kind of grain.

617  JOB 31:17–32:1

I have never let my mouth sin
by cursing* my enemies,
and wishing for them to die.

All the people in my house know that I have always given food to strangers.

I always invited strangers into my home so they would not have to sleep in the streets at night.

Other people try to hide their sins.
But I have not hidden my guilt.

I have never been afraid of what people might say.
That fear never made me keep quiet.
It never made me refuse to go outside.
I am not afraid of people’s hate for me.

“Oh, I wish someone would listen to me!
Let me explain my side.
I wish God All-Powerful would answer me.
I wish he would write down
what he thinks I did wrong.

Then I would wear that sign around my neck.
I would put it on my head
like a crown.

If God did that, then I could explain everything that I have done.
I could come to God like a leader with my head held high.

“I didn’t steal my land from anyone.
No one can accuse me of stealing it.

I always paid the farmers for the food that I got from the land.
And I never tried to take land away from the person who owned it.

If I ever did any of those bad things, then let thorns and weeds grow in my fields
instead of wheat and barley*!”

Job’s words are finished.

Elihu Adds to the Argument

Then Job’s three friends gave up trying to answer Job. They gave up because Job was so sure that he himself was truly innocent. But there was a young man there named Elihu son of Barakel. Barakel was a descendant of a man named Buz. Elihu was from the family of Ram. Elihu became very angry with Job. Why? Because Job was saying that he himself was right. Job was saying that he was more fair than God. Elihu was also angry with Job’s three friends. Why? Because Job’s three friends could not answer Job’s questions. They could not prove that Job was wrong. Elihu was the youngest person there, so he had waited until everyone was finished talking. Then he felt like he could begin to talk. But then Elihu saw that Job’s three friends had nothing more to say. So he became angry. So Elihu began to talk. He said:

“I am only a young man.
And you are old men.
That is why I was afraid to tell you what I think.

I thought to myself, ‘Older people should speak first.
Older people have lived many years.
So they have learned many things.’

But God’s Spirit makes a person wise.
That ‘breath’ from God All-Powerful makes people understand.

Old men are not the only wise people.
Old people are not the only people that understand what is right.

So please listen to me!
And I will tell you what I think.

I waited patiently while you men talked.
I listened to the answers that you gave to Job.

I listened carefully to the things you said.
Not one of you criticized Job.
Not one of you answered his arguments.

You three men can’t say that you have found wisdom.
God must answer Job’s arguments, not people.

Job did not present his arguments to me.
So I won’t use the arguments you three men have used.

Job, these men lost the argument.
They don’t have anything more to say.
They don’t have any more answers.

Job, I waited for these men to answer you.
But now, they are quiet.
They have stopped arguing with you.

So now, I will give you my answer.
Yes, I will tell you what I think.

I have so much to say,
that I am about to explode.

I am like a bottle of new wine that hasn’t been opened.
I am like a new wineskin that is ready to break open.

So I must speak.
Then I will feel better.
I must speak and answer Job’s arguments.

I must treat Job the same as I would treat any other person.
I will not try to say nice things to him.
I will say what I must say.

I can’t treat one person better another person!
If I did that, then God would punish me!

“Now, Job, listen to me.
Listen carefully to the things I say.

I am ready to speak.
My heart is honest,
so I will speak honest words.
I will speak the truth about the things I know.

God’s Spirit made me.
My life comes from God All-Powerful.

Job, listen to me,
and answer me if you can.
Get your answers ready,
so you can argue with me.

You and I are the same in front of God.
God used clay to make both of us.

Job, don’t be afraid of me.
I won’t be hard on you.

“But Job, I heard what you said.
You said:
‘I am pure.
I am innocent
I did nothing wrong.
I am not guilty!’
10 I did nothing wrong, but God is against me! God put chains on my feet. God watches everything I do.
11 But Job, you are wrong about this. And I will prove you are wrong. Why? Because God knows more than any person.*
12 Job, you are arguing with God! You think God should explain everything to you.
13 But maybe God does explain what he does. Maybe God speaks in ways that people don’t understand.
14 Maybe God speaks to people in a dream, or in a vision* at night, when they are in a deep sleep. Then they become very afraid when they hear God’s warnings.
15–16 God warns people to stop them from doing wrong things, and to stop them from becoming proud. God warns people so he can save them from going to the place of death.*
17 God warns people to stop them from doing wrong things, and to stop them from becoming proud.
18 God warns people to stop them from doing wrong things, and to stop them from becoming proud.
19 "Or, a person might hear God’s voice when that person is in bed and suffering from God’s punishment. God is warning that person with pain. That person is in so much pain that all his bones hurt.
20 Then that person can’t eat. That person has so much pain that he hates even the best food.
21 His body wastes away until he becomes very thin and all his bones stick out.
22 That person is near the place of death.* And his life is close to death.

Elihu continued talking. He said:
23 “God has thousands of angels. Maybe one of those angels is watching over that person. That angel might speak for that person and tell about the good things he did.
24 Maybe that angel will be kind to that person and say, ‘Save this person from the place of death! I have found a way to pay for his sin.’
25 Then that person’s body will become young and strong again. That person will be the same as when he was young.
26 That person will pray to God, and God will answer his prayer. That person will shout with joy and worship God. He will live a good life again.
27 Then that person will confess to people. He will say, ‘I sinned. I changed good into bad. But God didn’t give me the punishment I deserved!’
28 God saved my soul from going down to the place of death. Now I can enjoy life again.’
29 “God does all these things again and again for that person.
30 Why? To warn that person and to save his soul from the place of death* so that person can enjoy his life.
31 “Job, pay attention to me. Listen to me. Be quiet and let me talk.
32 But Job, if you want to disagree with me, then go ahead and talk. Tell me your argument, because I want to correct you.
33 But Job, if you have nothing to say, then listen to me. Be quiet, and I will teach you wisdom.”
34 Then Elihu continued talking. He said:
2 “Listen to the things I say, you wise men. Pay attention to me, you smart men.
Your tongue tastes the food it touches.
And your ear tests the words it hears.
So, let us test these arguments and decide for ourselves what is right.
Together we will learn what is good.
Job says,
‘I, Job, am innocent.
And God is not fair to me.
I am innocent,
but the judgment against me
says that I am a liar.
I am innocent,
but I have been hurt very badly.’

Is there any other person like Job?
Job does not care if you insult him.
Job is friends with bad people.
Job likes to be with evil people.
Why do I say that?
Because Job says,
‘A person will gain nothing
if he tries to please God.’

You men can understand,
so listen to me.
God would never do what is evil!
God All-Powerful would never do wrong!
God will pay a person back for the things that person has done.
God gives people what they deserve.
This is the truth,
God won’t do wrong.
God All-Powerful will always be fair.
No person chose God to be in charge over the earth.
No one gave God responsibility for the whole world.
God created everything
and he has always been in control.
If God decided to take his spirit and his breath of life away from people, then all the people on earth would die.
All people would become dust again.

If you men are wise,
then you will listen to what I say.
A person that hates to be fair can’t be a ruler.
Job, God is strong and good.
Do you think you can judge him guilty?

God is the One who says to kings,
‘You are worthless!’
God says to leaders,
‘You are evil!’
God does not love leaders
more than other people.
And God does not love rich people more that poor people.
Why? Because God made every person.
People can suddenly die,
in the middle of the night.
People become sick and pass away.
Even powerful people die
for no apparent reason.

God watches what people do.
God knows every step a person takes.
There is no place dark enough for evil people to hide from God.
God does not need to pick a time to test people some more.
God does not need to bring people
in front of him to be judged.
If even powerful people do bad things
God does not need to ask questions.
God will simply destroy those people,
and choose other people to be leaders.
So God knows what people do.
That is why God will defeat evil people over night and destroy them.
God will punish the bad people because of the evil things they did.
And God will punish those people where other people can see it happen.
Why? Because the bad people stopped obeying God.
And those bad people didn’t care about doing what God wants.
Those bad people hurt poor people,
and made them cry to God for help.
And God hears that cry for help.
But if God decides not to help them,
then no person can judge God guilty.
If God hides himself from people,
then no person can find him.
God is the ruler over people and nations.
And if a ruler causes people to sin,
then God will remove him from power.
That will happen unless he says to God,
‘I am guilty.
I won’t sin anymore.’
JOB 34:32–36:7

32 God, even if I can’t see you, please teach me the right way to live. If I have done wrong, I won’t do it again.’

33 “Job, you want God to reward you. But you refuse to change. Job, it is your decision, not mine. Tell me what you think.

34 A wise person would listen to me. A wise person would say, ‘Job talks like an ignorant person. The things Job says don’t make sense!’

35 I think Job should be punished even more! Why? Because Job answers us the way an evil person would answer. Job adds rebellion to his other sins. Job sits there in front of us and insults us and makes fun of God!”

36 Elihu continued talking. He said:

2 “Job, it is not fair for you to say, ‘I am more right than God.’

3 And Job, you ask God, ‘What will a person gain if he tries to please God? What good will it do me if I don’t sin?’

4 “Job, I (Elihu) want to answer you and your friends here with you.

5 Job, look up at the sky. Look up at the clouds that are higher than you.

6 Job, if you sin, it does not hurt God. If you have many sins, that does nothing to God.

7 And Job, if you are good, that does not help God. God gets nothing from you.

8 Job, the good and bad things you do affect only other people like yourself. They do not help or hurt God.

9 “If, bad, people are being hurt, then they will cry out for help. They go to powerful people and beg them to help them.

10 But those bad people will not ask God for help.

They will not say, ‘Where is the God who made me? God helps people when they are depressed. So where is he?’

11 God makes us wiser than the birds and animals. So where is he?”

12 “Or, if those bad people ask God for help then God will not answer them. Why? Because those people are too proud. They still think they are too important.

13 It is true, God won’t listen to their worthless begging. God All-Powerful won’t pay attention to them.

14 So Job, God won’t listen to you when you say that you don’t see him. You say you are waiting for your chance to meet with God and prove that you are innocent.

15 “Job thinks that God does not punish bad people, He thinks that God does not pay attention to sin.

16 So Job continues his worthless talking. Job is acting like he is important. It is easy to see that Job does not know what he is talking about.”

36 Elihu continued talking. He said:

2 “Be patient with me a little longer. God has a few more words that he wants me to say.

3 I will share my knowledge with everyone. God made me and I will prove that God is fair.

4 Job, I am telling the truth. I know what I am talking about.

5 “God is very powerful, but he doesn’t hate people. God is very powerful, but he is also very wise.

7 God watches over people who live right. He lets good people be rulers. God gives good people honor forever.
So if people are punished, if they are tied with chains and ropes then they did something wrong.

And God will tell them what they did. God will tell him that they sinned. God will tell him that they were proud.

God will force those people to listen to his warning. He will command them to stop sinning.

If those people listen to God, and obey him, then God will make them successful and they will live a happy life.

But if those people refuse to obey God, then they will be destroyed. They will die like fools.

“People that don’t care about God are always bitter. Even when God punishes them, they refuse to pray to God for help.

Those people will die when they are still young, like the male prostitutes.

But God will humble people from their troubles. God uses those troubles to make people wake up and listen to him.

“Job, God wants to help you. God wants to get you out of trouble. God wants to make life easy for you. God wants to put plenty of food on your table.

But now, Job, you were judged guilty. So you were punished like an evil man.

Job, don’t let riches fool you. Don’t let money change your mind.

Your money can’t help you now. And powerful people can’t help you either.

Don’t wish for the night to come. People try to disappear into the night. They think they can hide from God.

Job, you have suffered a lot. But don’t choose evil. Be careful not to do wrong.

Job, God’s power makes him great! God is the greatest teacher of all.

No person can tell God what to do. No person can say to God, ‘God, you have done wrong.’

Remember to praise God for the things he did. People have written many songs praising God.

Every person can see what God did. People in faraway countries can see those things.

Yes, God is great. But we can’t understand his greatness. We don’t know how long God has lived.

God takes up water from the earth and changes it into mist and rain.

So the clouds pour out the water, and the rain falls on many people.

No person can understand how God spreads the clouds out or how the thunder rumbles in the sky.

Look, God spread the lightning over the earth and covered the deepest part of the ocean.

God uses them to control the nations and to give them plenty of food.

God grabs the lightning with his hands, and commands it to hit where he wants.

The thunder warns that a storm is coming. So even the cattle know it is coming.

The thunder and lightning frighten me, my heart pounds in my chest.

Listen everyone! God’s voice sounds like thunder. Listen to the thundering sound that comes from God’s mouth.

God sends his lightning to flash across the whole sky. It flashed all over the earth.

Then after the lightning flashes, God’s roaring voice can be heard. God thunders with his wonderful voice! While the lightning flashes, God’s voice thunders.

God’s thundering voice is wonderful! He does great things that we can’t understand.
6 God says to the snow,
    'Fall on the earth.'
And God says to the rain,
    'Pour down on the earth.'
7 God does that so all of the people that God has made will know what he can do.
That is his proof.
8 The animals run into their dens and stay there.
9 Whirlwinds come from the south.
The cold winds come from the north.
10 God’s breath makes ice,
    and freezes the oceans.
11 God fills the clouds with water,
    and scatters those thunderclouds.
12 God orders the clouds to blow all around the earth.
The clouds do whatever God commands.
13 God brings the clouds to bring floods to punish people or to bring water to show his love.
14 “Job, stop for a minute and listen.
    Think about the wonderful things
God does.
15 Job, do you know how God controls the clouds?
Do you know how God
    makes his lightning flash?
16 Do you know how the clouds
    hang in the sky?
Clouds are just one example of the wonderful things God made.
And God knows everything about them.
17 But Job, you don’t know these things.
    All you know is that you sweat,
your clothes stick to you,
    and everything is still and quiet when the heat wave comes from the south.
18 Job, can you help God spread out the sky,
    and make it shine like polished brass?
19 “Job, tell us what we should say to God!
    We can’t think of what to say because of our ignorance.*

623  JOB 37:6–38:7

20 I wouldn’t tell God that I wanted to talk to him.
That would be like asking to be destroyed.
21 A person cannot look at the sun.
    It is very bright and shiny in the sky
after the wind blows the clouds away.
22 [And God is like that too!]
God’s golden glory shines from the Holy Mountain.*
There is a bright light around God.
23 God All-Powerful is great!
    We can’t understand God!
God is very powerful,
    but he is also good and fair to us.
God doesn’t want to hurt us!
24 That is why people respect God.
    But God doesn’t respect proud people that think they are wise.”

God Speaks to Job

38 Then the Lord spoke to Job from a whirlwind. God said:
2 “Who is this ignorant person that is saying these foolish things?”*
3 Job, brace yourself* and get ready to answer the questions that I will ask you.
4 “Job, where were you
    when I made the earth?
If you are so smart,
    then answer me.
5 If you are so smart,
    Who decided how big
    the world would be?
Who measured the world with a measuring line?
6 What is the earth resting on?
    Who put the first stone in its place?
7 The morning stars sang together and the angels* shouted with joy when that was done!

Holy Mountain  Or, “the north” or “Zaphon”.
Who ... things  Or, “Who is this person darkening (hiding) advice with ignorant words.”
brace yourself  Literally, “gird yourself like a man (soldier).”
    This means, “get ready for battle.”
angels  Literally, “sons of God.”

We can’t ... ignorance  Literally, “We can’t arrange our thoughts, because of the darkness”
8 “Job, who closed the gates to stop the sea when it flowed from deep in the earth? At that time I covered it with clouds, and wrapped it in darkness.

9 I set the limits for the sea and put it behind locked gates. I said to the sea, ‘You can come this far, but no farther. This is where your proud waves will stop.’

10 “Job, did you ever in your life command the morning to start or the day to begin? Job, did you ever tell the morning light to grab the earth and shake the evil people out of their hiding places? The morning light makes the hills and the valleys easy to see. When the daylight comes to the earth, the shapes of those places stand out like the folds of a coat. Those places take shape like soft clay that is pressed with a stamp.

11 Evil people don’t like the daylight. When it shines bright, it stops them from doing their bad things.

12 You were alive when I made those things, weren’t you?*

13 “Job, have you ever gone into the storerooms where I keep the snow and the hail? Have you ever walked on the ocean bottom?

14 “Job, have you ever seen the gates leading to the world of the dead? Have you ever seen the gates leading to that dark place of death?

15 “Job, where does light come from? Where does darkness come from? Job, can you take light and dark back to the place they came from? Do you know how to go to that place?

16 Surely you know these things, Job. You are very old and wise.

17 “Job, have you ever gone to the deepest parts of the sea where the sea begins? Have you ever walked on the ocean bottom?

18 Job, do you really understand how large the earth is? Tell me, if you know all this.

19 Verses 19–21 God doesn’t really mean this. This kind of talking is called sarcasm. It is saying something that is not true in a way that everyone knows it is not true.

20 Verse 24 Or, “Where is the place that the fog disperses and the place where the east wind scatters it all over the earth?”

21 Pleiades A famous constellation (group of stars). It is often called, “The Seven Sisters.”

22 Orion A famous constellation (group of stars). It looks like a hunter or powerful soldier.

23 constellations Groups in the night sky. Here this probably means the twelve constellations of the Zodiac. They seem to pass through the sky so that a new constellation is in a certain part of the sky each month.

24 Bear A famous constellation (group of stars). It looks like a bear. It is often called, “the Big Dipper.” Near it is a smaller constellation that looks like a small bear. It is often called, “the Little Dipper.”

25 Who dug ditches in the sky for the heavy rain? Who made a path for the thunderstorm?

26 Who makes it rain even in places where no people live?

27 That rain gives plenty of water to that empty land and grass begins to grow.

28 Does the rain have a father? Who produces the drops of dew?

29 Does ice have a mother? Who gives birth to the hail?

30 Water freezes as hard as a rock. And even the ocean freezes over!

31 “Job, can you tie up the Pleiades?* Can you unfasten the belt of Orion?* Can you bring out the constellations* at the right times? Or can you lead out the Bear* with its cubs?
Do you know the laws that control the sky?
Can you make them rule over the earth?

“Job, can you shout at the clouds and command them to cover you with rain?
Can you give a command to the lightning?
Will it come to you and say, ‘Here we are. What do you want, sir?’
Will it go wherever you want it to go?

“Job, who makes people wise?
Who puts wisdom deep inside of them?
Who is wise enough to count the clouds and tip them over to pour out their rain?
So the dust becomes mud and the clods of dirt stick together.

“Job, do you find food for the lions?
Do you feed their hungry babies?
Those lions lie down in their caves, they crouch down in the grass ready to attack their prey.
Who feeds the ravens when their babies yell out to God and wander around without food?

“Job, do you know when the mountain goats are born?
Do you watch when the mother deer has her baby?
Do you know how many months the mountain goat and the deer must carry their babies?
Do you know when it is the right time for them to be born?
Those animals lie down they feel their birth pains and their babies are born.
Those baby animals grow strong in the fields. Then they leave their mothers and never come back.

“Job, who let the wild donkeys go free?
Who untied their ropes and let them loose?
I (God) let the wild donkey have the desert for a home. I gave the salt lands to them for a place to live.

Wild donkeys laugh at the noisy towns. And no person can control them.
Wild donkeys live in the mountains. That is their pasture. That is where they look for food to eat.

“Job, will a wild bull agree to serve you?
Will he stay in your barn at night?
Will a wild bull let you put ropes on him so you can plow your fields?
A wild bull is very strong! But can you trust him to do your work?
Can you trust him to gather your grain and bring it to your threshing place?

“An ostrich gets excited and flaps his wings. Its wings and feathers are not like the wings of a stork.
An ostrich lays her eggs on the ground and they become warm in the sand.
The ostrich forgets that someone might walk on her eggs or that some wild animal might break them.

An Ostrich leaves her little babies. She treats them like they are not hers. If her babies die, she doesn’t care that all her work was for nothing.
Why? Because I (God) didn’t give wisdom to the ostrich. The ostrich is foolish, and I made her that way.
But when the ostrich gets up to run, she laughs at the horse and its rider, because she can run faster than any horse.

“Job, did you give the horse its strength? Did you put the mane* on his neck?
Did you make the horse able to jump far like a locust?

threshing  Beating or walking on grain to remove the hulls from the grain.
mane  The hair on a horse’s neck.
JOB 39:21–40:15

The horse snorts* loudly, and it scares people.

21 A horse is happy that he is so strong. He scratches the ground with his foot and runs quickly into battle.

22 The horse laughs at fear. He is not afraid! He won’t run away from a battle.

23 The soldier’s quiver* shakes on the horse’s side. The spear and weapons his rider carries shine in the sun.

24 The horse is very excited! He runs fast over the ground.* When the horse hears the trumpet blow he can’t stand still.

25 When the trumpet sounds, the horse shouts, ‘hurray!’ He smells the battle from far away. He hears the commanders shouting orders and all the other sounds of the battle.

26 “Job, did you teach the hawk how to spread his wings and fly south.*

27 Are you the one who told the eagle* to fly high into the sky. Did you tell him to build his nest high in the mountains?

28 The eagle lives on a cliff. The cliff is the eagle’s fortress.*

29 An eagle watches for his food from high in his fortress. An eagle can see food that is far away.

30 Eagles will gather where the dead bodies are. And the babies will drink the blood.”

40 The Lord answered Job and said to him:

3 Then Job answered God and said:

“Then Job answered God and said:

4 “I am too insignificant to speak! What can I say to you? I can’t answer you! I will put my hand over my mouth.

5 I spoke once, but I won’t speak again. I spoke twice, but I won’t say anything more.”

6 Then the Lord spoke to Job again from the storm. The Lord said:

7 “Job, brace yourself* and get ready to answer the questions that I will ask you.

8 “Job, do you think that I am not fair? You say that I am guilty of doing wrong so that you will appear innocent!

9 Are your arms as strong as God’s arm? Do you have a voice like God’s voice that can sound loud like thunder?

10 If you are like God, then you can be proud. If you are like God then you can wear glory and honor like clothes.

11 If you are like God, then you can show your anger and punish proud people. Make those proud people humble.

12 Yes, Job! Look at those proud people and make them humble. Crush evil people where they stand.

13 Bury all the proud people in the dirt. Wrap their bodies up and put them in their graves.

14 Job, if you can do all these things, then even I will praise you. And I will admit that you are able to save yourself with your own power.

15 “Job, look at the behemoth.* I (God) made the behemoth and I made you. The behemoth eats grass like a cow.

---

snorts: The sound a horse makes.

quiver: A container in which arrows are kept.

runs fast over the ground: Literally, “swallows up the ground.”

south: Or “to Teman.”

eagle: Or “vulture.”

fortress: A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.

brace yourself: Literally, “gird yourself like a man (soldier).” This means, “get ready for battle.”

behemoth: We are not sure what this animal is. It might be a hippopotamus or an elephant.
The behemoth has much strength in his body. The muscles in his stomach are very powerful.
The behemoth’s tail stands strong like a cedar tree. His leg muscles are very strong.
The behemoth’s bones are strong like bronze. His legs are like iron bars.
The behemoth is the most amazing animal that I made. But I can defeat him.
The behemoth eats the grass that grows on the hills where the wild animals play.
The behemoth lies under the lotus plants.* The behemoth hides in the reeds in the swamp.
The lotus plants hide the behemoth in their shade. He lives under the willow trees that grow near the river.
If the river floods, the behemoth will not run away. He is not afraid if the Jordan River splashes on his face.
No person can blind the behemoth’s eyes and catch him in a trap.
Will they cut him in pieces and sell him to the merchants?*
Can you throw spears into Leviathan’s skin or head?
“Job, if you ever lay a hand on Leviathan, you will never do it again! Just think about the battle that would be!
Do you think you can defeat Leviathan? Well, forget it! There is no hope!
Just looking at him will scare you!
No person is brave enough to wake him up and make him angry.
“Well, no person can stand against me either!* I owe no person anything. Everything under heaven belongs to me.*
“Job, I will tell you about Leviathan’s legs, his strength and graceful shape.
No person can pierce his skin. His skin is like armor!*
No person can force Leviathan to open his jaws. The teeth in his mouth scare people.
Leviathan’s back has rows of shields tightly sealed together.
The shields are so close to each other that no air can pass between them.
The shields are joined to each other. They hold together so tightly that they can’t be pulled apart.
When Leviathan sneezes, it is like lightning flashing out. His eyes shine like the light of dawn.
Burning torches come out from his mouth. Sparks of fire shoot out.
Smoke pours from Leviathan’s nose like burning weeds under a boiling pot.
Leviathan’s breath makes coals burn, and flames shoot from his mouth.

merchant(s) A person who earns his living by buying and selling things.
And no person can stand against me either Or “No person can stand and fight him.”
I … me Or, “No person has come near to Leviathan and survived—no one under heaven!”
His skin is like armor Or, “No one can approach him with a bridle.”

lotus plants A kind of tree. Its leaves give much shade.
Leviathan We are not sure what this animal is. It might be a crocodile or a giant sea monster.
22 Leviathan’s neck is very powerful,
   People are afraid and run away from him.
23 There is no soft spot in his skin.
   It is hard like iron.
24 Leviathan’s heart is like a rock,
   he has no fear.
   It is hard like a lower millstone.*
25 When Leviathan gets up, strong people are afraid.
   They run away when Leviathan swings his tail.
26 Swords, spears, and darts hit Leviathan,
   but they only bounce off.
   Those weapons don’t hurt him at all!
27 Leviathan breaks iron as easily as straw.
   He breaks bronze like rotten wood.
28 Rocks don’t make Leviathan run away.
   Rocks bounce off of him like straw.
29 When a wood club hits Leviathan, it feels like a piece of straw to him.
   He laughs when men throw spears at him.
30 The skin on Leviathan’s belly is like sharp pieces of broken pottery.
   He leaves tracks in the mud like a threshing board.*
31 Leviathan stirs up the water like a boiling pot.
   He makes it bubble like a pot of boiling oil.
32 When Leviathan swims,
   he leaves a path behind himself.
   He stirs up the water,
   and leaves white foam behind him.
33 No animal on earth is like Leviathan.
   He is an animal made without fear.
34 Leviathan looks down on the proudest animals.
   He is king over all the wild animals.
   [And I, the Lord, made Leviathan!]

---

lower millstone  A flat rock for grinding grain. Another stone was put on top of this flat rock. Then the grain was ground into flour between the stones.
threshing board  A board with many pieces of sharp stones or pieces of metal. Farmers pulled these boards over grain to break the hulls away from the grain.

---

Job Answers the Lord

42 Then Job answered the Lord. Job said,

2 “Lord, I know you can do everything.
   You make plans, and nothing can change or stop your plans.
3 Lord, you asked this question:
   ‘Who is this ignorant person that is saying these foolish things?’*
   Lord, I talked about things that I didn’t understand.
   I talked about things that were too amazing for me to understand.
4 “Lord, you said to me,
   ‘Listen Job, and I will speak.
   I will ask you questions, and you will answer me.’
5 Lord, in the past, I heard about you, but now I have seen you with my own eyes.
6 And Lord, I am ashamed of myself.
   Lord, I am so sorry.
   As I sit in the dust and ashes,*
   I promise to change my heart and my life.”

The Lord Gives Job’s Wealth Back

7After the Lord finished talking to Job, he spoke to Eliphaz from Teman. The Lord said to Eliphaz, “I am angry at you and your two friends. Why? Because you didn’t say right things about me. But Job is my servant. Job said right things about me. 8So now Eliphaz, get seven bulls and seven rams. Take them to my servant Job. Kill them and offer them as a burnt offering for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will answer his prayer. Then I won’t give you the punishment that you deserve. You should be punished because you were very foolish. You didn’t say right things about me. But my servant Job said right things about me.”

---

Who … things  Or, “Who is this person darkening (hiding) advice with ignorant words.”
dust and ashes  People sat in dust and ashes to show that they were very sad about something.
9So Eliphaz from Teman, and Bildad from Shuah, and Zophar from Naamah obeyed the Lord. Then the Lord answered Job’s prayer.

10Job prayed for his friends. And the Lord made Job successful again. God gave Job twice as much as he had before. 11Then all of Job’s brothers and sisters and all of the people that knew Job before came to his house. They all ate a big meal with Job. They comforted Job. They were sorry that the Lord had brought so much trouble to Job. Each person gave Job a piece of silver* and a gold ring.

12The Lord blessed Job with even more things than he had in the beginning. Job got 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 2,000 cows, and 1,000 female donkeys. 13Job also got seven sons and three daughters. 14Job named the first daughter Jemimah. Job named the second daughter Keziah. And Job named the third daughter Keren Happuch. 15Job’s daughters were among the most beautiful women in all the country. And Job even gave part of his property to his daughters—they each got a share of the property*, just like their brothers.

16So, Job lived for 140 years more. He lived to see his children, his grandchildren, his great-grandchildren, and his great-great-grandchildren. 17Job lived to be a very old man who had lived a good long life.

*piece of silver Literally, “a Keshitah.” This was a measure that was used in the time of the Patriarchs. See Gen. 33:19 and Josh. 24:32.

*Job … property Usually a person’s property was divided only among the sons, but here even Job’s daughters also got part of his property.
Psalm 1

1 A person will be truly happy if he doesn’t follow the advice of bad people and doesn’t live like sinners and doesn’t feel at home with people who don’t respect God.*

2 A good person loves the Lord’s teachings. He thinks about them day and night.

3 So that person becomes strong like a tree planted by streams of water He is like a tree that makes fruit at the right time. He is like a tree with leaves that don’t die. Everything he does is successful.

4 But bad people are not like that. Bad people are like chaff* that the wind blows away.

5 If good people gather together to decide a court case, then bad people will be proved guilty. Those sinners will not be judged innocent.*

6 Why? Because the Lord protects good people, but destroys bad people.

Psalm 2

1 Why are the people from other nations so angry? Why are they making foolish plans?

2 Their kings and leaders joined together to fight against the Lord and against the king he chose.

3 Those leaders said, “Let’s rebel against God and against the king he chose. “Let’s break free from them!”

4 But my Master, the King in heaven, laughs at those people.

5–6 God is angry and he tells those people, “I chose this man to be king! And he will rule on Mount Zion. Zion is my special mountain.” And that makes those other leaders afraid.

7 Now I will tell you about the Lord’s agreement. The Lord said to me, “Today I become your father!* And you are my son.

8 If you ask me, I will give the nations to you. All the people on earth will be yours! You could destroy those nations like an iron rod shattering a clay pot.”

9 You kings, be wise. All you rulers, learn this lesson.

10 Obey the Lord with much fear.

11 Show that you are loyal to God’s son.*

A person ... God Or, “The person who doesn’t follow the advice of bad people or turn on to Sinners Road or stay at Scoffers’ House is fortunate (blessed).”

chaff Seed coverings and stems separated from the seeds of plants like wheat or barley. Farmers did not keep this useless chaff.

If good ... innocent Or, “Bad people will not rise in the place of judgment nor the sinners in the meeting of good people.” It is not clear if this verse means that bad people will not become judges, or that bad people will be judged guilty.
Psalm 3
This is David’s song from the time he ran away from his son Absalom.

1 “Lord, I have many, many enemies. Many people have turned against me.
2 Many people are talking about me. Those people say, “God, won’t rescue him!”

But, Lord, you are my shield. You are my Glory. Lord, you make me important!

I will pray to the Lord. And he will answer me from his holy mountain!

I can lie down and rest, and I know I will wake up.

Thousands of soldiers might surround me. But I won’t be afraid of those enemies!

Lord, get up! My God, come rescue me! You are very strong!
If you hit my bad enemies on the cheek, you will break all their teeth.

Lord, the victory is yours. Please be good to your people.

Psalm 4
To the director.* With stringed instruments.
A song of David.*

1 My good God, answer me when I pray to you! Hear my prayer and be kind to me! Give me some relief from all my troubles!
2 People, how long will you say bad things about me? You people keep looking for new lies to tell about me.
But other people should be careful.

You know that the Lord listens to his good people. So the Lord hears me when I pray to him.

If something is bothering you, you can be angry,* but don’t sin. Think about those things when you go to bed, and then relax.*

Give good sacrifices* to God, and trust the Lord!

Many people say, “Who will show us God’s goodness? Lord, let us see your shining face!”

Lord, you have made me very happy! I am happier now than at harvest time—when we celebrate because we have much grain and wine.

I go to bed and sleep in peace.

Psalm 5
To the director.* For the flutes.*
A song of David.*

1 Lord, hear my words. Understand what I am trying to say.

SELAH* This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.

You ... make me important Literally, “You are my Glory, the One who lifts my head.”

Lord, get up The people said this when they lifted the Box of the Agreement and took it into battle with them. This showed that God was with them. See Num. 10:35–36.

victory Or “salvation.”

The people said this when they lifted the Box of the Agreement and took it into battle with them. This showed that God was with them. See Num. 10:35–36.

victory Or “salvation.”

director Or “performer.”

A song of David Or “A song dedicated to David.”

be angry Or “be upset” or “be excited.”

relax Or “be calm” or “be silent.”

sacrifice(s) A sacrifice was a gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

For the flutes This might be the name of a tune instead of a type of instrument.
PSALM 5:2–6:10

2 My God and King, listen to my prayer.
3 Every morning, Lord, I lay my gifts before you and look to you for help. And every morning, you hear my prayers.
4 God, you don’t like evil people near you. Evil people can’t worship you.*
5 Fools* can’t come near you. You hate* people who do evil.
6 You destroy people who tell lies. You hate people who make secret plans to hurt other people.
7 But, Lord, by your great mercy, I will come to your temple.* I will bow toward your holy temple with fear and respect for you, Lord.
8 Lord, show me your right way of living. People are looking for my weaknesses, so show me how you want me to live.
9 Those people don’t tell the truth. They are liars that twist the truth. Their mouths are like empty* graves. They say nice things to other people, but they are only trying to trap them.
10 Punish them, God! Let them be caught in their own traps. Those people have turned against you, so punish them for their many crimes.
11 But let the people who trust God be happy. Let them be happy forever! God, protect and give strength to the people who love your name.
12 Lord, when you do good things to good people, you are like a large shield protecting them.

Psalm 6

To the director,* with stringed instruments, accompanied, by the Sheminith.*
A song of David.*

1 Lord, don’t correct me in anger. Don’t be angry and punish* me.
2 Lord, be kind to me. I am sick and weak. Heal me!
   My bones are shaking.
3 My whole body is shaking. Lord, how long until you heal me?*
4 Lord, come back and make me strong again! You are very kind, so save me.
5 Dead people in their graves don’t remember you. People in the place of death don’t praise you. So heal me!
6 Lord, all night I prayed to you. My bed is wet from my tears. Tears are dripping from my bed. I am weak from crying to you.
7 My enemies have given me many troubles. This made me very sad with grief. Now my eyes are weak from crying.
8 Go away you bad people! Why? Because the Lord heard my cries.
9 The Lord heard my prayer. And the Lord accepted and answered my prayer.
10 All my enemies will be upset and disappointed. Something will happen suddenly, and they will all leave in shame.

*Or, “performer.”
*This might be a special instrument, a special way of tuning an instrument, or one of the groups that played harps in the temple orchestra. See 1 Chron.15:21.
*Or, “A song dedicated to David.”
Literally, “teach” or “correct.”
Literally, “As for you, Lord, how long?”

God ... you Or, “You are not a God who likes evil people, and evil people don’t respect you.”
Fools Usually this means people who don’t believe and obey God. This shows they are very foolish.
hate Or, “reject, send away”.
temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
empty Literally, “open.”
Psalm 7

A song* of David that he sang to the Lord. This song is about Saul, the son of Kish,* from the family group of Benjamin.

1 Lord my God, I trust you. Save me from the people who are chasing me. Rescue me!
2 If you don’t help me, I will be like an animal caught by a lion. I will be carried away, with no one to save me!
3 Lord my God, I did nothing wrong. I promise, I did nothing wrong!
4 I did not do bad things to my friend.* And I did not help my friend’s enemies.
5 If that is not true, then punish me:
   Let an enemy chase me, catch me, and kill me. Let him trample my life into the ground and push my soul into the dirt.

SELAH*

6 Lord, get up* and show your anger! My enemy is angry, so stand and fight against him. Lord, get up and demand fairness!
7 Lord, judge the people. Gather the nations around you, and judge the people.
8 Lord, judge me. Prove that I am right. Prove that I am innocent.
9 Punish the bad people, and help the good people. God, you are good. And you can look into peoples’ hearts.
10 God helps people with honest hearts. So God will protect me.

Psalm 8

To the director,* accompanied by the Gittith.* A song of David.*

1 Lord our Master, your name is the most wonderful name in all the earth! Your name brings you praise everywhere in heaven.
2 From the mouths of children and babies come songs of praise to you. You gave them these powerful songs to silence all your enemies.
3 Lord, I look at the heavens you made with your hands. I see the moon and stars you created, and I wonder:
4 Why are people so important to you? Why do you even remember them? Why are people* so important to you? Why do you even notice them?

If God … punish bad people Literally, “He will not turn back. He will sharpen his sword. He will draw and aim his bow. He has prepared the weapon of death. He has made his flaming arrows.”
director Or, “performer.”
by the Gittith Or, “on the Gittith.” This might be a type of instrument, a tune, or a performer in the temple orchestra such as Obed Edom from Gath (the Gittite). See I Chron.15:21, 16:4–7.
A song of David Or, “A song dedicated to David.”
people Literally, “he.” This is still talking about “man” and “son of man” and can be understood as one person or as all people.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Verse</th>
<th>Text</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>5</td>
<td>But people are important to you! You made people almost like gods. And you crowned them with glory and honor.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6</td>
<td>You put people in charge of everything you made. You put everything under their control.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7</td>
<td>People rule over the sheep and cattle and all the wild animals. They rule over the birds in the sky and over the fish that swim the ocean currents.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8</td>
<td>Lord our Master, your name is the most wonderful name in all the earth!</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9</td>
<td>Psalm 9 To the director.* Alamoth of Ben.* A song of David.* I praise the Lord with all my heart. Lord, I will tell about all the wonderful things you did. You make me so very happy. God Most-High, I praise your name. My enemies turned to run from you. But they fell and were destroyed. You are the good judge. You sat on your throne as judge. Lord, you listened to my case. And you made the decision about me. You criticized those other people. Lord, you destroyed those bad people. You erased their names forever and ever from the list of people who are alive. The enemy is finished! Lord, you destroyed their cities! Now, only ruined buildings are left. Nothing is left to remind us of those bad people. But the Lord rules forever. The Lord made his kingdom strong. He did this to bring fairness to the world. The Lord judges everyone on earth fairly. He judges all nations the same. Many people are trapped and hurting because they have many troubles. Those people are crushed by the weight of their problems. Lord, be a safe place for them to run to. People who know your name should trust you. Lord, if people come to you, you will not leave them without help. You people living on Zion, sing praises to the Lord.* Tell other nations about the great things the Lord did. The Lord remembered the people who went to him for help.* Those poor people cried for help. And the Lord didn’t forget them. I said this prayer to God: Lord, be kind to me. Look, my enemies are hurting me. Save me from the ‘gates of death.’ Then, at the gates of Jerusalem, I can sing praises to you, Lord. I will be very happy because you saved me.” Those people from other nations dug holes to trap other people. But they fell into their own traps. Those people hid nets to trap other people. But they were caught in those nets. The Lord caught those bad people. So people learned that the Lord punishes people who do bad things.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
PSALM 9:17–11:1

17 People who forget God are bad.
    They will go to the place of death.
18 Sometimes it seems that God forgets about people with troubles.
    It seems those poor people have no hope.
    But God doesn’t really forget them forever.
19 Lord, get up* and judge the nations.
    Don’t let people think they are powerful.
20 Teach people a lesson.
    Let them know they are only human.

Psalm 10
1 Lord, why do you stay so far away?
    People with troubles can’t see you.
2 Proud and wicked people make evil plans.
    And they hurt poor people.
3 Evil people brag about the things they want.
    And those greedy people curse God.
    In this way, the evil people show that they hate the Lord.
4 Bad people are too proud to follow God.
    They make all their evil plans.
    And they act like there is no God.
5 Bad people are always doing crooked things.
    They don’t even notice God’s laws and wise teachings.*
    God’s enemies ignore his teachings.
6 Those people think bad things will never happen to them.
    They say, “We will have fun and never be punished.”
7 Those people are always cursing.
    They are always saying bad things about other people.
    They are always planning evil things to do.
8 Those people hide in secret places and wait to catch people.

Psalm 11
To the director.* David’s song,

1 I trust the Lord.
    So why did you tell me to run and hide?
    You told me to run and hide like a bird to your mountain!

Lord, get up The people said this when they lifted the Box of the Agreement and took it into battle with them. This showed that God was with them. See Numbers 10:35–36.

SELAH This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.

They ... wise teachings Literally, “Your justice is far above him.”
PSALM 11:2–13:4

2 Bad people are like hunters. They hide in the dark. They pull back on the bowstring. They aim their arrows and shoot straight into the hearts of good, honest people.

3 What would happen if they destroyed all that is good? What would good people do then?

4 The Lord is in his holy palace. The Lord sits on his throne in heaven. And he sees everything that happens. The Lord watches people closely to see if they are good or bad.

5 The Lord searches for good people, but he rejects cruel, evil people.

6 He will make hot coals and burning sulphur fall like rain on those bad people. Those bad people will get nothing but a hot, burning wind.

7 But the Lord is good. And he loves people doing good things. Good people will be with him and see his face.

Psalm 12

To the director,* accompanied by the Sheminith.* A song of David.*

1 Save me, Lord! The good people are all gone. There are no true believers left among all the people on earth.*

2 People tell lies to their neighbors. Each and every person flatters* his neighbors with lies.

Psalm 13

To the director.* A song of David.*

1 How long will you forget me, Lord? Will you forget me forever? How long will you refuse to accept me?*

2 How long must I wonder if you have forgotten me? How long must I feel this sadness in my heart? How long will my enemy win against me?

3 Lord my God, look at me! Answer my question! Let me know the answer or I will die!

4 If that happens, my enemy will say “I beat him!” My enemy would be happy if he defeated me.

What would happen … good Or, “What if the foundations of society were really destroyed?”

palace A large house built for a king. Here, it is the temple.
throne The chair a king or queen sits on.
rejects Or, “hates” or “refuses to accept.”
hot, burning wind This is like the hot fire a worker uses to melt silver. The silver separates from all the worthless things in it. These things are thrown away and only the pure silver is left.
director Or, “performer.”
by the Sheminith This might be a special instrument, a special way of tuning an instrument, or one of the groups that played harps in the temple orchestra. See 1 Chron.15:21.
A song of David Or, “A song dedicated to David.”
all the people on earth Literally, “the sons of man.”
flatter To say good things about people when you don’t really mean it.

Those bad … very cheap Literally, “Bad people strut around like expensive cheap things belonging to sons of man.”
refuse to accept me Literally, “hide your face from me.”
5 Lord, I trusted in your love to help me.
   You saved me and made me happy!
6 I sing a happy song to the Lord because he did good things for me.

Psalm 14
To the director.* David’s song*

1 A foolish person* says in his heart,
   “There is no God.”
   Foolish people do terrible, rotten things.
   Not even one of them does good.
2 The Lord looked down from heaven
to see if there were any wise people.
   (Wise people turn to God for help.)
3 But every person had turned away from God.
   All people had become bad.
   Not even one person was doing good!
4 Bad people have destroyed my people.
   And those bad people don’t know God.
   Bad people have plenty of food to eat.*
   And they don’t even worship the Lord.
5–6 Those bad people didn’t want to listen to advice from a poor man.
   Why? Because that poor man depended on God.
   But God is with his good people.
   So bad people have plenty to fear.

Psalm 15
A song of David.*

1 Lord, who can live in your Holy Tent?*
   Who can live on your holy mountain?*
2 Only a person who lives a pure life,
   and does good things,
   and speaks truth from the heart
   can live on your mountain.
3 That kind of person doesn’t say bad things about other people.
   That person doesn’t do bad things to his neighbors.
   That person doesn’t tell shameful things about his own family.
4 That person doesn’t respect the people that hate God.
   But that person shows honor to all the people who serve the Lord.
   If he makes a promise to his neighbor,
   then he does what he promised to do.*
5 If that person gives money to someone,
   he will not charge interest on that loan.
   And that person will not take money
to do bad things to innocent people.
   If a person lives like that good man, then he will always be near God.*

Psalm 16
A miktam of David.*

1 Protect me, God,
   because I depend on you.
2 I said to the Lord,
   “Lord, you are my Master.
   Every good thing I have comes from you.”*
3 The Lord does wonderful things for his followers on earth.
   The Lord shows he truly loves them.
4 But people who run to worship other gods will have much pain.
   I will not share in their gifts of blood that they offer to those idols.
   I will not even say the names of those idols.
5 No, my share and my cup
   come only from the Lord.
   Lord, you support me.
   You give me my share.

If he ... promised to do Or, “That person promised not to do bad things. And he does not do bad things.”
he ... near God Literally, “that person will never be moved.”
A miktam of David The exact meaning of “miktam” is not clear. It might mean “a well-arranged song.” This song was either written by David or dedicated to him.
I said ... from you Or, “I said to the Lord my Master, “You are my goodness. There is none but you.””
My share* is very wonderful. My inheritance* is very beautiful.
I praise the Lord because he taught me well. Even at night, he put his instructions deep inside my mind.*
I keep the Lord before me always. And I will never leave his right side.
So my heart and soul will be very happy. Even my body will live in safety.
Why? Because, Lord, you will not leave my soul in the place of death. You will not let your faithful one rot in the grave.*
You will teach me the right way to live. Just being with you, Lord, will bring complete happiness. Being at your right side will bring happiness forever.

Psalm 17
A prayer of David.*

Lord, hear my prayer for fairness.
I am calling loudly to you. And I am being honest in the things I say. So, please listen to my prayer.
You will make the right decision about me. You can see the truth.
You have looked deep into my heart. You were with me all night. You questioned me and found nothing wrong. I didn’t plan any bad thing.
I have tried as hard as humanly possible to obey your commands. I have followed your paths. My feet never left your way of living.
Every time I called to you, God, you answered me. So listen to me now.

God, you help people who trust you—those people stand by your right side. So listen to this prayer from one of your followers.
Protect me like the pupil* of your eye. Hide me in the shadow of your wings.
Lord, save me from the bad people who are trying to ruin me. Protect me from the people around me who are trying to hurt me.
Those bad people have become too proud to listen to God. And they brag about themselves.
Those people chased me. Now they are all around me. And they are ready to attack.*
Those bad people are like lions waiting to kill and eat another animal. They hide like lions, ready to attack.
Lord, get up* and go to the enemy. Make them surrender. Use your sword and save me from the bad people.
Lord, use your power and remove bad people from the land of the living.
Lord, many people come to you for help. Those people don’t have much in this life. Give those people plenty of food. Give their children all they want. Give the children so much that they will have food left over for their children.

I prayed for fairness. So I will see your face, Lord. And seeing you, Lord,* I will be fully satisfied.

* Or, “section of land.”
 Here, this probably means the land that each Jew received as part of his country that God gave his family. Literally, “my kidneys.”
 Literally, “my kidneys.”
 Literally, “see decay.”
 Or, “A prayer dedicated to David.”
pupil The center of the eye, which everyone wants to protect.
they are ready to attack Or, “They decided to lie on the ground.”
Lord, get up The people said this when they lifted the Box of the Agreement and took it into battle with them. This showed that God was with them. See Num. 10:35,36.
you, Lord Literally, “your likeness.”
Psalm 18

To the director.* The song of the Lord’s servant, David. David wrote* this song at the time the Lord saved him from Saul and all his other enemies.

1 He said, “Lord my strength,
I love you!”

2 The Lord is my Rock,*
my Fortress,*
my Place of Safety.”
My God is my Rock.
I run to him for protection.
God is my shield.
His power saves me.*
The Lord is my hiding place high in the hills.

3 They made fun of me.
But I called to the Lord for help,
and I was saved from my enemies!

4 My enemies were trying to kill me!
The ropes of death were all around me.
I was caught in a flood carrying me to that place of death.*

5 Ropes of the grave were all around me.
Traps of death lay before me.

6 Trapped, I called to the Lord for help.
Yes, I called to my God.
God was in his temple.
He heard my voice.
He heard my cry for help.

7 The earth shook and trembled;
the foundations of heaven shook.
Why? Because the Lord was angry!

8 Smoke came from God’s nose.*
Burning flames came from God’s mouth,
Burning sparks flew from him.

9 The Lord tore open the sky,
and he came down!
He stood on a thick, dark cloud.

10 The Lord was flying across the sky,
riding on the flying Cherub angels.
He was soaring high on the wind.

11 The Lord was hidden in the dark clouds that surrounded him like a tent.
He was hidden in the thick thunder clouds.

12 Then, God’s shining brightness broke through the clouds.
There was hail and flashes of lightning.

13 The Lord thundered from the sky!
God Most-High let his voice be heard.
There was hail and flashes of lightning.

14 The Lord shot his arrows* and scattered the enemy.
The Lord sent many bolts of lightning and the people scattered in confusion.

15 Lord, you shouted your command;
and a powerful wind began to blow.*
The water was pushed back,* and we could see the bottom of the sea.
We could see the earth’s foundations.

16 The Lord reached down from above and saved me.
The Lord caught me and pulled me out of deep water (trouble).

17 My enemies were stronger than me.
Those people hated me.
My enemies were too strong for me, so God saved me.

18 I was in trouble,
and my enemies attacked me.
But the Lord was there to support me!

19 The Lord loves me,
so he rescued me.
He took me to a safe place.

20 I am innocent,
so the Lord will give me my reward.
I did nothing wrong,
so he will do good things for me.

21 Why? Because I obeyed the Lord!
I did not sin against my God.

22 I always remember the Lord’s decisions.
I obey his laws!

Psalm 18  This song is also found in 2 Sam. 22.
director  Or, “performer.”
wrote  Or, “spoke.”
Rock  A name for God to show he is a strong place of safety.
Fortress  A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.
His power saves me  Or, “He is the horn of my salvation.”
place of death  Or, “the place of no return, the grave.”
Smoke … nose  Or, “In his anger, smoke rose from him.”
arrows  That is, “lightning.”
Lord … blow  Or, “Lord, you spoke harshly, and a breath of wind came from your nostrils.”
I was pure and honest with him.
I kept myself from doing bad things.
So the Lord will give me my reward!
Why? Because I am innocent!
The way God sees it,
I did nothing wrong,
so he will do good things for me.
Lord, if a person really loves you,
then you will show your true love to him.
If a person is true to you,
then you will be true to him.
Lord, you are good and pure to people that are good and pure.
But, you can outsmart
the meanest and sneakiest people.
Lord, you help humble people.
But you humiliate proud people.
Lord, you light my lamp.
My God lights up the darkness around me!
With your help, Lord,
I can run with the soldiers.
With God’s help,
I can climb over enemy walls.
God’s power is complete.
The Lord’s word has been tested.
He protects people who trust him.
There is no God except the Lord.
There is no Rock,* except our God.
God gives me strength.
He helps me live a pure life.
God helps me run fast like a deer.
He keeps me steady in high places.
God trains me for war,
so my arms can bend a powerful bow.*
God, you protected me
and helped me win.
You supported me with your right arm.
You helped me defeat my enemy.
Make my legs and ankles strong,
so I can walk fast without stumbling.
Then I can chase my enemies and catch them.
I won’t come back
until they are destroyed!
I will defeat my enemies.
They won’t get up again.
All my enemies will be under my feet.
God, you made me strong in battle.
You made my enemies fall before me.
You gave me a chance to strike at my enemy’s neck,
and I cut my opponent down!
My enemies called for help,
but there was no one to save them.
They even called to the Lord,
but he did not answer them.
I beat my enemies to pieces.
They were like dust
blowing in the wind.
I crushed them into small pieces.
Save me from the people
that fight against me.
Make me the leader of those nations.
People I don’t even know will serve me.
Those people will hear about me
and quickly obey me.
Those foreigners will be afraid of me.
Those foreigners will wilt with fear.
They will come from their hiding places
shaking with fear.
The Lord is alive!
I praise my Rock,*
God saves me.
He is great!
God punished my enemies for me.
He put people under my control.
Lord, you rescued me from my enemies.
You helped me defeat the people who stood against me.
You saved me from cruel men.
Lord, that is why I praise you among the nations.
That is why I sing songs about your name.
The Lord helps his king win many battles!
He shows his true love
for his chosen king.
He will be loyal to David and his descendants forever!
Psalm 19

To the director,* A song of David.*

1 The heavens speak about God's glory.
The skies tell about the good things his hands have made.
2 Each new day tells more of the story.
And each night reveals more and more about God's power.
3 You can't really hear any speech or words.
They don't make any sound we can hear.
4 But their “voice” goes throughout the world.
Their “words” go to the ends of the earth.

The sky is like a home for the sun.
The sun comes out like a happy bridegroom from his bedroom.
The sun begins its path across the sky like an athlete eager to run his race.
6 The sun starts at one end of the sky,
and it runs all the way to the other end.
Nothing can hide from its heat.
7 The Lord's teachings are like that.
The Lord's teachings are perfect.
They give strength to God's people.
The Lord's Agreement* can be trusted.
It helps foolish people become wise.
8 The Lord's laws are right.
They make people happy.
The Lord's commands are good.
They show people the right way to live.

Worshiping the Lord is like a light that will shine bright forever.
The Lord's judgments are good and fair.
They are completely right.
10 The Lord's teachings are worth more than the best gold.
They are sweeter than the best honey that comes straight from the honeycomb.
11 The Lord's teachings warn his servant.
Good things come from obeying them.
12 Lord, no person can see all of his own mistakes.
So don't let me do secret sins.

Psalm 20

To the director.* A song of David.*

1 May the Lord answer your call for help when you have troubles.
May the God of Jacob protect you.
2 May God send you help from his Holy Place.
May he support you from Zion.*
3 May God remember all the gifts you offered.
May he accept all your sacrifices.*

4 May God give you what you really want.
May he make all your plans successful.
5 We will be happy when God helps you.
Let's praise God's name.
May the Lord give you everything that you ask for!
6 Now I know the Lord helps the king he chose!
God was in his holy heaven,
and he answered his chosen king.
God used his great power to save the king.
7 Some people trust their chariots.*
Other people trust their soldiers.
But we remember the Lord our God.
8 Those other people were defeated—
they died in battle.
But we won! We are the winners!
9 Lord save your chosen king!
Answer us when we call for help.

director Or, “performer.”
A song of David Or, “A song dedicated to David.”
Agreement This probably means the Law of Moses, the commands and agreement God made with the people of Israel.
Rock A name for God to show he is a strong place of safety.
Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
sacrifice(s) A sacrifice was a gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
SELAH This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.
chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.
Psalm 21

To the director. * A song of David. *

1 Lord, your strength makes the king happy.
   He is so happy when you save him.
2 You gave the king the things he wanted.
   Lord, the king asked for some things,
   and you gave him what he asked for.

   SELAH*

3 Lord, you really blessed the king.
   You put the gold crown on his head.
4 God, the king asked you for life.
   And you gave it to him!
   You gave him a long life that continues
   forever and ever.
5 You led the king to victory and gave him great glory.
   You gave him honor and praise.
6 God, you really blessed the king forever.
   When the king sees your face,
   it makes him very happy.
7 The king trusts the Lord.
   God Most-High will not disappoint him.
8 God, you will show all your enemies that you are strong.
   Your power will defeat the people who hate you.
9 Lord, when you are with the king,
   he is like a hot oven, that burns up everything in it.
   His anger burns like a hot fire,
   and he destroys his enemies.
10 The families of his enemies will be destroyed.
    They will be gone from the earth.
11 Why? Because those people planned bad things against you, Lord.
    They planned to do bad things,
    but they didn’t succeed.
12 Lord, you made those people your slaves.
    You tied them together with ropes.
    You put ropes around their necks.
    You made them bow down like slaves.
13 Lord, let the songs of your power exalt you!
    We will sing and play songs about your greatness!

Psalm 22

To the director. * To the tune, “The Deer of Dawn.” * A song of David. *

1 My God, my God!
   Why did you leave me?
   You are too far away to save me!
   You are too far away to hear my cries
   for help!
2 My God, I called to you during the day.
   But you did not answer me.
   And I continued calling you in the night.
3 God, you are the Holy One.
   You sit as King.
   The praises of Israel are your throne.
4 Our ancestors* trusted you.
   Yes, they trusted you, God,
   and you saved them.
5 God, our ancestors* called to you for help,
   and they escaped their enemies.
   They trusted you,
   and they were not disappointed!
6 So, am I a worm and not a man?
   The people are ashamed of me.
   The people despise me.
7 Everyone who looks at me
   makes fun of me.
   They shake their heads and stick out their tongues at me.
8 They tell me:
   “Call to the Lord for help.
   Maybe he will save you.
   If he likes you so much,
   then surely he will rescue you!”
9 God, the truth is, that you really are the One I depend on.
   You have taken care of me
   since the day I was born.
   You assured and comforted me
   while I was still at my mother’s breasts.
10 You have been my God
   since the day I was born.
   I was put in your care as soon as I came out of my mother’s body.

director Or, “performer.”
A song of David Or, “A song dedicated to David.”
SELAH This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.
The Deer of Dawn This is probably the name of the tune for this song. But it might refer to a type of instrument.
ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents,
   grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
11 So, God, don’t leave me!
   Trouble is near.
   And there is no person to help me.
12 People are all around me.
   They are like powerful bulls that surrounded me.
13 Their mouths are wide open like a lion roaring and tearing at an animal.
14 My strength is gone,
   like water poured out on the ground.
   My bones have separated.
   My courage is gone!*
15 My mouth* is as dry
   as a piece of broken pottery.
   My tongue is sticking to the top of my mouth.
   You have put me in the “dust of death.”
16 The “dogs” are all around me.
   That pack* of evil people has trapped me.
   Like a lion, they have pierced my hands and my feet.”*
17 I can see my bones.
   And the people are staring at me!
   They keep looking at me!*
18 Those people are dividing my clothes
   among themselves.
   They are throwing lots* for my robe.
19 Lord, don’t leave me!
   You are my strength.
   Hurry and help me!
20 Lord, save my life from the sword.
   Save my precious life from those dogs.

21 Rescue me from the lion’s mouth.
   Protect me from the bulls’ horns.*
22 [Lord,] I will tell my brothers about you.
   I will praise you in the great assembly.
23 Praise the Lord, all you people who worship him!
   Show honor to the Lord, you descendants* of Israel!
   Fear and respect the Lord,
   all you people of Israel.
24 Why? Because the Lord helps poor people who have troubles.
   The Lord is not ashamed of them.
   He doesn’t hate them.
   If people call to the Lord for help,
   he will not hide from them.
25 [Lord,] my praise in the great assembly comes from you.
   In front of all these worshipers,
   I will offer the sacrifices that I promised to give.
26 Poor people, come eat and be satisfied.*
   You people who came looking for the Lord, praise him!
   May your hearts be happy* forever!
27 May the people in all the faraway countries
   remember the Lord and come back to him!
   May the people in all the foreign countries
   worship the Lord.
28 Why? Because the Lord is the King.
   He rules all nations.
29 Strong, healthy people have eaten and bowed down before God.
   In fact, all people,
   those who will die
   and those who are already dead,
   will bow down before God!

My courage is gone  Literally, “My heart is melted in me like wax.”
mouth  Or, “strength.”
pack  A group of dogs. Dogs travel together in packs to hunt and kill other animals for food.
Like a lion ... feet  The Greek version has, “They pierced my hands and my feet.” With a minor change (lengthening one letter), the Hebrew “like a lion” also means, “they pierced” or “they dug into”.
They keep looking at me  This phrase often means “to look at someone with plans to hurt him.”
lots  Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.
30 And in the future, our descendants will serve the Lord. People will tell about him forever.
31 Each generation will tell the children about the good things that God has done.

Psalm 23
A song of David.*
1 The Lord is my shepherd. I will always have everything I need.*
2 He lets me lie down in green pastures. He leads me by calm pools of water.
3 He gives new strength to my soul for the good of his name. He leads me on paths of goodness,* to show he is truly good.
4 Even if I walk through a valley as dark as the grave,* I will not be afraid of any danger. Why? Because you are with me, Lord. Your rod and staff* comfort me.
5 Lord, you prepared my table in front of my enemies. You poured oil on my head.* My cup is full and spilling over.
6 Goodness and mercy will be with me the rest of my life. And I will sit in the Lord’s temple for a long, long time.*

Psalm 24
A song of David.*
1 The earth and everything on it belong to the Lord. The world and all its people belong to him.
2 The Lord built the earth on the water. He built it over the rivers.
3 Who can go up the Lord’s mountain?* Who can stand and worship in the Lord’s holy temple?*
4 People who have not done evil things, people who have pure hearts, people who have not used my name* to make lies sound like the truth, and people who have not lied and made false promises. (Only those people can worship there.)
5 Good people ask the Lord to bless other people. Those good people ask God, their Savior, to do good things.
6 Those good people try to follow God. They go to the God of Jacob for help.

SELAH*
7 Gates, lift your heads! Open, ancient doors, and the glorious King will come in.
8 Who is the glorious King? The Lord is that King. He is the powerful soldier. The Lord is that King. He is the war hero.
9 Gates, lift your heads! Open, ancient doors, and the glorious King will come in.
10 Who is that glorious King? The Lord All-Powerful is that King. He is the glorious King!

Psalm 25*
David’s song*
1 Lord, I give myself to you.*
2 My God, I trust you, and I will not be disappointed. My enemies will not laugh at me.

Lord’s mountain Mountain Zion, where the temple was.
my name Literally, “my soul.”
SELAH This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.
Psalm 25 In Hebrew, each verse in this psalm begins with the next letter of the alphabet.
David’s song Or “Dedicated to David”
I give myself to you Literally, “I lift my soul to you.”
3 If a person trusts you, he will not be disappointed. But traitors* will be disappointed. They will get nothing.

4 Lord, help me learn your ways. Teach me your ways.

5 Guide me and teach me your truths. You are my God, my Savior. I trust you every day.

6 Remember to be kind to me, Lord. Show me the tender love that you have always had.

7 Don’t remember the sins and bad things that I did when I was young. For your good name, Lord, remember me with love.

8 The Lord is truly good. He teaches sinners the right way to live.

9 He teaches humble people his ways. He leads them with fairness.

10 The Lord is kind and true to people who follow his Agreement and promises.*

11 Lord, I have done many wrong things. But, to show your goodness, you forgave me for everything I did.

12 If a person chooses to follow the Lord, then God will show that person the best way to live.

13 That person will enjoy good things, and his children will keep the land God promised to give him.

14 The Lord tells his secrets to his followers. He teaches his Agreement* to them.

15 I am always looking to the Lord for help. He always frees me from my troubles.*

16 Lord, I am hurt and lonely. Turn to me and show me mercy.

17 Free me from my troubles. Help me solve my problems.

18 Lord, look at my trials and troubles. Forgive me for all the sins I have done.

19 Look at all the enemies I have. They hate me and want to hurt me.

20 God, protect me and save me. I trust you.

21 God, you are truly good. I trust you, so protect me.

22 God, save the people of Israel from all of their enemies.

Psalm 26

David’s song*

1 Lord, judge me. Prove that I have lived a pure life. I never stopped trusting the Lord.

2 Lord, try me and test me. Look closely into my heart and mind.

3 I always see your tender love. I live by your truths.

4 I am not one of those worthless people.

5 I hate those evil gangs. I won’t join those gangs of crooks.

6 Lord, I wash my hands to show that I am pure so I may come to your altar.*

7 Lord, I sing songs of praise to you. I sing about the wonderful things you have done.

8 Lord, I love your temple.* I love your glorious tent.*

9 Lord, don’t group me with those sinners. Don’t kill me with those murderers.

10 Those people might cheat other people. They might take money to do bad things.

11 But I am innocent. So, God, be kind to me and save me.

traitors People who turn against their country, friends, or family and do bad things to them.

Agreement and promises This is probably the Law of Moses, the Agreement that God made with the people of Israel.

Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

He ... troubles Literally, “He removes my feet from the net.”

David’s song Or “Dedicated to David” so I ... altar Or “so I might march around your altar.” This would probably mean that the person singing this song was a priest or a Levite preparing himself to serve in the temple.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

tent The temple in Jerusalem or the Holy Tent where the people worshiped God before the temple was built.
PSALM 26:12–28:3

12 I am safe from all dangers.
   Lord, I praise you as I stand among those who are calling your people to the assembly.*

Psalm 27
   David’s song,

1 Lord, you are my Light and my Savior.
   I should not be afraid of anyone!
   The Lord is the place of safety for my life.
   So I will not be afraid of any person.

2 Evil people might attack me.
   They might try to destroy my body.
   My enemies might try to attack and destroy me,
   but they will stumble and fall.

3 But even if an army is all around me,
   I will not be afraid.
   Even if people attack me in war,
   I will not be afraid.
   Why? Because I trust the Lord.

4 I ask only one thing from the Lord:
   “Let me sit in his temple* all my life,
   so I can see the Lord’s beauty and visit his palace.*”

5 The Lord will protect me
   when I am in danger.
   He will hide me in his tent.*
   He will take me up to his place of safety.

6 My enemies have surrounded me.
   But the Lord will help me defeat them!
   Then I will offer sacrifices* in his tent.*
   I will give the sacrifices with shouts of joy.
   I will sing and play songs to honor the Lord.

7 Lord, hear my voice.
   Answer me.
   Be kind to me.

8 Lord, I want to talk with you.
   I want to speak to you from my heart.
   I come before you to speak with you.

9 Lord, don’t turn away from your servant.
   Help me!
   Don’t push me away!
   Don’t leave me!
   My God, you are my Savior.

10 My mother and my father left me.
   But the Lord took me
   and made me his.

11 I have enemies, Lord.
   So teach me your ways.
   Teach me to do the right things.

12 My enemies have attacked me.
   They have told lies about me.
   They have told lies to hurt me.

13 I truly believe that I will see the Lord’s goodness before I die.*

14 Wait for the Lord’s help!
   Be strong and brave,
   and wait for the Lord’s help!

Psalm 28
   A song of David,*

1 Lord, you are my Rock,*
   I am calling to you for help.
   Don’t close your ears to my prayers.
   If you don’t answer my calls for help,
   then people will think I am no better than the dead people in the grave.

2 Lord, I raise my arms and pray toward your Most Holy Place.*
   Hear me when I call to you.
   Show mercy to me.

3 Lord, don’t think of me
   as one of those bad people.
   Those people greet their neighbors with the word “Shalom.”*®

   I am safe … assembly Or “I stand on level ground, praising the Lord when your followers come together.” This probably carries the double meaning of being safe from danger and being on the platform with the other priests and levites calling the people to come together and worship God.

   David’s song, Or “Dedicated, to David”

   temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

   palace A large house built for a king. Here, it is the temple.

   tent The temple in Jerusalem or the Holy Tent where the people worshiped God before the temple was built.

   sacrifice(s) A sacrifice was a gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

   before I die Literally, “in the land of the living.”

   A song of David Or, “A song dedicated to David.”

   Rock A name for God to show he is a strong place of safety.

   Most Holy Place The most important room in the Holy Tent or the temple, where the Box of the Agreement was kept. It was like a throne where God sat as king of Israel.

   Shalom This word means “peace.” It was used as a greeting like “hello” and “goodbye.”
But in their hearts they are planning bad things against their neighbors.

4 Lord, those people do bad things to other people. So make bad things happen to them. Give them the punishment they deserve.

5 Bad people don’t understand the good things the Lord does. They don’t see the good things God made. So God will destroy those people, and he will leave them in ruins.

6 Praise the Lord! He heard my prayer for mercy.

7 The Lord is my strength. He is my shield. I trusted him. And he helped me. I am very happy! And I sing songs of praise to him.

8 The Lord protects his chosen one.* The Lord saves him. The Lord is his strength.

9 God, save your people. Bless the people who belong to you. Lead them and honor them* forever!

Psalm 29
A song of David.*

1 Sons of God,* praise the Lord! Praise his glory and power.

2 Praise the Lord and honor his name! Worship him in your special clothes.*

3 The Lord raises his voice at the sea. The voice of the glorious God is like thunder over the great ocean.

4 The Lord’s voice shows his power. His voice shows his glory.

5 The Lord’s voice breaks great cedar trees into little pieces. The Lord breaks the great cedar trees of Lebanon.

Psalm 30
One of David’s songs. This song was for the dedication of the temple.*

1 Lord, you lifted me up out of my troubles. You did not let my enemies defeat me and laugh at me. So I will show honor to you.

2 Lord my God, I prayed to you. And you healed me.

3 You lifted me out of the grave. You let me live. I did not have to stay with the dead people lying in the pit.*

4 God’s followers, sing praises to the Lord! Praise his holy name!*

5 God was angry, so the decision was “death.” But he showed his love, and gave me “life.” At night, I lay crying. The next morning, I was happy and singing!

chosen one Or, “anointed one.” This might be any person that God has chosen in a special way, but it is usually his king.
honor them Or, “forgive them.” Literally, “lift them up.”
A song of David Or, “A song dedicated to David.”
Sons of God Or, “Sons of gods.” This probably means God’s angels who were like priests worshipping God in heaven.
special clothes The special clothes that people wore when they went to the temple to worship God.

Sirion Or, “Mount Hermon.”
Kadesh Desert A desert in Syria. This might also mean “the holy desert.”
deer Or, “oak trees.”
palace A large house built for a king. Here, it is the temple.
One of David’s songs … temple Or, “A psalm. The song for the dedication of the house. Dedicated to David.”
pit Or, “world of the dead people.”
name Literally, “memory” or “memorial.”
PSALM 30:6–31:17

6 When I was safe and secure,
I thought nothing could hurt me!
7 Yes, Lord, while you were kind to me,
I felt like nothing could defeat me!*
But when you turned away from me,
I became scared and shook with fear.
8 So God, I turned and prayed to you.
I asked you to show mercy to me.
9 I said, “God, what good is it if I die and go down into the grave?
Dead people just lie in the dirt!
They don’t praise you.
They don’t tell people
how much we can depend on you.
10 Lord, hear my prayer and be kind to me!
Lord, help me!”

9

11 [I prayed and you helped me!],
You changed my crying into dancing.
You took away my clothes of sadness.
And you wrapped me in happiness.
12 Lord, my God, I will praise you forever, so there will never be silence and there will always be someone singing songs to honor you.

Psalm 31
To the director.
A song of David.

1 Lord, I depend on you.
Don’t disappoint me.
Be kind to me and save me.
2 God, listen to me.
Come quickly and save me.
Be my Rock,*
Be my place of safety.
Be my fortress.*
Protect me!
3 God, you are my Rock.*
So, for the good of your name,
lead me and guide me.
4 My enemies have put a trap in front of me;
Save me from their trap.
You are my place of safety.

5 Lord, you are the God we can trust.
I put my life* in your hands.
Save me!
6 I hate people who worship false gods.
I trust only in the Lord.
7 God, your kindness makes me very happy.
You have seen my suffering.
You know about the troubles I have.
8 You will not let my enemies take me.
You will free me from their traps.
9 Lord, I have many troubles.
So be kind to me.
I am so upset that my eyes are hurting.
My throat and stomach are aching.
10 My life is ending in sadness.
My years are passing away in sighing.*
My troubles are taking away my strength.
My strength is leaving me.*
11 My enemies hate me.
And all my neighbors hate me, too.
All my relatives see me in the street.
They are afraid of me and avoid me.
12 People have completely forgotten me,
like some lost tool.
13 I hear the terrible things people say about me.
Those people turned against me.
They plan to kill me.

14 Lord, I trust you.
You are my God.
15 My life is in your hands.
Save me from my enemies.
Some people are chasing me.*
Save me from them.
16 Please welcome and accept your servant.*
Be kind to me and save me!
17 Lord, I prayed to you.
So I will not be disappointed.
Bad people will be disappointed.
They will go to the grave in silence.

I felt ... defeat me
Literally, “You placed me on the strong mountains.”
director
Or, “performer.”
A song of David
Or, “A song dedicated to David.”
Rock
A name for God to show he is a strong place of safety.
fortress
A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.
life Literally, “spirit.”
sighing
Breathing hard from sadness.
My strength is leaving me
Literally, “My bones are wasting away.”
chasing me
Or, “persecuting me,” “hurting me.”
welcome ... servant
Literally, “let your face shine on your servant.”
PSALM 31:18–32:11

18 Those bad people brag
and tell lies about good people.
Those bad people are very proud.
But their lying lips will be silent.

19 God, you have hidden away many wonderful things for your followers.
You do good things in front of everyone for the people who trust you.

20 Bad people join together to hurt
good people.
Those bad people try to start fights.
But you hide those good people and protect them.
You protect them in your shelter.

21 Bless the Lord!
He showed his true love for me in a wonderful way when the city was surrounded by enemies.

22 I was afraid, and I said,
“[I am in a place where God can't see me.]”
But I prayed to you, God,
and you heard my loud prayers for help.

23 God's followers, you should love the Lord!
The Lord protects people that are loyal to him.
But the Lord punishes people that brag about their own power.
He gives them the punishment they deserve.

24 Be strong and brave, all of you people that are waiting for the Lord’s help!

Psalm 32
A maskil* of David.

1 A person is very happy,*
when his sins are forgiven.
That person is very fortunate,*
when his sins are erased.*

2 A person is very happy,*
when the Lord says he is not guilty.
That person is very fortunate,*
he didn’t hide his secret sins.*

3 God, I prayed to you again and again,
but I did not talk about my secret sins.
I only became weaker every time I prayed.

4 God, you made life harder and harder on me, day and night.
I became like a dry, dry land in the hot summertime.

5 But then I decided to confess all my sins
to the Lord.
Lord, I told you about my sins.
I did not hide any of my guilt.
And you forgave me for all my sins!

6 For that reason, God, your loyal followers should pray to you when the time comes.
Then when trouble rises like a flood,
it won’t reach them.

7 God, you are a hiding place for me.
You protect me from my troubles.
You surround me and protect me.
So I sing about the way you saved me.

8 The Lord says,*
“I will teach you and guide you on the way you should live.
I will protect you and be your guide.

9 So don’t be stupid like a horse or a donkey.
People must use bits and reins* to lead those animals.
Without those things, those animals will not come near* you.”

10 Many pains will come to bad people.
But God’s true love will surround the people that trust the Lord.

11 Good people, rejoice and be very happy in the Lord.
All you people with pure hearts, rejoice!

maskil  The exact meaning of “maskil” is not clear. It might mean “a poem of meditation,” “a poem of instruction,” or “a skillfully-written poem.”
happy  Or, “fortunate, blessed.”
erased  Or, “covered over, atoned.”
he ... sins  Literally, “There was no deceit in his spirit.”

SELAH This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.
bits and reins  A “bit” is a metal bar that fits in the mouth of an animal and helps the rider control it. “Reins” are the ropes tied to the bit and held by the rider.
come near  This can also mean, “to come and worship at the altar.” So God may be talking about the people coming to worship him.
Psalm 33

1 Rejoice in the Lord, good people!
   It is good for good people to praise him!
2 Play the lyre* and praise the Lord!
   Play to the Lord on the ten-stringed harp.
3 Sing a new song* to him.
   Play the happy tune beautifully!
4 God’s word is true.
   You can depend on everything he does.
5 God loves to be fair and do good things.*
   The Lord’s true love fills the earth!
6 The Lord spoke the command,
   and the world was made.
   The breath from God’s mouth created everything on earth.
7 God gathered the water from the sea into one place.
   He keeps the ocean in its place.
8 Every person on earth should fear and respect the Lord.
   All the people in the world should fear him.
9 Why? Because God just gives a command, and that thing happens.
   And if he says, “Stop!”
   then that thing will stop.*
10 The Lord can make everyone’s advice useless.
   He can ruin all their plans.
11 But the Lord’s advice is good forever.
   His plans are good for generation after generation.
12 People who have the Lord as their God
   are very fortunate.
   Why? Because God chose them to be his own special people.
13 The Lord looked down from heaven,
   and he saw all the people.
14 From his high throne* he looked down at all the people living on earth.

Psalm 34

David’s *song, from the time David acted crazy so Abimelech would send him away. In this way, David left him.

1 I bless the Lord all the time.
   His praise is always on my lips.
2 Humble people, listen and be happy
   while I brag about the Lord.
3 Praise God with me!
   Let’s honor his name.
4 I went to God for help.
   And he listened.
   He saved me from all the things I fear.
5 Look to God for help.
   You will be accepted.
   Don’t be ashamed.*
6 This poor man called to the Lord for help.
   And the Lord heard me.
   He saved me from all my troubles.
7 The Lord’s angel builds a camp around the people that follow him.
   The Lord’s angel protects those people.

*lyre(s) An instrument with several strings, like a harp.
*new song Whenever God did a new and wonderful thing for his people, they would write a new song about it.
*God loves ... things Or “God loves goodness and justice.”
*And if ... stop Or, “He gives the command, and it stands!”
*The word “stand” can mean “stand forever” or “stop.”
*throne The chair a king or queen sits on.

Psalm 34 In Hebrew, each verse in this psalm begins with the next letter of the alphabet.

You will be accepted ... be ashamed Literally, “Look at him and shine. Don’t let your face be pale.”
Taste the Lord
and see how good he is.
The person that depends on the Lord will be truly happy.

The Lord’s holy people should worship
him.
There is no other place of safety
for the Lord’s followers.

Powerful people will become weak and hungry.
But the people that go to God for help will have every good thing.

Children, listen to me,
and I will teach you to respect the Lord.
If a person loves life
and wants to live a good, long life, then that person must not say bad things;
that person must not tell lies.

Stop doing bad things!
Do good things.
Work for peace.
Run after peace until you catch it.

The Lord protects good people.
He hears their prayers.
But the Lord is against people that do bad things.
He destroys them completely!

Pray to the Lord and he will hear you.
He will save you from all your troubles.

When some people have troubles
they stop being proud.
The Lord is close to those humble people.
He will save them. *

Good people might have many problems,
but the Lord will save them from every one of their problems.

The Lord will protect all their bones.
Not one bone will be broken.

But troubles will kill evil people.
The enemies of good people will all be destroyed.

The Lord saves the souls of his servants.
Those people depend on him.
He won’t let them be destroyed.

Lord, fight my battles.
Fight my wars!

Lord, pick up the shield and buckler.*
Get up and help me.

Take a spear and javelin* and fight the people that are chasing me.
Lord, tell my soul,
“I will save you.”

Some people are trying to kill me.
Disappoint them
and make them ashamed.
Make them turn and run away.
Those people are planning to hurt me.
Defeat them and embarrass them.

Make those people be like chaff*
blown by the wind.*
Let them be chased by the Lord’s angel.
Lord, make their road dark and slippery.
Let the Lord’s angel chase them.

I did nothing wrong,
but those people tried to trap me.
For no reason at all,
they tried to trap me.

So, Lord, let them fall into their own traps.
Let them stumble into their own nets.
Let some unknown danger catch them.

Then I will rejoice in the Lord.
I will be happy when he saves me.
With my whole self I will say,
“Lord, there is no one like you.
You save a poor person from people that are stronger.
You take things from strong people,
and you give those things to that poor, helpless person.”

David’s song, Or “Dedicated, to David”
buckler A shield large enough to protect the whole body.
javelin A weapon like a spear.
chaff Seed coverings and stems separated from the seeds of plants like wheat or barley. Farmers did not keep this useless chaff.
warm This may be a word play, because the Hebrew word also means “Spirit.”
A group of witnesses* are planning to hurt me. Those people will ask me questions that I know nothing about.

I have done only good things. But those people will do bad things to me.

Lord, give me the good things I deserve.

When those people were sick, I was sad for them. I showed my sadness by not eating. Is this what I get for praying for them?

I wore clothes of sadness for those people. I treated those people like my friends or even like brothers. I was sad, like a man crying because his mother had died. I wore black clothes to show my sadness for those people. I walked with my head bowed in sadness.

But when I made a mistake,* those people laughed at me. Those people were not really friends. I didn’t even know them. But they surrounded me and attacked me.

They used bad language and made fun of me. Those people showed they were angry at me by grinding their teeth.

My Master, how long will you watch these bad things happen? Those people are trying to destroy me. Lord, save my life. Save my dear life from those bad people. They are like lions.

Lord, I will praise you in the great assembly. I will praise you when I am with the powerful people.

My lying enemies will not keep laughing. Surely my enemies will be punished for their secret plans.*

My enemies are not really making plans for peace. They are secretly making plans to do bad things to the peaceful people in this country.

My enemies are saying bad things about me. They tell lies and say, “Aha! We know what you are doing!”

Lord, surely you can see what is happening. Don’t keep quiet. Don’t leave me.

Lord, wake up! Get up! My God and my Lord, fight for me, and bring me justice.

Lord my God, judge me with your fairness. Don’t let those people laugh at me.

Don’t let those people say, “Aha! We got what we wanted!” Lord, don’t let them say, “We destroyed him!”

I hope that all my enemies will be ashamed and embarrassed. Those people were happy when bad things happened to me. They thought they were better than me! So let those people be covered with shame and humiliation.

Some people want good things to happen to me. I hope those people will be very happy! Those people always say, “The Lord is great! He wants what is best for his servant.”

So Lord, I tell people how good you are. I praise you every day.

Psalm 36
To the director.* To the servant of the Lord.
To David.

A bad person does a very bad thing when he says to himself, “I will not fear and respect God.”

That person lies to himself. That person does not see his own faults. So he does not ask for forgiveness.

witnesses People who tell about things they have seen or heard. Here, these people were probably telling lies.

made a mistake Literally, “stumbled.”

Surely ... plans Literally, “Will the people who hate me freely wink their eyes?”

director Or, “performer.”
3 His words are only worthless lies.
   He does not become wise
   or learn to do good.
4 At night, he plans worthless things.
   He gets up and does nothing good.
   But he doesn’t refuse to do evil.
5 Lord, your true love is higher than the sky.
   Your loyalty is higher than the clouds.
6 Lord, your goodness is higher than the highest mountain.*
   Your fairness is deeper than the deepest ocean.
   Lord, you protect man and animals.
7 Nothing is more precious than your loving kindness.
   People and angels* come to you
   for protection.
8 Lord, they get new strength from the good things in your house.
   You let them drink
   from your wonderful river.
9 Lord, the fountain of life flows from you!
   Your light lets us see light.
10 Lord, continue to love those people that truly know you.
    And do good things for those people that are true to you.*
11 Lord, don’t let proud people trap me.
    Don’t let me be caught by evil people.
12 Put this on their grave markers:
    “Here fell the wicked people.
    They were crushed.
    They will never stand up again.”

Psalm 37*
David’s song,*
1 Don’t get upset at evil people.
   Don’t be jealous of people who do bad things.

Evil people are like grass and green plants that quickly turn brown and die.
2 If you trust the Lord and do good things, you will live and enjoy the many things that the land gives.
3 Enjoy serving the Lord,
   and he will give you what you want.
4 Depend on the Lord.
   Trust him, and he will do
   what must be done.
5 Let your goodness and fairness shine like the sun at noon.
6 Trust the Lord and wait for his help.
   Don’t be upset
   when bad people succeed.
   Don’t be upset
   when bad people make evil plans and their plans succeed.
8 Don’t be angry! Don’t get mad!
   Don’t become so upset
   that you also want to do bad things.
7 Why? Because evil people will be destroyed.
   But people that call to the Lord for help will get the land, God promised.*
10 In a short time there will be no more evil people.
    You might look for those people,
    but they will all be gone!
11 Humble people
    will get the land, God promised.*
    And they will enjoy peace.
12 Evil people plan bad things against good people.
    Those evil people show they are angry
    by grinding their teeth at good people.
13 But our Master laughs
    at those evil people.
    He sees what will happen to them.
14 Bad people get their swords and aim their bows.
    They want to kill poor, helpless people.
    They want to kill good, honest people.
15 But their bows will break.
    Their swords will go into their own hearts.
16 A few good people are better than a large crowd of evil people.
17 Why? Because evil people will be destroyed.
    But the Lord cares for good people.

the highest mountain  Literally, “El’s Mountain.” This might be a special mountain in Syria or “God’s Mountain,” the place where God meets with his angels.
angels Or, “gods” or “powerful people.”
to you Or, “honest hearted.”
Psalm 37  In Hebrew, each verse in this psalm begins with the next letter of the alphabet.
David’s song  Or “[Dedicated] to David”
PSALM 37:18–38:4

18 The Lord protects pure people all their life.
   Their reward will continue forever.
19 When trouble comes,
   good people will not be destroyed.
   When times of hunger come,
   good people will have plenty to eat.
20 But evil people are the Lord’s enemies, and those evil people will be destroyed.
   Their valleys will become dry and burn.
   They will be completely destroyed.
21 An evil man quickly borrows money and never pays it back.
   But a good man gives freely to other people.
22 If a good person blesses people, then they will get the land
   God promised.
   But if he asks for bad things to happen,
   then those people will be destroyed.
23 The Lord helps a soldier walk carefully.
   The Lord keeps the soldier from falling.
24 If the soldier runs and attacks his enemy, then the Lord holds the soldier’s hand,
   and keeps him from falling.
25 I was young, and now I am old.
   And I have never seen God abandon good people.
   I have never seen good people’s children begging for food.
26 A good man gives freely to other people.
   And a good man’s children are a blessing.
27 If you refuse to do bad things,
   and if you do good things,
   then you will live forever.
28 The Lord loves fairness.
   He will not leave his followers without help.
   The Lord will always protect his followers,
   but he will destroy wicked people.
29 Good people will get the land
   God promised.
   They will live on it forever.
30 A good person gives good advice.
   His decisions are fair to every person.
31 He has learned the Lord’s teachings.
   And he will never stop living right.*
32 But bad people are always looking for ways to kill good people.
33 The Lord will not abandon good people when they are trapped by bad people.
   God will not let good people be judged guilty.
34 Do what the Lord says
   and wait for his help.
   The Lord will make you the winner,
   and you will get the land God promised,
   when he forces the bad people to leave.
35 I saw a wicked person that was powerful.
   He was like a strong, healthy tree.
36 But then he was gone.
   I looked for him,
   but I couldn’t find him.
37 Be pure and honest.
   Peace loving people
   will have many descendants.
38 But people who break the law will be completely destroyed.
   And their descendants will be forced to leave the land.*
39 The Lord saves good people.
   When good people have troubles,
   the Lord is their strength.
40 The Lord helps good people and saves them.
   Good people depend on the Lord,
   and he saves them from bad people.

Psalm 38

A song of David* for the day of remembrance.*

1 Lord, don’t criticize me in anger.
   Don’t discipline me in anger.
2 Lord, you have hurt me.
   Your arrows went deep into me.
3 You punished me.
   Now my whole body is sore.
   I sinned, and you punished me.
   So all my bones hurt.
4 I am guilty of doing bad things.
   And that guilt is like a heavy weight.
   I am too ashamed, to hold my head up.

forced to leave the land Or “destroyed”. Literally, “cut off”.
A song of David Or, “A song dedicated to David.”
for … remembrance The ancient Greek version has “for the Sabbath.”
5 I did a foolish thing.
Now I have infected sores that stink.
6 I am bent and bowed down.
I am depressed all day long.
7 I have a fever,
and my whole body hurts.
8 I hurt so much I can’t feel anything.
My pounding heart makes me scream!
9 My Master, you heard my groaning.
My sighs are not hidden from you.
10 My heart is pounding.
My strength is gone,
and I am going blind*.
11 Because of my sickness,
my friends and neighbors
will not visit me.
My family will not come near me.
12 My enemies say bad things about me.
They are spreading lies and rumors.*
They talk about me all the time.
13 But I am like a deaf person that cannot hear.
I am like a mute person
that cannot speak.
14 I am like a person that cannot hear what people are saying about him.
I cannot argue and prove that my enemies are wrong.
15 So, Lord, you must defend me.
God my Master, you must speak for me.
16 If I say anything,
then my enemies will laugh at me.
They will see I am sick and say that I am being punished
for doing wrong.
17 I know I am guilty of doing wrong things.
I cannot forget my pain.
18 Lord, I told you about the bad things I did.
I am sad about my sins.
19 My enemies are alive and healthy.
And they have told many, many lies.
20 My enemies do bad things to me,
and I did only good things to them.
I tried to do only good things,
but those people turned against me.

21 Lord, don’t leave me!
My God, stay close to me!
22 Quickly come and help me!
My God, save me!

Psalm 39
To the director.* To Jeduthun.*
A song of David.*

1 I said,
“I will be careful about the things I say.
I will not let my tongue cause me to sin.
I will keep my mouth closed* when I am around wicked people.”
2 So I didn’t say anything.
I didn’t even say anything good!
But I became even more upset.
3 I was very angry.
And the more I thought about it,
the angrier I became.
So I said something.
4 Lord, tell me, what will happen to me now?
Tell me, how long will I live?
Let me know how short my life really is.
5 Lord, you gave me only a short life.*
My short life is nothing,
compared to you.
Every person’s life is only like a cloud that quickly disappears;*
No person lives forever!* SELAH*
6 Our life is like an image in a mirror.*
We rush through life collecting things, but we don’t know who will get them
after we die.
7 So, Master, what hope do I have?
You are my hope!

To the director Or, “performer.”
To Jeduthun Or, “To the director, Jeduthun,” one of the three main temple musicians. See 1 Chron. 9:16; 16:38–42.
A song of David Or, “A song dedicated to David.”
keep ... closed Literally, “guard my mouth with a muzzle.”
you gave me only a short life Literally, “you made my days only a handbreadth.”
No person lives forever Literally, “No one stands.”
SELAH This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.
Our life ... mirror Or, “This life is not real—it is only a shadow” or “People wander around in the dark—not knowing what will happen.”

I am going blind Or “My eyes have lost their sparkle.”
Literally, “Even the light of my eyes is no longer with me.”
rumors Hurtful stories about people that other people tell without knowing if the stories are true.
8 Lord, save me from the bad things I did.
  Don’t let me be treated like a fool.
  I will not open my mouth.
  I will not say anything.
  Lord, you did what should be done.
9 But God, stop punishing me.
  You will destroy me if you don’t stop!
  Lord, you punish people for doing wrong to teach them the right way to live.
  Like a moth destroys cloth,
you destroy the things people love.
  Yes, our lives are like a small cloud that quickly disappears.
  SELAH*
10 Lord, hear my prayer!
  Listen to the words I cry to you.
  Look at my tears.
  I am only a traveler
  passing through this life with you.
  Like all my ancestors, I live here only a short time.*
11 Lord, leave me alone*
  and let me be happy
  before I am dead and gone.

Psalm 40
  To the director.* A song of David.*
1 I called* to the Lord, and he heard me.
  He heard my cries.
2 The Lord lifted me out of the grave.*
  He lifted me from that muddy place.*
  He picked me up,
  put me on solid ground
  and kept my feet from slipping.
3 The Lord put a new song* in my mouth,
  a song of praise to my God.
  Many people will see what happened to me,
  and they will worship God.
  They will trust the Lord.

* This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.

I live … time  Literally, “I am a settler.”
leave me alone  Or, “stop looking at me.”
director  Or, “performer.”
A song of David  Or, “A song dedicated to David.”
called  Or, “waited patiently.”
grave  Literally, “pit of destruction,” that is, the place of death.
muddy place  In many ancient stories, Sheol, the place of death, is a dark place with mud all around, like a grave.
new song  Whenever God did a new and wonderful thing for his people, they would write a new song about it.

4 If a person trusts the Lord, that person will be truly happy.
  A person will be truly happy
  if he doesn’t turn to demons and false gods* for help.
5 Lord, our God, you have done many wonderful things!
  You have wonderful plans for us.
  No person could list them all!
  I will tell again and again about those things that are too many to count.
6 Lord, you made me understand this:*
  You don’t really want sacrifices* and grain offerings.
  You don’t really want burnt offerings and sin offerings.
7 So I said,
  “Here |I am! Take me,| I am coming.
  This was written about me in the book.
8 My God, I want to do what you want.
  I know your teachings.
9 I told the good news of victory*
  to the people in the great assembly.
  And Lord, you know that
  I will never stop telling that good news!
10 Lord, I told about the good things you did.
  I did not hide those things in my heart.
  Lord, I told people they can depend on you to save them.
  I did not hide your kindness and loyalty from the people in the assembly.
11 So Lord, don’t hide your mercy from me!
  Let your kindness and loyalty
  protect me.”
12 Evil people have gathered around me.
  They are too many to count!
  My sins have caught me,
  and I can’t escape them.
  They are more than the hairs on my head.
  I have lost my courage.

demons and false gods  Or, “proud and deceptive people.”
you made me understand this  Literally, “you have dug my ears.” The ancient Greek version has, “You prepared a body for me.”
sacrifice(s)  A sacrifice was a gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
victory  Literally, “goodness, righteousness.”
13 Run to me, Lord, and save me!
    Lord, come quickly and help me!
14 Those evil people are trying to kill me.
    Lord, make those people ashamed and disappointed.
    Those people want to hurt me.
    Let them run away in shame!
15 Those bad people make fun of me.
    Let them be too embarrassed to speak!
16 But let those people that come to you be happy and rejoice.
    They love being saved by you.
    So let them always say,
    “Praise the Lord!”*
17 Master, I am only a poor, helpless man.
    Help me. Save me.
    My God, don’t be too late!

Psalm 41
To the director.* A song of David.*
1 A person who helps poor people succeed will get many blessings.*
    When trouble comes,
    the Lord will save that person.
2 The Lord will protect that person and save his life.
    That person will be blessed on earth.
    God will not let that person’s enemies destroy him.
3 When that person is sick and in bed,
    the Lord will give him strength.
    That person may be sick in bed,
    but the Lord will make him well!
4 I said, “Lord, be kind to me.
    I sinned against you,
    but forgive me and make me well.”
5 My enemies say bad things about me.
    They are saying,
    “When will he die and be forgotten?”
6 People come to visit me,
    but they don’t say what they are really thinking.

Psalm 42
To the director.* A maskil*
from the Korah family.
1 A deer gets thirsty
    for water from a stream.
    In the same way, my soul is thirsty for you, God.
2 My soul is thirsty for the Living God.
    When can I go to meet with him?
3 My enemy constantly
    makes fun of me.
    He says, “Where is your God?
    Has he come to save you yet?”
7 My enemies whisper bad things about me.
    They are plotting against me.
8 They say,
    “He did something wrong.
    That is why he is sick.
    I hope he never gets well.”
9 My best friend ate with me.
    I trusted him.
    But now, even he has turned against me.
10 So, Lord, please be kind to me.
    Let me get up,
    and I will pay them back.
11 Lord, don’t let my enemy hurt me.
    Then I will know that you didn’t send them to hurt me.
12 I was innocent and you supported me.
    You let me stand and serve you forever.
13 Bless the Lord, God of Israel!
    He always was,
    and he always will be.
    Amen and Amen!*
My heart breaks as I remember the good times I had at the temple: I remember passing through the crowds as I led them all up to God’s temple. I remember the happy songs of praise as the crowds celebrated the festivals.

Why should I be so sad? Why should I be so upset? I should wait for God’s help. I will get the chance to praise him yet. He will save me!

My God, I am so sad because I must remember you from this place, from this small hill* where the Hermon mountains and the Jordan River meet.

I hear the crashing of the water as water from deep in the earth spills over the waterfall. Lord, your waves are crashing all around me and washing over me!*

Every day the Lord shows his true love and every night, I have a song for him, a prayer for my Living God.

I speak to God, my Rock,* I say, “Lord, why did you forget me? Why must I suffer such sadness because of the cruelty of my enemy?”

My enemy constantly insults me and strikes a deadly blow when he asks me, “Where is your God? Has he come to save you yet?”

Why should I be so sad? Why should I be so upset? I should wait for God’s help. I will get the chance to praise him yet. He will save me!

Psalm 43

God, there is a man who is not one of your loyal followers. That man is crooked and tells lies. God, save me from that man! Defend me and prove that I am right.

Psalm 44

God, we have heard about you. Our fathers told us what you did in their lifetime. They told us what you did long ago. God, with your great power you took this land from other people, and you gave it to us. You crushed those foreign people. You forced them to leave this land.

It was not our father’s swords that took the land. It was not their strong arms that made them winners. It was because you were with our fathers. God, your great power saved our fathers. Why? Because you loved them!

My God, you are my king. Give the command and lead Jacob’s people to victory.
5 My God, with your help,
we will push back our enemies.
With your name,
we will walk on our enemies.
6 I don’t trust my bow and arrows.
My sword can’t save me.
God, you saved us from Egypt.
You put our enemies to shame.
7 We have praised God all day long!
And we will praise your name forever!

SELAH*

9 But, God, you left us.
You embarrassed us.
You did not come with us into battle.
10 You let our enemies push us back.
Our enemies took our wealth.
11 You gave us away like sheep to be eaten as food.
You scattered us among the foreigners.
12 God, you sold your people for nothing.
You didn’t even argue over the price.
13 You made us a joke to our neighbors.
They laugh at us and make fun of us.
14 We are one of the funny stories people tell.
Even people without a nation of their own
laugh at us and shake their heads.
15 I am covered with shame.
All day long I see my shame.
16 I hide in shame, at the jokes and insults coming from my enemy who wanted to get even with me.
17 God, we have not forgotten you.
Yet you do all those things to us.
We did not lie when we signed our Agreement* with you!
18 God, we have not turned away from you.
We have not stopped following you.
19 But, God, you crushed us in this place where jackals* live.
You left us in this place
as dark as death.
20 Did we forget the name of our God?
Did we pray to foreign gods?
[No!]
21 Surely, God knows these things.
He knows even our deepest secrets.
22 God, all day long we died for you!
We were like sheep being led away to be killed.
23 Get up, my Master!
Why are you sleeping?
Get up!
Don’t leave us forever!
24 God, why are you hiding from us?
Have you forgotten our pain and troubles?
25 We have been pushed down into the dirt.
We are lying with our belly
in the dust. *
26 God, get up and help us!
Rescue us because of your true love!

Psalm 45
To the director.* To the tune of “Shoshanim.”* A maskil* from the Korah family. A love song.

1 Beautiful words fill my mind
as I write these things for the king.
Words come from my tongue like words coming from a skilled writer’s pen.
2 You are more handsome than anyone!
You are a very good speaker.
So God will bless you forever!
3 Put your sword on.
Put on your glorious uniform.
4 You look wonderful!
Go and win the fight
for goodness and fairness.
Your powerful right arm was trained to do amazing things.

SELAH This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.
Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.
jackal(s) A wild animal, like a dog. Jackals live only where no people are.

We ... dust This shows the people were being treated like slaves that must bow down to their masters.
director Or, “performer.”
To the tune of Shoshanim Or, “On the Shoshanim.”
maskil The exact meaning of “maskil” is not clear. It might mean “a poem of meditation,” “a poem of instruction,” or “a skillfully-written poem.”
5 Your sharp arrows will go deep into the hearts of your enemies. People will fall to the ground in front of you.

6 God, your throne continues forever! Goodness is your royal scepter.*

7 You love goodness and you hate evil. So God, your God, chose you to be king over your friends.*

8 Your clothes smell like the sweet spices myrrh, aloes, and cassia. From here in palaces decorated with ivory, comes music to entertain you.

9 The bridesmaids are the daughters of kings. Your bride* stands at your right side, wearing a crown of pure gold.

10 My lady,* listen to me. Listen carefully and you will understand. Forget your people and your father’s family, so the king will be pleased with your beauty. He will be your new husband,* So you must honor him.

11 Wealthy people from Tyre will bring gifts to you so they might meet with you.

12 The princess in her gown made with threads of pure gold is like a pearl in a gold setting. The bride in her beautiful clothes, is led to the king, her bridesmaids following behind her. They come filled with happiness. Filled with happiness, they enter the king’s palace.

16 King, your sons will rule after you. You will make them rulers throughout the land.

17 I will make your name famous forever. People will praise you forever and ever!

Psalm 46
To the director.* A song,from the Korah family. By the Alamoth.* A song.

1 God is our storehouse of strength. In him, we can always find help in times of trouble.

2 So we are not afraid when the earth quakes, and the mountains fall into the sea.

3 We are not afraid when the seas become rough and dark, and the mountains shake. SELAH*

4 There is a river whose streams bring happiness to God’s city, to the holy city of God Most High.

5 God is in that city, so it will never be destroyed. God is there to help even before sunrise.

6 The nations will shake with fear, those kingdoms will fall when the Lord shouts, and the earth crumbles.

7 The Lord All-Powerful is with us. The God of Jacob is our place of safety. SELAH*

8 Look at the powerful things the Lord does. See the awesome things he has done on earth.

9 The Lord can stop wars anywhere on earth. He can break the soldiers’ bows, shatter their spears, and burn their shields.*

God  This might be a song to God, as king. Or here the writer might be using the word “God” as a title for the king.
scepter  A special stick that kings carried to show they were rulers.

chose you to be king over your friends  Literally, “poured the sweet oil on you over your friends.” This was the special oil kept in the temple and used to anoint kings, priests, and prophets.
bride  Or, “queen.”
My lady  Literally, “My daughter.”
husband  Or, “master.”
director  Or, “performer.”
By the Alamoth  This might be a special instrument, a special way of tuning an instrument, or one of the groups that played harps in the temple orchestra. See 1 Chron.15:21.
SELAH  This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.
shields  Or, “chariots”.
PSALM 46:10–48:14

10 God says,
   “Stop fighting
   and learn that I am God!
I defeat the nations!
I control the world!”

11 The Lord All-Powerful is with us.
The God of Jacob is our place of safety.

Psalm 47
To the director. A song from the Korah family.

1 Clap your hands, all you people.
Shout with joy to God!
2 The Lord Most High is awesome.
   He is the Great King over all the earth.
3 He helped us defeat other people.
   He put those nations under our control.
4 God chose our land for us.
   He chose that wonderful land for Jacob,
   the man he loved.

Psalm 48
A song of praise from the Korah family.

1 The Lord is great.
   People praise him very much in the city of our God,
   on his holy mountain.

Psalm 46

SELAH
This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.

director Or, “performer.”
songs of praise Literally, “maskil.” The exact meaning of “maskil” is not known. It might mean “a poem of meditation,” “a poem of instruction,” or “a skillfully-written poem.”

true mountain of God Literally, “the summit of Zaphon.” In Canaanite stories, Mt. Zaphon was where the gods lived.
forever Or, “even through death.”
Psalm 49

To the director,* A song from the Korah family.

1 Listen to this all you nations.
Listen to this all you people on earth.

2 Every person, poor and rich alike, should listen.

3 I will tell you some very wise and intelligent things.

4 I myself listened to the stories.
And now, with my harp, I will sing and reveal that message to you.

5 Why should I be afraid
if trouble comes.
There is no need to be afraid
if evil people surround me and try to trap me.

6 Some people think their strength and wealth will protect them.
But those people are fools.

7 No human friend can save you.
And you can’t bribe* God.

8 No person will ever get enough money
to buy his own life.

9 No person will ever get enough money to buy the right to live forever, and to save his own body
from rotting in the grave.

10 Look, wise people die
the same as fools and stupid people.*
They die and leave their wealth
to other people.

11 The grave will be their new home
forever and ever.
And how much land they owned won’t make any difference!

12 People might be wealthy,
but they can’t stay here forever.
They will die just like the animals.

13 That is what happens to those foolish people who are so pleased with their wealth.*

Psalm 50

One of Asaph’s songs.

1 The Lord, the God of gods has spoken.
He calls to all the people on earth,
from the rising to the setting sun.

2 God shining from Zion is absolutely beautiful!

3 Our God is coming,
and he will not keep quiet.

4 Those people are just like sheep.
The grave will be their pen.
Death will be their shepherd.
Then on that morning
the good people will be the winners as the bodies of those proud people slowly rot in the grave,
far away from their fancy houses.

5 But God will pay the price and save my life.*
He will save me
from the power of the grave
when he takes me to be with him!*

6 Don’t be afraid of people
just because they are rich.
Don’t be afraid of people
just because they have big fancy houses.

7 Those people won’t take a thing with them
when they die.
They will not take any of those beautiful things with them.

8 A wealthy person might really congratulate himself
on how well he has done in life.
And yes, even other people might praise him for how well he had done for himself.

9 But the time will come for him to die and go to his ancestors.
And he will never again see the light of day.

10 People might be wealthy,
and still not understand.
They will die just like the animals.

director Or, “performer.”
bribe Here this means offering a gift or sacrifice so that God will not punish a guilty person.
stupid people Or, “animals.”
who are pleased … wealth Or, “who run after their appetites” or “pursue the things they want.”

SELAH This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.
Fire burns in front of him.
There is a great storm around him.
4 Our God calls to the earth and sky to be witnesses as he judges his people.
5 God say, “My followers, gather around me.
Come my worshipers, we made an agreement with each other.”
6 God is the judge, and the skies tell about his goodness.
7 God says, “My people, listen to me!
People of Israel, I will show my evidence against you.
I am God, your God.
8 I am not complaining about your sacrifices.*
You people of Israel bring me your burnt offerings all the time.
You give them to me every day.
9 I will not take bulls from your house.
I will not take goats from your stalls.
10 I don’t need those animals.
I already own all the animals in the forest.
I already own all the animals on thousands of mountains.*
11 I know every bird on the highest mountain.
Every moving thing in the hills are mine.
12 I am not hungry!*
But if I were hungry,
I would not have to ask you for food.
I already own the world and everything on it.
13 I don’t eat meat from bulls.
I don’t drink blood from goats.”
14 So bring your thank offerings* to share with the other worshipers, and come to be with God.
You made promises to God Most High, so give him the things you promised.
15 God says, “Call for me when you have troubles!
I will help you.
And then you can honor me.”
16 God says to wicked people, “You people talk about my laws.
You talk about my Agreement.
So why do you hate it when I correct you?
Why do you ignore the things I say?
17 You see a thief, and you run to join him.
You jump into bed with people doing the sin of adultery.
18 You people say bad things and tell lies.
20 You constantly say bad things about other people, even your own brothers.
21 You did these bad things, and I said nothing.
So you thought that I was just like you.
Well, I won’t be quiet any longer!
I will make it very clear to you, and I will criticize you to your face!
22 You people have forgotten God.
So you had better understand before I tear you apart!
If that happens, no person can save you!
23 So if a person gives a thank offering,* then he shows me honor.
But if a person lives right, then I will show him my power to save.”

SELAH* This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.
sacrifice(s) A sacrifice was a gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
thousands of mountains Or possibly, “the mountains of El,” that is, “the highest mountains.”
thank offerings(s) Special fellowship offerings people gave to praise God and thank him for doing good things for them. A part of the animal was burned on the altar, but the people ate most of it in a fellowship meal at the temple. See Lev. 7:11–26.
Psalm 51

To the director.* One of David’s songs.
This song is about the time that Nathan the prophet went to David after David’s sin with Bathsheba.

1 God, be merciful to me, because of your great loving kindness, because of your great mercy, erase all my sins.
2 God, scrub away my guilt. Wash away my sins, Make me clean again!
3 I know I sinned. I always see those sins.
4 I did the things you say are wrong. God, you are the One I sinned against. I confess these things so people will know I am wrong, and you are right. Your decisions are fair.
5 I was born in sin, and in sin my mother conceived me.
6 God, you want me to be truly loyal, so put true wisdom deep inside of me.
7 Use the hyssop plant and do the ceremony to make me pure. Wash me until I am whiter than snow!
8 Make me happy! Tell me how to be happy again. Let the bones you crushed be happy again!
9 Don’t look at my sins! Erase them all.
10 God, create a pure heart in me! Make my spirit strong again!
11 Don’t push me away! And don’t take your Holy Spirit away from me!
12 Your help made me so happy! Give me that joy again. Make my spirit strong and ready to obey you.
13 I will teach sinners how you want them to live, and they will come back to you.
14 God, spare me from the death penalty.* My God, you are the One who Saves me!

Psalm 52

To the director.* A maskil* of David when Doeg the Edomite went to Saul and told him, “David is in Ahimelech’s house.”

1 Big man, why do you brag about the bad things you do? You are a continual disgrace to God.
2 You make foolish plans and your tongue is as dangerous as a sharp razor. You are always lying and trying to cheat people!
3 You love evil more than goodness. You love lying more than telling the truth.

Let me sing about the good things that you do for me!
15 My Master, I will open my mouth and sing your praises!
16 You don’t really want sacrifices.* So why should I give sacrifices that you don’t even want!
17 The sacrifice that God wants is an humble spirit.* God, you will not turn away a person who comes with an humble, submissive heart.*
18 God, please be good to Zion.* Rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.
19 Then you can enjoy the good sacrifices* and whole burnt offerings. And people will again offer bulls on your altar.

sacrifice(s) A sacrifice was a gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
humble spirit Literally, “a broken spirit.”
a person … heart Literally, “a broken and crushed heart.”
Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
maskil The exact meaning of “maskil” is not clear. It might mean “a poem of meditation,” “a poem of instruction,” or “a skillfully-written poem.”
SELAH This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.

director Or, “performer.”
spare … death penalty Or, “don’t consider me guilty of murder.”
PSALM 52:5–54:5

So God will ruin you forever!
He will grab you
and pull you from your home,*
like a person pulling a plant out of the ground, roots and all!*

Good people will see this and will learn to fear and respect God.
They will laugh at you and say,

“Look what happened to the man who did not depend on God.
That man thought his wealth and lies would protect him.”

But I am like a green olive tree growing in God’s temple.
I will trust God’s true love
forever and ever.

God, I praise you forever for the things you have done.
I will speak your name*
before your followers
because it is so good!

Psalm 53
To the director.* On the mahalath.*
A maskil* of David.

Only a fool* thinks there is no God.
People like that are corrupt, evil,
malicious,
and they don’t do anything good.

There really is a God in heaven
watching over us.
God is looking for wise people who are looking for God!

But everyone has turned away from God.
Every person is bad.

Psalm 54
To the director.* With instruments.
A maskil* of David when the Ziphites went to Saul and told him, “We think David is hiding among our people.”

God, use your power and save me.
Use your great power to set me free.*

God, listen to my prayer.
Listen to the things I say.

Strangers that don’t even worship God have turned against me.
Those powerful men are trying to kill me.

Look, my God will help me.
My Master will support me.

My God will punish the people who turned against me.
God will be true to me,
and he will destroy those people.

No person does anything good.
No, not one person!

God says,
“Surely those evil people know the truth!
But they don’t pray to me.
Evil people are as ready to destroy my people as they are to eat food.”

But those evil people will be scared, like they have never been scared before!
Those evil people are Israel’s enemies.
God has rejected those evil people.
So God’s people will defeat them,
and God will scatter the bones of those evil people.

I wish someone (God) on Mount Zion would bring victory to Israel!
At the time God brings his people back from exile.*
Jacob will rejoice.
Israel will be very happy.

home This means the body. This is a poetic way of saying God will destroy you forever.

God … roots and all Literally, “He will root you up from the land of the living.” This might also mean “He will kill you and your descendants.”

speak your name Or, “I will trust your name.”

director Or, “performer.”

mahalath This is probably a musical word. It might be the name of a tune, or it might mean to dance and shout.

maskil The exact meaning of “maskil” is not known. It might mean “a poem of meditation,” “a poem of instruction,” or “a skillfully-written poem.”

fool Here this means a person who does not follow God and his teachings.

exile Being forced to leave one’s home country.

director Or, “performer.”

God … free Literally, “God, save me with your name, judge me with your might.”

SELAH This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.
Psalm 54:6–55:23

Psalm 54:6–55:23

6 God, I will give freewill offerings to you.
   Lord, I will praise your good name.
7 Why? Because you saved me from all my troubles.
   I saw my enemies defeated.

Psalm 55

To the director.* With instruments.
A maskil* of David.

1 God, hear my prayer.
   Please don’t ignore my prayer for mercy.
2 God, please listen to me and answer me.
   Let me speak to you
   and tell you what upsets me.
3 My enemy said bad things to me.
   That wicked man yelled at me.
   My enemies were angry and attacked me.
   They brought troubles crashing down on top of me.
4 My heart is pounding inside me.
   I am scared to death.
5 I am scared and shaking.
   I am terrified.
6 Oh, I wish I had wings like a dove.
   I would fly away
   and find a place to rest.
7 I would go far, far away into the desert.
   Sela*
8 I would run away.
   I would escape.
   I would run away from this storm of trouble.
9–10 My Master, stop their lies.
   I see the violence and fighting in this city.
   Day and night, in every neighborhood,
   the city is filled with crime and vandalism.
   If it were an enemy insulting me,
   I could bear it.
13 But it is you, my companion,
   my colleague, my friend.
   You are giving me troubles.}
14 We used to share our secrets with one another,
   as we walked through the crowds
   together in God’s temple.*
15 I wish death would take my enemies by surprise!
   I wish the earth would open up and swallow them alive!* Why? Because they plan such terrible things together.
16 I will call to God for help.
   And the Lord will answer me.
17 I speak to God evening, morning,
   and noon.
   I tell him what upsets me,
   and he listens to me!
18 I have fought in many battles.
   But God has always rescued me and brought me back safely.
   God listens to me.
   The Eternal King will help me.
   Sela*
20 My enemies will not change their lives.}
   They don’t fear and respect God.
21 My enemies attack their own friends.
   They don’t do the things they agree to do.
22 My enemies are really smooth talkers;
   they talk about peace,
   but they are really planning wars.
   Their words are as slick as oil,
   but those words cut like a knife.
23 Give your worries to the Lord,
   and he will care for you.
   The Lord will never let good people be defeated.

* director Or, “performer.”
* maskil The exact meaning of “maskil” is not known. It might mean “a poem of meditation,” “a poem of instruction,” or “a skillfully-written poem.”
* Sela This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.
* temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
* I wish death ... alive Literally, “I wish death would surprise them. I wish they would go down into Sheol alive.” This would be like the time Moses’ enemy Korah was punished by God. See Num. 16:31–33.
* The Eternal King ... their lives Or, “The Ancient King, the One who never changes, will humiliate them.”
24 As your part of the agreement, God, send those liars and murderers to their grave before their life is half finished! As my part of the agreement, I will put my trust in you.

Psalm 56
To the director.* To the tune “The Dove in the Distant Oak.” A miktam of David* from the time the Philistines captured him in Gath.

1 God, people have attacked me, so be merciful to me. They have been constantly chasing me and fighting me.

Psalm 57
To the director.* To the tune “Don’t Destroy.” A miktam of David.* At the time he escaped from Saul in the cave.

1 God, be merciful to me. Be kind because my soul trusts you. I have come to you for protection, while the trouble passes.

12 God, I made special promises to you. And I will do what I promised. I will give you my thank offering.

13 Why? Because you saved me from death. You kept me from being defeated. So I will worship God in the light that only living people can see.

14 My life is in danger. My enemies are all around me. They are like man-eating lions, with teeth as sharp as spears and arrows, and tongues as sharp as a sword.

15 God, you are high above the heavens. Your glory covers the earth.

16 My enemies set a trap for me. They are trying to trap me. They dug a deep pit for me to fall into.

17 But God will keep me safe. He will keep me brave. I will sing praises to him.

18 Wake up, my soul! Harps and lyres,* begin your music! Let’s wake the Dawn.

19 My Master, I praise you to everyone. I sing songs of praise about you to every nation.

director Or, “performer.”

A miktam of David The exact meaning of “miktam” is not known. It might mean “a well-arranged song.” This song was either written by David or dedicated to him.

SELAH This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.

lyres An instrument with several strings, like a harp.
668

PSALM 57:10–59:7

10 Your true love is higher than the highest clouds in the sky!
11 God is more exalted than the heavens.
   His glory covers the earth.

Psalm 58

To the director.* To the tune “Don’t Destroy.” A miktam of David.*

1 You judges are not being fair
   in your decisions.
You are not judging people fairly.
2 No, you only think of evil things to do.
   You do violent crimes in this country.
3 Those evil men started doing wrong
   as soon as they were born.
   They have been liars from birth.
4 Their anger is as dangerous
   as snake venom.*
   And, like cobras that can’t hear,
   they refuse to listen to the truth.
5 Cobras can’t hear the music or songs of snake charmers.
   And those evil people are like that as they make their evil plans.*
6 Lord, those people are like lions.
   So Lord, break their teeth.
7 May those people disappear
   like water down a drain.
   May they be crushed like weeds on a path.*
8 May they be like snails melting away
   as they move.
   May they be like a baby
   that was born dead
   and never saw the light of day.
9 May they be destroyed quickly like thorns that burn too fast to heat the pot.

Psalm 59

To the director.* To the tune “Don’t Destroy.” A miktam of David* from the time Saul sent people to watch
David’s house to try to kill him.

1 God, save me from my enemies.
   Help me defeat the people who have come to fight me.
2 Save me from those people who do bad things.
   Save me from those murderers.
3 Look, strong men are waiting for me.
   They are waiting to kill me,
   even though I did not sin
   or commit any crime.
4 I did nothing wrong,
   but they rushed here to attack me.
   Lord, come and see for yourself!
5 You are the Lord God All-Powerful,
   the God of Israel!
   Get up and punish those people.
   Don’t show any mercy to those evil traitors.
6 Those evil men are like dogs that come into town in the evening,growling and roaming through town.
7 Listen to their threats and insults.
   They say such cruel things,
   and they don’t care who hears them.

A good man will be happy
when he sees evil people punished for the bad things they did to him.
He will be like a soldier who defeated all his enemies!*

When that happens, people will say:
“Good people really are rewarded.
There really is a God judging the world!”

SELAH*

The exact meaning of “miktam” is not known. It might mean “a well-arranged song.” This song was either written by David or dedicated to him.

This is a word play in Hebrew.
The word meaning “anger” sounds like the word “poison, venom”.

This is a word play in Hebrew. The Hebrew phrase can mean either “...the snake charmers who create crafty magic formulas” or “...snake charmers. Those evil people, make their sneaky schemes.”

Or, “May He (God) shoot his arrows, cutting them down, as if they were withering grass.”

He will be ... enemies  Literally, “He will wash his feet in the blood of those wicked men.”
There really is ... world  Or, “There really are powerful leaders ruling and judging this land” or possibly, “God really does have good judges ruling this land.”
SELAH  This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.
8 Lord, laugh at them.
   Make fun of all those people.
9 I will sing my songs of praise to you.*
   God, you are my place of safety high in the mountains.
10 God loves me, and he will help me win.
   He will help me defeat my enemies.
11 Don’t just kill them, God,
   or my people might forget.
   My Master and Protector, scatter them and defeat them with your strength.
12 Those evil people curse and tell lies.
   Punish them for the things they said.
   Let their pride trap them.
13 Destroy them in your anger.
   Destroy them completely!
   Then people around the world will know that God rules in Israel!* SELAH* 14 Those evil men come into town in the evening like growling dogs roaming through town.
15 They will look for something to eat, but they will find no food
   and no place to sleep.
16 But in the morning, I will sing songs of praise to you.
   I will rejoice in your love.
   Why? Because you are my place
   of safety, high in the mountains.
   And I can run to you when troubles come.
17 I will sing my songs of praise to you.
   Why? Because you are my place
   of safety high in the mountains.
   You are the God who loves me!

PSALM 60

To the director.* To the tune “Lily of the Agreement.” A miktam of David.* For teaching. This was from the time that David fought Aram Naharaim* and Aram Zobah,* and when Joab came back and defeated 12,000 Edomite soldiers at Salt Valley.

1 God, you were angry at us.
   You rejected us and destroyed us.
   Please make us whole again.
2 You shook the earth and split it open.
   Our world is falling apart.
   Please fix it.
3 You have given your people many troubles.
   We are like drunk people staggering and falling down.
4 You warned the people who worship you.
   Now they can escape the enemy. SELAH*
5 Use your great power and save us!
   Answer my prayer and save the people you love!
6 God spoke in his temple:* It makes me very happy!
   [God said,]*
   [I will share this land with my people,]
   I will give them Shechem.
   I will give them Succoth Valley.
7 Gilead and Manasseh will be mine.
   Ephraim will be my helmet.
   Judah will be my royal scepter.*
8 Moab will be the bowl
   for washing my feet.
   Edom will be the slave who carries my sandals.
   I will defeat the Philistine people
   and shout about the victory!”

I will sing ... to you Or, “My Strength, I am waiting for you.” But see Ps. 59:18.
Then people ... Israel Or, “Then people will know that God rules in Jacob and the whole world!”
SELAH This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.
director Or, “performer.”
A miktam of David The exact meaning of “miktam” is not clear. It might mean “a well-arranged song.” This song was either written by David or dedicated to him.
Aram Naharaim Or, “the Arameans of Mesopotamia.”
Aram Zobah Or, “the Arameans of central Syria.”
in his temple Or, “in his holiness.”
scepter A special stick. Kings and leaders carried scepters to show they were rulers.
PSALM 60:9–62:10

9–10 But God, you left us! You did not go with our army! So who will lead me into the strong, protected city? Who will lead me to fight against Edom? God, help us defeat our enemy! People can’t help us! Only God can make us strong. Only God can defeat our enemies!

Psalm 61

To the director.* With stringed instruments. One of David’s songs.

1 God, hear my prayer song. Listen to my prayer.
2 Wherever I am, however weak, I will call to you for help! Carry me to the place of safety far above.*
3 You are my place of safety! You are the strong tower protecting me from my enemies.
4 I want to live in your Tent* forever. I want to hide where you can protect me.

SELAH

5 God, you heard what I promised to give you. But everything your worshipers have comes from you.
6 Give the king a long life. Let him live forever!
7 Let him live with God forever! Protect him with your true love.
8 And I will praise your name forever. Every day, I will do the things I promised.

Psalm 62

To the director.* To Jeduthun. One of David’s songs.

1 No matter what happens, my soul waits patiently for God, to save me.* My salvation comes only from him.*

SELAH

2 I may have many enemies,* but God is my fortress.* God saves me. God is my place of safety high on the mountain. Not even great armies can defeat me.
3 How long will you attack me? I am like a leaning wall, a fence ready to fall.
4 In spite of my important position, those people are planning to destroy me. It makes them happy to tell lies about me. In public, they say good things about me, but in private, they curse me.

SELAH

5 My soul, wait patiently for God to save me!* God is my only hope.
6 God is my fortress.* God saves me. God is my place of safety high on the mountain.
7 My glory and victory comes from God. He is my strong fortress. God is my place of safety.
8 People, trust God all the time! Tell God about all your problems.* God is our place of safety.

SELAH

9 People can’t really help. You can’t trust them to really help. Compared to God, they are like nothing, like a gentle puff of air!
10 Don’t trust the power to take things by force. Don’t think you will gain anything by stealing. And if you become rich, don’t trust your riches to help you.

director Or, “performer.”
Carry above Or, “From your fortress high above me, lead me.”
Tent The temple in Jerusalem, or the Holy Tent where the people worshiped God before the temple was built.
SELAH This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.
No matter ... from him Or, “My soul finds peace only in God. He is the One who saves me!”
fortress A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.
Tell God ... problems Literally, “Pour out your hearts to him (God).”
Psalm 62:11–64:10

Psalm 62
God says there is one thing you can really depend on (and I believe it): “Strength comes from God!”

Psalm 63
One of David’s songs. From the time he was in the desert of Judah.

1 God, you are my God.
   And I want you so much.
   My soul and my body thirst for you,
   like a dry, weary land with no water.

2 Yes, I have seen you in your temple.
   I have seen your strength and glory.

3 Your love is better than life.
   My lips praise you.

4 Yes, I will praise you in my life.
   In your name, I lift my arms in prayer.

5 I will be satisfied
   as if I had eaten the best foods.
   And with joyful lips
   my mouth will praise you.*

6 I will remember you
   while lying on my bed.
   I will remember you
   in the middle of the night.

7 You really have helped me!
   I am happy that you protected me!

8 My soul clings to you.
   And you hold my hand.

9 Some people are trying to kill me.
   But they will be destroyed.
   They will go down to their graves.

10 They will be killed with swords.
   Wild dogs will eat their dead bodies.

11 But the king will be happy with his God.
   And the people who promised to obey him will praise God.
   Why? Because he defeated all those liars.

Psalm 64
To the director.* One of David’s songs.

1 God, listen to me.
   My enemy threatened me.
   Protect my life from him!

2 Protect me from the secret plans of my enemies.
   Hide me from those wicked people.

3 They have told many bad lies about me.
   Their tongues are like sharp swords,
   their bitter words like arrows.

4 Then suddenly, without fear,*
   they shoot from their hiding places,
   at a simple, honest man.

5 They encourage each other to do wrong.
   They talk about setting their traps.
   They tell each other.
   “No one will see the traps!”

6 They have hidden their traps.
   They are looking for victims.*
   (People can be very tricky.
   It is hard to know
   what people are thinking.)

7 But God can shoot his “arrows” too!
   And before they know it,
   the evil people are wounded.

8 Evil people plan to do bad things
   to other people.
   But God can ruin their plans,
   and make those bad things
   happen to them.
   Then everyone that sees them will shake their heads in amazement.

9 People will see what God has done.
   They will tell other people about him.
   Then everyone will learn more about God.
   They will learn to fear and respect him.

10 A good person is happy to serve the Lord.
    He depends on God.
    And when good honest people
    see what happens,
    they praise the Lord!

*I will be ... praise you Or, “My throat is filled with the richest foods of the feast and with joyful lips my mouth praises you.”

* without fear Or, “without honor” or “without respect.”

* They have hidden ... victims Or, “They look for evil plans saying, ‘We have the perfect plan.’”
Psalm 65

To the director.* One of David’s songs of praise.

1 God on Zion,* we praise you.
   We give you the things we promised.
2 We tell about the things you have done.
   And you hear our prayers.
   You hear the prayers of every person who comes to you.
3 When our sins become too heavy for us,
   you take away those sins.
4 God, you chose your people.
   You chose us to come to your temple and worship you.
   And we are very happy!
   We have all the wonderful things in your temple, your holy palace.
5 God, you save us.
   Good people pray to you,
   and you answer their prayers.
   You do amazing things for them.
   People all around the world trust you.
6 God made the mountains with his power.
   We see his power all around us.
   And God made the “oceans” of people on the earth.
7 God made the rough seas calm.
   And God made the seas dry land.
   His happy people walked across the river.
8 People all around the world are amazed at the wonderful things you do.
   The sunrise and sunset makes us so happy!
9 You take care of the land.
   You water it and make it grow things.
   God, you fill the streams with water and make the crops grow.
10 You pour the rain on the plowed fields.
    You soak the fields with water.
    You make the ground soft with rain,
    and you make the young plants grow.
11 You start the new year with a good harvest.
    You load the wagons with many crops.*
12 The desert and hills are covered with grass.
13 The pastures are covered with sheep.
    The valleys are filled with grain.
    Everyone is singing and shouting with happiness.

Psalm 66

To the director.* A song of praise.

1 Everything on earth,
   shout with joy to God!
2 Praise his glorious name!
   Honor him with songs of praise!
3 Tell God how wonderful his works are!
   God, your power is very great!
   Your enemies bow down.
   They are afraid of you!
4 Let the whole world worship you.
   Let everyone sing praises to your name.
   Sela*
5 Look at the things God did!
   Those things amaze us.
6 God made the sea become dry land.*
   His happy people walked across the river.*
7 God rules the world with his great power.
   God watches people everywhere.
   No person can rebel against him.
   Sela*
8 People, praise our God.
   Sing loud songs of praise to him.
9 God gave us life.
   God protects us.
10 God tested us,
    like people test silver with fire.
11 God, you let us be trapped.
    You put heavy burdens on us.
12 You let our enemies walk on us.
    You dragged us through fire and water.
    But you brought us to a safe place.
13–14 So I will bring sacrifices* to your temple.
    When I was in trouble,
    I asked you for help.
    I made many promises to you.
    Now, I am giving you the things that I promised.

*Sela  This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.

sea become dry land  This was with Moses at the Red Sea. See Ex. 14. walked across the river  This was with Joshua at the Jordan River. See Joshua 3:14–17.
sacrifice(s)  A sacrifice was a gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
I am giving you sin offerings.
I am giving you incense* with the rams.
I am giving you bulls and goats.

SELAH*

All of you people worshipping God, come and I will tell you what God did for me.

SELAH*

I prayed to him.
I praised him.

My heart was pure,
so my Master listened to me.

God listened to me.
God heard my prayer.

Praise God!
God did not turn away from me—
he listened to my prayer.

God showed his love to me!

Psalm 67
To the director.* With instruments.
A song of praise.

1 God, show mercy to us and bless us.
Please accept us!

SELAH*

2 I hope every person on earth learns about you, God.
Let every nation see how you save people.

3 May people praise you, God!
May all people praise you.

4 May all nations rejoice and be happy!
Why? Because you judge people fairly.
And you rule over every nation.

5 May people praise you, God!
May all people praise you.

6 God, our God, bless us.
Let our land give us a great harvest.

7 May God bless us.
And may all the people on earth fear and respect God.

Psalm 68
To the director.* One of David’s
songs of praise.

1 God, get up and scatter your enemies.
May all of his enemies run from him.

2 May your enemies be scattered,
like smoke blown away by the wind.
May your enemies be destroyed,
like wax melting in a fire.

3 But good people are happy.
Good people have a happy time together with God.
Good people enjoy themselves and are very happy!

4 Sing to God.
Sing praises to his name.
Prepare the way for God.
He rides his chariot* over the desert.

His name is YAH.*
Praise his name!

5 In his holy temple,
God is like a father to orphans.*
God takes care of widows.*

6 God gives lonely people a home.
God takes his people out of prison.
They are very happy.
But people who turn against God,
will stay in their hot prison.

7 God, you led your people out {of Egypt}.
You marched across the desert,
and the ground shook.

SELAH*

God, the God of Israel, came to Mount Sinai,
and the sky melted.

9 God, you sent the rain
to make a tired, old land strong again.

10 Your animals came back to that land.
God, you gave many good things to the poor people there.

11 God gave the command and many people going to tell the good news:

12 “The armies of powerful kings ran away!
The women at home will divide the things that the soldiers bring from the battle.

13 The people who stayed at home will share in the wealth.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

SELAH This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.

director Or, “performer.”

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

YAH This is a Hebrew name for God. It is like the Hebrew name usually translated, “Lord.”

 orphan(s) Children whose parents have died.

widow(s) Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.
They will get the dove wings covered with silver.
They will get the wings sparkling with gold."

14 On Mount Zalmon,
    God scattered the enemy kings.
    They were like falling snow.

15 Mount Bashan is a great mountain with many peaks.

16 Mount Bashan, why do you look down on Mount Zion?
God loves that mountain (Zion).
The Lord chose to live there forever.

17 The Lord comes to Holy Mount Zion.
    Behind him are millions of his chariots.*

18 You went up on the high mountain, leading a parade of captives.
You received gifts from men,*
    including the people
    who turned against you.
The Lord* God went up there to live.

19 Praise the Lord!
Every day he helps us
    with the loads we must carry.
God saves us!

20 He is our God.
    He is the God that saves us.
The Lord our God saves us from death.

21 God will show that he defeated his enemies.
God will punish the people who fought against him.*

22 My Master said,
    “I’ll bring the enemy back from Bashan,
    I’ll bring the enemy from the west,
    so you can walk in their blood, so your dogs can lick up their blood.”

23 See God leading the victory parade!
    See my Holy God, my King, leading the victory parade!

25 Singers come marching in front, followed by the musicians,
surrounded by young girls
    playing tambourines.

26 Praise God in the meeting place!*
Praise the Lord, people of Israel!

27 There is little Benjamin, leading them.
And there is the great family of Judah.
And there are the leaders of Zebulun and Naphtali.

28 God, show us your power!
    Show us the power you used for us in the past.

29 Kings will bring their wealth to you,
to your palace in Jerusalem.

30 Use your stick to make those “animals”
do what you want.
Make the “bulls” and “cows” in those nations obey you.
You defeated those nations in war.
    Now make them bring silver to you.

31 Make them bring wealth from Egypt.
God, make the Ethiopians bring their wealth to you.

32 Kings on earth, sing to God!
    Sing songs of praise to our Master!

33 Sing to God!
    He rides his chariot through the ancient skies.
    Listen to his powerful voice!

34 God is more powerful than any of your gods.
    The God of Israel makes his people strong.

35 God is wonderful in his temple.
The God of Israel gives strength and power to his people.
Praise God!

Psalm 69

To the director.*  To the tune “The Lilies.”
One of David’s songs.

1 God, save me from all my troubles!
The water has risen to my mouth.

chariots(s) A small wagon used in war.
received gifts from men Or, “to take men as gifts.” Or, “to give gifts to men,” as in the ancient Syriac and Aramaic versions and Eph. 4:8.
The Lord Or, “YAH,” a Hebrew name for God.
SELAH This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.
God will show ... him Literally, “God will smash the heads of his enemies. He will smash the hairy skull walking in guilt.”
meeting place Or “Praise God with the trumpets that announce the assembly!”
director Or, “performer.”
2 There is nothing to stand on.
I am sinking down, down into the mud.
I am in deep water.
And the waves are crashing around me.
I am about to drown.

3 I am getting weak from calling for help.
My throat is hurting.
I have waited and looked for help from you until my eyes are hurting.

4 I have more enemies than the hairs on my head.
They hate me for no reason.
They try hard to destroy me.
My enemies tell lies about me.
They lied and said I stole things.

5 God, you know I did nothing wrong.
I can’t hide my sins from you.

6 My Master, Lord All-Powerful, don’t let your followers be ashamed of me.
God of Israel, don’t let your worshipers be embarrassed because of me.

7 My face is covered with shame.
I carry this shame for you.

8 My brothers treat me like a stranger.
My mother’s sons treat me like a foreigner.

9 My strong feelings* for your temple are destroying me.
I get the insults from people who make fun of you.

10 I cry and fast,* and they make fun of me for it.

11 I wear rough cloth to show my sadness, and people tell jokes about me.

12 They talk about me in public places.
The beer drinkers make up songs about me.

13 As for me, this is my prayer to you Lord:
I want you to accept me!
God, I want you to answer me with love.
I know I can trust you to save me.

14 Pull me from the mud.
Don’t let me sink down into the mud.
Save me from the people who hate me.
Save me from this deep water.

15 Don’t let the waves drown me.
Don’t let the deep hole swallow me.
Don’t let the grave close its mouth on me.

16 Lord, your love is good.
Answer me with all your love.
With all your kindness, turn to me and help me!

17 Don’t turn away from your servant.
I am in trouble!
Hurry, help me!

18 Come save my soul.
Rescue me from my enemies.

19 You know my shame.
You know my enemies humiliated me.
You saw them do those things to me.

20 The shame has crushed me!
I am about to die from shame.
I waited for sympathy, but none could be found.
I waited for some person to comfort me, but no person came.

21 They gave me poison, not food.
They gave me vinegar, not wine.

22 Their tables are covered with food.
They have such big fellowship meals.
I hope those meals destroy them.

23 I hope they become blind and their backs become weak.

24 Let them feel all of your anger.
Make their homes empty.
Don’t let anyone live there.

25 Punish them, and they will run away.
Then they really will have pains and wounds to talk about.

26 Punish them for the bad things they did.
Don’t show them how good you can be.

27 Erase their names from the Book of Life.
Don’t write their names in the book with the names of the good people.

28 I am sad and hurting.
God, lift me up. Save me!

29 I will praise God’s name in song.
I will praise him with a song of thanks.

---

strong feelings The Hebrew word means any strong feelings like love, hate, anger, zeal, or jealousy.

fast To live without food for a special time of prayer and worship.
PSALM 69:31–71:15

31 This will make God happy! This will be better than killing a bull and offering the whole animal as a sacrifice.*
32 Poor people, you came to worship God. You will be happy to know these things.
33 The Lord listens to poor, helpless people. The Lord still likes people in prison.
34 Praise God, heaven and earth! Sea and everything in it, praise the Lord!
35 The Lord will save Zion.* The Lord will rebuild the cities of Judah. The people who own the land will live there again!
36 The descendants* of his servants will get that land. The people who love his name will live there.

Psalm 70

To the director.* One of David’s songs to help people remember.

1 God, save me! God, hurry and help me!
2 People are trying to kill me. Disappoint them! Humiliate them! People want to do bad things to me. I hope they fall and feel the shame.
3 People made fun of me. I hope they get what they deserve and feel the shame.
4 I hope that the people who worship you will be very, very happy. I hope that the people who want your help will always be able to praise you.
5 I am a poor, helpless man. God, hurry! Come and save me! God, only you can rescue me. Don’t be too late!

Psalm 71

1 Lord, I trust you, so I will never be disappointed.
2 In your goodness, you will save me. You will rescue me. Listen to me. Save me.
3 Be my fortress,* the home I can run to for safety. You are my Rock,* my place of safety. So give the command to save me.
4 My God, save me from wicked people. Save me from cruel, evil people.
5 My Master, you are my hope. I have trusted you since I was a young boy.
6 I depended on you even before I was born. I relied on you even in my mother’s body. I have always prayed to you.
7 You are my source of strength. So I have been an example to other people.
8 I am always singing about the wonderful things you do.
9 Don’t throw me away just because I am old. Don’t leave me as I lose my strength.
10 My enemies have made plans against me. Those people really did meet together, and they made plans to kill me.
11 My enemies said, “Go get him! God left him. And no person will help him.”
12 God, don’t leave me! God, hurry! Come save me!
13 Defeat my enemies! Destroy them completely! They are trying to hurt me. I hope they feel the shame and disgrace.
14 Then I will always trust you. And I will praise you more and more.
15 I will tell people how good you are. I will tell about the times you saved me. That has happened too many times to count.

sacrifice(s) A sacrifice was a gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
descendants A person’s children and their future families.
director Or, “performer.”
fortress A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.
Rock A name for God to show he is a strong place of safety.
I will tell about your greatness,
Lord my Master.
I will talk only about you and
your goodness.

God, you have taught me
since I was a young boy.
And to this day I have told people about the wonderful things you do!

Now I am old and my hair is gray.
But I know that you won't leave me, God.
I will tell each new generation about your power and greatness.

God, your goodness reaches far above the skies.
God, there is no god like you.
You have done wonderful things.

You let me see troubles and bad times.
But you saved me from every one of them
and kept me alive.
No matter how deep I sank,
you lifted me out of my troubles.

Help me do greater things than before.
Continue to comfort me.
And I will play the harp and praise you.
My God, I will sing that you can be trusted.
I will play songs on my lyre*
for the Holy One of Israel.

You saved my soul.
My soul will be happy.
I will sing songs of praise with my lips.
My tongue will sing about your goodness
all the time.
And the people who want to kill me will be defeated and disgraced.

Psalm 72
To Solomon.*

God, help the king make wise decisions like you.
And help the king’s son learn about
your goodness.

Help the king judge your people fairly.
Help him make wise decisions for your poor people.

Let there be peace and justice throughout the land.
Let the king be fair to the poor people.
Let him help the helpless.
Let him punish the people who hurt them.
May people fear and respect the king as long as the sun shines and the moon is in the sky.
May people fear and respect him forever!
Help the king be like rain falling on the fields,
like showers falling on the land.
Let goodness blossom while he is king.
Let peace continue as long as the moon.
Let his kingdom grow from sea to sea,
from the Euphrates River to the faraway places on earth.*
May all the people living in the desert
bow down to him.
May all his enemies bow before him with their faces in the dirt.
May all the kings of Tarshish* and all the faraway lands
bring gifts to him.
May the kings of Sheba and Seba bring their tribute* to him.
May all kings bow down to our king.
May all nations serve him.
Our king helps the helpless.
Our king helps poor, helpless people.
Poor, helpless people depend on him.
The king keeps them alive.
The king saves them from cruel people who try to hurt them.
The lives of those poor people are very important to the king.
Long live the king!
And let him receive gold from Sheba.
Always pray for the king.
Bless him every day.
May the fields grow plenty of grain.
May the hills be covered with crops.
May the fields be as fertile as Lebanon.

faraway places on earth  This usually means the countries around the Mediterranean Sea.
Tarshish  A city far away from Israel, probably in Spain.
Tarshish was famous for its large ships that sailed the Mediterranean Sea.
tribute  The money and gifts a country paid to the country that defeated it.

lyres An instrument with several strings, like a harp.
To Solomon  This might mean this song was written by Solomon or dedicated to him or that it is from some special collection of songs.

677
And may the cities be filled with people like fields covered with grass.

May the king be famous forever. May people remember his name as long as the sun shines. May the people be blessed by him. And may they all bless him.

Praise the Lord God, the God of Israel! Only God can do such amazing things.

Praise his glorious name forever! Let his glory fill the whole world!

Amen and Amen!*

This ends the prayers of David son of Jesse.

BOOK 3

Psalm 73
Asaph’s song of praise.

1 God is truly good to Israel. God is good to people whose hearts are pure.

2 I almost slipped and began to sin.

3 I saw that wicked people were successful. I became jealous of those proud people.

4 Those people are healthy. They don’t have to struggle to survive.*

5 Those proud people don’t suffer like us. They don’t have troubles like other people.

6 So they are very proud and hateful people. This is as easy to see as the jewels and fancy clothes they wear.

7 If those people like something they see, they go and take it. They do whatever they want to do.

8 They say cruel, evil things about other people. They are proud and stubborn. And they are always planning ways to take advantage of other people.

9 Those proud people think they are gods! They think they are the rulers of earth.

10* So even God’s people turn to them and do the things they tell them.

11 Those evil people say, “God doesn’t know what we are doing! God Most-High does not know!”

12 Those proud people are wicked, but they are rich and getting richer.

13 So why should I make my heart pure? Why should I make my hands clean?

14 God, I suffer all day long. And you punish me every morning.

15 God, I wanted to talk to other people about these things. But I knew I would be betraying your people.

16 I tried hard to understand these things. But it was all too hard for me until I went to your temple.*

17 I went to God’s temple, and then I understood.

18 God, you really have put those people in a dangerous situation. It is so easy for them to fall and be destroyed.

19 Trouble can come suddenly, and then those proud people are ruined. Terrible things can happen to them, and then they are finished.

20 Lord, those people will be like a dream that we forget when we wake up. You will make those people disappear like the monsters in our dreams.

21–22 I was very stupid. I thought about rich and wicked people, and I became upset. God, I was upset and angry at you! I acted like a stupid, ignorant animal.

23 [I have everything I need!] I am with you always. God, you hold my hand.

24 God, you lead me and give me good advice. And later you will lead me to glory.*

25 God, I have you in heaven. And when I am with you, what on earth can I want?

*Amen  A Hebrew word meaning “truly,” “indeed.” It shows that a person agrees with what has been said.

They don’t have to struggle to survive  Literally, “They have no bonds to their death.”

Verse 10  This verse is hard to understand in Hebrew.

temple  The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

later ... glory  Or, “You take (lead) me after honor.” 26 Maybe my mind* and body
will be destroyed,
but I have the Rock* I love.
I have God forever!
27 God, people who leave you will be lost.
You will destroy the people who are not faithful to you.
28 As for me, I have come to God.
And that is good for me.
I have made the Lord my Master
my place of safety.
God, I have come to tell about all the things you have done.

Psalm 74
A maskil* of Asaph.
1 God, did you leave us forever?
Are you still angry at your people?
2 Remember the people you bought long ago.
You saved us.
We belong to you.
Remember Mount Zion,*
the place that you lived.
3 God, come walk through these ancient ruins.
Come back to the Holy Place
that the enemy destroyed.
4 The enemy shouted their war cries in the temple.
They put their flags in the temple to show
they won the war.
5 The enemy soldiers were like people cutting weeds with a hoe.
6 God, they used their axes and hatchets, and cut the carved, wooden panels
in your temple.
7 Those soldiers burned your Holy Place.
That temple was built to honor your name.
But they pulled it down to the ground.
8 The enemy decided to crush us completely.
They burned every holy place*
in the country.
9 We could not see any of our own signs.*
There are no more prophets.
No person knows what to do.
10 God, how much longer will the enemy make fun of us?
Will you let them insult your name forever?
11 God, why did you punish us so hard?
You used your great power and destroyed us completely!
12 God, you have been our King for a long time.
You helped us win many battles
in this country.
13 God, you used your great power,
to split open the Red Sea.
You defeated the great sea monsters!
14 You smashed the heads of Leviathan,*
and left his body for the animals to eat.
15 You make the springs and rivers flow.
And you make the rivers become dry.
16 God, you control the day,
and you control the night.
You made the moon and the sun.
17 You set the limits for everything on earth.
And you created summer and winter.
18 God, remember these things.
Remember, the enemy insulted you!
Those foolish people hate your name!
19 Don’t let those wild animals take your dove!
Don’t forget your poor people forever.

mind  Literally, “heart.”
Rock  A name for God to show he is a strong place of safety. maskil  The exact meaning of “maskil” is not known. It might mean “a poem of meditation,” “a poem of instruction,” or “a skillfully-written poem.”
Zion  The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
holy place  Or, “El meeting place.” This means every place where people went to meet with God.
signs  These were probably signal fires that people burned as a way of passing messages from one town to the next. In war, this was a way people showed other towns that the enemy had not yet destroyed their own town.
great sea monsters ... Leviathan  These were creatures from ancient stories. People believed that these creatures kept the world from being a safe, orderly place. When it says that God destroyed these creatures, it means God showed he really controlled every part of the world, even the animals in the deepest ocean.
PSALM 74:20–76:10

20 Remember our Agreement!* There is violence in every dark place in this land.
21 God, your people were treated badly. Don’t let them be hurt anymore. Your poor, helpless people praise you.
22 God, get up and fight! Remember, those fools challenged you!
23 Don’t forget the shouts of your enemies. They insulted you again and again.

Psalm 75

To the director.* To the tune “Don’t Destroy.” One of Asaph’s songs of praise.
1 We praise you, God! We praise you. You* are near and people tell about the amazing things you do.
2 God says, “I choose the time for judgment. I will judge fairly.
3 The earth and everything on it may be shaking and ready to fall, but I make it steady.”
4–5 “Some people are very proud. They think they are powerful and important. But I tell those people, ‘Don’t brag!’ ‘Don’t be so proud!’”
6 There is no power on earth that can make a person important.*
7 God is the judge. And God decides who will be important. God lifts up one person and makes him important, God brings down another person and makes him not important.
8 God is ready to punish evil people. The Lord has a cup in his hand. That cup is filled with poisoned wine. He will pour this wine (punishment), and wicked people will drink it to the last drop.
9 I will always tell people about these things. I will sing praise to the God of Israel.
10 I will take power away from wicked people, and I will give power to good people.

Psalm 76

To the director.* With instruments. One of Asaph’s songs of praise.
1 People in Judah know God. People in Israel respect God’s name.
2 God’s temple is in Salem.* God’s house is on Mount Zion.
3 In that place, God shattered the bows and arrows, shields, swords, and other weapons of war. SELAH*
4 God, you are glorious coming back from the hills where you defeated your enemies.
5 Those soldiers thought they were strong. But now they lie dead in the fields. Their bodies are stripped of all they owned. None of those strong soldiers could defend themselves.
6 The God of Jacob yelled at those soldiers, and that army with chariots and horses fell dead.
7 God, you are awesome! No person can stand against you when you are angry.
8–9 The Lord stood as judge and announced his decision. God saved the humble people of the land. From heaven he gave the decision. The whole earth was silent and afraid.
10 God, people respect you when you punish evil people. You show your anger, and the survivors become stronger.

Agreement  Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

director  Or, “performer.”

You  Literally, “Your name.”

SELAH  This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.

There … important  Literally, “Not from the east or the west and not from the desert mountains.”

Salem  Another name for Jerusalem. This name means, “Peace.”

survivors  People who escaped some disaster. Here this means the Jewish people who survived the destruction of Judah and Israel by its enemy armies.
Psalm 76:11–78:5

Psalm 76
11 People, you made promises to the Lord your God. Now, give him what you promised. People in every place fear and respect God. And they will bring gifts to him.

12 God defeats great leaders. All the kings on earth fear him.

Psalm 77
To the director. To Jeduthun. One of Asaph’s songs.
1 I lift my voice to God and cry for help. I lift my voice to you God, listen to me!
2 My Master, I come to you when I have trouble. I reached out for you all night long. My soul refused to be comforted.
3 I think about God, and I try to tell him how I feel. But I can’t.
4 You would not let me sleep. I tried to say something, but I was too upset.
5 I kept thinking about the past. I kept thinking about things that happened long ago.
6 At night, I try to think about my songs. I talk with myself and try to understand.
7 I wonder, “Has our Master left us forever? Will he ever want us again? Is God’s love gone forever? Will he ever speak to us again? Has God forgotten what mercy is? Has his compassion changed to anger?”

10 Then I thought, “The thing that really bothers me is this: ‘Has God Most-High lost his power?’”

11 I remember what the Lord did. God, I remember the amazing things that you did long ago.

12 I thought about what you have done. I thought about those things.

Psalm 78
One of Asaph’s maskils.
1 My people, listen to my teachings. Listen to the things I say.
2 I will tell you this story. I will tell you this old story.
3 We heard the story, and we know it well. Our fathers told this story.
4 And we will not forget the story. Our people will be telling the story to the last generation.
5 The Lord made an Agreement with Jacob.* God gave the Law to Israel. God gave the commands to our ancestors.*

descendants A person’s children and their future families.
maskils The exact meaning of “maskil” is not clear. It might mean “a poem of meditation,” “a poem of instruction,” or “a skillfully-written poem.”
Jacob Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22–28.
ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
He told our ancestors* to teach the Law to their descendants.*

New children will be born.
They will grow to become adults.
And they will tell the stories to their children.
Then people will know the Law, even to the last generation.

So all those people will trust God.
They will not forget what God did.
They will carefully obey his commands.

If the people teach their God’s commands to their children, then the children will not be like their ancestors.*

Their ancestors turned against God.
They refused to obey him.
Those people were stubborn.
They were not loyal to God’s Spirit.

The men from Ephraim had their weapons, but they ran away from the battle.

They didn’t keep their Agreement with God.
They refused to obey his teachings.

Those men from Ephraim forgot the great things God did.
They forgot the amazing things he showed them.

God showed their fathers his great power at Zoan in Egypt.

God split the Red Sea and led the people across.
The water stood like a solid wall on both sides of them.

Each day God led them with the tall cloud.
And each night God led them with the light from the column of fire.

God split the rock in the desert.
He gave those people water from deep in the ground.

God brought the water streaming from the rock like a river!

But the people continued to sin against God.
They turned against God Most-High even in the desert.

Then those people decided to test God.
They asked God for food, just to satisfy their appetites.

They complained about God and said, “Can God give us food in the desert?”

They hit the rock and a flood of water came out.
Surely he can give us some bread and meat!”

The Lord heard what those people said.
God was very angry at Jacob.*
God was very angry at Israel.

Why? Because the people did not trust him.
They did not believe God could save them.

But then God opened the clouds above, and manna* rained down on them for food.
It was like doors in the sky opened, and grain poured down from a storehouse in the sky.

People ate the food of angels.

God sent plenty of food to satisfy them.

God sent a strong wind from the east, and quail* fell on them like rain.

God made the wind blow from Teman, and the blue sky became dark because there were so many birds.

The birds fell right in the middle of camp, all around those people’s tents.

They had plenty to eat, but they let their appetites make them sin.

But they were not satisfied.
The meat was still in their mouth when God became very angry at those people, and he killed many of them.

God caused many healthy young people to die.

But the people still sinned again!
They didn’t depend on the amazing things that God could do.

ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
descendants  A person’s children and their future families.

Jacob  Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22–28.
manna  The special food God sent to the people of Israel while they wandered through the desert for 40 years.
quail  A kind of bird.
So God ended their worthless lives with some disaster.

Whenever God killed some of them, the others would turn back to him. They would come running back to God.

Those people would remember that God was their Rock,*

That God Most-High saved them.

They said they loved him, but they lied. Those people were not serious.

Their hearts were not really with God. They were not faithful to the Agreement.*

But God was merciful.

He forgave them for their sins. And he did not destroy them.

Many times God controlled his anger. He didn’t let himself become too angry.

God remembered they were only people. People are like a wind that blows, and then it is gone.

Oh, those people caused God so many troubles in the desert! They made him so sad!

Again and again those people tested God’s patience. They really hurt the Holy One of Israel.

Those people forgot about God’s power. They forgot the many times that God saved them from the enemy.

They forgot the miracles in Egypt, the miracles in the fields of Zoan.

God turned the rivers to blood! The Egyptians could not drink the water.

God sent swarms of flies that bit the people of Egypt.

God sent the frogs that ruined the Egyptians’ lives.

God gave their crops to the grasshoppers, and their other plants to the locusts.

God used hail to destroy their vines. And he used scet to destroy their trees.

God killed their animals with hail, and their cattle with lightning.

God showed the Egyptian people his anger. He sent his destroying angels against them.

God found a way to show his anger. He did not let any of those people live. He let them die with a deadly disease.

God killed all the firstborn* sons in Egypt. He killed every firstborn in Ham’s* family.

Then God led Israel like a shepherd. He led his people like sheep into the desert.

He guided his people safely. His people had nothing to be afraid of. He drowned their enemies in the Red Sea.

God led his people to his holy land, to the mountain he took with his power.

God forced the other nations to leave that land. God gave each family its share of the land. God gave each family group of Israel its home to live in.

But they tested God Most-High and made him very sad.

Those people didn’t obey God’s commands.

The people of Israel turned away from God. They turned against him just like their fathers did. They changed directions like a boomerang.*

The people of Israel built high places* and made God angry. They built statues of false gods and made God very jealous.

God heard this and became very angry. And He rejected Israel completely!

God abandoned the Holy Tent at Shiloh.* God lived in that tent among the people.

God let other nations capture his people. Enemies took God’s “beautiful jewel.”

*firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.

Ham The Egyptians were Ham’s descendants. See Gen. 10:6–10.

boomerang A curved stick used in hunting birds. When thrown properly, it will fly straight and low to the ground and then suddenly curve up into the air, sometimes even coming back to the thrower. Literally, “a throwing bow” or “deceptive bow.”

high places Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

Holy Tent at Shiloh See 1 Sam. 4:10–11; Jer. 7:17.
PSALM 78:62–79:13

62 God showed his anger against his people. He let them be killed in war.
63 The young men were burned to death, and the girls they were to marry sang no wedding songs.
64 The priests were killed, but the widows did not cry for them.
65 Finally, our Master got up like a man waking from his sleep, like a soldier after drinking too much wine.
66 God forced his enemy back and defeated them. God defeated his enemies and disgraced them forever.
67 But God rejected Joseph’s family. God did not accept Ephraim’s family.
68 No, God chose Judah’s family group. God chose Zion, the mountain he loves.
69 God built his holy temple high on that mountain. God built his holy temple to last forever, just like the earth.
70 God chose David to be his special servant. David was guarding the sheep pens, but God took him away from that job.
71 David was caring for sheep, but God took him away from that job. God gave David the job of caring for his people, the people of Jacob, the people of Israel, God’s property.
72 And David led them with a pure heart. He led them very wisely.

