Exodus

Jacob’s Family in Egypt

1 Jacob (Israel) traveled to Egypt with his sons. Each son had his own family with him. These are the sons of Israel: 2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, 3 Issachar, Zebulun, Benjamin, 4 Dan, Naphtali, Gad, Asher. 5 There was a total of 70 people who were direct descendants of Jacob. (Joseph was one of the twelve sons, but he was already in Egypt.)

6 Later, Joseph, his brothers, and all the people of that generation died. 7 But the people of Israel had many children, and their number grew and grew. The people of Israel became strong, and the country of Egypt was filled with the Israelites.

Trouble for the People of Israel

8 Then a new king began to rule Egypt. This king did not know Joseph. 9 This king said to his people, “Look at the people of Israel. There are too many of them! And they are stronger than we are! 10 We must make plans to stop the Israelites from growing stronger. If there is a war, the people of Israel might join our enemies. Then they might defeat us and escape from us.”

11 The Egyptian people decided to make life hard for the people of Israel. So the Egyptians put slave masters over the people. These masters forced the Israelites to build the cities of Pithom and Rameses for the king. The king used these cities to store grain and other things.

12 The Egyptians forced the Israelites to work harder and harder. But the more the people of Israel were forced to work, the more they grew and spread. And the Egyptian people became more and more afraid of the people of Israel. 13 So the Egyptians forced the people of Israel to work even harder.

14 The Egyptians made life hard for the Israelites. They forced the Israelites to work very hard making bricks and mortar. They also forced them to work hard in the fields. They forced them to work very hard in everything they did.

The Nurses Who Followed God

15 There were two nurses who helped the Israelite women give birth to children. They were named Shiphrah and Puah. The king of Egypt talked to the nurses. 16 The king said, “You will continue to help the Hebrew women give birth to their children. If a girl baby is born, then let the baby live. But if the baby is a boy, then you must kill him!”

17 But the nurses trusted God. So they did not obey the king’s command. They let all the boy babies live.

18 The king of Egypt called for the nurses and told them, “Why did you do this? Why did you let the boy babies live?”

19 The nurses said to the king, “The Hebrew women are much stronger than the Egyptian women. They give birth to their babies before we can go to help them.”

20–21 God was happy with the nurses. So God was good to them and allowed them to have their own families. So the Hebrew people continued to have more children, and the people became very strong.)

So Pharaoh gave this command to his own people: “Let all the girl babies live. But every time a boy baby is born, you must throw him into the Nile River.”

Baby Moses

There was a man from the family of Levi. He married a woman who was also from the family of Levi. The woman became pregnant and gave birth to a baby boy. The mother saw how beautiful the baby was, and she hid him for three months. The mother was afraid that the baby would be found and killed because he was a boy. After three months, she made a basket and covered it with tar so that it would float. She put the baby in the basket. Then she put the basket in the river in the tall grass. The baby’s sister stayed and watched. She wanted to see what would happen to the baby.

Just then, Pharaoh’s daughter went to the river to bathe. She saw the basket in the tall grass. Her servants were walking beside the river. So she told one of them to go get the basket. The king’s daughter opened the basket and saw a baby boy. The baby was crying and she felt sorry for it. Then she noticed that it was one of the Hebrew babies.

Just then, Pharaoh’s daughter went to the river to bathe. She saw the basket in the tall grass. Her servants were walking beside the river. So she told one of them to go get the basket. The king’s daughter opened the basket and saw a baby boy. The baby was crying and she felt sorry for it. Then she noticed that it was one of the Hebrew babies.

The baby’s sister was still hiding. She stood and asked the king’s daughter, “Do you want me to go find a Hebrew woman who can nurse the baby and help you care for it?”

The king’s daughter said, “Yes, please.”

So the girl went and brought the baby’s own mother.

The king’s daughter said to the mother, “Take this baby and feed him for me. I’ll pay you to take care of him.”

So the woman took her baby and cared for him. The baby grew, and after some time, the woman gave the baby to the king’s daughter. The king’s daughter accepted the baby as her own son. She named him Moses because she had pulled him from the water.

Moses Helps His People

Moses grew and became a man. He saw that his own people, the Hebrews, were forced to work very hard. One day Moses saw an Egyptian man beating a Hebrew man. Moses looked around and saw that no one was watching. Then Moses killed the Egyptian and buried him in the sand.

The next day Moses saw two Hebrew men fighting each other. Moses saw that one man was wrong. Moses said to that man, “Why are you hurting your neighbor?”

The man answered, “Did anyone say you could be our ruler and judge? No! Tell me, will you kill me like you killed the Egyptian yesterday?”

Then Moses was afraid. Moses thought to himself, “Now everyone knows what I did.”

Pharaoh heard about what Moses did, so he decided to kill Moses. But Moses ran away from Pharaoh. Moses went to the land of Midian.

Moses in Midian

Moses stopped near a well in Midian.

There was a priest in Midian who had seven daughters. Those girls came to that well to get water for their father’s sheep. They were trying to fill the water trough with water. But there were some shepherds there who chased the girls away and would not let them get water. So Moses helped the girls and gave water to their animals.

Then they went back to their father, Reuel. Their father said to them, “You have come home early today!”

The girls answered, “Yes, sir. The shepherds tried to chase us away, but an Egyptian man helped us. He got water for us and gave it to our animals.”

Reuel

He is also called Jethro.
So Reuel said to his daughters, “Where is this man? Why did you leave him? Go invite him to eat with us.”

Moses was happy to stay with that man. Reuel let Moses marry his daughter, Zipporah. Zipporah became pregnant and had a son. Moses named him Gershom. Moses gave his son this name because Moses was a stranger in a land that was not his own.

God Decides to Help Israel

A long time passed and that king of Egypt died. But the people of Israel were still forced to work very hard. They cried for help, and God heard them. God heard their prayers, and he remembered the agreement he made with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. God saw the troubles of the people of Israel, and he knew that he would soon help them.

The Burning Bush

Moses’ father-in-law was named Jethro. Jethro was a priest of Midian. Moses took care of Jethro’s sheep. One day, Moses led the sheep to the west side of the desert. Moses went to a mountain called Horeb (Sinai), the mountain of God. On that mountain, Moses saw the Angel of the Lord in a burning bush. Moses saw a bush that was burning without being destroyed. So Moses decided to go closer to the bush and see how a bush could continue burning without being destroyed.

The Lord saw Moses was coming to look at the bush. So God called to Moses from the bush. God said, “Moses, Moses!” Moses said, “Yes, Lord.”

Then the Lord said, “Don’t come any closer. Take off your sandals. You are standing on holy ground. I am the God of your ancestors. I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” Moses covered his face because he was afraid to look at God.

Then the Lord said, “I have seen the troubles my people have suffered in Egypt. And I have heard their cries when the Egyptians hurt them. I know about their pain. Now I will go down and save my people from the Egyptians. I will take them from that land. And I will lead them to a good land where they can be free from troubles. It is a land filled with many good things. Many different people live in that land: the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. I have heard the cries of the people of Israel. I have seen the way the Egyptians have made life hard for them. So now I am sending you to Pharaoh. Go! Lead my people, the people of Israel, out of Egypt!”

But Moses said to God, “I am not a great man! How can I be the person to go to Pharaoh and lead the people of Israel out of Egypt?”

God said, “You can do it because I will be with you! This will be the proof that I am sending you: After you lead the people out of Egypt, you will come and worship me on this mountain!”

Then Moses said to God, “But if I go to the people of Israel and say to them, ‘The God of your ancestors sent me,’ then the people will ask, ‘What is his name?’ What should I tell them?”

Then God said to Moses, “Tell them, ‘I AM WHO I AM.’ When you go to the people of Israel, tell them, ‘I AM’ sent me to you.”

God also said to Moses, “This is what you should tell the people: ‘YAHWEH’ is the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. My name will always be YAHWEH. That is how the people will know me for generations and

16. The Lord also said, “Go and gather together the elders (leaders) of the people and tell them, YAHWEH,* the God of your ancestors,* has appeared to me. The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob spoke to me. The Lord says: I have been watching over you and I have seen the things that people did to you in Egypt. 17. And I have decided that I will take you from the troubles you are suffering in Egypt. I will lead you to the land that now belongs to many different people: the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. I will lead you to a land filled with many good things.*

18. The elders (leaders) will listen to you. And then you and the elders (leaders) will go to the king of Egypt. You will tell him that YAHWEH* is the God of the Hebrew* people. Our God came to us and told us to travel three days into the desert. There we must offer sacrifices* to YAHWEH our God.’

19. But I know that the king of Egypt will not let you go. Only a great power will force him to let you go. 20. So I will use my great power against Egypt. I will cause amazing things to happen in that land. After I do this, he will let you go. 21. And I will cause the Egyptian people to be kind to the people of Israel. The Egyptians will give many gifts to your people when they leave Egypt.

22. All of the Hebrew* women will ask their Egyptian neighbors and the Egyptian women living in their houses for gifts. And those Egyptian women will give them gifts of silver, gold, and fine clothing. Then you will put those gifts on your children. In this way, you will take away the wealth of the Egyptians.”

not a good speaker. You know that I talk slowly and don’t use the best words.”*

11 Then the Lord said to him, “Who made a person’s mouth? And who can make a person deaf or not able to speak? Who can make a person blind? Who can make a person able to see? I am the One who can do all these things—I am YAHWEH.* 12 So go. I will be with you when you speak. I will give you the words to say.”

13 But Moses said, “My Lord, I beg you to send another person—not me.”

14 Then the Lord became angry with Moses and said, “Fine! I’ll give you someone to help you. I will use your brother Aaron, from the family of Levi. He is a skilled speaker. Aaron is already coming to see you. He will be happy to see you. 15 He will go with you to Pharaoh. I will tell you what to say. Then you will tell Aaron, and Aaron will choose the right words to speak to Pharaoh. 16 Aaron will also speak to the people for you. You will be like a great king, and he will be your official speaker.*

17 So go. And carry your walking stick with you. Use your stick and the other miracles to show the people that I am with you.”

Moses Returns to Egypt

18 Then Moses went back to Jethro, his father-in-law. Moses said to Jethro, “Please let me go back to Egypt. I want to see if my people are still alive.”

Jethro said to Moses, “Sure! And may you go in peace.”

19 Then, while Moses was still in Midian, God said to him, “It is safe for you to go back to Egypt now. The men who wanted to kill you are now dead.”

20 So Moses put his wife and children on the donkey and returned to Egypt. Moses carried his walking stick with him—the walking stick with the power of God. 21 While Moses was traveling back to Egypt, God spoke to him. God said, “When you talk to Pharaoh remember to show him all the miracles that I have given you the power to do. But I will cause Pharaoh to be very stubborn. He will not let the people go.

22 Then you should say to Pharaoh: 23 The Lord says, ‘Israel is my firstborn* son. And I am telling you to let my son go and worship me! If you refuse to let Israel go, then I will kill your firstborn son.’”

Moses’ Son Circumcised

24 On the way to Egypt, Moses stopped at a place to spend the night. The Lord met Moses at that place and tried to kill him.* 25 But Zipporah took a flint knife* and circumcised* her son. She took the skin and touched his feet. Then she said to Moses, “You are a bridegroom of blood to me.”

26 Zipporah said this because she had to circumcise her son. So God forgave Moses* and did not kill him.*

Moses and Aaron before God

27 The Lord had spoken to Aaron. The Lord had told him, “Go out into the desert and meet Moses.” So Aaron went and met Moses at the Mountain of God.* Aaron saw Moses and kissed him. 28 Moses told Aaron why the Lord had sent him. And Moses told Aaron about all the miracles and things he must do to prove that God had sent him. Moses told Aaron everything the Lord had said.

29 So Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders (leaders) of the people of Israel. 30 Then Aaron spoke to the people. He told them all the things that the Lord had told Moses. Then Moses did the proofs for all the people to see. 31 The people believed that God had sent Moses. The people of Israel knew that God had seen their troubles, and that he had come to help them. So they bowed down and worshiped God.

Moses And Aaron Before Pharaoh

After Moses and Aaron talked to the people, they went to Pharaoh. They said, “The Lord God of Israel says, ‘Let my people go into the desert so they can have a feast to honor me.’”

But Pharaoh said, “Who is the Lord? Why should I obey him? Why should I let Israel go? I don’t even know who this Lord is, so I refuse to let Israel go.”

Then Aaron and Moses said, “The God of the Hebrew people has talked with us. So we beg you to let us travel three days into the desert. There we will offer a sacrifice to the Lord our God. If we don’t do this, he might become angry and destroy us. He might make us die from sickness or war.”

But Pharaoh said to them, “Moses and Aaron, you are bothering the workers. Let them do their work! Go mind your own business! There are very many workers, and you are keeping them from doing their jobs.”

Pharaoh Punishes the People

That same day, Pharaoh gave a command to make work harder for the people of Israel. Pharaoh said to the slave masters and Hebrew foremen, “You have always given the people straw and they use it to make bricks. But now, tell them they have to go and find their own straw to make bricks. But they must still make the same number of bricks as they did before. They have become lazy. That is why they are asking me to let them go. They don’t have enough work to do. That is why they asked me to let them make sacrifices to their God. So make these people work harder. Keep them busy. Then they will not have enough time to listen to the lies of Moses.”

So the Egyptian slave masters and the Hebrew foremen said to the people of Israel and said, “Pharaoh has decided that he will not give you straw for your bricks. You must go and get the straw for yourselves. But you must still make as many bricks as you made before.”

So the people went everywhere in Egypt looking for straw. The slave masters forced the people to work even harder. They forced the people to make as many bricks as before.

The Egyptian slave masters had chosen the Hebrew foremen and had made them responsible for the work the people did. The Egyptian slave masters beat these foremen and said to them, “Why aren’t you making as many bricks as you made in the past? If you could do it then, you can do it now!”

Then the Hebrew foremen went to Pharaoh. They complained and said, “We are your servants. Why are you treating us like this? You won’t give us any straw, but you tell us to make as many bricks as before. And now our masters are beating us. Your people are wrong for doing this.”

Pharaoh answered, “You are lazy. You don’t want to work. That is why you ask me to let you go. And that is why you want to leave here and make sacrifices to the Lord. Now, go back to work! We will not give you any straw! And you must still make as many bricks as you did before!”

The Hebrew foremen knew they were in trouble. The foremen knew they could not make as many bricks as they made in the past.

When they were leaving the meeting with Pharaoh, they passed Moses and Aaron. Moses and Aaron were waiting for them. So they said to Moses and Aaron, “You really made a mistake when you told Pharaoh to let us go. May the Lord punish you because you caused Pharaoh and his rulers to hate us. You have given them an excuse to kill us.”

Moses Complains to God

Then Moses prayed to the Lord and said, “Master, why have you done this terrible thing to your people? Why did you send me here? I went to Pharaoh and said the things you told me to say. But since that time he has been mean to the people. And you have done nothing to help them!”

Then the Lord said to Moses, “Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh. I will use my great power against him, and he will... let my people go. He will be so ready for them to leave that he will force them to go.”

2Then God said to Moses. 3“I am the Lord. I appeared to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. They called me El Shaddai (God All-Powerful). They did not know my name, YAHWEH (Lord). 4I made an agreement with them. I promised to give them the land of Canaan. They lived in that land, but it was not their own land. 5Now, I know about the troubles of the people of Israel. I know that they are the slaves of Egypt. And I remember my agreement. 6So tell the people of Israel that I say to them, ‘I am the Lord. I will save you. I will make you free. You will not be slaves of the Egyptians. I will use my great power and bring terrible punishment to the Egyptians. Then I will save you. 7You will be my people and I will be your God. I am the Lord your God, and you will know that I made you free from Egypt. 8I made a great promise to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I promised to give them a special land. So I will lead you to that land. I will give you that land. It will be yours. I am the Lord.’”

9So Moses told this to the people of Israel. But the people would not listen to him. They were working so hard that they were not patient with Moses.

10Then the Lord said to Moses, 11“Go tell Pharaoh that he must let the people of Israel leave his land.”

12But Moses answered, “The people of Israel refuse to listen to me! So surely Pharaoh will also refuse to listen. I am a very bad speaker!*”

13But the Lord talked with Moses and Aaron. God commanded them to go and talk to the people of Israel. He also commanded them to go and talk to Pharaoh. God commanded them to lead the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

Some of the Families of Israel

14Here are the names of the leaders of the families of Israel: Israel’s first son, Reuben, had four sons. They were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. 15Simeon’s sons were Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, Zohar, and Shaul. (Shaul was the son from a Canaanite woman). 16Levi lived 137 years. Levi’s sons were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. 17Gershon had two sons, Libni and Shimei. 18Kohath lived 133 years. Kohath’s sons were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. 19Merari’s sons were Mahli and Mushi. All these families were from Israel’s son Levi.