Psalm 79
One of Asaph’s songs of praise.

1 God, some people from other nations came to fight your people. Those people ruined your holy temple. They left Jerusalem in ruins.
2 The enemy left the bodies of your servants for the wild birds to eat. They left the bodies of your followers for wild animals to eat.
3 God, the enemy killed your people until the blood flowed like water. No person is left to bury the dead bodies.
4 The countries around us insulted us. The people around us laughed at us and made fun of us.
5 God, will you be angry at us forever? Will your strong feelings continue to burn like a fire?
6 God, turn your anger against the nations that don’t know you. Turn your anger against nations that don’t worship your name.
7 Those nations destroyed Jacob. They destroyed Jacob’s country.
8 God, please don’t punish us for the sins of our ancestors. Hurry, show us your mercy! We need you so much!
9 Our God and Savior, help us! Help us! Save us! That will bring glory to your name. Erase our sins for the good of your name.
10 Don’t let other nations say to us, “Where is your God? Can’t he help you?” God, punish those people so we can see it. Punish them for killing your servants.
11 Please listen to the prisoners’ groan! God, use your great power and save the people who were chosen to die.
12 God, punish the people around us seven times for what they did to us. Punish those people for insulting you.
13 We are your people. We are the sheep in your flock. We will praise you forever. God, we will praise you forever and ever.

strong feelings The Hebrew word can mean any strong feeling such as zeal, jealousy, or love.
Jacob Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22–28.
ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
Psalm 80
To the director.* To the tune “Lilies of the Agreement.” One of Asaph’s songs of praise.
1 Shepherd of Israel, please listen to me.
You lead Joseph’s sheep (people).
You sit as king on the Cherub angels.*
Let us see you.
2 Shepherd of Israel, show your greatness to Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh.
Come and save us.
3 God, accept us again.
Accept us. Save us!
4 Lord God All-Powerful, when will you listen to our prayers?
Will you be angry at us forever? *
5 You have given tears as food to your people.
You have given your people bowls filled with their tears.
That was their water to drink.
6 You let us become something for our neighbors to fight about.
Our enemies laugh at us.
7 God All-Powerful, accept us again.
Accept us. Save us.
8 In the past, you treated us like a very important plant.
You brought your “vine” out of Egypt.
You forced other people to leave this land, and you planted your “vine” here.
9 You prepared the ground for the “vine.”
You helped its roots to grow strong.
Soon the “vine” spread throughout the land.
10 It covered the mountains.
Its leaves shaded even the giant cedar trees.
11 Its vines spread to the Mediterranean Sea.
Its shoots spread to the Euphrates River.
12 God, why did you pull down the walls that protect your “vine”?
Now every person who passes by picks its grapes.
13 Wild pigs come and walk on your “vine.”
Wild animals come and eat the leaves.

Psalm 81
To the director,* accompanied by the Gittith.* One of Asaph’s songs.
1 Be happy and sing to God our strength.
Shout with joy to the God of Israel.
2 Begin the music.
Play the tambourines.
Play the pleasant harps and lyres.*
3 Blow the ram’s horn at the time of the new moon,*
Blow the ram’s horn at the time of the full moon,* when our holiday begins.
4 That is a law for the people of Israel.
God gave that command to Jacob.*
5 God made this Agreement with Joseph* when God took him out of Egypt.
In Egypt we heard that language we didn’t understand.

director Or, “performer.”
Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

young plant Literally, “son.”
by the Gittith Or, “on the Gittith.” This might be a type of instrument, or it might be a performer in the temple orchestra, possibly Obed Edom from Gath (the Gittite).
lyres An instrument with several strings, like a harp.
new moon The first day of the Hebrew month. There were special meetings on these days to worship God.
full moon The middle of the Hebrew month. Many of the special meetings and holidays started at the time of a full moon.
Jacob Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22–28.
Joseph Here this means Joseph’s family, the people of Israel.
PSALM 81:6–83:4

6 God says,
“I took the load from your shoulder.
I let you drop the worker’s basket.
You people were in trouble.
You called for help and I set you free.
I was hidden in the storm clouds, and I answered you.
I tested you by the water at Meribah.”*

SELAH*

8 “My people, listen to me, and I will give you my Agreement*
Israel, please listen to me!
Don’t worship any of the false gods that the foreigners worship.

9 I, the Lord, am your God.
I brought you out of Egypt.
Israel, open your mouth, and I will feed you.

11 “But my people did not listen to me.
Israel did not obey me.
So I let them do what they wanted to do.
Israel did anything they wanted to do.

13 If my people would listen to me and live the way I want,
then I would defeat their enemies.
I would punish the people who bring troubles to Israel.

15 The Lord’s enemies would shake with fear.
They would be punished forever.

16 God would give the best wheat to his people.
The Rock* would give honey to his people until they were satisfied.

Psalm 82
One of Asaph’s songs of praise.

1 God stands in the assembly of the gods.*
He is the judge in that meeting of the gods.

Psalm 83
One of Asaph’s songs of praise.

1 God, don’t keep quiet!
Don’t close your ears!
Please say something, God.

2 God, your enemies make plans against you, and they will soon attack.

3 They make secret plans against your people.
Your enemies are discussing plans against the people you love.

4 The enemies are saying, “Come, let us destroy them completely.
Then no person will ever again remember the name ‘Israel.’” orphan(s)

Children whose parents are dead. Often these children have no one to care for them.

They
This might mean the poor people don’t understand what is happening. Or it might mean that the “gods” don’t understand that they are ruining the world by not being fair and by not doing what is right.

* Meribah
See Ex. 17:1–7.

* SELAH
This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.

* Agreement
Literally, “Testimony, Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

* Rock
A name for God to show he is a strong place of safety.

* assembly of the gods
Other nations taught that El (God) and the other gods met together to decide what to do with the people on earth. But many times kings and leaders were also called “gods.” So this psalm may be God’s warning to the leaders of Israel.
5 God, all those people joined together to fight against you and the Agreement*
you made with us.

6–7 Those enemies joined together to fight us:
Edom, the Ishmaelite people,
Moab and Hagar’s descendants,*
Byblos, Ammon, the Amalekite people, the Philistine people, and the people living in Tyre.
All those people joined together to fight us.
Even the Assyrians joined those people.
They made Lot’s descendants*
very powerful.

8 Even the Assyrians joined those people.

SELAH*

9 God, defeat the enemy
like you defeated Midian, like you defeated Sisera and Jabin near the Kishon River.
You defeated them at En-Dor.
And their bodies rotted on the ground.
God, defeat the enemy’s leaders.
Do what you did to Oreb and Zeeb.
Do what you did to Zebah and Zalmunna.

10 God, those people wanted to force us
to leave your land!

11 Make those people like a tumbleweed*
blown by the wind.
Scatter those people like the wind scatters straw.

12 Destroy the enemy
like a fire destroys a forest, like a wild fire that burns the hills.

13 God, teach those people so they may learn that they are really weak.
Then they will want to worship your name!

14 God, scare those people and make them ashamed forever.
Disgrace them and destroy them.

15 Then they will know that you are God.
They will know your name is YAHWEH.
They will know that you, God Most-High,
are the God of the whole world!

Psalm 84

To the director,* accompanied, by the Gittith.* A song of praise
from the Korah family.

1 Lord All-Powerful, your temple* is really lovely.

2 Lord, I can’t wait to enter your temple.
I’m so excited!
Every part of me wants to be with the Living God.

3 Lord All-Powerful, my King, my God, even the birds have found a home
in your temple.
They make their nests near your altar.
And there they have their babies.

4 People living at your temple
are very fortunate.
They are still praising you.

5 People coming to the temple with songs in their heart are very happy!

6 They travel through Baca Valley which God has made like a spring.
Autumn rains form pools of water.*

7 The people travel from town to town,*
on their way to Zion,
where they will meet with God.

8 Lord God All-Powerful, listen to my prayer.
God of Jacob,* listen to me.

SELAH*

Agreement  Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.
descendants  A person’s children and their future families.
SELAH  This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.
tumbleweed  A large weed with short roots. When a strong wind blows, the dry weed is pulled loose and blown away.
PSALM 84:9–86:11

9 God, protect our protector.*
   Be kind to your chosen king.*

10 One day in your temple is better than a thousand days in any other place.
   Standing at the gate of my God’s house is better than living in the house of a wicked man.
11 The Lord is our protector and glorious king.*
   God blesses us with kindness and glory.
   The Lord gives every good thing to people who follow and obey him.
12 Lord All-Powerful, people who trust you are truly happy!

Psalm 85
To the director.* A song of praise
from the Korah family.

1 Lord, be kind to your country.
   Jacob’s people are exiles* in a foreign country.
   Bring the exiles back to their country.
2 Lord, forgive your people!
   Erase their sins!
   SELAH*
3 Lord, stop being angry.
   Don’t be mad.
4 Our God and Savior, stop being angry at us,
   and accept us again.
5 Will you be angry at us forever?
6 Please, make us live again!
   Make your people happy.
7 Lord, save us
   and show us that you love us.
8 I heard what the Lord God said.
   He said there would be peace for his people and loyal followers.
   So they must not go back to their foolish way of living.
9 God will soon save his followers.
   We will soon live with honor on our land.

Psalm 86
David’s prayer.

1 I am a poor, helpless man.
   Lord, please listen to me
   and answer my prayer.
2 Lord, I am your follower,
   please protect me!
   I am your servant.
   You are my God.
   I trust you.
   So save me.
3 My Master, be kind to me.
   I have been praying to you all day.
4 Master, I put my life in your hands.
   Make me happy, I am your servant.
5 Master, you are good and merciful.
   Your people call to you for help.
   You really love those people.
6 Lord, hear my prayer.
   Listen to my prayer for mercy.
7 Lord, I am praying to you in my time of trouble.
   I know you will answer me!
8 There is none like you, God.
   No person can do what you have done.
9 Master, you made every person.
   May they all come worship you.
   May they all honor your name.
10 God, you are great!
   You do amazing things!
   You, and you only, are God!
11 Lord, teach me your ways,
   and I will live and obey your truths.
   Help me make worshiping your name
   the most important thing in my life.

protector  Literally, “shield.” This probably means the king.
This might also be “God, our Shield, look!”
chosen king  Literally, “anointed person.”
protector and glorious king  Literally, “sun and shield.”
director  Or, “performer.”
exiles  People who have been forced to leave their country and live in some other country.
SELAH  This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.

People … to them  Literally, “Loyalty will sprout from the ground. And goodness will look down from the sky.”
Psalm 86:12–88:11

12 God my Master, I praise you with all my whole heart.
   I will honor your name forever!
13 God, you have such great love for me.
   You save me from the place of death.
14 Proud men are attacking me, God.
   A gang of cruel men
   are trying to kill me.
   And those men don’t respect you.
15 Master, you are a kind and merciful God.
   You are patient, loyal, and full of love.
16 God, show that you hear me
   and be kind to me.
   I am your servant.
   Give me strength.
   I am your servant.
   Save me!
17 God, give me a sign to show that you will help me.
   My enemies will see that sign,
   and they will be disappointed.
   That will show that you heard my prayer and that you will help me.

Psalm 87

A song of praise from the Korah family.
1 God built his temple
   on the holy hills
   {of Jerusalem}.
2 The Lord loves Zion’s gates
   more than any other place in Israel.
3 City of God, people say wonderful things about you.
   SELAH*
4 God keeps a list of all of his people.
   Some of them live in Egypt* and Babylon.
   Some of them were born in Philistia, Tyre,
   and even Ethiopia.
5 God knows every person born on Zion.
   God Most-High built that city.
6 God keeps a list about all his people.
   God knows where each person was born.
   SELAH*
7 God’s people go to Jerusalem to celebrate the special holidays.

Psalm 88

A song of praise from the Korah family.
To the director.* About a painful sickness.
A maskil* from Heman the Ezrahite.
1 Lord God, you are my Savior.
   I have been praying to you
day and night.
2 Please pay attention to my prayers.
   Listen to my prayers for mercy.
3 My soul has had enough of this pain!
   I will soon die.
4 People already treat me like a dead man,
   like a man too weak to live.
5 Look for me among the dead people.
   I am like a dead body lying in the grave,
   one of the dead people you forgot,
cut off from you and your care.
6 You put me in that hole in the ground.
   Yes, you put me in that dark place.
7 God, you were angry at me,
   and you punished me.
   SELAH*
8 My friends have left me.
   They all avoid me like a person
   no one wants to touch.
   I am locked in the house
   and I can’t go out.
9 My eyes hurt from {crying about}
   all my suffering.
   Lord, I pray to you constantly!
   I lift my arms in prayer to you.
10 Lord, do you do miracles for dead people?
   Do ghosts rise up and praise you?
   No!
   SELAH*
11 Dead people in their graves can’t talk about your love.
   Dead people in the world of the dead can’t talk about your loyalty.

SELAH This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.
Egypt Literally, “Rahab.” This names means the “Dragon.” It became a popular name for Egypt.
director Or, “performer.”
maskil The exact meaning of “maskil” is not known. It might mean “a poem of meditation,” “a poem of instruction,” or “a skillfully-written poem.”
12 Dead people lying in darkness can’t see the amazing things you do.
Dead people in the World of the Forgotten can’t talk about your goodness.
13 Lord, I am asking you to help me!
Early each morning I pray to you.
14 Lord, why have you abandoned me?
Why do you refuse to listen to me?
15 Since I was young, I was weak and sick.
I have suffered your anger,
I am helpless.
16 Lord, you were angry at me,
and the punishment is killing me.
17 The aches and pains are always with me.
I feel like I am drowning
in my aches and pains.
18 And Lord, you forced all my friends and loved ones to leave me.
Only darkness stayed to be with me.

Psalm 89
A maskil* from Ethan the Ezrahite.
1 I will sing forever about the Lord’s love.
I will sing about his loyalty
forever and ever!
2 Lord, I truly believe your love is forever.
Your loyalty continues like the skies!
3 God said,
“ I made an agreement with my chosen king.
I made a promise to my servant, David:
David, I will make your family continue forever.
I will make your kingdom continue forever and ever.”

SELAH*
5 Lord, you do amazing things.
The heavens praise you for this.
People can depend on you.
The assembly of holy ones
sing about this.
6 No one in heaven is equal to the Lord.
None of the “gods” can compare
to the Lord.

maskil The exact meaning of “maskil” is not known. It might mean “a poem of meditation,” “a poem of instruction,” or “a skillfully-written poem.”

SELAH This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.

Rahab A sea monster. Some ancient stories say the sea monster was an enemy of God.
anoint(ed) To pour olive oil on things or people to show that they were chosen by God for a special work or purpose.
PSALM 89:23–90:2

I finished his enemies.
I defeated the people who hated my chosen king.
I will always love and support my chosen king.
I will always make him strong.
I put my chosen king in charge of the sea.
He will control the rivers.
He will say to me, ‘You are my father.
You are my God, my Rock,* my Savior.’
And I will make him my firstborn* son.
He will be the great king on earth.
My love will protect the chosen king forever.
My agreement with him will never end.
His family will continue forever,
his kingdom as long as the heavens.
If his descendants* quit following my law,
and if they quit obeying my commands,
then I will punish them.
If the chosen king’s descendants* break my laws and ignore my commands, then I will punish them very hard.
But I will never take my love away from those people.
I will always be loyal to them.
I will not break my agreement with David.
I will not change our agreement.
By my holiness, I made a promise to him.
And I would not lie to David!
David’s family will continue forever.
His kingdom will last as long as the sun.
It will continue forever, like the moon.
The skies are the proof of the agreement.
That agreement can be trusted.”

But God, you became angry at your chosen king,* and you left him all alone.
You rejected your agreement.
You threw the king’s crown into the dirt.

You pulled down the walls of the king’s city.
You destroyed all his fortresses.
People passing by steal things from him.
His neighbors laugh at him.
You made all the king’s enemies happy.
You let his enemies win the war.
God, you helped them defend themselves.
You did not help your king win the battle.
You didn’t let him win.
You threw his throne to the ground.
You cut his life short.
You shamed him.

Lord, how long will this continue?
Will you ignore us forever?
Will your anger burn like a fire forever?
Remember how short my life is:
You created us to live a short life,
and then die.
No person will live and never die.
No person will escape the grave.

God, where is the love you showed in the past?
You promised David that you would be loyal to his family.
Master, please remember how people insulted your servant.
Lord, I had to listen to all those insults from your enemies.
Those people insulted your chosen king!
Bless the Lord forever!
Amen and Amen!*
Psalm 90

3 You bring people into this world.
   And you change them into dust again.
4 To you, a thousand years is like yesterday,
   like last night.
5 You sweep us away.
   Our life is like a dream,
   and in the morning,
   we are gone.
   We are like grass.
   In the morning the grass grows,
   and in the evening it is dry and dying.
6 God, your anger could destroys us.
   Your anger scares us!
7 You know about all our sins.
   You see every one of our secret sins.
8 Your anger can end our life.
   Our lives fade away like a whisper.
9 We live maybe 70 years.
   And if we are strong, maybe 80 years.
   Our lives are filled with hard work and pain.
   Then suddenly, our lives are finished!
   And we fly away.
10 No person really knows the full power of your anger, God.
    But God, our fear and respect for you is as great as your anger.
11 Teach us how short our lives really are,
    so we can become really wise.
12 Lord, always come back to us.
    Be kind to your servants.
13 Fill us with your love every morning.
    Let us be happy and enjoy our lives.
14 You gave us much sadness and troubles in our lives.
    Now make us happy.
15 Let your servants see the wonderful things you can do for them.
    And let their children see your glory.
16 May our God and Master be kind to us.
    May everything we do provide for us,
    and may God provide everything we do.

May our God ...  do Or, “May the things we make with our hands establish us, and may He establish the things we make with our hands.”

Psalm 91

1 You can go to God Most-High to hide.
   You can go to the God All-Powerful
   for protection.
2 I say to the Lord,
   “You are my place of safety, my fortress.
   My God, I trust you.”
3 God will save you from hidden dangers and dangerous diseases.
4 You can go to God for protection.
   He will protect you like a bird spreading its wings over its babies.
   God will be like a shield and a wall
   protecting you.
5 You will have nothing to fear at night.
   And you won’t be afraid of enemy arrows during the day.
6 You will not be afraid of diseases that come in the dark,
   or terrible sicknesses that come at noon.
7 You will defeat 1,000 enemies.
   Your own right hand will defeat
   10,000 enemy soldiers.
   Your enemies will not even touch you!
8 Just look, and you will see that those wicked people are punished!
9 Why? Because you trust the Lord.
   You made God Most-High your
   place of safety.
10 Nothing bad will happen to you.
   There will be no diseases in your home.
11 God will command his angels for you,
    and they will protect you wherever you go.
12 Their hands will catch you,
    so that you will not hit your foot
    on a rock.
13 You will have power to walk on lions and poisonous snakes.
14 The Lord says,
   “If a person trusts me, I will save him.
   I will protect my followers who worship my name.
15 My followers will call to me for help,
    and I will answer them.
   I will be with them when they have trouble.
   I will rescue them and honor them.
16 I will give my followers a long life.
    And I will save them.
PSALM 92:1–94:7

Psalm 92

A song of praise for the Sabbath.*

1 It is good to praise the Lord.
   God Most-High, it is good to praise your name.

2 It is good to sing
   about your love in the morning, and about your faithfulness at night.

3 God, it is good to play music for you on ten-stringed instruments,
   harps, and lyres.*

4 Lord, you make us truly happy with the things you did.
   We gladly sing about those things.

5 Lord, you did such great things.
   Your thoughts are too hard for us to understand.

6 Compared to you,
   people are like stupid animals.
   We are like fools
   who can’t understand anything.

7 Wicked people live and die like weeds.
   And the worthless things they do will be destroyed forever.

8 But Lord, you will be honored forever.

9 Lord, all your enemies will be destroyed.
   All those people who do bad things
   will be destroyed.

10 But you will make me strong.
   I will be like a ram with strong horns.
   You chose me for my special work;
   you poured your refreshing oil over me.

11 I see my enemies around me.
   They are like huge bulls ready to attack me.
   I hear what they are saying about me.

12–13 Good people are like cedar trees
   of Lebanon
   planted in the Lord’s temple.
   Good people are like budding palm trees blossoming in the courtyard of the temple of our God.

14 Even when they are old,
   they will continue producing fruit like young, healthy trees.

Psalm 93

1 The Lord is King.
   He wears majesty and strength like clothes.
   He is ready,
   so the whole world is safe.
   It will not be shaken (destroyed).

2 God, your kingdom has continued forever.
   God, you have lived forever!

3 Lord, the sound of the rivers is very loud.
   The crashing waves are very loud.

4 The crashing waves of the sea are loud and powerful.
   But the Lord above is even more powerful.

5 Lord, your laws will continue forever.*
   Your holy temple will stand for a long time.

Psalm 94

1 Lord, you are a God that punishes people.
   You are a God who comes and brings punishment to people.

2 You are the judge of the whole earth.
   Give proud people the punishment
   they deserve.

3 Lord, how long will wicked people have their fun?
   How much longer, Lord?

4 How much longer will those criminals brag about the bad things they did?

5 Lord, they hurt your people.
   They made your people suffer.

6 Those bad people kill widows and foreigners living in our country.
   They murder children that have no parents.

7 And they say the Lord does not see them doing those bad things!
   They say the God of Israel doesn’t know what is happening.

Sabbath Saturday, a special day of rest and worship for Jews.
lyres An instrument with several strings, like a harp.
good This is a word play. The Hebrew word means “straight” (like the trees) and “good, honest.”
Rock A name for God to show he is a strong place of safety.
he … wrong Or, “There is no crookedness in him.”
your laws will continue forever Or, “Your Agreement can really be trusted.”
PSALM 94:8–96:1

8 You bad people are foolish.
When will you learn your lesson?
You evil people are so stupid!
You must try to understand.

9 God made our ears,
so surely he has ears too,
and can hear what is happening!
God made our eyes,
so surely he has eyes too,
and can see what is happening!

10 God will discipline those people.
God will teach people what they should do.
11 God knows what people are thinking.
God knows people are like a puff of wind.
12 The man that the Lord disciplines will be very happy.
God will teach that person
the right way of living.
13 God, you will help that person stay calm
when trouble comes.
You will help him stay calm until the evil people are put in their grave.
14 The Lord will not leave his people.
He will not leave them without help.
15 Justice will return,
and it will bring fairness.
And then there will be good, honest people.

16 No person helped me fight against the evil people.
No person stood with me to fight against the people who do bad things.
17 And if the Lord had not helped me,
I would have been silenced by death.
18 I know I was ready to fall,
but the Lord supported his follower.
19 I was very worried and upset.
But Lord, you comforted me and made me happy!

20 God, you don’t help crooked judges.
Those bad judges use the law to make life hard for the people.
21 Those judges attack good people.
They say that innocent people are guilty and kill them.
22 But the Lord is my place of safety high on the mountain.
God my Rock,* is my safe place!

23 God will punish those evil judges
for the bad things they did.
God will destroy them
because they sinned.
The Lord our God will destroy those evil judges.

Psalm 95

1 Come, let us praise the Lord!
Let’s shout praises to the Rock,* who saves us.
2 Let’s sing songs of thanks to the Lord.
Let’s sing happy songs of praise to him.
3 Why? Because the Lord is a great God!
He is the Great King ruling over all the other “gods.”
4 The deepest caves and the highest mountains belong to the Lord.
5 The ocean is his—he created it.
God made the dry land
with his own hands.
6 Come, let’s bow down and worship him!
Let’s praise the God who made us!
7 He is our God, and we are his people.
We are his sheep today—
if we listen to his voice.
8 God says,
“Don’t be stubborn,
like you were at Meribah,*
like you were at Massah* in the desert.
9 Your ancestors* tested me.
They tested me,
but then they saw what I could do!
10 I was patient with those people for 40 years.
And I know that they are not faithful.
Those people refused to follow
my teachings.
11 So I was angry, and I swore (promised) they would not enter my land of rest.

Psalm 96

1 Sing a new song about the new things that the Lord has done!
Let the whole world sing to the Lord.

Meribah, Massah  See Ex. 17:1–7.
ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents,
grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Rock  A name for God to show he is a strong place of safety.
2 Sing to the Lord!
   Bless his name!
   Tell the good news!
   Tell about him saving us every day!
3 Tell people that God is truly wonderful.
   Tell people everywhere about the amazing things God does.
4 The Lord is great and worthy of praise.
   He is more awesome than any of the “gods.”
5 All of the “gods” in other nations are only statues.
   But the Lord made the heavens.
6 There is a beautiful glory shining in front of him.
   There is strength and beauty in God’s holy temple.
7 Families and nations, sing songs of praise and glory to the Lord.
8 Praise the Lord’s name.
   Get your offerings, and go to the temple.
9 Worship the Lord in his beautiful temple.
   Worship the Lord, every person on earth.
10 Announce to the nations that the Lord is King!
    So the world will not be destroyed.
    The Lord will rule the people fairly.
11 Be happy, heavens!
    Rejoice, earth!
    Sea and everything in it, shout with joy!
12 Fields and everything growing on them, be happy!
    Trees in the forest, sing and be happy!
13 Be happy because the Lord is coming.
    The Lord is coming to rule* the world.
    He will rule the world with justice and fairness.

Psalm 97
1 The Lord rules, and the earth is happy.
   All the faraway lands are happy.
2 Thick dark clouds surround the Lord.
   Goodness and justice make his kingdom strong.
3 A fire goes in front of the Lord and destroys his enemies.
4 His lightning flashes in the sky.
   The people see it and are afraid.
5 The mountains melt like wax before the Lord, the Master of the earth.
6 Skies, tell about his goodness!
   Let every person see God’s glory!
7 People worship their idols.
   They brag about their “gods.”
   But those people will be embarrassed.
   Their “gods” will bow down and worship the Lord.
8 Zion,* listen and be happy!
   Cities of Judah, be happy!
   Why? Because the Lord makes wise decisions.
9 Lord Most-High, you really are the ruler of the earth.
   You are much better than the “gods.”
10 People who love the Lord hate evil.
    So God saves his followers.
    God saves his followers from evil people.
11 Light and happiness shine on good people.
12 Good people, be happy in the Lord!
    Honor his holy name!

Psalm 98
A song of praise.
1 Sing a new song to the Lord because he has done new and amazing things!
   His holy right arm brought him victory again.
2 The Lord showed the nations his power to save.
   The Lord showed them his goodness.
3 His followers remembered God’s loyalty to the people of Israel.
   The people in faraway lands saw our God’s power to save.
4 Every person on earth, shout with joy to the Lord.
   Quickly, start singing songs of praise!
5 Harps, praise the Lord.
   Music from the harps, praise him.
6 Blow the pipes and horns, and shout for joy to the Lord our King!

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
Psalm 98:8–101:8

7 Let the sea, and the earth, and everything in them sing loudly.
8 Rivers, clap your hands! All together now, mountains sing out!
9 Sing before the Lord because he is coming to rule* the world. He will rule the world fairly. He will rule the people with goodness.

Psalm 99
1 The Lord is King. So let the nations shake with fear. God sits as King above the Cherub angels.* So let the world shake with fear.
2 The Lord in Zion* is great! He is the great leader over all people.
3 Let all the people praise your name. God’s name is awesome. God is holy.
4 The Powerful King loves justice. God, you made goodness. You brought goodness and fairness to Jacob (Israel).
5 Praise the Lord our God, and worship his holy footstool.* Moses and Aaron were some of his priests. And Samuel was one of the men who called on his name. They prayed to the Lord, and he answered them.
6 God spoke from the tall cloud. They obeyed his commands. And God gave them the Law.
7 Lord our God, you answered their prayers. You showed them that you are a forgiving God and that you punish people for the bad things they do.
8 Praise the Lord our God. Bow down toward his holy mountain and worship him. The Lord our God is truly holy!

Psalm 100
A song of thanks.
1 Earth, sing to the Lord!
2 Be happy as you serve the Lord! Come before the Lord with happy songs!
3 Know that the Lord is God. He made us. We are his people, We are his sheep.
4 Come into his city with songs of thanks. Come into his temple with songs of praise. Honor him and bless his name.
5 The Lord is good! His love is forever. We can trust him forever and ever!

Psalm 101
A song of David.*
1 I will sing about love and fairness. Lord, I will sing to you.
2 I will carefully live a pure life. I will live a pure life in my house. Lord, when will you come to me?
3 I will not have any idols* in front of me. I hate people turning against you like that. I will not do that!
4 I will be honest. I will not do evil things.
5 If any person secretly says bad things about his neighbor, I will stop that person. I will not allow people to be proud and think they are better than other people.
6 I will look throughout the country for people who can be trusted. And I will let only those people serve me. Only people who live pure lives can be my servants.
7 I will not let liars live in my house. I will not let liars stay near me.
8 I will always destroy bad people living in this country. I will force the evil people to leave the Lord’s city.

rule Or, “judge.”
Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.
Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
footstool This probably means the temple.

A song of David Or, “A song dedicated to David.”
idols Or “terrible things.”
Psalm 102
A prayer of a person who is suffering.
This is for when he feels weak and wants to tell his complaints to the Lord.

1 Lord, hear my prayer.
Listen to my cry for help.
2 Lord, don’t turn away from me
when I have troubles.
Listen to me.
When I cry for help,
quickly answer me.
3 My life is passing away like smoke.
My life is like a fire slowly burning out.
4 My strength is gone—
I am like dry, dying grass.
I even forget to eat my food.
5 Because of my sadness, I am losing weight.*
6 I am lonely
like an owl living in the desert.
I am alone like an owl living in old ruined buildings.
7 I can’t sleep.
I am like a lonely bird on a roof.
8 My enemies always insult me.
They make fun of me and curse me.
9 My great sadness is my only food.
My tears fall into my drinks.
10 Why? Because you are angry at me, Lord.
You lifted me up
and then you threw me away.
11 My life is almost finished,
like the long shadows
at the end of the day.
I am like dry and dying grass.
12 But Lord, you will live forever!
Your name will continue
forever and ever!
13 You will rise and comfort Zion.*
The time is coming
when you will be kind to Zion.
14 Your servants love her (Zion’s) stones.
They love even the dust of that city!
15 People will worship the Lord’s name.
God, all the kings on earth will honor you.

I am losing weight Literally, “my bones stick to my skin.”

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

Psalm 103
A song of David.*

1 My soul, praise the Lord!
Every part of me, praise his holy name!
2 My soul, praise the Lord!
And don’t forget that he is truly kind.

*A song of David Or, “A song dedicated to David.”
PSALM 103:3–104:8

God forgives us for all the sins we do.
He heals all our sicknesses.

God saves our life from the grave.
And he gives us love and compassion.

God gives us plenty of good things.
He makes us young again, like an eagle.

The Lord is fair.
God brings justice to people that have been hurt by other people.

God taught his laws to Moses.
God let Israel see the powerful things he can do!

The Lord is compassionate and merciful.
God is patient and full of love.

The Lord does not always criticize.
The Lord does not stay angry at us forever.

We sinned against God but he didn’t give us
the punishment we deserved.

God’s love for his followers is as high above us
as heaven is above the earth.

And God has taken our sins
as far away from us
as the east is from the west.

The Lord is as kind to his followers as a father is to his children.

God knows all about us.
God knows we are made from dust.

God knows our lives are short.
He knows our lives are like grass.

That flower grows quickly.
Then the hot wind blows
and the flower dies.
Soon, you can’t even tell where the flower was growing.

But the Lord has always loved his followers.
And he will continue to love his followers
forever and ever!

God will be good to their children and to their children’s children.

God is good to people who obey his Agreement.

God is good to people who obey his commands.

God’s throne is in heaven.
And he rules over everything.

Angels, praise the Lord!
You angels are the powerful soldiers who obey God’s commands.

You listen to God and obey his commands.

Praise the Lord, all his armies.*
You are his servants.
You do the things that God wants.

The Lord made everything in every place.
God rules everything in every place.
And all those things should praise the Lord!

My soul, praise the Lord!

Psalm 104

My soul, praise the Lord!
Lord my God, you are very great!
You are clothed with glory and honor.

You wear light like a person wears a robe.
You spread the skies like a curtain.

God, you built your home above them.*
You use the thick clouds like a chariot, and ride across the sky
on the wings of the wind.

God, you made your angels like the wind,*
and your servants* like fire.

God, you built the earth on its foundations,
so it will never be destroyed.

You covered it with water like a blanket.
The water covered the mountains.

But you gave the command,
and the water rushed away.
God, you shouted at the water,
and the water rushed away.

The water flowed down from the mountains, into the valleys, and then to the places you made for it.

armies This word can mean, “armies,” “angels,” or the “stars and planets.” This word is part of the name translated, “Lord All-Powerful.” It shows God is in control of all the powers in the universe.

above them Literally, “on the water above.” This is like the picture of the world in Genesis 1. There, the sky was like a bowl turned upside down on the earth. There was water below the bowl and water above it.

God, you made your angels like the wind Or “You made your messengers spirits.”

angels ... servants This probably is talking about the two kinds of angels, the Cherub angels and the Seraph angels. The name Seraph is like a Hebrew word meaning, “fire.”
9 You set the limits for the seas.
   And the water will never again rise to cover the earth.

10 God, you cause water to flow from the springs into the streams.
   It flows down through the mountain streams.

11 The streams water all the wild animals.
   Even the wild donkeys come there to drink.

12 Wild birds come to live by the pools,
   They sing in the branches of nearby trees.

13 God sends rain down onto the mountains.
   The things God made give the earth everything it needs.

14 God makes the grass grow to feed the animals.
   He gives us the plants that we work to grow.
   Those plants give us food from the earth.

15 God gives us the wine that makes us happy, the oil that makes our skin soft,* and the food that makes us strong.

16 The great cedar trees of Lebanon belong to the Lord.
   The Lord planted those trees, and he gives them the water they need.

17 Birds make their nests in those trees.
   Large storks live in the fir trees.

18 The high mountains are a home for wild goats.
   The large rocks are hiding places for rock-badgers.

19 God, you gave us the moon to show us when the holidays begin.
   And the sun always knows when to set.

20 You made darkness to be the night—
   the time when wild animals come out and roam around.

21 Lions roar as they attack, as if they are asking God for the food he gives them.

22 Then the sun rises, and the animals go back to their homes and rest.

23 Then people go out to do their work.
   And they work until evening.

24 Lord, you have done many wonderful things.
   The earth is full of the things you made.
   We see your wisdom in everything you do.

25 Look at the ocean. It is so big!
   And so many things live there!
   There are creatures large and small—too many to count!

26 Ships travel over the ocean while Leviathan,* the sea creature you made, plays there in the sea.

27 God, all of these things depend on you.
   You give them food at the right time.

28 God, you give all the living things the food they eat.
   You open your hands, filled with good food, and they eat until they are full.

29 And when you turn away from them, they become frightened.
   Their spirits leave them;
   they grow weak and die;
   and their bodies become dust again.

30 But when you send out your Spirit, Lord, they become healthy!
   And you make the land like new again!

31 May the Lord’s glory continue forever!
   May the Lord enjoy the things he made.

32 The Lord can just look at the earth, and it will shake.
   He can touch the mountains and smoke will begin to rise from them.

33 All my life I will sing to the Lord.
   I will sing praises to the Lord as long as I live.

34 I hope these words I said will make him happy.
   I am happy with the Lord.

makes our skin soft Literally, “makes our face shine.” This can also mean, “make us happy.”

Leviathan This might mean any large sea animal, like a whale. But it probably means “the sea monster,” the “dragon,” “Rahab.” This creature represents the great power of the ocean, the power that God controls.
35 May sin disappear from the earth.
    May wicked people be gone forever.

    My soul, praise the Lord!
    Praise the Lord!

Psalm 105
1 Thank the Lord.
   Worship his name.
   Tell the nations about the wonderful things he does.
2 Sing to the Lord.
   Sing praises to him.
   Tell about all the amazing things he does.
3 Be proud of the Lord’s holy name.
   You people came looking for the Lord.
   Be happy!
4 Go to the Lord for strength.
   Always go to him for help.
5 Remember the amazing things he does.
   Remember his miracles and wise decisions.
6 You are descendants* of his servant
   Abraham.
   You are descendants of Jacob,
   the man God chose.
7 The Lord is our God.
   The Lord rules the whole world.*
8 Remember God’s Agreement* forever.
   Remember his commands for 1,000 generations!
9 God made an Agreement with Abraham.
   God made a promise to Isaac.
10 Then he made it a law for Jacob.
   God made his Agreement with Israel.
   It will continue forever!
11 God said,
   “I will give you the land of Canaan.
   That land will belong to you.”
12 God made that promise
   when Abraham’s family was small.
   They were only strangers spending time there.
13 They traveled from nation to nation,
   from one kingdom to another.
14 But God did not let people mistreat them.
   God warned kings not to hurt them.
15 God said,
   “Don’t hurt my chosen people.
   Don’t do anything bad to my prophets.*”
16 God caused a famine* in that country.
   People did not have enough food to eat.
17 But God sent a man named Joseph to go ahead of them.
   Joseph was sold like a slave.
18 They tied a rope around Joseph’s feet.
   They put an iron ring around his neck.
19 Joseph was a slave until the things he said really happened.
   The Lord’s message proved that Joseph was right.
20 So the king of Egypt set him free.
   That nation’s leader let him out of jail.
21 He put Joseph in charge of his house.
   Joseph took care of everything
   he owned.
22 Joseph gave instructions to the other leaders.
   Joseph taught the older men.
23 Then Israel came to Egypt.
   Jacob lived in Ham’s country.*
24 Jacob’s family became very large.
   They became more powerful than their enemies.
25 So the Egyptians began to hate
   Jacob’s family.
   They made plans against their slaves.
26 So God sent his servant, Moses, and Aaron, God’s chosen priest.
27 God used Moses and Aaron to do many miracles in Ham’s country.
28 God sent the very dark darkness,
   but the Egyptians did not listen to him.
29 So God changed the water into blood, and all their fish died.

descendants  A person’s children and their future families.
The Lord rules the whole world  Literally, “His commands are in the whole earth.”
Agreement  Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.
prophets  A person called by God to be a special servant. God used dreams and visions to show them things to teach the people.
famine  A time when there is not enough rain for crops to grow.
   People and animals die without enough food or water.
Ham’s country  Or, “Egypt.” The Bible teaches that the Egyptians were descendants of Ham. See Gen. 10:6–20.
Their country was filled with frogs.
Frogs were even in the king’s bedroom.

God gave the command,
and the flies and gnats came.
They were everywhere!

God made the rain become hail.
Lightning struck throughout their country.

God destroyed their vines and fig trees.
God destroyed every tree in their country.

God gave the command,
and the locusts and grasshoppers came.
There were too many to count!

The locusts and grasshoppers ate all the plants in the country.
They ate all the crops in the fields.

And then God killed every firstborn* in their country.
God killed their oldest sons.

Then God took his people out of Egypt.
They brought gold and silver with them.
None of God’s people stumbled and fell.

Egypt was happy to see God’s people go, because they were afraid of God’s people.

God spread out his cloud like a blanket.
God used his column of fire to give his people light at night.

The people asked for food, and God brought them quail.
God gave them plenty of bread from heaven.

God split the rock, and water came bubbling out.
A river began flowing in the desert!

God remembered his holy promise.
God remembered the promise he had made to his servant Abraham.

God brought his people out from Egypt.
The people came out rejoicing and singing their happy songs!

Then God gave his people the country where other people were living.
God’s people got the things other people had worked for.

Why did God do this?
So his people could obey his laws.
So they could carefully obey his teachings.
Praise the Lord!

Psalms 106

Praise the Lord!
Thank the Lord because he is good!
God’s love is forever!

No person can describe how great the Lord really is.
No person can praise God enough.

People who obey God’s commands are happy.
Those people do good things all the time.

Lord, remember me when you are kind to your people.
Remember to save me, too!

Lord, let me share in the good things you do for your chosen people.
Let me rejoice with your nation.
Let me join with your people in praise.

We sinned just like our ancestors* sinned.
We were wrong, we did bad things!

Lord, our ancestors learned nothing from the miracles you did in Egypt.
Our ancestors forgot your kindness at the Red Sea, and they turned against you.

But God saved our ancestors* for his own name’s sake.
God saved them to show his great power.

God gave the command, and the Red Sea became dry.
God led our ancestors through the deep sea, on land as dry as the desert.

God saved our ancestors from their enemies!
God rescued them from their enemies.

God covered their enemies with the sea.
Not one of their enemies escaped!

Then our ancestors* believed God.
They sang praises to him.

firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
But our ancestors quickly forgot about the things God did. They did not listen to God’s advice. Our ancestors became hungry in the desert. And they tested God in the wilderness. But God gave our ancestors the things they asked for. But God also gave them a terrible disease. The people became jealous of Moses. They became jealous of Aaron, the Lord’s holy priest. So God punished those jealous people. The ground opened up and swallowed Dathan. Then the ground closed up and covered Abiram’s group. Then a fire burned that mob of people. That fire burned those wicked people. Those people made a golden calf at Mount Horeb. They worshiped a statue! Those people traded their glorious God, for a statue of a grass-eating bull! God saved our ancestors. But they forgot all about him. They forgot about the God who did the miracles in Egypt. God did amazing things in Ham’s country. God did awesome things near the Red Sea! God wanted to destroy those people. But Moses, the man he chose, stopped him. God was very angry, but Moses blocked the way, so God did not destroy the people. But then those people refused to go into the wonderful land of Canaan. They did not believe God would help them defeat the people living in that land. Our ancestors* complained in their tents and refused to obey God! So God swore that they would die in the desert. God promised that he would let other people defeat their descendants.* God promised he would scatter our ancestors among the nations. Then at Baal Peor, God’s people joined in worshiping Baal. God’s people joined in the wild parties and ate sacrifices to honor dead people.* God became very angry at his people, and God made them become very sick. But Phinehas prayed* to God, and God stopped the sickness. God knew Phinehas did a very good thing. God will remember this forever and ever. At Meribah, the people became angry. And they made Moses do something bad. Those people made Moses very upset, so Moses spoke without stopping to think. The Lord told the people to destroy the other nations living in Canaan. But the people of Israel did not obey God. They mixed with the other people, and did what those people were doing. Those people became a trap to God’s people. God’s people began worshiping the gods those other people worshiped. God’s people even killed their own children and offered the children to those devils. God’s people killed their own children and offered them to those false gods. So the land was polluted with the sin of murder. So God’s people became dirty with the sins of those other people. God’s people were unfaithful to their God and did the things those other people did.

ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Ham’s country  Or “Egypt.” The Bible teaches that the Egyptians were descendants of Ham. See Gen. 10:6–20.

Verse 23  Or, “God said he would destroy them. But Moses, his chosen one, stood in the breach and repelled his anger from destroying.” This shows Moses was like a soldier who stood at a hole in a city wall defending the city (Israel) against enemy soldiers (God’s anger).

descendants  A person’s children and their future families.

dead people  Or, “dead statues” or “lifeless gods.” People often met together to eat meals at graves as a way to honor false gods and dead people.

prayed  Or, “intervened, judged.” Phinehas not only prayed to God, but he also did something to stop the people from doing these sins. See Num. 25:1–16.
God became angry at his people. God was fed up with them!

God gave his people to other nations. God let their enemies rule over them.

The enemies of God’s people controlled them and made life hard for them.

God saved his people many times. But they turned against God and did what they wanted to do. God’s people did many, many bad things.

But whenever God’s people were in trouble, they always called to God for help. And God listened to their prayers every time.

God always remembered his Agreement* and comforted them with his great love.

Other nations took them as prisoners. But God made them be kind to his people.

The Lord our God saved us! God brought us back from those nations so we could praise his holy name, so we could sing praises to him.

Bless the Lord God of Israel. God has always lived, and he will live forever. And all the people said, “Amen!* Praise the Lord!”

BOOK 5

Psalm 107

Praise the Lord for he is good! His love is forever! That is what every person that the Lord has saved should say. The Lord saved them from their enemy.

The Lord gathered his people together from many different countries. He brought them from east and west, north and south.*

Some of them wandered in the dry desert. They were looking for a place to live, but they could not find a city.

They were hungry and thirsty and growing weak.

Then they called to the Lord for help. And he saved them from their troubles.

God led those people straight to the city where they would live.

Thank the Lord for his love, and for the amazing things he does for people.

God satisfies the thirsty soul. God fills the hungry soul with good things.

Some of God’s people were prisoners, locked behind bars in dark, dark prisons.

Why? Because those people fought against the things God said. They refused to listen to the advice from God Most-High.

God made life hard for those people because of the things they did. They stumbled and fell, and there was no person to help them.

Those people were in trouble, so they called to the Lord for help. And he saved them from their troubles.

God took them out of their dark prisons. God broke the ropes they were tied with.

Thank the Lord for his love. And for the amazing things he does for people.

God helps us defeat our enemies. God can break down their bronze gates. God can shatter the iron bars on their gates.

Some people let their sins and guilt change them into foolish people. Those people refused to eat, and they almost died.

They were in trouble, so they called to the Lord for help. And he saved them from their troubles.

God gave the command and healed them. So those people were saved from the grave.

Agreement  Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

Amen  A Hebrew word meaning “truly,” “indeed.” It shows that a person agrees with what has been said.

south  Or, “the Sea.” This is west of Israel and would refer to all the coastal areas around the Mediterranean Sea.
PSALM 107:21–108:6

21 Thank the Lord for his love and for the amazing things he does for people.

22 Offer sacrifices* to the Lord to thank him for all he did. Gladly tell what the Lord has done.

23 Some people sailed in boats across the sea. Their job carried them across the great sea.

24 Those people saw what the Lord can do. They saw the amazing things he did at sea.

25 God gave the command, and a strong wind began to blow. The waves became higher and higher.

26 The waves lifted them high in the sky and dropped them into the deep sea. The storm was so dangerous the men lost their courage.

27 They were stumbling and falling like drunk men. Their skill as sailors was useless.

28 They were in trouble, so they called to the Lord for help. And he saved them from their troubles.

29 God stopped the storm. He calmed the waves.

30 The sailors were happy that the sea was calm. And God led them safely to the place they wanted to go.

31 Thank the Lord for his love, and for the amazing things he does for people.

32 Praise God in the great assembly. Praise him when the older leaders meet together.

33 God changed rivers into a desert. God stopped springs from flowing.

34 God changed the fertile land and it became worthless salty land. Why? Because of the bad people who were living in that place.

35 God changed the desert and it became a land with pools of water.

36 God caused springs of water to flow from dry ground.

37 God led hungry people to that good land. And they built a city to live in.

38 Those people planted seeds in their fields. They planted grapes in the field. And they had a good harvest.

39 God blessed those people. Their families grew. They had many, many animals.

40 Because of disaster and troubles, their families were small and weak.

41 But then God rescued those poor people from their misery. And now their families are large, like flocks of sheep.

42 Good people see this, and they are happy. But wicked people see this, and they don’t know what to say.

43 If a person is wise, he will remember these things. Then he will begin to understand what God’s love really is.

Psalm 108
One of David’s songs of praise.

1 God, I am ready, heart and soul, to sing and play songs of praise.

2 Harps and lyres,* let’s wake up the sun!*

3 Lord, we will praise you among the nations.
We will praise you among other people.

4 Lord, your love is higher than the skies.
Your faithfulness is higher than the highest clouds.

5 God, rise above the heavens!
Let all the world see your glory.

6 God, do this to save your friends.
Answer my prayer and use your great power to save.

sacrifice(s)  A sacrifice was a gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

lyres    An instrument with several strings, like a harp.

let’s wake up the sun  This song was probably written to be sung at the temple when they offered the morning sacrifices.
7 God spoke in his temple:*
   “I will win the war
   and be happy about the victory!
   I will divide this land among my people,
   I will give them Shechem.
   I will give them Succoth Valley.
8 Gilead and Manasseh will be mine.
   Ephraim will be my helmet.
   Judah will be my scepter.*
9 Moab will be a bowl for washing my feet.
   Edom will be a slave to carry
   my sandals.
   I will defeat the Philistines
   and shout about the victory.”

10 Who will lead me into the enemy fortress?
    Who will lead me to fight against Edom?
11 God, only you can help me do
    these things.
    But you left us!
   You did not go with our army!
12 God, please help us defeat our enemy!
   People can’t help us!
13 Only God can make us strong.
   God can defeat our enemies!

Psalm 109
To the director,* One of David’s
songs of praise.

1 God, don’t close your ears to my prayer!
2 Wicked people are telling lies about me.
   They are saying things that are not true.
3 People are saying hateful things about me.
   People are attacking me for no reason.
4 I loved them,
   but they hate me.
   So now, I am praying to you, God.
5 I did good things to those people.
   but they are doing bad things to me.
   I loved them,
   but they hated me.

Psalm 108:7–109:19

6 Punish my enemy for the bad things he did.
   Find a person to prove he is wrong.
7 Let the judge decide my enemy did wrong and that he is guilty.
   Let everything my enemy says only make things worse for him.
8 Let my enemy die soon.
   Let another person have his job.
9 Make my enemy’s children orphans and his wife a widow.
10 Let them lose their home
   and become beggars.
11 Let the people my enemy owes money to take everything he owns.
   Let strangers take everything he worked for.
12 I hope no person is kind to my enemy.
   I hope no person shows mercy
   to his children.
13 Destroy my enemy completely.
   Let the next generation remove his name from everything.
14 I hope the Lord is reminded of the sins of my enemy’s father.
   And I hope his mother’s sins are never erased.
15 I hope the Lord remembers
    those sins forever.
   And I hope he forces people to forget my enemy completely.
16 Why? Because that evil man never did anything good.
   He never loved anyone
   He made life hard for poor,
   helpless people.
17 That evil man loved to ask for bad things to happen to other people.
   So let those bad things happen to him.
   That evil man never asked for good things to happen to people.
   So don’t let good things happen to him.
18 Let curses be his clothes.
   Let curses be the water he drinks.
   Let curses be the oil on his body.
19 Let curses be the clothes they wrap around that evil man.
   And let curses be the belt around his waist.
PSALM 109:20–111:3

20 I hope the Lord does all those things to my enemy.
I hope the Lord does those things to the people who are trying to kill me.

21 Lord, you are my Master.
So treat me in a way that brings honor to your name.
You have such great love, so save me.

22 I am only a poor, helpless man.
I am truly sad, my heart is broken.

23 I feel like my life is over,
like long shadows at the end of a day.
I feel like a bug someone brushed away.

24 My knees are weak because I am hungry.
I am losing weight and becoming thin.

25 Bad people insult me.
They look at me and shake their heads.

26 Lord my God, help me!
Show your true love and save me!

27 Then those people will know that you helped me.
Then they will know that it was your power that helped me.

28 Those bad people curse me, but you can bless me, Lord.
They attacked me, so defeat them.
Then I, your servant, will be happy.

29 Embarrass my enemies!
Let them wear their shame like a coat.

30 I thank the Lord.
I praise him in front of many people.

31 Why? Because the Lord stands by helpless people.
God saves them from other people who try to condemn them to death.

Psalm 110
One of David’s songs of praise.

1 The Lord said to my master, “Sit by me at my right side, while I put your enemies under your control.”*
Psalm 111:4–114:4

4 God does amazing things so that we will remember that the Lord is kind and merciful.
5 God gives food to his followers. God remembers his Agreement forever.
6 The powerful things God did showed his people that he was giving their land to them.
7 Everything God does is good and fair. All his commands can all be trusted.
8 God’s commands will continue forever. God’s reasons for giving those commands were honest and pure.
9 God sent someone to rescue his people. God made his Agreement with them that would continue forever.

Psalm 112*

1 Praise the Lord! A person who fears and respects the Lord will be very happy. That person loves God’s commands.
2 His descendants will be great on earth. The descendants of good people will be truly blessed.
3 That person’s family will be very rich. And his goodness will continue forever.
4 To good people, God is like a light shining in the dark. God is good and kind and merciful.
5 It is good for a person to be kind and generous. It is good for a person to be fair in his business.
6 That person will never fall. A good person will be remembered forever.

Psalm 113

1 Praise the Lord! Servants of the Lord, praise him! Praise the Lord’s name.
2 May the Lord’s name be blessed, now and forever more.
3 May the Lord’s name be praised from the rising sun in the east to the place where the sun goes down.
4 The Lord is higher than all nations. His glory rises to the skies.
5 No person is like the Lord our God. God sits high in heaven.
6 God is so high above us that he must look down to see the sky and the earth.
7 God lifts poor people out of the dirt. God takes beggars from the garbage dump.
8 And God makes those people important. God makes those people important leaders.
9 A woman might not have children. But God will give children to her and make her happy.

Psalm 114

1 Israel left Egypt. Jacob (Israel) left that foreign country.
2 Judah became God’s special people. Israel became his kingdom.
3 The Red Sea saw this and ran away. The Jordan River turned and ran.
4 The mountains danced like rams. The hills danced like lambs.

*Psalm 112 In Hebrew, each section of this psalm begins with the next letter in the alphabet.

Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

descendants A person’s children and their future families.
PSALM 114:5–116:12

5 Red Sea, why did you run away? 14 I hope the Lord gives more and more to you and your children.
Jordan River, why did you turn and run away?
6 Mountains, why did you dance like rams? And hills, why did you dance like lambs?
7 The earth shook in front of the Master, the Lord God of Jacob.
8 God is the One who caused water to flow from a rock.
God made a spring of water flow from that hard rock.

Psalm 115

1 Lord, we should not receive any honor.
The honor belongs to you.
The honor is yours because of your love and because we can trust you.
2 Why should the nations wonder where our God is?
3 God is in heaven, and he does whatever he wants.
4 The “gods” of those nations are only statues made from gold and silver.
They are only statues that some person made.
5 Those statues have mouths, but can’t talk.
They have eyes, but can’t see.
6 They have ears, but can’t hear.
They have noses, but can’t smell.
7 They have hands, but can’t feel.
They have legs, but can’t walk.
And no sounds come from their throats.
8 The people who make and trust those statues will become just like them!

Psalm 116

1 I love it when the Lord hears my prayers.
2 I love it when he listens to me when I call for help.
3 [I almost died!]
Death’s ropes were wrapped around me.
The grave was closing in around me.
I was scared and worried.
4 Then I called on the Lord’s name.
I said:
“Lord, save me!”
5 The Lord is good and merciful.
God is kind.
6 The Lord takes care of helpless people.
I was without help, and the Lord saved me.
7 My soul, relax!
The Lord is caring for you.
8 God, you saved my soul from death.
You stopped my tears.
You kept me from falling.
9 I will continue to serve the Lord in the land of the living.
10 I continued believing even when I said, “I am ruined!”
11 Yes, even when I was afraid and said, “All men are liars!”
12 What can I give to the Lord?
The Lord gave me everything I have!

the Lord welcomes you Literally, “you are blessed to the Lord.” This can mean that people ask God to do good things for these people or that God welcomes the people with a blessing.
13 He saved me, so I will give him a drink offering. And I will call on the Lord’s name.
14 I will give the Lord the things I promised. I will go in front of all his people now.
15 The death of one of the Lord’s followers is very important to the Lord.
16 Lord, I am one of your servants! I am your servant, a child of one of your servant women. Lord, you were my first teacher!
17 I will give you a thank offering. I will call on the Lord’s name.
18 I will give the Lord the things I promised. I will go in front of all his people now.
19 I will go to the temple in Jerusalem. Praise the Lord!

Psalm 117
1 Praise the Lord, all you nations. Praise the Lord all you people.
2 God loves us very much! And God will be true to us forever! Praise the Lord!

Psalm 118
1 Praise the Lord for he is good. His true love continues forever!
2 Israel, say it. “His true love continues forever!”
3 Priests, say it. “His true love continues forever!”
4 You people worshiping the Lord, say it. “His true love continues forever!”
5 I was in trouble so I called to the Lord for help. The Lord answered me and made me free.
6 The Lord is with me, so I will not be afraid. People can’t do anything to hurt me.
7 The Lord is my helper. I will see my enemies defeated.
8 It is better to trust the Lord than to trust people.
9 It is better to trust the Lord than to trust your leaders.
10 Many enemies surrounded me. But with the Lord’s power I defeated my enemies.
11 Enemies surrounded me again and again. I defeated them with the Lord’s power.
12 Enemies surrounded me like a swarm of bees. But, they were quickly finished like a fast burning bush. I defeated them with the Lord’s power.
13 My enemy attacked me and almost destroyed me. But the Lord helped me.
14 The Lord is my strength and victory song! The Lord saves me!
15 You can hear the victory celebration in good people’s houses. The Lord showed his great power again.
16 The Lord’s arms are raised in victory. The Lord showed his great power again.
17 I will live and not die. And I will tell what the Lord has done.
18 The Lord punished me, but he did not let me die.
19 Good gates, open for me, and I will come in and worship the Lord.
20 Those are the Lord’s gates. Only good people can go through them.
21 Lord, I thank you for answering my prayer. I thank you for saving me.
22 The stone that the builders did not want became the cornerstone*. The Lord made this happen. and we think it is wonderful!
23 The Lord made this happen. and we think it is wonderful!
24 Today is the day the Lord has made. Let’s rejoice and be happy today!
25 [The people said,] “Praise the Lord! The Lord saved us!*"
Welcome the man coming in the name of the Lord.”

The priests answered, “We welcome you to the Lord’s house!

The Lord is God.
And he accepts us.
Tie up the lamb for the sacrifice* and carry it to the horns of the altar.”*

Lord, you are my God and I thank you.
I praise you!
Praise the Lord because he is good.
His true love is forever.

Psalm 119

Aleph*

People living pure lives are happy.
Those people follow the Lord’s teachings.

People who obey the Lord’s Agreement* are happy.
They obey the Lord with all their heart.

Those people don’t do bad things.
They obey the Lord.

Lord, you gave us your commands.
And you told us to obey those commands completely.

If I always obey your laws, Lord, then I will never be ashamed when I study your commands.

Then I could truly honor you as I study your fairness and goodness.

Lord, I will obey your commands.
So please don’t leave me!

Beth

How can a young person live a pure life?
By following your instructions.

I try to serve God with all my heart.
God, help me obey your commands.

I study your teachings very carefully.
Why? So I will not sin against you.

Bless you Lord.
Teach me your laws.

I will talk about all your wise decisions.

I enjoy studying your Agreement* more than anything.

I discuss your rules.
I follow your way of living.

I enjoy your laws.
I will not forget your words.

Gimel

Be good to me, your servant, so I might be able to live and obey your commands.

Lord, open my eyes.
Let me look into your teachings and read about the wonderful things you did.

I am a stranger in this land.
Lord, don’t hide your teachings from me.

I want to study your decisions all the time.

Lord, you criticize proud people.
Bad things will happen to them.
They refuse to obey your commands.

Don’t let me be ashamed and embarrassed.
I have obeyed your Agreement.*

Even the leaders said bad things about me.
But I am your servant, Lord, and I study your laws.

Your Agreement is my best friend.
It gives me good advice.

Daleth

I will soon die.
Lord, give the command and let me live.

I told you about my life.
And you answered me.
Now, teach me your laws.

Lord, help me understand your laws.
Let me study about the wonderful things you have done.

I am sad and tired.
Give the command and make me strong again.

Lord, don’t let me live a lie.
Guide me with your teachings.

sacrifice(s) A sacrifice was a gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

horns of the altar The corners of the altar.

Aleph First letter of the Hebrew alphabet. In Hebrew, each section of this song begins with the next letter of the alphabet.

Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.
30 Lord, I chose to be loyal to you.
    I carefully study your wise decisions.
31 I stick with your Agreement* Lord.
    Don’t disappoint me.
32 I will gladly obey your commands.
    Lord, your commands make me happy.

    He 33 Lord, teach me your laws,
    and I will follow them.
34 Help me understand,
    and I will obey your teachings.
    I will obey them completely.
35 Lord, lead me along the path of your commands.
    I truly love that way of living.
36 Help me think about your Agreement*
    instead of how to get rich.
37 Lord, don’t let me look at worthless things.
    Help me live your way.
38 Do what you promised for your servant,
    so that people will respect you.
39 Lord, take away the shame I fear.
    Your wise decisions are good.
40 Look, I love your commands.
    Be good to me and let me live.

    Waw
41 Lord, show me your true love.
    Save me like you promised.
42 Then I will have an answer for people who insult me.
    I really trust the things you say, Lord.
43 Let me always speak your true teachings.
    Lord, I depend on your wise decisions.
44 Lord, I will follow your teachings
    forever and ever.
45 So I will be free. Why?
    Because I try hard to obey your laws.
46 I will discuss your Agreement* with kings,
    and they will not embarrass me.
47 I enjoy studying your commands, Lord.
    I love those commands.

48 Lord, I praise your commands.
    I love them.
    And I will study them.

    Zain
49 Lord, remember your promise to me.
    That promise gives me hope.
50 I was suffering, and you comforted me.
    Your words let me live again.
51 People who think they are better than me
    insulted me constantly.
    But I did not stop following your teachings.
52 I always remember your wise decisions.
    Lord, your wise decisions comfort me.
53 I become angry when I see the wicked people who quit following your teachings.
54 Your laws are my songs at home.*
55 Lord, I remember your name at night.
    And I remember your teachings.
56 This happens because I carefully obey your commands.

    Heth
57 Lord, I decided my duty is to obey
    your commands.
58 Lord, I depend on you completely.
    Be kind to me like you promised.
59 I thought very carefully about my life.
    And I came back to your Agreement.*
60 I hurried back to obey your commands without delay.
61 A group of bad people said bad things
    about me.
    But I did not forget your teachings, Lord.
62 In the middle of the night,
    I get up to thank you for your good decisions.
63 I am a friend to every person who worships you.
    I am a friend to every person who obeys your commands.
64 Lord, your true love fills the earth.
    Teach me your laws.

Agreement  Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

at home  Or “at the temple, where I live.”
PSALM 119:65–92

Teth

65 Lord, you did good things for me,
your servant.
You did exactly what you promised to do.
66 Lord, give me the knowledge to make wise decisions.
I trust your commands.
67 Before I suffered, I did many wrong things.
But now, I carefully obey your commands.
68 God, you are good, and you do good things.
Teach me your laws.
69 People who think they are better than me
told bad lies about me.
But I continued to obey your commands with all my heart, Lord.
70 Those people are very stupid.*
But I enjoy studying your teachings.
71 Suffering was good for me.
I learned your laws.
72 Lord, your teachings are good for me.
They are better than 1,000 pieces of silver and gold.

Yod

73 Lord, you made me
and you support me with your hands.
Help me learn and understand your commands.
74 Lord, your followers see me and respect me.
They are happy because I trust what you say.
75 Lord, I know that your decisions are fair.
And it was right for you to punish me.
76 Now, comfort me with your true love.
Comfort me like you promised.
77 Lord, comfort me and let me live.
I truly enjoy your teachings.
78 People who think they are better than me lied about me.
I hope those people are ashamed.
Lord, I study your laws.

Kaph

79 I hope your followers come back to me so they can learn your Agreement.*
80 Lord, let me obey your commands perfectly,
so I will not be ashamed.

Lamedh

81 I am about to die
waiting for you to save me.
But I trust the things you say, Lord.
82 I keep looking for the things you promised,
but my eyes are getting tired.
Lord, when will you comfort me?
83 Even when I am like a dried wineskin on the trash pile,
I will not forget your laws.
84 How long will I live?
Lord, when will you punish the people who persecute me?
85 Some proud people stabbed me with their lies.
And that is against your teachings.
86 Lord, people can trust all of your commands.
Those people are wrong to persecute me.
Help me!
87 Those people almost destroyed me.
But I did not stop obeying your commands.
88 Lord, show me your true love
and let me live.
I will do whatever you say.

Those people are very stupid Or, “It is as hard for their minds to understand things as it is to grab milk with your hand.”

Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.
Lord, I will never forget your commands, because they let me live.
Lord, I am yours, so save me!
Why? Because I try hard to obey your commands.
Wicked people tried to destroy me. But your Agreement* made me wise.
Everything has its limits, except your law.

Mem
Oh, I love your teachings, Lord.
I talk about them all of the time.
Lord, your commands make me wiser than my enemies.
Your law is with me always.
I am wiser than all my teachers because I study your Agreement.*
I understand more than the older leaders because I keep your commands.
You keep me off of the wrong path every step of the way.
So I can do what you tell me, Lord.
Lord, you are my teacher so I will not stop obeying your laws.
Your words are sweeter than honey in my mouth.
Your teachings make me wise, so I hate false teachings.

Nun
Lord, your words are like a lamp lighting my path.
Your laws are good. I promise to obey them. And I will keep my promise.
Lord, I suffered for a long time. Please give the command, and let me live again!
Lord, accept my praise. And teach me your laws.
My life is always in danger. But I have not forgotten your teachings.
Wicked people try to trap me. But I have not disobeyed your commands.

Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.
PSALM 119:128–158

128 I carefully obey all of your commands.*
   I hate false teachings.

Lord, your Agreement* is wonderful.
That is why I follow it.

When people begin to understand your word,
it is like a light showing them the right way of living.
Your word makes even simple people wise.

Lord, I really want to study your commands.
I am like a person breathing hard and waiting impatiently.

God, look at me and be kind to me.
Do what is right for the people who love your name.

Lord, guide me like you promised.
Don’t let anything bad happen to me.

Lord, save me from the people who hurt me.
And I will obey your commands.

Lord, accept your servant, and teach me your laws.
I have cried a river of tears because people don’t obey your teachings.

Tsadhe

Lord, you are good.
And your laws are fair.

You gave us good laws in the Agreement.*
We can really trust them.

My strong feelings are destroying me.
I am so upset because my enemies forgot your commands.

We have proof that we can trust your word, Lord.
And I love it.

I am a young person, and people don’t respect me.
But I don’t forget your commands.

I carefully obey all of your commands The meaning of the Hebrew here is not clear.
Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

142 Lord, your goodness is forever.
   And your teachings can be trusted.

143 I have had troubles and hard times.
   But I enjoy your commands.

144 Your Agreement is good forever.
   Help me understand it so I can live.

Qoph

I call to you with all my heart, Lord.
Answer me!
I obey your commands.

Lord, I call to you.
Save me!
And I will obey your Agreement.*

I got up early in the morning to pray to you.
I trust the things you say.

I stayed up late at night to study your word.

With all your love, listen to me.
Lord, do the things you say are right, and let me live.

People are making evil plans against me.
Those people don’t follow your teachings.

Lord, you are close to me.
And all your commands can be trusted.

Long ago I learned from your Agreement* that your teachings will continue forever.

Resh

Lord, see my suffering and rescue me.
I have not forgotten your teachings.

Lord, fight my fight for me and save me.
Let me live, like you promised.

Wicked people will not win because they don’t follow your laws.

Lord, you are very kind.
Do the things you say are right, and let me live.

I have many enemies trying to hurt me.
But I have not stopped following your Agreement.*

I see those traitors.* They don’t obey your word, Lord.
And I hate that.

traitors People who turn against their country, friends, or family and do bad things to them.
159 Look, I try hard to obey your commands.
Lord, with all your love, let me live.
160 From the very beginning,
all your words could be trusted, Lord.
And your good law will last forever.

Shin

161 Powerful leaders attacked me
for no reason.
But I fear and respect only your law.
162 Lord, your word makes me happy, as happy as a person who just found a great treasure.
163 I hate lies! I despise them!
But I love your teachings, Lord.
164 Seven times a day I praise you for your good laws.
165 People who love your teachings will find true peace.
Nothing can make those people fall.
166 Lord, I am waiting for you to save me.
I obeyed your commands.
167 I followed your Agreement.*
Lord, I love your laws very much.
168 I have obeyed your Agreement and commands.
Lord, you know everything I have done.

Taw

169 Lord, listen to my happy song.
Make me wise like you promised.
170 Lord, listen to my prayer.
Save me, like you promised.
171 I burst into songs of praise,
because you taught me your laws.
172 Help me respond to your words and let me sing my song.
Lord, all your laws are good.
173 I chose to follow your commands,
so reach out and help me!
174 Lord, I want you to save me.
But your teachings make me happy.
175 Let me live and praise you, Lord.
Let your laws help me.

PSALM 119:159–121:8

159 I wandered away like a lost sheep.
Come looking for me, Lord.
I am your servant,
and I have not forgotten your commands.

Psalm 120

A song for going up to the temple.

1 I was in trouble.
I called to the Lord for help.
And he saved me!
2 Lord, save me from the people who lied about me.
Those people said things that weren’t true.
3 Liars, do you know what you will get?
Do you know what you will gain?
4 A soldier’s sharp arrow and hot coals to punish you.
5 You people are liars, and living near you is like living in Meshech.
It is like living in tents in Kedar.*
6 I have lived too long with people who hate peace.
7 I said I want peace,
so they want war.

Psalm 121

A song for going up to the temple.

1 I look up to the hills and for help.
But where will my help really come from?
2 My help will come from the Lord,
the Creator of heaven and earth.
3 God will not let you fall.
Your Protector will not fall asleep.
4 Israel’s Protector does not become sleepy.
God never sleeps.
5 The Lord is your Protector.
He protects you with his great power.
6 The sun can’t hurt you during the day.
And the moon can’t hurt you at night.
7 The Lord will protect you from every danger.
The Lord will protect your soul.
8 The Lord will help as you come and go,*
The Lord will help you now and forever!

Agreement  Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

Meshech … Kedar  People from these places were famous fighters.

come and go  This probably refers to going to war.
Psalm 122
A song from David for going up to the temple.

1 I was very happy when people said, “Let us go to the Lord’s temple.”

2 Here we are, standing at the gates of Jerusalem.

3 This is New Jerusalem! The city has been built again as one united city.

4 That is where the family groups go. The people of Israel go there to praise the Lord’s name. They are the family groups that belong to the Lord.

5 The kings from David’s family put their thrones in that place. They set up their thrones there to judge the people.

6 Pray for peace in Jerusalem. “I hope the people who love you will find peace there.

7 For the good of my brothers and neighbors, I pray there will be peace here.

8 For the good of the temple of the Lord our God, I pray that good things will happen to this city.

Psalm 123
A song for going up to the temple

1 God, I look up and pray to you. You sit as king in heaven.

2 Slaves depend on their masters for the things they need. In the same way, we depend on the Lord our God. We wait for God to show mercy to us.

3 Lord, be merciful to us, because we have been insulted much too long.

4 We have had enough of the hateful words and insults from those lazy, arrogant people.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

Psalm 124
A song from David for going up to the temple.

1 What would have happened to us if the Lord had not been on our side? Tell me the answer, Israel.

2 What would have happened to us if the Lord had not been on our side when people attacked us?

3 Our enemies would have swallowed us alive whenever they became angry at us.

4 Our enemies’ armies would have been like a flood washing over us, like a river drowning us.

5 Those proud people would have been like water rising up to our mouth and drowning us.

6 Praise the Lord! The Lord did not let our enemies catch us and kill us.

7 We are like a bird that was trapped in a net, and then escaped. The net broke, and we escaped!

8 Our help came from the Lord. The Lord made heaven and earth!

Psalm 125
A song for going up to the temple.

1 People who trust in the Lord will be like Mount Zion. They will never be shaken. They will continue forever.

2 Mountains are all around Jerusalem. And the Lord is around his people. He will protect his people forever and ever.

3 Evil people will not control good people’s land forever. If that happened, then even good people might start doing bad things.

4 Lord, be good to good people. Be good to people who have pure hearts.

5 Evil people do crooked things. The Lord will punish those evil people.

Let there be peace in Israel!
Psalm 126
A song for going up to the temple.

1. When the Lord makes us free again it will be like a dream!
2. We will be laughing and singing happy songs!
   People in other nations will say, “The Lord did a wonderful thing for the people of Israel.”
3. Yes, we would be so happy if the Lord did that wonderful thing for us.
4. Lord, make us free again, like desert streams filled again with flowing water.
5. A person might be sad when he plants the seeds, but he will be happy when he gathers the crops!
6. He might cry when he carries the seeds out to the field, but he will be happy when he brings the harvest in!

Psalm 127
A song from Solomon for going up to the temple.

1. If it is not the Lord that builds a house, the builder is wasting his time. If it is not the Lord that watches over a city, the guards are wasting their time.
2. It is a waste of time to get up early and stay up late, trying to make a living. God cares for the people he loves, even while they are sleeping.
3. Children are a gift* from the Lord. They are a reward from a mother’s body.
4. A young man’s sons are like the arrows in a soldier’s arrow bag.
5. A man that fills his arrow bag with sons will be very happy. That man will never be defeated. His sons will defend him against his enemies in public places.*

Psalm 128
A song for going up to the temple.

1. All of the Lord’s followers are happy. Those people live the way God wants.
2. You will enjoy the things you work for. You will be happy, and good things will happen to you.
3. At home, your wife will be like a fruitful grape vine. Around the table, your children will be like olive trees you planted.
4. The Lord will truly bless his followers this way.
5. May the Lord bless you from Zion.* I hope you enjoy the blessings in Jerusalem all of your life.
6. And I hope you live to see your grandchildren.
   Let there be peace in Israel!

Psalm 129
A song for going up to the temple.

1. I have had many enemies all my life. Tell us about those enemies, Israel.
2. I have had many enemies all my life. But they never won.
3. They beat me until I had deep cuts in my back. I had long and deep wounds.
4. But the good Lord cut the ropes and set me free from those evil people.
5. The people who hated Zion* were defeated. They stopped fighting and ran away.

---

gift  Literally, “inheritance.” Usually, this means the land that God gave to each family in Israel. This land was a gift that never really left the family. A person might sell the land, but at the time of Jubilee, the land was given back to the family.

public places  Literally, “the gate.” This might mean that a person’s sons will defend him whenever his enemies try to take him to court.

Zion  The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
Psalm 129:6–132:11

6 Those people were like grass on the roof.
   That grass dies before it has time to grow.

7 A worker can’t get a handful of that grass.
   There is not enough for a pile of grain.

8 People walking by them will not say,
   “May the Lord bless you.”
People will not greet them and say,
   “We bless you in the name of the Lord.”

Psalm 130

A song for going up to the temple.

1 Lord, I am in deep trouble,
   so I am calling to you for help.

2 My Master, listen to me.
   Listen to my call for help.

3 Lord, if you really punished people for all of their sins,
   no person would be left alive.

4 Lord, forgive your people.
   Then there will be people to worship
   you.

5 I am waiting for the Lord to help me.
   My soul waits for him.
   I trust what the Lord says.

6 I am waiting for my Master.
   I am like guards waiting and waiting for the morning to come.

7 Israel, trust the Lord.
   True love is found only with the Lord.
   The Lord saves us again and again.

8 And the Lord will forgive Israel for all their sins.

Psalm 131

A song for going up to the temple.

1 Lord, I am not proud.
   I don’t try to act important.
   I don’t try to do great things.
   I don’t worry about things that are too hard for me.

2 I am calm.
   My soul is quiet.
   My soul is calm and quiet like a satisfied baby in his mother’s arms.

3 Israel, trust the Lord.
   Trust him now, and trust him forever!

Psalm 132

A song for going up to the temple.

1 Lord, remember how David suffered.

2 David made a promise to the Lord.
   David made a special promise to the Mighty God of Jacob.

3 David said,
   “I will not go into my house,
   I will not lie down on my bed,
   I will not sleep,
   I will not let my eyes rest,
   I will not do any of those things until I find a house for the Lord, a home for the Mighty God of Jacob!”

6 We heard about it in Ephrathah.*
   We found the Box of the Agreement*
   at Kiriath Jearim.*

7 Let’s go to the Holy Tent.
   Let’s worship at the stool where God rests his feet.*

8 Lord, get up* from your resting place.
   Get up Lord, you and your powerful Box.

9 Lord, your priests are dressed in goodness.
   Your loyal followers are very happy.

10 For the good of your servant, David, don’t reject your chosen king.

11 The Lord made a promise to David.
   The Lord promised to be loyal to David.
   The Lord promised that the kings would come from David’s family.

Ephrathah  Bethlehem, the town where David was born.
Box of the Agreement  Or, “ark of the Covenant.” The box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.
Kiriath Jearim  Literally, “fields of the forest.” The Hebrew word meaning “forest” is like the name of this city.
stool where God rests his feet  This can mean the Box of the Agreement, the Holy Tent, or the temple. It is like God is a king sitting on his throne and resting his feet on the place where people worship him.
Lord, get up  The people said this when they lifted the Box of the Agreement and took it into battle with them. This showed that God was with them. See Num. 10:35,36.
12 The Lord said,
    “David, if your children obey my Agreement* and the laws I teach them, then someone from your family will always be the king.”
13 The Lord chose Zion* to be the place for his temple.
    That is the place he wanted for his home.
14 The Lord said,
    “This will be my place forever and ever.
    I choose this to be the place where I will be.
15 I will bless this city with plenty of food. Even poor people will have plenty to eat.
16 I will clothe the priests with salvation. And my followers will be very happy here.
17 In this place, I will make David strong. I will provide a lamp for my chosen king.
18 I will cover David’s enemies in shame. But I will make David’s kingdom grow.”

Psalm 133
One of David’s songs for going up to the temple.
1 Oh how wonderful it is when God’s people sit together, truly united!
2 It is like the sweet-smelling oil poured over Aaron’s head, running down into his beard, which flows down over his special clothes.
3 It is like a gentle rain* from Mount Hermon falling on Mount Zion.*
   Why? Because it was at Zion that the Lord gave his blessing, the blessing of eternal life.

Agreement  Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.
Zion  The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
gentle rain  Or, “mist, snow.” The Hebrew can mean either, “the oil is like the mist …” or “Aaron’s beard is like the snow ….”
Mount Zion  Or, “the mountain range of Zion,” or possibly “the dry mountains.”

Psalm 134
A song for going up to the temple.
1 Praise the Lord, all of his servants! You servants served in the temple all night.
2 Servants, lift your arms and bless the Lord.
3 And may the Lord bless you from Zion.* The Lord made heaven and earth.

Psalm 135
1 Praise the Lord! Praise the name of the Lord!
   Servants of the Lord, praise him!
2 Praise him, you people that are standing in the Lord’s temple, in the courtyard of the temple of our God.
3 Praise the Lord, because he is good. Praise his name, because it is pleasant.
4 The Lord chose Jacob,* Israel belongs to God.
5 I know the Lord is great! Our Master is greater than all the gods!
6 The Lord does anything he wants, in heaven and earth, in the seas and deep oceans.
7 God makes the clouds all over the earth. God makes the lightning and rain. And God makes the wind.*
8 God destroyed all the firstborn men and all the firstborn animals in Egypt.
9 God did many wonders and miracles in Egypt.
   God made those things happen to Pharaoh and his officials.
10 God defeated many nations. God killed powerful kings.
11 God defeated Sihon, king of the Amorites. God defeated Og, king of Bashan.
   God defeated all the nations in Canaan.
12 And God gave their land to Israel. God gave that land to his people.

Agreement  Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.
Zion  The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
gentle rain  Or, “mist, snow.” The Hebrew can mean either, “the oil is like the mist …” or “Aaron’s beard is like the snow ….”
Mount Zion  Or, “the mountain range of Zion,” or possibly “the dry mountains.”
Jacob  Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22–28.
makes the wind  Literally, “brings the wind out of the storehouses.”
Psalm 135

13 Lord, your name will be famous forever!
   Lord, people will remember you
   forever and ever.
14 The Lord punished the nations.
   But the Lord was kind to his servants.
15 The gods of the other people were only gold and silver statues.
   Their gods were only statues that people made.
16 The statues had mouths, but couldn’t speak.
   The statues had eyes, but couldn’t see.
17 The statues had ears, but couldn’t hear.
   The statues had noses, but couldn’t smell.
18 And the people who made the statues will become just like them!
   Why? Because they trusted those statues to help them.
19 Family of Israel, bless the Lord!
   Aaron’s family, bless the Lord!
20 Levi’s family, bless the Lord!
   Followers of the Lord, bless the Lord!
21 The Lord is blessed from Zion, from Jerusalem, his home.
   Praise the Lord!

Psalm 136

1 Praise the Lord because he is good.
   His true love continues forever.
2 Praise the God of gods!
   His true love continues forever.
3 Praise the Lord of lords!
   His true love continues forever.
4 Praise God, who alone does wonderful miracles!
   His true love continues forever.
5 Praise God, the One that used wisdom to make the skies!
   His true love continues forever.
6 God put the dry land on the sea.
   His true love continues forever.
7 God made the great lights.
   His true love continues forever.
8 God made the sun to rule the day.
   His true love continues forever.
9 God made the moon and stars to rule the night.
   His true love continues forever.
10 God killed the firstborn men and animals in Egypt.
   His true love continues forever.
11 God took Israel out of Egypt.
   His true love continues forever.
12 God showed his great power and strength.
   His true love continues forever.
13 God split the Red Sea into two parts.
   His true love continues forever.
14 God led Israel through the sea.
   His true love continues forever.
15 God drowned Pharaoh and his army in the Red Sea.
   His true love continues forever.
16 God led his people through the desert.
   His true love continues forever.
17 God defeated powerful kings.
   His true love continues forever.
18 God defeated strong kings.
   His true love continues forever.
19 God defeated Sihon, king of the Amorites.
   His true love continues forever.
20 God defeated Og, king of Bashan.
   His true love continues forever.
21 God gave their land to Israel.
   His true love continues forever.
22 God gave that land for a gift to Israel.
   His true love continues forever.
23 God remembered us when we were defeated.
   His true love continues forever.
24 God saved us from our enemies.
   His true love continues forever.
25 God gives food to every person.
   His true love continues forever.
26 Praise the God of heaven!
   His true love continues forever.

Psalm 137

1 We sat by the rivers in Babylon and cried as we remembered Zion.*
2 We hung our harps
   on the willow trees nearby.*
3 In Babylon, the people who captured us told us to sing.
   They told us to sing happy songs.
   They told us to sing songs about Zion.*

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
We hung our harps … nearby These instruments were used to praise God in the temple in Jerusalem. Since the temple was destroyed, these people had no reason to play the songs.
But we can’t sing the Lord’s songs in a foreign country!
Jerusalem, if I ever forget you, then I hope I never play a song again.
Jerusalem, if I ever forget you, then I hope I never sing again. I promise, I will never forget you. I promise, Jerusalem will always be my greatest joy!

Lord, punish the people of Edom for what they did when Jerusalem was captured.
The people of Edom shouted, “Destroy Jerusalem’s buildings! Pull all the buildings down to the ground.”
Babylon, you will be destroyed! Bless the man who gives you the punishment you should get. Bless the man who hurts you like you hurt us.
Bless the man who grabs your babies and smashes them against a rock.

Psalm 138
A song of David.

If my enemies are angry at me, save me from them.
Lord, give me the things you promised. Lord, your true love continues forever. Lord, you made us, so don’t leave us!

Psalm 139
To the director.* One of David’s songs of praise.

Psalm 138
A song of David.

If my enemies are angry at me, save me from them.
Lord, give me the things you promised. Lord, your true love continues forever. Lord, you made us, so don’t leave us!

Psalm 139
To the director.* One of David’s songs of praise.

Psalm 138
A song of David.

If my enemies are angry at me, save me from them.
Lord, give me the things you promised. Lord, your true love continues forever. Lord, you made us, so don’t leave us!

Psalm 139
To the director.* One of David’s songs of praise.

Psalm 138
A song of David.

If my enemies are angry at me, save me from them.
Lord, give me the things you promised. Lord, your true love continues forever. Lord, you made us, so don’t leave us!

Psalm 139
To the director.* One of David’s songs of praise.
PSALM 139:14–141:2

14 Lord, I praise you! You made me in an amazing and wonderful way. I know very well that what you did is wonderful!

15 You know all about me. You watched my bones grow while my body took shape, hidden in my mother’s body.* You watched my body parts grow. You listed them all in your book. You watched me every day. Not one of them is missing.

16 Your thoughts are important to me. God, you know so much!

17 If I could count them, they would be more than all the grains of sand. And when I finished, I would still be with you.

18 God, kill the wicked people. Take those murderers away from me.

19 If I could count them, they would be more than all the grains of sand. And when I finished, I would still be with you.

20 Lord, save me from wicked people. Protect me from cruel people.

21 Lord, I hate the people who hate you. I hate the people who turn against you.

22 Those people are wicked. Don’t let them have what they want. Don’t let their plans succeed.

23 Lord, look at me and know my heart. Test me and know my thoughts.

24 See if I have any evil thoughts. And guide me on the path that continues forever.*

Psalm 140
To the director.* One of David’s songs of praise.

1 Lord, save me from evil people. Protect me from cruel people.

2 Those people plan to do evil things. Those people always start fights.

3 Their tongues are like poisonous snakes. It is like snake poison is under their tongue.

4 Lord, save me from wicked people. Protect me from cruel people.

5 Those people chase me and try to hurt me. Those proud people set a trap for me. They spread a net to catch me. They set a trap in my path.

6 Lord, you are my God. Lord, listen to my prayer.

7 Lord, you are my strong Master. You are my Savior. You are like a helmet protecting my head in battle.

8 Lord, those people are wicked. Don’t let them have what they want. Don’t let their plans succeed.

9 Lord, don’t let my enemies win. Those people are planning bad things. But make those bad things happen to them.

10 Pour burning coals on their heads. Throw my enemies into the fire. Throw them into the pit (grave) that they will never climb out of.

11 Lord, don’t let those liars live. Make bad things happen to those bad people.

12 I know the Lord will judge poor people fairly. God will help helpless people.

13 Good people will praise your name, Lord. Good people will worship you.

Psalm 141
One of David’s songs of praise.

1 Lord, I call to you for help. Listen to me while I pray to you. Hurry and help me!

2 Lord, accept my prayer. Let it be like a gift of burning incense. Let it be like the evening sacrifice.*

mother’s body Literally, “deepest parts of the earth.” This is a way of saying a place we know nothing about.

They say bad things about your name The meaning of the Hebrew here is not clear.

guide ... forever Or, “Guide on the ancient path.”

director Or, “performer.”

SELAH* This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.

sacrifice(s) A sacrifice was a gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
PSALM 141:3–143:8

3 Lord, help me control the things I say. Help me watch what I say.
4 Don’t let me want to do bad things. Stop me from joining bad people when they do wrong. Don’t let me share the things those bad people enjoy doing.
5 A good person can correct me. That would be kind of him. Your followers can criticize me. It would be good for them to do that. I would accept that. But I will always pray against the bad things those bad people do.

6 Let their rulers be punished. Then people will know I spoke the truth.
7 People dig and plow the ground. And spread the dirt around. In the same way, our bones will be spread around in their grave.
8 Lord my Master, I look to you for help. I trust you. Please don’t let me die.
9 Bad people set traps for me. Don’t let me fall into their traps. Don’t let them trap me.
10 Let wicked people fall into their own trap, while I walk away unharmed.

Psalm 142
A maskil* of David. This is a prayer from the time he was in the cave.
1 I will call to the Lord for help. I will pray to the Lord.
2 I will tell the Lord about my problems. I will tell the Lord about my troubles.
3 My enemies have set a trap for me. I am ready to give up. But the Lord knows what is happening to me.
4 I look around, and I don’t see any of my friends. I have no place to run. No person is trying to save me.

Psalm 143
One of David’s songs of praise.
1 Lord, hear my prayer. Listen to my prayer. And then answer my prayer. Show me that you are truly good and loyal.
2 Don’t judge me, your servant. Never, in all my life, could I ever be judged innocent.
3 But my enemies are chasing me. They have crushed my life into the dirt. They are pushing me into the dark grave, like people who died long ago.
4 I am ready to give up. I am losing my courage.
5 But I remember the things that happened long ago. I am thinking about the many things you did. I am talking about the things you did with your great power!
6 Lord, I lift my arms and pray to you. I am waiting for your help, like a dry land waiting for rain.

7 Hurry, answer me Lord! I have lost my courage. Don’t turn away from me. Don’t let me die and become like the dead people lying in the grave.
8 Lord, show me your true love this morning. I trust you.

maskil The exact meaning of maskil is not known. It might mean, “a poem of meditation,” “a poem of instruction,” or “a skillfully written poem.”
trap Literally, “frame around my soul.”
SELAH This word is for the musicians. It probably means the singers should pause here or the music should be louder here.
PSALM 143:9–145:7

Show me the things I should do.
I put my life in your hands!

9 Lord, I come to you for protection.
Save me from my enemies.

10 Show me what you want me to do.
You are my God.
Let your good Spirit lead me over level ground.

11 Lord, let me live,
so people will praise your name.
Show me that you are truly good,
and save me from my enemies.

12 Lord, show me your love, and defeat my enemies
who are trying to kill me.
Why? Because I am your servant.

Psalm 144
{A song of David.*

1 The Lord is my Rock,*
Bless the Lord.
The Lord trains me for war.
The Lord trains me for battle.

2 The Lord loves me and protects me.
The Lord is my safe place high on the mountain.
The Lord rescues me.
The Lord is my shield.
I trust him.
The Lord helps me rule my people.

3 Lord, why are people important to you?
Why do you even notice us?

4 A person’s life is like a puff of air.
A person’s life is like a passing shadow.

5 Lord, tear open the skies and come down.
Touch the mountains and smoke will rise from them.

6 Lord, send the lightning and make my enemies run away.
Shoot your “arrows”
and make them run away.

7 Lord, reach down from heaven and save me!
Don’t let me drown in this sea of enemies.
Save me from these foreigners.

8 These enemies are liars.
They say things that are not true.

Psalm 145
{A psalm of David.

1 I praise you my God and King.
I bless your name forever and ever.

2 I praise you every day.
I praise your name forever and ever.

3 The Lord is great.
People praise him very much.
We can’t count all the great things he does.

4 Lord, people will praise you forever and ever for the things you do.
They will tell about the great things you do.

5 Your majesty and glory are wonderful.
I will tell about your miracles.

6 Lord, people will tell about the amazing things you do.
I will tell about the great things you do.

7 People will tell about
the good things you do.
People will sing about your goodness.

*A song of David Or, “A song dedicated to David.”
Rock A name for God to show he is a strong place of safety.
The Lord is kind and merciful. The Lord is patient and full of love. The Lord is good to every person. God shows his mercy to everything he made. Lord, the things you do bring praise to you. Your followers bless you. They tell how great your kingdom is. They tell how great you are. So other people learn about the great things you do, Lord. Those people learn how great and wonderful your kingdom is. Lord, your kingdom will continue forever. You will rule forever. The Lord lifts up people who have fallen. The Lord helps people who are in trouble. Lord, all living things look to you for their food. And you give them their food at the right time. Lord, you open your hands, and you give every living thing everything it needs. Everything the Lord does is good. Everything he does shows how good he is. The Lord is close to every person who calls to him for help. The Lord is close to every person who truly worships him. The Lord does what his followers want. The Lord listens to his followers. He answers their prayers and saves them. The Lord protects every person who loves him. But the Lord destroys bad people. I will praise the Lord! I want every person to praise his holy name forever and ever!

Psalm 146

Praise the Lord! My soul, praise the Lord! I will praise the Lord all my life. I will sing praises to him all my life. Don’t depend on your leaders for help. Don’t trust people. Why? Because people can’t save you.

Psalm 147

Praise the Lord because he is good. Sing praises to our God. It is good and pleasant to praise him. The Lord built Jerusalem. God brought back the Israelite people who were taken as prisoners. God heals their broken hearts and bandages their wounds. God counts the stars and knows the name of each and every one. Our Master is very great. He is very powerful. There is no limit to the things he knows. The Lord supports humble people. But he embarrasses bad people. Thank the Lord. Praise our God with harps. God fills the sky with clouds. God makes rain for the earth. God makes the grass grow on the mountains.
PSALM 147:9–149:3

9 God gives food to the animals.
   God feeds the young birds.
10 War horses and powerful soldiers don’t make him happy.
11 The Lord is happy with people who worship him.
   The Lord is pleased with people who trust in his true love.
12 Jerusalem, praise the Lord!
    Zion, praise your God!
13 Jerusalem, God makes your gates strong.
    And God blesses the people
    in your city.
14 God brought peace to your country.
    So enemies did not take your grain in war.
    And you have plenty of grain for food.
15 God gives a command to the earth,
    and it quickly obeys.
16 God makes the snow fall
    until the ground is white like wool.
    God makes sleet blow through the air like dust.
17 God makes hail fall
    like rocks from the sky.
    No person can stand the cold he sends.
18 Then, God gives another command, and the warm air blows again.
    The ice melts,
    and water begins to flow.
19 God gave his commands to Jacob (Israel).
    God gave his laws and rules to Israel.
20 God did not do this for any other nation.
    God did not teach his laws to
    other people.
    Praise the Lord!

Psalm 148

1 Praise the Lord!
   Angels above, praise the Lord
   from heaven!
2 Praise the Lord, all you angels!
    Praise him, all his army٦!
3 Sun and moon, praise the Lord!
    Stars and lights in the sky, praise him!

Psalm 149

1 Praise the Lord.
   Sing a new song about the new things
   the Lord has done!
   Sing his praise in the assembly where his followers meet together.
2 Let Israel enjoy themselves with their Maker.
    Let the people on Zion* rejoice with their King.
3 Let those people praise God by dancing and playing their tambourines and harps.

٦This can mean, “angels,” or “stars and planets,” or “soldiers in an army.”

*The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
The Lord is happy with his people.
God did a wonderful thing for his humble people.
He saved them!

God’s followers, rejoice in your victory!
Even after going to bed, be happy.

Let the people shout praise to God and take their swords in their hands,
Let them go punish their enemies.
Let them go punish those people.

God’s people will put chains on those kings and important people.

God’s people will punish them like God commanded.
All of God’s followers honor him.
Praise the Lord!

Praise the Lord!
Praise God in his temple!
Praise his power in heaven!

Praise God for the great things he does!
Praise him for all his greatness!

Praise God with trumpets and horns!
Praise him with harps and lyres*

Praise God with tambourines and dancing!
Praise him with stringed instruments and flutes!

Praise God with loud cymbals!
Praise him with crashing cymbals!

Every living thing, praise the Lord!
Praise the Lord!

lyre(s) An instrument with several strings, like a harp.
Proverbs

Introduction

1 These words are the wise teachings of Solomon, the son of David. Solomon was the king of Israel.
2 These words are written so that people can be wise and know the right things to do. These words will help people understand wise teachings. 3 These words will teach people to develop their minds in the right way—people will learn the right way to be honest, fair, and good. 4 These wise words can teach people who need to learn wisdom. These words can teach young people the things they need to know and how to use that information. 5 Even wise people should listen to these words. They will learn more and become even wiser. And people who are skilled at solving problems will gain even more understanding.
6 Then those people will be able to understand wise sayings and stories with hidden meanings. Those people will be able to understand the things wise men say.
7 The first thing a person must learn is to respect and obey the Lord—that leads to true wisdom. But evil people hate discipline and true wisdom.

Solomon’s Advice to His Son

8 My son,* listen to your father when he corrects you. And don’t ignore what your mother teaches you. 9 The things your parents teach you are like a nice hat or a beautiful necklace that makes a person look even better.

Warning Against Joining with Bad People

10 My son, some people love to do bad things—and those people will try to make you do bad things too. Don’t listen to them! 11 Those bad people might say, “Come with us! We are going to hide and wait for someone to kill. We will attack some innocent person. 12 We will kill that person. We will send that person to the place of death. We will destroy that person and send him to the grave. 13 We will steal all kinds of things worth lots of money. We will fill our houses with these things. 14 So come with us and help us do these things. We will all share everything we get!”
15 My son, don’t follow those people. Don’t even take the first step along that path. 16 Those bad people race to do bad things. They are in a hurry to kill someone!
17 People spread out nets to catch birds. But it is useless to set the trap while the birds are watching. 18 So those bad people hide themselves and wait to kill someone. But really, they will be destroyed by their own trap! 19 Greedy people are always destroyed by the things they take.

The Good Woman—Wisdom

20 Listen! Wisdom* is trying to teach people. She (Wisdom) is shouting in the streets and in the market place. 21 She is calling out on the busy street corners. She is near the city gates trying to get people to listen to her. [Wisdom says:]

Wisdom Solomon uses the picture of Wisdom and Foolishness as being two women. Both women are trying to get the attention of the young man Solomon is writing to. Wisdom is like a good woman calling the young man to be wise and obey God. Foolishness is like a bad woman calling the young man to be foolish and do many kinds of sin.
22“You are foolish people. How long will you continue doing foolish things? How long will you make fun of wisdom? How long will you continue to hate knowledge? 23You should have listened to my advice and teaching. I would have told you everything I knew. I would have given you all of my knowledge.

24“But you refused to listen to me. I tried to help. I offered my hand—but you refused to accept my help. 25You turned away and ignored all of my advice. You refused to accept my words. 26So, I will laugh at your trouble. I will enjoy seeing trouble come to you! 27Great trouble will come to you like a bad storm. Problems will hit you like a strong wind. Your troubles and sadness will be a very great burden on you.

28“When all these things happen, you will ask for my help. But I will not help you. You will look for me, but you will not find me. 29I will not help because you never wanted my knowledge. You refused to fear and respect the Lord. 30You people refused to listen to my words of advice. You would not listen to me when I showed you the right way. 31You people lived the way you wanted to live. You followed your own advice. So now you must accept the result of your own actions!

32“Foolish people die because they refuse to follow wisdom. They are happy to continue in their foolish ways, and this will destroy them. 33But the person who obeys me will live safely. That person will be comfortable. He will not have to be afraid of evil.”

Listen to Wisdom

2My son, accept these things I say. Remember my commands. 3Listen to wisdom, and try your best to understand. 4Cry out for wisdom, and shout for understanding. 5Look for wisdom like silver. Look for it like a hidden treasure. 6If you do these things, then you will learn to respect the Lord. You will truly learn about God.

6The Lord gives wisdom. Knowledge and understanding come from his mouth. 7He saves and protects good, honest people. 8He protects people who are fair to other people. He guards his holy people.

9So the Lord will give you his wisdom. Then you will understand the things that are good and fair and right. 10Wisdom will come into your heart, and your soul will be happy with knowledge.

11Wisdom will protect you, and understanding will guard you. 12Wisdom and understanding will stop you from living the wrong way like evil people. Those people are evil even in the things they say. 13They have given up goodness and now live in darkness (sin). 14They are happy in doing wrong and enjoy the bad ways of evil. 15Those people can’t be trusted—they lie and cheat. But your wisdom and understanding will keep you away from all these things.

16Wisdom will save you from the woman stranger. Wisdom will save you from that foreign woman who says such sweet words when she tempts you to sin with her. 17She married when she was young—but she left her husband. She forgot the marriage vows she made before God. 18And now, going with her into her house leads to death! If you follow her, she will lead you to the grave! 19She herself is like the grave—men who go into her lose their life and never return.

20Wisdom will help you follow the example of good people. Wisdom will help you live the way good people live. 21Good honest people will be able to live on their land. Simple honest people will get to keep their land. 22But evil people will lose their land. People who lie and cheat will be taken away from the land.

Living Right Will Add to Your Life

3My son, don’t forget my teaching. Remember the things I tell you to do. 2The things I teach you will give you a longer, happier, and more peaceful life.

3Never stop loving. Always be loyal and true. [Make these things a part of yourself]—tie them around your neck and write them on your heart. 4Then you will be wise and pleasing to God and people!

Trust the Lord

5Trust the Lord completely! Don’t depend on your own knowledge. 6Think about God in all that you do. Then he will help you. 7Don’t depend on your own wisdom. But respect the Lord and stay away from evil. If you do this, then it will be like medicine for your body or a refreshing drink that makes you strong again.

Give to the Lord

Honor the Lord with your wealth. Give him the best you have. Then you will have all you need. Your barns will be full of grain and your barrels will be flowing over with wine.

Accept the Lord’s Punishment

My son, sometimes the Lord will show you that you are doing wrong. But don’t be angry about this punishment. Try to learn from it. Why? Because the Lord corrects the people he loves. Yes, God is like a father that corrects the son he loves.

The Blessings of Wisdom

The person who finds wisdom will be very happy. That person will be blessed when he begins to understand. The profit that comes from wisdom is better than silver. The profit from wisdom is better than fine gold! Wisdom is worth much more than jewels. Nothing you can want is as valuable as wisdom!

Wisdom gives you long life, riches, and honor. People with wisdom live peaceful, happy lives. Wisdom is like the Tree of Life.* It gives full life to people that accept it. People that keep wisdom will be truly happy!

The Lord used wisdom and understanding to make the earth and sky. The Lord used his knowledge to make the oceans and the clouds that produce rain.

My son, don’t ever let wisdom out of your sight! Guard your ability to think and plan wisely. Wisdom and understanding will give you life and make it more beautiful. Then you will live safely and you will not fall. When you lie down, you will not be afraid. When you rest, your sleep will be peaceful.

Don’t be afraid of some sudden disaster, the Lord will give you strength. And don’t be afraid of what evil people can do to you.* The Lord will protect you and keep you from being trapped.

The Wisdom of Living Right

Whenever you can, do good things for people who need help. If your neighbor asks you for something and you have it, then give it to him right then! Don’t tell him, “Come back tomorrow and get it.”

Don’t make plans to hurt your neighbor. You live near each other for your own safety!

Don’t take another person to court without a good reason. Don’t do that if he hasn’t done anything wrong to you.

Some people are easily angered and quickly do bad things. Don’t be like that.

Why? Because the Lord hates evil people and he supports good, honest people.

The Lord is against the families of evil people. But he blesses the homes of people who live right.

If a person is proud and makes fun of other people, the Lord will punish him and make fun of him. But the Lord is kind to humble people.

Wise people live a life that brings honor. Foolish people live a life that brings shame.

The Importance of Wisdom

Sons, listen to your father’s teachings. Pay attention so you will understand! Why? Because the things I teach you are important and good. So don’t ever forget my teachings.

I was young once too! I was my daddy’s little boy and my mother’s only son. And my father taught me these things. He said to me, “Remember the things I say. Obey my commands and you will live. Get wisdom and understanding! Don’t forget my words. Always follow my teachings. Don’t turn away from wisdom. Then wisdom will protect you. Love wisdom, and wisdom will keep you safe.”

Wisdom begins when you decide to get wisdom. So use everything you own to get wisdom! Then you will become wise. Love wisdom, and wisdom will make you great. Make wisdom most important, and wisdom

Tree of Life The tree whose fruit gives people the power to live forever. See Gen. 3:22 and Rev. 22:1–2.

And don’t ... do to you Or, “And don’t be afraid of the destruction that comes to evil people.”
PROVERBS 4:9–5:23

will bring you honor. 9 She (Wisdom) is the greatest thing that can happen to you.

10 Son, listen to me. Do the things I say, and you will live long. 11 I am teaching you about wisdom. I am leading you along the straight path. 12 Follow this path, and your feet won’t be caught in any trap. You can run and not stumble. 13 Always remember these lessons. They are your life!

14 Don’t follow the path evil people walk on. Don’t live like that. Don’t try to be like them. 15 Stay away from evil. Don’t go near it. Walk straight past it. 16 Bad people can’t sleep until they do something wrong. Those people can’t sleep until they hurt some other person.

17 Those people can’t live without doing evil and hurting other people.

18 Good people are like the early morning light. The sun rises and the day becomes brighter and happier. 19 But bad people are like a dark night. They are lost in the darkness and they fall over things they can’t see.

20 My son, pay attention to the things I say. Listen closely to my words. 21 Don’t let my words leave you. Remember the things I say.

22 My teaching will give life to people who listen. My words are like good health to the body.

23 The most important thing is for you to be careful in the things you think. Your thoughts control your life.

24 Don’t bend the truth and say things that are not right. Don’t tell lies. 25 Don’t let yourself turn away from the good and wise goals that are before you. 26 Be very careful what you do. Live a good life. 27 Don’t leave the straight path—the way that is good and right. But always turn away from evil.

The Wisdom of Avoiding Adultery

5 My son, listen to my wise teaching. Pay attention to my words of understanding. 2 Then you will remember to live wisely and watch what you say. 3 Another man’s wife might be very charming; the words from her lips so sweet and inviting. 4 But in the end, she will bring only bitterness and pain. It will be like bitter poison and a sharp sword! 5 She is on a path leading to death. She will lead you straight to the grave! 6 Don’t follow her! She has lost the right way and doesn’t know it. Be careful! Follow the way that leads to life!

Adultery Can Ruin You

7 Now my sons, listen to me. Don’t forget the words I say. 8 Stay away from the woman who does the sin of adultery. 9 Don’t even go near the door of her house. 10 If you do, then other people will get the honor you should have had. And some stranger will get all the things you worked years to get. 11 People you don’t know will take all your wealth. Other people will get the things you worked for.

12–13 Then you will say, “Why didn’t I listen to my parents? Why didn’t I listen to my teachers? I refused to be disciplined. I refused to be corrected. 14 So now I have suffered through almost every kind of trouble people can have—and everyone knows it!”

Enjoy Your Own Wife

15–16 Drink only the water that flows from your own well. And don’t let your water flow out into the streets. 17 You must have sexual relations only with your own wife. Don’t become the father of children outside your own home. 18 Your children should belong only to you. You should not have to share them with people out of your own home. 19 She is like a beautiful deer, a lovely fawn. Let her love satisfy you completely. Let her love intoxicate you always. 20 But don’t go staggering into the arms of another woman!

21 The Lord clearly sees everything you do. The Lord watches where you go. 22 The sins of an evil person will trap him. His sins will be like ropes holding him. 23 That evil person will die because he refused to be disciplined. He will be trapped by his own desires.

adultery Breaking the marriage promise by sexual sin.
Dangers of Helping a Person Get a Loan

6 My son, don’t make yourself responsible for another person’s debts. Don’t make such deals with friends or with strangers. 2 If you do, then you will be trapped. And you will have trapped yourself with your own words! 3 You are under that person’s power. So go to him and free yourself. Beg that person to free you from his debt. 4 Don’t even wait to rest or sleep. 5 Escape from that trap like a deer running from a hunter. Free yourself like a bird flying out of a trap.

The Dangers of Being Lazy

6 Lazy person, you should become like the ant. See what the ant does. Learn from the ant. 7 The ant has no ruler, no boss, no leader. 8 But during summer, the ant gathers all its food. The ant saves its food. And in the winter, it has plenty of food.

9 Lazy person, how long will you lie there? When will you get up from your rest? 10 The lazy person says, “I need a short nap. I will lie here for a short rest.” 11 But he sleeps and sleeps. And he becomes poorer and poorer. Soon he will have nothing! It will be like a robber has come and stolen everything.

The Evil Person

12 An evil and worthless person tells lies and says bad things. 13 He winks his eye and makes signs with his hands and feet to trick people. 14 That person is a troublemaker. He is always planning to do something bad. He makes trouble everywhere. 15 But he will be punished. All of a sudden, disaster will strike. He will suddenly be destroyed! And there will be no one to help him!

Seven Things That the Lord Hates

16 The Lord hates these six, no seven, things: 17 eyes that show a man is proud, tongues that tells lies, hands that kill innocent people, hearts that plan bad things to do, feet that run to do evil things, a person who tells lies in court and says things that are not true, a person who starts arguments and causes fights between other people.

Wisdom Will Keep You from Adultery

7 My son, remember my words. Don’t forget the commands I give you. 2 Obey my commands and you will have life. Make my teaching the most important thing in your life.

prostitute A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person who is not faithful to God and stops following him.
3 Keep my commands and teachings with you always. Tie them around your fingers. Write them on your heart. 4 Treat wisdom like a sister. Treat understanding like a part of your family. 5 Then they will protect you from the “other women.” They will protect you from their nice words that can lead you into sin.

6 One day I was looking out my window at some foolish teenagers and noticed one that was especially foolish. 8 He walked through the market place toward that bad woman’s corner and walked straight to her house. 9 It was almost dark—the sun was setting. The night was beginning. 10 The woman came out of the house to meet him. She was dressed like a prostitute. She had plans for the young man. 11 She was wild and rebellious. She wasn’t going to stay at home! 12 She walked the streets. She went everywhere looking for trouble. 13 She grabbed the young man and kissed him. Without any shame she looked him in the eye and said, “I had to offer a fellowship sacrifice today. I gave what I promised to give. Now I have plenty of food. So I came out to invite you to join me. I looked and looked for you. And now I found you! I put clean sheets on my bed. They are very beautiful sheets from Egypt. I put perfume on my bed. The myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon smell wonderful! Come, we can enjoy ourselves all night. We can make love until dawn. 19 My husband is gone. He is away on a business trip. 20 He took enough money with him for a long trip. He won’t come home for two weeks."

21 The woman used those words to tempt the young man. Her smooth words tricked him. 22 And the young man followed her to the trap. He was like a bull being led to the slaughter. He was like a deer walking into a trap, with a hunter ready to put an arrow through its heart. The boy was like a bird flying into a net. He didn’t know the danger he was in.

24 Now sons, listen to me. Pay attention to the words I say. 25 Don’t let your heart lead you toward an evil woman—don’t follow where she wants to lead you. Don’t follow her ways. 26 She has caused many men to fall. She has destroyed many men. 27 Her house is the place of death. Her path leads straight to death!

Wisdom, the Good Woman

8 Listen! Wisdom and Understanding are calling for you to listen.
2 They stand at the top of the hill by the road where the paths meet.
3 They are near the gates of the city. They are calling out from the open doors.

4 Wisdom says, “Men, I call out to you. I call out to all people.
5 If you are foolish, learn to be wise. Foolish men, learn to understand.
6 Listen! The things I teach are important. I tell you things that are right.
7 My words are true. I hate evil lies.
8 The things I say are right. There is nothing false or wrong in my words.
9 All these sayings are clear to the person who has understanding. The person with knowledge understands these things.
10 Accept my discipline. It is worth more than silver. It is worth more than the best gold.
11 Wisdom is worth more than pearls. It is worth more than anything a person can want.”

What Wisdom Does

12 “I am Wisdom. I live with good judgment. You can find me with Knowledge and Good Planning.
13 If a person respects the Lord, then that person will hate evil. I (Wisdom) hate pride and people who think they are better than other people. I hate evil ways, and a lying mouth.
14 But I give people the ability to make good decisions and have good judgment. I give understanding and power! Kings use me to rule. Rulers use me to make fair laws. Every good ruler on earth uses me to rule the people under them. I love people who love me. And if people try hard to find me, they will find me. I also have riches and honor to give. I give true wealth and success. The things I give are better than fine gold. And my gifts are better than pure silver. I lead people in the right way. I lead them along the paths of right judgment. I give wealth to people who love me. Yes, I fill their houses with treasures. I was the first thing the Lord made, long ago in the beginning. I was made in the beginning. I was made first, before the world. I was formed before the oceans; I was made before there was water. I was born before the mountains. I was born before the hills. I was born before the Lord made the earth. I was born before the fields. I was born before God made the first dust of the world. I was there when the Lord made the skies. I was there when the Lord drew the circle around the land and set the limits for the ocean. I was born before the Lord put the clouds in the sky. And I was there when the Lord put water in the ocean. I was there when the Lord set the limits for water in the seas. The water can’t rise higher than the Lord allows. I was there when the Lord made the foundations of the earth. I was beside him like a skilled worker. The Lord was happy every day because of me.

31 The Lord was excited about the world he made. He was happy about the people that he put there.

32 “Now, children, listen to me! You can be happy too, if you follow my ways!

33 Listen to my teachings and become wise. Don’t refuse to listen.

34 The person who listens to me will be happy. He watches every day at my doors. He waits at my doorway.

35 Any person who finds me finds life. He will get good things from the Lord!

36 But the person who sins against me hurts himself. All people who hate me love death!”

Wisdom and Stupidity

Wisdom built her house. She put the seven columns* in it. She cooked meat and made wine. She put food on her table. And then she sent her servants to town to invite people to come up to the hill in the city and eat with her. She said, “Come, you people who need to learn.” She also invited foolish people. She said, “Come, eat the food of my wisdom. And drink the wine that I have made. Leave your old, foolish ways, and you will have life. Follow the way of understanding.”

7 If you try to show a proud man that he is wrong, then he will only criticize you. That man only makes fun of God’s wisdom. If you tell an evil man that he is wrong, then he will make fun of you. So, if a man thinks that he is better than other people, don’t tell him that he is wrong. He will hate you for it. But if you try to help a wise man then he will respect you. If you teach a wise man, then he will become wiser. If you teach a good man, then he will learn more.

seven columns In ancient Israel, many houses had four main rooms with seven columns to support the roof. This shows Wisdom had a good house with a solid foundation.
10Respect for the Lord is the first step toward getting wisdom. Getting knowledge of the Lord is the first step toward getting understanding.
11If you are wise, then your life will be longer.
12If you become wise, then you have become wise for your own good. But if you become proud and make fun of other people, then only you are to blame for your trouble.
13A foolish person is like a loud, evil woman. She does not have knowledge. She sits at the door of her house. She sits on her chair on the hill in the city. And when people walk by, she calls out to them. Those people are not interested in her, but she says, "Come you people who need to learn." She also invited foolish people. But she (Foolishness) says, "If you steal water, it tastes better than your own. If you steal bread, it tastes better than the bread you cook yourself."
14And those poor foolish people didn’t know that her house was filled only with ghosts. She (Foolishness) had invited them into the deepest parts of the place of death!

Solomon’s Proverbs

These are the proverbs (wise sayings) of Solomon:
1A wise son makes his father happy. But a foolish son makes his mother very sad.
2If a person gets money by doing bad things, then that money is worthless. But doing good can save you from death.
3The Lord cares for good people. He gives them the food they need. But the Lord takes away the things that evil people want.
4A lazy person will be poor. But a person that works hard will be rich.
5A smart man gathers the crops at the right time. But if a person sleeps during the time of harvest and does not gather the crops, then he will be shamed.
6People ask God to bless a good person. Evil people might say those good things, but their words only hide the bad things they are planning.*
7Good people leave good memories. But evil people will soon be forgotten.
8A wise person obeys when someone tells him to do something. But a fool argues and brings trouble to himself.
9A good, honest person is safe. But a crooked person who cheats will be caught.
10A person who hides the truth causes trouble. A person who speaks openly makes peace.*
11A good man’s words make life better. But the words from an evil man only shows the bad that is inside him.*
12Hate causes arguments. But love forgives every wrong thing people do.
13Wise people say things that are worth hearing. But foolish people must be punished [before they learn their lesson].
14Wise people [are quiet] and learn new things. But foolish people talk and bring trouble to themselves.
15Wealth protects the rich person. And poverty destroys a poor person.
16If a person does good, then he is rewarded. He is given life. Evil brings only punishment.
17A person who learns from his punishment can help other people live too. But a person who refuses to learn only leads people the wrong way.
18A person who hides his hate might be telling a lie. But only a fool tries to find gossip he can spread.
19A person who talks too much gets himself into trouble. A wise person learns to be quiet.
20The words from a good person are like pure silver. But the thoughts from an evil person are worthless.
21A good person’s words will help many people. But a fool’s stupidity will kill him.
22A blessing from the Lord will bring you true wealth. And it won’t bring troubles with it.
23The foolish person enjoys doing wrong. But a wise person is happy with wisdom.
24An evil person will be defeated by the things he fears. But a good person will get the things that he wants.

Evil people … planning Or, “But violence will cover the mouth of evil people.”
25Evil people are destroyed by their trouble. But good people will stand strong forever.
26Never let a lazy man do something for you. He will irritate you—like vinegar in your mouth or smoke in your eyes.
27If you respect the Lord, then you will live long. But evil people will lose years from their life.
28The things good people hope for bring happiness. The things bad people hope for bring ruin.
29The Lord protects good people. But the Lord destroys people that do wrong.
30Good people will always be safe. But evil people will be forced to leave the land.
31Good people say wise things. But people will stop listening to a person that says things that bring trouble.
32Good people know the right things to say. But evil people say things that bring trouble.
11Some people use scales that don’t weigh things properly. They use those scales to cheat people. The Lord hates those false scales. But accurate scales please the Lord.
2People that are proud and boast will become unimportant. But people who are humble will also become wise.
3Good, honest people are guided by honesty. But evil people destroy themselves when they cheat other people.
4On the day God judges people, money is worth nothing. But goodness will save people from death.
5If a good person is honest, then his life will be easy. But an evil person is destroyed by the bad things he does.
6Goodness saves the honest person. But evil people are trapped by the bad things they want.
7After an evil man dies, there is no hope for him. Everything he hoped for is gone—all of it is worth nothing.
8A good person will escape trouble, and that trouble will happen to some evil person.
9An evil person can hurt other people by the things he says. But good people are protected by their wisdom.
10When good people are successful, all the city is happy. When evil people are destroyed, people shout with joy.
11A city becomes great when the honest people living there give it their blessing. But the things an evil person says can destroy a city.
12A person without good sense says bad things about his neighbors. But a wise man knows when to be quiet.
13Any person who tells secrets about other people can’t be trusted. But a person that can be trusted does not spread gossip.
14A nation with weak leaders will fall. But many good advisers will make that nation safe.
15If you promise to pay another person’s debt, then you will be sorry. You will be safe if you refuse to make those deals.
16A kind, gentle woman gains respect. Pushy men gain only money.
17A kind man will profit. But a mean man will cause trouble for himself.
18An evil man cheats people and takes their money. But a person that is fair and does right will get the real reward.
19Truly, goodness brings life. But evil people chase after evil and find death.
20The Lord hates people that love to do evil. But he is happy with people that try to do right.
21It is true that evil people will surely be punished. And good people will be made free.
22If a woman is beautiful but foolish, it is the same as a beautiful gold ring in a pig’s nose.
23When good people get what they want, it brings more good. But when evil people get what they want, it brings only trouble.
24If a person gives freely, then he will gain even more. But if a person refuses to give, then he will become poor.
25A person who gives freely will profit. If you help others, then you will gain more for yourself.
26People become angry at a greedy man who refuses to sell his grain. But they are happy with a man who sells his grain to feed other people.
27People respect a person who tries to do good. But a person who does evil gets nothing but trouble.
28The person who trusts in his riches will fall like a dead leaf. But the good person will grow like a new green leaf.
29If a person causes trouble for his family, then he will gain nothing. And in the end, the
The things a good man does are like the Tree of Life.* A wise man gives new life to people.*

If good people are rewarded on earth, then surely evil people will also get what they deserve.

12 If a person wants to be wise, then he is not angry if someone tells him when he does wrong. The person who hates to be told that he is wrong is stupid.

The Lord is happy with a good person. But the Lord judges an evil person to be guilty.

Evil people are never safe. But good people will be safe and secure.

A husband is happy and proud with a good wife. But if a woman makes her husband ashamed, then she is like a sickness in his body.

Good people are fair and honest in the things they plan to do. But don’t trust the things an evil person tells you.

Evil people use their words to hurt other people. But the words of a good person can save people from danger.

Evil people are destroyed and there is nothing left. But people remember a good man long after he is gone.

People praise a wise man. But people don’t respect a stupid person.

It is better to be a person who is not important but works hard than to be a person who pretends to be important but has no food.

A good man cares for his animals. But evil people can’t be kind.

The farmer that works with his land will have enough food. But the person who wastes time on worthless ideas is foolish.

Evil people always want to find wrong things to do. But good people have strength that goes deep like roots.

An evil person says foolish things and is trapped by his words. But a good person escapes from that kind of trouble.

A wise son listens carefully when his father tells him what to do. But a proud person does not listen when people try to correct him.

Good people are rewarded for the good things they say. But evil people always want to do wrong.
The person who is careful about the things he says will save his life. But the person who speaks without thinking will be destroyed.

The lazy person wants things, but he can never get them. But people who work hard will get the things they want.

Good people hate lies. Evil people will be made ashamed.

Goodness protects a good, honest person. But evil defeats the person that loves to sin.

Some people act like they are rich, but they have nothing. Other people act like they are poor, but they are really rich.

A rich person might have to pay a ransom to save his life. But poor people never receive threats like that.

A good person is like a light that shines brightly. But an evil person is like a light that becomes dark.

People who think they are better than other people only cause trouble. But people who listen to the things other people tell them are wise.

If a person cheats to get money, then that money will soon be gone. But the person who earns his money will make it grow more and more.

If there is no hope, then the heart is sad. If the thing you wish for happens, then you are filled with joy.

If a person refuses to listen when other people try to help him, then he will bring trouble to himself. But the person who respects the things other people tell him, will be rewarded.

The teachings of a wise person give life. Those words will help you in times of trouble.

People like a person with good sense. But life is hard for a person who can’t be trusted.

A wise person always thinks before he does something. But a foolish person shows he is stupid by the things he does.

If a messenger cannot be trusted, then there will be trouble around him. But if a person can be trusted, then there will be peace.

If a person refuses to learn from his mistakes, then he will be poor and ashamed. But if a person listens when he is criticized or punished, then he will profit.
9 A foolish person laughs at the idea of paying for the bad things he did. But good people try very hard to get forgiveness.

10 If a person is sad, he is the only one that can feel that sadness. In the same way, if a person is happy, he is the only one that can feel that joy.

11 The house of an evil person will be destroyed. But the home of a good person will live forever.

12 There is a way that people think is right. But that way leads only to death.

13 A person might be sad, even if he is laughing. And after the laughter, the sadness will still be there.

14 Evil people will be fully paid (punished) for the wrong things they do. And good people will be fully rewarded for the good things they do.

15 A fool will believe anything he hears. But a wise man thinks carefully about everything.

16 A wise man respects the Lord and stays away from evil. But a foolish man does things without thinking—he is not careful.

17 A person who becomes angry easily does foolish things. But a wise person is patient.

18 Foolish people are punished for their foolishness. But wise people are rewarded with knowledge.

19 Good people will win against evil people. Evil people will be forced to bow down to them.

20 A poor person has no friends, not even his neighbor. But rich people have many friends.

21 You should not think bad things about your neighbors. If you want to be happy, be kind to those poor people.

22 Any person who plans to do evil is doing wrong. But the person that tries to do good will have friends that love and trust him.

23 If you work hard, then you will have the things you need. But if you do nothing but talk, then you will be poor.

24 Wise people are rewarded by wealth. But foolish people are rewarded by foolishness.

25 A person who tells the truth helps other people. The person who tells lies hurts other people.

26 The person who respects the Lord is safe and his children also live in safety.

27 Respect for the Lord gives true life. It saves a person from death’s trap.

28 A large, wealthy nation brings honor to a king, but a nation suffering famine brings shame.*

29 A patient person is very smart. A person who is easily angered shows that he is a fool.

30 If a person has peace in his mind, then his body will be healthy. But jealousy causes sickness in his body.

31 The person that causes trouble for poor people shows that he does not respect God—God made both people. But if a person is kind to poor people, then he shows honor to God.

32 During times of trouble, evil people are defeated. But good people win a victory even during death.

33 A wise person is always thinking wise things. But a foolish person knows nothing about wisdom.

34 Goodness makes a nation great. But sin is a shame to any people.

35 A king is happy when he has wise leaders. But a king is angry with leaders that are foolish.

36 A peaceful answer causes anger to disappear. But a rough answer causes anger to grow.

37 When a wise person speaks, other people want to listen. But a foolish person speaks only foolishness.

38 The Lord sees what happens everywhere. The Lord watches every person—good and evil.

39 Kind words are like a Tree of Life.* But lying words will crush a man’s spirit.

40 A foolish person refuses to listen to his father’s advice. But a wise person listens closely when people try to teach him.

41 Good people are rich in many things. But the things that an evil person has only cause him trouble.

42 Wise people say things that give you new information. But foolish people say nothing worth hearing.

43 The Lord hates the offerings that evil people give. But the Lord is happy to hear a good person’s prayers.

shame Literally, “nothing.”

Tree of Life The tree whose fruit gives people the power to live forever. See Gen. 3:22 and Rev. 22:1-2.
9 The Lord hates the way evil people live. The Lord loves people who try to do good.
10 If a person begins to live wrong, then he will be punished. And the person that hates to be corrected will be destroyed.
11 The Lord knows everything, even what happens in the place of death. So surely the Lord will know what happens in the hearts and minds of people.
12 The foolish person hates to be told when he is wrong. And that person refuses to ask wise people for advice.
13 If a person is happy, then his face will show joy. But if a person is sad in his heart, then his spirit will show that sadness.
14 A wise person tries to gain more knowledge. But a foolish person only wants more foolishness.
15 Some poor people are sad all the time. But for people with happiness in their hearts, life is one big party.
16 It is better to be poor and respect the Lord than to be rich and have many troubles.
17 It is better to eat a little in a place where there is love, than to eat a lot where there is hate.
18 People that are easily angered cause trouble. But a patient person causes peace.
19 A lazy person will have trouble everywhere. But life will be easy for honest people.
20 A wise son brings happiness to his father. But a foolish person brings shame to his mother.
21 Doing foolish things makes a foolish person happy. But a wise person is careful to do the things that are right.
22 If a person does not get enough advice, then his plans will fail. But a person will succeed if he listens to the things wise people tell him.
23 A person is happy when he gives a good answer. And the right word at the right time is very good.
24 The things a wise person does leads to life here on earth* and stop him from going down to the place of death.

25 The Lord will destroy everything a proud person has. But the Lord protects the things that a widow has.
26 The Lord hates evil thoughts. But the Lord is happy with kind words.
27 If a person cheats to get things, then he will bring trouble to his family. But if a person is honest, then he will have no trouble.
28 Good people think before they answer. But evil people speak before they think, and that causes them trouble.
29 The Lord is far away from evil people. But he always hears the prayers of good people.
30 A person that smiles makes other people happy. And good news makes people feel better.
31 A person is very wise if he listens when someone tells him that he has done wrong.
32 If a person refuses to learn, then he is only hurting himself. But the person who listens when someone tells him he is wrong, will understand more and more.
33 The person who respects the Lord is learning to be wise. A person must be humble before he can truly respect the Lord.

People make their plans. But it is the Lord who makes those things happen.

2 A person thinks everything he does is right. But the Lord judges the real reasons people do things.
3 Always turn to the Lord for help in everything you do, and you will be successful.
4 The Lord has a plan for everything. And in the Lord’s plan, evil people will be destroyed.
5 The Lord hates every person who thinks that he is better than other people. The Lord will surely punish all those proud people.
6 True love and loyalty will make you pure.* Respect the Lord, and you will stay far away from evil.
7 If a person is living a good life, pleasing to the Lord, then even that person’s enemies will be at peace with him.
8 It is better to gain only a little the right way than to gain much through cheating.

*here on earth Literally, “above,” that is, “above the ground (grave).”
make ... pure Or, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover or erase a person’s sins.”
9A person can make plans about the things that he wants to do. But it is the Lord who decides what will happen.

10When a king speaks, his words are law. His decisions should always be fair.

11The Lord wants all scales and balances to be honest. He wants all business agreements to be fair.

12Kings hate people who do evil. Goodness will make his kingdom stronger.

13Kings want to hear the truth. Kings like people who don’t lie.

14When a king is angry, he can kill someone. And a wise person will try to keep the king happy.

15When the king is happy, life will be better for everyone. If the king is pleased with you, then it will be like spring rain falling from a cloud.

16Wisdom is worth much more than gold. Understanding is worth much more than silver.

17Good people live their lives trying to stay away from evil. The person who is careful with his life, is guarding his soul.

18If a person is proud, then he is in danger of destruction. If a person thinks he is better than other people, then he is in danger of defeat.

19It is better to be humble and live with poor people than to share wealth with people who think they are better than other people.

20The person who listens when people try to teach him will profit. And the person who trusts in the Lord will be blessed.

21People will know if a person is wise. And a person that carefully chooses his words can be very persuasive.

22Wisdom brings true life to people who have it. But fools only learn to be more foolish.

23A wise man always thinks before he speaks. And the words he says are good and worth hearing.

24Kind words are like honey. They are easy to accept and good for your health.

25There is a way that seems right to people. But that way leads only to death.

26A worker’s appetite keeps him working. His hunger makes him work so that he can eat.

27A worthless person plans bad things to do. His advice destroys like fire. 28 A troublemaker is always causing problems.

That person spreads gossip and causes trouble between close friends.

29A troublemaker causes a lot of trouble for his friends. He will lead them in a way that is not good.

30That person winks his eye while planning something destructive. He smiles while he is planning to hurt his neighbor.

31Gray hair is the crown of glory on people who have lived good lives.

32It is better to be patient than to be a strong soldier. It is better to control your anger than to take control over a whole city.

33People throw lots* to make decisions. But the decisions always come from God.

17It is better to have only a dry piece of bread to eat in peace than to have a whole house full of food with everyone arguing.

2A smart servant will gain control over his master’s foolish son. That wise servant will be treated like a son and get a share of the inheritance.

3Gold and silver are put into fire to make them pure. But the Lord is the One who makes peoples’ hearts pure.

4An evil person listens to the evil things other people say. People who tell lies also listen to lies.

5Some people make fun of poor people. They laugh at people who have problems. This shows that those bad people don’t respect God who made them. These bad people will be punished.

6Grandchildren make old people happy. And children are proud of their parents.

7It is not wise for a fool to speak too much. In the same way, it is not wise for a ruler to tell lies.

8Some people think a bribe is like a lucky charm—wherever they go, it seems to work.

9If you forgive a person who does wrong to you, then you can be friends. But if you continue to remember the wrong that he did, then it will hurt your friendship.

10A smart person learns from the things he does wrong. But a fool learns nothing, even after a hundred lessons.

Lots Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions.
11 An evil person only wants to do wrong. In the end, God will send a messenger to punish him.
12 It is very dangerous to meet a mother bear that is angry because her cubs are stolen. But that is better than to meet a fool that is busy doing his foolishness.
13 Don’t do bad things to people who do good things to you. If you do, then you will have trouble for the rest of your life.
14 If you start an argument, it is like breaking a hole in a dam. So stop the argument before it becomes bigger and bigger.
15 The Lord hates these two things—punishing someone that has done nothing wrong, and forgiving someone that is guilty.
16 If a foolish person has money, it is wasted. Why? Because that foolish person does not use the money to become wise.
17 A friend loves at all times. A true brother always supports you, even in times of trouble.
18 Only a fool will promise to be responsible for another person’s debts.
19 A troublemaker loves to start arguments. A person that likes to brag is setting himself up for a fall. Both of them will end up in trouble.*
20 A crooked person will not get a good profit. A liar will get into bad trouble.
21 A father with a foolish son will be very sad. A fool’s father won’t be happy.
22 Happiness is like good medicine. But sorrow is like a sickness.
23 An evil person accepts secret payment for cheating other people.
24 The wise man is always thinking of the best thing to do. But a foolish person is always dreaming about faraway places.
25 A foolish son brings sorrow to his father. And a foolish son brings sadness to the mother that gave birth to him.
26 It is wrong to punish a person who has done nothing wrong. It is wrong to punish leaders when they are honest.
27 A wise person uses words carefully. A wise person does not become angry easily.

A troublemaker ... in trouble This parable is hard to translate because of several word plays in Hebrew.

28 Even a fool seems wise if he keeps quiet. People think he is wise if he doesn’t say anything.
18 Some people like to do things their own way. They get upset when people give them advice.
2 A foolish person doesn’t want to learn from other people. That person only wants to tell his own ideas.
3 People don’t like an evil person. People make fun of that foolish person.
4 The words of a wise man are like water bubbling up from a deep well—the well of wisdom!
5 You must be fair in judging people. If you let guilty people go free then you are not being fair to good people.
6 A foolish person causes himself trouble with the things he says. His words can start fights.
7 When a foolish person talks, he ruins himself. His own words trap him.
8 People always want to hear gossip—it is like good food going down into the stomach.
9 A person that does sloppy work is almost as bad as a person that destroys things.
10 There is much strength in the name of the Lord. It is like a strong tower. Good people can run to him and be safe.
11 Rich people think that their wealth will protect them. They think that it is like a strong fort.
12 A proud person will soon be ruined. But an humble person will be honored.
13 You should let other people finish speaking before you try to answer them. That way you won’t be embarrassed and appear foolish.
14 A good attitude gives a person support when he is ill, but no one can cheer up a person with a bad attitude.
15 The wise person always wants to learn more. That person listens closely for more wisdom.
16 If you want to meet an important person, give him a gift. Then you can easily get to meet him.
17 The first person to speak always seems right until someone comes and questions him.

cheer up Literally, “lift up” or “heal.”
If two powerful people are arguing, throwing lots* may be the best way to decide the argument.

If you insult your friend, then he will be harder to win back than a city with strong walls. And arguments separate people like palace gates with strong bars across them.

The things you say affect your life. If you say good things, then good things will happen to you. But if you say bad things, then bad things will happen to you.

The tongue can speak words that bring life or death. And people who love to talk must be ready to accept what it brings.

If you find a wife, then you have found a good thing. She shows that the Lord is happy with you.

A poor person will beg for help, but a rich person is rude when he answers.

Some friends are fun to be with.* But a close friend can be even better than a brother.

It is better to be poor and honest than to be a fool that tells lies and cheats people.

Being excited about something is not enough. You must also know what you are doing. You should not rush into something or you will do it wrong.

A person’s own foolishness will ruin his life. But he will blame the Lord.

If a person is rich, then his wealth will bring him many friends. But if a person is poor, all his friends will leave him.

A person who tells a lie against another person will be punished. The person who tells lies will not be safe.

Many people want to be friends with a generous person. Everyone wants to be the friend of a person who gives gifts.

If a person is poor, then even his family is against him. And all of his friends turn away from him. That poor person can beg them for help. But they will not go near him.

If a person really likes himself, then he will work hard to become wise. He will try hard to understand, and he will get his reward.

A lying witness must be punished! The person who tells lies will be destroyed.

A foolish person should not be rich. That would be like a slave ruling over princes.

If a person is wise, that wisdom gives him patience. And it is wonderful when he forgives people who do wrong to him.

Angry words from a king are like the roars of a lion. But compliments from him are like a gentle rain falling softly on the grass.

A foolish son can bring a flood of troubles to his father. And a nagging wife is like water that won’t stop dripping.

People get houses and money from their parents. But a good wife is a gift from the Lord.

Laziness brings sleepiness. Trying to hide a problem brings more problems.*

If a person obeys the law, then he protects himself. But the person that hates to live by the law will die by the law.

Giving money to poor people is like loaning it to the Lord. The Lord will pay you back for being kind to them.

Teach your son and punish him when he is wrong. That is the only hope. If you refuse to do this, then you are helping him destroy himself.

A person with a short temper must pay the price. The more you get him out of trouble, the worse he becomes.

Listen to advice and accept discipline. Then you will become wise.

People get a lot of ideas, but only the Lord’s plan will happen.

People want a friend they can trust. It is better to be poor than to be a liar.

A person who respects the Lord has a good life. That person is satisfied with his life and doesn’t have to worry about troubles.

Some people are too lazy to take care of themselves—they are too lazy to lift their food from their plate to their mouth!

Some people show no respect for anything—those foolish people must be punished and forced to learn their lesson. But for a wise person, it’s enough just to tell them that they did wrong.

lots  Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions.

Some friends are fun to be with  Or, “Some friends can bring disaster.”
A person who steals from his father and chases his mother away is a disgusting, shameful person.

If you stop listening to instructions, then you will keep making stupid mistakes.

A lying witness makes justice nothing but a joke! The things evil people say bring more evil.

The person who thinks that he is better than other people will be punished. That foolish person must be punished!

Wine and beer make people lose control of themselves. They get loud and start to brag. They become drunk and do foolish things.

The anger of a king is like the roar of a lion. If you make the king angry, then you could lose your life.

Any fool can start an argument. So you should respect a person who refuses to argue.

A lazy person is too lazy to plant seeds. So, at the time of harvest he looks for food and finds nothing.

Good advice is like getting water from a deep well. But a wise person will try hard to learn from another person.

Many people call a person "friend." But it is really hard to find a person that can really be trusted.

A good person lives a good life. And his children will be blessed.

When the king sits and judges people, he must look carefully to separate the evil from the good.

Can any person really say that he has always done his best? Can any person really say that he has no sin? [No!]

The Lord hates people that cheat other people using weights and measures that are not fair.

Even a child shows that he is good or bad by the things he does. You can watch that child and know if he is honest and good.

The Lord gave us eyes to see with and ears to hear with—use them!

If you love to sleep, then you will become poor. But use your time working and you will have plenty to eat.

The person who buys something from you always says, "It’s no good! It costs too much!" Then that person goes away and tells other people that he made a good deal.

Gold and jewels can make a man rich. But a person who knows what he is talking about is worth much, much more.

You will lose your shirt if you make yourself responsible for another man’s debts.

If you get something by cheating, it may seem like a good thing. But in the end it will be worth nothing.

Get good advice before you make plans. If you are starting a war, find good people to guide you.

A person who tells gossip about other people can’t be trusted. So don’t be friends with a person who talks too much.

If a person curses* his father or mother, then he is like a person whose light stops shining in the darkest darkness.

If your wealth was very easy to get, it will not be worth much to you.

If someone does something against you, don’t try to punish him yourself. Wait for the Lord! In the end, he will make you the winner.

Some people use weights and scales that are not accurate. They use those things so they can cheat people. The Lord hates that. That does not make him happy!

The Lord decides what happens to every person. So how can any person understand what happens in his life?

Think carefully before you promise to give something to God. Later you might wish that you had not made that promise.

A wise king will decide which people are evil. And that king will punish those people.

A person’s spirit is like a lamp to the Lord. The Lord is able to see into the deepest parts of a person.*

If a king is loyal and true, then he will keep his power. His true love will keep his kingdom strong.

We admire a young man for his strength. But we respect an old man for his gray hair—it shows he lived a full life.

If we are punished, we will stop doing wrong. Pain can change a person.

curse To ask for bad things to happen to someone.

A person’s spirit ... person Or, “The Lord examines a person’s breath (spirit) and searches his deepest thoughts.”
To the Lord, a king’s mind is like a small ditch used to water the fields. The Lord can lead the king wherever he wants him to go.

A person thinks everything he does is right. But the Lord judges the real reasons people do things.

Do the things that are right and fair. The Lord loves that better than sacrifices.

Proud looks and proud thoughts are sins. They show a person is evil.

Careful plans can lead to profit. But if you are not careful, and you do things too quickly, then you will become poor.

If you cheat to become rich, then your wealth will soon be gone. And your riches will lead you to death.

The bad things that evil people do will destroy them. Those people refuse to do what is right.

Bad people always try to cheat other people. But good people are honest and fair.

It is better to live in a small corner of the attic than to share the house with a woman that is always arguing.

Evil people always want to do more evil. And those people show no mercy to people around them.

Punish the person who makes fun of God and foolish people will learn a lesson. They will become wise. And then they will gain more and more knowledge.

God is good. God knows what evil people are doing, and he will punish them.

If a person refuses to help poor people, then there will be no help for him when he needs it.

If a person is angry with you, give him a gift in secret. A gift that is given in secret can stop great anger.

Fair judgment makes good people happy. But it makes evil people very afraid.

If a person leaves the way of wisdom, then he is going toward destruction.

If having fun is the most important thing to a person, then that person will become poor. If that person loves wine and food, then he will never be rich.

Evil people have to pay for all the bad things they do to good people. People who are not honest have to pay for the things they do to honest people.

It is better to live in the desert than to live with a wife that has a short temper and loves to argue.

A wise person saves the things he needs. But a foolish person uses everything as fast as he gets it.

The person that always tries to show love and kindness will have a good life, wealth, and honor.

A wise person can do almost anything. He can attack a city defended by strong men. And he can destroy the walls that they trusted to save them.

If a person is careful about the things he says, then he saves himself from trouble.

A proud person thinks he is better than other people. He shows that he is evil by the things he does.

A lazy person destroys himself when he wants more and more. He destroys himself because he refuses to work for those things. But a good person can give because he has plenty.

The Lord is not happy when evil people offer him sacrifices, especially when those evil people are trying to get something from him.

A person who tells lies will be destroyed. Any person who listens to those lies will be destroyed with him.

A good person always knows that he is right. But an evil person has to pretend.

There is no person who is wise enough to make a plan that can succeed if the Lord is against it.

People can prepare everything for a battle, even the horses. But they can’t win unless the Lord gives them the victory.

It is better to be respected than to be rich. A good name is more important than silver or gold.

Rich people and poor people are the same. The Lord made them all.

Wise people see trouble coming and get out of its way. But foolish people go straight to the trouble and suffer because of it.
Respect the Lord and be humble. Then you will have wealth, honor, and true life.

Evil people are trapped by many troubles. But the person who cares for his soul stays away from trouble.

Teach a child the right way to live while he is young. Then when he grows older, he will continue living that way.

Poor people are slaves to rich people. The person who borrows is a servant to the person who lends.

A person who spreads trouble will harvest trouble. And in the end, that person will be destroyed because of the trouble he gave other people.

A person who gives freely will be blessed. He will be blessed because he shares his food with poor people.

If a person thinks he is better than other people, force him to leave. When that person leaves, trouble will leave with him. Then arguments and bragging will end.

The king will be your friend if you love a pure heart and kind words.

The Lord watches over and protects people who know him. But he destroys people who turn against him.

The lazy person says, “I can’t go to work now. There is a lion outside. It might kill me.”

The sin of adultery is like a trap. The Lord will become very angry at the person who falls into that trap.

Children do foolish things. But if you punish them, they will learn not to do those things.

These two things will make you poor—hurting poor people to make yourself rich, and giving gifts to rich people.

Thirty Wise Sayings

Listen to the things that I say. I will teach you the things wise men have said. Learn from these teachings. It will be good for you if you remember these things. It will help you if you can say these words. I will teach you these things now. I want you to trust the Lord. I have written 30 sayings for you. These are words of advice and wisdom. These words will teach you true and important things. Then you can give good answers to the one that sent you.

It is easy to steal from poor people, but don’t do it. And don’t take advantage of those poor people in court. The Lord is on their side. He supports them and he will take things away from any person that takes from them.

Don’t be friends with a person who becomes angry easily. Don’t go near a person who becomes mad fast. If you do, you may learn to be like him. Then you will have the same troubles he has.

Don’t promise to be responsible for another person’s debts. If you can’t pay his debt, then you will lose everything you have. Why should you lose the bed you sleep on?

Never move an old property line that was marked long ago by your ancestors.*

If a person is skilled in his work, then he is good enough to serve kings. He will not have to work for people who are not important.

When you sit and eat with an important man, remember who you are with.

Never eat too much, even if you are very hungry. And don’t eat too much of the fine food he serves. It might be a trick.

Don’t ruin your health trying to become rich. If you are wise, you will be patient. Money goes very quickly, as if it grows wings and flies away like a bird.

Don’t eat with a selfish person. And stay away from the special foods he likes. He is the kind of man who is always thinking about the cost. He might say to you, “Eat and drink.” But that is not really what he wants.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
And if you eat his food, then you will become sick. And you will be embarrassed.

Don’t try to teach a fool. He will make fun of your wise words.

Never move an old property line. And never take land that belongs to orphans. The Lord will be against you. The Lord is powerful and he defends those orphans.

Listen to your teacher and learn all you can.

Always punish a child if it needs it. It will not hurt him to spank him. If you spank him, you may save his life.

My son, if you become wise, then I will be very happy. I will be happy in my heart if I hear you say things that are right.

Don’t be jealous of evil people. But always try as hard as you can to respect the Lord. There is always hope. And that hope will never be gone.

So listen, my son, and be wise. Always be careful to live the right way. Don’t be friends with people who drink too much wine and eat too much food. People who drink too much and eat too much become poor. All they do is eat, drink, sleep, and soon they have nothing.

Listen to the things your father tells you. Without your father, you would never have been born. And respect your mother, even when she is old. Truth, wisdom, learning, and understanding are worth paying money for. And they are worth far too much to ever sell. The father of a good person is very happy. If a person has a wise child, then that child brings joy. So let your father and mother be happy with you. Let your mother have joy.

My son, listen closely to what I am saying. Let my life be your example. Prostitutes and bad women are a trap. They are like a deep well that you can’t get out of. A bad woman waits for you like a thief. And she causes many men to become sinners.

It will be very bad for people who drink too much wine and strong drinks. Those people have many fights and arguments. Their eyes are red and they stumble and hurt themselves. They could have avoided all those troubles! So be careful with wine. It is pretty and red. It sparkles in the cup. And it goes down so smooth when you drink it. But in the end it bites like a snake.

Wine will cause you to see strange things. Your mind will be confused. When you lie down, you will think you are on a rough sea. You feel like you are lying on a ship. You will say, “They hit me but I never felt it. They beat me but I don’t remember it. Now I can’t wake up. I need another drink.”

Don’t be jealous of evil people. Don’t even want to be around them. In their hearts they plan to do evil. All they talk about is making trouble.

Good homes are built on wisdom and understanding. And knowledge fills the rooms with rare and beautiful treasures.

Wisdom makes a man more powerful. Knowledge gives a man strength. You must make careful plans before you start a war. If you want to win, you must have many good advisers.

Foolish people can’t understand wisdom. And when people are discussing important things, the foolish person can say nothing.
If you are always planning trouble, then people will know that you are a person who makes trouble. And they will not listen to you. The things that a foolish person plans to do are sin. People hate a person who thinks he is better than other people.

If you are weak during times of trouble, then you really are weak.

If people are planning to kill a person, then you must try to save him. You can’t say, “It’s none of my business.” The Lord knows everything. And he knows why you do things. The Lord watches you. He knows. And the Lord will reward you for the things you do.

My son, eat honey. It is good. Honey from the honeycomb is sweet. In the same way, wisdom is good for your soul. If you have wisdom, then you will have hope, and your hope will never end.

Don’t be like a thief that wants to steal from a good person or take away his home. If a good man falls seven times, he will always stand again. But evil people will always be defeated by trouble.

Don’t be happy when your enemy has troubles. Don’t be happy when he falls. If you do, the Lord will see this, and the Lord will not be happy with you. Then the Lord might help your enemy.

Don’t let evil people cause you worry. And don’t be jealous of evil people. Those evil people have no hope. Their light will become dark.

Son, respect the Lord and the king. And don’t join with the people that are against them. Why? Because men like that can quickly be destroyed. You don’t know how much trouble God and the king can make for their enemies.

More WiseSayings

These are the words of wise men:

A judge must be fair. He must not support a person simply because he knows him. People will turn against a judge that tells a guilty person that he can go free. Even people from other nations will say bad things against that judge. But if a judge punishes a guilty person, then all the people will be happy with him.

An honest answer is something that makes all people happy—it is like a kiss on the lips.

Don’t build your house before you plant your fields. Make sure that you are prepared to grow food before you build a place to live.

Don’t speak against someone without a good reason. And don’t tell lies.

Don’t say, “He hurt me, so I will do the same to him. I will punish him for the things he did to me.”

I walked past a field that belonged to a lazy man. I walked by a field of grapes that belonged to a person who was not wise. Weeds were growing everywhere in those fields. Worthless plants were growing on the ground. And the wall around the fields was broken and falling down. I looked at this and I thought about it. Then I learned a lesson from these things: a little sleep, a little rest, folding your arms, and taking a nap. These things will make you poor very quickly. You will have nothing, as if a thief broke in and took everything away.

More Wise Sayings from Solomon

These are some more wise sayings of Solomon. These words were copied by servants of Hezekiah, king of Judah:

God has the right to hide things that he does not want us to know about. But a king is honored for the things he says.
The sky is high above and the ground is under us. It is the same with the minds of kings. We can’t understand them.

If you take the worthless things from silver and make it pure, then a worker can make beautiful things. In the same way, if you take evil advisers away from a king, then goodness will make his kingdom strong.

Don’t brag about yourself before a king. Don’t say that you are a famous person. It is much better for the king to invite you himself. But if you invite yourself, then you might be embarrassed in front of other people.

Don’t be too quick to tell a judge about something you saw. If another person proves that you are wrong, then you will be embarrassed.

If you and another person can’t agree, then decide among yourselves what to do. And don’t tell about another person’s secret. If you do, then you will be ashamed. And you will never lose that bad name.

Saying the right thing at the right time is like a golden apple in a silver setting.

If a wise person gives you a warning, it is worth more than gold rings or jewelry made from the finest gold.

A messenger that can be trusted is worth much to the people who send him. He is like cool water during the hot days of harvest.

People who promise to give gifts, but never give them, are like clouds and wind that bring no rain.

Patient talk can make any person change his thinking, even a ruler. Gentle talk is very powerful.

Honey is good, but don’t eat too much of it. If you do, then you will be sick. In the same way, don’t go into your neighbor’s home too often. If you do, then he will begin to hate you.

A person who does not tell the truth is dangerous. He is like a club, or a sword, or a sharp arrow. Never depend on a liar during times of trouble. That person is like a hurting tooth or a crippled foot. He hurts you when you need him most.

Singing happy songs to a sad person is like taking away his clothes when he is cold. It is like mixing soda and vinegar.

If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat. If your enemy is thirsty, give him water to drink. If you do this, then you will make him ashamed. It is like putting burning coals on his head. And the Lord will reward you because you were good to your enemy.

The wind that blows from the north brings rain. And in the same way, gossip brings anger.

It is better to live in a small corner of the attic than to share the house with a woman that is always arguing.

Good news from a faraway place is like a cool drink of water when you are hot and thirsty.

If a good person becomes weak and follows an evil person, it is the same as good water that has become dirty.

If you eat too much honey it is not good for you. In the same way, don’t try to get too much honor for yourself.

A person that can’t control himself is like a city without walls to protect it.

Wise Sayings About Fools

Snow shouldn’t fall in the summer. And rain shouldn’t fall during harvest time. In the same way, people should not honor a fool.

Don’t worry if a person asks for bad things to happen to you. If you did nothing wrong, nothing bad will happen. That person’s words are like birds that fly past you and never stop.

You have to whip a horse. You have to put a bridle on a mule. And you have to beat a fool.

Here is a difficult situation: If a fool asks a stupid question, then don’t give him a stupid answer or you, too, will look like a fool. But if a fool asks a stupid question, then you should give him a stupid answer or he will think he is very smart.

Never let a fool carry your message. If you do, it will be like cutting off your own feet. You are asking for trouble.

When a fool tries to say something wise, it is like a crippled person trying to walk.

attic A small room above the main rooms of a house. Literally, “roof.” The roofs of houses in ancient Israel were flat and were often used as extra rooms.
8 Showing honor to a fool is as bad as tying a rock in a sling.*

9 When a fool tries to say something wise, it is the same as a drunk person trying to pick a thorn out of his hand.

10 Hiring a fool or some stranger passing by is dangerous—you don’t know who might get hurt.

11 A dog eats food. Then he gets sick and vomits. Then the dog eats that food again. It is the same with a foolish person. He does the same foolish things again and again.

12 A person who thinks he is wise when he is not is worse than a fool.

Wise Sayings About Lazy People

13 A lazy person says, “I can’t leave my house. There is a lion in the street.”

14 A lazy person is like a door. All he does is turn in his bed like a door turns on its hinges. He never goes anywhere.

15 A lazy person is too lazy to lift his food from his plate to his mouth.

16 A lazy person thinks he is very wise. He thinks he is smarter than seven men that can give good reasons for their ideas.

17 It is dangerous to become part of an argument between two people. It is the same as walking along the street and grabbing a dog by the ears.

18–19 A man who tricks another person and then says that he was only joking, is like a crazy person that shoots flaming arrows into the air and accidentally kills someone.

20 If a fire has no wood, then the fire will become cold. In the same way, an argument without gossip is finished.

21 Charcoal keeps the coals burning. And wood keeps the fire burning. In the same way, people who make trouble keep arguments alive.

22 People love gossip. It is like eating good food.

23 Good words that hide an evil plan is like silver paint over a cheap, clay pot. An evil person makes himself look good by the things he says. But he hides his evil plans in his heart. The things he says might seem good. But don’t trust him. His heart is full of evil ideas.

24 He hides his evil plans with nice words. But he is mean. And in the end all people will see the evil things that he does.

25 If a person tries to trap another person, then he will trap himself. If a person tries to roll a stone over another person, he will be crushed himself.

26 The person that tells lies hates the people he hurts. And if a person says things he does not mean, he is only hurting himself.

27 Never brag about what will happen in the future. You don’t know what will happen tomorrow.

28 Never praise yourself. Let other people do it.

29 A stone is heavy, and sand is hard to carry. But the trouble caused by an angry fool is much harder to bear.

30 Anger is cruel and mean. It causes destruction. But jealousy is much worse.

31 Open criticism is better than hidden love.

32 A friend might hurt you sometimes, but he does not want to do this. An enemy is different. Even when an enemy is kind to you, he wants to hurt you.

33 If you are not hungry, then you will not eat even honey. But if you are hungry, you will eat anything—even if it tastes bad.

34 A man away from home is like a bird away from its nest.

35 Perfume and sweet-smelling things make you feel happy. And a kind word from a friend is more welcome than life-saving advice.

36 Don’t forget your friends and your father’s friends. And if you have trouble, don’t go far away to your brother’s house for help. It is better to ask a neighbor that is near you than to go far away to your brother.

37 My son, be wise. This will make me happy. Then I will be able to answer any person that criticizes me.

38 Wise people see trouble coming and get out of its way. But a fool goes straight to the trouble and suffers because of it.

39 You will lose your shirt if you make yourself responsible for another man’s debts.

40 Don’t wake up your neighbor early in the morning with a shout of, “Good morning!” He will treat it like a curse, not a blessing.

41 A wife that always wants to argue is like water that never stops dripping on a rainy day.

sling  A strip of leather for throwing rocks.
Trying to stop that woman is like trying to stop the wind. It is like trying to grab oil with your hand.

People use pieces of iron to sharpen iron knives. In the same way, people learn from other people, making each other sharp.

A person who cares for fig trees will be able to eat their fruit. In the same way, a person who cares for his master will be rewarded. His master will care for him.

When a person looks into the water he can see his own face. In the same way, a man’s heart shows what the man is really like.

People are just like the grave. That place of death and destruction always wants more than it already has.

People use fire to make gold and silver pure. In the same way, a man is tested by the praise people give him.

You can grind a fool to powder, and still you will not force the foolishness out of him.

Watch your sheep and goats carefully. Be sure you care for them the best you can.

Wealth doesn’t last forever. Even nations don’t last forever.

Cut the hay, and new grass will grow. Then you can gather the plants growing on the hills. Then there will be plenty of goat milk for you and your family and enough to keep servant girls healthy.

Evil people are afraid of everything. But a good person is as brave as a lion.

A country filled with people that break the law will have many bad rulers that rule only a short time. But a wise ruler will rule a long time in a country where people understand the need to obey the law.