20Amram lived 137 years. Amram married his father’s sister, Jochebed. Amram and Jochebed gave birth to Aaron and Moses. 21Izhar’s sons were Korah, Nepheg, and Zicri. 22Uzziel’s sons were Mishael, Elzaphan, and Sithri.

23Aaron married Elisheba. (Elisheba was the daughter of Amminadab, and the sister of Nahshon.) Aaron and Elisheba gave birth to Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. 24The sons of Korah, the ancestors of the Korahites, were Assir, Elkanah, and Abiasaph. 25Aaron’s son, Eleazar, married a daughter of Putiel. And she gave birth to Phinehas. All these people were from Israel’s son, Levi.

26Aaron and Moses were from this family group. And they are the men that God spoke to and said, “Lead my people out of Israel in groups.” 27Aaron and Moses are the men that talked to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. They told Pharaoh to let the people of Israel leave Egypt.

God Repeats His Call to Moses

28In the land of Egypt God spoke to Moses. 29He said, “I am the Lord. Tell the king of Egypt everything that I tell you.”

30But Moses answered, “I am a very bad speaker. The king will not listen to me.”

7The Lord said to Moses, “I will be with you. You will be like a great king* to Pharaoh. And Aaron will be your official speaker.* Tell Aaron everything that I command you. Then he will tell the king the things I say. And Pharaoh will let the people of Israel leave this country. But I will make Pharaoh stubborn. He will not obey the things you tell him. Then I will do many miracles in Egypt to prove who I am. But he will still refuse to listen. So then I will punish Egypt very much. And I will lead my people out of that land. Then the people of Egypt will know that I am the Lord. I will be against them, and they will know that I am the Lord. Then I will lead my people out of their country."

Moses and Aaron obeyed these things the Lord told them. Moses was 80 years old at the time, and Aaron was 83.

Moses’ Walking Stick Becomes a Snake

The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, “Pharaoh will ask you to prove your power. He will ask you to do a miracle. Tell Aaron to throw his walking stick on the ground. While Pharaoh is watching, the stick will become a snake.”

So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and obeyed the Lord. Aaron threw his walking stick down. While Pharaoh and his officers watched, the stick became a snake.

So the king called for his wise men and magicians. These men used their tricks and they were able to do the same thing as Aaron. They threw their walking sticks on the ground, and their sticks became snakes. But then Aaron’s walking stick ate theirs.

Pharaoh still refused to let the people go. This happened just like the Lord said it would. The king refused to listen to Moses and Aaron.

The Water Becomes Blood

Then the Lord said to Moses, “Pharaoh is being stubborn. Pharaoh refuses to let the people go. In the morning, Pharaoh will go out to the river. Go to him by the edge of the Nile River. Take the walking stick that became a snake. Tell him this: ‘The Lord, the God of the Hebrew people, sent me to you. The Lord told me to tell you to let his people go worship him in the desert. Until now you have not listened to the Lord. So the Lord says that he will do something to show you that he is the Lord. I will hit the water of the Nile River with this walking stick in my hand, and the river will change into blood. The fish in the river will die, and the river will begin to stink. Then the Egyptians will not be able to drink the water from the river.’"

The Lord said to Moses: “Tell Aaron to hold the walking stick in his hand over the rivers, canals, lakes and every place where they store water. When he does this, all the water will change into blood. All of the water, even the water stored in wood and stone jars, will change into blood.”

So Moses and Aaron did what the Lord commanded. Aaron raised the walking stick and hit the water in the Nile River. He did this in front of Pharaoh and his officials. So all the water in the river changed into blood.

The magicians used their tricks and did the same thing. So Pharaoh refused to listen to Moses and Aaron. This happened just like the Lord said.

Pharaoh ignored what Moses and Aaron had done. Pharaoh just turned and went into his house.

The Egyptians could not drink the water from the river. So they dug wells around the river for water to drink.

The Frogs

Seven days passed after the Lord changed the Nile River.

Then the Lord told Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and tell him that the Lord says, ‘Let my people go to worship me! If you refuse to let my people go, then I will fill Egypt with frogs. The Nile River will be filled with frogs. They will come from the river and enter your houses. They will be in your bedrooms, and in your beds. The frogs will be in the houses of your officials and in your ovens and in your jars of water. The frogs will be all over you, your people, and your officials.’”

Then the Lord said to Moses, “Tell Aaron to hold the walking stick in his hand over the canals, rivers, and lakes. Then the frogs will come out onto the land of Egypt.”

So Aaron raised his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs began coming out of the water and covered the land of Egypt.
7The magicians used their tricks to do the same thing—so even more frogs came out onto the land in Egypt!

8Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron. Pharaoh said, “Ask the Lord to remove the frogs from me and my people. I will let the people go to offer sacrifices to the Lord.”

9Moses said to Pharaoh, “Tell me when you want the frogs to go away. I will pray for you, your people, and your officials. Then the frogs will leave you and your houses. The frogs will remain only in the river. When do you want the frogs to leave?”

10Pharaoh said, “Tomorrow.”

Moses said, “It will happen as you say. In this way, you will know that there is no god like the Lord our God. 11The frogs will leave you, your house, your officials, and your people. The frogs will remain only in the river.”

12Moses and Aaron left Pharaoh. Moses prayed to the Lord about the frogs he had sent against Pharaoh. 13And the Lord did what Moses asked. The frogs died in the houses, in the yards, and in the fields. 14They began to rot, and the whole country began to stink. 15Pharaoh saw that they were free of the frogs, and he again became stubborn. Pharaoh did not do what Moses and Aaron had asked him to do. This happened just like the Lord had said.

The Lice

16Then the Lord said to Moses, “Tell Aaron to raise his stick and hit the dust on the ground, and everywhere in Egypt dust will become lice.”

The Flies

20The Lord said to Moses, “Get up in the morning and go to Pharaoh. Pharaoh will go out to the river. Tell him that the Lord says, ‘Let my people go and worship me! 21If you don’t let my people go, then flies will come into your houses. The flies will be on you and your officials. The houses of Egypt will be full of flies. The flies will be all over the ground too! 22But I will not treat the people of Israel the same as the Egyptian people. There will not be any flies in Goshen, where my people live. In this way you will know that I, the Lord, am in this land. 23So tomorrow I will treat my people differently from your people. That will be my proof.””

24So the Lord did just what he said. Many, many flies came into Egypt. The flies were in Pharaoh’s house, and they were in all his officials’ houses. The flies were all over Egypt. The flies were ruining the country. 25So Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron. Pharaoh told them, “Offer sacrifices* to your God here in this country.”

26But Moses said, “It would not be right to do that. The Egyptians think that it is a terrible thing to kill animals as sacrifices* for the Lord our God. If we do this here, then the Egyptians will see us, and they will throw stones at us and kill us. 27Let us go three days into the desert and offer sacrifices* to the Lord our God. This is what the Lord told us to do.”

28So Pharaoh said, “I will let you go and offer sacrifices* to the Lord your God in the desert. But, you must not go very far! Now, go and pray for me.”

29Moses said, “Look, I will leave and ask the Lord to remove the flies from you, your people, and your officials tomorrow. But you must not stop the people from offering sacrifices* to the Lord.”

30So Moses left Pharaoh and prayed to the Lord. 31And the Lord did what Moses asked. The Lord removed the flies from Pharaoh, his officials, and his people. None of the flies remained. 32But Pharaoh again became stubborn and did not let the people go.

EXODUS 9:1–29

The Disease of the Farm Animals

9 Then the Lord told Moses to go to Pharaoh and tell him: “The Lord, the God of the Hebrew people, says, ‘Let my people go to worship me!’ If you continue to hold them and refuse to let them go, then the Lord will use his power against your animals in the fields. The Lord will cause all of your horses, donkeys, camels, cattle, and sheep to become sick with a terrible disease. The Lord will treat Israel’s animals differently from the animals of Egypt. None of the animals that belong to the people of Israel will die. The Lord has set the time for this to happen. Tomorrow the Lord will cause this to happen in this country.”

6 The next morning, all the farm animals in Egypt died. But none of the animals that belonged to the people of Israel died. Pharaoh sent people to see if any of the animals of Israel died. And not one of the animals of Israel died. Pharaoh remained stubborn. He did not let the people go.

The Boils

8 The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, “Fill your hands with the ashes from an oven. Moses, throw the ashes into the air in front of Pharaoh. This will become dust that will go throughout the land of Egypt. Whenever the dust touches a person or an animal in Egypt, boils (sores) will break out on the skin.”

9 So Moses and Aaron took ashes from a furnace. Then they went and stood before Pharaoh. Moses threw the ashes into the air, and boils began breaking out on people and animals. The magicians could not stop Moses from doing this, because even the magicians had the boils. This happened everywhere in Egypt. But the Lord made Pharaoh stubborn. So Pharaoh refused to listen to Moses and Aaron. This happened just like the Lord had said.

The Hail

13 Then the Lord said to Moses, “Get up in the morning and go to Pharaoh. Tell him that the Lord, the God of the Hebrew people says, ‘Let my people go to worship me!’ If you don’t do this, then I will use my full power against you, your officials, and your people. Then you will know that there is no god in the world like me. I could use my power and cause a disease that would wipe you and your people off the earth. But I have put you here for a reason. I have put you here so that I could show you my power. Then people all over the world will learn about me! You are still against my people. You are not letting them go free. So, at this time tomorrow, I will cause a very bad hailstorm. There has never been a hailstorm like this in Egypt, not since Egypt became a nation. Now, you must put your animals in a safe place. Everything you own that is now in the fields must be put in a safe place. Why? Because any person or animal that remains in the fields will be killed. The hail will fall on everything that is not gathered into your houses.”

20 Some of Pharaoh’s officials paid attention to the Lord’s message. Those men quickly put all of their animals and slaves into houses. But other people ignored the Lord’s message. Those people lost all their slaves and animals that were in the fields.

22 The Lord told Moses, “Raise your arms into the air and the hail will start falling all over Egypt. The hail will fall on all the people, animals, and plants in all the fields of Egypt.”

23 So Moses raised his walking stick into the air, and the Lord caused thunder, lightning, and hail to fall to earth. The hail fell all over Egypt. The hail was falling. And there was lightning flashing all through it. It was the worst hailstorm that had ever hit Egypt since it had been a nation. The storm destroyed everything in the fields in Egypt. The hail destroyed people, animals, and plants. The hail also broke all the trees in the fields. The only place that did not get hail was the land of Goshen, where the people of Israel lived.

27 Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron. Pharaoh told them, “This time I have sinned. The Lord is right, and I and my people are wrong. The hail and thunder from God are too much! Ask God to stop the storm and I will let you go. You don’t have to stay here.”

29 Moses told Pharaoh, “When I leave the city, I will lift my arms in prayer to the Lord.
EXODUS 9:30–10:19

And the thunder and hail will stop. Then you will know that the Lord is in this land. 30 But I know that you and your officials don’t really fear and respect the Lord yet.”

31 The flax had already developed its seeds. And the barley was already blooming. So these plants were destroyed. 32 But the wheat and spelt ripen later than the other grains, so these plants were not destroyed.

33 Moses left Pharaoh and went outside the city. He lifted his arms in prayer to the Lord. And the thunder and hail stopped, and then even the rain stopped.

34 When Pharaoh saw that the rain, hail, and thunder had stopped, he again did wrong. He and his officials became stubborn again.

35 Pharaoh refused to let the people of Israel go free. This happened just like the Lord had said through Moses.

The Locusts

10 The Lord said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh. I have made him and his officials stubborn. I did this so I could show them my powerful miracles. I also did this so you could tell your children and your grandchildren about the miracles and other wonderful things that I have done in Egypt. Then all of you will know that I am the Lord.”

3 So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh. They told him, “The Lord, the God of the Hebrew people, says, ‘How long will you refuse to obey me? Let my people go to worship me! 4 If you refuse to let my people go, then tomorrow I will bring locusts into your country. 5 The locusts will cover the land. There will be so many locusts that you won’t be able to see the ground. Anything that was left from the hailstorm will be eaten by the locusts. The locusts will eat all the leaves from every tree in the field. 6 The locusts will fill all your houses, and all your officials’ houses, and all the houses in Egypt. There will be more locusts than your fathers or your grandfathers ever saw. There will be more locusts than there have ever been since people began living in Egypt.” Then Moses turned and left Pharaoh.

7 Then the officials asked Pharaoh, “How long will we be trapped by these people. Let the men go to worship the Lord their God. If you don’t let them go, then before you know it, Egypt will be destroyed!”

8 So Pharaoh told his officials to bring Moses and Aaron back to him. Pharaoh said to them, “Go and worship the Lord your God. But tell me, exactly who is going?”

9 Moses answered, “All of our people, young and old, will go. And we will take our sons and daughters, and our sheep and cattle with us. We will all go because the Lord’s feast is for all of us.”

10 Pharaoh said to them, “The Lord really will have to be with you before I let you and all of your children leave Egypt. Look, you are planning something bad. 11 The men can go worship the Lord. That is what you asked for in the beginning. But all of your people can’t go.” Then Pharaoh sent Moses and Aaron away.

12 The Lord told Moses, “Raise your arm over the land of Egypt and the locusts will come! The locusts will spread all over the land of Egypt. The locusts will eat all the plants that the hail did not destroy.”

13 So Moses raised his walking stick over the land of Egypt, and the Lord caused a strong wind to blow from the east. The wind blew all that day and night. When morning came, the wind had brought the locusts to the land of Egypt.

14 The locusts flew into the country of Egypt and landed on the ground. There were more locusts than there had ever been in Egypt. And there will never again be that many locusts there. 15 The locusts covered the ground, and the whole country became dark. The locusts ate every plant on the ground and all of the fruit in the trees that the hail had not destroyed. There weren’t any leaves left on any of the trees or plants anywhere in Egypt.

16 Pharaoh quickly called for Moses and Aaron. Pharaoh said, “I have sinned against the Lord your God and against you. 17 Now, forgive me for my sins this time. Ask the Lord to remove this ‘death’ (locusts) from me.”

18 Moses left Pharaoh and prayed to the Lord. 19 So the Lord changed the wind. The Lord made a very strong wind blow from the west, and it blew the locusts out of Egypt and into the Red Sea. Not one locust was left in Egypt! 20But the Lord caused Pharaoh to be stubborn again. And Pharaoh did not let the people of Israel go.

The Darkness

21Then the Lord told Moses, “Raise your arm into the air and darkness will cover Egypt. It will be so dark you can feel it!”

22So Moses raised his arm into the air and a cloud of darkness covered Egypt. The darkness stayed in Egypt for three days. None of the people could see each other. And no one got up to go any place for three days. But there was light in all the places where the people of Israel lived.

23Again Pharaoh called for Moses. Pharaoh said, “Go and worship the Lord! You can take your children with you. But you must leave your sheep and cattle here.”

24Moses said, “Not only will we take our sheep and cattle with us, but when we leave, even you will give us offerings and sacrifices for us to use in worshiping the Lord our God!”

25Yes, we will take our animals with us to worship the Lord. Not one hoof will be left behind. We don’t know yet exactly what we will need to worship the Lord. We will learn that only when we get to the place we are going. So we must take all of these things with us.”

26The Lord made Pharaoh stubborn again. So Pharaoh refused to let them go. 27Then Pharaoh told Moses, “Get out of here! I don’t want you to come here again! The next time you come to see me, you will die!”

28Then Moses told Pharaoh, “You are right about one thing. I won’t come to see you again!”

The Death of the Firstborn

11Then the Lord told Moses, “I have one more disaster to bring against Pharaoh and Egypt. After this, he will send you out of Egypt. In fact, he will force you to leave this country. 2You must give this message to the people of Israel: ‘Men and women, you must ask your neighbors to give you things made of silver and gold. 3The Lord will cause the Egyptians to be kind to you. The Egyptian people, even Pharaoh’s own officials, already consider Moses to be a great man.’”

4Moses said to the people, “The Lord says, ‘At midnight tonight, I will go through Egypt, 5and every firstborn son in Egypt will die, from the firstborn son of Pharaoh, the ruler of Egypt, to the firstborn son of the slave girl grinding grain. Even the firstborn animals will die. 6The crying in Egypt will be worse than at any time in the past. And it will be worse than it will ever be in the future. 7But none of the people of Israel will be hurt—not even a dog will bark at them. None of the people of Israel or any of their animals will be hurt. In this way, you will know that I have treated Israel differently from Egypt. 8Then all of these slaves of yours (the Egyptians) will bow down and worship me. They will say, “Leave and take all your people with you.” Then in anger, I will leave Pharaoh.’”