If a ruler makes trouble for poor people, he is like a hard rain that destroys the crops.

You are for evil people if you refuse to obey the law. But if you obey the law, then you are against them.

Evil people don’t understand fairness. But people who love the Lord understand it.

It is better to be poor but honest than to be rich and evil.

A person who obeys the law is smart. But the person who becomes friends with worthless people brings shame to his father.

If you get rich by cheating poor people and charging them high interest rates, then you will lose your wealth. It will go to another person who is kind to them.

If a person refuses to listen to God’s teachings, then God will refuse to hear his prayers.

A bad person might make plans to hurt a good person. But the bad person will fall into his own trap. And good things will happen to the good person.

Rich people always think they are wise. But a poor person that is wise can see the truth.

When good people become leaders, everyone is happy. But when an evil person is elected, all people go and hide.

A person that hides his sins will not be successful. But a person that confesses his sins and stops doing wrong will receive mercy.

If a person always respects the Lord, then that person will be blessed. But if a person is stubborn and refuses to respect the Lord, then he will have trouble.

When an evil person rules over weak people, he is like an angry lion or a bear that is ready to fight.

If a ruler is not wise, he will hurt the people under him. But the ruler that is honest and hates cheating will rule for a long time.

If a person is guilty of killing another person, then that person will never have peace. Don’t support that person.

If a person is living right, then he will be safe. But if a person is evil, then he will lose his power.

A person that works hard will have plenty to eat. But a person that wastes his time with dreams will always be poor.

God will bless the person who follows him. But a person who is only trying to get rich will be punished.

A judge must be fair. He must not support a person simply because of who that person is. But some judges will change their decisions for only the smallest payment.

A selfish person only wants to get rich. That person does not realize that he is very close to being poor.

If you help someone by telling him he is doing wrong, then later he will be happy with you. That is much better than always saying only nice things to people.

24 A person might steal from his father and mother. That person might say, “I did nothing wrong.” But that person is as bad as a man who comes in and smashes everything in the house.

25 A selfish person causes trouble. But the person who trusts in the Lord will be rewarded.

26 If a person trusts in himself, then he is a fool. But if a person is wise, then he will escape disaster.

27 If a person gives to poor people, then he will have everything he needs. But if a person refuses to help poor people, then he will have much trouble.

28 If an evil person is elected to rule, then all the people hide. But when that evil person is defeated, then good people rule again.

29 If a person is stubborn and becomes more angry every time people tell him that he is doing wrong, then that person will be destroyed. There is no hope.

2When the ruler is a good person, then all the people are happy. But when an evil person rules, then all the people complain.

3 If a person loves wisdom, then his father is very happy. But if a person wastes his money on prostitutes, then he will lose his wealth.

4 If a king is fair, then the nation will be strong. But if a king is selfish and people must pay him to do things for them, then the nation will be weak.

5 If a person tries to get what he wants by saying nice things to people, then he is only setting a trap for himself.

6 Evil people are defeated by their own sin. But a good person can sing and be happy.

7 Good people want to do the right thing for poor people. But evil people don’t care.

8 People who think they are better than other people can cause much trouble. They can put whole cities into confusion. But people who are wise make peace.

9 If a wise person tries to settle a problem with a fool, then the fool will argue and say stupid things. And the two people will never agree.

10 Murderers always hate honest people. Those evil people want to kill good, honest people.

11 A foolish person becomes angry easily. But a wise person is patient and controls himself.

12 If a ruler listens to lies, then all his officials will be evil.

13 In one way a poor person and the person who steals from the poor are the same: The Lord made them both.

14 If a king is fair to poor people he will rule for a long time.

15 Spankings and teachings are good for children. If parents let a child do whatever he wants, then he will bring shame to his mother.

16 If evil people are ruling the nation, then sin will be everywhere. But good people will win in the end.

17 Punish your son when he is wrong, then you will always be proud of him. He will never make you ashamed.

18 If a nation is not guided by God, then that nation will not have peace. But the nation that obeys God’s law will be happy.

19 A servant won’t learn a lesson if you only talk to him. That servant may understand your words but he won’t obey.

20 If a person speaks without thinking, there is no hope for him. There is more hope for a fool than for the person who speaks without thinking.

21 If you always give your servant everything he wants, then in the end he will not be a good servant.

22 An angry person causes trouble. And the person who becomes angry easily is guilty of many sins.

23 If a person thinks he is better than other people, then that will destroy him. But if a person is humble, then other people will respect him.

24 Two thieves that work together are enemies. One thief will threaten the other one, so if he is forced to tell the truth in court, he will be too afraid to speak.

25 Fear is like a trap. But if you trust in the Lord, you will be safe.

prostitute(s) A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person who is not faithful to God and stops following him.

Those evil people want to kill good, honest people Or “But a good, honest person saves his life.”
26 Many people want to be the friends of a ruler. But the Lord is the One that judges people fairly.
27 Good people hate those people who are not honest. And evil people hate people who are honest.

Wise Sayings of Agur Son of Jakeh

These are the wise sayings of Agur son of Jakeh. This is his message to Ithiel and Ucal.*

1 I am the worst person on earth. I am not able to understand like I should. 2 I have not learned to be wise. And I know nothing about God.
3 No person has ever learned about the things from heaven. No person has ever caught the wind in his hand. No person has ever held water in a piece of cloth. No person can ever really know the limits of the earth. If any person can do these things, who is he? Where is his family?
4 Every word that God says is perfect. God is a safe place for people who go to him. 5 So, don’t try to change the things God says. If you do, he will punish you and prove that you tell lies.
6 Lord, I ask you to do two things for me before I die. 7 Don’t let me tell lies. And don’t make me too rich or too poor—only give me the things I need each day. 8 If I have more than I need, then I will think I don’t need you. But if I am poor then I might steal. Then I will bring shame to the name of God.
9 Never say bad things against a servant to his master. If you do, the master will not believe you. He will think you are guilty.
10 Some people speak against their fathers. And they don’t show respect for their mothers.
11 Some people think they are good but they are really very bad.
12 Some people think they are very good. They think they are much better than other people.
13 There are people whose teeth are like swords. Their jaws are like knives. They use their time to take everything they can from poor people.
14 There are three things that act important when they walk. In fact, there are four: 15 A lion (He is the warrior of the animal kingdom. He runs from nothing.); 16 a rooster walking proudly; 17 a goat; 18 and a king among his people.

This is his message to Ithiel and Ucal—Or “This man said, ‘I am too weak. I am too weak, but I will succeed!’”

15 Some people want to take everything they can get. All they say is, “Give me, give me, give me.” There are three things that are never satisfied—really four things that never have enough: 16 The place of death, a woman with no children, dry ground that needs rain, and a hot fire that can’t be stopped.
17 Any person who makes fun of his father or refuses to obey his mother will be punished. It will be as bad for him as if his eyes were eaten by vultures and wild birds.
18 There are three things that are hard for me to understand—really four things that I don’t understand: 19 An eagle flying in the sky, a snake moving on a rock, a ship moving across the ocean, and a man in love with a woman.
20 A woman who is not faithful to her husband acts like she has done nothing wrong. She eats, takes a bath, and says she has done nothing wrong.
21 There are three things that make trouble on the earth—really four that the earth can’t bear: 22 A servant that becomes a king, a foolish person that has everything he needs, 23 a woman who is full of hate but still finds a husband, and a servant girl that becomes ruler over the woman she serves.
24 There are four things on the earth that are small but very wise:
25 Ants are small and weak, but they save their food all summer;
26 a badger is a small animal, but it is able to make its home in the rocks;
27 locusts have no king, but they are able to work together;
28 lizards are small enough to catch with your hands but you can find them living in kings’ homes.
29 There are three things that act important when they walk. In fact, there are four:
30 A lion (He is the warrior of the animal kingdom. He runs from nothing.); 31 a rooster walking proudly; or possibly, “a greyhound” or “a warhorse.”
PROVERBS 30:32–31:31

32 If you are foolish enough to become proud and make plans against other people, then stop and think about what you are doing.
33 If a person churns milk, he makes butter. If a person hits another person’s nose, then blood will come. In the same way, if you make people angry you will cause trouble.

Wise Sayings of King Lemuel

These are the wise sayings of King Lemuel. His mother taught him these things.

2 You are my son. The son that I love. You are the son that I prayed to have. Don’t waste your strength on women. Women destroy kings, so don’t waste yourself on them. Lemuel, it is not wise for kings to drink wine. It is not wise for rulers to want beer. They may drink too much and forget what the law says. Then they might take away all the rights of poor people. Give beer to the poor people. Give wine to those people who are in trouble. Let them drink and forget that they are poor. Let them forget all their troubles.
8 If a person can’t help himself, then you should help him. Speak up for a person who can’t speak! Help people who are in trouble! Stand up for the things you know are right. And judge all people fairly. Protect the rights of poor people and people that need help.

The Perfect Wife

It is very hard to find “the perfect woman.” But she is worth much more than jewels. Her husband depends on her. He will never be poor. She does good for her husband all her life. She never causes him trouble. She is always gathering wool and flax and gladly making things with her hands. She is like a ship from a faraway place. She brings food home from everywhere.

She wakes very early in the morning.
She cooks food for her family and gives the servants their share.
She looks at land and buys it.
She uses money she has earned and plants a vineyard.
She works very hard.
She is strong and able to do all her work.
When she trades the things she has made, she always earns a profit.
And she works until late at night.
She makes her own thread and weaves her own cloth.
She always gives to poor people and helps people that need it.
She doesn’t worry about her family when it snows.
She has given them all good, warm clothes.
She makes sheets and spreads for the beds.
And she wears clothes of fine linen.
People respect her husband.
He is one of the leaders of the land.
She is a very good businesswoman.
She makes clothes and belts, and sells them to businessmen.
She is praised and people respect her.
She looks to the future with confidence.
She speaks with wisdom.
She teaches people to be loving and kind.
She is never lazy.
She takes care of the things in her house.
Her children say good things about her.
Her husband brags about her and says, “There are many good women. But you are the best.”
Grace and beauty can fool you.
But a woman who respects the Lord should be praised.
Give her the reward she deserves.
Praise her in public for the things she has done.

churns To stir cream for a long time until it becomes butter.
Verses 10–31 In Hebrew, each verse of this poem starts with the next letter of the alphabet, so this poem shows all the good qualities of a woman, “from A to Z”.
the perfect woman Or, “a noble woman.” She is praised Or, “She is strong.”
1 These are the words from the Teacher. The Teacher was a son of David and king of Jerusalem.

2 Everything is so meaningless. The Teacher says that it is all a waste of time! Do people really gain anything from all the hard work they do in this life? [No!]

Things Never Change

3 People live and people die. But the earth continues forever. The sun rises and the sun goes down. And then the sun hurries to rise again in the same place.

4 The wind blows to the south, and the wind blows to the north. The wind blows around and around. Then the wind turns and blows back to the place it began.

5 All rivers flow again and again to the same place. They all flow to the sea, but the sea doesn’t become full.

6 Words can’t fully explain things. But people continue speaking. Words come again and again to our ears. But our ears don’t become full. And our eyes don’t become full of the things we see.

Nothing is New

7 All things continue the way they have been since the beginning. The same things will be done that have always been done. There is nothing new in this life.

10 A person might say, “Look, this is new!” But that thing has always been here. It was here before we were!

11 People don’t remember the things that happened long ago. In the future, people will not remember what is happening now. And later, other people will not remember what those people before them did.

Does Wisdom Bring Happiness?

12 I, the Teacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. I decided to study and to use my wisdom to learn about all the things that are done in this life. I learned that it is a very hard thing that God gave us to do.

13 I looked at all the things done on earth, and I saw that it is all a waste of time. It is like trying to catch the wind. You can’t change these things. If something is crooked, you can’t say it is straight. And if something is missing, you can’t say it is there.

14 I said to myself, “I am very wise. I am wiser than all the kings that ruled Jerusalem before me. I know what wisdom and knowledge really are!”

15 I decided to learn how wisdom and knowledge are better than thinking foolish things. But I learned that trying to become wise is like trying to catch the wind. With much wisdom comes frustration. The person that gains more wisdom also gains more sorrow.

Does “Having Fun” Bring Happiness?

16 I said to myself, “I should have fun—I should enjoy everything the most I can.” But I learned that this is also useless. It is meaningless ... a waste of time The Hebrew word means “vapor or breath” or “something that is useless, meaningless, empty, wrong, or a waste of time.”

in this life Literally, “under the sun.”

Words can’t fully explain things Literally, “All words (things) are weak.”

But people continue speaking The Hebrew could also be translated, “Man can’t speak.”

trying to catch the wind Or, “It is very troubling to the spirit.”

The word for “troubling” can also mean “craving” and the word for “spirit” can also mean “wind.”
foolish to laugh all the time. Having fun doesn’t do any good.

3 So I decided to fill my body with wine while I filled my mind with wisdom. I tried this foolishness because I wanted to find a way to be happy. I wanted to see what was good for people to do during their few days of life.

Does Hard Work Bring Happiness?

4 Then I began doing great things. I built houses, and I planted fields of grapes for myself. 5 I planted gardens, and I made parks. I planted all kinds of fruit trees. 6 I made pools of water for myself. And I used these pools to water my growing trees. 7 I bought men slaves and women slaves. And there were slaves born in my house. I owned many great things. I had herds of cattle and flocks of sheep. I owned more things than any other person in Jerusalem.

8 I also gathered silver and gold for myself.
I took treasures from kings and their nations. I had men and women singing for me. I had everything anyone could want.

9 I became very rich and famous. I was greater than any person that lived in Jerusalem before me. And my wisdom was always there to help me. 10 Anything my eyes saw and wanted, I got for myself. My mind was pleased with all the things I did. And this happiness was the reward for all my hard work.

11 But then I looked at all the things I had done. I thought about all the hard work I did. I decided it was all a waste of time! It was like trying to catch the wind. There is nothing to gain from all the things we do in this life.

Maybe Wisdom Is the Answer

12 No person can do more than a king can do. Some king has already done anything you might want to do. 13 And I learned that even the things a king does are a waste of time. 14 So I again began to think about being wise, being foolish, and doing crazy things. 15 I saw that wisdom is better than foolishness in the same way that light is better than darkness. 16 It is like this: A wise man uses his mind like eyes to see where he is going. But a fool is like someone walking in the dark.

But I also saw that the foolish man and the wise man both end the same way. [They both die,] 17 I thought to myself, “The same thing that happens to a foolish person will also happen to me. So why have I tried so hard to become wise?” I said to myself, “Being wise is also useless.” 18 The wise man and the foolish person will both die! And people will not remember either the wise man or the foolish person forever. In the future, people will forget everything they did. So both the wise man and the foolish person are really the same.

Is There Real Happiness in Life?

17 This made me hate life. It made me very sad to think that everything in this life is useless, like trying to catch the wind.

18 I began to hate all the hard work I had done. I had worked hard, but I saw that the people that live after me will get the things that I worked for. I will not be able to take those things with me. 19 Some other person will control everything I worked and studied for. And I don’t know if that person will be wise or foolish. This is also senseless.

20 So, I became sad about all the work I had done. 21 A person can work hard using all his wisdom and knowledge and skill. But that person will die and other people will get the things he worked for. Those people did not do the work, but they will get everything. That makes me very sad. That is also not fair and is senseless.

22 What does a person really have after all his work and struggling in this life? 23 All his life he has pain, frustrations, and hard work.
Even at night, a person’s mind does not rest.
This is also senseless.

24–25 Is there any person that tried to enjoy life more than I have? No! And this is what I learned: The best thing a person can do is eat, drink, and enjoy the work he must do. I also trying to catch the wind Or, “It is very troubling to the spirit.”

The word for “troubling” can also mean “craving” and the word for “spirit” can also mean “wind.”

No person ... want to do The Hebrew is not clear here.

in this life Literally, “under the sun.”
757  ECCLESIASTES 2:26–3:21

God Controls His World

9 Does a person really gain anything from his hard work? [No!]
10 I saw all the hard work God gave us to do. 11 God gave us the ability to think about his world.* But we can never completely understand everything God does. And yet, God does everything at just the right time.
12 I learned that the best thing for people to do is to be happy and enjoy themselves as long as they live. 13 God wants every person to eat, drink, and enjoy his work. These are gifts from God.
14 I learned that anything God does will continue forever. People can’t add anything to the work of God. And people can’t take anything away from the work of God. God did this so people would respect him. 15 Things that happened in the past have happened, and we can’t change them. And things that will happen in the future will happen, and we can’t change them. But God wants to help people that have been treated badly.*
16 I also saw these things in this life.* I saw that the courts should be filled with goodness and fairness—but there is evil there now. 17 So I said to myself, “God has planned a time for everything. And God has planned a time to judge everything people do. God will judge the good people and the bad people.”

Are People Just Like Animals?

18 I thought about the things people do to each other. And I said to myself, “God wants people to see that they are like animals. 19 Is a man better than an animal? [No!] Why? Because everything is useless. The same thing happens to animals and to people—they die. People and animals have the same “breath.”* Is a dead animal different from a dead person? 20 The bodies of people and animals end the same way. They came from the earth, and in the end they will go back to the earth. 21 Who knows what saw that this comes from God.* 26 If a person does good and pleases God, then God will give that person wisdom, knowledge, and joy. But a person that sins will get only the work of gathering and carrying things. God takes from the bad person and gives to the good person. But all this work is useless. It is like trying to catch the wind.*

There Is a Time …

3 There is a right time for everything. And everything on earth will happen at the right time.

2 There is a time to be born, and a time to die.
There is a time to plant, and a time to pull up plants.
3 There is a time to kill, and a time to heal.
There is a time to destroy, and a time to build.
4 There is a time to cry, and a time to laugh.
There is a time to be sad, and a time to dance from joy.
5 There is a time to throw weapons down, and a time to pick them up.*
There is a time to hug someone, and a time to stop holding so tightly.
6 There is a time to look for something, and a time to consider it lost.
There is a time to keep things, and a time to throw things away.
7 There is a time to tear cloth, and there is a time to sew it.
There is a time to be silent, and a time to speak.
8 There is a time to love, and a time to hate.
There is a time for war, and a time for peace.

*The best a person can do is eat, drink, and enjoy his work. I also saw this comes from God.
*No one can eat or enjoy life without God.”

trying to catch the wind  Or, “It is very troubling to the spirit.”
The word for “troubling” can also mean “craving” and the word for “spirit” can also mean “wind.”

There is a time to ... pick them up  Literally, “There is a time to throw stones away, and a time to gather stones.”

the ability to think about his world  Or, “a desire to know the future.”

Verse 15  Or, “What happens now also happened in the past. The things that happen in the future have also happened before. God makes things happen again and again.”

in this life  Literally, “under the sun.”

breath  Or, “spirit.”
happens to the spirit of a man? Who knows if a man’s spirit goes up to God while an animal’s spirit goes down into the ground?

22 So I saw that the best thing a person can do is to enjoy what he does. That is all he has. Also a person should not worry about the future. Why? Because no one can help that person see what will happen in the future.

Is It Better to Be Dead?

4 Again I saw that many people are treated badly. I saw their tears. And I saw that there was no one to comfort those sad people. I saw cruel people had all the power. And I saw that there was no one to comfort the people they hurt. 2 I decided that things are better for people that have died than for people that are still alive. 3 And things are even better for people that die at birth! Why? Because they never saw the evil that is done in this world.*

Why Work So Hard?

4 Then I thought, “Why do people work so hard?” I saw people try to succeed and be better than other people. Why? Because people are jealous. They don’t want other people to have more than they have. This is senseless. It is like trying to catch the wind.*

5 Some people say, “It is foolish to fold your hands and do nothing. If you don’t work, you will starve to death.” 6 Maybe that is true. But I say it is better to be satisfied with the few things you have than to always be struggling to get more.

7 Again I saw something else that didn’t make sense: 8 A person might not have any family. He might not have a son or even a brother. But that person will continue to work very, very hard. That person is never satisfied with what he has. And he works so hard that he never stops and asks himself, “Why am I working so hard? Why don’t I let myself enjoy my life?” This is also a very bad and senseless thing.

Friends and Family Give Strength

9 Two people are better than one. When two people work together, they get more from the work they do. 10 If one person falls, then the other person can help him. But it is very bad for the person that is alone when he falls—there is no one there to help him. 11 If two people sleep together, they will be warm. But a person sleeping alone will not be warm. 12 An enemy might be able to defeat one person, but that enemy can’t defeat two people. And three people are even stronger. They are like a rope that has three parts wrapped together—it is very hard to break.

People, Politics, and Popularity

13 A young leader that is poor but wise is better than a king that is old but foolish. That old king does not listen to warnings. 14 Maybe that young ruler was born a poor man in the kingdom. And maybe he came from prison to rule the country. 15 But I have watched people in this life, and I know this: People will follow that young man. He will become the new king. 16 Many, many people will follow this young man. But later, those same people will not like him. This is also senseless. It is like trying to catch the wind.*

Be Careful About Making Promises

5 Be very careful when you go to worship God. It is better to listen to God, than to give sacrifices* like foolish people. Foolish people often do bad things, and they don’t even know it. 2 Be careful when you make promises to God. Be careful about the things you say to God. Don’t let your feelings cause you to speak too soon. God is in heaven, and you are on the earth. So you need to say only a few things to God. This saying is true:

3 Bad dreams come with too many worries, and a fool with too many words.

---

* Bad dreams come with too many worries, and a fool with too many words.

* Literally, “under the sun.”

* Trying to catch the wind Or, “It is very troubling to the spirit.”

* The word for “troubling” can also mean “craving” and the word for “spirit” can also mean “wind.”

* A gift to God. Sometimes it was a special kind of animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
4 If you make a promise to God, then keep your promise. Don’t be slow to do the thing you promised. God is not happy with foolish people. Give God what you promised to give him. 5 It is better to promise nothing than to promise something and not be able to do it. 6 So don’t let your words cause you to sin. Don’t say to the priest,* “I didn’t mean what I said!” If you do this, then God might become angry with your words and destroy everything you have worked for. 7 You should not let your useless dreams and bragging bring you trouble. You should respect God.

For Every Ruler There Is a Ruler
8 In some country you might see poor people that are forced to work very hard. You might see that this is not fair to the poor people. It is against the rights of the poor people. But don’t be surprised! The ruler that forces those people to work has another ruler that forces him. And there is still another ruler that forces both of these rulers. 9 Even the king is a slave—his country owns him.*

Wealth Can’t Buy Happiness
10 The person that loves money will never be satisfied with the money he has. The person that loves wealth will not be satisfied when he gets more and more. This is also senseless.
11 The more wealth a person has, the more “friends” he has to help spend it. So that rich person really gains nothing. He can only look at his wealth.
12 A man that works hard all day comes home and sleeps in peace. It is not important if he has little or much to eat. But a rich person worries about his wealth and is not able to sleep.
13 There is a very sad thing that I have seen happen in this life. A person saves his money for the future.* 14 And then something bad happens and he loses everything. So that person has nothing to give to his son.

We Come with Nothing—We Leave with Nothing
15 A person comes into the world from his mother’s body with nothing. And when that person dies, he leaves the same way—with nothing. He works hard to get things. But he can take nothing with him when he dies. 16 That is very sad. He will leave the world the same way he came. So, what does a person gain from his “trying to catch the wind”? 17 He only gets days that are filled with sadness and sorrow. In the end, he is frustrated, sick, and angry!

Enjoy Your Life’s Work
18 I have seen that this is the best a person can do: A person should eat, drink, and enjoy the work he does during his short life on earth. God has given him these few days, and that is all he has.
19 If God gives a person wealth, property, and the power to enjoy those things, then that person should enjoy them. That person should accept the things he has and enjoy his work—that is a gift from God. 20 A person does not have many years to live. So he must remember these things all his life. God will keep him busy with the work that person loves to do.*

Wealth Does Not Bring Happiness
6 I have seen another thing in this life that is not fair. It is very hard to understand: 2 God gives a person great wealth, riches, and honor. That person has everything he needs and everything he could ever want. But then God does not let that person enjoy those things. Some stranger comes and takes everything. This is a very bad and senseless thing.
3 A person might live a long time. And that person might have 100 children. But if that person is not satisfied with those good things, and if no one remembers him after his death, then I say that a baby that dies at birth is better off than that man. 4 It is really senseless when a baby is born dead. That baby is quickly buried in a dark grave, without even a name. 5 That baby never saw the sun. That baby

* Or, “angel,” “messenger.” This might be an angel, or it might be a priest or a prophet who speaks for God.

The ruler ... owns him Or, “One ruler is cheated by a higher ruler. And they are cheated by an even higher ruler. Even the king gets his share of the profit. The wealth of the country is divided among them.”

for the future Or, “to his harm.”

God ... to do Or, “God will do whatever he wants to that person.”
never knew anything. But that baby finds more rest than the man that never enjoyed the things God gave him. 6 That man might live 2,000 years. But if he does not enjoy life, then the baby that was born dead has found the easiest way to the same end.*

7 A man works and works. Why? To feed himself. But he is never satisfied. In this way, a wise man is no better than a foolish person. It is better to be a poor man that knows how to accept life as it is. 8 It is better to be happy with the things you have than to always want more and more. Always wanting more and more is useless. It is like trying to catch the wind.*

10–11 A man is only what he was created to be—a man. And it is useless to argue about it. A man can’t argue with God about this. Why? Because God is more powerful than man. And a long argument will not change that fact.

12 Who knows what is best for a person during his short life on earth? His life passes like a shadow. No one can tell him what will happen later.

A Collection Of Wise Teachings

7 It is better to have a good name (respect) than good perfume.*

The day a person dies is even better than the day he is born.

2 It is even better to go to a funeral than to a party.

Why? Because all people must die, and every person alive should accept this.

3 Sorrow is even better than laughter.

Why? Because when our face is sad, our heart becomes good.

4 A wise person thinks about death, but a foolish person thinks only about having a good time.

5 It is better to be criticized by a wise man than to be praised by a foolish person.

6 The laughter of fools is such a waste.

It is like thorns burning under a pot.

The thorns burn up so fast, that the pot does not get hot.*

7 Even a wise man will forget his wisdom, if someone pays him enough money.

That money destroys his understanding.

8 It is better to finish something than to start it.

It is better to be gentle and patient than to be proud and impatient.

9 Don’t become angry quickly.

Why? Because being angry is foolish.

10 Don’t say, “Life was better in the ‘good old days.’ What happened?” Wisdom doesn’t lead us to ask that question.

11 Wisdom is better if you also have property. Really, wise people* will get more than enough wealth. 12 Wisdom and money can protect you. But knowledge gained through wisdom is even better—it can save your life!

13 Look at the things God has made. You can’t change a thing, even if you think it is wrong! 14 When life is good, enjoy it. But when life is hard, remember that God gives us good times and hard times. And no one knows what will happen in the future.

People Can’t Be Truly Good

15 In my short life, I have seen everything. I have seen good men die young. And I have seen evil men living long lives. 16–17 So why kill yourself? Don’t be too good or too bad. And don’t be too wise or too foolish. Why should you die before your time?

18 Try to be a little of this and a little of that.* Even God’s followers will do some good things and some bad things. 19–20 Surely there is not a good man on earth that always does good and never sins.

then the baby ...the same end Or, “Isn’t it true that all go to the same place.”

It is better ... catch the wind Or, “Having what you can see is better than chasing after the things you want. This is also like trying to catch the wind.”

good name ... perfume This is a word play in Hebrew: the word for “name” and the word for “perfume” sound the same.

The laughter ... get hot Or, “The cackling of fools like the cracking of thorns under a pot is senseless.”

wise people Literally, “People that see the sun.” This means wise people can see and plan what they should do.

Try to be a little of this and a little of that Or, “Hold onto this, but don’t let go of that.”
Wisdom gives a person strength. One wise man is stronger than ten foolish leaders in a city.

21 Don't listen to all the things people say. You might hear your own servant saying bad things about you. And you know that many times you too have said bad things about other people.

22 I used my wisdom and thought about all these things. I wanted to be truly wise. But it was impossible. I can't understand why things are like they are. It is too hard for anyone to understand. I studied and I tried very hard to find true wisdom. I tried to find a reason for everything. What did I learn? I learned that it is foolish to be evil, and it is crazy to act like a foolish person.

26 I also found that some women are dangerous like traps. Their hearts are like nets, and their arms are like chains. It is worse than death to be caught by those women. A person that follows God will run away from those women. But a sinner will be caught by them.

27-28 The Teacher says, “I added all these things together to see what answer I could find. I am still looking for answers. But I did find this: I found one good man in a thousand. But I did not find even one good woman.

29 There is one other thing I have learned: God made people good. But people found many ways to be bad.”

Wisdom and Power

8 No one can understand and explain things the way a wise man can. His wisdom makes him happy. It changes a sad face into a happy one.

2 I say you should always obey the king’s command. Do this because you made a promise to God. Don’t be afraid to give suggestions to the king. And don’t support something that is wrong. But remember, the king gives the commands that please him.

4 The king has the authority to give commands. And no one can tell him what to do. A person will be safe if he obeys the king’s command. But a wise man knows the right time to do this, and he also knows when to do the right thing.

6 There is a right time and a right way for a person to do everything. And each person must take a chance and decide what he should do. He must do this even when he has many troubles and he isn’t sure what will happen. Why? Because no one can tell him what will happen in the future.

8 No person has the power to keep his spirit from leaving. No person has the power to stop his death. During war, a soldier does not have the freedom to go any place he wants to go. In the same way, if a person does evil, that evil won’t allow him to be free.

9 I saw all those things. I thought very hard about the things that happen in this world. And I saw that people always struggle for the power to rule other people. And this is bad for them.

10 I also saw great and beautiful funerals for evil people. While the people were going home after the funeral services, they said good things about the evil people that had died. This happened even in the same towns where the evil people had done many, many bad things. That is senseless.

Justice, Rewards, and Punishment

11 Sometimes people are not immediately punished for the bad things they do. Their punishment is slow to come. And that makes other people want to do bad things too.

12 A sinner might do a hundred evil things. And he might have a long life. But I know that it is still better to obey and respect God. Evil people don’t respect God, so those people won’t really get good things. Those evil people won’t live long lives. Their lives won’t be like the shadows that become longer and longer as the sun goes down.

14 There is something else that happens on earth that does not seem fair. Bad things should happen to bad people and good things should happen to good people. But sometimes bad things happen to good people and good things happen to bad people. That is not fair. So I decided it was more important to enjoy life. Why? Because the best thing people can do in this life is to eat, drink, and enjoy life. At least in this life Literally, “under the sun.”
ECCLESIASTES 8:16–9:16 762

that will help people enjoy the hard work God gave them to do during their life on earth.

We Can't Understand All God Does

16I carefully studied the things people do in this life. I saw how busy people are. They work day and night, and they almost never sleep. 17I also saw the many things that God does. And I saw that people can’t understand all the work that God does on earth. A person might try and try to understand, but he can’t. Even if a wise man says he understands the work God does, it is not true. No person can understand all those things.

Is Death Fair?

9 I thought about all these things very carefully. I saw that God controls what happens to the good and wise people and the things they do. People don’t know if they will be loved or hated. And people don’t know what will happen in the future.

2But, there is one thing that happens to everyone—we all die! Death comes to good people and bad people. Death comes to people that are pure and to people that are not pure. Death comes to people that give sacrifices* and to people that do not give sacrifices. A good man will die just like a sinner. A person that makes special promises to God will die just like a person that is afraid to make those promises.

3Of all the things that happen in this life, the worst thing is that all people end the same way. But it is also very bad that people always think evil and foolish thoughts. And those thoughts lead to death. 4There is hope for any person that is still alive—it does not matter who he is. But this saying is true:

A living dog is better than a dead lion.

5Living people know that they will die. But dead people don’t know anything. Dead people have no more reward. People will soon forget them. 6After a person is dead, his love, hate, and jealousy are all gone. And dead people will never again share in the things that happen on earth.

Enjoy Life While You Can

7So go and eat your food now and enjoy it. Drink your wine and be happy. It is all right with God if you do these things. 8Wear nice clothes and make yourself look good. 9Enjoy life with the wife you love. Enjoy every day of your short life. God has given you this short life on earth—and it is all you have. So, enjoy the work you have to do in this life. 10Every time you find work to do, do it the best you can. In the grave there is no work. There is no thinking, no knowledge, and there is no wisdom. And we are all going to that place of death.

Life Isn’t Fair

11I also saw other things in this life* that were not fair: The fastest runner does not always win the race; the strongest army does not always win the battle; the wisest man does not always get the food he earns; the smartest man does not always get the wealth; and an educated person does not always get the praise he deserves. When the time comes, bad things happen to everyone!

12A person never knows what will happen to him next. He is like a fish caught in a net—the fish does not know what will happen. He is like a bird caught in a trap—the bird does not know what will happen. In the same way, a person is trapped by the bad things that suddenly happen to him.

The Power of Wisdom

13I also saw a person doing a wise thing in this life. And it seemed very important to me. 14There was a small town with a few people in it. A great king fought against that town and put his armies all around it. 15But there was a wise man in that town. That wise man was poor, but he used his wisdom to save his town. After everything was finished, the people forgot about that poor man. 16But I still say that wisdom is better than strength. Those sacrifices A gift to God. Sometimes it was a special kind of animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

in this life Literally, “under the sun.”
people forgot about the poor man’s wisdom, and the people stopped listening to what he said. [But I still believe that wisdom is better.]

17 A few words quietly spoken by a wise man are much better than words shouted by a foolish ruler.*

18 Wisdom is better than swords and spears in war. But one foolish person* can destroy much good.

10 A few dead flies will make even the best perfume smell bad. In the same way, a little foolishness can ruin much wisdom and honor.

2A wise man’s thoughts lead him in the right way. But the thoughts of a foolish person lead him the wrong way. 3A fool shows his foolishness, even when he is just walking down the road. So everyone sees that he is a foolish person.

4Don’t quit your job just because the boss is angry at you. If you remain calm and helpful, you can correct even great mistakes.*

5Here is something else that I have seen in this life. And it is not fair. It is the kind of mistake that rulers make: 6Foolish people are given important positions, while rich people get jobs that are not important. 7I have seen people that should be servants riding on horses, while people that should be rulers were walking beside them like slaves.

Every Job Has Its Dangers

8A person that digs a hole might fall into it. A person that knocks down a wall might be bitten by a snake. 9A person that moves large stones might be hurt by them. And a person that cuts trees is in danger—the trees might fall on him.]

9few words ... foolish ruler Or, “Words of a wise man quietly heard are better than the shouts of a ruler among foolish people.”

foolish person Literally, “sinner.”

If you ... great mistakes Literally, “A healer can put to rest great sins.” The word “healer” means a person that is forgiving and that tries to help other people.

10But wisdom will make any job easier. It is very hard to cut with a dull knife. But if a person sharpens the knife, then the job is easier. [Wisdom is like that.]

11A person might know how to control snakes. But that skill is useless if a snake bites someone when he is not around. [Wisdom is like that.]

12A wise man’s words bring praise. But a foolish person’s words bring destruction.

13A foolish person begins by saying foolish things. In the end, he is saying crazy things. 14A foolish person is always talking about what he will do. But no one knows what will happen in the future. No one can tell what will happen later.

15A foolish person isn’t smart enough to find his way home, so he must work hard all his life.

The Value of Work

16It is very bad for a country if the king is like a child. And it is very bad for a country if its rulers use all their time eating. 17But it is very good for a country if the king comes from a good family.* And it is very good for a country if the rulers control their eating and drinking. Those rulers eat and drink to become strong, not to become drunk.

18If a person is too lazy to work, his house will begin to leak, and the roof will fall in.

19People enjoy eating, and wine makes life happier. But money solves a lot of problems.

Gossip

20Don’t say bad things about the king. Don’t even think bad things about him. And don’t say bad things about rich people, even if you are alone in your home. Why? Because a little bird might fly and tell them everything you said.

comes from a good family Literally, “is a son of freedmen.”

This is a person that was never a slave and whose parents were not slaves.
Do good things every place you go.* After a while, the good things you do will come back to you.

Invest what you have in several different things.* You don’t know what bad things might happen on earth.

There are some things you can be sure of. If clouds are full of rain, then they will pour water on the earth. If a tree falls—to the south or to the north—then it will stay where it falls.

But there are some things that you can’t be sure of. You must take a chance. If a person waits for perfect weather, then he will never plant his seeds. And if a person is afraid that every cloud will bring rain, then he will never harvest his crops.

You don’t know where the wind blows. And you don’t know how a baby grows in its mother’s body. In the same way, you don’t know what God will do—and he makes everything happen.

So begin planting early in the morning, and don’t stop working until evening. Why? Because you don’t know which things will make you rich. Maybe everything you do will be successful.

It is good to be alive! It is nice to see the light from the sun. You should enjoy every day of your life, no matter how long you live! But remember that you will die. And you will be dead much longer than you were alive! And after you are dead, you can’t do anything!

Serve God While You are Young

So young people, enjoy yourselves while you are young. Be happy! Do whatever your heart leads you to do. Do whatever you want. But remember that God will judge you for everything you do. Don’t let your anger control you. And don’t let your body lead you to sin.* People do foolish things in the dawn of life while they are young.

Remember your Creator while you are young, before the bad times of old age come—before the years come when you say, “I have wasted my life.”*

Remember your Creator while you are young before the time comes when the sun and the moon and the stars become dark to you. And troubles come again and again like one storm after another.

At that time, your arms will lose their strength. Your legs will become weak and bent. Your teeth will fall out and you will not be able to chew your food. Your eyes will not see clearly. You will become hard of hearing. You will not hear the noise in the streets. Even the stone grinding your grain will seem quiet to you. You won’t be able to hear the women singing. But even the sound of a bird singing will wake you early in the morning because you won’t be able to sleep.*

You will be afraid of high places. You will be afraid of tripping over every small thing in your path. Your hair will become white like the flowers on an almond tree. You will drag yourself along like a grasshopper when you walk. You will lose your desire to live.* And then you will go to your eternal home (the grave). The mourners* will gather in the streets as they carry your body to the grave.

Death

Remember your Creator while you are young before the silver rope snaps and the golden bowl is crushed, before your life becomes useless like a jar broken at the well, before your life becomes wasted like a stone cover on a well that breaks and falls in.

I have wasted my life Literally, “I take no pleasure in them.” This might mean, “I don’t like the things I did when I was young” or “I don’t enjoy life now that I am old.”

desire to live Or, “appetite” or “sexual desire.” The Hebrew is hard to understand here.

mourners People that cry at a funeral. In Bible times, there were professional mourners that people hired to show great sadness at a person’s funeral.
7 Your body came from the earth.
   And when you die,
   your body will go back to the earth.
   But your spirit came from God.
   And when you die,
   your spirit will go back to God.

8 Everything is so meaningless. The Teacher says that it is all a waste of time!*

CONCLUSION

9 The Teacher was very wise. He used his wisdom to teach the people. The Teacher very carefully studied and arranged* many wise teachings. 10 The Teacher tried very hard to find the right words. And he wrote the teachings that are true and dependable.

11 Words from wise men are like sharp sticks that people use to make their animals go the right way. Those teachings are like strong pegs that won’t break. You can trust those teachings to show you the right way to live. Those wise teachings all come from the same Shepherd (God). 12 So son, study those teachings but be careful about other books. People are always writing books, and too much study will make you very tired.

13–14 Now, what should we learn from all the things that are written in this book?* The most important thing a person can do is to respect God and obey his commands. Why? Because God knows about all the things people do—even the secret things. He knows about all the good things and all the bad things. He will judge everything people do.

meaningless ... a waste of time The Hebrew word means “vapor or breath” or “something that is useless, meaningless, empty, wrong, or a waste of time.”

arranged This Hebrew word means, “to make straight, arrange, correct, edit.”

Now ... book Literally, “The sum of the matter, when all is heard, is ...”
Song of Solomon

1 Solomon’s Most Wonderful Song

The Woman to the Man She Loves

2 Cover me with kisses.
   For your love is better than wine.

3 Your perfume smells wonderful, but your name* is sweeter
   than the best perfume.
   That is why the young women love you.

4 Take me with you!
   Let’s run away!
   The king took me into his room.

The Women of Jerusalem to the Man

We will rejoice
   and be happy for you.
   Remember, your love is better than wine.
   With good reason the young women love you.

She Speaks to the Women

5 Daughters of Jerusalem,
   I am dark and beautiful,
   as black as the tents of Kedar and Salma. *

6 Don’t look at how dark I am,
   at how dark the sun has made me.
   My brothers were angry at me.
   They forced me to take care of their vineyards.
   So I could not take care of myself.*

She Speaks to Him

7 I love you with all my soul!
   Tell me;
   Where do you feed your sheep*?
   Where do you lay them down at noon?
   I should come to be with you* or I will be like a hired woman* caring for the sheep of your friends!

He Speaks to Her

8 You are such a beautiful woman!
   Surely you know what to do.
   Go, follow the sheep.
   Feed your young goats
   near the shepherds’ tents.

9 My darling, you are more exciting to me than any mare among the stallions* pulling Pharaoh’s chariots.*
   Those horses have beautiful decorations at the side of their faces and around their necks.*

10–11 Here are the decorations made for you,
   a golden headband* and a silver necklace.
   Your cheeks are so beautiful decorated with gold.
   Your neck is so beautiful laced with silver.

name In Hebrew this word sounds like the word “perfume.” Kedar and Salma Arabian tribes. For “Salma” the Hebrew has myself Literally, “my own vineyard.”
hired woman Or, “a woman wearing a veil.” This might mean a prostitute.
mare … stallions Female and male horses. Only male horses were used to pull chariots.
My darling … chariots Literally, “To a mare among Pharaoh’s chariots I compare you, my darling.”
headband We don’t know the exact meaning of this Hebrew word. It might be a headband with decorations dangling at the cheeks.
SONG OF SOLOMON 1:12–2:15

She Speaks
12 The smell of my perfume reaches out to the king lying on his couch.
13 My lover is like a small bag of myrrh* around my neck, lying all night between my breasts.
14 My lover is like a cluster of henna* flowers near the vineyards of En-gedi.

He Speaks
15 My darling, you are so beautiful! Oh, you are beautiful! Your eyes are like doves.

She Speaks
16 You are so handsome, my lover! Yes, and so charming! Our bed is so fresh and pleasant!*
17 The beams of our house are cedar. The rafters are fir.
2 I am a crocus on the plain,* a lily in the valleys.

He Speaks
2 My darling, among other women, you are like a lily among thorns!

She Speaks
3 My lover, among other men, you are an apple tree among the wild trees in the forest!

She Speaks to the Women
I enjoy sitting in my lover’s shadow; his fruit is so sweet to my taste.
4 My lover took me to the wine house; His intent toward me was love.
5 Strengthen me with raisins;* refresh me with apples, because I am weak with love.*

He Speaks
6 My lover’s left arm is under my head, and his right arm holds me.
7 Women of Jerusalem, promise me, by the gazelles and wild deer, don’t wake love, don’t arouse love, until I am ready.*

She Speaks Again
8 I hear my lover’s voice. Here it comes, jumping over the mountains, skipping over the hills.
9 My lover is like a gazelle or a young deer.

She Speaks to the Women
10 Look at him standing behind our wall, staring out the window, looking through the lattice.*

She Speaks
11 Look, winter is past, the rains have come and gone. The flowers are blooming in the fields. It’s time to sing!*
12 Listen, the doves have returned.
13 Young figs are growing on the fig trees. Smell the vines in bloom.

He Speaks
14 My dove, hiding in the caves high on the cliff, hidden here on the mountain, let me see you, let me hear your voice. Your voice is so pleasant, and you are so beautiful!

She Speaks to the Women
15 Catch the foxes for us—the little foxes that spoil the vineyard! Our vineyard is now in bloom.

myrrh A perfume made from the gum of certain plants.
henna A plant with sweet smelling, blue-yellow flowers that grow in clusters (groups) like grapes.
fresh and pleasant Or, “lush and green” like a fresh field of grass.
crocus on the plain Or, “a rose of Sharon.”
raisins Or, “raisin cakes.”
I am weak with love Or, “I am lovesick.”

until I am ready Literally, “until it desires.”
lattice A wooden screen over a window.
sing Or, “prune.”
SONG OF SOLOMON 2:16–4:2

16 My lover is mine, and I am his! My lover feeds among the lilies, while the day breathes its last breath and the shadows run away. Turn, my lover, be like a gazelle or a young deer on the cleft mountains!*

She Speaks

3 At night on my bed, I look for the man I love. I looked for him, but I could not find him! I will get up now! I will go around the city. In the streets and squares, I will look for the man I love. I looked for him, but I could not find him! The guards patrolling the city found me. I asked them, “Have you seen the man I love?” I had just left the guards when I found the man I love! I held him. I would not let him go, while I took him to my mother’s house, to the room of she who bore* me.

She Speaks to the Women

5 Women of Jerusalem, promise me, by the gazelles and wild deer, don’t wake love, don’t arouse love, until I am ready.*

He and His Bride

6 Who is this woman coming from the desert* with this large group of people,*

He Speaks to Her

4 My darling, you are so beautiful! Oh, you are beautiful! Your eyes are like doves under your veil. Your hair is long and flowing, like little goats dancing down the slopes of Mount Gilead. Your teeth are white like ewes* just coming from their bath. They all give birth to twins; Not one of them has lost a baby.

The dust rises behind them, like clouds of smoke from burning myrrh and frankincense* and other spices.*

7 Look, Solomon’s traveling chair!* There are 60 soldiers guarding it. Strong soldiers of Israel!

8 All of them are trained fighting men; their swords at their side, ready for any danger of the night!

9 King Solomon made a traveling chair* for himself. The wood came from Lebanon. The poles were made from silver, the supports were made from gold. The seat was covered with purple cloth. It was inlaid with love by the women of Jerusalem.

11 Women of Zion, come out and see King Solomon See the crown* his mother put on him the day he was married, the day he was so happy!

myrrh and frankincense Expensive spices that smell sweet when burned.
spices Literally, “powders of the trader.” These were imported spices and incense.
traveling chair A kind of chair that rich people traveled in. These chairs were covered and had poles that slaves used to carry them.
crown This might be a wreath of flowers he wore on his head at his wedding.
ewe Female goats.

the cleft mountains Or, “the mountains of Bether” or “the mountains of spice.”
bore Or, “taught.” See 8:2.
until I am ready Literally, “until it desires.”
woman coming from the desert See 8:5.
SONG OF SOLOMON 4:3–5:1

3 Your lips are like a red silk thread.
Your mouth is beautiful.
Your temples* under your veil are like two slices of pomegranate.*

4 Your neck is long and thin like David’s tower.
That tower was built to be decorated* with a thousand shields on its walls, with the shields of powerful soldiers.

5 Your breasts are like twin fawns,* like twins of a gazelle,* feeding among the lilies.

6 I will go to that mountain of myrrh* and to that hill of frankincense* while the day breathes its last breath, and the shadows run away.

7 My darling, you are beautiful all over.
You have no blemishes* anywhere!
Come with me, my bride, from Lebanon.
Come with me from Lebanon.
Come from the peak of Amana,*
from the top of Senir* and Hermon, from the mountain of the leopards!

8 My darling,* my bride, you excite me!
You have stolen my heart
with just one of your eyes, with just one of the jewels from your necklace.

9 Your love is so beautiful, my darling,*
my bride!
Your love is better than wine;
The smell of your perfume is better than any kind of spice!

10 My bride, your lips drip honey.
Honey and milk are under your tongue.
Your clothes smell as sweet as perfume.*

12 My darling,* my bride, you are pure,
like a locked garden,
You are like a locked pool,
a closed fountain.

13 Your limbs are like a garden filled with pomegranates*
and other pleasant fruit;
with all the best spices:
henna,* 14nard,*  saffron,* calamus,*
and cinnamon.*

15 You are like a garden fountain,
a well of fresh water,
flowing down from the mountains of Lebanon.

She Speaks

16 Wake up, north wind!
Come, south wind!
Blow on my garden.
Spread its sweet smell.
Let my lover enter his garden,
and eat its pleasant fruit.

He Speaks

5 My darling,* my bride,
I have entered my garden.
I have gathered my myrrh* and spice.
I have eaten my honey and honeycomb.
I have drunk my wine and milk.

The Women Speak to the Lovers

Dearest friends, eat, drink!
Be drunk with love!

---

temples  The sides of the head.
pomegranate  A red fruit with many tiny seeds inside it. Each seed is covered with a soft, tasty part of the fruit.
Your neck ... decorated  Or “Your neck is like David’s tower, built with rows of stone.” This would mean she wore many necklaces, one above the other, which looked like rows of stone in a tower.
fawns  Baby deer.
gazelle  An animal like a deer or antelope.
myrrh  A kind of perfume made from the sap of plants.
frankincense  An expensive perfume from Arabia.
blemishes  Ugly marks.
Amana  The name of a mountain in Lebanon.
Senir  The Amorite word for “Snow Mountain.” This means Mount Hermon. darling  Literally, “sister.”

---

perfume  Or, “Lebanon.”
henna  A plant with sweet smelling, blue-yellow flowers that grow in clusters (groups) like grapes.
nard  A very expensive oil from the root from the nard plant. It was used as a perfume.
saffron  A kind of yellow flower used in making perfume.
calamus  A kind of reed plant used in making perfume.
cinnamon  A kind of plant used as a spice and in making perfume.
aloes  Perfume made from a special kind of tree.
SONG OF SOLOMON 5:2–6:1

She Speaks

2 I am asleep, but my heart is awake. I hear my lover knocking. “Open to me, my darling, my love, my dove, my perfect one! My head is soaked with dew. My hair is wet with the mist of the night.”

3 “I have taken off my robe. I don’t want to put it on again. I have washed my feet, I don’t want to get them dirty again.”

4 But my lover put his hand through the opening,* and I felt sorry for him.*

5 I got up to open for my lover, myrrh dripping from my hands, myrrh* scented lotion dripped from my fingers onto the handles of the lock.

6 I opened for my lover, but my lover had turned away and was gone! I nearly died when he came and went.* I looked for him, but I couldn’t find him; I called for him, but he didn’t answer me.

7 The guards patrolling the city found me. They hit me. They hurt me. The guards on the wall took my robe* from me.

8 I tell you, women of Jerusalem, if you find my lover, tell him I am weak with love.*

The Women of Jerusalem Answer Her

9 Beautiful woman, how is your lover different from other lovers? Is your lover better than other lovers? Is that why you ask us to make this promise?

She Answers the Women of Jerusalem

10 My lover is tanned and radiant (shining). He would stand out among 10,000 men. His head is like the purest gold. His hair is curly and as black as a raven.

11 His eyes are like doves by a stream, like doves in a pool of milk, like a jewel in its setting.

12 His cheeks are like a garden of spices, like flowers used for perfume. His lips are like lilies,* dripping with liquid myrrh*

13 His arms are like gold rods, filled with jewels. His body is like smooth ivory with sapphires* set in it.

14 His legs are like marble pillars, on bases of fine gold. He stands tall like the finest cedar tree in Lebanon!

15 Yes, women of Jerusalem, my lover is the most desirable. His mouth is the sweetest of all. That is my lover, that is my darling.

The Women of Jerusalem Speak to Her

6 Beautiful woman, where has your lover gone? Which way did your lover go? Tell us so we can help you look for him.

I am weak with love Literally, “I am lovesick.”
lily Kind of flower. Here it is probably a red flower.
myrrh A kind of perfume made from the sap of plants.
sapphires Blue stones.
SONG OF SOLOMON 6:2–7:2

She Answers the Women of Jerusalem

2 My lover has gone down to his garden, to the flower beds of spices. He went to feed in the gardens, and gather the lilies.

3 I belong to my lover, and my lover belongs to me. He is the one feeding among the lilies.

He Speaks to Her

4 My darling, you are as beautiful as Tirzah,* as pleasant as Jerusalem; as awesome as those fortified cities.*

5 Don’t look at me! Your eyes excite me too much! And your hair is long and flowing, like little goats dancing down the slopes of Mount Gilead.

6 Your teeth are white like ewes* just coming from their bath. They all give birth to twins. Not one of them has lost a baby.

7 Your temples* under your veil* are like slices of pomegranate.*

8 There might be 60 queens and 80 women servants,* and young women too many to count, but there is only one woman for me, my dove, my perfect one. She is the favorite of her mother, Her mother’s favorite child!

The Women Praise Her

9 The young women see her and praise her. Even the queens and women servants* praise her.

10 Who is that young woman? She shines out like the dawn. She is as pretty as the moon, She is as radiant as the sun, She is as awesome as those armies in the sky.*

She Speaks

11 I went down to the grove of walnut trees, to see the fruit of the valley, to see if the vines were in bloom, to see if the pomegranates* had budded.

12 Before I realized it,* my soul had placed me in the chariots* of the king’s people.*

The Women of Jerusalem Call to Her

13 Come back, come back, Shulamith!* Come back, come back, so we may look at you. Why are you staring at Shulamith, as she dances the Mahanaim dance?*

He Praises Her Beauty

7 Princess,* your feet are beautiful in those sandals. The curves of your thighs are like jewelry made by an artist.

2 Your navel is like a round cup,* may it never be without wine.

Tirzah One of the capitals of northern Israel.

fortified cities We are not sure of the exact meaning of the Hebrew word here and in verse 10.

ewes Female goats.

temples The sides of the head.

veil A piece of cloth used to cover a person’s face.

pomegranate A red fruit with many tiny seeds inside it. Each seed is covered with a soft, tasty part of the fruit.

women servants Or, “concubines,” slave women who were like wives to a man.

those armies in the sky We are not sure of the exact meaning of the Hebrew word here and in verse 10.

Before I realized it In Hebrew this verse is very hard to understand.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war. But here this might mean one of the traveling chairs, as in 3:7.

the king’s people Or, “Amminadib,” or “my kingly people.”

Shulamith Or, “Shulamite.” The word might be the feminine form of the name “Solomon.” This could mean she was or would become the bride of Solomon. This name might also mean, “perfect, at peace” or “woman from Shunem.”

Mahanaim dance Or, “the victory dance,” or “the dance of the two camps.”

Princess Literally, “Bath Nadib: Daughter of a prince.” This is like the word “Amminadib” in 6:12.

round cup Or “turned bowl,” a stone bowl made on a lathe and used for mixing wine before it is poured into cups. This might also mean a bowl shaped like a crescent or half-moon.
SONG OF SOLOMON 7:3–8:6

Your belly is like a pile of wheat bordered with lilies.
3 Your breasts are like twin fawns* of a young gazelle.*
4 Your neck is like an ivory tower. Your eyes are like the pools in Heshbon near the gate of Bath Rabbim. Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon which looks toward Damascus.
5 Your head is like Carmel, and the hair on your head is like silk. Your long flowing hair captures even a king!
6 You are so beautiful! And so pleasant! A lovely, delightful young woman!
7 You are tall, as tall as a palm tree. And your breasts are like the clusters of fruit on that tree.
8 I would love to climb that tree, and take hold of its branches.

May your breasts be like clusters of grapes and your fragrance* like apples.
9 May your mouth be like the best wine, flowing straight to my love, flowing gently to the sleepers’ lips.

She Speaks to Him

10 I belong to my lover, and he wants me!
11 Come, my lover, let’s go out into the field, let’s spend the night in the villages.
12 Let’s get up early and go to the vineyards. Let’s see if the vines are in bloom. Let’s see if the blossoms have opened and if the pomegranates* are in bloom. There I will give you my love.

Smell the mandrakes* and all the pleasant flowers by our door!
Yes, I have saved many pleasant things for you, my lover.
Pleasant things, new and old!

8 If you were a baby, like my little brother nursing at his mother’s breasts, then if I found you outside, I could kiss you, and no one would say it was wrong! I would lead you into my mother’s house, to the room of she who taught me. I would give you spiced wine squeezed from my pomegranate.*

She Speaks to the Women

3 His left arm is under my head, and his right hand holds me.
4 Women of Jerusalem, promise me, don’t wake love, don’t arouse love, until I am ready.*

The Women of Jerusalem Speak

5 Who is this woman coming from the desert, leaning on her lover?

She Speaks to Him

I woke you under the apple tree, where your mother bore you, where you were born.
6 Keep me near you like a seal you wear over your heart, like a signet ring* you wear on your hand. Love is as strong as death. Passion is as strong as the grave.*
Its sparks become a flame and it grows to become a great fire!*

fawns Baby deer.
gazelle An animal like a deer or antelope.
fragrance Literally, “breath of your nose.”
pomegranates A red fruit with many tiny seeds inside it. Each seed is covered with a soft, tasty part of the fruit.
mandrakes Plants with roots that look like people. People thought these plants had the power to make people fall in love.
until I am ready Literally, “until it desires.”
seal … signet ring Things that were pressed into clay or hot wax to leave a special mark. This mark was like a person’s signature, so it was very important not to lose these things.
the grave Or, “Sheol,” the place where dead people go.
great fire Or, “the flame of the Lord.”
A flood cannot put out love.
Rivers cannot drown love.
Would people despise a man for giving everything he owns for love!

Her Brothers Speak

8 We have a little sister, and her breasts are not yet grown. What should we do for our sister when a man comes asking to marry her.

9 If she were a wall, we would put silver trim* around her. If she were a door, we would put a cedar board around her.

She Answers Her Brothers

10 I am a wall, and my breasts are my towers. And he is satisfied with me!*

---

He Speaks

11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon. He put men in charge of that field of grapes. And each man brought in grapes worth 1,000 shekels* of silver.

12 Solomon, you can keep your 1,000 shekels. Give 200 shekels to each man for the grapes he brought. But I will keep my own field of grapes!

He Speaks to Her

13 There you sit, in the garden, friends are listening to your voice. Let me hear it too!

She Speaks to Him

14 Hurry, my lover. Be like a gazelle* or a young deer on the mountains of spice!

---

*trim Or “supports.” Often horizontal beams and towers were built into walls to strengthen and support them. But here this seems to be a decoration.

*he is satisfied with me Literally, “In his eyes I find peace.” In Hebrew this is also like the names “Solomon” and “Shulamith.”

*1,000 shekels About 25 pounds.

*gazelle An animal like a deer or antelope.
Isaiah

1 This is the vision* of Isaiah son of Amoz. God showed Isaiah things that would happen to Judah and Jerusalem. Isaiah saw these things during the time Uzziah,* Jotham,* Ahaz,* and Hezekiah* were kings of Judah.

2 Heaven and Earth, listen to the Lord! The Lord says,
   “I raised my children.
   I helped my children grow.
   But my children turned against me.
   A cow knows its master.
   And a donkey knows the place where its owner feeds it.
   But the people of Israel don’t know me.
   My people don’t understand.”

3 The nation of Israel is full of guilt. This guilt is like a heavy weight the people have to carry. Those people are like bad children from evil families. They left the Lord. They insulted the Holy One (God) of Israel. They left him and treated him like a stranger.

4 God says, “Why should I continue to punish you people? I punished you, but you did not change. You continue to rebel against me. Now every head and every heart is sick.
5 From the bottom of your feet to the top of your head, every part of your body has wounds, hurts, and open sores. You have not cared for your sores. Your wounds are not cleaned and covered.

6 “Your land is ruined. Your cities have been burned with fire. Your enemies have taken your land. Your land is ruined like a country destroyed by armies. The Daughter of Zion (Jerusalem) is now like an empty tent left in a field of grapes. It is like an old house left in a field of cucumbers. It is like a city that has been defeated by enemies.”
7 This is true, but the Lord All-Powerful did allow a few people to continue living. We were not completely destroyed like the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah.*

8 God wants true service

10 You leaders of Sodom, listen to the Lord’s message! You people of Gomorrah, listen to God’s teachings! The Lord says, “Why do you continue giving me all these sacrifices? I have had enough of your sacrifices of rams and fat from well-fed animals. I am not pleased by the blood of bulls, sheep, and goats.
11 When you people come to meet with me, you trample (walk on) everything in my yard. Who told you to do this?
12 Don’t continue bringing worthless sacrifices to me. I hate the incense* you give me. I can’t bear your feasts for the New Moon,* the Sabbath,* and your holidays. I hate the evil you do during your holy Sodom, Gomorrah Two cities that God destroyed because the people were so evil.

sacrifices Gifts to God. Sometimes these were special kinds of animals that were killed and burned on an altar.
incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.
New Moon The first day of the Jewish month. This was a special day of worship.
Subbath Saturday, a special day of rest and worship for Jews.
meetings. 14With my whole self I hate your monthly meetings and councils. These meetings have become like heavy weights to me. And I am tired of carrying those weights.

15You people will raise your arms to pray to me—but I will refuse to look at you. You people will say more and more prayers—but I will refuse to listen to you. Why? Because your hands are covered with blood.

16“Wash yourselves. Make yourselves clean. Stop doing the bad things you do. I don’t want to see those bad things. Stop doing wrong! 17Learn to do good things. Be fair with other people. Punish the people that hurt others. Help the children that have no parents. Help the women whose husbands are dead.”

18The Lord says, “Come, let’s discuss these things. Your sins are red like scarlet,* but they can be washed away and you will be white like snow. Your sins are bright red, but you can become white like wool.

19“If you listen to the things I say, then you will have the good things from this land. 20But if you refuse to listen, you are against me. And your enemies will destroy you.”

The Lord himself said those things.

Jerusalem Is Not Loyal to God

21God says, “Look at Jerusalem. She was a city that trusted and followed me. What caused her to become like a prostitute?* She does not follow me now. Jerusalem should be filled with fairness. People living in Jerusalem should live the way God wants. But now, murderers live there.

22“Goodness is like silver. But your silver has become worthless. Your wine (goodness) has been mixed with water—it is now weak. 23Your rulers are rebels and friends of thieves. All of your rulers demand bribes—they accept money for doing wrong things. All of your rulers take pay for cheating people. Your rulers don’t try to help the children that have no parents. And your rulers don’t listen to the needs of the women whose husbands are dead.”

Because of all these things, the Master, the Lord All-Powerful, the Mighty One of Israel, says, “I will punish you, my enemies. You will not cause me any more trouble. People use lye* to clean silver. In the same way, I will clean all your wrongs away. I will take all the worthless things out from you. I will bring back the kind of judges you had in the beginning. Your counselors will be like the counselors you had long ago. Then you will be called ‘The Good and Faithful City.’”

27God is good and does the things that are right. So he will rescue Zion* and the people that don’t follow the Lord.

29In the future, people will be ashamed of the oak trees* and special gardens* you choose to worship. 30This will happen because you people will be like oak trees with leaves that are dying. You people will be like a garden dying without water. 31Powerful people will be like small dry pieces of wood. And the things those people do will be like sparks that start a fire—the powerful people and the things they do will begin to burn. And no person will be able to stop that fire.

2Isaiah son of Amoz saw this message about Judah and Jerusalem.

2In the last days, the mountain of the Lord’s temple* will be on the highest of the mountains. It will be raised higher than all the hills. There will be a steady stream of people from all nations going there. 3Many people will go there. They will say, “Come! Let’s go up to the Lord’s mountain. Let’s go up to the temple of the God of Jacob. Then God will teach us his way of living. And we will follow him.”

The teachings from God—the Lord’s message—will begin in Jerusalem on the mountain of Zion* and go out to all the world. 4Then God will be a judge for the people of *scarlet An expensive, bright red dye or piece cloth.

*prostitute A woman that sells her body for sex. Sometimes this also means a person that stops following God.
*lye A chemical used like soap.
*Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
*oak trees These trees were like idols that people worshiped.
*special gardens Gardens where people worshiped false gods.
*temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.
ISAIAH 2:5–3:3

God will end the arguments for many people. Those people will stop using their weapons for fighting. They will make plows from their swords. And they will use their spears as tools for cutting plants. People will stop fighting against other people. People will never again train for war.

5Family of Jacob, you should follow the Lord. 6I say this to you, because you have left your people. Your people have become filled with the wrong ideas of the people in the east. Your people try to tell the future like the Philistines.* Your people have completely accepted those strange ideas. 7Your land has been filled with silver and gold from other places. There are many, many treasures there. Your land has been filled with horses. There are many, many chariots* there. 8Your land is full of statues that people worship. The people made those idols* and the people worship them. 9People have become worse and worse. People have become very low. God, surely you will not forgive them, will you?*

God's Enemies Will Be Afraid

10Go hide in the dirt and behind the rocks! You should be afraid of the Lord and you should hide from his great power! 11Proud people will stop being proud. Those proud people will bow down to the ground with shame. At that time, only the Lord will still stand high.

12The Lord has a special day planned. On that day, the Lord will punish the proud and boastful people. Then those proud people will be made not important. 13 Those proud people are like| tall cedar trees from Lebanon.* 14 They are like| great oak trees from Bashan.* 15 But God will punish those people. 16 Those proud people are like great ships from Tarshish.* (These ships are full of important things.) But God will punish those proud people.

17At that time, people will stop being proud. The people that are now proud will bow low to the ground. And at that time, only the Lord will stand high. 18All the idols (false gods) will be gone. 19People will hide behind rocks and in cracks in the ground. People will be afraid of the Lord and his great power. This will happen when the Lord stands to make the earth shake.

20At that time, people will throw away their gold and silver idols. (The people made those statues so the people could worship them.) The people will throw those statues into holes in the ground where bats and moles* live. 21Then the people will hide in cracks in the rocks. They will do this because they will be afraid of the Lord and his great power. This will happen when the Lord stands to make the earth shake.

Israel Should Trust God

22You should stop trusting other people to save you. They are only people—and people die. (So, you should not think they are strong like God.) 3Understand these things I am telling you. The Master, the Lord All-Powerful, will take away all the things Judah and Jerusalem depend on. God will take away all the food and all the water. 2God will take away all the heroes and great soldiers. God will take away all the judges,* the prophets,* the people that do magic, and the elders.* 3God will take away the military leaders and the government leaders. God will take away the skilled ships from Tarshish This is probably a special type of cargo ship.

bats and moles Small animals that live in caves and holes in the ground.

judges In Israel, judges were people that judged, led, and protected the people.

prophets A true prophet was a person called by God to be a special servant. God used dreams and visions to show them things to teach the people.

elders Older men that were city leaders; they helped make decisions for the people.

Philistines People living on the coast of Palestine. They were one of Israel’s enemies.

chariots Small wagons used for war.

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

God ... will you Literally, “Surely you will not raise them up.”

Lebanon A country north of Israel. It was famous for its great cedar and pine trees.

Bashan An area northeast of Israel.
ISAIAH 3:4–26

The Lord says, “You people have burned the field of grapes (Judah). You took things from poor people, and those things are still in your houses. What gives you the right to hurt my people? What gives you the right to push the faces of the poor people into the dirt?” My Master, the Lord All-Powerful said these things.

16The Lord says, “The women in Zion* have become very proud. They walk around with their heads in the air, acting like they are better than other people. Those women flirt with their eyes. And they dance around making noise with their ankle bracelets.”

17My Master will make sores on the heads of those women in Zion.* The Lord will make the women lose all their hair. 18At that time, the Lord will take away all the things they are proud of: the beautiful ankle bracelets, the necklaces that look like the sun and the moon, 19the earrings, bracelets, and veils (face coverings), 20the scarves, the ankle chains, the sashes worn around their waists, the bottles of perfume, and the charms,* 21the signet rings,* and the nose-rings, 22the fine robes, capes, shawls, and purses, 23the mirrors, linen dresses, turbans, and long shawls.

24Those women now have sweet smelling perfume, but at that time, their perfume will become moldy and rotten. Now they wear belts. But at that time, they will have only ropes to wear. Now they have their hair fixed fancy ways. But at that time, their heads will be shaved—they will have no hair.* Now they have party dresses. But at that time, they will have only clothes to show sadness. They have beauty marks on their faces now. But at that time, they will have another mark. It will be a mark burned into their skin.

25At that time, your men will be killed with swords. Your heroes will die in war. 26There

---

4God says, “I will cause young boys to be your leaders. 5Every person will be against every other person. Young people will not respect older people. Common people will not respect the important people.”

6At that time, a person will grab one of his brothers from his own family. That person will tell the brother, “You have a coat,* so you will be our leader. You will be the leader over all these ruins.”

7But that brother will stand and say, “I can’t help you. I don’t have enough food or clothes in my house. You will not make me your leader.”

8This will happen because Jerusalem has stumbled and has done wrong. Judah has fallen and has stopped following God. The things they say and do are against the Lord. The Lord’s glorious eyes clearly see all these things.

9The faces of the people show that they are guilty of doing wrong. And they are proud of their sin. They are like the people of Sodom*—they don’t care who sees their sin. It will be very bad for them. They have brought much trouble to themselves.

10Tell the good people that good things will happen to them. They will receive a reward for the good things they do. 11But it will be very bad for the evil people. Much trouble will come to them. They will be punished for all the wrong things they have done.

12Children will defeat my people. Women will rule over my people. My people, your guides lead you in the wrong way. They turn you away from the right way.

God’s Decision About His People

13The Lord will stand to judge the people. 14The Lord will give his judgment against the elders* and leaders for the things they have done.
ISAIAH 4:1–5:7

778

will be crying and sadness in the meeting places near the city gates. Jerusalem will sit there empty like a woman that has lost everything to thieves and robbers. She will sit on the ground and cry.

4 At that time, seven women will grab one man. The women will say, “We will make our own bread to eat. And we will make our own clothes to wear. We will do all these things for ourselves if you will only marry us. Let us have your name. Please, take away our shame.”

2 At that time, the Lord’s plant (Judah) will be very beautiful and great. The people still living in Israel will be very proud of the things the land grows. 3 At that time, all the people that are still living in Zion* and Jerusalem will be called holy (special) people. This will happen to all the people that have their names on a special list; the list of people that will be allowed to continue living.

4 The Lord will wash away the blood from the women of Zion.* The Lord will wash all the blood out of Jerusalem. God will use the spirit of justice and judge fairly. And he will use the spirit of burning, and make everything pure.

5 At that time, God will prove that he is with his people. During the day, God will make a cloud of smoke. And during the night, God will make a bright flaming fire.* These proofs will be in the sky over every building and over every meeting of the people on the mountain of Zion.* There will be a covering over every person for protection.

6 This covering will be a place of safety. The covering will protect the people from the heat of the sun. The covering will be a safe place to hide from all kinds of floods and rain.

5 Now, I will sing a song for my friend (God). This song is about the love my friend has for his field of grapes (Israel).

My friend had a vineyard* in a very rich field.
2 My friend dug and cleared the field.
   He planted the best grapevines there.
   He built a tower in the middle of the field.
   He hoped for good grapes to grow there.
   But there were only bad grapes.

3 So God said:
   “You people living in Jerusalem, and you, man of Judah,* think about me and my vineyard.*

4 What more could I do for my field of grapes?
   I did everything I could.
   I hoped for good grapes to grow.
   But there were only bad grapes.
   Why did that happen?

5 Now, I will tell you what I will do to my field of grapes:

   I will pull up the thorn bushes (that are protecting the field), and I will burn them.
   I will break down the stone wall, and the stones will be walked on.
   I will make my vineyard* an empty field.
   No person will care for the plants.
   No person will work in the field.
   Weeds and thorns will grow there.
   I will command the clouds not to rain on the field.”

7 The field of grapes that belongs to the Lord All-Powerful is the nation of Israel. The grapevine—the plant the Lord loves—is the man of Judah.*

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

wash away the blood This is like a special ceremony for washing the blood after a menstrual period. After this a man and wife could be together and show their love for each other.

cloud of smoke … fire These were signs that God used to show he was with his people.

person Literally, “glory,” but this also means “soul,” “person” (see Psalm 16:9).

vineyard A garden for growing grapes.

You people … man of Judah Or “Rulers of Jerusalem and leader of Judah…”

man of Judah This could mean either, “the king of Judah” or simply, “people of Judah.”
The Lord hoped for justice, but there was only killing. The Lord hoped for fairness, but there were only cries from people being treated badly.

8 You people live very close together. You build houses until there is no place for anything else. But the Lord will punish you, and you will be made to live alone. You will be the only people in the whole land! 9 The Lord All-Powerful said this to me, and I heard him, “There are many houses now. But I promise that all the houses will be destroyed. There are nice, big houses now. But those houses will be empty. 10 At that time, a ten-acre field of grapes will make only a little wine. And many sacks of seed will grow only a little grain.”

11 You people rise early in the morning and go looking for beer to drink. You stay awake late at night, becoming drunk with wine. 12 You party with your wine, harps, drums, flutes, and other musical instruments. And you don’t see the things the Lord has done. The Lord’s hands have made many, many things—but you don’t notice those things. So, it will be very bad for you people.

13 The Lord says, “My people will be captured and taken away. Why? Because they don’t really know me. Some of the people living in Israel are important now. They are happy with their easy lives. But all those great people will become very thirsty and very hungry. 14 Then they will die and Sheol, the place of death, will open her mouth with no limit. And all those people will go down into Sheol.”

You people … in the whole land Or, “You join houses to houses and fields to fields until there is no room (for other people), until you are left living alone in the land.”

only a little wine Literally, “one bath.” A bath is a measure that equals about 6 gallons.

only a little grain Literally, “A homer of seed will grow only an ephah of grain.” A homer equals about 6 bushels. An ephah equals about one-half bushel.

harps Musical instruments with several strings.

Sheol This is the place where all people go when they die. Usually this means the grave, but it can mean the place where our spirits go.

15 Those people will be humbled. Those great people will bow their heads and look at the ground. 16 The Lord All-Powerful will judge fairly, and people will know he is great. The Holy God will do the things that are right, and the people will respect him. 17 God will make the people of Israel leave their country; the land will be empty. Sheol will go any place they want. Lambs will walk on the land that rich people once owned.

18 Look at those people! They pull their guilt and sins behind them like people pull wagons with ropes. 19 Those people say, “We wish God would hurry and do the things he plans to do. Then we would know what will happen. We wish the Lord’s plan would happen soon. Then we would know what his plan is.”

20 Those people say that good things are bad, and bad things are good. Those people think light is darkness, and darkness is light. Those people think sour is sweet, and sweet is sour. 21 Those people think they are very smart. They think they are very intelligent. 22 Those people are famous for drinking wine. They are champions at mixing drinks. 23 And if you pay those people money, they will forgive a criminal. But they don’t allow good people to be judged fairly. 24 Bad things will happen to those people. Their descendants will be completely destroyed—like straw and leaves are burned by fire. Their descendants will be destroyed like a root that dies and becomes dust. Their descendants will be destroyed like a fire destroys a flower—the ashes blow away in the wind.

Those people have refused to obey the teachings of the Lord All-Powerful. Those people hated the message from the Holy One (God) of Israel. 25 So the Lord has become very angry with his people. And the Lord will raise his hand and punish them. Even the mountains will be frightened. Dead bodies will lie in the streets like garbage. But God will still be angry. His hand will still be raised to punish the people.
ISAIAH 5:26–6:13

God Will Bring Armies to Punish Israel

26 Look! God is giving a sign to the nations in a faraway land. God is raising a flag, and he is whistling to call those people. The enemy is coming from a faraway land. The enemy will soon enter the country. They are moving very quickly. 27 The enemy never becomes tired or falls down. They never become sleepy and fall asleep. Their weapon belts are always ready. Their shoestrings never break. 28 The enemy’s arrows are sharp. All of their bows are ready to shoot. The horses’ feet are hard like rock. Clouds of dust rise from behind their chariots.*

29 The enemy shouts, and their shout is like a lion’s roar. It is loud like a young lion. The enemy growls and grabs the people it is fighting against. The people struggle and try to escape. But there is no person to save them. 30 So, the “lion” roars loud like the waves of the sea. And the captured people look at the ground, and then there is only darkness. All light becomes dark in this thick cloud.

God Calls Isaiah to Be a Prophet

6 In the year that King Uzziah* died,* I saw my Master. He was sitting on a very high and wonderful throne.* His long robe filled the temple.* 2 Seraph angels* stood around the Lord. Each Seraph angel had six wings. The angels used two of their wings to cover their faces. The angels used two of their wings to cover their feet. And the angels used two of their wings for flying. 3 Each angel was calling to the other angels. The angels said, “Holy, holy, holy, the Lord All-Powerful is very holy.* His Glory* fills the whole earth.” The angels’ voices were very loud. 4 Their voices caused the frame around the door to shake. Then the temple* began filling with smoke.*

5 I became very scared. I said, “Oh, no! I will be destroyed. I am not pure (good) enough to speak to God. And I live among people that are not pure enough to speak to God.* Yet I have seen the King, the Lord All-Powerful.”

6 There was a fire on the altar.* One of the Seraph angels* used a pair of tongs* to take a hot coal from the fire. The angel flew to me with the hot coal in his hand. 7 The Seraph angel touched my mouth with the hot coal. Then the angel said, “Look! Because this hot coal touched your lips the wrong things you have done are gone from you. Your sins are now erased.”

8 Then I heard my Lord’s voice. The Lord said, “Who can I send? Who will go for us?” So I said, “Here I am. Send me!”

9 Then the Lord said, “Go and tell this to the people: ‘Listen closely, but don’t understand! Look closely, but don’t learn!’ 10 Confuse the people. Make the people not able to understand the things they hear and see. If you don’t do this, then people might really understand the things they hear in their minds. If they did this, then the people might come back to me and be healed (forgiven)!”

11 Then I asked, “Master, how long should I do this?” The Lord answered, “Do this until the cities are destroyed, and the people are gone. Do this until there are no people left living in the houses. Do this until the land is destroyed and left empty.”

12 The Lord will make the people go far away. There will be large areas of empty land in the country. 13 But a tenth of the people will be allowed to stay in the land. These people will return to the Lord, even though they were to be destroyed. These people will be chariots Small wagons used for war.

Uzziah A king of Judah. He ruled from about 767–740 B.C.
year ... died This was probably 740 B.C. throne A special chair a king or queen sits on.
temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.
Seraph angels Special angels God used as messengers. The name might mean they were bright like fire.
His Glory The “Glory of the Lord,” one of the forms God used when he appeared to people. It was like a bright shining light.
smoke This showed that God was in the temple. See Ex. 40:34–35.
people ... God Literally, “people that do not have pure lips.”
atlar A stone table used for burning sacrifices as gifts to God.
tongs A “U-shaped” tool for holding hot things. like an oak tree. When the tree is chopped down, a stump is left. This stump (the people remaining) is a very special seed.

Trouble with Aram

Ahaz* was the son of Jotham.* Jotham was the son of Uzziah.* Rezin* was the king of Aram,* Pekah son of Remaliah* was the king of Israel. During the time Ahaz was king of Judah, Rezin and Pekah went up to Jerusalem to fight against it. But they were not able to defeat the city.

A message was told to the family of David.* The message said, “The army of Aram and the army of Ephraim (Israel) have joined together. The two armies are camped together.”

When King Ahaz heard this message, he and the people became very scared. They were shaking with fear like trees of the forest blowing in the wind.

Then the Lord told Isaiah, “You and your son Shear Jashub* should go out and talk to Ahaz. Go to the place where the water flows into the upper pool. This is on the street going to Laundryman’s Field.

Tell Ahaz, ‘Be careful, but be calm. Don’t be afraid. Don’t let those two men, Rezin and Remaliah’s son,* scare you! Those men are like two burnt sticks. In the past they were burning hot. But now they are only smoke. Rezin, Aram, and Remaliah’s son are angry. They have made plans against you. They said: We should go and fight against Judah. We will divide Judah for ourselves. We will make Tabeel’s son the new king of Judah.’”

The Lord my Master says, “Their plan will not succeed. It will not happen. His plan will not happen while Rezin* is the ruler of Damascus.* Ephraim (Israel) is now a nation, but 65 years in the future Ephraim (Israel) will not be a nation. Their plan will not succeed while Samaria is the capital of Ephraim (Israel) and while the ruler of Samaria is Remaliah’s son.* If you don’t believe this message then people should not believe you.”

Immanuel—God Is with Us

Then the Lord continued to speak to Ahaz.*

The Lord said, “Ask for a sign to prove to yourself that these things are true. You can ask for any sign you want. The sign can come from a place as deep as Sheol,* or the sign can come from a place as high as the skies.”

But Ahaz said, “I will not ask for a sign as proof. I will not test the Lord.”

Then Isaiah said, “Family of David,* listen very carefully! You test the people’s patience—and this is not important to you. But {God,} my Master, will show you a sign:

Look at the young woman.*

She is pregnant, and she will give birth to a son. She will name him Immanuel.*

He will eat butter and honey.* He will live like this to learn how to choose to do good and to refuse to do evil.

But before the child is old enough to learn about good and evil, the land of Ephraim (Israel) and Aram will be empty.

Ahaz A king of Judah. He ruled about 735–727 B.C.
Jotham A king of Judah. He ruled about 740–735 B.C.
Uzziah A king of Judah. He ruled about 767–740 B.C.
Rezin A king of Aram. He ruled about 740–731 B.C.
Aram A country north of Israel.
Pekah son of Remaliah A king of north Israel. He ruled about 740–731 B.C.
family of David The royal family of Judah. God promised that men from David’s family would be kings in Judah.
Shear Jashub This is a name that means “a few people will come back.”
Remaliah’s son This is Pekah, the king of north Israel. He ruled about 740–731 B.C.

Damascus A city in the country of Aram (Syria).
The sign … Sheol Or, “make your question deep.” The Hebrew word for “question” is like the word for Sheol.
the sign … skies Literally, “make your question very high.”
young woman Or, “Look at the virgin. She will become pregnant and give birth to a son.” This is possibly the meaning of the ancient Greek version that was translated about 150 B.C. See Gen. 16:11,12 and Luke 1:30–35 for similar announcements.
Immanuel This name means “God is with us.”
butter and honey This probably means the food that even poor people could find to eat.
“You are afraid of those two kings now. But you should be afraid of the Lord. Why? Because the Lord will bring some troubled times to you. Those troubles will come to your people and to the people of your father’s family. What will God do? God will bring the king of Assyria to fight against you.

18 “At that time, the Lord will call for the ‘Fly.’ (The ‘Fly’ is now near the streams of Egypt.) And the Lord will call for the ‘Bee.’ (The ‘Bee’ is now in the country of Assyria.) These enemies will come to your country. These enemies will camp in the rocky canyons near the desert streams and near the bushes and watering holes. The Lord will use Assyria to punish Judah. Assyria will be hired and used like a razor. It will be like the Lord is shaving the hair from Judah’s head and legs. It will be like the Lord is shaving off Judah’s beard.

21 “At that time, a person will be able to keep only one young cow and two sheep alive. There will be only enough milk for that person to eat butter. Every person in the country will eat butter and honey. In this land, there are now fields that have 1,000 grapevines. Each grapevine is worth 1,000 pieces of silver. But these fields will become full of weeds and thorns. The land will become wild and useful only as a hunting ground. People once worked and grew food on these hills. But at that time, people will not go there. The land will be filled with weeds and thorns. Only sheep and cattle will go to those places.”

The Lord Protects His Servants

The Lord told me, “Get a large scroll* and use a pen* to write these words: ‘This is for Maher Shalal Hash Baz.’ (This means ‘There will soon be looting and stealing.’)”

2I gathered some people that could be trusted to be witnesses. (These people were Uriah the priest, and Zechariah son of Jeberekiah.) These men watched me write those words. Then I went to the woman prophet. She became pregnant and had a son. Then the Lord told me, “Name the boy Maher Shalal Hash Baz. Because before the boy learns to say, ‘Mama’ and ‘Daddy,’ God will take all the wealth and riches from Damascus* and Samaria,* and God will give those things to the king of Assyria.*”

5 Again the Lord spoke to me. My Master said, “These people refuse to accept the slow-moving waters of the pool of Shiloah.* These people are happy with Rezin* and Remaliah’s son (Pekah). But I, the Lord, will bring the king of Assyria and all his power against you. They will come like a powerful flood of water from the Euphrates River. It will be like water rising up and over the river banks. That water will spill out of that river and flow into Judah. The water will rise to Judah’s throat—it will almost drown Judah.

“Immanuel, this flood will spread until it covers your whole country.”

Assyria Will Come Soon

8 The Lord told me, “Get a large scroll* and use a pen* to write these words: ‘This is for Maher Shalal Hash Baz.’ (This means ‘There will soon be looting and stealing.’)”

Assyria  This was a powerful nation northeast of Israel.
shaving off Judah’s beard  This showed that the people of Judah would be made slaves.
butter and honey  This probably means the food that poor people also can find and eat.
scroll  This Hebrew word might also mean “a clay or stone tablet.
pen  Literally, “stylus of a man.” This might be a special pen for writing on clay.

Damascus  A city in the country of Aram (Syria).
Samaria  The capital city of north Israel.
Shiloah  A pool of water in Jerusalem. In the New Testament this pool is called, “Siloam.”
Rezin  A king of Aram. He ruled about 740–731 B.C.
Immanuel … country  Literally, “Then the edge of his garment will fill your whole land. God is with us.” The name “Immanuel” means “God is with us.”
God is with us!  In Hebrew, this is like the name Immanuel.
Warnings to Isaiah

11 The Lord spoke to me with his great power. The Lord warned me not to be like these other people. The Lord said, 12 "Every person is saying that other people are making plans against him. You should not believe those things. Don't be afraid of the things those people fear. Don't be afraid of those things!"

13 The Lord All-Powerful is the One you should be afraid of. He is the One you should respect. He is the One you should fear. 14 If you will respect the Lord and consider him holy, then he will be a safe place for you. But you don't respect him. So God is like a rock that you people fall over. He is a rock that makes the two families of Israel stumble. The Lord is a trap to catch all the people of Jerusalem. (Many people will fall over this rock. Those people will fall and be broken. They will be trapped and caught.)

16 Isaiah said, "Make an agreement and seal it. Save my teachings for the future. Do this while my followers are watching. 17 This is the agreement:

I will wait for the Lord to help us.
The Lord is ashamed of the family of Jacob.
He refuses to look at them.
But I will wait for the Lord.
He will save us.

18 "My children and I are signs and proofs for the people of Israel. We have been sent by the Lord All-Powerful—the Lord who lives on the Mount Zion."

19 Some people say, "Ask the fortune tellers and wizards what to do." (These fortune tellers and wizards whisper and make sounds like birds to make people think that they know secret things.) But I tell you that people should ask their God for help! Those fortune tellers and wizards ask dead people what to do. Why should living people ask something from the dead?

20 You should follow the teachings and the agreement. If you don't follow these commands, then you might follow the wrong commands. (The wrong commands are those commands that come from the wizards and fortune tellers. Those commands are worth nothing; you will gain nothing by following those commands.)

21 If you follow those wrong commands, then there will be troubles and hunger in the land. People will become hungry. Then they will become angry and say things against their king and his gods. Then they will look up to God for help. If they look around them at their land, then they will see only trouble and depressing darkness—the dark sadness of people forced to leave their country. And the people that are trapped in that darkness will not be able to free themselves.

A New Day Is Coming

9 In the past, people thought the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali were not important. But at a later time, God will make that land great: the land near the sea, the land across the Jordan River, and Galilee where the non-Jews live.

2 Those people lived in darkness. But they will see a great light. Those people lived in a place as dark as the place of death. But the “Great Light” will shine on them.

3 God, you will cause the nation to grow. You will make the people happy. And the people will show their happiness to you. It will be like the joy during harvest time. It will be like the joy when people take their share of things they have won in war. 4 Why? Because you will take away the heavy burden. You will take away the heavy pole on the people's backs. You will take away the rod that the enemy uses to punish your people. This will be like the time you defeated Midian.*

The Lord spoke ... people Or, “The Lord spoke to me. With his great power he prevented me from living like these other people.”

seal This showed that the agreement should not be changed.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

agreement Usually this means the agreement God made with Israel through Moses. Here it probably means the agreement in verse 17.

his gods Or possibly, “his God.”

This ... Midian See Num. 22–31.
Every boot that marched in battle will be destroyed. Every uniform stained with blood will be destroyed. Those things will be thrown into the fire. This will happen when the special child is born. God will give a son to us. This son will be responsible for leading the people. His name will be “Wonderful Counselor, Powerful God, Father Who Lives Forever, Prince of Peace.” Power and peace will be in his kingdom. It will continue to grow for this king from David’s family. This king will use goodness and fair judgment to rule the kingdom forever and ever.

The Lord All-Powerful has a strong love for his people. And this strong love will cause him to do these things.

God Will Punish Israel

My Lord gave a command against the people of Jacob (Israel). That command against Israel will be obeyed. Then every person in Ephraim (Israel), even the leaders in Samaria, will know that God punished them.

Those people are very proud and boastful now. Those people say, “These bricks might fall, but we will build again. And we will build with strong stone. These small trees might be chopped down. But we will put new trees there. And the new trees will be large, strong trees.”

So the Lord will find people to fight against Israel. The Lord will bring Rezin’s enemies against them. The Lord will bring the Arameans from the east and the Philistines from the west. Those enemies will defeat Israel with their armies. But the Lord will still be angry with Israel. The Lord will still be ready to punish the people.

God will punish the people, but they will not stop sinning. They will not return to him. They will not follow the Lord All-Powerful. So the Lord will cut off Israel’s head and tail. The Lord will take away the branch and the stalk in one day. (The head means the elders* and important leaders. The tail means the prophets that speak lies.)

The men that lead the people are leading them the wrong way. And the people that follow them will be destroyed. All the people are evil. So the Lord is not happy with the young men. And the Lord will not show mercy to their widows and orphans.* Why? Because all the people are evil. The people do things that are against God. The people speak lies. So God will continue to be angry with the people. God will continue to punish the people.

Evil is like a small fire. First, the fire burns weeds and thorns. Next, the fire burns the larger bushes in the forest. And finally, it becomes a great fire—and everything goes up in smoke.

The Lord All-Powerful is angry, so the land will be burned. All the people will be burned in that fire. No person will try to save his brother. People will grab something on the right, but they will still be hungry. They will eat something on the left, but they will not be filled. Then each person will turn and eat his own body. (This means Manasseh will fight against Ephraim, and Ephraim will fight against Manasseh. And then both of them will turn against Judah.)

The Lord is still angry against Israel. The Lord is still ready to punish his people.

Look at the lawmakers that write evil laws. Those lawmakers write laws that make life hard for people. Those lawmakers are not fair to the poor people. They take away the poor people’s rights. They allow people to steal from widows and orphans.*

Lawmakers, you will have to explain the things you have done. What will you do at that time? Your destruction is coming from a faraway country. Where will you run for help? Your money and your riches will not help you. You will have to bow down like a prisoner. You will fall down like a dead person. But that God will not help you! God will still be angry. God will still be ready to punish you.

5 God will say, “I will use Assyria like a stick. In anger, I will use Assyria to punish Israel. I will send Assyria to fight against the people that do evil things. I am angry at those people, and I will command Assyria to fight against them. Assyria will defeat them and Assyria will take their wealth from them. Israel will become like dirt for Assyria to trample (walk on) in the streets.

6 But Assyria does not understand that I will use him. Assyria does not think that he is a tool for me. Assyria only wants to destroy other people. Assyria only plans to destroy many nations. Assyria says to himself, ‘All of my leaders are like kings! The city Calno is like the city Carchemish. And the city Arpad is like the city Hamath. The city Samaria is like the city Damascus. I defeated those evil kingdoms and now I control them. The idols those people worship are better than the idols of Jerusalem and Samaria. I defeated Samaria and her idols. I will also defeat Jerusalem and the idols her people have made.’”

7 God Controls Assyria’s Power

15 An axe is not better than the person that cuts with it. A saw is not better than the person that saws with it. But Assyria thinks he is more important and powerful than God. And this is like a stick being more powerful and important than the person that picks it up and uses it to punish someone.

16 Assyria thinks he is great, But the Lord All-Powerful will send a terrible disease against Assyria. Assyria will lose his wealth and power like a sick man loses weight. Then Assyria’s glory will be destroyed. It will be like a fire burning until everything is gone.

17 Israel’s Light (God) will be like a fire. The Holy One will be like a flame. He will be like a fire that first burns the weeds and thorns. Finally, everything is destroyed—even the people. It will be like that when God destroys Assyria. Assyria will be like a rotted log. There might be a few trees left standing in the forest. But even a child will be able to count them.

18 At that time, the people that are left living in Israel, the people from Jacob’s family, will not continue to depend on the person that beats them. They will learn to truly depend on the Lord, the Holy One of Israel. The people that are left in Jacob’s family will again follow the powerful God.

19 Your people are very many. They are like the sands of the sea. But only a few of the people will be left to come back to the Lord. Those people will return to God, but first, your country will be destroyed. God has announced that he will destroy the land. And then goodness will come into the land; it will be like a river flowing full.

22 At that time, the people that are left living in Zion, the people from Jacob’s family, will not continue to depend on the person that beats them. They will learn to truly depend on the Lord, the Holy One of Israel. The people that are left in Jacob’s family will again follow the powerful God.

23 My Master, the Lord All-Powerful, will surely destroy this land.

24 My Master, the Lord All-Powerful, says, “My people living in Zion, don’t be afraid of Assyria! He will beat you like Egypt beat you in the past. It will be like Assyria is using a stick to hurt you. But after a short time my anger will stop. I will be satisfied that Assyria has punished you enough.”

Assyria This was a powerful nation northeast of Israel.

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

vineyards Gardens for growing grapes.
Then the Lord All-Powerful will beat Assyria with a whip. In the past, the Lord defeated Midian at Raven Rock.* It will be the same when the Lord attacks Assyria. In the past, the Lord punished Egypt—he lifted the stick over the sea,* and led his people from Egypt. It will be the same when the Lord saves his people from Assyria.

Assyria* will bring troubles to you—those troubles will be like weights you have to carry on a pole across your shoulder. But, that pole will be taken off your neck. That pole will be broken by your strength (God).

The Army of Assyria Invades Israel

The army will enter near the “Ruins” (Aiath). The army will walk on the “Threshing Floor” (Migron). The army will keep its food in the “Storehouse” (Micmash).

The army will cross the river at the “Crossing” (Maabarah). The army will sleep at Geba.* Ramah* will be afraid. The people at Gibeah of Saul* will run away.

Cry out, Bath Gallim!* Laishah, listen! Anathoth, answer me! The people of Madmenah are running away. The people of Gebim* are hiding. This day, the army will stop at Nob. And the army will prepare to fight against Mount Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

Watch! Our Master, the Lord All-Powerful, will chop down the great tree (Assyria). The Lord will do this with his great power. The great and important people will be cut down—they will become not important.

The King of Peace Is Coming

A small tree (child) will begin to grow from the stump (family) of Jesse.* That branch will grow from Jesse’s roots. The Lord’s Spirit will be in that child. The Spirit gives wisdom, understanding, guidance, and power. And the Spirit will help this child know and respect the Lord. This child will respect the Lord, and this will make the child happy.

This child will not judge people by the way things look. He will not judge by the things he hears. He will judge the poor people fairly and honestly. He will be fair when he decides the things to do to the poor people of the land. If he decides people should be beaten, then he will give the command, and those people will be beaten. If he decides people must die, then he will give the command, and those evil people will be killed. Goodness and fairness will give this child strength. They will be like a belt he wears around his waist.

At that time, wolves will live in peace with lambs. And tigers will lie down in peace with young goats. Calves, lions, and bulls will live together in peace. A little child will lead them. Cows and bears will live together in peace. All of their children will lie down together and will not hurt each other. Lions will eat hay like cows. Even snakes will not hurt people. A baby will be able to play near a cobra’s home. A baby will be able to put his hand into the home of a poisonous snake.

All these things show that there will be peace—no person will hurt any other person. People on my holy mountain will not want to destroy things. Why? Because people will truly know the Lord. They will be full of knowledge about him like the sea is full of water.

At that time, there will be a special person from Jesse’s* family. This person will be like a flag. This “flag” will show all the nations that they should come together around him. The nations will ask him the things they should do. And the place where he is will be filled with glory.

Midian at Raven Rock Or “Midian at the Rock of Oreb” See Judges 7:25.

he lifted the stick ... sea See Ex. 14:1–15:21.

Assyria This was a powerful nation northeast of Israel.

Verses 28–32 Isaiah uses word games to show how the Assyrian army would come and fight against Judah.

Geba, Ramah, Gibeah of Saul Towns north of Jerusalem.

Bath Gallim Gallim, a city south of Jerusalem. This name means “daughter of the waves,” and might also mean “seagull.” These birds make very loud noises.

Gebim An unknown city. This name is like the Hebrew word for “pit” or “cistern,” a hole in the ground for storing water.

Lebanon A country north of Israel. It was famous for its great cedar and pine trees.

Jesse King David’s father.

cobra A very poisonous snake.
At that time, my Master (God) will again reach out and take his people that are left. This will be the second time God has done this. (These are God’s people that are left in countries like Assyria, North Egypt, South Egypt, Ethiopia, Elam, Babylonia, Hamath, and all the faraway countries around the world.)

God will raise this “flag” as a sign for all people. The people of Israel and Judah were forced to leave their country. The people were scattered to all the faraway places on earth. But God will gather them together.

At that time, Ephraim (Israel) will not be jealous of Judah. Judah will have no enemies left. And Judah will not cause trouble for Ephraim. But Ephraim and Judah will attack the Philistines. These two nations will be like birds flying down to catch a small animal. Together, they will take the riches from the people in the east. Ephraim and Judah will control Edom, Moab,* and the people in Ammon.*

The Lord became angry and divided the sea of Egypt. In the same way, the Lord will wave his arm over the Euphrates River. He will hit the river, and the river will divide into seven small rivers. The small rivers will not be deep—people will be able to walk across those rivers with their shoes on. God’s people that are left will have a way to leave Assyria. It will be like the time God took the people out of Egypt.

A Song of Praise to God

At that time, you will say:

“I praise you Lord!
You have been angry at me.
But don’t be angry with me now!
Show your love to me.”

God saves me.
I trust him.
I am not afraid.
He saves me.

The Lord Yah is my strength.
He saves me.
And I sing songs of praise about him.*
Get your water from the spring of salvation.
Then you will be happy.
Then you will say,
“Praise the Lord!
Worship his name!
Tell all people about the things he has done!”
Sing songs of praise about the Lord!
Why? Because he has done great things!
Spread this news about God through the whole world.
Let all people know these things.
People of Zion,* shout about these things!
The Holy One of Israel is with you in a powerful way.
So, be happy!

God’s Message to Babylon

God showed Isaiah son of Amoz this sad message about Babylon.

“Raise a flag on that mountain* where nothing grows.
Call out to the men.
Wave your arms.
Tell them to enter through the gates for important people!”

“I have separated those men from the people.
And I myself will command them.
I am angry.
I gathered my best men to punish the people.
I am proud of these happy men!

The Lord Yah ... him Literally, “YAH, YAHWEH is my strength and praise. And he becomes my salvation.” This comes from the victory song of Moses in Ex. 15:2.

Philistines People living on the coast of Palestine. They were one of Israel’s enemies.
Edom, Moab Two countries east of Israel. They were Israel’s enemies for many, many years.
Ammon A country east of Israel.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
mountain This probably means Babylon.
4 “There is a loud noise in the mountains. Listen to the noise! It sounds like many, many people. People from many kingdoms are gathering together. The Lord All-Powerful is calling his army together.

5 The Lord and this army are coming from a faraway land. They are coming from beyond the horizon. The Lord will use this army like a weapon to show his anger. This army will destroy the whole country.”

6 The Lord’s special day is near. So cry and be sad for yourselves. A time is coming when the enemy will steal your wealth. God All-Powerful will make that happen. People will lose their courage. Fear will make the people weak. Every person will be afraid. Their fear will cause their stomachs to hurt like a woman giving birth to a baby. Their faces will become red like fire. The people will be amazed because this look of fear will be on all their neighbors’ faces.

God’s Judgment Against Babylon

9 Look, the Lord’s special day is coming! It will be a terrible day. God will become very angry, and he will destroy the country. God will force all people that sin to leave the country. The skies will be dark. The sun, the moon, and the stars will not shine.

10 God says, “I will cause bad things to happen to the world. I will punish the evil people for their sin. I will cause the proud people to lose their pride. I will stop the bragging of the people that are mean to others. There will be only a few people left. There will not be many, the same as gold is hard to find. And these people will be worth much more than pure gold. With my anger, I will make the sky shake. And the earth will be moved from its place.”

That will happen on the day the Lord All-Powerful shows his anger. Then the people from Babylon will run away, like wounded deer. They will run like sheep that have no shepherd. Every person will turn and run back to his own country and people. But the enemy will chase the people of Babylon. And when the enemy catches a person, the enemy will kill that person with a sword. Everything in their houses will be stolen. Their wives will be raped. And their little children will be beaten to death while the people are watching.

17 God says, “Look, I will cause the armies of Media to attack Babylon. The armies of Media will not stop attacking even if they are paid silver and gold. The soldiers will attack and kill the young men of Babylon. The soldiers will not show mercy to the babies. The soldiers will not be kind to the children. Babylon will be destroyed—it will be like the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah. God will cause this destruction, and there will be nothing left.

“Babylon is the most beautiful of all kingdoms. The Babylonian people are very proud of their city. But Babylon will not continue to be beautiful. People will not continue to live there in the future. Arabs will not put their tents there. Shepherds will not bring their sheep to let them eat there. The only animals living there will be wild animals from the desert. People will not be living in their houses in Babylon. The houses will be full of owls and large birds. Wild goats will play in the houses. Wild dogs and wolves will howl in the great and beautiful buildings of Babylon. Babylon will be finished. The end of Babylon is near. I will not let Babylon’s destruction wait until later.”

Israel Will Return Home

In the future, the Lord will again show his love to Jacob. The Lord will again choose the people of Israel. At that time, the Lord will give those people their land. Then

A time ... happen This is a word play in Hebrew. The word meaning “stealing things in war” is like the word meaning “God All-Powerful.”

Sodom and Gomorrah Two cities that God destroyed because the people were so evil.

Babylonian Literally, “Chaldean.”

Wild goats The Hebrew word means “hairy,” “goat,” or “goat-demon.”
ISAIAH 14:2–18

non-Jewish people* will join themselves to the Jewish people. Both people will join and become one family—Jacob’s family. Those nations will take the people of Israel back to Israel’s land. Those men and women from the other nations will become slaves to Israel. In the past, those people forced the people of Israel to become their slaves. But at this time, the people of Israel will defeat those nations and Israel will then rule over them. The Lord will take away your hard work, and he will comfort you. In the past, you were slaves. Men forced you to do very hard work. But the Lord will end this hard work for you.

A Song About the King of Babylon

At that time, you will begin to sing this song about the king of Babylon:

The king was mean when he ruled us.
But now his rule is finished.
The Lord breaks the scepter* of evil rulers.
The Lord takes away their power.
In anger, the king of Babylon beat people.
He never stopped beating people.
That evil ruler ruled the people in anger.
He never stopped hurting people.
But now, the whole country rests.
The country is quiet.
Now the people begin to celebrate.
You were an evil king,
and now you are finished.
Even the pine trees are happy.
The cedar trees of Lebanon are happy.
The trees say,
“The king chopped us down.
But now the king has fallen,
and he will never stand again.”
Sheol,* the place of death, is excited because you are coming.
Sheol is waking the spirits of all the leaders of the earth for you.

Sheol is making the kings stand from their thrones.
They will be ready for your coming.
All these leaders will make fun of you.
They will say,
“Now you are a dead body like us.
Now you are just like us.”
Your pride has been sent down to Sheol.*
The music from your harps announces the coming of your proud spirit.
Maggots (flies) will eat your body.
You will lie on them like a bed.
Worms will cover your body like a blanket.
You were like the morning star,
but you have fallen from the sky.
In the past, all the nations on earth bowed down before you.
But now you have been cut down.
You always told yourself,
“I will be like God Most High,
I will go to the skies above.
I will put my throne above God’s stars.
I will sit on holy mountain, Zaphon.*
I will meet the gods on that mountain.
I will go up to the altar in the clouds.
I will be like God Most High.”
But that did not happen.
You did not go to the sky with God.
You were brought down to the deep pit—Sheol,* the place of death.
The people look at you and think about you.
They see that you are only a dead body,
and the people say,
“Is this the same man that caused great fear in all the kingdoms on earth?
Is this the same man that destroyed cities and changed the land into a desert?
Is this the same man that captured people in war and would not let them go home?”
Every king on earth has died with glory.
Every king has his own grave.

non-Jewish people Usually this means “People that live in a country, but are not yet citizens of that country.” Here it is the non-Jewish people that decided to follow God.
scepter A special stick. Kings and leaders carried scepters to show they were rulers.
Sheol This is the place where all people go when they die. Usually this means the grave, but it can mean the place where our spirits go.

holy mountain, Zaphon Literally, “Zaphon.” This Hebrew word means “north, hidden” or “the heavenly mountain where the Canaanite people believed their gods met together.”
But you, evil king, have been thrown from your grave.
You are like a branch cut from a tree.
That branch is cut and thrown away.
You are like a dead man that fell in battle,
and other soldiers walked on him.
Now, you look like any other dead person.
You are wrapped in burial clothes.
Many other kings have died.
And they all have their own graves.
But you will not join them.
Why? Because you ruined your own country.
You killed your own people.
Your children will not continue to destroy like you did.
Your children will be stopped.
Prepare to kill his children.
Kill them because their father is guilty.
His children will never again take control of the land.
They will never again fill the world with their cities.

The Lord All-Powerful said, “I will stand and fight against those people. I will destroy the famous city, Babylon. I will destroy all the people of Babylon. I will destroy their children, their grandchildren, and their great-grandchildren.” The Lord himself said those things.

The Lord said, “I will change Babylon. That place will be for animals, not people. That place will be a swamp. I will use the ‘broom of destruction’ to sweep Babylon away.” The Lord All-Powerful said those things.

The Lord will also punish Assyria

The Lord All-Powerful has made a promise. The Lord said, “I promise, these things will happen exactly like I thought. These things will happen exactly the way I planned. I will destroy the king of Assyria in my country. I will trample (walk on) that king on my mountains. That king made my people be his slaves; he put a yoke on their necks.

That pole will be taken off Judah’s neck. That burden will be removed.

That is the thing I plan to do for my people. And I will use my arm (power) to punish all nations.”

When the Lord makes a plan, no person can stop that plan. When the Lord raises his arm to punish people, no person can stop him.

God’s Message to Philistia

This sad message was given the year King Ahaz died.*

Country of Philistia, you are very happy because the king that beat you is now dead. But you should not be really happy. It is true that his rule has ended. But the king’s son will come and rule. And it will be like one snake giving birth to a more dangerous snake. This new king will be like a very quick and dangerous snake to you. But my poor people will be able to eat safely. Their children will be safe. My poor people will be able to lie down and feel safe. But I will kill your family with hunger. And all your people that are left will die.

You people near the city gates, cry!
You people in the city, cry out!
All of you people in Philistia will be frightened.
Your courage will melt like hot wax.

Look to the north! There is a cloud of dust!
An army from Assyria is coming!* All the men in that army are strong!*

That army will send messengers to their country.
What will those messengers tell their people?
They will announce:
Philistia was defeated, but the Lord made Zion strong.
And his poor people went there for safety.

year King Ahaz died About 727 B.C.
All the men ... strong Or, “There are no stragglers in that group.”
Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
This is a sad message about Moab:*
One night, armies took the wealth from Ar, Moab.
That night, the city was destroyed.
One night, armies took the wealth from Kir, Moab.
That night, the city was destroyed.
2 The king’s family and the people of Dibon* are going to the places of worship* to cry.
The people of Moab are crying for Nebo* and Medeba.*
The people shaved their heads and beards, to show they are sad.
3 Everywhere in Moab, on the housetops and in the streets, people are wearing black clothes, people are crying.
4 People in the cities Heshbon and Elealeh are crying very loudly. You can hear their voices far away in the city Jahaz. Even the soldiers are scared. The soldiers are shaking from fear.
5 My heart cries with sorrow for Moab. People are running for safety. They run far away to Zoar. They run to Eglath Shelishiyah. The people are crying as they go up the mountain road to Luhith. The people are crying very loudly as they walk on the road to Horonaim.
6 But Nimrim Brook is dry like a desert. All the plants are dead. Nothing is green.
7 So the people gather the things they own and they leave Moab. They carry those things, and cross the border at Poplar Creek.*
8 Crying can be heard everywhere in Moab. The people are crying far away in the city Eglaim. And the people are crying in the city Beer Elim.*
9 The water of Dimon* is full of blood. And I (the Lord) will bring even more troubles to Dimon. A few people living in Moab have escaped the enemy. But I will send lions to eat those people.
16 You people should send a gift to the king of the land. You should send a lamb from Sela, through the desert, to the mountain of the Daughter of Zion.*
2 The women of Moab* try to cross the river Arnon. They run from one place to another looking for help. They are like little birds lost on the ground after their nest has fallen from a tree.
3 They say, “Help us! Tell us what to do! Protect us from our enemies like shade protects us from the noon sun. We are running from our enemies. Hide us! Don’t give us to our enemies.”
4 Those people from Moab were forced to leave their homes. So let them live in your land. Hide them from their enemies. The looting will stop. The enemy will be defeated. The men that hurt other people will be gone from the land.

Moab A country east of Israel.
Dibon A city in the country Moab. This name is like a Hebrew word meaning “to be very sad.”
places of worship Or “high places,” places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were usually on the hills and mountains.
Nebo A city in the country Moab and the name of a false god.
Medeba A city in the country Moab. This name is like a Hebrew word meaning “to be very sad.”
Poplar Creek A small stream in the country Moab, also called “Arabah Stream.”
Beer Elim A city in the country Moab.
Dimon This is probably the city Dibon. Dimon is like the Hebrew word meaning “blood.”
Daughter of Zion Another name for Jerusalem.
Then a new king will come. This king will be from David’s family.* He will be loyal. He will be loving and kind. This king will judge fairly. He will do things that are right and good.

6 We have heard that the people of Moab* are very proud and conceited. These people are violent and they boast. But the boasts are only empty words.

7 The whole country of Moab will suffer because of that pride. All the people of Moab will cry. The people will be sad—they will want the things they had in the past. They will want the fig-cakes made in Kir Hareseth.*

8 The people will be sad because the fields of Heshbon and the vines of Sibmah are not able to grow grapes. Foreign rulers have cut down the grapevines. The enemy armies have spread far to the city of Jazer and into the desert. And they have spread down to the sea.*

A Sad Song about Moab

9 “I will cry with the people of Jazer and Sibmah because the grapes have been destroyed. I will cry with the people of Heshbon and Elealeh because there will be no harvest. There will be no summer fruit. And there will be no shouts of joy.

10 There will be no joy and singing in Carmel.* I will end the happiness at harvest time. The grapes are ready to become wine. But they will all be wasted.

11 So, I am very sad for Moab. I am very sad for Kir Heres.* I am very, very sad for these cities.

12 The people of Moab will go to their places of worship.* The people will try to pray. But they will see what happened, and they will be too weak to pray.”

13 The Lord said these things about Moab many times. And now the Lord says, “In three years (the way a hired helper counts time) all those people and the things they are proud of will be gone. There will be a few people left, but there will not be many.”

God’s Message to Aram

17 This is the sad message for Damascus.* The Lord says these things will happen to Damascus:

“Damascus is now a city. But Damascus will be destroyed. Only destroyed buildings will be left in Damascus.

2 People will leave the cities of Aroer.* Flocks of sheep will wander freely in those empty towns; There will be no person to bother them.

3 The fort cities of Ephraim (Israel) will be destroyed. The government in Damascus will be finished. The same thing that happens to Israel, will happen to Aram.* All the important people will be taken away.”

The Lord All-Powerful said those things would happen.

4 At that time, Jacob’s (Israel’s) wealth will all be gone. Jacob will be like a man who was sick and became weak and thin.

5 That time will be like grain harvest in Rephaim Valley.* The workers gather plants that grow in the field. Then they cut the heads of grain from the plants. And they collect the grain.
ISAIAH 17:6–18:5

6 That time will also be like the time people harvest olives. People knock olives from olive trees. But a few olives are usually left at the top of the tree. Four or five olives are left on some of the top branches. It will be the same for those cities. The Lord All-Powerful said those things.

7 At that time, people will look up to God, the One who made them. Their eyes will see the Holy One of Israel. 8 The people will not trust the great things they have made. They will not go to the special gardens and altars they made for false gods.

9 At that time, all the fort cities will be empty. Those cities will be like the mountains and the forests in the land before the people of Israel came. In the past, all the people ran away because the people of Israel were coming. In the future, the country will be empty again. 10 This will happen because you have forgotten the God who saves you. You have not remembered that God is your place of safety.

You brought some very good grapevines from faraway places. You can plant those grapevines, but those plants will not grow. 11 You will plant your grapevines one day and try to make them grow. The next day the plants will begin to grow. But at harvest time, you will go to gather the fruit from the plants, and you will see that everything is dead. A sickness will kill all the plants.

12 Listen to the many, many people! They are crying loud like the noise from the sea.

Listen to the noise.
It is like the crashing and crashing of waves in the sea.

13 And the people will be like those waves—God will speak harshly to the people, and they will run away.

God’s Message to Ethiopia

18 Look at the land along the rivers of Ethiopia.* The land is filled with insects; you can hear their buzzing wings. 2 That land sends people across the sea in reed boats. Fast messengers, go to the people that are tall and strong! (People in all places are afraid of these tall and strong people. They are a powerful nation. Their nation defeats other nations. They are in a country divided by rivers.) 3 Warn those people that something bad will happen to them. All the people in the world will see this thing happen to that nation. People will see this thing clearly like a flag raised on a mountain. All the people living on earth will hear about the thing that happens to these tall people. They will hear it clearly like the noise from a horn before a battle.

4 The Lord said, “I will be in the place prepared for me.* I will quietly watch these things happen: 5 On a beautiful summer day, at noon, people will be resting. (It will be during the hot harvest time when there is no rain, but only early morning dew.) Then something terrible will happen. The time will be after the flowers have bloomed. The new grapes will be budding and growing. But before harvest, the enemy will come and cut the plants. The enemy will break the vines special gardens Gardens where people worshiped false gods.

altars These might be altars for burning incense or they might be altars for worshiping a special false god.
mountains and the forests This might mean “The Horite and Amorite people.”

chaff The seed coverings and stems separated from the seeds of plants like wheat or barley. Farmers saved the seeds and let the wind blow the useless chaff away.
tumbleweeds A small plant with short roots. When a strong wind blows, the plant is pulled loose and blown away.
Ethiopia Also called Cush, a country in Africa, by the Red Sea.
reed boats These boats were made by tying many, many reeds (a type of water plant) together.
the place prepared for me Probably the temple in Jerusalem.
and throw them away. 6The vines will be left for the birds from the mountains and the wild animals to eat. Birds will live on the vines during the summer. And that winter, wild animals will eat the vines.”

7At that time, a special offering will be brought to the Lord All-Powerful. The offering will come from the people that are tall and strong. (People in all places are afraid of these tall and strong people. They are a powerful nation. Their nation defeats other nations. They are in a country divided by rivers.) This offering will be brought to the Lord’s place, Mount Zion.*

God’s Message to Egypt

19 The sad message about Egypt: Look! The Lord is coming on a fast cloud. The Lord will enter Egypt, and all the false gods of Egypt will shake with fear. Egypt was brave, but that courage will melt away like hot wax.

2God says, “I will cause the people of Egypt to fight against themselves. Men will fight their brothers. Neighbors will be against neighbors. Cities will be against cities. States will be against states. 3The people of Egypt will be confused. The people will ask their false gods and wise men what they should do. The people will ask their wizards and magicians. But their advice will be worthless.”

4The Master, the Lord All-Powerful, says, “I (God) will give Egypt to a hard master. A powerful king will rule over the people. 5The Nile River will become dry. The water will be gone from the sea. 6All the rivers will smell very bad.* The canals in Egypt will become dry and the water will be gone. All the water plants will rot. 7All the plants along the river banks will die and blow away. Even the plants at the widest part of the river will be dead.

8The fishermen, all the people that catch fish from the Nile River, will become sad and they will cry. They depend on the Nile River for their food, but it will be dry. 9All the people that make cloth will be very, very sad. These people need flax* to make linen.* But the river will be dry, and these plants will not grow. 10The people that make dams to save water will have no work, so they will be sad.

11“The leaders of the city Zoan are fools. Pharaoh’s ‘wise advisers’ give wrong advice. Those leaders say they are wise. They say they are from the old family of the kings. But they are not wise like they think.”

12Egypt, where are your wise men? Those wise men should learn what the Lord All-Powerful has planned for Egypt. They should be the people to tell you what will happen.

13The leaders of Zoan have been fooled. The leaders of Noph have believed false things. So the leaders lead Egypt the wrong way. 14The Lord made the leaders confused. They wander and lead Egypt in the wrong ways. Everything the leaders do is wrong. They are like drunk people rolling with sickness on the ground. 15There is nothing the leaders can do. (These leaders are “the heads and the tails.” They are “the tops and the stalks of plants.”)*

16At that time, the Egyptians will be like scared women. They will be afraid of the Lord All-Powerful. The Lord will raise his arm to punish the people, and they will be afraid. 17The land of Judah will be a place for all the people in Egypt to fear. Any person in Egypt that hears the name Judah will be scared. This will happen because the Lord All-Powerful has planned terrible things to happen to Egypt.

18At that time, there will be five cities in Egypt where people speak the language of Canaan (the Jewish language). One of these cities will be named “Destruction City.”*

The people will promise to follow the Lord All-Powerful. 19At that time, there will be an altar* for the Lord in the middle of Egypt. At the border of Egypt there will be a monument for their food, but it will be dry. 9All the people that make cloth will be very, very sad. These people need flax to make linen. But the river will be dry, and these plants will not grow. The people that make dams to save water will have no work, so they will be sad.

11“The leaders of the city Zoan are fools. Pharaoh’s ‘wise advisers’ give wrong advice. Those leaders say they are wise. They say they are from the old family of the kings. But they are not wise like they think.”

12Egypt, where are your wise men? Those wise men should learn what the Lord All-Powerful has planned for Egypt. They should be the people to tell you what will happen.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

States will be against states Literally, kingdom will be against kingdom. This means Egyptians will fight other Egyptians.

smell very bad In Hebrew this is like a name for the Nile River.

flux A plant used to make linen.
linen A type of cloth.

the heads and ... stalks of plants See Isa. 9:14-15.

Destruction City This name is like a name meaning “Sun City.” This is probably the city On (Heliopolis).

altar A stone table used for burning sacrifices as gifts to God.
ISAIAH 19:20–21:5

20 This will be a sign to show that the Lord All-Powerful does powerful things. Any time the people cry for help from the Lord, the Lord will send help. The Lord will send a person to save and defend the people. That person will rescue the people from other people that do wrong things to them.

21 At that time, the people in Egypt will truly know the Lord. The people of Egypt will love God. The people will serve God and give many sacrifices. They will make promises to the Lord. And they will keep those promises.

22 The Lord will punish the people of Egypt. And then the Lord will heal (forgive) them, and they will come back to the Lord. The Lord will listen to their prayers and heal (forgive) them.

23 At that time, there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria. Then people from Assyria will go to Egypt, and people from Egypt will go to Assyria. Egypt will work with Assyria.

24 At that time, Israel, Assyria, and Egypt will join together and control the land. This will be a blessing for the land. The Lord All-Powerful will bless these countries. He will say, “Egypt, you are my people. Assyria, I made you. Israel, I own you. You are all blessed!”

God’s Message to Babylon

21 The sad message about the Desert of the Sea:

Something is coming from the desert.
It is coming like wind blowing from the Negev.
It is coming from a terrible country.
I have seen something very terrible that will happen.
I see traitors turning against you.
I see people taking your wealth.

Elam, go and fight against the people!
Media, put your armies around the city and defeat it!
I will end all the evil things in that city.

3 I saw those terrible things, and now I am scared. My stomach hurts because of my fear. That pain is like the pain of giving birth. The things I hear make me very afraid. The things I see make me shake with fear. I am worried and I am shaking from fear. My pleasant evening has become a night of fear.

5 The people think everything is fine.
The people are saying, “Prepare the table!
Eat and Drink!”

Desert of the Sea Probably Babylon.
Negev The desert area south of Judah.
traitors People that turn against their country, friends, or family and do bad things to them.
ISAIAH 21:6–22:3

At the same time the soldiers are saying, “Post the guard! Officers, get up and polish your shields!”

6My Master said to me, “Go find a man to guard this city. He must report whatever he sees. If the guard sees rows of horse soldiers, donkeys, or camels, the guard should listen carefully—very carefully.”

8Then one day, the guard called out the warning, “Lion!” The guard said, “My Master, every day I have been in the watchtower* watching. Every night I have been standing and guarding, but ... 9Look! They are coming! I see rows of men and horse soldiers.”

Then a messenger said, “Babylon has been defeated. Babylon has fallen to the ground. All the statues of her false gods have been thrown to the ground and have broken to pieces.”

10Isaiah said, “My people, I have told you everything that I heard from the Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel. You will be crushed like grain on a threshing floor.*

God’s Message to Edom

11The sad message about Dumah.* Someone called me from Seir (Edom). He said, “Guard, how much of the night is left? How much longer will it be night!”

12The guard answered, “Morning is coming. But then night will come again. If you have something to ask, then come back* and ask.”

God’s Message to Arabia

13The sad message about Arabia. A caravan* from Dedan spent the night near some trees in Arabian desert.

14They gave water to some thirsty travelers. The people of Tema gave food to some people that were traveling.

15Those people were running from swords that were ready to kill. They were running from bows that were ready to shoot. They were running from a hard battle.

16The Lord, my Master, told me those things would happen. The Lord said, “In one year, (the way a hired helper counts time) all Kedar’s* glory will be gone. 17At that time, only a few of the archers,* the great soldiers of Kedar, will be left alive.” The Lord, the God of Israel, told me those things.

God’s Message to Jerusalem

22The sad message about the Valley of Vision:* What is wrong with you people? Why are you hiding on your housetops?

2In the past, this city was a very busy city. This city was very noisy—and very happy.

3All of your leaders ran away together. But they have all been captured—and without bows. All the leaders ran far away together. But they have been captured.

watchtower A tall building where guards stood and watched to see if anyone was coming near their city.

threshing floor A place where grain is walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.

Dumah Edom. This Hebrew word means “silence” or “destruction.”

come back This can also mean “change your heart, repent.”

caravan A group of traders and their animals that carry wealth from one place to another.

Kedar’s A country east of Israel.

archers Soldiers that use bows and arrows in war.

Valley of Vision This probably means one of the valleys near Jerusalem.
4 So I say,
“Don’t look at me!
Let me cry!
Don’t rush to comfort me about the destruction of Jerusalem.”

5 The Lord has chosen a special day. On that day there will be riots and confusion. People will trample (walk on) each other in the Valley of Vision.* The city walls will be pulled down. The people in the valley will be shouting at the people in the city on the mountain. 6 The horse soldiers from Elam will take their bags of arrows and ride to battle. The people from Kir will make noise with their shields. 7 The armies will meet in your special valley. The valley will be filled with chariots.* Horse soldiers will be put in front of the city gates. 8 At that time, the people of Judah will want to use the weapons they keep at the Forest Palace.* The enemy will pull down the walls protecting Judah. 9–11 The walls of the City of David will begin to crack, and you will see those cracks. So, you will count the houses, and you will use stones from the houses to fix the walls. You will make a place between the double walls for saving water from the old stream, and you will save the water. You will do all this to protect yourselves. But you will not trust the God who made all these things. You will not see the One (God) who made all these things long ago.

12 So, my Master, the Lord All-Powerful, will tell the people to cry and be sad {for their dead friends}. People will shave their heads and wear clothes of sadness. 13 But look! The people are happy now. The people are rejoicing. {The people are saying}:
Kill the cattle and the sheep.
We will celebrate.
Eat your food and drink the wine.
Eat and drink because tomorrow we die.

14 The Lord All-Powerful said these things to me and I heard it with my ears: “You are guilty of doing wrong things. And I promise, you will die before this guilt is forgiven.” My Master, the Lord All-Powerful said those things.

God’s Message to Shebna

15 My Master, the Lord All-Powerful, told me these things: “Go to that servant Shebna. That servant is the palace manager. 16 Ask that servant, ‘What are you doing here? Is any person from your family buried here? Why are you making a grave here?’”
17–18 {Isaiah said,} “Look at this man! He is making his grave in a high place. This man is cutting into rock to make his grave.
19 The Lord said, “You are very proud of your chariots.* But in that faraway land your new ruler will have better chariots. And your chariots will not look important in his palace. 20 At that time, I will call for my servant, Eliakim son of Hilkiah. 21 I will take your robe and put it on that servant. I will give him your scepter.* I will give him the important job you have. That servant will be like a father to the people of Jerusalem and Judah’s family. 22 I will put the key to David’s house around that man’s neck. If he opens a door, that door will stay opened. No person will be able to close it. If he closes a door, that door will stay closed. No person will be able to open it. 23 That servant will be like a very honored chair in his father’s house. I will make him strong like a nail that is hammered into a very strong board. 24 All the honored and important things of his father’s house will hang on him. All the adults and little children will depend on him. Those people will be like small dishes and large water bottles hanging on him.

Valley of Vision This probably means the valley near Jerusalem.
chariots Small wagons used for war.
Forest Palace Or, Beth HaYaar, a city built by Solomon for storing his weapons and wealth.
scepter A special stick. Kings and leaders carried scepters to show they were rulers.
ISAIAH 22:25–23:14

25“At that time, the nail (Shebna) that is now hammered into a very strong board will become weak and it will break. That nail will fall to the ground and all the things hanging on that nail will be destroyed. Then everything I said in this message will happen.” (Those things will happen because the Lord said them.)

God’s Message To Lebanon

23 The sad message about Tyre: You ships from Tarshish,* be sad! Your harbor has been destroyed. (The people on these ships were told this news while on their way from the land of Kittim).*

2You people living near the sea should stop and be sad. Tyre was the “Merchant* of Sidon.” That city by the sea sent businessmen across the seas, and those men filled you with riches. 3Those men traveled the seas looking for grain. Those men from Tyre bought the grain that grows near the Nile River, and they sold the grain to other nations.

4Sidon, you should be very sad. Why? Because now the Sea, and the Fort of the Sea* say:

I have no children.
I have not felt the pain of birth.
I have not given birth to children.
I have not raised young men and women.

5 Egypt will hear the news about Tyre. This news will make Egypt hurt with sorrow.

6 You ships should return to Tarshish.* You people living near the sea should be sad.

7 In the past, you enjoyed the city of Tyre. That city has been growing since the beginning.

People from that city have traveled far away to live.

8 The city of Tyre has produced many leaders. Businessmen from that city are like princes. The people that buy and sell things are honored everywhere.

So who made plans against Tyre?

9 It was the Lord All-Powerful. He decided to make them not important.

10 You ships from Tarshish should go back to your country.

Cross the sea like it is a small river.
No person will stop you now.

11 The Lord has stretched his arm over the sea.

The Lord is gathering kingdoms to fight against Tyre.

The Lord commands Canaan* to destroy Tyre, her place of safety.

12 The Lord says, “Virgin Daughter of Sidon,* you will be destroyed. You will not rejoice any more.”

13 So the people of Tyre say, “Cyprus* will help us!”

But if you cross the sea to Cyprus, you will not find a place to rest.

14 So, be sad, you ships from Tarshish.* Your place of safety (Tyre) will be destroyed.

ships from Tarshish This is probably a special type of cargo ship.
Kittim This could be the island of Cyprus or the island of Crete.
Merchant A businessman who buys and sells things for a living.
Fort of the Sea Another name for the city Tyre.
Tarshish A city far away from Israel, probably in Spain. Tarshish was famous for its large ships that sailed the Mediterranean Sea.

Canaan The land where the Canaanite people lived. This includes part of Israel, Lebanon, and Syria.
Virgin Daughter of Sidon The city Sidon.
Cyprus Literally, “Kittim.” This could also mean “Crete.”
Chaldeans The people of the land of Babylon.
Assyria This was a powerful nation northeast of Israel.
15People will forget about Tyre for 70 years. (That is, about the length of a certain king’s rule.) After 70 years, Tyre will be like the prostitute* in this song:

16 Oh woman that men forgot, take your harp and walk through the city.
   Play your song well.
   Sing your song often.
   Then maybe people will remember you.

17After 70 years, the Lord will review Tyre’s case, and he will give her a decision. Tyre will again have trade. Tyre will be like a prostitute* for all the nations on earth. 18But Tyre will not keep the money she earns. Tyre’s profit from her trade will be saved for the Lord. Tyre will give that profit to the people that serve the Lord. So the Lord’s servants will eat until they are full, and they will wear nice clothes.

God Will Punish Israel

24 Look! The Lord will destroy this land. The Lord will completely clean everything from the land. The Lord will force the people to go far away.

2At that time, the common people and the priests will be the same. Slaves and masters will be the same. Women slaves and their women masters will be the same. The buyers and sellers will be the same. The people that borrow and the people that lend will be the same. The bankers and the people that owe the bank will be the same. 3All the people will be forced out of the land. The wealth will all be taken. This will happen because the Lord commanded it. 4The country will be empty and sad. The world will be empty and weak. The great leaders of the people in this land will become weak.

5The people on the land have made the land dirty. How did this happen? The people did wrong things against God’s teaching. The people did not obey God’s laws. The people made an agreement with God a long time ago, but those people broke their agreement with God. 6The people living in this land are guilty of doing wrong. So God promised to destroy the land. The people will be punished. Only a few people will survive.

7The grapevines are dying. The new wine is bad. In the past, people were happy. But now those people are sad. 8People have stopped showing their joy. All the happy sounds have stopped. The happy music from the drums and harps has ended. 9People don’t sing happy songs while they drink their wine. The beer now tastes bitter to the person drinking it.

10“Total Confusion” is a good name for this city. The city has been destroyed. People can’t enter the houses. The doors are blocked. 11People still ask for wine in the market places. But all the happiness is gone. Joy has been carried far away. 12Only destruction is left for the city. Even the gates are crushed.

13 At harvest time, people knock olives from olive trees.
   But, a few olives are left in the trees.
   It will be like that in this land among the nations.

14 The people that are left will begin shouting.
   They will be louder than the noise from the ocean.
   They will be happy because of the Lord’s greatness.

15 Those people will say,
   “People in the east, praise the Lord!
   People in faraway lands, praise the name of the Lord God of Israel.”

16 We will hear songs of praise for God from every place on earth.
   These songs will praise the Good God.
   But I say: “Enough! I have had enough!
   The things I see are terrible.
   Traitors* are turning against people and hurting them.

prostitute  A woman that sells her body for sex. Sometimes this also means a person that stops following God.

Traitors  People that turn against their country, friends, or family and do bad things to them.
ISAIAH 24:17–25:8

17 I see danger for the people living in this land. I see fear, holes, and traps for them.

18 People will hear about danger and they will be scared. Some of the people will run away. But they will fall into holes and be trapped. Some of those people will climb out of the holes, but they will be caught in another trap."

The flood gates in the sky above will open, and the floods will begin. The foundations of the earth will shake.

19 There will be earthquakes. And the earth will split open.

20 The sins of the world are very heavy. So the earth will fall under that weight. The earth will shake like an old house. The earth will fall like a drunk person. The earth will not be able to continue.

21 At that time, the Lord will judge the heavenly armies in heaven and the earthly kings on earth.

22 Many people will be gathered together. Some of them have been locked in the Pit. Some of them have been in prison.* But finally, after much time, they will be judged.

23 The Lord will rule as king on Mount Zion* in Jerusalem. His Glory* will be before the elders.* His Glory will be so bright that the moon will be embarrassed, the sun will be ashamed.

24 A Song of Praise to God

25 Lord, you are my God. I honor you and praise your name. You have done amazing things. The words you said long ago are completely true. Everything has happened exactly as you said it would.

2 You have destroyed the city. It was a city protected by strong walls. But now it is only a pile of rocks. The foreign palace has been destroyed. It will never be built again.

3 People from powerful nations will honor you. Powerful people from strong cities will fear you.

4 Lord, you are a safe place for poor people that have needs. Many problems begin to defeat these people, but you protect them.

5 The enemy shouts and makes noise. The terrible enemy shouts challenges. But you, God, will stop them. In the desert during the summer plants wilt and fall to the ground. In the same way, you will defeat the enemy and force them to their knees. Thick clouds stop the summer heat. In the same way, you will stop the shouts of the terrible enemy.

God’s Banquet for His Servants

6 At that time, the Lord All-Powerful will give a feast for all the people on this mountain. At the feast, there will be the best foods and wines. The meat will be tender and good.

7 But now, there is a veil* covering all nations and people. This veil is called, “death.”* But death will be destroyed forever.* And the Lord my Master will wipe... away every tear from every face. In the past, all of his people were sad. But God will take away that sadness from the earth. All of this will happen because the Lord said it would.

9 At that time, people will say,
   “Here is our God!
   He is the One we have been waiting for.
   He has come to save us.
   We have been waiting for our Lord.
   So we will rejoice and be happy
   when the Lord saves us.”

10 The Lord’s power is on this mountain.
    And Moab* will be defeated.
The Lord will trample (walk on) the enemy. It will be like walking on straw in a pile of waste.

11 The Lord will spread his arms like a person that is swimming.
    Then the Lord will gather all the things the people are proud of.
The Lord will gather
    all the beautiful things they made.
    And he will throw those things away.

12 The Lord will destroy the people’s high walls and safe places.
The Lord will throw them down into the dust on the ground.

A Song of Praise to God

26 At that time, people will sing this song in Judah:

   The Lord gives us our salvation.
   We have a strong city.
   Our city has strong walls and defenses.

2 Open the gates and the good people will enter.
   Those people obey God’s good teachings.

3 Lord, you give true peace to people who depend on you,
to people who trust you.

4 So, trust the Lord always.
   Why? Because in the Lord Yah,* you have a place of safety forever!

5 But the Lord will destroy the proud city.
   And he will punish the people living there.
The Lord will throw that high city down to the ground.
   It will fall into the dust.

6 Then poor and humble people will walk on those ruins.

7 Honesty is the way of living for good people.
   Good people follow the way that is straight and true.
   And God, you make that way smooth and easy to follow.

8 But Lord, we are waiting for your way of justice.
   Our souls want to remember you and your name.

9 My soul wants to be with you at night.
   And the spirit in me wants to be with you at the dawning of every new day.
   When your way of justice comes to the land, people will learn the right way of living.

10 An evil person will not learn to do good if you show him only kindness.
    An evil person will do bad things,
even if he lives in a good world.
    That evil person might never see the Lord’s greatness.

11 But Lord, get ready to punish those people.
    Surely they will see it, won’t they?
    Lord, show the evil people the strong love* that you have for your people.
    Surely the evil people will be ashamed.
    Surely your enemies will be burned in their own fire (evil).

12 Lord, you have succeeded in doing all the things that we tried to do.
   So give us peace.

God Will Give New Life to His People

13 Lord, you are our God.
   But in the past, we followed other lords.*

Moab  Or “the enemy.” This name is like a Hebrew word meaning, “enemy.”
Lord Yah  Or, “YAH YAHWEH,” a Hebrew name for God.

strong love  This Hebrew word means strong feelings like love, hate, anger, zeal, or jealousy.
lords  The Hebrew word can mean “husbands, lords,” or “Baal” (false gods that the Canaanite people worshiped).
ISAIAH 26:14–27:6

We belonged to other masters.
But now we want people to remember only one name, your name!

14 Those dead lords will not come to life.
Those ghosts will not rise from death.
You decided to destroy them.
And you destroyed everything that makes us think about them.

You have helped the nation you love.
You stopped other people from defeating that nation.*

15 Lord, people remember you when they are in trouble.
People say quiet prayers to you when you punish them.

16 Lord, when we are not with you, we are like a woman giving birth to a baby.
She cries with birth pains.

In the same way, we have pain.
We give birth, but only to wind.
We don’t make new people for the world.
We don’t bring salvation to the land.

17 But the Lord says, “Your people have died, but they will live again.
The bodies of my people will rise from death.
Dead people in the ground, stand and be happy!
The dew covering you is like the dew sparkling in the light of a new day.
It shows a new time is coming when the earth will give up the dead people that are in it.”

Judgment: Reward or Punishment

20 My people, go into your rooms.
Lock your doors.
Hide in your rooms for a short time.
Hide until God’s anger is finished.

21 The Lord will leave his place* to judge the people of the world for the bad things they have done.
The earth will show the blood of the people that have been killed.
The earth will not cover the dead people any more.

27 At that time, the Lord will judge Leviathan,* the crooked snake.
The Lord will use his great sword, his hard and powerful sword, to punish Leviathan, the coiled snake.
The Lord will kill the large creature in the sea.*

2 At that time, people will sing about the pleasant vineyard.*

3 “I, the Lord, will care for that garden. I will water the garden at the right time. I will guard that garden day and night. No one will hurt that garden.

4 I am not angry. But if there is war and someone builds a wall of thorn bushes,* then I will march to it and burn it.

5 But if any person comes to me for safety and wants to make peace with me, then let him come, and make peace with me.

6 People will come to me. Those people will help Jacob to be strong like a plant with good roots. Those people will cause Israel to grow like a plant beginning to bloom. Then the land will be filled with the children of Israel like fruit from plants.”

lords The Hebrew word can mean “husbands, lords,” or “Baals” (false gods that the Canaanite people worshiped). You have helped ... nation. Or, “You gathered together the nation you love, the nation that you drove away into faraway lands.”
God Will Send Israel Away

7 How will the Lord punish his people? In the past enemies hurt the people. Will the Lord hurt them that same way? In the past many people were killed. Will the Lord do the same thing and kill many people?*

8 The Lord will settle his argument with Israel by sending her far away. The Lord will speak harshly to Israel. His words will burn like the hot desert wind.

9 How will Jacob’s guilt be forgiven? What will happen so his sins can be taken away? These things will happen: The rocks of the altar will be crushed to dust; the statues* and altars* for worshiping false gods will all be destroyed.

10 At that time, the great city will be empty— it will be like a desert. All the people will be gone—they will run away. That city will be like an open pasture. Young cattle will eat grass there. The cattle will eat leaves from the branches of the vines. 11 The vines will become dry. And the branches will break off. Women will use those branches for firewood.

The people refuse to understand. So God, their Maker, will not comfort them. Their Maker will not be kind to them.

12 At that time, the Lord will begin separating his people from others. He will begin at the Euphrates River.* The Lord will gather all his people from the Euphrates River to the River of Egypt.*

You people of Israel will be gathered together one by one. 13 Many of my people are now lost in Assyria.* Some of my people have run away to Egypt. But at that time, a great trumpet will be blown. And all those people will come back to Jerusalem. Those people will bow down before the Lord on that holy mountain.

Warnings to North Israel

28 Look at Samaria!

The drunk people of Ephraim are proud of that city. That city sits on a hill with a rich valley around it. The people of Samaria think their city is a beautiful crown of flowers. But they are drunk with wine. And this “Beautiful Crown” is just a dying plant.

2 Look, my Master has a person that is strong and brave. That person will come into the country like a storm of hail and rain. He will come like a storm into the country. He will be like a powerful river of water flooding the country. He will throw that crown (Samaria) down to the ground.

3 The drunk people of Ephraim are proud of their “Beautiful Crown.” But that city will be walked on.

4 That city sits on a hill with a rich valley around it. And that “Beautiful Crown of Flowers” is just a dying plant. That city will be like the first figs of summer. When a person sees one of those figs, he quickly picks it and eats it.

5 At that time, the Lord All-Powerful will become the “Beautiful Crown.” He will be the “Wonderful Crown of Flowers” for his people that are left. 6 Then the Lord will give wisdom to the judges that rule his people. The Lord will give strength to the people in battles at the city gates. 7 But now those leaders are drunk. The priests and prophets are all drunk with wine and beer. They stumble and fall down. The prophets are drunk when they see their dreams. The judges are drunk when they make their decisions. 8 Every table is covered with vomit. There is not a clean place anywhere.
God Wants to Help His People

9 The Lord is trying to teach a lesson to the people. The Lord is trying to make the people understand his teachings. But the people are like little babies. They are like babies that were at their mother’s breast only a very short time ago. 10 So the Lord speaks to them like they are babies:

Saw lasaw saw lasaw
Qaw laqaw qaw laqaw
Ze’er sham ze’er sham.*

11 The Lord will use this strange way of talking and he will use other languages to speak to these people.

12 In the past God spoke to those people, and he said, “Here is a resting place. This is the peaceful place. Let the tired people come and rest. This is the place of peace.”

But the people did not want to listen to God. 13 So the words from God were like a foreign language:

Saw lasaw saw lasaw,
Qaw laqaw qaw laqaw,
Ze’er sham ze’er sham.”*

The people did like they wanted to do. So the people fell back and were defeated. The people were trapped and captured.

No One Escapes God’s Judgment

14 You leaders in Jerusalem should listen to the Lord’s message. But now you refuse to listen to him. 15 You people say, “We have made an agreement with death. We have a contract with Sheol—the place of death. So we will not be punished. Punishment will pass us without hurting us. We will hide behind our tricks and lies.”

16 Because of those things, the Lord my Master says, “I will put a rock—a cornerstone—in the ground in Zion.* This will be a very precious stone.* Everything will be built on this very important rock. Any person that trusts in that rock will not be disappointed.

17 “People use a measuring line with a weight to show a wall is straight. In the same way, I will use justice and goodness to show what is right.

“You evil people are trying to hide behind your lies and tricks. But you will be punished. It will be like a storm or a flood is coming to destroy your hiding places. 18 Your agreement with death will be erased. Your contract with Sheol* will not help you.

“Some person will come and punish you. He will make you like the dirt he walks on. 19 That person will come and take you away. Your punishment will be terrible. Your punishment will come early in the morning, and it will continue late into the night.

20 “Then you will understand this story: A man tried to sleep on a bed that was too short for him. And he had a blanket that was not wide enough to cover him. The bed and blanket were useless, and so were your agreements.”

21 The Lord will fight like he did at Mount Perazim. The Lord will be angry like he was in Gibeon Valley.* Then the Lord will do the things he must do. The Lord will do some strange things. But he will finish his work. His work is a stranger’s job. 22 Now, you must not fight against those things. If you do, the ropes around you will become tighter.

23 The words I heard will not change. Those words came from the Lord All-Powerful, the ruler of all the earth. And those things will be done.

The Lord Punishes Fairly

24 Listen closely to the message I am telling you. Does a farmer plow his field all the very precious stone This also means a stone has been tested and shown that it has no cracks.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

Sheol This is the place where all people go when they die. Usually this means the grave, but it can mean the place where our spirits go.

Mount Perazim … Gibeon Valley See 1 Chron. 14:8–17.
time? No! Does he work the soil all the time? No! 25A farmer prepares the ground, and then he plants the seed. A farmer plants different kinds of seeds different ways. A farmer scatters dill seeds. A farmer throws cummin seeds on the ground. And a farmer plants wheat in rows. A farmer plants barley in its special place, and he plants spelt* seeds at the edge of his field.

26Our God is using this to teach you a lesson. This example shows us that God is fair when he punishes his people. 27Does a farmer use large boards with sharp teeth to crush dill seeds? No! Does a farmer use a wagon to crush cummin seeds? No! A farmer uses a small stick to break the hulls from these seeds of grain.

28When a woman makes bread, she works and presses the dough with her hands, but she does not do this forever. The Lord punishes his people in the same way. He will scare them with the wagon wheel, but he will not crush them completely. He will not allow many horses* to trample (walk on) them.

29This lesson comes from the Lord All-Powerful. The Lord gives wonderful advice. God is truly wise.

God's Love for Jerusalem

29God says, “Look at Ariel!* Ariel, the city where David camped. Her holidays have continued year after year. 2I have punished Ariel. That city has been filled with sadness and crying. But she has always been my Ariel. 3I have put armies all around you, Ariel. I raised war towers against you. 4You were defeated and pulled to the ground. Now, I hear your voice rising from the ground like the voice of a ghost. Your words come like a quiet voice from the dirt.”

5There are many strangers there—like very small pieces of dust. There are many cruel people—like chaff* blowing in the wind. 6The Lord All-Powerful punished you with earthquakes, thunder, and loud noises. There were storms, strong winds, and fire that burned and destroyed. 7Many, many nations fought against Ariel.* It has been like a terrible dream in the night. Armies have surrounded Ariel and punished her. 8But it will also be like a dream to those armies. They will not get what they want. It will be like a hungry man dreaming about food. When the man wakes up, he is still hungry. It will be like a thirsty man dreaming about water. When the man wakes up, he is still thirsty.

The same thing is true about all the nations fighting against Zion.* Those nations will not get the things that they want.

9Be surprised and amazed! You will become drunk— but not from wine. Look and be amazed! You will stumble and fall— but not from beer.

10The Lord will make you sleepy. The Lord will close your eyes. (The prophets are your eyes.) The Lord will cover your heads. (The prophets are your heads.)

11I tell you these things will happen, but you don’t understand me. My words are like the words in a book that is closed and sealed.* You can give the book to a person that can read, and tell that person to read the book. But that person will say, “I can’t read the book. It is closed and I can’t open it.” 12Or you can give the book to a person that can’t read, and tell that person to read the book. That person will say, “I can’t read the book because I don’t know how to read.”

13My Master says, “These people say they love me. They show honor to me with words from their mouths. But their hearts are far from me. The honor they show me is nothing but human rules they have memorized. 14 So I will continue to amaze these people by doing powerful and amazing things. Their wise men will lose their wisdom. Their wise men will not be able to understand.”
ISAIAH 29:14–30:10

15 Those people try to hide things from the Lord. They think the Lord will not understand. Those people do their evil things in darkness. Those people tell themselves, “No person can see us. No person will know who we are.”

16 You are confused. You think the clay is equal to the potter.* You think that something made can tell the person that made it, “You did not make me!” This is like a pot telling its maker, “You don’t understand.”

A Better Time Is Coming

17 This is the truth: After a short time, Lebanon will have rich soil like Mount Carmel.* And Mount Carmel will be like a thick forest. 18 The deaf will hear the words in the book. The blind will see through the darkness and fog. 19 The Lord will make the poor people happy. The poor people will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

20 This will happen when the mean and cruel people are finished. It will happen when those people that enjoy doing bad things are gone. 21 (Those people lie about good people. They try to trap people in court. They try to destroy innocent people.)

22 So the Lord speaks to Jacob’s family. (This is the Lord that made Abraham free.) The Lord says, “Now Jacob (the people of Israel) will not be embarrassed and ashamed.

23 He will see all his children, and he will say my name is holy. I made these children with my hands. And these children will say that the Holy One (God) of Jacob is very special. These children will respect the God of Israel.

24 Many of these people did not understand, so they did wrong things. These people did not understand, but they will learn their lesson.”

Israel Should Trust God, Not Egypt

30 The Lord said, “Look at these children. They don’t obey me. They make plans, but they don’t ask me to help them. They make agreements with other nations, but my Spirit does not want those agreements. These people are adding more and more sins to themselves. 2 These children are going down to Egypt for help, but they did not ask me if that was the right thing to do. They hope they will be saved by the Pharaoh.* They want Egypt to protect them.

3* But I tell you, hiding in Egypt will not help you. Egypt will not be able to protect you. 4 Your leaders have gone to Zoan* and your ambassadors have gone to Hanes.* 5 But they will be disappointed. They are depending on a nation that can’t help them. Egypt is useless—Egypt will give no help. Egypt will cause only shame and embarrassment.”

God’s Message to Judah

6 The sad message about the animals in the Negev:* The Negev is a dangerous place. This land is full of lions, and adders,* and fast snakes.* But some people are traveling through the Negev—they are going to Egypt. Those people have put their wealth on the backs of donkeys. Those people have put their treasure on the backs of camels. (This means that the people are depending on a nation that cannot help. That useless nation is Egypt. Egypt’s help will be worth nothing. So I call Egypt the “Do-Nothing Dragon.”)

8 Now write this on a sign so all people can see it. And write this in a book. Write these things for the last days. This will be far, far in the future:

9 These people are like children that refuse to obey their parents. They lie and refuse to listen to the Lord’s teachings. 10 They tell the prophets,

---

Notes:

* Potter: A worker that makes things from clay.

Mount Carmel: A hill in north Israel very good for growing plants. This name means “God’s vineyard.”

Pharaoh: A title for the kings of Egypt.

Zoan: A city in the country Egypt.

Hanes: A city in the country Egypt.

Negev: The desert area south of Judah.

adders: Very poisonous snakes.

fast snakes: Literally, “flying snakes.”
“Don’t see dreams* about things we should do! Don’t tell us the truth! Say nice things to us and make us feel good! See only good things for us! Stop seeing things that will really happen! Get out of our way! Stop telling us about the Holy One of Israel.”

Judah’s Help Comes Only from God

12 The Holy One (God) of Israel says, “You people have refused to accept this message from the Lord. You people want to depend on fighting and lies to help you. 13 You are guilty of these things so you are like a tall wall with cracks in it. That wall will fall and break into small pieces. 14 You will be like a large clay jar that breaks and becomes many, many small pieces. Those pieces are useless. You can’t use those pieces to get a hot coal from the fire or to get water from a pool in the ground.”

15 The Lord my Master, the Holy One of Israel, says, “If you come back to me you will be saved. The only strength you have will come if you trust me. But you must be calm.” 16 You say, “No, we need horses to run away on!” That is true—you will run away on horses. But the enemy will chase you. And the enemy will be faster than your horses. 17 One enemy will make threats and a thousand of your men will run away. Five enemies will make threats and all of you will run from them. The only thing that will be left of your army will be a flagpole on a hill.

18 The Lord wants to show his mercy to you. The Lord is waiting. The Lord wants to rise and comfort you. The Lord God is fair, and every person that waits for the Lord’s help will be blessed (happy).

19 The Lord’s people will live in Jerusalem on Mount Zion.* You people will not continue crying. The Lord will hear your crying and he will comfort you. The Lord will hear you, and he will help you.

God Will Help His People

20 In the past, my Master (God) gave you sorrow and hurt—it was like the bread and water you ate every day. But God is your teacher, and he will not continue to hide from you. You will see your teacher with your own eyes. 21 Then, if you do wrong and go (live) the wrong way (to the right or to the left), you will hear a voice behind you saying, “This is the right way. You should go this way!”

22 You have statues covered with silver and gold. Those false gods have made you dirty (sinful). But you will stop serving those false gods. You will throw away those gods like waste and dirty rags.*

23 At that time, the Lord will send rain for you. You will plant seeds in the ground, and the ground will grow food for you. You will have a very large harvest. You will have plenty of food in the fields for your animals. There will be large fields for your sheep. 24 Your cattle and donkeys will have all the food they need. There will be very much food. You will have to use shovels and pitchforks* to spread all the food* for your animals to eat. 25 Every mountain and hill will have streams filled with water. These things will happen after many people are killed and the towers are pulled down.

26 At that time, the light from the moon will be bright like the sun. The light from the sun will be seven times brighter than now. The light from the sun in one day will be like a full week. These things will happen when the Lord bandages his broken people and heals the hurts from their beatings.

27 Look! The Lord’s Name is coming from far away. His anger is like a fire with thick clouds of smoke. The Lord’s mouth is filled with anger, and his tongue is like a burning fire. 28 The Lord’s breath (Spirit) is like a great river—rising until it reaches the throat. The Lord will judge the nations. It will be like he

You will throw away ... dirty rags This also means “You will throw away those gods like menstrual clothes. You will say, ‘Go away!’” pitchforks Tools for throwing or spreading hay.

food This was special food that had been allowed to ferment. This made the meat of the animal tender and good.
shakes them through the ‘Strainer of Destruction.’ The Lord will control them. It will be like a bit* that controls an animal is in the mouths of the people.

29 At that time, you will sing happy songs. That time will be like the nights when you begin a holiday. You are very happy while walking to the Lord’s mountain. You are happy while listening to the flute on the way to worship (the Lord), the Rock* of Israel.

30 The Lord will cause all people to hear his great voice. The Lord will cause all people to see his powerful arm come down with anger. That arm will be like a great fire that burns everything. The Lord’s power will be like a great storm with much rain and hail.

31 Assyria* will be afraid when he hears the Lord’s voice. The Lord will beat Assyria with a stick. 32 The Lord will beat Assyria, and it will be like playing music on drums and harps.* The Lord will defeat Assyria with his great arm (power).

33 Topheth* has been made ready for a long time. It is ready for the king.* It was made very deep and wide. There is a very big pile of wood and fire there. And the Lord’s breath (Spirit) will come like a stream of burning sulfur and burn it.

Israel Should Depend on God’s Power

31 Look at the people going down to Egypt for help. The people ask for horses. They think horses will save them. The people hope the chariots* and horse soldiers from Egypt will protect them. The people think they are safe because that army is very big. The people don’t trust the Holy One of Israel (God). The people don’t ask the Lord for help.

2 But, it is the Lord who is wise. And it is the Lord who will bring trouble against them. The people will not be able to change the Lord’s command. The Lord will rise and fight against the evil people (Judah). And the Lord will fight against the people (Egypt) that try to help them.

3 The people of Egypt are only human—not God. The horses from Egypt are only animals—not spirit. The Lord will stretch out his arm and the helper (Egypt) will be defeated. And the people that wanted help (Judah) will fall. All those people will be destroyed together.

4 The Lord told me: “When a lion or a lion’s cub catches an animal to eat, the lion stands over the dead animal and roars. At that time nothing can scare that great lion. If men come and yell at the lion, the lion will not be afraid. The men can make much noise, but the lion will not run away.”

In the same way, the Lord All-Powerful will come down to Mount Zion.* The Lord will fight on that hill. 5 The Lord All-Powerful will defend* Jerusalem—like birds flying over their nests. The Lord will save her. The Lord will “pass over” and save Jerusalem.

6 You children of Israel turned against God. You should come back to God. 7 Then people would stop worshiping the gold and silver idols you made. You truly sinned when you made those idols.

8 It is true that Assyria* will be defeated with a sword. But that sword will not be a man’s sword. Assyria will be destroyed. But that destruction will not come from a man’s sword. Assyria will run away from God’s sword. But the young men will be caught and made slaves. 9 Their place of safety will be destroyed. Their leaders will be defeated and leave their flag.

The Lord said all those things. The Lord’s fireplace (altar) is on Zion.* The Lord’s oven (altar) is in Jerusalem.

---

bit A piece of metal in a horse’s mouth used to make the horse go the right way.

Rock A name for God. It shows he is like a strong place of safety.

Assyria This was a powerful nation northeast of Israel.

harp Musical instruments with several strings.

Topheth Gehenna; the Valley of Hinnom. In this valley people killed their children to honor the false god, “Molech.”

king This is like the name of the false god, “Molech.”

chariots Small wagons used for war.

---

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

defend Literally, “fight on” or “fight against.”
32 Leaders Should Be Good and Fair

Listen to the things I say! A king should rule in a way that brings goodness. Leaders should make fair decisions when they lead the people. If this would happen, then the king would be like a place to hide from the wind and rain. It would be like having streams of water in a dry land. It would be like a cool shadow from a large rock in a hot land. People would turn to the king for help, and people would truly listen to the things he says. People that are now confused would be able to understand. People that can’t speak clearly now would be able to speak clearly and quickly. Foolish people would not be called great men. People would not respect men that make secret plans.

A foolish person says foolish things, and in his heart, plans evil things to do. A foolish person wants to do things that are wrong. A foolish person says bad things about the Lord. A foolish person does not let hungry people eat food. A foolish person does not let thirsty people drink water. That foolish person uses evil like a tool. He plans ways to take everything from poor people. That foolish person tells lies about the poor people. And his lies keep the poor people from being judged fairly.

But a good leader plans good things to do. And those good things make him a good leader.

Hard Times Are Coming

Some of you women are calm now. You feel safe. But you should stand and listen to the words I say. You women feel safe now, but after one year you will be troubled. Why? Because you will not gather grapes next year—there will be no grapes to gather.

Women, you are calm now, but you should be afraid! Women, you feel safe now, but you should be worried! Take off your nice clothes and put on your clothes of sadness. Wrap those clothes around your waist. Put those clothes of sadness over your sorrow-filled breasts.

Cry because your fields are empty. Your vineyards once gave grapes—but now they are empty. Cry for the land of my people. Cry because only thorns and weeds will grow there. Cry for the city and for all the houses that were once filled with joy.

People will leave the capital city. The palace and towers will be left empty. People will not live in houses—they will live in caves. Wild donkeys and sheep will live in the city—animals will go there to eat grass.

This will continue until God gives us his Spirit from above. Now there is no goodness in the land—it is like a desert. But in the future, that desert will be like the land of Carmel—fair judgment will live there. And Carmel will be like a green forest—goodness will live there. That goodness will bring peace and safety forever. My people will live in the beautiful field of peace. My people will live in tents of safety. They will live in calm and peaceful places.

But before these things happen, the forest must fall. That city must be defeated. Some of you people plant seeds near every stream of water. You let your cattle and donkeys walk around and eat freely. You people will be very happy.

Evil Causes Only More Evil

Look, you people make war and steal things from people, and those people never stole anything from you. You turn against people, and those people never turned against you. So when you stop stealing, other people will begin stealing from you. When you stop turning against people, other people will start turning against you.

Then the people will say, “Lord, be kind to us. We have waited for your help. Lord, give us strength every morning. Save us when we are in trouble.”
ISAIAH 33:3–23

3 Your powerful voice scares people, and they run away from you. Your greatness causes the nations to run away.”

4 You people stole things in war. Those things will be taken from you. Many, many people will come and take your wealth. It will be like the times when locusts come and eat all your crops.

5 The Lord is very great. He lives in a very high place. The Lord fills Zion with fairness and goodness.

6 Jerusalem, you are rich—you are rich with wisdom and knowledge of God. You are rich with salvation. You respect the Lord and that makes you rich. So you can know that you will continue.

7 But listen! The messengers* are crying outside. The messengers that bring peace are crying very hard. No one is walking in the streets. People have broken the agreements they made. People refuse to believe the proof from witnesses.* No one respects other people. The land is sick and dying. Lebanon* is dying and Sharon Valley* is dry and empty. Bashan* and Carmel* once grew beautiful plants—but now those plants have stopped growing.

10 The Lord says, “Now, I will stand and show my greatness. Now, I will become important to the people. You people have done useless things. Those things are like hay and straw. They are worth nothing! Your spirit* will be like a fire and burn you. People will be burned until their bones become lime.* The people will burn quickly like thorns and dry bushes.

13 “You people in faraway lands, hear about the things I have done. You people that are near me, learn about my power.”

14 The sinners in Zion* are afraid. The people that do wrong things shake with fear. They say, “Can any of us live through this fire that destroys? Who can live near this fire that burns forever?”

15 Good, honest people that refuse to hurt others for money—they will live through that fire. Those people refuse to take bribes. They refuse to listen to plans to murder other people. They refuse to look at plans for doing bad things. Those people will live safely in high places. They will be protected in high rock fortresses. Those people will always have food and water.

17 Your eyes will see the King (God) in his beauty. You will see the great land. You will think about the troubles you had in the past. You will think, “Where are those people from other countries? Those people spoke languages we could not understand. Where are those officials and tax collectors from other lands? Where are the spies that counted our defense towers? They are all gone!”

God Will Protect Jerusalem

20 Look at Zion*, the city of our religious holidays. Look at Jerusalem—that beautiful place of rest. Jerusalem is like a tent that will never be moved. The pegs that hold her in place will never be pulled up. Her ropes will never be broken. Why? Because the Powerful Lord is there. That land is a place with streams and wide rivers. But there will be no enemy boats or powerful ships on those rivers. You men that work on those boats can quit your work with the ropes. You can’t make the mast* strong enough. You will not be able to open your sails. Why? Because locusts Insects like grasshoppers. Locusts can destroy a large crop very quickly.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

messengers This word also means “angels.”

witnesses Literally, “cities.” The Hebrew word is like the word meaning “witnesses.”

Lebanon A country north of Israel. It was famous for its great cedar and pine trees.

Sharon Valley The low land along the coast of Palestine.

Bashan An area northeast of Israel.

Carmel A hill in north Israel very good for growing plants. This name means “God’s vineyard.”

spirit Or, “Spirit.”

lime A white powder that is often used to make mortar or cement. It can be made by burning bones, shells, or limestone.

fire that ... burns forever This might mean God, the Fire (Light) of Israel.

mast The pole that holds the sail on a sailboat.
the Lord is our judge.* The Lord makes our laws. The Lord is our king. He saves us. So the Lord will give us much wealth. Even crippled people will win great wealth in war. 24No person living there will say, “I am sick.” The people living there are people whose sins are forgiven.

God Will Punish His Enemies

34 All you nations, come near and listen! All you people should listen closely. The earth and all the people on the earth should listen to these things. 2The Lord is angry at all the nations and their armies. The Lord will destroy them all. He will cause them all to be killed. 3Their bodies will be thrown outside. The stink will rise from the bodies, and the blood will flow down the mountains. 4The skies will be rolled shut like a scroll.* And the stars will die and fall like leaves from a vine or a fig tree. All the stars* in the sky will melt away. 5The Lord says, “This will happen when my sword in the sky is covered with blood.”

Look! The Lord’s sword will cut through Edom.* The Lord judged those people guilty, and they must die.* 6Why? Because the Lord decided there should be a time for killing in Bozrah* and in Edom. 7So the rams, the cattle, and the strong bulls will be killed. The land will be filled with their blood. The dirt will be covered with their fat.

8Those things will happen, because the Lord has chosen a time for punishment. The Lord has chosen a year when people must pay for the wrong things they did to Zion.* 9Edom’s rivers will be like hot tar.* Edom’s ground will be like burning sulfur.* 10The fires will burn day and night—no person will stop the fire. The smoke will rise from Edom forever. That land will be destroyed forever and ever. No people will ever travel through that land again. 11Birds and small animals will own that land. Owls and ravens will live there. That land will be called “Empty Desert.”* 12The freemen* and leaders will all be gone. And there will be nothing left for them to rule.

13Thorns and wild bushes will grow in all the beautiful homes there. Wild dogs and owls will live in those homes. Wild animals will make their homes there. Big birds will live in the grasses that grow there. 14Wild cats will live there with hyenas.* And wild goats* will call to their friends. Night animals* will look there and find a place to rest. 15Snakes will make their homes there. Snakes will lay their eggs there. The eggs will open, and small snakes will crawl from those dark places. Birds that eat dead things will gather like women visiting their friends.

16Look at the Lord’s scroll.* Read what is written there. Nothing is missing. It is written in that scroll that those animals will be together. God said he will gather them together. So God’s Spirit will gather them together. 17God decided what he should do with them. Then God chose a place for them. God drew a line and showed them their land. So the animals will own that land forever. They will live there year after year.

sulfur A yellow chemical that looks like rock or dirt. Sulfur burns with a hot flame, and it gives a bad odor when it burns.
Empty Desert Literally, “They will measure this city with the measuring string called ‘emptiness’ and stone weights called ‘nothingness.’” These words described the empty earth in Genesis 1:2. freemen Important citizens of a town or country. These people came from “good families” and had never been slaves.
hyenas A kind of wild dog that often eats the meat of dead animals that other animals killed.
wild goats This Hebrew word means “goat, or goat-demon.”
Night animals Or, “Lilith, the night demon.” This name is like the Hebrew word for night.
scroll A long roll of leather or papyrus (paper) used for writing books, letters, and legal documents.
ISAIAH 35:1–36:6

God Will Comfort His People

35 The dry desert will become very happy. The desert will be glad and will grow like a flower. The desert will be full of growing flowers and will begin to show its happiness. It will seem like the desert is dancing with joy. The desert will be beautiful like the forest of Lebanon, the hill of Carmel, and Sharon Valley. This will happen because all people will see the Glory of the Lord. People will see the beauty of our God.

3Make the weak arms strong again. Make the weak knees strong. People are afraid and confused. Say to those people, “Be strong! Don’t be afraid!” Look, your God will come and punish your enemies. He will come and give you your reward. The Lord will save you. Then the blind people will be able to see again. Their eyes will be opened. Then the deaf people will be able to hear. Their ears will be opened. Crippled people will dance like deer. And the people that can’t talk now will use their voices to sing happy songs. This will happen when springs of water begin flowing in the desert. Springs will flow in the dry land. Now people see mirages that look like water. But at that time there will be real pools of water. There will be wells in the dry land. Water will flow from the ground. Tall water plants will grow where wild animals once ruled.

At that time, there will be a road there. This highway will be called “The Holy Road.” Evil people will not be allowed to walk on that road. No fools will go to that road. Only good people will walk on that road. There will be no dangers on that road. There will be no lions on that road to hurt people. There will be no dangerous animals on that road. That road will be for the people God saves.

10 God will make his people free! And those people will come back to him. The people will be happy when they come into Zion. The people will be happy forever. Their happiness will be like a crown on their heads. Their gladness and joy will fill them completely. Sorrow and sadness will be gone far, far away.

The Assyrians Invade Judah

36 During Hezekiah’s 14th year as king, Sennacherib king of Assyria went to fight against all the strong cities of Judah. Sennacherib defeated those cities.

2 Sennacherib sent his commander with a large army to King Hezekiah in Jerusalem. The commander and his army left Lachish and went to Jerusalem. They stopped near the aqueduct by the Upper Pool. (The Upper Pool is on the road to Laundryman’s Field.)

3 Three men from Jerusalem went out to talk with the commander. These men were Eliakim son of Hilkiah, Joah son of Asaph, and Shebna. Eliakim was the palace manager. Joah was the record keeper. And Shebna was the royal secretary.

4 The commander told them, “Tell Hezekiah this is what the great king, the king of Assyria says:

What are you trusting in to help you? I tell you if you are trusting in power and smart plans for battle—then that is useless. Those are nothing but empty words. Now I ask you, who do you trust so much that you are willing to rebel against me? Are you depending on Egypt to help you? Egypt is like a broken stick. If you lean on it for support, it will only hurt you and make a hole in your hand. Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, can’t be trusted by any of the people that depend on him for help.

Lebanon A country north of Israel. It was famous for its great cedar and pine trees.

Carmel A hill in north Israel very good for growing plants. This name means “God’s vineyard.”

Sharon Valley The low land along the coast of Palestine.

Glory of the Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. It was like a bright shining light. See Ex. 40:34–36.

mirages In the desert, heat rising from the ground looks like water from far away. This is a mirage.

fools Here this means people that do not follow God and his wise teachings.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

Hezekiah A king of Judah. He ruled about 727–687 B.C.

Sennacherib A king of Assyria. He was king about 706–681 B.C.

aqueduct A ditch or pipe that carries water from one place to another.
7But maybe you will say, “We are trusting in the Lord our God to help us.” But I know that Hezekiah destroyed the altars* and high places* where people worshiped the Lord. And Hezekiah told the people of Judah and Jerusalem, “You must worship only at this one altar here in Jerusalem.”

8If you still want to fight, my master, the king of Assyria will make this agreement with you. I promise that I will give you 2,000 horses if you can find enough men to ride those horses into battle. But even then you will not be able to defeat even one of my master’s lowest ranking officers! So why do you continue to depend on Egypt’s chariots* and horse soldiers!

9Now, do you think I came to this country to destroy it without the Lord’s help! No! The Lord said to me, “Go up against this country and destroy it!”

10Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah, said to the commander, “Please, speak to us in the Aramaic. We understand that language. Don’t speak to us in the language of Judah. If you use our language, the people on the city walls will understand you.”

11But the commander said, “My master did not send me to speak only to you and your master. My master sent me to also speak to the people that are sitting on the wall! Those people will not have enough food or water either; they too will eat their own waste and drink their own urine just like you.”

12Then the commander shouted loudly in the Jewish language, 14“Hear this message from the great king, the king of Assyria: Don’t let Hezekiah fool you! He can’t save you from my power! 15Don’t believe Hezekiah when he says, ‘Trust in the Lord! The Lord will save us. The Lord will not let the king of Assyria defeat the city.’

16Don’t listen to those words from Hezekiah. Listen to the king of Assyria. The king of Assyria says, “We should make an agreement. You people should come out of the city to me. Then every person will be free to go home. Every person will be free to eat grapes from his own vine. And every person will be free to eat the figs from his own fig tree. Every person will be free to drink water from his own well. 17You can do this until I come and take each of you to a country like your own. In that new country you will have good grain and new wine, bread and fields of grapes.”

18Don’t let Hezekiah make trouble for you. He says, “The Lord will save us.” But I ask you, did any of the gods of other nations save their country from the king of Assyria? No! 19Where are the gods of Hamath* and Arpad?* [They are defeated!] Where are the gods of Sepharvaim?* [They are defeated!] Did they save Samaria* from my power? No! 20Did any of the gods in the other countries save their land from me? No! Can the Lord save Jerusalem from me? No!”

21But the people in Jerusalem were very quiet. They did not say a word to the commander because King Hezekiah had given them a command. He said, “Don’t say anything to him.”

22Then the palace manager (Eliakim son of Hilkiah), the royal secretary (Shebna), and the record keeper* (Joah son of Asaph) went to Hezekiah. Their clothes were torn to show they were upset. They told Hezekiah all the things that the Assyrian commander had said.

Hezekiah Asks God to Help

37 King Hezekiah listened to those things. Then Hezekiah tore his clothes, to show he was upset. Then Hezekiah put on the special clothes of sadness and went to the Lord’s temple.* Hezekiah sent Eliakim the palace manager, Shebna the royal secretary, and the elders (leaders) of the priests* to the prophet, Isaiah son of Amoz. They wore the special clothes that showed they were sad and upset.

3These men said to Isaiah, “King Hezekiah has commanded that today will be a special day for sorrow and sadness. It will be a very sad day. It will be like a day when a child should be born, but is not strong enough to come from its mother’s body. The commander’s master, the king of Assyria, has sent him to say bad things about the living God. Maybe the Lord your God will hear all those things. Maybe the Lord will prove the enemy is wrong! So pray for the people that are still left alive.”

5King Hezekiah’s officers went to Isaiah. Isaiah said to them, “Give this message to your master, Hezekiah: The Lord says, ‘Don’t be afraid of the things you heard from the commanders! Don’t believe the evil things those “boys” from the king of Assyria said about me.’ Look, I will send a spirit against Assyria. The king of Assyria will get a report warning him about a danger to his country. So, he will go back to his country. At that time, I will kill him with a sword in his own country.’”

Hezekiah Prays to God

14Hezekiah took the letters from the messengers and read them. Then Hezekiah went to the Lord’s temple.* Hezekiah opened the letters and laid them out in front the Lord.

15Hezekiah began praying to the Lord and said:

16Lord All-Powerful, God of Israel, you sit as King on the Cherub angels.* You, and only you, are the God that rules all the kingdoms on earth. You made the heavens and the earth! Lord, please listen to me. Lord, open your eyes and look at this message. Hear the words that Sennacherib sent to insult you, the living God!

17It is true, Lord. The kings of Assyria did destroy all those nations! The kings of Assyria have burned the gods of those nations. But those were not real gods.

---

Notes:
- temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.
- priests Special religious leaders that made sacrifices for the people.
- Tirhakah This is probably Taharqa, the pharaoh of Egypt about 690–664 B.C.
- Ethiopia Literally, “Cush,” a country in Africa by the Red Sea.
- ancestors Literally, “fathers.” This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
- Eden Beth Eden, an area in the country of Aram (Syria).
- Cherub angels Special angels God used as messengers. Statues of these angels were on the top of the Box of the Agreement.
They were only wood and stone—statues that men made. That is why the kings of Assyria could destroy them. But you are the Lord our God. So please save us from the king of Assyria. Then all the other nations will know that you are the Lord, and you are the only God.

God’s Answer to Hezekiah

Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent this message to Hezekiah. Isaiah said, “The Lord, the God of Israel says, ‘You prayed to me about the message that came from Sennacherib king of Assyria. I have heard you.’

This is the Lord’s message about Sennacherib:

\[\text{King of Assyria,} \]
\[\text{The Virgin Daughter of Zion (Jerusalem)} \] doesn’t think you are important.
She laughs at you.
The Daughter of Jerusalem makes fun of you.

But who did you insult and make fun of?
Who did you speak against?
You were against the Holy One of Israel!
You acted like you were better than him!

You sent your officers to insult the Lord my Master.
You said,
\[\text{I am very powerful!} \]
I have many, many chariots.*
\[\text{With my power I defeated Lebanon.} \]
I climbed the highest mountains of Lebanon.*
I cut down all the great trees (armies) of Lebanon.
I have been to the highest mountain and into the deepest part of that forest.

I dug wells, and drank water from new places.
I dried up the rivers of Egypt and walked on that country.

The Lord’s Message for Hezekiah

Then the Lord said to Hezekiah, “I will give you a sign to show you that these words are true. You were not be able to plant seeds, So this year you will eat grain that grew wild from last year’s crop. But in three years, you will eat grain that you planted. You will harvest those crops and you will have plenty to eat. You will plant grapevines and eat their fruit.

The people from the family of Judah that have escaped and are left alive will again begin to grow. These people will be like plants that send their roots deep into the ground and produce fruit above the ground. Why? Because a few people will remain alive. They will go out from Jerusalem. There will be survivors coming from Mount Zion.*” chariot(s) Small wagons used in war.

Lebanon A country north of Israel. It was famous for its great cedar and pine trees.

bit A piece of metal people put in a horse’s mouth to control the horse.
Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
ISAIAH 37:33–38:12

The strong love* of the Lord All-Powerful will do this.

33 So the Lord says this about the king of Assyria:

“He will not come into this city.
He will not shoot an arrow at this city.
He will not bring his shields to this city.
He will not build up a hill of dirt to attack the walls of this city.
He will go back the same way he came.
The Lord says this!
I will protect this city and save it.
I will do this for myself and for my servant David.”

36 That night, the angel of the Lord went out and killed 185,000 people in the Assyrian camp. When the people got up in the morning, they saw the dead bodies all around them.

37 So Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, went back to Nineveh and stayed there.

38 One day, Sennacherib was in the temple of his god, Nisroch, worshiping him. At that time his two sons, Adrammelech and Sharezer, killed him with a sword. Then the sons ran away to Ararat.* So Sennacherib’s son Esarhaddon became the new king of Assyria.

Hezekiah’s Illness

38 At that time, Hezekiah became sick and almost died. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz went to see him.

Isaiah told the king, “The Lord told me to tell you these things: ‘You will die soon. So you should tell your family what they should do when you die. You will not become well again.’”

2 Hezekiah turned toward the wall * that faced the temple, and began praying. He said: 3 “Lord, remember that I have truly served you with all my heart. I have done the things that you say are good.” Then Hezekiah cried very hard.

4 Isaiah received this message from the Lord: 5 “Go to Hezekiah and tell him that the Lord, the God of your ancestor* David says, ‘I heard your prayer, and I saw your tears. I will add 15 years to your life. I will save you and this city from the king of Assyria. I will protect this city.’”

22* But Hezekiah asked Isaiah, “What is the sign from the Lord that proves I will become well? What is the sign that proves I will be able to go to the Lord’s temple?*”

7 This is the sign from the Lord to show you that he will do the things he says: 8 “Look, I am causing the shadow that is on the steps of Ahaz* to move back ten steps. The sun’s shadow will go back up the ten steps that it has already been on.”

21* Then Isaiah told Hezekiah, “You should crush figs together and put them on your sore, then you will become well.”

9 This is the letter from Hezekiah when he became well from the sickness:

10 I told myself I would live to be old. But then it was my time to go through the gates of Sheol.*

Now I will spend all of my time there.

11 So I said, “I will not see the Lord Yah* in the land of the living again.
I will not see the people living on earth.

12 My home, my shepherd’s tent, is being pulled down and taken from me.
I am finished like the cloth a man rolls up and cuts from the loom.*

You finished my life in such a short time!

ancestor Literally, “father.” This means a person that people are descended from.

Verse 22 This verse is at the end of the chapter in the printed Hebrew text.
temple A special building for worshipping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

steps of Ahaz The steps of a special building that Hezekiah used like a clock. When the sun shone on the steps, the shadows showed what time of the day it was.

Verse 21 This verse is at the end of the chapter in the printed Hebrew text.

Sheol This is the place where all people go when they die. Usually this means the grave, but it can mean the place where our spirits go.

Lord Yah Or, “YAH YAHWEH,” a Hebrew name for God.

loom A machine used for making cloth.

strong love This Hebrew word means strong feelings like love, hate, anger, zeal, or jealousy.

Ararat The ancient country of Urartu, an area in Eastern Turkey.
13 All night I cried loud like a lion.
But my hopes were crushed
like a lion eating bones.
You finished my life in such a short time!

14 I cried like a dove.
I cried like a bird.
My eyes became tired,
but I continued looking to the heavens.
My Master, I am so depressed.
Promise to help me.”

15 What can I say?
My Master told me what will happen.
And my Master will cause that to happen.
I have had these troubles in my soul.
So now I will be humble all my life.

16 My Master, use this hard time to make my spirit live again.
Help my spirit become strong and healthy.
Help me become well!
Help me live again!

17 Look! My troubles are gone!
I now have peace.
You love me very much.
You did not let me rot in the grave.
[You forgave all my sins.]
You threw my sins far away.

18 Dead people don’t sing praises to you.
People in Sheol* don’t praise you.
Dead people don’t trust you to help them.
They go into a hole in the ground, and never speak again.

19 People that are alive—
like me today—
are the people that praise you.
A father should tell his children that you can be trusted.

20 [So I say:]
“The Lord saved me.
So we will sing and play songs
in the Lord’s temple all our lives.”

Sheol This is the place where all people go when they die.
Usually this means the grave, but it can mean the place where our spirits go.
Israel's Punishment Will End

Your God says,

“Comfort, comfort my people!

Speak kindly to Jerusalem!

Tell Jerusalem,

‘Your time of service is finished.

You have paid the price for your sins.’”

The Lord punished Jerusalem—twice for every sin she did.

Listen, there is a person shouting!

“Prepare a way in the desert for the Lord!

Make the road in the desert level for our God!

Fill every valley.

Make every mountain and hill flat.

Make the crooked roads straight.

Make the rough ground smooth.

Then, the Glory of the Lord* will be revealed (shown).

And together, all people will see the Lord’s Glory.

Yes, the Lord himself said these things!”

A voice said,

“Speak!”

So the man said,

“What should I say?”

The voice said,

“People don’t live forever;

they are all like grass.

Their goodness is like a wildflower.

A powerful wind from the Lord blows on the grass, and the grass dies
and the wildflower falls.”

Yes, all people are like grass.

Grass dies and wildflowers fall.

But the word of our God continues forever.”

Salvation: God’s Good News

Zion,* you have good news to tell.

Go up on a high mountain and shout the good news!

Jerusalem, you have good news to tell.

Don’t be afraid, speak loudly!

Tell this news to all of the cities of Judah:

“Look, here is your God!”

The Lord my Master
is coming with power.

He will use his power to rule
all the people.

The Lord will bring rewards
for his people.

He will have their payment with him.

The Lord will lead his people like a shepherd leads sheep.

The Lord will use his arm (power) and gather his sheep together.

The Lord will pick up the little sheep and hold them in his arms.

Their mothers will walk beside him.

God Made the World; He Rules It

Who measured the oceans
in the palm of his hand?

Who used his hand to measure the sky?

Who used a bowl to measure all the dust of the earth?

Who used measuring scales to measure the mountains and hills?

It was the Lord!*

No person told the Lord’s Spirit
what he should do.

No person told the Lord
how to do the things he did.

Did the Lord ask for any person’s help?

Did any person teach the Lord to be fair?

Did any person teach the Lord knowledge?

Did any person teach the Lord to be wise?

No! The Lord already knew these things*.;

Look, all the nations in the world are like one small drop in the bucket.
If the Lord took all the faraway nations, and put them on his weighing scales, they would be like small pieces of dust.

All the trees in Lebanon are not enough to burn for the Lord.

And all the animals in Lebanon are not enough to kill (for a sacrifice)*.

Glory of the Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. It was like a bright shining light. See Ex. 40:34–36.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
Compared to God, all the nations of the world are nothing. Compared to God, all the nations are worth nothing at all.

People Can’t Imagine What God Is Like

Can you compare God to anything? No! Can you make a picture of God? No! But some people make statues from rock or wood, and they call them gods. One worker makes a statue. Then another worker covers it with gold and makes silver chains for it. And for the base, he chooses a special kind of wood, a kind of wood that will not rot. Then he finds a good wood worker. And the worker makes a “god” that won’t fall over.

Surely you know the truth, don’t you? Surely you have heard! Surely someone told you long ago! Surely you understand who made the earth!

The Lord is the true God! He sits above the circle of the earth, and compared to him, people are like grasshoppers. He rolled open the skies like a piece of cloth. He stretched the skies like a tent to sit under. He makes rulers not important. He makes the judges of this world completely worthless.

Those rulers are like plants; they are planted in the ground, but before they can send their roots into the ground, God blows on the “plants,” and they become dead and dry, and the wind blows them away like straw.

The Holy One (God) says: “Can you compare me to anyone? No! No one is equal to me. Look up to the skies. Who created all those stars? Who created all those ‘armies’ in the sky?"

Who knows every star by name? The true God is very strong and powerful, so none of these stars is lost.”

People of Jacob, this is true! Israel, you should believe this! So why do you say: “The Lord can’t see the way I live. God will not find me and punish me.”

Surely you have heard and know that the Lord God is very wise. People can’t learn everything he knows. The Lord does not become tired and need to rest. The Lord made all the faraway places on earth. The Lord lives forever.

The Lord helps weak people to be strong. He causes the people without power to become powerful.

Young men become tired and need to rest. Even young boys stumble and fall.

But people that trust the Lord become strong again like eagles that grow new feathers. These people run without becoming weak. These people walk without becoming tired.

The Lord is the Eternal Creator

The Lord says, “Faraway countries, be quiet and come to me! Nations be brave.* Come to me and speak. We will meet together, and we will decide who is right.

Tell me the answers to these questions: Who woke the man that is coming from the east? Goodness walks with him. He uses his sword and defeats nations—they become like dust. He uses his bow and conquers kings—they run away like straw blown by the wind.

be brave Or, “be strong again,” as in Isa. 40:31.
ISAIAH 41:3–18

3 He chases armies and is never hurt.
   He goes places he has never been before.
4 Who caused these things to happen? Who did this?
   Who called all people from the beginning?
   I, the Lord, did these things!
   I, the Lord, am the first.
   I was here before the beginning.
   And I will be here when all things are finished.
5 All you faraway places, look, and be afraid!
   All you places far away on the earth, shake with fear!
   Come here and listen to me!”
   And they came.

6 “Workers help each other. They encourage each other to be strong.
   One worker cuts wood to make a statue. That person encourages the man that works with gold.
   Another worker uses a hammer and makes the metal smooth. Then that worker encourages the man at the anvil.*
   This last worker says, ‘This work is good; the metal will not come off.’
   Then he nails the statue to a base so it won’t fall over. And it never moves!”

Only The Lord Can Save Us

8 The Lord says:
   “You, Israel, are my servant.
   Jacob, I chose you.
   You are from Abraham’s family.
   And I loved Abraham.
9 You were in a far away country, but I reached out to you.
   I called you from that faraway place.
   I said, ‘You are my servant.’
   I chose you.
   And I have not rejected you.
10 Don’t worry—I am with you.
   Don’t be afraid—I am your God.
   I will make you strong.
   I will help you.
   I will support you with my good right hand.

11 Look, some people are angry with you.
   But they will be shamed.
   Your enemies will be lost and disappear.
12 You will look for the people that were against you,
   but you will not be able to find them.
   The people that fought against you will disappear completely.
13 I am the Lord your God.
   I am holding your right hand.
   And I tell you:
   Don’t be afraid!
   I will help you.
14 Precious Judah, don’t be afraid!
   My dear* people of Israel, don’t be scared!
   I really will help you.”

   The Lord himself said those things.

   The Holy One (God) of Israel,
   the One who saves you,
   said these things:
15 “Look, I have made you like a new threshing board.
   That tool has many sharp teeth.
   Farmers use it to crush the hulls so they will separate from the grain.
   You will trample (walk on) mountains and crush them.
   You will make the hills like those hulls.
16 You will throw them into the air, and the wind will blow them away and scatter them.
   Then you will be happy in the Lord.
   You will be very proud of the Holy One (God) of Israel.”
17 “The poor and needy people look for water, but they can’t find any.
   They are thirsty.
   Their tongues are very dry.
   I will answer their prayers.
   I will not leave them and let them die.
18 I will make rivers flow on dry hills.
   I will make springs of water flow through the valleys.

*anvil A heavy metal block. A worker puts hot metal on an anvil and beats the hot metal to change its shape.

Precious Judah ... dear Literally, “worm ... men.” These are like Aramaic words meaning “scarlet ... silk,” very expensive pieces of cloth.”
I will change the desert into a lake filled with water. There will be springs of water in that dry land.

19 Trees will grow in the desert. There will be cedar trees, acacia trees, olive trees, cypress trees, fir trees, and pine trees.

20 People will see these things, and they will know that the Lord’s power did this. The people will see these things, and they will begin to understand that the Holy One (God) of Israel did these things.’

The Lord Challenges the False Gods

21 The Lord, the king of Jacob, says, “Come, tell me your arguments. Show me your proof, and we will decide the things that are right. Your statues (false gods) should come and tell us what is happening. “What happened in the beginning? What will happen in the future? Tell us! We will listen closely. Then we will know what will happen next. Tell us the things we should look for to know what will happen. Then we will believe that you really are gods. Do something! Do anything, good or bad! Then we will see that you are alive. And we will follow you.

24 “Look, you false gods are less than nothing! You can’t do anything! Only a worthless person would want to worship you!”

The Lord Proves He Is the Only God

25 “I woke a person in the north.* He is coming from the east where the sun rises. He worships my name. A man that makes pots walks on wet clay. In the same way, this special man will trample (walk on) kings.”

26 Who told us about this before it happened? We should call him God.*

The Lord Is Ruler and Maker of the World

5 The Lord, the true God, said these things. (The Lord made the skies. The Lord spread the skies over the earth. He also made everything on the earth. The Lord breathes person in the north This probably means Cyrus, a king of Persia. He ruled about 550–530 B.C.

God Literally, “the Good One.” Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
reed A plant that grows near water.
ISAIAH 42:6–21

life into all people on earth. The Lord gives a spirit to every person that walks on the earth.)

6 “I, the Lord, called you to do right. I will hold your hand. And I will protect you. You will be the sign that shows I have an Agreement with the people. You will be a light to shine for all people.

7 You will open the eyes of the blind people, and they will be able to see. Many people are in prison; you will free those people. Many people live in darkness; you will lead them out of that prison.

8 “I am the Lord. My name is YAHWEH. I will not give my glory to another. I will not let statues (false gods) take the praise that should be mine.

9 In the beginning, I said some things would happen, and those things happened! And now, before it happens, I am telling you about some things that will happen in the future.”

A Song of Praise to God

10 Sing a new song to the Lord, all you people in faraway countries, all you people that sail on the seas, all you animals in the oceans, all you people in faraway places, praise the Lord!

11 Deserts and cities, villages of Kedar*, praise the Lord! People living in Sela, sing for joy! Sing from the top of your mountain.

12 Give glory to the Lord. Praise him all you people in faraway lands!

13 The Lord will go out like a strong soldier. He will be like a man ready to fight a war. He will become very excited. He will cry out and shout loudly, and he will defeat his enemies.

God Is Very Patient

14 “For a long time I have said nothing. I controlled myself and didn’t say anything. But now I will cry out like a woman giving birth to a child. I will breath very hard and loud. I will destroy the hills and mountains. I will dry up all the plants that grow there. I will change rivers to dry land. I will dry up pools of water.

15 Then I will lead the blind people in a way they never knew. I will lead the blind people to places they have never been before. I will change darkness into light for them. And I will make the rough ground smooth. I will do the things I promised! And I will not leave my people.

16 But some of the people stopped following me. Those people have statues that are covered with gold. They tell those statues, ‘You are my gods.’ Those people trust their false gods. But those people will be disappointed!

Israel Refused to Listen to God

18 “You deaf people should hear me! You blind people should look and see me! In all the world, my servant* is the most blind! The messenger I send to the world, is the most deaf. The one I made the Agreement with —the servant of the Lord—is the most blind.

19 My servant sees what he should do, but he does not obey me. He can hear with his ears, but he refuses to listen to me.”

20 The Lord wants his servant to be good. The Lord wants him to honor his wonderful teachings.*

Kedar A country east of Israel.

my servant Here this probably means the people of Israel.

Verse 21 Or, “The Lord will make his teachings very wonderful. He will do this because he is good.”
22 But look at the people.
   Other people have defeated them
   and have stolen things from them.
   All the young men are afraid.
   They are locked in the prisons.
   People have taken their money from them.
   And there is no person to save them.
   Other people took their money.
   And there was no person to say,
   “Give it back!”

23 Did any of you people listen to God's words? No! But you should listen very closely to his words and think about what happened.
24 Who let people take the wealth from Jacob and Israel? The Lord allowed them to do this!
   We sinned against the Lord. So the Lord allowed people to take away our wealth. The people of Israel did not want to live the way the Lord wanted. The people of Israel did not listen to his teaching. 25 So the Lord became angry at them. The Lord caused powerful wars against them. It was like the people of Israel had fire all around them. But they did not know what was happening. It was like they were burning. But they did not try to understand the things that were happening.

God Is Always with His People
43 Jacob, the Lord made you! Israel, the Lord made you! And now the Lord says, “Don’t be afraid! I saved you. I named you. You are mine. When you have troubles, I am with you. When you cross rivers, you will not be hurt. When you walk through fire, you will not be burned; the flames will not hurt you. Why? Because I, the Lord, am your God. I, the Holy One of Israel, am your Savior. I gave Egypt to pay for you. I gave Ethiopia and Seba to make you mine. You are very important to me, so I will honor you.
I love you, and I will give all people and nations so you can live.”

God Will Bring His Children Home
5 “So don’t be afraid! I am with you. I will gather your children and bring them to you. I will gather them from the east and from the west. I will tell the north: Give my people to me! I will tell the south: Don’t keep my people in prison! Bring my sons and daughters to me from the faraway places!
Bring to me all the people that are mine—the people that have my name. I made those people for myself. I made those people, and they are mine.”

Israel Is God’s Witness to the World 8 God says, “Bring out the people that have eyes but are blind. Bring out the people that have ears but are deaf. All people and all nations should also be gathered together.
Maybe one of their false gods wants to tell about what happened in the beginning. They should bring their witnesses. The witnesses should speak the truth. This will show they are right.”

10 The Lord says, “You people are my witnesses. You are the servant that I chose. I chose you so you would help people to believe me. I chose you so you would understand that ‘I Am He’—I am the true God. There was no God before me, and there will be no God after me. I myself am the Lord. And there is no other Savior—I am the only One. I am the One who spoke to you. I saved you. I told you those things. It was not some stranger that was with you. You are my witnesses, and I am God.” (The Lord himself said these things.) 13 “I have always been God.
When I do something, no person can change what I have done. And no person can save people from my power.”

14 The Lord, the Holy One of Israel, saves you. And the Lord says, “I will send armies to Babylon for you. Many people will be captured. Those people, the Chaldeans, will be taken away in their own boats. (The Chaldeans are very proud of those boats.)
I am the Lord your Holy One. I made Israel. I am your king.”

God Will Save His People Again
16 The Lord will make roads through the sea. Even through rough waters he will make a path for his people. And the Lord says, 17 “The people that fight against me with their blind ... deaf This probably means the people of Israel that chariots, horses, and armies will be defeated. They will never rise again. They will be destroyed. They will be stopped like the flame of a candle is stopped. So don’t remember the things that happened in the beginning. Don’t think about the things that happened a long time ago. Why? Because I will do new things! Now you will grow like a new plant. Surely you know this is true. I really will make a road in the desert. I really will make rivers in the dry land. Even the wild animals will be thankful to me. The large animals and birds will honor me. They will honor me when I put water in the desert. They will honor me when I make rivers in the dry land. I will do this to give water to my people—the people I chose. These are the people I made. And these people will sing songs to praise me.
ISAIAH 43:18–44:11

21These are the people I made. And these people will sing songs to praise me.

22“Jacob, you did not pray to me. Why? Because you, Israel, have become tired of me. You have not honored me. You have not brought your sheep as sacrifices to me. You have not honored me. You have not given sacrifices to me. I did not force you to give sacrifices to me. I did not force you to burn incense until you became tired. So you did not use your money to buy things to honor me. But you did force me to be like your slave. You sinned until the bad things you did made me very tired.

25“I, I am the One who wipes away all your sins. I do this to please myself. I will not remember your sins. But you should remember me. We should meet together and decide what is right. You should tell the things you have done, and show you are right. 27Your first father sinned. And your lawyers have done things against me. 28I will make your holy rulers not holy. I will cause Jacob to be completely mine. Bad things will happen to Israel.”

The Lord Is the Only God

44“Jacob, you are my servant. Listen to me! Israel, I chose you. Hear the things I say! I am the Lord, and I made you. I am the One who made you to be what you are. I have helped you since the time you were in your mother’s body. Jacob, my servant, don’t be afraid. Jeshurun, I chose you.

3“I will pour water for thirsty people. I will make streams flow on dry land. I will pour my Spirit on your children—it will be like a stream of water flowing over your family. They will grow among the people in the world. They will be like trees growing beside streams of water.

5“One person will say, ‘I belong to the Lord.’ Another person will use the name ‘Jacob.’ Another person will sign his name ‘I am the Lord’s.’ And another person will use the name ‘Israel.’”

6The Lord is the king of Israel. The Lord All-Powerful saves Israel. The Lord says, “I am the only God. There are no other gods. I am the Beginning and the End. There is no other God like me. If there is, then that god should speak now. That god should come and show proof that he is like me. That god should tell me what has happened since the time I made these ancient people. That god should give signs to show that he knows what will happen in the future. Don’t be afraid! Don’t worry! I have always told you what will happen. You are my witnesses. There is no other God—I am the only One. There is no other ‘Rock’—I know I am the only One.”

False Gods Are Useless

9Some people make statues (false gods)—but they are worthless. People love those statues—but the statues are useless. Those people are the witnesses of the statues—but they can’t see. They know nothing—they don’t know enough to be ashamed of the things they do.

10Who made these false gods? Who made these useless statues? Workers made those Jeshurun Another name for Israel. It means “good” or “honest.”

Rock A name for God. It shows he is a strong place of safety.

chariots Small wagons used for war.
candle Literally, “lamp.” These were small clay bowls filled with oil. A string or strip of cloth was placed in the bowl and lit to produce light.
sacrifices Gifts to God. Sometimes these were special kinds of animals that were killed and burned on an altar.
incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.

cause Jacob to be completely mine This means that only God can have this special thing. He gets it, or it must die so no one else will.
gods! And all those workers are people—not gods. If all of those people would come together and discuss these things, then they would all be ashamed and afraid.

12 One worker uses his tools to heat iron over hot coals. This man uses his hammer to beat the metal, and the metal becomes a statue. This man uses his own powerful arms. But when the man becomes hungry, he loses his power. If the man does not drink water, he becomes weak.

13 Another worker uses his stringline* and compass* to draw lines on the wood. This shows where he should cut. Then the man uses his chisels* and cuts a statue from the wood. He uses his calipers* to measure the statue. This way, the worker makes the wood look exactly like a man. And this statue of a man does nothing but sit in its house.

14 A man cuts down cedar, cypress, or maybe oak trees. (That man did not make the trees grow—those trees grew by their own power in the forest. If a man plants a pine tree, the rain makes the tree grow.) 15 Then that man uses the tree to burn in his fire. The man cuts the tree into small pieces of wood. And he uses the wood to cook and keep him warm. The man starts a fire with some of the wood and bakes his bread. But the man still uses part of that wood to make a god—and the man worships that god! That god is a statue that the man made—but the man bows down before the statue! 16 The man burns half of the wood in the fire. The man uses the fire to cook his meat and eats the meat until he is full. The man burns the wood to keep himself warm. The man says, “Good! Now I am warm, and I can see because there is light from the fire.” 17 But a little wood is left, so the man makes a statue from that wood and calls it his god. He bows down before this god and worships it. The man prays to the god and says, “You are my god, save me!”

The Lord, the True God, Helps Israel

21 “Jacob, remember these things! Israel, remember, you are my servant. I made you. You are my servant. So Israel, don’t forget me.

22 Your sins were like a big cloud. But I wiped away those sins. Your sins are gone, like a cloud that disappeared into thin air. I rescued and protected you, so come back to me!”

23 The skies are happy because the Lord did great things. The earth is happy, even deep down under the earth! The mountains sing with thanks to God. All the trees in the forest are happy! Why? Because the Lord saved Jacob. The Lord did great things for Israel.

24 The Lord made you what you are. The Lord did this while you were still in your mother’s body. The Lord says, “I, the Lord, made everything! I put the skies there myself! I spread the earth before me.”

stringline In ancient times, this was a piece of string with wet paint on it. This was used to make straight lines on wood or stone.
compass A tool used to draw circles and copy measurements.
chisels Sharp tools used to carve wood or stone.
calipers A special measuring tool, like a compass.
25False prophets* tell lies, but the Lord shows their lies are false. The Lord makes foolish people of the men that do magic. The Lord confuses even wise men. They think they know much, but the Lord makes them look foolish. 26The Lord sends his servants to tell messages to the people. And the Lord makes those messages true. The Lord sends messengers to tell the people the things they should do. And the Lord shows their advice is good.

God Chooses Cyrus to Rebuild Judah

The Lord says to Jerusalem, “People will live in you again!” The Lord says to the cities of Judah, “You will be built again!” The Lord says to the cities that were destroyed, “I will make you cities again!” 27 The Lord tells the deep waters, “Become dry! I will make your streams dry too!” 28 The Lord says to Cyrus,* “You are my shepherd. You will do the things I want. You will say to Jerusalem, ‘You will be built again!’ You will tell the temple,* ‘Your foundations will be built again!’”

God Chooses Cyrus to Make Israel Free

45 These are the things the Lord says about Cyrus,* his chosen king:* “I will hold Cyrus’s right hand. I will help him take power away from kings. City gates will not stop Cyrus. I will open the city gates, and Cyrus will go in.” 2 “Cyrus, your armies will march, and I will go in front of you.

I will make the mountains flat.
I will break the city gates of bronze.
I will cut the iron bars on the gates.
3 I will give you the wealth that is saved in darkness.
I will give you those hidden riches.
I will do this so that you will know that I am the Lord.
I am the God of Israel, and I am calling you by name!
4 I do these things for my servant, Jacob. I do these things for my chosen people, Israel.
5 I am the Lord!
I am the only God. There is no other God. I put your clothes on you,* but still you don’t know me.
6 I do these things so all people will know that I am the only God. From the east to the west people will know that I am the Lord, and there is no other God.
7 I made the light, and I made darkness. I make peace, and I make troubles. I am the Lord—and I do all these things.
8 “May the clouds in the skies above drop goodness on the earth like rain! May the earth open and let salvation grow! And may goodness grow with it! I, the Lord, made him.*

God Controls His Creation

9“Look at these people! They are arguing with the One who made them. Look at them argue with me! They are like pieces of clay from a broken pot. A man uses soft, wet clay to make a pot. And the clay does not ask,
‘Man, what are you doing?’ Things that are made don’t have the power to question the one who makes them. People are like this clay. A father gives life to his children. And the children can’t ask, ‘Why are you giving me life?’ The children can’t question their mother and ask, ‘Why are you giving birth to me?’

10 The Lord God is the Holy One of Israel. He made Israel. And the Lord says, “My sons, you asked me to show you a sign. You told me to show you the things I have done."

11 So, look! I made the earth. And I made all the people living on it. I used my own hands and made the skies. And I command all the armies in the sky.

12 I gave Cyrus his power so he would do good things. And I will make his work easy. Cyrus will build my city again. And he will make my people free. Cyrus will not sell my people to me. I will not have to pay him to do these things. The people will be freed, and the cost to me will be nothing.”

13 The Lord, All-Powerful, said these things.

14 The Lord says, “Egypt and Ethiopia are rich, but Israel, you will get those riches. The tall people from Seba will be yours. They will walk behind you with chains around their necks. They will bow down before you. And they will pray to you.”

15 God, you are the God people can’t see. You are the Savior of Israel.

16 Many people make false gods. But those people will be disappointed. All of those people will go away ashamed. But Israel will be saved by the Lord. That salvation will continue forever. Never, never again will Israel be shamed.

17 The Lord is God.

18 He made the skies and the earth. The Lord put the earth in its place. The Lord did not want the earth to be empty when he made it. He created it to be lived on!

19 “I am the Lord. There is no other God.

20 I did not speak in secret. I have spoken freely. I did not hide my words in a dark place of the world. I did not tell the people of Jacob to look for me in empty places. I am the Lord, and I speak the truth. I say things that are true.”

The Lord Proves He Is the Only God

21 “You people have escaped from other nations. So gather together and come before me. (These people carry statues of false gods. These people pray to those useless gods. But the people don’t know what they are doing. Tell these people to come to me. Let them present their case and discuss these things.)

22 “Who told you about the things that happened a long time ago? Who has continued to tell you these things since long, long ago? I, the Lord, am the One who said these things. I am the only God. Is there another God like me? Is there another good God? Is there another God who saves his people? No! There is no other God! All you people in faraway places should stop following those false gods. You should follow me and be saved. I am God. There is no other God. I am the only God.

23 “I make this promise by my own power. And when I make a promise, that promise is true. The thing I promise will happen! And I promise that every person will bow before me. And every person will promise to follow me. People will say, ‘Goodness and power come only from the Lord.’"

My sons … I have done Or possibly, “Those who are coming asked me for my children. They commanded me to give them those people that I made with my own hands.”

armies in the sky Sometimes this means the angels, and sometimes it means the stars.

I gave … things This might also mean “I did what was right when I woke him.”
Some people are angry at the Lord. But the Lord’s witnesses will come and tell about the things the Lord has done. So those angry people will be ashamed. The Lord will help the people of Israel do good, and the people will be very proud of their God.

False Gods Are Useless

Bel* and Nebo,* will bow down before me. Those false gods are only statues. Men put those statues on the backs of animals—those statues are only heavy burdens that must be carried. The false gods do nothing but make people tired. Those false gods will all bow down—they will all fall. Those false gods can’t escape—they will all be carried away like prisoners.

Family of Jacob, listen to me! All you people from Israel that are still alive, listen! I have been carrying you. I have carried you since the time you were in your mother’s body. I carried you when you were born, and I will carry you when you become old. Your hair will become gray, and I will still carry you, because I made you. I will continue to carry you and I will save you.

Can you compare me to anyone? No! No person is equal to me. You can’t understand everything about me. There is nothing like me. Some people are rich with gold and silver. Gold falls from their purses, and they weigh their silver on scales. Those people pay an artist to make a false god from wood. Then those people bow down and worship that false god. Those people put their false god on their shoulders and carry it. That false god is useless—people have to carry it! People set the statue on the ground; and that false god can’t move. That false god never walks away from its place. People can yell at it, but it will not answer. That false god is only a statue—it can’t save people from their troubles.

You people have sinned. You should think about these things again. Remember these things and be strong. Remember the things that happened long ago. Remember that I am God. There is no other God. Those false gods are not like me.

In the beginning, I told you about the things that will happen in the end. A long time ago, I told you things that had not yet happened. When I plan something—that thing happens. I do the things I want to do. And I am calling a man from the east. That man will be like an eagle. He will come from a faraway country, and he will do the things I decide to do. I am telling you that I will do this, and I will do it. I made him, and I will bring him!

Some of you think that you have great power—but you don’t do good things. Listen to me! I will do good things! Soon, I will save my people. I will bring salvation to Zion and to my wonderful Israel.”

God’s Message to Babylon

Fall down in the dirt and sit there! Virgin daughter of the Chaldeans,* sit on the ground! You are not the ruler now! People will not think that you are a tender, delicate young lady anymore. Now you must work very hard. You must get the mill stones and grind the grain to make flour. Remove your veil and take off your fancy dresses. You must leave your country. Lift your skirts until men can see your legs, and cross the rivers.*

Men will see your private parts and use you for sex. I will make you pay for the bad things you did. And no man will come to help you.

“My people say, ‘God saves us. His name is: The Lord All-Powerful, The Holy One of Israel.’”

Bel A false god of Babylon.
Nebo A false god of Babylon.
day of the Chaldeans This is another name for the city Babylon.
rivers The Tigris and Euphrates Rivers. Babylon was between these two rivers.
ISAIAH 47:5–48:2

5 “So Babylon, sit there and be quiet. Daughter of the Chaldeans,* go into the darkness. Why? Because you will no longer be ‘The Queen of the Kingdoms.’

6 “I was angry at my people. Those people belong to me, but I was angry, so I made them not important. I gave them to you, and you punished them. But you showed no mercy to them. You made even the old people work hard.

7 You said, ‘I will live forever. I will always be The Queen.’ You didn’t even notice the bad things you did to those people. You didn’t think about what would happen.

8 So now, ‘nice lady’ listen to me! You feel safe and you tell yourself, ‘I am the only important person. No one else is important like me. I will never be a widow. I will always have children.’

9 These two things will happen to you: First, you will lose your children. And then you will lose your husband. Yes, these things will really happen to you. And all of your magic and all of your powerful tricks will not save you.

10 You do bad things, but still you feel safe. You think to yourself, ‘No one sees the wrong things I do.’ You think that your wisdom and knowledge will save you. You think to yourself, ‘I am the only one. No one is important like me.’

11 “But troubles will come to you. You don’t know when it will happen, but disaster is coming.

12 You will not be able to do anything to stop those troubles. You will be destroyed so quickly that you won’t know what happened!

13 You worked hard all your life learning tricks and magic. So, start using your tricks and magic! Maybe those tricks will help you. Maybe you will be able to scare someone.

14 “But those men will not even be able to save themselves. They will burn like straw. They will burn so fast that there will be no coals left to cook bread with. There will be no fire left to sit by.

15 That will happen to everything that you worked so hard for. The people you did business with all your life will leave you. Every person will go his own way. And there will be no one left to save you.”

God Rules His World

48 The Lord says, “Family of Jacob, listen to me! You people call yourself ‘Israel.’ You are from Judah’s family. You use the Lord’s name to make promises. You praise the God of Israel. But you are not honest and sincere when you do these things.”

2 Yes, they are citizens of the Holy City*. They depend on the God of Israel. The Lord All-Powerful is his Name.

daughter of the Chaldeans  This is another name for the city Babylon.
Holy City  That is, Jerusalem.
ISAIAH 48:3–17

3 “Long ago I told you about the things that would happen. I told you about those things. And then suddenly, I made them happen.

4 I did that because I knew you were stubborn. You refused to believe anything I said. You were very stubborn—like iron that does not bend—and as hard as bronze.

5 So, a long time ago I told you what would happen. I told you about those things a long time before they happened. I did this so that you could not say, ‘The gods we made did.’ I did this so that you could not say, ‘Our idols, our statues, made these things happen.’

God Punishes Israel to Make Them Pure

6 “You saw and heard what happened. So you should tell the news to other people. Now I will tell you about new things—things that you don’t know yet.

7 These are not things that happened long ago. These are things that are happening now. You haven’t heard about these things before today. So you can’t say, ‘We already knew that.’

8 “But even then, you didn’t listen to me! You didn’t learn anything! You refused to listen to anything I told you. I have known since the beginning that you would be against me. You have rebelled against me from the time you were born.

9 But, I will be patient. I will do this for myself. People will praise me for not getting angry and destroying you. You will praise me for waiting.

10 “Look, I will make you pure. People use a hot fire to make silver pure. But I will make you pure by giving you troubles.

11 I will do this for myself—for me! You will not treat me like I am not important! I will not let some false god take my glory and praise!

12 “Jacob, listen to me! Israel, I called you to be my people. So listen to me! I am the Beginning! And I am the End!

13 I made the earth with my own hands. My right hand made the sky. And if I call them, they will come together before me.

14 “All of you, come here and listen to me! Did any of the false gods say these things would happen? No!”

The person that the Lord chose will do whatever he wants to Babylon and the Chaldeans.

15 The Lord says, “I told you I would call him.* And I will bring him! I will make him succeed!

16 Come here and listen to me! I was there when Babylon began as a nation. And from the beginning, I spoke clearly, so that people could know what I said.”

17 [Then Isaiah said,] “Now, the Lord my Master sends me and his Spirit to tell you these things. The Lord, the Savior, the Holy One of Israel, says, “I am the Lord your God. I teach you to do things that are helpful. I lead you in the way you should go.

chose Or, “loves.”

him This is probably talking about Cyrus. Cyrus was a king of Persia that lived about 150 years after Isaiah died.
ISAIAH 48:18–49:8

18 If you had obeyed me,
then peace would have come to you like a full flowing river.
Good things would have come to you again and again,
like the waves of the sea.
19 If you had obeyed me,
then you would have had many children.
They would have been like the many grains of sand.
If you had obeyed me,
then you would not have been destroyed.
You would have continued with me.”

20 My people, leave Babylon!
My people, run from the Chaldeans!
Tell this news with joy to the people!
Spread this news to the faraway places
on earth!
Tell the people,
“The Lord rescued his servant Jacob!
21 The Lord led his people through the desert,
and they never became thirsty!
Why? Because he made water flow from a rock for his people!
He split the rock,
and water flowed out!”

22 But the Lord also said,
“There is no peace for evil people!”

God Calls His Special Servant

49 All you people in faraway places,
listen to me!
Listen all of you people living on earth!
The Lord called me to serve him before I was born.
The Lord called my name
while I was still in my mother’s body.

2 The Lord uses me to speak for him.
He uses me like a sharp sword,
But he also protects me,
hiding me in his hand.
The Lord uses me like a sharp arrow,
but he also hides me in his arrow bag.

3 The Lord told me,
“If Israel, you are my servant.
I will do wonderful things with you.”

4 I said,
“I worked hard for nothing.
I wore myself out,
but I did nothing useful.
I used all my power,
but I did not really do anything.
So, the Lord must decide what to do with me.
God must decide my reward.

5 The Lord made me in my mother’s body
so I could be his servant,
and lead Jacob and Israel back to him.
The Lord will honor me.
I will get my strength from my God.”

The Lord told me,
6 “You are a very important servant to me.
The people of Israel are prisoners,
but they will be brought back to me.
Jacob’s family groups will come back to me.
But, you have another job;
it is even more important than this!
I will make you a light for all nations.
You will be my way to save
all the people on earth.”

7 The Lord, the Holy One of Israel, the Protector of Israel says,
“My Servant is humble.
He serves rulers.
But people hate him.
But, kings will see him
and stand to honor him.
Great leaders will bow down to him.”

This will happen because the Lord,
the Holy One of Israel, wants it.
And the Lord can be trusted.
He is the One who chose you.

The Day of Salvation

8 The Lord says,
“There will be a special time
when I show my kindness.
At that time I will answer your prayers.
There will be a special day
when I save you.
At that time I will help you.
I will protect you.
And you will be the proof that I have an Agreement with the people.
ISAIAH 49:9–23

The country is destroyed now, but you will give that land back to the people who own it.

9 You will tell the prisoners, ‘Come out of your prison!’ You will tell the people that are in darkness, ‘Come out of the dark!’ The people will eat while traveling. They will have food even on empty hills.

10 The people will not be hungry. They will not be thirsty. The hot sun and wind will not hurt them. Why? Because God comforts them and God will lead them. He will lead them near springs of water.

11 “I will make a road for my people. The mountains will be made flat, and the low roads will be raised.

12 “Look! People are coming to me from faraway places. People are coming to me from the north and from the west. People are coming to me from Aswan in Egypt.”

13 Heavens and Earth, be happy! Mountains, shout with joy! Why? Because the Lord comforts his people. The Lord is good to his poor people.

Zion, The Abandoned Woman

14 But now Zion* says, “The Lord left me. My Master forgot me.”

15 But I say, “Can a woman forget her baby? No! Can a woman forget the child that came from her body? No! A woman can’t forget her children. And I (the Lord) can’t forget you.

16 Look, I have carved your name into my hand. I think about you all the time!*

17 Your children will come back to you. People defeated you, but those people will leave you alone.”

Israel’s People Return

18 Look up! Look all around you! All of your children are gathering together and coming to you.

The Lord says, “On my life, I promise you this: Your children will be like jewels that you tie around your neck. Your children will be like the necklace that a bride wears.

19 You are destroyed and defeated now. Your land is useless. But after a short time, you will have many people in your land. And the people that destroyed you will be far, far away.

20 You were sad for the children you lost, but those children will tell you, ‘This place is too small! Give us a bigger place to live!’

21 Then you will say to yourself, ‘Who gave me all these children? This is very good! I was sad and lonely. I was defeated and away from my people. So who gave me these children? Look, I was left alone. Where did all these children come from?’”

22 The Lord my Master says, “Look, I will wave my hand to the nations. I will raise my flag for all people to see. Then they will bring your children to you. Those people will carry your children on their shoulders, and they will hold them in their arms.

23 Kings will be teachers to your children. Kings’ daughters will care for them. Those kings and their daughters will bow down to you. They will kiss the dirt at your feet. Then you will know that I am the Lord.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

I ... time Or, “I see your figure before me always.” This is a word play. The Hebrew word “figure” also means “walls.”
Then you will know
that any person who trusts in me will not be disappointed.”

24 When a strong soldier wins wealth in war, you can’t take that wealth from him.
When a powerful soldier guards
a prisoner,
that prisoner can’t escape.

25 But the Lord says,
“The prisoners will escape.
Someone will take those prisoners away from the strong soldier.
How will this happen?
I will fight your fights.
I will save your children.

26 “Those people hurt you.
But I will force those people to eat their own bodies.
Their own blood will be the wine that makes them drunk.
Then every person will know that
the Lord saved you.
All people will know that the Powerful One of Jacob saved you.”

Israel Punished Because of Their Sin

50 The Lord says,
“People of Israel, you say that I divorced your mother, Jerusalem,
But where is the legal paper that proves I divorced her?
My children, did I owe money to someone?
Did I sell you to pay a debt?
No! You were sold
because of the bad things you did.
Your mother (Jerusalem) was sent away
because of the bad things you did.
I came home and found no one there.
I called and called,
but no one answered.
Do you think I am not able to save you?
I have the power to save you from all of your troubles.
Look, if I command the sea to dry up,
then it will become dry!
The fish will die without water,
and their bodies will rot.

3 I can make the skies dark.
I can cover the skies in darkness as black as the clothes of sadness.”

God’s Servant Truly Depends on God

4 The Lord my Master gave me the ability to teach. So now I teach these sad people.
Every morning he wakes me and teaches me like a student. 5 The Lord my Master helps me learn, and I have not turned against him. I will not stop following him. 6 I will let those people beat me. I will let them pull the hair from my beard. I will not hide my face when they say bad things to me and spit at me. 7 The Lord my Master will help me. So the bad things they say will not hurt me. I will be strong. I know I will not be disappointed.

8 The Lord is with me. He shows I am innocent. So no person will be able to show I am guilty. If someone wants to try to prove I am wrong, that person should come to me, and we will have a trial. 9 But look, the Lord my Master helps me. So no person can show me to be evil. All those people will become like worthless old clothes. Moths will eat them.

10 The people that respect the Lord also listen to his servant. That servant lives completely trusting in God without knowing what will happen. He truly trusts in the Lord’s name, and that servant depends on his God.

11 “Look, you people want to live your own ways. You light your own fires and torches (lights). So, live your own way. But, you will be punished! You will fall into your fires and torches and you will be burned. I will make that happen.”

Israel Should Be Like Abraham

51 “Some of you people try hard to live good lives. You go to the Lord for help.
Listen to me. You should look at Abraham your father. He is the rock you were cut from.
Abraham is your father, and you should look at him. You should look at Sarah—the woman that gave birth to you. Abraham was alone when I called him. Then I blessed him, and he began a great family. Many, many people came from him.”
In the same way, the Lord will bless Zion.* The Lord will feel sorry for her and her people, and he will do a great thing for her. The Lord will change the desert. The desert will become a garden like the garden of Eden. That land was empty, but it will become like the Lord’s Garden. People there will be very, very happy. People there will show their joy. They will sing songs about thanks and victory.

“My people, listen to me! My decisions will be like lights showing people how to live.

I will soon show I am fair. I will soon save you. I will use my power and judge all nations. All the faraway places are waiting for me. They wait for my power to help them.

Look up to the heavens! Look around you at the earth below! The skies will disappear like clouds of smoke. The earth will become like worthless old clothes. The people on earth will die, but my Salvation will continue forever. My goodness will never end.

You people that understand goodness should listen to me. You people that follow my teachings should hear the things I say. Don’t be afraid of evil people. Don’t be afraid of the bad things that they say to you.

Why? Because they will be like old clothes. Moths will eat them. They will be like wool. Worms will eat them. But my goodness will continue forever. My salvation will continue forever and ever.”

Arm (power) of the Lord, wake up! Wake up! Be strong! Use your strength like you did a long time ago, like you have from ancient times. You are the power that defeated Rahab. You defeated the Dragon.* You caused the sea to become dry! You dried the waters of the great deep! You made the deepest parts of the sea into a road. Your people crossed over that road and were saved.

The Lord will save his people. They will return to Zion* with joy. They will be very, very happy. Their happiness will be like a crown on their heads forever. They will be singing with joy. All sadness will be gone far away.

“I am the One who comforts you. So why should you be afraid of people? They are only people that live and die. They are only humans—they die the same as grass.”

The Lord made you. With his power he made the earth! And with his power he spread the skies over the earth! But you forget him and his power. So you are always afraid of angry men that hurt you. Those men planned to destroy you. But where are they now? They are all gone! People in prison will soon be made free. Those people will not die and rot in prison. Those people will have enough food.

“I, the Lord, am your God. I stir up the sea and make the waves.” (The Lord All-Powerful is his name.)
ISAIAH 51:16–52:7

Israel Will Be Saved

52 Wake up! Wake up Zion!* Dress yourself!
Put on your strength!
Holy Jerusalem, stand up!
People that have not agreed
to follow God* will not enter you again.
Those people are not pure and clean.

Sick Person

53 Shake off the dust!
Put on your wonderful clothes!
Jerusalem, Daughter of Zion,* you were a prisoner.
But now, free yourself from the chains
that are around your neck!

Israel Will Be Saved

52 Wake up! Wake up Zion!* Dress yourself!
Put on your strength!
Holy Jerusalem, stand up!
People that have not agreed
to follow God* will not enter you again.
Those people are not pure and clean.

2 Shake off the dust!
Put on your wonderful clothes!
Jerusalem, Daughter of Zion,* you were a prisoner.
But now, free yourself from the chains
that are around your neck!

3 The Lord says,
“You were not sold for money.
So I will not use money to make you free.”

4 The Lord my Master says, “My people first went down to Egypt to stay—and then they became slaves.* Later, Assyria made them slaves. 5 Now look what has happened! Another nation has taken my people. That country did not pay to take my people. This nation rules my people and laughs at them. Those people always say bad things about me.”

5 The Lord says, “[This has happened] so my people will learn about me. My people will know who I am. My people will know my name, and they will know that I Am He* is speaking to them.”

6 The Lord says, “[This has happened] so my people will learn about me. My people will know who I am. My people will know my name, and they will know that I Am He* is speaking to them.”

7 It is a wonderful thing to see a messenger come over the hills with good news. It is wonderful to hear a messenger announce, “There is peace! We have been saved! Your God is king!”

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

have not agreed to follow God Literally, “People that are not circumcised and that are not pure.”

Daughter of Zion This means Jerusalem, the city built on Mount Zion.

I Am He This is like the Hebrew name for God. It shows God lives forever, and that he is always with his people. See Ex. 3:13–17.
ISAIAH 52:8–53:10

8 The city guards begin shouting.
   They are all rejoicing together!
   Why? Because every one of them sees the Lord returning to Zion.

9 Jerusalem, your destroyed buildings will be happy again.
   You will all rejoice together.
   Why? Because the Lord will be kind to Jerusalem.
   The Lord will rescue his people.

10 The Lord will show his holy strength to all the nations.
   All the faraway countries will see how God saves his people.

11 You people should leave Babylon!
   Leave that place!
   Priests, you carry the things that are used in worship.
   So make yourselves pure.
   Don’t touch anything that is not pure.

12 You will leave Babylon.
   But they will not force you to leave in a hurry.
   You will not be forced to run away.
   You will walk out,
   and the Lord will walk with you.
   The Lord will be in front of you, and the God of Israel will be behind you.

God’s Suffering Servant

13 “Look at my Servant. He will be very successful.* He will be very important. In the future, people will honor and respect him.

14 But many people were shocked when they saw my Servant. He was hurt so badly that they could hardly recognize him as a man.

15 But even more people will be amazed. Kings will look at him, amazed, and not say a word.

Those people did not hear the story about my Servant—they saw what happened. They did not hear that story, but they understood.”

53 Who really believed the things we announced? Who really accepted the Lord’s punishment?

He grew up like a small plant before the Lord. He was like a root growing in dry ground. He did not look special. He had no special glory. If we looked at him, we would see nothing special that would cause us to like him. People made fun of him, and his friends left him. He was a man that had much pain. He knew sickness very well. People did not even give him the honor of looking at him. We did not even notice him.

But he took our troubles and made them his. He bore our pain, and we thought God was punishing him. We thought God beat him for something he did. But he was given pain to suffer for the wrong things we did. He was crushed for our guilt. A debt we owed—our punishment—was given to him. We were healed (forgiven) because of his pain. Even after he did this, all of us wandered away like sheep. We all went our own way.

We did this after the Lord freed us from our guilt and put all our guilt on him.

He was hurt and punished. But he never protested. He said nothing—like a sheep being taken to be killed. He was like a lamb that makes no sound when someone cuts off its wool. He never opened his mouth to defend himself. Men used force and took him—and they did not judge him fairly. No person can tell about his future family, because he was taken from the land of living people. He was punished to pay for the sins of my people.

He died and was buried with the rich. He was buried with evil men. He did nothing wrong—he never spoke lies—but still these things happened to him.

The Lord decided to crush him. The Lord decided that he must suffer, so the Servant gave himself to be the one to die. But he will live a new life for a long, long time. He will see his people. He will complete the things the Lord wants him to do.

---

guards Men that stand on the city walls and watch for messengers or trouble coming to the city. Here this probably means the prophets.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

The Lord ... behind you This shows God will protect the people. Compare Ex. 14:19,20.

He will be very successful Or, “He is very wise.” Or “He will teach people—making them wise.”
11 He will suffer many things in his soul, but he will see the good things that happen. He will be satisfied with the things he learns. My Good Servant will make many people not guilty; he will carry away their guilt. 12 For this reason, I will reward him among my people. He will have a share of all things with the people that are strong. I will do this for him because he gave his life for the people and died.

People said he was a criminal. But the truth is that he carried away the sins of many, many people. And now he speaks for people that have sinned.”

God Brings His People Home

54 Woman, be happy!
You have not had any children.
But you should be very happy!

The Lord says,
“The woman that is alone will have more children than the woman with a husband.”

2 Make your tent bigger.
Open your doors wide.
Don’t stop adding to your home.
Make your tent large and strong.

3 Why? Because you will grow very much.
Your children will get people from many nations,
Your children will again live in the cities that were destroyed.

Don’t be afraid!
You will not be disappointed.
People will not say bad things against you.
You will not be embarrassed.
When you were young, you felt shame.
But you will forget that shame now.
You will not remember the shame that you felt when you lost your husband.

5 Why? Because your husband is the One (God) who made you.

The woman ... alone This Hebrew word is like the word, “destroyed.” This probably means “Jerusalem, the city that is destroyed.”

husband In Hebrew this word is like the name Baal. This shows that the Lord is the true God, not the false god Baal.

Protector Or, “Redeemer.” Usually this meant a person that cared for and protected the family of a dead relative. Often this person bought back (redeemed) the poor relatives from slavery, making them free again.
11 “You poor city!
Enemies came against you like storms.
And no one comforted you.
But I will build you again.
I will use a beautiful mortar to lay the stones of your walls.
I will use sapphire stones when I lay the foundation.

12 The stones on top of the wall will be made from rubies.
I will use shiny jewels for the gates.
I will use precious stones to build the walls around you.

13 Your children will follow God, and he will teach them.
Your children will have real peace.

14 You will be built on goodness.
So you will be safe from cruelty and fear.
You will have nothing to fear.
Nothing will come to hurt you.

15 None of my armies will fight against you.
And if any army tries to attack you, you will defeat that army.

16 “Look, I made the blacksmith.* He blows on fire to make it hotter. Then he takes the hot iron and makes the kind of tool he wants to make. In the same way, I made the ‘Destroyer’ that destroys things.

17 “People will make weapons to fight against you, but those weapons will not defeat you. Some people will say things against you. But every person that speaks against you will be shown to be wrong.”

The Lord says, “What do the Lord’s servants get? They get the good things that come from me!”

God Gives “Food” That Really Satisfies

55 “All you thirsty people,
Come drink water!
Don’t worry if you do not have money.
Come, eat and drink until you are full!
You do not need money;
eat and drink until you are full.
The food and wine cost nothing!

2 Why waste your money on something that is not real food?

Why should you work for something that does not really satisfy you?
Listen very closely to me, and you will eat the good food.
You will enjoy the food that satisfies your soul.

3 Listen closely to the things I say.
Listen to me so your souls will live.
Come to me and I will make an agreement with you that will continue forever.
It will be like the agreement that I made with David.
I promised David that I would love him and be loyal to him forever.
And you can trust that agreement.

4 I made David a witness of my power for all nations.
I promised David that he would become a ruler and a commander of many nations.”

5 There are nations in places you don’t know, but you will call for those nations. Those nations don’t know you, but they will run to you.
This will happen because the Lord, your God, wants it.
This will happen because the Holy One of Israel honors you.

6 So you should look for the Lord before it is too late.
You should call to him now, while he is near.

7 Evil people should stop living evil lives.
They should stop thinking bad thoughts.
They should come to the Lord again.
Then the Lord will comfort them.
Those people should come to the Lord because our God forgives.

People Cannot Understand God

8 The Lord says,
“Your thoughts are not like my thoughts.
Your ways are not like my ways.

9 The heavens are higher than the earth.
In the same way, my ways are higher than your ways.
And my thoughts are higher than your thoughts.”
The Lord himself said these things.

blacksmith A man that makes things from iron.
10 "Rain and snow fall from the sky.
   And they don’t go back to the sky until they touch the ground and make the ground wet.
   Then the ground makes plants sprout and grow.
   These plants make seeds for the farmer.
   And people use these seeds to make bread to eat.

11 In the same way, my words leave my mouth, and they don’t come back until they make things happen.
   My words make the things happen that I want to happen.
   My words succeed in doing the things I send them to do.

12 My words will go out with happiness,
   and they will bring peace.
   Mountains and hills will begin dancing with happiness.
   All the trees in the fields will clap their hands.

13 Large cypress trees will grow where there were bushes.
   Myrtle trees will grow
   where there were weeds.
   These things will make the Lord famous.
   These things will be proof that the Lord is powerful.
   This proof will never be destroyed.”

All Nations Will Follow the Lord

56 The Lord said these things, “Be fair to all people. Do things that are right!
   Why? Because soon my salvation will come to you. My goodness will soon be shown to the whole world.”

2 The person that obeys God’s law about the Sabbath* will be blessed. And the person that does no evil will be happy. 3 Some people that are not Jews will join themselves to the Lord.
   Those people should not say, “The Lord will not accept me with his people.” A eunuch* should not say, “I am a dry piece of wood—I can’t make any children.”

4–5 These eunuchs* should not say those things because the Lord says, “Some of those eunuchs obey the laws about the Sabbath.*
   And they choose to do the things I want. And they truly follow my Agreement.* So I will put a memorial stone in my temple for them.
   Their name will be remembered in my city!
   Yes, I will give those eunuchs something better than sons and daughters. I will give them a name that continues forever. They will not be cut off* from my people.”

6 Some people that are not Jews will join themselves to the Lord. They will do this so they can serve him and love the Lord’s name.
   They will join themselves to the Lord to become his servants. They will keep the Sabbath* as a special day of worship and they will continue to closely follow my Agreement (Law).

7 The Lord says, “I will bring those people to my holy mountain. I will make them happy in my house of prayer. The offerings and sacrifices they give me will please me. Why?
   Because my temple* will be called a house of prayer for all nations.” 8 The Lord my Master said these things.

   The people of Israel were forced to leave their country. But the Lord will gather them together again. The Lord says, “I will again gather these people together.”

God Invites All People to Serve Him

9 Wild animals in the forest, come and eat!
10 The guards (prophets) are all blind.
   They don’t know what they are doing.
   They are like dogs that won’t bark.
   They lie on the ground and sleep.
   Oh, they love to sleep.

Sabbath Saturday, a special day of rest and worship for Jews.
eunuch(s) Special servants. Sometimes their male sex organs were removed so they could not have children.

Agreement Usually, this means the agreement God made with Israel through Moses. Here it might mean the agreement of Isaiah 55:3.
cut off If a person was “cut off” from Israel, it meant that he died without children or that he was forced to leave his family and the people of Israel. This meant that another family would get his land and his family name would be removed from the list of the people of Israel.
temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.
ISAIAH 56:11–57:12

11 They are like hungry dogs. They are never satisfied. The shepherds don’t know what they are doing. They are like their sheep that have all wandered away. They are greedy. All they want to do is satisfy themselves.

12 They come and say, “I will drink some wine. I will drink some beer. I will do the same thing tomorrow. Only, I will drink even more.”

Israel Does Not Follow God

57 The good people are all gone, and no one even noticed. The good people have gathered together. But they don’t understand why. They don’t know that trouble is coming, and that they have been gathered together for protection.

2 But peace will come, and the people will rest in their own beds. They will live the way God wants them to.

3 “Come here you children of witches. Your father is guilty of sexual sins, and your mother sells her body for sex. Come here!

4 You are evil and lying children. You make fun of me. You make faces at me. You stick your tongues out at me.

5 All you want is to worship false gods under every green tree. You kill children by every stream, and sacrifice them in the rocky places.

6 You love to worship the smooth rocks in the rivers. You pour wine on them to worship them. You give sacrifices to them, but those rocks are all you get.

Do you think this makes me happy? [No! It does not make me happy.]

7 You make your bed on every hill and high mountain.* You go up to those places and offer sacrifices.*

8 Then you get in those beds and sin against me by loving those gods. You love those gods, You enjoy looking at their naked bodies. You were with me, but you left me to be with them. You hide the things that help you remember me. You hide those things behind the doors and doorposts.* And then you go and make agreements with those false gods.

9 You use your oils and perfumes to look nice for Molech.* You sent your messengers to faraway lands. And this will bring you down to Sheol, the place of death.

Israel Should Trust God, Not Statues

10 “You have worked hard to do these things, but you never became tired. You found new strength, because you enjoyed these things.

11 You did not remember me. You did not even notice me! So, who were you worrying about? Who were you afraid of? Why did you lie? Look, I have been quiet for a long time—and you did not honor me.

12 I could tell about your ‘good works’ and all the ‘religious’ things you do; but those things are useless!

---

sacrifices Gifts to God. Sometimes these were special kinds of animals that were killed and burned on an altar.

every hill and high mountain The people worship false gods in these places. The people thought these false gods would give them good crops and more children.
doorposts The people of Israel were supposed to put special things on their doorframes to help them remember God. See Deut. 6:9.
Molech A false god. This name is like the Hebrew word meaning “king.”
ISAIAH 57:13–58:5

I will give peace to the people near me and to the people that are far away. I will heal (forgive) those people!"

The Lord himself said these things.

But evil people are like the angry ocean. They can’t be quiet and peaceful. They are angry, and like the ocean, they stir up mud. My God says, "There is no peace for evil people."

People Must Be Told to Follow God

Shout as loud as you can! Don’t stop yourself! Shout loud like a trumpet! Tell the people about the wrong things they have done! Tell Jacob’s family about their sins! Then they will come every day to worship me. And they will want to learn my ways. They will become a nation that lives right. They will not quit following God’s good commands. They will ask me to judge them fairly. They will want to go to God [for his fair decisions].

3 Now those people say, “We stop eating food to show honor to you. Why don’t you see us? We hurt our bodies to show honor to you. Why don’t you notice us?”

But the Lord says, “You do things to please yourselves on those special days for not eating food. And you punish your servants—not your own bodies. 4 You are hungry; but not for food. You are hungry for arguing and fighting, not bread. You are hungry to hit people with your evil hands. When you stop eating food, it is not for me. You don’t want to use your voice to praise me. 5 Do you think on those special days for not eating food that all I want is to see people punish their bodies? Do you think I want people to look sad? Do you think I want people to bow their heads like dead plants and wear clothes of sadness? Do you think I want people to sit in ashes to show their sadness? That is what you do on your special days for not eating food. Do you think that is what the Lord wants?

When you need help, you cry to those false gods that you have gathered around you. Let them help you!

But I tell you, the wind will blow them all away. A puff of wind will blow them all away.

But the person that depends on me will get the land [I promised]. That person will have my holy mountain.*

The Lord Will Save His People

Clear the road! Clear the road! Make the way clear for my people!

God is high and lifted up. God lives forever. God’s name is holy. God says:

I live in a high and holy place, but also with people that are sad and humble.

I will give new life to the people that are humble in spirit.

I will give new life to the people that are sad in their hearts.

I will not continue fighting forever. I will not always be angry.

If I continued to be angry, then man’s spirit — the life I gave them — would die in front of me.

These people did evil things, and it made me angry.

So, I punished Israel. I turned away from him because I was angry. And Israel left me. He went wherever he wanted.

I saw where Israel went. So, I will heal (forgive) him. I will comfort him and say words to make him feel better.

Then he and his people will not feel sad.

I will teach them a new word: ’Peace.’

holy mountain This is the mountain the temple in Jerusalem is built on.”
ISAIAH 58:6–59:7

6“I will tell you the kind of special day I want—a day to make people free. I want a day that you take the burdens off people. I want a day when you make the troubled people free. I want a day when you take the burdens from their shoulders. 7I want you to share your food with the hungry people. I want you to find poor people that don’t have homes, and I want you to bring them into your own homes. When you see a man that has no clothes—give him your clothes! Don’t hide from helping those people; they are just like you.”

8If you do these things, your light will begin shining like the light of dawn. Then your wounds will heal. Your “Goodness” (God) will walk in front of you, and the Glory of the Lord will come following behind you. 9Then you will call to the Lord, and the Lord will answer you. You will shout to the Lord, and he will say, “Here I am.”

God’s People Must Do Right

You should stop making troubles and burdens for people. You should stop using bitter words and blaming people for things. 10You should feel sorry for hungry people and give them food. You should help the people that are troubled—satisfy their needs. Then your light will shine in the darkness. And you will have no sadness. You will be bright like sunshine at noon.

11The Lord will always lead you. He will satisfy your soul in dry lands. The Lord will give strength to your bones. You will be like a garden that has much water. You will be like a spring that always has water.

12Your cities have been destroyed for many, many years. But new cities will be built, and the foundations of these cities will continue for many, many years. You will be called “The One Who Fixes Fences.” And you will be called, “The One Who Builds Roads and Houses.”

13That will happen when you stop sinning against God’s law about the Sabbath. And that will happen when you stop doing things to please yourself on that special day. You should call the Sabbath a happy day. You should honor the Lord’s special day. You should honor that special day by not doing and saying those things you do every other day.

14Then you can ask the Lord to be kind to you. And he will carry you to the High Places above the earth. And he will give you all the things that belonged to Jacob your father.

The Lord himself said these things!

Evil People Should Change Their Lives

59Look, the Lord’s power is enough to save you. He can hear you when you ask him for help. But your sins separate you from your God. The Lord sees your sins, and he turns away from you.

3Your hands are dirty; they are covered with blood. Your fingers are covered with guilt. You tell lies with your mouth. Your tongue says evil things. 4No person tells the truth about other people. People sue each other in court, and they depend on false arguments to win their cases. They tell lies about each other. They are full of trouble, and they give birth to evil. 5They hatch evil, like eggs from poisonous snakes. If you eat one of those eggs you will die. And if you break one of those eggs, a poison snake will come out.

The lies people tell are like spider webs. These webs can’t be used for clothes. You can’t cover yourself with those webs.

Some people do evil things and use their hands to hurt other people. 7Those people use their feet to run to evil. They hurry to kill people that have done nothing wrong. They think evil thoughts. Rioting and stealing is their way of living.
Those people don’t know the way of peace. Those people don’t do what is right and fair. They are very crooked. And people who live like that will never have peace in their lives.

Israel’s Sin Brings Trouble

9 All fairness and goodness is gone. There is only darkness near us, so we must wait for the light. We hope for a bright light, but all we have is darkness.

10 We are like people without eyes. We walk into walls like blind people. We stumble and fall like it is night. Even in the daylight we can’t see. At noontime we fall like dead men.

11 We are all very sad, making sad sounds like doves and bears. We are waiting for a time when people are fair. But there is no fairness yet. We are waiting to be saved, but salvation is still far away.

12 Why? Because we have done many, many wrong things against our God. Our sins show we are wrong. We know we are guilty of doing these things.

13 We sinned and turned against the Lord. We turned away from him and left him. We planned evil things. We planned things that are against God. We have thought of these things and planned them in our hearts.

14 Justice has turned away from us. Fairness stands far away. Truth has fallen in the streets. Goodness is not allowed to enter the city.

15 Truth is gone. And people that try to do good are robbed.

The Lord looked, and he could not find any goodness. The Lord did not like this.

16 The Lord looked and was surprised that he could find no person to stand and speak for the people. So the Lord used his own power and his own goodness, and the Lord saved the people.

17 The Lord prepared for battle. The Lord put on the armor of goodness, the helmet of salvation, the clothes of punishment, the coat of strong love.*

18 The Lord is angry at his enemies. So the Lord will give them the punishment they deserve. The Lord is angry with his enemies. So the Lord will punish the people in all the faraway places. The Lord will give them the punishment they deserve.

19 Then people in the west will fear and respect the Lord’s name. People in the east will fear and respect His Glory.* The Lord will come quickly like a fast flowing river blown by a powerful wind from the Lord.

20 Then a Savior will come to Zion.* He will come to the people of Jacob that sinned but came back to God.

21 The Lord says, “I will make an Agreement with those people. I promise, my Spirit and my words that I put in your mouth will never leave you. They will be with your children and your children’s children. They will be with you for now and forever.”

God Is Coming!

60 “Jerusalem, my light, get up! Your Light (God) is coming! The Glory of the Lord* will shine on you.

2 Darkness now covers the earth and the people are in darkness. But the Lord will shine on you, and his Glory will appear on you.

*strong love This Hebrew word means strong feelings like love, hate, anger, zeal, or jealousy.

*His Glory The “Glory of the Lord,” one of the forms God used when he appeared to people. It was like a bright shining light. See Ex. 40:34–36.

*Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

*Glory of the Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. It was like a bright shining light. See Ex. 40:34–36.
ISAIAH 60:3–16

3 The nations will come to your Light (God).
Kings will come to your bright Light.
4 Look around you!
See, people are gathering around and coming to you.
They are your sons coming from far away.
And your daughters are coming with them.
5 [This will happen in the future.]
And at that time, you will see your people, and your faces will shine
with happiness.
[First,] you will be afraid,
but then, you will be excited!
All the riches from across the seas will be set before you.
The riches of the nations will come to you.
6 Herds of camels from Midian and Ephah will cross your land.
Long lines of camels will come from Sheba.
They will bring gold and incense.
People will sing praises to the Lord.
7 People will collect all the sheep from Kedar
and give them to you.
They will bring you rams from Nebaioth.
You will offer those animals on my altar.
And I will accept them.
I will make my wonderful temple*
even more beautiful.
8 Look at the people!
They are hurrying to you like clouds quickly crossing the sky.
They are like doves flying to their nests.
9 The faraway lands are waiting for me.
The great cargo ships are ready to sail.
Those ships are ready to bring your children from faraway lands.
They will bring silver and gold with them to honor the Lord your God,
the Holy One of Israel.
The Lord does wonderful things for you.
10 Children from other lands will build your walls again.
Their kings will serve you.

‘When I was angry, I hurt you.
But now, I want to be kind to you.
So I will comfort you.
11 Your gates will always be open.
They will not be closed night or day.
Nations and kings will bring their wealth to you.
12 Any nation or kingdom that does not serve you
will be destroyed.
13 All the great things of Lebanon* will be given to you.
People will bring pine trees, fir trees,
and cypress trees to you.
These trees will be used for lumber to make my holy place* more beautiful.
This place is like a stool
in front of my throne,
And I will give it much honor.
14 In the past, people hurt you.
Those people will bow down before you.
In the past, people hated you.
Those people will bow down
at your feet.
Those people will call you
‘The Lord’s City.’
‘The Zion* of the Holy One of Israel.’”

The New Israel: Land of Peace

15 “You will never again be left alone.
You will never again be hated.
You will never again be empty.
I will make you great forever.
You will be happy forever and ever.
16 Nations will give you everything you need,
It will be like a child
drinking milk from its mother.
But you will ‘drink’ riches from kings.
Then you will know that it is I, the Lord,
who saves you.
You will know that the Great God of Jacob protects you.

Lebanon A country north of Israel. It was famous for its great cedar and pine trees.
my holy place This probably means the temple in Jerusalem.
Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

* temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.
17 “You now have copper, I will bring you gold.
    You now have iron, I will bring you silver.
    I will change your wood into copper.
    I will change your rocks into iron.
    I will change your punishment into peace.
    People now hurt you, but people will do good things for you.

18 “There will never again be news of violence in your country.
    People will never again attack your country and steal from you.
    You will name your walls, ‘Salvation.’
    You will name your gates, ‘Praise.’

19 “The sun will no longer be your light during the day.
    The light from the moon will no longer be your light at night.
    Because the Lord will be your light forever.
    Your God will be your glory.

20 Your ‘sun’ will never go down again.
    Your ‘moon’ will never be dark again.
    Because the Lord will be your light forever.
    And your time of sadness will end.

21 “All of your people will be good.
    Those people will get the earth forever.
    I made those people.
    They are the wonderful plant that I made with my own hands.

22 The smallest family will become a large family group.
    The smallest family will become a powerful nation.
    When the time is right, I, the Lord, will come quickly.
    I will make these things happen.”

The Lord’s Message of Freedom

61 [The Lord’s servant says,] “The Lord my Master put his Spirit in me. God sent me to announce the time when the Lord will show his kindness. God sent me to announce the time when our God will punish evil people. God sent me to comfort sad people. 3 God sent me to the sad people of Zion. 4 I will get them ready for the celebration. I will take away the ashes on their head, and I will give them a crown. I will take away their sadness, and I will give them the oil of happiness. I will take away their sorrow, and I will give them celebration clothes. God sent me to name those people ‘Good Trees’ and ‘The Lord’s Wonderful Plant.’

4 “At that time, the old cities that were destroyed will be built again. Those cities will be made new like they were in the beginning. The cities that were destroyed for many, many years will be made like new.

5 Then your enemies will come to you and care for your sheep. The children of your enemies will work in your fields and in your gardens. 6 You will be called, ‘The Lord’s Priests,’ ‘The Servants of our God.’ You will have the riches that come from all the nations on earth. And you will be proud you have it.

7 “In the past other people shamed you and said bad things to you. You were shamed much more than any other people. So in your land you will get two times more than other people. You will get happiness that continues forever.

8 Why will this happen? Because I am the Lord and I love fairness. I hate stealing and everything that is wrong. So I will give the people the payment they should have. I will make an Agreement with my people forever. 9 Everyone in all nations will know my people. Everyone will know the children from my nation. Any person that sees them will know that the Lord blesses them.”

God’s Servant Brings Salvation

10 “The Lord makes me very, very happy. My whole self is happy in my God. The Lord put the clothes of salvation on me. These clothes are like the nice clothes a man wears at his wedding.

The Lord put the coat of goodness on me. This coat is like the beautiful clothes a woman wears at her wedding.
ISAIAH 61:11–62:12

11 The earth causes plants to grow.
   People plant seeds in the garden,
   and the garden makes them grow.
   In the same way, the Lord will make goodness grow.
   The Lord will make praise grow in all the nations.”

New Jerusalem: A City Full of Goodness

62 “I love Zion,
   so I will continue to speak for her.
   I love Jerusalem,
   so I will not stop speaking.
   I will speak until goodness shines like a bright light.
   I will speak until salvation burns bright like a flame.

2 Then all nations will see your goodness.
   All kings will see your honor.
   Then you will have a new name.
   The Lord himself will give you that new name.

3 The Lord will be very proud of you.
   You will be like a beautiful crown in the Lord’s hand.

4 You will never again be called
   ‘The People that God had Left.’
   Your land will never again be called
   ‘The Land that God Destroyed.’
   You will be called
   ‘The People God Loves.’
   Your land will be called ‘God’s Bride.’
   Why? Because the Lord loves you.
   And your land will belong to him.

5 When a young man loves a woman,
   he marries her,
   and she becomes his wife.
   In the same way, your land will belong to your children.
   A man is very happy with his new wife.
   In the same way, your God will be very happy with you.”

God Will Keep His Promises

6 “Jerusalem, I put guards (prophets) on your walls.
   Those guards will not be silent.
   They will keep praying day and night.”

Guards, you must keep praying to the Lord.
You must make him remember his promise.
Don’t ever stop praying.

7 You must pray to the Lord until he makes Jerusalem a city that people on earth will praise.

8 The Lord made a promise.
The Lord used his own power as proof.
And the Lord will use his power to keep that promise.

The Lord said,
“I promise that I will never again give your food to your enemies.
I promise that your enemies will never again take the wine that you make.

9 The person that gathers food will eat it,
   and that person will praise the Lord.
The person that gathers the grapes,
will drink the wine (from those grapes).
All these things will happen in my holy land.”

10 Come through the gates!
   Make the way clear for the people!
   Prepare the road!
   Move all the stones off the road!
   Raise the flag as a sign for the people!

11 Listen, the Lord is speaking to all the faraway lands:
   “Tell the people of Zion:*
   Look, your Savior is coming.
   He is bringing your reward to you.
   He is bringing that reward with him.”

12 His people will be called:
   “The Holy People,”
   “The Saved People of the Lord.”
   And Jerusalem will be called:
   “The City God Wants.”
   “The City God Is With.”

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
The Lord Judges His People

Who is this coming from Edom?*
He comes from Bozrah.*
And his clothes are stained bright red.
He is glorious in his clothes.
He is walking tall with his great power.
He says,
“| have the power to save you.
And | speak the truth.”

Why are your clothes bright red?
They are like the clothes of a person that walks on grapes to make wine!”

He answers,
“I walked in the winepress* by myself.
No one helped me.
I was angry and I walked on the grapes.
The juice* splashed on my clothes.
So now my clothes are dirty.

I chose a time to punish people.
Now the time has come for me to save and protect my people.

I looked around, but I saw no person to help me.
I was surprised that no one supported me.
So I used my own power
to save my people.
My own anger supported me.

While I was angry, I walked on people.
I punished them while I was mad.
I poured their blood* on the ground.”

The Lord Has Been Kind to His People

I will remember that the Lord is kind.
And | will remember to praise the Lord.
The Lord gave many good things to the family of Israel.
The Lord has been very kind to us.
The Lord showed mercy to us.

The Lord said,
“These are my people.
These are my real children.”
So the Lord saved those people.

The people had many troubles,
but the Lord was not against them.
The Lord loved the people
and felt sorry for them.
So the Lord saved them.
He sent his special angel to save them.
He picked them up and carried them,
and he will take care of them forever.

But the people turned against the Lord.
They made his Holy Spirit very sad.
So the Lord became their enemy.
The Lord fought against those people.

But the Lord still remembers
what happened a long time ago.
He remembers Moses and his people.
The Lord is the One who brought the people through the sea.
The Lord used his shepherds (prophets) to lead his flock (people).
But where is the Lord now—
the One who put his Spirit in Moses?

The Lord led Moses by the right hand.
The Lord used his wonderful power to lead Moses.
The Lord divided the water
so that the people could walk through the sea.
The Lord made his name famous by doing those great things.

The Lord led the people
through the deep seas.
The people walked without falling,
like a horse walking through the desert.

A cow does not fall,
just walking in the field.
[In the same way, the people did not fall while going through the sea,]

The Lord’s Spirit led the people to a resting place.
The people were safe the whole time.
Lord, that is the way
you led your people.
You led the people
and you made your name wonderful.

A Prayer for God to Help His People

Lord, look down from the heavens.
See the things that are happening now!
ISAIAH 63:16–64:11

Look down at us from your great and holy home in heaven.
Where is your strong love* for us?
Where are your powerful works that come from deep inside you?
Where is your mercy for me?
Why are you hiding your kind love from me?

16 Look! You are our father!
Abraham doesn’t know us.
Israel (Jacob) does not recognize us.
Lord, you are our father!
You are the One who has always saved us!

17 Lord, why are you pushing us away from you?
Why are you making it hard for us to follow you?
Come back to us Lord!
We are your servants.
Come to us and help us!
Our families belong to you.

18 Your holy people lived in their land only a short time.
Then our enemies trampled your holy temple.*

19 Some people don’t follow you.
Those people don’t wear your name.
And we were like those people.

64 1 If you would tear open the skies and come down to earth, then everything would change.
The mountains would melt before you.

2 The mountains would burst into flames like burning bushes.
The mountains would boil like water on the fire.
Then your enemies would learn about you.
Then all nations would shake with fear when they see you.

3 But we don’t really want you to do these things.
The mountains would melt before you.

4 Your people never really listened to you.
Your people never really heard the things you said.
No person has ever seen a God like you.
There is no other God—only you.
If people are patient and wait for you to help them,
then you will do great things for them.

5 You are with people that enjoy doing good.
Those people remember you by living the way you want them to.
But in the past we sinned against you.
So you became angry at us.
Now, how will we be saved?

6 We are all dirty with sin.
Even our good works are not pure.
They are like blood-stained rags.
We are all like dead leaves.
Our sins have carried us away like wind.

7 We don’t worship you.
We don’t trust in your name.
We aren’t excited about following you.
So you have turned away from us.
We are helpless before you, because we are full of sin.

8 But Lord, you are our father.
We are like clay.
And you are the potter.*
Your hands made us all.

9 Lord, don’t continue to be angry with us!
Don’t remember our sins forever!
Please, look at us!

10 Your holy cities are empty.
Those cities are like deserts now.
Zion* is a desert!
Jerusalem is destroyed!

11 Our ancestors worshiped you in our holy temple.
Our temple was so wonderful, but now it has been burned in the fire!
All our precious possessions have been destroyed.

---

strong love This Hebrew word means strong feelings like love, hate, anger, zeal, or jealousy.
temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.
potter A person that makes pots and other things from clay.
Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
ISAIAH 64:12–65:16

12 Will these things always keep you from showing your love to us?
Will you continue to say nothing?
Will you punish us forever?

All People Will Learn About God

65 The Lord says, “I helped people that had not come to me for advice. The people that found me were not looking for me. I spoke to a nation that does not wear my name. I said, ‘Here I am! Here I am!’

2“I stood ready to accept people that turned against me. I was waiting for those people to come to me. But they continued living a way that is not good. They did anything their hearts wanted to do. Those people are in front of me always making me angry. Those people offer sacrifices* and burn incense* in their special gardens.* Those people sit among the graves. They wait to get messages from dead people. They even live among dead bodies. They eat pig meat. Their forks and knives are dirty with rotten meat.

5“But those people tell other people, ‘Don’t come near me! Don’t touch me until I make you clean.’ Those people are like smoke in my eyes. And their fire burns all the time.”

Israel Must Be Punished

6“Look, here is a bill that must be paid. This bill shows you are guilty for your sins. I will not be quiet until I pay this bill, and I will pay the bill by punishing you.

7“Your sins and your fathers’ sins are all the same.” The Lord said this, “Your fathers did these sins when they burned incense* in the mountains. They shamed me on those hills. And I punished them first. I gave them the punishment they should have.”

God Will Not Completely Destroy Israel

8The Lord says, “When there is new wine in the grapes, people squeeze out the wine. But they don’t completely destroy the grapes.

They do this because the grapes can still be used. I will do the same thing to my servants. I will not completely destroy them. I will keep some of the people of Jacob (Israel). Some of the people of Judah will get my mountain. My servants will live there. I will choose the people that will live there. Then Sharon Valley* will be a field for sheep. The Valley of Achor* will be a place for cattle to rest. All these things will be for my people—the people that look for me.

11“But you people left the Lord, so you will be punished. You people forgot about my holy mountain.* You began to worship Luck. You depend on the false god Fate.* But I decide your future. And I decided that you will be killed with a sword. You will all be killed. Why? Because I called to you, and you refused to answer me! I spoke to you, and you would not listen. You did the things that I say are evil. You decided to do the things that I don’t like.”

13 So the Lord my Master said these things.
“My servants will eat, but you evil people will be hungry.
My servants will drink, but you evil people will be thirsty.
My servants will be happy, but you evil people will be shamed.

14 My servants will be happy with joy, but you evil people will cry with sadness.* Your spirits will be broken, and you will be very sad.

15 Your names will be like bad words to my servants.”

The Lord my Master will kill you. And he will call his servants by a new name.

16 People now ask blessings from the earth. But in the future,* they will ask blessings from the faithful God.

---

sacrifices Gifts to God. Sometimes these were special kinds of animals that were killed and burned on an altar.
incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.
special gardens Gardens where people worshiped false gods.

Sharon Valley The low land along the coast of Palestine.
Valley of Achor A valley about ten miles north of Jerusalem.
my holy mountain Mount Zion, the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Luck … Fate Two false gods. The people thought these gods controlled their futures.
My servants … sadness Literally, “My servants will rejoice with good hearts and you will scream with painful hearts.”
ISAIAH 65:17–66:3  850

People now trust in the power of the earth
when they make a promise.
[But in the future, they will trust in the faithful God.
Why? Because the troubles in the past will all be forgotten.
My people will never again remember those troubles.

A New Time Is Coming

17 “I will make a new heaven and a new earth.
People will not remember the past.
They won’t remember any of those things.
My people will be happy.
They will rejoice forever and ever.
Why? Because of what I will make.
I will make a Jerusalem that is full of joy,
and I will make them a happy people.

19 “Then I will be happy with Jerusalem.
I will be happy with my people.
There will never again be crying and sadness in that city.

20 There will never be a child from that city,
that is born and lives only a few days.
No person from that city will die
after only a short life.
Every child will live a long life,
and every older person will live
for a long, long time.
A person that lives 100 years will be called young.
And people will think a person was cursed if he does not live to be 100 years old.

21 “In that city, if a person builds a house, that person will live there.
If a person plants a garden of grapes, that person will eat the grapes
from that garden.

22 Never again will one person build a house
and another person live there.
Never again will
one person plant a garden and another person eat the fruit from it.

My people will live as long as the trees.
My chosen people will enjoy the things they make.

Women will never again suffer childbirth only to have the baby die.
Women will never again be afraid of what might happen during childbirth.
All my people and their children will be blessed by the Lord.

24 I will know what they need before they ask.
And I will help them—
even before they finish asking.

25 Wolves and little lambs will eat together.
Lions will eat with cattle.
A snake on the ground will not scare or hurt
any person on my holy mountain.”
The Lord said all those things.

66 God Will Judge All Nations

This is what the Lord says,
The skies are my throne.
The earth is my footstool.
So do you think you can build a house for me?
No! You can’t!
Can you give me a place to rest?
No! You can’t!

2 I myself made all things.
All things are here because I made them.”
The Lord himself said these things.
“Tell me, what people do I care for?
I care for the poor people.
I care for the people that are very sad.
I care for people that obey my words.

3 Some people kill bulls
as a sacrifice,
but they also beat people.
Those people kill sheep as a sacrifice,
but they also break the necks of dogs!
Those people offer up grain offerings,
but they also offer the blood of pigs! *
Those people burn incense,*
but they also love their worthless idols.*
Those people choose their own ways.
And they also love their terrible idols.

dogs … pigs  God did not want his people to offer dogs and pigs as sacrifices.
incense  A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.
idols  Statues of false gods that people worshiped.
4 So I decided to use their own tricks! I mean that I will punish them using the things they are most afraid of.
I called to those people, but they did not listen.
I spoke to them, but they did not hear me.
So I will do the same thing to them.
Those people did things I said are evil.
They chose to do things I did not like.”

5 You people that obey the Lord’s commands should listen to the things the Lord says,
"Your brothers hated you.
They turned against you because you followed me.
Your brothers said, ‘We will come back to you when the Lord is honored.
Then we will be happy with you.’
Those bad people will be punished.

Punishment And A New Nation

6 Listen! There is a loud noise coming from the city and the temple.* That noise is the Lord punishing his enemies. The Lord is giving them the punishment they should have.

7–8 "A woman does not give birth before she feels the pain. A woman must feel the pain of childbirth before she can see the boy she gives birth to. In the same way, no person ever saw a new world begin in one day. No person has ever heard of a new nation that began in one day. The land must first have pain like the pain of birth. After the birth pain then the land will give birth to her children—a new nation. In the same way, I will not cause pain without allowing something new to be born.”

The Lord says this, “I promise, if I cause you the pain of birth then I will not stop you from having your new nation.” Your God said this.

10 Jerusalem, be happy!
All you people who love Jerusalem, be happy!
Sad things happened to Jerusalem, so some of you people are sad.
But now you people should be happy.

11 Why? Because you will receive mercy like milk coming from her breast.
That “milk” will truly satisfy you!
You people will drink the milk, and you will truly enjoy the glory of Jerusalem.

12 The Lord says,
“Look, I will give you peace.
This peace will come flowing to you like a great river.
Wealth from all the nations on earth will come flowing to you.
That wealth will come like a flood.
You will be like little babies.
You will drink that ‘milk’ (wealth)
I will pick you up, hold you in my arms, and bounce you on my knees.

13 I will comfort you like a mother comforts her child.
And you will be in Jerusalem when I comfort you!"

14 You will see the things that you truly enjoy.
You will be free and grow like grass.
The Lord’s servants will see his power, but the Lord’s enemies will see his anger.

15 Look, the Lord is coming with fire. The Lord’s armies are coming with clouds of dust. The Lord will punish those people with his anger. The Lord will use flames of fire to punish those people while he is angry. 16 The Lord will judge the people. Then the Lord will destroy the people with fire and with his sword. The Lord will destroy many people.

17 Those people wash themselves to make themselves pure for worshiping in their special gardens.* These people follow each other into their special gardens. Then they

* temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

* special gardens Gardens where people worshiped false gods.
worship their idols. But, the Lord will destroy all those people.

Those people eat the meat from pigs, rats, and other dirty things. But, all of those people will be destroyed together.” (The Lord himself said these things.)

Those people have evil thoughts and do evil things. So I am coming to punish them. I will gather all nations and all people. All people will come together and see my power. I will put a mark on some of the people—I will save them. I will send some of these saved people to the nations Tarshish,* Libya,* Lud* (the land of archers*), Tubal,* Greece, and all the faraway lands. Those people have never heard my teachings. Those people have never seen my Glory.* So the saved people will tell the nations about my glory. And they will bring all your brothers and sisters from all nations. They will bring your brothers and sisters to my holy mountain,* Jerusalem. Your brothers and sisters will come on horses, donkeys, camels, and in chariots and wagons. Your brothers and sisters will be like the gifts that the people of Israel bring on clean plates to the Lord’s temple. I will also choose some of these people to be priests and Levites.* The Lord himself said these things.

The New Heavens and the New Earth

I will make a new world—and the new heavens and the new earth* will last forever.* In the same way, your names and your children will always be with me. All people will come to worship me on every worship day; they will come every Sabbath* and every first day of the month.*

These people will be in my holy city.* And if they go out of the city, they will see the dead bodies of the people that sinned against me. There will be worms in those bodies—and the worms will never die. Fires will burn those bodies—and the fires will never stop.”

Tarshish  A city far away from Israel, probably in Spain. Tarshish was famous for its large ships that sailed the Mediterranean Sea.

Libya  A country in North Africa, west of Egypt.

Lud  This country was probably in the country that is now western Turkey.

archers  Soldiers that use bows and arrows in war.

Tubal  This country was probably in the country that is now eastern Turkey.

my Glory  The “Glory of the Lord,” one of the forms God used when he appeared to people. It was like a bright shining light. See Ex. 40:34–36.

my holy mountain  This is probably Mount Zion, the mountain Jerusalem is built on.

temple  A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

Levites  People from the family group of Levi. Only Levites could help the priests in the temple.

Sabbath  Saturday, a special day of rest and worship for Jews.

first day of the month  Literally, “new moon,” the first day of the Jewish month and a special day of worship.
These are the messages of Jeremiah. Jeremiah was the son of a man named Hilkiah. Jeremiah belonged to the family of priests that lived in the city of Anathoth.* That city is in the land that belongs to the family group of Benjamin. The Lord began to speak to Jeremiah during the days when Josiah was king of the nation of Judah. Josiah was the son of a man named Amon. The Lord began to speak to Jeremiah in the 13th year that Josiah was king.* The Lord continued to speak to Jeremiah while Jehoiakim was king of Judah. Jehoiakim was the son of Josiah. The Lord continued to speak to Jeremiah during the eleven years and five months that Zedekiah was king of Judah. Zedekiah was also a son of Josiah. In the fifth month of Zedekiah’s eleventh year as king, the people that lived in Jerusalem were taken away into exile.

God Calls Jeremiah

4The Lord’s message came to Jeremiah. This message was from the Lord:

5 “Before I made you in your mother’s body, I knew you.
Before you were born,
I chose you for a special work.
I chose you to be a prophet to the nations.”

6Then Jeremiah said, “But Lord All-Powerful, I don’t know how to speak. I am only a boy.”

Two Visions

11The Lord’s message came to me. This message was from the Lord: “Jeremiah, what do you see?”
I answered the Lord and said, “I see a stick made from almond wood.”

12The Lord said to me, “You have seen very well. And I am watching to make sure that my message to you comes true.”

13The Lord’s message came to me again. This was the Lord’s message: “Jeremiah, what do you see?”
I answered the Lord and said, “I see a pot of boiling water. That pot is tipping over from the north.”
The Lord said to me, “Something terrible will come
from the north.
It will happen to all the people that live in this country.
In a short time I will call all of the people in the northern kingdoms.”

The Lord said those things.

“The kings of those countries will come and set up their thrones near the gates of Jerusalem.
They will attack the city walls of Jerusalem.
They will attack all the cities in Judah.

And I will announce my judgment against my people.
I will do this because they are bad people and they have turned against me.

My people left me.
They offered sacrifices to other gods.
They worshiped idols that they had made with their own hands.

As you, Jeremiah, get ready.
Stand up and speak to the people.
Tell them everything that I tell you to say.
Don’t be afraid of the people.
If you are afraid of the people,
then I will give you good reason to be afraid of them.

As for me, today I will make you like a strong city,
an iron column,
a bronze wall.
You will be able to stand against everyone in the land, against the kings of the land of Judah,
against the leaders of Judah,
against the priests of Judah,
and against the people of the land of Judah.

All those people will fight against you,
but they will not defeat you.
Why? Because I am with you, and I will save you.”

This message is from the Lord.

Judah Was Not Faithful

The Lord’s message came to Jeremiah.

This message was from the Lord:

“Jeremiah, go and speak to the people of Jerusalem. Say to them:

“At the time you were a young nation,
you were faithful to me.
You followed me like a young bride.
You followed me through the desert, through a land that had never been used for farm land.

The people of Israel were a holy gift
to the Lord.
They were the first fruit to be gathered by the Lord.
Any people that tried to hurt them were judged guilty.
Bad things happened to those wicked people.”

This message was from the Lord.

Family of Jacob, hear the Lord’s message.
Family groups of Israel, hear the message.

This is what the Lord says:
“Do you think that I was not fair to your ancestors*?
Is that why they turned away from me?
Your ancestors worshiped worthless idols,
and they became worthless themselves.

Your ancestors did not say,
‘The Lord brought us from Egypt.
The Lord led us through the desert.
The Lord led us through a dry and rocky land.
The Lord led us through a dark and dangerous land.
No people live there.
People don’t even travel through that land.
But the Lord led us through that land.
So where is the Lord now?’

The Lord says,

‘I brought you into a good land,
a land filled with many good things.
I did this so you could eat the fruit and crops that grow there.
But you only made my land ‘dirty.’
I gave that land to you,
but you made it a bad place.”

ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents,
grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
8 "The priests did not ask,
   ‘Where is the Lord?’
The people that know the law
did not want to know me.
The leaders of the people of Israel
turned against me.
The prophets prophesied* in the name of the false god Baal.*
They worshiped worthless idols."

9 The Lord says,
   “So now I will accuse you again,
And I will also accuse
your grandchildren.

10 Go across the sea to the Islands of Kittim.*
Send someone to the land of Kedar.*
Look very carefully.
See if any person has ever done something like this.

11 Has any nation ever stopped worshiping their old gods so they could worship new gods?
No! And their gods are not really gods at all!
But my people stopped worshiping their glorious God and started worshiping idols that are worth nothing.

12 “Skies, be shocked at the things that have happened!
Shake with great fear!”
This message was from the Lord.

13 “My people have done two evil things.
They turned away from me
(I am the spring of living water), and they dug their own water cisterns.
(They turned to other gods.)
But their cisterns are broken.
Those cisterns can’t hold water.

14 “Have the people of Israel become slaves?
Have they become like a person
that was born a slave?
Why did people take the wealth
from the people of Israel?

15 Young lions’ (enemies) roar at Israel.
The lions growl.
Lions have destroyed the land of Israel.
The cities of Israel have been burned.
There are no people left in them.

16 People from Memphis and Tahpanhes* have smashed the top of your head.

17 This trouble is your own fault!
The Lord your God was leading you the right way,*
but you turned away from him.

18 People of Judah, think about this:
Did it help to go to Egypt?
Did it help to drink
from the Nile River? No!
Did it help to go to Assyria?
Did it help to drink from the Euphrates River? No!

19 You did bad things, and those bad things will only bring punishment to you.
Trouble will come to you.
And that trouble will teach you a lesson.
Think about it!
Then you will understand how bad it is to turn away from your God.
It is wrong not to fear and respect me!”
This message was from my Master,
the Lord All-Powerful.

20 “Judah, a long time ago you threw off your yoke.
You broke the ropes
that I used to control you.
You said to me,
‘I will not serve you!’
You were like a prostitute on every high hill and under every green tree.*

21 Judah, I planted you like a special vine.
All of you were like good seed.
JEREMIAH 2:22–36

How did you turn into a different vine that grows bad fruit?

22 Even if you wash yourself with lye,*
even if you use much soap,
I can still see your guilt.”
This message was from the Lord God.

23 “Judah, how can you say to me,
‘I am not guilty;
I have not worshiped the Baal* idols’?
Think about the things you did in the valley.
Think about what you have done.
You are like a fast she-camel that runs from place to place.

24 You are like a wild donkey that lives in the desert.
At mating time, she sniffs (smells) the wind.
No person can bring her back at the time she is in heat.
At mating time, every male that wants her will get her.
It is easy to find her.

25 Judah, stop chasing after idols!
Stop being thirsty for those other gods.
But you say, ‘It is no use! I can’t quit!
I love those other gods.
I want to worship them.’

26 “A thief is ashamed when people catch him.
In the same way,
the people of Israel are ashamed,
the kings and leaders are ashamed, and the priests and prophets are ashamed.

27 Those people talk to pieces of wood!
They say, ‘You are my father.’
Those people speak to a rock.
They say, ‘You gave birth to me.’
All those people will be ashamed.
Those people don’t look at me.
They have turned their backs to me.
But when the people of Judah get into trouble, they say to me,
‘Come and save us!’

28 Let those idols come and save you!
Where are the idols
that you have made for yourselves?

29 “Why do you argue with me?
All of you have turned against me.”
This message was from the Lord.

30 “I punished you people of Judah, but it did not help.
You did not come back when you were punished.
You killed with your swords the prophets that came to you.
You were like a dangerous lion and you killed the prophets.”

31 People of this generation, pay attention to the Lord’s message!

“Have I been like a desert
to the people of Israel?
Have I been like a dark and dangerous land to them?
My people say,
‘We are free to go our own way.
We will not come back to you, Lord!’
Why do they say those things?

32 A young woman doesn’t forget her jewelry.
A bride doesn’t forget the sash for her dress.
But my people have forgotten me too many times to count.

33 “Judah, you really know how to chase after lovers (false gods).
You have really learned to do evil things.
You have blood on your hands!
It is the blood of the poor,
innocent people.
You did not catch those people
breaking into your house!
You killed them for no reason!

35 But still, you say,
‘I am innocent.
God is not angry with me.’
So I will also judge you guilty of lying,
Why? Because you say,
‘I have done nothing wrong.’

36 It is so easy for you to change your mind.
Assyria disappointed you,
so you left Assyria and went to Egypt for help.
But Egypt will also disappoint you.

lye A chemical that is used like soap.
Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.
So you will eventually leave Egypt, too. And you will hide your face in shame. You trusted those countries. But the Lord rejected those countries, so they can't help you win.

If a man divorces his wife, and she leaves him and marries another man, can that man come back to his wife again? No! If that man went back to that woman, then that land would become ‘dirty.’ Judah, you acted like a prostitute with many lovers (false gods). And now you want to come back to me!” This message was from the Lord.

“Look up to the bare hilltops, Judah. Is there any place where you have not had sex with your lovers (false gods)? You have sat by the road waiting for lovers, like an Arab waiting in the desert. You made the land ‘dirty’! How? You did many bad things and you were unfaithful to me.

You sinned, so the rain has not come. There have not been any springtime rains. But still you refuse to be ashamed. The look on your face is like the look that a prostitute has when she refuses to be ashamed. You refuse to be ashamed of what you did.

But now you are calling me, ‘Father.’ You said, ‘You have been my friend since I was a child.’

You also said, ‘God will not always be angry at me. God’s anger will not continue forever.’ “Judah, you say those things, but you do as much evil as you can.”

If that man went back to that woman It was against the law of Moses for a man to marry a woman he had divorced if that woman had become another man’s wife. It was against the law for that man to marry her again even if her second husband divorced her or died. See Deut. 24:1–4.

Israel Here the name Israel means the northern kingdom of Israel. Israel was destroyed by the Assyrians about 100 years before Jeremiah’s time.
14 “You people are unfaithful. But Come back to me!” This message was from the Lord. “I am your Master. I will take one person from every city and two people from every family and bring you to Zion.” 15 Then I will give you new rulers. Those rulers will be faithful to me. They will lead you with knowledge and understanding. 16 In those days, there will be many of you in the land.” This message is from the Lord. “At that time, people will never again say, ‘I remember the days when we had the Box of the Lord’s Agreement.’ They won’t even think about the Holy Box anymore. They won’t even remember or miss it. They will never make another Holy Box. 17 At that time, the city of Jerusalem will be called the ‘Lord’s Throne.’ All nations will come together in the city of Jerusalem to give honor to the name of the Lord. They won’t follow their stubborn, evil hearts anymore. 18 In those days, the family of Judah will join the family of Israel. They will come together from a land in the north. They will come to the land I gave to their ancestors.”

19 “I, the Lord, said to myself, ‘I want to treat you like my own children. I want to give you a pleasant land, a land more beautiful than any other nation.’ I thought that you would call me ‘Father.’ I thought that you would always follow me.

20 But you have been like a woman that is unfaithful to her husband. Family of Israel, you have been unfaithful to me!” This message was from the Lord.

21 You can hear crying on the bare hills. The people of Israel are crying and praying for mercy. They became very evil. They forgot the Lord their God.

22 The Lord also said, “People of Israel, you are unfaithful to me. But come back to me! Come back and I will forgive you for being unfaithful to me.”

23 The people should say, “Yes, we will come to you. You are the Lord our God. It was foolish to worship idols on the hills. All the loud parties on the mountains were wrong. Surely the salvation of Israel comes from the Lord our God.

24 That terrible false god Baal has eaten everything our fathers owned. This has happened since we were children. That terrible false god took our fathers’ sheep and cattle, and their sons and daughters.

25 Let us lie down in our shame. Let our shame cover us like a blanket. We have sinned against the Lord our God. We and our fathers have sinned. We have not obeyed the Lord our God from the time we were children.”

This message is from the Lord. “Israel, if you want to come back, then come back to me. Throw away your idols. Don’t wander away from me.

2 If you do those things, then you will be able to use my name to make a promise: You will be able to say, ‘As the Lord lives.’ And you will be able to use those words in a truthful, honest, and right way. If you do these things, then the nations will be blessed by the Lord. They will brag about the things that the Lord has done.”

3 This is what the Lord says to the man of Judah and to Jerusalem:

“Your fields have not been plowed. Plow those fields! Don’t plant seeds among the thorns.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

Box of the Lord’s Agreement The box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert. Also called “The Ark of the Covenant.”

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

forgive Literally, “heal.”
4 Become the Lord’s people.
   Change your hearts!*
   Men of Judah and people of Jerusalem,
   if you don’t change,
   then I will become very angry.
   My anger will spread fast like a fire,
   and my anger will burn you up.
   And no person will be able to put out that fire.
   Why will this happen?
   Because of the evil things you have done.”

5 “Give this message to the people of Judah:
   Tell every person in the city of Jerusalem, ‘blow the trumpet all over the country.’
   Shout out loud and say,
   ‘Come together!
   Let us all escape to the strong cities
   for protection.’
6 Raise the signal flag toward Zion.*
   Run for your lives!
   Don’t wait!
   Do this because I am bringing disaster
   from the north.*
   I am bringing terrible destruction.”
7 A lion has come out of his cave.
   A destroyer of nations has begun to march.
   He has left his home
   to destroy your land.
   Your towns will be destroyed.
   There will be no people left to live in them.
8 So put on sackcloth* and cry out loud!
   Why? Because the Lord is angry at us.”

9 The Lord says,
   “At the time this happens,
   the king and his officers will lose their courage,
   the priests will be scared,
   the prophets will be shocked.”

10 Then I, Jeremiah, said, “Lord my Master, you have really tricked the people of Judah and Jerusalem. You said to them, ‘You will have peace.’ But now the sword is pointing at their throats!”

11 At that time a message will be given to the people of Judah and Jerusalem:
   “A hot wind blows from the bare hills.
   It comes from the desert to my people.
   It is not like the gentle wind that farmers use to separate the grain from the chaff.*
   It is a stronger wind than that,
   and it comes from me.
   Now, I will announce my judgment against the people of Judah.”

12 Look! The enemy rises up like a cloud.
   His chariots* look like a wind storm.
   His horses are faster than eagles.
   It will be very bad for us!
   We are ruined!

13 People of Jerusalem, wash the evil from your hearts.
   Make your hearts pure so you can be saved.
   Don’t continue making evil plans.

14 Listen! The voice of a messenger from the land of Dan* is speaking.
   A person is bringing bad news from the hill country of Ephraim.*
16 “Report it to this nation.*
   Spread the news to the people in Jerusalem.

---

Change your hearts  Literally, “Be circumcised to the Lord.
Cut away the foreskin of your hearts.” A man cut away the foreskin from his sex organ to show he was becoming one of God’s people. Jeremiah is saying that the real circumcision must be from inside a person’s heart (mind).

Zion  The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

north  The Babylonian army came from this direction to attack Judah. Armies from countries north and east of Israel often came this way to attack Judah and Israel.

sackcloth  A kind of cloth that people wore to show they were sad or crying for dead people.

chaff  The seed coverings and stems separated from the seeds of plants like wheat or barley. Farmers saved the seeds but let the wind blow the useless chaff away.

chariot(s)  A small wagon used in war.

land of Dan  The people from the family group of Dan lived near the border in the northern part of Israel. They would be the first to be attacked by an enemy from the north.

hill country of Ephraim  This was the central part of the land that had been the northern kingdom of Israel.

“Report … nation”  The Hebrew is hard to understand here.
Enemies are coming from a faraway country.
Those enemies are shouting words of war against the cities of Judah.
17 The enemy has surrounded Jerusalem like men guarding a field.
Judah, you turned against me!
So the enemy is coming against you!”
This message is from the Lord.
18 “The way you lived and the things you did brought this trouble to you.
It is your evil that made your life so hard.
Your evil life brought the pain that hurts deep in your heart.”

Jeremiah’s Cry
19 Oh, my sadness and worry is making my stomach hurt.
I am bent over in pain.
Oh, I am so scared.
My heart is pounding inside me.
I can’t keep quiet. Why?
Because I have heard the trumpet blow.
The trumpet is calling the army to war!
20 Disaster follows disaster!
The whole country is destroyed!
Suddenly my tents are destroyed!
My curtains are torn down!
21 Lord, how long must I see the war flags?
How long must I hear the war trumpets?
22 God said, “My people are foolish.
They don’t know me.
They are stupid children.
They don’t understand.
They are skillful at doing evil,
but they don’t know how to do good.”

Disaster Is Coming
23 I looked at the earth.
The earth was empty; nothing was on the earth.
I looked at the sky.
and its light was gone.*
24 I looked at the mountains,
and they were shaking.
All of the hills were trembling.

The earth … gone
Jeremiah is comparing his country to the time before people were put on the earth. See Gen. 1:1.
The Evil of the People of Judah

5 The Lord says, “Walk the streets of Jerusalem. Look around and think about these things. Search the public squares of the city. See if you can find one good person, one person that does honest things, one that searches for the truth. If you find one good person, I will forgive Jerusalem! The people make promises and say, ‘As the Lord lives.’ But they don’t really mean it.”

3 Lord, I know that you want people to be loyal to you.
You hit the people of Judah, but they did not feel any pain.
You destroyed them, but they refused to learn their lesson.
They became very stubborn.
They refused to be sorry for the bad things they did.

4 But I (Jeremiah) said to myself, “It must be only the poor people that are so foolish.
Poor people have not learned the way of the Lord.
Poor people don’t know the teachings of their God.

5 So I will go to the leaders of Judah.
I will talk to them.
Surely the leaders know the way of the Lord.
I am sure they know the law of their God.”
But the leaders had all joined together to break away from serving the Lord.

6 They turned against God, so a lion from the forest will attack them.
A wolf from the desert will kill them.
A leopard is hiding near their cities.
The leopard will tear to pieces any person that comes out of the city.
This will happen because the people of Judah have sinned again and again.
They have wandered away from the Lord many times.

7 God said, “Judah, give me one good reason why I should forgive you.

8 Your children have abandoned me.
They made promises to idols
And those idols are not really gods!
I gave your children everything they needed.
But they still were unfaithful to me!
They spent much time with prostitutes.

9 They are like horses that have had plenty to eat and are ready to mate.
They are like a horse that is calling its neighbor’s wife.

10 “I will punish the people of Judah for doing these things?”
This message is from the Lord.
“‘Yes! You know I should punish a nation that lives like that.
I will give them the punishment that they deserve.

11 “Go along the rows of Judah’s grapevines.
Cut down the vines.
(But don’t completely destroy them.)
Cut off all their branches.
Why? Because they don’t belong to the Lord.

12 The family of Israel and the family of Judah have been unfaithful to me in every way.”
This message is from the Lord.

13 “Those people have lied about the Lord.
They have said, ‘The Lord will not do anything to us.
Nothing bad will happen to us.
We will never see an army attack us.
We will never starve.’

14 The Lord God All-Powerful said these things:
“Those people said I would not punish them.
So Jeremiah, the words I give you will be like fire.
And those people will be like wood.
That fire will burn them up completely!

wind This is a word play. The Hebrew word for wind is like the word for Spirit.
The word … them Literally, “and the ‘He said’ is not in them.”
Family of Israel, this message is from the Lord, “I will soon bring a nation from far away to attack you. It is an old nation. It is an ancient nation. The people of that nation speak a language that you don’t know. You can’t understand what they say. Their arrow bags are like open graves. All of their men are strong soldiers.

Those soldiers will eat all the crops that you gathered. They will eat all of your food. They will eat (destroy) your sons and daughters. They will eat your flocks and your herds. They will eat your grapes and your figs. They will destroy your strong cities with their swords. They will destroy the strong cities that you trust in!

This message is from the Lord, “But Judah, when those terrible days come, I will not fully destroy you.

The people of Judah will ask you, ‘Jeremiah, why has the Lord our God done this bad thing to us?’ Give them this answer: ‘You people of Judah have left the Lord, and you have served foreign idols in your own land. You did those things, so now you will serve foreigners in a land that doesn’t belong to you.’”

Tell this message to the family of Jacob. Tell this message in the nation of Judah:

Hear this message. You foolish people have no sense: ‘You have eyes, but you don’t see! You have ears, but you don’t listen!’ Surely you are afraid of me.”

This message is from the Lord. “You should shake with fear in front of me. I am the One who made the beaches to be a boundary for the sea.

I made it that way to keep the water in its place forever. The waves may pound the beach, but they will not destroy it. The waves may roar as they come in, but they can’t go beyond the beach.

But the people of Judah are stubborn. They are always planning ways to turn against me. They turned away from me and left me.

The people of Judah never say to themselves, ‘Let’s fear and respect the Lord our God. He gives us autumn and spring rains at just the right time. He makes sure that we have the harvest at just the right time.’

People of Judah, you have done wrong. So the rains and the harvest have not come. Your sins have kept you from enjoying those good things from the Lord.

There are evil men among my people. Those evil men are like men that make nets for catching birds. These men set their traps, But they catch men instead of birds.

The houses of these evil men are full of lies, like a cage full of birds. Their lies made them rich and powerful.

They have grown big and fat from the evil things they have done. There is no end to the evil things they do. They will not plead the case of children that have no parents. They will not help those orphans. They will not let poor people be judged fairly.

Should I punish the people of Judah for doing these things?” This message is from the Lord. “You know that I should punish a nation such as this. I should give them the punishment that they deserve.”
JEREMIAH 5:30–6:13

30 The Lord says,
   “A terrible and shocking thing has happened in the land of Judah.

31 The prophets tell lies.
   The priests will not do what they were chosen to do.*
   And my people love it this way!
   But what will you people do when your punishment comes?”

The Enemy Surrounds Jerusalem

Run for your lives, people of Benjamin! Run away from the city of Jerusalem! Blow the war trumpet in the city of Tekoa! Put up the warning flag in the city of Beth Hakkerem! Do these things because disaster is coming from the north.* Terrible destruction is coming to you.

2 Daughter of Zion,* you are like a beautiful meadow.*
3 Shepherds come to Jerusalem, and they bring their flocks. They set up their tents all around her. Each shepherd takes care of his own flock.

4 “Get ready to fight against Jerusalem. Get up! We will attack the city at noon. But it is already getting late. The evening shadows are growing long.

5 So get up! We will attack the city at night! Let’s destroy the strong walls that are around Jerusalem.”

6 This is what the Lord All-Powerful says:
   “Cut down the trees around Jerusalem.
   And build a siege mound* against it.
   This city should be punished. Inside this city is nothing but oppression.

7 A well keeps its water fresh. In the same way, Jerusalem keeps its wickedness fresh. I hear about the looting and violence in this city all the time. I see the pain and sickness in Jerusalem all the time.

8 Listen to this warning, Jerusalem. If you don’t listen then I will turn my back on you. I will make your land an empty desert. No person will be able to live there.”

9 This is what the Lord All-Powerful says: “Gather* the people of Israel that were left on their land. Gather them the way you would gather the last grapes on a grapevine. Check each vine, like a worker checks each vine when he picks the grapes.”

10 Who can I speak to? Who can I warn? Who will listen to me? The people of Israel have closed their ears, so they can’t hear my warnings. The people don’t like the Lord’s teachings. They don’t want to hear his message.

11 But I (Jeremiah) am full of the Lord’s anger! I am tired of holding it in! “Pour out the Lord’s anger on the children that play in the street. Pour out the Lord’s anger on the young men that gather together. A man and his wife will both be captured. All the old people will be captured. Their houses will be given to other people. Their fields and their wives will be given to other people. I will raise my hand and punish the people of Judah.”

This message was from the Lord.

13 “All the people of Israel want more and more money. All the people, from the least important to the most important people, are like that.

Gather Or “Glean.” Farmers were supposed to leave a little of their grain and other crops in the field. In this way, poor people and travelers could always find something to eat. Gathering this leftover grain is called gleaning.
All the people, from prophets to priests, tell lies.

14 My people have been hurt very badly. The prophets and priests should bandage those wounds. But they treat those wounds like they are only a small scratch. They say, ‘It is all right, everything is fine!’ But it is not all right!

15 The priests and prophets should be ashamed of the bad things they do. But they are not ashamed at all. They don’t know enough to be embarrassed of their sins. So they will be punished with everyone else. They will be thrown to the ground when I punish the people.”

The Lord said those things.

16 The Lord says these things: “Stand at the crossroads and look. Ask where the old road is. Ask where the good road is, and walk on that road. If you do, you will find rest for yourselves. But you people have said, ‘We will not walk on the good road!’

17 I chose watchmen to watch over you. I told them, ‘Listen for the sound of the war trumpet.’ But they said, ‘We will not listen!’

18 So, listen, all you nations! Pay attention, you people in those countries!*

19 Hear this, people of the earth. I am going to bring disaster to the people of Judah. Why? Because of all the bad things that those people planned. And because they ignored my messages. Those people refused to obey my law.”

Pay … countries  The Hebrew is hard to understand here.

20 The Lord says,* “Why do you bring me incense* from the country of Sheba?* Why do you bring me sweet-smelling cane from a far away country? Your burnt offerings don’t make me happy. Your sacrifices don’t please me.”

21 So, this is what the Lord says: “I will give the people of Judah problems. They will be like stones that make people fall. Fathers and sons will stumble over them. Friends and neighbors will die.”

22 This is what the Lord says: “An army is coming from the north.* A great nation is coming from faraway places on earth.

23 The soldiers carry bows and spears. They are cruel. They have no mercy. They are so powerful. They sound like the roaring ocean as they ride their horses. That army is coming ready for battle. That army is coming to attack you, Daughter of Zion.”*

24 We have heard the news about that army. We are helpless from fear. We feel trapped by our troubles. We are like a woman that is having a baby.

25 Don’t go out into the fields. Don’t go on the roads. Why? Because the enemy has swords and there is danger everywhere.

26 My people, put on sackcloth*, and roll in the ashes.*

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God. Sheba A land south of Israel, located where part of Saudi Arabia is today. Sheba controlled the spice trade in the time of Jeremiah. north This refers to the army of Babylon coming from the north to attack the nation of Judah. Daughter of Zion A name for the city of Jerusalem. sackcloth A kind of cloth that people wore to show they were sad or crying for dead people. roll in the ashes This is one way people showed that they were sad or crying for a dead person.
Cry loud for the dead people.
Cry like you lost an only son.
Do these things because the destroyer will come against us very quickly.

27 “Jeremiah, I (the Lord) made you like a worker that tests metals.
You will test my people
and watch how they live.

28 My people have turned against me,
and they are very stubborn.
They say bad things about people.
They are like bronze and iron,
that are covered with rust and tarnish.

29 They are like a worker that tried to make silver pure.
The bellows* blew strongly and the fire became hotter*.
But only lead came from the fire!*
The worker wasted his time trying to make that silver pure.
In the same way, the evil was not removed from my people*.

30 My people will be called, ‘Rejected Silver.’
They will be given that name because the Lord did not accept them.”

Jeremiah’s Temple Sermon

This is the Lord’s message to Jeremiah:
2Jeremiah, stand at the gate of the Lord’s house. Preach this message at the gate:

“Hear the message from the Lord, all you people of the nation of Judah. All you people that come through these gates to worship the Lord, hear this message. 3The Lord is the God of the people of Israel. This is what the Lord All-Powerful says: ‘Change your lives and do good things. If you do this, I will let you live in this place.’ 4Don’t trust the lies that some people say. They say, ‘This is the temple* of the Lord, the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord*!’ 5If you change your lives and do good things, I will let you live in this place. You must be fair to each other. 6You must be fair to strangers. You must do the right things for widows and orphans.* Don’t kill innocent people! Don’t follow other gods! Why? Because they will ruin your lives. 7If you obey me, I will let you live in this place. I gave this land to your ancestors* for them to keep forever.

8“But you are trusting lies. And those lies are worthless. 9Will you steal and murder?
Will you do the sin of adultery*? Will you falsely accuse other people? Will you worship the false god Baal* and follow other gods that you have not known? 10If you do those sins, do you think that you can stand before me in this house that is called by my name? Do you think you can stand before me and say, “We are safe,” just so you can do all these terrible things? 11This temple* is called by my name! Is this temple nothing more to you than a hideout for robbers? I have been watching you.” This message is from the Lord.

12“You people of Judah, go now to the town of Shiloh. Go to the place where I first made a house for my name. The people of Israel also did evil things. Go and see what I did to that place because of the evil things they did.* 13You people of Israel were doing all these evil things”—This message is from the Lord!—“I spoke to you again and again, but you refused to listen to me. I called to you, but you did not answer. 14So I will destroy the house called by my name in Jerusalem. I will destroy that temple* like I bells A tool for blowing air on a fire to make the fire hotter.

lead came from the fire Workers melted metals like silver to make the metals pure. Lead was the first metal to melt, so the workers poured the lead out, leaving the other metal pure.
Here Jeremiah is saying the people are all bad—they are all lead and no silver!
I will ... place This can also mean, “I will live with you.”
temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

This is ... Lord Many people in Jerusalem thought that the Lord would always protect Jerusalem because his temple was there. They thought God would protect Jerusalem, no matter how evil the people where.

widows and orphans Widows are women whose husbands have died, and orphans are children whose parents have died.
Often these people have no one to care for them.
ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents,
grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
adultery Breaking the marriage promise by sexual sin.
Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.
Go ... they did Shiloh was probably destroyed by the Philistines in the time of Eli and Samuel. See 1 Sam. 4. destroyed Shiloh. And that house in Jerusalem that is called by my name is the temple that you trust in. I gave that place to you and to your ancestors. 15I will throw you away from me just like I threw away all your brothers from Ephraim.*

16“As for you, Jeremiah, don’t pray for these people of Judah. Don’t beg for them or pray for them. Don’t beg for me to help them. I will not listen to your prayer for them. 17I know you see what those people are doing in the towns of Judah. You can see what they are doing in the streets of the city of Jerusalem. 18This is what the people of Judah are doing: The children gather wood. The fathers use the wood to make a fire. The women make the dough and make cakes of bread to offer to the Queen of Heaven.* Those people of Judah pour out drink offerings to worship other gods. They do this to make me angry. 19But I am not the one the people of Judah are really hurting.” This message is from the Lord. “They are only hurting themselves. They are bringing shame on themselves.”

20So the Lord says this: “I will show my anger against this place. I will punish people and animals. I will punish the trees in the field and the crops that grow in the ground. My anger will be like a hot fire—and no person will be able to stop it.”

The Lord Wants Obedience More than Sacrifice

21The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says these things: “Go and offer as many burnt offerings and sacrifices as you want. Eat the meat of those sacrifices yourselves. 22I brought your ancestors* out of Egypt. I spoke to them, but I did not give them any commands about burnt offerings and sacrifices. 23I only gave them this command: ‘Obey me and I will be your God, and you will be my people. Do all that I command, and good things will happen to you.

24“But your ancestors* did not listen to me. They did not pay attention to me. They were stubborn and did the things they wanted to do. They did not become good. They became even more evil—they went backward, not forward. 25From the day that your ancestors left Egypt to this day, I have sent my servants to you. My servants are the prophets. I sent them to you again and again. 26But your ancestors did not listen to me. They did not pay attention to me. They were very stubborn and did evil worse than their fathers.

27“Jeremiah, you will tell these things to the people of Judah. But they won’t listen to you! You call to them, but they won’t answer you. 28So you must tell them these things: This is the nation that did not obey the Lord its God. These people did not listen to God’s teachings. These people don’t know the true teachings.

The Valley of Slaughter

29“Jeremiah, cut off your hair and throw it away.* Go up to the bare hilltop and cry. Why? Because the Lord has rejected this generation of people. The Lord has turned his back on these people. And in anger, he will punish them. 30Do this because I have seen the people of Judah doing evil things.” This message is from the Lord. “They have set up their idols. And I hate those idols! They have set up idols in the temple that is called by my name. They have made my house ‘dirty’! 31The people of Judah have built the high places* of Topheth in the Valley of Ben Hinnom. In those places the people killed their own sons and daughters—they burned them as sacrifices. This is something I never commanded. Something like this never even entered my mind! 32So, I warn you. The days are coming,” this message is from the Lord, “when people won’t call this place Topheth or the Valley of Ben Hinnom anymore. No, they Ephraim. This is the northern kingdom of Israel.

Queen of Heaven. Probably the false god Astarte. She was the goddess of sex and war. People in Mesopotamia worshiped her. They thought she was the planet Venus, which looks like a star in the sky.
ancestors. Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
cut away. This showed Jeremiah was sad.
high places. Special places where the people worshiped false gods. These places were often on hilltops, but not always. Some high places were in valleys.
will call it the Valley of Slaughter.* They will give it this name because they will bury the dead people in Topheth until there is no more room to bury anyone else. 33 Then the bodies of the dead people will lie on top of the ground and become food for the birds of the sky. Wild animals will eat the bodies of those people. There will be no person left alive to chase the birds or animals away. 34 I will bring an end to the sounds of joy and happiness in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. There will be no more sounds of the bride and bridegroom in Judah or Jerusalem. The land will become an empty desert.”

8 This message is from the Lord: “At that time, men will take the bones of the kings and important rulers of Judah from their tombs.* They will take the bones of the priests and prophets from their tombs. They will take the bones of all the people of Jerusalem from their tombs. 2 Those men will spread those bones on the ground under the sun, the moon, and the stars. The people of Jerusalem love to worship the sun, the moon, and the stars. No person will gather those bones and bury them again. So, the bones of those people will be like dung thrown on the ground.

3 “I will force the people of Judah to leave their homes and their land. The people will be taken away to foreign lands. Some of the people of Judah that were not killed in the war will wish that they had been killed.” This message is from the Lord.

Sin and Punishment

4 Jeremiah, say this to the people of Judah:

The Lord says these things:

“You know if a man falls down, he gets up again.
And if a man goes the wrong way, he turns around and comes back.

Slaughter Usually, this word means to kill an animal and cut it into pieces of meat. But it often means to kill people like they are animals.

tombs A grave dug in a wall of rock.
My people have been hurt very badly. The prophets and priests should bandage those wounds. But they treat those wounds like they are only a small scratch. They say, ‘It is all right, everything is fine!’ But it is not all right!

They should be ashamed of the bad things they do. But they are not ashamed at all. They don’t know enough to be embarrassed of their sins. So they will be punished with everyone else. They will be thrown to the ground when I punish the people.”

The Lord said those things.

“I will take away their fruit and crops, so that there will be no harvest.” This message is from the Lord. “There will not be any grapes on the vine. There will not be any figs on the fig tree. Even the leaves will become dry and die. I will take away the things I gave them.”

Why are we just sitting here? Come, let’s run to the strong cities. If the Lord our God is going to make us die, then let’s die there. We have sinned against the Lord, so God gave us poisoned water to drink.

We hoped to have peace, but nothing good has come. We hoped that he would forgive us, but only disaster has come.

From the land of the family group of Dan, we hear the snorting of the enemy’s horses. The ground shakes from the pounding of their hooves. They have come to destroy the land and everything in it. They have come to destroy the city and all the people that live there.

I will take away … gave them The Hebrew of this line is hard to understand.

snorting The sound that comes from breathing very hard through the nose.

hooves The hard part of the feet of certain animals.

“People of Judah, I am sending poisonous snakes* to attack you. Those snakes can’t be controlled. Those snakes will bite you.”

This message is from the Lord.

God, I am very sad and afraid.

Listen to my people. Everywhere in this country people are crying for help. They say, “Is the Lord still at Zion? Is Zion’s King still there?”

But God says, “The people of Judah worshiped their worthless foreign idols. That made me very angry! Why did they do that?

And the people say, “Harvest time is over. Summer is gone. And still we have not been saved.”

My people are hurt, so I am hurt. I am too sad to speak.

Surely there is some medicine in Gilead. Surely there is a doctor in Gilead. So why are the hurts of my people not healed?

If my head was filled with water, and if my eyes were a fountain of tears, I would cry day and night for my people that have been destroyed.

If only I had a place in the desert, a house where travelers spend the night, I could leave my people. I could go away from those people. Why? Because they are all unfaithful to God. They have all turned against him.

“Those people use their tongues like a bow; lies fly from their mouths like arrows.

poisonous snakes This probably means one of Judah’s enemies.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
869  JEREMIAH 9:4–17

Lies, not truth, have grown strong in this land.
Those people go from one sin to another.
They don’t know me.”
The Lord said these things.

4 “Watch your neighbors!
Don’t trust your own brothers!
Why? Because every brother is a cheat.
Every neighbor talks behind your back.

5 Every person lies to his neighbor.
No person speaks the truth.
The people of Judah have taught their tongues to lie.
They sinned until they were too tired to come back.

6 One bad thing followed another.
And lies followed lies.
The people refused to know me.”
The Lord said those things.

7 So, the Lord All-Powerful says:
“A worker heats metal in a fire to test if it is pure.
I will test the people of Judah like that.
I have no other choice.
My people have sinned.

8 The people of Judah have tongues that are like sharp arrows.
Their mouths speak lies.
Each person speaks nice to his neighbor.
But he is secretly planning ways to attack his neighbor.

9 I should punish the people of Judah.”
This message is from the Lord.
“You know that I should punish that kind of people.
I should give them the punishment that they deserve.”

10 I (Jeremiah) will cry loud for the mountains.
I will sing a funeral song for the empty fields.
Why? Because the living things were taken away.
No person travels there now.
The sounds of cattle can’t be heard there.
The birds have flown away and the animals are gone.

11 “I (the Lord) will make the city of Jerusalem a pile of garbage.

12 It will be a home for jackals.*
I will destroy the cities in the land of Judah, so no one will live there.”

12 Is there a man that is wise enough to understand these things?
Is there some person that has been taught by the Lord?
Can anyone explain the Lord’s message?
Why was the land ruined?
Why was it made like an empty desert where no people go?

13 The Lord answered these questions. He said, “It is because the people of Judah quit following my teachings.
I gave them my teachings, but they refused to listen to me.
They did not follow my teachings.

14 The people of Judah lived their own way.
They were stubborn.
They followed the false god Baal.*
Their fathers taught them to follow those false gods.”

15 So the Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says,
“I will soon make the people of Judah eat bitter food.
I will make them drink poisoned water.

16 I will scatter the people of Judah through other nations.
They will live in strange nations.
They and their fathers never knew about those countries.
I will send men with swords.
Those men will kill the people of Judah.
They will kill them until the people are finished.”

17 This is what the Lord All-Powerful says: “Now, think about these things!
Call for the women that get paid to cry at funerals.
Send for the people that are good at that job.

*jackals A wild animal, like a dog. Those animals only live where there are no people.
*Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.
18 “The people say, ‘Let those women come quickly and cry for us. Then our eyes will fill with tears, and streams of water will come out of our eyes.’”

19 “The sound of loud crying is heard from Zion*: ‘We are truly ruined! We are truly ashamed! We must leave our land, because our houses have been destroyed. Now our houses are only piles of rock.’”

20 Now, women of Judah, listen to the message from the Lord. Listen to the words from the Lord’s mouth. [The Lord says,] “Teach your daughters how to cry loud. Each woman must learn to sing this funeral song:

21 ‘Death has come. Death climbed in through our windows. Death came into our palaces,* Death has come to our children that play in the streets. Death has come to the young men that meet in the public places.’

22 “Jeremiah, say these things: ‘The Lord says, Dead bodies will lie in the fields like dung. Their bodies will lie on the ground like grain a farmer has cut. But there will be no one to gather them.’”

23 The Lord says: “Wise men must not brag about their wisdom. Strong men must not brag about their strength. Rich men must not brag about their money.

24 But if someone wants to brag, then let him brag about these things: Let him brag that he learned to know me. Let him brag that he understands that I am the Lord that I am kind and fair and that I do good things on earth. I love those things.”

This message is from the Lord.

25 This message is from the Lord. “The time is coming when I will punish all the people that are circumcised* only in the body. I am talking about the people of the nations of Egypt, Judah, Edom, Ammon, Moab, and all the people that live in the desert. The men in all those countries really were not circumcised in their bodies. But the people from the family of Israel were not circumcised in their hearts.”

The Lord and the Idols

10 Family of Israel, listen to the Lord! This is what the Lord says:

“Don’t live like people from other nations. Don’t be afraid of special signs in the sky.* The other nations are afraid of the things that they see in the sky. But you must not be afraid of those things.

3 The customs of other people are worth nothing. Their idols are nothing but wood from the forest. Their idols are made by a worker with his chisel.

4 They make their idols beautiful with silver and gold. They use hammers and nails to fasten their idols down, so they will not fall over.

5 The idols of the other nations are like a scarecrow in a cucumber field.

circumcised To have the foreskin cut off. This was done to every Jewish male to show he shared in the Agreement God made with Israel. See Gen. 17:9–14.

special signs in the sky People believed that such things as comets, meteors, or eclipses of the sun and moon could be used to learn what was going to happen in the future.
Those idols can’t walk.
They can’t talk.
And the people must carry them.
So don’t be afraid of those idols.
They can’t hurt you.
And they can’t help you either!”

6 Lord, there is no one like you!
You are great!
Your name is great and powerful!
7 Every person should respect you, God.
You are the King of all the nations.
You deserve their respect.
There are many wise men among the nations.
But none of those people are as wise
as you.
8 All the people of the other nations are stupid and foolish.
Their teachings come from worthless wooden statues.
9 They use silver from the city of Tarshish and gold from the city of Uphaz and make their statues.
Carpenters and metal-workers make those idols.
They put blue and purple clothes on those idols.
“Wise men” make those “gods.”
10 But the Lord is the only true God.
He is the only God who is truly alive.
He is the King that rules forever.
The earth shakes when God is angry.
The people of the nations can’t stop his anger.

11 The Lord says,
“Tell this message to those people:
‘Those false gods did not make heaven and earth.
And those false gods will be destroyed and disappear from heaven and earth.”’

God is the One who used his power and made the earth.
God used his wisdom and built the world.
With his understanding,
God stretched out the sky over the earth.
13 God causes the loud thunder, and he causes great floods of water to fall from the sky.
He makes clouds rise in the sky every place on earth.
He sends lightning with the rain.
He brings out the wind from his storehouses.
14 People are so stupid!
Metal workers are fooled by the idols that they themselves made.
Those statues are nothing but lies.
They are stupid.*
15 Those idols are worth nothing.
They are something to make fun of.
In the time of judgment,
those idols will be destroyed.
16 But Jacob’s God* is not like those idols.
God made everything.
And Israel is the family that God chose to be his own people.
God’s name is “Lord All-Powerful.”

Destruction Is Coming
17 Get everything you own and prepare to leave.
You people of Judah are caught in the city,
and the enemy is all around it.
18 The Lord says:
“This time, I will throw the people of Judah out of this country.
I will bring pain and trouble to them.
I will do this so they will learn their lesson.”*
19 Oh, I (Jeremiah) am hurt badly. I am injured and I can’t be healed. Yet I told myself, “This is my sickness, I must suffer through it.”

20 My tent is ruined. All the tent’s ropes are broken. My children left me. They are gone. No person is left to put up my tent. No person is left to fix a shelter for me.

21 The shepherds (leaders) are stupid. They don’t try to find the Lord. They are not wise, so their flocks (people) are scattered and lost.

22 Listen! A loud noise! The loud noise is coming from the north.* It will destroy the cities of Judah. Judah will become an empty desert. It will be a home for jackals.*

23 Lord, I know that a person does not really own his life. People don’t really know the right way to live.

24 Lord, correct us! But be fair! Don’t punish us in anger!

25 If you are angry, then punish the other nations. They don’t know or respect you. Those people don’t worship you. Those nations destroyed Jacob’s family. They destroyed Israel completely. They destroyed Israel’s homeland.

The Agreement Is Broken

11 This is the message that came to Jeremiah. This message came from the Lord: “Jeremiah, listen to the words of this Agreement.* Tell the people of Judah about these things. Tell these things to the people living in Jerusalem. This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: ‘Bad things will happen to any person that does not obey this Agreement.’ I am talking about the Agreement I made with your ancestors.* I made that Agreement with them at the time I brought them out of Egypt. Egypt was a place of many troubles—it was like an oven hot enough to melt iron. I told those people: Obey me and do everything I command you. If you do this, you will be my people, and I will be your God.

I (Jeremiah) answered, “Amen,* Lord.”

6The Lord said to me, “Jeremiah, preach this message in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. This is the message: Listen to the words of this Agreement.* And then obey those laws. I gave a warning to your ancestors* at the time I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I warned them again and again to this very day. I told them to obey me. But your ancestors did not listen to me. They were stubborn and did what their own evil hearts wanted. The Agreement says that bad things will happen to them if they don’t obey. So I made all those bad things happen to them! I commanded them to obey the Agreement, but they did not.”

9The Lord said to me, “Jeremiah, I know that the people of Judah and the people living in Jerusalem have made secret plans. Those people are doing the same sins that their ancestors did. Their ancestors* refused to listen to my message. They followed and worshiped other gods. The family of Israel and the family of Judah have broken the Agreement* I made with their ancestors.”

north This refers to the army of Babylon coming from the north to attack the nation of Judah.

jackals A wild animal, like a dog. Those animals only live where no people are.

Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Amen The Hebrew word “amen” means, “truly,” or “indeed.” It is used to show that the person agrees with what has been said.
11 So the Lord says: “I will soon make something terrible happen to the people of Judah. They will not be able to escape! They will be sorry. And they will cry to me for help. But I will not listen to them. 12 The people in the towns of Judah and in the city of Jerusalem will go and pray to their idols for help. Those people burn incense* to those idols. But those idols will not be able to help the people of Judah when that terrible time comes.

13 “People of Judah, you have many idols—there are as many idols as there are towns in Judah. You have built many altars for worshiping that disgusting god Baal*—there are as many altars as there are streets in Jerusalem.

14 “As for you, Jeremiah, don’t pray for these people of Judah. Don’t beg for them. Don’t say prayers for them. I will not listen. Those people will begin to suffer. And then they will call to me for help. But I will not listen.

15* “Why is my lover (Judah) in my house (temple)? She has no right to be there. She had done many evil things. Judah, do you think that special promises and animal sacrifices will stop you from being destroyed? Do you think you can escape punishment by offering sacrifices to me?”

16 The Lord gave you a name. He called you, ‘A green olive tree, beautiful to look at.’ But with a strong storm, the Lord will set that tree on fire, and its branches will be burned up.

17 The Lord All-Powerful planted you. And he said that disaster will come to you. Why? Because the family of Israel and the family of Judah have done evil things.

18 The Lord showed me that the men of Anathoth* were making plots against me. The Lord showed me the things they were doing, so I knew they were against me. 19 Before the Lord showed me that the people were against me, I was like a gentle lamb waiting to be butchered. I did not understand that they were against me. They were saying these things about me: “Let us destroy the tree and its fruit! Let us kill him! Then people will forget him.” 20 But Lord, you are a fair judge. You know how to test peoples’ hearts and minds. I will tell you my arguments. And I will let you give them the punishment they deserve.

21 The men from Anathoth were planning to kill Jeremiah. Those men said to Jeremiah, “Don’t prophesy* in the name of the Lord, or we will kill you.” The Lord made a decision about those men from Anathoth. 22 The Lord All-Powerful said, “I will soon punish those men from Anathoth. Their young men will die in war. Their sons and daughters will die from hunger. 23 No person from the city of Anathoth will be left. No person will survive. I will punish them. I will cause something bad to happen to them.”

12 Lord, if I argue with you, you are always right! But I want to ask you about some things that don’t seem right. Why are wicked people successful? Why do people you can’t trust have such easy lives?

2 You have put those wicked people here. They are like plants with strong roots, they grow and produce fruit.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

Verses 15–16 We are not sure of the exact meaning of verses 15–16.

men of Anathoth Anathoth was Jeremiah’s home town. The people that were plotting against him there included his own relatives. See Jer. 12:6.

prophesy To speak for God.
With their mouths, they say that you are near and dear to them.
But in their hearts, they are really far away from you.

3 But you know my heart, Lord.
You see me and test my mind.
Drag those evil people away like sheep to be butchered.
Choose them for the day of slaughter.

4 How much longer will the land be dry?
How long will the grass be dry and dead?
The animals and birds in the land have died,
And it is the fault of the wicked people.
Yet those wicked people are saying,
"Jeremiah will not live long enough to see what happens to us."

God’s Answer to Jeremiah

5 “Jeremiah, if you get tired running in a footrace with men, how will you race against horses?
If you get tired in a safe place,
what will you do in a dangerous place?
What will you do in the thorn bushes that grow along the Jordan River?

6 These men are your own brothers.
Members of your own family are making plans against you.
People from your own family are yelling at you.
Don’t trust them,
even when they speak to you like friends.”