9Then the Lord told Moses, “Pharaoh has not listened to you. Why? So that I could show my great power in Egypt.”

10That is why Moses and Aaron did all these great miracles in front of Pharaoh. And that is why the Lord made Pharaoh so stubborn that he would not let the people of Israel leave his country.

Passover

12While Moses and Aaron were still in Egypt, the Lord spoke to them. The Lord said, “This month will be the first month of the year for you. 3This command is for the whole community of Israel: On the tenth day of this month each person must get one lamb for the people in his house. 4If there are not enough people in his house to eat a whole lamb, then he should invite some of his neighbors to share the meal. There must be enough lamb for everyone to eat. 5The lamb must be a one-year-old male, and it must be completely healthy. This animal can be either a young sheep or a young goat. 6You should watch over the animal until the 14th day of the month. On that day, all the people of the community of Israel must kill these animals at twilight. 7You must collect the blood from these animals. Put the blood on the top and sides of the doorframes of the houses where the people eat this meal.

8On this night, you must roast the lamb and eat all of the meat. You must also eat bitter herbs and bread made without yeast. 9You must not boil the lamb in water. You must roast the whole lamb over a fire. The lamb must still have its head, legs, and inner parts. 10You must eat all of the meat that night. If any of the meat is left until morning, then you must burn that meat in the fire.

11“When you eat the meal, you must be fully dressed like you are going on a journey. You must have your shoes on your feet and your walking stick in your hand. You must eat in a hurry. Why? Because this is the Lord’s Passover—the time when the Lord protected his people and led them quickly out of Egypt.

12“Tonight I will go through Egypt and kill every firstborn* man and animal in Egypt. In this way, I will judge all the gods of Egypt. I will show that I am the Lord. 13But the blood on your houses will be a special sign. When I see the blood, I will pass over* your house. I will cause bad things to happen to the people of Egypt. But none of those bad diseases will hurt you.

14“So you will always remember tonight—it will be a special holiday for you. Your descendants* will honor the Lord with this holiday forever. 15On this holiday, you will eat bread made without yeast for seven days. On the first day of this holiday, you will remove all the yeast from your houses. No one should eat any yeast for the full seven days of this holiday. If anyone eats yeast, then you must separate that person from the rest of Israel. 16There will be holy assemblies on the first day and the last day of the holiday. You must not do any work on these days. The only work you can do on these days is prepare the food for your meals. 17You must remember the Festival of Unleavened Bread.* Why? Because on this day I took all of your people out of Egypt in groups. So, all of your descendants* must remember this day. This is a law that will last forever. 18So, on the evening of the 14th day of the first month (Nisan) you will begin eating bread without yeast. You will eat this bread until the evening of the 21st day of the same month. 19For seven days there must not be any yeast in your houses. Any person, either a citizen of Israel or a foreigner, who eats yeast at this time must be separated from the rest of Israel. 20On this holiday, you must not eat any yeast. You must eat bread without yeast wherever you live.”

21So Moses called all the elders (leaders) together. Moses told them, “Get the lambs for your families. Kill the lambs for the Passover. 22Take bunches of hyssop* and dip them in the bowls filled with blood. Paint the blood on the sides and tops of the doorframes. No one must leave his house until morning. 23At the time the Lord goes through Egypt to kill the firstborn, the Lord will see the blood on the sides and tops of the doorframes. Then the Lord will protect* that house. The Lord will not let the Destroyer come into your houses and hurt you.

24“You must remember this command. This law is for you and your descendants* forever. 25You must remember to do this even when you go to the land the Lord is giving you. 26When your children ask you, ‘Why are we doing this ceremony?’ 27you will say, ‘This Passover is to honor the Lord. Why? Because when we were in Egypt, the Lord passed over the houses of Israel. The Lord killed the Egyptians, but he saved the people in our houses. So now the people bow down and worship the Lord.’”

28 The Lord had given this command to Moses and Aaron. So the people of Israel did what the Lord commanded.

29 At midnight, the Lord killed all the firstborn sons in Egypt, from the firstborn son of Pharaoh (who ruled Egypt) to the firstborn son of the prisoner sitting in jail. Also all the firstborn animals died. 30 That night someone died in every house in Egypt. Pharaoh, his officials, and all the people of Egypt began crying very loudly.

Israel Leaves Egypt

31 So that night, Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron. Pharaoh said to them, “Get up and leave my people. You and your people can do as you say. Go and worship the Lord! 32 Take all of your sheep and cattle with you, just like you said you would. Go! And say a blessing for me too!” 33 The people of Egypt also asked them to hurry and leave. Why? Because they said, “If you don’t leave, we will all die!”

34 The people of Israel did not have time to put the yeast in their bread. They just wrapped the bowls of dough with cloth and carried them on their shoulders. 35 Then the people of Israel did what Moses asked them to do. They went to their Egyptian neighbors and asked for clothing and things made from silver and gold. 36 The Lord caused the Egyptians to be kind to the people of Israel. So the Egyptians gave their riches to the people of Israel.

37 The people of Israel traveled from Rameses to Succoth. There were about 600,000 men. This does not include the children. 38 There were many, many sheep, cattle and other things. There were also many different kinds of people traveling with them. These people were not Israelites, but they left Egypt with the people of Israel. 39 The people did not have time to put yeast in their bread. And they did not make any special food for their journey. So they had to bake their bread without yeast.

40 The people of Israel had lived in Egypt for 430 years. 41 After 430 years, to the very day, all the armies of the Lord left Egypt. 42 So that is a very special night when the people remember what the Lord did. All the people of Israel will remember that night forever.

43 The Lord told Moses and Aaron, “Here are the rules for Passover. No foreigner is to eat the Passover. 44 But if a person buys a slave, and if he circumcises him, then the slave can eat the Passover. 45 But if a person just lives in your country, or if a person is only hired to work for you, then that person must not eat the Passover. 46 Passover is for the people of Israel.

47 Each family must eat the meal in one house. None of the food is to be taken outside the house. Don’t break any of the lamb’s bones. 48 The whole community of Israel must do this ceremony. 49 If a non-Israelite lives with you, and if he wants to share in the Lord’s Passover, then he must be circumcised. Then he will be the same as any other citizen of Israel, so he can share in the meal. But if a man is not circumcised, then he cannot eat the Passover meal. The same rules are for everyone. It does not matter if a person is a citizen or a non-Israelite living in your country—the same rules are for everyone.”

50 So all the people of Israel obeyed the commands that the Lord gave to Moses and Aaron. 51 So on that same day, the Lord led all the people of Israel out of the country of Egypt. The people left in groups.

13 Then the Lord said to Moses, “You must give me every male in Israel that is its mother’s first child. That means that every firstborn baby boy and every firstborn male animal will be mine.”

groups Or, “divisions.” This is a military term, and it shows the people were organized as the “army of the Lord.”
Moses said to the people, “Remember this day. You were slaves in Egypt. But on this day the Lord used his great power and made you free. You must not eat bread with yeast. Today, in the month of Abib,* you are leaving Egypt. The Lord made a special promise to your ancestors.* The Lord promised to give you the land of the Canaanite people, the Hittite people, the Amorite people, the Hivite people, and the Jebusite people. After the Lord leads you to the land filled with many good things,* then you must remember this day. You must have a special day of worship on this day during the first month of every year.

For seven days you must eat only bread that has no yeast. On the seventh day there will be a great feast. This feast will show honor to the Lord. So for seven days you must not eat any bread made with yeast. There must be no bread with yeast any place in your land. On this day, you should tell your children, ‘We are having this feast because the Lord took me out of Egypt.’

This holiday will help you remember—it will be like a string tied on your hand. It will be like a sign before your eyes.* This holiday will help you remember the Lord’s teachings. It will help you remember that the Lord used his great power to take you out of Egypt.

Remember this holiday every year at the right time. The Lord will lead you into the land he promised to give you. The Canaanite people now live there. But God promised your ancestors* that he would give you this land. After God gives you this land, you must remember to give him every firstborn boy. And every male animal that is the firstborn must be given to the Lord. Every firstborn donkey can be bought back from the Lord. You can offer a lamb and keep the donkey. If you don’t want to buy the donkey from the Lord, then kill it. It will be a sacrifice*—you must break its neck. But every firstborn baby boy* must be bought back from the Lord.

In the future, your children will ask why you do this. They will say, ‘What does all this mean?’ And you will answer, ‘The Lord used his great power to save us from Egypt. We were slaves in that place. But the Lord led us out and brought us here.’ In Egypt, Pharaoh was stubborn. He refused to let us leave. So the Lord killed every firstborn* in all the land. (The Lord killed the firstborn animals and the firstborn sons.) That is why I give every firstborn male animal to the Lord. And that is why I buy back each of my firstborn sons from the Lord.’ This is like a string tied on your hand. And it is like a sign in front of your eyes. It helps you remember that the Lord brought us out of Egypt with his great power.”

Pharaoh made the people leave Egypt. The Lord did not let the people take the road leading to the land of the Philistines. That road is the shortest way, but the Lord said, “If the people go that way they will have to fight. Then they might change their minds and go back to Egypt.” So he led them another way. He led them through the desert by the Red Sea.* The people of Israel were dressed for war when they left Egypt.

Moses carried the bones of Joseph with him. Before Joseph died, he made the sons of Israel promise to do this for him. Joseph said, “When God saves you, remember to carry my bones with you out of Egypt.”

The people of Israel left Succoth and camped at Etham. Etham was near the desert. The Lord led the way. During the day, the Lord used a tall cloud to lead the people. And during the night, the Lord used a tall column of fire to lead the way. This fire gave them light so they could also travel at night. The tall cloud was always with them during the day, and the column of fire was always with them at night.

Then the Lord said to Moses, “Tell the people to go back to Pi Hahiroth. Tell them to spend the night between Migdol and the Red Sea, near Baal Zephon. Pharaoh will think that the people of Israel are lost in the desert. And he will think that the people will have no place to go. I will make Pharaoh brave, and he will chase you. But I will defeat Pharaoh and his army. This will bring honor to me. Then the people of Egypt will know that I am the Lord.” The people of Israel obeyed God—they did what he told them.

Pharaoh Chases the Israelites

Pharaoh received a report that the people of Israel had escaped. When he heard this, he and his officials changed their minds about what they had done. Pharaoh said, “Why did we let the people of Israel leave? Why did we let them run away? Now we have lost our slaves!”

So Pharaoh prepared his chariot and took his men with him. Pharaoh took 600 of his best men and all of his chariots. There was an officer in each chariot. The people of Israel were leaving with their arms raised in victory. But the Lord caused Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, to become brave. And Pharaoh chased the people of Israel.

The Egyptian army had many horse soldiers and chariots. They chased the people of Israel and caught up with them while they were camped near the Red Sea at Pi Hahiroth, east of Baal Zephon.

The people of Israel saw Pharaoh and his army coming toward them. The people were very scared. They cried to the Lord for help.

The Lord Defeats the Egyptian Army

Then the angel of the Lord moved to the back of the people. (The angel of the Lord was usually at the front of the people, leading them.) So the tall cloud moved from in front of the people and went to the back of the people. In this way the cloud stood between the Egyptians and the people of Israel. There was light for the people of Israel. But there was darkness for the Egyptians. So the Egyptians did not come any closer to the people of Israel that night.

Moses raised his arm over the Red Sea, and the Lord caused a strong wind to blow from the east. The wind blew all night long. The sea split, and the wind made the ground dry. The people of Israel went through the sea on dry land. The water was like a wall on their right and on their left. Then all of Pharaoh’s chariots and horse soldiers followed them into the sea.

They said to Moses, “Why did you bring us out of Egypt? Why did you bring us out here in the desert to die? We could have died peacefully in Egypt—there were plenty of graves in Egypt. We told you this would happen! In Egypt we said, ‘Please don’t bother us. Let us stay and serve the Egyptians.’ It would have been better for us to stay and be slaves than to come out here and die in the desert.”

But Moses answered, “Don’t be afraid! Stand where you are and watch the Lord save you today. You will never see these Egyptians again! You won’t have to do anything but stay calm. The Lord will do the fighting for you.”

Then the Lord said to Moses, “Why are you still crying to me? Tell the people of Israel to start moving. Raise the walking stick in your hand over the Red Sea,* and the sea will split. Then the people can go across on dry land. I have made the Egyptians brave, so they will chase you. But I will show you that I am more powerful than Pharaoh and all of his horses and chariots. Then Egypt will know that I am the Lord. They will honor me when I defeat Pharaoh and his horse soldiers and chariots.”

Lord looked down from the tall cloud and column of fire at the Egyptian army. Then the Lord attacked and defeated them all.

25 The wheels of the chariots became stuck. It was very hard to control the chariots. The Egyptians shouted, “Let’s get out of here! The Lord is fighting against us. The Lord is fighting for the people of Israel.”

26 Then the Lord told Moses, “Raise your hand over the sea to make the water fall and cover the Egyptian chariots and horse soldiers.”

27 So, just before daylight, Moses raised his hand over the sea. And the water rushed back to its proper level. The Egyptians were running as fast as they could from the water, but the Lord swept them away with the sea.

28 The water returned to its proper level and covered the chariots and horse soldiers. Pharaoh’s army had been chasing the people of Israel, but that army was destroyed. None of them survived!

29 But the people of Israel crossed the sea on dry land. The water was like a wall on their right and on their left. So that day, the Lord saved the people of Israel from the Egyptians. And later the people of Israel saw the dead bodies of the Egyptians on the shore of the Red Sea.*

30 The people of Israel saw the great power of the Lord when he defeated the Egyptians. So the people feared and respected the Lord. They began to trust the Lord and his servant Moses.

The Song of Moses

15 Then Moses and the people of Israel began singing this song to the Lord:

“I will sing to the Lord! He has done great things. He threw horse and rider into the sea. The Lord is my strength. He saves me, and I sing songs of praise to him.* The Lord is my God, and I praise him.

The Lord is the God of my ancestors,* and I honor him.

3 The Lord is a great soldier. The Lord is his name.

4 He threw Pharaoh’s chariots and soldiers into the sea. Pharaoh’s very best soldiers drowned in the Red Sea.*

5 The deep water covered them. And they sank to the bottom like rocks.

6 “Your right arm is amazingly strong. Lord, your right arm shattered the enemy. In your great majesty you destroyed the men who stood against you. Your anger destroyed them, like fire burning straw.

7 The wind you sent in anger piled the water high. The flowing water became a solid wall. The sea became solid to its deepest parts.

8 “The enemy said, ‘I’ll chase them and catch them. I’ll take all their riches. I’ll take it all with my sword. I’ll take everything for myself.’

9 But you blew on them and covered them with the sea. They sank like lead into the deep sea.

10 “Are there any gods like the Lord? No! There are no gods like you—You are wonderfully holy! You are amazingly powerful! You do great miracles!

11 But with your kindness you lead the people you saved. And with your strength you lead them to your holy and pleasant land.

12 “The other nations will hear this story, and they will be frightened. The people Philistia will shake with fear.

19 Yes, it really happened! Pharaoh’s horses and riders and chariots went into the sea. And the Lord brought all the water of the sea down on top of them. But the people of Israel walked through that sea on dry land.

He has done great things.
He threw horse and rider into the sea…”

22 Moses led the people of Israel away from the Red Sea and into the Shur desert. They traveled for three days in the desert. The people could not find any water.
23 After three days, the people came to Marah. There was water at Marah, but it was too bitter to drink. (That is why the place was named Marah.)
24 The people began complaining to Moses. The people said, “Now what will we drink?”
25 Moses called to the Lord. So the Lord showed him a tree. Moses put the tree in the water. When he did this, the water became good to drink.

In that place, the Lord judged the people and gave them a law. The Lord also tested the faith of the people.
26 The Lord said, “You must obey the Lord, your God. You must do the things he says are right. If you obey all the Lord’s commands and laws, then you will not be sick like the Egyptians. I, the Lord, will not give you any of the sicknesses I gave the Egyptians. I am the Lord. I am the one who makes you well.”
27 Then the people traveled to Elim. At Elim there were twelve springs of water and 70 palm trees. So the people made their camp there near that water.