The Lord Rejects His People, Judah

7 “I have abandoned my house.
I have left my own property.*I have given the one I love (Judah) to her enemies.

8 My own people turned against me like a wild lion.
They roared at me,
so I turned away from them.

9 My own people have become like a dying animal surrounded by vultures.
Those birds fly around her.
Come on, wild animals.
Come get something to eat.

10 Many shepherds (leaders) have ruined my field of grapes.
Those shepherds have walked on the plants in my field.
Those shepherds have made my beautiful field into an empty desert.

11 They changed my field to a desert.
It is dry and dead.
No people live there.
The whole country is an empty desert.
There is no person left to care for that field.

12 Soldiers came to take things from every place in that empty land.
The Lord used those armies to punish that land.
People from one end of the land to the other were punished.
No person was safe.

13 The people will plant wheat,
but they will harvest only thorns.
They will work hard until they are very tired,
but they will get nothing for all their work.
They will be ashamed of their crop.
The Lord’s anger caused those things.”

The Lord’s Promise to Israel’s Neighbors

14 This is what the Lord says: “I will tell you what I will do for all the people that live around the land of Israel. Those people are very wicked. They have destroyed the land I gave to the people of Israel. I will pull those evil people up and throw them out of their land. And I will pull the people of Judah up with them.

15 But after I pull those people out of their land, I will feel sorry for them. I will bring each family back to its own property and to its own land. I want those people to learn their lessons well. In the past, those people taught my people to use Baal’s* name to make promises. Now, I want those people to learn their lessons just as well. I want those people to learn to use my name. I want those people to say, ‘As the Lord lives …’ If those people do that, then I will *house … my own property  That is, the people of Judah. allow them to be successful and I will let them live among my people. 17 But if any nation does not listen to my message, then I will completely destroy it. I will pull it up like a dead plant.”

Baal  The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

This message is from the Lord.

The Sign of the Loincloth

This is what the Lord said to me: “Jeremiah, go and buy a linen loincloth.* Then put it around your waist. Don’t let the loincloth get wet.”

So I bought a linen loincloth,* just as the Lord told me to do. And I put it around my waist. Then the message of the Lord came to me a second time. This was the message: “Jeremiah, take the loincloth you bought and are wearing, and go to Perath.* Hide the loincloth there in a crack in the rocks.”

So I went to Perath* and hid the loincloth* there, just like the Lord told me to do. Many days later, the Lord said to me, “Now, Jeremiah, go to Perath. Get the loincloth that I told you to hide there.”

So I went to Perath and dug up the loincloth.* I took it out of the crack in the rocks where I had hidden it. But now I could not wear the loincloth, because it was ruined. It was not good for anything.

Then the message of the Lord came to me. This is what the Lord said: “The loincloth* is ruined and not good for anything. In the same way, I will ruin the proud people of Judah and Jerusalem. I will ruin those proud and evil people of Judah. They refuse to listen to my messages. They are stubborn and do only the things they want to do. They follow and worship other gods. Those people of Judah will become like this linen loincloth. They will be ruined and not good for anything. A loincloth is wrapped tightly around a man’s waist. In the same way, I wrapped all the family of Israel and all the family of Judah around me.” This message is from the Lord.” I did that so those people would be my people. Then my people would bring fame, praise, and honor to me. But my people would not listen to me.”

Warnings to Judah

“Jeremiah, say to the people of Judah: ‘This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: Every wineskin* should be filled with wine.’ Those people will laugh and say to you, ‘Of course, we know that every wineskin should be filled with wine.’ Then you will say to them, ‘This is what the Lord says: I will make everyone that lives in this land helpless, like a drunken man. I am talking about the kings that sit on David’s throne. I am also talking about the priests, the prophets, and all the people that live in Jerusalem. I will make the people of Judah stumble and fall into one another. Fathers and sons will fall into one another.’” This message is from the Lord. “I will not feel sorry or have pity for them. I will not allow compassion to stop me from destroying the people of Judah.”

Listen and pay attention.

The Lord has spoken to you.

Don’t be proud.

Honor the Lord your God.

Praise him or he will bring darkness.

Praise him before you fall on the dark hills.

You people of Judah are hoping for light.

But the Lord will turn the light into thick darkness.

The Lord will change the light into a very thick darkness.

If you people of Judah don’t listen to the Lord,

I will hide and cry.

Your pride will cause me to cry.

I will cry very hard.

My eyes will overflow with tears.

Why? Because the Lord’s flock* will be captured.

loincloth  A common undergarment in ancient Judah. It was a short skirt that was wrapped around the hips. It reached about halfway down the thighs.

Perath  Probably a village near Jerusalem. It is probably the town that is called Parah in the list of the cities of the land of Benjamin in Joshua 18:23. But the name “Perath” also means the Euphrates River.

wineskin  A bottle made from the skin of an animal and used for storing wine.

Lord’s flock  This is a figurative name for the people of Judah. The Lord is thought of as a shepherd, while his people are seen as his flock of sheep.
Tell these things to the king and his wife, “Come down from your thrones. Your beautiful crowns have fallen from your heads.”

The cities in the Negev desert* are locked. No person can open them. All the people of Judah are taken into exile.* They were carried away as prisoners.

Jerusalem, look! The enemy is coming from the north!* Where is your flock?* God gave that beautiful flock to you. You were supposed to care for that flock.

What will you say when the Lord asks you to account for that flock? You were supposed to teach the people about God.* Your leaders were supposed to lead the people. But they did not do their job! So you will have much pain and troubles. You will be like a woman having a baby.

You might ask yourself, “Why has this bad thing happened to me?” Those things happened because of your many sins. Because of your sins, your skirt was torn off and your shoes were taken away. They did this to embarrass you.

A black man can’t change the color of his skin. And a leopard can’t change his spots. In the same way, Jerusalem, you can’t change and do good. You always do bad things.

“I will force you to leave your homes. You will run in all directions.

You will be like chaff* blown away by the desert wind.

These are the things that will happen to you. This is your part in my plans.”

This message is from the Lord. “Why will this happen? Because you forgot me. You trusted false gods.

Jerusalem, I will pull your skirt up over your face. Everyone will see you, and you will be ashamed.

I saw the terrible things you did.* I saw you laughing and having sex with your lovers. I know about your plans to be like a prostitute.* I have seen you on the hills and in the fields. It will be very bad for you, Jerusalem. I wonder how long you will continue doing your dirty sins.”

Drought and False Prophets

This is the Lord’s message to Jeremiah about the drought:*”

“’The nation of Judah cries for people that have died. The people in the cities of Judah grow weaker and weaker. Those people lie on the ground. People in Jerusalem cry to God for help.

The leaders of the people send their servants to get water. The servants go to the water storage places, but they don’t find any water. The servants come back with empty jars. So they are ashamed and embarrassed. They cover their heads from shame.

Negev desert The desert area in the southern part of the kingdom of Judah.

exile Being forced to leave one’s home country and being moved to a foreign country.

north This refers to the army of Babylon coming from the north to attack the nation of Judah.

flock Here, the word “flock” refers to all the towns around Jerusalem, as if Jerusalem were the shepherd and the towns of Judah were her flock.

chaff The seed coverings and stems separated from the seeds of plants like wheat or barley. Farmers saved the seeds but let the wind blow the useless chaff away.

I saw ... you did This is probably talking about worshipping false gods. But part of that worship was having sex with temple prostitutes.

prostitute A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stops following him.

drought A time when no rain falls and the crops become dry and die.
4 No person prepares the ground for crops.*
No rain falls on the land.
The farmers are depressed.
So they cover their heads from shame.
5 Even the mother deer in the field leaves her newborn baby alone.
She does this because there is no grass.
6 Wild donkeys stand on the bare hills.
They sniff the wind like jackals.*
But their eyes can’t find any food,
because there are no plants to eat.
7 “We know that those things are our fault.
We are now suffering because of our sins.
Lord, do something to help us for the good of your name.
We admit that we left you many times.
We have sinned against you.
8 God, you are the Hope of Israel!
You save Israel in times of trouble.
But now it seems like you are a stranger in the land.
It seems like you are a traveler that only stays one night.
9 You seem like a man that has been attacked by surprise.
You seem like a soldier that does not have the power to save anyone.
But Lord, you are with us.
We are called by your name,
So don’t leave us without help!”
10 This is what the Lord says about the people of Judah: “The people of Judah really love to leave me. Those people don’t stop themselves from leaving me. So now, the Lord will not accept them. Now the Lord will remember the bad things they do. The Lord will punish them for their sins.”
11 Then the Lord said to me, “Jeremiah, don’t pray for good things to happen to the people of Judah. 12 The people of Judah might begin to fast* and pray to me, But I will not listen to their prayers. Even if they offer burnt offerings and grain offerings to me, I will not accept those people. I will destroy the people of Judah with war. I will take away their food, and the people of Judah will starve. And I will destroy them with terrible diseases.” 13 But I said to the Lord, “Lord, my Master, the prophets were telling the people something different. They were telling the people of Judah, ‘You people will not suffer from an enemy’s sword. You will never suffer from hunger. The Lord will give you peace in this land.’”
14 Then the Lord said to me, “Jeremiah,
those prophets are preaching lies in my name.
I did not send those prophets. I did not command them or speak to them. Those prophets have been preaching false visions, worthless magic, and their own wishful thinking. 15 So this is what I say about the prophets that are preaching in my name. I did not send those prophets. Those prophets said, ‘No enemy with swords will ever attack this country. There will never be hunger in this land.’ Those prophets will die from hunger and an enemy’s sword will kill them. 16 And the people those prophets spoke to will be thrown into the streets. Those people will die from hunger and from an enemy’s sword. No person will be there to bury those people, or their wives or their sons or daughters. I will punish them.
17 “Jeremiah, speak this message
to the people of Judah:
‘My eyes are filled with tears.
I will cry night and day without stopping.
I will cry for my virgin daughter.*
I will cry for my people.
Why? Because someone hit them and crushed them.
They have been hurt very badly.
18 If I go into the country,
I see the people that were killed with swords.
If I go into the city,
I see much sickness,
because the people have no food.
The priests and the prophets have been taken away to a foreign land.””

No person prepares the ground for crops  Following the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew is hard to understand. jackals  A wild animal, like a dog. Those animals only live where no people are.
fast  Going without food for a special time of prayer and worship.

virgin daughter  This is another name for Jerusalem.
“Lord, have you completely rejected
the nation of Judah?
Lord, do you hate Zion*?
You hurt us so badly
that we can't be made well again.
Why did you do that?
We were hoping for peace,
but nothing good has come.
We were hoping for a time of healing,
but only terror came.

Lord, we know that we are evil people.
We know that our ancestors*
did bad things.
Yes, we sinned against you.

Lord, for the good of your name,
don't push us away.
Don't take away the honor
from your glorious throne.
Remember your Agreement* with us.
Don't break that Agreement.

Foreign idols don't have the power to bring rain.
The sky does not have the power to send showers of rain down.
You are our only hope.
You are the One who made all
these things.”

The Lord said to me, “Jeremiah, even if Moses and Samuel were here to pray for the people of Judah, I would not feel sorry for these people. Send the people of Judah away from me. Tell them to go. Those people might ask you, ‘Where will we go?’ You tell them this: This is what the Lord says:

‘I have chosen some people to die.
Those people will die.
I have chosen some people
to be killed with swords.
Those people will be killed with swords.
I have chosen some people
to die from hunger.

Those people will die from hunger.
I have chosen some people to be captured and carried to a foreign country.
Those people will be prisoners in that foreign country.

I will send four kinds of destroyers against them.’
This message is from the Lord.
‘I will send the enemy with a sword to kill.
I will send the dogs to drag their bodies away.
I will send birds of the air and wild animals to eat and destroy their bodies.

I will make the people of Judah an example of some terrible thing for all the people on earth.
I will do this to the people of Judah because of what Manasseh* did
in Jerusalem.
Manasseh was the son of King Hezekiah.
Manasseh was a king of Judah.’

‘No person will feel sorry for you,
city of Jerusalem.
No person will be sad and cry for you.
No person will go out of his way to even ask how you are!

Jerusalem, you left me.”
This message is from the Lord.

‘Again and again you left me!
So I will punish and destroy you.
I am tired of holding back your punishment.

I will separate the people of Judah with my pitchfork.*
I will scatter them at the city gates of the land.
My people have not changed.
So I will destroy them.
I will take away their children.

Many women will lose their husbands.
There will be more widows than there is sand in the sea.
I will bring a destroyer at noontime.
The destroyer will attack the mothers of the young men of Judah.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents,
grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement
between God and Israel.

Manasseh Manasseh was the most evil king of Judah, according to 2 Kings 21:1–16. He worshiped many gods.
pitchfork A tool with sharp points for throwing hay from one place to another.
I will bring pain and fear
on the people of Judah.
I will make this happen very quickly.

9 The enemy will attack with swords and kill the people.
They will kill the survivors* from Judah.
A woman might have seven sons,
but they will all die.
She will cry and cry
until she becomes weak
and not able to breathe.
She will be upset and confused.
Her bright day will become dark from sadness.”

Jeremiah Again Complains to God

10 Mother, I (Jeremiah) am sorry that you gave birth to me.
I am the person that must accuse and criticize the whole land.
I have not loaned or borrowed anything.
But every person curses me.

11 Truly, Lord, I have served you well.
In time of troubles, I prayed to you about my enemies.

God Answers Jeremiah

12 “Jeremiah, you know that no person can shatter a piece of iron.
I mean the kind of iron that is from the north.*
And no person can shatter a piece of bronze either.

13 The people of Judah have many treasures.
I will give those riches to other people.
Those other people will not have to buy them.
I will give those riches to them.*
Why? Because Judah has many sins.
People sinned in every part of Judah

14 People of Judah, I will make you slaves of your enemies.
You will be slaves in a land that you never knew.

survivors  People that escaped some disaster. Here this means the Jewish people that survived the destruction of Judah and Israel by its enemy armies.

north  This refers to the army of Babylon coming from the north to attack the nation of Judah.
The people of Judah will fight against you. But they will not defeat you. They will not defeat you. Why? Because I am with you. I will help you and I will save you.”

This message is from the Lord.

“I will save you from those evil people. Those people scare you. But I will save you from those people.”

The Day of Disaster

The Lord’s message came to me: “Jeremiah, you must not get married. You must not have sons or daughters in this place.”

The Lord says these things about the sons and daughters that are born in the land of Judah. And this is what the Lord says about the mothers and fathers of those children: Those people will die a terrible death. No person will cry for those people. No person will bury them. Their bodies will lie on the ground like dung. Those people will die by an enemy’s sword, or they will starve to death. Their dead bodies will be food for the birds of the sky and the wild animals of the earth.”

So the Lord says: “Jeremiah, don’t go into a house where people are eating a funeral meal. Don’t go there to cry for the dead or show your sorrow. Don’t do those things. Why? Because I have taken back my blessing. I will not be kind to these people of Judah. I will not feel sorry for them.” This message is from the Lord.

Important people and common people will die in the land of Judah. No person will bury those people or cry for them. No person will cut himself or shave his head to show sorrow for those people. No person will bring food to the people that are crying for the dead. No person will comfort those people whose mother or father has died. No person will offer a drink to comfort the people that are crying for the dead.

“I will soon send for many fishermen to come to this land.” This message is from the Lord. “Those fishermen will catch the people of Judah. After that happens, I will send for many hunters to come to this land. Those hunters* will hunt the people of Judah on every mountain and hill and in the cracks of ancestors literally, “fathers” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from. fishermen ... hunters this means the enemy soldiers from Babylon.
18 I will pay the people of Judah back for the bad things they did—I will punish them two times for every sin. I will do this because they have made my land ‘dirty.’ They made my land ‘dirty’ with their terrible idols. I hate those idols. But they have filled my country with their idols.”

19 Lord, you are my strength and my protection. You are a safe place to run to in time of trouble. The nations will come to you from all around the world. They will say, “Our fathers had false gods. They worshiped those worthless idols, but those idols did not help them at all.”

20 Can people make real gods for themselves? No! They can make statues, but those statues are not really gods.

21 So I will teach those people that make idols. Right now I will teach them about my power and my strength. Then they will know that I am God. They will know that I am the Lord.”

Guilt Written on the Heart

“The sins of the people of Judah are written down in a place where they can’t be erased. Those sins were cut into stone with an iron pen. Those sins were cut into stone with a diamond tipped pen.* And that stone is their heart. Those sins were cut into the horns of their altars.*

diamond tipped pen Or, “flint-tipped pen.”
horns of their altars The corners of altars were shaped like horns. This was like a place of safety for the people. If a person did something wrong, he could run to the altar. People could punish them only if they proved the person was guilty. Here Jeremiah is saying that there is no safe place for the people of Judah.

2 Their children remember the altars that were dedicated to false gods. They remember the wooden poles that were dedicated to Asherah.* They remember those things under the green trees and on the hills.

3 They remember those things on the mountains in the open country. The people of Judah have many treasures. I will give those things to other people. People will destroy all the high places* in your country. You worshiped at those places. And that was a sin.

4 You will lose the land I gave you. I will let your enemies take you to be their slaves. Why? Because I am very angry. My anger is like a hot fire, and you will be burned forever.”

Trusting in People, and Trusting in God

5 The Lord says these things: “Bad things will happen to people that trust only other people. Bad things will happen to people that depend on other people for strength. Why? Because those people have stopped trusting the Lord.

6 Those people are like a bush in a desert. That bush is in a land where no people live. That bush is in a hot and dry land. That bush is in a bad soil. That bush does not know about the good things that God can give.

7 But the person that trusts in the Lord will be blessed. Why? Because the Lord will show him that the Lord can be trusted.

8 That person will be strong like a tree planted near water. That tree has large roots that find the water.

Asherah An important Canaanite goddess. At this time, the people thought she was the wife of Baal.

high places Special places where the people worshiped false gods. These places were often on hilltops, but not always. Some ‘high places’ were in valleys.
Jeremiah 17:9–24

That tree is not afraid when the days are hot.
Its leaves are always green.
It does not worry in a year when no rain comes.
That tree always produces fruit.

9 "A person’s mind is very tricky!
The mind can be very sick,
and no person truly understands it.

10 But I am the Lord, and I can look into a person’s heart.
I can test a person’s mind.
I can decide what each person should have.
I can give each person the right payment for the things he does.

11 Sometimes a bird will hatch an egg that it did not lay.
A person that cheats to get money is like that bird.
When that man’s life is half finished, he will lose the money.
At the end of his life, it will be clear that he was a foolish person.”

12 From the very beginning, our temple has been a glorious throne for God.
It is a very important place.

13 Lord, you are the hope of Israel.
Lord, you are like a spring of living water.
If a person quits following the Lord, then his life will be very short.*

Jeremiah’s Third Complaint

14 Lord, if you heal me, I truly will be healed.
Save me, and I truly will be saved.
Lord, I praise you!

15 The people of Judah continue to ask me questions.
They say, “Jeremiah, what about the message from the Lord? Let’s see that message come true.”

16 Lord, I did not run away from you.
I followed you.
I became the shepherd* you wanted.
I did not want the terrible day to come.
Lord, you know the things I said.
You see all that is happening.

17 Lord, don’t ruin me.
I depend on you in times of trouble.

18 People are hurting me.
Make those people ashamed.
But don’t disappoint me.
Let those people be scared.
But don’t scare me.
Bring the terrible day of disaster to my enemies.
Break them.
And break them again.

Keeping the Sabbath Day Holy

19 The Lord said these things to me: “Jeremiah, go and stand at the People’s Gate,* where the kings of Judah go in and out. Tell the people my message, and then go to all the other gates of Jerusalem and do the same things.”

20 Say to those people: “Listen to the message of the Lord. Listen, kings of Judah. Listen, all you people of Judah. All you people that come through these gates into Jerusalem, listen to me! The Lord says these things: Be careful that you don’t carry a load on the Sabbath* day. And don’t bring a load through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. Don’t bring a load out of your houses on the Sabbath day. Don’t do any work on that day. You must make the Sabbath day a holy day. I gave this same command to your ancestors.* But your ancestors did not obey me. They did not pay attention to me. Your ancestors were very stubborn. I punished them, but it did not do any good. They did not listen to me. But you must be careful to shepherd God’s people are sometimes called his “sheep,” and the person that takes care of them is called the “shepherd.”

People’s Gate This might be one of the gates into Jerusalem or perhaps one of the southern gates the non-priests used to go up into the temple.
Sabbath Saturday, a special day of rest and worship for Jews.
ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
obey me.” This message is from the Lord.

“You must not carry a load through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath. You must make the Sabbath day a holy day. You will do this by not doing any work on that day.

25“If you obey this command, then kings that sit on David’s throne will come through the gates of Jerusalem. Those kings will come riding on chariots* and on horses. The leaders of the people of Judah and Jerusalem will be with those kings. And Jerusalem will have people living in it forever! 26People will come to Jerusalem from the towns of Judah. People will come to Jerusalem from the little villages that are around it. People will come from the land where the family group of Benjamin lives.* People will come from the western foothills and from the hill country. And people will come from the Negev.* All those people will bring burnt offerings, sacrifices, grains offerings, incense,* and thank offerings. They will bring those offerings and sacrifices to the temple of the Lord.

27“But if you don’t listen to me and obey me, then bad things will happen. If you carry loads into Jerusalem on the Sabbath* day, then you are not keeping it a holy day. So I will start a fire that can’t be put out. That fire will start at the gates of Jerusalem, and it will burn until it burns even the palaces.*”

The Potter and the Clay

18This is the message that came to Jeremiah from the Lord: 2“Jeremiah, go down to the potter’s* house. I will give you my message at the potter’s house.”

3So I went down to the potter’s house. I saw the potter working with clay at the wheel. 4He was making a pot from clay. But there was something wrong with the pot. So the potter used that clay again, and he made another pot. He used his hands to shape the pot the way that he wanted it to be.

5Then the message from the Lord came to me: 6“Family of Israel, you know that I (God) can do the same thing with you. You are like the clay in the potter’s* hands. And I am like the potter! 7There may come a time that I will speak about a nation or a kingdom. I may say that I will pull that nation up. Or maybe I will say that I will pull that nation down and destroy that nation or kingdom. 8But the people of that nation might change their hearts and lives. The people in that nation might stop doing evil things. Then I would change my mind. I would not follow my plans to bring disaster to that nation. 9There might come another time when I speak about a nation. I might say that I will build up and plant that nation. 10But I might see that nation doing evil things and not obeying me. Then I would think again about the good I had planned to do for that nation.

11“So, Jeremiah, say to the people of Judah and the people that live in Jerusalem, ‘This is what the Lord says: I am preparing troubles for you right now. I am making plans against you. So stop doing the evil things that you are doing. Each person must change and start doing good things!’”

12But the people of Judah will answer, ‘It will not do any good to try. We will continue to do what we want. Each of us is going to do the things his stubborn, evil heart wants.’”

13Listen to the things the Lord says:

“Ask the other nations this question: ‘Have you ever heard of anyone doing the evil things Israel has done?’ And Israel is special to God. Israel is like God’s bride!

14You know that rocks never leave the fields by themselves.*

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.
the land where … Benjamin lives The land of Benjamin was just north of the land of Judah.
Negev The desert area south of Judah.
incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.
Sabbath Saturday, a special day of rest and worship for Jews.
palaces A large house for the king and his family.
potter’s Someone that makes pottery (jars, bowls, etc.) from clay. The Hebrew word also means, “Creator, or “a person that makes new things.”

You know … themselves This is probably a word play. In Hebrew this sounds like, “Would anyone leave the Rock, Shaddai?” These are two names for God. But this could also be translated, “Does Lebanon’s snow ever melt from Shaddai’s mountain?” This would probably mean Mount Hermon.
Jeremiah 18:15–19:5

You know that the snow on the mountains of Lebanon never melts.
You know that cool, flowing streams do not become dry.

15 But my people have forgotten about me. They make offerings to worthless idols. My people stumble in the things they do. They stumble about in the old paths of their ancestors.* My people would rather walk along back roads and poor highways, than to follow me on the good roads.

So Judah’s country will become an empty desert. People will whistle and shake their heads every time they pass by. They will be shocked at how the country was destroyed.

17 I will scatter the people of Judah. They will run from their enemies. I will scatter the people of Judah like an east wind that blows things away. I will destroy those people. They won’t see me coming to help them. No! They will see me leaving!”

Jeremiah’s Fourth Complaint

18 Then the enemies of Jeremiah said, “Come, let us make plans against Jeremiah. Surely the teaching of the law by the priest will not be lost. And the advice from the wise men will still be with us. We will still have the words of the prophets. So let us tell lies about him. That will ruin him. We will not pay attention to anything he says.”

19 Lord, listen to me!
Listen to my arguments and decide who is right.

20 I have been good to the people of Judah. But now they are paying me back with evil. They are trying to trap me and kill me.

21 So make their children starve in a famine.* Let their wives be without children. Let the men from Judah be put to death. Make their wives into widows. Let the men from Judah be put to death. Let the young men be killed in battle.

22 Let there be crying in their houses. Make them cry when you suddenly bring an enemy against them. Let all this happen because my enemies tried to trap me. They hid traps for me to step in.

23 Lord, you know about their plans to kill me. Don’t forgive their crimes. Don’t erase their sins. Destroy my enemies! Punish those people while you are angry!

The Broken Jar

19 The Lord said to me: “Jeremiah, go and buy a clay jar from a potter.* Go out to the Valley of Ben Hinnom, near the front of the Potsherd Gate.* Take some of the elders (leaders) of the people and some priests with you. At that place, tell them the things that I tell you. Say to those people with you, ‘King of Judah and people of Jerusalem, listen to this message from the Lord! This is what the Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: I will soon make a terrible thing happen to this place! Every person that hears about it will be amazed and full of fear. I will do these things because the people of Judah quit following me. They have made this a place for foreign gods. The people of Judah have burned sacrifices in this place to other gods. The people did not worship those gods long ago. Their ancestors* did not worship those gods. These are new gods from other countries. The kings of Judah filled this place with the blood of the innocent children. The kings of Judah built high places* for the god

---

ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
famine       A time when there is not enough rain for crops to grow. People and animals die without enough food or water.
Baal.* They use those places to burn their sons in the fire. They burned their sons as burnt offerings to the god Baal. I did not tell them to do that. I did not ask you to offer your sons as sacrifices. I never even thought of such a thing. 6Now people call this place Topheth and the Valley of Hinnom. But, I give you this warning. This message is from the Lord: The days are coming, when people will call this place the Valley of Slaughter.* 7At this place, I will ruin the plans of the people of Judah and Jerusalem. The enemy will chase these people. And I will let the people of Judah be killed with swords in this place. And I will make their dead bodies food for the birds and wild animals. 8I will completely destroy this city. People will whistle and shake their heads when they pass by Jerusalem. They will be shocked when they see how the city was destroyed. 9The enemy will bring its army around the city. That army will not let people go out to get food. So the people in the city will begin to starve. They will become so hungry that they will eat the bodies of their own sons and daughters. And then they will begin to eat each other.’ 10Jeremiah, you will tell those things to the people. And while they are watching, you will break that jar. 11At that time, say these things: ‘The Lord All-Powerful says, I will break the nation of Judah and the city of Jerusalem just like someone breaking a clay jar! This jar can’t be put back together again. It will be the same for the nation of Judah. The dead people will be buried here in Topheth until there is no more room. 12I will do this to these people and to this place. I will make this city like Topheth.’ This message is from the Lord. 13‘The houses in Jerusalem will become as “dirty” as this place, Topheth. The kings’ palaces* will be ruined like this place, Topheth. Why? Because the people worshiped false gods on the roofs of those houses.* They worshiped the stars and burned sacrifices to honor them. They gave drink offerings to false gods.’”

14Then Jeremiah left Topheth where the Lord had told him to preach. Jeremiah went to the Lord’s temple* and stood in the courtyard* of the temple. Jeremiah said to all the people: 15“This is what the Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel says: ‘I said I would bring many disasters to Jerusalem and the villages around it. I will soon make those things happen. Why? Because the people are very stubborn—they refused to listen and obey me.’”

Jeremiah and Pashhur

20A man named Pashhur was a priest. He was the highest officer in the temple* of the Lord. Pashhur was the son of a man named Immer. Pashhur heard Jeremiah preach those things in the temple yard. 2So he had Jeremiah the prophet beaten. And he had Jeremiah’s hands and feet locked between large blocks of wood. This was at the Upper Gate of Benjamin of the temple. 3The next day Pashhur took Jeremiah out from between the blocks of wood. Then Jeremiah said to Pashhur, “The Lord’s name for you is not Pashhur. Now the Lord’s name for you is Terror on Every Side. 4That is your name, because the Lord says: ‘I will soon make you a terror to yourself! I will soon make you a terror to all your friends. You will watch enemies killing your friends with swords. I will give all the people of Judah to the king of Babylon. He will take the people of Judah away to the country of Babylon. And his army will kill the people of Judah with their swords. 5The people of Jerusalem worked hard to build things and become wealthy. But I will give all those things to their enemies. The king in Jerusalem has many treasures. But I will give all those treasures to the enemy. The enemy will take those things and carry them away to the country of Babylon.

---

Notes:
- Baal: The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.
- Slaughter: Usually, this word means to kill an animal and cut it into pieces of meat. But it often means to kill people like they are animals.
- palace(s): A large house for the king and his family.
- roofs of those houses: People built their house with a flat roof, and they used the roof like an extra room.
- temple: The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
- courtyard: The large area around the temple sanctuary.
And Pashhur, you and all the people living in your house will be taken away. You will be forced to go and live in the country of Babylon. You will die in Babylon. And you will be buried in that foreign country. You preached lies to your friends. ‘You said these things would not happen. But all of your friends will also die and be buried in Babylon.’”

Jeremiah’s Fifth Complaint

Lord, you tricked me, and I certainly was fooled. You are stronger than I am, so you won. I have become a joke. People laugh at me and make fun of me all day long.

Every time I speak, I shout. I am always shouting about violence and destruction. I tell the people about the message that I received from the Lord. But people only insult me and make fun of me.

Sometimes I say to myself, “I will forget about the Lord. I will not speak any more in the name of the Lord!” But when I say that, then the Lord’s message is like a fire burning inside of me! It feels like it is burning deep in my bones! I get tired of trying to hold the Lord’s message inside of me. And finally, I am not able to hold it in.

I hear people whispering against me. Everywhere, I hear things that scare me. Even my friends are saying things against me. People are just waiting for me to make some mistake. They are saying, “Let us lie and say he did some bad thing. Maybe we can trick Jeremiah. Then we will have him. We will finally be rid of him. Then we will grab him and take our revenge on him.”

But the Lord is with me. The Lord is like a strong soldier. So the people that are chasing me will fall. Those people will not defeat me. Those people will fail. They will be disappointed. Those people will be ashamed. And people will never forget that shame.

Lord All-Powerful, you test good people. You look deeply into a person’s mind. I told you my arguments against those people. So let me see you give them the punishment that they deserve.

Sing to the Lord! Praise the Lord! The Lord saves the lives of poor people! He saves them from wicked people!

Jeremiah’s Sixth Complaint

Curse the day that I was born! Don’t bless the day my mother had me.

Curse the man that told my father the news that I was born. “You have a son,” he said. “It is a boy!” He made my father very happy when he told him that news.

Let that man be the same as the cities that the Lord destroyed.* The Lord did not have any pity on those cities. Let that man hear shouts of war in the morning. And let him hear battle cries at noon time.

Why? Because that man did not kill me while I was in my mother’s body. If he had killed me at that time, my mother would have been my grave, and I would never have been born.

Why did I have to come out of the body? All I have seen is trouble and sorrow. And my life will end in shame.

* cities that the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah. See Gen. 19.
God Rejects King Zedekiah’s Request

21 This is the message that came to Jeremiah from the Lord. This was when Zedekiah, the king of Judah, sent a man named Pashhur and a priest named Zephaniah to Jeremiah. Pashhur* was the son of a man named Malkijah. Zephaniah was the son of a man named Maaseiah. Pashhur and Zephaniah brought a message for Jeremiah. Pashhur and Zephaniah said to Jeremiah, “Pray to the Lord for us. Ask the Lord what will happen. We want to know, because Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, is attacking us. Maybe the Lord will do great things for us, like he did in the past. Maybe the Lord will make Nebuchadnezzar stop attacking us and leave.”

Then Jeremiah answered Pashhur and Zephaniah. He said, “Tell King Zedekiah: ‘You have weapons of war in your hands. You are using those weapons to defend yourselves against the king of Babylon and the Babylonians.* But I will make those weapons worthless.

“The army from Babylon is outside the wall around the city. That army is all around the city. Soon I will bring that army into Jerusalem. I myself will fight against you people of Judah. I will fight against you with my own powerful hand. I am very angry with you, so I will fight against you with my own powerful arm. I will fight very hard against you and show how angry I am. I will kill the people living in Jerusalem. I will kill people and animals. They will die from terrible sicknesses that will spread all through the city. After that happens,’’ this message is from the Lord, “I will give Zedekiah king of Judah to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. I will also give Zedekiah’s officials to Nebuchadnezzar. Some of the people in Jerusalem will not die from the terrible sicknesses. Some of the people will not be killed with swords. Some of them will not die from hunger. But I will give those people to Nebuchadnezzar. I will let Judah’s enemy win. Nebuchadnezzar’s army wants to kill the people of Judah. So the people of Judah and Jerusalem will be killed with swords. Nebuchadnezzar will not show any mercy. He will not feel sorry for those people.’

“Also tell these things to the people of Jerusalem. The Lord says these things: ‘Understand that I will let you choose to live or die. Any person that stays in Jerusalem will die. That person will die by a sword, or from hunger, or from a terrible sickness. But any person that goes out of Jerusalem and surrenders to the Babylonian army will live! That army has surrounded the city. So no person can bring food into the city. But any person that leaves the city will save his life. I have decided to make trouble for the city of Jerusalem. I will not help the city.’” This message is from the Lord. “‘I will give the city of Jerusalem to the king of Babylon. He will burn it with fire.’

Tell these things to Judah’s royal family: Listen to the message from the Lord.

Family of David,* the Lord says these things: ‘You must judge people fairly every day. Protect the victims* from the criminals. If you don’t do that, then I will become very angry. My anger will be like a fire that no person will be able to put out. This will happen because you have done evil things.’

“Jerusalem, I am against you. You sit on top of the mountain. You sit like a queen over this valley. You people of Jerusalem say, ‘No person can attack us. No person can come into our strong city.’ But listen to this message from the Lord.

* This is not the same Pashhur as the man in Jer. 20:1.
* The Babylonians were the family group to which King Nebuchadnezzar belonged. They were the group that controlled the land of Babylon at this time.

Family of David The royal family of Judah. God promised that men from David’s family would be kings in Judah.

victims People that have suffered some kind of hurt or trouble. Often this means people that were hurt or lost something during a crime.
14 ‘You will get the punishment you deserve. I will start a fire in your forests. That fire will completely burn everything around you.’”

Judgment Against Evil Kings

22 The Lord said: ‘Jeremiah, go down to the king’s palace. Go to the king of Judah and preach this message there: 2’Listen to the message from the Lord, King of Judah. You rule from David’s throne, so listen. King, you and your officials must listen well. All of your people that come through the gates of Jerusalem must listen to the message from the Lord. 3The Lord says: Do the things that are fair and right. Protect the person that has been robbed from the person that robbed him. Don’t hurt or do anything wrong to orphans* or widows.* Don’t kill innocent people. 4If you obey these commands, then this is what will happen: kings that sit on David’s throne will continue to come through the gates into the city of Jerusalem. Those kings will come through the gates with their officials. Those kings, their officials, and their people will come riding in chariots* and on horses. 5But if you don’t obey these commands, this is what the Lord says: I, the Lord, promise that this king’s palace* will be destroyed—it will become a pile of rocks.’”

6This is what the Lord says about the palace where the king of Judah lives:

“The palace* is tall, like the forests of Gilead. The palace is tall like the mountains of Lebanon. But I will make it like a desert. This palace will be empty like a city where no person lives. 7I will send men to destroy the palace. Each man will have weapons that he will use to destroy that house.

Those men will cut up your strong, beautiful cedar beams. Those men will throw those beams into the fire.”

8“People from many nations will pass by this city. They will ask one another, ‘Why has the Lord done such a terrible thing to Jerusalem? Jerusalem was such a great city.’ 9This will be the answer to that question: ‘God destroyed Jerusalem because the people of Judah quit following the Agreement* of the Lord their God. Those people worshiped and served other gods.’”

Judgment Against King Jehoahaz

10 Don’t cry for the king that has died.* Don’t cry for him. But cry very hard for the king that must leave this place.* Cry for him because he will never come back again. Jehoahaz will never see his homeland again.

11This is what the Lord says about Shallum (Jehoahaz) son of Josiah. (Shallum became king of Judah after his father Josiah died.) “Jehoahaz has gone away from Jerusalem. He will never come back to Jerusalem again. Jehoahaz will die in the place where the Egyptians have taken him. He will not see this land again.”

Judgment Against King Jehoiakim

13 It will be very bad for King Jehoiakim. He is doing bad things so he can build his palace.* He is cheating people so he can build rooms upstairs. He is making his own people work for nothing. He is not paying them for their work.

Agreement  Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

king that has died  This means King Josiah that was killed in battle against the Egyptians in 609 B.C.

king ... place  This means Josiah’s son, Jehoahaz. He became king after Josiah died. He is also called Shallum. Neco, the king of Egypt, defeated Josiah. And Neco took Jehoahaz off the throne of Judah and made him a prisoner in Egypt.

orphan(s)  Children whose parents are dead. Often these children have no one to care for them.

widow(s)  Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.

chariot(s)  A small wagon used in war.

palace  A large house for the king and his family.
14 Jehoiakim says, ‘I will build a great palace for myself. I will have large upper rooms.’ So he builds the house with large windows. He uses cedar wood for paneling, and he paints it red.

15 “Jehoiakim, having a lot of cedar in your house does not make you a great king. Your father Josiah was satisfied to have food and drink. He did what was right and fair. Josiah did that, so everything went well for him.

16 Josiah helped the poor and needy people. Josiah did that, so everything went well for him. Jehoiakim, what does it mean “to know God?” It means living right and being fair. That is what it means to know me. This message is from the Lord.

17 “Jehoiakim, your eyes look only for what benefits yourself. You are always thinking about getting more for yourself. You are willing to kill innocent people. You are willing to steal things from other people.”

18 So this is what the Lord says to King Jehoiakim son of Josiah: “The people of Judah will not cry for Jehoiakim. They will not say to each another, ‘Oh, my brother, I am so sad about Jehoiakim!’ Oh, my sister, I am so sad about Jehoiakim!’ The people of Judah will not cry for Jehoiakim.

19 The people of Jerusalem will bury Jehoiakim like they were burying a donkey.

20 “Judah, go up to the mountains of Lebanon and cry out. Let your voice be heard in the mountains of Bashan. Cry out in the mountains of Abarim. Why? Because your ‘lovers’ will all be destroyed.

21 Judah, you felt safe. But I warned you! I warned you, but you refused to listen. You have lived like this from the time you were young. And from the time you were young, you have not obeyed me, Judah.

22 Judah, the punishment I give will come like a storm. And it will blow all your shepherds away. You thought some of the other nations would help you. But those nations will also be defeated. Then you will really be disappointed. You will be ashamed of all the bad things that you did.

23 King, you live high on the mountain in your house made from cedar wood. It is almost like you live in Lebanon where that wood came from. You think you are safe, high on the mountain in your big house, but you will really groan when your punishment comes. You will hurt like a woman giving birth to a baby.”

24 “As surely as I live,” this message is from the Lord, “I will do this to you, Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah: Even if you were a signet ring* on my right hand, I would still pull signet ring A special ring worn by a king. The design on the ring could be pressed into a bit of clay or warm wax and leave an impression of the design. This was like a person’s signature—so the ring was very important.

you off. 25Jehoiachin, I will give you to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, and the Babylonians. Those are the people you are afraid of. Those people want to kill you. 26I will throw you and your mother into another country where neither of you was born. You and your mother will die in that country. 27Jehoiachin, you will want to come back to your land—but you will never be allowed to come back.”

28 Coniah (Jehoiachin) is like a broken pot that some person threw away. He is like a pot that no person wants. Why will Jehoiachin and his children be thrown out? Why will they be thrown away into a foreign land?

29 Land, land, land of Judah! Listen to the message of the Lord!

30 The Lord says, “Write this down about Jehoiachin: ‘He is a man that has no children anymore! Jehoiachin will not be successful in his lifetime. And none of his children will sit on the throne of David. None of his children will rule in Judah.’”

23 “It will be very bad for the shepherds (leaders) of the people of Judah. Those shepherds are destroying the sheep. They are making the sheep run from my pasture in all directions.” This message is from the Lord.

2Those shepherds (leaders) are responsible for my people. And the Lord, the God of Israel, says these things to those shepherds: “You shepherds (leaders) have made my sheep run away in all directions. You have forced them to go away. And you have not taken care of them. But I will take care of you—I will punish you for the bad things you did.” This message is from the Lord: 3“I sent my sheep (people) to other countries. But I will gather together my sheep that are left. And I will bring them back to their pasture (country). When my sheep are back in their pasture, they will have many children and grow in number. 4I will place new shepherds (leaders) over my sheep. Those shepherds will take care of my sheep. And my sheep will not be scared or afraid. None of my sheep will be lost.” This message is from the Lord.

The Righteous “Sprout”

5 This message is from the Lord, “The time is coming,” “when I will raise up a good ‘sprout.’” He will be a king who will rule in a wise way. He will do what is fair and right in the land.

6 In the time of that good ‘sprout,’ the people of Judah will be saved. And Israel will live in safety. This will be his name: The Lord is our Goodness.*

7“So the time is coming,” this message is from the Lord, “when people won’t say the old promise by the Lord any more. The old promise is: ‘As surely as the Lord lives, the Lord is the One who brought the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt.’ 8But people will say something new. They will say, ‘As surely as the Lord lives, the Lord is the One who brought the people of Israel out of the land of the north. He brought them out of all the countries where he had sent them.’ Then the people of Israel will live in their own land.”

Judgments Against False Prophets

9 A message to the prophets: I am very sad—my heart is broken. All my bones are shaking. I (Jeremiah) am like a man that is drunk. Why? Because of the Lord and his holy words.

10 The land of Judah is full of people that do the sin of adultery.* They are unfaithful in many ways.

sprout This means a new king from the family of David. The Lord is our Goodness This is a word play. In Hebrew, this is like the name Zedekiah, the king of Judah at the time that this prophecy was probably given. But Jeremiah is talking about another king.

adultery Breaking the marriage promise by sexual sin.
The Lord cursed the land,
and it became very dry.
The plants are dried and dying
in the pastures.
The fields have become like the desert.
The prophets are evil.
Those prophets use their influence and power in the wrong way.

11 “The prophets and even the priests are evil.
   I have seen them doing evil things in my own temple.”
This message is from the Lord.

12 “I will stop giving my messages to them.
   It will be like they must walk
   in darkness.
   It will be like the road is slippery for those prophets and priests.
And they will fall in that darkness.
I will bring disaster on them.
I will punish those prophets and priests.”
This message is from the Lord.

13 “I saw the prophets of Samaria doing wrong things.
   I saw those prophets prophesy in the name of the false god Baal.
Those prophets led the people of Israel away from the Lord.

14 Now I have seen the prophets of Judah do those terrible things in Jerusalem.
   These prophets do the sin of adultery.
   They listened to lies—and they obeyed those false teachings.
   They encourage wicked people to continue doing evil things.
   So the people did not stop sinning.
   They are like the people of Sodom.
   Now Jerusalem is like Gomorrah to me.”
So, this is what the Lord All-Powerful says about the prophets:

15 “I will punish those prophets.
   The punishment will be like eating poisoned food and water.
   The prophets started a spiritual sickness.
   And that sickness spread through the whole country.
   So I will punish those prophets.
   That sickness came from the prophets in Jerusalem.”

16 The Lord All-Powerful says these things:
   “Don’t pay attention to the things that those prophets are saying to you.
   They are trying to fool you.
   Those prophets talk about visions.
   But they did not get their visions from me.
   Their visions come from their own minds.
   Some of the people hate the real messages from the Lord.
   So those prophets give a different message to those people.
   They say, ‘You will have peace.’
   Some of the people are very stubborn.
   They do only the things they want to do.
   So those prophets say, ‘Nothing bad will happen to you!’

17 But none of those prophets has stood in the heavenly council.
   None of them has seen or heard the message of the Lord.
   None of them has paid close attention to the Lord’s message.

18 Now the punishment from the Lord will come like a storm.
   The Lord’s anger will be like a tornado.
   It will come crashing down on the heads of those wicked people.

19 The Lord’s anger will not stop until he finishes what he plans to do.
   When that day is over, you will understand this clearly.

Samaria The capital of the northern kingdom of Israel. This kingdom was destroyed by God because its people did many bad things.
prophesy To speak for God or for a false god.
Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.
adultery Breaking the marriage promise by sexual sin.
Sodom, Gomorrah Two cities that God destroyed because the people were so evil. See Gen. 19.
vision(s) Something like a dream that God used to speak to people.
heavenly council The people in the Old Testament often talk about God like he was the leader of a council of heavenly beings (angels). Compare 1 Kings 22:19-23; Isa. 6:1-8; and Job chapters 1 and 2.
I did not send those prophets. But they ran to tell their messages. I did not speak to them. But they preached in my name. If they had stood in my heavenly council, then they would have told my messages to the people of Judah. They would have stopped the people from doing bad things. They would have stopped them from doing evil.

“JEREMIAH 23:21–40

The Lord said these things. There are prophets that preach lies in my name. They say, ‘I have had a dream! I have had a dream!’ I heard them say those things. How long will this continue? Those prophets think up lies. And then they teach those lies to the people. These prophets are trying to make the people of Judah forget my name. They are doing this by telling each other these false dreams. They are trying to make my people forget me in the same way that their ancestors forgot me. Their ancestors forgot me and worshiped the false god Baal.

Straw is not the same thing as wheat! In the same way, those prophets’ dreams are not messages from me. If a person wants to tell about his dreams, then let him. But let the man that hears my message speak my message truthfully. My message is like a hammer that smashes a rock.

So I am against the false prophets.” This message is from the Lord. “They use their own words and pretend that it is a message from me. I am against the false prophets that preach fake dreams.” This message is from the Lord. “They mislead my people with their lies and false teachings. I did not send those prophets to teach the people. I never commanded them to do anything for me. They can’t help the people of Judah at all.” This message is from the Lord.

The Sad Message from the Lord

“The people of Judah, or a prophet, or a priest may ask you, ‘Jeremiah, what is the announcement of the Lord?’ You will answer them and say, ‘You are a heavy load to the Lord. And I will throw down this heavy load.’ This message is from the Lord.

But you never again use the expression, ‘The announcement (heavy load) of the Lord.’ This is because the Lord’s message should not be a heavy load for anyone. But you changed the words of our God. He is the living God, the Lord All-Powerful!

If you want to learn about God’s message, then ask a prophet, ‘What answer did the Lord give you?’ or ‘What did the Lord say?’ But don’t say, ‘What was the announcement (heavy load) from the Lord?’ If you use these words, then the Lord will say these things to you: ‘You should not have called my message an announcement (heavy load) from the Lord.’ I told you not to use those words. But you called my message a heavy load, so I will pick you up like a heavy load and throw you away from me. I gave the city of Jerusalem to your ancestors. But I will throw you and that city away from me. And I will make you a disgrace forever. You will never forget your embarrassment.’”

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

heavy load This is a word play. The Hebrew word for “announcement” is like the word translated “heavy load.”
The Good Figs and the Bad Figs

The Lord showed me these things: I saw two baskets of figs arranged in front of the temple* of the Lord. (I saw this vision after Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, took Jeconiah* as a prisoner. Jeconiah was the son of King Jehoiakim. Jehoiakim and his important officials were taken away from Jerusalem. They were taken to Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar also took away all the carpenters and metal-workers of Judah.) 2One basket had very good figs in it. Those figs were like figs that ripen early in the season. But the other basket had rotten figs. They were too rotten to eat.

3The Lord said to me, “What do you see, Jeremiah?” I answered, “I see figs. The good figs are very good. And the rotten figs are very rotten. They are too rotten to eat.”

4Then the message of the Lord came to me. 5The Lord, the God of Israel, said: “The people of Judah were taken from their country. Their enemy brought them to Babylon. Those people will be like these good figs. I will be kind to those people. 6I will protect them. I will bring them back to the land of Judah. I will not tear them down—I will build them up. I will not pull them up—I will plant them so they can grow. 7I will make them want to know me. They will know that I am the Lord. They will be my people, and I will be their God. I will do this because those prisoners in Babylon will turn to me with their whole hearts.

8“But Zedekiah king of Judah will be like those figs that are too rotten to eat. Zedekiah, his high officials, all the people that are left in Jerusalem, and those people of Judah that are living in Egypt will be like those rotten figs.

9“I will punish those people. The punishment will shock all the people on earth. People will make fun of those people from Judah. People will tell jokes about them. People will curse them in all the places where I scatter them.

10I will send a sword, starvation, and disease against them. I will attack them until they have all been killed. Then they will no longer be on the land which I gave to them and to their ancestors.*

A Summary of Jeremiah’s Preaching

25This is the message that came to Jeremiah concerning all of the people of Judah. This message came in the fourth year* that Jehoiakim was king of Judah. Jehoiakim was the son of Josiah. The fourth year of his time as king was the first year that Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylon. 2This is the message that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah and all the people of Jerusalem:

3I have given you messages from the Lord again and again for these past 23 years. I have been a prophet since the 13th year that Josiah son of Amon was the king of Judah. I have spoken messages from the Lord to you from that time until today. But you have not listened. 4The Lord has sent his servants, the prophets, to you over and over again. But you have not listened to them. You have not paid any attention to them.

5Those prophets said, “Change your lives! Stop doing those bad things! If you change, then you can return to the land which the Lord gave you and your ancestors* long ago. He gave you this land to live in forever. 6Don’t follow other gods. Don’t serve or worship them. Don’t worship idols that some person has made. That only makes me angry at you. Doing this only hurts yourselves.”*

7“But you did not listen to me.” This message is from the Lord. “You worshiped idols that some person made. And that made me angry. And that only hurt you.”

8So, this is what the Lord All-Powerful says, “You have not listened to my messages. 9So I will soon send for all the family groups of the

ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

fourth year  This was the year 605 B.C.

Doing this only hurts yourselves  Following the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew reads, “Then I will not hurt you.” 894

JEREMIAH 25:10–29

north.* This message is from the Lord. “I will soon send for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He is my servant. I will bring those people against the land of Judah and against the people of Judah. I will bring them against all the nations around you too. I will destroy all of those countries. I will make those lands like an empty desert forever. People will see those lands and will say how they were destroyed.

10I will bring an end to the sounds of joy and happiness in those places. There will be no more happy sounds of the brides and bridegrooms. I will take away the sound of people grinding meal. I will take away the light of the lamp.

11That whole area will be an empty desert. All of those people will be slaves of the king of Babylon for 70 years.

12“But when the 70 years have passed, I will punish the king of Babylon. I will punish the nation of Babylon.” This message is from the Lord. “I will punish the land of the Babylonians for their sins. I will make that land a desert forever. And all of those things will happen. Jeremiah preached about those foreign nations. And all of those warnings are written in this book.

13Yes, the people of Babylon will have to serve many nations and many great kings. I will give them the punishment they deserve for all the things they will do.”

Judgment on the Nations of the World

15The Lord, the God of Israel, said these things to me: “Jeremiah, take this cup of wine from my hand. It is the wine of my anger. I am sending you to different nations. Make all those nations drink from this cup. They will drink this wine. Then they will vomit and act like crazy people. They will do this because of the sword that I will soon send against them.”

16So I took the cup of wine from the Lord’s hand. I went to those nations and I made those people drink from the cup. I poured this wine for the people of Jerusalem and Judah. I made the kings and leaders of Judah drink from the cup. I did this so that they would become an empty desert. I did this so that place would be destroyed so badly that people would whistle about it and say curses about that place. And it happened—Judah is like that now!

19I also made Pharaoh king of Egypt drink from the cup. I made his officials, his important leaders, and all his people drink from the cup of the Lord’s anger.

20I also made all the Arabs and all of the kings of the land of Uz drink from the cup. I also made all the kings of the land of the Philistines drink from the cup. These were the kings of the cities of Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and what remains of the city Ashdod.

21Then I made the people of Edom, Moab, and Ammon drink from the cup.

22I made all the kings of Tyre and Sidon drink from the cup. I also made all the kings of the faraway countries drink from that cup. I made the people of Dedan, Tema, and Buz drink from the cup. I made all those that cut their hair at their temples drink from the cup. I made all the kings of Arabia drink from the cup. These kings live in the desert. I made all the kings from Zimri, Elam, and Media drink from the cup. I made all the kings of the north, those that were near and far, drink from the cup. I made them drink one after the other. I made all the kingdoms that are on earth drink from the cup of the anger of the Lord. But the king of Babylon will drink from this cup after all of these other nations.

27“Jeremiah, say to those nations, this is what the Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says, ‘Drink this cup of my anger. Get drunk from it and vomit! Fall down and don’t get up. Don’t get up because I am sending a sword to kill you.’

28Those people will refuse to take the cup from your hand. They will refuse to drink it. But you will say to them, ‘The Lord All-Powerful says these things: You will indeed drink from this cup! 29I am already making these bad things happen to Jerusalem, the city that is called by my name. Maybe you people think that you will not be punished. But you are wrong. You will be punished. I am calling for a sword to come from the north.* This refers to the army of Babylon coming from the north to attack the nation of Judah.
out a sword to attack all the people of the earth.’” This message is from the Lord.

30 “Jeremiah, you will give them this message:

The Lord shouts from above.
He shouts from his holy temple!
The Lord shouts at his pasture (people)!
His shouts are loud like the songs of people walking on grapes to make wine.

31 The noise spreads to all the people on earth. What is all the noise about? The Lord is punishing the people from all the nations. The Lord told his arguments against the people. He judged the people. And now he is killing the evil people with a sword.”’ This message is from the Lord.

32 This is what the Lord All-Powerful says: “Disasters will soon spread from country to country. They will come like a powerful storm to all the faraway places on earth!”

33 The dead bodies of those people will reach from one end of the country to the other. No person will cry for those dead people. No person will gather up their bodies and bury them. They will be left lying on the ground like dung.

34 Shepherds (leaders), you should be leading the sheep (people).
Start crying you great leaders!
Roll around on the ground in pain, you leaders of the sheep (people).
Why? Because it is now time for your slaughter.*

I will scatter your sheep. They will scatter everywhere, like pieces flying from a broken jar.

35 There will be no place for the shepherds to hide. Those leaders will not escape.

Jeremiah’s Lesson at the Temple

26 This message came from the Lord during the first year that Jehoiakim was king* of Judah. Jehoiakim was the son of King Josiah. 2The Lord said: “Jeremiah, stand in the temple* yard of the Lord. Give this message to all the people of Judah that are coming to worship at the temple of the Lord. Tell them everything that I tell you to speak. Don’t leave out any part of my message. Maybe they will listen and obey my message. Maybe they will stop living such evil lives. If they change, then I might change my mind about my plans to punish them. I am planning this punishment because of many bad things those people have done. 4You will say to them, ‘This is what the Lord says: I gave my teachings to you. You must obey me and follow my teachings. 5You must listen to the things my servants say to you. (The prophets are my servants.) I have sent prophets to you again and again, but you did not listen to them. 6If you don’t obey me, then I will make my temple in Jerusalem just like my Holy Tent at Shiloh.* People all over the world will think of Jerusalem when they ask for bad things to happen to other cities.’”

7 The priests, the prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah say all of these words at the Lord’s temple.* 8 Jeremiah finished slaughter: Usually, this means to kill an animal and cut it into pieces of meat. But it often means to kill people like they are animals.

---

temple: The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

my Holy Tent at Shiloh: The holy place at Shiloh was probably destroyed during the time of Samuel. See Jer. 7 and 1 Sam. 4.
speaking everything the Lord had commanded him to say to the people. Then the priests, the prophets, and all the people grabbed Jeremiah. They said, “You will die for saying such terrible things! How dare you preach such a thing in the name of the Lord! How dare you say that this temple will be destroyed like the one at Shiloh! How dare you say that Jerusalem will become a desert with no people living in it!” All the people gathered around Jeremiah in the temple of the Lord.

Now the rulers of Judah heard about all of the things that were happening. So they came out of the king’s palace. They went up to the Lord’s temple. There, they took their places at the entrance of the New Gate. The New Gate is a gate leading to the Lord’s temple. Then the priests and the prophets spoke to the rulers and all the other people. They said, “Jeremiah should be killed. He said bad things about Jerusalem. You heard him say those things.”

Then Jeremiah spoke to all the rulers of Judah and all the other people. He said, “The Lord sent me to say these things about this temple and this city. Everything that you have heard is from the Lord. You people change your lives! You must start doing good things! You must obey the Lord your God. If you do that, then the Lord will change his mind. The Lord will not do the bad things he told you about. As for me, I am in your power. Do to me what you think is good and right. But if you kill me, be sure of one thing. You will be guilty of killing an innocent person. You will make this city and everyone that lives in it guilty, too. The Lord really did send me to you. The message you heard really is from the Lord.”

Then the rulers and all the people spoke. Those people said to the priests and the prophets, “Jeremiah must not be killed. The things Jeremiah told us come from the Lord our God.”

Then some of the elders (leaders) stood up and spoke to all the people. They said, “Micah the prophet was from the city of Moresheth. Micah was a prophet during the time that Hezekiah was king of Judah. Micah said these things to all the people of Judah:

The Lord All-Powerful says:

“Zion* will be destroyed.
It will become a plowed field.
Jerusalem will become a pile of rocks.
Temple Mount will be an empty hill* overgrown with bushes.”

“Micah 3:12

19“Hezekiah was the king of Judah. And Hezekiah didn’t kill Micah. None of the people of Judah killed Micah. You know that Hezekiah respected the Lord. He wanted to please the Lord. The Lord had said he would do bad things to Judah. But Hezekiah prayed to the Lord, and the Lord changed his mind. The Lord didn’t do those bad things. If we hurt Jeremiah, then we will bring many troubles on ourselves. And those troubles will be our own fault.”

20In the past, there was another man that preached the Lord’s message. His name was Uriah. He was the son of a man named Shemaiah. Uriah was from the city of Kiriat Jearim. Uriah preached the same things against this city and this land as Jeremiah did. King Jehoiakim and his army officers and the leaders of Judah heard Uriah preach. They became angry. King Jehoiakim wanted to kill Uriah. But Uriah heard that Jehoiakim wanted to kill him. Uriah was afraid, so he escaped to the land of Egypt.

22But King Jehoiakim sent a man named Elnathan and some other men to Egypt. Elnathan was the son of a man named Acbor. Those men brought Uriah from Egypt. Then those men took Uriah to King Jehoiakim. Jehoiakim ordered Uriah to be killed with a sword. Uriah’s body was thrown into the burial place where poor people are buried.

24There was an important man named Ahikam son of Shaphan. Ahikam supported Jeremiah. So Ahikam kept Jeremiah from being killed by the priests and prophets.
The Lord Made Nebuchadnezzar Ruler

A message from the Lord came to Jeremiah. It came during the fourth year that Zedekiah was king of Judah. Zedekiah was the son of King Josiah. This is what the Lord said to me: “Jeremiah, make a yoke out of straps and poles. Put that yoke on the back of your neck. Then send messages to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre, and Sidon. Send the messages with the messengers of these kings that have come to Jerusalem to see Zedekiah king of Judah. Tell those messengers to give this message to their masters. Tell them, ‘The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: Tell your masters that I made the earth and all the people on it. I made all the animals on the earth. I did this with my great power and my strong arm. I can give the earth to anyone I want. Now I have given all your countries to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He is my servant. I will make even the wild animals obey him. All nations will serve Nebuchadnezzar and his son and his grandson. Then the time will come for Babylon to be defeated. Many nations and great kings will make Babylon their servant.

But now, some nations or kingdoms might refuse to serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. They might refuse to put his yoke on their necks. If that happens, this is what I will do: I will punish that nation with sword, hunger, and terrible sickness.” This message is from the Lord. “I will do that until I destroy that nation. I will use Nebuchadnezzar to destroy the nation that fights against him. So don’t listen to your prophets. Don’t listen to the people that use magic to tell what will happen in the future. Don’t listen to people that say they can interpret dreams. Don’t listen to people that talk to the dead or to people that practice magic. All those people tell you, “You will not be slaves to the king of Babylon.” But those people are telling you lies. They will only cause you to be taken far from your homeland. I will force you to leave your homes. And you will die in another land.

But the nations that put their necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon and obey him will live. I will let those nations stay in their own country and serve the king of Babylon.” This message is from the Lord. “The people from those nations will live in their own land and farm it.

I gave the same message to Zedekiah king of Judah. I said, “Zedekiah, you must place your neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and obey him. If you serve the king of Babylon and his people, then you will live. If you don’t agree to serve the king of Babylon, then you and your people will die from the enemy’s sword, from hunger, and from terrible sicknesses. The Lord said those things will happen. But the false prophets are saying: You will never be slaves to the king of Babylon.

Don’t listen to those prophets, because they are preaching lies to you. I didn’t send those prophets.” This message is from the Lord. “They are preaching lies and saying that the message is from me. So, I will send you people of Judah away. You will die. And those prophets that preach to you will die also.”

Then I (Jeremiah) said to the priests and all those people, “The Lord says: Those false prophets are saying, ‘The Babylonians took many things from the Lord’s temple. Those things will be brought back soon.’ Don’t listen to those prophets because they are preaching lies to you. Don’t listen to those prophets. Serve the king of Babylon. Accept your punishment, and you will live. There is no reason for you to cause this city of Jerusalem to be destroyed. If those men are prophets and have the message from the Lord, let them pray. Let them pray about the things that are still in the Lord’s temple. Let them pray about the things that are still in the king’s palace. And let them pray about the

---

Notes:

- The fourth year that Zedekiah was king of Judah: The Hebrew has, “At the beginning of the kingship of Jehoiakim.” This is probably a scribal error. Vs. 3 talks about Zedekiah. Jer. 28:1 mentions the fourth year: 594–593 B.C.
- yoke: A pole that was put on the shoulders of men or animals to help them carry or pull things. This often showed that a person was a slave.
- temple: The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
things that are still in Jerusalem. Let those prophets pray that all those things will not be taken away to Babylon.”

19 The Lord All-Powerful says this about those things that are still left in Jerusalem. In the temple,* there are the pillars, the bronze sea, the moveable stands, and other things.*
Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, left those things in Jerusalem. 20 Nebuchadnezzar didn’t take those things away at the time he took Jehoiachin king of Judah away as a prisoner.
Jehoiachin was the son of King Jehoiakim.
Nebuchadnezzar also took other important people away from Judah and Jerusalem. 21 The Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says this about the things still left in the Lord’s temple, and in the king’s palace and in Jerusalem: “All of those things will also be taken to Babylon. 22 Those things will be brought to Babylon until the day comes when I go to get them.” This message is from the Lord. “Then I will bring those things back. I will put those things back in this place.”

The False Prophet Hananiah

28 In the fifth month of the fourth year* that Zedekiah was king of Judah, Hananiah the prophet spoke to me. Hananiah was the son of a man named Azzur. Hananiah was from the town of Gibeon. Hananiah was in the Lord’s temple when he spoke to me.
The priests and all the people were there also.
This is what Hananiah said: 2 The Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says this about the things still left in the Lord’s temple, and in the king’s palace and in Jerusalem: “All of those things will also be taken to Babylon. 22 Those things will be brought to Babylon until the day comes when I go to get them.” This message is from the Lord. “Then I will bring those things back. I will put those things back in this place.”

Jehoiachin is the son of Jehoiakim. And I will bring back all those people of Judah that Nebuchadnezzar forced to leave their homes and go to Babylon.’ This message is from the Lord. ‘So I will break the yoke that the king of Babylon put on the people of Judah!’”

5 Then the prophet Jeremiah answered the prophet Hananiah. They were standing in the temple of the Lord. The priests and all the people there could hear Jeremiah’s answer.
6 Jeremiah said to Hananiah, “Amen!* I hope the Lord will really do that! I hope the Lord will make the message you preach come true.
I hope the Lord will bring the things of the Lord’s temple* back to this place from Babylon. And I hope the Lord will bring all the people that were forced to leave their homes back to this place.

7 “But listen to what I must say, Hananiah.
Listen to what I say to all you people. 8 There were prophets long before you and I became prophets, Hananiah. They preached that war, hunger, and terrible sicknesses would come to many countries and great kingdoms. 9 But the prophet that preaches that we will have peace must be tested to see if he truly was sent by the Lord. If the message of that prophet comes true, then people can know that he truly was sent by the Lord.”

10 Jeremiah was wearing a yoke* around his neck. Then the prophet Hananiah took that yoke from Jeremiah’s neck. Hananiah broke that yoke. 11 Then Hananiah spoke loudly, so all the people could hear him. He said, “The Lord says: ‘In the same way I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He put that yoke on all the nations of the world.
But I will break that yoke before two years are over.’”

After Hananiah said that, Jeremiah left the temple.*

12 Then the message of the Lord came to Jeremiah. This happened after Hananiah had taken the yoke* off of Jeremiah’s neck and had broken it. 13 The Lord said to Jeremiah, “Go and tell Hananiah, ‘This is what the Lord says: You have broken a wooden yoke. But I

Amen A Hebrew word meaning “truly,” “indeed.” It is used to show that a person agrees with what has been said.
will make a yoke of iron in the place of the wooden yoke.’ 14 The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: ‘I will put a yoke of iron on the necks of all these nations. I will do that to make them serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. And they will be slaves to him. I will even give Nebuchadnezzar control over the wild animals.’”

15 Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah, “Listen, Hananiah! The Lord did not send you. But you have made the people of Judah trust in lies. 16 So this is what the Lord says, ‘Soon I will take you from this world, Hananiah. You will die this year. Why? Because you taught the people to turn against the Lord.’”

17 Hananiah died in the seventh month of that same year.

A Letter to the Jewish Captives in Babylon

29 Jeremiah sent a letter to the Jewish captives* in Babylon. He sent it to the elders (leaders), the priests, the prophets, and all the other people that were living in Babylon. These were the people that Nebuchadnezzar took from Jerusalem and brought to Babylon. 2(This letter was sent after King Jehoiachin, the queen mother, the officials and the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the carpenters, and the metal workers had been taken from Jerusalem.) 3 Zedekiah sent Elasah and Gemariah to King Nebuchadnezzar. Zedekiah was the king of Judah. Elasah was the son of Shaphan. And Gemariah was the son of Hilkiah. Jeremiah gave the letter to those men to take to Babylon. This is what the letter said:

4 The Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says these things to all those people he sent into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon: 5 Build houses and live in them. Settle in the land. Plant gardens and eat the food you grow. 6 Get married and have sons and daughters. Find wives for your sons. And let your daughters be married. Do that so they also may have sons and daughters. Have many children and grow in number in Babylon. Don’t become fewer in number. 7 Also, do good things for the city I sent you to. Pray to the Lord for the city you are living in. Why? Because if there is peace in that city, then you will have peace also.” 8 The Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: “Don’t let your prophets and the people that practice magic fool you. Don’t listen to the dreams they have. 9 They are preaching lies. And they are saying that their message is from me. But I didn’t send it.” This message is from the Lord.

10 This is what the Lord says: “Babylon will be powerful for 70 years. After that time, I will come to you people that are living in Babylon. I will keep my good promise to bring you back to Jerusalem. 11 I say this because I know the plans that I have for you.” This message is from the Lord. “I have good plans for you. I don’t plan to hurt you. I plan to give you hope and a good future. 12 Then you people will call my name. You will come to me and pray to me. And I will listen to you. 13 You people will search for me. And when you search for me with all your heart, you will find me. 14 I will let you find me.” This message is from the Lord. “And I will bring you back from your captivity. I forced you to leave this place. But I will gather you from all the nations and places where I have sent you,”—this message is from the Lord—“and I will bring you back to this place.”

15 You people might say, “But the Lord has given us prophets here in Babylon.” 16 But the Lord says these things about your relatives that were not carried away to Babylon. I am talking about the king that is sitting on David’s throne now and all the other people that are still in the city of Jerusalem. 17 The Lord All-Powerful says: “I will soon send the sword, hunger, and terrible sicknesses against those people that are still in Jerusalem. And I will make them the same as bad figs, which are too...
Jeremiah 29:18–32

Jeremiah 29:18–32

rotten to eat. 18 I will chase those people that are still in Jerusalem with the sword, with hunger, and terrible sicknesses. And I will make it so that all the kingdoms of the earth will be frightened at what has happened to those people. Those people will be destroyed. People will whistle with amazement when they hear about the things that happened. And people use them as an example when they ask for bad things to happen to people. People will insult them wherever I force those people to go. 19 I will make all those things happen because those people of Jerusalem have not listened to my message.” This message is from the Lord. “I sent my message to them again and again. I used my servants, the prophets, to give my messages to those people. But the people didn’t listen.” This message is from the Lord. 20 “You people are captives.* I forced you to leave Jerusalem and go to Babylon. So, listen to the message from the Lord.”

The Lord All-Powerful says this about Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah: “These two men have been preaching lies to you. They have said that their message is from me. But they were lying. I will give those two prophets to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. And Nebuchadnezzar will kill those prophets in front of all you people that are captives in Babylon. 22 All of the Jewish captives will use those men as examples when they ask for bad things to happen to other people. Those captives will say: ‘May the Lord treat you like Zedekiah and Ahab. The king of Babylon burned those two in the fire!’” Those two prophets did very bad things among the people of Israel. They did the sin of adultery* with their neighbors’ wives. They also spoke lies and said those lies were a message from me, the Lord. I did not tell them to do those things. I know what they have done. I am a witness.” This message is from the Lord.

God’s Message to Shemaiah

24 Also give a message to Shemaiah. Shemaiah is from the Nehelam family. 25 The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: “Shemaiah, you sent letters to all the people in Jerusalem. And you sent letters to the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah. You also sent letters to all the priests. You sent those letters in your own name and not by the authority of the Lord. 26 Shemaiah, this is what you said in your letter to Zephaniah: ‘Zephaniah, the Lord has made you priest in place of Jehoiada. You are to be in charge of the Lord’s temple. You should arrest anyone that acts like a crazy person* and acts like a prophet. You should put that person’s feet between large blocks of wood and put neck-irons* on him. 27 Now, Jeremiah is acting like a prophet. So why have you not arrested him? 28 Jeremiah has sent this message to us in Babylon: ‘You people in Babylon will be there for a long time. So build houses and settle down. Plant gardens and eat what you grow.’”

Zephaniah the priest read the letter to Jeremiah the prophet. 30 Then the message from the Lord came to Jeremiah: 31 “Jeremiah, send this message to all the captives* in Babylon: ‘This is what the Lord says about Shemaiah, the man from the Nehelam family: Shemaiah has preached to you, but I didn’t send him. Shemaiah has made you believe a lie. 32 Because Shemaiah has done that, this is what the Lord says: I will soon punish Shemaiah, the man from the Nehelam family. I will completely destroy his family. And he will not share in the good things I will do for my people.’” This message is from the Lord. “I will punish Shemaiah because he has taught the people to turn against the Lord.”

captives People taken away like prisoners. Here this means the Jewish people that were taken to Babylon.
adultery Breaking the marriage promise by sexual sin.
crazy person Shemaiah is referring to Jeremiah here. See verses 27–28.
neck-iron(s) A ring made from iron. People put the rings around prisoners necks. They often fastened a chain to the ring to control the prisoners.
This is the message that came to Jeremiah from the Lord. The Lord, the God of the people of Israel, said: “Jeremiah, write in a book the words I have spoken to you. Write this book for yourself. Do this because the days will come”—this message is from the Lord—“when I will bring my people, Israel and Judah, back from exile.”

This message is from the Lord. “I will put those people back in the land that I gave to their ancestors. Then my people will own that land again.”

The Lord spoke this message about the people of Israel and Judah. This is what the Lord said:

“We hear people crying from fear! People are scared! There is no peace!

6 “Ask this question, and consider it: Can a man have a baby? Of course not! Then why do I see every strong man holding his stomach like a woman having labor pains? Why is every person’s face turning white like a dead man? Why? Because the men are very scared.

7 “This is a very important time for Jacob. This is a time of great trouble. There will never be another time like this. But Jacob will be saved.

8 “At that time,” this message is from the Lord All-Powerful, “I will break the yoke from the necks of the people of Israel and Judah. And I will break the ropes holding you. People from foreign countries will never again force my people to be slaves. The people of Israel and Judah will not serve foreign countries. No! They will serve the Lord their God. And they will serve David their king. I will send that king to them.

10 “So, Jacob my servant, don’t be afraid!” This message is from the Lord. “Israel, don’t be afraid. I will save you from that faraway place. You are captives in that faraway land, But I will save your descendants. I will bring them back from that land. Jacob will have peace again. People will not bother Jacob. There will be no enemy to scare my people.

11 People of Israel and Judah, I am with you.” This message is from the Lord. “And I will save you. I sent you to those nations. But I will completely destroy all those nations. It is true, I will destroy those nations, but I will not destroy you. You must be punished for the bad things you did. But I will discipline you fairly.”

12 The Lord says: “You people of Israel and Judah have a wound that can’t be cured. You have an injury that will not heal. It is true, I will destroy those nations, but I will not destroy you. You must be punished for the bad things you did. I hurt you like an enemy. I punished you very hard. I did this because of your great guilt.

13 There is no person to care for your sores. So you will not be healed.

14 You became friends with many nations. But those nations don’t care about you. Your ‘friends’ have forgotten you. I hurt you like an enemy. I punished you very hard. I did this because of your great guilt. I did this because of your many sins.

15 Israel and Judah, why are you yelling about your wound? Your wound is painful, and there is no cure for it. I, the Lord, did these things to you because of your great guilt. I did these things because of your many sins.
Those nations destroyed you, but now they have been destroyed.
Israel and Judah,
your enemies will become captives.*
Those people stole things from you.
But other people will steal from them.
Those people took things from you in war.
But other people will take things from them in war.
And I will bring your health back.
And I will heal your wounds.”
This message is from the Lord.
“Why? Because other people said you were outcasts.*
Those people said,
‘No one cares about Zion.’*”

The Lord says:
“Jacob’s* people are now in captivity.
But they will come back.
And I will have pity on Jacob’s houses.
The city* is now only an empty hill covered with ruined buildings.
But the city will be built again on its hill.
And the king’s house will be built again
where it should be.
People in those places
will sing songs of praise.
And there will be the sound of laughter.
I will give them many children.
Israel and Judah will not be small.
I will bring honor to them.
No person will look down on them.
Jacob’s family will be like the family of Israel long ago.
I will make Israel and Judah strong, and I will punish the people that hurt them.
One of their own people will lead them.
That ruler will come from my people.
People can come close to me
only if I ask them to.

So I will ask that leader to come to me,
and he will be close to me.
You will be my people.
And I will be your God.”

The Lord was very angry!
He punished the people.
The punishment came like a storm.
The punishment came like a tornado against those wicked people.
The Lord will be angry
until he finishes punishing the people.
He will be angry until he finishes
the punishment he planned.
When that day comes,
you people of Judah will understand.

The New Israel

The Lord said these things, “At that time, I will be the God of all the family groups of Israel. And they will be my people.”

The Lord says:
“The people who escaped the enemy’s sword will find comfort in the desert.
Israel will go there looking for rest.”

From far away, the Lord will appear to his people.

The Lord says:
“I love you people with a love that continues forever.
That is why I have continued showing you kindness.
Israel, my bride, I will build you again.
You will be a country again.
You will pick up your tambourines again.
You will dance with all the other people that are having fun.
You farmers of Israel will plant fields of grapes again.
You will plant those vineyards on the hills around the city of Samaria.
And those farmers will enjoy the fruit from those vineyards.
There will be a time when watchmen*
shout this message:

watchmen Usually this means a guard that stands on the city calls watching for people coming to the city. But here it probably means the prophets.
JEREMIAH 31:7–18

Their faces will shine with happiness about the good things the Lord gives them.
The Lord will give them grain, new wine, olive oil, young sheep, and cows.
They will be like a garden that has plenty of water.
And the people of Israel will not be troubled anymore.

13 Then the young women of Israel will be happy and dance.
And the young men and old men will join in the dancing.
I will change their sadness into happiness.
I will comfort the people of Israel.
I will change their sadness to happiness.
I will give the priests plenty of food.
And my people will be filled and satisfied with the good things I give them.”
This message is from the Lord.

15 The Lord says:
“A sound will be heard in Ramah.
It will be bitter crying and much sadness.
Rachel will be crying for her children.
Rachel will refuse to be comforted, because her children are dead.”

16 But the Lord says:
“Stop crying!
Don’t fill your eyes with tears!
You will be rewarded for your work!”
This message is from the Lord.
“The people of Israel will come back from their enemy’s land.
Israel, there is hope for you.”
This message is from the Lord.
“Your children will come back to their own land.

18 I have heard Ephraim* crying.
I heard Ephraim say these things:
‘Lord, you really punished me!
And I learned my lesson.
I was like a calf that was never trained.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
Ephraim This means the northern kingdom of Israel.
Jacob Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22–28.
The Lord saved his people Or, “Lord, save your people!” This is often a shout of victory.

Rachel Jacob’s wife. Here this means all the women that are crying for their husbands and children that have died in the war with Babylon.
Please stop punishing me,
and I will come back to you.
You truly are the Lord my God.

19 Lord, I wandered away from you.
But I learned about the bad things I did.
So I changed my heart and life.
I am ashamed and embarrassed about the foolish things I did when I was young.’

20 [God says,]
“You know that Ephraim* is my dear son.
I love that child.
Yes, I often criticized Ephraim,
but I still think about him.
I love him very much.
And I really do want to comfort him.”
This message is from the Lord.

21 “People of Israel, fix the road signs.
Put up the signs that show the way home.
Watch the road.
Remember the road you are leaving on.
Israel, my bride, come home.
Come back to your towns.

22 Unfaithful daughter,
how long will you wander around?
[When will you come home?]
When the Lord creates something new in the land: A woman surrounding a man.*

23The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: “I will again do good things for the people of Judah. I will bring back the people who were taken away as prisoners. At that time, the people in the land of Judah and in its towns will once again use these words: ‘May the Lord bless you, good home and holy mountain!’*”

24“People in all the towns of Judah will live together in peace. Farmers and those that move around with their flocks will live peacefully together in Judah. 25I will give rest and strength to the people that are weak and tired.”

26After hearing that, I (Jeremiah) woke up and looked around. That was a very pleasant sleep.

27“The days are coming,” this message is from the Lord, “when I will help the family of Israel and Judah to grow. I will help their children and animals to grow too. It will be like planting and caring for a plant. 28In the past, I watched over Israel and Judah, but I watched for the time to pull them up. I tore them down. I destroyed them. I gave many troubles to them. But now, I will watch over them to build them up and make them strong.” This message is from the Lord.

29“People won’t use this saying anymore:
The parents ate the sour grapes,
but the children got the sour taste.*

30No, each person will die for his own sin.
The person that eats sour grapes will get the sour taste.”

The New Agreement

31The Lord said these things, “The time is coming when I will make a new Agreement* with the family of Israel, and with the family of Judah. 32It will not be like the Agreement I made with their ancestors.* I made that Agreement when I took them by the hand and brought them out of Egypt. I was their Master, but they broke that Agreement.” This message is from the Lord.

33“In the future, I will make this Agreement* with the people of Israel.” This message is from the Lord. “I will put my teachings in their minds, and I will write them on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people.
34People will not have to teach their neighbors and relatives to know the Lord. Why? Because all people, from the least important to the greatest, will know me.” This message is from

---

Ephraim  This means the northern kingdom of Israel.
A woman surrounding a man  This line is hard to understand.
It might be part of some saying that was familiar to the people in Jeremiah’s time.
good home and holy mountain  This was a blessing for the temple and for Zion, the mountain the temple was built on.

parents … sour taste  This means that children were suffering for the things their parents did.
Agreement  Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement
between God and Israel.
ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents,
grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
the Lord. “I will forgive them for the bad things they did. I won’t remember their sins.”

The Lord Will Never Leave Israel

35 The Lord says:
“The Lord makes the sun shine in the day.
And the Lord makes the moon and the stars shine at night.
The Lord stirs up the sea so that its waves crash on the shore.
The Lord All-Powerful is his name.”

The Lord says these things:
36 “The descendants* of Israel will never stop being a nation.
That would happen only if I lost control of the sun, moon, stars, and sea.”

37 The Lord says:
“I’ll never reject the descendants of Israel.
That would happen only if people could measure the sky above,
and learn all the secrets of the earth below.
Only then would I reject the descendants of Israel.
Only then would I reject them for the bad things they have done.”

This message is from the Lord.

The New Jerusalem

38 This message is from the Lord, “The days are coming when the city of Jerusalem will be built again for the Lord. The whole city will be built again—from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. 39 The measuring line* will stretch from the Corner Gate straight to the hill of Gareb and then turn to the place named Gorah. 40 The whole valley where dead bodies and ashes are thrown will be holy to the Lord. And all the terraces down to the bottom of Kidron Valley all the way to the corner of Horse Gate will be included. All that area will be holy to the Lord. The city of Jerusalem will never again be torn down or destroyed.”

descendants A person’s children and their future families.
measuring line A rope or chain for measuring property lines.

32 This is the message from the Lord that came to Jeremiah during the tenth year that Zedekiah was king of Judah.* The tenth year of Zedekiah was the 18th year of Nebuchadnezzar. 2 At that time, the army of the king of Babylon was surrounding the city of Jerusalem. And Jeremiah was under arrest in the courtyard of the guard. This courtyard was at the palace of the king of Judah. 3 (Zedekiah king of Judah had put Jeremiah in prison in that place. Zedekiah didn’t like the things Jeremiah prophesied.* Jeremiah had said, “The Lord says: ‘I will soon give the city of Jerusalem to the king of Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar will capture this city. 4 Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape from the army of the Babylonians. But he will surely be given to the king of Babylon. And Zedekiah will speak to the king of Babylon face to face. Zedekiah will see him with his own eyes. 5 The king of Babylon will take Zedekiah to Babylon. Zedekiah will stay there until I have punished him.’ This message is from the Lord. ‘If you fight against the army of the Babylonians, you will not succeed.’ ”)

6 While Jeremiah was prisoner, he said, “The message from the Lord came to me. This was the message: 7 Jeremiah, your cousin, Hanamel, will come to you soon. He is the son of your uncle Shallum. Hanamel will say to you, ‘Jeremiah, buy my field near the town of Anathoth. Buy it because you are my nearest relative. It is your right and your responsibility to buy that field.’”

8 “Then it happened just as the Lord said. My cousin Hanamel came to me in the courtyard of the guard. Hanamel said to me, ‘Jeremiah, buy my field near the town of Anathoth, in the land of the family group of Benjamin. Buy that land for yourself because it is your right to buy it and own it.’”

So I knew that this was a message from the Lord. 9 I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel. I weighed out 17 shekels* of tenth year ... Judah This was 588–587 B.C. This was the year Jerusalem was destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar.
prophesied Spoke for God.
shekel Or, “2/5 of an ounce.”
silver for him. 10I signed the deed. And I had a copy of the deed sealed up. And I got some men to witness the things I had done. And I weighed out the silver on the scales. 11Then I took the sealed copy of the deed and the copy that was not sealed, and I gave them to Baruch. Baruch was the son of Neriah. Neriah was the son of Mahseiah. The sealed copy of the deed had all the terms and conditions of my purchase. I gave this deed to Baruch while my cousin Hanamel and the other witnesses were there. Those witnesses also signed the deed. There were also many people of Judah sitting in the courtyard that saw me give the deed to Baruch.

13With all the people watching, I said to Baruch: 14“The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: ‘Take both copies of the deed—the sealed copy and the copy that was not sealed—and put them in a clay jar. Do this so that these deeds will last a long time.’ 15The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: ‘In the future, my people will once again buy houses, fields, and vineyards in the land of Israel.’”

16After I gave the deed to Baruch son of Neriah I prayed to the Lord. I said:

17“Lord God, you made the skies and the earth. You made them with your great power. There is nothing too wonderful for you to do. 18Lord, you are loyal and kind to thousands of people. But you also bring punishment to children for their fathers’ sins. Great and powerful God, your name is the Lord All-Powerful. 19You plan and do great things, Lord. You see everything that people do. You give reward to people that do good things and you punish people that do bad things—you give them what they deserve. 20Lord, you did powerful miracles in the land of Egypt. You have done powerful miracles even until today. You did those things in Israel and you did those things wherever there are people. You have become famous because of these things. 21Lord, you used powerful miracles and brought your people Israel out of Egypt. You used your own powerful hand to do those things. Your power was amazing!

22“Lord, you gave this land to the people of Israel. This is the land you promised to give to their ancestors long ago. It is a very good land. It is a good land with many good things. 23The people of Israel came into this land and took it for their own. But those people didn’t obey you. They didn’t follow your teachings. They didn’t do the things you commanded. So you made all these terrible things happen to the people of Israel.

24“And now, the enemy has surrounded the city. They are building ramps, so that they can get over the walls of Jerusalem and capture it. By using their swords, and hunger, and terrible sicknesses, the Babylonian army will defeat the city of Jerusalem. The Babylonian army is attacking the city now. Lord, you said this would happen—and now you see it is happening.

25“Lord my Master, all of those bad things are happening. But now you are telling me, ‘Jeremiah, buy the field with silver and choose some men to witness the purchase.’ You are telling me this while the Babylonian army is ready to capture the city. [Why should I waste my money like that?]”

26Then the message from the Lord came to Jeremiah: 27“Jeremiah, I am the Lord. I am the God of every person on the earth. Jeremiah, you know that nothing is impossible for me.”

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

deed A piece of paper that proves a person owns a certain piece of property.

sealed up Important documents were rolled up and tied with a string. Then a piece of clay or wax was put on the string. Then a person’s mark was put in that clay or wax. This way, people could prove nothing in the document was changed.
They will soon enter the city and start a fire. They will burn this city down. There are houses in this city where the people of Jerusalem made me angry by offering sacrifices to the false god Baal on the housetops. And the people poured out drink offerings to other idol gods. The Babylonian army will burn down those houses. 30 I have watched the people of Israel and the people of Judah. Everything they do is evil. They have done evil things since they were young. The people of Israel have made me very angry. They have made me angry because they worship idols that they made with their own hands.” This message is from the Lord. 31 “From the time that Jerusalem was built until now, the people of this city have made me angry. This city has made me so angry, I must remove it from my sight. 32 I will destroy Jerusalem because of all the evil things the people of Israel and Judah have done. The people, their kings, leaders, their priests and prophets, the men of Judah, and the people of Jerusalem have all made me angry.

33 Those people should have come to me for help. But they turned their backs to me. I tried to teach those people again and again. But they would not listen to me. I tried to correct them, but they would not listen. 34 Those people have made their idols—and I hate those idols. They put their idols in the temple that is called by my name. In this way, they made my temple ‘dirty.’

35 In the Valley of Ben Hinnom, those people built high places to the false god Baal. They built those worship places so that they could burn their sons and daughters as child sacrifices. I never commanded them to do such a terrible thing. I never even thought the people of Judah would do such a terrible thing. 36 “You people are saying, ‘The king of Babylon will capture Jerusalem. He will use swords, hunger, and terrible sicknesses to defeat this city.’ But the Lord, the God of the people of Israel, says: 37 I have forced the people of Israel and Judah to leave their land. I was very angry with those people. But I will bring them back to this place. I will gather those people from the land where I forced them to go. I will bring them back to this place. I will let them live in peace and safety. 38 The people of Israel and Judah will be my people. And I will be their God. 39 I will give those people the desire to be truly one people. They will have one goal—they will truly want to worship me all their lives. They will truly want to do this, and so will their children.

40 “I will make an Agreement with the people of Israel and Judah. This Agreement will last forever. In this Agreement, I will never turn away from those people. I will always be good to them. Then they will never turn away from me. 41 They will make me happy. I will enjoy doing good to them. And I will surely plant them in this land and make them grow. I will do this with all my heart and soul.”

42 This is what the Lord says: “I have brought this great disaster to the people of Israel and Judah. In the same way, I will bring good things to them. I promise to do good things for them. 43 You people are saying: ‘This land is an empty desert. There are no people or animals here. The Babylonian army defeated this country.’ But in the future, people will once again buy fields in this land. 44 People will use their money and buy fields. They will sign and seal their agreements. People will again buy fields in the land where the family group of Benjamin lives. They will buy fields in the area around Jerusalem. They will buy fields in the towns of the land of Judah, in the hill country, in the western foothills, and in the area of the Valley of Ben Hinnom, those people built high places to the false god Baal. They built those worship places so that they could burn their sons and daughters as child sacrifices. I never commanded them to do this with all my heart and soul.’”

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

Valley of Ben Hinnom This valley is also called, “Gehenna.” This name comes from the Hebrew name “Ge Hinnom—Hinnom’s Valley.” This place became an example of how God punishes wicked people.

high places Special places where the people worshiped false gods. These places were often on hilltops, but not always. Some ‘high places’ were in valleys.

deed(s) A piece of paper that proves a person owns a certain piece of property.
southern desert. That will happen because I will bring your people back home.” This message is from the Lord.

The Promise of God

33

The message from the Lord came to Jeremiah a second time. Jeremiah was still locked up in the courtyard of the guards. 2The Lord made the earth, and he keeps it safe. The Lord is his name. The Lord says, 3“Judah, pray to me, and I will answer you. I will tell you important secrets. You have never heard these things before. 4The Lord is the God of Israel. The Lord says these things about the houses in Jerusalem and about the palaces of the kings of Judah. The enemy will pull those houses down. The enemy will build ramps up to the top of the city walls. The enemy will use swords and fight the people in these cities.

5The people in Jerusalem have done many bad things. I am angry at those people. I have turned against them. So I will kill many, many people there. The Babylonian army will come to fight against Jerusalem. There will be many, many dead bodies in the houses in Jerusalem.

6But then I will heal the people in that city. I will let those people enjoy peace and safety. 7I will make good things happen to Judah and Israel again. I will make those people strong like in the past. 8They sinned against me—but I will wash away that sin. They fought against me—but I will forgive them. 9Then Jerusalem will be a wonderful place. People will be happy. And people from other nations will praise it. This will happen at the time those people hear about the good things happening there. They will hear about the good things I am doing for Jerusalem.

10“You people are saying, ‘Our country is an empty desert. There are no people or animals living there.’ It is now quiet in the streets of Jerusalem and in the towns of Judah. But it will be noisy there soon. 11There will be the sounds of people bringing their gifts to the Lord’s temple. Those people will say, ‘Praise the Lord All-Powerful! The Lord is good! The Lord’s kindness continues forever!’ The people will say these things because I will again do good things to Judah. It will be like in the beginning.” The Lord said these things.

12The Lord All-Powerful says, “This place is empty now. There are no people or animals living here. But there will be people in all the towns of Judah. There will be shepherds, and there will be pastures where they will let their flocks rest. 13Shepherds count their sheep as the sheep walk in front of them. People will be counting their sheep all around the country—in the hill-country, in the western foothills, in the Negev, and in all the other towns of Judah.”

The Good Branch

14This message is from the Lord: “I made a special promise to the people of Israel and Judah. The time is coming when I will do the things I promised. 15At that time, I will make a good ‘branch’ grow from David’s family. That good ‘branch’ will do the things that are good and right for the country. 16At the time of this ‘branch,’ the people of Judah will be saved. The people will live safely in Jerusalem. The branch’s name is: ‘The Lord is Good.’”

17The Lord says, “A person from David’s family will always sit on the throne and rule the family of Israel. 18And there will always be priests from the family of Levi. Those priests will always stand before me and offer burnt offerings and sacrifice grain offerings and give sacrifices to me.”

19This message from the Lord came to Jeremiah. 20The Lord says, “I have an agreement with day and night. I agreed that they will continue forever. You can’t change that agreement. Day and night will always come at the right time. If you could change that agreement, 21then you could change my Agreement with David and Levi. Then descendants* from David would not be the kings and the family of Levi would not be priests. 22But I will give many descendants to my servant David and to the family group of Levi. They will be as many as the stars in the sky—no person can count all those stars. And they will be as many as the pieces of sand on the seashore—no person can count those pieces of sand.”

23Jeremiah received this message from the Lord: 24“Jeremiah, have you heard what the people are saying? Those people are saying, ‘The Lord turned away from the two families of Israel and Judah. The Lord chose those people, but now he does not even accept them as a nation.’”

25The Lord says, “If my agreement with day and night does not continue, and if I didn’t make the laws for the sky and earth, then maybe I would leave those people. 26Then maybe I would turn away from Jacob’s* descendants.* And then maybe I would not let David’s descendants rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. But David is my servant. And I will be kind to those people. And I will again cause good things to happen to those people.”

A Warning to Zedekiah King of Judah

34 The message from the Lord came to Jeremiah. The message came at the time when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, was fighting against Jerusalem and all the towns around it. Nebuchadnezzar had with him all his army and the armies of all the kingdoms and peoples in the empire he ruled.

2This was the message: “This is what the Lord, the God of the people of Israel, says: Jeremiah, go to Zedekiah king of Judah and give him this message: ‘Zedekiah, this is what the Lord says: I will give the city of Jerusalem to the king of Babylon very soon, and he will burn it down. Zedekiah, you will not escape from the king of Babylon. You will surely be caught and given to him. You will see the king of Babylon with your own eyes. He will talk to you face to face, and you will go to Babylon. 4But listen to the promise of the Lord, Zedekiah king of Judah. This is what the Lord says about you: You will not be killed with a sword. 5You will die in a peaceful way. People made funeral fires to honor your ancestors,* the kings that ruled before you became king. In the same way, people will make a funeral fire to honor you. They will cry for you. They will sadly say, “Oh, master!” I myself make this promise to you.’ This message is from the Lord.

6So Jeremiah gave the message from the Lord to Zedekiah in Jerusalem. 7This was while the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem. The army of Babylon was also fighting against the cities of Judah that had not been captured. Those cities were Lachish and Azekah. These were the only fortified cities left in the land of Judah.

The People Break One of their Agreements

8King Zedekiah had made an agreement with all the people in Jerusalem to give freedom to all the Hebrew slaves. A message from the Lord came to Jeremiah after Zedekiah had made that agreement. 9Every person was supposed to free his Hebrew slaves. All male and female Hebrew slaves were to be set free. No one was supposed to keep another person from the family group of Judah in slavery. 10So all the leaders of Judah and all the people accepted this agreement. Every person would free their male and female slaves and no longer keep them as slaves. Every person agreed, and so all the slaves were set free. 11But after that,* the people that had slaves changed their minds. So they took the people they had set free and made them slaves again.

12Then the message from the Lord came to Jeremiah: 13Jeremiah, this is what the Lord, the God of the people of Israel, says: “I ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
after that In the summer of 588 n.c., the Egyptian army came to help the people of Jerusalem, and the Babylonian army had to leave Jerusalem briefly to fight the Egyptians. The people of Jerusalem thought that God had helped them, and that things were back to normal, so they didn’t keep their promise. They took the slaves that they had set free back into slavery.

descendants A person’s children and their future families.
Jacob’s Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22–28.
brought your ancestors out of the land of Egypt, where they were slaves. When I did that, I made an Agreement with them. 14 I said to your ancestors: ‘At the end of every seven years, each person must set his Hebrew slaves free. If you have a fellow Hebrew that has sold himself to you, you must let him go free after he has served you for six years.’ But your ancestors didn’t listen to me or pay attention to me. 15 A short time ago, you changed your hearts to do what is right. Each of you gave freedom to his fellow Hebrews that were slaves. And you even made an agreement before me in the temple that is called by my name. 16 But now, you have changed your minds. You have shown you don’t honor my name. How did you do this? Each of you has taken back the male and female slaves that you had set free. You have forced them to become slaves again.

17 “So this is what the Lord says: ‘You people have not obeyed me. You have not given freedom to your fellow Hebrews. Because you have not kept the agreement, I will give “freedom.”’ This is the message of the Lord. ‘(I will give) “freedom” to be killed by swords, by terrible sicknesses, and by hunger! I will make you become something that terrifies all the kingdoms of the earth, when they hear about you. 18 I will hand over the men that broke my Agreement, and have not kept the promises they made before me. These men cut a calf into two pieces before me and walked between the two pieces. These are the people that walked between the two pieces of the calf when they made the Agreement before me: the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the important officials of the court, the priests, and the people of the land. 20 So I will give those people to their enemies and to every person that wants to kill them.

The Good Example of the Recabite Family

35 During the time when Jehoiakim was king of Judah, the message from the Lord came to Jeremiah. Jehoiakim was the son of King Josiah. This was the message from the Lord: 2 “Jeremiah, go to the Recabite family.* Invite them to come to one of the side rooms of the temple of the Lord. Offer them wine to drink.”

3 So I (Jeremiah) went to get Jaazaniah.* Jaazaniah was the son of a man named Jeremiah,* that was the son of a man named Habazziniah. And I got all of Jaazaniah’s brothers and sons. I got the whole family of the Recabites together. 4 Then I brought the Recabite family into the temple of the Lord. We went into the room called the room of the sons of Hanan. Hanan was the son of a man named Igdaliah. Hanan was a man of God.* The room was next to the room where the princes of Judah stay. It was over the room of Maaseiah son of Shallum. Maaseiah was the doorkeeper in the temple. 5 Then I (Jeremiah) left Jerusalem An army from Egypt came to help the people of Jerusalem in the summer of 588 B.C. So the Babylonian army left Jerusalem for a short time to fight them. See Jer. 37:5. See also the footnote to Jer. 34:11.

Recabite family A group of people descended from Jonadab son of Recab. The family was very loyal to the Lord. See 2 Kings 10:15-28 for the story of Jonadab.

Jaazaniah He was the head of the Recabite family at that time.

Jeremiah Not the prophet Jeremiah, but a different man of the same name.

man of God This is usually an honorable title for a prophet. We know nothing else about Hanan.
put some bowls full of wine with some cups in front of the Recabite family. And I said to them, “Drink some wine.”

6But the Recabite people answered, “We never drink wine. We never drink it because our ancestor Jonadab son of Recab, gave us this command: ‘You and your descendants must never drink wine. 7Also, you must never build houses, plant seeds, or plant vineyards. You must never do any of those things. You must live only in tents. If you do that, then you will live a long time in the land where you move from place to place.’ 8So, we Recabite people have obeyed everything our ancestor Jonadab commanded us. We never drink wine. And our wives, sons, and daughters never drink wine. 9We never build houses to live in. And we never own vineyards or fields. And we never plant crops. 10We have lived in tents and have obeyed everything our ancestor Jonadab commanded us. 11But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked the country of Judah, we did go into Jerusalem. We said to each other, ‘Come, we must enter the city of Jerusalem, so that we can escape the Babylonian army and the Aramean army.’ So we have stayed in Jerusalem.”

12Then the message from the Lord came to Jeremiah: 13The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: “Jeremiah, go and tell this message to the men of Judah and to the people of Jerusalem: You people should learn a lesson and obey my message.” This message is from the Lord. 14Jonadab son of Recab ordered his sons not to drink wine, and that command has been obeyed. Until today, the descendants of Jonadab obeyed their ancestor’s command. They don’t drink wine. But I am the Lord. And I have given you people of Judah messages again and again, but you didn’t obey me. 15I sent my servants the prophets to you people of Israel and Judah. I sent them to you again and again. Those prophets said to you, ‘Each of you people of Israel and Judah must stop doing evil things. You must be good. Don’t follow other gods. Don’t worship or serve them. If you obey me, then you will live in the land I have given to you and your ancestors.’ But you people have not paid attention to my message. 16The descendants of Jonadab obeyed the commands that their ancestor gave them. But the people of Judah have not obeyed me.”

17So the Lord God All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: “I said many bad things would happen to Judah and Jerusalem. I will soon make all those bad things happen. I spoke to those people, but they refused to listen. I called out to them, but they didn’t answer me.”

18Then Jeremiah said to the family of the Recabite people, “The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says, ‘You people have obeyed the commands of your ancestor Jonadab. You have followed all of Jonadab’s teachings. You have done everything he commanded. 19So the Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: There will always be a descendant of Jonadab son of Recab to serve me.’”

King Jehoiakim Burns Jeremiah’s Scroll

36The message from the Lord came to Jeremiah. This was during the fourth year that Jehoiakim son of Josiah was king of Judah. This was the message from the Lord: 2“Jeremiah, get a scroll* and write on it all the messages I have spoken to you. I have spoken to you about the nations of Israel and Judah and all the nations. Write all the words that I have spoken to you from the time that Josiah was king, until now. 3Maybe the family of Judah will hear what I am planning to do to them. And maybe they will stop doing bad things. If they will do that, I will forgive them for the bad sins they have done.”

4So Jeremiah called a man named Baruch. Baruch was the son of Neriah. Jeremiah spoke the messages the Lord had given him. While Jeremiah spoke, Baruch wrote those messages on the scroll.* 5Then Jeremiah said to Baruch, “I can’t go to the Lord’s temple. I am not allowed to go there. So I want you to go to the temple of the Lord. Go there on a day of fasting* and read to the people from the scroll. Read to the people the messages from the Lord that you wrote on the scroll as I spoke them to you. Read those messages to all the people of Judah that come into Jerusalem from the towns where they live. Perhaps those people will ask the Lord to help them. Perhaps each person will stop doing bad things. The Lord has announced that he is very angry with those people.” 8So Baruch son of Neriah did everything Jeremiah the prophet told him to do. Baruch read aloud the scroll that had the Lord’s messages written on it. He read it in the Lord’s temple. 9In the ninth month of the fifth year that Jehoiakim was king, a fast* was announced. All the people that lived in the city of Jerusalem, and everyone that had come into Jerusalem from the towns of Judah were supposed to fast before the Lord. 10At that time, Baruch read the scroll* that contained Jeremiah’s words. He read the scroll in the temple of the Lord. Baruch read the scroll to all the people that were in the Lord’s temple. Baruch was in the room of Gemariah in the upper courtyard when he read from the scroll. That room was located at the entrance of the New Gate of the temple. Gemariah was the son of Shaphan. Gemariah was a scribe* in the temple. 11A man named Micaiah heard all the messages from the Lord that Baruch read from the scroll.* Micaiah was the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan. 12When Micaiah heard the messages from the scroll, he went down to the secretary’s room in the king’s palace. All of the royal officials were sitting there in the king’s palace. These are the names of those officials: Elishama the secretary, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Acbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah; and all the other royal officials were there too. 13Micaiah told those officials everything he had heard Baruch read from the scroll. 14Then all those officials sent a man named Jehudi to Baruch. Jehudi was the son of Nethaniah, son of Shelemiah. Shelemiah was the son of Cushi. Jehudi said to Baruch, “Bring the scroll* that you read from and come with me.” 15Baruch son of Neriah took the scroll and went with Jehudi to the officials. 16Then those officials said to Baruch, “Sit down and read the scroll to us.” So Baruch read the scroll to them. 17Those royal officials heard all the messages from the scroll.* Then they became afraid, and they looked at one another. They said to Baruch, “We must tell King Jehoiakim about these messages on the scroll.” 18Then the officials asked Baruch a question. They said, “Tell us, Baruch, where did you get these messages that you wrote on the scroll? Did you write down the things Jeremiah spoke to you?” 19“Yes,” Baruch answered. “Jeremiah spoke, and I wrote down all the messages with ink on this scroll.” 20Then the royal officials put the scroll in the room of Elishama the scribe. They went to King Jehoiakim and told him all about the scroll. 21So King Jehoiakim sent Jehudi to get the scroll.* Jehudi brought the scroll from the room of Elishama the scribe. Then Jehudi read the scroll to the king and all of the servants that stood around the king. 22The time this happened was in the ninth month,* so King Jehoiakim was sitting in the winter apartment. There was a fire burning in a small fireplace in front of the king. 23Jehudi began to read from the scroll. But whenever he would read two or three columns, King Jehoiakim would grab the scroll. Then he would cut those columns off of the scroll.
JEREMIAH 36:7–23

fast(ing) Living without food for a special time of prayer and worship to God.
scroll A long roll of leather or papyrus (paper) used for writing books, letters, and legal documents.
scribe A man that wrote down and copied books and letters. He often become an expert at the meaning of those writings (Scriptures).
ninth month This was in November or December.
with a small knife and throw them into the fireplace. Finally, the whole scroll was burned in the fire. 24 And, when King Jehoiakim and his servants heard the message from the scroll, they were not afraid. They didn’t tear their clothes to show sorrow for doing wrong.

25 Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah tried to talk King Jehoiakim into not burning the scroll. But the king would not listen to them. 26 And King Jehoiakim commanded some men to arrest Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet. Those men were Jerahmeel, a son of the king, Seraiah son of Azriel, and Shelemiah son of Abdeel. But those men could not find Baruch and Jeremiah, because the Lord had hidden them.

27 The message from the Lord came to Jeremiah. This happened after King Jehoiakim burned the scroll that had contained all the messages from the Lord. Jeremiah had spoken to Baruch, and Baruch had written the messages on the scroll. This was the message from the Lord that came to Jeremiah:

28 “Jeremiah, get another scroll. Write all the messages on it that were on the first scroll. That is the scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah burned. 29 Jeremiah, also say this to Jehoiakim king of Judah, ‘This is what the Lord says: Jehoiakim, you burned that scroll. You said, “Why did Jeremiah write that the king of Babylon will surely come and destroy this land? Why did he say that the king of Babylon will destroy both men and animals in this land?”’ 30 So, this is what the Lord says about Jehoiakim king of Judah: Jehoiakim’s descendants will not sit on David’s throne. When Jehoiakim dies, he will not get a king’s funeral, but his body will be thrown out on the ground. His body will be left out in the heat of the day and the cold frost of the night. 31 I, the Lord, will punish Jehoiakim and his children. And I will punish his officials. I will do this because they are wicked. I have promised to bring terrible disasters on them and on all the people that live in Jerusalem and on the people from Judah. I will bring all the bad things on them, just as I promised, because they have not listened to me.”’

32 Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch son of Neriah, the scribe. As Jeremiah spoke, Baruch wrote on the scroll the same messages that were on the scroll that King Jehoiakim had burned in the fire. And many other words like those messages were added to the second scroll.

Jeremiah Is Put in Prison

37 Nebuchadnezzar was the king of Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar appointed Zedekiah as king of Judah in the place of Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim. Zedekiah was a son of King Josiah. 3But Zedekiah did not pay attention to the messages the Lord had given to Jeremiah the prophet to preach. And Zedekiah’s servants and the people of Judah did not pay attention to the Lord’s messages.

3 King Zedekiah sent a man named Jehucal and the priest Zephaniah to Jeremiah the prophet with a message. Jehucal was the son of Shelemiah. The priest Zephaniah was the son of Maaseiah. This was the message they brought to Jeremiah: “Jeremiah, pray to the Lord our God for us.”

4 (At that time, Jeremiah had not yet been put into prison, so he was free to go anywhere he wanted. 5 Also at that time, Pharaoh’s army had marched from Egypt toward Judah. The Babylonian army had surrounded the city of Jerusalem, in order to defeat it. Then they had heard about the army from Egypt marching toward them. So the army from Babylon had left Jerusalem to fight with the army from Egypt.)

6 The message from the Lord came to Jeremiah the prophet: “This is what the Lord, the God of the people of Israel, says: ‘Jehucal and Zephaniah, I know that Zedekiah king of Judah, sent you to me to ask questions. Tell this to King Zedekiah: Pharaoh’s army marched out of Egypt to come here to help you against the army of Babylon. But Pharaoh’s army will go back to Egypt.”

---

Words and Terms:
- scroll: A long roll of leather or papyrus (paper) used for writing books, letters, and legal documents.
- scribe: A man that wrote down and copied books and letters. He often becomes an expert at the meaning of those writings (Scriptures).
- descendants: A person’s children and their future families.
that, the army from Babylon will come back here. They will attack Jerusalem. Then that army from Babylon will capture and burn Jerusalem.

9This is what the Lord says: ‘People of Jerusalem, don’t fool yourselves. Don’t say to yourselves, “The army of Babylon will surely leave us alone.” They will not. 10People of Jerusalem, even if you could defeat all of the Babylonian army that is attacking you, there would still be a few wounded men left in their tents. Even those few wounded men would come out of their tents and burn Jerusalem down.’”

11When the Babylonian army left Jerusalem to fight the army of the Pharaoh of Egypt, 12Jeremiah wanted to travel from Jerusalem to the land of Benjamin. He was going there to attend a division of some property that belonged to his family. 13But when Jeremiah got to the Benjamin Gate of Jerusalem, the captain in charge of the guards arrested him. The captain’s name was Irijah. Irijah was the son of Shelemiah. Shelemiah was the son of Hananiah. So Irijah the captain arrested Jeremiah and said, “Jeremiah, you are leaving us to join the Babylonian side.”

14Jeremiah said to Irijah, “That is not true. I am not leaving to join the Babylonians.” But Irijah refused to listen to Jeremiah. And Irijah arrested Jeremiah and took him to the royal officials of Jerusalem. 15Those officials were very angry with Jeremiah. They gave an order for Jeremiah to be beaten. Then they put Jeremiah in a prison. The prison was in the house of a man named Jonathan. Jonathan was a scribe for the king of Judah. Jonathan’s house had been made into a prison. 16Then they put Jeremiah into a cell under the house of Jonathan. That cell was in a dungeon under the ground. Jeremiah was there for a long time.

17Then King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah and had him brought to the king’s house. Zedekiah talked to Jeremiah in private. He asked Jeremiah, “Is there any message from the Lord?”

Jeremiah answered, “Yes, there is a message from the Lord. Zedekiah, you will be given to the king of Babylon.” 18Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, “What have I done wrong? What crime have I done against you or your officials or the people of Jerusalem? Why have you thrown me into prison? 19King Zedekiah, where are your prophets now? Those prophets preached a false message to you. They said, ‘The king of Babylon will not attack you or this land of Judah.’

20But now, my lord, king of Judah, please listen to me. Please let me bring my request to you. This is what I ask: Don’t send me back to the house of Jonathan the scribe. If you send me back, I will die there.”

21So King Zedekiah gave orders for Jeremiah to be put under guard in the courtyard. And he ordered that Jeremiah should be given bread from the street bakers. Jeremiah was given bread until there was no more bread in the city. So Jeremiah stayed under guard in the courtyard.

Jeremiah Is Thrown into a Cistern

38Some of the royal officials heard what Jeremiah was preaching. They were: Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jehucal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malkijah. Jeremiah was telling all the people this message: 2“This is what the Lord says: ‘Everyone that stays in Jerusalem will die by a sword, or hunger, or terrible sickness. But everyone that surrenders to the army of Babylon will live. Those people will escape with their lives.’

3And this is what the Lord says: ‘This city of Jerusalem will surely be given to the army of the king of Babylon. He will capture this city.’”

4Then those royal officials that heard the things Jeremiah was telling the people went to King Zedekiah. They said to the king, “Jeremiah must be put to death. He is making the soldiers that are still in the city become discouraged. Jeremiah is discouraging everyone by the things he is saying. Jeremiah does not want good to happen to us. He wants to ruin the people of Jerusalem.”
5 So King Zedekiah said to those officials, “Jeremiah is in your control. I can’t do anything to stop you.”
6 So those officials took Jeremiah and put him into Malkijah’s cistern. (Malkijah was the king’s son.) That cistern was in the temple yard where the king’s guard stayed. Those officials used ropes to lower Jeremiah into the cistern. The cistern didn’t have any water in it, but only mud. And Jeremiah sank down into the mud.

But a man named Ebed Melech heard that those officials had put Jeremiah into the cistern. Ebed Melech was a man from Ethiopia, and he was a eunuch in the king’s house. King Zedekiah was sitting at the Benjamin Gate. So Ebed Melech left the king’s house and went to talk to the king at that gate. 8–9 Ebed Melech said, “My lord and king, those officials have acted in a wicked way. They have treated Jeremiah the prophet wickedly. They have thrown him into a cistern. They have left him there to die.”

Then King Zedekiah gave a command to Ebed Melech, the Ethiopian. This was the command: “Ebed Melech, take three men from the king’s house with you. Go and lift Jeremiah out of the cistern before he dies.”

So Ebed Melech took the men with him.
But first he went to a room under the storeroom in the king’s house. He took some old rags and worn-out clothes from that room. Then he let those rags down with some ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern. Ebed Melech, the Ethiopian, said to Jeremiah, “Put these old rags and worn-out clothes under your arms. When we pull you out, these rags will pad your underarms. Then the ropes will not hurt you.” So Jeremiah did as Ebed Melech said. Those men pulled Jeremiah up with the ropes and lifted him out of the cistern. And Jeremiah stayed under guard in the temple yard.

Zedekiah Asks Jeremiah Some Questions
14 Then King Zedekiah sent someone to get Jeremiah the prophet. He had Jeremiah brought to the third entrance to the temple of the Lord.
Then the king said, “Jeremiah, I am going to ask you something. Don’t hide anything from me, but tell me everything honestly.” 15 Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “If I give you an answer, you will probably kill me. And even if I did give you advice, you would not listen to me.”

But King Zedekiah secretly swore an oath to Jeremiah. Zedekiah said, “The Lord gives us breath and life. As surely as the Lord lives I will not kill you, Jeremiah. And I promise not to give you to those officials that want to kill you.”

Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah,
“The Lord God All-Powerful is the God of Israel. The Lord says, ‘If you surrender to the officials of the king of Babylon, your life will be saved and Jerusalem will not be burned down. And you and your family will live.
But if you refuse to surrender then Jerusalem will be given to the Babylonian army. They will burn Jerusalem down, and you will not escape from them.’”

But King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “But I am afraid of the men of Judah that have already gone over to the side of the Babylonian army. I am afraid that the soldiers will give me to those men of Judah and they will treat me badly and hurt me.”

But Jeremiah answered, “The soldiers will not give you to those men of Judah. King Zedekiah, obey the Lord by doing what I tell you. Then things will go well for you, and your life will be saved. But if you refuse to surrender to the army of Babylon, the Lord has shown me what will happen. This is what the Lord has told me: All the women that are left in the house of the king of Judah will be brought out. They will be brought to the important officials of the king of Babylon.
Your women will make fun of you with a song. This is what the women will say:

cistern A deep hole in the ground used to store water.
eunuch A man that had his sexual organs removed. Often important officials of the king were eunuchs.
They have left him there to die Literally, “He will starve to death because there is no more bread in the city.”
three Some Hebrew copies have “30.”
Jeremiah 38:23–39:13

916

‘Your good friends led you the wrong way and were stronger than you. Those were friends that you trusted. Your feet are stuck in the mud. Your friends have left you.’

23 All your wives and children will be brought out. They will be given to the Babylonian army. You yourself will not escape from the army of Babylon. You will be captured by the king of Babylon, and Jerusalem will be burned down.”

24 Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “Don’t tell any person that I have been talking to you. If you do, you might die. 25 Those officials might find out that I talked to you. Then they will come to you and say, ‘Jeremiah, tell us what you said to King Zedekiah. And tell us what King Zedekiah said to you. Be honest with us and tell us everything, or we will kill you.’ 26 If they say this to you, then tell them, ‘I was begging the king not to send me back to the cell in the dungeon* under Jonathan’s house. If I were to go back there, I would die.’”

27 It happened that those royal officials of the king did come to Jeremiah to question him. So Jeremiah told them everything the king had ordered him to say. Then those officials left Jeremiah alone. No person had heard what Jeremiah and the king had talked about.

28 So Jeremiah stayed under guard in the temple yard until the day Jerusalem was captured.

The Fall of Jerusalem

39 This is how Jerusalem was captured: During the tenth month of the ninth year that Zedekiah was king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army. He surrounded the city to defeat it. 2 And on the ninth day of the fourth month in Zedekiah’s eleventh year, the wall of Jerusalem was broken through. 3 Then all the royal officials of the king of Babylon came into the city of Jerusalem. They came in and sat down at the Middle Gate. These are the names of those officials: Nergal-Sharezer, the governor of the district of Samgar, a very high official; Nebo Sarsekim, another very high official; and various other important officials were there also.

4 Zedekiah king of Judah saw those officials from Babylon, so he and the soldiers with him ran away. They left Jerusalem at night. They went out through the king’s garden and out through the gate that was between the two walls. Then they went toward the desert. 5 The Babylonian army chased Zedekiah and the soldiers with him. Those soldiers caught up with Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. They captured Zedekiah and took him to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar was at the town of Riblah, in the land of Hamath. At that place, Nebuchadnezzar decided what to do to Zedekiah. 6 There at the town of Riblah, the king of Babylon killed Zedekiah’s sons, while Zedekiah watched. And Nebuchadnezzar killed all the royal officials of Judah while Zedekiah watched. 7 Then Nebuchadnezzar tore out Zedekiah’s eyes. He put bronze chains on Zedekiah and took him to Babylon.

8 The army of Babylon set fire to the king’s house and the houses of the people of Jerusalem. And they broke down the walls of Jerusalem. 9 A man named Nebuzaradan was the commander of the king of Babylon’s special guards. He took the people that were left in Jerusalem and made them captives. He carried them away to Babylon. Nebuzaradan also made those people of Jerusalem captives that had surrendered to him earlier. He made all the others of the people of Jerusalem captives and carried them away to Babylon.

10 But Nebuzaradan, the commander of the special guards, left some of the poor people of Judah behind. Those were the people that owned nothing. So on that day, Nebuzaradan gave those poor people of Judah vineyards and fields.

11 But Nebuchadnezzar gave some orders to Nebuzaradan about Jeremiah. Nebuzaradan was the commander of Nebuchadnezzar’s special guards. These were the orders: 12 “Find Jeremiah and take care of him. Don’t hurt him. Give him whatever he asks for.”

13 So Nebuzaradan, the commander of the king’s special guards, Nebushazban, a chief officer in the army of Babylon, Nergal-Sharezer, a high official, and all the other officers of the army of Babylon sent for Jeremiah. Those men had Jeremiah taken out of the temple yard where he had been under the guard of the king of Judah. Those officers of the army of Babylon turned Jeremiah over to Gedaliah. Gedaliah was the son of Ahikam. Ahikam was the son of Shaphan. Gedaliah had orders to take Jeremiah back home. So Jeremiah was taken home, and he stayed among his own people.

A Message from the Lord to Ebed-Melech

While the guards were watching Jeremiah in the temple yard, a message from the Lord came to him. This was the message:

Jeremiah, go and tell Ebed-Melech, the man from Ethiopia, this message: ‘This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of the people of Israel, says: Very soon I will make my messages about this city of Jerusalem come true. My messages will come true through disaster and not good things. You will see everything come true with your own eyes.

But I will save you on that day, Ebed-Melech.’ This is the message of the Lord. ‘You won’t be given to the people you are afraid of. I will save you, Ebed-Melech. You won’t die from a sword, but you will escape and live. That will happen because you have trusted in me.’” This message is from the Lord.

Jeremiah Is Set Free

The message from the Lord came to Jeremiah after he was set free at the city of Ramah. Nebuzaradan, the commander of the king of Babylon’s special guards, found Jeremiah in Ramah. Jeremiah was bound with chains. He was with all the captives from Jerusalem and Judah. Those captives were being taken away in captivity to Babylon. When commander Nebuzaradan found Jeremiah, he spoke to him. He said, “Jeremiah, the Lord, your God, announced that this disaster would come to this place. And now the Lord has done everything just as he said he would do. This disaster happened because you people of Judah sinned against the Lord. You people didn’t obey the Lord. But now, Jeremiah, I will set you free. I am taking the chains off your wrists. If you want to, come with me to Babylon, and I will take good care of you. But if you don’t want to come with me, then don’t come. Look, the whole country is open to you. Go anywhere you want. Or go back to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan. The king of Babylon has chosen Gedaliah to be governor over the towns of Judah. Go and live with Gedaliah among the people. Or you can go anywhere you want.”

Then Nebuzaradan gave Jeremiah some food and a present and let him go. So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah. Jeremiah stayed with Gedaliah among the people that were left behind in the land of Judah.

The Short Rule of Gedaliah

There were some soldiers from the army of Judah, officers and their men, still out in the open country when Jerusalem was destroyed. Those soldiers heard that the king of Babylon had put Gedaliah son of Ahikam in charge of the people that were left in the land. The people that were left were men, women, and children that were very poor and were not carried off to Babylon as captives. So those soldiers came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. Those soldiers were: Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan, and his brother Jonathan, sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, sons of Ephai from Netophah, and Jaazaniah son of the Maacathite, and the men that were with them.

Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, made an oath to make those soldiers and their men feel more secure. This is what Gedaliah said: “You soldiers, don’t be afraid to serve the Babylonian people. Settle down in the land and serve the king of Babylon. If you do this, things will go well for you. I, myself, will live in Mizpah. I will speak for you before the Chaldean people that come here. You people would do. This disaster happened because you people of Judah sinned against the Lord. You people didn’t obey the Lord. But now, Jeremiah, I will set you free. I am taking the chains off your wrists. If you want to, come with me to Babylon, and I will take good care of you. But if you don’t want to come with me, then don’t come. Look, the whole country is open to you. Go anywhere you want. Or go back to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan. The king of Babylon has chosen Gedaliah to be governor over the towns of Judah. Go and live with Gedaliah among the people. Or you can go anywhere you want.”

Then Nebuzaradan gave Jeremiah some food and a present and let him go. So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah. Jeremiah stayed with Gedaliah among the people that were left behind in the land of Judah.

The Short Rule of Gedaliah

There were some soldiers from the army of Judah, officers and their men, still out in the open country when Jerusalem was destroyed. Those soldiers heard that the king of Babylon had put Gedaliah son of Ahikam in charge of the people that were left in the land. The people that were left were men, women, and children that were very poor and were not carried off to Babylon as captives. So those soldiers came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. Those soldiers were: Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan, and his brother Jonathan, sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, sons of Ephai from Netophah, and Jaazaniah son of the Maacathite, and the men that were with them.

Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, made an oath to make those soldiers and their men feel more secure. This is what Gedaliah said: “You soldiers, don’t be afraid to serve the Babylonian people. Settle down in the land and serve the king of Babylon. If you do this, things will go well for you. I, myself, will live in Mizpah. I will speak for you before the Chaldean people that come here. You people...”
leave that work to me. You should harvest the wine, the summer fruit, and the oil. Put what you harvest in your storage jars. Live in the towns that you have taken control of.”

11All the people of Judah that were in the countries of Moab, Ammon, Edom, and all the other countries heard that the king of Babylon had left some people of Judah in the land. And they heard that the king of Babylon had chosen Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, to be governor over them. 12When those people of Judah heard that news, they came back to the land of Judah. They came back to Gedaliah at Mizpah from all the countries where they had been scattered. So they came back and gathered a large harvest of wine and summer fruit.

13Johanan son of Kareah and all the officers of the army of Judah that were still in the open country came to Gedaliah. Gedaliah was at the town of Mizpah. 14Johanan and those officers with him said to Gedaliah, “Do you know that Baalis, the king of the Ammonite people, wants to kill you? He has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to kill you.” But Gedaliah son of Ahikam didn’t believe them.

15Then Johanan son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in private at Mizpah. Johanan said to Gedaliah, “Let me go and kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah, who is a member of the king’s family. He was one of the officers of the king of Judah. I will kill him, and nobody will know about it. We should not let Ishmael kill you. His plan would cause all the people of Judah that are gathered around you to be scattered to different countries again. And that would mean that the few survivors of Judah would be lost.”

16But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, “Don’t kill Ishmael. The things you are saying about Ishmael are not true.”

41In the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah (the son of Elishama) came to Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Ishmael came with ten of his men. Those men came to the town of Mizpah. Ishmael was a member of the king’s family. He had been one of the officers of the king of Judah. Ishmael and his men ate a meal with Gedaliah. 2While they were eating together, Ishmael and his ten men got up and killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam with a sword. Gedaliah was the man that the king of Babylon had chosen to be governor of Judah. 3Ishmael also killed all the men of Judah that were with Gedaliah at the town of Mizpah. Ishmael also killed the Babylonian soldiers that were there with Gedaliah.

4–5The day after Gedaliah was murdered, 80 men came to Mizpah. They were bringing grain offerings and incense* to the Lord’s temple.* Those 80 men had shaved off their beards, torn their clothes, and cut themselves.* They came from Shechem, Shiloh, and Samaria. None of these men knew that Gedaliah had been murdered. 6Ishmael left Mizpah and went to meet those 80 men. He cried* while he walked out to meet them. Ishmael met those 80 men and said, “Come with me to meet with Gedaliah son of Ahikam.” 7–8As soon as they were in the city, Ishmael and the men with him began to kill the 80 men and throw them into a deep cistern!* But ten of the men said to Ishmael, “Don’t kill us! We have hidden some things in a field. We have wheat and barley, and oil and honey. [We will give those things to you!]” So Ishmael stopped and didn’t kill them with the others. 9(Ishmael threw the dead bodies into the cistern until it was full—and that cistern was very big! It had been built by a king of Judah named Asa. King Asa had made the cistern so that during war there would be water in the city.* Asa did this to protect his city from Baasha, the king of Israel.)

10Ishmael captured all the other people in the town of Mizpah and started to cross over to the country of the Ammonite people. (Those people included the king’s daughters, and all the other people that were left there. Nebuzaradan, the commander of the king of Babylon, was there too.)

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.
temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
shaved … cut themselves The men did this to show that they were sad about the destruction of the Lord’s temple in Jerusalem.
He cried Ishmael was acting like he was sad about the destruction of the temple.
cistern A deep hole in the ground used to store water.
King Asa … city King Asa lived about 300 years before the time of Gedaliah. See 1 Kings 15:22 for the story about Asa building defenses for Mizpah.
JEREMIAH 41:11–42:15

Babylon’s special guards, had chosen Gedaliah to watch over those people.

11Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers that were with him, heard about all the evil things Ishmael had done. 12So Johanan and the army officers with him took their men and went to fight Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They caught Ishmael near the big pool of water that is at the town of Gibeon. 13The captives* that Ishmael had taken captive saw Johanan and the army officers. Those people became very happy. 14Then all those people that Ishmael had taken captive at the town of Mizpah ran to Johanan son of Kareah. 15But Ishmael and eight of his men escaped from Johanan. They ran away to the Ammonite people.

16So Johanan son of Kareah and all his army officers rescued the captives.* Ishmael had murdered Gedaliah and then he had taken those people from Mizpah. Among the survivors* were soldiers, women, children, and court officials. Johanan brought them back from the town of Gibeon.

The Escape to Egypt

17–18Johanan and the other army officers were afraid of the Chaldeans.* The king of Babylon had chosen Gedaliah to be governor of Judah. But Ishmael murdered Gedaliah, and Johanan was afraid that the Chaldeans would be angry. So they decided to run away to Egypt. On the way to Egypt, they stayed at Geruth Kimham. Geruth Kimham is near the town of Bethlehem.

While they were at Geruth Kimham, Johanan and a man named Jezeaniah son of Hoshaijah went to Jeremiah the prophet. All the army officers went with Johanan and Jezeaniah. All the people, from the least important to the most important person, went to Jeremiah. 2All those people said to him, “Jeremiah, please listen to what we ask. Pray to the Lord your God for all these people that are survivors* from the family of Judah. Jeremiah, you can see that there are not many of us left. At one time there were many of us. 3Jeremiah, pray that the Lord your God will tell us where we should go and what we should do.”

4Then Jeremiah the prophet answered, “I understand the things you want me to do. I will pray to the Lord your God, like you asked me to do. I will tell you everything the Lord says. I will not hide anything from you.”

5Then those people said to Jeremiah, “If we don’t do everything the Lord your God tells us, then we hope the Lord will be a true and faithful witness against us. We know the Lord your God will send you to tell us what to do. 6It does not matter if we like the message or if we don’t like the message. We will obey the Lord our God. We are sending you to the Lord for a message from him. We will obey what he says. Then good things will happen to us. Yes, we will obey the Lord our God.”

7At the end of ten days, the message from the Lord came to Jeremiah. 8Then Jeremiah called together Johanan son of Kareah and the army officers that were with him. Jeremiah also called all the other people together, from the least important to the most important person. 9Then Jeremiah said to them, “This is what the Lord, the God of the people of Israel, says. You sent me to him. I asked the Lord what you wanted me to ask. This is what the Lord says: 10If you people will stay in Judah, I will make you strong—I will not destroy you. I will plant you, and I will not pull you up. I will do this because I am sad about the terrible things that I made happen to you. 11Now you are afraid of the king of Babylon. But don’t be afraid of him. Don’t be afraid of the king of Babylon,’ this is the message of the Lord, ‘because I am with you. I will save you. I will rescue you. He will not get his hands on you. 12I will be kind to you. And the king of Babylon will also treat you with mercy. And he will bring you back to your land.’ 13But you might say, ‘We will not stay in Judah.’ If you say that, you will disobey the Lord your God. 14And you might say, ‘No, we will go and live in Egypt. We will not be bothered with war in that place. We will not hear the trumpets of war. And in Egypt we will not be hungry.’ 15If you say those things, then listen to the message of the Lord, you survivors* from Judah. This is what the Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: ‘If you decide to go to live in Egypt, then these things will happen: 16You are afraid of the sword of war, but it will defeat you there. And you are worried about hunger, but you will be hungry in Egypt. You will die there. 17Every person that decides to go live in Egypt will die by a sword, or hunger, or terrible sickness. Not one person that goes to Egypt will survive. Not one of them will escape the terrible things that I will bring to them.’

18“The Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: ‘I showed my anger against Jerusalem. I punished the people that lived in Jerusalem. In the same way, I will show my anger against every person that goes to Egypt. People will use you as an example when they ask for bad things to happen to other people. You will become like a curse word. People will be ashamed of you. People will insult you. And you will never see Judah again.’

19Survivors* of Judah, the Lord told you: ‘Don’t go to Egypt.’ I warn you right now, 20you people are making a mistake that will cause your deaths. You people sent me to the Lord your God. You said to me, ‘Pray to the Lord our God for us. Tell us everything the Lord says to do. We will obey the Lord.’ 21So today, I have told you the message from the Lord. But you have not obeyed the Lord your God. You have not done all that he sent me to tell you to do. 22So now, be sure you understand this: You people want to go live in Egypt. But these things will happen to you in Egypt. You will die by a sword, or hunger, or terrible sickness.’

23So Jeremiah finished telling the people the message from the Lord their God. Jeremiah told them everything that the Lord had sent him to tell the people.

2Azariah son of Hoshaiah, Johanan son of Kareah, and some other men were proud and stubborn. Those people became angry at Jeremiah. Those men said to Jeremiah, “Jeremiah, you are lying! The Lord our God didn’t send you to say to us, ‘You people must not go to Egypt to live there.’ 3Jeremiah, we think that Baruch son of Neriah is encouraging you to be against us. He wants you to give us to the Babylonian people. He wants you to do this so they can kill us. Or he wants you to do this so that they can make us captives* and carry us to Babylon.’

4So Johanan, the army officers, and all the people disobeyed the Lord’s command. The Lord had commanded them to stay in Judah. 5But instead of obeying the Lord, Johanan and the army officers took those survivors* from Judah to Egypt. In the past, the enemy had taken those survivors to other countries. But they had come back to Judah. 6Now, Johanan and all the army officers took all the men, women, and children and led them to Egypt. Among those people were the king’s daughters. (Nebuzaradan had put Gedaliah in charge of those people. Nebuzaradan was the commander of the king of Babylon’s special guards.) Johanan also took Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah. 7Those people didn’t listen to the Lord. So all those people went to Egypt. They went to the town of Tahpanhes.*

8In the town of Tahpanhes, Jeremiah received this message from the Lord:

9Jeremiah, get some large stones. Take them and bury them in the clay and brick sidewalk in front of Pharaoh’s official building in Tahpanhes. Do this while the men of Judah are watching you. 10Then say to those men of Judah that are watching you: ‘This is what the Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: I will send for Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, to come here. He is my servant. And I will set his throne over these stones I have buried here. Nebuchadnezzar will spread his canopy* above these stones. 11Nebuchadnezzar will come here and attack Egypt. He will bring death to those that are to die. He will bring captivity to those that are to be taken captive. And he will bring the sword to those that are to captives  People that were taken away like prisoners.

Tahpanhes  A town in northeastern Egypt.
canopy  A temporary covering used for shade. It is like a tent without sides.
be killed with a sword. Nebuchadnezzar will start a fire in the temples of the false gods of Egypt. He will burn those temples and he will take those idols away. A shepherd picks the bugs and stickers off of his clothes to make them clean. In the same way, Nebuchadnezzar will pick Egypt clean. Then he will safely leave Egypt. Nebuchadnezzar will destroy the memorial stones that are in the temple of the Sun God in Egypt. And he will burn down the temples of the false gods of Egypt.”

The Lord’s Messages to the People of Judah in Egypt

Jeremiah received a message from the Lord. This message was for all the people of Judah living in Egypt. The message was for the people of Judah living in the towns of Migdol, Tahpanhes, Memphis, and southern Egypt. This was the message: The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says, “You people saw the terrible happenings that I brought on the city of Jerusalem and on all the towns of Judah. Those towns are empty piles of stones today. Those places were destroyed because the people living in them did evil things. Those people gave sacrifices to other gods — and that made me angry! Your people and your ancestors did not worship those gods in the past. I sent my prophets to those people again and again. Those prophets were my servants. Those prophets spoke my message and said to the people, ‘Don’t do this terrible thing. I hate for you to worship idols.’ But those people didn’t listen to the prophets. They didn’t pay attention to those prophets. Those people didn’t stop doing wicked things. They didn’t stop making sacrifices to other gods. So, I showed my anger against those people. I punished the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem. My anger made Jerusalem and the towns of Judah the empty piles of stone they are today.”

memorial stones Stones that were set up to help people remember something special. In ancient Israel, people often set up stones as special places to worship false gods.

Sun God This was the most important god in Egypt.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

7So, the Lord God All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: “Why are you hurting yourselves by continuing to worship idols? You are separating the men and women, the children and babies from the family of Judah. And so you leave yourselves without any survivors from the family of Judah. Why do you people want to make me angry by making idols? Now you are living in Egypt. And now you are making me angry by offering sacrifices to the false gods of Egypt. You people will destroy yourselves. It will be your own fault. You will make yourselves something that people of other nations will speak evil of. And all the other nations on the earth will make fun of you.

9Have you forgotten about the wicked things your ancestors did? And have you forgotten about the wicked things the kings and queens of Judah did? Have you forgotten about the wicked things you and your wives did in Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? Even to this day, the people of Judah have not made themselves humble. They have not shown any respect for me. And those people have not followed my teachings. They have not obeyed the laws I gave you and your ancestors.”

11So, this is what the Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: “I have decided to make terrible things happen to you. I will destroy the whole family of Judah. There were a few survivors from Judah. Those people came here to Egypt. But I will destroy those few survivors from the family of Judah. They will be killed with swords or die from hunger. They will be something that people of other nations will speak evil about. Other nations will be afraid at what happened to those people. Those people will become a curse word. Other nations will insult those people of Judah. I will punish those people that have gone to live in Egypt. I will use swords, hunger, and terrible sicknesses to punish them. I will punish those people just like I punished the city of Jerusalem. Not one of the few survivors of Judah that have gone to live in Egypt will escape my punishment. None of them will survive to come back to Judah. Those people want to come back to Judah and live there. But not one of those people will go back to Judah, except maybe a few people that escape.”

15Many of the women of Judah that lived in Egypt were making sacrifices to other gods. Their husbands knew it, but didn’t stop them. There was a large group of people of Judah meeting together. They were the people of Judah that were living in southern Egypt. The husbands of those women that were making sacrifices to other gods said to Jeremiah, 16“We will not listen to the message from the Lord that you spoke to us. 17We promised to make sacrifices to the Queen of Heaven.* And we will do everything we promised. We will offer sacrifices and pour out drink offerings in worship to her. We did that in the past. And our ancestors, our kings, and our officials did that in the past. All of us did those things in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. At the time we worshiped the Queen of Heaven, we had plenty of food. We were successful. Nothing bad happened to us.

18But then we stopped making sacrifices to the Queen of Heaven. And we stopped pouring out drink offerings to her. Since we have stopped doing those things in worship to her, we have had problems. Our people have been killed by swords and hunger.”

19Then the women spoke up.* They said to Jeremiah, “Our husbands knew what we were doing. We had their permission to make sacrifices to the Queen of Heaven. We had their permission to pour out drink offerings to her. Our husbands also knew that we were making cakes that looked like her.”

20Then Jeremiah spoke to all those men and women. He spoke to the people that had just said those things. 21Jeremiah said to those people, “The Lord remembered that you made sacrifices in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. You and your ancestors,* your kings, your officials, and the people of the land did that. The Lord remembered what you had done, and thought about that. 22Then the Lord could not be patient with you any longer. The Lord hated the terrible things you did. So the Lord made your country an empty desert. No person lives there now. Other people say bad things about that country. 23All of those bad things happened to you because you made sacrifices to other gods. You sinned against the Lord. You didn’t obey the Lord. You didn’t follow his teachings or the laws he gave you. You didn’t keep your part of the Agreement.”

24Then Jeremiah spoke to all those men and women. Jeremiah said, “All you people of Judah that are now in Egypt, listen to the message from the Lord: 25The Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: ‘You women did what you said you would do. You said, “We will keep the promises we made. We promised to make sacrifices and pour out drink offerings to the Queen of Heaven.”’

So, go ahead. Do the things you promised you would do. Keep your promises. 26But, listen to the message from the Lord, all you people of Judah that are living in Egypt: ‘I use my great name and make this promise: I will never again use my name to make promises. They will never again say, “As surely as the Lord lives,” 27I am watching over those people of Judah. But I am not watching over them to take care of them. I am watching over them to hurt them. The people of Judah that live in Egypt will die from hunger and be killed by swords. They will continue to die until they are finished. 28Some people of Judah will escape being killed by the sword. They will come back to Judah from Egypt. But there will be very few people of Judah that escape. Then those survivors* of Judah that came to live in Egypt

Queens of Heaven  Probably the false god Astarte. She was the goddess of sex and war. People in Mesopotamia worshipped her. They thought she was the planet Venus, which looks like a star in the sky.

Then the women spoke up  This is from the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew does not have this sentence.

ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Agreement  This is probably the Law of Moses, the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.

survivors  People that escaped some disaster. Here this means the Jewish people that survived the destruction of Judah and Israel by its enemy armies.
will know whose word will come true. They will know whether my word or their word came true. 29I will give you people proof—this is the message of the Lord—that I will punish you here in Egypt. Then you will know for sure that my promises to hurt you will really happen. 30This will be your proof that I will do what I say.’ This is what the Lord says: ‘Pharaoh Hophra is the king of Egypt. His enemies want to kill him. I will give Pharaoh Hophra to his enemies. Zedekiah was the king of Judah. Nebuchadnezzar was Zedekiah’s enemy. And I gave Zedekiah to his enemy. In the same way, I will give Pharaoh Hophra to his enemy.’”

A Message to Baruch

45Jehoiakim was the son of Josiah. In the fourth year Jehoiakim was king of Judah,* Jeremiah the prophet told these things to Baruch son of Neriah. Baruch wrote these things on a scroll.* This is what Jeremiah said to Baruch: 2‘This is what Jeremiah says to Baruch: 3Baruch, you have said: It is very bad for me. The Lord has given me sorrow along with my pain. I am very tired. I am worn out because of my suffering. I can’t find rest.’ 4Jeremiah, say this to Baruch: ‘This is what the Lord says: I will tear down what I have built. And I will pull up what I have planted. I will do that everywhere in Judah. 5Baruch, you are looking for great things for yourself. But don’t look for those things. Don’t look for them, because I will make terrible things happen to all the people.’ The Lord said these things. ‘You will have to go many places. But I will let you escape alive wherever you go.’”

Messages from the Lord About the Nations

46These messages came to Jeremiah the prophet. These messages are about different nations.

Messages About Egypt

2This message is about the nation of Egypt. This message is about the army of Pharaoh Neco. Neco was the king of Egypt. His army was defeated at the town of Carchemish. Carchemish is on the Euphrates River. Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon defeated the army of Pharaoh Neco at Carchemish in the fourth year that Jehoiakim was king of Judah.* Jehoiakim was the son of King Josiah. This is the Lord’s message to Egypt:

3“Get your large and small shields ready. March out for battle.
4Get the horses ready.
   Soldiers, get on your horses.
   Go to your places for battle.
   Put your helmets on.
   Sharpen your spears.
   Put your armor on.
5What do I see?
   That army is scared.
   The soldiers are running away.
   Their brave soldiers are defeated.
   They run away in a hurry.
   They don’t look back.
   There is danger all around.”
The Lord said these things.
6“Fast men can’t run away.
   Strong soldiers can’t escape.
   They will all stumble and fall.
   This will happen in the north,
   by the Euphrates River.
7Who is coming like the Nile River?
   Who is coming like that strong, fast river?
8It is Egypt that comes
   like the rising Nile River.
   It is Egypt that comes like that strong, fast river.
   Egypt says,
   ‘I will come and cover the earth.
   I will destroy the cities and the people in them.’
9Horse soldiers, charge into battle.
   Chariot drivers, drive fast.
   March on, brave soldiers.
   Soldiers from Cush and Put,
   carry your shields,
   Soldiers from Lydia,
   use your bows.
10“But at that time, our Master,
   the Lord All-Powerful, will win.
   At that time, he will give the punishment that they deserve.
The Lord’s enemies will get the punishment that they should have. The sword will kill until it is finished. The sword will kill until it satisfies its thirst for blood. This will happen because there is a sacrifice for our Master, the Lord All-Powerful. That sacrifice is Egypt's army in the land of the north, by the Euphrates River.

11 "Egypt, go to Gilead and get some medicine. You will make up many medicines, but they will not help. You will not be healed.

12 The nations will hear you crying. Your cries will be heard all over the earth. One ‘brave soldier’ will run into another ‘brave soldier.’ And both ‘brave soldiers’ will fall down together."

13 This is the message the Lord spoke to Jeremiah the prophet. This message is about Nebuchadnezzar coming to attack Egypt.

14 "Announce this message in Egypt. Tell it in the city of Migdol. Tell it in Memphis and Tahpanhes. ‘Get ready for war. Why? Because people all around you are being killed with swords.’

15 Egypt, your strong soldiers will be killed. They won’t be able to stand because the Lord will push them down.

16 Those soldiers will stumble again and again. They will fall over each other. They will say, ‘Get up, let us go back to our own people. Let us go back to our homeland. Our enemy is defeating us. We must get away.’

17 In their homelands, those soldiers will say, ‘Pharaoh king of Egypt is only a lot of noise. His time of glory is over.’”

18 This message is from the King. The King is the Lord All-Powerful. “I promise, as surely as I live, a powerful leader will come.

19 He will be great like Mount Tabor and Mount Carmel near the sea.

20 People of Egypt, pack your things. Get ready for captivity. Why? Because Memphis will be a ruined, empty land. Those cities will be destroyed, and no person will live there.

21 "Egypt is like a beautiful cow. But a horsefly is coming from the north to bother her.

21 The hired soldiers in Egypt’s army are like fat calves. They will all turn and run away. They will not stand strong against the attack. Their time of destruction is coming. They will soon be punished.

22 Egypt is like a snake hissing and trying to escape. The enemy comes closer and closer, and the Egyptian army is trying to slither away (escape). The enemy will attack Egypt with axes, like men cutting down trees.”

23 The Lord says these things. “They will chop down Egypt’s forest (army). There are many trees (soldiers) in that forest (army) but they will all be cut down. There are more enemy soldiers than locusts.* There are so many soldiers, that no person can count them.

24 Egypt will be ashamed. The enemy from the north will defeat her.

---

horsefly A large insect that often flies around and bites cows and horses.

north This refers to the army of Babylon coming from the north to attack the nation of Judah.

locusts Insects like grasshoppers that could destroy a large crop very quickly.
25 The Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: “Very soon I will punish Amon,* the god of Thebes. And I will punish Pharaoh, Egypt, and her gods. I will punish the kings of Egypt. And I will punish the people that depend on Pharaoh. 26 I will let all those people be defeated by their enemies—and those enemies want to kill them. I will give those people to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, and his servants.”

Long ago, Egypt lived in peace. And after all these times of trouble, Egypt will live in peace again.” The Lord said these things.

A Message for North Israel

27 “Jacob,* my servant, don’t be afraid. Don’t be scared, Israel.
I will save you from those faraway places.
I will save your children from the countries where they are captives.*
Jacob will have peace and safety again.
And no person will make him afraid.”

28 The Lord says these things.
“Jacob, my servant, don’t be afraid.
I am with you.
I sent you away to many different places.
But I will not destroy you completely.
But I will destroy all those nations.
You must be punished for the bad things you did.
So I won’t let you escape your punishment.
I will discipline you, but I will be fair.”

A Message About the Philistine People

47 This is the message from the Lord that came to Jeremiah the prophet. This message is about the Philistine people. This message came before Pharaoh attacked the city of Gaza.

Amon For many centuries Amon was the most important god of Egypt. At the time of this prophecy he was not worshiped as much in northern Egypt. But he was still the most important god in southern Egypt, especially around the old Egyptian capital city of Thebes.

Jacob Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22–28.

captives People that were taken away like prisoners.

north This refers to the army of Babylon coming from the north to attack the nation of Judah.

Island of Crete Literally, “Island of Caphtor.” Sometimes this means Crete, and sometimes it means Cyprus. The Bible says the Philistines originally came from Caphtor.

sad … cut yourselves The people did these things to show their sadness.

scabbard A holder for a sword.
This message is about the country of Moab. This is what the Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says:

“Mount Nebo will be ruined. The town of Kiriathaim will be humbled. It will be captured. The strong place will be humbled. It will be shattered.

Moab will not be praised again. Men in Heshbon will plan Moab’s defeat. They will say, ‘Come, let us put an end to that nation.’ Madmenah, you will also be silenced. The sword will chase you.

Listen to the cries from Horonaim. They are cries of much confusion and destruction.

Moab will be destroyed. Her little children will cry for help.

Moab’s people go up the path to Luhith. They are crying bitterly as they go. On the road down to the town of Horonaim, Cries of pain and suffering can be heard.

Run away! Run for your lives! Run away like a tumbleweed* through the desert.

You trust in the things you made and in your wealth. So you will be captured. The god Chemosh* will be taken into captivity. And his priests and officials will be taken with him.

The Destroyer will come against every town. Not one town will escape. The valley will be ruined. The high plain will be destroyed. The Lord said this would happen, so it will happen.

13 Then the people of Moab will be ashamed of their false god, Chemosh.* The people of Israel trusted that false god in Bethel.* And the people of Israel were embarrassed when that false god did not help them. Moab will be like that.

14 ‘You can’t say, ‘We are good soldiers. We are brave men in battle.’

15 The enemy will attack Moab. The enemy will enter those towns and destroy them. Her best young men will be killed in the slaughter.”

This message is from the King. The King’s name is the Lord All-Powerful.

salt This is a word play, and we are not sure of the exact meaning of this Hebrew word.

jars This probably means the cities in Moab.

in Bethel This means the temple that King Jeroboam built in the town of Bethel. See 1 Kings 12:28–33. It is not clear whether the people still worshiped the Lord there, but in a wrong way. Or whether they worshiped a false god, perhaps the Canaanite god El or Baal.
“The end of Moab is near. Moab will soon be destroyed.
All of you people living around Moab should cry for that country. You people know how famous Moab is. So cry for him.
Say, ‘The ruler’s power is broken. Moab’s power and glory is gone.’
You people living in Dibon,* come down from your place of honor. Sit on the ground in the dust. Why? Because the Destroyer is coming. And he will destroy your strong cities.
You people living in Aroer, stand next to the road and watch. See the man running away. See that woman running away. Ask them what happened.
Moab will be ruined and filled with shame. Moab will cry and cry. Announce at the Arnon River,* that Moab is destroyed.
People on the high plain have been punished. Judgment has come to the towns of Holon, Jahzah, and Mephaath, Judgment has come to the towns of Dibon, Nebo, and Beth Diblathaim, Judgment has come to the towns of Kirjathaim, Beth Gamul, and Beth Meon, Judgment has come to the towns of Kerioth and Bozrah. Judgment has come to all the towns of Moab, far and near.
Moab’s strength has been cut off. Moab’s arm has been broken.” The Lord said these things.
Moab thought he was more important than the Lord. So punish Moab until he staggers like a drunk person. Moab will fall and roll around in his vomit.

The Lord says, “I know that Moab becomes angry quickly and brags about himself. But his boasts are lies. He can’t do the things he says.
I cry for Moab. I cry for everyone in Moab. I cry for the men from Kir Hareseth. I cry with the people of Jazer for Jazer. Sibmah, in the past your vines spread all the way to the sea. They reached as far as the town of Jazer. But the Destroyer has taken your fruit and grapes.
Joy and happiness are gone from the large vineyards* of Moab. I stopped the flow of wine from the winepresses.* There is no singing and dancing from people walking on the grapes to make wine. There are no shouts of joy.

The people of the towns of Heshbon and Elealeh are crying. Their cry is heard even as far away as the town of Jahaz. Their cry is heard from the town of Zoar, as far away as the towns of Horonaim and Eglath Shelishiyah. Even the waters of Nimrim are dried. I will stop Moab from making burnt

---

Dibon A town in the country of Moab.
Arnon River An important river in Moab. offerings on the high places.* I will stop them from making sacrifices to their gods.” The Lord said those things.

36“I am very sad for Moab. My heart cries like the sad sound of a flute playing a funeral song. I am sad for the people from Kir Haresheth. Their money and riches have all been taken away. 37Everyone has a shaved head. Everyone’s beard is cut off. Everyone’s hands are cut and bleeding.* Everyone is wearing their clothes of sadness around their waists. 38People are crying for the dead everywhere in Moab—on every house top and in every public square. There is sadness because I have broken Moab like an empty jar.” The Lord said these things.

39“Moab is shattered. The people are crying. Moab surrendered. Now Moab is ashamed. People make fun of Moab—but the things that happened fill them with fear.”

40 The Lord says, “Look! An eagle is diving down from the sky. It is spreading its wings over Moab.

41 The towns of Moab will be captured. The strong hiding places will be defeated. At that time, Moab’s soldiers will be scared, like a woman that is having a baby.

42 The nation of Moab will be destroyed. Why? Because they thought that they were more important than the Lord.”

43 The Lord says these things: “People of Moab, fear, deep holes, and traps* wait for you. People will be afraid and run away, and they will fall into the deep holes. If anyone climbs out of the deep holes, he will be caught in the traps. I will bring the year of punishment to Moab.”

44 People have run from the powerful enemy. They ran to safety in the town Heshbon. But there was no safety. A fire started in Heshbon. That fire started in Sihon’s town* And it is destroying the leaders of Moab. It is destroying those proud people.

45 It will be bad for you, Moab. Chemosh’s* people are being destroyed. Your sons and daughters are being taken away as prisoners and captives.*

46 Moab’s people will be taken away as captives. But in days to come, I will bring Moab’s people back.” This message is from the Lord.

This ends the judgment on Moab.

A Message About Ammon

49 This message is about the Ammonite people. The Lord says: “Ammonite people, do you think that the people of Israel don’t have children? Do you think there are no children to take the land when the parents die? Maybe that is why Milcom* took Gad’s* land?”

2 The Lord says, “The time will come in Rabbah of Ammon* when people hear the sounds of battle. Rabbah of Ammon will be destroyed. It will be an empty hill covered with destroyed buildings. And the towns around it will be burned. Those people forced the people of Israel to leave their own land. But later, Israel will force them to leave.” The Lord said these things.

Sihon’s town  This was Heshbon. See Numbers 21:25–30.
Chemosh  The national god of the land of Moab, even though Milcom was the god of the Ammonite people.
captives  People that were taken away like prisoners. Here this means the Moabite people.
Milcom  The god of the Ammonite people.
Gad’s  One of the family groups of Israel. Their land was on the east side of the Jordan River, near the country of Ammon.
Rabbah of Ammon  The capital city of the Ammonite people.
3 “People in Heshbon, cry! Why? Because the town of Ai is destroyed.
Women in Rabbah of Amnon, cry! Put on your clothes of sadness and cry. Run to the city for safety.
Why? Because the enemy is coming. They take away the god, Milcom.* And they will take away Milcom’s priests and officials.
4 You brag about your strength. But you are losing your strength. You trust your money will save you. You think no one would even think of attacking you.”
5 But the Lord All-Powerful says this: “I will bring troubles to you from every side. You will all run away. And no one will be able to bring you together again.”
6“The Ammonite people will be taken away as captives. But the time will come that I will bring the Ammonite people back.” This message is from the Lord.

A Message About Edom
7This message is about Edom.

The Lord All-Powerful says:
“Is there no more wisdom in Teman*? Are the wise men of Edom not able to give good advice? Have they lost their wisdom?
8 You people living in Dedan, run away! Hide! Why? Because I will punish Esau* for the bad things he did.
9 “Workers pick grapes from grapevines. But they leave a few grapes on the plants. If thieves come at night, they don’t take everything.
10 But I will take everything from Esau.* I will find all of his hiding places. He will not be able to hide from me.

His children, relatives, and neighbors will all die.
11 No person will be left to care for his children. His wives will have no one to depend on.”
12This is what the Lord says. “Some people don’t deserve to be punished—but they suffer. But Edom, you deserve to be punished—so you will really be punished. You will not escape the punishment you deserve. You will be punished.” 13The Lord says, “By my own power, I make this promise: I promise that the city of Bozrah will be destroyed. That city will become a ruined pile of rocks. People will use that city as an example when they ask for bad things to happen to other cities. People will insult that city. And all the towns around Bozrah will become ruins forever.”
14 I heard a message from the Lord: The Lord sent a messenger to the nations. This is the message:
“Gather your armies together! Get ready for battle! March against the nation of Edom!
15 Edom, I will make you become not important. Every person will hate you.
16 Edom, you scared other nations. So you thought you were important. But your pride has fooled you. You live in those caves, high on the cliff. Your home is high in the hills. But even if you build your home as high as an eagle’s nest, I will bring you down from there.” The Lord said these things.
17 “Edom will be destroyed. People will be shocked to see the destroyed cities. People will whistle from amazement at the destroyed cities.
18 Edom will be destroyed like Sodom and Gomorrah* and the towns around them. No people will live there.” The Lord said these things.

Milcom The god of the Ammonite people.
Teman This town was in the northern part of Edom.
Esau Jacob’s twin brother. But here this means Edom whose people were descendants of Esau.
Sodom and Gomorrah Two cities that God destroyed because the people were so evil.
19 “Sometimes a lion will come from the thick bushes near the Jordan River. And that lion will go into the fields where people put their sheep and cattle. I am like that lion. I will go to Edom. And I will scare those people. I will make them run away. None of their young men will stop me. No one is like me. No one will challenge me. None of their shepherds (leaders) will stand up against me.”

20 So listen to what the Lord has planned to do to the people of Edom.
   Listen to what the Lord has decided to do to the people in Teman.*
   The enemy will drag away the young kids of Edom’s flock (people).
   Edom’s pastures will be empty because of what they did.
21 At the sound of Edom’s fall, the earth will shake.
   Their cry will be heard all the way to the Red Sea.
22 The Lord will be like an eagle flying over the animal that it will attack.
   The Lord will be like an eagle spreading its wings over Bozrah.
   At that time, Edom’s soldiers will become very scared.
   They will be crying from fear like a woman having a baby.

A Message About Damascus
23 This message is about the city of Damascus:
   “The towns of Hamath and Arpad are afraid.
      They are afraid because they heard the bad news.
      They are discouraged.
      They are worried and scared.
24 The city of Damascus has become weak.
      The people want to run away.
      The people are ready to panic.
      The people feel pain and suffering like a woman having a baby.
25 “Damascus, is a happy city.
      The people have not left that ‘fun city’ yet.

26 So the young men will die in the public squares of that city.
   All of her soldiers will be killed at that time.”
27 “The Lord All-Powerful said these things.
   “I will set the walls of Damascus on fire.
   The fire will completely burn up the strong forts of Ben-Hadad.”*

A Message About Kedar and Hazor
28 This message is about the family group of Kedar and the rulers of Hazor.* Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, defeated them.
   The Lord says:
   “Go and attack the family group of Kedar.
      Destroy the people of the East.
29 Their tents and flocks will be taken away.
   Their tent and all their riches will be carried off.
   Their enemy will take away the camels.
   Men will shout this to them:
   ‘Terrible things are happening all around us.’
   Run away quickly!
   People in Hazor, find a good place to hide.”
   This message is from the Lord.
   “Nebuchadnezzar made plans against you.
      He thought of a smart plan to defeat you.
30 “There is a nation that feels safe.
      That nation feels secure.
      That nation does not have gates or fences to protect it.
      No people live near them.
   The Lord says, ‘Attack that nation!’
31 The enemy will steal their camels and take their large herds of cattle.
   The enemy will steal their large herds.
   Those people cut the corners of their beards.*

Ben-Hadad  This was the name of several of the kings of Aram-Damascus.
family group of Kedar and the rulers of Hazor  Kedar was the name of an Arab family group that lived in the desert southeast of the land of Judah.
corners of their beards  The Jewish men did not cut their beards like the Arabs did.
Well, I will make them run away to the far corners of the earth. And I will bring terrible troubles to them from everywhere.”

This message is from the Lord.

33 “The land of Hazor will become a place where only wild dogs live. No person will live there. No person will live in that place. It will become an empty desert forever.”

A Message About Elam

34 Early in the time when Zedekiah was king of Judah, Jeremiah the prophet received a message from the Lord. This message is about the nation of Elam.*

35 The Lord All-Powerful says, “I will break Elam’s bow very soon. The bow is Elam’s strongest weapon.

I will bring the four winds against Elam. I will bring them from the four corners of the skies. I will send the people of Elam to every place on the earth where the four winds blow. Elam’s captives will be carried away to every nation.

37 I will break Elam to pieces while their enemies are watching. I will break Elam in front of those people that want to kill them. I will bring terrible troubles to them. I will show them how angry I am.” This message is from the Lord.

“I will send a sword to chase Elam. The sword will chase them until I have killed them all.

I will show Elam that I am in control. And I will destroy her king and his officials.” This message is from the Lord.

39 “But in the future, I will make good things happen to Elam.”

This message is from the Lord.

A Message About Babylon

50 This is the message the Lord spoke about the nation of Babylon and the Babylonian people. The Lord spoke this message through Jeremiah.

2 “Announce this to all nations! Lift up a flag and announce the message! Speak the whole message and say, ‘The nation of Babylon will be captured. The god Bel* will be put to shame. The god Marduk* will be very afraid. Babylon’s idols will be put to shame. Her idol gods will be filled with terror.’

3 A nation from the north will attack Babylon. That nation will make Babylon like an empty desert. No people will live there. Both men and animals will run away from there.”

4 The Lord says, “At that time, the people of Israel and the people of Judah will be together. They will cry and cry together. And together, they will go to look for the Lord their God.

5 Those people will ask how to go to Zion.* They will start to go in that direction. The people will say, ‘Come, let us join ourselves to the Lord. Let’s make an agreement that will last forever. Let’s make an agreement that we will never forget.’

6 “My people have been like lost sheep. Their shepherds (leaders) led them the wrong way, Their leaders made them wander around in the mountains and hills. They forgot where their resting place is.

7 Whoever found my people hurt them. And those enemies said, ‘We did nothing wrong.’

Bel This is one of the names of the god Marduk, the most important god of the Babylonians.

Marduk Marduk was the most important god of the Babylonians.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
Those people sinned against the Lord.
The Lord was their true resting place.
The Lord was the God that their fathers trusted in.

8 “Run away from Babylon.
Leave the land of the Babylonian people.
Be like the goats that lead the flock.

9 I will bring many nations together from the north.
This group of nations will get ready for war against Babylon.
Babylon will be captured by people from the north.
Those nations will shoot many arrows at Babylon.
Those arrows will be like soldiers that don’t come back from war with their hands empty.

10 The enemy will take all the wealth from the Chaldean people.
Those soldiers will take all they want.”
The Lord said these things.

11 “Babylon, you are excited and happy.
You took my land.
You dance around like a young cow that got into the grain.
Your laughter is like the happy sounds that horses make.

12 Now your mother will be very ashamed.
The woman that gave you birth will be embarrassed.
Babylon will be the least important of all the nations.
She will be an empty, dry desert.

13 The Lord will show his anger, so no people will live there.
Babylon will be completely empty.
Everyone that passes by Babylon will be afraid.
They will shake their heads when they see how badly it has been destroyed.

14 “Prepare for war against Babylon.
All you soldiers with bows, shoot your arrows at Babylon.
Don’t save any of your arrows.
Babylon has sinned against the Lord.

15 Soldiers around Babylon, shout the cry of victory!
Babylon has surrendered!
Her walls and towers have been pulled down!
The Lord is giving those people the punishment they should have.
You nations should give Babylon the punishment she deserves.
Do to her what she has done to other nations.

16 Don’t let the people from Babylon plant their crops.
Don’t let them gather the harvest.
The soldiers of Babylon brought many prisoners to their city.
Now the enemy soldiers have come, so those prisoners are going back home.
Those prisoners are running back to their own countries.

17 “Israel is like a flock of sheep that were scattered all over the country.
Israel is like sheep that were chased away by lions.
The first lion to attack was the king of Assyria.
The last lion to crush his bones was Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

18 So the Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says:
‘I will soon punish the king of Babylon and his country.
I will punish him like I punished the king of Assyria.

19 “I will bring Israel back to his own fields.
He will eat food that grows on Mount Carmel and in the land of Bashan.
He will eat and be full.
He will eat on the hills in the lands of Ephraim and Gilead.”

20 The Lord says, “At that time, people will try hard to find Israel’s guilt.
But there will be no guilt.
People will try to find Judah’s sins, but no sins will be found.
Why? Because I am saving a few survivors* from Israel and Judah. And I am forgiving them for all of their sins."

The Lord says, “Attack the country of Merathaim! Attack the people living in Pekod! Attack them! Kill them and completely destroy them! Do everything I commanded you!

“The noise of battle can be heard all over the country. It is the noise of much destruction. Babylon was called ‘The Hammer of the Whole Earth.’” But now the ‘Hammer’ is shattered. Babylon is the most ruined of the nations.

Babylon, I set a trap for you. And you were caught before you knew it. You fought against the Lord, so you were found and captured.

The Lord has opened up his storeroom and brought out the weapons of his anger. The Lord God All-Powerful brought out those weapons because he has work to do in the land of the Chaldean people.

“Come against Babylon from far away. Break open the storehouses where she keeps her grain. Completely destroy Babylon. Don’t leave anyone alive. Pile her dead bodies like big piles of grain.

Kill all the young bulls (men) in Babylon. Let them be slaughtered.* The time has come for them to be defeated, so it will be very bad for them. It is time for them to be punished.

The Lord says, “Call for the men that shoot arrows. Tell them to attack Babylon. Tell them to surround the city. Don’t let anyone escape. Pay her back for the bad things she has done. Do to her what she has done to other nations. Babylon did not respect the Lord. Babylon was very rude to the Holy One of Israel. So punish Babylon.

Babylon’s young men will be killed in the streets. All her soldiers will die on that day.”

The Lord says these things. “Babylon, you are too proud. And I am against you.” Our Master, the Lord All-Powerful, says these things. “I am against you, and the time has come for you to be punished.

Proud Babylon will stumble and fall. And no person will help her get up. I will start a fire in her towns. That fire will completely burn everyone around her.”

The Lord All-Powerful says: “The people of Israel and Judah are slaves. The enemy took them, and the enemy will not let Israel go.

But God will get those people back. His name is the Lord God All-Powerful.

survivors People that escaped some disaster. Here this means the Jewish people that survived the destruction of Judah and Israel by its enemy armies.

slaughter(ed) Usually, this word means to kill an animal and cut it into pieces of meat. But it often means to kill people like they are animals.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
He will defend those people very strongly.
He will defend them so that he can let that land rest.
But there will be no rest for the people living in Babylon.”

The Lord says,
“Sword, kill the people living in Babylon.
Sword, kill the king’s officials and the wise men of Babylon.
Sword, kill the priests of Babylon.
Those priests will be like foolish people.
Sword, kill the soldiers of Babylon.
Those soldiers will be full of terror.
Sword, kill the horses and chariots of Babylon.
Sword, kill all the soldiers hired from other countries.
Those soldiers will be like frightened women.
Sword, destroy the treasures of Babylon.
Those treasures will be taken away.
Sword, strike the waters of Babylon.
Those waters will be dried up.
Babylon has many, many idols.
Those idols show that the people of Babylon are foolish.
So bad things will happen to those people.
Babylon will never again be filled with people.
Wild dogs, ostriches,* and other desert animals will live there.
But no people will live there ever again.
God completely destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah* and the towns around them.
And no person lives in those towns now.₁
In the same way, no people will live in Babylon.
And no people will ever go to live there.

Listen to what the Lord has planned to do to Babylon.
Listen to what the Lord has decided to do to the Babylonian people.
“I swear (promise), an enemy will drag away the young kids of Babylon’s flock (people) and Babylon will become an empty pasture.
Babylon will fall, and that fall will shake the earth.
People in all nations will hear about the destruction of Babylon.”

The Lord says, “I will cause a powerful, destructive wind to blow against Babylon and the Babylonian people.*
I will send foreigners to winnow* Babylon, and they will take everything from the city. Armies will surround the city, and there will be terrible destruction. The Babylonian soldiers will not get to use their bows and arrows. Those soldiers will not even put on their armor. Don’t feel sorry for the soldiers of Babylon. Destroy her army completely!

Babylon’s soldiers will be killed in the land of the Chaldeans. They will be badly wounded in the streets of Babylon.”

The Lord All-Powerful did not leave Israel and Judah alone, like a woman whose husband has died. God did not leave those people. No! Those people are guilty of leaving the Holy One of Israel. They left him, but he has not left them.

Run away from Babylon. Run to save your lives! Don’t stay and be killed because of Babylon’s sins! It is time for the Lord to punish the people of Babylon for the bad things they did. Babylon will get the punishment that she should have.

Babylon was like a golden cup in the Lord’s hand. Babylon made the whole world drunk. The nations drank Babylon’s wine. So they went crazy.

But Babylon will suddenly fall and be broken. Cry for her! Get medicine for her pain! Maybe she can be healed!

We tried to heal Babylon, but she can’t be healed. So let us leave her, and let each of us go to our own country. God in heaven will decide Babylon’s punishment. He will decide what will happen to Babylon.

The Lord got even for us. Come, let’s tell about that in Zion.* Let us tell about the things that the Lord our God has done.

Sharpen the arrows! Get your shields! The Lord stirred up the kings of the Medes.* He has stirred them up because he wants to destroy Babylon. The Lord will give the people of Babylon the punishment that they deserve. The army from Babylon destroyed the Lord’s temple* in Jerusalem. So the Lord will give them the punishment they should have.

Lift up a flag against the walls of Babylon. Bring more guards. Put the watchmen in their places. Get ready for a secret attack. The Lord will do what he has planned. He will do what he said he would do against the people of Babylon.

Babylon, you live near much water. You are rich with treasures. But your end as a nation has come. It is time for you to be destroyed.

The Lord All-Powerful used his name to make this promise: “Babylon, I will fill you with many enemy soldiers. They will be like a swarm of locusts.* They will win their war against you. And they will stand over you and shout the cry of victory.”

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

Medes People from the Medo-Persian Empire. This empire defeated the country Babylon.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

locusts Insects like grasshoppers that could destroy a large crop very quickly.
The Lord used his great power and made the earth. He used his wisdom to build the world. He used his understanding to stretch out the skies.

When he thunders, the water in the skies roar. He sends clouds all over the earth. He sends lightning with the rain. He brings out the wind from his storehouses.

But people are so stupid. They don’t understand what God has done. Skilled workers make statues of false gods. Those statues are only false gods. They show how foolish that worker is. Those statues are not alive.

Those idols are worthless. People made those idols, and they are nothing but a joke. Their time of judgment will come, and those idols will be destroyed.

But Jacob’s Portion (God) is not like those worthless statues. People didn’t make God, God made his people. God made everything. His name is the Lord All-Powerful.

The Lord says, “Babylon, you are my club. I used you to smash nations. I used you to destroy kingdoms. I used you to smash horse and rider. I used you to smash chariot and driver. I used you to smash men and women. I used you to smash men, old and young. I used you to smash young men and young women. I used you to smash shepherds and flocks. I used you to smash farmers and cows. I used you to smash governors and important officials.

But I will pay Babylon back. I will pay all the Babylonian people back. I will pay them back for all the bad things that they did to Zion.”

The Lord said those things.

The Lord says, “Babylon, you are a destroying mountain, and I am against you. Babylon, you destroyed the whole country, and I am against you. I will put my hand out against you. I will roll you off the cliffs. I will make you into a burned-up mountain.

People will not take any rocks from Babylon to use for the foundation of a building. People will not find any rocks big enough for cornerstones. Why? Because your city will be a pile of broken rocks forever.”

The Lord said these things.

“Lift up the war flag in the land! Blow the trumpet in all the nations! Prepare the nations for war against Babylon! Call these kingdoms to come fight against Babylon: Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz. Choose a commander to lead the army against her. Send so many horses that they are like a swarm of locusts.*

Get the nations ready for battle against her. Get the kings of the Medes* ready. Get their governors and all their important officials ready. Get all the countries they rule ready for battle against Babylon.

The land shakes and moves like it is in pain. It will shake when the Lord does what he planned to Babylon. The Lord’s plan is to make the land of Babylon into an empty desert. No person will live there.

Babylon’s soldiers have stopped fighting. They stay in their forts.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

locusts Insects like grasshoppers that could destroy a large crop very quickly.

Medes People from the Medo-Persian Empire. This empire defeated the country Babylon.
Their strength is gone. They have become like scared women. Babylon’s houses are burning. The bars of her gates are broken.
31 One messenger follows another. Messenger follows messenger. They announce to the king of Babylon that his whole city has been captured.
32 The places where people cross the rivers have been captured. The swamplands are burning. All of Babylon’s soldiers are afraid.”
33 The Lord All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: “Babylon is like a threshing floor.* At harvest time, people beat grain to separate the good parts from the chaff.* And the time to beat Babylon is coming soon.
34 “Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, destroyed us in the past. In the past, Nebuchadnezzar hurt us. In the past, he took our people away, and we became like an empty jar. He took the best we had. He was like a giant monster that ate everything until it was full. He took the best we had and threw us away.
35 Babylon did terrible things to hurt us. Now I want those things to happen to Babylon.”
36 So the Lord says: “I will defend you, Judah. I will make sure that Babylon is punished. I will dry up Babylon’s sea. And I will make her water springs become dry.
37 Babylon will become a pile of ruined buildings. Babylon will be a place for wild dogs to live. People will look at that pile of rocks and be amazed. People will shake their heads when they think about Babylon. Babylon will be a place where no people live.
38 “The people of Babylon are like roaring young lions. They growl like baby lions.
39 Those people are acting like powerful lions. I will give a party for them. I will make them drunk. They will laugh and have a good time. And then they will sleep forever. They will never wake up.”
40 The Lord said these things.
41 “Sheshach* will be defeated. The best and proudest country of the whole earth will be taken captive. People from other nations will look at Babylon, and the things they see will make them afraid.
42 The sea will rise over Babylon. Its roaring waves will cover her.
43 Babylon will be like a dry, desert land. Its cities will be empty ruins. No people will live in those cities. No people will even travel through them.

threshing floor  A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.
chaff  The seed coverings and stems separated from the seeds of plants like wheat or barley. Farmers saved the seeds but let the wind blow the useless chaff away.
Zion  The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
Sheshach  Jeremiah used a special code to create this name. It is like the code an army might use. It is a secret word for Babylon.
I will punish the false god Bel* in Babylon. I will make him vomit out the people that he swallowed. The wall around Babylon will fall. And other nations will stop coming to Babylon.

Come out of the city of Babylon, my people. Run to save your lives. Run from the Lord's great anger.

“Don’t be sad, my people. Rumors will spread, but don’t be afraid. One rumor comes this year. Another rumor will come next year. There will be rumors about terrible fighting in the country. There will be rumors about rulers fighting against other rulers.

The time will surely come— I will punish the false gods of Babylon. And the whole land of Babylon will be put to shame. There will be many, many dead people, lying in the streets of that city.

Then heaven and earth and all that is in them will shout with joy about Babylon. They will shout because an army came from the north and fought against Babylon.”

The Lord said these things.

“Babylon killed people from Israel. Babylon killed people from every place on earth. So Babylon must fall!

You people escaped the swords. You must hurry and leave Babylon. Don’t wait!

You are in a faraway land. But remember the Lord where you are. And remember Jerusalem.”

“We people of Judah are ashamed. We have been insulted. Why? Because strangers have gone into the Holy Places of the Lord’s temple.”

The Lord says, “The time is coming, when I will punish the idols of Babylon. At that time, wounded people will cry with pain everywhere in that country.

Babylon might grow until she touches the sky. Babylon might make her forts strong. But I will send people to fight against that city. And those people will destroy her.”

The Lord said these things.

“We can hear people crying in Babylon. We hear the sound of people destroying things in the land of Babylon.

The Lord will destroy Babylon very soon. He will stop the loud noises in that city. Enemies will come roaring in like ocean waves. People all around will hear that roar.

The army will come and destroy Babylon. Babylon’s soldiers will be captured. Their bows will be broken. Why? Because the Lord punishes people for the bad things they do.

The Lord gives them the full punishment that they deserve.

I will make Babylon’s wise men and important officials drunk. I will make the governors, officers, and soldiers drunk too. Then they will sleep forever. They will never wake up.”

The King said these things. His name is the Lord All-Powerful.

The Lord All-Powerful says: “Babylon’s thick, strong wall will be pulled down. Her high gates will be burned. The people of Babylon will work hard, but it will not help. They will become very tired trying to save the city. But they will only become fuel for the flames.”

Bel This is one of the names of the god Marduk, the most important god of the Babylonians.
Jeremiah Sends a Message to Babylon

59 This is the message that Jeremiah gave to the officer Seraiah.* Seraiah was the son of Neriah. Neriah was the son of Mahseiah. Seraiah went to Babylon with Zedekiah king of Judah. This happened in the fourth year that Zedekiah was king of Judah.* At that time, Jeremiah gave this message to Seraiah, the officer. 60 Jeremiah had written on a scroll* all the terrible things that would happen to Babylon. He had written all these things about Babylon.

61 Jeremiah said to Seraiah, “Seraiah, go to Babylon. Be sure to read this message so all the people can hear you. 62 Then say, ‘Lord, you have said that you will destroy this place, Babylon. You will destroy it so that no people or animals will live in it. This place will be an empty ruin forever.’ 63 After you finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it. Then throw this scroll* into the Euphrates River. 64 Then say, ‘In the same way, Babylon will sink. Babylon will rise no more. Babylon will sink because of the terrible things that I will make happen here.’”

The words of Jeremiah end here.

The Fall of Jerusalem

52 Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king of Judah. Zedekiah ruled in Jerusalem for eleven years. His mother’s name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah.* Hamutal’s family was from the town of Libnah. 2 Zedekiah did evil things, just like King Jehoiakim had done. The Lord did not like Zedekiah doing those evil things. 3 Terrible things happened to Jerusalem and Judah because the Lord was angry with them. Finally, the Lord threw the people of Jerusalem and Judah away from his presence.

Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. 4 So, in the ninth year of Zedekiah’s rule, on the tenth day of the tenth month* Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, marched against Jerusalem. Nebuchadnezzar had his whole army with him. The army of Babylon set up their camp outside of Jerusalem. Then they built ramps all around the city walls so they could get over those walls. 5 The city of Jerusalem was surrounded by the army of Babylon until the eleventh year that Zedekiah was king.* 6 By the ninth day of the fourth month of that year, the hunger in the city was very bad. There was no food left for the people in the city to eat. 7 On that day, the army of Babylon broke into Jerusalem. The soldiers of Jerusalem ran away. They left the city at night. They went through the gate between the two walls. That gate was near the king’s garden. Even though the army of Babylon had surrounded the city, the soldiers of Jerusalem still ran away. They ran away toward the desert. 8 But the Babylonian army chased King Zedekiah. They caught him on the plains of Jericho. All of Zedekiah’s soldiers ran away. 9 The army of Babylon captured King Zedekiah. They took him to the king of Babylon at the city of Riblah. Riblah is in the land of Hamath. At Riblah the king of Babylon announced his judgment on King Zedekiah. 10 There at the city of Riblah, the king of Babylon killed Zedekiah’s sons. Zedekiah was forced to watch his sons being killed. The king of Babylon also killed all the king’s officials of Judah. 11 Then the king of Babylon tore out Zedekiah’s eyes. He put bronze chains on him. Then he carried Zedekiah away to Babylon. In Babylon he put Zedekiah into prison. Zedekiah stayed in prison until the day he died.

12 Nebuzaradan, the commander of the king of Babylon’s special guard, came to Jerusalem. This was on the tenth day of the fifth month, in the 19th year that Nebuchadnezzar was king.* Nebuzaradan was an important leader in Babylon. 13 Nebuzaradan burned the Lord’s temple. He also burned down the king’s house and all the houses of Jerusalem. He burned down every important building in Jerusalem.

Seraiah Seraiah was a brother of Baruch, Jeremiah’s secretary.
fourth year ... king of Judah That is, 594 B.C.
scroll A long roll of leather or papyrus (paper) used for writing books, letters, and legal documents.
Jeremiah This is not Jeremiah the prophet, but a different man with the same name.
ninth year ... tenth month That is, January of 588 B.C. eleventh year ... king That is, 587 B.C.
19th year ... king That is, 587 B.C.
The whole Babylonian army broke down the walls around Jerusalem. That army was under the commander of the king’s special guard. Nebuzaradan, the commander, took the rest of the people that were still in Jerusalem into captivity. He also carried away those that had surrendered to the king of Babylon earlier. He also carried away the skilled craftsmen that were left in Jerusalem. But Nebuzaradan left some of the poorest people behind in the land. He left those people to work in the vineyards and the fields.

The Babylonian army broke up the bronze columns of the temple. They also broke up the stands and the Bronze Tank that were in the Lord’s temple. They carried all that bronze away to Babylon. The army of Babylon also took these things from the temple: pots, shovels, wick trimmers, large bowls, pans, and all the bronze things that were used in the temple service. The commander of the king’s special guards took these things away: basins, firepans, large bowls, pots, lampstands, pans, and bowls used for drink offerings. He took everything that was made of gold or silver. The two pillars, the Sea and the twelve bronze bulls under it, and the moveable stands were very heavy. King Solomon had made those things for the Lord’s temple. The bronze that those things were made of was so heavy it could not be weighed.

Each of the bronze pillars was 27 feet high. Each pillar was 18 feet around. Each pillar was hollow. The walls of each pillar was 4 inches thick. The bronze capital on top of the first pillar was 7 1/2 feet high. It was decorated with a net design and bronze pomegranates all around it. The other pillar had 96 pomegranates too. It was like the first pillar.

There were 96 pomegranates on the sides of the pillars. All together, there were 100 pomegranates above the net design that went around the pillars.

The commander of the king’s special guards took Seraiah and Zephaniah as prisoners. Seraiah was the high priest, and Zephaniah was the next highest priest. The three doorkeepers were also taken as prisoners. The commander of the king’s special guards also took the officer in charge of the fighting men. He also took seven of the king’s advisers as prisoners. Those men were still there in Jerusalem. He also took the scribe that was in charge of putting people in the army. And he took 60 of the ordinary people that were there in the city.

Nebuzaradan, the commander, took all those of officials. He brought them to the king of Babylon. The king of Babylon was at the city of Riblah. Riblah is in the country of Hamath. There at the city of Riblah, the king ordered all those officials to be killed.

So the people of Judah were taken from their country. This is how many people Nebuchadnezzar carried into captivity:

In Nebuchadnezzar’s 7th year as king of Babylon, 3,023 men were taken from Judah.

In Nebuchadnezzar’s 18th year as king of Babylon, 832 people were taken from Jerusalem.

In Nebuchadnezzar’s 23rd year as king, Nebuzaradan took 745 men of Judah into captivity. Nebuzaradan was the commander of the king’s special guards.

In all, 4,600 people were taken captive.

The rest ... Jerusalem This is from the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew adds, “some of the poorest people” before this line. This seems to have been accidentally copied from the next verse.

Bronze columns ... Bronze Tank These verses list the things that the Babylonian army took away from the Lord’s temple.

For a description of the temple furniture, see 1 Kings 7:13-26.

27 feet Literally, “18 cubits.”
18 feet Literally, “12 cubits.”
4 inches Literally, “4 fingers.”
7 1/2 feet Literally, “7 cubits.”

Pomegranate(s) A red fruit containing many tiny seeds covered with a soft, juicy part of the fruit.

Scribe A man that wrote down and copied books and letters. He often become an expert at the meaning of those writings (Scriptures).

Nebuchadnezzar’s 7th year That is from the middle of 598 B.C. to the middle of 597 B.C.

Nebuchadnezzar’s 18th year That is from the middle of 588 B.C. to the middle of 587 B.C.

Nebuchadnezzar’s 23rd year That is from the middle of 582 B.C. to the middle of 581 B.C.
Jehoiachin Is Set Free

31Jehoiachin, the king of Judah, was in prison in Babylon for 37 years. In the 37th year of his imprisonment,8 Evil-Merodach, the king of Babylon, was very kind to Jehoiachin. He let Jehoiachin out of prison in that year. This was the same year that Evil-Merodach became king of Babylon. Evil-Merodach set Jehoiachin free from prison on the 25th day of the 12th month. 32Evil-Merodach spoke in a kind way to Jehoiachin. He gave Jehoiachin a place of honor higher than the other kings that were with him in Babylon. 33So Jehoiachin took his prison clothes off. For the rest of his life, he ate regularly at the king’s table. 34Every day the king of Babylon gave Jehoiachin an allowance. This continued until Jehoiachin died.
Jerusalem Cries Over Her Destruction

1 Jerusalem once was a city full of people. But now the city is so deserted! Jerusalem was one of the greatest cities in the world. But now she* has become like a widow. She was once a princess among cities. But now she has been made a slave.

2 She cries bitterly in the night. Her tears are on her cheeks. She has no one to comfort her. Many nations were friendly to her. But none of them comforts her now. All of her friends turned their backs on her. Her friends became her enemies.

3 Judah suffered very much. And then Judah was taken into captivity. Judah lives among other nations. But she has found no rest. The people that chased her caught her. They caught her in the narrow valleys.

4 The roads to Zion* are very sad. They are sad because no person comes to Zion for the holidays anymore. All of Zion’s gates have been destroyed. All of Zion’s priests groan. Zion’s young women have been taken away.* And all of this is a bitter sadness to Zion.

5 Jerusalem’s enemies have won. Her enemies have been successful. This happened because the Lord punished her.

6 The beauty of the Daughter of Zion* has gone away. Her princes became like deer. They were like deer that can’t find a meadow to feed in. They ran away without strength. They ran away from those people that chased them.

7 Jerusalem thinks back. Jerusalem remembers the time when she was hurt and when she lost her home. She remembers all the nice things that she had in the past. She remembers those nice things that she had in the old days. She remembers when her people were captured by the enemy. She remembers when there was no person to help her.

8 Jerusalem sinned very badly. Because Jerusalem sinned, she became a ruined city that people shake their heads about. In the past people respected her. Now those people hate her. They hate her because they abused her.

9 Jerusalem groans. She turns away.

* Throughout this poem, the city of Jerusalem is figuratively portrayed as a woman.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

have been taken away Following the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew has “are upset.”

Daughter of Zion Another name for Jerusalem.
9 Jerusalem’s skirts became dirty. She didn’t think about the things that would happen to her. Her fall was amazing. She had no person to comfort her. She says, “Lord, see how I am hurt! See how my enemy thinks he is so great!”

10 The enemy stretched out his hand. He took all of her nice things. In fact, she saw the foreign nations go inside her temple. And Lord, you said those people could not join in our assembly!

11 All the people of Jerusalem are groaning. All of her people are looking for food. They are giving away all their nice things for food. They are doing this to keep alive. Jerusalem says, “Look, Lord. Look at me! See how people hate me.

12 All you people that pass by on the road, you don’t seem to care. But look at me and see. Is there any pain like my pain? Is there any pain like the pain that has come to me? Is there any pain like the pain that the Lord has punished me with? He has punished me on the day of his great anger.

13 The Lord sent fire from above. That fire went down into my bones. He stretched out a net for my feet. He turned me all the way around. He made me into a wasteland. I am sick all day.

14 “My sins were tied up like a yoke. My sins were tied up in the Lord’s hands. The Lord’s yoke is on my neck. The Lord has made me weak. The Lord has given me to people that I can’t stand up against.

15 “The Lord rejected all my strong soldiers. Those soldiers were inside the city. Then the Lord brought a group of people against me.

16 “I cry about all these things. My eyes, my eyes run down with water. There is no comforter near me. There is no person that can make me feel better. My children are like a wasteland. They are like that because the enemy won.”

17 Zion* spread out her hands. There was no person to comfort her. The Lord had given orders to Jacob’s* enemies. The Lord ordered Jacob’s enemies to surround the city. Jerusalem has become something dirty. She is something dirty among those enemies.

18 Now Jerusalem says, “I refused to listen to the Lord. So the Lord is right for doing these things. So listen, all you people! Look at my pain! My young women and men have gone into captivity.

19 I called out to my lovers. But they tricked me. My priests and my elders have died in the city. They were looking for food for themselves. They wanted to keep themselves alive.

20 “Look at me, Lord. I am in distress! My insides are upset! My heart feels like it has turned upside down inside me! My heart feels this way because I have been so stubborn!

virgin daughter of Jerusalem This is another figurative name for the city of Jerusalem.
Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
Jacob Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22–28.
LAMENTATIONS 1:21–2:9

In the streets, the sword killed my children.
Inside the houses, death was there.

21 “Listen to me, because I am groaning!
I have no person to comfort me.
All my enemies have heard of my trouble.
They are happy.
They are happy that you did this to me.
You said there would be a time of punishment.
You said you would punish my enemies.
Now do what you said.
Let my enemies be like I am now.

22 “Look at how evil my enemies are.
Then you can treat them the same way you treated me because of all my sins.
Do this because I am groaning again and again.
Do this because my heart is sick.”

The Lord Destroyed Jerusalem

Look how the Lord has set the Daughter of Zion* under a cloud.
He has thrown the glory of Israel from the sky to the ground.
The Lord didn’t keep in mind that Israel was his footstool, on the day of his anger.

The Lord destroyed the houses of Jacob.*
He destroyed them without mercy.
He destroyed in his anger the fortresses of the Daughter of Judah.*
The Lord threw the kingdom of Judah and its rulers to the ground.
He ruined the kingdom of Judah.

The Lord was angry and he destroyed all the strength of Israel.
He took away his right hand from Israel.
He did this when the enemy came.
He burned like a flaming fire in Jacob.*
He was like a fire that burns all around.

The Lord bent his bow like an enemy.
He held his sword in his right hand.
He killed all the good looking men of Judah.
The Lord killed them as if he were the enemy.
The Lord poured out his anger.
He poured it out on the tents of Zion.

5 The Lord has become like an enemy.
He has swallowed up Israel.
He has swallowed up all her palaces.
He has swallowed up all her fortresses.
He has made much sadness and crying for the dead in the Daughter of Judah.*

6 The Lord pulled up his own tent* as if it were a garden.
He has ruined the place where the people went to meet to worship him.
The Lord has made people forget the special assemblies and special days of rest* in Zion.
The Lord rejected the king and the priests.
He was angry and rejected them.

7 The Lord rejected his altar.
He rejected his Holy Place of worship.
He let the enemy pull down the walls of the palaces of Jerusalem.
The enemy shouted with joy in the Lord’s temple.
They made noise, as if it were a holiday.

8 The Lord planned to destroy the wall of the Daughter of Zion.* He marked the wall with a measuring line to show where the wall should be torn down.
He didn’t stop himself from destroying.
So he made all the walls cry out in sadness.
Together they wasted away.

9 Jerusalem’s gates have sunk into the ground.
He destroyed and smashed the bars of the gates.
Her king and princes are in other nations.
There is no more teaching for them.

Daughter of Zion This is a figurative name for the city of Jerusalem.
Jacob Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22–28.
Daughter of Judah This is a figurative name for the nation of Judah.
his own tent This is a reference to the Lord’s temple in Jerusalem.
special days of rest Or, “Sabbaths.” This might mean Saturday, or it might mean all of the special days when the people were not supposed to work.
Also Jerusalem’s prophets have not found any visions from the Lord.

10 The elders of Zion sit on the ground. They sit on the ground and are quiet. They pour dust on their heads. They put on sackcloth.* The young women of Jerusalem bow their heads to the ground in sorrow.

11 My eyes are worn out with tears! My insides are upset! My heart feels like it has been poured on the ground! I feel this way because of the destruction of my people. Children and babies are fainting. They are fainting in the public squares of the city.

12 Those children say to their mothers, “Where is bread and wine?” They ask this question as they die. They die on their mother’s laps.

13 Daughter of Zion,* what can I compare you to? What can I compare you to, Virgin Daughter of Zion*? How can I comfort you? Your destruction is as big as the sea! I don’t think anyone can heal you.

14 Your prophets saw visions for you. But their visions were only worthless lies. They didn’t preach against your sins. They didn’t try to make things better. They preached messages for you, but they were false messages that fooled you.

15 The people that pass by on the road clap their hands at you in shock. They whistle and shake their heads at the Daughter of Jerusalem.

16 All your enemies laugh at you. They whistle and grind their teeth at you. They say, “We have swallowed them up! This is truly the day we were hoping for. We have finally seen this happen.”

17 The Lord did what he planned to do. He has done what he said he would do. He has done what he commanded from times of long ago. He destroyed, and he had no pity. He made your enemies happy because of what happened to you. He made your enemies strong.

18 Cry out* with your hearts to the Lord! Wall of the Daughter of Zion,* let tears roll down like a stream! let your tears roll down day and night. Don’t stop! Don’t let your eyes be still!

19 Get up! Cry out in the night! Cry out at the beginning of each of the parts of the night! Pour out your heart as if it were water! Pour out your heart before the Lord! Lift up your hands in prayer to the Lord. Ask him to let your children live. Ask him to let your children live that are fainting with starvation. They are fainting with starvation in all the streets of the city.

20 Look at me, Lord! See who it is that you have treated this way! Let me ask this question: Should women eat the children they have given birth to? Should women eat the children they have cared for?

Zion  The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
sackcloth  A kind of cloth that people wore to show they were sad or crying for dead people.
Daughter of Zion  This is a figurative name for the city of Jerusalem.

Cry out  The Hebrew says, “Their hearts cried out.”
LAMENTATIONS 2:21–3:27

Should priest and prophet be killed in the temple of the Lord?

21 Young men and old men lie on the ground in the streets of the city.
My young women and young men have been killed by the sword.
You, Lord, killed them on the day of your anger!
You killed them without mercy!

22 You invited terror to come to me from all around.
You invited terror like you were inviting it to a holiday.
No person escaped on the day of the Lord’s anger.
My enemy has killed those that I raised and brought up.

The Meaning of Suffering

3 I am a man that has seen much trouble.
The Lord beat us with a stick.
And I saw it happen!

2 The Lord led and brought me into darkness, not light.
3 The Lord turned his hand against me.
He did this again and again, all day.
4 He wore out my flesh and skin.
He broke my bones.
5 The Lord built up bitterness and trouble against me.
He made bitterness and trouble come all around me.
6 He made me sit in the dark.
He made me like some person that has been dead a long time.
7 The Lord shut me in, so I could not get out.
He put heavy chains on me.
8 Even when I cry out and ask for help, the Lord does not listen to my prayer.
9 He has blocked up my path with stones.
He has made my path crooked.
10 The Lord is like a bear about to attack me.
He is like a lion that is in a hiding place.
11 The Lord led me off my path.
He tore me to pieces.
He ruined me.
12 He made his bow ready.
He made me the target for his arrows.

He shot me in the stomach.
He shot me with his arrows.
14 I have become a joke to all of my people.
All day long they sing songs about me and make fun of me.
15 The Lord gave me this poison (punishment) to drink.
He filled me with this bitter drink.
16 The Lord pushed my teeth into rocky ground.
He pushed me into the dirt.
17 I thought I would never have peace again.
I forgot about good things.
18 I said to myself, “I no longer have any hope that the Lord will help me.”

19 Lord, remember, I am very sad.
And I have no home.
Remember the bitter poison (punishment) that you gave me.

20 I remember well all my troubles.
And I am very sad.
21 But then I think of something else, then I have hope. What I think of is this:
22 The Lord’s love and kindness never ends.*
His compassion never ends.
23 Every morning he shows it in new ways!
Lord, you are so very true and loyal!
24 I say to myself, “The Lord is my God, and I trust him.”*

25 The Lord is good to people that wait for him.
The Lord is good to people that look for him.
26 It is good for a person to wait quietly for the Lord to save him.
27 It is good for a person to wear the yoke* of the Lord.
It is good for a person to wear that yoke from the time he is young.

The Hebrew reads, “we don’t come to an end.”
The Lord … him. Or, “The Lord is my portion and I trust him.
yoke A pole that was put on the shoulders of men or animals to help them carry or pull things. This often showed that a person was a slave.
28 That person should sit alone and be quiet when the Lord puts his yoke on him.
29 That person should bow to the Lord with his face to the ground.
Maybe there is still hope.
30 That person should turn his cheek to the one that hits him.
That person should let people insult him.
31 That person should remember that the Lord does not reject people forever.
32 When the Lord punishes,
he also has mercy.
He has mercy because of his great love
and kindness.
33 The Lord does not want to punish people.
He does not like to make people unhappy.
34 The Lord does not like these things:
He does not like for someone to crush all the prisoners of the earth under his feet.
35 He does not like for someone to be unfair to another person.
But some people do those bad things right in front of God Most High.
36 The Lord does not like for a person to cheat another person.
The Lord does not like any of these things.
37 Nobody can say something and have it happen,
unless the Lord orders it to happen.
38 God Most High commands
both good and bad things to happen.
39 No person alive can complain
when the Lord punishes him for his sins.
40 Let us check and see what we have done.
Then let us turn back to the Lord.
41 Let us lift up our hearts and our hands to the God of heaven.
42 Let us say to him,
“We have sinned and have been stubborn.
Because of this, you haven’t forgiven us.
43 You wrapped yourself with anger.
You chased us.
You killed us without mercy!
44 You wrapped yourself in a cloud.
You did that so that no prayer could get through.
45 You made us like garbage and dirt to the other nations.
46 All of our enemies
speak angrily to us.
47 We have been frightened.
We have fallen into a pit.
We have been hurt bad!
We have been broken!”
48 My eyes flow with streams of tears!
I cry because of the destruction of my people!
49 My eyes will flow without stopping!
I will keep on crying!
50 I will continue to cry
until you look down and see us, Lord!
I will continue to cry
until you see us from heaven!
51 My eyes make me sad,
when I see what happened to the girls in my city.
52 Those people were my enemies for no good reason,
but they hunted me like a bird.
53 They threw me into a pit
while I was still alive.
They threw stones at me.
54 Water came up over my head.
I said to myself,
“I am finished.”
55 Lord, I called your name.
I called out your name
from the bottom of the pit.
56 You heard my voice.
You didn’t close your ears.
You didn’t refuse to rescue me.
57 You came to me
on the day that I called out to you.
You said to me,
“Don’t be afraid.”
58 Lord, you defended me.
You bought back my life for me.
59 Lord, you have seen my trouble.
Now judge my case for me.
60 You have seen how my enemies have hurt me.
You have seen all the evil plans
that they made against me.
61 You heard them insult me, Lord.
You have heard all the evil plans
that they made against me.
LAMENTATIONS 3:62–4:13 948

62 The words and the thoughts of my enemies are against me all the time—when they sit down and when they stand up.

63 Lord, look how they make fun of me! Give them back what they deserve, Lord! Pay them back for what they have done! Give them stubbornness of heart! Then put your curse on them!

66 Chase them in anger! Destroy them! Destroy them from under the sky, Lord!

The Horrors of the Attack on Jerusalem

4 See how the gold has grown dark. See how the good gold is changed. There are jewels* scattered all around. They are scattered at every street corner.

2 The people of Zion* were worth a lot. They were worth their weight in gold. But now the enemy treats those people like old clay jars. The enemy treats them like clay jars made by a potter.

3 Even a wild dog feeds her babies. Even the jackal lets her pups suck at her breast. But the daughter of my people* is cruel. She is like the ostrich that lives in the desert.

4 The little baby’s tongue sticks to the roof of its mouth from thirst. Young children ask for bread. But no one gives any bread to them.

5 The people that at one time ate rich food now are dying in the streets. The people that grew up wearing nice red clothes now pick through garbage piles.

6 The sin of the daughter of my people* was very great. Their sin was greater than the sins of Sodom and Gomorrah.* Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed suddenly. No human hand caused that destruction.*

7 Some of the men of Judah were dedicated to God in a special way. Those men were very pure. They were whiter than snow. They were whiter than milk. Their bodies were red like coral. Their beards were sapphire stones.

8 But now their faces are blacker than soot. No one even recognizes them in the streets. Their skin is wrinkled over their bones. Their skin is like wood.

9 The people that were killed by the sword had it better than the people that were killed by famine. The starving people were very sad. They were hurt. They died because they got no food from the field.

10 At that time, even very nice women cooked their own children. Those children became food for their mothers. This happened when my people were destroyed.

11 The Lord used all of his anger. He poured out all his anger. He made a fire in Zion.* That fire burned down Zion to its foundations.

12 The kings of the earth could not believe what had happened. The people of the world could not believe what had happened. They could not believe that enemies would be able to come through the city gates of Jerusalem.

13 This happened because the prophets of Jerusalem sinned. This happened because the priests of Jerusalem did evil things.

jewels  The meaning of the Hebrew word here is uncertain.
Zion  The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
daughter of my people  This is a figurative way of referring here to the women of Jerusalem.
daughter of my people  These words refer to all the people of Jerusalem.
Sodom and Gomorrah  Two cities that God destroyed because the people were so evil.
No human hand caused that destruction  The Hebrew of this line is unclear.
Those people were shedding blood in the city of Jerusalem. They were shedding the blood of good people.

14 The prophets and priests walked around like blind men in the streets. They had become dirty with blood. No one could even touch their clothes because they were dirty.

15 People shouted, “Go away! Go away! Don’t touch us.” Those people wandered around and had no home. People in other nations said, “We don’t want them to live with us.”

16 The Lord himself destroyed those people. He didn’t look after them anymore. He didn’t respect the priests. He was not friendly to the elders of Judah.

17 We have worn out our eyes looking for help. But no help comes. We kept on looking for a nation to save us. We kept watch from our watchtower, but no nation came to us.

18 Our enemies hunted us all the time. We could not even go out into the streets. Our end came near. Our time was up. Our end came!

19 The men that chased us were faster than eagles in the sky. Those men chased us into the mountains. They hid in the desert to catch us.

20 The king was very important to us. He was like the breath we breathe. But the king was trapped by them. The king was chosen by the Lord himself. We had said about the king, “We will live in his shadow. He protects us from the nations.”

21 Be happy, people of Edom. Be happy, you people that live in the land of Uz. But remember, the cup of the Lord’s anger will come around to you, too.

When you drink from that cup (punishment), you will get drunk and will make yourselves naked.

22 Your punishment is complete, Zion.* You will not go into captivity again. But the Lord will punish your sins, people of Edom. He will uncover your sins.

A Prayer to the Lord

5 Remember, Lord, what happened to us. Look and see our disgrace. Our land has been turned over to strangers. Our houses have been given to foreigners.

3 We have become orphans. We have no father. Our mothers have become like widows.

4 We have to buy the water that we drink. We have to pay for the wood that we use. We are forced to wear a yoke* on our necks. We get tired, and we have no rest.

6 We made an agreement with Egypt. We also made an agreement with Assyria* to get enough bread. Our ancestors sinned against you. Now they are dead. Now we are suffering because of their sins. Slaves have become our rulers. No person can save us from them.

9 We risk our lives to get food. There are men in the desert with swords. Our skin is hot like an oven. We have a high fever because of our hunger.

11 The enemy raped the women of Zion.* They raped the women in the cities of Judah.

12 The enemy hanged our princes. They didn’t honor our elders.

13 The enemy made our young men grind grain at the mill. Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

yoke A pole that was put on the shoulders of men or animals to help them carry or pull things. This often showed that a person was a slave.

Assyria This was a powerful nation northeast of Israel.
LAMENTATIONS 5:14–22

Our young men stumbled under loads of wood.

The elders no longer sit at the gates of the city.
The young men no longer make music.

We have no more joy in our hearts.
Our dancing was changed into crying for the dead.

The crown has fallen from our head.
Things have gone bad for us because we sinned.

Because of these things, our hearts have become sick,
our eyes cannot see clearly.

Mount Zion is a wasteland.
Foxes run around on Mount Zion.

But you rule forever, Lord.
Your kingly chair lasts forever and ever.

You seem to have forgotten us forever, Lord.
You seem to have left us alone for such a long time.

Bring us back to you, Lord.
We will gladly come back to you.
Make our lives like they were before.

You were very angry at us.
Have you completely rejected us?
INTRODUCTION

1–3 I am the priest, Ezekiel son of Buzzi. I was in exile* by the Kebar Canal in Babylonia when the skies opened up and I saw visions* of God. This was on the fifth day of the fourth month (July) of the thirtieth year.*

During King Jehoiachin’s fifth year in exile,* on the fifth day of the month, the word of the Lord came to Ezekiel. The Lord’s power came on him at that place.

The Chariot of the Lord—God’s Throne

4 I (Ezekiel) saw a big storm coming from the north. It was a big cloud with a strong wind, and there was fire flashing from it. Light was shining out all around it. It looked like hot metal* glowing in a fire. 5Inside the cloud, there were four animals that looked like people. 6But each animal had four faces and four wings. 7Their legs were straight. Their feet looked like cow’s feet. And they sparkled like polished brass. 8Under their wings were human arms. There were four animals. Each animal had four faces and four wings. 9The wings touched each other. The animals did not turn when they moved. They went in the direction they were looking.

10 Each animal had four faces. In the front, they each had a man’s face. On the right side there was a lion’s face. On the left side there was a bull’s face. And on the back there was an eagle’s face. 11The wings of the animals were spread out over them. With two of the wings each animal reached out to touch the animals near it and with the other two wings it covered its body. 12Each animal went in the direction it was looking. They went wherever the wind* caused them to go. But they did not turn when they moved. 13That is what the animals looked like.

Inside the area between the animals, there was something that looked like burning coals of fire. This fire was like small torches that kept moving around among the animals. The fire glowed brightly and lightning flashed from it! 14The animals ran back and forth—fast like lightning!*

15–16 I was looking at the animals when I noticed four wheels that touched the ground. There was one wheel at each animal. All of the wheels looked the same. The wheels looked like they were made from a clear, yellow jewel. They looked like there was a wheel inside a wheel. 17The wheels* could turn to move in any direction. But the animals* did not turn when they moved.*

18 The rims of the wheels were tall and frightening! There were eyes all over the rims of all four wheels.
EZEKIEL 1:19–2:10

19 The wheels always moved with the animals. If the animals went up into the air, the wheels went with them. 20 They went wherever the wind wanted them to go, and the wheels went with them. Why? Because the wind (power) of the animal was in the wheels.

21 So if the animals moved, the wheels moved. If the animals stopped, the wheels stopped. If the wheels went into the air, the animals went with them. Why? Because the wind was in the wheels.

22 There was an amazing thing over the heads of animals. It was like a bowl turned upside down. And the bowl was clear like crystal! 23 Under this bowl, each animal had wings reaching out to the animals next to it. Two wings spread out one way and two wings spread out in the other way, covering its body.

24 Then I heard the wings. Every time the animals moved, their wings made a very loud noise. They were loud like a lot of water rushing by. They were loud likeGod, All-Powerful. They were loud like an army or a crowd of people. And when the animals stopped moving, they put their wings down by their side.

25 The animals stopped moving and lowered their wings. And there was another loud sound. That sound came from above the bowl over their heads. 26 There was something that looked like a throne on top of that bowl. It was blue like sapphire. And there was something that looked like a man sitting on that throne! 27 I looked at him from his waist up. He looked like hot metal. It looked like fire all around him! And I looked at him from his waist down. It looked like fire with a glow that was shining all around him. 28 The light shining around him was like a rainbow in a cloud. It was the Glory of the Lord. As soon as I saw that, I fell to the ground. I bowed with my face to the ground. And then I heard a voice speaking to me.

wind  Or, “Spirit.”

bowl  This Hebrew word is the same word used in Gen. 1:6–7 to describe the dome of the sky.

hot metal  We are not sure of the meaning of this Hebrew word. It might mean, “melted copper” or “amber.”

Son of man  This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.

prophet  A person called by God to be a special servant. God used dreams and visions to show them things to teach to the people.

scorpions  Insects with stingers in their tails that cause pain.

scroll  A long roll of leather or papyrus (paper) used for writing books, letters, and legal documents.
3 God said to me, “Son of man,* eat what you see. Eat this scroll,* and then go tell these things to the family of Israel.”

2 So I opened my mouth and he put the scroll into my mouth. 3 Then God said, “Son of man, I am giving you this scroll. Swallow it! Let that scroll fill your body.”

So I ate the scroll.* It was as sweet as honey in my mouth.

4 Then God said to me, “Son of man,* go to the family of Israel. Speak my words to them. 5 I am not sending you to some foreigners you can’t understand. You don’t have to learn another language. I am sending you to the family of Israel! 6 I am not sending you to many different countries where people speak languages you can’t understand. If you went to those people and spoke to them, they would listen to you. But you won’t have to learn those hard languages. 7 No! I am sending you to the family of Israel. Only, these people have hard heads—they are very stubborn! And the people of Israel will refuse to listen to you. They don’t want to listen to me! 8 But I will make you just as stubborn as they are. Your head will be just as hard as theirs! 9 A diamond is harder than flint rock. In the same way, your head will be harder than theirs. You will be more stubborn, so you won’t be afraid of those people. You won’t be afraid of those people that always turn against me.”

10 Then God said to me, “Son of man,* you must listen to every word I say to you. And you must remember those words. 11 Then go to all of your people that are in exile.* Go to them and say, ‘The Lord our Master says these things.’ They won’t listen and they won’t stop sinning, but you must tell them these things.”

12 Then the wind* lifted me up and I heard a voice behind me. It was very loud, like thunder. 13 Then the wings of the animals began moving. The wings made a very loud noise as they touched each other. And the wheels in front of them began making a loud noise—it was loud like thunder. 14 The wind* lifted me and took me away. I left that place. I was very sad and upset in my spirit.* But I felt Lord’s power in me! 15 I went to the people of Israel that were forced to live in Tel Aviv* by the Kebar Canal. I sat there among them for seven days, shocked and silent.

16 After seven days, the word of the Lord came to me. He said, 17 “Son of man,* I am making you a watchman* for Israel. I will tell you about bad things that will happen to them. And you must warn Israel about those things. 18 If I say, ‘This bad man will die!’ Then you must warn him! You must tell him to change his life and stop doing bad things. If you don’t warn that person, then he will die. He will die because he sinned. But I will also make you responsible for his death! Why? Because you did not go to him and save his life.

19 “Maybe you will warn a person and tell him to change his life and stop doing bad things. If that person refuses to listen to you, then that person will die. He will die because he sinned. But you warned him, so you saved your own life.

20 “Or maybe a good man will stop being good. I might put something in front of him that causes him to fall (sin). He will start to do bad things, so he will die. He will die because he is sinning and you did not warn him. I will make you responsible for his death. And people won’t remember all the good things he did.

21 “But if you warn the good person and tell him to stop sinning, and he stops sinning, then he won’t die. Why? Because you warned him and he listened. In this way, you saved your own life.”

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.

scrolls A long roll of leather or papyrus (paper) used for writing books, letters, and legal documents.

exile Being forced to live in a foreign country. King Nebuchadnezzar forced many Jewish people to leave Judah and live in foreign countries.

watchman A guard that stood on the city wall and looked for enemy soldiers. If he saw trouble coming, he would warn the people in the city.

Tel Aviv This was a place outside of Israel. We are not sure where it is exactly. The name means “Spring Hill.”

spirit Or, “Spirit.”
The Lord’s power came to me. He said to me, “Get up and go to the valley. I will speak to you in that place.”

So I got up and went out to the valley. The Glory of the Lord was there—just like I had seen it by the Kebar Canal. So I bowed with my face to the ground.

But a wind came and lifted me up on my feet. He said to me, “Go home and lock yourself in your house. Son of man, people will come with ropes and tie you up. They won’t let you go out among the people.

I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth—you won’t be able to talk. So those people won’t have any person to teach them that they are doing wrong. Why? Because those people are always turning against me.

But I will talk to you. And then I will allow you to speak. But you must say to them, ‘The Lord our Master says these things.’ If a person wants to listen, then fine. If a person doesn’t want to listen, then fine. But those people always turn against me.

“Son of man, take a brick. Scratch a picture on it. Draw a picture of a city—the city Jerusalem. And then act like you are an army surrounding the city. Build a dirt wall around the city {to help you attack it}. Build a dirt road leading up to the city wall. Bring battering rams and set up army camps around the city. And then take an iron pan and put it between you and the city. It will be like an iron wall separating you and the city. In this way, you will show that you are against that city. You will surround and attack that city.

Why? Because this is an example for the family of Israel. It will show that I (God) will destroy Jerusalem.

Then you must lie down on your left side. You must do the thing that shows that you are taking the sins of the people of Israel on yourself. You will carry that guilt for as many days as you lie on your left side. You must bear the guilt of Israel for 390 days. In this way, I am telling you how long Israel will be punished, one day equals one year.

After that time, you will lie on your right side for 40 days. This time you will bear the guilt of Judah for 40 days. One day equals one year. I am telling you {how long Judah must be punished}.

God again spoke. He said, “Now, roll up your sleeve and raise your arm over the brick. Act like you are attacking the city Jerusalem. Do this to show that you are speaking as my messenger to the people. Now look, I am tying ropes on you. You won’t be able to roll over from one side to another until your attack against the city* is finished.”

God also said, “You must get some grain to make bread. Get some wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt. Mix all those things together in one bowl and grind them to make flour. You will use this flour to make bread. You will eat only this bread during the 390 days that you lie on your side. You will be allowed to use only 1 cup* of that flour each day to make bread. You will eat that bread from time to time throughout the day. And you can drink only 3 cups* of water each day. You can drink it from time to time throughout the day. You must make your bread each day. You must get dry human dung and burn it. Then you must cook the bread over this burning dung. You must eat this bread in front of the people.”

Then the Lord said, “This will show that the family of Israel will eat unclean bread* in foreign countries. And I forced them to leave Israel and go to those countries! Then I (Ezekiel) said, “Oh, but Lord my Master, I have never eaten any unclean food. I the valley Possibly Jezreel Valley which is often called simply, “The Valley.” This is a fertile area in Israel where many battles were fought.

Glory of the Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. This was like a bright shining light.

wind Or, “Spirit.”

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.

battering rams Heavy logs that soldiers used to break holes into the gates or walls around a city.

390 days The ancient Greek translation has, “190 days.”

your attack against the city This is a word play. The Hebrew word can mean, “time of hunger,” “time of trouble,” or “attack against a city.”

1 cup Literally, “20 shekels.”

3 cups Literally, “1/6 hin.”

unclean bread Bread that touched something unclean. If a person ate this bread, then that person could not join in worshiping God. See Lev. 11–15 for rules about clean and unclean things.
have never eaten meat from an animal that died from a disease or from an animal that was killed by a wild animal. I have never eaten unclean meat—not from the time I was a little baby until today. None of that bad meat ever entered my mouth.”

15Then God said to me, “Ok! I will let you use dry cow dung to cook your bread. You don’t have to use dry human dung.”

16Then God said to me, “Son of man,* I am destroying Jerusalem’s supply of bread. People will have only a little bread to eat. They will be very worried about their food supply. And they will have only a little water to drink. They will be very scared when they drink that water. 17Why? Because there won’t be enough food and water for the people. People will be terrified of each other—they will see each other wasting away because of their sins.

51–2“Son of man,* after your time of hunger* you must do these things. You must get a sharp sword. Use that sword like a barber’s razor. Shave off your hair and beard. Put the hair on a scale and weigh it. Separate your hair into three equal parts. Put one third of your hair on the brick that has the picture of the city on it. Burn that hair in that ‘city.’ 2This shows that some of the people will die inside the city. Then use a sword and cut one third of your hair into small pieces all around the city (brick). 3This will show that some of the people will die outside the city. Then throw one third of your hair into the air—let the wind blow it far away. 4This will show that I will pull out my sword and chase some of the people into faraway countries. But then you must get a few of those hairs and wrap them up in your robe. 5This will show that I will save a few of my people. 6You must also get some more of those hairs and throw them into the fire. 7This will show that a fire will start there and destroy the whole house of Israel.*

3Then the Lord my Master said to me, “That brick is a picture of Jerusalem. I put Jerusalem in the middle of other nations. And there are countries all around her. 8The people of Jerusalem rebelled against my commands. They were worse than any of the other nations! They broke more of my laws than any of the people in the countries around them. They refused to listen to my commands! They did not obey my laws!”

5So, the Lord my Master says, “I will do terrible things to you! Why? Because you did not obey my laws. You did not obey my commands. You broke more of my laws than the people that live around you! And you even did things those people say are wrong!” 8So the Lord my Master says, “So now, even I am against you! And I will punish you while those other people watch. 9I will do things to you that I have never done before. And I will never do those terrible things again! Why? Because you did so many terrible things.

10People in Jerusalem will be so hungry that parents will eat their own children and children will eat their own parents. I will punish you in many ways. And the people that are left alive, I will scatter them to the winds.

11The Lord my Master says, “Jerusalem, I promise by my life that I will punish you! I promise that I will punish you! Why? Because you did terrible things to my Holy Place. You did horrible things that made it dirty! I will punish you! I won’t show any mercy. I will not feel sorry for you! 12One third of your people will die inside the city from diseases and hunger. One third of your people will die in battle outside the city. And then I will pull out my sword and chase one third of your people into faraway countries. 13Only then will I stop being angry at your people. I will know that they have been punished for the bad things they did to me. And they will know that I am the Lord, and that I spoke to them because of my strong love* for them!”

14God said, “Jerusalem, I will destroy you—you will be nothing but a pile of rocks. The people around you will make fun of you. Every person that walks by will make fun of you. 15People around you will make fun of your time of hunger  Or, “your attack on the city.” See Ez. 4:8.

Son of man  This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.

house of Israel  This probably means the people of the northern ten family groups of Israel.

strong love  The Hebrew word means strong feelings like love, hate, anger, zeal, or jealousy.
you, but you will also be a lesson for them. They will see that I was angry and punished you. I was very angry. I warned you. I, the Lord, told you what I would do! I told you I would send you terrible times of hunger. I told you I would send you things that would destroy you. I told you that I would take away your supply of food and that those times of hunger would come again and again. I told you I would send hunger and wild animals against you that would kill your children. I told you there would be disease and death everywhere in the city. I told you I would bring those enemy soldiers to fight against you. I, the Lord, told you all these things would happen—and they will happen!"

Then the word of the Lord came to me again. He said, “Son of man,* turn towards the mountains of Israel. Speak against them for me. Tell those mountains these things: ‘Mountains of Israel, listen to this message from the Lord my Master! The Lord my Master says these things to the hills and mountains, and to the ravines and valleys. Look! I (God) am bringing the enemy to fight against you. I will destroy your high places.* Your altars* will be broken into pieces! Your incense* altars will be smashed! And I will throw down your dead bodies in front of your filthy idols. I will put the dead bodies of the people of Israel in front of their filthy idols. I will scatter your bones around your altars. Bad things will happen wherever your people live. Their cities will become piles of rock. Their high places will be destroyed. Why? So that those places of worship will never be used again. Those altars will all be destroyed. People will never worship those filthy idols again. Those incense altars will be smashed. All the things you made will be completely destroyed! Your people will be killed. And then you will know that I am the Lord!’"

God said, “But I will let a few of your people escape. They will live in other countries for a short time. I will scatter them and force them to live in other countries. Then those survivors* will be taken prisoners. They will be forced to live in other countries. But those survivors will remember me. I broke their spirit.* They will hate themselves for the bad things they did. In the past, they turned away from me and left me. They chased after their filthy idols. They were like a woman leaving her husband and running after some other man. They did many terrible things. But they will know that I am the Lord. And they will know that if I say that I will do something, then I will do it! They will know that I caused all of the bad things that happened to them.”

Then the Lord my Master said to me, “Clap your hands and stamp your feet. Speak against all the terrible things that the people of Israel have done. Warn them that they will be killed by disease and hunger. Tell them they will be killed in war. People far away will die from disease. People near this place will be killed with swords. And the people that are left in the city will starve to death. Only then will I stop being angry. And only then will you know that I am the Lord. You will know this when you see your dead bodies in front of your filthy idols and around their altars. Those bodies will be near every one of your places of worship—on every high hill and mountain, under every green tree and every oak tree with leaves. In all those places you offered your sacrifices. They were a sweet smell for your filthy idols. But I will raise my arm over you people and punish you and your people, wherever they live! I will destroy your country! It will be emptier than Diblah Desert.* Then they will know that I am the Lord!”

Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, “Now, Son of man,* here is a message from the Lord my Master. This message is for the land of Israel.

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.
high places Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.
altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.
incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.
survivors People that escaped some disaster. Here this means the Jewish people that survived the destruction of Judah and Israel by its enemy armies.
spirit Literally, “heart.”
Diblah Desert This is probably “Riblah Desert.”
The end.
The end is coming.
The whole country will be destroyed.

3 Your end is coming now!
I will show how angry I am at you.
I will punish you for the bad things you did.
I will make you pay for all the terrible things you did.

4 I won’t show you any mercy.
I won’t feel sorry for you.
I am punishing you for the bad things you did.
You have done such terrible things.
Now, you will know that I am the Lord.”

5 The Lord my Master said these things.
“There will be one disaster after another! The end is coming, and it will come quickly!
You people living in Israel, do you hear the whistle? The enemy is coming. That time of punishment is coming very soon! The noise of the enemy is getting louder and louder on the mountains.

6 Very soon now, I will show you how angry I am. I will show all of my anger against you. I will punish you for the bad things you did. I will make you pay for all the terrible things you did.

7 I won’t show you any mercy. I won’t feel sorry for you. I am punishing you for the bad things you did. You have done such terrible things.
Now, you will know that I am the Lord.”

8 “That time of punishment has come like a plant sprouting, budding and flowering: God has given the signal, the enemy is prepared, the proud king (Nebuchadnezzar) is ready.

9 Very soon now, I will show you how angry I am. I will show all of my anger against you. I will punish you for the bad things you did. I will make you pay for all the terrible things you did.

10 I won’t show you any mercy. I won’t feel sorry for you. I am punishing you for the bad things you did. You have done such terrible things.
Now, you will know that I am the Lord.

11 That time of punishment has come. That day is here. People that buy things won’t be happy. And people that sell things won’t feel bad about selling them. Why? Because that terrible punishment will happen to every person.

12 “That time of punishment has come. That day is here. People that buy things won’t be happy. And people that sell things won’t feel bad about selling them. Why? Because that terrible punishment will happen to every person.

13 The people that sold their property* will never go back to it. Even if a person escapes alive, he will never go back to his property. Why? Because this vision* is for the whole crowd of people. So even if a person escapes alive, it won’t make people feel better.

14 They will blow the trumpet to warn the people. The people will get ready for battle. But they won’t go out to fight. Why? Because I will show the whole crowd how angry I am.

15 The enemy with his sword is outside the city. Disease and hunger is inside the city. If a person goes out into the fields, then an enemy soldier will kill him. If he stays in the city, hunger and disease will destroy him.

16 But some of the people will escape. Those survivors will run to the mountains. But those people won’t be happy. They will be sad for all their sins. They will cry and make sad noises like doves.

17 People will be too tired and sad to raise their arms. Their legs will be like water. They will wear clothes of sadness and be covered with fear. You will see the shame on every face. They will shave their heads* to show their sadness. They will throw their silver* idols into the streets. They will treat their gold* statues like dirty rags! Why? Because those things will not be able to save them when the Lord shows his anger. Those things were nothing but a trap that caused the people to fall (sin). Those things will not give food to the people and they won’t put food in their bellies.

18 Those people used their beautiful jewelry and made an idol. They were proud of that statue. They made their terrible statues. They made those filthy things. So I (God) will throw them away like a dirty rag. I will let strangers take them. Those strangers will make fun of them. Those strangers will make fun of them. Those strangers will kill some of the people and take others away as prisoners.

20 Those people used their beautiful jewelry and made an idol. They were proud of that statue. They made their terrible statues. They made those filthy things. So I (God) will throw them away like a dirty rag. I will let strangers take them. Those strangers will make fun of them. Those strangers will kill some of the people and take others away as prisoners.

21 I will turn my head away from them—I won’t look at them. Those strangers will ruin my temple—they will go into the secret parts of that holy building and make it not holy.

22 “Make chains* for the prisoners! Why? Because many people will be punished for sold their property In ancient Israel property did not belong to a person, it belonged to a family. A person might sell his property, but at the time of Jubilees his family would get the land back. Here, Ezekiel says the people will never get their property again.

vision Something like a dream that God used to speak to people.
killing other people. There will be violence every place in the city. 24I will bring evil people from other nations. And those evil people will get all the houses of the people of Israel. I will stop all of you powerful people from being so proud. Those people from other nations will get all your places of worship.*

25“Your people will shake with fear. You will look for peace, but there will be none. 26You will hear one sad story after another. You will hear nothing but bad news. You will look for a prophet and ask him for a vision.* But there won’t be one.* The priests will have nothing to teach you. And the elders (leaders) won’t have any good advice to give you. 27Your king will be crying for the people that died. The leaders will wear clothes of sadness. The common people will be very scared. Why? Because I will pay them back for the things they did. I will decide their punishment. And I will punish them. Then those people will know that I am the Lord.”

8One day I (Ezekiel) was sitting in my house, and the elders (leaders) of Judah were sitting there in front of me. This was on the fifth day of the sixth month (September) of the sixth year of exile.* Suddenly, the power of the Lord my Master came on me. 2I saw something that looked like fire. It looked like a man’s body.* From the waist down, he was like fire. From the waist up, he was bright and shining like hot metal* in a fire. 3Then I saw something that looked like an arm. The arm reached out and grabbed me by the hair on my head. Then the wind* lifted me into the air. And in God’s vision,* he took me to Jerusalem. He took me to the inner gate—the gate that is on the north side. The statue that makes God jealous is by that gate. 4But the Glory of the God of Israel was there. The Glory looked just like the vision I saw in the valley by the Kebar Canal.*

5God spoke to me. He said, “Son of man,* look towards the north!” So I looked towards the north. And there, north of the Altar Gate by the entrance, was that statue that made God jealous. 6Then God said to me, “Son of man,* do you see what terrible things the people of Israel are doing? They built that thing here, right next to my temple! And if you come with me, you will see even more terrible things!”

7So I went to the entrance to the courtyard, and I saw a hole in the wall. 8God said to me, “Son of man,* make a hole in the wall.” So I made a hole in the wall. And there I saw a door.

9Then God said to me, “Go in and look at the terrible, evil things that the people are doing here.” 10So I went in and looked. I saw statues of all kinds of reptiles* and animals that you hate to think about. Those statues were the filthy idols that the people of Israel worshiped. There were pictures of those animals carved all around on every wall!

11Then I noticed that Jaazaniah son of Shapham and the 70 elders (leaders) of Israel were there with the people worshiping in that place. There they were, right at the front of the people! And each leader had his own incense* dish in his hand. The smoke from the burning incense was rising into the air. 12Then God said to me, “Son of man,* do you see what the elders of Israel do in the dark? Each man has a special room for his own false god! Those men say to themselves, ‘The Lord can’t see us. The Lord left this country.’” 13Then God said to me, “If you come with me, you will see those men doing even more terrible things!”

14Then God led me to the entrance to the Lord’s temple. This gate was on the north side. And there I saw women sitting and crying. They were sad about the false god Tammuz!*
15God said to me, “Son of man,* do you see these terrible things? Come with me and you will see things that are even worse than this!” 16Then he led me to the inner courtyard of the Lord’s temple. At that place, I saw 25 men bowing down and worshiping. They were between the porch and the altar—but they were facing the wrong way! Their backs were to the Holy Place. They were bowing down to worship the sun!

17Then God said, “Son of man,* do you see this? The people of Judah think my temple is so unimportant that they will do these terrible things here in my temple! This country is filled with violence. And they constantly do things to make me mad. Look, they are wearing rings in their noses to honor the moon like a false god!* 18I will show them my anger! I won’t show them any mercy! I will not feel sorry for them! They will shout to me—but I refuse to listen to them!”

9Then God shouted to the leaders in charge of punishing the city. Each leader had his own destructive weapon in his hand.* 2Then I saw six men walking on the road from the upper gate. This gate is on the north side. Each man had his own deadly weapon in his hand. One of the men wore linen clothes.* He wore a scribe’s pen and ink set* at his waist. Those men went to the bronze altar in the temple and stood there. 3Then the Glory of the God of Israel rose from above the Cherub angels* where he had been. Then the Glory went to the door of the temple. He stopped when he was over the threshold. Then the Glory called to the man wearing the linen clothes and the scribe’s pen and ink set.

4Then the Lord (Glory) said to him, “Go through the city of Jerusalem. Put a mark on the forehead of every person that feels sad and upset about all the terrible things people are doing in this city.”

5–6Then I heard God say to the other men, “I want you to follow the first man. You must kill every person that does not have the mark on his forehead. It does not matter if they are elders (leaders), young men or young women, children or mothers—you must use your weapon and kill every person that does not have the mark on his forehead. Don’t show any mercy. Don’t feel sorry for any person! Start here at my temple.” So they started with the elders (leaders) in front of the temple.

7God said to them, “Make this temple unclean*—fill this courtyard with dead bodies! Now go!” So they went and killed the people in the city.

8I stayed there while those men went to kill the people. I bowed with my face to the ground and said, “Oh Lord my Master, in showing your anger against Jerusalem, are you killing all the survivors in Israel?”

9Then God said, “The family of Israel and Judah have done many, many very bad sins! People are being murdered everywhere in this country. And this city is filled with crime. Why? Because the people say to themselves, ‘The Lord left this country. He can’t see the things we are doing.’ 10And I won’t show any mercy. I won’t feel sorry for these people. They brought it on themselves—I am only giving these people the punishment they deserve!”

11Then the man wearing linen clothes and a scribe’s pen and ink set* spoke up. He said, “I have done what you commanded.”

10Then I looked up at the bowl* over the heads of the Cherub angels.* The bowl looked clear blue like sapphire. And there was something that looked like a throne over the bowl. 2Then the person sitting on the throne said to the man dressed in linen clothes,* “Step into the area between the wheels* under the Cherub angels. Take a handful of the burning coals from between the Cherub angels and go throw them over the city of Jerusalem.”

The man walked past me. 3The Cherub angels* were standing in the area south* of the temple as the man walked to them. The cloud filled the inner courtyard. 4Then the Glory of the Lord rose up off of the Cherub angels near the threshold of the door of the temple. Then the cloud filled the temple. And the bright light from the Glory of the Lord filled the whole courtyard. 5The noise from the wings of the Cherub angels could be heard all the way out in the outer courtyard. The sound was very loud—like the thundering voice when God All-Powerful speaks.

6

God had given the man dressed in linen clothes a command. 7God had told him to go into the area between the wheels* among the Cherub angels* and get some hot coals. So the man went there and stood by the wheel. 8One of the Cherub angels reached out his hand and took some of the hot coals from the area between the Cherub angels. He poured the coals into the man’s hands. And the man left.

(8The Cherub angels had what looked like human arms under their wings.)

9Then I noticed that there were four wheels. There was one wheel by each Cherub angel.* And the wheels looked like a clear yellow jewel. 10There were four wheels and they all looked the same. They looked like there was a wheel in a wheel. 11They could go in any direction when they moved. But the Cherub angels did not turn around when they moved. They went in the direction that the head was looking. They did not turn around when they moved. 12There were eyes all over their bodies. There were eyes on their backs, on their arms, on their wings, and on their wheels. Yes, there were eyes on all four wheels! 13These wheels were what I heard called, “the area between the wheels.”

14–15Each Cherub angel* had four faces. The first face was a Cherub’s face.* The second face was a man’s face. The third face was a lion’s face. And the fourth face was an eagle’s face. Then I realized that the animals I saw in the vision by the Kebar Canal* were Cherub angels!

Then the Cherub angels* rose into the air. 16And the wheels rose with them. When the Cherub angels raised their wings and flew into the air, not even the wheels turned around. 17If the Cherub angels flew into the air, the wheels went with them. If the Cherub angels stood still, so did the wheels. Why? Because the wind* (power) of the animal was in them.

18Then the Glory of the Lord rose from the threshold of the temple, moved to the place over the Cherub angels* and stopped there. 19Then the Cherub angels raised their wings and flew into the air. I saw them leave the temple! The wheels went with them. Then they stopped at the East Gate of the Lord’s temple. The Glory of the God of Israel was in the air above them.

20Then I remembered the animals under the Glory of the God of Israel in the vision at the Kebar Canal. And I realized those animals were Cherub angels.* 21[I mean, each animal had four faces, four wings, and something that looked like human arms under their wings. 22The faces of the Cherub angels were the same as the four faces on the animals in the vision by the Kebar Canal. And they all looked straight ahead in the direction they were going.]

Then the wind* carried me to the East Gate of the Lord’s temple. This gate faces the east, where the sun comes up. I saw 25 men there at the entrance of this gate. Jaazaniah son of Azzur was with those men. And Pelatiah son of Benaiah was there. Pelatiah was the leader of the people.

area between the wheels* The Hebrew word can mean, “chariot wheel,” “whirling (spinning) wheel,” or “tumbleweed.” See chapter 1 for Ezekiel’s full description.

Cherub angels* Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

south* Literally, “right.”

Cherub’s face This is the bull’s face mentioned in Ez. 1:10. See Ez. 10:22.

vision by the Kebar Canal See Ez. 1.

wind* Or, “Spirit.”
2Then God spoke to me. He said, “Son of man, these are the men who make evil plans for this city. These men always tell the people to do bad things. 3These men say, ‘We will be building our houses again very soon. We are as safe in this city as meat in a pot!’ 4They are telling these lies. So you must speak to the people for me. Son of man, go prophesy to the people.”

3Then the Spirit of the Lord came on me. He said to me, “Tell them that the Lord said these things: House of Israel, you are planning big things. But I know what you are thinking! 6You have killed many people in this city. You have filled the streets with dead bodies. 7Now, the Lord our Master says these things, ‘Those dead bodies are the meat. And the city is the pot. But he (Nebuchadnezzar) will come and take you out of this safe pot!’ 8You are afraid of the sword. But I am bringing the sword against you!” The Lord our Master said these things.

9God also said, “I will take you people out of this city. And I will give you to strangers. I will punish you! 10You will die by the sword. I will punish you here in Israel, so you will know that I am the One punishing you. I am the Lord. 11Yes, this place will be the cooking pot. And you will be the meat cooking in it! I will punish you here in Israel. 12Then you will know that I am the Lord. It was my law that you broke! You did not obey my commands. You decided to live like the nations around you.”

13As soon as I finished speaking for God, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died! I fell to the ground. I bowed with my face touching the ground and said, “Oh, Lord my Master, you are going to completely destroy all the survivors of Israel!”

14But then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, 15“Son of man, remember your brothers, the family of Israel. They were forced to leave their country, but I will bring them back!* But now, the people living in Jerusalem are saying, ‘Stay far away from the Lord. This land was given to us—it is ours!’ 16“So tell those people these things: The Lord our Master says, ‘It is true, I forced my people to go far away to other nations. I did scatter them among many countries. But I will be their temple for a short time while they are in those other countries. 17But you must tell those people that the Lord their Master will bring them back. I have scattered you among many nations. But I will gather you together and bring you back from those nations. I will give the land of Israel back to you! 18And when my people come back, they will destroy all the terrible, filthy idols that are here now. 19I will bring them together and make them like one person. I will put a new spirit in them. I will take away that heart of stone, and I will put a real heart in its place. 20Then they will obey my laws. They will obey my commands. They will do the things I tell them. They will truly be my people, and I will be their God.”

21Then God said, “But now, their hearts belong to those terrible, filthy idols. And I must punish those people for the bad things they did.” The Lord my Master said those things. 22And then the Cherub angels raised their wings and flew into the air. The wheels went with them. And the Glory of the God of Israel was above them. 23The Glory of the Lord rose into the air and left Jerusalem. He stopped on the hill east of Jerusalem. 24Then the wind lifted me into the air and brought me back to Babylonia. I saw all of those things in the vision of God. Then the One I saw rose into the air and left me. 25Then I spoke to the people in exile. I told them about all the things the Lord showed me.

12Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, 2“Son of man,* you live among rebellious people—they always turn against me. They have eyes to see the things I have

Son of man  This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.
They were ... them back!  This is a word play. The word meaning, “redeemed” sounds like the word meaning, “exiled.”
spirit  Or, “Spirit.”
Cherub angels  Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.
hill east of Jerusalem  This is the Mount of Olives.
winds  Or, “Spirit.”
done for them. But they don’t see those things. They have ears to hear, the things I told them to do, But they don’t hear my commands. Why? Because they are a rebellious people. So, Son of man, pack your bags. Act like you are going to a faraway country. Do this so the people can see you. Maybe they will see you—but they are a very rebellious people.

4“During the day, take your bags outside so the people can see you. Then in the evening, act like you are going away like a prisoner to a faraway country. While the people are watching, make a hole in the wall and go out through that hole in the wall. At night, put your bag on your shoulder and leave. Cover your face so you can’t see where you are going. You must do these things so the people can see you. Why? Because I am using you as an example to the family of Israel.”

5So I (Ezekiel) did as I was commanded. During the day, I took my bags and acted like I was going to a faraway country. That evening I used my hands and made a hole in the wall. During the night I put my bag on my shoulder and left. I did this so all the people could see me.

6The next morning, the word of the Lord came to me. He said, “Son of man, did those rebellious people of Israel ask you what you were doing? Tell them that the Lord their Master said these things. This sad message is about the leader of Jerusalem and all the people of Israel living there. Tell them, ‘I (Ezekiel) am an example for all you people. The things I have done will really happen to you.’ You really will be forced to go to a faraway country as prisoners. Your leader will make a hole in the wall and sneak out at night. He will cover his face so people won’t recognize him. His eyes won’t be able to see where he is going. He will try to escape, But I (God) will catch him! He will be caught in my trap. And I will bring him to Babylonia—the land of the Chaldean people. But he will not be able to see where he is going. The enemy will poke out his eyes and make him blind. I will force the king’s people to live in the foreign countries around Israel. And I will scatter his army to the winds. And the enemy soldiers will chase after them. Then those people will know that I am the Lord. They will know that I scattered them among the nations. They will know that I forced them to go to other countries.

7But I will let a few of the people live. They won’t die from the disease, hunger, and war. I will let those people live so they can tell other people about the terrible things they did against me. And then they will know that I am the Lord.”

8Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, “Son of man, you must act like you are very scared. You must shake when you eat your food. You must act worried and afraid when you drink your water. You must tell these things to the common people. You must say, ‘The Lord our Master says these things to the people living in Jerusalem and in the other parts of Israel. You people will be very worried while you eat your food. You will be terrified while you drink your water. Why? Because all the things in your country will be destroyed! The enemy will be very cruel to all the people living there. Many people live in your cities now—but those cities will be ruined. Your whole country will be destroyed! Then you will know that I am the Lord.’”

9Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, “Son of man, why do people say this poem about the land of Israel:

Trouble won’t come soon, the visions won’t happen.

10Tell those people that the Lord their Master will stop that poem. They won’t say those things about Israel any more. Now they will say this poem:

Trouble will come soon, the visions will happen.

11Tell those people that the Lord their Master will stop that poem. They won’t say those things about Israel any more. Now they will say this poem:

Trouble will come soon, the visions will happen.

12It is true, there won’t be any more false visions in Israel. There won’t be any more magicians telling things that don’t come true. Why? Because I am the Lord. And I will say what I want to say, and that thing will happen! And I won’t let the time stretch out. Those troubles are coming soon—in your own lifetime. You rebellious people, when I say something, I make it happen.” The Lord my Master said those things.

Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, “Son of man,* the people of Israel think that the visions I give you are for a time far in the future. They think you are talking about things that will happen many, many years from now. So you must tell them these things, ‘The Lord my Master says: I won’t delay any longer. If I say something will happen, then it will happen!’” The Lord my Master said those things.

Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, “Son of man,* you must speak to the prophets of Israel for me. Those prophets are not really speaking for me. Those prophets are saying things they want to say. So you must speak to them. Tell them these things, ‘Listen to this message from the Lord!’ The Lord my Master says these things. Bad things will happen to you foolish prophets. You are following your own spirits. You are not telling people what you really see in visions.

‘Israel, your prophets will be like foxes running through empty, destroyed buildings. You have not put soldiers near the broken walls of the city. You have not built walls to protect the family of Israel. So when the day comes for the Lord to punish you, you will lose the war! False prophets said they saw visions. They did their magic and said things would happen—but they lied. They said the Lord sent them—but they lied. They are still waiting for their lies to come true.

False prophets, the visions you saw were not true. You did your magic and said things would happen. But you lied! You said that the Lord said those things. But I did not speak to you!”

So now, the Lord my Master really will speak! He says, “You told lies. You saw visions that were not true. So now I (God) am against you!” The Lord my Master said these things. The Lord says, “I will punish the prophets that saw false visions and told lies. I will remove them from my people. Their names won’t be in the list of the family of Israel. They will never again come to the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord and Master!”

“Again and again those false prophets lied to my people. The prophets said there would be peace. And there is no peace. The people need to fix the walls and prepare for war. But they only slap a thin coat of plaster* over the broken walls. Tell those men that I will send hail and a strong rain (enemy army). The wind will blow hard and a tornado will come. Then the wall will fall down. The wall will fall down. And the people will ask the prophets, ‘What happened to the plaster you put on the wall?’” The Lord my Master says, “I am angry and I will send a storm against you. I am angry and I will send a strong rain. I am angry and I will make hail fall from the sky and completely destroy you!

You put plaster on the wall. But I will destroy the whole wall. I will pull it to the ground. The wall will fall on you. And then you will know that I am the Lord. I will finish showing my anger against the wall and the people that put plaster on it. Then I will say, ‘There is no wall. And there are no workers to put plaster on it.’

All those things will happen to the false prophets of Israel. Those prophets speak to the people of Jerusalem. Those prophets say there will be peace, but there is no peace.” The Lord my Master said those things.

God said, “Son of man,* look at the women prophets in Israel. Those women prophets don’t speak for me. They say the things they want to say. So you must speak against them for me. You must say these things to them. The Lord my Master says these things: Bad things will happen to you women. You sew cloth bracelets for people to wear on their arms. You make special scarves plaster A type of cement people put on stone walls to make them smooth and waterproof. This is also a word play. The Hebrew word is like the word meaning, “It will fall.”

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.

for people to wear on their heads. You say those things have magic powers to control people’s lives. You trap those people only to keep yourselves alive! You make the people think I am not important. You turn them against me for a few handfuls of barley and a few scraps of bread. You tell lies to my people. Those people love to listen to lies. You kill people that should live. And you let people live that should die. 19You make the people think I am not important. You turn them against me for a few handfuls of barley and a few scraps of bread. You tell lies to my people. Those people love to listen to lies. You kill people that should live. And you let people live that should die. 20So the Lord and Master says these things to you: You make those cloth bracelets to trap people—but I will set those people free. I will tear those bracelets off your arms, and the people will be free from you. They will be like birds flying from a trap! 21And I will tear up those scarves, and save my people from your power. Those people will escape from your trap. And you will know that I am the Lord.

22“'You prophets tell lies. Your lies hurt good people—I did not want to hurt those good people! You support bad people and encourage them. You don’t tell them to change their lives. You don’t try to save their lives! 23So you won’t see any more useless visions. You won’t do any more magic. I will save my people from your power. And you will know that I am the Lord.’”

14 Some of the elders of Israel came to me. They sat down to talk with me. The word of the Lord came to me. He said, 2Son of man,* these men came to talk to you. They wanted you to ask me for advice. But these men still have their filthy idols. They kept the things that made them sin. They still worship those statues. So why do they come to me for advice? Should I answer their questions? No! 4But I will give them an answer. I will punish them! You must tell those people these things. The Lord my Master says: If any Israelite comes to a prophet and asks me for advice, then the prophet won’t give that person an answer. I will answer him even if he still has his filthy idols, even if he kept the things that made him sin and even if he worships those statues. And this is the answer I will give him: 8I will turn against that person. I will destroy him. He will be an example to other people. People will laugh at him. I will remove him from my people. Then you will know that I am the Lord! 9And if a prophet is foolish enough to give his own answer, then I will show him how foolish he is! I will use my power against him. I will destroy him and remove him from among my people, Israel. 10So, both the person that came for advice and the prophet that gave an answer will get the same punishment. 11Why? So those prophets will stop leading my people away from me. And so my people will stop becoming filthy with their sins. Then they will be my special people. And I will be their God.”’ The Lord my Master said those things.

12Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, 13“Son of man,* I will punish any nation that leaves me and sins against me. I will stop their food supply. I might cause a time of hunger and remove the people and animals from that country. 14I would punish that country even if Noah, Danel, and Job* lived there. Those men could save their own lives by their goodness, but they could not save the whole country.” The Lord my Master said these things.

15God said,” Or, I might send wild animals through that country. And those

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.

Noah, Danel, and Job Three men from ancient times. They were famous for being very good and wise men. Stories about Noah and Job are in the Bible. Stories about Danel are in writings from Ras Shamra.
Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, 2°Son of man,* are the pieces of wood from a grapevine* any better than the little branches cut from trees in the forest? No! 3°Can you use that wood from a grapevine to make anything? No! Can you use that wood to make pegs to hang dishes on? No! 4°People only throw that wood into the fire. Some sticks begin to burn on the ends, the middles turn black from the fire, but the sticks don’t burn completely. Can you make anything from that burnt stick? 5°If you can’t make anything from that wood before it is burned, then you surely can’t make anything from that wood after it is burned! 6°So the pieces of wood from a grapevine are just like pieces of wood from trees in the forest. People throw those pieces of wood into the fire. And the fire burns them. In the same way, I will throw the people living in Jerusalem into the fire!” The Lord my Master said these things. 7°I will punish those people. But some of those people will be like the sticks that don’t burn completely—they will be punished, but they won’t be destroyed completely. You will see that I punished these people, and you will know that I am the Lord! 8°I will destroy that country because the people left me°to worship false gods°.” The Lord my Master said those things.

Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, 2°Son of man,* tell the people of Jerusalem about the terrible things they have done. 3°You must say, ‘The Lord my Master says these things to Jerusalem: Look at your history. You were born in Canaan. Your father was an Amorite. Your mother was a Hittite. 4°Jerusalem,° on the day you were born, there was no one to cut your naval cord. No one put salt on you and washed you to make you clean. No one wrapped you in cloth. 5°Jerusalem, you were all alone.° No one felt sorry for you or took care of you.° Jerusalem,° on the day you were born, your parents threw you out in the field. You were still covered with the blood and afterbirth.

Son of man °This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.

grapevine °Many times the prophets said Israel was God’s vineyard or grapevine.
6"Then I (God) passed by. I saw you lying there, kicking in the blood. You were covered with blood but I said, 'Please live!' Yes, you were covered with blood but I said, 'Please live!' I helped you grow like a plant in the field. You grew and grew. You became a young woman: your periods began, your breasts grew, your hair began to grow. But you were still bare and naked. I looked you over. I saw you were ready for love. So I spread my clothes over you* and covered your nakedness. I promised to marry you. I made the agreement* with you. And you became mine.' The Lord my Master said these things.

9"I washed you in water. I washed away your blood. And I rubbed oil on your skin. I gave you a nice dress and soft leather shoes. I gave you a linen headband and a silk scarf. Then I gave you some jewelry. I put bracelets on your arms and a necklace around your neck. I gave you a nose ring, some earrings, and a beautiful crown to wear. You were beautiful in your silver and gold jewelry, and your linen, silk, and embroidered material. You ate the best foods. You were very, very beautiful. And you became the queen! You became famous for your beauty. And all because I made you so lovely!' The Lord my Master said these things.

15 God said, "But you began to trust in your beauty. You used the good name you had and became unfaithful to me. You acted like a prostitute* with every man that passed by. You gave yourself to them all! You took your beautiful clothes and used them to decorate your places of worship. And you acted like a prostitute in those places. You gave yourself to every man that came by! Then you took your beautiful jewelry that I gave you. And you used that gold and silver to make statues of men. And you had sex with them too! Then you took the beautiful cloth and made clothes for those statues. You took the perfume and incense I gave you, and you put it in front of those idols. I gave you bread, honey, and oil. But you gave that food to your idols. You offered them as a sweet smell to please your false gods. You acted like a prostitute with those false gods!" The Lord my Master said these things.

20 God said, "You and I had children together. But you took our children. You killed them and gave them to those false gods! But that is only some of the bad things you did when you cheated on me and went to those false gods. You slaughtered* my sons and then passed them through the fire to those false gods. You left me and did all those terrible things. And you never remembered the time when you were young. You did not remember that you were naked and kicking in blood when I found you.

23 "After all those bad things, ... Oh Jerusalem, it will be very bad for you!" The Lord my Master said all these things. 24 "After all those things you made that mound for worshipping that false god. You built those places for worshiping false gods on every street corner. You built your mounds at the head of every road. Then you degraded your beauty. You used it to catch every man that walked by. You raised your skirt so they could see your legs, and then you were like a prostitute* with those men. Then you went to Egypt, your neighbor with the big sex organ. You had sex with him many times to make me angry. So I punished you! I took away part of your allowance (land). I let your enemies, the daughters (cities) of the Philistines do what they wanted to you. Even they were shocked at the bad things you did. Then you went to have sex with Assyria.* You could not get enough. You were never satisfied. So you turned to Canaan, and then to Babylonia. And still you were not satisfied.

spread my clothes over you This showed that he was agreeing to protect her and care for her. See Ruth 3:1–15.
agreement Here this means the marriage agreement. But it also refers to the Agreement God made with the people of Israel.
Verses 10–13 All the materials in this list are the things used in building the Holy Tent. See Ex. 25–40.
prostitute A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stops following him.
slaughtered Usually, this word means to kill an animal and cut it into pieces for meat. But it often means to kill people like they are animals.
Assyria This was a powerful nation northeast of Israel.
EZEKIEL 16:30–51

30 You are so weak. You let all those men (countries) cause you to sin. You acted just like a domineering prostitute.* The Lord my Master said those things.

31 God said,* “But you were not exactly like a prostitute.* You built your mounds at the head of every road and you built your places of worship at every street corner. You had sex with all those men. But you did not ask them to pay you like a prostitute does. 32 You adulterous woman. You prefer having sex with strangers rather than your own husband. 33 Most prostitutes force men to pay them for sex. But you gave money to your many lovers. You paid all the men around to come in to have sex with you. 34 You are just the opposite of most prostitutes. Most prostitutes force men to pay them. But you pay the men to have sex with you.”

35 Prostitute,* listen to the message from the Lord. 36 The Lord my Master says these things: “You have spent your money* and let your lovers and filthy gods see your naked body and have sex with you. You have killed your children and poured out their blood. This was your gift to those false gods. 37 So I am bringing all of your lovers together. I will bring all the men you loved and all the men you hated. I will bring them all together and let them see you naked.* They will see you completely naked. 38 Then I will punish you. I will punish you as a murderer and a woman that did the sin of adultery. You will be punished as if by an angry and jealous husband. 39 I will let those lovers have you. They will destroy your mounds. They will burn your places of worship. They will tear off your clothes and take your beautiful jewelry. They will leave you bare and naked* like you were when I found you. 40 They will bring a crowd of people and throw rocks at you to kill you. Then they will cut you in pieces with their swords. 41 They will burn your house (temple). They will punish you so all the other women can see. I will stop you from living like a prostitute. I will stop you from paying money to your lovers. 42 Then I will stop being angry and jealous. I will calm down. I won’t be angry any more. 43 Why will all these things happen? Because you did not remember what happened when you were young. You did all those bad things and made me angry. So I had to punish you for doing those bad things. But you planned even more terrible things.” The Lord my Master said those things.

44 “All the people that talk about you will now have one more thing to say. They will say, ‘Like mother, like daughter.’ 45 You are your mother’s daughter. You don’t care about your husband or your children. You are just like your sister. Both of you hated your husband and your children. 46 Your older sister was Samaria. She lived to the north of you with her daughters (towns). And your younger sister was Sodom.* She lived to the south of you with her daughters (towns). 47 You did all the terrible things they did. But you also did things that were even worse! 48 I am the Lord and Master. I am alive. And by my life I promise, your sister Sodom and her daughters never did as many bad things as you and your daughters.”

49 God said,* “Your sister Sodom and her daughters were proud, they had too much to eat, and too much time on their hands. And they did not help poor, helpless people. 50 Sodom and her daughters became too proud and began to do terrible things in front of me. And when I saw them doing those things, I punished them.”

51 God said,* “And Samaria did only half as many bad things as you did. You did many more terrible things than Samaria! You have done so many more terrible things than your prostitute A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stops following him.

spent your money Literally, “poured out your copper.” This might also mean, “you have done the things that stain you with sin.”

let them see you naked The Hebrew words are like the words meaning, “to be carried away as a prisoner to a foreign country.”

Samaria ... Sodom Ezekiel is saying that the people in Judah are just as evil as the people that lived in Samaria and Sodom—and those people were so evil that God completely destroyed those cities.
sisters. Sodom and Samaria seem good compared to you. So you must bear your shame. You have made your sisters look good compared to you. You have done terrible things, so you should be ashamed.”

53 God said, “I destroyed Sodom and the towns around it. And I destroyed Samaria around it. And Jerusalem, I will destroy you. But I will build those cities again. And Jerusalem, I will build you again too. I will comfort you. Then you will remember the terrible things you did, and you will be ashamed. So you and your sisters will be built again. Sodom and the towns around her, Samaria and the towns around her, and you and the towns around you will all be built again.”

56 God said, “In the past, you were proud and made fun of your sister Sodom. But you won’t do that again. You did that before you were punished, before your neighbors started making fun of you. The daughters (towns) of Edom* and Philistia are making fun of you now. Now you must suffer for the terrible things you did.” The Lord said these things.

59 The Lord my Master said these things. “I will treat you like you treated me! You broke your marriage promise. You did not respect our Agreement. But I will remember the agreement we made when you were young. I made an agreement with you that will continue forever! I will bring your sisters to you, and I will make them your daughters. That was not in our agreement, but I will do that for you. Then you will remember the terrible things you did, and you will be ashamed. So I will make my agreement with you. And you will know that I am the Lord. I will be good to you, so you will remember me, and you will be so ashamed of the bad things you did that you will not be able to say anything. But I will make you pure, and you will never be ashamed again!” The Lord my Master said those things.

17 Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, “Son of man,* tell this story to the family of Israel. Ask them what it means. Say to them:

A large eagle (Nebuchadnezzar) with big wings came to Lebanon.
The eagle had feathers covered with spots.
4 The eagle broke the top out of the big cedar tree (Lebanon) and brought it to Canaan.
The eagle set down the branch in the town of businessmen.
5 Then the eagle took some of the seeds (people) from Canaan
He planted them in good soil.
He planted them by a good river.
6 The seeds grew and became a grapevine.
It was a good vine.
The vine was not tall, but it spread to cover a large area.
The vine grew stems, and smaller vines grew very long.
7 Then another eagle with big wings saw the grapevine.
The eagle had many feathers.
The grapevine wanted this new eagle to care for it.
So it made its roots grow toward this eagle.
Its branches stretched toward this eagle.
The branches grew away from the field that it was planted in.
The grapevine wanted the new eagle to water it.
8 The grapevine was planted in a good field.
It was planted near plenty of water.
It could have grown branches and fruit.
It could have become a very good grapevine.”
9 The Lord my Master said these things.
“Do you think that plant will succeed?
No! The new eagle will pull the plant from the ground.
And the bird will break the plant’s roots.
It will eat up all the grapes.
Then the new leaves will wilt.
That plant will be very weak.
It won’t take strong arms or a powerful nation to pull that plant up by the roots.
10 Will the plant grow where it is planted?
No! The hot east wind will blow and the plant will become dry and die.
It will die there where it was planted.”

Edom Or, “Aram.”
Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.
11The word of the Lord came to me. He said, 12"Explain this story to the people of Israel—they always turn against me. Tell them these things: The first eagle is Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. He came to Jerusalem and took away the king and other leaders. He brought them to Babylonia. 13Then Nebuchadnezzar made an agreement with a man from the king’s family. Nebuchadnezzar forced that man to make a promise. So this man promised to be loyal to Nebuchadnezzar. Nebuchadnezzar made this man the new king of Judah. Then he took all the powerful men away from Judah. 14So Judah became a weak kingdom that could not turn against King Nebuchadnezzar. The people were forced to keep the agreement Nebuchadnezzar made with the new king of Judah. 15But this new king tried to rebel against Nebuchadnezzar anyway! He sent messengers to Egypt to ask for help. The new king asked for many horses and soldiers. Now, do you think the new king of Judah will succeed? Do you think the new king will have enough power to break the agreement and escape punishment?"

16The Lord my Master says, “By my life, I promise this new king will die in Babylonia! Nebuchadnezzar made this man the new king of Judah. But this man broke his promise with Nebuchadnezzar. This new king ignored that agreement. 17And the king of Egypt won’t be able to save the king of Judah. He might send many soldiers, but Egypt’s great power won’t save Judah. Nebuchadnezzar’s army will build dirt roads and dirt walls to capture the city. Many people will die. 18But the king of Judah won’t escape. Why? Because he ignored his agreement. He broke his promise to Nebuchadnezzar. 19The Lord my Master makes this promise: “By my life, I swear that I will punish the king of Judah. Why? Because he ignored my warnings. He broke our agreement. 20I will set my trap, and he will be caught in it. And I will bring him to Babylon and I will punish him in that place. I will punish him because he turned against me. 21And I will destroy his army. I will destroy his best soldiers. And I will scatter the survivors to the winds. Then you will know that I am the Lord and that I told you these things.”

22The Lord my Master said these things:
   “I will take a branch from a tall cedar tree.
   I will take a small branch from the top of the tree.
   And I myself will plant it on a very high mountain.

23I myself will plant it on a high mountain in Israel.
   That branch will grow into a tree.
   It will grow branches and make fruit.
   It will become a beautiful cedar tree.
   Many birds will sit on its branches.
   Many birds will live in the shadows under its branches.

24 “Then the other trees will know that I make tall trees fall to the ground, and I make small trees grow tall. I make green trees become dry, and I make dry trees become green. I am the Lord.
   If I say that I will do something, then I will do it!”

18The word of the Lord came to me. He said, 2“You people keep repeating this proverb. Why? You say:
   The parents ate the sour grapes, but the children got the sour taste.
   You think you can sin, and some person in the future will be punished for it. 3But the Lord my Master says, “By my life, I promise that people in Israel won’t think this proverb is true anymore! 4I will treat each person just the same. It won’t matter if that person is the parent or the child. The person that sins is the person that will die!

5“If a person is good, then he will live! That good person treats people fairly. 6That good person does not go to the mountains and share in foods offered to false gods. He does not pray to those filthy idols in Israel. He does not do the sin of adultery with his neighbor’s wife. He does not have sex with his wife during her period. 7That good person does not take advantage of people. If a person borrows money from him, the good man takes the collateral* and gives the other person the money. And when that person pays him back, then the good man gives the collateral back. The good person gives food to hungry people. And he gives clothes to people that need them. 8If a person wants to borrow money, the good man lends him the money. And he does not charge interest on that loan. The good man refuses to be crooked. He is always fair with every person. People can trust him. 9He obeys my laws. He thinks about my decisions and learns to be fair and dependable. He is a good person, so he will live.

10“But that good person might have a son that does not do any of those good things. The son might steal things and kill people. 11The son might do any of these bad things. He might go to the mountains and share in foods offered to false gods. That evil son might do the sin of adultery with his neighbor’s wife. 12He might mistreat poor, helpless people. He might take advantage of people. He might not give back the collateral* when a person pays his debt. That evil son might pray to those filthy idols and do other terrible things. 13A person might need to borrow money from that evil son. The son might lend him the money, but he will force that person to pay interest on that loan. So that evil son won’t live. He did terrible things, so he will be put to death. And he is responsible for his own death.

14“Now, that evil son might also have a son. But this son might see the bad things his father did, and he might refuse to live like his father. That good son treats people fairly. 15That good son does not go to the mountains and share in foods offered to false gods. He does not pray to those filthy idols in Israel. He does not do the sin of adultery with his neighbor’s wife. 16That good son does not take advantage of people. If a person borrows money from him, the good son takes the collateral* and gives the other person the money. And when that person pays him back, then the good son gives the collateral back. The good son gives food to hungry people. And he gives clothes to people that need them. 17He helps poor people. If a person wants to borrow money, the good son lends him the money. And he does not charge interest on that loan! The good son obeys my laws and follows my laws. That good son will not be put to death for his father’s sins! That good son will live. 18The father might hurt people and steal things. He might never do anything good for my people! That father will die because of his own sins. But the son won’t be punished for his father’s sins.

19“You might ask, ‘Why won’t the son be punished for his father’s sins?’ The reason is that the son was fair and did good things! He very carefully obeyed my laws! So he will live. 20The person that sins is the person that will be put to death! A son won’t be punished for his father’s sins. And a father won’t be punished for his son’s sins. A good man’s goodness belongs to him alone. And a bad man’s evil belongs to him alone.

21“Now, if a bad person changes his life then he will live and not die. That person might stop doing all the bad things he did. He might begin to carefully obey all my laws. He might become fair and good. 22God won’t remember all the bad things he did. God will remember only his goodness! So that man will live!”

23The Lord my Master says, “I don’t want bad people to die. I want them to change their lives so they can live!

24“Now, maybe a good man might stop being good. He might change his life and begin to do all the terrible things that bad person had done in the past. (That bad person changed, so he can live!) So if that good person changes and becomes bad, then God won’t remember all the good things that person did. God will remember that that man turned against him and began to sin. So that man will die because of his sin.”

25God said, “You people might say, ‘God, my Master isn’t fair!’ But listen, family of Israel. I am fair. You are the ones who are not fair! 26If a good person changes and becomes evil, then he must die for the bad things he does.
And if a bad man changes and become good and fair, then he will save his life. He will live! That person saw how bad he was and came back to me. He stopped doing the bad things he did in the past. So he will live! He won’t die!”

The people of Israel said, “That’s not fair! I am fair! You are the ones who are not fair! Why? Because family of Israel, I will judge each person only for the things that person does!” The Lord my Master said these things. “So come back to me! Stop doing bad things! Don’t let those terrible things (idols) cause you to sin! Change your heart and spirit! Why should you bring death to yourselves, people of Israel? I don’t want to kill you! Please come back and live!” The Lord my Master said those things.

27 God said to me, “You must sing this sad song about the leaders of Israel.

28 Your mother is like a female lion lying there with the male lions. She went to lie down with the young male lions, and had many babies.

3 One of her cubs gets up. He has grown to be a strong young lion. He has learned to catch his food. He killed and ate a man.

4 The people heard him roar. And they caught him in their trap! They put hooks in his mouth, and carried the young lion to Egypt.

5 The mother lion had hoped that cub would become the leader. But now she lost all hope. So she took another of her cubs. She trained him to be a lion.

6 He went on hunts with the adult lions. He became a strong young lion. He learned to catch his food. He killed and ate a man.

7 He attacked the palaces. He destroyed the cities. Every one in that country was too scared to speak when they heard his growl.

8 Then the people living around him set a trap for him. And they caught him in their trap.

9 They put hooks on him and locked him up. They had him in their trap. So they took him to the king of Babylon. And now, you can’t hear his roar on the mountains of Israel.

10 Your mother is like a grapevine planted near the water. She had plenty of water, so she grew many strong vines.

11 Then she grew large branches. They were like a strong walking stick. They were like a king’s scepter.* The vine grew taller and taller. It had many branches and reached to the clouds.

12 But the vine was pulled up by the roots, and thrown down to the ground. The hot east wind blew and dried its fruit. The strong branches broke. And they were thrown into the fire.

13 Now that grapevine is planted in the desert. It is a very dry and thirsty land.

14 A fire started in the large branch and spread to destroy all of its vines and fruit. So there was no strong walking stick. There was no king’s scepter.”*

This was a sad song about death, and it was sung as a sad song about death.”

20 One day, some of the elders (leaders) of Israel came to me to ask the Lord for advice. This was on the tenth day of the fifth month (August), of the seventh year (of exile).* The elders (leaders) sat down in front of me.

2 Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, “Son of man, speak to the elders (leaders) of Israel. Tell them ‘The Lord my Master says these things: Have you men come to ask me advice? If you have, then I won’t give it to you. The Lord my Master said these things. 4 Should you judge them? Will you judge them, Son of man? You must tell them about the terrible things their fathers have done. 5 You must tell them, ‘The Lord my Master says these things: On the day I chose Israel, I raised my hand to Jacob’s family and made a promise to them in Egypt. I raised my hand and said: “I am the Lord your God. 6 On that day, I promised to take you out of Egypt and lead you to the land I was giving to you. That was a good land filled with many good things. It was the most beautiful of all countries! 7 “I told the family of Israel to throw away their horrible idols. I told them not to become filthy with those filthy statues from Egypt. I am the Lord your God.” 8 But they turned against me and refused to listen to me. They did not throw away their horrible idols. They did not leave their filthy statues in Egypt. So I (God) decided to destroy them in Egypt—to let them feel the full force of my anger. 9 But I did not destroy them. I had already told the people where they were living that I would bring my people out of Egypt. I did not want to ruin my good name, so I did not destroy Israel in front of those other people. 10 I brought the family of Israel out of Egypt. I led them into the desert. 11 Then I gave them my laws. I told them all my rules. If a person obeys those rules, then he will live. 12 I also told them about all the special days of rest. Those holidays were a special sign between me and them. They showed that I am the Lord and that I was making them special to me. 13 “But the family of Israel turned against me in the desert. They did not follow my laws. They did not keep my commands. They did not obey my rules. They treated my special days of rest like they were not important. And they worshiped the filthy idols of their fathers. 14 So I gave them laws that were not good. I gave them commands that would not bring life. 15 I let them make themselves filthy with their gifts. They even began to sacrifice their own firstborn Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel. a good land ... good things Literally, “a land flowing with milk and honey.” children. In this way, I would destroy those people. Then they would know that I am the Lord.' 27So now, Son of man,* speak to the family of Israel. Tell them, 'The Lord my Master says these things: The people of Israel said bad things about me and made evil plans against me. 28But I still brought them to the land I promised to give to them. They saw all the hills and green trees, so they went to all those places to worship. They took their sacrifices and anger offerings* to all those places. They offered their sacrifices that made a sweet smell and they offered their drink offerings at those places. 29I asked the people of Israel why they were going to those high places.* But that high place is still there today.*'

30God said, "The people of Israel did all those bad things. So speak to the family of Israel. Tell them, 'The Lord my Master says these things: You people have made yourselves filthy by doing the things your ancestors* did. You have acted like a prostitute.* You have left me to be with the horrible gods your ancestors worshiped. 31You are giving the same kind of gifts. You are putting your children in the fire as a gift to your false gods. You are still making yourself filthy with those filthy idols today! Do you really think that I should let you come to me and ask me for advice? I am the Lord and Master. By my life I promise, I won't answer your questions and give you advice! 32You keep saying you want to be like the other nations. You live like the people in other nations. You serve pieces of wood and stone (idols)!'"

33The Lord my Master says, "By my life, I promise that I will rule over you as king. But I will raise my powerful arm and punish you. I will show my anger against you! 34I will bring you out of these other nations. I scattered you among these nations. But I will gather you together and bring you back from these countries. But I will raise my powerful arm and punish you. I will show my anger against you! 35I will lead you into a desert, like I did before. But this will be a place where other nations live. We will stand face to face and I will judge you. 36I will judge you just like I judged your ancestors* in the desert near Egypt.” The Lord my Master said these things.

37“I will judge you guilty and punish you according to the Agreement.* 38I will remove all the people that turned against me and sinned against me. I will remove those people from your homeland. They will never again come to the Land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord.”

39Now, family of Israel, the Lord my Master says these things, “If any person wants to worship his filthy idols, then let him go and worship them. But later, don’t think you will get any advice from me! You will not ruin my name any more! Not when you continue to give your gifts to your filthy idols.”

40The Lord my Master says, “People must come to my holy mountain—the high mountain in Israel—to serve me! The whole family of Israel will be on their land—they will be there in their country. That is the place you can come to ask me for advice. And you must come to that place to bring me your offerings. You must bring the first part of your crops to me there in that place. You must bring all your holy gifts to me in that place. 41Then I will be pleased with the sweet smell of your sacrifices. That will happen when I bring you back. I scattered you among many nations. But I will gather you together and make you my special people again. And all those nations will see it. 42Then you will know that I am the Lord. You will know this when I bring you back to the Land of Israel. That is the land I promised to give to your ancestors.* 43In that country you will anger offerings  The people called these meals “fellowship offerings,” but Ezekiel is making fun and saying that those meals only made God angry.

Son of man  This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.

high places  Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

But that … today  Literally, “And its name is still called Bamah (high place) to this day.

ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

prostitute  A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stops following him.

Agreement  Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.
remember all the bad things you did that made you filthy. And you will be ashamed. 44 Family of Israel, you did many bad things. And you should be destroyed because of those bad things. But to protect my good name, I won’t give you the punishment you really deserve. Then you will know that I am the Lord.” The Lord my Master said these things.

Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, 46 “Son of man,* look toward the Negev, the southern part of Judah. Speak against the Negev Forest.* 47 Say to the Negev Forest, ‘Listen to the word of the Lord. The Lord my Master said these things: Look, I am ready to start a fire in your forest. The fire will destroy every green tree and every dry tree. The flame that burns won’t be put out. All the land from south to north will be burned by the fire. 48 Then all people will see that I, the Lord, have started the fire. The fire won’t be put out!’”

Then I (Ezekiel) said, “Oh, Lord my Master! If I say those things, then the people will say that I am only telling them stories. They won’t think that it will really happen!*

So the word of the Lord came to me again. He said, 2 “Son of man,* look toward Jerusalem and speak against their holy places. Speak against the land of Israel for me. 3 Say to the land of Israel, ‘The Lord said these things: I am against you! I will pull my sword from its sheath!* I will remove all people from you—the good people and the evil people! I will cut both good people and evil people from you. I will pull my sword from its sheath and use it against all people from south to north. 5 Then all people will know that I am the Lord. And they will know that I have pulled my sword from its sheath. My sword won’t go back into its sheath again until it is finished.†” 6 God said to me, “Son of man,* make sad sounds like a sad person with a broken heart. Make these sad sounds in front of the people. 7 Then they will ask you, ‘Why are you making these sad sounds?’ Then you must say, ‘Because of the sad news that is coming. Every heart will melt with fear. All hands will become weak. Every spirit will become weak. All knees will be like water.’ Look, that bad news is coming. These things will happen!” The Lord my Master said these things.

The Sword Is Ready

8 The word of the Lord came to me. He said, 9 “Son of man,* speak to the people for me. Say these things, ‘The Lord my Master says these things:

‘Look, a sword, a sharp sword. And the sword has been polished. 10 The sword was made sharp for killing. It was polished to flash like lightning. 11 My son, you ran away from the stick I used to punish you. You refused to be punished with that wooden stick. 12 So the sword has been polished. Now it can be used. The sword was sharpened and polished. Now it can be put in the hand of the killer.

13 Shout out and scream, Son of man!* Why? Because the sword will be used against my people and all the rulers of Israel! Those rulers wanted war—so they will be with my people when the sword comes! So slap your thigh and make loud noises to show your sadness! 13 Why? Because it is not just a test! You refused to be punished with the wooden stick, so what else should I use to punish you? Yes, the sword,’’ The Lord my Master said those things.

14 God said, “Son of man,* clap your hands and speak to the people for me.

“Let the sword come down twice, Yes, three times! This sword is for killing the people. This is the sword for the great killing! This sword will cut into them. Their hearts will melt with fear. And many people will fall. The sword will kill many people by the city gates.

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.

Negev Forest God is probably making fun. The Negev is a desert area, there are no forests in the Negev.

sheath A place for the sword to be kept in when not in use. It was worn around the waist.
Yes, the sword will flash like lightning. It was polished to kill the people!

16 Sword, be sharp!
Cut on the right side.
Cut straight ahead.
Cut on the left side.
Go every place your edge was chosen to go!

17 "Then I too will clap my hands.
And I will stop showing my anger.
I, the Lord, have spoken!"

Choosing the Way to Jerusalem
18 The word of the Lord came to me. He said, 19 "Son of man,* draw two roads that the sword of the king of Babylon can use to come to Israel. Both roads will come from the same country (Babylon). Then draw a sign at the head of the road to the city. 20 Use the sign to show which road the sword will use. One road leads to the Ammonite city of Rabbah. The other road leads to Judah, to the protected city, Jerusalem! 21 This shows that the king of Babylon is planning the way he wants to attack that area. The king of Babylon has come to the place where the two roads separate. The king of Babylon has used magic signs to find the future. He shook some arrows. He asked questions from family idols. He looked at the liver from an animal he killed. 22 "The signs tell him to take the road on his right, the road leading to Jerusalem! He plans to bring the battering rams.* He will give the command, and his soldiers will begin the killing. They will shout the battle cry. Then they will build a wall of dirt around the city. They will build a dirt road leading up to the walls. They will build wooden towers to attack the city. 23 Those magic signs mean nothing to the people of Israel. They have the promises they made. But the Lord will remember their sin! Then the Israelites will be captured."

24 The Lord my Master says this, "You have done many bad things. Your sins are very clear. You forced me to remember that you are guilty. So the enemy will catch you in his hand. 25 And you, evil leader of Israel, you will be killed. Your time of punishment has come! The end is here!"

26 The Lord my Master says these things, "Take off the turban!* Take off the crown! The time has come to change. The important leaders will be brought low. And people that are not important now will become important leaders. 27 I will completely destroy that city! But this won’t happen until the right man becomes the new king. Then I will let him (the king of Babylon) have this city."

Prophecy Against Ammon
28 God said, "Son of man,* speak to the people for me. Say these things, 'The Lord my Master says these things to the people of Ammon and their shameful god:"

"'Look, a sword!
The sword is out of its sheath.*
The sword has been polished!
The sword is ready to kill.
It was polished to flash like lightning!

29 Your visions* are useless.
Your magic won’t help you.
It is only a bunch of lies.
The sword is now at the throats of evil men.
They will soon be only dead bodies.
Their time has come.
The time has come for their evil to end.

Prophecy Against Babylon
30 "Put the sword (Babylon) back in its sheath.* Babylon, I will judge you in the place where you were created, in the land where you were born. 31 I will pour out my anger against you. My anger will burn you like a hot wind. I will hand you over to cruel men.* Those men are skilled at killing people. 32 You will be like

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.
arrows, idols, liver People who believed in false gods used these things to try to learn the future.
battering rams Heavy logs that soldiers used to break holes into the gates or walls around a city.
turban(s) A head covering made by wrapping a long piece of cloth around the head or around a cap worn on the head.
sheath A place for the sword to be kept in when not in use. It was worn around the waist.
vision(s) Something like a dream that God used to speak to people.
cruel men This is a word play. The Hebrew word is like the word meaning “to burn.”
fuel for the fire. Your blood will flow deep into the earth—people will never remember you again. I, the Lord, have spoken!'"

Ezekiel Speaks Against Jerusalem

The word of the Lord came to me. He said, 2"Son of man,* will you judge the city of murderers (Jerusalem)? Will you tell her about all the terrible things she has done?
You must say, ‘The Lord my Master says this:
The city is full of murderers. So her time of punishment will come! She made filthy idols for herself. And those idols made her filthy!
4“People of Jerusalem, you killed many people. You made filthy idols. You are guilty, and the time has come to punish you. Your end has come. Other nations will make fun of you. Those countries will laugh at you.
5People far and near will make fun of you.
You have ruined your name. You can hear the loud laughter.
6“Look! In Jerusalem, every ruler of Israel made himself strong so he could kill other people. 7People in Jerusalem don’t respect their parents. They hurt foreigners in that city.
They cheat orphans and widows* in that place. 8You people hate my holy things. You treat my special days of rest like they are not important. 9People in Jerusalem tell lies about other people. They do this to kill those innocent people. People go to the mountains to worship false gods, and then come to Jerusalem to eat their fellowship meals.

“In Jerusalem, people do many sexual sins.
10In Jerusalem, people do sexual sins with their father’s wife. In Jerusalem, men rape women—even during their monthly time of bleeding. 11One man does that terrible sin against his own neighbor’s wife. Another man has sex with his own daughter-in-law and makes her unclean.* And another man rapes his father’s daughter—his very own sister.

Israel Is Like Worthless Waste

The word of the Lord came to me. He said, 18“Son of man,* bronze, iron, lead, and tin are worthless compared to silver. 19Workers put silver into fire to make it pure. The silver melts and the workers separate it from the waste. 20
The nation of Israel has become like that worthless waste. 21So the Lord and Master says these things, ‘All of you people have become like worthless waste. So I will gather you into Jerusalem. 22Workers put silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin into a fire. They blow on the fire to make it hotter. Then the metals begin to melt.
In the same way, I will put you in my fire and melt you. That fire is my hot anger. 23I will put you in that fire. I will blow on the fire of my anger. And you will begin to melt. 24Silver melts in the fire, and workers pour off the silver and save it. In the same way, you will melt in the city. Then you will know that I am the Lord. And you will know that I have poured out my anger against you.’"

Ezekiel Speaks Against Jerusalem

The word of the Lord came to me. He said, 24“Son of man,* speak to Israel. Tell her that she is not pure.* I am angry at that country, so

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.
orphans and widows Widows are women whose husbands have died, and orphans are children whose parents have died. Often these people have no one to care for them.
unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
that country has not received its rain. 25 The prophets in Jerusalem are making evil plans. They are like a lion—it roars when it begins to eat the animal it caught. Those prophets have destroyed many lives. They have taken many valuable things. They caused many women to become widows* in Jerusalem.

26 “The priests have really hurt my teachings. They don’t treat my holy things right—they don’t show they are important. They treat holy things just like things that are not holy. They treat clean* things just like things that are unclean. They treat holy things just like things that are not holy. They treat clean* things just like things that are unclean. They treat holy things just like things that are not holy. They treat clean* things just like things that are unclean. They treat holy things just like things that are not holy. They treat clean* things just like things that are unclean. They treat holy things just like things that are not holy. They treat clean* things just like things that are unclean. They treat holy things just like things that are not holy. They treat clean* things just like things that are unclean. They treat holy things just like things that are not holy. They treat clean* things just like things that are unclean. 27 The leaders in Jerusalem are like a wolf eating the animal it has caught. Those leaders attack and kill people just to get rich.

28 “The prophets don’t warn the people—they cover up the truth. They are like workers that don’t really fix a wall—they only put plaster over the holes. They only see lies. They do their magic to learn the future, but they only tell lies. They say, ‘The Lord my Master said these things.’ But they are only lying—the Lord did not speak to them!

29 “The common people take advantage of each other. They cheat and steal from each other. They get rich by taking advantage of poor helpless beggars. And they really cheat the foreigners—they are not fair to them at all! 30 I asked the people to change their lives and protect their country. I asked people to fix the walls. I wanted them to stand by those holes in the wall and fight to protect their city. But no person came to help! 31 So I will show them my anger—I will completely destroy them! I will punish them for the bad things they have done. It is all their fault!” The Lord my Master said these things.

23 The word of the Lord came to me. He said, 23 “Son of man,* listen to this story about Samaria and Jerusalem. There were two sisters. They were daughters of the same mother. 3 They became prostitutes* in Egypt while they were still young girls. In Egypt, they first made love and let men touch their nipples and hold their young breasts. 4 The older daughter was named Oholah.* And her sister was named Oholibah.* Those sisters became my wives. And we had children. (Oholah is really Samaria. And Oholibah is really Jerusalem.)

5 “Then Oholah became unfaithful to me—she began to live like a prostitute*. She began to want her lovers. She saw the Assyrian soldiers 6 in their blue uniforms. They were all desirable young men riding horses. They were leaders and officers. 7 And Oholah gave herself to all those men. All of them were hand-picked soldiers in the Assyrian army. And she wanted them all! She became filthy with their filthy idols. 8 Besides that, she never stopped her love affair with Egypt. Egypt made love to her when she was a young girl. Egypt was the first lover to touch her young breasts. Egypt poured his untrue love on her. 9 So I let her lovers have her. She wanted Assyria, so I gave her to them! 10 They raped* her. They took her children. And they used a sword and killed her. They punished her. And women still talk about her.

11 Her younger sister, Oholibah, saw all these things happen. But Oholibah did more sins than her sister! She was more unfaithful than Oholah. 12 She wanted the Assyrian leaders and officers. She wanted those soldiers in blue uniforms riding their horses. They were all desirable young men. 13 I saw that both women were going to ruin their lives with the same mistakes.

14 Oholibah continued to be unfaithful to me. In Babylon, she saw pictures of men carved on the walls. These were pictures of prostitute(s)  A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stops following him.

Oholah  This name means “Tent.” It probably refers to the Holy Tent where the people of Israel went to worship God.

Oholibah  This name means “My Tent is in her country.”

raped  Literally, “revealed her nakedness.” The Hebrew word meaning “revealed” is like the word meaning “carried away as a prisoner to a faraway country.”
EZEKIEL 23:15–35

Chaldean* men wearing their red uniforms. 15 They wore belts around their waists and long turbans on their heads. All of those men looked like chariot* officers. They all looked like native born Babylonian men. 16 And Oholibah wanted them. 17 So those Babylonian men came to her love bed to have sex with her. They used her and made her so filthy that she became disgusted with them!

18 “Oholibah* let everyone see that she was unfaithful. She let so many men enjoy her naked body, that I became disgusted with her—just like I had become disgusted with her sister. 19 Again and again Oholibah was unfaithful to me. And then she remembered the love affair she had as a young girl in Egypt. 20 She remembered her lover with the penis like a donkey and a flood of semen like a horse.

21 “Oholibah,* you dreamed of those times when you were young; when your lover touched your nipples and held your young breasts. 22 So Oholibah, the Lord my Master says these things, ‘You became disgusted with your lovers. But I will bring your lovers here. They will surround you. 23 I will bring all those men from Babylon, especially the Chaldeans. I will bring the men from Pekod, Shoa, and Koa. And I will bring all those men from Assyria. So I will bring all those leaders and officers. They were all desirable young men, chariot* officers and hand-picked soldiers riding their horses. 24 Those crowd of men will come to you. They will come riding on their horses and in their chariots. There will be many, many people. They will have their spears, shields, and helmets. They will gather together around you. I will tell them what you have done to me. And they will punish you their own way. 25 I will show you how jealous I am. They will be very angry and hurt you. They will cut off your nose and ears. They will use a sword and kill you. Then they will take your children, and burn whatever is left of you. 26 They will take your nice clothes and jewelry. 27 And I will stop your dreams about your love affair with Egypt. You will never again look for them. You will never remember Egypt again!’”

28 The Lord my Master says these things, “I am giving you to the men you hate. I am giving you to the men you became disgusted with. 29 And they will show how much they hate you! They will take everything you worked for. And they will leave you bare and naked! People will clearly see your sins. They will see that you acted like a prostitute and dreamed wicked dreams. 30 You did those bad things when you left me to chase after those other nations. You did those bad things when you began to worship their filthy idols. 31 You followed your sister and lived like her. You, yourself, took her cup of poison and held it in your hands.’ You caused your own punishment,’” 32 The Lord my Master says these things:

‘You will drink your sister’s cup of poison. It is a tall, wide cup of poison.
That cup holds much poison (punishment).
People will laugh at you and make fun of you.
You will stagger like a drunk person.
You will become very dizzy.
That is the cup of destruction and devastation.
It is like the cup (punishment) that your sister drank.
You will drink the poison in that cup.
You will drink it to the last drop.
You will throw down the glass and break it to pieces.
And you will tear at your breasts from the pain.
This will happen because I am the Lord and Master.
And I said these things.

35 ‘So, the Lord my Master said these things, ‘Jerusalem,* you forgot me. You threw me away and left me behind. So now you must suffer for leaving me and living like a prostitute.* You must suffer for your wicked dreams.’”

---

Chaldean: An important family group in Babylonia. Sometimes this name means simply, “people from Babylonia.”
chariot(s): A small wagon used in war.
Oholibah: This name means “My Tent is in her country.”
You ... your hands: Or, “I put her cup in your hands.”
prostitute: A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stops following him.
Judgment Against Oholah and Oholibah

36 The Lord my Master said to me, “Son of man,* will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then tell them about the terrible things they have done. 37 They have done the sin of adultery.* They are guilty of murder. They acted like prostitutes—they left me to be with their filthy idols. They had my children. But they forced them to pass through fire. They did this to give food to their filthy idols. 38 They also treated my special days of rest and my holy place like they were not important. 39 They killed my children for their idols,* and then they went into my holy place and made it filthy too! They did this inside my temple!* 40 They have sent for men from faraway places. You sent a messenger to these men. And those men came to see you. You bathed for them, painted your eyes, and put on your jewelry. 41 You sat on a fine bed with a table set before it. You put my incense* and my oil* on this table.

42 “The noise in Jerusalem sounded like a crowd of people having a party.* Many people came to the party. People were already drinking as they came in from the desert. They gave bracelets and beautiful crowns to the women. 43 Then I spoke to one of the women who was worn out from her sexual sins. I told her, ‘Will they continue to do sexual sins with her, and she with them?’ 44 But they kept going to her like they would go to a prostitute.* Yes, they went again and again to Oholah and Oholibah, those wicked women.

45 But good men will judge them guilty. They will judge those women guilty of the sin of adultery* and murder. Why? Because Oholah and Oholibah have done the sin of adultery and the blood from people they killed is still on their hands!”

46 The Lord my Master said these things, “Gather the people together. Then let those people punish Oholah and Oholibah. This group of people will punish and make fun of these two women. 47 Then the group will throw stones at them and kill them. Then the group will cut the women to pieces with their swords. They will kill the women’s children and burn their houses. 48 In this way, I remove that shame from this country. And all the other women will be warned not to do the shameful things you have done. 49 They will punish you for the wicked things you did. And you will be punished for worshiping your filthy idols. Then you will know that I am the Lord and Master.”

The Pot and the Meat

24 The word of the Lord my Master came to me. This was on the tenth day of the tenth month in the ninth year of exile.* He said, 2 “Son of man,* write today’s date and this note: ‘On this date the army of the king of Babylon surrounded Jerusalem.’ 3 Tell this story to the family that refuses to obey (Israel). Tell them these things, ‘The Lord my Master says this:

‘Put the pot on the fire.
Put on the pot and pour in the water.
4 Put in the pieces of meat.
Put in every good piece,
the thighs and the shoulders.
Fill the pot with the best bones.
5 Use the best animals in the flock.
Pile the wood under the pot.
And boil the pieces of meat.
Boil the soup until even the bones are cooked!’

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.
adultery Breaking the marriage promise by sexual sin.
idoles Statues of false gods that people worshiped.
temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
my incense A special blend of spices that were burned as a gift to God. This special incense was to be burned only in the temple. See Ex. 30:34–38.
my oil The special oil that was used for anointing priests and things in the temple to make them holy (special). See Ex. 30:22–33.
party The Hebrew word is like the word for a fellowship offering, a time when people came to share a meal and enjoy themselves together with the Lord. Here it seems this time of worship turned into a wild party. See Deut 14:22–29; 26:1–15.
prostitute A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stops following him.

ninth year of exile This was 15 Jan 588 B.C., the date that Nebuchadnezzar began his attack on Jerusalem.
EZEKIEL 24:6–23

6 "So the Lord my Master says these things: ‘It will be bad for Jerusalem. It will be bad for that city of murderers. Jerusalem is like a pot with rust on it. And those spots of rust can’t be removed! That pot is not clean, so you must take every piece of meat out of the pot! Don’t eat that meat! And don’t let the priests choose any of that ruined meat.

7 Jerusalem is like a pot with rust on it. Why? Because the blood from the murders is still there! She put the blood on the bare rock! She did not pour the blood on the ground and cover it with dirt. I put her blood on the bare rock, so it would not be covered. I did this so people would get angry and punish her for killing innocent people.’

8 “So the Lord my Master says these things: ‘It will be bad for that city of murderers! I will pile up plenty of wood for the fire. Put plenty of wood under the pot. Light the fire. Cook the meat well done! Mix in the spices.* And let the bones be burned up. Then let the pot stand empty on the coals. Let it become so hot that its stains* begin to glow. Those stains will be melted away. The rust will be destroyed.

12 Jerusalem might work hard to scrub away her stains. But that ‘rust’ won’t go away! Only fire (punishment) will remove that rust!

13 “You sinned against me and became stained with sin. I wanted to wash you and make you clean. But the stains would not come out. I won’t try washing you again until my hot anger is finished with you!

14 I am the Lord. I said your punishment would come, and I will make it happen. I won’t hold back the punishment. I won’t feel sorry for you. I will punish you for the bad things you did.’ The Lord my Master said those things.”

The Death of Ezekiel’s Wife

15 Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, 16 "Son of man,* you love your wife very much, but I am going to take her away from you. Your wife will die suddenly. But you must not show your sadness. You must not cry loudly. You will cry and your tears will fall, but you must make your sad sounds quietly. Don’t cry out loud for your dead wife. You must wear the clothes you normally wear. Wear your turban* and your shoes. Don’t cover your mustache to show your sadness. And don’t eat the food people normally eat when a person dies.”

18 The next morning I told the people what God had said. That evening, my wife died. The next morning I did the things God commanded.

19 Then the people said to me, “Why are you doing these things? What does it mean?” Then I said to them, “The word of the Lord came to me. He told me to speak to the family of Israel. The Lord my Master said, ‘Look, I will destroy my holy place. You are proud of that place and sing songs of praise about it. You love to see that place. You really love that place. But I will destroy that place, and your children that you left behind will be killed in battle. But you will do the same things that I have done about my dead wife. You won’t cover your mustache to show your sadness. You won’t eat the food people normally eat when a person dies. You will wear your turbans* and your shoes. You blood ... dirt The Law of Moses teaches that if a person killed an animal for food, he must pour the blood on the ground and cover it with dirt. This showed that he was giving the life of that animal back to God. See Lev. 17:1–16 and Deut. 12:1–25. If the blood was not covered with dirt, then it was a witness against the killer. See Gen. 4:10, Job 15:18, and Isa. 26:21.

Mix in the spices We are not sure of the meaning of this sentence.

stains Or, “bronze.”

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.

turban(s) A head covering made by wrapping a long piece of cloth around the head or around a cap worn on the head.
won’t show your sadness. You won’t cry. But you will be wasting away because of your sins. You will make your sad sounds quietly to each other. 24 So Ezekiel is an example for you. You will do all the same things he did. That time of punishment will come. And then you will know that I am the Lord.”

25–26 “Son of man,* I will take away that safe place (Jerusalem) from the people. That beautiful place makes them happy. They love to see that place. They really love that place. But at that time, I will take that city and their children away from these people. One of the survivors will come to you with the bad news about Jerusalem. 27 At that time, you will be able to speak to that person. You won’t be silent any more. In this way, you will be an example for them. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

Prophecy Against Ammon

25 The word of the Lord came to me. He said, 2 “Son of man,* look toward the people of Ammon and speak against them for me. 3 Say to the people of Ammon: ‘Listen to the word of the Lord my Master! The Lord my Master says this: You were happy when my holy place was destroyed. You were against the land of Israel when it was polluted. You were against the family of Judah when the people were carried away as prisoners. 4 So I will give you to the people from the east. They will get your land. Their armies will set up their camps in your country. They will live among you. They will eat your fruit and drink your milk.

5 “I will make the city Rabbah a pasture for camels and the country of Ammon a sheep pen. Then you will know that I am the Lord. 6 The Lord says these things: You were happy that Jerusalem was destroyed. You clapped your hands and stamped your feet. You had fun insulting the land of Israel. 7 So I will punish you. You will be like the valuable things soldiers take in war. You will lose your inheritance. You will die in faraway lands. I will destroy your country! Then you will know that I am the Lord.”

Prophecy Against Moab and Seir

8 The Lord my Master says these things, “Moab and Seir (Edom) say, ‘The family of Judah is just like any other nation.’ 9 I will cut into Moab’s shoulder—I will take away its cities which are on its borders, the glory of the land, Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kiriathaim. 10 Then I will give these cities to the people of the east. They will get your land. And I will let those people from the east destroy the people of Ammon. Then everyone will forget that the people of Ammon were a nation. 11 So, I will punish Moab. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

Prophecy Against Edom

12 The Lord my Master says these things, “The people of Edom turned against the family of Judah and tried to get even. The people of Edom are guilty.” 13 So the Lord my Master says: “I will punish Edom. I will destroy the people and the animals in Edom. I will destroy the whole country of Edom, all the way from Teman to Dedan. The Edomites will be killed in battle. 14 I will use my people Israel and get even against Edom. In this way, the people of Israel will show my anger against Edom. Then those people of Edom will know that I punished them.” The Lord my Master said these things.

Prophecy Against the Philistines

15 The Lord my Master says these things, “The Philistines tried to get even. They were very cruel. They let their anger burn inside them too long!” 16 So the Lord my Master said, “I will punish the Philistines. Yes, I will destroy those people from Crete. I will completely destroy those people living on the sea coast. 17 I will punish those people—I will get even. I will let my anger teach them a lesson. Then they will know that I am the Lord!”

The Sad Message About Tyre

26 In the eleventh year of exile,* on the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came to me. He said, 2 “Son of man,*

Son of man  This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.
eleventh year of exile  This is probably the summer of 587 B.C. See 2 Kings 25:3.
EZEKIEL 26:3–19

Tyre said bad things about Jerusalem: ‘Hurray! The city gate protecting the people is destroyed! The city gate is open for me. The city (Jerusalem) is ruined, so I can get plenty of valuable things out of it!’”

3So the Lord my Master says: “I am against you, Tyre! I will bring many nations to fight against you. They will come again and again, like waves on the beach.”

4God said, “Those enemy soldiers will destroy the walls of Tyre and pull down her towers. I will also scrape the topsoil from her land. I will make Tyre a bare rock. 5Tyre will become a place by the sea for spreading fishing nets. I have spoken!” The Lord my Master says, “Tyre will be like the valuable things soldiers take in war. 6Her daughters (small towns) on the mainland will be killed in battle. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

Nebuchadnezzar Will Attack Tyre

7The Lord my Master says these things, “I will bring an enemy from the north against Tyre. That enemy is Nebuchadnezzar, the great king of Babylon! He will bring a very large army. There will be horses, chariots, horse soldiers and many, many other soldiers! Those soldiers will be from many different nations. 8Nebuchadnezzar will kill your daughters (small towns) on the mainland. He will build towers to attack your city. He will build a dirt road around your city. He will build a dirt road leading up to the walls. 9He will bring the logs to break down your walls. He will use picks and break down your towers. 10There will be so many of his horses that the dust from them will cover you. Your walls will shake at the noise of horse soldiers, wagons, and chariots when the king of Babylon enters the city through your city gates. Yes, they will come into your city because its walls will be pulled down. 11The king of Babylon will come riding through your city. His horses’ hoofs will come pounding over your streets. He will kill your people with swords. The strong columns in your city will fall to the ground. 12Nebuchadnezzar’s men will take away your riches. They will take the things you wanted to sell. They will break down your walls and destroy your pleasant houses. They will throw your stones and wood houses into the sea like garbage. 13So I will stop the sound of your happy songs. People won’t hear your harps any more. 14I will make you a bare rock. You will be a place by the sea for spreading fishing nets! You won’t be built again. Why? Because I, the Lord, have spoken!” The Lord my Master said those things.

Other Nations Will Cry for Tyre

15The Lord my Master says this to Tyre: “The countries along the Mediterranean coast will shake at the sound of your fall. That will happen when your people are hurt and killed. 16Then all the leaders of the countries by the sea will step down from their thrones and show their sadness. They will take off their special robes. They will take off their beautiful clothes. Then they will put on their ‘clothes of shaking’ (fear). They will sit on the ground and shake with fear. They will be shocked at how quickly you were destroyed. 17They will sing this sad song about you:

“Tyre, you were a famous city.* People came from across the sea to live in you.* You were famous, but now you are gone! You were strong on the sea, and so were the people living in you. You made all the people living on the mainland afraid of you. 18Now, on the day you fall, the countries along the coast will shake with fear. You started many colonies along the coast. Now those people will be scared when you are gone!”

19The Lord my Master says these things, “Tyre, I will destroy you, and you will become an old, empty city. No one will live there. I will cause the sea to flow over you.

chariots(s) A small wagon used in war.
hoof(s) The hard part of a horse’s foot.
The great sea will cover you. 20I will send you down into that deep hole—to the place where dead people are. You will join the people that died long ago. I will send you to the world below, like all the other old, empty cities. You will be with all the others that go down to the grave. No one will live in you then. You will never again be in the land of the living! 21Other people will be afraid about what happened to you. You will be finished! People will look for you, but they will never find you again!” That is what the Lord my Master says.

Tyre the Great Center of Trade on the Seas

He said, 27Son of man,* sing this sad song about Tyre. 3Say these things about Tyre:

“Tyre, you are the door to the seas. You are the merchant* for many nations. You travel to many countries along the coast.’

The Lord my Master says these things:

“Tyre, you think that you are so beautiful. You think you are perfectly beautiful!

4 The Mediterranean Sea is the border around your city. Your builders made you perfectly beautiful, like the ships that sail from you.

5 Your builders used cypress trees from the Senir mountains to make your planks. They used cedar trees from Lebanon to make your mast.

6 They used oak trees from Bashan to make your oars. They used pine trees from Cyprus to make the cabin on your deck.* They decorated that shelter with ivory.

7 For your sail, they used colorful linen made in Egypt. That sail was your flag. The coverings over your cabin were blue and purple. They came from the coast of Cyprus.*

8 Men from Sidon and Arvad rowed your boats for you. Tyre, your wise men were the pilots on your ships.

9 The elders and wise men from Byblos* were on board to help put caulking* between the boards on your ship. All the ships of the sea and their sailors came to trade and do business with you.’

10 Men from Persia, Lud, and Put were in your army. They were your men of war. They hung their shields and helmets on your walls. They brought honor and glory to your city. 11Men from Arvad and Cilicia were guards standing on the wall around your city. Men from Gammad were in your towers. They hung their shields on the walls around your city. They made your beauty complete.

12 Tarshish* was one of your best customers. They traded silver, iron, tin, and lead for all the wonderful things you sold. 13People in Greece, Turkey, and the area around the Black Sea traded with you. They traded slaves and bronze for the things you sold. 14People from the nation* of Togarmah traded horses, war horses, and mules for the things you sold. 15The people of Rhodes* traded with you. You sold your things in many places. People brought ivory tusks and ebony wood to pay you. 16Aram traded with you because you had so many good things. They traded emeralds, purple cloth, fine needlework, fine linen, coral* and rubies for the things you sold.

17 The people in Judah and Israel traded with you. They paid for the things you sold with the wheat, olives, early figs, honey, oil, and balm.* 18Damascus was a good customer. They traded with you for the many wonderful things you had. They traded wine from Helbon merchant A person who buys and sells things for a living.

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.

deck The floor of a ship.

Cyprus Literally, “Elishah.” This might be the area near Enkomi, Cyprus or it might be the Greek islands.

Byblos Literally, “Gebal.”

caulking Often a mixture of tar and rope that was put between the boards to make a ship watertight so it would not leak.

Tarshish This is probably a city in Spain.

nation Literally, “house.” This might mean the royal family of that country.

coral Sea animals that leave skeletons after they die. The skeletons are hard like rocks and are used for jewelry.

balm An ointment from some kinds of trees and plants. It is used as medicine.
and white wool for those things. 19 Damascus traded wine from Uzal for the things you sold. They paid wrought iron, cassia* and sugar cane for those things. 20 Dedan provided good business. They traded with you for saddlecloths and for riding horses. 21 Arabia and all the leaders of Kedar traded lambs, rams, and goats for your goods. 22 The merchants* of Sheba and Raamah traded with you. They traded all the best spices and every kind of precious stone and gold for your goods. 23 Haran, Canneh, Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur and Kilmad traded with you. 24 They paid with the best clothes, clothes from blue and fine needlework, carpets of many colors, tightly wound ropes and things made from cedar wood. These were the things they traded with you. 25 The ships of Tarshish carried the things you sold.

"Tyre, you are like one of those cargo ships. You are on the sea, loaded with many riches. 26 Your oarsmen rowed you far out to sea. But a powerful east wind will destroy your ship at sea. 27 And all your wealth will spill into the sea. Your wealth—the things you buy and sell—will spill into the sea. Your whole crew—sailors, pilots, and the men who put caulking* between the boards on your ship—will spill into the sea. The merchants* and soldiers in your city, will all sink into the sea. That will happen on the day that you are destroyed!

28 "You send your businessmen to faraway places. Those places will shake with fear when they hear your pilot's cry! 29 Your whole crew will jump ship. The sailors and pilots will jump ship and swim to the shore.

They will be very sad about you. They will cry, throw dust on their heads, and roll in ashes. 31 They will shave their heads for you. They will put on clothes of sadness. They will cry for you like someone crying for a person that died.

32 "And in their heavy crying they will sing this sad song about you, and cry about you.

"No one is like Tyre! Tyre is destroyed, in the middle of the sea! 33 Your businessmen sailed across the seas. You satisfied many people with your great wealth and the things you sold. You made the kings of the earth rich! 34 But now you are broken by the seas, and by the deep waters. All the things you sell and all your people have fallen! 35 All the people living on the coast are shocked about you. Their kings are terribly afraid. Their faces show their shock. 36 The merchants* in other nations whistle about you. The things that happened to you will scare people. Why? Because you are finished. You will be no more."

Tyre Thinks It Is Like a God

28 The word of the Lord came to me. He said, 2 "Son of man,* say to the ruler of Tyre, ‘The Lord my Master says these things:

"You are very proud! And you say, “I am a god! I sit on the seat of gods in the middle of the seas.”

"But you are a man and not God! You only think you are a god.

---

cassia  A spice or perfume.
merchant(s)  A person who buys and sells things for a living.
caulking  Often a mixture of tar and rope that was put between the boards to make a ship watertight so it would not leak.

Son of man  This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.
3 You think you are wiser than Danel!*
    You think you can find out all secrets!
4 Through your wisdom and understanding you have gotten riches for yourself.
    And you put gold and silver
    in your treasuries.
5 Through your great wisdom and trade,
    you have made your riches grow.
    And now you are proud because of those riches.
6“"So the Lord my Master says these things:
    Tyre, you thought you were like a god.
7 I will bring strangers to fight against you.
    They are most terrible among the nations!
    They will pull out their swords and use them against the beautiful things that your wisdom brought you.
    They will ruin your glory.
8 They will bring you down to the grave.
    You will be like a sailor that died at sea.
9 That person will kill you.
    Will you still say, “I am a god”?
    No! He will have you in his power.
    You will see that you are a man, not God!
10 Strangers will treat you like a foreigner* and kill you.
    Those things will happen because I gave the command!”
    The Lord my Master said those things.

11 The word of the Lord came to me. He said, “Son of man,* sing this sad song about the king of Tyre. Say to him, “The Lord my Master says these things:
    “You were the ideal man.
    You were full of wisdom.
    You were perfectly handsome.
13 You were in Eden,
    the Garden of God.
    You had every precious stone—
    rubies, topaz, and diamonds;
    beryls, onyx, and jasper;
    sapphires, turquoise, and emeralds.
    And each of these stones was set in gold.
    You were given this beauty
    on the day you were created.
    God made you strong.
14 You were one of the chosen Cherubs,*
    Your wings spread over my throne.
    And I put you on the holy mountain of God.
    You walked among the jewels
    that sparkled like fire.
15 You were good and honest
    when I created you.
    But then you became evil.
16 Your business brought you many riches.
    But they also put cruelty inside you.
    And you sinned.
    So I treated you like you were some unclean thing—
    I threw you off the mountain of God.
    You were one of the special Cherub angels—
    Your wings spread over my throne.
    But I forced you to leave the jewels
    that sparkled like fire.
17 Your beauty made you proud.
    Your glory ruined your wisdom.
    So I threw you down to the ground.
    And now other kings stare at you.
18 You did many wrong things.
    You were a very crooked businessman.
    In this way, you made the holy places unclean.
    So I brought fire from inside you.
    It burned you!
    You burned to ashes on the ground.
    Now everyone can see your shame.
19 All the people in other nations were shocked about what happened to you.
    What happened to you will make people
    very afraid.
    You are finished!””

---

Danel An ancient wise man.

foreigner Literally, “uncircumcised.” To have the foreskin cut off. This was done to every Jewish male to show he shared in the Agreement God made with Israel. See Gen. 17:9–14.

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.

Cherubs Angels that were often used like guards to be around the king (God) or to protect things (the Garden of Eden). The Cherub angels on the Box of the Agreement were like guards by the king’s throne.
The Message Against Sidon

20The word of the Lord came to me. He said, 21“Son of man,* look toward Sidon and speak for me against that place. 22Say, ‘The Lord my Master says these things:

‘I am against you, Sidon! Your people will learn to respect me! I will punish Sidon. Then people will know that I am the Lord. Then they will learn that I am holy and they will treat me that way.

23 I will send disease and death to Sidon, and many people inside the city will die. The sword (enemy soldiers) outside the city will kill many people. Then they will know that I am the Lord!’”

The Nations Will Stop Laughing at Israel

24“‘The countries around Israel hated her. Then there won’t be any sharp stickers or thorn bushes to hurt the family of Israel. And they will know that I am the Lord their Master.’”

25The Lord my Master said these things, “I scattered the people of Israel among other nations. But I will gather the family of Israel together again. Then those nations will know that I am holy and they will treat me that way. At that time, the people of Israel will live in their land—I gave that land to my servant Jacob. 26They will live safely in the land. They will build houses and plant vineyards. I will punish the nations around them that hated them. Then the people of Israel will live in safety. And they will know that I am the Lord their God.”

The Message Against Egypt

On the twelfth day of the tenth month (January) of the tenth year (of exile),* the word of the Lord my Master came to me. He said, 2“Son of man,* look toward Pharaoh, king of Egypt. Speak for me against him and Egypt. 3Say, ‘The Lord my Master says these things:

‘I am against you, Pharaoh, king of Egypt. You are the great monster* lying beside the Nile River. You say, ‘This is my river! I made this river!’

4–5‘But I will put hooks in your jaws. The fish in the Nile River will stick to your scales. I will pull you and your fish up out of your rivers and onto the dry land. You will fall on the ground, and no one will pick you up or bury you. I will give you to the wild animals and birds. You will be their food.

6 Then all the people living in Egypt will know that I am the Lord!’”

7 The people of Israel leaned on Egypt for support. But Egypt only pierced their hands and shoulder. They leaned on you for support, but you broke and twisted their back.’”

8 So the Lord my Master says these things: “I will bring a sword against you. I will destroy all your people and animals. 9 Egypt will be empty and destroyed. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

9 God said, “Why will I do these things? Because you said, ‘This is my river. I made this river.’ 10So, I (God) am against you. I am against the many branches of your Nile River. I will destroy Egypt completely. The cities will be empty from Migdol to Aswan, and as far as tenth year of exile  This was the winter of 587 B.C.

Son of man  This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.

great monster  There were ancient stories about a sea monster that fought against God. The prophets called Egypt that sea monster many times. But here this might mean the crocodiles that rest on the banks of the Nile River.
the border of Ethiopia. 11 No person or animal will pass through Egypt. Nothing will pass through or settle there for 40 years. 12 I will destroy Egypt. The cities will be in ruins for 40 years! I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations. I will make them strangers in foreign lands.”

13 The Lord my Master says these things, “I will scatter the people of Egypt among many nations. But at the end of 40 years, I will gather those people together again. 14 I will bring back the Egyptian captives. I will bring back the Egyptians to the land of Pathros, to the land where they were born. But their kingdom won’t be important. 15 It will be the least important kingdom. It will never again lift itself above the other nations. I will make them so small that they won’t rule over the nations. 16 And the family of Israel will never again depend on Egypt. The Israelites will remember their sin—they will remember that they turned to Egypt for help and not to God. And they will know that I am the Lord and Master.”

Babylon Will Get Egypt

17 On the first day of the first month (April) in the twenty-seventh year of exile, the word of the Lord came to me. He said, 18 “Son of man,* Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, made his army fight hard against Tyre. They shaved every soldier’s hair. Every shoulder was rubbed bare from carrying heavy loads. Nebuchadnezzar and his army worked hard to defeat Tyre. But they got nothing from all that hard work.” 19 So the Lord my Master says these things, “I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon. And Nebuchadnezzar will carry away Egypt’s people. Nebuchadnezzar will take the many valuable things in Egypt. This will be the pay for Nebuchadnezzar’s army. 20 I have given Nebuchadnezzar the land of Egypt as a reward for the hard work he did. Why? Because they worked for me!” The Lord my Master said these things!

21 “On that day I will make the family of Israel strong. Then, Ezekiel, I will let you speak to them so they will know that I am the Lord.”

The Army of Babylon Will Attack Egypt

30 The word of the Lord came to me again. He said, 2 “Son of man,* speak for me. Say, ‘The Lord my Master says these things:

“Cry and say, “That terrible day is coming.”

3 That day is near!
Yes, the Lord’s day for judging is near.
It will be a cloudy day,
It will be the time for judging the nations!

4 A sword will come against Egypt!
People in Ethiopia will shake with fear,
at the time that Egypt falls.
The army of Babylon will take Egypt’s people away as prisoners.
Egypt’s foundations will be torn down!

5 “Many people made peace agreements with Egypt. But all those people from Ethiopia, Put, Lud, all Arabia, Libya and the people of Israel* will be destroyed!

6 The Lord my Master says these things:
“The people who support Egypt will fall!
The pride in her power will end.
The people in Egypt will be killed in battle,
all the way from Migdol to Aswan.”
The Lord my Master said those things!

7 Egypt will join the other countries that were destroyed.
Egypt will be one of those empty lands.

8 I will start a fire in Egypt,
and all her helpers will be destroyed.
Then they will know that I am the Lord!

9 “At that time, I will send out messengers.
They will go in ships to carry the bad news to Ethiopia. Ethiopia now feels safe. But the people of Ethiopia will shake with fear at the time Egypt is punished. That time is coming!”
The Lord my Master says these things:
“I will use the king of Babylon.
I will use Nebuchadnezzar to destroy the people of Egypt.
Nebuchadnezzar and his people are the most terrible of the nations.
And I will bring them to destroy Egypt.
They will pull out their swords against Egypt.
They will fill the land with dead bodies.
I will make the Nile River become dry land.
Then I will sell the dry land to evil people.
I will use strangers to make that land empty.
I, the Lord, have spoken!”

The Idols of Egypt Will Be Destroyed
The Lord my Master says these things:
“I will also destroy the idols* in Egypt.
I will take the statues away from Memphis.
There won’t be a leader anymore
in the land of Egypt,
And I will put fear in the land of Egypt.
I will make Pathros empty.
I will start a fire in Zoan.
I will punish No,
And I will pour out my anger against Sin,
the fortress* of Egypt!
I will destroy the people of No.
I will start a fire in Egypt;
The city named Sin will ache with fear.
The soldiers will break into the city No,
and Memphis will have new troubles
every day.
The young men of On and Pi Beseth* will die in battle.
And the women will be captured
and taken away.
It will be a dark day in Tahpanhes when I break Egypt’s control.*
Egypt’s proud power will be finished!
A cloud will cover Egypt,
and her daughters will be captured
and taken away.
So I will punish Egypt.
Then they will know I am the Lord!”