16 Then the people left Elim and came to the Sinai desert, between Elim and Sinai. They arrived at that place on the 15th day of the second month after leaving Egypt.
2 Then the people of Israel began complaining again. They complained to Moses and Aaron in the desert.
3 The people said, “It would have been better if the Lord had just killed us in the land of Egypt. At least there we had plenty to eat. We had all the food we needed. But now you have brought us out here into this desert. So he can make us die from hunger.”

4 Then the Lord said to Moses, “I will cause food to fall from the sky. This food will be for you to eat. Every day the people should go out and gather the food they need that day. I will do this to see if the people will do what I tell them.
5 Every day the people will gather only enough food for one day. But on Friday, when the people prepare their food for Saturday, they will see that they have enough food for two days.”

6 So Moses and Aaron said to the people of Israel, “Tonight you will see the power of the Lord. You will know that he is the One who brought you out of Egypt. You complained to the Lord, and he heard you. So tomorrow morning you will see the Glory of the Lord. You have been complaining and complaining to us. Maybe now we can have a little rest.”

8 And Moses said, “You have been complaining, and the Lord has heard your complaints. So tonight the Lord will give you meat. And in the morning you will have all the bread you need. You have been complaining to Aaron and me. But now, maybe we will have a little rest. Remember, you are not complaining against Aaron and me. You are complaining against the Lord.”

9Then Moses said to Aaron, “Speak to all the people of Israel. Say to them, ‘Come together before the Lord, because he has heard your complaints.’”

10Aaron spoke to all the people of Israel. They were all gathered together in one place. While Aaron was talking, all the people turned and looked into the desert. And they saw the Glory of the Lord* appear in a cloud.

11The Lord said to Moses, 12“I have heard the complaints of the people of Israel. So tell them, ‘Tonight you will eat meat. And in the morning you will have all the bread you want. Then you will know you can trust the Lord, your God.’”

13That night, quails (birds) came all around the camp. The people caught these birds for meat. And in the morning dew lay on the ground near the camp. 14After the dew was gone, something like thin flakes of frost was on the ground. 15The people of Israel saw it and asked each other, “What is that?”* They asked this question because they did not know what it was. So Moses told them, “This is the food the Lord is giving you to eat. The Lord says, ‘Each person should gather what he needs. Each of you should gather a basket* for every person in your family.’”

17So the people of Israel did this. Each person gathered this food. Some people gathered more than others. 18The people gave the food to everyone in their family. After the food was measured, there was always enough for every person, but there was never too much. Each person gathered just enough for himself and his family to eat.

19Moses told them, “Don’t save that food to eat the next day.” 20But some of the people did not obey Moses. Those people saved their food for the next day. But worms got into the food and it began to stink. Moses was angry with the people who did this.

21Every morning the people gathered the food. Each person gathered as much as he could eat. But by noon* the food melted and was gone.

22On Friday, the people gathered twice as much food. They gathered 2 baskets* for every person. So all the leaders of the people came and told this to Moses.

23Moses told them, “This is what the Lord said would happen. It happened because tomorrow is the Sabbath, the special day of rest to honor the Lord. You can cook all the food you need to cook for today. But save the rest of this food for tomorrow morning.”

24So the people saved the rest of the food for the next day. And none of the food spoiled. And worms did not get into any of it.

25On Saturday, Moses told the people, “Today is the Sabbath, the special day of rest to honor the Lord. So none of you should be out in the fields. Eat the food you gathered yesterday. 26You should gather the food for six days. But the seventh day of the week is a day of rest—so there will not be any of the special food on the ground.”

27On Saturday, some of the people went out to gather some of the food, but they could not find any. 28Then the Lord said to Moses, “How long will you people refuse to obey my commands and teachings? 29Look, the Lord has made the Sabbath a day of rest for you. So, on Friday the Lord will give you enough food for two days. Then, on the Sabbath, each of you should sit down and relax! Stay where you are.” 30So the people rested on the Sabbath.

31The people began calling the special food “manna.”* The manna was like small white coriander seeds, and it tasted like thin cakes made with honey. 32Moses said, “The Lord said: ‘Save a basket* of this food for your descendants.* Then they can see the food that I gave to you in the desert when I took you out of Egypt.”

33So Moses told Aaron, “Take a jar and fill it with a full basket* of manna. Save this manna to put before the Lord. Save it for our descendants.” 34(Aaron later did what the Lord had commanded Moses. Aaron put the jar of manna in front of the Agreement.*)

35The people ate the manna for 40 years. They ate the manna until they came to the land of rest, that is until they came to the edge of the land of Canaan. (An omer was about 8 cups.*)

17 All the people of Israel traveled together from the desert of Sin. They traveled from place to place as the Lord commanded. The people traveled to Rephidim and camped there. There was no water there for the people to drink.

2So the people turned against Moses and started arguing with him. The people said, “Give us water to drink.”

5Moses said to them, “Why have you turned against me? Why are you testing the Lord? Do you think the Lord is not with us?”

3But the people were very thirsty for water. So they continued complaining to Moses. The people said, “Give us water to drink.”

Moses told the people, “Why have you turned against me? Why are you testing the Lord? Do you think the Lord is not with us?”

6The Lord said to Moses, “Go before the people of Israel. Take some of the elders (leaders) of the people with you. Carry your walking stick with you. This is the stick that you used when you hit the Nile River. I will stand before you on a rock at Horeb (Mount Sinai). Hit that rock with the walking stick and water will come out of it. Then the people can drink.”

Moses did these things and the elders (leaders) of Israel saw it. Moses named that place Meribah* and Massah,* because this was the place that the people of Israel turned against him and tested the Lord. The people wanted to know if the Lord was with them or not.

8At Rephidim the Amalekite people came and fought against the people of Israel. So Moses said to Joshua, “Choose some men and go and fight the Amalekites tomorrow. I will stand on the top of the hill and watch you. I will be holding the walking stick God gave me.”

Joshua obeyed Moses and went to fight the Amalekite people the next day. At the same time, Moses, Aaron, and Hur went to the top of the hill. 11 Any time Moses held his hands in the air, the men of Israel would win the fight. But when Moses put his hands down, the men of Israel began to lose the fight.

12After some time, Moses’ arms became tired. The men with Moses wanted to find a way to keep Moses’ hands in the air. So they put a large rock under Moses for him to sit on. Then Aaron and Hur held Moses’ hands in the air. Aaron was on one side of Moses and Hur was on the other side. They held his hands up like this until the sun went down.

13So Joshua and his men defeated the Amalekites in this battle.

14Then the Lord said to Moses, “Write about this battle. Write these things in a book so people will remember what happened here. And be sure to tell Joshua that I will completely destroy the Amalekite people from the earth.”

15Then Moses built an altar.* Moses named the altar, “The Lord is my flag.” Moses said, “I lifted my hands toward the Lord’s throne. So the Lord fought against the Amalekites, like he always has.”

Advice from Moses’ Father-in-Law

18 Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, was a priest in Midian. Jethro heard about the many ways that God helped Moses and the people of Israel. Jethro heard about the Lord... leading the people of Israel out of Egypt. 2 So Jethro went to Moses while Moses was camped near the mountain of God.* Jethro brought Moses’ wife, Zipporah, with him. (Zipporah was not with Moses, because Moses had sent her home.) 3 Jethro also brought Moses’ two sons with him. The first son was named Gershom,* because when he was born, Moses said, “I am a stranger in a foreign country.” 4 The other son was named Eliezer,* because when he was born, Moses said, “The God of my father helped me and saved me from the king of Egypt.” 5 So Jethro went to Moses while Moses was camped in the desert near the mountain of God (Mount Sinai). Moses’ wife and his two sons were with Jethro.

6 Jethro sent a message to Moses. Jethro said, “This is your father-in-law Jethro. I am bringing your wife and her two sons to you.”

7 So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law. Moses bowed down before him and kissed him. The two men asked about each other’s health. Then they went into Moses’ tent to talk more. 8 Moses told Jethro everything the Lord had done for the people of Israel. Moses told about the things the Lord did to Pharaoh and the people of Egypt. Moses told about all the problems they had along the way. And Moses told his father-in-law how the Lord saved the people of Israel every time there was trouble.

9 Jethro was happy when he heard all the good things the Lord had done for Israel. He was glad that the Lord had freed the people of Israel from the Egyptians. 10 Jethro said, “Praise the Lord!

He freed you from the power of Egypt.
The Lord saved you from Pharaoh.

11 Now I know the Lord is greater than all the gods.
They thought they were in control, but look what God did!”

mountain of God  That is, “Mount Horeb,” also called “Mount Sinai.”

12 Jethro got some sacrifices* and offerings to honor God. Then Aaron and all the elders (leaders) of Israel came to eat with Moses’ father-in-law Jethro. They all ate together there with God.

13 The next day, Moses had the special job of judging the people. There were very many people, so the people had to stand before Moses all day.

14 Jethro saw Moses judging the people. He asked, “Why are you doing this? Why are you the only judge? And why do people come to you all day?”

15 Then Moses said to his father-in-law, “The people come to me and ask me to ask for God’s decision to their problem. 16 If people have an argument, they come to me. I decide which person is right. In this way, I teach the people God’s laws and teachings.”

17 But Moses’ father-in-law said to him, “This isn’t the right way to do this. 18 It is too much work for you to do alone. You can’t do this job by yourself. It wears you out. And it makes the people tired too! 19 Now, listen to me. Let me give you some advice. And I pray God will be with you. You should continue listening to the problems of the people. And you should continue to speak to God about these things. 20 You should teach God’s laws and teachings to the people. Warn them not to break the laws. Tell them the right way to live. Tell them what they should do. 21 But you should also choose some of the people to be judges and leaders.

“Choose good men you can trust—men who respect God. Choose men who will not change their decisions for money. And make these men rulers over the people. There should be rulers over 1,000 people, 100 people, 50 people, and even over ten people. 22 Let these rulers judge the people. If there is a very important case, then they can come to you and let you decide what to do. But they can decide the other cases themselves. In this way, these men will share your work with you and it will be easier for you to lead the people.

23 If you do these things, Lord willing, then you will be still able to do your job. And at the same time, the people can go home with their problems solved.”

24 So Moses did what Jethro told him.
25 Moses chose good men from among the people of Israel. Moses made them leaders over the people. There were rulers over 1,000 people, 100 people, 50 people, and ten people.
26 These rulers were judges for the people. The people could always bring their arguments to these rulers. And Moses had to decide only the most important cases.
27 After a short time, Moses said goodbye to his father-in-law Jethro. And Jethro went back to his own home.

God’s Agreement with Israel
19 The people of Israel reached the Sinai desert in the third month of their trip from Egypt. 2 They had traveled from Rephidim to the Sinai desert. The people of Israel camped in the desert near the mountain (Mount Horeb). 3 Then Moses climbed up the mountain to meet with God. God spoke to him on the mountain and said, “Tell these things to the people of Israel, the great family of Jacob: 4 ‘You people have seen what I can do to my enemies. You saw what I did to the people of Egypt. You saw that I carried you out of Egypt like an eagle and brought you here to me. 5 So now I tell you to obey my commands. Keep my Agreement. If you do this, then you will be my own special people.
The whole world belongs to me. But I am choosing you to be my own special people.
6 You will be a special nation—a kingdom of priests.’ Moses, you must tell the people of Israel what I have said.”

7 So Moses climbed down the mountain and called the elders (rulers) of the people together. Moses told the elders everything the Lord had commanded him to tell them. 8 All the people spoke at the same time and said,
“We will obey everything the Lord says.”

Then Moses went back to God on the mountain. Moses told God that the people would obey him. 9 And the Lord said to Moses, “I will come to you in the thick cloud. I will speak to you. All of the people will hear me talking to you. I will do this so that the people will always believe the things you tell them.”

Then Moses told God all the things the people had said.
10 And the Lord said to Moses, “Today and tomorrow you must prepare the people for a special meeting. The people must wash their clothes 11 and be ready for me on the third day. On the third day the Lord will come down to Mount Sinai. And all the people will see me. 12–13 But you must tell the people to stay away from the mountain. Make a line and don’t let the people cross that line. Any person or animal that touches the mountain must be killed. He must be killed with rocks or shot with arrows. But don’t let anyone touch him. The people must wait until the trumpet blows. Only then can they go up the mountain.”

14 So Moses climbed down the mountain and went to the people. Moses got them ready for the special meeting and they washed their clothes.

15 Then Moses said to the people, “Be ready for the meeting with God in three days. Until that time, the men must not touch the women.”

16 On the morning of the third day, a thick cloud came down onto the mountain. There was thunder and lightning and a very loud sound from a trumpet. All the people in the camp were frightened. 17 Then Moses led the people out of the camp to a place near the mountain to meet God. 18 Mount Sinai was covered with smoke. Smoke rose off the mountain like smoke from a furnace. This happened because the Lord came down to the mountain in fire. Also, the whole mountain began to shake. 19 The noise from the trumpet came louder and louder. Every time Moses spoke to God, God answered him with a voice like thunder.

20 So the Lord came down to Mount Sinai.
The Lord came from heaven to the top of the mountain. Then the Lord called Moses to come up to the top of the mountain with him.
So Moses went up the mountain.

21 The Lord said to Moses, “Go down and warn the people not to come near me and look at me. If they do this, then many people will die. 22 Also tell the priests who will come near me that they must prepare themselves for this special meeting. If they don’t do this, then I will punish them.”

23 Moses told the Lord, “But the people cannot come up the mountain. You yourself told us to make a line and not allow the people to cross the line to holy ground.”

24 The Lord said to him, “Go down to the people. Get Aaron and bring him back with you. But don’t let the priests or the people come near me. I will punish them if they come too close.”

25 So Moses went down to the people and told them these things.

The Ten Commandments

20 Then God said, 2 “I am the Lord* your God. I led you out of the land of Egypt where you were slaves. So you must obey these commands:

3 “You must not worship any other gods except me.

4 “You must not make any idols.* Don’t make any statues or pictures of anything up in the sky or of anything on the earth or of anything down in the water. 5 Don’t worship or serve idols of any kind. Why? Because I, the Lord, am your God. I hate my people worshiping other gods.* People who sin against me become my enemies. And I will punish those people. And I will punish their children, their grandchildren, and even their great-grandchildren. 6 But I will be very kind to people who love me and obey my commands. I will be kind to their families for thousands of generations!*

7 “You must not use the name of the Lord your God in a wrong way. If a person uses the Lord’s name in a wrong way, then that person is guilty. And the Lord will not make him innocent.

8 “You must remember to keep the Sabbath* a special day. 9 Work at your job six days a week. 10 But the seventh day is a day of rest in honor of the Lord your God. So on that day no person should work—not you, your sons and daughters, or your men and women slaves. Even your animals and the foreigners living in your cities must not work! 11 Why? Because the Lord worked six days and made the sky, the earth, the sea, and everything in them. And on the seventh day, God rested. In this way, the Lord blessed the Sabbath—the day of rest. The Lord made that a very special day.

12 “You must honor (respect) your father and your mother. Do this so you will have a full life in the land that the Lord your God gives you.

13 “You must not murder anyone.

14 “You must not do the sin of adultery.*

15 “You must not steal anything.

16 “You must not tell lies about other people.*

17 “You must not want to take your neighbor’s house. You must not want his wife. And you must not want his men and women servants, or his cattle, or his donkeys. You must not want to take anything that belongs to another person!”

The People Are Afraid of God

18 During all this time, the people in the valley heard the thundering and saw the lightning on the mountain. They saw smoke rising from the mountain. The people were afraid, and they shook with fear. They stood away from the mountain and watched.

19 Then the people said to Moses, “If you want to speak to us, then we will listen. But please don’t let God speak to us. If this happens, we will die.”

20 Then Moses said to the people, “Don’t be afraid! The Lord has come to prove that he loves you. He wants you to respect him so that you will not sin.”

21 The people stood away from the mountain while Moses went to the dark cloud where God was. 22 Then the Lord told Moses to say these things to the people of Israel: “You people have seen that I talked with you from heaven. 23 So you must not make idols using gold or silver to compete with me. You must not make these false gods.

24 Make a special altar for me. Use dirt to make this altar. Offer burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on this altar as a sacrifice to me. Use your sheep and your cattle to do this. Do this in every place where I tell you to remember me. Then I will come and bless you. 25 If you use stones to make an altar, then don’t use stones that were cut with an iron tool. If you do that, it will make the altar not acceptable. 26 And you must not make steps leading up to the altar. If there are steps, then when people look up to the altar, they will be able to see under your clothes.”