Egypt Will Become Weak Forever
On the seventh day of the first month (April) of the eleventh year of exile,* the word of the Lord came to me. He said, “Son of man,* I have broken the arm (power) of Pharaoh, king of Egypt. No one will wrap his arm with a bandage. It won’t heal. So his arm won’t be strong enough to hold a sword.”
The Lord my Master says these things, “I am against Pharaoh, king of Egypt. I will break both his arms, the strong arm and the arm that is already broken. I will make the sword fall from his hand.
I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations.
I will make the arms of the king of Babylon strong. I will put my sword in his hand. But I will break the arms of Pharaoh. Then Pharaoh will cry out in pain, the kind of cry that a dying man makes.
So I will make the arms of the king of Babylon strong, but the arms of Pharaoh will fall. Then they will know that I am the Lord.
“I will put my sword in the hand of the king of Babylon. Then he will stretch the sword out against the land of Egypt.
I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations. Then they will know that I am the Lord!”

Assyria Is Like A Cedar Tree
On the first day of the third month (June) in the eleventh year of exile,* the word of the Lord came to me. He said, “Son of man,* say these things to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and to his people:
“You are so great!
Who can I compare you to?
Assyria was a cedar tree in Lebanon
With beautiful branches,
With forest shade,
And very tall.
Its top was among the clouds!
The water made the tree grow.
The deep river made the tree tall.
Rivers flowed around the place where the tree was planted.
Only small streams flowed from that tree to all the other trees of the field.

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.
fortress A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.
On, Pi Beseth Heliopolis and Bubastis, cities in Egypt. control Literally, “yoke.”
eleventh year of exile This was the summer of 587 B.C.
Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.
5 So that tree was taller than all the other trees of the field. And it grew many branches. There was plenty of water, so the tree branches spread out.

6 All the birds of the sky made their nests in the branches of that tree. And all the animals of the field gave birth under the branches of that tree. All the great nations lived under the shade of that tree.

7 The tree was very beautiful. It was so large! It had such long branches. Its roots had plenty of water!

8 Even the cedar trees in God’s garden were not as big as this tree. Cypress trees did not have as many branches. Plane-trees did not have such branches. No tree in God’s garden was as beautiful as this tree.

9 I gave it many branches and made it beautiful. And all the trees in Eden, God’s garden, were jealous!"

10 So the Lord my Master says these things: "That tree grew tall. Its top reached up to the clouds. It grew so big that it became proud! 11 So I let a powerful king have that tree. That ruler punished the tree for the bad things it did. I took that tree out of my garden. 12 Strangers—the most terrible people in the world—cut it down and scattered its branches on the mountains and in the valleys. Its broken limbs drifted down the rivers flowing through that land. There was no more shadow under that tree, so all the people left. 13 Now birds live in that fallen tree. Wild animals walk over its fallen branches.

14 "Now, none of the trees by that water will be proud. They won’t try to reach the clouds. None of the strong trees that drink that water will brag about being tall. Why? Because all of them have been appointed to die. They will all go down into the world below—to Sheol, the place of death. They will join the other people who died and went down into that deep hole."

15 The Lord my Master says these things, “I made the people cry on the day that tree went down to Sheol.* I covered him with the deep ocean. I stopped its rivers and all the water stopped flowing. I made Lebanon mourn* for it. All the trees of the field became sick with sadness for that big tree. 16 I made the tree fall—and the nations shook with fear at the sound of the falling tree. I sent the tree down to the place of death, to join the other people that had gone down into that deep hole. In the past, all the trees of Eden, the best of Lebanon, drank that water. Those trees were comforted in the world below. 17 Yes, those trees also went down with the big tree to the place of death. They joined the people that were killed in battle. That big tree made the other trees strong. Those trees had lived under the big tree’s shadow among the nations.

18 “Egypt, there were many big and powerful trees in Eden. Which of those trees should I compare you to! They all went down into the world below! And you too will join those foreigners* in that place of death. You will lie there among the people killed in battle. “Yes, that will happen to Pharaoh and to the crowds of people with him!” The Lord my Master said those things.

Pharaoh: a Lion Or a Dragon?

32 On the first day of the twelfth month (March) in the twelfth year of exile,* the word of the Lord came to me. He said, 2 “Son of man,* sing this sad song about Pharaoh, king of Egypt. Say to him:

"‘You thought you were like a powerful young lion walking proud among the nations. But really, you are like a dragon* in the lakes.

Sheol The place where people go when they die. Usually this means the grave, but it can mean the place where spirits go.

mourn Crying and showing sadness for a person that died.

foreigners Literally, “uncircumcised.”

twelfth year of exile This was early spring, 585 B.C.

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.

dragon This might be a crocodile or a giant sea creature. The giant sea creature represented the power of the sea, and the Nile River made Egypt a powerful nation.
You push your way through the streams.
You make the water muddy with your feet.
You stir up the rivers of Egypt.”

3The Lord my Master says these things:

“I have gathered many people together.
Now I will throw my net over you.
Then those people will pull you in.

4Then I will drop you on the dry ground.
I will throw you down in the field.
I will let all the birds come and eat you.
I will let wild animals from every place come and eat you until they are full.

5I will scatter your body on the mountains.
I will fill the valleys with your dead body.

6I will pour your blood on the mountains, and it will soak down into the ground.
The rivers will be full of you.

7I will make you disappear.
I will cover the sky
and make the stars dark.
I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon will not shine.

8I will make all the shining lights in the sky become dark over you.
I will make your whole country dark.”
The Lord my Master said those things.

9“I will make many people sad and upset when I bring an enemy to destroy you.
Nations you don’t even know will be upset.
I will make many people shocked about you. Their kings will be terribly afraid about you, when I swing my sword before them.
Each king will be afraid for his own life.”

Why? Because the Lord my Master says these things: “The sword of the king of Babylon will come to fight against you.
I will use those soldiers to kill your people in battle.
Those soldiers come from the most terrible of the nations. They will destroy the things Egypt is proud of.
The people of Egypt will be destroyed.
There are many animals by the rivers in Egypt. I will also destroy all those animals!
People won’t make the waters muddy with their feet any more.
The hoofs of cows won’t make the water muddy any more.
So I will make the water in Egypt calm.
I will cause their rivers to run slowly—they will be slick like oil.”
The Lord my Master said those things.
I will make the land of Egypt empty.
That land will lose everything. I will punish all the people living in Egypt. Then they will know that I am the Lord and Master!

16“This is a sad song that people will sing for Egypt.
The daughters (cities) in other nations will sing this sad song about Egypt.
They will sing it as a sad song about Egypt and all its people.”
The Lord my Master said those things!

Egypt to Be Destroyed

17On the fifteenth day of that month, in the twelfth year of exile, the word of the Lord came to me. He said, “Son of man,* cry for the people of Egypt.
Lead Egypt and those daughters from powerful nations to the grave.
Lead them to the world below where they will be with the other people that went down into that deep hole.

19“Egypt, you are no better than anyone else! Go down to the place of death. Go lie down with those foreigners.*

20“Egypt will go to be with all the other men that were killed in battle.
The enemy has pulled her and all her people away.

21“Strong and powerful men were killed in battle.
Those foreigners went down to the place of death.
And from that place, those men that were killed will speak to Egypt and his helpers.

22–23“Assyria* and all its army are there in the place of death.
Their graves are deep down in that deep hole.
All those Assyrian soldiers were killed in battle.
Their graves are all around his grave.
When they were alive, they made people afraid.
But now all of them are quiet—they were all killed in battle.

24“Elam is there and all its army is around her grave.
All of them were killed in battle.
Those foreigners went deep down into the ground.
When they were alive, they made people afraid.
But they carried their shame

twelfth year of exile  This was early spring, 585 B.C.
Son of man  This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.
foreigners  Literally, “uncircumcised.” This showed that those people did not share in the Agreement that God made with Israel.
Assyria  This was a powerful nation northeast of Israel.
with them down to that deep hole. 25They have made a bed for Elam and all its soldiers that were killed in battle. Elam's army is all around its grave. All those foreigners were killed in battle. When they were alive, they scared people. But they carried their shame with them down into that deep hole. They were put with all the other people that were killed.

26“Meshech, Tubal, and all their armies are there. Their graves are around it. All of those foreigners were killed in battle. When they were alive, they made people afraid. 27But now they are lying down by the powerful men that died long, long ago! They were buried with their weapons of war. Their swords will be laid under their heads. But their sins are on their bones. Why? Because when they were alive, they scared people.

28“Egypt, you too will be destroyed. And you will lie down by those foreigners. You will lie with those other soldiers that were killed in battle.

29“Edom is there also. His kings and other leaders are there with him. They were powerful soldiers too. But now they lie with the other men that were killed in battle. They are lying there with those foreigners. They are there with the other people that went down into that deep hole.

30“The rulers from the north are there, all of them! And there are all the soldiers from Sidon. Their strength scared people. But they are embarrassed. Those foreigners lie there with the other men that were killed in battle. They carried their shame with them down into that deep hole.

31“Pharaoh will see the people that went down to the place of death. He and all his people with him will be comforted. Yes, Pharaoh and all his army will be killed in battle.” The Lord my Master said these things.

32“When Pharaoh was alive, I made people afraid of him. But now, he will lie down with those foreigners. Pharaoh and his army will lie down with the other soldiers that were killed in battle.” The Lord my Master said those things.

God Chooses Ezekiel To Be a Watchman

The word of the Lord came to me. He said, 2“Son of man,* speak to your people. Say to them, ‘I might bring enemy soldiers to fight against this country. When that happens people choose a man to be the watchman. 3If this guard sees the enemy soldiers coming, then he blows the trumpet and warns the people. 4If people hear the warning but ignore it, then the enemy will capture them and take them away as prisoners. That person will be responsible for his own death. 5He heard the trumpet, but he ignored the warning. So he is to blame for his death. If he had paid attention to the warning, then he could have saved his own life.

6“‘But maybe that guard sees the enemy soldiers coming, but does not blow the trumpet. That guard did not warn the people. The enemy will capture them and take them away as prisoners. That person will be taken away because he sinned. But the guard will also be responsible for that man’s death.’ 7“Now, Son of man,* I am choosing you to be a watchman for the family of Israel. If you hear a message from my mouth, you must warn the people for me. 8I might say to you, ‘This evil person will die.’ Then you must go warn that person for me. If you don’t warn that evil person and tell him to change his life, then that evil person will die because he sinned. But I will make you responsible for his death.

9But if you do warn the evil person to change his life and stop sinning, and if he refuses to stop sinning, then he will die because he sinned. But you have saved your life.

God Does Not Want to Destroy People

10“So, Son of man,* speak to the family of Israel for me. Those people might say, ‘We have sinned and broken the law. Our sins are too heavy to bear. We rot away because of those sins. What can we do to live?’

11“You must say to them, ‘The Lord my Master says: On my life, I promise, I don’t enjoy seeing people die—not even evil Son of man * This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.
people! I don’t want them to die. I want those evil people to come back to me. I want them to change their lives so they can really live! So come back to me! Stop doing bad things! Why must you die, family of Israel?’

12“And Son of man,* say to your people: ‘The good things a person did in the past won’t save him if he becomes bad and begins to sin. And the bad things a person did in the past won’t destroy him if he turns from his evil. So remember, the good things a person did in the past won’t save him if he begins to sin.’

13“Maybe I will tell a good person that he will live. But maybe that good person will begin to think that the good things he did in the past will save him. So he might begin to do bad things. But I won’t remember the good things he did in the past! No, he will die because of the bad things he begins to do.

14“Or maybe I will tell a bad person that he will die. But he might change his life. He might stop sinning and begin to live right. He might become good and fair. He might give back the things he took when he loaned money. He might pay for the things he stole. He might begin to follow the laws that give life. He stops doing bad things. Then that person will surely live. He won’t die. I won’t remember the bad things he did in the past. Why? Because now he lives right and is fair. So he will live!

15“But your people say, ‘That’s not fair! [The Lord] my Master can’t be like that!’

“But they are the people that are not fair! They are the people who must change! If a good person stops doing good things and begins to sin, then he will die because of his sins. And if an evil person stops doing bad things and begins to live right and be fair, then he will live! But you people still say that I am not fair. But I am telling you the truth. Family of Israel, each person will be judged for the things he does!”

Jerusalem Has Been Taken

21On the fifth day of the tenth month (January) in the twelfth year of exile,* a person came to me from Jerusalem. He had escaped from the battle there. He said, “The city (Jerusalem) has been taken!”

22Now the power of the Lord my Master had come on me the evening before that person came to me. God made me not able to speak. At the time that person came to me, the Lord had opened my mouth and let me speak again. Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, 24“Son of man,* there are Israelite people living in the ruined cities in Israel. Those people are saying, ‘Abraham was only one man, and God gave him all this land. Now, we are many people, so surely this land belongs to us! It is our land!’

25“You must tell them that the Lord and Master says these things, ‘You eat meat with the blood still in it. You look to your idols* for help. You murder people. So why should I give you this land? You depend on your own sword. Each of you does terrible things. Each of you does sexual sins with his neighbor’s wife. So you cannot have the land!’

27“You must tell them that the Lord and Master says these things, “On my life I promise, those people living in those ruined cities will be killed with a sword! If anyone is out in the country, I will let animals kill him and eat him. If people are hiding in the fortresses* and the caves, they will die from disease. I will make the land empty and a waste. That country will lose all the things it was proud of. The mountains of Israel will become empty. No one will pass through that place. Those people have done many terrible things. So I will make that land an empty wasteland. Then these people will know that I am the Lord.’

29And now, about you, Son of man.* Your people lean against the walls and stand in their doorways talking about you. They tell each other, “Come on, let’s go hear what the twelfth year of exile  This was the winter of 586 B.C.

Son of man  This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.

idols  Statues of false gods that people worshiped.
fortress(es)  A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.
Lord says.” 31 So they come to you like they are my people. They sit in front of you like they are my people. They hear your words. But they won’t do the things you say. They only want to do what feels good. They only want to cheat people and make more money.

32 “You are nothing to these people but a singer singing love songs. You have a good voice. You play your instrument well. They hear your words, but they won’t do the things you say. 33 But the things you sing about really will happen. And then the people will know that there really was a prophet living among them!”

Israel Is Like a Flock of Sheep

34 The word of the Lord came to me. He said,2 “Son of man,* speak against the shepherds (leaders) of Israel for me. Speak to them for me. Tell them that the Lord and Master says these things, ‘You shepherds of Israel have only been feeding yourselves. It will be very bad for you! Why don’t you shepherds feed the flock? 3 You eat the fat sheep and use their wool to make clothes for yourselves. You kill the fat sheep, but you don’t feed the flock. 4 You have not made the weak strong. You have not cared for the sick sheep. You have not put bandages on the sheep that were hurt. Some of the sheep wandered away, and you did not go get them and bring them back. You did not go to look for those lost sheep. No, you were cruel and severe—that’s the way you tried to lead the sheep!

5 “And now the sheep are scattered because there was no shepherd. They became food for all the wild animals. Why? Because they did not have a real shepherd. My shepherds did not look out for my sheep. No, those shepherds only killed the sheep and fed themselves. They did not feed my flock.”

8 So, you shepherds, listen to the word of the Lord! 10 The Lord says, “I am against those shepherds! I will demand my sheep from them. I will fire them! They won’t be my shepherds any more! Then the shepherds won’t be able to feed themselves. And I will save my flock from their mouths. Then my sheep won’t be food for them.”

11 The Lord my Master says, “I, myself, will be their Shepherd. I will search for my sheep. I will look out for them. 12 If a shepherd is with his sheep when they begin to wander away, then he will go searching for them. In the same way I will search for my sheep. I will save my sheep. I will bring them back from all the places where they were scattered on that dark and cloudy day. 13 I will bring them back from those nations. I will gather them from those countries. I will bring them to their own land. And I will feed them on the mountains of Israel. There they will lie down on good ground and eat the grass. They will eat in rich grassland on the mountains of Israel. 15 Yes, I will feed my flock and I will lead them to a place of rest.” The Lord my Master said those things.

16 “I will search for the lost sheep. I will bring back the sheep that were scattered. I will put bandages on the sheep that were hurt. I will make the weak sheep strong. But I will destroy those fat and powerful shepherds. I will feed them the punishment they deserve.”

17 The Lord my Master says these things, “And you, my flock, I will judge between one sheep and another. I will judge between the male sheep and the male goats. 18 You can eat the grass growing on the good land. So why do you also crush the grass that other sheep want to eat? You can drink plenty of clear water. So why do you also stir the water that other sheep want to drink? 19 My flock must eat the grass you crushed with your feet, and they must drink the water you stir with your feet!”

20 So the Lord my Master says to them: “I, myself, will judge between the fat sheep and the thin sheep! 21 You push with your side and shoulder. You knock down all the weak sheep with your horns. You push until you have forced them away. 22 So I will save my flock. They won’t be caught by wild animals any more. I will judge between one sheep and another. 23 Then I will put one shepherd over them, my servant David. He will feed them and be their shepherd. 24 Then I, the Lord and Master, will be their God. And my servant David will be the ruler living among them. I, the Lord, have spoken.
EZEKIEL 34:21–35:13

25 “And I will make a peace agreement with my sheep. I will take harmful animals away from the land. Then the sheep can be safe in the desert and sleep in the woods. 26 I will bless the sheep and the places around my hill (Jerusalem). I will cause the rains to fall at the right time. They will shower them with blessings. 27 And the trees growing in the field will produce their fruit. The earth will give its harvest. So the sheep will be safe on their land. I will break the yokes* on them. I will save them from the power of the people that made them slaves. Then they will know that I am the Lord. 28 They won’t be caught like an animal by the nations any more. Those animals won’t eat them any more. But they will live safely. No one will make them afraid. 29 I will give them some land that will make a good garden. Then they won’t suffer from hunger in that land. They won’t suffer the insults from the nations any more. 30 Then they will know that I am the Lord. They will know that I am with them. And the family of Israel will know that they are my people!” The Lord my Master said those things!

31 “You are my sheep, the sheep of my grassland. You are only human beings. And I am your God.” The Lord my Master said those things.

The Message Against Edom

35 The word of the Lord came to me. He said, 2 “Son of man,* look toward Mount Seir, and speak against it for me. 3 Say to it, ‘The Lord my Master says these things:

“I am against you, Mount Seir! I will punish you.
I will make you an empty wasteland.
4 I will destroy your cities.
And you will become empty.
Then you will know that I am the Lord.
5 Why? Because you have always been against my people.
You used your sword against Israel at the time of their trouble, at the time of their final punishment.’”

6 So the Lord my Master says, “By my life I promise that I will let death have you. Death will chase you. You did not hate killing people. So death will chase you. 7 And I will make Mount Seir an empty ruin. I will kill every person that comes from that city. And I will kill every person that tries to go into that city. 8 I will cover its mountains with dead bodies. Those dead bodies will be all over your hills, in your valleys, and in all your ravines. 9 I will make you empty forever. No one will live in your cities. Then you will know that I am the Lord.”

10 You said, “These two nations and countries (Israel and Judah) will be mine. We will take them for our own.”

But the Lord is there! 11 And the Lord my Master says, “You were jealous of my people. You were angry at them and you were hateful to me. So by my life, I promise that I will punish you the same way you hurt them! I will punish you and let my people know that I am with them.

12 And then you too will know that I have heard all your insults. You said many bad things against the mountain of Israel. You said, ‘Israel has been destroyed! We will chew them up like food!’ 13 And you were proud and said things against me. You spoke too many yokes  A pole that was put on the shoulders of men or animals to help them carry or pull things. This often showed that a person was a slave.

Son of man  This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.
times and I have heard every word you said! Yes, I heard you.”

14The Lord my Master says these things, “All the earth will be happy when I destroy you 15You were happy when the country of Israel was destroyed. I will treat you the same way. Mount Seir and the whole country of Edom will be destroyed. Then you will know that I am the Lord.”

The Land of Israel Will Be Built again

36“Son of man,* speak to the mountains of Israel for me. Tell the mountains of Israel to listen to the word of the Lord! Tell them that the Lord and Master says these things, ‘The enemy said bad things against you. They said: Hurrah! Now the ancient mountains* will be ours!’

3“Son of man,* speak to the mountains of Israel for me. Tell them that the Lord and Master says these things, ‘The enemy destroyed your cities and attacked you from every direction. They did this so you would belong to the other nations. Then people talked and whispered about you.’

4So, mountains of Israel, listen to the word of the Lord my Master! The Lord my Master says this to the mountains, hills, streams, valleys, empty ruins, and abandoned cities that have been looted and laughed at by the other nations around them. 5The Lord my Master says, “I swear (promise), I will let my strong feelings speak for me! I will let Edom and the other nations feel my anger. Those nations took my land for themselves. They really had a good time when they showed how much they hated this land. They took the land for themselves just so they could destroy it!”

6“Son of man,* speak these things about the land of Israel. Speak to the mountains and to the hills, to the streams and to the valleys. Tell them that the Lord and Master says these things, ‘I will let my strong feelings and anger speak for me. Why? Because you had to suffer the insults from those nations.’” mountains Literally, “high places”—usually a reference to places of worship.

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

7So the Lord my Master says these things, “I am the One making this promise! I swear that the nations around you will have to suffer for those insults.

8“But mountains of Israel, you will grow new trees and produce fruit for my people Israel. My people will soon come back. 9I am with you. I will help you. People will till your soil. People will plant seeds in you. 10There will be many, many people living on you. The whole family of Israel—all of them—will live there. The cities will have people living in them. The destroyed places will be built like new. 11I will give you many people and animals. And they will grow and have many children. I will bring people to live on you like in the past. I will make it better for you than before. Then you will know that I am the Lord. 12Yes, I will lead many people—my people, Israel—to your land. You will be their property. And you won’t take away their children again.”

13The Lord my Master says these things, “Land of Israel, people say bad things to you. They say you destroyed your people. They say you took the children away from your people. 14But you won’t destroy people any more. You won’t take away their children again.” The Lord my Master said those things.

The Lord Will Protect His Own Good Name

16Then the word of the Lord came to me. He said, 17“Son of man,* the family of Israel lived in their own country. But they made that land filthy by the bad things they did. To me, they were like a woman that becomes unclean* because of her monthly time of bleeding. 18They spilled blood on the ground when they murdered people in that land. They made the land filthy with their idols.* So I showed them how angry I was. 19I scattered them among the nations and spread them through all the lands. I gave them the punishment they should have for the bad things they did. But even in those other nations they ruined my good name. How? Those nations said, 'These are the Lord's people, but they left his land. So there must be something wrong with the Lord!'

21'The people of Israel ruined my holy name in the places where they went. And I felt sorry for my name. So tell the family of Israel that the Lord and Master says these things, 'Family of Israel, you ruined my holy name in the places where you went. I am going to do something to stop this. I won't do it for your sake, Israel. I will do it for my holy name. I will show those nations that my great name is truly holy. You ruined my good name in those nations! But I will show you that I am holy. I will make you respect my name. And then those nations will know that I am the Lord.'” The Lord my Master said those things.

24God said, “I will take you out of those nations, gather you together, and bring you back to your own land. Then I will sprinkle pure water on you and make you pure. I will wash away all your filth. I will wash away the filth from those nasty idols and make you pure.”

26God said,” I will also put a new spirit in you and change your way of thinking. I will take out the heart of stone from your body and give you a tender, human heart. And I will put my Spirit inside you.* I will change you so you will obey my laws. You will carefully obey my commands. Then you will live in the land that I gave to your ancestors.* You will be my people, and I will be your God.”

29God said, “Also, I will save you and keep you from becoming unclean.* I will command the grain to grow. I won't bring a time of hunger against you. I will give you large crops of fruit from your trees and the harvest from your fields so you will never again feel the shame of being hungry in a foreign country. You will remember the bad things you did. You will remember that those things were not good. Then you will hate yourselves because of your sins and the terrible things you did.”

32The Lord my Master says, “I want you to remember this: I am not doing these things for your good! I am doing them for my good name! Family of Israel, you should be ashamed and embarrassed about the way you lived!”

33The Lord my Master says these things, “On the day that I wash away your sins, I will bring people back to your cities. Those ruined cities will be built again. People will again begin to work the land so when other people pass by they won’t see ruins any more. They will say, ‘In the past, this land was ruined. But now it is like the garden of Eden. The cities were destroyed. They were ruined and empty. But now they are protected, and there are people living in them.’”

36God said, “Then those nations that are still around you will know I am the Lord and that I built those ruined places again. I planted things in this land that was empty. I am the Lord. I said these things, and I will make them happen!”

37The Lord my Master says these things, “I will also let the family of Israel come to me and ask me to do these things for them. I will make them grow and become many, many people. They will be like flocks of sheep. During the special festivals, Jerusalem is filled with flocks of sheep and goats that have been made holy. In the same way, the cities and ruined places will be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

The Vision of the Dry Bones

37The Lord’s power came on me. The Spirit* of the Lord carried me out of the city, and put me down in the middle of the valley.* The valley was full of dead men’s bones. There were many, many bones lying on the ground in the valley. The Lord made me walk all around among the bones. I saw the bones were very dry.

I will put my Spirit inside you. Or, “I will make my Spirit live among you.”

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

Spirit Or “wind.”

the valley Possibly Jezreel Valley, a fertile area where many battles were fought. It is often called simply, “The Valley.”
Then the Lord my Master said to me, “Son of man, can these bones come to life?”

I answered, “Lord my Master, only you know the answer to that question.”

The Lord my Master said to me, “Speak to those bones for me. Tell those bones, ‘Dry bones, listen to the word of the Lord! The Lord my Master says these things to you: I will cause breath to come into you, and you will come to life! I will put sinews and muscles on you. And I will cover you with skin. Then I will put breath in you, and you will come back to life! Then you will know that I am the Lord and Master.’”

So I spoke to the bones for the Lord, like he said. I was still speaking, when I heard the loud noise. The bones began to rattle, and bone joined together with bone! There before my eyes, I saw sinew and muscles begin to cover the bones. And skin began to cover them. But the bodies didn’t move—there was no breath in them.

Then the Lord my Master said to me, “Speak to the wind for me. Son of man, speak to the wind for me. Tell the wind that the Lord and Master says these things: ‘Wind, come from every direction and breathe air into these dead bodies! Breathe into them and they will come to life again!’”

So I spoke to the wind for the Lord, like he said. And the breath came into the dead bodies. They came to life and stood up. There were many, many men—they were a very large army!

Then the Lord my Master said to me, “Son of man, these bones are like the whole family of Israel. The people of Israel say, ‘Our bones have dried up,* our hope is gone. We have been completely destroyed!’ So, speak to them for me. Tell them the Lord and Master says these things, ‘My people, I will open your graves and bring you up out of your graves. Then I will lead you back to your own land. Then you will know that I am the Lord. You will know that I said these things and that I made them happen.’” The Lord said those things.

Judah and Israel to Become One Again

The word of the Lord came to me again. He said, “Son of man,* get one stick and write this message on it: ‘This stick belongs to Judah and his friends,* the people of Israel.’ Then take another stick and write on it, ‘This stick of Ephraim belongs to Joseph and his friends, the people of Israel.’ Then join those two sticks together. In your hand, they will become one stick.

Your people will ask you to explain what that means. Tell them that the Lord and Master says these things, ‘I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim and his friends, the people of Israel. Then I will put that stick with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick. In my hand, they will become one stick!’

Hold those sticks in your hands in front of you. You wrote those names on those sticks. Tell the people that the Lord and Master says these things: ‘I will take the people of Israel from among the nations where they have gone. I will gather them from all around, and I will bring them into their own land. I will make them one nation in the land on the mountains of Israel. One king will be king for all of them. They won’t continue to be two nations. They won’t be divided into two kingdoms any more. And they won’t continue to make themselves filthy with their idols* and horrible statues or with any of their other crimes. But I will save them from all the places where they have sinned. And I will open your graves and bring you up out of your graves. And then you will then know that I am the Lord. I will put my Spirit* in you and you will come to life again. Then I will lead you back to your own land. Then you will know that I am the Lord. You will know that I said these things and that I made them happen.’” The Lord said those things.

Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” Here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.

breath Or “wind,” or “a spirit.”
wind This could also be translated “breath” or “spirit.”
bones ... dried up This is a way of saying, “We have lost our strength.”

Spirit Or “spirit,” or “wind.”
friends This is a word play. The Hebrew word is like the word meaning “joined together.”
idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.
wash them and make them pure. And they will be my people, and I will be their God.

24"And my servant David will be the king over them. There will be only one shepherd over all of them. They will live by my rules and obey my laws. They will do the things I tell them. 25They will live on the land that I gave to my servant Jacob. Your ancestors* lived in that place. And my people will live there. They and their children, and their grandchildren will live there forever. And David my servant will be their leader forever.

26And I will make a peace agreement with them. This agreement will continue forever. I agree to give them their land. I agree to make them become many, many people. And I agree to put my holy place among them forever.

27My Holy Tent will be with them. Yes, I will be their God and they will be my people.

28And the other nations will know that I am the Lord. And they will know that I make Israel my special people by putting my holy place there among them forever.”

The Message Against Gog

38The word of the Lord came to me. He said, 2"Son of man,* look toward Gog in the land of Magog. He is the most important leader of the nations of Meshech and Tubal. Speak for me against Gog. 3Tell him that the Lord and Master says these things, ‘Gog, you are the most important leader of the nations of Meshech and Tubal! But I am against you. I will capture you and bring you back. I will bring back all the men in your army. I will bring back all the horses and horse soldiers. I will put hooks in your mouths, and I will bring all of you back. All of the soldiers will be wearing their uniforms with all their shields and swords. 5Soldiers from Persia, Ethiopia, and Put will be with them. They will all be wearing their shields and helmets. 6There will also be Gomer with all his groups of soldiers. And there will be the nation of Togarmah* from the far north with all its groups of soldiers. There will be many, many people in that parade of prisoners.

7“Be prepared. Yes, prepare yourself and the armies that have joined with you. You must watch and be ready. 8After a long time you will be called for duty. In the later years you will come into the land that has been healed from war. The people in that land were gathered from many nations and brought back to the mountains of Israel. In the past, the mountains of Israel had been destroyed again and again. But these people will have come back from those other nations. They all will have lived in safety. 9But you will come to attack them. You will come like a storm. You will come like a thundercloud covering the land. You and all your groups of soldiers from many nations will come to attack these people.’”

10The Lord my Master says these things: “At that time, an idea will come into your mind. You will begin to make an evil plan. 11You will say, ‘I will go attack that country that has towns without walls {Israel}. Those people live in peace. They think they are safe. There are not any walls around the cities to protect them. They don’t have any locks on their gates—they don’t even have gates! 12I will defeat those people and take all their valuable things away from them. I will fight against the places that were destroyed but now have people living in them. I will fight against those people {Israel} that were gathered from the nations. Now those people have cattle and property. They live at the crossroads of the world—The powerful countries must travel through that place to get to all the other powerful countries.’

13“Sheba, Dedan, and the businessmen of Tarshish, and all the cities they trade with will ask you, ‘Did you come to capture valuable things? Did you bring your groups of soldiers together to grab those good things and to carry away silver, gold, cattle, and property. Did you come to take all those valuable things?’”

14God said, “Son of man,* speak to Gog for me. Tell him that the Lord and Master says these things: ‘You will come to attack my people while they are living in peace and safety. 15You will come from your place out of

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.
nation of Togarmah Or, “Beth Togarmah.”
the far north. And you will bring many people with you. All of them will ride on horses. You will be a large and a powerful army. You will come to fight against my people Israel. You will be like a thundercloud covering the land. When that time comes, I will bring you to fight against my land. Then, Gog, the nations will learn how powerful I am! They will learn to respect me and know that I am holy. They will see what I will do to you!"

17The Lord my Master says these things, "At that time, people will remember that I spoke about you in the past. They will remember that I used my servants the prophets of Israel. They will remember that the prophets of Israel spoke for me in the past and said that I would bring you to fight against them."

18The Lord my Master said, "At that time, Gog will come to fight against the land of Israel. I will show my anger. In my anger and strong emotions I make this promise: I promise that there will be a strong earthquake in the land of Israel. At that time, all living things will quake (shake) with fear. The fish in the sea, the birds in the air, the wild animals in the fields, and all the little creatures crawling on the ground will shake with fear. The mountains will fall down and the cliffs will collapse. Every wall will fall to the ground!"

21The Lord my Master says, "And on the mountains of Israel, I will call for every kind of terror against Gog. His soldiers will be so scared that they will attack each other and kill each other with their swords. I will punish Gog with diseases and death. I will cause hailstones, fire, and sulfur to rain down on Gog and his groups of soldiers from many nations. Then I will show how great I am. I will prove that I am holy. Many nations will see me do these things and they will learn who I am. Then they will know that I am the Lord."

The Death of Gog and His Army

39"Son of man,* speak against Gog for me. Tell him that the Lord and Master says these things, ‘Gog, you are the most important leader of the countries Meshech and Tubal! But I am against you. I will capture you and bring you back. I will bring you from the far north. I will bring you to fight against the mountains of Israel. But I will fight against the nations with you will be killed in the battle. I will give you as food to every kind of bird that eats meat and to all the wild animals. You will not enter the city. You will be killed out in the open fields. I have spoken!’" The Lord my Master said those things.

6God said, “I will send fire against Magog and those people living along the coast. They think they are safe, but they will know that I am the Lord. And I will make my holy name known among my people Israel. I will not let people ruin my holy name any more. The nations will know that I am the Lord. They will know that I am the Holy One in Israel. That time is coming! It will happen!” The Lord said these things. “That is the day I am talking about.

9"At that time, the people living in the cities of Israel will go out to the fields. They will collect the enemy’s weapons and burn them. They will burn all the shields, bows and arrows, clubs and spears. They will use those weapons as firewood for seven years. They won’t have to gather wood from the fields or chop firewood from the forests because they will use the weapons as firewood. They will take the valuable things from the soldiers that wanted to steal from them. They will take the good things from the soldiers that took good things from them.” The Lord my Master said these things.

11God said, “At that time, I will choose a place in Israel to bury Gog. He will be buried in the Valley of the Travelers,* east of the Dead Sea. It will block the road for travelers. Why? Because Gog and all his army will be buried in that place. People will call it ‘The Valley of Gog’s Army.’ It will take seven months for the family of Israel to bury them. They must do this to make the land pure. 13 The common people will bury those enemy soldiers. And those people will become famous on the day that I bring honor to myself.” The Lord my Master said those things.

14 God said, “Workers will be given a fulltime job burying those dead soldiers to make the land pure. Those workers will work for seven months. They will go around looking for dead bodies. 15 Those workers will go around looking. If one of them sees a bone, then he will put up a marker by it. The sign will stay there until the grave diggers come and bury the bone in the Valley of Gog’s Army. 16 That city of dead people (graveyard) will be named Hamonah.* In this way, they will make the country pure.”

17 The Lord my Master said these things, “Son of man,* speak to all the birds and wild animals for me. Tell them, ‘Come here! Come here! Gather around. Come eat this sacrifice I am preparing for you. There will be a very big sacrifice on the mountains of Israel. Come, eat the meat and drink the blood. 18 You will eat the meat from the bodies of powerful soldiers. You will drink the blood until you are full. You can eat all the fat you want. You can drink blood until you are full. You will eat and drink from my sacrifice which I will kill for you. 20 You will have plenty of meat to eat at my table. There will be horses and chariot drivers, powerful soldiers, and all the other fighting men.” The Lord my Master said those things.

21 God said, “I will let the other nations see what I have done. And those nations will begin to respect me! They will see my power that I used against that enemy. 22 Then from that day on, the family of Israel will know that I am the Lord their God. 23 And the nations will know why the family of Israel was carried away as prisoners to other countries. They will learn that my people turned against me. So I turned away from them and refused to help them.”

25 So the Lord my Master says these things: “Now I will bring the family of Jacob back from captivity. I will have mercy on the whole family of Israel. I will show my strong feelings for my holy name. 26 The people will forget their shame and all the times they turned against me. They will live in safety on their own land. No one will make them afraid. 27 I will bring my people back from other countries. I will gather them from the lands of their enemies. Then many nations will see how holy I am. 28 They will know that I am the Lord their God. Why? Because I made them to leave their homes and go as prisoners to other countries. And then I gathered them together and brought them back to their own land. 29 I will pour my Spirit onto the family of Israel. And after that time, I will never turn away from my people again.” The Lord my Master said those things.

The New Temple

40 In the twenty-fifth year after we were taken away into captivity, at the beginning of the year (October), on the tenth day of the month* the Lord’s power came on me. This was fourteen years after the Babylonians took Jerusalem. On that day, the Lord took me there in a vision.*

2 In a vision,* God carried me to the land of Israel. He put me down near a very high mountain. On that mountain in front of me was a building that looked like a city.* 3 The Lord brought me there. There was a man there that looked shiny like polished bronze. That man had a cloth tape measure and a measuring rod in his hand. He was standing by the gate. 4 The man said to me, “Son of man,* use your

Hamonah This Hebrew word means “crowd.”
Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person,” or “a human being.” Here it is a title for the man, Ezekiel.

tenth day of the month This was the Day of Atonement, 573 B.C. See Lev. 25:9 and Lev. 36:24.
vision(s) Like a dream that God used to speak to people.
On the mountain ... city Or, “On the mountain, there was a building that looked like a city with a city south of it.”
A Reconstruction of the Temple
Described by Ezekiel

The Eastern Gate
in the Outer Courtyard

Copyright © 1992 by World Bible Translation Center eyes and ears. Look at these things and listen to me. Pay attention to everything that I show you. Why? Because you have been brought here so I can show you these things. You must tell the family of Israel all that you see.”

5I saw a wall that went all the way around the outside of the temple.* In the man’s hand there was a ruler for measuring things. It was 6 cubits* long using the long measurement.* So the man measured the thickness of the wall. It was one ruler* thick. The man measured the height of the wall. It was one ruler tall.

6Then the man went to the east gate. The man walked up its steps and measured the opening for the gate. It was one ruler* wide. 7The rooms for the guards were one ruler long and one ruler wide. The walls between the rooms were 5 cubits* thick. The opening by the porch at the end of the gateway that faced the temple was also one ruler wide. 8Then the man measured the porch. It was 8 cubits* long. The man measured the walls on either side of the gate. Each side wall was 2 cubits* wide. The porch was at the end of the gateway that faced the temple. 9There were three little rooms on each side of the gateway. All of these rooms measured the same. And all of their side walls measured the same. 10The man measured the entrance to the gateway. It was 10 cubits* wide and 13 cubits* long. 12There was a low wall in front of each room. That wall was 1 cubit* tall and 1 cubit thick. The rooms were square. Each wall was 6 cubits* long.

13The man measured the gateway from the outside edge of the roof of one room to the outside edge of the roof of the opposite room. It was 25 cubits.* Each door was directly opposite the other door. 14* The man measured the faces of all the side walls, including the side walls on either side of the porch at the courtyard. The total was 60 cubits.* 15From the inside edge of the outer gate to the far end of the porch was 50 cubits.* 16There were small windows* above all the guardrooms, the side walls, and the porch. The wide part of the windows faced into the gateway. There were carvings of palm trees on the walls that were on either side of the gateway.

The Outside Courtyard

17Then the man led me into the outer courtyard. I saw thirty rooms and a pavement that went all the way around the courtyard. The rooms were along the wall and faced in toward the pavement. 18The pavement was as wide as the gates were long. The pavement reached to the inside end of the gateway. This was the lower pavement. 19The man measured the distance from the inside of the lower gateway to the outside of the inner courtyard. It was 100 cubits* on the east side as well as on the north side.

20Then the man measured the length and width of the north gate that was in the wall surrounding the outer courtyard. 21This gateway, its three rooms on each side, and its porch all measured the same as the first gate. The gateway was 50 cubits* long and 25 cubits* wide. 22Its windows, its porch, and its carvings of palm trees measured the same as the east gate. On the outside, there were seven steps leading up to the gate. And its porch was at the inside end of the gateway. 23Across the courtyard from the north gate, there was a gate to the inner courtyard. It was like the gate on the east. The man measured from the gate on the inner wall to the gate on the outer wall. It was 100 cubits* from gate to gate.

---

Notes:

- temple: The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
- 6 cubits: 10' 4" or 3.15m.
- long measurement: Literally, “a cubit and a handbreadth.” This cubit equals 20.67 inches (52.5cm).
- one ruler: That is, 6 cubits (10' 4" or 3.15m).
- 5 cubits: 8' 7 5/16" or 2.625m.
- 8 cubits: 13' 9 5/16" or 4.2m.
- 2 cubits: 3' 5 5/16" or 105cm.
- 10 cubits: 17' 2 11/16" or 5.25m.
- 13 cubits: 22' 4 11/16" or 6.825m.
- 1 cubit: 1' 8 5/8" or 52.5cm.
- 25 cubits: 43' 3/4" or 13.125m.

Verse 14 The meaning of this verse is very uncertain.

- 60 cubits: 103' 4 3/16" or 31.5m.
- 50 cubits: 86' 1 1/2" or 26.25m.
- small windows: These let the soldiers defending the city shoot arrows out at the enemy. The narrow part of the window was on the enemy’s side of the wall to give the smallest target.

- 100 cubits: 172' 3" or 52.5m.
24Then the man led me to the south wall. I saw a gate in the south wall. The man measured its side walls and its porch. They measured the same as the other gates.

25The gateway and its porch had windows all around like the other gates. The gateway was 50 cubits* long and 25 cubits* wide.

26There were seven steps going up to this gate. And its porch was at the inside end of the gateway. It had carvings of palm trees on the walls that were on either side of the gateway.

27A gate was on the south side of the inner courtyard. The man measured from the gate on the inner wall to the gate on the outer wall. It was 100 cubits* from gate to gate.

The Rooms For Preparing Sacrifices

28Then the man led me through the south gate into the inner courtyard. He measured this gate. This gateway measured the same as the other gates to the inner courtyard. Its rooms, side walls, and porch also measured the same as the other gates. There were windows all around gateway and its porch. The gateway was 50 cubits* long and 25 cubits* wide.

29The porch was 25 cubits* wide and 5 cubits* long.

30And its porch was at the end of the gateway next to the outer courtyard. Carvings of palm trees were on the walls on either side of the gateway. There were eight steps leading up to the gate.

The Priests’ Rooms

32Then the man led me into the inner courtyard on the east side. He measured the gate. It measured the same as the other gates. Its rooms, side walls, and porch also measured the same as the other gates. There were windows all around the gateway and its porch. The gateway was 50 cubits* long and 25 cubits* wide.

33And its porch was at the end of the gateway next to the outer courtyard. Carvings of palm trees were on the walls on either side of the gateway. There were eight steps leading up to the gate.

35Then the man led me to the north gate. He measured it. It measured the same as the other gates. Its rooms, side walls, and porch also measured the same as the other gates. There were windows all around gateway and its porch. The gateway was 50 cubits* long and 25 cubits* wide.

37And its porch* was at the end of the gateway next to the outer courtyard. Carvings of palm trees were on the walls on either side of the gateway. There were eight steps leading up to the gate.

38There was a room with a door that opened onto the porch of this gate. This is where the priests wash the animals for the burnt offerings.

39There were two tables on each side of the door of this porch. The animals for the burnt offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings were killed on these tables.

40There were also two tables on each side of the door on the outside wall of this porch. So there were four tables on the inside wall and four tables on the outside wall—eight tables that the priests used when they killed the animals for sacrifices.

42There were also four tables made from cut stone for the burnt offerings. These tables were 1 1/2 cubits* long, 1 1/2 cubits* wide, and 1 cubit* high. On these tables, the priests put their tools that they used to kill the animals for the burnt offerings and other sacrifices.

43There were meat hooks three inches long* on all the walls in this area. The meat of the offerings was put on the tables.

The Inner Courtyard

44There were two rooms in the inner courtyard. One was by the north gate facing south. The other room was by the south gate facing north.

45The man said to me, “The room that looks to the south is for the priests who are on duty and serving in the temple area. But the room that looks to the north is...”

porch Hebrew has “side walls.”
1 1/2 cubits 2' 7" or 78.75cm.
1 cubit 1' 8 5/8" or 52.5cm.
meat hooks ... long Or, “Double shelves three inches wide ....”
south This is from the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew has “east.” for the priests who are on duty and serving at the altar.* The priests are from the family group of Levi. But this second group of priests are the descendants* of Zadok. They are the only people who can carry the sacrifices to the altar to serve the Lord.”*

48 The man measured the inner* courtyard.
The courtyard was a perfect square. It was 100 cubits* long and 100 cubits wide. The altar* was in front of the temple.

The Porch of the Temple 48 Then the man led me to the porch of the temple and measured the walls on either side of the porch. Each side wall was 5 cubits* thick and 3 cubits* wide. And the opening between them was 14 cubits.* 49 The porch was 20 cubits* wide and 12 cubits* long.* Ten steps went up to the porch. There were two columns for the walls on either side of the porch—one at each wall.

The Holy Place of the Temple
41 Then the man led me into the Holy Place. He measured the walls on either side of the room. Those side walls were 6 cubits* thick on each side. The door was 10 cubits* wide. The sides of the doorway were 5 cubits* on each side. The man measured that room. It was 40 cubits* long, and 20 cubits* wide.

The Most Holy Place in the Temple 3 Then the man went into the last room. He measured the walls on either side of the doorway. Each side wall was 2 cubits* thick and 7 cubits* wide. The doorway was 6 cubits* wide. 4 Then the man measured the length of the room. It was 20 cubits* long and 20 cubits* wide. The man said to me, “This is the Most Holy Place.”

Other Rooms around the Temple 5 Then the man measured the wall of the temple. It was 6 cubits* thick. There were side rooms all around the temple. They were 4 cubits* wide. 6 The side rooms were on three different floors, one above the other. There were 30 rooms on each floor. The wall of the temple was built with ledges. The side rooms rested on these ledges but were not attached to the temple wall itself. 7 Each floor of the side rooms around the temple was wider than the floor below. The walls of the rooms around the temple became narrower the higher they went so the rooms on the top floors were wider.
A stairway went up from the lowest floor to the highest floor through the middle floor.

8 I also saw that the temple had a raised base all the way around it. It was the foundation for the side rooms, and it was a full ruler* high.
9 The outer wall of the side rooms was 5 cubits* thick. There was an open area between the side rooms of the temple and the priests’ rooms. It was 20 cubits* wide and went all the way around the temple. 10 The doors of the side rooms opened onto the raised base. There was one entrance on the north side and one entrance on the south side. The raised base was 5 cubits* wide all around.

12 There was a building in this restricted area west of the temple. The building was 70 cubits* wide and 90 cubits* long. The wall of the building was 5 cubits* thick all around. 13 Then the man measured the temple. The temple was 100 cubits* long. The restricted area, including the building and its walls, was also 100 cubits* long. 14 The restricted area on the east side, in front of the temple, was 100 cubits* long.

---

altar(s) A stone table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

descendants A person’s children and their future families.

carry the sacrifices ... to serve the Lord Literally, “approach the Lord to serve him.”

100 cubits 172' 3" or 52.5m.
5 cubits 8' 7 5/16" or 2.625m.
3 cubits 5' 2" or 1.575m.
14 cubits 24' 1 3/8" or 7.35m.
20 cubits 34' 5 3/8" or 10.5m.
12 cubits 20' 8" or 6.3m.
20 ... long Literally, “20 cubits long ... 12 cubits wide.”
6 cubits 10' 4" or 3.15m.
10 cubits 17' 2 11/16" or 5.25m.
40 cubits 68' 10 3/4" or 21m.
2 cubits 3' 5 5/16" or 1.05cm.
7 cubits 12' 11/16" or 3.675m.
4 cubits 6' 10 5/8" or 2.1m.
full ruler That is, 6 cubits (10' 4" or 3.15m).
70 cubits 120' 6 7/8" or 36.75m.
90 cubits 155 1/4" or 47.25m.
The man measured the length of the building in the restricted area at the rear of the temple. It was 100 cubits* from one wall to the other wall.

The Most Holy Place, the Holy Place, and the Porch that looked out onto the inner courtyard had wood paneling on all the walls. All the windows and doors had wood trim around them. By the doorway, the Temple had wood paneling from the floor up to the windows, up to the part of the wall over the doorway.

On all the walls in the inner room and the outer room of the temple were carvings of Cherub angels and palm trees. A palm tree was between Cherub angels. Every Cherub angel had two faces. One face was a man’s face looking toward the palm tree on one side. The other face was a lion’s face looking toward the palm tree on the other side. They were carved all around on the temple. From the floor to the area above the door, Cherub angels and palm trees were carved on all walls of the Holy Place.

The walls on either side of the Holy Place were square. In front of the Most Holy Place, there was something that looked like an altar made from wood. It was 3 cubits high and 2 cubits long. Its corners, its base, and its sides were wood. The man said to me, “This is the table that is before the Lord.”

Both the Holy Place and the Most Holy Place had a double door. Each of the doors was made from two smaller doors. Each door was really two swinging doors. Also Cherub angels and palm trees were carved on the doors of the Holy Place. They were like those carved on the walls. There was a wood roof over the front of the porch. There were windows with frames around them and palm trees on the walls on both sides of the porch, on the roof over the porch, and on the rooms around the temple.

The man led me through the north gate out into the outer courtyard. He led me to a building with many rooms that was west of the restricted area and the building on the north side. This building was 100 cubits* long and 50 cubits* wide. People entered it from the courtyard on the north side. The building was three stories tall and had balconies. The 20-cubit* inner courtyard was between the building and the Temple. On the other side, the rooms faced the pavement of the outer courtyard. There was a path 10 cubits* wide and 100 cubits* long running along the south side of the building, even though the entrance was on the north side.

Since this building was three stories tall and did not have columns like the columns of the outer courtyards, the top rooms were farther back than the rooms on the middle and bottom floors. The top floor was narrower than the middle floor which was narrower than the bottom floor because the balconies used this space. There was a wall outside that was parallel to the rooms and ran along the outer courtyard. It ran in front of the rooms for 50 cubits.* The row of rooms that ran along the outer courtyard was 50 cubits* long, although the total length of the building, as on the Temple side, was 100 cubits* long. The entrance was below these rooms at the east end of the building so people could enter from the outer courtyard.

The entrance was at the start of the wall beside the courtyard.

There were rooms on the south side, by the restricted area and the other building. These rooms had a path in front of them. They were like the rooms on the north side. They had the same length and width and the same kind of doors. The entrance to the lower rooms was at the east end of the building so people could enter from the open end of the path by the wall.

The man said to me, “The north rooms and south rooms across from the restricted area are holy. These rooms are for the priests that offer sacrifices.”
the sacrifices to the Lord. That is where the priests will eat the most holy offerings. And that is where they will put the most holy offerings. Why? Because this place is holy. The most holy offerings are the grain offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings. The priests who enter the holy area must leave their serving clothes in that holy place before they go out into the outer courtyard. Why? Because these clothes are holy. If a priest wants to go to the part of the temple where the other people are, then he must go to those rooms and put on other clothes.

The Outer Courtyard

The man had finished measuring inside the Temple area. Then he brought me out through the east gate and measured all around that area. The man measured the east side with the ruler. It was 500 cubits* long. He measured the north side. It was 500 cubits long. He measured the south side. It was 500 cubits long. He went around to the west side and measured it. It was 500 cubits long. He measured the four walls that went all the way around the temple. The wall was 500 cubits long and 500 cubits wide. It separated the holy area from the area that is not holy.

The Lord Will Live Among His People

The man led me to the east gate. There the Glory of the God of Israel came from the east. God’s voice was loud like the sound of the sea. The ground was bright with the light from the Glory of God. The vision* that I saw was like the vision I saw by the Kebar Canal. I bowed with my face to the ground. The Glory of the Lord came into the temple through the east gate.

Then the Spirit* picked me up and brought me into the inner courtyard. The Glory of the Lord filled the temple. I heard someone speaking to me from inside the temple. The man was still standing beside me. The voice from the temple said to me, “Son of man,* this is the place with my throne and footstool. I will live in this place among the people of Israel forever. The family of Israel won’t ruin my holy name again. The kings and their people won’t bring shame to my name by doing sexual sins* or by burying the dead bodies of their kings in this place. They won’t bring shame to my name by putting their threshold next to my threshold, and their doorpost next to my door post. In the past, only a wall separated them from me. So they brought shame to my name every time they sinned and did those terrible things. That is why I became angry and destroyed them. Now let them take their sexual sins and the dead bodies of their kings far away from me. Then I will live among them forever.

Now, Son of man,* tell the family of Israel about the temple. Then, when they learn about the plans for the temple, they will be ashamed of their sins. And they will be ashamed of all the bad things they have done. Let them know the design of the temple. Let them know how it should be built, where the entrances and exits are, and all the designs on it. Teach them about all its rules and all its laws. And write down these things for everyone to see so they can obey all the laws and rules for the temple. This is the law of the temple: The whole area on the top of the mountain within these boundaries is most holy. This is the law of the temple.

The Altar

And these are the measurements of the altar* in cubits using the long measurement.* There was a gutter all the way around the base of the altar. It was 1 cubit* deep, and each side was 1 cubit wide. There was a rim around the edge 1 span* high. And this was how tall the altar was: From the ground to the lower ledge, the base measures 2 cubits.* It was 1 cubit* wide. It measures 4 cubits* from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge. It was 2 cubits wide.

15The place for the fire on the altar was 4 cubits high. The four corners were shaped like horns.

16The place for the fire on the altar was 12 cubits* long by 12 cubits wide. It was perfectly square.

17The ledge was also square, 14 cubits* long by 14 cubits wide. The border around it was 1/2 cubit* wide. (The gutter around the base was 2 cubits wide.) The steps going up to the altar were on the east side.”

18Then the man said to me, “Son of man,* the Lord and Master says these things: ‘These are the rules for the altar:* At the time you build the altar, use these rules to offer burnt offerings and to sprinkle blood on it. 19You will give a young bull as a sin offering to the men from Zadok’s family. These men are the priests from the family group of Levi. They are the men who serve me by bringing the offerings to me.’” The Lord my Master said these things.

20“You will take some of the bull’s blood and put it on the altar’s four horns, on the four corners of the ledge, and on the rim around it. In this way, you will make the altar pure. 21Then take the bull for the sin offering and burn it in the proper place in the temple area, outside the Temple building. 22On the second day you will offer a male goat that has nothing wrong with it. It will be for a sin offering. The priests will make the altar* pure the same way they made it pure with the bull. 23When you have finished making the altar pure you will offer a young bull that has nothing wrong with it and a ram* from the flock that has nothing wrong in it. 24Then you will offer them before the Lord. The priests will sprinkle salt on them. Then the priests will offer the bull and ram up as a burnt offering to the Lord. 25You will prepare a goat every day for seven days for a sin offering. Also, you will prepare a young bull and a ram from the flock. These animals must have nothing wrong with them. 26For seven days the priests will make the altar pure and ready for use in worshiping God. 27After seven days, on the eighth day, the priests must offer your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on the altar. Then I will accept you.” The Lord my Master said these things.

44Then the man brought me back to the east gate of the temple area. We were outside the gate and the gate was shut. 2The Lord said to me, “This gate will stay shut. It won’t be opened. No one will enter through it. Why? Because the Lord of Israel has entered through it. So it must stay shut. 3Only the ruler of the people may sit at this gate when he eats a meal with the Lord. He must enter through the porch of the gateway and go out the same way.”

4Then the man led me through the north gate to the front of the temple. I looked and saw the Glory of the Lord filling the Lord’s temple. I bowed with my face touching the ground. 5The Lord said to me, “Son of man,* look very carefully! Use your eyes and ears. Look at these things. And listen very carefully to everything that I tell you about all the rules and laws about the Lord’s temple. Look carefully at the entrances to the temple and at all the exits from the holy place. 6Then give this message to all the people of Israel that refused to obey me. Tell them, ‘The Lord my Master says these things: Family of Israel, I have had enough of the terrible things you have done! 7You brought foreigners into my temple—and those people were not truly circumcised*—they did not give themselves completely to me. In this way you made my temple unclean. You broke our truth circumcised Literally, “they were not circumcised in their heart or in their body.” This was done to every male to show he shared in the Agreement God made with Israel. See Gen. 17:9–14. agreement and did terrible things, and then you gave me the offerings of bread, the fat, and the blood. But this only made my temple unclean. 8You did not take care of my holy things. No, you let foreigners have responsibility of my holy place!”

9The Lord my Master says these things, “A foreigner that is not truly circumcised* must not come into my temple—not even a foreigner living permanently among the people of Israel. He must be circumcised and he must give himself completely to me, before he can come into my temple. 10In the past, the Levites left me when Israel turned away from me. Israel left me to follow their idols.* The Levites will be punished for their sin. 11The Levites were chosen to serve in my holy place. They guarded the gates of the temple. They served in the temple. They killed the animals for the sacrifices and burnt offerings for the people. They were chosen to help the people and to serve them. 12But those Levites helped the people sin against me! They helped the people worship their idols! So I am making this promise against them: ‘They will be punished for their sin.”’ The Lord my Master said this.

13“So the Levites will not bring offerings to me like the priests. They won’t come near any of my holy things or the things that are most holy. They must carry their shame because of the terrible things that they did. 14But I will let them take care of the temple. They will work in the temple and do the things that must be done in it.

15“The priests are all from the family group of Levi. But only priests from Zadok’s family took care of my holy place when the people of Israel turned away from me. So only Zadok’s descendants will bring offerings to me. They will stand before me to offer me the fat and the blood from the animals they sacrifice.” The Lord my Master said those things! 16“They will enter my holy place. They will come near my table to serve me. They will take care of the things I gave them. 17When they enter the gates of the inner courtyard, they will wear linen clothes. They won’t wear wool while they serve at the gates of the inner courtyard and in the temple. 18They will wear linen turbans* on their heads. And they will wear linen underwear. They won’t wear anything that makes them sweat. 19Before they go out into the outer courtyard to the people, they will take off the clothes they wear while serving me. They will put these clothes away in the holy rooms. Then they will put on other clothes. In this way, they will not let people touch those holy clothes.

20“These priests won’t shave their heads or let their hair grow long. [This would show they are sad, and the priests must be happy about serving the Lord.] The priests may only trim the hair of their heads. 21None of the priests may drink wine when they go into the inner courtyard. 22The priests must not marry a widow* or a divorced woman. No, they must marry only a virgin* from the family of Israel or a woman whose dead husband was a priest.

23“Also, the priests must teach my people the difference between the holy things and the things that are not holy. They must help my people know what is clean and what is unclean. 24The priests will be the judges in court. They will follow my laws when they judge people. They will obey my laws and my rules at all my special feasts. They will respect my special days of rest and keep them holy. 25They won’t go near a dead person to make themselves unclean. But they may make themselves unclean if the dead person is their father, mother, son, daughter, brother, or a sister that is not married. 26This will make the priest unclean. After the priest has been made clean, he must wait seven days. 27Then he can go back into the holy place. But on the day he goes into the inner courtyard to serve in the holy place, he must offer a sin *truly circumcised: Literally, “they were not circumcised in their heart or in their body.” This was done to every male to show he shared in the Agreement God made with Israel. See Gen. 17:9–14.

*idols: Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

*turban(s): A head covering made by wrapping a long piece of cloth around the head or around a cap worn on the head.

*widow: A woman whose husband has died.

*virgin: A pure young woman that has not had sexual relations with anyone.
offering for himself.” The Lord my Master said these things.

28 “About the land that will belong to the Levites: I am their property. You won’t give the Levites any property (land) in Israel. I am their share in Israel. 29 They will get to eat the grain offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings. Everything the people in Israel give to the Lord will be theirs. 30 And the first part of the harvest from every kind of crop will be for the priests. You will also give the priests the first of your dough. This will bring blessings to your house. 31 The priests must not eat any bird or animal that died a natural death or had been torn to pieces by a wild animal.

The Division of the Land for Holy Use

45 “You will divide the land for the Israelite family groups by throwing lots. At that time, you will separate a part of the land. It will be a holy part for the Lord. The land will be 25,000 cubits long and 20,000 cubits wide. All of this land will be holy. 2 A square area that is 500 cubits long on each side will be for the temple. There will be an open space around the temple that is 50 cubits wide. 3 In the holy area you will measure 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide. The temple will be in this area. The temple area will be the Most Holy Place.

4 This holy part of the land will be for the priests, the servants of the temple, where they come near to serve the Lord. It will be a place for the priests’ houses and a place for the temple. 5 Another area, 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide, will be for the Levites who serve in the temple. This land will also belong to the Levites for their cities to live in.

6 “And you will give the city an area that is 5,000 cubits wide and 25,000 cubits long. It will be along the side of the holy area. It will be for all the family of Israel. 7 The ruler will have land on both sides of the holy area and of the land belonging to the city. It will be in the area between the holy area and the area belonging to the city. It will be the same width as the land that belongs to a family group. It will go all the way from the west border to the east border. 8 This land will be the ruler’s property in Israel. So the ruler won’t need to make life hard for my people any more. But they will give the land to the Israelites for their family groups.”

9 The Lord my Master said these things, “Enough, you rulers of Israel! Stop being cruel and stealing things from people! Be fair and do good things! Stop forcing my people out from their homes!” The Lord my Master said these things.

10 “Stop cheating people. Use accurate scales and measures! 11 The ephah (a dry measure) and the bath (a liquid measure) must be the same size: A bath and an ephah must both equal 1/10 homer. Those measures will be based on the homer. 12 A shekel must equal 20 gerahs. A mina must equal 60 shekels. It must be equal to 20 shekels plus 25 shekels plus 15 shekels.

13 “This is a special offering that you must give:

1/6 ephah* of wheat for every homer* of wheat;
1/6 ephah of barley for every homer of barley;
1/10 bath* of olive oil for every cor* of olive oil;
Remember: Ten baths make a homer. Ten baths make a cor.

And one sheep for every 200 sheep from every watering hole in Israel.

The Division of the Land for Holy Use

45 “You will divide the land for the Israelite family groups by throwing lots. At that time, you will separate a part of the land. It will be a holy part for the Lord. The land will be 25,000 cubits long and 20,000 cubits wide. All of this land will be holy. 2 A square area that is 500 cubits long on each side will be for the temple. There will be an open space around the temple that is 50 cubits wide. 3 In the holy area you will measure 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide. The temple will be in this area. The temple area will be the Most Holy Place.

4 This holy part of the land will be for the priests, the servants of the temple, where they come near to serve the Lord. It will be a place for the priests’ houses and a place for the temple. 5 Another area, 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide, will be for the Levites who serve in the temple. This land will also belong to the Levites for their cities to live in.

6 “And you will give the city an area that is 5,000 cubits wide and 25,000 cubits long. It will be along the side of the holy area. It will be for all the family of Israel. 7 The ruler will have land on both sides of the holy area and of the land belonging to the city. It will be in the area between the holy area and the area belonging to the city. It will be the same width as the land that belongs to a family group. It will go all the way from the west border to the east border. 8 This land will be the ruler’s property in Israel. So the ruler won’t need to make life hard for my people any more. But they will give the land to the Israelites for their family groups.”

9 The Lord my Master said these things, “Enough, you rulers of Israel! Stop being cruel and stealing things from people! Be fair and do good things! Stop forcing my people out from their homes!” The Lord my Master said these things.

10 “Stop cheating people. Use accurate scales and measures! 11 The ephah (a dry measure) and the bath (a liquid measure) must be the same size: A bath and an ephah must both equal 1/10 homer. Those measures will be based on the homer. 12 A shekel must equal 20 gerahs. A mina must equal 60 shekels. It must be equal to 20 shekels plus 25 shekels plus 15 shekels.

13 “This is a special offering that you must give:

1/6 ephah* of wheat for every homer* of wheat;
1/6 ephah of barley for every homer of barley;
1/10 bath* of olive oil for every cor* of olive oil;
Remember: Ten baths make a homer. Ten baths make a cor.

And one sheep for every 200 sheep from every watering hole in Israel.

lots Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.
25,000 cubits 8.12 miles or 13.125km.
20,000 cubits 6.52 miles or 10.5km. This is from the Greek translation. The Hebrew has 10,000 cubits (3.26 miles or 5.25km).
500 cubits 861' 3" or 262.5m.
50 cubits 86' 1 1/2" or 26.25m.
10,000 cubits 3.26 miles or 5.25km.
5,000 cubits 1.63 miles or 2.625km.

homer A measure that equals about 6 bushels or 48.4 gallons or 220 liters.
shekel A weight equal to 2/5 of an ounce or 11.5 grams. This also this became an amount of money too.
1/6 ephah 14 cups or 3.67 liters.
1/10 bath 1/2 gallon or 2.2 liters.
cor 55 gallons or 220 liters.
“Those special offerings are for the grain offerings, for the burnt offerings, and for the fellowship offerings. These offerings are to make the people pure.” The Lord my Master said these things.

16 “Every person in the country will give to this offering for the ruler of Israel. 17 But the ruler must give the things needed for the special holy days. The ruler must provide the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the drink offerings for the feast days, for the New Moons, for the Sabbaths, and for all the special feasts of the family of Israel. The ruler must give all the sin offerings, grain offerings, burnt offerings, and fellowship offerings that are used to make the family of Israel pure.”

18 The Lord my Master says these things, “In the first month, on the first day of the month, you will take a young bull that has nothing wrong with it. You must use that bull to make the temple pure. 19 The priest will take some of the blood from the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the temple and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar,* and on the posts of the gate to the inner courtyard. 20 You will do the same thing on the seventh day of that month for any person who has sinned by mistake or by not knowing it. So you will make the temple pure.

Offerings During the Passover Feast

21 “On the 14th day of the first month you must celebrate the Passover. The festival of unleavened bread* begins at this time. That festival continues for seven days. 22 At that time, the ruler will offer a bull for himself and for all the people of Israel. The bull will be for a sin offering. 23 During the seven days of the feast the ruler will offer seven bulls and seven rams* that have nothing wrong with them. They will be burnt offerings to the Lord. The ruler will offer one bull on every day of the seven days of the festival. And he will offer a male goat every day for a sin offering. 24 The ruler will give an ephah* of barley‡ with each ram. And the ruler must give a hin* of oil for each ephah* of grain. 25 The ruler must do the same thing for the seven days of the Festival of Shelters. This festival begins on the 15th day of the seventh month. These offerings will be the sin offering, the burnt offering, the grain offering and the oil offering.”

The Ruler and the Festivals

46 The Lord my Master says these things, “The east gate of the inner courtyard will be closed on the six working days. But it will be opened on the Sabbath* day and on the day of the New Moon. 2 The ruler will go into the porch of that gate and stand by the gatepost. Then the priests will offer the ruler’s burnt offering and fellowship offerings. The ruler will worship at the opening of that gate. Then he will go out. But the gate will not be shut until evening. 3 On the Sabbath day and on the day of the New Moon, the common people will also worship the Lord at that gate.

4 The ruler will offer burnt offerings to the Lord on the Sabbath.* He must provide six lambs that have nothing wrong with them, and a ram* that has nothing wrong with it. 5 He must give an ephah* of grain offering with the ram. As for the grain offering with the lambs, the ruler can give as much as he wants. But he must give 1 hin* of olive oil for each ephah of grain.

6 On the day of the New Moon he must offer a young bull that has nothing wrong it. He will also offer six lambs and a ram that have nothing wrong with them. 7 The ruler must give an ephah* of grain offering with the bull, and an ephah of grain offering with the ram. As for the grain offering with the lambs, the ruler can give as much as he wants. But he must give 1 hin* of olive oil for each ephah of grain.

8 When the ruler goes in, he must enter at the porch of the east gate—and he must leave that same way.

9 When the common people come to meet with the Lord at the special feasts, the person who enters through the north gate to worship

---

Notes:

- altar(s) A stone table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
- unleavened bread Bread made without yeast.
- ram(s) A male sheep.
- ephah A dry measure (3/5 bushel or 22 liters).
- hin A liquid measure (1 gallon or 2.2 liters).
- Sabbath Saturday, a special day of rest and worship for Jews.
- ram(s) A male sheep.
will go out through the south gate. The person who enters through the south gate will go out through the north gate. No one will return the same way he entered. Each person must go out straight ahead. 10 The ruler should be there among the people. When the people go in, the ruler will go in with them. When they go out, the ruler will go out.

11 “At the feasts and other special meetings, an ephah* of grain offering must be offered with each young bull. And an ephah of grain offering must be offered with each ram. As for the grain offering with the lambs, the ruler can give as much as he wants. But he must give 1 hin* of olive oil for each ephah of grain.

12 When the ruler gives a freewill offering to the Lord—it might be a burnt offering, a fellowship offering, or a freewill offering—the east gate will be opened for him. Then he will offer his burnt offering and his fellowship offerings like he does on the Sabbath* day. After he leaves, the gate will be shut.

The Daily Offering
13 “Every day you will provide a year-old lamb that has nothing wrong with it. It will be for a burnt offering to the Lord. You will provide it every morning. 14 Also, you will offer a grain offering with the lamb every morning. You will give 1/6 ephah* of flour and 1/3 hin* of oil to make the fine flour moist. It will be the daily grain offering to the Lord. 15 So they will give the lamb, the grain offering and the oil every morning, for a burnt offering forever.”

Laws of Inheritance for the Ruler
16 The Lord my Master says these things, “If the ruler gives a gift from part of his land to any of his sons, it will belong to his sons. It is their property. 17 But if the ruler gives a gift from part of his land to one of his slaves, the gift will belong to the slave only until the year of freedom.* Then the gift will go back to the ruler. Only the ruler’s sons will keep a gift of land from the ruler. 18 And the ruler will not take any of the people’s land or force them to leave their land. He must give some of his own land to his sons. In that way, my people will not be forced to lose their land.”

The Special Kitchens
19 The man led me through the entrance at the side of the gate. He led me to the holy rooms for the priests on the north side. There I saw a place at the west end of the path. 20 The man said to me, “This is the place where the priests will boil the guilt offering and the sin offering. It is where the priests will bake the grain offering. Why? So they will not need to bring these offerings out into the outer courtyard. So they will not bring those holy things out where the common people are.”

21 Then the man led me out to the outer courtyard. He led me to the four corners of the courtyard. I saw smaller courtyards in each corner of the large courtyard. 22 There was a small, enclosed area in each of the four corners of the courtyard. Each small courtyard was 40 cubits* long and 30 cubits* wide. The four areas measured the same. 23 There was a brick wall around each of the four small courtyards. And there were places built into the brick walls for cooking. 24 The man said to me, “These are the kitchens where the people that serve at the temple cook the sacrifices for the people.”

The Water Flowing From the Temple
47 The man led me back to the entrance of the temple. I saw water coming out from under the east gate of the temple. (The front of the temple is on the east side.) The water flowed down from under the south end of the temple and ran south of the altar.* 2 The man led me out through the north gate and ephah A dry measure (3/5 bushel or 22 liters).

hin A liquid measure (1 gallon or 2.2 liters).
Sabbath Saturday, a special day of rest and worship for the Jews.
1/6 ephah 14 cups or 3.67 liters.
year of freedom Also called “Jubilee.” Every 50 years the Israelites were to set their slaves free if they were Israelites. Also the people gave all the land back to the Israelite family that originally owned the land.
40 cubits 68' 10 3/4" or 21m.
30 cubits 51' 8 11/16" or 15.75m.
altar(s) A stone table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
then around the outside to the outer gate on the east side. The water was flowing out on the south side of the gate.

3 The man walked east with a tape measure in his hand. He measured 1,000 cubits.* Then he told me to walk through the water at that place. The water was only ankle deep. 4 The man measured another 1,000 cubits. Then he told me to walk through the water at that place. There, the water came up to my knees. Then he measured another 1,000 cubits and told me to walk through the water at that place. There, the water was waist deep.

5 The man measured another 1,000 cubits. But there the water was too deep to cross. It had become a river. The water was deep enough to swim in. It was a river that was too deep to cross. 6 Then the man said to me, “Son of Man,* did you pay close attention to the things you saw?”

Then the man led me back along the side of the river. 7 As I walked back along the side of the river, I saw very many trees on both sides of the water. 8 The man said to me, “This water flows east, down to the Arabah Valley. 9 This water flows into the Dead Sea so the water in that sea becomes fresh and clean. There are many fish in this water. And all kinds of animals live where this river goes. 10 You can see fishermen standing by the river all the way from En Gedi to En Eglaim. You can see them throwing their fishing nets and catching many kinds of fish. There are as many kinds of fish in the Dead Sea as there are in the Mediterranean Sea. 11 But the swamps and small areas of wet land will not become fresh. They will be left for salt. 12 All kinds of fruit trees will grow on both sides of the river. Their leaves never will become dry and fall. The fruit will never stop growing on those trees. The trees will produce fruit every month. Why? Because the water for the trees comes from the temple. The fruit from the trees will be for food, and their leaves will be for healing.”

Division of the Land for the Family Groups

13 The Lord my Master says these things, “These are the borders for dividing the land among the twelve family groups of Israel. Joseph will have two parts. 14 You will divide the land equally. I promised to give this land to your ancestors.* So I am giving this land to you.

15 “Here are the borders of the land: On the north side, it goes from the Mediterranean Sea by the way of Hethlon where the road turns toward Hamath, and on to Zedad, 16 Berothah, Sibraim (which is on the border between Damascus and Hamath) and Hazer Hatticon, which is on the border of Hauran. 17 So the border will go from the sea to Hazar Enan on the northern border of Damascus, and Hamath. This will be on the north side.

18 “On the east side, the border will go from Hazar Enan between Hauran and Damascus and continue along the Jordan River between Gilead and the land of Israel, to the eastern sea and all the way to Tamar. This will be the eastern border.

19 “On the south side, the border will go from Tamar all the way to the oasis at Meribah-kadesh. Then it will go along the Brook of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea. This will be the southern border.

20 “On the west side, the Mediterranean Sea will be the border all the way to the area in front of Lebo Hamath. This will be your western border.

21 “So you will divide this land among you for the family groups of Israel. 22 You will divide it as a property for yourselves and for the foreigners who live among you and who have had children among you. These foreigners will be residents—they will be like natural born Israelites. You will divide some land for them among the family groups of Israel. 23 The family group where that resident lives must give him some land.” The Lord my Master said these things!

---

1,000 cubits 1/3 mile or .525km.

Son of Man This was usually just a way of saying “a person.” or “a human being.” But here this is a title for the man, Ezekiel.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
The Land for the Family Groups of Israel

The northern border goes east from the Mediterranean Sea, to Hethlon to Hamath Pass, and then all the way to Hazar Enan. This is on the border between Damascus and Hamath. The land for the family groups in this group will go from the east of these borders to the west. From north to south, the family groups in this area are: Dan, Asher, Naphtali, Manasseh, Ephraim, Reuben, Judah.

The Special Section of Land

The next area of land will be for a special use. This land is south of Judah’s land. This area is 25,000 cubits long from north to south. And from east to west, it will be as wide as the land that belongs to the other family groups. The temple will be in the middle of this section of land. You will dedicate this land to the Lord. It will be 25,000 cubits long and 20,000 cubits wide. This special area of land will be divided among the priest and Levites.

The priests will get one part of this area. The land will be 25,000 cubits long on the north side, 10,000 cubits wide on the west side, 10,000 cubits wide on the east side, and 25,000 cubits long on the south side. The Lord’s temple will be in the middle of this area of land. This land is for Zadok’s descendants. These men were chosen to be my holy priests. Why? Because they continued to serve me when the other people of Israel left me. Zadok’s family did not leave me like the other people from the family group of Levi.

The Levites will have a share of the land. It will be 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide. They will get the full length and width of this land—25,000 cubits long and 20,000 cubits wide. The Levites will not sell or trade any of this land. They will not be able to sell any of this land. They must not cut up this part of the country! Why? Because this land belongs to the Lord—it is very special. It is the best part of the land.

The Shares for the City Property

There will be an area of land 5,000 cubits wide by 25,000 cubits long that is left over from the land given to the priests and Levites. This land can be for the city, for grasslands for animals and for building houses. The common people may use this land. The city will be in the middle of it. These are the city’s measurements: The north side will be 4,500 cubits. The south side will be 4,500 cubits. The east side will be 4,500 cubits. The west side will be 4,500 cubits. The city will have grasslands. These grasslands will be 250 cubits on the north and 250 cubits on the south. They will be 250 cubits on the east and 250 cubits on the west. What is left of the length along the side of the holy area will be 10,000 cubits on the east and 10,000 cubits on the west. This land will be along the side of the holy area. This land will grow food for the city workers. The city workers will till this land. The workers will be from all the family groups of Israel.

This special area of land will be square. It will be 25,000 cubits long by 25,000 cubits wide. You must set apart this area for its special purposes. One part is for the priests. One part is for the Levites. And one part is for the city.

Part of that special land will be for the ruler of the country. That special area of land is square. It is 25,000 cubits long by 25,000 cubits wide. Part of this special land is for the priests and part of it is for the Levites, and part of it is for the temple. The temple is in the middle of this area of land. The rest of the land belongs to the ruler of the country. The ruler will get the area between the land of Benjamin and the land of Judah.

---

Units of Measurement:
- 25,000 cubits = 8.12 miles or 13.125 km.
- 20,000 cubits = 6.52 miles or 10.5 km. (Most Greek copies have 25,000 cubits and Hebrew has 10,000 cubits. But see Ez.45:1.)
- 10,000 cubits = 3.26 miles or 5.25 km.
- 5,000 cubits = 1.63 miles or 2.625 km.
- 4,500 cubits = 1.47 miles or 2.36 km.
- 250 cubits = 430’ 7 1/2” or 131.25 m.
EZEKIEL 48:23–35

23–27 "South of this special area will be the land for the family groups that lived east of the Jordan River. Each family group will get a section of land that goes from the eastern border to the Mediterranean Sea. From north to south, these family groups are: Benjamin, Simeon, Issachar, Zebulun, and Gad.

28 “The south border of Gad’s land will go from Tamar to the Oasis of Meribah-kadesh, then along the Brook of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea. 29 And that is the land that you will divide among the family groups of Israel. That is what each group will get.” The Lord my Master said these things!

The Gates of the City

30 “These are the gates of the city. The gates will be named for the family groups of Israel.

31 “The north side of the city will be 4,500 cubits* long. There will be three gates: Reuben’s Gate, Judah’s Gate, and Levi’s Gate.

32 “The east side of the city will be 4,500 cubits* long. There will be three gates: Joseph’s Gate, Benjamin’s Gate, and Dan’s Gate.

33 “The south side of the city will be 4,500 cubits* long. There will be three gates: Simeon’s Gate, Issachar’s Gate, and Zebulun’s Gate.

34 “The west side of the city will be 4,500 cubits* long. There will be three gates: Gad’s Gate, Asher’s Gate, and Naphtali’s Gate.

35 “The distance around the city will be 18,000 cubits.* From now on, the name of the city will be THE LORD IS THERE.*

---

4,500 cubits 1.47 miles or 2.36km.
18,000 cubits 5.87 miles or 9.45km.

THE LORD IS THERE  In Hebrew this name sounds like Jerusalem.
Daniel

Daniel Taken to Babylon

Nebuchadnezzar was the king of Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar came to Jerusalem. Nebuchadnezzar surrounded Jerusalem with his army. This happened during the third year that Jehoiakim was king of Judah. The Lord allowed Nebuchadnezzar to defeat Jehoiakim king of Judah. Nebuchadnezzar took all of the dishes and other things from God’s temple. Nebuchadnezzar carried those things to Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar put those things in the temple of his idol gods.

Then King Nebuchadnezzar gave Ashpenaz an order. (Ashpenaz was the most important leader of all the eunuchs that served the king.) The king told Ashpenaz to bring some of the Jewish men into his house. Nebuchadnezzar wanted Jewish men from important families and from the family of the king of Israel. King Nebuchadnezzar wanted only healthy young Jewish men. The king wanted young men that did not have any bruises or scars, or anything wrong with their bodies. The king wanted handsome, smart young men. The king wanted young men that were able to learn things quickly and easily. The king wanted young men that were able to serve in his house. The king told Ashpenaz to teach those young men from Israel the language and writings of the Chaldean people.

King Nebuchadnezzar gave those young men a certain amount of food and wine every day. That was the same kind of food that the king ate. The king wanted those young men from Israel to be trained for three years. Then after three years, the young men would become servants of the king of Babylon. Among those young men were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah. These young men were from the family group of Judah.

Then Ashpenaz gave those young men from Judah Babylonian names. Daniel’s new name was Belteshazzar. Hananiah’s new name was Shadrach. Mishaël’s new name was Meshach. And Azariah’s new name was Abednego.

Daniel did not want to eat the king’s rich food and wine. Daniel did not want to make himself unclean with that food and wine. So he asked Ashpenaz for permission not to make himself unclean in this way.

God made Ashpenaz want to be good and kind to Daniel. But Ashpenaz said to Daniel, “I am afraid of my master, the king. The king ordered me to give you this food and drink. If you don’t eat this food, then you will begin to look weak and sick. You will look worse than other young men your age. The king will see this, and he will become angry at me. He might cut off my head! And it would be your fault.”

Then Daniel talked to their guard. Ashpenaz had ordered the guard to watch Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah.

Daniel said to the guard, “Please give us this test for ten days: Don’t give us anything but vegetables to eat and water to drink.”

---

third year ... Judah This is probably 605 B.C.
eunuchs Men whose testicles have been removed. Rulers often gave such men important positions.
Chaldean people An important family group in Babylon. The king of Babylon was from this family group. The Chaldeans were educated people—they studied science, history, languages, and astronomy. But they also believed they could do magic and look at the stars to learn what would happen in the future.
unclean See Lev. 11-15 for the rules about clean and unclean things.
Then after ten days, compare us with the other young men who eat the king’s food. See for yourself who looks healthier. Then you judge for yourself how you want to treat us. We are your servants.”

So the guard agreed to test Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah for ten days. After ten days, Daniel and his friends looked healthier than all of the young men that ate the king’s food. So the guard continued to take away the king’s special food and wine and to give vegetables to Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.

God gave Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah the wisdom and ability to learn many different kinds of writing and science. Daniel could also understand all kinds of visions* and dreams.

The king wanted all the young men to be trained for three years. At the end of that time, Ashpenaz brought all of the young men to King Nebuchadnezzar. The king talked to them. The king found that none of the young men were as good as Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. So those four young men became the king’s servants. Every time the king asked them about something important, they showed much wisdom and understanding. The king found they were ten times better than all the magic men and wise men in his kingdom. So Daniel continued to be the king’s servant until the first year that Cyrus was king.*

Nebuchadnezzar’s Dream

During Nebuchadnezzar’s second year as king, he had some dreams. Those dreams bothered him and he could not sleep. So the king called his wise men to come to him. Those men used magic tricks and they watched the stars. They did this to try to interpret dreams and to learn what will happen in the future. The king wanted those men to tell him what he had dreamed. So they came in and stood in front of the king.

Then the king said to those men, “I had a dream that bothers me. I want to know what the dream means.”

Then the Chaldeans* answered the king. They spoke in the Aramaic language.* They said, “King, live forever! We are your servants. Please tell us your dream, then we will tell you what it means.”

Then King Nebuchadnezzar said to those men, “No! You must tell me the dream. And then you must tell me what it means. If you don’t do these things, then I will give an order for you to be cut into pieces. And I will order your houses to be destroyed until they become piles of dust and ashes. But if you tell me my dream and explain the meaning, then I will give you gifts, rewards, and great honor. So tell me about my dream and tell me what it means.”

Again the wise men said to the king, “Please, sir, tell us about the dream, and we will tell you what the dream means.”

Then King Nebuchadnezzar answered, “I know that you are trying to get more time. You know that I meant what I said. You know that you will be punished if you don’t tell me about my dream. So you have all agreed to lie to me. You are hoping for more time. You are hoping that I will forget what I want you to do. Now, tell me the dream. If you can tell me the dream, then I will know that you can tell me what it really means!”

The Chaldeans* answered the king. They said, “There is not a man on earth that can do what the king is asking! No king has ever asked the wise men or the men that do magic or the Chaldeans to do something like this. Not even the greatest and most powerful king ever asked his wise men to do something like this. The king is asking something that is too hard to do. Only the gods could tell the king his dream and what it means. But the gods don’t live with people.”

Chaldean(s) An important family group in Babylonia. Sometimes this name means simply “People from Babylonia.”

Aramaic language This was the official language of the Babylonian Empire. People from many countries also used this language when they wrote official letters to people in other countries. The text of Daniel from here to Daniel 7:28 is written in Aramaic.
When the king heard that, he became very angry. So he gave an order for all the wise men of Babylon to be killed. King Nebuchadnezzar’s order was announced. All the wise men were to be killed. The king’s men were sent to look for Daniel and his friends to kill them.

Arioch was the commander of the king’s guards. He was going to kill the wise men of Babylon. But Daniel talked to him. Daniel spoke to Arioch in a wise and polite way. Daniel said to Arioch, “Why did the king order such a severe punishment?”

Then Arioch explained the whole story about the king’s dreams, and Daniel understood. When Daniel heard the story, he went to King Nebuchadnezzar. Daniel asked the king to give him some more time. Then he would tell the king about the dream and what it meant.

So Daniel went to his house. He explained the whole story to his friends Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. Daniel asked his friends to pray to the God of heaven. Daniel asked them to pray that God would be kind to them and help them understand this secret. Then Daniel and his friends would not be killed with the other wise men of Babylon.

During the night, God explained the secret to Daniel in a vision. Then Daniel praised the God of heaven. Daniel said:

“Praise God’s name for ever and ever!
Power and wisdom belong to him!
He changes the times and seasons.
And he changes the kings.
He gives power to kings,
and he takes their power away!
He gives wisdom to people
so they become wise,
He lets people learn things
and become wise.
He knows hidden secrets
that are hard to understand.
Light lives with him,
so he knows what is in the dark and secret places!

God of my ancestors,*
I thank you and praise you!
You gave me wisdom and power.
You told us the things we asked for!
You told us about the king’s dream.”

Daniel Tells What the Dream Means

Then Daniel went to Arioch. King Nebuchadnezzar had chosen Arioch to kill the wise men of Babylon. Daniel said to Arioch, “Don’t kill the wise men of Babylon. Take me to the king. I will tell him about his dream and what it means.”

So very quickly, Arioch took Daniel to the king. Arioch said to the king, “I have found a man among the captives* from Judah. He can tell the king what his dream means.”

The king asked Daniel (Belteshazzar) a question. He said to Daniel, “Are you able to tell me about my dream, and what it means?”

Daniel answered, “King Nebuchadnezzar, no wise man, no man that does magic tricks, and no Chaldean could tell the king the secret things he has asked about. But there is a God in heaven who tells secret things. God gave King Nebuchadnezzar dreams to show him what will happen at a later time. This was your dream, and these are the things you saw while lying on your bed: King, you were lying there on your bed. And you began thinking about things that will happen in the future. God can tell people about secret things—and he showed you what will happen in the future. God also told this secret to me! Why? It is not because I have greater wisdom than other men. No, God told me about this secret so that you, king, may know what it means. In that way, you will understand what went through your mind.

“King, in your dream you saw a large statue* in front of you. The statue was very large and it was shiny and very impressive. It would make a person’s eyes wide from amazement. 32 The head of the statue was made from pure gold. The chest and the arms of the statue were made from silver. The belly and upper part of the legs of the statue were made from bronze. 33 The lower part of the legs of the statue were made from iron. The feet of the statue were made partly of iron and partly of clay. 34 While you were looking at the statue, you saw a rock. The rock was cut loose—but a person did not cut the rock. Then the rock went through the air and hit the statue on its feet of iron and clay. The rock smashed the feet of the statue. 35 Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and gold broke to pieces all at the same time. And all those pieces became like chaff on a threshing floor in the summertime. The wind blew those pieces away, and there was nothing left. No one could tell that a statue had ever been there. Then the rock that hit the statue became a very large mountain and filled up the whole earth.

36 "That was your dream. Now we will tell the king what it means. 37 King, you are the most important king. The God of heaven has given you a kingdom, power, strength, and glory. 38 God has given you control and you rule over people and over the wild animals and over the birds. Wherever they live, God has made you ruler over them all. King Nebuchadnezzar, you are that head of gold on the statue.*

39 "Another kingdom will come after you—that is the silver part. But that kingdom will not be as great as your kingdom. Next, a third kingdom will rule over the earth—that is the bronze part. 40 Then there will be a fourth kingdom. That kingdom will be strong like iron. Iron breaks and smashes things to pieces. In the same way, that fourth kingdom will smash and break all the other kingdoms.

41 "You saw that the feet and toes of the statue were partly clay and partly iron. That means the fourth kingdom will be a divided kingdom. It will have some of the strength of iron in it because you saw the iron mixed with clay. 42 The toes of the statue were partly iron and partly clay. So the fourth kingdom will be partly strong like iron, and partly weak like clay. 43 You saw the iron mixed with clay. But iron and clay don’t mix completely together. In the same way, the people of the fourth kingdom will be a mixture. Those people will not be united as one people.

44 "During the time of the kings of the fourth kingdom, the God of heaven will set up another kingdom. This kingdom will continue forever! It will never be destroyed! And it will be the kind of kingdom that can’t be passed on to another group of people. This kingdom will crush all those other kingdoms. It will bring those kingdoms to an end. But that kingdom itself will continue forever.

45 "King Nebuchadnezzar, you saw a rock cut from a mountain—but no person cut that rock! The rock broke the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold to pieces. In this way, God showed you what will happen in the future. The dream is true and you can trust this interpretation.”

46 Then King Nebuchadnezzar bowed down in front of Daniel. The king praised Daniel. The king gave an order that an offering and incense be given to honor Daniel. 47 Then the king said to Daniel, “I know for sure your God is the most important and powerful God. And he is the Lord of all the kings. He tells people about things they can’t know. I know this is true because you were able to tell these secret things to me.”

48 Then the king gave Daniel a very important job in his kingdom. And the king gave many expensive gifts to Daniel. Nebuchadnezzar made Daniel ruler over the whole province of Babylon. And he put Daniel in charge of all the wise men of Babylon. 49 Daniel asked the king to make Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego important officials over the province of Babylon. And the king did as Daniel asked. And Daniel himself became one of the important people that stayed near the king.

chaff The seed coverings and stems separated from the seeds of plants like wheat or barley. Farmers saved the seeds but let the wind blow the useless chaff away.
threshing floor A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.
statue An image, made to look like a person or an animal. Statues are made from stone, metal, or wood.
The Idol of Gold and the Hot Furnace

3

King Nebuchadnezzar had a gold idol made. That idol was 60 cubits high and 6 cubits wide. Then he set the idol up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon.

2

Then the king called the satraps, the prefects, the governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, rulers, and all the other officials in his kingdom to come together. The king wanted all those men to come to the dedication ceremony for the idol.

3

So all those men came and stood in front of the idol that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. Then the man that makes the announcements for the king spoke in a loud voice. He said, “All you people from many nations and language groups, listen to me. This is what you are commanded to do: You must bow down as soon as you hear the sound of all the musical instruments. When you hear the horns, flutes, lyres, sambucas, harps, bagpipes, and all of the other musical instruments, you must worship the gold idol. King Nebuchadnezzar has set this idol up. If any person does not bow down and worship this gold idol, then that person will be quickly thrown into a very hot furnace.

4

So, as soon as they heard the sound of the horns, flutes, lyres, sambucas, bagpipes, and all of the other musical instruments, they bowed down and worshiped the gold idol. All the peoples, nations, and men of every kind of language there worshiped the gold idol that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

5

Then, some of the Chaldean men came up to the king. Those men began speaking against the Jews. They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, “King, may you live forever! You made those Jews important officials in the province of Babylon. Their names are Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. They don’t worship your gods. And they didn’t bow down and worship the gold idol you set up.”

13

Nebuchadnezzar became very angry. He called Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. So those men were brought to the king. And Nebuchadnezzar said to those men, “Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, is it true that you don’t worship my gods? And is it true that you didn’t bow down and worship the gold idol I have set up? Now, when you hear the sound of the horns, flutes, lyres, sambucas, harps, bagpipes, and all the other musical instruments, you must bow down and worship the gold idol. If you are ready to worship the idol I have made, that will be good. But if you don’t worship it, you will be thrown very quickly into the hot furnace. Then no god will be able to save you from my power!”

16

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, “Nebuchadnezzar, we don’t need to explain these things to you! If you throw us into the hot furnace, then the God we serve can save us. And if he wants to, he can save us from your power. But even if God does not save us, we want you to know, king, that we refuse to serve your gods. We won’t worship the gold idol you have set up.”

19

Then Nebuchadnezzar was very angry! He looked very mean at Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He gave an order for the oven to be heated seven times hotter that it usually was. Then Nebuchadnezzar commanded some of the strongest soldiers in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. The king told the soldiers to throw Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego into the hot furnace.

21

So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were tied up and thrown into the hot furnace.
They were wearing their robes, pants, hats, and other clothes. 22The king was very angry when he gave the command, so they quickly made the furnace very hot! The fire was so hot that the flames killed the strong soldiers! They were killed when they went close to the fire and threw in Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. 23Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego fell into the fire. They were tied up very tightly.

24Then King Nebuchadnezzar jumped to his feet. He was very surprised and he asked his advisers, “We tied only three men and we threw only three men into the fire! Is that right?”

His advisers said, “Yes, king.”

25The king said, “Look! I see four men walking around in the fire. They are not tied up and they are not burned. The fourth man looks like an angel!”

26Then Nebuchadnezzar went to the opening of the hot furnace. He shouted, “Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, come out! Servants of the Most High God, come here!” So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the fire. 27When they came out, the satraps*, prefects*, governors, and royal advisers crowded around them. They could see that the fire had not burned Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Their bodies were not burned at all. Their hair was not burned, their robes were not burned, and they didn’t even smell like they had been near fire.

28Then Nebuchadnezzar said, “Praise the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Their God has sent his angel and saved his servants from the fire! These three men trusted their God. They refused to obey my command and were willing to die instead of serving or worshiping any other god. 29So, I now make this law: The people of any nation or of any language that says anything against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego will be cut to pieces. And that person’s house will be destroyed until it is a pile of dirt and ashes. No other god can save his people like this.”

Then the king gave Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego more important jobs in the province of Babylon.

Nebuchadnezzar’s Dream about a Tree

King Nebuchadnezzar sent this letter to the many nations and people that speak other languages and live all around the world.

Greetings:

2I am very happy to tell you about the miracles and wonderful things that the Most High God did for me.

3 God has done amazing miracles!

God has done powerful miracles!

God’s kingdom continues forever;

God’s rule will continue for all generations.

4I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at my palace.* I was happy and successful. 5I had a dream that made me afraid. I was lying on my bed, and I saw pictures and visions* in my mind. Those things made me very afraid. 6So I gave an order that all the wise men of Babylon be brought to me. Why? So they could tell me what my dream meant. 7When the men of magic, and the Chaldeans* came, I told them about the dream. But those men could not tell me what it meant. 8Finally, Daniel came to me. (I gave Daniel the name, Belteshazzar, to honor my god. The spirit of the holy gods is in him.) I told Daniel about my dream. 9I said, Belteshazzar, you are the most important of all the men of magic. I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you. I know there is no secret that is too hard for you to understand. This was what I dreamed. Tell me what it means. 10These are the visions* I saw while I was lying in my bed: I looked, and there in front of me was a tree standing in the middle of the earth. The tree was very tall. 11The tree grew large and strong.

---

angel Literally, “son of the god.”

satraps Persian officials that were governors of a province.

prefects Important officials.

palace A large house for the king and his family.

vision(s) Something like a dream that God used to speak to people.

Chaldean(s) An important family group in Babylonia. Sometimes this name means simply “People from Babylonia.”
The top of the tree touched the sky.* It could be seen from anywhere on earth. 12The leaves of the tree were beautiful. It had much good fruit on it. And on the tree was plenty of food for everyone. The wild animals found shelter under the tree. And the birds lived in its branches. Every animal ate from the tree.

13I was looking at those things in the vision* while lying on my bed. And then I saw a holy angel coming down from heaven. 14He spoke very loud. He said, ‘Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches. Strip off its leaves. Scatter its fruit around. The animals that are under the tree will run away. The birds that were in its branches will fly away.

15But let the stump and roots stay in the ground. Put a band of iron and bronze around it. The stump and roots will stay in the field with the grass all around it. It will live among the wild animals and plants in the fields. It will become wet with dew.* 16He will not think like a man any longer. He will have the mind of an animal. Seven seasons (years) will pass while he is like this.’

17A holy angel announced this punishment. Why? So all the people on earth may know that God Most High rules over the kingdoms of men. God gives those kingdoms to anyone he wants to. And God chooses humble people to rule those kingdoms!

18That is what I, King Nebuchadnezzar, dreamed. Now, Belteshazzar (Daniel), tell me what it means. None of the wise men in my kingdom can interpret that dream for me. But Belteshazzar, you can interpret the dream because the spirit of the holy gods is in you.

19Then Daniel (also named Belteshazzar) became very quiet for about an hour. The things he was thinking bothered him. So the king said, “Belteshazzar (Daniel), don’t let the dream or its meaning make you afraid.”

Then Belteshazzar (Daniel) answered the king, “My lord, I wish the dream were about your enemies. And I wish the meaning of the dream were about those against you. 20–21You saw a tree in your dream. The tree grew large and strong. Its top touched the sky. It could be seen from all over the earth. Its leaves were beautiful, and it had plenty of fruit. The fruit gave plenty of food for everyone. It was a home for the wild animals, and its branches were nesting places for the birds. That is the tree you saw. 22King, you are that tree! You have become great and powerful. You are like the tall tree that touched the sky—and your power reaches to the far parts of the earth.

23“King, you saw a holy angel coming down from heaven. He said, ‘Cut the tree down and destroy it. Put a band of iron and bronze around the stump and leave the stump and its roots in the ground. Leave it in the grass in the field. It will become wet with dew.* He will live like a wild animal. Seven seasons (years) will pass while he is like this.’

24“King, this is the meaning of the dream. God Most High has commanded these things to happen to my lord the king: 25King Nebuchadnezzar, you will be forced to go away from people. You will live among the wild animals. You will eat grass like cattle. And you will become wet with dew.* Seven seasons (years) will pass, and then you will learn this lesson. You will learn God Most High rules over the kingdoms of men. And God Most High gives kingdoms to anyone he wants.

26“The command to leave the stump of the tree and its roots in the ground means this: Your kingdom will be given back to you. This will happen when you learn that Most High (God) rules your kingdom. 27So, king, please accept my advice. I advise you to stop sinning and do what is right. Stop doing bad things. And be kind to poor people. Then you might continue to be successful.”

28All those things happened to King Nebuchadnezzar. 29–30Twelve months after the dream, King Nebuchadnezzar was walking on the roof* of his palace* in Babylon. While on the roof, the king said, “Look at Babylon! I built this great city. It is my palace! I built this great place by my power. I built this place to show how great I am!”
DANIEL 4:31–5:7

31The words were still in his mouth when a voice came from heaven. The voice said, “King Nebuchadnezzar, these things will happen to you: Your power as king has been taken away from you. 32You will be forced to go away from people. You will live with the wild animals. You will eat grass like a cow. Seven seasons (years) will pass before you learn your lesson. Then you will learn that God Most High rules over the kingdoms of men. And that God Most High gives kingdoms to anyone he wants.”

33Those things happened immediately. Nebuchadnezzar was forced to go away from people. He began eating grass like a cow. He became wet from dew.* His hair grew long like the feathers of an eagle. And his nails grew long like the claws of a bird.

34Then at the end of that time, I, Nebuchadnezzar, looked up toward heaven. And I was in my right mind again. Then I gave praise to God Most High. I gave honor and glory to him who lives forever.

God rules forever!
His kingdom continues for all generations.

35People on earth are not truly important. God does what he wants with the powers of heaven and the people on earth. No one can stop his powerful hand! No one can question the things he does!

36So, at that time, God gave me my right mind again. And he gave back my great honor and power as king. My advisers and the royal people began to ask my advice again. I became the king again. And I became even greater and more powerful than before. 37Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, give praise, honor, and glory to the King of Heaven. Everything he does is right. He is always fair. And he is able to make proud people humble!

The Writing on the Wall

5King Belshazzar gave a big party for 1,000 of his officials. The king was drinking wine with them. 2As Belshazzar was drinking his wine, he ordered his servants to bring the gold and silver cups. These were the cups that his grandfather* Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple* in Jerusalem. King Belshazzar wanted his royal people, his wives and his women slaves* to drink from those cups. 3So they brought the gold cups that had been taken from the temple of God in Jerusalem. And the king and his officials, his wives, and his women slaves drank from them. 4As they were drinking they were giving praise to their idol gods. They gave praise to those gods—and those gods were only statues made from gold, silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone.

5Then all of a sudden, a man’s hand appeared and began writing on the wall. The fingers scratched words into the plaster on the wall. The hand wrote on the wall there in the king’s house near the lampstand. The king was watching the hand as it wrote.

6King Belshazzar was very afraid. His face became white from fear and his knees were shaking and knocking together. He could not stand up because his legs were too weak. 7The king called for the men of magic and Chaldeans* to be brought to him. He said to these wise men, “I will give a reward to any man that can read this writing and explain to me what it means. I will give purple clothes* to that man. I will put a gold chain around his grandfather  Or, “father.” We are not sure if Belshazzar was really Nebuchadnezzar’s grandson. Here the word “father” might only mean, “the previous king.”

temple  The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
women slaves  Or, “concubine, “a slave woman like a wife to her master.
Chaldean(s)  An important family group in Babylonia. Sometimes this name means simply “People from Babylonia.”
purple clothes  These clothes showed that a person was rich and powerful, like a king.

roof  In ancient Israel, houses had flat roofs that were used like an extra room.
palace  A large house for the king and his family.
dew  Drops of water that collect on the ground during the night.
neck, and I will make him the third highest ruler in the kingdom.”

8 So all the king’s wise men came in. But they could not read the writing. They could not understand what it meant. 9 King Belshazzar’s officials were confused. And the king became even more afraid and worried. His face was white from fear.

10 Then the king’s mother came into the place where the party was. She had heard the voices of the king and his royal officials. She said, “King, may you live forever! Don’t be afraid! Don’t let your face be so white with fear! 11 There is a man in your kingdom that has the spirit of the holy gods in him. In the days of your father this man showed that he could understand secrets. He showed that he was very smart and very wise. He showed that he was like the gods in these things. Your grandfather, King Nebuchadnezzar, put this man in charge of all the wise men. He ruled over all the men of magic, and the Chaldeans. 12 The man I am talking about is named Daniel. The king gave him the name Belteshazzar. Belteshazzar (Daniel) is very smart and he knows many things. He could interpret dreams, explain secrets, and answer very hard problems. Call for Daniel. He will tell you what the writing on the wall means.”

13 So they brought Daniel to the king. The king said to Daniel, “Is your name Daniel, one of the captives my father the king brought here from Judah? 14 I have heard that the spirit of the gods is in you. And I have heard that you understand secrets, and are very smart and very wise. 15 The wise men and the men of magic were brought to me to read this writing on the wall. I wanted those men to explain to me what writing it means. But they could not explain this writing on the wall to me. 16 I have heard about you. I have heard that you are able to explain what things mean, and that you can find the answer to very hard problems. If you can read this writing on the wall and explain to me what it means, this is what I will do for you: I will give you purple clothes* and I will put a gold chain around your neck. Then you will become the third highest ruler in the kingdom.”

17 Then Daniel answered the king. Daniel said, “King Belshazzar, you can keep your gifts for yourself. Or you can give those rewards to someone else. But I will still read the writing on the wall for you. And I will explain to you what it means.

18 “King, God Most High made your grandfather Nebuchadnezzar a very great and powerful king. God made him very important. 19 People from many nations and people that spoke many languages were very afraid of Nebuchadnezzar. Why? Because the God Most High made him a very important king. If Nebuchadnezzar wanted a person to die, then he killed that person. And if he wanted a person to live, then that person was allowed to live. If he wanted to make people important, then he made those people important. And if he wanted to make people not important, then he made them not important.

20 But Nebuchadnezzar became proud and stubborn. So his power was taken away from him. He was taken off his royal throne and stripped of his glory. 21 Then Nebuchadnezzar was forced to go away from people. His mind became like the mind of an animal. He lived with the wild donkeys and ate grass like a cow. He became wet with dew.* These things happened to him until he learned his lesson. Then he learned that God Most High rules over the kingdoms of men. And God Most High sets anyone he wants over kingdoms.

22 “But Belshazzar, you already knew these things! You are Nebuchadnezzar’s grandson.* But still you have not made yourself humble. 23 No, you did not become humble. Instead, you have turned against the Lord of heaven. You ordered the drinking cups from the grandfather Or, “father.” We are not sure if Belshazzar was really Nebuchadnezzar’s grandson. Here the word “father” might only mean, “the man who was king before.”

Chaldeans) An important family group in Babylonia. Sometimes this name means simply “People from Babylonia.”

grandfather purple clothes These clothes showed that a person was rich and powerful, like a king.
dew Drops of water that collect on the ground during the night.
grandson Or, “son.” This does not necessarily mean they were from the same family. It might only mean that Belshazzar was one of the kings of Babylonia after Nebuchadnezzar was king.
Lord’s temple to be brought to you. Then you and your royal officials, your wives, and your women servants* drank wine from those cups. You gave praise to the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone. Those are not really gods, they can’t see, or hear, or understand anything. But you did not give honor to the God who has the power over your life and everything you do. 24 So, because of that, God sent the hand that wrote on the wall.

These are the words that were written on the wall:

MENE, MENE, TEKEL, U Parsin.

26 This is what these words mean:

MENE:* God has counted the days until your kingdom will end.

TEKEL:* You have been weighed on the scales, and found not good enough.

UPARSIN:* Your kingdom is being taken from you It will be divided among the Medes and Persians.”

29 Then Belshazzar gave an order for Daniel to be dressed in purple clothes.* A gold chain was put around his neck, and he was announced to be the third highest ruler in the kingdom. 30 That very same night, Belshazzar, king of the Babylonian people, was killed. 31 A man named Darius the Mede became the new king. Darius was about 62 years old.

Daniel and the Lions

Darius thought it would be a good idea to choose 120 satraps* to rule throughout all of his kingdom. 2 And he chose three men to rule over those 120 satraps. Daniel was one of these three supervisors. The king set up these men so that no one would cheat him and he would not lose anything in his kingdom.

3 Darius showed himself to be better than the other supervisors. Daniel did this by his good character and great abilities. The king was so impressed with Daniel that he planned to make Daniel ruler over the whole kingdom. 4 But when the other supervisors and the satraps heard about this, they were very jealous. They tried to find reasons to accuse Daniel. So they watched the things Daniel did as he went about doing the business of the government. But they could not find anything wrong with Daniel. So they could not accuse him of doing anything wrong. Daniel was a man people could trust. He did not cheat the king and he worked very hard.

5 Finally those men said, “We will never find any reason to accuse Daniel of doing something wrong. So we must find something to complain about that is connected to the law of his God.”

6 So those two supervisors and the satraps* went as a group to the king. They said: “King Darius, live forever! 7 The supervisors, prefects,* satraps*, advisers, and governors have all agreed on something. We think that the king should make this law. Everyone must obey this law. This is the law: If anyone prays to any god or man, except to you, king, for the next 30 days, then that person will be thrown into the lions’ den (cage). 8 Now, king, make the law and sign the paper it is written on. In this way, the law can’t be changed. Why? Because the laws of the Medes and Persians can’t be canceled or changed.” 9 So King Darius made the law and signed it.

10 Daniel always prayed to God three times every day. Three times every day, Daniel got down on his knees and prayed and praised God. When Daniel heard about the new law he went to his house. Daniel went up to his room on the roof of his house. Daniel went to the windows that opened toward Jerusalem.
Then Daniel got down on his knees and prayed, like he always did.

Then those men went as a group and found Daniel. They saw him praying and asking God for help. So they went to the king. They talked to him about the law he had made. They said, “King Darius, you signed a law that says, for the next 30 days anyone that prays to any god or man except you, the king, would be thrown into the lions’ den (cage). You did sign that law, didn’t you?”

The king answered, “Yes, I signed that law. And the laws of the Medes and Persians can’t be canceled or changed.”

Then those men said to the king, “That man named Daniel is not paying any attention to you. Daniel is one of the captives from Judah. And Daniel is not paying attention to the law you signed. Daniel still prays to his God three times every day.”

The king became very sad and upset when he heard this. He decided to save Daniel. He worked until sunset trying to think of a way to save Daniel. Then those men went as a group to the king. They said to him, “Remember, king, that the law of the Medes and Persians says that no law or command signed by the king can ever be canceled or changed.”

So King Darius gave the order. They brought Daniel and threw him into the lions’ den (cage). The king said to Daniel, “I hope the God you worship saves you!” A big rock was brought and put over the opening of the lions’ den. Then the king used his ring and put his seal on the rock. And he used the rings of his officials and put their seals on the rock also. This showed that no one could move that rock and bring Daniel out of the lions’ den (cage). Then King Darius went back to his house. He did not eat that night. He did not want anyone to come and entertain him. The king could not sleep all night.

The next morning, King Darius got up just as it was getting light. He ran to the lions’ den (cage). The king was very worried. When the king went to the lions’ den, he called to Daniel. The king said, “Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God been able to save you from the lions? You always serve your God.”

Daniel answered, “King, live forever! My God sent his angel to save me. The angel closed the lions’ mouths. The lions have not hurt me because my God knows I am innocent. I never did anything wrong to you, king.”

King Darius was very happy. He told his servants to lift Daniel out of the lions’ den (cage). And when Daniel was lifted out of the den they did not find any injury on his body. Daniel was not hurt by the lions because he trusted in his God.

Then the king gave a command to bring the men that had accused Daniel to the lions’ den (cage). Those men and their wives and children were thrown into the lion’s den. The lions grabbed them before they hit the floor of the lions’ den. The lions ate their bodies and then chewed on their bones.

Then King Darius wrote this letter to all the people from other nations that spoke many different languages all around the world:

Greetings.

I am making a new law. This law is for people in every part of my kingdom. All of you people must fear and respect the God of Daniel.

Daniel’s God is the living God. God lives forever! His kingdom will never be destroyed. His rule will never end.

God helps and saves people. God does amazing miracles in heaven and on earth.

God saved Daniel from the lions.”

So Daniel was successful during the time that Darius was king and during the time that Cyrus the Persian was king.
Daniel's Dream about Four Animals

During the first year that Belshazzar was king of Babylon. Daniel had a dream. Daniel saw these visions while he was lying on his bed. Daniel wrote what he had dreamed about. Daniel said: “I saw my vision at night. In the vision, the wind was blowing from all four directions. Those winds made the sea rough. I saw four big animals and each one was different from the others. Those four animals came up out of the sea.

The first animal looked like a lion, and it had wings like an eagle. I watched this animal. Then its wings were torn off. It was lifted from the ground so that it stood up on two feet like a man. And it was given the heart (mind) of a man.

And then I saw a second animal there in front of me. This animal looked like a bear. It was raised up on one of its sides, and it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told, ‘Get up and eat all the meat you want!'

After that, I looked, and there in front of me was another animal. This animal looked like a leopard. And the leopard had four wings on its back. The wings looked like a bird’s wings. This animal had four heads. It was given authority to rule.

After that, in my vision at night I looked, and there in front of me was a fourth animal. This animal looked very mean and terrible. It looked very strong. It had large iron teeth. This animal crushed and ate up its victims. And this animal walked on whatever was left of its victims. This fourth animal was different from all the animals I saw before it. This animal had ten horns.

I was thinking about those horns, and then another horn grew up among those horns. This horn was a little horn. There were eyes on this little horn—the eyes looked like a person’s eyes. And there was a mouth on this little horn. And the mouth was bragging. The little horn pulled out three of the other horns.

Judgment of the Fourth Animal

As I was looking, thrones were put in their places. And the Ancient King sat on his throne. His clothes were very white; they were white like snow. The hair on his head was white; it was white like wool. His throne was made from fire. And the wheels of his throne were made from flames.

A river of fire was flowing in front of the Ancient King. Millions of people were serving him. Hundreds of millions of people stood in front of him. This was like a court was ready to begin, and the books were opened.

I kept on looking because the little horn was bragging. I kept watching until finally the fourth animal was killed. Its body was destroyed and it was thrown into the burning fire. The authority and rule of the other animals had been taken from them. But they were permitted to live for a certain period of time.

In my vision at night I looked, and there in front of me was a person that looked like a human being. He was coming on the clouds in the sky. He came to the Ancient King, and they brought him before him.

The person that looked like a human being was given authority, glory, and complete ruling power. People from every nation and every language will worship him. His rule will last forever. His kingdom will continue forever. It will never be destroyed.

first year that Belshazzar was king of Babylon  This is probably 553 B.C.

vision(s) Something like a dream that God used to speak to people.

leopard An animal like a tiger, but with black spots.

victims People that have suffered some kind of hurt or trouble. Often this means people that were hurt or lost something during a crime.

Ancient King Literally, “Ancient of Days.” This name for God shows that God has been the great king for a long, long time.

a person ... human being Or, “a person, a real human being.” Literally, “like a son of man.” This means he looked like a normal person, not an angel or an animal.
The Interpretation of the Dream about the Fourth Animal

15“I, Daniel, was confused and worried. The visions* that went through my mind bothered me. 16I came near one of those that was standing there. I asked him what all this meant. So he told me. He explained to me what these things meant. 17He said, ‘The four great animals are four kingdoms. Those four kingdoms will come from the earth. 18But God’s special people will receive the kingdom. And they will have the kingdom forever and ever.’

19Then I wanted to know what the fourth animal was and what it meant. The fourth animal was different from all the other animals. It was very terrible. It had iron teeth and bronze claws. It was the animal that crushed and completely ate up its victims. And it walked on whatever was left of its victims. 20And I wanted to know about the ten horns that were on the fourth animal’s head. And I wanted to know about the little horn that grew there. That little horn pulled out three of the other ten horns. That little horn looked meaner than the other horns. And that little horn continued bragging. 21As I was watching, this little horn began attacking and making war against God’s special people. And the horn was killing them. 22The little horn kept killing God’s special people until the Ancient King* came and judged him. The Ancient King announced a judgment on the little horn. This judgment helped God’s special people. And they received the kingdom.

23“And he explained this to me: ‘The fourth animal is a fourth kingdom that will come on the earth. It will be different from all the other kingdoms. That fourth kingdom will destroy people all around the world. It will walk on and crush nations all around the world. 24The ten horns are ten kings that will come from this fourth kingdom. After those ten kings are gone, another king will come. He will be different from the kings that ruled before him. He will defeat three of the other kings. 25This special king will say things against God Most High. And that king will hurt and kill God’s special people. That king will try to change the times and laws that have already been set. God’s special people will be in that king’s power for 3 1/2 years.*

26“But the court will decide what should happen. And that king’s power will be taken away. His kingdom will end completely. 27Then God’s special people will rule the kingdom. And they will rule over all the people from all the kingdoms of earth.* This kingdom will last forever. And people from all the other kingdoms will respect and serve them.’

28“And that was the end of the dream. I, Daniel, was very afraid. My face became very white from fear. And I did not tell the other people about the things I saw and heard.”

Daniel’s Vision of a Ram and a Goat

8During* the third year that Belshazzar was king,* I saw this vision.* This was after the other vision. 2In the vision, I saw that I was in the city of Susa.* Susa was the capital city in the province of Elam. I was standing by the Ulai River. 3I looked up, and I saw a ram* standing at the side of the Ulai River. The ram had two long horns. The horns were both long, but one horn was longer than the other horn. The long horn was farther back than the other horn. 4I watched the ram run into things with its horns. I watched the ram run to the west and to the north and to the south. No animal could stop the ram. And no one could save the other animals. That ram could do whatever it wanted to do. So the ram became very powerful.

5I thought about the ram.* While I was thinking, I saw a male goat come from the third year that Belshazzar was king This is probably 551 B.C.
Susa The capital city of Persia.
ram(s) A male sheep.
west. This goat had one large horn that was easy to see. This goat ran so fast that its feet hardly touched the ground.

6 That goat came to the ram* with the two horns. This was the ram I had seen standing by the Ulai River. The goat was very angry. And it ran toward the ram. 7 I watched the goat run toward the ram. The goat was very angry. It broke the ram’s two horns. The ram could not stop the goat. The goat knocked the ram to the ground. Then the goat stepped all over the ram. There was no one to save the ram from the goat.

8 So the goat became very powerful. But when he was strong, his big horn broke. Then four horns grew in place of the one big horn. Those four horns pointed in four different directions.

9 Then a little horn grew from one of those four horns. That little horn grew and became very big. It grew toward the southeast. It grew toward the Beautiful Land. 10 That little horn became very big. It grew until it reached the sky. The little horn even threw some of the stars to the ground. And it stepped all over those stars. 11 That little horn became very strong. And then it turned against the Ruler of the Stars (God). The little horn stopped the daily sacrifices that were offered to the Ruler (God). The place where people worshiped the Ruler was pulled down. 12 The little horn sinned and stopped the daily sacrifices. It threw goodness down to the ground. The little horn did these things and was very successful.

13 Then I heard one of the holy ones* speaking. Then I heard another holy one answer the first one. The first holy one said, “This vision* shows what will happen to the daily sacrifice. It is about that terrible sin that destroys. It shows what will happen when people destroy the place where the Ruler is worshiped. It shows what will happen when those people step all over that place. It shows what will happen when the people step all over those stars. But how long will these things happen?”

14 The other holy one* said, “This will happen for 2,300 days. Then the holy place will be fixed.”

The Vision Is Explained to Daniel

15 I, Daniel, saw this vision.* And I tried to understand what it meant. While I was thinking about the vision, someone that looked like a man suddenly stood in front of me.

16 Then I heard a man’s voice. This voice came from above the Ulai River. The voice called out, “Gabriel, explain the vision to this man.”

17 So Gabriel, the angel that looked like a man, came to me. I was very afraid. I fell down to the ground. But Gabriel said to me, “Man,* understand that this vision is for the time of the end.”

18 While Gabriel was speaking, I fell to the ground and went to sleep. It was a very deep sleep. Then Gabriel touched me and lifted me to my feet. 19 Gabriel said, “Now, I will explain the vision to you. I will tell you what will happen in the future. Your vision* was about the end times.

20 “You saw a ram with two horns. Those horns are the countries of Media and Persia. 21 The goat is the king of Greece. The big horn between its eyes is the first king. 22 That horn broke. And four horns grew in its place. Those four horns are four kingdoms. Those four kingdoms will come from the nation of the first king. But those four nations will not be as strong as the first king.

23 “When the end is near for those kingdoms, there will be a very bold and cruel king. This king will be very tricky. This will happen when there have become many, many sinful people. 24 This king will be very powerful—but his power does not come from himself.* This king will cause terrible destruction. He will be successful in everything he does. He will destroy powerful people—even God’s special people.

25 “This king will be very smart and tricky. He will use his wisdom and lies to be

---

Man  Literally, “son of man.” This was a Hebrew way of saying, “human being.”

but his power ... himself  Some ancient translations don’t have this verse, so this may have been accidentally copied from verse 22.
successful. He will think that he is very important. He will destroy many people, when they least expect it. He will try to fight even the Prince of Princes (God). But that cruel king’s power will be destroyed. And it will not be a human hand that destroys him.

26“The vision about those times, and the things I said, are true. But seal the vision. Those things won’t happen for a long, long time.”

27I, Daniel, became very weak. I was sick for several days after that vision. Then I got up and went back to work for the king. But I was very upset about the vision. I did not understand what the vision meant.

Daniel’s Prayer

9These things happened during the first year that Darius was king. Darius was the son of a man named Ahasuerus.* Darius belonged to the Median people. He became king over Babylon. 2During the first year that Darius was king, I, Daniel, was reading some books. In the books, I saw that the Lord told Jeremiah how many years would pass before Jerusalem would be built again. The Lord said 70 years would pass.

3Then I turned to God, my Master. I prayed to him and asked him for help. I did not eat any food, and I put on the clothes that showed I was sad. And I put dirt on my head. 4I prayed to the Lord my God. I told him about all of my sins. I said: “Lord, you are a great and awesome God. You keep your agreement of love and kindness with people that love you. You keep your agreement with the people who obey your commands.

5“But Lord, we have sinned! We have done wrong. We have done bad things. We turned against you. We turned away from your commands and fair decisions. 6We did not listen to the prophets. They were your servants. The prophets spoke for you. They spoke to our kings, our leaders, and our fathers. They spoke to all of the people from Israel. ¡But we did not listen to those prophets!"

7“Lord, you are good, and goodness belongs to you! But shame belongs to us today. Shame belongs to the people from Judah and Jerusalem. Shame belongs to all the people of Israel—to the people that are near, and to the people that are far away. Lord, you scattered those people among many nations. And the people of Israel in all those nations should be ashamed. They should be ashamed of all the bad things they did against you, Lord.

8“Lord, we should all be ashamed. All of our kings and leaders should be ashamed. Our ancestors* should be ashamed. Why? Because we sinned against you, Lord.

9“But Lord, you are kind. You forgive people for the bad things they do. And we really turned against you. 10We have not obeyed the Lord our God. The Lord used his servants, the prophets, and gave us laws—but we have not obeyed his laws. 11None of the people of Israel obeyed your teachings. They all have turned away. They did not obey you. There are curses* and promises written in the Law of Moses. (Moses was God’s servant.) Those curses and promises tell about the punishment for not obeying the law—and all those things have happened to us. Those things happened to us because we sinned against the Lord.

12“God said those things would happen to us and our leaders—and he made them happen. He made terrible things happen to us. No other city suffered the way Jerusalem suffered. 13All of those terrible things happened to us. This happened just like it is written in the Law of Moses. But we still have not asked the Lord for help! We still have not stopped sinning. We still do not pay attention to your truth, Lord. 14The Lord kept the terrible things ready for us—and he made those things happen to us. The Lord did this because he is fair in everything he does. But we still have not listened to him.

seal(s) Small stones or rings with special shapes that could be used like a rubber stamp. When pressed into wet clay or hot wax, they left a special mark that was like a signature.

Ahasuerus Or, “Xerxes.”
15“Lord, our God, you used your power and brought us out of Egypt. We are your people. You are famous because of that even today. Lord, we have sinned. We have done terrible things. 16Lord, stop being angry at Jerusalem. Jerusalem is on your holy mountain. You do the right things, so stop being angry at Jerusalem. People all around us insult us and make fun of your people. This happens because we and our ancestors sinned against you.

17“Now, Lord, listen to my prayer. I am your servant. Listen to my prayer for help. Do good things for your holy place. That building was destroyed. But Master, do these good things for your own good. 18My God, listen to me! Open your eyes and see all the terrible things that have happened to us! See what has happened to the city that is called by your name! I am not saying we are good people. That is not why I am asking these things. I am asking these things because I know you are kind.

19Lord, listen to me! Lord, forgive us! Lord, pay attention, and then do something! Don’t wait! Do something now! Do it for your own good! My God, do something now, for your city and your people that are called by your name.”

The Vision about the 70 Weeks

20I was saying those things in my prayer to God. I was telling about my sins and the sins of the people of Israel. I was praying for God’s holy mountain. 21While I was praying, the man Gabriel came to me. Gabriel was the person I saw in the vision. Gabriel came flying quickly to me. He came at the time of the evening sacrifice. 22Gabriel helped me understand the things I wanted to know. Gabriel said, “Daniel, I have come to give you wisdom and to help you understand. 23When you first started praying, the command was given. And I came to tell you. God loves you very much! You will understand this command, and you will understand the vision.

24“God has allowed 70 weeks* for your people and your holy city, Daniel. The 70 weeks* are ordered for these reasons: to stop doing bad things, to stop sinning, to make people pure, to bring the goodness that continues forever, to put a seal* on visions* and prophets, and to dedicate a very holy place.

25“Learn these things, Daniel. Understand these things! From the time that the message went out to go back and build Jerusalem again until the time for the chosen king* to come will be seven weeks. Then Jerusalem will be built again. There will again be places for people to meet together in Jerusalem. And there will be a ditch around the city to protect it. Jerusalem will be built for 62 weeks. But there will be many troubles during that time. After the 62 weeks, the chosen person will be killed. He will be gone. Then the people of the future leader will destroy the city and the holy place. That end will come like a flood. War will continue until the end. God has ordered that place to be completely destroyed.

26“Then the future ruler will make an agreement with many people. That agreement will continue for one week. The offerings and sacrifices will stop for a half of a week. And a destroyer will come. He will do terrible, destructive things! But God has ordered that destroyer to be completely destroyed.”

Daniel’s Vision by the Tigris River

10Cyrus was the king of Persia. During Cyrus’ third year as king, Daniel learned about these things. (Daniel’s other name is Belteshazzar.) These things are true, but very hard to understand. But Daniel understood these things. They were explained to him in a vision.

ancestors Literally, “fathers, meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Do good things for your holy place Literally, “Let your face shine on your holy place.”

vision(s) Something like a dream that God used to speak to people.
2 “At that time, I, Daniel, was very sad for three weeks. During those three weeks, I didn’t eat any fancy food. I didn’t eat any meat. I didn’t drink any wine. I didn’t put any oil on my head. I didn’t do any of these things for three weeks.

4 On the 24th day of the first month of the year, I was standing beside the great Tigris River. While I was standing there, I looked up. And I saw a man standing in front of me. He was wearing linen clothes. He wore a belt made of pure gold around his waist.

6 His body was like a smooth, shiny stone. His face was bright like lightning! His eyes were like flames of fire. His arms and feet were shiny like polished brass! His voice was loud like a crowd of people!

7 I, Daniel, was the only person that saw the vision.* The men with me didn’t see the vision, but they were still afraid. They were so afraid that they ran away and hid. So I was left alone. I was watching this vision—and it made me afraid. I lost my strength. My face turned white like a dead person’s face, and I was helpless.

9 Then I heard the man in the vision talking. As I listened to his voice, I fell into a deep sleep. My face was flat on the ground.

10 Then a hand touched me. When that happened I got on my hands and knees. I was so afraid that I was shaking. The man in the vision said to me, ‘Daniel, God loves you very much. Think very carefully about the words I will speak to you. Stand up, I have been sent to you.’ And when he said this, I stood up. I was still shaking because I was afraid.

12 Then he said, ‘Daniel, do you know why I have come to you? Soon I must go back to fight against the prince (angel) of Persia. When I go, the prince (angel) of Greece will come. But Daniel, before I go, I must first tell you what is written in the Book of Truth. No one stands with me against those evil angels except Michael. Michael is the prince (angel) ruling over your people.

11 During the first year that Darius the Mede was king,* I stood up to support Michael* in his fight against the prince (angel) of Persia.

2 “Now then, Daniel, I tell you the truth: three more kings will rule in Persia. Then a fourth king will come. That fourth king will use his riches to get power. And he will cause everyone to be against the kingdom of Greece. Then a very strong and powerful king will come. He will rule with much power. He will do anything he wants. After that king has come, his kingdom will be broken up. His kingdom will be divided out toward the four parts of the world. His kingdom will not be divided among his children or grandchildren. And his kingdom will not have the power that he had. Why? Because his kingdom will be pulled up and given to other people.

5“"The southern king will become strong. But then one of his commanders will defeat the southern king. The commander will begin to rule. And he will be very powerful.

6“"Then after a few years, the southern king and that commander will make an agreement. The daughter of the southern king will marry the northern king. She will do this to bring peace. But she and the southern king will not be strong enough. People will turn against her and against the person that brought her to that country. And those people will turn against her child and against the person that helped her.

7“"But a person from her family will come to take the southern king’s place. He will attack the armies of the northern king. He will go into that king’s strong fort. He will fight and win. He will take their idol gods. He will take their metal idols and their expensive things made from silver and gold. He will take those things away to Egypt. Then he will not bother the northern king for a few years. The northern king will attack the southern kingdom. But he will lose, and then he will go back to his own country.

10“"The northern king’s sons will prepare for war. They will get a large army together. That army will move through the land very quickly, like a powerful flood. That army will fight all the way to the strong fort of the southern king. Then the southern king will become very angry. He will march out to fight against the northern king. The northern king will have a large army, but he will lose the war.

12The northern army will be defeated, and those soldiers will be carried away. The southern king will become very proud, and he will kill thousands of soldiers from the northern army. But he will not continue to be successful.

13The northern king will get another army. That army will be larger than the first army. After several years he will attack. That army will be very large and it will have many weapons. That army will be ready for war.

14“"In those times, many people will be against the southern king. Some of your own people that love to fight will rebel against the southern king. They will not win, but they will make the vision® come true when they do this. Then the northern king will come and build ramps against the walls and capture a strong city. The southern army will not have the power to fight back. Even the best soldiers from the southern army will not be strong enough to stop the northern army.

16“"The northern king will do whatever he wants. No one will be able to stop him. He will gain power and control in the Beautiful land. And he will have the power to destroy it.

17The northern king will decide to use all of his power to fight against the southern king. He will make an agreement with the southern king. The king of the north will let one of his daughters marry the southern king. The northern king will do that so he can defeat the southern king, but those plans will not succeed. His plans will not help him.

19“"After that happens, that northern king will go back to the strong forts of his own country. But he will be weak, and he will fall. He will be finished.

20“"A new ruler will come after that northern king. That ruler will send out a tax collector. That ruler will do this so he will have enough money to live in a very rich way. But, in a few years, that ruler will be destroyed. But he will not die in a battle.

21“"That ruler will be followed by a very cruel and hated man. That man will not have the honor of being from a king’s family.® He will become a ruler by being tricky. He will attack the kingdom when the people feel safe.

vision Something like a dream that God used to speak to people.
That man ... king's family Or, “That person will not have the good qualities a king should have.”
1033  DANIEL 11:23–38

will even defeat the Leader with the Agreement. Many nations will make agreements with that cruel and hated ruler. But he will lie and trick them. He will gain much power. But only a few people will support him.

24“"When the richest countries feel safe, that cruel and hated ruler will attack them. He will attack at just the right time and will be successful where his fathers were not successful. He will take things from the countries he defeated, and he will give those things to his followers. He will plan to defeat and destroy strong cities. He will be successful, but only for a short time.

25“"That very cruel and hated ruler will have a very large army. He will use that army to show his strength and courage and attack the southern king. The southern king will get a very large and powerful army and go to war. But the people that are against him will make secret plans. And the southern king will be defeated. 26People that were supposed to be good friends of the southern king will try to destroy him. His army will be defeated. Many of his soldiers will be killed in battle. 27Those two kings will have their hearts set on hurting each other. They will sit at the same table and lie to each other, but it will not do either one any good. Why? Because God has set a time for their end to come.

28“"The northern king will go back to his own country with much wealth. Then he will decide to do bad things against the holy agreement. He will do the things he planned, and then he will go back to his own country.

29“"At the right time, the northern king will attack the southern king again. But this time he will not be successful like he was before. 30Ships from Cyprus will come and fight against the northern king. He will see those ships coming and be afraid. Then he will turn back and take his anger out on the holy agreement. He will turn back and help the people that quit following the holy agreement. 31The northern king will send his army to do terrible things to the temple in Jerusalem. They will stop the people from offering the daily sacrifice. Then they will do something really terrible. They will set up that terrible thing that causes destruction.

32“"The northern king will use lies and smooth talking to trick the Jews that quit following the holy agreement. Those Jews will sin even worse. But the Jews that know God and obey him will be strong. They will fight back!

33“"Those wise teachers will help the other people understand what is happening. But even those wise people will have to suffer persecution. Some of those wise people will be killed with swords. Some of them will be burned, or taken prisoner. Some of them will have their homes and things taken away. 34When those wise people are punished they will get a little help. But many people that join those wise people will be hypocrites. 35Some of the wise people will stumble and make mistakes. But the persecution must come. Why? So that they can be made stronger, purer, and without faults until the time of the end. Then, at the right time, that time of the end will come.”

The King Who Praises Himself

36“"The northern king will do whatever he wants. He will brag about himself. He will praise himself and think that he is even better than a god. He will say things that no one has ever heard of. He will say those things against the God of gods. He will be successful until all the bad things have happened. What God has planned to happen will happen.

37“"That northern king will not care about the gods his fathers worshiped. He will not care about the idol gods women worship. He will not care about any god. Instead, he will praise himself, and make himself more important than any god.

38The northern king will not worship any god, but he will worship power. Power and strength will be his god. His fathers didn’t love power like he does. He honors the god of power with gold and silver, expensive jewels, and gifts.

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
hypocrites Bad people that act like they are good.
39“‘That northern king will attack strong fortresses* with the help of this foreign god. He will give much honor to those foreign rulers that join him. He will put many people under those rulers. He will make those rulers pay him for the land they rule over.

40“‘At the time of the end, the southern king will fight a battle against the northern king. The northern king will attack him. He will attack with chariots and soldiers on horses and many large ships. The northern king will rush through the land like a flood.

41The northern king will attack the Beautiful Land. Many countries will be defeated by the northern king. But Edom, Moab, and the leaders of Ammon will be saved from him.

42The northern king will show his power in many countries. Egypt will also learn how powerful he is. 43He will get treasures of gold and silver and all the riches of Egypt. The Libyan and Nubian people will obey him.

44But that northern king will hear news from the east and the north that will make him afraid and angry. He will go to completely destroy many nations. 45He will set up his king’s tents between the seas at the beautiful holy mountain.* But finally, that bad king will die. There will not be anyone to help him when his end comes.’”

12“‘The man in the vision said, “Daniel, at that time, the great prince (angel) Michael will stand up. Michael is in charge of your people, the Jews. There will be a time of much trouble, the worst time since nations have been on earth. But Daniel, at that time, every one of your people whose name is found written in the book of life will be saved. Many of the people that are dead and buried* will wake up. Some of them will wake up to have life forever. But some will wake up to have shame and disgrace forever. The wise people will shine as bright as the sky. The wise people that taught others to live right will shine like stars forever and ever.*

44“‘But you, Daniel, keep this message a secret. You must close the book. You must keep this secret until the time of the end. Many people will go here and there looking for true knowledge. And the true knowledge will increase.’

5Then I, Daniel, looked and I saw two other people. One person was standing on my side of the river. And the other person was standing on the other side of the river. 6The man who was dressed in linen* was standing over the water in the river. One of the two people said to him, ‘How long will it be before these amazing things come true?’

7“‘The man dressed in linen* and standing over the water lifted his right and left hands toward heaven. And I heard him make a promise using the name of God who lives forever. He said, ‘It will be for three and one-half years.* The power of the holy people will be broken, and then all these things will finally come true.’

8“I heard the answer, but I really didn’t understand. So I asked, ‘Sir, what will happen after all these things come true?’

9“‘He answered, ‘Go on about your life Daniel. The message is hidden. It will be a secret until the time of the end. Many people will be made pure—they will make themselves clean.* But evil people will continue to be evil. And those wicked people will not understand these things. But the wise people will understand these things.

11“‘The daily sacrifice will be stopped. There will be 1,290 days from that time until the time that the terrible thing that destroys is set up. 12The person that waits for, and comes to, the end of the 1,335 days will be very happy.

13“‘As for you Daniel, go and live your life till the end. You will get your rest. At the end, you will rise [from death] to get your share.’”

---

* fortress(es) A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.

* holy mountain The mountain Jerusalem is built on.

* are dead and buried Literally, “sleep in the dust.”

* The wise people ... ever Or, “The wise and successful teachers will shine like the sun rays in the sky. Those who made others innocent will shine like the stars forever.” In Hebrew, this is like Isaiah 52:13 and Isaiah 53:11.

* linen Thread or cloth made from the fibers of the flax plant.

* three and one-half years Literally, “a time, times, and half a time.”

* clean Or, “acceptable.” Pure or able to be used in worshiping God. See Lev. 11–15 for the Old Testament rules about clean and unclean things.
The Lord God’s Message Through Hosea

This is the Lord’s message that came to Hosea son of Beeri. This message came during the time that Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah. This was during the time of Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel.

This was the Lord’s first message to Hosea. The Lord said, “Go, marry a prostitute* that has had children as a result of her prostitution. Why? Because the people in this country have acted like prostitutes—they have been unfaithful to the Lord.”

The Birth of Jezreel

So Hosea married Gomer daughter of Diblaim. Gomer became pregnant and gave birth to a son for Hosea. 4The Lord said to Hosea, “Name him Jezreel.* Why? Because in a little while I will punish the family of Jehu for the blood {he spilled} at Jezreel Valley.* Then I will put an end to the kingdom of the nation* of Israel. 5And at that time, I will break Israel’s bow at Jezreel Valley.”

The Birth of Lo-Ruhamah

Then Gomer had finished nursing Lo-Ruhamah, she became pregnant again. She gave birth to a daughter. 6The Lord said to Hosea, “Name her Lo-Ruhamah.* Why? Because I will not show mercy to the nation* of Israel any more. I will not forgive them. 7But I will show mercy to the nation of Judah. I will save the nation of Judah, I will not use the bow or the sword to save them. I will not use war horses and soldiers to save them. I will save them by my own power.”*

The Birth of Lo-Ammi

After Gomer had finished nursing Lo-Ruhamah, she became pregnant again. She gave birth to a son. 8Then the Lord said, “Name him Lo-Ammi.* Why? Because you are not my people. I am not your God.”

The Lord God Promises There Will Be Many Israelites

“[In the future,] the number of the people of Israel will be like the sand of the sea. You can’t measure the sand or count it. Then it will happen that in the place where it was said to them, ‘You are not my people,’ it will be said to them, ‘You are the children of the living God.’

Then the people of Judah and the people of Israel will be gathered together. They will choose one ruler for themselves. And their nation will be too large for the land!* Jezreel’s day will be truly great.”

“Then you will tell your brothers, ‘You are my people.’ And you will tell your sisters, ‘He has shown mercy to you.‘”*

---

Proper Names and Places:
- prostitute: A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stops following him.
- Jezreel: This name in Hebrew means “God will plant seeds.”
- blood ... at Jezreel Valley: See 2 Kings 9–10 for the story of Jehu’s revolt at Jezreel Valley.
- nation: Literally, “house.” This might mean the royal family of that country.
- Lo-Ruhamah: This name in Hebrew means “She receives no mercy.”

Notes:
- “by my own power” Literally, “by the Lord their God.”
- “Lo-Ammi” This name in Hebrew means “not my people.”
- “their nation ... land” Literally, “they will go up from the land.”
- “you will tell your brothers ... mercy to you” Or, “Say to your brothers, ‘My people,’ and to your sisters, ‘You have been shown mercy.’”
The Lord Speaks to the Nation of Israel

2"Argue with your mother.* Argue! Because she is not my wife! I am not her husband! Tell her to stop being like a prostitute.* Tell her to take away her lovers from between her breasts. 3If she refuses to stop her adultery, I will strip her naked. I will leave her like the day she was born. I will take away her people and she will be like an empty, dry desert. I will kill her with thirst. 4I will have no pity on her children because they are the children of prostitution. 5Their mother has acted like a prostitute. Their mother should be ashamed of the things she did. She said, ‘I will go to my lovers.* My lovers give me food and water. They give me wool and linen. They give me wine and olive oil.’ 6“So, I (the Lord) will block your (Israel’s) road with thorns. I will build a wall. Then she will not be able to find her paths. 7She will run after her lovers, but she will not be able to catch up with them. She will look for her lovers, but she will not be able to find them. Then she will say, ‘I will go back to my first husband (God). Life was better for me when I was with him. Life was better then than it is now.’

8“She (Israel) didn’t know that I (the Lord) was the One who gave her grain, wine, and oil. I kept giving her more and more silver and gold. But the Israelites used this silver and gold to make statues of Baal.* 9So I will come back. I will take back my grain at the time it is ready to be harvested. I will take back my wine at the time the grapes are ready. I will take back my wool and linen. I gave those things to her so she could cover her naked body. 10Now I will strip her. She will be naked, so all her lovers can see her. No person will be able to save her from my power.* 11I (God) will take away all her fun. I will stop her holidays, her new moon feasts, her days of rest. I will stop all of her special feasts. 12I will destroy her vines and fig trees. She said, ‘My lovers gave these things to me.’ But I will change her gardens—they will become like a wild forest. Wild animals will come and eat from those plants.

13“She served the Baals.* So I will punish her. She burned incense* to the Baals. She dressed up—she put on her jewelry and nose ring. Then she went to her lovers and forgot me.” The Lord has said this.

14“So, I (the Lord) will say romantic words to her. I will lead her into the desert and speak tender words. 15There I will give her fields of grapes. I will give her Achor Valley as a doorway of hope. Then she will answer like the time she came out of the land of Egypt.”

16The Lord says this.

“At that time you will call me ‘My husband.’ You will not call me ‘My Baal.’* 17I will take away the names of the Baals out of her mouth. Then people will not use the Baals’ names again.

18“At that time, I will make an agreement for the Israelites with the animals of the field, with the birds of the sky, and with the crawling things on the ground. I will break the bow, the sword, and weapons of war. 19And I (the Lord) will make you my bride* forever. I will make you my bride with goodness and fairness and with love and mercy. 20I will make you my faithful bride. Then you will truly know the Lord.

21And at that time, I will respond.” The Lord says this.

mother This means the nation of Israel.
prostitute A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stops following him.
hers lovers Or “adulteries.” Adultery means not being faithful in marriage. God was like a husband to Israel. But Israel was worshiping false gods—this was like a spiritual adultery against God.
lovers This means Israel’s false gods.
Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

power Literally, “hand.”
Baals False gods worshiped by the Canaanites in the land where the Israelites lived.
incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.
My Baal This is a word play. The name Baal also means, “lord, or husband.”
make you my bride Literally, “I will betroth you to me.”
“I will speak to the skies, and they will give rain to the earth.

22 The earth will produce grain, wine, and oil. And they will meet Jezreel’s needs.

23 I will sow her many seeds* on her land. To Lo-Ruhamah,* I will show mercy.

To Lo-Ammi,* I will say, ‘You are my people.’ And they will say to me, ‘You are my God.’”

Hosea Buys Gomer Back from Slavery

3 Then the Lord said to me again, “Gomer* has many lovers. But you must continue loving her. Why? Because that is like the Lord. The Lord continues loving the people of Israel. But they continue to worship other gods. And they love to eat raisin cakes.”*

2So I bought Gomer 6 ounces* of silver and 9 bushels* of barley. 3Then I told her, “You must stay at home with me for many days. You must not be like a prostitute.* You will not be with another man. And I will be your husband.”

4In the same way, the people of Israel will continue many days without a king or a leader. They will be without a sacrifice or a memorial stone.* They will be without an ephod* or a household god. 5After this the people of Israel will come back. Then they will look for the Lord their God, and for David their king. In the last days, they will come to honor the Lord and his goodness.

The Lord Is Angry Against Israel

4 People of Israel, listen to the Lord’s message! The Lord will tell his argument against the people that live in this country. “People in this country don’t really know God. The people are not true and loyal to God. The people swear, lie, kill, and steal. They do the sin of adultery,* and they have their babies. The people murder again and again.* 5So the country is like a person crying for the dead, and all of its people are weak. Even the animals of the field, the birds of the sky, and the fish in the sea are dying.* 6No person should argue or blame another person. Priest, my argument is with you!* 7You (priests) will fall in the daytime. And at night, the prophet will also fall with you. And I will destroy your mother.

6“My people are destroyed because they have no knowledge. You have refused to learn. So I will refuse to let you be a priest for me. You have forgotten the law of your God, so I will forget your children. 7They became proud! They sinned more and more against me. So I will change their glory to shame.

8“The priests joined in the people’s sins. They wanted more and more of those sins.* 9So the priests are no different than the people. I will punish them for the things they did. I will pay them back for the wrong things they did. 10They will eat, but they will not be satisfied! They will do sexual sins, but they will do sexual sins, but they will not have babies.* Why? Because they left the Lord and became like prostitutes.*
HOSEA 4:11–5:7

1038

11Sexual sins, strong drink, and new wine will ruin a person’s ability to think straight. My people are asking pieces of wood for advice. They think those sticks will answer them. Why? Because they have chased after those false gods like prostitutes.* They left their God and became like prostitutes. 12They make sacrifices on the tops of the mountains and burn incense* on the hills under oak trees, poplar trees, and elm trees.* The shade under those trees looks nice. So your daughters lie under those trees like prostitutes. And your daughters-in-law do their sexual sins.

13“I can’t blame* your daughters for being prostitutes,* or your daughters-in-law for doing sexual sins. The men go and sleep with prostitutes. They go and offer sacrifices with the temple prostitutes.* So, those foolish people are destroying themselves.

The Shameful Sins of Israel

15“Israel, you act like a prostitute.* But don’t let Judah be guilty. Don’t go to Gilgal* or go up to Beth-aven.* Don’t use the Lord’s name to make promises. Don’t say, ‘As the Lord lives …!’ 16The Lord has given many things to Israel. He is like a shepherd that takes his sheep to a large field with much grass. But Israel is stubborn. Israel is like a young cow that runs away again and again. 17Ephraim* has joined his idols.* So leave him alone.

18“Ephraim has joined their drunkenness. Let them continue to be prostitutes. Let them be with their lovers. 19They went to those gods for safety, and they have lost their ability to think.* Their sacrifices bring them shame.”

The Leaders Cause Israel and Judah to Sin

5“Priests, nation of Israel, and people in the king’s family, listen to me. You have been judged guilty!

“You were like a trap at Mizpah.* You were like a net spread on the ground at Tabor.* 2You have done many, many bad things.* So I will punish you all! 3I know Ephraim.* I know the things that Israel has done. Ephraim, right now you act like a prostitute*. Israel is dirty with sins. 4The people of Israel have done many bad things. And those bad things keep them from coming back to their God. They are always thinking of ways to chase after other gods. They don’t know the Lord. 5Israel’s pride is a witness against them.* So Israel and Ephraim will stumble in their sin. But Judah will also stumble with them.

6“The leaders of the people went to look for the Lord. They took their ‘sheep’ and ‘cows’ with them. But they did not find the Lord. Why? Because he left them. 7They have not been faithful to the Lord. Their children are from some stranger. And now, he will destroy them and their land again.”*

They will do sexual sins, but they will not have babies A part of worshipping the false gods was having sexual relations with temple prostitutes. The people thought that this would make the gods happy. And then the gods would give the people large families and good crops.

prostitute A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stops following him.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

under oak trees, poplar trees, and elm trees Trees and groves were an important part of the worshipping false gods.

blame This word can mean, “visit,” “put in charge of,” “take account of,” or “to hold responsible for.”

temple prostitutes Women that were prostitutes at the temples of the false gods. Their sexual sins were part of worshipping those false gods.

Gilgal A city in Israel. The people worship false gods there.

Beth-aven In Hebrew the meaning is “House of Evil.” It is a word play on the name “Bethel,” a town in Israel. There was a temple in this town.

Ephraim Joseph’s younger son (Gen. 41:50–52). Ephraim’s family became a family group in Israel. Here the name is used to mean the northern kingdom of Israel.

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

They ... think Or, “The wind has carried them away on its wings,” or “The spirit held them tight in its wings.” This verse is very hard to understand in Hebrew.

Mizpah A mountain in Israel. The people worshiped the false gods on many of the hills and mountains.

Tabor A mountain in Israel.

You have done ... bad things This sentence is hard to understand in Hebrew, probably because there is a word play and a reference to things we are not sure of.

them Literally, “his face.”

And now ... again The Hebrew here is hard to understand.
A Prophecy of Israel’s Destruction

8 “Blow the horn in Gibeah.*
Blow the trumpet in Ramah.*
Give the warning at Beth-Aven.*
   The enemy is behind you, Benjamin.
9 Ephraim* will become empty
   at the time of punishment.
I (God) warn the families of Israel that those things really will happen.
10 The leaders of Judah are like thieves trying to steal another man’s property.
So I (God) will pour out my anger on them like water.
11 Ephraim* will be punished.
   He will be crushed and pressed like grapes.
   Why? Because he decided to follow filth.
12 I will destroy Ephraim,
   like a moth destroys a piece of cloth.
I will destroy Judah,
   like rot destroys a piece of wood.
13 Ephraim saw his sickness,
   and Judah saw his wound.
So they went to Assyria for help.
   They told their problems to the great king.
   But that king can’t heal you.
   He can’t cure your wound.
14 Why? Because I will be like a lion to Ephraim.
   I will be like a young lion
      to the nation* of Judah.
   I—yes, I (the Lord)—will rip them to pieces.
   I will carry them away,
      and no person can save.
15 I will go back to my place,
   until the people admit they are guilty,
   until they come looking for me.
   Yes, in their trouble they will try hard to find me.”

The Rewards of Coming Back to the Lord

6 “Come, let’s go back to the Lord.
   He hurt us, but he will heal us.
   He wounded us,
      but he will put bandages on us.
2 After two days he will bring us back to life.
   He will raise us up on the third day.
   Then we can live near him.
3 Let’s learn about the Lord.
   Let’s try very hard to know the Lord.
   We know he is coming,
      like we know the dawn is coming.
   The Lord will come to us like the rain, like the spring rain that waters
         the ground.”

The People Are Not Faithful

4 “Ephraim,* what should I do with you?
   Judah, what should I do with you?
   Your faithfulness is like a morning mist,
   Your faithfulness is like the dew that goes away early in the morning.
5 I used the prophets,
   and made laws for the people.
   The people were killed at my command.
   But good things will come from those decisions.*
6 Why? Because I want faithful love, not sacrifice,
   I want people to know God,
   not to bring burnt offerings.
7 But the people broke the Agreement
   just like Adam did.*
   They were unfaithful to me
      in their country.
8 Gilead* is a city of people that do evil.
   People have tricked and killed other people.
9 Robbers hide and wait to attack someone.
   In the same way,
      priests wait on the road to Shechem and attack the people that pass by.
   They have done evil things.

Gibeah, Ramah  Hills on Judah’s border with Israel.
Beth-Aven  In Hebrew the meaning is “House of Evil.” It is a word play on the name “Bethel,” a town in Israel. There was a temple in this town.
Ephraim  Joseph’s younger son (Gen. 41:50–52). Ephraim’s family became a family group in Israel. Here the name is used to mean the northern kingdom of Israel.
nation  Literally, “house.” This might mean the royal family of that country.

But good things … decisions  Or, “I cut them with the prophets.
   I killed them with the words from my mouth. Light will come from your decisions.”
like Adam did  See Gen. 3.
Gilead  An area where some of the people from the family group of Manasseh lived. See Numbers 26:29.
I have seen a terrible thing in the nation* of Israel. Ephraim* was unfaithful to God. Israel is dirty with sin. Judah, there is also a time of harvest for you. It will happen at the time that I bring my people back from captivity.”

“...Israel Does Not Know It Will Be Destroyed
8 “Ephraim* mixes with the nations. Ephraim is like a cake that was not cooked on both sides.
9 Strangers destroy Ephraim’s strength. But Ephraim does not know it. Gray hairs* are also sprinkled on Ephraim. But Ephraim does not know it.
10 Ephraim’s pride speaks against him. The people had many, many troubles, but they still didn’t go back to the Lord their God. The people didn’t look to him for help.
11 So Ephraim has become like a silly dove without understanding. The people called to Egypt for help. The people went to Assyria for help.
12 They go to those countries for help, but I will trap them. I will throw my net over them, and I will bring them down like the birds of the sky. I will punish them for their agreements.*
13 It will be bad for them. They left me. They refused to obey me. So they will be destroyed. I saved those people. But they speak lies against me.
14 They never call to me from their hearts. Yes, they cry on their beds. And they cut themselves when they ask for grain and new wine. But in their hearts, they have turned away from me.
15 I trained them and made their arms strong. But they made evil plans against me.
16 But they were like a boomerang.*

Gray hairs This word might describe something that was put on the food when people cooked, something that looked like gray hairs.
for their agreements Or, “for the report of their treaties.”
boomerang A curved stick used in hunting birds. When thrown properly, it flies low to the ground and suddenly curves upward, often returning the thrower. Literally, “a bow of throwing” or “a bow of deception.”

nation Literally, “house.” This might mean the royal family of that country.
Ephraim Joseph’s younger son (Gen. 41:50–52). Ephraim’s family became a family group in Israel. Here the name is used to mean the northern kingdom of Israel.
Samaria The capital of the northern ten-family group kingdom of Israel. Here it is often used to mean the northern kingdom itself.
Idol Worship Leads to Destruction

8 “Put the trumpet to your lips and give the warning. Be like an eagle over the Lord’s house. The Israelites have broken my Agreement. They have not obeyed my law. 2 They yell to me, ‘My God, we in Israel know you!’ But Israel refused the good things. So the enemy chases him. 4 The Israelites chose their kings, but they didn’t come to me for advice. The Israelites chose leaders. But they didn’t choose men that I knew. The Israelites used their silver and gold to make idols for themselves. So they will be destroyed. 5–6 The Lord has refused your calf, Samaria. God says, ‘I am very angry against the Israelites.’ The people of Israel will be punished for their sin. Some worker made those statues. They are not God. Samaria’s calf will be broken into pieces. 7 The Israelites did a foolish thing—it was like trying to plant the wind. But they will get only troubles—they will harvest a whirlwind. The grain in the fields will grow. It will give no food. Even if it grew something, strangers would eat it.

9 Israel was destroyed. Its people are scattered among the nations like some dish that was thrown away because no one wanted it.

Israel Forgets God and Worships Idols

11 Ephraim built more and more altars, and that was a sin. They have been altars of sin for Ephraim.

12 Even if I wrote 10,000 laws for Ephraim, he would treat them like they were for some stranger.

13 The Israelites love sacrifices. They offer the meat and eat it. The Lord does not accept their sacrifices. He remembers their sins. And he will punish them. They will be carried as prisoners to Egypt. Israel built kings’ houses. But it forgot its Maker! Now Judah builds fortresses. But I will send a fire on Judah’s cities. And the fire will destroy its fortresses!”

The Sadness of Exile

9 Israel, don’t celebrate like the nations do! Don’t be happy! You acted like a prostitute and left your God. You did your sexual sin on every threshing floor. But the grain from those threshing floors will not give enough food for Israel. There will not be enough wine for Israel.

3 The Israelites will not stay in the Lord’s land. Ephraim will return to Egypt. In Assyria they will eat food that they should not eat. 4 The Israelites will not give offerings of wine to the Lord. They will not offer sacrifices to God.

They changed … to me Or, “The turned, but not upward,” or, “They turned to the ‘no-gods.’” That is, the statues people worshiped as gods.

10 Israel went to his ‘lovers’ among the nations. But I will gather the Israelites together. But they must suffer a little from the burden of that mighty king.
HOSEA 9:5–10:1

1042

him. Their sacrifices will be like food eaten at a funeral*—whoever eats it will become unclean. Their bread will not go into the Lord’s temple—they will have to eat that bread by themselves. 5They will not be able to celebrate the Lord’s holidays or festivals.*

6The people of Israel left because the enemy took everything from them. But Egypt will take the people themselves. Memphis* will bury them. Weeds will grow over their silver treasures. Thorns will grow where the Israelites lived.