Other Laws and Commands

21 Then God said to Moses, “These are the other laws that you will give to the people:

2“If you buy a Hebrew slave, then that slave will serve for only six years. After six years he will become free. He will have to pay nothing. 3 If the man is not married when he becomes your slave, then when he becomes free, he will leave without a wife. But if the man is married when he becomes your slave, then he will keep his wife at the time he is made free. 4 If the slave is not married, the master can give him a wife. If that wife gives birth to sons or daughters, then she and her children will belong to the master. After the slave is finished with his years of service, then he will be made free.

5 But maybe the slave will decide that he wants to stay with the master. Then he must say, ‘I love my master. I love my wife and my children. I will not become free—I will stay.’ 6 If this happens, then the master will bring the slave before God. The master will take the slave to a door or the wooden frame around the door. And the master will make a hole through the slave’s ear using a sharp tool. Then the slave will serve that master for all his life.

7 A man might decide to sell his daughter as a slave. If this happens, the rules for making her free are not the same as the rules for making the men slaves free. 8 If the master is not pleased with the woman, then he can sell the woman back to her father. If the master promised to marry the woman, then he loses the right to sell the woman to other people. 9 If the master promised to let the slave woman marry his son, then she must not be treated like a slave. She must be treated like a daughter.

10 If the master marries another woman, then he must not give less food or clothing to the first wife. And he must continue to give her the things she has a right to have in marriage. 11 The man must do these three things for her. If he does not, then the woman is made free, and it will cost her nothing. She owes no money to the man.

12 If a person hits someone and kills him, then that person must be killed too. 13 But if an accident happens, and a person kills someone without planning it, then God allowed that thing to happen. I will choose some special places where people can run for safety. So that person can run to one of those places. 14 But if a person planned to kill another person because he is angry or hates him, then that killer must be punished. Take him away from my altar and kill him.

15 Any person who hits his father or his mother must be killed.

16 If a person steals someone to sell him as a slave or to keep him for his own slave, then that person must be killed.
EXODUS 21:17–22:1 84

17“Any person who curses* his father or his mother must be killed.
18“Two men might argue and one might hit the other with a rock or with his fist. How should you punish that man? If the man who was hurt is not killed, then the man who hurt him should not be killed. 19If the man was hurt and must stay in bed for some time, then the man who hurt him must support him. The man who hurt him must pay for the loss of his time. The man must support him until he is completely healed.
20“Sometimes people beat their men or women slaves. If the slave dies after he is beaten, then the killer must be punished. 21But if the slave does not die and after a few days the slave becomes well, then that person will not be punished.* Why? Because the master paid his money for the slave, and the slave belongs to him.
22“Two men might be fighting and they might hurt a pregnant woman. This might make the woman give birth to her babies before their time. If the woman was not hurt badly,* then the man who hurt her must pay a fine. The woman’s husband will decide how much the man must pay. The judges will help the man decide how much the fine will be. 23But if the woman was hurt badly,* then the man who hurt her must be punished. If a person is killed, then the person who caused it must be killed. You must trade one life for another life. 24You must trade an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand, a foot for a foot, a burn for a burn, a bruise for a bruise, a cut for a cut.
25“If a man hits a slave in the eye, and the slave is blinded in that eye, then the slave will be allowed to go free. His eye is the payment for his freedom. This is the same for a man or a woman slave. 26If a master hits his slave in the mouth, and the slave loses a tooth, then the slave will be allowed to go free. The slave’s tooth is payment for the slave’s freedom. This is the same for a man or a woman slave.
28“If a man’s bull kills a man or woman, then you should use rocks and kill that bull. You should not eat the bull. But the owner of the bull is not guilty. 29But if the bull had hurt people in the past, and if the owner was warned, then the owner is guilty. Why? Because he did not keep the bull tied or locked in its place. So if the bull is allowed to be free and kills someone, then that owner is guilty. You should kill the bull with rocks and also kill the owner. 30But the family of the dead man may accept money. If they accept money, then the man who owned the bull should not be killed. But he must pay as much money as the judge decides.
31“This same law must be followed if the bull kills a person’s son or daughter. 32But if the bull kills a slave, then the owner of the animal must pay the master 30 pieces of silver.* And the bull must also be killed with rocks. This law will be the same for men and women slaves.
33“A man might take a cover off a well or he might dig a hole and not cover it. If another man’s animal comes and falls into that hole, then the man who owns the hole is guilty. 34The man who owns the hole must pay for the animal. But after he pays for the animal, then he will be allowed to keep the body of that animal.
35“If one man’s bull kills another man’s bull, then they should sell the bull that is alive. Both men will get half of the money that comes from selling the bull, and both men will also get half of the bull that was killed. 36But if a man’s bull has hurt other animals in the past, then that owner is responsible for his bull. If his bull kills another bull, then he is guilty because he allowed the bull to be free. That man must pay bull for bull. He must trade his bull for the bull that was killed.
22“How should you punish a man who steals a bull or a sheep? If the man kills the animal or sells it, then he can’t give it back. So he must pay five bulls for the one he stole. Or, he must pay four sheep for the one he stole.

“If a thief is killed while trying to break into a house at night, then no one will be guilty for killing him. But if this happens during the day, then the person who killed him will be guilty of murder.

“A man might start a fire in his field or vineyard. If he lets the fire spread and it burns his neighbor’s field or vineyard, then he must use his best crops to pay his neighbor for his loss.*

“A man might start a fire to burn thorn bushes on his field. But if the fire grows and burns his neighbor’s crops or the grain growing on the neighbor’s field, then the man that started the fire must pay for the things he burned.

“A man might ask a neighbor to keep some money or other things for him in his neighbor’s house. What should you do if that money or those things are stolen from the neighbor’s house? You should try to find the thief. If you find the thief, then he must pay twice as much as the things are worth. 8 But if you can’t find the thief, then God will judge if the owner of the house is guilty. The owner of the house must go before God, and God will decide if the person stole something.

What should you do if two men disagree about a bull or a donkey or sheep or clothing or something that is lost. One man says, ‘This is mine,’ and the other says, ‘No, it is mine.’ Both men should go before God. God will decide who is guilty. The person who was wrong must pay the other man twice as much as the thing is worth.

“A person might ask his neighbor to take care of an animal for a short time. It might be a donkey or a bull or a sheep. But what should you do if that animal is hurt or dies or someone takes the animal while no one is looking? 11 That neighbor must explain that he did not steal the animal. If this is true, then the neighbor will promise to the Lord that he did not steal it. The owner of the animal must accept this promise. The neighbor does not have to pay the owner for the animal. But if the neighbor stole the animal, then he must pay the owner for the animal. 13 If wild animals killed the animal, then the neighbor should bring the body as proof. The neighbor will not have to pay the owner for the animal that was killed.

14 “If a man borrows anything from his neighbor, he is responsible for that thing. If an animal is hurt, or if the animal dies, then the neighbor must pay the owner for the animal. The neighbor is responsible, because the owner was not there himself. 15 But if the owner was there with the animal, then the neighbor does not have to pay. Or, if the neighbor was paying money to use the animal for work, then he will not have to pay if the animal dies or is hurt. The money he paid to use the animal will be enough payment.

16 “If a man has sexual relations with a pure young woman who is not married,* then he must marry her. And he must pay her father the full dowry.* 17 If the father refuses to allow his daughter to marry him, then the man must still pay the money. He must pay the full amount for her.

18 “You must not allow any woman to do evil magic. If she does magic, then you must not let her live.

19 “You must not allow any person to have sexual relations with an animal. If this happens, then that person must be killed.

20 “If any person makes a sacrifice* to a false god, then that person should be destroyed. The Lord God is the only one you should make sacrifices to.

married Or, “engaged.” In ancient Israel, many of the rules concerning an engaged woman were the same as the rules for a married woman.

dowry The money a man gave the father of the bride so the man could marry the woman.

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.
21 “Remember, in the past you were foreigners in the land of Egypt. So you should not cheat or hurt any person who is a foreigner in your land.

22 “You must never do anything bad to women whose husbands are dead or to children without parents. 23 If you do anything wrong to those widows or orphans, then I will know it. I will hear about their suffering. 24 And I will be very angry. I will kill you with a sword. Then your wives will become widows. And your children will become orphans.

25 “If one of my people is poor, and you lend him money, then you must not charge him for that money. And you must not force him to pay you quickly. 26 Someone might give you his coat as a promise that he will pay you the money he owes you. But you must give that coat back to him before the sun goes down. 27 If that person doesn’t have his coat, then he will have nothing to cover his body. He will get cold in his sleep. And if he cries to me, I will hear him. I will listen, because I am kind.

28 “You must not curse* God or the leaders of your people.

29 “At harvest time you should give me the first grain and the first juice from your fruit. Don’t wait until late in the year.

30 “Give me your firstborn* sons. Also, give me your firstborn cattle and sheep. Let the firstborn stay with its mother for seven days. Then on the eighth day, give him to me.

31 “You are my special people. So don’t eat the meat from something that was killed by wild animals. Let the dogs eat that dead animal.

32 Don’t tell lies against other people. If you are a witness in court, then don’t agree to help a bad person tell lies.

33 “Don’t do something just because everyone else is doing it. If a group of people are doing wrong, don’t join them. You must not let those people persuade you to do wrong things—you must do what is right and fair.

34 If a poor man is being judged, sometimes people will support him because they feel sorry for him. You must not do that. ♦ Support him only if he is right.

35 If you see a lost bull or donkey, then you must return it to its owner. You must do this even if the owner is your enemy.

36 “If you see an animal that can’t walk because it has too much to carry, you must stop and help that animal. You must help that animal even if it belongs to one of your enemies.

37 You must not let people be unfair to a poor man. He must be judged the same as any other person.

38 Be very careful if you say that a person is guilty of something. Don’t make false charges against a person. Never allow an innocent person to be killed as punishment for something he did not do. Any person who kills an innocent man is evil, and I will not pardon (forgive) that person.

39 If a person tries to pay you to agree with him when he is wrong, don’t accept that payment. A payment like that can blind judges so that they can’t see the truth. And a payment like that can make good people tell lies.

40 You must never do wrong things to a foreigner. Remember, at one time you were also foreigners when you lived in the land of Egypt.

The Special Holidays

10 “Plant seeds, harvest your crops, and work the ground for six years. 11 But the seventh year, don’t use your land. The seventh year must be a special time of rest for the land. Don’t plant anything in your fields. If any crops grow there, then allow the poor people to have it. And allow the wild animals to eat the food that is left. You should do the same with your vineyards and with your fields of olive trees.

12 “Work for six days. Then on the seventh day, rest! This will allow your slaves and other workers a time for rest and relaxation. And your bulls and donkeys will also have a time of rest.

13 “Be sure that you obey all these laws. Don’t worship false gods. You should not even speak their names!
14*You will have three special holidays each year. On these holidays, you will come to my special place to worship me. 15The first holiday will be the Festival of Unleavened Bread. This is like I commanded you. At this time you will eat bread that is made without yeast. This will continue for seven days. You will do this during the month of Abib,* because this is the time when you came out of Egypt. Every person must bring a sacrifice to me at that time.

16*The second holiday will be the Festival of Pentecost. This holiday will be during the early summer time when you begin harvesting the crops you planted in your fields.

17*So three times each year all the men will come to the special place to be with the Lord your Master.

18*When you kill an animal and offer its blood as a sacrifice,* you must not offer bread that has yeast in it. And when you eat the meat from this sacrifice, you must eat all of the meat in one day. Don’t save any of the meat for the next day.

19*When you gather your crops at harvest time, you should bring the first of everything you harvest to the house* of the Lord your God.

20*God said, “I am sending an angel before you. This angel will lead you to the place that I have prepared for you. The angel will protect you. 21Obey the angel and follow him. Don’t rebel against him. The angel will not forgive the wrong things you do to him. He has my power in him. 22*You must obey everything he says. You must do everything that I tell you. If you do this, then I will be with you. I will be against all of your enemies. And I will be an enemy to every person who is against you.”

23*God said, “My angel will lead you through the land. He will lead you against many different people—the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. But I will defeat all of those people.

24*Don’t worship the gods of those people. Don’t ever bow down to those gods. You must never live the way those people live. You must destroy their idols.* And you must break the stones that help them remember their gods.*

25*You must serve the Lord your God. If you do this, I will bless you with plenty of bread and water. I will take away all sickness from you. 26*Your women will all be able to have babies. None of their babies will die at birth. And I will allow you to live long lives.

27*When you fight against your enemies, I will send my great power before you.* I will help you defeat all your enemies. The people that are against you will become confused in battle and run away. 28*I will send the hornet* in front of you. He will force your enemies to leave. The Hivite people, the Canaanite people, and the Hittite people will leave your country. 29*But I will not force all those people out of your land quickly. I will not do this in only one year. The land will be empty if I force the people out too fast. Then all the wild animals would increase and control the land. And they would be much trouble for you. 30*So I will force those people out of your land very slowly. You will continue to move across the land. And wherever you go I will force the other people to leave.

*Month of Abib: Or, “the spring month,” that is, Nisan. This is about March-April.

31“I will give you all the land from the Red Sea to the Euphrates River. The western border will be the Philistine Sea (Mediterranean Sea), and the eastern border will be the Arabian Desert. I will let you defeat the people living there. And you will force all those people to leave.

32“You must not make any agreements with any of those people or their gods. 33Don’t let them stay in your country. If you let them stay, they will be like a trap to you—they will cause you to sin against me. And you will begin worshiping their gods.”

God and Israel Make Their Agreement

24}{God}{ told Moses, “You, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and the 70 elders (leaders) of Israel must come up the mountain and worship me from a distance. 2Then Moses will come close to the Lord by himself. The other men must not come close to the Lord, and the rest of the people must not even come up the mountain.”

3Moses told the people all the rules and commands from the Lord. Then all the people said, “We will obey all the commands that the Lord has given us.”

4So Moses wrote all of the commands of the Lord on a scroll. The next morning, Moses got up and built an altar near the bottom of the mountain. And he set up twelve stones—one for each of the twelve family groups of Israel. 5Then Moses sent young men of Israel to offer sacrifices. These men offered bulls to the Lord as burnt offerings and fellowship offerings.

6Moses saved the blood from these animals. Moses put half of the blood in bowls. And he poured the other half of the blood on the altar.

7Moses read the scroll with the special Agreement written on it. Moses read the Agreement so all the people could hear him. And the people said, “We have heard the laws that the Lord has given us. And we agree to obey them.”

8Then Moses held the bowls full of the blood from the sacrifices. Moses threw that blood on the people. He said, “This blood shows that the Lord has made a special Agreement with you. The laws God gave you explain the Agreement.”

9Then Moses, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and the 70 elders (leaders) of Israel went up the mountain. 10On the mountain, these men saw the God of Israel. God was standing on something that looked like blue sapphires, as clear as the sky! 11All the leaders of Israel saw God, but God did not destroy them. They all ate and drank together.

Moses Goes to Get God’s Law

12The Lord said to Moses, “Come to me on the mountain. I have written my teachings and laws on two flat stones. These teachings and laws are for the people. I will give these flat stones to you.”

13So Moses and his helper, Joshua, went up the mountain of God. 14Moses said to the elders (leaders), “Wait here for us, we will come back to you. While I am gone, Aaron and Hur will rule over you. Go to those men if anyone has a problem.”

Moses Meets with God

15Then Moses went up the mountain. And the cloud covered the mountain. 16The Glory of the Lord came down on Mount Sinai. The cloud covered the mountain for six days. On the seventh day, the Lord spoke to Moses from the cloud. 17The people of Israel could see the Glory of the Lord. It was like a fire burning on top of the mountain.

18Then Moses went higher up the mountain into the cloud. Moses was on the mountain for 40 days and 40 nights.

The Lord said to Moses, “Tell the people of Israel to bring me gifts. Each person must decide in his heart what he wants to give me. Accept these gifts for me. Here is the list of the things that you should accept from the people: gold, silver, and bronze; blue, purple, and red yarn and fine linen; goat hair, ram skins dyed red, and fine leather; acacia wood; oil for the lamps; spices for the anointing oil and spices for the sweet-smelling incense. Also accept onyx stones and other jewels to be put on the Ephod and the Judgment Pouch."

God also said, “The people will build a holy place for me. Then I can live among them. I will show you what the Holy Tent and everything in it should look like. Build everything exactly like I show you.

Use acacia wood and build a special box. This Holy Box must be 2 1/2 cubits long, 1 1/2 cubits wide, and 1 1/2 cubits high. Use pure gold to cover the Box inside and out. Put gold trim around the edges of the Box. Make four gold rings for carrying the Box. Put the gold rings on the four corners, two rings on each side. Then make poles for carrying the Box. Then make two Cherub angels and put them on each end of the cover. Hammer gold to make these angels. Put one angel on one end of the cover, and put the other angel on the other end. Join the angels together with the cover to make one piece. The wings of these angels should spread up toward the sky. The angels should cover the Box with their wings. The angels should face each other, looking toward the cover.

I will give you the Agreement. Put that Agreement in the Box, and put the cover on the Box. When I meet with you, I will speak from between the Cherub angels on the cover that is on the Box of the Agreement. From that place I will give all my commands to the people of Israel.

Make a table from acacia wood. The table must be 2 cubits long, 1 cubit wide, and 1 1/2 cubits high. Use pure gold to cover the Box inside and out. Put gold trim around the Box. These poles should always stay in the rings of the Box. Don’t take the poles out.

Oil for the Lamp

20 Command the people of Israel to bring the best olive oil. Use this oil for the lamp that must be lit each evening. 21 Aaron and his sons will have the job of caring for the lamp. They will go into the first room of the Meeting Tent.* This is outside the room with the Agreement* that is behind the curtain* that separates the two rooms. In this place they will make sure the lamp continues burning before the Lord from evening till morning. The people of Israel and their descendants* must obey this law forever.”

Clothes for the Priests

The Lord said to Moses, “Tell your brother Aaron and his sons, Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar, to come to you from the people of Israel. These men will serve me as priests.

2“Make special clothes for your brother Aaron. These clothes will give him honor and respect. 3There are skilled men among the people who can make these clothes. I have given these men special wisdom. Tell those men to make the clothes for Aaron. These clothes will show that he serves me in a special way. Then he can serve me as a priest.

4These are the clothes the men should make: the Judgment Pouch,* the Ephod,* a blue robe, a white woven robe, a turban* and a sash (belt). The men must make these special clothes for your brother Aaron and his sons. Then Aaron and his sons can serve me as priests. 5Tell the men to use gold threads, fine linen,* and blue, purple and red yarn.

The Judgment Pouch

6“Use gold threads, fine linen,* and blue, purple, and red yarn to make the Ephod.* This must be the work of a very skilled person. 7At each shoulder of the Ephod there should be a shoulder piece. These shoulder pieces should be tied to the two corners of the Ephod.

8“The men will very carefully weave a sash (belt) for the Ephod. This sash must be made the same way as the Ephod—use gold threads, fine linen,* and blue, purple, and red yarn.

9“Take two onyx stones. Write the names of the twelve sons of Israel (Jacob) on these jewels. 10Write six names on one jewel and six names on the other jewel. Write the names in order, from the oldest son to the youngest. 11Cut the names of the sons of Israel on these stones. Do this the way a worker makes a seal.* Put the jewels in gold settings. 12Then put these two jewels on the shoulder pieces of the Ephod. Aaron will wear this special coat when he stands before the Lord. And the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel will be on the Ephod. These jewels will cause God to remember the people of Israel. 13Use fine gold to hold the stones on the Ephod.

14Twist chains of pure gold together like a rope. Make two of these gold chains and fasten them to the gold settings.

The Judgement Pouch

15“Make the Judgment Pouch* for the high priest. Skilled workers should make this pouch like they made the Ephod.* They must use gold threads, fine linen,* and blue, purple, and red yarn. 16The Judgment Pouch should be folded double to make a square pocket. It should be 1 span* long and 1 span wide. 17Put four rows of beautiful jewels on the Judgment Pouch. The first row of jewels should have a ruby, a topaz, and a beryl. 18The second row should have a turquoise, a sapphire, and an emerald. 19The third row should have a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst. 20The fourth row should have a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper. Set all these jewels in gold.

21There will be twelve jewels on the Judgment Pouch—one jewel for each of the sons of Israel (Jacob). Write the name of one of the sons of Israel on each of the stones. Cut these names into each stone like a worker makes a seal.*

22“Make chains of pure gold for Judgment Pouch.* These chains must be braided like a rope. 23Make two gold rings and put them on two corners of the Judgment Pouch. 24Put the two golden chains through the two rings at the corners of the Judgment Pouch. 25Fasten the other ends of the gold chains to the two settings. This will fasten them to the two shoulder pieces of the Ephod* on the front. 26Make two more gold rings and put them on the other two corners of the Judgment Pouch. This will be on the inside edge of the Judgment Pouch next to the Ephod. 27Make two more gold rings and put them on the bottom of the shoulder pieces on the front of the Ephod. Put the gold rings above the sash (belt) of the Ephod. 28Use blue ribbon to tie the rings of the Judgment Pouch to the rings of the Ephod. In this way the Judgment Pouch will rest close to the sash and will be held against the Ephod.

29“When Aaron enters the Holy Place,* he must wear the Judgment Pouch.* In this way he will wear the names of the twelve sons of Israel over his heart. And the Lord will always be reminded of them. 30Put the Urim and Thummim* inside the Judgment Pouch. They will be over Aaron’s heart when he goes before the Lord. So Aaron will always carry with him a way of judging the people of Israel when he is before the Lord.

Other Clothes for the Priests

31“Make a blue robe for the Ephod.* 32Make a hole in the center for the head. And sew a piece of cloth around the edge of this hole. This cloth will be like a collar that keeps the hole from tearing. 33Use blue, purple, and red yarn to make cloth pomegranates.* Hang these pomegranates around the bottom edge of the robe. And hang gold bells between the pomegranates. 34So around the bottom edge of the robe there should be bells and pomegranates. There should be a bell between each pomegranate. 35Aaron will wear this robe when he serves as a priest. The bells will ring as Aaron goes into the Holy Place* to stand before the Lord. And the bells will ring as he leaves the Holy Place. This way Aaron will not die.

36“Make a strip of pure gold and carve words into the gold the way people make a seal.* Write these words: HOLY TO THE LORD. 37 Fasten the gold strip to a blue ribbon. Tie the blue ribbon around the turban.* The gold strip should be on the front of the turban. 38Aaron will wear this on his head. In this way he will remove the guilt if anything is wrong with the gifts of the people of Israel.* These are the gifts the people give to the Lord. Aaron will always wear this on his head so that the Lord will accept the gifts of the people.

39“Use fine linen to make the white woven robe. And use fine linen to make the turban.* The sash (belt) should have designs sewn into it. 40Also make coats, belts, and turbans for Aaron’s sons. This will give them honor and respect. 41Put the clothes on your brother Aaron and his sons. Then pour the special oil on them to make them priests. This will make them holy, and they will serve me as priests.

42“Use linen* to make underclothes for the priests. These underclothes will cover them from the waist to the thighs. 43Aaron and his sons must wear these clothes anytime they enter the Meeting Tent.* They must wear these clothes when they come near to the altar to serve as priests in the Holy Place. If they don’t wear these clothes, then they will be guilty of wrong, and they will have to die. All this should be a law that continues forever for Aaron and all his family after him.”

The Ceremony for Appointing the Priests

29Then the Lord said to Moses, “Now I will tell you what you must do to show that Aaron and his sons serve me in a special way as priests. Find one young bull and two young goats that have nothing wrong with them. 2Then use fine wheat flour without yeast to make bread. And use the same things to make cakes mixed with olive oil. And make small thin cakes spread with oil. 3Put this bread and the cakes in a basket. Then give the basket to Aaron and his sons. 4”Then bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* Wash them with water. 5Put this bread and the cakes in a basket. Then give the basket to Aaron and his sons. At the same time give them the bull and the two rams.

49Then the Lord said to Moses, “Now I will tell you what you must do to show that Aaron and his sons serve me in a special way as priests. Find one young bull and two young goats that have nothing wrong with them. 2Then use fine wheat flour without yeast to make bread. And use the same things to make cakes mixed with olive oil. And make small thin cakes spread with oil. 3Put this bread and the cakes in a basket. Then give the basket to Aaron and his sons. At the same time give them the bull and the two rams.

49Then bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* Wash them with water. 5Put the special clothes on Aaron. Put on him the white woven robe and the blue robe that is worn with the Ephod.* Put the Ephod and the Judgment Pouch* on him. Then tie the beautiful sash (belt) on him. Put the turban* on his head. And put the special crown around the turban. Take the anointing oil* and pour it on Aaron’s head. This will show that Aaron is chosen for this work.

8“Then bring Aaron’s sons to that place. Put the white woven robes on them. Then tie sashes (belts) around their waists. Give them the special hats to wear. At that time they will begin to be priests. They will be priests because of the special law that will continue forever. This is the way you will make Aaron and his sons priests.

9Then bring the bull to that place at the front of the Meeting Tent.* Aaron and his sons must put their hands on the bull’s head. Then kill that bull there at the entrance to the Meeting Tent. The Lord will see this. Then take some of the bull’s blood and go to the altar.* Use your finger to put some blood on the horns of the altar. Pour all the blood that is left at the bottom of the altar. Then take all the fat from inside the bull, the fatty part of the liver, both kidneys, and the fat around them. Burn this fat on the altar.

11Then take the bull’s meat, his skin, and his other parts and go outside your camp. Burn these things there outside the camp. This is an offering to take away the sins of the priests.

12Then tell Aaron and his sons to put their hands on the head of one of the rams. Kill that ram and save the blood. Take these things out of the basket: one loaf of bread, one cake made with oil, and one small thin cake. Give these things to Aaron and his sons. Tell them to hold these things in their hands before the Lord. This will be a special offering to the Lord.
and his sons these parts. Those parts will always belong to the priests when the people of Israel make an offering to the Lord. When they give these parts to the priest, it will be the same as giving them to the Lord.

29“Save those special clothes that were made for Aaron. Those clothes will belong to all his people who live after him. They will wear those clothes when they are chosen to be priests. 30Aaron’s son will become the next high priest after him. That son will wear those clothes seven days when he comes to the Meeting Tent* to serve in the Holy Place.*

31“Cook the meat from the ram* that was used to make Aaron the high priest. Cook that meat in a holy place. 32Then Aaron and his sons must eat the meat at the front door of the Meeting Tent.* And they must also eat the bread that is in the basket. 33These offerings were used to take away their sins when they were made priests. 34If any of the meat from that ram or any of the bread is left the next morning, then it must be burned. You must not eat that bread or the meat because it should be eaten only in a special way at a special time.

35“You must do all these things for Aaron and his sons. You must do them exactly as I told you. The ceremony for appointing them to be priests must continue for seven days. 36You must kill one bull every day for seven days. This will be an offering for the sins of Aaron and his sons. You will use these sacrifices* to make the altar* pure. And pour olive oil on the altar to make it holy. 37You will make the altar pure and holy for seven days. At that time the altar will become most holy. Anything that touches the altar will also be holy.

38“Every day you must make an offering on the altar.* You must kill two lambs that are one year old. 39Offer one lamb in the morning and the other in the evening. 40–41When you kill the first lamb, also offer 8 cups* of fine wheat flour. Mix that flour with 1 quart* of wine as an offering. When you kill the second lamb in the evening, also offer the 8 cups of fine flour. And offer 1 quart* of wine. This is the same as you did in the morning. This will be a food offering for the Lord. When you burn this offering, the Lord will smell it, and it will please him.

42“You must burn these things as an offering to the Lord every day. Do this at the entrance of the Meeting Tent* before the Lord. Continue to do this for all time. When you make the offering, I the Lord will meet you there and speak to you. 43I will meet with the people of Israel at that place. And my Glory* will make that place holy.

44“So I will make the Meeting Tent* holy. And I will make the altar* holy. And I will make Aaron and his sons holy so that they can serve me as priests. 45I will live with the people of Israel. I will be their God. 46The people will know that I am the Lord, their God. They will know that I am the One who led them out of Egypt so I could live with them. I am the Lord, their God.”

The Altar for Burning Incense

30God said to Moses, "Make an altar* from acacia wood. You will use this altar for burning incense.* 2You must make the altar square—1 cubit* long and 1 cubit wide. It must be 2 cubits* high. There will be horns at the four corners. These horns must be made as one piece with the altar. 3Cover the top and all the sides of the altar with pure gold. And put gold trim all around the altar. 4Below this trim there should be two gold rings. There should be two gold rings on opposite sides of the altar. These gold rings will be used with poles to carry the altar.

7Aaron must burn sweet smelling incense on the altar every morning. He will do this when he comes to care for the lamps. He must burn incense again in the evening. This is the time when he checks the lamps in the evenings. So that incense will be burned before the Lord every day forever. 8Don’t use this altar for offering any other kind of incense or burnt offering. Don’t use this altar to offer any kind of grain offering or drink offering.

9Once a year Aaron must make a special sacrifice to the Lord. Aaron will use the blood of the sin offering to erase the sins of the people. Aaron will do this at the horns of this altar. This day will be called the Day of Atonement. This will be a very special day for the Lord.”

The Temple Tax

10The Lord said to Moses, 11“Count the people of Israel so that you will know how many people there are. Every time this is done, every person must make a payment for himself to the Lord. If each person does this, then no terrible thing will happen to the people. 12Every person who is counted must pay 1/2 shekel. (That is 1/2 shekel by the official measure. This shekel weighs 20 gerahs.*) This half shekel is an offering to the Lord. 13Every person who is at least 20 years old will be counted. And every person counted must give the Lord this offering. 14Rich people must not give more than 1/2 shekel. And poor people must not give less than 1/2 shekel. All people will make the same offering to the Lord. This will be a payment for your life. 15Gather this money from the people of Israel. Use the money for the service in the Meeting Tent. This payment will be a way for the Lord to remember his people. They will be paying for their own lives.”

The Washing Bowl

16The Lord said to Moses, 17“Make a bronze bowl and put it on a bronze base. You will use this for washing. Put the bowl between the Meeting Tent and the altar. Fill the bowl with water. 18Aaron and his sons must wash their hands and feet with the water from this bowl. 19Every time they enter the Meeting Tent or come near the altar they must wash with water. This way they will not die. 20And they must wash their hands and their feet so they won’t die. This will be a law that continues forever for Aaron and his people. This law will continue for all Aaron’s people who will live in the future.”

The Anointing Oil

21Then the Lord said to Moses, 22“Find the finest spices. Get 12 pounds of liquid myrrh, half that amount (that is, 6 pounds) of sweet smelling cinnamon, and 12 pounds of sweet smelling cane, 23and 12 pounds of cassia. Use the official measure to measure all these things. Also get 1 gallon of olive oil.

And pour this oil on the lamp and on all its tools. Pour the oil on the incense* altar. 28Also, pour the oil on the altar for burning offerings to God. Pour this oil on everything on that altar. 30“Pour the oil on Aaron and his sons. This will show that they serve me in a special way. Then they can serve me as priests. 31Tell the people of Israel that the anointing oil* is holy—it must always be used only for me. 32No one should use this oil like an ordinary perfume. Don’t make perfume the same way you make this special oil. This oil is holy, and it should be very special to you. 33If anyone makes a perfume like this holy oil, and if he gives it to a foreigner, then that person must be separated from his people.”

Bezalel and Oholiab

31Then the Lord said to Moses, “I have chosen a man from the family group of Judah to do some special work for me. His name is Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur. I have filled Bezalel with the Spirit of God—I have given him the skill and knowledge to do all kinds of things. 4Bezalel is a very good designer. And he can make things from gold, silver, and bronze. 5Bezalel can cut and set beautiful jewels. And he can work with wood. Bezalel can do all kinds of work. 6I have also chosen Oholiab to work with him. Oholiab is the son of Ahisamach from the family group of Dan. And I have given skills to all the other workers so they can make all the things that I have commanded you:

These workers must make all these things the way that I have commanded you.”

The Sabbath

12 Then the Lord said to Moses, 13 “Tell the people of Israel this: ‘You must follow the rules about my special days of rest. You must do this because they will be a sign between you and me for all generations. This will show you that I, the Lord, have made you my special people.

14 “Make the Sabbath* a special day. If a person treats the Sabbath like any other day, then that person must be killed. Any person who works on the Sabbath day must be cut off (separated) from his people. 15 There are six other days in the week for working. But the seventh day is a very special day of rest. That is the special day to honor the Lord. Any person who works during the Sabbath must be killed. 16 The people of Israel must remember the Sabbath and make it a special day. They must continue to do this forever. It is an agreement between them and me that will continue forever. 17 The Sabbath will be a sign between me and the people of Israel forever. The Lord worked six days and made heaven and earth. And on the seventh day he rested and relaxed.’”

18 So the Lord finished speaking to Moses on Mount Sinai. Then the Lord gave him the two flat stones with the Agreement* on them. God used his finger and wrote on the stones.