Israel Rejected the True Prophets

7The prophet says, “Israel, learn these things: The time of punishment has come. The time has come for you to pay for the evil things you did,” But the people of Israel say, “The prophet is a fool. This man with God’s Spirit is crazy.” The prophet says, “You will be punished for your bad sins. You will be punished for your hate.” 8God and the prophet are like guards watching over Ephraim.* But there are many traps along the way. And people hate the prophet, even in the house of his God.

9The Israelites have gone deep into ruin like in the time of Gibeah.* The Lord will remember the Israelites’ sins. He will punish their sins.

Israel Is Ruined by Its Worship of Idols

10At the time I found Israel, they were like fresh grapes in the desert. They were like the first figs on a fig tree at the beginning of the season. But then they came to Baal-Peor.* And they changed—and I had to cut them off (destroy them) like rotten fruit.* They became like the terrible things (false gods) that they loved.

The Israelites Will Have No Children

11Like a bird, Ephraim’s* glory will fly away. There will be no more pregnancies, no more births, no more babies. 12But even if the Israelites do raise their children, I will not help. I will take the children away from them. I will leave them, and they will have nothing but troubles.

13I can see that Ephraim is leading his children into a trap.* Ephraim brings out his children to the killer. 14Lord, give them what you will. Give them a womb that loses babies, give them breasts that can’t give milk.

15All their evil is in Gilgal;* I began hating them there. I will force them to leave my house, because of the evil things they do. I will not love them any more. Their leaders are rebels—they have turned against me;

16Ephraim* will be punished. Their root is dying. They will not have any more babies. They might give birth to babies, but I will kill the precious babies that come from their bodies.

17Those people will not listen to my God. So he will refuse to listen to them. And they will wander among the nations without a home.

Israel’s Riches Led to Its Worship of Idols

10Israel is like a vine that grows plenty of fruit. But as Israel got more and more things, he built more and more altars to honor false gods.* His land became better and better, so he put up better and better stones to honor false gods.

They … the Lord’s holidays or festivals  Literally, “What will you do for a day of solemn assembly, for the Lord’s festival day?”
Memphis  An important city in Egypt.
Ephraim  Joseph’s younger son (Gen. 41:50–52). Ephraim’s family became a family group in Israel. Here the name is used to mean the northern kingdom of Israel.
Gibeah  At this place, men of the Benjamin family group did a very terrible sin. See Judges 19–20.
Baal-Peor  This happened when Moses was still leading the Israelites in the desert. Read Num. 25:1–5.
they changed … rotten fruit  This is a word play that can also mean, “they dedicated themselves to a shameful idol.”
I can see … trap  The Hebrew is not clear here.
Gilgal  A city in Israel where people had worshiped God. But later they began worshiping false gods at that place.
2 The people of Israel tried to trick God. But now they must accept their guilt. The Lord will break down their altars. He will destroy their memorial stones.

The Evil Decisions of the Israelites

3 Now the Israelites say, “We have no king. We don’t honor the Lord! And his king can’t do anything to us!”

4 They make promises—but they are only telling lies. They don’t keep their promises! They make agreements with other countries. God does not like those agreements. The judges are like poisonous weeds growing in a plowed field.

5 The people from Samaria worship the calves at Beth-Aven. Those people will really cry. Those priests will really cry. Why? Because their beautiful idol is gone. It was carried away.

6 It was carried away as a gift to the great king of Assyria. He will keep Ephraim’s shameful idol. Israel will be ashamed of its idol. Samaria’s false god will be destroyed. It will be like a piece of wood floating away on the water’s surface.

7 Israel sinned and built many high places. The high places of Aven will be destroyed. Thorns and weeds will grow on their altars. Then they will say to the mountains, “Cover us!” and to the hills, “Fall on us!”

Israel Will Pay For Sin

9 Israel, you have sinned since the time of Gibeah. (And those people have continued sinning there.) War truly will catch those evil people at Gibeah. I will come to punish them. Armies will come together against them. They will punish the Israelites for both of their sins.

10 Ephraim is like a trained young cow that loves to walk on grain on the threshing floor. I will put a good yoke on her neck. I will put the ropes on Ephraim. Then Judah will begin plowing. Jacob will break the ground himself.

11 If you plant goodness, you will harvest true love. Plow your ground, and you will harvest with the Lord. He will come, and he will make goodness fall on you like rain!

12 But you planted evil, and you harvested trouble. You ate the fruit of your lies. Why? Because you have trusted in your power and your soldiers.

13 So your armies will hear the noise of battle. And all your fortresses will be destroyed. It will be like the time Shalman destroyed Beth Arbel. At that time of war, mothers were killed with their children. And that will happen to you at Bethel. Why? Because you did so many evil things. When that day begins, the king of Israel will be fully destroyed.”

Israel Has Forgotten the Lord

11 The Lord said, “I loved Israel when he was a child, and I called my son out of Egypt.

2 But the more I called the Israelites, the more the Israelites left me.

Gibeath At this place, men of the Benjamin family group did a very terrible sin. See Judges 19 and 20.

Ephraim Joseph’s younger son (Gen. 41:50–52). Ephraim’s family became a family group in Israel. Here the name is used to mean the northern kingdom of Israel.

threshing floor A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.

Shalman This is probably Shalmaneser, king of Assyria.

I This is what the ancient Greek says. The Hebrew says, “they.”
The Israelites gave sacrifices to the Baals.* They burned incense* to the idols.*

3 “But it was I who taught Ephraim* to walk! I took the Israelites in my arms! I healed them! But they don’t know that.

4 I led them with ropes.* But they were ropes of love. I was like a person who set them free.* I bent down and fed them.

5 The Israelites refuse to turn back to God. So they will go to Egypt! The king of Assyria will become their king. 6 The sword will swing against their cities. It will kill their strong men. It will destroy their leaders.

7 My people expect me to come back. They will call to God above. But God will not help them.”

The Lord Does Not Want to Destroy Israel

8 “Ephraim,* I don’t want to give you up. Israel, I want to protect you. I don’t want to make you like Admah!* I don’t want to make you like Zeboiim!* I am changing my mind. My love for you is too strong.

9 I will not let my terrible anger win. I will not destroy Ephraim again. I am God, and not man. I am the Holy One, I am with you. I will not show my anger.

10 I will roar like a lion. I will roar, and my children will come and follow me. My children will come from the west, shaking with fear.

11 They will come from Egypt shaking like birds. They will come shaking like doves from the land of Assyria. And I will take them back home.”

The Lord said that.

12 Ephraim surrounded me with false gods. The people of Israel turned against me.* And they were destroyed! But Judah still walks with El.* Judah is true to the holy ones.*

The Lord Is Against Israel

12 Ephraim* is wasting its time—Israel “chases the wind” all day long. The people tell more and more lies. They steal more and more. They have made agreements with Assyria, and they are carrying their olive oil to Egypt.

2 The Lord says, “I have an argument against Israel.* Jacob* must be punished for the things he did. He must be punished for the bad things he did. 3 Jacob was still in his mother’s body, and he had already started tricking his brother.* Jacob was a strong young man. And at that time, he fought with God. 4 Jacob wrestled with God’s angel and won.* He cried and asked for a favor. That happened at Bethel. At that place, he spoke with us. 5 Yes, YAHWEH is the God of the armies.* His name is YAHWEH (the Lord). 6 So come back to your God. Be loyal to him. Do the right thing! Always trust your God!

7 Jacob* is a real businessman. He even cheats his friend! Even his scales* lie.

Ephraim … me Or, “Ephraim surrounded me with lies. The house of Israel surrounded me with deception.”

El This might be one of the names of God, or it might be El, the most important god of the Canaanite people. It is not clear if this means that Judah was being faithful to God, or if Judah was worshiping the false gods.

holy ones These might be angels or Canaanite false gods.

Israel Hebrew has, “Judah.”

Jacob Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22–28.

he had already started tricking his brother Or “he grabbed his brother’s heel.” This is a word play. The Hebrew word is like the name “Jacob.” Read Genesis 25:26.

Jacob wrestled with God’s angel and won Read Genesis 32:22–28.

YAHWEH is the God of the armies This is like one of the names for God. It is usually translated “Lord All-Powerful.

scales Or, “balances.” A tool for weighing things.

Baals False gods worshiped by the Canaanites in the land where the Israelites lived.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

Ephraim Joseph’s younger son (Gen. 41:50–52). Ephraim’s family became a family group in Israel. Here the name is used to mean the northern kingdom of Israel.

ropes The Hebrew says, “ropes of a man.”

set them free Literally, “lifted the yoke from their jaws.”

Admah, Zeboiim Two cities that were destroyed when God destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah. See Gen. 19; Deut. 29:23.
8Ephraim said, ‘I am rich! I have found true riches! No person will learn about my crimes. No person will learn about my sins.’

9“But I have been the Lord your God since the time you were in the land of Egypt. I will make you live in tents—like during the time of the Tent of Meeting.* 10I spoke to the prophets. I gave them many visions.* I gave the prophets many ways to teach my lessons to you. 11But the people in Gilead* have sinned. There are many terrible idols in that place. The people offer sacrifices to bulls at Gilgal. Those people have many altars.* There are rows and rows of altars—like the rows of dirt in a plowed field. 12“Jacob ran away to the land of Aram. In that place, Israel* worked for a wife. He kept sheep to get another wife. 13But the Lord used a prophet and brought Israel out of Egypt. The Lord used a prophet and kept Israel safe. 14But Ephraim caused the Lord to be very angry. Ephraim killed many people. So he will be punished for his crimes. His master (the Lord) will make him bear his shame.”

Israel Has Ruined Itself

13“Ephraim* made himself very important in Israel. Ephraim spoke and people shook with fear. But Ephraim sinned—he began worshiping Baal.* 2Now the Israelites sin more and more. They make idols* for themselves. Workers make those fancy statues from silver. And then those people talk to their statues! They offer sacrifices to those statues. They kiss those golden calves. 3That is why those people will soon disappear. They will be like the fog that comes early in the morning—that fog comes and then soon disappears. The Israelites will be like chaff* that is blown from the threshing floor.* The Israelites will be like smoke that rises from a chimney and disappears.

4“I have been the Lord your God since the time you were in the land of Egypt. You did not know any other god except me. I am the One who saved you. 5I knew you in the desert—I knew you in that dry land. 6I gave food to the Israelites.* They ate that food. They became full and satisfied. They became proud. And they forgot me!

7“That is why I will be like a lion to them. I will be like a leopard waiting by the road. 8I will attack them like a bear whose cubs were robbed from her. I will attack them. I will rip open their chests. I will be like a lion or other wild animal tearing and eating its prey.”

No One Can Save Israel from God’s Anger

9“Israel, I helped you. But you turned against me. So now I will destroy you! 10Where is your king? He can’t save you in all your cities! Where are your judges? You asked for them, saying, ‘Give me a king and leaders.’* 11I was angry, and I gave you a king. And when I became very angry, I took him away.

12“Ephraim tried to hide his guilt. He thought his sins were a secret. 13His punishment will be like the pain a woman feels giving birth. He will not be a wise son. The time will come for his birth, and he will not survive.

chaff The seed coverings and stems separated from the seeds of plants like wheat or barley. Farmers saved the seeds but let the wind blow the useless chaff away.
threshing floor A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.
You asked for … leaders See 1 Sam. 8:4–9.
HOSEA 13:14–14:9

14 "I will save them from the grave!
I will rescue them from death!
Death, where are your diseases?
Grave, where is your power?
I am not looking for revenge!

15 Israel grows among his brothers.
But a powerful east wind will come—the Lord’s wind will blow from the desert.
Then Israel’s well will become dry.
His spring of water will become dry.
The wind will take every valuable thing from Israel’s treasure.

16 Samaria must be punished.
Why? Because she turned against her God.
The Israelites will be killed with swords.
Their children will be torn to pieces.
Their pregnant women will be ripped open."

Return to the Lord

14 Israel, you fell and sinned against God.
So come back to the Lord your God.
2 Think about the things you will say. And come back to the Lord. Say to him, “Take away our sin.
Accept our good words.
We offer you the praise from our lips.*

3 Assyria will not save us.
We will not ride on war horses.
We will never again say, ‘Our God’
to something we made with our hands.
Why? Because you are the One who shows mercy to orphans.*"

The Lord Will Forgive Israel

4 The Lord says,
“I will forgive them for leaving me.
I will love them freely,
because I have stopped being angry.

5 I will be like the dew to Israel.
Israel will blossom like the lily.*
He will grow like the cedar trees of Lebanon.

6 His branches will grow,
and he will be like a beautiful olive tree.
He will be like the sweet smell from the cedar trees of Lebanon.

7 The people of Israel will again live under my protection.
They will grow like grain.
They will bloom like a vine.
They will be like the wine of Lebanon.”

The Lord Warns Israel About Idols

8 “Ephraim,* I will have nothing more to do with idols.*
I am the One who answers your prayers.
I am the One who watches over you.*
I am like a fir tree that is always green.
Your fruit comes from me.”

Final Advice

9 A wise person understands these things.
A smart person should learn these things.
The Lord’s ways are right.
Good people will live by them.
Sinners will die by them.*

praise from our lips Literally, “the fruit of our lips.”
orphans children with no parents.

lily A kind of flower.
Ephraim Joseph’s younger son (Gen. 41:50–52). Ephraim’s family became a family group in Israel. Here the name is used to mean the northern kingdom of Israel.
idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.
I am the One who watches over you This is a word play. The Hebrew word is like the name “Assyria.” God is saying that he, not some foreign country, protects Israel.
Good people … die by them Literally, “Good people will walk on them. Sinners will stumble on them.”
Joel

Locusts Will Destroy the Crops

1 Joel son of Pethuel received this message from the Lord:

2 Leaders, listen to this message!
   Listen to me, all you people that live in the land.
   Has anything like this happened before during your lifetime? No!
   Did anything like this happen during your fathers’ lifetime? No!
3 You will tell these things to your children.
   Your children will tell their children.
   And your grandchildren will tell the people of the next generation.
4 What the cutting locust* has left,
   the swarming locust has eaten.
   And what the swarming locust has left,
   the hopping locust has eaten.
   And what the hopping locust has left,
   the destroying locust* has eaten!

The Locusts Arrive

5 Drunks, wake up and cry!
   All of you people that drink wine, cry.
   Why? Because your sweet wine is finished.
   You won’t get another taste of that wine.
6 A large and powerful nation came to attack my country.
   Its soldiers were too many to count.
   Its weapons were as sharp as a lion’s teeth and as powerful as a lion’s jaw.

7 It destroyed my grapevine.
   Its good vines withered and died.
   It destroyed my fig tree,
   stripped off the bark and threw it away.

The People Cry

8 Cry like the young woman that was ready to be married, and her husband-to-be was killed.
9 Priests, servants of the Lord, cry!
   Why? Because there will be no more grain and drink offerings
   in the Lord’s temple.*
10 The fields are ruined.
   Even the ground is crying.
   Why? Because the grain is destroyed;
   the new wine is dried up,
   and the olive oil is gone.
11 Be sad, farmers!
   Cry loud, grape farmers!
   Cry, for the wheat and for the barley!* Why? Because the harvest in the field is lost.
12 The vines have become dry.
   And the fig tree is dying.
   All the trees in the field—the pomegranate,
   the palm, and the apple—have withered.
   And happiness among the people is dead.
13 Priests, put on your clothes of sadness and cry loudly.
   Servants of the altar,* cry loudly.
   Servants of my God, you will sleep in your clothes of sadness.
   Why? Because there will be no more grain and drink offerings
   in God’s temple.*

---

locust Insects, like grasshoppers. Locusts can quickly destroy all trees and plants in a farmer’s fields. So locusts made the people very scared. Here, Joel might be talking about an enemy’s army.

cutting … destroying locusts These are the different names for the locusts. These may be different names for the same kind of locusts—only at different times of the locust’s growth period.

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

barley A kind of grain.

altar(s) A stone table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.
The Terrible Destruction of the Locusts

14 Tell the people that there will be a special time for not eating food. Call the people together for a special meeting. Bring the leaders and all the people that live in the land together. Bring them to the temple* of the Lord your God, and pray to the Lord.

15 Be sad! Why? Because the Lord’s special day is near. At that time, punishment will come like an attack from God All-Powerful.

16 Our food is gone. Joy and happiness are gone from the temple* of our God. We planted seeds, but the seeds became dry and dead lying in the soil. Our plants are dry and dead. Our barns are empty and falling down.

18 The animals are hungry and groaning. The herds of cattle wander around, confused. They have no grass to eat. The sheep are dying.*

19 Lord, I am calling to you for help. Fire has changed our green fields into a desert. Flames have burned all the trees in the field.

20 Wild animals also need your help. The streams are dry—there is no water! Fire has changed our green fields into a desert.

The Coming Day of the Lord

2 Blow the trumpet on Zion.* Shout a warning on my holy mountain.

Let all the people that live in the land shake with fear.

The Lord’s special day is coming.

The Lord’s special day is near.

2 It will be a dark, gloomy day.

It will be a dark and cloudy day.

At sunrise, you will see the army spread over the mountains.

It will be a great and powerful army.

There has never been anything like it before.

And there will never be anything like it again.

3 The army will destroy the land like a burning fire.

In front of them, the land will be like the Garden of Eden.

Behind them, the land will be like an empty desert.

Nothing will escape them.

4 The locusts look like horses.

They run like war horses.

5 Listen to them.

It is like the noise of chariots* riding over the mountains.

It is like the noise of flames burning the chaff.*

They are a powerful people.

They are ready for war.

6 Before this army, people shake with fear.

Their faces become pale from fear.

7 The soldiers run fast.

The soldiers climb over the walls.

Each soldier marches straight ahead.

They don’t move from their path.

8 They don’t trip each other.

Each soldier walks in his own path.

If one of the soldiers is hit and falls down, the others keep right on marching.

9 They run to the city.

They quickly climb over the wall.

They climb into the houses.

They climb through the windows like thieves.

10 Before them, earth and sky shake.

The sun and the moon become dark.

And the stars stop shining.

11 The Lord calls loudly to his army.

His camp is very large.

That army obeys his commands.

That army is very powerful.

The Lord’s special day is a great and terrible day.

No person can stop it.

The Lord Tells the People to Change

12 This is the Lord’s message:

“Now come back to me with all your heart,

You did bad things, cry, cry and don’t eat any food!

temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.

dying Literally, “being punished.”

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

chaff The seed coverings and stems separated from the seeds of plants like wheat or barley. Farmers saved the seeds but let the wind blow the useless chaff away.
13 Tear your hearts, not your clothes.*
Come back to the Lord your God.
He is kind and merciful.
He does not become angry quickly.
He has great love.
Maybe he will change his mind about the bad punishment he planned,*
14 Who knows, maybe the Lord will change his mind.
And maybe he will leave behind a blessing for you.
Then you can give grain and drink offerings to the Lord your God.

Pray to the Lord
15 Blow the trumpet at Zion.*
Call for a special meeting.
Call for a special time for not eating.
16 Bring together the people.
Call for a special meeting.
Bring together the older men.
Bring together the children.
Bring the small babies that still suck their mother’s breasts.
Let the bride and her new husband come from their bedroom.
17 Let the priests, the Lord’s servants, cry between the porch* and the altar.*
All of those people should say these things:
“Lord, have mercy on your people.
Don’t let your people be put to shame.
Don’t let other people tell jokes about your people.
Don’t let people in other nations laugh at us and say, ‘Where is their God?’”

The Lord Will Restore the Land
18 Then the Lord became excited about his land.
He felt sorry for his people.
19 The Lord spoke to his people.
He said,
“I will send you grain, wine, and oil.
You will have plenty.
I won’t shame you among the nations any more.
20 No, I will force those people from the north* to leave your land.
I will make them go into a dry, empty land.
Some of them will go to the eastern sea.
Some of them will go to the western sea.
Those people did such terrible things.
But they will be like a dead and rotting thing.
There will be such a terrible smell!”

The Land Will Be Made New Again
21 Land, don’t be afraid.
Be happy and full of joy.
The Lord will do great things.
22 Animals of the field, don’t be afraid.
The desert pastures will grow grass.
The trees will grow fruit.
The fig trees and the vines will grow plenty of fruit.
23 So be happy, people of Zion.*
Be joyful in the Lord your God.
He will be good and give you rain.
He will send you the early rains and the late rains like before.
24 The threshing floors* will be filled with wheat.
And the barrels will overflow with wine and olive oil.
25 “I, the Lord, sent my army against you.
The swarming locusts and the hopping locusts and the destroying locusts and the cutting locusts* ate everything you had.
But I, the Lord, will pay you back for those years of trouble,*

Tear your hearts, not your clothes People tore their clothes to show their sadness. Here God wants the people to be truly sad for the bad things they did.
Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
porch An open area in front of the temple.
altar(s) A stone table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

north The Babylonian army came from this direction to attack Judah. Armies from countries north and east of Israel often came this way to attack Judah and Israel.
threshing floor(s) A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.
swarming locusts . . . cutting locusts See Joel 1:4.
Then you will have plenty to eat. You will be full. You will praise the name of the Lord your God. He has done wonderful things for you. My people will never, again, be ashamed.

27 You will know that I am with Israel. You will know that I am the Lord your God. There is no other God. My people will never be ashamed again.”

God Will Give His Spirit to All People

28 “After this I will pour (give) my Spirit on all kinds of people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy.* Your old men will dream dreams. Your young men will see visions.* At that time I will pour out (give) my Spirit even on servants, both men and women. I will show amazing things in the sky and on the earth—There will be blood, fire, and thick smoke. The sun will be changed into darkness, The moon will be changed into blood. And then the great and wonderful Day of the Lord will come! And then, any person that calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. There will be survivors on Mount Zion* and in Jerusalem, just like the Lord said. Yes, the survivors that the Lord is calling will come back. Judah’s Enemies Will Be Punished

3 “Yes, at that time, I will bring back the people of Judah and Jerusalem from captivity. I will also gather all the nations together. I will bring all these nations down into Jehoshaphat Valley.* There I will judge them. Those nations scattered my people, Israel. They forced them to live in other nations. So I will punish those nations. Those nations divided up my land. They threw lots* for my people. They sold a boy to buy a prostitute.* And they sold a girl to buy wine to drink. They even ...

4“Tyre! Sidon! All of you areas of Philistia! You are not important to me!* Are you punishing me for something I did? You might think that you are punishing me, but I will soon punish you. 5You took my silver and gold. You took my precious treasures and put it in your temples.* 6“You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks. That way, you could take them far from their land. 7You sent my people to that faraway place. But I will bring them back. And I will punish you for what you did. 8I will sell your sons and daughters to the people of Judah. Then they will sell them to the faraway Sabeans.” The Lord said those things.

Prepare for War

9 Announce this among the nations: Prepare for war! Wake up the strong men! Let all the men of war come near. Let them come up! 10 Beat your plows into swords. Make spears from your pruning hooks.* Let the weak man say, “I am a strong soldier.” 11 All of you nations, hurry! Come together in that place! Lord, bring your strong soldiers! 12 Wake up, nations! Come to Jehoshaphat Valley! There I will sit to judge all the surrounding nations.

prophesy To receive special messages from God, and then teach those things to people.

vision(s) Something like a dream that God used to speak to people.

Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.

Jehoshaphat Valley This name means, “The Lord judged.”

lots Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.

prostitute A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stops following him.

You are not important to me Literally, “What are you to me?”

temples Buildings used for worship. Here, the temples were used to worship idols.

pruning hooks These tools were used to prune (cut) branches of trees. Read Isa. 2:4.
Bring the sickle,*
because the harvest is ripe.*
Come, walk on the grapes,*
because the winepress is full.
The barrels will be full and spilling over,
because their evil is great.

There are many, many people
in the Valley of Decision.*
The Lord’s special day is near
in the Valley of Decision.
The sun and the moon will become dark.
The stars will stop shining.

The Lord God will shout from Zion,*
He will shout from Jerusalem,
and the sky and the earth will shake.
But the Lord God will be a safe place
for his people.
He will be a place of safety
for the people of Israel.

Then you will know
that I am the Lord your God,
I live on Zion,* my holy mountain.
Jerusalem will become holy.
Strangers will never pass through that city again.”

A New Life for Judah Promised

“On that day, the mountains will drip with sweet wine.
The hills will flow with milk.
And water will flow through all the empty rivers of Judah.
A fountain will come from the Lord’s temple.*
It will give water to Acacia Valley.

Egypt will be empty.
Edom will be an empty wilderness.
Why? Because they were cruel
to the people of Judah.
They killed innocent people*
in their country.

But there will always be people living in Judah,
People will live in Jerusalem
through many generations.

Those people killed my people.
So I really will punish them!”
The Lord God will live in Zion!*
Amos

Introduction

The message of Amos. Amos was one of the shepherds from the city Tekoa. Amos saw visions about Israel during the time that Uzziah was king of Judah and during the time that Jeroboam son of Joash was king of Israel. This was two years before the earthquake.

Punishment for Aram

2 Amos said: The Lord will shout like a lion in Zion.* His loud voice will roar from Jerusalem.
And the green pastures of the shepherds will turn brown and die.
Even Mount Carmel* will become dry.

3The Lord says these things: “I will definitely punish the people of Damascus for the many crimes they did. Why? Because they crushed the people of Gilead* with iron threshing tools.* 4So I will start a fire at Hazael's* house (Aram). And that fire will destroy the great palaces of Ben Hadad.*

5“I will also break open the gates of Damascus,* I will remove the person sitting on the throne in the Valley of Aven.* I will remove the symbol of power from Beth-Eden* And the Aramean people will be defeated and taken back to Kir.* The Lord said those things.”

Punishment for the Philistines

6The Lord says this: “I will definitely punish the people of Gaza* for the many crimes they did.* Why? Because they took an entire nation and sent them as slaves to Edom.* 7So I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza. This fire will destroy the high towers in Gaza. 8And I will destroy the one that sits on the throne in Ashdod.* I will destroy the king that holds the scepter in Ashkelon.* I will punish the people of Ekron.* Then the Philistines that are still left alive, will die.” The Lord God said those things.

Punishment for Phoenicia

9The Lord says these things: “I will definitely punish the people of Tyre* for the many crimes they did.* Why? Because they took an entire nation and sent them as slaves to the Valley of Aven* A name that can mean, “Leisure Valley” or “Empty Valley of Misfortune.
Beth-Eden The royal city of Aram (Syria) on Mount Lebanon.
This name means, “House of Pleasure” or “Paradise.”
Kir Or, “Kur,” an area controlled by the Assyrians. See Amos 9:7.
Gaza An important city of the Philistines.
for the many crimes they did Literally, “For three crimes … and for four …” This shows that these people had done plenty of sins—and it was time to punish those people.
Edom A nation southeast of Israel.
Ashdod Another important city of the Philistines.
Ashkelon Another important city of the Philistines.
Ekron Another important city of the Philistines.
Tyre The capital of Phoenicia.
Edom.* They did not remember the agreement they had made with their brothers (Israel).

10 So I will start a fire at the walls of Tyre. That fire will destroy the high towers in Tyre.”

Punishment for the Edomites

11 The Lord says these things: “I will definitely punish the people of Edom* for the many crimes they did.* Why? Because Edom chased his brother (Israel) with the sword. Edom showed no mercy. Edom’s anger continued forever—he kept tearing and tearing at Israel like a wild animal. 12 So I will start a fire at Teman.* That fire will destroy the high towers of Bozrah.”

Punishment for the Ammonites

13 The Lord says these things: “I will definitely punish the people of Ammon* for the many crimes they did.* Why? Because they killed the pregnant women in Gilead.* The Ammonite people did this so they could take that land and make their country larger. 14 So I will start a fire at the wall of Rabbah.* That fire will destroy the high towers of Rabbah. Troubles will come to them like a whirlwind into their country. 15 Then their kings and leaders will be captured. They will all be taken together.” The Lord said those things.

Punishment for Moab

2 The Lord says these things: “I will definitely punish the people of Moab* for the many crimes they did.* Why? Because Moab burned the bones of the king of Edom* into lime. 3 So I will start a fire in Moab. And that fire will destroy the high towers of Kerioth.* There will be terrible shouting and the sounds of a trumpet, and Moab will die. 4 So, I will bring an end to the kings* of Moab. And I will kill all the leaders of Moab.” The Lord said those things.

Punishment for Judah

4 The Lord says this: “I will definitely punish Judah for the many crimes they did.* Why? Because they refused to obey the Lord’s commands. They didn’t keep his commands. Their ancestors* believed lies. And those same lies caused the people of Judah to quit following God. 5 So I will start a fire in Judah. And that fire will destroy the high towers of Jerusalem.”

Punishment for Israel

6 The Lord says this: “I will definitely punish Israel for the many crimes they did.* Why? Because they sold good, innocent people for a little silver. They sold poor people for the price of a pair of shoes. 7 They pushed those poor peoples’ faces into the ground and walked on them. They stopped listening to suffering people. Fathers and sons have sexual relations with the same woman. They have ruined my holy name. 8 They take clothes from poor people, and then they sit on those clothes while they worship at their altars.* They loaned money to poor people, and then took their clothes as collateral.* They make people pay fines, and then they use that money to buy wine for themselves to drink in the temple of their God.

9 “But it was I who destroyed the Amorites* before them. The Amorites were tall like cedar trees. They were as strong as oak trees.

Edom  A nation southeast of Israel.
for the many crimes they did  Literally, “For three crimes ... and for four ...” This shows that these people had done plenty of sins—and it was time to punish those people.
Teman  A city at the north part of the country of Edom.
Borrah  A city at the south part of the country of Edom.
Ammon  The Ammonites were the descendants of Ben-Ammi, son of Lot. Read Genesis 19:38.
Gilead  An area where some of the people from the family group of Manasseh lived. See Num. 26:29.
Rabbah  The capital of the Ammonites.
whirlwind  A strong wind that blows in a circle.
Moab  A country east of Israel. The Moabite people were descendants of Lot’s son, Moab. See Genesis 19:37.
Kerioth  A city in Moab. This might be Ar, the capital of Moab.
kings  Literally, “judge.”
ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
altar(s)  A stone table used for offering sacrifices to God.
collateral  Things that a person uses to borrow money. If that person does not pay his debt, then the person he borrowed from can keep those things. It was against Moses’ law to take a person’s clothes as collateral. See Deut. 24:12-13.
Amorites  One of the nations who lived in Canaan before the Israelites came. They were the people that scared the Israelites while Moses was leading them in the desert. See Num. 13:33.
But I destroyed their fruit above and their roots below.*

10 "I was the One who brought you from the land of Egypt. For 40 years I led you through the desert. I helped you take the Amorites’ land. 11 I made some of your sons to be prophets. I made some of your young men to be Nazirites.* People of Israel, it is true.” The Lord said these things. 12 "But you made the Nazirites drink wine. You told the prophets not to prophesy. 13 You are like a heavy weight to me. I am bent low like a wagon loaded with too much straw. 14 No person will escape—not even the fastest runner. Strong men will not be strong enough. Soldiers will not be able to save themselves. 15 People with bows and arrows will not survive. Fast runners will not escape. People on horses will not escape alive. At that time, even very brave soldiers will run away. They will not take the time to put their clothes on.” The Lord said these things!

Warning to Israel

3 People of Israel, listen to this message! The Lord said these things about you, Israel. This message is about all the families (Israel) that I brought from the land of Egypt. 2 "There are many families on earth. But you are the only family I chose to know in a special way. And you turned against me. So I will punish you for all your sins.”

The Cause of Israel’s Punishment

3 Two people will not walk together unless they agree! 4 A lion in the forest will roar only after catching an animal. If a young lion is roaring in his cave, then it means he caught something. 5 A bird will not fly into a trap on the ground if there is no food in the trap. And if the trap closes, then it will catch the bird. 6 If a trumpet blows a warning, then the people will surely shake with fear. If trouble comes to a city, then the Lord caused it. 7 The Lord my Master might decide to do something. But before he does anything, he will tell his plans to his servants, the prophets. 8 If a lion roars, people will be scared. If the Lord speaks, prophets will prophesy.*

9–10 Go to the high towers in Ashdod* and Egypt and announce this message: “Come to the mountains of Samaria. There you will see great confusion. Why? Because the people don’t know how to live right. Those people were cruel to other people. They took things from other people and hid those things in their high towers. Their treasuries are filled with things they took in war.”

11 So the Lord says, “An enemy will come to that land. That enemy will take away your strength. He will take the things you hid in your high towers.”

12 The Lord says,

“A lion might attack a lamb, and a shepherd might try to save the lamb. But the shepherd will save only a part of that lamb. He might pull two legs or a part of an ear from the lion’s mouth. In the same way, most of the people of Israel will not be saved. The people living in Samaria will save only a corner from a bed, or a piece of cloth from a couch.”

13 My Master, the Lord God All-Powerful, says these things: “Warn Jacob’s family (Israel) about these things. 14 Israel sinned, and I will punish them for their sins. I will also destroy the altars* at Bethel.* The horns of the altar* will be cut off and fall to the ground. 15 I will destroy the winter house with the summer house. The houses of ivory will be destroyed.
Many houses will be destroyed.” The Lord said those things.

The Women That Love Pleasure

Listen to me, you cows of Bashan* on Samaria’s mountain. You hurt poor people. You crush those poor people. You tell your husbands,* “Bring us something to drink!”

The Lord my Master made a promise. He promised by his holiness, that troubles will come to you. People will use hooks and take you away as prisoners. They will use fishhooks to take away your children. Your city will be destroyed. The women will rush out through cracks in the wall and throw themselves onto the pile of dead bodies.*

The Lord says this. Go to Bethel and sin! Go to Gilgal* and sin even more. Offer your sacrifices in the morning. Bring a tenth of your crops for the three-day holiday. And offer a thank offering made with yeast. Tell everyone about the freewill offerings.* Israel, you love to do those things. So go and do them.” The Lord said this.

I did many things to try to make you come to me. I didn’t give you any food to eat.* There was no food in any of your cities. But you didn’t come back to me. The Lord said those things.

I also stopped the rain—and it was three months before harvest time. So no crops grew. Then I let it rain on one city, but not on another city. Rain fell on one part of the country. But on the other part of the country, the land became very dry. So the people from two or three cities staggered to another city to get water—but there was not enough water for every person. Still you didn’t come to me for help.” The Lord said those things.

“I made your crops die from heat and disease. I destroyed your gardens and your fields of grapes. Locusts* ate your fig trees and olive trees. But you still didn’t come to me. The Lord said those things.

“I sent diseases against you, like I did to Egypt. I killed your young men with swords. I took away your horses. I made your camps smell very bad—from all the dead bodies. But still you didn’t come back to me.” The Lord said those things.

“I destroyed you like I destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.* And those cities were completely destroyed. You were like a burnt stick pulled from a fire. But still you didn’t come back to me.” The Lord said those things.

So I will do these things to you, Israel. I will do this to you. Israel, prepare to meet your God! Who am I? I am the One who made the mountains. I created your minds.* I taught people how to speak and I changed the darkness into dawn. I walk over the mountains of the earth. Who am I? My name is YAHWEH, God of the armies.”*

A Sad Song for Israel

People of Israel, listen to this song. This funeral song is about you.

The virgin* of Israel has fallen. She will not get up any more. She was left alone, lying in the dirt. There is no person to lift her up.

Locusts Insects like grasshoppers that could destroy a large crop very quickly.

Sodom and Gomorrah Two cities that God destroyed because the people were very evil.

virgin The Hebrew word can mean “a woman that has not had sexual relations with anyone,” “bride,” or “fiancée.” Here it means the city Samaria.
AMOS 5:3–16

3 The Lord my Master says these things:
   “Officers leaving the city with 1,000 men,
   will return with only 100 men.
   Officers leaving the city with 100 men,
   will return with only ten men.

4 The Lord says this to the nation* of Israel:
   “Come looking for me and live.
   5 But don’t look in Bethel.*
   Don’t go to Gilgal.*
   Don’t cross the border
   and go down to Beersheba.*
   The people of Gilgal will be taken away
   as prisoners.*
   And Bethel will be destroyed.*
   6 Go to the Lord, and live.
      If you don’t go to the Lord,
      then a fire will start at Joseph’s house.*
      That fire will destroy Joseph’s house,
      and no person will be able to stop
      that fire at Bethel.
   7–9 You should go to the Lord for help.*
      God made the Pleiades and Orion.*
      He changes darkness into the morning light.
      He changes the day into the dark night.
      He calls for the waters of the sea,
      and pours them out on the earth.
      His name is YAHWEH!* He keeps one strong city safe, and he lets another strong city
      be destroyed.”

The Lord Encourages Israel to Come Back

5 The Lord says this to the nation* of Israel:
   “Come looking for me and live.
   5 But don’t look in Bethel.*
   Don’t go to Gilgal.*
   Don’t cross the border
   and go down to Beersheba.*
   The people of Gilgal will be taken away
   as prisoners.*
   And Bethel will be destroyed.*
   6 Go to the Lord, and live.
      If you don’t go to the Lord,
      then a fire will start at Joseph’s house.*
      That fire will destroy Joseph’s house,
      and no person will be able to stop
      that fire at Bethel.
   7–9 You should go to the Lord for help.*
      God made the Pleiades and Orion.*
      He changes darkness into the morning light.
      He changes the day into the dark night.
      He calls for the waters of the sea,
      and pours them out on the earth.
      His name is YAHWEH!* He keeps one strong city safe,
      and he lets another strong city
      be destroyed.”

The Evil Things That the Israelites Did

8 You change goodness to poison.*
    You killed justice,
    and let it fall to the ground.
   10 Prophets go to the public places and speak against the bad things that people are doing.
      And the people hate those prophets.
   11 You take unfair taxes* from poor people.
      You take loads of wheat from them.
      You build fancy houses with cut stone.
      But you will not live in those houses.
      You plant beautiful fields of grapes.
      But you will not drink the wine from them.
   12 Why? Because I know about your many sins.
      You have done some really bad things:
      You hurt people that do right.
      You accept money to do wrong.
      You keep justice from the poor people
      in court.
   13 At that time, wise teachers will be quiet.
      Why? Because it is a bad time.
   14 You say that God is with you.
      So you should do good things, not evil.
      Then you will live.
      And the Lord God All-Powerful really will be with you.
   15 Hate evil and love goodness.
      Bring fairness back into the courts.
      Maybe then the Lord God All-Powerful will be kind to the survivors* from Joseph’s family.

A Time of Great Sadness Is Coming

16 My Master, God All-Powerful, says, “People will be crying in the public places.

poison  Literally, “wormwood,” a type of plant with bitter leaves. It could be used as a medicine, or if strong enough, as a poison.
take unfair taxes  We are not sure of the exact meaning of this Hebrew word.
survivors  People that escaped some disaster. Here this means the Jewish people that survived the destruction of Judah and Israel by its enemy armies.
People will be crying in the streets.
People will hire the professional criers.*

17 People will be crying in the fields of grapes.
   Why? Because I will pass through and punish you.”
   The Lord said those things.

18 Some of you want to see the Lord’s special day of judgment.
   Why do you want to see that day?
   The Lord’s special day will bring darkness not light!

19 You will be like a man that escapes a lion
    only to be attacked by a bear!
You will be like a man
    that goes into the safety of his house, leans against the wall,
    and is bitten by a snake!

20 The Lord’s special day will be a day of sadness, not joy,
   a day of darkness, not light,
   a day of gloom, without a glimmer of light.

The Lord Rejects Israel’s Worship

21 “I hate your holidays!
   I will not accept them!
I don’t enjoy your religious meetings!

22 Even if you offer me burnt offerings and grain offerings,
   I will not accept them!
   I will not even look at the fat animals you give as fellowship offerings.

23 Take your noisy songs away from here.
   I will not listen to the music from your harps.

24 You should let fairness flow like water through your country,
   Let goodness flow like a stream that never becomes dry.

25 Israel, you offered me sacrifices and offerings in the desert for 40 years.*

26 But you also carried statues of Sakkuth, your king, and Kaiwan.*
   And you made yourselves
   that star for your god!*
27 So I will cause you to be taken captive beyond Damascus.”
   The Lord says those things.
   His name is God All-Powerful.

Good Times Will Be Taken Away from Israel

6 Oh, it will be very bad for you people taking it easy in Zion,* and for you people who feel so safe on Mount Samaria.
You are “important” leaders of the most important nation!
The “House of Israel” comes to you for advice!*

2 Go look at Calneh.*
   From there, go to the large city Hamath.*
   Go to the Philistine city Gath.
Are you better than these kingdoms? No.
   Their countries are larger than yours.

3 You people are rushing towards that day of punishment.
   You bring that rule of violence nearer and nearer.

4 But now, you enjoy all the comforts.*
   You lie on ivory beds,
   and stretch out on your couches.
   You eat tender young lambs from the flock,
   and young calves from the stable.

5 You play your harps.
   And like David, you practice on* your musical instruments.

Sakkuth … Kaiwan These were names of Assyrian gods.
star for your god This might be to honor a special god or all the stars in the sky. Many people thought the sun, moon, stars, and planets were gods or angels. This verse might also be translated, “You carried the shelter for your king and the footstool for your idols—the star of your gods which you made for yourselves.” The ancient Greek translation gives the names Moloch and Raphan.
Zion The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on.
   Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
Calneh A powerful city in northern Syria.
Hamath A powerful city in Syria. practice on Or, “invent.” The Hebrew word means to “think,” “become skilled,” or “design.”

professional criers People that went to funerals and cried loudly for the dead people. Families and friends of the dead person often gave food or money to these people.
Israel … 40 years Or, “Israel, did you offer me sacrifices and offerings in the desert for 40 years? No!”
6 You drink wine in fancy cups.*
   You use the best perfumes.
   And you are not even upset that Joseph’s family is being destroyed.

7 Those people are stretched out on their couches now. But their good times will end.
   They will be taken away like prisoners to a foreign country. And they will be some of the first people taken. 8 The Lord my Master used his own name and made a promise. The Lord God All-Powerful made this promise:
   “I hate the things that Jacob* is proud of.
   I hate his strong towers.
   So I will let the enemy take the city and everything in it.”

There Will Be Few Israelites Left Alive
9 At that time, ten people in one house might survive, but they too will die. 10 And when a person dies, a relative will come to get the body so he can take it out and burn it.*
   The relative will come to take away the bones.
   He will call to any person who might be hiding way back in the house, “Are there any other dead bodies in there with you?”
   That person will answer, “No, …”*
   But the relative will interrupt him and say, “Hush! We must not mention the name of the Lord.”

11 Look, the Lord God will give the command, and the large houses will be broken to pieces, and the small houses will be broken to small pieces.
12 Do horses run over loose rocks? No! and people don’t use cows for plowing. But you turn everything upside down.
   You changed goodness to poison.
   You changed fairness to bitter poison.

The Vision of the Locusts
7 The Lord showed this to me: He was making locusts* at the time the second crop began growing. It was the second crop after the king’s cutting of the first crop. 2 The locusts ate all the grass in the country. After that I said, “Lord my Master, I beg you, forgive us! Jacob* can’t survive! He is too small!”
3 Then the Lord changed his mind about this. The Lord said, “That thing will not happen.”

The Vision of the Fire
4 The Lord my Master showed these things to me: I saw the Lord God calling for judgment by fire. The fire destroyed the Great Deep. The fire was beginning to eat up the land. 5 But I said, “Lord God, stop, I beg you! Jacob* can’t survive! He is too small!”
6 Then the Lord changed his mind about this. The Lord God said, “That thing will not happen either.”

The Vision of the Plumbline
7 The Lord showed me this: The Lord stood by a wall with a plumbline* in his hand. (The wall had been marked with a plumbline.) 8 The Lord said to me, “Amos, what do you see?”
   I said, “A plumbline.”

fancy cups Very large bowls used in worship rituals.
Jacob Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22–28.
And when a person dies ... burn it The exact meaning of the Hebrew is not clear here.
No, ... This answer might have been, “No, bless the Lord.” But the person was stopped before he finished speaking.

Lo-Debar A place name, meaning “nothing.”
Karnaim Another place name, meaning “horns.” Horns are often a symbol (picture) for strength.
locusts Insects like grasshoppers that could destroy a large crop very quickly.
plumbline A string with a weight on one end. Workers used plumblines to make sure the walls they were building were straight. The workers often put paint on the string and popped the string. This left a straight line of paint on the wall. Then the workers chipped away the crooked part of the wall.
Then my Master said, “See, I will put a plumbline among my people Israel. I will not let their ‘crookedness’ pass inspection any more, I will remove those bad spots. 9Isaac’s high places* will be destroyed. Israel’s holy places will be made into a pile of rocks. I will attack and kill Jeroboam’s* family with swords.”

Amaziah Tries to Stop Amos

10Amaziah, a priest at Bethel,* sent this message to Jeroboam, the king of Israel: “Amos is making plans against you. He is trying to make the people of Israel fight against you. He has been speaking so much that this country can’t hold all his words. 11Amos has said, ‘Jeroboam will die by the sword, and the people of Israel will be taken as prisoners out of their country.’”

12Amaziah also said to Amos, “You seer,* go down to Judah and eat there.* Do your preaching there. 13But don’t prophesy* any more here at Bethel! This is Jeroboam’s holy place. This is Israel’s temple!”

14Then Amos answered Amaziah, “I am not a professional prophet. And I am not from a prophet’s family. I keep cattle and take care of sycamore trees. 15I was a shepherd,j and the Lord took me from following the sheep. The Lord said to me, ‘Go, prophesy to my people Israel.’ 16So listen to the Lord’s message. You tell me, ‘Don’t prophesy* against Israel. Don’t preach against Isaac’s family.’ 17But the Lord says: ‘Your wife will become a prostitute* in the city. Your sons and daughters will be killed with swords. Other people will take your land and divide it among themselves. And you will die in a foreign* country. The people of Israel will definitely be taken from this country as prisoners.’”

The Vision of the Ripe Fruit

8The Lord showed me this: 1 saw a basket of summer fruit. 2The Lord said to me, “Amos, what do you see?”

I said, “A basket of summer fruit.”

Then the Lord said to me, “The end* has come to my people Israel. I will not overlook their sins any more. 3The temple* songs will become sad funeral songs. The Lord my Master said those things. There will be dead bodies everywhere. In silence, people will take out the dead bodies and throw them onto the pile.”

Israel’s Businessmen Are Interested Only in Making Money

4 Listen to me!
You people walk on helpless people.
You are trying to destroy the poor people of this country.

5 You businessmen say,
“When will the New Moon* be over so we can sell grain?
When will the Sabbath be over so we can bring our wheat [to sell]?
We can raise the price
and make the measure smaller.*
We can adjust the scales and cheat the people.*

6 [The poor people can’t pay their loans,] so we will buy them as slaves.
We will buy those helpless people for the price of a pair of shoes.
Oh, and we can sell the wheat that was spilled on the floor.”

7The Lord made a promise. He used his name, Pride of Jacob, and made this promise:

high places Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.
Jeroboam’s The king of Israel. See verse 10.
Bethel A town in Israel. This name means “God’s house.”
seer This is another name for a prophet. See 1 Samuel 9:9–11.
eat there This shows that Amaziah thought that Amos was a professional prophet. He thought he preached to receive food or money.
prophesy To speak for God.
prostitute A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stops following him.
foreign Literally, “unclean.”
end This Hebrew word sounds like the word for “summer fruit.”
temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
In silence … the pile Or, “People will be saying, ‘Hush!’” See Amos 6:10.
New Moon This was the first day of the Hebrew month. There were special meetings on these days to worship God.
We … smaller Literally “We will make the ephah small and the shekel large.”
We … people Literally, “Cheat with lying balances.”
“I will never forget the things that those people did.
8 The whole land will shake because of those things.
Every person that lives in the land will cry for people that died.
The whole land will rise and fall like the Nile River in Egypt.
The land will be tossed around.”

9 The Lord also said these things:
“At that time I will cause the sun to go down at noon.
I will make the earth dark on a clear day.
I will change your holidays into days of crying for the dead.
All your songs will be songs of sadness for dead people.
I will put clothes of sadness on everyone.
I will make every head bald.
It will be a very bitter end.”

A Terrible Time of Hunger for God’s Word Is Coming

11 The Lord says:
“Look, the days are coming when I will cause a time of hunger in the land.
The people will not be hungry for bread.
The people will not be thirsty for water.
No, the people will be hungry for words from the Lord.
12 The people will wander around the country, from the Dead Sea to the Mediterranean Sea, and from the north part of the country, to the east.
The people will go back and forth looking for a message from the Lord.
But they will not find it.
13 At that time, the beautiful young men and women will become weak from thirst.
Those people made promises by the sin of Samaria,*
They said, ‘Dan,* as surely as your god lives, we promise;’
And they said, ‘As surely as the god of Beersheba* lives, we promise;’
But those people will fall, and they will never get up again.”

Vision of the Lord Standing by the Altar

9 I saw my Master standing by the altar.*
He said,
“Hit the top of the columns, and the building will shake all the way down to the thresholds.*
Make the columns fall on the peoples’ heads.
If any people are left alive, then I will kill them with a sword.
A person might run away, but he will not escape.
Not one of the people will escape.
2 If they dig deep into the ground,* I will pull them from there.
If they go up into the skies,* I will bring them down from there.
3 If they hide at the top of Mount Carmel,* I will find them there, and I will take them from that place.
If they try to hide from me at the bottom of the sea, I will command the snake, and it will bite them.
4 If they are captured and taken away by their enemies, I will command the sword, and it will kill them there.
Yes, I will watch over them, but I will watch for ways to give them troubles, not for ways to do good things.”

---

*Dan One of Israel’s holy places was in this city.
Beersheba A town in Judah. This name means “well of the oath (promise).”
altars A stone table used for offering sacrifices to God.
thresholds The wood or stone under the door.
ground Literally, “Sheol, the place of the dead.”
 skies Or “heaven.”
Mount Carmel A hill in north Israel very good for growing plants. This name means “God’s vineyard.”

*head bald People often cut their hair to show they were very sad or upset.
*sin of Samaria The calf god in Samaria.
Punishment Will Destroy the People

5 My Master, the Lord All-Powerful, will touch the land, and the land will melt. Then all the people that live in the land will cry for the dead people. The land will rise and fall like the Nile River in Egypt.

6 The Lord built his upper rooms above the skies. He put his skies over the earth. He calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out as rain on the land. YAHWEH is his name.

The Lord Promises Destruction for Israel

7 The Lord says this: “Israel, you are like the Ethiopians to me. I brought Israel out of the land of Egypt. I brought the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Aramean people from Kir.”

8 The Lord my Master is watching the sinful kingdom (Israel). The Lord said, “I will wipe Israel off the face of the earth. But I will never completely destroy Jacob’s family.

9 I am giving the command to destroy the nation Israel. I will scatter the people of Israel among all nations. But it will be like a person sifting flour. A person shakes flour through a sifter. The good flour falls through, but the bad lumps are caught. It will be that way with Jacob’s family.

10 Sinners among my people say, ‘Nothing bad will happen to us!’ But all those people will be killed with swords!”

God Promises to Restore the Kingdom

11 “David’s tent has fallen, but at that time, I will set his tent up again. I will fix the holes in the walls. I will build the ruined buildings again. I will build it like it was before.

12 Then the people left alive in Edom, and all the people called by my name, will look to the Lord for help.”

The Lord said those things, and he will make them happen.

13 The Lord says, “The time is coming when the person plowing the field, will catch up with the person harvesting the crops. The person that walks on the grapes, will catch up with the person that pulls the grapes from the plants. The sweet wine will pour from the hills and mountains.

14 I will bring my people, Israel, back from captivity. They will build the ruined cities again. And they will live in those cities. They will plant fields of grapes, and drink the wine they produce. They will plant gardens, and eat the crops they produce.

15 I will plant my people on their land. And they will never again be pulled up out of the land that I have given them.”

The Lord your God said these things.

skies Literally, “dome, vault.”

YAHWEH This Hebrew name for God is usually translated “Lord.” This name is like the Hebrew word meaning “He is” or “He makes things exist.”

Caphtor This might be Crete or Cyprus.

Kir A place of exile for the Aramean people. We are not sure where Kir was.

sifter Something like a cup with a screen on its bottom. A sifter is used for removing large lumps from the good flour.

David’s tent This probably means the city Jerusalem or the country Judah.

Verse 12 This is from the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew has, “Then they will take the people that are left in Edom and the other nations that are called by my name.”
Obadiah

Edom Will Be Punished
This is the vision of Obadiah. The Lord my Master says this about Edom:*

We heard a report from the Lord God.
A messenger was sent to the nations.
He said,
“Let’s go fight against Edom.”

The Lord Speaks to Edom
2 “Edom,* I will make you the smallest nation.
Everyone will hate you very much.
3 Your pride has fooled you.
You live in those caves high on the cliff.
Your home is high in the hills.
So you say to yourself,
‘No one can bring me to the ground.’”

Edom Will Be Brought Low
4 The Lord God says this:
“Even though you fly high like the eagle and put your nest among the stars,
I will bring you down from there.”
5 You really will be ruined!
Thieves will come to you!
Robbers will come in the night!
And those thieves will take all they want!
When workers gather grapes in your fields,
they leave a few grapes behind.
6 But the enemy will search hard for Esau’s hidden treasures.
And they will find them all!
7 All the people that are your friends will force you out of the land.

Your allies (good friends) will trick you and convince you to do the wrong thing.
Your war buddies,
are planning a trap for you.
They say,
‘He doesn’t expect a thing!’”

8 The Lord says,
“On that day,
I will destroy the wise people from Edom.*
I will destroy the intelligent people from Esau’s Mountain.*
9 Teman,* your mighty men will be scared.
Every person will be destroyed
from the mountain of Esau.*
Many, many people will be killed.
10 You will be covered with shame,
and you will be destroyed forever.
Why? Because you were very cruel to your brother Jacob.*
11 You joined the enemies of Israel.
Strangers carried Israel’s treasures away.
Foreigners entered Israel’s city gate.
Those foreigners threw lots? to decide what part of Jerusalem they would get.
And you were right there with them waiting to get your share.
12 You laughed at* your brother’s trouble.
You should not have done that.

Esau’s Mountain That is, Mount Seir.
Teman One of Edom’s important cities in the south, maybe its capital.
mountain of Esau That is, Mount Seir.
Jacob Israel was Jacob’s other name. (See Genesis 32:28.)
Jacob is often used to mean Israel, the nation that descended from him.
lots Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Prov. 16:33.
laughed at Literally, “looked at.”
You were happy when they destroyed Judah.
You should not have done that.
You bragged* at the time of their trouble.
You should not have done that.

13 You entered the city gate of my people,
and laughed at* their problems.
You should not have done that.
At the time of their trouble,
you took their treasures.
You should not have done that.

14 You stood where the roads cross, and destroyed the people
that were trying to escape.
You should not have done that.
You captured the people that escaped alive.
You should not have done that.

15 The Day of the Lord is soon coming to all the nations.
And the bad things you did to other people will happen to you.
Those same bad things will come falling onto your own head.

16 Why? Because you spilled* blood on my holy mountain.*
So other nations will spill your blood.*
You will be finished.
It will be like you never existed.

17 But there will be survivors on Mount Zion.*
They will be my special people.

The nation of Jacob* will take back the things that belong to it.

18 The family of Jacob will be like a fire.
The nation of Joseph will be like a flame.
But the nation of Esau* will be like ashes.
The people of Judah will burn Edom.
The people of Judah will destroy Edom.
Then there will be no survivors
in the nation of Esau.”
Why? Because the Lord God has said it.

19 Then people from the Negev*
will live on the mountain of Esau.
And people from the foothills will take the Philistine* [lands];
Those people will live in the land of Ephraim and Samaria.
Gilead will belong to Benjamin.

20 People from Israel were forced to leave* their homes.
But those people will take the land of Canaan
all the way to Zarephath.
People from Judah were forced to leave Jerusalem and go to live in Sepharad.
But they will take the cities of the Negev.*

21 The Winners* will go up onto Mount Zion* to rule the people living on Esau’s mountain.
And the kingdom will belong to the Lord.

*bragged Literally, “made your mouth big.”
*laughed at Literally, “looked at.”
*spilled Literally, “drank.”
*holy mountain, Mount Zion One of the mountains Jerusalem was built on. Sometimes Zion is used to mean Jerusalem itself.
*spill your blood Literally, “drink and swallow.”
*nation of Jacob Literally, “the house of Jacob.” This could mean the people of Israel, or the leaders.
*nation of Esau Literally, “the house of Esau.”
*Negev The desert area south of Judah.
*Winners Or “Saviors.” People that led their people to victory in war.
God Calls and Jonah Runs

The Lord spoke to Jonah*, son of Amittai. The Lord said, "Nineveh* is a big city. I have heard about the many evil things people are doing there. So go to that city and tell the people to stop doing those bad things."

Jonah did not want to obey God, so Jonah tried to run away from the Lord. Jonah went to Joppa.* Jonah found a boat that was going to the faraway city of Tarshish.* Jonah paid money for the trip and went on the boat. Jonah wanted to travel with the people on this boat to Tarshish and run away from the Lord.

The Great Storm

But the Lord brought a great storm on the sea. The wind made the sea very rough. The storm was very strong and the boat was ready to break apart. The men wanted to make the boat lighter to stop it from sinking. So they began throwing the cargo* into the sea. The sailors were very scared. Each man began praying to his god.

Jonah had gone down into the boat to lie down. Jonah was sleeping. The captain of the boat saw Jonah and said, "Wake up! Why are you sleeping? Pray to your god! Maybe your god will hear your prayer and save us!"

What Caused This Storm?

Then the men said to each other, "We should throw lots* to learn why these troubles are happening to us."

So the men threw lots. The lots showed that the trouble happened because of Jonah. Then the men said to Jonah, "It is your fault that this terrible thing is happening to us! So tell us what you have done? What is your job? Where are you coming from? What is your country? Who are your people?"

Jonah said to the men, "I am a Hebrew (Jew). And I worship the Lord, the God of heaven. He is the God who made the sea and the land."

Jonah told the men he was running away from the Lord. The men became very scared when they learned this. The men asked Jonah, "What terrible thing did you do against your God?"

The wind and the waves of the sea were becoming stronger and stronger. So the men said to Jonah, "What should we do to save ourselves? What should we do to you to make the sea calm?"

Jonah said to the men, "I know I did wrong—that is why the storm came on the sea. So throw me into the sea, and the sea will become calm."

But the men did not want to throw Jonah into the sea. The men tried to row the ship back to the shore, but they were not able to. The wind and the waves of the sea were too strong—and they were becoming stronger and stronger!

---

Jonah  This is probably the same prophet mentioned in 2 Kings 14:25.

Nineveh  The capital of Assyria. The Assyrian army destroyed north Israel in 723–721 B.C.

Joppa  A town on the coast of Israel by the Mediterranean Sea.

Tarshish  This is probably a city in Spain. This was as far west as Jonah could travel. Nineveh was east of Israel.

cargo  The Hebrew word can mean "dishes, jars, or tools." Here this could mean all the jars and boxes the boat carried on its way to Tarshish or the rigging and other heavy tools on the boat.

lots  Small rocks, sticks, or pieces of bone used like dice. Lots were used for making a choice or decision. See Proverbs 16:33.
Jonah's Punishment

14 So the men cried to the Lord, “Lord, we are throwing this man into the sea because of the bad things he did. Please don’t say we are guilty of killing an innocent man. Please don’t make us die for killing him. We know you are the Lord, and you will do whatever you want. But please be kind to us.”

15 So the men threw Jonah into the sea. The storm stopped—the sea became calm! 16 When the men saw this, they began to fear and respect the Lord. The men offered a sacrifice* and made special promises to the Lord.

17 When Jonah fell into the sea, the Lord chose a very big fish to go and swallow Jonah. Jonah was in the fish’s stomach for three days and three nights.

2 While Jonah was in the fish’s stomach, he prayed to the Lord his God. Jonah said,

2 “I was in very bad trouble. I called to the Lord for help, and he answered me! I was deep in the grave.* I cried to you, Lord, and you heard my voice!

3 “You threw me into the sea. Your powerful waves splashed over me. I went down, down into the deep sea. The water was all around me.

4 Then I thought, ‘Now I must go where you cannot see me.’ But I continued looking to your holy temple* for help.

5 “The seawater closed over me. The water covered my mouth, and I could not breathe.* I went down, down into the deep sea. Seaweed wrapped around my head.

6 I was at the bottom of the sea, the place where mountains begin.

God Calls and Jonah Obeys

3 Then the Lord spoke to Jonah again. The Lord said, 2 “Go to that big city Nineveh, and preach the things that I tell you.”

3 So Jonah obeyed the Lord and went to Nineveh. Nineveh was a very big city. A person had to walk for three days to travel through the city.

4 Jonah went to the center of the city and began preaching to the people. Jonah said, “After 40 days, Nineveh will be destroyed!”

5 The people of Nineveh believed* the message from God. The people decided to stop eating for a time to think about their sins. The people put on special clothes to show that they were sorry. All the people in the city did this—the most important people and the least important people.

6 The king of Nineveh heard about these things. And the king was also sorry for the bad things he did. So the king left his throne.* The king removed his robe and put on special clothes to show he was sorry. Then the king sacrifice(s) Offerings or gifts to God. Usually these were animals that were killed and burned on an altar.

---

grave Or, “Sheol,” the place where dead people go.

temple The special building in Jerusalem where God wanted Jews to go to worship him.

mouth, and I could not breathe Or, “The water surrounded me to my soul.” The Hebrew word for soul also means “life, self, appetite,” and “throat or mouth.”

Some people … them Or, “People that worship useless things have left the One who is kind to them.”

throne The special chair a king or queen sits on.
JONAH 3:7–4:11

1066

sat in ashes.

7 The king wrote a special message. The king sent this message through the city:

A command from the king and his great rulers:

For a short time no man or animal should eat anything. No herd or flock will be allowed in the fields. Nothing living in Nineveh will eat or drink water. But every person and every animal must be covered with a special cloth (to show he is sad). People must cry loudly to God. Every person must change his life and stop doing bad things. Then maybe God will change and not do the things he had planned. Maybe God will change and not be angry. Then maybe we will not be punished.

8 God saw the things the people did. God saw that the people stopped doing evil things. So God changed and did not do what he planned. God did not punish the people.

God’s Mercy Makes Jonah Angry

4 Jonah was not happy that God saved the city. Jonah became angry. Jonah complained to the Lord and said, “I knew this would happen! I was in my own country, and you told me to come here. At that time, I knew that you would forgive the people of this evil city. So I decided to run away to Tarshish. I knew that you are a kind God! I knew that you show mercy and don’t want to punish people! I knew that you are full of kindness! I knew that if these people stopped sinning, you would change your plans to destroy them. So now I ask you, Lord, please kill me. It is better for me to die than to live!”

4 Then the Lord said, “Do you think it is right for you to be angry just because I did not destroy those people?”

5 Jonah was still angry about all these things. So he went out of the city. Jonah went to a place near the city on the east side. Jonah made a shelter for himself. Then he sat there in the shade, waiting to see what would happen to the city.

The Gourd Plant and the Worm

6 The Lord made a gourd plant grow quickly over Jonah. This made a cool place for Jonah to sit. This helped Jonah to be more comfortable. Jonah was very happy because of this plant.

7 The next morning, God sent a worm to eat part of the plant. The worm began eating the plant and the plant died.

8 After the sun was high in the sky, God caused a hot east wind to blow. The sun became very hot on Jonah’s head and Jonah became very, very weak. Jonah asked God to let him die. Jonah said, “It is better for me to die than to live.”

9 But God said to Jonah, “Do you think it is right for you to be angry just because this plant died?”

Jonah answered, “Yes, it is right for me to be angry! I am angry enough to die!”

10 And the Lord said, “You did nothing for that plant! You did not make it grow. It grew up in the night, and the next day it died. And now you are sad about that plant. If you can be upset about a plant, then surely I can feel sorry for a big city like Nineveh. There are many people and animals in that city. There are more than 120,000 people in that city that did not know they were doing wrong!”

sat in ashes People did this to show they were sad.

people ... wrong Literally, “People that do not know their right from their left.” This might mean “innocent children.”
Micah

Samaria and Israel to Be Punished

1 The word of the Lord came to Micah. This was during the time of kings Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah. These men were kings of Judah. Micah was from Moresheth. Micah saw these visions about Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 Listen, all of you people! Earth and everyone on it,* listen!
   My Master, the Lord, will come from his holy temple.*
   My Master will come as a witness* against you.

3 See, the Lord is coming out of his place. He is coming down to walk on the high places* of the earth.

4 The mountains will melt under him like wax before a fire.
   The valleys will split open and flow like water down a steep hill.

5 Why? Because of Jacob’s* sin.
   Because of the sins of the nation* of Israel.

   Samaria, the Cause of Sin
   What caused Jacob to sin?
   It was Samaria!
   Where is the high place* in Judah?
   It is Jerusalem!

6 So I will change Samaria into a pile of rocks in the field, a place ready for planting grapes.
    I will push Samaria’s stones down into the valley, leaving nothing but the foundations!

7 All her idols* will be broken into pieces.
   Her prostitute’s wages (idols) will be burned in fire.
   I will destroy all her statues of false gods.
   Why? Because Samaria got her riches by being unfaithful to me.*
   So those things will be taken by people that are not faithful to me.*

Micah’s Great Sadness

8 I will be very sad about what will happen.
   I will go without shoes and clothes.
   I will cry like a dog.* I will mourn like a bird.*

9 Samaria’s* wound can’t be healed.
   Her disease (sin) has spread to Judah.
   It has reached the city gate of my people.
   It has spread all the way to Jerusalem.

10 Don’t tell it in Gath.* Don’t cry in Acco.* Roll yourself in the dust at Beth Ophrah.*

everyone on it Literary, “its fullness.”
temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
witness A person that tells in court what he has seen or heard.
high place(s) Here this might simply mean “hills” or it might be the places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.
Jacob Israel was Jacob’s other name. (See Gen. 32:28.) Jacob is often used to mean Israel, the nation that descended from him.
nation Literally, “house.” This might mean the royal family of that country.

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.
her riches … me Literally, “her wages were a prostitute’s wages.”
will be … me Literally, “will return to prostitute’s wages.”
dog Literally, “jackal,” a kind of wild dog.
bird Literally, “ostrich,” a large bird.
Samaria The capital of the northern ten-family group kingdom of Israel. Here it is often used to mean the northern kingdom itself.
Gath This is a word play. This name means, “tell.”
Acco This name means, “cry.”
Beth Ophrah This name means, “House of Dust.” 11 You people living in Shaphir,* pass on your way, naked and ashamed.
People living in Zaanan* will not come out.
The people in Beth Ezel* will cry,
and take its support from you.
12 People living in Maroth* become weak waiting for good news to come, Why? Because trouble has come down from the Lord to the city gate
of Jerusalem.
13 Lady of Lachish,* hitch (tie) a fast horse to the wagon.*
Zion’s sins started in Lachish.
Why? Because you follow in Israel’s sins,*
14 So you must give goodbye gifts to Moresheth* in Gath.
The houses in Aczib* will trick
the kings of Israel.
15 You people living in Mareshah,*
    I will bring a person against you.
That person will take the things you own.
The Glory of Israel (God) will come into Adullam.*
16 So cut off your hair,
    make yourself bald.*
Why? Because you will cry for the children you love.
Make yourself bald like an eagle*
and show your sadness.
Why? Because your children will be taken away from you.

2 The Evil Plans of People Trouble will come to people that make plans to sin.
Those people lie on their beds
making their evil plans
Then when the morning light comes,
they do the bad things they planned.
Why? Simply because they have the power to do what they want.
2 They want fields,
    so they take them.
They want houses,
    so they take them.
They cheat a man
    and take his house.
They cheat a man
    and take his land from him.

3 The Lord’s Plans to Punish the People
That is why the Lord says these things.
“Look, I am planning trouble against this family.
You will not be able to save yourselves.*
You will stop being proud.
Why? Because bad times are coming.
4 Then people will sing songs about you.
People will sing this sad song:
‘We are ruined!
The Lord took away our land.
And gave it to other people.
Yes, he took my land away from me.
The Lord has divided our fields
among our enemies.’
5 So we will not be able to measure the land and divide it among the Lord’s people.’”

6 Micah Is Asked Not to Preach
People say, “Don’t preach to us.
Don’t say those bad things about us.
Nothing bad will happen to us.”
7 But people of Jacob,*
    I must say these things.

Shaphir  This name means, “beautiful.”
Zaanan  This name means, “come out.”
Beth Ezel  This name means, “House of Support.”
Maroth  This name means, “bitter,” “angry,” or “sad.”
Lachish  This Hebrew word is like the word meaning, “horse.”
wagon  Or, “chariot,” a small wagon used in war.
Israel’s sins  That is, building places of worship other than the temple in Jerusalem. Archaeologists have discovered this “temple” and the memorial stones at Tel Lachish.
Moresheth  Micah’s hometown.
Aczib  This name means, “lie,” or “trick.”
Mareshah  The name means, “a person that takes things.”
Adullam  A cave in which David hid when he ran away from Saul (see 1 Sam. 22:1).
cut … bald  This showed a person made a special agreement with God, or that a person was very sad.
eagle  Or, “vulture.”
save yourselves  Literally, “take your necks off it.”
Jacob  Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22–28.
The Lord is losing his patience because of the bad things you did.

If you people lived right, then I could say nice words to you.

8 But to my people, they are like an enemy. You steal the clothes right off the backs of people walking by. Those people think they are safe. But you take things from them, like they are prisoners of war. *

9 You have taken nice houses away from the women of my people. You have taken my wealth away from their small children forever.

10 Get up and leave! This will not be your place of rest. Why? Because you ruined this place! You made it unclean, so it will be destroyed! It will be a terrible destruction!

11 These people don’t want to listen to me. But if a man came telling lies then they would accept him. They would accept a false prophet if he comes and says, “There will be good times in the future, with plenty of wine and beer.”

The Lord Will Bring His People Together

12 Yes, people of Jacob, I will bring all of you together. I will bring together all the survivors of Israel. I will put them together like sheep in the sheep pen, like a flock in its pasture. Then the place will be filled with the noise of many people.

13 Then the “Crasher” will push through and walk to the front of his people. They will break through the gates and leave that city.

They will leave with their King marching before them, with the Lord at the front of his people.

The Leaders of Israel Are Guilty of Evil

Then I said, “Hear now, leaders of Jacob, and officers of the nation of Israel. You should know what justice is!

2 But you hate good and love evil! You tear the skin off the people. You tear the flesh off their bones!

3 You are destroying my people! You take their skin off them, and break their bones. You chop their bones up like meat to put in the pot!

4 So, you might pray to the Lord, but he will not answer you. No, the Lord will hide his face from you. Why? Because you do evil things!”

False Prophets

5 Some false prophets are telling lies to the Lord’s people. The Lord says this about those prophets:

“These prophets are led by their stomachs! The prophets promise peace for people who give them food. But they promise war against people who won’t give them food.

6 That is why it is like night for you. That is why you don’t have visions. You can’t see what will happen in the future, so it is like darkness to you. The sun has gone down on the prophets. They can’t see what will happen in the future, so it is like darkness to them.”

Those people ... war. Or, “Those people think they are safe, returning from war.”

Jacob Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22–28.

survivors People that escape some accident or war.

nation Literally, “house.” This might mean the royal family of that country.

You are destroying my people Literally, “They eat the flesh of my people.”

vision(s) Like a dream. God used visions to teach prophets what they should say to the people.
The seers* are ashamed.
The fortune tellers* are embarrassed.
They won’t say anything
because God will not speak to them!

The Law Will Come from Jerusalem
In the last days,
the mountain of the Lord’s temple*
will be on the highest of all mountains.
It will be raised higher than the hills.
There will be a steady stream of people going there.

People from many nations will go there.
They will say,
“Come, let’s go up to the Lord’s mountain.
Let’s go to the temple of the God of Jacob.
Then God will teach us his way of living.
And we will follow him.”

The teachings from God
—the Lord’s message—will begin in Jerusalem on Mount Zion* and go out to all the world.

Then God will be a judge for the people of many nations.
God will end the arguments for many* people in faraway countries.
Those people will stop using their weapons for fighting.
They will make plows from their swords.
And they will use their spears
as tools for cutting plants.
People will stop fighting other people.
People will never again train for war.

Each person will sit under his own grapevine and fig tree.
No person will make them afraid!
Why? Because the Lord All-Powerful said it would happen like that!

All the people from other nations follow their own gods.
But we will follow the Lord our God
forever and ever!*
The Kingdom to Be Brought Back

6 The Lord says, “Jerusalem was hurt and crippled. Jerusalem was thrown away. Jerusalem was hurt and punished. But I will bring her back to me.

7 The people of that ‘crippled’ city will become the survivors.* The people of that city were forced to leave. But I will make them into a strong nation.” The Lord will be their king. He will rule from Mount Zion* forever.

Why Must the Israelites Go to Babylon?

9 Now, why are you crying so loud? Is your king gone? Have you lost your leader? You are suffering like a woman that is giving birth.

10 Daughter of Zion,* feel the pain. Give birth to your “baby.” You must go out of this city (Jerusalem). You will live in the field. I mean, you will go to Babylon. But you will be saved from that place. The Lord will go there and rescue you. He will take you away from your enemies.

The Lord Will Destroy the Other Nations

11 Many nations have come to fight against you. They say, “Look, there is Zion!* Let’s attack her!”

12 Those people have their plans, but they don’t know what the Lord is planning. The Lord brought those people here for a special purpose. Those people will be crushed like grain on a threshing floor.*

Israel Will Defeat Its Enemies

13 “Daughter of Zion,* get up and crush those people! I will make you very strong. It will be like you have horns of iron, and hooves* of bronze. You will beat many people into small pieces. You will give their wealth to the Lord. You will give their treasure to the Lord of all the earth.”

The Messiah to be Born in Bethlehem

5 Now, strong city,* gather your soldiers. They are surrounding us for the attack! They will hit the Judge of Israel on the cheek with their stick.

2 But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, are the smallest town in Judah. Your family is almost too small to count. But the “Ruler of Israel” will come from you for me. His beginnings* are from ancient times, from long, long ago.

3 So the Lord* will give up his people until the woman gives birth to her child, the promised king. Then the rest of his brothers will come back to the people of Israel.

4 Then the Ruler of Israel will stand in the power of the Lord and in the wonderful name of the Lord his God and feed the flock.
They will live in peace because at that time, his greatness will reach to the ends of the earth.*

There will be peace.
Yes, the Assyrian army will come into our country and trample our large buildings. But the Ruler of Israel* will choose seven shepherds and eight leaders.*

They will use their swords and rule the Assyrians. They will rule the land of Nimrod* with swords in hand. They will use their swords to rule those people. But then the Ruler of Israel will save us from the Assyrians who will come into our land and trample our territory.

But the survivors* from Jacob scattered among the nations will be like dew from the Lord that doesn’t depend on any man. They will be like rain on the grass that doesn’t wait for anyone.

But the survivors* from Jacob in the nations scattered among those people will be like a lion among the animals in the forest. They will be like a young lion among flocks of sheep.
If the lion passes through, he goes where he wants to go. If he attacks an animal, then no one can save that animal.

The survivors will be like that.

You will lift your hand against your enemies, and you will destroy them.

The Lord says, “At that time, I will take away your horses, and I will destroy your chariots.*

I will destroy the cities in your country. I will pull down all your fortresses.*

You will no longer try to do magic. You will not have any more people that try to tell the future.

I will destroy your statues of false gods.* I will pull down your stones for remembering those false gods.
You will not worship the things that your hands have made.

I will destroy the Asherah poles.* And I will destroy your false gods.*

Some people will not listen to me. But I will show my anger. And I will get even with those people.”

The Lord has a complaint against his people.
Mountains, listen to the Lord’s complaint. Foundations of the earth, hear the Lord. He will prove that Israel is wrong!

The Lord says, “My people, tell me what I did! Did I do something wrong against you? Did I make life too hard for you?

I will tell you the things I did! I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam to you. I brought you from the land of Egypt. I freed you from slavery.

People Will Depend on God

Now hear what the Lord says: Tell your side of the story to the mountains. Let the hills* hear your story.

The Lord’s Complaint

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.
fortress(es) A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.
Asherah poles Poles that helped people remember the Canaanite goddess, Asherah. At this time, the people thought she was the wife of Baal.
false gods Or, “cities.”
Let the hills This is like a case in court. The mountains and hills are like the judge and jury.
1073

MICAH 6:5–7:2

5 My people, remember the evil plans of Balak king of Moab.
Remember what Balaam son of Beor said to Balak.
Remember the things that happened from Acacia to Gilgal.
Remember those things and you will know the Lord is right!”

What Does God Want from Us?
6 What must I bring when I come to meet with the Lord?
What must I do when I bow down to God above?
Should I come to the Lord with burnt offerings and a year-old calf?
7 Will the Lord be pleased with 1,000 rams or 10,000 rivers of oil?
Should I give my first child as payment for my crimes?
Should I give the child that came from my body as payment for my sins?

8 Man, the Lord told you what goodness is.
This is what the Lord wants from you:
Be fair to other people.
Love kindness and loyalty.
Live humbly with your God.
Don’t try to impress him with gifts.

What Were the Israelites Doing?
9 The voice of the Lord shouts to the city.
A wise person honors the Lord’s name.* So pay attention to the punishing rod.
and to the One who holds that rod!* 10 Do the bad people still hide treasures that they have stolen?
Do bad people still cheat people with baskets that are too small?*
Yes! All of those things are still happening!

Micah Is Upset at the Evil People Do
7 I am upset because I am like fruit that has been gathered, like grapes that have already been picked. There are no grapes left to eat.
There are none of the early figs that I love.
2 I mean, all of the faithful people are gone. There are no good people left in this country.

Should I pardon the bad people who still use weights and scales to cheat people? Should I pardon the people who still have bags with weights that give the wrong measure?

Rich people in that city are still cruel! The people in that city still tell lies. Yes, those people tell their lies!

So I have started to punish you. I will destroy you because of your sins. You will eat, but you will not become full. You will still be hungry and empty.* You will try to bring people in to safety. But people with swords will kill the people you rescued!

You will plant your seeds, but you will not gather food. You will try to squeeze oil from your olives, but you will not get any oil. You will crush your grapes, but you will not get enough juice to have wine to drink.

Why? Because you obey the laws of Omri.* You do all the bad things that Ahab’s family does. You follow their teachings. So I will let you be destroyed. People will whistle in amazement when they see your destroyed city. Then you will bear the shame that the other nations bring to you.*

Acacia to Gilgal This story is found in Num. 22–25.
the Lord’s name Literally, “your name.”
So pay attention … rod The Hebrew is not clear here.
baskets … too small Literally, “short ephahs.” An ephah is about 1/2 bushel.

You … empty The Hebrew is not clear here.
Omri A king of Israel that led his nation to worship false gods. See 1 Kings 16:21–26.
Then … you Or, “My people’s shame will be taken away.
Every person is waiting to kill someone.
   Every person is trying to trap his brother.
3 People are good at doing bad things with both hands.
   Officials ask for bribes.
   Judges take money
   to change their decisions in court.
   “Important leaders” don’t make good and fair decisions.
   They do whatever they want to do.
4 Even the best of them is like a thorn bush.
   Even the best of them is more crooked than a tangled thorn bush.

The Day of Punishment Is Coming
   Your prophets said this day would come.
   And the day of your watchmen*
   has come.
   Now you will be punished!
   Now you will be confused!
5 Don’t trust your neighbor!
   Don’t trust a friend!
   Don’t even speak freely with your wife!
6 A person’s enemies will be the people in his own house.
   A son will not honor his father.
   A daughter will turn against her mother.
   A daughter-in-law will turn against her mother-in-law.

The Lord Is the Savior
   So I will look to the Lord
   for help!
   I will wait for God to save me.
   My God will hear me.
7 I have fallen.
   But enemy, don’t laugh at me!
   I will get up again.
   I sit in darkness now.
   But the Lord will be a light for me.

The Lord Forgives
   I sinned against the Lord.
   So he was angry at me.
   But he will argue my case for me in court.
   He will do the things that are right for me.
   Then he will bring me out into the light.
   And I will see that he is right.
10 My enemy said to me,
   “Where is the Lord your God?”
   But my enemy will see this,
   and she will be ashamed.
   At that time, I will laugh at her.*
   People will walk over her,
   like mud in the streets.

The Jews to Return
   The time will come when your walls will be built again.
   At that time, the country will grow.
11 Your people will come back to your land.
   They will come back from Assyria and from the cities of Egypt.
   Your people will come from Egypt and from the other side of the Euphrates River.
   They will come from the sea in the west and from the mountains in the east.
12 The land was ruined by the people that lived there and by what they did.
13 So rule your people with your rod.
   Rule the flock of people
   that belongs to you.
   That flock lives alone in the woods,
   and up on Mount Carmel.
   That flock lives in Bashan and Gilead like they did in time past.

Israel Will Defeat Its Enemies
   I did many miracles
   when I took you out of Egypt.
   I will let you see more miracles like that.
15 The nations will see those miracles,
   and they will be ashamed.
   They will see that their “power”
   is nothing compared to mine.
   They will be amazed
   and put their hands over their mouths!
   They will cover their ears and refuse to listen.
16 Watchmen Another name for prophets. This shows that the prophets were like guards that stood on a city’s wall and watched for trouble coming from far away.

laugh at her Literally, “my eyes will gawk (stare, look) at her.”
17 They will crawl in the dust like a snake.
    They will shake with fear.
    They will be like insects crawling from their holes in the ground and coming to the Lord our God.
    God, they will fear and respect you!

Praise for the Lord

18 There is no God like you.
    You take away people’s guilt.
    God forgives his people that survived.
    He won’t stay angry forever.
    Why? Because He enjoys being kind.

19 He will come back and comfort us again.
    He will crush our guilt and throw all of our sins
    into the deep sea.

20 God, please be true to Jacob,*
    Be kind and loyal to Abraham,*
    like you promised our ancestors*
    a long time ago.

Jacob  Another name for Israel. See Gen. 32:22–28.
Abraham  The father of the Israelites. Here Abraham is used to mean all the people of Israel.
ancestors  Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents,
           grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.
This book is the vision* of Nahum from Elkosh. This is the sad message about the city of Nineveh.*

The Lord Is Angry at Nineveh

2 The Lord is a jealous God.
   The Lord punishes guilty people.
   The Lord punishes guilty people,
   and the Lord is very angry!
   The Lord punishes his enemies.
   He stays angry at his enemies.

3 The Lord is patient.
   But he is also very powerful!
   And the Lord will punish guilty people.
   He will not let them go free.
   The Lord is coming to punish bad people.
   He will use whirlwinds and storms to show his power.
   A man walks on the dust on the ground.
   But the Lord walks on the clouds!

4 The Lord will speak harshly to the sea,
   and it will become dry.
   He will make all the rivers become dry!
   The rich lands of Bashan and Carmel become dry and dead.
   The flowers in Lebanon fade away.

5 The Lord will come,
   and the mountains will shake with fear,
   and the hills will melt away.
   The Lord will come,
   and the earth will shake with fear.
   The world and every person on it will shake with fear.

6 No one can stand against the Lord’s great anger.

No one can endure his terrible anger.
   His anger will burn like fire.
   The rocks will shatter when he comes.

7 The Lord is good.
   He is a safe place to go to
   in times of trouble.
   He takes care of the people who trust him.

8 But he will destroy completely his enemies.
   He will wash them away like a flood.
   He will chase his enemies into the darkness.

9 Why are you making plans against
   the Lord?
   He will bring complete destruction,
   so you will not cause trouble again!

10 You will be completely destroyed like thorn bushes burning under a pot.
   You will be destroyed quickly like dry weeds that burn fast.

11 Assyria, a man came from you.
   He made evil plans against the Lord.
   He gave evil advice.

12 The Lord said these things to Judah:
   “The people of Assyria are at full strength.
   They have many soldiers.
   But they will all be cut down.
   They will all be finished.
   My people, I made you suffer.
   But I will make you suffer no more.

13 Now I will set you free from the power of Assyria.
   I will take that yoke* off your neck.
   I will tear away the chains holding you.”

---

vision(s) Something like a dream that God used to speak to people.

Nineveh The capital city of the country of Assyria. Assyria destroyed Israel in 722-721 B.C.

yoke A pole people used for carrying things on their shoulder. This often showed that a person was a slave.
14 [King of Assyria,] the Lord gave this command about you:
   "You will not have any descendants to wear your name.
I will destroy your carved idols and metal statues that are in the temple of your gods.
I am preparing your grave for you because your end is coming soon!*

15 Judah, look!
   Look there, coming over the mountains.
   Here comes a messenger bringing good news!
   He says there is peace!
Judah, celebrate your special holidays.
Judah, do the things you promised.
Those worthless people will not come through and attack you again!
Why? Because all those bad people have been destroyed!

Nineveh Will Be Destroyed

2 An enemy is coming to attack you.
   So guard the strong places of your city.
   Watch the road.
   Get ready for war.
   Prepare for battle!
2 Yes, the Lord changed Jacob’s* pride.
   He made it like Israel’s pride.
   The enemy destroyed them and ruined their grapevines.

3 The shields of those soldiers are red.
   Their uniforms are bright red.
   Their chariots* are lined up for battle, and shining like flames of fire.
   And their horses are ready to go.
4 The chariots race wildly through the streets.
   They rush back and forth through the square.
   They look like burning torches, like lightning flashing from place to place!

5 The enemy calls for his best soldiers.
   They stumble as they rush ahead.
   They run to the wall and set up their shield over the battering ram.
6 But the gates by the rivers are open, and the enemy comes flooding in and destroys the king’s house.
7 The enemy takes away the queen.
   And her slave girls moan sadly like doves.
   They beat their breasts to show their sadness.
8 Nineveh is like a pool whose water is draining away.
   People yell, "Stop! Stop running away!"
   But it doesn’t do any good!
9 You soldiers that are destroying Nineveh, take the silver! Take the gold! There are many things to take.
   There are many treasures!
10 Now Nineveh is empty.
   Everything is stolen.
   The city is ruined!
   People have lost their courage, their hearts are melting with fear, their knees are knocking together, their bodies are shaking, their faces become pale from fear.
11 Where is the lion’s cave (Nineveh) now?
   The male and female lions lived there.
   Their babies were not afraid.
12 The lion (king of Nineveh) killed people to feed his cubs and lionesses.
   He filled his cave (Nineveh) with men’s bodies.
   He filled his cave with women he had killed.
13 The Lord All-Powerful says,
   “I am against you, Nineveh!
   I will burn your chariots.
   I will kill your ‘young lions’ in battle.
   You will not hunt anyone on earth again.
   People will never again hear bad news from your messengers.”
Bad News for Nineveh

1 It will be very bad for that city of murderers. Nineveh is a city full of lies. It is filled with things taken from other countries. It is filled with plenty of people that it hunted and killed!

2 You can hear the sounds of whips cracking, the noise of wheels, horses galloping, and chariots bouncing along!

3 Soldiers on horses are attacking, their swords are shining, their spears are gleaming! There are many dead people, dead bodies piled up, too many bodies to count! People are tripping over all the dead bodies.

4 All this happened because of Nineveh. Nineveh is like a prostitute that could never get enough. She wanted more and more. She sold herself to many nations, and she used her magic to make them her slaves.

5 The Lord All-Powerful says, “I am against you Nineveh. I will pull your dress up over your face. I will let the nations see your naked body. Those kingdoms will see your shame.

6 I will throw dirty things on you. I will treat you in a hateful way. People will look at you and laugh.

7 Everyone who sees you will be shocked. They will say, ‘Nineveh is destroyed. Who will cry for her?’ I know I cannot find anyone to comfort you, Nineveh.”

8Nineveh, are you better than Thebes on the Nile River? No! Thebes also had water all around her. Thebes used the water to protect herself from enemies. She used that water like a wall too! Ethiopia and Egypt gave Thebes much strength. The Sudan and Libya supported her. But Thebes was defeated. Her people were taken away as prisoners to a foreign country. Soldiers beat her small children to death at every street corner. They threw lots to see who got to keep the important people as slaves. They put chains on all the important men of Thebes.

9So Nineveh, you will also fall like a drunk person! You will try to hide. You will look for a safe place away from the enemy. But Nineveh, all your strong places will be like fig trees. New figs become ripe. A person comes and shakes the tree. The figs fall into the mouth of that person. He eats them, and they are gone!

10Nineveh, your people are all like women—and the enemy soldiers are ready to take them. The gates of your land are open wide for your enemies to come in. Fire has destroyed the wooden bars across the gates.

11Get water and store it inside your city. Why? Because the enemy soldiers will surround your city. They will not let any person bring food or water into the city. Make your defenses strong! Get clay to make more bricks! Mix the mortar! Get the molds for making bricks! You can do all those things, but the fire will still destroy you completely! And the sword will kill you. Your land will look like a swarm of grasshoppers came and ate everything.

12Nineveh, you grew and grew. You became like a swarm of grasshoppers. You were like a swarm of locusts. You have many, many businessmen that go places and buy things. They are as many as the stars in the sky! And they are like locusts that come, eat everything until it is finished, and then leave. And your government officials are also like locusts. They are like locusts that settle on a stone wall on a cold day. But when the sun comes up, the rocks become warm, and the locusts all fly away.

pull your dress This is a word play in Hebrew. The Hebrew word also means “to destroy a country and take its people away as prisoners to other nations.”
Thebes A great city in Egypt. It was destroyed in 663 B.C. by the Assyrian army.

lots Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.
away. And no one knows where! Your officials will be like that.

18 King of Assyria, your shepherds (leaders) fell asleep. Those powerful men are sleeping. And now your sheep (people) have wandered away on the mountains. And there is no person to bring them back. 19 Nineveh, you have been hurt badly, and nothing can heal your wound. Everyone who hears the news of your destruction claps his hands. They are all happy! Why? Because they all felt the pain you always caused!
Habakkuk

Habakkuk Complains to God

1 This is the message that was given to Habakkuk the prophet.*

2 Lord, I continue to ask for help. When will you listen to me? I cried to you about the violence. But you did nothing! People are stealing things and hurting other people. People are arguing and fighting. Why do you make me look at these terrible things? The law is weak and not fair to people. Evil people win their fights against good people. So, the law is no longer fair. Justice doesn’t win anymore!

God Answers Habakkuk

5 The Lord answered, “Look at the other nations! Watch them, and you will be amazed. I will do something in your lifetime that will amaze you. You will have to see it to believe it. You would not believe it if you were told about it. I will make the Babylonian people a strong nation. Those people are mean and powerful fighters. They will march across the earth. They will take houses and cities that don’t belong to them. The Babylonian people will scare the other people. The Babylonian people will do what they want to do and go where they want to go. Their horses will be faster than leopards* and meaner than wolves* at sunset. Their horse soldiers will come from faraway places. They will attack their enemies quickly, like a hungry eagle swooping down from the sky. The one thing they all want to do is fight. Their armies will march fast like the wind in the desert. And the Babylonian soldiers will take many, many prisoners—as many as the grains of sand.

10 “The Babylonian soldiers will laugh at the kings of other nations. Foreign rulers will be like jokes to them. The Babylonian soldiers will laugh at the cities with tall, strong walls. The soldiers will simply build dirt roads up to the top of the walls and easily defeat the cities. Then they will leave like the wind and go on to fight against other places. The only thing those Babylonians will worship is their own strength.”

Habakkuk’s Second Complaint

12 Then Habakkuk said, “Lord, you are the Lord who lives forever! You are my holy God who never dies!* Lord, you created the Babylonian people to do what must be done. Our Rock,* you created them to punish the people of Judah.

13 Your eyes are too good to look at evil. You can’t watch people doing wrong. So how can you watch those evil people win? How can you watch bad people defeating good people?

14 “You have made the people like fish in the sea. They are like little sea-animals without a leader.
15 The enemy catches all of them with hooks and nets.
The enemy catches them in his net and drags them in.
And the enemy is very happy with what he caught.

16 His net helps him live like a rich man and enjoy the best food.
So the enemy worships his net.
He makes sacrifices* and burns incense* to honor his net.

17 Will he continue to take riches with his net?
Will he continue destroying people without showing mercy?

2 "I will stand like a guard and watch.
I will wait to see what the Lord will say to me.
I will wait and learn how he answers my questions.”

God Answers Habakkuk

2 The Lord answered me, “Write down what I show you. Write clearly on a sign so people can read it easily.* 3 This message is about a special time in the future. This message is about the end, and it will come true! It may seem like that time will never come. But be patient and wait for it. That time will come. It will not be late. 4 This message can’t help people that refuse to listen to it. But a good person will believe this message. And the good person will live because of his faith.”

2 God said, “Wine can trick a person. In the same way, a strong man’s pride can fool him. But he will not find peace. He is like death—he always wants more and more. And, like death, he will never be satisfied. He will continue defeating other nations. He will continue to make those people his prisoners.

6 But soon enough, all of those people will laugh at him. They will tell stories about his defeat. They will laugh and say, ‘It’s too bad that the man who took so many things will not get to keep them! He made himself rich collecting debts.’

7 “Strong man, you have taken money from people. One day those people will wake up and realize what is happening. And they will stand against you. Then they will take things from you. And you will be very afraid. 8 You have stolen things from many nations. So those people will take much from you. You have killed many people. You have destroyed lands and cities. You have killed all the people there. 9 Yes, it will be very bad for the person that becomes rich by doing wrong. That person does those things to live in a safe place. He thinks that he can stop other people from stealing from him. But bad things will happen to him.

10 “You have made plans to destroy many people. But those plans will bring shame to your house. You have done bad things, and you will lose your life. 11 The stones of the walls will cry out against you. Even the wooden rafters* in your own house will agree that you are wrong.

12 “It will be very bad for the leader that does wrong and kills people to build a city. 13 The Lord All-Powerful has decided that a fire will destroy everything that those people worked to build. All their work will be for nothing. 14 Then people everywhere will know about the Glory of the Lord.* This news will spread like water spreads out into the sea. 15 It will be very bad for that person that becomes angry and then makes other people suffer. In anger, that person knocks other people to the ground. And he treats those people like they are naked and drunk.

16 But that person will know the Lord’s anger. That anger will be like a cup of poison in the Lord’s right hand. That person will taste that anger and then he will fall to the ground like a drunk person.

“Evil ruler, you will drink from that cup. You will get shame, not honor. 17 You hurt many people in Lebanon. You stole many animals sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

Write clearly ... easily Or, “Write clearly on tablets so the person that reads it can run and tell other people the message.”

rafters Boards that support the roof.

Glory of the Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. It was like a bright shining light. See Ex. 16:6; 40:34–38.
there. So you will be afraid because of the people that died and because of the bad things you did to that country. You will be afraid because of the things you did to those cities and to the people that lived in those cities."

The Message About Idols

18 That person’s false god will not help him. Why? Because it is only a statue that some man covered with metal. It is only a statue. So the person that made it can’t expect it to help. That statue can’t even speak! 19 It will be very bad for the person that says to a wooden statue, “Get up!” It will be very bad for the person that says to a stone that can’t speak, “Wake up!” Those things can’t help him. That statue may be covered with gold and silver, but there is no life in that statue.

20 But the Lord is different! The Lord is in his holy temple. So all the earth should be silent and show respect in front of the Lord.

Habakkuk’s Prayer

3 The Shiggayon prayer of Habakkuk the prophet.*

2 Lord, I have heard the news about you.
   Lord, I am amazed at the powerful things that you did in the past.
   Now I pray that you will do great things in our time.
   Please make those things happen in our own days.
   But in your excitement, remember to show mercy to us.
   SELAH*

3 God is coming from Teman.*
   The Holy One is coming from Mount Paran.*
   SELAH*

3 The glory of the Lord covers the heavens!
   His praise fills the earth!

4 Rays of light shine from his hand, a bright, shining light.
   There is such power hiding in that hand.
   The sickness went before him.
   And the destroyer followed behind him.*

5 The Lord stood and judged the earth.
   He looked at the people of all the nations.
   And they shook with fear.
   For many years the mountains stood strong.
   But those mountains fell to pieces.
   The old, old hills fell down.
   God has always been like that!

6 I saw the cities of Cushan were in trouble.
   The houses of Midian trembled with fear.

8 Lord, were you angry at the rivers?
   Were you angry at the streams?
   Were you angry at the sea?
   Were you angry when you rode your horses and chariots to victory?

9 Even then you showed your rainbow.
   It was proof of your Agreement with the families of the earth.
   SELAH*

10 The mountains saw you and shook.
   The water flowed off the land.
   The water from the sea made a loud noise as it lost its power over the land.

11 The sun and the moon lost their brightness.
   They stopped shining when they saw your bright flashes of lightning.
   That lightning was like spears and arrows shooting through the air.

12 In anger you walked on the earth and punished the nations.

13 You came to save your people.
   You came to lead your chosen king* to victory.
   You killed the leader in every evil family, from the least important person to the most important in the land.*
   SELAH*

Shiggayon ... prophet Or, “The prayer of Habakkuk on the Shiggayon.” The exact meaning of “Shiggayon” is not known.

SELAH This word is for the singers or the musicians. It probably means that the singers should pause or that the music should be louder here.

Teman One of Edom’s important cities in the south, maybe its capital.

Mount Paran This is probably an important mountain west of the Gulf of Aqaba and north of Mount Sinai.

The sickness ... behind him This probably refers to the diseases and the Angel of Death God sent against the Egyptians when God freed Israel from slavery.

chosen king Literally, “anointed one.”

You killed ... in the land Literally, “You struck the head from the evil house. From the foundation to the neck they were laid bare.”
You used Moses’ walking stick to stop the enemy soldiers.
Those soldiers came like a powerful storm to fight against us.
They thought they could defeat us easily,
like robbing a poor man in secret.

But you marched your horses
through the deep water, stirring up the mud.

My whole body shook
when I heard the story.
I whistled out loud!
I felt weak deep down in my bones.
I just stood there shaking.
So I will wait patiently for the day of destruction when they come to attack the people.

Figs might not grow on the fig trees.
Grapes might not grow on the vines.
Olives might not grow on the olive trees.
Food might not grow in the fields.
There might not be any sheep in the pens.
There might not be any cattle in the barns.

But I will still be glad in the Lord.
I will rejoice in God my savior.

The Lord, my Master,
gives me my strength.
He helps me run fast like a deer.
He leads me safely on the mountains.

To the music director.
On my stringed instruments.
This is the message that the Lord gave to Zephaniah. Zephaniah received this message during the time that Josiah son of Amon was king of Judah. Zephaniah was the son of Cush. Cush was the son of Gedaliah. Gedaliah was the son of Amariah. Amariah was the son of Hezekiah.

The Lord's Day for Judging the People

The Lord says, "I will destroy everything on earth!* 3I will destroy all the people and all the animals. I will destroy the birds in the air and the fish in the sea. I will destroy the evil people and all the things that make them sin. I will remove all people from the earth." The Lord said those things!

4{The Lord said,} "I will punish Judah and the people living in Jerusalem. I will remove these things from that place: I will remove the last signs of Baal worship. I will remove the priests and all the people that 5go on their roofs* to worship the stars.* People will forget about those false priests. Some people say they worship me. Those people promised to worship me, but now they worship the false god Milcom.* So I will remove those people from that place. 6Some people turned away from the Lord. They quit following me. Those people stopped asking the Lord for help. So I will remove those people from that place.”

7Be silent before the Lord my Master! Why? Because the Lord’s day for judging the people is coming soon! The Lord has prepared his sacrifice and he has told his invited guests to get ready.*

8The Lord said, "On the Lord’s day of sacrifice, I will punish the king’s sons and other leaders. I will punish all the people wearing clothes from other countries. 9At that time, I will punish all the people that jump over the threshold.* I will punish the people that fill their master’s house* with lies and violence.”

10The Lord also said, “At that time, people will be calling for help at Fish Gate in Jerusalem. People will be crying in the other parts of town. And the people will hear loud noises of things being destroyed in the hills around the city. 11You people living in the lower part of town will cry. Why? Because all the businessmen and rich merchants will be destroyed.

12“At that time, I will take a lamp and search through Jerusalem. I will find all the people that are satisfied to live their own way. Those people say, ‘The Lord does nothing. He does not help and he does not hurt!’ I will find those people and I will punish them! 13Then other people will take their wealth and destroy their houses. At that time, people that built houses will not live in them and people that planted fields of grapes will not drink the earth Or, “the land,” or “the country.”

---

roofs In ancient Israel, houses had flat roofs that were used like an extra room.
stars Literally, “army of heaven.” This might mean the stars and planets or the angels.
Milcom The god of the Ammonite people.
wine from those grapes—other people will get those things.

14The Lord’s special day for judging is coming soon! That day is near and coming fast. People will hear very sad sounds on the Lord’s special day of judgment. Even strong soldiers will cry! 15God will show his anger at that time. It will be a time of terrible troubles. It will be a time of destruction. It will be a time of darkness—a black, cloudy, and stormy day. 16It will be like a time of war when people hear horns and trumpets in the defense towers and protected cities.

17[The Lord said,] “I will make life very hard on the people. People will walk around like blind men that don’t know where they are going. Why? Because those people sinned against the Lord. [Many people will be killed.] Their blood will be spilled on the ground. Their dead bodies will lie like dung on the ground. 18Their gold and silver won’t help them! At that time, the Lord will become very upset and angry. The Lord will destroy the whole world!* The Lord will completely destroy everyone on earth!*”

God Asks People to Change Their Lives

2Shameless people, change your lives before you become like a dry and dying flower. In the heat of day, a flower will wilt and die. You will be like that when the Lord shows his terrible anger. So change your lives before the Lord shows his anger against you! 3All you humble people, come to the Lord! Obey his laws. Learn to do good things. Learn to be humble. Maybe then you will be safe when the Lord shows his anger.

The Lord Will Punish Israel’s Neighbors

4No one will be left in Gaza*. Ashkelon* will be destroyed. By noon, the people will be forced to leave Ashdod*. Ekron* will be empty!* 5You Philistine people, you people living by the sea, this message from the Lord is about you. Land of Canaan, land of Palestine,* you will be destroyed—no one will live there! 6Your land by the sea will become empty* fields for shepherds and their sheep. 7Then that land will belong to the survivors* from Judah. The Lord will remember those people from Judah. Those people are prisoners in a foreign country. But the Lord will bring them back. Then the people from Judah will let their sheep eat the grass in those fields. In the evenings, they will lie down in the empty houses of Ashkelon.

8The Lord says, “I know what the people of Moab and Ammon did! Those people embarrassed my people. Those people took their land to make their own countries bigger. 9So, as sure as I am alive, Moab and the people of Ammon will be destroyed like Sodom and Gomorrah.* I am the Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel. And I promise those countries will be completely destroyed forever. Their land will be overgrown with weeds. Their land will be like the land covered with salt by the Dead Sea. The survivors of my people will take that land and all the things left in it.”

10Those things will happen to the people of Moab and Ammon because they were so proud and because they were cruel to the people of the Lord All-Powerful and they humiliated them. 11Those people will be afraid of the Lord! Why? Because the Lord will destroy their gods. Then all the people in all the faraway lands will worship the Lord. 12People of Ethiopia, this means even you! The Lord’s sword will kill your people. 13And the Lord will turn north and punish Assyria. He will destroy Nineveh—that city will be like an empty, dry desert. 14Then only sheep and wild animals will live in that ruined city. Owls and crows will sit on the columns that are left standing. Their calls will be heard world Or, “land” or “country.”

earth Or, “the land” or “the country.”
Palestine Or, “the Philistines.”
survivors People that escaped some disaster. Here this means the Jewish people that survived the destruction of Judah and Israel by its enemy armies.
Survivors* People that escaped some disaster. Here this means the Jewish people that survived the destruction of Judah and Israel by its enemy armies.
Sodom and Gomorrah Two cities that God destroyed because the people were so evil.

Gaza, Ashkelon, Ashdod, Ekron Philistine cities. In Hebrew, Zephaniah is making word plays on the names of these cities.
empty In Hebrew, this word is like the word meaning “Philistine people.”
coming through the windows. Crows will sit on the doorsteps. Black birds* will sit in those empty houses. 15Nineveh is so proud now. It is such a happy city. The people think they are safe. They think Nineveh is the greatest place in the world. But that city will be destroyed! It will be an empty place where only wild animals go to rest. People that pass that place will whistle and shake their heads when they see how badly the city was destroyed.

The Future of Jerusalem

Jerusalem, your people fought against God! Your people hurt other people, and you have been stained with sin! 2Your people didn’t listen to me! They didn’t accept my teachings. Jerusalem didn’t trust the Lord. Jerusalem didn’t go to her God. 3Jerusalem’s leaders are like roaring lions. Her judges* are like hungry wolves that come in the evening to attack the sheep—and in the morning nothing is left. 4Her prophets* are always making their secret plans to get more and more. Her priests have treated holy things like they are not holy. They have done bad things to God’s teachings. 5But God is still in that city. And he continues to be good. God does not do anything wrong. He continues to help his people. Morning after morning he helps his people make good decisions. But those bad people are not ashamed of the bad things they do.

6God says, “I have destroyed whole nations. I destroyed their defense towers. I destroyed their streets and now no one goes there any more. Their cities are empty—no one lives there any more. 7I tell you these things so you will learn a lesson. I want you to fear and respect me. If you do this, then your home won’t be destroyed. If you do this, then I won’t have to punish you the way I planned.” But those bad people only wanted to do more of the same bad things they had already done!

8The Lord said, “So just wait! Wait for me to stand and judge you. I have the right to bring people from many nations and use them to punish you. I will use those people to show my anger against you. I will use them to show how upset I am—and the whole country will be destroyed! 9Then I will change people from other nations so they can speak the language clearly and call out the name of the Lord. They will all worship me together, shoulder to shoulder, as one people. 10People will come all the way from the other side of the river in Ethiopia. My scattered people will come to me. My worshipers will come and bring their gifts to me.

11“Then, Jerusalem, you will no longer be ashamed of the bad things your people do against me. Why? Because I will remove all of those bad people from Jerusalem. I will take away all of those proud people. There won’t be any of those proud people on my holy mountain.* 12I will let only meek and humble people stay in my city (Jerusalem). And they will trust the Lord’s name. 13The survivors* of Israel won’t do bad things. They won’t tell lies. They won’t try to trick people with lies. They will be like sheep that eat and lie down in peace—and no one will bother them.”

A Happy Song

14 Jerusalem, sing and be happy! Israel, shout for joy! Jerusalem, be happy and have fun!

15 Why? Because the Lord stopped your punishment! He destroyed your enemies’ strong towers!

King of Israel, the Lord is with you. You don’t need to worry about anything bad happening.

16 At that time, Jerusalem will be told, “Be strong, don’t be afraid!

Black birds Or, “cedar beams.”
judge(s) A person that decides matters in court.
prophet(s) A person called by God to be a special servant. God used dreams and visions to show them things to teach the people.

holy mountain Mount Zion, one of the mountains Jerusalem was built on.
survivors People that escaped some disaster. Here this means the Jewish people that survived the destruction of Judah and Israel by its enemy armies.
17 The Lord your God is with you.
   He is like a powerful soldier.
   He will save you.
   He will show how much he loves you.
   He will show you how happy he is with you.
   He will laugh and be happy about you,
   like people at a party."

18 The Lord said,
   "I will take away your shame.
   I will make those people stop hurting you."

19 At that time, I will punish the people that hurt you.

20 At that time, I will bring you back.
   I will bring you back together.
   I will make you famous.
   People everywhere will praise you.
   That will happen when I bring back the prisoners before your very own eyes!"

The Lord said those things.
Haggai

It Is Time to Build the Temple!

1 On the first day of the sixth month of Darius’ second year as king of Persia, Haggai received a message from the Lord. This message was for Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Joshua son of Jehozadak. Zerubbabel was the governor of Judah and Joshua was the high priest. This is the message: 2The Lord All-Powerful says this: “The people say it is not the right time yet to build the Lord’s temple.”

3Again Haggai received a message from the Lord. Haggai spoke this message: 4“You people think the right time has come for you to live in nice houses. You live in houses with beautiful wooden paneling on the walls. But the Lord’s house is still in ruins! 5Now, the Lord All-Powerful says, ‘Think about what is happening! 6You have planted many seeds, but you have gathered only a few crops. You have food to eat, but not enough to get full. You have something to drink, but not enough to get drunk. You have some clothes to wear, but not enough to keep warm. You earn a little money, but you don’t know where it all goes. It’s like there is a hole in your pocket!’”

7The Lord All-Powerful says, “Think about what you are doing! 8Go up to the mountains to get the wood. And build the temple. Then I will be pleased with the temple, and I will be honored.” The Lord said these things.

9The Lord All-Powerful says, “You people look for a big harvest. But when you go to gather the crop, there is only a little grain. So you bring that grain home. And then I send a wind that blows it all away! Why are these things happening? Why? Because my house is still in ruins while each of you runs home to take care of his own house. 10That is why the sky holds back its dew. And that is why the earth holds back its crops.”

11The Lord says, “I gave the command for the land and the mountains to be dry. The grain, the new wine, the olive oil, and everything the earth produces will all be ruined! All the people and all the animals will become weak.”

Work Begins on the New Temple

12The Lord God had sent Haggai to speak to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and to the high priest, Joshua son of Jehozadak. So these men and all the people listened to the voice of the Lord their God and to the words of Haggai the prophet. And the people showed their fear and respect for the Lord their God.

13Haggai was a messenger that the Lord God had sent to deliver this message to the people: The Lord says, “I am with you!”

14Then the Lord God made the people excited about building the temple. Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel was the governor of Judah. The Lord made him excited! Joshua son of Jehozadak was the high priest. The Lord made him excited! And the Lord made all the people excited about building the temple. So they began working on the temple of their God, the Lord All-Powerful. 15They began this... work on the 24th day of the sixth month of Darius’ second year as the king of Persia.

The Lord Encourages the People

On the 21st day of the seventh month, this message from the Lord came to Haggai: Speak to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, the governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to all the people. Say these things: "How many of you people look at this temple* and try to compare it to the beautiful temple that was destroyed? What do you think? Does this temple seem like nothing when you compare it with the first temple? But now, Zerubbabel, the Lord says, ‘Don’t be discouraged!’ High priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, the Lord says, ‘Don’t be discouraged!’ All you people of this country, the Lord says, ‘Don’t be discouraged! Continue this work, because I am with you!’ The Lord All-Powerful said these things!”

The Lord says, “I made an agreement with you when you left Egypt. And I have kept my promise! My Spirit is among you. So don’t be afraid!! Why? Because the Lord All-Powerful is saying these things! In just a little while, I will once again shake things up! I will shake heaven and earth. And I will shake the sea and the dry land! I will shake up the nations, and they will come to you with wealth from every nation. And then I will fill this temple* with glory. The Lord All-Powerful is saying these things! All of their silver really belongs to me! The Lord All-Powerful is saying these things! And all of the gold is mine! The Lord All-Powerful is saying these things! And the Lord All-Powerful says that this last temple will be more beautiful than the first temple! And I will bring peace to this place! Remember, the Lord All-Powerful is saying these things!”

The Work Has Begun—The Blessings Will Come

On the 24th day of the ninth month of Darius’ second year as king of Persia, this message from the Lord came to Haggai the prophet:

The Lord All-Powerful commands you to ask the priests what the law says about these things: "Suppose a man carries some meat in the fold of his clothes. This meat is part of a sacrifice, so it is holy. What if those clothes touch some bread, or cooked food, wine, oil or some other food. Will the thing the clothes touch become holy?"

The priests answered, “No.”

Then Haggai said, “If a person touches a dead body, then he will become unclean.* Now, if he touches anything else, will that thing also become unclean?”

The priests answered, “Yes, that thing will become unclean.”

Then Haggai said, “The Lord God says these things, ‘That is also true about the people of this nation! They were not pure and holy before me. So anything they touched with their hands and anything they brought to the altar became unclean!’

Think about the things that happened before today. Think about the time before you began working on the Lord’s temple.* People wanted 20 measures of grain, but there were only 10 measures of grain in the pile. People wanted to get 50 jars of wine from the wine vat, but there were only 20! Why? Because I punished you. I sent the diseases that killed your plants. I sent the hail that destroyed the things you made with your hands. I did these things, but still you did not come to me.’ The Lord said these things.”

"Today is the 24th day of the ninth month. You have finished laying the foundation of the Lord’s temple. So notice what happens from this day forward! Is there any grain still in the barn? No! Look at the vines, the fig trees, the pomegranates,* and the olive trees. Are they producing fruit? No! But, starting today, I will bless you!"

Another message from the Lord came to Haggai on the 24th day of the month. This is the message: "Go to Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah. Tell him that I will shake heaven and earth. And I will overthrow many unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

pomegranates A red fruit with many tiny seeds inside it. Each seed is covered with a soft, tasty part of the fruit.
kings and kingdoms. I will destroy the power of the kingdoms of those other people. I will destroy their chariots* and their riders. I will defeat their war horses and riders. Those armies are friends now, but they will turn against each other and kill each other with swords. 23 The Lord All-Powerful is saying these things. Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, you are my servant. I have chosen you. And at that time, I will make you like a signet ring.* [You will be the proof that I have done these things!]

The Lord All-Powerful said these things.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

signet ring This ring had the owner's name or design on it. The ring was pressed on clay or wax, and this proved that it belonged to the person with the ring.
Zechariah

The Lord Wants His People to Return

1 Zechariah son of Berekiah received a message from the Lord. This was in the eighth month of the second year that Darius was king* in Persia. (Zechariah was the son of Berekiah. Berekiah was the son of Iddo the prophet.) This is that message:

2The Lord became very angry at your ancestors. 3So you must tell the people these things. The Lord says, “Come back to me and I will come back to you.” The Lord All-Powerful said these things.

4The Lord said, “Don’t be like your ancestors. In the past, the prophets spoke to them. They said, ‘The Lord All-Powerful wants you to change your bad way of living. Stop doing bad things!’ But your ancestors did not listen to me.” The Lord said those things.

5God said, “Your ancestors are gone. And those prophets did not live forever. 6The prophets were my servants. I used them to tell your ancestors about my laws and teachings. And your ancestors finally learned their lesson. They said, ‘The Lord All-Powerful did the things he said he would do. He punished us for the way we lived and for all the bad things we did.’ So they came back to God.”

The Four Horses

7On the 24th day of the eleventh month (Shebat) of the second year that Darius was king* of Persia, Zechariah received another message from the Lord. (This was Zechariah son of Berekiah, son of Iddo, the prophet.) This is the message:

8At night, I saw a man riding a red horse. He was standing among some myrtle bushes in the valley. Behind him, there were red, brown, and white horses. 9I said, “Sir, what are these horses for?”

Then the angel speaking to me said, “I will show you what these horses are for.”

10Then the man standing among the myrtle bushes said, “The Lord sent these horses to go here and there on earth.”

11Then the horses spoke to the Lord’s angel standing among the myrtle bushes. They said, “We have walked here and there on the earth, and everything is calm and quiet.”

12Then the Lord’s angel said, “Lord, how long before you comfort Jerusalem and the cities of Judah? You have shown your anger at these cities for 70 years now.”

13Then the Lord answered the angel that was talking with me. The Lord spoke good, comforting words. 14Then the angel told me to tell the people these things:

The Lord All-Powerful says:

“I have a strong love for Jerusalem and Zion.*

And I am very angry at the nations that feel so safe.

I was a little angry, and I used those nations to punish my people.

But those nations caused too much damage.”

16So the Lord says, “I will come back to Jerusalem and comfort her.”

second year that Darius was king  About 520 B.C.

Zion  The southeast part of the mountain Jerusalem is built on. Sometimes it means the people of God living in Jerusalem.
ZECHARIAH 1:17–3:2

The Lord All-Powerful says,
“Jerusalem will be built again.
And my house will be built there.”

17 The angel also said,
“The Lord All-Powerful says,
‘My towns will be rich again.
I will comfort Zion.
I will again choose Jerusalem to be my special city.’”

The Four Horns and Four Workers

18Then I looked up and I saw four horns.
19Then I asked the angel that was talking with me, “What do these horns mean?”
He said, “These are the horns (Powerful nations) that forced the people of Israel, Judah, and Jerusalem to go to foreign countries.”
20The Lord showed me four workers.  I asked him, “What are these four workers coming to do?”
He said, “The horns represent the nations that attacked the people of Judah and forced them to go to foreign countries. The horns ‘threw’ the people of Judah to the foreign countries. Those horns didn’t show mercy to anyone. But these four workers have come to frighten the horns and throw them away!”

Measuring Jerusalem

2Then I looked up, and I saw a man holding a rope for measuring things.  I asked him, “Where are you going?”
He said to me, “I am going to measure Jerusalem, to see how wide and how long it is.”
3Then the angel that was speaking to me left. And another angel went out to talk to him.  He said to him, “Run and tell that young man that Jerusalem will be too big to measure.  Tell him these things:
‘Jerusalem will be a city without walls.
Why? Because there will be too many people and animals living there.’

5 The Lord says,
‘I will be a wall of fire around her,
protecting her.
And to bring glory to that city,
I will live there.’”

God Calls His People Home

The Lord says,
“Hurry! Leave the land in the North in a hurry!
Yes, it is true that I scattered your people in every direction.
7 You people from Zion now live in Babylon.
Escape! Run away from that city!”

8 The Lord All-Powerful said, “These things.
He sent me to the nations that stole things from you.
He sent me to bring you honor!
Why? Because hurting you is like hurting the pupil of God’s eye.
9 The people of Babylon took my people and made them slaves.
But I will beat them, and they will become the slaves of my people.
And then you will know that the Lord All-Powerful sent me.”

10 The Lord says,
“Zion, be happy!
Why? Because I am coming.
And I will live in your city.
11 At that time, people from many nations will come to me.
They will become my people.
And I will live in your city.”
And then you will know that the Lord All-Powerful sent me.

12 The Lord will again choose Jerusalem to be his special city.  Judah will be his share of the holy land.

13 Everyone, be quiet!
The Lord is coming out of his holy house.

The High Priest

3 The angel showed me Joshua the High Priest. Joshua was standing in front of the angel of the Lord and Satan was standing by Joshua’s right side. Satan was there to accuse Joshua of doing bad things.  He said, “The Lord rebukes you and he will continue to criticize you! The Lord has chosen Jerusalem to be his special city. He saved that city—it was like a burning stick pulled from the fire.”
Joshua was standing in front of the angel. And Joshua was wearing a dirty robe. Then the angel said to the other angels standing near him, “Take those dirty clothes off of Joshua.” Then the angel spoke to Joshua. He said, “Now, I have taken away your guilt, and I am giving you a new change of clothes.”

Then I said, “Put a clean turban* on his head.” So they put the clean turban on him. They also put clean clothes on him while the Lord’s angel stood there. Then the Lord’s angel said these things to Joshua:

The Lord All-Powerful said these things. “Live the way I tell you, and do all the things I say. And you will be in charge of my temple. You will take care of its courtyard. You will be free to go anywhere in my temple just like these angels standing here.

Listen to me High Priest Joshua and your fellow priests seated before you. These men are examples that show what will happen when I bring my special servant. He is called, THE BRANCH.

Look, I put a special stone in front of Joshua. There are seven sides* on that stone. I will carve a special message on that special stone. That will show that in one day, I will remove the guilt from this land.”

The Lord All-Powerful says, “At that time, people will sit and talk with their friends and neighbors. They will invite each other to come sit under the fig trees and grape vines.”

Then the angel that was talking to me came to me and woke me up. I was like a person waking up from sleep. Then the angel asked me, “What do you see?”

I said, “I see a solid gold lampstand. There are seven lamps* on the lampstand. And there is a bowl on top of the lampstand. There are seven tubes coming from the bowl. One tube goes to each lamp. The tubes bring the oil in the bowl to each of the lamps.* There are two olive trees by the bowl, one on the right side and one on the left side. These trees produce the oil for the lamps.” Then I asked the angel that was speaking with me, “Sir, what do these things mean?”

The angel speaking with me said, “Don’t you know what these things are?”

“No sir,” I said.

He said, “This is the message from the Lord to Zerubbabel: 'Your help will not come from your strength and power. No, your help will come from my Spirit.' The Lord All-Powerful said those things! That tall mountain will be like a flat place for Zerubbabel. He will build the temple, and when the most important stone is put in place, the people will shout, ‘Beautiful! Beautiful!’”

The Lord’s message to me also said, “Zerubbabel will lay the foundations for my temple. And Zerubbabel will finish building the temple. Then you will know that the Lord All-Powerful sent me to you people. People will not be ashamed of the small beginnings, and they will be very happy when they see Zerubbabel with the plumbline,* measuring and checking the finished building. Now, the seven sides* of the stone you saw represent the eyes of the Lord looking in every direction. They see everything on earth.”

Then I (Zechariah) said to him, “I saw one olive tree on the right side of the lampstand and one on the left side. What do those two olive trees mean?” I also said to him, “I saw two olive branches by the gold tubes with gold colored oil flowing from them. What do these things mean?”

---

turban(s) A head covering made by wrapping a long piece of cloth around the head or around a cap worn on the head.
sides Literally, “eyes.”

lamps These lamps made light by burning olive oil.
plumbline A string with a weight on one end. Workers used plumblines to make sure the walls they were building were straight. The workers often put paint on the string and popped the string. This left a straight line of paint on the wall. Then the workers chipped away the crooked part of the wall.
sides This is a word play. The Hebrew word also means, “eyes.”
Then the angel said to me, “Don’t you know what these things mean?”

I said, “No, sir.”

So he said, “They represent the two men chosen* to serve the Lord of the whole world.”

The Flying Scroll

I looked up again, and I saw a flying scroll.* 2The angel asked me, “What do you see?”

I said, “I see a flying scroll. The scroll is 30 feet* long and 15 feet* wide.”

Then the angel told me, “There is a curse written on that scroll. On one side of the scroll, there is a curse about people that steal. On the other side of the scroll is a curse about people that lie when they make promises. 4The Lord All-Powerful says: I will send that scroll to the houses of thieves and to houses of people that lie when they use my name to make promises. That scroll will stay there and destroy those houses. Even the stones and wooden posts will be destroyed.”

The Woman and the Bucket

The angel that was talking to me went outside. He said, “Look! What do you see coming?”

I said, “I don’t know—what is it?”

He said, “That is a measuring bucket.” He also said, “That bucket is for measuring the sins* of the people in this country.”

A lid made of lead was lifted off the bucket, and there was a woman in the bucket. 8The angel said, “The woman represents evil.” Then the angel pushed the woman down into the bucket and put the lead lid on it. 9Then I looked up and saw two women with wings like a stork. They flew out, and with the wind in their wings, they picked up the bucket. They flew through the air carrying the bucket. 10Then I asked the angel that was speaking with me, “Where are they carrying the bucket?”

The angel told me, “They are going to build a house for it in Shinar.* After they build that house, they will put the bucket there.”

The Four Chariots

Then I turned around. I looked up and saw four chariots* going between two bronze mountains. 2Red horses were pulling the first chariot. Black horses were pulling the second chariot. 3White horses were pulling the third chariot. And horses with red spots were pulling the fourth chariot. 4I asked the angel that was talking with me, “Sir, what does this mean?”

The angel said, “These are the four winds.* They have just come from the Master of the whole world. 6The black horses will go north, the red horses will go east, the white horses will go west, and the horses with red spots will go south.”

The red spotted horses were anxious to go look at their part of the earth, so the angel told them, “Go walk through the earth.” So they went walking through their part of the earth.

Then the Lord yelled at me. He said, “Look, those horses that were going north finished their job in Babylon. They have calmed my spirit—I am not angry now!”

Joshua the Priest Gets a Crown

Then I received another message from the Lord. He said, 10“Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah have come from the captives* in Babylon. Get silver and gold from those men and then go to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah. 11Use that silver and gold to make a crown. Put that crown on Joshua’s head. (Joshua was the high priest. He was the son of Jehozadak.) Then tell Joshua these things:

Shinar The flat land that the tower of Babel (Gen. 11:2) and the city of Babylon were built on.
chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.
four winds Or, “four spirits.” Four winds often means “winds that blow from every direction: north, south, east, and west.”
captives People taken away like prisoners. Here this means the Jewish people that were taken to Babylon.
12 The Lord All-Powerful says these things:
   ‘There is a man called THE BRANCH.
   He will grow strong,
   and he will build the Lord’s temple.
   He will build the Lord’s temple,
   and he will receive the honor.
   He will sit on his throne
   and be the ruler.
   And a priest will stand by his throne.
   These two men will work together in peace.
14 “They will put the crown in the temple.
   This will be a reminder for Heldai, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Zephaniah’s son, Josiah
   It will help them remember {that the king’s power comes from God}. 15 People living far away will come and build the temple. Then you will know for sure that the Lord sent me to you people. All these things will happen if you do what the Lord says.”

The Lord Wants Kindness and Mercy

7 Zechariah received a message from the Lord in the fourth year that Darius was the king* of Persia. This was on the fourth day of the ninth month (Kislev). 2 The people of Bethel sent Sharezer, Regem-Melech, and his men to ask the Lord a question. 3 They went to the prophets and to the priests at the temple of the Lord All-Powerful. Those men asked them this question: “For many years we have shown our sadness for the destruction of the temple. In the fifth month of each year we have had a special time of crying and fasting.
   Should we continue to do this?”
   4 I received this message from the Lord All-Powerful: 5 “Tell the priests and the other people in this country these things: For seventy years you fasted and showed your sadness in the fifth month and in the seventh month. But was that fasting really for me?
   No! 6 And when you ate and drank, was that for me? No! It was for your own good. 7 God used the earlier prophets to say these same things long ago. He said these things while Jerusalem was still a prosperous city filled with people. God said these things while there were still people living in the towns around fourth year that Darius was the king  About 518 B.C.

Jerusalem, and in the Negev, and in the western foothills.”

8 This is the Lord’s message to Zechariah:
9 The Lord All-Powerful said these things.
   “You must do what is right and fair.
   You must be kind and merciful to each other.
10 Don’t hurt widows and orphans,*
   strangers, or poor people.
   Don’t even think of doing bad things to each other!”

11 But those people refused to listen.
   They refused to do what he wanted.
   They closed their ears so they could not hear what God said.
12 They were very stubborn.
   They would not obey the law.
The Lord All-Powerful used his Spirit and sent messages to his people through the prophets.
   But the people would not listen.
   So the Lord All-Powerful became very angry.
13 So the Lord All-Powerful said,
   “I called to them,
   and they did not answer.
   So now, if they call to me,
   I will not answer.
14 I will bring the other nations against them like a storm.
   They didn’t know those nations,
   but the country will be destroyed after those nations pass through.
   This pleasant country will be destroyed.”

The Lord Promises to Bless Jerusalem

8 This is a message from the Lord All-Powerful. 2 The Lord All-Powerful says, “I truly love Mount Zion. I love her so much that I became angry when she was not faithful to me.” 3 The Lord says, “I have come back to Zion. I am living in Jerusalem. Jerusalem will be called FAITHFUL CITY. The Lord All-Powerful’s mountain will be called HOLY MOUNTAIN.”

widows and orphans  Widows are women whose husbands
have died, and orphans are children whose parents have died.
Often these people have no one to care for them.
The Lord All-Powerful says, “Old men and women will again be seen in the public places in Jerusalem. People will live so long that they will need their walking sticks. And the city will be filled with children playing in the streets. The survivors will think it is wonderful. And I will think it is wonderful too!”

The Lord All-Powerful says, “Look, I am rescuing my people from countries in the east and west. I will bring them back here, and they will live in Jerusalem. They will be my people, and I will be their good and faithful God.”

The Lord All-Powerful says, “Be strong! You people are hearing the same message today that the prophets gave when the Lord All-Powerful first laid the foundations to build his temple again. Before that time, men didn’t have the money to hire workers or to rent animals. And it was not safe for people to come and go. There was no relief from all the troubles. I had turned every man against his neighbor. But it is not like that now. It will not be like that for the survivors.” The Lord All-Powerful said these things.

These people will plant in peace. Their grapevines will produce grapes. The land will give good crops, and the skies will give rain. I will give all these things to these, my people. People began using the names Israel and Judah in their curses. But I will save Israel and Judah, and their names will become a blessing. So don’t be afraid. Be strong!" The Lord All-Powerful says, “Your ancestors made me angry. So I decided to destroy them. I decided not to change my mind.” The Lord All-Powerful said these things.

But now I have changed my mind. And in the same way, I have decided to be good to Jerusalem and to the people of Judah. So don’t be afraid! But you must do these things: Tell the truth to your neighbors. When you make decisions in your cities, do the things that are true and right and that bring peace. Don’t make secret plans to hurt your neighbors! Don’t make false promises! You must not enjoy doing those things. Why? Because I hate those things!” The Lord said these things.

I received this message from the Lord All-Powerful. The Lord All-Powerful says, “You have special days of sadness and fasting in the fourth month, the fifth month, the seventh month, and the tenth month. Those days of sadness must be changed into days of happiness. Those will be good and happy holidays. And you must love truth and peace!”

The Lord All-Powerful says, “In the future, people from many cities will come to Jerusalem.

People from different cities will greet each other. Some of them will say, ‘We are going to worship the Lord All-Powerful.’ And the other person will say, ‘I would like to go with you!’”

Many people and many powerful nations will come to Jerusalem to find the Lord All-Powerful and to worship him. The Lord All-Powerful says, “At that time, many foreigners speaking different languages will come to a Jewish person, take hold of the hem of his robe and ask, ‘We heard that God is with you. Can we come with you to worship him?’”

A message from God. This is the Lord’s message against Hadrach’s country and his capital city, Damascus. “The family groups of Israel are not the only people that know about God. Everyone looks to him for help.* And this message is against Hamath which borders Hadrach’s country. And this message is against Tyre and Sidon, even though those people have been so wise and skillful. Tyre is built like a fort. The people there have collected so much silver that it is like dust, and gold is as common as clay. But the Lord our Master will take it all. He will destroy her powerful navy and that city will be destroyed by fire!

days of sadness and fasting ... month These were days when the people remembered the destruction of Jerusalem and the temple. See 2 Kings 25:1–25 and Jer. 41:1–17; 52:1–12.

This ... help This verse is very hard to understand in the Hebrew.

survivors Jewish people that escaped the destruction of Judah and Israel by its enemy armies.
5“The people in Ashkelon will see those things and they will be afraid. The people of Gaza will shake with fear. And the people of Ekron will lose all hope when they see those things happen. There will be no king left in Gaza. No person will live in Ashkelon any more. 6The people in Ashdod will not even know who their real fathers are. I will completely destroy the proud Philistine people. 7They will no longer eat meat with the blood still in it or any other forbidden food. Any Philistine left living will become a part of my people—they will be just one more family group in Judah. The people of Ekron will become a part of my people, just like the Jebusite people did. 8I will protect my country. I will not let enemy armies pass through it. I will not let them hurt my people any more. With my own eyes I saw how much my people suffered in the past.

The Future King
9 City of Zion, rejoice! People of Jerusalem, shout with joy! Look, your king is coming to you! He is the good king that won the victory. But he is humble. He is riding on a donkey, on a young donkey born from a work animal.

10 The king says, “I destroyed the chariots in Ephraim and the horse soldiers in Jerusalem. I destroyed the bows used in war.”

11 Jerusalem, we used blood to seal your Agreement. So I am setting your people free from that empty hole in the ground.*

The Lord Will Save His People
12 Prisoners, go home! Now you have something to hope for. I am telling you now, I am coming back to you!
13 Judah, I will use you like a bow. Ephraim I will use you like arrows. Israel, I will use you like a sword to fight against the people of Greece.

14 The Lord will appear to them, and he will shoot his arrows like lightning. The Lord my Master will blow the trumpet, and the army will rush forward like a desert dust storm.

15 The Lord All-Powerful will protect them. The soldiers will use rocks and slings* to defeat the enemy. They will spill the blood of their enemies. It will flow like wine. It will be like the blood that is thrown on the corners of the altar!

16 At that time, the Lord their God will save his people like a shepherd saves his sheep. They will be very precious to him. They will be like sparkling jewels on his land.

17 Everything will be good and beautiful! There will be a wonderful crop, but it will not be just the food and wine. It will be all the young men and women!

The Lord’s Promises
10 Pray to the Lord for rain in the springtime. The Lord will send the lightning and the rain will fall. And God will make the plants grow in each person’s field.

2People use their little statues and magic to learn the things that will happen in the future—but that is all useless. Those people see visions and tell about their dreams, but it is nothing but worthless lies. So the people are like sheep wandering here and there crying for help—but there is no shepherd to lead them.

3The Lord says, “I am very angry at the shepherds (leaders). I made those leaders empty hole in the ground People stored water in large holes in the ground. People sometimes used those holes as prisons.

slings A strip of leather for throwing rocks.
responsible for what happens to my sheep (people).” (The people of Judah are God’s flock. And the Lord All-Powerful really does take care of his flock. He cares for them like a soldier cares for his beautiful war horse.)

4 “The cornerstone, the tent peg, the war bow, and the advancing soldiers will all come from Judah, together. They will defeat their enemy—it will be like soldiers marching through mud in the streets. They will fight, and since the Lord is with them, they will defeat even the enemy soldiers riding horses. I will make Judah’s family strong. I will help Joseph’s family win the war. I will bring them back safe and sound. I will comfort them. It will be like I never left them. I am the Lord their God, and I will help them. The people of Ephraim* will be as happy as soldiers that have too much to drink. Their children will be rejoicing and they, too, will be happy. They will all have a happy time together with the Lord.

8 “I will whistle for them and call them all together. I really will save them. There will be many, many people. Yes, I have been scattering my people throughout the nations. But in those faraway places they will remember me. They and their children will survive. And they will come back. I will bring them back from Egypt and Assyria. I will bring them to the area of Gilead. And since there will not be enough room, I will also let them live in nearby Lebanon.” (11) It will be like it was before, when God brought them out of Egypt. He hit the sea waves, the sea split, and the people walked across that sea of troubles. The Lord will make the river streams become dry. He will destroy Assyria’s pride and Egypt’s power.)

12 Then I said, “If you want to pay me, then pay me. If not, then don’t!” So they paid me 30 pieces of silver. Then the Lord told me, “So that’s how much they think I’m worth. Throw that large amount of money* into the temple treasury.” So I took the 30 pieces of silver and threw them into the treasury at the Lord’s

God Will Punish the Other Nations

11 Lebanon, open your gates so the fire will come and burn your cedar trees.* The cypress trees will cry because the cedar trees have fallen.

Those powerful trees will be taken away. Oak trees in Bashan will cry for the forest that was cut down.

3 Listen to the crying shepherds. Their powerful leaders were taken away. Listen to the roaring of the young lions.

Those thick bushes near the Jordan River have all been taken away.

4 The Lord my God says, “Care for the sheep that have been raised to be killed. Their leaders are like owners and businessmen. Owners kill their sheep and are not punished. Businessmen sell the sheep and say, ‘Praise the Lord, I am rich!’ The shepherds don’t feel sorry for their sheep. And I don’t feel sorry for the people living in this country.” The Lord said these things, “Look, I will let everyone be abused by his neighbor and king. I will let them destroy their country—I will not stop them!”

So I took care of the sheep that had been raised to be killed—those poor sheep. I found two sticks. I called one stick Favor, and I called the other stick Union. Then I began caring for the sheep. I fired the three shepherds all in one month. I became angry at the sheep, and they began to hate me. Then I said, “I quit! I will not take care of you! I will let those that want to die, die. I will let those that want to be destroyed, be destroyed. And those that are left will destroy each other.”

Then I took the stick named Favor, and I broke it. I did this to show that God’s Agreement* with his people was broken. So that day, the Agreement was finished. And those poor sheep watching me knew that this message was from the Lord.

Then I said, “If you want to pay me, then pay me. If not, then don’t!” So they paid me 30 pieces of silver. Then the Lord told me, “So that’s how much they think I’m worth. Throw that large amount of money* into the temple treasury.” So I took the 30 pieces of silver and threw them into the treasury at the Lord’s large amount of money The Lord was making fun. This was only the amount of money a person paid for a slave.

Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

temple. Then I cut the stick named Union into two pieces. I did this to show that the union between Judah and Israel had been broken.

15 Then the Lord said to me, “Now, get the things a foolish shepherd might use. This will show that I will get a new shepherd for this country. But this young man will not be able to take care of the sheep that are being destroyed. He will not be able to heal the hurt sheep. He will not be able to feed those that are left alive. And the healthy ones will be eaten completely—only their hoofs will be left.”

16 Oh my worthless shepherd. You abandoned my sheep. Punish him! Hit his right arm and right eye with a sword. His right arm will be useless. His right eye will be blind.

Visions About the Nations Around Judah

12 The sad message from the Lord about Israel. The Lord made the sky and the earth. He put man’s spirit in him. And the Lord said these things. Look, I will make Jerusalem like a cup of poison to the nations around her. The nations will come and attack that city. And all of Judah will be caught in the trap. But I will make Jerusalem like a heavy rock—anyone that tries to take it will hurt himself. Those people will really be cut and scratched. But all the nations on earth will come together to fight against Jerusalem. But at that time, I will scare the horse, and the soldier riding it will panic. I will make all the enemy horses blind, but my eyes will be open—and I will be watching over Judah’s family. The family leaders of Judah will encourage the people. They will say, ‘The Lord All-Powerful is your God. He makes us strong.’ At that time, I will make the family leaders of Judah like a fire burning in a forest. They will destroy their enemies like fire burning straw. They will destroy the enemy all around them. And the people in Jerusalem will again be able to sit back and relax.”

13 But at that time, a new spring of water will be opened for David’s family and for the other people living in Jerusalem. That fountain will be to wash away their sins and to make the people pure.

No More False Prophets

2 The Lord All-Powerful says, “At that time, I will remove all the idols from the earth. People will not even remember their names. And I will remove the false prophets and unclean* spirits from the earth. If a person continues to prophesy, then he will be

*firstborn - The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.
*unclean - Not pure or not acceptable to God.
punished. Even his parents, his own mother and father, will say to him, ‘You have spoken lies in the name of the Lord, so you must die!’ His own mother and father will stab him for prophesying. 4At that time, the prophets will be ashamed of their visions and prophecies. They will not wear the rough cloth that shows a person is a prophet. They will not wear those clothes to trick people with the lies they call prophecies. 5Those people will say, ‘I am not a prophet. I am a farmer. I have worked as a farmer since I was a little child.’ 6But other people will say, ‘But what are these wounds in your hands?’ He will say, ‘I was beaten in the house of my friends.’”

7The Lord All-Powerful says, “Sword, hit the shepherd! Hit my friend! Hit the shepherd and the sheep will run away. And I will punish those little ones. 8Two-thirds of the people in the land will be hurt and die. But one-third of them will survive. 9Then I will test those survivors. I will give them many troubles. The troubles will be like the fire a man uses to prove silver is pure. I will test them the way a person tests gold. Then they will call to me for help, and I will answer them. I will say, ‘You are my people.’ And they will say, ‘The Lord is my God.’”

The Day of Judgment

14Look, the Lord has a special day for judging. And the wealth you have taken will be divided in your city. 2I will bring all the nations together to fight against Jerusalem. They will capture the city and destroy the houses. The women will be raped, and half of the people will be taken away as prisoners. But the rest of the people will not be taken from the city. 3Then the Lord will go to war with those nations. It will be a real battle. 4At that time, he will stand on the Mount of Olives, the hill east of Jerusalem. The Mount of Olives will split. Part of the mountain will move to the north, and part to the south. A deep valley will open up, from the east to the west. 5You will try to run away as that mountain valley comes closer and closer to you. You will run away like the time you ran from the earthquake during the time of Uzziah, king of Judah. But the Lord my God will come, and all his holy ones will be with him.

6–7That will be a very special day. There will not be any light, cold, or frost. Only the Lord knows how, but there will not be any day or night. Then, when darkness usually comes, there will still be light. 8At that time, water will flow continually from Jerusalem.* That stream will split and part of it will flow east, and part of it will flow west to the Mediterranean Sea. And it will flow all year long, in the summer as well as in the winter. 9And the Lord will be the King of the whole world at that time. The Lord is One. His name is One. 10At that time, the whole area around Jerusalem will become empty like the Arabah desert. The country will be like a desert from Geba to Rimmon in the Negev. But the whole city of Jerusalem will be built again—from Benjamin Gate to the First Gate (that is, the Corner Gate) and from the Tower of Hananel to the king’s winepresses. 11People will move there to live. No enemy will come to destroy them any more. Jerusalem will be safe.

12But the Lord will punish the nations that fought against Jerusalem. He will send a terrible disease against them. Their skin will begin to rot while the people are still alive. Their eyes will rot in their sockets and their tongues will rot in their mouths. 13–15That terrible disease will be in the enemy camp. And their horses, mules, camels, and donkeys will all catch that terrible disease.

At that time, those people will really be afraid of the Lord. Each man will grab his neighbor’s hand and those neighbors will fight each other. Even Judah will fight against Jerusalem. This will happen even while the wealth* of all the nations has been gathered together around the city. There will be very much gold, silver, and clothing. 16Some of the people that came to fight Jerusalem will survive. And every year they will come to worship the king, the Lord All-Powerful. And water … Jerusalem Literally, “Living water will flow from Jerusalem.” Jerusalem’s main water supply, the Gihon spring, did not flow continuously.

wealth Or, “armies.”
they will come to celebrate the Festival of Shelters.* 17And if people from any of the families on earth don’t go to Jerusalem to worship the king, the Lord All-Powerful, then the Lord will not let them have any rain. 18If any of the families in Egypt don’t come to celebrate the Festival of Shelters, then they will get that terrible disease that the Lord caused the enemy nations to get. 19That will be the punishment for Egypt, and for any other nation that does not come to celebrate the Festival of Shelters.

-Festival of Shelters- During this fall holiday, the people traveled to Jerusalem, built temporary shelters, camped out in them for a week, and had a happy time together with the Lord.

20At that time, everything will belong to God. Even the harnesses on the horses will have the label, HOLY TO THE LORD.* And all the pots used in the Lord’s temple will be just as important as the bowls used at the altar. 21In fact, every dish in Jerusalem and Judah will have the label, HOLY TO THE LORD ALL-POWERFUL. All the people offering sacrifices will come and take those dishes and cook their special meals in them.

At that time, there will not be any businessmen buying and selling things* in the temple of the Lord All-Powerful.

-HOLY TO THE LORD- These words were written on everything that was used in the temple. This showed that these things belonged to the Lord, and they could be used only for special purposes. Dishes with labels could only be used by the priests in a holy place.

-businessmen … selling things- Literally, “Canaanites.”
Malachi

1 A message from God. This message is from the Lord to Israel. God used Malachi to give this message.

God Loves Israel

2 The Lord said, “I love you people.” But you said, “What shows you love us?”

The Lord said, “Esau was Jacob’s brother. Right? But I chose Jacob. And I did not accept Esau. I destroyed Esau’s hill-country. Esau’s country was destroyed, and now only wild dogs live there.”

4 Maybe the people of Edom will say, “We were destroyed. But we will go back and build our cities again.”

But the Lord All-Powerful says, “If they build those cities again, then I will destroy them again!” That is why people say Edom is an evil country—a nation the Lord hates forever.

5 You people saw these things and you said, “The Lord is great, even outside of Israel!”

The People Don’t Respect God

6 The Lord All-Powerful said, “Children honor their father. Servants honor their masters. I am your Father, so why don’t you honor me? I am your Master, so why don’t you respect me? You priests don’t respect my name.”

But you say, “What have we done that shows we don’t respect your name?”

7 The Lord said, “You bring unclean bread to my altar!”

8 But you say, “What makes that bread unclean?”

The Lord said, “You don’t show respect for my table (altar). You bring blind animals as sacrifices. And that is wrong! You bring sick and crippled animals for sacrifices. And that is wrong! Try giving those sick animals as a gift to your governor. Would he accept those sick animals? No! He would not accept those gifts!” The Lord All-Powerful said these things!

9 “Priests, you should ask the Lord to be good to us. But he does not listen to you. And it is all your fault.” The Lord All-Powerful said these things.

10 “Surely, some of you priests could close the temple doors and light the fires correctly. I am not pleased with you. I will not accept your gifts.” The Lord All-Powerful said these things.

11 “People all around the world respect my name. All around the world people bring good gifts to me. They burn good incense as a gift to me. Why? Because my name is important to all those people.” The Lord All-Powerful said these things.

12 “But you people show that you don’t respect my name. You say that the Lord’s table (altar) is unclean. And you don’t like the food from that table. You smell the food and refuse to eat it. You say it is bad. But that is not true. Then you bring sick, crippled, and hurt animals to me. You try to give sick animals to me as sacrifices. But I will not accept those sick animals from you.”

chose  Or, “loved.”
did not accept  Or, “hated.”
Esau’s hill-country  This means the country Edom. Edom was another name for Esau.
wild dogs  Literally, “jackals.”
unclean  Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.
people have good, male animals that they could give as sacrifices. 5But they don’t give those good animals to me. Some people bring good animals to me. They promise to give those healthy animals to me. But then they secretly exchange those good animals and they give me sick animals. Bad things will happen to those people! I am the Great King. 6“You should respect me!” People all around the world respect me!” The Lord All-Powerful said those things!

Rules for Priests

2“Priests, this rule is for you! 3Listen to me! Pay attention to the things I say! Show honor to my name! If you don’t respect my name, then bad things will happen to you. You will say blessings, 4but they will become curses.* I will make bad things happen because you don’t show respect for my name!” The Lord All-Powerful said these things.

3“Look, I will punish your descendants. During the holidays, you priests offer sacrifices to me. You take the dung and inside parts from the dead animals, and throw those parts away. But I will smear that dung on your faces, and you will be thrown away with it! 4Then you will learn why I am giving you this command. I am telling you these things so my Agreement* with Levi* will continue.” The Lord All-Powerful said these things.

5Then the Lord said, 5“I made that Agreement with Levi. I promised to give him life and peace—and I gave those things to him! Levi respected me! He showed honor to my name! 6Levi taught the true teachings. Levi didn’t teach lies! Levi was honest and he loved peace. Levi followed me and saved many people from being punished for the bad things they did. 7A priest should know God’s teachings. People should be able to go to a priest and learn God’s teachings. A priest should be God’s messenger to the people.”

6The Lord said, 7“But you priests stopped following me! You used the teachings to make people do wrong. You ruined the Agreement with Levi!” The Lord All-Powerful said these things! 8“You don’t live the way I told you! You have not accepted my teachings! So I will make you become not important—people will not respect you!”

Judah Was Not True to God

We all have the same father (God). The same God made every one of us! So why do people cheat their brothers? Those people show that they don’t respect the Agreement. They don’t respect the Agreement that our ancestors made with God. 11The people of Judah cheated other people. People in Jerusalem and Israel did terrible things! God loves the temple.* But the people in Judah didn’t respect the Lord’s holy temple. The people of Judah began to worship that foreign goddess! 12The Lord will remove those people from Judah’s family. Those people might bring gifts to the Lord—but it will not help. 13You can cry and cover the Lord’s altar with tears, but the Lord will not accept your gifts. The Lord will not be pleased with the things you bring to him.

14You ask, “Why are our gifts not accepted by the Lord?” Why? Because the Lord saw the bad things you did—he is a witness* against you. He saw you cheat on your wife. You have been married to that woman since you were young. She was your girlfriend. Then you made your vows* to each other—and she became your wife. 15God wants husbands and wives to become one body and one spirit. Why? So they would have holy children. So protect that spiritual unity. Don’t cheat on your wife. She has been your wife from the time you were young.

16The Lord God of Israel says, “I hate divorce. And I hate the cruel things that men blessings Words asking for good things to happen to a person that tries to obey God’s law.

curses Warnings about bad things that will happen to a person that does not obey God.
Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.
Levi The family group of Israel that did the work of priests.
temple The special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship.
witness A person that tells what he has seen or heard.
vow(s) A special promise. Here it means the promise a man and woman make to each other when they are married.
do. So protect your spiritual unity. Don’t cheat on your wife.”

The Special Time of Judgment

17 You have taught wrong things. And those wrong teachings made the Lord very sad. You taught that God likes people that do bad things. You said God thinks those people are good. And you taught that God does not punish people for doing bad things.

3 The Lord All-Powerful says, ‘I am sending my messenger to prepare the way for me. Then suddenly, the Master you are looking for will come to his temple.* Yes, the messenger of the New Agreement that you want really is coming!

2“No person can prepare for that time. No person can stand against him when he comes. He will be like a burning fire. He will be like the strong soap people use to make things clean. 3He will make the Levites* clean.* He will make them pure, like silver is made pure—with fire! He will make them pure like gold and silver. Then they will bring gifts to the Lord—and they will do those things the right way.

4Then the Lord will accept the gifts from Judah and Jerusalem. It will be like in the past. It will be like the time long ago. 5Then I will come to you—and I will do the right thing. I will be like a person that is ready to tell the judge about the bad things people did. Some people do evil magic. Some people do the sin of adultery.* Some people make false promises. Some people cheat their workers—they don’t pay them the money they promised. People don’t help widows and orphans.* People don’t help strangers. People don’t respect me!” The Lord All-Powerful said these things.

Stealing from God

6“I am the Lord, and I don’t change. You are Jacob’s children, and you have not been completely destroyed. 7But you never obeyed my laws. Even your ancestors stopped following me. Come back to me, and I will come back to you.” The Lord All-Powerful said these things.

“You say, ‘How can we come back?’
8“Stop stealing things from God! People should not steal things from God, but you stole things from me!

“You say, ‘What did we steal from you?’

“You should have given me one-tenth of your things. You should have given me special gifts. But you did not give those things to me, 9In this way, your whole nation has stolen things from me. So bad things are happening to you.” The Lord All-Powerful said these things.

10The Lord All-Powerful says, “Try this test. Bring one-tenth of your things to me. Put those things in the treasury. Bring food to my house. Test me! If you do those things, then I will truly bless you. Good things will come to you like rain falling from the sky. You will have more than enough of everything. 11I will not let pests destroy your crops. Your grapevines will all produce grapes.” The Lord All-Powerful said these things.

12“People from other nations will be good to you. You will truly have a wonderful country.” The Lord All-Powerful said these things.

The Special Time of Judgment

13The Lord says, “You said mean things to me.”

But you ask, “What did we say about you?”

14You said, “It is useless to worship the Lord. We did the things the Lord told us—but we didn’t gain anything. We were sad, for our sins, like people crying at a funeral. But it didn’t help. 15We think proud people are happy. Evil people succeed. They do bad things to test God’s patience—and God does not punish them.”

16God’s followers spoke with each other, and the Lord listened to them. There is a book in front of him. In that book are the names of...
God’s followers. Those are the people that honor the Lord’s name.

17The Lord said, “Those people belong to me. I will be kind to them. A man is very kind to his children that obey him. In the same way, I will be kind to my followers. 18You people will come back to me. And you will learn the difference between good and evil. You will learn the difference between a person that follows God and a person that does not.

4“That time of judgment is coming. It will be like a hot furnace. All those proud people will be punished. All those evil people will burn like straw. At that time, they will be like a bush burning in the fire—and there will not be a branch or root left.” The Lord All-Powerful said these things.

2“But, for my followers, goodness will shine on you like the rising sun. And it will bring healing power like the sun’s rays. You will be free and happy, like calves freed from their stalls.* 3Then you will walk on those evil people—they will be like ashes under your feet. I will make those things happen at that time of judgment.” The Lord All-Powerful said these things!

4“Remember and obey the law of Moses. Moses was my servant. I gave those laws and rules to him at Mount Horeb (Sinai). Those laws are for all the people of Israel.”

5The Lord said, “Look, I will send Elijah the prophet to you. He will come before that great and terrible time of judgment from the Lord. 6Elijah will help the parents become close to their children. And he will help the children become close to their parents. This must happen, or I (God) will come and completely destroy your country!”

*Stalls Small rooms or areas surrounded by a fence where people keep their animals.
License Agreement for Bible Texts

World Bible Translation Center
Last Updated: September 21, 2006

Copyright © 2006 by World Bible Translation Center
All rights reserved.

These Scriptures:
• Are copyrighted by World Bible Translation Center.
• Are not public domain.
• May not be altered or modified in any form.
• May not be sold or offered for sale in any form.
• May not be used for commercial purposes (including, but not limited to, use in advertising or Web banners used for the purpose of selling online add space).
• May be distributed without modification in electronic form for non-commercial use. However, they may not be hosted on any kind of server (including a Web or ftp server) without written permission. A copy of this license (without modification) must also be included.
• May be quoted for any purpose, up to 1,000 verses, without written permission. However, the extent of quotation must not comprise a complete book nor should it amount to more than 50% of the work in which it is quoted. A copyright notice must appear on the title or copyright page using this pattern: “Taken from the HOLY BIBLE: EASY-TO-READ VERSION™ © 2006 by World Bible Translation Center, Inc. and used by permission.” If the text quoted is from one of WBTC’s non-English versions, the printed title of the actual text quoted will be substituted for “HOLY BIBLE: EASY-TO-READ VERSION™.” The copyright notice must appear in English or be translated into another language. When quotations from WBTC’s text are used in non-saleable media, such as church bulletins, orders of service, posters, transparencies or similar media, a complete copyright notice is not required, but the initials of the version (such as “ERV” for the Easy-to-Read Version™ in English) must appear at the end of each quotation.

Any use of these Scriptures other than those listed above is prohibited. For additional rights and permission for usage, such as the use of WBTC’s text on a Web site, or for clarification of any of the above, please contact World Bible Translation Center in writing or by email at distribution@wbtc.com.

World Bible Translation Center
P.O. Box 820648
Fort Worth, Texas 76182, USA
Telephone: 1-817-595-1664
Toll-Free in US: 1-888-54-BIBLE
E-mail: info@wbtc.com

WBTC’s web site – World Bible Translation Center’s web site: http://www.wbtc.org

Order online – To order a copy of our texts online, go to: http://www.wbtc.org

Current license agreement – This license is subject to change without notice. The current license can be found at: http://www.wbtc.org/downloads/biblelicense.htm

Trouble viewing this file – If the text in this document does not display correctly, use Adobe Acrobat Reader 5.0 or higher. Download Adobe Acrobat Reader from: http://www.adobe.com/products/acrobat/readstep2.html

Viewing Chinese or Korean PDFs – To view the Chinese or Korean PDFs, it may be necessary to download the Chinese Simplified or Korean font pack from Adobe. Download the font packs from: http://www.adobe.com/products/acrobat/acrrasianfontpack.html