The Golden Calf

32 The people saw that a long time had passed and Moses had not come down from the mountain. So the people gathered around Aaron. They said to him, “Look, Moses led us out of the land of Egypt. But we don’t know what has happened to him. So make us some gods to go before us and lead us.”

2 Aaron said to the people, “Bring me the gold earrings that belong to your wives, sons, and daughters.”

3 So all the people gathered their gold earrings and brought them to Aaron. 4 Aaron took the gold from the people. Then he used it to make a statue of a calf. Aaron used a chisel to carve the statue, and then he covered it with gold.

Then the people said, “Israel, here are your gods! These are the gods that brought you out of the land of Egypt!”

5 Aaron saw all these things. So he built an altar* in front of the calf. Then Aaron made an announcement. He said, “Tomorrow will be a special feast to honor the Lord.”

6 The people woke up very early the next morning. They killed animals and offered them as burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. The people sat down to eat and drink. Then they got up and had a wild party.

7 At the same time, the Lord said to Moses, “Go down from this mountain. Your people, the people you brought out of the land of Egypt, have done a terrible sin. 8 They have very quickly turned away from the things I commanded them to do. They made a calf from melted gold for themselves. They are worshiping that calf and making sacrifices* to it. The people have said, ‘Israel, these are the gods that led you out of Egypt.’”

9 The Lord said to Moses, “I have seen these people. I know that they are very stubborn people. They will always turn against me. 10 So now let me destroy them in anger. Then I will make a great nation from you.”

11 But Moses begged the Lord his God, “Lord, don’t let your anger destroy your people. You brought these people out of Egypt with your great power and strength. 12 But if you destroy your people, then the Egyptians can say, ‘The Lord planned to do bad things to his people. That is why he led them out of Egypt. He wanted to kill them in the mountains. He wanted to wipe them off the earth.’ So don’t be angry at your people. Please change your mind! Don’t destroy your people. 13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel (Jacob). Those men served you. And...”

you used your name to make a promise to them. You said: 'I will make your people as many as the stars in the sky. I will give your people all this land like I promised. This land will be theirs forever.'"

14So the Lord felt sorry for the people. The Lord did not do the thing that he said he might do—he did not destroy the people.

15Then Moses went down the mountain. Moses had the two flat stones with the Agreement* on them. Those commandments were written on both sides of the stone, front and back. God himself had made those stones. And God himself wrote the commandments on those stones.

16God himself had made those stones. God himself wrote the commandments on those stones.

17While going down the mountain, Joshua heard the noise from the party in camp. Joshua said to Moses, “It sounds like war down in the camp!”

18Moses answered, “It is not the noise of an army shouting for victory. And it is not the noise of an army crying from defeat. The noise I hear is the sound of music.*"

19Moses came near the camp. He saw the golden calf, and he saw the people dancing. Moses became very angry, and he threw the flat stones on the ground. The stones broke into several pieces at the bottom of the mountain.

20Then Moses destroyed the calf that the people had made. He melted it in the fire. Then he ground the gold until it became dust. And he threw the dust in the water. He forced the people of Israel to drink that water.

21Moses said to Aaron, “What did these people do to you? Why did you lead them to do such a bad sin?”

22Aaron answered, “Don’t be angry, sir. You know that these people are always ready to do wrong. The people said to me, ‘Moses led us out of Egypt. But we don’t know what has happened to him. So make us some gods to lead us.’ I told the people, ‘If you have any gold rings, then give them to me.’ The people gave me their gold. I threw the gold into the fire, and out of the fire came this calf!”

23Moses saw that Aaron had let the people lose control. The people were being wild, and all their enemies could see them acting like fools.

24So Moses stood at the entrance to the camp. Moses said, “Any person who wants to follow the Lord should come to me.” And all the people from the family of Levi ran to Moses.

25Then Moses said to them, “I will tell you what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: ‘Every man must get his sword and go from one end of the camp to the other. You must punish these people, even if each man must kill his brother, friends, and neighbors.’"

26The people from the family of Levi obeyed Moses. That day about 3,000 of the people of Israel died. Then Moses said, “The Lord has chosen you today to be the people who will bless your sons and brothers.”

27The next morning Moses told the people, “You have done a terrible sin! But now I will go up to the Lord, and maybe I can do something so he will forgive you for your sin.” So Moses went back to the Lord and said, “Please listen! These people did a very bad sin and made a god from gold. Now, forgive them of this sin! If you will not forgive them, then erase my name from the book you have written.”

28But the Lord said to Moses, “The only people that I erase from my book are the people who sin against me. So now, go down and lead the people where I tell you. My angel will go before you and lead you. When the time comes to punish the people who sinned, then they will be punished.”

30Then the Lord said to Moses, “You and the people you brought out of Egypt must leave this place. Go to the land that I promised to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I promised them that I would give that land to their descendants. So I will send an angel to go with you. He will protect you along the way.”

before you. And I will defeat the Canaanites, the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites the Hivites, and the Jebusites. I will force those people to leave your land. So go to the land filled with many good things. But I will not go with you. You people are very stubborn, and you make me very angry. If I go with you, I might destroy you along the way.

The people heard this bad news and became very sad. And the people stopped wearing jewelry. Why? Because the Lord said to Moses, "Tell the people of Israel, 'You are a stubborn people. I might destroy you even if I travel with you only a short time. So take off all your jewelry while I decide what to do with you.'" So the people of Israel stopped wearing their jewelry at Mount Horeb (Sinai).

The Temporary Meeting Tent

Moses used to take a tent a short way outside the camp. Moses called it "the meeting tent." Any person who wanted to ask something from the Lord would go to the meeting tent outside the camp. Any time Moses went out to the tent, all the people watched him. The people stood at the entrance of their tents and watched Moses until he entered the meeting tent. Whenever Moses went into the tent, the tall cloud would come down and stay at the entrance to the tent. And the Lord would speak with Moses.

So when the people saw the cloud at the entrance of the tent, they would go to the entrance of their own tents and bow down to worship God.

In this way the Lord spoke to Moses face to face. The Lord spoke to Moses like a man speaks with his friend. After speaking with the Lord, Moses would go back to the camp. But his helper always stayed in the tent. This helper was Joshua son of Nun.

Moses Sees the Glory of the Lord

Moses said to the Lord, "You told me to lead these people. But you did not say who you would send with me. You said to me, 'I know you very well, and I am pleased with you.'

If I have truly pleased you, then teach me your ways. I want to know you. Then I can continue to please you. Remember that all these are your people."

The Lord answered, "I myself will go with you. I will lead you."

Then Moses said to the Lord, "If you don’t go with us, then don’t send us away from this place. Also, how will we know if you are pleased with me and these people? If you go with us, then we will know for sure! If you don’t go with us, then I and these people will be no different than any other people on the earth."

Then the Lord said to Moses, "I will do what you ask. I will do this because I am pleased with you and because I know you very well."

Then Moses said, "Now, please show me your Glory."

Then the Lord answered, "I will cause my perfect Goodness to go before you. I am the Lord and I will announce my name so that you can hear it. Why? Because I can show my kindness and love to any person I choose. But you can’t see my face. No person can see me and continue to live.

There is a rock at a place near me. You can stand on that rock. My Glory will pass by that place. I will put you in a large crack in that rock, and I will cover you with my hand while I pass. Then I will take away my hand, and you will see my back. But you will not see my face."

The New Stone Tablets

Then the Lord said to Moses, "Make two more flat stones like the first two that were broken. I will write the same words on these stones that were written on the first two stones. 2 Be ready tomorrow morning and come up on Mount Sinai. Stand before me there on the top of the mountain. 3 No person will be allowed to come with you. No person should even be seen any place on the mountain. Even your herds of animals or flocks of sheep will not be allowed to eat grass at the bottom of the mountain.”
EXODUS 34:2–20

4 So Moses made two more flat stones like the first ones. Then early the next morning he went up Mount Sinai. Moses did everything like the Lord had commanded him. Moses carried the two flat stones with him. 5 After Moses was on the mountain, the Lord came down to him in a cloud. The Lord stood there with Moses, and Moses called the Lord’s name.*

6 The Lord passed in front of Moses and said, “YAHWEH,* the Lord, is the kind and merciful God. The Lord is slow to become angry. The Lord is full of great love. The Lord can be trusted. 7 The Lord shows his kindness to thousands of generations. The Lord forgives* people for the wrong things they do. But the Lord does not forget to punish guilty people. The Lord will punish not only the guilty people, but their children, their grandchildren, and their great-grandchildren will suffer for the bad things those people do.*

8 Then Moses quickly bowed to the ground and worshiped {the Lord}. Moses said, 9 “Lord, if you are pleased with me, then please go with us. I know that these are stubborn people. But forgive us for the bad things we did! Accept us as your people.”

10 Then the Lord said, “I am making this agreement with all of your people. I will do amazing things that have never before been done for any other nation on earth. The people with you will see that I, the Lord, am very great. The people will see the wonderful things that I will do for you. 11 Obey the things I command you today, and I will force your enemies to leave your land. I will force out the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. 12 Be careful! Don’t make any agreement with the people who live in the land where you are going. If you make an agreement with those people, then it will bring you trouble. 13 So destroy their altars.* Break the stones they worship. Cut down their idols.* 14 Don’t worship any other god. I am YAHWEH KANAH—the jealous Lord. That is my name. I am El KANAH—the jealous God.

15 Be careful not to make any agreements with the people who live in that land. If you do this, then you might join them when they worship their gods. Those people will invite you to join them, and you will eat their sacrifices.* 16 You might choose some of their daughters as wives for your sons. Those daughters serve false gods. They might lead your sons to do the same thing.

17 “Don’t make idols.*

18 “Celebrate the Festival of Unleavened Bread. For seven days eat that bread made without yeast like I commanded you before. Do this during the month I have chosen, the month of Abib.* Why? Because that is the month you came out of Egypt.

19 “A woman’s first baby always belongs to me. Even the first animals that are born from your cattle or sheep belong to me. 20 If you want to keep a donkey that is the first born, then you can buy it with a lamb. But if you don’t buy that donkey with a lamb, then you must break the donkey’s neck. You must buy back all of your firstborn* sons from me. No person should come before me without a gift.

Moses called the Lord’s name Literally, “He called on the name of the Lord.” This might mean Moses worshiped the Lord, or it might mean the Lord spoke his name to Moses.

YAHWEH This name, usually translated “Lord,” is like the Hebrew word meaning, “He is” or “He makes things exist.”

21 “You will work for six days. But on the seventh day you must rest. You must rest even during the times of planting and harvesting.

22 “Celebrate the Festival of Weeks. Use the first grain from the wheat harvest for this festival. And in the fall* celebrate the Festival of Harvest.*

23 “Three times each year all your men must go to be with the Master, the Lord, the God of Israel.

24 “When you go into your land, I will force your enemies out of that land. I will expand your borders—you will get more and more land. You will go before the Lord your God three times each year. At that time, no one will try to take your land from you.

25 “Whenever you offer blood from a sacrifice* to me, don’t offer yeast at the same time.

“Don’t leave any of the meat from the Passover* meal until the next morning.

26 “Give the Lord the very first crops that you harvest. Bring those things to the house* of the Lord your God.

27 Never cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.”

28 Then the Lord said to Moses, “Write all the things that I have told you. Those things are the Agreement that I made with you and the people of Israel.”

29 Moses stayed there with the Lord for 40 days and 40 nights. Moses did not eat any food or drink any water. And he (the Lord) wrote the words of the Agreement (the Ten Commandments) on the two flat stones.

Moses’ Shining Face

30 Then Moses came down from Mount Sinai. He carried the two flat stones with the Agreement* on them. Moses’ face was shining because he had talked with the Lord. But Moses did not know this. 30 Aaron and all the people of Israel saw that Moses’ face was shining bright. So they were afraid to go near him. 31 But Moses called to them. So Aaron and all the leaders of the people went to Moses. Moses talked with them. 32 After that, all the people of Israel came near Moses. And Moses gave them the commands that the Lord had given him on Mount Sinai.

33 When Moses finished speaking to the people, he put a covering over his face. 34 Any time Moses went before the Lord to speak with him, Moses took off the covering. Then Moses would come out and tell the people of Israel the things the Lord commanded. 35 The people would see that Moses’ face was shining bright, so Moses would cover his face again. Moses kept his face covered until the next time he went in to speak with the Lord.

Rules About the Sabbath

35 Moses gathered all the people of Israel together. Moses said to them, “I will tell you the things the Lord has commanded you to do:

2 “There are six days for working. But the seventh day will be a very special day of rest for you. You will honor the Lord by resting on that special day. Any person who works on the seventh day must be killed. 3 On the Sabbath* you should not even light a fire in any of the places where you live.”

Things for the Holy Tent

4 Moses said to all the people of Israel, “This is what the Lord commanded: 5 Gather special gifts for the Lord. Each of you should decide in your heart what you will give. And then you should bring that gift to the Lord. Bring gold, silver, and bronze*; 6 blue, purple, and red yarn and fine linen*; goat hair; 7 ram skins dyed red and fine leather; acacia wood; oil for the lamps; spices for the anointing oil and spices for the sweet-smelling incense. Also, bring onyx stones and other jewels to be put on the Ephod and the Judgment Pouch.

All of you people who are skilled workers should make all of the things the Lord commanded: the Holy Tent, its outer tent, and its covering; the hooks, boards, braces, posts, and bases; the Holy Box, its poles, the cover, and the curtain that covers the area where the Box stays; the table and its poles, all the things on the table, and the special bread on the table; the lampstand that is used for light and the things used with the lampstand, the lamps, and oil for the light; the altar for burning incense; the anointing oil and the sweet-smelling incense; the curtain that covers the door at the entrance to the Holy Tent; the altar for burning offerings and its bronze grating, the poles, and all the things used at the altar; the bronze bowl and its base; the curtains around the yard, their posts and bases, and the curtain that covers the entrance to the yard; the pegs used to support the Tent and the wall of curtains around the courtyard, and the ropes that tie to the pegs; and the special woven clothes for the priest to wear in the Holy Place. These are the special clothes for Aaron the priest and his sons to wear. They will wear these clothes when they serve as priests.

The Great Offering from the People

Then all the people of Israel went away from Moses. All the people who wanted to give came and brought a gift to the Lord. These gifts were used for making the Meeting Tent, all the things in the Tent, and the special clothes. All the men and women who wanted to give brought gold jewelry of all kinds. They brought pins, earrings, rings, and other jewelry. They all gave their jewelry to the Lord. This was a special offering to the Lord.

Every person who had fine linen and blue, purple, and red yarn brought it to the Lord. Any person who had goat hair or ram skins dyed red or fine leather brought it to the Lord. Every person who had acacia wood came and gave it to the Lord. Every skilled woman made fine linen and blue, purple, and red yarn. And all the women who were skilled and wanted to help made cloth from the goat hair.

The leaders brought onyx stones and other jewels. These stones and jewels were put on the Ephod and Judgment Pouch of the priest. The people also brought spices and olive oil. These things were used for the sweet-smelling incense, the anointing oil, and the oil for the lamps.

All the people of Israel that wanted to help brought gifts to the Lord. The people gave these gifts freely, because they wanted to. These gifts were used to make all the things the Lord had commanded Moses and the people to make.

Bezalel and Oholiab

Then Moses said to the people of Israel, “Look, the Lord has chosen Bezalel son of Uri, from the family group of Judah. (Uri was the
The Lord filled Bezalel with the Spirit of God—he gave Bezalel special skill and knowledge to do all kinds of things. He can design and make things with gold, silver, and bronze. He can cut and set stones and jewels. Bezalel can work with wood and make all kinds of things. The Lord has given Bezalel and Oholiab special skills to teach other people. (Oholiab was the son of Ahisamach from the family group of Dan.) The Lord has given both of these men special skill to do all kinds of work. They are able to do the work of carpenters and metal workers. They can weave cloth with designs in it from the blue, purple, and red yarn and fine linen. And they are able to weave things with wool.

So, Bezalel, Oholiab and all the other skilled men must do the work the Lord has commanded. The Lord has given these men the wisdom and understanding to do all the skilled work needed to build this holy place. Then Moses called Bezalel and Oholiab and all the other skilled people that the Lord had given special skills to. And these people came because they wanted to help with the work. Moses gave these people all the things the people of Israel had brought as gifts. And they used these things to build God’s holy place. The people continued to bring gifts each morning. Finally, all the skilled workers left the work they were doing on the holy place, and they went to speak to Moses. They said, “The people have brought too much! We have more than we need to finish the work on the Tent!”

Then Moses sent this message throughout the camp: “No man or woman should make anything else as a gift for the holy place.” So the people were forced to stop giving more. The people had brought more than enough things to finish the work of building God’s holy place.

The skilled workers began making the Holy Tent. They made the ten curtains from fine linen and blue, purple, and red yarn. And they sewed pictures of Cherub angels with wings into the curtains. Each curtain was the same size—28 cubits long and 4 cubits wide. The workers joined the curtains together into two groups of curtains. They joined five curtains together to make one group and five curtains together to make the other group. Then they used blue cloth to make loops along the edge of the end curtain of one group. And they did the same on the end curtain in the other group. There were 50 loops on the end curtain in one group, and 50 loops on the end curtain in the other group. The loops were opposite each other. Then they made 50 gold rings to join the two curtains together. So the Holy Tent was joined together into one piece.

Then the workers made another tent to cover the Holy Tent. They used goat hair to make eleven curtains. All the curtains were the same size—30 cubits long and 4 cubits wide. The workers joined five curtains together into one group and six curtains together into another group. They put 50 loops along the edge of the end curtain of one group. And they did the same on the end curtain of the other group. The workers made 50 bronze rings to join the two groups of curtains together to form one tent. Then they made two more coverings for the Holy Tent. One covering was made from ram skins dyed red. The other covering was made from fine leather.

Then the workers made frames from acacia wood to support the Holy Tent. Each frame was 10 cubits long and

1 1/2 cubits* wide. 22There were two side poles joined together with cross pieces to make each frame. Every frame for the Holy Tent was made the same. 23They made 20 frames for the south side of the Holy Tent. 24Then they made 40 silver bases for the frames. There were two bases for each frame—one base for each side pole. 25They also made 20 frames for the other side (the north side) of the Holy Tent. 26They made 40 silver bases for the frames—two bases for each frame. 27They made six more frames for the back (the west side) of the Holy Tent. 28They also made two frames for the corners at the back of the Holy Tent. 29These frames were joined together at the bottom. And at the top a ring held the corner frames together. They did the same for both corners. 30There was a total of eight frames for the west side of the Holy Tent. And there were 16 silver bases—two bases for each frame.

31Then the workers used Acacia wood to make the braces for the frames—five braces for the first side of the Holy Tent,* 32five braces for the other side, and five braces for the back of the Holy Tent (that is, the west side). 33They made the middle brace so that it passed through the frames from one end to the other. 34They covered these frames with gold. Then they used gold to make the rings to hold the braces. And they covered the braces with gold.

35They used fine linen* and blue, purple, and red yarn to make the special curtain {for the entrance to the Most Holy Place}. And they sewed pictures of Cherub angels* into the curtain. 36They made four posts using acacia wood, and they covered the posts with gold. Then they made gold hooks for the posts. And they made four silver bases for the posts. 37Then they made the curtain to cover the entrance to the Tent. They used blue, purple, and red yarn and fine linen to make this curtain. And they wove pictures into it. 38Then they made the five posts and the hooks {for this curtain over the entrance}. They covered the tops of the posts and the curtain rods* with gold. And they made the five bronze* bases for the posts.

The Box of the Agreement

37 Bezalel made the Holy Box* from acacia wood. The Box was 2 1/2 cubits* long, 1 1/2 cubits* wide, and 1 1/2 cubits high. 2He covered the inside and outside of the Box with pure gold. Then he put gold trim around the Box. 3He made four rings of gold and put them on the four corners. These rings were used for carrying the Box. There were two rings on each side. 4Then he made the poles for carrying the Box. He used acacia wood and covered the poles with pure gold. 5He put the poles through the rings on each side of the Box. 6Then he made the cover* from pure gold. It was 2 1/2 cubits long and 1 1/2 cubits wide. 7Then Bezalel hammered gold to make two Cherub angels. He put the Cherub angels* on each end of the cover. 8He put one angel on one end of the cover, and he put the other angel on the other end. The angels were joined together with the cover to make one piece. 9The wings of the angels were spread up toward the sky. The angels covered the Box with their wings. The angels faced each other, looking toward the cover.

The Special Table

10Then he made the table from acacia wood. The table was 2 cubits* long, 1 cubit* wide, and 1 1/2 cubits* high. 11He covered the table with pure gold. He put gold trim around the table. 12Then he made a frame 1 handbreadth* wide around the table. He put

The rings were to hold the poles used to carry the table. 15 Then he used acacia wood to make the poles for carrying the table. He covered the poles with pure gold. 16 Then he made all the things that were used on the table. He made the plates, the spoons, the bowls, and the pitchers from pure gold. The bowls and pitchers are used for pouring [the drink offerings].

The Lampstand

17 Then he made the lampstand. He used pure gold and hammered it to make the base and the shaft.* Then he made flowers, buds, and petals. He joined all these things together into one piece. 18 The lampstand had six branches—three branches on one side and three branches on the other side. 19 Each branch had three flowers on it. These flowers were made like almond flowers with buds and petals. 20 The shaft of the lampstand had four more flowers. They were also made like almond flowers with buds and petals. 21 There were six branches—three branches coming out from each side of the shaft. And there was a flower with buds and petals below each of the three places where the branches joined the shaft. 22 The whole lampstand, with the flowers and branches, was made from pure gold. All this gold was hammered and joined together into one piece. 23 He made seven lamps for this lampstand. Then he made wick trimmers and trays from pure gold. 24 He used 75 pounds* of pure gold to make the lampstand and the things used with it.

The Altar for Burning Incense

25 Then Bezalel used acacia wood to build the altar. This was the altar used for burning offerings. The altar was square. It was 5 cubits* long, 5 cubits wide, and 3 cubits* high. There were four horns on the altar. There was one horn on each corner. These horns were joined together with the altar to make one piece. 26 He covered the top and all the sides and the horns with pure gold. Then he put gold trim around the altar. 27 He made two gold rings for the altar. He put the gold rings below the trim on each side of the altar. These gold rings held the poles for carrying the altar. 28 He made the poles from acacia wood and covered them with gold. 29 Then he made the holy anointing oil.* He also made the pure, sweet-smelling incense.* These things were made the same way that a perfume maker would make them.

The Courtyard Around the Holy Tent
9 Then he made a wall of curtains around the courtyard. On the south side he made a wall of curtains 100 cubits* long. The curtains were made from fine linen.* 10 The curtains on the south side were supported by 20 posts. The posts were on 20 bronze* bases. The hooks for the posts and the curtain rods* were made from silver. 11 The north side of the courtyard also had a wall of curtains 100 cubits long. There were 20 posts with 20 bronze bases. 29More than 26 1/2 tons* of bronze* was given to the Lord. 30That bronze was used to make the bases at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* They also used the bronze to make the altar* and the bronze grating. And the bronze was used to make all the tools and dishes for the altar. 31It was also used to make the bases for the curtains around the courtyard and the bases for the curtains at the entrance. And the bronze was used to make the tent pegs for the Holy Tent* and for the curtains around the courtyard.

The Priests’ Special Clothes

39The workers used the blue, purple, and red yarn to make special clothes for the priest to wear when they served in the Lord’s holy place. They also made the special clothes for Aaron like the Lord had commanded Moses.

The Ephod

2They made the Ephod* from gold thread, fine linen,* and blue, purple, and red yarn. 3(They hammered the gold into thin strips. Then they cut the gold into long threads. And they wove the gold into the blue, purple, and red yarn and fine linen. This was the work of a very skilled person.) 4They made the shoulder pieces for the Ephod. They tied these shoulder pieces to the two corners of the Ephod. 5They wove the sash (belt) and fastened it to the Ephod. It was made the same way as the Ephod—they used gold thread, fine linen and blue, purple, and red yarn, just like the Lord commanded Moses.

6The workers put the onyx stones [for the Ephod] in gold settings. They wrote the names of the sons of Israel on these stones. 7Then they put these jewels on the shoulder pieces of the Ephod.* These jewels were to help God to remember the people of Israel. This was done like the Lord commanded Moses.

The Judgment Pouch

8Then they made the Judgment Pouch.* It was the work of a skilled person, just like the Ephod.* It was made from gold threads, fine linen,* and blue, purple, and red yarn. 9The Judgment Pouch was folded in half to make a square pocket. It was 1 span* long and 1 span wide. 10Then the workers put four rows of beautiful jewels on the Judgment Pouch. The first row had a ruby, a topaz, and a beryl. 11The second row had a turquoise, a sapphire, and an emerald. 12The third row had a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst. 13The fourth row had a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper. All these jewels were set in gold. 14There were twelve jewels on the Judgment Pouch—one jewel for each of the sons of Israel (Jacob). Each stone had the name of one of the sons of Israel carved onto it, like a seal.*

15The workers made two chains from pure gold for the Judgment Pouch.* The chains were braided like a rope. 16The workers made two gold rings and fastened them to two corners of the Judgment Pouch. And they made two gold settings for the shoulder pieces. 17They fastened the gold chains to the rings at the corners of the Judgment Pouch. 18They fastened the other ends of the gold chains to the settings on the shoulder pieces. They fastened these to the front of the Ephod.* 19Then they made two more gold rings and put them on the other two corners of the Judgment Pouch. This was on the inside edge of the Judgment Pouch next to the Ephod. 20They also put two gold rings on the bottom of the shoulder pieces on the front of the Ephod. These rings were near the fastener, just above the hooks, the curtain rods,* and the silver covering for the posts.

* Or, “fasteners.”

EXODUS 39:21–39

21Then they used a blue ribbon and tied the rings of the Judgment Pouch to the rings of the Ephod. In this way the Judgment Pouch would rest close to the sash and would be held tight against the Ephod. They did everything just like the Lord commanded.

Other Clothes for the Priests

22Then they made the robe for the Ephod.* They made it from blue cloth. It was woven by a skilled worker. 23They made a hole in the center of the robe and sewed a piece of cloth around the edge of this hole. This cloth kept the hole from tearing.

24Then they used fine linen* and blue, purple, and red yarn to make the cloth pomegranates.* They hung these pomegranates around the bottom edge of the robe. 25Then they made bells from pure gold. They hung these bells around the bottom edge of the robe between the pomegranates. 26Around the bottom edge of the robe there were bells and pomegranates. There was a bell between each pomegranate. This robe was for the priest to wear when he served the Lord, just like the Lord commanded Moses.

27Skilled workers wove shirts for Aaron and his sons. These shirts were made from fine linen.* 28And the workers made a turban* from fine linen. They also used fine linen to make head bands and underclothes. 29Then they made the sash (belt) from fine linen and blue, purple, and red yarn. Designs were sewn into the cloth. These things were made like the Lord had commanded Moses.

30Then they made the strip of gold for the holy crown. They made it from pure gold. They wrote words into the gold. They wrote these words: HOLY TO THE LORD. 31They fastened the gold strip to a blue ribbon. Then they tied the blue ribbon around the turban* like the Lord had commanded Moses.

Moses Inspects the Holy Tent

32So all the work on the Holy Tent,* that is, the Meeting Tent was finished. The people of Israel did everything exactly like the Lord had commanded Moses. 33Then they showed the Holy Tent to Moses. They showed him the Tent and all the things in it. They showed him the rings, the frames, the braces, the posts, and the bases. 34They showed him the covering of the Tent that was made from ram skins dyed red. And they showed him the covering that was made from fine leather.* And they showed him the curtain that covered the entrance to the Most Holy Place.

35They showed Moses the Box of the Agreement.* They showed him the poles used for carrying the Box and they showed him the cover* for the Box. 36They showed him the table with everything on it and the special bread.* 37They showed him the pure gold lampstand and the lamps on it. And they showed him the oil and all the other things that were used with the lamps. 38They showed Moses the gold altar,* the anointing oil,* the sweet-smelling incense,* and the curtain that covered the entrance to the Tent. 39They showed him the bronze* altar and the bronze screen. They showed him the poles used for carrying the altar. And they showed him all the things that were used on the altar. They showed him the bowl and the base under the bowl.

They showed Moses the wall of curtains around the courtyard with the posts and bases. They showed him the curtain that covered the entrance to the courtyard. They showed him the ropes and the tent pegs. They showed him all the things in the Holy Tent, that is, the Meeting Tent.

Then they showed Moses the clothes that were made for the priests serving in the holy area. They showed him the special clothes for Aaron the priest and his sons. These were clothes for them to wear when they served as priests.

The people of Israel did all this work exactly like the Lord had commanded Moses. Moses looked closely at all the work. Moses saw that the work was done exactly like the Lord had commanded. So Moses blessed them.

Moses Sets Up the Holy Tent

Then the Lord said to Moses, “On the first day of the first month, set up the Holy Tent, that is, the Meeting Tent. Put the Box of the Agreement in the Holy Tent. Cover the Box with the curtain. Then bring in the table. Put the things on the table that should be there. Then put the lampstand in the Tent. Put the lamps on the lampstand in the right places. Put the gold altar for offering incense in the Tent. Put the altar in front of the Box of the Agreement. Then put the curtain at the entrance to the Holy Tent.

“Put the altar for burning offerings in front of the entrance of the Holy Tent, that is, the Meeting Tent. Put the bowl between the Meeting Tent and the altar. Put water in the bowl. Set up the wall of curtains around the courtyard. Then put the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard.

Use the anointing oil and anoint the Holy Tent and everything in it. When you put the oil on these things, you will make them holy. Anoint the altar for burning offerings. Anoint everything on the altar. You will make the altar holy. It will be very holy.

Then anoint the bowl and the base under it. Do this to make those things holy.

Bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Meeting Tent. Wash them with water. Then put the special clothes on Aaron. Anoint him with the oil and make him holy. Then he can serve me as a priest. Then put the clothes on his sons. Anoint the sons in the same way that you anointed their father. Then they can also serve me as priests. When you anoint them, they will become priests. That family will continue to be priests for all time to come.” Moses obeyed the Lord. He did everything that the Lord commanded him.

So the Holy Tent was set up at the right time. It was the first day of the first month during the second year from the time they left Egypt. Moses set up the Holy Tent like the Lord had said. He put the bases down first. Then he put the frames on the bases. Then he put the braces on and set up the posts. After that, Moses put the outer tent over the Holy Tent. Then he put the covering over the outer tent. He did these things like the Lord had commanded.

Moses took the Agreement and put it in the Holy Box. Moses put the poles on the Box. Then he put the cover on the Box. Then Moses put the Holy Box into the Holy Tent. He hung the curtain in the right place to protect it. In this way, he protected the Box of the Agreement, behind the curtain, like the Lord had commanded him. Then Moses put the table in the Meeting Tent. He put it on the north side of the Holy Tent. He put it in the Holy Place, in front of the curtain. 23Then he put the bread on the table before the Lord. He did this like the Lord had commanded him. 24Then Moses put the lampstand in the Meeting Tent. He put the lampstand on the south side of the Tent, across from the table. 25Then Moses put the lamps on the lampstand before the Lord. He did this like the Lord had commanded him.

26Then Moses put the gold altar in the Meeting Tent. He put the altar in front of the curtain. 27Then he burned sweet-smelling incense on the altar. He did this like the Lord had commanded him. 28Then Moses put the curtain at the entrance to the Holy Tent.

29Moses put the altar for burning offerings at the entrance to the Holy Tent, that is, the Meeting Tent. Then Moses offered a burnt offering on that altar. He also offered grain offerings to the Lord. He did these things like the Lord had commanded him.

30Then Moses put the bowl between the Meeting Tent and the altar. Moses put water in the bowl for washing. 31Moses, Aaron, and Aaron’s sons used this bowl to wash their hands and feet. 32They washed themselves every time they entered the Meeting Tent. They also washed themselves every time they went near the altar. They did these things like the Lord commanded Moses.

33Then Moses set up the curtains around the courtyard of the Holy Tent. Moses put the altar in the courtyard. Then he put the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard. So Moses finished all the work that the Lord had given him to do.

The Glory of the Lord

34Then the cloud covered the Meeting Tent and the Glory of the Lord filled the Holy Tent. Moses could not go into the Holy Tent. 35Moses could not go into the Meeting Tent because the cloud had settled on it, and the Glory of the Lord had filled the Holy Tent.

36This was the cloud that showed the people when to move. When the cloud rose from the Holy Tent, the people of Israel would begin to travel. 37But when the cloud stayed on the Holy Tent, the people did not try to move. They stayed in that place until the cloud rose. 38So the cloud of the Lord was over the Holy Tent during the day. And at night, there was a fire in the cloud. So all the people of Israel could see the cloud while they traveled.
